THE SEASON

The 2004 season marks the 80th year of Texas Tech Football on the South Plains. Over that span, the program has 460 wins, 373 losses and 32 ties.

THE GAME

The Red Raiders return home for their first Big 12 game of the season at Jones SBC Stadium. Texas Tech and Nebraska kickoff at 6:10 p.m. Saturday. The game will be nationally televised on TBS (Lubbock Cox Cable Channel 17).

RADIO

The All Sports Radio Network, with its flagship station KKAM 1340-AM, carries the live broadcast of every football game throughout the state of Texas on its 30-station network. Play-by-play man Brian Jensen calls the action with longtime Lubbock broadcasting fixture John Harris as the color analyst. Mark Finkner provides the sideline coverage, while Tim Chambers serves as statistician. Engineer Steve Pitts is in his 15th season.

TELEVISION

The Texas Tech-Nebraska game will be broadcast nationally on TBS at 6:10 p.m. Ron Thulin (play-by-play) and Charles Davis (color analyst) will call the action from Jones SBC Stadium. The game is the fourth consecutive for the Red Raiders on television this season. Each of the last three games were carried by FSN.

GOOD TO BE HOME

Texas Tech opened Big 12 Conference play with back-to-back road games for only the second time since the formation of the league in 1996. Tech faced Texas A&M and Iowa State on the road to open the 2002 league schedule and Kansas and Oklahoma this season.

RED RAIDERS STRONG AT HOME IN CONFERENCE PLAY

Texas Tech holds a 7-1 advantage over its foes in Big 12 Conference home openers. The lone blemish was a 34-31 overtime setback to Kansas in 2001. Overall, the Red Raiders are 21-9 in Big 12 play at Jones SBC Stadium.

HOMECOMING BRINGS OUT THE BEST IN TECH

Texas Tech boasts an all-time record of 44-27-3 in homecoming games, including 11 wins in the last 12 games. The last loss was against Kansas in 2001.

LEACH AGAINST THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

Since the beginning of the 2000 season, head coach Mike Leach's first on the South Plains, Texas Tech has a 17-17 record in Big 12 play. The mark ranks sixth among all league schools during that stretch and is the third-best in the Big 12 South, behind Oklahoma and Texas. Oklahoma has the best record at 29-4, while Baylor falls in at 2-31.

HENDERSON AMONG TECH ELITE

Junior RB Taurean Henderson is one of only three players in school history to record 200 receptions, after catching four passes at Oklahoma last weekend. Henderson's total of 200 ranks third and trails all-time receptions leader Wes Welker (259) and Carlos Francis (216). He set the NCAA freshman record for receptions with 98 in 2002.

TRLICA SETTLING IN

Redshirt freshman placekicker Alex Trlica has found a niche as Tech's starting placekicker. Trlica entered the season second on the depth chart on PAT and field goal duties, but assumed the duties following an injury to Keith Toogood in the opener against SMU. Trlica has connected

LAST TIME OUT: Nebraska 41, Texas Tech 31 // Oct. 20, 2001

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) - The third-ranked Cornhuskers had to rally from a surprising halftime tie to hold off Texas Tech 41-31 and keep next weekend's showdown with No. 2 Oklahoma a battle of unbeaten.

Eric Crouch passed for three touchdowns and ran for another on Nebraska's first drive of the second half as the Huskers regained the lead for good after a 28-28 halftime tie.

He also directed the Huskers on a 43-yard drive in their second possession of the third quarter that led to Josh Brown's 33-yard field goal and gave the Huskers a 10-point lead.

The Red Raiders (3-3, 1-3) finished with 440 yards of offense, 75 more than anyone had gained against Nebraska this season, and gave the Huskers their biggest scare since a 21-7 victory over TCU in the opener.

Nebraska didn't put the game away until the fourth quarter by holding off Tech on two fourth-down plays.

The Huskers, who had led every game at halftime this year, broke a surprising 28-all on Crouch's 7-yard TD run and Brown's 33-yard field goal in Nebraska's first two possessions of the second half.

Kingsbury was 33-of-63 for 353 yards and a touchdown and Wes Welker returned a punt 85 yards for a touchdown.

The Huskers led 28-13 early in the second quarter, but couldn't stop Kingsbury in the second quarter.

Kingsbury was 11-of-18 for 149 yards in the quarter with a 1-yard touchdown pass to Anton Paige that cut Nebraska's lead to 28-20 with 4:41 left in the half.

He then led Tech on an 80 yard drive at the end of the second quarter and tied it with a slant to Paige on the two-point conversion. Williams had brought Tech to 28-26 on a 12-yard run with 3 seconds left in the half.

Tech surprised Nebraska with a 7-0 lead on Welker's 85-yard punt return after the Huskers' first possession. It was the first punt return for a touchdown against Nebraska since last year's game against Notre Dame.

on 19-of-19 extra point attempts and is 4-of-6 on field goals this season, including two against Oklahoma for his first multi-FG game of the season. Toogood has returned and is handling the team's kickoff responsibilities.

SPECIAL TEAMS EXCELLING FOR RED RAIDERS

Ruffin McNeill, in his second season as assistant head coach and special teams coordinator, has put together a solid group of special teams units for the 2004 season. The most notable is the punting team, which ranks second in the Big 12 and 16th nationally with 39.9 net yards per punt. Sophomore P Alex Reyes is among the top punters in the country, averaging 42.5 yards per punt. Reyes has punted 15 times this season with two touchbacks and three placed inside the 20. He also has the second-longest punt of the season among Big 12 teams with a 62 yarder against New Mexico. Additionally, K Keith Toogood has six touchbacks in 15 kickoffs, while freshman K Alex Trlica is 19-of-19 on extra points and 4-of-6 on field goals, including two against Oklahoma for his first multi-FG game of his career.

LEACH PASSING GAME PRODUCES TOP FIVE RECEIVERS IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Since Mike Leach's arrival prior to the 2000 season, the Texas Tech record books have seen continuous changes; especially in the passing and receiving categories. With nine receptions against Oklahoma, senior IR Nehemiah Glover moved into fifth place on the Tech all-time receptions list with 190, making him the fifth player under Leach among the top five. Additionally, four of the top five receiving yardage leaders and career touchdown receptions leaders are Leach players.

CUMBIE RUNS IT UP ON SOONER DEFENSE

Senior QB Sonny Cumbie threw for 369 yards against the vaunted Sooners defense, recording the second-highest total allowed by the defensive unit in the Bob Stoops era (since 1999). By comparison, Cumbie's predecessors, Kliff Kingsbury and B.J. Symons, threw for 187 and 230 yards, respectively, against the Sooners during their senior seasons. Kingsbury also threw for 259, 295 and 234 yards during his freshman, sophomore and junior starts against Oklahoma.

HAVERTY MAKING MOST OF SENIOR SEASON

After spending three seasons behind one of the country's top receiving corps, IR Trey Haverty is not wasting one down of his senior season. Haverty, who entered the season with 33 career receptions, 307 yards and one touchdown, already has 23 receptions for 374 yards and a touchdown this season, including leading the Red Raiders with 98 receiving yards against Oklahoma. Haverty began the season as the backup to Nehemiah Glover at H receiver, but has since moved into the starting lineup at Y receiver. When Glover left the UNM game with an injury in the first half, Haverty stepped and grabbed eight receptions for 117 yards, both career highs at the time. A week later, Haverty found himself in the starting lineup at Y. Against Kansas, Haverty sparked Tech's run of 26 unanswered points with a 32-yard touchdown reception in the closing seconds of the first half. He finished the game as Tech's leading receiver with eight catches and a career-high 143 yards.

TECH DEFENSE TESTS OKLAHOMA

The Texas Tech defense gave the potent Oklahoma offense a major test last Saturday as the Red Raiders held the high-scoring Sooners to just 28 points. The 28 points was the fewest scored by Oklahoma against Texas Tech since the 2000 season when Tech fell to OU by the same score of 28-13. The 28 points was also a season low for the Sooners who came into the game averaging 44.7. The Tech defense held the Sooners to just 372 yards of total offense (down from their average of 502.0) which was their lowest output of the season. Additionally, the 28 points is the fewest the Sooners have scored at home since a 27-11 win over Colorado in 2002.

DEFENSIVE NOTEBOOK

► Despite giving up its first touchdown of the season in the third quarter on Saturday against Oklahoma, the Tech defense continued its solid play in the period. The Red Raiders allowed just 60 yards of total offense in the third quarter including 32 yards on the ground and 28 through the air. The Oklahoma touchdown snapped a three-game streak in which Tech had held its opponent scoreless in the third.

► For the second week in a row, linebacker Mike Smith led the defensive effort as he finished with a game-high 11 tackles. He was responsible for one tackle for loss and a quarterback hurry. Despite playing a different position the last two games (WILL linebacker), Smith has recorded a team-high 17.5 tackles. He has played at the WILL position as an injury has limited the action of Brock Stratton.

► The game against Oklahoma marked the first time this season that the Texas Tech defense has not produced a turnover. It also snapped a nine-game streak in which the Red Raider defense had produced at least one turnover.

► The Texas Tech defense ranks 47th in total defense this week according to the most recent NCAA rankings. Tech is allowing 332.0 yards-per-game and that puts the Red Raiders in ninth place among Big 12 schools.

► The pass defense is allowing 180.2 yards-per-game and that puts the Tech secondary 37th nationally and fifth in the Big 12.

THIRD QUARTER BIG FOR TECH OFFENSE

The Red Raiders have dominated the third quarter this season, out-scoring opponents 61-10 in the frame. The only points Tech has allowed in the third quarter was a field goal to SMU and a touchdown to Oklahoma.

HENDERSON COMES UP BIG IN THE CLUTCH

Junior RB Taurean Henderson showed how effective Tech's running game can be when he broke free on a 70-yard, game-winning touchdown run in the closing minutes against Kansas to put the Red Raiders ahead 31-30. The jaunt was the longest of Henderson's career and the longest under head coach Mike Leach. Henderson also finished the game with a career-high tying 17 rushes and a career-high 169 yards on the ground. He also scored twice, bringing his career rushing touchdown total to 23, six short of sixth place. Henderson has 35 career touchdowns and needs three more to pass Byron Morris and take over fourth place.

TOP RUSHING GAMES UNDER LEACH

Texas Tech's 182-yard rushing day against Kansas marked the fifth-best rushing performance for the Red Raiders since the start of the 2000 season. Tech's 240-yard effort in last season's win over Iowa State is one of two 200-yard rushing games in the last five seasons.

Top 5 Rushing Performances Since 2000

- 240 vs. Iowa State (2003)
- 207 vs. N.C. State (2002)
- 194 vs. Baylor (2001)
- 189 vs. Iowa State (2002)
- 182 vs. Kansas (2004)

HICKS MAKING EARLY STATEMENT

Sophomore WR Jarrett Hicks has emerged as the nation's leading receivers following five games. Hicks, who was the first player in school history with four-straight 100+ receiving yardage games, is averaging a national-leading 143.2 receiving yards per game. Hicks also ranks fifth with 7.8 receptions per game and is one of eight players nationally with a 200-yard receiving game Hicks's 211-yard performance against TCU ranks as the sixth-best single-game total in school history, while his 144.6 all-purpose yards per game ranks 21st nationally. Additionally, he was named the Dallas Morning News Player of the Week (Sept. 20).

EXPERIENCE IN THE TRENCHES

HENDERSON NAMED SBC/BIG 12 CONFERENCE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Junior RB Taurean Henderson was named the SBC Big 12 Conference Offensive Player of the Week after rushing for a career-high 169 yards on a career-high tying 17 carries in Tech's 31-30 win at Kansas. Henderson also scored the game-winning touchdown late in the fourth quarter on a 70-yard jaunt, the longest of his career. Additionally, he was named Dallas Morning News Player of the Week.

DUCKETT, LOPER NAMED TO PRESEASON LOMBARDI AWARD WATCH LIST

Texas Tech senior DE Adell Duckett and senior OT Daniel Loper are among 114 players across the country named to the Lombardi Award Preseason Watch List. A preseason first-team All-Big 12 pick, Duckett led the league in sacks (14) and tackles for loss (23.5) last season, setting school records in both. He also set a school mark with 116 tackles for loss yards. Duckett currently is third on the career sacks list with 25, and is a half sack behind former Tech All-American Montae Reagor in second place. A legitimate candidate for national honors from his left tackle position this season, Loper has 37-career starts to his credit. Loper's tremendous 6-foot-7, 329-pound frame and outstanding work ethic have enabled him to become of the most dominating linemen in school history.

HENDERSON NAMED TO WALKER LIST

Junior RB Taurean Henderson was named to the 2004 Doak Walker Award Preseason Watch List prior to the season. Henderson entered the season with 1,529 rushing yards, 1,244 receiving yards and 29 career touchdowns over the previous two years. He currently has 40 carries for 260 yards and 17 receptions for 67 yards.

HENDERSON AND ANDERSON ON 1,000-1,000 CLUB LIST

In just two seasons as a Red Raider, junior RB Taurean Henderson has joined an elite list of collegiate football players with 1,000 rushing and 1,000 receiving yards during his career. Henderson joins former Tech All-American Donny Anderson (1963-65) on the list of 33 collegiate athletes throughout history who have done so. Henderson is the only active player on the list.

NEW SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Three former Red Raider walk-ons were placed on scholarship during preseason drills. Senior IR Joey Hawkins and redshirt freshman LB Chad Hill were awarded scholarships early in preseason practice, while junior DB Khalid Naziruddin gained a scholarship in the latter part of preseason. Naziruddin transferred from Howard Payne University last season and worked out with the scout team. After starting fall camp down the depth chart at corner, Naziruddin has worked his way up into a starting position on the left side and made his first-career start against SMU.

DEGREES IN HAND

Six Red Raiders on this year's roster are currently enrolled in graduate school. LB Mike Smith, LB Jeremy Woods, IR Trey Haverty, RB Clay McGuire, OG Cody Campbell and QB Sonny Cumbie earned bachelor's degrees within the last year. The total ranks eighth among all Division I schools and is tied with Alabama, Kentucky and Virginia. Tech has the most of all the Big 12 institutions.

SCORING STREAK

Texas Tech is in the middle of an 85-game scoring streak, the second longest in school history. The run began with a 16-13 win over Texas A&M on Oct. 25, 1997, a week after dropping a 29-0 decision to second-ranked Nebraska. The longest streak of 98 games ran from Oct. 17, 1987, to Dec. 29, 1996, when Iowa handed Tech a 27-0 loss in the Alamo Bowl. During its current run, the Red Raiders have scored 10+ in all but four games.

STRONG IN NON-CONFERENCE GAMES

In four seasons under head coach Mike Leach, the Red Raiders are 16-6 in non-conference games, including postseason bowl games. Tech finished this season's non-conference slate with a 2-1 mark.

CAPTAINS

In a vote by their teammates, four Red Raiders were named captains following last Friday's workout. DE Adell Duckett, IR Nehemiah Glover, OT Daniel Loper and LB Mike Smith were chosen by their teammates.

FORMER TECH ASSISTANT RETURNS FOR FOURTH TOUR OF DUTY

Former Texas Tech defensive coordinator Carlos Mainord returned to the staff during the spring as the team's safeties coach. Mainord served on JT King, Jerry Moore and Spike Dykes' coaching staffs during his previous stints on the South Plains. Mainord initially coached at Texas Tech in the 1969 season, serving as the linebackers coach for King. He returned on Moore's staff for the 1984-85 seasons, before coaching defensive backs for Jimmy Johnson at Miami during the 1986 season. Dykes lured Mainord back to Lubbock for the 1987-92 seasons as he coached linebackers and defensive backs. He also was an assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. After leaving Tech in 1992, Mainord spent six seasons with the Chicago Bears, one with the New Orleans Saints, two with the Carolina Panthers and the 2002 season with the St. Louis Rams. In addition to coaching at Texas Tech and the NFL, Mainord also has coaching stops at Ranger Junior College and Rice.

GRAD RATES AMONG NATION'S BEST

Texas Tech's football program boasted an 89 percent graduation rate for the 1998-99 freshman class, which was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association in the spring. For the fourth-straight year, Texas Tech's graduation rate was higher than 70 percent. In addition to Tech, Kansas, Kansas State, Nebraska and Oklahoma State were the only schools from the Big 12 recognized as having graduated 70 percent or higher of the 1998-99 freshman class.

ALONE AT THE TOP

It's been mentioned over and over again that Texas Tech, Kansas State and Nebraska are the only programs in the Big 12 Conference that have achieved bowl eligibility each year since the league's inception in 1996. What you may not know, however, is that Texas Tech is the only program of the 12 member institutions to boast an overall winning record each season since 1996. Others have finished at .500, but none have posted winning marks each of the last eight seasons.

HISTORIC JONES SBC STADIUM

The 2004 season marks the 58th season of Texas Tech football in Jones SBC Stadium. The stadium was opened during the 1947 season and named for then-Tech president Clifford Jones and his wife, Audrey. The named was altered prior to the 2000 season with the addition of "SBC" to the title, due in part to the $20 million donation given to the school for renovations from Southwestern Bell Communications.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mike Leach is one of five Division I head coaches who did not play football collegiately – David Cutcliffe (Mississippi), Dennis Franchione (Texas A&M), Paul Johnson (Navy) and Mark Mangino (Kansas).

GAME NOTES

▶ Texas Tech won the opening kickoff and elected to defer until the second half. Tech has won the opening kickoff now four times this season and elected to defer twice (last against New Mexico).

▶ Saturday's game was televised by Fox Sports Net and was Tech's third televised game of the season.

▶ Senior defensive end Adell Duckett did not play against Oklahoma, snapping a streak of 29 games as a starter. Duckett was hampered all week due to injury suffered against Kansas. Sophomore defensive end Keyunta Dawson made his first career start in replacement of Adell Duckett.

▶ Alex Trlica scored Texas Tech's first points of the game when he connected on a 32-yard field goal with 12:57 remaining in the second quarter. Trlica is now 2-for-2 on the season from the 30-39 yard range and is 4-for-6 on field goals attempts this season. Trlica's field goal at the 9:41 mark in the third quarter was his second of the game and he is now 2-for-2 from the 20-29 yard range.

▶ Junior running back Taurean Henderson's first reception of the game moved him into sole possession of third place on the all-time career reception list at Texas Tech. He surpassed Mickey Peters who had 196 receptions between 2000 and 2003.

▶ The Oklahoma touchdown in the third quarter was the first given up by the Texas Tech defense in the third period this season. The defensive unit had previously allowed just a single field goal in the third quarter of the season opener against SMU.

▶ Senior running back Johnnie Mack scored his second rushing touchdown of the season and his sixth rushing TD of his career. Mack now has nine career touchdowns (rushing and receiving).
