2015 HUSKER OFFENSE

The 2015 Husker offense will feature a new look in the first year under Head Coach Mike Riley and Offensive Coordinator Danny Langsdorf. Nebraska has the talent across the board to continue the versatility Riley's offenses have exhibited throughout his coaching career.

Quarterback Tommy Armstrong Jr. returns after starting the past two seasons. Armstrong has posted 16 victories as the Husker starter and has shown outstanding leadership skills, while possessing the ability to hurt defenses through the air and on the ground. Armstrong accumulated 3,400 yards of total offense as a sophomore, the third-best single-season total in Nebraska history.

A talented group of receivers provide Armstrong with an array of targets in the passing game. Junior Jordan Westerkamp caught 44 passes in 2014, including five touchdowns and has made a habit of making the difficult catches look routine. Sophomore De'Mornay Pierson-El was a dynamic playmaker in his freshman campaign last fall. In addition to being the nation's top punt returner, Pierson-El showed late in the season that he can be a regular threat as a receiver.

A group of talented backs will be called on to replace All-American Ameer Abdullah. Senior Imani Cross and junior Terrell Newby are the most experienced of the Husker backs and have extensive playing experience in their Nebraska careers.

HIGHLIGHTING THE HUSKER OFFENSE

- Tommy Armstrong Jr. accounted for 3,400 yards of total offense in his sophomore season, including four games with more than 300 yards of total offense. He finished the season with a Nebraska bowl-record 422 yards of total offense in the Holiday Bowl.
- Senior I-back Imani Cross has 22 career rushing touchdowns, reaching the end zone on one of every 10 carries over the last 3 seasons.
- Nebraska has had at least one 1,000-yard rusher each of the past six seasons, the longest streak for the Huskers since having a 1,000-yard rusher seven straight years from 1979 to 1985.
- Sophomore place-kicker Drew Brown set a Nebraska freshman scoring record with 101 points in 2014, including a perfect season on PAT attempts.

OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER

Nebraska has long been known for having one of the nation's most explosive offenses. For decades, Nebraska boasted a nation-leading option rushing attack, and in the past decade the Husker offense has featured prolific passers and record-setting receivers, while continuing to produce elite running backs.

Coach Mike Riley and his staff have a history of producing one of the nation's most diversified offensive attacks. At Oregon State, Riley's offenses routinely featured 1,000-yard rushers and receivers and 3,000-yard passers.

RECORD-SETTING PERFORMERS

NEBRASKA

Ameer Abdullah, Nebraska RB, 2011-14

- First at Nebraska, second in Big Ten history and ninth in NCAA history in all-purpose yards.
- Second in school history and 10th in Big Ten history in rushing yardage.

Taylor Martinez, Nebraska QB, 2010-13

- First Husker with 10,000 yards of total offense and 10th in Big Ten history in total offense.
- One of six quarterbacks in FBS history to pass for 6,000 yards and rush for 2,500 yards in a career.

OREGON STATE

Sean Mannion, Oregon State QB, 2011-14

- Pac-12 career leader in passing yards and completions.
- Single-season conference leader with 4,662 passing yards.

Brandin Cooks, Oregon State WR, 2011-13

- 2013 Biletnikoff Award Winner
- Set Pac-12 records with 128 catches and 1,730 yards in 2013.

NEBRASKA

QUARTERBACKS

- In the past 10 seasons, Nebraska quarterbacks have produced eight of the top 10 single-season school marks in total offense.
- Quarterback Tommy Armstrong Jr. (pictured) accounted for 3,400 yards of total offense in 2014, the third-best total in Nebraska history.
- Taylor Martinez completed his Nebraska career in 2013 as the holder of 37 school records, including career passing yards and touchdowns and single-season and career total offense.

- Over the past 10 seasons, Nebraska quarterbacks have produced 19 of the top 20 single-game total offense efforts in school history.

RUNNING BACKS

- Nebraska has had a running back rush for at least 1,000 yards each of the past six seasons. Husker I-backs have 31 1,000-yard rushing seasons in school history.
- A 2014 Doak Walker Award finalist, Ameer Abdullah completed his Nebraska career in 2014 with a third straight 1,000-yard rushing season. He was the first Husker to top 1,000 yards in three seasons.

- Roy Helu Jr. (pictured) rushed for a school-record 307 yards against Missouri in 2007.
- Abdullah, Helu Jr. and Rex Burkhead finished as three of the top six rushers in school history, and are all active in the National Football League.
- Nebraska I-backs have 45 100-yard rushing games in the past five seasons, including four 200-yard games by Abdullah in 2014.

RECEIVERS

- Kenny Bell (pictured) completed his Nebraska career in 2014 as the school's all-time leader in receptions and receiving yards.
- Bell caught at least 40 passes in each of his final three seasons.
- Eight of the top 10 single-season reception totals in Nebraska history have come in the past eight seasons.

- Quincy Enunwa caught a school-record 12 touchdown passes in 2013, including an NCAA record 99-yard touchdown against Georgia in the Gator Bowl. Enunwa had back-to-back 40-catch seasons in 2012 and 2013.

OREGON STATE

QUARTERBACKS

- Riley's quarterbacks at Oregon State produced two of the top six single-season passing totals in Pac-12 history, with Sean Mannion throwing for 4,662 in 2013 and Derek Anderson (pictured) passing for 4,058 in 2003.
- Both Mannion and Anderson rank in the top five in Pac-12 history in career passing yardage.

- Three of Riley's Oregon State quarterbacks are active in the National Football League.
- Six of Oregon State's top 10 season passing totals were set under Riley, including the top four.
- Oregon State had seven 3,000-yard passers in Riley's 14 seasons as head coach.

RUNNING BACKS

- Oregon State running backs Steven Jackson and Jacquizz Rodgers (pictured) both earned multiple All-America awards playing in Riley's offense.
- Rodgers was the 2008 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year, the first freshman in conference history to win the award.
- OSU running backs earned 10 all-conference awards in Riley's 14 seasons as head coach.

- All four 3,000-yard rushers in Oregon State history played under Riley.
- Oregon State running backs had eight 1,000-yard rushing seasons in Riley's Oregon State tenure.

RECEIVERS

- Oregon State receivers have captured two Biletnikoff Awards since 2005—Mike Hass (pictured) in 2005 and Brandin Cooks in 2013. OSU was the only school in the country with two Biletnikoff winners since 2001.

- Three of the top 12 receptions leaders in Pac-12 history played under Riley at Oregon State.
- Two of the top three players in Pac-12 single-season receiving yardage played for Riley and his staff at OSU.

- Seven of the top eight receivers in school history were coached by Riley at Oregon State, including Markus Wheaton, Brandin Cooks, James Rodgers and Mike Hass, who all had at least 220 career receptions.

- Riley-coached receivers at Oregon State produced nine 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

2015 HUSKER DEFENSE

The Nebraska Blackshirts are poised to continue their long-standing tradition of dominance in the 2015 season. The foundation of the 2015 edition of the Blackshirts should be a powerful front four and a deep and talented secondary.

Junior defensive tackle Maliek Collins earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a sophomore in 2014, and appears poised to contend for bigger honors this fall. Fellow junior Vincent Valentine combines with Collins to give Nebraska one of the nation's top defensive tackle tandems. Defensive ends Greg McMullen and Jack Gangwish each have extensive playing experience and help anchor the front four.

In the secondary, junior safety Nate Gerry is poised to continue to progress after a breakout sophomore campaign when he intercepted a team-leading five passes, all in Big Ten play. Gerry is joined in the secondary by senior cornerback Daniel Davie, who started every game last fall and should again play a key role in a stingy pass defense. Gerry and Davie will provide leadership to a secondary that includes an impressive collection of young talent and athleticism.

Lincoln native Josh Banderas is expected to hold down the middle of the Nebraska defense at MIKE linebacker. Banderas is the most veteran player in a young group of linebackers that should continue to progress throughout the 2015 campaign.

The other standout "defensive" player for the 2015 Huskers should be junior punter Sam Foltz. The Nebraska native ranked among the Big Ten's top punters last fall and has regularly shown the ability to flip field position for Nebraska.

HIGHLIGHTING THE HUSKER DEFENSE

- Nebraska returns six defensive players with at least 10 career starts.
- Defensive tackle Maliek Collins is among the Big Ten's top returning players in tackles for loss (14) and sacks (4.5). Collins had nine of his TFL in the season's final six games.
- Safety Nate Gerry intercepted five passes during his sophomore season, all in conference play. Gerry had a takeaway in six of eight Big Ten games and also returned a blocked field goal for a touchdown.
- Nebraska forced at least three turnovers in five games in 2014.
- Nebraska ranked fifth nationally in third-down defensive percentage in 2014, allowing opponents to convert only 30.1% of their third-down attempts into first downs.

BLACKSHIRTS

DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE

One of Nebraska's most well-known traditions is the Blackshirts, the common nickname for the Husker defense. The term originally dates back to the early 1960s and refers to the black jerseys that Nebraska's first-string defenders wear in practice.

With the return of the two-platoon system in college football in 1964, Head Coach Bob Devaney looked for a way to distinguish the defensive units on the practice field. Devaney sent an assistant coach to a local sporting goods store to find "contrast jerseys", a sleeveless pullover that went on top of the players' practice jerseys. While the top offensive unit practiced in red jerseys and the second-string offense worked in green pullovers, the first-string defense wore black and the second string wore contrasting gold jerseys.

The term quickly caught on, then gained momentum during Monte Kiffin's tenure as defensive coordinator in the mid-1970s. The Blackshirts earned national recognition under Charlie McBride, who served as the Huskers' defensive coordinator from 1982 to 1999.

BLACKSHIRT DOMINANCE

"We have a great (defensive) tradition at Nebraska. As a former Blackshirt, it is basically the sense of urgency you play with. That is what it means to be a Blackshirt. It is being able to trust the guy next to you. It is 11 guys getting to the football."

Trev Alberts, 1993 All-American and Butkus Award Winner

- Nebraska has ranked in the top 10 nationally in total defense 22 times since 1964.
- Nebraska has ranked among the top 10 in all four major defensive categories (rush defense, pass defense, total defense and scoring defense) on five occasions, including national title seasons in 1994, 1995 and 1997, and most recently in 2009.
- Nebraska has ranked in the top 10 in scoring defense 23 times since 1964, including leading the nation in scoring defense in 1984 and 2009.
- Opponents have traditionally found moving the ball through the air difficult against the Blackshirts, as the Huskers have ranked in the top 10 in passing defense 18 times in the past five decades.

BLACKSHIRTS IN THE NFL

- Seventeen former Nebraska Blackshirts were on NFL rosters as of June 20, 2015.
- Nebraska has had 17 defensive linemen, 13 linebackers and 20 defensive backs drafted since 1997.
- Twenty-one Blackshirts have been taken in the first four rounds of the NFL Draft since 2000.
- Recent Blackshirts Ndamukong Suh and Lavonte David have earned All-Pro honors during their respective NFL careers.
- Suh was the second overall selection in the 2010 NFL Draft and signed the richest contract ever for a defensive player in March of 2015.

BANKER DEFENSE

"To be a part of that Blackshirt unit you have to do things at a certain level to carry that distinction and have that responsibility. As players enter your program they should all aspire to be a part of that excellence and want that responsibility to continue that tradition."

- Mark Banker, Defensive Coordinator

First-year defensive coordinator Mark Banker has a history of success while working on Mike Riley's defensive staff at Oregon State.

- 70 defensive players at Oregon State earned all-conference honors under Banker's direction
- The 2007 Beaver defense led the nation in rushing defense, while ranking fourth in sacks and eighth in total defense
- 19 Oregon State players coached by Banker have been chosen in the NFL Draft since 2004, including five Beaver defenders taken in the 2009 draft

WINNER

"I will say this: if you can win in Corvallis, Ore. - and Mike Riley did a lot of winning - you can probably win anywhere."

- Big Ten Network analyst Tom Dienhart

- Riley won more games (93) than any other coach in the 118-year history of Oregon State football.
- Riley has won championships at the NAIA, NCAA FBS and professional levels.
- Riley was a cornerback on Alabama's 1973 national championship team.
- In 1982, Riley was the defensive coordinator for a Linfield College team that went 12-0 and won the NAIA national championship.
- Riley coached the Winnipeg Blue Bombers to two Grey Cup titles in his four seasons.
- Riley led Oregon State to a 6-2 record in bowl games, ranking sixth in NCAA history in bowl winning percentage (minimum eight bowls).
- Riley's OSU teams defeated 14 ranked teams in his 14 seasons, including five wins vs. top-10 teams and three victories over opponents ranked in the top five.

OFFENSIVE GENIUS

"I think we throw this term around a lot, but he's as close to an offensive genius as there is."

- National Championship Head Coach Mack Brown

- In 2003 at Oregon State, the Beavers became the first team in NCAA history to have a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,500-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers.
- At Oregon State, Riley helped Sean Manion become the all-time leading passer in the history of the Pac-12 Conference.
- Riley is the only active coach who has had multiple players win the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver.
- Running back Jacquizz Rogers was the 2008 Pac-10 Offensive MVP, becoming the first freshman in conference history to win the award.
- Coached 2 of the 4 all-time leading passers in Pac-12 history.
- Coached 3 of the 8 all-time leading receivers in Pac-12 history.
- Coached 3 of the 12 all-time leading rushers in Pac-12 history.

ROLE MODEL

"I'd go so far to say that Riley is role-modeling what we should all be seeking for ourselves; he's well-liked, well-paid, respected, successful, secure and content."

- ESPN.com columnist Ted Miller

- Riley is about more than winning, as he is driven to positively impact the lives of every student-athlete he coaches.
- Players and coaches alike routinely offer high praise to Riley.
- Former player Brandin Cooks: "Coach Riley really cares about his players on and off the field and wants nothing but the best for them in both areas."
- Former player and Michigan Head Coach Jim Harbaugh: "When you try to think of the top five people you know in this world, there's no doubt about it that Mike Riley is in that top five. He's just a tremendous person."
- Legendary Hall of Fame Coach John Robinson: "If you get to heaven and look around and Mike Riley's not there, you're in the wrong place."

FOOTBALL FACILITIES

The University of Nebraska provides its football student-athletes with every resource needed to be successful, including world-class facilities. All of the football facilities are conveniently located inside the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex, within steps of Memorial Stadium.

LOCKER ROOM

Nebraska's locker room is located immediately adjacent to the strength training, athletic medicine and equipment room facilities. The locker room design allows players ample personal space and storage. Each solid maple locker has a unique ventilation system, and a personalized iPad, allowing student-athletes to stay connected while in the locker room.

HAWKS CHAMPIONSHIP CENTER

The Hawks Championship Center is connected to the Osborne Athletic Complex by an indoor skybridge. The 81,200-square foot Hawks Championship Center provides a full-sized indoor practice field with a FieldTurf playing surface identical to Memorial Stadium. The Huskers also have access to a second indoor facility, the Cook Pavilion, located adjacent the outdoor practice fields.

HISTORICAL DISPLAYS

Nebraska's rich football tradition is on display throughout the Osborne Athletic Complex and Memorial Stadium. Five national championship trophies are prominently displayed in the main lobby of the facility and the Cornhuskers' three Heisman winners and other major award winners are prominently featured.

ED AND JOYANNE GASS PRACTICE FACILITY

The Ed and Joyanne Gass Practice Facility consists of two full-size playing fields, one with FieldTurf and the other with natural grass. The practice fields are connected to the Hawks Championship Center, giving Nebraska three practice fields for maximum efficiency during practice.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL PLAYERS' LOUNGE

Nebraska players have a dedicated lounge to enjoy during their down time. The comfortable lounge area features all the latest technology and includes a display to highlight Nebraska's rich NFL tradition.

HUSKER POWER

The University of Nebraska has long been recognized as being the national leader in the area of strength and conditioning.

Nebraska was the first NCAA school to have a paid strength and conditioning coach, the first to lift weights in-season, the first to hold an official summer conditioning class for student-athletes and the first to offer a degree for strength coaching.

Nebraska football student-athletes train throughout the year in the Ndamukong Suh Strength and Conditioning Center, one of the nation's finest facilities of its kind. Built in 2006, the facility is one of the largest in the country and is a unique, state-of-the-art complex.

The facility gives Husker student-athletes a technological and strategic advantage by combining state-of-the-art strength training innovation with top-notch coaching and programming. The Ndamukong Suh Strength and Conditioning Center contains a field turf agility track adjacent to the strength training equipment allowing for high impact strength programming on different dynamic surfaces.

The strength and conditioning staff consists of five full-time staff members, led by Head Football Strength Coach Mark Philipp. The staff works with Husker football student-athletes teaching proper strength and conditioning techniques, allowing them to reach their maximum potential.

The latest upgrade to the Ndamukong Suh Strength and Conditioning Center took place in the summer of 2015. The facelift nearly doubled the number of lifting platforms and included new equipment and new apparel. The layout changes allow the strength staff to redesign and implement a program that accommodates each individual athlete with the most beneficial exercises in an efficient period of time.

Components considered in the new weight room layout included accommodating a larger number of athletes per group and the time and space required to enhance performance and reduce the risk of injury.

"This incredible facility helped me earn all the honors I was so privileged to receive while I was at Nebraska...There is not a better strength and conditioning program in the country."

Ndamukong Suh, Nebraska All-American (2009)

HUSKERS IN THE NFL

Nebraska has one of the most impressive records of placing players in the National Football League. More than 300 Husker players have went on to NFL careers. Over the past two decades, Nebraska ranks second among Big Ten Conference schools in players selected in the NFL Draft.

As of June 20, Nebraska had 30 players on NFL rosters, including 12 players with four or more years of experience. Nebraska is represented on the rosters of 19 NFL teams.

HUSKER NFL FACTS

- Nebraska had three players selected in the 2015 NFL Draft. Nebraska is the only school in the Common Draft Era (since 1967) to have multiple players taken every year in the NFL Draft.
- Since 1997, Nebraska ranks second in the Big Ten Conference with 84 NFL draftees. In that time, 52 Blackshirt defenders have been picked in the Draft.
- Since 1990, Nebraska has had 28 defensive backs, 20 defensive linemen and 18 offensive lineman chosen in the NFL Draft.
- Nebraska ranks among the nation's leaders with four kickers/punters taken in NFL Draft since 1999.
- Nebraska is regularly among the most represented schools at the NFL Scouting Combine. NU had nine players at the Combine in 2011, the second-most in the country. Nearly every NFL franchise regularly attends the Huskers' Pro Day in Lincoln (right).

HEISMAN TRADITION

Three Nebraska players have been awarded college football's highest individual honor—the Heisman Memorial Trophy. Receiver/returner Johnny Rodgers was Nebraska's first winner in 1972, running back Mike Rozier captured the Heisman in 1983 and quarterback Eric Crouch was awarded the trophy in 2001. In 2009, Ndamukong Suh finished fourth in the Heisman voting and was the first defensive lineman to be a finalist for the award in 15 seasons.

ALL-TIME GREATS

Following the 1949 season, the N Club voted to retire jersey No. 60 in honor of Tom "Train Wreck" Novak's stellar career with the Cornhuskers. Novak, the first Nebraska player to earn this honor, had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice and a 1949 All-American.

For 55 years, Novak was the only NU player to have the distinction of a retired number. In 2004, that finally changed as College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Brown's No. 64 joined Novak's hallowed No. 60 among the only two permanently retired numbers at Nebraska.

All major national award winners at Nebraska automatically have their jerseys retired, but their numbers will still be available to active Huskers.

Nebraska's group of 17 players with retired jerseys certainly ranks among the best in the nation. Huskers who have earned the distinction of jersey retirement include three Heisman Trophy winners (Johnny Rodgers, Mike Rozier, Eric Crouch), eight Outland Trophy winners with nine awards (Larry Jacobson, Rich Glover, Dave Rimington (2), Dean Steinkuhler, Will Shields, Zach Wiegert, Aaron Taylor, Ndamukong Suh), five Lombardi Award winners (Rich Glover, Dave Rimington, Dean Steinkuhler, Grant Wistrom, Ndamukong Suh), one Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award winner (Tommie Frazier), one Davey O'Brien Award winner (Eric Crouch), one Butkus Award winner (Trev Alberts) one Rimington Trophy winner (Dominic Raiola), one Bednarik Award Winner (Ndamukong Suh) and one Nagurski trophy (Ndamukong Suh). Nebraska football has 17 players who have been honored with the distinction of having their jerseys retired. Those players have combined for 23 All-America awards and eight are members of the College Football Hall of Fame.

1993 Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts is one of 17 players with their jersey retired at Nebraska. Alberts is the most recent Husker selected to the College Football Hall of Fame and will be inducted in December.

BOWL TRADITION

Nebraska has long been a regular fixture during the bowl season. The Cornhuskers' 51 bowl appearances rank third in college football history.

HUSKER BOWL FACTS

- Nebraska ranks in the top 10 nationally with 25 victories in bowl games.
- During the past 35 years, Nebraska has played in nine Orange Bowls, five Fiesta Bowls, two Sugar Bowls and one Rose Bowl.
- Nebraska has appeared in 14 different bowl games in its history. The Big Ten Conference has a diverse bowl lineup that includes affiliations with 12 different postseason locations from coast to coast.
- First-year Nebraska Coach Mike Riley has an impressive 6-2 record in bowl games.

Nebraska made its most recent bowl trip to the Holiday Bowl against USC in December of 2014. Quarterback Tommy Armstrong Jr. set a Nebraska bowl record for total offense in the contest. In addition to the game, team activities include a visit to the World Famous San Diego Zoo, Sea World and a Navy & Marine Corps Luncheon aboard the USS Essex.

COVERING THE BOWLS

The images on this page represent the bowl program covers from each of Nebraska's 51 bowl games. The Huskers' rich tradition dates back 75 years to their first bowl appearance in the 1941 Rose Bowl.

MEDIA ATTENTION

Nebraska players and coaches are routinely in the local, regional and national media spotlight. The Huskers are covered by one of the nation's largest media corps on a daily basis.

NEBRASKA IN THE SPOTLIGHT

- As part of the Big Ten media agreements, all Nebraska football games are televised nationally.
- BTN is currently in more than 60 million homes nationwide, with more 70 percent of the viewers outside of the Big Ten Conference footprint. BTN's coverage of Big Ten football includes nearly 50 live games annually, regular studio shows and original programming.
- BTN placed second only to ESPN in college football viewership in 2014.
- The Big Ten Conference also has expansive television deals with ESPN and ABC, giving the conference unmatched national exposure.
- The Huskers' matchup with USC in the 2014 Holiday Bowl garnered the best television ratings for the Holiday Bowl since 2005.
- Nebraska appeared in the first ever television broadcast of a college game by NBC on Sept. 19, 1953. Since then, Nebraska has appeared on TV more than 350 times.
- Nebraska football games can be heard statewide on the Husker Sports Network, and nationally on Huskers.com, SiriusXM and the Tuneln radio app.
- The Husker football program is one of the most followed college sports programs on the web and social media. Approximately 4 million fans per month visit Huskers.com during football season and Nebraska has nearly 600,000 likes on Facebook, and more than 200,000 on Twitter.

Head Coach Mike Riley's introductory press conference was attended by nearly 100 media members and shown nationally on BTN. Since his hiring, Riley has had appearances on ESPN during the Holiday Bowl, took part in ESPN's coverage of the College Football Playoff from the network's studios in Connecticut and made several appearances on BTN.

Husker players are featured prominently throughout the season through local, regional and national media outlets.

"The Nebraska brand has developed in such a way as other names like Oklahoma, Texas, Southern Cal. It's one of those programs that when you put them up against a quality opponent, it's a national game."

Big Ten Conference Commissioner Jim Delany

"There are no words to describe the feeling of making a Tunnel Walk and winning a game in Memorial Stadium. The Tunnel Walk is the single-most exciting part of our games. The anticipation leading up to a football game and that fire you feel in your belly."

Kenny Bell, Nebraska's all-time leading receiver

GAME DAY ATMOSPHERE

Game days at Nebraska are unlike any in college football. Fans line the streets of Lincoln waiting to enter the "Sea of Red," while the marching band parades up Stadium Drive as thousands of red-clad fans look on. The Huskers emerge from the famous "Tunnel Walk" to the sound of "Sirius" and the fans stay at a frenzied pitch until the final play of the game when they graciously cheer for the opposing players as they exit the field.

The Tunnel Walk, which began in 1994, has become an integral part of Memorial Stadium's game-day experience. It was created as a way for fans to share in the excitement of the team emerging from the locker room, something only a few could do before HuskerVision's cameras and big screens came to Memorial Stadium. The sounds of the Alan Parsons Project's "Sirius," and the roar of more than 90,000 frenzied fans rock the stadium as the Huskers burst through the locker room doors and into the tunnel on their way to the Memorial Stadium FieldTurf. For as long as anyone can remember, the Huskers have touched a lucky horseshoe on their way from the locker room to the field. The horseshoe hangs above the door as Nebraska leaves the North Stadium.

"I'll tell you the biggest difference between the state of Nebraska and any other state in football. I think the fan's loyalty, the noise factor that's on the field and the Sea of Red when you look out."

Brent Musburger, ESPN/ABC Commentator

"There is nothing like playing at Memorial Stadium. I don't care what other people say. Everything combined, the atmosphere, the whole town is here. When you are walking through there, you have tears in your eyes because of the sheer adrenaline rush. You can't control it and your eyes start watering and you start shaking."

Spencer Long, Nebraska All-American and Academic All-American

DEVOTED FANS

"No fan base has more passion or dedication. It is ALWAYS about the football at Nebraska. And that's what makes this place a college football Holy Land."

Tom Dienhart, Big Ten Network

Nebraska fans are perhaps the most loyal in college football. The entire state follows the Huskers, along with a truly national fan base. Cornhusker fans have packed Memorial Stadium for every home game since 1962. In 2009, Nebraska celebrated its 300th consecutive home sellout, a NCAA record streak that stands at 340 games entering the 2015 season.

Nebraska has ranked in the top 10 nationally in home attendance the past two seasons, averaging better than 90,000 fans per game in both 2013 and 2014. In 2014, Nebraska had season ticket holders from 49 of 50 states.

Husker fans bring their show on the road as well. Red-clad Nebraska fans have traveled in the tens of thousands to bowl games and road games for decades. Opposing stadiums throughout the Big Ten began to see the invasion of Big Red fans in 2011.

"I think Nebraska fans are the greatest fans in college football, no question in my mind. The enthusiasm here is as good as any place, but the integrity here of the fans is the best in America."

Lee Corso, ESPN College Football Analyst

WALK-ONS

"Loyalty. Motivation. Willingness to Sacrifice."

Tom Osborne, Hall of Fame Coach from 1973 to 1997 and Nebraska's Athletic Director from 2007 to 2012, has used those words to describe Nebraska's walk-on program.

The tradition of the Cornhusker walk-on program is one-of-a-kind in college football. Hundreds of young men from towns in all corners of the state have come to Nebraska with big dreams. Many players have excelled beyond their biggest dreams. Head Coach Mike Riley has embraced the Nebraska walk-on tradition since day one as the Cornhuskers' coach, and he also relied on walk-ons during his tenure at Oregon State.

"Historically, it has been one of the neat things about Nebraska football. The tradition of so many walk-on players and contributions they've made to the program. Believe me, I'm all for it."

Mike Riley, Head Football Coach

FOOTBALL FAMILY

Family. It is a word that is synonymous with Nebraska Football. No one takes more pride in the Nebraska football program than its former players. Head Coach Mike Riley and his staff have connected with Nebraska's former players in their short time leading the Husker program. The family atmosphere of Nebraska football brings together players from all across the United States.

CORNHUSKER FAMILY

- The 2015 Nebraska roster features players from 26 states, plus Canada, including 61 homegrown Huskers. The Husker roster includes at least five players from six additional states.
- Nebraska has signed players from 25 states and Canada in its last four recruiting classes.
- Nebraska's 96 football All-Americans hail from 24 states and the District of Columbia, with homegrown Huskers accounting for 38 All-America awards.
- In its 125-year history, Nebraska letterwinners come from 45 states, Washington D.C. and six foreign countries (Australia, Canada, Finland, South Korea, Germany and Mexico).

“There is no in-state player, no out-of-state player, no walk-on player and no scholarship player. We were all equals when we got here, and we all came here for the same reason – to contribute to something much bigger than all of us. At Nebraska, all lettermen are the same. We’re hundreds of guys who paid the price to be part of one of the greatest traditions in all of college football. And the greatest honor any of us ever achieved was being able to say: ‘I played for Nebraska!’”

Damon Benning, Nebraska I-Back, 1993-96

LETTERWINNERS CLUB N

N CLUB MISSION STATEMENT

Provide opportunities to letterwinners from all sports for connection, engagement and involvement through events, special reunions and communication while supporting the athletic, academic and career success of Husker student-athletes.

N CLUB ADVISORY COUNCIL

Letterwinner alumni meet monthly to provide feedback and assistance with upcoming events insuring a commitment to the N Club mission. Approximately 15 alumni from various sports and generations volunteer to meet with the N Club Director and additional athletic staff.

N CLUB PROGRAMMING/EVENTS

Memorial Stadium N Club Gameday Lounge – located in the southeast corner of Memorial Stadium, letterwinner alums and guests with a gameday ticket can enjoy connecting with fellow Huskers, athletic staff and Student-Athlete Advisory Committee members. Open 90 minutes prior to kickoff through halftime, the lounge features snacks, Pepsi products and flat screens to enjoy other games.

Social Events – The N Club will host several social functions allowing letterwinner alums from all sports the opportunity to come back to campus, see facilities, meet athletic staff and reconnect.

Letterwinner Induction Ceremony – held once each semester, first-time letterwinners are presented with their Husker letter jacket by their Head Coach and a letterwinner alumni. The banquet features comments from past Husker greats along with a special video tribute.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Striving to connect the past with the present, letterwinner alumni are invited back to campus to participate in the annual Student-Athlete Career Fair, Networking Night and Inner Circle Leadership group. Additionally, letterwinner alumni serve as email mentors providing life and career insights. Letterwinner alumni will also have an opportunity to volunteer with current student-athlete leaders for various service projects including a service abroad trip in May.

CHAMPIONSHIP REUNIONS

Championship teams and those finishing at an elite national level are invited back to campus 10 years from the date of the accomplishment. Six teams are scheduled to be honored in 2015 including an event dinner and recognition at a home Husker football game.

Nebraska’s first-time letterwinners were honored at a Letterwinner Induction Ceremony following the 2014 season. The banquet includes letterwinner alumni and comments from past Husker greats.

THE STUDENT-ATHLETE EXPERIENCE

Nebraska Athletics is one of the few self-sustaining intercollegiate athletic programs in the country. In the 2014-15 fiscal year, Nebraska drew more than 1.3 million fans across all sports through the gates of our world-class facilities. This incredible interest and support enables Nebraska Athletics to invest in the student-athlete experience, as well as the overall game-day experience.

Nebraska is a leader in providing all the resources and support necessary for student-athletes to become successful in Academics, Athletics and Life. Nebraska will continue to strategically plan for avenues to strengthen the resources to support more than 600 Husker student-athletes.

LIFE SKILLS

The Husker Life Skills program allows student-athletes to continue their development and impact lives in the community. In 2014-15, Husker student-athletes, such as Zack Darlington, combined for more than 6,500 hours in the community, making an impact on thousands of Nebraskans across the state.

DICK AND PEG HERMAN FAMILY STUDENT LIFE COMPLEX

The Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex provides a comprehensive learning area for many of the Husker student-athletes. The complex houses the Academics, Life Skills and Compliance offices, and the Walter Scott Technology Center.

ENCE

LEWIS TRAINING TABLE

Husker student-athletes have ample places to dine, as the Lewis Training Table is open extended hours for meals, while the North Stadium and Hendricks Training Complexes have areas for supplements for recovery after workouts or for snacks throughout the day.

STRENGTH

Nebraska's strength and conditioning has long been at the forefront of college athletics. Under the direction of Boyd Epley, Nebraska has a staff of 12 strength coaches, including football strength coach Mark Philipp, who creates personalized strength and conditioning programs for Husker student-athletes.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Nebraska's Athletic Medicine facilities rank among the nation's best, while one of the most experienced medical staffs in the nation care for all Husker student-athletes.

In August of 2014, the NCAA Division I Board of Directors restructured how member institutions and conferences, including the Big Ten, govern themselves. Nebraska has a great history and tradition of providing first-class benefits and support to our student-athletes like no other. However, this change in governance, and subsequent legislation, has paved the way for Nebraska to enhance the benefits and experiences for our student-athletes even further. A few examples of these enhanced benefits are:

- All scholarship student-athletes across all sports will have their scholarship calculated based on the full cost of attendance.
- Each student-athlete will receive an Apple MacBook Air laptop computer to enhance their learning opportunities (pictured top left).
- Nebraska has increased resources and support in all academic and performance related areas including but not limited to Academic Services, Life Skills, Athletic Medicine, Athletic Training, Strength and Conditioning, Nutrition and Dining Services (Training Table).
- Nebraska created the first-known post-eligibility benefit program, where each student-athlete, who has graduated and exhausted their athletic eligibility, will have the opportunity to pursue with our support an internship, participate in a study abroad program or attend graduate school.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Nebraska increased its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-America awards to 320, adding six Huskers in 2014-15. Junior guard Shavon Shields (Olathe, Kan., Biological Sciences, 3.767 GPA) became NU's first-ever first-team Academic All-American in men's basketball. Senior sprinter John Welk (Bismarck, N.D., Nutrition Science, 3.996 GPA), who was Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete of the Year, led three first-team CoSIDA Academic All-Americans for the men's track and field program. Welk, who was honored as the Academic All-American of the Year in men's track and field, was joined by Levi Gipson (Lincoln, Neb., Nutrition, Exercise and Health Science, 3.950 GPA) and Drew Wiseman (Bismarck, N.D., Electrical Engineering, 3.959 GPA). Junior gymnast Ethan Lottman (Omaha, Neb., Art, 3.995 GPA) earned second-team Academic All-America status. Sophomore outfielder Ryan Boldt (Red Wing, Minn., Nutrition Science, 3.785 GPA) was a third-team Academic All-American in baseball.

In 2014-15, Lottman was one of three Huskers to win the NCAA Elite 89 Award, presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating at the finals site for each of the NCAA's 89 championship events. Nebraska's other two recipients of the prestigious award were Wiseman and senior thrower Will Lohman (Chewelah, Wash., Criminology and Criminal Justice, 4.000 GPA) who claimed the honors in indoor and outdoor men's track and field, respectively.

Graduation is the ultimate achievement, and 118 Husker student-athletes earned undergraduate and graduate degrees in three commencement exercises at Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2014-15. At the conclusion of the academic year, Nebraska student-athletes posted an impressive 3.155 cumulative GPA.

More than 400 student-athletes were honored at the academic banquet, including 68 gold (3.750 to 4.000 GPA), 61 silver (3.500 to 3.749 GPA) and 140 bronze (3.000 to 3.499 GPA) medallion winners. Six Huskers earned Outstanding Scholar Awards, presented to seniors exhausting their eligibility with a cumulative GPA of 3.900 or better. The honorees included: Mark Hilderbrand (Track and Field, 3.948 GPA); Amanda Lauer (Women's Gymnastics, 3.973 GPA); Jennifer Lauer (Women's Gymnastics, 3.944 GPA); Will Lohman (pictured above, Track and Field, 4.000 GPA); Josh Reinertson (Men's Golf, 3.970 GPA); and John Welk (Track and Field, 3.996 GPA).

Junior forward Shavon Shields (Men's Basketball) became the first Husker men's basketball player to earn first-team Academic All-America honors as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America. Shields, who is also a six-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll, was one of six Husker student-athletes to capture CoSIDA Academic All-America awards in 2014-15, pushing Nebraska's nation-leading total to 320 Academic All-Americans all time across all sports.

Givens Price earned his degree in May and will play the 2015 season as a graduate.

Kenny Bell and Ameer Abdullah received degrees in December of 2014. Abdullah completed his degree work in 3.5 years.

In 2014-15, 118 Huskers earned their college degrees – the ultimate goal of all student-athletes, including senior Ameer Abdullah (pictured above). Abdullah became the third Husker in history and the first male across Nebraska's sports to earn a prestigious Senior CLASS Award. Chosen by a nationwide vote of Football Bowl Subdivision coaches, national media and fans, the award is given annually to the sport's most outstanding senior student-athlete. The award recognizes achievements in four areas of excellence – classroom, community, character and competition. Previous Husker Senior CLASS Award winners were Kelsey Griffin (Women's Basketball, 2010) and Gina Mancuso (Volleyball, 2012).

The NCAA established the Elite 89 Award to recognize individuals who reach the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level while also achieving the highest academic standard among their peers. Junior Ethan Lottman (Men's Gymnastics) captured the award at the 2015 NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championships, before adding CoSIDA Academic All-America honors. Sophomore sprinter/hurdler Drew Wiseman (Indoor Track, pictured) and senior thrower Will Lohman (Outdoor Track) swept the honors for the men's track and field team in 2015.

THE ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

The athletic academic unit, located in the Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex, provides personal and academic support to ensure that student-athletes will get the most out of their years as Huskers. Featuring one of the most innovative and comprehensive academic support systems in the country, Nebraska is dedicated to helping its student-athletes become outstanding leaders in their chosen fields. The academic support team is composed of 14 full-time staff members and is certified by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) as meeting the standards established by the N4A.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Seven academic counselors, three learning specialists and two assistant academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor continuing eligibility and progress toward graduation.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support from approximately 120 tutors on staff is available from day one up to college graduation in all subject areas. The tutorial program is certified as a model tutoring program by the College Reading and Learning Association.

STUDY HALL

Nebraska's study hall program is housed in the D.J. Sokol Enrichment Center within the Student Life Complex. Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student-athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall also may be determined by the academic counselor.

MENTORING

Academic support staff serve as mentors to all incoming student-athletes and a select group of returning student-athletes. Student-athletes meet with their mentor weekly to develop time management skills, gather and report academic progress information, and discuss academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach. Learning specialists are available to administer and score informal assessments, which include a reading comprehension and a writing assessment. When more in-depth assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting psychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined a student-athlete has a learning disability or another medical condition that impedes the student from reaching their academic potential, appropriate accommodations are implemented by the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION

Each new student-athlete attends an orientation at the beginning of their academic career. Student-athletes are introduced to staff, faculty, administrators, and a variety of resources that help facilitate the transition into college while enhancing awareness of support services in the Athletic Department and across campus.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES

The Herman Student Life Complex has two computer labs available for student-athletes. The Scott Technology Center features two tech tables for use on group computer projects and group study sessions. Additionally, each student-athlete is provided a laptop for use throughout their academic career at Nebraska.

Top: Columns in the Hewitt and Boekel Academic Center display the names of every Husker student-athlete who has lettered in a varsity sport and graduated from the University of Nebraska, while portraits honor each of Nebraska's nation-leading CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

Bottom left: Construction was completed in the fall of 2010 on the Nebraska Student Life Complex, which nearly tripled the size of NU's previous academic space. The Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex also features a new technology center and a dedicated Life Skills area and the Papik Computer lab (left).

"You definitely get the total package of an experience from athletics, academics, community outreach and campus life. Everybody on staff within the program makes sure that the student-athletes reach their fullest potential and that is why there is no place like Nebraska."

Rex Burkhead, 2013 NFL draftee

LIFE SKILLS

Widely regarded as the premier and most comprehensive Life Skills program in college athletics, the Husker program is committed to providing proactive education, resources and support throughout college and beyond promoting total person development and preparation for life after sports. Five full-time staff members and one graduate assistant coordinate a wide array of services benefiting Husker student-athletes.

Josh Banderas and Dwayne Johnson Jr. were among a group of Husker student-athletes who participated in Nebraska Athletics' inaugural service trip to Guatemala in May 2015.

The annual Nebraska Football Uplifting Athletes Road Race has raised more than $80,000 for pediatric brain cancer research in its three-year history.

PROACTIVE EDUCATION

The Life Skills team organizes several orientations aimed at acclimating student-athletes to college life. Additionally, all incoming student-athletes attend the fall semester Husker Life Seminar. This interactive class promotes responsible decision-making, personal brand, financial literacy, leadership, involvement and service.

INDIVIDUAL MEETINGS

Every Nebraska student-athlete is assigned a Life Skills Coordinator who will arrange multiple individual meetings throughout the academic year aimed at enhancing personal and career development. The meetings help each student-athlete identify a career focus and implement a plan to increase career marketability.

CAREER COMMITMENT

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

LEADERSHIP

Nebraska Life Skills provides student-athletes with endless opportunities to enhance leadership skills while distinguishing themselves from the competition. Internally, student-athletes can be members of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, Uplifting Athletes Chapter or Husker Distinction Council. On campus, UNL offers more than 600 recognized student organizations allowing athletes to collaborate with other campus leaders for a common goal. Annually, Nebraska Life Skills funds and coordinates a one week service abroad trip allowing nearly 20 student-athletes to come together for a common goal while enriching cultural competencies.

RECOGNITION

In 2014-15, a record 37 Husker Football student-athletes were named to both the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team and Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for completing a minimum of six service projects in the calendar year. There are a host of other recognition opportunities both at the institutional, Big Ten and NCAA level which all reflect on the high ideals, character and servant leadership nurtured through community involvement.

POST-ELIGIBILITY OPPORTUNITIES

Effective December 2015 and beyond, student-athletes who letter and graduate will have a three-year window to benefit from one of three post-eligibility opportunities each valued at $7,500. Upon completion of required seminars, graduates can either study abroad, complete an internship or begin graduate school within the University of Nebraska system.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Providing expert care to more than 600 Husker student-athletes, Nebraska features one of the most well-trained and highly skilled athletic medicine staffs in the country.

Under the guidance of Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers, Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber and Football Head Athletic Trainer Mark Mayer, the 2015-16 Nebraska athletic medicine staff consists of five doctors, two therapist/athletic trainers, 11 athletic trainers and seven graduate assistant athletic trainers.

Nebraska's medical facilities have long been among the nation's best, and NU's athletic medicine center within the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will keep the Huskers on the front line of technology for decades to come. In addition to Nebraska's North Stadium facility, Haymarket Park, the Bob Devaney Sports Center, Pinnacle Bank Arena and the Nebraska Soccer and Tennis Complex all feature athletic medicine areas. The Devaney Center's Athletic Medicine facility underwent an extensive expansion as part of the Hendricks Training Complex addition in 2011.

Bottom right: Nebraska's Athletic Medicine Center features a hydrotherapy area that includes a three-level laned pool. The Hydroworx 1000 Treadmill Pool is equipped with two cameras underwater for evaluation and assessment, while the hot and cold plunge tanks are also available to the Huskers.

CHAMPIONSHIP FACILITIES

From training facilities to competition venues, Nebraska's athletic facilities are second-to-none across the collegiate landscape. From Memorial Stadium to Pinnacle Bank Arena to the new soccer/tennis complex which opens this fall, Husker student-athletes have the benefits of training and competing in state-of-the-art facilities. Fans across the state and region support Husker Athletics, as football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball and baseball all finished in the top-15 nationally in attendance during the 2014-15 year.

NEBRASKA ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE LAB

Nebraska has always been on the forefront in training for student-athletes and the opening of the Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory (NAPL) in 2013 positions Husker Athletics as a trendsetter in the field. The creation of the NAPL and Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3) brought together athletic and academic researchers under one roof to study human behavior and performance.

"We're learning things that we haven't seen before with football. Hopefully we'll be able to put that toward something that helps us on the field." Boyd Epley, Assistant Athletic Director for Strength and Conditioning.

The NAPL team draws together researchers with diverse areas of expertise, including biomechanics, computer sciences, endocrinology, engineering, ergonomics, exercise physiology, nutrition, physical rehabilitation, psychology, sports science and vision. Researchers collaborate with Nebraska Athletics coaches and staff, as well as colleagues from around the world to address areas that are critical to athletes and society.

NAPL EQUIPMENT AND CAPABILITIES

- A 20-camera, three-dimensional, motion-analysis system quantifies joint and whole body movement patterns across indoor and outdoor environments
- Twelve force plates, embedded in a variety of surfaces including field turf, monodtrack, and hardwood flooring, precisely measure forces generated by the body during activities
- Wireless electromyography system and triaxial accelerometers evaluate muscle activation and limb acceleration patterns across different activities
- Metabolic testing technology assesses resting metabolic state and cardiovascular fitness
- Isokinetic dynamometer and weight lifting technology quantify strength
- Research grade ultrasound assesses muscle, tendon, ligament and organ morphology
- iDXA scanner quantifies the mass of bone, lean tissue and fat
- Transcranial doppler evaluates blood flow changes in response to training and injury
- Endocrinology laboratory jointly operated with CB3 captures level of salivary and blood biomarkers
- Treatment rooms for blood draws and testing procedures

The NAPL has close collaboration with researchers from Madonna's Institute for Rehabilitation Science and Engineering to address issues of importance to student-athletes' long term well-being.

NATIONAL POWERS

The Husker bowling team won its fifth NCAA title since 2004. Nebraska was led by 2015 NCAA Player of the Year Lizabeth Kuhlkin, who finished her career as a four-time All-American.

All-American Kadi Rolfzen led the Huskers to their second straight Elite Eight finish in 2014.

Rachel Martin became Nebraska's most recent individual NCAA Champion, winning the smallbore title at the 2015 NCAA Rifle Championships. Nebraska finished fourth as a team under first-year coach Ashley Rose-MacAllister.

I-back Ameer Abdullah became the first Husker male student-athlete to win the Senior CLASS Award in 2014. Abdullah, a second-round pick of the Detroit Lions, was also a finalist for the Doak Walker Award.

Tanner Lubach was a three-year starter for the Husker baseball team and was one of four Huskers selected in the 2015 MLB Draft.

Kiki Stokes earned All-America honors, setting school records in runs scored and on-base percentage in 2015.

The Husker men's track and field team won the Big Ten Indoor title in 2015. Gary Pepin has guided the Husker track and field programs to 70 conference titles in his tenure at Nebraska.

Ethan Lottman garnered first-team All-America honors in 2015 and was also a second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American.

High jumper James White earned first-team All-America honors during both the indoor and outdoor seasons in 2015.

Terran Petteway was a two-time All-Big Ten performer and scored over 1,000 points during his Husker career.

Wrestler James Green was a four-time All-American and was selected to represent the United States at the 2015 World Championships.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration.

Nebraska, which joined the Big Ten Conference in 2011, is a member of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, a consortium of Big Ten universities and the University of Chicago, which has generated unique opportunities for students and faculty by sharing expertise, leveraging resources and collaborating on programs.

COMMITTEE ON INSTITUTIONAL COOPERATION

As a member of the Big Ten, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL) is a member of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, which includes all 14 Big Ten Institutions and the University of Chicago. The Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) and the institutions together have annual research expenditures topping $10.2 billion — more than the Ivy League and the University of California System combined — and they educate a total of nearly 600,000 students.

CBA GROUNDBREAKING

Groundbreaking took place in March for the new $84 million, 240,000-square-foot College of Business Administration building, the largest academic building project in the recent history of the University of Nebraska–Lincoln. The building, which is scheduled for completion in 2017, will offer interactive learning in state-of-the-art classrooms, one-stop student support services, cutting-edge technology and space to host many events in the future.

UNL MISSION

As a land-grant university there are three primary missions of the University: teaching, research and service. UNL is the state's primary intellectual center providing leadership throughout the state through quality education and the generation of new knowledge.

MIKE RILEY

HEAD COACH · FIRST SEASON

ESPN Analyst Kirk Herbstreit

"It is truly an honor to join the University of Nebraska family. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to coach at one of the nation's most storied football programs and I can't wait to get started," Riley said at the time of his hiring. "My sincere thanks to Chancellor (Harvey) Perlman and Shawn Eichorst for their confidence in me, and I look forward to building upon the great history and tradition."

Shawn Eichorst, Nebraska's Director of Athletics, said Riley is the perfect fit to lead the Nebraska program.

"There was one coach who fit all the characteristics that I was seeking to lead our tradition-rich football program," Eichorst said. "Mike Riley has a proven record of success, a sound approach to football and teaching, an understanding of the educational mission of our university and the integrity and values that we cherish at Nebraska. I have no doubt that Mike and his tremendous staff will lead our student-athletes to win Big Ten titles and compete for national championships in the years ahead."

Riley took over the Husker football program following 12 seasons as the head coach at Oregon State, and 14 seasons overall in Corvallis. Riley also has experience at the highest level of football, serving as the head coach of the San Diego Chargers for three seasons, while also spending time in the professional ranks with the Canadian Football League and the World Football League.

Since arriving in Lincoln, Riley has shown the characteristics that have made him a winner throughout his coaching career. Riley has surrounded himself with a veteran coaching staff that has had success at all levels of football and recruited all parts of the country.

Riley has embraced the traditions of Nebraska football, while reaching out to Cornhusker faithful in all parts of Nebraska and around the country. Riley has also connected with former Husker players and coaches in his short time in Lincoln, while maintaining his focus on the young men currently in the Husker program.

Despite taking the Nebraska job less than two months prior to National Signing Day, Riley and his staff constructed a strong 2015 group of recruits. The staff showed their diversity on the recruiting trail by bringing players from 13 states into the program.

In his time at Oregon State, Riley built the Beaver program into a consistent winner and regular contender in the Pac-12 Conference. Riley had a 93-80 overall record as the Beavers' head coach. Riley began the rejuvenation of the Oregon State program in his two-year stint in 1997 and 1998. He returned to Corvallis and led the Beavers to unprecedented heights in the past 12 years.

Riley has a tradition of being one of the most professional and nicest men in the coaching profession, but his acumen also speaks volumes. Riley owns the most wins ever at Oregon State with 93, while leading the program to eight bowl appearances. Oregon State was ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for 28 weeks, and Riley has coached players who have earned 32 All-America honors. Riley has had 32 NFL Draft picks, including first-round selections Steven Jackson (2004) and Brandin Cooks (2014).

Before accepting the Nebraska job, Riley was the longest tenured coach in the Pac-12 and had the seventh-longest stint of any head coach in the FBS ranks. His resume sparkles with coaching achievements.

Riley was the 2008 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), Pac-10 Conference and State of Oregon Coach of the Year, and his teams have appeared in the final Associated Press top-25 rankings three times in the past eight seasons. In 2012 he was selected the AFCA Region Coach of the Year.

The 62-year-old Riley posted a 6-2 record in bowl games with the Beavers. Riley built the foundation for Oregon State in his first two years on the campus in 1997 and 1998. Riley took over a program that was mired in a streak of 26 consecutive losing seasons and quickly changed the culture in Corvallis. After Riley departed for the NFL, Oregon State made three postseason appearances.

Riley was the first coach in OSU history to win more than one NCAA-sanctioned bowl game at OSU, capturing the 2003 Las Vegas Bowl, the 2004 Insight Bowl, the 2006 and 2008 Sun Bowls, the 2007 Emerald Bowl and the 2013 Hawaii Bowl titles. He was also the first coach to lead the program to more than one winning conference season since 1969, and Riley accomplished the feat six times.

Riley returned to the Beaver sideline for the second time in 2003 and led the team to the Las Vegas Bowl title over New Mexico. The team set several individual and team records, and led the Pac-10 in both offense and defense. Success immediately followed on the recruiting trail, as Oregon State signed the best recruiting class in school history the following February.

The 2004 team played one of the nation's toughest schedules en route to a 7-5 record, capped by a strong finish. OSU defeated Oregon in the annual Civil War matchup and completed the year with a 38-21 win over Notre Dame in the Insight Bowl. The Beavers closed the 2004 campaign by winning six of their final seven games.

After a 5-6 season in 2005, Riley's 2006 team was the second team in school history to win at least 10 games. The Beavers won eight of their final nine games, including a win over No. 3 USC to end the Trojans' 27-game Pac-10 win streak.

OSU also ended a lengthy Aloha Stadium win streak for Hawaii and capped off the year with a thrilling 39-38 victory over Missouri in the Sun Bowl. The Beavers finished third in the Pac-10, just one game behind co-champions USC and California, and ended the year ranked No. 21 in the final AP poll.

Like many of Riley's teams, the 2007 squad continued to improve throughout the season, winning seven of the final eight games on the way to a 9-4 mark. The Beavers won at No. 2 California during the season and also posted a win at 18th-ranked Oregon. OSU's defense was first nationally against the run and led the country in tackles for loss. The Beavers capped the year with a win over Maryland in the Emerald Bowl and finished No. 25 in the Associated Press Poll.

Many expected the 2008 season to be a rebuilding year for Riley and a young Beaver team. However, OSU tied for second in the Pac-10 with a 7-2 record and finished 9-4 overall. The success came despite playing one of the nation's toughest schedules that featured three teams that played in BCS bowls.

The highlight of the 2008 season was a 27-21 win over then-No. 1 USC in a Thursday night matchup in Corvallis. Oregon State capped the year with a win over Pittsburgh in the Sun Bowl and finished No. 18 in the AP Poll and 19th in the USA Today Coaches Poll.

In 2009, Riley and his staff had a difficult job of replacing nearly every starter on defense and a total of seven NFL draftees. Not only did the Beavers qualify for a bowl game, but for the second straight year played the season finale with an opportunity to reach the Rose Bowl. A league-high seven Beavers earned first team All-Pac-10 honors.

The 2010 team posted a 5-7 record, but finished the year with a pair of wins over top-25 teams. OSU defensive tackle Stephen Paea (DT) earned the Morris Trophy for the second time, awarded to the conference's top defensive lineman. Jacquizz Rodgers earned first-team Pac-10 honors for the third consecutive season to become just the third Pac-10 running back to earn first-team all-league honors three times.

After a 3-9 season in 2011, Riley's 2012 team was picked to finish last in the Pac-12 North, yet went 6-3 in league and 9-4 overall. The team was ranked in the Associated Press Poll a school-record

12 consecutive weeks, including as high as No. 7. The Beavers opened the year with victories over No. 13 Wisconsin and No. 19 UCLA, and posted the third-best conference record behind a pair of BCS bowl teams.

In 2013 the Beavers won six straight games and defeated Boise State in the Sheraton Hawaii Bowl to conclude the season with a 7-6 mark. Wide Receiver Brandin Cooks became the second Beaver to win the coveted Biletnikoff Award as the nation's most outstanding receiver. Cooks broke the Pac-12 record for single-season receptions (128) and yards (1,760). The season also featured quarterback Sean Mannion setting the league record for passing yards (4,662).

In Riley's final season at Oregon State, the Beavers posted a 5-7 mark. The highlight of the season was a victory over then-No. 7 Arizona State in Corvallis in mid-November. That victory continued Riley's trend of wins over highly ranked opponents, as his OSU teams defeated 13 top-25 teams, including three wins over teams ranked No. 3 or higher.

Riley has a commitment to the total development of student-athletes. His teams have had outstanding success in the classroom. In the last six years Beavers have been honored by the league for academic achievements 70 times.

Riley's pro style approach to how he manages the program has paid dividends to players who have gone on to professional careers. Nineteen former Beavers who were coached by Riley were in the NFL for the start of the 2014 season, including quarterbacks Matt Moore (Miami) and Derek Anderson (Carolina), running backs Steven Jackson (Atlanta) and Jacquizz Rodgers (Atlanta) and defensive back Brandon Browner (Seattle). Anderson, Jackson and Browner have each earned Pro Bowl honors.

Riley left his first stint at Oregon State following the 1998 season after an opportunity to become the head coach of the National Football League's San Diego Chargers. He spent four years in the NFL, three seasons as the Chargers' head coach and the 2002 campaign as the Assistant Head Coach of the New Orleans Saints.

Riley also had previous professional coaching experience in both the Canadian Football League and World Football League. In 1987, Riley was named the youngest head coach in CFL history, taking over the Winnipeg Blue Bombers at the age of 33. He posted a 40-32 record with the organization and won Grey Cup titles in 1988 and 1990. He was the CFL's Coach of the Year both of those seasons and was inducted into Winnipeg's Hall of Fame in 2007.

In 1991 Riley took over the San Antonio Riders of the World Football League, spending two seasons with the team before the league suspended its North American operations.

He returned to the college ranks in 1993 when then-USC head coach John Robinson offered him the position of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Riley later became assistant head coach. The Mesa (Ariz.) Tribune named him the league's top assistant coach in 1993 after leading the Trojans' offense to record-setting numbers. USC quarterback Rob Johnson earned numerous Pac-10 and NCAA records, and would later become a first-round NFL draft pick.

Riley remained at USC through the 1996 season, helping the Trojans to victories in the Rose, Cotton and Freedom Bowls. USC won one outright league title, shared another and finished second one time.

Riley had a long history in Corvallis, Ore. He was born in Wallace, Idaho, but grew up with Beaver football, as his father Bud was an assistant coach for the program from 1965 to 1972 and again in 1979. Mike was a standout quarterback at Corvallis High School, leading the Spartans to the 1970 state title.

Riley went on to a successful college career at the University of Alabama, playing for legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He played cornerback from 1971 to 1974, helping the Tide to four Southeastern Conference titles and the 1973 national championship.

Riley immediately moved into coaching following his graduation from Alabama. His first stop was as a defensive graduate assistant coach for Mike White at the University of California in 1975. He helped the Bears to an 8-3 record and a share of the Pacific-8 Conference title.

Riley continued his education and his coaching career in 1976 at Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash. He finished his master's degree in physical education in 1977 while working for popular Pacific Northwest coach and future Canadian Football League legend Hugh Campbell.

Riley's first full-time appointment came at NAIA powerhouse

Linfield College in McMinnville, Ore. From 1977 to 1982 he served as the program's defensive coordinator and secondary coach, as well as assistant athletic director. Riley assisted head coach Ad Rutschman's Wildcats to a six-year record of 52-7-1, which included five conference titles and the 1982 undefeated NAIA title team.

An opportunity to coach in the pro ranks presented itself in 1983, and Riley was on his way to the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers as the secondary coach. During his three-years as an assistant, Winnipeg produced a 32-15-1 mark and won the 1984 Grey Cup title.

Riley returned to the college level in 1986 as an assistant coach at the University of Northern Colorado, before returning to the Blue Bombers.

Riley's respect in the profession is evident in the fact he has been the head coach for three postseason all-star games – the Hula Bowl, East-West Shrine Game and Blue-Gray All-Star Classic.

Mike and his wife Dee are the parents of one son, Matthew, and one daughter, Kate. They also have a grandson, Elijah Jo. Matthew is an OSU graduate and is currently an employee of the Texas Workforce Commissions in the state government. Kate is a 2011 OSU graduate.

Mike has two brothers, Edward Riley, a physician and associate professor at the Stanford University School of Medicine, and Pete Riley, a scientist for the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife.

WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT COACH RILEY

"Coach Riley was a big influence on me. He helped myself and my teammates develop both as football players and as people. Coach Riley really cares about his players on and off the field and wants nothing but the best for them in both areas."

WR Brandin Cooks, 2013 Biletnikoff Award Winner

"Playing for Coach Riley was great. He not only taught me about football and helped me become the football player I am today, but he was someone I also looked up to as a person. I am so grateful to have been able to play for him."

RB Jacquizz Rodgers, 2010 Pac-10 Offensive MVP

"Playing for Coach Riley was something that I will never forget. He is the best thing that has happened to me transitioning into the NFL and part of the reason I have had success at this level."

QB Derek Anderson, 2007 NFL Pro Bowler

"Mike Riley is a man of great integrity. I think he is a great fit at Nebraska. He is a man that really respects tradition. He is a coach that knows how to get the most out of his players."

Former Husker and San Diego Charger Carlos Polk

"If Mike Riley offered my son or any kid I coach, I would send them in a heartbeat. This man is all about the kids and families."

MARK BANKER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR · FIRST SEASON

BANKER'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead Oregon State to eight bowl appearances, compiling a 6-2 postseason record
- 70 OSU defensive players earned all-conference honors under Banker's direction
- Second in Pac-12 in scoring defense and third in total defense in 2012
- Second in Pac-12 in total defense in 2008, with eight players earning all-conference honors
- Five defensive players selected in the 2009 NFL Draft
- Ranked first nationally in rush defense, fourth in sacks and eighth in total defense in 2007
- Nine Beaver defenders earned Pac-10 all-conference honors in 2007
- Ranked third in the nation and first in Pac-12 in sacks in 2006
- Led Pac-12 in rushing defense in 2005
- Ranked in the top three in Pac-10 in seven defensive categories in 2004, including second in total defense
- Led the Pac-10 and ranked seventh nationally in total defense in 2003
- Also ranked in top 10 nationally in interceptions and rushing defense in 2003
- Led San Diego Charger defense to No. 11 total defense ranking as defensive coordinator in 2001

Mark Banker serves as Nebraska's defensive coordinator after working with Mike Riley at Oregon State for the past 12 years. Banker served as OSU's defensive coordinator, with his defenses regularly ranking among the top units in the Pac-12 Conference during his tenure.

Banker owns 37 years of coaching experience, including 19 total years working with Riley. Banker spent 14 years with Riley at Oregon State, along with three years with the San Diego Chargers and one year as assistants on the USC coaching staff.

Banker had worked strictly as the defensive coordinator since 2012, but also spent time coaching linebackers and safeties during his time in Corvallis. The 2012 Beaver defense ranked in the top three in the Pac-12 in total defense and scoring defense, while finishing sixth nationally in third-down conversion defense.

The 2008 OSU defense played a key role in the Beavers' run to a 9-4 record and a Sun Bowl victory. Banker's defense ranked second in the Pac-10 in total defense and closed the year with a shutout win over Pittsburgh in the Sun Bowl. Eight defenders were recognized with All-Pac 10 honors.

Banker's 2007 Oregon State defense was among his best statistical units. The Beavers led the nation in rushing defense, while ranking eighth in total defense, fourth in quarterback sacks and sixth in tackles for loss. The Beavers finished 10-4 in 2006, largely due to ranking third in the nation in quarterback sacks and leading the nation in tackles for loss yardage.

Banker first joined Riley's staff at Oregon State in 1997 and 1998. Overall, more than 70 of Banker's defenders earned all-conference honors during his tenure in Corvallis.

Banker had three years of NFL experience on Riley's staff with the San Diego Chargers from 1999 to 2001. As the defensive coordinator in 2001, San Diego ranked 11th in the league in total defense and first in rushing defense.

In addition to his time at Oregon State, Banker has collegiate assistant coaching stops at Stanford, USC, Hawaii and Cal State Northridge. He began his career at his alma mater, Springfield College.

DANNY LANGSDORF

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS · FIRST SEASON

Danny Langsdorf serves as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on Mike Riley's Nebraska coaching staff. Langsdorf has extensive experience working with Riley, having served two stints on Riley's Oregon State staff.

In 2014, Langsdorf served as the quarterbacks coach with the New York Giants. Langsdorf worked directly with two-time Super Bowl winning quarterback Eli Manning. Manning completed a career-best 63.1 percent of his passes in 2014, and his 4,410 passing yards were the second-most in his 11-year NFL career. Manning's passer rating of 92.1 was the third-best of his career.

Before joining the Giants' staff, Langsdorf spent the previous nine seasons as Riley's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Oregon State. Langsdorf's offenses were regularly among the most productive in the Pac-12 Conference, and nine of OSU's top 13 single-season yardage outputs came during Langsdorf's tenure. Langsdorf's offenses helped OSU to six bowl appearances in eight seasons from 2006 to 2013, including four wins.

In Langsdorf's final season in Corvallis, the 2013 Oregon State offense set a school record with 6,071 yards. The Beavers led the conference with 376.2 passing yards per game and were third with 467.0 total yards per game. Langsdorf spent three seasons coaching quarterback Sean Mannion, who completed his career in 2014 with a Pac-12 career-record 13,600 passing yards.

Langsdorf also coordinated Oregon State offenses that featured the top three receivers in Oregon State history and two of the top three career rushers. Wide receiver Markus Wheaton completed his OSU career in 2012 with 227 career receptions, including a record 91 catches in 2012. Brandin Cooks set school and Pac-12 records with 128 catches for 1,730 yards in 2013 and finished second in career receiving, while James Rodgers caught 222 passes for 2,578 yards in his Beaver career from 2007 to 2011.

On the ground, running backs Yvenson Bernard and Jacquizz Rodgers each posted three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from 2005 to 2010. Rodgers ranks second in Oregon State history with 3,877 rushing yards, just ahead of Bernard's career total of 3,862 yards. Rodgers became the first freshman to be named the Pac-10 Offensive MVP in conference history in 2008.

From 2002 to 2004, Langsdorf was on the New Orleans Saints' coaching staff. He was an offensive assistant/quality control coach

LANGSDORF'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped New York Giants quarterback Eli Manning post one of best statistical seasons in 2014
- Oregon State offense set a school record for total offensive yards in 2013, while leading the Pac-12 in passing offense and ranking third in total offense
- Helped Oregon State to six bowl appearances in eight seasons from 2005 to 2013
- Coached Sean Mannion, the top passer in Oregon State and Pac-12 history (13,600 yards)
- Coached Sean Canfield and Matt Moore who rank fifth and sixth in OSU history in passing yards
- Langsdorf offenses featured two of the top three rushers in OSU history and the top three receivers
- 2009 Beaver offense led the Pac-10 in passing, passing efficiency and first downs, while ranking in the top three in scoring and total offense
- OSU ranked second in the Pac-10 in passing in 2008, while finishing third in total offense in his first season before being promoted to assistant wide receivers/special teams coach for two years. Before New Orleans, he spent three seasons in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos.

Langsdorf first worked for Riley at Oregon State in 1997 and 1998, when he coached the tight ends. His college coaching career started in 1996 at California Lutheran University. Langsdorf played for three seasons at Boise State, before transferring to Linfield College, where he started at quarterback in 1994 and 1995.

BRUCE READ

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR · FIRST SEASON

READ'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped Oregon State to five bowl appearances while on Mike Riley's staff
- Beaver kickers connected on 19-of-22 field goals in 2014
- In 2012 Oregon State led the Pac-12 in field goal percentage
- Return specialist/receiver James Rodgers set an Oregon State record for career all-purpose yardage, including more than 2,300 career return yards
- OSU ranked in the top 10 nationally in punt return average in consecutive years in 2010 and 2011
- The Beavers ranked fourth nationally with a school-record 26.4 kickoff return average in 2010
- Punt returner Sammie Stroughter was a third-team All-America selection in 2006
- Place-kicker Alexis Serna won the Lou Groza Award in 2005 and was a three-time All-Pac-10 pick
- San Diego Charger special teams ranked in the top six in NFL twice in Read's three seasons

Bruce Read serves as Nebraska's special teams coordinator, and he owns more than 30 years of expertise in coaching special teams.

Read has spent 15 seasons on Mike Riley coaching staffs, including at Oregon State and with the San Diego Chargers before joining Riley in Lincoln.

Read spent the last six seasons from 2009 to 2014 with Riley at Oregon State, Read's third stint in Corvallis. He also coached the Beaver special teams in 1997 and 1998 and from 2004 to 2006. OSU special teams players achieved numerous school records and all-conference accolades under Read's direction.

Most recently in 2014, Beaver kickers connected on 19-of-22 field goals and were perfect on PAT attempts. In 2012, Jordan Jenkins earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors as a coverage specialist and OSU led the conference in field goal percentage. Place-kicker Trevor Romaine was one of the nation's most accurate place-kickers that season, connecting on 89 percent of his field goals.

In 2011, return specialist James Rodgers became the school's career all-purpose yardage leader with 6,377 yards, partially fueled by 2,385 career return yards. In the 2011 season, OSU ranked seventh in the NCAA in punt returns. The previous year, the Beavers ranked fourth nationally with a school-record 26.4-yard kickoff return average and sixth nationally in punt return average.

In 2006, punt returner Sammie Stroughter was a third-team All-America selection, while kicker Alexis Serna earned Pac-10 all-conference honors. Under Read's direction in 2005, Serna earned the Lou Groza Award, given to the nation's top kicker.

Read was also on Riley's San Diego Chargers staff, helping San Diego rank among the best in the league in special teams. The Chargers led the NFL in kickoff return average in 1999 and ranked in the top six in composite special teams rankings twice in three years.

Read also worked as an NFL assistant with the New York Giants (2002-03) and Dallas Cowboys (2007-08). Read began his coaching career at the University of Montana from 1985 to 1996, working for his father Don Read.

LINEBACKERS · FIRST SEASON

BRAY'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead Oregon State to bowl appearances in 2012 and 2013
- Helped 2012 OSU defense rank second in the Pac-12 in scoring defense
- In 2012, the Beaver defense ranked third in Pac-12 in total defense, rush defense and pass defense
- Coached two Arizona State linebackers to all-conference accolades
- Bray was a first-team All-Pac 10 linebacker for Oregon State in 2005
- Ranks among the top 10 tacklers in Oregon State history with 337 career tackles
- 2004 Insight Bowl Defensive MVP

In his first season on the Beaver staff in 2012, Oregon State ranked second in the Pac-12 in scoring defense and third in total defense, rushing defense and pass defense. The play of the defense helped OSU make the largest turnaround in number of victories in the FBS ranks on its way to a berth in the Alamo Bowl.

Bray also coached linebackers at Arizona State from 2009 to 2011, including two seasons as a full-time coach and one year as a graduate assistant. Bray coached Pac-10 all-conference selections Vontaze Burfict and Colin Parker during his time in Tempe.

Bray was a standout linebacker for the Beavers from 2002 to 2005. In his career he totaled 337 tackles to rank among the top 10 tacklers in Oregon State history. He earned Pac-10 all-conference honors as both a junior and senior and was the Insight Bowl Defensive MVP in 2004, leading the Beavers to a win over Notre Dame.

Following his college career, Bray signed free-agent contracts with the Miami Dolphins and Houston Texans. He later played in NFL Europe in 2007, before beginning his coaching career with the California Redwoods of the United Football League in 2009.

MIKE CAVANAUGH

OFFENSIVE LINE · FIRST SEASON

CAVANAUGH'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead the Beavers to six bowl appearances in 10 seasons at Oregon State
- Coached 23 all-conference linemen at Oregon State
- Three Beaver offensive linemen were selected in the NFL Draft
- Offensive line helped quarterback Sean Mannion become the Pac-12's all-time leading passer
- 2013 Beaver offense ranked third nationally in passing offense
- Had a first- or second-team all-conference offensive lineman for five straight seasons from 2006 to 2010
- Helped Hawaii rank in the top 10 nationally in total offense three times in six seasons at the school
- Spent two seasons working with the offensive line with the NFL's San Diego Chargers

Mike Cavanaugh joined the Nebraska program as the offensive line coach, after spending the past 10 seasons on Mike Riley's Oregon State staff coaching the offensive line.

Cavanaugh also spent time in the National Football League with the San Diego Chargers and has 30 overall years of coaching experience.

The play of Cavanaugh's offensive lines helped the Beavers to record-setting offensive numbers and to bowl appearances in six of his 10 seasons in Corvallis. Behind the play of Cavanaugh's offensive line, quarterback Sean Mannion set single-season and career Pac-12 records for passing yards, completing his career in 2014.

The Beavers' offensive line also paved the way for several all-conference runners. OSU running backs Yvenson Bernard and Jacquizz Rodgers each produced three 1,000-yard rushing seasons behind Cavanaugh-coached lines. Cavanaugh's offensive lines were also regularly among the league's best at protecting the passer.

Cavanaugh's players at Oregon State were regularly honored for their efforts. Andy Levitre, Jeremy Perry and Isaac Seumalo each garnered All-America honors under Cavanaugh, while 23 of his players earned all-conference honors in the past decade.

The offensive line play for Oregon State allowed the Beavers to have success both running and passing the football. In 2013, Oregon State ranked third nationally in passing offense by averaging nearly 375 yards per game. On the ground, Oregon State featured a 1,000-yard rusher in each of Cavanaugh's first six seasons in Corvallis.

Cavanaugh was also a key part in directing some of the nation's top offenses at Hawaii, while tutoring the offensive line from 1999 to 2004. In each of his final four seasons with the Warriors, Hawaii ranked in the top 20 nationally in total offense, including second in 2002. Hawaii featured a potent passing attack, largely due to Cavanaugh's lines allowing just one sack on every 26 attempts.

Cavanaugh served on the San Diego Chargers staff in 1997 and 1998 as an assistant offensive line coach. He also had college assistant stops at Ferris State, Sacred Heart, Murray State, Alma College, Wesleyan (Conn.) and Albany.

REGGIE DAVIS

RUNNING BACKS · FIRST SEASON

DAVIS' CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Coached on three San Francisco 49er teams that appeared in NFC Championship Games, including Super Bowl XLVII following the 2012 season
- Coached San Francisco All-Pro Tight end Vernon Davis for three seasons from 2011 to 2013
- Helped Vernon Davis become the first tight end in NFL history with two seasons with 12 or more touchdown receptions
- Coached three-time first-team All-Pac 10 selection Jacquizz Rodgers, who had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons at Oregon State from 2008 to 2010
- Helped the 2009 Oregon State offense rank in the top three in the Pac-10 in scoring, passing and total offense
- In 2008, Davis helped Jacquizz Rodgers become the first freshman in Pac-10 history to win the conference's Offensive MVP honor
- Guided UNLV running back Frank Summers to 928 rushing yards in 2007
- Began his coaching career under Jim Harbaugh at the University of San Diego in 2004, helping the team to a 7-4 record
- Played tight end for two seasons for the San Diego Chargers and Coach Mike Riley in 1999 and 2000

Reggie Davis joined the Nebraska coaching staff as running backs coach after spending the previous four seasons on the San Francisco 49ers coaching staff. Davis also has experience working with Coach Mike Riley, serving as the Oregon State running backs coach from 2008 to 2010.

Davis spent his first three seasons on Jim Harbaugh's San Francisco staff as the tight ends coach, before tutoring the 49er offensive line in 2014. In Davis' time in San Francisco, the 49ers reached the NFC Championship Game three consecutive seasons from 2011 to 2013, including an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII following the 2012 season.

During his time as tight ends coach, Davis coached 49ers tight end Vernon Davis to a Pro Bowl appearance and All-Pro honors in 2013, when Vernon Davis had a career-high 13 touchdown receptions. Davis was also the first tight end in NFL history to have two seasons with 12 or more touchdown receptions.

While on Riley's staff at Oregon State, Reggie Davis helped the Beaver running backs to great success. Davis coached OSU standout Jacquizz Rodgers, who set numerous OSU rushing records in his time in Corvallis on his way to the National Football League. Rodgers became the first freshman in the history of the Pac-10 Conference to earn its Offensive MVP award in 2008, after rushing for 1,253 yards.

Before working at Oregon State, Davis served as the running backs coach at UNLV from 2005 to 2007. Davis began his college coaching career in 2004 on Harbaugh's University of San Diego coaching staff working with the tight ends and special teams.

Davis played in 26 games with three starts at tight end with the San Diego Chargers in 1999 and 2000. During his time on the San Diego roster, Mike Riley served as the Chargers' head coach.

Davis was a standout tight end at Washington finishing his career with the Huskies in 1998. Davis had 21 receptions for 243 yards and two touchdowns in his senior season.

HANK HUGHES

DEFENSIVE LINE · FIRST SEASON

HUGHES' CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped Cincinnati to a co-championship in the American Athletic Conference in 2014
- Was part of five UConn bowl teams, including the 2010 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl squad
- Helped the Huskies to a share of two Big East Conference championships (2007 and 2010)
- Connecticut ranked in the top 20 nationally in rushing, total and scoring defense in 2012
- Hughes was named Assistant Coach of the Year by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston in 2009
- The 2008 UConn defense ranked sixth in the country in total defense and in the top 25 in pass efficiency defense, rushing defense and scoring defense
- Helped UConn lead the Big East in total defense in each of its first two seasons in the conference
- In 2004, the Huskies led the Big East in total and passing defense, qualifying for the school's first bowl game
- Memphis led the nation in rush defense in 2000 and was in the top 15 in total and scoring defense

A 37-year veteran of the college coaching ranks, Hank Hughes is the Huskers' defensive line coach. Hughes owns 28 seasons of experience as a defensive line coach.

Hughes came to Nebraska after serving as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for Tommy Tuberville at Cincinnati in 2014. The Bearcats' defense made steady improvement throughout the 2014 season, holding five opponents to 17 or fewer points during a seven-game win streak to end the regular season. The late-season surge helped the Bearcats earn a share of the American Athletic Conference title.

Hughes spent the previous 13 seasons as an assistant coach at Connecticut, coaching the defensive line for the Huskies throughout his tenure at the school. Hughes was the defensive coordinator for four of his seasons at UConn and was assistant head coach for eight seasons from 2005 to 2012.

During Hughes' time with the school, Connecticut appeared in five bowl games and won a share of two Big East Championships. The 2010 Huskies earned a spot in a BCS bowl game, taking on Oklahoma in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The Husky defenses regularly ranked among the nation's top rush defenses, in large part due to the play of Hughes' defensive line. UConn ranked in the top 10 nationally in total defense in 2006, 2008 and 2012.

Hughes' 2012 defense is regarded as one of the finest in school history with the unit ranking seventh in the country in rush defense, ninth in total defense and 19th in scoring defense. The run defense was also stout in 2011, ranking first in the Big East and fourth nationally.

The Huskies' 2008 defense ranked among the nation's best, finishing sixth in the country and first in the Big East in total defense at just 278.0 yards per game. UConn also ranked in the top 25 nationally and top three in the Big East in 2008 in pass efficiency defense, rushing defense and scoring defense.

Hughes' defense helped UConn make a successful transition to the Big East, leading the conference in total defense in each of its first two years in the league in 2006 and 2007. In the Huskies' first season in FBS in 2002, Hughes' defense ranked fifth nationally in pass defense and in the top 20 in total defense and pass efficiency defense.

Hughes also served as the defensive line coach at Memphis from 1998 to 2000, helping the Tigers lead the nation in rush defense in 2000. Hughes' previous college coaching experience includes stints at Harvard, Cincinnati and James Madison among others. He also spent two seasons in the professional ranks with the Montreal Machine of the World League of American Football. Hughes played linebacker at Springfield College.

STEWART'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped Maryland rank among conference leaders in sacks in 2013 (37) and 2014 (32)
- Guided a 2012 Maryland defense that was in the top three in the ACC and top 35 nationally in total defense, rushing defense and passing defense
- In 2011, helped the University of Houston to a 13-1 record, coordinating a defense that ranked in the top 15 nationally in red zone scoring, interceptions, tackles for loss, takeaways and opponent completion percentage
- Eight seasons of experience as an assistant in the NFL, coaching 14 Pro Bowl players
- Coordinated the Dallas Cowboys defense in 2007 and 2008, helping the Cowboys lead the NFL in sacks both years and win a division title in 2007
- NFL-high five Dallas defenders made the 2007 Pro Bowl
- Served as Chargers' secondary coach for three seasons, helping San Diego to two playoff appearances, including a 14-2 record in 2006
- Coached for the expansion Houston Texans in their first two seasons in 2002 and 2003
- Helped Syracuse to a 10-3 record and No. 14 final ranking as defensive backs coach in 2001

Brian Stewart serves as the Huskers' defensive backs coach. He has an extensive background as a secondary coach and as a defensive coordinator at both the college and professional levels.

Stewart joined the Nebraska staff after three seasons as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Maryland. His stop at Maryland continued an impressive coaching resume that includes seven years as a defensive coordinator—five years in college football and two in the NFL. Stewart also has 16 years of tutoring defensive backs on his coaching resume.

In his three seasons on the Maryland staff, Stewart helped the Terrapins to a pair of bowl appearances. The attacking Terrapin defense tallied more than 30 sacks each of the past two seasons.

Defensive back Will Likely was a standout under Stewart's guidance, leading the Big Ten in interceptions in 2014 en route to first-team all-conference honors. In Stewart's first year at Maryland in 2012, his defense finished in the top three in the ACC in total defense, rushing defense and pass defense and was 21st nationally in total defense.

Stewart re-joined the college ranks as the defensive coordinator at the University of Houston in 2010 and 2011. Stewart's stingy defense played a key role in the Cougars' 13-1 record and No. 14 final national ranking in 2011.

He spent the previous eight years in the NFL, including a two-year stint as the Dallas Cowboys defensive coordinator in 2007 and 2008. As the Cowboys' defensive coordinator, Stewart guided Dallas to two top-10 rankings in fewest yards allowed. He helped the Cowboys to a 13-3 record and NFC East divisional title in 2007.

Stewart also served as an assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles (2009), San Diego Chargers (2004-06) and the Houston Texans (2002-03). Each of the teams Stewart coached in his final six NFL seasons won at least nine games, including three division champions and four playoff teams. During his time in the NFL, Stewart helped 14 players make Pro Bowl appearances.

Before his stint in the National Football League, Stewart had college assistant coaching stops at Syracuse, Missouri, San Jose State, Northern Arizona and Cal Poly. A California native, Stewart played defensive back at Santa Monica City College and Northern Arizona.

Stewart graduated from Nogales High School in La Puente, Calif., and remains active there, conducting a free youth football camp for the community.

WIDE RECEIVERS · FIRST SEASON

WILLIAMS' CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Eight of Williams' former wideouts played in the NFL in 2014
- Helped Tulane wide receiver Ryan Grant earn All-Conference USA honors and finish in the top five in Green Wave history in receptions (196) and receiving yards (2,769 yards)
- Coached three All-WAC selections at receiver during his time at Fresno State, including first-team selection Jalen Saunders and second-teamers Jamel Hamler and Seyi Ajirotuti
- Spent a year on staff with the San Diego Chargers
- Part of three bowl teams during his career, including one at Tulane and two at Fresno State
- Coached San Jose State standout Edell Shepherd, who set Spartan school records with 1,500 receiving yards and 14 touchdowns in 2001
- Played receiver for three seasons at San Diego State and professionally with the Washington Redskins, in the CFL and WLAFL

Keith Williams joins Coach Mike Riley's Nebraska staff as receivers coach. Williams has extensive collegiate experience working with wideouts, most recently spending the past three seasons at Tulane University.

In addition to his role as the Green Wave's receivers coach, Williams was also the program's out-of-state recruiting coordinator in 2014. Williams' receivers have a strong record of success, with eight of his products playing in the NFL in 2014.

In 2014, Williams quickly developed Teddy Veal, who led the Green Wave with 40 receptions as a true freshman. Veal's development was the latest success for Williams during his college coaching career.

In 2013, Tulane earned a spot in the New Orleans Bowl and posted a 7-6 record. A big part of the team success was the play of Williams' receivers. Senior Ryan Grant completed an outstanding Tulane career in 2013, finishing his career with 196 catches for 2,769 yards. Grant topped 75 receptions in each of his final two seasons, and produced a pair of 1,000-yard receiving campaigns.

As a group, Williams' receivers combined for better than 150 receptions, nearly 1,900 yards and 18 touchdowns in 2013. In Williams' first year at Tulane in 2012, Grant was a first-team All-Conference USA selection when he compiled seven 100-yard games. Grant spent the 2014 season with the Washington Redskins.

Williams also served as Fresno State's receivers coach for three seasons from 2009 to 2011. He helped the Bulldogs to two bowl appearances, and Williams coached three All-Western Athletic Conference receivers, including first-team choice Jalen Saunders in 2011.

Williams also has NFL experience, spending the 2008 season with the San Diego Chargers in a minority internship coaching position. He was also an assistant coach at San Jose City College, San Jose State and Solano (Calif.) College. While with San Jose State, Williams coached four Spartans who ranked among the SJSU's all-time leaders in receiving yardage.

Williams played collegiately at San Diego State, where he played on the Aztecs' 1991 Freedom Bowl team. Williams was also a member of the SDSU track and field team. He signed a free agent contract with the Washington Redskins following his college career and went on to play in both the Canadian Football League and the World League of American Football.

FOOTBALL STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING STAFF

MARK PHILIPP

HEAD FOOTBALL STRENGTH COACH

Mark Philipp is in his first season serving as Nebraska's head football strength coach. Philipp assumed his new role in January, shortly after Mike Riley was hired as the Huskers' head football coach. Philipp had previously worked with Riley as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Oregon State.

A certified strength and conditioning specialist, Philipp is also a certified Level 1 Club Coach by the United States of America Wrestling, in addition to being certified in functional movement screening.

Philipp came to Nebraska after spending two years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at USC. He was responsible for the design, implementation and supervision of the strength training, agility, speed work, conditioning and testing for the women's lacrosse team, while also assisting with all aspects of strength and conditioning for the football, women's basketball and sand volleyball programs.

Known for his contagious enthusiasm, Philipp was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Oregon State from 2009 to 2013. He spent four seasons working with Coach Riley's football team, helping the Beavers to a pair of bowl appearances. In his final season, Philipp played a role in Oregon State finishing with a No. 20 national ranking. In addition to assisting with the football team, Philipp was in charge of coordinating the strength and conditioning programs for the Beaver men's basketball, wrestling, softball, women's volleyball, women's swimming and diving and women's golf teams.

While in Corvallis, Philipp also served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Corvallis Knights baseball team for three summers, in addition to working as the director of strength and conditioning for the Oregon State Weight Lifting Camp from 2010 to 2013.

Philipp earned his bachelor's degree from Southern Illinois University in 2006, where he was a member of the football team. Philipp served as team captain in 2005, and he was twice named the defensive powerlifting champion.

TIMOTHY RABAS

ASSOCIATE FOOTBALL STRENGTH COACH

Timothy Rabas joined the Huskers in January of 2015 as the football team's associate strength coach. Rabas assists Head Football Strength Coach Mark Philipp with all aspects of strength and conditioning for football.

Rabas came to Nebraska from North Carolina State, where he worked with the Wolf Pack football team for three seasons. Prior to his time at NC State, Rabas spent six years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Oregon State. At OSU, Rabas worked with the football program and was the director of strength and conditioning for men's basketball, volleyball, baseball, wrestling and the women's swimming and diving program and performance camps.

From 2004 to 2006, Rabas worked with football, wrestling and women's basketball at Northern Illinois University. He also worked as a graduate assistant at The Citadel and served a strength and conditioning internship with the Chicago Bulls.

Rabas graduated from Wisconsin-Stevens Point, where he earned his degree in health promotion with a minor in nutrition four-year. He was a letterwinner in football at Wisconsin-Stevens Point, and was named Special Teams Player of the Year twice. While at The Citadel, Rabas earned his master's degree in exercise and sports science.

A native of Green Bay, Wis., Rabas is a member of USA Weightlifting and the National Strength Coaches Association (NSCA) and is also a licensed massage therapist. He was once competitive in Olympic weightlifting, ranking as high as 13th.

JAMIE BELT

ASSISTANT FOOTBALL STRENGTH COACH

Jamie Belt is in his first year as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Nebraska. Belt joined the Huskers in January of 2015 and assists Head Football Strength Coach Mark Philipp with all aspects of strength and conditioning for football.

Belt came to Nebraska after serving the University of Nebraska-Omaha for three years, spending two years as an assistant strength coach before being named co-head strength coach in his final year with the Mavericks. Belt was in charge of all aspects of training for baseball, softball, volleyball, men's and women's soccer and track and field.

While in Omaha, Belt also operated Visible Impact Fitness, where he trained fighters that have fought in the UFC. Belt also worked personally with boxer Terence Crawford, who won the WBO world lightweight championship with a victory over Ricky Burns in 2014.

A native of Pender, Neb., Belt earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Wayne State College in 2005. Belt is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) where he is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and a Registered Strength and Conditioning Coach (RSCC). He is a member of the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM) where he is Certified as a Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES). Belt is also First aid/CPR/AED certified through the American Red Cross.

ANDREW ERVIN

ASSISTANT FOOTBALL STRENGTH COACH

Andrew Ervin joined the Huskers in January of 2015 as an assistant strength coach for the football team. Ervin assists Head Football Strength Coach Mark Philipp with all aspects of strength and conditioning for football.

Ervin came to Nebraska from Bryant University, where he served as the program's associate head strength and conditioning coach. Ervin assisted the head strength and conditioning coach in the design and implementation of strength and conditioning programs for football, men's lacrosse, men and women's basketball and baseball. Ervin also designed and implemented strength and conditioning programs for field hockey, men's and women's soccer, softball and women's lacrosse.

Ervin also spent time at North Carolina State, where he worked with athletes on proper running mechanics and also taught proper weightlifting technique while educating the importance of flexibility in weight training. He also served as an intern at NC State in 2008, working with nutrition and weight room organization. Ervin earned his master's degree in liberal studies from NC State in 2012.

A 2009 graduate of DeSales University, Ervin earned his undergraduate degree in sport and exercise science, as well as a minor in sport management. As a student-athlete, Ervin was a four-year member of the lacrosse team, ranking second in career games played with 63.

Originally from Philadelphia, Pa., Andrew is married to Ashley Ervin.

WILLIE JONES

ASSISTANT FOOTBALL STRENGTH COACH

Willie Jones is in his seventh season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Nebraska football team in 2015. Jones came to Nebraska in 2009 from South Dakota State, where he spent two years as a graduate assistant for the Jackrabbit strength and conditioning department.

With the Huskers, Jones assists Head Football Strength Coach Mark Philipp with all aspects of the strength and conditioning for football.

Jones earned his bachelor's degree in health promotion from South Dakota State in 2007. He also completed his master's degree in sport science from SDSU in May of 2012. Jones was a three-year letterman for the Jackrabbit football team from 2002 to 2006.

Jones is also a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa). He is a certified strength and conditioning coach through the same organization. A native of Yankton, S.D., Jones is also CPR certified through the American Red Cross.

Jones and his wife, Andrea, were married in May of 2013 and have one son, Krayton (1). Jones also has a son, Cameron (12).

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS, RECRUITING AND OFFICE STAFF

DAN VAN DE RIET

ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR FOR FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Dan Van De Riet joined the Huskers in December of 2014 as Nebraska's Associate Athletics Director for Football Operations. Van De Riet came to Nebraska with Husker head coach Mike Riley from Oregon State, where Van De Riet was part of the Beavers' football staff for 14 years.

Van De Riet plays a vital role in the administrative aspects of the Nebraska football program and serves as a liaison with other parts of the athletics department. He is involved in all football operations and assists with NU's recruiting efforts.

Van De Riet oversees multiple aspects of the football office, including travel, budget and staffing for the football office.

At Oregon State, Van De Riet was promoted to the director of football operations in 2008 after arriving on campus in 2001 as the assistant director of football operations. In November of 2014, Van De Riet was promoted to associate athletic director for football operations at OSU.

Van De Riet has served on the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee and was involved in 10 Oregon State bowl games. Prior to arriving in Corvallis, Van De Riet spent seven months as a student manager at Stanford.

Van De Riet attended San Jose State, graduating in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and a minor in special education. While at SJSU he served as a student assistant equipment manager with the football program. In addition to his daily duties with the program, he also assisted with game-day Spartan Stadium preparation, summer camps and on-campus recruiting.

He and his wife, Sabrina, have two daughters, Sevenshah and Reese, and one son, Preston.

ANDY VAUGHN

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL AND RECRUITING OPERATIONS

Andy Vaughn joined the Nebraska football program in January of 2015 as the Director of Football and Recruiting Operations.

Vaughn is responsible for overseeing and spearheading all aspects of the recruiting process for Nebraska, including logistics and developing communication strategies through marketing, social media and technology. Vaughn is also the liaison with athletic department and campus groups including NCAA compliance, academics and housing.

Vaughn came to Nebraska after a successful three-year run at Nevada, where he held a similar role. Prior to Nevada, Vaughn worked at Middle Tennessee State and Clemson, managing recruiting and operations in each of his roles.

Vaughn also has experience outside of college athletics. From 2006 to 2007 he lived in Reno, Nev., and helped coordinate a Velocity Sports Performance franchise while serving as the center director, handling business and recruiting functions. Vaughn helped Velocity develop and promote a special high-altitude performance and skills training program for elite NBA players and NFL hopefuls that was the first of its kind in the United States.

A native of South Carolina, Vaughn was a tight end at North Greenville University, where he played on the first bowl team in school history.

He earned a degree in sport management and business administration from North Greenville University in 2003. He also has a master's degree in physical education and sport administration from Florida State in 2005.

Andy and his wife, Jahna, have a son, Brayden.

HILARY O'BRYAN

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Hilary O'Bryan came to Nebraska in December of 2014 as a member of Mike Riley's support staff. She serves as the team's assistant director of football operations.

O'Bryan manages day-to-day football operations, assists with team and staff travel, is the liaison to the marketing and community relations departments and manages all administrative responsibilities for Coach Riley.

O'Bryan joined the Huskers after seven years at Oregon State, where she started as a student assistant in 2008. She was promoted to executive assistant in 2010 before being named assistant director of football operations in 2012.

O'Bryan earned her bachelor's degree in business marketing from Oregon State in 2012. She graduated with a Master's degree in Business Administration with a focus in market research from Oregon State in June 2015. Ryan Gunderson joined the Nebraska football staff in December of 2014 as the team's director of player personnel. Gunderson is in charge of roster management and overseeing the recruiting and evaluation process including maintaining a recruiting database, developing communication plans with prospective student-athletes, managing social media and assisting coaches with recruiting efforts for the football program.

Gunderson joined the Huskers from Oregon State, where he worked and played for Coach Mike Riley and the Beavers. Following his time as a student-athlete, Gunderson was promoted to director of player personnel after serving four seasons as the Beavers' assistant director of player personnel and two years as an administrative graduate assistant coach.

Gunderson played quarterback for the Beavers from 2003 to 2007 and was a member of Oregon State's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee before graduating with a degree in construction engineering management in December of 2007. Gunderson played in 13 games during his career at OSU, totaling 645 yards passing and two touchdowns. He was a two-time academic All-Pac-10 selection.

CHRIS BRASFIELD

DIRECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOL RELATIONS

Chris Brasfield joined the Nebraska football staff in March of 2015 and serves as Nebraska's Director of High School Relations. He spent the previous four seasons working with Coach Mike Riley at Oregon State, serving as the Beavers' running backs coach from 2011 to 2014 when Brasfield was regarded as an elite recruiter.

In his role at Nebraska, Brasfield oversees the administration of the Huskers' walk-on program and serves as the primary contact for high school football coaches. Brasfield also serves as the initial point of contact with the Nebraska program for professional teams, and he helps coordinate the Huskers' annual pro day workouts.

At Oregon State, Storm Woods rushed for more than 2,100 yards from 2012 to 2014 under Brasfield's direction. In 2012, Brasfield was named one of the top 50 recruiters in the country.

Previously, Brasfield was a defensive graduate assistant at Oregon in 2010, after spending the previous four seasons as the running backs coach at Samford. Brasfield also served in assistant coaching roles at Midwestern State, Southwest Texas State and TCU.

Brasfield has NFL experience, most recently participating in the NFL Minority Coaching Internship program with the Tennessee Titans in 2009. He also served as an intern with the Oakland Raiders in 2000 and was an area scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2001 and 2002.

Brasfield has extensive high school coaching experience as well, including stops at Fort Worth's Country Day, All Saints Episcopal School and Chicago Hope Academy in Illinois.

Brasfield earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from TCU. He and his wife Sherresa, have three children, Tyson, Taylor and Truman.

KENNY WILHITE

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Kenny Wilhite joined the Nebraska football staff as a regional recruiting assistant in the spring of 2014. He was named an assistant director of player personnel on Mike Riley's staff, and was promoted to associate director of player personnel in March of 2015. Wilhite is responsible for identifying potential recruits within his assigned region, and serving as an on-campus host for visitors from that region.

Wilhite came to Nebraska after spending six seasons coaching defensive backs at Southeast Missouri State under former Husker player and coach Tony Samuel. A native of St. Louis, Mo., Wilhite previously gained coaching experience at New Mexico State, Dodge City Community College, Emporia State, Kentucky State and Central Arkansas.

A standout defensive back for the Huskers under Coach Tom Osborne, Wilhite earned All-Big Eight honors in 1991 after leading the team in interceptions. Wilhite played professionally for four seasons in the Canadian Football League. Wilhite was a CFL all-star in 1996, when he finished third behind Doug Flutie in voting for the league's player-of-the-year award.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Todd McShane is in his first season as Nebraska's assistant director of player personnel. McShane is responsible for identifying potential recruits and serving as an on-campus host for visitors. He also assists with the organization and execution of all official and unofficial visits.

McShane came to Nebraska from Oregon State, where he was promoted to assistant director of player personnel in July of 2014. He had previously served as a student equipment manager, starting in 2007, before moving into an intern role in the administrative offices in 2011.

McShane graduated from Oregon State with his bachelor's degree in health management and policy with a minor in athletic administration.

JONI DUFF

ASSISTANT TO THE DEFENSE

Joni Duff began her association with the Nebraska football office in 1980, as she has served the Huskers for more than 30 years. Duff is as an assistant to the defensive and special teams coaches and also handles multiple office functions.

She is married to Craig Duff, and the couple has two sons, Alex and Nathan.

TERI RIGGINS

FOOTBALL STAFF SECRETARY OFFENSE

Teri Riggins has served as an assistant in the football office since 1998 and began her association with the athletics department in 1996. Riggins is in her 11th year as a football staff assistant, where she assists the Husker offensive coaches, among other duties. Previously she served as the recruiting staff assistant for six years, in addition to two seasons as the track and field office secretary.

Before joining Nebraska, Riggins worked at Nebraska-Kearney for the Dean of the College of Education, in the Student Services office at Iowa Western CC and at Duncan Aviation.

An alumnus of the American Institute of Business in Des Moines, Iowa, Riggins and her husband, Jim, are the parents of Brenda Riggins and the late Jamie Riggins-Bayer. Teri and Jim have four grandchildren Josh, Victoria, Sam and Marc and one great-granddaughter.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT DEFENSE

Jon Clark is in his first season on the Nebraska staff in 2015, and he serves as a defensive graduate assistant. Clark works extensively with the Husker secondary.

Clark spent the 2014 season as the safeties coach at East Texas Baptist University, and he was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach for Canyon State (Ariz.) Academy High School in 2013.

Prior to Canyon State Academy, Clark was a student assistant at Arizona State and helped with the development of defensive backs. During his coaching stint at Arizona State, the team appeared in the 2011 MAACO Bowl vs. Boise State.

Before coaching, Clark was a defensive back for Arizona State from 2007 to 2010. Clark graduated in 2012 with a degree in family studies.

MAX ONYEBULE

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

Max Onyebule is in his second season on the Nebraska staff in 2015, and he serves as a defensive graduate assistant. Onyebule will primarily work with a talented Husker defensive line this fall.

In 2014, Onyebule assisted a Nebraska defensive line that featured first-team All-Big Ten selection Randy Gregory and second-team all-conference pick Maliek Collins. The play of the defensive line helped the Blackshirts rank among the national leaders in pass efficiency defense, opponent pass completion percentage and third-down defense.

Onyebule spent the 2013 season as a defensive graduate assistant at Kansas, his alma mater.

As a defensive lineman for Kansas from 2006 to 2009, Onyebule registered 67 tackles as a three-year letterwinner. As a senior in 2009, Onyebule totaled 37 tackles, including 16 solo stops. He added 11 tackles for loss and 6.0 sacks. Kansas enjoyed great success during Onyebule's career, including a 12-1 record in 2007, when the Jayhawks earned an Orange Bowl victory over Virginia Tech and finished with a No. 7 final national ranking.

Onyebule earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Kansas in December of 2010. He is currently working on his master's in education administration. Onyebule is married to the former Charity Stowers.

Armstrong serves as a graduate manager for operations with the Huskers, assisting in a variety of duties, including day-to-day office operations, team travel, camps and various recruiting functions.

Armstrong was an operations intern at Oregon State in 2014. He served as an undergraduate assistant coach working with the offensive line for Oregon State from 2009 to 2013. Armstrong earned his degree in criminal justice from Oregon State in 2014.

BROCK BANDUR

GRADUATE MANAGER
DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Brock Bandur is in his first season as a graduate manager for defensive quality control. Bandur spent the 2014 season at Cincinnati, working with Hank Hughes and the Bearcats' defensive line. Bandur will assist Hughes again in Lincoln, while helping the defensive coaches with opponent breakdown, practice preparation with the offensive scout team.

Bandur returns to Lincoln after previously working with the Husker football program as a student manager, including as head student manager in 2012. Bandur also served as a volunteer intern for the Huskers in 2013. A native of Ord, Neb., Bandur graduated from Nebraska in 2012 with a degree in business administration and a minor in economics.

HARDIE BUCK

GRADUATE MANAGER
OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Hardie Buck is in his first season at Nebraska in 2015. He serves as a graduate manager for offensive quality control, primarily assisting wide receivers coach Keith Williams. Buck spent the 2012 and 2013 seasons assisting special teams coach Bruce Read at Oregon State.

Buck played collegiately at Alabama. A wide receiver, he developed into a special teams standout for the Crimson Tide, playing every game over his final two seasons and totaling 17 tackles. He was a member of Alabama's 2009 and 2011 national championship teams.

NICK HALBERG

GRADUATE MANAGER
OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Nick Halberg is a graduate manager for offensive quality control with the Huskers. Halberg assists offensive coordinator Danny Langsdorf with a variety of duties. Halberg previously worked with Langsdorf as a student worker for the Oregon State football team. Halberg spent the last six years on Mike Riley's OSU staff.

Halberg spent his first three years in college working in the Oregon State football video department. As a senior, he served as an undergraduate assistant for Langsdorf. Halberg graduated from Oregon State in 2012 with a degree in psychology. Upon graduation, he spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons as a graduate intern for the Beaver offense.

KEATON KRISTICK

GRADUATE MANAGER
DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Keaton Kristick is in his first year at Nebraska after spending the past two seasons as a graduate assistant on Mike Riley's Oregon State staff, where he worked extensively with the linebackers. Kristick will fill a similar role at Nebraska, assisting linebackers coach Trent Bray.

Kristick was a standout linebacker for the Beavers from 2006 to 2009. A two-time All-Pac 12 selection, Kristick totaled 211 tackles while helping Oregon State to a 3-1 bowl record. He then played two seasons in the NFL for the San Francisco 49ers.

ROMAN SAPOLU

GRADUATE MANAGER
OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

One year after playing for Mike Riley at Oregon State, Roman Sapolu has joined Riley's football staff at Nebraska. Sapolu serves as a graduate manager for offensive quality control, and he will primarily assist offensive line coach Mike Cavanaugh, his former position coach.

Sapolu got an unexpected early start to his coaching career last fall, when his senior season was cut short due to injury. A four-year letterwinner on the offensive line, Sapolu remained on the Beaver squad for the remainder of the season and assisted coach Cavanaugh.

SHANN SCHILLINGER

GRADUATE MANAGER
SPECIAL TEAMS

Shann Schillinger is in his first season at Nebraska, assisting Special Teams Coordinator Bruce Read. Schillinger came to Nebraska after spending the 2014 season at Dickinson State University in North Dakota, where his brother, Jace, is the offensive coordinator. Shann assisted with the wide receivers and special teams for the Bluehawks.

A sixth-round pick by the Atlanta Falcons in the 2010 NFL Draft, Schillinger played four seasons in the NFL. He ranked third on the Falcons in special teams tackles in 2010 and second in 2011. Collegiately, Schillinger was a two-time All-Big Sky performer at Montana, where he helped the Grizzlies to two appearances in the FCS National Championship Game.

Schillinger earned his degree in business administration from Montana in 2010. He and his wife, Ericka, have a daughter, Lenex (1). The couple is expecting their second child in January.

FOOTBALL VIDEO STAFF

GREG VAUGHN

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO

Greg Vaughn joined the Nebraska football program in January of 2015 as the team's video director. Vaughn's primary responsibility lies in overseeing Nebraska's 45-client XOS coaching video network that is utilized by the football coaching staff on a daily basis.

Vaughn and the rest of the video staff implements a video system for the day-to-day use by coaches, including the taping and editing of practice and games along with opponent video breakdowns.

TATE GUILLOTTE

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF VIDEO

Tate Guillotte is in his fifth season as the assistant football video coordinator at Nebraska. Guillotte assists in providing all technology needs for the Husker coaching staff, including film exchange and breakdown of practice and game footage. Guillotte helps facilitate the filming and editing of all games and practice. With Guillotte's help, Nebraska was one of the first two schools in the country to begin shooting, editing and distributing practice video in HD.

Along with his on-field responsibilities, Guillotte also has played the lead role in Nebraska's transition to digital playbooks for the entire Husker football team as well as the implementation of advanced analytical data for self and opponent scouting. Guillotte assists with all facets of technology integration for the Husker football program.

Guillotte came to Nebraska after spending two years as an intern with XOS and the SEC Digital Network. He also has previous experience working with a collegiate football team, as Guillotte was a student videographer at LSU from 2006 to 2011.

Guillotte is originally from New Iberia, La. He and his wife, Melynnda, have one son, Carson.

FOOTBALL EQUIPMENT STAFF

JAY TERRY

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Jay Terry has been equipment manager at Nebraska since 2002 and has served on the Nebraska athletics department equipment staff since April 1997. Terry also spent two years as a student equipment manager before serving as an assistant equipment manager for four years.

Terry maintains the Husker football locker room and is in charge of the football team's equipment needs. He coordinates the transportation of all football and support equipment to road games, and oversees Nebraska's equipment staff of four full-time assistants and several student workers who handle all 24 of Nebraska's sports. Terry is also in charge of overseeing the Husker football student managers.

A native of Cozad, Neb., Terry has been a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association for 15 years. He earned a degree in communication studies from the University of Nebraska in May 2004.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE AND SPORTS PSYCHOLOGY

LONNIE ALBERS, M.D.

ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Dr. Lonnie Albers has served as director of athletic medicine at Nebraska since 1995 and has been working with the athletics department since 1985. Albers, an associate athletics director for the Huskers, oversees the operations of the athletic medicine and athletic training facilities and staff.

Albers practiced clinical medicine in Lincoln for more than 10 years and has more than 20 years of experience in urgent care. He previously served as a team physician from 1985 through 1995. Albers is responsible for the medical care of the student-athletes and maintains a pharmacy permit in order to dispense medicine to student-athletes as needed. A Hildreth, Neb., native, Albers is a certified medical review officer and administers Nebraska's drug testing programs.

Albers earned his bachelor's degree in biology and English from Nebraska in 1977 and his M.D. from the University of Nebraska Medical Center in 1980. He also is board certified in Family Practice. Albers is married to the former Jodelle Glushenko, and they have a son, Scott, and two daughters, Michelle and Angela.

MARK MAYER

HEAD FOOTBALL ATHLETIC TRAINER

Mark Mayer (pronounced Meyer) is in his ninth season as Nebraska's head football athletic trainer in 2015. Mayer came to the Nebraska program in 2007 with more than a dozen years of experience in athletic medicine, including serving the previous nine years as the assistant athletic trainer for the Oakland Raiders.

Mayer heads up Nebraska's athletic medicine efforts for the football team. His responsibilities include year-round preventive care, immediate care for injured athletes at practices and games and the reconditioning of injured athletes.

Prior to joining the Raiders, he served first as an athletic trainer intern in 1995 and gained full-time status in 1998 as a strength and conditioning assistant. Mayer also served as a student athletic trainer for UC Davis from 1992 to 1994. He was named a full-time assistant athletic trainer for Oakland in 1999 and served in that capacity for Super Bowl XXXVII in 2003 when the AFC Champion Raiders faced the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In his 11 years with the Raiders, Mayer worked with former Husker players Adam Treu, John Parrella, Eric Johnson, Aaron Graham and Fabian Washington.

Originally from San Leandro, Calif., Mayer graduated from the University of California at Davis in 1994, and served as a student athletic trainer for UC Davis from 1992 to 1994. He earned his bachelor of science degree in physical education and is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Married to the former Kira Schoeneman, Mayer and his wife have two children, 12-year old daughter Savannah Audren and 9-year old son Boston Zachary.

DREW HAMBLIN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Drew Hamblin is in his second season as an assistant athletic trainer at Nebraska, where he works with the Husker football team. Hamblin assists with all aspects of the athletic medicine efforts for the football team, including year-round preventive care, immediate care for injured athletes at practice and games and the reconditioning of injured athletes.

Before coming to Nebraska, Hamblin spent three seasons as an assistant athletic trainer at Auburn from 2011 to 2013, when he worked with the Tiger football program. Previously, Hamblin served as the Director of Sports Medicine and Head Athletic Trainer at Newberry College in Newberry, S.C. Hamblin also possesses NFL experience, as he spent the 2009 season as an athletic trainer intern with the Buffalo Bills.

Hamblin is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association. A native of Madison, Wis., he earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology-athletic training from Wisconsin in 2007. Hamblin earned a master's degree in sports management from Arkansas in 2009. He and his wife Heather have two children.

TODD STULL, M.D.

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS PSYCHOLOGY

Dr. Todd Stull is in his first season as Nebraska's director of sports psychology, a newly created role designed to enhance the Husker student-athlete experience. Stull had previously served as a consulting sport psychiatrist for both the Nebraska and Creighton athletic departments.

Stull is the founder of Inside Performance Mindroom, an innovative service-based company that seeks to bring out an athlete's peak performance through psychiatry and the latest sport science training available. As a performance psychiatrist, Stull has worked with athletes, corporate executives and physicians to identify and address psychological, interpersonal and wellness needs through mental skills training.

A graduate of the University of Nebraska Medical Center, Stull is a board certified psychiatrist in Addiction Medicine as well as General and Addiction Psychiatry. He is a professional member of the American Psychiatric Association, the Association of Applied Sports Psychology and the International Society of Sports Psychiatry. Stull is also a member of the NCAA Mental Health Task Force.

Before attending medical school, Stull earned his bachelor's degree from Hastings College, where he was a quarterback on the Broncos' football team.

BRANDON ARMSTRONG

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Brandon Armstrong is in his second season as an assistant athletic trainer with the Nebraska football team. Armstrong assists with all aspects of the athletic medicine efforts for the football team, including year-round preventive care, immediate care for injured athletes at practice and games and the reconditioning of injured athletes.

Armstrong comes to Nebraska after spending the 2012 and 2013 seasons as an athletic training intern with the New England Patriots. Previously, Armstrong spent the 2010 and 2011 seasons as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Alabama, which won the 2011 national championship.

Armstrong earned bachelor's degrees in athletic training from Morehead State in exercise science in 2007 and in athletic training from Eastern Kentucky in 2010. He earned his master of science degree in health studies with a concentration in athletic training from Alabama in 2012.

JERRY WEBER

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC MEDICINE HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jerry Weber began his association with the Nebraska athletic medicine staff in 1977 and has been head athletic trainer and associate director of athletic medicine since 1996.

In his duties as head athletic trainer and physical therapist, he oversees the operation of all athletic medicine facilities and supervises the Husker staff of athletic trainers, graduate and undergraduate student assistants. Along with his duties as head trainer, Weber directs the orthopedic rehabilitation and coordinates the return to sport programs with orthopedic specialists and athletic training staff. During the spring he also works with the men's gymnastics and baseball teams.

The Nebraska medical team has two physical therapist/athletic trainers, 11 athletic trainers, six graduate assistant certified athletic trainers and 40 student assistants in the athletic training curriculum - all required to care for more than 600 Husker student-athletes.

A Sidney, Neb., native, Weber earned a bachelor's degree in zoology from Nebraska in 1974. He earned his physical therapy degree from UNMC in 1976 and his master's degree from Western Illinois in 1977.

Weber has enjoyed a distinguished career at Nebraska. In June of 2011, Weber was inducted into the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) Hall of Fame. He became the fourth former Nebraska athletic trainer to join the NATA Hall of Fame, including Paul Schneider, George Sullivan and Roland "Duke" LaRue.

Weber was previously honored by the NATA in June of 2004 as one of 18 members to receive the Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer award. In the spring of 2003, Weber was inducted into the District V NATA Hall of Fame for his many years of service to that organization. In 1991, Weber received the Sullivan Award from the NATA recognizing excellence in athletic training. Weber has been active in the NATA for more than 30 years at the state, district and national levels since 1978, having served on the board of directors and as a presidential candidate.

Weber also has been honored by the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame as a recipient of the 2002 Lyell Bremser Special Merit Award.

Weber was a member of the NCAA Committee on Competitive Safeguards and Medical Aspects of Sport and was the NCAA liaison to the National Athletic Trainers Association's College/University Athletic Trainers Committee for six years from 2001 to 2006. Weber served 10 years on the Nebraska State Examining Board for Athletic Trainers.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

STEVE WATERFIELD

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR PERFORMANCE & STRATEGIC RESEARCH

Steve Waterfield joined the Nebraska Athletics Department in August of 2013 as a Senior Associate Athletics Director in charge of Performance and Strategic Research.

A member of the Athletics Department's Senior Management Team, Waterfield assists Director of Athletics Shawn Eichorst with the administration of the football program and serves as the sports administrator for men's and women's tennis. He also oversees athletic medicine, strength and conditioning, sports nutrition, Lewis Training Table, the Nebraska Athletics Performance Laboratory (NAPL) and strategic research and sports analytics.

Waterfield is the athletics department liaison to the institution's Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3), located in the East Stadium Research Facility.

Waterfield joined Nebraska after two years as a senior administrator at Miami. While in Coral Gables, Waterfield oversaw sports medicine, athletic training, strength and conditioning and human resources, and served as the direct sport administrator for the football and men's basketball programs.

Prior to Miami, Waterfield spent seven years at Wisconsin, serving under Director of Athletics Barry Alvarez as an Associate Athletics Director for Student Services. Waterfield oversaw compliance, academic services and sports medicine, while also serving as sport administrator for the men's and women's soccer and men's and women's swimming and diving programs.

Waterfield went to Wisconsin after spending five years as an Assistant Director of Compliance at Ohio State.

Waterfield holds a law degree, a master's in business administration and a master's in sports management from Ohio State and a bachelor's degree in political science from Kenyon College. He is a member of the Ohio bar and U.S. Federal District Court and worked as an Assistant Attorney General in the Ohio Attorney General's office.

KEITH ZIMMER

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR LIFE SKILLS & N CLUB

In his 28th year serving Nebraska Athletics, Keith Zimmer leads Nebraska's Life Skills unit within the department. He also serves as the sports administrator for the men's and women's golf programs while also overseeing all components of Nebraska's Letterwinners N Club.

Zimmer, who started at Nebraska in 1987, carries 27 years of life skills and student services experience and provides support to all current Nebraska student-athletes in addition to providing life skills guidance to alumni student-athletes.

Components of the Husker Life Skills program include individual student-athlete meetings, major life skills events, the Husker Life Seminar, community outreach, graduate school assistance and postgraduate scholarships. Life Skills annually coordinates an Involvement Fair, Student-Athlete Career Fair, Networking Night, the Senior Celebration, Night at the Lied recognition banquet and Post-Eligibility Opportunities.

Zimmer, who worked in Nebraska's Academic and Support Services area from 1987 to 2006, is regarded as a national leader in the life skills area. He received one of the top honors in college athletics in September of 2006, when he was chosen for the Dr. Gene Hooks Award as the Life Skills Administrator of the Year. Zimmer has also served as an NCAA Life Skills trainer and is active with the National Consortium for Academics and Sport.

Zimmer provides leadership to the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and remains active in the Ventures In Partnership program, where student-athletes are integrated into various outreach initiatives with Lincoln Public Schools. Zimmer also pioneered the annual "School is Cool" Jam, which reached more than 100,000 middle-level students in the 12-year existence of the event.

He is an honorary member of the Golden Key National Honor Society and Mortar Board and has received the Chancellor's Award for Exemplary Service to Students.

Zimmer earned his bachelor's degree at Wayne State College and his master's in education from Springfield (Mass.) College. Zimmer and his wife, Michelle, have two sons, Logan and Caden.

DENNIS LEBLANC

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR ACADEMICS

Dennis Leblanc was named Nebraska's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Academics in 2007, after being promoted from associate athletics director for Academic Programs and Student Services. He was named an Associate Athletics Director in 1998 and has directed the academic program since 1993. Leblanc, who has been with the Academic Support Program for Student-Athletes since 1987, joined the Nebraska Athletics Department in 1983 as a member of the track and field staff.

Under Leblanc's leadership, Nebraska has become the national leader in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans for football and all sports, NCAA Today's Top Ten Award honorees and recipients of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Postgraduate Scholarship. Since he joined the academic staff in 1987, 244 of Nebraska's 320 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans have been honored, while NU has claimed 14 of its 17 NCAA's Today Top Ten Award recipients. Nearly 3,000 Husker student-athletes have earned their degrees.

Over the past decade, Nebraska's academic support program for student-athletes has received outstanding reviews from the NCAA Certification Review Team and the Nebraska Faculty Intercollegiate Athletics Committee. In 2012, Nebraska's program became one of only 21 programs nationally to be certified by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes (N4A) for meeting the established standards of service for student-athletes as outlined by the N4A.

Leblanc is a member of the N4A, and in 2002 he received its prestigious Lan Hewlett Award presented to an athletic administrator in recognition of distinguished performance in providing personal, academic and professional guidance to student-athletes.

Leblanc was presented the Chancellor's Award for Exemplary Service to Students at the 2004 University of Nebraska Honors Convocation, which recognizes individuals who go above and beyond their assigned duties, devoting extra time and effort in serving the needs of students. In 2005, he was presented with Honorary Mortar Board membership honoring him for his leadership and service to students. In 2007, Leblanc received the Hero Mentor Award through the American Red Cross, which annually recognizes a person for outstanding leadership and mentoring.

Leblanc earned his undergraduate degree from Bethany College, and a master's degree from Wichita State. He and his wife, Coreen, have four children: Olivia, Christian and twins Madeleine and Mackenzie.

HUSKER NOTEBOOK

HUSKERS EMBARK ON YEAR ONE UNDER MIKE RILEY

The 2015 season will mark the debut for first-year Head Coach Mike Riley, who was named Nebraska's 29th head coach last December. Riley came to Nebraska after 14 seasons as the head coach at Oregon State as well as head coaching experience at the professional level.

Riley boasts 41 years of coaching experience and has surrounded himself with an experienced staff that boasts coaching and recruiting experience from coast to coast. In his tenure at Oregon State, Riley guided the Beavers to eight bowl games, compiling a 6-2 record in the postseason. He owned a school-record 93 wins overall.

Overall, Riley enters his 24th season as a head coach in 2015. Only five FBS head coaches have more experience as a head coach. Riley's full-time coaching staff includes six coaches who worked for Riley previously at Oregon State. Four of those coaches were on Riley's 2014 Oregon State coaching staff, while offensive coordinator Danny Langsdorf and running backs coach Reggie Davis returned to Riley's staff after stints in the National Football League.

STRONG LINEUP OF OPPONENTS TO VISIT MEMORIAL STADIUM IN 2015

Nebraska's 2015 schedule is highlighted by a strong home slate of games at Memorial Stadium. The Huskers play host to arguably their best home-opening opponent in more than a decade on Sept. 5 when BYU travels to Lincoln. BYU played in the Miami Beach Bowl and is one of five 2014 bowl teams that will come to Lincoln.

The home non-conference schedule also includes visits by South Alabama (Camellia Bowl) on Sept. 12, with Southern Miss rounding out the home non-conference slate on Sept. 26 in the Huskers' Homecoming game.

The Big Ten schedule begins with a visit from defending Big Ten West champion Wisconsin (Outback) on Oct. 10. Northwestern will come to Lincoln on Oct. 24, on a weekend when Nebraska will honor its 1995 national championship team.

Michigan State (Cotton) will visit Lincoln on Nov. 7 in one of the top cross-division matchups in the Big Ten in 2015. The annual Black Friday contest against Iowa (Gator) will take place in Lincoln on Nov. 27.

6 Riley ranks sixth in NCAA history with a .750 winning percentage in bowl games. One of only six coaches in NCAA history to win his first five career bowl games, Riley was 6-2 in bowl games while at Oregon State.

9 Riley owns nine years of experience as a professional head coach, the most of any FBS coach. In addition to the NFL, Riley led teams in the Canadian Football League and the World League of American Football.

24 Riley owns 24 years of head coaching experience at the collegiate or professional level, the sixth most among all FBS head coaches.

TRIP TO MIAMI HIGHLIGHTS ROAD SCHEDULE

Nebraska's road schedule in 2015 features three games at Big Ten West opponents, and a pair of games that will take the Huskers to the East Coast.

The Huskers make their first road trip of 2015 on Sept. 19 when they take on Miami at Sun Life Stadium. The Hurricanes visited Lincoln last fall in the first game of a home-and-home series.

Nebraska and Miami have a long history in the Sunshine State, with four Orange Bowl matchups between the teams between 1984 and 1995, all at the old Orange Bowl stadium. The Huskers' most recent visit to Sun Life Stadium occurred in the Orange Bowl following the 1997 season when NU defeated Tennessee to capture its fifth national title.

The Huskers will visit Illinois for the first time as Big Ten opponents on Oct. 3, when NU plays at Illinois' Memorial Stadium. A trip to Minnesota's TCF Bank Stadium comes on Oct. 17, and the Huskers' will spend Halloween at Purdue's Ross-Ade Stadium. Nebraska concludes its road schedule with its first-ever trip to Rutgers on Nov. 14.

Overall, the Huskers face eight teams who participated in a bowl game in 2014. The Big Ten Championship Game is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 5, in Indianapolis.

RILEY OFFENSES HAVE HISTORY OF BALANCE, DIVERSITY

One of the hallmarks of Riley's offenses at Oregon State were their versatility and balance. Riley and his staff have shown the ability to regularly adapt to their personnel and produce top performers at all positions on offense.

The highlights of Riley's offenses at Oregon State include:

- In 2003, Oregon State was the first team in NCAA FBS history to have a 4,000-yard passer (Derek Anderson), a 1,500-yard rusher (Steven Jackson) and two 1,000-yard receivers (James Newson and Mike Hass).
- The 2003 Beaver offense was the first offense in the history of the Pac-12 conference to accumulate 6,000 yards of total offense in a season.
- Oregon State quarterbacks under Riley compiled two of the top four single-season passing performances in Pac-12 history, including a conference record 4,662 passing yards by Sean Mannion in 2013.
- Beaver signal callers had seven 3,000-yard passing seasons in Riley's second stint in Corvallis from 2003 to 2014.
- OSU quarterbacks earned seven all-conference honors under the direction of Riley and his staff.
- Six of the top 10 single-season rushing totals in OSU history were under Riley.
- OSU running backs earned 11 all conference honors under Riley, including 2008 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year Jacquizz Rodgers.

SCHOOLS WITH MULTIPLE BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNERS

- Oregon State running backs produced nine 1,000-yard rushing seasons in 14 years with Riley as head coach.
- Two of Riley's receivers at Oregon State—Mike Hass in 2005 and Brandin Cooks in 2013—captured the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver.
- Riley is the only current FBS coach who has had two players win the Biletnikoff Award.
- Brandin Cooks set Pac-12 records for most receptions and receiving yards in a season in 2013.
- Oregon State receivers produced nine 1,000-yard receiving seasons under Riley and his staff.
- Beaver receivers earned All-America honors six times under Riley and his staff and Pac-10/12 postseason honors seven times.

HUSKERS LOOK TO KEEP GROUND GAME CHURNING

Riley and his offensive staff take over a Husker offense that has ranked among the nation's most consistent rushing teams over the past several years.

- Nebraska has ranked in the top 20 nationally in rushing each of the past five seasons, while also averaging better than 200 yards per game on the ground each year in that stretch.
- In 2014, Nebraska averaged 240.2 rushing yards per game to rank 17th nationally and fourth in the Big Ten in that category.
- Nebraska led the Big Ten in rushing in 2012, while leading the Big 12 in rushing yards per game in 2010.
- With Ameer Abdullah posting 1,611 rushing yards in 2014, Nebraska has had a 1,000-yard rusher each of the past six seasons. That is the longest stretch for NU since the Huskers had at least one 1,000-yard rusher in a school-record seven straight seasons from 1979 to 1985.

SIX STRAIGHT 1,000-YARD RUSHERS

Ameer Abdullah is the only player in the history of Nebraska football the have three 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

33 The Nebraska coaching staff has combined for 33 seasons of coaching experience in the National Football League. Eight of the 10 coaches have spent time coaching in the NFL.

41 Riley's 41 years of overall coaching experience at the collegiate or professional level rank as the third most among FBS head coaches.

ARMSTRONG BOASTS STRONG TWO-YEAR TOTALS

Junior quarterback Tommy Armstrong Jr. has guided the Nebraska offense for the majority of the past two seasons. The Cibolo, Texas, native has posted a 16-5 record as the Husker starter, including starting all 13 games during the 2014 season.

Armstrong produced a solid campaign in 2014, passing for 2,695 yards and 22 touchdowns, while rushing for 705 yards and six touchdowns. Armstrong accounted for 3,400 yards of total offense, the third-best total in NU history. His 261.5 yards of total offense per game ranked second in the Big Ten and 35th nationally. Armstrong also ranked eighth nationally by averaging 14.65 yards per completion.

One of six captains for the 2015 season, Armstrong is hopeful of building on a strong statistical start to his Nebraska career.

- Armstrong's 2,695 passing yards were the fourth-most in a single season in Nebraska history and a record for an NU sophomore.
- His 3,400 yards of total offense were also a sophomore school record and the third-highest single-season total in school history.
- The 22 passing touchdowns in 2014 were the fourth-most in school history. Armstrong threw for seven touchdowns in the final two games of the 2014 season.
- Armstrong set Nebraska bowl records for attempts (51), completions (32), passing yards (381) and total offense yards (422) in the Holiday Bowl against USC.
- Armstrong has 3,661 career passing yards to rank seventh in school history. Entering 2015, he is in position to become just the fifth quarterback in school history with 5,000 passing yards.
- Armstrong has 4,568 career total offensive yards, putting him within 212 yards of the top 10 on the NU career chart.
- With 907 career rushing yards, Armstrong is 93 rushing yards from becoming the 10th quarterback in school history with 1,000 career rushing yards.
- Armstrong is one of only two quarterbacks in school history to start 20 games or more before the end of their sophomore season, joining Taylor Martinez.

PIERSON-EL ENJOYS RECORD-BREAKING FRESHMAN SEASON

Sophomore De'Mornay Pierson-El produced one of the top special teams seasons in Nebraska history as a true freshman in 2014. The Maryland product returned a nation-leading three punts for touchdowns during the regular season, including returns of 86 and 80 yards.

For his efforts, Pierson-El was a second-team All-America choice by the Football Writers Association of America and USA Today. He also earned freshman All-America honors from several outlets, and was twice honored as Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week, earning the award after games against Fresno State and Iowa.

He has been recognized as a preseason All-America punt returner by several outlets heading into the 2015 campaign.

Pierson-El finished 2014 ranked second nationally in punt return average at 17.5 yards per return. His 596 total punt return yards not only led the nation, but were nearly 200 yards more than any other FBS player. His total was also the third highest in school history.

Pierson-El had an 86-yard punt return for a touchdown at Fresno State, the longest ever by a Nebraska freshman and the seventh-longest return in school history.

Pierson-El capped the regular season with an 80-yard punt return touchdown at Iowa, helping fuel the Huskers rally from a 17-point deficit for a 37-34 victory.

Pierson-El's 86 and 80-yard punt return touchdowns were the third and eighth-longest returns in the FBS ranks in 2014. He was the only player in the nation with two returns of more than 80 yards last season.

Pierson-El's 150 punt return yards at Fresno State were the most in FBS in 2014, while his 134 punt return yards at Iowa were fourth.

SIX PLAYERS TO SERVE AS 2015 CAPTAINS

Six players were selected as captains for the 2015 season, the first under Head Coach Mike Riley. The group includes three players each on offense and defense, and consists of two seniors and four juniors. The players come to the Nebraska program from six different states.

Offensively, senior offensive tackle Alex Lewis, junior quarterback Tommy Armstrong Jr. and junior wide receiver Jordan Westerkamp were named captains. Senior defensive end Jack Gangwish, junior defensive tackle Maliek Collins and junior safety Nate Gerry will represent the 2015 Blackshirts as captains.

Armstrong Jr. has been Nebraska's starting quarterback the past two seasons. The Cibolo, Texas, native posted the third-best total offense season in Husker history as a sophomore in 2014.

Lewis the only returnee on the offensive line who started all 13 games for Nebraska in 2014. The Tempe, Ariz., native joins his father in having been elected as a Nebraska team captain. Bill Lewis was a Husker captain in 1985, when he earned All-America honors at center. The Lewis family is the third family to have a father-son duo named as Nebraska team captains. Tom Ruud and sons Barrett and Bo served as captains, as did Dean Steinkuhler and his sons, Ty and Baker.

Westerkamp has played a key role in the Nebraska passing game the past two seasons, including 44 catches and five touchdowns as a sophomore. Westerkamp's selection marks the third straight year a receiver has served as a Nebraska captain.

A fifth-year senior from Wood River, Neb., Gangwish continues a long line of Nebraska natives and walk-ons who have served as Nebraska captains. Gangwish's selection marks the 10th straight year a Nebraska native has been named a team captain. Gangwish is the second player in three seasons to become a captain after originally joining the program as a walk-on, joining offensive lineman Spencer Long (2013). Gangwish played in every game last season and made 19 tackles.

A Kansas City product, Collins was a stalwart for the Husker defensive line last season, earning second-team All-Big Ten honors as a sophomore. Collins had 45 tackles, including a team-leading 14 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks.

Gerry enters his junior season as the leading returning tackler for the Blackshirt defense. The Sioux Falls, S.D., product made 88 tackles last season. He also ranked among the Big Ten leaders with five interceptions and was a second-team all-conference pick. Gerry is the fourth defensive back in the past three seasons to serve as a team captain, joining Cianté Evans in 2013 and Corey Cooper and Josh Mitchell in 2014.

AMERICA'S PROGRAM

Nebraska's roster traditionally includes student-athletes from all parts of the United States and 2015 is no different.

The 2015 NU roster features players from 26 states as well as Canada. Homegrown Huskers dominate the roster with 61 native Nebraskans on the roster. The Husker roster includes at least five players from six additional states, led by Texas with 11 players and California and Florida with seven each. The map on the right indicates the states represented on Nebraska's 2015 roster.

The roster is reflective of Nebraska's national approach to recruiting. Nebraska has signed players from 25 states in its last four recruiting classes, including 13 states in its 20-player class in 2015. Nebraska signed two players from seven states and single players from six other states.

Nebraska has long blended players from all over the country to become one of the nation's top programs.

- Nebraska's 96 football All-Americans hail from 24 states and the District of Columbia. Native Nebraskans have accounted for 38 All-America awards.

- In its 125-year history, Nebraska letterwinners come from 45 states, Washington D.C. and six foreign countries (Australia, Canada, Finland, South Korea, Germany and Mexico).

HUSKER SENIORS MAKING THE GRADE

Nebraska's success off the field is nearly as well known as its winning ways on the field. Nebraska leads the nation in Academic All-Americans in football with 107 all-time first or second-team selections. Nebraska also leads the way across all sports with 320 academic All-Americans. Several Huskers will be candidates to add to the Academic All-America tradition in 2015.

Nebraska's senior class is also adding to Nebraska's strong track record of graduating its student-athletes.

- Six Nebraska seniors will play the 2015 season as graduate students. Kevin Williams graduated in August of 2014, followed by Jamal Turner in December of 2014. Givens Price, Matt Finnin and Taariq Allen picked up their degrees in May and Alex Lewis will graduate in August.

- Eleven additional members of the senior class are expected to pick up their undergraduate degrees in December.

Nebraska was 1 of 14 FBS programs to earn Public Recognition for high achievement in the Academic Progress Rate, ranking in the top 10 percent nationally.

WESTERKAMP LEADS VETERAN RECEIVING CORPS

Junior receiver Jordan Westerkamp is the leader of a veteran group of Nebraska receivers. Westerkamp has had a productive first two years in the Husker program, putting him in a position to make a strong impression on the NU record book, similar to several recent Husker wideouts.

- Westerkamp caught 44 passes last season, ranking just outside of the single-season top 10 in receptions.
- Westerkamp has 64 career receptions to rank in a tie for 23rd on the NU career receptions list. He is 27 catches from cracking the top 10 on the NU career catches list.
- Westerkamp averaged 17.0 yards per catch last season, racking up 747 receiving yards on his 44 receptions. The 747 yards were the 11th best season total in school history.
- Westerkamp enters his junior season with 1,030 career receiving yards, ranking as one of 23 players in school history with better than 1,000 receiving yards. He is less than 350 yards from reaching the top 10 on the NU career yardage list.

HUSKERS LOOK TO CONTINUE SEASON-OPENING STREAK

Nebraska will look to extend its streak of winning its season opener to 30 straight years when the Huskers take on BYU on Sept. 5. The Cougars are one of Nebraska’s top season-opening opponents in the past decade.

A 55-7 win over Florida Atlantic in the 2014 season opener extended NU’s win streak to 29 straight games, dating back to a 1985 loss to Florida State.

The streak leads the nation, bettering Florida’s 25 straight season-opening wins. Nebraska has scored at least 40 points in 21 of the past 29 season openers, while limiting the opposition to 14 points or less 19 times.

NEBRASKA AMONG HISTORICALLY BEST PROGRAMS

Nebraska enters its 126th season of college football in 2015 and owns an 874-361-40 all-time record in 1,275 games (.701).

Nebraska is one of eight programs with 800 all-time victories, and NU’s 874 all-time victories are fourth nationally.

Nebraska ranks as the nation’s winningest program since 1970. During the past four decades, the Huskers have compiled a 440-120-5 record, for a .783 winning percentage in 565 games. NU’s 440 wins in that time period are 25 more than any other school.

- Since the first season of Nebraska football in 1890, Husker teams have won 11 or more games 12 times, including seven times since 1993.
- Nebraska has won 12 or more games seven times, including three seasons with 13 wins (1971, 1994, 1997).
- Nebraska has 49 nine-win seasons in school history, including 41 since 1970. NU has posted seven straight nine-win seasons for the first time since an NCAA-record 33 straight from 1969 to 2001. Nebraska enters 2015 as one of three schools to win nine games each of the past seven years, joining Alabama and Oregon. Nebraska has 24 10-win seasons since 1970.
- The 2014 season marked Nebraska’s 125th season of college football. The Huskers have won five national championships and 43 conference championships.

A HOLIDAY TRADITION

Nebraska participated in its 51st all-time bowl game with its appearance in the Holiday Bowl in 2014. Nebraska is one of only five programs with 50 or more bowl appearances, and its 51 bowl appearances are third all-time, trailing only Alabama (61) and Texas (53).

The Huskers have played in the postseason in 44 of the past 46 seasons, including an NCAA-record 35 straight bowl games from 1969 to 2003. Nebraska owns a 25-26 all-time bowl record, and the 25 bowl victories rank seventh nationally.

Nebraska played the first of its 51 bowls in the 1941 Rose Bowl, when No. 7 Nebraska lost to No. 2 Stanford, 21-13.

NCAA RECORD SELLOUT STREAK CONTINUES INTO 2015

One of the most remarkable streaks in collegiate sports passed its 50th anniversary in 2012. Nebraska has sold out every game at Memorial Stadium since Nov. 3, 1962, and the streak sits at 340 heading into the 2015 campaign.

NU celebrated the 300th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium on Sept. 26, 2009, against Louisiana-Lafayette, with a then-stadium record crowd of 86,304. Notre Dame is second in all-time consecutive sellouts with 242, 98 fewer than the Huskers. Nebraska established a new stadium record for attendance against Miami on Sept. 20, 2014, with a crowd of 91,585. The crowd ranked as the 10th-largest to see any Nebraska game. NU’s crowd of 91,441 for the 2014 season opener against Florida Atlantic was the third biggest in stadium history.

Nebraska was 10th in average home attendance at 91,249 fans per game in 2014. The average attendance for seven home games was the largest ever at Memorial Stadium, bettering the 2013 mark of 90,933.

The No. 10 ranking in average attendance marked the second straight year Nebraska has been in the top 10 nationally in attendance. The Huskers checked in at No. 9 in 2013, the highest for Nebraska since full attendance figures are available beginning with the 1999 season. NU has ranked in the top 20 nationally in attendance each of the 16 years with available attendance figures.

Nebraska was one of four Big Ten schools to rank in the top 10 in average attendance and the conference had seven teams in the top 25 nationally in attendance.

HUSKERS OWN BIG ADVANTAGE AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

Nebraska has rewarded the loyalty of its fans with great success at Memorial Stadium through the years.

Nebraska has won at least six home games in 23 of the past 29 seasons. Nebraska is 159-24 (.869) at home in the last 26 seasons (since 1989).

- Nebraska finished 6-1 at home in 2014. Nebraska’s most recent perfect home season occurred in 2012.
- The Huskers are 12-4 in Big Ten home games since joining the league in 2011.
- During Nebraska’s run of success at home over the past three decades, NU has had three home winning streaks of 20 or more games and overall has posted 41 unbeaten and untied home seasons.
- The Huskers are 528-143-20 (.779, 691 games, 125 years) in Lincoln, and 403-120-13 (.764, 536 games, 91 years) in Memorial Stadium (since 1923).
- The 2014 season marked the 46th straight year NU had a winning home season.

Nebraska has won 29 consecutive season openers dating back to 1986.

2015 OUTLOOK

Quarterback Tommy Armstrong Jr. has directed the Nebraska offense each of the past two years. The Texas native has started 21 games the past two seasons and will enter fall camp as a strong favorite to retain that role. Armstrong could join an elite group of quarterbacks who have been three-year starters in the Nebraska program.

The 6-1, 220-pound Armstrong has excelled based on his dual-threat abilities as well as his command and leadership of the Husker offense. Armstrong was among the Big Ten leaders in total offense in 2014 and capped his sophomore season with career bests in passing yards and total offense in the Holiday Bowl against USC. Armstrong will focus on improved passing accuracy in Coach Mike Riley's offense in 2015.

Armstrong posted the third-best total offense season in school history with 3,400 yards in 2014, while his 2,695 passing yards ranked as the most by an NU sophomore and the fourth-most overall in school history. Armstrong also rushed for 705 yards and accounted for 28 total touchdowns. His 261.5 total offensive yards per game ranked second in the Big Ten, while his 207.3 passing yards per contest were fifth.

With two seasons remaining, Armstrong is already climbing the Husker career charts. His 3,661 career passing yards rank seventh in school history, while his 4,568 yards of total offense leaves him just 212 yards outside the career top 10.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Armstrong started all 13 games and finished with 3,400 yards of total offense. He threw for 22 touchdowns, including seven in the season's final two games. He threw for more than 200 yards eight times in 2014, and had at least one touchdown pass in 11 of 13 games. Armstrong had 705 rushing yards and six rushing touchdowns, while averaging 4.9 yards per carry. He topped 50 rushing yards seven times, including a career-high 131 rushing yards against McNeese State.

Armstrong opened the year with three consecutive 300-yard total offense games. He threw for 271 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for 62 yards and a touchdown against Florida Atlantic, helping NU set a Big Ten modern-era record for total offense with 784 yards. Armstrong posted the 131 rushing yards against McNeese State on just 11 carries, with runs of 42, 24 and 34 yards against the Cowboys. He also threw for 242 yards and two touchdowns, including a 58-yard touchdown pass to Ameer Abdullah in the waning seconds to secure the victory.

In the road opener at Fresno State, Armstrong completed 12-of-21 passes for 260 yards and three touchdowns, including a 70-yard scoring strike to Jordan Westerkamp on the game's third play. He also rushed for 65 yards, and became the first Nebraska quarterback since 2008 to top 300 yards of total offense in three straight games.

Armstrong rushed for 96 yards on 13 carries, while adding 113 passing yards in a 41-31 win over Miami. He threw for 166 yards and a 73-yard touchdown in a win over Illinois, while adding 66 rushing yards. Armstrong threw for a then-career-high 273 yards and nearly engineered a fourth-quarter comeback in a 27-22 loss at Michigan State.

Armstrong accounted for 276 yards of total offense at Northwestern, including 221 passing yards. He caught a 16-yard touchdown pass from De'Mornay Pierson-El on a second-quarter reserve pass, becoming the first NU quarterback to catch a touchdown pass since 2008.

Armstrong posted 268 yards of total offense in a 28-24 loss to Minnesota, including 223 passing yards. In the regular-season finale at Iowa, Armstrong's leadership and poise helped Nebraska tie the largest road comeback in school history, as the Huskers overcame a 24-7 second-half deficit to win 37-34 in overtime.

Armstrong threw for a career-high four touchdown passes at Iowa, including a pair of second-half touchdowns to put NU in position to reach overtime. Armstrong then connected with Kenny Bell on a game-winning nine-yard touchdown pass in overtime.

Armstrong directed Nebraska to 525 total yards against USC in the Holiday Bowl. He posted career highs in passing yards (381), completions (32) and attempts (51), all Nebraska bowl records. Armstrong also rushed for 41 yards to account for a career-high and Nebraska bowl record 422 yards of total offense. He threw for three touchdowns in the game, and ran for a fourth-quarter score before the Husker rally fell just short.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Armstrong took over the starting role midway through the season and compiled a 7-1 record as the starter. He was one of three quarterbacks to play a key role for NU in 2013, beginning the season as the co-No. 2 quarterback behind Taylor Martinez. Armstrong finished with 966 yards passing and nine touchdowns, while rushing for 202 yards and two scores.

Armstrong made his first career start against South Dakota State and completed 12-of-15 passes for 169 yards and a touchdown. He guided Nebraska to touchdowns on each of the first three drives he led.

Armstrong split time with Ron Kellogg in a win at Purdue and scored his first career rushing touchdown, a three-yard first-quarter run. Armstrong rushed 17 times for a season-high 69 yards against Northwestern, including a five-yard TD on the game's opening drive. He also completed 15-of-29 passes for a season-high 173 yards and a touchdown.

Armstrong showed his poise in leading the Huskers to a 17-13 win at Michigan, snapping the Wolverines' 19-game home winning streak. Armstrong threw for 139 yards, including a game-winning touchdown to Ameer Abdullah with 2:03 left. Armstrong was 5-for-7 for 59 yards passing and added seven yards rushing on the game-winning drive.

He suffered his only loss of 2013 as a starter against Michigan State, when he threw for 143 yards and two touchdown passes. Armstrong was injured early at Penn State and also missed the Iowa contest with an injury.

Armstrong earned the start in the Gator Bowl against Georgia and led NU to a 24-19 win. He threw for 163 yards, including a pair of scoring strikes to Quincy Enunwa. Armstrong threw a school-record 99-yard touchdown in the third quarter to give NU a 24-12 lead.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Armstrong redshirted in his first season in the program in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (STEELE HS)

Armstrong was one of the nation's top dual-threat quarterbacks after leading Cibolo Steele High School to the Class 5A state championship game each of his final two seasons. Armstrong led Steele to 15 straight victories in 2011, before a loss in the state championship game. He rushed for 1,281 yards and 16 touchdowns, while passing for 1,945 yards and 29 touchdowns against just two interceptions. He completed nearly 59 percent of his passes.

Armstrong threw for 279 yards and three touchdowns in the state quarterfinals, while also rushing for a touchdown. In a semifinal win, Armstrong had 139 rushing yards and four touchdowns, while passing for another score. Armstrong was named to the San Antonio Express News All-Area team as an all-purpose player and was the District 25-5A Offensive MVP.

Armstrong also earned first-team all-district honors as a junior, when he led Cibolo Steele to a 14-2 record and a Class 5A Division II state championship. Armstrong ran for more than 500 yards and eight touchdowns, while passing for 1,343 yards and 19 touchdowns with just two interceptions.

Armstrong was regarded as the No. 5 quarterback in the country and 18th-best overall prospect in the state of Texas by Scout.com. Armstrong played in the Offense-Defense Bowl in Arlington, Texas, following his senior season. He only visited Nebraska, but had offers from coast to coast, including Georgia Tech, Oregon, Kansas, Missouri, Mississippi State, Southern Miss, TCU and UCLA.

PERSONAL

Tommy is the son of Tommy Armstrong Sr., and he was born on Nov. 8, 1993. He has been active in NU outreach activities, volunteering time with Uplifting Athletes, the Omaha Police Department, South Omaha at Risk Youth, Husker Heroes program, numerous hospital and community center visits, as well as at Randolph and Clinton Elementary schools. He is majoring in communication studies.

2015 OUTLOOK

Junior Josh Banderas will head into the 2015 season with an opportunity to establish himself as a regular in the middle of the Blackshirt defense. Banderas has shown his versatility throughout his first two seasons with the Huskers, working at multiple linebacker spots, but he focused on the MIKE spot in the spring and will head into the fall as a likely starter at that crucial position.

The Lincoln native is one of three linebackers with extensive playing experience at Nebraska, joining classmate Michael Rose-Ivey. The 6-2, 235-pound Banderas capped his sophomore season with an impressive performance against USC in the Holiday Bowl. He began his Nebraska career by seeing action as a true freshman in 2013. Off the field, Banderas earned academic All-Big Ten honors in 2014.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Banderas played in 12 games with six starts, including five of the first six games and the Holiday Bowl against USC. He finished with 50 tackles, including 19 solo stops. He had at least four tackles in five games, highlighted by a career-high 14 tackles against USC. In addition to his play at linebacker, Banderas also saw action on coverage units, helping the Huskers feature one of the nation's top special teams units.

In addition to his 14-tackle effort vs. USC, Banderas made 10 tackles and a tackle for loss against McNeese State and had five tackles against Miami. He had four tackles and a tackle for loss at Fresno State.

2013 (FRESHMAN)

Banderas played in every game and made four starts as a true freshman in 2013. He started three non-conference games, and the season finale with Iowa. Banderas made 28 tackles, including 12 solo stops, with two sacks and three tackles for loss. Banderas had a season-high 11 tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss against UCLA.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LINCOLN SOUTHWEST HS)

Banderas was a two-way standout for Coach Mark King at Lincoln Southwest, carrying the ball 189 times for 1,237 yards and 18 touchdowns as a senior. From his linebacker spot, he had 119 total tackles, including 44 unassisted tackles, 11 tackles for loss and two interceptions.

Banderas rushed for better than 100 yards six times and had four games with 15 or more tackles. His helped Southwest to a 6-4 record and a trip to the Class A state playoffs. Banderas was named the honorary captain of both the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star all-state teams.

Banderas focused on linebacker in the first two years. As a junior in 2011, he racked up 127 tackles to help LSW to a 9-2 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals. He earned first-team Super State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star and first-team All-Nebraska honors from the World-Herald for his play. Banderas made 30 tackles in just five games as a sophomore.

Banderas was also a track standout, competing in four events in the Class A state meet as a senior. He was sixth in the 110-meter hurdles, seventh in the 300-meter hurdles and seventh in both the shot put and discus. Banderas won the 110-meter hurdles as a junior while finishing second in the 300-meter hurdles. As a sophomore, Banderas finished third in the 110-meter hurdles.

Banderas committed to the Huskers in April of 2012, choosing Nebraska over a number of scholarship offers, including Oregon, Kansas State, Iowa, Iowa State and Vanderbilt. He was ranked among the nation's top 20 linebackers and top 300 overall players by 247 Sports, Rivals and Fox Sports. Banderas participated in the Army All-American game in San Antonio.

PERSONAL

Banderas was born on Feb. 22, 1995, and is the son of Tom and Amy Banderas. He is majoring in management, and is a three-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. He earned a spot on the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams in 2014. Banderas has volunteered time with the Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, Make-A-Wish, tornado relief in Pilger and local community center and team hospital visits. He also was one of 18 Nebraska student-athletes to participate in a service trip to Guatemala in May. His father, Tom, played tight end at Nebraska, lettering three years from 1985 to 1987.

2015 OUTLOOK

Defensive tackle Maliek Collins emerged as a standout player for Nebraska during the 2014 season and is poised for the next step as a junior. A Kansas City product, Collins is a powerful force in the middle of the Blackshirt defense and is primed to contend for conference and national honors in 2015.

Collins and fellow junior Vincent Valentine form one of the nation's top returning defensive tackle duos. The 6-2, 300-pound Collins earned second-team All-Big Ten honors from the conference coaches, while being an honorable-mention pick by the media. He was also named Nebraska's co-Defensive MVP in a vote of his teammates. Off the field, Collins was an academic All-Big Ten pick in 2014.

Collins has great respect from his teammates for his work ethic and quiet leadership. That fact was reinforced when he was named on of six captains for the 2015 season.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Collins started every game in 2014 and led the Huskers in tackles for loss with 14, while ranking second on the team with 4.5 sacks and 13 quarterback hurries. Collins totaled 45 tackles, including 17 solo stops. Collins made 12 of his 14 TFL in Big Ten play or the bowl game and was at his best in the latter stages of the season, posting five or more tackles four times in the final six games.

Collins had a career-high seven tackles against both Rutgers and Iowa. He also had three quarterback hurries each in back-to-back weeks against Rutgers and Purdue and closed the year with five tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss against USC in the Holiday Bowl.

Collins produced back-to-back games with four tackles against Fresno State and Miami to close non-conference play. He added two tackles for loss and a pair of hurries against the Hurricanes.

After his career-high seven-tackle effort against Rutgers, Collins had five tackles, a nine-yard sack and three hurries against Purdue. He split a sack at Wisconsin, and had a sack and two tackles for loss in the regular-season finale at Iowa.

2013 (FRESHMAN)

Collins played in 12 games with a start against Georgia in the Gator Bowl. He had 12 tackles with all of his stops coming in either the first three games or the final four games.

Collins registered NU's first sack of the season for 10 yards against Southern Miss. He totaled three tackles in that contest. He added a tackle for loss against UCLA. Collins made eight tackles in the final four games, tying his season high with three tackles at Penn State, adding two each vs. Michigan State and Iowa, and then making one stop in the Gator Bowl.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KANSAS CITY CENTER HS)

Collins played both ways for Kansas City Center High School. Collins recorded 102 tackles as a senior including 43 tackles for loss, 15 sacks, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. His play for Coach Bryan DeLong helped Center High to a 10-4 record and a trip to the quarterfinals of the Missouri Class 3A state playoffs, its deepest playoff run since 2004.

Collins was a first-team Class 3A all-state pick by the Missouri High School Coaches Association. He was also a member of the Kansas City Star's All-Metro first-team defensive unit.

Collins was a standout performer as a junior in 2011, earning first-team all-conference honors as both an offensive and defensive lineman. Beyond the football field, Collins was a standout wrestler for Center High School. As a senior, he won the Missouri Class 2A state championship with a perfect 48-0 record. Collins reached the quarterfinals at the state meet in the heavyweight class as a junior and posted a 48-5 record.

Collins was ranked among the top 20 prospects in the state of Missouri and one of the top 25 defensive tackles in the country according to Fox Sports Next. He also visited Kansas and Missouri, and had offers from numerous other schools, including Arkansas, Iowa and Iowa State.

PERSONAL

Collins was born on April 8, 1995, and is the son of Janice Davis and the late C.W. Collins. He is majoring in sociology and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2015. Collins has been active in Nebraska's community outreach efforts, volunteering his time with Uplifting Athletes, Make-A-Wish, Mad Dads, Madonna Rehabilitation Center and local hospital visits. Collins earned a spot on the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams for his volunteer efforts.

2015 OUTLOOK

Senior I-back Imani Cross is among a group of running backs who will continue to compete for carries as fall practice begins. The powerful Cross provided steady reserve duty behind All-American Ameer Abdullah each of the past three seasons. Cross saw the majority of his play in short-yardage situations, but is poised for a bigger role in 2015.

Cross, junior Terrell Newby and sophomore Adam Taylor received the most carries during spring practice and the trio could make the position a strength for the 2015 NU offense.

The 6-1, 240-pound Cross has played in 39 career games and eclipsed 1,000 career rushing yards, while reaching the end zone 22 times, averaging a touchdown on every 10 carries in his career.

Cross is an ethnic studies major and is on track to earn his degree in May of 2016 despite not having the benefit of a redshirt year.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Cross played in all 12 regular-season games before missing the bowl game with a knee injury. Cross had 75 carries for 384 yards and five rushing touchdowns, and topped 30 rushing yards five times. He had a career-high 109 rushing yards on 22 carries against Illinois, including a four-yard TD run. Cross saw extensive action against Purdue, carrying the ball 20 times and scoring two touchdowns following an injury to Ameer Abdullah. The multiple TD game was the sixth of Cross' Nebraska career.

Cross had a 25-yard run against Florida Atlantic and scored the first of his five touchdowns. He had a career-long 62-yard touchdown run at Fresno State and finished the night with 69 rushing yards.

He also had six carries for 31 yards against Minnesota.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Cross was NU's second-leading rusher, with 85 carries for 447 yards and 10 touchdowns. Cross had 10 or more carries in four games and rushed for at least 50 yards five times, including a season-high 105 yards in the opener against Wyoming. Cross reached the endzone twice against the Cowboys, scoring on runs of one and 31 yards. Cross scored his 10th career touchdown from a yard out against Southern Miss. Against South Dakota State, he posted his second two-TD game of the year, and rushing for 60 yards on 10 carries. Cross carried 15 times for 76 yards and a touchdown against Illinois. He then carried a career-high 16 times for 56 yards and two touchdowns at Purdue, giving him three straight games with 50 or more rushing yards. Against Michigan State, Cross had a season-long 51-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

Cross played in all 14 games and was one of four I-backs to top 300 rushing yards and average better than 5.0 yards per carry. He finished with 55 carries for 324 yards. Cross was third on the team in rushing touchdowns with seven, including five in Big Ten play.

Cross rushed 11 times for 62 yards in his debut against Southern Miss. Against Arkansas State, Cross scored his first career touchdown on a two-yard run in the fourth quarter. He finished with 66 yards against the Red Wolves, including a season-long 44-yard run. Cross had his first 100-yard day with 100 yards on 12 carries vs. Idaho State.

Against Penn State, Cross rushed for 22 yards and two third-quarter touchdowns. He added a pair of touchdowns a week later against Minnesota, and had a 26-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter of the Big Ten title game against Wisconsin.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORTH HALL HS)

Cross piled up 1,698 rushing yards as a senior at North Hall High School, including 24 rushing touchdowns. He averaged nearly nine yards per carry, and also excelled on defense for Coach Robert Christmas, making 88 tackles as a linebacker. Cross' play earned him second-team Class AAA all-state honors in Georgia.

As a junior, Cross rushed for 600 yards and nine touchdowns, despite being limited to five games because of an injury. As a sophomore, he helped Flowery Branch High School to a 10-4 record and a playoff berth by rushing for 1,417 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Cross also competed in track and field, earning a seventh-place medal in shot put his senior season. Cross was ranked among the top 35 running backs in the country and the top 50 overall prospects in Georgia by several recruiting outlets. Cross also visited Kentucky and East Carolina and had numerous other offers, including Tennessee, South Carolina and Georgia Tech.

PERSONAL

Cross was born on Sept. 23, 1993, and he is the son of Tim and Sharon Cross. Cross was a 2013 academic All-Big Ten honoree.

Cross has been one of the most active Huskers in community outreach efforts. He is a three-time member of the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and a two-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team. He has volunteered his time with numerous organizations and events, including Uplifting Athletes, Make-a-Wish, School is Cool Week, FCA, and many school, hospital and community center outreach events. Cross was also presented a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award in 2013.

Senior cornerback Daniel Davie will be called on to be a leader for the Blackshirt defense during the 2015 season. Davie emerged in 2014 as a reliable starter at cornerback, and he and safety Nate Gerry are Nebraska's most game-tested returning veterans in the secondary.

The 6-1, 190-pound Davie brings great length to the cornerback spot, allowing him to match up with tall opposing receivers. Davie missed more than half of spring ball with an ankle injury but will be at full strength for fall camp. Davie used a strong performance in preseason practice last fall to earn a starting job, and he helped Nebraska rank among the national leaders in opponent completion percentage, pass efficiency defense and third-down defense.

Davie was born and raised in Michigan, before moving to Beatrice, Neb., before his sophomore year of high school. A criminology and criminal justice major, Davie is on track to earn his degree in December.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Davie started all 13 games and recorded 41 tackles, including 25 solo stops and six tackles for loss. He was second on the team with two interceptions and had five pass breakups. Davie had four games with five or more tackles, including a career-high eight against Purdue. His play helped Nebraska hold nine opponents to 50 percent or lower passing.

Davie made his first career start in the opener against FAU and made five solo stops. He had two tackles for loss against both Fresno State and Miami in non-league play.

Davie snared a pair of interceptions in the Big Ten opener against Illinois, the first a diving pick in the end zone to stop an Illini drive in the first quarter. Davie added two pass breakups to his career-high tackle total against Purdue. Davie had five tackles and a tackle for loss against both Iowa and USC to close out the season.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Davie played in the first 10 games, seeing action as a reserve cornerback and several of the Huskers' special teams units. Davie had an unassisted tackle at Purdue. He suffered a season-ending knee injury on kickoff coverage against Michigan State.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Davie played in 13 games, primarily on special teams. He had seven tackles, including six on special teams. Davie had a season-high two tackles and a breakup against Idaho State.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BEATRICE HS)

Davie played running back, defensive back and was a special teams standout for Beatrice High and Coach Bob Sexton. He rushed for 1,556 yards and 18 touchdowns while averaging 6.5 yards per attempt, and capped his senior season with a 265-yard performance against Holdrege in the state playoffs. Davie also had more than 200 receiving yards as a senior, while adding 35 tackles and an interception on defense. He also averaged nearly 30 yards per kickoff return.

Davie was selected to the offensive squad on the Lincoln Journal Star's Super-State team (athlete) and the Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska squad (back). He earned first-team Class B honors from both newspapers as a running back. Davie was regarded as one of the top three prospects in Nebraska by Rivals.com.

Davie won the all-class gold in both the 100 and 200 meters at the 2010 Nebraska state track meet. Davie recorded a 10.73 time in the 100 and a 21.95 time in the 200. At the 2011 Shrine Bowl, Davie recorded a 28-yard touchdown reception. Davie committed to the Huskers in June of 2010. He received numerous offers, including Kansas and Ohio.

PERSONAL

Daniel is the son of Damon and Ruthanne Davie, and he was born on Aug. 4, 1993. Davie was named to the 2015 Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams for his community outreach work. Davie has volunteered his time with Make-a-Wish, Uplifting Athletes, Mad Dads, the Husker Hotline and local team school and hospital visits.

2015 OUTLOOK

Sam Foltz has proven to be one of the Big Ten's best punters over the past two seasons, and he will continue to strive for better consistency this season. The 6-1, 200-pound Foltz boasts a strong leg and has excellent athleticism, allowing him to be used in conventional and rugby-style punting formations.

Foltz ranked fifth in the Big Ten in punting average in 2014, while helping Nebraska to a No. 4 net punting ranking in the conference. Foltz also improved his directional punting and had 26 punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line.

Foltz was honored for his work, being named an honorable-mention All-Big Ten pick by the conference coaches. He could contend for bigger honors in 2015. Foltz also handled the Huskers' holding duties, helping freshman Drew Brown to a perfect PAT season.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Foltz averaged 42.2 yards per punt to rank fifth in the Big Ten. His punting helped Nebraska to a 37.3-yard net punting average and a starting field position advantage in 11 of 13 games. Foltz had 18 punts of at least 50 yards, and opponents returned just 16 punts for 143 yards.

Foltz was named Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week after his performance against McNeese State. He averaged 51.2 yards per punt and trapped the Cowboys inside their 20-yard line four times. Against Northwestern, all five of Foltz's punts pinned the Wildcats inside the own 20-yard line. Foltz stood out against Purdue, averaging 43.2 yards per punt, with three punts of more than 50 yards. He pinned the Boilermakes inside their own 20 three times, and inside the 10 twice.

Foltz ran 14 yards for a first down on a fake punt at Wisconsin and also had a career-long 70-yard punt in the fourth quarter. Foltz averaged 44.7 yards per punt in the Holiday Bowl, including an NU bowl-record 64-yard punt. He downed four punts inside the USC 20.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Foltz started all 13 games and averaged 41.6 yards per punt, with 16 punts of at least 50 yards. He downed 22 punts inside the opposition's 20-yard line. Foltz's punting also helped Nebraska's punt coverage unit allow an average of just 8.1 yards on 15 punt returns. Foltz pinned Penn State inside its own 20 four times, while pinning three punts inside the 20 against both Purdue and Northwestern. Foltz had a season-long 64-yard punt at Michigan.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Foltz redshirted in his first season in the program in 2012. He was also a receiver when he joined the program, but quickly focused on punting.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRAND ISLAND HS)

Foltz helped Grand Island High School to a 9-2 record and a trip to the Class A quarterfinals as a senior. Foltz was one of the most versatile athletes in the state, starting on both sides of the football. A first-team All-Nebraska pick as a senior defensive back, Foltz led the Islanders in tackles with 84, including 61 solo stops, and four interceptions. On offense, Foltz teamed up with fellow Husker Ryker Fyfe to make up one of the most dangerous passing duos in the state. Foltz caught 39 passes for 686 yards and 10 touchdowns as senior. He was also a valuable asset on special teams, where he was member of the Lincoln Journal Star Super State team as a senior punter.

Foltz had 60 total tackles and five interceptions as a junior. Foltz also competed in track and field, earning a third-place finish in the 400-meter dash at the 2012 state track and field meet. Foltz caught a 17-yard touchdown pass from Fyfe in the 2012 Shrine Bowl. Foltz chose to walk on at Nebraska over scholarship offers from South Dakota State, Northwest Missouri State, Nebraska-Kearney and South Dakota.

PERSONAL

Foltz was born on Jan. 21, 1994, and is the son of Gerald and Jill Foltz. He is an agronomy major and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times. Foltz has volunteered his time with team hospital visits, Husker Connect and Uplifting Athletes.

2015 OUTLOOK

Safety Nate Gerry emerged as one of the top defensive backs in the Big Ten in 2014, and he is expected to be a leader for the Blackshirt defense this fall. The 6-2, 205 Gerry has earned the respect of his teammates, evidenced by his election as a team captain for the 2015 season.

Gerry will team with senior cornerback Daniel Davie to provide leadership in a deep Nebraska secondary. Gerry is a prototype safety with an excellent blend of coverage skills and ability to support the run.

Gerry started every game as a sophomore and led the Huskers with five interceptions, all in Big Ten games. His interception total ranked second in the Big Ten and led the conference in league games only. Gerry was second for the Huskers with 88 tackles and had at least seven tackles five times, including three games with double-figure tackle totals.

Gerry was named a second-team All-Big Ten defender by the conference's media panel, while receiving honorable-mention recognition from the coaches. He was also chosen as Nebraska's co-Defensive MVP as voted by his teammates.

Gerry suffered a minor knee injury in the final week of spring practice, but returned to full strength by the start of summer conditioning work.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Gerry started all 13 games and was second on the team with 88 tackles, including 49 solo stops and seven tackles for loss. His five interceptions all came in Big Ten games, and he also caused two fumbles, had a fumble recovery and added four pass breakups.

Gerry had a takeaway in six of eight Big Ten games and also reached the end zone on an 85-yard blocked field return against Minnesota. He capped the regular season with a career-high 15 tackles and an interception at Iowa to earn Big Ten Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors.

Gerry opened the year with four tackles, a tackle for loss and forced fumble against FAU. He had a team-high 13 tackles, a pair of tackles for loss, a hurry and a breakup against McNeese State. Gerry had five tackles and his first career interception against Illinois, returning the pick 54 yards to set up a score. He shared a sack and added two hurries against Illinois.

Gerry had seven tackles at Michigan State, then made an interception in three straight games against Northwestern, Rutgers and Purdue. Gerry had nine tackles, including seven solo stops, at Wisconsin and also forced and recovered a fumble against the Badgers. Gerry had 11 tackles against Minnesota in addition to touchdown return. Gerry's fifth interception came at Iowa, ending a Hawkeye scoring threat in the first quarter. Ten of his 15 tackles were solo stops and he had a career-high three TFL. Gerry closed the year with three tackles and a pass breakup against USC.

Gerry saw action in every game in 2013, with starts at linebacker against Southern Miss, UCLA and South Dakota State. Gerry had 32 tackles, including 18 solo stops. He added two tackles for loss and a quarterback hurry.

Gerry made five tackles in the season opener against Wyoming, then had a season-high seven tackles against UCLA, when he produced his first career tackle for loss. He had four tackles each against Purdue and Minnesota. Gerry led the Huskers with seven tackles on special teams.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WASHINGTON HS)

Gerry was Nebraska's first scholarship signee from South Dakota since 2003, and just the Huskers' third signee from the state since 1997. Gerry's play helped Washington High and Coach Brian Hermanson to a 48-3 record and three state championships over four years.

In 2012, Sioux Falls Washington posted a perfect 12-0 record and outscored its opponents by a combined score of 549-81. Gerry made 64 tackles, including 13.5 tackles for loss, and added eight pass breakups, five interceptions and also forced two fumbles. He played running back and receiver on offense and accounted for 1,216 all-purpose yards and 22 touchdowns. Gerry also handled the kicking and punting chores as a senior. Gerry was a first-team Class 11AA all-state selection as a receiver for his play in 2012.

Gerry was also a two-way starter as a junior when Washington posted a 10-3 record and was the state runner-up. Gerry made 73 tackles, with two sacks and three interceptions, while adding 37 receptions for 647 yards and eight touchdowns as a receiver.

Gerry was also a track standout at Washington High. He won his second straight 200-meter state title as a senior in 2013. He also won the 100 meters as a senior, after finishing second as a junior. Gerry set the state record in the 200 meters with a time of 21.52. Gerry was regarded as one of the top 50 athlete prospects in the country. He only visited Nebraska, but had offers from Iowa, Iowa State, Michigan State, Minnesota and Arizona State.

PERSONAL

Gerry was born on Feb. 23, 1995, and is the son of Brian and Kelli Gerry. Gerry is majoring in communication studies. He has volunteered his time with team hospital visits, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes and Husker Hotline.

2015 OUTLOOK

Senior Alex Lewis is one of three returning offensive tackles who saw extensive action in the 2014 season. The 6-6, 290-pound Lewis held down the left tackle starting job throughout the entire 2014 season and hopes to earn that position again in 2015.

A transfer from Colorado, Lewis excelled in his first season in the program, teaming with Jake Cotton to give NU a strong left side of the line. The group helped Ameer Abdullah to a record-setting senior season and also helped Nebraska rank among the Big Ten's best teams in protecting the passer. Lewis earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors from the conference coaches and media.

He was also one of 21 Huskers to earn academic All-Big Ten honors in 2014. Lewis is the son of former Husker All-America center Bill Lewis, who starred at Nebraska in the mid 1980s. The younger Lewis is on track to earn his degree in sociology in August.

Lewis is one of six captains for the 2015 season, joining his father with earning that distinction at Nebraska. The Lewises are just the third family to have a father-son combination become Cornhusker captains.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Lewis started all 13 games at left tackle and was a key part of an offensive line that powered several record-setting performances and helped NU rank in the top 20 nationally in rushing and scoring offense. The Nebraska offense opened the season with a Big Ten modern-era record of 784 yards of total offense, including 498 rushing yards. The line pounded the defenses of both Miami and Illinois as the Huskers rushed for 343 and 458 yards, respectively, and Ameer Abdullah topped 200 yards in both contests.

The line paved the way for Abdullah's fourth 200-yard rushing game against Rutgers. Abdullah finished his career as Nebraska's all-time leader in all-purpose yards, while ranking second in career rushing yards.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (COLORADO/MOUNTAIN POINTE HS)

Lewis sat out the 2013 season after leaving Colorado. He was a two-year letterwinner for the Buffs in 2011 and 2012. Lewis started all 12 games at left guard in 2012 and earned honorable-mention sophomore All-America honors. Lewis graded out second-best among all CU offensive linemen in 2012, and he allowed just two sacks on the season.

Lewis saw action in all 12 games in 2011, playing both tackle and tight end as a true freshman, before moving to guard. Lewis made three starts including one at left tackle and two at tight end. He did not have any receptions as a tight end, but was an excellent blocker.

Lewis was a three-year starter at offensive tackle at Mountain Pointe High School in Tempe, Ariz. He earned first-team all-state, first-team all-city and first-team All-5A East Valley honors as a senior for Coach Norris Vaughan. Mountain Pointe averaged 315.7 yards per game on the ground behind Lewis' blocking, and the team featured a pair of 1,700-yard rushers who combined for 51 touchdowns. The team went 12-1, including 10-0 in the regular season, and earned the regional championship before falling in the third round of the playoffs.

Lewis played defensive tackle and recorded 25 tackles, with six for losses including four quarterback sacks and one fumble recovery. As a junior, Lewis earned first-team all-city and first-team All-5A East Valley honors when he played both offensive guard and defensive tackle. He also lettered in lacrosse at Mountain Pointe.

PERSONAL

Lewis was born on April 21, 1992. His father, Bill, earned All-America honors as a center at Nebraska in 1985, and he went on to play seven seasons in the National Football League with the Los Angeles Raiders, Arizona Cardinals and New England Patriots. Alex Lewis is majoring in sociology. He has volunteered his time with NFL Fuel Up 60, Husker Hotline and local school and community rec center outreach events.

2015 OUTLOOK

Greg McMullen is one of three junior defensive linemen with extensive starting experience for the Huskers, joining defensive tackles Maliek Collins and Vincent Valentine. The 6-3, 280-pound McMullen held down one defensive end spot last season and is a front-runner to once again lock down the base end spot for the Blackshirts in 2015.

McMullen was in the starting lineup in every game in 2014, giving the Huskers a strong end opposite All-Big Ten performer Randy Gregory. McMullen has shown the ability to be an effective pass rusher while also holding up well against the run.

The play of McMullen and his defensive line teammates helped the Nebraska defense rank among the nation's leaders in opponent pass completion percentage, third-down defense and pass efficiency defense in 2014.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

McMullen started all 13 games and had 47 tackles, including 20 solo stops, while ranking third on the team with 4.0 sacks for 31 yards. He added nine tackles for loss, 10 quarterback hurries and broke up four passes. McMullen had at least four tackles six times, including a career-high nine stops against McNeese State.

In his first career start against FAU, McMullen had four tackles, and a four-yard sack while adding three quarterback hurries. A week later, McMullen had nine tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss against McNeese State. He added an eight-yard sack at Fresno State a week later.

McMullen had a tackle for loss, a breakup and a career-high three hurries against Illinois. In a home win over Purdue, McMullen had six tackles and a breakup and he had six tackles, including a 12-yard sack against Minnesota. He split a sack in the Holiday Bowl against USC.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

McMullen played in 11 games and totaled 16 tackles, including nine solo stops. He recorded four tackles for loss, including a 10-yard sack at Purdue. McMullen had a season-high four tackles against Southern Miss, including a pair of tackles for loss, and forced a fumble. He also recorded two tackles each against Wyoming, Michigan and Michigan State with a tackle for loss against the Spartans. McMullen had three quarterback hurries.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

McMullen redshirted in his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HOBAN HS)

McMullen was a dominant defender at Akron's Hoban High School. He had more than 40 sacks in his career and was a regular in the lineup for four seasons. McMullen capped his career with 78 tackles, 12.5 sacks and 14 tackles for loss as a senior. His play for Coach Ralph Orsini earned McMullen North Coast Blue Division Player-of-the-Year honors, and he was also a first-team Division III All-Ohio selection for the second straight year.

McMullen earned All-Ohio honors as a junior with 87 tackles, 8.5 sacks and an impressive 31 quarterback pressures. He also had four receptions for 70 yards at tight end. McMullen earned second-team All-Ohio honors as a sophomore when he racked up 11.5 sacks. McMullen had 12 sacks and earned honorable-mention All-Ohio accolades as a freshman.

McMullen was ranked among the top 200 players overall nationally by both Rivals.com and 247 Sports, and was also among the top 12 overall prospects in Ohio by both services. McMullen appeared in the Semper Fi Marines All-America Bowl following his senior season. McMullen only visited Nebraska, but had offers from Ohio State, Notre Dame, Michigan State, Cincinnati and North Carolina State, among others.

PERSONAL

McMullen is the son of Lashaun Brown, and he was born on Oct. 13, 1993. He is majoring in criminology and criminal justice, and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll four times during his career. McMullen has volunteered his time with School is Cool Week, Uplifting Athletes, Mad Dads, NFL Play 60, Husker Heroes, and team hospital, school and community rec center visits. He was named to the 2015 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his outreach work.

2015 OUTLOOK

De'Mornay Pierson-El enters the 2015 season poised to become a true dual-threat weapon for the Huskers. Pierson-El was one of the nation's top special teams performers in 2014, and he showed the ability to become an elite receiver in the NU offense during the spring.

One of five Husker true freshmen to play in 2014, Pierson-El was second nationally in punt return average and tied for the national lead with three punt return touchdowns. As a receiver, he continued to gain a bigger role throughout 2014, starting the final six games.

Pierson-El was named a second-team All-America selection and a freshman All-American by several organizations in 2014. He was a second-team Football Writers Association of America selection, becoming the first Husker freshman to make the FWAA All-America team.

2014 (FRESHMAN)

Pierson-El played in all 13 games, taking over the punt return chores in game two and making six starts at receiver in the second half of the season. He ranked second nationally in punt return average at 17.5 yards per return. His 596 total punt return yards topped the nation by nearly 200 yards and ranked third on the Nebraska season charts. Pierson-El tied for the national lead with three punt returns for touchdowns - one shy of the NU record. He also had two of the eight longest punt returns in the nation in 2014 (86 and 80 yards).

On offense, he caught 23 passes for 321 yards and four touchdowns and had 17 of his 23 receptions in the final four games, including a Nebraska bowl-record eight catches for 102 yards and a touchdown against USC. He added 10 kickoff returns for 147 yards on the season.

Pierson-El found the end zone in his Nebraska debut catching an eight-yard touchdown pass against Florida Atlantic. He first showed his punt return explosiveness against McNeese State with five returns for 52 yards, including a 25-yarder.

Pierson-El earned Big Ten Special Teams Player-of-the-Week honors at Fresno State when he had five punt returns for 150 yards. He had an 86-yard touchdown return in the second quarter, the third-longest in the nation in 2014, the seventh-longest in NU history and the longest ever for a Husker freshman. He added a 51-yard return later in the quarter.

Pierson-El's second punt return for a touchdown came at Michigan State on a 62-yard fourth-quarter return. Pierson-El had a big night at Northwestern, making three catches for 66 yards, including a season-long 46-yard reception.

Pierson-El also threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Tommy Armstrong Jr. to become the first Husker since Bobby Newcombe in 2000 to score touchdowns on a punt return, reception and also throw for a touchdown.

Pierson-El made his first start at receiver against Rutgers, and a week later opened the scoring against Purdue with a 17-yard touchdown. He also had a 42-yard punt return in the first quarter against the Boilermakers. Pierson-El caught four passes for a then-career-high 87 yards against Minnesota, including his third receiving touchdown.

Pierson-El helped key Nebraska's comeback from 17 points down at Iowa. He had three punt returns for 134 yards, including an 80-yard touchdown. In the fourth quarter alone, he had two returns for 121 yards, the first setting up a Nebraska touchdown and the 80-yard return giving NU its first lead of the day. He also had four carries for 10 yards in the game.

Pierson-El capped the year with eight catches for 102 yards against USC, including a nine-yard touchdown catch. The eight receptions were a Nebraska bowl game record.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WEST POTOMAC HS)

Pierson-El posted prolific offensive numbers for Coach Jeremiah Davis at West Potomac High School in Alexandria, Va., while also excelling as a kick returner. As a senior, Pierson-El primarily played quarterback for West Potomac and was a dual-threat option. Pierson-El threw for 876 yards and seven touchdowns, while rushing for 1,007 yards and 20 touchdowns.

As a junior, Pierson-El rushed for 1,658 yards and 26 touchdowns. He also caught 10 passes for 127 yards. Pierson-El earned second-team Class AAA all-state honors as a kick returner from the Virginia High School Coaches Association. As a sophomore, Pierson-El focused his time at receiver and caught 49 passes for 781 yards and 15 touchdowns.

Rivals.com and Scout.com both ranked Pierson-El among the nation's top 100 receivers. Pierson-El was also a member of the basketball team for three seasons. He only visited Nebraska, but had offers from Boston College, North Carolina, Marshall and Old Dominion.

PERSONAL

Pierson-El is the grandson of William and Louise Carter and he was born on Dec. 26, 1995. He is majoring in nutrition, exercise and health science, and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2014. Pierson-El is active in the community volunteering his time with Uplifting Athletes, Make-A-Wish, Madonna Rehabilitation Center and numerous school and hospital visits. For his efforts, Pierson-El was named to the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams and received a HERO Leadership Award.

2015 OUTLOOK

Jamal Turner will take a second crack at his senior season in 2015, after suffering a season-ending injury last September. Turner ruptured his Achilles tendon in the second game of the season and received a medical hardship, allowing him to return this season. Turner continued to progress throughout spring ball and participated in the majority of the drills, and he should be at full strength for the season.

When healthy, Turner provides an elusive receiving threat who is capable of making tough catches and big plays after the reception. Turner enters 2015 with 64 career receptions for 799 yards and four touchdowns. He is one of several receivers with extensive game experience, making the position a potential strength for the Nebraska offense.

A high school quarterback, Turner has also seen action as both a kickoff and punt return man during his Nebraska career. Turner earned his degree in criminology and criminal justice in May.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

Turner had four catches for 37 yards before being injured. Turner had three catches for 28 yards against McNeese State and one catch for nine yards against Florida Atlantic.

2013 (JUNIOR)

Turner played in eight games, missing the final five games of the regular season with a leg injury. He had 13 catches for 102 yards and a touchdown, and also saw action as a punt returner. Turner opened the year with four catches for 43 yards and a touchdown against Wyoming and had a season-high five catches for 23 yards against UCLA. He had two receptions at Minnesota before being injured. He returned to action against Georgia in the Gator Bowl and had one rushing attempt.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Turner played in all 14 games with four starts, making 32 catches for 417 yards, an average of 13.0 yards per reception. Turner had six games with three or more catches, including a career-high six receptions against Minnesota. Eighteen of his catches and all three touchdowns came in the final six games.

The first two touchdowns of Turner's career were game changers. The first came on a six-yard TD catch with six seconds remaining to give NU a 28-24 win at Michigan State. The second came in the fourth quarter a week later against Penn State, giving Nebraska its first lead in a comeback victory. He averaged 5.7 yards on six punt returns and 22.1 yards on seven kickoff returns.

Turner had a season-long 36-yard catch against Southern Miss, and had a key 25-yard catch to set up Nebraska's game-winning touchdown. Turner caught a career-high six passes for 83 yards against Minnesota, one yard shy of his career high. Turner led NU with 63 yards on five catches against Wisconsin, highlighted by a 32-yard third-quarter catch. Turner capped the season with a 14-yard TD reception in the first quarter against Georgia.

2011 (FRESHMAN)

Turner played in 12 games and had 15 receptions for 243 yards. He caught three passes for 63 yards, including a career-long 43-yard catch against Fresno State. Turner had a season-high five receptions for a career-high 84 yards at Wisconsin, with two catches of at least 25 yards.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SAM HOUSTON HS)

Turner was one of the nation's top dual-threat quarterbacks for Coach Danny Edelman, at Sam Houston High, racking up more than 10,000 yards of total offense in three years as a starter. As a senior, Turner rushed for 1,888 yards on 267 carries and 35 rushing touchdowns. He completed better than 60 percent of his passes for 1,551 yards and eight touchdowns. Turner earned first-team All-DFW area accolades from the Dallas Morning News as a utility player, and he was also an honorable-mention Class 5A all-state pick. Turner produced similar statistics as a junior with 1,809 yards and 19 touchdowns rushing. He also threw for better than 1,800 yards and 13 touchdowns earning second-team All-DFW area honors and second-team 5A all-state honors.

Turner was the starting quarterback as a sophomore and threw for 2,611 yards and 21 touchdowns, while also rushing for better than 400 yards and nine touchdowns. Turner was chosen to play in the Under Armour All-American game. ESPN ranked Turner among the top 50 overall prospects in the country, while Rivals ranked Turner among the top 140 players in the nation. Turner only visited Nebraska, but had numerous offers, including Missouri, Oklahoma, TCU, Texas A&M and USC.

PERSONAL

Turner is the son of the late Rusty Turner and Jeffery Turner and was born on Feb. 1, 1993. He was to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2011. Turner has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Make-A-Wish and local hospital visits.

2015 OUTLOOK

Vincent Valentine returns for his junior season to form half of one of the nation's top defensive tackle tandems. The 6-3, 320-pound Valentine is expected to team with Maliek Collins to provide the foundation of the 2015 Blackshirt defense.

Valentine has exhibited the ability clog the middle of the line against the run, while also flashing the athleticism to rush opposing passers. Despite being slowed by an arm injury in October, Valentine started 11 games in 2014 and was a disruptive force. The play of Valentine and the defensive line helped Nebraska rank among the nation's best defenses in pass efficiency defense, third-down defense and opponent completion percentage.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Valentine played in all 13 games making 11 starts, and totaled 45 tackles, including seven tackles for loss and three sacks. He forced a fumble and added two quarterback hurries and two break ups. Valentine made at least four tackles six times in 2014.

Valentine recorded career highs at Fresno State with two sacks for 12 yards in losses and three tackles for loss. He set a career high with six tackles against Miami, including four solo stops. Valentine had five tackles at Michigan State and had a hand in two Nebraska takeaways. He notched a pass breakup that resulted in a Randy Gregory interception on the game's opening drive and later forced a fumble that was recovered by Byerson Cockrell. Valentine suffered an arm injury at Northwestern that limited him to only a few snaps against Rutgers.

Valentine finished the season by tying his career high with six tackles against both Iowa and USC. Against the Hawkeyes, he had a 10-yard sack and two tackles for loss, then made his seventh tackle for loss of the year in the bowl game.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Valentine played in all 13 games with six starts, including the first four games and the final two regular-season games. He made 21 tackles, including 11 solo stops, five tackles for loss and a sack.

He made four tackles against Wyoming and then excelled in the final two games of the regular season. Valentine had eight tackles combined against Penn State and Iowa, including a season-high five stops against the Hawkeyes.

He also had three of his five tackles for loss in the last two games. He had two TFLs against Iowa, including an eight-yard sack.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Valentine redshirted in his first season in the program in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (EDWARDSVILLE HS)

Valentine was a second-team all-state, all-class pick in Illinois by the Chicago Tribune as a senior. He had 35 tackles, including 11 tackles for loss, and three sacks for Edwardsville, helping Coach Matt Martin's team to a 5-5 record and a trip to the Illinois state playoffs. Valentine was also chosen as a first-team Class 7A all-state performer by the Illinois High School Coaches Association, and earned first-team All-Southwest Conference honors for the second straight season.

As a junior, Valentine made 33 tackles, while adding two sacks, forcing two fumbles and recovering a fumble. He was also a starter as a sophomore when he racked up 29 tackles, two sacks and had a fumble recovery. Valentine was ranked among the nation's top 50 defensive tackles by both Rivals.com and 247 Sports. Valentine chose Nebraska over Florida and Illinois, and had dozens of other offers including Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Penn State, Purdue and Wisconsin in the Big Ten.

PERSONAL

Valentine was born on Feb. 23, 1994, and he is the son of Vincent Sr. and Angreha Valentine. He is a journalism major, and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2013. Valentine has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes and part of team hospital visits.

2015 OUTLOOK

Jordan Westerkamp has a pair of highly productive seasons under his belt and is poised for bigger numbers for Nebraska in 2015. Westerkamp is an outstanding route runner and has great hands, allowing him to make the difficult catches look routine. He appeared to be a natural fit in Nebraska's new offensive system during the spring.

Westerkamp was NU's second-leading receiver in 2014, catching 44 passes for 747 yards and five touchdowns. His receiving yardage and receptions totals both ranked just outside of the top 10 on the Nebraska single-season charts. He enters his junior year with 64 career receptions and having already surpassed 1,000 receiving yards, Westerkamp is poised to make a big move up the NU career charts over the next two seasons.

Westerkamp, a two-time academic All-Big Ten selection, is a key part of an NU receiving corps that returns several game-tested playmakers. A year after a game-winning Hail Mary touchdown catch against Northwestern in 2013, Westerkamp again made numerous highlight-reel catches in 2014. One of those plays was a behind-the-back reception against Florida Atlantic that earned Westerkamp ESPN's College Football Play of the Year.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Westerkamp started nine games and was second on the team with 44 receptions for 747 yards and five touchdowns. He made at least three catches seven times and had 100-yard receiving games against Florida Atlantic and Michigan State.

He opened the year with seven catches for 125 yards against FAU, including a 41-yard touchdown, setting then-career highs in both categories. Westerkamp and Kenny Bell became the first pair of wide receivers in school history to both top 100 receiving yards in the same game. Westerkamp had a team-high four catches for 61 yards in a win over McNeese State, including a 40-yard touchdown in the first quarter.

Westerkamp caught a career-long 70-yard touchdown on the game's third play at Fresno State. At Michigan State, Westerkamp set career highs with nine catches for 158 yards, all in the second half. The nine catches tied for the eighth-most in NU history, while the 158 yards were fifth-best in school history.

Westerkamp had a four-yard touchdown catch against Rutgers and added five receptions against Minnesota. He capped the year with three catches for 81 yards against USC in the Holiday Bowl, including a 65-yard touchdown in the third quarter.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Westerkamp played in all 13 games, with a start against Georgia and had 20 receptions for 283 yards and a touchdown while also serving as NU's top punt returner for much of the season. His lone touchdown catch will go down in Nebraska history, coming on a 49-yard Hail Mary pass to defeat Northwestern.

Westerkamp caught four passes for 30 yards in the season's first five games, before becoming a bigger part of the passing game. He had three receptions for 53 yards at Purdue and also added three catches at Minnesota. Westerkamp had a season-best day against Northwestern with four catches for 104 yards, capped by the touchdown from Ron Kellogg III. He had a season-high five catches for 62 yards at Penn State.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Westerkamp redshirted in his first season in the program in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MONTINI CATHOLIC HS)

Westerkamp was a record-setting receiver at Montini Catholic High School in Illinois. He is the state's all-time leader in receptions (235), receiving yards (4,618) and receiving touchdowns (68). Westerkamp won state titles each of his final three seasons, capped by a memorable performance in the 2011 Class 5A state title game against Joliet Catholic, when he had 12 catches for 353 yards and five touchdowns in a 70-45 victory. Overall, Westerkamp had nine touchdown catches in his three state championship games.

Westerkamp caught 91 passes for 1,659 yards and 29 touchdowns as a senior when was chosen as a first-team USA Today All-American and was the Illinois Player of the Year. Westerkamp made 89 catches for 1,631 yards and 23 touchdowns while earning first-team all-state accolades as a junior. As a sophomore, Westerkamp had 51 receptions for 1,156 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Westerkamp participated in the Semper Fi Marines All-America Bowl in Arizona. He was listed among the top 50 receivers in the country. Westerkamp chose Nebraska over Notre Dame and had dozens of other scholarship offers.

PERSONAL

Westerkamp is the son of Robert and Kimberly Westerkamp and was born on June 23, 1994. His father also starred at Montini Catholic and collegiately at Illinois. Westerkamp is a business administration major and has earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times. Westerkamp was named to the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams in 2015. Westerkamp has volunteered for numerous outreach events, including Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60, School is Cool Week and team hospital and community rec center outreach events.

2015 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Freedom Akinmoladun had an impressive spring practice session putting him in position to contend for playing time at defensive end in 2015. Junior Greg McMullen and senior Jack Gangwish are Nebraska's most battle-tested ends, however playing time behind that duo appears to be available for young players including Akinmoladun.

Akinmoladun began his Husker career at tight end before switching to defense late in the 2014 season. Akinmoladun has utilized the Husker strength and conditioning program to his benefit since arriving at Nebraska, adding more than 20 pounds of muscle to his 6-4 frame.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

Akinmoladun redshirted in his first season at Nebraska in 2014, and spent the majority of his time working at tight end.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRANDVIEW HS)

Akinmoladun was an early commitment, appropriately announcing his intention to attend Nebraska on the Fourth of July in 2013. As a senior at Grandview High School, he earned second-team Class 4 all-state honors from the Missouri Football Coaches Association. He caught 23 passes for 387 yards and two touchdowns, while also recording 26 tackles and five tackles for loss from his defensive end position. Akinmoladun helped Coach Andy Leech's team to a 5-6 record and a trip to the second round of the Class 4 playoffs.

In 2012, Akinmoladun caught 14 passes for 331 yards and a touchdown, and also made a big impact on defense with 85 tackles, 15 tackles for loss and four sacks. Akinmoladun earned third-team all-state honors as a sophomore.

Akinmoladun was ranked as one of the top 30 tight ends in the nation and among the top 15 players in Missouri according to both Rivals.com and 247 Sports. Akinmoladun was also one of the top rebounders for the Grandview basketball team. Akinmoladun only visited Nebraska after his commitment, but also had offers from Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kansas State and Northern Illinois.

PERSONAL

Akinmoladun was born on Feb. 11, 1996, and is the son of Sherryee Akinmoladun. He is majoring in psychology and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll his first two semesters. He also has distinguished himself in the community, earning a spot on the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams for his outreach work. Akinmoladun has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, School is Cool and local hospital and community center outreach visits. Akinmoladun's cousin, Oladapo, is an All-American on the Nebraska track and field team.

2015 OUTLOOK

Senior Taariq Allen will look to battle for playing time at receiver in 2015, while also providing veteran leadership at the position. The 6-3, 200-pound Allen provides a tall target in the passing game. He saw regular action in the NU receiving rotation last season.

In addition to his role at receiver, Allen has been a contributor on special teams throughout his Husker career. A two-time academic All-Big Ten selection, Allen earned his undergraduate degree in child, youth and family science in May of 2015. He is one of six NU seniors playing as a graduate in 2015.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Allen played in all 13 games and finished with eight catches for 73 yards. He caught a 34-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter at Iowa to kickstart the Huskers' rally from a 17-point deficit. Allen had a season-high three catches against both McNeese State and Michigan State and added a single reception against Florida Atlantic.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Allen played in 10 games, including all eight Big Ten Conference games. In addition to providing depth at receiver, Allen also saw action on special teams. He had three catches for 22 yards, all coming against Michigan State.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Allen played in the first eight games, before a knee injury on kickoff coverage against Michigan ended his season. He caught two passes for 11 yards at Northwestern, highlighted by an eight-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter. The TD catch pulled Nebraska within five points as the Huskers rallied from a 12-point deficit to win.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Allen redshirted in his first season in 2011.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (THE RIVERS SCHOOL)

Allen was a standout at the Rivers School in Weston, Mass., for Coach Rich Fisher. Allen was the first Husker signee from Massachusetts since 2002. Allen was a key factor in 2010 for The Rivers School, which finished 8-1, with its only loss in the Norm Walker Bowl, the state championship game for independent schools.

Allen had 36 catches for 660 yards and eight touchdowns and had 69 carries for 706 yards and eight touchdowns as a senior. Allen also played defensive back and totaled 60 tackles, four interceptions, a sack and a fumble recovery. Allen earned first-team All-New England accolades and first-team all-league honors as a junior after recording more than 600 receiving yards and better than 500 yards on the ground, while combining for 15 touchdowns.

Allen was rated among the top 10 recruits in New England according to SuperPrep. Allen only visited NU, but also had offers from Connecticut, Wisconsin and Tulane.

PERSONAL

The son of Fred and Christy Allen, Taariq was born on July 26, 1992. He has been active in the community during his time in Lincoln. He has volunteered time with hospital visits, Husker Heroes, Make-a-Wish, Uplifting Athletes and School is Cool Week. Allen earned his degree in child, youth and family science. He has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll four times.

(COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO.)2015 OUTLOOK

Avery Anderson is one of four defensive standouts who joined the Nebraska program in January. The 6-0, 175-pound Anderson had a strong showing during spring ball and could compete for playing time in a talented group of Nebraska cornerbacks.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PINE CREEK HS)

Anderson earned first-team all-state honors as a junior and a senior at Pine Creek High School in Colorado Springs. Anderson starred in three areas to help Pine Creek post a perfect 14-0 record in 2014. As a defensive back, he recorded three interceptions, while making 52 tackles, including six tackles for loss. Anderson also contributed on offense, rushing for 226 yards and a touchdown while catching 16 passes for 318 yards and one touchdown. He also handled kickoff return duties for Coach Todd Miller.

Anderson was an All-Colorado choice by the Denver Post for his play in 2014, and he was a first-team Class 4A choice by the Colorado High School Activities Association.

As a junior, Anderson was named a first-team all-state free safety by the CHSAA. He also earned all-league and all-region recognition after totaling 53 tackles, one interception and three breakups while leading Pine Creek to its first state championship and a 12-2 record. Offensively, Anderson had 53 carries for 386 yards and eight touchdowns.

Anderson was rated as the No. 2 player in Colorado, behind Husker teammate Eric Lee Jr. Anderson was a member of the Rivals250, the list of the nation's top prospects. Scout.com listed him among the top 35 safeties in the country and 247Sports ranked him among the top 40 athletes nationally. In May of 2014, Anderson earned defensive back MVP honors at the Rivals Camp Series in Chicago.

Anderson committed to Nebraska in February of 2014, after considering offers from Arizona State, Kansas State and Utah, among others.

PERSONAL

The son of Killian and Angela Anderson, Avery was born on Sept. 11, 1996. He is a marketing major, and has volunteered his time at the F Street Recreation Center.

2015 OUTLOOK

Junior Jared Blum enters the 2015 season in hopes of staying healthy and competing for playing time at tight end. The 6-4, 255-pound Blum has the size, strength and athleticism to be a contributor, but has been plagued by injuries throughout his Nebraska career.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Blum was sidelined for the season after suffering a knee injury during fall camp.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Blum redshirted in his first season and excelled on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRETNA HS)

Blum was one of two walk-ons from Gretna High School in 2012, along with fullback Andy Janovich. Blum was a second-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald and a second-team Super State pick by the Lincoln Journal Star on defense as a senior. Blum had 44 tackles and 12 sacks to help Gretna reach the semifinals of the Class B playoffs. Blum also caught 18 passes for 380 yards and six touchdowns as a tight end.

Blum also starred on the Dragons' basketball team as a second-team Super State pick by the Lincoln Journal Star. He averaged 13.4 points and 7.0 rebounds per game as a junior. Blum had football scholarship offers from South Dakota State, Nebraska-Kearney and Northwest Missouri State, before walking on at Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Jared was born on Nov. 14, 1993, and he is the son of Dave and Kristi Blum. He is majoring in business administration and is a three-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection. He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and Uplifting Athletes.

2015 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman linebacker Alex Boryca will look to provide depth at linebacker in 2015. The walk-on from Cozad High School spent the spring working primarily at outside linebacker, but has the versatility to play multiple positions. The 6-2, 220-pound Boryca also could push for playing time on special teams this fall.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (COZAD HS)

Boryca was a standout at Cozad High School, where he starred at linebacker and running back. As a senior, he helped Coach Brian Cargill's team to a perfect 13-0 record and the Class C-1 state title. Boryca racked up 115 tackles in 2013, including 51 solo stops. He also had 11 tackles for loss, five sacks and forced a fumble. Boryca made seven tackles in the state title game victory over Ashland-Greenwood.

He also saw action at running back, rushing 28 times for 127 yards and seven touchdowns, including two TD runs in the state championship game. Boryca was a first-team Class C-1 all-state pick by the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star as a senior. He also was named the Kearney Hub's 2013 Hub Territory Defensive Player of the Year.

Boryca helped the Haymakers to the state playoffs in both 2011 and 2012.

2015 OUTLOOK

Senior Tyson Broekemeier has provided depth at the quarterback position during his Husker career. Broekemeier has had a good mastery of Nebraska's offense, and has been an integral part of game preparation by working as a scout team quarterback.

Broekemeier is a business administration major and is on track to earn his degree in December. Broekemeier is a four-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection.

CAREER

Broekemeier has added depth at quarterback throughout his Nebraska career, but has not appeared in a game. Broekemeier has played a key role in preparing the Huskers for games through his outstanding work on the scout team. He suffered a knee injury during fall camp as a true freshman and missed the season, before returning for bowl game practice.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (AURORA HS)

Broekemeier guided Coach Randy Huebert's Aurora squad to an appearance in the Class B state semifinals in 2010. Broekemeier completed better than 70 percent of his passes for 2,047 yards and 31 touchdowns with just three interceptions. He also rushed for 630 yards and 12 touchdowns. Broekemeier was named the Gatorade Nebraska Player of the Year, and he was the honorary captain of the Lincoln Journal Star Super State offense and the Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska team.

Broekemeier had better than 2,400 yards of total offense and 32 touchdowns as a junior. At the 2011 Shrine Bowl, he set records for touchdown passes, passing yards, completions and total yards, going 30-of-37 for 371 yards and five touchdowns, while racking up 407 total yards. Broekemeier had scholarship offers from FCS schools South Dakota and North Dakota.

PERSONAL

Tyson was born on Feb. 9, 1992, and is the son of Dale and Karla Broekemeier. Tyson's older brother, Joe, was a receiver for the Huskers, finishing in 2010. Tyson was named to the 2015 Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams for his outreach work. 2015 OUTLOOK

Drew Brown continued a family tradition of outstanding kicking at Nebraska with a solid true freshman season in 2014. The Dallas area product took control of the starting place-kicking chores from the outset of the year and went on to rank among the Big Ten scoring leaders.

Brown's older brother, Kris, ranks as the second-leading scorer in Nebraska history, and was a place-kicker for more than a decade in the National Football League. The younger Brown set a Nebraska freshman scoring record with 101 points in 2014, breaking the previous record held by his older brother.

2014 (FRESHMAN)

Brown connected on 14-of-21 field goals and was perfect on 59 PAT attempts. The 59 extra points were the third-most in school history without a miss. His 7.8 points per game ranked seventh in the Big Ten and fourth among kickers. Brown had three games with two field goals. Brown also handled kickoff duties for part of the season, booting 14 touchbacks.

Brown made a 44-yard field goal in his NU debut against Florida Atlantic and made six PATs. He connected on 2-of-3 field goals at Fresno State and made a season-high seven PATs. He also made a pair of field goals (19 and 39 yards) against Miami and had three touchbacks.

Brown had a season-high seven touchbacks against Illinois and made a 29-yard field goal in the game. Brown made at least one field goal in each of the final four games. He connected on a 20-yarder at Iowa with eight seconds remaining to send the game to overtime. In the Holiday Bowl he made field goals of 34 and 24 yards.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHLAKE CARROLL HS)

Brown was a standout at Southlake Carroll High School being named the first-team kicker on the DFW all-area team as a senior and earning honorable-mention Class 5A all-state honors. He connected on 9-of-11 field goals as a senior, with a long of 51 yards, and made 89-of-90 PAT attempts, helping Coach Hal Wasson's team to an 11-2 record and trip to the third round of the 5A Division 1 playoffs.

Brown was perfect on 97 PAT attempts as a junior, while hitting on 9-of-10 field goals, as Carroll posted a 12-2 record and reached the quarterfinals of the state playoffs. Brown was also one of the state's top kickers during his sophomore season, helping Southlake Carroll to a perfect 16-0 record and Class 5A Division 1 state title. Brown hit on 17-of-21 field goals with a long of 49 yards, and made 63-of-64 extra points. Brown was ranked among the top dozen kickers in the nation by 247 Sports.

PERSONAL

The son of Hobert and Terri Brown, Drew was born on Oct. 30, 1995. He is majoring in supply chain management. Brown was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2014, and also was named to the 2015 Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams. - » Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award (2014)

2015 OUTLOOK

Sam Burtch was a breakout player in the Nebraska offense in 2013 and was poised for a big role in the NU receiver corps last fall. However, a pair of injuries kept Burtch off the field in 2014. Burtch now returns for his senior season hopeful of making an impact in a deep Nebraska receiving corps.

Burtch was held out early last season with a concussion, then following his return, he suffered a season-ending knee injury in practice. At 6-3 and 200 pounds, Burtch provides a big target in the Husker passing game. Burtch is also a standout off the field, twice earning academic All-Big Ten honors. Burtch is on track to earn his degree in communication studies in December.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Burtch missed the year with multiple injuries, the final one being a season-ending knee injury in September.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Burtch played in all 13 games, making starts against Michigan State and Penn State. He finished with 12 receptions for 147 yards and three touchdowns. He was at his best late in the season, making 10 of his 12 catches in the final six games.

Burtch's first two catches resulted in touchdowns, a 26-yarder against Southern Miss and a 16-yard catch vs. South Dakota State. Burtch caught three passes for 20 yards against Northwestern, including two on the final drive to help set up NU's Hail Mary. He caught five passes for 83 yards, including a career-long 32-yard touchdown against Michigan State.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Burtch played in four games as a reserve receiver, appearing in Nebraska's wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State, Idaho State and Minnesota. He did not have a reception.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Burtch walked on and redshirted in his first season in 2011.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELMWOOD-MURDOCK HS)

Burtch starred at receiver for Coach Leigh Schmale at Elmwood-Murdock High School. Burtch earned first-team Class C-2 all-state honors from both the Lincoln Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald in 2010. He caught 44 passes for 1,038 yards and eight touchdowns to help his team to a 9-2 record and a trip to the Class C-2 quarterfinals.

Burtch also caught 26 passes and eight touchdowns as a junior. Burtch won the Class C 800 meters at the 2010 Nebraska state track meet and was second in the 400 meters.

PERSONAL

The son of Tom Burtch and Marie Gregoire, Sam was born on Feb. 19, 1993. He is majoring in communication studies and is a seven-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection. Burtch has been active in the community and is a two-time member of both the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

Burtch was one of the leading forces behind starting the Uplifting Athletes Road Race to benefit pediatric cancer. He also has volunteered his time with the FCA, People's City Mission, American Education Week, Pilger tornado relief, Husker Hotline and numerous hospital and school outreach events.

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall, 2014)

2015 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman AJ Bush has impressed the Nebraska coaching staff and observers with his impressive playmaking ability at quarterback. The Georgia native appears to have a bright future in front of him in a Nebraska uniform.

The 6-3, 220-pound Bush has made plays both with his strong left arm and his feet displaying the ability to escape the pocket. Bush will enter fall camp as a leading contender to earn the backup quarterback job behind Tommy Armstrong Jr., who is expected to lead the Nebraska offense for the third consecutive season.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

Bush redshirted in his first season and worked on the offensive scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORCROSS HS)

Bush posted outstanding numbers as a senior, helping Georgia prep powerhouse Norcross High School to a state title in the AAAAAA ranks. The left-handed Bush completed 139-of-259 passes for 2,101 yards and 16 touchdowns for Coach Keith Maloff's team. Bush was also a big threat with his feet, rushing for 764 yards and 13 touchdowns on 168 carries. Norcross was widely regarded as one of the top 50 prep teams in the nation in 2013.

Bush spent his junior season at Milton High School, helping the Eagles to the first round of the AAAAAA playoffs. Bush ran for approximately 900 yards in 2012, while passing for 1,000 yards. Bush was regarded as one of the nation's top 50 dual-threat quarterbacks in the 247 Sports composite rankings. He also visited Boston College and Marshall, and had additional offers from Cincinnati, Kansas State, Toledo, Troy and Georgia State.

PERSONAL

The son of Alvin and Karen Bush, A.J. was born on Jan. 26, 1996. He is a business administration major. He was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in his first semester. Bush has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes and the Belmont Rec Center.

» Honorable-Mention Big Ten All-Freshman Team (BTN, 2013)

2015 OUTLOOK

Tight end Cethan Carter enters his junior season hoping to flourish in Nebraska's new offensive system under Head Coach Mike Riley and Offensive Coordinator Danny Langsdorf. The 6-4, 240-pound Carter battled through an injury-plagued sophomore campaign after breaking onto the scene as a true freshman in 2013. Carter also missed the second half of spring practice with a foot injury that required surgery, but he is expected to be at full strength for fall camp.

Carter is one of three junior tight ends who have extensive playing experience, along with Lincoln natives Sam Cotton and Trey Foster. Carter has shown the ability to stress defenses with his pass-catching skills, while also providing a formidable perimeter blocking presence.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Carter played in nine games with eight starts, while missing four games at midseason with a foot injury. Carter returned for the final four games and finished with six catches for 98 yards and a touchdown.

He made four of his six receptions in the final two games, with two catches for a career-high 48 yards at Iowa, highlighted by a career-long 34-yard grab before halftime to set up a touchdown. Carter also had a 14-yard catch in the fourth quarter on a game-tying drive. Carter added two receptions for 25 yards in the Holiday Bowl. Carter had his first career touchdown on a 20-yard catch at Fresno State.

2013 (FRESHMAN)

Carter was one of seven true freshmen to play in 2013, seeing action in all 13 games with six starts. Carter had 10 catches for 127 yards. He caught two passes three times on the year, including a season-high 43 yards against South Dakota State, highlighted by a season-long 26-yard catch. He caught five of his 10 passes in the final four games, including a 23-yard catch against Georgia in the Gator Bowl.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ARCHBISHOP RUMMEL HS)

Carter had a standout career for Coach Jay Roth at Rummel High School in Metairie, La. Carter was a versatile performer, lining up as a tight end, H-Back and fullback in the Raiders' run-based offense. He finished 2012 with 23 receptions for 418 yards and five touchdowns.

His play helped Rummel to a perfect 14-0 record and the Louisiana Class 5A state championship. Carter shined in the state title game, catching five passes for 74 yards and a touchdown in a 35-14 victory over Barbe High. For his efforts as a senior, Carter was an all-district choice and a honorable-mention all-state selection.

Carter started and was used in a variety of roles for Rummel as a junior. Carter chose Nebraska over offers from LSU, Miami, Memphis, Southern Miss, Louisiana Tech, Tulane, Louisiana-Lafayette and Florida International. He was ranked as the No. 13 prospect in the state of Louisiana by the New Orleans Times-Picayune. Carter was also one of the top players for the Rummel basketball team, leading the Raiders to a 21-11 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals as a senior.

PERSONAL

The son of Shelly Carter, Cethan was born on Sept. 5, 1993. He is majoring in criminology and criminal justice. He has volunteered his time with the Uplifting Athletes Road Race and outreach events at local community centers and hospitals.

2015 OUTLOOK

Byerson Cockrell served an important role on the Nebraska defense in his first season in the program in 2014. The 6-0, 185-pound Cockrell was a regular in the secondary, primarily lining up as a nickel back. Cockrell can play nearly any position in the secondary and spent the majority of the spring working with the top defensive unit at safety.

Cockrell suffered a shoulder injury at the conclusion of spring ball and underwent surgery shortly thereafter. He is expected back at full speed for the start of fall practice. Cockrell came to Nebraska in January of 2014 from East Mississippi Community College and quickly worked his way into the playing rotation.

Cockrell is on track to earn his degree in sociology in December.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Cockrell quickly earned an extensive role when NU lost a pair of expected starters in preseason camp. His play helped Nebraska rank among the nation's leaders in opponent pass completion percentage and pass efficiency defense. Cockrell played in all 13 games and made six starts, five as NU's nickel back and at safety against Iowa. Cockrell finished with 29 tackles, including 18 solo stops. He also had an interception and ranked second on the team with seven pass breakups.

Cockrell had five games with three or more tackles, including a season-high five tackles each against Minnesota and Iowa. He had his only interception of the season against Purdue in a contest when he also had a season-high two pass breakups. Cockrell had three tackles and a tackle for loss at Fresno State. He had a fumble recovery at Michigan State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (COLUMBUS HS/EAST MISSISSIPPI CC)

Cockrell was a standout at East Mississippi CC, playing two seasons for Coach Buddy Stephens. In 2013, Cockrell played safety for the Lions and had three interceptions for 128 yards, including a 58-yard interception return for a touchdown. He added 33 tackles, four pass breakups, three tackles for loss and two sacks. His play helped East Mississippi to a perfect 12-0 record and the NJCAA title. Cockrell was part of a defense that ranked second nationally with 30 interceptions in 2013.

Cockrell was also a key performer for the Lions in 2012, helping the team to a 10-2 record. Cockrell finished with 20 tackles, including 16 solo stops, while picking off a pair of passes.

Cockrell attended Columbus High School, where he earned Class 6A all-state first-team honors as a senior in 2011. He had seven interceptions for 133 yards and was credited with 69 tackles, seven pass breakups and one forced fumble in his senior season. Cockrell also scored three touchdowns on offense as a senior.

He was a member of the Columbus track team, competing in the 100 and 400 meters, and the 4x100-meter relay. Cockrell was ranked among the top 10 junior college safeties in the nation by 247Sports. Cockrell also received offers from Southern Miss, Louisiana-Monroe, UAB and Middle Tennessee among others.

PERSONAL

The son of Elizabeth Cockrell, Byerson was born on March 21, 1994. He has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Make-A-Wish, Pilger tornado relief, and numerous hospital and community outreach events. 2015 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Cole Conrad will add depth on a veteran offensive line for the Huskers in 2015. The 6-5, 290-pound Conrad spent the majority of the spring working at offensive tackle, where the Huskers have four veteran seniors who are expected to take the majority of the snaps. Conrad joined the NU program as a walk-on from Fremont's Archbishop Bergan High School.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

Conrad redshirted and worked on the scout team offense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ARCHBISHOP BERGAN HS)

Conrad helped Archbishop Bergan High School to an 8-2 record in 2013, including a trip to the second round of the Class C-2 state playoffs. Conrad's dominant play on the offensive line for Coach Seth Mruz helped power an offense that averaged nearly 270 rushing yards per game. On defense, Conrad made 27 tackles, including three tackles for loss, a sack and a fumble recovery. Conrad was also a key part of Bergan's success in 2012, when the Knights posted an 8-3 record and reached the quarterfinals of the state playoffs.

Conrad earned first-team Class C-2 all-state honors as an offensive lineman from the Associated Press, Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star as a senior. He was also the honorary defensive captain of the Fremont Tribune's all-area team.

PERSONAL

The son of Jim and Christy Conrad, Cole was born on July 24, 1995. He is majoring in criminology and criminal justice, and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2015. Conrad has volunteered his time with local hospital visits.

2015 OUTLOOK

Junior Sam Cotton has seen extensive action at tight end the past two seasons and will look to play a more significant role for the NU offense in Coach Mike Riley's first season as head coach. The 6-4, 250-pound Cotton gives the Huskers a big receiving target, while also having the ability to be an effective blocker.

Cotton is one of three junior tight ends who have seen extensive playing time the past two seasons, joining Cethan Carter and fellow Lincoln Southeast product Trey Foster. Cotton has distinguished himself off the field, earning academic All-Big Ten honors the past two seasons. Cotton is the youngest of three brothers to play for Nebraska, joining older brothers Ben and Jake, who have completed their NU eligibility, while their father, Barney, also played and coached at Nebraska.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Cotton played in all 13 games with starts against Michigan State, Northwestern, Purdue and Minnesota. He had three receptions for 41 yards, with two of his catches resulting in touchdowns. Cotton had a 10-yard catch in the opener against Florida Atlantic, then had a 23-yard touchdown grab at Fresno State. He added an eight-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter against Rutgers.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Cotton played in 10 games, including a start against Purdue. He caught three passes for 22 yards, with a three-yard touchdown catch at Minnesota. He had a season-long 17-yard catch against Illinois and also had a reception at Purdue.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Cotton sat out his first season in the program as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHEAST HS)

Cotton played a key role in helping Southeast earn a Class A state title in 2011. The Knights finished with a 12-1 record, including a 21-9 victory over Omaha Burke in the state title game, when Cotton caught a 34-yard touchdown pass.

As a senior, Cotton had 23 receptions, including seven touchdowns. He also played defensive line for Coach Ryan Gottula's team and made 42 tackles, including 7.5 sacks. Cotton earned first-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald as a defensive lineman, and he was an honorary captain of that team. The Lincoln Journal Star also named him a co-captain of its Super State team, but listed him as a first-team selection at tight end.

As a junior, Cotton helped Southeast to a 10-2 record and a trip to the Class A semifinals. He was an honorable-mention all-state pick by both major newspapers as a junior. Cotton was ranked among the top four players in the state of Nebraska in the class of 2012. Cotton also competed in the shot put and discus for Southeast. Cotton committed to Nebraska in June of 2011, and did not take any other visits.

PERSONAL

The son of Barney and Christine Cotton, Sam was born on Jan. 27, 1994. He is a business administration/marketing major and is a four-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection. He has volunteered his time with the NFL Fuel Up to Play 60 Event, Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes and school and hospital visits. He was named to both the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and Tom Osborne Citizenship Team in 2014 for his outreach efforts. His father earned three letters for the Huskers from 1975 to 1978 as both an offensive and defensive lineman.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Zack Darlington was one of several young players to show great promise during spring practice. The 6-2, 205-pound Darlington showed the ability to grasp Coach Riley's offense during the 15-practice session and will look to compete for playing time this fall.

Darlington will enter fall camp as a contender to earn the backup quarterback job behind Tommy Armstrong Jr., who is expected to lead the Nebraska offense for the third consecutive season.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (APOPKA HS)

A preseason All-Florida selection in 2013, Darlington's senior season at Apopka High was cut short after just one game because of injury.

Darlington was a two-year starting quarterback for one of the dominant prep programs in Florida. Playing for his father, Rick, the younger Darlington used his strong arm and great speed to lead Apopka to a 13-2 record in 2012, and the Class 8A state title. Darlington passed for 1,725 yards and 19 touchdowns, while also rushing for 708 yards and 10 touchdowns. In the state title game against Weston Cypress Bay, Darlington passed for 254 yards while rushing for 130 yards and three touchdowns. Darlington was named a Class 8A second-team all-state selection. As a sophomore, Darlington led Apopka to a 6-5 record.

Darlington was ranked among the top 15 dual-threat quarterbacks by 24/7 Sports. Darlington also had offers from Arizona, Boston College, Minnesota, Mississippi, North Carolina State, Ohio State, Virginia Tech and West Virginia among others, but only visited Nebraska.

PERSONAL

The son of Rick and Shelly Darlington, Zack was born on March 27, 1995. He is majoring in communication studies. He volunteered his time with Husker Hotline and at the F-Street Rec Center. Zack's older brother, Ty, is a senior center at Oklahoma, and started all 13 games for the Sooners in 2014.

2015 OUTLOOK

Junior Ross Dzuris has made steady progress throughout his Nebraska career, and in 2015 he will look to compete for playing time at defensive end. Junior Greg McMullen and senior Jack Gangwish return and have extensive game experience, however the opportunity for playing time behind that duo is wide open and Dzuris is a leading contender for a top backup job.

A walk-on from Plattsmouth High School, Dzuris has made excellent strides in the weight room during his time in Lincoln, adding nearly 20 pounds of muscle to his 6-3 frame.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Dzuris added depth at defensive end, but did not play in a game.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Dzuris was a reserve defensive end, but did not appear in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Dzuris walked on and redshirted in his first season in the program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PLATTSMOUTH HS)

Dzuris was a force on the defensive line for Plattsmouth High School, leading the Blue Devils to consecutive playoff berths during his junior and senior seasons. As a senior, Dzuris earned second-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and was part of the Lincoln Journal Star Class B all-state football team after collecting 103 total tackles, including 45 solo stops.

Dzuris had 52 tackles and four sacks as a junior, and was named a first-team all-state selection by HuskerlandPreps.com and was a first-team all-area selection from the Omaha World-Herald. Dzuris earned honorable-mention all-state recognition as a junior in basketball, and competed in track and field. Dzuris participated in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl in June of 2012. He chose to walk on at Nebraska over scholarship offers from North Dakota and South Dakota.

PERSONAL

The son of Bob and Leesa Dzuris, Ross was born on Oct. 13, 1993. He is majoring in business administration, and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll twice. He has volunteered time with the Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, Uplifting Athletes and local hospital visits.

The 6-3, 255-pound Evans has continued to add strength in the NU weight room throughout his time in the program and had a strong spring practice session.

A walk-on from Waverly High School, Evans began his career at linebacker before moving to the defensive front. He is a four-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete selection, while majoring in marketing.

2014 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Evans provided depth, but did not see game action.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WAVERLY HS)

Evans joined the Nebraska program as a versatile walk-on from Waverly High School. Evans saw action at tight end, linebacker, safety and quarterback. In his career, Evans rushed for 784 yards and 10 touchdowns, and threw for 761 yards as a quarterback. As a tight end, he caught 19 passes for 270 yards. On defense, Evans totaled 180 tackles, including 116 unassisted, with seven interceptions, two fumbles caused and two fumble recoveries.

Evans was an honorable-mention all-state selection by both the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star. He also earned honorable-mention all-state accolades in basketball.

PERSONAL

Redshirt freshman Tanner Farmer is a key part of an impressive group of young offensive linemen in the Nebraska program. The 6-4, 310-pound Farmer is one of the strongest players on the roster and will look to compete for playing time in 2015.

Farmer worked at guard throughout spring ball, a position where Nebraska lost a pair of senior starters. Farmer was regarded as one of the top offensive line recruits in the country in 2014 after a standout career at Highland High School in Illinois.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

Farmer redshirted in his first season at Nebraska and impressed on the NU scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HIGHLAND HS)

Farmer was a standout for Coach Jim Warnecke Jr. at Highland High School in Illinois. Farmer's blocking helped the Bulldogs to an 11-1 record and a trip to the Class 5A quarterfinals. The coaches tabbed Farmer as a first-team Illinois Class 5A all-state selection in 2013.

Farmer's play helped Highland make great improvement from 2011 to 2013. Highland was 0-9 during Farmer's sophomore season, then improved to 5-5 and a state playoff berth in 2012.

Farmer was one of the top performers at "The Opening" all-star camp and participated in the Under Armour All-American game in January. Farmer only visited Nebraska, but did have scholarship offers from Missouri, Illinois and Minnesota. Rivals.com listed Farmer as the No. 4 offensive guard prospect in the country and the 82nd-ranked 2014 recruit overall.

Matt Finnin has provided depth at offensive tackle the past two seasons, but is hopeful of competing for a more prominent role in 2015. The 6-7, 305-pound Finnin has the versatility to play either tackle spot and will continue to push for significant playing time in fall camp. He is one of four senior tackles with game experience entering the 2015 campaign.

Finnin joined the Husker program for the 2013 season after spending the 2012 season at the College of DuPage. Finnin earned his bachelor's degree in history in May and will play the 2015 season as a graduate student.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Finnin played in eight games, with the majority of his action late in games. However, he saw significant snaps at right tackle against Iowa and USC with regular starter Zach Sterup sidelined by injury. Finnin's play against the Hawkeyes helped Nebraska tie for the largest road comeback in school history, while Nebraska gained more than 500 yards against USC.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Finnin was a reserve tackle and saw action in Husker victories over Southern Miss, South Dakota State, Illinois and Purdue.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CRETE MONEE HS/COLLEGE OF DUPAGE)

Finnin spent the 2012 season at the College of DuPage in Illinois, providing a physical presence on the offensive line for Coach Gary Thomas' team in 2012. Finnin helped DuPage to a 9-2 record and a victory over Northeastern Oklahoma A&M in the Citizen's Bank Bowl.

Finnin graduated from high school in 2010 and signed with Western Michigan. He redshirted for the Broncos in 2010, but then returned home the following spring. He enrolled at Eastern Illinois in August of 2011, but again left school to return home.

Finnin was a member of back-to-back Southland Athletic Conference championship teams at Monee High in 2008 and 2009. He was named to the Southtown Star's All-Area team as a junior and to the NWI Times All-Area squad as a senior. Finnin was a member of the Chicago Sun Times' Top 100. Finnin was regarded among the top 10 junior-college offensive tackles. Finnin had a number of offers including Ohio State, Oklahoma, West Virginia, Maryland and Kansas before choosing Nebraska.

PERSONAL

2015 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Jerald Foster is part of an impressive group of young offensive linemen who appear to have a bright future in the Nebraska program. The 6-3, 310-pound Foster is expected to compete for a starting position at offensive guard in 2015, a spot where NU lost both starters to graduation.

The Lincoln native spent part of his rookie season in the program at defensive line to add practice depth, but returned to offense late in the 2014 season. Foster's older brother, Trey, is a junior tight end for Nebraska.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

Foster redshirted and worked on the scout team offensive line. He briefly moved to defensive tackle when injuries hit the position, but switched back to offense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHEAST HS)

Foster was one of three in-state signees in Nebraska's 2014 recruiting class. He was a dominant two-way player for Coach Ryan Gottula at Lincoln Southeast. As a senior, Foster earned first-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and first-team Super State accolades from the Lincoln Journal Star, as he helped the Knights to a Class A state playoff appearance. Foster was a dominant blocker on offense, while recording 53 tackles and three sacks from his defensive line spot.

Foster was also a first-team All-Nebraska and first-team Super State pick as a junior when he helped Southeast to a 9-2 record and trip to the Class A quarterfinals. Foster earned first-team Super State honors as a sophomore offensive lineman. His dominant effort on the offensive line helped Southeast to the Class A state championship and a 12-1 record.

Foster was rated as the top prospect in the state of Nebraska by Rivals.com, and among the nation's top 25 guards. He only visited Nebraska, but had offers from a number of schools, including Florida, Georgia, Iowa, Iowa State, Missouri, UCLA, Vanderbilt and Wake Forest.

PERSONAL

The son of Jesse and Charlesette Foster, Jerald was born on Sept. 14, 1995. He is a construction management major, and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll his first two semesters. 2015 OUTLOOK

Junior quarterback Ryker Fyfe served as the top backup to Tommy Armstrong Jr. in 2014. The 6-2, 210-pound Fyfe will continue to compete for playing time at quarterback this fall. Armstrong emerged from spring practice as the anticipated starter, however the competition for the top backup role continues with Fyfe a big part of that battle.

The Grand Island, Neb., native has added more than 30 pounds of muscle during his time in the program. Fyfe has shown the ability to lead the offense during his limited snaps and possesses a strong arm and the mobility to be a running threat.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Fyfe played in seven games, with most of his action late in games. He did see key snaps at Michigan State and Iowa when Armstrong was temporarily sidelined. Fyfe rushed for 47 yards on seven carries, while completing 4-of-10 passes for 40 yards and a touchdown.

Fyfe rushed four times for a season-high 29 yards against Florida Atlantic. Against Fresno State, he completed 2-of-3 passes for 22 yards, including a 10-yard touchdown pass to Christian Bailey. Fyfe was 1-of-2 passing at Michigan State and led NU to a touchdown.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Fyfe saw action in NU's win over South Dakota State, completing his only pass attempt for five yards and running for three yards.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRAND ISLAND HS)

Fyfe guided one of the most potent offenses in Nebraska as a senior, leading Grand Island to nearly 400 yards of offense and 40 points per game. He was a first-team Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska pick, and was the quarterback and honorary captain of the Lincoln Journal Star's Super State team. Fyfe threw for 1,921 yards and 20 touchdowns as a senior, while running for 746 yards and 14 scores, averaging 6.4 yards per carry.

As a junior, Fyfe finished with 1,492 passing yards and 14 touchdowns. Fyfe, who also played basketball and baseball, started at quarterback for the North team in the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl. Fyfe chose to walk on at Nebraska over a scholarship offer from Nebraska-Kearney.

PERSONAL

The son of Montie and Kim Fyfe, Ryker was born on Nov. 20, 1993. He is a sociology major and has volunteered time with team hospital visits and Uplifting Athletes. OFFENSIVE LINE6-5 · 290 LBS.
LAS VEGAS, NEV. · BISHOP GORMAN HS2015 OUTLOOK

Nick Gates has been impressive in his short time at Nebraska and is a key part of an outstanding group of young offensive linemen in the Husker program. Gates has the versatility to play multiple positions, but worked at tackle throughout spring practice and will compete with four veteran seniors for playing time at the position in the fall.

The 6-5, 290-pound Gates was a top offensive line prospect from Las Vegas prep powerhouse Bishop Gorman High School. Gates has been a standout in the Husker strength program since his arrival in Lincoln.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BISHOP GORMAN HS)

Gates was a dominant force on the offensive line for Coach Tony Sanchez at Bishop Gorman High School, helping his team to three straight state titles. As a senior, Gates helped the offense average better than 275 yards per game en route to a 13-2 record and a Division I state championship. Gates also saw time on defense, recording 13 tackles, a tackle for loss, three breakups and a fumble recovery. Gates earned first-team All-Nevada honors from the Las Vegas Review-Journal and was an All-Southwest League pick.

Gates earned second-team all-state honors from the Review-Journal in 2012, helping Gorman to a 13-1 record, including a 63-10 victory in the state title game. Bishop Gorman was a perfect 16-0 in the 2011 season and averaged more than 280 rushing yards per game.

Gates was regarded as the top player in Nevada and one of the top 25 offensive tackles in the country. Gates also visited Texas A&M, and had offers from dozens of schools, including Alabama, Arizona, Arizona State, Baylor, Colorado, Duke, Oklahoma, Oregon, Oregon State, UCLA, Washington and Washington State. Gates was also a standout player for Bishop Gorman's state championship baseball team.

PERSONAL

The son of Taylor and Sonya Gates, Nick was born on Nov. 27, 1995. He is a criminology and criminal justice major. He has volunteered for community outreach work with Uplifting Athletes and local school and hospital visits.

2015 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Luke Gifford is poised to compete for playing time on the Nebraska defense in the 2015 season. The Lincoln native entered the program last fall as a safety, but made the move to linebacker this spring and will compete for action on the outside this season.

Gifford was prepared for the move to linebacker after adding more than 15 pounds of muscle to his 6-3 frame since arriving on campus.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

Gifford redshirted and worked as a defensive back on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHEAST HS)

Gifford was a standout on both sides of the ball for Coach Ryan Gottula at Lincoln Southeast. As a senior, Gifford passed for 970 yards and five touchdowns, while rushing for 742 yards and eight touchdowns to help the Knights to the Class A state playoffs. Gifford also starred in the secondary, making 50 tackles with two interceptions and five pass breakups. Gifford was a first-team All-Nebraska defensive back selection by the Omaha World-Herald and also earned Super State accolades from the Lincoln Journal Star.

Gifford helped Southeast to a 9-2 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals in his junior season. On offense, Gifford caught seven passes for 125 yards, while also starring in the secondary. He was a first-team Super State selection as a junior, and earned second-team All-Nebraska honors in 2012. Gifford was also a member of the Knights' 2011 state championship team.

Gifford was ranked among the top 40 athlete prospects in the country by Rivals.com. Gifford was also a key member of the Knights' basketball teams for two seasons. Gifford was the first player to commit to the Huskers' 2014 class, and did not take any other visits. He had offers from Iowa, Ohio and Toledo among others.

PERSONAL

The son of Sam and Shannon Gifford, Luke was born on Aug. 28, 1995. He has not declared a major, but was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his first two semesters. Gifford earned a spot on the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams for his community outreach work, which included volunteering with Uplifting Athletes, School in Cool, FCA and several school and hospital outreach events.

2015 OUTLOOK

Receiver Kevin Gladney got his first taste of playing time for Nebraska last season, primarily seeing action on special teams, while adding depth in the NU receiving corps. He will look to push for playing time in a deep group of Husker receivers in 2015, while once again vying for action on special teams.

Gladney was one of 21 Huskers who earned academic All-Big Ten honors in 2014.

2014 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Gladney played in seven games, including the first six games and the regular-season finale at Iowa. He worked on coverage units and saw limited work at receiver. Gladney did not have a reception or a tackle.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Gladney redshirted in his first season in 2013.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FIRESTONE SENIOR HS)

Gladney posted big receiving numbers for Coach Tim Flossie at Firestone High in Akron, Ohio. Gladney had 32 receptions for 536 yards and seven touchdowns as a senior. Gladney's play helped Firestone to a 5-5 record in the Ohio Division II ranks. For his play, Gladney was a second-team Division II All-Ohio choice.

Gladney grabbed 48 receptions for 768 yards and 12 touchdowns to earn all-city honors as a junior. He first saw extensive action as a sophomore for Firestone for Firestone. In basketball, Gladney averaged 19 points per game as a junior to help his team to a 15-7 record and earn all-city honors. As a senior, he led Firestone to a 13-10 record. Gladney only visited Nebraska, but did have offers from Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Purdue, Vanderbilt and Cincinnati to name a few. Gladney was generally regarded as one of the top 60 receiver prospects in the nation.

PERSONAL

Gladney is the son of Dorryea Gladney and Kevin Barnett, and he was born on Feb. 13, 1995. He is majoring in child, youth and family sciences and is a two-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. 2015 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Zach Hannon will look to contend for playing time on the offensive line during the 2015 season. The 6-5, 305-pound Hannon has the ability to play both guard and center, positions where Nebraska is replacing its starters from the 2014 campaign. He spent the majority of the spring working at the guard position.

Hannon saw the majority of his action on special teams in 2014, working as a protector on NU's punting unit.

2014 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Hannon played in all 13 games, working as a shield blocker on NU's punting unit. The blocking helped Sam Foltz rank fifth in the Big Ten in punting, while NU was also fourth in the league in net punting. Hannon also added depth on the line.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Hannon redshirted in his first season in 2013.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ROCKHURST HS)

Hannon had a standout career at Rockhurst High School under Coach Tony Severino. Hannon was a dominant force on the offensive line, helping Rockhurst to a 9-3 record and a trip to the third round of the state playoffs. Hannon did not allow a sack on the season and recorded 34 pancake blocks. For his efforts as a senior, Hannon earned first-team Class 6A all-state honors in Missouri, and he was a first-team All-Metro pick by the Kansas City Star.

As a junior, Hannon helped Rockhurst to a 10-2 record and a trip to the Class 6A quarterfinals. Hannon participated in the Semper Fi All-Star Game in Arizona following his senior season. He was regarded as one of the top 10 prospects in the state of Missouri and among the top 50 offensive line prospects in the country. Hannon only visited Nebraska, but had offers from Arkansas, Colorado, Missouri, Kansas State, Kansas, Northwestern, Iowa State and Illinois to name a few.

Hannon was also a standout attacker on the lacrosse field. As a senior co-captain, he helped Rockhurst to a 15-5 record and a trip to the state semifinals, scoring seven goals with 22 assists and 35 ground balls.

2015 OUTLOOK

Defensive back Charles Jackson has battled the injury bug over the past year, but is ready to return to the field in 2015. Jackson missed all of 2014 after suffering a knee injury early in fall camp. After returning to full speed in the winter, Jackson suffered a minor knee injury during spring ball, cutting short his practice work with the new Husker coaching staff.

When healthy, the 5-11, 180-pound Jackson has shown the versatility and explosiveness to be an impact player in both the secondary and on special teams. Jackson has seen time at cornerback, safety and nickel back in his career and will compete for playing time in a deep Nebraska secondary. He is also a likely candidate for significant special teams work.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

Jackson suffered a knee injury in fall camp, and sat out the season as a medical redshirt.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Jackson played in all 13 games, primarily on special teams, while also providing depth at safety. He had seven total tackles and was second on the team with six special teams stops. Jackson had three special teams tackles against Wyoming, and had two solo tackles against South Dakota State, including one on special teams. He also forced a fumble against the Jackrabbits.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Jackson was one of five true freshmen to see action, playing in 13 games. He made 11 tackles, including six solo stops. Jackson was second on the team with seven tackles on special teams. He had a season-high two tackles in both the first meeting with Wisconsin and at Ohio State. Jackson added a pass breakup against Idaho State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KLEIN COLLINS HS)

Jackson was a key performer for Coach Drew Svoboda at Collins High School in Klein, Texas. Jackson's play helped the team to an 11-1 record and a district championship in 2010, before a loss in the second round of the state playoffs. Jackson recorded 73 tackles, including 50 solo stops as a senior. Jackson also had three interceptions and five pass breakups and earned first-team all-district honors as a senior.

Jackson was also a key performer for the Tigers as a junior, racking up 75 tackles and five interceptions on his way to second-team all-district honors. He was a prep teammate of Husker linebacker David Santos. Jackson participated in the U.S. Army All-America game in San Antonio. Jackson was regarded as the second-best cornerback prospect in the country by Scout.com, while Rivals ranked him among the top 10 corners in the country. Jackson received dozens of offers and also visited Arkansas and Oklahoma before choosing Nebraska.

PERSONAL

The son of Rick and Yolanda Parker, Charles was born on Aug. 16, 1992. He is majoring in ethnic studies, and was named to the academic All-Big Ten team in 2013, and the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. Andy Janovich heads into his senior year at Nebraska with three years of significant playing experience at the fullback spot. The 6-1, 230-pound Janovich has provided a physical blocking presence for the Huskers the past three years, but could be utilized in more ways in Coach Mike Riley's Husker offense in 2015.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Janovich played in all 13 games and started the final two games against Iowa and USC. Janovich played in the opener despite undergoing minor knee surgery during fall camp. His blocking helped Ameer Abdullah to his third straight 1,000-yard rushing season. Janovich caught his only pass of the season with a 16-yard reception at Michigan State.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Janovich played in all 13 games and alternated time at fullback with C.J. Zimmerer.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Janovich did not play in the first three games, but became a regular contributor in the final 11 games. He started against Idaho State and Ohio State and finished with three carries for six yards, all against Idaho State. He also caught two passes for 13 yards on the year, with one reception each against Idaho State and Ohio State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRETNA HS)

Janovich was named first-team All-Nebraska by the Omaha World-Herald as a linebacker and was part of the Lincoln Journal Star's second-team Super State squad, after leading Gretna to the Nebraska Class B semifinals as a senior. Janovich rushed for 799 yards and 18 touchdowns as a senior, while averaging 7.6 yards per carry. On defense, he led Gretna in tackles with 112 and finished with eight tackles for loss.

Janovich was selected to play in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl. He also starred in wrestling, where he was the 2012 Class B 220-pound champion with a 46-0 record, a year after winning the 189-pound title with a 53-0 record. Janovich chose to walk on at Nebraska over a scholarship offer from Nebraska-Kearney.

Sophomore Dwyane Johnson Jr. is among an impressive group of underclass offensive linemen in the Nebraska program. The 6-6, 280-pound Johnson spent the spring working at offensive tackle, but has the versatility to play multiple positions.

Johnson has distinguished himself off the field as a leader in Nebraska's community outreach efforts. Johnson is a two-year member of the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams and a recipient of a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award.

2014 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Johnson provided depth on the offensive line but did not play in a game.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BELLAIRE HS)

Johnson helped Bellaire High School and Coach Trey Sissom reach the Class 5A playoffs in 2012. Johnson helped the team average nearly 200 rushing yards per game, and he was a second-team All-Greater Houston selection as an offensive lineman and earned second-team all-district honors.

As a junior, Johnson helped trigger an explosive Bellaire offense that gained nearly 375 yards per game, including 260 rushing yards per contest. Bellaire posted a 7-4 record and advanced to the state playoffs. Johnson was regarded as one of the top 60 offensive tackles in the 2013 class according to 247 Sports. Johnson chose Nebraska over offers from Arkansas, Colorado, Oklahoma, Virginia, Washington State and Purdue.

PERSONAL

The son of Dwayne Johnson Sr. and Fatima Brown, Dwayne Jr. was born on March 24, 1995. He is majoring in criminology and criminal justice. 2015 OUTLOOK

Chris Jones was one of five true freshmen to see action for the Huskers in 2014, with the Florida product providing depth at cornerback. The 6-0, 180-pound Jones has added more than 10 pounds of muscle since his arrival in Lincoln and has the size and strength to be an effective corner for the Blackshirt defense. Jones had a strong spring and is poised to contend for significant action as a sophomore.

Jones was also one of Nebraska's top special teams performers last fall, helping Nebraska's punt and kickoff coverage units rank among the Big Ten's best. He is likely to continue to be a key player on special teams in 2015.

2014 (FRESHMAN)

Jones played in 12 games, primarily on special teams. Jones had seven tackles, including five solo stops, and had a fumble recovery on punt coverage against Iowa. Five of Jones' seven tackles were on special teams, including two at Northwestern. He had two solo tackles on defense at Fresno State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SANDALWOOD HS)

Jones' play as a senior helped Coach Adam Geis' Sandalwood High School team to an 8-3 record and a berth in the Class 8A state playoffs in 2013. Jones keyed the Sandalwood defense, making 32 tackles, while intercepting four passes, including one that he returned for a touchdown. Jones was named to the All-First Coast team by the Florida Times-Union.

As a junior, Jones helped Sandalwood to a 7-3 record, and the school narrowly missed the Class 8A playoffs. Jones chose Nebraska after also visiting Purdue, and also had offers from South Florida, Western Kentucky, Florida International and Western Michigan. Jones was regarded as one of the top 60 athlete prospects in the country by 247 Sports.

PERSONAL

Jones was born on Aug. 13, 1995, and Lucille Payton is his legal guardian. Jones has not declared a major, but was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2015. Jones has participated in community outreach efforts with Uplifting Athletes and local rec center and school visits.

2015 OUTLOOK

Harrison Jordan has provided depth at fullback behind senior Andy Janovich over the past two seasons and is hopeful of seeing an expanded role in the Husker offense in 2015. The 5-10, 230-pound Jordan saw limited action last season, primarily on Nebraska's kickoff return unit. An Omaha native, Jordan was an academic All-Big Ten honoree in 2014.

2014 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Jordan played in five games on special teams and as a reserve at fullback, hitting the field against Florida Atlantic, Fresno State, Michigan State, Northwestern and USC.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Jordan redshirted in his first season and worked on the scout team offense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WESTSIDE HS)

Jordan was a two-way standout at Westside High School, excelling as a fullback and linebacker for Coach Brett Froendt. As a senior, Jordan had 78 tackles, including 54 solo stops, and added four sacks and two fumble recoveries. He also ran 16 times for 63 yards and two touchdowns. Jordan was a second-team All-Nebraska and second-team Super State choice as a linebacker. He also earned first-team Class A all-state honors from the Lincoln Journal Star and first-team All-Metro accolades from the Omaha World-Herald. Jordan also drew interest from North Dakota State, South Dakota, Augustana and Wayne State.

Joshua Kalu was one of five true freshmen to see action for Nebraska in 2014, earning significant time in the secondary in both the nickel and dime role. Entering his sophomore season, the 6-1, 185-pound Kalu is poised to contend for a starting position at cornerback this fall.

Kalu was also one of Nebraska's top performers on special teams last season, helping NU rank among the Big Ten's best in kickoff and punt coverage in 2014.

2014 (FRESHMAN)

Kalu played in all 13 games and made starts against Fresno State and Illinois when NU opened with six defensive backs. Kalu made 27 tackles, including seven solo stops, and was among NU's leaders in special teams tackles with seven, including two against McNeese State.

Kalu made his first career interception against Miami in the fourth quarter, helping seal the Husker victory. Kalu forced a pair of fumbles, one each against Fresno State and Iowa. He also recovered a fumble at Iowa, setting up an NU touchdown drive. Kalu had six or more tackles three times, including a season-high seven against Illinois and six each at Fresno State and Iowa. Kalu saw significant action at Michigan State after starting corner Daniel Davie was sidelined by injury.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ALIEF TAYLOR HS)

Kalu was a standout performer for Coach Jody Jordan at Alief Taylor High School in Houston. Kalu helped his team to an 8-4 record in 2013, including a trip to the second round of the Class 5A Division 1 state playoffs. Kalu made 51 tackles and had four interceptions as a senior, with three returns for touchdowns. Kalu's play earned him All-Greater Houston first-team honors from the Houston Chronicle, and he was also a first-team all-district selection.

As a junior, Kalu helped Alief Taylor to an 8-4 record, when he made 32 tackles and had an interception and a fumble recovery. He also averaged better than 13 yards per punt return and was named the Class 5A District 18 Newcomer of the Year. Kalu also excelled in track and basketball for Alief Taylor. Kalu was ranked among the top 80 safeties in the country according to the 247 Sports composite rankings. Kalu only visited Nebraska, but did receive scholarship offers from Colorado, Arkansas State, Duke, Houston, SMU, Wake Forest and Washington State.

2015 OUTLOOK

Defensive end Joe Keels saw reserve action in 2014 in his first season in the program. This season, the 6-3, 265-pound Keels will have the opportunity to compete for much more extensive playing time in a wide open battle at defensive end. Returning starter Greg McMullen and senior Jack Gangwish have the most game experience among defensive ends, but Keels is poised to earn plenty of snaps at the position.

Keels has added about 15 pounds of muscle to his frame since arriving on the NU campus from the junior college ranks in January of 2014. Keels is on track to earn his degree in sociology in May of 2016.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Keels played in five games, seeing action in the first three games, and also against Illinois and Rutgers. Keels had an unassisted tackle at Fresno State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BRADFORD HS/HIGHLAND CC)

Keels played for former Husker Ryan Held at Highland (Kan.) Community College in 2013. Keels had 20 tackles and 2.5 sacks in nine games, helping Highland to a 6-4 record. He was a second-team All-Jayhawk League selection at defensive end. Keels starred at Rochester (Minn.) College in 2012, recording 12.5 sacks. Keels began his college career at the North Dakota College of Science in 2011, but sat out as a medical redshirt.

Keels is a native of Kenosha, Wis., and attended Bradford High School as a senior. At Bradford High, Keels helped his team to a trip to the Division 1 state semifinals as a senior in 2010. Keels made 65 tackles, including eight sacks. Keels spent his first three years of high school at Mt. Zion (Ill.) High School.

Keels was ranked as one of the top five defensive linemen in the junior college ranks by 247 Sports. Keels chose Nebraska over Wisconsin.

PERSONAL

Keels is the son of Reynell Jones-Gray, and he was born on June 13, 1993. Keels earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2014. Keels has volunteered time at the Madonna Rehabilitation Center and other outreach events.

2015 OUTLOOK

Spencer Lindsay saw limited action for Nebraska last season, handling kickoff duties in two games at midseason. A walk-on from Kearney, Lindsay is one of two returning kickers with game experience, joining sophomore Drew Brown, and Lindsay could contend for kickoff and place-kicking duty in 2015.

Lindsay is a standout in the classroom, earning recognition on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his six semesters on campus.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Lindsay kicked off against Rutgers and Purdue and had one touchback in nine attempts.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Lindsay added depth at kicker, but did not play in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Lindsay redshirted in his first season in the program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KEARNEY HS)

Lindsay was one of the top kickers in Nebraska, earning honorable-mention all-state accolades from both the Lincoln Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald as a senior at Kearney High. Lindsay made all 33 PAT attempts and was 6-of-9 on field goals with a long of 44 yards. Lindsay booted nearly 75 percent of his kickoffs for touchbacks and averaged 33.7 yards per punt. As a junior, Lindsay was 11-of-13 on field goals. He also shined at wide receiver as a senior for the Bearcats, catching 17 passes for 271 yards and two touchdowns.

PERSONAL

The son of Katherine Keifer and Bill Lindsay, Spencer was born on Aug. 12, 1993. He is majoring in history. Lindsay has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, FCA, Husker Hotline, Husker Heroes, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60 and local hospital visits. His outreach work has earned him a spot on the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams each of the past two seasons.

2015 OUTLOOK

Senior Chris Long enters the 2015 season in hopes of competing for playing time along the offensive line. The 6-4, 300-pound Long spent the spring working at offensive guard, where the competition for playing time will continue into fall camp. Long joined the program as a walk-on from Blair High School and has provided depth throughout his career.

Long has distinguished himself off the field. He is a a four-year member of the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and a five-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. Long is on track to earn his degree in child, youth and family sciences in May of 2016.

CAREER

Long has added depth at offensive guard throughout his career, but has yet to see action in a game. Long redshirted in his first season in the program in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BLAIR HS)

Long helped lead Blair High School to the Nebraska Class B semifinals as a senior. He was an All-Nebraska second-team member according to the Omaha World-Herald and was part of the Lincoln Journal Star Class B all-state team. Long anchored an offensive line that helped produce over 30 points per game for the Bears. Also a member of the Blair wrestling team, Long finished as the state runner-up in the heavyweight class as a senior with a 41-4 record. Long chose Nebraska over scholarship offers from Nebraska-Omaha and Northwest Missouri State.

PERSONAL

The son of Patrick and Stacy Long, Chris was born on Feb. 25, 1993. He has volunteered his time with local hospital and school visits, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60, Husker Hotline, Husker Heroes and Uplifting Athletes. 2015 OUTLOOK

Kevin Maurice has provided depth at defensive tackle the past two seasons, and should help make the defensive tackle position a strength for the 2015 Huskers. Maurice is one of four defensive tackles with extensive game experience returning this season, joining senior Kevin Williams and fellow juniors Maliek Collins and Vincent Valentine.

The 6-3, 280-pound Maurice has the strength to hold up against the run, and the quickness to be an effective pass rusher.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Maurice played in 10 games, finishing with eight tackles, including two solo stops. He shared a sack against Florida Atlantic and had a season-high two tackles at Fresno State.

2013 (FRESHMAN)

Maurice played in the first six games as a reserve defensive tackle. He finished with three tackles, including single tackles against Wyoming, South Dakota State and Illinois.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FREEDOM HS)

Maurice was a fast-rising prospect after a standout senior season at Freedom High School in Orlando. Maurice had approximately 70 tackles, including nine sacks and better than 20 tackles for loss, while also forcing two fumbles. His play helped Coach Andy Johnson's team to a 7-4 season and a trip to the Class 8A state playoffs. Maurice earned first-team Class 8A all-state honors from the Orlando Sentinel and was an all-district and All-Metro selection. He was also selected to play in the Central Florida All-Star game.

Maurice played on both sides of the ball as a junior. He had 50 pancake blocks as an offensive lineman, and totaled 50 tackles and six sacks on defense. Maurice also started as a sophomore in 2010 for an 8-2 team. Maurice was regarded as one of the top 120 defensive tackles in the nation by several recruiting services. He also visited Boston College and had offers from Florida Atlantic, North Carolina State and Memphis.

PERSONAL

The son of Hernise Maurice, Kevin was born on July 19, 1994. He is a management major, and a two-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. Maurice has been active in community outreach efforts, volunteering his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline, School is Cool Week, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60, and team hospital visits. Omaha native Mitch McCann heads into his junior season with a goal of earning playing time at fullback in the Huskers' new offensive scheme. The 6-0, 235-pounder from Omaha, Neb., is among a group of fullbacks looking for playing time behind senior Andy Janovich, who has seen extensive action the past three years. McCann began his Husker career as a linebacker, before switching to fullback before the 2013 season.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

McCann was a reserve at fullback, but did not see game action.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

McCann provided depth at fullback, but did not play in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

McCann redshirted in his first season and worked as a scout team linebacker.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BURKE HS)

McCann helped Omaha Burke become one of the toughest defenses in the state of Nebraska. In 2011, Burke held opposing offenses to 18 points and less than 130 yards per game. A three-year starter at middle linebacker for Burke, McCann totaled 128 tackles as a senior to go along with two sacks and two fumble recoveries. McCann helped Burke reach the Class A state championship game in 2011, where he tallied a game-high 9.5 tackles.

A first-team Super State linebacker by the Lincoln Journal Star and honorable-mention All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald, McCann participated in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl in 2012. McCann chose to walk on at NU over a scholarship offer from South Dakota State.

Luke McNitt enters his second season in the Nebraska program and his first year of playing eligibility in 2015. The 6-2, 240-pound McNitt transferred to the Husker program after spending his freshman season at Nebraska-Kearney in 2013.

McNitt's work at tight end during spring ball impressed the NU coaching staff, and he will look to battle for playing time behind juniors Cethan Carter and Sam Cotton.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

McNitt sat out the season after transferring from Nebraska-Kearney, and he worked on the scout team offense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KEARNEY HS/NEBRASKA-KEARNEY)

McNitt played in 10 games for Nebraska-Kearney in 2013, where he completed 34-of-71 passes for 415 yards and three touchdowns while playing quarterback. McNitt ran for a season-high 111 yards and three touchdowns against Lindenwood, the first of two 100-yard rushing efforts. For the season, McNitt racked up 318 yards on the ground on 82 rush attempts, while managing seven touchdowns. McNitt was also on the receiving end for the Lopers, catching eight passes for 51 yards and one touchdown. His TD reception came against Emporia State, where he caught a season-high five passes for 31 yards.

McNitt had a standout career at Kearney High, where he set school records for total offense and touchdowns, while also providing stellar defensive production as a linebacker. As a senior in 2012, McNitt collected first-team All-Nebraska honors at linebacker, while being named first-team Class A all-state and the Kearney Hub's Offensive Player of the Year. He threw for 1,219 yards and 16 touchdowns, while running for 928 yards and 13 touchdowns. McNitt earned honorable-mention Class A all-state as a junior. McNitt also excelled in track and field, where he captured the 2013 Class A state titles in shot put (59-8) and discus (171-1).

2015 OUTLOOK

Receiver Alonzo Moore was a regular part of the Huskers' receiving rotation throughout the 2014 season. He hopes to have an even bigger impact in 2015. The 6-2, 195-pound Moore has good size to go along with excellent speed and elusiveness, making him a threat in the return game as well as the passing game.

Moore played in 11 games and made seven starts in 2014, but battled nagging injuries late in the season that limited his impact. Moore's 10 receptions ranked fifth on the team, and the Louisiana native was also a regular in the kickoff return game.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Moore played in the first 11 games, before missing the finale at Iowa and the Holiday Bowl because of injury. Moore started seven of the first eight games and had 10 receptions for 136 yards. He also had three kickoff returns for 53 yards.

Moore caught three passes for 26 yards against Miami and had two receptions against Rutgers. He had a season-long 43-yard reception at Michigan State, keeping the Huskers' comeback hopes alive late in the fourth quarter.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Moore played in 10 games in 2013, making starts against Illinois and Minnesota. He had six receptions for 75 yards and averaged 23.2 yards on five kickoff returns. Moore had a career-high four receptions for 43 yards against Northwestern. Moore also had a 19-yard catch against South Dakota State. He had 71 kickoff return yards at Minnesota and two returns for 45 yards against Northwestern.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Moore redshirted in his first season in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WINNFIELD HS)

Moore saw action at quarterback, running back and receiver for Winnfield High School, helping his team to a 14-1 record and a trip to the Class 2A state championship game in 2011. Moore rushed for 1,473 yards and 22 touchdowns on 156 carries, while throwing for another 442 yards and a touchdown. Moore was a first-team all-state pick and was chosen as the Class 2A Offensive Player of the Year. Moore totaled 26 touchdowns as a senior, including three on returns.

As a junior, Moore earned all-district honors and honorable-mention all-state accolades, while primarily playing receiver. He caught 49 passes for 1,246 yards and 17 touchdowns for Coach Andy Pyles' team, while also rushing 53 times for 591 yards and nine scores.

Moore spent the majority of his time at quarterback in his first two years. As a sophomore in 2009, he accounted for more than 2,100 total yards to help Winnfield to an 8-4 record. Moore was ranked among the top 50 receivers in the nation by 247 Sports. Moore was also an outstanding basketball player and averaged better than 20 points per game during his junior season. During the spring, Moore captured a gold medal in the Class 2A high jump with a jump of 6-5, while adding a silver medal in the triple jump and a seventh-place finish in the long jump. Moore also visited Mississippi State and Louisiana Tech before choosing Nebraska.

PERSONAL

The son of Janice Moore, Alonzo was born on Nov. 10, 1992. He is a sociology major and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. Moore has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes.

As a senior, Newby recorded a team-high 132 tackles, while adding 15 tackles for loss, seven pass breakups, an interception, two forced fumbles and a pair of blocked kicks. Newby helped Quince Orchard to a 12-2 record and a second consecutive Class 4A state runner-up finish. Newby earned consensus all-state honors in Maryland for the second straight year. He was also a Washington Post All-Met first-team choice and a Montgomery Gazette first-team pick.

Newby made 107 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and three sacks as a junior, helping his team to a 13-1 record. He added eight pass breakups and two fumble recoveries. In addition to being a first-team all-state choice in 2011, Newby was also named to the all-tournament team for his impressive play during the state playoffs.

Newby earned first-team all-county honors as a sophomore after helping his team to a 9-3 record. Newby was selected to play in both the Maryland Crab Bowl (Maryland all-star game) and the Semper Fi All-American Bowl in Arizona. He was regarded as one of the top 150 overall prospects in the country by 247 Sports. Newby had offers from dozens of schools, including Oklahoma, Penn State, South Carolina, Virginia Tech, Arizona and Maryland.

LOS ANGELES, CALIF. · CHAMINADE HS

- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2015)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2015)

2015 OUTLOOK

I-back Terrell Newby has teamed with Imani Cross for the past two seasons to provide a solid 1-2 reserve punch behind All-American Ameer Abdullah. With Abdullah moving on to the NFL, the 5-10, 200-pound Newby is one of several players who will battle for playing time at running back this season. Newby had an impressive spring practice session and is expected to play a significant role in the Husker offense.

Newby has outstanding speed and has shown the ability to catch the ball out of the backfield. He also has been a regular kickoff return man for the Huskers and could again factor in that role. Newby is a Los Angeles native and was one of the nation's most sought-after running backs in 2013.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Newby was NU's fourth-leading rusher, gaining 297 yards on 67 carries, with five rushing touchdowns. He played in all 13 games, and in addition to his rushing numbers, Newby caught eight passes for 44 yards and had three kickoff returns for 53 yards. He opened the year with a career-high 107 yards on 16 carries and two rushing touchdowns against Florida Atlantic.

Against Illinois, Newby had nine carries for 34 yards and a touchdown and caught two passes for 21 yards. He had 30 yards on 10 carries against Rutgers and picked up 42 yards on nine carries, including a seven-yard TD run, against Purdue.

Newby added his fifth touchdown run of the season at Wisconsin. He had four carries for 15 yards against USC, and added two receptions against the Trojans.

2013 (FRESHMAN)

Newby was third on the team with 298 rushing yards, averaging 5.5 yards on his 54 carries. He also caught three passes, had four kickoff returns for 77 yards and a 10-yard punt return.

Newby opened the year with season highs of 15 carries and 76 yards against Wyoming, then added 60 yards against Southern Miss. Newby topped 50 yards for a third time in non-conference play with 52 yards and two touchdowns against South Dakota State. He had 61 rushing yards at Purdue, including a season-long 23-yard run. Newby had a career-long 24-yard kickoff return vs. Iowa.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CHAMINADE HS)

Newby posted back-to-back 2,000-yard rushing seasons for Chaminade High in West Hills, Calif. Newby accounted for 105 total touchdowns for Coach Ed Croson's team. As a senior, Newby ran for 2,305 yards and 45 touchdowns. Newby also caught 18 passes for 176 yards and helped Chaminade to a 12-2 record and a trip to the finals of the CIF Southern Section playoffs. Against Harvard-Westlake, Newby rushed for 360 yards and eight touchdowns in a 78-34 victory. Newby was a finalist for the Cal/Hi Sports Mr. Football Award and was named to the Los Angeles Times high school football all-star team. He was also the Western Division Offensive Player of the Year and the Los Angeles Daily News Player of the Year.

Newby rushed for 2,117 yards and 34 touchdowns as a junior. He also caught 18 passes for 184 yards and a touchdown, helping his team to a 10-3 record and a trip to the semifinals of the CIF Southern Section playoffs. Newby rushed for 1,372 yards and 18 touchdowns for Chaminade as a sophomore, helping his team to an 11-2 record and a playoff semifinal appearance. Newby was regarded as one of the top 75 overall prospects in the country by Rivals.com, which listed him as the top running back in California and one of the top 10 overall prospects in the Golden State. Newby was an honorable-mention Parade All-American and played in the International Bowl, earning MVP honors. He chose Nebraska over UCLA, Oregon, California and Washington and had offers from dozens of other schools.

PERSONAL

The son of Terrell and Lorraine Newby, Terrell was born on July 25, 1995. He is majoring in sociology. He has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Mad Dads, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60, School is Cool Week, Husker Heroes and hospital visits, and was named to the 2015 Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams.

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall, 2014)

2015 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Peyton Newell will enter fall camp with hopes of earning playing time along a talented defensive line in 2015. The 6-3, 270-pound Newell has the versatility to play both defensive tackle and defensive end and primarily focused on tackle during spring practice. Newell came to Nebraska after a standout prep career at Hiawatha High School in Kansas where he starred on both sides of the ball.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HIAWATHA HS)

Newell started every game of his high school career on both sides of the ball, and posted record defensive numbers. In his career for Coach Chris Diller, Newell set school records with 257 tackles, 105 tackles for loss and 33 sacks, while registering 16 forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, 12 blocked kicks and two defensive touchdowns. Newell had 37 catches for 583 yards and seven touchdowns at tight end.

As a senior, he helped Hiawatha to a 7-4 record, and had 76 tackles, including a school-record 12 sacks, 32 tackles for loss and four forced fumbles. He caught seven passes for 118 yards and a touchdown. Newell was named to the CBS Sports/MaxPreps Small School First-Team All-America squad, and the Topeka Capital Journal and Wichita Eagle's Top 11 All-State. He was the all-class defensive lineman of the year by both papers. Newell was also named the St. Joseph News-Press Defensive Player of the Year for the second straight year, earned Big 7 All-League honors and participated in the 2014 Kansas Shrine Bowl.

Newell had 61 tackles as a junior, including a school-record 37 tackles for loss and 10 sacks. He added five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries and caught 14 passes for 162 yards and three scores. His play led Hiawatha to an 8-3 record and a state playoff appearance. Newell was a MaxPreps Junior All-American in 2012, while earning all-state honors in Kansas. Newell had 76 tackles, including 26 tackles for loss and six sacks in 2011, while adding 12 catches for 246 yards and three touchdowns. Newell was a first-team all-area defensive pick in 2011, and was an honorable-mention Kansas all-state pick.

Newell made 44 tackles as a freshman, including 10 tackles for loss, five sacks, forced three fumbles and had a blocked kick. Newell had more than 30 scholarship offers, including Clemson, Georgia, Kansas, Kansas State, Michigan State, Missouri, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Penn State, South Carolina, UCLA, USC and Wisconsin to name a few. He was regarded as the top defensive prospect in Kansas by all of the major recruiting services.

PERSONAL

The son of Frank and Stacie Newell and the late Melissa "Malter" Newell, Peyton was born on Nov. 18, 1995. He is majoring in sociology and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2014. Newell has volunteered for outreach work with Uplifting Athletes and local hospital and community center outreach events.

2015 OUTLOOK

Givens Price is one of four senior offensive tackles with significant playing experience who return for the 2015 season, making for excellent competition for playing time at the position. The 6-4, 310-pound Price worked his way into a prominent role on the offensive line in 2014, and handled the transition to a new offense well in the spring. Price also has previous experience at guard and also could contend for action at that spot in 2015.

Price moved from guard to tackle in 2014, and was Nebraska's third tackle for the majority of the season, alternating with Zach Sterup on the right side. Price was in the starting lineup three times while Sterup was sidelined by injury. The play of Price and the offensive line helped Nebraska rank among the top 20 nationally in scoring offense and rushing offense.

Price continues to excel off the field, being named to the academic All-Big Ten team for three straight years. Price earned his degree in accounting/management in May and will play the 2015 season as a graduate student.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Price saw action in 12 games, making starts against Florida Atlantic, Iowa and USC. Price's play in his first career start against Florida Atlantic helped Nebraska set a Big Ten modern era record for total offense with 784 yards, including 498 rushing yards. The group up front powered running back Ameer Abdullah's record-setting season, as he became NU's career leader in all-purpose yards while ranking second in rushing. The line also helped Nebraska rank among the top offenses in the Big Ten in protecting the quarterback.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Price played in eight games as a reserve guard. His role increased late in the season with numerous injuries on the line, and he became a regular on the Huskers' PAT and field goal units.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Price added depth, and played in wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State and Idaho State.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Price redshirted in his first season in 2011.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ALIEF TAYLOR HS)

Price helped Coach J.D. Jordan and Alief Taylor High School in Houston to a 10-2 record and a trip to the second round of the Class 5A state playoffs in 2010. Price's play was a key part of an explosive offense that averaged 39.6 points per game and topped the 40-point barrier seven times during the 2010 season. For his play, Price earned second-team Class 5A all-state honors. Price also stood out during his junior season, helping the team to a 9-4 record and a trip to the third round of the 5A playoffs. Price was regarded as one of the top 70 offensive guard prospects in the country by both Scout and ESPN. Price only visited Nebraska, but also had offers from Baylor, Rice and UTEP.

PERSONAL

Price was born on Oct. 3, 1994, and was one of the youngest signees ever for Nebraska. Givens is the son of Edithmary Price. He has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll four times. 2015 OUTLOOK

Senior Ryne Reeves has battled injuries throughout his Nebraska career, limiting his playing time for the Huskers. Reeves' latest setback was a knee injury suffered against Iowa last season, keeping him out of the bowl game. Reeves saw limited work during spring ball, but should be at full strength for fall camp, when he will try to earn the starting center job. Reeves also has experience playing guard for the Huskers.

Reeves saw regular action last season as the No. 2 center, helping Nebraska rank among the top 20 nationally in scoring and rushing offense. Reeves was limited by injuries each of the past two spring practices, including a broken ankle in 2013.

Off the field, Reeves is a three-time academic All-Big Ten selection. He is on track to earn his degree in economics/management in December.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Reeves played in 11 games, including a start in the regular-season finale at Iowa, after starter Mark Pelini was injured. The line paved the way for Nebraska to set a Big Ten modern-era record with 784 yards of total offense in the opener against Florida Atlantic, and helped senior I-back Ameer Abdullah to a record-setting season. Abdullah rushed for more than 200 yards four times in 2014. The offensive line also ranked among the Big Ten's best units in protecting the quarterback.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Reeves played in 10 games as one of the Huskers' top reserve guards. He helped the Nebraska offense excel against strong Michigan State and Penn State defenses, as I-back Ameer Abdullah topped 100 yards in both of those games. Reeves was also a regular on PAT and field-goal units as a blocker.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Reeves was a reserve guard and appeared in Nebraska's wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State, Idaho State and Minnesota.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Reeves redshirted in his first season and was a standout on the scout team line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CRETE HS)

Reeves was a key figure in a Class B state title for Crete High School in 2010. Reeves helped Coach Chuck McGinnis' team rack up more than 3,900 rushing yards en route to a perfect 13-0 record. In addition to his dominant blocking, Reeves was also a force on defense, recording 73 tackles and two tackles for loss. He also forced a fumble in the Class B state title game, a 34-0 victory over Elkhorn. Reeves was a Super State selection by the Lincoln Journal Star and an All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald. He was named the honorary captain of the Class B all-state offensive unit by the Lincoln Journal Star.

Reeves was a first-team All-Nebraska pick by the World-Herald as a junior in 2009. He lined up at guard for the Cardinals, but was named to the Rivals.com All-America team as a center. He was regarded as one of the top five center prospects in the country by both Rivals and Scout. Despite an early pledge to NU, Reeves received an offer from Stanford and interest from several schools, including Miami, USC and UCLA.

PERSONAL

The son of John and Mary Ellen Reeves, Ryne was born on July 14, 1992. He is an economics/management major and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll five times. Reilly missed the first half of last season but quickly worked his way back into the playing rotation after his return. The 6-1, 195-pound Reilly was impressive in Nebraska's new offensive system during the spring and will vie for a starting position in 2015.

One of the fastest players on the roster, Reilly has shown big-play ability, and he could also factor in the return game. A former walk-on, Reilly earned a scholarship before his sophomore season. Reilly is a two-time academic All-Big Ten honoree.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Reilly missed the first six games with an injury, but returned to play in the final seven games, including a start at Wisconsin. Reilly had six catches for 85 yards on the season, including four catches for 36 yards in the Holiday Bowl. He also had a 14-yard catch at Wisconsin and a career-long 35-yard catch at Iowa. His reception at Iowa put NU deep in Hawkeye territory in the closing seconds and set up a game-tying field goal.

On special teams, Reilly blocked a punt against Purdue and helped alter another punt against the Boilermakers. He added one assisted tackle.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Reilly played in 10 games as a reserve at receiver. He caught three passes for 24 yards, including two catches for 19 yards at Penn State. He also had a five-yard reception against South Dakota State. Reilly also saw action on special teams.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Reilly redshirted in his first season in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LINCOLN SOUTHWEST HS)

A standout on both sides of the ball for Lincoln Southwest, Reilly earned honorable-mention all-state accolades as a senior from the Omaha World-Herald. Reilly caught 18 passes for 339 yards and was also a threat on special teams, amassing over 650 kickoff and punt return yards, including three returns for touchdowns. Reilly showed big-play ability as a senior, with eight of his nine touchdowns covering 50 yards or more.

On defense, Reilly totaled 59 tackles and three interceptions to earn a spot on the first-team Lincoln Journal Star Super State team as a defensive back. Reilly capped his prep career by catching six passes for 117 yards and one touchdown en route to earning offensive MVP honors at the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl. Also a member of the Southwest basketball team, Reilly chose to walk on at Nebraska after receiving interest from Nebraska-Kearney, Southeast Missouri State and South Dakota.

2015 OUTLOOK

Anthony Ridder enters his senior season hoping to earn playing time in a talented Husker secondary. The 6-2, 205-pound Ridder adds depth at safety and could battle for action on special teams.

A walk-on from West Point, Neb., Ridder began his career at quarterback before switching to defense in 2012. Ridder's father, Dave, played defensive end for Nebraska, lettering three times from 1981 to 1983. The younger Ridder is majoring in psychology and will graduate in December.

CAREER

Ridder has added depth at defensive back the past three seasons, but has not appeared in a game. Ridder redshirted and worked on the scout team at quarterback in 2011.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WEST POINT CENTRAL CATHOLIC HS)

Ridder starred on both sides of the ball for his father, Dave, at West Point Central Catholic, helping his team to the Class D-1 state title in the school's first year of eight-man competition. As a quarterback, Ridder passed for more than 1,700 yards and 38 touchdowns with just two interceptions. He also rushed for more than 800 yards and 20 touchdowns. Defensively, he led Central Catholic with 106 total tackles.

Ridder was the offensive honorary captain of the Class D-1 all-state team by both the Omaha World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal Star. Anthony had scholarship offers from Augustana and Wayne State.

PERSONAL

The son of Dave and Terri Ridder, Anthony was born on Nov. 7, 1992. He has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll five times. Ridder has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline, Community Action and Husker Heroes.

2015 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Austin Rose enters fall camp hoping to compete for playing time in 2015. The 6-1, 215-pound Rose is part of a deep and talented group of Husker running backs who will battle for action. Rose could also contribute to the Nebraska special teams. Rose joined the program as a walk-on from Lincoln North Star High School.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

Rose redshirted and worked on the scout team offense in 2014.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LINCOLN NORTH STAR HS)

Rose was limited by injury during his senior season, but still earned honorable-mention all-state recognition from the AP, Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star. Rose put up big numbers for Coach Mark Waller in 2012, rushing for 1,403 yards and 22 touchdowns, while averaging better than 6.5 yards per carry. Rose helped the Navigators to a 7-3 record and a trip to the Class A state playoffs.

Rose was also a defensive standout in helping North Star to one of its finest seasons in school history. Rose earned second-team Super State honors and first-team Class A all-state honors for his play in 2012. He also was named to the All-Heartland Conference team and to the Journal Star's All-City team.

PERSONAL

The son of Deb Rose, Austin was born on Oct. 6, 1995. He has not declared a major. He was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the 2015 spring semester. LEEDS, ALA. · LEEDS HS/AUBURN2015 OUTLOOK

Cornerback Jonathan Rose saw significant action in the secondary in 2014, and continued to be a key member of the Husker special teams. Rose should compete for a starting cornerback spot in 2015, one of Nebraska's deepest and most talented positions. The 6-1, 195-pound Rose has great length for the corner position, allowing him to match up with large opposing receivers.

Rose was excellent on the Huskers' coverage units in 2014, helping Nebraska rank among the Big Ten's best on punt and kickoff coverage. He began his career at Auburn before transferring to Nebraska. Rose is majoring in ethnic studies and is on track to earn his degree in December.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Rose played in all 13 games and finished with 18 tackles, including 13 solo stops and a pass breakup. Rose had a season-high three tackles four times (Florida Atlantic, Fresno State, Miami and Wisconsin). He had his first career break-up at Fresno State. Rose was one of NU's top tacklers on special teams, notching eight stops on coverage units.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Rose played in 10 games as a reserve cornerback and on special teams, including action in each of the final six games. Rose had a fumble recovery against South Dakota State.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Rose sat out the 2012 season as a transfer after beginning his career at Auburn in 2011.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LEEDS HS/AUBURN)

Rose played in nine games as a true freshman at Auburn in 2011. He had a pair of solo tackles in a win over Ole Miss. Before Auburn, Rose was one of the nation's top prep cornerbacks at Leeds High School, and finished fourth in the voting for Alabama Mr. Football as a senior. He led Leeds to the Class 3A state title in 2010, returning an interception 84 yards for a touchdown and scoring on a 38-yard pass reception in the title game. He had 73 tackles and five interceptions as a senior after recording 62 tackles with three interceptions and 29 breakups as a junior. Rose also had six catches for 237 yards (39.5 ypc) and four touchdowns as a junior, averaging 24.7 yards on punt returns and 38.3 yards on kickoff returns.

He was named the nation's No. 3 cornerback, the No. 2 player from the state of Alabama and the No. 66 player nationally by Rivals.com as a senior. In addition to being selected as a SuperPrep All-American, he was chosen to play for the East squad at the U.S. Army All-American Bowl following his senior season.

PERSONAL

The son of Charles and Felicia Rose, Jonathan was born on July 19, 1993. He has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline and team hospital visits.

2015 OUTLOOK

Linebacker Michael Rose-Ivey is set to return to the Blackshirt defense in 2015 after missing the entire 2014 season with a knee injury suffered during fall camp. Rose-Ivey made a quick recovery from his knee injury and was able to participate in all of spring drills.

Rose-Ivey was a standout for the Husker defense as a redshirt freshman in 2013, starting at middle linebacker in the second half of the season and setting a Nebraska freshman record for tackles. The 5-11, 240-pound Rose-Ivey has played multiple linebacker spots, but worked this spring on the outside, where he will and compete for a starting job in 2015.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Rose-Ivey played in 12 games with seven starts, beginning the year as a reserve on the outside before moving to middle linebacker. Rose-Ivey's 66 tackles shattered the previous NU freshman tackle record of 49 by Barrett Ruud in 2001. Rose had at least seven tackles in six games, including each of the final five games. He added six tackles for loss. Rose-Ivey had 49 of his tackles in the final six games and was named to the BTN all-freshman team.

Rose-Ivey had his only two tackles in non-conference play against UCLA, including a two-yard tackle for loss. He made his first career start against Illinois and led the team with 11 tackles, including a tackle for loss.

Rose-Ivey had eight tackles, including four solo stops, at Michigan. He had seven tackles, including five solo stops against Michigan State, then added eight tackles, including six solo stops, in a win at Penn State. Rose-Ivey had 17 tackles, including four tackles for loss, in the regular-season finale against Iowa. His tackle total was the most by a Husker in 2013, and the most by a Husker defender since Lavonte David had 17 at

2012 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ROCKHURST HS)

Rose-Ivey was a playmaker for Coach Tony Severino at Rockhurst (Mo.) High School, helping his team to a 10-2 record and a trip to the Class 6 quarterfinals in 2011. Rose-Ivey made 104 tackles as a senior, including three sacks, while adding two interceptions, four pass breakups, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. He was a first-team Class 6 all-state pick by the Missouri Coaches Association and an All-Metro selection by the Kansas City Star.

Injuries limited Rose-Ivey to just six games as a junior, but he averaged nearly three tackles for loss per game. Rose-Ivey had a team-high 95 tackles, two sacks, an interception and a pair of fumble recoveries as a sophomore. He played in the Under Armour All-America Bowl in Florida and was one of the defensive standouts in the game. Rose-Ivey only visited Nebraska, but had dozens of offers, including Iowa, Ohio State, Missouri, USC, Kansas and Indiana to name a few.

Rose-Ivey was ranked among the top five players in the state of Missouri by both Rivals and 247 Sports, while 247 Sports and ESPNU listed him among the top 150 overall prospects in the country.

PERSONAL

The son of Michael Rose Sr. and Melishe Ivey, Michael Jr. was born on Aug. 30, 1993. He is majoring in sociology and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. He was an academic All-Big Ten honoree in 2013. Rose-Ivey was also a member of the 2013 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and received a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award. Brad Simpson was a regular on Nebraska's special teams in 2014, helping the Huskers field strong punt and kickoff coverage units. The Omaha native will once again compete to be one of the Huskers' primary special teams performers this season. The 6-0, 225-pound Simpson also looks to compete for playing time at linebacker in 2015, after providing depth as a sophomore. Simpson originally joined the program as a walk-on from Ralston High School.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Simpson played in 10 games, primarily on special teams. He made five tackles, all on special teams, including a career-high three stops in the Holiday Bowl against USC, and one each against Fresno State and Purdue.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Simpson saw action in four games on special teams in 2013, but did not have a tackle.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (RALSTON HS)

Simpson shined on both sides of the football for Ralston High School, leading the Rams to the second round of the Nebraska Class B state playoffs and an 8-3 overall record in 2011. Simpson tallied 98 tackles, including 65 solo stops, three interceptions and two fumble recoveries for Coach Tyler Zahn, a former Husker linebacker. Simpson was named to the Class B all-state team by the Lincoln Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald as a senior. Simpson also led the Ralston offense at quarterback, finishing with 802 yards rushing and 15 touchdowns, while throwing for 881 yards and seven scores. On special teams, Simpson averaged more than 34 yards a punt and had a long of 57 yards. At the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl, Simpson was named the game's defensive MVP after recording a sack and intercepting a pass that he returned 21 yards for a touchdown. Simpson chose to walk on at NU over scholarship offers from both Central Missouri and Nebraska-Kearney.

PERSONAL

The son of Dan and Carrie Simpson, Brad was born on Oct. 24, 1993. He is a communication studies major. He earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2014. Simpson has volunteered his time with the Community Action partnership and team hospital visits.

2015 OUTLOOK

Tackle Zach Sterup is one of Nebraska's most veteran returnees on the offensive line for the 2015 season. The 6-8, 320-pound Sterup started 10 games at right tackle in 2014, and helped Nebraska rank in the top 20 nationally in both scoring and rushing offense.

Sterup started 10 games as a junior, but battled through knee injuries on both ends of the season. The second of those knee injuries caused him to miss the final two games, as well as all of spring practice. A healthy Sterup in the fall would give Nebraska four senior tackles with game experience, joining Alex Lewis, Givens Price and Matt Finnin.

A two-time Academic All-Big Ten choice, Sterup is on track to earn his degree in economics/finance in December.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Sterup started 10 games at right tackle, missing the season opener against Florida Atlantic after minor knee surgery and sat out the final two games following another knee procedure.

Sterup was a key part of an offensive line that helped senior running back Ameer Abdullah to a record-setting season, in which Abdullah became Nebraska's career leader in all-purpose yardage. Abdullah had four 200-yard rushing games in 2014. Sterup and his offensive line teammates were also one of the Big Ten's best units at protecting the quarterback.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

Sterup played in 11 games, seeing action both at offensive tackle and on the field goal and PAT units. He saw extensive action at tackle in the final five games when injuries ravaged the offensive line.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Sterup was a reserve at tackle and appeared in Nebraska's wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State, Idaho State and Minnesota.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HASTINGS ST. CECILIA HS)

Sterup was a standout for Coach Carl Tesmer at Hastings St. Cecilia High School, helping the Bluehawks to back-to-back state championships in 2009 and 2010. As a senior, Sterup led an offensive line that paved the way for more than 3,500 rushing yards en route to a 13-0 season. Sterup also saw time on defense and racked up 58 tackles and four sacks.

Sterup was a first-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald and a Super-State selection according to the Lincoln Journal Star. He was the honorary captain of the C-2 all-state team by both newspapers. Sterup earned first-team defensive all-state honors in Class C-1 as a junior, helping St. Cecilia to a perfect campaign before it moved classes in 2010.

Sterup was regarded as one of the top 30 offensive tackle prospects in the country by Rivals.com, which also listed him as the top player in Nebraska. Sterup was among the tallest Husker recruits ever, with 6-8 offensive tackle Tom Punt (1988-90) the tallest known football letterwinner in school history before Sterup's arrival.

Sterup was among the team leaders in scoring and rebounding in basketball and helped the Bluehawks to a 19-6 record. St. Cecilia captured three straight Class C-1 basketball titles from 2008 to 2010. Sterup only visited Nebraska but had numerous other offers, including Iowa, Wisconsin, Notre Dame, Minnesota, Stanford and UCLA.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

Taylor redshirted in his first season and earned Offensive Scout Team MVP honors.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KATY HS)

Taylor posted prolific rushing numbers during his prep career at Katy High School in the Houston area, and helped the school to a Class 5A state title in 2012. Taylor ran for 2,754 yards and 45 touchdowns as a senior, leading Coach Gary Joseph's team to a 16-0 record and a Class 5A Division 2 state title. Katy was regarded as one of the nation's top 20 teams following its championship season. Taylor was at his best in the state title run, first rushing 40 times for 226 yards in the state semifinals against Cibolo Steele. In the state title victory over Cedar Hill at AT&T Stadium, Taylor ran 30 times for 276 yards and five touchdowns.

Taylor was named the Houston Chronicle's Greater Houston Offensive Player of the Year, and was the OldCoach.com Class 5A State MVP. Taylor was also an honorable-mention Class 5A Texas all-state selection.

Taylor missed nearly all of his junior year because of injury, rushing just 20 times for 106 yards. As a sophomore, Taylor helped the team to a 13-1 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals. He was the District 19-5A Newcomer of the Year after rushing for 1,553 yards and 18 touchdowns. » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall, 2012)

2015 OUTLOOK

Paul Thurston saw limited action at center throughout the 2014 season, but was forced into action in the final two games when injuries sidelined the Huskers' top two centers. The 6-5, 295-pound Thurston will compete for more significant playing time in 2015. Thurston handled most of the duty at center with the top offense during spring ball. He and senior Ryne Reeves are expected to be the top competitors for the starting center spot when fall camp commences in August.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Thurston played in 10 games, mostly in a reserve role, but played extensively at Iowa with the top two centers injured. Thurston's play helped NU rally from a 24-7 deficit to win, matching the largest road comeback in school history. He also saw snaps at center in the Holiday Bowl. In addition to his work at center, Thurston served as a shield blocker on NU's punt unit, helping the Huskers rank among the Big Ten's best in net punting.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Thurston added depth on the line in 2013, but did not play in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Thurston redshirted in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ARVADA WEST HS)

Thurston was a dominant blocker for Arvada West High School each of his final three seasons. As a senior, Thurston was a Class 5A (largest class) first-team all-state selection by the Denver Post. As a junior for Coach Casey Coons, Thurston helped Arvada West to a 6-5 record and a trip to the second round of the Class 5A playoffs. Thurston was a first-team all-conference selection as a junior, when he also played defensive line. As a sophomore, Thurston helped Arvada West to an 11-2 record and a berth in the Class 5A state semifinals.

Thurston was regarded as one of the top five players in Colorado by both Rivals.com and 247 Sports, and also listed among the top 150 overall prospects in the country by both Rivals and Scout.com. Thurston only visited Nebraska, but had numerous offers including Michigan, Notre Dame, Oregon, Stanford, Colorado, Northwestern, Kansas State and UCLA to name a few.

PERSONAL

The son of Greg and Janet Thurston, Paul was born on June 25, 1993. He is a broadcasting major, earning a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. Thurston has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes, Husker Hotline and team hospital and community rec center visits.

2015 OUTLOOK

Walk-on Dylan Utter worked his way into playing time on the offensive line in 2014, capped by a start in the Holiday Bowl. Utter provided depth at guard throughout the season, but moved inside to start at center against USC when NU's top two centers were sidelined by injury. The 6-1, 285-pound Utter will be a contender for significant playing time on the line in 2015. He worked primarily at guard during spring practice, spending the majority of his time with the top unit.

2014 (SOPHOMORE)

Utter played in six games, with a start at center in the Holiday Bowl. He spent the majority of the year adding depth at guard and played in five of the first seven games. Utter's performance against USC helped Nebraska roll up 525 yards of total offense and 42 points. Utter also saw significant action against Illinois, when NU topped 400 rushing yards.

2013 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Utter added depth on the line in 2013, but did not play in a game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on, Utter redshirted in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PAPILLION-LA VISTA HS)

Utter helped Papillion-La Vista High School reach the semifinals of the Class A state playoffs as a senior in 2011. Utter played on both lines, totaling 40 tackles and two sacks to earn a spot on the Lincoln Journal Star Super State second team as a senior. On offense, Utter helped the Monarchs average more than 38 points and 258 passing yards per game.

As a junior, Utter recorded 47 tackles, 12 tackles for loss and three sacks. Also a member of the Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska second team, Utter was selected to participate in the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl. Utter earned a second-place finish in shot put at the 2012 Nebraska state track and field championships. Utter walked on after receiving scholarship offers from North Dakota and Army.

PERSONAL

Utter was born on Feb. 19, 1994, and is the son of Dinah Fiest. He is a social science education major, and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll twice. 2015 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Chris Weber made his impact on the Husker special teams in his first season of action at Nebraska in 2014. Weber played in every game, working primarily on kickoff coverage, helping Nebraska field one of the Big Ten's best units in that department. The walk-on also provided depth at linebacker and will look to push for more significant snaps on defense this season.

Weber was one of 21 Huskers to earn Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2014, and carries better than a 3.95 cumulative grade-point average.

2014 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Weber saw action in every game and made six tackles. He made four of his tackles on special teams, while adding two tackles on defense at Fresno State.

2013 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELKHORN HS)

Weber was a defensive standout and contributed on offense for Coach Mark Wortman's Elkhorn team, helping the Antlers to the Class B quarterfinals in 2012. Weber had 121 tackles, including 66 solo stops, and four quarterback sacks as a senior. On offense, he caught 18 passes for 338 yards and two touchdowns. Weber was a second-team All-Nebraska selection by the Omaha-World Herald and earned first-team Class B all-state honors from both the World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal Star.

Weber was also a member of Elkhorn's 2011 Class B state title team. A recipient of a UNL Regents Scholarship, Weber had recruiting interest from North Dakota State and South Dakota State before choosing to walk on.

PERSONAL

The 5-8, 190-pound Wilbon made a strong first impression in the Husker program in 2014, drawing outstanding reviews for his work ethic and performance on the practice field. Wilbon was named Nebraska's Scout Team MVP for his play last fall.

2014 (REDSHIRT)

Wilbon redshirted in his first season with the Huskers and impressed in his work on the scout team offense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (DE LA SALLE INSTITUTE)

Wilbon was one of two signees from Illinois in the 2014 recruiting class. He posted impressive numbers each of his final two years despite battling injuries in both 2012 and 2013. As a senior, Wilbon helped Coach Dan O'Keefe's team to a trip to the Class 6A state playoffs. Wilbon rushed for better than 1,200 yards in six games before being sidelined by injury. He was limited to four games as a junior, but managed 863 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns in his time on the field. Wilbon rushed for better than 1,600 yards as a sophomore.

Rivals.com listed Wilbon among the top 175 overall prospects in the country and the No. 9 prospect in the state of Illinois. Both Rivals.com and 247 Sports also listed Wilbon among the top 20 running backs in the country. Wilbon chose Nebraska over a list of scholarship offers, including Arizona, Arizona State, Arkansas, Cincinnati, Georgia Tech, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maryland, Mississippi State, Missouri, Penn State, Purdue, Syracuse and Vanderbilt.

The 5-11, 185-pound Williams had a strong spring practice session, and will enter fall practice with an opportunity to compete for playing time at safety.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CARVER HS)

As a senior, Williams helped Carver High School to an 8-3 record and a trip to the Class AAAAA state playoffs. Williams was a dominant player in the secondary for Coach Darren Myles, racking up 148 tackles, including 101 solo stops. Williams also had 10 tackles for loss, six breakups and an interception. Williams was also an explosive threat on offense, catching 13 passes for 283 yards, an average of 21.8 yards per catch, and he ran for 116 yards on 15 carries. Williams was a first-team Class AAAAA all-state selection for his play in 2014.

Williams earned first-team all-region honors each of his four years at Carver High and was also a first-team all-state pick by the Atlanta Journal Constitution in 2013. In his junior season, he helped Carver reach the Class AAAAA playoffs by racking up 109 solo stops. He added six interceptions and four pass breakups.

Williams was regarded as one of the top 75 prospects in Georgia and was ranked among the top 30 safeties in the country by 247 Sports. Williams was selected to play in the Rising Senior Bowl in January of 2014, featuring the top 101 college prospects in the state.

Williams committed to Nebraska in May of 2014 after considering offers from Kansas State, Mississippi State, Cincinnati and Purdue, among others.

2015 OUTLOOK

Defensive tackle Kevin Williams has battled a series of injuries throughout his Nebraska career, but showed his capabilities when healthy in 2014. The 6-2, 275-pound Williams provided Nebraska with an excellent option as a third defensive tackle behind Maliek Collins and Vincent Valentine, making the interior front a strength of the NU defense. Williams helps make defensive tackle one of the strengths of the 2015 Blackshirt defense.

Williams played the best football of his career in the second half of 2014 and earned two starts when Valentine was slowed by injury. Williams is poised for more significant action this fall and will be a veteran leader for the Blackshirts. Williams missed the 2011 and 2013 seasons because of knee injuries. Williams earned his degree in management in August of 2014 and played his junior season as a graduate student, and continues to progress toward a master's degree in management.

2014 (JUNIOR)

Williams played in 10 games with starts against Rutgers and Purdue. He had 19 tackles, including five solo stops. Williams was a disruptive force, racking up eight tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks while adding two quarterback hurries.

Williams recorded 2.5 sacks at Northwestern, as the NU defense dominated the second half. He had three tackles for loss against the Wildcats and added two tackles behind the line at Fresno State. Williams closed the year with a career-high six tackles and a tackle for loss at Iowa, and shared a sack in the Holiday Bowl against USC.

2013 (SOPHOMORE)

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Williams played in five games as a reserve at defensive tackle. He made four tackles, including two tackles and a tackle for loss against Idaho State. Williams saw his most extensive action in non-conference play.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Williams suffered a knee injury in 2011, and sat out the season as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SPRINGFIELD HS)

Williams was a standout at Springfield High School in Holland, Ohio. He had more than 260 total tackles and 25 sacks in his final two seasons. As a senior, Williams had 111 tackles, including 36 solo stops and 10 sacks. His play earned Williams Division II Co-Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors in Ohio, and first-team All-Ohio accolades.

Williams earned honorable-mention Division II all-state recognition as a junior when he made more than 150 tackles, including 15 sacks, and 15 other tackles for loss. Williams was regarded as one of the top 20 defensive tackles in the nation by ESPN, and among the top 20 players in Ohio by Rivals.com. Williams only visited Nebraska, but had offers from Michigan, Michigan State, Wisconsin, Oregon, Illinois and Stanford to name a few.

PERSONAL

Williams is the son of Lisa and Mark Deel, and was born on May 8, 1993. Williams has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll four times. He has volunteered his time with Uplifting Athletes and at local school and hospital visits.

2015 OUTLOOK

Dedrick Young is one of four defensive players who joined the Nebraska program in January. The 6-1, 220-pound Young came to Nebraska from Centennial High School in Peoria, Ariz., where he excelled as both a linebacker and running back.

Young could be poised for playing time as a true freshman in 2015, as the opportunity for action at linebacker is wide open heading into fall camp. Young worked at outside linebacker in the spring and could line up at either outside linebacker position, while also competing for time on special teams.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CENTENNIAL HS)

Young's play led Coach Richard Taylor's team deep into the Arizona Division II playoffs the past three seasons. In 2014, the Coyotes posted a 12-2 record and won the state championship, winning their four playoff games by an average of nearly 30 points per game. Young keyed the state title season. He rushed for 1,557 yards and 19 touchdowns with nine 100-yard rushing games. In the final three playoff games, Young rushed for a total of 379 yards and five touchdowns. He also totaled 98 tackles, including 55 solo stops, seven tackles for loss and a sack. He added nine hurries, an interception and two breakups.

Young's versatility was evident in his postseason honors. He was an All-Arizona offensive pick by the Arizona Republic and the publication's Division II Player of the Year, while the state's coaches association named him the Division II Defensive Player of the Year.

As a junior, Young rushed for 1,696 yards and 17 touchdowns, while adding 89 tackles, nine tackles for loss, five sacks and three fumbles caused. His play led Centennial to a 10-2 record and a trip to the state playoffs. Young was an All-Arizona selection as a running back.

As a sophomore, Young rushed for 450 yards and 15 touchdowns, while adding 23 tackles and three tackles for loss, helping the Coyotes to a 12-2 record and a state runner-up finish.

Young was a consensus top 10 player in Arizona and Scout ranked him as the nation's No. 34 linebacker. Young chose Nebraska after also visiting Washington, and he had offers from nearly every Pac-12 school, including Oregon State, UCLA, Arizona and Arizona State.

Oklahoma product Jalin Barnett is one of the nation's top incoming offensive guard prospects after a standout career at Lawton High School. Barnett is Nebraska's first signee from the state of Oklahoma since Phillip Dillard and Craig Roark in 2005. Barnett played at the same high school that produced former Husker greats Mike Minter and Will Shields.

The 6-4, 310-pound Barnett was a driving force behind one of the state's most potent offenses. Coach Randy Breeze's team averaged better than 460 total yards per game in 2014, and produced a 2,000-yard rusher and a quarterback who threw for more than 2,400 yards. Lawton High finished with an 11-2 record and advanced to the finals of the Class 6A-II state playoffs. In addition to his dominant play on offense, Barnett also saw action on defense, recording 10 tackles and a fumble recovery.

For his play in 2014, Barnett was a first-team All-Oklahoma selection and was the No. 3 prospect on the Daily Oklahoman's Super 30.

Lawton High had similar offensive productivity behind Barnett's blocking in 2013. The team averaged 313 rushing yards per game and had a 2,500-yard runner. Lawton recorded an 11-1 record in 2013, advancing to the second round of the state playoffs. Barnett also earned all-state honors from The Oklahoman as a junior.

Barnett also used his athletic talent as a track and field athlete at Lawton High. As a junior, Barnett finished sixth in shot put and fifth in discus at the 6A Regionals.

Barnett, who wears a size 18 shoe, was awarded Lawton's overall Player of the Year honor in 2014 and was an Under Armour All-American. Barnett also excelled in the classroom where he carried a 3.8 grade-point average.

Barnett was ranked as the No. 4 offensive guard in the country by ESPN and was also among the top 15 offensive guards by 247Sports and Scout. He was also a consensus choice as one of the top five players in Oklahoma by several recruiting services.

Barnett also visited Arkansas and Oklahoma and considered Oklahoma State before choosing the Huskers. Barnett was born on Aug. 19, 1996, and he is the son of Tanisha Barnett.

Offensive lineman Michael Decker joins the Nebraska program after a highly successful prep career at Omaha North High School. Decker's play helped the North Vikings to three consecutive Class A state championship game appearances, including state titles in 2013 and 2014.

Decker was a powerful blocker for Coach Larry Martin's offense, paving the way for record-setting running back Calvin Strong. In helping North to a 13-0 record in 2014, Decker had 22 pancake blocks as the Vikings averaged nearly 310 rushing yards per game and Strong ran for 2,358 yards. Decker also saw limited action on the defensive line as a senior.

Decker was a first-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald and a Super State pick by the Lincoln Journal Star.

Decker also paved the way for a powerful running attack in 2013, as North finished 12-1 and captured the state title. Decker had 20 pancake blocks, as the Vikings ran for better than 311 rushing yards per game, and Strong established a state record with more than 3,000 rushing yards. Decker also contributed on defense in 2013, recording 26 tackles, including five tackles for loss, a sack and also caused a fumble and recovered another. Decker also earned All-Nebraska and Super State honors as a junior.

Decker earned honorable-mention all-state honors as a sophomore in 2012. His play helped North to a 10-3 record and a trip to the Class A finals. Decker was strong in the classroom as well, carrying better than a 3.8 grade-point average.

Decker committed to Nebraska in April of 2014, and his only other visit was to Kansas State. He was ranked as the top player in Nebraska by Scout, while he ranked No. 2 in Nebraska by Rivals.com and 247Sports. Decker was ranked among the top 50 offensive guards in the country by several outlets, while Scout listed him as the nation's No. 7 center prospect. A multi-talented athlete, Decker also competed in track and field and wrestling at Omaha North.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME PLAYERS AND COACHES

The University of Nebraska is well represented at the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind. In 2015, Trev Alberts will become the 17th former NU player selected to join six former Husker coaches inducted into the Hall (pictured at bottom). Alberts will be officially inducted into the Hall of Fame in December. Before Alberts, the previous Husker to be honored among the elite field was quarterback Tommie Frazier, who was a member of the 2013 College Football Hall of Fame Class. Former All-America tackle Ed Weir claimed the honor as the first Husker player enshrined, while coaches Fielding Yost and Dana X. Bible were also inducted the same year (1951). Coach Tom Osborne, inducted in 1998, is the most recent Husker coach enshrined in the hall.

TOM OSBORNE

HEAD COACH, 1973-97
RECORD: 255-49-3 (.836, 6TH ALL-TIME)

The field inside Memorial stadium is now called Tom Osborne Field in honor of a man, who in 25 seasons, built a total program based on more than winning.

Osborne's coaching career came to a poetic end in the 1998 Orange Bowl. In his final game, the Huskers defeated No. 3 Tennessee, 42-17, giving him a share of a third national title in his final four seasons. The victory left Osborne as the first coach in college football history to retire as a reigning national champion, along with the nation's best active winning percentage (.836, 255-49-3), which ranked fifth all-time among Division I coaches.

Osborne guided the Huskers to back-to-back titles in 1994 and 1995, then capped his career by sharing the 1997 title with Michigan. Nebraska's back-to-back national titles in 1994-95 made Osborne the first coach to accomplish that feat since Bear Bryant in 1978-79. Under Osborne, NU became just the second school all time to post back-to-back perfect national championship seasons. In fact, Osborne's last five Nebraska teams put together the best five-year run in collegiate football history with an amazing 60-3 record.

Osborne-coached Nebraska teams captured 13 conference crowns and all 25 of his Husker teams won at least nine games and went to a bowl. Achievements of that magnitude earned Osborne an immediate ticket to the College Football Hall of Fame in December of 1998, after it waived the customary three-year wait for entrance into the hall. The Memorial Stadium field was re-named Tom Osborne field in 1998.

A Hastings, Neb., native, Osborne served Nebraska for three terms in the U.S. House of Representatives. Osborne served as Nebraska's Athletic Director from 2007 through 2012.

BOB DEVANEY

HEAD COACH, 1962-72
RECORD: 101-20-2 (.829, 13TH ALL-TIME)

One man tops the list of people responsible for the success of the University of Nebraska athletic teams – Bob Devaney. For 35 years he was the driving force behind the University of Nebraska championships, first as a Hall of Fame football coach (1962-72), then as Athletic Director (1967-93) and Athletic Director Emeritus (1993-96). Devaney retired in 1996 and lived in Lincoln until he passed away at the age of 82 on May 9, 1997.

Devaney's mark will remain forever. The memories of the storybook national championship seasons of 1970 and 1971 will continue to inspire generations of Husker fans for years to come. His commitment to building one of the nation's best athletic programs is reinforced with every athletic and academic honor earned by Husker student-athletes.

From the time he took over athletic director duties in 1967, to his final year in 1993, his vigor, enthusiasm and administrative excellence earned him a reputation as one of the nation's outstanding athletic directors. Those characteristics helped make him a football coaching legend. A 1981 inductee into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame, under Devaney's leadership Nebraska developed one of the nation's most successful all-around athletic programs.

During his 11-year stint as Husker football coach, Devaney's teams won 101 games, lost only 20 and tied two for an .829 winning percentage. His career mark of 136-30-7 (.806) ranked him as the nation's winningest active coach at the time of his retirement in 1973. Today, he ranks 11th on the all-time list, six spots behind the man he tabbed as his replacement, Tom Osborne.

In all, his Husker gridiron teams won eight Big Eight titles and two national championships (1970, 1971) and went to nine bowl games. He had three straight Orange Bowl wins, two Outland Trophy winners, a Lombardi Award winner and a Heisman Trophy winner. Twice his teams won four consecutive Big Eight titles, 1963-66 and 1969-72.

NATION-LEADING 17 NCAA TODAY'S TOP TEN AWARDS

The highest honor the National Collegiate Athletic Association can bestow on a student-athlete is The NCAA Today's Top 10 Award. The award is based not only on outstanding athletic accomplishments, but on excellent academic records and leadership ability in community and campus activities.

The University of Nebraska earned its NCAA-leading 17th Top 10 Award in January of 2014 when women's tennis standout Mary Weatherholt was recognized at the NCAA honors dinner. Weatherholt was the NCAA singles runner-up in 2013. She was Nebraska's first Top 10 honoree since 2008.

The Husker football program has nine of Nebraska's 17 Top 10 Award winners, most recently All-America rush end Grant Wistrom who was a 1998 honoree. Wistrom's selection gave Nebraska nine Top 10 honorees in the 1990s. Two Huskers received the award in both 1990 and 1991, the only times that a school had more than one student-athlete honored. Nine of Nebraska's Top 10 picks were football players, making the Husker grid program the most decorated in the country.

In the 1990s, six Husker football players were awarded the Top 10 honor, including Aaron Graham (1996), Rob Zatechka (1995), Trev Alberts (1994), Pat Tyrance (1991) and Jake Young (1990). Randy Schleusener (1981) was the first Husker to win the award, followed by Dave Rimington (1983) and Mark Traynowicz (1985).

Nebraska's success in the classroom also extends to other sports. Along with nine football players who have won the Top 10 Award, four Husker volleyball players (Sarah Pavan-2008, Virginia Stahr-1990, Janet Kruse-1992, Nancy Metcalf-2002), two men's gymnasts (Tom Schlesinger-1989, Patrick Kirksey-1991), one women's gymnast (Richelle Simpson-2005) and one women's tennis player (Weatherholt-2014) have also claimed the honor.

VARSITY LETTERMAN LIST

NOTE: The following list is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Corrections and additions will be made if documentation is provided. In each entry, the year is listed for each letter won. For example in the listing for Willard Burnham, the years are 1924-26, meaning Burnham lettered in 1924 and 1926 but not in 1925. Lettermen lists are not available for the 1890, 1891 and 1895 seasons. Players are listed by hometown and the last position they played at Nebraska.

125 YEARS OF NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

Notes on the Associated Press Poll: The rankings indicated in all instances below are at game time, with Nebraska's to the left of the slash and the opponent's to the right. If a slash is alone, neither team was ranked at game time. Early-season games from 1936 to 1949 have no slash because the first polls in those seasons were not taken until after the season began. From 1936 to 1960 and 1968 to 1988, AP ranked the top 20 teams, from 1961 to 1967 the top 10, and since 1989, the top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, is Football Rankings, College teams in the Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, compiled by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C.; McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

COACH DR. LANGDON FROTHINGHAM

(Harvard) 2-0-0 (1,000), 1890
A faculty member, Langdon Frothingham helped the first squad become one of only two in the history of NU football to go unscored upon, outscoring opponents, 28-0, in two games. Dr. Frothingham broke his leg while scrimmaging with the team in preparation for the Doane game and may have coached on the sideline with crutches.

COACH FIELDING H. YOST

(Lafayette, 1897) 8-3 (.727), 1898
Fielding Yost led the Huskers to an impressive 11-10 road victory over the Denver Athletic Club, a team described as "a gang of pros." He left NU to become head coach at Kansas the following season and later won a national championship as head football coach in 1901 at Michigan. He later became Michigan's athletic director in 1921 and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

COACH W.C. "KING" COLE

 W.C. "King" Cole took over the reins after playing football under Fielding Yost at Michigan. Cole coached Nebraska to an 85-0 win over Doane in the last game on the field that preceded the Nebraska Athletic Field. His final season as coach marked NU's first unshared Missouri Valley Conference title. His last game as coach was a 119-0 win over Haskell, which still ranks as the most points a Cornhusker team has ever scored.

COACH EWALD O. "JUMBO" STIEHM

 Under Ewald O. "Jumbo" Stiehm's direction, Nebraska won or tied for the Missouri Valley Conference championship every season. His winning percentage of .913 ranks as the highest in school history. His teams recorded a 34-game unbeaten streak, the longest in school history. Also Nebraska's basketball coach, he was the only coach in Big Eight history to win football and basketball titles in the same academic year. He was the first year-round coach in school history, but he went to Indiana University after NU refused to increase his salary to $4,250.

COACH ERNEST E. BEARG

(Illinois) 23-7-3 (.742), 1925-28

Ernest E. Bearg won Nebraska's first Big Six title in 1928 when his team went 7-1-1. Despite fielding powerful teams during his four years, fans criticized him for not using strategy and deception, which eventually led to his resignation. Bearg also spent one year as men's basketball coach (1926) and posted an 8-10 record.

NEBRASKA IN THE POLLS

The Associated Press poll began in 1936, and Nebraska came in at No. 15 in the first-ever regular-season poll on Oct. 24. The Huskers finished with a No. 9 final national ranking that year. From 1936 through 1949, the AP polls did not come out until October. Beginning in 1950, AP polls were issued weekly throughout the entire regular season. Until 1964, all final rankings are based on regular-season finishes and do not include bowl game results. In 1965, the AP final rankings became post-bowl rankings (with the exception of 1966). In 1974, the UPI final ranking also became post-bowl, and since then all final rankings have included bowl results.

1970 AND 1971 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
THE DEVANEY ERA

COACH BOB DEVANEY

(Alma, 1939) 101-20-2 (.829), 1962-72
 Bob Devaney won back-to-back national titles in 1970 and 1971 and eight Big Eight crowns. He retired in 1973 with a career record of 136-30-7 (.806), which left him as the winningest active coach in the nation. In 1971, he was named coach of the year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers of America, Football News and the Washington Touchdown Club. Devaney was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1981 and into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1976. His 11-year stint as head football coach is the second longest in school history behind Tom Osborne. He was Nebraska's athletic director from 1967 to 1992 and served as athletic director emeritus for four years, before retiring June 30, 1996. Devaney passed away on May 9, 1997.

COACH TOM OSBORNE

Tom Osborne was hand-picked by Bob Devaney as his successor and served as assistant head coach in 1972. Osborne is credited as the offensive genius behind Devaney's national championship teams and served as a full-time assistant from 1967 to 1972. Osborne won back-to-back national championships in 1994 and 1995, and a third national title in 1997. During his 25 seasons, Nebraska won 13 conference championships and went to 25 consecutive bowl games, including 17 "major" bowls. His teams won nine or more games every year and 11 national rushing titles. His athletes won six Outlands, three Lombardis, one Heisman, one Butkus and one Johnny Unitas Award. He was the fastest coach in college football history to win 200 games, doing it in just 21 seasons, and the fastest coach to reach 250 wins. In his last five seasons, Osborne's teams posted a 60-3 record, the most wins in a five-year span by any team in collegiate history. He served as Nebraska's Athletic Director from 2007 to 2012.

COACH FRANK SOLICH

(Nebraska, 1966) 58-19 (.753), 1998-03

Frank Solich was named Tom Osborne's successor on Dec. 10, 1997. He guided NU to a 12-1 record, Big 12 Championship and No. 2 final ranking in the coaches poll in 1999. In 2001, Solich led the Huskers to an 11-2 record and an appearance in the BCS title game in the Rose Bowl. In 2003, Solich coached Nebraska to a 9-3 regular-season record, but did not coach NU in the Alamo Bowl, as defensive coordinator Bo Pelini served as interim head coach. Solich was a member of Bob Devaney's first recruiting class in 1962. As a fullback, Solich earned All-Big Eight honors in 1965 and was the first Husker to rush for 200 yards in a game.

COACH BILL CALLAHAN

Bill Callahan came to Nebraska less than one year after leading the Oakland Raiders to Super Bowl XXXVII. The 27th head coach in Nebraska football history, Callahan became one of just five coaches in history to return to college football after leading an NFL team to the Super Bowl. During Callahan's tenure, Nebraska shattered numerous school passing records. He led Nebraska to two bowl games and a Big 12 North title during his tenure.

COACH BO PELINI
(Ohio State, 1990)

67-27 (.713), 2008-14
 The 28th Nebraska head coach, Pelini posted a 67-27 record in seven seasons as head coach, with at least nine wins each season. Pelini guided Nebraska to at least a share of a division title four times in seven seasons, including a Big Ten Legends Division crown in 2012. Pelini became Nebraska's head coach after five seasons as the most successful defensive coordinator in college football. Pelini also served nine seasons as an assistant in the NFL, winning a Super Bowl title with the San Francisco 49ers.

* Interim Chancellor

A former dean of the University of Nebraska College of Law (1983-98), Perlman has also served as interim senior vice chancellor for academic affairs at UNL (1995-96).

A Nebraska native, Perlman was raised in York, and earned a bachelor of arts in history and a juris doctorate from the University of Nebraska. During his law school years, he was editor in chief of the Nebraska Law Review and was elected to the Order of the Coif, a law honors society.

He joined the NU law faculty in 1967 after spending a year as a Bigelow Teaching Fellow at the University of Chicago Law School. He served on the Nebraska law faculty until 1974 when he joined the faculty at the University of Virginia Law School. He returned to Nebraska in 1983 when he accepted the deanship of the Nebraska Law College, a post he held until 1998 when he returned to the professoriate. He has also served as a visiting professor at Florida State University College of Law, the University of Puget Sound School of Law and the University of Iowa College of Law.

In 2011, Perlman was named an Honorary University Professor of Xi'an Jiaotong University, in Xi'an, China. This rare lifetime appointment entitles Perlman to privileges at the university, with which UNL has many institutional ties. Perlman also will occasionally lecture and teach at Xi'an Jiaotong University. The title is the highest honor the university awards to a foreign scholar, and recognizes Perlman as an accomplished scholar or professional of important international reputation. The award also recognizes Perlman for his significant efforts in globalizing UNL and Xi'an Jiaotong University through joint research and partnership degree programs.

His area of legal expertise lies in torts and intellectual property. He is a member of the Nebraska State and American Bar Associations and is a Life Fellow of the American Bar Association. Perlman is co-author of "Intellectual Property and Unfair Competition" (5th edition, 1998) and co-reporter for the American Law Institute's "Restatement of Unfair Competition" (1994). He serves on the Council of the American Law Institute, a leading national law reform organization and as one of Nebraska's Commissioners of Uniform State Laws. He previously served as a member of the NCAA Board of Directors and is past chair of the Bowl Championship Series Presidential Oversight Committee. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce and is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Nebraska Innovation Campus Development Corporation. He received the George Turner Award from the Nebraska State Bar Association for contributions to the legal profession and the Roger T. Larson Community Builder Award from the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce.

Perlman and his wife, Susan, an NU alumna, are the parents of two daughters. Anne, who earned degrees from UNL and the University of Nebraska Medical Center, practices medicine in Lincoln and is married to UNL alumnus David Spinar; they have three children; Will, Ava, and Marco, Husker fans all. Daughter Amie, who received bachelors and juris doctorate degrees from UNL, is a Nebraska assistant attorney general and is married to UNL alumnus Ron Larson; they are the parents of Caleb and Finn.

American Football Foundation. From 2008-09 to 2011-12 she was president of the 1A FAR (FARs from FBS institutions). Among her NCAA positions, Potuto spent nine years (the maximum) on the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions (chair her last two years). She was one of three Big 12 Conference representatives on the NCAA Division I Management Council, and served on the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship Committee and an NCAA-wide (all divisions) committee to advise NCAA staff on student-athlete issues and educational programming for coaches, staff, and student-athletes.

A sports law expert, Potuto regularly lectures and consults on sports issues in general and NCAA processes in particular. She is an expert witness in litigation involving sports issues. She testified before the House Subcommittee on the Constitution regarding due process in NCAA infractions hearings.

In the past year, she has appeared in media reports in the New York Times, Los Angeles Times, USA Today, Washington Post, CBSSports.com, the Chronicle of Higher Education, and Insider Higher Ed among others. She has presented to the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics, the National Association of College and University Attorneys, the Association of Public and Land Grant Universities, the Texas Commission of Higher Education, NCAA regional conferences, law conferences and law firms, NACDA, and to universities and law colleges, including the Universities of Istanbul, Washington, Maryland, Oklahoma, Santa Clara, Arizona State, Baltimore, and Mississippi.

Potuto is a past adviser to the Uniform Law Commissioners Committee to draft a sports agent statute, has drafted rules governing search and seizure and hearings for the Nebraska Racing Commission, and also has written on issues of gender equity in college athletics. She has authored numerous articles on sports law issues. She just completed articles on NCAA treatment of student-athlete violations and on NCAA and Olympic treatment of athlete violations (co-authored with an Olympic arbitrator).

Potuto delivered the 2012 Chancellor's Distinguished Lecture. She serves on the senate's intercollegiate athletics committee. She is a past member of the UNL academic senate and also served on Nebraska's NCAA site certification steering committee.

Potuto teaches constitutional law, procedure, federal jurisdiction, and sports law. She has been a visiting professor of law at the University of Arizona, Rutgers University, the Cardozo College of Law at New York's Yeshiva University, the University of Oregon, the University of North Carolina, and Seton Hall University. She has worked as an assistant prosecutor in both the Essex and Morris County (N.J.) prosecutor's offices.

Potuto was project director and a drafter of the Uniform Law Commissioners Sentencing and Corrections Act, as well as the drafter for the Nebraska Supreme Court Committee to Draft Criminal Jury Instructions. She is the author of three books. She was elected to membership in the American Law Institute, the Nebraska State Bar Foundation, and the Douglass Society.

Potuto earned her bachelor's degree in journalism at Rutgers' Douglass College, and her master's degree in English literature at Seton Hall. She earned her juris doctorate at the Rutgers Law College.

She is a member of the bars of Nebraska and New Jersey and is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and the U.S. District Courts for Nebraska and New Jersey.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA BOARD OF REGENTS

Hank M. Bounds, Ph.D.
President,
University of Nebraska

The Board of Regents consists of eight voting members elected by district for six-year terms, and four non-voting student Regents, one from each campus, who serve during their tenure as student body president. The board supervises the general operations of the university, and the control and direction of all expenditures. The board also includes a corporation secretary who manages all records including agendas, minutes, notices, policies and bylaws. Those documents can be found on the web at nebraska.edu/board/.

The board meets regularly, primarily in Lincoln but also in Omaha and greater Nebraska. Persons wishing to provide information to the board or to appear before it should contact: Corporation Secretary, University of Nebraska, Varner Hall, 3835 Holdrege, Lincoln, NE 68583.

SHAWN EICHORST

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS · THIRD YEAR
WISCONSIN-WHITEWATER · 1990

Shawn Eichorst came to the University of Nebraska in 2012 with an incredible passion for the University and for its student-athletes. As the leader of a tradition-rich athletics program with 24 intercollegiate teams, 600-plus student-athletes and more than 300 full-time employees, Eichorst has relied on a strong value system and a student-centered approach to lead the Department. Athletics' primary mission is to provide student-athletes with the resources and support they need to be successful in academics, athletics and life. The health, safety and welfare of student-athletes are priority one and are at the essence of every decision made at Nebraska.

Nebraska has a history of providing first-class coaches, staff and facilities for its students. Additionally, since Eichorst arrived in Lincoln, resources and services in every student-athlete support unit have been improved and enhanced, including academics, athletic medicine, life skills, nutrition, sports psychology, strength and conditioning and in the Nebraska Athletics Performance Laboratory (NAPL).

Eichorst has continued to aggressively move Nebraska forward with several new initiatives to enhance the student-athlete experience. The Department will provide state-of-the-art laptop computers to all student-athletes beginning in the summer of 2015 and the University will now provide four-year, full cost of attendance-based scholarships for all scholarship student-athletes in every sport. Also beginning in the summer of 2015, every Husker letterwinner who graduates and has exhausted his or her eligibility will be provided assistance to either obtain an internship; study abroad or attend graduate or professional school.

Eichorst has made more than 350 public appearances around the state, and his monthly radio show and "Connecting on Campus" online column provide the opportunity for him to further connect and share the incredible activities, initiatives and accomplishments that take place at the University and in the Department. As a member of the Chancellor's Senior Administrative Team, Eichorst maintains a strong connection and collaboration between the University and Athletics Department.

A highly respected national leader, Eichorst was appointed in 2015 to the Division I Football Oversight Committee. He was the first Director of Athletics from any conference to visit the Big Ten Conference-based Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) at its Champaign, Ill., headquarters. The CIC is a highly successful academic-based consortium of 15 schools, including all 14 in the Big Ten Conference. Nebraska is leading the Big Ten and the CIC in several areas, including Digital Humanities and head injury research.

Under Eichorst, Nebraska extended its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans to 320 and its nation-leading total of NCAA Top Ten Award winners to 17, after Mary Weatherholt (women's tennis) earned the honor in 2014. In 2014-15, more than 400 awards were presented at the 25th Anniversary Student-Athlete Recognition Banquet—A Night at the Lied. Over three commencements, 118 student-athletes earned undergraduate or graduate degrees and the Big Ten Conference honored 205 Husker student-athletes with Academic All-Big Ten awards. For the first time in school history, all Nebraska teams had an NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 950 or higher, as reported in May of 2015. The Nebraska football (second consecutive year) and rifle (third consecutive year) programs received public recognition for having an APR in the top 10 percent in their respective sports. In addition, five Husker teams (women's basketball, softball, women's tennis, volleyball and women's golf) had a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 100 percent, as reported in the fall of 2014.

On Dec. 4, 2014, Eichorst announced the hiring of Mike Riley as the Huskers' new head football coach. As one of the most respected and sought-after coaches in the profession, Riley's hire was highly praised by prominent members of the national media, the coaching fraternity, Riley's former players, and current and former Nebraska student-athletes. In Riley, Eichorst secured one of the finest football minds in the world and great positive-thinking teacher of young men.

In 2014-15, the Nebraska women's bowling team earned the school's seventh national title and fifth since bowling became an NCAA sport in 2004. The Husker men's track and field team won the Big Ten Indoor Championship and 13 Husker teams competed in NCAA postseason action, including bowling, football, volleyball, women's basketball, wrestling, softball, men's and women's gymnastics, rifle, and men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field. Nebraska produced 36 All-Americans who won 51 awards.

Nebraska's fan support continues to be unparalleled in college athletics. In fact, in 2014-15 top 15 national rankings for average attendance were reached across five sports—football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball and baseball. A tribute to loyal Husker fans, two sports lead the nation with consecutive home sellout streaks, including football (340) and volleyball for regular-season action (188).

In 2013-14, Nebraska became one of only two NCAA institutions – and the first Big Ten program in history – to qualify for a football bowl game, and advance to NCAA postseason in the major team sports of volleyball, soccer, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. Additionally, Nebraska was the only institution to win a postseason game in six of those seven sports.

Under Eichorst's leadership, Nebraska continues to focus on improving its facilities and the game-day experience at all athletic venues. In the summer of 2015, a world-class Soccer and Tennis Complex, located just north of the Devaney Center and Nebraska Innovation Campus, will be completed. A new center-hung video board and sound system was installed in the Devaney Center in 2015 to improve the game-day experience for volleyball, wrestling and men's and women's gymnastics. In 2014, the largest wireless network system at a college football stadium in history was installed in Memorial Stadium, along with a state-of-the-art sound system.

In the summer of 2013, a Memorial Stadium expansion also added the innovative NAPL inside East Stadium next to the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3). That same year, Nebraska's men's and women's basketball teams became the primary tenants at Pinnacle Bank Arena, and the renovated Devaney Center became the home for Husker volleyball, wrestling and the men's and women's gymnastics programs.

Eichorst came to Nebraska after serving as Director of Athletics at Miami in 2011 and 2012. He hired legendary men's basketball coach Jim Larrañaga, who led Miami to the NIT Second Round in his first season and ACC regular-season and tournament titles as well and the NCAA Sweet 16 in his second. The women's basketball program posted its highest national ranking in school history (No. 5) and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. The women's tennis team advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the fourth straight season, and the baseball team made its 40th consecutive NCAA appearance. The women's soccer team posted its first NCAA Tournament win in school history, and the volleyball team made its third straight NCAA Tournament trip.

Before heading to Miami, Eichorst was the Deputy Athletics Director at Wisconsin. He was the Chief Operating Officer and oversaw the department's daily operations, as well as Bo Ryan's men's basketball program under the direction of Director of Athletics and former Husker Barry Alvarez.

From 2004 to 2006, Eichorst served as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Administration at South Carolina, overseeing the department's daily operations, as well as the football and baseball programs under legendary coaches Lou Holtz, Steve Spurrier and Ray Tanner, respectively.

From 1999 to 2003, Eichorst served as the Director of Athletics at Wisconsin-Whitewater, which produced four top 10-percent finishes in the NACDA Directors Cup, one NCAA team title and two NCAA runner-up finishes. The program also featured 11 CoSIDA Academic All-American selections.

A native of Lone Rock, Wis., Eichorst was an all-conference defensive back, three-time letterwinner and 1990 football team captain for the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. He graduated magna cum laude in business from UW-Whitewater in 1990 and in 2015 was awarded the Distinguished Alumni Award for Professional Achievement. He earned a law degree from Marquette Law School in 1995, practiced law in Milwaukee until 1999 and is a past member of the State Bar of Wisconsin Board of Governors. He served as an assistant adjunct professor of law at Marquette, where he taught classes in sports law. He serves on the Marquette University National Sports Law Institute Board of Advisors and in 2006, Marquette awarded Eichorst the Sports Law Alumnus of the Year Award. He is also a graduate of the Sports Management Institute and serves on its Executive Committee.

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE

The Nebraska Communications Office is available to assist you with coverage of the Nebraska football program. The Athletic Communications Office is located on the third floor of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex in the North end of Memorial Stadium.

For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, press conferences, etc., please call the Athletic Communications Office at (402) 472-2263, visit Huskers.com or e-mail Assistant Athletic Director for Communications Keith Mann (kmann@huskers.com), Associate Communications Director Shamus McKnight (smcknight@huskers.com), Assistant Communications Director Matt Smith (msmith@huskers.com) or Assistant Communications Director Jeremy Foote (jfoote@huskers.com). Below are guidelines for covering Nebraska during the season. Additions or changes to these policies can be found at Huskers.com/media.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Nebraska utilizes an on-line credentialing system. Directions regarding the application process will be sent to media members or can be accessed at Huskers.com/media. Out-of-state media can contact Vicki Capazo in the Communications Office at (402) 472-2263 for assistance.

As a general rule, working space in the Nebraska Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) writers covering for same or next day publication; (2) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (3) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (4) press and TV working photographers; (5) official school student daily newspaper, one seat and/or sideline only; (6) approved special coverage as space allows. Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials, except by approval of the Nebraska Communications Office.

MEDIA ACCESS

Memorial Stadium access for the media is at the Media Gate entrance on street level on the west side of the stadium. The working press area is on Level 6 (Don Bryant Media Facility) with the photo and television deck on Level 7. Level 3 (West Stadium Club) and Levels 4 and 5 (Skybox Suites) of the West Stadium and Level 7 of the North and East Stadium Suites are not open to the media or public.

Single-game media credentials can be picked up at Gate 10 on game days, beginning five hours prior to kickoff and must show a photo I.D. All credential holders must receive a wristband at Gate 10 to accompany their credential in order to be admitted into Memorial Stadium.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking at Memorial Stadium is always at a premium, with a limited number of spaces allocated to the media. Media parking is divided among several lots around Memorial Stadium. Early arrival is strongly suggested. No cars will be admitted to the primary media lot directly south of the stadium later than 90 minutes before kickoff.

Each media outlet will receive one complimentary parking pass. Media outlets will be charged for additional parking passes ($21/each). See page 222 for specific directions to assigned lots.

WEEKLY MONDAY MEDIA LUNCHEON

Each Monday during game weeks, Nebraska hosts a media luncheon. Press luncheons will be held on Level 6 of the press facility. A light lunch buffet is served at 11 a.m., followed by Coach Mike Riley's weekly news conference at 11:30 a.m.

Requested Husker players will also be available pending class schedules. Generally, player interviews will be held after Coach Riley's press conference until 12:45 p.m.; however some players may be made available before 11:30 a.m., depending on class schedules.

Media requesting Nebraska players for the press conference should do so by 1 p.m. Sunday to the Communications Office.

Media planning any live coverage of the press conference (television, radio, internet) must first request permission from the Communications Office.

Transcripts and video highlights from the press conference with Coach Riley and players will be available on Huskers.com.

INTERVIEW POLICY

During the season, Coach Mike Riley is available in person for media interviews at the Monday news conference and on the field after practice on Thursday. Coach Riley is also available each Tuesday on the Big Ten teleconference (11:24 a.m.) beginning on Sept. 1. Please contact the Big Ten office at (847) 696-1010 for details. Any other interviews with Riley must be arranged through the Communications Office at least one day in advance.

Nebraska players are available for interviews in person or by telephone on Monday and Tuesday. Player interviews can occasionally be set up for other times with at least one day advance notice to the Communications Office. All requests for player and coach interviews must go through the Communications Office.

Assistant coaches will be available on Monday (defensive coaches) and Tuesday (offensive coaches) following practice.

Press conference and post-practice interviews with players and coaches are prohibited from being streamed live online via apps such as Meerkat and Periscope.

No interviews are to be conducted in the locker room, training room, weight room or Nebraska Student Life Complex. As a general rule, freshmen and redshirt freshmen are not available for interviews until they have participated in a game.

DAILY PRACTICES

During the season, practices are normally conducted either in Memorial Stadium, in the Hawks Championship Center, or on the Ed and Joyanne Gass Practice Fields northeast of the stadium, beginning at approximately 3:30 p.m. Practices are generally closed to the media and public. Media wishing to interview Nebraska players or coaches after practice should come to the designated location based on the practice site shortly before the end of practice. Communications staff will escort media to the practice field at the conclusion of practice.

Photographers and videographers should contact Communications regarding days and times to shoot practice. Media are asked to remain on the sideline or behind the fence at Memorial Stadium during this time. When on the Gass practice fields, media may not stand between the two practice fields during this time. No interviews are to be conducted during this time period and these segments may not be aired or streamed live on television or the internet. Live practice reports of any kind are not permitted from the practice site (social media, radio, blogs, etc.). Media will be asked to leave the practice site to use their cell phones or mobile devices.

Contact the Communications Office for the exact time and location of each day's practice.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Nebraska's locker room is closed after games, both home and away, but Coach Mike Riley and requested players will be available for interviews following a brief cooling-off period. For home games, only coaches, players and staff members will be admitted to the tunnel and locker room after the game, but Coach Riley and requested personnel will be brought to the interview room (Ndamukong Suh Strength Complex). Admittance to the interview area will be by media credential only. Media should access the area via the door on the northeast corner of the Osborne Athletic Complex. For away games, the best available interview area will be used. Interview requests, home and away, will be taken by Keith Mann at the end of the third quarter. Non-requested players making significant plays in the fourth quarter will be added as needed.

Nebraska players and coaches will not do interviews on the field after the game.

The visiting locker room at Memorial Stadium is located underneath the South Stadium. The visiting team interview area is just off the main tunnel leading to the visitor's locker room.

Media planning to carry the press conference live should request permission from the Nebraska Communications Office before doing so. If media are planning to do live interviews on the field after the game, they should make advance arrangements with the Communications Office, as well as contact Scott Guthrie in HuskerVision (402-472-4645).

SIDELINE POLICIES

The Big Ten Conference maintains a strict sideline control policy in an effort to keep the playing area as safe as possible. All sideline photographers must have a photo vest and a photo pass, and both must be clearly visible. Vests will be issued beginning three hours before game time. Vests will be issued to media members with a photo pass who will be shooting still photos or video during the game. Media without a photo vest may access the sideline during pre-game and in the final five minutes of the game. Special exceptions to this also include interviews with special guests on the field at halftime, quarter breaks, etc. All other media should work from their assigned location on Level 6 or Level 7.

Those individuals receiving a photo vest will be asked to sign a waiver concerning the usage of photos at the time they check out the vests. Vests may be returned to one of four locations following the game: Nebraska post-game interview room, opponent post-game interview room, press box, photographers work area.

The Big Ten sideline control policy: (1) Only those photographers on assignment from a newspaper, magazine, television station or a participating institution, are given credentials. Each student publication may be limited to one press and/or one sideline photo pass. (2) Only those newspapers with Sunday and/or daily editions are eligible for sideline passes. (Special requests must be submitted to the Communications Director for review). (3) Cutline writers, equipment carriers, and/or other so-called "assistants" will not be allowed on the sideline. (4) Photographers must display their credentials (photo pass and vest) at all times. (5) University personnel are to be deployed on the sideline to ensure that all credentials are properly displayed. Those possessing bench passes (45) must remain inside the team bench area (between the 25-yard lines). (6) Photographers may not enter the bench area at any time. (7) Photographers are not permitted to congregate in the writers' section of the media facility during halftime, during or after the game.

A photographers work area is available on field level, just off the southeast corner of the playing field.

FACILITY USE RESTRICTIONS

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has an interest in protecting its facilities, property and reputation associated with its intercollegiate sports. Therefore, no person shall be permitted to access or use the arenas, facilities and other University of Nebraska intercollegiate athletic venues without first securing the permission of the Director of Athletics or his/her designee. The only exception is an individual who records an image (e.g. photograph, videotape) for his/her non-commercial personal use. In no case shall any person be permitted to use these venues for the purposes of promoting the sale or manufacture of alcohol or tobacco or the promotion of any venture associated directly or indirectly with legal or illegal gaming or gambling.

TELEVISION, RADIO, INTERNET BROADCAST RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS

Nebraska, its opponent and the respective conference designate the broadcast rights for all games. No pregame coverage shall be permitted for two hours before the game without the express permission of the University of Nebraska, the Big Ten Conference and the broadcast rights holder. Live postgame interviews may not be aired while the television rights holder is still on the air.

Per the Big Ten Conference, a maximum of two minutes (2:00) of game video footage (without audio) may be utilized during the seven days following the conclusion of the game solely within regularly scheduled bona fide news programming distributed via television, and may not be distributed via the internet, wireless or other forms of media. In addition, live in-game streaming of the contests on social media is prohibited.

Any secondary use of any picture, photograph, audio description, video, film/tape, drawing or other description of a game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom a credential has been issued (including, but not limited to use in delayed editorial or non-editorial advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the Big Ten Conference. Nothing in these terms and conditions authorizes or allows bearer to violate any of the trademarks, copyright and other proprietary rights of the Big Ten Conference.

This restriction also includes highlights of games while in progress (live or recorded). Use of video highlights in any other manner or any media distribution platform without the advanced written permission of the Big Ten Conference is expressly prohibited. Any agency wishing to use film or video in any other manner must obtain written permission from the Big Ten Conference.

Local television stations may not originate a pre- or post-game show from inside Memorial Stadium.

Any blogs, tweets, live chats, social media posts, etc. from the game site should not serve as a substitute for, or approximate, play-by-play accounts of a game in any medium.

Non-originating radio stations or internet sites may not provide play-by-play coverage, live or delayed, but may provide short news updates provided such news update is one minute or less occurring no more than once per hour. No pregame coverage from the stadium shall be permitted for two hours before the game without the express permission of the University of Nebraska and the broadcast rights holder.

INTERNET/TELEPHONE

Media will have use of the Internet in the Memorial Stadium press box. A limited number of Ethernet ports are available in the press seating area and the photographer's area. Contact the Athletics Communications Office before the start of the season for information regarding cost of Ethernet ports at a specific seat. The Memorial Stadium press box is equipped with wireless internet. Media members who plan to use wireless internet should contact the Communications Office in advance of the game for instructions.

Media members using wireless frequencies at Memorial Stadium will be asked to register that equipment in advance. Media will be prompted to complete a frequency coordination form when they fill out their on-line credential application. (Note: This does not apply to those registering for wireless internet access). Nebraska provides telephones for media use in the Memorial Stadium media facility. Any media sources that want to install a telephone in the media facility should contact Nebraska Telecommunications (402) 472-2000 at least two weeks before the game.

Information such as statistics, postgame quotes, play-by-play, etc., will be available online at Huskers.com. If arrangements are made in advance, postgame notes, quotes and game statistics may be e-mailed. Please contact the Nebraska Communications Office during game week to request e-mail service.

THE HUSKER IMG SPORTS NETWORK

The Husker IMG Sports Network will continue the strong tradition of broadcasting excellence in 2015, as it brings Husker football to fans across the nation and the world.

In the state of Nebraska, KXSP AM 590 ESPN (590 AM) and KEZO Z-92 (92.3 FM) will serve as the new Omaha affiliates beginning with the 2015 season. KXSP's strong signal reaches a good portion of the Midwest day and night, including parts of Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri and Kansas. KLIN (1400 AM) serves as the Lincoln affiliate with KFGE Froggy 98 (98.1 FM) also carrying the football broadcast. KRVN (880 AM) is a powerful central Nebraska affiliate that reaches around the state. In addition to the network has several dozen locally based affiliates across Nebraska. The national radio station coverage area is broad and includes Las Vegas, Seattle, Rapid City, Yankton, and Sioux Falls, S.D. All broadcasts are heard live on Huskers.com, the Husker App, the Tuneln Radio App, www.Tuneln.com, and SiriusXM Satellite Radio.

The Husker IMG Sports Network, in its 21st year of producing and marketing the live broadcasts of University of Nebraska Athletics, extended and expanded its agreement with the University on June 13, 2008. Under the agreement, IMG College's Husker IMG Sports Marketing manages and markets all rights associated with the radio programming, Coaches' TV and radio shows, program sales, in-venue signage, sponsorship inventory, and publication printing rights.

IMG College is the nation's leading collegiate multimedia, marketing and brand management company, representing more than 200 of the nation's top collegiate properties including the NCAA and its 90 championships, NCAA Football, leading conferences, and many of the most prestigious colleges and universities in the country. Headquartered in Winston Salem, N.C., IMG College, which employs more than 700 people in nearly 100 offices throughout the United States, is a division of IMG, a global leader in sports, fashion and media operating in more than 25 countries around the world. IMG's businesses include Events & Media, College, Golf, Tennis, Performance and IMG Academy, Fashion, Models, Clients, Licensing, Joint Ventures, and creative management agency Art +

Commerce. In 2014, IMG was acquired by WME, the world's leading entertainment and media agency. Together, the companies offer an unparalleled client roster; strategic partnerships with sponsors and brands; and marquee assets across sports, entertainment, events, music and fashion.

Greg Sharpe, Matt Davison, Lane Grindle, Matt Coatney, Steve Taylor, Ben McLaughlin, Nate Rohr and Josh Hilkemann will bring another exciting season of football to Husker fans across the nation with Mike Elliott as the Director of Broadcast Operations.

Sharpe returns for his eighth full season as the "Voice of the Huskers." He will host the Mike Riley Pre- and Post-game Shows and the Countdown to Kickoff Show this year. Sharpe also serves as the "Voice of Husker Baseball" and as the host of the Husker Football TV Show, as well as the N'Side Nebraska TV Show and the Husker Basketball TV Show.

Davison, a former Husker, joins Sharpe in the broadcast booth for his ninth season as a color analyst. A member of the 1997 national championship team, Davison co-hosts the Husker Game Day Pregame Show. He is also a color analyst for Nebraska men's basketball broadcasts and contributes to Sports Nightly.

Grindle handles the network's sideline reports, co-hosts Husker Game Day and handles the postgame Locker Room Show, interviewing coaches and players after the game. Grindle also serves as a play-by-play talent for baseball.

Former Husker All-American quarterback Steve Taylor will co-host the Husker Game Day Show with Sharpe and will co-host Big Red Reaction with Coatney, who also co-anchors some pregame and postgame studio coverage with McLaughlin and Hilkemann.

In addition to unmatched game coverage, Sports Nightly airs Monday-Friday evenings for three hours year round across the network. During the football season Sports Nightly features a weekly football radio show on Thursday evenings with Coach Riley and Husker assistant coaches. Sports Nightly can be heard on a network of over two dozen radio stations across Nebraska, as well as the Husker App, Huskers.com, Tuneln.com, and the Tuneln App.

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

James E. Delany
Commissioner

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back 120 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on January 11, 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the mechanics of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing its membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, and that name was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s opened, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were held at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse the last two years. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. It is the most prestigious honor a student competing in Big Ten athletics can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of five men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971 and current commissioner James E. Delany in 1989.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all conference institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) in 1958. The CIC was formed as an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities and founding conference member Chicago. In 2013, the 15 schools currently constituting the CIC produced over $10 billion in funded research, $4 billion more than any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of instant replay, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

BIG

In 2006, Commissioner Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with Fox Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 1,000 events across all platforms each year. BTN is in more than 60 million homes in the U.S. and Canada via the nation's major cable, satellite and telco providers and more than 300 additional cable operators across the country. BTN2Go is the digital extension of BTN, delivering live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets and also is accessible outside the U.S., Canada and the Caribbean via BTN2Go International.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten Conference on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

In the fall of 2013, the Big Ten opened a new conference headquarters and meeting center in Rosemont, Ill. The newly constructed building is located 10 minutes from O'Hare Airport and has been designed to fully service the needs of more than 350 meetings annually for Big Ten and CIC related committees and coaches groups. The new headquarters also features an interactive digital museum - the Big Ten Experience - which opened to the public on June 7, 2014, and brings the conference's storied academic and athletic history to life. For more information on the Big Ten Experience, go to bigten.org.

In June 2014, the Big Ten opened a second office in New York City, featuring both office and meeting space in Midtown Manhattan. Three Big Ten staff members are based in the New York City office to provide expanded coverage and service, while other conference and institutional administrators utilize the space as necessary when conducting business on the East Coast. The Big Ten and its member institutions also have access to satellite office space in Washington, D.C.

Delany and his staff work to meet the educational needs of students competing in intercollegiate athletics to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. The conference office manages 28 different championships and tournaments, offers legislative and compliance services, oversees the production and distribution of nearly 1,400 events annually, provides staff services to coaching and administrative personnel and services media and fans interest for information on the Big Ten Conference.

More than 120 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

BIG TEN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The fifth Big Ten Football Championship Game will be played on Dec. 5, 2015, at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. The game will be televised to a national audience on FOX with kickoff set for 7 p.m. Central. The game will match the winners of the East and West divisions, and the winner of the contest will be presented the Stagg Championship Trophy.

In 2011, the Big Ten Conference announced that Lucas Oil Stadium would host the first five football championship games through the 2015 season before the agreement was extended to 2021. Wisconsin won the first two title games, while Michigan State knocked off previously unbeaten Ohio State, 34-24, to win the 2013 title. Ohio State shut out Wisconsin, 59-0, to win the 2014 title. Nebraska made its first Big Ten Championship Game appearance in 2012 and lost to Wisconsin.

While a member of the Big 12 Conference, Nebraska participated in the league title game six times, posting a 2-4 record. Nebraska's six title game appearances were the second-most in the 15-year history of the Big 12 Championship Game. Nebraska captured Big 12 crowns in 1997 and 1999, and was also the North Division representative in the game in 1996, 2006, 2009 and 2010.

2015 BIG TEN BOWL LINEUP

The Big Ten unveiled the largest and most diverse postseason lineup in conference history with 12 bowl partners spread across the country. The Big Ten's bowl lineup is highlighted by annual games against quality opponents from the ACC, Big 12, Pac-12, SEC, Conference USA and Mountain West in California, Florida, Michigan, New York, Tennessee and Texas, along with the opportunity to visit four other outstanding postseason venues as part of the College Football Playoff. The Big Ten's bowl lineup allows teams and fans to visit world-class cities while having the opportunity to experience 11 NFL stadiums, along with some of the most iconic venues in the country, including Rose Bowl Stadium, Cotton Bowl Stadium and Yankee Stadium.

COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES FOR FANS

COMMITMENT TO COMPLIANCE

On behalf of the University of Nebraska student-athletes, coaches and Athletics Department staff, I would like to express my appreciation for your continued support of our entire athletics program.

The University of Nebraska is known for its loyal, passionate, and knowledgeable fans. It is this type of fervent support that not only assists Nebraska student-athletes in reaching their full potential on and off the playing field, but also draws the next generation of student-athletes to our campus. However, as a University of Nebraska booster, please remember that you are also required to know and follow NCAA regulations.

Our coaches, student-athletes, and Athletics Department staff members are knowledgeable about NCAA regulations because they receive on-going education. But, to truly attain the excellence the University of Nebraska strives for, we also need our supporters to be educated about these same regulations. In turn, you will be assisting us with protecting the eligibility and well-being of our current and future student-athletes.

Please review the information listed below, which includes some of the most important and frequently asked questions about NCAA regulations for boosters. Since this document cannot address everything you may need to know, I encourage you to contact our office with questions that may arise. Our staff can be reached at (402) 472-2042 or Compliance@Huskers.com.

Thank you and Go Huskers!

Jamie Vaughn, Associate Athletics Director for Compliance

NCAA PRINCIPLES

Institutional Control

It is the responsibility of the University of Nebraska to control its intercollegiate athletic program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference.

Responsibility

The University of Nebraska's responsibility for the conduct of its program includes responsibility for the actions of its staff members and for the actions of any other individual, booster or organization engaged in activities promoting the athletic interests of the institution.

Compliance

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS FROM BOOSTERS

Am I a Booster?

Anyone who engages in the following is a booster for the University of Nebraska:

- Belongs to a University of Nebraska Athletics booster club;
- Makes financial donations to the Athletics Department or a specific Husker team;
- Assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes;
- Employs, gives benefits to, or provides services to a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relatives/friends of either; or
- Promotes the University of Nebraska athletic programs.

What is an "extra benefit"?

An "extra benefit" is any benefit provided to a student-athlete or a student-athlete's relatives or friends that is not authorized by NCAA legislation or available to the general student body. The following list is not exhaustive, but includes examples of "extra benefits" that jeopardize a student-athlete's eligibility:

- Free or discounted: food, merchandise, housing, tickets, repairs, haircuts, tattoos, golf/gym memberships, jewelry, etc;
- Use of a car, boat, or ATV; and
- Gifts, loans, money, or gift cards.

Can I contact prospective student-athletes (recruits) for the Huskers?

No. It is not permissible for boosters to contact recruits. This restriction applies to, but is not limited to, the following forms of contact:

- Face-to-Face Interaction;
- Phone Calls/Skype;
- Email/Text Messages; and
- Facebook, Twitter, and all other forms of social media communication.

Remember to ask before you act. Contact the Athletics Compliance Office by phone at (402) 472-2042.

THE DEVANEY SOCIETY

Achieving greatness in both the classroom and on the playing field has long been a goal of the University of Nebraska. Our nation-leading 320 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans (as of July 1, 2015) and 26 team national titles reflect the manner in which we strive to achieve to the highest level.

Rising costs have made funding these athletic scholarships increasingly difficult. To help offset the expenses, the University of Nebraska established an athletic scholarship endowment fund to honor Hall of Fame Football Coach Bob Devaney.

Follow in the footsteps of Coach Devaney and commit to the long-term success of Nebraska Athletics. We are sincerely grateful to those who committed to our future stability and established a Devaney Society Scholarship for male and female student-athletes.

The following scholarships have been established through the Devaney Society: Bill and Betty Cook Jr. Scholarship (football), Given by Bill and Betty Cook, Beatrice, Neb.; Harley and Marcia Bergmeyer Scholarship (football), Given by Harley and Marcia Bergmeyer, DeWitt, Neb.; Russell and Louise Brehm Scholarship (football), Given by Russell and Louise Brehm, Lincoln, Neb.; Donald Swanson Scholarship (football), Given by Donald Swanson, Lincoln, Neb.; Brook Berringer Memorial Scholarship (football), given by friends and family of Brook Berringer; Jake Young Memorial Scholarship (football), given by friends and family of Jake Young; Dennis and Connie Dailey Scholarship (football), Given by Dennis and Connie Dailey, North Platte, Neb.; Robert and Dorothy Metcalf Scholarship (football), Given by Robert and Dorothy Metcalf, Lincoln, Neb.; Lance and Betsy deStwolinski Scholarship (football), Given by Lance and Betsy deStwolinski, Omaha, Neb.; Richard and Peggy Herman Scholarship (football), Given by Richard and Peggy Herman, Omaha, Neb.; Jon J. and Marianne R.
