NOTICE OF NCAA PROBATION

From 2007 to 2010 the University of Nebraska unintentionally reimbursed student-athletes for recommended textbooks as well as required textbooks through a failure to properly administer and monitor book scholarships. Only reimbursement for required books is permissible under NCAA rules. As a result, the NCAA placed the University of Nebraska on two-year probation, beginning in January 2012. The NCAA did not impose additional penalties such as loss of scholarships, forfeiture of games, or a ban on postseason play. Rather, as a condition of probation, Nebraska will continue to educate student-athletes and staff thoroughly on NCAA bylaws and will notify prospective studentathletes of its probationary status.

NEBRASKA

2013 HUSKER OFFENSE

The Husker offense is expected to rank among the nation's best units again in 2013, while potentially ranking as one of the best offenses in school history. The unit is headlined by a trio of talented skill players in senior quarterback Taylor Martinez, junior I-back Ameer Abdullah and junior wide receiver Kenny Bell (pictured, left to right).

In 2012, the Husker offense set an NU record with 330 first downs while ranking second in school history with 6,451 yards of total offense. Nebraska returns 84 percent of its total offense from 2012, when the Huskers led the Big Ten and ranked 15th nationally in total offense. The Huskers also return 55 percent of their scoring from 2012, bringing back players who accounted for 44 of their Big Tenleading 61 touchdowns last fall.

Nebraska will feature one of the nation's most dynamic groups of skill players in 2013. Martinez is the nation's top returning rusher regardless of position, while ranking third nationally among all returning players in career total offense and ninth in career passing yards. A coaches' first-team All-Big Ten selection in 2012, Martinez is one of only four players in NCAA FBS history to enter his senior season with 6,000 career passing yards and 2,500 career rushing yards.

Abdullah, a second-team All-Big Ten pick, led Nebraska with 1,137 rushing yards in 2012, the sixth-highest sophomore total in school history. Abdullah accounted for 1,884 all-purpose yards last fall, the second-highest total by a sophomore in school history and the sixth-highest total overall.

Bell set Husker sophomore records with 50 catches, 863 receiving yards and eight touchdown grabs in 2012. A first-team All-Big Ten selection, Bell also posted top-five overall marks in each category, while becoming the second-fastest Husker to reach 1,000 career receiving yards.

Together, the trio highlight an explosive and balanced Husker offense. Nebraska is one of only three teams in 2013 with a roster featuring a 5,000-yard career passer, a 1,000-yard career receiver and two 1,000-yard career rushers. The Huskers are also one of just four teams in the FBS ranks to feature a 5,000-yard career passer, a 2,000-yard career rusher and a 1,000-yard career receiver.

HIGHLIGHTING THE HUSKER OFFFNSF

- » NU brings back more than 71 percent of its rushing yards from a 2012 unit that ranked eighth nationally with an average of 253 rushing yards per game.
- » The Huskers' top two returning rushers return from 2012 in Abdullah (1,137 yards) and Martinez (1,019 yards), giving Nebraska a pair of returning 1,000yard rushers for the first time in school history.
- » Paving the way for the rushing attack is a veteran offensive line that returns five players who have combined to start 78 career games.
- » Headlining the offensive line is senior offensive guard Spencer Long, a second-team All-American in 2012. Long was selected as Nebraska's first All-America offensive lineman since 2001, while the Huskers boast a returning All-American on the offensive line for the first time since 1997.
- » Overall, Nebraska returns 14 offensive players with starting experience, including one All-American and four first- or second-team All-Big Ten selections.
- » The returning experience should bolster a Husker offense that led the Big Ten in total offense and rushing offense, while ranking second in scoring in 2012. Nebraska was the only Big Ten team to average both 200 rushing and 200 passing yards in 2012

OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER

Offensive coordinator: Tim Beck

The Nebraska offense is in its third season under the direction of Offensive Coordinator Tim Beck. In Beck's first two seasons, the Husker offense has shown great diversity and explosiveness. The highlights include:

- » Nebraska has rushed for better than 200 yards per game in each of Beck's two seasons and the past three seasons overall. Nebraska has ranked among the top 15 teams nationally in rushing each of the past three years.
- » In 2012, Nebraska also passed for better than 200 yards per game. Nebraska was one of only 19 schools in the country to average 200 yards per game both rushing and passing and the only school in the Big Ten to reach those milestones.
- Nebraska returns two 1,000-yard rushers for the 2013 season, marking the first time in school history Nebraska has returned a pair of 1,000-yard rushers from the previous season.
- » Nebraska has had at least one 1,000-yard rusher each of the past four seasons.
- » Nebraska is one of only two schools in the nation with two returning players who rushed for better than 1,000 yards in 2012.
- » Nebraska is one of only three schools in the country who return a 5,000-yard career passer, a 1,000-yard career receiver and two 1,000-yard career rushers.
- » Four different Nebraska players rushed for 100 yards or more last season. Nebraska was one of only five schools to have four or more players reach the century mark in 2012.
- » Nebraska was one of only four teams in the country in 2012 that had at least four players average better than 5.0 yards per carry on at least 50 carries. Five Huskers

- » In the past five seasons, Nebraska quarterbacks have produced four of the top eight single seasons for total offense in school history.
- » Senior quarterback Taylor Martinez enters the 2013 season as the holder of 29 Nebraska school records.
- » Among the notable records Martinez holds at Nebraska are career passing yards, career total offense, career passing touchdowns and season total offense
- » Taylor Martinez is one of only three quarterbacks to pass for 4,000 combined yards and rush for 1,500 combined yards in the past two seasons.
- » Martinez is one of only 12 players in FBS history to pass for 6,000 yards and rush for 2,500 yards in his career. He could join Nevada's Colin Kaepernick as the only players in FBS history with 9,000 passing/3,000 rushing in a career.
- » Martinez is the nation's leading returning active rusher for 2012, regardless of position.
- » Over the past five seasons, Nebraska quarterbacks have produced 10 of the top 20 single-game total offense efforts in school history.

RUNNING BACKS

- » Nebraska has had a running back with at least 1,000 yards each of the past four seasons, Roy Helu Jr. in 2009 and 2010, Rex Burkhead in 2011 and Ameer Abdullah in 2012.
- » Roy Helu Jr. and Rex Burkhead both completed their Nebraska career in the top five on the NU career rushing list.
- » Rex Burkhead rushed for 1,357 yards in 2011, the most by a Nebraska I-back since 1997.
- » Nebraska I-backs have produced 24, 100-yard rushing games in the past three seasons.
- » After finishing his Nebraska career, Roy Helu Jr. was named to the 2011 NFL All-Rookie team with the Washington Redskins.
- » Nebraska I-backs have 29 1,000-yard rushing seasons in school history, including one in each of the past four years.
- » Nebraska has had three I-backs drafted in the past seven NFL Drafts.
- » Nebraska has had 23 first-team all-conference running backs since 1980.

RECEIVERS

- » Nebraska receivers have nine 40-catch seasons in the past five years, including Kenny Bell and Quincy Enunwa in 2012.
- » Nebraska returns three receivers in 2013 who combined for 124 receptions for 1,750 yards and 12 touchdowns in 2012, Kenny Bell (50-863-8), Quincy Enunwa (42-470-1) and Jamal Turner (32-417-3)
- » After just two seasons, Kenny Bell is already one of only 20 players in NU history with 1,000 career receiving yards. He ranks ninth in school history with 1,324 receiving yards and is on pace to become Nebraska's all-time receiving yardage leader.
- » Bell has 82 career receptions, including 50 in 2012, to rank ninth on the NU career
- » Bell reached 1,000 career receiving yards in just 20 games, the second-fastest player in Nebraska history to reach the milestone.
- » Nate Swift, Niles Paul, Todd Peterson, Mike McNeill and Brandon Kinnie have all completed their careers in the past five years and rank among the top 12 in NU history in receptions.
- » In the past three years, Nebraska tight ends Mike McNeill and Kyler Reed have claimed the top two spots on Nebraska's career tight ends receptions list
- » McNeill finished his career with 82 receptions for 1,072 yards and 11 touchdowns. He now plays for the St. Louis Rams.
- » Kyler Reed capped his career with 67 catches for 1,063 yards and 11 touchdowns. Reed signed a free-agent rookie contract with Jacksonville.
- » 2012 senior tight end Ben Cotton finished his career with 40 receptions, including three touchdown catches. He signed with the San Diego Chargers.

2013 HUSKER DEFENSE

The Husker defense will feature plenty of young talent in 2013, as the unit must replace seven senior starters from last fall. Nebraska returns a total of 10 players who earned at least one start last season, and the Huskers have a strong group of young, athletic defenders ready to make their mark this fall.

The 2013 defense is led by a nucleus of five players who were in the starting lineup together six times last season. Included in those six games were holding a potent Arkansas State offense to a season-low point total, limiting both Michigan and Minnesota to fewer than 100 yards passing and rushing and holding a ranked Northwestern squad to 14 first downs, its second-lowest total of the season despite extra possessions from three Husker fumbles.

The strength of the 2013 Husker defense will be the secondary, the most experienced position group. Nebraska must replace both starting safeties from last fall, but the Huskers return every cornerback who started a game in 2012, a group that includes four players who have combined to start 57 career games.

The secondary is highlighted by senior Ciante Evans, a first-team All-Big Ten pick in 2012 who is one of the league's most versatile defenders. Evans (pictured) saw action at corner and as the Huskers' nickle back in 2012, totaling 56 tackles, three TFLs, 3.0 sacks, eight pass breakups and one interception, which he returned 29 yards for a touchdown.

While Evans is NU's top returning tackler, senior cornerback Andrew Green has started 22 career games in the Husker secondary, the most starts of any Blackshirt. He totaled 50 tackles last fall while breaking up three passes and adding three TFLs.

Senior Stanley Jean-Baptiste and junior Josh Mitchell round out Nebraska's group of talented cornerbacks with starting experience. Jean-Baptiste intercepted a pair of passes and notched nine other pass breakups in 2012, while Mitchell added five pass breakups and 29 tackles.

At linebacker, Nebraska must replace all three starters. Aiding that transition will be the return of Zaire Anderson, a junior college All-American who played in just three games as a newcomer in 2012 before suffering a season-ending injury. Sophomore David Santos brings play-making potential to the linebacking corps, as he recorded 10 tackles and earned Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week honors in his only start of the 2012 season against Michigan.

Up front, senior Jason Ankrah returns to anchor Nebraska's defensive line. Ankrah posted two sacks and six TFLs from his defensive end spot in 2012. Classmate Thad Randle, promising underclassmen Aaron Curry, Avery Moss and Kevin Williams and several talented newcomers should add depth and contribute to a defensive line that has produced an All-American in two of the last four years.

HIGHLIGHTING THE HUSKER DEFENSE

- » Nebraska, which returns the majority of its secondary, led the nation in opponent completion percentage in 2012, allowing opposing quarterbacks to complete only 47.1 percent of their passes.
- » The Huskers also ranked fourth nationally in pass defense (168.1 yards allowed per game) and ninth in pass efficiency defense (105.32) in 2012.
- » With the secondary coming in as the most experienced group on the Husker defense, Nebraska will aim to rank in the top 10 nationally in pass efficiency defense for the fourth time in the past five years in 2013. NU will also look to rank among the top 10 nationally in pass defense this fall for the third time in the last five seasons.
- » Nine of the 13 members of Nebraska's regular secondary rotation from 2012 are back, including six players who started at least one game last fall.
- » Nebraska's defense had a knack for producing points of its own last season, tying for the Big Ten lead with three interception returns for touchdowns. The Huskers hope that trend continues this fall, as both Evans and Jean-Baptiste returned a pick for a touchdown in 2012.
- » The Huskers return five players who intercepted a pass or recovered a fumble in 2012, when Nebraska ranked third in the Big Ten by forcing 23 turnovers.
- » Nebraska also led the Big Ten in pass defense and pass efficiency defense in 2012, while ranking second in sacks (31).
- » Overall, Nebraska returns 10 defensive players with starting experience, including three players who have made at least 18 career starts.

"Nebraska is the best place in America to play defense. I can't say more about our coaches than what I know in my heart—they are the best."

Ndamukong Suh 2009 Heisman Finalist

One of the Huskers' most well-known traditions is the Blackshirts, which has become the common nickname for Nebraska's defensive unit. The term originally dates back to the early 1960s and refers to the black jerseys that Nebraska's first-string defenders wear in practice.

With the return of the two-platoon system in college football in 1964, Head Coach Bob Devaney looked for a way to distinguish the defensive units on the practice fields. Devaney dispatched Assistant Coach Mike Corgan to a local sporting goods store to find some "contrast jerseys," a sleeveless pullover that went on top of the players' practice jerseys. While the top offensive unit practiced in red jerseys and the second-string offense worked in green pullovers, the first string defense wore black pullovers and the second string wore the contrasting gold jerseys.

The term quickly caught on, and gained momentum during Monte Kiffin's tenure as defensive coordinator in the mid-1970s, before the Blackshirts earned national acclaim under Charlie McBride, who served as the Huskers' defensive coordinator from 1982 to 1999. The Blackshirts will celebrate their 50th season in 2013.

BLACKSHIRT TRADITION

- » Nebraska has ranked in the top 10 nationally in total defense 22 times since 1964.
- » Nebraska has ranked among the nation's top 10 in all four major defensive categories (rush defense, pass defense, total defense and scoring defense) on five occasions, including 2009 and national title seasons in 1994, 1995 and 1997.

NEBRASKA BLACKSHIRTS

The Blackshirt defense has thrived under the direction of Head Coach Bo Pelini and his defensive staff.

- » Pelini made his mark as defensive coordinator in 2003. Nebraska forced a school-record 47 turnovers that season, including a Big 12 record 32 interceptions. Nebraska finished second nationally in total defense in 2003, and 16 Blackshirts from that defense went on to play in the NFL.
- » In Pelini's first season as head coach in 2008, the Blackshirts were among the nation's most improved defenses. The Huskers finished second in the Big 12 in total defense, allowing 126.9 fewer yards per game than in 2007.
- » In 2009, Nebraska had a dominant defensive unit. The Huskers led the nation in scoring defense, limiting foes to 13 or fewer points 10 times in 14 games. Nebraska finished seventh in total defense that season.
- » The 2010 Blackshirts ranked in the top 12 nationally in four statistical categories, including third in pass efficiency defense, ninth in scoring defense and 11th in total defense.
- » The 2011 Nebraska defense featured Lavonte David, who was named Big Ten Linebacker of the Year and Alfonzo Dennard, who was Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year.
- » The 2012 Nebraska defense led the nation in opponent pass completion percentage at 47 percent. Only one other school held its opponent below 50 percent passing.

THE PELINI FACTOR

Bo Pelini's college defenses have a history of dominance, not only at Nebraska, but also in his time as defensive coordinator at LSU and Oklahoma. Pelini-led defenses have been a fixture in the top 10 of numerous national categories.

During his time as Nebraska head coach, Pelini and his defensive staff have helped re-establish the Blackshirts as one of the nation's top defenses. Nebraska's combined defensive statistics from 2009 to 2012 stack up favorably in the nation. Pelini's players have also flourished in the defensive system, including:

- » In the past five seasons, a Nebraska defensive lineman has topped 15 TFL in a season five times, including twice each by Ndamukong Suh and Jared Crick.
- » Nebraska defensive linemen have totaled at least 7.5 sacks in a season five times since 2008.
- » Nebraska has had a linebacker record at least 110 tackles each of the past three seasons.
- » Nebraska has had at least one first-team all-conference defensive back each of the past four seasons.

"We have a great (defensive) tradition at Nebraska. As a former Blackshirt, it is basically the sense of urgency you play with. That is what it means to be a Blackshirt. It is being able to trust the guy next to you. It is 11 guys getting to the football."

Head Coach Bo Pelini has assembled a Nebraska coaching staff with a championship pedigree that has strong ties to both Nebraska and Pelini's outstanding coaching background. Pelini's success in his first five seasons as the Huskers' head coach puts him in a class with many of the elite coaches in college football's recent history.

- » Pelini has guided Nebraska to at least nine wins in each of his first five seasons. Nebraska is one of only four schools to win nine or more games each season from 2008 to 2012, joining Alabama, Boise State and Oregon.
- » Among schools in power conferences, Pelini is just the 11th head coach in college football history to win at least nine games in each of his first five seasons on the job at that school. The group includes three Nebraska coaches in Pelini, Tom Osborne and Bob Devaney.
- » Pelini is one of only four first-time head coaches in a power conference to win nine games in each of his first five seasons. He has joined Tom Osborne, Barry Switzer and Larry Coker
- » Pelini's 48 wins from 2008 to 2012 are easily the most among 18 head coaches who were hired for their jobs prior to the 2008 season. In fact, Pelini is one of only six coaches in the group of 18 still in the job they were hired for prior to the 2008 season.
- » Pelini has guided Nebraska to at least a share of a divisional title in four of his first five seasons on the Husker sideline.

"Coach Pelini and the rest of the coaching staff didn't promise me playing time or anything in the recruiting process. They said if I came to the university, worked hard, and did as they said then I would have the opportunity to do good things. That's what I loved about the coaches. They were genuine, hard-nosed and held high expectations for everybody."

or more than a century, the legacy of Nebraska Football has been growing. From its humble beginning in 1890 – when two games made an entire schedule – to 2013, where an established, nationally prominent program enjoys a rich history of success, Nebraska's student-athletes have entertained and excelled on all levels. Five national championships and 43 conference titles highlight the accomplishments of one of college football's most storied programs. There have been Heisman winners and Outland Trophy recipients, a nation-leading number of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, a strong tradition of success in the classroom and many professional football stars. But underlying all of the countless accolades is a football family that does not rely on wins and losses as the final indicator of excellence. Nebraska football is much more than talented athletes and coaches taking the field to play a game – it is a family. The fans, support staff and student-athletes all Integrity, Trust, Respect, Teamwork and Loyalty. It is this commitment on and off the field that makes Nebraska unique and assures that the rich tradition of the Huskers will keep growing for years to come.

Nebraska started the new millennium the same way it ended the last - among the nation's elite. In the 1980s and 1990s, Nebraska became the first team in the history of Division I football to post 100 wins in back-to-back decades. Since the start of the 1970s, Nebraska has posted the best record of any Division I team (413-108-5). That outstanding tradition began with Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne and continues in 2013 with Coach Bo Pelini.

- » Nebraska is one of just eight schools with a .700 winning percentage or better
- » Eight Huskers have won a nation-leading nine Outland Trophies
- » Since 1960, 78 Huskers have earned first-team All-America honors
- » Over the last 16 seasons, Nebraska is second among Big Ten Conference schools with 78 players chosen in the NFL Draft
- » The Huskers have won 34 conference titles outright and shared another nine crowns
- » Nebraska has played on television more than 310 times in the last 60 years

Few college athletic programs can boast the national championship resume of Nebraska football. Since 1970, Nebraska has won more games than any other team in the country, captured five national championships and played for a national title in a bowl game on four other occasions. The Huskers are one of only three college football teams to win at least five national championships since 1970, and one of only seven to capture at least three titles.

One of the "Cathedrals of College Football" according to the Sporting News, Memorial Stadium is one of the most historic and imposing locations to play in all of sports

Memorial Stadium is routinely ranked among the top 10 stadiums in all of college football. Memorial Stadium continues to grow as construction is completed for a project that added another 5,000 seats in time for the 2013 season, and push average attendance past the 90,000 mark.

While the stadium continues to expand, Nebraska has continued its NCAA-record streak of 325 consecutive sellouts that dates back to 1962. During the sellout streak, Nebraska has recorded a 282-43 record, including a 147-20 mark during the last 24 seasons. Nebraska was 7-0 at home in 2012.

Memorial Stadium is one of the most historic venues in all of college football. The stadium opened in 1923 and while maintaining its traditional charm, it has continued to evolve.

Construction is complete on East Stadium renovation at bottom). addition will push Nebraska's average attendance beyond 90,000. While adding more than 6,000 seats the addition will preserve the rich tradition and history of the original architecture Memorial Stadium. In addition to new public seating and suites, the East Stadium addition will also provide improved fan amenities. The East Stadium will also house approximately 50,000 square feet of research space in a joint effort between Athletics and Academics. The Nebraska Athletic Performance Lab will be on the north end of the facility and will be run by the Athletic Department, while the south end will house the Center for Brain. Biology and Behavior.

Memorial Stadium has been one of the more high-tech stadiums in college football since the addition of HuskerVision screens in 1994 (HuskerVision board pictured at bottom left). Memorial Stadium features five replay boards, including a mammoth screen atop the North Stadium (pictured at left). Nearly every fan in the stadium has a clear view of a HuskerVision screen. In 2009, the facades of the East and West balconies added ribbon boards, further adding to the fan experience at one of the nation's best sporting venues.

The home of five national championship football teams, Nebraska provides its players with every tool needed to be successful. The primary home for the football team is its locker room, which ranks among the most impressive in the country.

Each locker is made of solid maple and features a convenient storage system for equipment and is also customized with an iPad. The lockers are hand-made and custom designed with individual electronic security locks and a unique ventilation system that pulls air through and out of the locker.

The design of the locker room (below) allows each athlete to have a greater amount of space and personal storage while providing a convenient location next to the equipment room. The locker room received additional upgrades as part of Ndamukong Suh's generous donation to the athletic department including iPads at each locker and underwent additional upgrades this summer.

The Hawks Championship Indoor Center (middle left) opened for the football team during spring practice in 2006. The magnificent facility features FieldTurf identical to Memorial Stadium's surface. The field also opens onto the practice fields of the Ed and Joyanne Gass Practice Facility (bottom right), which includes one grass field and one field that was converted to FieldTurf in the summer of 2010. The indoor center is connected by a skybridge to the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex to give Nebraska the best all-around football facilities in the nation.

Nebraska's meeting space more than doubled with the completion of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex in 2006. The large team room (middle right) provides space for nearly 160 people and allows coaches to utilize the most advanced technology as it is equipped with theatre-quality sound and video systems.

The team meeting room is one of several teaching areas on the football floor, as each position coach has a meeting room (top right) directly across the hall from his office. Players and coaches each have more space to view game or practice video, giving them a greater edge in preparing for competition. Players also have a players lounge (upper right) to enjoy during their down time. The lounge is located on the football office floor and includes the latest technology while also paying tribute to Nebraska's current and past NFL success.

Nebraska's rich tradition and history of success is on display throughout Memorial Stadium (above and lower left). In addition to a national championship trophy display on the football floor, the Nebraska Football Experience Room in the Osborne Complex highlights the Huskers' three Heisman Trophy winners.

BUILDING THE COMPLETE FOOTBALL PLAYER

The University of Nebraska football strength and conditioning staff is committed to helping each student-athlete reach his physical potential through a comprehensive approach to developing the complete football player. Through individual assessment and program design, it is our objective to increase the athletic performance of each individual athlete while reducing the risk of injury.

STRENGTH STAFF

The football strength and conditioning staff consists of five full-time coaches whose sole purpose is to train the football student-athlete. The student-athlete has a 4-5 year window to reach his potential both physically and as a football player. To do so requires the daily individual attention and interaction with the strength and conditioning staff to ensure each athlete is on the path to success.

We are committed to training the complete football player, aiming to ensure that each athlete reaches his potential. It is our job to create an atmosphere that will promote an increase in both mental and physical performance while reducing the risk of injury. Individual program design is essential in order to completely develop an athlete. Every athlete is different; every athlete has his own genetic profile, medical history and training history. We will evaluate each athlete when he comes to the University of Nebraska. It all starts with an initial physical assessment that includes evaluating the areas of strength, performance and function. When the data is collected and interpreted, a program will be designed to address the individual demands of the athlete.

COMPONENTS OF A SOUND TRAINING PROGRAM RESISTANCE TRAINING

The resistance training programs are individually designed and are focused on ground-based, three-dimensional, multi-joint movements. Ground-based exercises are done with the athlete's feet on the ground. Performing exercises with the feet on the ground mimics the athletic movements performed in football.

Three-dimensional movements are performed in all three planes of movement: side to side, up and down, and forward and backward. To accomplish this, the athlete must use free weights. Free weights will develop not only the primary muscles, but the stabilizing muscles as well.

Multi-joint exercises require the body to simultaneously move multiple joints in a coordinated effort in order to produce athletic movements.

Explosive training is essential for the game of football. The body's ability to apply force quickly will determine the athlete's success on the field. Explosive training takes the strength an athlete has and improves his ability to deliver that strength forcefully and rapidly.

CONDITIONING

It is important to condition like a football player. Football is a game that consists of short bursts of activity followed by a rest. It is important to follow this pattern when performing conditioning drills. Position-specific conditioning also needs to be addressed.

"This incredible facility helped me earn all the honors I was so privileged to receive while I was at Nebraska. When you combine the facility with Coach Dobson and his outstanding staff, there is not a better strength and conditioning program in the country."

> Ndamukong Suh Nebraska All-American (2009)

"The University of Nebraska's Athletic Department has a history of supporting its studentathletes. Nebraska is committed to providing the best facilities, equipment and atmosphere conducive to training."

> James Dobson, Head Football Strength Coach

SPEED TRAINING

The game of football is dominated by acceleration and agility and will be a focal point during speed training. Acceleration is the ability to get to top speed in the smallest amount of time possible. Acceleration is critical to the success of the football player. Agility is the ability to change direction without losing speed.

POSITION SPECIFIC TRAINING

It is important to address the specific demands each position requires to play football. Each athlete will undergo specific training sessions to address the skills and techniques needed to be successful at the position he plays. Position specific training will greatly enhance on-field performance.

THE INJURED ATHLETE

We have constant communication with the Athletic Medicine Staff in order to plan a successful training program to promote an athlete's prompt and safe return to competition.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL IN THE NFL

Nebraska owns one of the most impressive histories of any school with players in the National Football League. Over 300 former Huskers have represented Nebraska in the NFL. Over the past 17 years, Nebraska ranks second among all Big Ten Conference programs with 78 players chosen during the NFL Draft. The Huskers have been especially impressive with defensive players, with 50 former Huskers chosen since 1997.

As of June 20, Nebraska had 49 former players on NFL rosters, including 13 players with four or more years of experience and two with a decade of time in the league. Nebraska is represented on rosters of 21 of 32 NFL teams.

"I had a fantastic football career at Nebraska and thanks to my coaches and support staff, I have learned the value of hard work, teamwork and life skills."

HEISMAN TRADITION

HEISMAN TRADITION

Nebraska is a hotbed for exceptional athletes to earn national honors. In 2001, Nebraska quarterback Eric Crouch became Nebraska's third Heisman Trophy winner, while also taking home the Davey O'Brien Award and the Walter Camp Player-ofthe Year Award. Husker players have won a nation-leading nine Outland Trophies, five Lombardi Awards and three Heisman Trophies. In 2009, defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh became one of the nation's most decorated defensive players. Suh captured the Outland, Lombardi, Bronko Nagurski and Chuck Bednarik awards, while also being named the Associated Press College Player of the Year. He was also the first defensive lineman to be a finalist for the Heisman in 15 seasons and finished fourth in the voting for the award.

* Permanently retired numbers

Following the 1949 season, the N Club voted to retire jersey No. 60 in honor of Tom "Train Wreck" Novak's stellar career with the Cornhuskers. Novak, the first Nebraska player to earn this honor, had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice and a 1949 All-American.

For 55 years, Novak was the only NU player to have the distinction of a retired number. In 2004, that finally changed as College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Brown's No. 64 joined Novak's hallowed No. 60 among the only two permanently retired numbers at Nebraska. Brown, whose jersey retirement ceremony occurred in 2004.

All major national award winners at Nebraska automatically have their jerseys retired, but their numbers will still be available to active Huskers.

Nebraska's group of 17 players with retired jerseys certainly ranks among the best in the nation. Huskers who have earned the distinction of jersey retirement include three Heisman Trophy winners (Johnny Rodgers, Mike Rozier, Eric Crouch), eight Outland Trophy winners with nine awards (Larry Jacobson, Rich Glover, Dave Rimington (2), Dean Steinkuhler, Will Shields, Zach Wiegert, Aaron Taylor, Ndamukong Suh), five Lombardi Award winners (Rich Glover, Dave Rimington, Dean Steinkuhler, Grant Wistrom, Ndamukong Suh), one Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award winner (Tommie Frazier), one Davey O'Brien Award winner (Crouch), one Butkus Award winner (Trev Alberts) one Rimington Trophy winner (Dominic Raiola), one Bednarik Award Winner (Ndamukong Suh) and one Nagurski trophy

In 2009, Ndamukong Suh (top) earned his spot alongside the Cornhusker legends of the past. Suh won the Outland Trophy, the Rotary Lombardi Award, the Chuck Bednarik Award and the Bronko Nagurski Trophy. He was also named the Associated Press College Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy. Suh became the 17th player in Husker history to have his jersey retired when his No. 93 was retired on Nov. 26, 2010.

The 17 Huskers to have their jerseys retired combined for 23 All-America awards and seven are members of the College Football Hall of Fame.

The names and numbers of players with retired jerseys are all displayed directly below the HuskerVision video screen on the north end of Memorial Stadium.

The holiday plans of Nebraska football teams and thousands of Husker fans have traditionally included travel to a bowl game. Nebraska has participated in 49 bowls in the history of the program, including an NCAA-record 35 consecutive bowls from 1969 to 2003. The Huskers have won 10 bowl games since 1995, including three victories in national championship games.

HUSKER BOWL FACTS

- » Nebraska ranks tied for third all-time with 49 bowl appearances in the history of the program.
- » Nebraska owns 24 all-time bowl victories, including 10 wins in its last 17 bowl games.
- » Coach Bo Pelini is 3-3 in bowl games at Nebraska, including a 17-3 win over Michigan State as the interim head coach in the 2003 Alamo Bowl. In 2009, Pelini led the Huskers to their first bowl game shutout in school history with a 33-0 win against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl.
- » During the past 28 seasons, Nebraska has played in nine Orange Bowls, five Fiesta Bowls, two Sugar Bowls and one Rose Bowl.
- » The Huskers have played a top-five team in 16 of their last 25 bowl games.
- » Nebraska has appeared in 14 different bowl games. The Huskers earned their first-ever bowl bid to the 1941 Rose Bowl.

Nebraska enjoyed a fun-filled week in Orlando during its trip to the 2013 Capital One Bowl. In addition to preparing for the game, the Huskers enjoyed time at Disney World, DisneyQuest Experience and Universal Studios. The Huskers also had a chance to visit SeaWorld, as well as attend an Orlando Magic game and the Russell Athletic Bowl. Nebraska also participated in several bowl-related activities, including a pep rally and luncheon. One of the highlights of the trip was the players' Best Buy shopping spree as part of their bowl gift package.

The images on this page represent the bowl program covers from each of Nebraska's 49 all-time bowl games. The Huskers' rich bowl tradition dates back 73 years to their first bowl appearance in the 1941 Rose Bowl. Nebraska made its first of 17 Orange Bowl appearances in 1955. The Huskers have won four national championships in Miami, including their most recent title in the 1998 game. Nebraska added a national title in the 1996 Fiesta Bowl, one of six trips to Arizona. In Coach Bo Pelini's five years at Nebraska, the Huskers have played bowl games in Florida and California.

Nebraska football is among the most recognized college programs in the nation. Television, newspapers, magazines, radio, and the Internet keep Nebraska in the national spotlight. Nebraska has been a regular stop for ESPN's College GameDay, most recently hosting the show for the USC weekend in 2007.

NEBRASKA IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Nebraska, which had all 14 games televised in 2012, has averaged more than eight television appearances per year since 1980. The Huskers' TV exposure increased with the addition of the Big Ten Network in 2011-12. The Big Ten Conference media agreements ensure that every Nebraska football game will be televised.

BTN is on the air 24 hours per day, 365 days a year. The network annually televises nearly 400 live events and streams an additional 300 plus events. Each year's schedule is comprised of approximately 40-45 football games. Every BTN football game telecast is surrounded by Big Ten Football Saturday, the network's pre-game, halftime and post-game show hosted by Dave Revsine and analysts Gerry DiNardo and Howard Griffith. In addition to live events in all sports, the network also airs numerous studio shows and classic games.

Nebraska football can be heard statewide and across the nation on the IMG Husker Sports Network. The games can also be heard on Sirius Satellite Radio and live worldwide on the Internet at Huskers.com. Approximately four million fans per month visit Huskers. com during football season.

Nebraska football has been a fixture on national television for more than 50 years, since being featured on the first-ever television broadcast of a college game by NBC on Sept. 19, 1953. Since then, the Huskers have played on TV 331 more times, including 156 appearances on ABC.

The Huskers are also often in the spotlight in the postseason, enjoying national recognition for the many bowls Nebraska has competed in recently, such as the Capital One Bowl in 2013, televised to a national audience on ABC.

Nebraska has ended the season ranked among the Associated Press Top 25 in 38 of the past 43 seasons.

"You always want to play your best, no matter who you're playing. That's why you come to Nebraska — to play in big bowl games, championship games, nationally televised games."

On July 1, 2011, the University of Nebraska became an official member of the Big Ten Conference, increasing the Big Ten's membership to 12 institutions for the first time in conference history. The addition of Nebraska marked the Big Ten's first expansion since Penn State University joined the conference in June of 1990. The Big Ten Conference is a union of 12 world-class academic institutions – who share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. The conference's 100-plus years of history, strong tradition of competitive intercollegiate athletic programs, vast and passionate alumni base, and consistent leadership in innovations position the Big Ten and its entire community firmly on the Big Stage.

The Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness in all aspects of its student-athletes' lives, with the ultimate goal of ensuring that each individual has the opportunity to live a Big Life.

The Big Ten will expand to 14 teams on July 1, 2014, with the addition of the University of Maryland and Rutgers University.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- » Big Ten universities provide approximately $136 million in direct financial aid to nearly 10,000  $men \, and \, women \, student-athletes \, who \, compete \, for \, 25 \, champions hips. \, Hockey \, will \, become$ the Big Ten's 26th official conference championship during the 2013-14 academic year.
- » Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with 299 teams. Other than the lyv League, the Big Ten has the most broad-based athletic programs in the United States.
- » Big Ten fans are some of the nation's most supportive, with nearly 10 million patrons attending conference home contests for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball during 2012-13. In 2012, the Big Ten set new records for overall football attendance and surpassed the six-million mark for all games for the first time. During the 2012-13 season, the Big Ten led the nation in men's basketball and volleyball attendance, while ranking second nationally in football.
- » Over the last 34 seasons, the conference has ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 nationally in football, men's basketball and wrestling attendance.

- » The Big Ten leads all conferences with more than 4.5 million living alumni and 320,000 undergraduate students
- » Based on the U.S. Census projected population for 2010, the nine-state Big Ten region accounts for approximately 70 million people, which ranks second only to the Big East and well ahead of the ACC, SEC, Pac-12 and Big 12.

FOOTBALL FACTS

- » Nebraska competes in the Legends Division, which includes Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota and Northwestern, while the Leaders Division includes Illinois, Indiana, Ohio State, Penn State, Purdue and Wisconsin.
- » Including Nebraska (856 wins), three of the seven schools with at least 800 all-time wins are members of the Big Ten. Other Big Ten schools with 800 wins include Michigan (903) and Ohio State (837). Since 1970, Nebraska leads the nation with 422 wins, while Michigan ranks third with 386 wins and Ohio State is fourth with 384 wins.
- » The Big Ten leads all conferences with 25 BCS berths and ranks second with 11 BCS wins. » In the 34 seasons the NCAA has tracked attendance, the Big Ten led the nation 15 times.
- » Seven Big Ten teams averaged more than 70,000 fans per home game during the 2012 season, including Nebraska, Michigan, Penn State, Ohio State, Wisconsin, Michigan State and Iowa.

ABOUT BIG TEN FOOTBALL IN 2012

- » The Big Ten had 10 players selected to various All-America teams during the 2012 season, including Nebraska's Spencer Long, who was a second-team selection by the AP and Walter Camp Foundation.
- » The Big Ten led all conferences in Capital One Academic All-Americans in 2012 with nine, including Husker standouts Rex Burkhead and Sean Fisher.
- » Seven Big Ten squads made bowl appearances in 2012, marking the 14th consecutive season that at least six teams reached postseason play.
- » A total of six teams received votes in the final Associated Press and USA Today coaches polls, including four teams that finished in the top 25. The Big Ten and SEC were the only conferences in 2012 with at least four teams ranked in the final top 25.

-IISTORIC CONFERENCE

» More than 5.8 million fans watched Big Ten football in 2012, the second-highest total in conference history. In all, seven of the conference's 12 teams ranked in the top 21 nationally in total attendance during the 2012 season.

BIG TEN NETWORK

Headquartered in Chicago, the Big Ten Network is the first internationally distributed television network dedicated to covering one of America's premier collegiate conferences. With more than 400 live sports events, and virtually all of them in high definition, the Big Ten Network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country. The network is on the air 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

The network is available to an estimated 80 million households, through agreements with more than 300 cable/satellite affiliates.

In 2012, every Big Ten home football game was nationally televised. Including road and neutral games, 99 percent (95 of 96) of Big Ten games were televised nationally and the other road game appeared on ESPN3.com

BIG TEN NETWORK FACTS - MORE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

- » The Big Ten's media agreements with CBS, ABC/ESPN, Fox and BTN provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever.
- » In 2006, the Big Ten created the first national conference-owned television network devoted to the athletic and academic programs of a single conference. The Big Ten Network launched on Aug. 30, 2007, and became the first new network in cable or satellite television history to reach 30 million homes in its first 30 days.
- » Since the current media agreements began in 2007-08, every home football and men's basketball game has been produced while women's basketball has received more coverage than any other conference.
- » The Big Ten's new media agreements have resulted in the broadcast of nearly 1,000 events nationally and regionally on an annual basis, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

GAME DAY ATMO

"I'll tell you the biggest difference between the state of Nebraska and any other state in football. I think the fan's loyalty, the noise factor that's on the field and the Sea of Red when you look out." "After the game, I've never heard so many positive people walking off the field. They were congratulating them on a great game, for playing hard, telling our guys good luck and that's the type of atmosphere that is great."

Brent Musburger ESPN/ABC Commentator

Pat Hill former Fresno State Head Coach

Nebraska fans are perhaps the most loyal in college football. The entire state follows the Huskers, along with an ever-growing national fan base, packing Memorial Stadium for every game since 1962. On Sept. 26, 2009, Nebraska fans added another chapter to their rich history by celebrating the 300th consecutive sellout of Memorial Stadium. The Big Red faithful packed a single-game record 86,304 fans into the historic venue for Nebraska's 55-0 win over Louisiana-Lafayette. Nebraska has extended its NCAA record sellout streak to 325 as it enters the 2013 season, and NU celebrated 50 years of sellouts in 2012.

Husker fans bring their show on the road as well. More than 60,000 red-clad Huskers trekked to Pasadena for the 2002 Rose Bowl, and in 2001, more than 30,000 Huskers swarmed South Bend for a matchup with Notre Dame. In 2006, the Husker Nation again outdid itself as nearly 30,000 Nebraska fans descended on the Coliseum in Los Angeles to watch the Husker contest with USC. Opposing stadiums throughout Big Ten Country began to see the invasion of red-clad Husker fans in 2011, including more than 15,000 Nebraska fans at Wisconsin.

Every entrance at Memorial Stadium welcomes Husker fans with the following phrase:

"Through these gates pass the Greatest Fans in College Football."

In 2012, Nebraska had a season-ticket holder from 49 of the 50 states.

"I think Nebraska fans are the greatest fans in college football, no question in my mind. The enthusiasm here is as good as any place, but the integrity here of the fans is the best in America."

Family. It is a word that is synonymous with Nebraska Football. No one takes more pride in the Nebraska football program than its former players.

Head Coach Bo Pelini and his staff have made embracing the tradition of the storied Husker program a priority over the past five years. Pelini and his coaching staff have made a strong effort to connect with former players through a series of activities.

CORNHUSKERS FROM COAST TO COAST

The family atmosphere of the Nebraska football program brings together players from all across the country. The Huskers have always taken a national approach to recruiting and the family setting in Lincoln makes players from all corners of the United States feel at home.

The 2013 Nebraska roster has players from 24 states, plus Canada, including 55 homegrown Huskers. Next on the list is Texas with 19 players on the Cornhusker roster. Nebraska's roster includes at least five players each from six additional states. Nebraska has signed players from 19 states and Canada in its last two recruiting classes.

In the history of the program, Nebraska's 96 football All-Americans hail from 24 states and the District of Columbia. Homegrown Cornhuskers have accounted for 38 of Nebraska's All-Americans.

All time, Nebraska football letterwinners have come from 45 states, Washington D.C. and six foreign countries (Australia, Canada, Finland, Korea, Germany, Mexico).

The success of Nebraska student-athletes reaches far beyond athletic competition. More Husker student-athletes have been selected to CoSIDA Academic All-America teams (307) than any other school in the nation, and Nebraska has produced more NCAA Top Ten Award winners (16) than any other school. As it enters its third season of Big Ten Conference competition in 2013-14 Nebraska continues to set the standard for the approximately 1.400 NCAA member institutions.

The Husker football team leads all individual sport programs in the nation with 104 all-time CoSIDA Academic All-America awards. The Notre Dame football program ranks second among all sports nationally with 58 all-time academic All-Americans. In fact, Nebraska's 104 football academic All-Americans would rank among the top 25 schools (all sports, all divisions) in the nation in the number of total CoSIDA Academic All-Americans. The NU volleyball program has captured more academic All-America awards (37) than any other women's team in the nation, while the Husker softball program ranks second on that list with 29 selections. Nebraska also ranks among the top 10 schools in the nation in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in baseball, women's basketball and men's and women's track and field/cross country. Over the past two years, the men's and women's track and field programs have produced 10 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans - the most in the nation during that span

HUSKERS BUILD ON ACADEMIC TRADITION IN 2012-13

Husker student-athletes produced another outstanding year in 2012-13, continuing NU's tradition of academic success. The Huskers added eight CoSIDA Academic All-Americans to their nation-leading total (307) to become the first school in history to reach 300 academic All-Americans. Nebraska's eight academic All-Americans led the Big Ten Conference and ranked among the highest totals in the nation across all divisions. NU maintained its lead of 76 all-time CoSIDA Academic All-Americans over No. 2 Notre Dame. Since 2000, Nebraska has amassed a nation-leading 117 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, which would rank in a tie for 13th over the more than 60 years of the academic All-America program. Nebraska has produced at least one academic All-American in 42 consecutive seasons.

Senior I-back Rex Burkhead captured first-team academic All-America honors for the second straight season, while senior linebacker Sean Fisher earned second-team honors for the second straight year. Fisher added a prestigious NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship.

While Burkhead and Fisher became the 25th and 26th two-time academic All-Americans in the history of the Husker football program, senior track and field student-athlete Bjorn Barrefors became the first four-time CoSIDA Academic All-American in school history. A six-time All-American as a multi-eventer, Barrefors was Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete of the Year and claimed an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. He was joined by 10-time All-American Mara Griva and Morgan Wilken in giving the track team a trio of academic All-Americans. All-America wrestler Josh Ihnen added his second straight academic All-America award, while eight-time gymnastics All-American Emily Wong captured the first academic All-America award of her career.

Gina Mancuso added a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America award to the Husker volleyball team's nation-leading total of 37, while helping the Huskers to an NCAA Elite Eight appearance on the court.

Senior Mary Weatherholt also capped the most brilliant career on and off the court in Nebraska women's tennis history. NU's Female Student-Athlete of the Year earned All-America honors in both singles and doubles, while finishing as the runner-up at the NCAA Singles Championship. She added an Elite Eight finish with teammate Patricia Veresova at the NCAA Doubles Championship, after leading the Huskers to their first-ever NCAA Sweet 16 as a team. For her performances on the court, in the classroom and in the community, Weatherholt claimed the ITA/Cissie Leary National Award for Sportsmanship, one of the top honors in collegiate tennis.

In addition to Nebraska's continued success in creating CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, the Huskers produced a record 705 Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selections during the fall and spring semesters of 2012-13. A total of 188 Huskers were honored as academic All-Big Ten recipients, while 105 NU student-athletes earned degrees in 2012-13.

Burkhead was a two-time first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American and the captain of the AFCA Good Works team in 2012. Following his career, Burkhead was selected in the sixth round of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

HUSKERS.COM

From the day student-athletes decide the University of Nebraska is the right place to be, the athletic academic counseling unit provides personal and academic support to ensure that student-athletes will get the most out of their years as Huskers. Featuring one of the most innovative and comprehensive academic support systems in the country, Nebraska is dedicated to helping its student-athletes become outstanding leaders in their chosen fields. The academic support team is comprised of 13 full-time staff members and a tutorial staff of approximately 75 tutors addressing all subject areas.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Eight academic counselors and three assistant academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor continuing eligibility and progress toward graduation. Essentially, academic counselors assist student-athletes in navigating the University of Nebraska system.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support is available from day one up to college graduation. Subject and mentor tutors help provide academic support and study strategies to be successful. Supplemental Instruction, a sub-component of the tutorial program, provides targeted group review sessions to help ease the transition to college academics while improving study strategies and building academic self-esteem.

STUDY HALL

Nebraska's study hall program is housed in the D.J. Sokol Enrichment Center within the Student Life Complex. Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall that features day, evening and weekend hours. Each student-athlete is required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. In addition, weekly study hall reports are provided to the coaching staff. Additional performancebased or tutor-based study hall may also be determined by the academic counselor.

MENTORING

Many student-athletes meet with a mentor on a weekly basis to assist in making a smooth transition from high school to college. Mentors collect syllabi, gather and report academic progress information and teach academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach to determine student strengths and areas for improvement. Results allow academic counselors to develop a personalized academic support program and to determine if more in-depth testing is warranted. When additional assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting psychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined that a student-athlete has a learning disability, appropriate accommodations are made through the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION

The academic staff coordinates New Student-Athlete Orientation to help newcomers adjust to the multiple demands of being a college student-athlete. Presentations are made by academic counselors, compliance officials, NU faculty and administrators, business/ community professionals and student-athletes.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES

Student-athletes enjoy a new state-of-the art computer lab and technology center with 58computers and professional supervision. Laptops are also available during team travel. Studentathletes have the benefit of ongoing education and assistance from a full-time computer technician.

Top: Columns in the Hewit and Boekel Academic Center display the names of every Husker studentathlete who has lettered in a varsity sport and graduated from the University of Nebraska, while portraits honor each of Nebraska's nation-leading CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

The Nebraska Life Skills program is committed to providing proactive education, resources and support throughout college and beyond, best preparing Husker student-athletes for life after sports. Services foster transition, retention, responsible decision-making, leadership, volunteerism and career development.

Nebraska has long been considered a pioneer in life skills support and programming. In 1998, Nebraska was one of five Division I schools nationally to win the prestigious Program of Excellence Award recognizing a strong commitment to total person development. In 2005, Keith Zimmer, Associate A.D. for Life Skills, was the recipient of the Dr. Gene Hooks Award recognizing him as the top life skills administrator in the country

LIFE SKILLS COMPONENTS PROACTIVE EDUCATION

Husker Life Seminar – All incoming student-athletes complete a 13-week fall semester seminar addressing a variety of life skills topics ranging from leadership to money to relationships and study skills. Team Workshops – Campus and community experts facilitate team-specific life skills education workshops. Student-Athlete Assemblies – Meetings featuring remarks from Athletic Director Tom Osborne and nationally recognized life skills trainers.

PERSONALIZED SUPPORT/INDIVIDUAL SESSIONS

Resume Development – Each student-athlete is assigned a Life Skills counselor who assists in the creation of a personalized resume for the student-athlete. Periodic follow-up meetings will take place through graduation to ensure a well-rounded college experience and marketability to realize career goals.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Nebraska student-athletes combine to impact over 100,000 people statewide on an annual basis. Team Service Requirement – Each team participates in a minimum of two service projects per year. School Outreach – Individuals participate in numerous school outreach campaigns in both classroom and assembly settings. Hospital Visits – Huskers are frequent hospital visitors providing cheer and encouragement to a variety of patients. Miscellaneous Outreach – Outreach requests are received daily from the entire state requesting involvement from Husker student-athletes. Mentoring Programs – Typically requires one hour of service per week serving as a youth mentor.

LEADERSHIP/CITIZENSHIP

Life Skills promotes leadership development and provides recognition opportunities for extraordinary citizenship. Student-Athlete Advisory Committee – Elected team representatives from each of the 24 sports serve as the "voice" of the entire student-athlete population discussing student-athlete welfare, legislation and service events. HERO Leadership Award – Individual recognition to Huskers who have consistently gone above and beyond serving as an exemplary role-model. Heart and Soul Award – Presented annually to the top senior student-athlete leaders for extraordinary service throughout their college careers. Brook Berringer Citizenship Team – Annual "Good Works" team honoring football players for dedicated service in memory of late Husker Brook Berringer. Nebraska Football Uplifting Athletes - A newly recognized UNL student organization initiated in 2012, Nebraska football players and UNL student leaders work collaboratively to raise funds and awareness for those with rare diseases. Nebraska running back Rex Burkhead was named the 2012 recipient of the National Rare Disease Champion Award for his mentoring of Jack Hoffman. Life Skills Award of Excellence – Presented to the single men's and women's team with the highest point total in the life skills team competition.

CAREER COMMITMENT

In addition to the creation of a personalized resume and game plan, the following career resources are available to every Husker. Student-Athlete Career Fair — Attended by approximately 25 companies. Networking Night — Former Husker student-athletes and other professionals thriving in their chosen career fields share valuable insights with sophomore student-athletes. Assessments — On-line assessments to help individuals discover talents and match with a major and career. Practical Experience — Programs in place to facilitate shadowing and internship placements. Job Preparation — Expert advice on cover letter writing, interviewing skills and evaluating the job offer.

POSTGRADUATE ASSISTANCE

Commitment to helping student-athletes pursue postgraduate plans and scholarships. Career Nights – Learn from the experts to gain valuable insight on timelines, application procedures, entrance requirements, personal essays and more. Scholarships – Seniors in their final season of athletic eligibility can apply for numerous postgraduate awards.

Top: An excellent student, Brook Berringer graduated in 1995 with a degree in business administration. He was expected to be selected in the 1996 NFL Draft, but was killed in a plane crash on April 18, 1996. As a result of Berringer's extensive community service effort, the Nebraska football program established the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team honoring current Huskers for consistent and dedicated community service.

The Hydroworx 1000 Treadmill Pool is equipped with two cameras underwater for evaluation and assessment, while hot and cold plunge tanks are also available to the Huskers.

Nebraska's medical facilities have long been among the nation's best, and NU's athletic medicine center within the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will keep the Huskers on the front line of technology for decades to come. In addition to Nebraska's North Stadium facility, Haymarket Park and the Bob Devaney Sports Center all feature athletic medicine areas. The Devaney Center's Athletic Medicine facility underwent an extensive expansion as part of the Hendricks Training Complex addition in 2011.

ALL-SPORT FACILITIES

Nebraska's top facilities are not limited to the footballl program. Nearly every Husker sport enjoys a venue that ranks among the nation's best. Nebraska provides its student-athletes top-notch game-day and practice atmospheres in every sport. In 2013-14, the Nebraska men's and women's basketball programs will move into the Haymarket and play at the new Pinnacle Bank Arena. Volleyball, wrestling and men's and women's gymnastics will compete in the newly renovated Devaney Center.

The volleyball team will move from the NU Coliseum to a renovated Devaney Center for the 2013 season.

Nebraska's track and field team competes at Devaney Center Indoor Track, one of the nation's premier venues.

Bowlin Stadium is home to Nebraska's softball team, which made a run to the Women's College World Series in 2013. The Huskers set a record for the World's Largest Tailgate at a softball game in 2012 and then broke the record in 2013.

Nebraska added sand volleyball in 2013, its 24th varsity sport.

Bottom right: Memorial Stadium's capacity will grow to nearly 90,000 in 2013 with the completion of the East Stadium Expansion Project. The East Stadium will also house approximately 50,000 square feet of research space in a joint effort between Athletics and Academics. The Nebraska Athletic Performance Lab will be on the north end of the facility and will be run by the Athletic Department, while the south end will house the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior.

One of the nation's premier athletic programs, Nebraska is dedicated to and successful in all 24 of its varsity sports. Nebraska has won a total of 25 team national championships since 1970, including five football titles, eight men's gymnastics championships, six bowling crowns, three volleyball titles and three women's track and field championships. In 2012-13, 12 Husker teams finished among the top 25 in their respective sports, including the Nebraska football team which posted its fifth straight nine-win season.

The Husker football team also led a list of 11 Husker squads that advanced to NCAA postseason competition in 2012-13, as Bo Pelini's team made a New Year's Day appearance in the 2013 Capital One Bowl. The national power Husker bowling team won its sixth national championship with a victory over top-ranked Vanderbilt. The NU softball team made its seventh trip to the Women's College World Series with a Super Regional win over No. 3 Oregon and finished the season ranked eighth in the final polls, its highest finish since 2002 when the Huskers were sixth. The women's basketball team made its second NCAA Sweet 16 trip in four years, while the women's tennis made its first-ever NCAA Sweet 16 appearance. Nebraska's volleyball team was one win away from reaching the Final Four, reaching the Sweet 16 for the 29th time in 31 seasons. During their first season of sand volleyball in the spring, the Huskers finished the year ranked seventh. Nebraska's wrestling team was one of six Big Ten teams to finish in the top 15 at the NCAA Championships, with the Huskers finishing 13th. The NU men's track and field team won its first Big Ten title in 2013 at the conference outdoor meet and then contributed a tie for 15th at the NCAA Outdoor Championships - its second straight top-15 finish. The rifle team finished seventh at the NCAA Championships and doubled its win total from 2012 under first-year Head Coach Stacy Underwood, while the men's gymnastics team finished 11th at the NCAA Championships.

With just one senior on the 2013 team, Nebraska's bowling team captured its fourth national title in the past 10 seasons. After taking its program to new heights in 2012, the NU women's tennis team was even better in 2013. The Huskers won their first Big Ten title, and not only qualified for their NCAA Championships for the fourth-straight year and the Huskers were selected as a women's tennis regional site for the first time in school history. Along with a trip to the Women's College World Series and a 45-win season, the fifth-most in school history, the softball team hosted a regional at Bowlin Stadium for the fifth time since the park opened in 2002. The Husker women's basketball team ran to the secondhighest win total in school history with 25 victories, while also finishing second in the Big Ten with a 12-4 conference mark.

Individual success also highlighted a stellar 2012-13 for Nebraska Athletics. On the gridiron, Spencer Long was named a second-team All-American, marking the fourth-straight year that Nebraska has had either a first or second-team All-America selection. Mary Weatherholt rewrote Nebraska women's tennis history, as the fifth-year senior finished runner-up to defending champion NCAA champion Nicole Gibbs. After clinching Nebraska's bowling team national title, Kristina Mickelson won the X-Bowling Intercollegiate Singles title. Chad Wright nearly claimed a second straight national championship in the men's discus, with his personal-best throw of 209-1 resulting in a runner-up finish. Overall in 2012-13, 37 Husker student-athletes combined to capture 53 All-America awards across all sports. As a testament to Nebraska's national recruiting prowess, the All-Americans came to NU from 16 states and four foreign countries. The Cornhusker state showed its success in keeping the best and brightest of its future leaders at home, as nine All-Americans came from the state of Nebraska.

All-American Mary Weatherholt had a historic run in the NCAA Singles Championship to cap her final year as a Husker. She stormed her way into the championship match with five straight wins before falling to two-time champion Nicole Gibbs of Stanford.

Top: Chad Wright won the shot put at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships and then finished second in the discus at the NCAA Outdoor Championships after winning the NCAA discus title in 2012.

Bottom: The Nebraska men's track and field team captured the 2013 Bia Ten Outdoor title. It was the 105th conference title in program history and Head Coach Gary Pepin's 69th conference title dating back to his first Big Eight win in 1981.

One of the nation's elite coaches, Bo Pelini is one of only three current college coaches who have won at least nine games in each of the past five years. Pelini is also the nation's only coach to lead his team to a conference title game three times in the past four seasons.

But Pelini isn't focused on his individual accomplishments. His focus is on the team and the process. Pelini's process is working, as he has won at least nine games in each of his first five seasons on the Husker sideline, including three 10-win seasons in the last four years. Among schools currently in a Bowl Championship Series automatic qualifying conference, Pelini is only the 11th head coach in college football history to win at least nine games in each of his first five seasons. Pelini is just the fourth first-time head coach to lead a BCS conference school to nine wins in each of his first five seasons. Nebraska, Alabama, Boise State and Oregon are the only four programs to win at least nine games each of the past five seasons.

The 45-year old Pelini's 48 wins in his first five full seasons rank as the 15th-most among major college head coaches in college football history, according to NCAA records. Pelini is also the most successful coach in the hiring class of 2008, owning more victories than any of the other 18 head coaches who were hired for their jobs beginning with the 2008 season. Pelini has also captured at least a share of the conference divisional title in four of his first five seasons, taking the Huskers to three conference championship games the past four seasons, after inheriting a Nebraska team that finished 5-7 in the season before his arrival.

With five straight nine-win seasons to open his head coaching career, Pelini joins Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne as the only Husker coaches to accomplish that feat. Pelini has also put himself in an elite group of BCS Conference coaches.

Pelini guided Nebraska to a 10-4 mark in 2012 against the nation's fifth-toughest schedule, according to the NCAA. Pelini's 48 wins in his first five full seasons are just one victory shy of Frank Solich's mark for the most wins ever by a Husker coach in his first five seasons. Pelini's first victory in 2013 will be his 50th overall victory at Nebraska, including a win as interim head coach for the 2003 Alamo Bowl.

As a testament to Pelini's process, Nebraska excelled in close games in 2012. The Huskers were 5-1 in games decided by fewer than 10 points. His team showed great resiliency to rally from second-half deficits in five of its seven Big Ten victories. Included in those totals are rallies from a 17-point second-half deficit against Wisconsin, a 12-point fourth-quarter deficit at Northwestern, a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit at Michigan State and a 14-point second-half deficit against Penn State. The Huskers also trailed lowa by one at halftime at Kinnick Stadium. The 12-point fourth-quarter rally at Northwestern tied for the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history and marked the second time a Pelini team had pulled off a 12-point fourth-quarter comeback.

The Huskers produced a 10-winseason in 2012, and saw five players earn first-team All-Big Ten honors. Quarterback Taylor Martinez and offensive guard Spencer Long were Nebraska's first-team all-conference selections by the league's coaches, while Long completed his journey from walk-on to All-American, earning second-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation. Joining Long as All-Big Ten honorees by the media were linebacker Eric Martin, safety Daimion Stafford and kicker Brett Maher.

In 2011, Pelini faced the challenge of preparing Nebraska for its first season in the Big Ten Conference. Pelini was up to the task, leading the Huskers to a 9-4 record. Nebraska faced one of the nation's most challenging schedules, highlighted by facing 11 new opponents. Four of Nebraska's eight conference foes were ranked at the time of the game, including the Huskers' 24-3 victory over No. 9 Michigan State that gave Nebraska a win over a top-10 opponent for the second straight season. In addition to the ranked teams, 10 of NU's 12 FBS opponents played in a bowl game. Lavonte David was chosen as a first-team All-American and the Big Ten Linebacker of the Year in 2011, and he also became just the fourth Husker to be named a finalist for the Butkus Award. David, who became only the fifth Blackshirt to post back-to-back 100-tackle seasons, was also a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award and the Lott Trophy. Despite playing only two seasons at Nebraska, David posted the fourth-highest tackle total in school history.

Fellow Blackshirt Alfonzo Dennard battled through injuries to earn the Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year award. David and Dennard's honors come on the heels of a Husker being named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in both the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

Maher was also named the Big Ten Punter and Place-kicker of the Year, becoming the first player to win both awards. Maher also became the first player to earn first-team All-Big Ten recognition as the punter and place-kicker in the same season since 2001. Maher earned the Bakken-Andersen Big Ten Kicker-of-the-Year Award again in 2012.

Pelini's leadership helped NU overcome the challenge of a new conference in 2011, while featuring a first-time offensive coordinator and four new assistant coaches. The Huskers also dealt with their share of injuries, among them playing without Dennard for the beginning of the year and losing 2010 All-American Jared Crick for the year in October.

In 2010, Pelini guided Nebraska to its third Big 12 North Division title in his three years as head coach in the conference. He is the only coach in Big 12 history to win at least a share of a divisional title in each of his first three seasons. NU finished with a 10-4 record, giving the Huskers consecutive 10-win seasons for the first time since 2000 and 2001.

During the Huskers' 2010 run, Pelini guided Nebraska to wins over ranked teams in back-to- back weeks knocking off Oklahoma State and Missouri in late October to take control of the Big 12 North. The victories marked the first time NU had defeated top-20 teams in consecutive games since 1999. The win at No. 17 Oklahoma State was the highest ranked team NU had defeated on the road since 1997, while the victory over seventh-ranked Missouri in Lincoln was the highest-ranked team NU had defeated in nine seasons.

Pelini's expertise has always been defense, and the 2010 Blackshirts reflected his defensive acumen. The Huskers ranked 11th nationally in total defense, after finishing seventh in that category in 2009. Nebraska also finished in the top 10 in pass efficiency defense, passing yards allowed and scoring defense for the second straight year in 2010. In 2009, Pelini guided Nebraska to a 10-4 record and the Big 12 North championship. The Huskers posted their first 10-win season in six years and were ranked No. 14 in both final national polls, NU's highest final ranking since 2001. NU fell just one point and one second short of its first Big 12 title in a decade, dropping a 13-12 decision to second-ranked Texas in the Big 12 Championship Game. Nebraska capped the year with a dominant 33-0 shutout of Arizona in the Holiday Bowl, giving Pelini the third of three straight bowl wins to open his head coaching career.

Nebraska's path to the conference title game was not an easy one. After a pair of disappointing October losses, Nebraska stood 4-3 overall and just 1-2 in Big 12 play. However, the Huskers reeled off five straight wins to end the regular season, including three road victories, and captured the division title by two games.

The Huskers' resurgence under Pelini has been due in large part to defensive improvement – Pelini's area of expertise. Combining statistics from the 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012 seasons, NU's defense ranks second nationally in pass efficiency defense, fourth in pass defense, 11th in scoring defense and 12th in total defense.

After ranking near the bottom of several Big 12 and national defensive categories in 2007, NU ascended to a position as one of the nation's most dominant defenses in 2009. Nebraska led the nation in scoring defense in 2009, allowing just 10.4 points per game, while pitching a pair of shutouts. The 10.4 points per game marked the lowest average allowed by Nebraska since the Blackshirts also led the nation by allowing 9.5 points per game in 1984. The 2009 season also marked the first time NU posted two shutouts since 2003 when Pelini served as defensive coordinator, and the 2009 Huskers held eight of 14 opponents to 10 or fewer points.

The Blackshirts also topped the pass efficiency defense and red zone defense lists and ranked in the top 10 nationally in sacks, rushing defense and total defense. The 272.0 yards per game allowed ranked as NU's best since 1999.

Under Pelini's guidance, defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh was one of the most decorated defensive players in college football history. The first defensive lineman to be a finalist for the Heisman Trophy in 15 seasons, Suh finished fourth in the voting. He was also the first defensive player to be named the Associated Press Player of the Year, and was a unanimous All-American. Suh's hardware included the Outland, Lombardi, Nagurski and Bednarik awards. The award-winning season for Suh came just two seasons after LSU defensive tackle Glenn Dorsey won three major national awards and was an All-American while Pelini served as LSU's defensive coordinator. Suh and Dorsey are the only players in the past 15 seasons to sweep the Nagurski and Bednarik awards.

Pelini guided the Huskers to a 9-4 record in 2008, capped by victories in the Huskers' final four games and six of the season's final seven contests. The late-season surge allowed Nebraska to earn a share of the Big 12 North championship, and the Huskers picked up their ninth win with a 26-21 come-frombehind victory over Clemson in the Konica Minolta Gator Bowl. The win was a fitting conclusion for a team that developed a toughness that was a direct extension of its head coach.

THE PELINI FAMILY

Pelini's nine wins were the most nationally among first-time head coaches in 2008. Nebraska won its final four games of 2008 to carry the longest winning streak into a season since 2000. The 6-1 run to close the year tied for the best by an NU team since 1997, and Nebraska won its final four games for just the second time since 1997. In fact, through four seasons, Pelini's Nebraska teams have a 15-7 record in games played on or after Nov. 1, including a 12-4 mark in regular-season contests.

The success under Pelini in 2008 was attributed to both sides of the football. The Husker offense continued to rank among the nation's best, finishing in the nation's top 20 in passing offense, scoring offense and total offense.

The biggest gains were made on the defensive side of the ball, where Pelini implemented his proven defensive system. Nebraska improved its total defensive average by 126.9 yards per game and finished second in the Big 12 in total defense. The run defense allowed 116.5 yards per game, nearly cutting its average from 2007 in half and finishing in the top 25 nationally in that category. The Blackshirts also posted 35 sacks, nearly tripling the total of the previous season.

The successful first season for Pelini came as a result of his ability to quickly implement his attitude and leadership into the program. Nebraska Athletic Director and Hall of Fame coach Tom Osborne named Pelini the 28th head coach in Nebraska football history on Dec. 2, 2007. Pelini wasted no time instilling a disciplined approach on and off the field, while also embracing the traditions of the Cornhusker football program. Pelini built a coaching staff with close ties to both the Pelini family and the Nebraska football family. The Nebraska staff currently includes three former Husker players.

Peliniim mediately showed the discipline to handle multiple tasks following his hiring. While the discipline is a simple control of the discipline for the discipline in thequickly taking charge of all aspects of the Nebraska program, Pelini was also committed to finishing what he had started at LSU. Pelini returned to Baton Rouge in mid-December of 2007 and successfully orchestrated the Tigers' defensive game plan for the BCS National Championship Game against Ohio State. The 38-24 win was keyed by a defense that forced three turnovers and had five sacks.

Following the championship victory, Pelini turned his full focus to Nebraska. His first order of business in Lincoln was to pull together the Huskers' 2008 recruiting class. Pelini successfully organized and led a recruiting charge that allowed Nebraska to sign a talented and balanced recruiting class that February.

Pelini also understands the importance of the storied Nebraska walk-on program, and has integrated it as a key part of the Huskers' recruiting plan. The Cornhusker staff has welcomed more than 115 walk-ons to the program in Pelini's first six recruiting classes, and will continue to make the walk-on program a focus in future years.

Pelini has also reached out to two groups that form the backbone of the tradition-rich Nebraska program-its former players and its passionate fan base.

Former Cornhuskers have rallied behind Pelini's blue-collar approach. In turn the head coach has opened his door to those who helped build the program. Pelini has made a strong effort to connect with former players and those past Cornhuskers have become a fixture in the football offices and at practices.

Pelini has made regular public appearances around the state, reaching out to the nation's most loyal fans. The widespread support for Pelini has been evident at every stop and his simple, humble approach is a perfect fit with Nebraskans. The support for Pelini has been evident since his arrival, beginning with 80,000 fans at the Red-White Spring Game in April of 2008 to loyal followings on the road, at bowl games in Jacksonville and San Diego and the 2009 and 2010 Big 12 Championship Games in Arlington, Texas. That continued in 2011 and 2012 as Husker fans have followed the Big Red through its first two seasons of Big Ten

While devoting time to former players, fans and attracting talented future Huskers, Pelini's No. 1 professional priority has been, and always will be, the current players in his program. Players have responded to his straight-forward message and process: Work hard, do the right thing and success will follow.

That hard work and discipline does not end on the field. Pelini's players have excelled in the classroom as well since he took over the program. Among Nebraska's 29-player 2012 senior class, 17 student-athletes had earned their degree before the Capital One Bowl, and all 29 are on track to graduate by August of 2013. Overall, 99 of 107 players in Pelini's first five senior classes are on track to earn their degree by August of 2013.

Seventeen of Pelini's players have earned CoSIDA Academic All-District honors, with eight players earning Academic All-America honors. I-back Rex Burkhead earned first-team Academic All-America honors for a second straight season in 2012, while linebacker Sean Fisher was a second-team choice for the second straight year. In 2010 and 2011, safety Austin Cassidy was a two-time first-team selection. Pelini's first two Academic All-Americans were 2008 second-team selections Todd Peterson and Tyler Wortman. Pelini has also seen 93 of his players earn first-team academic all-conference honors during the past five years.

The wide-spread success Pelini has enjoyed in his first five seasons in Lincoln should come as no surprise. Prior to being named head coach, Pelini enjoyed five seasons as college football's most successful defensive coordinator. But the success story started much earlier during Pelini's youth. The youngest of eight children, Pelini grew up in the hard-nosed town of Youngstown, Ohio. Pelini's parents instilled the discipline at a young age that has guided Bo to success both in and out of athletics.

HUSKERS.COM

Pelini's passion for athletics began in Youngstown. After a standout prep career at Cardinal Mooney High School, Pelini went on to Ohio State. A hard-hitting safety, he was known for his passionate and relentless play. Teammates recognized his leadership and elected Pelini a team captain as a senior.

The tradition of being part of winning programs did not end after Pelini's playing career. His coaching career has featured success at every stop along the way. A Super Bowl ring and a national championship are part of Pelini's impressive resume.

That coaching resume included a one-year stop as defensive coordinator at Nebraska. During the 2003 season, Pelini quickly learned the traditions of Nebraska football and its passionate fan base. In turn, Husker fans recognized the discipline and passion instilled by Pelini in the Blackshirt defense.

His first stop in Lincoln marked Pelini's first full-time college coaching job. During that 2003 season, Pelini engineered a dominant Blackshirt defense. The energized, relentless unit finished among the Big 12 and nation's best in nearly every defensive category.

Nebraska finished the year ranked first nationally in pass efficiency defense, second in scoring defense and 11th in total defense. The Huskers set a school and Big 12 record with 32 interceptions and tied an NU record with 47 takeaways, helping Nebraska lead the nation

Pelini began his second tour of duty at Nebraska in 2008 with a victory on his resume. His first tenure in Lincoln was capped by serving as the interim head coach for Nebraska's dominant 17-3 win over Michigan State in the 2003 Alamo Bowl. In the win, the defense held MSU to just 174 total yards and a first-quarter field goal.

More defensive dominance followed in Pelini's next two stops at Oklahoma and LSU. Pelini served as the co-defensive coordinator on Bob Stoops' staff at Oklahoma in 2004, helping the Sooners win a Big 12 title and reach the national championship game against USC. Oklahoma finished the season ranked sixth nationally in rush defense, 11th in scoring defense and 13th in total defense.

In his three seasons as the defensive coordinator at LSU from 2005 to 2007, Pelini's dominant defenses helped the Tigers compile a 34-6 record, including the 2007 BCS national championship and the Southeastern Conference championship. The BCS title game in January of 2008 marked the third time in four years that Pelini was a part of a team that

The play of Pelini's defenses was a key part of LSU's success. The Tigers ranked third in the nation in total defense in 2007, surrendering an average of 288.8 yards per game, LSU also ranked in the top 25 nationally in pass efficiency defense (3rd), passing yards allowed per game (9th), rush defense (14th) and scoring defense (17th). Defensive tackle Glenn Dorsey was the nation's most decorated defender in 2007, earning the Outland Trophy, the Lombardi Award and the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, while safety Craig Steltz earned All-America honors.

Pelini's defenses have a history of swarming to the football. LSU forced 36 turnovers in 2007, the third-most takeaways in the country. The Tigers' 2007 defensive success was the standard for Pelini at LSU, as each of his three LSU defenses ranked No. 3 nationally in total defense. Pelini's 2006 unit surrendered just 242.8 yards per game, the fewest by a Tiger team since 1976. A pair of Tigers earned first-team All-America honors, including Dorsey and safety LaRon Landry, who went on to become the sixth overall pick in the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

In 2005, the Tigers allowed just 266.9 yards per game, and ranked in the top 10 nationally in all four major defensive categories, including third in total defense, scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. Kyle Williams and Claude Wroten were both first-team All-America selections.

Overall, the 10 college teams Pelini has been a part of have compiled an impressive 104-30 record, winning at least nine games every season, including seven 10-win campaigns, four 11-win seasons and a pair of 12-win efforts. His defenses have posted 10 shutouts and held the opposition to seven points or less 40 times.

Before joining the Huskers in 2003, Pelini had nine years of NFL experience, one season at a Division I university, and one year in the high school ranks. Pelini broke into the NFL in 1994 as assistant secondary coach for the San Francisco 49ers. With the 49ers, Pelini coached in the Super Bowl, helping San Francisco to a 49-26 win over San Diego in Super Bowl XXIX. Pelini held that position for three years before moving to the Patriots. He spent three years as New England's linebackers coach under coach Pete Carroll, helping the Patriots to a 27-21 record and two playoff appearances.

After three years with the Patriots, Pelini moved to the Packers, coaching linebackers for three seasons. In three years in Green Bay with head coach Mike Sherman, the Packers posted a 33-15 record and advanced twice to the playoffs. In 2002, the Packer defense ranked fourth in the NFL in pass defense, allowing 188.4 yards per game.

Pelini got his start in coaching in 1991, serving as a graduate assistant coach at lowa under Hayden Fry. From there he moved into the high school ranks, serving as quarterbacks coach at Cardinal Mooney High School in Youngstown, Ohio in 1993 before taking the leap to the 49ers.

A standout free safety at Ohio State from 1987 to 1990, Pelini earned four letters for the  $Buckeyes. \, He\,was\, a\, three-time\, selection\, to\, the\, Academic\, All-Big\, Ten\, team.\, As\, a\, senior\, co-captain$ Pelini received the "Bo Rein Award," given annually to the Buckeyes' most inspirational player.

WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT BO PELINI

"Our football program has made significant progress under Bo's leadership. Bo is very straight-forward and very honest, and this is something players like. Our football team has responded to Bo's leadership and that has been a big part of the team's success. It is obvious he has a good understanding of this football program and an understanding of the importance of football to the state."

Tom Osborne, Hall of Fame Football Coach and former NU Athletic Director

"Bo is a great person and a great coach. He did a wonderful job for us while he was on our staff, and he has obviously been successful at his other stops, as well. He is doing an excellent job for Nebraska."

Oklahoma Head Coach Bob Stoops

"I spent five years with Bo in the NFL. He's a great football coach. He is a success due to his work ethic, toughness and the great schemes that he brings."

Seattle Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll

"Hopefully, I am an example of what a player can gain by coming to Nebraska and playing for Coach Pelini and his staff. The coaching staff taught me so much in the short amount of time I was able to work with them. As a recruit you can come in and have four years under your belt with this staff. Just imagine how much better you can become."

Ndamukong Suh, 2009 Heisman Trophy finalist, Lombardi, Outland, Nagurski and Bednarik awards winner and 2010 No. 2 NFL Draft pick

"When Coach Pelini came (to Nebraska) he definitely established a whole new culture that kept all of us accountable and just got us ready to be young men in the future."

Prince Amukamara, 2010 All-American and 2011 No. 19 NFL Draft pick

"I'm just grateful I had the opportunity to play for him because he's done tremendous things for me in my career. He has, without a doubt, made me the player I am today. I just enjoy the way he coaches. I just enjoy being around him."

Glenn Dorsey, 2007 Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy winner under Pelini

COACHING

- » Bowl Games 7 » BCS Bowl Games - 1

An innovative coach regarded as one of the nation's finest offensive minds, Tim Beck has played a large role in Nebraska's three conference title game appearances in the past four seasons. Beck's fast-paced offense scored nearly 500 points last fall, earning him a nomination as the nation's top assistant coach. Beck is also known for his ability to quickly develop and utilize underclassmen in his offense.

Beck is in his sixth season at Nebraska and his third year as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. A 2012 Broyles Award nominee, Beck spent his first three seasons coaching the running backs.

NU has scored at least two touchdowns in 26 of Beck's 27 games as offensive coordinator. In 2012, Beck's offense scored 57 offensive touchdowns, the program's most since 2008. The Huskers averaged 34.8 points per game in 2012, a total that ranked 28th nationally.

In addition to the impressive scoring - the Huskers have averaged 32.1 points per game in Beck's two seasons calling plays - NU was eighth nationally in rushing in 2012 (253.4 ypg) and 26th in total offense (460.8 ypg), ranking second in school history with 6,451 yards of offense. NU led the Big Ten in total offense and rushing offense.

Quarterback Taylor Martinez flourished in his second season in Beck's offense. The coaches' selection as the first-team All-Big Ten quarterback, Martinez accounted for a school-record 3,890 yards of total offense in 2012. Martinez rushed for 1,019 yards in 2012 - the fourth-highest total by a quarterback in school history - and he threw for 2,871 yards, the highest total ever by a Husker junior and the third-highest mark overall.

As a testament to Beck's versatility as a play caller, Martinez posted three 300-yard passing performances and five 100-yard rushing efforts. Martinez accounted for 33 total touchdowns in 2012 (10 rushing, 23 passing), setting an NU record. In addition to the impressive season totals, Martinez also became Nebraska's career passing and total offense leader during the 2012 campaign.

I-back Ameer Abdullah also excelled in Beck's offense in 2012. Abdullah rushed for 1,137 yards, the sixthhighest sophomore total in school history. Abdullah's
him second-team allconference accolades.

Receiver Kenny Bell was another sophomore who flourished in Beck's offense in 2012. After becoming the second freshman in school history to lead Nebraska in receptions and receiving yards in 2011, Bell repeated the feat in 2012. Bell set NU sonhomore records with 50 catches, 863 receiving yards and eight receiving touchdowns, Bell. who also set a Husker sophomore record with three 100-yard receiving games, ranked fourth overall on Nebraska's season receiving touchdowns chart, fourth in receiving yards, sixth in 100-yard receiving games, seventh in receptions and ninth in yards per reception (17.5). He was a second-team All-Big Ten selection.

Behind the trio of Martinez, Abdullah and Bell, Nebraska was one of only 19 school nationally - and the only Big Ten team - to average 200 yards passing and rushing in 2012. NU was also one of only four teams in the country to boast five players who averaged better than 5.0 yards per carry on at least 50 carries in 2012.

Offensive guard Spencer Long earned second-team All-America honors in 2012, in addition to being a consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection. Offensive tackle Jeremiah Sirles earned second-team all-conference honors, while tight ends Ben Cotton and Kyler Reed and center Justin Jackson were honorable-mention selections.

Beck impressed in his first year as offensive coordinator in 2011. NU averaged nearly 30 points per game, and the Huskers scored at least two touchdowns in every game in 2011, a feat NU has accomplished only twice in the past 10 seasons. NU's rushing attack flourished, averaging 217.2 yards per game to rank 15th nationally.

Individually, All-Big Ten back Rex Burkhead tied a school record by scoring a touchdown in 10 consecutive games to open the season. Burkhead finished 19th nationally in rushing (104.4 ypg), and his 1,357 rushing yards were the seventh-most in school history and the most by a Husker I-back since 1997. Martinez added 874 yards.

The Huskers also boasted an efficient passing attack under Beck. Martinez completed 56 percent of his passes and threw for 2,089 yards, the seventh-highest total in school history. Martinez also posted the top total offense season (2,963) by a Husker sophomore in 2011 and the fourth-best overall mark in school history.

As running backs coach from 2008 to 2010, Beck guided the Huskers' potent rushing attack. NU ranked first in the Big 12 and ninth nationally in 2010 at 247.6 yards per game. The Huskers ranked seventh nationally with an average of 5.47 yards per carry.

Two-time All-Big 12 selection Roy Helu Jr. ran for a career-high 1,245 yards in 2010 before being selected in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft. Helu Jr. was the first Husker to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in nearly two decades. Helu Jr. also set the NU single-game rushing record with 307 yards against Missouri. Burkhead earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades and rushed for 951 yards in 2010.

NU's running game improved throughout 2008. Nebraska had five games with more than 200 rushing yards in league play. In Big 12 games, NU ranked third in the league in rushing (182.5 ypg).

Beck came to NU after a three-year stint on the staff at Kansas. Beck was KU's receivers coach each of his three seasons in Lawrence, and was promoted to pass game coordinator in February of 2007. Kansas finished with a 12-1 record and a No. 7 final national ranking.

NEBRASKA WAS THE ONLY TEAM IN THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE AND ONE OF JUST 19 SCHOOLS NATIONALLY TO AVERAGE 200 YARDS RUSHING AND 200 YARDS PASSING IN 2012.

JOHN PAPUCHIS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR SIXTH SEASON VIRGINIA TECH | 2001

A passionate leader, John Papuchis is one of the nation's top young coaches. Papuchis has coached in two BCS Bowl Games and five conference title games in the past eight seasons alone. Papuchis has also coached five defenses in the past eight seasons that have ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense, including two in his past four years at Nebraska.

Papuchis is in his sixth season at Nebraska and his second year as the defensive coordinator. Papuchis has made a quick rise through the coaching ranks. At 35, he was the fourth-youngest defensive coordinator in the country in 2012 and the youngest solo defensive coordinator.

Under Papuchis' direction, Nebraska fielded one of the nation's toppass defenses in 2012, and the Blackshirts played a key role in the Huskers advancing to a conference championship game for the third time in four seasons. Nebraska finished fourth in the nation in pass defense, ninth in pass efficiency defense and 35th in total defense.

Nebraska allowed opposing quarterbacks to complete only 47.1 percent of their passes, the best mark in the nation. Nebraska posted an opponent completion percentage under 50 percent for the third time in the past four seasons and held opposing passers to the worst completion percentage at Nebraska since 2001 (43.3 percent). The 164.1 passing yards per game the Blackshirts allowed was the second-lowest at Nebraska in the past 20 seasons.

The Blackshirts played a key role in Nebraska's 10-win season, holding Michigan, Minnesota and Iowa to 200 or fewer total yards, limiting the Wolverines and Golden Gophers to fewer than 100 yards passing and rushing. The Huskers nearly held the Hawkeyes below the century mark in both rushing (108 yards) and passing (92 yards) as well.

From a scoring standpoint, NU held five opponents to 14 or fewer points in 2012. The Huskers held Arkansas State to 13 points, its fewest of the year and one of only two games where the Red Wolves were held below 30 points. The Blackshirts held both Iowa and Michigan to their second-lowest point totals of the year and their lowest marks in conference play. Individually, defensive end Eric Martin broke through in his senior season. A first-team All-Big Ten selection. Martin had 18 TFLs and 8.5 sacks in 2012 after entering his senior season with only four career TFLs and 2.5 career sacks.

Daimion Stafford led the Big Ten with four interceptions in conference games en route to earning first-team all-conference honors. Linebacker Will Compton tallied a career-high 110 tackles in 2012, and he was a second-team All-Big Ten selection. Defensive tackle Baker Steinkuhler also earned second-team All-Big Ten honors, while defensive back Ciante Evans was an honorable-mention all-

In his first four years on staff, Papuchis tutored the defensive line and served as special teams coordinator, while also filling the role of recruiting coordinator in 2011. Papuchis' work with the defensive line helped the Huskers rank in the top 10 in total defense and the top 11 in scoring defense in 2009 and 2010.

NU's defensive line had to overcome numerous injuries in 2011. but the unit persevered, combining for 226 tackles, 14.5 sacks and 26 tackles for loss. Two defensive linemen - Cameron Meredith and Steinkuhler - earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades.

As defensive ends coach, Papuchis produced four all-conference ends in three years. In 2010, both Meredith and Pierre Allen were all-conference selections. Barry Turner was also an all-conference pick in 2009, and Zach Potter earned all-conference accolades in 2008. The 2009 Huskers led the nation in scoring defense.

Nebraska also owned one of the nation's top special teams units from 2008 to 2011 under Papuchis' direction. He produced two All-America kickers in his time in charge of the special teams. Alex Henery earned the title of the most accurate kicker in NCAA history and was a first-team All-American in 2010. Papuchis developed his second straight All-America kicker in 2011, when Brett Maher earned All-America accolades, Both Maher and Henery handled punting and kicking chores for the Huskers. Maher was the Bakken-Andersen

A man of integrity and principles, Ron Brown has used his nearly 30 years of collegiate coaching experience to develop not only outstanding players, but also outstanding men. The proof of his success is well documented. In addition to tremendous team success, Brown has coached 41 academic all-conference players, and 28 of his former players have gone on to professional careers.

Brown is in his 23rd season at Nebraska and his sixth year on Bo Pelini's staff after rejoining the Husker coaching staff in 2008. Brown enters his third year as running backs coach, after coaching tight ends his first three years on Pelini's staff. Brown previously served on the NU staff for 17 seasons from 1987 to 2003.

Brown's running backs helped NU rank eighth nationally in rushing offense (253.4 yards per game) in 2012. Preseason All-American Rex Burkhead missed much of the season with a knee injury, and carried the ball only 98 times, but managed 675 yards and 6.9 yards per carry. Without his top running back, Brown tweaked his I-back rotation to help the Huskers again rank among the nation's rushing leaders. Sophomore I-back Ameer Abdullah, who had only 42 carries for 150 yards in 2011, rushed for 1,137 yards on 226 carries. His rushing total was the sixth-highest ever by a Husker sophomore, despite starting only seven games. Abdullah produced six 100-yard rushing efforts, including 100-yard performances in each of his first five career starts, the longest such streak by a Husker since 1993. A second-team All-Big Ten selection, Abdullah accounted for 11 total touchdowns, including eight on the ground.

True freshman Imani Cross also flourished under Brown's direction, producing a 100-yard game against Idaho State, while scoring seven touchdowns.

In 2011, Brown helped NU rank 15th nationally in rushing and was a nominee for the Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant coach. Burkhead, an All-Big Ten back, led the Huskers' prolific rushing attack, ranking 19th in the nation with 104.2 rushing yards per game. Burkhead posted seven 100-yard rushing games, and finished with 1,357 rushing yards for the seventhbest rushing total in school history and the highest total by a Husker

I-back since 1997. Burkhead reached 1.000 yards rushing in only 10 games, becoming the first Husker I-back to accomplish that feat since 2001. Burkhead has also had a knack for finding the end zone, scoring 17 touchdowns, including 15 on the ground, and finishing in a tie for 40th nationally in scoring. Burkhead set a school record by scoring a touchdown in each of the first 10 games in 2011 and tied the overall Nebraska record by scoring a touchdown in 10 consecutive games.

Working with the tight ends in 2010, Brown's unit was a valuable asset in both the passing and running games. In the passing game, Kyler Reed emerged as a playmaker, catching 22 passes for 395 yards and an NU tight end-record eight touchdown grabs. Brown's tight ends were also a key cog in Nebraska's rushing attack, which led the Big 12 and ranked ninth nationally in rushing. In 2009, Brown's tight ends combined for 46 catches, 442 yards and six touchdowns. Five different tight ends caught a pass, while tight ends grabbed six of Nebraska's 18 touchdown catches on the season.

Mike McNeill enjoyed his second straight strong season, tying for the team lead with four touchdown catches, while ranking second with 26 receptions and third with 259 receiving yards. McNeill was a second-team AP All-Big 12 selection in 2009.

In 2008, Brown assisted with an NU offense that finished 12th nationally in total offense. McNeill set an NU tight end season record with 32 receptions, including six touchdown grabs. Fellow sophomore tight end Dreu Young averaged a team-leading 15.6 yards per catch while sharing time with McNeill.

Brown served as receivers coach for his entire first tenure with the Huskers and also tutored the tight ends during his first 17 seasons on the NU staff. The blocking of Brown's wide receivers played a key role in Nebraska's nine NCAA rushing titles.

Brown is nationally respected for his ability as an intense teacher on the field. The NU receivers under Brown were long known for their tenacity and downfield blocking. Despite featuring a run-based attack from 1987 to 2003, Brown's receivers and tight ends also made their mark in the passing game, leading the Big 12 in touchdown receptions three times.

Twenty-eight of Brown's players have gone on to professional careers, including Burkhead, a 2013 NFL Draft Pick. Brown has coached 41 academic all-conference players and four CoSIDA Academic All-Americans. including Burkhead in 2011 and 2012.

Brown, a two-time first-team All-Ivy League defensive back, was selected to Brown's All-Century team and the school's Sports Hall of Fame. Brown signed with three NFL teams as a free agent from 1979 to 1981. He began his coaching career as a defensive coordinator for the semipro New Jersey Rams in 1982. He then spent four seasons at his alma mater before moving to Lincoln.

Off the field, Brown and former Husker Stan Parker are co-founders and co-directors of a statewide Christian ministry called Mission Nebraska. This ministry stewards MY BRIDGE RADIO, which consists frumerous Christian radio stations and translators across Nebraska. Mission Nebraska also facilitates a statewide Christian ministry called FreedMen Nebraska, which challenges and inspires men and boys to take a strong courageous Christian stand in the public square.

Through FreedMen Nebraska, Brown also hosts a weekly statewide cable TV show called "Truth Vision", along with daily radio spots. Brown spent the four years prior to his return to coaching serving as the Nebraska State Director of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. While he relinquished that duty to return to the Cornhuskers, he continues as a regular columnist for FCA's National Magazine "Sharing the Victory."

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/RUN GAME COORD. TIGHT ENDS/OFFENSIVE LINE SIXTH SEASON | SEVENTH OVERALL NEBRASKA | 1983

Among his 25 years of coaching experience, veteran coach Barney Cotton owns 18 years of experience as a collegiate head coach or offensive coordinator. Cotton's offensive lines paved the way for Nebraska to appear in three conference title games in the past four seasons. Behind his run-game expertise, a different Husker I-back has earned all-conference honors in each of the past three seasons.

Cotton is in his sixth season on Coach Bo Pelini's Nebraska staff and his seventh year overall as a Husker assistant, counting his 2003 season as NU's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

Cotton's role changes slightly in 2013, as he will serve as Nebraska's run game coordinator and tight ends coach, while continuing in his role with the offensive line and as associate head coach. Cotton has been Nebraska's offensive line coach for the past five seasons and helped NU feature one of the nation's top rushing attacks.

In 2012, Cotton helped guard Spencer Long complete a journey from walk-on to All-American. A consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection, Long was named a second-team All-American by both the Associated Press and the Walter Camp Foundation. Cotton has coached the only three Husker offensive linemen to earn first-team all-conference honors since 2001, while Long was Nebraska's first All-America offensive lineman since Toniu Fonoti in 2001.

In addition to Long, former walk-on center Justin Jackson, a converted defensive lineman, earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades in his first year at center. Offensive tackle Jeremiah Sirles was a second-team all-conference selection, giving Nebraska three all-conference offensive linemen in 2012.

The line helped Nebraska rank eighth nationally with 253.4 rushing yards per game. It paved the way for Ameer Abdullah to become the first Husker sophomore to rush for 1,000 yards since 1994, helping Abdullah earn second-team All-Big Ten honors. The unit also helped Nebraska top 200 yards rushing 12 times in 2012, the highest total by a Husker team since 1997.

Cotton's line also enabled All-Big Ten quarterback Taylor Martinez to set Nebraska's junior class total offense record, throwing for 2,871 yards and rushing for another 1,019 yards and accounting for a school-record 3,890 total yards.

The 2012 season marked the third straight year Nebraska averaged more than 200 yards rushing, a first for the program since 2001 to 2003. The 2011 Husker rushing attack ranked 15th nationally, averaging 217.2 yards per game.

Cotton has a knack for quickly developing players. First- or second-year players combined for 38 starts on the offensive line in 2011. Cotton also developed three current or former walk-ons who combined for 32 starts in 2011. Two of those former walk-ons were Mike Caputo and Long, both of whom earned second-team All-Big Ten honors in 2011, along with honorable-mention selection Marcel Jones.

The 2011 line paved the way for All-Big Ten I-back Rex Burkhead to post the 32nd 1,000-yard rushing season in school history. Burkhead finished with 1,357 yards to post the highest rushing total by a Husker I-back since 1997.

In 2010, NU rushed for 3,466 yards, the program's highest total since 2002, and ranked ninth nationally in rushing yards per game (247.6 ypg). Ricky Henry became the first Husker offensive lineman to earn first-team All-Big 12 honors since Toniu Fonoti in 2001, while Caputo and Keith Williams garnered honorable-mention accolades. Roy Helu Jr. ran for 1,245 yards behind the line and set the Nebraska single-game rushing record with 307 yards against Missouri.

Under Cotton's leadership in 2009, three Husker linemen (Henry, Williams and Jacob Hickman) earned All-Big 12 accolades from the Associated Press. The line helped pave the way for I-back Roy Helu Jr. to earn All-Big 12 honors while posting the 29th 1,000-yard rushing season in Husker history. Helu Jr. added 1,245 rushing yards in another All-Big 12 campaign in 2010, becoming the first Husker with back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in nearly two decades.

Cotton helped Nebraska finish among the top 20 units nationally in total offense, scoring offense and passing offense in 2008. Matt Slauson was a second-team All-Big 12 pick under Cotton's guidance, while Hickman and Lydon Murtha were honorablemention picks. The line paved the way for the Husker running game to average 169.8 yards per game and score 27 touchdowns, while protecting quarterback Joe Ganz as he threw for a single-season school-record 3,568 yards, and set the single-season school-record with 3,826 total yards.

In 2003, Cotton's offensive unit helped Nebraska to a 10-3 record and a victory over Michigan State in the Alamo Bowl. Nebraska ranked among the top 10 nationally in rushing offense and four linemen earned all-conference

Following his successful one-year stint with NU, Cotton served as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at lowa State. ISU made two bowl appearances in Cotton's tenure.

Following his stint at ISU, Cotton served as a volunteer assistant coach at Ames High School.

Before his four-year run as an offensive coordinator in the Big 12, Cotton spent the previous six seasons as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at New Mexico State. Under Cotton's direction, the Aggie offense ranked in the top 25 nationally in total offense three times in six seasons.

Cotton was head coach at Hastings in 1995 and 1996. In 1995, the Broncos won a conference title and made the NAIA playoffs, earning Cotton conference coach-ofthe-year honors.

Cotton began his coaching career as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at St. Cloud State (Minn.) from 1989 to 1994.

Coaching veteran Ross Els fills a variety of roles for the Huskers. In his two years working with the Husker linebackers, Els has produced a Big Ten Linebacker of the Year and an All-American. In his first year working with Nebraska's special teams in 2012, Brett Maher was selected as the Big Ten Kicker of the Year. Els' well-rounded work has helped NU win 19 games in his first two seasons in Lincoln.

Els begins his third season coaching NU's linebackers in 2013 and his second year as special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator. Overall he is in his 25th season in the college coaching ranks.

The play of Els' linebackers in 2012 helped Nebraska to 10 wins and a trip to the Big Ten Championship Game. Senior Will Compton earned second-team All-Big Ten honors with a team-leading 110 tackles, including six tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks. Compton also recovered three fumbles and had an interception.

Els also helped Alonzo Whaley enjoy a breakout senior season. Whaley ranked fourth on the team with 65 tackles, and he forced a team-leading four fumbles while recording four TFLs, 1.0 sack and one interception. Whaley's pick clinched Nebraska's 13-7 win at lowa to lock up the Big Ten Legends Division Championship. Entering the year, Whaley had made only 20 career tackles.

Freshman David Santos also contributed 24 tackles and three TFLs, earning Big Ten All-Freshman honors, in addition to a Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week accolade after he recorded a team-high 10 tackles in his only start against Michigan. Another Els pupil, Sean Fisher earned academic All-America honors for the second straight year in 2012.

As special teams coach for the first time in 2012, Els helped Brett Maher earn a repeat nod as the Big Ten Place-kicker of the Year, in addition to earning first-team All-Big Ten place-kicker accolades and second-team all-conference honors as a punter.

Els came to Nebraska in 2011 after six seasons at Ohio University. In Els' first year in Lincoln, Lavonte David was named the Big Ten Linebacker of the Year and a first-team All-American, while Compton was an honorable-mention all-conference selection.

David and Compton were Nebraska's top two tacklers in 2011, combining for 215 tackles and 20 tackles for loss. David led the team with 133 tackles, 13 TFLs, 5.5 sacks, two interceptions, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. David posted six games with at least 10 tackles and was only the fourth Husker to record 100 tackles in consecutive seasons. David ranked third in the Big Ten in tackles per game and 18th nationally.

Under Els' instruction, David was recognized as one of the nation's best linebackers.

He was one of six finalists for the Butkus Award, presented annually to the nation's top linebacker. David was Nebraska's first finalist for the award since 1994 and only the fourth Husker to be a Butkus finalist. Davidwasalso a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award and the Lott Trophy, in addition to being named the Lott Trophy national player of the week twice in 2011. Following his outstanding senior season - which saw him post the most tackles for a two-year player in school history - David was selected in the second round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers with the 58th overall pick. He enjoyed one of the NFL's best rookie seasons in 2012.

Compton enjoyed a breakout year in Els' first season on staff. The junior linebacker entered the season with 55 career tackles and two career TFLs through 23 games. In 13 games in 2011, Compton easily eclipsed his career totals, posting 82 tackles and seven TFLs. He excelled during Big Ten play, as 55 of his 82 tackles came in NU's eight conference games, an average of nearly seven tackles pergame.

At Ohio, Els served as assistant head coach for one season and tutored the Bobcat linebackers for all six seasons. In his final four seasons, he also served as Ohio's special teams coordinator.

In 2010, the Ohio defense ranked 20th nationally and second in the Mid-American Conference in rushing defense. Els' special teams were also a key part of Ohio's 8-5 season that culminated with a trip to the New Orleans Bowl. The Bobcats ranked first in the MAC in net punting, third in punt returns and fifth in kickoff returns.

In 2009, he tutored linebacker Noah Keller, who led the MAC with 155 tackles en route to earning an honorable-mention All-America award. He also coached punt returner LaVon Brazil to second-team All-America honors that season, while freshman place-kicker Matt Weller earned freshman All-America accolades after kicking a school-record 21 field goals.

Els helped Ohio to three bowl appearances and two MAC East division championships during his stay in Athens, Ohio. He also coached a total of six All-MAC linebackers, including four first-team honorees.

Els joined the Ohio staff following four seasons on Tony Samuel's coaching staff at New Mexico State. In his final two seasons he was the defensive coordinator for the Aggies. While in Las Cruces, Els worked with current NU offensive line coach Barney Cotton. Els had succeeded Cotton as the head coach at Hastings College, where he compiled a 32-9 record from 1997 to 2000, including NAIA playoff appearances in 1998 and 1999. His 1999 team reached the national quarterfinals, and both his 1998 and 1999 teams posted perfect 10-0 regular seasons.

Els had spent two seasons as an assistant under Cotton in 1995 and 1996, and also served in assistant roles at Northern Iowa (1989 and 1994) and UNO (1990-93). He is a 1988 graduate of Nebraska-Omaha, where he played safety. Els is a Lincoln Northeast High School graduate.

WIDE RECEIVERS THIRD SEASON COLORADO | 1993

RICH FISHER

A former national champion, Rich Fisher has played the lead role in developing arguably the best receiving corps in school history. Fisher's receivers have helped Nebraska post two of the top seven passing seasons in school history the past two years. Fisher has shown the ability to develop and utilize underclassmen, as a freshman or sophomore has led NU in catches and receiving yards in each of his two seasons.

Fisher coaches the wide receivers in his third season on Bo Pelini's staff and is entering his 11th overall season of coaching at the Division I level. Under Fisher's tutelage, the Nebraska wide receiver unit has quickly developed into one of the most explosive and consistent groups in the Big Ten Conference.

Kenny Bell led the way in 2012, earning second-team All-Big Ten honors. Bell set Nebraska sophomore records with 50 catches, 863 receiving yards and eight receiving touchdowns, leading the Huskers in all three categories. Bell, who also set an NU sophomore record with three 100-yard receiving games, finished fourth overall on Nebraska's season receiving touchdowns chart, fourth in receiving yards, sixth in 100-yard receiving games, seventh in receptions and ninth in yards per reception (17.5). At the midway point of his career, Bell is a threat to several NU career receiving records.

In 2012, Quincy Enunwa eclipsed his previous career totals with 42 catches for 470 yards. He added a touchdown grab and a 100-yard receiving game at Northwestern, while blocking for an NU rushing attack that ranked eighth nationally. Jamal Turner hauled in 29 passes for 395 yards and two touchdowns, and played the best football of his career in the second half of the season. Senior Steven Osborne also made his first 10 career catches in 2012, totaling 91 yards and two touchdowns.

In his first season in 2011, Fisher's receivers contributed to Nebraska's success in the passing game and offered solid perimeter blocking for the Husker running game. Fisher inherited a talented but young stable of receivers. Under his direction, the group hauled in 107 passes for 1,434 yards, while averaging 13.4 yards per reception. The unit was highlighted by underclassmen who combined for 69 catches, 1,004 receiving yards and a 14.6 yard-per-catch average.

Leading the list of young receivers succeeding under Fisher's tutelage was Bell, who led NU with 32 catches and 461 receiving yards and added three receiving touchdowns as a redshirt freshman. Bell became only the second freshman in school history to lead Nebraska in both receptions and receiving yards, joining Nate Swift who accomplished the feat as a redshirt freshman in 2005.

Enunwa had 21 catches for 293 yards and two touchdowns, after recording only one reception as a freshman. Senior Brandon Kinnie had 22 catches in 2011 and finished just outside the top 10 on the NU career receptions list. Junior Tim Marlowe had 12 grabs, after not recording a catch in his freshman and sophomore seasons.

Fisher also helped Turner, a true freshman, make the transition from high school quarterback to wide receiver. Turner had 15 catches for 243 yards and averaged 16.2 yards per catch in 2011.

Fisher came to Nebraska after two highly successful seasons in the prep ranks. He spent the 2009 and 2010 seasons as the head coach at Rivers School in Weston, Mass., where he compiled a 12-5 record.

In 2010, Fisher coached Rivers School to a perfect 8-0 regular season, the school's first undefeated regular season since 1915 and its only ISL championship. In fact, it was just the school's third winning season in the past 25 years and the first since 1979. The team also played in the Norm Walker Bowl at Gillette Stadium, the first-ever bowl game for Rivers School.

The successful season came in large part because of an explosive offense, as Rivers averaged more than 40 points per game. Husker sophomore receiver Taariq Allen was one of two standouts to earn All-Scholastic honors from the Boston Herald.

Prior to coaching at Rivers, the 42-year old Fisher spent several years in private business, including owning and operating New England Gridiron Football Camps from 2004 to 2009.

John Garrison has helped Nebraska win at least nine games in each of his five seasons on the Husker coaching staff. As a former Husker lineman himself, Garrison is able to relate to his players. His close relationship with the offensive line has helped Nebraska rank in the top 15 nationally in rushing in each of the past three years, including eighth in 2012.

Garrison is in his third season as a full-time Nebraska assistant coach, serving as the offensive line coach in 2013, after holding the title of assistant offensive line/tight ends coach in 2011 and 2012. Garrison has been a member of the Husker coaching staff for each of Bo Pelini's six seasons as head coach, working as an intern with the Nebraska offense from 2008 to 2010.

The offensive line helped Nebraska rank eighth nationally with 253.4 rushing yards per game in 2012. It paved the way for Ameer Abdullah to become the first Husker sophomore to rush for 1,000 yards since 1994, helping Abdullah earn second-team All-Big Ten honors. The unit has also helped Nebraska top 200 yards rushing 12 times in 2012, the highest total by a Husker team since 1997.

Garrison's line also helped All-Big Ten quarterback Taylor Martinez set Nebraska's junior class total offense record, throwing for 2,871 yards and rushing for another 1,019 yards > while accounting for a schoolrecord 3,890 total yards.

In dividually, Garrison helped guard Spencer Long complete a journey from walk-on to All-American. A consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection, Long was named a second-team All-American by both the Associated Press and the Walter Camp Foundation. Long became Nebraska's first All-America offensive lineman since Toniu Fonoti in 2001 and only the second first-team all-conference offensive lineman since Fonoti in 2001.

In addition to Long, former walk-on center Justin Jackson, a converted defensive lineman, earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades from the league's coaches in his first full season as an offensive lineman. Offensive tackle Jeremiah Sirles was a second-team all-conference selection, giving Nebraska three all-conference offensive linemen in 2012.

Garrison has played a key role in quickly developing players in his first two seasons. In his first full-time season in 2011, Garrison and veteran offensive line coach Barney Cotton developed an offensive line that paved the way for a Husker rushing attack that ranked 15th nationally, averaging 217.2 yards per game. In addition to his overall work with the line, Garrison has played a key role in the development of several underclassmen and walk-ons.

THE GARRISON FAMILY

(clockwise from top): Jamie, John, Lily, Jack and Valerie.

First- or second-year players combined for 38 starts on the offensive line in 2011. In addition to the youth, Garrison helped three current or former walk-ons combine for 32 starts in 2011. Two of those former walk-ons were senior Mike Caputo and Long, both of whom earned second-team All-Big Ten honors under Garrison's direction. Senior Marcel Jones was also an honorable-mention All-Big Ten pick in 2011.

The line helped All-Big Ten back Rex Burkhead post the 32nd 1,000-yard rushing season in school history. Burkhead also produced the highest rushing total by a Husker I-back since 1997.

Before being elevated to a full-time role in 2011, Garrison spent the previous three seasons as a football intern with the offensive line in conjunction with the strength and conditioning staff.

In five total seasons working with the Husker offensive line, 12 linemen have earned all-conference honors. In 2010, Ricky Henry became the first Husker to take home first-team all-conference accolades since 2001, as Nebraska led the Big 12 and ranked ninth nationally with nearly 250 rushing yards per game.

The offensive line has helped pave the way for an all-conference back in each of Garrison's five seasons working with the unit. In 2010, senior Roy Helu Jr., became the first running back to surpass 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons since 1992 and 1993, while Burkhead topped the 1,000-yard mark in 2011.

Garrison joined the Nebraska staff in March of 2008 after spending four years at Blue Springs (Mo.) High School as an assistant coach and special education teacher. Garrison served as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator. Garrison also conducted and managed the weight room activities for multiple sports at Blue Springs.

The 33-year-old Garrison was a four-year letterman for Frank Solich at Nebraska from 1999 to 2002, and earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades at center as a junior and second-team accolades as a senior. Garrison was Nebraska's starting long snapper as a true freshman in 1999, helping the Huskers to a 12-1 record and Big 12 title. He was a backup center and guard, and handled long snapping duties in 2000.

Garrison was the Huskers' starting center in 2001 and 2002, helping Nebraska play for the BCS National Championship following the 2001 season. That year, he helped quarterback Eric Crouch when the Heisman Trophy.

In 2001, Garrison moved into the lineup as the starting center and helped Nebraska to an appearance in the BCS National Championship Game, while quarterback Eric Crouch won the Heisman Trophy. In his senior season, Garrison was elected by his teammates as one of three co-captains.

A native of Blue Springs, Mo., Garrison is Nebraska's lead recruiter for the Kansas City metro area.

TERRY JOSEPH

Despite being one of the youngest members of Nebraska's full-time staff, Terry Joseph is coaching at his third BCS program. Following previous stops at LSU and Tennessee, Joseph was a smashing success in his first year at Nebraska in 2012. Joseph's secondary led the nation in opponent completion percentage, while ranking fourth in pass defense and ninth in pass efficiency defense, helping NU to a 10-win season.

Joseph is in his second season on the Husker coaching staff, where he is in charge of the Husker secondary. In his first season at Nebraska, Joseph directed a secondary that helped Nebraska rank among the nation's top pass defenses.

The 39-year-old Joseph has helped maintain, and perhaps even enhance, Nebraska's already stellar reputation of annually producing one of the nation's best secondaries. In his first year, Joseph's secondary helped Nebraska lead the nation in opponent pass completion percentage (47.1 percent), rank fourth in pass defense (168.2 yards allowed per game) and ninth in pass efficiency defense (105.32).

The 2012 pass defense ranking marked the third straight year NU had ranked in the top 20 nationally in pass efficiency defense. Joseph replaced a pair of returning starters in his first season and he was more than up to the task as the stats and honors prove.

The 168.2 passing vards per game the Blackshirts allowed were the second-fewest by a Nebraska defense since 1993, while the  $47.1\,completion\,percentage\,was\,the\,lowest\,for\,the\,Husker\,program$

Individually, safety Daimion Stafford earned first-team All-Big Ten honors after leading the conference with four interceptions in league play. Stafford ranked second on the team with 96 tackles, and he forced two fumbles and recovered a pair of fumbles.

Ciante Evans earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from CBS and honorable-mention accolades from the league's coaches. Evans has totaled 56 tackles and ranked second on the team with eight breakups. Stanley Jean-Baptiste led NU with nine pass breakups, including a 48-yard interception return for a touchdown against Minnesota. Evans added a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown against Idaho State. Senior safety P.J. Smith also earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors in 2012.

Nebraska's three overall interception returns for touchdowns tied for its most since 2006, while the Huskers' 13 interceptions in 2012 eclipsed its 2011 total.

Before coming to Nebraska, Joseph spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach at Tennessee, where he also served as the recruiting coordinator. Joseph helped the UT defense rank among the nation's top pass defenses in both 2010 and 2011. In 2011, the Vols finished 12th nationally in passing yards allowed with an average of just 177.8 yards per game. Joseph oversaw a young defensive backfield, including true freshman Brian Randolph, who earned SEC all-freshman honors in 2011.

In Joseph's first season in Knoxville in 2010, he helped the Vols rank in the top 20 in the nation with 18 interceptions, and the group played a key role in a late-season run that earned Tennessee a trip to the Music City Bowl. Safety Janzen Jackson and cornerback Prentiss Waggner each earned second-team All-SEC honors. Waggner returned three interceptions for touchdowns to set a school record.

Joseph joined the Tennessee staff after working under Derek Dooley for three seasons at Louisiana Tech from 2007 to 2009, where he also served as the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator. Joseph played a key role in a defensive turnaround at Louisiana Tech.

The highlight of Joseph's stint at Louisiana Tech came in 2008, when the Bulldogs finished second in the Western Athletic Conference and earned their first bowl trip in seven seasons. Tech completed an 8-5 season with a 17-10 victory over Northern Illinois in the Independence Bowl. Joseph also coordinated Tech's recruiting efforts, and the 2009 class was ranked second in the WAC. Joseph was ranked as one of the top five recruiters in a non-BCS conference by Rivals.com.

Joseph worked alongside Nebraska Head Coach Bo Pelini as a defensive graduate assistant at LSU in 2006. During his one season in Baton Rouge, Joseph helped the Tiger defense rank third nationally in total defense, and LSU finished the year with a Sugar Bowl victory over Notre Dame.

Joseph began his coaching career in the Louisiana prep ranks, working as an assistant at two New Orleans area schools. Joseph worked at Archbishop Shaw from 1999 through 2002. and at Destrehan High School from 2003 to 2005.

Joseph earned his bachelor's degree from Northwestern State in 1996. He was a baseball standout at the school, and is one of only 12 players in Southland Conference history to earn first-team all-conference honors three straight seasons. Joseph was the conference player of the year in 1995, when he was coached by former Nebraska baseball coach Dave Van Horn, A two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American with the Demons, Joseph owned 10 school records when he completed his collegiate baseball career.

Joseph was a 13th-round draft choice of the Chicago Cubs and played four seasons in the minor leagues with the Cubs and San Diego Padres.

Joseph is the cousin of former Nebraska quarterback Mickey Joseph, who was a four-year letterman for the Huskers from 1988 to 1991.

Rick Kaczenski owns uncommon knowledge and unique experience. A former Notre Dame center and offensive line coach, Kaczenski possesses a deep understanding of line play on both sides of the ball. His extensive knowledge helped NU total 17 more TFLs in 2012 than it did in 2011 before his arrival. Individually, his linemen have earned 11 All-Big Ten awards in the past six seasons alone.

Kaczenski enters his second season as Nebraska's defensive line coach and his ninth season coaching in the Big Ten Conference.

Kaczenski faced a challenge in his first season in Lincoln, dealing with multiple injuries on the defensive line, a unit that was down to a rotation of six healthy regular contributors at the end of the year. Despite the challenges, Kaczenski's unit helped NU rank first nationally in opponent pass completion percentage, fourth in passing yards allowed, ninth in pass efficiency defense and 35th in total defense. Led by defensive end Eric Martin, the line helped the Huskers rank second in the Big Ten and in the top 50 nationally in sacks. Martin was Kaczenski's third player in the last five years to total at least 8.0 sacks.

Martin, who entered the 2012 season with 64 tackles, four TFLs and 2.5 sacks in his career, developed into a first-team all-conference performer in his only season working with Kaczenski. In 2012, Martin eclipsed nearly all of his career totals entering the season, recording 59 tackles, 18 TFLs and 8.5 sacks. He ranked third in the Big Ten > and among the nation's top 50 players in sacks. Baker Steinkuhler earned second-team All-Big Ten honors with 47 tackles and seven TFLs before in 2012, Kaczenski's defensive linemen have won

Kaczenski joined NU's staff after building an impressive resume on Kirk Ferentz's staff at Iowa. The performance of Kaczenski's defensive lines played a key role in lowa's success in his five seasons from 2007 to 2011. Iowa reached a bowl game in each of his final four seasons, including an appearance in the Orange Bowl following the 2009 season. His defensive linemen earned nine first- or second-team All-Big

In 2010, Iowa ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense (101.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (17.0 ppg). A year earlier, the Hawkeye defense ranked in the top 10 nationally in four defensive statistical categories, including pass efficiency defense, total defense, scoring defense and passing yards allowed. The effort of the front > line played a big part in the defensive success, as Iowa posted an 11-2 overall record and a victory over Georgia Tech in the Orange Bowl.

The 2008 Iowa defense also ranked high across the board. Kaczenski's defensive front keved a group that limited  $opponents \, to \, just \, 94.0 \, rushing \, yards$ per game to rank ninth in the country. Iowa also ranked fifth in scoring defense, fifth in pass efficiency defense and 12th in scoring defense en route to a 9-4 record and Outback Bowl berth in 2008. In his first season as a full-time assistant in 2007, Iowa ranked third in the Big Ten and 13th nationally in scoring defense, while also leading the conference in turnover margin.

defensive line. End Adrian Clayborn became the 21st player at Iowa to earn consensus All-America honors in 2010 after totaling 11.5 sacks and 20 TFL. Clayborn was named the national Defensive Performer of the Year by College Football Performance Awards in 2009. Clayborn was named first-team All-Big Ten in both 2009 and 2010.

Clayborn was the 20th pick in the first round by Tampa Bay in the 2011 NFL Draft, and was one of three Hawkeye defensive linemen selected in that draft. Defensive lineman Christian Ballard was taken in the fourth round by Minnesota, while Tennessee selected defensive lineman Karl Klug in the fifth round.

Defensive tackles Mitch King and Matt Kroul led Iowa's defense in 2008. King (15.5 TFL) was named Defensive Lineman of the Year in the Big Ten while earning first-, second- and third-team All-America honors. Kroul earned second-team All-Big Ten honors after setting an Iowa record with 50 consecutive starts. Both King (Tennessee) and Kroul (N.Y. Jets) signed free agent contracts immediately following the 2009 NFL Draft and have remained in the NFL the last three seasons. In 2007, King was named first-team All-Big Ten and senior defensive end Bryan Mattison earned second-team recognition.

Overall, 12 of Kaczenski's defensive linemen have been drafted or signed NFL free agent contracts over the past five seasons, including four draftees in the past three years.

Before taking over as defensive line coach, Kaczenski served two seasons as a graduate assistant at Iowa in 2005-06, working specifically with the offensive line. Kaczenski joined the Iowa staff after serving as the offensive line and tight ends coach at Elon University in 2004. He served in the same capacity at East Tennessee State in 2003 and was the offensive line coach at South Carolina State in 2002 for Head Coach Buddy Pough.

Kaczenski was on the staff at South Carolina from 1999 to 2001 under Head Coach Lou Holtz. Kaczenski was a graduate assistant with the Gamecocks, working in recruiting while assisting with the offensive line and wide receivers. Kaczenski began his coaching career in 1998 as an assistant coach at Erie (Pa.) Cathedral Prep, Kaczenski played collegiately at Notre Dame from 1993 to 1997, where he was a three-year starter at center from 1995 to 1997. While with the Irish, Kaczenski helped Notre Dame to four bowl appearances, including a trip to the 1995 Fiesta Bowl and the 1996 Orange Bowl. Kaczenski played in a total of 40 games, and during his career Notre Dame finished in the top 20 in rushing three times, including sixth in 1995 and eighth in 1996.

Kaczenski earned a Bachelor of Science degree in sociology from Notre Dame in 1997, and he is a graduate of Cathedral Prep High School in Erie. Pa. He was elected to the Erie Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 2007. His brother, Bob, was a member of Penn State's 1986 national championship team.

IN THE LAST FIVE SEASONS ALONE, 12 DEFENSIVE LINEMEN WHO PLAYED COLLEGIATELY FOR KACZENSKI HAVE GONE ON TO PLAY IN THE NFL.

ASSISTANT A.D./FOOTBALL OPERATIONS SIXTH SEASON NEBRASKA | 1987

Former Nebraska player and assistant coach Jeff Jamrog is in his sixth year as the Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations for the Husker program in 2013.

A finalist for the 2012 FootballScoop.com Director of Football Operations of the Year, Jamrog plays a key role in the administrative aspects of the football program and serves as a liaison with other parts of the athletic department. He works closely with Coach Bo Pelini and Director of Athletics Shawn Eichorst on all football operations and assists with NU's recruiting efforts.

Jamrog also coordinates the travel, budget and staffing for the football office, spearheading football scheduling, overseeing the compliance, strength training, equipment and academic support units regarding football issues and also supervising football support staffs.

A former walk-on himself, Jamrog has also played a lead role in the resurgence of Nebraska's walk-on program. Former walk-on Spencer Long earned second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press and Walter Camp Foundation in 2012, while Brett Maher was the 2012 co-Big Ten Place-Kicker of the Year after sweeping the honors as the conference's best punter and kicker in 2011. Walk-on offensive linemen combined to start 36 games the past two seasons and overall, 12 members of NU's 29-player 2012 senior class began their career as walk-ons.

On the scheduling front, Jamrog has took the lead in securing several future non-conference series. In the past nine months, Nebraska has announced future games with fellow Big Eight rivals Colorado and Oklahoma and a series with 2012 BCS qualifier Jamrog returned to Nebraska after spending four seasons as the head coach at Minnesota State-Mankato. The 49-year-old Jamrog guided his Maverick teams to a 17-27 overall record, including a 6-5 mark in 2004 - the program's first winning season since 1994. The team boasted a six-game improvement in victories, which was not only a school record but tied for the fifth-largest single-season jump in NCAA Division II history.

The Maverick players coached by Jamrog also distinguished themselves in the classroom. Defensive lineman Spencer Dickinson earned a spot on the CoSIDA Academic All-America team in both 2006 and 2007. While leading the Maverick program, Jamrog handled many of the duties he encounters on a daily basis with the Huskers.

His four-year run at Minnesota State came after a brief stint as the defensive coordinator at Western Illinois in the spring of 2004. Prior to that appointment, Jamrog had spent the previous four seasons as the defensive line coach on Frank Solich's staff at Nebraska.

Jamrog tutored the Huskers' interior defensive linemen each of his four years on the defensive staff. In his final season, Jamrog also coached the defensive ends and was named special teams coordinator for the 2003 Huskers. During his time with the Huskers, Jamrog helped Nebraska play for the national championship in the Rose Bowl following the 2001 season, along with two trips to the Alamo Bowl (2000, 2003) and an appearance in the Independence Bowl (2002)

The 2003 Nebraska defense led the country in takeaways, while ranking second nationally in scoring defense. Jamrog's special teams units were also among the nation's best, totaling 21 blocked kicks and 11 punt returns for touchdowns in four years. With Jamrog as special teams coordinator in 2003, Nebraska led the Big 12 and ranked ninth nationally in net punting.

Before his first tenure on the Nebraska coaching staff, Jamrog spent three years as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at New Mexico State. He helped Head Coach Tony Samuel turn around a program that had just two winning seasons in the previous 31 years.

Jamrog served as the defensive coordinator at Nebraska-Omaha from 1994 to 1996, and helped the Mays to the 1996 North Central Conference title - the first outright title in school history. UNO earned a No. 4 national ranking, and improved by seven wins over 1995, the second-largest turnaround in Division II history. Jamrog was the inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at the University of South Dakota from 1990 to 1993. He began his coaching career at Nebraska in 1988 and 1989 as a graduate assistant.

Originally a walk-on for the Huskers, Jamrog played for the freshman team in 1983, redshirted in 1984, then lettered for three years as a defensive end. As a senior, Jamrog started and had 66 tackles, eight sacks and 13 tackles for loss. Jamrog was a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1987 and was an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipient. He was also the winner of the 1987 Guy Chamberlin Trophy.

James Dobson enters his sixth season on the Nebraska football staff as Head Football Strength Coach. Dobson oversees all aspects of the Husker strength and conditioning program for football, which includes winter conditioning, summer workouts and inseason training.

In 2012, Dobson was one of 15 strength and conditioning coaches certified as a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

In Dobson's five seasons directing Nebraska's strength and conditioning efforts, the Huskers have had impressive gains both on and off the field. Outstanding conditioning has been a key factor in NU ranking among the nation's top fourth-quarter teams. In 2012, Dobson's strength and conditioning efforts helped Nebraska rally from double-digit second-half deficits four times in Big Ten play, including tying for the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history with a 12-point rally at Northwestern.

In 2008, Nebraska outscored its opponents 155-52 in the fourth quarter. Nebraska's point total and scoring differential in the fourth quarter were both second best in the nation. The Huskers again dominated the fourth quarter in 2009. Nebraska outscored its opponents 96-32 in the fourth quarter. The 32 points allowed in the fourth quarter tied for the fewest in the nation, while the 64-point differential was fourth. Overall in the second half, Nebraska outscored its opponents 154-55, as the 55 second-half points were the fewest allowed by any team in the nation.

Prior to Nebraska, Dobson was part of the Iowa Hawkeye football program. He was in Iowa City during one of the most successful periods in school history. Iowa appeared in bowl games in six of seven seasons and won 38 games from 2002 to 2005. Iowa won 25 Big Ten games in that same period, including Big Ten titles in 2002 and 2004.

Dobson has had a history of working with some of the top college football players in the country over the past decade. Top pupils Dobson has worked with include defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh, cornerback Prince Amukamara and linebacker Lavonte David at Nebraska along with safety Bob Sanders, tight end Dallas Clark, offensive tackle Robert Gallery and linebacker Chad Greenway at lowa.

Suh was a Heisman finalist and the most decorated defensive lineman in nearly two decades while earning national player-of-the-year honors for the Cornhuskers in 2009. The impact of Dobson and the NU strength and conditioning program on Suh is evident. Following the completion of his career, Suh showed his appreciation by donating $2 million to enhance the four-year old Nebraska strength and conditioning facility.

th and conditioning facility.

Amukamara developed into a first-round NFL Draft pick in 2011 after earning first-team All-America honors for the Huskers in 2010. He went on to win the Super Bowl with the New York Giants in his first season in the league.

college football. After starring as a junior college All-American, David recorded the most tackles in school history as a junior in 2010, before earning All-America honors in 2011. David was selected in the second round of the 2012 NFL Draft.

Sanders earned All-America honors at lowa in 2003, and was the 2007 NFL Defensive Player of the Year with the Indianapolis Colts. Clark began his Hawkeye career as a walk-on linebacker, but moved to tight end and went on to earn All-America honors in 2002, before being a first-round draft pick. Gallery came to lowa as a 240-pound tight end, and through the strength program, he left as a 320-pound offensive tackle, won the 2003 Outland Trophy and was the second overall selection in the 2004 draft. Greenway earned All-America honors as a senior in 2005, and was a first-round pick of the Minnesota Vikings in 2006.

In addition to his experience at lowa, Dobson worked for two years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Southern Methodist, working with the football, volleyball and basketball teams.

Dobson attended the University of Wisconsin-Madison, where he worked as a student assistant with the Badger football team for three seasons. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Wisconsin in 1996, and his master's of science and administration degree from Central Michigan in 2004.

A certified strength and conditioning specialist and a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Dobson is a native of Mt. Horeb, Wis.

KYLE BREY GRADUATE ASSISTANT | OFFENSE

Kyle Brey joins the Nebraska coaching staff as an offensive graduate assistant, and will work extensively with the Nebraska tight ends.

Brey spent the previous two years on the coaching staff at Kansas, where served as graduate assistant for the offense in 2012, and a quality control coach with the special teams in 2011.

Brey earned four letters at Buffalo, playing both tight end and fullback. Brey played in 38 games for the Bulls who were coached by former Husker Turner Gill for his first three seasons. Brey had eight catches in his career.

T.J. HOLLOWELL

GRADUATE ASSISTANT DEFENSE

T.J. Hollowell is in his third season as a graduate assistant coach for the Husker football program. He assists the coaching staff on the defensive side of the ball, working extensively with the linebackers.

Hollowell is in his fourth year with the Husker football program overall, as he served as an intern in 2010. In that role, he assisted the coaching staff and the Husker strength and conditioning staff.

While working with the defense in 2011, Hollowell helped linebacker Lavonte David earn the Big Ten's Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker-of-the-Year award, while Alfonzo Dennard was named the Tatum-Woodson Defensive Back of the Year. David also earned first-team All-America honors. Overall, Nebraska ranked 18th nationally in pass defense last season, and the Huskers held six of their 13 opponents to two touchdowns or less, including holding three opponents to single digits.

In 2012, the Huskers ranked fourth nationally in pass defense and ninth in pass efficiency defense, while linebacker Will Compton recorded 110 tackles to earn All-Big Ten honors.

A former starter for the Blackshirts, Hollowell signed with the New York Giants as a free agent in 2004 and spent two seasons in the NFL. He played for the New York Giants in 2004 and the New York Jets in 2005, while also spending two training camps with the Denver Broncos. He also spent parts of two years in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos.

Hollowell played four seasons at Nebraska from 2000 to 2003, totaling 173 career tackles in helping the Huskers to four bowl games, including the BCS National Championship Game in 2001. As a senior, he earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 recognition from the league coaches and the AP, totaling 80 stops, including eight tackles for losses. He tied Nebraska's school record with eight pass breakups and was part of a defense that forced a schoolrecord 47 turnovers.

A native of Copperas Cove, Texas, Hollowell received his degree in sociology from Nebraska in 2009.

JOE GANZ GRADUATE ASSISTANT OFFENSE

A record-setting quarterback for the Huskers, Joe Ganz is in his second year in a graduate assistant role in 2013 and his fourth year overall on the Nebraska coaching staff. Previously, Ganz served as a football intern and graduate manager in 2010 and 2011. Ganz works extensively with the Husker quarterbacks, in addition to helping offensive coordinator Tim Beck in a variety of roles. Ganz helped Taylor Martinez break his own school record for total offense in a season in 2012.

Before moving into a coaching role, Ganz was a standout quarterback for the Huskers from 2004 to 2008. Although he had to wait until the latter half of the 2007 season for his chance to shine, Ganz ended his career owning 23 Nebraska school records. He established Husker records with 510 passing yards, 528 yards of total offense and seven passing touchdowns against Kansas State in 2007 in only his second career start. Ganz also holds Nebraska game records for pass completions and attempts and total offense attempts.

A native of Palos Heights, Ill., Ganz held Nebraska season records for passing yards, completions and total offense, all set during his senior year in 2008. That season, Ganz completed nearly 70 percent of his passes while throwing for 3,568 yards and 25 touchdowns. He added 258 yards on the ground with five rushing touchdowns. Ganz finished his career second in school history in passing yards (5,125) and passing touchdowns (44).

Ganz was a two-time Big 12 Offensive Player-of-the-Week selection and was on the watch list for the 2008 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award. In the classroom, Ganz was a 2008 firstteam academic All-Big 12 selection and a seven-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll nonoree. He earned his degree in business administration from Nebraska in December of 2008.

In May of 2013, he was honored by Academy of Art University with an honorary doctorate degree.

Williams was a four-year letterwinner on the Husker football team from 1979 to 1982, earning All-Big Eight honors in 1981 and 1982. He caught 44 passes for 516 yards and seven touchdowns in his career. He was inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 1993.

Following his NU career, Williams was a third-round draft pick of the New York Giants and went on to play 12 seasons in the NFL with the St. Louis Cardinals (1983), Houston Oilers (1984-88), San Francisco 49ers (1989-93) and Los Angeles Raiders (1994). He was a co-captain for San Francisco for four seasons and was a part of the 49ers' Super Bowl XXIV championship team. He was twice named his team's Man of the Year during his career.

Following his playing career, Williams embarked on a professional career that includes work in the film industry as a writer, director, screenwriter and actor. Williams served as a writer, technical director and actor in Any Given Sunday. Williams also has extensive work as a management consultant/executive coach.

A 1990 UNL graduate with a bachelor's in journalism, Williams continued his education following his football career. He received his Masters of Science in Mass Communication from San Jose State in 1993, and a Doctorate of Education in Organization and Leadership, including an emphasis in sports administration, from San Francisco in 2000.

Williams and his wife, Charlotte, have a son, Evan, a redshirt freshman quarterback at NU, and a daughter, Raven.

PELINI SET FOR YEAR SIX WITH HUSKERS

Nebraska enters into season six with Bo Pelini as the head coach in 2013. Pelini has put together five consecutive seasons with at least nine wins during his time on the Husker sideline. Nebraska is one of only four schools in the country to win at least nine games each of the past five years.

The Huskers are in their third season in the Big Ten Conference in 2013, after winning the Legends  $Division and advancing to the Big Ten Championship Game \ last season. The Huskers enter this season$ with a goal of a return trip to Indianapolis on Dec. 7, for the third Big Ten title contest.

Nebraska opens the 2013 season at home against Wyoming on Saturday, Aug. 31. The contest against the Cowboys is one of eight home games on the 2013 schedule, including the first five games of the year.

HUSKERS SEEK SIXTH STRAIGHT NINE-WIN SEASON

Nebraska posted a 10-4 record in 2012, giving the Huskers nine or more victories in each of Bo Pelini's first five seasons as head coach. The streak of five straight nine-win seasons puts Nebraska in an elite class nationally.

- » Nebraska is one of four schools that has won at least nine games each of the past five seasons. The others in that group include Alabama, Boise State and Oregon.
- » Pelini has guided NU to 10-win seasons in three of the last four years, and Nebraska has appeared in a conference championship game three of the last four years.
- » The five straight years of at least nine wins marks the first time NU has accomplished that since its NCAA record streak of 33 straight nine-win seasons from 1969 to 2001.
- » Nebraska has 47 nine-win seasons in school history, including 39 since 1969.

PELINI STACKS UP WELL WITH PEERS

- In guiding Nebraska to a 49-20 record, Pelini has put himself in some impressive company. » Among schools currently in a BCS-AQ conference, Pelini has become just the 11th head coach in college football history to win at least nine games in his first five seasons on the job at that school. The group includes three Nebraska coaches (Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne, Pelini).
- » When looking only at coaches in their first head coaching job at a BCS Conference school, Pelini is one of only four to win nine games in each of their first five years, joining Osborne, Barry Switzer (Oklahoma) and Larry Coker (Miami).
- » Pelini was among a group of 18 FBS head coaches who were hired for their jobs beginning with the 2008 season. Pelini leads that group of 18 head coaches in victories over the past five years with 48 wins. In fact, Pelini is one of only six coaches in the group of 18 still in the job they were hired for prior to the 2008 season.

MOST WINS AMONG 2008 HIRING CLASS

| Coach           | School       | Wins |  |
|-----------------|--------------|------|--|
| Bo Pelini       | Nebraska     | 48   |  |
| Paul Johnson    | Georgia Tech | 41   |  |

NEBRASKA STAFF REMAINS INTACT FOR 2013 SEASON

Nebraska's coaching staff will have a familiar look in 2013, as all nine assistants returned to Coach Bo Pelini's staff. Tim Beck is in his third season as offensive coordinator in 2013, after guiding Nebraska's offense to a top-10 national rushing effort last season.

Seventh-year Nebraska assistant Barney Cotton adds the role of run game coordinator and will tutor the Nebraska tight ends this fall, in addition to his role with the offensive line. Ron Brown (running backs), Rich Fisher (wide receivers) and John Garrison (offensive line) also return to the offensive staff.

The defensive staff is under the direction of second-year coordinator John Papuchis. Last season, the Blackshirts ranked among the nation's top units in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Returning to the defensive staff along with Papuchis are Ross Els (linebackers), Terry Joseph (secondary) and Rick Kaczenski (defensive line).

 $Ne braska\ has\ one\ new\ face\ among\ its\ graduate\ assistants,\ with\ Kyle\ Brey,\ the\ son\ of\ Notre$ Dame basketball coach Mike Brey, joining the offensive staff. Former NU quarterback Joe Ganz is the other offensive graduate assistant, while T.J. Hollowell and Jake Mandelko return as defensive graduate assistants.

HUSKERS TOP BIG TEN IN WINS IN PAST TWO YEARS

Nebraska will move into its third season of play in the Big Ten Conference in 2013. In its first two years in the conference, Nebraska has performed well, posting 19 wins over the two seasons, including a 12-4 record in Big Ten Conference regular season games.

After finishing third in the Legends Division in 2011, Nebraska captured the division crown and made a trip to the Big Ten Conference Championship Game in 2012. Overall, Nebraska's 12 conference victories in the past two seasons are tied for the most of any Big Ten school. The Huskers' 8-2 record in division play also leads the conference.

MEMORIAL STADIUM CONSTRUCTION COMPLETE FOR 2013

Fans coming to Memorial Stadium this fall will be greeted by a new look to the East side of Memorial Stadium. The East Stadium expansion will push Nebraska's average attendance beyond 90,000. While adding more than 5,000 seats, including a combination of club seats, suites and general public seating, the addition preserves the rich tradition and original architecture of Memorial Stadium.

The East Stadium addition also includes dedicated restrooms and concessions areas. A new grand lobby, expanded concourse and additional first-aid areas also were added. No East Stadium seats were removed during the expansion and no season ticket holders were required to relocate their seats as part of this project.

The addition includes dedicated areas on the ground floor for research, both for Athletics and UNL Research. The 50,000-square foot research area is a unique collaboration between Athletics and Academics. The Nebraska Athletic Performance Lab will be housed on the north end of the facility, and will be operated by the Athletic Department. The Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior will be housed in the south half of the facility.

Along with the additions on the East Stadium, Nebraska also replaced the FieldTurf at Memorial Stadium this summer. The field will have the same design as the previous field which had been in place since the 2005 season.

NU HOPES TO KEEP RUNNING GAME ON TRACK

Nebraska has featured one of the nation's top rushing attacks each of the past three seasons. A year ago, Nebraska averaged 253.4 rushing yards per game to lead the Big Ten and rank eighth nationally in rushing offense. The rushing average per game was the best by a Nebraska team since the Huskers ran for 268.7 yards per game in 2002.

- » The 2012 season marked the third straight season Nebraska has averaged better than 200 rushing yards per game and ranked in the top 15 nationally in that category. In 2010, Nebraska ranked first in the Big 12 and ninth nationally, and in 2011 NU rushed for 217.2 yards per game, good for third in the Big Ten and 15th nationally.
- » Nebraska returns a pair of 1,000-yard rushers from the 2012 season in I-back Ameer Abdullah (1,137 yards) and guarterback Taylor Martinez (1,019 yards). The 2013 season will mark the first time in school history Nebraska returns a pair of players who have rushed for 1.000 vards in a season.
- » Nebraska is one of only two schools in the country with two players who topped 1,000 vards last season returning this fall (Kent State).
- » Nebraska has had a 1,000-yard rusher each of the past three seasons. That is the longest stretch for Nebraska since the Huskers had at least one 1,000-yard rusher from 2000 to 2002.
- » Nebraska posted a total of 15 individual 100-yard rushing games last season, and four games with a pair of 100-yard rushers. Nebraska now has 73 all-time games with two 100-yard rushers. Martinez and Abdullah combined for the milestone three times last season.

- » Four different Huskers topped 100 yards in a game last season. Nebraska was one of only five schools to have four or more players reach the century mark.
- » Nebraska ran for at least 200 yards 12 times in 14 games last season and rushed for 250 or more yards eight times.
- » The Huskers were one of only four teams in the country with at least four players who averaged at least 5.0 yards per carry and had at least 50 carries. Nebraska had five players reach those milestones in 2012.
- » Taylor Martinez has 2,858 career rushing yards, the most of any returning player in the FBS ranks.
- » Nebraska also passed for better than 200 yards per game in 2012, and was one of only 19 schools in the country to average better than 200 yards per game in both rushing and passing. The Huskers were the only team in the Big Ten in the 200-200 club.

The trio of Martinez, Abdullah and junior wide receiver Kenny Bell puts Nebraska in some rare air in college football.

» Nebraska is one of only three schools to return a 5,000-yard career passer, a 1,000-yard career receiver and two 1,000-yard career rushers for the 2013 season.

MARTINEZ POISED TO RE-WRITE NU RECORD BOOK

Nebraska senior quarterback Taylor Martinez has made a sizeable dent in the Husker school record book during his first three seasons as a starter. The 6-1, 210-pound Martinez already holds at least 29 school records. With a full season ahead, Martinez is in position to shatter more school marks, while statistically ranking among the top run-pass quarterbacks in college football history.

Heading into Martinez's final season in 2013, the Corona, Calif., native has already put up remarkable numbers, including:

- » Martinez holds Nebraska's career total offense record with 9,449 yards. He set the Nebraska record midway through the 2012 season, surpassing the previous record of 7,915 yards by 2001 Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch.
- » Martinez established a season total offense record in 2012, with 3,890 yards of total offense. He broke the previous record of 3,826 yards by Joe Ganz in 2008. Ganz now serves as an offensive graduate assistant with the Huskers and helps tutor Martinez. Martinez has the top total offense seasons in school history for a freshman, sophomore and junior.
- » Martinez threw for 2,871 yards in 2012, the third-best single-season in Nebraska history. His 2012 passing total pushed Martinez to 6,591 career passing yards to set a new NU record. The previous career record of 5,850 yards was set by Zac Taylor in 2005-06.
- » Martinez had 23 passing touchdowns last season and has a school-record 46 in his career, one better than Taylor's career total.
- » Martinez accounted for a school-record 33 touchdowns last season (23 pass, 10 rush), bettering the previous record of 32 by Gerry Gdowski in 1989. Martinez has accounted for 77 touchdowns in his career, 13 shy of the school record of 90 by Crouch.
- » With 1,019 rushing yards in 2012, Martinez posted the fourth 1,000-yard rushing season in school history by a Nebraska quarterback. He also pushed his career rushing total to 2,858 yards. That figure ranks second among quarterbacks in school history, trailing only Crouch's 3,434 yards. Martinez is also eighth overall on the Nebraska career rushing list.
- » Martinez enters his senior season with 39 career starts, the most in NU history among quarterbacks, one more than Crouch's 38 starts. His 39 career starts are also the most of any returning quarterback in the country. By comparison, all other quarterbacks among the five other schools in the Big Ten Legends Division have a combined 56 career starts.

MARTINEZ STATS STACK UP ON NCAA ALL-TIME CHARTS

Martinez not only has impressive statistics on the school's all-time lists, but he also compares favorably with a number of quarterbacks nationally.

Over the past two seasons Martinez threw for a combined 4,960 yards, while rushing for a combined 1,893 yards, good for a combined 6,853 yards of total offense. Martinez is one of only three quarterbacks to pass for 4,000 yards and rush for 1,500 yards in the past two seasons, and one of only five to reach the 3,000/1,500 milestones. Martinez has the most total yards among that group of five quarterbacks.

- Taylor Martinez, Nebraska (4,960 passing, 1,893 rushing; 6,853 total yards)
- 2) Colin Klein, Kansas State (4,559 passing, 2,061 rushing; 6,520 total yards)
- 3) Cody Faiaro, Nevada (4.493 passing, 1.815 rushing; 6.308 total yards)
- 4) Denard Robinson, Michigan (3,492 passing, 2,442 rushing; 5,934 total yards)
- 5) Braxton Miller, Ohio State (3,198 passing, 1,986 rushing; 5,184 total yards)

In the past two seasons, Martinez's 6,853 yards of total offense ranked 10th nationally, while his rushing total ranked fifth among quarterbacks. He is one of only six quarterbacks in the FBS ranks to post a 2,000-yard passing/1,000-yard rushing season in either 2011 or 2012. Martinez is joined on that list by Denard Robinson (Michigan), Braxton Miller (Ohio State), Johnny Manziel (Texas A&M), Chandler Harnish (Northern Illinois) and Jordan Lynch (Northern Illinois).

- » Martinez is also in position to record 9,000 career passing yards and 3,000 rushing yards, needing 2,409 passing yards and 142 rushing yards to reach those figures. If he would accomplish that feat he would join Colin Kaepernick as the only players in FBS history to reach the 9,000/3,000 career mark.
- » Martinez's 2,858 yards rushing are the most of any returning player in the FBS ranks regardless of position. His 9,449 yards of total offense entering 2013 are third among active players, and he has already placed his name alongside some of the game's top dual-threat signal callers.
- » Martinez is just the 12th player in FBS history to pass for 6,000 yards and rush for 2,500 yards in a career. He was one of only four players to reach that milestone before the end of their junior year, joining Kaepernick, Vince Young (Texas) and Brad Smith (Missouri).

ABDULLAH LOOKS FOR BACK-TO-BACK 1,000-YARD SEASONS

Junior I-back Ameer Abdullah became one of the Big Ten's top running backs in 2012, after an injury limited senior Rex Burkhead throughout the season. Abdullah was more than up to the challenge of carrying a heavy load in the rushing game, teaming with Martinez to give Nebraska a pair of 1,000-yard rushers.

The 5-9, 190-pound Abdullah finished the 2012 season with 1,137 yards, while averaging 5.0 yards per rushing attempt. The play of Abdullah keyed a Nebraska offense that ranked eighth nationally in rushing, averaging better than 250 yards per game. The Huskers gained at least 200 yards on the ground 12 times in 14 games in 2012.

Abdullah averaged 81.2 rushing yards per game and earned second-team All-Big Ten honors from the league's coaches, while being an honorable-mention pick by the media.

Abdullah and Martinez posted the 32nd and 33rd 1,000-yard rushing seasons in Nebraska history, and Abdullah's 1,000-yard campaign was the eighth in school history by a sophomore. His 1,137 yards ranked as the 19th-best single-season effort at Nebraska.

- » Abdullah will enter his junior season with 1,287 career rushing yards, and appears poised to become the 28th player in school history with 2,000 rushing yards.
- » Abdullah rushed for better than 100 yards in each of his first five career starts. He was the first Nebraska player to record 100-yard rushing games in each of his first five starts since Lawrence Phillips topped 100 yards in each of his first 11 starts in 1994.
- » Abdullah continued to be an explosive all-purpose threat for the Huskers in several areas in 2012. Abdullah averaged 13.1 yards per punt return, including an 81-yard return for a score against Idaho State. He also averaged 21.2 yards per kickoff return and had an 83yard kickoff return against Wisconsin. Abdullah's 134.6 all-purpose yards per game were fourth in the Big Ten and 31st nationally.

Abdullah had 1,884 all-purpose yards in 2012 to rank sixth on the NU single-season all-purpose yardage list. It was the most all-purpose yards for a Husker since 1997.

BELL LEADS B1G'S TOP RETURNING RECEIVING CORPS

Nebraska will return its top three receivers for 2013, including junior Kenny Bell, who is in position to threaten several NU school records at the midpoint of his career. Bell is joined by fellow junior Jamal Turner and senior Quincy Enunwa to give Nebraska one of the nation's top groups of receivers.

As a sophomore, Bell led Nebraska with 50 receptions for 863 yards and eight touchdowns. The 50 receptions marked just the seventh time in school history a Husker player had reached 50 catches, and the 863 receiving yards were the fourth-highest single-season total in NU history. Bell earned second-team All-Big Ten honors by both the league coaches and media for his play in 2012.

Bell's season stacked up as one of the best in school history for a NU receiver.

- » Bell's 863 receiving yards were fourth on the NU season receiving yardage list, and set a Nebraska sophomore record, shattering the previous mark of 665 yards by Johnny Rodgers in 1970
- » Bell became the 20th Husker with 1,000 career receiving yards. He now has 1,324 career receiving yards to rank ninth in school history. He is 208 yards from the top five on the list and less than 450 yards from the third spot on the career chart.
- » Bell's 50 receptions in 2012 ranked seventh on the NU single-season list. His 82 career catches are ninth. He is just 26 catches from moving into the top five on the career chart and stands 84 receptions from the school record.
- » Bell had career highs of nine receptions for 136 yards and two touchdowns against Minnesota. His 136 receiving yards were the most by a Husker in three seasons and bettered his career high of 133 yards at Ohio State.

- » Bell's 17.3 yards per catch ranked second in the Big Ten and eighth nationally among players in the top 100 in receiving yards per game. His average was the 10th-best in Husker history among players with at least 30 catches in a season.
- » Bell had 16 receptions that covered at least 20 yards, with all eight of his touchdown catches coming from 25 yards or more. Bell had a career-long 74-yard reception at Ohio State on Oct. 6.
- » Bell had a streak of 23 straight games with a catch end at Iowa. The 23-game streak was the third-longest in NU history.
- » Bell reached the 1,000-yard career receiving mark in just his 20th career game, making him the second-fastest Husker to reach that plateau. Only 1972 Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers reached 1,000 career receiving yards in less than 20 games.

HUSKERS SPREAD BALL IN PASSING GAME

Nebraska's passing game returns several other options beyond Bell, led by senior Quincy Enunwa and junior Jamal Turner. In 2012, Enunwa had 42 receptions for 470 yards, with Turner adding 32 catches for 417 yards. As a group, Bell, Enunwa and Turner accumulated 124 receptions for 1,750 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Enunwa's 42 receptions were just outside of the single-season top 10 on the Nebraska charts. With both Bell and Enunwa topping the 40-catch barrier last season, Nebraska had a pair of players with at least 40 receptions for just the fifth time in school history.

The 6-2, 225-pound Enunwa enters his senior season with 64 career receptions to rank just one catch out of the top 20 and 18 receptions from the top 10 on the Husker career receiving list. Enunwa has 773 receiving yards, putting him in position to join NU's list of 1,000-yard career receivers. That group currently includes 21 players.

Enunwa matched his career high with six receptions for a career-best 110 yards at Northwestern in 2012. He also had six catches in the season opener against Southern Miss, and had at least three catches six times in 2012.

Turner gave Nebraska a third explosive option at wideout during his sophomore season. He was one of Nebraska's stars in the second half of the season, and the 6-1, 185-pounder made the most of his first two career TD receptions. He caught a five-yard touchdown pass with six seconds left to provide the game-winning score at Michigan State and added a five-yard fourth-quarter grab for a score against Penn State to put the Huskers ahead for the first time. Turner finished with 32 catches for 417 yards. He had 18 of his 32 receptions in the final six games of the season.

LONG LEADS EXPERIENCED HUSKER O-LINE

Offensive guard Spencer Long is the anchor of an experienced 2013 line that will feature five seniors who have seen extensive action throughout their Husker careers.

The 6-4, 315-pound Long has started every game at right guard the past two seasons and has been a key force in one of the nation's top offenses. Last season, Nebraska led the Big Ten and ranked eighth nationally in rushing offense at 253.4 yards per game. The Huskers also topped the Big Ten in total offense averaging 460.8 yards per game.

Long's play was recognized in 2012. The former walk-on earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from both the league media and coaches, and was a second-team All-America pick by the Associated Press and the Walter Camp Foundation. Long became the first NU offensive lineman since 2001 to be named a first- or second-team All-American.

This fall, Long should be a strong candidate for first-team All-America honors as well as a leading contender for the Outland Trophy. Nebraska boasts a nation-leading nine Outland Trophy winners, including six by offensive linemen.

Long's honors will likely go beyond the field. He has been an Academic All-District VII selection each of the past two years and is a strong candidate for first-team Academic All-America honors this year.

The veteran line also features returning senior starters in tackles Brent Qvale and Jeremiah Sirles. Sirles has started 28 games in his Nebraska career, including all 14 games at right tackle in 2012. Qvale earned 13 starts at left tackle last season and has played in 40 games in his career.

They are joined on the line by fellow seniors Cole Pensick and Andrew Rodriguez, who both have starting experience. Pensick split time between guard and center last season and started the final two games of the year at center. Rodriguez was the top reserve at tackle last season and has eight career starts.

2013 SCHEDULE FEATURES EIGHT HOME GAMES

Nebraska will face another demanding schedule in the Big Ten this fall, and will have the opportunity for eight home games for the first time in five seasons and just the seventh time in school history.

Nebraska will open with five consecutive home games over a six-week stretch, beginning with the season opener against Wyoming on Aug. 31. Following Southern Miss' visit, UCLA will come to Lincoln on Sept. 14, and the Huskers round out the non-conference season against South Dakota State on Sept. 21. The non-conference foes are familiar, as NU has previously faced each of the teams in the last three seasons.

Following a bye week, Nebraska will begin conference play on Oct. 5 against Illinois in Lincoln, in the Huskers' 2013 Homecoming contest. The 2013 season will mark the first time NU has opened with five home games since 2008.

NU's first two road games come in October, at Purdue on Oct. 12 and at Minnesota on Oct. 26. Nebraska will face a demanding stretch of games in November beginning with a Nov. 2 visit from Northwestern. Michigan State (Nov. 16) and Iowa (Nov. 29) will visit Lincoln in the final month of the regular season, while NU must travel to Michigan (Nov. 9) and Penn State (Nov. 23).

- » The schedule includes six teams who participated in a bowl game last season, including five Big Ten opponents.
- » Nebraska will face Illinois and Purdue for the first time as Big Ten opponents, after not facing the two schools in 2011 and 2012. The matchup with Purdue is just the second meeting between the teams.
- » UCLA makes its first visit to Lincoln since 1994, however the Bruins are one of Nebraska's most frequent non-conference opponents. The schools have met 11 times, including last year's UCLA win at the Rose Bowl.
- » Nebraska and Iowa will meet in the third Heroes Game on Friday, Nov. 29, the day after Thanksgiving. It will mark the 24th straight year Nebraska has played on Black Friday.

HUSKERS TO BE SEEN NATIONWIDE

Nebraska will once again have some of the nation's best television coverage in 2013. Five of Nebraska's games have had their television arrangements announced, including each of the first three games of the season.

Nebraska will open the year with a pair of prime-time games on BTN, and has three other game times set for the fall, including a pair of ABC national telecasts.

Television Schedule

Aug. 31–vs. Wyoming, 7 p.m. CT (BTN) Sept. 7–vs. Southern Miss, 5 p.m. CT (BTN) Sept. 14–vs. UCLA, 11 a.m. CT (ABC) Oct. 5–vs. Illinois, 11 a.m. CT (TBD) Nov. 29–vs. Iowa, 11 a.m. CT (ABC)

SEASON-OPENING WIN STREAK

Nebraska will face Wyoming in the season opener in Lincoln, marking the Cowboys' first trip to Lincoln since 1994. Nebraska will have the opportunity to extend a remarkable streak of success in season openers.

The Huskers will head into the game against Wyoming with victories in each of its last 27 season openers. The streak leads the nation, bettering Florida's 23 straight season-opening wins.

The Huskers have won each of their last 27 season openers by nine or more points, including a 49-20 win over Southern Miss in 2012. NU has scored 40 or more points in the opener 20 of the past 27 seasons. In the win streak, NU has limited opponents to 14 points or less 18 times.

NCAA RECORD SELLOUT STREAK

One of the most remarkable streaks in collegiate sports passed its 50th anniversary last fall. Nebraska has sold out every game at Memorial Stadium since Nov. 3, 1962, and the streak now stands at 325 games entering the 2013 season.

Nebraska will look to begin its next 50 years of sellouts this fall at a newly expanded Memorial Stadium. With eight home games in 2013, the streak is likely to reach 333 by season's end. NU celebrated the 300th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium on Sept. 26, 2009, against Louisiana-Lafayette, with a stadium record crowd of 86,304. Notre Dame is second in all-time consecutive sellouts with 233, 92 fewer than Nebraska.

HUSKERS DOMINANT AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

Nebraska has rewarded the loyalty of its fans with incredible success at Memorial Stadium through the years.

- » Nebraska has won at least six home games in 22 of the past 27 seasons, including 2012. Nebraska is 148-20 (.881) at home in the last 24 seasons (since 1989).
- » Nebraska finished 7-0 at home in 2012 and is 19-2 at home over the past three seasons. Nebraska's perfect home season in 2012 was its first since 2001. The Huskers will carry an eight-game home winning streak into the 2013 season.
- » During Nebraska's run of success at home in the past 26 years, NU has had three home winning streaks of 20 or more games, and overall has posted 41 unbeaten and untied home seasons.
- » The Huskers are 517-139-20 (.780, 676 games, 123 years) in Lincoln, and 392-116-13 (.765, 521 games, 90 years) in Memorial Stadium (since 1923). The 2012 season marked the 44th straight season NU had a winning season at Memorial Stadium.

800-WIN CLUB

Nebraska is one of seven programs with 800 all-time victories, and NU's 856 all-time wins are fourth nationally.

| 1. | Michigan   | 903 |
|----|------------|-----|
| 2. | Texas      | 866 |

| 5. | Ohio State | 837 |
| 6. | Oklahoma   | 831 |
| 7  | Δlahama    | 827 |

Nebraska is entering its 124th season of college football and owns an 856-353-40 all-time record in 1,249 games (.701).

- » Since the first season of Nebraska football in 1890, Husker teams have won 11 or more games 12 times, including seven times since 1993.
- » Nebraska has won 12 or more games seven times, including three seasons with 13 wins (1971, 1994, 1997).
- » NU (702), Michigan (705), Alabama (728) and Notre Dame (736) were the only schools to win 700 games in the 1900s.

NATION'S BEST SINCE 1970

Nebraska ranks as the nation's winningest program since 1970. During the past four decades, the Huskers have compiled a 422-112-5 record, for a .788 winning percentage in 539 games. NU's 422 wins in that time period are 26 more than any other school.

| 1. | Nebraska   | 422 |
|----|------------|-----|
| 2. | Oklahoma   | 396 |
| 3. | Michigan   | 386 |
| 4. | Ohio State | 384 |

» Nebraska has 39 nine-win seasons and 24 10-win seasons since 1970. NU has posted five straight nine-win seasons for the first time since an NCAA-record 33 straight from 1969 to 2001.

NEBRASKA THIRD IN ALL-TIME BOWL APPEARANCES

Nebraska played in its 49th all-time bowl game with its appearance in the 2013 Capital One Bowl. The Huskers have played in the postseason in 42 of the past 44 seasons, including an NCAA-record 35 straight bowl games from 1969 to 2003. Nebraska is 2-3 in bowl games during Bo Pelini's five full seasons as head coach and owns a 24-25 all-time bowl record.

 $The Huskers' 49 \, all-time \, bowl \, appearances over all \, tie \, for third, \, trailing \, only \, Alabama \, (59) \, and \, Texas \, (51) \, and \, tying \, with \, Tennessee \, (49). \, Nebraska's \, 24 \, bowl \, victories \, rank \, seventh \, nationally.$

Nebraska played the first of its 49 bowls in the Rose Bowl, when No. 7 Nebraska lost to No. 2 Stanford, 21-13, following the 1940 season. Nebraska's 35 consecutive bowls began with a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl, and ended following its appearance in the 2003 Alamo Bowl. The Huskers have been successful in recent years, winning 10 of their last 16 bowl games since the 1994 season.

2013 HUSKERS LOOK TO CONTINUE ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Nebraska has a long history of academic success in its football program. In 2012, Nebraska had two academic All-Americans in first-team selection Rex Burkhead and second-teamer Sean Fisher. The two football academic All-Americans put Nebraska over the 300-mark in academic All-Americans in all sports and Nebraska has a nation-leading 104 football academic All-Americans.

The 2013 Huskers will look to continue Nebraska's outstanding academic tradition. Twin brothers Spencer and Jake Long each earned Academic All-District VII honors last season and will be strong candidates for Academic All-America honors this fall, with several other Huskers in line to contend for academic honors as well.

GRADS FILL 2013 HUSKER ROSTER

Coach Bo Pelini's Husker teams have an excellent tradition of excelling in the classroom and the 2013 team is no different. Among the 23 members of Nebraska's 2013 senior class, six players had earned their degrees by the end of the spring semester. Another three players are on track to finish in August, giving NU nine graduate students on its roster by the start of the 2013 season.

Offensive lineman Cole Pensick and fullback C.J. Zimmerer graduated last December, while defensive end Jason Ankrah, cornerback Stanley Jean-Baptiste and offensive linemen Brent Qvale and Jeremiah Sirles finished their degree work in May. Andrew Green, Thad Randle and Mo Seisay will join the group as graduates in August.

2013 OUTLOOK

Junior I-back Ameer Abdullah played a leading role for the Nebraska offense in 2012 and is primed to take his game to a higher level this fall. The 5-9, 190-pound Abdullah became a workhorse for the Nebraska offense for much of last season, after senior Rex Burkhead was sidelined by injury. Abdullah was more than up for the challenge and is poised to lead one of the nation's top running attacks in 2013.

Despite his smaller frame, Abdullah is a powerful back who has the ability to run with equal effectiveness both inside and outside. He also has shown excellent ability as a pass receiver out of the backfield in his first two seasons.

Abdullah was limited to a handful of practices during spring ball after a minor injury sidelined him for the final 10 practices of the spring. The time on the sideline gave Abdullah the opportunity to focus on the mental side of the game this spring and gain an even better understanding of the NU offense.

 $Abdull ah \, produced \, six \, 100 \text{-yard} \, rushing \, games \, and \, finished \, the \, year \, with \, 1,137 \, rushing \, yards \, rushing \, y$ in 2012. For his play, Abdullah earned second-team All-Big Ten honors from the conference coaches, and he is poised to push for higher honors in 2013.

Abdullah's 1,000-yard rushing season in 2012 marked the third straight year a Nebraska I-back had surpassed the 1,000-yard mark. He and quarterback Taylor Martinez each topped 1,000 rushing yards last season, giving Nebraska a pair of returning 1,000yard rushers for the first time in school history. The duo is also one of only two returning 1,000-yard pairs in the country for the 2013 season.

The heavier rushing load in 2012 limited Abdullah's role as a return man, but he still showed the ability to be one of the nation's best in that area. He could once again figure into the Huskers' special teams plans this fall.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Abdullah played in all 14 games with seven starts, to help Nebraska lead the Big Ten in both rushing offense and total offense. Abdullah carried 226 times for 1,137 yards and eight touchdowns, while averaging 5.0 yards per carry. His 81.2 rushing yards per game ranked ninth in the Big Ten, while his 134.6 all-purpose yards per contest were good for fourth in Abdullah showed the ability to be an every-down back, as he carried the ball more than 15 times in eight games, including more than 30 carries against both Arkansas State and Penn State. Abdullah also caught 24 passes for 178 yards and two touchdowns. He averaged 21.2 yards on 17 kickoff returns to rank in the top 10 in the conference and also averaged 13.1 yards on 16 punt returns.

After Burkhead went down early in the Southern Miss contest, Abdullah took over as the lead back and ran 15 times for 81 yards. He also caught four passes in the game, including his first career receiving touchdown.

Abdullah earned his first career start the next week at UCLA and responded with 16 carries for 119 yards and two touchdowns. The 100-yard game marked the first of six for Abdullah in 2012, including each of his first five starts. Abdullah became the first NU player since 1994 to rush for at least 100 yards in each of his first five career starts.

Abdullah rushed for a career-high 167 yards on 30 carries against Arkansas State, including a career-long 45-yard run. A week later, he ran for 49 yards and a touchdown against Idaho State and had an 81-yard punt return for a touchdown.

Abdullah produced one of the most prolific all-purpose games in school history against Wisconsin in Lincoln. He totaled 252 all-purpose yards, including five kickoff returns for 142 yards, highlighted by an 83-yard return in the first quarter. He also ran 10 times for 70 yards and had 22 receiving yards. Abdullah had a big night in the return game at Ohio State with eight returns for 128 yards. He also scored a pair of rushing touchdowns against the Buckeyes.

The running of Abdullah helped key Nebraska's six-game win streak in the second half of the regular season. He ran 19 times for 101 yards at Northwestern in a 29-28 win, then had 24 carries for 101 hard-fought yards in a 23-9 victory over Michigan in Lincoln, including 85 rushing yards after halftime.

Abdullah ran for 110 yards on 22 carries against one of the nation's top run defenses at Michigan State and also caught a touchdown pass in the game. He continued to be a workhorse in a comeback win against Penn State, carrying a career-high 31 times for 116 yards, moving him past 1,000 career rushing yards. Abdullah carried 18 times for 79 yards against Minnesota to move past 1,000

With Burkhead returning to action for the final three games, Abdullah's carries decreased. He ran for a combined 127 yards on 39 carries in the final three games of the year.

2011 (FRESHMAN)

Abdullah saw action in every game as a true freshman in 2011. He rushed for 150 yards and three touchdowns, reaching the end zone against Penn State, Michigan and South Carolina. He was also one of the nation's most dangerous return threats. Abdullah averaged 29.3 yards on 26 kickoff returns, including a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Fresno State. He set a school record with 211 kickoff return yards against the Bulldogs. Abdullah ranked ninth nationally in kickoff return average and averaged better than seven vards on punt returns.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HOMEWOOD HS)

Abdullah was a running and receiving threat for Homewood High School and Coach Dickey Wright. Abdullah rushed for 1,800 yards and 24 touchdowns, while catching 33 passes for 515 yards as a senior. He also scored four touchdowns on punt returns to help Homewood Abdullah was named the South region player of the year by the Birmingham News. He scored the winning TD in the Mississippi-Alabama All-Star Classic, and was selected to participate in the Offense-Defense All-American bowl, where he starred as a defensive back.

As a junior, Abdullah rushed for more than 1,000 yards and had 24 catches for more than 200 yards. Rivals.com ranked him as one of the top 20 "athlete" prospects in the country and one of the top 10 players in Alabama. He was also ranked as one of the nation's top 60 running backs by Scout.com. Abdullah chose Nebraska after also visiting Tennessee and Vanderbilt, and he had a host of offers including USC, Texas A&M and South Carolina.

PERSONAL

Ameer is the son of Kareem and Aisha Abdullah, and he was born on June 13, 1993. Abdullah has volunteered time with a Nebraska Sportsmanship Rally, team hospital visits, the Belmont Rec Center, Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital and with Husker Heroes. He was honored as a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Award winner in 2012. Abdullah is majoring in history, and he has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of the past two semesters.

JARED AFALAVALINEBACKER | 6-3 | 230 | REDSHIRT FRESHMAN

SOUTH JORDAN, UTAH • BINGHAM

Redshirt freshman Jared Afalava (pronounced Off-uh-lava) is one of several young line backers who will be counted on to make an impact for the 2013 Nebraska defense. The talented, but youthful linebacking corps will play an important role for the Huskers this fall after the graduation of three fifth-year senior linebackers from the 2012 defense.

The 6-3, 230-pound Afalava is a candidate for a starting job at the Buck linebacker spot after he and fellow redshirt freshman Thomas Brown earned the majority of snaps with the top unit at that spot during spring practice. Afalava brings excellent size, strength and toughness to the position and figures to be a fixture in the NU defense for the next several years.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BINGHAM HS)

Afalava was a standout on the Bingham High defense for three seasons, helping the school to a pair of Class 5A state championships in Utah. Afalava recorded more than 180 career tackles, including 87 tackles in his senior season in 2011. He also had two sacks, three interceptions, two fumbles caused and a fumble recovery for Coach Dave Peck's team. Overall, Afalava had five games with 10 or more tackles in 2011, helping Bingham to a 9-3 record and trip to the second round of the Class 5A playoffs.

Afalava was a first-team Class 5A all-state pick by both the Salt Lake City Tribune and the Deseret News. Afalava played in the Semper Fi Marines All-America Bowl following his senior season.

He was also a standout during his junior year, totaling 87 tackles and five interceptions to help Bingham to a 13-0 record and a second straight state championship. Afalava was a first-team all-state pick by the Deseret News and a second-teamer according to the Salt Lake City Tribune. He also played a key role in a state title as a sophomore, compiling more than 20 tackles.

Afalava was ranked among the nation's top 50 linebackers by Rivals.com, 247 Sports and Scout.com, and was also regarded as one of the top five prospects in Utah. Afalava chose Nebraska after also visiting Washington. He also had offers from Oregon, UCLA, Utah, Colorado, Oregon State and BYU, among others.

PERSONAL

Afalava is the son of Kesi and Kay Afalava, and he was born on Oct. 30, 1993. He volunteered his time with Husker Heroes. Afalava has not yet declared a major.

LEROY ALEXANDER

DEFENSIVE BACK 6-0 190 REDSHIRT FRESHMAN

TOLEDO. OHIO • WHITMER

2013 OUTLOOK

LeRoy Alexander is among a group of talented young players who will look to make a bid for playing time in a veteran Husker secondary this fall. The 6-0, 190-pound Alexander spent the spring working at safety and will continue his bid for playing time at that spot into fall camp.

Alexander is also expected to be a candidate to contend for playing time on the Huskers' special teams unit. Alexander is part of the Huskers' recent strong recruiting efforts in Ohio.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Alexander redshirted his first season and made a strong impression on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WHITMER HS)

Alexander was a versatile player who starred as a senior at Whitmer High School in Toledo, Ohio, helping Coach Joe Palka's team to a 13-1 record. Whitmer advanced to the Division I (largest class) state semifinals before losing to eventual state champion Cleveland St. Ignatius.

Alexander was a valuable member of the secondary, racking up 43 tackles, seven pass breakups and a pair of interceptions. He was also an explosive threat on offense, with 60 rushes for 665 yards and eight touchdowns. He also had one touchdown reception.

Alexander played at Springfield High in Holland, Ohio, as a sophomore and junior before transferring for his senior season. Alexander helped Springfield to a 9-3 record in 2010, when he was a teammate of NU sophomore defensive lineman Kevin Williams. Alexander also had a scholarship offer from Toledo, and was drawing strong interest from Michigan State before deciding on Nebraska. Alexander was ranked as the No. 60 "athlete" prospect in the country according to Rivals.com. A talented two-sport standout. Alexander was an honorable-mention all-state pick in basketball for Springfield High School in 2011, and he helped Whitmer to a 23-2 record and top-10 ranking in Ohio in 2012.

PERSONAL

Alexander was born on Jan. 20, 1994, and he is the son of LeRoy and Theresa Alexander. He has not declared a major. Alexander has volunteered his time at local community center outreach events, Husker Heroes and at College View Academy as a guest reader.

WESTON, MASS. • THE RIVERS SCHOOL ONE LETTER

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2012)
- » Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2013 OUTLOOK

Sophomore wideout Taariq Allen expects to be a key part of one of the nation's deepest receiving units in 2013. The 6-3, 195-pound Allen was a part of Nebraska's regular receiving rotation as a redshirt freshman last fall before a serious knee injury sidelined him for the

Allen sat out this spring while continuing his rehabilitation, but is on schedule for a full recovery that should allow him to participate in fall camp. Allen is part of a group of six returning wideouts with extensive playing experience who helped NU lead the Big Ten in total offense last season.

The Massachusetts native has enjoyed a strong start at Nebraska in the classroom, earning academic All-Big Ten honors in 2012.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Allen played in the first eight games at receiver and on special teams. He caught two passes for 11 yards at Northwestern, highlighted by an eight-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter. The TD catch pulled Nebraska within five points as NU rallied from a 12-point deficit for a win. Allen suffered a knee injury on kickoff coverage the following week against Michigan and missed the rest of the season.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (THE RIVERS SCHOOL)

Allen was a standout at the Rivers School in Weston, Mass., where his head coach was Nebraska receivers coach Rich Fisher. Allen was the first Husker signee from Massachusetts since Grant Miller in 2002. Allen was a key factor in 2010 for The Rivers School, which finished 8-1, with its only loss in the Norm Walker Bowl, which determined the independent school state champion.

Allen had 36 catches for 660 yards and eight touchdowns and had 69 carries for 706 yards and eight touchdowns as a senior. Allen also played defensive back and totaled 60 tackles, four interceptions, a sack and a fumble recovery. Allen earned first-team All-New England accolades and first-team all-league honors as a junior after recording more than 600 receiving yards and better than 500 yards on the ground, while combining for 15 touchdowns. He also had two interceptions and two fumbles caused on defense. In addition, Allen was a standout on the basketball court for The Rivers School.

Allen was rated as the fifth-best prospect in Massachusetts by Rivals.com and was among the top 10 recruits in New England according to SuperPrep. Allen only visited NU, but also had offers from Connecticut, Wisconsin and Tulane.

Taariq is the son of Fred and Christy Allen and was born on July 26, 1992. Allen has been active in the community during his time in Lincoln. He has volunteered time with hospital visits and Husker Heroes. Allen is majoring in child, youth and family sciences.

ZAIRE ANDERSON LINEBACKER | 5-11 | 220 | JUNIOR

PHILADELPHIA, PA. • FRANKFORD HS • RIVERSIDE CC

2013 OUTLOOK

Linebacker Zaire Anderson is expected to be a key piece in the Nebraska linebacking corps in the 2013 season. The 5-11, 220-pound Anderson was poised to contribute last year, before an injury sent him to the sideline for the remainder of the season in September.

In his limited time on the field last fall, Anderson showed the ability to make plays from sideline to sideline and has a knack for being around the football. This spring, Anderson focused his time at the Will linebacker spot and is among the leading contenders to earn a starting role at the position.

2012 (MEDICAL HARDSHIP)

JASON ANKRAH DEFENSIVE END | 6-4 | 265 | SENIOR

GAITHERSBURG, MD. • QUINCE ORCHARD THREE LETTERS

2013 OUTLOOK

Defensive end Jason Ankrah has been a key member of the Nebraska front four each of the past three seasons, but will be looked at for a much bigger role in 2013. As the most experienced defender in Nebraska's front seven, Ankrah will be counted on to be a playmaker from his end spot and will play a leadership role on the defensive line.

The 6-4, 265-pound Ankrah has shown during his career that he has the physical tools to be both an effective run stopper and pass rusher from the end spot. Ankrah has started 18 games over the past two seasons, including each of the final seven games of 2012. After injuries depleted the defensive line last season, Ankrah helped solidify the front four down the stretch with increased playing time. His play also helped Nebraska feature one of the nation's top pass defenses.

Off the field, Ankrah earned his undergraduate degree in child, youth and family studies last May and will play the 2013 campaign as a graduate student.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Ankrah played in all 14 games and finished with 26 total tackles, including six tackles for loss and two sacks. He also forced a pair of fumbles and had three quarterback hurries. Ankrah had four games with at least three tackles.

Ankrah opened the year with four tackles against both Southern Miss and UCLA. He also had at least one tackle for loss in each of the first four games, including sacks against both Arkansas State and Idaho State. Ankrah also recorded one tackle for loss against Ohio State and Georgia. He forced fumbles against UCLA and Ohio State.

Ankrah played in 12 games with nine starts, including seven of the season's first eight games. He recorded 17 tackles, highlighted by a career-high five stops in NU's 20-7 win over lowa. Ankrah also had a tackle for loss against the Hawkeyes, giving him three TFLs in 2011, including a two-yard sack in the opener against Chattanooga. Ankrah had three tackles at Minnesota and had three other games with a pair of tackles.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Ankrah appeared in 10 games as a reserve defensive end and had two tackles.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

He redshirted in 2009 and was one of Nebraska's top scout team performers.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (QUINCE ORCHARD HS)

Ankrah was one of the top prospects on the East Coast after an outstanding career for Coach Dave Mencarini at Quince Orchard High School in Gaithersburg, Md. Ankrah was just the second Husker signee from Maryland since 1990, and attended the same high school as Nebraska defensive coordinator John Papuchis. Ankrah totaled 55 tackles as a senior, including 42 unassisted stops, 14 tackles for loss, seven sacks and 19 quarterback hurries. His play helped Quince Orchard to a 10-2 record and a trip to the Maryland 4A West Regional Final.

Ankrah was a first-team all-state pick, an All-Met selection by the Washington Post and was named to the All-Gazette (Gaithersburg) first team. Ankrah played in the first Maryland Crab Bowl, pitting the top players in Maryland against D.C. area standouts.

Ankrah had more than 50 tackles and five sacks as a junior, helping Quince Orchard to a perfect 14-0 record and Class 4A state championship. He earned first-team All-Sentinel as an offensive lineman. Ankrah also visited Michigan and Maryland and considered Virginia Tech and Clemson.

PERSONAL

Jason is the son of Kofi and Nanu Ankrah and was born on Feb. 26, 1991. He earned his degree in child, youth and family studies in May of 2013. He was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll in 2009 and 2010 and to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his final two semesters as an undergraduate.

TOMMY ARMSTRONG JR. #4

QUARTERBACK 6-1 220 REDSHIRT FRESHMAN

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2012)

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Tommy Armstrong Jr. enters the 2013 season in hopes of earning the backup quarterback spot behind three-year starter and returning All-Big Ten selection Taylor Martinez. The 6-1, 220-pound Armstrong fits the dual-threat mold of Martinez and past NU quarterbacks, and Armstrong's future in the NU program appears to be very bright.

Armstrong was impressive in practice last season before being sidelined by a minor knee surgery midway through the fall. He was at full speed for winter conditioning and spring ball and capped the spring with an impressive showing in the Red-White game, passing for 102 yards and a touchdown.

Armstrong is also off to a strong start in the classroom in Lincoln, being named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Armstrong redshirted his first season at Nebraska. He was impressive in his practice work early in the fall before being sidelined at mid-season with a knee injury.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (STEELE HS)

Armstrong was considered one of the nation's top dual-threat quarterbacks after leading Cibolo Steele High School to the Class 5A state championship game each of his final two seasons. Armstrong led Steele to 15 straight victories in 2011, before a loss in the state championship game. He produced huge numbers both as a runner and a passer as a senior, running for 1,281 yards and 16 touchdowns, while passing for 1,945 yards and 29 touchdowns against just two interceptions. He completed nearly 59 percent of his passes.

Armstrong showed his all-around ability during Steele's run to the state title game. In the quarterfinals, he threw for 279 yards and three touchdowns, while also rushing for a touchdown. In a semifinal win, Armstrong had 139 rushing yards and four touchdowns, while passing for another score. Armstrong was named to the San Antonio Express News All-Area team as an all-purpose player and was the District 25-5A Offensive MVP.

Armstrong also earned first-team all-district honors as a junior, when he led Cibolo Steele to a 14-2 record and a Class 5A Division II state championship. In 2010, Armstrong ran for more than 500 yards and eight touchdowns, while completing better than 51 percent of his passes for 1,343 yards and 19 touchdowns with just two interceptions. Armstrong was regarded as the No. 5 quarterback in the country and 18th-best overall prospect in the state of Texas by Scout.com, while Rivals.com ranked him among the top 50 players in Texas and one of the nation's top 10 dual-threat signal callers. Armstrong played in the Offense-Defense Bowl in Arlington, Texas, following his senior season. He only visited Nebraska, but had offers from coast to coast, including Georgia Tech, Oregon, Kansas, Missouri, Mississippi State, Southern Miss, TCU and UCLA.

PERSONAL

Tommy is the son of Tommy Armstrong Sr., and he was born on Nov. 8, 1993. He has been active in NU outreach activities, volunteering with the Husker Heroes program, numerous hospital and community center visits, as well as at Randolph Elementary and Lefler Middle schools. He has not declared a major.

WALKER ASHBURNDEFENSIVE END | 6-2 | 260 | JUNIOR

KENNER, LA. • JOHN CURTIS

2013 OUTLOOK

Defensive end Walker Ashburn will look to earn playing time in a new-look Nebraska defensive front in 2013. The Huskers graduated three of their top four ends from last season, giving the 6-2, 260-pound Ashburn an opportunity to see action in 2013.

Ashburn has added depth on the defensive front throughout his Nebraska career, seeing limited action last fall. Ashburn came to Nebraska from John Curtis High School in River Ridge, La., one of the dominant prep programs in the state of Louisiana.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Ashburn was a reserve defensive end and played in Nebraska's wins over Idaho State and Minnesota. He had two tackles against Idaho State, including sharing a sack.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Ashburn added depth on the defensive line. He did not see action in a game, but did make the travel roster late in the season when NU was battered with injuries.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Ashburn redshirted and worked on Nebraska's scout team defensive unit.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (JOHN CURTIS HS)

Ashburn's play as a senior helped Coach J.T. Curtis' team to a runner-up finish in the Class 2A state playoffs. The loss in the state title game prevented John Curtis from winning a sixth straight state title. Ashburn racked up 95 tackles and 16 sacks in 2009. His play earned him Louisiana Class 2A Defensive MVP honors. He also earned first-team all-state honors, as well as first-team all-metro and all-district accolades.

Ashburn had 90 tackles, 12 sacks and three forced fumbles as a junior in 2008, helping his team to a state championship. Ashburn was a four-year starter, and as a sophomore he was named MVP of the state championship game. Ashburn was a high school teammate of former Nebraska safety P.J. Smith. Ashburn also competed in track and was strong in the classroom, carrying better than a 3.6 grade-point average. He only visited Nebraska, but had numerous offers including Oklahoma State and Stanford.

PERSONAL

Walker is the son of Terry and Desiree Ashburn, and he was born on May 22, 1991. Walker's father works in the New Orleans Saints organization. Ashburn is majoring in communication studies and has twice been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. He has volunteered his time with team hospital and school visits and the Husker Heroes program.

2013 OUTLOOK

Junior Kenny Bell will head into the 2013 season as one of the top returning receivers in the Big Ten Conference and as a candidate for national honors this fall. He has also positioned himself to make a significant mark in the Nebraska record books during the second half of his Husker career.

The 6-1, 185-pound Bell has excellent speed and is an outstanding route runner who continues to become a more physical receiver for the Huskers. Bell is one of three returning receivers who caught at least 30 passes last season and form arguably the top receiving unit in the Big Ten.

Bell has led Nebraska in receptions, receiving yards and touchdown catches each of the last two seasons. In 2012, Bell caught 50 passes for 863 yards and eight scores. His 50 catches were seventh in Nebraska history, while his 863 yards and eight touchdown catches were both fourth on the career charts. Bell's 863 yards were also the most ever by an NU sophomore.

Bell's play as a sophomore earned him second-team All-Big Ten honors from both the league coaches and media. He also was tabbed a first-team selection by several media outlets.

Last season, Bell reached the 1,000-yard career receiving mark in just 20 games, the second-quickest and NU player has reached that milestone behind only 1972 Heisman winner Johnny Rodgers. Bell enters his junior season in ninth place in both receiving yards (1,324) and receptions (82) at Nebraska. He is poised to move into the top five in both categories this fall. His 11 career touchdown receptions are also three outside of the top five on that list.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Bell started all 14 games and led the team in every receiving category. He averaged 17.3 yards per catch to rank among the national leaders in that category, and his per-catch average was the 10th-best in school history among players with at least 30 receptions. Bell had 16 catches of at least 20 yards on the season and all eight of his touchdown catches were from 25 yards or more.

The Colorado native topped the 100-yard mark in receiving three times in 2012, including a career-high nine catches for a career-best 136 yards and two touchdowns against Minnesota. He also topped 100 yards against both UCLA and Ohio State. Bell had at least three catches in eight games, and had a reception in every game but the lowa contest. Prior to going without a catch at lowa, Bell caught a pass in 23 straight games, the second-longest streak in NU history. Bell also contributed in the return game in 2012, averaging 23.2 yards on 14 kickoff returns.

Bell's only reception in the opener against Southern Miss was a 26-yard touchdown grab. At UCLA, he set then career highs with six catches for 108 yards, all in the first half. The game marked the first 100-yard receiving effort for an NU player since 2010. Bell also had two kickoff returns for 70 yards, including a career-long 47-yard return.

Bell made the most of his three catches against Arkansas State, with a 42-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter and a 25-yard TD reception in the second quarter. A week later against Idaho State, Bell caught his fourth touchdown of the season on a then-career-long 68-yard reception in the first quarter.

HUSKERS.COM

Bell averaged 14.4 yards per catch as a redshirt freshman and had eight catches of at least 20 yards. Bell made 27 of his 32 catches in Big Ten play and had at least four catches in four of the final seven games. He had six games with at least three catches as a freshman, including five each against Iowa and Northwestern. In addition to his three receiving touchdowns, Bell also scored on an 82-yard touchdown run at Minnesota, the longest touchdown run in history by a Husker freshman.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Bell redshirted in his first season and earned Scout Team MVP honors.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FAIRVIEW HS)

Bell helped Fairview High to a 12-1 record and a state semifinal appearance in 2009. He caught 18 passes for 328 yards and three touchdowns, and added an interception and kickoff return for a touchdown. Bell missed much of the season with an injury, but scored five touchdowns in his first five games back in action. Despite his limited action, Bell's impact was recognized, as he was a first-team All-Colorado selection and first-team Class 5A all-state pick by the Denver Post.

As a junior, Bell earned first-team All-Front Range League honors, playing wingback and rushing for 958 yards and 12 touchdowns. He was ranked among the top 10 players in Colorado according to Rivals.com. Bell chose Nebraska after also visiting Minnesota and Texas Tech. He also had offers from several other schools, including Colorado, California, Arizona and Arizona State. In basketball, Bell helped his team to the state title game as a senior, and he also competed in track.

first quarter and a 30-yard TD catch in the third quarter. His nine receptions tied for the eighth-most in a game in NU history, and the 136 yards fell just outside of the top 10 on the single-game yardage list. After going without a catch at Iowa, Bell caught

two passes for 14 yards against Wisconsin in the Big Ten Championship

Game. He closed his sophomore season with four receptions for 60 yards in the Capital One

Bowl against Georgia. His four catches gave him 50 on the year, good for the seventh 50-catch season in NU history.

Bell played in every game and started the final 11 contests. A strong second half of the season allowed him to become just the second freshman ever to lead Nebraska in receptions and receiving yards (Nate Swift, 2005). Bell finished the year with 32 receptions, 461 receiving yards and three touchdown catches. His reception and yardage totals were the second-best ever for a Nebraska freshman.

GRETNA, NEB. • GRETNA

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman tight end Jared Blum will enter the 2013 season with a goal of earning playing time at a wide-open tight end spot. Nebraska graduated three tight ends from the 2012 team, leaving only senior Jake Long with game experience. The 6-4, 240-pound Blum is one of four players behind Long who made a strong impression during spring practice.

Blum has made good progress in the weight room in his first year at Nebraska, adding nearly 15 pounds of muscle. Blum is also off to a strong start in the classroom, earning Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll distinction in his first semester.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRETNA HS)

Blum was one of two walk-ons from Gretna to join the NU program in 2012, along with fullback Andy Janovich. Blum was a second-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald and a second-team Super State pick by the Lincoln Journal Star on defense as a senior.

Blum recorded 44 tackles to go along with 12 sacks and helped his team reach the semifinals of the Class B state playoffs. Blum was also a threat on offense, catching 18 passes for 380 yards and six touchdowns as a tight end.

Along with being a football standout, Blum starred on the Dragons' basketball team as a second-team Super State pick by the Lincoln Journal Star. He averaged 13.4 points and 7.0 rebounds per game as a junior. Blum had football scholarship offers from South Dakota State, Nebraska-Kearney and Northwest Missouri State.

PERSONAL

Jared was born on Nov. 14, 1993, and he is the son of Dave and Kristi Blum. He has not declared a major. Blum has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and team hospital visits.

MAURO BONDI

PLACE-KICKER/PUNTER 6-0 205 SOPHOMORE

BOCA RATON, FLA. • WEST BOCA RATON ONE LETTER

2013 OUTLOOK

Mauro Bondi is in line to take over a key role for Nebraska in 2013, as he hopes to continue an amazing run of success for Husker kicking specialists. Bondi has served as the backup place-kicker behind Brett Maher the past two seasons, and watched as Maher earned All-Big Ten honors as both a place-kicker and punter.

Maher himself had succeeded All-American Alex Henery in the same roles in 2011, and now Bondi looks to continue NU's success this fall. Like his two predecessors, Bondi has the ability to handle place-kicking, kickoff and punting duties and will look to solidify his hold on those spots this fall. Bondi redshirted last season, after seeing limited action in 2011.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Bondi was prepared as Maher's backup, but sat out the season as a redshirt.

2011 (FRESHMAN)

Bondi appeared in four games in 2011. He handled four kickoffs, two against Chattanooga and one each against Washington and Minnesota. He also connected on his only PAT attempt at Minnesota.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WEST BOCA RATON HS)

Bondi showcased his ability by handling place-kicking, punting and kickoff chores at West Boca Raton (Fla.) High School. As a senior, Bondi connected on 7-of-11 field goals with a long of 44 yards for Coach Willie Dodaro.

Bondi showed his leg strength by booting 45 of his 55 kickoff attempts for touchbacks. He also punted for West Boca Raton and averaged 43.2 yards per attempt. As a junior, Bondi hit on 13-of-19 field goals, with a long of 51 yards, drilled 47 kickoffs for touchbacks and also averaged better than 43 yards per punt. Bondi finished fourth in the kickoff competition at the 2010 Kohl's Scholarship Camp. Bondi was ranked among the nation's top 10 place-kickers by ESPN. He also had a scholarship offer from Wake Forest.

PERSONAL

Mauro is the son of Bruno and Connie Bondi, and he was born on Dec. 18, 1992. He is majoring in criminology and criminal justice. Bondi has volunteered his time with local hospital events, Husker Heroes and the Husker Hotline.

2013 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Tyson Broekemeier (pronounced Brock-meyer) will look to earn playing time at a well-stocked quarterback position in 2013. The Aurora (Neb.) High product will add depth behind fifth-year senior Taylor Martinez, a starter each of the past three seasons. Broekemeier has battled injuries early in his Nebraska career, including a season-ending knee injury as a true freshman in 2011. Broekemeier did complete the 2012 season and spring practice healthy and is ready to contribute this fall.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Broekemeier added depth at quarterback, but did not appear in a game.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Broekemeier suffered a knee injury during fall camp and sat out the season. He returned quickly from the injury, taking part in non-contact drills in Capital One Bowl practices in Orlando, and was nearly full strength during spring ball in 2012.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (AURORA HS)

Broekemeier guided Coach Randy Huebert's Aurora squad to an appearance in the Class B state semifinals in 2010 by piling up huge numbers at quarterback.

Broekemeier completed better than 70 percent of his passes for 2,047 yards and 31 touchdowns with just three interceptions. He also rushed for 630 yards and 12 touchdowns. As a senior, Broekemeier was named the Gatorade Nebraska Player of the Year, and he was also the honorary captain of the Lincoln Journal Star Super-State offense and the Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska team.

Broekemeier had better than 2,400 yards of total offense and 32 touchdowns as a junior. At the 2011 Shrine Bowl, he set records for touchdown passes, passing yards, completions and total yards, going 30-of-37 for 371 yards and five touchdowns, and running for 36 yards, giving him 407 total yards. Broekemeier had scholarship offers from FCS schools South Dakota and North Dakota, before walking on at Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Tyson was born on Feb. 9, 1992, and is the son of Dale and Karla Broekemeier. His older brother, Joe, was a receiver for the Huskers, finishing in 2010. Tyson is majoring in business administration. He has volunteered his time on local hospital visits, School is Cool and the Husker Heroes event.

- » Three-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2013 OUTLOOK

Sophomore receiver Sam Burtch will hope to crack the Nebraska receiving rotation in 2013, a group that figures to be among the Big Ten and nation's best. A walk-on, Burtch added depth at receiver last season and saw action in four contests.

The 6-3, 195-pound Burtch has good size and outstanding speed, giving NU another weapon in the passing game. Burtch has excelled in the classroom during his first two years, earning academic All-Big Ten honors in 2012.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Burtch played in four games as a reserve receiver, appearing in Nebraska's wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State, Idaho State and Minnesota. He did not have a reception.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELMWOOD-MURDOCK HS)

Burtch starred at receiver for Coach Leigh Schmale at Elmwood-Murdock High School. Burtch earned first-team Class C-2 all-state honors from both the Lincoln Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald in 2010. Burtch caught 44 passes for 1,038 yards and eight touchdowns to help his team to a 9-2 record and a trip to the Class C-2 quarterfinals. The 2010 season marked the fourth straight year the school reached at least the quarterfinals of the state playoffs.

Burtch also caught eight touchdown passes as part of his 26 receptions as a junior. Burtch won the Class C 800 meters at the 2010 Nebraska state track meet and was second in the 400 meters. At the 2011 Shrine Bowl, Burtch caught four passes for a total of 76 yards, including two touchdown receptions of 12 and 40 yards. Burtch received recruiting interest from Northwest Missouri State before selecting NU.

PERSONAL

Sam is the son of Tom Burtch and Marie Gregoire and was born on Feb. 19, 1993. He is majoring in communication studies and is a three-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection. Burtch has been active in community outreach, volunteering with local hospital and school visits, Husker Heroes and as a speaker at FCA events.

- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2010, 2011)

2013 OUTLOOK

Senior Brandon Chapek will head into the 2013 season in hopes of earning playing time on a veteran Nebraska offensive line. Chapek saw the first action of his career in 2012 and hopes to add depth at offensive tackle this season, a spot where NU returns three seniors with significant starting experience.

The 6-5, 305-pound Chapek is a standout in the classroom, carrying better than a 3.85 cumulative grade-point average while majoring in biological sciences/pre-dentistry. He is on track to earn his degree in December.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Chapek was a reserve tackle, and played in Nebraska's wins over A rkansas State and Idaho State.

MAYWOOD, ILL. • PROVISO EAST TWO LETTERS

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2011)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

2013 OUTLOOK

Junior Corey Cooper has played a significant role the past two seasons as a reserve defensive back and special teams contributor. The 6-1, 210-pound Cooper is poised to earn more significant playing time in 2013. Cooper is a leading contender to earn a starting safety job following the graduation of 2012 seniors P.J. Smith and Daimion Stafford.

Cooper has good size to provide run support from the safety spot, and he has shown good coverage skills in his work in speciality packages the past two years. Cooper has also earned extensive time on NU's special teams units throughout his career.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Cooper played in all 14 games with starts against Idaho State, Northwestern and Georgia. He saw his most extensive action in nickel or dime roles, while adding depth at safety. He made 17 tackles, including eight solo stops. Cooper had a seven-yard tackle for loss against Southern Miss and shared a sack against Idaho State. Cooper had a career-high four tackles against Arkansas State, three at UCLA, and added two tackles each against Northwestern and Iowa.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Cooper played in 11 games, including a start at cornerback in NU's win over Wyoming. He moved back to safety for the majority of the year, and finished with nine tackles, including eight solo stops. Cooper had three unassisted tackles at Wyoming and also had two tackles against both Chattanooga and Washington.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PROVISO EAST HS)

Cooper had 70 tackles and 16 pass breakups, while adding two interceptions as a senior at Proviso East. Cooper was also a dangerous receiver, with 43 catches for 852 yards and nine touchdowns for Coach Aaron Peppers. Cooper earned West Suburban all-conference honors and was a Chicago Tribune first-team all-state selection.

As a junior, Cooper helped his team to an 8-3 record and a trip to the second round of the state playoffs. He had 61 tackles, 14 pass breakups, an interception and forced three fumbles. He also caught 41 passes for 814 yards and eight touchdowns. He was also a twoway starter as a sophomore when he caught 35 passes for 500 yards and four touchdowns.

Cooper also competed in basketball and track for Proviso East. He was ranked among the top five prospects in Illinois and among the top 20 safety recruits in the country in 2010. Cooper chose NU after also visiting Arizona, Illinois and Notre Dame.

PERSONAL

Corey is the son of Corey Sr. and Rose Cooper and was born on July 2, 1992. He is majoring in ethnic studies, and was an academic All-Big Ten honoree in 2011. Cooper has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and with team hospital visits.

LINCOLN, NEB. • SOUTHEAST

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2012)
- » Three-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2013 OUTLOOK

Junior Jake Cotton is fully healthy after battling injuries in the early part of his Nebraska career, and the Lincoln native is prepared to challenge for a starting job in 2013. Cotton earned the  $majority\,of\,the\,practice\,snaps\,with\,the\,top\,offensive\,line\,at\,left\,guard\,during\,the\,spring, working$ opposite returning second-team All-American Spencer Long, a two-year starter at right guard.

The 6-6, 305-pound Cotton has great size and strength and is a tenacious competitor. Cotton has shown he is a versatile player in his career, spending time at both guard and tackle after joining the program as a defensive lineman.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Cotton played in five games as a sophomore, serving as a reserve guard behind starters Spencer Long and Seung Hoon Choi. Cotton saw his most extensive action of the year against Georgia in the Capital One Bowl.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Cotton played in wins over Chattanooga, Washington and Wyoming, helping the Huskers rack up more than 300 rushing yards against both Washington and Wyoming. He suffered a knee injury before the Ohio State game and was lost for the season. He moved from defense to the offensive line during spring practice.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Cotton redshirted in his first season and worked on the defensive line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHEAST HS)

Cotton excelled on both lines at Southeast for Coach John Larsen. As a senior, Cotton helped the Knights to a 9-2 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals. Cotton provided a physical presence at offensive tackle, while on defense he made 58 tackles, including 12 sacks, and added a pair of fumble recoveries.

Cotton's play earned him first-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and first-team Super-State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star. Both papers selected him to their all-state teams as an offensive lineman. Cotton was the first scholarship signee for Nebraska from Lincoln Southeast since 2003.

Cotton gained more than 40 pounds between his junior and senior season. As a junior, he played tight end and defensive end for the Knights. Cotton was ranked among the top 50 players in the Midlands Region by Super Prep Magazine.

Jake is the son of Barney and Christine Cotton and was born on July 11, 1991. Cotton is a history/communication studies major and has earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times. He was also an academic All-Big Ten honoree in 2012. He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, School is Cool Week and team hospital and school visits. His father earned three letters for the Huskers from 1975 to 1978, as both an offensive and defensive lineman.

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Sam Cotton enters the 2013 season looking to follow in his older brother Ben's shoes and become a four-year contributor at tight end for the Huskers. The younger Cotton is one of several talented young tight ends battling for playing time behind senior Jake Long, the only returning tight end with game experience.

The 6-4, 235-pound Cotton has added strength in the Nebraska conditioning program in his first year on campus and was impressive in his work with the Husker scout team. Cotton is also off to a strong start in the classroom, earning a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his first two semesters.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Cotton redshirted his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHEAST HS)

Cotton was NU's only in-state scholarship signee in 2012, continuing the Cotton family tradition. Sam played a key role in helping Southeast earn a Class A state title in 2011. The Knights finished with a 12-1 record, including a 21-9 victory over Omaha Burke in the state title game, when Cotton caught a 34-yard touchdown pass.

As a senior, Cotton had 23 receptions, including seven touchdown grabs. He also played defensive line for Coach Ryan Gottula's team, and made 42 tackles, including 7.5 sacks. Cotton's efforts as a senior earned him first-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald as a defensive lineman, and he was an honorary captain of that team. The Lincoln Journal Star also named him a co-captain of its Super State team, but listed him as a first-team selection at tight end.

Cotton also played a key role on both sides of the ball as a junior, helping Southeast to a 10-2 record and a trip to the Class A semifinals. He was an honorable-mention all-state pick by both major newspapers as a junior. Rivals.com, Scout.com and 247 Sports all ranked Cotton among the top four players in the state of Nebraska. Cotton participated in track and field for Southeast, competing in shot put and discus. Cotton committed to Nebraska in June of 2011, and did not take any other visits.

Sam is the son of Barney and Christine Cotton, and he was born on Jan. 27, 1994. He has volunteered his time with the NFL Fuel Up to Play 60 Event, Husker Heroes and school and hospital visits. He is a business administration major. His father earned three letters for the Huskers from 1975 to 1978, as both an offensive and defensive lineman

2013 OUTLOOK

Senior Scott Criss is set to compete for playing time on a deep offensive line this fall. The Omaha native began his college career at Wyoming before transferring to Nebraska as a walk-on in 2010. This fall he will battle for playing time at center, where senior Cole Pensick and junior Mark Pelini also return after seeing significant playing time in 2012.

Criss is also strong in the classroom, earning a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times. Criss is on track to earn his degree in December of 2013.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Criss provided depth at center and appeared in Nebraska's win over Idaho State.

2011 (SOPHOMORE)

Criss was a reserve on the offensive line, but did not see game action.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

 $Criss \, transferred \, from \, Wyoming \, before \, the \, season \, and \, sat \, out \, because \, of \, NCAA \, transfer \, rules.$

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WYOMING/CREIGHTON PREP HS)

Criss redshirted at Wyoming in 2009, as the Cowboys went 7-6 and won the New Mexico Bowl. At Creighton Prep High School, Criss helped lead the Junior Jays to an 11-1 record and a state semifinal appearance in 2008. An all-state selection as a defensive lineman, Criss tallied 37 tackles, three sacks and one interception as a senior, while also playing on the offensive line for head coach Tom Jaworski. In 2007, Criss earned honorable-mention all-metro accolades. In addition to football, Criss participated in basketball and track and field at Creighton Prep.

PERSONAL

Scott was born on Dec. 28, 1990, and is the son of Steve and Sue Criss. He is majoring in construction management. Criss was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll for the  $2010\,fall\,semester\,and\,has\,been\,named\,to\,the\,Nebraska\,Scholar-Athlete\,Honor\,Roll\,three\,times.$ He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and school and hospital outreach events.

IMANI CROSS

I-BACK 6-1 225 SOPHOMORE

GAINESVILLE, GA. • NORTH HALL ONE LETTER

- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2012)
- » Big Ten Freshman of the Week (vs. Idaho State)
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2013)
- » Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award (2013)

2013 OUTLOOK

I-back Imani Cross played a key role as a true freshman in 2012, being used primarily in short-yardage situations as a power back. The 6-1, 225-pound Cross performed well in his role, but is set on becoming a more complete back in 2013.

Cross and junior Ameer Abdullah are Nebraska's top two returning I-backs and figure to carry a bulk of the rushing load as the Huskers look to once again be among the nation's top rushing teams.

Despite being a physically imposing back when he stepped on campus, Cross spent the offseason working hard in the weight room, dropping about 10 pounds to improve his overall quickness.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Cross was one of five true freshmen to see action in 2012, and he played in all 14 games. Cross finished with 55 carries for 324 yards, an average of 5.9 yards per carry, and his role grew in the second half of the season as Rex Burkhead sat out with a knee injury. He was one of four I-backs to top 300 rushing yards and average better than 5.0 yards per carry.

Cross was third on the team in rushing touchdowns with seven, including five touchdowns in Big Ten play. He had at least seven carries five times. Cross was impressive in his debut against Southern Miss, rushing 11 times for 62 yards. Against Arkansas State, Cross scored his first career touchdown on a two-yard run in the fourth quarter. He finished with 66 yards against the Red Wolves, including a season-long 44-yard run. Cross helped Nebraska roll up 385 rushing yards against Idaho State by rushing for 100 yards and a touchdown on 12 carries.

With Burkhead sidelined for the majority of five straight games, Cross grew into the shortyardage back role. He helped Nebraska grind out the final seven minutes of the clock in a win over Michigan. Then against Penn State, Cross rushed for 22 yards and two touchdowns on eight carries. Both of his scores came in the third quarter, turning a 14-point halftime deficit into a tie game. He added a pair of touchdowns a week later against Minnesota and finished that game with 19 rushing yards. Cross rushed three times for 35 yards in the Big Ten title game, including a 26-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORTH HALL HS)

Cross joined the 2012 class in the final week before Signing Day in February and was Nebraska's first signee from Georgia since 2008. Cross piled up 1,698 rushing yards as a senior at North Hall High School, including 24 rushing touchdowns. He averaged nearly nine yards per carry, and also excelled on defense for Coach Robert Christmas, making 88 tackles from his linebacker position. Cross' play earned him second-team Class AAA all-state honors in Georgia.

As a junior, Cross rushed for 600 yards and nine touchdowns, despite being limited to five games because of an injury. As a sophomore, he helped Flowery Branch High School to a 10-4 record and a playoff berth by rushing for 1,417 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Cross also competed in track and field, earning a seventh-place medal in shot put his senior season. Cross was ranked among the top 35 running backs in the country and the top 50 overall prospects in Georgia by several recruiting outlets. Cross also visited Kentucky and East Carolina, and had numerous other offers including Tennessee, South Carolina and Georgia Tech.

PERSONAL

Imani was born on Sept. 23, 1993, and he is the son of Tim and Sharon Cross. He has not yet declared a major, but is off to a strong start in the classroom, earning a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012.

Cross has also been active in community outreach activities. He has volunteered his time at FCA speaking events, during School is Cool Week, and numerous school, hospital and community center outreach events. Cross earned a spot on the 2013 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and was presented a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award.

Cross' brother, Izaan, was a senior defensive end at Georgia Tech in 2012.

AARON CURRY

DEFENSIVE TACKLE | 6-1 | 280 | SOPHOMORE

KELLER, TEXAS • FOSSIL RIDGE

Sophomore Aaron Curry is expected to be a key contributor on the Nebraska defensive line in 2013. The 6-1, 280-pound Curry saw action as a true freshman last season before an injury slowed him during Big Ten play.

This spring, Curry saw significant snaps with the top defensive unit and is a strong contenderto earn a starting spot at defensive tackle in a new-look Nebraska front four. The defensive line graduated five experienced seniors from the 2012 team, leaving Curry and several other young players openings for playing time this fall.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Curry was one of five true freshmen to see action for Nebraska last season, playing in the first four games, before he was slowed by injuries the remainder of the year. Curry totaled three assisted tackles on the year, including one stop against Southern Miss and two tackles against Idaho State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FOSSIL RIDGE HS)

Curry was one of two Texans in Nebraska's 2012 signing class. As a senior, Curry had 59 tackles, three sacks and a forced fumble for Fossil Ridge High. His play helped Coach Tony Baccarini's team to a 6-5 record and a trip to the state playoffs. Curry was an all-district performer at the 5A level as a senior

As a junior, Curry had 68 total tackles, including four sacks. Curry was ranked among the top 50 defensive tackles in the country by Scout.com and Rivals.com. In addition to Nebraska, Curry also visited Iowa, Missouri and Boise State and had dozens of other scholarship offers.

Aaron was born on June 12, 1994, and is the son of Aaron Sr. and Peggie Curry. Aaron Curry Sr. played college basketball at Oklahoma. The younger Curry has not yet declared a major. His community outreach activities have included Husker Heroes and local community rec center visits.

PLATTSMOUTH, NEB. • PLATTSMOUTH

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Ross Dzuris heads into fall camp looking to provide depth at the defensive end position, a spot where Nebraska graduated three of its top four players from 2012. A walk-on from Plattsmouth High School, Dzuris has added more than 10 pounds of muscle to his 6-3 frame since arriving in Lincoln last summer.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PLATTSMOUTH HS)

Dzuris was a force on the defensive line for Plattsmouth High School, leading the Blue Devils to consecutive playoff berths during his junior and senior seasons. As a senior, Dzuris earned second-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and was part of the Lincoln Journal Star Class B all-state football team after collecting 103 total tackles, including 45 solo stops.

During his junior season, Dzuris finished with 52 tackles and four sacks. For his efforts, he was named a first-team all-state selection by HuskerlandPreps.com and was a firstteam all-area selection from the Omaha World-Herald. Dzuris was also a standout on the Plattsmouth basketball team, where he earned honorable-mention all-state recognition as a junior. He also competed in track and field. Dzuris participated in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl in June of 2012. He chose to walk on at Nebraska over scholarship offers from North Dakota and South Dakota.

PERSONAL

Ross was born on Oct. 13, 1993, and he is the son of Bob and Leesa Dzuris. He is majoring in business administration and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll last fall. He has volunteered time with the Husker Heroes event and team hospital visits.

DANIEL DAVIE

CORNERBACK | 6-1 | 185 | SOPHOMORE

BEATRICE, NEB. • BEATRICE ONE LETTER

Sophomore Daniel Davie will head into fall camp with hopes of earning playing time at a deep Nebraska cornerback position. The 6-1, 185-pound Davie has good size and athleticism and made steady progress both during his redshirt freshman season and during spring practice.

Davie saw extensive action on special teams and provided depth at cornerback last fall. The  $Beatrice\,High\,School\,product\,figures\,to\,again\,be\,part\,of\,several\,NU\,special\,teams\,units\,this\,fall.$

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Davie played in 13 games, primarily on special teams. He totaled seven tackles, six of those on special teams. Davie had two tackles against Idaho State and a pass breakup in that game.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BEATRICE HS)

Davie excelled at Beatrice High as a running back, defensive back and a special teams standout. He racked up big numbers at running back, rushing for 1,556 yards and 18 touchdowns while averaging 6.5 yards per attempt. Davie helped the Orangemen and Coach Bob Sexton to a 6-5 record and capped his senior season with a 265-yard rushing performance against Holdrege in the Class B playoffs. Davie also had more than 200 receiving yards as a senior, while adding 35 tackles and an interception on defense. He also averaged nearly 30 yards per kickoff return.

Davie was selected to the offensive squad on the Lincoln Journal Star's Super-State team (athlete) and the Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska squad (back). He earned first-team Class B honors from both newspapers as a running back. Davie was regarded as one of the top three prospects in Nebraska by Rivals.com.

Davie also made a huge impression on the track in 2010, winning the all-class gold in both the 100 and 200 meters at the Nebraska state track meet. Davie recorded a 10.73 time in the 100 and a 21.95 time in the 200 to win both events. At the 2011 Shrine Bowl, Davie recorded a 28-yard touchdown reception. Davie committed to the Huskers in June of 2010. He received numerous offers, including Kansas and Ohio.

PERSONAL

Daniel is the son of Damon and Ruthanne Davie, and he was born on Aug. 4, 1993. Davie is majoring in criminology and criminal justice. Davie has volunteered his time with team hospital visits, at the Belmont Rec Center, Beattie Elementary and Husker Heroes.

MORENO VALLEY, CALIF. • RANCHO VERDE THREE LETTERS

- » 2013 Nebraska Team Captain (1 of 4)
- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Spring 2012)
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2013)

2013 OUTLOOK

Senior Quincy Enunwa is a key part of one of the nation's top returning receiving corps and one of the best collections of wideouts in Nebraska history. The 6-2, 225-pound Enunwa will once again provide quarterback Taylor Martinez with a big target this fall, and he is also an imposing physical blocker on the perimeter, helping Nebraska feature one of the nation's top running attacks.

Enunwa and juniors Kenny Bell and Jamal Turner combined for better than 120 catches and 1,750 yards last season and are poised for even bigger production in 2013. Enunwa and Bell each topped 40 receptions last season, marking just the fifth time in school history NU has had two players catch 40 passes in a season.

Enunwa was in the starting lineup for every game in 2012 and finished the season second on the team with 42 receptions and 470 receiving yards. He added his third career touchdown against Idaho State. Enunwa enters his senior year with 64 career receptions to rank just outside the top 20 on the NU career chart, and he needs 227 receiving yards to join the Nebraska 1.000-yard receiving club.

A California native, Enunwa will enter the 2013 season with a catch in 14 consecutive games. Despite not redshirting during his career, Enunwa is on track to earn his degree in economics in May of 2014.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Enunwa started all 14 games as a junior and caught at least one pass in every contest, with five games of at least four receptions. He caught a career-high six passes against both Southern Miss and Northwestern and had a career-best 110 receiving yards against the Wildcats.

Enunwa opened the year in strong fashion with then-career highs of six catches for 70 yards against Southern Miss. He caught a combined five passes the following two weeks against UCLA and Arkansas State, then made the most of his one catch against Idaho State, hauling in a 35-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter.

After combining for three catches in the opening two games of Big Ten play, Enunwa produced his best game as a Husker with a career-high 110 yards on a career-high-tying six catches. Enunwa was Martinez's favorite target in the fourth quarter, as he had four catches for 74 yards on NU's two fourth-quarter scoring drives to rally from 12 points down for a 29-28 win.

Enunwa caught two passes against Michigan, then had three catches for 37 yards at Michigan State, including a 22-yarder on NU's game-winning drive in the final minute. Enunwa had four catches for 65 yards against Minnesota, then tied for the team lead with five receptions for 51 yards in the Big Ten title game. Enunwa closed the year with two receptions against Georgia.

Enunwa played in every game and made seven starts. He finished third on the team with 21 receptions for 293 yards and two touchdowns, and had at least two receptions six times, including each of the final four regular-season games.

He had a season-high four catches for a season-best 58 yards in the opener against Chattanooga, including a 31-yard catch in the first quarter. Enunwa made two big plays in a 42-29 win over Fresno State. He caught a 16-yard TD pass in the third quarter to give NU a 21-20 lead. Earlier in the game, Enunwa caused a fumble following a Taylor Martinez interception, and Nebraska recovered to prevent a Bulldog scoring opportunity.

Enunwa had a 30-yard catch at Wyoming and a 29-yarder at Wisconsin, both of which set up Husker touchdowns. He made his fourth catch of at least 25 yards against Ohio State, grabbing a career-long 36-yard catch for a third-quarter touchdown to pull NU within 27-20. He helped NU rally from 21 points down for a 34-27 win. Enunwa had three catches each against Michigan and Iowa, including a 19-yard catch in the fourth quarter against the Hawkeyes to set up the game-sealing touchdown.

2010 (FRESHMAN)

Enunwa was one of just three true freshmen to see action in 2010. He played in 10 games as a reserve receiver and had one catch against Western Kentucky.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (RANCHO VERDE HS)

Enunwa was a key offensive weapon for Coach Pete Duffy's

11-1 Rancho Verde team that advanced to the second round of the California state playoffs. Enunwa caught more than 40 passes for approximately 600 yards and 15 touchdowns as a senior. His play earned him first-team All-Inland Valley League honors, and he was selected to play in the Inland Empire All-Star Game.

Enunwa was also a key part of the Rancho Verde offense in 2008. He was ranked among the nation's top 70 wide receivers by Rivals.com and among the top 85 players in the state of California by the recruiting service. In addition to his football talents, Enunwa was also an accomplished high jumper, finishing third in the league with a jump of 6-5. Enunwa also visited Washington State.

PERSONAL

Quincy is the son of Henry and Ngozi Enunwa and was born on May 31, 1992. He is an economics major and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2012. Enunwa is one of the leaders of Nebraska's community outreach efforts and earned a spot on the 2013 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team. He has volunteered with the Husker Heroes program and team hospital visits.

2013 OUTLOOK

Ciante Evans has been one of Nebraska' most complete defenders each of the past two seasons, and he will be called on to be one of the Blackshirts' leaders this fall. Evans is one of several experienced members of the secondary, a position group that will be called on for stability as NU breaks in numerous new faces in the front seven.

The 5-11, 190-pound Evans has seen his most extensive action as Nebraska's nickel back during his career, but has also played in a regular cornerback role when the Huskers are in a base 4-3 defense. Evans combines his great versatility and consistency with outstanding football instincts, making him a key to the success of the secondary.

The play of Evans and his teammates in the secondary helped Nebraska lead the nation in opponent pass completion percentage, while ranking in the top 10 in pass efficiency defense and passing yards allowed in 2012.

Evans performed at a high level throughout the season and earned honorable-mention all-conference honors from both the league coaches and the media panel, while ESPN.com and CBSSports.com selected Evans as a first-team All-Big Ten pick. He will be a contender for All-Big Ten and national honors this fall.

Evans is on track to earn his degree in business administration in May of 2014, despite not using a redshirt season.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Evans started 12 of 14 games and finished with 56 tackles, including 38 solo stops. He had six games with five or more tackles and ranked second on the team with eight pass breakups, while adding one sack, two tackles for loss and four quarterback hurries. He made the most of his first career interception, returning a pick against Idaho State 29 yards for a touchdown.

Evans had a pair of pass breakups and had five solo tackles at UCLA. A week later, he made a then-career-high seven tackles against Arkansas State and added a pass breakup. In addition to his interception for a touchdown against Idaho State, Evans had two tackles and a pass breakup.

Evans made three tackles each against Wisconsin and Ohio State and had a breakup against  $Northwestern. \,He\,had\,s ix\,tackles, including\,four\,solo\,stops, against\,Michigan\,and\,made\,his\,first$ career sack in the third quarter. He added a two-yard tackle for loss against the Wolverines.

2013 OUTLOOK

Junior Tyler Evans is part of a deep and talented Nebraska receiving corps that should be among the nation's best in 2013. The 6-1, 195-pound Evans has seen action each of the past two seasons at wideout and figures to push for more significant playing time in his junior season, while also having the opportunity to contribute on special teams.

Evans is also a standout off the field and has been an academic All-Big Ten pick the past two years, along with being a four-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection. Evans carries a 3.881 cumulative grade-point average in psychology/biological sciences after three years at Nebraska.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Evans played in NU's wins over Southern Miss. Arkansas State. Idaho State and Minnesota. He had two catches for 27 yards - a 26-yarder against Southern Miss and a one-yard catch

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Evans appeared in the first two games against Chattanooga and Fresno State, but did not have any statistics. He was sidelined for the majority of the season by injury.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Evans redshirted in his first season in the program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WAVERLY HS)

Evans was a three-sport standout at Waverly High, excelling in football, basketball and track.He was the first scholarship signee from Waverly since at least 1973. Evans' play helped Coach Mike Johnson's Vikings to a 9-2 record and a trip to the Class B state quarterfinals. Evans guided Waverly as a quarterback, rushing for 651 yards and 13 touchdowns, while passing for nearly 900 yards and 10 touchdowns. Evans also had 25 tackles and two interceptions

Evans was a first-team All-Nebraska defender by the Omaha World-Herald and a firstteam Super-State defensive back by the Lincoln Journal Star. He was also a standout as a junior, when he accounted for 1,200 yards of total offense, including 900 rushing yards and 15 touchdowns. He added 61 tackles and eight interceptions on defense. His play earned Evans first-team Class B all-state honors in 2008, and second-team Super-State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star as an athlete.

Evans was a first-team all-state pick in basketball as a junior when he averaged 20 points per game, and again as a senior with 20.8 points per game in 2010. In track, Evans won the Class B 100 meters as a junior and finished third as a senior. In the 200 meters he was second as a senior and sixth as a junior. He also helped Waverly to a runner-up finish in the 400-meter relay in both 2009 and 2010. Evans was a standout in the classroom as well, carrying a 4.0 grade-point average.

He also had offers from Ohio and Princeton, but only visited Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Tyler was born on March 28, 1992, and is the son of Doug and Angie Evans. His younger brother Erik is a freshman tight end for the Huskers. Evans has also done extensive community outreach work and was named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team the past three years. LEE'S SUMMIT, MO. • LEE'S SUMMIT

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman King Frazier was one of the standouts of Nebraska's spring practice, emerging as a candidate for playing time at I-back. The 6-0, 220-pound Frazier made the most of extensive reps with the upper units during spring ball and will enter fall camp hoping to see action behind returnees Ameer Abdullah and Imani Cross. A walk-on from the Kansas City area, Frazier is a powerful running back with the ability to run inside and out and catch the ball out of the backfield.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LEE'S SUMMIT HS)

Frazier walked on after an illustrious career at Lee's Summit (Mo.) High School. Frazier was one of the top running backs in the state, rushing for 605 yards and five touchdowns as a senior, despite missing two games because of a shoulder injury.

 $As a junior, Frazier rushed for 1,453 \, yards \, and \, totaled \, 16 \, touchdowns, while averaging \, better \, and \, better \, a$ than 7.0 yards per carry. He was also a threat in the passing game, as he had more than 600 receiving yards and eight touchdowns over his last two seasons. WOOD RIVER, NEB. • WOOD RIVER

Sophomore Jack Gangwish will look to make a push for playing time in 2013, after switching from linebacker to defensive end during spring ball. The 6-2, 245-pound Gangwish has made great strides in the Husker strength and conditioning program the past two seasons. The Wood River, Neb., native has shown the athleticism and relentless attitude needed to make a push for playing time in the future.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Gangwish was a standout on the scout team defense, working at linebacker. He did not play in a game.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Gangwish redshirted in his first season and worked on the scout team defense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WOOD RIVER HS)

Gangwish walked on and followed in the footsteps of his father, Paul, who lettered for the Huskers as a walk-on in the 1980s. The younger Gangwish was a three-year starter for Wood River High School and Coach Derek Garfield. As a senior, Gangwish made 103 tackles, four quarterback sacks and forced two fumbles while recovering another. Gangwish earned honorable-mention Class C-1 all-state accolades for his play. Gangwish was also among the top-ranked wrestlers in the Class C 215-pound weight class. He had a scholarship offer from Chadron State.

PERSONAL

Jack was born on Jan. 6, 1993, and is the son of Paul and Deb Gangwish. He is majoring in agricultural economics. Gangwish has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and team hospital visits. Paul Gangwish was a letterwinner at defensive end for Coach Tom Osborne in 1985.

ANDREW GREEN CORNERBACK 6-0 195 SENIOR

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS • JAMES MADISON TWO LETTERS

- » Four-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2013 OUTLOOK

Cornerback Andrew Green has been a regular starter in the Husker secondary each of the past two seasons and will make a bid for a leading role in a deep and veteran secondary in 2013. The 6-0, 195-pound Green is one of several players who should be part of a spirited battle for a starting cornerback spot, but he did not get the opportunity to build his case during spring football, as he was sidelined with a shoulder injury.

A Texas native, Green has started 22 games over the past two years, including 12 starts during his junior season. The play of Green and his secondary teammates in 2012 allowed Nebraska to lead the nation in opponent pass completion percentage, while ranking in the top 10 in passing yards allowed and pass efficiency defense.

Green has distinguished himself off the field throughout his career. He is a four-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection and is on track to earn his degree in ethnic studies in August and play this fall as a graduate student.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Green started 12 games at cornerback and made 50 tackles, including 28 solo stops. He added three tackles for loss and a sack, and he also had three pass breakups. Green had four games with at least five tackles, including a season-high eight tackles twice.

Green opened the year with four tackles against Southern Miss, then had seven tackles, including his first career sack, at UCLA. Green had four solo tackles at Northwestern and made six tackles and had his first breakup of the season at Michigan State. Green made four more tackles against Penn State and had a tackle for loss and breakup against the Nittany Lions.

Green recorded his third breakup of the year against Minnesota before recording a seasonhigh eight tackles in the regular-season finale at Iowa. He matched the mark the following week with a team-high eight tackles, including a tackle for loss, against Wisconsin in the Big Ten Championship Game.

Green started 10 games and finished with 48 tackles, including 29 solo stops. His eight pass breakups were second on the team, and he grabbed his first career interception against Iowa. - » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Spring 2013)
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2013)

ONE LETTER

2013 OUTLOOK

Junior Jay Guy is among a group of defensive tackles who will look to make a push for playing time on the defensive interior in 2013, Beyond senior Thad Randle, the tackle spot figures to have several new faces in 2013, and Guy is hoping to take advantage of that opportunity. The 6-1, 290-pound Guy has provided depth at tackle the past two seasons, while seeing limited game action.

Just a junior, Guy is on track to graduate in December of 2013 with a degree in business administration.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Guy added depth at defensive tackle and played in NU's win over Idaho State.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Guy did not play in the first six games, but saw action against Minnesota, Michigan State and Iowa after injuries hit the NU defensive front. Guy did not have a tackle.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Guy enrolled early at NU and redshirted in his first year in 2010.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (EISENHOWER HS)

Guy was a standout defensive lineman for Coach Ray Evans at Eisenhower High in Houston. Guy made 74 tackles as a senior, including 50 solos, and five sacks to help the Eagles to a 6-5 record and a berth in the Class 5A state playoffs. Guy was the District 19 5A Defensive MVP and one of 10 finalists for the Touchdown Club of Houston Defensive Player of the Year. He was a first-team all-district pick as both a junior and senior, was chosen secondteam all-greater Houston by the Houston Chronicle and was an honorable-mention Class

Guy was a key player for Eisenhower for three years and was named a second-team alldistrict selection as a sophomore. He was regarded as one of the top 40 defensive tackles in the country and among the top 75 players in Texas. Guy also visited UCLA and California and had scholarship offers from dozens of schools.

PERSONAL

Jay is the son of Jesse and Deborah Guy, and he was born on April 9, 1992. Guy earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2013. He was also named to the 2013 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his extensive community outreach work. Guy has volunteered with hospital and elementary school visits and School is Cool Week.

DEWITT, NEB. • TRI-COUNTY HS • NORTH DAKOTA STATE

2013 OUTLOOK

Sam Hahn joined the Nebraska program in January of 2013 after originally enrolling at North Dakota State in the summer of 2012. The 6-6, 295-pound Hahn was a prep standout at Tri-County High School in Nebraska, and he will look to add depth on NU's veteran offensive line in 2013. Hahn made a good impression in his first spring while working primarily at tackle.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (TRI-COUNTY HS/NORTH DAKOTA STATE)

Hahn was a four-year starter on the line for Coach John McGary at Tri-County High School. His play helped Tri-County to four straight state playoff appearances, including a trip to the Class C-2 quarterfinals and a 9-2 record in 2011. Hahn was a first-team Class C-2 all-state selection as a senior after earning an honorable-mention selection as a junior. Hahn was invited to play in the 2012 Shrine Bowl game.

On the hardwood, Hahn was a two-time all-conference pick and scored more than 1,000 career points. Hahn helped his team to a 14-9 record as a senior and earned honorablemention Class C-2 all-state accolades. Hahn also earned four medals at the state track meet, placing in both the shot put and discus in his junior and senior seasons. Hahn was an academic all-state selection in football, basketball and track.

PERSONAL

Sam was born on June 7, 1993, and he is the son of James and Robin Hahn. He is an agronomy major.

ADEL, IOWA • ADEL-DESOTO-MINBURN

- » Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2013)

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Lane Hovey will add depth in a veteran receiving corps in 2013. The 6-4, 205-pound Hovey brings good size to the position and has added more than 15 pounds of muscle since arriving at Nebraska. Hovey has excelled in the classroom, posting a perfect 4.0 grade-point average.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ADM ADEL HS)

Hovey helped lead ADM Adel (lowa) High School to a 12-1 record as a senior in 2011, when he was a Class 3A first-team all-state selection. He was a standout for an ADM receiving corps that ranked second in the state in touchdown receptions, third in catches and fourth in receiving yards. Hovey ended his career on a strong note, leading his team with four catches and 33 receiving yards in his final game, a loss in the semifinals of the lowa Class 3A state playoffs. Hovey also played basketball and ran track for the Tigers.

PERSONAL

Lane is the son of Kent and Sondra Hovey and was born on Oct. 8, 1995. He is a business administration major and a two-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection. # CHARLES JACKSON

SAFETY 5-11 175 SOPHOMORE

2013 OUTLOOK

Charles Jackson was one of five true freshmen to see action in 2012, working primarily on special teams, while adding depth at cornerback. The 5-11, 175-pound Jackson is a dynamic athlete who showed his speed and aggressiveness during his time on the field last fall.

This spring, Jackson made the transition to safety where Nebraska must replace both of its starters. Jackson has the ability to see action at the nickel or dime spots and figures to find a role on the 2013 defense. Jackson originally signed with NU in February of 2011, but did not enroll until 2012.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Jackson played in 13 games and was a key member of NU's coverage units. He made 11 tackles, including six solo stops. Jackson was second on the team with seven tackles on special teams. He had a season-high two tackles in both the first meeting with Wisconsin and at Ohio State. Jackson added a pass breakup against Idaho State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KLEIN COLLINS HS)

One of the top secondary prospects in the state of Texas in the class of 2011, Jackson was a key performer for Coach Drew Svoboda at Collins High School in Klein, Texas. Jackson's play helped the team to an 11-1 record and a district championship in 2010, before a loss in the second round of the state playoffs. Jackson recorded 73 total tackles, including 50 solo stops in his senior season. The aggressive corner also had three interceptions and five pass breakups. Jackson earned first-team all-district honors as a senior.

Jackson was also a key performer for the Tigers as a junior, racking up 75 tackles and five interceptions on his way to second-team all-district honors. He was a prep teammate of Husker sophomore linebacker David Santos. Jackson was one of several 2011 Husker signees to participate in the U.S. Army All-America game in San Antonio. Jackson was regarded as the second-best cornerback prospect in the country by Scout.com, while Rivals ranked him among the top 10 corners in the country, and the No. 100 overall player in the nation. Jackson received dozens of offers, and also visited Arkansas and Oklahoma before choosing Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Charles was born on Aug. 16, 1992, and is the son of Rick and Yolanda Parker. Jackson has not yet declared a major, but he was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. He volunteered with Make-A-Wish, School is Cool Week, along with hospital, school and community rec center outreach events.

2013 OUTLOOK

Safety Harvey Jackson was a key reserve in the secondary last season, serving as the top backup behind seniors P.J. Smith and Daimion Stafford. The 6-2, 210-pound Jackson is competing for a much expanded role this fall. Jackson and fellow junior Corey Cooper are the most experienced players competing for starting safety jobs. Both players had excellent showings in the spring and head into fall camp as favorites to land the starting roles.

While providing depth in the secondary the past two seasons, Jackson has also been a key contributor on Nebraska's special teams units and could continue in that role this fall.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Jackson played in 13 games and made a start in the first meeting with Wisconsin, when NU opened with three safeties in the lineup. Jackson finished with 13 tackles, including nine solo stops. He had a season-high four tackles against Arkansas State and made three tackles each against Southern Miss and Wisconsin, Jackson also recovered a fumble in the final minute against Wisconsin in Lincoln to seal a 30-27 Husker victory.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Jackson played in 12 games and made eight tackles, including six solo stops. He had a season-high four tackles at Minnesota and made four tackles on special teams, including two against Michigan State.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Jackson redshirted in his first season at Nebraska in 2010.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HIGHTOWER HS)

Jackson starred at Hightower High School in Missouri City, Texas. As a senior, he had 53 tackles, two interceptions and seven pass breakups. His play helped Coach Shane Halmark's team to a perfect 10-0 regular-season record, before a loss in the second round of the Class 5A state playoffs. Jackson's play earned him first-team all-district honors as a senior. Jackson also excelled as a junior, when he had more than 30 tackles, an interception and four pass breakups. His play as a junior helped Hightower to a 13-1 record and a trip to the 5A state title game.

Jackson was ranked among the nation's top 60 safeties and top 100 overall players in Texas. Jackson only visited Nebraska, but had numerous other offers, including Missouri, Baylor, Oklahoma State, Utah and Arizona State to name a few.

PERSONAL

Harvey is the son of Yvonne Smith, and he was born on Oct. 24, 1991. He is a construction management major, was an academic All-Big Ten honoree in 2011 and a two-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll pick. FULLBACK 6-1 225 SOPHOMORE

GRETNA, NEB. • GRETNA ONE LETTER

2013 OUTLOOK

Andy Janovich quickly earned playing time as a true freshman last season and was one of three fullbacks who played key roles in helping Nebraska lead the Big Ten in both rushing offense and total offense. Janovich and seniors Mike Marrow and C.J. Zimmerer all return for 2013, making the fullback spot a strength for the Huskers.

The 6-1, 225-pound Janovich is a powerful blocker who also has ability as both a runner and pass-receiving threat. A walk-on from Gretna, Neb., Janovich started two games last fall, becoming the first true freshman walk-on to start a game since 2008.

2012 (FRESHMAN)

Janovich did not play in the season's first three games, but became a regular contributor in the final 11 games. He started against Idaho State and Ohio State and finished the year with three carries for six yards, all against Idaho State. He also caught two passes for 13 yards, with one reception each against Idaho State and Ohio State. Janovich also saw action on NU's kickoff return unit.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRETNA HS)

Janovich was named first-team All-Nebraska by the Omaha World-Herald as a linebacker and was part of the Lincoln Journal Star's second-team Super State squad, after leading Gretna to the Nebraska Class B semifinals as a senior. Janovich rushed for 799 yards and 18 touchdowns as a senior, while averaging 7.6 yards per carry. On defense, he led Gretna in tackles with 112 and finished with eight tackles for loss.

Janovich was selected to play in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl. He also starred in wrestling, where he was the 2012 Class B 220-pound champion with a 46-0 record, a year after winning the 189-pound title with a 53-0 record. Janovich chose to walk on at Nebraska over a scholarship offer from Nebraska-Kearney.

PERSONAL

Andy is the son of Ron and Brenda Janovich and was born on May 23, 1993. He has not declared a major. Janovich was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring semester. He has volunteered his time with team hospital visits.

STANLEY JEAN-BAPTISTE #16 CORNERBACK | 6-3 | 220 | SENIOR ______

2013 OUTLOOK

Stanley Jean-Baptiste (pronounced Gene BAP-teest) was one of five cornerbacks who saw extensive action during the 2012 season, and all five return this fall to make for a spirited battle for playing time in fall camp. The cornerback position is one of strength and stability for a young defense that lost eight seniors from last fall.

The 6-3, 220-pound Jean-Baptiste is the largest of Nebraska's cornerbacks, and he has used the size to cause problems for opposing receivers. Jean-Baptiste led Nebraska in pass breakups last season with nine, including a career-high five at Northwestern. Jean-Baptiste came to Nebraska from Fort Scott (Kan.) CC, where he redshirted in 2009.

Jean-Baptiste is one of eight Nebraska seniors expected to play the 2013 season as a graduate student, after he picked up his sociology degree in May.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Jean-Baptiste played in all 14 games and made five starts at cornerback, all during Big Ten Conference play. The play of Jean-Baptiste and his secondary teammates allowed NU to lead the nation in opponent pass completion percentage, while ranking in the top 10 nationally in pass efficiency defense and passing yards allowed.

Jean-Baptiste finished with 24 tackles, including 18 solo stops. He made a career-high four  $tackles\,against\,UCLA\,and\,Georgia.\,In\,addition\,to\,his\,team-leading\,PBU\,total, Jean-Baptiste\,also\,had$ two interceptions, including a 48-yard interception return for a touchdown against Minnesota.

Jean-Baptiste had five pass breakups in Nebraska's one-point win at Northwestern. The PBU total tied for the third-most in Nebraska history and was the most by a Husker since Zack Bowman also had five in the 2005 Alamo Bowl. In addition to his interception return for a touchdown, he also picked off a pass against Michigan, helping secure a key Legends  $Division\ victory.\ In\ addition\ to\ his\ work\ at\ cornerback, Jean-Baptiste\ also\ served\ on\ Nebraska's$ coverage units and had four tackles on special teams.

Jean-Baptiste began the year as a wide receiver, before switching to cornerback early in the season. He played in nine games, with a start at cornerback against Minnesota. He made a seven-yard reception against Chattanooga before his switch. Jean-Baptiste played a key role in NU's school-record comeback against Ohio State. He came on in the second half against the Buckeyes and made three tackles, and had an interception that set up NU's go-ahead touchdown. In his start at Minnesota, he made three tackles. Jean-Baptiste finished the year with nine tackles, including three on special teams.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FORT SCOTT CC/MIAMI CENTRAL HS)

Jean-Baptiste redshirted in 2009 at Fort Scott CC. In his prep days, Jean-Baptiste was a top wide receiver for Miami Central High School in Florida. As a senior, Jean-Baptiste had 21 catches for 569 yards and seven touchdowns.

Defensively at safety, he had six interceptions and two touchdowns. Following high school, Jean-Baptiste spent one year at North Carolina Tech Prep, totaling 36 receptions for 580 yards in 2008.

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Garret Johns made the switch from offense to defense this spring and will look to make a bid for playing time in the front four this fall. The 6-0, 280-pound Johns walked on from Aurora High School and began his career on the offensive line.

Johns redshirted his first season at Nebraska and worked on the scout team offensive line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (AURORA HS)

A multi-sport athlete at Aurora High School, Johns was named to the All-Nebraska second team by the Omaha World-Herald and the Super Sate second team by the Lincoln Journal Star. As a senior, he helped lead the Huskies to the Class B state playoffs with an 8-3 record from his offensive line position. Johns was selected to participate in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl.

Johns was also a standout on the wrestling mat where he won Class B heavyweight state championships as a junior and senior, posting a combined 82-0 record. Johns chose to walk  $on at \, Nebraska \, over \, offers \, from \, South \, Dakota \, State, \, Northwest \, Missouri \, State \, and \, Fort \, Hays.$

Garret was born on Nov. 10, 1993, and is the son of Joe and Rosemary Johns. He is majoring in agronomy. Johns was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. He has volunteered his time with team hospital visits and the Community Action partnership.

- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2012, 2013)
- » Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award (2012)
- » Offensive Scout Team MVP (2009)

2013 OUTLOOK

Senior Ron Kellogg III will continue to be a valuable part of Nebraska's quarterback depth chart in 2013. Last season, Kellogg was the top backup to Taylor Martinez and appeared in four Nebraska victories. Heading into fall camp, Kellogg continues to battle with Tommy Armstrong Jr. for the No. 2 quarterback job behind Martinez.

Kellogg has excellent knowledge of the Nebraska offense and a strong throwing arm. The Omaha native has also distinguished himself in the community, being named to the Brook  $Berringer\,Citizenship\,Team\,the\,past\,two\,years.\,Kellogg\,is\,majoring\,in\,sociology/ethnic\,studies$ and is on track to graduate this December.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Kellogg saw action in NU wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State, Idaho State and Minnesota. He finished the year with 22 passing yards, while connecting on 4-of-9 attempts. He completed 3-of-5 passes for 19 yards against Idaho State, including an 8-yard TD pass to Steven Osborne. Kellogg also had two rushes on the season.

 $Kellogg\,did\,not\,play\,in\,a\,game\,as\,NU's\,third\,quarterback, but\,was\,a\,regular\,on\,the\,travel\,roster.$

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

OFFENSIVE LINE 6-9 300 FRESHMAN

BRANTFORD, ONTARIO • PAULINE JOHNSON COLLEGIATE

David Knevel joined the Nebraska program in January after graduating from high school early to get a head start on his college football career. Knevel was a key part of a talented group of offensive linemen in the Huskers' 2013 signing class and appears to have a bright future in front of him.

Knevel checks in at 6-9 and 300 pounds and will likely use his first year in Lincoln to add strength in the Husker weight room. Knevel worked at tackle during spring ball, one of the deepest positions on the NU roster. Knevel is the only member of the roster from outside of the United States, coming to Lincoln from Brantford, Ontario, Canada.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PAULINE JOHNSON COLLEGIATE HS)

Knevel was the Huskers' first signee from Canada since defensive tackle Patrick Kabongo joined Nebraska in the 1999 signing class. Knevel was a standout on the offensive line for Coach Ken Chisolm at Pauline Johnson Collegiate High School. In July of 2012, Knevel helped Team Canada to a 23-17 win over Team USA at the International Federation of American Football under-19 tournament in Austin, Texas. Knevel was a member of the Team Ontario West all-star team in 2011 and attended an Under Armour Combine in 2011.

Knevel began playing football just four years ago after spending the majority of his youth playing hockey. Knevel was regarded as the top overall prospect in Canada and ranked among the top 250 overall prospects by 247 Sports, which listed him among the top 20 offensive tackles in the 2013 class. Knevel chose Nebraska over Alabama and West Virginia, and he also had scholarship offers from Wisconsin, Purdue, Baylor, Missouri and Vanderbilt to name a few.

David is the son of Michelle Knevel and Mark Miller, and he was born on Oct. 18, 1994. Knevel is a history major. He has volunteered his time with the Fuel Up to Play 60 event and at the F Street Community Center.

2013 OUTLOOK

Sophomore offensive lineman Adam Kucera will be expected to provide depth on a veteran Nebraska offensive line during the 2013 season. The 6-6, 315-pound Kucera worked at guard during spring ball, a position where Nebraska returns second-team All-American Spencer Long.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Kucera provided depth on the offensive line and appeared in NU's win over Idaho State.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Kucera redshirted and worked on the scout team offensive line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LITCHFIELD HS)

Kucera starred on both sides of the ball for Litchfield High and Coach Dan Boiling. Kucera lined up at center and nose guard and was selected to play in two eight-man all-star games. He was also a basketball standout leading his team in rebounding with averages of 15 points and 11 rebounds per game. Kucera turned down a Chadron State scholarship offer to walk on at NU.

Adam was born on Jan. 8, 1993, and is the son of Carl and Diane Kucera. He is a history major. Kucera has volunteered time with Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and local school and hospital outreach events.

The 5-11, 200-pound Kuzu has battled injuries during his first two years on campus, but should be ready for action this fall. Kuzu joined the Nebraska program as a walk-on from Plano Senior High School, the same school that produced former Husker I-back Rex Burkhead.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Kuzu added depth at I-back, but did not play in a game.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Kuzu redshirted in his first season in the program and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PLANO SENIOR HS)

Kuzu joined the NU program as a walk-on after a strong prep career at Plano Senior High School in Texas. Kuzu rushed for better than 600 yards and three touchdowns as a senior, and had more than 400 receiving yards and five TD receptions, while also throwing for a touchdown. Kuzu was a second-team all-district selection for his efforts as a senior. Kuzu had a scholarship offer from Doane and interest from Southern Louisiana.

Murat is the son of Mustafa and Gulsum Kuzu and was born on May 19, 1993. He is a marketing major. Kuzu was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his first two semesters of college. He has volunteered with Husker Heroes, Husker Hotline and local hospital visits.

2013 OUTLOOK

Senior Jake Long will be a key member of the Nebraska offense in 2013, as he is the lone returning tight end with significant playing experience. Long played in every game the past two seasons as NU's third tight end behind Ben Cotton and Kyler Reed, but with that duo having graduated, Long's role will increase this fall. The 6-4, 240-pound Long will be counted on as a receiving threat and to provide leadership for a young group of tight ends. Long showed the ability during spring practice to develop into a strong target for quarterback Taylor Martinez.

A walk-on from Elkhorn High School, Long is one of the Huskers' top scholar-athletes. #### 2013 OUTLOOK

Senior All-American Spencer Long has been a fixture on the Nebraska offensive line each of the past two seasons, starting all 27 games at right guard. Long is part of a veteran Nebraska offensive line returning for the 2013 season, as the Huskers have three returning starters and five seniors overall with extensive playing experience.

The 6-4, 315-pound Long is the most decorated of Nebraska's returning offensive linemen. During his junior season, Long was chosen as a consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection, and he also earned second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press and the Walter Camp Football Foundation.

Long was the first NU offensive lineman since 2001 to earn first- or second-team All-America honors and just the second first-team all-conference offensive lineman in that same time. This fall, Long figures to be a strong contender for first-team All-America honors and a candidate for the Outland Trophy.

Long has established himself as one of Nebraska's top student-athletes. He has been a COSIDA Academic All-District VII selection and a first-team academic All-Big Ten honoree each of the past two years. Long will be a strong candidate for academic All-America honors this fall. He carries a 3.792 cumulative grade-point average in biological sciences/pre-medicine and is on track to graduate in December.

A former walk-on, Long was also one of five players to be awarded a scholarship before the start of the 2012 season. His twin brother, Jake, is the projected starter at tight end in 2013.

#61

Long started every game at right guard for the second straight season and earned firstteam All-Big Ten honors and second-team All-America recognition. His play helped pave the way for a Nebraska offense that led the Big Ten in both rushing offense (253.4 ypg) and total offense (460.8 ypg). Nebraska posted its best rushing average since 2002, as sophomore  $I-back Ameer Abdullah \, racked \, up \, 1,137 \, rushing \, yards \, and \, quarter back \, Taylor \, Martinez \, added$ 1,019 yards. Overall, Nebraska had 16 individual 100-yard rushing performances in 2012.

Long was an unknown at the start of the season, but emerged to start every game and earn second-team All-Big Ten honors from the media. He was one of three offensive linemen to start every game, and his play helped NU rank 15th nationally in rushing offense at 217.2 yards per game. The Huskers topped 200 rushing yards seven times, including three games with more than 300 yards.

The work of Long and the offensive line allowed junior I-back Rex Burkhead to post 1,357 yards on the ground. The offensive line also played a key role in wearing down the Ohio State defense in a school-record comeback win. The Huskers rushed for 232 yards, including 195 second-half rushing yards.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Long was a reserve guard, but did not play in 2010.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

He redshirted in his first year in 2009.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELKHORN HS)

Long came to Nebraska from long-time prep powerhouse Elkhorn High School, where he helped the Antlers to a 7-3 record in their first season of Class A participation in 2008. Long had a strong performance as a defensive end, and was an honorable-mention all-area selection for Coach Mark Wortman. Long was also a member of the Antlers' 2008 state championship baseball team.

Spencer is the son of Doug and Ann Long and was born on Nov. 8, 1990. A biological sciences major, he was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll each of his first four semesters and was a Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member each of the past four semesters. Courtney Love was one of three true freshmen to join the Nebraska program in January after graduating from high school early. The semester headstart allowed the 6-1, 230-pound Love the opportunity to participate in spring practice and begin to challenge for playing time at linebacker, a position where Nebraska lost three fifth-year senior starters from the 2012 defense. Love has the versatility to play multiple linebacker spots and spent much of the spring at the Will linebacker position.

Love was one of three scholarship signees from Ohio and comes to Nebraska from Cardinal Mooney High School in Youngstown, the same school that Husker Head Coach Bo Pelini attended

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CARDINAL MOONEY HS)

A two-time All-Ohio selection, Love was one of the first players to commit to Nebraska's 2013 class, announcing his intention in late April of 2012. Love posted impressive numbers for Coach P.J. Fecko as a senior, registering 110 tackles, 19 tackles for loss and nine sacks. Love also forced four fumbles and had two pass breakups, despite missing one game because of injury. Love was honored for his efforts as a first-team Division III All-Ohio selection for the second straight year.

During his junior season, Love played a key role in Cardinal Mooney winning the Division III state title. Love recorded 130 tackles, including seven sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. In the state title game victory over Springfield Shawnee, Love was Mooney's leading tackler. His play for the Cardinals in 2011 earned Love first-team All-Ohio honors and Division III Co-Defensive Player-of-the-Year recognition.

Love was regarded as one of the nation's top 30 linebackers by multiple recruiting services and was listed among the top 30 overall prospects in the state of Ohio. He chose Nebraska over dozens of offers from around the country, including Florida State, Ohio State, USC, Oklahoma, Notre Dame, Michigan State, Illinois and Indiana to name a few.

2013 OUTLOOK

Quarterback Taylor Martinez has spent the past three seasons re-writing the Nebraska statistical record book. He has started a quarterback school-record 39 games at Nebraska, and the 6-1, 210-pound Martinez has used his dual-threat abilities to torment opposing defenses and lead the Huskers to three straight seasons of at least nine wins.

In his senior season, Martinez is likely to continue his assault on the Nebraska record book, while putting his name among some elite quarterbacks in the history of college football. Martinez plans to continue to improve his passing efficiency, while leading Nebraska to its first conference title since 1999. He has been mentioned by several media outlets as a player to watch in the conversation for the Heisman Trophy and All-America honors.

As a junior, Martinez started all 14 games and set Nebraska season records with 3,890 yards of total offense and 33 total touchdowns. Martinez also showed his poise and leadership in the clutch, guiding Nebraska to four victories after trailing by double-digit deficits in the second half. His outstanding play earned Martinez first-team All-Big Ten honors from the Big Ten coaches and second-team accolades from the media. He was named Nebraska's Team and Offensive MVPs for his standout junior campaign, while also being elected a captain by his teammates.

His 2,871 yards passing were the most ever for a Nebraska junior and the third-best overall total in NU history. After a strong offseason of work on his passing mechanics, Martinez completed better than 62 percent of his throws in 2012, an improvement of nearly six percent. He also connected on 23 touchdown passes. On the ground, Martinez rushed for 1,019 yards, which ranked as the fourth-best single-season total in school history for a quarterback.

Martinez enters his senior season with a school-record 9,449 yards of total offense in his career, easily surpassing the previous record of 7,915 yards by 2001 Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch. The 9,449 yards of total offense ranks third among returning FBS players. Martinez's 6,591 career passing yards are also a Nebraska record.

In the running game, Martinez is the nation's leading returning rusher with 2,858 yards on 545 career rushes, an average of 5.2 yards per carry. He ranks second in school history among quarterbacks in rushing yards, trailing only Crouch's 3,434 yards. Martinez is also eighth overall in NU history in rushing yards and could move as high as No. 2 on that list this fall.

Beyond his school records, Martinez is a threat to put himself in elite categories in NCAA history. He is one of only six quarterbacks in the FBS ranks to post a 2,000-yard passing/1,000 yard rushing season in either 2011 or 2012.

Martinez is also in position to record 9,000 career passing yards and 3,000 rushing yards, needing 2,409 passing yards and 142 rushing yards to reach those figures. If he accomplishes that feat he would join Colin Kaepernick as the only players in FBS history to reach the 9,000/3,000 career mark. Martinez is just the 12th player in FBS history to pass for 6,000 yards and rush for 2,500 yards in a career. He was one of only four players to reach that milestone before the end of their junior year, joining Kaepernick, Vince Young (Texas) and Brad Smith (Missouri)

An explosive athlete, Martinez holds Nebraska quarterback position testing records in the vertical jump, pro agility run and 10-yard dash.

Martinez is set to earn his undergraduate degree in ethnic studies this December. He will be joined on the 2013 Husker roster by his younger brother, Drake, who is expected to begin his Nebraska career in the secondary.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Martinez's play helped Nebraska field one of the nation's top offenses in 2012. The Huskers led the Big Ten and ranked eighth nationally in rushing offense at 253.4 yards per game, while also leading the Big Ten in total offense at 460.8 yards per game. Nebraska racked up more than 430 yards of total offense in 12 of 14 games, while rushing for at least 200 yards 12 times.

Martinez averaged 277.9 yards of total offense per game to lead the Big Ten and rank 33rd nationally. In the passing game, Martinez's 141.59 efficiency rating also led the Big Ten, and his 23 touchdown passes were second in the league. He ranked 10th in the conference in rushing yards per game, and had a team-high 10 rushing touchdowns. Martinez also had four runs of 50 yards or more on the year. He was also only the third Big Ten quarterback to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Martinez had four games with 200 or more passing yards, including three games with 300-plus yards. He also topped the 100-yard rushing barrier five times, including a 200-yard day at Michigan State.

In the season opener, Martinez flashed his improved passing skills with a career day against Southern Miss. He completed 26-of-34 passes for a career-high 354 yards and tied his career-high with five touchdown passes. The five touchdown passes tied for the second-most in NU history and his 354 passing yards ranked ninth on the NU single-game list.

Martinez totaled 291 yards of total offense at UCLA, including a career-long 92-yard touchdown run in the first quarter that was the longest run by a quarterback in Big Ten history. The run was the longest by a Nebraska player in 11 seasons and the fifth-longest run in school history. A week later against Arkansas State, Martinez set a school record for completion percentage in a game with a minimum of 10 pass attempts by going 13-of-14 (92.9 percent). His NCAA efficiency rating of 248.0, was the best by a Husker in eight seasons and the fifth best in school history.

Martinez led Nebraska to 35 points in the first quarter in a 73-7 rout of Idaho State, including two touchdown passes. In the Big Ten opener against Wisconsin, he led Nebraska back from a pair of 17-point deficits for a 30-27 win, tying for the second-largest comeback in school history. Martinez passed for 181 yards and two touchdowns in the game, while rushing 13 times for 107 yards, including a 38-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

Martinez accounted for 254 yards of total offense and ran for two touchdowns in Nebraska's loss at Ohio State, before guiding NU to a perfect 6-0 record in the second half of the regular season.

At Northwestern, Martinez passed for 342 yards and led NU on two fourthquarter touchdown drives to overcome a 12-point deficit in a 29-28 victory. Martinez had a hand in all 156 yards (140 pass, 16 rushing) on the final two drives. The comeback matched the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history. Martinez tallied 407 yards of total offense, the second-highest total of his career and the eighth-best mark in school history.

Martinez accounted for 224 yards of total offense in an efficient effort in a key Legends Division win over Michigan in Lincoln. A week later, he produced another dynamic performance in leading a dramatic win at Michigan State.

Against one of the nation's top run defenses, Martinez shredded the Spartans for 205 rushing yards, including touchdown runs of 71 and 35 yards in addition to a 59-yard run to set up another touchdown. Martinez's 200-yard rushing game was the second of his career and just the fourth ever by a Nebraska quarterback. Martinez also passed for 160 yards and two touchdowns, including a game-winning five-yarder to Jamal Turner with six seconds remaining to rally NU from a 10-point deficit for a 28-24 win. Martinez passed for 108 yards in the fourth quarter alone.

Martinez guided yet another second-half comeback against Penn State, rallying NU from a 20-6 deficit for a 32-23 win. In the game, he rushed 15 times for 104 yards, while completing 12-of-20 passes for 171 yards. Against Minnesota, Martinez connected on 21-of-29 passes for 308 yards and two touchdowns in a 38-14 win. The 308 passing yards allowed Martinez to establish a new Nebraska career passing record, surpassing the previous mark of 5,850 yards by Zac Taylor.

On a frigid wind-blown day at lowa, Martinez completed 8-of-14 passes and guided NU to a division-clinching win over the Hawkeyes. Martinez ran for 140 yards on 19 carries in the Big Ten Championship Game against Wisconsin, including a spectacular 76-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. The run was Martinez's fourth of the season of at least 50 yards and gave him nine career runs of 50 yards or more. Martinez also completed 17-of-33 passes for 184 yards in the game.

Martinez capped his season by throwing for 204 yards and two touchdowns against Georgia in the Capital One Bowl. He also tied his career high with 20 carries for 46 yards on the ground, moving him past the 1,000-yard rushing mark on the year.

Martinez started all 13 games at quarterback and guided an offense that ranked 15th nationally in rushing. He accounted for 2,963 yards of total offense, which ranks as the fourth-highest total in school history and the most by an NU sophomore. His 227.9 yards of total offense per game ranked sixth in the Big Ten.

In the passing game, Martinez threw for 2,089 yards for the seventh-highest single-season passing total in Nebraska history. Martinez connected on better than 56 percent of his throws for 2,089 yards and 13 touchdowns, and had a streak of 125 straight passes without an interception. His 874 rushing yards were the ninth-best single season total in school history by a quarterback and his 67.2 rushing yards per game was ninth in the Big Ten and 10th nationally among quarterbacks.

Martinez shined in the opener against Chattanooga, accounting for 251 yards of total offense, including 135 rushing yards and three touchdowns. The game marked the fifth time in his career Martinez ran for at least three touchdowns. Martinez accounted for 385 yards of total offense against Fresno State, then the second-highest total of his career. His 219 passing yards marked the second-best total of his career at the time, and he ran 15 times for 166 yards and two touchdowns.

the win. Martinez earned Big Ten Offensive Player-of-the-Week honors for his effort in leading the NU offense. Martinez accounted for 214 vards of total offense in an easy victory at Minnesota, then guided an efficient Nebraska attack in a 24-3 victory over ninth-ranked Michigan State in Lincoln. In a loss to Northwestern. Martinez completed 28-of-37 passes for a season-high 289 yards and two touchdowns, tying or setting season bests in completions, attempts, yards and touchdowns. Martinez completed 12 consecutive passes at one point, three off the school record, and he rushed 12 times for 53 yards.

Martinez guided the Huskers to a win at 12th-ranked Penn State by accounting for 199 yards of total offense. He led Nebraska in rushing at Michigan with 49 yards, then guided NU to a victory over Iowa in the regular-season finale in Lincoln. Despite injuring an ankle early in the contest, Martinez threw for 163 yards and a touchdown to lead NU to a 20-7 win. In the Capital One Bowl against South Carolina, Martinez threw for his 13th touchdown of the season in the first quarter, # and rushed for 37 yards in the loss. 2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Martinez burst onto the college football scene with his impressive showing as a redshirt freshman. Martinez was the first NU freshman quarterback to ever start a season opener. He started 12 games and was an explosive threat before being slowed by an injury for the final five games of the season.

HUSKERS.COM

Martinez fell just short of becoming the third freshman quarterback in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards. He finished the year with 965 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns on the ground, while topping 100 yards on the ground five times. His play was a key to Nebraska ranking ninth nationally in rushing at nearly 250 yards per game.

In the passing game, Martinez completed nearly 60 percent of his pass attempts for 1.631 yards and 10 touchdowns. Overall, he accounted for 2,596 yards of total offense, the best mark ever for a Nebraska freshman. He was chosen as Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year, and was an honorable-mention all-conference selection. Martinez was also a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien and Maxwell awards.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Martinez redshirted and worked on the scout team, primarily at receiver.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CENTENNIAL HS)

Martinez was a dual-threat guarterback for Coach Matt Logan at Corona Centennial High School as a senior. Martinez passed for better than 3,000 yards and 28 touchdowns, and completed 61 percent of his passes. He added 750 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns. His play helped Centennial to a perfect 15-0 season and a state championship, capped by a victory over De La Salle High, when Martinez threw for 243 yards. Centennial finished No. 2 nationally in the USA Today prep rankings.

 $Martinez\,was\,named\,the\,Big\,VIII\,League's\,Most\,Valuable\,Player\,and\,earned\,the\,Los\,Angeles$ Times' Glen Davis Player-of-the-Year Award. A first-team all-state pick, Martinez was the Inland Division Offensive Player of the Year, the Max Preps California Player of the Year and the Golden States Prep Southern California Offensive Player of the Year.

Martinez spent only one season at Centennial High School. As a junior, he quarterbacked San Bernadino Cajon High School and accounted for about 1,500 yards of total offense. He spent his freshman and sophomore years at Norco High, where he primarily played in the secondary. Martinez only visited Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Taylor is the son of Casey and Epifania Martinez and was born on Sept. 15, 1990. He is majoring in ethnic studies and is scheduled to graduate this December. Martinez has been active in NU's community outreach efforts, volunteering his time with several local hospital and hospice visits, St. Elizabeth's Burn Center and the Dimensions Early Education Program.

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Spring 2013)

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Mitch McCann will enter the 2013 season looking to add depth to the Husker defense. The 6-0, 220-pound McCann worked at linebacker as a true freshman last fall, but spent some practice time at defensive end this spring and could be used at either spot this fall. McCann joined the Nebraska program as a walk-on from Omaha Burke High School.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BURKE HS)

McCann joined the Huskers as a walk-on after helping the Omaha Burke Bulldogs become one of the toughest defenses in the state of Nebraska. In 2011, Burke held opposing offenses to 18 points and less than 130 yards per game. A three-year starter at middle linebacker for Burke, McCann totaled 128 tackles during his senior season to go along with two sacks and two fumble recoveries. McCann helped Burke reach the Class A state championship game in 2011, where he tallied a game-high 9.5 tackles.

A first-team Super State linebacker by the Lincoln Journal Star and honorable-mention All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald, McCann was one of 13 Husker walk-ons selected to participate in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl in 2012. McCann chose to walk on at NU over a scholarship offer from South Dakota State.

PERSONAL

Mitch is the son of Pete and Stephanie McCann, and he was born on Dec. 23, 1993. McCann is a business administration major and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll for the 2013 spring semester. He volunteered his time with Husker Heroes.

DEFENSIVE END | 6-3 | 285 | REDSHIRT FRESHMAN

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

Redshirt freshman Greg McMullen is one of several young players being counted on to be a factor on a new-look Nebraska defensive line this fall. The 6-3, 285-pound McMullen provides a physical presence on the edge of the defensive front, but also has the size to move inside on passing downs if needed. McMullen is expected to challenge for a starting job at end during the fall, with only senior Jason Ankrah owning significant game experience at that spot.

McMullen is off to an excellent start in the classroom, being named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of his two semesters.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

McMullen redshirted in his first season at Nebraska and was impressive in his work as a defensive end.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HOBAN HS)

McMullen was one of the most dominant defenders in Ohio throughout his prep career at Akron's Hoban High School. McMullen racked up more than 40 sacks during his career and was a regular in the lineup since his freshman season. McMullen capped his career with 78 tackles, 12.5 sacks and 14 tackles for loss as a senior. His play for Coach Ralph Orsini earned McMullen North Coast Blue Division Player-of-the-Year honors. He was also a first-team Division III All-Ohio selection for the second straight year.

McMullen was equally impressive as a junior, earning All-Ohio honors with 87 tackles, 8.5 sacks and an impressive 31 quarterback pressures. He also lined up at tight end and had four receptions for 70 yards. McMullen earned second-team All-Ohio honors as a sophomore when he racked up 11.5 sacks. McMullen first broke onto the scene at Hoban as a freshman, when he had 12 sacks and earned honorable-mention All-Ohio accolades.

McMullen was ranked among the top 200 players overall nationally by both Rivals.com and 247 Sports, and was also among the top 12 overall prospects in Ohio by both services. McMullen appeared in the Semper Fi Marines All-America Bowl following his senior season. McMullen only visited Nebraska, but he was highly recruited including scholarship offers from Ohio State, Notre Dame, Michigan State, Cincinnati and North Carolina State, among others.

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2012)
- » Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2010)

2013 OUTLOOK

Cornerback Josh Mitchell was a key contributor in the Nebraska secondary during the 2012 season and is one of several veteran players who will battle for playing time this season. The deep and experienced Nebraska secondary plans to provide stability, as the Huskers break in a number of new faces in the defensive front seven. Mitchell is one of five returning cornerbacks with extensive playing experience, and the California native spent the majority of spring working with the top defensive unit.

The 5-11, 160-pound Mitchell helped Nebraska lead the nation in opponent pass completion percentage, while ranking in the top 10 nationally in pass efficiency defense and passing yards allowed in 2012. Mitchell is the smallest of Nebraska's cornerbacks, but makes up for his lack of size with great speed and toughness. Mitchell has also been a key contributor on the Huskers' special teams units the past two seasons. Mitchell was an academic All-Big Ten selection in 2012.

 $Mitchell\,played\,in\,13\,games\,and\,made\,eight\,starts.\,He\,finished\,with\,28\,tackles, including\,20$ solo stops, while adding a pair of tackles for loss and a sack. Mitchell had five pass breakups and nabbed his first career interception against Idaho State. Mitchell also had a fumble caused for the Huskers against Arkansas State.

Mitchell made his first career sack in the opener against Southern Miss. He made seven tackles against a high-powered Arkansas State offense and forced a fumble in the game. Mitchell had his first career interception, a pass breakup and two tackles against Idaho State.

In the Big Ten opener against Wisconsin, Mitchell had a career-high eight tackles, including six solo stops and a tackle for loss. Mitchell had four tackles against Ohio State and tied his career high with two pass breakups against Minnesota.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Mitchell played in eight games and started at corner against Washington. He had five tackles, all against Washington, including two solo stops. He added one pass breakup.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Mitchell redshirted during his first season in the NU program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELEANOR ROOSEVELT HS)

 $Mitchell\,had\,an\,impressive\,2009\,campaign, recording\,41\,tackles\,and\,five\,interceptions$ from his cornerback position. A versatile performer, Mitchell added a pair of punt returns for touchdowns, helping the Mustangs to an 8-3 record. His play as a senior earned Mitchell first-team All-Big VIII honors.

A four-year starter for Coach Bill Stacy at Eleanor Roosevelt High, Mitchell had 74 tackles and an interception in 2008. He finished his career with 14 total interceptions. Mitchell was ranked among the top 55 cornerback prospects in the country by Rivals and among the top 150 players in California. Mitchell also visited Colorado State and UTEP and had several other offers.

Josh is the son of Gwenn Church and Mario Mitchell and was born on Jan. 7, 1993. He is majoring in communication studies and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll in 2010 and the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring 2012 and 2013 semesters. He has volunteered time with Husker Heroes. Fuel Up to Play 60 and hospital and school visits.

WINNFIELD, LA. • WINNFIELD

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Alonzo Moore adds explosiveness and play-making ability to a Nebraska receiving corps that is already among the deepest and most experienced in the nation. The 6-2. 185-pound Moore came to Nebraska with the ability to play multiple positions, but the Husker coaching staff quickly recognized his potential at receiver. Moore has made the most of his year in the Husker strength and conditioning program, adding more than 15 pounds of muscle.

In addition to looking to get into the receiving rotation this fall, Moore could also use his explosiveness to help in the Husker return game.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Moore redshirted and was impressive in his work as a scout team receiver.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WINNFIELD HS)

Moore saw action at quarter back, running back and receiver for Winnfield (La.) High School,helping his team to a 14-1 record and a trip to the Class 2A state championship game in 2011. Moore rushed for 1,473 yards and 22 touchdowns on 156 carries, while throwing for another 442 yards and a touchdown. Moore was a first-team all-state pick and was chosen as the Class 2A Offensive Player of the Year. Moore totaled 26 touchdowns as a senior, including three on returns.

As a junior, Moore earned all-district honors and honorable-mention all-state accolades, while primarily playing receiver. He caught 49 passes for 1,246 yards and 17 touchdowns for Coach Andy Pyles' team, while also rushing 53 times for 591 yards and nine scores. Moore's play helped Winnfield to an 8-5 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals.

Moore spent the majority of his time at quarterback in his first two years on varsity. As a sophomore in 2009, he accounted for more than 2,100 total yards to help Winnfield to an 8-4 record. Moore was ranked among the top 50 receivers in the nation by 247 Sports, while Rivals.com listed him as the No. 22 "athlete". Both services ranked Moore among the top 20 overall prospects in Louisiana.

Moore was also an outstanding basketball player and averaged better than 20 points per game during his junior season. During the spring, Moore competed for the track and field team, capturing a gold medal in the Class 2A high jump with a clearance of 6-5 as a senior, while adding a silver medal in the triple jump and a seventh-place finish in the long jump. Moore also visited Mississippi State and Louisiana Tech, in addition to offers from Minnesota, Texas A&M, Arkansas and Ole Miss.

PERSONAL

Alonzo is the son of Janice Moore and was born on Nov. 10, 1992. He is a business  $administration\, major\, and\, was\, named\, to\, the\, Nebraska\, Scholar-Athlete\, Honor\, in\, the\, fall\, of\, 2012.$

AVERY MOSS #94

TEMPE, ARIZ. • CORONA DEL SOL

Redshirt freshman Avery Moss expects to play a big role for the Nebraska defense during the 2013 season. The 6-2, 270-pound Moss is among the leading contenders to earn a starting job at defensive end on a young, but talented Nebraska defensive line. Senjor Jason Ankrah returns at one defensive end, but he is the only end with significant playing experience, leaving an opportunity for Moss and others.

After seeing action early in the 2012 season as a true freshman, Moss suffered a shoulder injury and did not play for the remainder of the year. Moss underwent subsequent surgery and  $was awarded a \, medical \, hardship, giving \, the \, Arizona \, native four \, remaining \, seasons \, of \, eligibility.$

2012 (MEDICAL HARDSHIP)

Moss played in three of the first four games, before suffering a shoulder injury that sidelined him for the remainder of the year. Moss had four tackles on the season, including two tackles against Idaho State, when he also recorded a quarterback hurry. He added single tackles against Southern Miss and Arkansas State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CORONA DEL SOL HS)

Moss had a highly productive prep career at Corona Del Sol High in Tempe, Ariz. Moss used his size and speed to torment opposing passers throughout his career. As a senior, Moss had 59 tackles, including 26 solo stops, five sacks and a pair of pass breakups. His play for Coach Tom Joseph earned Moss second-team Division I all-state honors from the Arizona Republic. Moss earned all-region honors as a junior despite playing in only five games because of a broken hand. During his limited time, Moss made 12 tackles and had 2.5 sacks. Moss played in the Semper Fi Marines All-America Bowl in early January, and made his pledge to Nebraska at that time.

Moss was ranked among the top 15 players in Arizona by Scout.com, 247 Sports and Rivals.com. He also ranked among the top 50 defensive ends in the country by both 247 and Rivals. Moss also visited Arizona State and Purdue and had scholarship offers from Arizona, Washington, Stanford and San Diego State among others.

In addition to his success on the gridiron, Moss was a standout on the basketball court, helping Corona Del Sol to a 32-1 record and a Division I state title. Moss earned second-team all-state honors as a senior despite missing nine games, and he scored 18 points, along with 21 rebounds and four blocks in the state title game. He received recruiting interest in basketball from several schools including Denver, Pepperdine, San Diego and UCSB.

PERSONAL

Avery was born on Sept. 16, 1994, and his father is Shalamar Moss. He is a psychology major. Moss has volunteered his time with Make A Wish, team hospital and community

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2012)

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Graham Nabity will head into 2013 looking to add depth at the I-back position. The 6-0, 210-pound Nabity was a physical runner on the scout team offense last season and is expected to be a reserve behind returnees Ameer Abdullah and Imani Cross. Nabity joined the Huskers from Elkhorn High School, annually one of the state's top prep programs.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELKHORN HS)

Nabity led the Elkhorn Antlers to the Nebraska Class B state championship as a senior, rushing for 1,532 yards on 239 carries and a Class B-leading 24 touchdowns. Nabity was a second-team All-Nebraska pick by both the Omaha World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal Star, and was named the honorary captain of the Class B all-state team.

As a junior, Nabity rushed for 988 yards and 11 touchdowns, while helping his team reach the state championship, where the Antlers fell to Crete. Nabity was one of 13 Husker walkons selected to participate in the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl. Nabity chose to walk on at Nebraska over a scholarship offer from South Dakota State.

PERSONAL

Graham was born on May 12, 1993, and he is the son of David Nabity. He is a construction management major and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. #### 2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Jordan Nelson heads into the 2013 season looking to add depth in a talented group of Nebraska skill players. Nelson spent last season working as a scout team I-back and worked at that spot in the spring. He will look to see action as a reserve this fall. The 5-7, 180-pound Nelson joined Nebraska as a walk-on from Omaha Burke High School.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BURKE HS)

Nelson starred in his first full healthy season at Burke High School in 2011, when he helped the Bulldogs reach the Class A state championship game. Nelson set the school single-season rushing record with 1,791 yards and tacked on 13 touchdowns, earning him a spot on the Lincoln Journal Star Super State team. Nelson also caught 25 passes for 700 yards and eight touchdowns, while averaging 28.0 yards per reception.

In the spring, Nelson competed in track and field, placing in four events at the state track and field championships. Nelson was selected to participate in the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl. The All-Nebraska running back and honorary captain of the World-Herald all-metro team chose to walk on over scholarship offers from several Division II programs.

PERSONAL

ALLIANCE, NEB. • ALLIANCE ONE LETTER

2013 OUTLOOK

Senior Brodrick Nickens will look to earn playing time this fall in his final season in the Nebraska program. The 6-5, 310-pound Nickens spent his first four years as a reserve on the offensive line, including action at guard last fall.

This spring, Nickens made the move to defensive tackle where he used his size and athleticism to make an immediate impression. This fall, he will make a bid to earn playing time at a spot where NU returns limited playing experience, and is looking for players to step forward.

A communication studies major, Nickens is on track to graduate in May of 2014.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Nickens was a backup offensive guard and saw action in NU wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State and Idaho State.

2011 (SOPHOMORE)

Nickens added depth on the offensive line, but did not play in a game.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Nickens was a backup guard, but did not play in a game.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on, Nickens redshirted in his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ALLIANCE HS)

Nickens starred at Alliance High School, where he helped Coach Travis Hawk's team to the 2008 Class B state quarterfinals. Nickens earned first-team all-conference, first-team all-district and honorable-mention all-state accolades (Lincoln Journal Star) after paving the way for starting running back Cody Anthony to rush for more than 1,000 yards.

Nickens also lined up on defense for Alliance, posting 55 tackles and three sacks during his career. He turned down scholarship offers from UNK and Wayne State and was pursued as a walk-on by both Colorado and Colorado State.

Brodrick is the son of Kevin and Angela Conley, and he was born on Sept. 2, 1991. He is majoring in communication studies and was named to the 2009 Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll. He has volunteered at the Northeast Family Center, the People's City Mission and local school visits.

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2012)
- » Four-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

2013 OUTLOOK

Junior Mark Pelini will bid for playing time at center this season on a veteran offensive line that should be a strength for the 2013 Huskers. The 6-0, 295-pound Pelini was the No. 2 center last season behind senior Justin Jackson. Pelini's role grew late in the season when Jackson was sidelined by injury, and Pelini split time with Cole Pensick at center.

Pelini was limited by injury for much of spring practice, but hopes to push Pensick for the starting job this fall. A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Pelini was one of 28 Nebraska players named to the academic All-Big Ten team last fall. Pelini carries a 3.489 cumulative grade-point average in mathematics/history. Pelini is the nephew of Nebraska Head Coach Bo Pelini.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Pelini played in seven games, seeing action in non-conference wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State and Idaho State, then playing in each of the final four games. He took over in the first quarter against lowa when Jackson was sidelined by injury, then split time at center with Pensick in the Big Ten title game. Pelini also saw action against Georgia in the Capital One Bowl.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Pelini provided depth at center in 2011, but did not see game action.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on, Pelini redshirted in his first season at Nebraska in 2010.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CARDINAL MOONEY HS)

COLE PENSICK OFFENSIVE LINE | 6-2 | 275 | SENIOR

LINCOLN, NEB. • NORTHEAST THREE LETTERS

- » Rimington Trophy Watch List (2013)
- » Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2009)

2013 OUTLOOK

Cole Pensick was Nebraska's most versatile lineman during the 2012 season, helping Nebraska lead the Big Ten in both rushing offense and total offense. The Lincoln native was the top backup at both guard spots throughout the season and saw significant playing time in that role. He also continued to train at center, and stepped into the starting role at that position for the final two games after an injury sidelined Justin Jackson.

The 6-2, 275-pound Pensick solidified his hold on the starting role at center during spring ball and is expected to anchor a veteran offensive line this fall. Pensick is one of five senior offensive linemen with extensive playing experience, and that group figures to form the nucleus of a strong line in 2013. Pensick was named to the watch list for the Rimington Trophy this spring, one of four Big Ten centers on the list.

Pensick earned his degree in agribusiness in December of 2012, and will be in his second semester of graduate school this fall.

Pensick's father, Dan, was a three-year letterwinner for the Huskers as a defensive tackle from 1977 to 1979.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Pensick played in all 14 games with starts at center in the final two games. Pensick alternated at guard during the year, serving as the top backup to both Seung Hoon Choi at left guard and All-American Spencer Long at right guard. The play of Pensick and the offensive line helped Nebraska average better than 250 rushing yards per game, while topping 200 yards on the ground 12 times.

2011 (SOPHOMORE)

Pensick played in wins over Chattanooga, Wyoming, Minnesota and Michigan State, and helped Nebraska rush for more than 300 yards against both Wyoming and Minnesota.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Pensick moved to center from defense in the spring and went on to play in five games as the backup center.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Pensick redshirted in 2009 and worked as a defensive tackle on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORTHEAST HS)

 $Pensick\,was\,a\,three-year\,starter\,for\,Coach\,Dave\,Svehla\,at\,Lincoln\,Northeast\,and\,dominated$ the line of scrimmage on both offense and defense. As a senior, he played primarily on offense, averaging about 10 pancakes per game while lining up as the starting right guard. He also recorded nearly 40 tackles and led his team in tackles for loss.

Pensick was honored for his defensive play as a senior, as he was a first-team Super-State pick by the Lincoln Journal Star and a first-team Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska selection. He was a first-team All-Nebraska and second-team Super-State selection as a junior when he had 39 tackles, including seven tackles for loss, three sacks and a pair of fumble recoveries. His play helped Northeast to a state playoff berth in 2007. He was a second-team All-Nebraska pick as a sophomore.

Pensick also excelled in wrestling and track for the Rockets. On the mat, he finished fifth in Class A at 285 pounds as a junior. In track, Pensick captured the Class A shot put title as a junior with a throw of 57-10 1/4 and finished second as a senior with a throw of 57-11 1/2.

Cole is the son of Dan and Bev Pensick and was born on Oct. 10, 1990. He majored in agribusiness and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll the past two semesters, and to the 2009 Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll. He has taken part in School is Cool Week, as well as local school and hospital outreach activities.

MAX PIRMAN LINEBACKER | 6-5 | 230 | SOPHOMORE

ORRVILLE, OHIO • ORRVILLE

Sophomore Max Pirman has made steady strides in the Nebraska weight room throughout his time in Lincoln and will look to make a push for action at linebacker in 2013. The linebacking corps will feature fresh faces this fall after three fifth-year seniors completed their eligibility in 2012.

The 6-5, 230-pound Pirman spent the spring working primarily at Buck linebacker, but has the versatility to play multiple spots.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Pirman added depth at linebacker, but did not play in a game.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ORRVILLE HS)

Pirman was one of two Ohio prep standouts in the 2011 class, and starred at Orrville High School. Despite battling injuries throughout his senior season, Pirman had seven sacks from his linebacker spot for Coach Doug DaVault. Pirman's play helped his school to a 10-4 record and a trip to the Division IV state semifinals.

During Pirman's junior season, Orrville posted a 9-4 record and advanced to the regional finals. Pirman also battled injuries during that year, but was among the team defensive leaders during the state playoffs. Pirman originally committed to Indiana, but switched to Nebraska. Inaddition to the Hoosiers. Pirman also had numerous other offers, including Kansas and Ohio.

Pirman was regarded as one of the top 40 prospects in Ohio by Rivals and among the top 60 outside linebacker prospects nationally by both Rivals and ESPN.

PERSONAL

Max was born on April 5, 1992, and is the son of Terry and Lynette Pirman. He is majoring in business administration. He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and local hospital and school visits.

GIVENS PRICE OFFENSIVE LINE | 6-4 | 295 | SOPHOMORE

HOUSTON, TEXAS • ALIEF TAYLOR

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2012)
- » Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2013 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Givens Price is part of a deep Nebraska offensive line that features a mix of experienced veterans and talented young players on the rise. The 6-4, 295-pound Price added depth in his first year of action in 2012, but is poised for a bigger role this fall. Price spent the spring working at guard, a position where Nebraska returns second-team All-American Spencer Long, but also lost two-year starter Seung Hoon Choi to graduation.

Price came to Nebraska at the age of 16, and will not reach his 19th birthday until midway through the 2013 campaign. Price earned academic All-Big Ten honors as a redshirt freshman in 2012.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Price added depth on the offensive line and played in NU wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State and Idaho State.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Price redshirted in his first season in the program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ALIEF TAYLOR HS)

Price helped Coach J.D. Jordan and Alief Taylor High in Houston to a 10-2 record and a trip to the second round of the Class 5A state playoffs in 2010. Price's play was a key part of an explosive offense that averaged 39.6 points per game and topped the 40-point barrier seven times during the 2010 season. For his play, Price earned second-team Class 5A all-state honors.

Price also stood out during his junior season, helping the team to a 9-4 record and a trip to the third round of the 5A playoffs. Price was regarded as one of the top 70 offensive guard prospects in the country by both Scout and ESPN. Price only visited Nebraska, but also had offers from Baylor, Rice and UTEP.

PERSONAL

Price was born on Oct. 3, 1994, and was one of the youngest signees ever for Nebraska. Givens is the son of Edithmary Price. - » Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2009, 2010)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2010, 2011)

2013 OUTLOOK

Senior Brent Qvale is part of a veteran Nebraska offensive line that is expected to help the Huskers field one of the nation's most explosive attacks in 2013. The 6-7, 315-pound Qvale started 13 games at left tackle last fall. He is one of three returning starters and five seniors with extensive experience who return to anchor the line this fall.

Qvale has been a versatile player throughout his career. In addition to having the ability to play either tackle spot, Qvale spent the early part of his career at guard, before making the switch outside in the spring of 2012.

Qvale will also be a contender for academic honors this season after earning academic All-Big Ten recognition each of the past two years. He posted a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in the spring semester and carries a 3.63 cumulative grade-point average in nutrition, exercise and health science. Qvale picked up his degree in May and is one of nine seniors expected to play the 2013 season as graduate students.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Qvale held down the left tackle spot and helped the Husker offense rank as one of the nation's top units. The offensive line paved the way for junior I-back Ameer Abdullah to rush for 1.137 yards, while quarterback Taylor Martinez ran for 1.019 yards and 10 touchdowns. Martinez had a school-record 3,890 yards of total offense. The offensive line also paved the way for Nebraska to lead the Big Ten in rushing offense at 253.4 yards per game and total offense at 460.8 yards per contest.

2011 (SOPHOMORE)

Qvale played in every game at guard except Penn State, when he was sidelined by injury. In addition to action at guard, Qvale was a regular on NU's PAT and field-goal units. His play helped NU rank in the top 15 nationally in rushing.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Qvale played in all 14 games as a redshirt freshman, backing up Keith Williams and Ricky Henry at guard, while participating on the kicking teams.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Nebraska coaches considered the possibility of Qvale bypassing a redshirt, but a shoulder injury forced him to the sideline early in the fall.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WILLISTON HS)

Qvale came to Nebraska from Williston High School and was the Huskers' first signee from the North Dakota high school ranks since Darin Duin in 1988. Qvale was the first scholarship football player from North Dakota since Darin Erstad joined the squad as a punter from the NU baseball team in 1994.

Qvale was a multi-sport standout at Williston High. As a senior, he helped Williston and Coach Todd Matthews to a 7-4 record and a trip to the second round of the state playoffs. Qvale dominated on the offensive line and was named the Gatorade North Dakota Player of the Year and was first-team all-state as an offensive tackle. The all-state honors marked the third straight year Qvale picked up first-team all-state recognition as an offensive lineman.

Qvale was a first-team all-state pick in basketball his last two years of high school. As a senior, he averaged more than 21 points and 12 rebounds per game. He also captured the state shot put title his final three years, including a toss of 57-5 as a junior. Qvale only visited Nebraska, but chose the Huskers over offers from numerous schools, including Wisconsin and Iowa. Qvale also carried a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in the classroom.

Brent was born on March 11, 1991, and is the son of Sanford and Carol Qvale. In addition to academic All-Big Ten honors, Qvale was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll each of his first four semesters, and to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll the past four semesters. Qvale has volunteered his time with hospital and school visits, Make-A-Wish, the UNL Dance Marathon, and the Fuel Up to Play 60 event. Qvale's older brother, Brian, finished his basketball career at the University of Montana in 2010-11.

2013 OUTLOOK

Defensive tackle Thad Randle has battled injuries throughout his Nebraska career to make an impact for the Husker defense. This fall, the 6-1, 290-pound Randle will be counted on to anchor the middle of the defensive front and provide leadership to a youthful group of Randle missed the spring with an injury, but is expected back to full strength for the start of fall camp. Randle's playing time increased late in the 2012 season, as he recovered from a significant knee injury suffered midway through 2011.

A Houston area native, Randle is on track to earn his degree in ethnic studies this August, and he will be one of nine Husker seniors who will play the 2013 season as graduate students.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Randle played in 13 games and made six starts at defensive tackle, posting 21 tackles, including 10 solo stops, and added a tackle for loss against Arkansas State. Randle had multiple tackles in seven games, including a season-high four tackles, all solo, at UCLA. He had a fumble recovery at Ohio State. Randle's play helped Nebraska rank among the top pass defenses in the nation and in the top 40 in total defense.

2011 (SOPHOMORE)

Randle played in six of the first seven games and had eight tackles, including a three-yard sack at Wyoming. Randle had a career-high five tackles against the Cowboys and made three tackles at Minnesota. He suffered a knee injury in late October and was lost for the remainder of the season

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Randle played in 12 games as a reserve tackle, with his role increasing late in the year. He finished with seven tackles and a quarterback hurry. Randle had three tackles in Nebraska's win over Idaho, in addition to stops against Washington, Kansas State, Missouri and in the Holiday Bowl rematch with Washington.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORTH SHORE HS)

Randle was part of an impressive group of Texans in Nebraska's 2009 recruiting class. He starred at North Shore High School in Galena Park. As a senior, Randle made 70 total tackles, including 17 tackles for loss, and 11.5 sacks. He also had 11 quarterback hurries, forced three fumbles, recovered two others and had four pass breakups for Coach Steve Aymond.

Randle's play helped the Mustangs to a perfect 8-0 regular season, before a second-round loss to state runner-up FB Hightower in the Class 5A playoffs. North Shore had a history of success, as Randle left a program that had won 78 straight regular-season contests following the 2008 season. Randle was a first-team Class 5A all-state selection by the Associated Press and was named to the Houston Chronicle's Greater Houston first-team squad.

Randle was a three-year standout for the Mustangs. As a junior, he earned second-team all-district honors for a 14-1 team that reached the state semifinals. Randle also earned second-team all-district honors when he cracked the starting lineup as a sophomore. Randle took his only recruiting visit to Nebraska.

Thad is the son of Thaddeus Randle Sr. and Julia Long and was born on Oct. 20, 1990. He is majoring in ethnic studies, and was a second-team academic All-Big 12 pick in 2010. He has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times. Randle has volunteered time at the Malone Center.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CRETE HS)

Reeves was one of four in-state players in Nebraska's 2011 class, and was a key figure in a Class B state championship season for Crete High School in 2010. Reeves helped Coach Chuck McGinnis' team rack up more than 3,900 rushing yards en route to a perfect 13-0 record. In addition to his dominant lead blocking, Reeves was also a force on the defensive side, recording 73 tackles and two tackles for loss from his tackle spot. He also forced a fumble in the Class B state title game, a 34-0 victory over Elkhorn.

Reeves was a Super-State selection by the Lincoln Journal Star and an All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald. Reeves was also named the honorary captain of the Class B all-state offensive unit by the Lincoln Journal Star.

Reeves was a first-team All-Nebraska pick by the World-Herald as a junior in 2009. He lined up at guard for the Cardinals, but was named to the Rivals.com All-America team as a center. He was regarded as one of the top five center prospects in the country by both Rivals and Scout.com, and Rivals listed him as the second-best prospect in Nebraska. Despite an early pledge to NU, Reeves received an offer from Stanford and interest from several schools, including Miami, USC and UCLA.

Ryne was born on July 14, 1992, and is the son of John and Mary Ellen Reeves. He is an economics major and has twice been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. Reeves has been active in outreach work, volunteering his time with local hospital visits, Husker Heroes and Husker Hotline.

Trevor Roach has added depth behind Will Compton at the middle linebacker spot the past two seasons and will look to make a bid for playing time in a re-tooled linebacking corps in 2013. Compton was one of three fifth-year senior starters to graduate after last season, leaving the competition for playing time wide open. The 6-2, 230-pound Roach was impressive during spring practice and will likely find a role in NU's defense this fall.

The Elkhorn High product also earned playing time on special teams last season and could see action in that role in 2013. Roach has been named to the academic All-Big Ten team the past two years, and carries a 3.529 cumulative grade-point average in finance/management.

Roach played in six games and made five tackles. He had three tackles in NU's win over Idaho State and made two stops against Minnesota. He split a sack against Idaho State.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Roach played in five games, and had seven tackles and two tackles for loss, all in the opener against Chattanooga. Roach also saw action against Washington, Wisconsin, Ohio State and South Carolina. He was slowed by injury during the second half of the season.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Roach redshirted and worked on the scout team in his first season in 2010.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELKHORN HS)

Roach came to Nebraska as a linebacker/running back for state high school power Elkhorn. Roach amassed 100 tackles for the Antlers in 2009, and starred on the offensive side of the ball where he rushed for 1,042 yards and 17 touchdowns. Roach missed the majority of his junior year with a knee injury he suffered in the first game of the season.

A first-team All-Nebraska (Omaha World-Herald) and second-team Super-State (Lincoln Journal Star) selection, Roach chose to walk on at Nebraska over scholarship offers from Northwest Missouri State and Nebraska-Omaha and a walk-on invitation from Iowa State.

PERSONAL

Trevor is the son of Thomas and Teri Roach, and he was born on March 6, 1992. Roach is majoring in finance/management, and has been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll each of the past four semesters. He was also named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll on two occasions. Roach has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and local team hospital visits.

2013 OUTLOOK

Andrew Rodriguez was a key part of Nebraska's offensive success in 2012, after making the switch from guard to tackle before his junior season. This fall, the 6-6, 330-pound Rodriguez is one of five seniors with extensive playing experience who should form the nucleus of a powerful offensive line.

Rodriguez and fellow seniors Brent Ovale and Jeremiah Sirles will be the front-runners to earn the starting tackle spots. Last season, the threesome helped Nebraska average better than 250 rushing yards per game and lead the Big Ten in both rushing offense and total offense. Rodriguez was a starter at guard during an injury-plagued 2011 season and has the size and mobility to play either tackle or guard.

Rodriguez is majoring in ethnic studies and is on track to graduate in May of 2014, despite not having a redshirt season.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Rodriguez played in every game with a start at Northwestern, and he was the third tackle in the regular rotation along with fellow juniors Jeremiah Sirles and Brent Qvale. Rodriguez typically spelled Sirles on the right side, allowing Sirles to swing to both tackle spots. The line helped sophomore I-back Ameer Abdullah rush for 1,137 yards, while guarterback Taylor Martinez accounted for 3,890 yards of total offense, including 1,019 rushing yards.

2011 (SOPHOMORE)

Rodriguez started the first two contests and five straight games at mid-season, before an injury sidelined him in early November. Rodriguez helped Nebraska rush for 217.2 yards per game, including 200 or more yards on the ground seven times. The unit helped I-back Rex Burkhead rush for 1,357 yards and score 17 touchdowns to earn All-Big Ten honors. Rodriguez was part of two 300-yard rushing outings for the offense, including 333 yards at Wyoming and a season-high 346 yards at Minnesota.

2010 (FRESHMAN)

 $Rodriguez\ joined\ select\ company\ of\ NU\ offensive\ linemen\ to\ see\ action\ as\ a\ true\ freshman.$ He played in five games as a reserve guard and helped NU rank in the top 10 in rushing offense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (AURORA HS)

Rodriguez's physical presence on both lines helped Aurora and Coach Randy Huebert to a perfect 13-0 record in 2009. Rodriguez paved the way for an offense that averaged nearly 40 points a game, and he made 38 tackles on defense for the Huskies. Rodriguez was a first-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald as an offensive lineman, while the Lincoln Journal Star made him a first-team Super-State pick as a defensive lineman. He was also honored on the national level, with his selection to play in the prestigious U.S. Army All-America Game in San Antonio in January, 2010.

Rodriguez also excelled as a junior, helping the Huskies to a 12-1 record and a Class B state title. He was a secondteam Super-State selection in 2008, after first playing with the Husky varsity in 2007, when Aurora reached the state quarterfinals. Rodriguez was ranked as the top prospect in Nebraska by Rivals.com, and was also listed among the top 25 offensive tackles nationally.

Rodriguez also played basketball for Aurora and excelled in track. As a senior, Rodriguez finished second in Class B in the shot put and third in the discus. As a junior, he finished third in the shot put and was seventh in the discus. Rodriguez committed to Nebraska in November of 2008, during his junior season.

PERSONAL

Andrew was born to Myrna Castellar in Harlem on May 15, 1991, and lived in New York until 2003. He moved to Nebraska where he lived with guardians Eric and Nicole Collazo. He was a 2011 academic All-Big Ten selection and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2013. Rodriguez has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, the YMCA and hospital outreach activities.

LEEDS, ALA. • LEEDS HS • AUBURN

Jonathan Rose will have his first opportunity to see action in a Nebraska uniform in 2013. The 6-1, 190-pound cornerback transferred from Auburn last fall and sat out the season per NCAA transfer guidelines. Rose joins a talented group of returning cornerbacks in bidding for playing time in the Husker secondary. Rose brings a long, athletic body to the position, giving him outstanding cover skills.

Rose saw action at Auburn as a true freshman in 2011, after being one of the nation's top prep corners at Leeds (Ala.) High School.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Rose redshirted the 2012 season after transferring from Auburn.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (AUBURN/LEEDS HS)

Rose played in nine games as a true freshman at Auburn in 2011. He recorded two tackles on the season, a pair of solo stops in a win over Ole Miss. Before Auburn, Rose was one of the nation's top prep cornerbacks at Leeds High School in Leeds, Ala. He finished fourth in the voting for Alabama Mr. Football as a senior, when he led Leeds to the Class 3A state title, returning an interception 84 yards for a touchdown and scoring on a 38-yard pass reception in the title game. He totaled 73 tackles and five interceptions during his senior year after recording 62 tackles with three interceptions and 29 pass break-ups as a junior. Rose also had six catches for 237 yards (39.5 ypc) and four touchdowns as a junior, averaging 24.7 yards on punt returns and 38.3 yards on kickoff returns.

He was named the nation's No. 3 cornerback, the No. 2 player from the state of Alabama and the No. 66 player nationally by Rivals.com as a senior. He was also rated as the No. 8 cornerback in the nation, the No. 3 recruit from Alabama and the No. 88 player overall nationally by 247 Sports.

In addition to being selected as a SuperPrep All-American, he was chosen to play for the East squad at the U.S. Army All-American Bowl following his senior season. Locally, Rose was named to the Super 12 team and tabbed as the 2010 3A Back of the Year by the Alabama Sports Writers Association as a senior, when he was also No. 2 on the Birmingham News' list of the Alabama Super Seniors. Rose participated in the Alabama-Mississippi All-Star game, breaking up three passes and intercepting another.

Redshirt freshman Michael Rose is key part of a group of talented young linebackers who look to earn their first playing time in a Nebraska uniform in 2013. A Kansas City product, Rose was impressive on the scout team defense last season and is poised to push for playing time this fall. The 5-11, 230-pound Rose has the versatility to play multiple linebacker positions, and he spent much of the spring working at the Will linebacker spot.

The group of young linebackers will be looking to fill the void left by the graduation of three fifth-year senior linebackers from the 2012 defense.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Rose redshirted during his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ROCKHURST HS)

Rose was a playmaker for Coach Tony Severino at Rockhurst (Mo.) High School, helping his team to a 10-2 record and a trip to the Class 6 quarterfinals in 2011. Rose made 104 tackles as a senior, including three sacks, while adding a pair of interceptions, four pass breakups, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Rose was named a first-team Class 6 all-state pick by the Missouri Coaches Association and an All-Metro selection by the Kansas City Star.

Injuries limited Rose to just six games as a junior, but he made a big impact when he was on the field, averaging nearly three tackles for loss per game. Rose first played a key role as a sophomore, when he had a team-high 95 tackles, two sacks, an interception and a pair of fumble recoveries. Rose played in the Under Armour All-America Bowl in Florida and was one of the defensive standouts in the game. Rose was the first player to commit to NU's 2012 class, making his intentions known before his junior season, and he did not take any other visits. He did have dozens of offers including Iowa, Ohio State, Missouri, USC, Kansas and Indiana to name a few. Rose was ranked among the top five players in the state of Missouri by both Rivals.com and 247 Sports, while 247 Sports and ESPNU listed him among the top 150 overall prospects in the country. Rose was listed among the top 15 inside linebackers in the country by Rivals, Scout and 247 Sports. Rose was also on the preseason watch list for the high school version of the Butkus Award.

Sophomore David Santos showed a glimpse of his potential during the 2012 season, earning extensive playing time in a veteran Nebraska linebacking corps. His play last season earned Santos Big Ten All-Freshman honors from BTN. With 2012 starters Will Compton, Sean Fisher and Alonzo Whaley having completed their eligibility, Santos is poised to move into a key role at linebacker this fall.

The 6-0, 225-pound Santos spent most of last season playing the Will linebacker spot, but worked primarily at middle linebacker this spring and brings great versatility to the linebacking corps. Santos was sidelined by injury at the end of spring practice, but should be at full strength for the start of fall camp.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Santos played in 13 games and earned a start against Michigan. He made 24 tackles, including 11 solo stops, and three tackles for loss. Santos had a season-high 10 tackles and a tackle for loss against Michigan and earned Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week honors for his effort. He made four tackles and a TFL against Penn State and forced a fumble to prevent a Nittany Lion touchdown in the fourth quarter. Santos made three tackles each against Arkansas State and Northwestern.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KLEIN COLLINS HS)

Santos was a standout at Klein Collins High School, and was one of five Texans in the Huskers' 2011 signing class. Santos' play helped Collins High to an 11-1 record and district championship in 2010, before a loss in the second round of the Class 5A state playoffs.

Santos was a key part of the success of Coach Drew Syoboda's team, as Santos racked up 136 total tackles in 2010, including 86 solo stops. He also had 13 tackles for loss, six sacks and a pair of pass breakups. Santos earned District 13 Defensive MVP honors for his efforts and was also the Houston Touchdown Club's Defensive Player of the Year. He was also a first-team Class 5A all-state selection according to OldCoach.com. He participated in the Offense-Defense All-America Game in South Carolina following his strong senior season.

Santos made 107 total tackles, including 75 solo stops, 25 tackles for loss and had four sacks for a 12-1 team in 2009. Overall, Santos was a four-year letterwinner for the Tigers. He was a prep teammate of Husker sophomore safety Charles Jackson.

Santos was ranked among the nation's top 15 outside linebackers by Rivals.com, which also ranked him among the top 40 overall players in Texas. Santos committed to NU early and did not take any other visits, but had a host of offers, including Arkansas, Kansas and Utah.

SPRINGFIELD, VA. • WEST SPRINGFIELD HS • MEMPHIS • E. ARIZONA JC ONE LETTER

2013 OUTLOOK

Mohammed Seisay made an impact in his first season in the program in 2012, earning playing time at a deep Nebraska cornerback position, while also seeing action on special teams. The 6-2, 200-pound Seisay was one of five cornerbacks to see significant playing time in 2012, and all five of those players return this year and will continue to battle for playing time.

Seisay is one of Nebraska's bigger cornerback options, allowing him to match up with taller opposing receivers. Seisay joined Nebraska after one season in the junior-college ranks and came to Lincoln with previous FBS experience at Memphis.

A child, youth and family sciences major, Seisay is scheduled to graduate in August and will be one of nine Husker seniors who will play this fall as a graduate student.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Seisay was slowed by injury early in the season and missed the first two games. He played in the final 12 games of the year and had seven tackles. Seisay had two tackles each against Idaho State and Arkansas State and added single tackles in three other games.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (EASTERN ARIZONA JC/MEMPHIS/WEST SPRINGFIELD HS)

Seisay had a strong 2011 season for Coach Bob O'Mera at Eastern Arizona Junior College. Seisay made 22 tackles and recorded six interceptions, including two that were returned for touchdowns. Seisay was regarded as one of the top 10 junior college players in the country by Rivals.com and among the top three defensive backs, while 247 Sports ranked him among the top 20 junior college prospects in the country.

Before transferring to Eastern Arizona, Seisay spent the 2009 and 2010 seasons at Memphis. After redshirting in 2009, Seisay started all 12 games at cornerback for the Tigers in 2010 and earned Conference USA All-Freshman honors. He finished the 2010 season with 39 tackles, including 23 solo stops, two interceptions and three pass breakups. Seisay had a season-high six tackles in three games (East Carolina, Tennessee and UAB).

Seisay spent the 2008 season at Fork Union Military Academy in Virginia, where he played for Coach John Shuman and helped the team to a 6-4 record. Seisay totaled 45 tackles and eight pass breakups for Fork Union, and also returned a blocked PAT 95 yards.

Seisay played for Coach Bill Renner at West Springfield (Va.) High School, where he helped the 2007 team to a 10-3 record and a trip to the playoffs for the first time in 14 years. Seisay had 35 tackles, four interceptions, 10 pass breakups and forced one fumble in 2007 and was named first-team all-district. He also starred in 2006, including a school-record three interceptions against Hayfield High School. Seisay was a first-team all-district pick in both 2006 and 2007 at WestSpringfield. Seisay chose Nebraska after also visiting Arkansas, Indiana, Mississippi, and he had a number of other offers, including Florida State and Oklahoma.

2013 OUTLOOK

D.J. Singleton was one of three freshmen to join the Nebraska program in January and get a headstart on their college careers. Singleton originally signed with Wisconsin out of high school in February of 2012, but did not enroll at the school and re-opened his recruitment last winter before deciding on the Huskers.

The 6-1, 200-pound Singleton spent the spring working at the safety spot, where Nebraska lost a pair of senior starters from its 2012 defense. In addition to bidding for time in the secondary, Singleton could contend for special teams work.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ST. PETER'S PREP)

Singleton graduated from St. Peter's Prep in Jersey City, N.J., in 2012 and was one of the top defensive prospects in the Garden State. As a senior, Singleton posted 53 tackles, four sacks, 12 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles for Coach Rich Hansen. Singleton's play earned him second-team All-New Jersey selection by the Newark Star-Ledger, as well as all-metro and all-county honors.

As a junior, Singleton made 40 tackles, including three sacks, and forced three fumbles. His play earned him all-county honors in 2010. He first saw varsity action with 43 tackles as a sophomore in 2009. Following his senior season, Singleton was ranked as one of the top 30 safety prospects in the 2012 class by Rivals.com and 247 Sports. He was also regarded as one of the top 20 players in the state of New Jersey by several recruiting services. Singleton played in the Semper Fi All-Star game in January of 2012 and was selected to the USA Today International Bowl. Singleton was also a two-year letterwinner in track and field at St. Peter's Prep.

Singleton chose Nebraska over Wisconsin and Rutgers. In 2012, he had scholarship offers from dozens of schools, including Michigan, Michigan State and Illinois to name a few.

2013 OUTLOOK

Offensive tackle Jeremiah Sirles has been a productive member of the Nebraska offensive line each of the past three seasons, and is one of three returning starters on the line for the 2013 season. Sirles is also one of five veteran seniors with extensive playing experience. The 6-6, 310-pound Sirles started every game at right tackle last season, but has seen extensive action at both tackle spots during his career, and could play either side this fall. Sirles' play last season helped Nebraska rush for better than 200 yards in 12 games, while leading the Big Ten in both total offense and rushing offense. While Sirles started on the right side of the line each game, his versatility allowed him to swing to the left side in NU's tackle rotation.

For his effort during the 2012 season, Sirles earned secondteam All-Big Ten honors from both the coaches and media panel. He is poised to contend for higher honors this season.

Off the field, Sirles earned his degree in management in May, and he will be one of nine seniors to play the 2013 season with their degree in hand.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Sirles started every game at right tackle and his play helped one of the top offenses in the country. Sirles and his offensive line paved the way for sophomore I-back Ameer Abdullah to eclipse the 1,000-yard barrier in 2012, while junior quarterback Taylor Martinez also rushed for better than 1,000 yards and led the Big Ten in total offense and passing efficiency, while setting a Nebraska record for total offense in a season.

2011 (SOPHOMORE)

Sirles missed spring ball after offseason shoulder surgery, but returned in time to play in all 13 games as an alternate at left tackle. His play helped Nebraska's offense post seven 200-yard rushing games and rank 15th nationally in rushing. Sirles saw his most extensive action of the year against Northwestern. Sirles also contributed as a blocker on Nebraska's PAT and field-goal units.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Sirles earned second-team freshman All-America honors while starting all 14 games at left tackle in 2010. His play helped Nebraska rank as one of the top 10 rushing offenses in the country and produce three players with at least 950 rushing yards. Sirles was one of three freshmen to draw a starting assignment for Nebraska in 2010.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BEAR CREEK HS)

Sirles was a standout on the offensive line for Bear Creek High School and Coach Tom Thenell each of his final three seasons. Behind Sirles' play, Bear Creek finished 2008 with an 8-3 record before losing in the second round of the Colorado Class 5A state playoffs.

Sirles' impressive blocking helped Bears' quarterback Zach Thenell lead the state in passing, while the offense also produced 215 yards per game on the ground. For his efforts as a senior, Sirles was named to the Rocky Mountain News' All-Colorado squad for the second straight year. Sirles was named first-team All-Colorado and all-conference as a junior, when he helped his team reach the state quarterfinals. As a sophomore, Sirles helped Bear Creek to the state quarterfinals and earned first-team All-South Metro League honors and second-team all-state accolades. Sirles also excelled in basketball and track, helping his team to the state basketball tournament as a senior. Sirles received numerous offers, and also visited Arizona State and Oregon before deciding on the Huskers.

Jeremiah was born on Aug. 8, 1991, and is the son of Phil and Nora Sirles. He is majoring in management. Sirles was a second-team academic All-Big 12 choice in 2010, a member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll three times and a two-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll choice. He was named to the 2012 and 2013 Brook Berringer Citizenship teams for his involvement in NU's outreach programs. Sirles has volunteered his time with American Education Week, Special Needs Basketball Tournament, Cub Scouts, local football banquets, team hospital and school outreach visits.

Senior Colby Starkebaum will enter the 2013 season with a goal of pushing for playing time in a new-look Husker line backing corps this fall. Starkebaum has provided depth throughout his career at linebacker, a position that graduated three fifth-year seniors from the 2012 squad.

 $The \, 6\text{-}1, 210\text{-}pound \, Starke baum \, lined \, up \, at \, the \, Mike \, line backer \, spot \, during \, the \, spring, \, but$ has seen practice time at multiple linebacker spots. A walk-on from Colorado, Starkebaum is a second-generation Husker whose father, John, was a three-year letterwinner at linebacker from 1972 to 1974.

An agronomy major, Starkebaum is on track to earn his degree in December.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Starkebaum was a reserve linebacker and saw action against Idaho State, but did not have a tackle.

2011 (SOPHOMORE)

Starkebaum was a reserve linebacker, but did not see game action.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Starkebaum added depth at linebacker, but did not appear in a game.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (STERLING HS)

Starkebaum was a standout two-way performer as a running back and linebacker for Coach Mark Bauder. Starkebaum's play earned him honorable-mention Class 3A all-state accolades from the Rocky Mountain News. He was also a member of the wrestling team and a standout track performer in the long and triple jump. As a junior, Starkebaum finished eighth in the triple jump at the state championships and went on to claim fifth as a senior.

Colby is the son of John and Julia Starkebaum, and he was born on May 25, 1990. An agronomy major, he was named to the 2009 Big 12 Fall Academic Honor Roll.

- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Spring 2012)

2013 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Zach Sterup is a key part of a collection of talented young offensive linemen who are looking to take a step forward in 2013. One of the largest Huskers at 6-8 and 315 pounds, Sterup should compete for playing time at tackle behind senior returnees Jeremiah Sirles, Brent Qvale and Andrew Rodriguez. Sterup had a productive spring practice session and appears ready to increase his role this fall.

Sterup has made outstanding progress in the Husker strength and conditioning program. since his arrival in Lincoln in 2011. Sterup has added nearly 50 pounds, giving him the needed strength to play offensive line in the Big Ten.

A Hastings, Neb., native, Sterup was one of 28 Huskers named to the academic All-Big Ten team in 2012.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Sterup was a reserve at tackle and appeared in Nebraska's wins over Southern Miss, Arkansas State, Idaho State and Minnesota.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Sterup redshirted in his first season and was a standout on the scout team line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HASTINGS ST. CECILIA HS)

Sterup was a standout performer for Coach Carl Tesmer at Hastings St. Cecilia High School, helping the Bluehawks to back-to-back state championships in 2009 and 2010. As a senior, Sterup led an offensive line that paved the way for more than 3,500 rushing yards en route to a second straight 13-0 season. In addition to his dominant play on the offensive line, Sterup also saw time on defense and racked up 58 tackles and four sacks.

Sterup was a first-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald and a Super-State selection according to the Lincoln Journal Star. He was also the honorary captain of the C-2 all-state team by both newspapers. Sterup earned first-team defensive all-state honors in Class C-1 as a junior, helping St. Cecilia to a perfect campaign before it moved classes in 2010.

Sterup was regarded as one of the top 30 offensive tackle prospects in the country by Rivals.com, which also listed him as the top player in Nebraska. Sterup was among the tallest Husker recruits ever, with 6-8 offensive tackle Tom Punt (1988-90) the tallest known football letterwinner in school history before Sterup's arrival.

Sterup also starred in basketball where he was among the team leaders in scoring and rebounding and helped the Bluehawks to a 19-6 record. St. Cecilia captured three straight Class C-1 basketball titles from 2008 to 2010. Sterup only visited Nebraska but had numerous other offers, including Iowa, Wisconsin, Notre Dame, Minnesota, Stanford and UCLA.

2013 OUTLOOK

Sophomore David Sutton will enter the 2013 season looking to become a significant contributor at tight end. Senior Jake Long is Nebraska's only veteran returnee at the spot, following the graduation of 2012 seniors Ben Cotton and Kyler Reed, who were fixtures in the offense the past four seasons.

The lack of returning experience provides the opportunity for Sutton and fellow Lincoln Southeast products Sam Cotton and Trey Foster to push for playing time. The 6-3, 240-pound Sutton has made strides in the weight room since arriving at NU, giving him the strength and speed to compete in the Big Ten.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Sutton provided depth in a veteran tight end corps. He played against Southern Miss, Arkansas State and Idaho State, but did not have a catch.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

Sutton redshirted and worked on the Nebraska scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHEAST HS)

Sutton was one of four Nebraskans in the Huskers' 2011 recruiting class. He starred on both sides of the ball for Lincoln Southeast High School, helping the Knights to a 10-2 record and a trip to the Class A state semifinals in 2010. From his defensive end spot, Sutton recorded 105 tackles as a senior, including 12 sacks. On offense, he caught 16 passes for 311 yards and four touchdowns as a tight end.

Sutton was a defensive first-team Super-State pick by the Lincoln Journal Star and an All-Nebraska selection by the Omaha World-Herald. During his junior season, Sutton racked up 75 tackles and earned honorable-mention all-city accolades from the Lincoln Journal Star, helping the Knights to the state quarterfinals. Sutton also visited Ohio and had an offer from South Dakota State.

ARLINGTON, TEXAS • SAM HOUSTON TWO LETTERS

- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2011)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

2013 OUTLOOK

Jamal Turner has been an explosive playmaker for Nebraska the past two seasons and is part of one of the nation's top returning receiving corps. Turner is joined by fellow junior Kenny Bell and senior Quincy Enunwa as the leaders of the NU receiving unit, and that trio combined for better than 120 receptions and 1,750 yards last season.

The 6-1, 185-pound Turner played the best football of his career in the second half of the 2012 season and is poised for big things in 2013. He finished the season with 32 receptions for 417 yards and three touchdowns, an average of 13.0 yards per catch, with 18 of his catches and all three touchdowns coming in the final six games of the season.

A former high school quarterback, Turner has great speed and elusiveness and has become an outstanding route runner. In addition to his role at receiver, Turner is one of the leading candidates for kickoff and punt return duties in 2013.

Turner played in all 14 games and made four starts, including the last three games, when NU opened with three receivers. Turner had six games with three or more catches, including a career-high six receptions against Minnesota.

The first two touchdowns of Turner's career were both game changers. The first came on a six-yard TD catch with six seconds remaining to give NU a 28-24 win at Michigan State. The second came in the fourth quarter a week later against Penn State, giving Nebraska its first lead of the day in a comeback victory. Turner caught his third touchdown against Georgia in the Capital One Bowl. Turner also finished with four rushing attempts, while averaging 5.7 yards on six punt returns and 22.1 yards on seven kickoff returns.

In the opener against Southern Miss, Turner had two catches for 46 yards, including a season-long 36-yard catch. Turner made his first career start at UCLA and had one reception and two rushing attempts. Turner combined for four catches in the first two Big Ten games before being a part of a big passing day at Northwestern with three catches for 56 yards, including a key 25-yard catch to set up Nebraska's game-winning touchdown.

Turner had two receptions at Michigan State, including the game-winning touchdown, then added two catches the following week against Penn State, highlighted by his fourth-quarter score. Turner caught a career-high six passes for 83 yards against Minnesota, just one yard shy of his career-high 84 yards at Wisconsin in 2011. Turner started against Wisconsin in the Big Ten title game and led NU with 63 receiving yards on five catches, highlighted by a 32-yard third-quarter catch. Turner capped the season with three catches for 22 yards against Georgia, including a 14-yard TD reception in the first quarter.

2011 (FRESHMAN)

Turner joined the program in January as a quarterback, but quickly made the switch to receiver. He played in 12 games and was fifth on the team with 15 receptions for 243 yards. Turner's average of 16.2 yards per reception was second only to Kyler Reed. Turner had at least one reception in each of the first five games. He caught three passes for 63 yards, including a season-long 43-yard catch, against Fresno State.

Turner had a season-high five receptions for 84 yards at Wisconsin, including two catches of at least 25 yards. Turner had two receptions each against Washington, Wyoming and Minnesota. He added one kickoff return for 17 yards against Washington.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SAM HOUSTON HS)

Turner had a prolific high school career at Sam Houston High School in Arlington, Texas. He was one of the nation's top dual-threat quarterbacks for Coach Danny Edelman, racking up more than 10,000 yards of total offense in three years as a starter.

As a senior, Turner rushed for 1,888 yards on 267 carries and 35 rushing touchdowns. He completed better than 60 percent of his passes for 1,551 yards and eight touchdowns. Turner earned first-team All-DFW area accolades by the Dallas Morning News as a utility player, and he was also an honorable-mention Class 5A all-state pick. Turner produced similar statistics as a junior with 1,809 yards and 19 touchdowns rushing, while averaging better than eight yards per carry. He also threw for better than 1,800 yards and 13 touchdowns earning second-team All-DFW area honors and second-team 5A all-state honors.

Turner first stepped into the starting quarterback role as a sophomore and posted big passing numbers. He threw for 2,611 yards and 21 touchdowns, while also rushing for better than 400 yards and nine touchdowns. Turner was chosen to play in the Under Armour All-American game in Florida, and he showed his all-around ability by lining up at receiver in the game. ESPN ranked Turner among the top 50 overall prospects in the country, while Rivals ranked Turner among the top 140 players in the nation and the top 20 prospects in Texas. Turner only visited Nebraska, but had numerous offers, including Missouri, Oklahoma, TCU, Texas A&M and USC.

PERSONAL

Jamal is the son of the late Rusty Turner and Jeffery Turner and was born on Feb. 1, 1993. He is a criminology and criminal justice major and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll in 2011 and the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2011. Turner is a regular in NU's community outreach efforts, volunteering his time at Madonna Rehabilitation Center, local hospital visits and Husker Hotline.

PAPILLION, NEB. • PAPILLION-LAVISTA

Redshirt freshman Dylan Utter will look to provide depth in the Nebraska offensive line during the 2013 season. The 6-1, 275-pound Utter spent the spring working at right guard, where Nebraska returns second-team All-American Spencer Long. Utter joined the Nebraska program after an outstanding high school career at Papillion-LaVista High School.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PAPILLION-LAVISTA HS)

Utter helped Papillion-LaVista High School reach the semifinals of the Class A state championships as a senior in 2011. Utter was a mainstay on both sides of the line of scrimmage, totaling 40 tackles and two sacks to earn him a spot on the Lincoln Journal Star Super State second team as a senior. On offense, Utter helped the Monarchs average more than 38 points and 258 passing yards per game.

As a junior, Utter recorded 47 tackles, 12 tackles for loss and three sacks on defense. In the spring of his senior year, Utter earned a second-place finish in shot put at the 2012 Nebraska state track and field championships. Also a member of the Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska second team, Utter was selected to participate in the 2012 Nebraska Shrine Bowl. Utter walked on after receiving scholarship offers from North Dakota and Army.

Dylan was born on Feb. 19. 1994, and he is the son of Dinah Fiest. He has not declared a major. Utter has volunteered his time with the Community Action Partnership and team hospital visits.

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Vincent Valentine is a key part of a young collection of talent on the Nebraska defensive line that will be counted on beginning in the 2013 season. The 6-3, 325-pound Valentine has the size to be an imposing presence in the middle of the defensive front over the next four years. He will head into fall camp looking to battle for playing time at tackle, where senior Thad Randle is the only returnee with extensive playing experience.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (EDWARDSVILLE HS)

Valentine was one of four defensive linemen in NU's 2012 signing class, and he and fellow Illinois product Jordan Westerkamp gave NU two signees from that state for the first time since 2004. Valentine was a second-team all-state, all-class pick in Illinois by the Chicago Tribune as a senior. Valentine had 35 tackles, including 11 tackles for loss, and three sacks for Edwardsville, helping Coach Matt Martin's team to a 5-5 record and a trip to the Illinois state playoffs. Valentine was also chosen as a first-team Class 7A all-state performer by the Illinois High School Coaches Association, and earned first-team All-Southwest Conference honors for the second straight season.

As a junior, Valentine made 33 tackles, while adding two sacks, forcing two fumbles and recovering a fumble. Valentine was also a starter as a sophomore when he racked up 29 tackles, two sacks and had a fumble recovery. Valentine was ranked among the nation's top 50 defensive tackles by both Rivals.com and 247 Sports, and both services ranked him among the top 15 overall prospects in the state of Illinois. Valentine chose Nebraska over Florida and Illinois, and had dozens of other offers including Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Penn State, Purdue and Wisconsin in the Big Ten.

Vincent was born on Feb. 23, 1994, and he is the son of Vincent Sr. and Angreha Valentine. He has not declared a major, but earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012.

2013 OUTLOOK

Junior defensive end Donovan Vestal will look to make the most of an opportunity to earn playing time on the Nebraska defensive front in 2013. The 6-5, 275-pound Vestal has continued to add strength in the NU weight room in the past year, and he is coming off a productive spring practice. He will head into the fall hoping to see action at defensive end, where Nebraska lost three of its top four defensive ends from 2012, with senior Jason Ankrah the only returning player with extensive game experience.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Vestal added depth at defensive end, but did not see game action.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Vestal added depth at defensive end, but did not play in a game. He did make the travel roster for the trip to Penn State.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Vestal redshirted and worked on the scout team in his first season. Vestal missed part of the season with a shoulder injury.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BOWIE HS)

Vestal was a standout at Bowie High School in Arlington, Texas, where he played for Coach Kenny Perry. Vestal registered 55 tackles, 7.5 sacks and an interception as a senior. His play helped Bowie to an 11-3 record and a trip to the Class 5A state playoffs, while Vestal earned honorable-mention all-district accolades.

Vestal played both defensive end and defensive tackle during his prep career and his play as a junior helped Bowie to an 11-2 record. Vestal was regarded as one of the top 30 defensive ends in the country by Rivals.com, which also listed him among the top 100 overall prospects in the Lone Star State. Vestal was also a standout for Bowie's basketball team. Vestal did not take any other visits, but had numerous offers, including Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Oklahoma State and Baylor.

Donovan is the son of Donald and Sonja Vestal, and was born on Aug. 22, 1991. He is an ethnic studies major. Vestal is one of Nebraska's community outreach leaders and was named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team in 2011 and 2012. Vestal has volunteered his time with Special Olympics, DARE, Husker Heroes, Cub Scouts, National Student-Athlete Day, Fuel Up to Play 60, Husker Connect, the Foster Care Festival, the YWCA and school and hospital visits.

LOMBARD, ILL. • MONTINI CATHOLIC

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman receiver Jordan Westerkamp will head into fall camp looking to crack into the rotation in one of the nation's deepest and most talented receiving corps. Nebraska coaches entertained the idea of Westerkamp playing as a true freshman, but ultimately decided on a redshirt season in 2012. This fall, the 6-0, 200-pound Westerkamp will join the explosive options at receiver, highlighted by veterans Quincy Enunwa, Kenny Bell and Jamal Turner. Westerkamp has the ability to line up at any of NU's receiver spots.

Westerkamp is off to a strong start in the classroom, carrying a 3.457 cumulative gradepoint average after a year at Nebraska.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

Westerkamp redshirted in his first year at Nebraska and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MONTINI CATHOLIC HS)

Westerkamp was a record-setting receiver who joined Nebraska after posting amazing statistics during his prep career at Montini Catholic High School in Illinois. Westerkamp is the state's all-time leader in receptions (235), receiving yards (4,618) and receiving touchdowns (68). Westerkamp helped lead Coach Chris Andriano's team to state titles each of his final three seasons, capped by a memorable performance in his final prep game. In the 2011 Class 5A state title game against Joliet Catholic, Westerkamp had 12 catches for 353 yards and five touchdowns, leading his team to a 70-45 victory.

The championship game effort capped a senior year that saw him catch 91 passes for 1,659  $\,$ yards and 29 touchdowns. Westerkamp received numerous honors, highlighted by being chosen a first-team USA Today All-American. He was also the Illinois Player of the Year by both the Chicago Tribune and ESPN Chicago, the Suburban Christian Conference Player of the Year and an all-state and all-metro selection.

As a junior, Westerkamp caught 89 passes for 1,631 yards and 23 touchdowns, helping Montini to a 12-2 record and a Class 5A state title. He had seven catches for 146 yards and three touchdowns in the 2010 state championship game. His play as a junior earned Westerkamp first-team 5A all-state honors from the Illinois Coaches Association.

Westerkamp burst onto the scene with 51 receptions for 1,156 yards and 16 touchdowns as a sophomore, including a 99-yard touchdown. He had a touchdown catch in the Class 5A state title game, helping Montini cap a 10-4 season and the first of three straight titles.

Following his senior season, Westerkamp participated in the Semper Fi Marines All-America Bowl in Arizona. He was listed among the top 10 players in Illinois by both Rivals.com and 247 Sports, and was regarded as one of the top 50 receivers in the country, while Scout.com listed him among the nation's top 250 overall prospects. Westerkamp chose Nebraska over Notre Dame and had dozens of other scholarship offers, including Illinois, Iowa, Michigan State, Northwestern and West Virginia.

Jordan is the son of Robert and Kimberly Westerkamp, and he was born on June 23, 1994. His father also starred at Montini Catholic and collegiately at Illinois. Jordan has not declared a major, but earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in each of his first two semesters. Westerkamp has volunteered his time with team hospital and community rec center outreach events.

MURRIETA, CALIF. • VISTA MURRIETA

2013 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Corey Whitaker is a part of a young collection of talent on the Nebraska offensive line that will be counted on to power the Husker offense in future years. This fall the 6-4, 275-pound Whitaker will add depth at offensive guard, a position where Nebraska returns All-American Spencer Long.

Whitaker sat out the 2012 season as a redshirt last year, and a knee injury forced him to the sideline. He was back at full strength for spring practice and is fully ready for the 2013 season.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (VISTA MURRIETA HS)

Whitaker starred at Vista Murrieta High School, and his play helped fuel a prolific offense that led Coach Coley Candaele's team to the finals of the CIF Southern Section Inland playoffs in both 2010 and 2011. In Whitaker's senior year, Vista Murrieta finished with a 10-4 record, with all four losses by forfeit, and it capped its season with a 35-28 victory over Corona Centennial in the playoff finals. Whitaker's play helped the offense average 235.9 rushing yards and 37.0 points per game.

As a junior, Whitaker paved the way for an offense that averaged 38.8 points and better than 200 rushing yards per game en route to a 12-2 record and a berth in the finals of the CIF Southern Section playoffs. He was a two-time first-team all-league, All-CIF and All-Valley selection, and was named to the 2011 All-Inland team by SouthernCaliforniaPreps.com. Whitaker was regarded as one of the nation's top 100 offensive line prospects by 247 Sports. Whitaker also drew heavy interest from Oregon, visited Nevada and San Jose State, and had offers from Fresno State and San Diego State among others.

PERSONAL

Corey was born on Feb. 14, 1994, and he is the son of Corey Whitaker and Tammy Reisdorph. Whitaker has not declared a major. He has volunteered his time with community rec center outreach events

» Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

2013 OUTLOOK

Austin Williams was a member of Nebraska's special teams unit during the 2012 season and will look to continue to contribute in that role this fall. The 6-0, 205-pound Williams will look to push for playing time in a linebacking corps that must replace all three starters from last season. Williams spent the majority of spring practice working at the Buck linebacker spot. A walk-on, Williams made the switch from the secondary to linebacker in 2012.

2012 (SOPHOMORE)

Williams played in 13 games on Nebraska's special teams and as a reserve linebacker. He made four tackles, with single tackles in four games.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Williams added depth in the secondary, but did not play in a game in 2011.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on, Williams redshirted and worked on the NU scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BURKE HS)

Williams was an honorable-mention Class A all-state selection by both the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star, As a senior, he made 102 total tackles, 22 tackles for loss, nine sacks, two forced fumbles and six pass breakups from his linebacker spot. On offense, Williams rushed 48 times for 450 yards and seven touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 60 yards and three scores.

Williams chose to walk on to NU over several Division II scholarship offers and invitations to walk on from Iowa State and Kansas State.

PERSONAL

Austin is the son of Rodney and Marg Williams, and he was born on Oct. 2, 1991. He is a finance major and was selected to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. and the 2011 Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll. #### 2013 OUTLOOK

 $Redshirt freshman \, Evan \, Williams \, will \, head \, into \, fall \, camp \, looking \, to \, add \, depth \, at \, a \, quarterback \, depth \, at \, a \, quarterback$ position headlined by three-year starter Taylor Martinez. A California native, the 5-11, 175-pound Williams joined the Huskers as a walk-on last fall and helped run the scout team offense.

Williams is a second-generation Husker as his father, Jamie, starred at tight end for Nebraska from 1979 to 1982. The elder Williams now serves as Associate Athletic Director for Diversity and Leadership Initiatives in the Nebraska Athletic Department.

2012 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ARCHBISHOP RIORDAN HS/TILTON SCHOOL)

Williams joined the Huskers as a walk-on for the 2012 season. He was a two-year starter for Archbishop Riordan High School in California, and after graduation. Williams spent one year at Tilton School, a prep school in Tilton, N.H. Williams was a three-time all-conference selection in high school and a two-time all-county honoree.

Williams threw for nearly 2,000 yards and 15 touchdowns his junior season, an average of nearly 200 yards per game. Archbishop Riordan switched to a veer offense in his senior season, when Williams attempted only 81 passes in the run-oriented attack. Williams threw for 532 yards and three touchdowns as a senior.

Evan is the son of Jamie and Charlotte Williams. He is a broadcasting major and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring semester. Evan has volunteered his time with local hospital visits and the Lincoln Midget football organization. Evan's father, Jamie, earned four letters and a pair of All-Big Eight honors while playing at Nebraska, Jamie  $went on to play 12\,seasons in the \,NFL, winning \,Super \,Bowl \,XXIV \,with \,the \,San \,Francisco \,49ers.$

HOLLAND, OHIO • SPRINGFIELD ONE LETTER

2013 OUTLOOK

Defensive tackle Kevin Williams added interior depth to the front four as a redshirt freshman in 2012, but is in position to move into a much more extensive role this fall. Senior Thad Randle is the only veteran player returning to the interior of the defensive line, leaving the competition for playing time wide open. The 6-2, 275-pound Williams is one of the players in the best position to push for a key role and is coming off a solid performance during spring practice.

Williams began his Nebraska career early in January of 2011, enrolling at mid-semester.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Williams played in five games as a reserve at defensive tackle. He made four tackles, including a season-high two tackles and a tackle for loss against Idaho State. Williams saw his most extensive action in non-conference play against UCLA, Arkansas State and Idaho State.

2011 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SPRINGFIELD HS)

Williams was a standout at Springfield High School in Holland, Ohio. Williams racked up more than 260 total tackles and 25 sacks in his final two seasons. As a senior, Williams had 111 tackles, including 36 solo stops and 10 sacks. His play earned Williams Division II codefensive player-of-the-year honors in Ohio, and first-team All-Ohio accolades.

Williams earned honorable-mention Division II all-state recognition as a junior when he recorded better than 150 tackles, including 15 sacks and 15 other tackles for loss. Williams was regarded as one of the top 20 defensive tackles in the nation by ESPN, and among the top 20 players in Ohio by Rivals.com. Williams committed to Nebraska in April of 2010, and did not take any other visits, but had offers from Michigan, Michigan State, Wisconsin, Oregon, Illinois and Stanford to name a few.

PERSONAL

Kevin is the son of Lisa and Mark Deel, and he was born on May 8, 1993. Williams is a management major, and he was named to the NU Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2011. He has volunteered his time at local school and hospital visits.

#30

OMAHA, NEB. • CREIGHTON PREP

2013 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Richard Wynne Jr. will look to add depth in a talented Nebraska receiving corps in 2013. A product of Nebraska high school power Omaha Creighton Prep, Wynne originally joined the program as a walk-on running back in 2011, before making the switch to receiver. Wynne could also bid for playing time on the Huskers' special teams.

2012 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

2011 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CREIGHTON PREP HS)

Wynne had an outstanding career at Omaha Creighton Prep High School, racking up better than 1,600 rushing yards in 11 games for Coach Tom Jaworski. Wynne led the Junior Jays to a 7-4 record and a Class A quarterfinal appearance as a senior in 2010. He is believed to be the first back from Creighton Prep to surpass 100 rushing yards in every game of a season. Wynne earned first-team Super-State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star and first-team All-Nebraska accolades from the Omaha World-Herald for his efforts. Wynne had interest from Augustana and Northwest Missouri State.

Richard is the son of Monica and Richard Wynne Sr. He was born on Oct. 18, 1992. Wynne is an English major and has twice been named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. Wynne volunteered his time through the Husker Heroes program, team hospital visits and the Athletics & Diversity Multicultural panel.

TYLER WULLENWABER #82

WIDE RECEIVER 6-1 195 JUNIOR

2013 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Tyler Wullenwaber (pronounced wool-en-wayber) hopes to be a strong contributor to one of the nation's top receiving corps in 2013. The 6-1, 195-pound speedster was part of the Huskers' regular receiving rotation early in the 2012 season before being sidelined for the year with a knee injury in game two.

Wullenwaber received a medical hardship for the 2012 campaign and has three seasons of eligibility remaining in the program. Although he did not participate in spring drills as he continued his rehabilitation, Wullenwaber is expected to be ready for the start of fall practice. He brings another explosive player to a receiving corps that returns three players who caught 30 or more passes last season. A walk-on from Utica, Neb., Wullenwaber could play a role on NU's return teams.

2012 (MEDICAL HARDSHIP)

Wullenwaber played in the first two games against Southern Miss and UCLA, before suffering a season-ending knee injury against the Bruins. Wullenwaber had an eight-yard reception against Southern Miss and a five-yard catch at UCLA.

2011 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Wullenwaber added depth at receiver, but did not appear in a game.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CENTENNIAL HS)

Wullenwaber had a standout high school athletic career at Centennial High School. In football, he set school records for career receiving yards (1,994), season receiving yards (954), career receptions (101), career touchdowns (26) and touchdowns in a season (13). As a senior, Wullenwaber had his best season with 41 receptions for 954 yards and 13 scores. He was a first-team Class C-1 all-state selection by the Lincoln Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald.

Wullenwaber also starred in track and field. He won Class B long jump crowns in 2008, 2009 and 2010, won the high jump as a senior and the 200 meters as a junior. He also finished third in the 200 meters and fourth in the 100 meters as a senior. Wullenwaber chose to walk on at NU after being recruited by several Division II schools, including Northwest Missouri State and Wayne State.

Tyler is the son of Donald and Karla Wullenwaber, and he was born on Nov. 25, 1991. He is majoring in business administration and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll in 2010. Wullenwaber has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, Super Hero Day and local hospital and school outreach visits.

- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2011, 2012, 2013)
- » Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award (2013)

2013 OUTLOOK

Senior C.J. Zimmerer is one of three fullbacks who played a key role for the Huskers last season, with all three players returning for the 2013 campaign. The play of the 6-0, 230-pound Zimmerer, along with fellow fullbacks Andy Janovich and Mike Marrow, helped Nebraska lead the Big Ten in both rushing offense and total offense. The Omaha native has shown the ability to be a powerful lead blocker for the Huskers, while also being an effective runner and receiver out of the backfield.

Zimmerer is one of the Huskers' top student-athletes. He has earned academic All-Big Ten honors each of the past two years and will be a strong candidate for academic All-America honors this season. Zimmerer picked up his degree in criminology and criminal justice in December of 2012, finishing in just 3 1/2 years. He will play the entire 2013 season as a graduate student.

Zimmerer is also one of Nebraska's leaders in the community, having been named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team the past three years. He was the president of Nebraska's Uplifting Athletes chapter in 2012-13.

2012 (JUNIOR)

Zimmerer saw action in every game and started against Minnesota. He saw time both at fullback and on the Huskers' PAT and field goal units. Zimmerer had four rushes for 18 yards, including three carries for 14 yards against Idaho State. Zimmerer also had a six-yard reception against Michigan. His blocking helped Nebraska average better than 250 rushing yards per game.

2011 (SOPHOMORE)

 $Zimmerer\,saw\,limited\,action\,in\,the\,backfield,\,but\,was\,a\,regular\,on\,NU's\,kickoff\,return\,team$ and as a blocker on the PAT and field goal unit. He played in 11 games overall, including special teams.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Zimmerer was a backup at fullback in 2010, and he appeared in victories over Western Kentucky, Kansas State and Colorado.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GROSS HS)

Zimmerer was a two-way standout for Coach Tim Johnk at Omaha Gross High School each of his final three seasons. Zimmerer posted impressive numbers on both sides of the ball as a senior in 2008. As a running back, he posted 1,325 yards and 17 touchdowns, while averaging better than 10 yards per carry. Defensively, Zimmerer was a force at linebacker, where he made 90 tackles, including nine tackles for loss, and added a pair of interceptions.

His performance as a senior helped Gross to a 9-2 record and a trip to the second round of the Class B state playoffs. Zimmerer was named to the Lincoln Journal Star Super-State first  $team \, as \, a \, fullback, while \, the \, Omaha \, World-Herald \, made \, him \, a \, first-team \, All-Nebraska \, pick \, at \, details a constant of the extraction of the extracti$ linebacker. He was also the honorary captain of the World-Herald's Class B all-state defense.

During his junior season, he ran for 701 yards and 11 touchdowns on just 88 carries, while making 123 tackles, including five sacks on defense. His play as a junior earned him first-team Class B all-state honors from both the state's largest papers. He also started on the Cougar defense during his sophomore season.

Zimmerer also played basketball at Gross prior to his senior season and competed for the Cougars' track team. He was one of the first players to join the 2009 recruiting class, committing to the Huskers in May 2008.

The son of Tim and Jackie Zimmerer, C.J. was born on May 23, 1991. He graduated with a degree in criminology and criminal justice in December of 2012. He was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll each of his first four semesters at Nebraska, and to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor roll three times. Zimmerer has volunteered his time with team hospital and school visits, Madonna Rehabilitation Center, Cub Scouts, School is Cool Week, the UNL Dance Marathon, Husker Hotline, Husker Connect and the YWCA

JOSH BANDERAS

LINCOLN, NEB. • SOUTHWEST

Josh Banderas is the lone in-state recruit in Nebraska's 2013 signing class, coming to the Huskers after a decorated high school career at Lincoln Southwest. Banderas was a two-way  $standout for Coach\,Mark\,King's\,Silverhawks, lining\,up\,at\,both\,line backer\,and\,running\,back\,as\,a$ senior. Banderas was a workhorse at running back, carrying the ball 189 times for 1,237 yards and 18 touchdowns. On defense, he had 119 total tackles, including 44 unassisted tackles, 11 tackles for loss and two interceptions. Banderas rushed for better than 100 yards six times during his senior season and also made at least 10 tackles seven times last fall, including four games with 15 or more stops. Banderas' play led Southwest to a 6-4 record and a trip to the Class A state playoffs. For his efforts, Banderas was named the honorary captain of both the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star all-state teams. Banderas focused on linebacker in the first two years of his prep career at Southwest. As a junior in 2011, Banderas racked up 127 tackles to help LSW to a 9-2 record and trip to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs. Banderas earned first-team Super State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star and first-team All-Nebraska honors from the World-Herald for his play as a junior. In 2010, an injury limited Banderas to just five games of action, but he made his mark, accumulating 30 tackles. Banderas was also a standout on the track for the Silverhawks. Banderas competed in four events in Class A as a senior in 2013, as he was sixth in the 110-meter hurdles, seventh in the 300-meter hurdles and seventh in both the shot put and discus. Banderas won the 110-meter hurdles as a junior while finishing second in the 300-meter hurdles. As a sophomore, Banderas finished third in the 110-meter hurdles. Banderas committed to the Huskers in April of 2012, choosing Nebraska over a number of scholarship offers, including Oregon, Kansas State, Iowa, Iowa State and Vanderbilt. Banderas is regarded as the top prospect in the state of Nebraska by all of the major recruiting services. He was ranked among the nation's top 20 linebackers and top 300 overall players by 247 Sports, Rivals.com and Fox Sports. Banderas participated in the Army All-American game in San Antonio in January. Banderas was born on Feb. 22, 1995, and is the son of Tom and Amy Banderas. Tom Banderas played tight end at Nebraska, lettering three years from 1985 to 1987.

CETHAN CARTER

METAIRIE, LA. • ARCHBISHOP RUMMEL

Cethan Carter (pronounced SEE-thun) is one of two players in Nebraska's 2013 recruiting class expected to begin their careers at tight end. The 6-4, 230-pound Carter will join the Husker program after a standout prep career at Rummel High School in Metairie, La. Carter had a breakout season in 2012 for Coach Jay Roth. Carter was a versatile performer, lining up as a tight end, H-Back and fullback in the Raiders' run-based offense. Carter finished the season with 23 receptions for 418 yards and five touchdowns. His play helped Rummel to a perfect 14-0 record and the Louisiana Class 5A state championship. Carter shined in the state title game at the Superdome, catching five passes for 74 yards and a touchdown in a 35-14 victory over Barbe High. For his efforts as a senior, Carter was an all-district choice and a honorable-mention all-state selection. Carter also started for Rummel as a junior, and was again used in a variety of roles on offense. Carter chose Nebraska over offers from LSU, Miami, Memphis, Southern Miss, Louisiana Tech, Tulane, Louisiana-Lafayette and Florida International. Carter was ranked as the No. 13 prospect in the state of Louisiana by the New Orleans Times-Picayune and was ranked among the top 50 tight ends in the country by several recruiting services. Fox Sports lists Carter as the No. 7 fullback prospect in the country. Carter was also one of the top players for the Rummel basketball team, leading the Raiders to a 21-11 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals. Carter is the son of Shelly Carter and he was born on Sept. 5, 1993.

Smith averaged 63.2 yards on 35 kickoffs and made three of six field goal attempts in his sophomore season, earning the program's Special Teams Player of the Year award. As a redshirt-freshman, Smith made five of his seven field goal attempts and 21 of 21 extra points after earning placekicking duties for the final six games of the season. Smith attended Notre Dame High School in Quincy, Ill., lettering four years in football. He was a two-time all-conference and all-area selection at kicker and safety. helping Notre Dame to an 11-1 record in his senior season. Smith spent his redshirt season at the University of Missouri before transferring to Western Illinois in 2010. Smith was born on Jan. 25, 1991, and is the son of Bryan and Donna Smith.

ZACH STOVALL

DEFENSIVE BACK | 5-11 | 185 | FRESHMAN

BELLEVUE, NEB. • BELLEVUE EAST

Bellevue East product Zach Stovall is one of five players from the Omaha metro area in Nebraska's 2013 walk-on class. The 5-11, 185-pound Stovall was a standout defensive back for Coach Jerry Lovell at Bellevue East. As a senior, Stovall had 80 tackles, including 39 solo stops, while also recording eight tackles for loss, six sacks and three interceptions. His play as a senior earned him All-Metro honors from the Omaha World-Herald and honorablemention Class A all-state accolades. Additionally, Stovall was selected to play in June's Shrine Bowl all-star game. Stovall also had football interest from Northwest Missouri State, Missouri Western and Minnesota State, before deciding to walk on. He is the son of Chris and Maureen Stovall and was born on March 20, 1995.

CHRIS WEBER

OMAHA, NEB. • ELKHORN

Chris Weber will join the NU program as a linebacker prospect from Elkhorn High School, one of the state's top prep programs. Weber was a defensive standout and also contributed on offense for Coach Mark Wortman's team, helping the Antlers to the Class B quarterfinals in 2012. Weber had 121 total tackles, including 66 solo stops and four quarterback sacks as a senior. On offense, he caught 18 passes for 338 yards and two touchdowns. Weber was a second-team All-Nebraska selection by the Omaha-World Herald and earned first-team Class B all-state honors from both the World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal Star. Weber was also a member of Elkhorn's 2011 Class B state title team. A recipient of a UNL Regents Scholarship, Weber had recruiting interest from North Dakota State and South Dakota State before choosing to walk on. Weber was born on Jan. 25, 1995, and is the son of Tom and Cindy Weber.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME PLAYERS

The University of Nebraska is well represented at the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind. In 2013, Tommie Frazier became the 16th former NU player selected to stand alongside the six former Husker coaches inducted into the Hall. Frazier will be officially inducted into the Hall of Fame in December of 2013. Before Frazier, the last Husker to be honored among the elite field was offensive guard Will Shields, who was a member of the 2011 College Football Hall of Fame Class. Former All-America tackle Ed Weir claimed the honor as the first Husker player enshrined, while coaches Fielding Yost and Dana X. Bible were also inducted the same year (1951). Coach Tom Osborne, inducted in 1998, is the most recent Husker coach enshrined in the hall.

Ed Weir, Tackle (1923-25) - Inducted in 1951

George Sauer, Fullback (1931-33) - Inducted in 1954

Guy Chamberlin, End (1913-15) - Inducted in 1962

Clarence Swanson, End (1918-21) - Inducted in 1973

Sam Francis, Fullback (1934-36) - Inducted in 1977

Bobby Reynolds, Halfback (1950-52) - Inducted in 1984

TOM OSBORNE

Head Coach | 1973-1997 | Record: 255-49-3 (.836, 5th all-time)

The words were inscribed on Memorial Stadium's northwest corner some 14 years before he was born; "Courage; Generosity; Fairness; Honor; In these are the true awards of manly sports." How fitting, that the field inside that historic stadium is now called Tom Osborne Field in honor of a man, who in 25 seasons, built a total program based on more than winning.

Osborne's coaching career came to a poetic end in the 1998 Orange Bowl. In his final game, the Huskers defeated No. 3 Tennessee, 42-17, giving him a share of a third national title in his final four seasons. The victory left Osborne as the first coach in college football history to retire as a reigning national champion, along with the nation's best active winning percentage (.836, 255-49-3), which ranked fifth all-time among Division I coaches.

Osborne guided the Huskers to back-to-back titles in 1994 and 1995, then capped his career by sharing the 1997 title with Michigan. Nebraska's back-to-back national titles in 1994-95 made Osborne the first coach to accomplish that feat since Bear Bryant in 1978-79. Under Osborne, NU became just the second school all time to post back-to-back perfect national championship seasons. In fact, Osborne's last five Nebraska teams put together the best five-year run in collegiate football history with an amazing 60-3 record.

Osborne-coached Nebraska teams captured 13 conference crowns and all 25 of his Husker teams won at least nine games and went to a bowl. Achievements of that magnitude earned Osborne an immediate ticket to the College Football Hall of Fame in December of 1998, after it waived the customary three-year wait for entrance into the hall. The Memorial Stadium field was re-named Tom Osborne field in 1998.

A Hastings, Neb., native, Osborne served Nebraska for three terms in the U.S. House of Representatives. Osborne served as Nebraska's Athletic Director from 2007 through 2012.

BOB DEVANEY

Head Coach 1962-1972 Record: 101-20-2 (.829, 12th all-time)

One man tops the list of people responsible for the success of the University of Nebraska athletic teams – Bob Devaney. For 35 years he was the driving force behind the University of Nebraska championships, first as a Hall of Fame football coach (1962-72), then as Athletic Director (1967-93) and Athletic Director Emeritus (1993-96). Devaney retired in 1996 and lived in Lincoln until he passed away at the age of 82 on May 9, 1997.

Devaney's mark will remain forever. The memories of the storybook national championship seasons of 1970 and 1971 will continue to inspire generations of Husker fans for years to come. His commitment to building one of the nation's best athletic programs is reinforced with every athletic and academic honor earned by Husker student-athletes.

From the time he took over athletic director duties in 1967, to his final year in 1993, his vigor, enthusiasm and administrative excellence earned him a reputation as one of the nation's outstanding athletic directors. Those characteristics helped make him a football coaching legend. A 1981 inductee into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame, under Devaney's leadership Nebraska developed one of the nation's most successful all-around athletic programs.

During his 11-year stint as Husker football coach, Devaney's teams won 101 games, lost only 20 and tied two for an .829 winning percentage. His career mark of 136-30-7 (.806) ranked him as the nation's winningest active coach at the time of his retirement in 1973. Today, he ranks 11th on the all-time list, six spots behind the man he tabbed as his replacement. Tom Osborne.

In all, his Husker gridiron teams won eight Big Eight titles and two national championships (1970, 1971) and went to nine bowl games. He had three straight Orange Bowl wins, two Outland Trophy winners, a Lombardi Award winner and a Heisman Trophy winner. Twice his teams won four consecutive Big Eight titles, 1963-66 and 1969-72.

NATION-LEADING 16 NCAA TODAY'S TOP TEN AWARDS

The highest honor the National Collegiate Athletic Association can bestow on a student-athlete is The NCAA Today's Top Ten Award. The award is based not only on outstanding athletic accomplishments, but on excellent academic records and leadership ability in community and campus activities.

The University of Nebraska earned its NCAAleading 16th Top Ten Award in January of 2008 when volleyball player Sarah Pavan was announced at the NCAA honors dinner. Pavan was a four-time academic All-American and two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year in volleyball. She was Nebraska's third Top Eight Award winner this decade

The Husker football program has nine of Nebraska's 16 Top Ten Award winners, most recently All-America rush end Grant Wistrom who was a 1998 honoree. Wistrom's selection gave Nebraska nine Top Ten honorees in the 1990s. Two Huskers received the award in both 1990 and 1991, the only times that a school had more than one student-athlete honored.

Nine of Nebraska's Top Ten picks were football players, making the Husker grid program the most decorated in the country.

In the 1990s, six Husker football players were awarded the Top Ten honor, including Aaron Graham (1996), Rob Zatechka (1995), Trev Alberts (1994), Pat Tyrance (1991) and Jake Young (1990). Randy Schleusener (1981) was the first Husker to win the award, followed by Dave Rimington (1983) and Mark Traynowicz (1985).

Nebraska's success in the classroom also extends to other sports. Along with nine football players who have won the Top Ten Award, four Husker volleyball players (Sarah Pavan-2008, Virginia Stahr-1990, Janet Kruse-1992, Nancy Metcalf-2002), two men's gymnasts (Tom Schlesinger-1989, Patrick Kirksey-1991) and one women's gymnast (Richelle Simpson-2005) have also claimed the honor

VARSITY LETTERMAN LIST

NOTE: The following list is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Corrections and additions will be made if documentation is provided. In each entry, the year is listed for each letter won. For example in the listing for Willard Burnham, the years are 1924-26, meaning Burnham lettered in 1924 and 1926 but not in 1925. Lettermen lists are not available for the 1890, 1891 and 1895 seasons. Players are listed by hometown and the last position they played at Nebraska.

123 YEARS OF NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

Notes on the Associated Press Poll: The rankings indicated in all instances below are at game time, with Nebraska's to the left of the slash and the opponent's to the right. If a slash is alone, neither team was ranked at game time. Early-season games from 1936 to 1949 have no slash because the first polls in those seasons were not taken until after the season began. From 1936 to 1960 and 1968 to 1988, AP ranked the top 20 teams, from 1961 to 1967 the top 10, and since 1989, the top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, is Football Rankings, College teams in the Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, compiled by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C.; McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

COACH DR. LANGDON FROTHINGHAM

(Harvard) 2-0-0 (1.000), 1890

A faculty member, Langdon Frothingham helped the first squad become one of only two in the history of NU football to go unscored upon, outscoring opponents, 28-0, in two games. Dr. Frothingham broke his leg while scrimmaging with the team in preparation for the Doane game and may have coached on the sideline with crutches.

COACH J.S. WILLIAMS

2-2-1 (.500), 1892

Omaha attorney J.S. Williams coached only one game. The Huskers received a 1-0 forfeit win over Missouri, which refused to play NU because it had a black player, George Flippin, on its roster.

COACH

W.C. "KING" COLE

(Marietta, 1902) 25-8-3 (.736), 1907-10 W.C. "King" Cole took over the reins after playing football under Fielding Yost at Michigan. Cole coached Nebraska to an 85-0 win over Doane in the last game on the field that preceded the Nebraska Athletic Field. His final season as coach marked NU's first unshared Missouri Valley Conference title. His last game as coach was a 119-0 win over Haskell, which still ranks as the most points a Cornhusker team has ever scored.

COACH EWALD O. "JUMBO" STIEHM

(Wisconsin, 1909) 35-2-3 (.913), 1911-15

Under Ewald O. "lumbo" Stiehm's direction, Nebraska won or tied for the Missouri Valley Conference championship every season. His winning percentage of .913 ranks as the highest in school history. His teams recorded a 34-game unbeaten streak, the longest in school history. Also Nebraska's basketball coach, he was the only coach in Big Eight history to win football and basketball titles in the same academic year. He was the first year-round coach in school history, but he went to Indiana University after NU refused to increase his salary to $4.250.

COACH

ERNEST E. BEARG (Illinois)

23-7-3 (.742), 1925-28

Ernest E. Bearg won Nebraska's first Big Six title in 1928 when his team went 7-1-1. Despite fielding powerful teams during his four years, fans criticized him for not using strategy and deception, which eventually led to his resignation

Bearg also spent one year as men's basketball coach (1926) and posted an 8-10 record.

NEBRASKA IN THE POLLS

The Associated Press poll began in 1936, and Nebraska came in at No. 15 in the first-ever regular-season poll on Oct. 24. The Huskers finished with a No. 9 final national ranking that year. From 1936 through 1949, the AP polls did not come out until October. Beginning in 1950, AP polls were issued weekly throughout the entire regular season. Until 1964, all final rankings are based on regular-season finishes and do not include bowl game results. In 1965, the AP final rankings became post-bowl rankings (with the exception of 1966). In 1974, the UPI final ranking also became post-bowl, and since then all final rankings have included bowl results.

COACH ADOLPH J. LEWANDOWSKI

(Nebraska, 1931)

4-12-0 (.250), 1943-44

Adolph J. Lewandowski, the Nebraska basketball coach (1941-45), took over the football team during World War II. The scheduled game on Nov. 13, 1943, against Pittsburgh in Lincoln was canceled because of wartime travel restrictions. Lewandowski played football under Ernest E. Bearg and Dana X. Bible at Nebraska (1928-29).

COACH BOB DEVANEY

BOB DEVANEY

Bob Devaney won back-to-back national titles in 1970 and 1971 and eight Big Eight crowns. He retired in 1973 with a career record of 136-30-7 (.806), which left him as the winningest active coach in the nation. In 1971, he was named coach of the year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers of America, Football News and the Washington Touchdown Club. Devaney was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1981 and into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1976. His 11-year stint as head football coach is the second longest in school history behind Tom Osborne. He was Nebraska's athletic director from 1967 to 1992 and served as athletic director emeritus for four years, before retiring June 30, 1996. Devaney passed away on May 9, 1997.

COACH TOM OSBORNE

Tom Osborne was hand-picked by Bob Devaney as his successor and served as assistant head coach in 1972. Osborne is credited as the offensive genius behind Devaney's national championship teams and served as a full-time assistant from 1967 to 1972. Osborne won back-to-back national championships in 1994 and 1995, and a third national title in 1997. During his 25 seasons, Nebraska won 13 conference championships and went to 25 consecutive bowl games, including 17 "major" bowls. His teams won nine or more games every year and 11 national rushing titles. His athletes won six Outlands, three Lombardis, one Heisman, one Butkus and one Johnny Unitas Award. He was the fastest coach in college football history to win 200 games, doing it in just 21 seasons, and the fastest coach to reach 250 wins. In his last five seasons, Osborne's teams posted a 60-3 record, the most wins in a five-year span by any team in collegiate history.

COACH FRANK SOLICH

(Nebraska, 1966) 58-19 (.753), 1998-03 Frank Solich was named Tom Osborne's successor on Dec. 10, 1997. He guided NU to a 12-1 record, Big 12 Championship and No. 2 final ranking in the coaches poll in 1999. In 2001, Solich led the Huskers to an 11-2 record and an appearance in the BCS title game in the Rose Bowl. In 2003, Solich coached Nebraska to a 9-3 regular-season record, but did not coach NU in the Alamo Bowl, as defensive coordinator Bo Pelini served as interim head coach. Solich was a member of Bob Devaney's first recruiting class in 1962. As a fullback, Solich earned All-Big Eight honors in 1965 and was the first Husker to rush for 200 yards in a game.

COACH BILL CALLAHAN (Illinois Benedictine, 1978)

27-22 (.551), 2004-07

Bill Callahan came to Nebraska less than one year after leading the Oakland Raiders to Super Bowl XXXVII. The 27th head coach in Nebraska football history, Callahan became one of just five coaches in history to return to college football after leading an NFL team to the Super Bowl. During Callahan's tenure, Nebraska shattered numerous school passing records. He led Nebraska to two bowl games and a Big 12 North title during his tenure.

COACH BO PELINI

(Ohio State, 1990) 49-20 (.710), 2008-present

The 28th Nebraska head coach, Pelini was won at least nine games in each of his first five seasons on the Husker sideline, joining Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne as the only NU coaches to accomplish that feat. Pelini's teams have won at least a share of a division title in four of his five seasons at the helm, including a Big Ten Legends Division crown in 2012. Pelini became Nebraska's head coach after five seasons as the most successful defensive coordinator in college football. Pelini also served nine seasons as an assistant in the NFL, winning a Super Bowl title with the San Francisco 49ers.

In 2002, Potuto was named Outstanding Faculty Athletics Representative by the All-American Football Foundation. From 2008-09 to 2011-12 she was president of the 1A FAR (FARs from FRS institutions). Among her NCAA positions, Potuto spent nine years (the maximum) on the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions (chair her last two years) and currently substitutes when a member cannot serve. She was one of three Big 12 Conference representatives on the NCAA Division I Management Council, served on the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship Committee, and currently serves on an NCAA-wide (all divisions) committee to advise NCAA staff on student-athlete issues and educational programming for coaches, staff, and student-athletes.

A sports law expert, Potuto regularly lectures and consults on sports issues in general and NCAA processes in particular. She is an expert witness in litigation involving sports issues. She testified before the House Subcommittee on the Constitution regarding due process in NCAA infractions hearings.

In the past year she has appeared in media reports in the NY Times, LA Times, USA Today,  $Washington\,Post, CBSS ports.com, and\,the\,Chronicle\,of\,Higher\,Education, among\,others.\,She$ has presented to the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics, the Texas Commission of Higher Education, NCAA regional conferences, law conferences and law firms, NACDA, and to universities and law colleges, including the Universities of Istanbul, Washington, Maryland, Oklahoma, Santa Clara, Baltimore and Mississippi.

Potuto is a past adviser to the Uniform Law Commissioners Committee to draft a sports agent statute, has drafted rules governing search and seizure and hearings for the Nebraska Racing Commission, and also has written on issues of gender equity in college athletics. She has authored numerous articles on sports law issues. She just completed an article on student-athlete use of their names/likenesses with an econometrician and tax professor.

Potuto delivered the 2012 Chancellor's Distinguished Lecture. She serves on the senate's intercollegiate athletics committee. She is a past member of the UNL academic senate and also served on Nebraska's NCAA site certification steering committee.

Potuto teaches constitutional law, procedure, federal jurisdiction, and sports law. She has been a visiting professor of law at the University of Arizona, Rutgers University, the Cardozo College of Law at New York's Yeshiva University, the University of Oregon, the University of North Carolina, and Seton Hall University. She has worked as an assistant prosecutor in both the Essex and Morris County (N.J.) prosecutor's offices.

In 2011, Perlman was named an Honorary University Professor of Xi'an Jiaotong University, in Xi'an, China. This rare lifetime appointment entitles Perlman to privileges at the university, with which UNL has many institutional ties. Perlman also will occasionally lecture and teach at Xi'an Jiaotong University. The title is the highest honor the university awards to a foreign scholar, and recognizes Perlman as an accomplished scholar or professional of important international reputation. The award also recognizes Perlman for his significant efforts in globalizing UNL and Xi'an Jiaotong University through joint research and partnership degree programs.

His area of legal expertise lies in torts and intellectual property. He is a member of the Nebraska State and American Bar Associations and is a Life Fellow of the American Bar Association. Perlman is co-author of "Intellectual Property and Unfair Competition" (5th edition, 1998) and co-reporter for the American Law Institute's "Restatement of Unfair Competition" (1994). He serves on the Council of the American Law Institute, a leading national law reform organization and as one of Nebraska's Commissioners of Uniform State Laws. He previously served as a member of the NCAA Board of Directors and is past chair of the Bowl Championship Series Presidential Oversight Committee. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce and is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Nebraska Innovation Campus Development Corporation. He received the George Turner Award from the Nebraska State Bar Association for contributions to the legal profession and the Roger T. Larson Community Builder Award from the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce.

Perlman and his wife, Susan, an NU alumna, are the parents of two daughters. Anne, who earned degrees from UNL and the University of Nebraska Medical Center, practices medicine in Lincoln and is married to UNL alumnus David Spinar; they have three children; Will, Ava, and Marco, Husker fans all. Daughter Amie, who received bachelors and juris doctorate degrees from UNL, is a Nebraska assistant attorney general and is married to UNL alumnus Ron Larson; they are the parents of Caleb and Finn.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA BOARD OF REGENTS

James B. Milliken, J.D. President, University of Nebraska

The Board of Regents consists of eight voting members elected by district for six-year terms, and four non-voting student Regents, one from each campus, who serve during their tenure as student body president. The board supervises the general operations of the university, and the control and direction of all expenditures. The board also includes a corporation secretary who manages all records including agendas, minutes, notices, policies and bylaws. Those documents can be found on the web at nebraska.edu/board/.

The board meets regularly, primarily in Lincoln but also in Omaha and greater Nebraska. Persons wishing to provide information to the board or to appear before it should contact: Corporation Secretary, University of Nebraska, Varner Hall, 3835 Holdrege, Lincoln, NE 68583.

Shawn Eichorst was named the 14th Director of Athletics of the University of Nebraska by Chancellor Harvey Perlman on October 4, 2012. Eichorst leads a tradition-rich athletic program of 24 varsity athletic teams, 600-plus student-athletes and more than 275 full-time employees. Eichorst succeeded legendary Nebraska football coach and Athletic Director Tom Osborne and officially assumed his duties on January 3rd, 2013.

"I am honored to have the opportunity to join the University of Nebraska family," Eichorst said. "Nebraska is an outstanding academic institution with one of the strongest athletic departments in all of college sports," Eichorst said. "Most importantly, everyone here is committed to keeping the welfare of our student-athletes at the heart of everything we do. I am humbled by the responsibility and opportunities that lie ahead and will work diligently to carry on the rich tradition of Husker excellence set forth by Coach Osborne and so many others."

Nebraska Chancellor Harvey Perlman said it was Eichorst's commitment to putting studentabletes first that made Eichorst stand out.

"When I asked him how I would be able to measure his success if he were here five years from now," Perlman said, "his response was that if the coaches and student-athletes had been successful and nobody knows his name, it would be a success."

Although his preference is to serve and lead diligently from the background, Eichorst has already canvassed the state promoting Husker Athletics and Nebraska's tremendously talented student-athletes making more than 70 appearances across Nebraska and visiting eight other states in just his first seven months. Eichorst emphasizes academics first and is proud to acknowledge Nebraska's nation-leading 307 Academic All-Americans, including eight who earned the honor in 2012-13. In fact, he has invited all of the academic honor winners back to campus for a reunion in November. He has met with each college dean on campus and uses his monthly radio show and his Connecting on Campus column to promote campus, coach and student-athlete academic and community successes. More than 200 Husker student-athletes were honored at the academic recognition banquet this spring while 138 were named Academic All-Big Ten in 2012-13.

During Eichorst's first semester at Nebraska in the spring of 2013, women's bowling, coached by legend Bill Straub, won a national title and Rhonda Revelle's softball team advanced to the College Softball World Series.

The women's basketball team, coached by Connie Yori, completed a run to the Sweet 16 for the second time in program history and the women's tennis team, coached by Scott Jacobson, made an appearance in the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history and earned a share of the Big Ten title. Tennis player Mary Weatherholt finished runner-up at the NCAA Individual Championship, the highest-ever finish for a Nebraska tennis player.

In addition to women's tennis, two other Nebraska teams added Big Ten titles in the spring of 2013, as the women's gymnastics team, coached by Dan Kendig, won its second-straight Big Ten title and third-straight conference title overall. The men's track and field team, coached by Gary Pepin, claimed the outdoor team title.

This fall, three facility projects will be completed: Memorial Stadium, which expands to accommodate more than 90,000 football fans and will include the Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory (NAPL) and the Center for Brian, Biology and Behavior (CB3) research facilities; Pinnacle Bank Arena in downtown Lincoln, where the Husker men's and women's basketball teams will be permanent tenants; and the renovated Bob Devaney Sports Center, where volleyball, men's and women's gymnastics and the wrestling team will now compete. Construction for each of these three facilities began with Coach Osborne at the helm. Athletic Director Emeritus Osborne continues to provide Eichorst with counsel on a number of items including the East Stadium research initiatives. The collaborative research that will take place within an athletic facility shared by academics and athletics is believed to be the first of its kind and sets the tone for the leadership role Nebraska has taken in the Big Ten Conference and nationally.

Eichorst came to Nebraska after spending 18 months as the Director of Athletics at the University of Miami. He was named the 12th Director of Athletics at Miami on April 12, 2011 and served until October 4, 2012 when he was hired by Nebraska as a Special Assistant to Chancellor Perlman.

In his first year as Director of Athletics at Miami, Eichorst helped grow the academic reputation as well as the fan base. Under his watchful eye, the Hurricane Club grew by more than 500 members, surpassing 5,000 members nationwide. More than $19 million in student-athlete support was generated in 2011-12 and an additional $14.2 million in capital gifts was raised toward the new Center for Athletic Excellence facility, scheduled for completion in the fall of 2013.

During his tenure, both the Hurricane men's and women's basketball programs advanced to the postseason, with the women posting the highest national ranking in school history at No. 5, advancing to the NCAA Second Round. The women's tennis team advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals for the fourth straight season and the baseball program extended its NCAA postseason appearances streak to 40 consecutive seasons. The women's soccer team posted the first NCAA postseason win in program history, while the volleyball team advanced to the NCAA postseason for the third straight year and finished the season ranked 15th in the nation.

Before his appointment at Miami, Eichorst served from 2009 to 2011 as the Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Wisconsin, where his responsibilities under Director of Athletics Barry Alvarez included serving as the department's Chief Operating Officer and overseeing the day-to-day operations of the highly successful athletics program. At Wisconsin, Eichorst was involved in the design and planning of a new ice hockey and swimming facility completed in the fall of 2012, as well as with the Student-Athlete Performance Center in the north end zone of Camp Randall Stadium. He joined the Badgers' staff in 2006 as a Senior Associate Athletics Director and was promoted to Executive Associate Athletics Director in 2007.

Eichorst has experience with three BCS conference institutions previously serving as University of South Carolina's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Administration from 2004 to 2006. With the Gamecocks, Eichorst oversaw daily operations of the department and supervised the football and baseball programs. The football team was bowl-eligible each year during Eichorst's tenure, and the baseball program competed in the 2004 College World Series. Additionally, he coordinated and supervised multi-million dollar facility projects, including a state-of-the-art football training facility.

Eichorstserved as the Director of Athletics at his alma mater, University of Wisconsin-Whitewater until 2003. Under his tenure, UW-Whitewater developed into one of the nation's top Division III athletic programs, with four top 10 percent National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Directors Cupfinishes; one NCAA team championship; two NCAA team runner-upfinishes and five individual national champions. The program also featured 38 Academic All-America selections, seven NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners and 74 All-Americans.

A native of Lone Rock, Wis., Eichorst was an all-conference defensive back, a three-time letterwinner and 1990 team captain for the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater football team. He graduated magna cum laude in business from UW-Whitewater in 1990 and earned a law degree from Marquette University in 1995. He practiced law in Milwaukee before accepting the position at Wisconsin-Whitewater.

He is a past member of the NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Reinstatement Committee and State Bar of Wisconsin Board of Governors. He also previously served as an assistant adjunct professor of law at Marquette University Law School, where he taught classes in sports law. He currently serves on the Marquette University National Sports Law Institute Board of Advisors.

In 2006, he was awarded the Sports Law Alumnus of the Year by Marquette. He also is a graduate of the Sports Management Institute and serves on its Executive Committee. Eichorst and his wife Kristin have three sons: Jack, Joseph and Bennett.

NEBRASKA MEDIA SERVICES

NEBRASKA MEDIA RELATIONS

The Nebraska Media Relations Office is available to assist you with coverage of the Nebraska football program. The Media Relations Office is located on the third floor of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex in the North end of Memorial Stadium.

For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, press conferences, etc., please call the Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263, visit Huskers.com or e-mail Assistant Athletic Director for Media Relations Keith Mann (kmann@huskers.com), Associate Media Relations Director Shamus McKnight (smcknight@huskers.com), Assistant Media Relations Director Matt Smith (msmith@ huskers.com) or Assistant Media Relations Director Jeremy Foote (jfoote@huskers.com). Below are guidelines for covering Nebraska during the season. Additions or changes to these policies can be found at Huskers.com/media.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Nebraska utilizes an on-line credentialing system. Directions regarding the application process will be sent to media members. Out-of-state media can contact Vicki Capazo in the Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263 for assistance.

As a general rule, working space in the Nebraska Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for next day publication; (2) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (3) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (4) press and TV working photographers; (5) official school student daily newspaper, one seat and/or sideline only; (6) approved special coverage as space allows. Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials, except by approval of MRD.

MEDIA ACCESS

Memorial Stadium access for the media is at the Media Gate entrance on street level on the west side of the stadium. The working press area is on Level 6 (Don Bryant Media Facility) with the photo and television deck on Level 7. Level 3 (West Stadium Club) and Levels 4 and 5 (Skybox Suites) of the West Stadium and Level 7 of the North and East Stadium Suites are not open to the media or public.

Single-game media credentials can be picked up at Gate 10 on game days, beginning five hours prior to kickoff and must show a photo I.D. All credential holders must receive a wristband at Gate 10 to accompany their credential in order to be admitted into Memorial Stadium.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking at Memorial Stadium is always at a premium, with a limited number of spaces allocated to the media. Media parking is divided among several lots around Memorial Stadium. Early arrival is strongly suggested. No cars will be admitted to the primary media lot directly south of the stadium later than 90 minutes before kickoff.

Each media outlet will receive one complimentary parking pass. Media outlets will be charged for additional parking passes ($15/each). See page 206 for specific directions to assigned lots.

WEEKLY MONDAY MEDIA LUNCHEON

Each Monday during game weeks, Nebraska hosts a media luncheon. Press luncheons will be held on Level 6 of the press facility. A light lunch buffet is served at 11 a.m., followed by Coach Bo Pelini's weekly news conference at 11:30 a.m.

Requested Husker players will also be available pending class schedules. Generally, player interviews will be held after Coach Pelini's press conference until 1 p.m.; however some players may be made available before 11:30 a.m., depending on class schedules.

Media requesting Nebraska players for the press conference should do so by 2 p.m. Sunday to the Media Relations Office. Transcripts of Pelini's press conference comments will be available on Huskers.com.

Out-of-town media wishing to listen to the weekly news conference may do so via telephone. The dial-in number and weekly passcode may be obtained by contacting the Nebraska Media Relations Office (402) 472-2263 no later than 10 a.m. Monday morning. Lines are limited.

Media planning any live coverage of the press conference (television, radio, internet) must first request permission from the Media Relations Office.

INTERVIEW POLICY

During the season. Coach Bo Pelini is available in person for media interviews at the Monday news conference and on the field after practice on Thursday. Coach Pelini is also available each Tuesday on the Big Ten teleconference (11:20 a.m.). Please contact the Big Ten office at (847) 696-1010 for details. Any other interviews with Pelini must be arranged through the Media Relations Office at least one day in advance.

Nebraska players are available for interviews in person or by telephone after practice on Monday and Tuesday, Players who appear at the Monday press conference will NOT be available following Monday practice. Player interviews can occasionally be set up for other times before practice with at least one day advance notice to the Media Relations Office. All requests for player and coach interviews must go through the Media Relations Office.

Interviews with assistant coaches can be conducted following practice on designated days, or arranged in advance through the Media Relations Office.

No interviews are to be conducted in the locker room. training room, weight room or Nebraska Student Life Complex. Freshmen and redshirt freshmen are not available for interviews until they have participated in a game.

DAILY PRACTICES

During the season, practices are normally conducted either in Memorial Stadium, in the Hawks Championship Center, or on the Ed and Joyanne Gass Practice Fields northeast of the stadium, beginning at approximately 3:30 p.m. All practices are closed to the media and public. Media wishing to interview Nebraska players or coaches after practice should come to the designated location based on the practice site shortly before the end of practice. Media relations staff will escort media to the practice field at the conclusion of practice. Please contact the Media Relations Office to verify practice times.

Photographers and videographers are allowed to shoot the opening portion of practice on designated days. Media are asked to remain on the sideline or behind the fence at Memorial Stadium during this time. When on the Gass practice fields, media may not stand between the two practice fields during this time. No interviews are to be conducted during this time period and these segments may not be aired or streamed live on television or the internet. Live practice reports of any kind are not permitted from the practice site (social media, radio, blogs, etc.). Media will be asked to leave the practice site to use their cell phones or Contact the Media Relations Office for the exact time and location of each day's practice.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Nebraska's locker room is closed after games, both home and away, but Coach Bo Pelini and requested players and assistant coaches will be available for interviews following a brief cooling-off period. For home games, only coaches, players and staff members will be admitted to the tunnel and locker room after the game, but Coach Pelini and requested personnel will be brought to the interview room (Ndamukong Suh Strength Complex). Admittance to the interview area will be by media credential only. Media should access the area via the door on the northeast corner of the Osborne Athletic Complex. For away games, the best available interview area will be used. Requests for player and assistant coach interviews, home and away, will be taken by Keith Mann at the end of the third quarter. Non-requested players making significant plays in the fourth quarter will be added as needed.

Nebraska players and coaches will not do interviews on the field after the game.

The visiting locker room at Memorial Stadium is located underneath the South Stadium. The visiting team interview area is just off the main tunnel leading to the visitor's locker room.

Media planning to carry the press conference live should request permission from the Nebraska Media Relations Office before doing so. If media are planning to do live interviews on the field after the game, they should make advance arrangements with the Media Relations Office, as well as contact Scott Guthrie in HuskerVision (402-472-4645).

SIDELINE POLICIES

The Big Ten Conference maintains a strict sideline control policy in an effort to keep the playing area as safe as possible. All sideline photographers must have a photo vest and a photo pass, and both must be clearly visible. Vests will be issued beginning three hours before game time. Vests will be issued to media members with a photo pass who will be shooting still photos or video during the game. Media without a photo vest may access the sideline during pre-game and in the final five minutes of the game. Special exceptions to this also include interviews with special guests on the field at halftime, quarter breaks, etc. All other media should work from their assigned location on Level 6 or Level 7.

Those individuals receiving a photo vest will be asked to sign a waiver concerning the usage of photos at the time they check out the vests. Vests may be returned to one of four locations following the game: Nebraska post-game interview room, opponent post-game interview room, press box, photographers work area.

The Big Ten sideline control policy: (1) Only those photographers on assignment from a newspaper, magazine, television station or a participating institution, are given credentials. Each student publication may be limited to one press and/or one sideline photo pass. (2) Only those newspapers with Sunday and/or daily editions are eligible for sideline passes. (Special requests must be submitted to the Media Relations Director for review). (3) Cutline writers. equipment carriers, and/or other so-called "assistants" will not be allowed on the sideline. (4) Photographers must display their credentials (photo pass and vest) at all times. (5) University personnel are to be deployed on the sideline to ensure that all credentials are properly displayed. Those possessing bench passes (45) must remain inside the team bench area (between the 25-yard lines). (6) Photographers may not enter the bench area at any time. (7) Photographers are not permitted to congregate in the writers' section of the media facility during halftime, during or after the game.

A photographers work area is available on field level, just off the northeast corner of the playing field.

FACILITY USE RESTRICTIONS

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has an interest in protecting its facilities, property and reputation associated with its intercollegiate sports. Therefore, no person shall be permitted to access or use the arenas, facilities and other University of Nebraska intercollegiate athletic venues without first securing the permission of the Athletic Director or his/her designee. The only exception is an individual who records an image (e.g. photograph, videotape) for his/her non-commercial personal use. In no case shall any person be permitted to use these venues for the purposes of promoting the sale or manufacture of alcohol or tobacco or the promotion of any venture associated directly or indirectly with legal or illegal gaming or gambling.

TELEVISION, RADIO, INTERNET BROADCAST RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS

Nebraska, its opponent and the respective conference designate the broadcast rights for all games. No pregame coverage shall be permitted for two hours before the game without the express permission of the University of Nebraska, the Big Ten Conference and the broadcast rights holder. Live postgame interviews may not be aired while the television rights holder is still on the air.

Per the Big Ten Conference, a maximum of two minutes (2:00) of game video footage (without audio) may be utilized during the seven days following the conclusion of the game solely within regularly scheduled bona fide news programming distributed via television, and may not be distributed via the internet, wireless or other forms of media.

Any secondary use of any picture, photograph, audio description, video, film/tape, drawing or other description of a game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including, but not limited to use in delayed editorial or non-editorial advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the Big Ten Conference. Nothing in these terms and conditions authorizes or allows bearer to violate any of the trademarks, copyright and other proprietary rights of the Big Ten Conference.

This restriction also includes highlights of games while in progress (live or recorded). Use of video highlights in any other manner or any media distribution platform without the advanced written permission of the Big Ten Conference is expressly prohibited. Any agency wishing to use film or video in any other manner must obtain written permission from the Big Ten Conference.

Local television stations may not originate a pre- or postgame show from inside Memorial Stadium. Any blogs, tweets, live chats, social media posts, etc. from the game site should not serve as a substitute for, or approximate, play-by-play accounts of a game in any medium.

Non-originating radio stations or internet sites may not provide play-by-play coverage, live or delayed, but may provide short news updates provided such news update is one minute or less occurring no more than once per hour. No pregame coverage from the stadium shall be permitted for two hours before the game without the express permission of the University of Nebraska and the broadcast rights holder.

INTERNET/TELEPHONE

Media will have use of the Internet in the Memorial Stadium press box. A limited number of Ethernet ports are available in the press seating area and the photographer's area. Contact the Media Relations Office before the start of the season for information regarding cost of Ethernet ports at a specific seat. The Memorial Stadium press box is equipped with wireless internet. Media members who plan to use wireless internet should contact the Nebraska Media Relations Office in advance of the game for instructions.

Media members using wireless frequencies at Memorial Stadium will be asked to register that equipment in advance. Media will be prompted to complete a frequency coordination form when they fill out their on-line credential application. (Note: This does not apply to those registering for wireless internet access). Nebraska provides telephones for media use in the Memorial Stadium media facility. Any media sources that want to install a telephone in the media facility should contact Nebraska Telecommunications (402) 472-2000 at least two weeks before the game.

Information such as statistics, postgame quotes, playby-play, etc., will be available online at Huskers.com. If arrangements are made in advance, postgame notes, quotes and game statistics may be e-mailed. Please contact the Nebraska Media Relations Office during game week or before the start of the game to request e-mail service.

THE HUSKER SPORTS NETWORK

The Husker Sports Network will continue the strong tradition of broadcasting excellence in 2013, as it brings Husker football to fans across the nation. All football games this season will be broadcast by the Husker Sports Network, which covers 30 of the 34 statewide radio markets. including Yankton, S.D., Sioux City, Iowa, Atlantic, Iowa and

In the state of Nebraska, KFAB (1110 AM) serves as the Omaha affiliate and KLIN (1400 AM) serves as the Lincoln affiliate, while KRVN (880 AM) is a third affiliate that reaches around the state. The national coverage area is broad and includes Las Vegas, Seattle, Rapid City and Sioux Falls, S.D. All games will also be heard live on Huskers.com and SiriusXM Satellite Radio around the nation in 2013.

The Husker Sports Network, in its 19th year of producing and marketing the live broadcast of University of Nebraska Athletics, extended and expanded its agreement with the University on June 13, 2008, Under the agreement, IMG College's Husker Sports Marketing manages and markets all rights associated with the radio programming, Coaches' TV and radio shows, program sales, sponsorship inventory and publication printing rights.

IMG College, which purchased Host Communications and the Husker Sports Network on Nov. 16, 2007, also recently purchased ISP Sports. IMG College is the leading collegiate multimedia, marketing and licensing/brand management company in America representing more than 200 of the nation's top collegiate properties including the NCAA and its 89 championships, NCAA Football, leading conferences, and many of the most prestigious colleges and universities in the country. Headquartered in Winston Salem, N.C., IMG College employs 700 people in nearly 100 offices throughout the United States with annual sales of nearly $450 million. IMG College is the leader in capturing consumer devotion to college sports through partnership opportunities in multimedia rights, licensing, events and hospitality, marketing, stadium and arena development, stadium seating solutions, ticketing, sales, and consulting. IMG College produces nearly 30,000 hours of radio programming on the largest sports network in the country, manages nearly 5,000 hours of local television programming, is the leading publisher of college sports publications, and is the largest manager of university athletic websites. IMG College is a division of IMG Worldwide, a global sports, fashion and media business. For more information, visit imgworld.com.

Greg Sharpe, Matt Davison, Lane Grindle and Jeff Culhane will bring another exciting season of football to Husker fans across the nation.

Sharpe returns for his sixth full season as the "Voice of the Huskers." He will host the Bo Pelini Pre- and Post-game Shows and the Countdown to Kickoff Show this year. Sharpealso serves as the "Voice of Husker Baseball" and as the host of the Bank of the West Coach Pelini Football Show. as well as the N'Side Nebraska Show.

Davison, a former Husker, joins Sharpe in the booth for his seventh season as a color analyst . A member of the 1997 national championship team, Davison co-hosts the Husker Game Day Pregame Show. He is also a color analyst for Nebraska men's basketball broadcasts and co-host of the Tim Miles TV Show, while also contributing to Sports Nightly.

The third member of the broadcast team is Grindle, who handles the Husker sideline, co-hosts Husker Game Day and handles the Locker Room Show, interviewing coaches and players after the game. Grindle also serves as a play-by-play talent for baseball and co-host for the Tim Miles TV Show.

The fourth member is Culhane, who hosts the Big Red Reaction Show again this year. Culhane also hosts a sports talk show, Sports Nightly each weekday from 6 to 9 p.m. that focuses on Husker athletics year round. He also serves as a play-by-play talent for baseball broadcasts. Sports Nightly features a weekly Coach Pelini and Husker assistant coaches' radio show that can be heard statewide on the network during the season.

All Nebraska games and coaches shows can also be heard on the internet at Huskers.com and on the Huskers App for iOS and Android devices.

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's status as one of the preeminent athletic conferences in the country also endures as an important component of the Big Ten student-athlete experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity, and the Big Ten's "Honoring Legends. Building Leaders." campaign links directly to the Big Ten mission. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its student-athletes not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

James E. Delany Commissioner

PREMIER ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

All Big Ten universities have been granted Tier One Status by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, a distinction awarded to just over 100 universities. Big Ten schools have produced more than 1,450 academic All-Americans, more than any other conference, including 46 in the last academic year. For the 2011 fiscal year, the Big Ten led all conferences with over $8 billion in research expenditures, more than $2 billion more than any other conference.

A HISTORY OF ATHLETIC SUCCESS

During the 2012-13 season, Big Ten institutions claimed seven national championships: Indiana men's soccer; Michigan men's gymnastics; Michigan men's swimming and diving; Minnesota women's ice hockey; Nebraska women's bowling; Ohio State women's rowing; and Penn State wrestling.

Over the last 10 years, the Big Ten is tied for the conference lead with national titles in 14 different NCAA-sponsored championships, including bowling, cross country, fencing, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, track and field, volleyball and wrestling.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING

Almost 1,400 Big Ten student-athletes and coaches have participated in the Olympics, winning at least 460 medals, including nearly 250 gold. Big Ten universities provide over $141 million in direct financial aid to more than 8,200 student-athletes playing on more than 300 teams in 42 different sports.

The Big Ten sponsors 26 official conference sports, 13 for men and 13 for women, including the debut of men's ice hockey as an official conference sport this academic year. In 2014-15, men's and women's lacrosse will be added as the conference's 27th and 28th official sports, giving the Big Ten more official sports than all conferences other than the lvy League.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING

The Big Ten leads all conferences with nearly five million alumni and more than 460,000 students. Big Ten fans are some of the nation's most supportive, with nearly 9.8 million patrons attending conference home contests during the 2012-13 seasons for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball alone.

LEADERS IN INNOVATION

The Big Ten first awarded the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, honoring outstanding senior student-athletes who demonstrate excellence in academics and athletics. The conference will award its 100th Medal of Honor in May 2014.

The Big Ten Advisory Commission was formed in 1972. It enlists former student-athletes to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

The Big Ten became the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

The Big Ten implemented the first collegiate football system of instant replay in 2004, which the NCAA approved for use among all conferences in 2006. In 2012, the Big Ten partnered with the Ivy League to study the effects of head injuries in sports.

In June 2013, Johns Hopkins University was accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport in 2014-15.

EXTENSIVE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

Through the Big Ten's media agreements with CBS Sports, ABC/ESPN, FOX and the Big Ten Network (BTN), nearly 1,000 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally on an annual basis.

In 2006, the Big Ten created BTN, the first national conference-owned television network. With more than 53 million subscribers in the U.S. and Canada – and more outside the Big Ten region than inside – BTN allows fans to see their teams compete regardless of where they live.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

For the last 24 years, through the Big Ten's SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday) program, the conference has partnered with Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performance.

Surrounding the Big Ten Football Championship Game and Big Ten Basketball Tournaments, the conference holds numerous community initiatives, such as the Big Ten Career Expo, SaturDAY of Service, Officiating and Youth Football Clinics and various fund-raising efforts, including the Think Pink promotions benefitting the Pink Ribbon Connection at previous women's basketball tournaments.

BIG TEN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The third Big Ten Football Championship Game will be played on Dec. 7, 2013, at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. The game will be televised to a national audience on FOX with kickoff set for 7 p.m. Central.

The game will match the winners of the Legends and Leaders Divisions, and the winner of the contest will be presented the Stagg Championship Trophy. The winner of the game earns the conference's automatic berth into the Bowl Championship Series.

In 2011, the Big Ten Conference announced that Lucas Oil Stadium will host the first five football championship games through the 2015 season. Wisconsin has won the past two games, beating Michigan State, 42-39, in the inaugural game, before defeating Nebraska, 70-31, in 2012.

While a member of the Big 12 Conference, Nebraska participated in the league title game six times, posting a 2-4 record. Nebraska's six title game appearances were the second-most in the 15-year history of the Big 12 Championship Game. Nebraska captured Big 12 crowns in 1997 and 1999, and was also the North Division representative in the game in 1996, 2006, 2009 and 2010.

Right: Lucas Oil Stadium will host the Big Ten Football Championship Game through the 2015 season. The facility hosted Super Bowl XLVI in February of 2012.

2013 BIG TEN BOWL LINEUP

The Big Ten Conference has one of the nation's best bowl lineups including five games traditionally played on New Year's Day. The Big Ten Conference Champion participates in the Rose Bowl unless they are in the BCS National Championship Game.

The Big Ten sent seven teams to bowl games last season, marking the 14th-straight year that six or more Big Ten programs earned a postseason berth. Dating back to the 1999 season, the conference has sent seven or more teams to bowl games on 11 occasions, including each of the last eight seasons.

COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES FOR FANS

COMMITMENT TO COMPLIANCE

On behalf of the University of Nebraska student-athletes, coaches and Athletics Department staff, I would like to express my appreciation for your continued support of our entire athletics program.

The University of Nebraska is known for its loyal, passionate, and knowledgeable fans. It is this type of fervent support that not only assists Nebraska student-athletes in reaching their full potential on and off the playing field, but also draws the next generation of student-athletes to our campus. However, as a University of Nebraska booster, please remember that you are also required to know and follow NCAA regulations.

Our coaches, student-athletes, and Athletics Department staff members are knowledgeable about NCAA regulations because they receive on-going education. But, to truly attain the excellence the University of Nebraska strives for, we also need our supporters to be educated about these same regulations. In turn, you will be assisting us with protecting the eligibility and well-being of our current and future student-athletes.

Please review the information listed on the right side of this page which includes some of the most important and frequently asked questions about NCAA regulations for boosters. Since this document cannot address everything you may need to know, I encourage you to contact our office with questions that may arise. Our staff can be reached at 402-472-2042 or Compliance@Huskers.com.

Thank you and Go Huskers!

Institutional Control

It is the responsibility of the University of Nebraska to control its intercollegiate athletic program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference.

Responsibility

The University of Nebraska's responsibility for the conduct of its program includes responsibility for the actions of its staff members and for the actions of any other individual, booster or organization engaged in activities promoting the athletic interests of the institution.

Compliance

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS FROM BOOSTERS

THE DEVANEY SOCIETY

Achieving greatness in both the classroom and on the playing field has long been a goal of the University of Nebraska. Our nation-leading 307 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans (as of July 1 2013) and 25 team national titles reflect the manner in which we strive to achieve to the highest level.

Rising costs have made funding these athletic scholarships increasingly difficult. To help offset the expenses, the University of Nebraska established an athletic scholarship endowment fund to honor Hall of Fame Football Coach Bob Devaney.

Follow in the footsteps of Coach Devaney and committo the long-term success of Nebraska

Follow in the footsteps of Coach Devaney and committed the long-term success of Nebraska Athletics. We are sincerely grateful to those who committed to our future stability and established a Devaney Society Scholarship for male and female student-athletes.
