STAT OF THE WEEK

Markques Simas has been on fire the last three games with 25 total receptions; he tied the school record for the most consecutive games with seven or more catches with three. What about the 25 catches in a three-game span? The third most in school history, and he joins some pretty good company. The most catches in a 3-game span in CU history:

27—Charles E. Johnson, 1992 (at Missouri 11-168; vs. Oklahoma 8-182, vs. Kansas State 8-104) Four game best: 30

26—Michael Westbrook, 1992 (vs. Colorado State 7-130, at Baylor 11-186, at Minnesota 8-135) Four game best: 28

25—Markques Simas, 2009 (vs. Texas A&M 7-135, at Iowa State 7-128, at Oklahoma State 11-92) Four game best: 28

Simas is already tied for the fourth most catches over four games with 28, trailing 30 by Johnson (1992) and Derek McCoy (2003) and 29 by D.J. Hackett (2003).

OBSOURE NOTES OF THE WEEK

- PK Aric Goodman has now had the unfortunate luck of hitting seven uprights during career (he even asked if that was some kind of record); well, we don't track that, but he has 91 career kicks at Colorado. Thus seven hitting the upright is at a rate of one of 13 or at a 7.7 percent clip; but six have hit the upright of his 15 missed field goals (40 percent).
- Despite being outgained by some 770 yards on the season, Colorado actually has the same number of 10-plus yard gains (136) and owns the edge in five-plus yards (295-284) over the opponent.
- The Buffs at times have played some terrific defense, especially in their own territory. For example, Oklahoma State's first 23 plays in CU territory netted 53 yards and just 3 points; but the next three plays in the territory all went for touchdowns, covering 45, 47 and 28 yards.

THE BUFFALOES ON THE INTERNET

- Colorado has its information available to both the media and fans alike on the Internet. Visit the official CU site at www.CUBuffs.com for the latest information, releases, game notes, press conference broadcasts (free) and articles by former Rocky Mountain News sportswriter B.G. Brooks. Go to www.cubuffs.com/media and click on Media Center: it will link you to everything you'll need to know about CU football. "BuffsTV" offers the opportunity to listen and/or watch live game action of several CU athletic teams. Breaking news with the program will be found here first every time and delivered in full without others editing out what they might deem unessential.
- Audio. CUBuffs.com is now the official site for subscription service for audio-only broadcasts, as all football and men's and women's basketball games (and Dan Hawkins' weekly radio show) are streamed through BuffsTV on the site. It is still a subscription service, but is quite affordable: $4.99/month or $39.99/annual.

Honor Candidates

There are several Colorado players worthy of consideration for national and conference honors as the season; for those of you who have votes in such, please consider the below players!

✓ TE RIAR GEER All-American Candidate; All-Big 12 Candidate JOHN MACKEY AWARD CANDIDATE
 He was one of 22 players on the official midseason watch list for the John Mackey Award but did not advance. CU's third leading receiver (36 for 402, 4 TDs), he has been among the leaders nationally for tight ends all season. He is first in the Big 12 and eighth in the nation for receptions per game by a tight end (3.2), and is first in the league for tight ends and 21st overall in yards per game (36.5; nationally he is outside the top 100, which only had four tight ends). He has caught three or more passes in seven games (at least one in the first nine before being shut out at Iowa State).

✓ OT NATE SOLDER All-American (second/third-team) & All-Big 12 Candidate
 He is having the best year of all the CU linemen, grading out to 89.6 percent for the season (80 percent or higher in all 11 games, five games over 90). Solder has team bests of 93 knockdown/finish blocks (high of 14 versus Kansas) and seven touchdown blocks while allowing just four quarterback sacks and four pressures.

✓ TB RODNEY STEWART All-Big 12 Candidate
 One of the top backs in the Big 12, he's fifth in the conference and 66th nationally in rushing (69.4 yards per game); he missed the Toledo game due to an injury or his numbers would likely be better. He has 694 yards and 9 touchdowns on the season (he's fourth in the league in rushing TDs), with four 100-yard games which has upped his career total to 7. A good amount of his yards (322) have come post-contact, and he has 21 runs of 10 yards or more and 65 of five-plus.

✓ CB CHA'PELLE BROWN All-Big 12 Candidate
 A natural corner, he's played the nickel position much of the season as CU normally goes with five in the secondary. Has played every snap on defense (750) this season and is CU's second leading tackler (85, 62 solo); he's also tied for second in sacks (3) and in third down stops (9) and leads the team in tackles for zero (9). He knocked away the pass in the end zone as time expired to preserve CU's 34-30 win over Kansas.

✓ WR SCOTTY MCKNIGHT All-Big 12 Candidate
 He will lead Colorado in receiving for a third straight year, with 69 receptions for 779 yards (11.3 per) and four touchdowns (and a fifth on a fumble recovery). He has earned 42 first downs, 18 coming on third/fourth down plays, with 35 catches for 10 or more yards (10 20-plus). He has caught a pass in a CU record 35 consecutive games and three of his four career 100-yard games have come this season.

✓ CB JIMMY SMITH All-Big 12 Candidate
 One of the best cover corners in the conference, he's allowed just six completions in man coverage. Third on the team in tackles (65, 49 solo), he has a 10 passes broken up, six third down stops, a fumble recovery, two interceptions and a TD save in playing all but two snaps from scrimmage (748).

✓ CB JALIL BROWN All-Big 12 Candidate
 CU's defensive back of the week following the Kansas game, he's played 645 snaps in racking up 63 tackles on the year (41 solo with a career-high 15 against Texas A&M). He's tied for the team high in interceptions (2) and fumble recoveries (2), while leading in touchdowns saves (8) and passes broken up (14). He broke up the first KU pass into the end zone with: 03 left in the game, leaving the Jayhawks one final play.

✓ SS BENJAMIN BURNEY All-Big 12 Candidate
 He moved from cornerback to safety early in the season and made a very smooth adjustment. He is on the field over 80 percent of the time (650 snaps) with CU usually in a nickel package, and he has 62 tackles, five third down stops, two forced fumbles, three pass deflections, two interceptions and five touchdown saves to his credit. He returned one of his picks 78 yards for a touchdown against Missouri and had a career-high 10 tackles, with two TD saves, versus Texas A&M.

✓ ILB JEFF SMART All-Big 12 Candidate
 CU's leading tackler with 87 (61 solo), and has been as active as can be by his "garnish" stats: five for losses (two sacks), seven third down stops, five tackles for zero, an interception, three passes broken up, a forced fumble, two recoveries, three near-sacks, a pressure and a touchdown save. He has posted double-digit tackles on four occasions, with a high of 13 at Toledo followed by 11 at Texas and Kansas State (all 11 solo in the latter).

✓ DE MARQUEZ HERROD All-Big 12 Candidate
 He is enjoying his breakout season. CU's leader in quarterback sacks (6, sixth in the Big 12), he has 32 tackles overall with nine for losses. He also has team-bests of nine quarterback hurries and 10 third down stops to his credit in 499 snaps from scrimmage.

✓ DT WILL PERICAK Freshman All-American / Freshman All-Big 12 Candidate
(Fr.-RS) He has started all 11 games at nose tackle, seeing action for 511 snaps from scrimmage, the most snaps by any freshman on the team. He has recorded 30 tackles (21 solo), with six third down stops, five for losses (two quarterback sacks) and two fumble recoveries; he had a career-high 8 tackles at Iowa State.

CU ON TRACK TO START FEWEST UPPERCLASSMEN IN RECENT MEMORY

Thus far, upperclassmen (juniors and seniors) have started just 55.7 percent of CU's 11 games; the lowest figure in the last 26 years is 58.3 percent in 2003, as precise information is available back to 1999 and rough data eye-balled back to 1984. Of the 242 starts through 11 games, 52 have been by seniors, 83 by juniors, 81 by sophomores and 26 by freshmen (22 redshirt/4 true).

TWO FORMER BUFFS PASS AWAY

This month, the CU family lost a pair of loyal football lettermen, as Ray Cone ('82) and Nick Counter ('59) passed away.

Cone died at the age of 48 on November 7 near his home in Altamonte Springs, Fla., where the family had moved two years ago from Colorado; he is survived by his wife, Trish, and five children, Daniel, Andrew, Patrick, Caroline and Stephen.

A memorial service for Ray is set this Wednesday, November 25, with one of the featured speakers to be former head coach Bill McCartney, who took over the CU program Ray's senior year. It will take place at the Cherry Hills Community Church, 3900 East Grace Boulevard in Highlands Ranch, starting at 9:30 a.m.; the service is expected to last 90 minutes.

He lettered three times for the Buffaloes, leading the team in tackles as a senior with 183—a single-season record that still stands. That number, which included 102 solo, led the Big 8 Conference and was one of the top figures in the nation (the NCAA didn't track tackles back then). He originally was a linebacker, moved to offensive guard where he first lettered, and then returned to his preferred position for his senior year. He recorded double digit tackles in all but one game in 1982, including 20 or more on three occasions. He was CU's Most Valuable Player and Outstanding Defensive Player for that season.

A local service was held in Florida on November 11; his lettermen's jacket was on display and the casket was emblazed with Buffalo decals.

In lieu of flowers, a memorial fund has been set up for the Cone children at New Traditions Bank (145 South Orlando Avenue, Suite 1, Maitland, FL 32751). Checks should be made payable to Cone Family Fund.

His wife penned the following E-mail she wanted to share:

“Our family has been through such an unimaginable, often surreal, time these last ten days. We are still in shock and disbelief, but we have been lifted up in prayer by so many of you, and God has and is sustaining us daily. The kids and I returned to school, and the tasks of the day made it more bearable, at times. We were able to get up to the beach for a night, a week after Ray's death, which was mostly peaceful, but every tick of the clock meant more reflection. We have actually had to celebrate two of our sons' birthdays during this time, Patrick's 17th and Stephen's 10th. Although the time in Orlando has been relatively short, a little over two years, we are surrounded by loving and supportive families who have come to our side throughout this time.

“Now, we are planning to reunite with you all in Denver. Anyone who would like to attend the service is welcome. It will be beautiful. We are expecting a large crowd, and so the time to see each of you would be limited. Therefore, we are also planning an open house on Tuesday night (Nov. 24), at the home of Ray’s childhood friend, Mark Tomko. We hope you can come then. Please let any of our neighbors, friends, and church family know about this gathering. The outpouring of cards and emails has been amazing, because Ray was amazing, and he has left some amazing children who now need you all more than ever. Thank you for your love – Trish.”

Ray's sister, Berni, put together the following website: <http://www.rayconememorial.com>.

Counter was 69; he passed on November 6 after a long illness and brief hospitalization. He scored one of the first important two-point conversions in CU history, rallying CU to a 21-20 win over Missouri in 1959, a year after it made it was into the rule book. A fullback, he came to CU from Denver East and lettered as a senior in football.

He was a very controversial figure in Hollywood, Nick Counter served as President of the Alliance of Motion Picture & Television Producers (AMPTP) for 27 years, from its formation in 1982 until his retirement in March of this year. Prior to being named AMPTP President, he served as outside legal counsel for the antecedent Association of Motion Picture & Television Producers for 10 years. As AMPTP President, Counter's primary responsibility was to lead the 80 industry-wide labor negotiations with entertainment industry guilds and unions on behalf of the studios, the broadcast networks, and certain cable networks. In his 27 years as AMPTP President, Counter negotiated more than 300 major guild and union agreements. Warner Bros. chief Barry Meyer, considered the lead mogul behind the AMPTP, called Counter, "a brilliant negotiator who guided this industry through historic change and never lost his desire to be fair to all involved. We will miss him very much."

His recently named successor and longtime No. 2, AMPTP President Carol Lombardini, had this to say: "Nick's passing is a profound loss for the entire entertainment community. We will all remember Nick for his passionate leadership, which was always guided by a resolute sense of fair play and an earnest desire that everyone come out a winner. Nick had a particular proficiency for developing consensus among diverse points of view and he used this skill to great advantage in negotiating hundreds of collective bargaining agreements that led to a sustained era of labor peace. Those of us who worked directly with him have lost a valued colleague and a dear personal friend. Our hearts go out to his family." The MPAA pointed out: "He always treated people with dignity and respect in the tough circumstances of these negotiations. He knew that you could be thoughtful and kind even when the issues were difficult, and for that he was respected."

SENIOR GOODBYES

As the season comes to a conclusion, 18 Buffalo seniors will be taking the field for the final time behind Ralphie at Folsom Field Friday. Fourteen are fifth-year seniors, including eight who were members of the 2005 recruiting class, along with five walk-ons and a four-year college transfer. Two were in the 2006 recruiting class who played as true freshman, with one a 2008 junior college transfer and one walk-on (Bisnow) who will graduate in four years who recently decided to not return for a fifth year of football. SURPRISE, SURPRISE

Colorado is among the national leaders in forcing "three-and-outs," when the opponent is held to three plays then punting (or less if forcing a turnover or if stopped on fourth down without earning a first). The Buffs have forced 50 through 11 games, 12th best in the nation. A closer look at the national numbers as compiled by Ohio State sports information:

CABRAL CELEBRATES 300TH GAME AS A BUFFALO

Associate head coach and long-time linebacker coach Brian Cabral celebrated his 300th game as Colorado Buffalo in CU's thrilling 35-34 win over Texas A&M. He wore his famous trademark lava lava wrap in CU colors for the game (he said the Buffs are now 4-1 when he dons the garb). A former inside linebacker for the Buffs, he originally was a middle guard until suffering an elbow injury midway through his freshman year ('74) before switching to linebacker in a career that spanned 46 games from 1974-77. He has coached in 253 since joining the coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1989. He had a 9-year career in the National Football League (1978-86) and then worked two years as GA for Purdue before making his way back to Boulder. Cabral finished his CU career as the Buffs' all-time leading tackler with 297; he is still tied for 16th on the all-time list. He has coached eight of the players who have passed him on the list: Matt Russell, Greg Biekert, Jordon Dizon, Ted Johnson, Chad Brown, Michael Jones, Thaddaeus Washington and Jashon Sykes, with a ninth, senior Jeff Smart, needing 13 more to do the same.

KICKIN' IT ... WELL, RETURNIN' IT

How good has CU's kickoff return unit been in 2009? Aside from averaging 24.3 yards per return (which includes four short kicks to the up-backs), through 11 games the Buffs are averaging their own 31 after opponent kickoffs. The unit has been so potent that it wasn't until the 26th kickoff of the year that the Buffs started a drive inside-their-own 25 (the 21, at Texas). After 65 opponent kickoffs, CU's been pinned inside-the-25 just 18 times and inside-the-20 only 10 times. By contrast, CU has kicked off 48 times, with the enemy starting 32 times inside their 25, including 10 times inside-the-20, and just six times at the 30 or better.

➔ Colorado has started 46 drives at or inside its own 20, but has managed to score just twice (field goal against Texas A&M and a touchdown at Iowa State) on those possessions; opponents have started 48 in the same situation, but have worked to 11 scores (10 touchdowns, two field goals, or 76 points).

HANSEN QUICKLY MOVING UP CHARTS

Just four starts into his sophomore season (and with only two as a frosh), QB Tyler Hansen is already 16th in school history in true rushing yards by a quarterback. When adjusting for sack yardage to be thrown out of the equation, he has 102 true rushes for 619 yards, a healthy 6.1 average per rush. That last figure at present is topped by just one previous quarterback: Kordell Stewart averaged 7.04 yards per true rushing attempt between 1991-94. It's obviously early in Tyler's career, but it will be interesting to watch.

FIRST DOWN STRUGGLES

Colorado is currently averaging 4.34 yards on first down, which stands to be its lowest figure since 1979, when it averaged 3.5 per first down play. CU has averaged five or more yards a pop on first down just three times, though doing so the last two times out (5.4 in the season opener against CSU, 5.0 against Texas A&M and 6.4 at Iowa State), and has been held under four yards five times. The Buffs are gaining right around the same on every down: 4.3 on second, 4.1 on third and 5.7 on fourth (just 24 plays). The last time that CU averaged its least yards on first down happened in 1992, when CU earned 4.4 yards on first down, followed by 6.2 (second), 6.4 (third) and 8.8 (fourth). The Buffs were 9-1-1 that regular season.

McKNIGHT KEEPS MAKING HISTORY AND MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Junior Scotty McKnight has caught a pass in every game he has played in as a Colorado Buffalo—35 regular season plus the one bowl game for a total of 36. He shattered the previous school record for the most consecutive games with at least one reception, 27, set by Charles E. Johnson between 1991 and 1993 (CU records do not include bowl games; if it did, McKnight also topped Johnson's 29 straight).

Nationally, McKnight is tied for the ninth longest streak nationally; here's the list going through games of November 21 as compiled by the Central Michigan SID office (these include postseason): Bryan Anderson, Central Michigan 51; Naaman Roosevelt, Buffalo 48; Duke Calhoun, Memphis 48; Dennis Pitta, BYU 41; Brandon LaFell, LSU 39; Antonio Brown, Central Michigan 38; Toren Dixon, Rice 37; Scotty McKnight, Colorado 36; Jeff Moturi, UTEP 35; Jason Harmon, FAU 35; Eric Decker, Minnesota 34; Kerry Meier, Kansas 34; Darrell McNeal, Louisiana-Monroe 33; Austin Pettis, Boise State 32.

He has cracked the top 10 at Colorado in both all-time receptions and all-time receiving yards, zooming up both charts; he's now second in catches and seventh in receiving yards. He also is at or near the top in three categories for players at CU entering their senior seasons. A closer look:

THIRD DOWN DEFENSE

Colorado continues to stifle the opponent on third down, as the enemy is converting at just 34.4 percent on the year (55-of-160); within those numbers are 23-of-79 (29.1%) at Folsom Field; 3-of-22 (13.6%) on third downs inside the Buff 20; and 13-of-28 on 3rd-&-2 or less and 27-of-57 on 3rd-&-4 or less, distances teams usually click around 60 percent or better, certainly not less than 50 percent. There is still a feast or famine factor, as opponents have gained 885 yards on its' 55 makes (16.1 per), but have gained just a net 18 on the 105 misses (0.2). Colorado is 22nd in the nation in third down defense; ahead of the Buffs include five of the six remaining undefeated teams.

FOUR OUT OF FIVE PLAYS WE'RE THE '85 BEARS

After 11 games it is what it is as the saying goes, but one of the most all-time perplexing stats to ever come across these pages shows that the Buff defense is likely to shut you down four times in five. Much like four out of five dentists recommend... well, maybe not. But take for example the Missouri game: the Tigers gained 341 yards on 19 plays, and had 59 yards on the other 56. That's been the case practically every game in 2009: on the season, the opponent has picked up 2,930 of its 4,139 yards on 136 plays, averaging 21.5 yards for those plays; the other 615 plays have netted 1,209, or 1.97 per try; it all means 18 percent of opponent plays have gained 71 percent of the yardage.

➔ Colorado has been fairly stout in goal-to-go defense; the opponent has been in 21 G-T-G's and has scored just 12 touchdowns (16 scores overall) on 48 plays (or scoring a TD once every four plays).

➔ Opponents have started 29 drives in CU territory, but have just eight touchdowns (and 18 scores overall) to show for it.

GEER MARCHING UP ON SAME LISTS FOR TIGHT ENDS

Senior Riar Geer is climbing the same charts as Scotty McKnight, but is doing so on two counts. Now 16th all-time in receptions (87) and 22nd in receiving yards (974), those same numbers rank him fourth and fifth, respectively, in both all-time among CU tight ends. Not bad for a guy who play the position until he got to college; he was recruited by former CU head coach Gary Barnett, who pegged him as a tight end all along. Fast-forward five years, and here Geer sits as one of 22 midseason candidates for the John Mackey Award. He had caught a pass in 10 straight games until being shut out at Iowa State. Where he ranks among his CU tight end brethren:

FIRST & THIRD REVERSAL

In 2008, CU was outscored by the opponent 188-104 in the first and third quarters, while also being outgained by 728 yards in those periods. Fast-forward to 2009, and the Buffs have been outscored by 147-111 and have been outgained by just 227 yards.

REDEMPTION

PK Aric Goodman, who set the dubious school record of eight straight field goal misses last season, initially opened up 2009 with a vengeance. His 48 kickoffs (not counting four onside tries), have seen 30 reach the end zone and the average opponent starting yardline be the 25, despite 34 being returned; 32 times the opponent has had to start inside their own 25. He scored CU's first points of the year when he nailed a career-best 54-yard field goal against Colorado State; he's 10-of-16 on field goal kicks so far this year and became the 42nd player in school history to score 100 points with his PAT kick at Iowa State. Goodman's 54-yard kick is still tied for the seventh longest in the NCAA (second longest in the Big 12) this season; the 57 field goals of 50-yards or longer in Division I-A/FBS through November 14:

59 Carson Wiggs, Purdue vs. Toledo, 9/05	55 Trevor Cook, Miami-Ohio vs. Toledo, 10/31	52 on 11 occasions
57 Philip Welch, Wisconsin vs. Fresno State, 9/12	54 Aric Goodman, CU vs. Colorado St., 9/06	51 on 10 occasions
57 Jacob Branstetter, Kansas vs. Oklahoma, 10/24	54 Nate Whitaker, Stanford at Wake Forest, 9/12	50 on 22 occasions
56 Caleb Sturgis, Florida vs. Georgia, 10/31	54 Trey Farquhar, Idaho vs. Nevada, 10/24
55 Carson Wiggs, Purdue vs. Ohio State, 10/17	53 on 5 occasions

ESPINOZA CREDITED WITH NUMBER 100

WR Jason Espinoza enjoyed a career game at Toledo, hauling in eight passes for 109 yards and a touchdown; WR Scotty McKnight also topped the century mark (11-114), but Espinoza reached the plateau first and thus was officially credited with the school's 100th 100-yard receiving game in its history. It marked the first time CU had two 100-yard receivers in the same game since Oct. 4, 2003 at Baylor (Derek McCoy 6-171, D.J. Hackett 4-143) and the 12th time overall that has happened in CU annals. The first was recently unearthed: Jim Haley caught three passes for 108 yards and a touchdown against Colorado State on Nov. 25, 1930; the next was Frank McGlone versus Northern Colorado on Nov. 18, 1933; he caught two passes, both for touchdowns for 109 yards.

STEWART CLIMBING THE RUSHING CHARTS

Sophomore TB Rodney Stewart returned to action in the Wyoming game after missing the Toledo contest due to an aggravated hamstring strain and has basically been CU's go-to-back since (176 attempts compared to 34 by the other three tailbacks combined). Stewart ran for 132 yards and two touchdowns, with almost half of his yards (64) coming post-contact against the Cowboys. He followed that up with his fifth career 100-yard game, rambling for 105 at West Virginia (49 post-contact). He had 108 yards and two scores against Kansas, including a 13-yard run for the go-ahead points where he dragged a defender the last five yards; 62 of those were post-contact. He enjoyed another 100-yard day (20-118-2 TD) in the win over Texas A&M.

- ♦ Overall, 311 of his 694 yards have come after he was first hit by a defender (44.8 percent).
- ♦ He has three multiple rushing TD games this season, the most since Chris Brown had six in 2002 (and five in '01).
- ♦ Stewart now has seven career 100-yard rushing games (four this season); that's tied for the 14th most in school history. Ahead of him: Eric Bieniemy 22, Chris Brown 14, Rashaan Salaam 14, Charlie Davis 13, Bobby Anderson 11, James Mayberry 11, Hugh Charles 10, Merwin Hodel 10, Cortlen Johnson 10, Bobby Purify 10, Darian Hagan 9, Tony Reed 9, Lamont Warren 9, John Bayuk 7, J.J. Flannigan 7, Rodney Stewart 7, Byron White 7.
- ♦ He became the 49th player in Colorado history to record at least 1,000 career rushing yards, going over the plateau in the Kansas game. He reached the number in his 14th game, becoming the 12th to reach the mark as a sophomore. He is tied for the fourth most career yards by a sophomore with one game left this season:

UNDERCLASSMEN RUSHING AT RECORD LEVEL

In 2008, almost 98 percent of CU's rushing yards were by underclassmen (freshmen and sophomores); much of that charge was led by the fact that CU was the only school in the nation that had three true freshman occupy the top three spots on any statistical category in the land (Rodney Stewart, Darrell Scott, Tyler Hansen). This year that number has only dipped 2.3 percentage points, with younger players again the ones netting most of the rushing yards. It dramatically switched from Hawkins' first two years, where 16.7 percent of the yards were gained by freshmen and sophomores (including .0001 percent in 2006), to the last two, where 96.3 percent of the yards have been produced by the younger guys. In fact, Hawkins is the only coach in CU history where over 75 percent of the rushing yards for two seasons are on track to be provided by underclassmen. A look at the Hawkins Era and all-time at CU:

HAWK ERA

2006	2	2075	0.0	Only 2 FR/SO had attempts
2007	647	1800	35.9	Charles neared 1000 yds

300-YARD TOTAL OFFENSE GAMES

QB Tyler Hansen enjoyed back-to-back 300-yard total offense games: he had 315 in the win over Texas A&M (271 passing plus a net 45 yards rushing), and then came back with 308 in the loss at Iowa State (258 pass, 50 rushing). The last back-to-back games of over 300 were recorded by QB Joel Klatt in 2003, when he had 424 against Kansas in overtime and followed that up with 307 at Kansas State. With QB Cody Hawkins having a 300-yard game against Toledo earlier in the year (335), thus there have now been 43 occasions in CU history where a player earned that many yards of total offense (seven over 400). Hansen's ability to scramble and use his feet make him a threat to one day join Bobby Anderson and Kordell Stewart as the only players in school history to have 300 or more yards of total offense with at least 100 yards both rushing and passing. Anderson had 207 rushing and 146 passing in a 34-17 loss at Oklahoma State in 1968, while Stewart had 205 passing and 143 rushing in CU's 41-24 thrashing of Notre Dame in the 1995 Fiesta Bowl.

SPEAKING OF BACK-TO-BACK

WR Markques Simas had his second 100-yard receiving game in a row (7-128, 1 TD) at Iowa State, following up a 7-for-135 effort against Texas A&M (he now has 14 catches for 263 yards the last two games). Simas became the first CU player to have back-to-back 100-yard games in a decade; it was last done by Javon Green, who did it against Oklahoma (3-133) and Kansas State (3-139) on Oct. 30-Nov. 6, 1999. The last hat-trick of 100-yard games in succession? Charles E. Johnson had three straight in 1993 (after doing so in 1992, when Michael Westbrook also did it); Simas missed a third by eight yards.

YOUNG BUT NOT SO YOUNG

It's been rare when Colorado hasn't had at least one senior in its two-deep on its offensive line or at least one senior starter. The last time the latter happened was in 1998, when two different units of non-seniors started a combined five games and crushed Oregon in the Aloha Bowl, 51-43 (it was 44-14 at one point). The last time that a senior did not start at least one game on the offensive line was in 1982, Bill McCartney's first season as head coach. In 2009, CU has no senior offensive linemen on its roster, the first time in known CU history that has happened (Mac's '82 team had one senior OL, Mark Hasart). A look at senior-less starting offensive lines since 1978, when records are available:

TRUE FROSH WATCH

Three true freshmen played in the opener as expected against Colorado State, but none started the game. DT Nate Bonsu, WR Will Jefferson and DE Forrest West all played against Colorado State, and had they started, were in line to become the first player at their respective position in Buff annals to ever start the season opener. No other true frosh have yet played; here are the six known true freshmen in CU history thrown in the fray from play one:

TB Billy Waddy, 1973 (at Louisiana State); CB Victor Scott and OLB Scott Hardison, 1980 (at UCLA); HB Eric Bieniemy, 1987 (vs. Oregon); OG Clint Moore, 1991 (vs. Wyoming) and ILB Jordon Dizon, 2004 (vs. Colorado State).

Freshman (true or redshirt) accounted for 95 starts over the last two seasons, the most in any two-year period in CU history; the count this season through 11 games is 23 starts (by four different players) to up that total to 121. Speaking of youthful overall, CU started 12 underclassmen (nine sophomores, three redshirt frosh) at Toledo, after starting 11 against Colorado State. The 12 is the second most nationally, topped only by Rice, which started 13 at Texas Tech on Sept. 12 (12 sophomores, one redshirt freshman).

NIGHT & DAY

Colorado allowed 624 yards on defense in the 54-38 loss at Toledo, but bounced back to hold Wyoming to 230, or 394 yards less. The win also marked the second best effort in Colorado history in terms of posting a shutout in relation to points allowed the previous game. The top improvements in both in CU history:

HEAD COACHES & COACHING A POSITION

CU head coach Dan Hawkins is coaching the receivers this season, grooming defensive technical intern Ashley Ambrose to take over in 2010. Hawk is the first Buff head coach to take over the chores of a specific position (other than special teams) since Rick Neuheisel coached the quarterbacks from 1995-97. It's pretty rare: only three have really done it at Colorado, and Hawk is one of two BCS coaches and one of just seven overall doing it this year; take a look:

Colorado

2009	Dan Hawkins	Receivers
1995-97	Rick Neuheisel	Quarterbacks
1993	Bill McCartney	Quarterbacks

NCAA (2009)

Ball State	Stan Parrish	Quarterbacks
Colorado	Dan Hawkins	Receivers
Kent State	Doug Martin	Quarterbacks
Nevada	Chris Ault	Quarterbacks
San Diego State	Brady Hoke	Defensive Line
Texas Tech	Mike Leach	Quarterbacks
Utah State	Gary Andersen	Defensive Tackles

Before the birth of the coordinator in the late 1960s, head coaches usually handled those chores on one or both sides of the ball; the last head coach to also serve as a coordinator was McCartney, when he was over the offense in his first season (1982).

SACKIN' THE QB

The Buffs are flirting with the most single season quarterback sacks in the Dan Hawkins Era; CU has 25 for 179 yards in losses (7.2 per) through 11 games. In 2008, the Buffs had 26 sacks for 175 yards (6.7 per), with 19-for-130 (6.8) in 2007 and 25-for-172 in 2006 (6.9). CU has at least one sack in every game (at least two in eight of the 10); the Buffs have had one or more sacks in 19 straight games, but haven't had a sack in every game over the course of a single season since 1996.

FIRST PBU WAS A BIG ONE

CB Cha'pelle Brown entered the year 12th all-time at Colorado with 24 pass deflections; he had 10 as a junior in 2008, but none in the last two games and the first five in 2009. And technically, none in the 60 minutes against Kansas—he made his first of season after time expired, knocking the ball away from Dezmon Briscoe in the end zone. It ended the seven-game drought for Brown, who is now tied for 11th all-time with Alfred Williams with 25 PBU's.

INJURY UPDATE

The Buffs came out of the Oklahoma State game in decent shape. The injury list as of November 22:

Pos	Player	Injury	Notes	Status/Oklahoma State
OLB	B.J. Beatty	concussion	suffered in practice (11/11)	PROBABLE
DE	*Nick Kasa	illness (mono)	diagnosed the last week of October; out for the season	OUT
FS	Ray Polk	broken bone/foot	dropped a piece of furniture on a pinkie toe (11/06); playing despite injury	PROBABLE
ILB	Jeff Smart	neck	pinched a nerve at Iowa State (11/14)	PROBABLE
OG	Maxwell Tuioti-Mariner	knee(s)	tore ACL in non-contact drill in practice (9/23/08), tore other in winter conditioning (3/03)	WEEK-TO-WEEK
WR	Anthony Wright	knee	suffered versus Missouri (10/31); season-ending surgery in second week of November	OUT

HIPAA: The players listed above have signed waivers for their injury information to be released/discussed with the media.

NOTE: Injuries are reported in conjunction with the HIPAA laws. CU releases player name, body part (but no right or left ID's), the general nature and playing status when it comes to reporting injuries. Status will be listed as either OUT, DOUBTFUL, QUESTIONABLE, DAY-TO-DAY, PROBABLE or DEFINITE. Injuries will be updated in-game, postgame, the Sunday after the game, and for game notes at the end of the week.

*—According to CU compliance officials, the chance for Kasa to receive a medical hardship for 2009 is unlikely; he meets one of the criteria with a 12-game schedule (playing in a maximum 30% of the games, 4 of 12, rounding up allowed), but the catch is the second. He played in game No. 7 (at Kansas State), and in addition to only competing in 30%, the injury or illness must occur in the first half of the season, and that is where the problem is—game 7 is in the second half of the season.

RECORD WATCH

The list of records set or tied so far in 2009; NOTE: CU did not adopt the NCAA 2002 policy of adding bowl game statistics in its season or career numbers.

SERIES HISTORY—COLORADO VS. NEBRASKA

Nebraska leads the all-time series by a 47-18-2 count, which includes a 22-10-2 edge in Boulder and a 25-8 advantage in Lincoln; some CU highlights:

➔ The two first met in 1898, making it the second oldest rivalry in CU's books (the Colorado State series began in 1893). The winner of the CU-Nebraska game, even though not at the end of the year, wound up deciding the Big Eight champion in the conference's last seven years of existence, with CU winning the league crown in 1989 and 1990. The two shared the title in 1991 and Nebraska captured the last four (1992-95). Thus, it was only fitting that the pair met to determine the Big 12's first North Division champ in 1996 (Nebraska won, 17-12 in Lincoln). CU has faced Nebraska 18 times when the Huskers were either undefeated or had just one loss (nine times each); CU's had zero or just one loss on eight occasions, and both schools were ranked in the top 25 in every meeting from 1988 through 1996, as they were again in 2001.

➔ The infamous 62-36 Colorado win in 2001 in Boulder knocked the Huskers out of the No. 1 spot in the BCS Standings and paved the way for CU's first Big 12 title, as the Buffaloes defeated Texas the following week in Dallas, 39-37.

➔ Nebraska rallied for a 31-22 win in 2003 and knocked the Buffs out of a postseason bowl. CU returned that favor with bigger implications in 2004, as a 26-20 win in Lincoln dropped NU to 5-6 on the year and ended the Huskers' run of 35 straight bowl game appearances. Both schools were 5-6 entering the 2007 game, with CU's 65-51 win keeping Nebraska home; and in 2008, Nebraska did the same to the Buffs, scoring 10 points in the last 1:43, dropping CU to 5-7 and home for the holidays.

➔ This is the just fifth time in the last 29 games that neither team enters the game ranked (AP; neither was among the top 25 in 2004, 2005, 2007 or 2008). On 19 occasions, either CU or NU was in the Associated Press Top 10, if not both; nine times in the last 29 games both schools were ranked.

➔ Dan Hawkins is 1-2 against Nebraska; NU coach Bo Pelini is 1-0 against Colorado. The entire series:

SERIES DID YOU KNOW — More often than not over the last 13 seasons, the games have been closely contested. Nebraska's last nine wins in the series have been by a combined 83 points, but 50 of those were in two games (in 2006, a 37-14 win in Lincoln and a 30-3 win in Boulder in 1995; the other seven were by an average of 4.7 points per). Colorado's four in this frame have been by 61 points. Nine of the last 20 games in the series have been decided by six points or less, and the loser has scored 31 or more in six of the last nine outings.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME — 20th. In 1989, it was one of those rare Nos. 2 vs. 3 meetings, J.J. Flannigan rushed for 96 yards and two touchdowns with Darian Hagan adding 86 and a score as No. 2 Colorado defeated No. 3 Nebraska, 27-21, in a battle between 8-0 teams. The win gave CU sole possession of the Big Eight lead in November for the first time since 1961. After Nebraska took a 7-0 lead on the first play of the game, CU evened the game on a 70-yard run by Flannigan, as he took a pitch from Hagan some 40 yards downfield and raced into the end zone. Hagan added a 1-yard run the next time CU had the ball, and the Buffs would not trail the rest of the game. Ken Culbertson's 49-yard field goal prior to halftime gave CU the lead for good at 17-14, and Flannigan's second score made it 24-14 in the third. CU withstood a pair of Nebraska fourth quarter threats as the win propelled CU to an 11-0 regular season mark and No. 1 ranking.

CU-NEBRASKA THANKSGIVING TRADITION

The annual meeting between the two shifted to the Friday after Thanksgiving in 1996 in the first year of the Big 12 Conference, and so far, there's only been one "stinker" in the first 13 games, the 2005 game in Boulder (NU won, 30-3). Nebraska holds a 9-4 edge, with the Huskers' first six wins by a combined 24 points (the first five between 1996-2000 by a total of 15 points), with CU's four by a total of 61. However, CU's wins were not without excitement: in 2001, NU came in ranked No. 2 in both polls but No. 1 in the BCS Standings; CU zoomed to a 35-3 lead early in the second quarter, only to see the Huskers battle back behind Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch to cut the lead to 42-30 early in the third. But CU's Chris Brown's six touchdowns on the day paved the way for CU's 62-36 win. In 2002, CU left Lincoln with a 28-13 win, its first in Nebraska's capital city since 1990, but it was a 14-13 contest entering the fourth quarter. In 2004, the Buffs led 26-7 in the fourth, but NU rallied for two scores but never got the ball back with a chance to go ahead as CU ran out the clock. In 2007, in a Colorado 65-51 win, CU rallied in the second half after Nebraska jumped up 35-24 at halftime. Last year, CU jumped to a 14-0 lead and led most of the game until Nebraska scored 10 points in the final 1:43 to steal the win, and keeping CU from becoming bowl eligible in the process.

➔ One team or the other seems to finish strong against the other since both joined the Big 12. Overall, in the 13 games, the Buffs have outscored Nebraska, 104-93 in the fourth quarter; however, in the first seven games that margin was 83-22, but in the next four, Nebraska owned the fourth with a 42-0 edge until CU won the fourth quarter battle 21-16 in 2007; NU claimed the quarter again with a 13-0 edge in '08. In the six games in Boulder, thanks to CU running a hurry-up offense on two occasions, the Buffs own a 79-35 edge in the fourth; in the seven games in Lincoln, Nebraska has the advantage by 58-25.

NEBRASKA HAS STRUCK QUICK

Nebraska has had some uncanny luck scoring right out of the gate against the Buffaloes. Dating back to 1989, the Huskers have taken a 7-0 lead less than two minutes into the game six different times, with quick scores inside five minutes on two other occasions. A closer look:

THE SET-UP

Going back over the last 25 years, when Colorado has entered a Nebraska game with a .500 or worse record, its' given the Cornhuskers all they could handle and then some. It's happened eight times, with most memorable for a variety of reasons the 1986 game, when a 2-4 CU stunned the college football world with a 20-10 win over the No. 3 Huskers; CU had opened 0-4 that season but would play Oklahoma for the Big Eight title a month later. NEBRASKA NOTES

Nebraska is 8-3 overall and 5-2 in the Big 12 under coach Bo Pelini. Nebraska secured the Big 12 North Division championship and appearance in the Dec. 5 Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship Game at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas, with its 17-3 win over Kansas State last week. Nebraska boasts one of the best defenses in the NCAA and two of the three losses for the Huskers were by a combined three points, 16-15 at No. 13 Virginia Tech and 9-7 against Iowa State. The Huskers other loss marked the only time they surrendered more than 20 points in a 31-10 loss against Texas Tech. Nebraska opened the season with a 49-3 win against Florida Atlantic before beating Arkansas State, 38-9, in week two. After falling to the Hokies, Nebraska closed out non-league play with a 55-0 win over Louisiana-Lafayette. Nebraska scored four touchdowns in the fourth quarter of a rain-soaked game at Missouri to win 27-12 before falling to Texas Tech and Iowa State. The Huskers have won four straight games to claim the north division, winning 20-10 at Baylor, 10-3 against Oklahoma, 31-17 at Kansas and their win last week against K-State. The Huskers rank in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense (third – 10.3 points per game), pass efficiency defense (third – 89.4 rating) and total defense (eighth – 281.3 yards per game). The Huskers rush defense (14th – 99.0 yards per game) and pass defense (17th – 182.3 yards per game) also rank in the top 20 nationally, and they average 2.9 sacks per game, good for 14th in the NCAA. Roy Helu, Jr., leads the Huskers offensively with 1,057 yards rushing on the season with 10 touchdowns. QB Zac Lee has completed 60.6 percent of his passes for 1,858 yards and 12 touchdowns. Defensively, Ndamukong Suh leads the way as he has compiled 65 tackles, including 15 for a loss and 6.5 sacks. He has 20 quarterback hurries and 10 pass break-ups as well as blocking three kicks this season.

- ➔ Nebraska coach Bo Pelini is in his second season in Lincoln, compiling a 17-7 record there, where he had previously served one season as a defensive coordinator in 2003. He went to Lincoln after four successful seasons as a defensive coordinator. He guided the LSU defense to a national championship in 2007 and 34-6 record in three years there. Pelini also served as co-defensive coordinator at Oklahoma in 2004. Prior to his first stint at Nebraska, Pelini had nine years of NFL experience beginning in 1994 as the secondary coach at San Francisco, where he coached for three years before moving on to the New England Patriots in 1997, where he was the linebackers coach. After three years there, he coached for three more as a linebacker coach at Green Bay. After a career at free safety for Ohio State, Pelini was a graduate assistant at Iowa for one season before coaching in high school prior to his jump to the NFL.
- ➔ Last week, Nebraska secured the Big 12 north division championship with a 17-3 win over Kansas State. After falling behind early, Nebraska tied the game at 3-3 by the end of the first quarter and then scored touchdowns in the second and third quarters to secure the victory. Roy Helu, Jr., ran 26 times for 95 yards and a touchdown while Zac Lee hit 13-of-19 passes for 166 yards and a scoring toss to Mike McNeill. Kansas State out-gained Nebraska 140-101 in rushing and 293-267 in total offense, but could not find the end zone. Ndamukong Suh had nine tackles, including 1.5 sacks while Larry Asante had 10 tackles and was responsible for both turnovers gained by the Huskers with an interception and forced fumble.

DID YOU KNOW

Here's a little known fact: Oklahoma won every Big 7 title between 1948 and 1959; in the 1960's, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma all won Big Eight titles. In the 1970's, Colorado, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State won or shared crowns, and in the 1980s, CU, NU and OU earned titles. In the 1990s, Colorado or Nebraska won the final six Big 8 championships, with Nebraska, Texas and Texas A&M claiming the top spot in newly formed Big 12 between 1996-99. In the 2000s, Colorado, Kansas State, Oklahoma and Texas have won Big 12 titles. Where's this leading? If Nebraska doesn't win the '09 Big 12 championship, CU will be the only school from the old Big 8 to have won at least one title in each of the last five decades, joined only by Texas in doing the same.

THE LAST TIME: NEBRASKA 40, COLORADO 31NOVEMBER 28, 2008 (LINCOLN, NEB.)

LINCOLN, Neb. — It was another wild and woolly one played out on national television between these two Big 12 North rivals, and it wasn't settled until the final minute when Nebraska scored 10 points in 48 seconds to steal a 40-31 win over Colorado.

The Buffaloes took a 31-27 lead into the fourth quarter, needing a win to become bowl-eligible. Alex Henery's third field goal of the game, a 37-yard boot, cut that lead to 31-30 with 8:09 left to play. CU took over after the kickoff on its 21-yard line but could pick up just one first down, giving the ball back to Nebraska at its 26 with 4:35 remaining.

It appeared the Buffs would hold on; the Huskers picked up two first downs, but thanks to a rush for no gain, a 15-yard sack by CU safety and an incomplete pass on third down, NU was faced with a 4th-and-25 from the CU 40 with 1:50 left. Nebraska elected to go for the field goal, with Henery just sneaking the kick in the lower right corner of the upright. The longest field goal in NU history gave the Huskers a 33-31 lead.

Colorado still had a chance, picking up a first down and was faced with a 2nd-and-10 from its own 33 with just over a minute remaining. But Ndamukong Suh batted a Cody Hawkins pass into the air, gathered it in and returned it 30 yards for the clinching score.

Nebraska had a recent history of scoring quickly on the Buffs, but this time, CU turned the tables—twice. On the second play of the game, Hawkins and tight end Riar Geer hooked up on a 68-yard pass and run for a touchdown, and a 7-0 Colorado lead just 54 seconds into the game. After the Huskers stalled on their first drive, CU took over on its 20 and used just two plays to take a 14-0 lead. Hawkins completed a 44-yard pass to Josh Smith, followed by a 36-yard Demetrius Sumler for a touchdown.

Nebraska bounced right back at tied the game with two scores later in the quarter, and both traded field goals to make it 17-17 headed toward halftime. Quentin Castille capped a 12-play drive with a 1-yard run to put NU up 24-17 with 2:03 to go, and following a CU fumble on the ensuing kickoff return, the Huskers appeared to be in business again, driving to the CU 33. NU faked a field goal, with CU's Jimmy Smith racing in untouched to pickoff an attempted pitch and proceeded to run 58 yards for a score to tie the game at 24 at halftime.

Henery opened the second half with a 27-yard field goal to give Nebraska a 27-24 edge, but the Buffs came right back with a 65-yard drive, polished off by a 4-yard TD run by Sumler, to regain a 31-27 advantage.

It was the final game for 15 CU seniors, with perhaps Brad Jones having the best game of the group: he recorded nine tackles, three for losses including two sacks, three third down stops and a hurry. Sophomore Josh Smith racked up 245 all-purpose yards, 193 of which came on seven kickoff returns.

CU finished the season with a 5-7, and thus had to stay home for the postseason. It marked only the sixth time in 24 seasons (since 1985) that the Buffs did not play in a bowl game; the other years were 1987, 1997, 2000, 2003 and 2006.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: NOVEMBER 27

Colorado is 1-3 all-time on November 27 as this is just the fifth game on this date in CU history, and just the second in the last 62 years. Here's a brief look at some of the games played on the date: 1913—The always interesting recap from early last century from the Coloradoan (CU yearbook) of a 14-3 loss to Oklahoma in Oklahoma City. "The season closed with the game with the University of Oklahoma at Oklahoma City on Turkey Day. It was a murky, rainy day, and the Silver and Gold mean, after dropping from a mile down to slight elevation, found themselves pepleless. The varsity suffered its first defeat of the season, 14-3. Pete Nelson was in his best kicking form, and the high spirals which he got loose have never been equaled on an Oklahoma gridiron. The Buffs ended that season 5-1-1. 1930—Again from the yearbook, "In the final game of the season in Denver, Colorado decisively established its superiority over its ancient rival, Denver University, by virtue of the 27-7 victory over the Pioneers. The final score was the result of (George) Newton's winning of a 45-yard race with Specken to the goal line. (Jim) Haley's generalship was the feature of the game." 1947—In the final game before CU joined the Big Seven the following season and in the last game in the 55-year history between Colorado and Denver, the Pioneers outlasted the Buffaloes, 26-20. The Associated Press called the game "one of the best games of this ancient state rivalry." After falling behind 13-0 at the half, the Buffs responded and tied the game at 13 all entering the fourth quarter, but DU outscored the Buffs 13-7 in the final period for the win. Harry Narcisian threw two touchdown passes while sophomore Pete Cook played both ways, all 60 minutes, and was "the best man on the field," according to the AP recap. Cook made two spectacular catches, one interception in the end zone and one reception that set up a touchdown. Narcisian was 100 percent for the first time since the beginning of the season directing the offense while captain Tex Reilly led the defense in his final game. 1998—Kris Brown squeezed through a 25 yard field goal with 8:48 remaining in the game and Nebraska held off 20-point underdog Colorado as the No. 14 Cornhuskers defeated the Buffaloes for the seventh straight season in winning, 16-14. Nebraska won for the first time since 1961 while not scoring an offensive touchdown, as its lone six-pointer came with a pick-six play by Clint Finley of Mike Moschetti. That play put the Huskers up 7-0. Shortly after, Moschetti hit Javon Green about five minutes later to tie the score. Brown hit two field goals for the Huskers to put them up 13-7 before CU took its only lead of the game when Andy Peeke caught a 15-yard pass from Moschetti to put the Buffs up 14-13 before the final Brown field goal giving the Huskers the victory. Marlon Barnes rushed 25 times for 102 yards against the tough Nebraska defense.

NOVEMBER 25 COLORADO MVP: B George Newton, who while stats are not available in that 1930 contest, scored on a 45-yard sprint that resulted in the Buffs final score of the game.

THIS WEEK'S HISTORICAL STAT / 1955 & 1994

Fifty-four years ago this month (Nov. 5, 1955 versus Utah to be exact), Colorado had its first game with a 100-yard rusher (Jack Becker, 20-109) and receiver (Frank Clarke, 2-100). It's happened only 27 times since, once this season (Texas A&M). In the first instance, Becker and Clarke both just barely hit the century mark; one time when it didn't occur until after time expired was 15 years ago. Yes, The Catch: Rashaan Salaam had rushed for 141 yards, the most by any opposing back in Michigan's Big House in some 31 years. But as the final drive started, Michael Westbrook had five catches for 72 yards, not a bad day by any means in front of his home folk. It got better quick: he caught a 21-yard pass on the first play of CU's winning drive, and of course the 64-yard reception on the game's final play to finish up with 157 receiving yards.

REVERSAL OF FORTUNE, IN A GOOD WAY

Colorado lost 121 games due to injury or illness in 2008, with all but 11 of those 121 by players who figured in either the two-deep or prominently on special teams. The Buffs were a bit shorthanded as Hawkins & Staff continued to rebuild the CU roster, with 20 on the inactive roster by season's end (11 injured, five ineligible, four transfers), not including 16 freshmen ticketed for a redshirt season. It's an entirely different story in 2009, as CU has for the most part escaped a barrage of serious injury (21 total games missed due to maladies). Here are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 20 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost – percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 22 positions plus backups):

Season	G	GL	MG	Pct. Lost	GL/2	2/MG	Pct. Lost	Season	G	GL	MG	Pct. Lost	GL/2	2/MG	Pct. Lost
2009	11	45	891	5.1	39	484	8.1	2002	13	139	1118	12.4	80	572	14.0
2008	12	121	1008	12.0	110	528	20.8	2003	12	74	876	8.4	58	528	11.0
1998	11	101	864	11.7	89	484	18.4	1997	11	51	770	6.6	41	484	8.5
2000	11	101	880	11.5	82	484	16.9

Dating back to 1987, only seven times has CU lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08).

1,000 / 1,000 FOR THE FOURTH TIME

For the fourth time in school history, the Buffs have a pair of 1,000-yard passers on the same team. On two occasions, injuries played a factor (1995, 2001), and on the other two, the starter was replaced (multiple times in 1984). Tyler Hansen hit the 1,000-yard plateau on the nose with his last pass of the Iowa State game (11 yards to Markques Simas). A look at the four times in CU history this has occurred:

Season	Quarterbacks (Yards)	2-Man Total
1984	Steve Vogel (1,432), Craig Keenan (1,012)	2,444
1995	John Hessler (2,136), Koy Detmer (1,101)	3,237
2001	Bobby Pesavento (1,234), Craig Ochs (1,220)	2,454

HANSEN JUST THE ELEVENTH

When he appeared late in the first quarter against Kansas State last season (Oct. 18, 2008), QB Tyler Hansen became just the 11th true freshman to see action in a game for Colorado since 1972, the year freshmen were once again eligible to play. Hansen was ticketed to redshirt in 2009, but the wraps came off that in the Texas game (fifth of the season) and he was promoted to starter for the following game. It's still possible another true freshman could very well join the below list at some point this season (CU's has three quarterbacks who are all true frosh). Here's a look at the group Hansen joined and how they fared; game number indicates how far into the season the player made his debut (Colorado is 9-2 in games when a true frosh made his Buffalo debut):

The most interesting of the above might be the first listed; in 1977, CU traveled three quarterbacks to Ames, and the first two, Jeff Knappe and Pete Cyphers, both went down with injuries and Lillo took over for the last 11:40 of the game and helped preserve a 12-7 Colorado win. It was the only action of his career at quarterback as he redshirted in 1978, and then played free safety his sophomore through senior seasons. NOTE: In 1984, Mark Hatcher was originally a quarterback but was moved to tailback where he saw action for seven games; he returned to quarterback in 1985 in CU's switch to the wishbone offense.

And in 1986, Bill McCartney opened up the competition at quarterback after the fifth game of the year, and true frosh Marc Walters (father of current Buff Ryan) appeared for the first time in game seven (Nebraska), and started the season finale at Kansas State when CU needed the win to secure a Bluebonnet Bowl bid.

AND JUST THE FIFTH Hansen started the next game at Missouri on October 25, becoming just the fifth true freshman to start a game at quarterback for the Buffaloes (and just the eight freshman overall when three redshirts are included). Here's how he compared with the four before him:

HAWKINS RISE UP THE CHARTS ON HOLD

QB Cody Hawkins was one of 16 freshman starting quarterbacks in the nation in 2007 (8 at BCS schools), and threw for 2,693 yards, just the fifth 2,500-yard season in school history (the total tied for the third most a season at CU). He set all the major passing and total offense records for a true freshman, and also set a record for attempts in a season by any class. Hawkins placed high on the other single season lists as well, such as attempts, completions and total offense. His 19 touchdown passes were the fourth most in a single season (record: 22, Koy Detmer in 1996), while his 15 interceptions tied for the second most in a single year (record: 16, John Hessler in 1997, followed by 15, Joel Klatt 2004). The interception count was a bit skewed—seven were by deflection. As is sometimes the case after a solid freshman year, a sophomore slump set in to a degree, and he was replaced as CU's starter six games into the 2009 season (CU was 11-16 when he started).

- He is in the top 5 in every major passing category, including first in TD passes (46), second in attempts (983) and completions (543) and third in yards (5,862).
- Red Zone. He has a 34-to-5 career ratio of touchdowns to interceptions in the red zone (7-to-2 in 2009 after 11-to-2 in 2008; one pick this year was costly, as CU was trying to capitalize on a Texas turnover and retake the lead in the third quarter; instead, UT's Earl Thomas returned it 92 yards for a score).
- The 40-On-In. Once the Buffs reach the opponent's 40-yard line, Hawkins was fairly deadly last season. He completed 55-of-91 passes for 564 yards, with 16 touchdowns and three interceptions. That worked out to a passer rating of 163.91 from the opponent 40- on-in for CU's sophomore signal caller. (In rallying CU to the win over Iowa State, he was 10-of-12 for 81 yards and 4 TDs, a rating of 250.03.) In 2009, he is 46-of-86 for 451 yards (9 TD/4 INT; 122.7).
- He had his career game when it came to passer rating with a figure of 179.95 in the 28-24 come-from-behind win over Iowa State. But looking inside the numbers, once CU crossed midfield, he was even more deadly: he completed 11 of 13 passes for 91 yards and four touchdowns, which worked to a rating of 244.96 (and it was even higher from the 40-on-in, at 250.03).
- Speaking of ratings, his career rating is a modest 113.1; however, he has been hurried/pressured 174 times, 15 of which were intercepted, both numbers being rather high due to playing behind a young and/or patchwork offensive line at times. His rating when the opponent is not credited with a pressure? 142.3.

CornerbacksBROWN RECORDS KNOWN SCHOOL FIRST

CB Cha'pelle Brown's 27-yard interception return for a touchdown that provided the winning points in CU's 31-24 win over Eastern Washington last year marked a first in school history: never before had the Buffs used a defensive score in the fourth quarter as the decisive play to come-from-behind or break a tie for a win.

➡ Then there's CB Jimmy Smith. He intercepted a pitch on a Nebraska fake field goal try and raced 58 yards for a touchdown, the second year in a row he put six on the board against the Huskers. As a freshman in 2007, he returned an interception 31 yards for score. One wisecracker walked by him at CU's spring game and asked him, "Shouldn't you be at Nebraska's spring game right now returned a blocked field goal for a touchdown?"

IN THE POLLS

Colorado has not been ranked in any Associated Press (media) or USA Today Coaches poll since November 6, 2005, when the Buffs peaked at No. 21 in the coaches' ballot (No. 22 in the AP and Harris Interactive), but dropped out after a Nov. 12 loss at Iowa State. CU was ranked three times in 2005, reaching No. 18 in the BCS Standings at one point (Nov. 6) and had returned to the polls after a 25-month hiatus on October 9. Dating back to the 1989 preseason, CU has been ranked in 185 of the last 332 polls (AP; 56%), which includes a tremendous run of 143 consecutive between 1989 and 1997 (the 10th longest streak of all-time). CU has been ranked 293 times in its history, the 23rd most all-time (Michigan State in 22nd with 303, Pittsburgh is 24th with 287). Since 1989, CU has played the third most ranked teams in the nation (104), trailing only Florida (113) and Michigan (105) and tied with Florida State and Ohio State.

43 WINS OVER RANKED TEAMS 10TH BEST SINCE '89

CU's 43 wins over Associated Press ranked teams since the start of the 1989 season are the 10th most in the nation in this time frame (21 seasons). Florida State has the most with 69, followed by Florida (67), Michigan (60), Ohio State (59), Miami, Fla. (54), Southern Cal (53), Tennessee (52), Alabama (44), Texas (44), Colorado (43), Penn State (42), Notre Dame (40), Oklahoma (40) and Nebraska (38); as for the Big 12, after CU, UT, OU and NU, the next schools on this list are Texas A&M (29) and Texas Tech (23). All-time, Colorado's 66 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history. (AP polls used for these figures because the coaches' poll omits teams on probation, but AP still ranks those teams.)

- Colorado's last three wins over ranked teams came against No. 17 Kansas this year (34-30), No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 (17-14 in OT) and No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007 (27-24), its last over a top 10/top 5 team. CU has lost 10 straight road games against ranked opponents, with the last win at UCLA 31-17 in 2002.

CAPITAL RETURNS

CU's success often correlates directly with if it owns a hefty margin in return yards, as was the case in the 2001, 2002 and 2004 seasons—when the Buffs won the Big 12 North. The Buffs had advantages of 854-417 (2001), 803-607 (2002) and 574-499 (2004) in return yards, which includes all return yardage other than those on kickoffs. In the Hawkins Era, in 2006, the opponent had the upper hand at 390-277, but in 2007 (677-408) and 2008 (518-323) CU had hefty edges; opponents have a 495-247 command in 2009. And the Buffs have 46 return and/or non-offensive touchdowns over the last 10-plus seasons (41 regular season, four bowl game), the 14th most in the nation for this span. ROAD-SWEET-ROAD: BUFFS 18TH BEST IN ENEMY STADIUMS SINCE '88

Though not so much as of late (2-19 since '05), the Buffaloes have enjoyed a lot of success on the road over the last 22 seasons. CU has been victorious 59 of the last 108 times in enemy stadiums with a 59-48-1 overall road record (a 55.1 winning percentage) since the start of the 1988 season. That stands 18th nationally and fourth among Big 12 Conference teams in this span; only 11 schools have won 60 percent of their away games in this time frame. The Buffaloes own a 48-33-1 mark in their last 82 road conference games (Big 8 & Big 12—with most of the losses at Nebraska (seven), Kansas State (five) and Missouri (four), with just one at Baylor and Oklahoma State; the tie was at K-State in 1993). CU is 23-32 on the Big 12 road since 1996 (0-3 in 2009), though have struggled since 2005 with a 2-14 mark. The chart to the right does not include neutral site games and includes games of November 14:

23RD BEST IN THE NATION SINCE 1989

Colorado has the nation's 23rd best record over the last 20 seasons, or since the start of 1989, CU has posted a 156-96-4 record. From opening 1-0 in '89, through the 10th game of the 2005 season, the Buffs owned one of the top 10 overall records in the nation (247 consecutive weeks). The best Division I-A records from the start of 1989 through games of November 21 (#—denotes 2009 Colorado opponent):

THE BUFFALOES IN THE BIG 12

The Big 12 Conference is in season No. 14, and the Buffaloes are still tied for the second most division titles won with four, trailing only Oklahoma's seven; seven of the schools in the conference have won a division title. A closer look:

- ➡ Big 12 Division Titles: Oklahoma 7, Nebraska 5, Texas 5, Colorado 4, Kansas State 3, Texas A & M 2, Missouri 2.
- ➡ Big 12 Championship Game Records: Oklahoma 6-1, Nebraska 2-2, Texas 2-2, Texas A & M 1-1, Kansas State 1-2, Colorado 1-3, Missouri 0-2.

CU vs. THE BIG 12 NORTH: Colorado owns the second best record in intra-division competition going back to the start of the 2001 season against Big 12 North Division rivals, as the Buffaloes are 25-20; other records: Nebraska is 28-16, Kansas State 23-22, Missouri 23-21, Kansas 19-26 and Iowa State 15-30. Colorado is 16-6 at home in this stretch versus the North, the only losses to NU (2003, 2005), MU (2007, 2009), KSU (2006) and KU (2007).

HEAD COACH DAN HAWKINS

Dan Hawkins is in his fourth season as head coach of the University of Colorado football program, his ninth overall as a FBS/Division I-A head coach and 15th as a collegiate head coach. He owns a 16-32 record at Colorado, along with a 69-43 record in the Division I-A ranks (53-11 at Boise State) and an overall career mark of 108-55-1 including five years at NAIA Willamette (Ore.) College. In his final year at Willamette (1997), his team posted a 13-1 record, falling in the NAIA Championship game, before he moved on to Boise State where he was assistant head coach under Dirk Koetter for three seasons. At BSU, he coached the tight ends and special teams while coordinating recruiting; when Koetter left BSU for Arizona State after the 2000 season, Hawkins was promoted to head coach. He took the Broncos to four bowl games in five years, with his 2004 team compiling an 11-0 regular season mark and ascending to No. 10 in the national polls; in the most anticipated non-BCS bowl game to date, Boise State dropped a thriller to No. 7 Louisville, 44-40. In the modern history of Division I-A football, only three coaches won more games in their first five seasons than Hawkins (53, bested by Bob Pruett, Marshall; Bob Stoops, Oklahoma; and Pete Carroll, USC). Hawk's Handiwork:

- ♦ COLORADO STREAKS: 2-game plus wins, 2-game plus losses: 2, 11. 3-game plus wins, 3-game plus losses: 2, 4. 4-game plus wins, 4-game plus losses: 0, 2. 5-game plus wins, 5-game plus losses: 0, 1. Longest winning streak: 3, in 2007 & 2008. Longest losing streak: 6, in 2006.
- ♦ Hawkins & Bye Weeks. Hawkins is 8-3 in games following bye weeks, not including bowls (2-3 at Colorado, 6-0 at Boise State). At Colorado, the 2-3 mark includes a 1-2 mark against Nebraska, and a split with West Virginia in 2008 and 2009.
- ♦ Hawkins has been a head coach for 164 games (108-55-1), with that record and 66.2 winning percentage the 17th best in the nation for active coaches with five or more seasons coached.
- ♦ In 15 seasons as a head coach, Hawkins' teams have been shutout just once, coming in his 149th game at the hands of Missouri (58-0). He had never dropped more than two games in a row in the same season (which happened just three times) until his first season at CU and won at least eight games seven times (10-plus four times).
- ♦ Hawkins tells his players: "You're in America, you're going to college, you live in Colorado. You have it better than 90 percent of the people in the world."
- ♦ Hawkins has used the term "conflama" when referring to some people's desire for conflict and drama (the reason someone like Jerry Springer and that lot is even on the air). He references it when people on the outside of a program choose to look at the negative without choosing to understand why something may very well be the way it is.
- ♦ Hawk on depth charts: "To be honest, we really don't pay too much attention to depth charts, we run a lot of personnel in and out of there at several positions. For example, I view the defensive line like hockey; they're playing in shifts as we want them fresh." As a result, especially on offense at receiver, tight end and in the backfield, CU utilizes different "groupings" as opposed to following a depth chart.
 - ♦ Hawk on the vertical passing game: "I love the long pass. As I've come along in this game, I've learned you've got to pound it and launch it."
 - ♦ Hawkins believes the four most important positions on a football team are the offensive and defensive lines, quarterback and cornerback.
 - ♦ Hawk's philosophy on big wins, like CU's 27-24 over No. 3 OU in 2007: "You enjoy it on Saturday, but come Sunday, it's in the vapor trail."
 - ♦ One of his beliefs is, "Once is a mistake; twice is a behavior." He applies it to football, whether for things on or off the field, and to life.
 - ♦ Hawk's response about potential for disaster after the 0-3 start in 2006: "There's always potential. When you get in your car and get out on the freeway, there's potential for disaster. I knew when I left Boise State there was potential for disaster. That doesn't scare me... there's also the potential for greatness. So you can hide behind the shadow if you want, but that's not living."
- ♦ Versus' Ron Thulin on Hawkins' optimism: "His glass isn't half-full, it's overflowing. He's not going to change. He said they are going to keep fighting and doing the little things everyday. I think everyone on our crew was ready to put on a football helmet after talking to this man yesterday. He is excitable and he cares." Chimed in analyst
- ♦ As with many coaches, at the end of practice, the team will run for turnovers, mistakes, missed field goals, etc. One day in 2006 after PK Mason Crosby missed a kick within his range, Hawk felt a little bad as he wondered to himself, "How many coaches are making their kids run for a missed 64-yard field goal?"
- ♦ Hawkins is one of the Division I-A coaches voting in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll (the ninth straight year he is a voter and the 23rd straight CU's coach has voted).

In 2006, 10 programs hired new head coaches, including Colorado (with Northwestern being the 11th to do so when head coach Randy Walker passed away unexpectedly in July '06). The coaching staff is split between the sidelines and the press box. Upstairs are offensive coordinator Eric Kiesau, secondary coach Greg Brown, outside linebackers coach Bob Foster, graduate assistants Paul Creighton and Skyler Fulton and technical assistants Brad Bedell and Ashley Ambrose. Head coach Dan Hawkins wears a headset on the sideline, along with defensive coordinator Ron Collins, linebackers coach Brian Cabral, offensive line coach Denver Johnson, running backs coach Darian Hagan, defensive line coach Romeo Bandison and special teams/tight ends coach Kent Riddle. Plays are generally shuttled in from substituting players.

Associate head coach and linebacker coach Brian Cabral has taken his place among legendary assistant coaches who have spent time at Colorado. He is in his 20th full-time season (301 games), he is now the longest tenured assistant coach in Colorado all sports history. A closer look at the top eight in football:

ASSISTANT COACH LONGEVITY: 1. Brian Cabral 19 (1990-current); 2. Frank Potts 18 (1927-39, 1941-43, 1946-47) and Frank Prentup 18 (1941-58); 4. Dan Stavely 15 (1958, 1963-76); 5. Chet Franklin 12 (1963-74), Mike Hankwitz 12 (1985-94, 2004-05) and Alva Noggle 12 (1920-31); 8. Marshall Wells 11 (1948-58).

Versus' Ron Thulin said about Cabral: "He's one of the great individuals. Besides being an outstanding football coach he has been the barometer for this football program for the last two decades. He teaches a lot more than just football to these players and that's why Dan Hawkins kept him on the staff. He's one of the best in the business."

HAWKINS, CU AGREE TO CONTRACT EXTENSION

In 2008, the University of Colorado extended Dan Hawkins contract through the 2012 season, athletic director Mike Bohn announced October 7. Hawkins was named the 23rd head football coach in Colorado history on December 16, 2005, and originally signed a five-year, $4.25 million contract that was effective January 1, 2006, through December 31, 2010, not including incentive compensation for academic progress, student citizenship and community outreach, along with various performance incentives ranging from rewarding bowl appearances to winning conference and national championships.

The new contract was effective as of July 1, 2008 and runs through January 31, 2013, with the guaranteed compensation package for fiscal year 2008-09 to include base salary ($174,720); radio, television and public appearances ($514,500); sponsorship support ($210,000); and football camps ($52,500) for a total of $951,720, prior to performance incentives. Those incentives includes academic progress toward graduation of football program athletes; meeting performance objectives in the area of player welfare and development; development of football program outreach; participation in the Big 12 Conference championship game; league and national titles and bowl participation and wins; and competitive success, e.g., if he is named the conference or national coach of the year.

EXPERIENCE

Colorado's 2009 coaching staff is youthful, yet experienced. Through November 21, the 10 full-time coaches who comprise the Colorado coaching staff have coached a collective 115 seasons in Division I-A and have combined to coach in 1,254 games (with a record of 672-569-13, 541). The aggregate age of the 10 is 471 years, thus making the average age 47.1; outside linebacker coach Bob Foster is the elder statesman at 68, followed by associate head coach Brian Cabral (53) and secondary coach Greg Brown (52). Five of the coaches are 40 or older, including head coach Dan Hawkins (49), and five under, with offensive coordinator Eric Kiesau the youngest (36). Kiesau is the 10th youngest coordinator in the Division I-A/FBS ranks, the seventh most youthful on the offensive side; a closer look:

FOURTH ALMOST ALWAYS A WINNER

Dan Hawkins is the 11th head coach in CU history to coach at least four seasons this fall. The 10 coaches who previously reached year number four generally had winning teams, with eight posting winning records and a ninth going .500; the 10th? That was the 1938 team coached by Bunny Oakes that had to replace Mr. Everything, Byron "Whizzer" White, and it still managed to go 3-4-1. On two other occasions when coaches were asked to rebuild the program, Eddie Crowder had his first winning season in his third year (going 6-2-2 in 1965), following that up with a 7-3 campaign his fourth year, while Bill McCartney enjoyed his first winning year in his fourth season at the helm.

THE AVERAGE BUFF

The 113 players on the 2009 opening week roster (active and inactive, as of August 31 and including those walk-ons set to join the team after the first game) totaled 8,273 inches in height and weighed 25,805 collective pounds, or an average of 6-1½, 228 pounds per player (within a half inch and 3 pounds of the average number each of the last six seasons). The 8,273 inches translate roughly into 689 feet or 230 yards, about the average distance of a par-three hole on the PGA Tour, while the weight of 25,805 pounds is the equivalent of 103,220 quarter-pounders at McDonald's. Here's a look at position-by-position averages (LW—denotes lettermen):

Position (Seniors)	Players	LW	Height	Weight	Position (Seniors)	Players	LW	Height	Weight
Cornerbacks (2)	9	4	5-11½	192	Quarterbacks (0)	5	2	6-2	208
Defensive Ends (0)	7	3	6-3	256	Safeties (0)	10	4	5-11	197

Outside Linebackers (0)	6	3	6-1	226

At six of the 14 positions, CU has no seniors, most notably on the offensive line; three others have just one set to graduate.

HEAD COACHING FATHERS AND THEIR PLAYER SONS

There have been 64 known players in Division I-A (FBS) history who have played for their head-coaching fathers in college, including 23 quarterbacks and six active pairings, according to a survey of I-A sports information departments. The count includes CU head coach Dan Hawkins and his oldest son, Cody.

The most famous and perhaps best head coach father (HCF) and quarterback son (QBS) tandem in NCAA history is Jim and Kevin Sweeney at Fresno State. Kevin played for his father from 1982-86, when he became the first player in NCAA history to throw for 10,000 career passing yards (Jim was FSU's head coach for 19 years, retiring No. 17 on the all-time win list with 200 in his 32-year coaching career). The most famous "near-miss" happened at Stanford, where John Elway played quarterback from 1979-82 and his father, Jack, took over as head coach from 1984-88. And at Marshall, when they were a I-AA powerhouse just before moving up to I-A, Todd Donnan started at QB for his father, Jim, in 1993-94.

STARTING FROSH. Cody started the first game of his redshirt frosh year, which made him the ninth known son at the time to start at quarterback for his head coach father in I-A/FBS history, and just the third freshman to do so. Kevin Sweeney started the first two games of his true freshman season at Fresno State in 1982, but was injured in the second game and granted a medical hardship for the season; he came back to start as a redshirt frosh through his senior season. Tim Sale started all 11 games of his true frosh year at Minnesota in 1980; he lettered that year, but played sparingly thereafter. There are two other active HCF-QBS combos, at North Texas where Riley Dodge is starting this season as a redshirt frosh, playing for his father, Todd; and at Arkansas, where Nick Petrino is a reserve for his father, Bobby (upping the count to 11 quarterbacks, four of which were freshmen). %—The elder Brewer moved on to Mississippi in 1983 and son followed.

While this is the first time that CU has had the head coach father-player son active combo, the Buffaloes have seen it against them in the past. Iowa State (Criners), Kansas State (Dickeys, Snyders), Oklahoma State (Simmons) and perhaps one of the most famous father-son duos, Lee and Steve Corso at Indiana. When confirming with Lee, he was pretty proud that Steve caught the game winning TD in a 36-30 win against Kentucky his senior year, and reminded us that he had two pretty good games against Colorado (5 catches for 87 yards in a 17-16 CU win in 1979, and 3-for-38 in a 49-7 Indiana win in 1980).

QUARTERBACK BATTLES OVER THE LAST TWO DECADES

The competition for the starting quarterback job this year was really just the seventh real battle in the last 18 years at Colorado, though the fourth time in the last seven seasons (the other times the incumbent was either entrenched or had little competition). Cody Hawkins battled Tyler Hansen this season, with Hawkins pulling ahead a bit the second half of camp with the plan to redshirt Hansen if possible (that was scrubbed when Hansen played the fourth quarter at Texas and then assumed the starting role the following week, leading CU to a 34-30 win over Kansas); Hawkins also beat out Nick Nelson and Matt Ballenger for the nod in 2007. There was a three-way competition for the job in 2006 among James Cox, the initial winner, Bernard Jackson (who would start games two through 12) and Brian White (who quit after the first game). The last time had been in 2003, when walk-on Joel Klatt earned the nod; in 2000, the competition between Zac Colvin and Bobby Pesavento raged from the start of spring ball to the final week of August camp. Colvin was named the opening game starter but four weeks into the season, freshman Craig Ochs came in during the second quarter of the Kansas State game and did not relinquish the role the remainder of the season. In 1998, the first real battle in six years, juniors Mike Moschetti and Jeremy Weisinger and sophomore Adam Bledsoe duked it out for the starting role. Moschetti won the job and Weisinger subsequently transferred to Texas A & M, where he became a free safety. Moschetti was the first junior college transfer to start a game at quarterback for Colorado since 1976, when Jeff Austin started the first three games of the year. Back in 1992, it was a four-way battle between a hero off the bench in junior Vance Joseph, an unknown sophomore named Kordell Stewart, the younger brother of a Heisman winner, Koy Detmer, and a transfer from Illinois, Duke Tobin. Stewart emerged as the winner and held the reins for three years, with Detmer the heir in 1995. John Hessler, of course, subbed for an injured Detmer most of that season and assumed control his senior year (1997). Darian Hagan had piloted the ship from 1989-91, taking over for the dying Sal Aunese after he was diagnosed with stomach cancer in March 1989.

AND MORE—In looking back at CU history, the Buffs have usually had a capable backup quarterback that became a household name. As far back as 1971, when 5-foot-7 Joe Duenas subbed for an injured Ken Johnson to lead CU to a 56-13 win over Wyoming in the second game of the season, Colorado second-team signal callers have made names for themselves. Two years later, David Williams and Clyde Crutchmer dueled for starting honors; in 1976, Austin replaced Jeff Knapple on occasion after Knapple wrestled the starting job away from him; in 1979, Charlie Davis and Bill Solomon battled back and forth; in the early 1980s, Steve Vogel and Randy Essington alternated as starters for three years, with Vogel emerging as CU's all-time passing leader at the time. In the last 1980s, there was the run of Sal Aunese replacing Mark Hatcher, Hagan replacing Aunese, Charles Johnson and Joseph both subbing for an injured Hagan on occasion; Stewart replacing Hagan, and he himself being replaced by Detmer and Tobin due to injuries; and of course, Hessler subbing for Detmer after Detmer replaced Stewart. Perhaps the best examples of this came in the 1991 Orange Bowl, when Johnson replaced an injured Hagan in the second half and earned MVP honors in leading CU to a 10-9 win over Notre Dame which paved the way for Colorado to be named the consensus national champion, and in 2001, when Bobby Pesavento took over the second half of the year for an injured Craig Ochs, and he helped lead the Buffs to their first Big 12 Conference title. That run included Pesavento steering the Buffs to wins over No. 2 Nebraska and No. 3 Texas. And in 2002, Robert Hodge has had to replace Ochs, after Ochs suffered the third concussion of his CU career and eventually left the team.

How did the quarterbacks compare in the six main scrimmages (three each in the spring and fall)? Pretty darn close; take a look:

Quarterback	PASSING							RUSHING
	Att-Com-Int	Pct.	Yds	TD	Long	Sacked	Rating	Att	Yds	Avg.	TD	Long
Cody Hawkins	118-75-1	63.6	1,001	11	50	11/60	163.89	7	27	3.9	0	15
Tyler Hansen	88-53-1	60.2	746	7	70t	16/99	155.41	19	123	6.5	1	23

The two combined for an 18-to-2 touchdown-to-interception ratio, one any coaching staff in the country would love to have one playing for real starts.

2009 SCHEDULE FACTOIDS

- There are 78 games involving 119 FBS teams in week one of the college football season and the Buffaloes are playing in the third-to-last game of the week. The Buffs play in the later of two Sunday games, preceding two Monday games. Additionally, Florida International is the only school with an opening-weekend bye.
- The Buffs arguably have the shortest week when factoring travel into the situation. Clemson, Colorado, Florida State and Rutgers all open at home, but Florida State and Rutgers will also remain home in week two while Clemson will travel just 105 miles from Clemson, S.C. to Atlanta to face the Yellow Jackets. The Buffs will travel 1,137 miles from Boulder to Toledo, Ohio.
- The 28 days that Colorado has between home games (Sept. 19/Wyoming;-Oct. 17/Kansas) ties for the eighth-longest span between home games in 2009. UAB has 37 days (Oct. 1-Nov. 7), Hawai'i goes 36 days (Sept. 4-Oct. 10), while Arizona (Sept. 12-Oct. 17), Georgia (Oct. 3-Nov. 7), Middle Tennessee State (Sept. 12-Oct. 17), SMU (Sept. 5-Oct. 10) and Washington State (Oct. 10-Nov. 14) all have 35-day windows.

SIX DOUBLE-DIGIT COMEBACKS IN HAWKINS ERA

Colorado rallied from 11 down, 21-10, to tie the game at 21 in the third quarter against Texas A&M on Nov. 7, only to see the Aggies score 10 quick points to open the fourth quarter to go back up, 31-21. But the Buffaloes persevered; CU pulled back to within 31-28 on a 7-yard run by TB Demetrius Sumler with 7:14 left, and then took the lead 35-34 on a 22-yard pass from QB Tyler Hansen to TE Patrick Devenny with 2:04 left. The Buffs then held on defense to secure the win, the sixth double-digit comeback in Dan Hawkins' four years as head coach. Five have taken place in Boulder, with the sixth, the first one, in Denver against Colorado State. A closer look:

TURNOVERS ARE INDEED COSTLY

Dan Hawkins, as with most head coaches, believes that when it comes to turnovers, that they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. He has penalties and rewards daily in the practice dependent on the number of turnovers committed or forced. Former CU coach Gary Barnett drilled home to his teams the importance of taking care of the football, which he learned from the legendary Bill McCartney. Statistics back up the argument, as the below shows that it is definitely better to take than to give over the last 21 seasons, in which CU owns the nation's 23rd best overall record:

	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers
				PF	PA	+/-

TWO-MINUTE WARNING

Colorado has scored 134 times in 209 tries, including 23 game winning or tying scores, when the offense has gone into the “two-minute offense” drill since 1988; that’s 64 percent of the time. The Buffs are 8-of-13 in the drill in 2009, highlighted by the game winning score against Texas A&M; other scores include a TD against CSU, two late TDs at Toledo, a late six at West Virginia, a first half field goal versus Missouri a late TD at Iowa State and a first half TD at Oklahoma State (Cody Hawkins is 5-of-7, Tyler Hansen 3-of-6 leading the drill). In 2008, CU was 5-of-10, highlighted by scoring a TD with urgency to tie the game with Eastern Washington scoring twice in the last 9:14 to rally and defeat Iowa State. CU was 9-of-12 in 2007, utilizing the drill to score field goals at the end of each half against CSU, a fourth quarter TD against Florida State (and nearly a second one), once for six before the half versus Miami, for the game winning field goal, though a bit less rushed, against Oklahoma, and twice in the final stages at Iowa State (scoring a TD a nearly the tying field goal), a first half TD against Nebraska and two TDs against Alabama in the Independence Bowl (one in each half); the Buffs were 2-of-6 in 2006. Thus, in the Dan Hawkins Era, CU is 24-of-41 in the drill (58.5 percent). One of the most prolific years in the drill was 1994, when CU was 7-of-8; that included two scores in the final two minutes at Michigan, including that certain play of the decade. Between 1988 and 1994, Colorado was an amazing 61-of-81 in the two-minute offense, with 44 touchdowns. The chart showing CU’s scores:

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 34 seasons. Since 1976 (game 1), CU has protected a two-score lead 213 of 234 times, losing 18 and tying three when it blew the lead. A closer look (*—Disneyland Pigskin Classic at Anaheim):

Colorado has lost only 21 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent losses were at Oklahoma State this year (led 21-17 and 28-24) and in 2008 (at Nebraska, when the Huskers scored 10 points in the final 1:43).

In conference play, only Kansas (1984, 2006), Nebraska (1984, 1998, 1999, 2001, 2008), Oklahoma State (1997), Texas A&M (2004), Baylor (2006) and Oklahoma State (2009) have rallied in the fourth to topple CU in this span. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

➤ Colorado has won 97 of its last 109 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead—and 24 of the last 32. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins between 1993 and 1999 was snapped in 2000 (to CSU; Iowa State also did it later that year).

In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 34 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter (not including coming from 27-3 down against Nebraska in 1999 before losing in OT). The most recent wins of this variety came this year against Texas A&M (won 35-34 after trailing 31-21 with 11:01 remaining) and last year versus Iowa State (won 28-24 after trailing 24-13 with 9:14 left) and Eastern Washington (won 31-24 after being down 24-17). In 2007 CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

DOMINATION

Colorado has only 36 losses to unranked teams since dropping the 1987 season opener to Oregon. On several occasions, teams used the win over the Buffs to gain national notoriety and/or move into the rankings following the win. The Buffs are 96-36-2 in their last 134 games against (AP) unranked teams, along with a record of 127-38-2 in the last 167. The Buffs are 166-96-4 in regular season games since the start of the 1986 Big Eight Conference season (8-9 in bowls); 114-68-3 in Big 8/12 games (including four league title games) and 52-28-1 in non-conference regular season action.

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 28 occasions (and are 22-6 in games when this occurs). It’s happened eight times this decade, most recently against Texas A&M this season (TB Rodney Stewart 118 yards, WR Markques Simas 135). The previous time was at Baylor in 2007 (TB High Charles 109 yards, and WR Josh Smith 103). That was the first time since 2004, when it occurred three times, as it did in 2001, including the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game: TB Cortlen Johnson at Iowa State (172 rushing and 105 receiving); Johnson and TE Daniel Graham did it against Missouri, Graham and TB’s Chris Brown and Bobby Purify all did it against Nebraska. A closer look at this unique list can be found on page 34 of the 2008 CU History & Records supplement.

STARTING STREAKS

ILB Jeff Smart owned the longest starting streak on the team at 32 games, but it was snapped after he sat out the Oklahoma State game with a pinched nerve. The mantle is now held by CB Cha'pelle Brown with 26 straight starts, followed by OT Nate Solder (23) and CB Jimmy Smith (14). CU is still rather young, but this also is a result of what Dan Hawkins thinks of depth charts; he prefers the term contributors, so whatever play they want to run to open a game could feature virtually anyone that fits a particular play or scheme.

EIGHTEEN PLAYERS MAKE FIRST CAREER STARTS SO FAR IN 2009

Eight players made their first career starts in the season opener against CSU (four offense/four defense): OLB B.J. Beatty, DT Curtis Cunningham, DT Will Pericak and SS Ray Polk started the game on defense, while OG Ethan Adkins, WR Jason Espinoza, OT Bryce Givens and C Mike Iltis lined up for the first play on offense. Polk replaced Patrick Mahnke, who suffered a sprained ankle in the previous Friday's practice. And Pericak became the first freshman, true or redshirt, to start a season opener at defensive tackle in CU history. Two others followed at Toledo, as ILB Bryan Stengel and OLB Doug Rippy were in on the defense's first play. WR Markques Simas (Wyoming), C Keenan Stevens (West Virginia), WR Will Jefferson (Kansas), WR Dustin Ebner (Texas A&M) followed suit, and OLB Tyler Ahles, TB Kevin Moyd and TB Corey Nabors all did at Iowa State. WR Andre Simmons (Oklahoma State) was No. 18. Over the last 25 seasons, CU has had as few as six players (1994) and as many as 29 (1984, 15 on offense) make their first career starts in a single year. The high on a single side of the ball came in 1998, when 17 of 27 new starters were on offense. The annual numbers of first-time starters since 1984: ANNUAL FIRST-TIME STARTERS: 1984 (29), 1985 (9), 1986 (15), 1987 (14), 1988 (16), 1989 (7), 1990 (16), 1991 (23), 1992 (15), 1993 (7), 1994 (6), 1995 (11), 1996 (8), 1997 (14), 1998 (27), 1999 (14), 2000 (16), 2001 (12), 2002 (16), 2003 (20), 2004 (12), 2005 (11), 2006 (24), 2007 (18), 2008 (15), 2009 (18).

TWENTY-TWO SEE FIRST CU ACTION IN 2009

Thirteen players saw their first collegiate action in the season opener against Colorado State (19 did so in 2008), though 11 of the 13 saw significant action from scrimmage as opposed to special teams. Two others played for the first time at Toledo, four their first time versus Wyoming and heralded true frosh DE Nick Kasa at West Virginia. Here's the breakdown by class of those players seeing their first CU action in 2009 (*—mainly special teams duty):

TRUE FRESHMEN (5): DT Nate Bonsu, WR Will Jefferson, DE Nick Kasa, CB *Paul Vigo, DE Forrest West

REDSHIRT FRESHMEN (9): OL *Ryan Dannewitz, WR Dustin Ebner, CB *Vince Ewing, OT Bryce Givens, ILB Jon Major, DT Will Pericak, S Ray Polk, OLB Douglas Rippy, OLB *Guy Sergeant

EXPERIENCE ANALYSIS

Upperclassmen started about 61 percent of CU's games in 2008, down a bit from two-thirds in both 2006 and 2007, though seniors accounted for 40 percent of the '08 starts, up from 31 percent the previous year, which was the third lowest figure over a 9-year span. In 2004, seniors started the fewest percentage of games (25.1) since the 1995 team (which had only seven seniors), while 38.8 percent of the starts were made by underclassmen. That showed the youth of the team, especially since underclassmen also had 41.7 percent of the starts in 2003. Fast-forward to 2006-07, Dan Hawkins' first two seasons where underclassmen accounted for 179 starts over the two years, or 33 percent. Over the course of the 2007 and 2008 seasons, 95 freshmen made starts, the most in any two-year period in school history (the old mark was 54 on two occasions, last in 1999-2000). It's historically a cyclical pattern, showing up in breakdown of the starters over the course of the season. A year-by-year look at starts by class since 1999:

TWENTY-THREE SKIDOO

Colorado is one of just 23 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches and the BCS; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list:

GRADUATION STAT(US)

Two of CU's 18 seniors in 2009 have already earned their degrees: CB Ben Burney (Film Studies) and TB/WR Kevin Moyd (Accounting & Management). Ten are on schedule to pick up the sheepskin in December: FB Trace Adams (Communication), Patrick Devenny (Marketing), P Matt DiLallo (Integrative Marketing), SN Justin Drescher (Finance), TE Riar Geer (History), DT Taj Kaynor (Sociology), DT Tyler Sale (Environmental Engineering), TE Devin Shanahan (Economics), ILB Jeff Smart (Sociology) and TE Luke Walters (Geography). Three are on schedule for May graduation, FB Jake Behrens (Finance & Accounting), ILB Marcus Burton (Ethnic Studies) and ILB Bryan Stengel (Integrative Physiology). ILB Shaun Mohler (Sociology) and CB Cha'pelle Brown (Sociology) are looking at no earlier than next summer to wrap up. SN Austin Bisnow (Music Composition) has opted to graduate after four years despite being a junior in eligibility.

► NOTE: Over the last seven years (2002-08), CU has had 120 of its 143 seniors, including medicals, graduate; that translates to 84 percent (with nine of the 23 non-grads still in school and looking to graduate within the next year, while six are in the NFL). NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, i.e., Wayne Lucier ('02), WR Mike Duren ('04), TE Tyson DeVree, FB Samson Jagoras and WR Chase McBride (all '07), but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer. It's one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado.

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado gets most of its players from primarily three states: Colorado, California and Texas (73 percent of the entire roster—82 of 113 players). The roll call of state producers for the Buffs: Colorado 51, California 25, Texas 6, Florida 4, Arizona 3, Hawai'i 3, Idaho 3, Ohio 3, Tennessee 3, Connecticut 1, Georgia 1, Illinois 1, Indiana 1, Louisiana 1, Missouri 1, Nebraska 1, Nevada 1, New Jersey 1, Pennsylvania 1, South Carolina 1 and Washington, D.C. 1. That's 20 states total along with the District of Columbia that has produced the make-up of this year's team. Last year, Army had the most states represented with 37.

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until a 58-0 loss at Missouri last October 25, CU's first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 by Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska.

► CU has scored in 135 straight games at home (last shutout: a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986), and has scored in 132 straight games against non-conference opponents (last shutout: a 44-0 loss at home to LSU on September 15, 1979). The home shutout losses to Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only two times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 274 games (all the way back to 1963).

► CU has been shutout just eight times in its last 489 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only five schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan and Missouri.

► Big 12 Conference Consecutive Game Scoring Streaks (through November 21): Nebraska 175, Kansas State 164, Texas Tech 153, Oklahoma 145, Missouri 88, Kansas 87, Iowa State 75, Texas A&M 74, Texas 70, Oklahoma State 57, Baylor 33, Colorado 14. CU is the last team to shutout both Kansas State (12-0 in 1996) and Oklahoma State (34-0 in 2005).

242 WAS HISTORIC

Colorado's 242-game scoring streak ranks as the ninth longest in Division I-A college history; of the top 16 all-time, nine were started in the 1980s while the other five began in the 1970s. Here's that list, through November 21: (*—329 games including I-AA games prior to joining I-A in 1992):

THREE SENIORS SERVING AS 2009 CAPTAINS

Senior linebackers Marcus Burton and Jeff Smart along with senior tight end Riar Geer were selected as team captains by their CU teammates at the end of fall camp (Aug. 23); all were fifth-year seniors, three-year lettermen and atop of the depth chart at their respective positions. Burton checks in at 6-0, 265-pounds from Channelview, Texas; Geer is a 6-4, 250 pounder from Fruita-Monument High School in Grand Junction, and Smart is a 6-0, 225-pound linebacker from Boulder H.S.

"The leadership throughout this team is really outstanding, so it says something special for these three to be selected by their peers to be at the top of that list," Hawkins said, noting that all players, not just seniors, were eligible to be selected. "All three of these guys have grown and developed their way into being in this position, so it's a well-earned reward on their parts and will handle the responsibilities that come with it well."

Smart is the first CU captain from Boulder since linebacker Barry Remington served in the capacity as both a junior and senior for the 1985 and 1986 seasons. He was a graduate of Fairview High; the last two from Boulder High were linebacker Phil Irwin (1970) and All-America tailback Bobby Anderson (1969). Irwin's son, Heath, also played at BHS and was an offensive guard as a senior in 1996 and served as a captain on occasion when they were appointed each game between 1995 and 1997.

A former walk-on, Smart is the first named captain since 2007, when R.J. Brown earned the distinction; Joel Klatt (QB, 2004 & 2005) and Steve Beck (S, 1986) are the only other one-time walk-ons to be selected as (season-long) team captains in program history.

Geer is the first from Grand Junction to be named a Buff captain since tackle Jerry McClurg served as a senior in 1964; he attended Grand Junction High. Since then, two others from the state's Western Slope have been so honored, defensive end Mike Pruett (Delta High School, 1969) and offensive tackle Matt Miller (Durango High School, 1978).

Burton's selection marks the sixth straight year a player with Texas high school roots will serve as a Colorado captain, as he follows Sam Wilder (OT, 2004), Lawrence Vickers (FB, 2005), Mason Crosby (PK, 2006), Hugh Charles (TB, 2007), Terrence Wheatley (CB, 2007) and Patrick Williams (WR, 2008).

TUFTS IN GRAD SCHOOL, SIGNS ON AS RALPHIE HANDLER

Sean Tufts, who lettered four years at linebacker (2000-03), is back at CU in its MBA program. But he will also be back on the football field, as just the second football player-turned-Ralphie Handler (OG Chad Hammond did the same in 1996 after his career ended due to a back injury). Senior DT Tyler Sale was a two-year Ralphie Handler before joining the team last year as a walk on, the first handler-to-player. "This is a good fit for me," Tufts said. "It's a way to stay involved in the athletic program, get with guys and teach them some of the lessons I've learned." In the opener against Colorado State, he didn't run with her, but was one the handlers stationed to help steer her on the turn toward her trailer, which is fairly dicey duty.

A 265-POUND LINEBACKER?

Not to mention a father for the second time ... Senior ILB Marcus Burton actually does check in at 265 pounds, making him the heaviest inside or outside linebacker in school history (and by 10 pounds). And since he's got around 18 percent body fat, he's also fast, with 4.7 speed in the 40. Marcus and his wife, Krislen, welcomed their second child into the world Sept. 6 as Noah Alanea Christopher Burton was born at 9:59 a.m. at Boulder Community Hospital. They already have another son, Tysen, 2. But now, back to the heaviest linebackers to don a CU uniform (*—now weighs 240, but played at 250 earlier in career):

HANGING 'EM UP

Citing issues with his surgically repaired knee, sophomore PK Jameson Davis decided to end his football career on August 31. He had been struggling with constant soreness in his knee and never fully returned to the player he was prior to the injury. He made 1-of-3 field goals as a true freshman in 2008, after selecting to attend Colorado after serving his Mormon mission. He was CU's No. 1 kickoff man, with 46 total; 31 were returned and 15 went for touchbacks; he had five inside-the-20 and a very respectable 26 inside-the-25. Another kicker, Justin Mihalcin, quit the team on Sept. 22, but he wasn't slated for any action, as he was one of five placekickers on the roster. On Oct. 4, DE Lagrone Shields spoke with the coaching staff and decided to leave the team as well, citing one desire to return closer to his home in Memphis. TB Darrell Scott informed the coaches on Nov. 3 that he was leaving the program for assorted personal reasons, as he will likely return to California where his uncle and former Buff, Josh Smith, relocated after the spring semester.

BIG 12 ANNOUNCES FUTURE BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Big 12 Conference announced Nov. 3 that it has entered into agreements with the Dallas Football Classic and Eagle Bank Bowl for the 2010-13 seasons. Under the agreement terms the Big 12 is guaranteed a spot in the Dallas Football Classic for the 2010 and '12 seasons; and the Eagle Bank Bowl in 2013.

The conference will provide a team to either bowl in 2011 if the conference/team under contract that season is unable to supply an opponent. For 2011 the Dallas Football Classic has agreements with the Big Ten and Conference USA to provide teams; while the Eagle Bank Bowl is partnered with the ACC and Navy.

These bowls join the Tostitos Fiesta, AT&T Cotton, Valero Alamo, Insight, Pacific Life Holiday, Texas, and New York Yankees Bowls in partnering with the Big 12. Beginning in 2010, the Big 12 bowl lineup will feature (opponent):

Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and/or BCS National Championship
AT&T Cotton (SEC)
Valero Alamo (Pac-10)
Insight (Big Ten)

Pacific Life Holiday (Pac-10)
Texas (Big Ten)
New York Yankees (Big East)
Dallas Football Classic/Eagle Bank (Big Ten/ACC)

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 296-13-1 when scoring 30 or more points, along with records of 210-4 with 35-plus points and 194-3 with 36-plus, 171-2 with 38-plus and 109-0 with 43 or more tallies. The four losses with 35 more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993) and Toledo (54-38 this year). Colorado has played 1,136 games in its history, and has registered final point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 68 (and of course 1), and has hit 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ Colorado is 100-58-3 in its last 161 league games, and has the 12th fewest conference losses in the nation since 1989 for schools that have been league members for that time period. Within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
- ➔ Colorado has scored 30 or more points in 112 of its last 256 games, posting a 103-8-1 record. The most recent losses were to Toledo this year (54-38) and at Nebraska to close 2008 (40-31). The Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 172 of these 256 games dating to the start of 1989, going 134-36-2 (CU is 22-60-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns).
- ➔ CU has allowed 441 touchdowns in the 844 times that the enemy has cracked its 20 dating back to 1988; the other 403 times has yielded 212 field goals as well as 191 non-scores. In this time frame, that works to the opponent coming away with nothing 24% of the time when penetrating the CU 20, and three points or less 48% of the time, solid defensive numbers.
 - ➔ Under Dan Hawkins, the opponent has penetrated the CU red zone 169 times, with 97 touchdowns, 44 field goals and 28 non-scores.
- ➔ Since the middle of the 1998 season, the Buffalo "D" has rose to the occasion when the opponent has started a drive inside CU territory. Going back to the last six games in 1998 to the present, CU has allowed just 110 touchdowns out of 279 drives started on the CU side of the 50 (and just 167 scores overall, meaning 112 non-scores). Over the last six seasons, CU's allowed just 126 scores (85 TD/41 FG) in 201 drives started from the 50 on into CU territory (17 scores out of 26 times in 2009, and just 8 TDs).
- ➔ CU has topped 400 yards of total offense in 54 of its last 153 contests (twice in 2009; nine times in the Hawkins Era), as CU has made a habit of it since the start of the 1993 season. In 207 games in this span, CU has gained 400 or more yards 90 times (44 percent). The Buffaloes also have topped the 500-plus yard mark in 43 of the 206 games since the '93 season opener (22%)... and note that CU has played 83 ranked teams in this span.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. The last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year. Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Colorado averaged 5.3 per first down play in 2007, but was inconsistent, gaining five or more yards just 149 times in 382 tries while being held to two yards or fewer 173 times. The average was 5.5 in Hawkins' first year. That dipped to a modest 4.4 yards in 2008; since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just six times (last in 1984) and less than 4.1 just once—3.5 in 1979
 - ➔ Through 11 games in '09, the Buffs' struggles on first down continue, averaging 4.34 yards on first down, 4.0 rushing and 4.7 passing.
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 46 scores by return in the last 133 games (two in 2009, with season highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 67 scores by return in 182 games (59 regular season, seven bowl), or two every five games.
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 13 times in the last 132 games (and 34 times in the last 205, dating to 1993). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in both 1993 and 1994 (the first times ever at CU), as well as in 2001 (228.5/205.9). The Buffs are 34-2 since 1989 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both. Prior to '93, CU had accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 68-58-1 in its last 127 games on grass, dating back to the 1985 season (64-52 in the last 116, including a 39-26 mark at home since Folsom Field converted back to grass in 1999).
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 92-40-3 in its last 135 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 59-30-3 mark in conference games. CU was 0-5 on the fake stuff in 2009; the Buffs are 2-13 on it under Hawkins.
- ➔ CU quarterbacks have traditionally taken care of the football, as Buff slingers have thrown 206 interceptions in 6,478 attempts since the start of the 1993 season, an interception rate of just 3.20 percent (or one every 31.4 passes).
- ➔ The Buffs have been a bit of an enigma on third down defensively dating back to 2003. In 2003, while opponents converted at an ordinary 34.6 percent clip (56-of-162), it's what they accomplished on the ones they made. Opponents gained 966 yards on those 56 makes, or an average of 17.3 per play; otherwise, CU allowed just 61 yards on the other 106 plays, or just 0.6 per. In 2004, opponents were 92-of-205 (44.9%), but gained 1,300 yards on the 92 conversions (14.1 per). In 2005, that number was down a bit to 10.2 on the 73 conversions, but jumped to 12.0 in 2006 (1,022 yards on the 85 conversions).
 - ➔ The trend continued in '07, as opponents had 838 yards on 60 makes (14.0 per), and just 130 on 113 misses (1.1). In '08, opponents had 643 yards on its' 66 makes (9.7 per), and just 78 on the 102 misses (0.8)
 - ➔ Through 11 games in '09, opponents have 885 yards on its' 55 makes (16.1 per), and just 18 on the 105 misses (0.2).
- ➔ Second Down Conversions. In the fifth year of tracking this statistic, trends basically show great success in converting on second down in wins as opposed to losses, whereas often on third down it doesn't seem to translate as much (2009 numbers on page 6 of the stat sheet; 2008 shown below to prove trend):
 - Second Down:
2008 WINS (5)—Colorado: 41-of-125, 32.8%; Opponent 29-of-111, 26.1%.
2008 LOSSES (7)—Colorado: 41-of-155, 26.5%; Opponent 68-of-166, 41.0%.
 - Third Down:
2008 WINS (5)—Colorado: 35-of-77, 45.5%; Opponent 23-of-73, 31.5%.
2008 LOSSES (7)—Colorado: 33-of-104, 31.7%; Opponent 43-of-95, 45.3%.
- ➔ Third Down & 36 Inches. Under Hawkins, CU is 43-of-57 on 3rd-&-1 (75.4%), including 5-of-9 this year. Colorado was 12-of-13 on 3rd-&-1 plays in 2006, and was a bit subpar in 2007 (11-of-17) before rallying to go 15-of-18 in 2008.
- ➔ No Turns Or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 14-0 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover. The latest occurrence of this was in 2007—twice, in the 65-51 throttling of Nebraska and in the 31-26 win at Texas Tech. It also happened twice in 2005, when CU did it in a three-game span (in a 41-20 conquest of Texas A & M and a 44-13 win over Kansas). Those were the first times since 2001, when CU also did it twice (San Jose State and Nebraska). In these 14 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 570-284, with only three games decided by less than 17 points (a 21-16 win at Iowa State in 1993 and the two 2007 games).
- ➔ Colorado rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Since Miami, Fla., converted on a 3rd-and-20 in its 35-29 win in Boulder in 1993, opponents are just 4-of-92 on 3rd-and-20 or more (0-of last-1; Kansas converted on a 3rd-&-29 in 2009). The Buff defense had stopped the opponent 51 straight times until UCLA converted a 3rd-and-30 in 2003, and then 30 straight times before KU made good in '09. The CU offense is 8-of-89 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span.
- ➔ Under Dan Hawkins, the Buffs have scored in 120 of 192 quarters (63 percent) and 4 of 5 overtime periods. All told, dating back to 1993, CU has scored in 589 of 844 quarters (70%). Those numbers include 25 of 48 quarters in 2008 (after 35 of 52 quarters in 2007).

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has 17 seniors on its roster in 2009, and history proved again most, if not all NFL teams pass through Boulder or a road site for CU game every season. In 2009, 52 scouts from 22 teams have so far witnessed the Buffs in person, visiting from Arizona, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Cleveland, Denver, Detroit, Green Bay, Houston, Jacksonville, Kansas City, Miami, New England, New Orleans, N.Y. Giants, N.Y. Jets, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Seattle, Tampa Bay and Washington. Dating back to 2000, all 32 teams have seen multiple CU games in person (414 scouts in the decade-long period).

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 85-50 in its last 135 games against teams who were not undefeated at the time of the game;
- ❑ Colorado is 74-26 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 66-31-1 in its last 98 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 77-27-2 before crowds under 50,000 since the start of the 1989 season (81-65-2 with 50,000-plus);
- ❑ Colorado is 525-244-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

FOURTEEN TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 14 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. The latest was by redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith, as his 31-yard return of a Joe Ganz pass cut Nebraska's lead over CU to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win in 2007. The one previous was the most spectacular of the lot: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, he was injured early against Washington State, and his sub, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process. Against Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and race 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. Ben Kelly didn't do with an interception, but he did take his first career punt return back for a TD (against Utah State). In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

Eleven games into 2009, the longtime radio voice of the Buffs, Larry Zimmer, has called 455 CU games in his career, including 192 in a row (he's only missed three bowl games, two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts, and three regular season games due to travel conflicts); his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. SID Dave Plati has worked 357 including the last 315 (dating to the '83 finale), while facilities man John Krueger has worked 304 in all (a string of 144 straight ended in 2008). Brian Cabral is the football staffer with the most "Buff" experience, as he has now coached in 256 in a row as an assistant coach; including his playing days (46 games), he has been a part of 302 CU games (celebrating No. 300 with the 35-34 win over Texas A&M). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID and associate AD between 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games in person prior to his passing in 2001; included within that was a string of 268 in a row at one time at Folsom Field. Senior associate AD Jon Burianek, who retired in June 2006, is next as he worked 432 CU football games, including a closing run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home; he'd seen 453 all told at the time he left CU). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; he saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 22 former Colorado Buffaloes on National Football League rosters as November 22. There were 23 on the rosters at the end of the 2008 season (28 in 2007). CU has continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last 21 years of NFL talent, and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002, coming in 10th, ironically with the same number (29) as were playing in 2006 (when it was 19th). CU led the Big 12 in this area in the first four years of the conference's existence, was second in 2002 and 2003, and was third seven other seasons (including 2004 through 2007). Nationally, CU was in the top four between 1996-99 (fourth in 1996-97-99, third in 1998). The active list (♣—denotes one-time Buffalo who finished at another school; 2R—denotes second-year rookie; i—denotes on injured reserve; wi—waived-injured status; club still owns rights but player does not count against roster maximum; p—practice squad):

AND IN CANADA? Three former Buffs are making livings north of the border in the Canadian Football League, as C Marwan Hage is in his sixth year with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats and TB Hugh Charles is in his second with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders. DE Gabe Nyenhuis is also with Saskatchewan, but is on the practice squad.

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Six former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the six who head prep programs: Dave Logan (Mullen), Mike Marquez (Northglenn), Bill Mondt (Eaton), Tom Tesone (Bishop Machebeuf), Ron Woolfork (Denver East) and Scott Yates (Kent Denver).

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepis). All played, and three remain on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

➔ CU has had 257 players drafted into the NFL; that's 20th all-time, and fourth among Big 12 schools behind Oklahoma (339), Nebraska (331) and Texas (316); Notre Dame leads with 462, one more than second place USC. OU is fourth, NU sixth and UT ninth; Texas A&M is right being CU in 21st with 255.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE?

In recent times, CU has been a solid conduit to the National Football League when it has come to linebackers, encroaching a bit on the title justifiably thrown Penn State's direction. However, some research has indicated CU may very well be the place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 22 of 29 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with three others who started just one season):

McKNIGHT, SMART THE LATEST IN LONG LINE OF WALKONS TO RISE TO FIRST-TEAM

After the NCAA started reducing the number of scholarships from 95 to 85 (completed in 1992), more and more players have had to make their bones starting as walk-ons. Here's a short list (27 count) of some of the standout former walk-ons at Colorado:

Scotty McKnight	WR	2006	2L	First freshman wide receiver to ever lead CU in receiving (43-488, 4 TD), approaching top 10 in catches and yards
Aric Goodman	PK	2008	1L	In his first season, he was awarded a scholarship after making the game-winning FG versus West Virginia
Jason Espinoza	WR	2008	VR	Suffered two breaks to his collarbone in '08, playing briefly in-between; co-first team WR in '09

CLOCK RULE CHANGES

The third major change in how college football is timed did not have as big an effect in games involving CU in 2008 as they did in 2006, but the number of scrimmage and total plays remain down from 2007. While not large in number, scrimmage plays were 4.1 per game and total plays by both to 3.7, CU did run a no huddle offense last season as compared to other years. Thus, we'll chart again in 2009 with the Buffs returning to a regular tempo offense; there was a big drop in plays, both overall (152) and from scrimmage (123), in the '09 opener versus CSU, but the numbers have rebounded since. The average game time was down 16 minutes between 2007 and 2008 (3:15 from 3:30), and is the second lowest in the seven years examined below. Here's a look at some regular season numbers over the last six seasons to compare; the NCAA rules committee started tinkering with the clock for the 2006 season and has changed them for each season since:

Season	2002	2003	2004	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009

BUFFS AGAINST THE BEST

Here's a look at how CU has fared all-time against nationally ranked teams (Associated Press poll):

Games	All-Time Record	1989-09 Record	Dan Hawkins Record	Coach With The Most Wins
versus Top 5.....	12-50-2	8-17-1	1-2	5 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 10.....	25-86-3	14-30-2	1-4	8 / Eddie Crowder & Bill McCartney
versus Top 15.....	37-108-3	20-40-2	1-9	10 / Bill McCartney
versus Top 25.....	69-140-3	43-59-2	3-13	20 / Bill McCartney

CU, Nebraska and Texas have been the saving grace for the Big 12: the 14-year old league owns a 37-82 record against ranked non-conference opponents (including bowls) since its inception in 1996, and the Buffs own nine of those wins. CU is 9-12 against ranked non-Big 12 foes; Nebraska is 8-7, Texas 7-6, Missouri 3-5, Oklahoma 3-6, Kansas State 2-5, Kansas 1-3, Baylor 1-5, Oklahoma State 1-6, Iowa State 1-8, Texas Tech 1-10 and Texas A&M 0-9. CU has played 21 of the 119 games, with Nebraska next with 15 followed by Texas (13).

Against all-non league foes (non-conference opponents and bowl games), the records are: Nebraska 47-9, Texas 46-10, Kansas State 43-11, Oklahoma State 39-12, Missouri 41-11, Kansas 38-12, Oklahoma 40-15, Texas Tech 41-16, Texas A&M 37-17, Iowa State 33-18, Baylor 28-19 and Colorado 29-26 (remember traditionally CU plays one of the Big 12's, and the nation's, more challenging schedules and has avoided scheduling automatic wins for non-league games).

BUFFALO ROUNDUP BECOMING TRADITION

The 2007 Colorado Buffaloes started two new traditions that caught on. First was upon the team's arrival at Folsom Field prior to home games, instead of the busses just pulling up and unloading the team at the Dal Ward Center, the team is dropped off at Libby Hall off of Colorado Avenue (approximately 2 hours and 20 minutes prior to kickoff). At that point, the Buffalo Roundup commences; the team walks over to the stadium through the plaza area between Folsom and the MCDB (biology) building, touching the bronze buffalo along the way and accompanied by the pep band. They then enter the stadium at Gate 1 and proceed to the lockerrooms to get dressed for the game. The initial Buffalo Roundup was prior to the Florida State game, and that same night the fans were asked to wear black for the national TV audience and it gave the stadium a unique look. That also was popular; West Virginia was the 2009 Blackout opponent with 2009's TBA.

THE VERTICAL GAME

Dan Hawkins noted that one thing missing from CU's offense his first season in 2006 that was prevalent of his past offenses at Boise State was the vertical passing game. "By the end of the season, we'd always be up in the 70s or 80s in the number of pass plays over 20 yards," he said. He was definitely on mark with his assessment. In 2006, CU had just 35 total, 18 rushing and 17 passing, the Buffs' fewest overall 20-yard plays since 2000 (38) as well as pass plays of 20 yards or more since 2002 (23, also the last time CU had a quarterback quit the team after the season began). Colorado did have 18 rushing plays of 20 yards or more, and while not an overly large number, it was its most since 2002 and higher than nine of the totals in the 13 season snapshot below. In 2007, CU had 58 plays of 20 yards or longer (66 percent more than in 2006, more than doubling the pass play count). But in 2008, the Buffs went the other direction, with just 40 plays of 20 yards or more, reflective of the troubles CU has had on offense when it comes to consistency, with just 39 in 11 games in 2009. Here's a look at CU's 20-plus plays in recent memory, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass
1994	76	37	39	1998	40	11	29	2002	58	35	23	2006	35	18	17
1995	61	11	50	1999	57	12	45	2003	47	5	42	2007	58	18	40
1996	64	12	52	2000	38	8	30	2004	48	13	35	2008	40	8	32
1997	46	9	37	2001	58	21	37	2005	54	16	38	2009	39	6	33

ZIMMER HONORED WITH CHRIS SCHENKEL AWARD

The longtime voice of the Buffaloes, Larry Zimmer, was honored during CU's season opener as this year's recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award. The Schenkel Award is named in honor of its first recipient, the long-time play-by-play man for ABC Sports, who's life-long commitment to excellence in broadcasting and longstanding association with The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame reflect the achievements and spirit the award embodies. It seeks to recognize a sports broadcaster who enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution, and to recognize broadcasters with direct ties to college and universities rather than strictly national broadcasters. Zimmer is the 15th recipient of the award, begun in 1996 when the inaugural one was presented to its namesake. "It is certainly the highlight of my career because it recognizes two of the things that I love the most, and that's broadcasting college football and my association with the University of Colorado through the years and all the people I've met," Zimmer said. The NFF's president and CEO Steve Hatchell, CU AD Mike Bohn, former Big 8 commissioner Chuck Neinas and Colorado governor Bill Ritter presented him with the honor at the first quarter break of the CSU game. The official national presentation will be at the NFF's annual dinner in December.

FOLSOM HAS GONE "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals.

According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process.

A major contributor to this initiative is Eco-Products, who supplies compostable food service items to the stadium. Made from plant starch materials, the cups, plates and cutlery turns back into soil in as little as 45-90 days in CU's composting facility. The Eco-Products' educational team is stationed at the trash, recycling and composting bins during CU games to bring awareness to the effort and help attendees properly dispose of their waste. Eco-Products is the nation's largest supplier of compostable items made from renewable resources.

ANOTHER CHANCE OR TWO VERSUS THE TOP FIVE IN '09?

Marking the 40th anniversary of CU's first win ever against a team classified as a top 5 opponent, there are five Big 12 teams in the nation's preseason top 25, three in the top 10, four on CU's regular season schedule as of now. The Buffs are 12-49-1 all-time versus the top five (0-10 vs. No. 1; 2-14 vs. No. 2; 6-11 vs. No. 3; 2-6-1 vs. No. 4; 2-8 vs. No. 5); though are 8-16 since 1989. When assigning those 12 wins (if a player was injured and his replacement led the team to the win, the replacement gets the credit), there's a three-way tie for the lead with two. The nine quarterbacks who have piloted CU to wins over top five programs (Associated Press poll):

2009 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1904 (Oct. 8) Considered one of the biggest wins in the 15-year history of the program, Colorado beats Nebraska in Boulder, 6-0. The game ball remains on display at CU's Heritage Center on campus (third floor of Old Main).
- 1909 The 100th anniversary of CU's 6-0 team, the first of three in a row while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. CU squeezes by the State Prep School and an Alumni squad, both by 3-0 scores, but follow those up with routs over Colorado A&M (57-0) and New Mexico (53-0) before closing with road wins over Colorado College (9-0) and Colorado Mines (16-0).
- 1924 (Oct. 11) The 85th anniversary of the first game at Colorado Stadium (now Folsom Field), a 39-0 win over Regis. Colorado says goodbye to Gamble Field the previous Saturday with a 21-0 romp over Western State.
- 1934 (Nov. 10) The 75th anniversary of CU's 7-6 win over Utah, snapping a nine-game losing streak at the time against its conference archrival. It's the first game that the school is known as the "Buffaloes" following a contest in the school newspaper to come up with a permanent nickname. In the 7-0 win at Denver on Thanksgiving Day, the foundation for future Ralphie's is laid down when students rent a buffalo calf and more or less control it on the sidelines during the win.
- 1949 (Oct. 29) The 60th anniversary of the most wackiest game in CU history when it comes to weather. In a 14-7 homecoming win over Utah, the temperature was 61 degrees at its 2 p.m. kickoff with clear skies. It was overcast by halftime, and by the end of the game, the field was covered in six inches of snow.
- 1954 The 55th anniversary of one of the most prolific rushing offenses in Colorado history, the unit averaging 316 yards per game, ranking third in the nation. John Bayuk (824 yards), Frank Bernardi (668), Carroll Hardy (642), Homer Jenkins (446) and Emerson Wilson (419) combine to average 6.8 yards per carry and 31 touchdowns in CU's 7-2-1 season.
- 1969 The Buffs cap an 8-3 season with an emotional 47-33 win over Alabama in the Liberty Bowl, where CU had to put up with racial slurs from some Alabama fans because Colorado had African-American players and the Crimson Tide were not integrated at the time. Bobby Anderson is moved from quarterback to tailback the third game of the season and goes on to earn All-America honors. On Oct. 25, the Buffs topple No. 5 Missouri, 31-24 in Boulder, the Tigers' lone conference loss of the year.
- 1974 (Oct. 5) The last meeting between Front Range rivals Colorado and Air Force, won by the Buffs, 28-27 at the USAFA. CU leads the all-time series 12-4, but won nine of the last 10 by an average margin of 19 points.
- 1979 (Sept. 8) The 30th anniversary of the Colorado-Oregon game being the first college football game televised on ESPN (tape delay). It was also the first game of the short tenure as Colorado head coach by Chuck Fairbanks.
- 1984 (Sept. 15) The 25th anniversary marking the severe brain injury to CU tight end Ed Reinhardt, who was in a coma for a month after being hurt in the final two minutes of CU's 27-20 loss at Oregon. Reinhardt had caught 10 passes in the season opener the previous week against Michigan State and was the nation's leading receiver, despite CU's new two-tight offense being revealed by the Denver Post in one of those weak "public's right to know" defenses. CU is never the same after the injury and fights its way through a 1-10 season.
- 1989 Following Colorado's first 11-0 regular season in school history and No. 1 national ranking, the Buffaloes play for the national championship in the Orange Bowl against No. 4 Notre Dame, but come up short, 21-6. The Buffs dedicated the season to fallen quarterback Sal Aunese, who died on Sept. 23 after a six month battle with stomach cancer. His replacement, Darian Hagan, leads the team to the first of three straight undefeated seasons in Big 8 conference play and finishes fifth for the Heisman Trophy. The season is defined with back-to-back wins at Oklahoma (20-3) and then over No. 3 Nebraska (27-21).
- 1994 The 15th anniversary of "The Catch," (CU's 27-26 win at Michigan); of Rashaan Salaam winning the first Heisman Trophy by a Buff (Dec. 10); of Chris Hudson winning the Thorpe Award (Dec. 8); of Salaam going over 2,000 yards for the season against Iowa State (Nov. 19); of Kordell Stewart becoming the Big 8's all-time total offense leader (also Nov. 19); of Bill McCartney retiring as CU's head coach (also Nov. 19); and of CU's 11-1 season which saw the Buffs finish as the No. 3 team in the country.
- 1999 The 10th anniversary of Gary Barnett returning to head the program where he spent nine seasons as an assistant (1983-91); along the way, CU defeats at least one ranked opponent for a 12th straight season, plays in and wins its first overtime game in its history (46-39 over Missouri) and a monster bowl win (62-36 over Boston College in the Insight.com Bowl) extends CU's bowl winning streak to a nation's best six games.
- 2004 (Oct. 16) Hard to believe it's been five years since Mason Crosby kicked CU's school record 60 yard field goal in a 19-14 win over Iowa State. And 10 years after "The Catch," Joel Klatt and Ron Monteilh hook up for the exact same distance—64 yards—with five seconds left to give CU a 38-31 win over Kansas State. Colorado, 1-4 in league play entering November, rallies to win the Big 12 North Division.

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes will begin their 120th season of competition having played 1,136 games with an all-time record of 666-434-36. CU currently stands 17th on the all-time win list and is 23rd in all-time winning percentage (.602; 21st for those schools with at least 50 seasons in Division I-A). Only Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska from the Big 12 rank ahead of CU on each list, and only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado. In Boulder, the Buffs are 292-143-10 in their 86th season on the "hilltop" (Folsom Field). Against Big 12 opposition, CU is 253-227-13 against the other 11 members of the conference, formed in 1996.

MONTHLY TAB

Dating back to 1989, the Buffs are 52-27-1 in their last 80 November games (46-17 in November against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-10-1 against NU in turkey month). CU is 49-26 in its last 75 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU annually plays, and is 4-2-1 in August games in its history. The Buffs are 50-33-2 in their last 85 October games, when conference play annually comes into full bloom. CU is 5-7 in December games since 1993, including bowls.

OVERTIME

Colorado is 5-4 all-time in overtime games; the Buffs became the 84th team in Division I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first ever extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas this year, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) dropped a 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) fell to CU 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21.

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 12 Division I-A schools. The list: 5—Air Force; 4—San Jose State; 3—Minnesota, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—California, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Notre Dame, Oregon State, Texas Tech and UCLA. CU's longest current losing streak is to Southern Cal and Texas (5), followed by LSU and Missouri (4) and Florida State and Michigan State (3 each).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had seven different players win nine trophies over the last 19 seasons, which is the 11th most nationally when it comes to trophies. But when it comes to different players who have been honored, only Ohio State (12), Oklahoma (10), Miami, Fla. (9), and Florida State, Nebraska and Texas (8) top the Buffs' seven. The postseason "hardware" includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott and Hendricks (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage and ARA Sportsmanship awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2008 (players only; LSU and Michigan players split the 2004 Rimington Award and thus were both compensated for in the trophy count):

INSIDE-THE-POLL NUMBERS

Colorado has been ranked 12 times in the last 21 seasons in the Associated Press preseason football poll (just missing three of those occasions, No. 27 in 2001 and No. 32 in both 2003 and 2005). CU had appeared in every AP preseason ballot between 1989 and 1997, ranked in the top 15 each year, before not gaining mention in the '98 poll following a 5-6 season. The Buffs reappeared in the '99 poll at No. 15, and rose to No. 14 prior to the season-opening loss to CSU. Only CU, Florida, Florida State, Michigan and Nebraska have been ranked 15th or higher at least 11 times in these 15 years, and CU is one of only 17 teams to be ranked in as many as 12 of the last 21 preseason polls. Number of times ranked in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, 1989-2009: Ohio State 21, Florida State 20, Michigan 19, Tennessee 19, Florida 18, Miami, Fla. 17, Nebraska 17, Oklahoma 17, Penn State 17, Texas 17, Notre Dame 15, Alabama 14, Auburn 14, Georgia 13, LSU 13, Virginia Tech 13, Colorado 12.

LONG STAY

Colorado was one of only two teams to be ranked in every poll (both the Associated Press and Coaches, be it UPI or USA Today/CNN-ESPN) from the 1989 preseason through Oct. 4, 1997 (143 AP polls, 138 coaches). Only Nebraska could also make that claim (CU was second only to the Huskers, as Nebraska had been ranked in 265 straight polls when CU hit the 143 mark). The 143 consecutive polls still ranks as the seventh longest all-time in college football history. In this span, NU held the top spot 16 times and CU seven, with NU winning two national titles and Colorado one.

...AND THE RETURN

CU was out of the polls for an 11-week period once departing after 143 weeks ('97-'98), but came back with a vengeance. When Colorado reappeared in both the AP and USAT/ESPN polls at No. 16 on Sept. 6, 1998 it marked the third highest debut in a poll since the AP ballot expanded to 25 teams in 1989. CU went from receiving votes to No. 16, the second highest CU has ever debuted after not being ranked in the preseason; back in 1971, the Buffs went into Baton Rouge and defeated No. 9 LSU, 31-21. CU appeared at No. 8 in the UPI-Coaches poll and at No. 12 on the AP ballot.

18 OUT OF 22

Colorado defeated at least one top 25 team for 12 consecutive seasons between 1988 and 1999, behind only Florida State for the latter half of the span. Colorado didn't go down easy when the streak ended in 2000, losing to five ranked teams by a combined 45 points (3, 3, 23, 14 and 2). The Buffs started a new streak in 2001, doing so with purpose as they tied the school record for most ranked teams defeated in a single season with five. CU then defeated two ranked teams in both 2002 and 2003 to make it 15 out of 16 years with at least one win over a ranked opponent, but the smaller run ended as the Buffs went 0-4 in both 2004 and 2005 and 0-5 in 2006. CU snapped that streak with a 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in 2007, and with the 17-14 overtime win over No. 21 West Virginia in 2008 and the 34-30 verdict over No. 17 Kansas in 2009, it's now 18 out of 22 years defeating at least one ranked program. CU defeated at least three ranked teams in six of those 12 years, including five twice (1990, 1995). The Buffs have defeated at least two in nine of the last 15 years (and three ranked foes five of those seasons).

TV LAND

Colorado has had 168 of its last 244 games dating back to 1990 broadcast nationally or regionally (69 percent), including the first nine games this season and 10 overall. Since 1996, when the Big 12 began, and not including pay-per-view, 131 of CU's 171 games have been either nationally or regionally televised, which is an impressive 76.4 percent (the second most in the Big 12 Conference in this time frame). In addition, CU has had 31 of its last 37 non-conference games televised on a national or regional basis (tops in the Big 12). ANNUAL TV APPEARANCES SINCE INCEPTION OF THE BIG 12 (131): 1996 (10), 1997 (10), 1998 (9), 1999 (9), 2000 (7), 2001 (10), 2002 (12), 2003 (7), 2004 (9), 2005 (10), 2006 (7), 2007 (11), 2008 (10), 2009 (10).

CARRYING THE TV TORCH

Colorado and Texas started carrying the torch in the 1990s when it came to scheduling regular season games against traditionally ranked opponents, games most likely to be selected for TV and making the two hits of league revenue that come with it. It's starting to get a bit better, but CU and UT still blaze the trail. Here are the counts (and records) since 1990 when it comes to playing ranked non-league teams (not including bowls): Colorado 28 (14-13-1), Texas 23 (8-13-2), Oklahoma 16 (7-9), Nebraska 15 (8-7), Texas A&M 12 (4-8), Texas Tech 13 (0-13), Baylor 11 (2-9), Missouri 10 (2-8), Iowa State 9 (1-8), Oklahoma State 7 (1-6), Kansas 7 (0-7) and Kansas State 4 (1-3).

BUFF BLEMISHES

Colorado has a history of inflicting blemishes on some of the teams who have traditionally fared well at home. The top five home records last decade (1990-99) belonged to Florida State (55-1-1), Nebraska (62-3), Florida (57-4), Texas A & M (55-4-1) and Kansas State (57-5-1). That's a combined 287-17-3; but of those 20 losses or ties, CU was responsible for five of them. CU won at Nebraska in 1990, at Texas A & M in 1996, and was 2-2-1 at Kansas State in the 90s. The Buffs also snapped the Aggies 22-game home winning streak—started late in 1996, after losses to CU then Texas Tech. In 2001, CU won at Kansas State, snapping a 58-game home winning streak by the Wildcats against unranked teams, and was only the second KSU home loss in a 29-game span. CU almost added Georgia to this list in 2006, but fell 14-13 after leading 13-0 entering the fourth quarter.

18 OF 25

The Buffs have 18 winning (regular) seasons in the last 25 years (1985-2009), matched only by a handful of schools across the nation (6-6 records do not count). The exceptions came in 1997, 2000, 2003, 2007, 2008 and 2009; in 1986, CU was 6-5 in the regular season but finished 6-6 after losing to Baylor in the Bluebonnet Bowl. CU has been invited to bowls in 18 of these 25 seasons, staying home in only 1987, 1997, 2000, 2003, 2006, 2008 and now this year (the first time CU isn't going to a bowl over a two-year span since an eight year drought from 1977-84).

OFFENSE & DEFENSE

Will Anthony Wright be next? Next, as in who will play on both offense and defense in the same game. Last year, Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon was the latest to do so, seeing action on defense (13 snaps at tackle) and offense (3 snaps at guard) at Texas on October 15, 2005; it was the first time it happened for a complete series with no gimmicks or special situations since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993. DE James Garee also trotted in on offense in 2005, catching a pass as an end at Miami. DT Sam Wilder had been the last before 2005, as he caught a 9-yard pass against Kansas State in 2002. DT Justin Bannan, did the same, catching a 12-yard TD pass on his only play at Missouri in 2000. CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards, McGhee didn't catch the one thrown his way). The last offensive skill player to swing over and try some defense was Westbrook (four snaps at strong safety) against Baylor in 1993.

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

SPRING GAME ATTENDANCE

Former CU head coach Bill McCartney has challenged the 1,500-plus in attendance at CU's last two annual recruiting luncheons in Denver to help fill Folsom Field for the spring game. While filling Folsom didn't happen, the 17,800 in attendance in 2008 did set a spring record, with the third most attending in 2009. CU has now had five occasions where 10,000 or more fans attend its final spring scrimmage/game. The previous mark stood for 19 years, a crowd of 13,642 in 1989 when many came out to honor Sal Aunese, the CU quarterback stricken with stomach cancer the previous month. The next two games drew 11,336 and 10,382 respectively. The national average worked to 12,996 in 2008 and 14,407 in 2009. Below are the top CU spring game crowds in the school's history (#—first team Varsity and Alumni were on the same team and wore black jerseys):

Year	Score	Attendance	Notes
2008	Black 28, Gold 17	17,800	A record crowd come out in answer to coaches Hawk and Mac's challenge to fill Folsom
1989	#White 38, Black 35	13,642	A then-record crowd for the spring game showed up to honor Sal Aunese, who fighting stomach cancer
2009	Black 17, Gold 10	11,700	Third largest spring crowd despite going up against a Nuggets playoff game and the NFL Draft
1990	#White 27, Black 25	11,336	Coming of an 11-1 season, CU was in everyone's top five entering 1990
1991	#Black 21, White 17	10,382	Fans braved 49 degree weather with 17 mph winds and saw the late John Zisch ('48) score on a 53 yard run
1992	#Black 44, White 7	9,617	Perfect weather (61 degrees, sunny) come out after CU signs its top recruiting class in history

In Hawk's first two years, the spring game attracted 6,400 (2006, cloudy skies, temperature in the low 50s, very windy) and 5,800 last year (perfect weather, 60 degrees, clear skies, just a bit windy at times).

OPPONENTS IN 2009

Colorado's 2009 opponents combined for an 82-70 record in 2008 (53.9%), with two teams winning double figure games and three others all going 9-4. Two others were above .500 to give CU seven teams with winning records on its' 2009 slate. All seven of those schools went to bowl games, and they collectively posted a 6-1 record. CU will play four teams with new head coaches (Toledo, Wyoming, Kansas State, Iowa State). The Buffaloes will play two non-league games away from home (Toledo, West Virginia) for the first time since 1994 (Michigan, Texas), and will be playing two regular season games in the eastern time zone for the first time in their history.

OPPONENTS WERE CORRALLED

Colorado allowed just five plays from scrimmage of 40 yards or longer in 2006 (three pass, two rush); those were the fewest since the 1987 season, when the Buffs surrendered just four (two rush, two pass). In 2007, CU was doing as well, but with Missouri having three of that length and Iowa State one, CU wound up allowing 11. Over the past 20 years, CU has limited the foe to six three times (1991, 1994, 1995) and to seven seven times (last: 2005). The 12 allowed over the 2005 and 2006 tied the second fewest over a two-year span (11 over the 1987-88 seasons; 12 previously in the '94 and '95 campaigns). The seven allowed in '05 were reduced from 14 in 2003 and 15 in 2004, as opponents had piled up 70 plays of 40 yards or longer from 1999-2004 after allowing just 83 between 1987 and 1998. The three-year total from 2005-07 was thus just 23, the lowest for any three-year span since this stat can be tracked.

➔ 2008: CU allowed 11 plays over 40 yards, seven rushes but just four passes.

➔ 2009: CU has allowed 15 plays over 40 yards, 10 passes and five rushes (though just four in Big 12 play after 11 in the first four games).

Week Fourteen (Dec. 5)

Big 12 Championship Game at Arlington (ABC), 6:00 p.m.

Home team in CAPS. All times listed are MDT/MST. *—denotes Big 12 Conference game. Television selections Oct. 3 and beyond are made on 12 days notice by the Big 12 television partners (ABC/ESPN, Fox Sports Network, Versus); ABC also has an option of utilizing a 6-day selection process three times annually. ABC's standard afternoon regional telecast window is at 1:30 p.m. MT in addition to a number of prime-time windows (6 p.m. MT; those games will be selected from the Big 12, ACC, Big East, Big 10 or Pac 10). FSN provides national coverage via its lineup of 11 regional cable systems in both the morning (10 or 10:30 a.m. MT) and prime time (4:30 or 5 p.m. MT) windows, and on occasion may move a game into the afternoon window (1:30 p.m. MT) should ABC opt to pass on a telecast in that time slot. In all, FSN will televise between 22-24 games during the 2009 season with projected afternoon windows on Sept. 12-19-26, Oct. 3-10-24-31 and Nov. 7-14-21-28. FSN is scheduled to carry games in prime time on Oct. 17-31 and Nov. 14-28 (the 28th is tentative). ESPN has sublicensed six games from FSN on Sept. 5, Oct. 8-10-17 and Nov. 19-21 with telecasts generally slated between 4:30 and 7 p.m., MT. VERSUS has sublicensed an additional five games in 2009 from FSN and will telecast on Sept. 19, Oct. 24-31 and Nov. 7-14, primarily at 10:30 a.m., MT. In addition, the Big 12 has entered into an agreement to allow institutions to authorize telecast of games on Fox College Sports (FCS) and pay-per-view in available windows.

CU-CSU NINTH TOP FSN-ROCKY MOUNTAIN BROADCAST; SECOND HIGHEST RATED COLLEGE GAME ON NETWORK

FSN Rocky Mountain delivered the ninth-highest-rated live event in the network's history recording an 11.5 rating during Sunday's Colorado-Colorado State football game. It also is the second-highest-rated college football telecast on FSN Rocky Mountain, behind the 2008 CU-CSU game which registered a 12.3 rating. The high-rating for the annual in-state rivalry game comes less than two weeks after the network recorded its highest-rated Colorado Rockies telecast (9.7 on Aug. 25).

According to FSN's analysis of Nielsen Media Research data, Sunday's telecast generated an 11.5 rating/24 share in the Denver DMA with an average of nearly 175,000 households tuned in to the Rams 23-17 win over the Buffaloes. It was the highest-rated program through the duration of the game (5:00 p.m. — 8:45 p.m. MT) beating such programs as the 5:00 p.m. local affiliate newscasts on NBC, CBS and ABC, "60 Minutes" (6:00 p.m. — 7:00 p.m.) on CBS and "Spiderman 2" (6:30 p.m. — 9:00 p.m.) on KDVR (FOX 31). The game peaked at a 13.0 rating/24 share (More than 195,000 households) during the 8:15 p.m. — 8:30 p.m. quarter hour.

The CU-CSU PREGAME REPORT presented by Toyota recorded a 7.4 rating and the postgame report followed the game with a 3.2 rating. The pregame report rating is 54 percent higher than the 2008 CU-CSU PREGAME REPORT. The Colorado versus Colorado State football game now owns five spots on FSN Rocky Mountain's list of Top 10 highest-rated college football telecasts. USUALLY IN 'EM

Colorado's usually been in those games it's lost over the last 21 seasons, as of the 98 losses, 45 have been by eight points or less. Missouri, Nebraska and Texas (six times), Kansas State and Oklahoma (four) and Kansas and Florida State (three times) are the only ones who have handled the Buffs by nine or more points more than twice since 1989. CU has really been dominated from the start only 10 times in this stretch (1992 at Nebraska, 1997 at Michigan, 1999 vs. CSU, 2002 vs. USC, 2004 in the Big 12 title game with Oklahoma, twice in 2005, both against Texas, Missouri (2008) and Toledo and Missouri this year. K-State ('00), Texas ('01 & '04), WSU ('03), Florida State ('03), Oklahoma State ('04), Miami and Nebraska ('05) and Texas ('08) put the game out of reach in the third quarter.

CLOSE CALLS USUALLY GOING CU'S WAY

Colorado is 2-3 in 2009 and is 18-13 dating back to the start of the 2003 season when the final margin has been seven or fewer points. These "close calls" include a 9-11 record in the Dan Hawkins Era. Starting with a 22-19 come-from-behind win at Oklahoma State in 2001, which helped propel Colorado to the Big 12 title, the Buffaloes area 22-15 in seven-point or less decisions the last nine seasons.

GAME #1—COLORADO STATE 23, COLORADO 17SEPTEMBER 6 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER—Colorado State stunned Colorado for 20 first-half points and held on to defeat the Buffaloes 23-17 in just the second-ever Sunday night game at Folsom Field before a near-sellout crowd of 53,168 and a national television audience on FSN.

The Rams got things going from the opening gun, marching 80 yards to take a 7-0 lead on the game's first drive. CSU's Grant Stucker hit John Mosure on a 57-yard pass play to set up Mosure's one-yard run just over three minutes into the contest.

The Buffs had some glimpses of life in the first half but hit a wall when center Mike Itlis limped off the field. Cody Hawkins was then intercepted by Elijah-Blu Smith on a pass that caromed off of Scotty McKnight.

CSU converted the turnover into a 14-0 lead when Stucker found Mosure again, this time with a 14-yard scoring pass. The Rams converted on a pair of key third down plays on the drive, the second of which was the touchdown. CSU's big play mentality hit again when Stucker hooked up with Ryan Gardner for a 43-yard completion to the CU 4-yard line, setting up a Ben DeLine field goal to push the lead to 17-0 early in the second quarter.

The Buffs got on the scoreboard by getting a career-long 54-yard field goal from Aric Goodman to pull within 17-3. Ben Burney set up the score with an interception. CSU answered just before intermission by positioning DeLine for a 45-yard field with five seconds left that restored the Rams' 17-point lead at 20-3 at the break.

Hawkins opened the second half by completing a 44-yard bomb to Andre Simmons – his first CU catch – that set up the Buffs at the nine-yard line. From there, Brian Lockridge took a pitch right and went into the end zone untouched to cut the deficit to 20-10 less than two minutes into the second half.

Hawkins again found his passing touch on the next drive, moving the Buffs to the Rams' 18-yard line where McKnight caught a pass before an apparent helmet-to-helmet hit. Initially called down by contact, the play was overturned and ruled a fumble.

CU's defense kept the Buffs in the game. After a pair of three-and-outs, Jeff Smart came up with a critical interception but the Buffs weren't able to take advantage before CSU got a 45-yard pass from Stucker to Rashaun Greer down to the Buffs 4-yard line. The CU defense held at that point and CSU got its final points of the game, leading 23-10 with 8:58 to play.

The Buffs got the ball back with less than four minutes remaining. McKnight, suffering from a concussion, came back in the game to draw a big pass interference penalty before catching a 3-yard touchdown pass from Hawkins two plays later, pulling CU to within 23-17 with 1:57 left to play.

But the Buffs had burned all three timeouts and when CSU's Dion Morton recovered the on-sides kick at midfield, the Rams were able to run out the clock.

This was the final game on either school's campus for a decade, as the schools announced earlier in the week a 10-year contract to move the game back to Denver's Invesco Field beginning in 2010.

Playing from behind, the Buffs managed just 68 yards from their four-horsed running back stable. Hawkins finished 24-of-40 for 222 yards and one touchdown with his favorite target being Riar Geer, who had six receptions for 65 yards. The Buffs were just 3-of-14 on third down and were out-gained by CSU 376-to-251 in total offense. Stewart led the Buffs ground game, picking up 38 yards on six carries.

GAME NOTES

TB Darrell Scott rushed for 1 yard on CU's first play of the year, the 48th time in the last 60 years that the Buffaloes called a rushing play to open the season ... C Mike Itlis, seeing his first career action, left the game midway through the first quarter with an ankle injury; his replacement, Keenan Stevens, had not played since 2007, when he saw the only snaps of his career (10) vs. Miami-Ohio ... WR Scotty McKnight extended his streak to 25 straight regular season games with at least one reception; the record is 27 by Charles E. Johnson (1991-93; does not include bowls). He also had his 10th career TD reception, the 13th player in CU history to catch at least 10 ... TB Brian Lockridge's 9-yard TD run in the third quarter was his second career score; it was his first trip to the end zone since a 43-yard run against Miami-Ohio on Sept. 22, 2007 ... CSU outgained CU by 265-63 in the first half, but the Buffs came out and reversed the trend in the third quarter (111-26); CU outscored the Rams 7-0 in the period—last year, opponents jumped the Buffs for a 103-55 edge in the quarter ... CSU was 3-of-4 on third down in the first quarter, then went 0-of-10 the rest of the game (though it snuck in a fourth down conversion along the way) ... Colorado is 0-of-9 on onside kicks after trying one after its last score, last recovering one versus Nebraska on Nov. 26, 1999 ... This was CSU's first win in Boulder since dealing CU a 23-7 setback on the exact same date in the '86 opener ... The 12-yard pass from Cody Hawkins to Scotty McKnight on 4th-and-5 in the second quarter was CU's 12th consecutive conversion on fourth down dating back to the last five games of 2008; CU made its final 11 tries last year in finishing 18-of-25 for the season (the streak ended in the third quarter when Demetrius Sumler was stopped for no gain on a 4th-and-1).

GAME #2—TOLEDO 54, COLORADO 38SEPTEMBER 11 (GLASS BOWL; TOLEDO, OHIO)

TOLEDO, Ohio—Toledo started fast, which is what Colorado intended to do. But by the time the Buffaloes got untracked, their skirmish with the Rockets nearly was over. CU trailed 23-3 at halftime and 37-24 after three quarters before finally succumbing 54-38, dropping to 0-2 on the season in the process.

The long night — the game required 3:48 to complete — was a defensive coordinator's nightmare. The teams combined for 1,075 yards and 92 points (the most ever scored at Toledo's Glass Bowl) in front of 20,082.

Cody Hawkins was knocked woozy at the goal line while scoring the Buffs' final touchdown, a 12-yard run with 1:53 to play. He threw for 356 yards and four touchdowns, but was forced to throw a school record 64 passes (30 completions) and was intercepted three times.

Toledo quarterback Aaron Opelt accounted for 428 yards in total offense (319 passing, 109 rushing), and threw for four touchdowns and ran for two more. He directed the Rocket offense to 624 yards of total offense, 305 of it on the ground. The Rockets had two 100-yard rushers in Opelt (who topped the century mark on just eight carries) and Dajuane Collins (20-160).

Building a 30-3 lead early in the third quarter, the Rockets scored on five of their first six possessions, burning the Buffs deep in what looked like a little déjà vu of five days earlier against Colorado State at Folsom Field. Toledo drove 62 yards in six plays to take a 27-point lead before the Buffs finally answered a Toledo score. Hawkins engineered a six-play, 66-yard march, capped by a 4-yard toss to Scotty McKnight, making the score 30-10.

Opelt & Co. retaliated with a quick 77-yard march, Opelt hitting tight end Tom Burzine with a 23-yard scoring pass. The Buffs finally got a spurt, scoring twice in 20 seconds to pull within 37-24.

After Hawkins hit Jason Espinoza in the end zone to cap 13-play, 60-yard march, Travis Sandersfeld forced a fumble that Jimmy Smith recovered on the ensuing kickoff and then Hawkins hit tight end Riar Geer two plays later to pull CU with two scores. The quarter ended with Toledo facing a 3rd-and-6 from its own 39, and a CU stop might have completely swung momentum to the Buffalo sideline.

But Opelt found a gap on a quarterback sneak and raced 61 yards up the gut to put the Rockets back up by 20 on the first play of the fourth quarter, deflating CU's comeback attempt, and they still weren't satisfied. Collins' 23-yard run with 8:41 to play shot the Rockets ahead 51-24, and Alex Steigerwald added a 43-yard field for a 30 point (54-24) lead with just over 4 minutes remaining.

The Buffs scored twice in the final 2:56, with Hawkins finding Pat Devenny for an 18-yard score. After CU recovered the onside kick, Hawkins scored but was almost knocked out by an illegal hit. Toledo recovered the next onside attempt and ran the clock out.

CU's lone real bright spot in the opening half was Darrell Scott, who carried 12 times for 85 yards. He didn't have a second-half carry as the Buffs shifted to catch-up mode once again through the air. CU ran 18 times in the first half, just twice in the second, Hawkins' TD run and a run on a fake punt by Matt DiLallo. The other "attempts" included two sacks and a muffed center exchange. Aric Goodman accounted for the only score in the opening half, a 32-yard field goal early in the second quarter, though he would miss a 47-yard attempt wide right two series later.

Several records fell for the Buffs, including Scott's 204 yards on eight kickoff returns, breaking Josh Smith's record of 193 yards set just last November at Nebraska. Hawkins set or tied career highs in attempts, yardage, completions, touchdowns and interceptions. McKnight (11 receptions, 114 yards) and Espinoza (eight receptions, 109 yards) both hit the 100-yard receiving mark, becoming 12th pair to accomplish the feat at CU.

GAME NOTES

The official start time was 9:07 p.m.; it turned out to be the second latest kick in school history (9:09, 1991 Blockbuster Bowl); the end time of 12:55 a.m. was the latest ending by a single minute (12:54 a.m., '91 Blockbuster Bowl vs. Alabama) ... At 3:48, it tied for the fifth longest game in CU history (fourth regulation) ... Colorado is now 1-2 in regular season Friday night games played in its history; the other two occurred in 1964 (lost 21-0 at USC) and 1975 (won 23-10 at Miami-Fla.) ... It was just the third game CU ever played in the state of Ohio (1-2) ... CU is also now 7-20 all-time in games played in the Eastern Time Zone, now dropping seven straight; the last win was at Michigan in 1994 (yes, "The Catch") CU is now 5-3 on September 11 and 17-6-1 on the road at non-BCS schools since it joined the Big Seven (nee: Big 8, Big 12) for the 1948 season ... This was the second most points (38) that CU has scored in losing a game (to an 82-42 loss to Oklahoma on Oct. 4, 1980) ... McKnight caught a pass for the 26th straight game, one shy of the school record ... CU had been 0-for-9 on onside kick tries before Jeff Smart recovering one in the fourth quarter; the last successful attempt came against Nebraska in Boulder on Nov. 26, 1999 ... This was just CU's third loss (26-3) when its average field position is its own 40 or better since 1989 (CU 41).

GAME #3—COLORADO 24, WYOMING 0SEPTEMBER 19 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER—The Colorado Buffaloes, apparently feeling comfortable in their silver and gold throwback uniforms, shutout the Wyoming Cowboys 24-0 and got into the win column for the first time in 2009 before 50,535 at Folsom Field. The shutout was CU's first since a 42-0 win over Miami (Ohio) here two seasons ago.

A week after a disheartening 54-38 loss at Toledo, the defensive staff drastically reduced the number of calls to be used against the Cowboys (1-2). Less was more for the Buffs, who did not come close to yielding the number of "explosion plays" that devastated them in their previous two games. Of its 71 plays, Wyoming had only five that gained 10 or more yards. And when it reached midfield and beyond, they were contained: the Cowboys ran 24 plays in "plus" territory, gaining just 39 yards.

Sophomore tailback Rodney "Speedy" Stewart led a CU ground game that finally found itself. He rushed 32 times for 127 yards and two touchdowns in a running game that netted 151 yards (187 before sack yardage).

CU won for the 12th time in 13 meetings with its neighbor to the north and now lead the series 24-2-1.

For the first time in three games, the Buffs took a lead and managed to hold it to halftime. Newsworthy? Consider CU was outscored 43-6 in the first halves of Games 1-2.

But in Game 3, something clicked: the Buffs led 17-0 at intermission, outgaining the Cowboys 206-61 in total offense and 13-3 in first downs. CU finished with 326 yards of total offense to Wyoming's 230, and of that total, only 76 were on the ground.

To open the game, CU drove 69 yards in six plays, with receiver Scotty McKnight credited for a 2-yard rushing touchdown when he picked up Demetrius Sumler's fumble and stepped into the end zone. Not a pretty way to end a drive, but effective nonetheless.

Aric Goodman's PAT put the Buffs in front 7-0 and they had established early momentum. It temporarily faded on their next series, though, when the center snap from shotgun formation sailed over quarterback Cody Hawkins' head.

Wyoming linebacker Brian Hendricks recovered at the CU 18-yard line, but the Cowboys couldn't capitalize when kicker Austin McCoy was wide right with a 35-yard field goal attempt, enabling the Buffs to maintain a 7-0 advantage that held up through the first quarter.

Four plays into the second quarter, CU increased its lead to 10-0, marching 51 yards in 12 plays after a Wyoming fake punt backfired.

McCoy, who also punts, was stopped for a 5-yard gain on fourth-and-eight, giving CU possession at its 46-yard line. The big play: Cody Hawkins converted a third-and-19 with a 28-yard completion to McKnight, and six plays later - with 13:35 left in the second quarter - Goodman hit a 20-yard field goal to push the Buffs in front 10-0.

CU then struck again - and fast. Two plays after Goodman's kick defensive back Jalil Brown recovered Darius Terry's fumble at the Wyoming 27, setting up a 2-yard plunge by Stewart. Benjamin Burney flew into Terry to force the fumble.

CU's defense seemed intent on protecting its shutout in the second half. While the Buffs were forced to punt the first two possessions of the third quarter, the defense held strong.

On CU's third possession of the third quarter, Cody Hawkins (17-of-31, 175 yards) directed a 13-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 6:45 of the period.

To cap it, Stewart ran for his second touchdown, this one from 11 yards and the Buffs were cruising, 24-0. The quarter ended that way, and the game would, too. Wyoming blew an early fourth-quarter chance to get on the scoreboard when McCoy was wide left on a 35-yard field goal attempt.

GAME NOTES

WR Markques Simas finally saw his first action today, and started the game as well ... In addition to Simas seeing his first action, ILB Jon Major saw his first action on defense (he saw some special teams duty at Toledo), ILB Guy Sergeant his first taste of college play on special teams and OG David Clark his first on the final play of the game ... TB Darrell Scott dressed but did not play due to a bruised knee that was aggravated in pregame ... There were nine possessions in the first quarter ... Wyoming did not get its first first down until 11:14 remained in the second quarter (five consecutive three-and-outs preceded it) ... The last time CU held the opponent scoreless in the first half was on Nov. 10, 2007 when the Buffs led 21-0 at Iowa State (16 games) ... CU's last shutout was almost two years ago to the day, on Sept. 22, 2007 versus Miami-Ohio in Boulder (42-0; it was CU's most decisive win since that same game) ... Colorado allowed just 61 yards in the first half, and Wyoming netted zero yards on seven plays run in plus territory (50 on in) ... Wyoming ran 31 plays before posting its first play in double digits, a 19-yard run by Carta-Samuels in the third quarter (and its first 20-yard plus play came on play No. 42) ... WR Will Jefferson made his first career reception (3rd Qtr) ... Colorado is now 12-of-12 in the red zone in 2009 (10 TDs) ... Colorado allowed 624 yards on defense in the previous loss at Toledo; Wyoming gained 230, or 394 yards less, the sixth biggest improvement from one game to the next in CU history.

GAME #4—WEST VIRGINIA 35, COLORADO 24OCTOBER 1 (MOUNTAINEER FIELD; MORGANTOWN, W.VA.)

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. —The West Virginia Mountaineers outran, outscored and ultimately outlasted the Colorado Buffaloes, 35-24, in Milan Puskar Stadium here on a Thursday night ESPN contest, dropping the Buffs to 1-3 on the season.

Aric Goodman, the hero of the Buffs' 17-14 overtime win last season in Boulder, missed a 40-yard attempt on the game's opening possession and then the Mountaineers answered with no hesitation.

WVU running back Noel Devine, on his team's second offensive play, transformed a routine off-tackle play into a 77-yard scoring run, putting the Mountaineers up 7-0 early. On the other side of the ball, CU's Rodney Stewart apparently likes running against the Mountaineers' 3-3-5 stack defense. Last season in what amounted to his coming out party, he ran for 166 yards and he followed that this season by carrying 21 times for 105 yards and CU's first touchdown on a 36-yard run, the longest of his career, tying the game at 7-7.

After that score and an exchange of punts, CU forced the game's first turnover. Outside linebacker B.J. Beatty tackled and stripped West Virginia quarterback Jarrett Brown, then recovered the fumble at the West Virginia 34-yard line.

The Buffs advanced six yards further, and on fourth down, Goodman missed his second field goal of the night - this a 45-yard attempt clanking off the left upright.

West Virginia appeared ready to capitalize, with Jarrett Brown marching the Mountaineers as far as the Buffs 15-yard line. But after a first-down completion there, receiver Brad Starks fumbled and CU nickel back Jalil Brown recovered, enabling the Buffs to escape the first quarter with the 7-all tie.

Colorado was unable to take advantage of West Virginia's third turnover of the first half, this one a fumble that linebacker Jeff Smart covered. The last of the Mountaineers' first-half fumbles nullified an interception by linebacker J.T. Thomas, who picked off a Cody Hawkins' pass but fumbled it away to Scotty McKnight.

That takeaway did lead to CU points as the Buffs completed a 10-play, 32-yard march capped by a Goodman 39-yard field goal to give CU a 10-7 lead.

The Mountaineers answered with a first-down hand off to Devine, who sprinted 56 yards to the CU 24. Four plays later, Jarrett Brown and Jock Sanders teamed for a 6-yard scoring pass and a 14-10 halftime lead.

West Virginia then opened the second half with a score on a 48-yard catch-and-run by Starks to give the Mountaineers a 21-10 cushion. The Buffs quickly responded with Cody Hawkins' 29-yard scoring pass to McKnight on fourth-and-seven as CU crept within 21-17 with 10:02 remaining in the third.

CU's defense held strong but CU botched the ensuing series, being penalized twice before Mountaineer safety Robert Sands intercepted Cody Hawkins on the West Virginia 37. Neither team threatened for the remainder of the third.

The Mountaineers opened the fourth quarter by using Devine. In a 14-play, 69-yard scoring drive, he carried nine times for 50 yards, leaving the final step into the end zone for redshirt freshman Ryan Clarke as the Mountaineers open an 11-point advantage (28-17), and with 9:17 to play.

When CU failed to convert on fourth down at its 15-yard line, Clarke scored his second touchdown two plays later with 2:00 to play to send the Mountaineers safely up 35-17.

The Buffs got their final points on a 20-yard pass from Cody Hawkins to Marques Simas, whose grab in the end zone with :03 left was his second career reception. Hawkins finished 27-of-52 for 292 yards and two touchdowns. McKnight led CU's receivers catching nine passes for 98 yards.

GAME NOTES

Colorado remained perfect in the red zone in 2009 (12-of-12), as the Buffs didn't have a chance in the game (all four scores from outside the zone---36, 29 and 20 yard touchdowns and the 39-yard field goal) ... West Virginia improved to 11-3 since losing in Boulder last year, while CU was 3-10 since that game ... Noel Devine (20-220) is the first player to rush for over 200 yards against CU since North Texas' Jamario Thomas rushed for 247 in Boulder on Sept. 18, 2004 ... WR Markques Simas made his first career reception and also had his first career TD, the latter the 20-yard catch with :03 remaining ... QB Cody Hawkins moved into third place all-time at Colorado in passing yards with 5,630; he vaulted Koy Detmer (5,390, 1992-96) in the game; he also pulled to within one of both the career touchdown (44) and interception (33) records at CU ... Colorado had 10 penalties last time against Wyoming, but cut that in half tonight to five, not committing one until 7:55 remained in the third quarter ... 12 of CU's 21 first downs were earned on third (10) and fourth (2) down ... CU ran 84 plays tonight and 84 last month at Toledo; that makes 18 games this decade (out of 127) that CU has run 80 or more plays; the most in a single season was four in 2001 ... Each team scored in every quarter in the game.

GAME #5—TEXAS 38, COLORADO 14OCTOBER 10 (MEMORIAL STADIUM, AUSTIN, TEXAS)

AUSTIN, Texas—Rallying behind a pair of special teams' touchdowns and another on defense, the No. 2 Texas Longhorns closed the game with 35 unanswered points and thwarted Colorado's upset bid in defeating the Buffaloes, 38-14.

The Buffs held a 14-3 lead with under a minute left in the first half, but gave up a late touchdown to Longhorn wide receiver Jordan Shipley to close the gap before the break. The Buffs then gave up three touchdowns without its defense on the field and a late one with it in the second half for the final score.

CU pulled sophomore quarterback Tyler Hansen's redshirt for the second consecutive season. Hansen entered the game with 14:13 remaining after Cody Hawkins threw interceptions on back-to-back possessions in the third quarter.

The Buffs dropped their Big 12 Conference opener and slipped to 1-4 overall. The Longhorns improved to 5-0 and 2-0.

The Buffs appeared to be in position to take a third-quarter lead or at least tie the game at 17 when safety Earl Thomas stepped in front of a Cody Hawkins' pass at the Longhorns 8-yard line and ran 92 yards for the game-turning touchdown. The game's turning point was the Longhorns' second-longest interception return in history and the fifth longest by a CU opponent. Instead, Texas cruised in front 24-14, and what appeared to be a monumental upset in the making instead shifted towards a routine rout, at least on the scoreboard.

The Buffs momentarily silenced the Longhorns by driving 66 yards on the game's opening possession and taking a 7-0 lead. On the drive's eighth play, Cody Hawkins hit tight end Patrick Devenny with a 25-yard touchdown pass, and Aric Goodman's PAT put CU in front by seven early.

Texas pulled to 7-3 on a 32-yard Hunter Lawrence field goal, but the Buffs blocked a 29-yard Lawrence attempt two series later that would have made it a one-point game.

The Buffs defense provided the half's biggest play with linebacker Marcus Burton sacking and forcing McCoy to fumble at his own 6-yard line with cornerback Jimmy Smith recovering.

After a false start penalty on first down (one of a school record 20 by the Buffs), Cody Hawkins flipped an 11-yard scoring pass to Riar Geer, shooting the Buffs ahead 14-3 and silencing 101,152 at Darrell K Royal-Memorial Stadium.

Cody Hawkins' pair of first-half scoring passes gave him the CU career record (45), surpassing Joel Klatt (2002-05), but his two interceptions gave him that career mark as well (34).

McCoy wasn't finished in the first half and he needed only 2:00 of the 2:46 left before intermission to make it a 14-10 game. His 39-yard touchdown pass to Shipley capped a 78-yard drive and pulled Texas to within four points at intermission.

With momentum on its side, the Buffs were up to forcing a three-and-out on the first drive of the second half and proceeded to keep one of the nation's top offensive teams in check the rest of the game.

But Texas special teams stepped up to the plate. The Longhorns overwhelmed the Buffs on a middle rush, with Marquise Goodwin blocking Matt DiLallo's punt and Ben Wells taking the ball three yards for Texas' first advantage of the night, 17-14, with 8:49 left in the third.

Thomas' interception came just under four minutes later and after Shipley returned a punt 74 yards with 12:29 to play, the Longhorns had opened up a 31-14 lead. Fozzy Whitaker ran 12 yards to send the Horns ahead 38-14 with 6:12 to play to cap the only Texas offensive scoring drive of the second half, the final points of the game.

GAME NOTES

This was just CU's second Saturday game in 2009 (1-1) ... The 59 degrees at kickoff was the lowest-ever for a CU-UT game in Austin (previous temps had been 84, 87, 79, 85, 79, 79 and 85); it was 65 degrees in Boulder for last year's game ... The 38-14 final score matched last year's final; the last time CU had two straight games with the same final score against the same opponent was in 1946-47, when it lost back-to-back games to Missouri by 21-0 scores ... CU is now 12-16 all-time in games played in the state of Texas ... In 14 Big 12 Conference openers, the Buffs are now 7-7 ... The second quarter field goal block by OG Ryan Miller was the first blocked field goal by the Buffaloes since Sept. 10, 2005, when DE James Garee blocked one in Boulder against New Mexico State ... QB Tyler Hansen was under consideration for a redshirt year, but he saw his first action this year on CU's first drive of the fourth quarter. Hansen finished the game directing three drives (14 plays, 9 yards); Cody Hawkins directed for 43 plays for 118 yards ... Colorado held Texas to a season-low 313 yards on offense (just 98 in the second half), the second lowest output by a Buff opponent this fall ... The Longhorns had a healthy 205-50 yard edge in return yards ... Colorado led 14-10 at halftime, its first intermission lead over Texas since the '01 Big 12 title game (when the Buffs were up 29-17). Since that game, UT has owned halftime leads of 14-7, 35-10, 42-3 and 21-0 (or a combined 112-20 in the four games).

GAME #6—COLORADO 34, KANSAS 30OCTOBER 17 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER—Colorado's Cha'pelle Brown batted down a Todd Reesing pass in the end zone on the game's final play, preserving a 34-30 CU victory over previously unbeaten No. 17 Kansas, the 11th ranked, undefeated team since 1989 to visit Folsom Field and leave with its first loss.

The Buffs (2-4, 1-1 Big 12) snapped a two-game losing streak and won their first Big 12 game of the season. CU's defense held KU (5-1, 1-1) to minus-8 yards rushing, but surrendered 431 passing yards with Reesing doing the majority of the work (30-of-51, 401 yards, two touchdowns). KU took a 3-0 lead into the second quarter as both offenses struggled early, going three-and-out on each of their first two possessions.

CU got untracked under quarterback Tyler Hansen, making his first start of the season, near the end of the first quarter. He fashioned a 45-yard drive, and on the first play of the second quarter, CU's Aric Goodman, kicking despite an abdominal strain, hit a 45-yarder to tie the score.

On KU's second play of the next drive, the scrambling Reesing had the football knocked from his grasp when he ran into offensive tackle Jeff Spikes and Will Pericak recovered at the Jayhawks' 3-yard line. One play later, Stewart scored, giving CU a 10-3 lead with two scores just 29 seconds into the second quarter.

Hansen then began to roll, directing an 8-play, 79-yard drive. There were three big plays on that drive: a 20-yard scramble by Hansen, a 36-yard Hansen to Markques Simas completion, and a 12-yard scoring pass from Hansen to tight end Riar Geer.

Hansen then made his first mistake of the night, throwing an interception to safety Darrell Stuckey, but Jalil Brown had his QB's back, picking off Reesing and returning it 35 yards to the KU 1-yard line. Two plays later, Hansen went over right tackle for the touchdown, his first career score and CU led 24-3 with 2:24 before intermission.

That was more than enough time for Reesing to execute a textbook 2-minute drill. In an 11-play, 80-yard march, he hit Kerry Meier on a 4-yard TD pass with 11 seconds left in the half.

CU took the second-half kickoff, positioned Goodman for a 39-yard field goal and increased its lead to 27-10. Kansas then went to work as Reesing directed his offense on another 80-yard drive, capped Toben Oporum's 2-yard dive to pull within 27-17.

After another CU turnover, this time a Rodney Stewart fumble, CU's defense held Kansas to a field goal and CU's lead was down to a touchdown at 27-20. In a bit of déjà-vu, Hansen fumbled the ball away and again CU's defense held Kansas to another field goal, as KU continued to chip away at the lead, now at 27-23 as the third quarter came to a close.

Following a CU punt, Reesing capped a 58-yard drive with a 25-yard TD pass to Briscoe, giving KU a 30-27 lead.

Giving up the lead is perhaps what the Buffs needed to get their offense back into gear, and Hansen directed a 10-play, 76-yard march and the Buffs reclaimed the lead, 34-30, on a 13-yard Stewart run. Stewart was first hit at the 7-yardline and bulled his way to pay dirt. Hansen hit Geer for 29 yards on 3rd-and-15 earlier in the drive.

But 8:36 remained for Reesing, who converted a third-and-29 with a 41-yard pass to Briscoe. On fourth-and-goal from the 6-yard line, Reesing's pass for Briscoe was broken up in the end zone by Jimmy Smith.

CU was unable to run the clock out and KU took over with 59 seconds left. Reesing pushed his team to the Buffs 19-yard line, where after he spiked the ball to stop the clock, Jalil Brown batted away one pass and then Cha'pelle Brown batted the ball away from Dezmon Briscoe in the end zone as time expired.

GAME NOTES

With Kansas entering the game ranked No. 17 (Associated Press), since the start of the 1989 season, Colorado has now played the second most ranked teams in the nation (103), trailing only Florida (112) and equaled by Florida State ... CU is 43-58-2 in those games ... WR Will Jefferson made his first career start, the first true freshman to start for CU in 2009 ... The teams went "three-and-out" on the first four possessions; the game's initial first down came at the 8:19 mark of the first quarter ... Kansas netted only a first quarter field goal, extending the opponent streak to eight quarters at Folsom Field without a touchdown (CSU scored two first quarter TDs in the opener and KU got the next one late in the first half) ... PK Aric Goodman's 45-yard field goal to open the second quarter was his first career make as a Buffalo between 40-49 yards (he was 0-for-8, and 2-of-14 including his time at Wyoming); he did make a 54-yard kick against CSU and had a 52-yard boot when he was a Cowboy ... Colorado's 24-3 lead in the second quarter was its second largest of the year, behind only the 24-0 final score in the win over Wyoming; it also marks the largest margin KU has trailed in 2009 ... WR Scotty McKnight extended his regular season streak to 30 games with at least one reception ... CU was in danger of tying its record for losing its largest lead (21 points on two previous occasions, once to Kansas: in 1950, CU led 21-0 but lost 27-21; the other was in 2007 at Iowa State, losing 31-28 after leading 21-0) ... The 24 points scored by Colorado was its most in a single quarter since Aug. 30, 2003, when the Buffs scored 28 points in the second quarter of a 42-35 win over Colorado State in Denver.

GAME #7—KANSAS STATE 20, COLORADO 6OCTOBER 24 (SNYDER FAMILY STADIUM, MANHATTAN, KAN.)

MANHATTAN, Kan.—Daniel Thomas rushed for 145 yards and a touchdown, leading the charge for Kansas State as the Wildcats defeated Colorado, 20-6, in an early battle for control of the Big 12 North.

CU looked good on offense early but then sputtered after the first possession, failing to capitalize in logging a successful sequel to the previous week's upset of then-No. 17 Kansas. At the end of this day, K-State stood atop the North with a 3-1 league record and 5-3 overall mark, while CU dropped to 2-5 overall and 1-2 in the Big 12.

All of the game's scoring was done in the first 29 minutes, with half of K-State's total resulting from two of CU's four turnovers. Defense wasn't the downfall; offensive inefficiency and a couple of special teams missteps doomed the Buffs. Poor field position also was a factor: for 12 possessions, the Buffs' averaging starting point was their 19-yard line, while the Wildcats averaged opening on their 47 on 14 drives. CU started nine drives at or inside its own 20 compared to one for KSU.

The Buffs didn't bring nearly enough juice or whatever else might be needed offensively. Although they fell behind 3-0, they answered.

The Wildcats allayed some of those fears by marching to a 3-0 lead on their first possession, with Josh Cherry's 25-yard field goal culminating the nine-play 61-yard drive. CU answered smartly and efficiently with a 13-play, 71-yard drive that would be their only offensive noise until a late fourth quarter drive that ended in an interception. Rodney Stewart's 2-yard dive into the end zone put CU on the board, but Aric Goodman's PAT slammed high into the right upright, and the Buffs' lead was only 6-3, their first and only one of the game.

K-State's last drive of the first quarter spilled into the second, with a pair of option plays directed by Grant Gregory gaining 33 yards and a 14-yard run by the junior quarterback accounting for the bulk of the 58-yard scoring march.

Thomas got the touchdown on a 3-yard run, and Cherry's PAT pushed the Wildcats in front 10-6.

Less than a minute later, Cherry was the beneficiary of a Tyler Hansen fumble on the center snap that was recovered by linebacker Ulla Pomele at the CU 13-yard line. Cherry's 27-yard field goal sent the Wildcats in front 13-6, and the first half appeared on the verge of deteriorating for the Buffs.

After an earlier ill-advised decision to field a punt at his own 4-yard line (he was buried there), returner Jason Espinoza lost his first bobble of the season at the Buffs' 20, where it was recovered by Corey Adams.

The CU defense looked as if it might hold, but on third-and-two and the 12, the Buffs jumped off sides, giving K-State an effortless first down. Two plays later, Gregory scored on his 5-yard run off right tackle. After Cherry's PAT, the Wildcats led 20-6 and any of K-State's lost early momentum had been recaptured. And, given the state of its offense, most of CU's comeback hopes were disappearing.

With 1:06 left in the half, CU changed quarterbacks, subbing in Cody Hawkins to run the 2-minute drill. That strategy netted one first down before ending with Hawkins being intercepted by Emmanuel Lamur eight seconds before halftime.

If CU had designs on a comeback, receiving the second half kickoff was a good place to start. Instead, the Buffs took a delay of game penalty on first down. The series, then the third quarter and then the fourth fizzled from there. Four of six second half possessions ended in "three plays and out" as the saying goes. The K-State defense did an exceptional job on first down, limiting the Buffs to 2.2 yards per try, and after the opening drive, the Buffs didn't run their next play in Wildcat territory until five minutes remained in the game.

GAME NOTES

This was CU's 69th game in the state of Kansas, and the Buffs now own a record of 34-30-5; the games and wins are the most in any state other than Colorado ... CU is now 1-2 for the sixth time in Big 12 play (but has never had an 0-3 start) ... ILB Brandon Gouin (kickoff return unit) and TE Luke Walters (FG/PAT unit) saw their first action as Buffs ... This was the ninth straight year the Buffs have played both Sunflower State schools back-to-back weeks: CU swept four encounters, the Kansas schools swept twice and there have been three splits ... Colorado ran the last eight plays of its first drive in plus territory and the last 10 of the game in the zone, but did not reach or cross the 50 in the 45 plays in-between ... Colorado is now 59-29-3 on artificial turf dating back to the 1989 season but is 0-4 on the fake stuff in 2009 ... PK Aric Goodman had made 26 straight PAT kicks prior to his first quarter miss ... The 6 points by CU was its fewest against Kansas State since a 38-6 loss in Manhattan in 1984 ... The last two games in the series have produced just 53 points (CU won 14-13 last year); that's the fewest over any two-game span in the series since 1965-66, when CU posted back to back shutouts (36-0 and 10-0) for 46 total points ... CU's 60 yards rushing was a low against the Wildcats since 1999, when the Buffs had 25 tries for 10 yards (as was its 244 yards of total offense; CU had 214 that year) ... It was the first time K-State held CU to zero touchdown passes since a 12-0 Buff win in Boulder in 1996 ... Field position was key in the game, with KSU starting 14 drives on average at its 47, while CU's 12 averaged to its 19; nine of the 12 were at or inside-the-20 (eight of the latter).

GAME #8—MISSOURI 36, COLORADO 17OCTOBER 31 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER—Missouri endured a three-point second half but let its efficient early work in building a 33-0 first half lead at one point carry it to a 36-17 Big 12 Conference victory over Colorado at Folsom Field. It was the just the fourth “Halloween Homecoming” in CU history, the first ending in a loss for the hometown Buffaloes.

The defending North Division champion Tigers won their first conference game (1-3) and improved to 5-3 overall. With four games remaining, CU slumped to 1-3 in the league and 2-6 overall.

Colorado rallied gamely in the second half, despite how disastrous their opening act was, the Buffs still gave themselves a chance after intermission. But after getting back-to-back touchdowns (the first by the offense, the second by the defense) in the third quarter and cutting the Tigers' lead to 33-17, they failed on a critical fourth-and-one at the MU 13-yard line early in the fourth quarter that proved to be a back-breaker.

CU won the opening coin toss, deferred to the second half and immediately fell behind 7-0 as MU quarterback Blaine Gabbert drove the Tigers 80 yards in 11 plays. Gabbert completed three-of-six passes for 34 yards during the march, but tailback Derrick Washington accounted for 30 yards and walked in from the 1-yard line for the score.

Three plays after forcing the Buffs to punt, Gabbert and receiver Danario Alexander hooked up for a 73-yard score. Alexander appeared to break free of coverage on a pick play, then raced past diving CU safety Ray Polk and finished his sprint to the end zone unchallenged.

The Buffs then temporarily dodged one bullet, stopping the Tigers on downs inside the CU 6-yard line after a lost Tyler Hansen fumble. But any good vibes from that defensive stand disappeared when the Tigers, benefitting from a short field, moved 33 yards in two plays to push ahead 21-0. Tailback DeVon Moore got 31 yards on first down, the Gabbert and Alexander teamed for a 2-yard scoring pass on the next play.

The bright, virtually cloudless afternoon only got darker for CU. After cornerback Jimmy Smith intercepted Gabbert at the Buffs 10-yard line, Hansen promptly lost a fumbled center exchange and Grant Ressel kicked a 29-yard field goal four plays later for a 24-0 Tigers lead with 8:42 left in the half.

Ten seconds later, Missouri's lead swelled to 26-0 when Hansen, scrambling/retreating from his own 7-yard line, was tackled in the zone for a safety.

Not long after that the lead swelled to 33-0 as, after apparently lining up for a 43-yard field goal attempt, Mizzou holder Forrest Shook took the center snap and flipped the ball to blocker Jacques Smith, who ran 24 yards off left tackle for his first career rushing touchdown.

The Buffs finally scored on Aric Goodman's 48-yard field goal just over a minute before halftime and then to open the second half, Hansen drove the Buffs 58 yards for a touchdown — Rodney Stewart scored it on a 3-yard dive — and cut the Tigers' lead to 33-10.

After CU forced a Mizzou punt, Hansen was sacked and lost the ball at the Buffs 35. But four plays later, Burney intercepted Gabbert and returned it 78 yards for a touchdown that brought CU to 33-17 with 7:02 left in the third quarter.

After the Buffs' missed opportunity on 4th-and-1, CU's next possession was halted at the 8 when Hansen was intercepted by Tiger corner Kevin Rutland.

Missouri finished the scoring when, with just under 5 minutes remaining, it took over on downs at the CU 22-yard line, and Ressel kicked his 33-yard field goal.

The Tigers rolled up 400 yards on offense, not a blockbuster number, but did hold CU to just 176, including minus-14 on the ground (although that total included 73 yards lost in sacks).

GAME NOTES

Colorado is now 2-1-1 in all-time Halloween Homecoming games (61-29-5 all-time on HC) ... Missouri's TD on its first possession was the fourth by an opponent this year on the first drive, but the first in four Big 12 games; CU has allowed two field goals with two three-and-outs the other four times ... The last safety suffered by Colorado before this game was at Kansas last year when Cody Hawkins was sacked in the end zone (Tyler Hansen was sacked in the EZ today) ... PK Aric Goodman's 48-yard field goal in the second quarter ended a run of 139 straight points in the series by Missouri ... CU had four punt returns for 13 yards, while not spectacular, Mizzou came in allowing 11 yards on 11 returns, or 1.0 per ... CU's struggles on first down continued, as the Buffs averaged just 3.3 yards on the down ... The Tigers had 306 yards in the first half but just 94 in the second ... CU has been especially stingy in the third quarter this year, allowing 564 yards in eight games, or just 70.5 yards ... The 71-yard TD play (Gabbert to Alexander) was the third 70-yard play this year against CU ... SS Benjamin Burney scored CU's first non-offensive touchdown of the 2009 season with his 78-yard interception return in the third quarter. It was the 14th longest INT return in school history, and the longest since teammate Marcus Burton rambled 99 yards with one at Oklahoma State in 2005 ... The eight sacks by Missouri were the most against the Buffs since 1984, when Iowa State had eight in a 23-21 CU win at Folsom.

GAME #9—COLORADO 35, TEXAS A&M 34NOVEMBER 7 (FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER)

BOULDER—Down by 10 with 11:01 remaining, the Buffs kept their postseason hopes flickering by rallying in the final minutes for a 35-34 win against Texas A&M.

CU (3-6 overall, 2-3 Big 12 Conference) earned the victory with a 22-yard Tyler Hansen-to-Patrick Devenny touchdown pass - the catch came on a one-handed stab in the end zone with 2:04 left - and a pair of ensuing defensive highlights by safety Anthony Perkins (interception) and linebacker Marcus Burton (fumbled punt recovery) as A&M futilely pursued its own rally.

The Buffs got a breakthrough performance from receiver Markques Simas (seven catches, 135 yards, both career highs) and a 118-yard, two-touchdown rushing performance from tailback Rodney Stewart.

The Aggies (5-4, 2-3) entered the game averaging 490.5 yards in total offense - third in the nation - and the Buffs held them to 374 yards total. A&M quarterback Jerrod Johnson came in No. 1 in total offense at 328.9 yards a game and was limited to 251.

CU trailed by double-digits on two occasions (21-10 at halftime, 31-21 in the fourth quarter) but answered when necessary.

After a goal line stand stopped A&M at the CU 1-yard line on the Aggies' first possession, A&M took advantage of the resulting short field and drove 47 yards on their second possession to take a 7-0 lead.

The Buffs responded with efficient drives on their next two series, positioning Goodman for a 37-yard field goal (7-3). After forcing the Aggies to go three-and-out, Stewart capped a 69-yard march with a 13-yard touchdown run to push CU ahead 10-7.

A&M regained the lead (14-10) when Cyrus Gray returned Aric Goodman's kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown. Johnson then scored on a 3-yard keeper, and 17 seconds before intermission, CU's lead and flirtation with momentum were lost in as A&M led, 21-10.

To open the second half, CU's defense again stepped up, holding A&M to a missed field goal. The Buffs answered with a 50-yard drive ending with a 37-yard field goal by Goodman to cut the Aggies' advantage to 21-13 with 7:54 left in the third quarter.

A series later, after holding A&M to another three-and-out, Hansen marched CU 79 yards in 10 plays, the last of which was an option pitch to Stewart, who ran around right end for an 11-yard touchdown.

The Buffs tied the game at 21 on Hansen's two-point conversion pass to Simas, setting the stage for some fourth quarter fireworks.

Only three plays into the fourth quarter, the tie was broken (28-21) when A&M tailback Christine Michael bounced outside on a play off right tackle and scored on a 6-yard run to complete an 85-yard drive.

Two plays later, the Buffs' plight got worse when Hansen was intercepted by free safety Jordan Pugh. CU's defense held, but Randy Bullock's 47-yard field goal staked A&M to its second double-digit lead (31-21).

The Buffs were left with 10:53 to make up a 10-point deficit, and they immediately went to work. Two plays after Hansen and Simas converted a third-and-13 for a first down at the Aggies' 31, Sumler ran 8 yards for his first TD of the season, bringing the Buffs within three at 31-28 with 7:14 left.

A&M then doubled the Buffs deficit by kicking a 20-yard field goal with 3:59 left, making the score 34-28. But the Buffs didn't blink, answering with a 61-yard drive that included another Hansen-Simas third-down connection for 45 yards - and Devenny's one-handed scoring catch.

The Aggies had 2:04 to respond - but Perkins and Burton provided the telling answers instead.

GAME NOTES

This marked the 28th time in CU history that the Buffs had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game ... Associate head coach/linebacker coach Brian Cabral, in honor of his 300th game as a Colorado Buffalo (254 coach/46 player) wore his trademark lava lava on the sideline ... WR Dustin Ebner made his first career start ... Texas A&M ran 18 plays in the first quarter, 16 in CU territory (but just seven of 16 in the second quarter) ... Cyrus Gray's 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown was the first by a CU opponent since last season (two, the last by Florida State's Michael Garvin for 94 yards on Sept. 27 in FSU's 39-21 win; CSU's Johnny Mosure had the other) ... CU had four plays of 30 yards or longer (two in each half); it had just seven coming in, with three against Toledo the only time previous the Buffs had managed multiple 30-plus plays in the same game ... CU's 437 yards were its second most on offense this year (451 at Toledo), its most in a Big 12 game since amassing 518 yards in the 65-51 win over Nebraska in the '07 season finale ... PK Aric Goodman kicked his first game-winning extra point of his career; he had a game-winning field goal against West Virginia last year ... CU averaged five yards or more on first down for just the second time this season (5.1; the Buffs averaged 5.4 against Colorado State). Colorado struggled its last two games (2.2 vs. K-State, 3.3 vs. Missouri).

GAME #10—IOWA STATE 17, COLORADO 10NOVEMBER 14 (JACK TRICE STADIUM, AMES, IOWA)

AMES, Iowa — Iowa State (6-5, 3-4 Big 12) qualified for its first postseason appearance since 2005 with a 17-10 victory over Colorado, while the Buffs' improbable dream of attaining bowl eligibility finally ended as the Buffs fell to 3-7 (2-4 Big 12).

CU scored its first touchdown of the game with 3:17 remaining in the game on Tyler Hansen's 36-yard, fourth-down pass to Markques Simas. That score pulled CU to 17-10, but the Cyclones allowed the Buffs offense back on the field with only 23 seconds remaining.

Iowa State scored on its second possession, courtesy of 25 penalty yards against CU that kept an 83-yard touchdown drive from derailing. The costliest infraction: A 15-yard facemask flag on third-and-15 and a 5-yard sideline penalty on the same play that allowed the Cyclones to escape from their own 12 to the 32. Six plays later, Austen Arnaud (12-of-25, 116 yards, two TDs, one interception) hit Marquis Hamilton with an 8-yard touchdown pass.

Two series later, the Buffs seemed to have their first break of the game when Jimmy Smith intercepted Arnaud and returned it 10 yards to the Iowa State 5-yard line.

After two handoffs - one to Stewart, one to Demetrius Sumler - produced minus-2 yards, Hansen ran a quarterback draw to the one. On fourth down, Sumler ran into the middle for no gain, and the Buffs' opportunity to at least pull even vanished.

CU's defense, which forced Iowa State into seven three-and-outs, presented another scoring chance on the Cyclones' first series of the second quarter, and this time the Buffs took advantage.

After safety Anthony Perkins caused Iowa State receiver Darius Darks to fumble, defensive tackle Nate Bonsu hopped on the ball at the CU 30-yard line.

The offense mustered enough efficiency to drive 65 yards and position Aric Goodman for a 22-yard field goal (7-3), but Iowa State's Grant Mahoney answered with a 25-yarder on the final play of the half (10-3).

Hansen (18-of-38, 258 yards, one TD, one interception) was intercepted on the second play of the second half by nose guard Nate Frere. The Cyclones didn't do any immediate damage, but their punt was downed at the Buffs' 6-yard line.

A 24-yard Hansen-to-McKnight pass appeared to give the Buffs room to maneuver. But a play later, Stewart fumbled after a 5-yard gain - a replay reversal was required to give Iowa State possession at the CU 33 - and the Cyclones capitalized.

On third-and-nine, Arnaud found Alexander Robinson (30 carries, 138 yards) streaking along the left sideline and lobbed him what would be a 20-yard TD pass.

Taking over at the Cyclones' 36 after a short punt, the Buffs advanced to the 9-yard line, but right tackle Bryce Givens drew 30 yards in penalties - the first a hands-to-the-face flag, the second an unsportsmanlike conduct flag for protesting the first.

Instead of having first-and-goal at the 9, the Buffs had first-and-goal at the 39. The once-promising drive ended with Goodman sending a 42-yard field goal attempt wide right, his first miss in his last seven attempts.

The Buffs tried to regroup on their first possession of the final quarter, putting together a drive that ended with another lost fumble by Stewart - this one recovered by the Cyclones at their 8-yard line after Stewart was blind-sided.

After the Hansen-to-Simas TD pass pulled them to 17-10, Goodman's kickoff trickled out of bounds, giving ISU a first down at 40 with 3:17 to play. Iowa State was then able to grab a few first downs and run out the clock.

CU outgained the Cyclones, 390-310; as has been the case all season, ISU gained 177 yards on 11 plays, netting just 133 on its other 61.

Both 17-10 scores in the series have gone the way of the Cyclones (1981, 2009) ... Iowa State had a 180-97 edge in total offense in the first half, CU bounced back for a 293-130 advantage after halftime ... Colorado averaged a season-best 6.6 yards on first down (first time over 6; best had been 5.4 versus CSU in the opener) ... P Matt DiLallo punted six times for a 35.3 average three with the 15-20 mph wind gusts (40.0) and three against them (31.7) ... Colorado came into the games among the national leaders in defensive "three-and-outs" and forced seven by the Cyclones ... For the second time this season, Colorado had two receivers with 100-plus yards: Scotty McKnight (8-107) had his third 100-yad game of the season (fourth career), while Markques Simas had his second in a row (7-128). Simas became the first CU player to have back-to-back 100-yard games in a decade; it was last done by Javon Green in 1999 ... CU and Iowa State were tied for seventh nationally in Red Zone Defense with identical figures at 70.3 percent (26 scores allowed for 37 penetrations of the 20); the Cyclones won the battle, holding CU to a field goal in four tries, while ISU was 2-of-2 (TD, FG).

GAME #11—OKLAHOMA STATE 31, COLORADO 28NOVEMBER 19 (BOONE PICKENS STADIUM, STILLWATER, OKLA.)

STILLWATER, Okla. — The Colorado Buffaloes managed to strike Oklahoma State hard and often but the trouble was, the No. 12 Cowboys absorbed each of the Buffs' blows - including a 98-yard kickoff return by Brian Lockridge - and counterpunched, finally outlasting them 31-28.

CU came into the game with nothing to lose, having been eliminated from bowl eligibility the previous week, but the Buffs gave OSU a huge scare before a national TV audience.

Almost forsaking the run CU went to the pass. For the third consecutive week, Markques Simas was the game's most productive receiver, catching 11 passes for 90 yards and a 28-yard touchdown from starter Tyler Hansen.

Cody Hawkins spelled Hansen late in the second quarter when Hansen suffered an injury to his right thumb and in relief, Hawkins completed 7-of-11 passes for 69 yards and a score in the 2-minute drill. Hansen opened the second half and finished with 169 passing yards (23-for-36) and a pair of scores.

After forcing CU to punt on the game's opening series, OSU took a 7-0 lead immediately as Perrish Cox returned the punt 67 yards for a touchdown.

After one of nine three-and-outs from its offense, CU's defense stepped up and on the first play, Marcus Burton caused and recovered a fumble by Keith Toston at the Cowboys 47-yard line.

Eight plays later, six being passes, Hansen connected with Scotty McKnight for a 5-yard touchdown, tying the game at 7-7 midway through the first quarter where it would remain until 5:40 before halftime, the Cowboys broke the tie on a 30-yard field goal by Dan Bailey. After two three-and-out drives from Hawkins, Conrad Obi blocked a 53-yard OSU field goal attempt and Hawkins responded seven yards later by lobbing a 5-yard pass to Riar Geer to put CU up 14-10 just seconds before halftime.

The Buffs struck first in the third quarter as Cox muffed a punt and Anthony Perkins, already with an interception in the game, hopped on the ball at the OSU 28. Hansen then hit Simas with a 28-yard scoring pass and CU was up 21-10 with 8:41 left in the third.

But on OSU's third series of the second half, Toston's sprung free on a 45-yard scoring run, which pulled the Cowboys to 21-17 with a quarter to play. After an Aric Goodman 49-yard field goal hit the right upright, CU's defense responded as Michael Sipili stripped OSU tailback Kendall Hunter and Will Pericak recovered at the Cowboys 36.

On the next series, facing fourth-and-two at the 28, Hansen threw incomplete to Geer. OSU responded as Toston took a Weeden pass and scampered for another long TD, this one 47 yards to give the Cowboys a 24-21 lead with 11:24 left in the game.

Lockridge and the Buffs responded immediately, returning OSU's kickoff 98 yards for a score and putting the Buffs back in front 28-24. It was CU's longest kickoff return since Ben Kelly's 98-yarder against Washington on Sept. 25, 1999.

Oklahoma State kept the scoring changes rolling, as it responded with a 73-yard scoring drive, with Weeden hitting receiver Justin Blackmon for 28 yards and what would be the Cowboys' winning touchdown (31-28).

Six plays after getting the ball at their 17-yard line, Demetrius Sumler fumbled at the 48 and Cox recovered for the Cowboys with 5:21 to play. CU, though, got another chance when linebacker Tyler Ahles sacked Weeden for a 3-yard loss on fourth-and-one, giving the Buffs possession at their 42-yard line with 3:14 to play.

But CU gave up the ball on downs - the Buffs elected to punt on fourth-and-10, pinning its hopes on his defense - and OSU took over at its 21 with 2:45 remaining. There were three fourth quarter lead changes, but the Buffs never got the ball back to see if they could make it four.

DEPTH CHART

A note about CU's depth: in-season, depth charts reflect change and generally do not announce it unless there are long-term injuries; also, the coaches often use "groupings" at certain positions (i.e. receiver-tight end-tailback-fullback), and often a group enters the game to run a play that does not match the depth.

OFFENSE

(Multiple)

Note: Only 10 positions listed on offense; at the WR position, players switch back-and-forth between the traditional X and Z positions, thus all are grouped together. List the top two in "starting" positions if need be.
