LEGENDS

Nebraska makes an historic move to the Big Ten Conference in 2011. While this fall marks Nebraska's first season of football competition in the nation's oldest conference, the Cornhuskers has a history of meeting Big Ten schools on the gridiron. Nebraska has played every Big Ten school at least once in football, and owns an 81-68-10 all-time record against the conference's other 11 members, including a 31-6 record since 1970.

For more than a century, the legacy of Nebraska Football has been growing. From its humble beginning in 1890 – when two games made an entire schedule – to 2011, where an established, nationally prominent program enjoys a rich history of success, Nebraska's student-athletes have entertained and excelled on all levels. Five national championships and 43 conference titles highlight the accomplishments of one of college football's most storied programs. There have been Heisman winners and Outland Trophy recipients, a nation-leading number of Academic All-Americans, a strong tradition of success in the classroom and many professional football stars. But underlying all of the countless accolades is a football family that does not rely on wins and losses as the final indicator of excellence. Nebraska Football is much more than talented athletes and coaches taking the field to play a game – it is a family. The fans, support staff and student-athletes are all Dedicated to Excellence through Integrity, Trust, Respect, Teamwork and Loyalty. It is this commitment on and off the field that makes Nebraska unique and assures that the rich tradition of the Huskers will keep growing for years to come.

Nebraska started the new millennium the same way it ended the last - among the nation's elite. In the 1980s and 1990s, Nebraska became the first team in the history of Division I football to post 100 wins in back-to-back decades. Since the start of the 1970s, Nebraska has posted the best record of any Division I team (403-104-5). That outstanding tradition began with Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne and continues in 2011 with Coach Bo Pelini, as the Huskers usher in a new era in the Big Ten Conference this fall.

Tom Osborne (above) guided Nebraska football to national prominence and coached Husker teams to three national titles between 1994 and 1997. Osborne was immediately inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame upon his retirement after the 1997 season. He became Nebraska's Athletic Director in 2007.

WINNING TRADITION

- » Nebraska is one of just eight schools with 800 or more all-time victories.
- » Nebraska is one of just nine schools with a .700 winning percentage or better
- » Eight Huskers have won a nation-leading nine Outland Trophies
- » Since 1960, 77 Huskers have earned first-team All-America honors
- » Over the last 15 seasons, Nebraska is second among Big Ten Conference schools with 72 players chosen in the NFL Draft
- » The Huskers have won 34 conference titles outright and shared another nine crowns
- » Nebraska has played on television nearly than 300 times in the last 58 years

CHAMPIONSHIP

Few college athletic programs can boast the national championship resume of Nebraska football. Since 1970, Nebraska has won more games than any other team in the country, captured five national championships and played for a national title in a bowl game on four other occasions. The Huskers are one of only three college football teams to win at least five national championships since 1970, and one of only seven to capture at least three titles.

THIS IS NEBRASKA

"Choosing to go to school at Nebraska has had the biggest impact on my life, more than any other life decision. Not only did I get a chance to play football for the best team in the nation, but for four years I was surrounded by academic advisors, coaches and teachers who genuinely cared about me as a person."

COACHING

Head Coach Bo Pelini has assembled a coaching staff with a championship pedigree. The Cornhusker staff has strong ties to Nebraska.

- Pelini was the first coach in Big 12 Conference history to guide his team to at least a share of a division championship in his first three seasons.
- Pelini is one of only four coaches in school history to win nine games in each of their first three seasons at Nebraska joining Frank Solich and Hall of Fame coaches Tom Osborne and Bob Devaney.
- Pelini's 29 wins in the past three seasons are the most among first-time head coaches in the Class of 2008.
- Pelini joined Frank Solich as the only Nebraska coaches to post two 10-win seasons in their first three years in Lincoln.
- Pelini has guided Nebraska to back-to-back 10 win seasons in 2009 and 2010. Nebraska is one of just nine schools in the nation with back-toback 10 win seasons, including Wisconsin and Ohio State of the Big Ten, Alabama (SEC), Virginia Tech (ACC), Oregon and Utah (Pac-12), TCU and Boise State (Mountain West).
- The 2010 season marked the first time Nebraska posted 10 wins in the regular season since the 2001 team won 11 regular-season games.

- Has coached in seven bowl games, three Bowl Championship Series games and 11 NFL playoff games

"Guys were ready to run through a wall for (Coach Pelini). He was such a great motivator. He'd print out cards with different quotes and leave them in our locker to fire us up before games, and when it came to X's and O's, he definitely had the 'it' factor. He is the total package."

BIACIES HIRTS DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE

One of the Huskers' most well-known traditions is the Blackshirts, which has become the common nickname for Nebraska's defensive unit. The term originally dates back to the early 1960s and refers to the black jerseys that Nebraska's first-string defenders wear in practice.

With the return of the two-platoon system in college football in 1964, Head Coach Bob Devaney looked for a way to distinguish the defensive units on the practice fields. Devaney dispatched assistant coach Mike Corgan to a local sporting goods store to find some "contrast jerseys," a sleeveless pullover that went on top of the players' practice jerseys. While the top offensive unit practiced in red jerseys and the second-string offense worked in green pullovers, the first string defense wore black pullovers and the second string wore the contrasting gold jerseys.

The term quickly caught on, and gained momentum during Monte Kiffin's tenure as defensive coordinator in the mid-1970s, before the Blackshirts earned national acclaim under Charlie McBride, who served as the Huskers' defensive coordinator from 1982 to 1999.

BLACKSHIRT TRADITION

- Nebraska has ranked in the top 10 nationally in total defense 22 times since 1964.
- Nebraska has ranked among the nation's top 10 in all four major defensive categories (rush defense, pass defense, total defense and scoring defense) on five occasions, including 2009 and national title seasons in 1994, 1995 and 1997.

NEBRASKA BLACKSHIRTS

The Blackshirt defense has thrived under the tutelage of Head Coach Bo Pelini.

- With Pelini as defensive coordinator in 2003, Nebraska forced a school-record 47 turnovers, including a conference-record 32 interceptions. Nebraska ranked second nationally in scoring defense and 16 Blackshirts from 2003 went on to play in the National Football League.
- The 2008 Blackshirts were among the nation's most improved defenses. The Huskers finished second in the Big 12 in total defense, allowing 126.9 fewer yards per game than in 2007.
- Nebraska's 2009 defense was among the nation's most dominant units. The Huskers led the nation in scoring defense, limiting opponents to 13 or fewer points 10 times in 14 games. Nebraska also ranked seventh nationally in total defense.
- The 2010 Blackshirts ranked in the top-12 nationally in four statistical categories, including third in pass efficiency defense, ninth in scoring defense and 11th in total defense.

NFL DEFENSIVE DRAFT PICKS (BIG TEN ONLY)

SINCE 1997

"We have a great (defensive) tradition at Nebraska. As a former Blackshirt, it is basically the sense of urgency you play with. That is what it means to be a Blackshirt. It is being able to trust the guy next to you. It is 11 guys getting to the football."

Trev Alberts, 1993 All-American and Butkus Award Winner

"Nebraska is the best place in America to play defense. I can't say more about our coaches than what I know in my heart—they are the best."

Ndamukong Suh, 2009 major award winner

THE PELINI FACTOR

Bo Pelini's college defenses have a history of dominance, whether at Nebraska, LSU or Oklahoma. Pelini-led defenses have established themselves as a fixture in the top 10 of numerous national categories

In his first three seasons as head coach at Nebraska, Pelini and his defensive staff have helped re-establish the Blackshirts as one of the nation's most dominant defenses. Nebraska's combined defensive statistics from 2009 and 2010 stack up favorably with any other school in the country.

OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER

Offensive Coordinator, Tim Beck

The Nebraska offense takes on a new look in 2011 under the direction of first-year offensive coordinator Tim Beck. While Beck is new to his role at Nebraska his past history as a coordinator shows that he has what it takes to again make the Cornhusker offense one of the nation's most explosive attacks.

- As offensive coordinator at Missouri State in 1998, Beck guided his offense to school records in passing yards, completions and touchdown passes, while ranking in the top five in school history in total offense.
- As Kansas' passing game coordinator in 2007, Beck helped the Jayhawks field a prolific offense that led KU to a school-record 12 wins, including an Orange Bowl victory and a final No. 7 national ranking.
- Kansas ranked second nationally in scoring in 2007 and also finished in the top 20 in total offense and passing offense, while setting nine single-season school records.

QUARTERBACKS

- Quarterbacks have been prolific in the Nebraska offense in recent years. In 2008, Joe Ganz set Nebraska single-season records for passing yards, completion percentage and total offense. Ganz set 23 Nebraska school records and also ranks second in season touchdown passes, career touchdown passes and career passing yards.
- Ganz finished his career fourth among active quarterbacks in pass efficiency rating, trailing only 2008 Heisman Trophy finalists Sam Bradford, Colt McCoy and Tim Tebow.
- Taylor Martinez had a record-setting season for Nebraska in 2010. Martinez set Nebraska freshman game and season records for total offense, passing yards, rushing and passing touchdowns, while setting a Husker quarterback record for rushing yards in a game.

Quarterbacks Tommie Frazier, Eric Crouch and receivers Mike McNeill and Todd Peterson.

RUNNING BACKS

- Nebraska running backs have thrived in the Huskers' diverse attack in recent years. Roy Helu Jr. completed his Nebraska career ranked fourth on the Husker career rushing list with 3,404 career rushing yards. Helu Jr. had a school-record 307 rushing yards against
- Junior I-back Rex Burkhead topped 950 rushing yards last season, including three 100-yard rushing games.
- Burkhead and quarterback Taylor Martinez give Nebraska a pair of returning players who topped 900 rushing yards last season. Nebraska is one of only three schools in the country with a pair of 900-yard runners returning for the 2011 season.
- Nebraska running backs have also produced five 30-plus catch seasons in the past seven years.
- Nebraska I-backs have 27, 1,000-yard rushing seasons in school history. Helu Jr. topped that milestone in both 2009 and 2010 becoming the first I-back to crack 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons since 1992 and 1993.

RECEIVERS

- Nate Swift finished his Nebraska career in 2008 as the Huskers' all-time leader in receptions, while ranking second in season receptions, season receiving yards, career receiving yards, season touchdown receptions and career touchdown receptions.
- Niles Paul completed his Nebraska career in 2010 sixth in school history with 103 receptions, while his 1,532 career receiving yards ranks fifth in Husker history.
- 2010 senior Mike McNeill became the Nebraska career leader for receptions by a tight end. McNeill finished his four-year career with 82 receptions, while snaring 11 touchdown catches. He caught a Nebraska tight end record 32 passes in 2008.
- Junior Kyler Reed set a Nebraska tight end record in 2010 by catching eight touchdown passes. Reed averaged 18.0 yards per catch and had four touchdown receptions of at least 33 yards.
- Senior Brandon Kinnie caught a team-leading 44 passes in 2010, giving Nebraska a total of 10, 40-catch seasons in the past six years.

"What's more, this stadium is more than just a Sea of Red--it is the most underrated venue in college football for its historical value."

NBC Sports.com, 2009

One of the "Cathedrals of College Football," according to The Sporting News, Memorial Stadium is one of the most historic and intimidating locations to play in all of sports.

Memorial Stadium is routinely ranked among the top 10 stadiums in all of college football, including recent features by CBS Sports, The Sporting News and Bleacher Report.

With expanded capacity now reaching beyond 85,000, Nebraska has continued its NCAA-record streak of 311 consecutive sellouts that dates back to 1962. Memorial Stadium continues to grow, as construction has begun on a project that will add another 6,000 seats in time for the 2013 season.

During the sellout streak, Nebraska has recorded a 269-42 record, including a 134-19 mark during the last 23 seasons.

THE FACTS

- Year built: 1923
- Original Capacity: 31,000
- Current Capacity: 81,091
- Largest Crowd: 86,304 vs. Louisiana-Lafayette, Sept. 26, 2009
- Sold out since: Nov. 3, 1962

FOUR CORNER INSCRIPTIONS

"Not the victory but the action; Not the goal but the game; In the deed the glory."

Memorial Stadium Inscription on Southwest Corner

Memorial Stadium is among the most historic venues in all of college football. The stadium opened in 1923 and while maintaining its traditional charm, it has also become of the most high-tech stadiums in the country in recent years. In 1994, the stadium was the first on-campus stadium in the country to feature big-screen instant replay boards.

Over the past 16 seasons, Nebraska's HuskerVision has made numerous additions, including the move to a fully high-definition presentation in 2009. Memorial Stadium features five replay boards, including a mammoth screen atop the North Stadium. Nearly every fan in the stadium has a clear view of a HuskerVision screen. In 2009, the facades of the East and West balconies added ribbon boards further adding to the fan experience at one of the nation's best sporting years.

Construction has begun on expansion to Memorial Stadium's east side (inset photo shows a computer-generated rendering of the east side). When complete for the 2013 season, the addition will push Nebraska's average attendance beyond 90,000. While adding more than 5,000 seats the addition will preserve the rich tradition and history of the original architecture of Memorial Stadium. In addition to new public seating and suites, the East Stadium addition will also provide improved fan amenities and includes athletic and academic research components.

The home of five national championship football teams, Nebraska provides its players with every tool needed to be successful. The primary home for the football team is its locker room, which ranks among the most impressive in the country.

Each locker is made of solid maple and features a convenient storage system for equipment and is also customized with a name plate and action photo. The lockers are hand-made and custom designed with individual electronic security locks and a unique ventilation system that pulls air through and out of the locker.

The design of the locker room allows each athlete to have a greater amount of space and personal storage while providing a convenient location next to the equipment room. The locker room will receive additional upgrades this year as part of Ndamukong Suh's generous donation to the athletic department including computer screens at each locker.

In 2004, Nebraska embarked on a major facilities project that included the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex and the Hawks Championship Indoor Center.

The Hawks Championship Indoor Center opened for the football team during spring practice in 2006. The magnificent facility features FieldTurf identical to Memorial Stadium's surface (middle right). The field also opens onto the practice fields of the Ed and Joyanne Gass Practice Facility, which includes one grass field and one field which was converted to Field Turf in the summer of 2010. The indoor center is connected by a skybridge to the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex to give Nebraska the best all-around football facilities in the nation.

Nebraska's meeting space more than doubled with the completion of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex in 2006. The large team room (below) provides space for about 160 people and allows coaches to utilize the most advanced technology as it is equipped with theatre-quality sound and video systems.

The team meeting room is one of several teaching areas on the football floor, as each position coach has a meeting room (middle left) directly across the hall from his office. Players and coaches each have more space to view game or practice video, giving them a greater edge in preparing for competition.

THIS IS NEBRASKA

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL IN THE NFL

Nebraska owns one of the most impressive histories of any school with players in the National Football League. Over 300 former Huskers have represented Nebraska in the NFL. Over the past 15 years, Nebraska ranks second among all Big Ten Conference programs with 65 players chosen during the NFL Draft. The Huskers have been especially impressive with defensive players, with 46 former Huskers chosen since 1997.

As of June 24, Nebraska had 37 former players on NFL rosters, including 17 players with four or more years of experience and three with a decade of time in the league. Nebraska is represented on rosters of 21 of 32 NFL teams.

"I had a fantastic football career at Nebraska and thanks to my coaches and support staff, I have learned the value of hard work, teamwork and life skills. These skills will help me tremendously as I prepare for my career in the NFL."

HUSKERS IN THE NFL

HUSKER NEL FACTS

Nebraska had seven players selected in the 2011 NFL Draft, a total which ranked fourth nationally. Over the last 15 years, Nebraska has averaged nearly five players chosen in each NFL Draft, ranking second among all Big Ten programs with a total of 72 drafted players.

The 2011 NFL Draft marked the 42nd consecutive year the Huskers had at least three players chosen in the draft.

Since 1962 NU has had 285 players drafted, an average of nearly six selections per year, including an amazing 50 Husker offensive linemen. Six former members of the Husker pipeline were on NFL rosters at the close of the 2010 season.

2011 Pro Day

Since 1990, Nebraska has had 25 defensive backs, 18 defensive linemen, 17 offensive linemen, 12 running backs, nine wide receivers, five quarterbacks and four kicker/punters chosen in the NFL Draft.

Since 1998, Nebraska has had 14 defensive linemen drafted and five defensive ends drafted in the first or second rounds.

Nebraska had three former kickers (two place-kickers, one punter) on NFL rosters at the end of the 2010 season.

Nebraska was represented by nine players at the 2011 NFL Scouting Combine, the most in school history. Nebraska's nine players were tied for the second-most in the nation. Nearly every NFL team was represented at Nebraska's Pro Day last March in Lincoln.

Nebraska is a hotbed for exceptional athletes to earn national honors. In 2001, Nebraska quarterback Eric Crouch became Nebraska's third Heisman Trophy winner, while also taking home the Davey O'Brien Award and the Walter Camp Player-of-the Year Award. Husker players have won a nation-leading nine Outland Trophies, five Lombardi Awards and three Heisman Trophies. In 2009, defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh became one of the nation's most decorated defensive players. Suh captured the Outland, Lombardi, Bronko Nagurski and Chuck Bednarik awards, while also being named the Associated Press College Player of the Year. He was also the first defensive lineman to be a finalist for the Heisman in 15 seasons and finished fourth in the voting for the award.

"This will be a defining moment. This is probably the biggest accomplishment of my life."

Following the 1949 season, the N Club voted to retire jersey No. 60 in honor of Tom "Train Wreck" Novak's stellar career with the Cornhuskers. Novak, the first Nebraska player to earn this honor, had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice and a 1949 All-American.

For 55 years, Novak was the only NU player to have the distinction of a retired number. In 2004, that finally changed as College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Brown's No. 64 joined Novak's hallowed No. 60 among the only two permanently retired numbers at Nebraska. Brown, whose jersey retirement ceremony occurred during NU's game with Colorado in 2004.

All major national award winners at Nebraska automatically have their jerseys retired, but their numbers will still be available to active Huskers.

Nebraska's group of 17 players with retired jerseys certainly ranks among the best in the nation. Huskers who have earned the distinction of jersey retirement include three Heisman Trophy winners (Johnny Rodgers, Mike Rozier, Eric Crouch), eight Outland Trophy winners with nine awards (Larry Jacobson, Rich Glover, Dave Rimington (2), Dean Steinkuhler, Will Shields, Zach Wiegert, Aaron Taylor, Ndamukong Suh), five Lombardi Award winners (Rich Glover, Dave Rimington, Dean Steinkuhler, Grant Wistrom, Ndamukong Suh), one Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award winner (Tommie Frazier), one Davey O'Brien Award winner (Crouch), one Butkus Award winner (Trev Alberts) one Rimington Trophy winner (Dominic Raiola), one Bednarik Award Winner (Ndamukong Suh) and one Nagurski trophy (Ndamukong Suh).

In 2009, Ndamukong Suh (left) earned his spot alongside the Cornhusker legends of the past. Suh won the Outland Trophy, the Rotary Lombardi Award, the Chuck Bednarik Award and the Bronko Nagurski Trophy. He was also named the Associated Press College Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy. Suh became the 17th player in Husker history to have his jersey retired when his No. 93 was retired on Nov. 26, 2010.

The holiday plans of Nebraska football teams and thousands of Husker fans have traditionally included travel to a bowl game. Nebraska has participated in 47 bowls in the history of the program, including an NCAA-record 35 consecutive bowls from 1969 to 2003. The Huskers have won 10 of their last 15 bowl games, including three victories in national championship games.

HUSKER BOWL FACTS

- Nebraska ranks fifth all-time with 47 bowl appearances in the history of the program.
- Nebraska owns 24 all-time bowl victories, including 10 wins in its last 15 bowl games.
- Coach Bo Pelini is 3-1 in bowl games at Nebraska, including a 17-3 win over Michigan State as the interim head coach in the 2003 Alamo Bowl. In 2009, Pelini led the Huskers to their first bowl game shutout in school history with a 33-0 win against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl.
- Nebraska is 4-2 in its last six bowl games and has defeated opponents from the Big Ten, ACC and Pac-10 during that stretch.
- During the past 27 seasons, Nebraska has played in nine Orange Bowls, five Fiesta Bowls, two Sugar Bowls and one Rose Bowl.
- The Huskers have played a top-five team in 15 of their last 24 bowl games.
- Nebraska has appeared in 14 different bowl games. The Huskers earned their first-ever bowl bid to the 1941 Rose Bowl.

Nebraska enjoyed a fun-filled week in San Diego during its trip to the 2010 Holiday Bowl. In addition to preparing for the game, the Huskers enjoyed time at Sea World, the internationally known San Diego Zoo and a visit and luncheon on the USS Makin Island naval ship.

The Huskers' rich bowl tradition dates back 69 years to their first bowl appearance in the 1941 Rose Bowl. Nebraska made its first of 17 Orange Bowl appearances in 1955. The Huskers have won four national championships in Miami, including their most recent title in the 1998 game. Nebraska added a national title in the 1996 Fiesta Bowl, one of six trips to Arizona. In Coach Bo Pelini's three years at Nebraska, the Huskers have played bowl games in Florida and California.

Family. It is a word that is synonymous with Nebraska Football. No one takes more pride in the Nebraska football program than its former players.

Head Coach Bo Pelini and former Head Coach and now NU Athletic Director Tom Osborne have made embracing the tradition of the storied Husker program an even greater priority over the past four years. Pelini and his coaching staff have made a strong effort to connect with former players through a series of activities.

CORNHUSKERS FROM COAST TO COAST

The family atmosphere of the Nebraska football program brings together players from all across the country. The Huskers have always taken a national approach to recruiting and the family setting in Lincoln makes players from all corners of the United States feel at home

The 2011 Nebraska roster has players from 21 states, including 69 homegrown Huskers. Next on the list is Texas with 23 players on the Cornhusker roster and California with nine Huskers.

In the history of the program, Nebraska's 95 football All-Americans hail from 24 states and the District of Columbia. Homegrown Cornhuskers have accounted for 38 of Nebraska's All-Americans.

All time, Nebraska football letterwinners have come from 45 states, Washington D.C. and five foreign countries (Australia, Canada, Finland, Germany, Mexico).

"There is no in-state player, no out-of-state player, no walk-on player and no scholarship player. We were all equals when we got here, and we all came here for the same reason – to contribute to something much bigger than all of us. At Nebraska, all lettermen are the same. We're hundreds of guys who paid the price to be part of one of the greatest traditions in all of college football. And the greatest honor any of us ever achieved was being able to say: 'I played for Nebraska!'"

WALK-ONS

"Loyalty. Motivation. Willingness to Sacrifice."

Nebraska Athletic Director Tom Osborne, Hall of Fame Coach from 1973 to 1997, has used those words to describe Nebraska's walk-on program.

The tradition of the Cornhusker walk-on program is one-of-a-kind in college football.

Hundreds of young men from towns in all corners of the state have come to Nebraska with big dreams. Many players have excelled beyond their biggest dreams. Osborne and Head Coach Bo Pelini have made a priority of building on the past success of the Husker walk-on program.

"The walk-ons were the heart and soul of Nebraska football when I played. Walk-ons bring the passion and the drive to practice every day, and they help set the tone for Saturdays."

> Derrie Nelson, Former Husker Walk-on Defensive End, 1980 All-American

"One of the unique aspects of Nebraska is everything it means to the whole state. So the more young men, and the more towns around your state you get involved, the stronger you are going to be."

Nebraska football is among the most recognized college programs in the nation. Television, newspapers, magazines, radio, and the Internet keep Nebraska in the national spotlight. Nebraska has been a regular stop for ESPN's College GameDay, most recently hosting the show for the USC weekend in 2007.

NEBRASKA IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Nebraska, which had all 14 games televised in 2010, has averaged more than eight television appearances per year since 1980. The Huskers' TV exposure will be further increased with the addition of the Big Ten Network beginning in 2011-12. The Big Ten Conference media agreements ensure that every Nebraska football game will be televised in the future.

BTN is on the air 24 hours per day, 365 days a year. The network annually televises nearly 400 live events and streams an additional 300+ events. Each year's schedule is comprised of approximately 40-45 football games. Every BTN football game telecast is surrounded by Big Ten Football Saturday, the network's pre-game, halftime and post-game show hosted by Dave Revsine and analysts Gerry DiNardo and Howard Griffith. In addition to live events, the network also airs coaches' shows and classic games.

Nebraska football can be heard statewide and across the nation on the Husker Sports Network. The games can also be heard on Sirius Satellite Radio and live worldwide on the Internet at Huskers.com. Approximately four million fans per month visit Huskers.com during football season.

Nebraska football has been a fixture on national television for more than 50 years, since being featured on the first-ever television broadcast of a college game by NBC on Sept. 19, 1953. Since then, the Huskers have played on TV 304 more times, including 143 appearances on ABC.

The Huskers are also often in the spotlight in the postseason, enjoying national recognition for the many bowls Nebraska has competed in recently, such as the Holiday Bowl in 2010, televised to a national prime-time audience on ESPN.

Nebraska has ended the season ranked among the Associated Press Top 25 in 36 of the past 41 seasons.

"You always want to play your best, no matter who you're playing. That's why you come to Nebraska – to play in big bowl games, championship games, nationally televised games."

GAME DAY ATMOSPHERE

Game days at Nebraska are unlike any in college football. Fans line the streets of Lincoln waiting to enter the "Sea of Red," while the marching band parades up Stadium Drive as thousands of red-clad fans look on. The Huskers emerge from the famous "Tunnel Walk" to the sound of "Sirius" and the fans stay at a frenzied pitch until the final play of the game when they graciously cheer for the opposing players as they exit the field.

The Tunnel Walk, which began in 1994, has become an integral part of Memorial Stadium's game-day experience. It was created as a way for fans to share in the excitement of the team emerging from the locker room, something only a few could do before HuskerVision's cameras and big screens came to Memorial Stadium. The sounds of the Alan Parsons Project's "Sirius," and the roar of the 85,000 frenzied fans rock the stadium as the Huskers burst through the locker room doors and into the tunnel on their way to the Memorial Stadium FieldTurf. For as long as anyone can remember, the Huskers have touched a lucky horseshoe on their way from the locker room to the field. The horseshoe hangs above the door as Nebraska leaves the North Stadium

"I'll tell you the biggest difference between the state of Nebraska and any other state in football. I think the fan's loyalty, the noise factor that's on the field and the Sea of Red when you look out."

-Brent Musburger, ESPN /ABC

Stadium. The Big Red faithful packed a single-game record 86,304 fans into the historic venue for Nebraska's 55-0 win over Louisiana-Lafayette. Nebraska has extended its NCAA record sellout streak to 311 as it enters its first season of play in the Big Ten Conference in 2011.

Husker fans bring their show on the road as well. More than 60,000 red-clad Huskers trekked to Pasadena for the 2002 Rose Bowl, and in 2001, more than 30,000 Huskers swarmed South Bend for a matchup with Notre Dame. In 2006, the Husker Nation again outdid itself as nearly 30,000 Nebraska fans descended on the Coliseum in Los Angeles to watch the Husker contest with USC. Opposing stadiums throughout  $\operatorname{Big}\nolimits$  Ten Country are sure to soon see the invasion of red-clad Husker fans.

Every entrance at Memorial Stadium welcomes Husker fans with the following phrase: "Through these gates pass the Greatest Fans in College Football."

college football, no question in my mind. The enthusiasm here is as good as any place, but the integrity here of the fans is the best in America."

HUSKER POWER

BUILDING THE COMPLETE FOOTBALL PLAYER

The University of Nebraska football strength and conditioning staff is committed to helping each student-athlete reach his physical potential through a comprehensive approach to developing the complete football player. Through individual assessment and program design, it is our objective to increase the athletic performance of each individual athlete while reducing the risk of injury.

STRENGTH STAFF

The football strength and conditioning staff consists of five full-time coaches whose sole purpose is to train the football student-athlete. The student-athlete has a 4-5 year window to reach his potential both physically and as a football player. To do so requires the daily individual attention and interaction with the strength and conditioning staff to ensure each athlete is on the path to success.

We are committed to training the complete football player, aiming to ensure that each athlete reaches his potential. It is our job to create an atmosphere that will promote an increase in both mental and physical performance while reducing the risk of injury. Individual program design is essential in order to completely develop an athlete. Every athlete is different; every athlete has his own genetic profile, medical history and training history. We will evaluate each athlete when he comes to the University of Nebraska. It all starts with an initial physical assessment that includes evaluating the areas of strength, performance and function. When the data is collected and interpreted, a program will be designed to address the individual demands of the athlete.

COMPONENTS OF A SOUND TRAINING PROGRAM RESISTANCE TRAINING

The resistance training programs are individually designed and are focused on ground-based, three-dimensional, multi-joint movements. Ground-based exercises are done with the athlete's feet on the ground. Performing exercises with the feet on the ground mimics the athletic movements performed in football.

Three-dimensional movements are performed in all three planes of movement: side to side, up and down, and forward and backward. To accomplish this, the athlete must use free weights. Free weights will develop not only the primary muscles, but the stabilizing muscles as well.

Multi-joint exercises require the body to simultaneously move multiple joints in a coordinated effort in order to produce athletic movements.

Explosive training is essential for the game of football. The body's ability to apply force quickly will determine the athlete's success on the field. Explosive training takes the strength an athlete has and improves his ability to deliver that strength forcefully and rapidly.

CONDITIONING

It is important to condition like a football player. Football is a game that consists of short bursts of activity followed by a rest. It is important to follow this pattern when performing conditioning drills. Position-specific conditioning also needs to be addressed.

SPEED TRAINING

The game of football is dominated by acceleration and agility and will be a focal point during speed training. Acceleration is the ability to get to top speed in the smallest amount of time possible. Acceleration is critical to the success of the football player. Agility is the ability to change direction without losing speed.

POSITION SPECIFIC TRAINING

It is important to address the specific demands each position requires to play football. Each athlete will undergo specific training sessions to address the skills and techniques needed to be successful at the position he plays. Position specific training will greatly enhance on-field performance.

"The University of Nebraska's Athletic Department has a history of supporting its student-athletes. Nebraska is committed to providing the best facilities, equipment and atmosphere conducive to training the football player."

James Dobson, Head Football Strength Coach

"This incredible facility helped me earn all the honors I was so privileged to receive while I was at Nebraska. When you combine the facility with Coach Dobson and his outstanding staff, there is not a better strength and conditioning program in the country."

Ndamukong Suh, Nebraska All-American (2009)

ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Providing expert care to nearly 600 Husker student-athletes, Nebraska features one of the most well-trained and highly skilled athletic medicine staffs in the country.

Under the guidance of Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers, Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber and Head Football Athletic Trainer Mark Mayer, the 2011-12 Nebraska athletic medicine staff consists of five doctors, two therapist/athletic trainers, eight athletic trainers and six graduate assistant athletic trainers.

Nebraska's team of orthopaedists is led by Chief of Staff Dr. Pat Clare, a nationally respected orthopaedic surgeon with more than 30 years of service to Husker athletics.

Bottom: The Athletic Medicine Center features a hydrotherapy area that includes a three-level laned pool, allowing student-athletes across all sports to work out simultaneously. The Hydroworx 1000 Treadmill Pool is equipped with two cameras underwater for evaluation and assessment, while hot and cold plunge tanks are also available to the Huskers.

Nebraska's medical facilities have long been among the nation's best, and NU's athletic medicine center within the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will keep the Huskers on the front line of technology for decades to come. In addition to Nebraska's North Stadium facility, the NU Coliseum, Haymarket Park and the Bob Devaney Sports Center all feature athletic medicine areas. The Devaney Center's Athletic Medicine facility underwent an extensive expansion as part of the Hendricks Training Complex addition in 2011.

NUTRITION

Nebraska's Sports Nutritionists Josh Hingst and Lindsey Remmers work with all 23 of Nebraska's sports by educating athletes on topics such as increasing lean body mass, losing body fat, staying hydrated, nutritional strategies for competition, maximizing recovery following workouts and supplement use. Athletes are given individualized nutrition plans that can be applied in Nebraska's Performance Buffet at the Lewis Training Table, which is open each day for lunch and dinner and was expanded and remodeled in 2010. Student-athletes also utilize a fueling station called the landing (above right) to provide fluids, and nutritional foods before and after workouts and practices to maximize performance and recovery.

The success of Nebraska student-athletes reaches far beyond athletic competition. More Husker student-athletes have been selected to COSIDA Academic All-America teams (291) than any other school in the nation, and Nebraska has produced more NCAA Top Eight Award winners (16) than any other school. As it enters its first season of Big Ten Conference competition in 2011-12, Nebraska continues to set the standard for the approximately 1.400 NCAA member institutions.

The Husker football team leads all individual sport programs in the nation with 99 all-time CoSIDA Academic All-America awards. The NU volleyball progam has captured more Academic All-America awards (36) than any other women's team in the nation, while the Husker softball program ranks second on that list with 29 selections. Nebraska also ranks among the top 10 schools in the nation in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in men's and women's track and field/cross country, baseball and women's basketball.

HUSKERS GROW ACADEMIC TRADITION IN 2010-11

Husker student-athletes produced another stellar year at the University of Nebraska, continuing NU's tradition of academic success. Nebraska increased its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans across all sports to 291 with a Big 12 and Big Ten Conference-leading 14 honorees in 2010-11. Nebraska also set Big 12 records with 192 academic all-conference selections and 688 picks to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll during the year.

Track and field All-Americans Nicholas Gordon and Natalie Willer led an impressive season for Coach Gary Pepin's program. Gordon, a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American and the 2009 NCAA indoor long jump champion, claimed Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete-of-the-Year award. A two-time Big 12 long jump champion and a five-time All-American, the senior from Kingston, Jamaica, was a three-time first-team academic all-conference selection as a political science major. Willer, a three-time All-American and four-time Big 12 pole vault champion, added Female Student-Athlete-of-the-Year honors. Willer also joined Gordon as a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2011. The biological sciences major from Elkhorn, Neb., was one of three Huskers across all sports to earn prestigious $7,500 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, joining softball's Julie Brechtel and rifle's Ryann McGough. Willer also received a $7,500 Dr. Prentice Gautt Big 12 Postgraduate Scholarship.

Gordon, Willer and fellow two-time track and field Academic All-American Bjorn Barrefors headlined an impressive class of 14 Husker Academic All-Americans in 2010-11. Barrefors, who earned first-team honors, joined Gordon, Adam Dailey, Tyler Hitchler and Nate Polacek on the men's track and field/cross country Academic All-America team. The Husker men's track and field program led all sports nationally in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in 2010-11, while tying the NU record for most Academic All-Americans in one season by a Husker program (1997 football). The women's track and field team added Willer (first team) and Ashley Miller (second team) as CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

Safety Austin Cassidy earned first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors to become the 99th Husker football Academic All-American. Softball players Ashley Hagemann and Nikki Haget, who were also high school teammates, added CoSIDA Academic All-America honors of their own, along with wrestler Tucker Lane, soccer player Morgan Marlborough, rifle team member Ryann McGough and baseball player Casey Hauptmann. The pitcher from Omaha who was a 26th round pick of the New York Mets in the 2011 MLB Draft became the 10th Husker baseball player since 2001 to earn CoSIDA Academic All-America honors. He also earned a $7,500 Dr. Prentice Gautt Big 12 Postgraduate Scholarship.

Across all sports, Nebraska student-athletes claimed a Big 12-record 192 academic All-Big 12 selections, including a league-leading 148 first-team academic all-conference honorees. Over the past three years, Nebraska claimed nearly 550 academic All-Big 12 certificates across all sports, while no other Big 12 school accumulated 400 honors. NU student-athletes also earned a record-setting 688 spots on the Big 12 Commissioner's Fall and Spring Honor Rolls.

The hard work, dedication and commitment of Nebraska's student-athletes in the classroom resulted in 113 current or former student-athletes earning degrees from August of 2010 through May of 2011.

Top: Nebraska Student-Athletes of the Year Nicholas Gordon and Natalie Willer earned multiple All-America awards in the classroom and in competition for the Husker track and field program.

Top right: Prince Amukamara earned his bachelor's degree from Nebraska in December 2010, after claiming Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Year and first-team All-America honors. He was a first-round NFL Draft pick of the New York Giants.

Middle: Austin Cassidy earned his bachelor's degree from Nebraska in May of 2011. The safety from Lincoln, Neb., will play his senior season with his degree in hand while pursuing his second straight first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America award.

Middle: A three-time first-team academic All-Big 12 selection during his time at Nebraska, placekicker Adi Kunalic earned his bachelor's degree in May of 2011. Kunalic was one of the national leaders in touchbacks four consecutive seasons for the Huskers from 2007 through 2010.

Bottom: DeJon Gomes claimed his bachelor's degree in May of 2011 after helping the Huskers to their second straight 10-win season on the gridiron. Gomes was a fifth-round NFL Draft pick of the Washington Redskins.

Each spring Nebraska hosts an Academic Awards Banquet to honor student-athletes who have earned either a 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA or have earned a 3.0 or higher GPA in the previous calendar year. In the spring of 2011, Husker student-athletes earned 294 academic honors medallions.

From the day student-athletes decide the University of Nebraska is the right place to be, the athletic academic counseling unit provides personal and academic support to ensure that student-athletes will get the most out of their years as Huskers.

Featuring one of the most innovative and comprehensive academic support systems in the country, Nebraska is dedicated to helping its student-athletes become outstanding leaders in their chosen fields. The academic support team is comprised of 13 full-time staff members and a tutorial staff of approximately 70 tutors addressing all subject areas.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Eight academic counselors and three assistant academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor continuing eligibility and progress toward graduation. Essentially, academic counselors assist student-athletes in navigating the University of Nebraska system.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support is available from day one up to college graduation. Subject and mentor tutors help provide academic support and study strategies to be successful. Supplemental Instruction, a sub-component of the tutorial program, provides targeted group review sessions to help ease the transition to college academics while improving study strategies and building academic self-esteem.

STUDY HALL

Nebraska's study hall program is housed in the D.J. Sokol Enrichment Center within the Student Life Complex. Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall that features day, evening and weekend hours. Each student-athlete is required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. In addition, weekly study hall reports are provided to the coaching staff. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall may also be determined by the academic counselor.

MENTORING

Many student-athletes meet with a mentor on a weekly basis to assist in making a smooth transition from high school to college. Mentors collect syllabi, gather and report academic progress information and teach academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach to determine student strengths and areas for improvement. Results allow academic counselors to develop a personalized academic support program and to determine if more in-depth testing is warranted. When additional assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting psychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined that a student-athlete has a learning disability, appropriate accommodations are made through the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

Designed to enhance cultural awareness, staff members concentrate efforts on issues of transition, adjustment and retention.

These support programs include Ladies First, International Night and Your Degree First. Your Degree First is a program designed to assist, motivate and promote minority student-athletes in pursuing the degree of their choice.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION

The academic staff coordinates New Student-Athlete Orientation to help newcomers adjust to the multiple demands of being a college student-athlete. Presentations are made by academic counselors, compliance officials, NU faculty and administrators, business/community professionals and student-athletes.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

Student-athletes enjoy a new state-of-the art computer lab and technology center with more than 50 computers and professional supervision. Laptops are also available during team travel. Student-athletes have the benefit of ongoing education and assistance from a full-time computer technician.

Right: Construction was completed in the fall of 2010 on Nebraska Student Life Complex, which nearly tripled the size of NU's previous academic space. The Student Life Complex also features a new technology center and a dedicated Life Skills area.

LIFE SKILLS

The Nebraska Life Skills program is committed to providing proactive education, resources and support throughout college and beyond, best preparing Husker student-athletes for life after sports. Services will foster transition, retention, responsible decision-making, leadership, volunteerism and career development.

Nebraska has long been considered a pioneer in life skills support and programming. In 1998, Nebraska was one of five Division I schools nationally to win the prestigious Program of Excellence Award recognizing a strong commitment to total person development. In 2005, Keith Zimmer, Associate A.D. for Life Skills, was the recipient of the Dr. Gene Hooks Award recognizing him as the top life skills administrator in the country.

LIFE SKILLS COMPONENTS PROACTIVE EDUCATION

Husker Life Seminar — All incoming student-athletes complete a 13-week fall semester seminar addressing a variety of life skills topics ranging from leadership to money to relationships and study skills. Team Workshops — Campus and community experts facilitate team-specific life skills education workshops. Student-Athlete Assemblies — Meetings featuring remarks from Athletic Director Tom Osborne and nationally recognized life skills trainers.

PERSONALIZED SUPPORT/INDIVIDUAL SESSIONS

Resume Development – Each student-athlete works individually with a life skills staff member to create a personalized resume with periodic follow-up meetings to make updates through graduation. Game Plan Creation – Life skills counselors will create a "Game Plan for Life" outlining specific goals and objectives to be completed to enhance marketability prior to college graduation.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Nebraska student-athletes combine to impact over 100,000 people statewide on annual basis. Team Service Requirement – Each team participates in a minimum of two service projects per year. School Outreach – Individuals participate in numerous school outreach campaigns in both classroom and assembly settings. Hospital Visits – Huskers are frequent hospital visitors providing cheer and encouragement to a variety of patients. Miscellaneous Outreach – Outreach requests are received daily from the entire state requesting involvement from Husker student-athletes. Mentoring Programs – Typically requires one hour of service per week serving as a youth mentor.

LEADERSHIP/CITIZENSHIP

Life Skills promotes leadership development and provides recognition opportunities for extraordinary citizenship. Student-Athlete Advisory Committee – Elected team representatives from each of the 23 sports serve as the "voice" of the entire student-athlete population discussing student-athlete welfare, legislation and service events. Your Degree First – Leadership group providing programming and specialized support to student-athletes of color, women and international student-athletes. HERO Leadership Award – Individual recognition to Huskers who have consistently went above and beyond serving as an exemplary role-model. Heart and Soul Award – Presented annually to the top senior student-athlete leaders for extraordinary service throughout their college careers. Brook Berringer Citizenship Team – Annual "Good Works" team honoring football players for dedicated service in memory of late Husker Brook Berringer. Life Skills Award of Excellence – Presented to the single men's and women's team with the highest point total in the life skills team competition.

CAREER COMMITMENT

In addition to the creation of a personalized resume and game plan, the following career resources are available to every Husker. Student-Athlete Career Fair – Attended by approximately 25 companies. Networking Night – Former Husker student-athletes and other professionals thriving in their chosen career fields share valuable insights with sophomore student-athletes. Assessments – On-line assessments to help individuals discover talents and match with a major and career. Practical Experience – Programs in place to facilitate shadowing and internship placements. Job Preparation – Expert advice on cover letter writing, interviewing skills and evaluating the job offer.

POSTGRADUATE ASSISTANCE

Commitment to helping student-athletes pursue postgraduate plans and scholarships. Career Nights – Learn from the experts to gain valuable insight on timelines, application procedures, entrance requirements, personal essays and more. Scholarships – Seniors in their final season of athletic eligibility can apply for numerous postgraduate awards.

BROOK BERRINGER CITIZENSHIP TEAM

An excellent student, Brook Berringer graduated in 1995 with a degree in business administration. He was expected to be selected in the 1996 NFL Draft, but was killed in a plane crash on April 18, 1996. As a result of Berringer's extensive community service effort, the Nebraska football program established the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team honoring current Huskers for consistent and dedicated community service.

NEBRASKA'S NATIONAL POWER

One of the nation's premier athletic programs, Nebraska is dedicated to and successful in all 23 of its varsity sports. Nebraska has won a total of 24 team national championships since 1970, including five football titles, eight men's gymnastics championships, five bowling crowns, three volleyball titles and three women's track and field championships. In 2010-11, eight Husker teams finished among the top 20 in their respective sports.

NU had 15 teams advance to postseason action in 2010-11, including the Husker football team's appearance in the 2010 Holiday Bowl. The bowling team finished third at the 2011 NCAA Championships, while the women's gymnastics team matched the best finish in school history with a fourth-place showing at the 2011 NCAA Super Six. The Husker volleyball team finished seventh in the final AVCA national poll, while the men's gymnastics team added a 10th-place finish at the NCAA Championships. The Nebraska wrestling team added a second straight 12th-place finish at the NCAA Championships behind the dominance of two-time undefeated NCAA champion Jordan Burroughs. The Nebraska football team, men's and women's indoor track and field teams and the NU softball team all added top-25 national finishes in 2010-11.

While Nebraska's teams continued to perform at the highest levels, individual Husker athletes also earned national honors. Jordan Burroughs became Nebraska's first-ever two-time NCAA wrestling champion and claimed the Huskers' first-ever Hodge Trophy presented to the nation's most outstanding wrestler. Cornerback Prince Amukamara claimed first-team All-America honors after being named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. He went on to a first-round selection in the 2011 NFL Draft. Hannah Werth added Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors of her own for the NU volleyball team, while soccer's Morgan Marlborough was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year.

Several Nebraska newcomers also made major impacts at the conference and national levels in 2010-11. Junior linebacker Lavonte David was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, while Lauren Cook added the same award for the Huskers in volleyball. Quarterback Taylor Martinez claimed the Big 12 Offensive Freshman-of-the-Year award, while women's track and field competitor Mara Griva was named the Big 12 Outstanding Freshman.

Overall in 2010-11, 40 Nebraska student-athletes combined to capture 51 All-America awards across all sports. As a testament to Nebraska's national recruiting prowess, the All-Americans came to NU from 14 states and five foreign countries. The Cornhusker state showed its success in keeping the best and brightest of its future leaders at home, as 15 All-Americans came from the state of Nebraska. Among NU's 40 All-Americans, 23 are expected to return for the Huskers during their inaugural Big Ten campaign in 2011-12.

Jordan Burroughs became Nebraska's first two-time NCAA wrestling champion in 2011. The 165-pounder from Sicklerville, N.J., produced a pair of undefeated national championship seasons in 2009 (157 pounds) and 2011. Burroughs, a three-time All-American, was also Nebraska's first winner of the Hodge Trophy, presented to the nation's most outstanding wrestler.

Top: Point guard Lance Jeter led the Nebraska men's basketball team to postseason play, while helping the Huskers produce 17 home victories at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. Jeter earned All-Big 12 honors while claiming a spot on the USBWA All-District Team.

Bottom: The Nebraska women's track and field team captured the 2011 Big 12 Indoor title. It was NU's 103rd track and field conference crown in history. In 2010-11, 18 Husker men's and women's track and field athletes combined for 26 first- and second-team All-America awards.

Top: Brooke Delano led a trio of All-Americans for the Nebraska volleyball team in 2010. The Huskers captured the Big 12 Conference crown while finishing with a 29-3 record. Nebraska advanced to the round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament while finishing with a No. 7 national ranking.

Bottom: Taylor Edwards made an immediate impact on the Nebraska softball program in 2011. The catcher from Murrieta, Calif., smashed Husker freshman home run and RBI records while claiming All-America honors. Taylor and her twin sister Tatum formed the nucleus of an explosive lineup that led the Huskers to a 40-win season and an NCAA Regional berth.

Top: Morgan Marlborough earned Big 12 Offensive Player-of-the-Year honors for the second straight season in 2010, before adding NSCAA All-America accolades. Nebraska soccer's 17th All-American, Marlborough heads into her junior season in 2011 ranked eighth in school history in career points (97), needing 70 to match Christine Latham's school record.

HUSKERS MAKE HISTORIC MOVE TO BIG TEN

LEGENDS

EADERS

On July 1, 2010, the University of Nebraska became an official member of the Big Ten Conference, increasing the Big Ten's membership to 12 institutions for the first time in conference history. The addition of Nebraska marks the Big Ten's first expansion since Penn State University joined the conference in June of 1990. The Big Ten Conference is a union of 12 world-class academic institutions - who share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. The conference's 100-plus years of history, strong tradition of competitive intercollegiate athletic programs, vast and passionate alumni base, and consistent leadership in innovations position the Big Ten and its entire community firmly on the Big Stage

The Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness in all aspects of its student-athletes' lives, with the ultimate goal of ensuring that each individual has the opportunity to live a Big Life.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- Big Ten universities provide approximately $120 million in direct financial aid to more than 9,500 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships.
- Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with 298 teams. Other than the Ivy League, the Big Ten has the most broad-based athletic programs in the United States.
- Big Ten fans are some of the nation's most supportive, with nearly nine million patrons attending conference home contests for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball during 2010-11. In 2010, the Big Ten set attendance records for overall and average attendance in conference football games. In men's basketball, the Big Ten led the nation in average home attendance for the 35th straight season, while Big Ten women's volleyball also led the nation in total home attendance.
- Over the last 32 seasons, the conference has ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 nationally in football, men's basketball and wrestling attendance.
- Big Ten institutions have approximately five million living alumni and nearly 350,000 undergraduate students attending their universities.
- Based on the U.S. Census projected population for 2010, the nine-state Big Ten region accounts for approximately 70 million people, which ranks second only to the Big East and well ahead of the ACC, SEC, Pac-10 and Big 12.

FOOTBALL FACTS

- Nebraska will compete in the Legends Division, which includes Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota and Northwestern, while the Leaders Division includes Illinois, Indiana, Ohio State, Penn State, Purdue and Wisconsin.
- Including Nebraska (837 wins), four of the eight schools with 800 all-time wins are members of the Big Ten. Other Big Ten schools with 800 wins include Michigan (884), Ohio State (831) and Penn State (818). Since 1970, Nebraska leads the nation with 403 wins, while Ohio State ranks second with 379 victories, Michigan ranks fourth with 367 and Penn State is fifth with 366 wins.
- In the BCS era, Big Ten teams have played in more BCS bowl games than any other conference. A Big Ten teams has played in a BCS bowl game 23 times since 1998, more than the SEC (21), Big 12 (18) and Pac-10 (16).
- The Big Ten leads all conferences with a 6-1 bowl record against BCS top-15 teams over the last two seasons. All other conferences (combined) are 7-16 against BCS top-15 schools.
- In the 32 seasons the NCAA tracked attendance, the Big Ten led the nation 15 times.
- Five Big Ten teams (including Nebraska) averaged more than 80,000 fans per home game in 2010, including Michigan, Penn State, Ohio State and Wisconsin.

"Nebraska is a team with a huge fan base, a huge following, a huge stadium and an awesome atmosphere. They don't tailgate up to the last minute; the stadium is full an hour before. And it's a program where football means everything. Big Red nation is 12 months a year."

BIG TEN NETWORK

Headquartered in Chicago, the Big Ten Network is the first internationally distributed television network dedicated to covering one of America's premier collegiate conferences.

With more than 350 live sports events, and virtually all of them in high definition, the Big Ten Network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country. The network is on the air 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

The network is available to an estimated 75 million households, through agreements

The network is available to an estimated 75 million households, through agreements with more than 300 cable/satellite affiliates and appears in 19 of the nation's top 20 media markets.

In 2010, every Big Ten home football game was nationally televised. Including road and neutral games, 99 percent (87 of 88) of Big Ten games were televised nationally. In 2010, the ACC (29 games), Big 12 (23) and SEC (10) combined to have 62 games go without live national television coverage.

BIG TEN NETWORK FACTS MORE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

- The Big Ten's media agreements with CBS Sports, ABC/ESPN, the Big Ten Network and CBS College Sports Network provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever.
- In 2006, the Big Ten created the first national conference-owned television network devoted to the athletic and academic programs of a single conference. The Big Ten Network launched on Aug. 30, 2007, and became the first new network in cable or satellite television history to reach 30 million homes in its first 30 days.
- Since the current media agreements began in 2007-08, every home football and men's basketball game has been produced while women's basketball has received more coverage than any other conference.
- The Big Ten's new media agreements have resulted in the broadcast of more than 850 events nationally and regionally on an annual basis, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

BO PELINI

HEAD COACH | FOURTH SEASON OHIO STATE • 1990

"It is about the process." Any Nebraska fan or casual observer of the Cornhusker football program has heard Head Coach Bo Pelini use that phrase to describe his guiding philosophy for his team to be a success.

One other fact is very clear: as the disciplined, no-nonsense head coach moves into his fourth season at Nebraska, Pelini's process is working. The results speak for themselves.

In 2010, Pelini guided Nebraska to its third Big 12 North Division title in his three years as head coach. He is the only coach in Big 12 history to win at least a share of a divisional title in each of his first three seasons.

Nebraska finished with a 10-4 record, giving the Huskers consecutive 10-win seasons for the first time since 2000 and 2001. Pelini has guided Nebraska to nine or more wins in each of his first three seasons, joining Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne and Frank Solich as the only coaches in NU history to win at least nine games in each of their first three seasons. Pelini's 29 victories over the past three years also leads a group of 18 head coaches who were hired prior to the start of the 2008 campaign.

During the Huskers' 2010 run, Pelini also guided Nebraska to wins over ranked teams in back-to-back weeks knocking off Oklahoma State and Missouri in late October to take control of the Big 12 North. The victories marked the first time NU had defeated top-20 teams in consecutive games since 1999. The win at No. 17 Oklahoma State was the highest ranked team NU had defeated on the road since 1997, while the victory over seventh-ranked Missouri in Lincoln was the highest-ranked team NU had defeated in nine seasons.

Pelini's expertise has always been defense, and the 2010 Blackshirts again reflected his defensive acumen. The Huskers ranked 11th nationally in total defense, after finishing seventh in that category in 2009. Nebraska also finished in the top in pass efficiency defense, passing yards allowed and scoring defense.

In 2009, Pelini guided Nebraska to a 10-4 record and the Big 12 North championship. The Huskers posted their first 10-win season in six years and were ranked No. 14 in both final national polls, NU's highest ranking at the end of the season since 2001. Nebraska fell just one point and one second short of its first Big 12 title in a decade, dropping a 13-12 decision to second-ranked Texas in the Big 12 Championship Game. Nebraska capped the year with a dominant 33-0 shutout of Arizona in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl, giving Pelini the third of three straight bowl wins to open his head coaching career.

Nebraska's path to the conference title game was not an easy one. After a pair of disappointing October losses, Nebraska stood 4-3 overall and just 1-2 in Big 12 play. However, for a second straight year, Pelini did not waver, using his steady process to get his team back on track as Nebraska played its best football to close the season. The Huskers reeled off five straight wins to end the regular season, including three road victories, and captured the division title by two games.

Pelini became the first coach in Big 12 history to win at least a share of a division title in each of his first two seasons, winning a share of the title in his only three seasons in the league.

The resurgence of the Nebraska program under Pelini has been due in large part to remarkable defensive improvement – Pelini's area of expertise before taking over as head coach. Just two seasons removed from ranking near the bottom of several Big 12 and national defensive categories, the Blackshirts ascended to a position as one of the nation's most dominant defenses in 2009.

Nebraska led the nation in scoring defense in 2009, allowing just 10.4 points per game, while pitching a pair of shutouts. The 10.4 points per game marked the lowest average allowed by Nebraska since the Blackshirts also led the nation by allowing 9.5 points per game in 1984. The 2009 season also marked the first time NU posted two shutouts since 2003 when Pelini served as defensive coordinator, and the 2009 Huskers held eight of 14 opponents to 10 or fewer points.

The Blackshirts also topped the pass efficiency defense and red zone defense lists and ranked in the top 10 nationally in sacks, rushing defense and total defense. The 272.0 yards per game allowed ranked as NU's best since 1999.

Under Pelini's guidance, defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh was one of the most decorated defensive players in college football history. The first defensive lineman to be a finalist for the Heisman Trophy in 15 seasons, Suh finished fourth in the voting. He was also the first defensive player to be named the Associated Press Player of the Year, and was a unanimous All-American. Suh's hardware included the Outland, Lombardi, Nagurski and Bednarik awards. The award-winning season for Suh came just two seasons after LSU defensive tackle Glenn Dorsey won three major national awards and was an All-American while Pelini served as LSU's defensive coordinator. Suh and Dorsey are the only players in the past 15 seasons to sweep the Nagurski and Bednarik awards.

Pelini guided the Huskers to a 9-4 record in 2008, capped by victories in the Huskers' final four games and six of the season's final seven contests. The late-season surge allowed Nebraska to earn a share of the Big 12 North championship, and the Huskers picked up their ninth win with a 26-21 come-from-behind victory over Clemson in the Konica Minolta Gator Bowl. The win was a fitting conclusion for a team that developed a toughness that was a direct extension of its head coach.

Pelini's nine wins were the most nationally among first-time head coaches in 2008. Nebraska won its final four games of 2008 to carry the longest winning streak into a season since 2000. The 6-1 run to close the year tied for the best by an NU team since 1997, and Nebraska won its final four games for just the second time since 1997. In fact, through two seasons, Pelini's Nebraska teams have a 13-4 record in games played on or after Nov. 1, including an 11-1 mark in regular-season contests.

The success under Pelini in 2008 was attributed to both sides of the football. The Husker offense continued to rank among the nation's best, finishing in the nation's top 20 in passing offense, scoring offense and total offense.

The biggest gains were made on the defensive side of the ball, where Pelini implemented his proven defensive system. Nebraska improved its total defensive average by 126.9 yards per game and finished second in the Big 12 in total defense. The run defense allowed 116.5 yards per game, nearly cutting its average from 2007 in half and finishing in the top 25 nationally in that category. The Blackshirts also posted 35 sacks, nearly tripling the total of the previous season.

The successful first season for Pelini came as a result of his ability to quickly implement his attitude and leadership into the program. Nebraska Athletic Director and Hall of Fame coach Tom Osborne named Pelini the 28th head coach in Nebraska football history on Dec. 2, 2007. Pelini wasted no time instilling a disciplined approach on and off the field, while also embracing the traditions of the Cornhusker football program. Pelini built a coaching staff with close ties to both the Pelini family and the Nebraska football family.

The Nebraska staff includes three former Husker players, and six full-time assistant coaches with previous experience at Nebraska. Five coaches have worked alongside Pelini, including five members of the 2003 Husker staff. His Youngstown roots are also represented with three Cardinal Mooney High School grads among the Husker coaches.

Pelini immediately showed the discipline to handle multiple tasks following his hiring. While quickly taking charge of all aspects of the Nebraska program, Pelini was also committed to finishing what he had started at LSU. Pelini returned to Baton Rouge in mid-December of 2007 and successfully orchestrated the Tigers' defensive game plan for the BCS National Championship Game against Ohio State. The 38-24 win was keyed by a defense that forced three turnovers and had five sacks.

Following the championship victory, Pelini turned his full focus to Nebraska. His first order of business in Lincoln was to pull together the Huskers' 2008 recruiting class. Pelini successfully organized and led a recruiting charge that allowed Nebraska to sign a talented and balanced recruiting class that February.

Pelini also understands the importance of the storied Nebraska walk-on program, and has integrated it as a key part of the Huskers' recruiting plan. The Cornhusker staff has welcomed nearly 100 walk-ons to the program in Pelini's first four seasons, and will continue to make the walk-on program a focus in future years.

Pelini has also reached out to two groups that form the backbone of the tradition-rich

Nebraska program-its former players and its passionate fan base.

Former Cornhuskers have rallied behind Pelini's blue-collar approach. In turn the head coach has opened his door to those who helped build the program. Pelini has made a strong effort to connect with former players and those past Cornhuskers have become a fixture in the football offices and at practices.

Pelini has made regular public appearances around the state, reaching out to the nation's most loyal fans. The widespread support for Pelini has been evident at every stop and his simple, humble approach is a perfect fit with Nebraskans. The support for Pelini has been evident since his arrival, beginning with 80,000 fans at the Red-White Spring Game in April of 2008 to loyal followings on the road, at bowl games in Jacksonville and San Diego and the 2009 and 2010 Big 12 Championship Games in Arlington, Texas.

While devoting time to former players, fans and attracting talented future Huskers, Pelini's No. 1 professional priority has been, and always will be, the current players in his program. Players have responded to his straight-forward message and process: Work hard, do the right thing and success will follow.

That hard work and discipline does not end on the field. Pelini's players have excelled in the classroom as well since he took over the program. Among Nebraska's 21-player 2011 senior class, 20 student-athletes are on track to graduate by May of 2012. Overall, 52 of 57 players in Pelini's first three senior classes are set to earn their degrees by December of 2011. Eight players have earned CoSIDA Academic All-District honors, including 2010 first-team academic All-American Austin Cassidy and 2008 second-team selections Todd Peterson and Tyler Wortman. Pelini has also seen 38 of his players earned first-team academic all-conference honors during the past three years.

The wide-spread success Pelini has enjoyed in his first two seasons in Lincoln should come as no surprise. Prior to being named head coach, Pelini enjoyed five seasons as college football's most successful defensive coordinator. But the success story started much earlier during Pelini's youth. The youngest of eight children, Pelini grew up in the hard-nosed town of Youngstown, Ohio. Pelini's parents instilled the discipline at a young age that has guided Bo to success both in and out of athletics.

Pelini's passion for athletics began in Youngstown. After a standout prep career at Cardinal Mooney High School, Pelini went on to Ohio State. A hard-hitting safety, he was known for his passionate and relentless play. Teammates recognized his leadership and elected Pelini a team captain as a senior.

The tradition of being part of winning programs did not end after Pelini's playing career. His coaching career has featured success at every stop along the way. A Super Bowl ring and a national championship are part of the 43-year-old's impressive resume.

That coaching resume included a one-year stop as defensive coordinator at Nebraska. During the 2003 season, Pelini quickly learned the traditions of Nebraska football and its passionate fan base. In turn, Husker fans recognized the discipline and passion instilled by Pelini in the Blackshirt defense.

His first stop in Lincoln marked Pelini's first full-time college coaching job. During that 2003 season, Pelini engineered a dominant Blackshirt defense. The energized, relentless unit finished among the Big 12 and nation's best in nearly every defensive category.

Nebraska finished the year ranked first nationally in pass efficiency defense, second in scoring defense and 11th in total defense. The Huskers set a school and Big 12 record with 32 interceptions and tied an NU record with 47 takeaways, helping Nebraska lead the nation in turnover margin.

Pelini began his second tour of duty at Nebraska in 2008 with a victory on his resume. His first tenure in Lincoln was capped by serving as the interim head coach for Nebraska's dominant 17-3 win over Michigan State in the 2003 Alamo Bowl. In the win, the defense held MSU to just 174 total yards and a first-quarter field goal.

More defensive dominance followed in Pelini's next two stops at Oklahoma and LSU. Pelini served as the co-defensive coordinator on Bob Stoops' staff at Oklahoma in 2004, helping the Sooners win a Big 12 title and reach the national championship game against USC. Oklahoma finished the season ranked sixth nationally in rush defense, 11th in scoring defense and 13th in total defense.

In his three seasons as the defensive coordinator at LSU from 2005 to 2007, Pelini's dominant defenses helped the Tigers compile a 34-6 record, including the 2007 BCS national championship and the Southeastern Conference championship. The BCS title game in January of 2008 marked the third time in four years that Pelini was a part of a team that played in a BCS game.

The play of Pelini's defenses was a key part of LSU's success. The Tigers ranked third in the nation in total defense in 2007, surrendering an average of 288.8 yards per game. LSU also ranked in the top 25 nationally in pass efficiency defense (3rd), passing yards allowed per game (9th), rush defense (14th) and scoring defense (17th). Defensive tackle Glenn Dorsey was the nation's most decorated defender in 2007, earning the Outland Trophy, the Lombardi Award and the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, while safety Craig Steltz earned All-America honors.

Pelini's defenses have a history of swarming to the football. LSU forced 36 turnovers in 2007, the third-most takeaways in the country. The Tigers' 2007 defensive success was the standard for Pelini at LSU, as each of his three LSU defenses ranked No. 3 nationally in total defense

Pelini's 2006 unit surrendered just 242.8 yards per game, the fewest by a Tiger team since 1976. A pair of Tigers earned first-team All-America honors, including Dorsey and safety LaRon Landry, who went on to become the sixth overall pick in the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

In 2005, the Tigers allowed just 266.9 yards per game, and ranked in the top 10 nationally in all four major defensive categories, including third in total defense, scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. Kyle Williams and Claude Wroten were both first-team All-America selections.

Overall, the seven college teams Pelini has been a part of have compiled an impressive 74-18 record, winning at least nine games every season. His defenses have posted nine shutouts and held the opposition to seven points or less 32 times. The 2009 Nebraska defense boasted two of those shutouts, while holding five opponents to three points or fewer.

Before joining the Huskers in 2003, Pelini had nine years of NFL experience, one season at a Division I university, and one year in the high school ranks. Pelini broke into the NFL in 1994 as assistant secondary coach for the San Francisco 49ers. With the 49ers, Pelini coached in the Super Bowl, helping San Francisco to a 49-26 win over San Diego in Super Bowl XXIX. Pelini held that position for three years before moving to the Patriots. He spent three years as New England's linebackers coach under coach Pete Carroll, helping the Patriots to a 27-21 record and two playoff appearances.

After three years with the Patriots, Pelini moved to the Packers, coaching linebackers for three seasons. In three years in Green Bay with head coach Mike Sherman, the Packers posted a 33-15 record and advanced twice to the playoffs. In 2002, the Packer defense ranked fourth in the NFL in pass defense, allowing 188.4 yards per game.

Pelini got his start in coaching in 1991, serving as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa under Hayden Fry. From there he moved into the high school ranks, serving as quarterbacks coach at Cardinal Mooney High School in Youngstown, Ohio in 1993 before taking the leap to the 49ers

A standout free safety at Ohio State from 1987 to 1990, Pelini earned four letters for the Buckeyes. He was coached by Earle Bruce in 1987 and John Cooper his final three seasons. Pelini helped the Buckeyes to a 15-8 record over his final two seasons as a starter, and he was a three-time selection to the Academic All-Big Ten team. As a senior co-captain Pelini received the "Bo Rein Award," given annually to the Buckeyes' most inspirational player.

After earning his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Ohio State in 1990, Pelini completed his master's degree in sports administration at Ohio University in 1992. Pelini and his wife, Mary Pat, have three children, a 12-year-old son, Patrick, and two daughters, Kate, 10 and Caralyn, 8.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT BO PELINI

"Hopefully, I am an example of what a player can gain by coming to Nebraska and playing for Coach Pelini and his staff. The coaching staff taught me so much in the short amount of time I was able to work with them. As a recruit you can come in and have four years under your belt with this staff. Just imagine how much better you can become."

-- Ndamukong Suh, 2009 Heisman Trophy finalist, Lombardi, Outland, Nagurski and Bednarik awards winner and 2010 No. 2 NFL Draft pick

"Our football program has made significant progress in three years under Bo's leadership. Bo is very straight-forward and very honest, and this is something players like. Our football team has responded to Bo's leadership and that has been a big part of the team's success. It is obvious he has a good understanding of this football program and an understanding of the importance of football to the state of Nebraska."

-- Tom Osborne, Hall of Fame Football Coach and current NU Athletic Director

"Bo is a great person and a great coach. He did a wonderful job for us while he was on our staff, and he has obviously been successful at his other stops, as well. He is doing an excellent job for Nebraska."

-- Oklahoma Head Coach Bob Stoops

"I spent five years with Bo in the NFL. He's a great football coach. He is a success due to his work ethic, toughness and the great schemes that he brings."

-- Seattle Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll

"I have watched Bo's career closely, first in the NFL, then as one of the best coordinators in college football and now as the head coach at Nebraska. I think it was evident that he was ready to be the leader of a first-class program like Nebraska. Nebraska has one of the best young coaches in the country. Bo has shown that he is on track to get Nebraska back among the elite of college football."

-- Kirk Herbstreit, ESPN College Football Analyst

"I'm just grateful I had the opportunity to play for him because he's done tremendous things for me in my career. He has, without a doubt, made me the player I am today. I just enjoy the way he coaches. I just enjoy being around him."

-- Glenn Dorsey, 2007 Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy winner under Pelini

"When Coach Pelini came (to Nebraska) he definitely established a whole new culture that kept all of us accountable and just got us ready to be young men in the future."

-- Prince Amukamara, 2010 All-American and 2011 No. 19 NFL Draft pick

TIM BECK

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS | FOURTH SEASON CENTRAL FLORIDA • 1988

Tim Beck is in his fourth season at Nebraska and his first season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Beck spent his first three seasons on staff tutoring the Nebraska running backs. Beck has previously helped direct prolific offenses in an offensive coordinator role at Kansas and Missouri State.

Beck helped the Huskers' 2010 rushing attack rank first in the Big 12 and ninth nationally in 2010 at 247.6 yards per game. Nebraska topped the 200-yard mark 10 times, rushed for 300 yards four times and 400 yards once. The Huskers ranked seventh nationally with an average of 5.47 yards per carry, and Nebraska also posted its first 2,500-yard rushing season since 2003 and scored 30 rushing touchdowns for the first time since 2001.

NU posted back-to-back 300-yard rushing games against Idaho and Washington, a first for the program since 2002. The Huskers had three 100-yard rushers for only the fifth time in school history against the Huskies. Two weeks later at Kansas State, Nebraska ran for 451 yards, its highest total since 2001.

Two-time All-Big 12 selection Roy Helu Jr. ran for a career-high 1,245 yards - the second-highest total by a senior running back in NU history - before being selected in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft. Helu Jr. was the first Husker to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons since Calvin Jones in 1992 and 1993. He also set the all-time Nebraska rushing record with 307 yards against Missouri. Behind Helu Jr., Rex Burkhead earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades and rushed for 951 yards in 2010, including three 100-yard games.

In 2009, Nebraska averaged 147.1 rushing yards per game, and outrushed 11 of 14 opponents. Helu Jr. rushed for 1,147 yards, and ranked fourth in the Big 12 in rushing to earn second-team All-Big 12 honors.

In Beck's first year, NU's running game improved throughout 2008. Nebraska had five games with more than 200 rushing yards in league play, including a season-high 355 yards against Kansas State. In league games, NU ranked No. 3 in the Big 12 at 182.5 yards per game, tops in the North division.

Beck came to Nebraska after a three-year stint on the staff at Kansas. Beck was the Jayhawks' receivers coach each of his three seasons in Lawrence, and was promoted to pass game coordinator in February of 2007.

the most respected high school coaches in the state of Texas, serving three seasons at Summit High in Mansfield. He was the 2003 District Coach of the Year, and a year later, Summit High advanced to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs with a 9-4 record. The Jaguars finished the season with the top-ranked defense in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex area.

Beck was head coach at R.L. Turner High in Carrollton, Texas, from 1999 to 2001, leading the school to back-to-back playoff appearances and consecutive winning seasons for the first time in 25 years. Beck was named the district coach of the year in 2000.

Prior to coaching in the Texas high school ranks, Beck worked at Missouri State for three seasons from 1996 to 1998, including one season as the offensive coordinator. In 1998, the MSU offense racked up 4,542 total yards - the fourth-best single-season mark in school history.

Beck was hired at Missouri State after leading Saguaro High School in Scottsdale, Ariz., to the 1995 4A state championship – the first state championship in the school's history. Beck was named the regional coach of the year in 1994, and in his final two seasons at the school, Saguaro compiled a 23-4 record, compared to a 5-43 mark in the five seasons prior to his arrival.

The 45-year-old Beck served as a graduate assistant at Kansas State in 1991 and 1992 under Bill Snyder, where worked with Carl Pelini. Previously, Beck coached the outside linebackers and punters at Illinois State in 1990, and worked in 1988 and 1989 as an assistant coach at Miramar High School.

Beck is a native of Youngstown, Ohio, and graduated from Cardinal Mooney High, the same high school that Bo and Carl Pelini attended. Beck was a standout in football, basketball and baseball at Cardinal Mooney.

Beck played at Central Florida and earned his bachelor's degree in 1988 before adding a master's degree in counseling and guidance from KSU in 1992. He and his wife, Tamara, have a son, Jordan, and a daughter, Haylie Marie.

CARL PELINI

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | FOURTH SEASON YOUNGSTOWN STATE • 1989

In his first three seasons, Pelini has played a leading role in a dramatic resurgence for the Husker defense. After being one of the nation's most improved defenses in 2008, Nebraska has featured a dominant defensive unit under Pelini's direction the past two seasons. Pelini's role has been recognized, as he has been a nominee for the Frank Broyles Assistant Coach Award each of the past two years. When combining stats from the past two seasons, NU's defense ranks in the top seven nationally in total defense, scoring defense and passing yards allowed and tops in the nation in pass efficiency defense.

The 2010 Blackshirts finished 11th nationally in total defense and ranked in the top 10 in pass efficiency defense (3rd), passing yards allowed (5th) and scoring (9th). After leading the nation in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense in 2009, the 2010 unit achieved its lofty rankings despite losing three starters who were selected in the first four rounds of the 2010 NFL Draft.

Pelini produced a first-round draft pick for the second straight year when Prince Amukamara was the 19th overall player selected in the 2011 NFL Draft. Amukamara was also the 2010 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, marking the second straight season a Husker took home the honor. Linebacker Lavonte David was named Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, while a league-high five Huskers were first-team All-Big 12 selections. Two more earned second-team accolades and two others were honorable-mention picks. Nationally, four Blackshirts were named first- or second-team All-Americans by at least one organization.

In 2009, the Huskers led the nation in scoring defense, pass efficiency defense and red zone defense, while also ranking in the top 10 nationally in sacks, rushing defense and total defense. Nebraska surrendered just 10.4 points per game, posted two shutouts and allowed only two opponents to reach 20 points. NU held eight opponents to 10 or fewer points, including seven in single digits. Six of Nebraska's 14 opponents failed to score an offensive touchdown against the Blackshirts, while each of NU's opponents failed to reach their season average in points and only one reached its average in total offense.

Ndamukong Suh was the second overall pick in the 2010 NFL Draft after being named a Heisman Trophy finalist and the winner of the Associated Press National Player of the Year, Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Rotary Lombardi Award, Outland Trophy and the Chuck Bednarik Award. Suh moved up to second place on the NU career chart in tackles for loss, including a school-record tying seven TFL in the Big 12 Championship Game. Defensive tackle Jared Crick set the school record with 5.0 sacks at Baylor, while Matt O'Hanlon intercepted a school-record tying three passes against Oklahoma.

In Pelini's first season in 2008, the Nebraska defense finished second in the Big 12 in total defense and ranked among the top 25 nationally in rushing defense. In the process, NU allowed 127 fewer yards per game than in 2007.

The 46-year-old Pelini joined the NU staff after three seasons on Frank Solich's coaching staff at Ohio University. He played a vital role in helping the Bobcats turn around their football program, including a nine-win season and bowl game in 2006. Those marks were firsts for the school since the 1968 campaign. The Bobcat defense then continued the turnaround the following season, ranking in the top 30 nationally in scoring and total defense in 2007.

Pelini spent 2004 as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Minnesota State Mankato, under head coach Jeff Jamrog, a former Husker player and assistant coach. Pelini helped the Mavericks to a 6-5 record after a winless season the previous year. Pelini joined Jamrog after spending the 2003 season as NU's defensive graduate assistant, when Bo Pelini was the defensive coordinator. Carl Pelini worked with the defensive line, helping NU rank second nationally in scoring defense and takeaways and 11th in total defense.

Pelini was the head coach at Fitch High School in Austintown, Ohio, from 2000 to 2002. Pelini rebuilt a program that had not had a winning season for eight years before his arrival, culminating with a 6-4 record in 2002. Pelini previously was the head coach and athletic director at Winnetonka High School in Kansas City, Mo., from 1996 to 2000, and also served as the defensive coordinator at Blue Valley High School in Overland Park, Kan.

Pelini played two seasons at Columbia University, before transferring to Youngstown State, where he earned his undergraduate degree in 1989. He was a defensive graduate assistant on Bill Snyder's staff at Kansas State over the 1989 and 1990 seasons, then served as a restricted earnings coach in 1991.

Pelini earned his bachelor's degree in English literature from Youngstown State in 1989. He added a master's degree in journalism from Kansas State in 1991 and a master's in education from Ohio State University in 1993.

Carl and his wife, Kelley, are the parents of three children, Nicole, Danielle and Dominic.

RON BROWN

RUNNING BACKS | FOURTH SEASON (21ST OVERALL)

BROWN • 1979

Veteran college assistant Ron Brown rejoined the Nebraska coaching staff in 2008 and enters his fourth season on Bo Pelini's staff in 2011.

In his second tour of duty on the NU coaching staff, Brown spent his first three seasons coaching the tight ends, but moves to the running backs in 2011. The 2011 campaign will be Brown's 21st overall season as a Husker assistant after serving on the NU staff for 17 seasons from 1987 to 2003.

Nebraska's tight ends were a valuable asset in both the passing and running games in 2010 under Brown. In the passing game, Kyler Reed emerged as a playmaker, catching 22 passes for 395 yards and a Nebraska tight end record eight touchdown grabs. Reed's 79-yard touchdown reception at Kansas State was Nebraska's longest pass play since 2002. Led by Ben Cotton, Brown's tight ends were also a key cog in Nebraska's rushing attack, which led the Big 12 and ranked ninth nationally in rushing.

In 2009, Brown's tight ends combined for 46 catches, 442 yards and six touchdowns. Five different tight ends caught a pass, while tight ends grabbed six of Nebraska's 18 touchdown catches on the season.

Mike McNeill enjoyed his second straight strong season under Brown's tutelage. McNeill tied for the team lead with four touchdown catches, while ranking second with 26 catches and third with 259 receiving yards. He was a second-team AP All-Big 12 selection in 2009.

In 2008, Brown assisted with an NU offense that finished 12th nationally in total offense. McNeill set an NU tight end season record with 32 receptions, including six touchdown grabs. Fellow sophomore tight end Dreu Young averaged a team-leading 15.6 yards per catch while sharing time with McNeill.

Brown served as receivers coach for his entire first tenure with the Huskers and also tutored the tight ends during his first 16 seasons on the NU staff. The blocking of Brown's wide receivers played a key role in Nebraska's nine NCAA rushing titles.

Brown is nationally respected for his ability as an intense teacher on the gridiron. The NU receivers under Brown were long known for their tenacity and downfield blocking. Despite featuring a run-based attack from 1987 to 2003, Brown's receivers and tight ends also made their mark in the passing game, leading the Big 12 in touchdown receptions three times.

Off the field, Brown and former Husker Stan Parker are co-founders and co-directors of a statewide Christian ministry called Mission Nebraska. This ministry stewards MY BRIDGE RADIO, which consists of numerous Christian radio stations and translators across Nebraska. Mission Nebraska also facilitates a statewide Christian endeavor called FreedMen, which challenges and inspires men and boys to take a strong courageous Christian stand in the public square.

The 54-year-old Brown spent the four years prior to his return to coaching serving as the Nebraska State Director of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. While he relinquished that duty to return to the Cornhuskers, he continues as a regular columnist for FCA's National Magazine "Sharing the Victory." Through Mission Nebraska, Brown also hosts a weekly statewide cable TV show called "Truth Vision", along with daily radio spots.

During his time away from coaching, Brown also worked as an internet, television and radio college and high school analyst for ESPN and Sports Spectrum.

He has authored several books on Christian character and growth. He is an outspoken advocate on many issues, including adoption, abstinence and drug and alcohol education, race relations and anti-pornography, to name a few.

On the coaching front, Brown joined Osborne's staff for his first tenure at NU after four years of coaching at Brown University in Providence, R.I., from 1983 to 1986. Brown's first season was as the school's head freshman coach, and he then spent three seasons as defensive backfield coach. Brown also served as assistant to the athletic director in 1986.

Twenty-seven of Brown's former pupils have gone on to professional careers, including tight end Johnny Mitchell, the New York Jets' first-round pick in 1992; Tyrone Hughes, the two-time Pro Bowl selection with the New Orleans Saints; and tight end Sheldon Jackson, a 1999 draft pick of the Buffalo Bills. Brown has coached 37 academic all-conference players and two CoSIDA Academic All-Americans with the Huskers.

Brown was a two-time first-team All-Ivy League performer as a defensive back. He was selected to Brown's All-Century team and the school's Sports Hall of Fame. Brown signed with three NFL teams as a free agent from 1979 to 1981.

Brown received his bachelor's degree from Brown in 1979, then earned his master's degree in public health from Columbia University in 1982. He began his coaching career as a defensive coordinator for the semipro New Jersey Rams in 1982, before moving to his alma mater in 1983.

Brown is married to Molvina Carter and they have two daughters, Sojourner Elaine and Bronwyn Pearl.

BARNEY COTTON

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE | FOURTH SEASON (FIFTH OVERALL) NEBRASKA • 1983

Barney Cotton is in his fourth season as the Nebraska offensive line coach. The Omaha native is in his fifth season overall as a Husker assistant, having previously served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in 2003, a position Cotton has tutored for 22 years. Cotton also serves as Nebraska's associate head coach, assisting Head Coach Bo Pelini with a number of administrative issues.

Cotton's instruction helped NU's offensive line rank among the Big 12's best in 2010. Behind the play of his line, Nebraska rushed for 3,466 yards, the program's highest total since 2002 and the first 2,500-yard rushing season since 2003.

The line helped Nebraska rank first in the Big 12 and ninth nationally in rushing yards per game (247.6 ypg). Cotton has developed a deep offensive line, which paid dividends last season with returning starters Marcel Jones and Mike Smith combining for only four games played and zero starts due to injuries.

In their absence, seniors Ricky Henry, D.J. Jones and Keith Williams anchored the line, along with junior center Mike Caputo. Henry became the first Husker offensive lineman to earn first-team All-Big 12 honors since Toniu Fonoti in 2001, while Caputo and Williams garnered honorable-mention accolades. Four freshmen were among Nebraska's top 10 offensive linemen, including redshirt freshman Jeremiah Sirles, who started all 14 games at left tackle.

Under Cotton's leadership in 2009, three Husker linemen (Henry, Williams and Jacob Hickman) earned All-Big 12 accolades from the Associated Press. The line helped pave the way for I-back Roy Helu Jr. to earn All-Big 12 honors while posting the 29th 1,000-yard rushing season in Husker history. Helu Jr. added 1,245 rushing yards in another All-Big 12 campaign in 2010, becoming the first Husker with back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in nearly two decades.

Cotton helped Nebraska finish among the top 20 units nationally in total offense, scoring offense and passing offense in 2008. Matt Slauson was a second-team All-Big 12 pick under Cotton's guidance, while Hickman and Lydon Murtha were honorable-mention picks. The line paved the way for the Husker running game to average 169.8 yards per game and score 27 touchdowns, while protecting quarterback Joe Ganz as he threw for a single-season school-record 3,568 yards, and set the single-season school-record with 3,826 total yards.

In 2003, Cotton's offensive unit helped Nebraska to a 10-3 record and a victory over Michigan State in the Alamo Bowl. Nebraska ranked among the top 10 nationally in rushing offense and four linemen earned all-conference accolades.

Following his successful one-year stint with NU, Cotton stayed in the Big 12, serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Iowa State.

In 2004, Cotton's offense helped ISU to a late-season surge and a berth in the Independence Bowl where it defeated Miami (Ohio). The following season, Bret Meyer and Todd Blythe led ISU to a trip to the Houston Bowl, as Meyer threw for 2,876 yards, while Blythe topped 1,000 receiving yards. Center Scott Stephenson was a first-team All-Big 12 pick that year in his first season under Cotton.

Following his stint at ISU, Cotton served as a volunteer assistant coach at Ames High School in 2007, where he assisted with all aspects of the offense.

Before his four-year run as an offensive coordinator in the Big 12, Cotton spent the previous six seasons as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at New Mexico State on the staff of former Husker Tony Samuel. Under Cotton's direction, the Aggie offense ranked in the top 25 nationally in total offense three times in six seasons and ranked in the top 25 in rushing offense all six seasons.

Cotton went to New Mexico State from Hastings College, where he was head coach in 1995 and 1996. In 1995, the Broncos won the Nebraska-Iowa Athletic Conference Championship and made an appearance in the NAIA playoffs. Cotton was named the 1995 NIAC Coach of the Year.

Cotton spent six seasons as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at St. Cloud State (Minn.) from 1989 to 1994. In 1989, St. Cloud won the North Central Conference Championship and averaged more than 400 yards of offense.

An all-state selection as a senior at Omaha Burke High School, Cotton played for Nebraska from 1975 to 1978. He played on the offensive line as a freshman and sophomore, then switched to defense where he started at tackle in 1977. Cotton moved back to offense in 1978, where he earned second-team All-Big Eight honors as a senior guard on Tom Osborne's Big Eight championship team.

Cotton played in the 1979 East-West Shrine Game, then was a third-round pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in 1979. Cotton played one season with Cincinnati and three in St. Louis from 1980 to 1982, before a knee injury forced his retirement.

The 54-year-old Cotton earned a bachelor's degree from Nebraska in 1983 and a master's degree in athletic administration from St. Cloud State in 1994. Cotton and his wife. Christine. have three sons, Ben, Jake and Sam. Ben is a junior tight end for the Huskers. while Jake is a redshirt freshman offensive lineman

ROSS ELS LINEBACKERS | FIRST SEASON

NEBRASKA-OMAHA • 1988

Ross Els will coach the Husker linebackers in his first season in 2011 and joins the Nebraska program after six seasons on Coach Frank Solich's Ohio staff. Els came to Lincoln with 10 seasons of experience as an assistant coach at the Division I level and more than two decades of overall collegiate coaching experience.

At Ohio, Els served as assistant head coach for one season and tutored the Bobcat linebackers for the past six seasons. In his final four seasons, he also served as Ohio's special teams coordinator.

In 2010, the Ohio defense ranked 20th nationally and second in the Mid-American Conference in rushing defense. Els' special teams were also a key part of Ohio's 8-5 season that culminated with a trip to the New Orleans Bowl. The Bobcats were first in the MAC in net punting, third in punt returns and fifth in kickoff returns.

In 2009, he tutored linebacker Noah Keller, who led the MAC with 155 tackles en route to earning honorable mention All-America honors. He also coached punt returner LaVon Brazil to second-team All-America honors that season, while freshman place-kicker Matt Weller earned freshman All-America accolades after kicking a school-record 21 field goals.

Els helped Ohio to three bowl appearances and two MAC East division championships during his stay in Athens, Ohio. He also coached four All-MAC linebackers. During his first three seasons at Ohio he worked on the defensive staff alongside current NU defensive coordinator Carl Pelini, who coached the Bobcat defensive line.

Els joined the Ohio staff following four seasons on Tony Samuel's coaching staff at New Mexico State. In his final two seasons he was the defensive coordinator for the Aggies. While in Las Cruces, Els worked with current NU offensive line coach Barney Cotton. Els had succeeded Cotton as the head coach at Hastings College, where he

RICH FISHER

WIDE RECEIVERS | FIRST SEASON COLORADO • 1993

Rich Fisher will coach the Husker wide receivers in his first season on Coach Bo Pelini's staff. Fisher came to Nebraska after two highly successful seasons in the prep ranks and also brings nine years of experience coaching at the Division I college level.

Fisher spent the previous two seasons as the head coach at Rivers School in Weston, Mass., where he compiled a 12-5 record. In 2010, Fisher coached Rivers School to a perfect 8-0 regular season, the school's first undefeated regular season since 1915 and its only ISL championship. In fact, it was just the school's third winning season in the past 25 years and the first since 1979. The team also played in the Norm Walker Bowl at Gillette Stadium, the first-ever bowl game for Rivers School.

The successful season came in large part because of an explosive offense, as Rivers averaged more than 40 points per game. A pair of Rivers School standouts, Taariq Allen and Ben Patrick, earned All-Scholastic honors from the Boston Herald. A standout receiver, Allen recently signed a letter of intent to play at Nebraska beginning this fall.

The 40-year old Fisher spent several years in private business, including owning and operating New England Gridiron Football Camps from 2004 to 2009.

Fisher's collegiate coaching experience includes stops at Idaho, Colorado and Oklahoma State, most recently spending five seasons on the Vandals' staff from 1999 to 2003. Fisher tutored the wide receivers during his first two seasons in Moscow, then handled the inside and outside linebackers during his final three seasons.

Prior to his five seasons at Idaho, Fisher spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Colorado, his alma mater. While with the Buffs in 1997 and 1998, Fisher assisted with coaching the wide receivers. In 1998, he helped the Buffs to an 8-4 record, capped by a victory over Oregon in the Aloha Bowl.

Fisher also spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma State in 1995 and 1996. With the Cowboys, Fisher worked with the defense, specifically in the secondary.

In nine seasons as a coach at the collegiate level, Fisher has worked with five players who went on to play in the NFL.

Fisher was a three-year letterwinner at Colorado during the Buffs' highly successful run in the late 1980s and early 1990s. An outside linebacker, Fisher lettered in 1990, 1991 and 1992 and was part of CU's 1990 national championship team. He started in 1991 until being sidelined by a knee injury. During his playing time, he also contributed to Big Eight title teams in 1989, 1990 and 1991.

Originally from Sugarland, Texas, Fisher graduated from Colorado with a degree in communications in 1993. Fisher and his wife, Tori, have two sons, Max and Alex, and a daughter Mason.

JOHN GARRISON

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE/TIGHT ENDS | FIRST SEASON NEBRASKA • 2003

Former Husker standout John Garrison is in his first season on the Nebraska coaching staff as an assistant coach. Garrison will serve as assistant offensive line and tight ends coach for the Huskers in 2011.

Garrison has been a member of the Nebraska staff for each of Bo Pelini's first three seasons as head coach. Garrison has worked as a football intern with the Husker offensive line and in conjunction with the strength and conditioning staff.

During the past three seasons, six Nebraska offensive linemen have earned All-Big 12 honors with Garrison's assistance. In 2010, senior offensive guard Ricky Henry earned firstteam all-conference honors and Nebraska finished first in the Big 12 and ninth nationally at nearly 250 rushing yards per game.

The Husker offensive line has helped pave the way for an all-conference back in each of Garrison's three seasons working with the unit. In 2010, senior Roy Helu Jr., became the first running back to surpass 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons since 1992 and 1993. Helu Jr. was one of three Huskers to rush for more than 900 yards in 2010.

In Garrison's first season with the Nebraska program in 2008, the Huskers featured one the nation's most balanced offenses. The Huskers finished 12th nationally in total offense and were among the top 40 in the country in all four major statistical categories. In his role as an intern, Garrison also played a key role in weekly opponent scouting reports and breakdowns.

Garrison joined the Nebraska staff in March of 2008 after spending four years at Blue Springs (Mo.) High School as an assistant coach and special education teacher. Garrison served as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator. Garrison also conducted and managed the weight room activities for multiple sports at Blue Springs.

The 30-year-old Garrison was a four-year letterman for Frank Solich at Nebraska from 1999 to 2002, and earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades as a junior and senior. Garrison was Nebraska's starting long snapper as a true freshman in 1999, helping the Huskers to a 12-1 record and Big 12 title. He was a backup center and guard, and handled long snapping duties in 2000.

In 2001, Garrison moved into the lineup as the starting center and helped Nebraska to an appearance in the BCS National Championship Game, while quarterback Eric Crouch won the Heisman Trophy. In his senior season, Garrison was elected by his teammates as one of

JOHN PAPUCHIS

DEFENSIVE LINE/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/RECRUITING COORDINATOR FOURTH SEASON
VIRGINIA TECH • 2001

John Papuchis is in his fourth season on the Nebraska coaching staff in 2011. Papuchis tutors the Nebraska defensive line and also serves as special teams coordinator while working with all of the Huskers' special teams units. In 2011, he has added the role of recruiting coordinator for the Nebraska program.

In his third season at Nebraska, Papuchis was one of four finalists for the FootballScoop Special Teams Coordinator of the Year Award, and continued to play a key role in a dominant defensive line.

Both of Nebraska's starting defensive ends earned All-Big 12 accolades in 2010, with senior Pierre Allen claiming first-team honors and sophomore Cameron Meredith garnering second-team accolades. Each player ranked in the top six on the team in tackles while combining for 129 stops, 19 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks. Defensive tackle Jared Crick was a first-team All-Big 12 pick for the second straight season.

In 2009, his defensive ends combined for 127 tackles, including 33 tackles for loss and 12 sacks. With 16 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks, Barry Turner was an honorable-mention All-Big 12 selection in 2009, while Allen racked up five sacks and 12 tackles for loss.

In his first year in Lincoln, Papuchis saw starting defensive ends Zach Potter and Allen combine for 26 tackles for loss and 10.5 sacks in 2008, with Potter earning honorablemention All-Big 12 accolades. The defensive ends helped a Nebraska defense that finished second in the Big 12 in total defense.

Nebraska has also owned one of the nation's top special teams units the past three seasons under Papuchis. In 2009, the Huskers' kickoff and punt return units both ranked in the top 30 nationally, while All-Big 12 punter and place-kicker Alex Henery had an NU record 24 field goals, while also placing a Big 12-leading 30 punts inside the opponent 20-yard line. The Huskers also ranked in the top 15 nationally in kickoff return defense and third in touchbacks.

Henery ended his career as Nebraska's all-time leading scorer and was the most accurate kicker in NCAA history, establishing eight NCAA records. Henery was selected as a first-team All-American in 2010, and finished his career hitting 68-of-76 field goal attempts. Along with Henery, Papuchis had another weapon to utilize on special teams in Adi Kunalic. One of the nation's elite kickoff specialists the past three years, Kunalic ranked among the national leaders in touchbacks each season, posting 86 career touchbacks.

The special teams unit also had a banner year under Papuchis in 2008, headlined by Henery's school-record 57-yard game-winning field goal against Colorado. Henery finished the year 18-of-21 on field goals and missed just one extra point. Henery was a second-team All-Big 12 pick. The Huskers also ranked in the top 25 nationally in punt returns, and returned both a kickoff and punt for a touchdown in the same season for the first time since 1998.

Papuchis joined the Nebraska coaching staff after spending the previous four seasons on the football staff at LSU. Papuchis worked closely with Nebraska Head Coach Bo Pelini during their time together in Baton Rouge. Papuchis served as a defensive intern for the Tigers, assisting in every aspect of the defensive gameplan and scouting reports.

The efforts of Papuchis helped the Tigers rank among the nation's top defenses throughout his time with LSU. The Tigers ranked third nationally in total defense each season from 2005 to 2007. In 2007, the Tiger defense helped LSU to SEC and national titles, capped by a 38-24 victory over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game.

The Tigers had a pair of consensus All-Americans in Glenn Dorsey and Craig Steltz. Dorsey was one of the nation's most decorated players, collecting the 2007 Outland Trophy, Lombardi Award and Nagurski Trophy.

In 2006, the LSU defense surrendered just 242.8 yards per game, the fewest by a Tiger defense since 1976. LSU led the SEC in six defensive categories and ranked in the top five nationally in four major categories. LSU finished in the top 10 nationally in all four major defensive categories in 2005, and allowed less than 270 total yards per contest. Papuchis also coached the Tiger punters. In 2007, punter Patrick Fisher led the SEC in punting with a 44.5-yard average and earned first-team All-SEC honors.

Papuchis first joined Nick Saban's LSU staff prior to the 2004 season, helping the team earn a berth in the Capital One Bowl.

Papuchis had a three-year stint as a graduate assistant at Kansas from 2001 to 2003. In 2001, he worked with the Jayhawk secondary and then assisted with the linebackers. In his final season in Lawrence, Papuchis helped the Jayhawks earn a berth in the Tangerine Bowl.

COREY RAYMOND

SECONDARY | FIRST SEASON

Corey Raymond joined the Nebraska staff as secondary coach for the 2011 season. Raymond joined the Nebraska program after being hired in December of 2010 as part of the defensive staff for new coach Kevin Wilson at Indiana.

Before coming to Lincoln in February, Raymond, who played for six seasons in the National Football League, spent the 2009 and 2010 season as the cornerbacks coach at Raymond helped Aggies' cornerback Curtis Marsh earn second-team All-WAC honors in 2010. Marsh ranked eighth nationally in passes defended at 1.25 per game, including 13 breakups and a pair of interceptions. Marsh went on to be selected by the Philadelphia Eagles in the third round (90th pick) of the 2011 NFL Draft. In 2009, Raymond coached Chris Randle who was among the top cornerbacks in the conference and racked up 53 tackles.

The position at Utah State was Raymond's first Division I assistant job, but came after three highly successful seasons at his alma mater, LSU. Raymond was a football intern in 2006, then worked in the Tigers' strength and conditioning program in 2007 and 2008.

Raymond was first associated with Bo Pelini during his time in Baton Rouge, as Pelini was the LSU defensive coordinator from 2005 to 2007. Current Nebraska assistant coach John Papuchis was also on the Tiger defensive staff during that time.

While at LSU, Raymond helped the Tigers to a 3-0 bowl record, including defeating Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game following the 2007 season. During the 2006 and 2007 seasons, LSU ranked third nationally in total defense.

As a player, Raymond was a four-year starter at cornerback for LSU from 1988 to 1991, helping the Tigers to a pair of bowl games.

Raymond began his coaching career at New Iberia (La.) High School as defensive coordinator, and then served as defensive coordinator and strength and conditioning coach at Westgate High School in New Iberia.

Raymond was in private business from 1999 to 2002 and also had a 2007 internship with the Minnesota Vikings, as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Internship Program. Raymond earned his bachelor's degree in liberal arts from LSU in 1992.

JEFF JAMROG

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR FOR FOOTBALL OPERATIONS | FOURTH SEASON NEBRASKA • 1987

Former Nebraska player and assistant coach Jeff Jamrog is in his fourth year as the Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations for the Husker program in 2011.

Jamrog plays a key role in the administrative aspects of the football program and serves as a liaison with other parts of the athletic department. He works closely with Coach Bo Pelini and Athletic Director Tom Osborne on all football operations and assists with NU's recruiting efforts.

Jamrog also coordinates the travel, budget and staffing for the football office, spearheading football scheduling, oversees the compliance, strength training, equipment and academic support units regarding football issues and also supervises football support

Jamrog returned to Nebraska after spending four seasons as the head coach at Minnesota State-Mankato. The 46-year-old Jamrog guided his Maverick teams to a 17-27 overall record, including a 6-5 mark in 2004 - the program's first winning season since 1994. The team boasted a six-game improvement in victories, which was not only a school record but tied for the fifth-largest single-season jump in NCAA Division II history.

The Maverick players coached by Jamrog also distinguished themselves in the classroom. Defensive lineman Spencer Dickinson earned a spot on the CoSIDA Academic All-America team in both 2006 and 2007. While leading the Maverick program, Jamrog handled many of the duties he encounters on a daily basis with the Huskers.

His four-year run at Minnesota State came after a brief stint as the defensive coordinator at Western Illinois in the spring of 2004. Prior to that appointment, Jamrog had spent the previous four seasons as the defensive line coach on Frank Solich's staff at Nebraska.

Jamrog tutored the Huskers' interior defensive linemen each of his four years on the defensive staff. In his final season, Jamrog also coached the defensive ends and was named special teams coordinator for the 2003 Huskers. During his time with the Huskers, Jamrog helped Nebraska play for the national championship in the Rose Bowl following the 2001 season, along with two trips to the Alamo Bowl (2000, 2003) and an appearance in the Independence Bowl (2002).

The 2003 Nebraska defense led the country in takeaways, while ranking second nationally in scoring defense. Jamrog's special teams units were also among the nation's best, totaling 21 blocked kicks and 11 punt returns for touchdowns in four years. With Jamrog as special teams coordinator in 2003, Nebraska led the Big 12 and ranked ninth nationally in net punting.

Before his first tenure on the Nebraska coaching staff, Jamrog spent three years as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at New Mexico State. He helped Head Coach Tony Samuel turn around a program that had just two winning seasons in the Jamrog served as the defensive coordinator at Nebraska-Omaha from 1994 to 1996, and helped the Mavs to the 1996 North Central Conference title - the first outright title in school history. UNO earned a No. 4 national ranking, and improved by seven wins over 1995, the second-largest turnaround in Division II history. Jamrog was the inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at the University of South Dakota from 1990 to 1993. He began his coaching career at Nebraska in 1988 and 1989 as a graduate

Originally a walk-on for the Huskers, Jamrog played for the freshman team in 1983, redshirted in 1984, then lettered for three years as a defensive end. As a senior, Jamrog started and had 66 tackles, eight sacks and 13 tackles for loss. Jamrog was a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1987 and was an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship

JAMES DOBSON

HEAD FOOTBALL STRENGTH COACH | FOURTH SEASON WISCONSIN • 1996

James Dobson joined the Nebraska football staff in January 2008 as Head Football Strength Coach. He oversees all aspects of the Husker strength and conditioning program for football, which includes winter conditioning, summer workouts and in-season training.

In Dobson's first three seasons directing Nebraska's strength and conditioning efforts, the Huskers have had impressive gains both on and off the field. Outstanding conditioning has been a key factor in NU ranking among the nation's top fourth-quarter squads the past three seasons.

In 2008, Nebraska outscored its opponents 155-52 in the fourth quarter. Nebraska's point total and scoring differential in the fourth quarter were both second best in the nation. The Huskers again dominated the fourth quarter in 2009. Nebraska outscored its opponents 96-32 in the fourth quarter. The 32 points allowed in the fourth quarter tied for the best in the nation, while the 64-point differential was fourth. Overall in the second half, Nebraska outscored its opponents 154-55, as the 55 second-half points were the fewest allowed by any team in the nation.

Prior to Nebraska, Dobson was part of the Iowa Hawkeye football program. He was in Iowa City during one of the most successful periods in school history. Iowa appeared in bowl games in six of seven seasons and won 38 games from 2002 to 2005. Iowa won 25 Big Ten games in that same period, including Big Ten titles in 2002 and 2004. With the Hawkeye program, Dobson worked under Chris Doyle, who is regarded as one of the nation's top strength coaches.

Dobson has had a history of working with some of the top college football players in the country over the past decade. Top pupils Dobson has worked with include defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh at Nebraska along with safety Bob Sanders, tight end Dallas Clark, offensive tackle Robert Gallery and linebacker Chad Greenway at lowa.

Suh was a Heisman finalist and the most decorated defensive lineman in nearly two decades while earning national player-of-the-year honors for the Cornhuskers in 2009. The impact of Dobson and the NU strength and conditioning program on Suh is evident. Following the completion of his career, Suh showed his appreciation by donating $2 million to enhance the four-year old Nebraska strength and conditioning facility.

Sanders earned All-America honors at Iowa in 2003, and was the 2007 NFL Defensive Player of the Year with the Indianapolis Colts. Clark began his Hawkeye career as a walkon linebacker, but moved to tight end and went on to earn All-America honors in 2002, before being a first-round draft pick. Gallery came to Iowa as a 240-pound tight end, and through the strength program, he left as a 320-pound offensive tackle, won the 2003 Outland Trophy and was the second overall selection in the 2004 draft. Greenway earned All-America honors as a senior in 2005, and was a first-round pick of the Minnesota Vikings in 2006.

In addition to his experience at Iowa, Dobson worked for two years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Southern Methodist, working with the football, volleyball and basketball teams.

Dobson attended the University of Wisconsin, where he worked as a student assistant with the Badger football team for three seasons. He earned his B.S. degree in kinesiology from Wisconsin in 1996, and his master's of science and administration degree from Central Michigan in 2004.

A certified strength and conditioning specialist and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Dobson is a native of Mt. Horeb, Wis. He and his wife, Rebecca, have a son, Colton, and a daughter, Elise.

T.J. HOLLOWELL GRADUATE ASSISTANT (DEFENSE)

T.J. Hollowell is in his first season as a graduate assistant coach for the Husker football program. He assists the coaching staff on the defensive side of the ball, working extensively with the linebackers.

Hollowell is in his second year with the Husker football program, as he served as an intern in 2010. In that role, he assisted the coaching staff and the Husker strength and conditioning staff.

A former starter for the Blackshirts, Hollowell signed with the New York Giants as a free agent in 2004 and spent two seasons in the NFL. He played for the New York Giants in 2004 and the New York Jets in 2005, while also spending two training camps with the Denver Broncos. He also spent parts of two years in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos.

Hollowell played four seasons at Nebraska from 2000 to 2003, totaling 173 career tackles in helping the Huskers to four bowl games, including the BCS National Championship Game in 2001. As a senior, he earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 recognition from the league coaches and the AP, totaling 80 stops, including eight tackles for losses. He tied Nebraska's school record with eight pass breakups and was part of a defense wthat forced a school-record 47 turnovers.

A native of Copperas Cove, Texas, Hollowell received his degree in sociology from Nebraska in 2009.

WINCE MORRIS DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

In his sixth year at Nebraska, Wince Morris was named director of player personnel in June 2010 after previously serving as the assistant director of football operations.

In his role, Morris deals directly with Nebraska football student-athletes in a number of areas, including academic matters and community outreach activities. Morris also assists the staff with on-campus recruiting and plays a key role in Nebraska's summer camps, while also serving as the liaison to NFL scouts.

Morris has served in various roles in the football program throughout his five years in Lincoln, most recently as the Assistant Director of Football Operations, in which he played a leading role in Nebraska's team travel.

Morris came to the Huskers after working nine months in private business in the Cincinnati, Ohio, area. Morris worked in the commercial capital division at National City Bank in Cincinnati before joining the Huskers, after spending four years as a litigation paralegal at Manley, Burke in Cincinnati. A 1997 graduate of Miami (Ohio), Morris played football for the RedHawks before earning a degree in sociology; thematic sequence - political science public law in 1997.

Morris was married to the former Kristina Teague in July 2009.

VINCE MARROW GRADUATE ASSISTANT (OFFENSE)

Vince Marrow is in his first season as a graduate assistant coach for the Husker football program. He will assist on the offensive side of the ball, working extensively with the tight ends. A former NFL tight end, Marrow brings a wealth of coaching knowledge to the staff after serving as an assistant coach in the collegiate and professional ranks.

Marrow came to Nebraska after serving as the tight ends coach of the Omaha Nighthawks in the United Football League in 2010. He helped the Nighthawks to a 3-5 record in the franchise's inaugural campaign. Prior to that, he was the head coach at Holland High School in Springfield, Ohio, in 2009 and at the University of Toledo as tight ends coach in 2008. Marrow began his coaching career in NFL Europe following a distinguished playing career. He worked with the Rhein Fire (2006-07) and Berlin Thunder (2005-06) as a tackles/tight end coach with both teams before the league folded in 2007.

As a player, he was on the roster of five NFL teams: Buffalo Bills (1992-95); Carolina Panthers (1995); New York Jets (1996); Chicago Bears (1997-98) and San Francisco 49ers (1998-99). He was on the roster for the Bills for Super Bowls in 1993 and 1994. His best season in the NFL was in 1994, when he appeared in 10 games for the Bills.

Marrow also made first-team all-league for the Frankfort Galaxy of NFL Europe in 1998, and played one season for the Orlando Rage in the XFL in 2000 before going into coaching.

Marrow started his college career at Youngstown State before transferring to Toledo and playing two seasons as a tight end for the Rockets. He was a second-team All-Mid American Conference selection in 1991 and was selected by the Bills in the 11th round of the 1992 NEI Draft

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Marrow graduated with a degree in criminal justice from Toledo in 1992 and was a teammate of Husker football coach Bo Pelini at Cardinal Mooney High School. Marrow and his wife, Dr. Monique Marrow, have five children (Mike, Phylica, Merrisa, Victoria and Aryanna). Mike is a running back for Nebraska.

AUSTEN EVERSON

DIRECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOL RELATIONS

Austen Everson returned to the Nebraska football staff in 2009 and was named the director of high school relations in June 2010. A native of Brentwood, Tenn., Everson previously served as a football operations intern at NU from June 2008 to January 2009. Everson plays a key role in coordinating all of Nebraska's on-campus recruiting efforts and scheduling official visits to the Nebraska campus by prospective student-athletes.

Everson earned his bachelor's degree in 2007 in management from Ohio University, where he was a four-year letterwinner at quarterback and two-year team captain during his junior and senior seasons under former Nebraska football coach Frank Solich. During his undergraduate career, Everson was a two-time academic All-MAC selection, National Football Foundation National Honor Society inductee and Draddy Trophy semifinalist while also earning accolades in the weight room as the All-American Strength and Conditioning Athlete of the Year.

Following graduation, Everson served as a development intern for the Ohio Athletic Department in the summer of 2007, before becoming a graduate assistant in the administration office. He worked with Ohio's senior women's administrator for nearly two years while earning master's degrees in business administration in 2008 and sports administration in 2009.

AARYN KEARNEYRECRUITING STAFF ASSISTANT

Aaryn Kearney joined the Nebraska football office on a full-time basis in February of 2009 as a recruiting staff assistant. Kearney assists in coordinating the recruiting process for the coaching staff including correspondence to prospects and coaches and organizing NCAA compliance records pertaining to recruiting activities and campus visits. In addition to assisting the coaching staff in recruiting, Kearney is actively involved with the Big Red Football School and coaching clinics. Kearney had worked in the recruiting office as a student worker for the previous year before his full-time appointment.

A native of Auburn, Neb., Kearney has been associated with the Husker football program since 2003, serving as a football student manager for five seasons. Kearney served as the head student manager during the 2007 season and was awarded the Tom and Terri Burnell Student Manager Scholarship that year. Kearney graduated from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in December of 2008 with a bachelor's degree in communication studies.

JONI DUFF ASSISTANT TO THE DEFENSE

Joni Duff began her association with the Nebraska football office in 1980. Duff serves as assistant to the defensive coordinator and the defensive assistant coaches. She also handles multiple office functions.

She is married to Craig Duff, and the couple has two sons. Alex is a sophomore at Benedictine College (Kansas) and a member of the men's soccer team, and Nathan is a sophomore in high school.

MIKE NOBLER FOOTBALL VIDEO COORDINATOR

Mike Nobler is in his third year on the Nebraska staff in 2011, where he serves as football video director. Nobler's primary responsibility lies in overseeing Nebraska's 45-client XOS coaching video network that is utilized by the whole football coaching staff on a near-daily basis. Along with a video staff of eight, Nobler implements the video system for the day-to-day use by coaches, including the taping and editing of practice and games along with opponent video breakdowns. Nebraska was one of the first two schools to begin shooting, editing and distributing practice video in HD in the spring of 2011.

Nobler previously spent two years as a field representative for the maker of the Huskers' current video system, XOS Digital. He provided on-site support, installations of all software and hardware as well as staff training on thevideo system in college football and basketball and NFL video departments. Nobler also provided maintenance and troubleshooting for technical issues in the Windows-based programs along with various other XOS software applications.

Nobler returned to a college football video department after spending four years as assistant video director at Oklahoma. He handled video of practice and games while working alongside the OU coaching staff as a video editor, and was a co-network administrator supporting the OU video setup. Nobler also spent one year in a similar video position at Illinois. A year earlier, he served a 12-month video internship with the St. Louis Rams.

A native of Lake Villa, Ill., Nobler graduated from Western Illinois University in 2001 with a degree in communications. He is married to the former Heather Saluri, and the couple has a daughter, Madeline.

MAYER HEAD FOOTBALL ATHLETIC TRAINER

Mark Mayer (pronounced Meyer) is in his fifth season as Nebraska's head football athletic trainer in 2011. Mayer came to the Nebraska program in 2007 with more than a dozen years of experience in athletic medicine, including serving the previous nine years as the assistant athletic trainer for the Oakland Raiders.

Mayer heads up NU's athletic medicine efforts for the football team. His responsibilities include year-round preventive care, immediate care for injured athletes at practices and games, and the reconditioning of injured athletes.

Prior to joining the Raiders, he served first as an athletic trainer intern in 1995 and gained full-time status in 1998 as a strength and conditioning assistant. Mayer also served as a student athletic trainer for UC Davis from 1992 to 1994. He was named a full-time assistant athletic trainer for Oakland in 1999 and served in that capacity for Super Bowl XXXVII in 2003 when the AFC Champion Raiders faced the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In his 11 years with the Raiders, Mayer worked with former Husker players Adam Treu, John Parrella, Eric Johnson, Aaron Graham and Fabian Washington.

Originally from San Leandro, Calif., Mayer graduated from the University of California at Davis in 1994, and served as a student athletic trainer for UC Davis from 1992 to 1994. He earned his bachelor's of science degree in physical education and is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Married to the former Kira Schoeneman, Mayer and his wife have two children, 8-year old daughter Savannah Audren and 5-year old son Boston Zachary.

2011 NEBRASKA FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

OVFRVIFW

Head Coach Bo Pelini enters his fourth year in 2011 with talented returnees on both sides of the football. Pelini and his staff will rely on those veterans to provide the leadership for the Cornhuskers in their inaugural season in the Big Ten Conference.

Nebraska makes the historic move to the Big Ten in 2011 and will compete in the Legends Division, and the Huskers will be striving for an appearance in the first-ever Big Ten Championship Game at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis on Saturday, Dec. 3. A trip to Indy would mark the third straight year the Huskers have played in a conference title game after appearing in the Big 12 Championship Game in both 2009 and 2010.

Offensively, quarterback Taylor Martinez and I-back Rex Burkhead highlight the backfield returnees. Up front, Nebraska returns center Mike Caputo and tackle Jeremiah Sirles who each started all 14 games a year ago. Tight ends Ben Cotton and Kyler Reed are expected to produce big junior seasons, while Brandon Kinnie will headline the receivers this fall.

Nebraska led the Big 12 and ranked in the top 10 nationally in rushing offense last season, and expects to again field a strong rushing attack this fall. Under first-year coordinator Tim Beck, NU will also look to develop a more efficient passing attack.

On defense, senior Jared Crick highlights the returnees in the Nebraska front four. Crick is a two-time first-team all-conference pick at defensive tackle, and junior Baker Steinkuhler also returns to line up alongside Crick. Cameron Meredith also returns at one of the end positions.

Linebacker Lavonte David headlines a veteran linebacking corps after a record-setting 2010 season. He is joined by juniors Sean Fisher and Will Compton, who both have extensive playing experience on the Blackshirt defense.

Nebraska must replace a host of talented players in the secondary, but senior corner Alfonzo Dennard is slated to challenge for national honors this fall. The Huskers also return three safeties with a great deal of playing experience.

A notable area of change is on special teams.

where Nebraska must replace three-time special teams MVP Alex Henery, who handled both the place-kicking and punting duties. The Huskers also need to find substitutes for their kickoff specialist for the past four years and their top return man for the past three seasons.

| 79  | Brandon Thompson* | OG   | Jr. | 6-6 | 300 | 12/0  |

- » Nebraska returns three players with starting experience on the offensive line, including center Mike Caputo and left tackle Jeremiah Sirles who both started all 14 games in 2010.
- » Caputo is a leading contender for conference and national honors. He has been named to the preseason watch list for the Rimington Trophy for the second straight year and is expected to provide veteran leadership this fall.
- » Sirles missed spring ball following off-season shoulder surgery, but should be full-go for the fall. He was one of just three freshmen to earn starting assignments for Nebraska in 2010.
- » Joining Sirles at tackle are a pair of veteran seniors. Marcel Jones is in his fifth year in the program and is hoping for a healthy 2011 after injuries limited his action last fall. Jones started 11 games at tackle in 2009. Yoshi Hardrick alternated with Sirles at left tackle last season and played in all 14 games.
- » Nebraska must replace both starting guards, but has a talented group of young players and newcomers to fill the holes. Sophomores Brent Qvale and Andrew Rodriguez both played in reserve roles at guard last season, along with junior Brandon Thompson. They are among the favorites to emerge for starting roles. Sophomore Cole Pensick served as Caputo's backup at center last fall and should again be a factor in the middle.
- » Several players who have yet to hit the field should be parts of the offensive line discussion during fall camp. Redshirt freshmen Jake Cotton spent the spring working with the top offensive line, while fellow redshirt frosh Mike Moudy and sophomore Nick Ash also look to push for time. Junior Seong Hoon Choi also had an impressive spring and could see action at guard.
- » True freshman Tyler Moore joined the NU program at the semester and immediately showed that he is capable of competing for time in 2011. Moore will be joined this fall by several other talented incoming freshmen.

QUARTERBACKS

| No. | Name             | Pos. | Yr. | Ht. | Wt. | G/GS  |
|-----|------------------|------|-----|-----|-----|-------|
| 3   | Taylor Martinez* | QB   | So. | 6-1 | 200 | 13/12 |

- » Martinez was a dominant presence for the Nebraska offense last season before being injured in late October. The California native shattered numerous Nebraska freshman and quarterback records for rushing, passing and total offense.
- » Martinez completed his redshirt freshman season with 965 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns on the ground, while setting an NU quarterback record with 241 rushing yards at Kansas State. He also threw for better than 1,600 yards and compiled nearly 2,600 yards of total offense--both NU freshman records.
- » Nebraska lacks experience behind Martinez, but has several young prospects capable of engineering the new-look NU offense.
- » Redshirt freshman Brion Carnes was impressive on the scout team last fall and had a strong spring camp and is poised for action behind Martinez. Sophomore Ron Kellogg III has also made steady progress in the program.
- » True freshman Jamal Turner was recruited as a quarterback, but was impressive in spring ball at wide receiver. Bubba Starling is also regarded as one of the nation's top incoming freshman quarterbacks. He was selected fifth overall in the 2011 MLB Draft, and his status was unknown at press time.

| 48  | Tyler Legate        | FB   | Sr. | 5-10 | 235 | 27/10 |

- » Junior Rex Burkhead took on a multi-faceted role for the Huskers late in the 2010 season, regularly serving as a Wildcat quarterback, while also splitting time at I-back with Roy
- » Burkhead narrowly missed the 1,000-yard mark as a sophomore and earned honorablemention all-conference accolades. He is poised for bigger honors in his junior campaign.
- » Tyler Legate has held down the starting fullback spot for two years. He has proven to be a reliable lead blocker and a receiving presence out of the backfield. In 2010, Nebraska could utilize the fullback as a runner in its new-look offense.
- » Seniors Austin Jones and Curenski Gilleylen and junior Collins Okafor all have limited experience at I-back and will get a shot for action at the position this fall. Gilleylen spent his first three seasons at receiver, before moving to the backfield this spring. Redshirt freshman Zach Taylor was also impressive in spring ball.

» Nebraska welcomes three talented newcomers at I-back this fall in the form of Ameer Abdullah, Aaron Green and Braylon Heard. All three had standout prep careers and

- appear poised to contribute early in their collegiate careers.
- » Sophomore C.J. Zimmerer and transfer Mike Marrow are among other candidates to see action at fullback.

RECEIVERS

| 6   | Tim Marlowe    | Jr. | 5-10 | 175 | 28/1  |

- » Senior Brandon Kinnie is the leader of a young receiving corps that must replace two of Nebraska's top 10 career receivers in Niles Paul and Mike McNeill. Kinnie has 59 catches over the past two seasons, including 44 receptions and five TDs in 2010.
- » Juniors Khiry Cooper and Tim Marlowe, and sophomore Quincy Enunwa have all seen significant snaps at receiver the past two seasons and will look for an expanded role this fall. Marlowe doubles as a threat in the Husker kickoff and punt return games.
- » Sophomore Stanley Jean-Baptiste, redshirt freshman Kenny Bell, and true freshman Jamal Turner all showed this spring that they are poised to see extensive playing time in the fall. Baptiste provides the Huskers with a big target at 6-3 and 220 pounds, while Turner and Bell both showed game-breaking ability during practice and the spring game. Redshirt freshman Tyler Evans is also poised for his first action as a Husker.
- » Juniors KC Hyland, Taylor Dixon and Steven Osborne could also add depth to the receiving corps.

TIGHT ENDS

| 35  | Jay Martin | Jr. | 6-2 | 230 | 21/0  |
| 25  | Kyler Reed | Jr. | 6-3 | 230 | 25/11 |

- » Nebraska returns two outstanding tight ends who have seen extensive action the past two seasons.
- » Junior Kyler Reed became a home run threat in the NU offense as a sophomore, catching a position record eight touchdown passes. He averaged 18.0 yards per reception and had four touchdown catches of at least 30 yards. Reed has been regularly mentioned as a preseason first-team All-Big Ten choice.
- » Fellow junior Ben Cotton has been a mainstay in the Nebraska lineup. Although he has been most utilized as a physical perimeter blocking threat, Cotton also has the ability to provide Nebraska with an outstanding receiving target.
- » Sophomore Jake Long saw limited action last fall, but is expected to step into a more prominent role in 2011, and senior Jay Martin has settled in at tight end after spending time at fullback and on defense.
- » Nebraska can also count on sophomore Robert Barry to add depth at the spot, and junior Lester Ward moved from I-back to try his hand at tight end this spring.

- » The defensive line figures to be one of Nebraska's deepest and most talented positions in 2011. The group brings a combined 58 starts into the 2011 season, led by senior defensive tackle Jared Crick, who has been a fixture in the middle of the defensive front the past two seasons.
- » Crick is a two-time first-team all-conference selection and will attempt to become Nebraska's 21st three-time all-conference performer and the first since 1997 to 1999.
- » Crick has racked up 9.5 sacks each of the past two seasons and he is seventh in school history with 19 career sacks. He is just five sacks from reaching the career top five at

- Nebraska and 10.5 sacks from a school record. Crick also has 32 career tackles for loss.
- » Junior Baker Steinkuhler returns alongside Crick at defensive tackle. The Lincoln native earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades in his first year as a starter in 2010. The 6-6, 290-pounder had 46 tackles, including four tackles for loss last year.
- » Senior Terrence Moore and sophomore Thaddeus Randle also have extensive experience on the interior of the defensive line. A three-year letterwinner, Moore had 16 tackles and three tackles for loss in 2010. Randle emerged late in his redshirt freshman year. The Texas native had seven tackles last fall and continued to gain playing time, before an impressive showing during spring ball.
- » True freshman Kevin Williams joined the program at mid-year and was impressive during the spring, while redshirt freshman Jay Guy and junior Justin Jackson should also push for playing time. Incoming freshman Todd Peat Jr. was regarded as one of the nation's top defensive tackle recruits.
- » Junior defensive end Cameron Meredith emerged as a playmaker for the Blackshirts in 2010. Meredith earned second-team All-Big 12 honors by posting 64 tackles, including eight tackles for loss. He also added 10 quarterback hurries and at 6-4 and 260 pounds, he has the ability to be equally effective against the run and pass.
- » Several talented players are battling for the starting spot opposite Meredith. Converted linebacker Eric Martin has made his biggest impact on special teams the past two seasons, but performed well at end in the spring. Sophomore Jason Ankrah and junior Josh Williams both provided excellent depth last fall and are poised for bigger roles in 2011. Senior Kevin Thomsen added depth last fall and will look to expand his role.
- » Redshirt freshmen Walker Ashburn, Tobi Okuyemi and Donovan Vestal, along with junior Kenny Anderson should also push for playing time at the end position. Junior college prospect Joseph Carter will join the mix for playing time in fall camp.

- » Senior Lavonte David and juniors Will Compton and Sean Fisher all have extensive starting experience for Nebraska. Compton missed part of last year with an injury, while Fisher was sidelined the entire season with a broken leg. In their absence, David emerged and had a record-breaking first season in the Nebraska program. After primarily using one linebacker last fall, Nebraska is expected to utilize more two- and three-linebacker formations in 2011.
- » The 6-1, 225-pound David recorded a school-record 152 tackles as a junior and was Big 12 Newcomer of the Year and a first-team All-American by several outlets. He is poised for a run at the school's second Butkus Award in 2011.
- » David had eight double-figure tackle games, including three games with 15 or more tackles. He ranked second on the team with 15 tackles for loss, six sacks and 10 pass breakups.
- » Compton returned to action at mid-season last year and earned four starts. The 6-2, 230-pounder also started eight games as a redshirt freshman in 2009 and has shown ability as both a run and pass defender.

2011 NEBRASKA CORNHUSKERS

- » Fisher returned to the field this spring and at 6-6 and 235 pounds brings great versatility to the linebacker spot. A high school defensive back, Fisher made 35 tackles as a redshirt freshman in 2009 when he was in the starting lineup six times.
- » Senior Mathew May has 36 games of playing experience under his belt and is a versatile linebacker, and a fixture on special teams. He has 26 career tackles.
- » Senior Jim Ebke and junior Graham Stoddard have also been mainstays on Nebraska's special teams squads. Ebke has five career tackles, while Stoddard had 12 tackles last year, all on special teams, while serving a backup linebacker role.
- » Junior Alonzo Whaley saw extensive action early last season and earned one start. He is in position to push for more action this fall.
- » Redshirt freshman Trevor Roach was impressive during the spring and should add depth this fall, along with juniors Micah Kreikemeier and Matt Manninger and sophomore Colby Starkebaum.
- » True freshman David Santos is a talented incoming prospect from the Texas high school ranks who could push for playing time as a rookie.

- » Nebraska must replace five veteran defensive backs who logged extensive playing time over the past four seasons. The group was led by first-team 2010 All-American cornerback Prince Amukamara and first-team All-Big 12 performer Eric Hagg. Both of those players were mainstays in the defensive backfield the past four years.
- » Senior cornerback Alfonzo Dennard steps out of Amukamara's shadow in the leading role in the secondary. The 5-11, 205-pound Dennard was an all-conference choice last season and is a strong candidate for national honors this fall.
- » Dennard has 15 career pass breakups and four interceptions, all coming in 2010, and his athleticism allows him to cover the opposition's top receiver each week.
- » Several players will push for time opposite Dennard at corner. Sophomore Ciante Evans saw significant playing time as a true freshman last fall and with a year of experience under his belt appears poised to move into a leading role.
- » Seniors Anthony Blue and Marcus Mendoza, and juniors Jase Dean and Antonio Bell have all seen limited action at corner the past couple seasons and head into fall camp looking to expand their roles.
- » Sophomores Andrew Green, Dijon Washington, Lazarri Middleton and Seth Jameson and redshirt freshman Josh Mitchell also could battle for playing time at corner this fall.
- » Senior Austin Cassidy and juniors Courtney Osborne and P.J. Smith all started part of last season at safety and will be counted on to lead that group this fall.
- » Cassidy started the final seven games of the year and racked up 48 tackles, while earning Academic All-America honors off the field. Osborne earned four starts in the latter half of the season and showed his ability as a play-maker with 41 tackles, including five tackles for loss. Smith was in the lineup more early in the year and finished his sophomore season with 38 tackles and three interceptions.
- » Senior Lance Thorell and junior Justin Blatchford are the two most versatile players in the secondary, and are likely to find a role for the Blackshirts in 2011. Thorell has served as a nickel and dime back the past three years, appearing in 39 games with six starts. Blatchford is also a strong candidate to hit the field in Nebraska's specialty packages. He has played in 24 games the past two seasons, both on special teams and as a reserve in the backfield.
- » Nebraska could also lean on some young, but untested talent at the safety spot. Redshirt freshmen Corey Cooper and Harvey Jackson were both impressive in their first years in the Nebraska program and are poised to see action this fall. Sophomore Wil Richards and freshman Bronson Marsh also figure to battle for time on the field in the fall, while touted junior college transfer Daimion Stafford joins the squad for 2011 and could figure into the safety plans.

» Perhaps the biggest shoes to fill for the 2011 Huskers are those of departed place-kicker and punter Alex Henery. He left Nebraska as the school's all-time leading scorer and the most accurate field-goal kicker in NCAA history. Henery also ranked as one of the nation's top punters over the past two seasons.

- » Nebraska must also replace Adi Kunalic who handled the kickoff chores each of his four years and ranked among the nation's leaders in touchbacks every season.
- » Junior Brett Maher has been Nebraska's holder the past two seasons, but is set to move into a much more prominent role in the fall. Maher was the Huskers' top place-kicker and punter during the spring and is a leading candidate to fill both roles in 2011.
- » Senior Jon Damkroger is expected to back Maher at punter, while incoming freshman Mauro Bondi will be the chief competition for the place-kicker job.
- » Junior P.J. Mangieri has taken care of long snapping chores the past two seasons, and will be expected to continue in that role this fall.
- » With Maher a leading contender for place-kicking duties, senior safety Austin Cassidy is among the favorites to take over the holding role.
- » The return spots are wide open for the Huskers in 2011. Receivers Tim Marlowe and Brandon Kinnie both have extensive experience on kickoff returns, while I-back Rex Burkhead has played a role in the punt return game. Several other players showed the ability to make an impact in this area in the spring, including Jamal Turner, Josh Mitchell and Kenny Bell.

2011 HUSKER FOOTBALL NOTEBOOK

INAUGURAL SEASON IN BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Nebraska officially became the 12th member of the Big Ten Conference on July 1, 2011, and is set for its first season of football competition in the nation's oldest conference. Nebraska will compete in the Legends Division in football, and enters the conference with a goal of reaching the first Big Ten Football Championship at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis on Dec. 3.

Nebraska has won football championships in four conferences during its 121 years of intercollegiate football, and also competed as an independent for several years. Overall, Nebraska has won 43 conference championships.

The major conferences for the Nebraska football program since the first season of play in 1890 include:

1890-1891: Independent

1892-1897: Western Inter-State Foot Ball Association

1898-1906, 1918-1920: Independent

1907-1917, 1921-1927: Missouri Valley Conference (12 conference titles)

1948-1959: Big Seven Conference

1960-1995: Big Eight Conference (20 conference titles)

2011-: Big Ten Conference

The Huskers have a long history of taking on Big Ten opponents on the football field, compiling an 81-68-10 all-time record against the 11 other Big Ten schools. Nebraska most recently met a Big Ten opponent in a 32-28 victory over Michigan in the 2005 Alamo Bowl. The Huskers' most recent regular-season meetings with a Big Ten foe occurred with a home-and-home series against Penn State in 2002 and 2003, with the home team winning each game.

Nebraska holds a 31-6 record against Big Ten opponents since 1970. The Huskers have won seven straight games in Lincoln against conference foes dating back to a 1981 loss to Penn State, an independent at that time.

- » Among Big Ten Conference opponents, Nebraska has faced Minnesota the most, taking on the Gophers 51 times. Minnesota holds a 29-20-2 edge in the all-time series, but Nebraska has won the past 14 meetings dating back to 1963.
- » Nebraska and Iowa have met 41 times in football, with the Huskers owning a 26-12-3 advantage. The two teams have met just six times since 1946, with NU winning five of those six meetings. Nebraska and Iowa will complete the regular season against each other through at least 2014, and will battle on the Friday after Thanksgiving in 2011 and 2012. Nebraska has played on the day after Thanksgiving every year since 1990, facing either Oklahoma or Colorado.
- » Nebraska has faced the remaining six Big Ten foes on the 2011 schedule a total of 35 times, led by 13 meetings with Penn State.

LEGENDS AND LEADERS

The Big Ten Conference has divided into two divisions for football competition–Legends and Leaders. Winners of the respective divisions will meet on Dec. 3 in Indianapolis for the Big Ten Championship.

Nebraska will compete in the Legends Division along with Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota and Northwestern. Nebraska will face each member of the Legends Division on an annual basis. The Leaders Division consists of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio State, Penn State, Purdue and Wisconsin. The Huskers will face Penn State every year in a protected cross-over game, while the other five opponents will rotate onto Nebraska's schedule.

In 2011 and 2012, Nebraska will face Ohio State and Wisconsin from the Leaders Division. Nebraska will take on Illinois and Purdue in the 2013 and 2014 seasons, and does not face Indiana in the regular season in its first four years of Big Ten schedules.

THE SCHEDULE

Nebraska is set to face arguably one of the nation's most difficult schedules in 2011 and one of the most demanding slates in school history. In addition to a competitive nonconference schedule, the Huskers will face an extremely challenging schedule in their first season of competition in the Big Ten Conference.

The 2011 schedule features nine games against teams that participated in a bowl game in 2010. Included in that group are BCS bowl teams Ohio State (Sugar) and Wisconsin (Rose). Other teams that appeared in a bowl game include Fresno State (Humanitarian), Washington (Holiday), Michigan State (Capital One), Northwestern (Ticket City), Penn State (Outback), Michigan (Gator) and Iowa (Insight).

Wisconsin, Ohio State and Michigan State shared the Big Ten title in 2010, and each of those three schools won 11 regular-season games.

In addition to the nine games above, Nebraska will host Chattanooga and travel to Wyoming during non-conference action. NU also travels to Minnesota in Big Ten competition.

Nebraska's home schedule is arguably the most attractive in school history. In addition to the new flavor of Big Ten foes, six of the seven opponents coming to Memorial Stadium competed in a bowl game last fall.

- » Nebraska's meeting with Washington will be its third against the Huskies in a period of 12 months. Nebraska last faced an opponent that frequently in a short period of time in 1998 and 1999 when Nebraska met Texas three times in 13 months, including the 1999 Big 12 Championship Game. Nebraska and Oklahoma met three times in a 12-month span in 1978 and 1979, including an Orange Bowl matchup on Jan. 1, 1979.
- » In the Big Ten's divisional setup Nebraska will not face Purdue, Illinois and Indiana in 2011 and 2012. Nebraska's permanent cross-over opponent from the Leaders Division will be Penn State.
- » Nebraska's regular-season finale against Iowa has been moved for Friday, Nov. 25, continuing Nebraska's tradition of playing on the day after Thanksgiving.

FOUR NEW ASSISTANTS JOIN NEBRASKA STAFF

After having the same coaching staff for each of his first three seasons at Nebraska, Pelini has four new faces among his assistants for the 2011 campaign.

Offensively, Rich Fisher (receivers) and John Garrison (assistant offensive line/tight ends) are new to the full-time staff. Fisher comes to Nebraska after a successful run as a prep coach in Massachusetts. Garrison spent the past three seasons as an intern on the Nebraska staff.

Ross Els (linebackers) and Corey Raymond (secondary) join the Nebraska defensive staff. Els, a Lincoln native, served on Frank Solich's Ohio staff for the past six seasons, while Raymond comes to Nebraska after spending the past two seasons as the cornerbacks coach at Utah State.

In addition to the new additions to the staff, Pelini shuffled some duties among returning coaches. Tim Beck takes over the role of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, while Ron Brown shifts to tutoring the Nebraska running backs.

John Papuchis has expanded his role in 2011. Papuchis will continue as the Huskers' defensive line coach and special teams coordinator, while adding the role of recruiting coordinator to his duties.

NEBRASKA SEEKING THIRD STRAIGHT 10-WIN SEASON

Nebraska has posted 10 wins in each of the past two seasons, giving the Huskers back-to-back double-digit victory seasons for the first time since 2000 (10-2) and 2001 (11-2). A third straight season with 10 or more victories in 2011 would mark the first time the Huskers have accomplished that since a three-year span from 1999 to 2001.

Nebraska is one of just nine schools in the nation with back-to-back 10 win seasons, including Wisconsin and Ohio State of the Big Ten, Alabama (SEC), Virginia Tech (ACC), Oregon and Utah (Pac-12) and TCU and Boise State (Mountain West).

- » The 2010 season marked the first time Nebraska posted 10 wins in the regular season since the 2001 team won 11 regular-season games.
- » Bo Pelini joined Frank Solich as the only Nebraska coaches to post two 10-win seasons in their first three years in Lincoln.
- » The 2010 season was Nebraska's 25th all-time 10-win season in school history, including 23 since 1970.

HUSKERS IN ELITE GROUP WITH THREE STRAIGHT NINE-WIN SEASONS

Nebraska secured its third straight nine-win season under third-year head coach Bo Pelini in 2010.

- » The three straight years of nine wins marks the first time NU has accomplished that since its NCAA record streak of 33 straight nine-win seasons from 1969 to 2001.
- » Nebraska is one 10 schools to secure nine wins or more in each of the past three seasons, joining TCU, Oregon, Boise State, Oklahoma State, Ohio State, Virginia Tech, Alabama, Utah and West Virginia. Nebraska has 45 nine-win seasons in school history.

PELINI STACKS UP WELL WITH PEERS

In guiding Nebraska to a 30-12 record, (29-12 from 2008-2010), Pelini put himself in some impressive company.

- » Pelini is the fourth Nebraska head coach to win nine games in each of his first three seasons with the Cornhuskers. The others to reach that win plateau were Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne and Frank Solich. Pelini has joined Solich as the only NU coaches with two 10-win seasons in their first three years.
- » Pelini, Solich and Texas' Mack Brown were the only coaches in Big 12 history (1996) to have won nine or more games in each of their first three seasons.
- » Pelini's nine victories in 2008 tied for the most among 18 coaches in their first season at their respective schools. Among first-time head coaches, Pelini's victory total was the best in the nation. Pelini's 19 victories in his first two seasons were second among that group, and he has moved to the top of the 2008 hiring class with his 29 wins, two more than than Navy's Ken Niumatalolo.
- » Pelini was just the eighth BCS Conference (since 1998) first-time head coach to post nine or more victories in his first season. He was just the second first-year head coach in that span to win nine games after inheriting a team with a losing record the previous year. Only Pelini and Bill Stewart (former West Virginia coach) from the group won nine games each of the past three seasons.

SEASON-OPENING WIN STREAK

Nebraska will look to continue a nation-leading streak when it opens the 2011 season against Chattanooga at Memorial Stadium on Sept. 3. Last year's 49-10 win over Western Kentucky marked the Huskers' 25th straight victory in a season opener. The streak leads the nation, bettering Florida's 21 straight season-opening wins.

The Huskers have won each of their last 25 season openers by 10 or more points, and have scored 40 or more points in the opener 18 of the past 25 seasons. In the win streak, NU has limited opponents to 14 points or less 17 times.

POINTS AT A PREMIUM AGAINST BLACKSHIRTS

Nebraska has been remarkably stingy on the scoreboard the past two seasons. The 2009 defense led the nation in scoring defense at 10.4 points per game, and held seven foes to single digits and eight teams to 10 or fewer points. Both of those totals led the nation. Nebraska posted two shutouts for the first time since 2003. In 2010, Nebraska again ranked in the top 10 nationally, holding opponents to 17.4 points per game to rank ninth.

The scoring defense numbers put together the past two seasons stack up well historically. In 28 games the past two seasons, NU has allowed an average of 13.89 points per game, fourth-best in the nation in that span

or fewer

and only one opponent scored more than 24 points in regulation play.

» Only 12 Nebraska opponents have scored as many as 17 points since the start of the 2009 season (28 games). In the past two seasons, Nebraska has allowed 10 or fewer points in 12 games.

NO FREE PASSES

Nebraska's defense has consistently been among the nation's best under Bo and Carl Pelini. That effort has been led by the Blackshirts' remarkable pass defense. Nebraska had a dominant secondary in 2010, marking the second straight season NU ranked among the nation's top pass defenses.

Nebraska finished third nationally in pass efficiency defense (96.29 rating) and fifth in passing yards allowed (153.6 ypg) in 2010. Nebraska allowed opposing passers to complete just 48.7 percent of passing attempts, a mark that ranked second nationally.

The pass defense effort came a year after Nebraska led the nation in pass efficiency defense in 2009. Over the past two seasons, Nebraska has allowed 20 touchdown passes, while picking off 39 opponent passes. NU allowed just seven passing touchdowns in 2009 and 13 in 2010.

The Huskers have a 91.25 pass efficiency defensive rating over the past two seasons, best in the nation. In 28 games in 2009 and 2010, game, fifth-best in the nation. Other Notable accomplishments for Nebraska's pass defense

HUSKERS

» Nebraska opponents completed less than 50 percent of their passes each of the past two seasons. Ten of 14 opponents in 2009 completed 50 percent or less of their pass attempts, and five opponents had less than

- 150 yards passing. In 2010, seven opponents threw for 135 yards or less, and NU also held seven opponents below a 50 percent completion rate.
- » Nebraska had 19 interceptions in 2010 to tie for 11th in the country. In 2009, Nebraska tied for seventh in the nation with 20 interceptions.
- » Nebraska's average of 153.6 yards per game allowed through the air in 2010 was its best pass defense average since allowing 131.0 yards per game in 1990.
- » The Blackshirts allowed 15 passing yards against Kansas in 2010, the fewest since allowing zero completions against Nicholls State in 2006. It was just the eighth time since 1990 that NU held an opponent to 50 or fewer passing yards. Kansas did not complete a pass after the first quarter (0-of-9).

NEBRASKA CAREER SACKS

| Rk. | Player, Years             | Sacks  |

| 4.  | Ndamukong Suh, 2005-09    | 24     |
|     | Danny Noonan, 1984-86     | 24     |
| 6.  | Broderick Thomas, 1985-8  | 8 22.5 |
| 7.  | Adam Carriker, 2003-06    | 20.5   |
| 8.  | Jared Crick, 2008-present | 19     |
| 9.  | Barry Turner, 2005-09     | 17     |
| 10. | Travis Hill, 1989-92      | 16.5   |

Defensive tackle Jared Crick has been a fixture on Nebraska's defensive line and in opponent backfields each of the past two seasons. The 6-6, 285-pound Crick has earned first-team all-conference honors each of the past two seasons, and is likely to be a strong candidate for numerous national honors this fall.

In addition to his All-Big 12 award in 2010, Crick was also a first-team All-America choice by Rivals.com, while earning second-team honors from the Associated Press and CBSSports.com. Crick was one of 12 semifinalists for the Rotary Lombardi Award, and he was a quarterfinalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy.

Crick enters 2011 in position to cement his place as one of the top defenders in Nebraska history. He has been a first-team All-American by nearly every preseason outlet and is among the favorites for Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year.

- » Crick has the opportunity to become Nebraska's first three-time, first-team all-conference selection since cornerback Ralph Brown achieved the rare honor in 1997, 1998 and 1999. Just 21 players in school history have been three-time all-conference picks, including only five since 1990.
- » Crick made 70 tackles last season to rank third on the team and first among linemen. He led all Big 12 defensive linemen with 5.0 tackles per game.
- » Crick had a team-high 9.5 sacks, including three games with two or more sacks. His 2010 sack total equaled his 2009 total, giving Crick 19 career sacks. His sack total ranks eighth in school history. He is five sacks from cracking the top five in NU history and 11.5 sacks from Trev Alberts' school record of 29.5 career sacks.

» Crick led the team with 17 tackles for loss (91 yards) in his junior season. His 32 career tackles for loss are six shy of the top 10 on the career chart, and Crick is 12 tackles for loss from cracking the top five in school history.

» In 2009, Crick pushed Ndamukong Suh for team statistical leads in tackles, sacks and tackles for loss. Crick finished with 73 tackles, 15 tackles for loss, 9.5 sacks, 16 quarterback hurries and two fumble recoveries. His 5.2 tackles per game were second behind Suh among Big 12 defensive linemen.

» Crick had one of the most prolific defensive days in school history with a record-setting performance at Baylor in 2009. Crick had a school-record five sacks for 24 yards in the game. His five sacks were the most in a single game by any player in the nation in 2009, just ahead of Suh's 4.5 sacks against Texas. Crick had seven tackles for loss, tying the NU school record also held by Jim Skow (1985 vs. Missouri) and Suh (2009 vs. Texas). The seven TFLs by Crick and Suh were three more than any other Big 12 player in 2009.

DAVID LOOKS TO BUILD ON RECORD-SETTING SEASON

Linebacker Lavonte David arrived on the Nebraska campus just a few months before the 2010 season, but by the end of the year he had put his name in the Nebraska record book. In 2011, David figures to be a strong candidate for national honors, including one of the leading contenders for the Rutkus Award

David set a Nebraska season record with 152 tackles in 2010, and his 10.9 tackles per game ranked 11th nationally and tops in the Big 12. His tackle total surpassed the previous school record of 149 tackles by Barrett Ruud in 2003. The 6-1, 220-pound David was also the first Blackshirt defender to record 100 tackles since Ruud in 2004.

» David had a team season-high 19 tackles in the Huskers' victory over South Dakota State. His tackle total vs. SDSU was tied for the most in the Big 12 in 2010, and was the highest for a Nebraska player since Ruud totaled 19 tackles at Kansas State in 2004. The tackle total tied for the seventh-most in a single game in Nebraska history.

» David had eight games with double-figure tackle totals in 2010, including three with at least 15 tackles. David had 35 tackles in back-to-back games against South Dakota State and Kansas State, the best for a Husker since Ruud had 36 tackles in back-to-back games against Kansas State and Missouri in 2004. David made 17 tackles against Oklahoma in the Big 12 title game, giving him the top three tackle efforts of the past six seasons.

In addition to leading the team in tackles, David was second on the team in tackles for loss (15-60), sacks (6-50) and pass breakups (10), while ranking fourth in hurries (7). He was widely honored for his effort. David was named the Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year by every outlet that selected that honor. He was also a first-team All-Big 12 selection, while the Kansas City Star named him its conference defensive player of the year. David also received national accolades, including first-team All-America honors by Rivals.com and CBSSports.com, while the AP and SI.com named him to the second team.

Despite having the benefit of only two seasons in a Nebraska uniform, David is in position to rank among the top 10 career tackles in school history. David would need 96 tackles in his senior season to crack the top 10, and just 60 to reach the top 20 on the career list. Demorrio Williams' 220 career tackles is the most by a Nebraska defender who played just two seasons as a Husker (2002-03).

HUSKER OFFENSE LOOKS FOR ANOTHER PRODUCTIVE RUSHING ATTACK

Nebraska led the Big 12 and ranked ninth nationally in rushing offense in 2010, averaging 247.6 yards per game. Nebraska's national rushing ranking was its highest since 2003 when the Huskers were seventh in the nation in rushing. However, NU had not finished higher than 23rd in that category between 2004 and 2009. The 247.6 yard per game average was also NU's best since averaging 268.7 yards on the ground in 2002.

This fall, Nebraska returns a pair of runners who each topped 900 yards on the ground in 2010. I-back Rex Burkhead finished his sophomore season with 951 rushing yards, while quarterback Taylor Martinez netted 965 yards despite being injured for much of the second half of his freshman season.

» Nebraska is one of only three teams nationally with a pair of returning 900-yard rushers from last season. Burkhead and Martinez also rank third among returning running backquarterback rushing tandems, and 2011 marks just the third time Nebraska has returned a pair of runners who topped 900 yards the previous year.

FBS Teams Returning Multiple 900-Yard Rushers from 2010

- Wisconsin (James White 1,052; Montee Ball 996) 1.
- Pittsburgh (Dion Lewis 1.061: Ray Graham 922) 2.
- Nebraska (Taylor Martinez (QB) 965; Rex Burkhead 951) 3.

FBS Top Returning Quarterback-Running Back Rushing Combination

- 1. Michigan, 2,303 yards (Denard Robinson – 1,702; Vincent Smith – 601)
- Oregon, 2,217 yards (Darron Thomas 486; LaMichael James 1,731)
- Nebraska, 1,916 yards (Taylor Martinez 965; Rex Burkhead 951)

Husker Teams with Two Returning 900-Yard Rushers from Previous Season

- » 2011 (Taylor Martinez & Rex Burkhead)
- » 1992 (Derek Brown & Calvin Jones)
- » 1982 (Roger Craig & Mike Rozier)

Burkhead, Martinez and graduated I-back Roy Helu Jr. led a 2010 rushing attack that put up numbers not seen at Nebraska in seven seasons.

- » Nebraska topped 200 rushing yards in 10 of 14 games in 2010. The Huskers were 10-0 when rushing for 200 yards and 0-4 when they failed to reach that plateau.
- » Nebraska had back-to-back 300-yard rushing performances in games 2 and 3 (Idaho, Washington), marking the first time NU topped 300 rushing yards in consecutive games since late in the 2002 season. NU had five straight 200-yard rushing games to start the season and six overall including the 2009 Holiday Bowl, marking the longest streak for the Huskers since also posting six straight 200-yard rushing games during the 2002 season.
- » Nebraska's 451 rushing yards at Kansas State were its most since posting 641 rushing yards at Baylor in 2001. It also marked just the Huskers' second 400-yard rushing game in the past seven seasons (413 vs. Nevada, 2007).
- » In road wins at Washington and Kansas State, Nebraska rushed for more than 300 yards in consecutive road games for the first time since 2001 when NU topped 300 rushing yards in back-to-back games at Missouri and Baylor. NU also topped 200 rushing yards in road wins at Oklahoma State (217) and Iowa State (235).
- » Nebraska produced five of the top 10 team rushing efforts since 2004 last season, including the first, third and fifth-best rushing efforts in that stretch.
- » Helu Jr. became the first NU player to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons since Calvin Jones in 1992 and 1993. Helu Jr. finished his career fourth on the NU career rushing list.
- » Martinez's 965 rushing yards in 2010 were the second-best ever for a Nebraska freshman and fifth among single-season efforts by a Husker quarterback. Martinez set NU quarterback records for longest run and most rushing yards in a game.
- » Burkhead rushed for 951 yards, giving Nebraska three players with more than 950 rushing yards for the first time in school history.
- » Nebraska had three players crack the century mark in rushing yards in the first meeting with Washington, as Martinez, Helu Jr. and Burkhead all surpassed 100 yards. The game marked the fifth time in school history Nebraska has had three players reach 100 rushing yards in the same game, and the first time it has happened since four Husker runners topped 100 yards at Baylor in 2001.

- » Martinez and Helu Jr. also teamed up to produce double 100-yard rushing games against Idaho and Kansas State. The Idaho game marked the first time since 2006 (Iowa State) NU had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game. Nebraska has now had two players rush for 100 yards in the same game 68 times in school history.
- » Nebraska had 12 100-yard rushing games in 2010 after having just 16 combined 100-yard games the previous three seasons (2007-09). The 12 100-yard games in 2010 were the most by NU since the 2001 team had 16 100-yard rushing outings in 13 games.
- » Helu Jr. set a Nebraska school record with 307 rushing yards in Nebraska's win over Missouri. His rushing yardage marked the third-highest total in Football Bowl Subdivision in 2010.
- » Nebraska averaged 5.47 yards-per-carry, seventh-best in the country.
- » Nebraska rushed for 3,466 yards in 14 games in 2010, over 1,400 yards more than in 14 games in 2009. It marked the first time NU rushed for 2,500 yards in a season since 2003.

NCAA RECORD SELLOUT STREAK

One of the most remarkable streaks in collegiate sports continues into the 2011 season. Nebraska has sold out every game at Memorial Stadium since November of 1962, and the streak now stands at 311 games. With seven home games in 2011, the streak is likely to reach 318 by season's end. Nebraska celebrated the 300th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium on Sept. 26, 2009 against Louisiana-Lafayette, with a stadium record crowd of 86,304. Notre Dame is second in all-time consecutive sellouts with 220, 91 fewer than Nebraska.

MEMORIAL STADIUM PROVIDES HUSKERS WITH HUGE ADVANTAGE

Nebraska has rewarded the loyalty of its fans with incredible success at Memorial Stadium through the years.

» Nebraska has won at least six home games in 20 of the past 25 seasons. Nebraska is 135-19 at home in the last 22 seasons (since 1989). Nebraska finished 6-1 at home in 2010, its best record at Memorial Stadium since also going 6-1 in 2006.

- » During Nebraska's run of success at home in the past 25 years, NU has had three home winning streaks of 20 or more games. Nebraska has posted 40 unbeaten and untied home seasons
- » The Huskers are 504-138-20 (.776, 662 games, 121 years) in Lincoln, and 379-115-13 (.759, 507 games, 88 years) in Memorial Stadium (since 1923). Nebraska has had 42 straight winning home seasons, including 2010.
- » Nebraska posted its 500th all-time home win against Idaho on Sept. 11, 2010. The 500th home victory put Nebraska in elite company. Only three other schools in college football history (Michigan, Ohio State, Tennessee) reached the 500-win plateau at home before Nebraska.

800-WIN CLUB

Nebraska is one of eight programs with 800 all-time victories, and NU's 837 all-time victories is fourth nationally.

| 1. | Michigan   | 884 |
|----|------------|-----|
| 2. | Texas      | 850 |
| 3. | Notre Dame | 845 |
| 4. | Nebraska   | 837 |
| 5. | Ohio State | 831 |
| 6. | Penn State | 818 |
| 7. | Oklahoma   | 811 |
| 8. | Alabama    | 802 |

Nebraska is entering its 122nd season of college football, and owns an 837-345-40 all-time record in 1,222 games (.701).

- » Since the first season of Nebraska football in 1890, Husker teams have won 11 or more games 12 times, including seven times since 1993. Nebraska last won 11 games in the 2001 season.
- » Nebraska has won 12 or more games seven times, including three seasons with 13 wins (1971, 1994, 1997).
- » NU (702), Michigan (705), Alabama (728) and Notre Dame (736) were the only schools to win 700 games in the 1900s.

NATION'S BEST SINCE 1970

Nebraska ranks as the nation's winningest program since the start of the 1970s, when Bob Devaney guided NU to back-to-back national titles in 1970 and 1971. During the past four decades, the Huskers have compiled a 403-104-5 record, for a .792 winning percentage in 512 games. NU's 403 wins in that time period are 24 more than any other school. Four of the top five schools in victories since 1970 will compete in the Big Ten Conference in 2011.

| 1. | Nebraska   | 403 |
|----|------------|-----|
| 2. | Ohio State | 379 |
| 3. | Oklahoma   | 376 |
| 4. | Michigan   | 366 |
| 5  | Penn State | 364 |

- » Nebraska has 39 nine-win seasons and 23 10-win seasons since 1970. Nebraska posted its first 10-win season since 2003 in 2009, and is coming off back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time since 2000 and 2001. NU has also posted three straight nine-win seasons for the first time since an NCAA record 33 straight from 1969 to 2001.
- » Nebraska was the first team in college football history to win 100 or more games in consecutive decades, ranking first in the 1980s (103-20) and second in the 1990s (108-16-1). NU narrowly missed 100 wins in the 1970s (98). Nebraska posted 84 wins in the recently completed decade.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL CONTINUES WINNING WAYS IN THE CLASSROOM

Nebraska football has long been one of the nation's most successful programs on the field. Success in the classroom is also a cornerstone of the Nebraska football program.

CASSIDY CONTINUES ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA TRADITION

Nebraska junior safety Austin Cassidy was named to the CoSIDA Academic All-America first team in 2010. Cassidy was Nebraska's first first-team academic All-American since 2005. Cassidy carries a 3.905 cumulative grade-point average in psychology, and has been named to the academic all-district team each of the past two seasons.

NATION-LEADING TOTAL OF ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

The selection of Cassidy continued to help build Nebraska's nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in football. The Huskers now have 99 all-time CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in football, including 64 first-team selections. Nebraska also leads the nation in academic All-Americans with 291 academic All-Americans across all teams and all sports, including 14 honorees in 2010-11.

SENIOR CLASS IN STRONG ACADEMIC STANDING

Nebraska's 21-player senior class includes two players—Austin Cassidy and Jared Crick—who are expected to play the 2011 season as graduate students. Cassidy picked up his undergraduate degree in May and Crick is slated to graduate in August.

- » Another 12 seniors are on track to complete their degree work in the fall, giving the Huskers 14 senior graduates by the bowl season. All 21 members of the senior class are scheduled to complete their undergraduate work by August 2012, including 20 of the 21 by next May.
- » In addition to the senior class, five current NU juniors are scheduled to complete their undergraduate work during the fall semester, finishing in just 3 1/2 years. That group includes Kenny Anderson, Will Compton, Ben Cotton, Baker Steinkuhler and Josh Williams. Another seven juniors are currently on track to graduate in May of 2012.
- » Among Bo Pelini's first three senior classes, 52 of 57 players are on track to earn their degrees by December.

NEBRASKA POSTS IMPRESSIVE EXHAUSTED ELIGIBILITY GRADUATION RATES

Nebraska athletic teams continue to graduate student-athletes at an impressive rate. Nebraska led the Big 12 in exhausted eligibility graduation rates for seven straight years before the NCAA chose not to calculate the rate in 2010. Nebraska however has increased its exhausted eligibility grad rate to an impressive 95 percent.

The exhausted eligibility rate surveys the graduation rate of scholarship student-athletes in 10 incoming freshman classes who complete their eligibility at the university. Nebraska's exhausted eligibility rate has improved 23 percentage points since the inception of the rate in 1991-92.

HUSKERS PROMINENT ON NFL ROSTERS

Nebraska has a long-standing tradition of placing large numbers of players in the NFL. NU had 37 players on NFL rosters as of June 23, and were represented on the rosters of 21 NFL teams. Nearly 40 former Huskers were in NFL training camps in 2010.

Nebraska owns one of the most impressive histories of any school in producing NFL-caliber players. Nebraska had seven players selected in the 2011 NFL Draft, the most of any Big Ten school and fourth among all college programs. The seven draft picks were also the most since Nebraska also had seven picks in the 2001 Draft.

Since 1997, Nebraska has had 72 players selected in the NFL Draft, including 46 defensive players. Nebraska has had at least three players selected in the draft each of the past 42 seasons. Cornerback Prince Amukamara was a first-round pick, giving Nebraska back-to-back seasons with first-round draft choices. Nebraska is one of only seven programs to produce first-round draft picks in both 2010 and 2011.

SEEING DOUBLE

The 2011 Nebraska roster includes three sets of twins and five total sets of brothers. Courtney and Steven Osborne of Garland, Texas, signed with the Huskers in 2008 and enter their fourth seasons in the program—Courtney as a safety and Steven at wide receiver. Colin and Conor McDermott walked on to Nebraska from Omaha Creighton Prep high school and will both be juniors this fall. Jake and Spencer Long also hail from Omaha (Elkhorn High School) and are in their third seasons in the program. Jake lines up at tight end, while Spencer is an offensive lineman.

In addition to the three sets of twins, Nebraska also has two other sets of brothers on the roster—Ben and Jake Cotton, and Andrew and Aaron Green. The Cottons are the sons of Nebraska associate head coach Barney Cotton. In addition, walk-on redshirt freshman offensive lineman Mark Pelini is the nephew of Bo and Carl Pelini. Fullback Mike Marrow is the son of Nebraska graduate assistant coach Vince Marrow. Freshman walk-on linebacker Broderick Boehm is the son of Nebraska Executive Associate Athletic Director Marc Boehm.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL—A FAMILY AFFAIR

The Cotton family is one of just several father-son combinations who have played for Nebraska. Barney lettered at Nebraska in 1976-78, while Ben is a junior tight end and Jake is a redshirt freshman offensive lineman. Other current Nebraska players whose fathers also played at NU include DB Joey Felici (Tony, 1980-82), LB Sean Fisher (Todd, 1983), DE Andy Gdowski (Tom, 1980-82), WR KC Hyland (John, 1970-72), LB Micah Kreikemeier (Keith, 1981-85), DE Jay Martin (Bob, 1973-75), OL Tyler Moore (Brian, 1982-85), LB Anthony Ridder (Dave, 1981-83), TE Eddie Ridder (Tom, 1970s), C Cole Pensick (Dan, 1977-79), LB Colby Starkebaum (John, 1972-74) and DT Baker Steinkuhler (Dean, 1981-83).

NFL HAS LARGE INFLUENCE ON NEBRASKA ROSTER

Several players also have family connections with the National Football League. Barney Cotton logged four seasons in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals and St. Louis Cardinals from 1979 to 1982. Other players whose fathers played in the NFL include Anthony Blue (Anthony, Sr., Seattle, 1987), Jay Martin (Bob, N.Y. Jets, San Francisco, 1976-79), Mike Marrow (Vince, Buffalo, Carolina, N.Y. Jets, Chicago, San Francisco, 1992-99) Baker Steinkuhler (Dean, Houston, 1984-91), and Lester Ward (Lester, Sr., Dallas).

#7C

- » Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2008, 2009, 2010)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2010)
- » Defensive Scout Team co-MVP (2009)

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior Kenny Anderson enters fall practice with hopes of pushing for playing time on a deep and talented Nebraska defensive front. The 6-2, 260-pound Anderson missed spring practice with a shoulder injury, but is expected to add depth behind returning starter Cameron Meredith, juniors Eric Martin and Josh Williams and sophomore Jason Ankrah. A walk-on performer, Anderson has spent the majority of time in the program on the scout unit and was the Scout Team Defensive co-MVP in 2009. The Omaha native excels in the classroom where he has been selected to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll three times.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Anderson provided depth behind Cameron Meredith and Pierre Allen, but did not play in a game.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Anderson was a reserve defensive end, but did not play in a game. He was named Defensive Scout Team co-MVP.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Anderson sat out his first season as a redshirt and worked with the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MILLARD WEST HS)

Anderson posted impressive statistics during his senior year at Millard West. Playing defensive end, Anderson had 13 sacks and 65 tackles, helping Millard West reach the semifinals in the state football playoffs. For his efforts, Anderson earned first-team all-state honors from the Lincoln Journal Star and second-team all-state accolades from the Omaha World-Herald. He was a member of the South Squad for the 2008 Shrine Bowl. Anderson chose to walk on at Nebraska over offers from Division II Northwest Missouri State and Augustana (S.D.) College.

PERSONAL

Kenny was born on May 20, 1990, and is the son of Rod and Kim Anderson. He is majoring in business administration and has volunteered with the Special Olympics, a Nebraska Veteran's Welcome Home event and team hospital visits. Anderson is on track to graduate in December of 2011.

JASON ANKRAH

#9

DEFENSIVE END | 6-4 | 265 | SOPHOMORE GAITHERSBURG, MD. • QUINCE ORCHARD ONE LETTER

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore defensive end Jason Ankrah will be counted on to move his game to the next level in 2011 and be a contributor at defensive end. The 6-4, 265-pound Ankrah was a key reserve behind Pierre Allen and Cameron Meredith last season and earned valuable experience on one of the nation's top defenses.

Allen graduated and with Meredith out during spring ball, Ankrah took advantage of an opportunity to push for a starting role on an impressive defensive line. Ankrah will head into fall camp expected to battle juniors Meredith, Josh Williams and Eric Martin for a starting end spot. A Maryland native, Ankrah possesses the physical tools to be successful both against the run and as a pass rusher.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Ankrah played in 10 games and made two tackles, a solo stop at Oklahoma State and an assist against Oklahoma. He also had a quarterback hurry against Kansas.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Ankrah redshirted in 2009 and was impressive on the NU scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (QUINCE ORCHARD HS)

Ankrah was one of the top prospects on the East Coast after an outstanding career for Coach Dave Mencarini at Quince Orchard High School in Gaithersburg, Md. Ankrah was just the second Husker signee from Maryland since 1990 and attended the same high school as Nebraska assistant coach John Papuchis. Ankrah totaled 55 tackles as a senior, including 42 unassisted stops, 14 tackles for loss, seven sacks and 19 quarterback hurries. His play helped Quince Orchard to a 10-2 record and a trip to the Maryland 4A West Regional Final.

Ankrah was a first-team all-state pick, an All-Met selection by the Washington Post and was also named to the All-Gazette (Gaithersburg) first team. Ankrah played in the first Maryland Crab Bowl, pitting the top players in Maryland against D.C. area standouts.

Ankrah had more than 50 tackles and five sacks as a junior, helping Quince Orchard to a perfect 14-0 record and Class 4A state championship, and he earned first-team All-Sentinel as an offensive lineman. Ankrah also visited Michigan and Maryland, and also considered Virginia Tech and Clemson.

PERSONAL

Jason is the son of Kofi and Nanu Ankrah and was born on Feb. 26, 1991. He is majoring in child, youth and family studies and has been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll two times.

NICK ASH

#70

OFFENSIVE LINE | 6-5 | 275 | SOPHOMORE KELLER, TEXAS • KELLER

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Nick Ash is one of several young linemen in the Nebraska program who are pushing for playing time in 2011. The Huskers have put together several classes of impressive offensive line recruits, making the position one of the team's deepest heading into the fall.

The 6-5, 275-pound Ash has been impressive in his scout team work over the past two seasons and continued to progress during spring football. The Texas native spent a majority of time at tackle during the spring, but has the versatility to play multiple positions on the offensive line.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Ash provided depth on a veteran offensive line, but did not see game action.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Ash sat out his first season in the program as a redshirt and worked with the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KELLER HS)

Ash was a first-team all-district pick for Coach Kevin Atkinson and Class 5A Keller High School in 2008, while also earning second-team all-area honors from the Dallas Morning News. Ash helped his team to a 7-3 record in 2008, and the Indians narrowly missed out on a state playoff appearance. Ash helped a Keller offense that averaged nearly 30 points per game, and he allowed just one sack on the season.

Ash played tackle as a senior, switching from offensive guard as a junior, when he was an honorable-mention all-district pick. Ash was regarded as one of the top 100 prospects in Texas in 2009. In addition to his on-field accolades, Ash was also an honorable-mention academic all-state pick by the Texas High School Coaches Association. He selected Nebraska over Kansas, Purdue, Texas Tech, Arizona, Vanderbilt and TCU to name a few, but only visited Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Nick is the son of Kent and LeAnn Ash, and was born on Oct. 29, 1990. He is majoring in marketing and has volunteered his time at Meadow Lane Elementary School.

#47

DEFENSIVE END | 6-2 | 255 | R-FRESHMAN KENNER, LA. • JOHN CURTIS

2011 OUTLOOK

Walker Ashburn is part of an impressive group of talented young defensive linemen on the Nebraska roster. The 6-2, 255-pound Ashburn redshirted in his first season in the program and added necessary strength and quickness to excel in the battles of the Big Ten Conference. Ashburn had a strong spring camp and will head into the fall with hopes of battling for playing time at one of Nebraska's deepest positions.

Ashburn came to Nebraska from John Curtis High School in River Ridge, La., one of the dominant prep programs in the state of Louisiana.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Ashburn redshirted and worked on Nebraska's scout team defensive unit.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (JOHN CURTIS HS)

Ashburn's play as a senior helped Coach J.T. Curtis' team to a runner-up finish in the Class 2A state playoffs. The loss in the state title game prevented John Curtis from winning a sixth straight state title. Ashburn racked up 95 tackles and 16 sacks in 2009. His play earned him Louisiana Class 2A Defensive MVP honors. He also earned first-team all-state honors, as well as first-team all-metro and all-district accolades.

Ashburn had 90 tackles, 12 sacks and three forced fumbles as a junior in 2008, helping his team to a state championship. Ashburn was a four-year starter, and as a sophomore he was named MVP of the state championship game. Ashburn was a high school teammate of Nebraska safety P.J. Smith. Ashburn also competed in track and was strong in the classroom, carrying better than a 3.6 grade-point average. He only visited Nebraska, but had numerous offers including Oklahoma State and Stanford.

PERSONAL

Walker is the son of Terry and Desiree Ashburn, and he was born on May 22, 1991. Walker's father works in the New Orleans Saints organization. Ashburn has not yet declared a major. He is active in the community, volunteering with team hospital visits, the Husker Heroes program and speaking at Meadow Lane Elementary School.

#82

TIGHT END | 6-8 | 245 | SOPHOMORE BATTLE CREEK, NEB. • BATTLE CREEK

- » Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2010)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2010, 2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Robert Barry heads into fall camp with hopes of earning playing time at tight end behind returning starters Ben Cotton and Kyler Reed. Barry has impressed the coaching staff with his work ethic in his first two years in the program. The 6-8 Barry is among the tallest players on the Nebraska roster, providing a big receiving target for Husker quarterbacks. The Battle Creek, Neb., native has added more than 25 pounds of muscle since his arrival on campus two years ago.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Barry provided depth at tight end, but did not appear in a game.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on, Barry redshirted and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BATTLE CREEK HS)

Barry was a talented all-around performer at Battle Creek for Coach Greg Wemhoff. Barry caught 30 passes for 400 yards and five TDs as a sophomore tight end, but primarily played quarterback his final two seasons. He passed for a combined 2,300 yards as a junior and senior, while rushing for another 500 yards with 32 TDs. Barry was an honorable-mention Class C-2 pick by both the Omaha World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal Star, helping his team to the playoffs in 2006 and 2008.

PERSONAI

Robert is the son of Bob and Mary Barry, and was born on July 13, 1990. He is majoring in secondary education-social science and is a three-time Big 12 Academic Honor Roll selection. He has volunteered with team hospital visits, at Elliott and Meadow Lane Elementary and during School is Cool Week.

2011 OUTLOOK

ANTONIO REL I

CORNERBACK | 6-2 | 200 | JUNIOR DAYTONA BEACH, FLA. • MAINLAND

A

Junior cornerback Antonio Bell enters his third season in the program with a goal of earning significant action in a secondary that lost five key seniors to graduation. The 6-2, 200-pound Bell provided depth at corner in 2010, after switching from receiver before the season. After a solid spring, Bell is one of the leading contenders for playing time behind projected starters Alfonzo Dennard and Ciante Evans.

In addition to contending for playing time in the defensive backfield, Bell could also be counted on to once again play a role on special teams. Bell joined the program in January of 2009, after originally signing with the Huskers in the 2008 recruiting class.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Bell played in eight games as a reserve corner and on Nebraska's punt coverage unit. Bell helped Nebraska rank 35th nationally in net punting.

2009 (FRESHMAN)

Bell was one of six true freshmen to play in 2009. He appeared in six games at wide receiver and had a catch for three yards against Louisiana-Lafayette.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MAINLAND HS)

Bell had a highly productive prep career for Coach John Maronto at Mainland High School. A four-year starter, Bell caught 45 passes for 776 yards and nine touchdowns as a senior in 2007. That performance earned him first-team all-area honors and second-team Class 5A all-state accolades from the Florida Sportswriters Association. Bell earned first-team all-area honors as a junior when he caught 42 passes, covering 625 yards and four touchdowns. Bell accounted for 500 receiving yards as a sophomore in 2005, earning him a second-team all-area selection. Bell chose Nebraska over offers from West Virginia, South Carolina and Tennessee.

PERSONAL

Antonio is the son of Tony and Cynthia Bell, and was born on Feb. 21, 1990. Bell is majoring in sociology.

CAREER STATISTICS

WIDE RECEIVER | 6-1 | 180 | R-FRESHMAN BOULDER, COLO. • FAIRVIEW

» Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2010)

» Nebraska Offensive Scout Team MVP (2010)

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Kenny Bell was one of the breakout players of Nebraska's spring football practice. The 6-1, 180-pound speedster showed his play-making ability throughout the spring and enters fall camp with hopes of pushing for a spot in Nebraska's regular receiving rotation. Bell made a strong impression last fall with his practice work, and was named the Offensive Scout Team MVP.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Bell redshirted in his first year in the program and worked as a scout team receiver.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FAIRVIEW HS)

Bell helped Fairview High to a 12-1 record and a state semifinal appearance in 2009. He caught 18 passes for 328 yards and three touchdowns, and added an interception and kickoff return for a touchdown. Bell missed much of the season with an injury, but scored five touchdowns in his first five games back in action. Despite his limited action, Bell's impact was recognized, as he was a first-team All-Colorado selection and first-team Class 5A all-state pick by the Denver Post.

As a junior, Bell earned first-team All-Front Range League honors, playing wingback and rushing for 958 yards and 12 touchdowns. Bell was ranked among the top 10 players in Colorado according to Rivals.com. Bell chose Nebraska after also visiting Minnesota and Texas Tech. He also had offers from several other schools, including Colorado, California, Arizona and Arizona State. In basketball, Bell helped his team to the state title game as a senior, and he also competed in track.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior defensive back Justin Blatchford has excelled in a special teams role each of the past two seasons, while providing depth in the secondary. In 2011, the walk-on from Ponca, Neb., hopes to push for playing time in a defensive backfield that replaces five seniors who saw extensive playing time last season. During spring practice. Blatchford saw extensive work with Nebraska's top units in a dime role.

Blatchford suffered a knee injury during spring ball in 2010, but recuperated in time to return for the season's third game. Once healthy, he was one of NU's special teams leaders playing on the kickoff, punt and punt return teams. Blatchford has also earned academic all-conference honors each of the past two seasons.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Blatchford missed the first two games while recovering from a knee injury. He made five tackles, including two solos, and had a career-high three tackles at Kansas State.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Blatchford played in 12 games on punt return and kickoff coverage. He finished with three unassisted tackles, one each against Colorado, Baylor and Arizona. His biggest play came in a 20-10 win against Baylor, when he returned a blocked punt 25 yards for a touchdown after the Bears' opening series, giving NU a 7-0 lead.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on, Blatchford redshirted in 2008.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PONCA HS)

Blatchford was a four-sport star at Ponca High. He was a two-time all-state pick at running back for Coach Joe Kvidera, and also played linebacker. Blatchford set a school record with 66 career rushing touchdowns, while gaining more than 1,000 yards three times. He was all-state honorable mention as a sophomore and was an all-conference selection all four years, while leading Ponca to the state playoffs three seasons. He played in the 2008 Shrine Game.

Blatchford also lettered four times each in basketball, baseball and golf. He was a two-time all-conference pick as a guard in basketball, while leading his squad to a state title his junior year. He placed in the top 10 all four years at the state golf tournament. On the diamond, he played numerous positions, including outfield and catcher, and was a two-time state champion for the Wakefield Legion program. In the classroom, he was a member of the National Honor Society.

PERSONAL

Justin is the son of Bruce and Rhonda Blatchford, and was born Jan. 3, 1990. He is majoring in nutrition, exercise and health science. Blatchford is a four-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selection.

2011 OUTLOOK

Senior Anthony Blue returned to the practice field this spring after battling back from a second knee injury in three seasons. Blue missed all of the 2010 season after a fall knee injury sidelined him for the entire season.

The 5-10, 190-pound Blue provides a veteran presence at cornerback, where Nebraska returns all-conference performer Alfonzo Dennard, but is otherwise very young. Blue owns good speed and coverage skills, and has made an impact as both a cornerback and on special teams when he has been on the field in 2007 and 2009. Blue owns good speed and coverage skills, and he will look to get back into the mix for playing time at cornerback as a fifth-year senior in 2011.

Blue is majoring in art and is on track to graduate in December of 2011.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Blue missed the entire season after suffering a second major knee injury.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Blue appeared in each of the final 11 games. He made four unassisted tackles and served as the gunner on the punt team. He played a key role in punter Alex Henery leading the Big 12 in punts downed inside the 20, as Blue was often the first man in position to down the punts.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Blue redshirted after suffering a knee injury during winter conditioning. He returned to the practice field in October.

2007 (FRESHMAN)

Blue emerged as a true freshman, playing in all 12 games with starts against Kansas State and Colorado. He made 18 tackles, including nine solo stops, and had 13 tackles in the final three games, including three at Kansas, and a season-high five stops against both Kansas State and Colorado. Blue added a pass breakup against the Wildcats. His play earned him freshman All-Big 12 honors from The Sporting News.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CEDAR HILL HS)

Blue was a standout performer for Cedar Hill, a powerhouse in the Texas Class 5A ranks. Blue played a key role for Coach Joey McGuire, as Cedar Hill captured the Texas Class 5A state title with a perfect 16-0 record. Blue was a second-team all-state selection, first-team all-district pick and second-team all-area in the DFW Metroplex.

Blue made 60 tackles and intercepted two passes as a senior, while breaking up another 20 passes. Blue was ranked among the top 75 defensive back prospects in the nation. In addition to his outstanding play on the gridiron, Blue was a track standout for Cedar Hill. Although he didn't place in the state track meet, Blue ran a personal best of 21.17 in the 200-meter dash in the district meet. Blue only visited Nebraska, but received a number of offers, including Baylor, Purdue and Wisconsin.

PERSONAL

Anthony was born on Feb. 6, 1989, and is the son of Shawndra Blue and Anthony Blue Sr. Blue was a member of the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team in both 2009 and 2010. He has assisted with Nebraska's team hospital visits and as a volunteer for American Education Week, the F Street Recreation Center and the Legacy Retirement Center among others. #### 2011 OUTLOOK

Junior I-back Rex Burkhead has been a key fixture in the Nebraska offense each of the past two seasons, and he is expected to take on a featured role for the Huskers in 2011. The 5-11, 210-pound Burkhead shared time in the backfield last season with senior Roy Helu Jr., and Burkhead's hard-nosed rushing style helped the Huskers lead the Big 12 and rank in the top 10 nationally in rushing offense.

This season, Burkhead is the clear leader of the backfield and will have the opportunity to be a workhorse for a new-look offense under coordinator Tim Beck. Burkhead finished his sophomore season with 951 rushing yards and seven touchdowns on the ground. He played his biggest role late in the year when his carries increased, and he took a good portion of Nebraska's snaps in the Wildcat formation while Taylor Martinez battled lingering ankle and foot injuries. Burkhead finished the year with three 100-yard rushing games and also threw for three touchdowns, while catching 15 passes.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Burkhead played in all 14 games with two starts and earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 honors, as he finished with 951 rushing yards and seven touchdowns, while averaging 5.5 yards per carry. Burkhead accounted for 104 yards on just seven touches in the opener against Western Kentucky. He ran for 57 yards, including a 20-yard score, on five carries, while hauling in a pair of catches for 47 yards.

Burkhead totaled 118 yards against Idaho, rushing for 77 yards on nine carries, while catching three passes for 41 yards, including a careerlong 31-yard reception. He was one of three players to top 100 rushing yards at Washington, with 104 yards on 13 carries, including a 19-yard fourth quarter touchdown. He added 66 yards and a touchdown against South Dakota State and contributed 57 rushin and contributed 57 rushing yards as Nebraska ran for 451 yards in a 48-13 win at Kansas State.

Burkhead's role increased in the final six games after Martinez suffered an ankle injury against Missouri. At Iowa State, Burkhead took several snaps out of the Wildcat and rushed 20 times for a career-high 129 yards and two touchdowns. He capped his effort

He capped his effort with a 19-yard touchdown in overtime, as NU escaped with a 31-30 win.

He added 77 yards and a touchdown against Kansas, then had 74 yards on 13 carries, including a seasonlong 33-yard run at Texas A&M. In that game, Burkhead topped 1,000 career rushing yards. Against Colorado, Burkhead did it all. He ran for 101 yards on 19 carries and completed two passes for 30 yards and two touchdowns, including a 26-yarder to Brandon Kinnie and a 4-yard TD to Kyler Reed. Burkhead rushed for 90 yards on 16 carries and had a touchdown pass against Oklahoma in the Big 12 Championship Game and ran for 39 yards against Washington in the Holiday Bowl.

2009 (FRESHMAN)

Burkhead was one of six true freshmen to see action in 2009, and he was NU's second-leading rusher with 346 yards and three rushing touchdowns. Burkhead posted his numbers in nine games after missing five Big 12 games with a broken foot.

Burkhead had nine carries for 39 yards and a touchdown in the opener against Florida Atlantic. He made a big impact against Louisiana-Lafayette, with six carries for 27 yards against the Ragin' Cajuns and four catches for 26 yards, including a 24-yard TD reception. He also had two punt returns for 59 yards.

Burkhead provided a spark off the bench at Missouri with five carries for 34 yards. However, he suffered a foot injury the following week and missed the next five games. He returned against Kansas State and ran for 17 yards, while adding a nine-yard reception.

Burkhead rushed 18 times for 100 yards and a touchdown at Colorado. His touchdown came in the fourth quarter, capping a drive that saw Burkhead rush nine times for 55 yards. In the Holiday Bowl, Burkhead had 17 carries for 89 yards and scored a touchdown while also taking several carries out of a Wildcat set.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PLANO HS)

Burkhead was a standout for Plano High School and Coach Jaydon McCullough. Burkhead helped Plano to a 10-2 record and the Class 5A state playoffs in 2008, rushing for 1,762 yards and 28 touchdowns. He also caught 42 passes for 594 yards and five touchdowns. Burkhead was a first-team Class 5A all-state selection by the AP and the Dallas Morning News' All-Area Offensive Player of the Year. The Morning News listed him among the top 30 prospects in the state.

Burkhead rushed for 1,768 yards and 29 touchdowns and caught 47 passes as a junior. His play helped Plano to a 13-2 record and a trip to the 5A state semifinals. Burkhead was an honorable-mention 5A all-state selection. Burkhead also ran for more than 1,000 yards and eight touchdowns and passed for more than 600 yards as a sophomore when he was the 2006 District 9-5A Offensive Newcomer of the Year.

Burkhead was also a basketball standout, earning first-team all-district honors as a junior and senior. He averaged 15.1 points, 5.2 rebounds and 2.6 assists as a senior and was part of a Class 5A state title in 2006. Burkhead chose Nebraska after also visiting Texas A&M, and receiving offers from dozens of other BCS schools.

PERSONAL

Rex was born on July 2, 1990, and is the son of Rick and Robyn Burkhead. He is majoring in secondary education-social science and carries a 3.37 cumulative grade-point average. Burkhead is a three-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll pick. He has also been selected to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team the past two years. #### 2011 OUTLOOK

Center Mike Caputo emerged as the centerpiece of Nebraska's line during the 2010 season, and is expected to be the leader of a young, but talented 2011 offensive line. Caputo's leadership role will be counted on even more as the Huskers operate under a new offensive system. Caputo is one of the top returning centers in the country and could be a contender for postseason accolades.

After two seasons of reserve work, the 6-1, 275-pound Caputo took over the starting duties in 2010 and was in the lineup for every game. He earned honorablemention All-Big 12 accolades while helping Nebraska lead the Big 12 in rushing and rank ninth nationally in that category. Caputo also made all the line calls and was nearly flawless in handling the snapping duties in an offense that operated out of the shotgun a majority of the time.

Originally a walk-on to the Nebraska program, Caputo was placed on scholarship before the 2009 season. He is undersized for his position, but uses outstanding technique to compensate.

2008 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Caputo played in seven games and helped the NU offense rank among the top 20 nationally in scoring, passing and total offense.

2007 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on, Caputo redshirted in his first season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Caputo was a two-way standout for Millard North High School and Coach Fred Petito. Caputo helped Millard North reach four straight Class A state semifinals, including a victory in the title game in 2005. Caputo was named to the Class A all-state team by both the Lincoln Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald as a senior. Caputo received offers from several Division II schools, as well as several Division I walk-on offers, before deciding on Nebraska.

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman quarterback Brion Carnes (pronounced Bree-on) excelled during spring football and will enter fall camp hopeful of pushing for significant playing time in 2011. Carnes spent the majority of spring ball working with the second unit behind returning starter Taylor Martinez, but Carnes showed the ability as both a passer and runner to push for action.

The 6-1, 200-pound Carnes capped his spring with an impressive outing in the spring game, completing 11-of-15 passes for 173 yards and two touchdowns, while running for another 40 yards. Carnes is the cousin of Nebraska All-America quarterback Tommie Frazier, who also starred at Manatee High before his Husker career from 1992 to 1995.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Carnes redshirted in his first season and led the scout team offensive unit.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MANATEE HS)

Carnes was the starting quarterback for Coach Jo Kinnan at Manatee for four seasons and compiled a 39-12 record as a starter. A dual-threat quarterback, Carnes threw for nearly 2,500 yards and 24 touchdowns as a senior, while rushing for another 440 yards and 12 scores. His performance helped Manatee to its first appearance in the state championship game in 16 years.

Carnes was a first-team all-area pick by the Bradenton Herald and was selected to play in the FACA North-South All-Star Football Classic in December.

As a junior, Carnes completed 84-of-148 passes for 1,227 yards and 12 touchdowns, while rushing for another 243 yards and five touchdowns. Carnes threw for better than 6,000 career yards and nearly 50 touchdowns, while rushing for more than 1,100 yards and 23 touchdowns. He quickly excelled when taking over the Manatee High offense, leading his team to a state semifinal appearance as a freshman in 2006.

Carnes chose Nebraska over Western Kentucky and South Florida.

2011 OUTLOOK

Safety Austin Cassidy emerged in 2010 and became a key component in one of the nation's top defenses during the stretch run. Cassidy began the year as a key backup in the secondary, while continuing as a special teams leader, but he moved into a starting safety spot during the second half of the season and handled the role well.

The 6-1, 210-pound Cassidy will be called on this fall to provide leadership in a secondary that graduated five seniors with extensive playing time. Cassidy has shown the skills and athleticism to be strong in both pass coverage and run support.

The Lincoln native added to Nebraska's academic All-America tradition in 2010, earning first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors. Cassidy carries a 3.905 cumulative grade-point average in psychology. The former walk-on was placed on scholarship before the 2010 season. He will play the 2011 season as a graduate after earning his degree in May.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Cassidy played in all 14 games and started the final seven contests at safety. He contributed to a defense that finished third nationally in pass efficiency defense and fifth in passing yards allowed, while also ranking in the top 12 in scoring and total defense. Cassidy made 48 tackles, including 24 solos, and had a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown at lowa State.

Cassidy began the season as NU's backup safety and nickel back, and played on four special teams units. He had eight tackles in the first seven games, before accounting for 40 stops as a starter. He had six tackles against Missouri while making his first career start. Against Iowa State, Cassidy's pick-six gave NU a 17-10 third-quarter lead, and he also recorded a career-high 12 tackles. Cassidy went on to record five tackles against both Kansas and Texas A&M, and capped the season with seven tackles against Washington in the Holiday Bowl.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Cassidy played in all 14 games and had nine tackles, including six solo stops. Nebraska ranked 13th nationally in kickoff coverage, while also leading the Big 12 in punts downed inside the 20-yard line. Cassidy had two tackles each against Louisiana-Lafayette and Oklahoma. He added a pass breakup against the Ragin' Cajuns.

2008 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Cassidy played in two games and had an unassisted tackle against New Mexico State.

2007 (REDSHIRT)

Cassidy sat out as a redshirt and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LINCOLN SOUTHWEST HS)

Cassidy was a standout performer for Coach Mark King at Lincoln Southwest, where he was a first-team Super-State pick by the Lincoln Journal Star and a second-team All-Nebraska selection by the Omaha World-Herald. As a quarterback, Cassidy helped Southwest to a 14-1 record, including a perfect regular season in 2006. Cassidy rushed for 1,507 yards as a senior.

A football team captain, Cassidy was one of the state's top all-around athletes. He qualified for the state meet in the pole vault, the 110- and 300-meter hurdles in his junior and senior seasons. He was the Class A gold medalist in the pole vault as a junior. His performance earned him Male Athlete-of-the-Year honors at Southwest. Cassidy attracted recruiting interest from numerous schools, before walking on at Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Austin was born on Aug. 5, 1988, and is the son of Tim and Nancy Cassidy. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology in May. Austin has volunteered his time with Nebraska's team hospital visits, School is Cool Week, the F Street Recreation Center and Legacy Retirement Center. Cassidy was named to the 2011 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his outreach work. Austin's father was the NU Associate Athletic Director for Football Operations from 2004 to 2007.

- » Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2009, 2010) » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2010, 2011)

Sophomore offensive lineman Brandon Chapek hopes to push for playing time on the Husker line in 2011. The 6-5, 305-pound Chapek spent the past two seasons as a reserve on the line, and this spring spent the majority of his practice time working at tackle. He will look to add depth behind seniors Marcel Jones and Yoshi Hardrick and sophomore Jeremiah Sirles.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Chapek was a reserve tackle, but did not see game action.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on, Chapek redshirted and worked with the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BISHOP NEUMANN HS)

Chapek was a standout at Bishop Neumann High School in Wahoo, where he was a first-team Class C-1 all-state pick as an offensive lineman by the Omaha World-Herald, Lincoln Journal Star and Associated Press. Chapek made 43 tackles on defense and his play as a senior helped Neumann to an 8-3 record and a trip to the second round of the state playoffs. Chapek also provided impressive play as a junior, helping Bishop Neumann to a 12-1 record and a Class C-1 state runner-up finish. Chapek qualified for the state meet in the discus in 2008 and was an academic allstate pick in basketball twice.

PERSONAL

Brandon is the son of Larry and Nancy Chapek, and was born on July 13, 1990. Chapek is a biological sciences major, and carries a 3.819 cumulative grade-point average. He is a four-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selection.

OFFENSIVE LINE | 6-2 | 290 | JUNIOR

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior Seung Hoon Choi has been a reserve on the Nebraska offensive line in each of his first three seasons in the football program. This fall the South Korean native hopes to push for playing time at offensive guard, where Nebraska must replace 2010 starters Keith Williams and Ricky Henry. Choi spent the spring working among the top four offensive guards.

The 6-2, 290-pound Choi is a native of Seoul, South Korea, and came to Lincoln during eighth grade. He first played football during his sophomore year at Lincoln Christian High School.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Choi added depth at offensive guard and played in the opener against Western Kentucky.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Choi provided depth at guard, but did not see game action.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Choi walked on and sat out his first season as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LINCOLN CHRISTIAN HS)

Choi earned honorable-mention all-state accolades in Class C-1 his senior year by both the Lincoln Journal Star and Omaha World-Herald. Choi was coached by Matt Farup at Lincoln Christian. Choi finished his high school career with a sixth-place finish in the shot put at the 2008 state track meet.

PERSONAL

Seung was born on Nov. 24, 1989, in Seoul, South Korea. He is the son of San Jo Coi and Yu Mi Chu, who still reside in South Korea. Choi is majoring in sociology.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior linebacker Will Compton is a key figure in a Blackshirt defense that is led by a veteran front seven. Compton will likely play a bigger role in 2011, after his 2010 season was hampered by a foot injury that occurred two days before the season opener. The 6-2, 230-pound Compton saw his most significant action late in the season and is primed for big things as a junior.

Compton and Lavonte David were NU's top linebackers last fall, but Nebraska used six defensive backs the majority of the time with only David remaining on the field. With the move to the Big Ten Conference, Nebraska could use more two- and three-linebacker sets, meaning Compton is likely to see an increase in playing time. Compton, David and junior Sean Fisher all have extensive starting experience making linebacker a position of strength for this year's Blackshirts.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Compton missed the season's first five games after his injury, but returned to play in the final nine games, including starting assignments against Oklahoma State, Colorado, Oklahoma and Washington in the Holiday Bowl. Compton finished with 15 tackles, including eight solo stops and a two-yard sack. Compton had a seasonhigh seven tackles against Colorado, and added three at Oklahoma State and against Washington in the Holiday Bowl. He had a two-yard sack in the win over Kansas.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Compton won the starting Mike linebacker job during fall camp and played in all 14 games with eight starts. Compton earned freshman All-Big 12 honors for his effort, and helped Nebraska lead the nation in scoring defense. Compton had five games with at least five tackles, and finished with 40 tackles, including 17 solo stops. He added a tackle for loss, shared a sack, and notched a pair of pass breakups.

Compton made five tackles in his debut against Florida Atlantic, while adding a breakup. He posted a season-high seven tackles and a quarterback hurry at Virginia Tech. He had five tackles against Louisiana-Lafayette and six tackles against Missouri.

Compton was in on his first career sack against Texas Tech, and added four tackles against Iowa State. He had five tackles, including four solo stops at Colorado, then recorded two tackles against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Compton redshirted in his first season at Nebraska in 2008.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORTH COUNTY HS) Compton was a two-way

star for North County High School. As a senior, Compton had 107 tackles, including 16 tackles for loss, four sacks, and two interceptions, while causing a fumble and recovering another from his linebacker position. On offense, Compton accounted for approximately 500 rushing yards, 1,000 all-purpose yards and 14 honors from the Missouri Sportswriters and Broadcasters Association. As a junior, Compton made 71 tackles, 13 tackles for loss and an interception. while rushing for 455 yards, and catching 51 passes for 855 yards. He earned first-team all-state honors as a receiver, while picking up alldistrict and all-conference honors as a linebacker. Compton was ranked among the top five players in Missouri and among the nation's top 20 inside linebacker prospects. Compton was a defensive captain in the Offense-Defense Bowl all-star game at the 2008 Orange Bowl. Compton chose Nebraska over Missouri and Illinois.

PERSONAL

Will is the son of Bill and Kathy Compton and was born on Sept. 19, 1989. He is a business administration major and is on track to graduate this December. Compton has volunteered his time at the F Street Recreation Center. Will's younger brother, Cody, is a member of the Nebraska wrestling team. Compton was a first-team academic All-Big 12 pick in 2009 and is a three-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selection.

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Corey Cooper is part of an impressive group of young talent in the Nebraska secondary. The 6-1, 210-pound Cooper brings the ideal combination of size and speed to the safety position. The Chicago area product is expected to push for playing time at safety, where the Huskers return veterans Austin Cassidy, P.J. Smith and Courtney Osborne. Cooper could also make an impact on the Huskers' special teams units.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Cooper redshirted and made a strong impression for his scout team work.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PROVISO EAST HS)

Cooper made about 70 tackles, while breaking up 16 passes and adding two interceptions as a senior at Proviso East. Cooper was also a dangerous receiver, pulling down 43 catches for 852 yards and nine touchdowns for Coach Aaron Peppers. Cooper earned West Suburban all-conference honors and was a Chicago Tribune first-team all-state selection.

As a junior, Cooper helped his team to an 8-3 record and a trip to the second round of the state playoffs. He had 61 tackles, 14 pass breakups, an interception and forced three fumbles. Offensively, he caught 41 passes for 814 yards and eight touchdowns. He was also a two-way starter as a sophomore when he caught 35 passes for 500 yards and four touchdowns.

Cooper also competed in basketball and track for Proviso East. He was ranked among the top five football prospects in Illinois and among the top 20 safety recruits in the country in 2010. Cooper chose Nebraska after also visiting Arizona, Illinois and Notre Dame.

PERSONAL

Corey is the son of Corey Sr. and Rose Cooper and was born on July 2, 1992. He has not yet declared a major, but was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll. Cooper has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and with team hospital visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior Khiry (pronounced KY-ree) Cooper has added depth at receiver during his first two seasons of action with Nebraska in 2009 and 2010. The 6-2, 195-pound Cooper brings a rangy target to the NU passing game, and this fall he will look to expand his role in the Husker offense after Nebraska lost two of its top three seniors to graduation.

Cooper will try to use fall camp to make his push for playing time after spending the spring with the Nebraska baseball team for the third straight year. Cooper played a significant role at receiver as a redshirt freshman in 2009, but did not have a reception a year ago.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Cooper played in six games, but did not have a reception.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Cooper played in 12 games with four starts and tallied 13 catches for 80 yards, including a 13-yard touchdown against Texas Tech. He had three receptions each against Texas Tech, Baylor and Kansas with two catches, including a season-long 17-yarder vs. Louisiana-Lafayette.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Cooper redshirted in his first season at Nebraska in 2008.

NEBRASKA BASEBALL TEAM

Cooper turned down a baseball contract from the Los Angeles Angels after the organization selected him in the fifth round of the 2008 MLB Draft. In his third season with the baseball team in 2011, Cooper was a part-time starter in the outfield and hit .260 with seven doubles and 12 RBI. Cooper has started a total of 70 games during his Husker baseball career.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CALVARY BAPTIST ACADEMY)

Cooper accounted for 42 receiving touchdowns and better than 1,700 yards in his final three seasons, including 16 touchdowns as a senior, when he totaled 60 catches for 1,038 yards. His play led Calvary Academy to a 12-1 record and a trip to the Class 2A state semifinals. Cooper was a first-team Class 2A all-state selection and was also a member of the Baton Rouge Advocate's "Second Dozen" of top players in Louisiana. Cooper nabbed 50 receptions for 750 yards and 15 touchdowns as a junior.

As a sophomore, Cooper caught 48 passes for 597 yards and 11 touchdowns. Cooper's coach at Calvary Academy was Doug Pederson, who played quarterback in the NFL for 12 seasons. Cooper also used his speed to roam center field for the baseball team. As a senior, Cooper hit .337 to lead his team to a 2A state title, as he was named to the all-state first team. Cooper chose Nebraska over Arkansas.

PERSONAL

Khiry is the son of Yolanda Cooper and was born on Jan. 18, 1990. #### 2011 OUTLOOK

Junior Ben Cotton teamed with classmate Kyler Reed to give Nebraska one of the conference's best tight end tandems in 2010, and the duo should be a handful for opposing defenses over the next two seasons. The 6-6, 255-pound Cotton provides a physical presence and is considered the blocking expert of the tandem, but he also has receiving skills that can be utilized for Nebraska in its new offensive system.

The son of Nebraska offensive line coach Barney Cotton, Ben appeared in all 14 games, with 13 starts in 2010. His blocking in the run game helped Nebraska lead the Big 12 and rank in the top 10 nationally in rushing offense. Cotton was also a firstteam academic All-Big 12 selection each of the past two seasons. He is joined on the Nebraska roster by his younger brother, Jake, a redshirt freshman offensive lineman.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Cotton earned 13 starts, and finished the year with three receptions for 34 yards. He had single receptions against Idaho, Kansas State and Missouri, including a season-long 22-yard grab against the Tigers. Cotton's blocking also helped Nebraska average 247.6 rushing yards per game to lead the Big 12.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Cotton played in every game with his only start at Baylor. He had five receptions for 43 yards, including a 24-yard touchdown catch at Colorado, when he had three catches for 33 yards. He also had single catches against Florida Atlantic and Arkansas State. Cotton also scored a touchdown against Louisiana-Lafayette by recovering a Roy Helu Jr. fumble in the end zone. Cotton also served on NU's kickoff return unit.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Cotton redshirted in his first season at Nebraska.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (AMES HS)

Cotton committed shortly after the hiring of Bo Pelini as head coach, and was the first scholarship signee from Iowa since 2001. He was a three-year standout for Ames High and Coach Bruce Vertanen. As a senior, Cotton caught 44 passes for 639 yards and four touchdowns to earn first-team Elite All-State honors from the Des

He was the team's only two-way starter, also lining up at defensive end. Cotton missed six games because of injury in 2006, but still  $\stackrel{-}{\text{had}}$  10 receptions. He first started as a sophomore and earned second-team all-conference honors. Cotton was a two-year starter in basketball and qualified for the state track meet in the discus. He was also a pitcher and center fielder in baseball, earning honorable-mention allconference honors in 2008. Cotton chose Nebraska over offers from Louisville, Iowa, Kansas, Iowa State and Wisconsin.

PERSONAL

Ben is the son of Barney and Christine Cotton and was born on June 13, 1989. He is a business administration major and carries a 3.307 cumulative GPA. He is on track to earn his degree this December. Cotton was named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team each of the past two years. He has volunteered his time and volunteered his time at School is Cool Week, the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, team hospital and elementary school visits. # JAKE COTTON

OFFENSIVE LINE | 6-6 | 295 | R-FRESHMAN

LINCOLN, NEB. • SOUTHEAST

2011 OUTLOOK Redshirt freshman Jake Cotton was one of Nebraska's breakout players of the spring, and he is expected to contend for playing time on the offensive line this fall. The 6-6, 295-pound Cotton moved from defensive tackle this spring and enters fall camp poised to push for playing time at tackle behind experienced returnees Marcel Jones, Yoshi Hardrick and Jeremiah Sirles.

A Lincoln Southeast product, Cotton is a second-generation Cornhusker. His father, Barney, is Nebraska's associate head coach and offensive line coach, while his older brother, Ben, is a junior tight end in 2011. Coincidentally, Barney Cotton also moved between the offensive and defensive lines during his NU career.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Cotton redshirted and worked on the scout team defense, before moving to offensive line in the spring.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHEAST HS)

Cotton excelled on both lines at Southeast for Coach John Larsen. As a senior, Cotton helped the Knights to a 9-2 record and a trip to the state quarterfinals. Cotton provided a physical presence at offensive tackle, while on defense he made 58 tackles, including 12 sacks and added a pair of fumble recoveries.

Cotton's play earned him first-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and first-team Super-State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star. Both papers selected him to their all-state teams as an offensive lineman. Cotton was the first scholarship signee for Nebraska from Lincoln Southeast since 2003.

Cotton gained more than 40 pounds between his junior and senior season. As a junior, he played tight end and defensive end for the Knights. Cotton was ranked among the top 50 players in the Midlands Region by Super Prep Magazine.

PERSONAL

Jake is the son of Barney and Christine Cotton and was born on July 11, 1991. Jake has not yet declared a major. He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and team hospital and school visits. Barney Cotton earned three letters for the Huskers from 1975 to 1978, as both an offensive and defensive lineman.

2011 OUTLOOK

Senior defensive tackle Jared Crick heads into 2011 after two seasons as one of the nation's most dominant defensive linemen. The 6-6, 285-pound Crick has earned first-team all-conference honors each of the past two seasons, and earned first-team All-America mention from Rivals.com and second-team recognition from the Associated Press, SI.com and CBSSports.com in 2010. Crick was also a semifinalist for the Rotary Lombardi Award last year and figures to contend for national honors this fall.

Crick is among three returning starters on the defensive front for the 2011 season, and his presence helps provide the foundation for a defense that expects to rank among the nation's best for a third straight season. Crick's combination of size, strength and quickness has made him a disruptive force up front and put him in a position to earn a permanent place in the Nebraska record books.

The Cozad, Neb., native has recorded 9.5 sacks each of the past two seasons and he stands in seventh place in Nebraska history with 19 career sacks. Crick is 10.5 sacks from the Nebraska career record and just five sacks from cracking the career top five. He also has 32 career tackles for loss and is poised for a move into the top 10 on that career chart.

A starter in all 28 contests the past two seasons, Crick could put his name in elite company as a three-time all-conference selection. Just 21 players in school history are members of that club, and no player has been so honored since 1997-99.

A history major, Crick is on track to earn his degree this August.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Crick started all 14 games for a defense that ranked among the top 12 nationally in scoring defense, total defense and pass defense. Crick led the team with 9.5 sacks and 17 tackles for loss while his sack total was second in the Big 12.

Crick recorded a total of 70 tackles, including 36 solo stops, and his 5.0 tackles per game were the most among all Big 12 defensive linemen. He had six games with at least five tackles and had a tackle for loss in nine games, including seven of the season's final eight contests.

Crick posted his first big game of the year against Idaho, racking up 2.5 sacks for 30 yards and four tackles for loss. In a win at Oklahoma State, Crick had four tackles and a 10-yard sack as the Huskers corralled the high octane OSU offense in the second half. Crick had eight tackles, a seven-yard sack, two tackles for loss and two hurries as the Blackshirts dominated in a key win over seventh-ranked Missouri.

In a win at Iowa State, Crick had a tackle for loss and forced a fumble that stopped a Cyclone threat. He had a season-high nine tackles, including a pair of sacks in a 20-3 win over Kansas when NU limited the Jayhawks to less than 100 total yards. Crick had seven tackles, including three tackles for loss and split a pair of sacks as NU held Texas A&M to just nine points. He broke up two passes in the regular-season finale against Colorado.

Crick recorded his third multi-sack game of the season against Oklahoma, racking up two sacks for 22 yards while adding a pass breakup. He finished the year with seven solo tackles, including a tackle for loss, in the Holiday Bowl.

averaging 5.2 per contest.

Crick started all 14 games and his play helped the NU defense rank as one of the nation's best units. The Blackshirts finished first nationally in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense and ranked second in the nation in sacks. Crick played in the shadow of Ndamukong Suh, but still earned first-team All-Big 12 honors.

Crick posted 73 tackles, including 15 tackles for loss, and 9.5 sacks. His sack total ranked second on the team behind Suh and sixth in the Big 12, while his 15 tackles for loss were third on the team. Crick also had 16 quarterback hurries, four breakups and forced a pair of fumbles. In the conference statistics, Crick was second only to Suh in tackles per game among interior defensive linemen, Crick opened the year with three tackles, his first career TFL and a blocked field goal against Florida Atlantic. He made five tackles and had his first career sack against Arkansas State. At Virginia Tech, Crick helped the front four dominate the Hokie offense with seven tackles, a sack, a tackle for loss and a quarterback hurry.

In the Big 12 opener at Missouri, Crick had seven tackles, a nine-yard sack and recovered a fumble. He had five tackles, two tackles for loss and a sack against Texas Tech, while also posting three quarterback hurries. He added eight tackles and three quarterback hurries against lowa State before his record-setting day at Baylor. In addition to his school record sack and tackle-for-loss totals, Crick also had a careerhigh 13 tackles, the most by an NU defensive tackle in seven seasons. He also had a fumble recovery and a pass breakup.

Crick made eight tackles, two tackles for loss, shared a sack and had three hurries in a 10-3 win over Oklahoma. He posted five tackles against Kansas State, and had three tackles, shared a sack and added two hurries in the Big 12 title game against Texas.

2008 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Crick played in nine games as a reserve defensive tackle and made two tackles, including a solo stop against New Mexico State, and added a pass breakup.

2007 (REDSHIRT)

Crick redshirted in 2007 and after working as a defensive end on the scout team, he moved inside to tackle in the spring of 2008.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (COZAD HS)

Crick earned second-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and second-team Super-State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star as a senior, while earning first-team Class B honors from both papers. His performance helped Cozad and Coach Ron Bubak compile an 8-3 record and reach the second round of the Class B state playoffs in 2006.

Crick made 68 tackles as a defensive end, including six tackles for loss. Crick also played tight end and caught 15 passes for 284 yards and four touchdowns. He recorded 75 tackles and five sacks as a junior en route to Class C-1 all-state honors from the Omaha World-Herald and honorable-mention all-state accolades from the Lincoln Journal Star. Crick participated in the East Meets West All-American Game in Florida.

Crick also led the basketball team in scoring at 12 points per game and rebounding with eight boards per contest. He also threw the shot put and finished second in the state with a throw of 60 10-1/4. Crick only visited Nebraska, but did receive numerous other scholarship offers.

PERSONAL

Jared was born on Aug. 21, 1989, and is the son of David and Cindy Crick. He is majoring in history. Crick is a two-time member of the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his community outreach work. He has volunteered his time with team hospital visits, a World War II Veteran's visit and as a speaker on elementary school visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Scott Criss is prepared for his first season of play at Nebraska after sitting out 2010 as a transfer student-athlete. The Omaha native walked on at Nebraska after beginning his collegiate career at Wyoming, where he redshirted in 2009. This spring Criss worked primarily at center and will look to add depth behind senior Mike Caputo.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Criss transferred before the season and sat out because of NCAA transfer rules.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WYOMING/CREIGHTON PREP HS)

Criss redshirted at Wyoming in 2009, as the Cowboys went 7-6 and won the New Mexico Bowl. At Creighton Prep High School, Criss helped lead the Junior Jays to an 11-1 record and a state semifinal appearance in 2008. An all-state selection as a defensive lineman, Criss tallied 37 tackles, three sacks and one interception as a senior, while also playing on the offensive line for head coach Tom Jaworski. In 2007, Criss earned honorable-mention all-metro accolades. In addition to football, Criss also participated in basketball and track and field at Creighton Prep.

PERSONAL

Criss was born on Dec. 28, 1990, and is the son of Steve and Sue Criss. He is majoring in construction management. Criss was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll for the 2010 fall semester. He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and team hospital visits.

Jon Damkroger enters his senior year hoping to battle Brett Maher for the starting punting job, replacing two-year starter Alex Henery. Damkroger began his college career at Nebraska-Omaha, and has served as a reserve punter the past three seasons. Damkroger is a standout in the classroom, carrying a 3.403 grade-point average in business administration. He is on track to graduate this December.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Damkroger was a backup punter, but did not appear in a game.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Damkroger was a reserve punter, but did not see game action.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Damkroger redshirted after transferring from Nebraska-Omaha.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (UNO/NORRIS HS)

Damkroger averaged 35 yards on 40 punts for UNO in 2007. He pinned opponents inside the 20-yard line 10 times as a freshman. Damkroger was a three-sport star at Norris High. He was a three-year letterwinner for Coach Jeff Reed in football, earning first-team all-state honors as a senior. He averaged 43 yards per punt and also played wide receiver and safety. Damkroger also served as team captain and was a two-year starter in basketball and was a four-year letterwinner, team captain and four-event state qualifier in track. Damkroger set school records in the 200-meter dash and the 400-meter relay. Damkroger was also a member of the student council and the National Honor Society.

The son of Tom and Deanne Damkroger, Jon was born June 7, 1989. Damkroger has been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll each of his six semesters at Nebraska, and was academic all-conference in his first year of college at Nebraska-Omaha. He has volunteered with NU team hospital visits.

with double-figure tackle totals, including three games with 15 or more tackles. His 10.9 tackles per game ranked atop the Big 12 and 11th nationally. David was second on the team in sacks with six for 50 yards, tackles for loss (15-60) and pass breakups (10).

David was a unanimous first-team All-Big 12 choice and Defensive Newcomer of the Year by nearly every outlet that chooses a team, while The Kansas City Star tabbed him as its Defensive Player of the Year. David also earned recognition at the national level as Rivals.com and CBSSports.com both named him a first-team All-American and the Associated Press and SI.com listed him as a second-team All-America pick.

David stepped into the starting lineup in the opener against Western Kentucky and recorded a team-high 13 stops. He had seven tackles and a 13-yard sack a week later against Idaho, then had a tackle for loss, two hurries and a breakup at Washington. David had a career-high 19 stops against South Dakota State, the most tackles by a Husker since 2004, and the seventh-most in school history. He added two breakups in the contest.

David eclipsed double figures for the third time in 2010 at Kansas State, finishing with a game-high 16 tackles. He earned Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors for his performance, which included 10 solo tackles and two tackles for loss, including a seven-yard sack. He reached double figures in tackles for the third straight game against Texas, finishing with 10 stops, including a tackle for loss and a hurry.

David had eight tackles each against Oklahoma State and Missouri, and added an 11-yard sack against the Tigers. He had 10 tackles and a tackle for loss at lowa State, then collected a team-high 10 tackles, including two sacks for eight yards, as Nebraska limited Kansas to 87 total yards. David had a career-high four tackles for loss and a sack at Texas A&M, as part of 14 total tackles. After recording eight tackles against Colorado, David had a game-high 17 tackles in the Big 12 title game, including 11 solo stops. He closed the year with seven tackles against Washington.

BEFORENEBRASKA(FORTSCOTTCC/MIAMINORTHWESTERNHS)

David ranked among the Jayhawk Conference leaders in total tackles and tackles for loss in 2009, racking up nearly 10 tackles per game, while recording 19.5 tackles for loss totaling 65 yards. Fort Scott went through the regular season undefeated before losing in the JUCO national championship game. David excelled in the narrow loss to Blinn Junior College in the national championship game and was named Defensive MVP of the contest with 16 tackles.

During his first season under Coach Jeff Sims at Fort Scott in 2008, David led the Jayhawk Conference with 93 tackles. His play helped the team to a 9-2 record and No. 6 final national ranking. For his strong play, David was a two-time first-team All-Jayhawk Conference pick and was a Region VI All-American in 2009. He was ranked among the top 10 junior college prospects in the country.

David is originally from Miami, where he played at national prep powerhouse Miami Northwestern. While he was at the school, Northwestern won back-to-back state titles in 2006 and 2007, and finished with unbeaten records each year. In 2007, Northwestern was listed as the No. 1 team in the country by USA Today. David also considered South Florida, Kansas, Kansas State, Baylor and Tennessee among others.

- » Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2009)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior Jase Dean is a talented athlete who adds good size and speed to the Nebraska secondary and is a standout on the Husker special teams. Dean played primarily on special teams last season, but will make a bid for additional playing time in the defensive backfield following the loss of five veteran seniors from the 2010 squad.

Dean first made an impact on special teams in 2009, before missing the second half of the year with a knee injury. He returned in time for the 2010 season, and helped Nebraska field the Big 12's top overall special teams unit.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Dean played in 12 games, primarily as a member of the Huskers' punt and kickoff coverage units. He totaled five tackles, including four solo stops. Dean had a single tackle in five games.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Dean played in the first five games before he suffered a knee injury. He had four tackles, including three solo stops. Dean had three tackles against Florida Atlantic, and one stop against Louisiana-Lafayette. He added a fumble caused against the Ragin' Cajuns.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on, Dean redshirted in 2008.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BRIDGEPORT HS)

Dean earned honorable-mention all-state accolades in Class C-1 for Coach Chris Koozer at Bridgeport High. Dean was also a member of the North Squad during the 2008 Shrine Bowl and was a part of the 2007 Winter Academic All-State team (3.86 GPA).

Dean also participated in track and basketball for Bridgeport, and as a junior claimed gold medals in the 100, 200 and 400-meter dashes at the state track meet. As a senior, he was second in the 100 and 400, while claiming fourth in the 200.

PERSONAL

Jase was born on Aug. 29, 1989, and is the son of Monte and Tammy Dean. He is majoring in fisheries and wildlife, and has volunteered his time at the Village Manor Retirement Center and as part of the Huskers' hospital visits. Dean is a two-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll pick.

- » Preseason All-American (Phil Steele, 1st Team; Sporting News, Lindy's, 2nd Team, 2011)
- » First-Team All-Big 12 (ESPN.com, Rivals.com, 2010)
- » Second-Team All-Big 12 (Coaches, AP, Phil Steele, San Antonio Express-News, Fort Worth Star-Telegram, 2010)

2011 OUTLOOK

Senior cornerback Alfonzo Dennard teams with defensive tackle Jared Crick and linebacker Lavonte David to give the Blackshirt defense a national honors candidate in each position group. The 5-10, 205-pound Dennard has outstanding quickness, leaping ability and ball skills, making him one of the nation's top returning cover corners. Dennard will also be counted on for leadership in a re-tooled secondary that lost five veteran seniors to graduation.

Dennard was overshadowed in the Husker secondary the past two years by 2010 Thorpe Award finalist Prince Amukamara, but opposing coaches and quarterbacks can attest to Dennard's ability. Dennard earned plenty of honors on his own in 2010, being named a second-team All-Big 12 choice by most sources, and helping Nebraska rank in the top five nationally in pass efficiency defense and passing yards allowed. Dennard first moved into the starting lineup midway through his sophomore year.

> Despite not taking a redshirt year, Dennard is on track to graduate in May of 2012.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Dennard started 13 of 14 games, while missing the majority of the Missouri game and the following contest at lowa State with a concussion. Dennard was second on the team and fifth in the Big 12 with four interceptions and also finished with seven pass breakups and made 30 tackles, including 12 solo stops. His play helped the Nebraska defense allow opposing passers to complete less than 49 percent of their pass attempts.

Dennard had a season-high six tackles and a hurry in the season opener against Western Kentucky. A week later he had his first career interception against Idaho, as the Blackshirts had six takeaways, including five interceptions. At Washington, Dennard picked off a third-quarter Jake Locker pass and returned it 31 yards for a touchdown, as the NU defense limited the Huskies to a 4-of-20 passing effort.

Dennard had a pick for the third straight week against South Dakota State and also broke up a pair of passes. He had two pass breakups against Texas, as the Huskers held UT to just 62 passing yards. After missing time with an injury, Dennard returned against Kansas and had three tackles and picked off his fourth pass. Against Colorado,

Dennard had four tackles and forced a fumble that led to a score in a 45-17 win. He added four tackles against Oklahoma and finished with three tackles and a breakup in the Holiday Bowl against Washington.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Dennard started nine of the final 10 games and helped NU rank first nationally in pass efficiency defense and scoring defense. The Blackshirts also held 10 opponents to 50 percent or less in pass completion percentage and allowed just seven passing touchdowns. Dennard finished with 31 tackles, including four tackles for loss. His eight pass breakups were third on the team.

Dennard made his first career start at Missouri and had four tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added a breakup. Against lowa State, he made five tackles, had a tackle for loss and a career-best two breakups. Dennard suffered a shoulder injury at Baylor that hampered him for the rest of the regular season.

Despite the injury, Dennard had a career-best six tackles, a tackle for loss and a breakup against Oklahoma. He had five solo stops at Kansas, before sitting out the Kansas State game. Dennard combined for four tackles against Colorado and Texas, before closing the year with a PBU against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl.

2008 (FRESHMAN)

Dennard played in 12 games as a true freshman, with the majority of his action coming on special teams. He formed an explosive kickoff return combination with Niles Paul, and had eight returns for 150 yards, an average of 18.8 yards per return. Dennard had a 29-yard return against Colorado and a season-long 31-yarder against Clemson in the Gator Bowl. He had five tackles, including four solo stops, with a season-high two tackles against Kansas State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WILCOX COUNTY HS)

Dennard excelled on both sides of the ball for Wilcox County High School, and was the first scholarship player from Georgia since 2001. In his senior season, Dennard played a leading role in helping Wilcox County and Coach Mark Ledford to a 13-2 record and state runner-up finish in Class A. Dennard had 53 tackles and five interceptions as a corner. Offensively, he caught 39 passes for 780 yards and scored 14 touchdowns. He also returned two kickoffs and one punt for touchdowns. Dennard received first-team Class A all-state honors from the Georgia Sportswriters Association. He played in the GACA North-South All-Star game.

As a junior, Dennard caught 45 passes for 840 yards and 12 touchdowns, while rushing 24 times for 240 yards and six touchdowns. He also made 60 tackles and had six interceptions. Dennard was also a contributor in track and basketball. He played point guard in basketball and was a sprinter in track. He finished sixth in the state in the long jump with a leap of 21-3. Dennard chose NU over North Carolina and Troy.

PERSONAL

Alfonzo is the son of Rose Mary Dennard and was born on Sept. 9, 1989. He is a sociology major, and has assisted with Nebraska's team hospital visits and volunteered his time at the Village Manor Retirement Center.

- » Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2008, 2009)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2009)

2011 OUTLOOK

Taylor Dixon is part of a group of receivers who will make a push for playing time during fall camp. Dixon and several other receivers are vying for playing time at a position where Nebraska lost two of its top three receivers to graduation. The 5-11, 195-pound junior has provided depth at receiver throughout his career. A walk-on from Wauneta, Neb., Dixon has been a strong performer in the classroom, being named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll three times.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Dixon was a backup receiver, but did not see action.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Dixon provided depth in the receiving corps, but did not appear in a game.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Dixon redshirted in his first season in the program and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WAUNETA-PALISADE HS)

Dixon had a stellar career at Wauneta-Palisade High School, where he rushed for better than 1,000 yards three seasons in a row in the eight-man ranks, and also passed for 1,000 yards his senior season. For his efforts, Dixon earned first-team all-state honors in Class D-1 by the Omaha World-Herald. Dixon was also a basketball standout, earning honorable-mention Class D-1 all-state accolades from the World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star. Dixon finished sixth in the 400 and fourth in the 200 at the Class D state track meet his senior year.

PERSONAL

Taylor is the son of Brad and Mindi Dixon, and was born on Oct. 27, 1989. He is majoring in biochemistry. Dixon has volunteered his time with team hospital visits and as a speaker during American Education Week.

- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

Senior Jim Ebke has provided depth on the Nebraska defense throughout his Husker career, while earning playing time on special teams. The 6-0, 205-pounder has supplied a physical presence on the Huskers' coverage units that ranked among the nation's best each of the past two years.

Ebke made a switch from defensive back to linebacker midway through the 2010 season, and will look to get on the field in a veteran linebacking corps this fall. Ebke began his career at South Dakota State, before transferring to Nebraska in 2008.

The Lincoln native is on track to earn his degree in secondary education in May of 2012. He was a second-team academic All-Big 12 pick in 2010.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Ebke played in 13 of 14 games and had five tackles, including two solo stops. He made single tackles in five games.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Ebke was a reserve in the secondary and played in one game. He moved to the secondary after spending 2008 as a scout team quarterback.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Ebke redshirted and worked on the scout team after transferring from South Dakota State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTH DAKOTA ST./LINCOLN EAST HS)

Ebke redshirted during his only season at South Dakota State. He made a significant impact as a linebacker and safety on the Jackrabbits' scout team.

Ebke was one of the top players in Nebraska in 2006, earning state Gatorade Player-of-the-Year honors while quarterbacking Lincoln East to the Class A state quarterfinals. Under the direction of Coach John Gingery, Ebke was named the Super-State Honorary Captain and Offensive Player of the Year by the Lincoln Journal Star and Omaha World-Herald after setting eight school records. He led Class A in total offense with 1,225 yards passing and 1,549 yards rushing while accounting for 31 touchdowns. Defensively, he made 66 tackles and intercepted two passes.

Ebke was named to the all-state basketball honorable-mention squad two times and competed in track and field and baseball at the varsity level. He was an academic all-state selection and member of the National Honor Society.

PERSONAL

Jim is the son of Darrell and Susan Ebke and was born on Sept. 29, 1988. He is majoring in mathematics. He has been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor roll five times. Ebke was also named to the 2011 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his outreach work. Ebke has volunteered his time with TeamMates, School is Cool Week and team hospital and school visits.

WIDE RECEIVER | 6-2 | 210 | SOPHOMORE MORENO VALLEY, CALIF. • RANCHO VERDE ONE LETTER

Sophomore wide receiver Quincy Enunwa is one of several players expected to battle for action in a wide-open race for playing time in 2011. Senior Brandon Kinnie is the Huskers' top returning receiver for 2011, but Nebraska lost its other top two wideouts, leaving the door wide open for young players to step into more prominent roles. Enunwa was one of several players to take advantage of the opportunity in the spring and heads into the fall in prime position for a significant role.

The 6-2, 210-pound Enunwa has outstanding size and the speed necessary to be a factor at receiver. Last season, he was one of three true freshmen to see action for the Huskers and worked his way into the regular rotation at receiver.

2010 (FRESHMAN)

Enunwa played in 10 games as a true freshman, including each of the final five contests. He had a 10-yard reception in the season opener against Western Kentucky.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (RANCHO VERDE HS)

Enunwa was a key offensive weapon for Coach Pete Duffy's 11-1 Rancho Verde team that advanced to the second round of the California state playoffs. Enunwa caught more than 40 passes for approximately 600 yards and 15 touchdowns as a senior. His play earned him first-team All-Inland Valley League honors, and he was selected to play in the Inland Empire All-Star Game.

Enunwa first exploded as a threat in 2008, when he was also a key part of the Rancho Verde offense. Enunwa was ranked among the nation's top 70 wide receivers by Rivals.com and among the top 85 players in the state of California by the recruiting service.

In addition to his football talents, Enunwa was also an accomplished high jumper, finishing third in the league with a jump of 6-5. Enunwa also visited Washington State.

PERSONAL

Quincy is the son of Henry and Ngozi Enunwa and was born on May 31, 1992. He has not yet declared a major. Enunwa has volunteered with the Husker Heroes program and team hospital visits.

#17

CORNERBACK | 5-11 | 185 | SOPHOMORE ARLINGTON, TEXAS • JUAN SEGUIN

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore cornerback Ciante Evans got a taste of playing corner at the Division I level as a true freshman in 2010, and his role on the Nebraska defense will likely grow this fall. One of three true freshmen to see action in 2010, Evans was Nebraska's third cornerback for most of the season, but was called upon to play a key role when Alfonzo Dennard was sidelined by injury.

The 5-11, 185-pound Evans responded well and now finds himself as the frontrunner for the starting corner role opposite Dennard. Evans excelled during spring ball and his ability should help keep Nebraska's secondary among the nation's best units.

2010 (FRESHMAN)

Evans was the top backup to Dennard and Prince Amukamara, playing in eight games with a start at Iowa State. Evans, who came on after Dennard suffered an early injury against Missouri, had four tackles and pair of breakups in the key Big 12 North victory. On the year, Evans totaled nine tackles, including six solo stops.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (JUAN SEGUIN HS)

Evans was a standout for Coach Carlos Lynn at Juan Seguin High School in Arlington, Texas. As a senior, Evans made 46 tackles, three interceptions and seven pass breakups to help his team reach the state playoffs. Evans was a first-team all-district pick as a senior, while also being named to the Dallas Morning News' first-team all-area squad. He was also a second-team Class 4A all-state pick in 2009.

Evans also enjoyed a standout junior season when he made 28 tackles and had four interceptions to earn first-team all-district honors. Evans was ranked among the top 50 cornerbacks in the nation by both Rivals.com and Scout.com. The Dallas Morning News listed him among the top 70 players in the state of Texas.

Evans was also a standout for the Cougars' basketball team, as he helped the squad to the regional semifinals in Class 5A as a senior after averaging double figures as a junior. Evans only visited Nebraska, but had numerous offers including Oklahoma State, Kansas, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and TCU.

PERSONAL

Ciante is the son of Cedric and Tonia Evans and was born on Oct. 14, 1992. He has not yet declared a major. Evans has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and team hospital visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Tyler Evans hopes to make a push for playing time in a wide open race for action at wide receiver. A Nebraska native, Evans sat out his first season in the program as a redshirt and added muscle to his 6-1 frame. One of the state's top all-around prep athletes, Evans has outstanding speed that could be utilized in the Nebraska offense.

Evans is off to a strong academic start, carrying a 3.733 grade-point average after two semesters. He was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll in both the fall and spring semesters in 2010-11.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Evans sat out his first season in the program as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WAVERLY HS)

Evans was a three-sport standout at Waverly High School, excelling in football, basketball and track. Evans was the first scholarship signee from Waverly since at least 1973. Evans starred on both sides of the football, helping Coach Mike Johnson's Vikings to a 9-2 record and a trip to the Class B state quarterfinals. Evans guided Waverly as a quaerterback, rushing for 651 yards and 13 touchdowns, while passing for nearly 900 yards and 10 touchdowns. From his defensive back spot, Evans made 25 tackles and had two interceptions.

Evans was a first-team All-Nebraska defender by the Omaha World-Herald and a first-team Super-State defensive back by the Lincoln Journal Star. He was also a standout as a junior, when he accounted for 1,200 yards of total offense, including 900 rushing yards and 15 touchdowns. He added 61 tackles and eight interceptions on defense. His play earned Evans first-team Class B all-state honors in 2008, and second-team Super-State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star as an athlete.

Evans was a first-team all-state pick in basketball as a junior when he averaged 20 points per game, and again as a senior with 20.8 points per game in 2010. In track, Evans won the Class B 100 meters as a junior and finished third as a senior. In the 200 meters he was second as a senior and sixth as a junior. He also helped Waverly to a runner-up finish in the 400-meter relay in both 2009 and 2010. Evans was a standout in the classroom as well, carrying a 4.0 grade-point average.

He also had offers from Ohio and Princeton, but only visited Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Tyler was born on March 28, 1992, and is the son of Doug and Angie Evans. He is majoring in biological sciences. Evans has also done extensive community outreach work and was named to the 2011 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team. His activities have included volunteering with Husker Heroes, Special Olympics, School is Cool Week and hospital and elementary school visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Joey Felici is a second-generation Cornhusker who is expected to add depth in the Nebraska secondary this fall. The 5-9, 175-pound Felici joined the Nebraska program as a walk-on from Millard South, one of the state's top prep programs. Felici worked on the scout team last fall and spent this spring working at cornerback. Felici is the son of former Husker Tony Felici, a three-year letterwinner and two-time All-Big Eight pick at defensive end from 1980 to 1982.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Felici redshirted and worked on the scout team defense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MILLARD SOUTH HS)

Felici helped Millard South and Coach Andy Means to two straight Class A State Championship appearances, starring on both sides of the ball as a senior. A 2009 first-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald and a first-team Super-State selection by the Lincoln Journal Star, Felici produced 57 tackles on defense. He also caught 29 passes for 635 yards and six touchdowns at wide receiver.

Felici was part of an offense that set Class A records for points in a season with 624 and average points per game (48) as a senior.

PERSONAL

Joey is the son of Tony and Dee Felici, and he was born on Dec. 27, 1991. Felici is majoring in business administration and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll each of his first two semesters. Felici has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and team hospital visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Linebacker Sean Fisher is eager to get back into the mix for the Blackshirt defense in 2011, after spending the 2010 season on the sideline. The Omaha native suffered a broken leg early in fall camp and was lost for the season, but his return bolsters a linebacking crew that should be a strength for the Husker defense.

Fisher appeared back to 100 percent during spring ball, giving NU three highly experienced linebackers alongside senior Lavonte David and junior Will Compton. The 6-6, 235-pound Fisher has good quickness and the ability to play against both the run and the pass, which makes him a valuable and versatile performer for the Huskers. He saw extensive playing time for the Blackshirts in 2009 with six starts at Sam linebacker, and his play earned him first-team freshman All-Big 12 honors.

Fisher also is a candidate for CoSIDA Academic All-America honors. He carries a 4.0 grade-point average through six semesters and was a first-team academic All-Big 12 pick in 2009.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Fisher suffered a broken leg during fall camp and missed the entire season.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Fisher started six games at linebacker and saw extensive playing time despite often giving way to an extra defensive back. Fisher finished with 35 tackles, including a pair of tackles for loss and three quarterback hurries. He had four games with at least five tackles, beginning with a six-tackle effort in the opener against Florida Atlantic.

He made six tackles and two solo stops, along with a tackle for loss and a quarterback hurry at Virginia Tech. In a 55-0 shutout of Louisiana-Lafayette, Fisher had six tackles, a pair of quarterback hurries and a 21-yard fumble return. Fisher had a career-high nine tackles against lowa State and also returned a blocked field goal 34 yards. He added three tackles and his first career sack at Baylor. Fisher compiled three tackles over the season's final six games.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Fisher appeared on special teams against Western Michigan, but a shoulder injury sidelined him the rest of the season, and he received a medical redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MILLARD NORTH HS)

Fisher was one of the first players to commit to the 2008 Husker class. He was a standout two-way performer at Class A powerhouse Millard North, starring in the secondary and at running back, while also handling punting chores and returning kicks. Fisher led Coach Fred Petito's team to the 2007 Class A state championship game, rushing for 646 yards, including 198 yards on 44 carries in the title game. Defensively, he played in the secondary and made 68 total tackles, including 43 solo stops, and added three tackles for loss and an interception.

Fisher was an honorary captain of both the Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska team and the Lincoln Journal Star's Super-State squad. He also earned all-state honors from both papers as a junior when he made 92 tackles and had three interceptions, helping the Mustangs to the state semifinals. Fisher was also a key player for Millard North as a sophomore, when the school captured the Class A state title.

Fisher was a SuperPrep All-American and was regarded as one of the top five players in Nebraska by all recruiting services. Fisher chose Nebraska over Oklahoma, Wisconsin, Iowa, Colorado and Arizona State among others.

PERSONAL

Sean was born on Sept. 13, 1989, and is the son of Todd and Cathy Fisher. Todd Fisher was a cornerback for NU who lettered in 1983. Sean is majoring in business administration. He has volunteered his time at the F Street Recreation Center, the Village Manor Retirement Center and with team hospital visits. Sean's younger brother, Cole, is a freshman on lowa's football team in 2011.

» Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Derek Foster will be expected to add depth in the Nebraska secondary in 2011. The 5-11, 190-pound Foster joined the Nebraska program as a walk-on after one of the most decorated careers in Elm Creek High School history. Foster worked on the scout team units last fall, and spent the spring working at the cornerback position.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Foster redshirted and worked on the scout team defense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELM CREEK HS)

As a senior at Elm Creek, Foster was named a first-team Class C-2 all-state pick as a running back by the Omaha World-Herald and a defensive back by the Lincoln Journal Star. Foster rushed for about 1,300 yards and 19 touchdowns in his senior season.

Foster holds multiple school records at Elm Creek, including career rushing yards (3,955), career points scored (324) and career interceptions (17). On defense, Foster intercepted three passes as a senior and six as a junior. Foster also contributed on special teams, where he returned three kickoffs and a punt for scores as a senior.

Foster also starred on the track where he finished first in Class C in the 300-intermediate hurdles after a runner-up finish in 2009. He was second in the 110-meter high hurdles as a senior and third as a junior.

PERSONAL

Derek is the son of Curt and Kelly Foster, and he was born on Jan. 27, 1992. He is majoring in biological sciences, and he was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll, Foster has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and team hospital visits.

DEFENSIVE END | 6-3 | 255 | R-FRESHMAN GRAND ISLAND, NEB. • GRAND ISLAND

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Andy Gdowski will add depth to the Nebraska defensive end position during the 2011 season. The 6-3, 255-pound Gdowski joined the program as a walk-on last fall and had a valuable redshirt season, adding 20 pounds of muscle to his frame. Gdowski is a second-generation Cornhusker, as his father, Tom, lettered three times as a defensive tackle from 1980 to 1982.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Gdowski redshirted and worked on the scout team defense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRAND ISLAND HS)

Gdowski had a dominant senior season at Grand Island High School, finishing with 58 tackles, five sacks and one fumble recovery from his defensive tackle position. He was named a first-team Class A all-state performer by both the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star, and helped his team to a 7-3 record and an appearance in the Class A quarterfinals. Gdowski was named second-team All-Nebraska by the Omaha World-Herald and second-team Super-State by the Lincoln Journal Star.

Andy is the son of Tom and Becky Gdowski, and he was born on March 30, 1992. He is majoring in business administration and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll in the spring. Gdowski has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and team hospital visits.

CURENSKI GILLEYLEN

I-BACK | 6-0 | 215 | SENIOR LEANDER, TEXAS • LEANDER THREE LETTERS

- » Second-Team Academic All-Big 12 (2008)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2008, 2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

Curenski Gilleylen enters his senior season with a goal of making an impact in a new-look offense. After adding depth at receiver throughout his Nebraska career, Gilleylen made the move to I-back during spring ball. He was impressive in his first few opportunities at the new spot, before an injury sidelined him for the spring, cutting short Gilleylen's learning time at the position. The 6-0, 215-pounder hopes to battle for playing time behind fellow Texan Rex Burkhead. Gilleylen's combination of size and speed has made him a big-play threat during his action at receiver.

A civil engineering major, Gilleylen is on track to earn his degree in May of 2012.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Gilleylen played in seven games, but did not have a reception. He battled injuries that kept him out of the first three games, but played in five of the final eight contests.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Gilleylen played in 11 games, making starts against Arkansas State and Missouri. He had 17 catches for 302 yards, an average of 17.8 yards per catch, and caught five passes of at least 35 yards in the season's first four games. He opened the year with four catches for 92 yards, including a 51-yard touchdown, against Florida Atlantic. Gilleylen had a 43-yard catch against Arkansas State, and a 35-yarder at Virginia Tech, and two catches for 85 yards against Louisiana-Lafayette. Gilleylen also had three catches against both Missouri and Iowa State.

2008 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Gilleylen played in 11 games as a reserve receiver and special teams performer. He caught two passes for 11 yards. He had two kickoff returns for 48 yards.

2007 (REDSHIRT)

Gilleylen sat out his first season at Nebraska as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LEANDER HS)

Gilleylen was a standout at Leander High School, where he earned honorablemention Texas Class 5A all-state accolades as a senior. He was a first-team All-Centex pick by the Austin American Statesman, and was Leander's Outstanding Offensive Player. He helped Leander to a 12-3 record in 2006.

Gilleylen had 30 catches for 915 yards and nine touchdowns for Coach Steve Gidden. Gilleylen also spent some time at running back and had 500 yards and four rushing touchdowns. As a junior, he caught more than 40 passes for 850 yards and 12 touchdowns to earn all-district honors and second-team all-state accolades.

Gilleylen was also a track standout, competing in the 100 meters and on the 4x100-meter relay team. He broke a school record by running a 10.22 100-meter dash in 2007. He was also an honorable-mention academic all-state pick by the Texas High School Coaches Association. Gilleylen chose NU over Oklahoma State and Tennessee.

PERSONAL

The son of Stephanie Sullivan and Clarzell Gilleylen, Curenski was born on March 15, 1989. He has volunteered his time during National American Education Week and elementary school and hospital visits. He was a second-team academic allconference pick in 2008 and is a two-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll pick.

CORNERBACK | 6-0 | 190 | SOPHOMORE SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS • JAMES MADISON

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Andrew Green enters fall camp with a goal of finding a spot in a talented Nebraska secondary. The 6-0, 190-pound Green saw only limited action last season, but performed well this spring, bolstering his chances of gaining playing time at cornerback.

Green has twice been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll. Green will be joined in the Nebraska program this fall by his younger brother, Aaron, a prized running back recruit.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Green was a reserve corner and appeared in NU's win over Idaho.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Green sat out as a redshirt and worked on the NU scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MADISON HS)

Green starred at San Antonio's James Madison High School, where he helped Coach Jim Streety's team to a 9-3 record and a trip to the second round of the Class 5A state playoffs. Green amassed 56 tackles, 10 pass breakups and recovered a fumble to earn second-team all-area honors from the San Antonio Express-News.

Green also returned kicks for Madison and was a first-team all-district pick for his efforts in that area. As a junior, Green picked off five passes and recorded eight pass breakups, while also making 70 tackles. He rushed for nearly 700 yards and six touchdowns as a junior and was a second-team all-district pick. His play during his junior season helped Madison to the Class 5A state semifinals. Green chose NU over Oklahoma, Missouri, Oklahoma State, Colorado, Baylor and Iowa State.

PERSONAL

Andrew is the son of Tony and Charlar Green and was born on Aug. 21, 1991. He is majoring in history. Green's father, Tony, played collegiately at Baylor from 1975 to 1978. His uncle, Gary, also played for the Bears and played nine seasons in the NFL as a cornerback, including four seasons as a Pro Bowler. Green has volunteered his time with multiple elementary school and hospital visits.

DEFENSIVE LINE | 6-1 | 295 | R-FRESHMAN HOUSTON, TEXAS • EISENHOWER

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Jay Guy has made the most of his first three semesters at Nebraska, making big strides in the weight room. The progress of the 6-1, 295-pound Guy has put him in position to make a push for playing time at defensive tackle in 2011 behind returning starters Jared Crick and Baker Steinkuhler.

Guy originally joined the Nebraska program in January of 2010, graduating from high school a semester early to get a jump start on his college career.

Guy redshirted in his first season in the program after enrolling at Nebraska at mid-year.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (EISENHOWER HS)

Guy was dominant on the defensive line for Coach Ray Evans at Eisenhower High School in greater Houston. Guy made 74 tackles as a senior, including 50 solo stops, and five sacks. His play helped the Eagles to a 6-5 record in 2009, and a berth in the Class 5A state playoffs. Guy was the District 19 5A Defensive MVP and one of 10 finalists for the Touchdown Club of Houston Defensive Player of the Year. Guy was a first-team all-district pick as both a junior and senior, was chosen second-team allgreater Houston by the Houston Chronicle and was an honorable-mention Class 5A all-state selection.

Guy was a key player for Eisenhower since his sophomore year when he was a second-team all-district selection. He was regarded as one of the top 40 defensive tackles in the country and among the top 75 players in the state of Texas. Guy also visited UCLA and California and had scholarship offers from dozens of schools.

PERSONAL

Jay is the son of Jesse and Deborah Guy, and he was born on April 9, 1992. A business administration major, Guy has volunteered time with hospital and elementary school visits.

JERMARCUS HARDRICK

OFFENSIVE LINE | 6-7 | 320 | SENIOR BATESVILLE, MISS. • SOUTH PANOLA • FORT SCOTT (KAN.) CC

2011 OUTLOOK

Senior Jermarcus "Yoshi" Hardrick is one of three offensive tackles with significant playing experience who will compete for a starting job this fall. Hardrick and fellow senior Marcel Jones spent the majority of the time with the top unit this spring, while sophomore Jeremiah Sirles healed from off-season surgery.

The 6-7, 320-pound Hardrick joined the Nebraska program in January of 2010 and made an immediate impact on the offensive line. Hardrick rotated with Sirles at left tackle and helped Nebraska lead the Big 12 and rank in the top 10 nationally in rushing offense. Hardrick is one of Nebraska's largest offensive linemen and brings a physical and tenacious presence up front.

Hardrick came to Nebraska from Fort Scott (Kan.) Community College, where he played two seasons in one of the nation's top programs. He was a teammate of fellow Huskers Lavonte David, Brandon Kinnie and Stanley Jean-Baptiste. Hardrick is on track to earn his degree in sociology in May of 2012.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Hardrick played in all 14 games and helped Nebraska rush for at least 200 yards in 10 games, while three Nebraska rushers surpassed 950 yards on the season. Hardrick also served on NU's PAT and field-goal units.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FORT SCOTT CC/SOUTH PANOLA HS)

Hardrick was the first Mississippi native to sign with Nebraska since Brandon Jackson in 2004. Hardrick's play in 2009 helped Fort Scott and Coach Jeff Sims to an 11-1 record and a national runner-up finish. Hardrick was a key figure for an offense that averaged better than 30 points per game and led the Jayhawk Conference in total offense, averaging more than 420 yards per game.

Hardrick was a first-team all-conference pick for his efforts in 2009, as well as an All-Region VI pick. As a freshman, Hardrick was a second-team All-Jayhawk Conference pick, helping the school to a 9-2 record and a No. 6 final national ranking.

Hardrick was a dominant offensive lineman at South Panola (Miss.) High School, where he played for one of the nation's top prep programs. South Panola did not lose a game while Hardrick was in high school,

PERSONAL

Jermarcus was born on May 30, 1990, and is the son of Delores Hardrick. He is majoring in sociology.

» Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Andrew Holt will be expected to add depth in the Nebraska secondary in 2011. The Kansas City area product was slowed by injury during spring ball, after working on the scout team during his first season in the program in 2010. Holt was a multi-sport standout in high school before joining Nebraska as a walk-on.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Holt redshirted and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LEE'S SUMMIT WEST HS)

Holt was a two-sport standout at Lee's Summit West High School, earning all-conference honors on the football and baseball fields. Holt was a 2009 first-team all-state selection as a kicker and first-team all-conference pick as both a kicker and linebacker.

Lee's Summit West qualified for the playoffs every season in Holt's career and won the Class 4 state championship during his sophomore season. Following his high school career, he was invited to the Greater Kansas City Football Coaches Association Metro All-Star Challenge game. In the spring, Holt was also an all-conference infielder for the Titan baseball team.

PERSONAL

Andrew is the son of Mark and Kathryn Holt, and was born on May 14, 1992. Holt is a pre-pharmacy major, and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll. Holt has volunteered his time with the Husker Heroes program. Andrew's older brother, Matt, was a walk-on linebacker for the Huskers before injuries ended his NU career in 2010.

WIDE RECEIVER | 6-0 | 195 | R-FRESHMAN ROSWELL, GA. • ROSWELL

2011 OUTLOOK

Keegan Hughes joined the Husker program as a walk-on in 2010, and hopes to push for playing time at receiver this fall. The Roswell, Ga., native spent his first year at Nebraska working with the scout team, but is among a number of players looking to battle for time in a youthful receiver corps.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Hughes sat out his first season as a redshirt and was on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ROSWELL HS)

A standout at the wide receiver position, Hughes helped Roswell High School to a 10-1 record and a playoff berth in Georgia's largest football class. Hughes caught 25 passes for 750 yards and nine touchdowns as a senior and totaled 75 receptions for more than 2,000 yards and 15 touchdowns over his final three seasons. Hughes earned first-team All-North Fulton County honors as a junior and senior. He also started at safety as a freshman.

Hughes was also a standout on his high school's baseball team, starting since his freshman season. Hughes, who was coached by Leo Barker, turned down a scholarship offer from the Air Force Academy.

PERSONAL

Keegan is the son of Chris and Marian Hughes, and he was born on July 14, 1992. He has not yet declared a major. Hughes has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and team hospital visits.

WIDE RECEIVER | 6-6 | 215 | JUNIOR LINCOLN, NEB. • PIUS X ONE LETTER

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior wide receiver KC Hyland is among a large group of players who hope to make a push for playing time at receiver this fall, as the Huskers look to replace a pair of veterans in Niles Paul and Mike McNeill.

The 6-6, 215-pound Hyland is a walk-on in the program who has made steady progress throughout his Nebraska career, adding more than 25 pounds of muscle. Hyland played in just two games last season, but regularly ran with upper units during practice, and was also impressive during spring football.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Hyland played in two games as a reserve receiver, but did not have a catch.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Hyland provided depth at receiver, but did not see game action.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Hyland redshirted in his first season in the program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PIUS X HS)

Hyland chose to walk on at Nebraska after being one of the most productive wide receivers in the state as a senior. Hyland caught 36 passes for 558 yards and four touchdowns. Coached by Tim Aylward, Hyland earned honorable-mention all-state accolades from both the Lincoln Journal Star and Omaha World-Herald. He was also an honorable-mention all-state pick in basketball as a senior.

PERSONAL

Kramer (KC) Hyland is the son of John and Nancy Hyland, and he was born on Sept. 9, 1989. His father, John, played at Nebraska earning three letters from 1970 to 1972 as a defensive end. KC is majoring in biological sciences and is a two-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selection. He has volunteered his time at the People's City Mission and as part of hospital and elementary school outreach activities.

2011 OUTLOOK

Houston area product Harvey Jackson is among a group of talented young players in the secondary. After sitting out his first season as a redshirt, Jackson is poised to push for playing time in 2011. Jackson spent the spring working at safety, where Nebraska returns three players with starting experience in Austin Cassidy, Courtney Osborne and P.J. Smith. At 6-2 and 205 pounds, Jackson has prototypical size for the safety spot. Jackson carries a 3.606 cumulative grade-point average after his first year on campus.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Jackson redshirted and worked on the scout team defense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HIGHTOWER HS)

Jackson starred at Hightower High School in Missouri City, Texas. As a senior, he collected 53 tackles, while intercepting two passes and breaking up another seven passes. His play helped Coach Shane Halmark's team to a perfect 10-0 regular-season record, before a loss in the second round of the Class 5A state playoffs. Jackson's play earned him first-team all-district honors as a senior. Jackson also excelled as a junior, when he hadmore than 30 tackles, an interception and four pass breakups. His play as a junior helped Hightower to a 13-1 record and a trip to the 5A state title game.

Jackson was ranked among the nation's top 60 safeties top 100 overall players in Texas. Jackson only visited Nebraska, but had numerous other offers, including Missouri, Baylor, Oklahoma State, Utah and Arizona State to name a few.

PERSONAL

Harvey is the son of Yvonne Smith, and he was born on Oct. 24, 1991. He has not declared a major, but was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll both semesters. He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and team hospital visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior Justin Jackson has provided depth in the defensive line throughout his Nebraska career and will look to push for playing time in 2011. The 6-3, 270-pound Jackson is part of one of the deepest and most experienced positions on the Husker roster, as starters Jared Crick and Baker Steinkuhler return, along with key reserves from 2010 in Terrence Moore and Thad Randle. Jackson has seen limited action each of the past two seasons for a defense that has been among the nation's best.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Jackson appeared in NU's win at Washington, but did not have a tackle.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Jackson appeared in Nebraska wins against Florida Atlantic and Louisiana-Lafayette. He had an assisted tackle against FAU.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Jackson walked on and redshirted while adding about 15 pounds of muscle.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORRIS HS)

Jackson turned down offers from several FCS and Division II programs, including South Dakota, UNO and Northwest Missouri State to walk on at Nebraska. Coached by Jeff Reed at Norris High School, Jackson compiled 84 tackles, 18 tackles for loss and six sacks from his nose guard spot as a senior. After earning all-state honors in Class B for his work on the offensive line, Jackson capped his high school career by playing for the South Squad in the 2008 Shrine Bowl. He was also a state tournament qualifier in wrestling.

2011 OUTLOOK

Stanley Jean-Baptiste joined the Nebraska program in the summer of 2010, and as he enters his second year as a Husker he is poised to make an impact in the receiving corps. The 6-3, 220-pounder has the necessary size and speed to be a play-maker in the Nebraska offense, and Jean-Baptiste will look to help fill the void left by the graduation of veterans Niles Paul and Mike McNeill.

Baptiste came to Nebraska from Fort Scott Community College, which has also sent Brandon Kinnie, Lavonte David and Yoshi Hardrick to the Huskers.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Jean-Baptiste provided depth behind a veteran corps of receivers, but he did not see action in a game.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FORT SCOTT CC/MIAMI CENTRAL HS)

Jean-Baptiste redshirted in 2009 at Fort Scott CC. In his prep days, Jean-Baptiste was a top wide receiver for Miami Central High School in Florida. As a senior, Jean-Baptiste had 21 catches for 569 yards and seven touchdowns.

Defensively at safety, he had six interceptions and two touchdowns. Following high school, Jean-Baptiste spent one year at North Carolina Tech Prep, totaling 36 receptions for 580 yards in 2008.

PERSONAL

Stanley is the son of Pierre and Yanick Jean-Baptiste, and he was born on April 12, 1990. He is majoring in criminology and criminal justice, and was named to the 2010 Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Honor Roll. Jean-Baptiste has volunteered time with Husker Heroes and local hospital visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Senior Austin Jones has provided depth at the running back spot each of the past two seasons and could be in line for more playing time in 2011. Jones has seen action in 10 games over the past two seasons, making him Nebraska's second-most experienced I-back behind junior Rex Burkhead. Jones received significant carries during spring ball and continued to show the ability to make an impact both as a runner and a receiver out of the backfield.

The 5-10, 210-pound Jones originally earned a spot on the Nebraska roster through a walk-on tryout in 2007. He is on track to earn his degree in communication studies this December.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Jones played in five games and finished with 14 carries for 58 yards. He had a five-yard touchdown run against Western Kentucky in the opener. Jones recorded a season-high 18 yards against Idaho and had a season-best four carries against Colorado.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Jones played in five games as a reserve I-back and finished with seven carries for 18 yards. He had two carries for nine yards against Louisiana-Lafayette, and two rushes for four yards at Baylor. He had a two-yard reception against Texas Tech.

2011 OUTLOOK

Senior Marcel Jones is hoping for a healthy 2011 season that will allow him to move back into a prominent role on the Nebraska offensive line. Jones was limited throughout the majority of 2010 by a back injury, but became part of Nebraska's regular offensive line rotation in the final few weeks of the season. A year earlier, Jones manned the right tackle spot for most of the year before being sidelined for the final three games by an ankle injury.

With the departure of four veterans from the 2010 offensive line, Jones will also be counted on for leadership up front. The 6-7, 320-pound Jones is one of three tackles with extensive playing experience, along with sophomore Jeremiah Sirles and senior Yoshi Hardrick. Jones' impressive stature and athletic ability make him a natural fit at the tackle position in the Nebraska offense. In addition to his on-field talents, Jones is a two-time first-team academic All-Big 12 selection, and was a second-team academic All-District selection in 2009. A construction management major, he is on track to earn his bachelor's degree this December.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Jones did not play in the season's first 10 games, but saw action in each of the final four games at right tackle alternating with senior D.J. Jones. 2009 (SOPHOMORE) Jones started the first 11 games at right tackle, but suffered an ankle injury against Kansas State. The injury forced Jones to miss the final three games of the season. Jones' play helped I-back Roy Helu Jr. post four 100-yard rushing days and put together a 1,000-yard rushing season. Jones also helped protect Nebraska quarterbacks. as the Huskers ranked among the top 40 nationally in fewest sacks allowed. 2008 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Jones emerged during spring practice and went on to play in all 13 games, including a start against Western Michigan. He helped Nebraska rank in the top 20 nationally in total and scoring offense. He also served on NU's PAT and field goal units.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (TREVOR BROWNE HS)

Jones was part of an impressive group of prep standouts joining the NU program from the state of Arizona in 2007. Jones had an outstanding senior year on the offensive line for Coach Randy Ricedorff at Trevor Browne High School. Jones missed his junior year because of injury, but earned honorable-mention Arizona 5A all-state accolades as a senior. Jones was ranked among the top 15 prospects in Arizona.

Jones was also a standout on the basketball court for Trevor Browne High School. He was the starting center for Browne, which went 27-3 and earned a top-five ranking in Class 5A. Jones averaged 11.6 points and nine rebounds per game as a senior. As a junior, he earned all-region honors for his performance on the hardwood. Jones was also a star in the classroom, ranking in the top 20 of his senior class of more than 500 students. Jones chose Nebraska over Arizona State.

PERSONAL

Marcel is the son of Ulysses and Tracy Torry and was born on Sept. 4, 1988. He is a six-time Big 12 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll selection. Jones has also been active in the community and has been named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team each of the past three years. Jones has volunteered his time with School is Cool Week, F Street Recreation Center, the Legacy Retirement Center, the Madonna Wheelchair Football Workshop and numerous hospital and elementary school visits.

The 5-7, 180-pound speedster spent his first two seasons at receiver before switching to I-back in the spring. He could also use his talents to help the NU return game. Kildow is accomplished in the classroom with a 3.643 cumulative grade-point average after four semesters.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Kildow was a reserve receiver, but did not appear in a game.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Kildow redshirted in his first year and missed part of the fall with a knee injury.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MILLARD SOUTH HS)

Kildow was a standout at Millard South High School, where he missed his senior season because of a knee injury. As a junior, Kildow was a Super-State selection by the Lincoln Journal Star and a first-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald, while also being named the honorary captain of the World-Herald's Class A all-state offense. He caught 44 passes for nearly 1,000 yards and 10 touchdowns and also had two kickoff return touchdowns and three interceptions.

Kildow was coached at Millard South by former Nebraska defensive back Andy Means. Kildow turned down scholarship offers from UNO, North Dakota and Northwest Missouri State. He was also a baseball standout for the Patriots, having been a three-time first-team Super-State pick.

PERSONAL

Ty is the son of Jack and Shelly Kildow and was born on Aug. 15, 1990. He is majoring in biological sciences and is a four-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selection. Kildow has volunteered his time with Play it Smart and Nebraska's team hospital visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Brandon Kinnie emerged as a receiving threat late in the 2009 season, and then became one of the leading figures in the Nebraska passing game during the 2010 season. As a senior, Kinnie will be counted on as a go-to-receiver in Nebraska's new-look offensive attack, and will also be a leader of an otherwise untested receiving corps.

The 6-3, 225-pound Kinnie provides Nebraska quarterbacks with a big target at wideout, and he also has the speed to provide a downfield impact. Last season he led the team in receptions and ranked second in receiving yards. With 59 career receptions, Kinnie is poised to make a run at the top five on Nebraska's career receptions list during his senior season. Kinnie also has the ability to be a factor in the return game. He saw action on kickoff returns as a junior and will be among the candidates to play a role in that area this fall.

Kinnie is a sociology major and is on track to graduate this December.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Kinnie led NU with 44
receptions that covered 494 yards. The 44 receptions placed Kinnie eighth on the NU single-season receptions list, and he also finished receptions. Kinnie had at least four receptions five times during his junior season, and his three touchdown catches at Oklahoma State tied the NU single-game record. Kinnie started strong with a career-high six catches for 59 yards in the opener against Western Kentucky. He added three catches against Idaho, and then broke out at Washington. Kinnie totaled a career-best 180 all-purpose yards, including five receptions for a career-high 105 yards. He had a career-long 55-yard catch in the first quarter, and added 75 yards on kickoff returns.

second on the team with five touchdown

Kinnie played a starring role at Oklahoma State when he caught his first three career touchdown passes, becoming the first NU receiver to haul in three TD passes since Maurice Purify in 2007. His touchdowns included a 45-yarder to open the scoring as NU put 51 points on the board. Kinnie had three catches at Iowa State, then matched his career high with six catches for 67 yards against Kansas. He also led the team with five catches at Texas A&M, and four catches for 48 yards and a pair of touchdowns against Colorado. Kinnie had two catches each against Oklahoma and Washington to close the year.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Kinnie caught 15 passes for 141 yards, with 14 of those receptions coming in the final eight games. Kinnie had a five-yard catch against Arkansas State for his first career reception. He had a season-high three catches for 27 yards against Iowa State, then added two-reception efforts against Oklahoma, Kansas State, Texas and Arizona.

His 16-yard reception against Texas set up a fourth-quarter field goal that gave Nebraska a 12-10 lead, and he totaled a season-high 30 receiving yards against the Longhorns. He added two catches for 12 yards against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FORT SCOTT CC/GRANDVIEW HS)

Kinnie had an impressive 2008 season at Fort Scott, when he earned first-team All-Jayhawk League honors. Kinnie caught 62 passes for 845 yards and 10 touchdowns, and returned two kickoffs for 79 yards for Coach Jeff Sims. Kinnie's play helped Fort Scott to a 9-2 record and No. 6 final national ranking. Fort Scott capped its season with a 30-14 victory over Blinn (Texas) College in the Heart of Texas Bowl. Kinnie caught a touchdown pass and blocked a punt in the game and was chosen as the bowl's Most Valuable Player. Kinnie also attended Fort Scott in 2007, but sat out the season as a redshirt. In his first season, he also played for the Fort Scott basketball team before entirely focusing on football in his second year.

Kinnie ranked among the top 75 overall junior-college prospects in the country. He played his prep football at Grandview (Mo.) High School in the Kansas City area, where he earned all-state honors, and also starred in basketball. Kinnie originally committed to Kansas State out of high school. He chose Nebraska over Kansas and Arkansas after his Fort Scott career.

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore linebacker Micah Kreikemeier (pronounced crack-meyer) hopes to push for playing time at linebacker in 2011. The 6-3, 220-pound Kreikemeier has spent much of his career plagued by injuries, missing most of the 2008 and 2009 seasons with knee injuries. This fall, the West Point, Neb., native is a contender to add depth behind veteran linebackers Lavonte David, Will Compton and Sean Fisher.

A second-generation Husker, Kreikemeier was the first player to commit to Nebraska following the hiring of Bo Pelini as head coach in December of 2007. Kreikemeier has excelled in the classroom, carrying a 3.798 cumulative grade-point average in civil engineering after three years of school.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Kreikemeier sat out spring ball, then added depth at linebacker, but did not see game action.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Kreikemeier was a reserve linebacker, but did not see game action. He underwent surgery at mid-season, sidelining him for the remainder of the year.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Kreikemeier underwent knee surgery early in the fall and sat out his first season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WEST POINT CENTRAL CATHOLIC HS)

Kreikemeier had a standout prep career at West Point Central Catholic, where he starred at linebacker for Coach Dave Ridder at West Point CC. Kreikemeier totaled 125 tackles, three sacks, an interception and a pair of fumble recoveries on defense as a senior. Offensively, he played tight end and had more than 300 receiving yards and two touchdowns. He also scored four touchdowns as a short-yardage back for the Bluejays to earn honorable-mention Class C-2 all-state recognition.

Kreikemeier also played basketball for the Bluejays, and earned honorablemention all-state accolades from the Omaha World-Herald as a senior. He also participated in track. He was the first player from West Point Central Catholic to earn a scholarship from the Huskers since Tom Ridder signed with the Huskers in 1974. Dave Ridder also played for Nebraska, originally joining the program as a walk-on before earning a scholarship, and lettering as a defensive end from 1981 to 1983.

2011 OUTLOOK

Senior fullback Tyler Legate is among the most veteran leaders on the Nebraska offense heading into the 2011 season. Legate has been the Huskers' top fullback each of the past two years, earning six starts during his junior season.

Legate's lead blocking has been a key to NU's rushing success, and he has also shown ability as a pass receiver. In 2011, Nebraska will feature a new offensive look, and Legate hopes to be more involved in the attack.

A walk-on who transferred to Nebraska after beginning his career at South Dakota, Legate has been strong in the classroom, earning academic All-Big 12 honors each of the past two years. An elementary education major, he is on track to earn his degree in May of 2012.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Legate continued to play a key role in the offense as a junior, as his lead blocking contributed to one of the nation's top rushing offenses. Legate played in 13 games with six starts, and he helped Nebraska top 200 rushing yards in 10 games. NU finished the year tops in the Big 12 and ninth nationally in rushing offense.

Legate did not carry the football, but made the most of his only reception with a one-yard touchdown catch in the Huskers' 51-41 win at Oklahoma State.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Legate played in all 14 games, including four starts, and was named the walk-on MVP. He was used primarily as a lead blocker, but also caught three passes for 27 yards and a three-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Zac Lee against Arkansas State.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Legate redshirted at Nebraska in 2008 and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTH DAKOTA/NELIGH-OAKDALE HS)

Legate sat out the 2007 season as a redshirt at South Dakota. He earned four letters each in football, track and wrestling during a standout prep career at Neligh-Oakdale High School. He helped his team to an 8-3 record and a state quarterfinal appearance as a senior. Legate made 139 tackles on defense and led Class C-2 with 2,051 rushing yards and 29 touchdowns. He was the honorary captain of the Class C-2 all-state team by the Omaha World-Herald and was a three-time all-district pick. #### 2011 OUTLOOK

Luke Lingenfelter enters his final season in the Nebraska program with a goal of earning playing time on the offensive line. The 6-4, 280-pound Lingenfelter spent the spring working at tackle, where he will be expected to add depth behind Jeremiah Sirles, Yoshi Hardrick and Marcel Jones, who have all seen extensive action.

A walk-on from Plainview, Neb., Lingenfelter spent his first two seasons in the program as a reserve defensive end. Lingenfelter has been a consistent achiever in the classroom at Nebraska, carrying a 3.525 cumulative grade-point average in biological systems engineering. He is on track to graduate in December.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior Brett Maher has played a prominent role on special teams the past two seasons as the holder on extra points and field goals. His work helped Alex Henery finish as the school's all-time leading scorer and most accurate kicker in NCAA history.

This fall, Maher's role figures to grow in a big way. The Kearney native enters the fall among the favorites to take over Henery's role as punter, place-kicker and possibly also handle kickoffs. Maher has yet to kick or punt in a game, but has shown a strong leg in both areas in practice in the past and during 2011 spring practice.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Maher played in 13 games as the holder, and assisted Henery to a perfect season on extra points (54-54), and 18-of-19 field goal accuracy.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Maher played in all 14 games as the Huskers' holder and was the backup punter. The Huskers were 38-of-38 on PAT tries, and Henery hit on 24-of-28 field goals.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Maher redshirted in 2008.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (KEARNEY HS)

Maher put together an impressive senior year at Kearney High School under Coach Brandon Cool. Maher went 41-for-46 kicking extra points and 8-for-14 on field goals, while averaging 41.2 yards per punt. Along with his kicking duties, Maher played wide receiver where he had 775 receiving yards and 10 touchdown receptions.

Maher earned first-team all-state honors from both the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star, while playing in the 2008 Shrine Bowl. He was also an honorable-mention Class A all-state pick in basketball. Maher capped his senior season with a state championship in the long jump, and also won the pole vault by setting a state record. He turned down offers from Ohio and Colorado State.

PERSONAL

The son of Brian and Peggy Maher, Brett was born on Nov. 21, 1989. Maher is majoring in secondary education-mathematics. #### 2011 OUTLOOK

Junior P.J. Mangieri has held down the long snapping duties the past two seasons, handling one of the unsung roles on any football team. A walk-on from Peoria, Ill., Mangieri has helped NU field one of the nation's top special teams. He was a part of the success of Alex Henery, who finished as Nebraska's all-time leading scorer, while also ranking among the nation's top punters the past two years. This year, Mangieri's experience will play a key role in breaking in a new punter and place-kicker.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Mangieri served an important support role while Henery put together an All-America season. The Huskers were 54-of-54 on extra points, 18-of-19 on field goals and ranked 35th nationally in net punting. He also made one tackle on punt coverage.

2009 (FRESHMAN)

Mangieri was one of six true freshmen to see playing time and the only walk-on newcomer to see the playing field. Mangieri helped Henery connect on 24 of his 28 field goal attempts, while Henery also averaged 41.4 yards per punt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (DUNLAP HS)

Mangieri played offense and defensive line for Coach Jeff Alderman. He recorded 45 tackles and seven sacks in 2008 and was an All-Mid Illini Conference first-team selection as an offensive tackle. He was also named to the Peoria Journal Star's All-Area first team in 2008. Mangieri also drew interest from Purdue as a walk-on prospect.

PERSONAL

The son of Peter and Theresa Mangieri, P.J. was born on May 16, 1991. He is majoring in business administration, and was named to the 2009 Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll. He has volunteered his time at the Village Manor Retirement Center.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior receiver Tim Marlowe has shown the ability to be an all-purpose threat during his first two seasons of action in a Nebraska uniform. The 5-10, 175-pound Marlowe has made his biggest impact on special teams over the past two years, but could be poised for a more prominent role at receiver in 2011.

Marlowe has showcased his explosive speed on both kickoff and punt returns the past two seasons, and hopes to utilize that skill in NU's new-look offense. The Youngstown, Ohio, native is a graduate of Cardinal Mooney High, the same program that produced NU head coach Bo Pelini and coordinators Carl Pelini and Tim Beck.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Marlowe played in all 14 games and returned 13 kickoffs for an average of 21.9 yards per return. He also returned three punts for an average of 5.3 yards. He saw action at receiver, but did not have a reception. He did have two rushes for 14 yards, including a 13-yarder against Western Kentucky. Marlowe totaled 82 all-purpose yards in the opener, including a career-long 42-yard kick return. He added back-to-back 20-plus yard kickoff returns against Oklahoma State that both set up touchdowns.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Marlowe played in all 14 games as a kick returner and reserve receiver. Marlowe had 12 returns for 284 yards, an average of 23.7 yards per return, helping NU rank 19th nationally in kickoff returns. Marlowe had two returns of 30 or more yards, including a season-long 40-yarder on the opening kickoff at Kansas to set up a touchdown.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Marlowe redshirted and was selected as the Offensive Scout Team Co-MVP.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CARDINAL MOONEY HS)

Marlowe was the first player from the state of Ohio to commit to the Husker program in 10 years. He showed his versatility as a senior at Cardinal Mooney High School, beginning the season at receiver, before being pressed into service at quarterback and leading his team to the state championship game. Marlowe also continued to play a role on the Mooney defense.

Marlowe ran for almost 300 yards on 42 carries and scored four touchdowns. He also caught nine passes for 216 yards and three more touchdowns. On defense, he had 36 tackles, led his team in pass deflections with 32 and in interceptions with five. He also had three kickoff returns for 70 yards. His play helped Cardinal Mooney and Coach P.J. Fecko to a 14-1 record and a Division IV state runner-up finish. In the state title game, Marlowe rushed 17 times for 104 yards and a touchdown, completed 5-of-6 passes for 135 yards and a touchdown and made three tackles on defense. Marlowe was also a two-way standout for Cardinal Mooney as a junior, helping the Cardinals to a perfect 15-0 record and a Division IV state title.

Freshman defensive back Bronson Marsh joined the Nebraska program in January, and is expected to add depth at safety this fall. Originally a member of Nebraska's 2010 signing class, Marsh delayed his enrollment until this past January. Marsh was the 2009 Gatorade Player of the Year in Nebraska and has the ability to contribute on either side of the football as a Husker.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MILLARD SOUTH HS)

Marsh had a record-setting prep career at Millard South High School, and was NU's first scholarship signee from Millard South since 1974, when the school was Millard High. Marsh capped his high school career by leading Millard South to a 13-0 record and the Class A state title in 2009. He excelled as a quarterback for the Patriots, and finished as Nebraska's 11-man career leader in passing yardage and total offense. He threw for just under 7,000 career yards, breaking former Husker quarterback Scott Frost's state record.

Marsh passed for 2,415 yards and 28 touchdowns as a senior, while completing 147-of-254 passes. On the ground, Marsh rushed for 895 yards and 13 touchdowns on 100 carries. He also played in the secondary for the Patriots. Marsh was chosen as a first-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald and a Super-State selection by the Lincoln Journal Star. He was the honorary offensive captain on both of those teams. Marsh was also named to the OWH's All-Decade team.

Marsh played on the varsity for Coach Andy Means for four years, taking over the starting quarterback role as a sophomore. He threw for more than 2,400 yards that season, and as a junior, Marsh led Millard South to a Class A state runner-up finish, throwing for more than 2,200 yards. He was a second-team Super-State selection by Junior Eric Martin has made a name for himself on special teams the past two seasons and will look to have bigger role on defense in 2011. Martin has brought energy and intensity to the special teams units, and has racked up more than 20 tackles on special teams the past two seasons, while also serving as a reserve linebacker.

The hard-hitting 260-pound Martin made the switch to defensive end late last fall and he made a strong impression in the spring. Martin is among a group of players who will battle for a starting role opposite returning starter Cameron Meredith. Martin has the speed to make a difference as a pass rusher off the edge.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Martin totaled 26 tackles in 13 games, including 11 solo stops. He had a team-leading 13 special teams tackles, all on kickoff coverage. Martin earned a pair of starts as the WILL linebacker early in the season and led Nebraska with a career-high six tackles in the 56-21 win at Washington, before contributing five against South Dakota State. Martin had a season-high three special teams tackles at Oklahoma State.

2009 (FRESHMAN)

Martin played in all 14 games and was one of six true freshmen to see action. He finished with 15 tackles, with 10 coming on special teams. Martin started his NU career with a season-high four tackles against Florida Atlantic and finished with three unassisted tackles on kickoff coverage against Arizona. He also showed his play-making ability with a pair of blocked punts. His first blocked punt at Baylor was returned for a touchdown to open the scoring. His second block was against Texas in the Big 12 title game, and he was the first Husker to block two punts in a season since Lannie Hopkins blocked three in 2002.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (RANCHO VERDE HS)

Martin played linebacker on a dominant defensive unit at Rancho Verde High School. The Mustangs' defense allowed just eight points per game, including four shutouts during a 10-0 regular season, before Coach Pete Duffy's squad was defeated in the first round of the CIF playoffs. Martin led the team in tackles with more than 130 and also recorded eight sacks on the season. Martin earned first-team California all-state honors for his dominant play as a senior. He was also the Inland Valley League Defensive MVP and was named to the Inland Empire alldefensive team. Martin produced big numbers during his junior season when he totaled about 100 tackles, helping Rancho Verde to a 9-3 record, the Inland Valley League title and a trip to the state quarterfinals. Martin also played a key role as a sophomore in 2006, again helping the Mustangs to a league title and another state quarterfinal appearance.

Martin made an impression on college coaches after his sophomore season when he was voted the top underclass linebacker at the Southern California Nike Camp. Martin was listed among the top 40 players in California by Rivals.com. Martin chose Nebraska after making visits to Arizona and Arizona State.

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore quarterback Taylor Martinez is the leading candidate to engineer Nebraska's new-look offensive attack under offensive coordinator Tim Beck. Martinez was one of the breakout stars in college football as a redshirt freshman in 2010. The California native shattered numerous Nebraska freshman records, while challenging several other Husker quarterback records.

Martinez's lightning-quick speed makes him a home-run threat as a runner. He amassed more than 950 rushing yards and 12 rushing touchdowns in 2010, while averaging better than six yards per carry. Martinez fell just short of becoming the third freshman quarterback in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards. He has also posted the top five single-game rushing efforts ever for a Nebraska freshman quarterback in 2010, and his 241 rushing yards at Kansas State were an NU quarterback record.

The 6-1, 200-pound Martinez also showed his passing skills in 2010, throwing for a Nebraska freshman record 1,631 yards and 10 touchdowns, while completing better than 59 percent of his passes. Martinez accounted for 2,596 yards of total offense, the sixth-best mark in school history and tops among Nebraska freshmen.

Martinez was recognized on the conference and national levels. He was chosen as the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year, and was also an honorable-mention all-conference selection. He was the only freshman among 16 semifinalists for the Davey O'Brien Quarterback Award, and was a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award.

Martinez will be back at full strength this fall after an ankle injury suffered in late October hampered him for the final two months of the 2010 season. He did not play quarterback in two games because of the injury and was hobbled in several other contests by the ankle and subsequent toe injury.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Martinez started 12 games and threatened numerous school freshman and quarterback records. His play earned him Big 12 Offensive Newcomer-of-the-Year honors, and he was an honorable-mention all-league choice. He became the first NU freshman quarterback to start a season opener, and immediately showed his ability against Western Kentucky. He rushed for 127 yards and three touchdowns on seven carries, including a 46-yard TD on his first carry. His 127 yards marked the first 100-yard rushing day by a Husker QB since 2003, and his three TDs were the most by an NU freshman in an opener. He also passed for 136 yards.

Martinez had 263 yards of total offense against Idaho, including 157 rushing yards, the highest for an NU freshman since 1996, and scored on touchdown runs of 67 and 20 yards. He burst onto the national scene at Washington, earning Big 12 and national freshman-of-the-week honors after leading NU to a 56-21 win. He accounted for 287 yards of total offense, then the most ever by a Husker rookie QB, completing 7-of-11 passes for 150 yards and a touchdown. He also eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark for the third straight game, with 137 yards and three scores on 19 carries, scoring on runs of 80, 1 and 1 yards. His 80-yard run on the first play of the second half was the longest ever by a Husker freshman.

Martinez totaled 215 yards of total offense against South Dakota State, then made another national statement in a Thursday night win at Kansas State. Martinez guided an offense that set a school record by averaging 11.288 yards per play (587 yards on 52 snaps) in a 48-13 win. He was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week and the Rivals.com National Freshman of the Week for the second time.

Martinez broke Nebraska records for total offense by a freshman (369 yards, previous record 294 by Calvin Jones at Kansas in 1991) and rushing yards by a quarterback (241 yards, previous record was 234 by Jammal Lord vs. Texas in 2002) in the win. His 241 rushing yards marked the ninth-best total in school history and the most by any Husker since 1991. He also ran for four scores, including another 80-yard touchdown. Martinez completed 5-of-7 passes for 128 yards, including a 79-yard pass to Kyler Reed, the longest pass play by a Husker since 2002 and the ninth-longest pass play in school history.

Martinez made a mark in the passing record books in a 51-41 win at Oklahoma State. He threw for 323 yards and five touchdowns, and became the first player in NU history to pass for 300 yards and rush for 100 in a game. He was named the Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week and Big 12 Freshman of the Week. His 435 yards of total offense ranked third on the NU single-game chart, and he established career highs in attempts (35), completions (23), passing yards (323) and touchdowns (5), setting NU freshman marks in each category.

Martinez guided Nebraska to 24 first-half points in a 31-17 win over Missouri before suffering an ankle injury that sidelined him for the second half. He completed 6-of-9 passes for 115 yards, including a 40-yard touchdown to Kyler Reed, helping NU total 256 yards of offense in the opening quarter.

Martinez lined up for one play at receiver in a win at Iowa State, then returned to the lineup at quarterback and accounted for 238 yards of offense in a 20-3 win over Kansas. At Texas A&M, Martinez completed 11-of-17 passes for 107 yards. He also rushed 11 times for 17 yards, but was again sidelined by injury, and did not play against Colorado. He passed for 143 yards in the Big 12 title game against Oklahoma, and threw for 53 yards and his 10th touchdown in the Holiday Bowl.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Martinez redshirted in his first season at Nebraska and was a standout on the scout team, both as a quarterback and receiver.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CENTENNIAL HS)

Martinez was a dual-threat quarterback for Coach Matt Logan at Corona's Centennial High School as a senior. Martinez passed for better than 3,000 yards and 28 touchdowns, and completed 61 percent of his passes. Martinez added 750 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns. His play helped Centennial to a perfect 15-0 season and a state championship, capped by a victory over De La Salle High, when Martinez threw for 243 yards. Centennial finished No. 2 nationally in the USA Today's prep rankings.

Martinez was named the Big VIII League's Most Valuable Player and also earned the Los Angeles Times' Glen Davis Player-of-the-Year Award. A first-team all-state pick, Martinez was the Inland Division Offensive Player of the Year, the Max Preps California Player of the Year and the Golden States Prep Southern California Offensive Player of the Year.

Martinez spent only one season at Centennial High School. As a junior, he quarterbacked San Bernadino Cajon High School and accounted for about 1,500 yards of total offense. He spent his freshman and sophomore years at Norco High, where he primarily played in the secondary. Martinez only visited Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Taylor is the son of Casey and Epifania Martinez and was born on Sept. 15, 1990. He is majoring in advertising. He has volunteered his time with outreach work at the Malone Center, Cedars Youth Services and Red Ribbon Week.

2011 OUTLOOK

Senior linebacker Mathew May has been a strong special teams performer and reserve linebacker throughout his Nebraska career. Heading into the 2011 campaign, the 6-1, 215-pound May is a key part of a veteran linebacking corps that should be a strength for the Blackshirt defense as the Huskers transition into the Big Ten Conference.

A walk-on, May originally came to Nebraska as a defensive back, but made the move to linebacker in the 2008 season, and has steadily made strides in the weight room to put him in a position for playing time at linebacker. May is on track to earn his degree in business administration/marketing in December.

2010 (JUNIOR)

May was a reserve linebacker behind Lavonte David and Will Compton and was also a special teams standout. May played in all 14 games and finished with 10 tackles, including five solo stops. He had a season-high three tackles at Kansas State. Five of his tackles came on Nebraska's special teams units, and he was the special teams captain in NU's win over Missouri.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

May saw action in every game, and finished the year with 10 tackles, and was among the team leaders with nine special teams stops. May had a career-best four tackles in the Huskers' win over Missouri in Columbia.

2008 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

May played in eight games and moved from the secondary to linebacker for the final three games. He finished with six tackles, including three at Kansas State, when he was credited with a forced fumble and sack of KSU quarterback Josh Freeman. He also recovered a fumble against Colorado and was a special teams contributor.

2007 (REDSHIRT)

May sat out as a redshirt and worked with the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CHASE COUNTY HS)

May had a standout senior season as a linebacker for Chase County High School. He tallied 104 tackles and four interceptions as a senior to earn Class C-1 all-state honors from both the Lincoln Journal Star and Omaha World-Herald. He was also the team's leading rusher with nearly 1,400 yards and 21 touchdowns, as the Longhorns reached the Class C-1 state quarterfinals one year after an appearance in the state championship game.

May ran the 100-, 200- and 400-meter dashes for the track team, as well as a leg on the 4x400 relay team, which finished with a silver medal in Class B at the state track meet in 2007.

PERSONAL

Mathew is the son of Tim May and Tammy May and was born on March 18, 1988. He is a four-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selection. May was selected to the 2011 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his outreach work. May has volunteered his time with Nebraska's local hospital visits, elementary school visits and School is Cool Week.

2011 OUTLOOK

Senior Marcus Mendoza made the switch to defensive back a year ago during spring ball, and is looking to push for playing time in the secondary in 2011. The 5-10, 190-pound Mendoza has outstanding speed and explosiveness and will look to utilize those skills in a secondary that must replace five seniors who saw extensive action in 2010. Before moving to defense last spring, Mendoza spent the first three years of his Husker career shifting between receiver and running back.

Mendoza is majoring in history and is on track to earn his degree in December.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Mendoza was a reserve cornerback and saw action in NU's win at Washington.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Mendoza played in seven games, caught seven passes for 45 yards and carried the ball four times for 10 yards. Mendoza saw his most extensive action against Texas Tech, where he caught a career-high five passes for 32 yards. He added single receptions against Iowa State and Baylor, and ran twice for eight yards against ISU.

2008 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Mendoza played in four games as a reserve I-back and rushed 15 times for 103 yards and a touchdown and had two catches for seven yards. His touchdown came on a 31-yard run at Kansas State, when he had 10 carries for 58 yards. He rushed three times for 33 yards against New Mexico State, including a career-long 35-yard run.

2007 (REDSHIRT)

Mendoza graduated early from high school and joined the Huskers in January of 2007, before sitting out as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SPRING WOODS HS)

Mendoza was one of seven Texans in Nebraska's 2007 signing class. As a senior at Spring Woods High School, Mendoza had approximately 700 rushing yards and seven touchdowns, while also catching 20 passes for better than 250 yards and another four scores. He was also a dangerous return threat for Coach Dwayne Eggerman. As a junior, Mendoza missed three games, but still earned second-team all-district honors after rushing for better than 650 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Mendoza was ranked as one of the top dozen all-purpose backs in the country by Rivals.com. Mendoza was also a standout on the track, clocking times of 10.64 seconds in the 100 and 21.6 in the 200 meters as a junior. Mendoza chose Nebraska after also visiting Oklahoma State and Texas Tech.

PERSONAL

Marcus is the son of Rubi Mendoza and was born on Sept. 21, 1988. He is majoring in history and has been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll four times. Mendoza has been among Nebraska's leaders in community outreach and has been named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team three times. Among his many outreach activities are numerous hospital and elementary school visits, and volunteering time with City Impact, the Optimist Club, YWCA, American Education Week and School is Cool Week.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior defensive end Cameron Meredith emerged as a breakthrough player at defensive end in 2010. The Huntington Beach, Calif., native took over a starting job for the Blackshirts in 2010 and played a big role in helping Nebraska rank in the top 12 nationally in scoring defense, total defense and pass defense. Meredith is one of three returning starters on the defensive front this fall, making that unit a building block for another dominant Blackshirt defense.

The 6-4, 260-pound Meredith missed spring practice with a shoulder injury, but will be full strength for the 2011 season. As a sophomore, Meredith showed the strength to hold up against the running game, and also the athleticism to make life difficult for opposing passers. Meredith also showed his versatility when lining up in a stand-up role when NU went to a three-man front at various times last year.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Meredith started all 14 games at defensive end and finished with 64 tackles, including eight tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks. He also tied for second on the team with 10 quarterback pressures. Meredith had at least five tackles in seven games and was a second-team All-Big 12 pick by the league's head coaches.

Meredith opened the year with four tackles and a tackle for loss against Western Kentucky, and also had four tackles in a win at Washington. He led NU's defensive line with five tackles, including four solo stops against South Dakota State. Meredith produced one of his top games at Kansas State with seven tackles, including two tackles for loss and a half a sack. Meredith had five tackles each against Texas and Missouri, and played a prominent role in the defensive scheme as NU held Missouri to an 18-of-42 passing effort. He then had a career-high 10 tackles, including two tackles for loss and half a sack at Iowa State. He added five tackles and split a sack at Texas A&M. He closed the year with six tackles in the Big 12 title game with Oklahoma and four stops in the Holiday Bowl.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Meredith played in every game and had 21 tackles as the top reserve at end. Meredith had five tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks, while adding two quarterback hurries. Meredith also recorded a pass breakup and had a fumble recovery in the opener against Florida Atlantic. He had a season-high five stops, including two tackles for loss and a sack, against Louisiana–Lafayette. He shared a sack against Texas and had three tackles at Kansas.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Meredith appeared in Nebraska's 2008 win over New Mexico State, but suffered an injury and sat out the remainder of the season. He was awarded a medical hardship.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MATER DEI HS)

Meredith was a three-year starter at Mater Dei High School, one of the nation's powerhouse prep programs. Mater Dei was nationally ranked for much of 2007, before losing in the quarterfinals of the state playoffs and finishing with a 9-2 record. Meredith was hampered by injury as a senior, paged to earn co-Defensive MVP honors in the Trinity League.

but still managed to earn co-Defensive MVP honors in the Trinity League and first-team All-Orange County honors from the Orange County Register. Meredith was also a third-team all-state pick by Cal Hi Sports. As a senior, Meredith had 65 unassisted tackles, 27 assists, 7.5 sacks, nine quarterback hurries, two caused fumbles and one fumble recovery.

Meredith was also a standout for Coach Bruce Rollinson as a junior, making 60 tackles, including eight sacks, and recovering a pair of fumbles. Meredith's play as a junior earned him first-team all-league and second-team all-county honors. Meredith was regarded as one of the top 70 prospects in California by Rivals.com and Scout.com. Meredith chose Nebraska over a host of other schools, including Arizona, Arizona State, Boise State, Colorado, Oklahoma, Oregon, Oregon State, San Diego State, Washington and Washington State.

PERSONAL

Cameron was born on Nov. 20, 1989, and is the son of Cory and Katherine Meredith. He is a management major and has volunteered his time with team hospital visits.

LAZARRI MIDDLETON

#16

CORNERBACK | 6-1 | 195 | SOPHOMORE LONG BEACH, CALIF. • POLY

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Lazarri Middleton hopes to push for playing time at the cornerback spot this fall, after adding depth in one of the nation's deepest secondaries in 2010. The 6-1, 195-pound Middleton has good size for the cornerback position and was one of several young players who made big strides during spring practice. Along with adding depth in the secondary, Middleton could use his skills on Nebraska's special teams.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Middleton provided depth at cornerback, but did not appear in a game.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Middleton sat out his first year in the program as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LONG BEACH POLY HS)

Middleton was one of six Californians in the 2009 recruiting class and came to NU after an impressive career for high school powerhouse Long Beach Poly. Middleton played for a Poly team that finished the season 14-1, losing only to Sacramento Grant in the state's Open Division title game. Poly, coached by Raul Lara, finished the season ranked 10th nationally in the final USA Today High School football poll.

Middleton starred at cornerback for the Jackrabbits, compiling 68 tackles, including 52 solo stops, and two interceptions. His play helped a defense that allowed 10 or fewer points nine times in 15 games. Middleton was regarded as one of the top 100 overall prospects in California. Middleton chose Nebraska over SMU and Kansas State.

PERSONAL

Lazarri was born on June 21, 1991, and he is the son of Lazarri Sr. and Tanisha Middleton. He is a business administration major.

» Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2010)

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Josh Mitchell is part of a talented group of young players in the secondary who will look to make an impact for the first time this fall. The 5-11, 165-pound Mitchell was impressive during spring ball and could push for playing time at cornerback. Mitchell makes up for his lack of size with great speed, elusiveness and toughness, and he could also contribute in the return game.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Mitchell redshirted and was impressive in his scout team work.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELEANOR ROOSEVELT HS)

Mitchell had an impressive 2009 campaign, recording 41 tackles and five interceptions from his cornerback position. A versatile performer, Mitchell added a pair of punt returns for touchdowns, helping the Mustangs to an 8-3 record. His play as a senior earned Mitchell first-team All-Big VIII honors.

A four-year starter for Coach Bill Stacy at Eleanor Roosevelt High, Mitchell had 74 tackles and an interception in 2008. He finished his career with 14 total interceptions. Mitchell was ranked among the top 55 cornerback prospects in the country by Rivals. com and among the top 150 players in California by SuperPrep. Mitchell also visited Colorado State and UTEP and had several other offers before selecting Nebraska.

PERSONA

Josh is the son of Gwenn Church and Mario Mitchell, and was born on Jan. 7, 1993. He is majoring in criminology and criminal justice and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll. He has volunteered time with Husker Heroes, and hospital and school visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior Josh Molek heads into the fall expected to add depth at defensive tackle, helping make the position one of the deepest for the 2011 Huskers. The 6-3, 255-pound Molek will battle for playing time at a spot that includes two-time all-conference performer Jared Crick and returning starter Baker Steinkuhler. An Omaha native, Molek began his career at defensive end, but moved inside to tackle before the 2009 season.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Molek was a reserve defensive tackle, but did not see game action.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

 $\label{eq:molek_model} \mbox{Molek was a reserve defensive tackle, but did not appear in a game.}$

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Molek redshirted in his initial season and worked on the scout team defense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SKUTT CATHOLIC HS)

Molek was a standout defensive end for coaches B.T. Kracl and Matt Turman at Omaha Skutt Catholic, helping the SkyHawks win the 2005 Class B state championship. As a senior, Molek made the 2007 All-Omaha Metro team, the all-conference team and was a first-team Class B all-state pick by the Omaha World-Herald.

Molek was also honored as part of the 2007 Associated Press All-State team and made honorable-mention all-state according to the Lincoln Journal Star. He played for the South squad in the 2008 Shrine Bowl.

PERSONAL

Josh is the son of David and Debra Molek, and was born on Sept. 18, 1989. He is a management major and a four-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll pick. He has volunteered time with the Special Olympics and local school visits.

» Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman J.C. Moore is expected to add depth to the Nebraska defensive line during the 2011 season. The 6-3, 265-pound Moore has added more than 20 pounds of muscle since joining the Husker program, which gives him the versatility to move inside in addition to working at his defensive end spot. A walk-on, Moore joined the Nebraska program from Fremont High School.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Moore redshirted and worked on the scout team unit.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (FREMONT HS)

Moore had 45 tackles and one fumble recovery from his defensive end position as a senior at Fremont High School. Moore was a dominant player for Coach Kevin Meyer, despite his Fremont High squad finishing his senior season with just a 1-8 record.

PERSONAL

Moore is the son of Curt Moore, and he was born on June 22, 1992. Moore is majoring in broadcasting. He has volunteered time with the Husker Heroes program.

» Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2010)

2011 OUTLOOK

Senior Terrence Moore has been a solid contributor on the Nebraska defensive line throughout his career, and will look to battle for significant playing time in 2011. The defensive tackle spot figures to be a strong point for the Blackshirts, as the Huskers return both 2010 starters in Jared Crick and Baker Steinkuhler, as well as Moore and sophomore Thad Randle. Moore saw significant reps with the top unit throughout spring ball, as Crick missed the majority of the practices.

Moore helped the 2010 Huskers rank in the top 12 nationally in scoring defense, total defense and pass defense. The 6-3, 290-pounder played in 13 games and finished his junior year with 16 tackles. The Louisiana native spent time in both New Orleans and Texas in high school. He and his mother were displaced following Hurricane Katrina, but Moore returned to his hometown for his senior year.

A sociology major, Moore is on track to earn his degree in May of 2012.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Moore was the top reserve at defensive tackle and finished with 16 tackles, three tackles for loss and a sack. He had a season-high four tackles in a win at Washington, one week after he earned a sack and recovered a fumble against Idaho. Moore also produced a tackle for loss in wins over Missouri and Kansas. In the Big 12 Championship, his pass deflection inside Oklahoma's red zone resulted in Courtney Osborne's interception that set up Nebraska's second touchdown of the game. Moore capped the year with two tackles in the Holiday Bowl, while earning his first career start in that game.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Moore played in four games and had a pair of tackles against Louisiana-Lafayette.

2008 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Moore played in seven games, helping Nebraska nearly triple its sack total from the previous season. He finished with eight tackles, including six in the first three games. Moore had three tackles and two sacks for 11 yards against Western Michigan. He added two tackles against San Jose State.

2007 (REDSHIRT)

Moore sat out his first season as a redshirt and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MCDONOGH 35 HS)

Moore was Nebraska's first signee from the Louisiana prep ranks since 2002. He was an impact performer for McDonogh 35 Senior High School in New Orleans, the same high school as former Husker star and NFL All-Pro defensive lineman Neil Smith.

2011 NEBRASKA CORNHUSKERS

Moore totaled 81 tackles, including 31 tackles for loss, 14 sacks and a pair of fumble recoveries as a senior. He earned first-team New Orleans all-metro and first-team all-district honors. Moore helped Coach Wayne Reese and McDonogh 35 to a 7-3 record and a trip to the second round of the Louisiana 4A state playoffs.

Moore played in only a handful of games in 2005 after arriving in Texas, but remained on the recruiting radar of numerous schools. Moore only visited Nebraska, but received strong recruiting interest from Alabama, Missouri, Oklahoma State and Tulane among others.

PERSONAL

Terrence is the son of Judy Hunter and was born on Jan. 31, 1989. He is majoring in sociology and has volunteered his time with American Education Week, Husker Connect and as part of Nebraska's numerous hospital visits. Moore was named to the 2010 Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll.

#73

OFFENSIVE LINE | 6-6 | 290 | FRESHMAN CLEARWATER, FLA. • COUNTRYSIDE

2011 OUTLOOK

Tyler Moore wasted little time beginning his college career, graduating from high school in time to join the Nebraska program in January. The 6-6, 290-pound Moore then wasted no time making an impression on the practice field, quickly showing the ability to be an impact player on the offensive line. The Florida native worked throughout the spring at offensive tackle and was impressive enough that Husker coaches could consider using him this fall without a redshirt season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (COUNTRYSIDE HS)

Moore was part of a strong group of line prospects in the 2011 recruiting class. He joined the Nebraska program from Countryside High School in Clearwater, Fla., and gave NU at least one signee from the Sunshine State in nine of the past 10 years.

Moore was regarded as one of the top offensive line prospects in the country after helping his team to a 12-1 record in 2010, and a trip to the regional finals. The Cougar offense rushed for better than 2,900 yards and 45 rushing touchdowns behind Moore's powerful blocking. As a junior, Moore helped Countryside to an 11-2 record and the offense also produced strong rushing numbers with better than 225 rushing yards per game. Moore was chosen as a Class 5A all-state pick during his junior season. Moore was a three-year starter at Countryside, first breaking into the lineup in the season opener of his sophomore year.

Following his senior season, Moore played for the East team in the U.S. Army All-Star game in San Antonio. He was ranked among the top 100 overall prospects in the nation according to Rivals.com and among the top 15 players in Florida by both Rivals and Super Prep Magazine. Moore committed to the Huskers during his junior season and did not take any other visits, but did receive dozens of offers, including Florida, Ohio State and Stanford.

PERSONAI

Tyler was born on Jan. 3, 1993, and is the son of Brian Moore and Kim Sorenson. He is majoring in business administration. Moore's father, Brian, played tight end for the Huskers in the 1980s, earning a letter in 1985. Tyler is the cousin of former NU defensive end Jay Moore (2002-06).

» Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Mike Moudy adds another talented young player to the Nebraska offensive line. Moudy has worked at guard during his first season in the program, and is poised to challenge for playing time at a position where Nebraska graduated a pair of senior starters. The 6-5, 305-pound Moudy has the ideal combination of size, strength and agility to be an impact player for Nebraska.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Moudy redshirted and worked on the scout team line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (DOUGLAS COUNTY HS)

As a senior, Moudy averaged double figures in pancakes per game, helping Coach Jeff Ketron's Douglas County High School team to the Class 5A state playoffs. Moudy's play earned him first-team all-conference and first-team all-state honors from the Denver Post. Moudy was also selected to play in the USA vs. the World all-star game in Miami in January of 2010.

In 2008, Moudy helped Douglas County High to eight victories and a trip to the second round of the state playoffs. Moudy earned first-team honors in the Southern League for his play as a junior. Moudy was ranked among the top 10 players in Colorado by Rivals.com, and the service also listed him among the top 35 offensive tackles in the country.

Moudy committed to Nebraska early in the recruiting process and did not take any other visits, but he did have offers from several other schools, including Stanford, Kansas and Kansas State.

PERSONAL

Mike is the son of David and Shannon Moudy, and he was born on Feb. 4, 1992. He has not declared a major, and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Honor Roll. Moudy has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and team hospital visits.

» Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2009)

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Brodrick Nickens heads into fall camp looking to add depth to a Nebraska offensive line that graduated four players with significant starting experience. The 6-5, 300-pound Nickens worked at guard during spring ball. A walk-on from Alliance High School, Nickens has made good progress in the NU weight room at Nebraska.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Nickens added depth on the line, but did not appear in a game.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Nickens redshirted as a walk-on and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ALLIANCE HS)

Nickens starred at Alliance High School, where he helped Coach Travis Hawk's team to the 2008 Class B state quarterfinals. Nickens earned first-team all-conference, first-team all-district and honorable-mention all-state accolades (Lincoln Journal Star) after paving the way for starting running back Cody Anthony to rush for more than 1,000 yards

Nickens also lined up on defense for Alliance, posting 55 tackles and three sacks during his career. He turned down scholarship offers from UNK and Wayne State and was pursued as a walk-on by both Colorado and Colorado State.

PERSONAL

Nickens is the son of Kevin and Angela Conley, and he was born on Sept. 2, 1991. He is majoring in communication studies and was named to the 2009 Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll. He was a volunteer at the Northeast Family Center and local school visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior Collins Okafor enters the 2011 season with a goal of earning playing time at the I-back spot behind Rex Burkhead. The battle for game action behind Burkhead is wide open, and the 6-1, 225-pound Okafor is one of the more experienced players vying for time. An Omaha native, Okafor is a standout in the classroom where he carries a a 3.475 cumulative grade-point average in biological sciences after his first three years at Nebraska.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Okafor added depth behind Roy Helu Jr. and Burkhead. Okafor played in the opener against Western Kentucky and had a two-yard carry.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Okafor provided depth at I-back and saw action against Louisiana-Lafayette. He had one carry for nine yards in the game.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Okafor redshirted and worked with the scout team offense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WESTSIDE HS)

Okafor committed to the Huskers during his junior year at Omaha Westside High School, and he was the first scholarship signee from Westside since 2000.

Okafor earned first-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and first-team Super-State accolades from the Lincoln Journal Star each of his final two seasons. In his final year, Okafor rushed for 1,525 yards on 205 carries and found the end zone 17 times for Coach Marty Kauffman. Okafor's play helped Westside to a 7-3 record and a trip to the state playoffs.

As a junior, Okafor was the driving force behind the Warriors' trip to the Class A state championship game and a 12-1 record. He rushed for 1,850 yards and 16 touchdowns, while adding 389 receiving yards and six touchdown receptions.

Okafor was ranked as one of the top five players in the state by Rivals.com and Scout.com. He also excelled in track, qualifying for the state meet as a junior in the 100 meters, 400-meter relay and 1,600-meter relay. Okafor chose Nebraska over Stanford, Kansas and Iowa.

PERSONAL

Collins is the son of Napoleon Okafor and Pat Okon Okafor and was born on June 6, 1989. He has been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll five times.

TOBI OKUYEMI

DEFENSIVE END | 6-2 | 265 | R-FRESHMAN MAPLE GROVE, MINN. • WAYZATA

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Tobi Okuyemi is among a group of young players who will be pushing for playing time at defensive end this fall. The 6-2, 265-pound Okuyemi used his first season in the Nebraska program to learn the Huskers' defensive system and also improve his strength in the Husker weight room. A Minnesota native, Okuyemi was Nebraska's first recruit from that state in six years.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Okuyemi redshirted and worked with the scout team defense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WAYZATA HS)

Okuyemi had an impressive senior season at Wayzata High School, recording 61 total tackles, including 32 unassisted stops. A disruptive force in opposing backfields, Okuyemi had 15 tackles for loss and eight sacks, helping Coach Brad Anderson's team to a 9-2 record and a trip to the Class 5A state quarterfinals.

Okuyemi's play earned him first-team all-state honors from the Associated Press and the Minnesota Coaches Association. He was also a first-team all-conference pick and a first-team all-metro selection in 2009. As a junior, Okuyemi had 58 tackles, including 17 tackles for loss, and nine sacks. For his efforts, he was an honorablemention all-state selection, while earning first-team all-conference and first-team all-metro accolades. Rivals.com ranked Okuyemi among the top five players in the state of Minnesota, while Scout.com ranked him among the top 40 defensive end Okuyemi was the first signee from Minnesota since Nate Swift and Lydon Murtha in 2004. Okuyemi only visited Nebraska, but had numerous other offers, including Kansas, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan and Michigan State.

................

PERSONAL

Tobi is the son of Kola and Funke Okuyemi and was born on Sept. 23, 1991. He has not yet declared a major. He has volunteered time with Husker Heroes and local hospital visits.

- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2010, 2011)
- » Scout Team Defensive Co-MVP (2008)

2011 OUTLOOK

Safety Courtney Osborne emerged at mid-season in 2010 and went on to become a key performer for Nebraska during the stretch run. Osborne and Austin Cassidy took over as the Huskers' starting safeties against Missouri in late October, and both players exhibited play-making ability the rest of the way. This season, Osborne is one of three returning safeties with significant experience, and as a junior he is expected to play a key role in a re-tooled secondary.

The 6-3, 200-pound Osborne started four of the final seven games in 2010 when NU opened with six defensive backs, and finished with 41 total tackles, including five tackles for loss. He had an 11-yard sack against Missouri and had his first career interception against Oklahoma in the Big 12 Championship Game.

Osborne and his twin brother, Steven, are one of three sets of twins on the Nebraska roster. Steven is a junior wide receiver.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Osborne played on coverage units early in the year, when he was a reserve safety. He had five tackles in the first seven games before breaking into the starting lineup. In his first career start against Missouri, Osborne had six tackles, including an 11-yard sack in a 31-17 win. He had seven tackles at Iowa State, including two tackles for loss.

Osborne had a career-high nine tackles and a tackle for loss at Texas A&M. He recorded his first career interception in the Big 12 Championship Game, returning the pick 33 yards to the Sooner 12-yard line. Two plays later, Nebraska found the end zone to take a 17-0 lead. He added six tackles in the Holiday Bowl.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Osborne played in six games, with five of those appearances coming in the second half of the year. He had an unassisted tackle against Louisiana-Lafayette.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

defensive scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTH GARLAND HS)

Osborne was one of nine Texas natives in Nebraska's 2008 signing class, representing the Huskers' largest ever recruiting harvest from the Lone Star State. Courtney and Steven Osborne marked the second set of twins to sign with Nebraska, joining the Bullocks brothers who signed in 2001.

A versatile performer, Osborne made his biggest impact on defense for South Garland High School and Coach Mickey Moss. Osborne also excelled on the special teams units where he utilized his hard-hitting style. The play of the Osbornes helped a talented South Garland squad to a 10-2 record and a district title in 2007.

Osborne was listed among the top 50 prospects on the Dallas Morning News' Area 100 list. In addition to NU, he received scholarship offers from UNLV and Kansas.

2011 NEBRASKA CORNHUSKERS

STEVEN OSBORNE

#21

2011 OUTLOOK

Steven Osborne is among a group of receivers who enter fall camp with a goal of earning some of the playing time that is available following the graduation of veteran receivers Niles Paul and Mike McNeill. Osborne adds excellent size at 6-4 and 210 pounds and has seen limited action each of the past two seasons.

Osborne and his brother, Courtney, are one of three sets of identical twins on the NU football squad, joining Colin and Conor McDermott and Jake and Spencer Long.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Osborne added depth at wideout, but did not appear in a game.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Osborne was a reserve receiver and played against Louisiana-Lafayette and Colorado.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Osborne redshirted in his first year in the program and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTH GARLAND HS)

Osborne joined his twin brother Courtney in the Huskers' 2008 signing class. They were just the second set of twins ever to sign letters of intent with the Huskers, joining Josh and Daniel Bullocks who signed with the Huskers in 2001. The Osbornes were two of nine Texas natives in the 2008 class, marking the most players ever signed from the state in one season by Nebraska.

Steven Osborne provided a big receiving target for South Garland High and Coach Mickey Moss, helping the school to a district title and a 10-2 record. As a senior, Osborne caught 38 passes for 601 yards and 10 touchdowns. The Dallas Morning News ranked him as the No. 49 prospect on its Area 100 list. In addition to Nebraska, Osborne also visited UNLV, and received scholarship offers from Utah, Kansas and SMU among others.

PERSONAL

Steven was born on Jan. 15, 1990, and is the son of Sandra Osborne. He is an economics major, and was named to the 2011 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team. He has volunteered his time at the F Street Recreation Center, the YWCA and with local hospital and school visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Mark Pelini joined the Husker football program as a walk-on offensive lineman in 2010, and redshirted in his first year at Nebraska. The 6-0, 285-pound Pelini spent the spring working at center where he will battle for playing time behind senior starter Mike Caputo. Pelini is the nephew of Husker head coach Bo Pelini and defensive coordinator Carl Pelini.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Pelini redshirted and worked on the scout team offensive line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CARDINAL MOONEY HS)

Pelini was a standout at Cardinal Mooney High School in Youngstown, Ohio. His play on the offensive line helped Mooney to a perfect 15-0 record and a Divsion III Ohio state title in 2009. Pelini's blocking helped pave the way for fellow Husker Braylon Heard who rushed for 1,973 yards and 24 touchdowns in 2009.

PERSONAL

Mark is the son of Vince and Diane Pelini, and he was born on Aug. 27, 1991. Pelini is majoring in mathematics/history, and he has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, as well as local school and hospital outreach activities.

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Cole Pensick made the switch to offense in the spring of 2010, and worked into the No. 2 center spot behind honorable-mention all-conference selection Mike Caputo. Pensick heads into his sophomore year looking to continue to battle for playing time behind Caputo, who will be a senior leader of the NU offensive line.

A Lincoln native, Pensick saw action in five games last season, helping the Nebraska rushing attack gain a Big 12-leading 247.6 yards per game, while rushing for more than 200 yards 10 times. The 6-2, 275-pound Pensick is a second-generation Husker, following in the footsteps of his father, Dan, who was a three-year letterwinner at defensive tackle from 1977 to 1979.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Pensick saw reserve action against Western Kentucky, Washington, Kansas State, Texas A&M and Colorado.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Pensick redshirted as a defensive tackle and worked on the scout team in 2009.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LINCOLN NORTHEAST HS)

Pensick was the first player to commit to Nebraska's 2009 class, coming to NU from Lincoln Northeast High School. Pensick was a three-year starter for Coach Dave Svehla's Rockets and dominated the line of scrimmage on both offense and defense. As a senior, he played primarily on offense, but still managed to record nearly 40 tackles and lead his team in tackles for loss. He also averaged about 10 pancakes per game while lining up as the starting right guard on offense.

Pensick was honored for his defensive play as a senior, as he was a first-team Super-State pick by the Lincoln Journal Star and a first-team Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska selection. Pensick was a first-team All-Nebraska and second-team Super-State selection as a junior when he had 39 tackles, including seven tackles for loss, three sacks and a pair of fumble recoveries. His play helped Northeast to a state playoff berth in 2007. He was a second-team All-Nebraska pick as a sophomore.

Pensick also excelled in wrestling and track for the Rockets. On the mat, he finished fifth in Class A at 285 pounds as a junior. In track, Pensick captured the Class A shot put title as a junior with a throw of 57-10 1/4 and finished second as a senior with a throw of 57-11 1/2.

PERSONAL

Cole is the son of Dan and Bev Pensick and was born on Oct. 10, 1990. He is majoring in agribusiness and was named to the 2009 Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll. He has been a part of school and hospital outreach activities.

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Brent Qvale (pronounced kwal-lee) is poised to move into a leading role on the Nebraska offensive line during the 2011 season. The 6-7, 320-pound Qvale was a top backup at offensive guard last season and has a chance to step up with the graduation of seniors Keith Williams and Ricky Henry. Qvale is among several young offensive linemen who are expected to form the foundation of the Nebraska line for the next few years.

Qvale nearly saw action as a true freshman, before he was sidelined by a shoulder injury. Qvale is majoring in nutrition, exercise and health science and carries a 3.566 cumulative grade-point average after his first two years.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Qvale played in all 14 games as a redshirt freshman as a reserve guard behind Keith Williams and Ricky Henry, and also as a member of Nebraska's PAT and field goal units. Qvale helped Nebraska rank atop the Big 12 and in the top 10 nationally in rushing offense.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Nebraska coaches considered the possibility of Qvale bypassing a redshirt, but a shoulder injury forced him to the sideline early in the fall.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WILLISTON HS)

Qvale came to Nebraska from Williston High School and was the Huskers' first signee from the North Dakota high school ranks since Darin Duin in 1988. He was the first scholarship football player from North Dakota since Darin Erstad joined the squad as a punter from the NU baseball team in 1994.

Qvale was a multi-sport standout at Williston High. As a senior, he helped Williston and Coach Todd Matthews to a 7-4 record and a trip to the second round of the state playoffs. Qvale dominated on the offensive line and was named the Gatorade North Dakota Player of the Year and was first-team all-state as an offensive tackle. The all-state honors marked the third straight year Qvale picked up first-team all-state recognition as an offensive lineman.

Qvale was a first-team all-state pick in basketball his last two years of high school. As a senior, he averaged more than 21 points and 12 rebounds per game. He also captured the state shot put title his final three years, including a toss of 57-5 as a junior. Qvale only visited Nebraska, but chose the Huskers over offers from numerous schools, including Wisconsin and Iowa. Qvale also carried a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in the classroom.

PERSONAL

Brent was born on March 11, 1991, and is the son of Sanford and Carol Qvale. Qvale is majoring in nutrition, exercise and health science. He was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll each of his first four semesters. Qvale's older brother, Brian, finished his basketball career at the University of Montana in 2010-11.

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore defensive tackle Thaddeus Randle is poised to move into a more prominent role on the Nebraska defensive line in 2011. The defensive front is one of Nebraska's deepest and most talented units heading into the fall, and the 6-1, 300-pound Randle is expected to be a key component. With senior All-American Jared Crick sidelined for much of the spring by an injury, Randle made the most of his opportunities to impress during his time with the top defensive unit.

The Houston area product was a key part of a defensive tackle rotation last fall. Randle has made huge strides since his arrival in Lincoln, adding more than 40 pounds of muscle while maintaining his quickness and explosiveness.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Randle played in 12 games as a reserve tackle behind Crick and Baker Steinkuhler. Randle's role grew late in the season and he finished the year with seven tackles and a quarterback hurry. He had three tackles against Idaho, in addition to single stops in four other games.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORTH SHORE HS)

Randle was part of an impressive group of Texans in Nebraska's 2009 recruiting class. He starred at North Shore High School in Galena Park. As a senior, Randle made 70 total tackles, including 17 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks. He also had 11 quarterback hurries, forced three fumbles, recovered two others and had four pass breakups for Coach Steve Aymond.

Randle's play helped the Mustangs to a perfect 8-0 regular season, before a second-round loss to state runner-up FB Hightower in the Class 5A playoffs. North Shore had a history of success, as Randle left a program that had won 78 straight regular-season contests following the 2008 season. Randle was a first-team Class 5A all-state selection by the Associated Press and was named to the Houston Chronicle's Greater Houston first-team squad.

Randle was a three-year standout for the Mustangs. As a junior, he earned second-team all-district honors for a 14-1 team that reached the state semifinals. Randle also earned second-team all-district honors when he cracked the starting lineup as a sophomore. Randle took his only recruiting visit to Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Thaddeus is the son of Thaddeus Randle Sr. and Julia Long and was born on Oct. 20, 1990. He is majoring in ethnic studies, and was a second-team academic All-Big 12 pick in 2010. Randle has volunteered time at the Malone Center.

- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2010)

2011 OUTLOOK

Tight end Kyler Reed is one of the most talented athletes on the Nebraska roster and emerged as a playmaker in the Husker offense as a sophomore. The 6-3, 230-pound Reed has great speed, which adds an explosive element to NU's tight end corps by creating mismatches with opposing defenses. The combination of Reed and fellow junior Ben Cotton give Nebraska an outstanding 1-2 tandem at tight end.

Reed showed signs of his potential as a redshirt freshman, then became a key figure in the offense last fall. Reed caught 22 passes on the season and set a Nebraska tight end record with eight touchdown receptions in 2010. With a re-tooled offensive system under new coordinator Tim Beck, Reed figures only to grow this fall.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Reed played in 11 games with a start against Florida Atlantic and had six receptions for 54 yards. Reed had a season-long 22-yard catch at Baylor, and had single receptions in five other games, with four of his catches coming in Big 12 action. Reed also saw action on Nebraska's kickoff return unit.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Reed redshirted in 2008. He briefly moved to linebacker late in the year before going back to tight end.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ST. THOMAS AQUINAS HS)

Reed showed versatility throughout his prep career at St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Overland Park, Kan., playing a significant role on both offense and defense. Reed helped Coach Kevin Kopecky's team to an 8-4 record and a trip to the Class 5A state semifinals—the third straight year Aquinas reached the state semifinals. Reed rushed for 350 yards out of the backfield, but made his biggest impact as a receiver with 500 receiving yards and seven touchdown receptions. He also passed for a touchdown, and was a standout safety on defense.

Reed's performance in leading Aquinas earned him first-team 5A all-state honors from the Kansas High School Coaches Association and honorable-mention all-metro accolades from the Kansas City Star. Reed played all over the field as a junior, lining up as a wide receiver, fullback and defensive back for a 10-2 Aquinas team. His performance earned him all-area and honorable-mention all-metro accolades in 2006.

Rivals.com listed him among the nation's top "athlete" prospects and Scout.com listed him among the top 20 weakside linebackers in the country.

PERSONAL

Kyler was born on April 14, 1990, and is the son of Linda Reed and Kenny Reed. He is majoring in business administration and was named to the 2008 Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Honor Roll. He was also named to the 2010 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his extensive community outreach, including School is Cool Week and local hospital visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Wil Richards heads into the 2011 season hoping to add depth at safety, where Nebraska returns veteran performers Austin Cassidy, Courtney Osborne and P.J. Smith. The 5-11, 195-pound Richards could also push for playing time on special teams units this fall

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Richards added depth in the secondary and appeared in games against Texas and Iowa State, but did not have a tackle.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Richards sat out his first season as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LEE'S SUMMIT WEST HS)

Richards came to Nebraska from Lee's Summit West High School in the Kansas City area, where he had a standout senior season for Coach Royce Boehm. Richards recorded 80 tackles and intercepted nine passes, including two that he returned for touchdowns. His play earned him first-team Class 5A all-state selection by the Missouri Coaches Association, and he was a first-team All-Metro pick by the Kansas City Star.

Richards also earned first-team all-state honors from the state coaches association during his junior season. Richards turned down an opportunity from from Air Force to walk on with Nebraska.

Redshirt freshman Trevor Roach had an impressive spring practice, putting him in position for potential playing time at linebacker this fall. The 6-2, 235-pound Roach worked primarily at Mike linebacker, and is among a group of players pushing for action behind veteran performers Lavonte David, Will Compton and Sean Fisher. Roach has been strong in the classroom, being named to the Big 12 Honor Roll each of his first two semesters and carrying a 3.501 grade-point average.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Roach sat out his first season as a redshirt and worked on the scout team defense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELKHORN HS)

Roach came to Nebraska as a linebacker/running back for state high school power Elkhorn. Roach amassed 100 tackles for the Antlers in 2009, and starred on the offensive side of the ball where he rushed for 1,042 yards and 17 touchdowns. Roach missed the majority of his junior year with a knee injury he suffered in the first game of the season.

A first-team All-Nebraska (Omaha World-Herald) and second-team Super-State (Lincoln Journal Star) selection, Roach chose to walk on at Nebraska over scholarship offers from Northwest Missouri State and Nebraska-Omaha, and a walk-on invitation from lowa State.

- » Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2010)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Andrew Rodriguez is in position to challenge for a starting role on the Nebraska offensive line in 2011. The 6-6, 325-pound Rodriguez was one of only three true freshmen to see action for Nebraska in 2010, and with the graduation of senior guards Ricky Henry and Keith Williams, Rodriguez is one of the leading candidates to fill a starting position on the line.

Rodriguez was just the eighth true freshman offensive lineman to play at Nebraska and the first since 2006. He was the first freshman offensive lineman to play in a season opener since Toniu Fonoti and John Garrison in 1999.

2010 (FRESHMAN)

Rodriguez saw game action in his first available opportunity when he played in the opener against Western Kentucky, and he went on to play in a total of five games as a reserve guard.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (AURORA HS)

As a senior, Rodriguez's physical presence on both lines helped Aurora and Coach Randy Huebert to a perfect 13-0 record. Rodriguez paved the way for a powerful offense that averaged nearly 40 points a game, and he made 38 tackles on defense for the Huskies.

Rodriguez was a first-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald as an offensive lineman, while the Lincoln Journal Star made him a first-team Super-State pick as a defensive lineman. He was also honored on the national level, with his selection to play in the prestigious U.S. Army All-America Game in San Antonio in January, 2010.

Rodriguez also excelled as a junior, helping the Huskies to a 12-1 record and a Class B state title. He was a second-team Super-State selection as a junior after first playing with the Husky varsity in 2007, when Aurora reached the state quarterfinals. Rodriguez was ranked as the top prospect in Nebraska by Rivals.com. He was also listed among the top 25 offensive tackles nationally by both Rivals.com and Scout.com.

Rodriguez also played basketball for Aurora and excelled in track. As a senior, Rodriguez finished second in Class B in the shot put and third in the discus. As a junior, he finished third in the shot put and was seventh in the discus. Rodriguez committed to Nebraska in November of 2008, during his junior season.

PERSONAL

Andrew was born to Myrna Castellar in Harlem, and lived in New York until 2003. He moved to Nebraska where he lives with guardians Eric and Nicole Collazo. Andrew was born on May 15, 1991. He is majoring in sociology and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll each of his first two semesters. Rodriguez has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and hospital outreach activities.

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Chase Rome made the most of an early start to his college career, enrolling at Nebraska in January of 2010. Rome used the extra time to add more than 20 pounds of muscle to his frame and is now prepared to contend for playing time in 2011. The Rock Bridge, Mo., native is expected to add depth at defensive tackle, one of Nebraska's deepest positions heading into the season. Rome was prepared to play as a true freshman and was a member of the Huskers' travel roster for much of the season.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Rome joined the NU program in January, then went on to redshirt in the fall. He added depth in the defensive line.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ROCK BRIDGE HS)

Rome was a dominant defensive force for Rock Bridge High School, and his decision to attend NU marked the seventh straight year the Huskers had at least one signee from the state of Missouri. Rome racked up 74 tackles, 15 tackles for loss and seven sacks as a senior in 2009. His play helped Rock Bridge and Coach A.J. Ofodile to a 5-5

As a junior, Rome recorded 77 tackles, including 41 unassisted stops, while adding four sacks and four fumble recoveries. Rome was named a first-team Class 6 allstate pick in both 2008 and 2009. Rome was widely regarded as one of the top five prospects in Missouri. He only visited Nebraska, but he had offers from dozens of schools, including Oklahoma State, Missouri, Oklahoma and Florida.

ground 10 times. His play earned Sirles second-team freshman All-America honors from CollegeFootballNews.com as NU was ninth nationally in rushing offense.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Sirles redshirted in 2009. He could have earned playing time, but suffered an injury that forced him to the sideline at mid-season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BEAR CREEK HS)

Sirles was a standout on the offensive line for Bear Creek High School and Coach Tom Thenell each of his final three seasons. Behind Sirles' play, Bear Creek finished 2008 with an 8-3 record before losing in the second round of the Colorado Class 5A state playoffs.

Sirles' impressive blocking helped Bears' quarterback Zach Thenell lead the state in passing, while the offense also produced 215 yards per game on the ground. For his efforts as a senior, Sirles was named to the Rocky Mountain News' All-Colorado squad for the second straight year. Sirles was named first-team All-Colorado and all-conference as a junior, when he helped his team reach the state quarterfinals. As a sophomore, Sirles helped Bear Creek to the state quarterfinals and earned firstteam All-South Metro League honors and second-team all-state accolades. Sirles also excelled in basketball and track, helping his team to the state basketball tournament as a senior. Sirles received numerous offers, and also visited Arizona State and Oregon before deciding on the Huskers.

PERSONAL

Jeremiah was born on Aug. 8, 1991, and is the son of Phil and Nora Sirles. He is majoring in business administration. He has volunteered his time at the Malone Center and as part of team hospital visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior safety P.J. Smith was a big contributor in the Nebraska secondary in the first half of last season before moving into a reserve role in the latter stages of the year. The 6-2, 210-pound Smith will push to move back into a starting role, as Nebraska returns three tested safeties in Smith, senior Austin Cassidy and junior Courtney Osborne. That group, along with senior cornerback Alfonzo Dennard, will be called on for leadership in a secondary that replaces five departed seniors.

Smith picked off a pass in three of the first four games last year and made three starts in the season's first six games. He was also a special teams contributor over the past two seasons and could serve in that role again this season.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Smith played in all 14 games with starts against Idaho, Kansas State and Texas. He had three interceptions, all in the first four games, and returned the interceptions for 46 yards. Smith finished with 38 total tackles, including 17 solo stops and had three games with at least five tackles. Smith had his first career interception against Western Kentucky and returned it 29 yards. The next week against Idaho, he made his first start and snagged another interception before adding an interception against South Dakota State. Smith had a career-high 11 tackles against Texas, with five against Idaho and six at Oklahoma State.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Smith played in all 14 games and had 15 tackles, including eight solo stops. He ranked among the team leaders with 10 tackles on coverage units. Smith finished strong with at least one stop in each of the final six games. Included in that stretch was a four-tackle effort against Oklahoma. He had a pass breakup against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl, helping secure an NU shutout.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (JOHN CURTIS HS)

Smith joined the Husker program from Louisiana prep powerhouse John Curtis High School in River Ridge. Smith was a four-year starter for Coach J.T. Curtis and helped the school to Class 2A state titles each of his final three seasons of high school.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior defensive tackle Baker Steinkuhler (pronounced stine-cooler) is poised for big things during his junior season after a solid first year as a starter in 2010. Steinkuhler started all 13 regular-season games alongside Jared Crick last fall, and the return of both players provides the foundation for the Blackshirt defense to again rank among one of the nation's top units in 2011.

The son of 1983 Outland and Lombardi Award winner Dean Steinkuhler, Baker racked up 46 tackles in his first season as a starter and helped the Nebraska defense rank among the top 12 nationally in scoring defense, pass defense and total defense. Steinkuhler added 3.5 sacks, four tackles for loss and four hurries. The play of the 6-6, 290-pound Steinkuhler earned him honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades from the conference coaches. He saw reserve action in 2009 after redshirting in his first year at Nebraska.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Steinkuhler started the first 13 games before sitting out the Holiday Bowl, and had at least five tackles in five games as a sophomore. In his first career start against Western Kentucky, Steinkuhler had an eight-yard sack. The following week against Idaho, he had a career-high 1.5 sacks for 14 yards. He picked up a sack for the third straight week at Washington, throwing Jake Locker for an eight-yard loss. Steinkuhler had five tackles each against South Dakota State and Kansas State, then had a career-high eight tackles, a breakup and a hurry against Texas. He had seven tackles against Kansas, and combined for four tackles in the final two games of the regular season, before adding three stops and a breakup against Oklahoma in the Big 12 title game.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Steinkuhler totaled 17 tackles while playing in 13 of 14 games. He had a season-best five tackles against Florida Atlantic and produced a tackle for loss at Virginia Tech. He added four tackles against Louisiana-Lafayette and three each versus both Arkansas State and Baylor. Steinkuhler also had two pass breakups on the year.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Steinkuhler redshirted in 2008 and decided on the defensive line after being recruited with the possibility of playing on either side of the ball.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHWEST HS)

Steinkuhler had a standout prep career at Lincoln Southwest High School, where he earned Lincoln Journal Star Super-State honors three straight years and Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska honors his final two seasons. Steinkuhler was also recognized as the top lineman on the prestigious Parade All-America team, which consisted of the nation's top 58 players, while earning second-team All-America honors from USA Today.

Steinkuhler was a four-year starter who starred on both sides of the ball for Coach Mark King at Southwest. As a senior, he recorded 36 solo stops, and 36 assisted tackles, helping the Southwest defense allow just 190 yards per game.

Steinkuhler also anchored the Silverhawk offensive line. During his junior season, he powered the lines for a 10-1 Southwest team that was ranked No. 1 for much of the season. As a sophomore, Steinkuhler helped the Silverhawks to a state runner-up finish. Steinkuhler was the No. 8 overall prospect in the country by Rivals.com, and the No. 2 offensive tackle by both Rivals.com and Scout.com. He played defense at the U.S. Army All-American Game. Steinkuhler committed to Nebraska at the start of his junior season.

PERSONAL

Baker is the son of Sue Steinkuhler and Dean Steinkuhler and was born on July 12, 1989. Baker's older brother, Ty, also played for the Huskers from 2005 to 2008. Baker is a business administration major and has assisted with NU's team hospital visits. He is on track to graduate in December of 2011 and was a 2011 Big 12 Spring Academic Honor Roll pick.

GRAHAM STODDARD

LINEBACKER | 6-2 | 235 | JUNIOR LINCOLN, NEB. • SOUTHWEST TWO LETTERS #38

- » Second-Team Academic All-Big 12 (2009)
- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2009)

2011 OUTLOOK

Lincoln native Graham Stoddard has appeared in every game the past two seasons while becoming a leader of Nebraska's special teams units. His play has helped Nebraska rank among the nation's best overall special teams groups. The 6-2, 235-pound Stoddard expects to continue in that role during his junior season, but he is also likely to push for playing time in a deep Nebraska linebacker corps. Stoddard has the versatility to play multiple linebacker positions.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Stoddard played in every game and totaled 12 tackles, all on special teams. He made eight of his stops on kickoff coverage with four coming on punt returns. Stoddard had a season-high three tackles in the opener against Western Kentucky and had at least one tackle in nine games. He was special teams captain for NU's game at Oklahoma State.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Stoddard finished with 10 tackles, and he ranked among the team leaders in special teams tackles with nine stops on coverage. Stoddard had three tackles in the opener against Florida Atlantic and had two unassisted stops at Kansas.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on, Stoddard redshirted and made a strong impression on the NU scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHWEST HS)

Stoddard earned 2006 all-conference honors and was a two-time honorable-mention all-city pick by the Lincoln Journal Star. He was a member of the 2005 Silverhawk team that was the state runner-up in Class A under Coach Mark King. As a junior, Stoddard made 69 tackles, five sacks and two interceptions from his defensive end position, helping Southwest to a 10-1 record. Stoddard also participated in track and field, and finished on the seventh-place 400-meter relay team at the state track meet. He was also nominated for the 2007 Lead America Youth Leadership Conference and was a 2006 Scholar Athlete Award winner.

PERSONAL

Graham was born on July 31, 1990, and is the son of Larry and Karen Stoddard. He is a finance major and has volunteered his time as a School is Cool Week speaker and part of Nebraska's local hospital visits. Stoddard was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll in 2009 and was a second-team academic all-conference pick in 2009.

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Zach Taylor joined the Nebraska football program as a walk-on from Lincoln Southeast in the fall of 2010. After a productive fall as a scout team running back, the 6-0, 210-pound Taylor was impressive throughout spring ball, capped by a strong showing in the Red-White game. This fall he will battle for action behind junior Rex Burkhead at I-back.

Taylor is off to a strong start academically, earning a place on the Big 12 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll in each of his first two semesters at Nebraska.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Taylor redshirted in his first season in the progam after walking on.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHEAST HS)

A second-team Super-State pick at running back by the Lincoln Journal Star, Taylor rushed for 1,205 yards and 12 scores as a senior helping the Knights reach the quarterfinals of the Class A state playoffs. Taylor was also a standout on defense where he was a first-team Class A pick by the Omaha World-Herald as a defensive back. Taylor also returned kickoffs for Southeast and averaged 38 yards per return, including one for a 95-yard score.

PERSONAI

Zach is the son of Monte and Shelley Taylor, and he was born on May 9, 1992. Taylor is majoring in business administration. He has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, as well as school and hospital outreach visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior Brandon Thompson is among a group of offensive linemen who are bidding to move into a position for significant playing time on a young, but talented offensive line this fall. Thompson served in a backup role at offensive guard behind seniors Ricky Henry and Keith Williams in 2010, but with the graduation of those two starters, Thompson is among the leading candidates to push for a starting spot in 2011. During spring ball, Thompson and sophomores Brent Qvale and Andrew Rodriguez received the majority of the snaps with the top offensive unit at guard.

The 6-6, 300-pound Thompson appeared in nine games last season and helped the Huskers rank first in the Big 12 in rushing offense.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Thompson was slowed by injury early in the year, but earned playing time as a reserve guard and on Nebraska's PAT and field goal units. His play helped a Nebraska offense that rushed for 200 yards in 10 of 14 games.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Thompson played in three games as a reserve guard as a redshirt freshman.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Thompson redshirted his first season and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (THE WOODLANDS HS)

Thompson was one of nine Texans in the 2008 signing group, the largest group of players from that state to sign with Nebraska in a single season. He was the leader of the Highlanders' offense in 2007, providing protection for a quarterback who threw for nearly 1,600 yards and paving the way for three running backs to each top 300 yards on the ground. Despite battling injuries during his senior season, Thompson's play earned him first-team all-district honors in the 5A ranks.

Thompson also earned all-district honors as a junior, when he helped Coach Mark Schmid's squad to a 6-5 record. Thompson was ranked among the top 80 players in the Southwest region according to SuperPrep Magazine.

In addition to his talents on the football field, Thompson excelled for the Highlander track team, throwing the shot put and discus. Thompson chose Nebraska over Purdue, Oklahoma State, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Colorado.

PERSONAL

Brandon is the son of Jeff Thompson and Belinda Proctor and his stepfather is Leonard Proctor. Brandon was born on June 10, 1990. He is majoring in business administration.

- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

Senior Kevin Thomsen is poised to battle for playing time at defensive end for the Huskers in 2011. A walk-on from Elkhorn High School, Thomsen has been at several positions throughout his Nebraska career but has settled in at defensive end for his final two seasons. The 6-2, 245-pound Thomsen made an impact in last season's key home victory against Missouri.

Thomsen is majoring in nutrition, exercise and health science, and he is on track to earn his degree in December. He is a six-time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selection.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Thomsen played only against Missouri, as Nebraska utilized a three-man defensive front. Thomsen had a seven-yard sack of Blaine Gabbert as NU registered six sacks in the game.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Thomsen was a reserve linebacker, but did not play in a game.

2008 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Thomsen provided depth at fullback, but did not play.

2007 (REDSHIRT)

Thomsen redshirted in his first year in the Nebraska program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ELKHORN HS)

Thomsen was a first-team Class B all-state selection by the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star following a standout senior season for Coach Mark Wortman at Elkhorn. Thomsen helped the Antlers to a 12-1 record and Class B state runner-up finish.

Thomsen recorded 61 tackles, including a pair of sacks, and four interceptions from his defensive line position, while he also rushed for 223 yards and three touchdowns. Thomsen also earned first-team All-Omaha area accolades from the World-Herald. Thomsen threw the discus and shot put for the Elkhorn track team.

PERSONAL

Kevin is the son of John and Mary Thomsen and was born on Oct. 14, 1988. He is majoring in nutrition, exercise and health science. Thomsen was named to the 2011 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his outreach work, including School is Cool Week, the Omaha Heart Walk, as well as several local hospital and elementary school visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Lance Thorell has been one of the key reserves in the Nebraska defensive backfield each of the past three seasons while also playing a primary role on special teams. Thorell has been utilized in nickel and dime roles throughout his career and could fit into that role again this fall. The 6-1, 200-pound Thorell has the versatility to play both cornerback and safety for the Nebraska defense.

Thorell has played in 39 games over the past three years, making him one of the most experienced Huskers. In addition to his on-field success, Thorell has been an academic all-conference pick the past three years. He is on track to earn his degree in agribusiness this December.

2010 (JUNIOR)

Thorell appeared in all 14 games and finished with seven tackles, including four solo stops. In addition to his work in the secondary, Thorell contributed to the Big 12's top special teams units. He had a season-high three tackles at lowa State.

2009 (SOPHOMORE)

Thorell saw action in all 14 games and finished with seven tackles, including four solo stops, while adding a pass breakup. Thorell made his only start of the year at Missouri and had two tackles. He also had two tackles against Louisiana-Lafayette.

2008 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Thorell played in 11 games with five starts as a sixth defensive back. He finished with 24 tackles, including 15 solo stops, and had a career-high eight tackles against New Mexico State. Thorell had a career-high five solo stops at Texas Tech, added five tackles against Missouri and finished the regular season with three tackles against Colorado. He added his first career pass breakup against the Buffs.

2007 (REDSHIRT)

A walk-on performer, Thorell redshirted in his first season with the Huskers.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LOOMIS HS)

Thorell was a standout on both sides of the ball for Loomis High School, helping the Wolves to the Class D-1 state quarterfinals in 2006. Thorell earned first-team Class D-1 all-state honors at defensive back from the Lincoln Journal Star after totaling 118 tackles and four interceptions as a senior. He added more than 1,000 yards rushing and 22 touchdowns while also playing running back for Loomis.

Thorell also excelled in track as a member of the Class D state champion team. He set the state Class D record in the 110-meter hurdles on his way to a gold medal at the state track meet, as well as taking home the gold in the 300-meter hurdles. He also placed in the long jump and 400-meter dash at the 2007 state track meet.

PERSONAL

Lance is the son of Mike Thorell and Kristi Thorell, and was born on Oct. 16, 1988. He has been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll five times. Thorell is among Nebraska's most dedicated volunteers in the community and is a three-time member of the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team. # TURNER

#10

2011 OUTLOOK

Jamal Turner joined the Nebraska program in January after graduating from high school at the semester. The 6-1, 180-pound Turner came to the Husker program as a highly touted quarterback with the ability to make plays with both his legs and his arm. After opening spring ball at quarterback, Turner made the switch to receiver after three practices, giving him a better opportunity to make an immediate impact.

Turner showed evidence of his explosiveness throughout the spring, capped by an electric performance in the spring game. He totaled 228 all-purpose yards in the game and had a 49-yard touchdown catch. Turner's speed and elusiveness make him a contender for immediate playing time in the Nebraska receiving corps, and he is also a frontrunner for return duties in 2011.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SAM HOUSTON HS)

Turner came to Nebraska after a prolific high school career at Sam Houston High School in Arlington, Texas. He was one of the nation's top dual-threat quarterbacks for Coach Danny Edelman, racking up more than 10,000 yards of total offense in three years as a starter.

As a senior, Turner rushed for 1,888 yards on 267 carries and 35 rushing touchdowns. Through the air, he completed better than 60 percent of his passes for 1,551 yards and eight touchdowns. His play as a senior earned Turner first-team All-DFW area selection by the Dallas Morning News as a utility player, and he was also an honorable-mention Class 5A all-state pick. Turner produced similar statistics as a junior with 1,809 yards and 19 touchdowns rushing, while averaging better than eight yards per carry. He also threw for better than 1,800 yards and 13 touchdowns and earned second-team All-DFW area honors and second-team 5A all-state honors.

Turner first stepped into the starting quarterback role as a sophomore and posted big passing numbers. He threw for 2,611 yards and 21 touchdowns, while also rushing for better than 400 yards and nine touchdowns. Turner was chosen to play in the Under Armour All-American game in Florida in January, and he showed his all-around ability by lining up at receiver in the game. ESPN ranked Turner among the top 50 overall prospects in the country and as the No. 6 "athlete" in the nation. Rivals.com ranked Turner among the top 140 players in the nation and the top 20 prospects in Texas. Turner only visited Nebraska, but had numerous offers including Missouri, Oklahoma, TCU, Texas A&M and USC.

PERSONAL

Turner is the son of the late Rusty Turner and Jeffery Turner and was born on Feb. 1, 1993. He is a business administration major and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll. Turner has participated in Nebraska team hospital visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Jeff Uher is expected to add depth on the defensive line for the 2011 Huskers. The 6-1, 275-pound Uher worked at defensive tackle in the spring, one of Nebraska's deepest positions led by senior All-American Jared Crick. Uher joined the program as a walk-on from Nebraska Class A powerhouse Omaha Creighton Prep.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CREIGHTON PREP HS)

Uher was a three-year starter for Coach Tom Jaworski at Creighton Prep. Uher was a second-team all-state performer on the defensive line according to the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star in 2009. At his defensive tackle spot, Uher produced five sacks to help Creighton Prep to a 7-3 record.

Uher also starred in wrestling for the Junior Jays, where he finished as a runner-up in the 285-pound weight division in Class A as a senior.

PERSONAL

Uher was born on May 4, 1991, and he is the son of Dale and Karen Uher. Uher has not declared a major. He has volunteered his time with the Husker Heroes program, as well as local school and hospital outreach activities.

- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2011)
- » Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award (2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Vestal redshirted and worked on the scout team in his first season. Vestal missed part of the season with a shoulder injury.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BOWIE HS)

Vestal was a standout at Bowie High School in Arlington, Texas, where he played for Coach Kenny Perry. Vestal registered 55 tackles, 7.5 sacks and an interception as a senior. His play helped Bowie to an 11-3 record and a trip to the Class 5A state playoffs, while Vestal earned honorable-mention all-district honors.

Vestal played both defensive end and defensive tackle during his prep career and his play as a junior helped Bowie to an 11-2 record. Vestal was regarded as one of the top 30 defensive ends in the country by Rivals.com, which also listed him among the top 100 overall prospects in the Lone Star State. The Dallas Morning News ranked him among the top 50 players in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Vestal was also a standout for Bowie's basketball team. Vestal did not take any other visits, but had numerous offers, including Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Oklahoma State and Baylor.

2011 NEBRASKA CORNHUSKERS

PERSONAL

Donovan is the son of Donald and Sonja Vestal, and was born on Aug. 22, 1991. He is a business administration major. Vestal has immediately become one of Nebraska's community outreach leaders and was named to the 2011 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team. Vestal has volunteered his time with Special Olympics, DARE, Husker Heroes, the Foster Care Festival, YWCA and numerous school and hospital visits.

» Scout Team Defensive MVP (2010)

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Yusef Wade was a talented two-way standout in high school and has already shown the ability to play on either side of the ball at Nebraska. Wade redshirted last season, but exhibited his skills as a scout team defensive back and earned Defensive Scout Team MVP honors. This spring the 5-10, 175-pound Wade switched to I-back where he hopes to battle for playing time in 2011.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Wade redshirted and worked as a defensive back. He was named Defensive Scout Team MVP.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORTH STAR HS)

Wade starred at Lincoln North Star his senior season, before choosing to walk on at Nebraska. He turned down a scholarship offer from North Dakota to play for the Huskers. Wade rushed for 1,580 yards and 13 touchdowns in 2009 to help his team finish with a 7-3 record. On defense, Wade was a ballhawk for the Gators, as he finished with 59 total tackles, three forced fumbles and one interception.

Wade was a first-team Class A all-state selection by the Omaha World-Herald and a second-team Super-State selection by the Lincoln Journal star at defensive back.

PERSONAL

Wade is the son of Tommy and Rosalinda Wade, and he was born on Jan. 6, 1992. Wade is a psychology major. He has participated in outreach activities at local schools and hospitals, as well as the Husker Heroes program.

» Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2008, 2010) » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2010, 2011)

Junior Lester Ward has provided depth at I-back the past two seasons, but made the switch to tight end in the spring. The 6-3, 230-pound Ward has the size that could fit well at the tight end spot, and he will battle for playing time behind returning starters Kyler Reed and Ben Cotton. Ward has seen action in seven games over the past two seasons in the backfield.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Ward played in two games and had a two-yard carry against Western Kentucky.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Ward played in five games and had 10 carries for 38 yards. His most significant time was at Baylor with three I-backs injured, and Ward had seven carries for 18 yards. He had two carries for 14 yards against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl. He had a carry against Arkansas State.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BRENHAM HS)

Ward was slowed by injury as a senior, but managed to help Coach Glen West's team to an 8-3 record and a district title by rushing for 1,200 yards. Ward was a second-team all-district pick. He played a key role for the Cubs in 2006, helping Brenham to a 12-2 record and a trip to the third round of the 4A state playoffs. Ward rushed for 972 yards and had about 200 receiving yards in 2006, despite missing four games. He earned second-team all-district accolades. Ward also saw action for Brenham High School as a freshman and sophomore.

Ward was a top-flight track athlete for Brenham. He competed in the hurdles and the triple jump and saw success on the state and national levels. Ward was second in the 110 high hurdles at the state track meet as a freshman and sophomore. He also finished second in the high hurdles and fifth in the triple jump at the Junior Olympics before his sophomore year of high school.

Ward earned academic all-district honors in both 2006 and 2007. He was listed on the Houston Chronicle's Greater Houston Top 100. Ward visited TCU, Baylor and Missouri before deciding on Nebraska.

PERSONAL

Lester is the son of Lester Sr. and Belene Ward and was born on Sept. 11, 1989. Lester Sr. played collegiately at Baylor and professionally for the Dallas Cowboys. Ward is a criminology and criminal justice major and has been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll four times. Ward has been a volunteer at the F Street Recreation Center and worked as a mentor at a local elementary school.

WARD'S CAREER STATISTICS

- » Games Played-7 (5 in 2009; 2 in 2010)
- » Rushing-11-40-0, 3.6 avg; 10-38-0 in 2009, long-9 vs. Arizona; 1-2-0 vs. WKU in 2010

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore Dijon Washington has provided depth in the Nebraska secondary the past two seasons, and this fall the California native is hopeful of breaking into the playing rotation at cornerback. Senior Alfonzo Dennard returns as the starter at one corner, and sophomore Ciante Evans gained valuable experience last season, but playing time for others is wide open heading into the fall. At 6-0 and 190 pounds, Washington has good size for the corner spot.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Washington added depth in the secondary, and made his debut in Nebraska's September win at Washington.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LEUZINGER HS)

Washington closed out an impressive career with a strong senior season at Leuzinger High School. Washington had about 70 tackles and two interceptions in 2008, helping his team to a 6-4 record. He was an all-league pick and a third-team CIF all-state selection for his efforts as a senior.

Washington was a standout on both sides of the ball in 2007. As a wide receiver, he caught 15 passes for approximately 300 yards and five scores. On defense, he earned first-team all-league honors after tallying 50 tackles, two interceptions and a sack. Washington also saw significant action as a sophomore. He chose Nebraska over Washington State, Oregon State and San Diego State.

PERSONAL

Washington was born on July 4, 1991, and is the son of Kemba Smith. He is majoring in business administration and was a 2010 Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll pick. Washington has volunteered his time with Nebraska's local hospital visits.

LINEBACKER | 6-1 | 235 | JUNIOR MADISONVILLE, TEXAS • MADISONVILLE ONE LETTER

» Nebraska Defensive Scout Team co-MVP (2008)

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior Alonzo Whaley is part of an impressive group of returnees at the linebacker position and hopes to find his way into the playing rotation this fall. The 6-1, 235-pound Whaley was thrust into action early last season when both Will Compton and Sean Fisher were sidelined by injury. Whaley started the season opener and his play throughout the year helped Nebraska rank among the national leaders in scoring, passing and total defense.

Whaley spent the spring working primarily at middle linebacker and the experience he gained last year helps make the NU linebacking corps one of the team's deepest units.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Whaley played in nine games, including a start against Western Kentucky. He made nine tackles, including six solo stops and had a career-high five tackles against the Hilltoppers. Whaley added a tackle for loss against South Dakota State, keeping the Jackrabbits out of the end zone on a fourth and goal attempt.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Whaley was a reserve linebacker, but did not see game action in 2009.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

He redshirted in 2008 and was named defensive scout team co-MVP.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MADISONVILLE HS)

Whaley was one of nine Texas natives in the 2008 Husker class, and was a standout at Madisonville High School. He showcased his ability to find the football as a senior with 162 tackles during the 2007 season, helping Madisonville and Coach Greg Morgan to a 9-2 record. In addition to his huge tackle numbers, Whaley also forced eight fumbles, recovered five and scored on an interception return.

Whaley's play earned him Defensive MVP honors in his district, along with first-team Class 3A all-state honors from the Texas Sportswriters Association. Whaley also earned first-team all-state honors in 2006, helping his team to a 7-4 record, while making 172 tackles. Whaley was ranked among the top 100 players in the state of Texas by Rivals.com. Whaley visited Oklahoma State and Louisiana Tech and drew strong recruiting interest from Baylor, Missouri, Texas A&M and Arizona State.

PERSONAL

Alonzo is the son of Annie Whaley, and was born on Jan. 4, 1990. He is a criminology and criminal justice major, and was named to the 2009 Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll. He has volunteered his time at the Village Manor Retirement Center and multiple hospital and elementary school visits.

AUSTIN WILLIAMS

DEFENSIVE BACK | 6-0 | 190 | R-FRESHMAN OMAHA, NEB. • BURKE

» Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

Omaha native Austin Williams joined the Nebraska program as a walk-on in 2010, and he is expected to add depth in the secondary this fall. The 6-0, 190-pound Williams spent the majority of his time this spring working at the safety spot, where Nebraska returns experienced starters Austin Cassidy, Courtney Osborne and P.J. Smith.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Williams redshirted and worked on the scout team defensive unit.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BURKE HS)

Williams was an honorable-mention Class A all-state selection by both the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star. He finished his senior year with 102 total tackles, 22 tackles for loss, nine sacks, two forced fumbles and six pass breakups from his linebacker spot. On offense, Williams rushed 48 times for 450 yards and seven touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 60 yards and three scores.

Williams chose to walk on to NU over several Division II scholarship offers and invitations to walk on from Iowa State and Kansas State.

PERSONAL

Austin is the son of Rodney and Marg Williams, and he was born on Oct. 2, 1991. He is a finance major and was selected to the Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll. Williams has participated in the Husker Heroes program, as well as local hospital visits.

2011 OUTLOOK

Junior defensive end Josh Williams saw a significant increase in playing time during his sophomore season, and is primed for another jump this fall. The 6-4, 260-pound Williams was a backup behind senior Pierre Allen at end last season, and this spring Williams regularly worked with the top defense with returning starter Cameron Meredith sidelined.

Williams is part of a defensive line that ranks among NU's deepest units and should help the Blackshirts again rank among the nation's top defensive units. Williams has added more than 30 pounds of muscle during his time in the Husker program.

2010 (SOPHOMORE)

Williams played in 13 games and totaled 12 tackles, a quarterback hurry and a forced fumble. He had a season-high three tackles against both Idaho and Iowa State. In the 38-17 win over the Vandals, Williams was also credited with a forced fumble. He had six tackles in the last five regular-season games.

2009 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Williams was a backup defensive end and played in three games. He had two solo stops and an assist, including a season-high two tackles against Florida Atlantic.

2008 (REDSHIRT)

Williams redshirted in his first season in the program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (RYAN HS)

Williams was one of nine Texans in the 2008 recruiting class and was a standout for Coach Joey Florence at Denton's Ryan High School his final two years. As a senior, Williams made 75 tackles, including 25 tackles for loss and 12 sacks, helping Ryan High School to a 6-5 record. He was a first-team all-district pick in the Class 4A ranks. Williams also earned first-team all-district honors as a junior in 2006, when he made 68 tackles, including 22 tackles for loss, and logged six sacks and six pass breakups.

Williams was regarded as one of the top 20 defensive ends in the country by ESPN. com, Rivals.com and Scout.com. Williams was also listed among the top 50 players in Texas by Rivals.com. Williams visited Colorado, Kansas, Kentucky and Missouri, and received offers from Texas and Texas A&M among others.

2011 NEBRASKA CORNHUSKERS

PERSONAL

Josh was born on Sept. 24, 1990, and is the son of Rose Williams. He is majoring in business administration. Williams has volunteered his time with team hospital visits. He is on track to earn his degree in December of 2011.

KEVIN WILLIAMS

#92

DEFENSIVE TACKLE | 6-2 | 270 | FRESHMAN HOLLAND, OHIO • SPRINGFIELD

2011 OUTLOOK

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SPRINGFIELD HS)

Williams was a standout defensive lineman at Springfield High School in Holland, Ohio, for Coach Vince Marrow, now a Husker graduate assistant. Williams racked up more than 260 total tackles and 25 sacks in his final two seasons. As a senior, Williams had 111 tackles, including 36 solo stops and 10 sacks. His play earned Williams Division II co-defensive player-of-the-year honors in Ohio, and first-team All-Ohio accolades.

Williams earned honorable-mention Division II all-state honors as a junior when he recorded better than 150 tackles, including 15 sacks and 15 other stops behind the line of scrimmage. Williams was regarded as one of the top 20 defensive tackles in the nation according to ESPN, and among the top 40 interior defensive linemen by both Rivals.com and Scout.com. Rivals.com ranked him among the top 20 players in the talent-rich state of Ohio. Williams committed to Nebraska in April of 2010, and did not take any other visits, but had offers from Michigan, Michigan State, Wisconsin, Oregon, Illinois and Stanford to name a few.

PERSONAL

Kevin is the son of Lisa and Mark Deel, and he was born on May 8, 1993. Williams has not yet declared a major. He volunteered his time as a speaker at a local elementary school in the spring.

WIDE RECEIVER | 6-1 | 195 | R-FRESHMAN UTICA, NEB. • CENTENNIAL

» Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll (2010)

2011 OUTLOOK

Redshirt freshman Tyler Wullenwaber was a multi-sport high school standout who enters his second year as a walk-on in the Nebraska program. A native of Utica, Neb., the 6-1, 195-pound Wullenwaber hopes to compete for playing time at wide receiver, where Nebraska has a number of talented young athletes.

2010 (REDSHIRT)

Wullenwaber redshirted and worked with the scout team offense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CENTENNIAL HS)

Wullenwaber had a standout high school athletic career at Centennial High School. In football, he set school records for career receiving yards (1,994), season receiving yards (954), career receptions (101), career touchdowns (26) and touchdowns in a season (13). As a senior, Wullenwaber had his best season with 41 receptions for 954 yards and 13 scores. He was a first-team Class C-1 all-state selection by the Lincoln Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald, Wullenwaber also starred in track and field. He won Class B long jump crowns in 2008, 2009 and 2010, and won the high jump as a senior and the 200 meters as a junior. He also finished third in the 200 meters and fourth in the 100 meters as a senior. Wullenwaber chose to walk on at NU after being recruited by several Division II schools, including Northwest Missouri State, Nebraska-Omaha and Wayne State.

PERSONAL

Tyler is the son of Donald and Karla Wullenwaber, and he was born on Nov. 25, 1991. He is majoring in business administration, and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Academic Honor Roll. Wullenwaber has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes and local hospital visits.

- » Big 12 Commissioner's Spring Academic Honor Roll (2010, 2011)
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2011)

2011 OUTLOOK

Sophomore C.J. Zimmerer heads into the 2011 season looking to bid for playing time at the fullback spot. The 6-0, 235-pound Zimmerer is expected to contend for playing time along with returning senior starter Tyler Legate, and the fullback position could have an expanded role in Nebraska's new-look offensive attack. An Omaha native, Zimmerer has the ability to be a threat as both a runner and receiver, while having the strength and toughness to be an effective lead blocker from the position. Zimmerer is strong in the classroom, carrying a 3.741 cumulative gradepoint average.

2010 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Zimmerer backed up Legate at fullback, and appeared in Nebraska victories over Western Kentucky, Kansas State and Colorado.

2009 (REDSHIRT)

Zimmerer redshirted and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (OMAHA GROSS HS)

Zimmerer was a two-way standout for Coach Tim Johnk at Omaha Gross High School each of his final three seasons. Zimmerer posted impressive numbers on both sides of the ball as a senior in 2008. As a running back, he posted 1,325 yards and 17 touchdowns, while averaging better than 10 yards per carry. Defensively, Zimmerer was a force at linebacker, where he made 90 tackles, including nine tackles for loss, and added a pair of interceptions.

His performance as a senior helped Gross to a 9-2 record and a trip to the second round of the Class B state playoffs. Zimmerer was named to the Lincoln Journal Star Super-State first team as a fullback, while the Omaha World-Herald made him a first-team All-Nebraska pick at linebacker. He was also the honorary captain of the World-Herald's Class B all-state defense.

During his junior season, he ran for 701 yards and 11 touchdowns on just 88 carries, while making 123 tackles, including five sacks on defense. His play as a junior earned him first-team Class B all-state honors from both the state's largest papers. He also started on the Cougar defense during his sophomore season.

Zimmerer also played basketball at Gross prior to his senior season and competed for the Cougars' track team. He was one of the first players to join the 2009 recruiting class, committing to the Huskers in May 2008.

PERSONA

The son of Tim and Jackie Zimmerer, C.J. was born on May 23, 1991. Zimmerer is majoring in criminology and criminal justice and has been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll each of his first four semesters at Nebraska. He has volunteered his time with team hospital and school visits, Husker Connect and the YWCA. His extensive outreach work earned Zimmerer a spot on the 2011 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME PLAYERS

The University of Nebraska is well represented at the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind. In 2011, Will Shields will become the 15th former NU player to stand alongside the six former Husker coaches inducted into the Hall. Before Shields, the last Husker to be honored among the elite field was two-time All-American rush end Grant Wistrom, who was enshrined in 2009. Former All-America tackle Ed Weir claimed the honor as the first Husker player enshrined, while coaches Fielding Yost and Dana X. Bible were also inducted the same year (1951). Coach Tom Osborne, inducted in 1998, is the most recent Husker coach enshrined in the hall.

HUSKER COACHING LEGENDS

BOB DEVANEY

Head Coach | 1962-1972 Record: 101-20-2 (.829, 11th all-time)

One man tops the list of people responsible for the success of the University of Nebraska athletic teams – Bob Devaney. For 35 years he was the driving force behind the University of Nebraska championships, first as a Hall of Fame football

DEVANEY CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- » Hall of Fame Coach
- » Two National Titles (1970, 1971)
- » Athletic Director (1967-93)

coach (1962-72), then as Athletic Director (1967-93) and Athletic Director Emeritus (1993-96). Devaney retired in 1996 and lived in Lincoln until he passed away at the age of 82 on May 9, 1997.

Devaney's mark will remain forever. The memories of the storybook national championship seasons of 1970 and 1971 will continue to inspire generations of Husker fans for years to come. His commitment to building one of the nation's best all-around athletic programs is reinforced with every athletic and academic honor earned by Husker student-athletes. And his legacy continues with the passing of each successful season.

From the time he took over athletic director duties for Tippy Dye in 1967, to his final year as athletic director in 1993, his vigor, enthusiasm and administrative excellence earned him a reputation as one of the nation's outstanding athletic directors. Those characteristics helped make him a football coaching legend. A 1981 inductee into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame, under Devaney's leadership Nebraska developed one of the nation's most successful all-around athletic programs.

During his 11-year stint as Husker football coach, Devaney's teams won 101 games, lost only 20 and tied two for an .829 winning percentage. His career mark of 136-30-7 (.806) ranked him as the nation's winningest active coach at the time of his retirement in 1973, and he ranks 11th on the all-time list today, six spots behind the man he tabbed as his replacement. Tom Osborne.

In all, his Husker gridiron teams won eight Big Eight titles and two national championships (1970, 1971) and went to nine bowl games. He wound up with three straight Orange Bowl wins, two Outland Trophy winners, a Lombardi Award winner and a Heisman Trophy winner. Twice his teams won four consecutive Big Eight titles, 1963-66 and 1969-72.

TOM OSBORNE

Head Coach | 1973-1997 Record: 255-49-3 (.836, 5th all-time)

OSBORNE CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

» Athletic Director (2007-present)

» Three National Titles (1994, 1995, 1997)

The words were inscribed on Memorial Stadium's northwest corner some 14 years before he was born; "Courage; Generosity; Fairness; Honor; In these are the true awards of manly sports." How fitting then, that the field inside that historic stadium is now called Tom Osborne Field in honor of a man, who in 25 seasons, built a total program based on more than winning.

His era of excellence continues even today as he is serving as athletic director at Nebraska, taking over in October of 2007.

Osborne's coaching career came to a poetic end in the 1998 Orange Bowl. In his final game, the Huskers defeated No. 3 Tennessee, 42-17, giving him a share of a third national title in his final four seasons. The victory left Osborne as the first coach in college football history to retire as a reigning national champion, along with the nation's best active winning percentage (.836, 255-49-3), which ranked fifth all-time among Division I coaches.

Osborne guided the Huskers to back-to-back titles in 1994 and 1995, then capped his career by sharing the 1997 title with Michigan. Nebraska's back-to-back national titles in 1994-95 made Osborne the first coach to accomplish that feat since Bear Bryant led Alabama to titles in 1978-79. Under Osborne, NU became just the second school all time to post back-to-back perfect national championship seasons. In fact, Osborne's last five Nebraska teams put together the best five-year run in collegiate football history with an amazing 60-3 record.

Osborne-coached Nebraska teams captured 13 conference crowns and all 25 of his Husker teams won at least nine games and went to a bowl. Achievements of that magnitude earned Osborne an immediate ticket to the College Football Hall of Fame in December of 1998, after it waived the customary three-year wait for entrance into the hall.

A Hastings, Neb., native, Osborne served Nebraska for three terms in the U.S. House of Representatives as a congressman from the third district. Osborne took over as athletic director at Nebraska in 2007 (full bio on page 192).

Grant Wistrom, a two-time All-American on the field and in the classroom, won the Lombardi Award and the NCAA Top Eight Award in 1998. He was also named a National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete. After leading NU to three national titles, Wistrom played in three Super Bowls.

NATION-LEADING 16 NCAA TOP EIGHT AWARDS

The highest honor the National Collegiate Athletic Association can bestow on a studentathlete is The Top Eight Award. The award is based not only on outstanding athletic accomplishments, but on excellent academic records and leadership ability in community and campus activities.

The University of Nebraska earned its NCAAleading 16th Top Eight Award in January of 2008 when volleyball player Sarah Pavan was announced at the NCAA honors dinner. Pavan was a four-time academic All-American and two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year in volleyball. She was Nebraska's third Top Eight Award winner this decade.

The Husker football program has nine of Nebraska's 16 Top Eight Award winners, most recently All-America rush end Grant Wistrom who was a 1998 honoree. Wistrom's selection gave Nebraska nine Top Eight honorees in the 1990s. Two Huskers received the award in both 1990 and 1991, the only times that a school had more than one student-athlete honored. Nine of Nebraska's Top Eight picks were football players, making the Husker grid program the most decorated in the country.

In the 1990s, six Husker football players were awarded the Top Eight honor, including Aaron

Graham (1996), Rob Zatechka (1995), Trev Alberts (1994), Pat Tyrance (1991) and Jake Young (1990). Randy Schleusener (1981) was the first Husker to win the award, followed by Dave Rimington (1983) and Mark Traynowicz (1985).

Nebraska's success in the classroom also extends to other sports. Along with nine football players who have won the Top Eight Award, four Husker volleyball players (Sarah Pavan-2008, Virginia Stahr-1990, Janet Kruse-1992, Nancy Metcalf-2002), two men's gymnasts (Tom Schlesinger-1989, Patrick Kirksey-1991) and one women's gymnast (Richelle Simpson-2005) have also claimed the honor.

VARSITY LETTERMAN LIST

NOTE: The following list is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Corrections and additions will be made if documentation is provided. In each entry, the year is listed for each letter won. For example in the listing for Willard Burnham, the years are 1924-26, meaning Burnham lettered in 1924 and 1926 but not in 1925. Lettermen lists are not available for the 1890, 1891 and 1895 seasons. Players are listed by hometown and the last position they played at Nebraska.

121 YEARS OF NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

Notes on the Associated Press Poll: The rankings indicated in all instances below are at game time, with Nebraska's to the left of the slash and the opponent's to the right. If a slash is alone, neither team was ranked at game time. Early-season games from 1936 to 1949 have no slash because the first polls in those seasons were not taken until after the season began. From 1936 to 1960 and 1968 to 1988, AP ranked the top 20 teams, from 1961 to 1967 the top 10, and since 1989, the top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, is Football Rankings, College teams in the Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, compiled by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C.; McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

COACH DR. LANGDON FROTHINGHAM

(Harvard) 2-0-0 (1.000), 1890

A faculty member, Langdon Frothingham helped the first squad become one of only two in the history of NU football to go unscored upon, outscoring opponents, 28-0, in two games. Dr. Frothingham broke his leg while scrimmaging with the team in preparation for the Doane game and may have coached on the sideline with crutches.

COACH W.C. "KING" COLE

(Marietta, 1902) 25-8-3 (.736), 1907-10

W.C. "King" Cole took over the reins after playing football under Fielding Yost at Michigan. Cole coached Nebraska to an 85-0 win over Doane in the last game on the field that preceded the Nebraska Athletic Field. His final season as coach marked NU's first unshared Missouri Valley Conference title. His last game as coach was a 119-0 win over Haskell, which still ranks as the most points a Cornhusker team has ever scored.

COACH EWALD O. "JUMBO" STIEHM

Lincoln

(Wisconsin, 1909) 35-2-3 (.913), 1911-15

Under Ewald O. "Jumbo" Stiehm's direction, Nebraska won or tied for the Missouri Valley Conference championship every season. His winning percentage of .913 ranks as the highest in school history. His teams recorded a 34-game unbeaten streak, the longest in school history. Also Nebraska's basketball coach, he was the only coach in Big Eight history to win football and basketball titles in the same academic year. He was the first year-round coach in school history, but he went to Indiana University after NU refused to increase his salary to $4,250.

COACH HENRY SCHULTE

(Michigan, 1907) 8-6-3 (.559), 1919-20

Nebraska hired track and field coach Henry Schulte away from Missouri in 1919. Schulte was known as a master in the teaching of line play. He coached the linemen under Fred Dawson and Ernest Bearg after giving up the head coaching duties in 1920. He served as the Nebraska track coach from 1919 through 1938 and led his teams to 15 conference titles.

NEBRASKA'S UNBEATEN STREAK

Nebraska produced a school-record 34-game unbeaten streak beginning with a 41-0 win over Adrian on Oct. 26, 1912, and ending with a 7-3 loss to Kansas on Nov. 18, 1916. NU added a 32-game unbeaten streak from 1969 to 1972.

COACH FRED DAWSON

(Princeton, 1910) 23-7-2 (.750), 1921-24

Fred Dawson's first three teams won Missouri Valley titles. Dawson coached Nebraska's first game in Memorial Stadium, a 24-0 win over Oklahoma on Oct. 13, 1923.

NEBRASKA IN THE POLLS

The Associated Press poll began in 1936, and Nebraska came in at No. 15 in the first-ever regular-season poll on Oct. 24. The Huskers finished with a No. 9 final national ranking that year. From 1936 through 1949, the AP polls did not come out until October. Beginning in 1950, AP polls were issued weekly throughout the entire regular season. Until 1964, all final rankings are based on regular-season finishes and do not include bowl game results. In 1965, the AP final rankings became post-bowl rankings (with the exception of 1966). In 1974, the UPI final ranking also became postbowl, and since then all final rankings have included bowl results.

ERNEST E. BEARG

(Illinois) 23-7-3 (.742), 1925-28

Ernest E. Bearg won Nebraska's first Big Six title in 1928 when his team went 7-1-1. Despite fielding powerful teams during his four years, fans criticized him for not using strategy and deception, which eventually led to his resignation. Bearg also spent one year as men's basketball coach (1926) and posted an 8-10 record

COACH BOB DEVANEY

(Alma, 1939) 101-20-2 (.829), 1962-72

Bob Devaney won back-to-back national titles in 1970 and 1971 and eight Big Eight crowns. He retired in 1973 with a career record of 136-30-7 (.806), which left him as the winningest active coach in the nation. In 1971, he was named coach of the year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers of America, Football News and the Washington Touchdown Club. Devaney was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1981 and into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1976. His 11-year stint as head football coach is the second longest in school history behind only Tom Osborne. He was Nebraska's athletic director from 1967 to 1992 and served as athletic director emeritus for four years, before retiring June 30, 1996. Devaney passed away on May 9, 1997.

COACH TOM OSBORNE (Hastings, 1959) 255-49-3 (.836), 1973-97

Tom Osborne was hand-picked by Bob Devaney as his successor and served as assistant head coach in 1972. Osborne is credited as the offensive genius behind Devaney's national championship teams from 1967 to 1972. Osborne won back-to-back national championships in 1994 and 1995, and a third national title in 1997. During his 25 seasons, Nebraska won 13 conference championships and went to 25 consecutive bowl games, including 17 "major" bowls. His teams won nine or more games every year and 11 national rushing titles. His athletes won six Outlands, three Lombardis, one Heisman, one Butkus and one Johnny Unitas Award. He was the fastest coach in college football history to win 200 games, doing it in just 21 seasons, and the fastest coach to reach 250 wins. In his last five seasons, Osborne's teams posted a 60-3 record, the most wins in a five-year span by any team in collegiate history.

and served as a full-time assistant

COACH FRANK SOLICH

(Nebraska, 1966) 58-19 (.753), 1998-03 Frank Solich was named Tom Osborne's successor on Dec. 10, 1997. He guided NU to a 12-1 record, Big 12 Championship and No. 2 final ranking in the coaches poll in 1999. In 2001, Solich led the Huskers to an 11-2 record and an appearance in the BCS title game in the Rose Bowl. In 2003, Solich coached Nebraska to a 9-3 regular-season record, but did not coach NU in the Alamo Bowl, as defensive coordinator Bo Pelini served as interim head coach. Solich was a member of Bob Devaney's first recruiting class in 1962. As a fullback, Solich earned All-Big Eight honors in 1965 and was the first Husker to rush for 200 yards in a game.

COACH BILL CALLAHAN (Illinois Benedictine, 1978)

27-22 (.551), 2004-07

Bill Callahan came to Nebraska less than one year after leading the Oakland Raiders to Super Bowl XXXVII. The 27th head coach in Nebraska football history, Callahan became one of just five coaches in history to return to college football after leading an NFL team to the Super Bowl. During Callahan's tenure, Nebraska shattered numerous school passing records. He led Nebraska to two bowl games and a Big 12 North title during his tenure.

COACH BO PELINI

(Ohio State, 1990) 30-12 (.714), 2008-present

The 28th Nebraska head coach, Pelini became just the fourth coach in NU history to win nine games in his first season, joining Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne and Frank Solich. His nine wins also tied for the most among 18 first-year 2008 coaches and the most among first-time head coaches. He became the first coach to share a piece of the Big 12 division title in each of his first three seasons in the league after capturing one shared title and two outright crowns in his three seasons in the Big 12. Pelini became NU's head coach after five seasons as the most successful defensive coordinator in college football. Pelini also served nine seasons as an assistant in the NFL, winning a Super Bowl title with the San Francisco 49ers.

Josephine (Jo) R. Potuto, the Richard H. Larson Professor of Constitutional Law, has been Nebraska's faculty representative (FAR) at the NCAA and conference level since May 15, 1997.

For the past three years, Potuto has been president of the 1A FAR (FARs from FBS institutions). In 2002, she was named Outstanding Faculty Athletics Representative by the All-American Football Foundation.

Potuto spent nine years (the maximum) on the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions (chair her last two years) and currently substitutes on the Committee when a member cannot serve. She is a past Big 12 Conference representative on the NCAA Division I Management Council, served on the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship Committee, and currently serves on an NCAA-wide (all divisions) committee to advise NCAA staff on student-athlete issues.

Potuto is an expert on NCAA enforcement and infractions processes as well as on the general NCAA committee structure and has authored several articles on NCAA processes and operations. She has testified before the House Subcommittee on the Constitution regarding due process in NCAA infractions hearings and has made presentations to the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics. She also has lectured on NCAA processes and issues at, among others, the Universities of Istanbul, Washington, Maryland, and Baltimore. Potuto is a past adviser to the Uniform Law Commissioners Committee to draft a sports agent statute, has drafted rules governing search and seizure and hearings for the Nebraska Racing Commission, and also has written on issues of gender equity in college athletics.

At Nebraska, Potuto is a member of the academic senate as well as the senate's intercollegiate athletics committee. She also served on Nebraska's NCAA site certification steering committee.

Potuto teaches constitutional law, procedural and criminal law, federal jurisdiction, and sports law. She has been a visiting professor of law at the University of Arizona, Rutgers University, the Cardozo College of Law at New York's Yeshiva University, the University of Oregon, the University of North Carolina, and Seton Hall University. She has worked as an assistant prosecutor in the Essex and Morris County (N.J.) prosecutor's offices.

Potuto was project director and a drafter of the Uniform Law Commissioners Sentencing and Corrections Act, as well as the drafter for the Nebraska Supreme Court Committee to Draft Criminal Jury Instructions. She is the author of three books and numerous articles. She also is a member of the American Law Institute.

Potuto earned her bachelor's degree in journalism at Rutgers' Douglass College; her master's degree in English literature at Seton Hall; and her juris doctorate at the Rutgers Law College. She is a member of the bars of Nebraska and New Jersey and is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and the U.S. District Courts for Nebraska and New Jersey.

Athletic Director | Fourth Year Hastings College (1959)

Hall of Fame football coach Tom Osborne has continued to leave a lasting impression on the history of Nebraska Athletics since returning to lead the Husker program as the school's 13th athletic director on Oct. 16, 2007. Osborne, who led Nebraska to three national championships (1994, 1995, 1997) and 255 victories in his 25 years as the Huskers' head football coach, has continued to use his impressive leadership skills to guide the NU athletic department as a whole over the past four seasons.

With the core values of integrity, trust, respect, teamwork and loyalty serving as guiding principles for Nebraska's 23-sport program as a whole, Osborne has made historic decisions to help the University of Nebraska athletic programs for years to come.

In June of 2010, Osborne joined Nebraska Chancellor Harvey Perlman and Big Ten Conference Commissioner Jim Delany to announce the Huskers would join the Big Ten beginning on July 1, 2011. Nebraska's move to the Big Ten is expected to add University-wide academic opportunities, while providing financial stability for the athletic department for years to come.

Just a few months later, Osborne announced an aggressive expansion plan for the east side of Memorial Stadium that will increase attendance past 90,000 for the first time, while continuing Nebraska's NCAA record-setting sellout streak. The expansion, which is set for completion before the 2013 football season, will include athletic and academic research components.

In the spring of 2010, the city of Lincoln also received voter approval to begin construction on a 16,000-seat downtown arena, which will serve as the new competitive home for both Nebraska men's and women's basketball programs beginning in 2013-14.

The basketball programs, the wrestling program and many of NU's other sports will also benefit from the Hendricks Training Complex at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. The facility, which is set to open in October of 2011, will include new practice and team areas, in addition to expanded athletic medicine and strength training areas.

The Nebraska baseball and softball programs will also benefit from a new indoor practice facility at Haymarket Park, which is scheduled to open in September of 2011.

The first step in Osborne's aggressive building plan for Nebraska's facilities began in the summer of 2010, as the Huskers broke ground on the Student Life Complex on the west side of Memorial Stadium. The Student Life Complex, which opened in the fall of 2010, directly benefits every Husker student-athlete with expanded academic resources.

While Osborne has helped initiate landmark moves off the field, he has continued to help coaches and student-athletes focus on Nebraska's tradition of success in competition. In fact, the Huskers have enjoyed renewed success in Osborne's first four years as athletic director.

In 2010-11, eight Husker teams finished among the top 20 in the nation, while 15 NU squads advanced to postseason play in their respective sports, including the Husker football team's second straight Holiday Bowl appearance.

One of Osborne's first major decisions as athletic director was to hire Bo Pelini as the Huskers' football coach. Pelini, who had spent the 2003 campaign as NU's defensive coordinator, has energized Nebraska's storied tradition with back-to-back 10-win seasons and a trio of Big 12 North Division titles in his first three years. In 2009 and 2010, Pelini's Huskers finished among the top 20 teams in the nation in the final polls.

The tradition-rich NU volleyball program has claimed three Big 12 titles and advanced to three NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, while the women's basketball program has earned two NCAA Tournament trips, while notching the best season in school history with a 2010 Big 12 title and a berth in the NCAA Sweet 16. The NU wrestling program shared the 2009 Big 12 title and finished in the top 16 at four straight NCAA Championships. The NU men's and women's track and field teams combined for three conference crowns, while producing seven top-20 finishes indoors and outdoors over the past four years.

The men's and women's gymnastics teams have produced top-10 NCAA finishes the past two years, including a school-record-tying fourth-place showing by the women in 2011. The Husker bowling team won the 2009 NCAA title and has finished in the top eight at the NCAA Championships each of the past four years. The NU rifle team has produced a pair of top-six NCAA finishes in the last four years, while the men's and women's tennis teams both earned NCAA Tournament trips in 2010 and 2011. The 2010 NCAA first-round victory for the women was the first in school history, while the men's appearance in 2010 was the first in school history.

The Husker softball team has made three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, while the Husker women's golf and baseball programs both earned NCAA Regional bids in 2008

Osborne made his second coaching hire since his return to Nebraska, when he named two-time Major League All-Star, three-time Gold Glove award winner, and former No. 1 MLB Draft pick Darin Erstad as the baseball team's new coach on June 2, 2011. Erstad was not only one of the best Husker baseball players in history, he was the starting punter on NU's 1994 national championship football team coached by Osborne.

While the Huskers have continued to make advancements in competition and in recruiting under Osborne's guidance, they have continued to set the bar high academically. Nebraska led the Big 12 with 14 COSIDA Academic All-Americans in 2010-11, increasing its nation-leading total to 291 COSIDA Academic All-Americans all-time, across all sports. The Huskers also led the Big 12 with a league-record 192 academic all-conference selections, along with a conference-record 688 Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll selections. NU graduated 107 student-athletes from August of 2010 through May of 2011.

Before being asked by Chancellor Perlman to return to Nebraska as athletic director in 2007, Osborne served three terms in the U.S. House of Representatives (Nebraska's 3rd congressional district) from 2000 to 2006.

He returned to academia following a 2006 gubernatorial bid, serving as a senior lecturer at Nebraska in the College of Business Administration, teaching leadership and business ethics, in the fall of 2007. Osborne also worked as a consultant for local college athletic departments for two years.

Osborne and his wife, Nancy, continue to pour their time and support into the TeamMates mentoring program, which they founded in 1991. TeamMates provides encouragement to school-aged youth to help them graduate from high school and pursue a post-secondary education.

Osborne's leadership of the TeamMates program began while he was putting the final touches on one of the best coaching careers in college football history. The Hastings, Neb., native, who earned master's and doctoral degrees in educational psychology from the University of Nebraska, was named NU's 25th head coach following the 1972 season.

In 25 seasons with Osborne at the helm, the Huskers mounted a 255-49-3 record - the sixth-most wins in major college history. Osborne's .836 winning percentage ranked fifth all-time. His career came to a close with a 42-17 win over No. 3 Tennessee in the 1998 Orange Bowl, when he became the first coach in college football history to retire as a reigning national champion. Following his career, he became one of just four coaches in history to have the mandatory three-year waiting period waived for induction into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in December of 1998.

Osborne's 1994 and 1995 teams allowed Nebraska to become just the second school in history to post back-to-back perfect national championship seasons (Oklahoma 1955-56). Nebraska put together the best five-year run in college football history from 1993 to 1997, going 60-3 with five straight 11-win seasons.

Osborne led NU to 13 conference crowns, including six of his last seven seasons on the sideline. All 25 of his Husker teams won at least nine games and went to a bowl, while 15 won 10-or-more games.

In the classroom, the NU football program totaled 65 COSIDA Academic All-America awards in Osborne's 25 years. In fact, he accumulated more football Academic All-Americans in his 25 years as coach than any other football program in the nation has produced in its history.

Prior to becoming head coach, Osborne spent five seasons under Devaney, helping the Huskers win back-to-back national championships in 1970 and 1971. In 1973, Osborne succeeded Devaney, who also served as Nebraska's Athletic Director from 1967 to 1993.

Osborne and his wife, Nancy, have three adult children, Mike, Ann and Suzanne and four grandchildren.

NEBRASKA MEDIA SERVICES

NEBRASKA MEDIA RELATIONS

The Nebraska Media Relations Office is available to assist you with coverage of the Nebraska football program. The Media Relations Office is located on the third floor of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex in the North end of Memorial Stadium.

For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, press conferences, etc., please call the Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263, visit Huskers.com or e-mail Assistant Athletic Director for Media Relations Keith Mann (kmann@huskers.com), Associate Media Relations Director Shamus McKnight (smcknight@huskers.com) or Assistant Media Relations Director Matt Smith (msmith@huskers.com). Below are guidelines for covering Nebraska during the season. Additions or changes to these policies can be found at Huskers.com/media.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Nebraska utilizes an on-line credentialing system. Directions regarding the application process will be sent to media members. Out-of-state media can contact Vicki Capazo in the Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263 for further assistance.

As a general rule, working space in the Nebraska Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for next day publication; (2) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (3) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (4) press and TV working photographers; (5) official school student daily newspaper, one seat and/or sideline only; (6) approved special coverage as space allows. Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials, except by approval of MRD.

MEDIA ACCESS

Memorial Stadium access for the media is at the Media Gate entrance on street level on the west side of the stadium. The working press area is on Level 6 (Don Bryant Media Facility) with the photo and television deck on Level 7. Level 3 (West Stadium Club) and Levels 4 and 5 (Skybox Suites) of the West Stadium and Level 7 of the North Stadium (suites) are not open to the media or public.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking at Memorial Stadium is always at a premium, with a limited number of spaces allocated to the media. Media parking is divided among several lots around Memorial Stadium. Early arrival is strongly suggested. No cars will be admitted to the primary media lot directly south of the stadium later than 90 minutes before kickoff.

Each media outlet will receive one complimentary parking pass. Media outlets will be charged for additional parking passes ($15/each). See page 206 for specific directions to assigned lots.

WEEKLY MONDAY MEDIA LUNCHEON

Each Monday during game weeks, Nebraska hosts a media luncheon. Press luncheons will be held on Level 6 of the press facility. A light lunch buffet is served at 11 a.m., followed by Coach Bo Pelini's weekly news conference at 11:30 a.m.

Requested Husker players will also be available pending class schedules. Generally, player interviews will be held after Coach Pelini's press conference until 1 p.m.; however some players may be made available before 11:30 a.m., depending on individual class schedules.

Media requesting Nebraska players for the press conference should do so by 3 p.m. Sunday to the Media Relations Office. Transcripts of Pelini's press conference comments will be available on Huskers.com.

Out-of-town media wishing to listen to the weekly news conference may do so via telephone. The dial-in number and weekly passcode may be obtained by contacting the Nebraska Media Relations Office (402) 472-2263 no later than 10 a.m. Monday morning. Lines are limited.

Media planning any live coverage of the press conference (television, radio, internet) must first request permission from the Media Relations Office.

INTERVIEW POLICY

During the season, Coach Bo Pelini is available in person for media interviews at the Monday news conference and on the field after practice on Thursday. Coach Pelini is also available each Tuesday on the Big Ten teleconference (Time TBD). Please contact the Big Ten office at (847) 696-1010 for details. Any other interviews with Pelini must be arranged through the Media Relations Office at least one day in advance.

Nebraska players are available for interviews in person or by telephone after practice on Monday and Tuesday. Players who appear at the Monday press conference will NOT be available following Monday practice. Player interviews can occasionally be set up for other time before practice with at least one day advance notice to the Media Relations Office. All requests for player and coach interviews must go through the Media Relations Office.

Interviews with assistant coaches can be conducted following practice on designated days, or arranged in advance through the Media Relations Office.

No interviews are to be conducted in the locker room, training room, weight room or Nebraska Student Life Complex. Freshmen and redshirt freshmen are not available for interviews until they have participated in a game.

DAILY PRACTICES

During the season, practices are normally conducted either in Memorial Stadium, in the Hawks Championship Center, or on the Ed and Joyanne Gass Practice Fields northeast of the stadium, beginning at approximately 3:30 p.m. All practices are closed to the media and public. Media wishing to interview Nebraska players or coaches after practice should come to the designated location based on the practice site shortly before the end of practice. Media relations staff will escort media to the practice field at the conclusion of practice. Please contact the Media Relations Office to verify practice times.

Photographers and videographers are allowed to shoot the opening portion of practice on designated days. Media are asked to remain on the sidelines or behind the fence at Memorial Stadium during this time. When on the Gass practice fields, media may not stand between the two practice fields during this time. No interviews are to be conducted during this time period and these segments may not be aired or streamed live on television or the internet. Live practice reports of any kind are not permitted from the practice site (radio, blogs, social media, etc.). Media will be asked to leave the practice site to use their cell phones or mobile devices.

Contact the Media Relations Office for the exact time and location of each day's practice.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Nebraska's locker room is closed after games, both home and away, but Coach Bo Pelini and requested players and assistant coaches will be available for interviews following a brief cooling-off period. For home games, only coaches, players and staff members will be admitted to the tunnel and locker room after the game, but Coach Pelini and requested personnel will be brought to the interview room (Ndamukong Suh Strength Complex). Admittance to the interview area will be by media credential only. Media should access the area via the door on the northeast corner of the Osborne Athletic Complex. For away games, the best available interview area will be used. Requests for player and assistant coach interviews, home and away, will be taken by Keith Mann at the end of the third quarter. Non-requested players making significant plays in the fourth quarter will be added as a matter of course.

Nebraska players and coaches will not do interviews on the field after the game.

The visiting locker room at Memorial Stadium is located underneath the South Stadium. The visiting team interview area is just off the main tunnel leading to the visitor's locker room.

Media planning to carry the press conference live should request permission from the Nebraska Media Relations Office before doing so. If media are planning to do live interviews on the field after the game, they should make advance arrangements with the Media Relations Office, as well as contact Scott Guthrie in HuskerVision (402-472-4645).

SIDELINE POLICIES

The Big Ten Conference maintains a strict sideline control policy in an effort to keep the playing area as safe as possible. All sideline photographers must have a photo vest and a photo pass, and both must be clearly visible. Vests will be issued beginning three hours before game time. Vests will be issued to media members with a photo pass who will be shooting still photos or video during the game. Media without a photo vest may access the sideline during pre-game and in the final five minutes of the game. Special exceptions to this also include interviews with special guests on the field at halftime, quarter breaks, etc. All other media should work from their assigned location on Level 6 or Level 7.

Those individuals receiving a photo vest will be asked to sign a waiver concerning the usage of photos at the time they check out the vests. Vests may be returned to one of four locations following the game: Nebraska post-game interview room, opponent post-game interview room, press box, photographers work area (located on field level at the northeast corner of the stadium).

The Big Ten sideline control policy: (1) Only those photographers on assignment from a newspaper, magazine, television station or a participating institution, are given credentials. Each student publication may be limited to one press and/or one sideline photo pass. (2) Only those newspapers with Sunday and/or daily editions are eligible for sideline passes. (Special requests must be submitted to the Media Relations Director for review). (3) Cutline writers, equipment carriers, and/or other socalled "assistants" will not be allowed on the sideline. (4) Photographers must display their credentials (photo pass and vest) at all times. (5) University personnel are to be deployed on the sideline to ensure that all credentials are properly displayed. Those possessing bench passes (45) must remain inside the team bench area (between the 25-yard lines). (6) Photographers may not enter the bench area at any time. (7) Photographers are not permitted to congregate in the writers' section of the media facility during half time, during or after the game.

A photographers work area is available on field level, just off the northeast corner of the playing field.

FACILITY USE RESTRICTIONS

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has an interest in protecting its facilities, property and reputation associated with its intercollegiate sports. Therefore, no person shall be permitted to access or use the arenas, facilities and other University of Nebraska intercollegiate athletic venues without first securing the permission of the Athletic Director or his/her designee. The only exception is an individual who records an image (e.g. photograph, videotape) for his/her non-commercial personal use. In no case shall any person be permitted to use these venues for the purposes of promoting the sale or manufacture of alcohol or tobacco or the promotion of any venture associated directly or indirectly with legal or illegal gaming or gambling.

TELEVISION, RADIO, INTERNET BROADCAST RIGHTS AND RESTRICTIONS

Nebraska, its opponent and the respective conference designate the broadcast rights for all games. No pregame coverage shall be permitted for two hours before the game without the express permission of the University of Nebraska, the Big Ten Conference and the broadcast rights holder. Live postgame interviews may not be aired while the television rights holder is still on the air.

Per the Big Ten Conference, a maximum of two minutes (2:00) of game video footage (without audio) may be utilized during the seven days following the conclusion of the game solely within regularly scheduled bona fide news programming distributed via television, and may not be distributed via the internet, wireless or other forms of media.

Any secondary use of any picture, photograph, audio description, video, film/tape, drawing or other description of a game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including, but not limited to use in delayed editorial or non-editorial advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the Big Ten Conference. Nothing in these terms and conditions authorizes or allows bearer to violate any of the trademarks, copyright and other proprietary rights of the Big Ten Conference.

This restriction also includes highlights of games while in progress (live or recorded). Use of video highlights in any other manner or any media distribution platform without the advanced written permission of the Big Ten Conference is expressly prohibited. Any agency wishing to use film or video in any other manner must obtain written permission for such usage from the Big Ten Conference.

Local television stations may not originate a pre- or post-game show from inside Memorial Stadium.

Any blogs, live chats, social media posts, etc. from the game site should not serve as a substitute for, or otherwise approximate, play-by-play accounts of a game in any medium.

Non-originating radio stations or internet sites may not provide play-by-play coverage, live or delayed, but may provide short news updates provided such news update is one minute or less occurring no more than once per hour. No pregame coverage from the stadium shall be permitted for two hours before the game without the express permission of the University of Nebraska and the broadcast rights holder.

INTERNET/TELEPHONE/FAX

Media will have use of the Internet in the Memorial Stadium press box. A limited number of Ethernet ports are available in the press seating area and the photographer's area. Contact the Media Relations Office before the start of the season for information regarding cost of Ethernet ports at a specific seat. The Memorial Stadium press box is equipped with wireless internet. Media members who plan to use wireless internet should contact the Nebraska Media Relations Office in advance of the game for instructions. Please note, you must be registered prior to gameday in order to use the wireless network.

Media members using wireless frequencies at Memorial Stadium will be asked to register that equipment in advance. Media will be prompted to complete a frequency coordination form when they fill out their on-line credential application. (Note: This does not apply to those registering for wireless internet access) Nebraska provides telephones for media use in the Memorial Stadium media facility. Any media sources that want to install a telephone in the media facility should contact Nebraska Telecommunications (402) 472-2000 at least two weeks before the game.

Information such as statistics, postgame quotes, play-by-play, etc., will be available online at Huskers.com. If arrangements are made in advance, postgame notes, quotes and game statistics may be e-mailed. Please contact the Nebraska Media Relations Office during game week or before the start of the game to request e-mail service. There is a fax machine available on request in the Media Facility if needed.

HUSKERS ON RADIO

The Husker Sports Network will continue the strong tradition of broadcasting excellence in 2011 as it brings Husker football to fans across the nation. All football games this season will be broadcast by the Husker Sports Network. which covers 30 of the 34 statewide radio markets, including Yankton, SD. Sioux City, IA. Atlantic, IA and Shenandoah, IA.

In the state of Nebraska, KFAB (1110 AM) serves as the Omaha affiliate and KLIN (1400 AM) serves as the Lincoln affiliate, while KRVN (880 AM) is a third affiliate that reaches around the state. The national coverage area is broad and includes Las Vegas, Seattle, Denver, Des Moines, Northwest Arkansas, Rapid City and Sioux Falls, South Dakota and Kansas City. All games will also be heard live on huskers.com and Sirius Satellite Radio around the nation in 2011.

The Husker Sports Network, in its 17th year of producing and marketing the live broadcast of University of Nebraska Athletics, extended and expanded its agreement with the University on June 13, 2008. Under the agreement, IMG College's Husker Sports Marketing will manage and market all rights associated with the radio programming, Coaches' TV and radio shows, program sales, sponsorship inventory and publication printing rights.

IMG College, which purchased Host Communications and the Husker Sports Network on Nov. 16, 2007, also recently purchased ISP Sports. IMG College is the leader in developing integrated licensing, marketing and multimedia opportunities for the nation's top collegiate brands across local, regional and national platforms. In addition to Nebraska, IMG College represents athletic organizations from across the country including such Universities as Alabama, Arizona, Cincinnati, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oregon, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia Tech to name a few. IMG College represents multi-media rights to over 70 collegiate properties, leading conferences CLC licensing Company and the NCAA® and its 88 championships and NCAA® Football. IMG College is a division of IMG Worldwide a global sports, fashion and media business, with nearly 3,000 employees operating in 30 countries around the globe. Founded in 1960 with a handshake between Mark McCormack and golf legend Arnold Palmer, IMG has grown into a global operation. In 2004, renowned entrepreneurial pioneer Ted Forstmann acquired the company and infused it with renewed energy, creativity, and strategic direction. For more information, visit www.imgworld.com.

Greg Sharpe, Matt Davison and Lane Grindle will bring another exciting season of football to Husker Fans across the nation. Sharpe returns for his fourth full season as the "Voice of the Huskers." He will again co-host the Countdown to Kickoff Show and host the Bo Pelini Pre- and Post-game Shows this year. Sharpe also serves as the "Voice of Husker Baseball" and as the host of the Bo Pelini TV Show.

Former Husker Matt Davison will join Sharpe in the booth as a color analyst for football. Davison, a member of the 1997 national champion team, will co-host the Countdown to Kickoff Show. He is also a color analyst for Nebraska men's basketball broadcasts and co-host of the Doc Sadler TV Show, while also contributing to Sports Nightly.

The third member of the broadcast team is Lane Grindle, who will handle the Husker sidelines, co-host Husker Game Day and handle the Locker Room Show, interviewing coaches and players after the game. Grindle will also serve as the color analyst for baseball and co-host for the Doc Sadler TV Show.

The fourth member is Jeff Culhane, who will host the Fifth Quarter and Big Red Reaction Shows again this year and co-host the Husker Game Day Show. Culhane will also host a sports talk show, Sports Nightly each weekday from 6 to 9 p.m. that focuses on Husker athletics year round. Sports Nightly will feature a weekly Coach Pelini and Husker assistant coaches' radio show that can be heard statewide on the network on Thursday nights at 7 p.m. CT during the season. All Nebraska games and coaches shows can also be heard on the internet at huskers.com.

2011 BANK OF THE WEST COACH PELINI FOOTBALL SHOW

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Formed more than 115 years ago, the Big Ten Conference is an association of world-class academic institutions with shared values and goals. Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been the priority for every member institution. However, maintaining the conference's status as one of the preeminent athletic conference's in the country also endures as an important component of the Big Ten student-athlete experience. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its student-athletes not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

James E. Delany Commissioner

ACADEMICS

All Big Ten Universities have been granted Tier One Status by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, a distinction awarded to just over 100 universities in the country.

The Big Ten leads all conferences with the highest number of ranked graduate school programs among the top 25 according to U.S. News and World Report in 2011. The Big Ten ranks first with 23 top-25 programs in the fields of law, medical (research and primary care), business and engineering.

SUCCESSFUL PROGRAMS

During the 2010-11 season, the Big Ten claimed six team national championships, including titles for Northwestern women's lacrosse, Ohio State synchronized swimming and men's volleyball, Penn State women's volleyball and wrestling and Wisconsin women's ice hockey.

The Big Ten led all conferences with national titles in 13 different NCAA-sponsored championships from 2001-02 to 2010-11. Over that time period, the Big Ten produced championships in cross country, fencing, field hockey, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, soccer, softball, tennis, track and field, volleyball and wrestling.

STUDENT-ATHLETE OPPORTUNITIES

Big Ten universities provide over $120 million in direct financial aid to more than 9,500 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 Big Ten championships, 12 for men and 13 for women.

Conference institutions sponsor 298 teams. Other than the Ivy League, the Big Ten has the most broad-based athletic programs in the United States.

TELEVISION EXPOSURE

The Big Ten's media agreements with CBS Sports, ABC/ESPN, FOX Sports and the Big Ten Network (BTN) provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever. Over 900 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally on an annual basis, more than any other conference.

In 2006, the Big Ten created the first national conference-owned television network, the BTN. It launched on Aug. 30, 2007, and now is in its fifth year of operation. It is available to approximately 75 million homes nationally, and appears in 19 of the top 20 national media markets.

ATTENDANCE

Big Ten fans are some of the nation's most supportive, with more than 8.9 million patrons attending conference home contests during the 2010-11 seasons for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball alone.

HONORING LEGENDS. BUILDING LEADERS.

The mission of the Big Ten Conference has always been to excel athletically without compromising the priority our member institutions assign to their academic standards and to their commitment to student academic success. We seek to celebrate the many accomplishments of Big Ten student-athletes while continuously reinforcing each of our member institutions' high academic standards. Striking that important balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity, and that philosophy led to the genesis of the new football division names. Both names link directly to the Big Ten mission.

LEGENDS DIVISION

A respectful acknowledgement of the 18 Heisman Trophy winners and 215 College Football Hall of Famers that have graced our fields and sidelines for the past 115 years.

LEADERS DIVISION

A hopeful and aspirational acknowledgment that we believe the college athletics experience helps to develop the characteristics that Big Ten student-athletes will need to become leaders for the rest of their lives - in their homes, jobs and in their communities.

BIG TEN CONFERENCEBIG TEN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The first-ever Big Ten Football Championship Game will be played on Dec. 3, 2011 at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. The game will be televised to a national audience on FOX with kickoff set for 7 p.m. Central.

The game will match the winners of the Legends and Leaders Divisions, and the winner of the contest will be presented the Stagg-Paterno Championship Trophy. The winner of the game earns the conference's automatic berth into the Bowl Championship Series.

In June, the Big Ten Conference announced that Lucas Oil Stadium will host first five football championship games throught he 2015 season.

While a member of the Big 12 Conference, Nebraska participated in the league title game six times, posting a 2-4 record. Nebraska's six title game appearances were the second-most in the 15-year history of the Big 12 Championship Game. Nebraska captured Big 12 crowns in 1997 and 1999, and was also the North Division representative in the game in 1996, 2006, 2009 and 2010.

Right: Lucas Oil Stadium will host the Big Ten Football Championship Game through the 2015 season. The facility will also be the host of Super Bowl XLVI in February of 2012.

COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES FOR FANS

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department takes great pride in abiding by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Big 12 Conference rules and guidelines that govern Division I competition. For the benefit of the many alumni, fans and booster club members who are so active in supporting and assisting the Huskers throughout the year, we would like to remind everyone of a few definitions and rules that apply to all athletic representatives and boosters.

NCAA PRINCIPLES

Institutional Control

It is the responsibility of the University of Nebraska to control its intercollegiate athletic program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA.

Responsibility

The University of Nebraska's responsibility for the conduct of its program includes responsibility for the actions of its staff members and for the actions of any other individual, booster or organization engaged in activities promoting the athletic interests of the institution.

Compliance

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

Question and Answers for Fans, Boosters, Alumni and Representatives of Athletic Interests DEFINITIONS

Q: What is a booster?

A: Someone who belongs to a University of Nebraska athletic booster club; promotes or makes financial donations to the athletic department or a specific Husker team; assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes; employs, gives benefits to, or provides services to a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relative/friends of either. REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETIC INTERESTS (I.E., BOOSTERS), NCAA BYLAW 13

Q: What is a Prospective Student-Athlete?

A: A prospective student-athlete is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade or above, including students in prep schools and junior colleges as well as students who have officially withdrawn from a four-year institution and plan to transfer to another institution. In addition, a student who has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospective student-athlete if the institution or a Nebraska booster provides the individual or the individual's relatives or friends with any financial assistance or benefits that the institution does not provide to prospective students in general. A good rule of thumb is to treat ALL STUDENTS as prospects.

Q: What is a Student-Athlete?

A: A student-athlete is a student whose enrollment was solicited by a member of the Nebraska athletic staff or other representative of athletic interests with a view toward the student's ultimate participation in the intercollegiate athletic program.

Q: What is a contact?

A: Contact is ANY face-to-face encounter between a prospect, or the prospect's parent or legal guardian, and a Nebraska staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs.

Q: What is recruiting?

A: Recruiting is any solicitation of a prospect or a prospect's family member (or guardian) by an institutional staff member or by athletic representative of the institution, for the purpose of securing the prospect's enrollment and ultimate participation in Nebraska's intercollegiate athletic program.

GUIDELINES

Q: What is a Booster?

A: Someone who belongs to a University of Nebraska athletic booster club; promotes or makes financial donations to the athletic department or a specific Husker team; assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes; employs, gives benefits to, or provides services to a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relative/friends of either. REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETIC INTERESTS (I.E., BOOSTERS), NCAA BYLAW 13

Q: What constitutes impermissible contact by a Booster?

A: Phone calls to prospects (9th to 12th grade) and their relatives placed for recruiting purposes (questions about the athletic program at UNL must be directed to the coach); writing, paging, text messages or instant messages to a prospect to encourage UNL attendance; contact with a prospect at a high school or club contest; contact with a prospect or his/her coach, principal, or counselor to evaluate the prospect; visiting the prospect's educational institution to pick up videotape or transcripts for evaluation purposes; contacting a prospect to congratulate him/her for signing a National Letter of Intent to attend UNL; giving anything of value to a prospect to induce him/her to attend UNL; contact of any kind while the prospect is on the UNL campus for an official or unofficial visit. RECRUITING CONTACTS, NCAA BYLAW 13

Q: What are the rules of employment for a student-athlete?

A: A student-athlete may be employed during the academic year or summer vacation period; receive compensation equal to the going rate for similar services in the locale; receive compensation only for work performed; receive benefits provided to all other employees; teach sport-related individual skill instruction or fee-for-lesson sessions. A student-athlete may not conduct personal sport camps or promote, market, advertise or endorse a commercial business or product.

Only benefits that are authorized by NCAA legislation shall be provided to and accepted by a student-athlete. It is not permissible for a student-athlete to receive a benefit that is the result of a "special" arrangement by an institutional employee, booster, employer or fan. EMPLOYMENT, NCAA BYLAW 12

Q: What are non-permissible benefits?

A: Free or reduced-fee housing/rent including the use of vacation or seasonal homes; free or reduced-fee meals; loans or cash advances in pay or salary; tuition costs or school supply expenses; gifts or presents of any type regardless of the occasion or purpose; use of telephone for long distance or use of telephone cards and cell phones; free use of any motor vehicle, boat or recreational vehicle; free use of services (i.e., automobile repair, hair care, laundry, copying, faxing, etc.); free or reduced-fee memberships at golf courses, health clubs, etc. (This list is not exhaustive. Only benefits that are authorized by NCAA legislation shall be provided to and accepted by a student-athlete. It is not permissible for a student-athlete to receive a benefit that is the result of a "special" arrangement by an institutional employee, booster, employer or fan.) BENEFITS AND PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT, NCAA BYLAW 16

Q: What type of promotional activities may the student-athlete be permitted to participate? A: Charitable, educational or non-profit promotions and events with requested approval

A: Charitable, educational or non-profit promotions and events with requested approval from the Athletic Compliance Office prior to the event.

Q: What types of promotional activities are not permissible?

A: Any fundraising activity that supports a high school organization or group that assists prospective-aged students; use of his/her name or picture; or appear to promote or market a commercial business or product. PROMOTIONAL ACTIVITIES, NCAA BYLAW 12

THE DEVANEY SOCIETY

Achieving greatness in both the classroom and on the playing field has long been a goal of the University of Nebraska. Our nation-leading 291 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and 24 team national titles reflect the manner in which we strive to achieve to the highest level.

Rising costs have made funding these athletic scholarships increasingly difficult. To help offset the expenses, the University of Nebraska established an athletic scholarship endowment fund to honor Hall of Fame Football Coach Bob Devaney.

Follow in the footsteps of Coach Devaney and commit to the long-term success of Nebraska Athletics. We are sincerely grateful to those who committed to our future stability and established a Devaney Society Scholarship for male and female student-athletes.
