SERIES: This is the first game between the Vandals and Cornhuskers.

RECORDS & TIDBITS: Both teams are coming off of convincing home-opening victories with the Vandals winning 45-0 over North Dakota and the Cornhuskers topping Western Kentucky 49-10. Nebraska is ranked eighth in the Associated Press poll and ninth in the coaches' poll. Saturday's game marks the 306th consecutive shutout at Memorial Stadium.

BROADCAST INFORMATION: Tom Morris continues as the Voice of the Vandals with Evan Ellis as his color commentator. KZFN is the flagship radio station on the Palouse with Boise's KIDO serving as UI's southern Idaho flagship. Complete radio and TV network lists are on page 4.

TELEVISION: The game is on FSN Pay Per View with Dave Armstrong calling the play-by-play, Gary Reasons providing the color commentary, and Brent Stover serving as the sideline reporter.

IDAHO COACH ROBB AKEY: Akey, Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year by Sporting News and Phil Steele's College Football in 2009, came to Idaho in December 2007 after spending the previous eight seasons as an assistant coach at Washington State University. Akey is a 1988 graduate of Weber State University, which is where his coaching career was launched with an assistantship that ultimately included time as a defensive line coach, special teams coach and recruiting coordinator. In 1995, he was hired as linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Northern Arizona. He worked his way up to defensive coordinator and served in that capacity from 1996-98 before joining the Washington State University staff.

IDAHO'S CAPTAINS: The Vandals voted last spring to have senior quarterback Nathan Enderle serve as their offensive captain, for senior linebacker JoJo Dickson and senior defensive tackle Jonah Sataraka serve as their defensive captains, and for senior safeties Shiloh Keo and Brandon Artz to serve as special teams captains.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA COACH BO PELINI: Pelini a 1990 Ohio State University graduate, owns a 21-8 record in his third season. Pelini has guided NU to nine or more wins in each of his first two seasons as head coach, joining Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne and Frank Solich in accomplishing that feat. Pelini is the first coach in Big 12 history to guide his team to at least a share of division titles in each of his first two seasons.

NOTES

HOME SWEET DOME: The Vandals opened at home for the first time since 1998 and had their first shut since 1997. It was their largest winning margin in a home opener since 1981.

NATIVE SON: Quarterback Nate Enderle is garnering plenty of attention this week as a native Nebraskan. Enderle graduated early from North Platte High School and joined the Vandals in January 2006. He redshirted that fall and earned the starting nod as a redshirt freshman. His debut game - at the Los Angeles Coliseum against top-ranked USC.

AXMAN WITH THE QBs: Offensive coordinator Steve Axman, author of a dozen books on coaching offensive football, has taken over the quarterbacks as well after the departure of Jonathan Smith (now the offensive coordinator at Montana). Al Pupunu, former San Diego Chargers standout, has taken over Axman's duties as tight ends coach.

MAKING THEIR MARKS: Week one had the Vandals tied for first in five NCAA statistical categories:

- Total turnovers gained (5)
- Red zone offense
- Red zone defense
- Turnover margin
- Scoring defense (one of nine teams to record a shutout opening weekend)

THE AX: Every game a player is chosen to carry the ceremonial Vandal Ax when Idaho takes the field. The week #1 honor went to receiver Preston Davis, who made a phenomenal recovery from ACL surgery to be ready for the opener. He was one of 11 Vandals to catch a pass. He pulled in two for 24 yards. His most memorable moment to date likely is catching the two-point conversion pass from Nathan Enderle to give the Vandals' their 43-42 Rody's Humanitarian Bowl victory over Bowling Green State last December.

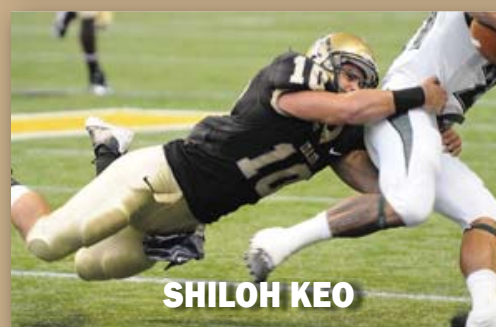

LOTS OF HANDS: Quarterbacks Nathan Enderle and Brian Reader used 11 receivers in Idaho's second-opening victory over North Dakota. Seniors Daniel Hardy and Eric Greenwood, and junior Princeton McCarty had four each with JC transfer Armauni Johnson gaining the most ground with 86 yards on three catches.

INDIVIDUAL EFFORTS, TOO: Quarterback Enderle was fifth in total passing yards (333) and tied for 11th in completions (26), while safety Shiloh Keo tied for 10th in solo stops with his seven.

WATCHING: Quarterback Nathan Enderle is on the Manning Award, Uteas Golden Arm and Davey O'Brien Award watch lists, while safety Shiloh Keo is on the Jim Thorpe Award watch list. Both are fifth-year seniors with the Vandals. Enderle is one of the nation's top two returning pass efficiency leaders in the country and Keo is the top returning tackler in the Western Athletic Conference and is No. 8 in terms of returning solo stop leaders.

BEEN AROUND A WHILE: When Idaho plays at Utah State on Nov. 20, it will be

2010 CAPTAINS

1,000th Vandal football game (although they weren't know as the Vandals until 1921).

HOME OPENER A CHANGE OF PACE: The Vandals opened the 2010 season at home for the first time since 1998 when they played Eastern Washington – and won 31-14. 2010 also marks the first non-Saturday home regular-season games for Idaho since 1960. First, there is the Thursday, Sept. 2, opener against the University of North Dakota then there is the Friday, Nov. 12, home game against Boise State. This also is a year during which the Vandals play in five time zones – Western Michigan (Eastern), Nebraska and Louisiana Tech (Central), Colorado State and Utah State (Mountain) and Hawai'i (Hawai'ian).

IDAHO SECOND MOST IMPROVED: The Vandals' turn-around in 2009 was the second best in the country behind SMU. After a 2-10 2008, Idaho went 8-5 in 2009 to earn the distinction.

EARNING SOME RESPECT: Idaho was chosen fourth by the media and sixth by the coaches in the Western Athletic Conference's preseason polls.

NOVIKOFF RECOGNIZED FOR VOLUNTEERISM: University of Idaho starting right tackle Tyrone Novikoff is one of 112 football players nationwide – and the only one from the WAC, to be nominated to the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®. Two teams – one Football Bowl Subdivision and one representing college footballs other divisions, will be announced in September.

MOVING ON: Four former Vandals continue to play the game in the NFL with former guard Mike Lupati making a big splash with the San Francisco 49ers after being selected as the 17th player overall in the 2010 draft. Lupati has earned a starting role with the 49ers and is making headlines almost daily with his ability – as a rookie, to impact the game. Two of his former teammates – receiver Max Komar, who also graduated in the spring of 2010, and linebacker David Vobora, who graduated in 2007, continue to play. Komar is a rookie with Arizona, while Vobora begins his third season with St. Louis. The elder statesman of the group is Tennessee Titan offensive guard Jake Scott, who is in his seventh NFL season.

SPEAKING OF FORMER IDAHO GUARDS: Legendary University of Idaho and Green Bay Packer guard Jerry Kramer's book Instant Replay is scheduled to go into movie production. Robert DeNiro has signed on to play Vince Lombardi. Screen writer Eric Roth (Forrest Gump, The Horse Whisperer and The Curious Case of Benjamin Button) has signed on for the project.

SCOTT'S A VANDAL: Amidst the flurry of attention following the Vandals' thrilling 43-42 victory over Bowling Green in the 2009 Rody's Humanitarian Bowl, coach Robb Akey recruited a new Vandal on the airwaves. ESPN's Scott Van Pelt Show. Check the set for the Vandal helmet.

ALREADY ANOTHER RING: Starting right guard Adam Juratovac already has added another championship ring to the one from the Humanitarian Bowl. Over the summer, he played for the Spokane Shock of the Arena Football League. The Shock, with Juratovac pulling double (actually triple when you add special teams assignments), won the Arena Bowl title. The next week he was in law school at the University of Idaho.

RECORD WATCH

- Senior quarterback Nathan Enderle has 988 attempts - fourth on the all-time list. John Friesz is Idaho's career leader with 1,350.
- Enderle has 534 pass completions - sixth on the all-time list. Friesz again is the leader with 801.
- Enderle's 7,103 passing yards are fifth all-time. Doug Nussmeier is the career leader with 10,824.
- Enderle's average yards per game of 215.2 is fourth all-time. Again Friesz is the lader with 305.6.
- Enderle's 54 touchdown passes also are fifth. He's just shy of John Welsh's No. 4 55. Nussmeier's 91 are the school record.
- His completion percentage of 54.0 is ninth. Nussmeier's 61.9 percent is the school mark.
- Enderle weighs in at No. 10 on the pass efficiency rating list with a 123.37 - 154.4 is the school record by Nussmeier.
- Kama Bailey is the school's kickoff return leader with 64.
- Bailey needs just 29 more yards to tie Chris Lacy's all-time mark of 1,452.
- Princeton McCarty's current 6.1 career yards-per-carry average is fourth all-time.

- Shiloh Keo's 38 career punt returns tie for fifth all-time. David Griffin is the career leader with 60.
- Keo's return yardage (520) is second all-time to Vern Benard's 556.
- Keo's average per return is 13.7 with John Brogan's 16.5 setting the all-time mark.
- Kicker Trey Farquhar has connected of 56 of 57 PATs for a 98.2 percentage - fourth all-time. Tino Amancio, who graduated in 2008, didn't miss a kick in his three years.
- Farquhar's field goal percentage (15 of 20 attempts) is the all-time best average (75.0).
- Punter Bobby Cowan, whose freshman numbers were good enough to rank among the best in the NCAA - had he punted often enough, is the career average leader at 42.7 yards per kick.
- Keo makes the record watch list again with 305 career tackles to weigh in at No. 11 - just shy of Cole Snyder's 306 for No. 10. Sam Merriman is the all-time leader with 519.

THE SERIES

FIRST MEETING

ABOUT THE CORNHUSKERS

- Nebraska has won its season-opener 25 successive years - the most in the nation.
- Saturday's game is the 306th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium. The Huskers are 264-41 during the sellout streak.
- With an all-time record of 828-341-40, the Cornhuskers are one of eight programs nationally with at least 800 wins. Nebraska is 499-137-20 at home.
- Nebraska is the winner of five national titles and 43 conference championships.
- Freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez rushed for 127 yards in the Cornhuskers' season-opening 49-10 victory over Western Kentucky. That is the most by a Nebraska freshman quarterback - and he needed just seven carries. Combined with 136 yards passing (9 of 15), he had 263 of the Cornhuskers' 536 yards total offense. He is the first freshman (redshirt or true) to start a season-opener for Nebraska.
- This is Nebraska's first game against a team from Idaho.
- The Cornhuskers have allowed fewer than 20 points a nation-leading nine successive times.
- Three true freshmen played in Nebraska's opener.
- Nebraska makes the move to the Big Ten Conference in 2011 after being a member of the Big 12 Conference since 1996.
- After opening weekend, the Huskers were ranked in the top 15 in five NCAA statistical categories. They are 12th in punt return average (19.33) and rushing offense (289.0), 14th in kick returns (27.67), and 15th in total offense (536.00) and scoring offense (49.00).
