SERIES HISTORY.....Nebraska leads 10-3

LAST MEETINGTexas A&M 36, Nebraska 14 in Lincoln, Neb., on Oct. 20, 2007

STEPPING OFF

The two teams with the longest current Big 12 Conference game winning streaks will collide this Saturday at Kyle Field when Texas A&M (7-3 overall, 4-2 vs. Big 12) takes on North division foe Nebraska (9-1, 5-1) in a 7 p.m. contest in College Station. Both Mike Sherman's Aggies and Bo Pelini's Cornhuskers have won four straight conference games. The Aggies go into the game tied for second with Oklahoma in the South, while the Huskers have a one-game lead in the North division. The Aggies are coming off a 42-30 come-from-behind win over the Baylor Bears in Waco last week, while the Cornhuskers grinded out a 20-3 win over Kansas in Lawrence, Kan.

12TH MAN DAY AT KYLE FIELD

The 12th Man, the nationally famous student body at Texas A&M, looks to set another record with the largest student crowd in the history of collegiate football against No. 8 (BCS) Nebraska when the Cornhuskers come to Kyle Field on Nov. 20. Some 27,152 Aggie students have the football or all-sports option to pull tickets for the game. Director of Athletics Bill Byrne has announced that any Aggie student who does not have an all-sports or football option may purchase a $20 ticket to the Cornhusker game by showing their ID. The highest recorded number of student tickets sold was in 2002 when a record 30,192 Aggies purchased football or all-sports options. When the top-ranked Oklahoma Sooners came to town a record 28,000 pulled tickets that season.

TOP 10 TEAM COMING TO KYLE

Nebraska carries top 10 rankings in the Associated Press Top 25, USA Today/ESPN poll and the BCS Standings. The Huskers are ranked No. 9 in the AP and coaches polls, and No. 8 in the BCS. The Aggies will be seeking their second victory over a top 10 foe at Kyle Field this season against NU. A&M already has upset victory over Oklahoma, which was No. 8 in the BCS and No. 9 in the coaches poll (No. 11 in the AP). A&M's last victory over an AP top 10 home or away was the Aggies' upset of top-ranked OU in 2002.

ABOUT THE RANKINGS

After the 42-30 comeback victory over Baylor last Saturday, the Aggies climbed to No. 18 in the Associated Press Top 25 and No. 19 in the USA Today/ESPN coaches poll and the Bowl Championship Series standings. The Aggies' AP rank of No. 18 is their highest since opening the 2005 season at No. 17 and then promptly losing at Clemson, 25-24. The Aggies' BCS rank is their highest since 2004 when the Aggies were No. 19 going into the Texas game.

A&M/NEBRASKA SERIES NOTABLES

The Aggies have won just three games in the series with the Cornhuskers, but one of those wins was in the most recent meeting between the two schools. ... In the most recent meeting, the Aggies used the legs of Stephen McGee to pound the Cornhuskers, 36-14, on their home field. It was A&M's first victory in Lincoln in more than 50 years. ... The Cornhuskers lead the all-time series, 10-3, and have a 5-2 advantage since the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996.

A&M/NEBRASKA CONNECTIONS

Texas A&M Director of Football Tim Cassidy's son, Austin, has started three games at safety for Cornhuskers in 2010 and has made 31 tackles with a forced fumble and a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown. The elder Cassidy is an Omaha, Neb., native and also was the Husker's Associate AD for Football from 2004-07 ... Aggie RB coach Randy Jordan came to A&M from Nebraska where he also mentored the running backs. ... Aggie head football strength and conditioning coach Dave Kennedy graduated from Nebraska in 1985 and served a couple of stints with the Huskers S&C program. ... A variety of Texas A&M administration and staffers have Nebraska ties, including Director of Athletics Bill Byrne.

DISSECTING THE BAYLOR VICTORY

The Aggies' 42-30 win over Baylor last week was significant for a variety of reasons:

- The win gave the Aggies a four-game Big 12 Conference winning streak, their longest since a four-game string in 2006.
- The win gave the Aggies multiple wins in the month of November for the first time since 1999.
- It was the Aggies' 22nd victory in 25 games against the Bears.
- The four-game winning string is the longest of the Mike Sherman era.
- The victory assured the Aggies of their first winning season since 2007.

AGGIES NEVER QUIT

The Aggies' rally from a 16-point deficit to beat Baylor, 42-30, was the Aggies' third two TD rally of season. The 16-point comeback was A&M's fourth-largest comeback in school history. Ironically, three of A&M's five biggest rallies have come against Baylor.

Previously this season, the Aggies trailed FIU, 20-6, entering the fourth quarter, but rallied for a 27-20 victory. Against Oklahoma State, the Aggies trailed 35-21 late in the fourth quarter, but knotted the score at 35-35 with 2:54 before eventually losing 38-35. Against the Bears, the Aggies trailed 30-14 late in the second quarter, but scored the final 28 points of the game for the win.

THEY REMEMBER NOVEMBER

The Aggies have already made this month a "November to Remember" with consecutive victories over Oklahoma and Baylor. A&M will go for its third victory this month when they take on the Cornhuskers on Saturday. The last time A&M had more than two wins in the month of November was 1997 when R.C. Slocum's Aggies posted an undefeated 4-0 record to their way to a Big 12 South Division Championships.

Trends / Facts

- The Aggies overall four-game winning streak is their longest since a pair of four-game streaks in 2006
- The Aggies' four-game conference winning streak is the longest since 2006 when A&M won four straight against Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma State and Baylor on their way to a berth in the Holiday Bowl.
- Aggies logged first back-to-back wins in November since 1999.
- Aggies are seeking three wins in November for first time since undefeated 4-0 November in 1997.
- Last time A&M had a longer win streak was 2004 when the Aggies started the season 6-1 (six straight wins after loss to Utah in season-opener), but limped to a final 7-5 record.
- Cyrus Gray has four straight 100-yard rushing games. The last time an Aggie had more was 1990 when Darren Lewis had five straight.
- Gray's 137 rushing yards vs. Baylor were the most by an A&M running back since Courtney Lewis had 146 vs. Texas Tech in 2005. Quarterback Stephen McGee had a pair of more productive rushing days, including the epic 35-carry, 167-yard effort against the Cornhuskers in 2007.
- Aggies are 7-0 with a 100-yard individual rusher in 2010. In fact, the Aggies have won 10 straight when they have a 100-yard individual rusher over the past two years.
- Jeff Fuller has caught at least one pass in A&M-record 30 straight games, which is every game of his career.
- Aggies have thrown at least one passing TD in 34 straight games, A&M's previous long streak of games with a TD pass was 11 from 2005-06. The last time A&M didn't have a passing TD was the first game of the Sherman era, an 18-14 loss to Arkansas State.
- The Aggies beat Baylor despite the Bears being turnover-free. The last time A&M beat a conference opponent without the benefit of a takeaway was the 1997 Oklahoma State game.
- The Aggies didn't give up a quarterback sack against Baylor. The last time A&M didn't allow a sack in a game was 2007 with seniors Cody Wallace, Kirk Elder, Chris Yoder and Corey Clark protecting QB Stephen McGee.
- The Aggies matched their season-high with four sacks of Baylor's Robert Griffin. A&M has now hit the season high in consecutive games.
- A&M is one of six Big 12 teams (four from Big 12 South) already bowl-eligible. Six teams on the Aggies' 2010 schedule are already bowl-eligible with Texas Tech on the cusp with five victories.
- After struggling early to get to the quarterback, the Aggies have had multiple sacks in six straight games, including a season-high four the last two games against Oklahoma and Baylor. After the first four games of 2010, the Aggies had just five sacks (three in one game).
- In a rare statistical double, Tannehill has a 400-yard passing game and a 200-yard receiving game on his career resume.
- In addition to his rare passing/receiving statistics, Tannehill also has a punt to his credit and has been the holder on 156 place kicks, including 114 consecutive successful PATs.
- Placekicker Randy Bullock has connected on a school record 114 consecutive extra points, and Tannehill has been Bullock's holder for all 114 PATs.
- On 40 punts in 2010, sophomore Ryan Epperson has allowed 14 boots to be returned for just 41 yards. Only four returns have been for positive yardage, with the long being a 31-yarder by OU's Ryan Broyles. In Epperson's career, only eight of his 65 punts have been returned for positive yardage.
- For the third game in a row, the Aggies were victorious despite rushing for 190 yards or less. The Aggies rushed for 147 yards in last week's 42-30 win over Baylor. In the previous 20 games, the Aggies were 0-10 when rushing for 190 or fewer yards and 10-0 when rushing for more than 190 yards.
- Junior Cyrus Gray is within 185 yards of doubling the career total of the Aggies' No. 2 kickoff return yardage gainer. Gray has compiled a whopping 2,233 career KO return yards which is 1,024 yards more than Rod Harris compiled from 1985-88 (1,209).
- One of five Aggies with more than 4,000 all-purpose yards in their careers, Gray ranks No. 4 on A&M's all-time A-P list. A&M's 4,000-yard A-P gainers are Darren Lewis (5,138), Curtis Dickey (4,706), Danté Hall (4,706), Gray (4,485) and McElroy (4,186).
- Jeff Fuller already owns three of the top five single season receiving touchdowns totals, including the top two.
- Von Miller is within a sack of catching No. 4 Marcus Buckley on A&M's career sacks list. Buckley compiled 29 sacks from 1990-92.
- The Aggies are 2-0 in games when they win the turnover margin battle in 2010.
- Defensive coordinator Tim DeRuyter has directed the Aggie defense from the sideline rather than his usual perch in the coaches box for the past four games.

2010 OFFENSE ON PACE FOR 4,000 PASS/6,000 TOTAL

Lost in the shuffle of quarterback transition from Jerrod Johnson to Ryan Tannehill has been the continued strong play of the offense. The 2010 offense is on pace to throw for more than 4,000 yards for the first time in school history and on pace to gain more than 6,000 total yards for the second time in school history.

PRO DADS

The 2010 Texas A&M football roster is dotted several players whose father were accomplished professionals in the NFL or NBA.

RAY AND WELLS CHILDRESS

Redshirt freshman defensive lineman Wells Childress' father, Ray, still ranks in the top five in tackles and QB sacks in A&M history and went on to a long career with the Houston Oilers in NFL.

JEFF AND JEFF FULLER

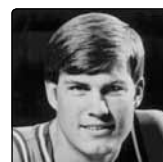

Junior wide receiver Jeff Fuller's father, Jeff Sr., was a standout defensive back for the Aggies from 1980-83 and then the San Francisco 49ers from 1984-88.

BRUCE AND JAKE MATTHEWS

Freshman offensive lineman Jake Matthews' father, Bruce, was a perennial All-Pro offensive lineman for the Houston Oilers and Tennessee Titans, and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2007.

ED AND SPENCER NEALY

Sophomore defensive lineman Spencer Nealy's dad, Ed, was an All-Big Eight forward at Kansas State and played 10 seasons in the NBA, including with the 1992-93 Chicago Bulls that won the NBA title.

EYE ON THE "WATCH" LISTS

Several Aggies are mentioned on preseason "watch lists" for various national awards in 2010— including quarterback JERROD JOHNSON (Davey O'Brien, Unitas & Manning Awards), running backs CYRUS GRAY & CHRISTINE MICHAEL (Doak Walker Award) and linebacker VON MILLER (Lombardi Award).

QB JERROD JOHNSON (Davey O'Brien, Unitas & Manning Award)

Johnson posted Heisman-type numbers as a junior in 2009 completing 296-of-497 passes for 3,579 yards and 30 touchdowns to go against eight interceptions. In fact, Johnson set a Big 12 record with 242 passes without an interception. Along the way in 2009, Johnson established eight school records (passing yards, completions, attempts, passing TDs, TD responsibility, 300-yard passing games, total offense and total plays) and he already holds the career touchdown passing record with 53. Johnson finished 2009 ranked third in the nation in total offense with 314.2 yards per game.

RB CYRUS GRAY & CHRISTINE MICHAEL (Doak Walker Award)

The co-starters at running back for the Aggies in 2009, Gray and Michael combined to amass 2,736 all-purpose yards and score 18 touchdowns last season. Gray, a junior from DeSoto, Texas, led the team in all-purpose yardage with 1,625, which included 757 rushing yards. Michael, a sophomore from Beaumont, Texas, had a team-high 844 rushing yards, including a record 97-yard touchdown run against Baylor.

LB VON MILLER (Rotary Lombardi Award)

Miller, a 6-3, 226-pound combination linebacker/defensive end, led the country in sacks last season with 17 quarterback sacks and was named first-team All-America by The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated as well as second-team All-America honors by the Associated Press and the Walter Camp Foundation. Miller was also named a consensus first-team All-Big 12 selection last fall.

BERNSTINE'S LONG-STANDING RECORD IN JEOPARDY

Rod Bernstine's school record for season receptions of 65 has stood for 24 years, mostly without a challenge despite being accomplished in just 11 games. A host of standout receivers have come and gone, but none of them have even hit the 60-catch mark despite playing in 12, or even 13, games. That's all likely to change in 2010 as two receivers -- junior Jeff Fuller and sophomore Ryan Swope -- are within striking distance with three games to play, now that the Aggies have become bowl-eligible.

The most prolific tandem in school history, Fuller and Swope are tied for the team lead with 61 catches entering the Nebraska game.

MOST PRODUCTIVE RECEIVING TRIO IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Sophomore Uzoma Nwachukwu reminded everyone that the Aggies' wide receiver corps is more than a two-man show with a season-high and game-high eight catches for 73 yards against Baylor last week.

In fact, the trio of Nwachukwu, Jeff Fuller and Ryan Swope passed the Ryan Tannehill/Fuller/Jamie McCoy triumvirate as the most productive receiving trio in school history after last week's game against Baylor. The 2010 trio has combined for 152 catches in 10 games, while the Tannehill/Fuller/McCoy trio caught 148 balls in 2008.

FULLER WITHIN RANGE OF FIRST 1,000-YARD RECEIVING SEASON

Junior Jeff Fuller is in a tight battle with Ryan Swope for the Aggies' season catches record, but he already owns the season marks for receiving yards and TD catches. Fuller's record total of 923 receiving yards puts him just 77 yards away from the magical 1,000-yard mark. Fuller's 2010 total of 11 TD catches is already two above his previous A&M record of nine that he set as a freshman.

FULLER JOINS T-MURPH IN AGGIES' 2,000-YARD CLUB

Junior wide receiver Jeff Fuller and school record holder Terrence Murphy are the only members of Texas A&M's 2,000-yard club. Fuller has 2,121 career receiving yards, while T-Murph gained 2,600 yards from 2002-05.

Fuller grabbed sole possession of A&M's career touchdown catches record earlier this season after being tied at 19 with Bob Long, who had held the record 42 years since setting the standard from 1967-69. The ninth member of A&M's 100-catch club, Fuller's 152 catches and 2,121 yards rank No. 2 in the Aggie record book.

TANNEHILL GOES FROM "SLASH" TO "FLASH"

Junior Ryan Tannehill has been transformed from record-setting wide receiver to record-setting quarterback. In his first start, Tannehill torched Texas Tech with a school record 449 passing yards and four touchdowns on Oct. 30. He completed 36-of-50 aerials for a 72.0 completion percentage (school record, 50 attempt minimum). His insertion into the starting lineup helped the Aggies to their top offensive performance (623 yards) of the Mike Sherman era and the Aggies' second-straight blowout of rival Texas Tech, which happens to be Tannehill's father's alma mater.

TANNEHILL BULLETS AS A QB

- Tannehill's 449 yards against Texas Tech set the overall school passing record (old record of 419 by Jerrod Johnson vs. Kansas State, 2008)
- Tannehill demolished the QB starting debut record of 275 yards by Johnson vs. Miami (Fla.), 2008
- Tannehill threw for 277 first half yards against Tech, which broke the first half record of 224 by Johnson vs. Texas Tech, 2008.
- Tannehill's 36 completions against Tech rank No. 2 in school history behind Johnson's 40 vs. Oklahoma State earlier this season.
- His 50 pass attempts against Tech were the most ever by an Aggie quarterback in a WINNING effort. The previous high in a win was 48 by Kevin Murray in a 29-10 win over Rice in 1983.
- Tannehill has thrown 10 touchdowns in his four games playing exclusively at quarterback.
- Tannehill's one-of-a-kind career resume includes a 400-yard passing game, a 200-yard receiving game, a double-digit receptions game, over 100 career catches, over 1,500 career receiving yards, a punt that was downed inside the opponent 20-yard line, 156 holds on placekicks, including a school record 114 consecutive successful PATs.

SINGLE GAME PASSING YARDS

Player, Year	Yards
1. RYAN TANNEHILL	449 Texas Tech, Oct. 30, 2010
2. Jerrod Johnson	419 Kansas State, Oct. 11, 2008
3. Dustin Long	399 at Kansas, Oct. 19, 2002
4. Brannndon Stewart	385 Colorado, Sept. 28, 1996
5. Jerrod Johnson	381 at Iowa State, Oct. 25, 2008

TANNEHILL BULLETS AS A RECEIVER

- He set a freshman school record with 55 catches in 2008 and became the first sophomore to reach the 100-catch plateau with 46 catches in 2009.
- He was the eighth player in school history to hit triple digits in career receptions.
- His two-year total of 101 catches as a freshman-sophomore is the most productive two seasons of any receiver in school history regardless of class. (Sidenote, Jeff Fuller is about to break that record with 96 catches so far in the 2009-10 seasons).

DeRUYSER'S DEFENSE STEPS UP

The arrival of first-year defensive coordinator Tim DeRuyter has coincided with a clear-cut coming of age for the Aggie defense. This season, the Aggies have improved an average of 57.5 spots in the NCAA ranking in the four main team defensive categories -- total, rushing, pass efficiency and scoring.

A former head coach and general manager for the NFL's Green Bay Packers, Mike Sherman is in his third season as head coach of the Texas A&M football team. Sherman was hired as Texas A&M's 28th head football coach on Nov. 26, 2007.

Sherman compiled an impressive 59-43-0 record (.578) at the helm of the Packers from 2000-2005, which included three playoff appearances and two 12-win regular seasons. As an assistant coach in the NFL, Sherman helped the Packers and Seattle Seahawks to the playoffs, including the Packers' run to the 1998 Super Bowl.

In the college ranks, Sherman has compiled a 11-13 record as a head coach. As an assistant coach at Texas A&M (1989-93, 95-96), UCLA (1994), Holy Cross (1985-88), Tulane (1983-84) and Pittsburgh (1981-82), Sherman helped win three conference championships and been a part of eight bowl teams (five New Year's Day bowls).

An accomplished recruiter, all three of Sherman's Texas A&M signing classes have been ranked in the top 25 by Rivals.com, including the 2010 class that ranked No. 17.

TRUE FRESHMEN MAKING AN IMPACT...AGAIN

Ten freshman members of Mike Sherman's 2010 signing class have seen action in 2010 which continues a trend of playing true freshmen by Sherman, who used 28 true freshmen in his first two seasons, including a record 18 in 2009. An 11th newcomer from the 2010 class, JC transfer Jonathan Mathis, has worked his way into the Aggies' starting lineup at NG.

Four members of Sherman's 2010 class have earned starting jobs in 2010 -- OTs Luke Joeckel and Jake Matthews, TE Nehemiah Hicks and Mathis.

KYLE FIELD DRAWS BIG NON-CONFERENCE CROWDS

Texas A&M has drawn 487, 259 fans to Kyle Field for an average of 81,210 per game this season, which is on pace to be the fourth-highest in school history. Nationally, the Aggies' 2010 home attendance average ranks No. 13.

RUGGED SCHEDULE FEATURES FIVE TEAMS IN AP, COACHES POLLS

Texas A&M's 2010 schedule features five teams ranked in the current Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN polls --- (in 2010 schedule order) No. 12/10 Oklahoma State, No. 13/13 Arkansas, No. 15/16 Missouri, No. 16/14 Oklahoma and No. 9/9 Nebraska. All five opponents are also ranked in the latest Bowl Championship series standings.

SHERMAN'S OFFENSE HITS 500

Since shifting offensive scheme to a quick-paced no-huddle offense in 2009, the Aggies have become one of the most prolific offenses in the nation. In just 23 games, the Aggies have surpassed the 500-yard mark in total offense 12 times (52.2 percent). Prior to the switch, the Aggies hit the 500-yard plateau in a single game 11 times in the previous 66 games (18.1 percent) dating back to the Oklahoma State game in 2003.

MILLER CLIMBS SACK CHART, EYES BUCKLEY

Week after week, Aggie head coach Mike Sherman and defensive coordinator Tim DeRuyter have praised senior Von Miller for playing better in 2010 than in his All-America season in 2009 when he led the NCAA in quarterback sacks. Week after week, opposing offensive coordinator would game-plan to minimize Miller's impact. The last six games, Miller's strong on-field play has been reflected in the game stats with 9.5 tackles for loss, including 5.5 sacks, and 38 total stops.

Miller now has 28 career quarterback sacks, which ranks No. 5 in school history and needs one sack to match No. 4 Marcus Buckley on the list.

A part-time starter in his first two seasons at A&M, Miller emerged as the nation's most feared pass rusher in 2009. Miller, who shifted to a hybrid defensive end/linebacker position in the spring of 2009, posted an NCAA-best 17 quarterbacks and challenged A&M's school record of 20 sacks by Jacob Green in 1979. A first-team All-America pick by The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated, Miller was Texas A&M's first first-team All-America selection since cornerback Jason Webster earned All-America honors in 1999.

SWOPE EMERGES AS MAJOR WEAPON FOR AGGIE OFFENSE

Sophomore Ryan Swope showed signs of being a major contributor in the second half of 2009 season with 16 catches in the last six games, but the versatile former high school running back has taken his game to a new level in 2010. After 10 games, Swope is tied for the team lead with 61 catches and is second on the team with 711 receiving yards. Swope and Fuller are within five catches of breaking Rod Bernstine's school record of 65 catches in a single season that was set in 1986.

Lining up all over the field against SFA in the season-opener, Swope pulled in 13 catches for 106 yards to help boost the Aggie passing attack to 347 passing yards. It was the first 100-yard receiving game of Swope's career, and the 13 catches tied for the second-most ever by an Aggie in a single game. Swope's 13 grabs were the most by an Aggie receiver since Albert Connell set the school record with 18 catches against Colorado in 1996.

GAME WEEK INTERVIEW POLICY

Players are available for interviews until after practice on Tuesday on game week. ALL interviews must be requested with a minimum 24-hour notice. For best results, interviews should be conducted at the Monday Media Luncheon at the Bright Complex.

POSTGAME INTERVIEW POLICY

At home games, postgame interviews with A&M players and coaches are conducted in a specially equipped interview room located in the Bright Complex (Hagner Auditorium). The A&M locker room is closed at all times to media. Interview requests will be taken late in the game and every effort will be made to ensure that requested players are available. There will be no interviews conducted on the field, except for the television network that is broadcasting the game. At away games, similar policy is in effect and location of interviews will be determined.

TEXAS A&M RADIO NETWORK

The 50-station Texas A&M Sports Network broadcasts each football game on the radio in Texas and on the internet. Locally the game will air on WTAU-AM 1620. Fans will also be able to receive the broadcast at road game stadiums on the lower end of their FM radio. In addition, all Aggie football games and many A&M athletic events can heard via the Texas A&M official website at AggieAthletics.com.

CREDENTIALS/SATELLITE TRUCK PARKING

To Request Credentials for A&M home games, please fax a request on your letterhead to the attention of Alan Cannon, Assistant AD for Media Relations at 979-845-6825. You may also email a request in to acannon@athletics.tamu.edu. Credentials should be requested no later than one week in advance.

Television stations wishing to bring satellite or microwave news units to Kyle Field should contact Alan Cannon at 979-845-5725 by Wednesday of game week to ensure parking.

POST GAME VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS

Texas A&M will provide post game video highlights after home games via an FTP site to approved media members. Please contact the Texas A&M media Relations office for more information and log on credentials.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Christine Michael rushed for 105 yards and Texas A&M's defense showed obvious improvement from last season in the Aggies' 48-7 season-opening victory Saturday night over lower-division Stephen F. Austin.

A&M senior quarterback Jerrod Johnson, who set eight school records in 2009, completed 23 of 35 passes for 278 yards and two touchdowns. The Aggies finished with 539 yards - 236 coming on 60 running plays.

The A&M defense, one of the nation's worst last year, held Stephen F. Austin to 266 yards and 13 first downs. The Aggies have switched to a 3-4 alignment this season under new coordinator Tim DeRuyter, who replaced the retired Joe Kines in the offseason.

Jeremy Moses, Stephen F. Austin's all-time leading passer, went 19-of-37 for 171 yards with a touchdown and an interception. The Lumberjacks led the FCS in passing yards (343 per game) in 2009.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Jerrod Johnson had 349 yards passing and four touchdowns and Texas A&M overcame a sloppy start to get a 48-16 win over Louisiana Tech on Saturday night.

The Aggies (2-0) fumbled five times and missed a field goal in the first half but still led 21-10 at halftime thanks to a solid defensive effort.

They cleaned things up after halftime with Johnson connecting on a 3-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Fuller, who finished with 160 yards receiving, to push the lead to 28-10 early in the third quarter. That was Fuller's 19th career touchdown reception, which ties a 42-year-old school record. He is tied with Bob Long, whose record has stood since 1968. That score was set up by a 67-yard run by Christine Michael.

Texas A&M added a score on a 54-yard punt return by Dustin Harris in the third quarter and Johnson added another touchdown toss early in the fourth quarter. The return by Harris was the first punt return for a touchdown by the Aggies since 1998.

Texas A&M's defense, which ranked among the nation's worst last season, turned in another strong performance. The Aggies allowed just 269 yards and forced seven fumbles and had two interceptions.

It was an ugly first half with the teams combining for 10 fumbles. A&M lost four of its fumbles and Louisiana Tech lost two before halftime.

Louisiana Tech lined three defenders up at the goal line to defend a deep throw. That didn't keep Johnson from finding Uzoma Nwachukwu in a swarm of defenders for a 44-yard touchdown pass to give A&M a 21-10 halftime lead.

Cyrus Gray scored on a 3-yard run late in the first quarter before Tannehill's 10-yard reception in the second pushed the lead to 14-3.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Cyrus Gray scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 40-yard run with about 4 1/2 minutes remaining and Texas A&M rallied to escape with a 27-20 win over Florida International on Saturday night.

The Panthers (0-2) drove to the Texas A&M 7-yard line after Gray's TD, but the Aggies held them on fourth down to get the victory.

The Aggies (3-0) were down 20-6 entering the fourth quarter after Johnson threw interceptions on A&M's first four possessions of the second half.

Christine Michael shed a tackler and ran 37 yards up the middle to get the Aggies within 20-13 early in the fourth quarter. Johnson found Terrence McCoy in double coverage on a 33-yard touchdown pass that tied it at 20 with about seven minutes left.

The Aggies forced the Panthers to punt and Gray gave A&M its first lead of the game with his scoring run that made it 27-20.

STILLWATER (AP) — Shaun Lewis intercepted Jerrod Johnson's pass in the final seconds and Dan Bailey kicked a 40-yard field goal as time expired to lift Oklahoma State to a 38-35 victory over Texas A&M on Thursday night.

Johnson turned the ball over five times, including a key fumble that led to a Cowboys touchdown in the fourth quarter and his fourth interception that Lewis returned 28 yards to set up the game-winner.

Brandon Weeden also had turnover problems early, but shrugged them off to throw for 284 yards and two touchdowns as the Cowboys rallied from a 14-point deficit only to let Texas A&M do the same.

Johnson threw for 409 yards and a career-best five touchdowns but ended up making one mistake too many in a meeting of surging Big 12 South rivals.

Johnson threw two touchdown passes in the final 5 1/2 minutes and had a chance to lead the Aggies on a winning drive of their own before he overthrew a pass into the arms of Lewis, who fell down at the 40-yard line. Oklahoma State picked up 17 yards on two plays before sending on Bailey.

The Cowboys flooded onto the field to celebrate their first three-game winning streak in a series that had been dominated by Texas A&M until recently. The Aggies had won 10 of the first 12 games between the teams following the creation of the Big 12.

After fumbling and throwing two interceptions to help Texas A&M build an early 14-0 lead, Weeden was able to rally the Cowboys in a Thursday night showcase game for the second time in as many tries.

Weeden's first action outside of mop-up duty came while bringing Oklahoma State back from an 11-point, second-half deficit to beat Colorado on a Thursday night last season. That's also the only other time in recent years that the Cowboys wore the black jerseys they sported against the Aggies.

Weeden completed 13 of 15 passes for 184 yards on three scoring drives as Oklahoma State rallied to tie it at 21. Kendall Hunter had a 2-yard TD run in between Weeden's 38-yard scoring pass to tailback Joseph Randle and the tying 29-yard strike to Justin Blackmon.

Oklahoma State went up 28-21 after Johnson's third interception of the game led to Hunter's 7-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter.

On A&M's next drive, Johnson dropped the ball, clutched in his right hand, while trying to fight off pressure from Jamie Blatnick. Oklahoma State's Darius Hart rolled on top of the ball, and James Thomas came running up to grab it and race 63 yards to put the Cowboys up by two touchdowns.

Johnson bounced back to lead an 80-yard drive that spanned 7 1/2 minutes, zipping a 4-yard TD pass to Kenric McNeal on fourth down to keep the Aggies alive. Oklahoma State went three-and-out, and Johnson needed just four passes to tie it again on a 28-yard score to Ryan Swope.

OSU got one first down before punting the ball back to A&M with 1:16 left, and the Aggies were near midfield when Johnson committed his 10th turnover in the past two games - and it finally cost him.

ARLINGTON (AP) — Ryan Mallett threw three touchdown passes in the first half then struggled to do anything else, and safety Tramain Thomas intercepted a pass in the end zone on the game's final play to give No. 11 Arkansas a 24-17 victory over Texas A&M.

The Razorbacks (4-1) had plenty of chances to break the game open. They recovered three fumbles inside the Aggies 40-yard line, but managed only one field goal out of it, their only points in the second half.

Arkansas' defense was hurt by a few big plays by A&M (3-2), but came through when it mattered most.

The Razorbacks were coming off a narrow loss to No. 1 Alabama, and are headed into a game at No. 8 Auburn.

Mallett was 27 of 38 for 310 yards, with an interception that set up A&M's first touchdown.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Blaine Gabbert threw for a 361 yards and three touchdowns and No. 21 Missouri remained undefeated with a 30-9 win over struggling Texas A&M on Saturday.

Gabbert connected with Wes Kemp for touchdowns in the first and third quarters to help the Tigers (6-0, 2-0 Big 12) improve to 6-0 for the fifth time in school history.

Texas A&M (3-3, 0-2) finally got going in the fourth quarter, with Johnson throwing a 26-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Fuller, but it was much too late to avoid a third straight loss.

Gabbert's third touchdown pass was a 20-yard strike to T.J. Moe that made it 30-3 in the third quarter. Moe finished with six receptions for 110 yards.

The Tigers got the ball in the second half after Johnson was sacked three times on Texas A&M's first possession after halftime. Gabbert hit Kemp for his second touchdown on a 10-yard pass that pushed Missouri's lead to 23-0.

Texas A&M had first-and-goal from the 10 after that, but the offense stalled again and the Aggies kicked a 24-yard field goal to make it 23-3. That score ended a streak of six straight shutout quarters for Missouri's defense after a 26-0 win over Colorado last week.

Johnson finished 27 of 48 for 322 yards, but was just 15 of 31 for 141 yards entering the fourth quarter.

That gave Missouri the ball back with about 1 1/2 minutes before halftime. Texas A&M's defense held and Missouri settled for a 21-yard field goal and a 16-0 halftime lead.

Kendall Lawrence pushed Missouri's lead to 13-0 when he scored from two yards out early in the second quarter. That score was set up by a 24-yard reception by Kemp.

Gabbert found Kemp on a 5-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter, but the extra point attempt was blocked so the Tigers led 6-0. It was the first time Missouri had an extra point attempt blocked since 2005.

LAWRENCE, KAN. (AP) — Jerrod Johnson broke Texas A&M's career record for total offense, and backup Ryan Tannehill threw three touchdown passes to help the Aggies roll past hapless Kansas 45-10 Saturday night.

Johnson, a senior who'd been having turnover problems during a three-game Aggie losing streak, started the game and scored on a 3-yard TD run for a 14-3 lead in the first quarter. With 139 yards passing and 28 rushing, he raised his career total to 8,888 yards, snapping the record of 8,876 Reggie McNeal compiled from 2002-05.

Tannehill, who has played mostly wide receiver his first three years at A&M and had thrown only 13 passes, replaced Johnson in the second quarter and led the Aggies (4-3, 1-2 Big 12) on two quick scoring drives for a 31-10 halftime lead. He also scored on a 6-yard run in the fourth quarter to put A&M on top 45-10.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30 • KYLE FIELD • COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 84,479 • TV: None

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) - Ryan Tannehill had a school-record 449 yards passing and four touchdowns in his first career start and Cyrus Gray ran for two more scores as Texas A&M beat mistake-prone Texas Tech 45-27 on Saturday.

Aggies coach Mike Sherman wouldn't reveal whether Tannehill, the former backup, or senior Jerrod Johnson would start leading up to the game after using both quarterbacks in last week's win over Kansas. Tannehill played the entire game while Johnson, who holds the school record for career yards passing, watched from the sideline.

The Aggies (5-3, 2-2 Big 12) trailed 7-0 early, but Tannehill threw three touchdown passes in the first half to give Texas A&M a 24-14 halftime lead. Gray had touchdown runs of 54 and 2 yards in the third quarter to stretch the lead to 38-14.

Taylor Potts threw for 227 yards and a touchdown for the Red Raiders (4-4, 2-4). But Texas Tech fumbled twice near the goal line and Potts was replaced by Steven Sheffield in the fourth quarter. Sheffield had 129 yards passing and two touchdowns.

Jeff Fuller caught two of Tannehill's touchdown passes and finished with 11 receptions for 171 yards to become the second player in Texas A&M history to reach 2000 career yards receiving.

The Red Raiders opened the second half with a drive that included a 54-yard reception by Detron Lewis. It was halted when Lewis caught an 11-yard pass on the next play and fumbled the ball, which was recovered in the end zone by the Aggies. It was the second time Texas A&M recovered a fumble in their own end zone.

Texas A&M's offense got going in the second quarter with Tannehill finding Michael Lamothe on a 3-yard touchdown pass for a 10-7 lead. Lamothe added a touchdown on a 1-yard reception that made it 45-20 in the fourth quarter.

Fuller's first touchdown was on a 6-yard reception that pushed A&M's lead to 17-7.

Tech cut the lead to 17-14 when Lyle Leong caught a short pass from Potts and dashed untouched into the end zone about three minutes later. Adam James made his first catch of the season on a 12-yard reception on that drive. He took a hard hit on the play that drew a flag on Texas A&M's Von Miller. Former Tech coach Mike Leach was fired in December amid allegations that he mistreated James after he suffered a concussion.

Fuller gave the Aggies a 24-14 lead after a 2-yard touchdown catch with 9 seconds left in the first half. That drive was helped by two personal fouls on Tech for targeting defenseless receivers.

Texas Tech jumped out to an early 7-0 lead when Eric Stephens scored on a 1-yard run midway through the first quarter. The Red Raiders took possession after Texas A&M's pass on fourth-and-1 from the Tech 48 was batted down.

Texas Tech forced a fumble by the Aggies on its next possession and was about to stretch the lead to two touchdowns, but Stephens fumbled near the goal line and Texas A&M recovered. The Aggies capitalized on that error with a 28-yard field goal by Randy Bullock that cut the lead to 7-3.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) — Ryan Tannehill threw for 225 yards and two touchdowns, Cyrus Gray added 122 yards rushing another score and Texas A&M broke a seven-game losing streak to No. 11 Oklahoma with a 33-19 win over the Sooners on Saturday night.

The Aggies built a 19-0 lead and withstood a 17-point third quarter rally by Oklahoma before adding two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter.

Texas A&M never trailed and was up 9-0 just three minutes into the game after a bad snap on Oklahoma's first play resulted in a safety and Tannehill threw a quick touchdown pass.

It ends a string of misery against the Sooners that included being outscored 131-38 in the last two meetings. A&M's improved defense was key in this one, holding Oklahoma on fourth-and-1 from the 1 three times.

Landry Jones threw for 290 yards with a touchdown and an interception and DeMarco Murray ran for 80 yards and a touchdown for Oklahoma.

Tannehill hit Ryan Swope on a 64-yard touchdown on third-and-4 in the fourth quarter to put the Aggies comfortably ahead, 33-17, after a missed field goal by Oklahoma. Swope finished with a career-high 136 yards receiving.

Patrick O'Hara's field goal attempt from 36 yards wasn't even close and left Oklahoma down 26-17 with about nine minutes remaining.

Then A&M's defense took control, stopping the Sooners twice from 1-yard out with about five minutes left. The Aggies took over from there, but couldn't get anything going and had to punt. The punt was blocked for a safety to leave the score at 33-19.

Oklahoma gambled with a fake field goal when the holder John Nimmo overthrew James Hanna in the end zone, giving A&M the ball at the its own 32 earlier in the fourth quarter.

The Aggies stopped a streak of 17 straight unanswered points when the Gray spun into the end zone for a 23-yard touchdown run after that miscue to make it 26-17 with about 11 minutes remaining. Gray spun all the way around to evade one tackler and did a second 360 degree spin to roll in for the score.

Jones connected with Trey Franks on a 5-yard touchdown to make it 19-17 A&M in the third quarter.

Oklahoma got the offense going when it capped a 15-play, 71-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run by Murray to get within 19-7. Jamell Fleming intercepted Tannehill for the second time of the night on A&M's next drive. The Sooners lost 2 yards on three plays and settled for a 45-yard field goal to cut the lead to 19-10 with about 9 1/2 minutes left in the third quarter.

The Aggies made it 19-0 when Coryell Judie returned the opening kickoff of the second half 100 yards for a score. He broke away from the pack and dashed down the sideline for the touchdown.

A&M had 222 yards to Oklahoma's 111 as the Sooners were shut out in a first half for the first time since 2007.

Oklahoma's first play ended with a bad snap flying over the head of Jones and out of the back of the end zone for a safety. Tannehill's first play turned out a lot better with the quarterback running for 48 yards to get to the Oklahoma 22. Tannehill stretched A&M's lead to 9-0 with a 1-yard touchdown pass to Hutson Prioleau a few plays later.

SATURDAY, November 13 • Floyd Casey Stadium • Waco, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 45,089 • TV: Fox Sports

WACO (AP) — Cyrus Gray ran for 137 yards and scored three of his career-high four touchdowns in the second half as No. 23 Texas A&M rallied from a 16-point first-half deficit for a 42-30 win over Baylor on Saturday night.

The Aggies trailed 30-21 at halftime before Gray scored on runs of 13 and 10 yards in the third quarter to give Texas A&M its first lead at 35-30. Baylor led 30-14 midway through the second quarter after Jay Finley's third touchdown.

Gray's fourth score came on a 1-yard run with about 6 minutes remaining. It was set up when Baylor turned the ball over on downs. His first score came in the second quarter.

The Bears were foiled by problems in the kicking game. Aaron Jones missed field-goal attempts from 27 and 39 yards in the second half, had a third one blocked just before halftime and missed an extra point.

It was Gray's fourth consecutive 100-yard game and his most touchdown since scoring three against Texas Tech last season.

Robert Griffin had 212 yards passing and ran for 92 yards and a touchdown. His 3,071 yards passing this season make him the first Baylor player to pass for 3,000 yards. Finley had 169 yards rushing to bring his season total to 1,073 to become the seventh player in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Texas A&M quarterback Ryan Tannehill threw for 280 yards and a touchdown to improve to 3-0 since taking over as starter.

Texas A&M's defense improved after halftime and held Finley to just 23 yards rushing in the second half.

Gray's third touchdown put Texas A&M on top for the first time, 35-30, with about four minutes left in the third quarter.

That score came after Baylor was forced to punt from its end zone after Von Miller sacked Griffin and forced a fumble on third down. After the kick and a 15-yard penalty for interference on the catch, Texas A&M got the ball at the Baylor 23.

Texas A&M cut Baylor's lead to 30-28 when Gray scored his second touchdown on a 13-yard scamper in the third quarter.

Jones missed a 27-yard field goal attempt on Baylor's first drive of the third quarter.

Finley leapt over the line and into the end zone on a 1-yard score late in the first quarter to make it 17-7.

That play was set up by a fumble by Ryan Swope that gave Baylor the ball the Texas A&M 26. Gray's 4-yard run early in the second quarter got Texas A&M within 17-14.

Finley's second score, also a 1-yard run, stretched the lead to 24-14 in the second quarter.

Texas A&M had Swope's touchdown called back when he was penalized for offensive pass interference.

Finley's 69-yard touchdown run came after that, but Aaron Jones missed the extra point and it was 30-14.

Texas A&M's Kenric McNeal had two touchdowns called back on the Aggies' last drive before halftime because of penalties. The Aggies finally scored later in that drive when Tannehill found Swope on a 12-yard pass to make it 30-21 two minutes before halftime.

A field goal attempt by Jones on the last play of the first half was blocked and Terrance Frederick returned it 71 yards to the Baylor 1.

Griffin's 71-yard run, where he busted straight through the line and up the field, pushed Baylor's lead to 10-0 with about 8 1/2 minutes in the first quarter. That run came on Baylor's first play after a failed fourth down attempt by Texas A&M.

The Aggies answered quickly after Griffin's long run, with Coryell Judie returning the ensuing kickoff 84 yards for a touchdown. It was his second straight game with a kickoff return for a touchdown after taking one back 100 yards last week.
