A NUMBERS GAME

11.3

Nebraska's average yards per play against Kansas State—a new school record. The Huskers totaled 587 yards on just 52 snaps, an average of 11.288 yards per play, breaking the previous record of 11.286 yards per play at Minnesota in 1983 (790 yards on 70 snaps). Nebraska also nearly broke the single-game yards per rush average at Kansas State. NU averaged 10.74 yards on 42 rushes, just shy of the 10.82 yards per rush at Minnesota in 1983.

THE MATCHUP

Nebraska returns to Lincoln for its Big 12 home opener taking on Texas in a rematch of the 2009 Big 12 Championship Game. The matchup of two of college football's heavyweights will be televised regionally on ABC, with kickoff set for 2:30 p.m. (CDT). Other parts of the country will be able to see the game on ESPN-HD.

The Huskers head into the contest with a 5-0 record and a 1-0 conference mark after a 48-13 dismantling of Kansas State last Thursday evening in Manhattan. Nebraska rolled up 451 rushing yards for its highest rushing total in nine seasons, and quarterback Taylor Martinez continued the explosive start to his career with four rushing touchdowns. The victory helped Nebraska move up to No. 4 in the USA Today Coaches Poll and fifth in the Associated Press poll, Nebraska's highest ranking since the end of the 2001 season.

Texas heads to Lincoln with a 3-2 overall mark and a 1-1 record in Big 12 Conference play. The Longhorns opened the year with three straight wins, but suffered back-to-back losses to UCLA and Oklahoma before taking a week off this past weekend. The consecutive losses led to the 'Horns falling out of the national rankings for the first time since 2000.

THE SERIES

Texas owns a 9-4 all-time edge in the series between the two schools, including an 8-1 advantage since the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996. Texas has won all three meetings in Lincoln since 1998, with the three victories by a total of nine points. In fact, six of UT's eight wins over Nebraska since 1996 have been by four or fewer points.

THE COACHES

Nebraska: Bo Pelini (Ohio State, '90) owns a 25-8 record in his third season. Pelini has guided NU to nine or more wins in each of his first two seasons as head coach, joining Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne and Frank Solich in accomplishing that feat. Pelini is the first coach in Big 12 history to guide his team to at least a share of division titles in each of his first two seasons.

Texas: Mack Brown (Florida State, '74) is in his 13th season as the Texas coach and his 27th season overall as a collegiate head coach. Brown has a 131-29 record with the Longhorns, including the 2005 national championship and a pair of Big 12 crowns. Brown has guided Texas to a 7-1 record against Nebraska.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

Nebraska is 832-341-40 all-time, one of just eight schools with 800 all-time victories ♦ Nebraska has won five national championships (1970, 1971, 1994, 1995, 1997). ♦ The Cornhuskers have won 43 conference championships. ♦ Nebraska's 46 all-time bowl appearances rank fifth nationally. ♦ Since 1970, Nebraska has 398 wins, 25 more than any other school. ♦ Nebraska's 98 football Academic All-Americans lead the nation. ♦ The Huskers have had 107 All-Americans in school history.

NOTING GAME 5...NEBRASKA 48, KANSAS STATE 13

► Nebraska improved to 5-0 for the first time since 2003. The win was also Nebraska's sixth straight over Kansas State, and Nebraska improved to 6-0 in Thursday night ESPN games.

► Nebraska won its sixth straight road game, NU's longest road winning streak since winning 10 straight road games from 1996 to 1998. NU has also won six straight road games in the Big 12 Conference, all by at least eight points. That streak is the longest for NU since an eight-game streak in 1996 and 1997.

► Nebraska allowed just 13 points, marking the 13th straight Nebraska opponent to score 21 or fewer points, the longest streak in the nation.

► Nebraska redshirt freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez carried the ball 15 times for 241 yards, including a 14-yard touchdown run to open the scoring in the first quarter, a 35-yard TD run in the second quarter, an 80-yard TD in the third quarter and a 41-yarder in the fourth quarter. The 80-yard run was his second 80-yard TD run in the past three games.

► The 241 rushing yards by Martinez were the eighth-most in school history and the 34th 200-yard rushing game in NU history. He set a single-game rushing record for a Nebraska quarterback, bettering Jammal Lord's 234 yards against Texas in 2002. The 200-yard rushing day was the first by an NU player since Marlon Lucky had 233 yards against Nevada in 2007, and it is the most yards by any Husker since Calvin Jones' school-record 294 yards at Kansas in 1991 as a redshirt freshman. Martinez owns four of the top 12 rushing efforts by a Nebraska freshman, including the top four among freshmen quarterbacks.

► Martinez's four-TD game marked the first time NU has had a player rush for four touchdowns since true freshman David Horne rushed for four touchdowns at Texas A&M in 2002.

► Martinez also completed 5-of-7 passes for 128 yards, and a 79-yard touchdown pass to tight end Kyler Reed. The Martinez to Reed connection was Nebraska's longest pass play since Jammal Lord connected with Matt Herian for an 80-yard touchdown pass against Colorado in 2002. It was the ninth-longest pass play in school history.

► Martinez accounted for a Nebraska freshman record 369 yards of total offense. His total offense mark surpassed Calvin Jones' 294 total offensive yards at Kansas in 1991. The 369 yards of total offense ranks in a tie for 11th in school history. Martinez has had at least 263 yards of total offense in four of five games this season.

► Senior I-back Roy Helu Jr. rushed for 110 yards on eight carries, marking his third 100-yard rushing game this season and the 10th of his career. Helu Jr. increased his career rushing total to 2,574 yards and moved up three spots to 11th on the NU career rushing list. Helu's 68-yard touchdown run in the third quarter was a career-long rush.

► Nebraska rushed for 451 yards as a team, its first 400-yard rushing game since putting up 413 against Nevada in 2007, and the most since posting 641 yards at Baylor in 2001. It marked NU's first 400-yard rushing game in conference play since 2001.

► Nebraska senior Mike McNeill pushed his career receptions total to 67, setting an NU tight end record, surpassing the previous record of 65 by Matt Herian from 2002 to 2006. Although McNeill is lining up at receiver this season, he spent his first three seasons as a tight end and accumulated 61 of his career receptions at that position.

► Nebraska junior linebacker Lavonte David finished with 16 tackles, marking his third double-figure tackle game of the season.

► Nebraska senior safety DeJon Gomes had a career-high 12 tackles, including a TFL and also forced a fumble.

► Nebraska had four scoring drives of five plays or less and has 17 scoring drives of five plays or less this season.

► Nebraska did not allow a K-State player to account for 300 yards of total offense, marking the 22nd straight game NU has not allowed an opposing player to reach 300 yards of total offense.

► Nebraska allowed just 135 passing yards, the fourth time in five games the Husker defense has allowed 135 or fewer passing yards. NU also intercepted a pass for the ninth straight game.

NEBRASKA HEAD COACH BO PELINI

Bo Pelini is in his third season as Nebraska's head coach and owns a 25-8 record with the Huskers. Pelini has helped Nebraska to at least a share of the Big 12 North title in each of his first two seasons, becoming the first coach in the history of the Big 12 to win at least a share of a division title in each of his first two seasons.

Pelini took charge of the Huskers after a highly successful five-year run as a collegiate defensive coordinator, including orchestrating NU's defensive efforts in 2003. Pelini picked up his first college head coaching victory as NU's interim coach in the 2003 Alamo Bowl against Michigan State.

Following his one season at Nebraska, Pelini served as the co-defensive coordinator at Oklahoma in 2004, helping the Sooners to the Big 12 title and BCS title game. He then followed with three seasons as the defensive coordinator at LSU. With the Tigers, Pelini led three consecutive defenses to No. 3 national rankings in total defense. He culminated his time in Baton Rouge by helping the Tigers to the 2007 national championship.

In addition to his five seasons at the collegiate level, Pelini coached in the NFL for nine seasons, serving three years each with the San Francisco 49ers, New England Patriots and Green Bay Packers. Pelini was a team captain and four-year letterman as a safety at Ohio State from 1987 to 1990.

PELINI STACKS UP WELL WITH PEERS

In guiding Nebraska to a 25-8 record in his first three seasons, Pelini put himself in some impressive company.

► Pelini is the fourth Nebraska head coach to win nine games in each of his first two seasons with the Cornhuskers. The others to reach that win plateau were Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne and Frank Solich.

► Pelini's nine victories in 2008 tied for the most among 18 coaches in their first season at their respective school. Among first-time head coaches, Pelini's victory total was the best in the nation. Pelini's 19 victories in his first two seasons are second among the hiring class of 2008.

► Pelini was just the eighth BCS Conference (since 1998) first-time head coach to post nine or more victories in his first season. He was just the second first-year head coach in that span to win nine games after inheriting a team with a losing record the previous year.

PELINI CONTINUES DEFENSIVE ACCOMPLISHMENTS AT NEBRASKA

Pelini has led an amazing defensive turnaround at Nebraska. The 2008 Nebraska defense was one of the nation's most improved units. In his first season, Pelini helped Nebraska finish second in the Big 12 in total defense, a year after the Huskers were 100th or worse in nearly every defensive category. Last fall, Nebraska was dominant on defense and its improvement was just as impressive. The Huskers led the nation in total defense and had the nation's best scoring defensive improvement (18.1 ppg).

With Pelini's previous track record, the success of his Nebraska defenses is no surprise.

► Pelini led the 2003 Blackshirts to impressive numbers. NU had a school-record 47 takeaways, including a Big 12-record 32 interceptions, and finished second nationally in scoring defense, first in pass efficiency defense and 11th in total defense.

► Pelini guided LSU defenses to No. 3 national finishes in total defense each of his three seasons in Baton Rouge.

► In 99 games as a collegiate coach, Pelini's defenses have posted 10 shutouts, held the opposition to seven points or less 34 times and to 20 points or less 65 times.

► Pelini-led defenses have 205 total takeaways, including two top-three national rankings.

STAFF RETURNS INTACT FOR THIRD STRAIGHT SEASON

Nebraska was long known for coaching staff continuity under Hall of Fame Coaches Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne. Third-year Head Coach Bo Pelini appears to embrace that same philosophy. NU is in its third straight season with its staff intact in 2010, as all nine full-time assistants enter at least their third season on the Husker sideline.

Nebraska is one of only nine schools nationally to have the same full-time coaching staff for at least the past three years, including only Baylor and Texas in the Big 12. Prior to last season, Nebraska had not had its full coaching staff remain the same from one season to the next since 2001 to 2002 when Frank Solich's staff was unchanged.

Pelini's staff had extensive ties to Nebraska and the Big 12 prior to the 2008 season. Every member of the Husker coaching staff had prior experience in the Big 12 before joining forces for the Huskers.

SCOUTING TEXAS

Texas began the year with a top-five preseason ranking and started 3-0 following a road win at Texas Tech. But the Longhorns have lost their last two games, being upset by unranked UCLA at home on Sept. 25 and losing the Red River Rivalry to No. 8 Oklahoma, 28-20, two weeks ago. With the back-to-back losses, Texas fell out of the top 25 for the first time since 2000, ending a streak of 162 consecutive weeks in the rankings. The Longhorns were off last weekend.

After losing only once in both the 2008 and 2009 seasons, Texas has already suffered its most losses since a 10-3 campaign in 2007. The Longhorns are looking to avoid their first three-game losing streak since 1999 on Saturday.

Texas boasts one of the nation's top defenses, as the Longhorns rank in the top 10 nationally in sacks, tackles for loss and total defense, while ranking 11th against the pass and 23rd against the run. But UT is only 40th in scoring defense, allowing an average of 20.0 points per game.

Part of the reason for that number has been turnovers. The Longhorns have turned the ball over 12 times while forcing only seven turnovers. Offensively, Texas does not rank in the top 50 in either rushing or passing offense, and the Longhorns rank 74th in total offense and 79th in scoring offense.

SERIES HISTORY

Texas leads the all-time series with Nebraska, 9-4. The Longhorns have won five straight in the series and own an 8-1 advantage over the Huskers since the inception of the Big 12 Conference. The five-game losing streak to Texas marks Nebraska's longest losing streak against any opponent since losing six straight to Oklahoma from 1972 to 1977. It is also the fourth-longest losing streak against a conference opponent in Nebraska history. The Longhorns have won four straight in Lincoln, owning a 4-1 all-time advantage at Memorial Stadium, including a 3-0 mark as conference opponents.

Despite Texas' success in the series, the games have generally been close. The teams have met nine times as conference opponents with an average score of 23-19 in favor of the Longhorns. Six of those nine games have been decided by four points or less, with Texas winning every time.

In the three most recent meetings, Texas has come from behind in the fourth quarter to pull out a victory. In 2006, No. 5 Texas forced a late fumble and kicked a 22-yard field goal with 23 seconds remaining to beat the Huskers, 22-20, in Lincoln. The next season, unranked Nebraska led 17th-ranked Texas by eight early in the fourth quarter, only to see Jamaal Charles break off touchdown runs of 25, 86 and 40 yards in a nine-minute span to rally for a 28-25 win. Then in last year's Big 12 Championship Game, No. 22 Nebraska took a two-point lead with 1:44 remaining, only to see No. 3 Texas kick a game-winning field goal as time expired.

TEXAS HEAD COACH MACK BROWN

Mack Brown owns the best winning percentage of any coach in Texas history and is only the second Longhorn coach ever to win 100 games at the school. A two-time national coach of the year, Brown has guided UT to nine consecutive 10-win seasons, the longest active streak in the country, and the second-longest streak in NCAA history.

The 2009 Big 12 Coach of the Year, Brown owns a 131-29 record at Texas. He has won at least nine games in each of his first 12 seasons at the school. Overall, Brown has produced 14 consecutive nine-win seasons as a head coach, dating back to a pair of 10-win campaigns in his final two seasons at North Carolina in 1996 and 1997.

Brown spent 10 seasons at UNC, posting a 69-46-1 record. He also coached Tulane to an 11-23 record in three seasons as head coach from 1985 to 1987.

800-WIN CLUB

Nebraska is one of eight programs with 800 all-time victories, joining Michigan, Notre Dame, Texas, Ohio State, Penn State, Alabama and Oklahoma. Nebraska's 832 all-time victories is fourth nationally.

1. Michigan 882
2. Texas 848
3. Notre Dame 840
4. Nebraska 832
5. Ohio State 825
6. Alabama 818
7. Penn State 814
8. Oklahoma 804

Nebraska is in its 121st season of college football, and owns an 832-341-40 all-time record in 1,213 games (.702).

► Since the first season of Nebraska football in 1890, Husker teams have won 11 or more games 12 times, including seven times since 1993.

► Nebraska has won 12 or more games seven times, including three seasons with 13 wins (1971, 1994, 1997).

► NU (702), Michigan (705), Alabama (728) and Notre Dame (736) were the only programs to win 700 games in the 1900s.

NATION'S BEST SINCE '70

Nebraska easily ranks as the nation's winningest program since the start of the 1970s, when Bob Devaney guided NU to back-to-back national titles in 1970 and 1971. During the past four decades, the Huskers have compiled a 398-100-5 record, for a .796 winning percentage in 503 games. NU's 398 wins in that time period are 25 more than any other school since 1970.

1. Nebraska 398
2. Ohio State 373
3. Oklahoma 369
4. Michigan 364
5. Penn State 360

► Nebraska has 37 nine-win seasons and 22 10-win seasons since 1970. Nebraska posted its first 10-win season since 2003 last fall, and has posted back-to-back nine-win seasons for the first time since 2000-2001.

► Nebraska was the first team in college football history to win 100 or more games in consecutive decades, ranking first in the 1980s (103-20) and second in the 1990s (108-16-1). NU narrowly missed 100 wins in the 1970s (98). Nebraska posted 84 wins in the recently completed decade.

1970 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM TO HAVE REUNION THIS WEEKEND

More than 50 members of the first Nebraska national championship team will be in Lincoln this weekend for the 40th anniversary of the national title. The group will have a private dinner on Friday evening at the Wick Alumni Center. On Saturday, the team members will take part in the Tunnel Walk and will also be honored on the field at halftime.

The 1970 team won the first of Nebraska's five national championships. Led by Coach Bob Devaney, the Huskers finished 11-0-1, and captured the Associated Press title.

Despite an undefeated record, Nebraska needed to win its bowl game and have both Texas and Ohio State lose to jump from third to first in the Associated Press poll. The Huskers took care of business with a 17-12 win over LSU in the Orange Bowl and both the Longhorns and Buckeyes lost their bowl games, allowing Nebraska to move to the No. 1 spot and claim its first-ever national title.

The Huskers shared the crown that season with Texas, who was the No. 1 team in the United Press International (UPI) poll. That final poll was voted on before the bowl season, when the undefeated Longhorns fell to No. 6 Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl.

NEBRASKA AND TEXAS SHARE LONG HISTORY OF SUCCESS

Texas and Nebraska rank second and fourth, respectively, in all-time victories and are two of just eight schools to record at least 800 wins in program history. The two schools have combined for nine national championships, 71 conference championships and 95 bowl appearances. Since the start of Big 12 play in 1996, the schools have combined for five league titles and 10 Big 12 Championship appearances.

AMAZING SERIES HISTORY

Arguably no series in college football has had more drama in recent years than the Nebraska-Texas matchups. Since the inception of the Big 12 in 1996, the teams have met nine times, six times in the regular season and three Big 12 Championship games. Texas holds an 8-1 edge in those contests, but they have not come easy. Texas' average margin of victory in those wins has been just 6.4 points, and six of the victories have come by a combined margin of 17 points.

► Two of Texas' past three victories have come on field goals with less than 25 seconds remaining. In 2006, Texas defeated Nebraska 22-20 on a field goal with 23 seconds left. In last year's Big 12 Championship Game, the Longhorns connected on a field goal as time expired for a 13-12 victory.

HUSKERS LOOK TO EXTEND BIG 12 WIN STREAK

Following a 48-13 win at Kansas State last Thursday, Nebraska has won six straight Big 12 regular-season games dating back to last October, when NU lost to Iowa State in Lincoln. The six-game winning streak is the longest in the Big 12 and marks only the fourth time that Nebraska has won more than five straight Big 12 games since the formation of the conference in 1996.

The Huskers' last conference win streak of longer than six games came in the 2000 and 2001 seasons when they compiled an eight-game Big 12 winning streak. Nebraska won its final 2000 regular-season game and its first seven conference games of the 2001 campaign.

A victory would also give Nebraska a 2-0 Big 12 record for the first time since 2006 and just the second time in the last nine seasons.

NEBRASKA ATTEMPTING TO SECURE WIN IN CONFERENCE HOME OPENER

Saturday's game will mark Nebraska's Big 12 home opener. The Huskers have won 30 of their past 32 conference home openers - including 12 of 14 in the Big 12 era - but Nebraska has lost its first conference home game in each of the past two seasons.

Nebraska won each of its first 12 Big 12 home openers before losing to Missouri in 2008. That loss snapped Nebraska's 30-game overall winning streak in conference home openers. A loss to Texas Tech in last year's Big 12 home opener marked the first time since the 1967 and 1968 seasons that NU lost its first conference home game in back-to-back seasons. The Huskers haven't lost their first league game at home in three straight seasons since losing three in a row from 1959 to 1961.

► In the Big 12 era (1996 to present), Nebraska has been dominant in its first league game at home. The Huskers have nearly doubled their opponents' point total with a combined score of 457-255. The average score of Nebraska's first Big 12 home games has been 33-18.

► Nebraska's victory at Kansas State was the 34th time in the last 36 years Nebraska has won its overall league opener, including a 13-2 record since the start of the Big 12. Nebraska is now 94-19-2 all-time in conference openers.

HUSKERS HOPE TO STAY UNBEATEN AGAINST LONGHORNS

Nebraska enters Saturday's matchup with a 5-0 record, marking the Huskers' first 5-0 start since 2003. Nebraska remains one of just 13 unbeaten teams in the country, including four Big 12 Conference schools. A victory over Texas on Saturday would give Nebraska its first 6-0 start since the Huskers won their first 11 games of the 2001 season.

► Nebraska has won 11 of its last 12 games overall entering this weekend, with the only loss the one-point setback to Texas in the Big 12 Championship Game. Only Ohio State and Boise State are perfect over their past 12 games.

► Nebraska's six-game overall win streak is the Huskers' second six-game winning streak under Head Coach Bo Pelini. Nebraska has not trailed at any point in its six-game win streak.

► Nebraska will be looking for the 27th 6-0 start in school history, with 19 of those coming since 1962.

NEBRASKA STARTING GAMES STRONG

Led by a quick-strike offense, Nebraska has been accustomed to fast starts this season. The Huskers scored just 3:47 into their season opener against Western Kentucky. A week later against Idaho, Nebraska scored on its opening drive again, with a field goal 7:20 into the game. Then at Washington, Nebraska drove 48 yards in only two plays to take a 7-0 lead just 2:11 into the game. Nebraska did not score until the second quarter against South Dakota State, but put two touchdowns on the board in a span of just 3:45. At K-State, NU scored a touchdown on its first drive, less than nine minutes into the game.

► The Huskers have scored on their opening possession in six of their last seven games. During the streak, the Huskers have scored four touchdowns (Arizona in 2009 and Western Kentucky, Washington and Kansas State in 2010) and two field goals (Texas in 2009 and Idaho in 2010).

► The Huskers have been especially fast starters on the road, scoring in the first four minutes of the game five times in the past seven games away from Lincoln, in addition to the score less than nine minutes into the game at Kansas State.

► Nebraska has outscored its opponents 38-7 in the first quarter in 2010. Overall, Nebraska has either led or been tied after the first quarter of play in 13 straight games (11 leads, two ties).

► The quick scores have afforded Nebraska the luxury of playing with a lead. In fact, the 2010 Huskers have yet to trail, and have only found themselves in scoreless ties. Through five games, Nebraska has been tied at 0-0 for a total of 37:15, and led its opposition for a total of 262:45. When including last year's Holiday Bowl, Nebraska has had a lead for more than 321 of a possible 360 minutes, and has not trailed in those six games.

► Forcing turnovers has also been a key part of the quick starts. In nine of the past 12 games, NU has forced a first-half turnover. These turnovers have resulted in seven touchdowns and two field goals.

NEBRASKA CHURNING OUT IMPRESSIVE RUSHING NUMBERS

Nebraska finds itself back among the Big 12 and national leaders in rushing offense. Nebraska is averaging 337.6 rushing yards per game to rank first in the Big 12 and second nationally in rushing.

The Huskers opened the season with 289 rushing yards against Western Kentucky, added 360 yards on the ground against Idaho and pounded Washington for 383 rushing yards. However, NU saved its most powerful running attack for Big 12 play, racking up 451 rushing yards at Kansas State—its most rushing yards in 109 games.

► Before its back-to-back 300-yard rushing games in games 2 and 3, NU had not topped 300 rushing yards in consecutive games since late in the 2002 season. NU's five straight 200-yard rushing games to start the season marks the longest streak for the Huskers since posting six straight 200-yard rushing games during the 2002 season.

► Nebraska's 451 rushing yards at Kansas State were its most since posting 641 rushing yards at Baylor in 2001. It also marked just the Huskers' second 400-yard rushing game in the past seven seasons (413 vs. Nevada, 2007).

► In thrashing Washington and Kansas State away from Lincoln, Nebraska rushed for more than 300 yards in back-to-back road games for the first time since 2001 when NU topped 300 rushing yards in back-to-back games at Missouri and Baylor.

► Nebraska has produced four of the top nine team rushing efforts since 2004 in the first five games of this season, including the first, third and fifth-best rushing efforts in that stretch.

► Nebraska had three players crack the century mark in rushing yards at Washington, as Taylor Martinez, Roy Helu Jr. and Rex Burkhead all surpassed 100 yards. The game marked the fifth time in school history Nebraska has had three players reach 100 rushing yards in the same game, and the first time it has happened since four Husker runners topped 100 yards at Baylor in 2001.

► Martinez and Helu Jr. also teamed up to produce double 100-yard rushing games against Idaho and Kansas State. The Idaho game marked the first time since 2006 (Iowa State) NU had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game. Nebraska has now had two players rush for 100 yards in the same game 68 times in school history. Nebraska already has had eight 100-yard rushing games this season after having just five each of the past two years and six in 2007.

► On the year, Nebraska is averaging a nation-leading 7.74 yards-per-carry, nearly a yard more than second-place Michigan (6.81 ypc).

HUSKERS SHOWING EXPLOSIVE ABILITY IN ALL PHASES

Nebraska has posted five decisive victories in 2010, and in the process has shown the ability to light up the scoreboard from anywhere on the field.

Quarterback Taylor Martinez has been the headliner in an offense that has flashed tremendous big-play ability and finds itself averaging a nation-leading 8.30 yards per play. That is just one of several impressive numbers posted by Nebraska in the first five games.

► Nebraska has reached the end zone 28 times in five games. The average length of those 28 touchdown plays has been 34.1 yards, with 15 of those plays covering at least 31 yards.

► Including a pair of interception return touchdowns, Nebraska had four scoring plays of 40 yards or more against Idaho, with each of those long scores coming in the second quarter. The four 40+-yard scores marked the first time Nebraska had four touchdowns of at least 40 yards since Nov. 2, 1996 at Oklahoma when NU also had four.

► Nebraska showed its lightning-quick scoring ability in a similar way at Washington. The Huskers opened the game with a two-play scoring drive, then scored three times in a span of less than seven minutes to open the second half, with each of those third-quarter scores covering at least 31 yards.

► Nebraska's offensive display at Kansas State was also remarkable. The Huskers had five touchdowns cover at least 35 yards, including scores of 80, 79 and 68 yards. The 79-yard pass play from Taylor Martinez to Kyler Reed was NU's longest pass play in eight seasons. NU set a school record at KSU by averaging 11.3 yards per play.

► Through five games, Nebraska has 33 offensive plays from scrimmage of at least 20 yards (21 rush, 12 pass). Last season, Nebraska posted 53 scrimmage plays of 20 yards or more in 14 games.

► The Husker offense has found the end zone in five-or-fewer plays on 14 of its 25 touchdown drives, including three one-play scoring drives, three more two-play scoring drives and four three-play touchdown drives. Twelve of the 25 drives have taken less than 2:00 off the clock, including eight touchdown drives using 1:00 or less.

► Nebraska's average touchdown drive this season lasts 4.9 plays and covers 67.0 yards in 2:08. The Huskers are averaging 13.6 yards per play during their touchdown drives and a whopping 23.2 yards per play in the 14 touchdown drives of five-or-fewer plays.

► Twenty-three of the 25 TD drives have taken less than four minutes. The Huskers' longest touchdown drive of the season came on their final scoring drive at Washington, when it took 5:57 and 11 plays to cover 80 yards. NU had a 5:09 scoring drive against South Dakota State.

NEBRASKA COMPLETES 2010

NON-CONFERENCE PERFECTION

Nebraska' 17-3 win over South Dakota State allowed the Huskers to finish non-league play with a perfect 4-0 mark. It marked just the third perfect non-conference slate for Nebraska since 2002, and the first since 2005.

► With a 4-0 record, Nebraska posted its 29th straight winning non-conference season. That streak dates back to a 2-2 non-league record in 1981. Since 1981, the Huskers have lost either one (12 times) or zero (17 times) non-conference games.

MARTINEZ MAKING NAME FOR HIMSELF ON NATIONAL LEVEL

Nebraska redshirt freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez has quickly emerged as a leading candidate for National Freshman of the Year, and perhaps bigger honors with his impressive start to the 2010 season. Just five games into his career, Martinez has already made a prominent mark in the Nebraska record book and shown the poise and game-breaking ability that made him the choice in a tight three-quarterback battle for the starting job.

Martinez has already accounted for the top four rushing games in school history by a freshman quarterback and four of the top 12 rushing efforts by any NU frosh. He has also accounted for at least 215 yards of total offense each week, while completing 39-of-64 passes. He is coming off a performance at Kansas State that thrust him into the national conversation as a Heisman Trophy contender. Martinez set an NU quarterback record with 241 rushing yards and four touchdowns on just 15 carries. He also set a Husker freshman total offense record with 369 yards.

The explosive effort at K-State was just the latest highlight in Martinez's highlight-filled 2010 campaign:

► Martinez has rushed for 737 yards on 53 carries, an average of 10.8 yards per carry. Martinez has 12 rushes of at least 20 yards, including touchdown runs of 67, 46, 43, 20, 80, 35, 80 and 41 yards. The 80-yard touchdown runs against Washington and Kansas State are the longest ever by a Nebraska freshman and the second-longest in school history by a Husker quarterback, trailing only Eric Crouch's school-record 95-yard TD run at Missouri in 2001. Martinez owns the three longest runs by an NU quarterback in the past nine seasons.

► Martinez averages 147.4 rushing yards per game to rank fourth in the nation and first in the Big 12. He is second among quarterbacks, trailing only Michigan's Dennard Robinson (165.2 ypg). Martinez tops all freshmen nationally in rushing, nearly 30 yards better than San Diego State running back Ronnie Hillman (118.8 ypg).

► Martinez's 10.8 yards per rush is tops among players in the top 100 nationally in rushing, leading Cincinnati running back Isaiah Peed by nearly a yard (9.8 ypc). Martinez easily outdistances all quarterbacks, with Michigan's Robinson second at 8.33 yards per carry.

► Martinez had 127 rushing yards in the opener, the most ever by a Nebraska freshman quarterback, but he has topped that three times since. He had 157 yards on 14 carries against Idaho, 137 yards at Washington, and an NU quarterback record 241 yards at Kansas State. The 241 rushing yards were the second-most ever by an NU freshman, while his 157 yards vs. Idaho were the sixth-most ever for a Husker frosh. The four 100+ outings this season are the top four rushing totals by an NU quarterback in the past eight seasons.

► Martinez's 127 rushing yards against Western Kentucky were the most by an NU quarterback in an opener since Tommie Frazier's 130-yard effort against West Virginia in 1994.

► The three straight 100-yard rushing games marks the first time a Nebraska quarterback has topped the century mark in three straight games since Eric Crouch in 2001. Prior to this season, no NU quarterback had topped the century mark on the ground since Jammal Lord in 2003.

► Martinez has rushed for a nation-leading 12 touchdowns, including three each against Western Kentucky and Washington, and four against Kansas State. Martinez is tied for first nationally in scoring, averaging 14.4 points per game. His 12 rushing touchdowns are the fourth-most ever by a Nebraska freshman, just two shy of the record.

► Martinez's three rushing TDs vs. WKU were the most ever by an NU freshman in a season opener. It marked the second straight season an NU player has rushed for three touchdowns in the season opener. Roy Helu Jr. scored three rushing touchdowns against Florida Atlantic last season.

► Martinez is the first player to have three games with three or more rushing touchdowns in a season since Eric Crouch had four games with at least three touchdowns in 2000. Martinez's effort at KSU also marked the most rushing TDs by a Husker since true freshman I-back David Horne had four rushing touchdowns at Texas A&M in 2002.

► Martinez's two 80-yard rushes are the longest by any Nebraska player since Cory Ross had an 86-yard touchdown run against Missouri in 2004.

► Martinez's 737 rushing yards already rank fourth on the Nebraska freshman season rushing chart, and tops among quarterbacks. Eric Crouch held the previous Nebraska freshman QB record with 459 yards in 1998. Martinez is 263 yards from the second 1,000-yard rushing season by a Nebraska freshman and the fourth 1,000-yard season by a Nebraska quarterback.

BACKS MAKING MOST OF TOUCHES

Nebraska quarterbacks and I-backs made the most of their offensive touches this season. The explosive Nebraska offense has had just 58, 59, 65, 65 and 52 snaps, respectively, in the first five games, but plenty of players have taken advantage of their opportunities to post impressive numbers.

Nebraska churned out 289 rushing yards on just 33 attempts against Western Kentucky, an average of 8.8 yards per tote, its best since the 2004 opener against Western Illinois when NU averaged 9.3 yards per rush. Nebraska didn't miss a beat against Idaho, again averaging 8.8 yards per attempt with 360 yards on 41 rushing attempts. At Washington, Nebraska totaled 383 yards on 54 carries, an average of 7.1 yards per carry. Those impressive totals were nothing compared to NU's 10.74 yards per rush against Kansas State, just shy of the school record of 10.82 yards per carry set in 1983.

► Martinez has averaged more than 10 yards per rush in three of five games, including 18.1 yards on seven rushes vs. WKU, 11.2 yards per attempt on 14 carries against Idaho, and 16.1 yards on 15 carries at Kansas State. He leads the nation at 10.84 yards per carry.

► Sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead has 58 touches this season, and has accumulated 458 yards, an average of 7.9 yards per touch. He is averaging 6.9 yards on his 52 rushing attempts and 16.2 yards on six pass receptions. Seven of his touches have covered at least 20 yards.

► Senior I-back Roy Helu Jr. has also made the most of 51 rushing attempts, rolling up 415 yards. Helu Jr. is averaging 8.1 yards per carry. Helu has three touchdown runs of at least 58 yards this season and has seven rushes of 50 yards or more in his career. His 68-yard touchdown run at Kansas State was a career long, bettering his 65-yarder at Washington in September.

HELU JR. CLIMBING NEBRASKA RUSHING CHARTS

Nebraska I-back Roy Helu Jr. emerged as one of the Big 12's top backs in 2008, and battled through injuries to surpass 1,000 rushing yards last year as a junior. Helu's effort in 2009 earned him second-team All-Big 12 honors and the 6-0, 220-pounder is poised for big things in 2010. Helu is part of an impressive stable of Nebraska running backs that also includes sophomores Rex Burkhead and Dontrayevious Robinson.

Helu posted four 100-yard rushing games last season, and has topped 100 yards against Idaho, Washington and Kansas State in 2010, giving him 10 career 100-yard games. He is just the 15th player in NU history with at least 10 100-yard rushing games. Helu has scored at least one touchdown four of five games, and his 22 career rushing touchdowns make him one of 24 Nebraska players with at least 20 career rushing touchdowns.

Helu's best games seemed to come against top competition, as he surpassed the century mark against both Virginia Tech and Oklahoma in 2009, including a career-high 169 yards against the Hokies. Helu's 81.9 yards per game in 2009 ranked fourth in the Big 12, and his 1,147 rushing yards were the 16th-most in NU history.

► Helu has 2,574 career rushing yards, and moved into the top 20 on the Nebraska career rushing list against Idaho, passing All-Americans Bobby Reynolds and Jeff Kinney, along with Doug DuBose. Helu Jr. is now 11th on the career rushing list and just 125 yards from the career top 10. If he were to post a second 1,000-yard rushing season in 2010, he would finish fourth on the NU career list. Helu is also bidding to be the first Husker to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons since Calvin Jones in 1992 and 1993.

► Helu has shined against top competition and in road environments. Helu has three 100-yard rushing games in NU's last seven contests against ranked opponents and has averaged 6.2 yards per carry. In 10 road games since the beginning of the 2008 campaign, Helu has rushed for 1,031 yards on 151 carries, 6.8 yards per tote.

► Helu had a Big 12-best 12 runs of 20+ yards in 2009, and 23 rushes of at least 20 yards over his past 22 games.

► Helu had three of the nine 150-yard rushing games by Big 12 players in 2009, and four of the top 13 rushing efforts in the league last season.

POINTS AT A PREMIUM VS. HUSKERS

After holding Kansas State to 13 points last Thursday, Nebraska has now held 13 consecutive opponents to 21 or fewer points. The Huskers' streak of allowing 21-or-fewer points leads the nation after Alabama gave up 35 points to South Carolina last Saturday. Nebraska has allowed an opponent to score 20 points only three times since the start of the 2009 season, the best total in the country.

Nebraska and West Virginia are the only two FBS teams to hold every opponent this season to 21-or-fewer points.

BLACKSHIRTS KEEPING OPPOSING

QUARTERBACKS IN CHECK

In 14 games last season, no Nebraska opposing individual had a 300-yard total offense game. Nebraska's first five 2010 opponents also have not had a player with 300 yards of total offense. The Huskers also held Clemson, Colorado and Kansas State without a 300-yard total offensive game at the end of the 2008 season, giving NU a streak of 22 straight games without allowing an individual 300 yards of total offense.

The last opponent individual to gain 300 yards of total offense against Nebraska was Todd Reesing, QB, Kansas, Nov. 8, 2008 (304 passing, 35 rushing – 339 total).

► 2009 marked the first season since 1995, that Nebraska did not allow at least one opposing individual to amass 300 total offense yards in one game during the season.

► The 22-game streak without a 300-yard total offensive effort is the longest stretch without an opposing individual producing a 300-yard total offense game since NU had a 42-game streak – Chad May, K-State, 1993 to James Brown, Texas, Big 12 Championship Game, 1996

TOTAL DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE

Nebraska ranked seventh nationally in total defense at 272.0 yards per game in 2009, its best defensive average since allowing 252.3 yards per game in 1999. This fall, Nebraska is allowing 275.0 yards to rank 12th in the nation.

► Nebraska held seven straight foes to fewer than 280 total yards from games 2-8, the longest sub-300-yard streak for an NU defense since 1996. Four of those games were against Big 12 foes, the longest streak by the Blackshirts in league play since 1996.

► NU held 13 of 14 opponents to fewer total offensive yards than their season average.

► Nebraska has held each of its first five opponents this season to 315 or fewer yards.

In terms of keeping points off the board the Husker defense has a tough act to follow after an impressive 2009 effort. The 2009 NU defense finished first nationally in scoring defense at 10.4 points per game, and held seven foes to single digits and eight teams to 10 or fewer points. Both of those totals led the nation. Nebraska posted two shutouts for the first time since 2003. This season, Nebraska has allowed 64 points in five games (12.8 ppg), and ranks fourth nationally in scoring defense.

► Nebraska's 10.4 points per game allowed last season were the fewest since the 1984 Nebraska defense also led the nation by allowing just 9.5 points per game. NU had not allowed fewer than 15 points per game since 2003.

► NU allowed just 25 trips into the red zone by its opponents, the second-fewest red-zone chances in the nation. Only 11 of those drives ended in touchdowns and Nebraska's 64 percent rank in red zone defense was the nation's best. Nebraska has allowed 11 red-zone drives in 2010.

► The Huskers had a streak of 11 straight quarters without allowing an offensive touchdown in 2009 and allowed only 10 offensive touchdowns in eight Big 12 games.

► Nebraska allowed a touchdown in the fourth quarter against Western Kentucky, ending a streak of nine straight quarters without allowing a touchdown. It also ended a streak of 13 straight quarters of not allowing a touchdown at Memorial Stadium.

► Nebraska held 13 of 14 opponents to 20 or fewer points last season. To put that accomplishment in perspective, NU held just six opponents to less than 20 points in 2007 and 2008 combined.

► Only five Nebraska opponents have scored as many as 17 points since the start of the 2009 season.

► Nebraska allowed just three points against South Dakota State. In the past two seasons, Nebraska has allowed 10 or fewer points in 10 games. In 10 home games over the past two seasons, Nebraska has held eight of 10 opponents to 10 points or less, including two of three in 2010.

NO FREE PASSES

"This is the best pass defense in America."

–Washington Head Coach Steve Sarkisian after Nebraska held the Huskies to just four completions and 71 passing yards

Nebraska led the nation in pass efficiency defense in 2009 and returned eight defensive backs with starting experience this fall, making the Husker secondary one of the most highly regarded in the nation. Through five games, NU is again atop the pass efficiency defense chart. The Huskers also lead the nation in passing yards allowed per game, and have caused major problems for opposing passers, including highly rated prospects Nathan Enderle of Idaho and Jake Locker of Washington.

► Nebraska opponents are completing 50.0 percent of their pass attempts, including a 4-of-20 effort by Washington's Jake Locker. The 50.0 percent completion rate is sixth nationally. Opponents have thrown for four touchdown passes in five games. Last season, NU opponents completed 47.8 percent of their passes (No. 4 in nation), and NU allowed just seven passing TDs (second-fewest nationally).

► Nebraska has 11 interceptions this season, with at least one in each game. The 11 picks are tied for fourth nationally. Nebraska has intercepted a nation-leading 8.09 percent of opposing passes. Last season, Nebraska tied for seventh in the nation with 20 interceptions.

► Ten of NU's 14 opponents in 2009 completed 50 percent or less of their pass attempts, and five opponents had less than 150 yards passing. NU's 2010 opponents are averaging 128.0 passing yards per game, including four with 135 yards or less. Washington threw for just 71 passing yards and South Dakota State had 95 yards.

► Nebraska allowed an average of 178.9 yards per game through the air in 2009, NU's best pass defense since allowing 177.8 yards per game in 2003.

► The Huskers' five-interception effort against Idaho was the second time in the past two seasons NU has picked off five passes (also Oklahoma, 2009). Nebraska has intercepted at least two passes in seven of its past 12 games. NU has had at least one INT in nine straight games.

► Nebraska returned two interceptions for touchdowns against Idaho, tying a school record that had been accomplished five other times. Both of the pick-six scores came in the second quarter marking the first time NU has ever returned two interceptions for touchdowns in the same quarter. Nebraska added an interception return for a touchdown at Washington. It is the first time Nebraska has had three INT returns for a touchdown in a season since 2005. The school record for interceptions for touchdowns is five set in both 1971 and 1995.

► Nebraska has posted 198 return yards on its 11 interceptions, an average of 18.0 yards per return. The school record for most interception return yards in a season is 523 in 1970 on 30 interceptions.

PRINCE LEADS A ROYAL NEBRASKA SECONDARY

In the season's first five games it has been hard to single out one player as the standout in the Nebraska. All six players who see the most extensive action have produced big plays and played a key role in the shutdown ability of the Cornhusker secondary.

Senior cornerback Prince Amukamara was the most recognizable name coming into the season after earning his share of honors last fall and putting his name on many preseason All-America teams. A first-tem All-Big 12 pick in 2009, Amukamara is regarded as the cornerstone of a deep and veteran Nebraska secondary.

In the season's first five games, Amukamara has shown why he earned the preseason hype, but ironically he is the only player among NU's top seven defensive backs who has not picked off a pass in 2010. Despite not picking off a pass, his lockdown ability has been a key part of Nebraska defenders recording 11 picks.

Amukamara has made 20 tackles, while posting a team-high six pass breakups. He has had two breakups each against Idaho and Kansas State and has six games the past two seasons with multiple pass breakups. His first PBU against the Vandals deflected into the air and was intercepted by P.J. Smith--the first of five NU picks in the game. The 6-1, 205-pounder has 20 career pass breakups, which places him in a tie for 10th on the Husker career list.

BAND OF BLACKSHIRT THIEVES

Amukamara is the highest profile member of the Nebraska secondary, but opposing quarterbacks have found that the football is never safe with the Huskers' ball-hawking secondary crew.

▶ Fellow cornerback Alfonzo Dennard gives Nebraska two of the nation's top cover corners. Dennard has three interceptions this season, including a 31-yard touchdown return for a score against Washington. He is tied for ninth nationally in interceptions, and also has 13 tackles and three pass breakups.

▶ Senior safety DeJon Gomes has been a turnover machine during his Nebraska career. Gomes has had a hand in nine turnovers in the past 15 games, including five interceptions and five fumbles caused. Gomes has caused fumbles against Western Kentucky and Kansas State. He also picked off an Idaho pass and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown. Gomes ranks second on the team with 42 tackles, including a career-high 12 stops at Kansas State.

▶ Senior Eric Hagg is Nebraska's nickel back. Hagg has two interceptions this season, including Washington's first pass attempt of the game, that set up the Huskers' opening score. He also had two breakups against the Huskies and his three PBU this season are third on the team. Hagg earned Big 12 Co-Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors for his effort at Washington.

▶ Senior safety Rickey Thenarse has returned in style from a season-ending knee injury in 2009. Thenarse had a 47-yard interception return for a touchdown against Idaho. He also ranks third on the team with 28 tackles and forced a fumble against Washington. He had a career-high 10 tackles against South Dakota State.

▶ Sophomore safety P.J. Smith regularly enters the game when Nebraska moves to six defensive backs. Smith is tied for the team lead and ranks in the top 10 nationally with three interceptions. He also has 19 tackles.

BLACKSHIRTS BOAST AMAZING IMPROVEMENTS OVER PAST TWO SEASONS

Nebraska Head Coach Bo Pelini, defensive coordinator Carl Pelini and a strong defensive staff have led one of the most remarkable turnarounds in college football in recent years. Nebraska was one of the nation's most improved defenses in 2008, finishing second in the Big 12 in total defense just one season after ranking last in the Big 12 and 112th nationally in total defense. As impressive as the progress was in 2008, the Blackshirts made even larger strides as a unit in 2009 and are continuing to dominate in 2010.

▶ Two seasons after ranking 116th nationally in scoring defense (37.9 ppg), NU led the nation in that category at 10.4 points per game. NU allowed 28.5 points per game in 2008 and its 18.1 ppg improvement last fall easily led the nation. Nebraska's 79-spot move from 80th nationally in total defense in 2008 to first in 2009 was also the nation's best. This season Nebraska is allowing 12.8 ppg.

▶ In two seasons, Nebraska's sack total has increased from 13 to 35 to 44 in 2009. Through five games this season, NU has 11 sacks, including a seven-sack effort against Idaho.

▶ Against the run, NU cut its per-game average nearly in half in 2008, then shaved another 23 yards per game off its average allowed in 2009. The Huskers are allowing 147.0 rushing ypg in 2010.

▶ Nebraska improved 48 places (55th to 7th) in total defense in 2009, improving from 349.9 yards per game to 272.0 yards per game and the 77.9-yard improvement was the sixth-best in the nation. The Huskers are allowing 275.0 yards per game this season to rank 12th nationally and have held four of five foes to less than 300 yards.

▶ Nebraska led the nation in pass efficiency defense and finished 18th in passing yards allowed per game, an improvement of 71 places--the fourth-best in the nation. This season, Nebraska is leading the nation in both pass efficiency defense and passing yards allowed.

THREE TRUE FROSH SEEING ACTION

While redshirt freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez stole the majority of the headlines in the season opener and throughout the season, several other young players have made an impact.

Three true freshmen made their debuts in the opener, including offensive guard Andrew Rodriguez, wide receiver Quincy Enunwa and cornerback Ciante Evans. Rodriguez has played a reserve role throughout the early season. Enunwa has one catch for 10 yards and Evans has three tackles.

Rodriguez is just the eighth true freshman offensive lineman to play at Nebraska and the first since 2006. Rodriguez is the first true freshman offensive lineman to play in a season opener since Toniui Fonoti and John Garrison each appeared in the 1999 season opener against Iowa.

FIRST-TIME STARTERS

Seven NU players made their first career starts against Western Kentucky, most notably redshirt freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez, the first redshirt or true freshman QB ever to start a season opener for Nebraska.

Joining Martinez on offense in making their first starts were center Mike Caputo and left tackle Jeremiah Sirles. Defensively, Nebraska's first-time starters included defensive tackle Baker Steinkuhler, defensive end Cameron Meredith and linebackers Alonzo Whaley and Lavonte David.

David led the defense with 13 total tackles, while Steinkuhler registered an eight-yard sack, the first of his career. Overall, 16 players made their NU debuts in the opener, including starters Martinez, Sirles, Whaley and David. Safety P.J. Smith made his first career start against Idaho and I-back Rex Burkhead and linebacker Eric Martin were in the starting lineup for the first time at Washington.

NU ADDS TO SEASON-OPENING STREAK

Nebraska extended its season-opening win streak to 25 straight with its 49-10 win over Western Kentucky. The Huskers' streak leads the nation, bettering Florida's 21 straight wins. NU's last loss in a season opener was a 17-13 setback against Florida State at Memorial Stadium in 1985.

► Nebraska has won each of the 25 games by at least 10 points, and has scored at least 40 points in 18 of the 25 games, including each of the last five seasons.

► The Cornhuskers have limited the opponent to 14 points or less 17 times in the winning streak.

► NU has won its three openers under Pelini by at least 23 points, with an average margin of victory of 36.0 points.

CRICK LOOKING FOR ANOTHER AWARD-WINNING SEASON

Junior defensive tackle Jared Crick emerged as a standout performer last fall and is poised for big things in 2010. The 6-6, 285-pound Crick was named the preseason Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and was a first-team preseason All-America choice by numerous outlets.

Crick has opened 2010 in strong fashion, helping the Nebraska defense set the tone in five comfortable victories. Crick has 23 tackles through four games, good for fourth on the team. He broke out against Idaho with 2.5 sacks for 30 yards and four tackles for losses, totaling 32 yards. Crick ranks second on the team in sacks and his five tackles for loss leads the team. His five quarterback hurries is second on the team.

Crick has pushed his career sack total to 12, just two shy of the Nebraska career top 10.

In 2009, Crick pushed Ndamukong Suh for team statistical leads in tackles, sacks and tackles for loss all season. Crick finished with 73 tackles, 15 tackles for loss, 9.5 sacks, 16 quarterback hurries and two fumble recoveries. Crick had one of the most prolific defensive days in school history with a record-setting performance at Baylor.

► Crick had a school-record five sacks for 24 yards in the game.

His five sacks were the most in a single game by any player in the nation in 2009, just ahead of Suh's 4.5 sacks against Texas.

► Crick had seven tackles for loss, tying the NU school record also held by Jim Skow (1985 vs. Missouri) and Suh (2009 vs. Texas).

The seven TFLs by Crick and Suh were three more than any other Big 12 player in 2009.

► Crick earned Big 12 and national defensive player-of-the-week honors for his performance, before going on to first-team All-Big 12 honors. Crick's 5.2 tackles per game ranked second only to Suh among Big 12 defensive interior linemen.

DAVID POSTING IMPRESSIVE TACKLE TOTALS

Nebraska junior linebacker Lavonte David arrived on the Nebraska campus just a few short months ago. But he has proven to be a quick learner and has moved into a leading role on the Nebraska defense. David has a team-high 60 tackles, and his 12.0 tackles per game leads the Big 12 and ranks in a tie for seventh nationally. David also ranks second on the team with five pass breakups and his four tackles for loss are tied for second on the team.

► David had a team season-high 19 tackles in the Huskers' victory over South Dakota State. David's tackle total was the highest for a Nebraska player since Barrett Ruud totaled 19 tackles at Kansas State in 2004. Ruud, a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, is Nebraska's all-time leading tackler.

► The 19 tackles vs. SDSU were not only the best by a Husker in six seasons, but the total also ranked in a tie for the seventh-most tackles in school history.

► David backed that up with 16 tackles at Kansas State, giving him the top two single-game tackle totals for the Huskers in the past six seasons. His effort at Kansas State also earned David Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors. His 35 tackles in back-to-back games are the best for a Husker since Ruud had 36 tackles in back-to-back games against Kansas State and Missouri in 2004.

HENERY KICKING WAY INTO NEBRASKA RECORD BOOK

Alex Henery is poised to continue his assault on the NU record book this season, while challenging Big 12 and NCAA records. The senior from Omaha also emerged as one of the conference's top punters last season. Henery was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award last season and should be a leading contender for the award in 2010.

Henery connected on a school-record 24-of-28 field goals in 2009, including three games with at least four field goals. He hit 5-of-5 field goals at Virginia Tech, the second-highest field goal total in school history, trailing only Dale Klein's school-record seven field goals in 1985. He also supplied all the scoring by hitting 4-of-4 field goals in a 13-12 loss to Texas in the Big 12 title game, and finished the year with a perfect 4-of-4 effort against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl.

► Henery has six career games with four or more field goals, an accomplishment that has already tied an NCAA record. He has 12 multiple-FG games in his career, including two field goals at Kansas State last week.

► Henery's 24 field goals in 2009 shattered the school record, and he has made 54 field goals in 61 career attempts, making him the most accurate kicker in school history. His 54 field goals are just three field goals from the school record, held by 11-year NFL veteran Kris Brown. Henery has a current streak of 12 straight made field goals.

► Henery was the second-most accurate returning field goal kicker in the nation. He is also the most accurate kicker in NU history on extra points, hitting 167-of-168 in his career, a 99.4 percent accuracy rate. He has made 90 straight PATs, including perfect PAT seasons as a freshman and junior.

► Among Henery's seven career missed field goals, just two have come from less than 50 yards. In fact, Henery had a streak of 25 straight made field goals from inside 50 yards. Henery has also made 13 career field goals from 44 yards or longer.

NU POSTS WIN NO. 500 IN LINCOLN

Nebraska posted its 500th all-time victory in Lincoln with its 38-17 victory over Idaho in Lincoln on Sept. 11. The Huskers own a 500-137-20 record all-time home record, with 375 of those victories coming at Memorial Stadium.

The 500th home victory put Nebraska in elite company, as only three other schools have recorded 500 home victories in college football history. The Huskers joined Michigan, Ohio State and Tennessee in the club.

► Henery became the fifth Nebraska player with at least 300 career points against Idaho. He currently has 329 points to rank third in school history. Henery needs 60 points to set a new career scoring record.

► Henery has scored 110 points each of the past two seasons, eighth on the single-season list. His two 110-point seasons trail only Kris Brown (116 in 1997) for season scoring by a kicker. A third 100-point season this fall would move Henery to the top of Nebraska's career scoring list. Henery is third nationally in scoring among active players.

► Henery averaged 41.4 yards in his first season as Nebraska's starting punter, making him one of only three players nationally to rank in the top 50 in both field goals and punting average. Henery led the Big 12 with 30 punts downed inside the 20, including an impressive eight inside the three-yard line. He is averaging 44.4 yards on 18 punts this season, with seven of those downed inside the 20, and six of his kicks traveling at least 50 yards.

SENIORS PAUL AND MCNEILL HEADLINE RECEIVING CORPS

Nebraska has a pair of senior receiving targets who have made a major impact in the passing game for each of the past three seasons.

Wide receiver Niles Paul led NU's receiving corps in 2009, catching 40 passes for 796 yards and four touchdowns. Paul's receiving yardage total was the fifth-best total in school history and his 19.9 yards per catch led the Big 12 Conference. His per-catch average also ranked third in school history among players with at least 20 receptions and top among players with 40 catches in a season.

► Paul tied the NU school record in 2009 with four 100-yard receiving games, including three in Big 12 play and against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl. His 154 yards on four catches at Kansas represented the sixth-best receiving day in NU history, while his 143 yards vs. Iowa State ranked ninth.

► Paul earned Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP honors by accounting for 237 all-purpose yards, including 123 receiving yards. He had a career-long 74-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter to cap the scoring in a 33-0 rout.

► Paul had 11 catches of at least 20 yards, with nine of those covering 35 yards or more. His 38.5 yards per catch at Kansas was the second-best single-game effort in the Big 12 in 2009.

► Paul ranked second in the Big 12 in both kickoff return and punt return average in 2009, and his 121.2 all-purpose yards per game ranked ninth in the Big 12.

► Paul became the first Husker since Dana Brinson (1986) to lead Nebraska in receiving, kickoff return yards, punt return yards and all-purpose yards. The only other Huskers in history to lead the Huskers in all four categories in the same season are: Johnny Rodgers (1970, 1971, 1972), Pat Fischer (1958) and Dick Hutton (1946). The only other Husker in history to lead NU in four offense/special teams yardage categories in the same season was Frank Solich (1964 – all-purpose, KOR, PR, rushing).

Paul's start to 2010 has shown that he could be poised for big numbers as a senior. Paul accounted for 158 all-purpose yards against Western Kentucky, including five receptions for 92 yards and a 33-yard TD grab. He had two catches of at least 20 yards against the Hilltoppers, then led NU with four catches against Idaho. Paul has had at least four catches in five of his past 10 games dating back to last season.

Paul moved into the top 10 on the Nebraska career receptions list against Idaho, and at 75 career catches, he has an opportunity to become just the sixth player in school history with 100 career catches. Paul's 1,177 career receiving yards are 10th in NU history, and he is less than 500 yards from moving to fourth.

The 6-4, 235-pound McNeill has been a fixture in a deep group of NU tight ends the past two seasons. McNeill was second on the team with 28 catches for 259 yards last season. He also tied with Paul for the team lead with four touchdown catches. McNeill has shifted to receiver where he teams with Paul and junior Brandon Kinnie to give Nebraska one of the Big 12's biggest and most physical receiving corps.

► In 2008, McNeill set a season position record with 32 receptions, while his six touchdown receptions were just one shy of the position record.

► McNeill has 67 career catches to rank in a tie for 14th on the Nebraska career list. McNeill's receptions total represents a Nebraska career tight ends reception record, bettering the 65 by Matt Herian from 2002 to 2006. McNeill is 144 yards from becoming the 19th Husker and fourth NU tight end to reach 1,000 career receiving yards. He snared his 11th career touchdown with a 24-yard grab at Washington, then had a career-long 64-yard reception against South Dakota State.

Kinnie also has made huge strides in the offseason, and opened the year with a career-high six receptions and 59 yards against Western Kentucky, before adding three catches against Idaho. He excelled against Washington with five receptions for a career-high 105 yards. He totaled 180 all-purpose yards, adding 75 yards on kickoff returns. Kinnie leads the team with 17 receptions for 205 yards.

Behind Paul, McNeill and Kinnie, Nebraska is averaging 16.0 yards per completion this season, a mark that ranks fourth in the country.

ROAD WARRIORS

Nebraska's 48-13 win at Kansas State marked the Huskers' sixth straight road victory. Each of the six wins in Nebraska's current road win streak have been by at least eight points. The winning streak is Nebraska's longest on the road since winning 10 straight road games from 1996 to 1998. The Huskers' last road loss was a 16-15 setback at Virginia Tech last season.

Nebraska has also won its last six Big 12 road games, NU's longest since winning its first eight league road games when the Big 12 was formed in 1996 and 1997. Nebraska won 19 straight league road games from 1992 to 1997 (Big Eight and Big 12). The 4-0 record in Big 12 road games in 2009 was the first for Nebraska since 1997.

► Nebraska was one of just 13 teams nationally to own a perfect conference road record in 2009.

► Nebraska is 7-2 on the road in Big 12 play under Bo Pelini, with both losses against top-10 teams.

HUSKERS PROMINENT ON NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE ROSTERS

Nebraska has a long-standing tradition of placing large numbers of players in the NFL. Nebraska had 26 players on 2010 NFL opening-day rosters and three other players on practice squads. The Huskers are represented on the rosters of 19 NFL teams. Nearly 40 former Huskers were in NFL training camps.

Nebraska owns one of the most impressive histories of any school in producing NFL-caliber players. Since the start of Big 12 play in 1996, Nebraska has led all Big 12 schools with 65 players selected in the NFL Draft. No other conference school has had more than 57 players chosen in that period. The Huskers have been especially impressive on defense, with 43 players chosen since 1997. No other Big 12 school has had more than 30.

Three Huskers were selected in the 2010 NFL Draft, marking the 41st consecutive season at least three Nebraska players were taken in the draft.

LOFTY RANKINGS

Nebraska finished the 2009 season with its highest post-season ranking (No. 14 in both polls) since the 2001 season. The Huskers also started the 2010 season in its best poll position in several seasons.

► The Huskers were No. 8 in the preseason Associated Press Poll and were ranked ninth in the first USA Today Coaches Poll. The rankings represent NU's highest starting position since opening at No. 4 in the AP poll in 2001.

► Nebraska's No. 8 preseason ranking was the first time in the top 10 at any point since being ranked 10th by the AP in October of 2003 following a 5-0 start to the season.

► NU is ranked fifth in the Oct. 10 AP poll and fourth in the coaches poll, Nebraska's highest rankings since entering the 2002 Rose Bowl against Miami ranked fourth in the nation. NU had been No. 6 in the AP poll three times this season, before moving to fifth this week. NU rose two spots to fourth in the coaches poll after its victory at Kansas State.

► Nebraska received one first-place vote in the Sept. 19 USA Today Coaches Poll, the first time since 2001 that NU has received a first-place vote in either poll. This week, Nebraska received two first-place votes in the coaches poll.

HUSKERS CARRYING LATE-SEASON MOMENTUM INTO 2010

Nebraska entered 2010 with a surge of momentum after playing outstanding football late in the 2009 season.

► Nebraska won six of its final seven games last fall, as it also did to finish the 2008 campaign. The 6-1 second-half records the past two seasons are the school's best seven-game finishes since 1999. Nebraska is one of only 12 teams in the FBS to open 2010 having won at least six of its final seven games last season.

► Nebraska's win over Kansas State gave the Huskers their 11th win in its past 12 games dating back to last season. Nebraska's 11-1 mark is its best stretch at any point since winning 13 straight games, including its final two games of 2000 and first 11 of 2001. Only Boise State and Ohio State are perfect in the past 12 games.

The Huskers are looking to improve their first-half record over the past two seasons. NU opened with a 3-0 record in 2008, but dropped three straight before its strong finish. Last fall, NU was 4-3 at the midway point of the season before its late-season surge. Pelini-coached Nebraska teams are 15-6 in games played before Halloween and 10-2 in games on or after Nov. 1, with the only losses against teams ranked in the top four nationally. The Huskers have dropped two games in each of the past two Octobers.

NEBRASKA HOPING TO CONTINUE FOURTH-QUARTER EXCELLENCE

Nebraska has been among the nation's best fourth-quarter teams each of the past two seasons. In 2008, NU ranked second nationally in fourth-quarter points scored (155) and fourth-quarter point differential (+103).

The 2009 season was no different as NU outscored the opposition 96-32, with the 32 points allowed tying Alabama for the lowest in the nation. The 64-point differential in the fourth quarter was the fourth-best nationally.

► The fourth-quarter highlight in 2009 was at No. 24 Missouri. NU trailed 12-0 entering the fourth quarter, before scoring 27 unanswered points. The rally from a 12-point fourth-quarter deficit tied a school record, and the 27 points were the most by NU in any quarter since the 2004 season opener, and the most in the fourth quarter since 2001.

► NU allowed nine Big 12 opponents just 23 fourth-quarter points and held eight foes without a fourth-quarter point.

► Nebraska outscored its opponents 154-55 in the second half in 2009. The 55 second-half points were the fewest allowed by any team in the nation. Only two opponents scored more than seven points in the second half in 2009 (Baylor-10, Colorado-13), and NU allowed only five offensive TDs in the second half.

► Under Bo Pelini, Nebraska is 24-2 when leading at any point in the fourth quarter. The lone losses were one-point setbacks against Virginia Tech and Texas in 2009.

This season, Nebraska has allowed 21 fourth-quarter points, while scoring 34 of its own.

HUSKERS LOOK TO BUILD ON SUCCESS AGAINST RANKED TEAMS

Nebraska closed the 2009 season with a 33-0 victory over No. 22 Arizona in the Holiday Bowl--its third win of the year against a ranked opponent. The Huskers were 3-2 against ranked teams last season, defeating No. 24 Missouri, 27-12, and 20th-ranked Oklahoma, 10-3. Nebraska also suffered a pair of one-point setbacks, losing at No. 13 Virginia Tech, 16-15, and to No. 3 Texas, 13-12, in the Big 12 Championship Game.

Nebraska's three victories over ranked teams in 2009 were its most since posting four wins over ranked foes during a 12-1 campaign in 1999. Three upcoming Nebraska opponents--Texas, Oklahoma State and Missouri--are ranked in at least one of the major national polls this week.

INJURY BUG HITS HUSKERS DURING FALL CAMP

Nebraska endured more than its share of injuries during fall camp, with two returning starters sidelined for the entire season and two others out indefinitely.

► Senior offensive lineman Mike Smith suffered a leg injury during the first week of fall camp that will sideline the Las Vegas native for the season. Smith was Nebraska's starting left tackle each of the past two seasons, collecting 26 career starts. Smith was set to play a key role on the line this fall, with the ability to possibly serve as a key backup at tackle, guard or even center.

► Sophomore linebacker Sean Fisher also suffered a season-ending leg injury during fall camp. Fisher started six games as a redshirt freshman last fall, and was expected to be among the Huskers' top linebackers in 2010.

► Sophomore linebacker Will Compton joined Fisher on the sidelines when he suffered a foot injury in practice on Sept. 2, just two days before the opener. Compton is hoping to return to action soon.

► Senior tight end Dreu Young underwent back surgery in late August and is out for an extended period of time. Young also battled back issues during his junior campaign.

► Junior reserve cornerback Anthony Blue suffered his second knee injury in the past 2 1/2 years during fall camp and will be sidelined for the year. Blue was expected to be among Nebraska's top reserves at corner, and was also one of the Huskers' top special teams performers last season.

CONFERENCE CROWNS

Nebraska returned to the Big 12 Championship Game in 2009, making its fifth appearance in the contest.

The Huskers played in three of the first four Big 12 title games. Nebraska is one of three teams to capture two or more Big 12 titles, joining Oklahoma with six and Texas with three. Kansas State, Texas A&M and Colorado each captured one Big 12 crown. Oklahoma leads the way with seven Big 12 title game appearances, followed by Nebraska and Texas with five each. Nebraska and Texas' meeting in the title game was the third meeting between the two schools in the game, the most played matchup in Big 12 Championship history.

The Huskers have won 43 football conference championships overall, including eight under Coach Bob Devaney and 13 under Coach Tom Osborne. Oklahoma has won 37 conference championships to rank second behind NU among league schools.

NEBRASKA AMONG LEADERS IN

ASSOCIATED PRESS NATIONAL TITLES

Notre Dame leads the nation by winning eight Associated Press national titles since 1936, with Oklahoma (7), Alabama (6), Miami (5), USC (5), Nebraska (4) and Minnesota (4) next in line. While the Huskers were awarded the national title by the coaches in 1997, NU finished second to Michigan in the AP poll.

In 1970, Nebraska was awarded the AP national title, but not the coaches (Texas was first, Ohio State second and NU third) as the final poll was released before the bowl games were played. In the coaches poll (since 1950), Nebraska is tied for fourth with Miami and Texas with four titles, behind Alabama and Oklahoma with six apiece, and USC with five.

NCAA RECORD SELLOUT STREAK

One of the most remarkable streaks in collegiate sports reached another milestone on Sept. 26, 2009, against Louisiana-Lafayette when Nebraska celebrated the 300th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium. A stadium record crowd of 86,304 fans were on hand for the historic event, and the streak will reach 308 games this Saturday and is expected to reach 311 by season's end. The sellout streak dates back to Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney's first year in 1962 (vs. Missouri on Nov. 3). Notre Dame is second in all-time consecutive sellouts with 217, 91 fewer than Nebraska.

NU OWNS DOMINANT ADVANTAGE AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

Nebraska has rewarded the loyalty of its fans with incredible success at Memorial Stadium through the years.

► Nebraska has won at least six home games in 19 of the past 23 seasons. Nebraska is 132-18 at home in the last 22 seasons (since 1989).

► During Nebraska's run of success at home in the past 25 years, NU has had three home winning streaks of 20 or more games, and overall has posted 40 unbeaten and untied home seasons.

► The Huskers are 501-137-20 (.776, 658 games, 121 years) in Lincoln, and 376-114-13 (.759, 503 games, 88 years) in Memorial Stadium (since 1923). Nebraska has had 41 straight winning home seasons.

Nebraska currently carries a five-game home winning streak.

NEBRASKA CRACKS TOP 10 IN AVERAGE HOME ATTENDANCE

Nebraska ranked 10th nationally and second among Big 12 schools in average attendance in 2009. Nebraska averaged a school-record 85,888 fans for seven home games, including a school-record 86,304 fans against Louisiana-Lafayette. Five Big 12 teams ranked in the top 30 nationally in attendance, led by fourth-ranked Texas (101,175 fans per game).

NEBRASKA SET FOR MOVE TO BIG TEN IN 2011

June 11, 2010 was a historic day for the University of Nebraska, as NU was admitted to the Big Ten Conference as the 12th member of the nation's oldest conference. The Cornhuskers will begin play in the Big Ten in 2011-12.

The Huskers have a long history of meeting Big Ten opponents on the gridiron, compiling an 81-68-10 all-time record against the league's other 11 members. Nebraska most recently met a Big Ten opponent in a 32-28 victory over Michigan in the 2005 Alamo Bowl. NU's last regular-season matchup with a Big Ten opponent was a home-and-home series in 2002 and 2003 with Penn State. The schools split the two games, each winning at home.

The Big Ten Conference announced its divisional alignment on Sept. 1. The Huskers will compete in a football division with Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota and Northwestern. The other division is comprised of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio State, Penn State, Purdue and Wisconsin. Nebraska's first Big Ten game will be at Wisconsin on Oct. 1, 2011, with its first Big Ten home game against Ohio State on Oct. 8, 2011.

HUSKERS COMPETE IN FINAL SEASON IN BIG 12 CONFERENCE

With Nebraska's move to the Big Ten on the horizon, 2010 marks Nebraska's final season of action in the Big 12. The conference has been NU's home since 1996 and the Huskers have had their share of football success in the league. Nebraska has played in the Big 12 Championship Game five times, including the 2009 title game at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. Nebraska has captured Big 12 titles in 1997 and 1999.

► Nebraska's five Big 12 Championship Game appearances are tied for second among all Big 12 schools along with Texas, trailing only Oklahoma's seven Big 12 Championship Game appearances.

► Nebraska has squared off against three conference foes more than 100 times, including 116 meetings with Kansas, 104 with Iowa State and 103 with Missouri.

► Nebraska and Kansas will meet for the 105th consecutive season in 2010, which is currently the nation's longest uninterrupted streak. Overall, the 116 meetings are the third most of any series in the country.

► Nebraska will play its final Big 12 Conference game against Colorado on Friday, Nov. 26. The 2010 season will mark the 15th straight year the Big 12 North schools have met on the day after Thanksgiving and the 21st straight year Nebraska has played on that date, meeting Oklahoma six consecutive years from 1990 to 1995.

SEEING DOUBLE

The 2010 Nebraska roster includes three sets of twins and five total sets of brothers. Courtney and Steven Osborne of Garland, Texas, signed with the Huskers in 2008 and enter their third season in the program—Courtney as a safety and Steven at wide receiver. Colin and Conor McDermott walked on to Nebraska from Omaha Creighton Prep high school and will both be sophomore defensive ends this fall. Jake and Spencer Long also hail from Omaha (Elkhorn High School) and are in their second season in the program. Jake lines up at tight end, while Spencer is an offensive lineman.

In addition to the three sets of twins, Nebraska also has another set of brothers on the roster—Ben and Jake Cotton. The Cottons are the sons of Nebraska associate head coach Barney Cotton, and senior defensive back Adam Watson is the son of offensive coordinator Shawn Watson. In addition, walk-on freshman offensive lineman Mark Pelini is the nephew of Bo and Carl Pelini.

CASSIDY PLACED ON SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraska junior safety Austin Cassidy is the latest Husker to go from walk-on to scholarship player. Cassidy was awarded a scholarship by Head Coach Bo Pelini before the 2010 season. A graduate of Lincoln Southwest High School, Cassidy has been a key performer on NU's special teams in 2008 and 2009. In addition to continuing in that role this fall, the 6-1, 210-pound Cassidy sees action in the secondary.

Pelini has made the walk-on program a huge priority since taking over the Nebraska program. In his first three recruiting classes, Nebraska has welcomed nearly 70 walk-on players into the Nebraska program.

CAPUTO PRESENTED WITH

JAKE YOUNG MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraska junior center Mike Caputo was presented with the Jake Young Memorial Endowed Scholarship before the Idaho game. The scholarship is awarded to a varsity football student-athlete who demonstrates a high level of athletic and academic achievement and effective leadership skills. The scholarship honors the former Nebraska All-America and Academic All-America center who was killed in a terrorist attack in Bali in October of 2002.

Caputo, a graduate of Millard North High School, has moved into the role of starting center this fall. He was Nebraska's No. 2 center each of the past two seasons. Originally a walk-on Caputo was presented a scholarship before the start of the 2009 season.

CRICK EARNS BERRINGER SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraska junior defensive tackle Jared Crick was presented with the Brook Berringer Memorial Endowed Scholarship before the Western Kentucky game. The scholarship was endowed in the memory of former NU quarterback Brook Berringer who died in a plane crash on April 18, 1996. Criteria for the scholarship includes the following: football student-athlete; involved in community service with high ideals, excellent character and integrity.

A native of Cozad, Neb., Crick has excelled on and off the field during his time with the Cornhuskers. Crick was a first-team all-conference selection last season during a breakout sophomore season. Off the field, Crick was named to the 2010 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his work in the community. Crick has volunteered on team hospital visits, as a speaker at elementary schools and during a World War II veterans visit.

FISHER PRESENTED SULLIVAN SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraska sophomore linebacker Sean Fisher was presented the George Finley Sullivan Endowed Scholarship before the start of the South Dakota State game. "Sully" as many call him is admired by hundreds of former Husker student-athletes and taped thousands of ankles while serving as Nebraska's head trainer from 1977 to 1995, and as an Assistant Athletic Trainer and Head Physical Therapist from 1953 to 1977.

The scholarship was fully endowed in Sullivan's honor in 2008 by the Touchdown Club of Nebraska, Inc., and many former Husker student-athletes graciously contributed to the fund. The scholarship will be presented annually to a "Nebraska varsity football student-athlete who has demonstrated a high level of athletic and academic achievement, with a strong commitment to community, effective leadership skills, a high degree of integrity, and commitment to excellence in all endeavors." Preference is given to student-athletes who intend to pursue a career in a health-related field.

Fisher suffered an injury during the fall camp and is out for the season, but was a key member of NU's defense in 2009. Fisher carries a 4.0 cumulative grade-point average in business administration.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL—A FAMILY AFFAIR

The Cotton family is one of just several father-son combinations who have played for Nebraska represented on the 2010 Cornhusker roster. Barney lettered at Nebraska in 1976-78, while Ben is a sophomore tight end and Jake is a freshman defensive lineman.

Other current Nebraska players whose fathers also played at NU include DB Joey Felici (Tony, 1980-82), LB Sean Fisher (Todd, 1983), DE Andy Gdowski (Tom, 1980-82), WR KC Hyland (John, 1970-72), DB Brent Moravec (Mark, 1980-82), DE Jay Martin (Bob, 1973-75), C Cole Pensick (Dan, 1977-79), LB Colby Starkebaum (John, 1972-74) and DT Baker Steinkuhler (Dean, 1981-83).

NFL HAS LARGE INFLUENCE ON NEBRASKA ROSTER

Several players also have family connections with the National Football League. Barney Cotton logged four seasons in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals and St. Louis Cardinals from 1979 to 1982. Other players whose fathers played in the NFL include CB Anthony Blue (Anthony, Sr., Seattle, 1987), QB Zac Lee (Bob, Minnesota, Atlanta, L.A. Rams, 1969-80), Jay Martin (Bob, N.Y. Jets, San Francisco, 1976-79), Baker Steinkuhler (Dean, Houston, 1984-91), DB Anthony West (Robert, Kansas City, San Francisco, 1972-74) and IB Lester Ward (Lester, Sr., Dallas).

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL CONTINUES TO WIN IN THE CLASSROOM

Nebraska football has long been one of the nation's most successful programs on the field. Success in the classroom is also a cornerstone of the Nebraska football program.

NU AMONG LEADERS IN ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 SELECTIONS

Nebraska had 22 players named to the 2009 academic All-Big 12 team, including 15 first-team selections, and seven second-team honorees. Nebraska's 22 honorees were the second-highest total in the Big 12 Conference.

The group was highlighted by defensive back Austin Cassidy and linebacker Sean Fisher, who were each nominated with a 4.0 grade-point average. Fisher has a perfect cumulative grade-point average, while Cassidy earned a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in the two previous semesters. Fisher and Cassidy were two of just three student-athletes in the Big 12 Conference nominated with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average.

NATION-LEADING TOTAL OF COSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

Seniors Todd Peterson and Tyler Wortman were selected as second-team ESPN the Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in 2008. The selection of Peterson and Wortman gave NU a nation-leading total of 98 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in football. Nebraska also leads the nation in academic All-Americans with 277 academic All-Americans across all teams and all sports entering the 2010-11 academic year.

SENIOR CLASS IN STRONG ACADEMIC STANDING

Nebraska's 23-player senior class includes six players who will play the 2010 season as graduate students. Among those, defensive end Tyrone Fahie graduated in December of 2009 in just 3 ½ years, while offensive lineman D.J. Jones, quarterback Zac Lee and defensive back Anthony West picked up their degrees in May. Tight end Mike McNeill and offensive lineman Mike Smith joined the group in summer commencement exercises.

► Another nine seniors are expected to complete their degree work in the fall, giving the Huskers 15 graduates in time for the bowl game. All but one member of the senior class are expected to complete their degrees by the end of the 2011 spring semester.

► Among Bo Pelini's first three senior classes, 52 of 57 players are on track to earn their degree by next August.

NEBRASKA LEADS BIG 12 IN EXHAUSTED ELIGIBILITY GRADUATION RATES

Nebraska athletic teams continue to pace the Big 12 Conference in the classroom, leading the Big 12 in the exhausted eligibility graduation rate for the seventh consecutive year with an impressive 94 percent rate.

Nebraska continues to set the pace in the Big 12 in terms of Exhausted Eligibility graduation rates. The exhausted eligibility rate surveys the graduation rate of scholarship student-athletes in 10 incoming freshman classes who complete their eligibility at the university. Nebraska's exhausted eligibility rate has improved 22 percentage points since the inception of the rate in 1991-92.

Game 1 | Nebraska 49, Western Kentucky 10

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
Western Kentucky	0	0	3	7	10
No. 8 Nebraska	14	7	14	14	49

Lincoln (Sept. 4) --- Redshirt freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez made an impressive college debut, rushing for 127 yards and three touchdowns to help No. 8 Nebraska to a 49-10 victory over Western Kentucky.

Martinez, who became the first Husker freshman quarterback to ever start a season opener, made his presence known quickly, racing 46 yards on his first career carry to give NU a 7-0 lead just 3:37 into the game. Martinez also completed all four of his first-quarter pass attempts for 59 yards to help NU to a quick 14-0 lead. After Cody Green led the Huskers on a successful second-quarter scoring drive to put Nebraska up 21-0 at the half, Martinez found the end zone again on the first drive of the second half, scampering the final 19 yards on a four-play, 68-yard drive to extend NU's lead to 28-0. Martinez, who averaged better than 18 yards per carry, produced the most rushing yards by an NU quarterback in a season opener since Tommie Frazier rushed for 130 yards against West Virginia in 1994, and became the first Husker quarterback to rush for over 100 yards since 2003. In addition to his impressive rushing numbers, Martinez completed 9-of-15 passes for 136 yards and did not commit a turnover. While Martinez took center stage as the starter, Green was also impressive, completing 5-of-6 passes for 66 yards while leading the Huskers on a pair of scoring drives, including a 33-yard touchdown strike to Niles Paul.

Paul finished with five catches for 92 yards and a score, while adding one carry for eight yards. He also returned three punts for 58 yards to close the night with 158 all-purpose yards. Brandon Kinnie also enjoyed a big night for NU, hauling in a career-high six catches for 59 yards, while sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead added a pair of catches for 47 yards while rushing five times for 57 yards.

Nebraska's big-play offense amassed 536 total yards on just 58 plays, an average of 9.2 yards per play. The Huskers rolled for 289 rushing yards and six touchdowns, while 11 different Huskers had at least one tote on the night. In addition to the three rushing touchdowns from Martinez and one each from Helu and Burkhead, Austin Jones closed the scoring with his first career touchdown on a five-yard burst in the fourth quarter.

Western Kentucky managed 299 total yards on 62 plays against the Blackshirt defense.

Game 2 | Nebraska 38, Idaho 17

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
Idaho	0	3	7	7	17
No. 6 Nebraska	3	28	7	0	38

Lincoln (Sept. 11) --- No. 6 Nebraska showed its explosiveness on both sides of the ball, scoring 28 unanswered points in a span of 8:15 midway through the second quarter to help bolt to a 31-0 lead and cruise to a 38-17 victory over Idaho.

Quarterback Taylor Martinez (67) and I-back Roy Helu Jr. (58) scored on back-to-back runs of more than 55 yards to give NU a 14-0 lead. The Blackshirt defensive backs then got into the action with back-to-back interception returns for scores from both DeJon Gomes (40) and Rickey Thenarse (47). Nebraska's four consecutive scoring plays of 40 or more yards marked the first time since 1996 that the Big Red scored on four plays of 40 or more yards in the same game.

The 31-point cushion was more than enough for a Blackshirt defense that intercepted five passes, recorded seven sacks and recovered a fumble on the afternoon. The Blackshirts held a high-powered Idaho offense to just 279 total yards, while the NU offense rolled up 471 total yards, including 360 rushing yards on 41 carries. It was NU's highest rushing total since a season-opening win over Nevada in 2007.

Martinez led the punishing Husker ground game with 157 yards and two touchdowns on just 14 carries. It was the second straight 100-yard rushing effort by the redshirt freshman quarterback. His second quarter 67-yard touchdown run was the longest run ever by a Husker freshman quarterback, surpassing a 59-yard run by former NU Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch against UAB in 1998.

Martinez was joined across the century mark by Helu, who rushed for 107 yards on just nine carries, including his 58-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead nearly gave the Huskers a third back in the 100-yard club, rushing for 77 yards on just nine carries.

Defensively, Gomes led the Huskers with a career-best 10 tackles and a pass breakup along with his interception return for a score, while Jared Crick had 2.5 sacks for 30 yards as part of a four tackles-for-loss afternoon. Fellow defensive tackle Baker Steinkuhler added 1.5 sacks for 14 yards lost, while Terrence Moore, Lavonte David and Pierre Allen each recorded sacks for the Huskers.

Game 3 | Nebraska 56, Washington 21

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
No. 8 Nebraska	14	14	21	7	56
Washington	7	7	7	0	21

Seattle, Wash. (Sept. 18)---No. 8 Nebraska jumped to a 14-0 lead after just five offensive plays, then scored two more touchdowns on the Huskers' first five offensive plays of the second half on the way to a 56-21 victory.

Nebraska, which improved to 3-0 for the second time in three seasons under Bo Pelini, rolled up 533 yards of total offense, including 383 on the ground. The Husker trio of Taylor Martinez (137 yards, 3 TD, 19 carries), Roy Helu Jr. (110 yards, 2 TD, 10 carries) and Rex Burkhead (104 yards, TD, 13 carries) combined for Nebraska's fifth triple-100-yard game in school history and first since 2001.

The 56 points scored by Nebraska equaled the most points scored by a Washington opponent in Seattle.

Martinez became just the second quarterback in NU history to record three straight 100-yard rushing performances, joining Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch. Martinez's eight rushing touchdowns already rank fourth all-time among all Husker freshmen.

The Huskers needed just two offensive plays to get on the scoreboard after Eric Hagg's interception, as Martinez found Mike McNeill for a 24-yard touchdown. Martinez completed 7-of-11 passes for 150 yards and a score. On NU's second drive, it took the Huskers just three plays to cover 73 yards, after a 55-yard pass play from Martinez to Brandon Kinnie put NU at the 1-yard line before Martinez scored on the next play. It was the first of five receptions for 105 yards on the day for Kinnie, who registered the first 100-yard receiving day of his career.

After Washington closed to within 21-14, Kinnie set up NU's next scoring drive with a return to the UW 48-yard line, setting up a short field for Helu, who went the last eight yards to put Nebraska up 28-14. Kinnie finished with 180 all-purpose yards.

Nebraska used a pair of big plays to break open the game, as Martinez raced 80 yards for a touchdown on NU's first offensive play of the second half before Helu went a career-long 65 yards for a score on NU's fifth play of the second half to give the Huskers a commanding 21-point lead.

Alfonzo Dennard got the Blackshirts on the board midway through the third quarter, intercepting a Jake Locker pass and racing 31 yards to make it 49-21. The interception capped a strong defensive performance by the Blackshirts, who surrendered just 246 total yards to the Huskies, including just 71 passing and 175 on the ground. The Huskers held Locker to just 4-of-20 passing on the afternoon, the worst performance of his career.

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
South Dakota State	0	0	3	0	3
No. 6 Nebraska	0	14	0	3	17

Lincoln, Neb. (Sept. 25)--- In a game dominated by the defenses, No. 6 Nebraska survived a spirited effort by visiting South Dakota State for a 17-3 homecoming night victory.

Just days after Blackshirts were handed out to Nebraska's top-unit defenders, Lavonte David notched one of the best tackle efforts in school history. The 6-1, 210-pound junior linebacker from Miami, Fla., registered 19 tackles to tie for seventh on NU's all-time list, while adding a pair of pass breakups.

In addition to David's career tackle performance, Alfonzo Dennard and P.J. Smith both notched their third interceptions of the season to help hold the Jackrabbits to just 236 yards of total offense. Rickey Thenarse pitched in 10 tackles for NU, while DeJon Gomes added nine stops, as Nebraska has limited all four foes to under 300 yards of total offense.

The Huskers (4-0) would get all the offense they needed in a two-series stretch in the second quarter, scoring 14 points in a span of 4:15 to take control of the contest. After a scoreless first quarter, Nebraska went 96 yards on six plays to get on the scoreboard, as Taylor Martinez found Mike McNeill for a career-long 64-yard reception down to the SDSU 3. Rex Burkhead put the Huskers on the board with a three-yard run on the next play to give NU a 7-0 lead with 14:31 left in the half. The Blackshirts forced a three-and-out on SDSU's ensuing drive, and Martinez and the Husker offense went to work again. This time, Martinez hit Tyler Reed for a career-long 33-yard reception for Reed's first career touchdown.

Martinez led NU with 75 rushing yards on 13 carries, while completing 6-of-14 passes for 140 yards and one touchdown. Sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead added 14 carries for 66 yards and NU's first touchdown, while Roy Helu Jr. contributed 59 yards on 19 carries. Brandon Kinnie led the NU receivers with three catches for 34 yards, while Mike McNeill added a career-long 64-yard reception to set up Burkhead's touchdown.

SDSU quarterback Thomas O'Brien completed just 12-of-28 passes for 95 yards while throwing a pair of fourth-quarter interceptions, as the Blackshirts preserved the victory by forcing a pair of turnovers and stopping the Jackrabbits on downs at the NU 37.

Game 5 | Nebraska 48, Kansas State 13

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
No. 7 Nebraska	7	10	21	10	48
Kansas State	0	3	3	7	13

Manhattan, Kan. (Oct. 7) -- Taylor Martinez produced the best rushing performance by a quarterback in Nebraska football history as the No. 7 Cornhuskers sprinted past previously unbeaten Kansas State, 48-13.

Playing in front of 51,015 fans and an ESPN primetime national audience, Martinez became just the second Big Red signal-caller to rush for more than 200 yards in a game, joining Jammal Lord who accomplished the feat twice in 2002. Martinez passed the 200-yard mark on NU's opening drive of the second half with an 80-yard touchdown run, staking the Huskers to a 24-3 lead.

Martinez finished the night with the eighth-best rushing total in school history, racking up 241 yards on just 15 carries, surpassing Lord's quarterback rushing mark of 234 yards against Texas in 2002. Martinez had touchdown runs of 13, 35, 80 and 41 yards, while also completing 5-of-7 passes for 128 yards and a score.

Martinez set up his fellow Huskers for big plays as the game progressed. On NU's next play from scrimmage after Martinez's 80-yard burst, he handed off to Roy Helu Jr. and the senior I-back exploded for a career-long 68-yard touchdown run. Helu notched his 10th career 100-yard effort, finishing with 110 yards on just eight carries. After KSU cut the lead to 31-6 with a 48-yard field goal, Martinez then froze the Wildcat secondary on a play-action fake and connected with Tyler Reed on a career-long 79-yard touchdown strike before scoring on a 41-yard run with 12:21 remaining to make it 45-6.

While the Huskers' explosive offense left the purple pride black and blue, Nebraska's Blackshirts continued to deliver solid defensive football for four quarters. NU stretched its streak to eight straight quarters without allowing a touchdown before KSU got a fourth-quarter score to break the streak. Junior linebacker Lavonte David led the Blackshirts with 16 tackles, including 10 solos and two tackles for loss with one seven-yard sack. David helped keep KSU star running back Daniel Thomas in check. Thomas notched 63 yards on 22 carries, while adding 36 receiving yards on eight catches. Overall, he totaled 99 yards on 30 touches. DeJon Gomez added 12 tackles, including a TFL and a forced fumble, while Eric Hagg contributed an interception for the Blackshirts to produce the game's lone turnover. The Huskers finished with six tackles for loss and two sacks.
