THE MATCHUP

Nebraska closes out the regular season with its traditional Friday after Thanksgiving matchup with Colorado at Memorial Stadium. The game will be the final Big 12 regular-season contest for both schools as Nebraska is set for a move to the Big Ten Conference and Colorado to the Pac-12 in 2011. Game time for Senior Day at Memorial Stadium is set for 2:36 p.m. with the game televised nationally on ABC.

The Huskers enter the game with a 9-2 overall record and a 5-2 mark in the Big 12 Conference after a 9-6 loss at Texas A&M last Saturday. Nebraska enters the matchup with Colorado in need of a victory in order to secure a spot in the Dec. 4 Big 12 Championship Game. Nebraska enters the final weekend of the regular season tied with Missouri for the North Division lead, but the Huskers hold the tie-breaker with their head-to-head win against the Tigers.

The loss to Texas A&M dropped NU to 16th in the AP poll, 15th according to the coaches and 15th in the BCS standings. Colorado is playing its best football of the season over the past two weeks. The Buffs improved to 5-6 overall with their 44-36 win over Kansas State in Boulder on Saturday. CU knocked off Iowa State the previous week and can become bowl-eligible with a win over Nebraska.

THE SERIES

Nebraska owns a 48-18-2 all-time edge in the series between the two schools. The Huskers have won four of the past five meetings against the Buffs. The series has featured a number of tight games, with eight of the past 14 games decided by 10 or fewer points.

THE COACHES

Nebraska: Bo Pelini (Ohio State, '90) owns a 29-10 record in his third season. Pelini has guided NU to nine or more wins in each of his first three seasons as head coach, joining Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne and Frank Solich in accomplishing that feat. Pelini has joined Frank Solich and Mack Brown as the only coaches in Big 12 history (since 1996) to win nine games in each of their first three seasons.

Colorado: Brian Cabral (Colorado, '78) is serving as Colorado's interim head coach. He is 2-0 in the role. Cabral is in his xxx season on the Buff staff, having served as an assistant under four Colorado head coaches.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

Nebraska is 836-343-40 all-time, one of just eight schools with 800 all-time victories ♦ Nebraska has won five national championships (1970, 1971, 1994, 1995, 1997). ♦ The Cornhuskers have won 43 conference championships. ♦ Nebraska's 46 all-time bowl appearances rank fifth nationally. ♦ Since 1970, Nebraska has 402 wins, 25 more than any other school. ♦ Nebraska's 98 football Academic All-Americans lead the nation. ♦ The Huskers have had 107 All-Americans in school history.

NOTING GAME 11...TEXAS A&M 9, NEBRASKA 6

► The loss snapped Nebraska's nine-game win streak in the month of November. The Huskers' previous loss in the month came on Nov. 1, 2008 at Oklahoma. The loss also snapped Nebraska's eight-game road winning streak overall and in Big 12 play. The eight-game road winning streak in league play tied for Nebraska's longest during the Big 12 era (also 1996 and 1997).

► Junior linebacker Lavonte David finished with 14 tackles, an 11-yard sack and four tackles for loss. It was his seventh double-figure tackle game of the season. David moved his season tackle total to 120. David moved into a tied for ninth-place on the Nebraska single-season tackle chart with Lee Kunz (1978). David leads Nebraska with 14 TFL, and also ranks second on the team with 6.0 sacks, and eight pass breakups.

► Junior defensive tackle Jared Crick had seven tackles and 1.0 sacks, splitting a six-yard sack with Pierre Allen in the first half and a six-yarder with Cameron Meredith in the second half. Crick moved his team-high total to 7.5 sacks and his career total to 17 sacks, tied with Barry Turner for eighth on the NU career list.

► Senior defensive end Pierre Allen shared a second-quarter sack with Jared Crick to push his career sacks total to 13. Allen finished the game with seven tackles, two TFLs, and a PBU.

► Nebraska held Texas A&M to just nine points. The Aggies entered the game averaging 34.9 points per game and had scored at least 33 points in each of their last four games.

► Nebraska limited Texas A&M to 172 passing yards. The Aggies entered the game ranked eighth nationally in passing offense at 308.1 yards per game.

► Nebraska senior I-back Roy Helu Jr. rushed nine times for 52 yards. Helu Jr. moved his season total to 1,043 yards. Helu Jr. rushed for 1,149 yards last season and is the first Husker to record back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons since Calvin Jones in 1992 and 1993. Helu Jr. also pushed his career rushing total to 3,202, moving him past Jones (3,153) into fourth place on the NU career rushing list.

► Freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez rushed for 17 yards despite missing most of the first half with an injury. Martinez pushed his season rushing total to 974 yards, leaving him 26 yards from becoming the third freshman quarterback in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards. He is within 119 yards of Missouri's Brad Smith who holds the NCAA frosh quarterback rushing record with 1,093 yards. Martinez remained second on the NU single-season freshman rushing list.

► Martinez posted 124 yards of total offense and moved from 10th to sixth on the single-season total offense list. Martinez now has a freshman record 2,409 yards of total offense in 2010.

► Senior receiver Niles Paul caught became the sixth Cornhusker to record 100 career receptions on his first catch. Paul now has 103 career receptions, four catches behind Marlon Lucky who sits in fifth place on the list at 107 catches. Paul also passed 1,500 career receiving yards, and with his 53 yards he has 1,532 career receiving yards.

► Sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead rushed 13 times for 74 yards, and became the 58th Cornhusker with 1,000 career rushing yards. Burkhead now has 1,067 career rushing yards.

► Nebraska kicked a 48-yard field goal on its first drive, marking the seventh time in 11 games this season Nebraska has scored on its opening possession.

► Nebraska rushed for 142 yards, marking just the second time NU has rushed for less than 200 yards (also vs. Texas).

► Nebraska committed 16 penalties for 145 yards, school records in both categories. The old records were 14 penalties (twice) and 141 yards (vs. Penn State, Sept. 27, 1980).

► Texas A&M had a record crowd of 90,079 at Kyle Field--it is the fifth-largest crowd ever to see a Nebraska game.

NEBRASKA HEAD COACH BO PELINI

Bo Pelini is in his third season as Nebraska's head coach and owns a 29-10 record with the Huskers. Pelini helped Nebraska to at least a share of the Big 12 North title in each of his first two seasons, becoming the first coach in the history of the Big 12 to win at least a share of a division title in each of his first two seasons. He is one win away from a third straight North division crown.

Pelini took charge of the Huskers after a highly successful five-year run as a collegiate defensive coordinator, including orchestrating NU's defensive efforts in 2003. Pelini picked up his first college head coaching victory as NU's interim coach in the 2003 Alamo Bowl against Michigan State.

Following his one season at Nebraska, Pelini served as the co-defensive coordinator at Oklahoma in 2004, helping the Sooners to the Big 12 title and BCS title game. He then followed with three seasons as the defensive coordinator at LSU. With the Tigers, Pelini led three consecutive defenses to No. 3 national rankings in total defense. He culminated his time in Baton Rouge by helping the Tigers to the 2007 national championship.

In addition to his five seasons at the collegiate level, Pelini coached in the NFL for nine seasons, serving three years each with the San Francisco 49ers, New England Patriots and Green Bay Packers. Pelini was a team captain and four-year letterman as a safety at Ohio State from 1987 to 1990.

PELINI STACKS UP WELL WITH PEERS

In guiding Nebraska to a 29-10 record, (28-10 from 2008-2010), Pelini put himself in some impressive company.

▶ Pelini is the fourth Nebraska head coach to win nine games in each of his first three seasons with the Cornhuskers. The others to reach that win plateau were Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne and Frank Solich. A win against Colorado would allow him to join Solich as the only NU coaches with two 10-win seasons in their first three years.

▶ Pelini, Solich and Texas' Mack Brown are the only coaches in Big 12 history (1996) to win nine or more games in each of their first three seasons.

▶ Pelini's nine victories in 2008 tied for the most among 18 coaches in their first season at their respective school. Among first-time head coaches, Pelini's victory total was the best in the nation. Pelini's 19 victories in his first two seasons were second among that group, and he has moved to the top of the 2008 hiring class with his 28 wins, two better than Georgia Tech's Paul Johnson and Navy's Ken Niumatalolo.

▶ Pelini was just the eighth BCS Conference (since 1998) first-time head coach to post nine or more victories in his first season. He was just the second first-year head coach in that span to win nine games after inheriting a team with a losing record the previous year.

PELINI CONTINUES DEFENSIVE ACCOMPLISHMENTS AT NEBRASKA

Pelini has led an amazing defensive turnaround at Nebraska. The 2008 Nebraska defense was one of the nation's most improved units. Nebraska finish second in the Big 12 in total defense, a year after the Huskers were 100th or worse in nearly every defensive category. In 2009, Nebraska was dominant on defense and its improvement was just as impressive. The Huskers led the nation in total defense and had the nation's best scoring defensive improvement (18.1 ppg).

▶ Pelini led the 2003 Blackshirts to impressive numbers. NU had a school-record 47 takeaways, including a Big 12-record 32 interceptions, and finished second nationally in scoring defense, first in pass efficiency defense and 11th in total defense.

▶ Pelini guided LSU defenses to No. 3 national finishes in total defense each of his three seasons in Baton Rouge.

▶ In 105 games as a collegiate coach, Pelini's defenses have posted 10 shutouts, held the opposition to seven points or less 35 times and to 20 points or less 69 times.

▶ Pelini-led defenses have 211 total takeaways, including two top-three national rankings.

STAFF INTACT FOR THIRD STRAIGHT SEASON

Nebraska was long known for coaching staff continuity under Hall of Fame Coaches Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne. Third-year Head Coach Bo Pelini appears to embrace that same philosophy. NU is in its third straight season with its staff intact in 2010, as all nine full-time assistants are in at least their third season on the Husker sideline.

Nebraska is one of only nine schools nationally to have the same full-time coaching staff for at least the past three years, including only Baylor and Texas in the Big 12. Prior to last season, Nebraska had not had its full coaching staff remain the same from one season to the next since 2001 to 2002 when Frank Solich's staff was unchanged.

SCOUTING COLORADO

Like Nebraska, Colorado is playing its final conference game as a member of the Big 12. While the Huskers are heading to the Big Ten Conference this summer, the Buffaloes will head west and become a member of the Pac-12 Conference. CU is also looking to become bowl eligible with a win today.

Colorado is 5-6 this season and 2-5 in Big 12 play. The Buffs lost back-to-back home games to Baylor and Texas Tech in October by a combined total of nine points. The Buffaloes also lost by seven at Kansas on Nov. 6, after leading by 28 points in the fourth quarter. Since that game, CU has won its last two games, thanks to an offense that has scored 78 points the past two weeks and is averaging 41.0 points per game in three contests this month. Defensively, the Buffaloes allow an average of nearly 30 points per game.

Nov. 13	Iowa State	W, 34-14
Nov. 20	Kansas State	W, 44-36
Nov. 26	at Nebraska	2:30 p.m.

Colorado has struggled on the road, as the Buffs have lost 16 straight road games and 12 in a row in league play. Both marks are the worst streaks in school history, as CU's last conference road victory came in a 31-26 win at Texas Tech in 2007.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska and Colorado are meeting for the 69th time and for the final time as members of the same conference. The Huskers lead the all-time series, 48-18-2, including a 25-8-0 advantage in Lincoln.

Nebraska has won two straight in the series, marking only the second time the Huskers have won back-to-back games against the Buffaloes since NU won nine in a row from 1992 to 2000. Colorado's last win in Lincoln came in 2004, while Husker Head Coach Bo Pelini is 2-0 in his career against the Buffaloes.

The series has featured several memorable moments, including Alex Henery's school-record 57-yard field goal with under two minutes remaining that provided the winning margin in the last meeting between the teams at Memorial Stadium. In 2007, the teams combined for 116 points as Colorado posted a 65-51 victory in Bill Callahan's last game as Nebraska's head coach. Bo Pelini was named head coach less than a month later.

The Huskers' 400th all-time victory came against Colorado in 1965, the 200th consecutive sellout was against Colorado in 1994, the 1998 game was the first time in modern history that Nebraska won a game without scoring an offensive touchdown and the first walk-off win in NU history came in 2000 on a Josh Brown field goal as time expired.

COLORADO INTERIM HEAD COACH BRIAN CABRAL

Brian Cabral is in his third game as Colorado's interim coach, after Dan Hawkins was fired on Nov. 9. Hawkins was in his fifth season in Boulder and had a 19-39 record with the Buffaloes. Colorado was 3-6 overall and 0-5 in Big 12 play when Hawkins was relieved of his duties.

Cabral took over prior to the Iowa State game and Colorado promptly came out and picked up its first conference victory. The Buffaloes scored 24 straight points against the Cyclones and posted an impressive 34-14 victory. The win snapped a five-game losing streak for the Buffaloes and an eight-game losing streak in conference play dating back to last season.

A Colorado graduate, Cabral is in his 22nd consecutive season on the CU coaching staff, coaching the linebackers every season. He has been a full-time assistant for 21 years, the most in Colorado history. He was promoted to associate head coach on Feb. 7, 2008, and was named interim head coach on Nov. 9, 2010. This is Cabral's second stint as Colorado's interim head coach, as he was also promoted to that role in 2004 when head coach Gary Barnett was on paid administrative leave for a three-month period during the offseason.

Cabral spent two seasons at Purdue from 1987 to 1988.

800-WIN CLUB

Nebraska is one of eight programs with 800 all-time victories, joining Michigan, Notre Dame, Texas, Ohio State, Penn State, Alabama and Oklahoma. Nebraska's 836 all-time victories is fourth nationally.

1. Michigan	884
2. Texas	850
3. Notre Dame	843
4. Nebraska	836
5. Ohio State	829
6. Alabama	822
7. Penn State	818
8. Oklahoma	808

Nebraska is in its 121st season of college football, and owns an 836-343-40 all-time record in 1,219 games (.702).

► Since the first season of Nebraska football in 1890, Husker teams have won 11 or more games 12 times, including seven times since 1993.

► Nebraska has won 12 or more games seven times, including three seasons with 13 wins (1971, 1994, 1997).

► NU (702), Michigan (705), Alabama (728) and Notre Dame (736) were the only programs to win 700 games in the 1900s.

NATION'S BEST SINCE '70

Nebraska easily ranks as the nation's winningest program since the start of the 1970s, when Bob Devaney guided NU to back-to-back national titles in 1970 and 1971. During the past four decades, the Huskers have compiled a 402-102-5 record, for a .795 winning percentage in 509 games. NU's 402 wins in that time period are 25 more than any other school since 1970.

1. Nebraska	402
2. Ohio State	377
3. Oklahoma	373
4. Michigan	366
5. Penn State	364

► Nebraska has 39 nine-win seasons and 22 10-win seasons since 1970. Nebraska posted its first 10-win season since 2003 last fall, and has posted three straight nine-win seasons for the first time since an NCAA record 33 straight from 1969 to 2001.

► Nebraska was the first team in college football history to win 100 or more games in consecutive decades, ranking first in the 1980s (103-20) and second in the 1990s (108-16-1). NU narrowly missed 100 wins in the 1970s (98). Nebraska posted 84 wins in the recently completed decade.

SUH TO HAVE JERSEY RETIRED AT HALFTIME

Ndamukong Suh returns to Memorial Stadium Friday to see his No. 93 jersey officially retired. A defensive tackle, Suh completed his playing career for Nebraska last fall.

A native of Portland, Ore., Suh was widely regarded as the best player in college football last season. He became the first defender ever to be named the Associated Press College Player of the Year, while he also took home the Outland Trophy, the Lombardi Award, the Bill Willis Award, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and the Chuck Bednarik Award. Suh was also a finalist for the Heisman Trophy.

In his senior season in 2009, Suh led Nebraska with 85 tackles, 24 tackles-for-loss and 12.0 sacks. In his career, Suh totaled 215 tackles, 57 TFLs and 24.0 sacks from his interior line position. He ranks second in Husker history in tackles-for-loss, fourth in sacks and 24th in tackles.

After graduating from Nebraska last December, Suh was the No. 2 pick in the NFL Draft and is a leading contender for NFL Defensive Rookie-of-the-Year honors this season for the Detroit Lions. Suh has also pledged $2.6 million to Nebraska, the largest contribution ever by a former Husker.

Suh will become the 17th Nebraska player to have his jersey retired.

HUSKERS IN NEED OF VICTORY FOR SIXTH CHAMPIONSHIP GAME APPEARANCE

Nebraska enters Friday's game with Colorado looking to lock up its second consecutive trip to the Big 12 Conference Championship Game. The Huskers have made five previous appearances in the game, earning conference titles in 1997 and 1999, while also being the North Division representative in 1996, 2006 and 2009.

► Nebraska and Missouri are tied at 5-2 in Big 12 play, but Nebraska holds the tie-breaker because of its 31-17 win over the Tigers on Oct. 30.

► The winner of Saturday night's Oklahoma at Oklahoma State game has the inside track to earn the South Division spot. Oklahoma State clinches the spot with a victory in Stillwater. An Oklahoma victory could force a three-way tie with OU, OSU and Texas A&M.

HUSKERS, CU SET FOR FINAL BIG 12 REGULAR-SEASON GAME

Nebraska and Colorado have played the regular-season finale in each of the 15 seasons of the existence of the Big 12 Conference. This season's meeting takes on a little added significance as the two schools will both be playing their final Big 12 Conference regular-season contests. Nebraska is set to join the Big Ten Conference on July 1, 2011, and the Buffs will move on to the Pac-12 Conference next season.

► Nebraska and Colorado have met every year as conference opponents since 1948, shortly after Colorado joined six other schools to form the Big Seven Conference. The league became the Big Eight in 1960, and expanded to the Big 12 in 1996.

NEBRASKA, BUFFS CONTINUE POST-TURKEY DAY TRADITION

Nebraska and Colorado have met the day after Thanksgiving each year since the start of Big 12 Conference play in 1996. In the 14 meetings since the series moved to a Friday date, Nebraska holds a 10-4 advantage, including a 5-2 edge in Lincoln. The series has produced a number of heart-stopping finishes since moving to its current date.

► In the 14 meetings on Thanksgiving Friday, nine of the games have been decided by nine points or less, with Nebraska owning an 8-1 record in those contests.

► For Nebraska, Friday's game marks the 21st straight season it has played on the day after Thanksgiving. NU met Oklahoma the final six seasons of Big Eight play (1990-95) on the day after Thanksgiving, posting a 5-1 record in those games.

► This year's game marks the second straight year Nebraska has played on the Friday after Thanksgiving without a bye week. Before last season, Nebraska had not done that since playing at Oklahoma on Thanksgiving Friday in 1973, six days after playing at Kansas State.

► Nebraska's post-Thanksgiving game has been nationally televised by ABC each of the past 20 years (1991-2010).

HUSKERS SECURE THIRD STRAIGHT NINE-WIN SEASON

Nebraska has secured its third straight nine-win season under third-year head coach Bo Pelini.

► The three straight years of nine wins marks the first time NU has accomplished that since its NCAA record streak of 33 straight nine-win seasons from 1969 to 2001.

► Nebraska was one of only 22 schools to win nine games in both 2008 and 2009. Nebraska is one of only nine schools in that group to have secured a third straight nine-win season, joining TCU, Oregon, Boise State, Oklahoma State, Ohio State, Virginia Tech, Alabama and Utah.

Nebraska has 45 nine-win seasons in school history.

NEBRASKA LOOKING FOR 10-WIN REGULAR SEASON

Nebraska will attempt to pick up its 10th win of the 2010 season on Friday against Colorado. A win would mark NU's first back-to-back 10-win seasons since 2000 and 2001. However, reaching double digits in victories in the regular season is even more rare.

► Nebraska last posted 10 wins in the regular season in the 2001 campaign when the Huskers won their first 11 games and finished the regular season at 11-1.

► A victory would give Nebraska its 25th all-time 10-win season in school history, including 23 since 1970.

SENIOR CLASS TO PLAY FINAL GAME AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

Nebraska will honor 25 players appearing in their final game at Memorial Stadium before Friday's game. The group includes 23 seniors and two other players ending their active playing career—Ryan Hill and Faron Klingelhoefer.

► Fifth-year seniors in the program have been a part of 42 victories, including three nine-win seasons, and possibly three North Division titles.

► As a group, Nebraska's senior class has made 417 career starts, with 11 players making at least 25 career starts heading into Friday's game.

► Place-kicker Alex Henery is poised to become Nebraska's all-time leading scorer, possibly on Senior Day. He has already set numerous Nebraska career kicking records.

► I-back Roy Helu Jr. is in the top five on Nebraska's career rushing list, while receiver Niles Paul is in the top five in career receiving yardage and nearing the top five in receptions. He also ranks in the top five in career all-purpose yards.

► Among the 23 seniors, six have already earned their degrees, while another nine are expected to graduate next month, including Helu Jr. and cornerback Prince Amukamara who will graduate in just 3 1/2 years.

NEBRASKA CHURNING OUT IMPRESSIVE

RUSHING NUMBERS

Nebraska finds itself back among the Big 12 and national leaders in rushing offense. Nebraska is averaging 269.5 rushing yards per game to rank first in the Big 12 and seventh nationally in rushing. Nebraska finished seventh in the nation in rushing in 2003, but has not finished higher than 23rd in that category since.

If the Huskers were to maintain their current rushing average it would mark their best rushing output since averaging 314.7 yards on the ground in 2001.

The Huskers opened the season with 289 rushing yards against Western Kentucky and has since topped that total four times. NU picked up 360 rushing yards against Idaho, and 383 yards at Washington. NU saved its most powerful running attack for Big 12 play, racking up 451 rushing yards at Kansas State—its most rushing yards in 109 games. The Huskers churned out 328 rushing yards against Missouri in Lincoln.

► Nebraska has topped 200 rushing yards in nine of 11 games. The Huskers are 9-0 when rushing for 200 yards and 0-2 when they have failed to reach that plateau.

► Before its back-to-back 300-yard rushing games in games 2 and 3, NU had not topped 300 rushing yards in consecutive games since late in the 2002 season. NU had five straight 200-yard rushing games to start the season and six overall including the Holiday Bowl, marking the longest streak for the Huskers since also posting six straight 200-yard rushing games during the 2002 season. NU has topped 200 rushing yards in nine of 10 games this season.

► Nebraska's 451 rushing yards at Kansas State were its most since posting 641 rushing yards at Baylor in 2001. It also marked just the Huskers' second 400-yard rushing game in the past seven seasons (413 vs. Nevada, 2007).

► In thrashing Washington and Kansas State away from Lincoln, Nebraska rushed for more than 300 yards in back-to-back road games for the first time since 2001 when NU topped 300 rushing yards in back-to-back games at Missouri and Baylor. NU also topped 200 rushing yards in road wins at Oklahoma State (217) and Iowa State (235).

► Nebraska has produced five of the top-10 team rushing efforts since 2004 this season, including the first, third and fifth-best rushing efforts in that stretch.

► Senior I-back Roy Helu Jr. has surpassed 1,000 rushing yards for the second straight season, the first NU player to do that since Calvin Jones in 1992 and 1993.

► Quarterback Taylor Martinez has 974 yards, and with another 26 rushing yards, he and Helu Jr. will become just the fourth Nebraska duo to each have 1,000 rushing yards in a season joining Calvin Jones and Derek Brown in 1992, Ahman Green and Scott Frost in 1997, and Dahrran Diedrick and Eric Crouch in 2001.

► Nebraska had three players crack the century mark in rushing yards at Washington, as Taylor Martinez, Roy Helu Jr. and Rex Burkhead all surpassed 100 yards. The game marked the fifth time in school history Nebraska has had three players reach 100 rushing yards in the same game, and the first time it has happened since four Husker runners topped 100 yards at Baylor in 2001.

► Martinez and Helu Jr. also teamed up to produce double 100-yard rushing games against Idaho and Kansas State. The Idaho game marked the first time since 2006 (Iowa State) NU had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game. Nebraska has now had two players rush for 100 yards in the same game 68 times in school history.

► NU narrowly missed another double 100-yard effort with Burkhead rushing for 129 yards at Iowa State, and Helu Jr. totaling 99 yards.

► Nebraska has 11 100-yard rushing games in 2010 after having just five each of the past two years and six in 2007. The 11 100-yard games are the highest by a Husker squad since the 2001 team posted 16 100-yard rushing outings in 13 games.

► Helu Jr. set a Nebraska school-record with 307 rushing yards in Nebraska's win over Missouri. His rushing yardage the second-most posted in Football Bowl Subdivision in 2010.

► Nebraska is averaging a 6.04 yards-per-carry, the third-best average in the country.

► Nebraska has rushed for 2,965 yards in 11 games. In 14 games in 2009, NU rushed for 2,059 yards.

HUSKERS HAVE RECORD OFFENSIVE

EXPLOSION AT KANSAS STATE

Nebraska averaged 11.3 yards per play against Kansas State—a new school record. The Huskers totaled 587 yards on just 52 snaps, an average of 11.288 yards per play, breaking the previous record of 11.286 yards per play at Minnesota in 1983 (790 yards on 70 snaps). Nebraska also nearly broke the single-game yards per rush average at Kansas State. NU averaged 10.74 yards on 42 rushes, just shy of the 10.82 yards per rush at Minnesota in 1983.

ONE-PLAY WONDERS

Nebraska has scored a touchdown on a single play 11 times in 2010. Nebraska has five one-play scoring drives, including four touchdown runs of 58 yards or longer by senior I-back Roy Helu Jr. The Huskers also have six returns for scores, most recently a 29-yard INT return for a touchdown at Iowa State by Austin Cassidy. NU has four interception returns for touchdowns, a kickoff return TD and a punt return score. The average length of those 11 plays is 62.5 yards.

HUSKERS SHOWING EXPLOSIVE ABILITY IN ALL PHASES

Nebraska has shown the ability to light up the scoreboard from anywhere on the field in 2010.

Quarterback Taylor Martinez has been the headliner in an offense that has flashed tremendous big-play ability and finds itself averaging 6.65 yards per play, among the top 15 teams in the country. That is just one of several impressive numbers posted by Nebraska in 2010.

▶ Nebraska has reached the end zone 45 times. The average length of those 45 touchdown plays has been 34.8 yards, with 23 of those plays covering at least 31 yards.

▶ Through 11 games, Nebraska has 58 offensive plays from scrimmage of at least 20 yards (31 rush, 27 pass). Last season, Nebraska posted 53 scrimmage plays of 20 yards or more in 14 games.

▶ The Husker offense has found the end zone in five-or-fewer plays on 19 of 38 touchdown drives, including five one-play scoring drives, four two-play scoring drives and four three-play touchdown drives. Sixteen of the 38 drives have taken less than 2:00, including 11 touchdown drives using 1:00 or less, most recently three against Missouri.

▶ Nebraska has six return TDs this season, including four INT returns, a kickoff return and a punt return. On its five one-play scoring drives and its six return touchdowns, the average length of NU's scores is 62.5 yards.

▶ Nebraska has 29 TD runs that total 911 yards (31.4 yds per TD), 10 TD passes that total 313 yds (31.3 yds per TD) and 39 TDs from scrimmage for a total of 1,224 yds (31.4 per TD).

▶ Nebraska had four scoring plays of 40 yards or more against Idaho, with each of those long scores coming in the second quarter. The four 40+-yard scores marked the first time Nebraska had four touchdowns of at least 40 yards since Nov. 2, 1996 at Oklahoma when NU also had four. Nebraska accomplished the feat for a second time vs. Mizzou, including three runs of at least 53 yards by Roy Helu Jr.

▶ Nebraska showed its lightning-quick scoring ability in a similar way at Washington. The Huskers opened the game with a two-play scoring drive, then scored three times in a span of less than seven minutes to open the second half, with each of those third-quarter scores covering at least 31 yards.

▶ Nebraska's offensive display at Kansas State was also remarkable. The Huskers had five touchdowns cover at least 35 yards, including scores of 80, 79 and 68 yards. The 79-yard pass play from Taylor Martinez to Kyler Reed was NU's longest pass play in eight seasons. NU set a school record at KSU by averaging 11.3 yards per play.

▶ Against Oklahoma State, Nebraska had scoring passes of 45 and 41 yards, and a 100-yard kickoff return.

▶ Nebraska's average touchdown drive this season lasts 5.6 plays and covers 67.3 yards in 2:17.

▶ Thirty-two of the 39 TD drives have consumed less than four minutes. The Huskers' longest touchdown drive of the season came on their final scoring drive at Oklahoma State, when they took 6:23 and 12 plays to cover 81 yards. That drive iced the OSU game, and against Missouri, NU killed the final 8:40 on the clock on a non-scoring drive. NU's two regulation TD drives at Iowa State took 12 and 11 plays, respectively.

FAST STARTS A KEY FOR HUSKERS

Led by its quick-strike offense, Nebraska has regularly had fast starts this season, scoring on its opening possession less than nine minutes into the game seven times.

▶ The Huskers have scored on their opening possession in nine of their last 13 games, dating back to last season. During the streak, the Huskers have scored six touchdowns (Arizona in 2009 and WKU, UW, KSU, OSU and MU in 2010) and three field goals (Texas in 2009 and Idaho and Texas A&M in 2010). On opening possessions this season, NU has scored 41 points, while the opposition has scored just three points on its opening possession.

▶ The Huskers have been especially fast starters on the road, scoring in the first nine minutes of the game eight times in the past 10 games away from Lincoln.

▶ Nebraska's 10-0 deficit after the first quarter against Texas ended a streak of 13 straight games in which NU had led or been tied after the first quarter. Nebraska has outscored the opposition 86-30 in the first quarter in 2010. Nebraska opened a 24-0 first-quarter lead against Missouri, including a touchdown on its first offensive play. The Huskers' 24 first-quarter points were their most in the opening quarter since scoring 38 against Baylor in 2000.

▶ The quick scores have afforded Nebraska the luxury of playing with a lead. Nebraska did not trail in its first five games and has had a deficit in just four games this season. Aside from trailing the final 55 minutes against Texas, NU has had a deficit for only 20:38 this season (5:04 at OSU, 6:30 at ISU, 9:04 at Texas A&M).

▶ Forcing turnovers has also been a key part of the quick starts. In 12 of the past 18 games, NU has forced a first-half turnover. These turnovers have resulted in eight touchdowns and two field goals.

MARTINEZ MAKING NAME FOR HIMSELF ON NATIONAL LEVEL

Nebraska redshirt freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez remains a leading candidate for National Freshman of the Year, and all-conference accolades, despite being hobbled by injury in the past four games. Martinez has made a prominent mark in the NU record book and shown the game-breaking ability that made him the choice in a tight three-quarterback battle for the starting job.

Martinez has accounted for the top five rushing games in school history by a freshman quarterback and four of the top 12 rushing efforts by any NU frosh. He has also accounted for at least 215 yards of total offense seven times, while completing 97-of-163 passes and throwing for nine touchdowns.

Martinez's signature performances this season came at Kansas State and at Oklahoma State. Martinez set an NU quarterback record with 241 rushing yards and four touchdowns on just 15 carries against the Wildcats. He also set a then-Husker freshman total offense record with 369 yards.

That record lasted less than three weeks, as Martinez accumulated 435 yards of total offense at No. 17 Oklahoma State, including an NU freshman record 323 passing yards, and another 112 rushing yards. In the 51-41 win, he also threw for a freshman-record five touchdowns, the second-most ever by a Nebraska quarterback.

WORKING OVERTIME

Nebraska played its first overtime contest since 2008, and its second under Head Coach Bo Pelini with its 31-30 win at Iowa State on Nov. 6. The Huskers' victory in that contest improved Nebraska to 6-1 all-time in overtime contests.

Those explosive efforts are the biggest highlights of Martinez's highlight-filled 2010 campaign:

▶ Martinez has rushed for 974 yards on 134 carries, an average of 7.3 yards per carry. Martinez has 14 rushes of at least 20 yards, including touchdown runs of 67, 46, 43, 20, 80, 35, 80 and 41 yards. The 80-yard touchdown runs against Washington and Kansas State are the longest ever by a Nebraska freshman and the second-longest in school history by a Husker quarterback, trailing only Eric Crouch's school-record 95-yard TD run at Missouri in 2001. Martinez owns the three longest runs by an NU quarterback in the past nine seasons.

▶ Martinez averages 88.5 rushing yards per game to rank 36th in the nation and sixth in the Big 12. He is fourth nationally among quarterbacks, and also fourth nationally among freshmen. Martinez's game average took a significant hit at Iowa State when he played one play in an emergency role and did not have a carry.

▶ Martinez's 7.27 yards per rush is fourth among players in the top 100 nationally in rushing.

▶ Martinez had 127 rushing yards in the opener, the most ever by a Nebraska freshman quarterback, but he has topped that three times since. He had 157 yards on 14 carries against Idaho, 137 yards at Washington, and an NU quarterback record 241 yards at Kansas State. The 241 rushing yards were the second-most ever by an NU freshman, while his 157 yards vs. Idaho were the sixth-most ever for a Husker frosh. The five 100+ outings this season are the top five rushing totals by an NU quarterback in the past eight seasons. His five 100-yard rushing games ties Ahman Green for the Nebraska freshman record, and marks the most for a quarterback since Eric Crouch in 2001.

▶ In four road games when he has played at quarterback, Martinez has rushed 64 times for 507 yards and seven touchdowns. He averages 7.92 yards per rush away from home and has scored seven touchdowns in 64 carries—one TD every 9.1 carries.

▶ Martinez's 127 rushing yards against Western Kentucky were the most by an NU quarterback in an opener since Tommie Frazier's 130-yard effort against West Virginia in 1994.

▶ The three straight 100-yard rushing games to open the year marked the first time a Nebraska quarterback topped the century mark in three straight games since Eric Crouch in 2001. Prior to this season, no NU quarterback had topped the century mark on the ground since Jammal Lord in 2003.

▶ Martinez has 12 rushing touchdowns, with three each against Western Kentucky and Washington, and four against Kansas State. His 12 rushing TDs are the fourth-most ever by a Nebraska freshman, just two shy of the record.

▶ Martinez's three rushing TDs vs. WKU were the most ever by an NU freshman in a season opener. It marked the second straight season an NU player has rushed for three touchdowns in the season opener.

▶ Martinez is the first player to have three games with three or more rushing touchdowns in a season since Eric Crouch had four games with at least three touchdowns in 2000. Martinez's effort at KSU also marked the most rushing TDs by a Husker since true freshman I-back David Horne had four rushing touchdowns at Texas A&M in 2002.

▶ Martinez's two 80-yard rushes are the longest by any Nebraska player since Cory Ross had an 86-yard touchdown run against Missouri in 2004.

▶ Martinez is 26 yards from the second 1,000-yard rushing season by a Nebraska freshman and the fourth 1,000-yard season by a NU quarterback. It would also mark only the third 1,000-yard rushing season in NCAA history by a freshman quarterback. He is 121 yards from the NCAA record for rushing yards by a freshman quarterback (1,093, Brad Smith, Missouri, 2002).

MARTINEZ SHOWS ABILITY TO BEAT YOU WITH HIS ARM

Most of the attention Martinez received through the first six games this season centered on his running ability. That changed at Oklahoma State, when the freshman had easily his most prolific passing day.

In a road victory over the No. 17 Cowboys, Martinez completed 23-of-35 passes for 323 yards and five touchdowns. Coupled with his 112 rushing yards, Martinez had one of the most dynamic games in school history for a quarterback.

▶ The 435 yards of total offense were an NU freshman record and the third-highest single-game total offense outing in school history.

▶ His 323 passing yards shattered the previous freshman passing record of 193 yards by Eric Crouch in the 1998 Holiday Bowl. The five touchdowns also broke the frosh TD pass record of three shared by Crouch and Tommie Frazier. The five touchdowns tied for the second-most in school history by any player.

▶ With 323 passing yards and 112 rushing yards, Martinez became the first Nebraska player to pass for 300 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game. Martinez was also the first to pass for 200 and rush for 100 yards in a game.

His performance at Oklahoma State earned Martinez the Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week and the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week awards.

BACKS MAKING MOST OF TOUCHES

Nebraska quarterbacks and I-backs have made the most of their offensive touches this season. The explosive NU offense has averaged just 64.1 plays per game, but plenty of players have taken advantage of their opportunities to post impressive numbers.

Nebraska averaged 8.8 yards per tote in the opener against Western Kentucky, its best since the 2004 opener against Western Illinois when NU averaged 9.3 yards per rush. Nebraska didn't miss a beat against Idaho, again averaging 8.8 yards per attempt with 360 yards on 41 rushing attempts. At Washington, Nebraska totaled 383 yards on 54 carries, an average of 7.1 yards per carry. Those impressive totals were nothing compared to NU's 10.74 yards per rush against Kansas State, just shy of the school record of 10.82 yards per carry set in 1983.

▶ Martinez has averaged more than 10 yards per rush three times, including 18.1 yards on seven rushes vs. WKU, 11.2 yards per attempt on 14 carries against Idaho, and 16.1 yards on 15 carries at Kansas State. He ranks fourth in the nation at 7.3 yards per carry.

▶ Sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead has 136 touches this season, and has accumulated 846 yards, an average of 6.2 yards per touch. He is averaging 5.8 yards on his 125 rushing attempts and 11.4 yards on 11 pass receptions. Nine of his touches have covered at least 20 yards.

▶ Senior I-back Roy Helu Jr. has also made the most of 151 rushing attempts, rolling up 1,043 yards. Helu Jr. is averaging 6.9 yards per carry to rank sixth nationally. Helu has six touchdown runs of at least 53 yards this season and has 10 rushes of 50 yards or more in his career. His 73-yard touchdown run against Missouri was a career long, bettering his 68-yarder at Kansas State earlier in October.

HELU JR. CONTINUES CLIMB IN NEBRASKA RUSHING RECORD BOOK

Nebraska I-back Roy Helu Jr. emerged as one of the Big 12's top backs in 2008, and battled through injuries to surpass 1,000 rushing yards last year as a junior. Helu's effort in 2009 earned him second-team All-Big 12 honors and the 6-0, 220-pounder is again producing impressive results in 2010.

The senior has posted his second consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season with 1,043 rushing yards this season, heading into the regular-season finale with Colorado. Helu Jr. is the first Nebraska player to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons since Calvin Jones in 1992 and 1993. That is just the latest milestone for the California native who has proven to be one of the finest backs in Nebraska history. He is averaging 94.8 yards per game to rank fifth in the Big 12 and 26th nationally.

▶ Helu Jr. had a record-setting effort in Nebraska's 31-17 victory over Missouri in Lincoln. Helu took the Huskers' first snap from scrimmage and raced 66 yards for a touchdown. That long score was a sign of things to come, as Helu added a career-long 73-yard TD run later in the first quarter and a 53-yarder in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter, he showed the ability to be a workhorse and helped NU run the final 8:40 off the clock. In doing so, Helu Jr. set a Nebraska single-game record with 307 rushing yards on 28 carries. The mark topped the previous Nebraska school-record of 294 rushing yards by Calvin Jones in 1991. Helu Jr.'s rushing total is the second-most in the FBS ranks this season.

▶ Helu Jr.'s effort against Missouri marked just the third time in the past five seasons a player in the Football Bowl Subdivision has had three touchdown runs of at least 50 yards in a game. Helu also set a Nebraska record for single-game all-purpose yards with 321 against the Tigers.

► Helu has posted four 100-yard rushing games in 2010. In addition to his record effort against Mizzou, he has topped the century mark against Idaho, Washington and Kansas State, giving him 11 career 100-yard games. He is just the 15th player in NU history with at least 10 100-yard rushing games. He narrowly missed his fifth 100-yard game of the year with 99 rushing yards at Iowa State. Helu has 10 rushing touchdowns this season, including a career-high tying three against Missouri. His 27 career rushing touchdowns make him one of 17 Nebraska players with at least 25 career rushing touchdowns.

► Helu has 3,202 career rushing yards, and has moved up from 11th to fourth on the NU career rushing chart over the past four weeks. In the Missouri game alone, Helu passed Derek Brown, Cory Ross, Dahrran Diedrick, Lawrence Phillips and I.M. Hipp on the career chart. At Iowa State he moved in front of Ken Clark, and he surpassed Calvin Jones at Texas A&M. Helu Jr. is 232 yards behind third-place Eric Crouch (3,434).

► Helu has 1,043 rushing yards this season, giving him the 30th 1,000-yard rushing season in school history.

► Helu has shined against top competition and in road environments. Helu has four 100-yard rushing games in NU's last 10 contests against ranked opponents. In 13 road games since the beginning of the 2008 campaign, Helu has rushed for 1,224 yards on 194 carries, 6.3 yards per tote.

► Helu had a Big 12-best 12 runs of 20+ yards in 2009, and 28 rushes of at least 20 yards over his past 27 games.

► Helu had three of the nine 150-yard rushing games by Big 12 players in 2009, and four of the top 13 rushing efforts in the league last season.

► Helu's 81.9 yards per game in 2009 ranked fourth in the Big 12, and his 1,147 rushing yards were the 16th-most in NU history.

POINTS DON'T COME EASY

Oklahoma State was the first NU opponent to top 21 points in 15 games, and Nebraska has been remarkably stingy on the scoreboard the past two seasons. The 2009 defense led the nation in scoring defense at 10.4 points per game, and held seven foes to single digits and eight teams to 10 or fewer points. Both of those totals led the nation. Nebraska posted two shutouts for the first time since 2003. This season, NU ranks ninth in scoring defense at 16.7 points per game.

► Nebraska's 10.4 points per game allowed last season were the fewest since the 1984 Nebraska defense also led the nation by allowing just 9.5 points per game. NU had not allowed fewer than 15 points per game since 2003.

► NU allowed just 25 trips into the red zone by its opponents, the second-fewest red-zone chances in the nation. Only 11 of those drives ended in touchdowns, and Nebraska's 64 percent rank in red zone defense was the nation's best. Nebraska has allowed 29 red-zone drives in 2010, with only 15 resulting in touchdowns.

► The Huskers allowed only 10 offensive touchdowns in eight Big 12 games in 2009.

► Nebraska held 13 of 14 opponents to 20 or fewer points last season. To put that accomplishment in perspective, NU held just six opponents to less than 20 points in 2007 and 2008 combined. This season, eight of 11 teams have scored 20 or fewer points.

► Only nine Nebraska opponents have scored as many as 17 points since the start of the 2009 season (25 games). In the past two seasons, Nebraska has allowed 10 or fewer points in 12 games.

BLACKSHIRTS TOUGH AT HOME

Although Nebraska saw its nation-leading streak of 14 consecutive games holding the opponent to 21-or-fewer points snapped on Oct. 23 in Stillwater, the Husker defense has been especially stout at home. Since the start of the 2009 season, Nebraska has allowed only 128 points in 13 home games, an average of only 9.8 points per game.

In their last 13 home games, the Huskers have allowed only 12 touchdowns. The Blackshirts have held nine opponents to 10 points or less during that stretch, and six to a field goal or fewer, including South Dakota State and Kansas this season. Nebraska has not allowed a touchdown in its last three November home games, surrendering just a single field goal in 2009 wins over Oklahoma and Kansas State, and a field goal to Kansas on Nov. 13.

Only two teams have scored more than 17 points at Memorial Stadium the past two seasons, and Nebraska lost both of those contests. Texas Tech posted a 31-10 win in Lincoln last season, while Texas handed Nebraska its only home loss of 2010, 20-13, in October.

The Blackshirts have allowed 300 total yards only three times in 13 home games the past two seasons, giving up an average of only 268.7 yards per game. The defense has also forced 26 turnovers in its last 13 games at home.

BLACKSHIRTS IN THE BACKFIELD

Nebraska's defense has spent a good share of time in the opposing backfield the past four games. The Huskers set a season high in tackles-for-loss at Missouri and Iowa State with nine TFL in each game. NU added seven tackles for loss against Kansas, before notching eight at Texas A&M

► The 32 tackles-for-loss over the past four games is a major improvement for a Blackshirt unit that had totaled 22 TFLs through the first seven games and only 12 in the five games leading up to the Missouri contest.

► NU also recorded 17 sacks the past four weeks after totaling only 12 sacks in the first seven games combined.

BLACKSHIRTS KEEPING OPPOSING

QUARTERBACKS IN CHECK

Nebraska has yet to allow an opposing player 300 yards of total offense in 11 games this season. NU also did not allow a 300-yard total offensive game in 14 games in 2009 and in the final three games of 2008, good for a streak of 28 straight games without allowing an individual 300 yards of total offense. OSU's Brandon Weeden accounted for 273 yards of total offense, but entered the game averaging better than 315 yards per game. Missouri's Blaine Gabbert matched Weeden's total of 273 yards of total offense.

The last opponent individual to gain 300 yards of total offense against Nebraska was Todd Reesing, QB, Kansas, Nov. 8, 2008 (304 passing, 35 rushing – 339 total).

► 2009 marked the first season since 1995, that NU did not allow at least one opposing individual to amass 300 total offense yards in one game during the season.

► The 28-game streak without a 300-yard total offensive effort is the longest stretch without an opposing individual producing a 300-yard total offense game since NU had a 42-game streak – Chad May, K-State, 1993 to James Brown, Texas, Big 12 Championship Game, 1996

TOTAL DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE

Nebraska ranked seventh nationally in total defense at 272.0 yards per game in 2009, its best defensive average since allowing 252.3 yards per game in 1999. This fall, Nebraska is allowing 294.5 yards to rank ninth in the nation.

► NU held seven straight foes to fewer than 280 total yards in 2009, the longest sub-300-yard streak for an NU defense since 1996. Four of those games were against Big 12 foes, the longest streak by the Blackshirts in league play since 1996.

► NU held 13 of 14 opponents to fewer total offensive yards than their season average in 2009.

► Nebraska has held eight of its 11 opponents this season to 315 or fewer yards.

BLACKSHIRTS COMPLETELY DOMINANT

AGAINST JAYHAWKS

The Nebraska defense has been one of the nation's best units the past two seasons, and has had numerous impressive outings. Statistically, no defensive effort was better than the Blackshirts' outing in a 20-3 victory against Kansas. In fact, the Nebraska defense put up numbers that had not been seen in a decade.

► The Huskers allowed only 87 total yards in the contest. The offensive output by Kansas was the lowest by a Nebraska opponent since Baylor had 84 yards of total offense in Lincoln on Oct. 21, 2000, also the last time NU limited an opponent to fewer than 100 yards. The KU game marked the fifth time since 1990 Nebraska held an opponent below the century mark in total offense.

► Kansas passed for just 15 yards in the game, the lowest since Nicholls State did not complete a pass against Nebraska on Sept. 9, 2006. The 15 passing yards marked just the eighth time since 1990 an NU opponent has had fewer than 50 passing yards.

► The Jayhawks tallied just five first downs, the fewest by an opponent since Kansas had only four first downs in a 35-0 loss to the Huskers in Lawrence in 1997.

NO FREE PASSES

–Washington Head Coach Steve Sarkisian after Nebraska held the Huskies to just four completions and 71 passing yards

Nebraska led the nation in pass efficiency defense in 2009 and returned eight defensive backs with starting experience this fall, making the Husker secondary one of the most highly regarded in the nation. Through 11 games, NU again tops the nation in passing efficiency defense (93.77 rating) and is second in passing yards allowed per game (143.1 ypg). The Huskers have caused major problems for opposing passers, including highly rated prospects Nathan Enderle of Idaho, Jake Locker of Washington and Blaine Gabbert of Missouri.

► Nebraska opponents are completing 49.83 percent of their pass attempts, the third-best in the nation. That includes a 4-of-20 effort by Washington's Jake Locker, and a 4-of-16 showing by Texas' Garrett Gilbert and a 3-of-13 effort by Kansas. Opponents have thrown for 10 touchdown passes. Last season, NU opponents completed 47.8 percent of their passes (No. 4 in nation), and NU allowed just seven passing TDs (second-fewest nationally).

► Nebraska has 16 interceptions this season to tie for 12th in the country. Nebraska has intercepted 5.28 percent of opposing passes, sixth in the nation. Last season, Nebraska tied for seventh in the nation with 20 interceptions.

► Ten of NU's 14 opponents in 2009 completed 50 percent or less of their pass attempts, and five opponents had less than 150 yards passing. NU's 2010 opponents are averaging 143.1 passing yards per game, including six with 135 yards or less. Washington threw for just 71 yards, South Dakota State had 95 yards, Texas had 62 yards and Kansas had just 15 passing yards. Oklahoma State threw for a season-high 283 yards, but that total was 78 yards fewer than the Cowboys' season average heading into the game.

► The 15 passing yards allowed against Kansas were the fewest by NU since allowing zero completions against Nicholls State in 2006. It was just the eighth time since 1990 NU has held an opponent to 50 or fewer passing yards. Kansas did not complete a pass after the first quarter (0-of-9), and had only one completion longer than two yards.

► Nebraska allowed an average of 178.9 yards per game through the air in 2009, NU's best pass defense since allowing 177.8 yards per game in 2003. If NU were to maintain its 143.1 yard per game pass defense average it would rank as the Huskers' best since allowing 131.0 yards per game in 1990.

► The Huskers' five-interception effort against Idaho was the second time in the past two seasons NU has picked off five passes (also Oklahoma, 2009). Nebraska has intercepted at least two passes in eight of its past 17 games.

► Nebraska returned two interceptions for touchdowns against Idaho, tying a school record that had been accomplished five other times. Both of the pick-six scores came in the second quarter marking the first time NU has ever returned two interceptions for touchdowns in the same quarter.

► Nebraska has added interception returns for touchdowns at Washington and at Iowa State. This season is the first time Nebraska has had four INT returns for a touchdown in a season since 1996, and the four picks for touchdowns matches the combined total of 2008 and 2009. The school record for interceptions for touchdowns is five set in both 1971 and 1995.

PRINCE LEADS A ROYAL NEBRASKA SECONDARY

In 2010 it has been hard to single out one player as the standout in the Nebraska secondary. Every player who has seen extensive action has produced big plays and played key roles in the shutdown ability of the Cornhusker secondary.

Senior cornerback Prince Amukamara was the most recognizable name coming into the season after earning his share of honors last fall and putting his name on many preseason All-America teams. A first-team All-Big 12 pick in 2009, Amukamara is regarded as the cornerstone of a deep and veteran Nebraska secondary.

Amukamara has shown why he earned the preseason hype, but ironically he is the only player among NU's top eight defensive backs who has not picked off a pass in 2010. Despite not picking off a pass, his lockdown ability has been a key part of Nebraska defenders recording 16 picks, including four for scores.

The dominant coverage skills exhibited by Amukamara have been recognized in recent weeks. He is one of 10 semifinalists for the Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top defensive back. He is also one of eight semifinalists for the Lott IMPACT Defensive Player of the Year and one of 16 semifinalists for the Chuck Bednarik Award. He is also a strong contender for Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Amukamara has made 48 tackles, including a career-high 10 tackles at Texas A&M. Prince has also posted a team-high 11 pass breakups, including a career-high tying three PBU against Missouri. He had two breakups each against Idaho and Kansas State, and has seven games the past two seasons with multiple pass breakups. His first PBU against Idaho deflected into the air and was intercepted by P.J. Smith—the first of five NU picks in the game. The 6-1, 205-pound Amukamara has 25 career pass breakups, which places him seventh on the Husker career list.

► Amukamara's impact can not be measured only by interceptions, tackles and PBU. Through 10 games opponents had targeted Amukamara just 40 times, and completed only 11 passes against the lock-down corner.

BAND OF BLACKSHIRT THIEVES

Amukumara is the highest profile member of the Nebraska secondary, but opposing quarterbacks have found that the football is never safe with the Huskers' ball-hawking secondary crew.

▶ Senior Eric Hagg is Nebraska's nickel back and has been arguably Nebraska's biggest play-maker on defense in 2010. Hagg has a team-leading four interceptions this season, to rank fourth in the Big 12 and tied for 28th nationally in interceptions. Hagg picked off Washington's first pass attempt of the game, that set up the Huskers' opening score. He also had two breakups against the Huskies and earned Big 12 Co-Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors for his effort at Washington.

Hagg showed his play-making ability against Texas with a 95-yard punt return for a touchdown, the longest punt return in school history on his first career return. Hagg had a season-high eight tackles and an interception at Oklahoma State and seven solo stops and two TFL vs. Missouri. Against Iowa State, Hagg had his fourth pick of the season, and ironically he does not officially receive credit for his most important interception of the year. In overtime, ISU scored to cut NU's lead to 31-30, then faked its PAT attempt, which Hagg alertly intercepted to secure a win. Hagg was chosen as a second-team mid-season All-American by SI.com.

▶ Fellow cornerback Alfonzo Dennard gives Nebraska two of the nation's top cover corners. Dennard has four interceptions this season, including a 31-yard touchdown return for a score against Washington. He is tied for 17th nationally in interceptions, and also has 19 tackles and six pass breakups. He is tied for 22nd nationally in passes defended at 1.0 per game. He missed most of the Missouri game and all of the Iowa State game with an injury.

▶ Senior safety/dime back DeJon Gomes has been a turnover machine during his NU career. Gomes has intercepted six passes in 21 career games, and has also caused five fumbles. In 2010, Gomes has caused fumbles against Western Kentucky and Kansas State. He also picked off an Idaho pass and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown and added his second pick against Missouri. Gomes ranks second on the team with 84 tackles, including a career-high 12 stops at Kansas State and double-figure tackle totals against Texas and Oklahoma State. He has four tackles for loss.

▶ Sophomore safety P.J. Smith has three interceptions, and also has 37 tackles, including a career-high 11 stops against Texas.

▶ Three new faces excelled in the NU secondary against Missouri. Junior Austin Cassidy and sophomore Courtney Osborne were Nebraska's starting safeties, and performed well with six tackles each. True freshman corner Ciante Evans was called upon when Dennard went out with an injury, and responded with four tackles and two breakups. Cassidy was even better against Iowa State, with a career-high 12 tackles and a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown. He also caused a fumble. Cassidy has 36 tackles on the year, while Osborne has 28 tackles, including five tackles for loss.

BLACKSHIRTS BOAST AMAZING IMPROVEMENTS OVER PAST THREE SEASONS

Nebraska Head Coach Bo Pelini, defensive coordinator Carl Pelini and a strong defensive staff have led one of the most remarkable turnarounds in college football in recent years. Nebraska was one of the nation's most improved defenses in 2008, finishing second in the Big 12 in total defense just one season after ranking last in the Big 12 and 112th nationally in total defense. As impressive as the progress was in 2008, the Blackshirts made even larger strides as a unit in 2009 and are continuing to be among the nation's best in 2010.

▶ Two seasons after ranking 116th nationally in scoring defense (37.9 ppg), NU led the nation in that category at 10.4 points per game. NU allowed 28.5 points per game in 2008 and its 18.1 ppg improvement last fall easily led the nation. Nebraska's 79-spot move from 80th nationally in total defense in 2008 to first in 2009 was also the nation's best. This season Nebraska is allowing 16.7 points to rank ninth nationally.

▶ In two seasons, Nebraska's sack total has increased from 13 to 35 to 44 in 2009. Through 11 games this season, NU has 29 sacks, including a seven-sack effort against Idaho and six each against Missouri and Kansas.

▶ Against the run, NU cut its per-game average nearly in half in 2008, then shaved another 23 yards per game off its average allowed in 2009.

▶ Nebraska improved 48 places (55th to 7th) in total defense in 2009, improving from 349.9 yards per game to 272.0 yards per game and the 77.9-yard improvement was the sixth-best in the nation. The Huskers are allowing 294.5 yards per game this season to rank ninth in the nation, and have held six foes to less than 300 yards.

▶ Nebraska led the nation in pass efficiency defense and finished 18th in passing yards allowed per game, an improvement of 71 places--the fourth-best in the nation. This season, Nebraska is first in pass efficiency defense and second in passing yards allowed at just 143.1 yards per game.

CRICK LOOKING FOR ANOTHER AWARD-WINNING SEASON

Junior defensive tackle Jared Crick emerged as a standout performer last fall and is the anchor of Nebraska's defensive line in 2010. The 6-6, 285-pound Crick was named the preseason Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and was a first-team preseason All-America choice by numerous outlets.

Crick received first-team mid-season All-America honors from Rivals.com, and second-team All-America honors from two other outlets. In late October, Crick was named one of 12 semifinalists for the Rotary Lombardi Award, before the award's list was trimmed to four finalists. Crick remains a contender for numerous postseason honors and is currently playing his best football of 2010.

Crick has 59 tackles, including a season-high nine tackles against Kansas. He is third on the team in tackles and first among linemen. Crick leads all Big 12 defensive linemen in tackles per game at 5.4 per contest.

NU ADDS TO SEASON-OPENING STREAK

Nebraska extended its season-opening win streak to 25 straight with its 49-10 win over Western Kentucky. The Huskers' streak leads the nation, bettering Florida's 21 straight wins. NU's last loss in a season opener was a 17-13 setback against Florida State at Memorial Stadium in 1985.

► Nebraska has won each of the 25 games by at least 10 points, and has scored at least 40 points in 18 of the 25 games, including each of the last five seasons.

► The Cornhuskers have limited the opponent to 14 points or less 17 times in the winning streak.

► NU has won its three openers under Pelini by at least 23 points, with an average margin of victory of 36.0 points.

Crick leads the Blackshirts with 7.5 sacks, including five in the past four games. Crick ranks third in the Big 12 in sacks. He had two sacks against Kansas for 12 yards, and shared a pair of sacks at Texas A&M. Crick's 14 tackles for loss (69 yards) are tied for the team lead and are just one off his 2009 TFL total. Crick has also added eight hurries.

The recent sack surge by Crick has pushed his career total to 17, tying him for eighth on the Nebraska career list. He has 29 career tackles for loss. The top statistical game of Crick's 2010 season came against Idaho, when Crick had 2.5 sacks for 30 yards and four tackles for losses, totaling 32 yards. He had a season-high eight tackles and two TFL in the win over Missouri.

In 2009, Crick pushed Ndamukong Suh for team statistical leads in tackles, sacks and tackles for loss all season. Crick finished with 73 tackles, 15 tackles for loss, 9.5 sacks, 16 quarterback hurries and two fumble recoveries. Crick had one of the most prolific defensive days in school history with a record-setting performance at Baylor in 2009.

► Crick had a school-record five sacks for 24 yards in the game. His five sacks were the most in a single game by any player in the nation in 2009, just ahead of Suh's 4.5 sacks against Texas.

► Crick had seven tackles for loss, tying the NU school record also held by Jim Skow (1985 vs. Missouri) and Suh (2009 vs. Texas). The seven TFLs by Crick and Suh were three more than any other Big 12 player in 2009.

► Crick earned Big 12 and national defensive player-of-the-week honors for his performance, before going on to first-team All-Big 12 honors. His 5.2 tackles per game ranked second only to Suh among Big 12 defensive linemen.

DAVID POSTING IMPRESSIVE TACKLE TOTALS

Nebraska junior linebacker Lavonte David arrived on the Nebraska campus just a few short months ago. But he has proven to be a quick learner and has moved into a leading role on the Nebraska defense. David has a team-high 120 tackles, and his 10.9 tackles leads the Big 12 and ninth nationally.

David is tied for ninth on the Nebraska single-season tackle list. His 100-tackle season is the first by a Blackshirt defender since Barrett Ruud recorded 143 tackles in 2004, and he is poised to threaten Ruud's single-season record of 149 tackles in 2003. David is also tied for the team lead with 14 tackles for loss, is second in sacks (6-50) and pass breakups (8), while ranking fourth in hurries (7).

The play of the 6-1, 210-pound David has drawn national attention. He was named a first-team midseason All-American by Rivals.com and SI.com, and he is the leading contender for Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year.

► David had a team season-high 19 tackles in the Huskers' victory over South Dakota State. David's tackle total ties for the most in the Big 12 this season, and is the highest for a Nebraska player since Barrett Ruud totaled 19 tackles at Kansas State in 2004. Ruud, a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, is Nebraska's all-time leading tackler.

► The 19 tackles vs. SDSU were not only the best by a Husker in six seasons, but the total also ranked in a tie for the seventh-most tackles in school history.

► David backed that up with 16 tackles at Kansas State, giving him the top two single-game tackle totals for the Huskers in the past six seasons. His effort at Kansas State also earned David Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors. His 35 tackles in back-to-back games are the best for a Husker since Ruud had 36 tackles in back-to-back games against Kansas State and Missouri in 2004.

► David has seven games with double-figure tackle totals this season, most recently 14 at Texas A&M, including four tackles for loss.

HENERY MAKING A RUN AT NCAA RECORDS

Nebraska place-kicker Alex Henery has been one of the nation's best for the past four seasons. However, a closer examination of Henery's amazing kicking numbers reveals that he is one of the best place-kickers in NCAA history.

► Henery has made 89.0 percent of his career field goal attempts (65-of-73). The NCAA record is 87.8 percent by Florida's Bobby Raymond. (min. 45 attempts)

► Henery has made 76.7 percent of his career field goals from 40 yards or longer (23-of-30). The NCAA career record is 72.1 percent by Georgia's Billy Bennet.

► Henery has made 97.7 percent of his career field goals from inside 40 yards (42-of-43). The NCAA career record is 97.0 percent by Florida's Bobby Raymond.

► Henery is tied for the NCAA record with six career games with at least four field goals.

► Henery has combined to make 249 of his 258 career kicks (PATs and field goals), a 96.5 percent accuracy rate. The NCAA FBS career record is 94.9 percent set by Missouri's Jeff Wolfert.

NEBRASKA RECORDS FALLING BY THE WAYSIDE

While Henery is making a push for NCAA records, he has already made a significant mark in the Husker record book and figures to make his name even more prominent in the stretch run of his career. In addition to his place-kicking prowess, the senior from Omaha has also emerged as one of the nation's top punters the past two seasons.

Henery was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award in late October, marking his second straight year as a semifinalist. He was also named to the Ray Guy Award Watch List, making Henery the only player in the nation who was both a semifinalist for the Groza Award, and a candidate for the Ray Guy Award.

Henery connected on field goals of 48 and 29 yards at Texas A&M, and is now 15-of-16 on the season. He made his first 10 attempts in 2010, giving him a school-record 18 straight made

CASSIDY PLACED ON SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraska junior safety Austin Cassidy is the latest Husker to go from walk-on to scholarship player. Cassidy was awarded a scholarship by Head Coach Bo Pelini before the 2010 season.

A graduate of Lincoln Southwest High School, Cassidy has been a key performer on NU's special teams in 2008 and 2009. In addition to continuing in that role this fall, the 6-1, 210-pound Cassidy has moved into a starting role in the second half of the season. earned his first career start against Missouri. Cassidy is also a strong contender for Academic All-America honors.

Pelini has made the walk-on program a huge priority since taking over the Nebraska program. In his first three recruiting classes, Nebraska has welcomed nearly 70 walk-on players into the Nebraska program.

field goals before he had a 51-yarder blocked against Missouri. The 18 straight field goals made broke Kris Brown's school record of 17 straight. Henery has also increased his career field goal total to 65, eight better than Brown's previous school record of 57.

Henery connected on a school-record 24-of-28 field goals in 2009, including three games with at least four field goals. He hit 5-of-5 field goals at Virginia Tech, the second-highest field goal total in school history, trailing only Dale Klein's school-record seven field goals in 1985. He also supplied all the scoring by hitting 4-of-4 field goals in a 13-12 loss to Texas in the Big 12 title game, and finished the year with a perfect 4-of-4 effort against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl.

▶ Henery has six career games with four or more field goals, an accomplishment that has already tied an NCAA record. He has 16 multiple-FG games in his career, including five in Big 12 Conference play in 2010.

▶ Henery's 24 field goals in 2009 shattered the school record, and his 65 career made field goals have come on 73 attempts, making him the most accurate kicker in school history.

▶ Among kickers with at least 50 career attempts, Henery is the most accurate active field goal kicker in the nation. He is also the most accurate kicker in NU history on extra points, hitting 184-of-185 in his career, a 99.5 percent accuracy rate. He has made 107 straight PATs, including perfect PAT seasons as a freshman and junior. He is 45-of-45 in 2010.

▶ Among Henery's eight career missed field goals, just two have come from inside 50 yards. In fact, Henery had a streak of 25 straight made field goals from inside 50 yards. Henery has also made 16 career field goals from 44 yards or longer. His 52-yard field goal at Oklahoma State tied for the longest ever by a Nebraska player in a road game.

▶ Henery became the fifth Nebraska player with at least 300 career points against Idaho. He currently has 379 points to rank second in school history. He passed Eric Crouch (368) against Kansas, and needs 10 points to move past Kris Brown (388) and set a new career scoring record. Henery is third nationally in scoring among active players.

▶ Henery scored 110 points in both 2008 and 2009, eighth on the single-season scoring list. His two 110-point seasons trail only Kris Brown (116 in 1997) for season scoring by a kicker. He has 90 points in 11 games in 2010.

▶ Henery averaged 41.4 yards in his first season as Nebraska's starting punter in 2009, making him one of only three players nationally to rank in the top 50 in both field goals and punting average. Henery led the Big 12 with 30 punts downed inside the 20, including an impressive eight inside the three-yard line.

▶ This season, Henery's punting has been strong and consistent. He is averaging 44.0 yards per punt to rank fifth in the Big 12 and 25th nationally. He has had 20 kicks downed inside the 20, including five against Kansas. Henery has had 14 punts travel at least 50 yards, including a season-long 69-yarder at Iowa State. Henery has averaged at least 47.0 yards per punt five times this season.

PAUL AGAIN SETTING THE TONE FOR RECEIVERS AND RETURN GAME

Wide receiver Niles Paul has been a key figure in Nebraska's receiving corps and return game for each of the past three seasons. A year ago, Paul caught 40 passes for 796 yards and four touchdowns. Paul's receiving yardage total was the fifth-best total in school history and his 19.9 yards per catch led the Big 12 Conference. His per-catch average also ranked third in school history among players with at least 20 receptions and tops among players with 40 catches in a season.

This season, Paul has shown similar all-around skills and leads Nebraska with 39 catches for 516 yards, most recently with four catches for 53 yards at Texas A&M. With 39 catches, Paul is just three receptions from moving into the top 10 on the Husker single-season receptions chart.

Paul had the most complete game of his career in Nebraska's 51-41 victory at Oklahoma State. Paul accounted for a career-high 274 all-purpose yards in the game, the sixth-best all-purpose game in school history. Included in his effort at Oklahoma State was a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, marking the longest for Nebraska in 61 years and tying the second-longest in NU history. Paul also caught a career-high nine passes, tying for the eighth-most catches for a Husker player. His 131 receiving yards marked the fifth 100-yard receiving game of his career and his first in 2010.

▶ Paul opened the year with 158 all-purpose yards against Western Kentucky, including five receptions for 92 yards and a 33-yard TD grab. He had two catches of at least 20 yards against the Hilltoppers, then led NU with four catches against Idaho. He tied his previous career high with six catches against Texas, and has had at least four catches in eight of 15 games dating back to last season.

▶ Paul has moved into the top 10 on the Nebraska career receptions chart, and at 103 career catches, he is just the sixth Husker with 100 career catches. Paul has 1,532 career receiving yards to rank fifth in NU career receiving yards. and against Kansas moved past Maurice Purify and Matt Davison into fifth on the career receiving yardage list.

In 2009, Paul had an impressive list of accomplishments.

▶ Paul tied the NU school record in 2009 with four 100-yard receiving games, including three in Big 12 play and against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl. His 154 yards on four catches at Kansas represented the sixth-best receiving day in NU history, while his 143 yards vs. Iowa State ranked ninth.

▶ Paul earned Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP honors by accounting for 237 all-purpose yards, including 123 receiving yards. He had a career-long 74-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter to cap the scoring in a 33-0 rout.

▶ Paul had 11 catches of at least 20 yards, with nine of those covering 35 yards or more. His 38.5 yards per catch at Kansas was the second-best single-game effort in the Big 12 in 2009.

▶ Paul ranked second in the Big 12 in both kickoff return and punt return average in 2009, and his 121.2 all-purpose yards per game ranked ninth in the Big 12. This season, Paul again ranks among the league's best in both categories.

▶ Paul became the first Husker since Dana Brinson (1986) to lead Nebraska in receiving, kickoff return yards, punt return yards and all-purpose yards. The only other Huskers in history to lead the Huskers in all four categories in the same season are: Johnny Rodgers (1970, 1971, 1972), Pat Fischer (1958) and Dick Hutton (1946). The only other Husker in history to lead NU in four offense/special teams yardage categories in the same season was Frank Solich (1964 – all-purpose, KOR, PR, rushing). Paul is in position to accomplish that rare feat again in 2010.

HUSKERS PROMINENT ON NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE ROSTERS

Nebraska has a long-standing tradition of placing large numbers of players in the NFL. Nebraska had 26 players on 2010 NFL opening-day rosters and three other players on practice squads. The Huskers are represented on the rosters of 19 NFL teams. Nearly 40 former Huskers were in NFL training camps.

Nebraska owns one of the most impressive histories of any school in producing NFL-caliber players. Since the start of Big 12 play in 1996, Nebraska has led all Big 12 schools with 65 players selected in the NFL Draft. No other conference school has had more than 57 players chosen in that period. The Huskers have been especially impressive on defense, with 43 players chosen since 1997. No other Big 12 school has had more than 30.

Three Huskers were selected in the 2010 NFL Draft, marking the 41st consecutive season at least three Nebraska players were taken in the draft.

NEBRASKA COMPLETES 2010

NON-CONFERENCE PERFECTION

Nebraska' 17-3 win over South Dakota State allowed the Huskers to finish non-league play with a perfect 4-0 mark. It marked just the third perfect non-conference slate for Nebraska since 2002, and the first since 2005.

With a 4-0 record, Nebraska posted its 29th straight winning non-conference season. That streak dates back to a 2-2 non-league record in 1981. Since 1981, the Huskers have lost either one (12 times) or zero (17 times) non-conference games.

MCNEILL AND KINNIE ALSO PROVIDE DANGEROUS RECEIVING TARGETS

Senior Mike McNeill has been a fixture in the Nebraska passing game for the past three seasons. He was a prolific pass catching tight end, before the 6-4, 235-pound McNeill moved to wide receiver last spring. He teams with Paul and junior Brandon Kinnie to give Nebraska one of the biggest and most physical receiving corps in the Big 12.

McNeill set a tight end record with 32 catches as a sophomore in 2008, and was second on the team with 28 catches for 259 yards last season. He also tied with Paul for the team lead with four touchdown catches. McNeill averages 17.8 yards per catch on his 13 receptions this season.

► In addition to a tight end position record 32 catches in 2008, McNeill's six touchdown receptions were just one shy of the position record.

► McNeill has 74 career catches to tie for 10th on the Nebraska career list. McNeill's receptions total represents a Nebraska career tight ends reception record, bettering the 65 by Matt Herian from 2002 to 2006. McNeill is 42 yards from becoming the 19th Husker and fourth NU tight end to reach 1,000 career receiving yards. He snared his 11th career touchdown with a 24-yard grab at Washington, then had a career-long 64-yard reception against South Dakota State.

► McNeill had his best game of 2010 at Oklahoma State, posting a career-high five catches for 61 yards.

Kinnie also made huge strides in the offseason, and that has carried into outstanding play in 2010. Kinnie ranks second on the team with 36 catches for 407 yards and three touchdowns.

► Kinnie posted his first three career touchdown receptions at Oklahoma State, including a 45-yard catch and run to open the scoring in the first quarter. Kinnie's three TD catches tied a school record, accomplished nine previous times in NU history.

Kinnie opened the year with a career-high six receptions and 59 yards against Western Kentucky. He excelled against Washington with five receptions for a career-high 105 yards. He totaled 180 all-purpose yards, adding 75 yards on kickoff returns. Against Kansas, Kinnie matched his career-high with six catches for 67 yards.

Sophomore tight end Kyler Reed has supplied a big-play threat in recent weeks. Reed has 13 catches for 306 yards this season, an impressive 23.5-yard per catch average. Reed has four touchdown receptions, with each of those covering at least 33 yards. Behind its big-play receiving corps, Nebraska is averaging 14.41 yards per completion this season, a mark that ranks eighth in the country.

NEBRASKA PUTTING TOGETHER ANOTHER STRONG SECOND-HALF RUN

A trademark of Bo Pelini's first two Nebraska teams was steady improvement. Despite a 9-6 loss at No. 19 Texas A&M, the Huskers have again been strong after the midway point of the season with a 4-1 record.

► Nebraska has won six of its final seven games in both 2008 and 2009. The 6-1 second-half records the past two seasons are the school's best seven-game finishes since 1999. Nebraska was one of only 12 teams in the FBS to win at least six of its final seven games last season.

► The Huskers went 5-1 in the first half of the regular season, and 4-1 since the midway point, defeating ranked foes Oklahoma State and Missouri along the way.

► Nebraska's 3-1 record in October marked the first time since 2003 that NU had just one loss in October.

► Nebraska won nine straight games in November, before its three-point setback in College Station. The Huskers are 9-2 in November under Pelini.

Pelini-coached Nebraska teams are 17-7 in games played before Halloween, including 7-5 in October, and 12-3 in games on or after Nov. 1, with two of the losses against teams ranked in the top four nationally, and the third at No. 19 Texas A&M.

ROAD WARRIORS

Nebraska's loss at Texas A&M ended a streak of eight straight road victories and eight straight Big 12 Conference road wins. The winning streak was Nebraska's longest on the road since winning 10 straight road games from 1996 to 1998, a streak that ended with a 28-21 loss at Texas A&M in 1998.

Nebraska's Big 12 road winning streak was its longest since winning its first eight Big 12 games when the league was formed in 1996 and 1997. Nebraska won 19 straight conference road games from 1992 to 1997 (Big Eight and Big 12). The 4-0 record in Big 12 road games in 2009 was the first for Nebraska since 1997.

► Nebraska is 9-3 on the road in Big 12 play under Bo Pelini, with all three losses against ranked teams.

NU OWNS TWO OVER RANKED TEAMS

Nebraska defeated seventh-ranked Missouri, 31-17, on Oct. 30 in Lincoln, a week after it went on the road and defeated an unbeaten and 17th-ranked Oklahoma State team, 51-41. Nebraska dropped to 2-1 against ranked teams in 2010 with its 9-6 loss at 18th-ranked Texas A&M.

► The wins over Oklahoma State and Missouri marked the first time Nebraska has defeated ranked opponents in consecutive games since defeating No. 25 Missouri (34-20) and No. 24 Texas A&M (28-27) in 2006. Prior to this season, the last time Nebraska defeated a pair of teams ranked 20th or higher in consecutive games came at the end of the 1999 season when NU knocked off No. 12 Texas in the Big 12 title game and sixth-ranked Tennessee in the Fiesta Bowl.

► The win over No. 7 Missouri was the highest ranked team NU had defeated since a win over No. 2 Oklahoma in 2001 in Lincoln. It also marked the first time NU had defeated a top-10 team since that 2001 game against OU, ending a streak of 12 straight losses against top-10 teams.

► The win at 17th-ranked Oklahoma State represented the highest ranked team NU had defeated on the road since a 27-14 win at No. 2 Washington in September of 1997.

► Nebraska is 5-3 against ranked teams since the start of the 2009 season. The Huskers were 3-2 against ranked teams in 2009, and are 2-1 this season. The Huskers' three wins against ranked teams last year marked their most wins over ranked teams since four wins over ranked foes during a 12-1 campaign in 1999.

NEBRASKA AMONG LEADERS IN ASSOCIATED PRESS NATIONAL TITLES

Notre Dame leads the nation by winning eight Associated Press national titles since 1936, with Oklahoma (7), Alabama (6), Miami (5), USC (5), Nebraska (4) and Minnesota (4) next in line. While the Huskers were awarded the national title by the coaches in 1997, NU finished second to Michigan in the AP poll.

In 1970, Nebraska was awarded the AP national title, but not the coaches (Texas was first, Ohio State second and NU third) as the final poll was released before the bowl games were played. In the coaches poll (since 1950), Nebraska is tied for fourth with Miami and Texas with four titles, behind Alabama and Oklahoma with six apiece, and USC with five.

THREE TRUE FROSH SEEING ACTION

While redshirt freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez stole the majority of the headlines in the season opener and throughout the season, several other young players have made an impact.

Three true freshmen made their debuts in the opener, including offensive guard Andrew Rodriguez, wide receiver Quincy Enunwa and cornerback Ciante Evans. Rodriguez has played a reserve role throughout the season. Enunwa has one catch for 10 yards and Evans has eight tackles. Evans played a key role against Missouri after Alfonzo Dennard went to the sideline with an injury, and the freshman responded with four tackles and two breakups. He earned his first career start at Iowa State.

Rodriguez is just the eighth true freshman offensive lineman to play at Nebraska and the first since 2006. Rodriguez is the first true freshman offensive lineman to play in a season opener since Toniui Fonoti and John Garrison each appeared in the 1999 season opener against Iowa.

FAHIE TO BE PRESENTED WITH HONORARY LOTT TROPHY

Nebraska senior defensive end Tyrone Fahie will be presented an honorary Lott IMPACT Trophy at a banquet in Newport Beach, Calif. on Dec. 12. The four finalists for the 2010 Lott IMPACT Defensive Player of the Year will also be in attendance at the banquet.

The 27-year-old Fahie served two tours of duty in Iraq as a member of the U.S. Navy Seal One unit. A walk-on to the football team, Fahie has been a member of the defensive scout unit throughout his career.

Fahie's story received additional attention early this fall when he was part of a patriotic salute for NU's Sept. 11 game against Idaho. Fahie and members of police, fire and rescue units the team out of the tunnel carrying American flags.

MOGLIA NAMED HEAD COACH AND PRESIDENT OF VIRGINIA UFL FRANCHISE

Nebraska executive advisor to the head football coach Joe Moglia was named the Head Coach and President of the Virginia Destroyers of the United Football League on Nov. 10. Moglia will remain with the Huskers through the end of the football season before taking over the expansion franchise.

Moglia has spent the last two seasons with the Nebraska football program while pursuing his dream of earning a head coaching position. Moglia spent seven years before joining Nebraska as the CEO of TD AMERITRADE.

Moglia spent 16 years in coaching before getting into the business world. He was the defensive coordinator at Dartmouth and spent time at Lafayette.

▶ Nebraska's win at Oklahoma State was its third win over a ranked team away from home in the past two seasons, including the win at Missouri last year and a victory over No. 22 Arizona in the Holiday Bowl.

▶ Before the 2009 and 2010 seasons, NU last posted multiple wins over ranked teams in back-to-back seasons in 2000 and 2001. Nebraska won at least two games against ranked teams in 11 straight seasons from 1991 to 2001.

▶ In Big 12 play, NU defeated three teams that entered the contest unbeaten (KSU, OSU, MU). Before its wins over Oklahoma State and Missouri, NU last defeated a pair of unbeaten teams late in the season in 1995 when NU knocked off 6-0 Kansas State on Oct. 21 and 12-0 Florida in the Fiesta Bowl to close the year.

LOFTY RANKINGS

Nebraska finished the 2009 season with its highest post-season ranking (No. 14 in both polls) since the 2001 season. The Huskers also started the 2010 season in its best poll position in several seasons.

▶ The Huskers were No. 8 in the preseason Associated Press Poll and were ranked ninth in the first USA Today Coaches Poll. The rankings represent NU's highest starting position since opening at No. 4 in the AP poll in 2001.

▶ Nebraska's No. 8 preseason ranking was the first time in the top 10 at any point since being ranked 10th by the AP in October of 2003 following a 5-0 start to the season.

▶ NU was ranked fifth in the Oct. 10 AP poll and fourth in the coaches poll, Nebraska's highest rankings since entering the 2002 Rose Bowl against Miami ranked fourth in the nation. The Huskers moved back into the top 10 in both polls following the win over Missouri on Oct. 30, but slipped back into the second 10 after the loss at A&M.

▶ Nebraska has received first-place votes in the coaches poll two separate weeks this season, the first time since 2001 that NU has received a first-place vote in either poll.

NEBRASKA HOPING TO CONTINUE FOURTH-QUARTER EXCELLENCE

Nebraska has been among the nation's best fourth-quarter teams each of the past two seasons. In 2008, NU ranked second nationally in fourth-quarter points scored (155) and fourth-quarter point differential (+103).

The 2009 season was no different as NU outscored the opposition 96-32, with the 32 points allowed tying Alabama for the lowest in the nation. The 64-point differential in the fourth quarter was the fourth-best nationally.

▶ The fourth-quarter highlight in 2009 was at No. 24 Missouri. NU trailed 12-0 entering the fourth quarter, before scoring 27 unanswered points. The rally from a 12-point fourth-quarter deficit tied a school record, and the 27 points were the most by NU in any quarter since the 2004 season opener, and the most in the fourth quarter since 2001.

▶ NU allowed nine Big 12 opponents just 23 fourth-quarter points and held eight foes without a fourth-quarter point.

▶ Nebraska outscored its opponents 154-55 in the second half in 2009. The 55 second-half points were the fewest allowed by any team in the nation.

▶ Under Bo Pelini, Nebraska is 29-2 when leading at any point in the fourth quarter. The lone losses were one-point setbacks against Virginia Tech and Texas in 2009.

This season, Nebraska has allowed 48 fourth-quarter points, while scoring 57 of its own.

INJURY BUG HITS HUSKERS DURING FALL CAMP

Nebraska endured more than its share of injuries in 2010, beginning in fall camp when four returning starters were sidelined for all of part of the season.

▶ Senior offensive lineman Mike Smith suffered a season-ending leg injury during the first week of fall camp. Smith was Nebraska's starting left tackle each of the past two seasons, collecting 26 career starts. Smith was set to play a key role on the line this fall, with the ability to possibly serve as a key backup at tackle, guard or even center.

▶ Sophomore linebacker Sean Fisher also suffered a season-ending leg injury during fall camp. Fisher started six games as a redshirt freshman last fall, and was expected to be among the Huskers' top linebackers in 2010.

▶ Sophomore linebacker Will Compton joined Fisher on the sidelines when he suffered a foot injury in practice on Sept. 2, just two days before the opener. Compton has since returned, seeing action in the past five games.

▶ Senior tight end Dreu Young underwent back surgery in late August and has not returned to the practice field. Young also battled back issues during his junior campaign.

▶ Junior reserve cornerback Anthony Blue suffered his second knee injury in the past 2 1/2 years during fall camp and will be sidelined for the year. Blue was expected to be among Nebraska's top reserves at corner, and was also one of the Huskers' top special teams performers last season.

Aside from those injuries, Nebraska made it through the first half of its schedule relatively healthy, but that changed in recent weeks. Against Missouri, quarterback Taylor Martinez injured an ankle and missed the second half of that contest and the Iowa State game before returning against Kansas. Adding to Nebraska's quarterback issue is the sore hand of backup quarterback Zac Lee. Alfonzo Dennard, one of the nation's top cornerbacks, suffered a concussion against Missouri in the first quarter and missed the remainder of that game and NU's game at Iowa State.

NCAA RECORD SELLOUT STREAK

One of the most remarkable streaks in collegiate sports reached another milestone on Sept. 26, 2009, against Louisiana-Lafayette when Nebraska celebrated the 300th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium. A stadium record crowd of 86,304 fans were on hand for the historic event, and the streak will reach 311 games on Friday. The sellout streak dates back to Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney's first year in 1962 (vs. Missouri on Nov. 3). Notre Dame is second in all-time consecutive sellouts with 220, 91 fewer than Nebraska.

NEBRASKA CRACKS TOP 10 IN AVERAGE HOME ATTENDANCE

Nebraska ranked 10th nationally and second among Big 12 schools in average attendance in 2009. Nebraska averaged a school-record 85,888 fans for seven home games, including a school-record 86,304 fans against Louisiana-Lafayette. Five Big 12 teams ranked in the top 30 nationally in attendance, led by fourth-ranked Texas (101,175 fans per game). This season Nebraska is averaging 85,667 fans for its six home games.

CONFERENCE CROWNS

Nebraska returned to the Big 12 Championship Game in 2009, making its fifth appearance in the contest, and is one victory from returning in 2010.

The Huskers played in three of the first four Big 12 title games. Nebraska is one of three teams to capture two or more Big 12 titles, joining Oklahoma with six and Texas with three. Kansas State, Texas A&M and Colorado each captured one Big 12 crown. Oklahoma leads the way with seven Big 12 title game appearances, followed by Nebraska and Texas with five each. Nebraska and Texas' meeting in the title game was the third meeting between the two schools in the game, the most played matchup in Big 12 Championship history.

The Huskers have won 43 football conference championships overall, including eight under Coach Bob Devaney and 13 under Coach Tom Osborne. Oklahoma has won 37 conference championships to rank second behind NU among league schools.

NU OWNS DOMINANT ADVANTAGE AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

Nebraska has rewarded the loyalty of its fans with incredible success at Memorial Stadium through the years.

▶ Nebraska has won at least six home games in 19 of the past 23 seasons. Nebraska is 134-19 at home in the last 22 seasons (since 1989). A win in its final home game against Colorado would give NU a 6-1 home mark in 2010.

▶ During Nebraska's run of success at home in the past 25 years, NU has had three home winning streaks of 20 or more games, and overall has posted 40 unbeaten and untied home seasons.

▶ The Huskers are 503-138-20 (.776, 661 games, 121 years) in Lincoln, and 378-115-13 (.759, 506 games, 88 years) in Memorial Stadium (since 1923). Nebraska has had 42 straight winning home seasons, including 2010.

▶ Nebraska posted its 500th all-time home win against Idaho on Sept. 11. The 500th home victory put Nebraska in elite company. Only three other schools in college football history (Michigan, Ohio State, Tennessee) reached the 500-win plateau at home before Nebraska.

MEMORIAL STADIUM EXPANSION FOR 2013 APPROVED

The Nebraska Board of Regents approved an expansion plan for the east side of Memorial Stadium, which will increase Memorial Stadium's attendance to more than 90,000. NU plans to expand Memorial Stadium by adding approximately 5,000 new seats, which will include between 2,000 and 2,250 new club seats, approximately 400 to 500 seats within approximately 30 new indoor/outdoor suites, and approximately 2,500 to 2,800 new general seats, including additional seating for disabled patrons. Each new seating area would include dedicated restrooms and concessions areas. A new grand lobby, expanded concourse, and additional first-aid areas would also be added. No current East Stadium seats will be removed and no season ticket holders will be required to relocate their seats as part of this project.

The proposed height of the new addition to be constructed above and around the current east balcony will be similar to the West Stadium, completed in 1999. Within the six proposed levels of the new East Stadium building, approximately 40,000 square feet of interior shell space will also be created. Athletics will retain approximately 20,000 of the undeveloped space for future growth, and as part of a unique partnership between athletics and UNL Research, will allocate approximately 20,000 square feet for future office and laboratory space for research at UNL.

The total projected cost of the project is $55.5 million. The proposal calls for $40.5 million to come from private donations and the remaining $15 million from bond revenues. Approximately $7 million in new revenue is expected to be generated annually from the new seating. These additional revenues will be used to pay off the bonds.

Construction could begin in November of 2011 and be complete by the fall of 2013.

NEBRASKA SET FOR MOVE TO BIG TEN IN 2011

June 11, 2010 was a historic day for the University of Nebraska, as NU was admitted to the Big Ten Conference as the 12th member of the nation's oldest conference. The Cornhuskers will begin play in the Big Ten in 2011-12.

The Huskers have a long history of meeting Big Ten opponents on the gridiron, compiling an 81-68-10 all-time record against the league's other 11 members. Nebraska most recently met a Big Ten opponent in a 32-28 victory over Michigan in the 2005 Alamo Bowl. NU's last regular-season matchup with a Big Ten opponent was a home-and-home series in 2002 and 2003 with Penn State. The schools split the two games, each winning at home.

The Big Ten Conference announced its divisional alignment on Sept. 1. The Huskers will compete in a football division with Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota and Northwestern. The other division is comprised of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio State, Penn State, Purdue and Wisconsin. Nebraska's first Big Ten game will be at Wisconsin on Oct. 1, 2011, with its first Big Ten home game against Ohio State on Oct. 8, 2011.

HUSKERS COMPETE IN FINAL SEASON IN BIG 12 CONFERENCE

With Nebraska's move to the Big Ten on the horizon, 2010 marks Nebraska's final season of action in the Big 12. The conference has been NU's home since 1996 and the Huskers have had their share of football success in the league. Nebraska has played in the Big 12 Championship Game five times, including the 2009 title game at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. Nebraska has captured Big 12 titles in 1997 and 1999. The Huskers must defeat Colorado to clinch a sixth appearance in the conference championship game.

▶ Nebraska's five Big 12 Championship Game appearances are tied for second among all Big 12 schools along with Texas, trailing only Oklahoma's seven Big 12 Championship Game appearances.

▶ Nebraska has squared off against three conference foes more than 100 times, including 117 meetings with Kansas, 105 with Iowa State and 104 with Missouri.

▶ Nebraska and Kansas met for the 105th consecutive season in 2010, currently the nation's longest uninterrupted streak. Overall, the 117 meetings are the third most of any series in the country.

SEEING DOUBLE

The 2010 Nebraska roster includes three sets of twins and five total sets of brothers. Courtney and Steven Osborne of Garland, Texas, signed with the Huskers in 2008 and enter their third season in the program—Courtney as a safety and Steven at wide receiver. Colin and Conor McDermott walked on to Nebraska from Omaha Creighton Prep high school and will both be sophomore defensive ends this fall. Jake and Spencer Long also hail from Omaha (Elkhorn High School) and are in their second season in the program. Jake lines up at tight end, while Spencer is an offensive lineman.

In addition to the three sets of twins, Nebraska also has another set of brothers on the roster—Ben and Jake Cotton. The Cottons are the sons of Nebraska associate head coach Barney Cotton, and senior defensive back Adam Watson is the son of offensive coordinator Shawn Watson. In addition, walk-on freshman offensive lineman Mark Pelini is the nephew of Bo and Carl Pelini.

CAPUTO PRESENTED WITH

JAKE YOUNG MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraska junior center Mike Caputo was presented with the Jake Young Memorial Endowed Scholarship before the Idaho game. The scholarship is awarded to a varsity football student-athlete who demonstrates a high level of athletic and academic achievement and effective leadership skills. The scholarship honors the former Nebraska All-America and Academic All-America center who was killed in a terrorist attack in Bali in October of 2002.

Caputo, a graduate of Millard North High School, has moved into the role of starting center this fall. He was Nebraska's No. 2 center each of the past two seasons. Originally a walk-on Caputo was presented a scholarship before the start of the 2009 season.

CRICK EARNS BERRINGER SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraska junior defensive tackle Jared Crick was presented with the Brook Berringer Memorial Endowed Scholarship before the Western Kentucky game. The scholarship was endowed in the memory of former NU quarterback Brook Berringer who died in a plane crash on April 18, 1996. Criteria for the scholarship includes the following: football student-athlete; involved in community service with high ideals, excellent character and integrity.

A native of Cozad, Neb., Crick has excelled on and off the field during his time with the Cornhuskers. Crick was a first-team all-conference selection last season during a breakout sophomore season. Off the field, Crick was named to the 2010 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his work in the community. Crick has volunteered on team hospital visits, as a speaker at elementary schools and during a World War II veterans visit.

FISHER PRESENTED SULLIVAN SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraska sophomore linebacker Sean Fisher was presented the George Finley Sullivan Endowed Scholarship before the start of the South Dakota State game. "Sully" as many call him is admired by hundreds of former Husker student-athletes and taped thousands of ankles while serving as Nebraska's head trainer from 1977 to 1995, and as an Assistant Athletic Trainer and Head Physical Therapist from 1953 to 1977.

The scholarship was fully endowed in Sullivan's honor in 2008 by the Touchdown Club of Nebraska, Inc., and many former Husker student-athletes graciously contributed to the fund. The scholarship will be presented annually to a "Nebraska varsity football student-athlete who has demonstrated a high level of athletic and academic achievement, with a strong commitment to community, effective leadership skills, a high degree of integrity, and commitment to excellence in all endeavors." Preference is given to student-athletes who intend to pursue a career in a health-related field.

Fisher suffered an injury during the fall camp and is out for the season, but was a key member of NU's defense in 2009. Fisher carries a 4.0 cumulative grade-point average in business administration.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL—A FAMILY AFFAIR

The Cotton family is one of just several father-son combinations who have played for Nebraska represented on the 2010 Cornhusker roster. Barney lettered at Nebraska in 1976-78, while Ben is a sophomore tight end and Jake is a freshman defensive lineman. Other current Nebraska players whose fathers also played at NU include DB Joey Felici (Tony, 1980-82), LB Sean Fisher (Todd, 1983), DE Andy Gdowski (Tom, 1980-82), WR KC Hyland (John, 1970-72), DB Brent Moravec (Mark, 1980-82), DE Jay Martin (Bob, 1973-75), C Cole Pensick (Dan, 1977-79), LB Colby Starkebaum (John, 1972-74) and DT Baker Steinkuhler (Dean, 1981-83).

NFL HAS LARGE INFLUENCE ON NEBRASKA ROSTER

Several players also have family connections with the National Football League. Barney Cotton logged four seasons in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals and St. Louis Cardinals from 1979 to 1982. Other players whose fathers played in the NFL include Anthony Blue (Anthony, Sr., Seattle, 1987), Zac Lee (Bob, Minnesota, Atlanta, L.A. Rams, 1969-80), Jay Martin (Bob, N.Y. Jets, San Francisco, 1976-79), Baker Steinkuhler (Dean, Houston, 1984-91), Anthony West (Robert, Kansas City, San Francisco, 1972-74) and Lester Ward (Lester, Sr., Dallas).

1970 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM REUNITED

More than 50 members of the first Nebraska national championship team were together again in Lincoln on Oct. 15-16 for the 40th anniversary of the championship. The group had a private dinner on Friday evening and were honored on the field at halftime of the Nebraska-Texas game. The 1970 team won the first of Nebraska's five national championships. Led by Coach Bob Devaney, the Huskers finished 11-0-1, and captured the Associated Press title.

Despite an undefeated record, Nebraska needed to win its bowl game and have both Texas and Ohio State lose to jump from third to first in the AP poll. The Huskers posted a 17-12 win over LSU in the Orange Bowl and both the Longhorns and Buckeyes lost, allowing Nebraska to move to the No. 1 spot and claim its first-ever national title.

The Huskers shared the crown that season with Texas, who was the No. 1 team in the United Press International (UPI) poll. That final poll was voted on before the bowl season, when the undefeated Longhorns fell to No. 6 Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL CONTINUES TO WIN IN THE CLASSROOM

Nebraska football has long been one of the nation's most successful programs on the field. Success in the classroom is also a cornerstone of the Nebraska football program.

CASSIDY NAMED TO ESPN ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT 7 TEAM

Nebraska junior safety Austin Cassidy was named to the ESPN Academic All-District 7 team last week. Cassidy carries a 3.88 cumulative grade-point average in psychology, and was named to the all-district team for the second straight year. Cassidy's selection to the academic all-district team places him on the ESPN Academic All-America ballot. The academic All-America team will be announced on Tuesday, Nov. 23.

NATION-LEADING TOTAL OF COSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

Seniors Todd Peterson and Tyler Wortman were selected as second-team ESPN the Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in 2008. The selection of Peterson and Wortman gave NU a nation-leading total of 98 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in football. Nebraska also leads the nation in academic All-Americans with 277 academic All-Americans across all teams and all sports entering the 2010-11 academic year.

NU LEADS IN ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 SELECTIONS

Nebraska had 23 players named to the 2010 academic All-Big 12 team, including 13 first-team selections, and 10 second-team honorees. Nebraska's 23 honorees were the highest total in the Big 12 Conference.

The group was highlighted by four players who earned Academic All-Big 12 honors for a third time, including seniors Adi Kunalic and Thomas Grove and juniors Ryan Hill and Lance Thorell. Seven other Huskers earned academic all-conference accolades for a second time. Former Husker linebacker Blake Lawrence was among the honorees nominated with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average.

SENIOR CLASS IN STRONG ACADEMIC STANDING

Nebraska's 23-player senior class includes six players playing the 2010 season as graduate students. Among those, defensive end Tyrone Fahie graduated in December of 2009 in just 3 ½ years, while offensive lineman D.J. Jones, quarterback Zac Lee and defensive back Anthony West picked up their degrees in May. Tight end Mike McNeill and offensive lineman Mike Smith joined the group in summer commencement exercises.

▶ Another nine seniors are expected to complete their degree work in the fall, giving the Huskers 15 graduates in time for the bowl game. All but one member of the senior class are expected to complete their degrees by the end of the 2011 spring semester.

▶ Among Bo Pelini's first three senior classes, 52 of 57 players are on track to earn their degree by next August.

NEBRASKA POSTS IMPRESSIVE EXHAUSTED ELIGIBILITY GRADUATION RATES

Nebraska athletic teams continue to graduate student-athletes at an impressive rate. Nebraska led the Big 12 in exhausted eligibility graduation rates for seven straight years before the NCAA chose not to calculate the rate in 2010. Nebraska however has increased its exhausted eligibility grad rate to an impressive 95 percent.

The exhausted eligibility rate surveys the graduation rate of scholarship student-athletes in 10 incoming freshman classes who complete their eligibility at the university. Nebraska's exhausted eligibility rate has improved 23 percentage points since the inception of the rate in 1991-92.

Lincoln (Sept. 4) --- Redshirt freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez made an impressive college debut, rushing for 127 yards and three touchdowns to help No. 8 Nebraska to a 49-10 victory over Western Kentucky.

Martinez, who became the first Husker freshman quarterback to ever start a season opener, made his presence known quickly, racing 46 yards on his first career carry to give NU a 7-0 lead just 3:37 into the game. Martinez also completed all four of his first-quarter pass attempts for 59 yards to help NU to a quick 14-0 lead. After Cody Green led the Huskers on a successful second-quarter scoring drive to put Nebraska up 21-0 at the half, Martinez found the end zone again on the first drive of the second half, scampering the final 19 yards on a four-play, 68-yard drive to extend NU's lead to 28-0. Martinez, who averaged better than 18 yards per carry, produced the most rushing yards by an NU quarterback in a season opener since Tommie Frazier rushed for 130 yards against West Virginia in 1994, and became the first Husker quarterback to rush for over 100 yards since 2003. In addition to his impressive rushing numbers, Martinez completed 9-of-15 passes for 136 yards and did not commit a turnover. While Martinez took center stage as the starter, Green was also impressive, completing 5-of-6 passes for 66 yards while leading the Huskers on a pair of scoring drives, including a 33-yard touchdown strike to Niles Paul.

Paul finished with five catches for 92 yards and a score, while adding one carry for eight yards. He also returned three punts for 58 yards to close the night with 158 all-purpose yards. Brandon Kinnie also enjoyed a big night for NU, hauling in a career-high six catches for 59 yards, while sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead added a pair of catches for 47 yards while rushing five times for 57 yards.

Nebraska's big-play offense amassed 536 total yards on just 58 plays, an average of 9.2 yards per play. The Huskers rolled for 289 rushing yards and six touchdowns, while 11 different Huskers had at least one tote on the night. In addition to the three rushing touchdowns from Martinez and one each from Helu and Burkhead, Austin Jones closed the scoring with his first career touchdown on a five-yard burst in the fourth quarter.

Lincoln (Sept. 11) --- No. 6 Nebraska showed its explosiveness on both sides of the ball, scoring 28 unanswered points in a span of 8:15 midway through the second quarter to help bolt to a 31-0 lead and cruise to a 38-17 victory over Idaho.

Quarterback Taylor Martinez (67) and I-back Roy Helu Jr. (58) scored on back-to-back runs of more than 55 yards to give NU a 14-0 lead. The Blackshirt defensive backs then got into the action with back-to-back interception returns for scores from both DeJon Gomes (40) and Rickey Thenarse (47). Nebraska's four consecutive scoring plays of 40 or more yards marked the first time since 1996 that the Big Red scored on four plays of 40 or more yards in the same game.

The 31-point cushion was more than enough for a Blackshirt defense that intercepted five passes, recorded seven sacks and recovered a fumble on the afternoon. The Blackshirts held a high-powered Idaho offense to just 279 total yards, while the NU offense rolled up 471 total yards, including 360 rushing yards on 41 carries. It was NU's highest rushing total since a season-opening win over Nevada in 2007.

Martinez led the punishing Husker ground game with 157 yards and two touchdowns on just 14 carries. It was the second straight 100-yard rushing effort by the redshirt freshman quarterback. His second quarter 67-yard touchdown run was the longest run ever by a Husker freshman quarterback, surpassing a 59-yard run by former NU Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch against UAB in 1998.

Martinez was joined across the century mark by Helu, who rushed for 107 yards on just nine carries, including his 58-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead nearly gave the Huskers a third back in the 100-yard club, rushing for 77 yards on just nine carries.

Defensively, Gomes led the Huskers with a career-best 10 tackles and a pass breakup along with his interception return for a score, while Jared Crick had 2.5 sacks for 30 yards as part of a four tackles-for-loss afternoon. Fellow defensive tackle Baker Steinkuhler added 1.5 sacks for 14 yards lost, while Terrence Moore, Lavonte David and Pierre Allen each recorded sacks for the Huskers.

Game 3 | Nebraska 56, Washington 21

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
No. 8 Nebraska	14	14	21	7	56
Washington	7	7	7	0	21

Seattle, Wash. (Sept. 18)---No. 8 Nebraska jumped to a 14-0 lead after just five offensive plays, then scored two more touchdowns on the Huskers' first five offensive plays of the second half on the way to a 56-21 victory.

Nebraska, which improved to 3-0 for the second time in three seasons under Bo Pelini, rolled up 533 yards of total offense, including 383 on the ground. The Husker trio of Taylor Martinez (137 yards, 3 TD, 19 carries), Roy Helu Jr. (110 yards, 2 TD, 10 carries) and Rex Burkhead (104 yards, TD, 13 carries) combined for Nebraska's fifth triple-100-yard game in school history and first since 2001.

The 56 points scored by Nebraska equaled the most points scored by a Washington opponent in Seattle.

Martinez became just the second quarterback in NU history to record three straight 100-yard rushing performances, joining Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch. Martinez's eight rushing touchdowns already rank fourth all-time among all Husker freshmen.

The Huskers needed just two offensive plays to get on the scoreboard after Eric Hagg's interception, as Martinez found Mike McNeill for a 24-yard touchdown. Martinez completed 7-of-11 passes for 150 yards and a score. On NU's second drive, it took the Huskers just three plays to cover 73 yards, after a 55-yard pass play from Martinez to Brandon Kinnie put NU at the 1-yard line before Martinez scored on the next play. It was the first of five receptions for 105 yards on the day for Kinnie, who registered the first 100-yard receiving day of his career.

After Washington closed to within 21-14, Kinnie set up NU's next scoring drive with a return to the UW 48-yard line, setting up a short field for Helu, who went the last eight yards to put Nebraska up 28-14. Kinnie finished with 180 all-purpose yards.

Nebraska used a pair of big plays to break open the game, as Martinez raced 80 yards for a touchdown on NU's first offensive play of the second half before Helu went a career-long 65 yards for a score on NU's fifth play of the second half to give the Huskers a commanding 21-point lead.

Alfonzo Dennard got the Blackshirts on the board midway through the third quarter, intercepting a Jake Locker pass and racing 31 yards to make it 49-21. The interception capped a strong defensive performance by the Blackshirts, who surrendered just 246 total yards to the Huskies, including just 71 passing and 175 on the ground. The Huskers held Locker to just 4-of-20 passing on the afternoon, the worst performance of his career.

Lincoln, Neb. (Sept. 25)--- In a game dominated by the defenses, No. 6 Nebraska survived a spirited effort by visiting South Dakota State for a 17-3 homecoming night victory.

Just days after Blackshirts were handed out to Nebraska's top-unit defenders, Lavonte David notched one of the best tackle efforts in school history. The 6-1, 210-pound junior linebacker from Miami, Fla., registered 19 tackles to tie for seventh on NU's all-time list, while adding a pair of pass breakups.

In addition to David's career tackle performance, Alfonzo Dennard and P.J. Smith both notched their third interceptions of the season to help hold the Jackrabbits to just 236 yards of total offense. Rickey Thenarse pitched in 10 tackles for NU, while DeJon Gomes added nine stops, as Nebraska has limited all four foes to under 300 yards of total offense.

The Huskers (4-0) would get all the offense they needed in a two-series stretch in the second quarter, scoring 14 points in a span of 4:15 to take control of the contest. After a scoreless first quarter, Nebraska went 96 yards on six plays to get on the scoreboard, as Taylor Martinez found Mike McNeill for a career-long 64-yard reception down to the SDSU 3. Rex Burkhead put the Huskers on the board with a three-yard run on the next play to give NU a 7-0 lead with 14:31 left in the half. The Blackshirts forced a three-and-out on SDSU's ensuing drive, and Martinez and the Husker offense went to work again. This time, Martinez hit Tyler Reed for a career-long 33-yard reception for Reed's first career touchdown.

Martinez led NU with 75 rushing yards on 13 carries, while completing 6-of-14 passes for 140 yards and one touchdown. Sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead added 14 carries for 66 yards and NU's first touchdown, while Roy Helu Jr. contributed 59 yards on 19 carries. Brandon Kinnie led the NU receivers with three catches for 34 yards, while Mike McNeill added a career-long 64-yard reception to set up Burkhead's touchdown.

SDSU quarterback Thomas O'Brien completed just 12-of-28 passes for 95 yards while throwing a pair of fourth-quarter interceptions, as the Blackshirts preserved the victory by forcing a pair of turnovers and stopping the Jackrabbits on downs at the NU 37.

Game 5 | Nebraska 48, Kansas State 13

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
No. 7 Nebraska	7	10	21	10	48
Kansas State	0	3	3	7	13

Manhattan, Kan. (Oct. 7) -- Taylor Martinez produced the best rushing performance by a quarterback in Nebraska football history as the No. 7 Cornhuskers sprinted past previously unbeaten Kansas State, 48-13.

Playing in front of 51,015 fans and an ESPN primetime national audience, Martinez became just the second Big Red signal-caller to rush for more than 200 yards in a game, joining Jammal Lord who accomplished the feat twice in 2002. Martinez passed the 200-yard mark on NU's opening drive of the second half with an 80-yard touchdown run, staking the Huskers to a 24-3 lead.

Martinez finished the night with the eighth-best rushing total in school history, racking up 241 yards on just 15 carries, surpassing Lord's quarterback rushing mark of 234 yards against Texas in 2002. Martinez had touchdown runs of 13, 35, 80 and 41 yards, while also completing 5-of-7 passes for 128 yards and a score.

Martinez set up his fellow Huskers for big plays as the game progressed. On NU's next play from scrimmage after Martinez's 80-yard burst, he handed off to Roy Helu Jr. and the senior I-back exploded for a career-long 68-yard touchdown run. Helu notched his 10th career 100-yard effort, finishing with 110 yards on just eight carries. After KSU cut the lead to 31-6 with a 48-yard field goal, Martinez then froze the Wildcat secondary on a play-action fake and connected with Tyler Reed on a career-long 79-yard touchdown strike before scoring on a 41-yard run with 12:21 remaining to make it 45-6.

While the Huskers' explosive offense left the purple pride black and blue, Nebraska's Blackshirts continued to deliver solid defensive football for four quarters. NU stretched its streak to eight straight quarters without allowing a touchdown before KSU got a fourth-quarter score to break the streak. Junior linebacker Lavonte David led the Blackshirts with 16 tackles, including 10 solos and two tackles for loss with one seven-yard sack. David helped keep KSU star running back Daniel Thomas in check. Thomas notched 63 yards on 22 carries, while adding 36 receiving yards on eight catches. Overall, he totaled 99 yards on 30 touches. DeJon Gomes added 12 tackles, including a TFL and a forced fumble, while Eric Hagg contributed an interception for the Blackshirts to produce the game's lone turnover. The Huskers finished with six tackles for loss and two sacks.

Lincoln, Neb. (Oct. 16) -- No. 5 Nebraska's high-powered offense was unable to get rolling, as Texas knocked off the Huskers, 20-13 at Memorial Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Playing in front of an NCAA-record 308th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium and an ABC television audience, Nebraska (5-1, 1-1 Big 12) was held to just 202 yards of offense, less than half of the Huskers' season average of 494.4 yards per game that NU had averaged in its first five contests. Texas (4-2, 2-1) held NU to 125 yards on the ground, limiting Taylor Martinez to just 21 rushing yards on 13 carries. Martinez also completed just 4-of-12 passes for 63 yards.

The Longhorns had some help from the Huskers in containment. Nebraska receivers and backs dropped numerous passes on the day, including multiple passes that appeared to be headed for touchdowns. The Huskers also fumbled five times, although NU lost just one fumble, it was a costly one by Roy Helu Jr. that led to a Texas touchdown. The miscue spotted Texas a 10-0 lead after Garrett Gilbert's three-yard run with 8:06 left in the first quarter.

Nebraska responded with a 12-play, 54-yard drive that resulted in a 45-yard field goal by Alex Henery with 14:09 left in the first half, to cut UT's edge to 10-3, but the Longhorns went 78 yards on seven plays for their best drive of the day. Gilbert's second touchdown, a 1-yard run with 8:44 left in the half, made it 17-3.

After Texas extended its lead to 20-3, Zac Lee came off the bench to drive the Huskers 83 yards before Henery's second field goal, this one from 28 yards, made it 20-6. NU had a chance to pull closer in the fourth quarter, but a dropped pass prevented a potential Husker touchdown. The Husker special teams brought the crowd to life, as senior Eric Hagg fielded a pooch punt and weaved 95 yards to paydirt for the longest punt return in Husker history. That pulled Nebraska within 20-13 with 3:02 left, but the Huskers would not get closer, as Texas recovered an on-side kick and ran out the clock.

Nebraska's defense kept the Huskers within striking distance despite facing a short field for Texas on many occasions throughout the day. DeJon Gomes and P.J. Smith each notched 11 tackles, while Lavonte David added 10 stops, as NU held Texas to just 271 total yards. Gilbert and the Longhorns were held to only 62 yards passing, the lowest total by Texas team since 1983.

Stillwater, Okla. (Oct. 23) -- Nebraska used the arm and legs of Taylor Martinez and big special teams plays from Alex Henery and Niles Paul to down previously unbeaten No. 17 Oklahoma State, 51-41.

Nebraska amassed 542 total yards, including a career-high and NU freshman record 435 total offense yards from Martinez that included 323 passing yards and five passing touchdowns. He completed 23-of-35 passes, including three scoring tosses to Brandon Kinnie. Martinez's day also included 112 yards on 19 carries, becoming the first Husker in history to pass for 300 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game.

Paul was Martinez's favorite target, as the senior hauled in a career-high nine receptions for 131 yards. Paul also returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter, his third return for a score in his career and the longest Husker kickoff return since 1949.

Henery connected on all three of his field goal attempts, including a 52-yarder, averaged 50.3 yards on three punts and came up with an early spark for NU, racing 27 yards on a fake punt for a first down on the Huskers' first drive of the day. The run set up Martinez's 45-yard touchdown pass to Kinnie to give NU an early lead, as Kinnie finished the day with three receptions -- all for scores -- for 62 yards.

The high-powered Cowboy offense cut NU's edge to 7-6 with 6:40 left in the opening quarter, but Paul raced the length of field on the ensuing kickoff to give NU a 14-6 lead at the end of the first quarter. OSU eventually took a 27-24 lead, but Martinez led NU on a scoring drive in the final minutes of the half, finding Kinnie for the second time to give the Huskers a 31-27 halftime lead. Henery capped NU's 10-play opening drive of the second half with a 32-yard field goal to move the Nebraska margin to 34-27 and give him a school-record 58th career field goal. The Blackshirts held on their first defensive possession of the second half, and Martinez capitalized by connecting with Kyle Reed on a 41-yard touchdown pass with 6:35 left in the third quarter to make it 41-27.

OSU pulled to within 44-34, but NU put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter, going 81 yards in 12 plays, capped by Kinnie's third TD of the day, an 8-yard pass from Martinez with 6:23 remaining.

No. 14 Nebraska	24	0	7	0	31

Lincoln, Neb. (Oct. 30) -- Behind a school-record performance by I-back Roy Helu Jr., No. 14 Nebraska took control of the Big 12 North Division with a 31-17 win over No. 7 Missouri at Memorial Stadium.

Helu paced the Big Red attack, rushing for a school record 307 yards and three touchdowns on a career-high matching 28 carries, scoring on touchdown runs of 66, 73 and 53 yards. His huge day eclipsed the previous Nebraska rushing mark set by Calvin Jones with 294 yards against Kansas on Nov. 9, 1991. It was Helu's 11th career 100-yard effort, and first 200-yard game of his career. His previous career high came with 169 yards on 28 carries against Virginia Tech in 2009. It also marked the first 300-yard rushing game in the FBS in 2010.

Helu and the Huskers wasted little time making a statement against the previously unbeaten Tigers. After the Blackshirts forced a three-and-out on Mizou's opening series, Helu got an explosive block from tight end Ben Cotton and sprinted 66 yards untouched into the end zone to give the Huskers a 7-0 lead just over one minute into the game. The Blackshirts shut down the Tiger offense again on the second drive, Taylor Martinez moved the Huskers 41 yards on seven plays before Alex Henery booted his school-record 18th consecutive field from 42 yards out to give NU a 10-0 lead. On NU's next possession, Martinez capped the Huskers' third scoring drive with a 40-yard touchdown pass to tight end Kyle Reed to give NU a 17-0 lead before Helu capped NU's first-quarter eruption with a career-long 73 yard touchdown gallop to spot the hosts a 24-0 lead just 13 minutes into the game.

Helu's opening statement helped the Huskers put up 24 points in the first quarter against the previously unbeaten Tigers, as the Huskers improved to 7-1 on the season and 3-1 in the Big 12. It was NU's most first-quarter points since 2001, while giving the Huskers their first win over a top-10 team since 2001. Martinez completed 6-of-9 passes for 115 yards and a score while playing just the first half, as NU put up 454 yards on the day.

Missouri, which trailed 24-7 at the half, eventually pulled to within 24-14 in the third quarter after a Blaine Gabbert touchdown pass to T.J. Moe, but Helu gave NU all the breathing room they needed, going 53 yards for his third score of the day on NU's second offensive play on the next series to make it 31-14.

The Blackshirts held a high-powered Missouri offense to just 341 total yards, including limiting Gabbert to a season-low 199 yards on 18-of-42 passing with one touchdown and one interception. The Huskers sacked Gabbert a season-high six times and hurried him seven more, while also notching six breakups. Entering the game, the Tigers were averaging 424.9 total yards per game, including 286.4 passing yards. MU was also averaging 34.7 points per contest.

Ames, Iowa (Nov. 6)--- Rex Burkhead rushed for a career-high 129 yards and two scores, while Eric Hagg's interception of Iowa State's two-point conversion attempt in overtime preserved No. 9 Nebraska's 31-30 victory over Iowa State.

Burkhead gave the Huskers a 31-24 lead, scoring from 19 yards out on Nebraska's second play in overtime, capping an afternoon where he rushed 20 times for 129 yards and two touchdowns.

Iowa State (5-5, 3-3 Big 12) came back on its first overtime possession, scoring on Jake Williams' nine-yard pass from Austen Arnaud to pull the Cyclones within 31-30. ISU lined up for the extra point, but holder Daniel Kuehl took the snap and lofted the fake into the end zone to Collin Franklin, but Hagg, who set up an earlier touchdown with a third-quarter interception, snuffed out the play and preserved the win for Nebraska (8-1, 4-1 Big 12), which took control of the Big 12 North with its win.

The overtime heroics capped a gutsy effort by the Huskers, who were without their two most experienced quarterbacks in a hostile road environment. Cody Green turned in a solid effort in his first start of the season, completing 7-of-12 passes for 79 yards, while helping Nebraska churn out 235 rushing yards against ISU.

Burkhead did a majority of the damage, as he handled duties in the Huskers' wildcat offense, as his season-long 29-yard run set up Nebraska's first score, a six-yard run by Roy Helu Jr. Iowa State came back with 10 unanswered points, getting a TD pass from Austen Arnaud to Jake Williams to tie the score before a Husker fumble by Helu led to a 57-yard field goal by Grant Mahoney, putting ISU ahead 10-7 at halftime.

The Huskers seemingly took control of the game in the third quarter, scoring 17 points to take a 24-10 lead. Green engineered a 12-play, 55-yard drive that culminated with Alex Henery's 25-yard field goal to tie the game with 9:25 left in the third quarter.

Less than a minute later, the Blackshirts got on the board. Safety Austin Cassidy picked off an Arnaud pass and returned it 29 yards for a touchdown to give Nebraska a 17-10 lead with 8:42 left in the quarter. Cassidy had a career-high 12 tackles, including seven solos and forced a fumble. The Blackshirts forced another turnover on ISU's next possession, as Hagg made a leaping interception of an Arnaud pass at the NU 44. The Huskers capitalized on an 11-play, 56-yard drive culminating on Burkhead's first touchdown of the day, a two-yard run to give NU a 14-point lead.

The scrappy Cyclones fought back, as Arnaud led ISU on a 13-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to trim NU's lead to 24-17 with 11:29 left. After a fumble by Niles Paul on the ensuing kickoff, the Cyclones capitalized, as Arnaud threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Alexander Robinson to tie the game.

In addition to Cassidy's big day on defense for the Big Red, Cameron Meredith notched a career-high 10 tackles including two tackles for loss and a sack, while Lavonte David added another double-figure tackle effort with 10 of his own, including a TFL.

No. 9 Nebraska	7	7	3	3	20

Lincoln, Neb. (Nov. 13) --- The Blackshirt defense flexed its muscles by holding Kansas to just 87 yards total offense, as No. 9 Nebraska notched its ninth win of the season with a 20-3 victory over the Jayhawks at Memorial Stadium.

Playing in front of an NCAA-record 309th consecutive sellout crowd of 85,507 fans, and an FSN Pay-Per-View audience, Nebraska improved to 9-1 overall and 5-1 in the Big 12. KU slipped to 3-7 overall and 1-5 in the league.

The Huskers used a balanced offense and a suffocating defense to secure their third straight nine-win season under third-year head coach Bo Pelini.

Freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez returned to the starting lineup to guide an NU offense that rolled up 397 total yards, including 230 on the ground and 167 through the air.

Senior I-back Roy Helu Jr. led Nebraska with 18 carries for 85 yards and one touchdown, while sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead added 19 carries for 77 yards, including NU's first touchdown in the opening quarter. Martinez contributed 71 rushing yards of his own on 11 carries, while completing 14-of-26 passes for 167 yards. He did throw one interception.

Nebraska's Blackshirt defense made sure the first-half touchdown runs by Burkhead and Helu were more than enough for the victory. The Huskers shut down KU quarterback Quinn Mecham, limiting him to just 15 yards on 3-of-13 passing with one interception. NU also sacked Mecham six times for 28 yards in losses. It was Nebraska's best pass defense total since shutting out Nicholls State through the air on Sept. 9, 2006.

The Huskers were also tough on the ground, holding KU to just 72 yards on 34 carries, as Brad McDougald led the Jayhawks with 27 yards on four carries. James Sims managed 24 yards on nine carries. The 87 total yards allowed by the Blackshirts marked the best total by a Bo Pelini-coached Nebraska defense. It was the fewest yards allowed since the Huskers held Baylor to just 84 yards on Oct. 21, 2000.

Nebraska's offense wasn't flashy against the Jayhawks. Each of NU's four scoring drives lasted at least nine plays, covered at least 40 yards and lasted at least 3:40, for the normally explosive Husker offense.

Burkhead opened the scoring with a four-yard touchdown plunge with 33 seconds left in the first quarter. The short run capped a nine-play, 54-yard drive that lasted 4:11 and gave the Huskers a 7-0 lead.

Helu added a spectacular 20-yard scoring run that included a big cut, a few jukes and a tip-toe down the NU sideline into the end zone with 3:05 left in the first half. Helu's highlight reel run capped another nine-play drive that covered 75 yards in 3:40 to give the Huskers a 14-0 halftime lead.

Nebraska's lead grew to 17-0 after Alex Henery's 42-yard field goal capped a third nine-play drive that covered 55 yards in 3:51. The Blackshirts lost the shutout on Jacob Branstetter's answer with a 42-yard field goal of his own. Branstetter's kick came with 3:36 left in the third quarter, allowing KU to capitalize on a Husker fumble.

Henery closed the scoring with 3:24 left in the fourth quarter, after the Huskers consumed 6:28 of the clock in the final quarter with a 12-play drive. For the game, Nebraska won the time of possession battle, 36:28-23:32, while running 28 more plays from scrimmage than the Jayhawks.

Game 11 | Texas A&M 9, Nebraska 6

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
Nebraska	3	0	0	3	6
Texas A&M	0	3	0	6	9

College Station, Texas (Nov. 20)--- The Blackshirts produced a strong performance, but No. 18 Texas A&M managed one more field goal than the No. 9 Nebraska could muster in the Huskers' 9-6 loss at Kyle Field.

In a near statistical dead heat, Nebraska produced 306 yards of total offense, including 164 (17-28-2) passing and 142 rushing yards on 37 carries. Texas A&M managed 310 yards, including 172 through the air (19-29-0) and 138 yards on the ground. NU held a time of possession edge of 31:13-28:47, while A&M ran 70 offensive plays, compared to 65 for the Huskers.

Neither team found the end zone Alex Henery kicked a pair of field goals for the Huskers. The Lou Groza Award candidate booted a 48-yard field goal with 8:53 left in the first quarter to give Nebraska a 3-0 lead.

Randy Bullock answered with a 29-yard field goal with 9:08 left in the second quarter to send the two teams to the locker room tied at the half.

After a scoreless third quarter, Bullock gave the Aggies their first lead with a 28-yard field goal with 14:33 left in the game, before Henery tied the score (6-6) with a 29-yard boot with 8:31 remaining.

However, the Aggies were able to answer with a 19-yard Bullock field goal with 3:02 left to secure the winning margin.

Texas A&M's winning drive was extended by a roughing the passer penalty on Husker safety Courtney Osborne. On 3rd-and-11, Osborne came off the edge on a blitz and hit A&M quarterback Ryan Tannehill with his right shoulder in the stomach as Tannehill threw the ball incomplete in the direction of Kenric McNeal.

Instead of 4th-and-11 at the NU 49, A&M moved on the edge of field goal range with a 1st-and-10 at the NU 34. Cyrus Gray covered 32 yards on five consecutive runs for the Aggies until the Blackshirts forced a 4th-and-Goal at the NU 2.

Osborne's penalty was the 15th of a school-record 16 called on the Huskers in front of a school-record 90,079 fans at Kyle Field. NU's 16 penalties forced 145 yards to be marched off against the Huskers - the highest total in school history. Texas A&M was flagged for just two penalties for 10 yards. The 14-penalty and 135-yard penalty margins were the largest in a Nebraska game in the history of the Big 12 Conference.
