2020 FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

NEBRASKA (0-1) at NORTHWESTERN (2-0)

SATURDAY, NOV. 7, 2020 • 11 A.M. CT • EVANSTON, ILL.
RYAN FIELD • SURFACE: NATURAL GRASS

The Nebraska Cornhuskers will get back on the field this Saturday when they travel to Evanston, Ill., to take on the Northwestern Wildcats in a Big Ten West contest. Game time at Northwestern's Ryan Field is set for 11 a.m. CT with the game televised on the Big Ten Network.

Nebraska is coming off an unexpected off week following the cancellation of last week's matchup with Wisconsin last Wednesday. The Huskers opened the season with a 52-17 loss at No. 5 Ohio State on Oct. 24, a game in which Nebraska was tied at 14-14 in the second quarter.

Northwestern enters the game with a 2-0 record following a 21-20 victory at Iowa on Saturday. The Wildcats fell behind 17-0 in the first quarter, but rallied to close the deficit to 20-14 at halftime, and scored a go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter for the only points of the second half.

Coach Pat Fitzgerald's team has played stout defense through two games, allowing just 23 total points and 250.0 yards per game in wins over Iowa and Maryland. The Wildcats have been particularly strong against the run, allowing just 70.5 yards rushing per game. Northwestern has also forced seven turnovers in two games. Offensively, Northwestern has run the ball effectively, averaging 234.0 yards per game.

Nebraska and Northwestern have a history of closely contested games in the series. Overall, since joining the Big Ten Nebraska has won five of nine matchups with Northwestern, including a 3-1 record at Ryan Field.

THIS WEEK'S NUMBERS

3

Each of the last three meetings between Nebraska and Northwestern have been decided in overtime or on the final play. Northwestern won overtime matchups in 2017 and 2018 after the Huskers held fourth-quarter leads. Last year in Lincoln, Nebraska won 13-10 on a game-winning field goal as time expired.

25

With the cancellation of last week's game against Wisconsin, Nebraska will be opening the season with two road games for the first time in 25 years. In 1995, Nebraska opened the season with road games at Oklahoma State and Michigan State.

167

Nebraska sophomore receiver Wan'Dale Robinson had one of the most productive games of his career against Northwestern last season. Robinson rushed for 44 yards, including a 42-yard touchdown, and had seven receptions for 123 yards, accounting for 167 yards from scrimmage.

SERIES HISTORY: NEBRASKA VS. NORTHWESTERN

Nebraska leads the all-time series with Northwestern 8-5, including a 5-4 edge since the Huskers joined the Big Ten Conference in 2011.

- Nebraska has won three of the five all-time meetings in Evanston. Of the nine conference meetings between the Huskers and Wildcats, the only two games decided by more than seven points were a 38-17 Husker victory in Evanston in 2014 and a 24-13 Nebraska win at Ryan Field in 2016.
- The series with Northwestern has featured several record-setting performances for Nebraska. In a 66-17 win at the 2000 Alamo Bowl, the Huskers set a school record for the most points in a bowl game, while Dan Alexander's 240 yards rushing were a Nebraska bowl record. In 2012, Nebraska rallied from a 12-point fourth-quarter deficit to win 29-28, tying for the largest fourth-quarter comeback in program history. The next season, Nebraska won on the first game-winning Hail Mary pass in school history.
- Nebraska has had only three walk-off wins in the history of Memorial Stadium, and two have come against Northwestern (Hail Mary in 2013 and game-winning field goal in 2019).
- Scott Frost is 1-1 in his career against Northwestern and Wildcat head coach Pat Fitzgerald.

CLOSE CONTESTS HIGHLIGHT HUSKER-WILDCAT SERIES

Since Nebraska and Northwestern became conference foes in 2011, the one constant has been close games between the two schools. In nine meetings between the two programs as Big Ten Conference foes, Nebraska has outscored Northwestern 239-215, with an average score of 27-24.

- Seven of the nine meetings between the teams as conference foes have been decided by a touchdown or less, including six by three or fewer points. Three of Nebraska's five Big Ten victories over Northwestern have come by three points or less. All four of the Wildcats' wins have come by a touchdown or less, including three wins decided by three or fewer points and two overtime wins.
- The matchups have been especially close the past three seasons, when each game was either decided on the final play of regulation or in overtime. The combined score of the past five meetings is 120-118 in favor of Nebraska, although Northwestern has won three of those five contests.

BRIEF RECAPS OF NEBRASKA-NORTHWESTERN CLOSE GAMES

- Nebraska 13, Northwestern 10 (Oct. 5, 2019): Although Northwestern never led, the Wildcats tied the game at 10-10 with 11:20 to play in the third quarter. Neither team would score again until the final snap of the game. Northwestern drove into Husker territory with just over a minute remaining, but Lamar Jackson intercepted an Aidan Smith pass, and Nebraska drove 42 yards in six plays covering one minute to set up Lane McCallum's game-winning, walk-off 24-yard field goal.
- Northwestern 34, Nebraska 31 in OT (Oct. 13, 2018): Nebraska nearly handed Northwestern its only Big Ten West loss of the 2018 season, but the Huskers were unable to hold a 10-point lead with less than three minutes remaining. Trailing 31-21, Northwestern got a field goal to pull within seven with 2:27 remaining in regulation. After Nebraska went 3-and-out and took just 24 seconds off the clock, the Wildcats drove 99 yards in eight plays to score the game-tying touchdown with 12 seconds remaining. Nebraska then threw an interception on its overtime possession, and Northwestern won the game on a walk-off 37-yard field goal from Drew Luckenbaugh.
- Northwestern 31, Nebraska 24 in OT (Nov. 4, 2017): Northwestern ended the 2017 season with an eight-game winning streak which included an NCAA-record three consecutive overtime wins, the final of which came against Nebraska. The Huskers used a 10-0 third quarter to build a 24-17 lead, but Clayton Thorson tied the game on a seven-yard touchdown with 5:32 remaining in regulation and gave the Wildcats the lead with a one-yard touchdown run on the first overtime series. Northwestern secured the win when Kyle Queiro broke up a fourth-down pass on Nebraska's overtime possession.
- Northwestern 30, Nebraska 28 (Oct. 24, 2015): In a back-and-forth game that featured five lead changes, Northwestern held on during an eventful fourth quarter. The Wildcats led 20-19 entering the final period, but Nebraska took a 22-20 lead just five seconds into the quarter. Northwestern answered with 10 straight points to build a 30-22 lead before Tommy Armstrong Jr. capped a 75-yard touchdown drive with a three-yard touchdown run. Trailing 30-28, Nebraska failed to convert its two-point conversion, and Northwestern picked up three first downs on its ensuing possession to run out the game's final 4:18.

• Nebraska 27, Northwestern 24 (Nov. 2, 2013): Nebraska and Northwestern were tied at 21 for more than 20 minutes of game time until a dramatic final two minutes. Nebraska took over on its own 18-yard line with 2:25 to play and threw an interception four plays later. Northwestern gained just three yards on its ensuing possession, but that was enough to kick a go-ahead 21-yard field goal. Nebraska began its game-winning drive on its own 17 with 1:14 remaining. Ameer Abdullah broke a tackle to pick up a first down on a 4th-and-15 play and the game's final snap came with four seconds remaining. With the ball at the Northwestern 49-yard line, Ron Kellogg III dropped back and launched a deep pass that was tipped and caught by Jordan Westerkamp right at the goal line for the first game-winning Hail Mary pass in Nebraska history.

• Nebraska 29, Northwestern 28 (Oct. 20, 2012): Nebraska scored a pair of touchdowns in the final six minutes to tie the largest fourth-quarter comeback in program history. The Huskers trailed 28-16 with 8:31 to play before a 10-play, 80-yard touchdown drive. Nebraska then forced a 3-and-out defensively and got the ball back at its own 24-yard line, trailing 28-23 with 4:10 to play. The Huskers found the end zone in only six plays, taking a 29-28 lead following a failed two-point conversion. Northwestern then drove into Nebraska territory and missed a 53-yard field goal with 1:10 remaining, essentially ending the game.

• Northwestern 28, Nebraska 25 (Nov. 5, 2011): In the first game between the programs as Big Ten foes, Northwestern never trailed in an upset of the ninth-ranked Huskers. The Wildcats led 7-3 at the half and the teams traded third-quarter touchdowns before an explosive fourth quarter. Northwestern took a 21-10 lead on an 81-yard touchdown pass less than three minutes into the final quarter, but the Huskers answered that score three-and-a-half minutes later. Northwestern responded with a 13-play, 66-yard touchdown drive that took more than seven minutes off the clock. Trailing 28-18 with 1:18 remaining, Nebraska scored a touchdown with 18 seconds left, but the Huskers could not recover the ensuing onside kick.

MARTINEZ AT HIS BEST AGAINST BIG TEN WEST

Adrian Martinez has put up big numbers in 11 career games against Big Ten West foes.

- Martinez owns the Nebraska record with four career games with 400 yards of total offense. Each of those games has come against a Big Ten West Division foe, as Martinez has recorded 400 yards of total offense in four of his 11 career games against West Division teams. Martinez had 446 yards at Illinois in 2019 for the No. 3 total offense mark in school history, 441 yards in 2018 at Wisconsin (5th), 409 yards in 2018 against Purdue (12th) and 401 yards against Minnesota in 2018 (16th).
- Martinez averages 313.7 yards of total offense in 11 career games against Big Ten West teams. He is completing 64.7 percent of his passes (229-of-354) with 17 touchdowns, while averaging 252.2 passing yards per game. Martinez has rushed for 676 yards and six touchdowns against the Big Ten West, averaging 61.5 rushing yards per game.
- Twenty-four of Martinez's 43 career total touchdowns have come against West Division opponents (56 percent), including 17 of 27 touchdown passes (63 percent).

MARTINEZ RANKS AMONG NATION'S TOP QUARTERBACKS

Adrian Martinez has put up statistics in his two seasons that have him ranked among the top quarterbacks in the country and among the best to ever play the position at Nebraska. Martinez has thrown for 4,678 career yards, rushed for 1,340 yards and totaled 6,018 yards of offense.

He owns three NU career records, four season records and one game record. Last season, Martinez was just the second Husker sophomore to be a team captain since 1930 and he again holds that distinction this year, becoming one of just 13 two-time captains in Nebraska history.

- Martinez is Nebraska's all-time leader in total offensive yards per game (273.2) and 400-yard total offense games (4). He has produced four of Nebraska's 16 individual 400-yard total offense performances, and Martinez's career average of 273.2 yards of total offense per game is more than 35 yards higher than any other Husker quarterback who played in at least 15 career games.
- Martinez averaged a school-record 295.1 yards of total offense per game as a true freshman in 2018, an average that ranked 12th nationally, led all freshmen and was the ninth-highest average by a freshman in NCAA history, including the third-best mark by a true freshman.
- Martinez also set NU season records for 300-yard total offense games (7) and 400-yard total offense games (3) in 2018.
- Martinez set an NU record with an 86.2 completion percentage against Minnesota in 2018, connecting on 25-of-29 passes for 276 yards and three touchdowns.
- At Illinois in 2019, Martinez produced the second 300-yard passing and 100-yard rushing performance in Nebraska history (328 passing, 118 rushing). His career-high 446 yards of total offense was the third-highest total in program history.
- Martinez has been one of the nation's top dual-threat quarterbacks. He is one of only 12 active FBS quarterbacks with 4,000 career passing yards and 1,000 career rushing yards. Martinez is only the fourth Husker with 4,000 career passing yards and 1,000 career rushing yards.

FROST OFFENSES TRADITIONALLY IMPRESSIVE ON OPENING DRIVES

One common theme of a Scott Frost-led offense has been a fast start. That trend continued in the opener, when Nebraska opened the scoring last week with a four-play, 75-yard touchdown drive at No. 5 Ohio State, needing just 1:51 to find the end zone.

- In Frost's three seasons, Nebraska has scored on its opening possession 12 times in 25 games (11 TD, 1 FG).
- Nebraska scored on its first possession seven times in 12 games in 2018, including six of the final seven games. All seven of NU's opening scoring drives resulted in touchdowns. In 2019, the Huskers scored points on their opening drive four times in 12 games, including three touchdowns.
- Over the last four seasons - 2018-20 at Nebraska and 2017 at UCF - Frost's offenses have scored a touchdown on their opening possession 20 times in 38 games (53 percent). The average length of the touchdown drive in that span is 74 yards.
- In five years as a head coach, Frost's offenses have scored on their opening drive 25 times in 51 games, with 23 touchdowns and two field goals. In 91 games over eight seasons as a play-caller, Frost's offenses have scored on their first possession of the game 46 times, putting points on the board in more than half of their opening possessions.
- Nebraska has received the opening kickoff and scored a touchdown nine times in 25 games under Frost. In 2018, the Huskers had a game-opening touchdown drive to take a 7-0 lead in five straight games during the Big Ten Conference season.
- Frost's Opening Drive Scoring Percentage: 51% (46 of 91 drives)
- Frost's Opening Drive Touchdown Percentage: 44% (40 of 91 drives)

NOTING GAME 1

- The game at Ohio State marked the first time Nebraska has played a game before a crowd of less than 10,000 fans since a crowd of 6,166 fans for the 1962 Gotham Bowl game against Miami at Yankee Stadium (Dec. 15, 1962).
- Players making their first career starts vs. Ohio State included OT Bryce Benhart, WR Levi Falck, DL Ty Robinson, ILB Will Honas, OLB Garrett Nelson, PK Connor Culp and P William Pryzstup. Falck (South Dakota), Culp (LSU) and Pryzstup (Michigan State) had previously started in their collegiate careers before transferring to Nebraska.
- Tight end Austin Allen had a 26-yard reception in the first half. Four of Allen's 11 career catches have covered at least 20 yards, and Allen has two of the three longest catches of his career at Ohio State.
- Quarterback Adrian Martinez accounted for 190 yards of total offense, pushing his career total to 6,018 yards. He became the fourth Husker with better than 6,000 career total offensive yards.
- Linebacker Will Honas had two sacks for 13 yards, marking his first career multi-sack game.
- Nebraska's loss ended a streak of four straight victories in season-opening games against ranked teams.

FROST IN THIRD SEASON LEADING HUSKERS

Scott Frost is in his third season at Nebraska in 2020. The consensus 2017 national coach of the year, Frost boasts a 28-23 career record in five seasons as a collegiate head coach.

- Frost is 9-16 at Nebraska, with nine losses by seven or fewer points, including eight by five or fewer points.
- Nebraska went 5-7 in 2019, a one-game improvement over the previous two seasons. NU's 12-game schedule in 2019 featured six teams that were ranked in the top 25 at least once during the season, including four that finished the year in the top 15.
- Frost has improved upon his team's previous season record every year he has been a head coach. At UCF, Frost - who inherited a winless team - went from 6-7 in his first season to 13-0 in year two. He improved by one game at Nebraska from 2018 to 2019.
- At UCF, Frost became the first coach in FBS history to turn a winless team into an undefeated team in just two years.
- Of Frost's 10 assistant coaches, seven have been with him in each of his five seasons as a collegiate head coach, while Mike Dawson has been on four of Frost's five staffs.
- In 13 years as a full-time assistant or head coach, Frost's teams have posted a 131-41 record, averaging more than 10 wins per season. Frost has been a part of seven conference championship teams in his 13 seasons and has twice coached in the national championship game.
- Frost's teams have been ranked in the top 15 in 10 of his 13 seasons, including eight final top-10 rankings and six final top-five rankings.

NEW FACES, NEW ROLES ON HUSKER COACHING STAFF

Seven of Nebraska's 10 full-time assistant coaches return for their third season in 2020, and all seven have been a member of Scott Frost's staff for his entire five-year head coaching career. The Huskers also welcome two new assistant coaches this season, but both are familiar with Frost.

- Matt Lubick joins the staff as Nebraska's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. Lubick previously was the offensive coordinator at Pac-12 powers Oregon and Washington. He succeeded Frost as the Ducks' offensive coordinator, as Lubick was the passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach in each of Frost's three seasons as Oregon's offensive coordinator.
- The other new face on the Husker sideline is a familiar one. Mike Dawson, who was on Frost's staff for both seasons at UCF, coached the Husker defensive line in 2018 before moving on to the NFL in 2019, coaching outside linebackers for the New York Giants. In his return to Nebraska, Dawson coaches the outside linebackers.
- In addition to the two new full-time assistant coaches, Frost announced new titles and roles for two other members of the staff. Greg Austin added the title of run game coordinator to his duties as offensive line coach, while Ryan Held serves as recruiting coordinator in addition to continuing his role as running backs coach.
- The Husker staff features three Broyles Award nominees in defensive coordinator Erik Chinander (2016 at UCF), offensive coordinator Matt Lubick (2012 at Duke) and quarterbacks coach Mario Verduzco (2018 at Nebraska). The Broyles Award is presented annually to the nation's top assistant coach. Lubick was also named the national wide receivers coach of the year and an AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year finalist in 2012.

HUSKERS RETURN OFFENSIVE PRODUCTION

Nebraska boasted plenty of returning offensive production in 2020. NU returned more than 80 percent of its yards from last year in rushing (86 percent), passing (82 percent) and total offense (82 percent).

- Nebraska returned its top three rushers from last season in Dedrick Mills (745), Adrian Martinez (626) and Wan'Dale Robinson (340).
- Mills averaged 115.7 rushing yards per game over Nebraska's final three contests, despite playing only the first half of the Huskers' win at Maryland. He ran for a career-high 188 yards on 17 carries against Wisconsin, averaging more than 11 yards per carry.
- NU also returns its leading passer in Adrian Martinez (1,956 yards), while Luke McCaffrey showed promise in limited action last year, completing 9-of-12 passes for 142 yards and two touchdowns.
- In the receiving game, Nebraska must replace two of its three leading receivers from 2019. Wan'Dale Robinson, who split time at running back last fall, is NU's top returning receiver after he ranked second on the team with 40 catches and 453 receiving yards in 2019. Tight end Jack Stoll also returns after ranking third with 25 catches in 2019 and fourth with 234 receiving yards.
- Robinson was one of four national finalists for the Paul Hornung Award (nation's most versatile player) in 2019, joining Ameer Abdullah as the only Huskers to be a Hornung Award finalist. Robinson was also on the preseason watch list for the 2020 Paul Hornung Award, while Stoll earned a spot on the Mackey Award (nation's top tight end) watch list in 2018, 2019 and 2020.

A TALE OF TWO LINES

Nebraska returned every offensive line starter from last season, while the Huskers must replace every defensive line starter, as all three 2019 starting defensive linemen are on NFL rosters. Three Huskers returned to their same spot on the offensive line this season, while senior Matt Farniok moved from right tackle to right guard, with redshirt freshman Bryce Benhart taking over at right tackle.

- Based on available records, 2020 is believed to be the first time Nebraska returns its entire starting offensive line since two-platoon systems were first allowed under NCAA rules in 1964.
- Nebraska is the only team in the country which had the same starting offensive line (by player and position) for every game during the 2019 season and returned all five of those starters.
- Nebraska had the same starting offensive line for all 12 games in 2019, one of eight teams nationally to start the same five linemen every game. It marked the first time since 2010 that NU had the same starting line for an entire season.
- Nebraska's five returning starting offensive linemen combined for 106 career starts entering the season, including three players who have made at least 20 consecutive starts at their position. Entering 2020, Nebraska's 106 combined starts among offensive linemen ranked eighth nationally.
- The returning starters are Brenden Jaimes (25 straight starts at left tackle; 34 straight starts overall), Matt Farniok (25 straight starts), Boe Wilson (22 straight starts at guard), Cam Jurgens (13 straight starts at center) and Trent Hixson. Hixson started all 12 games at guard last season and is now Nebraska's top backup on the interior of the line.
- Jaimes is a two-time honorable-mention All-Big Ten pick, while Wilson was honorable mention in 2018 and Jurgens is the only Husker freshman (true or redshirt) to ever start at center.
- On defense, the Huskers replaced all three defensive line starters, all of whom are now on NFL rosters. The last time Nebraska had to replace its entire defensive line was in 2016.
- Ben Stille is Nebraska's most experienced defensive lineman. The senior has started 15 games at defensive end in his career and is the Huskers' active leader with 23 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks. Damion Daniels was the only other defensive lineman with a start entering 2020 (1 start in 2019), with Daniels and redshirt freshman Ty Robinson opening as starters in game one.

NEBRASKA LINEBACKING CORPS A MIX OF VETERANS, YOUTH

Nebraska replaced one starting inside and outside linebacker, but the Huskers have ample experience at the second level of the defense. Overall, NU has a youth movement at linebacker, as 22 of the 29 linebackers on the Husker roster are either freshmen or sophomores.

- Outside linebackers JoJo Domann and Caleb Tannor split time as starters in 2019, and Domann had nine TFLs, the most of any returning Husker. Domann and Tannor are two of only four upperclassmen among NU's 14 outside linebackers, while sophomore Garrett Nelson made his first career start at Ohio State.
- Seniors Will Honas and Collin Miller split time at inside linebacker in 2019, but will hold down the two starting spots in 2020. Honas ranked second on the team with 73 tackles, while Miller tied for third with 67 tackles. Honas opened the season with two sacks for 14 yards at Ohio State.
- Honas and Miller are two of the three upperclassmen among Nebraska's inside linebacker group, along with first-year junior college transfer Eteva Mauga-Clements. All other inside linebackers are either freshmen or sophomores.

SECONDARY LOOKS STRONG AGAIN

Nebraska's secondary was stout in 2019, as the Huskers allowed only 200.8 passing yards per game, the program's fewest yards allowed since 2012. Although Nebraska replaced starting all-conference cornerback Lamar Jackson, the rest of last year's regular secondary members return.

- Dicaprio Bootle, a third-team All-Big Ten selection in 2018 and honorable-mention pick in 2019, has started 25 consecutive games. The senior corner's 22 career pass breakups are tied for 10th place in Nebraska history.
- Cam Taylor-Britt starts at the other cornerback spot. In 10 starts as a sophomore in 2019, Taylor-Britt ranked third nationally in forced fumbles and also intercepted three passes.
- Marquel Dismuke started all 12 games at safety last fall, and he led the secondary with a career-high 67 tackles, which tied for third on the team overall. Dismuke also added four pass breakups.
- The secondary also features the return of safety Deontai Williams, who suffered a season-ending injury in the first game of 2019. In his first season at Nebraska in 2018, Williams was a ballhawk who led NU in interceptions (2), forced fumbles (2) and fumble recoveries (1).

NEBRASKA AIMS FOR SPECIAL TEAMS IMPROVEMENT

Nebraska will essentially field an entirely new special teams unit this season - including a new special teams coach - as it aims to improve in that aspect of the game in 2020. To help improve those rankings, Scott Frost hired Jonathan Rutledge as Nebraska's Senior Special Teams Analyst during the offseason. With Auburn the past two seasons, Rutledge led a Tigers' special teams unit that was ranked 13th nationally in 2019 and 14th in 2018 by Football Outsiders.

- Nebraska will be looking for both a new punter and place-kicker this season, along with a new long snapper and holder. NU must also replace its top punt returner from last season.
- Sophomore William Przystup averaged 44.6 yards on five punts at Ohio State in the season opener. He previously punted at Michigan State in 2018 before transferring to Nebraska.
- Nebraska used six place-kickers last season and the only one that returns for 2020 is Lane McCallum, a defensive player who filled in as an emergency kicker last season and figures to focus exclusively on defense this fall. NU added five place-kickers to its roster during the offseason, including a pair of transfers. Senior Connor Culp joined Nebraska as a graduate transfer from LSU, and he was the Tigers' starting place-kicker as a sophomore in 2017, connecting on 11-of-16 field goals. He connected on two PATs and a 22-yard field goal at Ohio State.
- At long snapper, Nebraska replaced Chase Urbach, who started every game last season. No Husker had snapped in a game prior to the season opener. Sophomores Cade Mueller (punts) and Cameron Pieper (place-kicks) are splitting snapping duties to start the season.

HUSKER STREAKS CONTINUE INTO 2020 SEASON

A pair of impressive team streaks and several individual streaks will continue this season, while a legendary streak takes a one-year hiatus in 2020.

- Nebraska has sold out 375 consecutive games at Memorial Stadium, dating from the next-to-last home game of the 1962 season through all seven home games last season. With the Big Ten Conference decision to prohibit the sale of tickets this year, the Huskers' legendary sellout streak - an NCAA record - will pause during the 2020 season. Nebraska's streak will remain at 375 consecutive home sellouts until next year's home opener with Buffalo on Sept. 11, 2021.
- The Huskers have scored in 308 consecutive games. The streak is the longest in school history, the seventh-longest in FBS history and the fifth-longest active streak. The last time Nebraska was shut out was a 19-0 loss at No. 17 Arizona State on Sept. 21, 1996.
- Nebraska has also scored in 341 consecutive home games, a school record. The last time the Huskers were shut out at home came on Nov. 9, 1968 against Kansas State (12-0 loss).
- Nebraska is 251-0 all-time when scoring 35 or more points at home. Scott Frost is also 21-0 in his head coaching career when his team scores at least 35 points.
- Several individual Huskers have double-digit streaks of consecutive starts, including four offensive linemen. Brenden Jaimes has started 34 consecutive games overall and 25 straight at left tackle, Dicaprio Bootle (cornerback/safety), Matt Farniok (right tackle/guard) and Jack Stoll (tight end) have each started 25 consecutive games, Boe Wilson (guard) has made 22 consecutive starts and Cam Jurgens (center) has started 13 consecutive games.

HUSKERS OWN BIG HOME-FIELD ADVANTAGE

Nebraska has enjoyed much success in its history when playing at home in front of the greatest fans in college football. Recently, the Huskers have won at least six home games in 24 of the past 33 seasons. Nebraska is 178-40 (.838) at home over the last 30 seasons.

- Since 1970, NU is 280-55 (.836) at Memorial Stadium and has posted 41 perfect home seasons.
- The Huskers are 549-159-20 all-time in Lincoln (.768 in 130 years).
- Nebraska is 422-136-13 in Memorial Stadium (.750 in 96 years dating back to 1923).
- The Huskers are 47-8 all-time in Memorial Stadium night games.

NEBRASKA AMONG TOP ALL-TIME PROGRAMS

Nebraska is playing its 131st season this fall, and the Huskers boast a 902-396-40 all-time record in 1,338 games (.689). Nebraska is one of seven programs with 900 wins.

- Nebraska joined the 900-win club at Illinois on Sept. 21, 2019, along with Michigan, Ohio State, Texas and Alabama in that club. Notre Dame and Oklahoma joined the elite club on Sept. 28.
- Since 1970, Nebraska owns a 468-155-5 record (.749) with five national championships. The Huskers rank second among all FBS programs in national titles and third in wins since 1970.
- Nebraska boasts 27 10-win seasons in school history, including 24 since 1970. The Huskers also have 12 seasons with 11 or more wins, seven seasons with 12 or more wins and three 13-win seasons.
- The Huskers own 50 nine-win seasons, tied with Alabama for the most in NCAA history. Forty-two of those nine-win seasons have come since 1970 and 48 since 1962, 13 more than any other school.
- Nebraska was the first team in NCAA history to win 100 games in consecutive decades, leading the nation with 103 wins in the 1980s and ranking second with 108 wins in the 1990s.

HUSKERS RANK HIGHLY IN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Nebraska has won five national championships, including three outright titles (1971, 1994, 1995) and two shared championships (1970, 1997). In 1970, Nebraska was awarded the Associated Press national title, but was No. 3 in the coaches poll behind No. 1 Texas and No. 2 Ohio State, both of whom lost their bowl games (the coaches' poll was voted on before bowl games). In 1997, undefeated Nebraska was voted No. 1 in the coaches' poll, while undefeated Michigan was No. 1 in the AP poll.

- Nebraska's four AP national championships rank seventh all-time.
- The Huskers' four coaches' poll national championships rank fourth all-time.

NEBRASKA NO. 2 IN CONFERENCE TITLES

Nebraska is one of only five schools in NCAA history that has won at least 40 conference championships, ranking second all-time with 46 conference titles. In 36 seasons (1962-97) under Hall-of-Fame coaches Bob Devaney (8) and Tom Osborne (13), the Huskers won 21 conference titles.

NEBRASKA ALSO EXCELS IN THE CLASSROOM

Nebraska's rich tradition is not limited to the field, as the Huskers have been outstanding in the classroom as well.

- Nebraska owns the NCAA record with 340 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans across all sports.
- Husker football has produced 108 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, the most of any single sport in NCAA history.
- Nebraska owns the NCAA record with 17 NCAA Top 10 Award Winners, which is considered the "Heisman Trophy" of academics for NCAA student-athletes.
- Nebraska football has produced nine NCAA Top 10 Award winners, the most of any single team in NCAA history.
- Nebraska recorded an all-time high in the most recent NCAA Graduation Success Rate numbers released in October of 2019. Nebraska's all-sports GSR rate of 93 percent marked the seventh consecutive year the Huskers GSR rate had improved.
- The football team posted a program-record team grade-point average of 3.297 in the 2020 spring semester. Entering this fall, the team's 3.149 cumulative GPA was also the highest in program history.

2020 NEBRASKA SEASON NOTEBOOK

HUSKERS HONOR FLIPPIN

• Nebraska is wearing a helmet decal this year in honor of George Flippin. Flippin, who lettered from 1892-94, was NU's first African-American player. He was elected a captain for the 1895 season, but did not participate in that year. Flippin went on to practice medicine in Stromsburg, Neb.

SCHEDULE NOTES

• Nebraska was scheduled to play more than half of its schedule against top-15 teams from a year ago, facing a top-15 team in five of its eight scheduled games.

2019 TOP-15 TEAMS ON SCHEDULE

| GM | DATE    | OPPONENT    | RANK |
|----|---------|-------------|------|
| 1  | Oct. 24 | at Ohio St. | 3rd  |
| 2  | Oct. 31 | Wisconsin   | 11th |
| 4  | Nov. 14 | Penn St.    | 9th  |
| 7  | Nov. 27 | at Iowa     | 15th |
| 9  | Dec. 12 | Minnesota   | 10th |

• Nebraska and Arkansas are the only teams in the country that were scheduled to play more than four top-15 opponents from a season ago. Arkansas faces five 2019 top-15 opponents in 10 games, while Nebraska faces five top-15 opponents in its eight scheduled games.

• The Huskers' original 12-game schedule was altered to become a 10-game conference-only schedule on Aug. 5. Six days later on Aug. 11, the Big Ten Conference postponed the season. The Big Ten then announced a nine-game conference-only slate on Sept. 16.

• With a nine-game schedule, now reduced to eight games, Nebraska is set to play its fewest regular-season games since an eight-game slate in 1944. Nebraska also opened the season on its latest date (Oct. 24) since 1892.

COACHING STAFF NOTES

• Scott Frost is in his fifth season as a head coach. Frost is one of four former Husker players to return to the Nebraska sideline as head coach, and he is one of 17 FBS head coaches coaching at his alma mater in 2020.

• Frost is one of only four FBS head coaches to win a national title as a player. Both Frost (1995 & 1997) and Ryan Held (1994 & 1995) were two-time national champions as players at Nebraska.

• Frost and seven of his 10 assistant coaches are in their fifth consecutive season working together, including two seasons at UCF.

• There are two new addition to the staff in 2020. Matt Lubick is in his first season as the Huskers' offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. Mike Dawson, who spent the 2016 and 2017 seasons on Frost's UCF staff and the 2018 season on Frost's Nebraska staff, returns to Lincoln to coach the outside linebackers.

ROSTER NOTES

• Nebraska's roster features 154 players. NU is believed to have the largest roster of any non-service academy in the country.

• The roster features players from 27 states, including 64 homegrown Huskers. Besides Nebraska, the states with at least five players on the roster are: Florida (10), Georgia (8), Iowa (8), Texas (7), Colorado (6), Arizona (5) and Oklahoma (5).

• The roster also features three players from foreign countries in Daniel Cerni (Australia), Barron Miles Jr. (Canada) and Nouredin Nouili (Germany).

• The roster features 53 newcomers, including 39 true freshmen and 14 transfers. NU added five FBS transfers - four from Power Five teams - one FCS transfer and eight junior college transfers.

• More than two-thirds of the Husker roster is underclassmen, as 109 of the 154 players are either freshmen or sophomores (71 percent).

• Nebraska has 79 freshmen on its roster, more than the sophomore, junior and senior classes combined. Fifty-one percent of NU's roster is freshmen, the second straight season freshmen have made up more than half of the roster.

• Nebraska has four sets of brothers on its 2020 roster (Brant & Brig Banks; Ian & Nate Boerkircher; Matt & Will Farniok; Connor & Corbin Ruth). The four sets of brothers ties for the second-most brothers on any FBS roster.

• The Husker team captains are seniors Dicaprio Bootle, Matt Farniok and Collin Miller and juniors Adrian Martinez and Kade Warner. Farniok and Martinez are serving as captains for the second straight season.

HEAD COACH SCOTT FROST

HISTORIC TURNAROUND AT UCF

At UCF, Frost produced the greatest two-year turnaround in college football history, inheriting an 0-12 team and leading the Knights to a 13-0 record just two years later.

- In his first season in 2016, Frost made history as the only first-time head coach in FBS history to make a bowl game with a team that was winless the previous season.
- UCF tied for the national lead with a six-win improvement from the 2015 to 2016 season. The Knights then ranked third nationally after improving by seven wins from the 2016 to 2017 season.
- The Knights' seven-win improvement from 2016 to 2017 ranked 11th in NCAA history and marked just the second time ever a bowl team improved by more than six wins the next season.
- UCF was the American Athletic Conference and Peach Bowl champions and was the only FBS team to go undefeated in 2017.
- Frost called UCF's plays, orchestrating the greatest two-year offensive turnaround in NCAA history. The Knights went from last to fifth in total offense, improving their output by more than 260 yards per game. UCF also went from third-to-last to first in scoring offense, improving by nearly 35 points per game.

13-0 AS A PLAYER & COACH

In his second year as a head coach, Scott Frost guided UCF to a 13-0 record in 2017, when the Knights were the nation's only undefeated team.

- Frost became the fourth coach in FBS history to post a 13-0 record or better in either his first or second season as a head coach. Among that quartet, Frost is the only coach who inherited a team that won fewer than five games, as UCF went 0-12 the year before Frost's arrival.
- Frost is one of only seven active FBS head coaches who has posted a 13-0 season or better, joining Jimbo Fisher, Ed Orgeron, Gary Patterson, Nick Saban, Dabo Swinney and Kyle Whittingham.
- Frost also led Nebraska to a 13-0 record and a national title as the Huskers' starting quarterback in 1997. Frost was the first person in NCAA history to be part of a 13-0 season as both a player and a head coach.

NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Frost was the consensus choice as the 2017 national coach of the year, earning the honor from at least eight different organizations.

- Frost won the 2017 Paul "Bear" Bryant Award as the national coach of the year. He joined Chris Petersen (2006 & 2009, Boise State) as the only coaches in the 32-year history of the award to win the honor while coaching a team outside of a Power Five Conference.
- Frost was also the AP Coach of the Year, becoming the sixth coach to win the award in his first or second season as a head coach.

FROST A TOP OFFENSIVE COACH

For each of the last 11 years, Scott Frost has either been an offensive assistant, offensive coordinator or head coach who calls the offensive plays. During that time, he has consistently proven to be one of the nation's finest offensive coaches.

- In 11 seasons coaching offense, Frost has worked with eight units that finished in the top 10 nationally in scoring, including seven that ranked in the top five.
- Frost has also been a part of seven teams that ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense the past 11 seasons.

FROST A PROVEN WINNER

Frost is a proven winner. In his 14-year full-time coaching career, Frost's teams have combined for a 131-41 record.

- Frost teams have averaged more than 10 wins per season, including seven 12-win campaigns.
- He has won seven conference titles in 13 years.
- Frost has coached in two national title games and his teams have finished with a top-10 ranking eight times in the past 13 years.
- In two seasons as UCF's head coach, the Knights were the nation's most improved team in 2016 and were the only FBS team to go undefeated in 2017.
- As a Husker quarterback, Frost was a two-time national champion who helped NU to a 36-2 record, including a 24-2 mark as a starter.
- Frost is one of four active head coaches who won a national title as a player and is the only coach who won multiple national titles.

SCOUTING NORTHWESTERN

Northwestern enters Saturday's matchup with a 2-0 record and is one of three undefeated teams in the Big Ten West.

Through its first two games, Northwestern's defense has given up an average of 11.5 points per game which ranks second in the conference behind Wisconsin and fifth nationally.

Most recently, the Wildcats erased a 17-point first quarter deficit in a 21-20 comeback win over Iowa last weekend thanks to an incredible second-half effort. The Wildcat defense was dominant, holding the Hawkeyes scoreless in the second half and allowing just 293 total yards of offense while forcing three takeaways. The 'Cats' defense was impenetrable in the fourth quarter, allowing just 95 yards on four Iowa drives to preserve Northwestern's one-point win.

Graduate transfer Peyton Ramsey leads the offensive efforts for the Wildcats. The quarterback is 34-for-48 in the air and has thrown for 342 yards and one touchdown. On the ground, Isaiah Bowser leads Northwestern with 155 rushing yards. Bowser also has one touchdown on the season.

- 15th Career Season (101-79)

Already the second-longest tenured Big Ten head coach at the age of 45, Pat Fitzgerald is in his 15th season at the helm of Northwestern having spent his coaching tenure building upon the tradition he helped establish as a Hall-of-Fame linebacker for the Wildcats in the mid-1990's.

Fitzgerald has built the Wildcats' program into a consistent winner. The 2018 Wildcats claimed the program's first-ever Big Ten West Division title and berth in the Big Ten Championship game with a program-tying eight Big Ten wins. Fitzgerald was named the consensus Big Ten Head Coach of the Year and a finalist for the 2018 Dodd Trophy. Fitzgerald has led the Wildcats to nine bowl appearances in his 14 seasons and has guided the 'Cats to four of their five bowl wins in program history.

NORTHWESTERN INFORMATION

Northwestern is one of the oldest programs in college football history, as the Wildcats played their inaugural season in 1882, eight years before Nebraska's first season. Northwestern has won eight Big Ten titles and played in 15 bowl games. Five of the Wildcats eight conference titles came between 1903 and 1936 before Northwestern's successful run in the late 1990s that included Big Ten championships in 1995, 1996 and 2000.

Northwestern's recent success has continued under head coach Pat Fitzgerald, who was a member of the Wildcats' 1995 and 1996 Big Ten champion teams. Fitzgerald earned his 100th career victory at Northwestern against Maryland. Fitzgerald has taken Northwestern to nine of its 15 all-time bowl games, and the Wildcats were bowl champions in 2017, 2018 and 2019.

Columbus, Ohio (Oct. 24) - Adrian Martinez and Luke McCaffrey combined for 165 rushing yards, but Nebraska was unable to keep pace in a 52-17 loss to fifth-ranked Ohio State.

Nebraska generated 370 yards of total offense, including 210 rushing yards and 160 passing yards, as McCaffrey tallied 80 yards on nine carries, including a 47-burst on Nebraska's opening drive. His run set up a 10-yard touchdown trot for Martinez to cap a four-play, 75-yard drive to give NU an early lead. Martinez finished with a team-high 85 rushing yards on 13 carries for the Big Red. Martinez added an efficient passing day by completing 12-of-15 passes for 105 yards, while McCaffrey completed 4-of-5 passes for 55 yards.

While Nebraska's quarterbacks combined to complete 16-of-20 passes, Ohio State's Justin Fields was even more efficient, completing 20-of-21 passes for 276 yards and two TDs. Fields added 15 carries for 54 yards and another score as OSU amassed 498 total yards.

After Nebraska took a quick 7-0 lead, Fields pushed the Buckeyes down the field for an 11-play, 75-yard drive in 5:05 to tie the score. After the Buckeyes got a stop on Nebraska's next drive, Fields found Garrett Wilson for a 42-yard touchdown pass with 4:02 left in the opening quarter. NU tied the score at 14 midway through the second quarter on Dedrick Mills' three-yard touchdown run. Ohio State answered with an 11-play drive of its own that covered 71 yards, but Nebraska held and forced a 34-yard Blake Haubeil field goal with 3:12 left in the half. NU struggled on its next possession, and OSU took advantage, going 46 yards in just five plays capped by a Master Teague III six-yard run to put the Buckeyes ahead 24-14. OSU extended its lead on the opening series of the second half, as Fields' 17-yard run put the Buckeyes ahead 31-14.

The three consecutive scores by Ohio State in just 6:48 of game time put Nebraska in a must-score position on its opening drive of the second half, and the Huskers started marching. However, on the sixth play of Nebraska's drive, Martinez fumbled at the OSU 45, and Sevn Banks scooped up the ball and raced 55 yards for a touchdown to give Ohio State a 38-14 lead. Nebraska ended Ohio State's surge with a 22-yard Connor Culp field goal with 3:56 left in the period to send the Huskers to the fourth trailing 38-17. OSU added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns to complete the scoring.
