OFFENSE ROLLS TO PASSING RECORD

Led by the big-play strikes of quarterback Dustin Long, the Aggie offense shattered the school record for single game team passing yards with a whopping 428-yard effort against Kansas last week.

ASSAULTING THE RECORD BOOK

Sophomore Dustin Long continued his assault on the A&M passing record book with a school record 399-yard effort against Kansas last week. The previous week, Long's addition to the record book was reaching the 1,000-yard mark in career passing yards in his sixth career game, which was the fastest in school history. The week before, Long threw a school and Big 12 record seven passing touchdowns against Texas Tech.

FEW KEEPING UP WITH JONES

This season sophomore Byron Jones has intercepted four passes, the fourth most in the nation. He is also capitalizing on the picks by returning the ball for an impressive 117 yards, the second most nationally.

RED-HOT IN THE RED ZONE

The Aggies have been successful on 19 consecutive trips into their opponent's "red zone" or inside the 20-yard line, including 16 touchdowns. The hot streak has pushed A&M's red zone success percentage to an impressive 87.1 percent (27-of-31 for the season).

PACESETTERS

Running back Derek Farmer and receiver Jamaar Taylor are on pace to post 1,000 yards in rushing and receiving, respectively.

Kickoff --- 6 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 26, 2002

Site (capacity) --- Kyle Field, College Station, Texas (82,600 capacity)

Radio Information --- The game will be broadcast by the 60-plus station Texas A&M Radio Network. For a complete list of stations, go to: AggieAthletics.com. Calling the game on the A&M Radio Network are Dave South (play-by-play), former All-America cornerback Kevin Smith (commentary) and Tom Turbill (sideline reports).

TV Information --- The game will be televised nationally by TBS. Calling the game will be Ron Thulin (play-by-play), Charles Davis (commentary) and Craig Sager (sideline reports).

Huskies-Aggies Series --- The Aggies and Cornhuskers are meeting in conference play for just the third time since the formation of the Big 12 Conference. In the previous two conference meetings, both teams posted wins on their homefields. ••• The two teams also met in the 1997 Big 12 Championship game with Nebraska emerging a 54-15 victor enroute to a share of the national crown. ••• In its last trip to Kyle Field, the No. 2-ranked Huskers were upset by the No. 18 Aggies, 28-21, in 1998. A&M went on to win the Big 12 Championship.

OFFENSE ROLLS TO PASSING RECORD ---

Led by the big-play strikes of quarterback Dustin Long, the Aggie offense shattered the school record for single game team passing yards with a whopping 428-yard effort against Kansas last week.

In just his fifth start, Long did most of the heavy lifting with 399 passing yards, which is an individual school record. True freshman Reggie McNeal chipped in 29 yards for the final total.

ASSAULTING THE RECORD BOOK ---

Sophomore Dustin Long continued his assault on the A&M passing record book with a school record 399-yard effort against Kansas last week. The previous week, Long's addition to the record book was reaching the 1,000-yard mark in career passing yards in his sixth career game, which was the fastest in school history. The week before, Long threw a school and Big 12 record seven passing touchdowns against Texas Tech.

Long, who did not take a snap as a freshman in 2001, has made five straight starts at QB and seen action in seven games this season.

A&M PASS DEFENSE LIMITS BIG PLAY ---

The Aggie defense ranks among the nation's best in terms of limiting the big play in the passing game. A&M allows just an average of 9.4 yards per opponent completion, which ranks No. 4 nationally.

YARDS ALLOWED PER COMPLETION

Rk	School	Yards Allowed/Completion

PICKOFFS APLENTY ---

Few teams have been better at posting interceptions than the Aggie defense in 2002. Through seven games, the Aggies have grabbed 15 pickoffs, which is tied for third-most in the nation and leads the Big 12 Conference.

Leading the way are a pair of members of the 2001 signing class — redshirt freshman Jaxson Appel and sophomore Byron Jones — who are tied for the team lead with four pickoffs each.

The high-water mark of interceptions gained during the R.C. Slocum era is 19 in 1989, while the school record is 27 set in 1967.

FEW KEEPING UP WITH JONES ---

Since earning bowl game MVP and defensive MVP honors as a freshman, Byron Jones has continued to be a thief to opposing quarterbacks.

This season Jones has intercepted four passes, the fourth most in the nation. He is also capitalizing on the picks by returning the ball for an impressive 117 yards, the second most nationally.

TAYLOR EMERGES ---

Junior wide receiver Jamaar Taylor solidified his role as the Aggies' "go-to" receiver with his third 100-yard receiving day of the 2002 season against Kansas last week.

That matched the school record for single season 100-yard games set by Robert Ferguson in 1999. It also gave him four 100-yard days for his career which matches the career school record set by Albert Connell (1995-96) and Tony Harrison (1990-93).

Taylor, who had a game-high 131 yards on five catches vs. KU, leads the Aggies with 34 catches for 612 yards. His 87.4 receiving yards per game rank No. 3 in the Big 12 Conference and No. 26 nationally.

BACK IN ACTION, BETTER THAN EVER ---

After sitting out the final 10 games of the 2001 season, there was probably no player on the Aggie roster more anxious to hit the field this season than wide receiver Bethel Johnson.

The senior from Corsicana, Texas was supposed to be the Aggies' bellcow at wide receiver in 2001, but instead Johnson fell victim to a ruptured spleen in the second game of the season.

He's attacked the 2002 season with a vengeance and has been the Aggies' most dangerous deep threat with a team-best 21.8 per catch average and six touchdowns. He's also solidified the Aggies' punt return situation with an impressive 14.8 return average.

The senior is within reach of virtually every receiving school record.

RED-HOT IN THE RED ZONE ---

The Aggies have been successful on 19 consecutive trips into their opponent's "red zone" or inside the 20-yard line, including 16 touchdowns. The hot streak has pushed A&M's red zone success percentage to an impressive 87.1 percent (27-of-31 for the season).

A&M "O" IMPROVES ON 3RD DOWNS ---

In the last four games, the A&M offense has been successful on 21-of-44 third down situations (47.7 percent), which is a marked improvement over the first three games when the offense converted 16-of-51 chances (31.4 percent).

PACESETTERS ---

Running back Derek Farmer and receiver Jamaar Taylor are on pace to post 1,000 yards in rushing and receiving, respectively.

No A&M receiver has ever hit 1,000 yards in a single season, and the last A&M running back to gain 1,000 yards was Danté Hall, who posted 1,024 in 1998.

TEXAS A&M QUOTEBOARD

"No coach in these parts has won more than Slocum, the sixth-winningest coach still walking a college sideline. No coach in this state, not even Darrell Royal, won more games in a decade than Slocum did in the '90s. No Big 12 coach has more conference titles on his résumé than Slocum's four, and seven fellow Big 12 coaches have zero conference championships. Slocum has won and won big."

KIRK BOHLS, AUSTIN AMERICAN-STATESMAN

"(The Wrecking Crew) are a bunch of mean, big guys who wanted to kill me. This is the first time I haven't been able to move the ball on a team. Their secondary coverage has to be in the top five. Along with their pass rush, they just have a great defense."

LOUISIANA TECH QB LUKE MCCOWN

"I told him, 'Now you know what my practices were like every day.' That's typical Wrecking Crew defense."

WHAT FORMER A&M QB RANDY MCCOWN SAID TO HIS BROTHER, LUKE, AFTER A&M'S 31-3 WIN

These days, the (Texas A&M football) program is an example of how to do things correctly from an NCAA compliance standpoint. There is no denying Slocum represents the university in a positive light."

NEIL HOHLFIELD, HOUSTON CHRONICLE

"You talk about a guy who just doesn't care about his body. When he comes on a blitz, he's coming full-tilt. He doesn't care if it's a 300-pound lineman, his own teammate, or a referee ... he's hitting somebody."

LB BRIAN GAMBLE ON TEAMMATE JAXSON APPEL IN BILLY LIUCCI'S MAROON & WHITE REPORT

"I think it's the biggest home field advantage in college football."

KIRK HERBSTREIT, ESPN GAMEDAY ON TEXAS A&M'S KYLE FIELD

"Texas A&M is a very talented, athletic, huge football team."

PITTSBURGH COACH WALT HARRIS

"(Slocum's) Wrecking Crew defense is the Steel Curtain of college football."

JEROME SOLOMON, HOUSTON CHRONICLE

"Texas A&M is an outstanding football program. Coach Slocum has around a 74 percent winning percentage which looks awful good to me."

PITTSBURGH COACH WALT HARRIS

"(Texas A&M's) front seven is unbelievable."

UL LAFAYETTE QB JON VAN CLEAVE

ZONE IMPACT ---

Texas A&M has shattered its season home attendance record in each of the last three seasons since the completion of the Bernard C. Richardson Zone complex in 1999. Prior to "The Zone," A&M's home average attendance record was 66,623 in 1987, but since then the record has risen to 73,126 in 1999, 77,579 in 2000 and 82,711 in 2001.

Texas A&M is in the midst of 14-game streak of 70,000-plus crowds at Kyle Field. Prior to the beginning of the streak, A&M has produced a total of 13 70,000-plus crowds in this history.

HOME SWEET KYLE ---

In 14 seasons with R.C. Slocum as head coach, the Aggies have compiled a sparkling 71-10-1 (.872) record at Kyle Field. The Aggies have posted eight undefeated home records during that time, including seven perfect 6-0 home worksheets. Prior to Slocum's tenure, A&M had posted just eight undefeated season records at Kyle.

SLOCUM AND TEXAS A&M ---

Only four Div. I-A head coaches have been at their respective school longer than 14th year Aggie head coach R.C. Slocum.

Only Joe Paterno of Penn State, Bobby Bowden of Florida State, Fisher DeBerry of Air Force and Frank Beamer of Virginia Tech have been head coaches at the same school for more seasons than Slocum.

Slocum's presence has been a constant on the A&M sideline for 30 of the past 31 years with the only exception being 1981 when he served as defensive coordinator for John Robinson's USC squad.

SENIOR CITIZENS ---

The 15-member senior class of 2002 might be the most accomplished senior class at Texas A&M since 1998 when Dat Nguyen and crew won the Big 12 crown.

Here are some facts:

- 2002 seniors have started a combined 285 games during their careers (an average of 19.0 starts per senior).
- Fourteen of 15 have started at least one game on offense or defense. The other senior, Chance Pearce, has been the Aggies' starting deep snapper for 42 straight games.
- Eleven seniors have 10 or more career starts to their credit, led by three-year starter Brian Gamble's 42 starts.
- The class features nine fifth-year seniors.
- The seniors have compiled a 28-15 overall record, including a 17-5 mark at Kyle Field.
- The seniors have gone bowling three straight seasons. If the Aggies qualify in 2002, the '02 seniors will be the sixth senior class to go bowling all four years of their careers ('78, '92, '93, '00, '01).

EXPERIENCED AGGIES ---

A whopping 31 players on the 2002 roster have started at least one game during their A&M careers.

SAMMY DAVIS AND THE RAT PACK ---

Headlined by two-time All-Big 12 cornerback Sammy Davis Jr., and fellow three-year starters Terrence Kiel and Sean Weston, the Aggies' defensive secondary might rank as one of the best groups of the R.C. Slocum era.

Here's a closer look at the A&M DBs:

Sammy Davis, CB --- Big 12's leading active pass thief with 11 career pickoffs ... rated one of the front-runners for the Thorpe Award, which is given annually to the nation's top DB ... has started 33 games, including 31 straight.

Terrence Kiel, SS --- Led the team with 92 tackles in 2001 ... rated the nation's No. 3 "assassin" or strong safety by ESPN's Kirk Herbstreit ... has 225 career tackles and seven career pickoffs ... has 30 career starts.

Sean Weston, CB --- Has broken up 27 opponent passes over his career ... has 27 career starts.

Jaxson Appel, FS --- Won the free safety job during fall camp ... impressed the A&M coaching staff with his aggressive hitting and savvy ... among the team leaders in tackles and INTs.

Byron Jones, CB --- Sophomore has started the three games at cornerback. Was named Game MVP of the Galleryfurniture.com Bowl after grabbing three interceptions ... Leads the team in interceptions with four and PBU's.

CHANGES IN 2002---

Shifting positions since the 2001 season were: senior Dwain Goynes from wide receiver to running back; and redshirt freshman Bryant Singleton from wide receiver to defensive back.

Players who saw action in 2001 with new jersey numbers are: junior Jamaar Taylor from #82 to #2 and junior Tim Van Zant from #49 to #83.

The Aggies had a late addition to the team when freshman WR Anthony Wright joined the team in August.

Retiring from the team were sophomore TE Joey Perot, junior DB Richard Whitaker and junior DB Dawon Gentry.

SEASON TRENDS/NOTES---

- The Aggies have held five of seven opponents under 100 yards rushing in 2002. Virginia Tech rushed for an opponent season high of 129 yards on 48 carries (2.7 per carry).
- The Aggies have not allowed an opponent to rush for 200 yards as a team since Kansas State rushed for 258 yards in 2001, a span of 11 games.
- Over the past 40 games, the A&M defense has allowed more than 200 yards rushing just twice.
- In just his third career start at quarterback, sophomore Dustin Long became the most prolific single game touchdown passer in Texas A&M and Big 12 Conference history with seven touchdown aeriels vs. Texas Tech. Long's seven TD passes broke Gary Kubiak's 21-year old school record of six TD passes against Rice in 1981. Long also broke the Big 12 record of six TD passes set by Texas Tech's Kliff Kingsbury earlier this season.

- Long set a school record for passing yards with 399 vs. Kansas and led the team to a record 428 passing yards in the game.
- Long shared Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week honors with Texas Tech's Kliff Kingsbury after his seven-TD, 367-yard performance against Tech.
- Aggie defensive end Ty Warren was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week after posting 12 tackles, including four behind the line, and five third-down stops against Virginia Tech.
- Mark Farris began the season as starter at quarterback but was supplanted in the lineup by sophomore Dustin Long. Farris had started 26 straight games and compiled a 17-9 record as a starter.
- Head Coach R.C. Slocum announced on Sept. 24 that assistant head coach Kevin Sumlin would be responsible for the offensive play-calling and the overall direction of the Aggie offense.

TOP NOTCH COACHING ---

Members of R.C. Slocum's coaching staffs have a history of being hot coaching commodities, as evidenced by four of Slocum's former coordinators serving as head coaches at the NFL or college level.

Fifteen of Slocum's former staffers hold positions in the NFL, ranging from general manager to position coach to player personnel to scout.

Here's a list of former assistants and their current position (* — member of Slocum's original staff in 1989):

SLOCUM AT A GLANCE ...

In his 14th season as the Aggies' head coach, R.C. Slocum (McNeese State, '67) has compiled a 122-43-2 (.737), ranking him No. 6 in winning percentage among active Div. I-A head coaches and A&M's all-time winningest coach.

- Slocum is 77-24-2 (.757) in conference games, 71-10-1 (.872) in games at Kyle Field and 46-24 (.657) in road games.
- Slocum, a four-time Coach of the Year, has led the Aggies to one Big 12 Conference crown, three SWC Championships, two Big 12 South Division titles and 11 bowl games, including five on Jan. 1st.
- Ten of Slocum's 13 teams have finished the season ranked in the Top 25.
- Slocum's teams compiled a 29-game SWC unbeaten streak running from 1991-95.
- This is the 30th year he has been associated with A&M football, the longest of any football coach in school history. He was an assistant from 1972-80 and once again from 1982-88, interrupted only by a one-year stint as defensive coordinator at USC in 1981.
- With the Aggies' win over Texas in 1997, Slocum became A&M's winningest head coach by passing Homer Norton, who posted 82 wins from 1934-47 and won the 1939 national championship.
- He closed out the Southwest Conference ranked as the No. 1 coach in SWC history in overall and SWC winning percentage.

SLOCUM IN GOOD COMPANY ---

R.C. Slocum's 117-41-2 record in his first 13 seasons ranks as the eighth-fastest start in Div. I-A history, and puts him on a list with some pretty heady company. Nebraska's Tom Osborne, who won 127 games in his first 13 seasons, tops the list and is followed by Oklahoma's Barry Switzer, Penn State's Joe Paterno, Florida's Steve Spurrier, Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson, BYU's Lavell Edwards, the legendary Amos Alonzo Stagg and Slocum.

SLOCUM KEEPS ON WINNING ---

In his 14th season at Texas A&M, head coach R.C. Slocum is one of the few coaches who has never felt the sting of a losing campaign. Among coaches with 10 or more years experience, only Slocum and Tennessee's Phil Fulmer have never had a losing season. Slocum's .500 or better streak of 13 seasons ranks No. 3 nationally behind Florida State's Bobby Bowden (24 seasons) and Syracuse's Paul Pasqualoni (15 seasons).

Jamaar Taylor, WR

When the game is on the line and secret of the curl route

Junior wide receiver Jamaar Taylor is quickly becoming a go-to receiver for A&M quarterback Dustin Long. Taylor has posted two straight 100-yard plus receiving days. Recently, Taylor was asked what his ideal big play would be. Taylor said his ideal big play is to convert the third down and long, maybe in the fourth quarter with a tie game. That would be the ideal situation he would want to be in, whether it would be a long route or catching it short and making a play to get the first down. As for his favorite route? That would be a curl route, because Taylor says when you come back to the quarterback, you can get a good picture of his face, and where he throws the ball from. On that route you can always get away and make moves after the catch.

Bethel Johnson, WR

Says mother is motivation

"My mom is my biggest inspiration, period. She's a single parent of five and raised five kids by herself, four girls and me. Through my whole career, I focused and wanted to change my situation through athletics. We never had much [growing up]. I figure God has blessed my mom with a gifted child to be able to go out and do athletic things and be good at doing them. She motivates me to want to go out and play hard, because I've seen [my family] struggle and I hated that as a child. That's what's kept me going through this whole thing. Plus, she's a great spiritual leader. She's a very strong Christian woman and that's one of my mother's best qualities. Anyone that's met my mom around here knows Sylvia loves everybody. That's what I love about her. She keeps me focused on my game and focused on God. She wants to make sure I have my priorities straight and that's how I'm influenced by her. Seeing her struggle all her life, and finally growing up and being able to sort of do things about that now, hopefully that's what I want to accomplish out of this-to take care of my mom."

Joe Weber, RB

A Future in the WWE?

Running back Joe Weber says his favorite television show is World Wrestling Entertainment's Monday Night RAW. It seems that as a child Joe Weber went to wrestling matches and got the autograph of the Junk Yard Dog. It was at that point he was hooked on wrestling. Weber says his new favorites are Stone Cold Steve Austin and The Rock. The Rock, Dwayne Johnson, played college football at Miami before he found the wrestling ring. Could wrestling be in Weber's future?

Terrence Kiel, SS

Alligator Hunter

Perhaps the most underrated strong safety in the nation, Texas A&M's Terrence Kiel ranks second on the squad in total tackles with 38. Long before Kiel began to earn his tough guy reputation on the football field, he was quite the fisherman in his childhood. Never afraid to tackle anything in his way, a nine year old Kiel decided to become an alligator hunter on a childhood fishing trip with his father and brother. After spotting an alligator, Kiel made it his goal to capture it. Soon Kiel had caught a 2-foot alligator with just his rod and reel, and although he had to set it free, a tone had been set. ESPN's Kirk Herbstreit calls Kiel the No. 3 assassin in the country. If only opposing receivers were as lucky as the alligator that Kiel set free.

Brian Gamble, DB

Fishing and Tubing

Quite the hunter and fisherman, A&M inside linebacker Brian Gamble spent part of his summer with a couple of his friends who are also Big 12 football players. Gamble went fishing with Texas special teams standout Beau Trahan in Port Mansfield and later went river tubing in the Hill Country with Texas Tech quarterback Kliff Kingsbury. The fishing trip was fun but the redfish and speckled trout were no where to be found. As for the tubing trip on the Comal River, severe storms upstream closed the river.

Guess the Mascot

The son of a Texas High School football coach, A&M inside linebacker Brian Gamble has spent many days watching film on numerous high schools and spending most of his fall Friday nights attending games. As a result, Gamble has acquired a unique gift that allows him name virtually every high school mascot in Texas. From the New Braunfels Unicorns, to the Hutto Hippos, to the Robstown Cotton Pickers, Gamble is always taking challenges in the A&M locker room.

Andre Brooks, OL

Little League Playoff Memories

Texas A&M offensive lineman Andre Brooks has not only seen success on the football field, but has also an all-star baseball career in his past. When Brooks was 12 years old, back in 1994, his Little League Baseball team won the Texas state championships and advanced to St. Petersburg, Florida. Brooks played first base, pitched and even batted clean up. Unfortunately, Brooks' team did not reach the Little League World Series, but he considers that summer one his favorite moments in his life.

L'Tydrick Riley, WR

Reggie and Riley

Fans in the small East Texas town of Crockett have known about Texas A&M freshman wide receiver Tydrick Riley for years, but after grabbing a touchdown pass in his first game for the Aggies against Baylor the opposition is discovering Riley, too. Injuries to several A&M special teams players forced the lifting of Riley's redshirt during the sixth game of the season and Riley made the most of it. Friends with A&M quarterback Reggie McNeal since grade school, and now roommates, the two have stayed up late on several occasions this fall talking about the day they could hook up on a touchdown pass together. Reggie said that if Riley could get in the game, he would give him the chance to do it. Against Baylor, McNeal lofted a pass to the left corner of the endzone and Riley leaped above a former high school teammate to make the play.

Thomas Carriger, TE

Hunting the Hog Hunter

Texas A&M tight end Thomas Carriger was a virtual unknown for college recruiters as he hails from tiny Skidmore-Tynan High School in South Texas. Using pure word-of-mouth from an opposing high school coach, A&M assistant coach Alan Weddell visited Carriger, who's father Bill graduated from A&M in 1977, and invited him to summer camp. With a solid showing at camp, Carriger moved from small-town standout to coveted recruit. Originally a defensive lineman, coach R.C. Slocum was forced to switch the true freshman to tight end last season after a rash of injuries. Carriger started the Kansas State game, but did not have a ball thrown his way until the Bowl game. This season, Carriger roped in his first reception for a TD against Baylor and was all smiles. A hog hunter in the offseason, Carriger is still known to unleash the dogs, and armed with only a knife, take on the prey.
