From South To North

The Oklahoma State Cowboys (3-3, 1-1) will play their second straight Big 12 road game when they travel to Lincoln, Neb., Saturday for a matchup with Nebraska (4-2, 1-1). Kickoff is set for 11:30 a.m. with the game available on a pay-per-view basis.

Pay-Per-View

The pay-per-view telecast from Lincoln is expected to be available in Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Stillwater and to Direct TV and Dish Network customers.

Strength Of Schedule

According to the NCAA, Oklahoma State's 2007 schedule ranks among the most difficult in the nation. OSU's past opponents (2007 opponents to date) have a cumulative record of 15-7 for a winning percentage of .681, giving OSU the 11th toughest schedule to date. Based on cumulative opposition (the winning percentage of all 12 of State's 2007 opponents), OSU's schedule ranks as the second toughest in the NCAA. OSU's 12 opponents have a current record of 36-17.

The Series

Oklahoma State and Nebraska first met on the football field in 1960 and met annually every year through the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1995. Overall, Nebraska leads the all-time football series with Oklahoma State, 36-4-1. The series lead for the Huskers is just 3-2 since Big 12 play began. And in this century, OSU holds a 2-1 series advantage. The Cowboys have just one win in Lincoln and that came in the first meeting between the teams back in 1960.

Close Calls

Nebraska owns a big lead in its series with Oklahoma State, but there have been numerous close calls. Along with a tie in 1973 with No. 10 Nebraska, 10 other games in the series have been decided by one score.

Even Closer Calls

Since the beginning of the 2006 season, no one has had more than OSU. The Cowboys have had seven games decided in the last two minutes. OSU has a 2-5 record in those games, including a win over Texas Tech (49-45) and a loss at Texas A&M (24-23) this season. Included in the 2-5 record is the 34-31 win over Alabama in the 2006 Independence Bowl.

Big 12 Excitement

Oklahoma State is probably the Big 12's most exciting team. The Cowboys' last four conference games have been nail biters. Those games include:

:: A 30-24 loss at Texas Tech (2006) with OSU in the red zone and tossing passes into the end zone as time expired.

:: A 27-21 loss to Oklahoma as OSU just missed on a pass from Zac Robinson to D'Juan Woods in the OU end zone on the final play of the game.

:: The 49-45 win over Texas Tech (2007) in which Tech's final drive ended on downs at the OSU 15 with just 19 seconds left in the game.

:: Saturday's game at Texas A&M that saw OSU's would-be final drive ended by a penalty that allowed the Aggies to obtain a first down in the last two minutes and run out the clock.

College Station Recap

For the second consecutive season, Oklahoma State will face Nebraska following a one-point loss to Texas A&M. Last season it was a 34-33 overtime setback. This season, the score was 24-23. The 2007 chapter saw the Cowboys hold a 17-0 halftime lead, limit the Big 12's leading rushing offense to 150 yards and just 3.5 yards per attempt and OSU outgained the Aggies, 459-368. But Texas A&M scored on four of its five second-half possessions to win the game.

Starting Blocks

The loss at Texas A&M means that Oklahoma State is 1-1 in Big 12 play for the second straight year, but just the fourth time since the Big 12 was formed (conference play began in 1996). The three previous 1-1 conference starts all led to final league records of 3-5.

Last Year In Stillwater

Perhaps the marquee victory of OSU's 2006 season came in a 41-29 win over No. 20 Nebraska. The Cowboys trailed 16-0 before scoring 20 second-quarter points and OSU erased a 23-20 fourth-quarter deficit with another 21 points for the victory. The Cowboys outgained the Huskers, 496-452 as Dantrell Savage rushed for 117 yards with two touchdowns. The 41 points represent the second best total ever by the Cowboys against Nebraska. The win was the second straight for OSU over Nebraska in Stillwater.

Last Time In Lincoln

OSU hasn't visited Nebraska since the 2003 season opener. No. 24 Oklahoma State was a 17-7 loser. OSU held a 7-3 halftime lead but five Cowboy turnovers led to 14 third-quarter points for the Huskers. Tatum Bell rushed for 87 yards for Oklahoma State. The Cowboys' lone touchdown came on a Josh Fields to Rashaun Woods 4-yard touchdown pass. The Cowboys rebounded from the season-opening loss in Lincoln to post a 9-4 record and make an appearance in the Cotton Bowl.

Heading Upwards

OSU's visit to Nebraska will mark the Cowboys' first game of the season against a member of the Big 12 North. The Cowboys were 2-1 against the North last season, including wins against Nebraska, at Kansas and a last-second loss at Kansas State.

Against The North

Since the beginning of the 2003 season, Oklahoma State is 7-5 against members of the Big 12 North. Included in that total are wins against every member of the division.

Scouting Nebraska

Nebraska is 4-2 overall and 1-1 in Big 12 play. The Huskers are coming off of a 41-6 loss at Missouri. Nebraska runs for 146 yards per game and passes for 293. The Huskers are No. 29 nationally and sixth in the Big 12 in total offense (439 yards per game). Husker running back Marlon Lucky is the Big 12's leading rusher with 105.3 yards per game. OSU's Kendall Hunter is third in that category with 447 yards on just 57 carries.

Speaking Of Rushing

While Nebraska's Marlon Lucky leads the Big 12 in rushing in the all-games category, Oklahoma State's Dantrell Savage holds that distinction in Big 12 play. Thanks to his 110-yard night against Texas A&M, Savage is now averaging 120 yards per Big 12 game. Running mate Kendall Hunter is fifth in the conference (tops among freshmen) with 97.5 yards per game against Big 12 opposition.

Getting Offensive Again

After a relatively slow start in the early going of the 2007 season, OSU's offense is finding its 2006 form:
:: Oklahoma State has recorded four of the top 12 offensive games in school history since the beginning of the 2006 season (a span of 19 games).
:: OSU has generated more than 480 yards of total offense three times in the first five games of 2007.
:: OSU has gone over the 400-yard mark in total offense eight times in its last 10 games.
:: OSU has scored points in 13 of its last 16 quarters of play.

Big 12 Numbers

OSU's offensive numbers are almost as impressive against Big 12 competition as they are against the non-conference foes. In Oklahoma State's last nine Big 12 games, the Cowboys have scored at least 33 points five times and topped the 40-point mark in wins over Kansas, Nebraska, Baylor and Texas Tech.

The Last Three Chapters

Oklahoma State has been especially potent on offense in the last three weeks with 111 points on the scoreboard and a drive chart that reflects an offense that has found its pace:
:: OSU has had 38 possessions over the last three games. Of the 38 possessions, 21 have resulted in points or a missed field goal and three were stopped by the end of a half.
:: OSU has punted the ball just seven times in three games, including once against Texas Tech and twice in the fourth quarter against Sam Houston State with the Cowboys holding a lead of 39-3 (which was the final score).
:: Of the 38 possessions, 17 of them saw the Cowboys cover at least 50 yards, and 12 covered at least 60 yards. Three times OSU drove for more than 70 yards, including a 95-yard march against Sam Houston State and an 89-yard drive at Texas A&M.

OSU Offense By The Week

Table with columns: Opponent, Total Offense, NCAA Rank. Rows include Georgia, FAU, Troy, Texas Tech, Sam Houston, Texas A&M.

Third Down But Not Out

Oklahoma State's third down conversion attempts have had a dramatic surge the last three weeks as well. Through the first three games of the season, the Cowboys were converting just 25 percent of their third downs into first downs to rank No. 111 out of 119 teams in the NCAA Bowl Subdivision statistics. Over the last two games, OSU has converted 27 of their 46 third-down snaps into first downs. In the process, OSU's conversion rate has climbed to 44 percent. And in the course of three games, OSU has gone from No. 111 in third-down conversions to No. 67 last week, to No. 48 entering the Texas A&M game to No. 36 this week.

The Bullpen

Oklahoma State's current roster features three players among OSU's all-time leaders in touchdown passes. Head coach Mike Gundy is second all-time at OSU with 54 touchdown passes, behind only Josh Fields who had 55. Junior Bobby Reid is third all-time at OSU with 27 touchdown passes. Former quarterback and current linebacker Donovan Woods ranks No. 12 all-time with 14 touchdown passes and sophomore Zac Robinson is No. 14 all-time with 12 touchdown passes.

The Defense Lately

OSU's defense gave up 35 points in the first half of the Cowboys' 49-45 win over Texas Tech. Since that point, however, Oklahoma State has gotten stingy. Over the last 10 quarters the Oklahoma State defense has:
:: Forced 13 punts
:: Held an opponent on downs four times
:: Forced three turnovers
:: Allowed just 14 third downs to be converted into first downs

Defensively In College Station

The Cowboy defense is coming off one of its top statistical performances of the season. OSU limited Texas A&M, the nation's sixth-ranked rushing team, to just 3.5 yards per carry and 150 yards. The Aggies were held to 6-of-14 on third-down conversions and OSU recorded a five tackles behind the line of scrimmage.

The Ground Game

Through the first two games of the season, which included a loss at No. 13 Georgia and a win over Florida Atlantic, OSU did not have a 100-yard rusher. Over the last four games, the Cowboys have accomplished the feat six times. Freshman Kendall Hunter has gone over the 100-yard mark twice. Dantrell Savage has reached 100 yards in each of the last three games and Zac Robinson became just the second Cowboy quarterback in 30 years to reach triple digits when he ran for 116 yards against Texas Tech.

The Century Club

A couple of items worth noting regarding OSU's new ground attack. Kendall Hunter became the first Cowboy freshman to run for 100 yards in two straight games since Jamaal Fobbs did it in 1997 against Texas A&M and Oklahoma. Hunter accomplished the feat against Troy and Texas Tech. Against Texas Tech, Zac Robinson, Hunter and Dantrell Savage all rushed for 100 yards - a first in Oklahoma State football history.

Hunter's Season

Kendall Hunter's strong start to his Cowboy career finds him third in the Big 12 in rushing with 88.2 yards per game and No. 46 nationally in that category. His 7.7-yards-per-carry average leads OSU and is easily the best in the Big 12 Conference by more than a yard per carry. Among America's top 100 rushers, Hunter's average per carry checks in second behind only Felix Jones of Arkansas (10.52 ypg).

Just So You Know

How rare is Kendall Hunter's 7.7-yard average per carry? And how hard would it be for the Tyler freshman to maintain that average? Here is how rare and how difficult. In 1988, Barry Sanders set an NCAA record with 2,628 rushing yards on 344 carries. That computes to 7.6 yards per carry. Only twice in OSU history has a runner averaged more than seven yards per carry: Barry Sanders in 1988 and another All-American, Bob Fenimore, in 1945. Fenimore rushed for 1,048 yards on just 142 carries (7.4-yard average). The numbers per carry average in a season are based on runners who reached the 900-yard mark.

Just So You Know

The OSU record for rushing yards by a freshman was set by Mike Hamilton with his 961 yards in 2005. Hamilton carried the ball 193 times that season (an average of 4.98 yards per carry). Hunter would need to average 86.7 yards over the final six games to set the new freshman record.

The Balance Is Back

While it's early in the season and the 200/200 club is not terribly exclusive, OSU is once again a member. One season after OSU and Boise State were the only teams in the country to average more than 200 yards rushing and passing, OSU is once again over the Mendoza

Line in both categories. Through six games, OSU is averaging 234 yards rushing and 238 yards through the air. Last season, when OSU was one of just two schools to end the year by rushing and passing for more than 200 yards per game, the Cowboys actually accomplished the feat just three times (vs. Missouri State, Nebraska and Alabama). OSU has already reached the 200/200 mark four times this season (Florida Atlantic, Texas Tech, Sam Houston State and Texas A&M).

TDs, Too

Not only is OSU one of America's most balanced teams statistically, the Cowboys carry that balance into the end zone. Through six games, OSU has rushed for 11 touchdowns and passed for 12 touchdowns. Seven Cowboys have caught a touchdown pass, five Cowboys have run for a score and four Cowboys have thrown touchdown passes.

The Savage Numbers

OSU senior running back Dantrell Savage has returned from injury with an impressive three games against Texas Tech, Sam Houston State and Texas A&M. Over the last three weeks, he has rushed for 355 yards on 61 carries for 5.8 yards per rush. He has run for 410 yards this season and has rushed for 1,230 yards in his Cowboy career and (and averaged 6.2 yards per rush in the process). Savage has rushed for more than 100 yards eight times in his last 10 games. His numbers are more impressive when considering that injury slowed the start of his OSU career. He has rushed for 1,064 yards in his last 10 games and that total includes a six-yard effort on just four carries at Texas last season. Savage's career began with just 22 carries for 169 yards through the first six games of 2006.

Something You Didn't Know About Adarius Bowman

Adarius Bowman has moved to the top of a prestigious national list. For his career, Bowman has 2,312 receiving yards, including his two seasons at North Carolina. His average of 18.3 yards per reception is best among all NCAA players.

Bowman Moves Up

With 142 receiving yards against Texas A&M, wide receiver Adarius Bowman continues to climb the Cowboy career record charts. The preseason first-team All-America as voted by ESPN.com and Sports Illustrated among others, has had a startling impact at OSU.

:: Bowman now has 1,801 OSU career receiving yards to rank fifth all-time at OSU.

:: Bowman has 98 catches to rank No. 5 all-time at OSU.

:: He has caught at least two passes in every OSU game in which he's played (19).

:: He has 18 touchdown receptions in his 19 OSU games.

:: For his career, Bowman is averaging 18.3 yards per reception to lead all active players in the country.

His other TD grabs have covered 69, 64, 55, 54, 47, 45, 34, 31 and 20 yards.
 :: He has three 100-yard receiving games this season (Florida Atlantic, Sam Houston State, Texas A&M).

The Other YPC Guy

While Adarius Bowman leads America in yards per reception for a career, he is second on the 2007 Cowboy stat sheet. The OSU leader in the yards-per-catch category belongs to junior tight end Brandon Pettigrew. Pettigrew is averaging 17.3 yards per reception with 16 catches for 277 yards.

Early Returns

OSU's Perrish Cox is just midway through his sophomore season but he is already stamping his name into the Cowboy record books as one of the school's top all-time return men.

His 49-yard punt return for a score against Sam Houston State was a first for the Cowboys since 2004. He opened the 2006 season with a 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Missouri State when he joined Barry Sanders as the only other Cowboy to open a season with a touchdown return. In his career, eight of Cox's returns have resulted in points for the Cowboys – either by Cox or by the Cowboy offense. Cox enters the Texas A&M game No. 11 nationally in punt returns with an average of 17.1 yards per try. His return highlights include...

- :: His 96-yard kickoff return for a TD opened the 2006 season
- :: A 67-yard punt return against Florida Atlantic (2007) that led to a Keith Toston touchdown run
- :: A 63-yard punt return against Kansas State to the Wildcat 27 that led to a Brandon Pettigrew TD reception from Bobby Reid.
- :: A 57-yard kickoff return against Baylor that led to a Bruce Redden field goal
- :: A 49-yard punt return (quick kick return) against Arkansas State that set up OSU's first points of the game.
- :: A 49-yard punt return for a touchdown against Sam Houston State.

OKLAHOMA STATE COACH MIKE GUNDY

Coaching Capsule

Gundy became Oklahoma State's head coach on Jan. 3, 2005. He served as OSU's offensive coordinator and associate head coach the previous four seasons. He served on Oklahoma State staffs under Pat Jones, Bob Simmons and Les Miles. He was also on staff at Baylor and Maryland before returning to his alma mater.

Playing Experience

Gundy was a four-year starter and letterman at Oklahoma State from 1986 through 1989. He remains OSU's all-time leading passer with 7,997 yards and he led the Cowboys to back-to-back 10-win seasons in 1987 and 1988. His 429-yard passing performance against Kansas in 1989 is still the second-best passing game at Oklahoma State and he owns six of Oklahoma State's top 30 single-game passing performances. He also still holds Oklahoma State career records for pass completions (604), passing yards (7,997), completion percentage (58.3 percent), interception avoidance (36 in 1,035 pass attempts) and total offense (7,749)

Family

Gundy is the son of Ray and Judy Gundy. His father attended OSU on a basketball grant. He and his wife, Kristen, have three sons, Gavin, Gunnar and Gage. Kristen is also an OSU graduate. His brother, Cale, is on the coaching staff at Oklahoma.

The 77-yard strike ties for the ninth-longest pass-and-catch hookup in Oklahoma State history and was the longest since 1998 ... With that rushing effort, Robinson became only the second OSU quarterback since 1977 to rush for 100 yards in a game ... Set a new career high with 279 yards passing as part of a 19-of-28 showing in OSU's 39-3 win over Sam Houston State ... Athens, Ga. - The 13th-ranked Georgia Bulldogs scored the game's first touchdown on a 14-yard drive, and another on a 24-yard drive set up by a punt return in their 35-14 win over Oklahoma State in the season opener for both teams.

The Bulldogs kept the Cowboys off the scoreboard in the second half to turn a nip-and-tuck 21-14 halftime game into a comfortable victory.

Georgia scored first when the Cowboy punt team failed to get off the boot and OSU's Matt Fodge was tackled at the OSU 14. One play later, the Bulldogs reached paydirt when Thomas Brown scampered into the end zone, sending the 92,000 Bulldog fans into a frenzy.

OSU, however, responded with a four-play, 47-yard drive capped off by Adarius Bowman's 20-yard touchdown reception midway through the first period. Following a pair of cross-country marches by the Georgia offense, OSU got back into the game with its best drive of the night. The Cowboys covered 75 yards on 11 plays with Georgia native Dantrell Savage sweeping the ride end for a 5-yard TD run late in the second period.

The second half, however, saw the Bulldogs score on their first possession and again at the 11:11 mark of the fourth quarter following a 63-yard punt return by Mikey Henderson. The Cowboy offense never held the ball for more than 2:45 in the second half with penalties slowing down the OSU attack throughout the game.

Game Notes

:: OSU junior tight end Brandon Pettigrew led the Cowboys and set personal bests with seven catches covering 85 yards.

:: The Cowboy lineup featured three first-time starters in defensive lineman Tonga Tea, Jr., offensive lineman Andrew Lawrence and receiver Jeremy Broadway.

:: Adarius Bowman had a 20-yard touchdown reception, his 13th touchdown catch in 14 career games at OSU.

:: OSU opened on the road for the eighth time in 11 seasons.

Troy, Ala. - An outstanding performance by junior quarterback Omar Haugabook, both through the air and on the ground, gave Troy all the offense it needed as the Trojans defeated the Oklahoma State Cowboys 41-23 here Friday night at the Movie Gallery Stadium.

After a 40 minute delay due to heavy rains and lightning, Oklahoma State's nationally broadcast game at Troy began with a Keith Toston turnover on the first offensive play of the game. The Trojans turned the miscue into seven points just over a minute later on a five-yard pass from Haugabook to Kennard Burton and it was all downhill from there for the Pokes.

A long punt return put Troy in scoring position again, but sophomore Perrish Cox snagged an interception in the end zone, one of the few highlights for the Cowboy defense as it spent most the game on the field.

The offense, scored its first two touchdowns of the game after taking over the ball in short-field position. A fake punt attempt inside the Troy 30 failed during the third quarter led to a four yard scoring reception by Brandon Pettigrew. The junior tight end had two receptions for 26 yards on the short drive.

The second Cowboy TD came after Quinton Moore blocked a Troy punt attempt. Three plays later, senior Julius Crosslin scored on a one yard touchdown run. The Amarillo, Texas, native scored another TD in the fourth and moved up to 19th place on the all-time school scoring chart with 110 points.

Game Notes

- :: Kendall Hunter's 125-yard rushing effort was the first for Oklahoma State this season.
- :: The interception by Perrish Cox was the third of his career. He has two of OSU's three INTs this season.

Stillwater, Okla. - On a day when both the Oklahoma State offense and the Texas Tech offense piled up more than 600 yards of total offense, it was a late defensive stand by the Cowboys that preserved a 49-45 victory at Boone Pickens Stadium.

With OSU leading 49-45 and 19 seconds remaining in the game, Tech faced fourth-and-8 from the OSU 15 yard line. Red Raider quarterback Graham Harrell looked to connect with Michael Crabtree in the end zone, but Cowboy safety Ricky Price fully extended on a dive to throw off Crabtree's concentration and seal the Oklahoma State win.

OSU running backs Dantrell Savage (130 rushing yards) and Kendall Hunter (113 rushing yards) and quarterback Zac Robinson (116 rushing yards) all eclipsed the 100-yard rushing plateau, marking the first time in school history that three Cowboys rushed for 100 yards or more in the same game.

With just under 1:40 remaining in the game and Texas Tech leading, 45-42, Robinson, who connected on 16-of-32 passes for 211 yards in the game, found tight end Brandon Pettigrew for a 54-yard touchdown pass that amounted to game winner.

Game Notes

- :: Dantrell Savage returned to the lineup after missing the previous two games due to injury and bounced back by logging a career-high 25 carries.

Stillwater, Okla. - Oklahoma State racked up 584 yards of offense en route to a 39-3 win over Sam Houston State in front of 41,139 fans at Boone Pickens Stadium.

OSU took a 7-0 lead on its first possession on a 29-yard scoring strike from Robinson to Adarius Bowman, and the Cowboys made it 14-3 on an 18-yard touchdown grab by Dantrell Savage.

The Cowboys took a 17-3 advantage into the halftime locker room after a Jason Ricks field goal late in the second quarter.

OSU scored their final 22 points in the third quarter. Perrish Cox's 49-yard punt return for a touchdown pushed the Cowboys' lead to 25-3, and Julius Crosslin and Kendall Hunter added touchdown runs to provide the game's final margin.

Bowman finished with 141 yards and a score on eight receptions. The game marked the fourth 100-yard receiving effort of his career.

Game Notes

:: One of the storylines entering the game was the return of Sam Houston State quarterback Rhett Bomar to the state of Oklahoma. The Cowboys defense did not allow the former OU signal caller to lead his team into the end zone at any point during the game.

:: Zac Robinson engineered a 95-yard drive during the third quarter that resulted in a Kendall Hunter touchdown run. The drive marked OSU's longest scoring drive of the year.

College Station, Texas - Oklahoma State held a 17-0 halftime lead but Texas A&M surged past the Cowboys in the second half to pick up a 24-23 win at Kyle Field on Oct. 6.

OSU opened the scoring with a bang when running back Dantrell Savage threaded a 29-yard touchdown pass through two Aggie defenders and into the hands of Adarius Bowman in the end zone with 10:32 remaining in the second quarter. Bowman struck again when quarterback Zac Robinson found him for a 47-yard strike that put the Cowboys up 14-0. Kicker Jason Ricks connected on one of his three field goals on the day with 26 seconds remaining in the first half to send OSU into the locker room with a 17-0 advantage.

From that point, however, Texas A&M took over. The Aggies held the Cowboys without a touchdown in the second half and scored on four of their five second-half drives, with the fifth drive ending when Texas A&M simply ran out the clock to end the game.

Savage carried the ball 21 times for 110 yards and hauled in five receptions for 47 yards, with Bowman making seven catches for 142 yards and to lead the Cowboys. Robinson completed 10-of-17 passes for 158 yards and a touchdown before leaving the game in the fourth quarter with a head injury. He did not return to the contest. Robinson's injury wasn't the only one to impact the game, as OSU linebacker Chris Collins did not make the trip to College Station while continuing to recover from the injury he sustained against Texas Tech.

Game Notes

:: The Cowboys rushed for 200 yards and passed for 259 yards against the Aggies.

:: Adarius Bowman's seven catches increased his career total to 98, which moved him past Alonzo Mayes, Rafael Denson, Curtis Mayfield, T.D. Bryant and Dick Graham and into sole possession of sixth place on the all-time OSU receptions chart.
