COVERING KICKOFFS

Texas A&M's kickoff coverage unit has emerged as the Big 12's best. Led by the long kickoffs from strong-legged sophomore placekicker Matt Szymanski, A&M's opponents have an average starting spot of the 21-yard line despite the new NCAA rule that moved kickoffs back five yards. Szymanski averages 67.1 yards on his kickoffs and A&M's net kickoff average is 48.5, which leads the conference by more than two yards.

OLD SCHOOL TIGHT END

For some tight ends, their value can be measured simply by looking at their receptions total at the end of a game. But that's not the case with the Aggies' MARTELLUS BENNETT, who might be the nation's best block/catch tight end.

When asked what defines him as a tight end, Bennett says, "My knuckles are dirty. If you want to be called a tight end, show me some dirty hands."

Bennett has always impressed with his blocking skills, both at the point of attack and down the field. The 6-foot-7, 255-pounder has over 50 knockdown blocks this season and is also the Aggies' receptions leader with 24 catches for 276 yards.

Adds A&M tight end coach MARK TOMMER-DAHL: "In Martellus we have a tight end who is presently our leading receiver and he likes to block. He's a true tight end who wants to be in the game every play, and he understands the importance of his blocking ability to our team and his future. As he matures, he is focusing on improving his practice habits and finishing. When you define the position tight end in its truest sense, he certainly can become the complete package."

SPECIAL "K"

The insertion of senior cornerback MARQUIS "K" CARPENTER has been a boon for the Aggie defense. For the season, Carpenter has contributed a team-high three interceptions and three other passes broken up.

Big 12 Interceptions List

RK	Player, School	Interceptions

GORRER OUT FOR SEASON

Junior cornerback DANNY GORRER, the Aggies' most experienced defensive back with 24 starts, suffered a season-ending injury to his left knee against Texas Tech, A&M head coach DENNIS FRANCHIONE announced on the Big 12 conference call. Franchione also mentioned sophomore JORDAN PETERSON and junior ARKEITH BROWN as possible replacements.

Gorrer contributed 30 tackles and broke up a pass while starting every game for the Aggies in 2007.

1,000-YARD RUSHERS

The Aggies' JORVORSKIE LANE (1,765), STEPHEN MCGEE (1,445) and MIKE GOODSON (1,280) have all surpassed the 1,000-yard barrier in career rushing yards. The threesome has also rushed for 4,490 career yards and scored 55 rushing touchdowns.

In addition, the threesome has combined to rush for 1,422 yards on 275 carries (5.2 yards per carry) in 2007.

MONEY MEN

STEPHEN MCGEE, JORVORSKIE LANE and MIKE GOODSON have been nearly automatic on third- and fourth-down rushes. The trio have produced a "money play" on 36 of 49 rushing attempts on third and fourth down. Lane is 20-for-21, McGee is 14-for-21 and Goodson is 4-of-8.

McKING OF THE ROAD

Quarterback STEPHEN MCGEE has a career 5-3 record in starts away from the friendly confines of Kyle Field. Prior to McGee's ascension to starting quarterback, the Aggies were 3-13 in games away from Kyle in the Dennis Franchione era.

For his career, McGee is 4-1 in starts in Big 12 road games.

CLIMBING THE CHARTS

Senior KERRY FRANKS, the Big 12's top kick returner in 2006, continues his climb up the Aggies' kickoff return charts.

BLOCK PARTY

Defensive tackle Red Bryant's third-quarter field goal block against Texas Tech was the first of the Dennis Franchione era. It was the first field goal block by the Aggies since Johnny Jolly batted down a Texas three-point try by Dusty Mangum in 2002. Bryant does have experience blocking kicks, however, with a game-winning block of an extra point against Oklahoma State in overtime last year.

AGGIE STORY LINES

- Big back JORVORSKIE LANE credits the reading program READ180 and Lufkin High School teacher BETTY LEWING for his academic success in high school and subsequent improvement on his SAT score. The SAT score improvement allowed him to utilize his scholarship to Texas A&M and become one of the nation's most feared short-yardage backs. After Lane scored a school-record 19 touchdowns last season, Lewing attended the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl as his guest.
- Most people can't envision the 268-pound Lane as ever being small, but he was actually born premature and weighed just four pounds at birth. The J-TRAIN's grandmother says she could hold him in one hand.
- COACH FRAN and defensive coordinator GARY DARNELL have started calling the linebacker tandem of MARK DODGE, 26, and MISI TUPE, 25, the "GERITOL GANG". The tandem's combined 51 years of age make them the oldest pair of starting linebackers in the nation. Dodge served in the military before enrolling in college, while Tupe served a Mormon mission before arriving in Aggieland.
- Speaking of Geritol, noted geriatric linebacker MIKE FLYNT served as Texas A&M's head strength coach in 1979-80. At the age of 59, Flynt has made the football roster at Sul Ross University in Alpine, Texas.
- Forty-five of the Aggies' 64 multi-year scholarship players had the benefit of a redshirt season (69 percent). Every scholarship offensive and defensive lineman redshirted.
- The Aggies' safeties coach, BILL CLAY, is in his 40th season as a football coach. Clay's first coaching job was at Ganby High School in Norfolk, Va., in 1965.
- Quarterback STEPHEN MCGEE, a junior in football eligibility, graduated with a degree in marketing earlier this summer -- just three and one-half years after arriving on campus as an early enrollee in January 2004.
- McGee and tight end JOEY THOMAS were two of 14 current or past Aggie gridders to receive their diplomas at the August commencement ceremonies.
- Wide receiver HOWARD MORROW and linebacker MATT FEATHERSTON were the football winners of the 2007 "Off-Season Warrior" competition implemented by A&M director of performance nutrition AMY BRAGG. Morrow added seven pounds of muscle while dropping 6.8 percent of body fat. Featherston shaved 15 pounds of body fat while adding eight pounds of muscle.
- There are a pair of brother tandems on the 2007 roster: MICHAEL and MARTELLUS BENNETT (Alief, Texas) and JAMIE and TERRENCE MCCOY (Midland, Texas).
- Other Aggie bloodlines include: CHRIS HARRINGTON (Uncle Dave Elmendorf was an All-American in 1970 and currently serves as the analyst for Aggies' radio network); JERROD JOHNSON (father Larry Johnson was a wide receiver/defensive back for the Aggies); NICK LAMANTIA (brother Michael was a walkon linebacker in the early 2000's); EARVIN TAYLOR (brother Jamaar grabbed 108 catches from 2001-03); SPENCER ROBNETT (grandfather Ed Robnett and great uncle Marshall Robnett played on 1939 National Championship team. Marshall was first-team All-American and finished No.9 in the 1940 Heisman voting).
- Offensive center KEVIN MATTHEWS' father, BRUCE, was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame last summer. Matthews was a 14-time Pro Bowl selection as an offensive lineman for the Houston Oilers and Tennessee Titans.

- Coach Fran's son, BRAD FRANCHIONE, is the head coach at Blinn College, which is located in nearby Brenham, Texas. Last season, Brad Franchione's Buccaneers won the NJCAA Championship and he was named NJCAA Coach of the Year.

ROSTER UPDATES

- DANNY GORRER suffered a torn left ACL against Texas Tech, and is lost for the rest of the season.
- NICK LAMANTIA, the Aggies' main 12th Man in 2006, has shifted from linebacker to fullback, and saw his first-ever action at fullback against Fresno State. He switched his jersey number from #55 to #44.
- Wide receiver E.J. SHANKLE and quarterback JEFF WOOD switched jersey numbers. Shankle now wears #10, while Wood wears #9.
- Former linebacker JODIE RICHARDSON also made the move to fullback during the 2006 season and is listed as CHRIS ALEXANDER's backup.
- DAVID TUFUGA, a defensive lineman from West Jordan, Utah, was a late addition to the Aggies' 2007 signing class. Tufuga transferred from Snow College in Utah.
- JORDAN PUGH, a backup cornerback in 2006, shifted to the "Whip" during the spring and is listed as the starter going into the 2007 season.
- JOHNATHAN BATSON, who was a safety in 2006, has shifted to cornerback for 2007. Because of depth at the position and his late position change, Batson is a candidate to redshirt this season.
- CHRIS SMITH moved from defensive end to defensive tackle during the spring and is pushing for playing time at the position this fall.

BAND OF BROTHERS

The Aggies' "Band of Brothers" offensive line has paved the way for the Big 12's top rushing attack.

Four of the Aggies' five offensive line starters — CODY WALLACE, KIRK ELDER, COREY CLARK and CHRIS YODER — were members of Coach Fran's initial signing class. The fifth-year senior foursome has combined to start 123 career games. Add in junior starter Travis Schneider and the starting five has 135 career starts.

DISRUPTIVE DE

Senior defensive end CHRIS HARRINGTON continues to be the Aggies' most disruptive player on the defense.

Harrington, a member of a variety of watch lists for national awards, is among team leaders in tackles for losses, sacks and forced fumbles.

It is more of the same for the second-most famous graduate of Houston St. Pius High School (behind Houston Texans head coach and former A&M leading passer GARY KUBIAK). Harrington led the team in sacks, tackles for loss and forced fumbles in 2006 and was among the leaders in PBU's.

TOTAL QUARTERBACKS

Three of Texas A&M's four top season total offense outputs have been produced by quarterbacks during the Dennis Franchione era,

LEADERSHIP COUNCIL '07 —

Every spring after spring drills, the Aggies vote on the Leadership Council, which head coach Dennis Franchione brought to Texas A&M in 2003. The Leadership Council, which Franchione first established as head coach at New Mexico, consists of players who serve in an advisory role.

"These players are selected by their teammates and they are an input group, not a policy-making group," Coach Fran said. "Input from our players is very important in determining the way we operate."

CONCENTRATING THEIR EFFORTS

Tight end MARTELLUS BENNETT and quarterback JERROD JOHNSON both gave up Aggie basketball last spring, so they could concentrate on football.

Bennett, one of the favorites for the John Mackey Tight End Award, played in four basketball games last season, while Johnson saw action in three contests. As a freshman in 2005-06, Bennett was the first Aggie to letter in football and basketball since BILLY BOB BARNETT in 1969.

ACTIVE TACKLERS

The Aggies have 11 defenders with more than 50 career tackles, including six who have surpassed the century mark in career tackles.

COACHING STAFF

COACH FRAN RANKS AMONG THE WINNINGEST COACHES —

The 26th head football coach in Texas A&M history, DENNIS FRANCHIONE is in his fifth season in Aggieland and his 25th season as a collegiate head coach. Franchione has compiled a 30-25 record at Texas A&M.

With a career record of 185-98-2 as a head coach, Coach Fran is tied for sixth-winningest active Div. 1-A head coach in college football (by total wins).

Texas A&M is the seventh stop for Franchione as a collegiate head coach. He coached previously at Southwestern (Kan.) College (1981-82), Pittsburg State (1985-89), Southwest Texas State (1990-91), New Mexico (1992-97), TCU (1998-2000) and Alabama (2001-02). He also served as an assistant coach at Kansas State (1978-80) and Tennessee Tech (1983-84).

Franchione has won eight conference championships and a divisional crown in his 23 seasons. In 2002, Franchione's Alabama squad had the best record in the SEC West but were ineligible for the crown.

2007 GAME SUMMARIES

Montana State 7

(No. 25/25) Texas A&M 38

COLLEGE STATION, Texas- The largest crowd to ever see the Aggies kickoff a season at Kyle Field piled into the stadium on a hot, Texas Saturday night and were treated to a dominant 31-point victory over the Montana State Bobcats. The 79,438 fans in attendance included over 30,000 riled-up, maroon clad students in an overflowing student section. The Aggie faithful were treated to an incredibly efficient offensive performance as the Aggies averaged an impressive 6.7 yards per play scoring 38 points on only 58 offensive snaps. The defense didn't disappoint either allowing the Bobcats only seven points while forcing a pair of clutch turnovers in the red zone to squelch potential Montana State scoring drives. The Bobcats recorded their lone score of the game on their first possession when Jack Rolovich hit tight end Elliott Barnhart for an eight yard scoring strike. From that point on, the Aggie defense held as Montana State came up empty on their final 13 possessions of the night. It didn't take the Aggies long to answer as Kerry Franks returned the ensuing kickoff 44 yards and Matt Szymanski drilled a 34 yard field goal just five plays later to cut the Montana State lead to four. When the defense returned to the field, they forced the first of seven Bobcat punts to put the ball back in the hands of the lethal Aggie offense. It took Stephen McGee and company just two plays to cover 71 yards and take the lead for good. McGee logged the big play of the drive as he scored on a 65-yard touchdown scamper that marked the longest run of his career. The junior quarterback led the Aggies in rushing with 121 yards on nine carries. The teams traded punts on the next few possessions before the Aggies embarked on the final scoring drive of the first half. On the drive Texas A&M needed only eight plays to cover 70 yards and stretch their lead to 17-7. Smash mouth football was the theme of the drive as the Aggies moved the ball the whole way on the ground with the three-headed rushing attack of McGee and running backs Mike Goodson and Jorvorskie Lane. For the game, the three aforementioned rushers combined for 226 yards on the ground and an impressive 7.8 yards per carry. On the opening drive of the second half it was more of the same for the Aggies as they used just six plays and less than two minutes to increase their lead to 24-7. Stephen McGee hit Martellus Bennett for three consecutive receptions to spark the drive and Mike Goodson finished it off with an electric 18 yard touchdown dash. After two more unsuccessful drives from the Bobcats the Aggies scored yet again as Stephen McGee rushed his way into the end zone for his second touchdown of the night. Texas A&M's defense proved to be just as strong in the fourth quarter as they had been all night in shutting down the Bobcats. Senior linebacker, Mark Dodge and senior defensive end, Chris Harrington led the defensive attack for the Aggies. Dodge recorded 14 stops to top the tackle chart for the Aggies for the third time in the last four games dating back to last season's Nebraska game. Harrington ended the night with nine tackles, a sack and a forced fumble. For the Aggies final scoring drive of the night, highly touted freshman quarterback Jerrod Johnson guided the offense down the field and connected with fellow freshman Terrence McCoy for a 17 yard scoring strike. Following the touchdown, Texas A&M head coach Dennis Franchione sent in an all 12th Man kickoff team to cover the final kickoff. With the win the Aggies improve to 1-0 while Montana State falls to 0-1. (Story by Brian DeSpain)

GAME 2

Fresno State 45

(No. 23/23) Texas A&M 47 (3 OT)

COLLEGE STATION, Texas- It took the first triple overtime game in college history and a little over four hours but the Texas A&M Aggies beat the Fresno State Bulldogs to remain unbeaten on the young season. The Aggies racked up 318 yards on the ground and got four touchdowns from Jorvorskie Lane to dispense of the Bulldogs 47-45 on a blistering hot Saturday afternoon in front of over 75,000 fans and a regional television audience. The Aggies jumped out to a 19-0 halftime lead behind stellar defense and touchdowns from Doak Walker Award candidates Lane and Mike Goodson. The Bulldogs came roaring back in the third however as they scored two touchdowns in the quarter to cut the Aggie lead to 22-14. Things really got interesting in the fourth as Fresno State sandwiched two more touchdowns around Jorvorskie Lane's second touchdown of the afternoon to knot the score at 29 at the end of regulation and send the game into overtime. After winning the coin toss and electing to play defense first, Fresno State held the Aggies to a 27-yard Matt Szymanski field goal, his third of the game. On the Bulldogs first overtime play, quarterback Tom hit Marlon Moore who dashed to the one yard line before Marquis Carpenter forced him to fumble into the end zone and the waiting arms of Devin Gregg. However, a roughing the passer penalty nullified the play and the Bulldogs were given the ball first and ten on the Aggie 12 yard line. The Aggie defense came up clutch and held the Bulldogs to a game-tying field goal. In the second overtime Fresno State put the pressure on as six straight runs by Anthony Harding landed the Bulldogs in the end zone and forced the Aggies to score a touchdown on their possession to force a third overtime. Texas A&M did just that as they ran the ball right down the throat of the defense to tie the score once again and force a third overtime. The big play of the possession came when Stephen McGee gutted his way down field for a 12 yard gain and a first down. McGee led all Aggie rushers for the second game in a row as he racked up 124 yards on only 16 carries. Lane capped off the drive with his third touchdown of the game. In the third overtime Lane was the hero again as he covered the final 14 yards on four carries and blasted his way into the end zone for his fourth touchdown of the game. After the score the Aggies were required by rule to go for two so naturally the ball went Lane again and he didn't disappoint as he darted into the end zone practically untouched to put the Aggies up by eight. For the afternoon Lane carried 23 times for 121 yards and scored career touchdown numbers 30, 31, 32 and 33 which moves him into a tie for fifth place all-time in school history with Greg Hill. Lane is only 11 touchdowns shy of the school record for rushing touchdowns set by Darren Lewis from 1987-1990. The Bulldogs scored a touchdown of their own in the third overtime but could not come up with the two-point conversion as Tom Brandstater's pass fell incomplete in the end zone and the Aggies celebrated a hard fought 47-45 victory. With the win Texas A&M improves to 2-0 while Fresno State falls to 1-1. (Story by Brian DeSpain)

GAME 3

Louisiana-Monroe 14

(No. 25/18) Texas A&M 54

COLLEGE STATION, Texas- Stephen McGee threw for 237 yards and a touchdown as the Aggies racked up 547 yards of total offense to easily defeat Louisiana-Monroe 54-14 in front of over 77-thousand maroon clad Aggies. McGee completed 19 of 33 passes including six for 98 yards to pre-season All-American tight end Martellus Bennett to pace the high powered Aggie offense that is averaging just under 50 points a game. The Aggies drew first blood when Jorvorskie Lane scored his sixth touchdown of the season to cap an 11-play 57-yard drive. The Warhawks responded quickly however as Calvin Dawson scored on a one yard run to knot the score at seven. After the Dawson touchdown, the Aggie offense exploded and reeled of 34 unanswered points to put the game away for good. Matt Szymanski started the scoring run for the Aggies as he drilled a 45-yard field goal in the closing minute of the first quarter. On the Aggies next two drives, the crash and flash running back duo of Jorvorskie Lane and Mike Goodson traded touchdown runs to push the Aggie lead to 24-7. On the evening Goodson ran for 113 yards on only 11 carries and Lane scored the 34th and 35th touchdowns of his career. Szymanski rounded out the first half scoring with a 19-yard field goal to send the Aggies to the locker room up 27-7. Jordan Peterson and Misi Tupe both came up with clutch first half interceptions in the red zone to stop potential Louisiana-Monroe scoring drives. The second half was more of the same for the Ags as Stephen McGee hit Kerry Franks for a 20-yard scoring strike to cap off an 8 play 80-yard drive. On the drive McGee was 4-5 for 77 yards and the touchdown. The defense continued to play well to start the second half as they forced the Warhawks to punt on their first two second half possessions. On the Aggies next drive, Stephen McGee hooked up with Martellus Bennett for a four yard gain on fourth and three in Louisiana-Monroe territory before handing the offense over to Jerrod Johnson for the rest of the night. The highly touted Johnson didn't disappoint as he continued the offensive assault down the field and capped the drive with a seven yard touchdown run. To start the fourth quarter, the Warhawks were finally able to add some points to the board as Frank Goodin scored on a one yard run. Prior to the scoring drive, the Aggie defense had held the Warhawks scoreless

2007 GAME SUMMARIES

on six consecutive possessions. Leading the defensive attack for the Aggies were Jordan Pugh and Arkeith Brown, who both recorded eight tackles. For the evening, 36 different Aggies contributed at least one tackle. On the Aggies' ensuing offensive possession, Johnson and company needed just five plays to reach pay dirt and put the Aggies on top 48-14. After forcing yet another Louisiana-Monroe punt, the Aggies again scored quickly as Keondra Smith dove into the end zone for the first touchdown of his career. The key to the drive was back to back runs by Cornell Tarrant totaling 40 yards. Tarrant ran for 69 yards on only 4 carries for an incredible 17.3 yards per carry average. The touchdown run by Smith pushed the Aggies final victory margin to 54-14. With the win Texas A&M improves to 3-0 while Louisiana-Monroe falls to 0-3. (Story by Brian DeSpain)

(No. 20/16) Texas A&M 17 Miami (Fla.) 34

MIAMI, Florida- In the Aggies first trip to the historic Orange Bowl in more than 60 years and in front of a prime-time national television audience, the Miami Hurricanes jumped out to an early lead and wouldn't relinquish it in handing the Aggies their first loss of the season. After the stingy Hurricane defense forced the Aggies to go three-and-out on their first offensive possession, Ray Guy Award candidate Justin Brantly boomed a 50 yard punt to pin the Hurricanes back at their own 20. Despite forcing the Hurricanes into several third and long situations, the defense was unable to get off the field as Miami put together an 18-play, 80-yard scoring drive. The Aggies' ensuing offensive possession showed promise as they quickly moved the ball into Canes territory but an incomplete pass forced the Aggies to punt again. Backed up deep in their own territory, the Canes managed just 16 yards before Mark Dodge forced a fumble that would be recovered by Alton Dixon at the Miami 39. Dodge turned in a big night defensively with 9 tackles, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. The Aggies failed to capitalize on the turnover as a 50-yard field goal attempt from Matt Szymanski just missed. The missed opportunity would turn out to be costly for Texas A&M as the Hurricanes would score on their next three possessions to take a 24-0 lead into the locker room for halftime. To start the second half, the Aggies forced two punts and a fumble on the Hurricanes first three possessions but again were not able to capitalize. On the Hurricanes last drive of the third quarter, quarterback Kyle Wright threw a seven yard scoring strike to put Miami up 31-0. The Aggies refused to go quietly however as they took the ball on their next possession and got on the board with a Matt Szymanski 32 yard field goal. The big play of the drive came when Stephen McGee hit Mike Goodson for a 30-yard aerial strike. On the evening McGee threw for 109 yards. On the Canes ensuing possession, freshman Billy Chavis forced yet another Miami fumble. The Aggies forced three fumbles on the evening, recovering all three. The turnover led to a 6 play, 39-yard scoring drive for the Aggies capped by a 1 yard touchdown run from Stephen McGee. The Hurricanes would add a few insurance points on their next drive with a 23-yard field goal to run the score to 34-10. On the Aggies final offensive possession, Jerrod Johnson took a crack at the Hurricane defense and led the Aggies on a 54-yard scoring drive that took just over two minutes. On the fifth play of the drive, Johnson hit all-Big 12 tight end Martellus Bennett for a 33-yard touchdown strike to round out the game's scoring at 34-17. (Story by Brian DeSpain).

GAME 5

Baylor 10 Texas A&M 34

COLLEGE STATION, Texas- Jorvorskie Lane plowed his way to 123 yards rushing and Stephen McGee racked up 310 yards of total offense as the Aggies defeated the Baylor Bears in front of over 82,000 fans on a hot Saturday afternoon at Kyle Field. The victory marks the 65th time in school history that the Aggies have defeated the Bears. Texas A&M dominated from the opening kickoff but had a hard time putting points on the board early. The offense racked up 270 yards in the first half but came away with only 10 points to show for it. Matt Szymanski started the game's scoring with a 28 yard field goal on the Aggie's second offensive possession. On the last play of the first quarter, Baylor kicker Caleb Allen booted a field goal of his own to tie the score at three. The score would remain knotted until mighty Mike Goodson took a screen pass from quarterback Stephen McGee 58 yards to the house. Goodson broke five tackles on the game-changing reception that would ignite the Aggie offense and give Texas A&M a 10-3 lead going into halftime. Throughout the first half, the Aggie defense was dominant allowing Baylor only 72 yards and two first downs. After forcing yet another Baylor three and out, the Aggies marched 85 yards in just 9 plays to go ahead 17-3. Jorvorskie Lane capped the drive with his 33rd career touchdown. For the drive McGee was 3-3 for 69 yards. The big play came when he hit wide receiver Kerry Franks for 48 yards. Franks finished the game with three catches for 80 yards. For the night McGee threw for 200 yards and added another 110 on the ground in leading the explosive offensive attack. On Baylor's ensuing drive, cornerback Marquis Carpenter picked off his second pass of the night and set up a Matt Szymanski 23 yard field goal to increase the Aggie lead to 20-3. The two interceptions for Carpenter gave him seven for his career at Texas A&M. On Baylor's first possession of the fourth quarter, running back Jay Finley plunged in from three yards out for the Bears' lone touchdown of the afternoon. Two possessions later, the Aggie's responded on the back of the three headed monster rushing attack of Goodson, Lane and McGee. The Aggie's drove 58 yards on 11 plays, all of which came on the ground. McGee capped the drive with a two-yard scoring run, his fourth touchdown run of the season, to make the score 27-10. When the Baylor offense returned to the field, aggie safety Alton Dixon forced the third Bear turnover of the night and safety Kenny Brown recovered the fumble to set up yet another Aggie scoring drive. This time it was backup quarterback Jerrod Johnson that blasted into the end zone for his second rushing touchdown of the season. Johnson has now led the Aggies to five touchdowns in his six drives of quarterback duty this season. Linebacker Mark Dodge led the dominating defensive effort for the Aggies as he notched five tackles, including one for a loss of three yards and broke up two passes. The returning all-Big 12 selection is averaging over 9 tackles a game for the Aggies. (Story by Brian DeSpain)

GAME 6

Oklahoma State 23 Texas A&M 24

COLLEGE STATION, Texas- Texas A&M used 24 second half points to erase a 17 point Oklahoma State lead and move into sole possession of first place in the Big 12 South. The Aggies found themselves down 17-0 at the half but used an offensive explosion and a stellar second half by the defense to post the largest second half comeback in school history. The Cowboys jumped to an early lead on the back of two touchdown catches from Adarius Bowman and a Jason Ricks 32 yard field goal. The Aggies looked like a different team after halftime however as they took the opening kickoff of the half and drove 70 yards to set up a 22 yard Matt Szymanski field goal. Junior quarterback Stephen McGee ignited the offense to start the drive as he hit Pierre Brown for 16 yards and then Martellus Bennett for 19 yards on the first two plays of the drive. McGee for the evening connected on 11 of 20 passes for 168 yards and a touchdown as he directed the comeback effort. On the ensuing kickoff, swarming coverage from 12th Man Nick LaMantia pinned the Cowboys deep much to the delight of the above capacity crowd of 86,217. The 86-thousand plus in attendance erupted on the next play when defensive tackle Red Bryant forced a fumble and safety Alton Dixon recovered at the OSU 17 yard line. Jorvorskie Lane ran untouched into the endzone six plays later to cut the Oklahoma State lead to 17-10. The Cowboys would not go quietly into the night however as they drove 75 yards in 15 plays to set up Jason Ricks' second field goal of the game, this one from 25 yards out. The Aggies first drive of the fourth quarter was the Jorvorskie Lane show as he hit wide out Kerry Franks on a perfectly executed halfback pass to set up first and goal for the Aggies on the Oklahoma State one yard line. Franks caught four passes for 120 yards in the third 100 yard receiving game of his career. Lane blasted into the endzone on the next play to put an exclamation point on the drive. For the game Lane accounted for 161 yards of total offense and three touchdowns. Just halfway through his junior year Lane is only 6 rushing touchdowns shy of the school record set by Darren Lewis from 1987-1990. After Mark Dodge and company forced the Cowboys to punt, the offense needed just 6 plays to move 61 yards and score the go ahead touchdown. The big play of the drive came when Stephen McGee hit Jorvorskie Lane for a 10 yard touchdown on a screen pass to put the Aggies ahead for good. On the Cowboys next drive, kicker Jason Ricks struck again with another 25 yard field goal to cut the Aggies' lead to 24-23 with just over three minutes to play. The Cowboys forced the Aggies to go three and out but on fourth down a roughing the punter penalty gave the Aggies a fresh set of downs and the opportunity to run out the clock to claim their 10th victory in the last 12 games against Oklahoma State. GAME 7

Texas A&M 7 Texas Tech 35

LUBBOCK, Texas- Stephen McGee racked up 222 yards of total offense and the defense held the lethal Texas Tech offense well under its season scoring average but it wasn't enough as the Aggies fell to the Red Raiders 35-7 in front of the third largest home crowd in Texas Tech history. The Aggies dominated the first quarter as they took an early 7-0 lead. After forcing the Red Raiders to punt on their first possession, the Aggies methodically drove down the field for the first score of the day. The drive covered 73 yards in 10 plays and came entirely on the ground. Aggie rushers ran through gaping holes created by the senior clad offensive line anchored by Rimington Award candidate Cody Wallace and returning all-Big 12 guard Kirk Elder. Texas A&M never faced a third down on the drive as they averaged over 7 yards per rush. Jorvorskie Lane capped the drive with his 11th rushing touchdown of the season. Lane has now scored in six of the Aggie's seven games this season and is only five rushing touchdowns shy of the school record for rushing touchdowns in a career. On Texas Tech's ensuing possession, the Aggie defense again forced the Red Raiders to punt. This marked the first time all season that Tech had been forced to punt on two consecutive possessions. The Aggies next drive showed just as much promise as they drove 70 yards in just 8 plays before stalling and having to settle for a 41 yard field goal attempt. The field goal attempt sailed wide and the Aggie lead remained 7-0. The big play of the drive came when McGee hit junior tight end Martellus Bennett for an 18 yard gain. Bennett now has a catch in 25 straight games, one shy of the school record set by Terrence Murphy from 2002-2004. The Red Raiders offense started clicking on their next drive however as they drove 76 yards on 9 plays to knot the score at 7-7. The next offensive possession wasn't as kind to the maroon and white as they went three and out and set the Red Raiders up with excellent field position. Graham Harrell and company took advantage as they scored six plays later to go ahead 14-7. The Aggie's final drive of the half again showed promise as they drove deep into Texas Tech territory before missing another field goal. The explosive Tech offense took advantage of the miscue as they marched 80 yards to tack on another touchdown before the half and took a 21-7 lead into the locker room. The teams battled to a scoreless third quarter with the only real scoring threat being squelched by Aggie senior defensive lineman Red Bryant. The Red Raiders had driven 76 yards to set up a 22 yard field goal attempt for Alex Trlica, but Bryant got excellent penetration and blocked the second kick of his career. Texas Tech would tack on two touchdowns during the fourth quarter to run the final margin of victory to 35-7. With the win Texas Tech improves to 6-1 (2-1) while Texas A&M falls to 5-2 (2-1). The Aggies are in a four-way tie for first place in the Big 12 South with Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and Texas Tech. (Story by Brian DeSpain)
