HOKIES
3-1, 2-0 ACC

Memorial Stadium/Osborne Field

Lincoln, Neb.

Series vs. NU: NU leads, 1-0
Series Streak: NU, one

1994, when the former Big Eight Conference merged with four Texas schools that had been members of the Southwest Conference, which had just disbanded.

♦ This will be the farthest west, longitudinally, Tech has traveled for a regular season game since playing at Oklahoma's Memorial Stadium in 1991 (-97.442511). Tech played at Texas A&M's Kyle Field (-96.34192) in 2002. Nebraska's Osborne Field sits at -96.705639, just west of College Station, Texas.

FAMILIAR WITH THE PELINIS

♦ While this may be Bo Pelini's first year as the head coach of the Cornhuskers, both he and his brother, Carl, have some experience against the Hokies. Bo was the defensive coordinator at LSU the past three seasons and faced Tech last year at home, helping lead the Tigers to a 48-7 victory.

♦ Carl, who serves as the defensive coordinator/defensive line coach for Nebraska, spent the last three years as the defensive line coach at Ohio University. Last year, just one week after losing to LSU, the Hokies took on that Ohio team, beating OU 28-7 at home. Carl and the Bobcats also faced the Hokies in 2005 with Tech prevailing 45-0 at Blacksburg.

BIG 12 TIES

♦ Since the start of the Bowl Championship Alliance in 1995 (now the BCS), the Hokies are 6-3 in non-conference road games against members of this group. Five of the nine games were against Virginia (3-2) before the Hokies joined the ACC in 2004. Tech won at Clemson in 1998, won at Texas A&M in 2002 and won at West Virginia in 2005. The Hokies lost at UVa twice and at LSU last year.

THE SERIES

♦ Virginia Tech and Nebraska have met just once on the gridiron. That meeting came at the end of the 1996 season when the sixth-ranked Huskers beat the 10th-ranked Hokies 41-21 in the Orange Bowl.

♦ Nebraska is scheduled to return to Blacksburg for a game next season. This will be Tech's first game in the state of Nebraska.

BIG 12 TIES

♦ Tech is 5-7 against teams currently in the Big 12 Conference, including 3-3 under head coach Frank Beamer.

♦ Tech has played seven of the current Big 12 football schools in the program's history:

Kansas	0-1	last 2008
Kansas State	1-1	last 1968
Nebraska	0-1	last 1996
Oklahoma	0-1	last 1991
Oklahoma State	1-1	last 1972
Texas	1-0	last 1995
Texas A&M	2-2	last 2003

♦ The Hokies have played five road games at current Big 12 schools, beating Kansas State in 1967 and Texas A&M in 2002. Tech lost at Oklahoma State in 1971, at Texas A&M in 1976 and at Oklahoma in 1991. The Big 12 Conference was officially formed on Feb. 25,

COACH FRANK BEAMER

♦ Frank Beamer (Virginia Tech '69), whose Virginia Tech teams have posted a 146-46 record over the past 15-plus seasons and appeared in bowl games each year in that span, is in his 22nd year as the head football coach at Tech. Beamer has guided the Hokies to a 170-86-2 record.

He became Tech's winningest football coach in 1997 when Tech defeated Arkansas State and became the 47th coach in NCAA history (all divisions) to record 200 victories when Tech beat Ohio on Sept. 15, 2007.

Under Beamer, Tech football has enjoyed unprecedented success with 15 consecutive bowl appearances, two ACC titles, two ACC Coastal Division crowns, three BIG EAST Conference titles and a trip to the national championship game. Tech won the BIG EAST title in 1995 and 1999 and shared it in '96. Beamer was voted BIG EAST Coach of the Year by the league's coaches each of those seasons and was tabbed the ACC Coach of the Year in both 2004 and 2005.

In 1997, he was inducted into the Virginia Tech Sports Hall of Fame and following the 1999 season, he earned eight national coach of the year honors. Under Beamer, Tech has earned a top 10 ranking in the AP poll at some point during seven of the past eight years.

Last year, Tech won 11 games, an ACC title and was ranked as high as third in the country in the BCS.

In 2005, Tech won the ACC's Coastal Division and earned a spot in the league's inaugural championship game. The Hokies won a school-record tying 11 games, including the Toyota Gator Bowl, finishing the season ranked seventh in the country. For his efforts, he was awarded the league's coach of the year award for the second time in as many years.

The Opposing Coach

NU COACH BO PELINI

♦ Bo Pelini (Ohio State, '90) is off to a 3-0 start in his first year as the head coach of the Cornhuskers, but is 4-0 as the head coach in Lincoln.

♦ Pelini made the move for his first head coaching job after serving the past three years as the defensive coordinator at LSU, helping win a national championship last year.

♦ He first worked at Nebraska starting in 2003 as the defensive coordinator and served as the interim head coach for the Alamo Bowl, a 17-3 win over Michigan State.

♦ He then went to Oklahoma for a year as the defensive coordinater before going to LSU.

♦ Before joining the Huskers in 2003, Pelini had nine years of NFL experience, one season at a Division I university and one year in the high school ranks.

In 2004, Tech went a surprising 10-3 in a season highlighted by an eight-game winning streak that led to Tech's ACC championship and a trip to the Nokia Sugar Bowl.

During the 2000 season, the Hokies posted an 11-1 record that included a 41-20 win over Clemson in the Gator Bowl.

In 1999, Tech marched to an 11-0 regular-season mark before losing a hard-fought 46-29 game to Florida State for the national title in the Sugar Bowl. The Hokies ended the '99 season ranked No. 2 by AP.

Another highlight came when Tech beat Texas, 28-10, in the 1995 Sugar Bowl and finished 10-2. The bowl streak started in '93 when Tech beat Indiana in the Independence Bowl to cap a 9-3 season.

Beamer returned to his alma mater in December of 1986 after a six-year stint as the head coach at Murray State University, where he compiled a 42-23-2 mark.

During his undergraduate days at Tech, Beamer started three years as a cornerback and played on the Hokies' 1966 and 1968 Liberty Bowl teams.

The 61-year-old Hillsville, Va., native began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Maryland in 1972. He held assistant coaching positions at The Citadel and Murray State before being named MSU's head coach in 1981.

Beamer is married to the former Cheryl Oakley of Richmond, Va. They have two children, Shane, a former member of his dad's football team at Tech and now an assistant coach at the University of South Carolina; and daughter Casey, a 2003 graduate of Virginia Tech who now works for the Carolina Panthers of the NFL.

The Tech coach was born in Mt. Airy, N.C., and grew up in Hillsville, Va. At Hillsville High, he earned 11 varsity letters as a three-sport athlete in football, basketball and baseball.

Beamer, who is the third-winningest active coach in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) with 212 victories, had his No. 25 jersey retired by Tech in a pregame ceremony before the Marshall game in 2002.

STABILITY AT THE TOP

♦ Frank Beamer, the first Tech alumnus to guide Virginia Tech's football program since the 1940s, has coached and won more football games at Tech than any other coach.

♦ Only two of the 119 active Division I-A head football coaches have been at their current school longer than Beamer. Those coaches are: Joe Paterno (43rd yr., Penn State) and Bobby Bowden (33rd yr., Florida State).

♦ Prior to Beamer, no other grid coach in Tech history had served more than 10 seasons as head coach.

- Virginia Tech has won 10 or more games seven times over the last nine seasons.
- The Hokies have been ranked 10th or higher at some point in 12 of the past 15 seasons.

What's a Hokie?

That's the most often-asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics. The answer leads all the way back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body. Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Old Hokie" yell which still is used today.

Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the words he used had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention. Hokie soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.

Following is the "Old Hokie" yell in its original form:

Hoki, Hoki, Hoki Hy!
Tech! Tech! V.P.I.!
Sola-Rex Sola-Rah
Polytech-Vir-gin-i-a!!
Rae, Ri, V.P.I.

Just Virginia Tech, Please

While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as "Virginia Tech."

Founded in 1872, as Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, the university changed its named to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896.

Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech.

The "State University" was added in 1970 to bring the official title to what it is today.

Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply "Virginia Tech."

Virginia Tech University, VPI and SU, VPI&SU, VT or VA Tech are not recognized names and should not be used.

SCORING STREAK

‣ Tech has scored in a school record 166 straight football games, beginning with a win over Miami on Sept. 23, 1995. The streak began after a 16-0 loss to Cincinnati in 1995.

‣ The previous school record was 66 straight games, which started in 1970 and ran into the 1976 season.

‣ During its current streak, Tech has scored 13 or more points in all but seven games.

Fifteen Bowls in a Row

With its Orange Bowl appearance last year, Tech is now one of only four teams to go to 15 bowls in the last 15 seasons. The other three are the University of Florida, Florida State University and the University of Michigan.

IN ELITE COMPANY

‣ Virginia Tech (11 wins in 2007) is one of just three schools in the FBS to win 10 games in each of the last four years (2004-07).

‣ Only USC (11 wins in 2007) and Texas (10 wins in 2007) can also make that claim. Tech and USC are the only two to win 10 games or more in each of the last four REGULAR seasons.

TECH IN THE AP POLL

‣ Tech finished the 1999 season ranked No. 2 by the Associated Press and No. 3 by the coaches, and climbed as high as No. 2 in 2000 in both polls, both all-time highs.

‣ Tech has been ranked a total of 206 voting periods by the AP since the beginning of the 1993 season. When Frank Beamer took over in 1987, Tech had been ranked a total of 12 weeks during the first 49 years of the Associated Press poll.

‣ Virginia Tech has been ranked in 151 of the last 172 AP polls.

‣ The Hokies have achieved a ranking of 10th or higher at some point in 12 of the past 15 seasons.

Last Meeting: Huskers Wear Down Hokies in Orange Bowl

	No. 10 Virginia Tech	21
	No. 6 Nebraska	41

Pro Player Stadium ✦ Miami, Fla.
Dec. 31, 1996 ✦ Attendance: 51,212

MIAMI, Fla. - Virginia Tech's second venture into Bowl Alliance territory wasn't as successful as the first, but the Hokies' 41-21 loss to power-packed Nebraska, was much closer than the final scored indicated.

Nebraska out-gained Tech by just seven yards, 415 to 408, in total offense and managed to lead by only three points with less than one minute remaining in the third quarter. In the end, it was the Nebraska depth that wore down the Hokies.

A crowd of 51,212 at Pro Player Stadium saw Tech quarterback Jim Druckenmiller throw three touchdown passes despite a fierce rush by Cornhusker defenders. Tech opened the scoring with 3:14 left in the first quarter when Marcus Parker scored on a 19-yard screen pass from Druckenmiller.

Nebraska answered with a 25-yard field goal by Kris Brown and a 5-yard scoring run by quarterback Scott Frost. Then came the play that may have been most crucial in the Hokies' defeat. Druckenmiller fumbled when hit and Nebraska's Jason Peter scooped up the ball and ran 31 yards into the end zone. That made the score 17-7, Nebraska.

Tech came right back, scoring with just 19 seconds left in the half on a 6-yard pass from Druckenmiller to Shawn Scales, who took the ball away from a Cornhusker defender. The score was 24-21 in favor of Nebraska after Druckenmiller's 33-yard scoring pass to Cornelius White late in the third quarter. But Nebraska then salted the victory away, scoring the final 17 points.

Tailback Ken Oxendine was voted Tech's Most Valuable Player after running for 150 yards on 20 carries - the fifth best individual rushing performance in the bowl's history. Druckenmiller wound up completing 16 of 33 passes for 214 yards. The Hokies' top defensive player was safety Torrian Gray who had a total of 12 tackles.

Game 1: Late Rally Lifts Pirates to Win

	No. 17 Virginia Tech	22
	East Carolina	27

Bank of America Stadium ✦ Charlotte, N.C.
Aug. 30, 2008 ✦ Attendance: 72,169

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — East Carolina beat No. 17 Virginia Tech at its own game when T.J. Lee blocked a punt and returned it for the game-winning touchdown during the final two minutes of a 27-22 season-opening victory at Bank of America Stadium.

The Pirates, who fell behind 14-0 in the first half and trailed 22-13 with less than four minutes to go, used Tech miscues and the outstanding play of quarterback Pat Pinkney to position themselves for the win. ECU intercepted a Tech pass at its own 5-yard line to stop the Hokies' first possession and then used a pick at the Tech 20 to set up a crucial score just before the half. Pinkney threw for one TD and ran for another in the second half to pull his team within two points at 22-20 with 3:36 left.

Tech had a chance to get a big early jump, but failed to post points on trips inside the ECU 20 on its first two possessions. The Hokies still managed to build a 14-0 lead on a 30-yard fumble return by cornerback Stephan Virgil and a 6-yard run by tailback Kenny Lewis within a four-minute span of the second quarter. Lewis' score was set up by an ECU fumble on a kickoff.

ECU was poised to tie the game at 14-all in the third quarter, but Tech's John Graves blocked the extra point and Virgil returned it for a two-point defensive conversion.

Game Notes

✦ East Carolina's win in Charlotte snapped a six-game Virginia Tech winning streak in the series and was the Hokies' third loss in as many trips to the city of Charlotte.

✦ Ten players made their first collegiate starts for the Hokies in Charlotte. The first-time starters on offense were split end Danny Coale, right tackle Blake DeChristopher and flanker Dyrell Roberts. Defensively, cornerbacks Rashad Carmichael and Stephan Virgil, tackles John Graves and Cordarrow Thompson, end Jason Worilds, linebacker Purnell Sturdivant and rover Davon Morgan all made their debuts as starters.

✦ The Hokies had 0 penalty yards against the Pirates. The last time that happened was in a 1980 game against William & Mary.

Game 2: Big Third Quarter Leads to Tech Win

Furman	7
Virginia Tech	24

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.
Sept. 6, 2008 • Attendance: 66,233

BLACKSBURG — Virginia Tech scored three touchdowns in a three-minute span of the third quarter to win their 13th-consecutive home opener with a 24-7 decision against Furman University.

After managing just three points in an uneventful first half, the Hokies finally got things going their way in the third quarter. A 50-yard run by sophomore quarterback Tyrod Taylor moved Tech to the Furman 14 on its first possession of the half. Senior signal caller Sean Glennon took it from there, capping the drive with a 10-yard touchdown pass to Kenny Lewis, Jr., the first touchdown reception of his career.

Lewis scored again 85 seconds later after Tech's defense forced a fumble at the Furman 31. This time, the junior tailback scooted 23 yards up the middle to put the Hokies on top 17-0.

It took the Hokies just two plays to get the ball back, thanks to a Stephan Virgil interception and return to the Paladins' 9-yard line. Redshirt freshman tailback Darren Evans covered the final 9 yards on two carries to complete the 21-point outburst.

Taylor rushed for 112 yards in the game as the Hokies piled up 261 yards on the ground, including 104 in the third quarter. The Paladins passed for 213 yards but battled poor field position the entire game. Furman's average starting point was its own 16-yard line.

Game Notes

• Ike Whitaker made his first collegiate start at any position. Whitaker's start came as the third wide receiver in the Hokies' opening set.

• For the second game in a row, defensive tackle John Graves blocked a kick. Graves, who had a blocked extra point against East Carolina, blocked a Furman field goal.

• Senior Dustin Keys made his first collegiate field goal, a 22-yardder with 29 seconds left in the first half.

• Tech turned in its first 200-yard rushing game since piling up 224 yards against Clemson in 2006. The Hokies had 261 against Furman.

• Justin Myer handled the kickoff duties for Tech, becoming the ninth true freshman to see action for the Hokies.

Game 3: Hokies Prevail in Tight Conference Affair

Georgia Tech	17
Virginia Tech	20

Lane Stadium/Worsham Field • Blacksburg, Va.
Sept. 13, 2008 • Attendance: 66,233

BLACKSBURG — Virginia Tech drove 76 yards for a tie-breaking field goal and then held off Georgia Tech twice during the final four minutes to open Atlantic Coast Conference play with a 20-17 victory at Lane Stadium/Worsham Field.

The Hokies' winning drive was fueled by the running of redshirt freshman Darren Evans and two costly Georgia Tech penalties. The march ended at the Yellow Jackets' 4-yard line leading to a 21-yard field goal by Dustin Keys. Georgia Tech got two more cracks at the Hokies, but was stymied both times after compiling over 350 yards of offense over the first 56 minutes of play.

Georgia Tech erased a 17-9 deficit with an 81-yard fourth-quarter drive that quarterback Josh Nesbitt capped with an 18-yard touchdown run and a two-point extra point pass that tied the score with 9:28 remaining.

The visitors piled up 387 yards of offense to the home team's 247 yards, but offset that advantage by committing three turnovers and eight penalties.

Evans and quarterback Tyrod Taylor each contributed touchdowns for the Hokies, while Keys booted a pair of field goals. The Hokies did not commit a turnover in the game and had just three penalties.

Game Notes

• Defensive end Nekos Brown and tight end Chris Drager made their first collegiate starts in the game, while veteran Victor "Macho" Harris got a start on both offense and defense. Harris, the Hokies' regular starter at the boundary cornerback position, also got the nod at one of the starting wide receiver slots. It was his first appearance on offense for the Hokies.

• Georgia Tech's five pass completions were the fewest against the Hokies since 2005 when Duke had five. The nine passes attempted by the Yellow Jackets tied for the second-fewest against a Frank Beamer-coached Hokie team. Temple attempted nine passes in 1998, while Clemson tried just eight during a 1989 game with the Hokies.

• The Hokies' 48 yards passing were the fewest for a Virginia Tech team since throwing for just 44 yards in a win at Miami in 2003.

Game 4: Hokies Escape Chapel Hill With Close Win

Virginia Tech	20
North Carolina	17

Kenan Stadium ◆ Chapel Hill, N.C.
Sept. 20, 2008 ◆ Attendance: 59,800

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. — An inspired second-half rally gave Virginia Tech a crucial 20-17 ACC Coastal Division road win over the University of North Carolina at Kenan Stadium.

Trailing 17-3 late in the third quarter, the Hokies pulled themselves together with a 13-play, 89-yard drive that culminated with a 10-yard scoring run by redshirt freshman Darren Evans. A third-and-7 pass from quarterback Tyrod Taylor to freshman Dyrell Roberts that netted 15 yards proved to be the key play.

The Tech defense needed just two plays to get the ball back for the offense, forcing a fumble that was recovered on the UNC 30. It took Tech just five plays to tie the game with tailback Kenny Lewis, Jr., covering the final 11 yards with 13:46 remaining.

The Hokies completed their comeback with a 45-yard field goal by senior Dustin Keys at the 10:42 mark.

Tech then thwarted the Tar Heels' final two possessions with interceptions to complete one of the best comebacks of the Frank Beamer era in Blacksburg.

Game Notes

◆ Freshman receiver Jarrett Boykin made his first collegiate start, coming as the third receiver, while redshirt freshman Darren Evans made his first start as the Hokies started two tailbacks.

◆ Tech's comeback from 14 points down in the second half equaled the second biggest rally for a Tech team under Beamer. The Hokies rallied from a 15-point deficit at Virginia in 1995 and previously came back from 14 points down against Georgia Tech in 2004 and Syracuse in 2000.

◆ The Hokies failed to score in the first quarter for the sixth consecutive game, dating back to last year when they failed to score in the opening quarter of season-ending games against Boston College and Kansas. The last time Tech failed to score in four straight first quarters in one season was in 1981 under Coach Bill Dooley.

◆ Redshirt freshman tailback Darren Evans registered a rushing touchdown for the fourth straight game.

The Storied Lunch Pail

◆ Taken with the Hokies wherever they go is the storied lunch pail. The Pail served as the inspiration for Tech's record-setting 1995 defense, symbolizing Tech's blue collar approach to defensive football. Every year since, a member of the defense has been responsible for toting a new Pail to everything football-related.

◆ Coach Rod Sharpless, then the co-defensive coordinator along with Bud Foster, brought a lunch pail back from New Jersey and they decided that it would become the symbol of the 1995 defense. Sharpless' mother-in-law found the now famous original lunch pail in Mercerville, N.J., where it had belonged to a coal miner.

◆ The original Pail, along with an oversized replica, sits in Tech's Hall of Legends in the Merryman Center.

◆ That year, the players put their season and individual goals in the Pail and turf from road victories into the Pail as well. Now, the players put the unit goals, weekly goals, the keys to success for the week and sign a mission statement before the season … plus the turf from road wins.

◆ A new Pail is put into service about every two years since it goes through so much each season. This year's Pail is the sixth since 1995.

◆ Following Tech's loss to Boston College in 2006, Foster took the Pail away from the defense and sat it in his office. After that game, Tech's defense shot to No. 1 in the nation in total defense, scoring defense and passing defense, allowing just 29 points in the last six regular season contests. The Hokies finished 2006 No. 1 in the country in total defense for the second year in a row.

◆ In years' past, the top point getter from the previous week would be responsible for the Pail.

◆ Since Foster took over as defensive coordinator, the Tech defense has posted 25 shutouts, including one in 12 of the 13 seasons. Tech had two shutouts in 1995, one in 1996, two in 1997, three in 1998, two in 1999, one in 2000, four in 2001, one in 2002 and 2003, two in 2004 and 2005 and four in 2006.

◆ When not shut out, the opposition has been held to seven points or less 27 other times. That's 52 outputs of seven points or less given up in 168 games, an astounding 31 percent!

◆ Fans have started mailing and bringing by old lunch pails to Foster, who now has half a dozen Pails waiting to be used.

◆ Foster has taken his lunch pail mentality to a new level as last summer he got a tattoo of the Pail, a permanent reminder of his defensive attitude.

HOKIE STORY LINES

- Tyrod Taylor started five games at quarterback last season as a true freshman, becoming the first true freshman to start at quarterback for Tech since Todd Greenwood did it in 1982. Taylor went 5-0 in those starts.
- Taylor is the latest in a growing line of standout signal callers from the Peninsula area of Virginia. The Hampton product joins Allen Iverson and Ronald Curry from the same city, Bryan Randall from Williamsburg and both Michael and Marcus Vick from Newport News to go on to success at the next level from that area.
- Taylor, who played as a true freshman last year, was slated to redshirt this season, but the Hokies have given the reigns to Taylor.
- He came off the bench and rushed for 112 yards against Furman, the second 100-yard rushing performance of his career. He earned the start against Georgia Tech, leading the Hokies to a big conference win.
- He is second on the team right now with 221 yards rushing and a score. He is also

Punt Return - 82 yards; Eddie Royal at Clemson, 2007

24-for-40 on the year for 199 yards and two interceptions.

- Quarterback Sean Glennon is in the top 10 on two significant career charts at Virginia Tech. He currently stands in eventh place in total offense and sixth in passing yards (see chart at left).
- Glennon spent a week of his summer at the Manning Passing Academy in Thibodaux, La., as one of the camp counselors for the second year in a row working with Peyton and Eli Manning, the last two Super Bowl-winning quarterbacks.
- Glennon's younger brother, Mike, is a true freshman quarterback at NC State.

- The top two tailbacks heading into spring practice — Kenny Lewis, Jr., and Jahre Cheeseman — suffered serious injuries during the spring. Lewis underwent surgery for a torn labrum in his left shoulder and Cheeseman broke his left fibula in a scrimmage while being tackled. Both are back at 100 percent. Cheeseman has since moved to fullback and kickoff return.

- Kenny Lewis, Jr., spent several years in the Cincinnati Reds' organization, advancing to AA ball, before enrolling at Virginia Tech in January of 2006. He was a fourth-round pick in the 2003 MLB Amateur Draft and chose to go play with the Reds after signing with the Hokies in February of 2003.
- Lewis caught and ran for a touchdown against Furman. He has rushed for 149 yards in four games and has four total touchdowns.

- Darren Evans was the 2006 EA SPORTS National Player of the Year and a PARADE All-American as a running back his senior season after rushing for 2,806 yards and a state record 61 touchdowns, the No. 4 total in U.S. prep football history.
- After redshirting last year, he has made a quick impact on the Tech offense, rushing for a team-leading 264 yards and four scores - one in each game thus far.

- Tight end Greg Boone — at 280 pounds — is a former high school quarterback and safety who passed for 1,285 yards, rushed for 949 yards and accounted for 35 touchdowns his senior year. He has shown his arm many times, uncorking 70-yard passes at the team's walk-through and can throw a ball from one knee 55 yards on the fly.
- In preseason scrimmages, he lined up at tight end, wide receiver, fullback, on the punt team and H-Back, showing his versatility and athleticism.

- Two tight ends are coming back from torn

ACLs this season. Sam Wheeler was the starting tight end until he tore his ACL against Georgia Tech. Chris Drager tore his ACL in the William & Mary game and received a medical hardship waiver, making him a redshirt freshman this year.

- The football program wore all-white uniforms for the Furman game with a combination of uniforms from the past, including white helmerts. The uniforms were worn as part of the "White Out" in which fans were asked to bring a book to support "Herma's Readers" a non-profit organization named for head coach Frank Beamer's later mother, to promote literacy across the state in grades K-12.
- The fans supported the cause, bringing nearly 10,000 books for the program. The next book donation will be coupled with a "White Out" for the Feb. 28, 2009 men's basketball game with Duke.

- Brandon Dillard is one of the fastest players in program history. This past spring he was hand timed at 4.28 in the 40 yard dash, the eighth-fastest time in program history and the fastest on the team. He was slated to be the No. 1 flanker heading into preseason camp, but ruptured his right Achilles tendon on July 1 in player-organized team passing drills and is out for the season.

- Head coach Frank Beamer became a first-time grandfather on Aug. 21 when his son, Shane, who played at Tech and now coaches at South Carolina, and his wife Emily delivered Emma Sutton Beamer.

Big Shoes to Fill

This year's group of defenders and receivers have a lot to live up to. Below is a list of all 13 players on last year's squad who were either drafted or who signed free agent contracts and what they did in their career, including offensive tackle Duane Brown, who moved from tight end to tackle early in his career.

- Beamer had knee replacement surgery prior to spring practice and used a golf cart to get around during the spring while rehabbing and is nearly back to 100 percent.

- Offensive tackle Ed Wang comes from athletic parents, both of who were members of the Chinese Olympic team.

- Brothers Beau (C) and Brett Warren (LB) and Cam (LB) and Orion Martin (DE) both started against Georgia Tech and FSU last year, marking the first time under Frank Beamer two sets of brothers have started in the same game.

- Cordarrow Thompson was named the "Biggest Loser" of the spring … and that's a good thing. Thompson dropped the most weight of any of the players from last year's preseason weigh-ins and now weighs 303 pounds after playing last year at 338 pounds. Other players to see significant weight loss were linemen Nick Marshman (18 pounds) and Ryan Shuman (21 pounds), tight end Greg Boone (11 pounds) and defensive lineman Kwamaine Battle (21 pounds).

- Tyrod Taylor and Kam Chancellor were part of the championship-winning team in the spring intramural Men's A Division of 5-on-5 basketball.

- Nick Marshman squatted 710 pounds in 2006, the second-most ever at Virginia Tech by any football player. This past spring, he power cleaned 391 pounds, the third-most ever in program history.

- Each helmet will have a "JD" sticker on it in remembrance of Joseph "J.D." Burroughs, a student manager for the football team who was killed in a automobile accident in the Richmond area this past summer.

- Brett Warren got his first collegiate start last year at Duke and responded with 11 tackles, including three for loss and a sack, as well as an interception, earning him ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week honors.
- He recorded a career-high 15 tackles, including half a tackle for loss, and forced a fumble in the big conference win over Georgia Tech, earning ACC honors again.

- Both of Purnell Sturdivant's parents are ministers and missed his big game against William & Mary last year after their car broke down. Sturdivant posted eight stops, including 2.5 for loss and two sacks, with two interceptions. His parents even went to bed without knowing the results of the game because they couldn't get the game on the radio or Internet and it wasn't until Sunday when he called them and told them to read the newspaper that they found out the news.
- Sturdivant — who is nicknamed "P-Stump" because his forearms are shorter than the length between some of the bigger players' pinky and thumb — moves into the starting lineup this year and even though he's 5-10, he has posted a 40-inch vertical leap, one of the better 40-yard dash times among the linebackers and is a monster in the weight room.
- He is engaged to ShaQunda Barrett who goes to Radford but went to high school with Sturdivant.

- Cam Martin and his brother, Orion, were the first set of brothers to start together for Tech since Jonathan and Kevin Lewis started side-by-side along the defensive line in 2003.

- Kam Chancellor is on the move once again. The former high school basketball star and lightly recruited football product came into the 2006 camp as an unknown — but physically impressive — quarterback prospect. He made the move to cornerback just a few practices into his career and played mostly on special teams as a true freshman. Last year, he started all 14 games at the rover position, recording 79 tackles. He now takes over at free safety, replacing All-ACC pick D.J. Parker as the quarterback of the defense.
- In preseason max testing, he bench pressed 375 pounds, breaking the free safety position record of 370 pounds set in 1996 by his current position coach, Torrian Gray.
- This past offseason, he worked back home for Pepsi as a stocker so he could earn money for his single mother, Karen Lambert.
- Chancellor keeps a highlight video of the late Sean Taylor on his computer and emulates his game as a hard hitter. He also loves watching Ed Reed and calls him "one of the smartest safeties I have ever seen. He disguises himself on the field, making plays

Tech Among Nation's Best in Return TDs

- The Hokies scored nine touchdowns last season via returns (5 INT, 3 PR, 1 KOR). Since the start of the 1999 season, Tech has 67 touchdown returns, one ahead of Kansas State.

- Cody Grimm and the Warren brothers have known each other since infancy as their fathers played for the Washington Redskins for several years. Grimm is the son of NFL Pro Bowler Russ Grimm, while Brett and Beau Warren are the sons of Don Warren.
- Don Warren was a tight end who played for the 'Skins from 1979-92, winning three Super Bowls. He is now a scout for the team. Grimm started just a few spots down from Warren, at offensive guard. He was an original member of "The Hogs" who played with the 'Skins from 1981-91 and also won three Super Bowl titles (1982, 1987 and 1992). He played all 140 games of his career in Washington, earning first-team all-decade honors from the NFL for the 1980s and was a four-time Pro Bowl selection. He is in his second season as the Arizona Cardinals assistant head coach and offensive line coach after spending six years with the Steelers.
- Cody is a former walk-on who has earned playing time on special teams, but got the start against Boston College last year when Cam Martin was slow to recover from mononucleosis. He also started against Georgia Tech this year, recording his first collegiate interception. Brett is the starter at inside linebacker and Beau is the No. 2 at center, but started two games last year.

- The story of Victor "Macho" Harris' tumultuous December of 2004 is widely known, but always worth repeating. First, he suffered third-degree burns, on Dec. 15, the day Tech head coach Frank Beamer and assistant Jim Cavanaugh were coming to his house for a recruiting visit. Harris' mother, Maritza, was preparing a meal for the coaches, and a grease fire broke out in the kitchen while she was at the store. Harris put out the fire by throwing a quilt on the pan, but suffered burns in the process. He has small scars on his face, and skin grafts on his right forearm. Then, 10 days after Beamer's visit, and five days after he committed to the Hokies, his mother fainted at home on Christmas Day and passed away at the hospital. He has a tattoo on his left forearm of an image of his mother and the words: "My angel. My reason. My mother." He also has a tattoo on his neck that reads "Mama's Boy." Maritza Harris was 43.
- After missing the East Carolina game with a foot injury, he returned for the Furman game and saw his first action on offense against Georgia Tech, playing nine snaps. He picked off a pass on the 2-yard line against UNC to stop a late drive and also caught a 9-yard pass.

- Orion Martin has gone from an unknown walk-on to the starter at defensive end in just over two years. Martin walked onto the squad in 2005 after spending a semester at Norfolk State and one semester at Hargrave Military Academy. He made quite an impression in the 2005 spring game, posting a game-high seven tackles, including 3.5 for a loss and two sacks and earned a scholarship shortly after. He started all 14 games last year and will anchor the defensive end spot once again.
- He also is one of 71 college football players nominated for the American Football Coaches Association Good Works Team. From this group, a panel will select two 11-player teams representing all of college football's subdivisions. Heearned the nomination by being a leader of Athletes in Action ministry for his entire career, visiting a Blacksburg High football player

The House of Horrors

- Lane Stadium has always been a difficult place for opponents to play and has been dubbed one of the best game-day environments in college football. Tech has a 43-7-1 record versus non-conference teams at Lane Stadium since 1991, winning 29 straight and since the start of the 2003 season, the Hokies have gone 32-5 at home.
- A large part of that impressive record is the home-field environment created by the fans as Lane Stadium has been sold out for 64 consecutive games, starting with the final home game of the 1998 season against Virginia.
- Consistent sell-outs and a rabid fan base provide an atmosphere second-to-none as evidenced by the number of false starts and delay of games taken by opponents in the last 37 games:

BY THE NUMBERS

4,321 … career passing yards by quarterback Sean Glennon place him sixth on Tech all-time passing list. He needs 63 yards to pass Jim Druckenmiller for fifth place

650 … career rushing yards for sophomore quarterback Tyrod Taylor make him the leading rusher on Tech's 2008 roster.

151 … yards rushing by Georgia Tech quarterback Josh Nesbitt equaled the most rushing yards for a quarterback against the Hokies during Coach Frank Beamer's tenure. Temple quarterback Walter Washington ran for 151 yards against Tech in 2003.

72 … players have scored at least one touchdown on defense or special teams during Coach Frank Beamer's 21-plus seasons at Virginia Tech.

62 … yard pass reception by true freshman Dyrell Roberts against ECU was the longest by a Tech true freshman since Josh Morgan hauled in an 80-yarder against Auburn in the Sugar Bowl (Jan. 3, 2005) following the 2004 season. True freshman Eddie Royal also had an 80-yard catch during the 2004 season at Georgia Tech.

30 … freshmen and sophomores (including redshirts) have seen action for the Hokies' through their first four games.

20 … Tech players have picked up their first collegiate starts so far this season.

9 … true freshmen have seen action for the Hokies: Dyrell Roberts, Xavier Boyce, Jarrett Boykin, Jack Johnson, Justin Myer, Quillie Odom, Bruce Taylor, Eddie Whitley and Lorenzo Williams.

3 … combined points allowed by the Tech defense in the first quarter of play this season.

1 … total passing touchdowns for the Hokies through their first four games of 2008.

by Jason Adjepong, but legally changed his last named to Worilds for last season. This season, he has switched from his No. 43 jersey to No. 6 and is slated to start at one of the defensive end spots.

+ John Graves has made an immediate impact on special teams this year, blocking a PAT against ECU, a field goal against Furman and a PAT against Georgia Tech. He became the first Tech player to block a kick in three consecutive games under Frank Beamer. He also has a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

+ Defensive end Nekos Brown is the son of Chuck Brown, who is known as the godfather of go-go music, and is a famous songwriter and performer.

+ Danny Coale comes from quite the athletic family. His brother, Kevin, plays midfield for the University of Virginia men's lacrosse team. Their father, Jimmy, is the head strength and conditioning coach at VMI. He leads the team with eight receptions, with a long of 28 yards.

+ Kenny Lewis, Jr., isn't the only player on the team who excelled at baseball. Linebacker Hunter Ovens was a 25th-round draft pick of the San Diego Padres and rover Dorian Porch was eyed by the Arizona Diamondbacks as a potential early round choice, but Porch elected to withdraw his name from the draft and come to Tech.

+ Jonas Houseright is just one of several Hokies to have family ties to the Tech program. Houseright's brothers — Billy and Jake — were both starting linebackers for the Hokies and their dad, Bill, lettered at Tech from 1969-71, while his cousin, Chad Beasley, started at defensive tackle, and his uncle, Tom Beasley, started at defensive tackle in the '70s.
+ Blake Warren, who played linebacker for Tech earlier this decade, is the brother of current Hokies Brett and Beau Warren.
+ Orion and Cam Martin's uncle, Bobby, played for Tech in the late '80s.
+ Cody Grimm is the brother of Chad Grimm, who lettered four times as a linebacker and special teams standout in 2006.
+ Kenny Lewis, Jr., pays the ultimate tribute to his dad by wearing his No. 20 jersey. Kenny Lewis, Sr., was a standout running back for the Hokies and is enshrined in the Tech Sports Hall of Fame.
+ Freshman George George III is a walk-on whose father, George, was on the Tech team in the late 1970s.

+ True freshmen Vinston Painter and Randall Dunn are cousins.
+ And the newest member is freshman Zac Evans who made the team after trying out. He is a walk-on from Christiansburg whose father, George, was a starter on the offensive line and lettered from 1979-82.

+ The Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) held its National Convention general meeting on June 11, and Virginia Tech head equipment manager Lester Karlin was given the Superior Service Award. Karlin, a 30-year veteran at Tech, also devotes his time to the Blacksburg Volunteer Rescue Squad. He received this special award from AEMA due to his actions on April 16, 2007, when he was one of the first responders during the campus tragedy. He ran triage and helped those who were wounded into ambulances.

+ Punter Brent Bowden is the brother of former Florida State punter Chris Hall and was the best man this past summer in Hall's wedding. He is also Tech's first regular starting punter not to kick left-footed — Jimmy Kibble (1996-1999), Robert Peaslee (2000), Vinnie Burns (2001-2004) and finally Nic Schmitt (2005-2006) — since the 1995 season. He also serves as the holder on the PATs and field goals.

+ Linebacker Dylan McGreevy is the third-generation nephew of Michael T. "Nuf Ced" McGreevy, Boston saloon keeper and avid baseball fan. McGreevy founded and led the "Royal Rooters" for nearly 30 years, and amassed a rich collection of photographs, clippings, and other baseball memorabilia. When Prohibition forced McGreevy to close Third Base — his saloon at the corner of Tremont & Ruggles streets — he donated his collection to the Boston Public Library. The Rooters were a fan club for the Boston Red Sox in the early 20th century. Their theme song was "Tessie" from the Broadway musical "The Silver Slipper" and they would sing that song at games to encourage their Sox, while simultaneously distracting and frustrating the other team. They were especially important in the first World Series, in 1903, when the Red Sox played the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Royal Rooters would go to Pittsburgh and sing "Tessie" to distract the opposing players, especially Honus Wagner. After falling into a 1-3 deficit, Boston rallied to win the Series with four straight victories.

+ ESPN The Magazine's Bruce Feldman surveyed coaches from around the country last year in order to find out where the scariest places to play were, and Virginia Tech's Lane Stadium checked in at No. 2, right behind LSU's Tiger Stadium.

+ From the online article: "The two loudest places I've ever seen a game are Lane Stadium and the Orange Bowl, but the Hokies' home crowd is a lot more consistent. The whole place rocks when they crank up 'Enter Sandman.' [In 2005] I remember watching a decent BC team go there on a Thursday night and completely melt down."

+ Redshirt senior kicker Dustin Keys has bided his time and is now getting his shot. In four previous years at Tech, he sat in the stands for the home games, but got to dress for his first game last season — the season finale in the FedEx Orange Bowl. The Stafford native is a walk-on who has already graduated and took out a loan to go to graduate school this fall, but was put on full scholarship just days before classes started. He is 5-for-6 on field goals thus far, hitting two game winners late - a 21-yarder against Georgia Tech with 4:37 left in a 20-17 win and a 45-yarder with 10:42 left in a 20-17 win at North Carolina.

+ Virginia Tech football has always prided itself on taking care of its players before, during and after their time in Blacksburg. A testament to the family atmosphere created is the roster of former Hokie players serving in some sort of capacity with the football team in the athletic department.

> Frank Beamer (head coach)
> David Everett (Hokie Club)
> Jarrett Ferguson (asst. strength coach)
> Torrian Gray (asst. coach)
> Zac Lowe (G.A. coach)
> Kevin McCadam (G.A.; weight room)
> John Moody (Hokie Club)
> Keith Short (asst. strength coach)
> Jamel Smith (G.A. coach)

+ Virginia Tech has struck up quite a pipeline with both Hargrave Military and Fork Union Military Academy as numerous players over the years have prepped at one of the two schools before coming to Blacksburg. On this year's roster, seven players attended Hargrave, while one went to Fork Union.
+ Some prominent players from the past to go to prep school who went on to star at Tech were Ernest Wilford, Justin Harper, Brandon Flowers and Jim Druckenmiller.
+ Fullback Devin Perez's brother, Brandon, is the starting fullback for the New Mexico

State football team. Both of them attended Fork Union with Devin being a year older than Brandon.

+ Virginia Tech has always treated walk-ons with the same respect as scholarship players, giving them the same opportunities for playing time. Former walk-on John Engelberger has been a starter for the San Francisco 49ers and Denver Broncos, and John Burke played in the Super Bowl with the New England Patriots in 1987. Current

Tech walk-ons who earned scholarships prior to this year include Orion Martin, Cody Grimm and Dustin Pickle.

- Three walk-ons: Jonas Houseright, Dustin Keys and Devin Perez were put on scholarship right before fall classes began.

- Changing position is nothing new in college football, but several position changes have become trends at Virginia Tech. Duane Brown moved from tight end to offensive tackle and was a first-round draft pick of the Houston Texans this past year and is slated to be the starter ar left tackle. Ed Wang and Greg Nosal have both made the same move and it appears to be paying off for both. Wang has moved to left tackle, where he will start this year and Nosal will be his backup after an exceptional spring session and offseason. Andrew Lanier made the move to right tackle this preseason, as well.

- Virginia Tech was one of five ACC schools, and just 33 around the country, honored last summer by the AFCA for graduation rates. It marks the fifth time in the past seven years Tech has been honored by the AFCA for graduating 70 percent or higher of its football class.
- There are 10 Hokies playing as graduates this year — Jacob Gardner, Sean Glennon, Cory Holt, Dustin Keys, Nick Marshman, Orion Martin, Ryan Shuman, Purnell Sturdivant, Demetrius Taylor and Brett Warren.
- The graduates have an orange mortar board and tassel sticker on the back of their helmets to signify their achievements.

- There were 26 former Hokie players on NFL opening-day rosters with five more playing north of the border in the CFL.

- Did you know that Blacksburg is located at an elevation of 2,120 feet above sea level, making it the highest home elevation of any FBS football school west of Texas and the 19th highest of 119 FBS school?
- The next highest home city elevation of a school east of Texas isn't even close, which is Knoxville, Tenn., at just 1,288 feet above sea level. Wyoming plays in Laramie, which sits at a FBS highest 7,408 feet.

- Billy Hite, who has helped develop 24 running backs who have gone on to sign with NFL teams, and equipment manager Lester Karlin are both in their 31st season on the Tech staff.
- Hite came to Blacksburg as a member of Bill Dooley's football staff in 1978 and remained at Tech when Frank Beamer took over in 1987 and was elevated to the position of assistant head coach by Beamer the following year. He was promoted to the new position of associate head coach in December 2000.
- In 1989, Hite filled in as the acting head coach when Beamer was sidelined following coronary angioplasty surgery and had to miss a home game versus Tulane. Hite didn't let the Tech faithful down as he led the Hokies to an emotional 30-13 victory.
- Both Hite and Karlin have been on the sideline for 360 consecutive Tech games.

- Long snapper Collin Carroll is the first player under Frank Beamer from Minnesota. His father, Jay, played tight end for the University of Minnesota in the early '80s and played in the NFL.

Excellence in the Weight Room

"Since 1987, our strength and conditioning program has developed a tradition. We have a team dedicated to training hard and striving for excellence. The younger student-athletes see the upperclassmen's intensity and it makes everyone want to train to be one's best. Our strength and conditioning program is designed to help our student-athletes build overall strength, power and stamina, while helping them develop self-discipline and realize their potential as athletes. We have a comprehensive program utilizing strength/power training, plyometrics, functional conditioning and flexibility training. Our goal is to become one of the most physical teams in the nation."

BEAMERBALL

♦ During the Frank Beamer era at Tech, putting points on the scoreboard has always been a team effort — the offense, the defense team and the special teams. It's called BeamerBall, and what sets it apart are the contributions of the defense and special teams.

♦ Seven of Tech's last 10 teams are ranked among the school's top 10 highest scoring teams. During that time, a player at every position on the defensive unit has produced at least one touchdown, and 30 different players have scored touchdowns while playing on Tech's special teams. Altogether, the defense and special teams have combined for 116 TDs since Beamer arrived in 1987, including 99 in Tech's last 181 games.

♦ Under Beamer, Tech's defense has scored 75 TDs, with 48 coming on pass interceptions, 25 on fumble returns and two on fumble recoveries. The special teams have added 41 TDs, including 15 on blocked punts, 16 on punt returns, five on kickoff returns, four on blocked field goals and one on a fumble recovery.

♦ Fittingly, the trend started in Beamer's first game as Tech's head coach when true freshman Jon Jeffries returned a kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown against Clemson. It was the Hokies' first TD under Beamer, and it was the first of many scored by the special teams.

♦ Victor Harris, Eddie Royal, Xavier Adibi, Jason Lallis, Ike Charlton and Ricky Hall each had three scores, André Davis four and DeAngelo Hall had seven.

♦ Since the start of the 1993 season, Tech is 65-10 in games it scores at least one touchdown on defense or special teams.

BEAMERBALL II

• Tech's tradition for blocking kicks is another part of BeamerBall. It was carried to new heights in 1998 with 10 blocks during the regular season and two more in the Hokies' Music City Bowl game against Alabama.

• Tech now has 120 blocks in Frank Beamer's 258 games as the head coach. The Hokies have blocked 59 punts (15 for TDs), 37 field goals and 24 extra points.

• The most prolific kick blockers under Beamer have been defensive lineman Bernard Basham and safety Keion Carpenter, who each posted six blocks during their Tech careers. Basham blocked three field goals and three PATs, while Carpenter blocked six punts.

• Tech blocked more kicks in the 1990s than any other Division I-A team. The Hokies blocked 63 kicks during the decade — 31 punts, 18 PATs and 14 FGs. Tech has 45 blocks in this decade.

• During its time in the BIG EAST ('91-03), Tech posted at least three blocked kicks against every team in the league. During that span, Tech blocked 10 kicks against Pittsburgh, nine against Miami, seven versus West Virginia, six versus Rutgers, four against Boston College and Syracuse, and three versus Temple.

• The teams Tech has victimized the most during Beamer's 21 seasons have been Pittsburgh, West Virginia and Miami. During that span, the Hokies have blocked 10 kicks versus the Panthers and Mountaineers, and nine against the Hurricanes.

• During the Beamer era, Tech has blocked two kicks in a game 21 times, winning 16 of those games. Tech blocked two kicks against four different teams in 1998.
