2021 SPRING FOOTBALL NOTEBOOK

HUSKERS ADD 43 TO 2021 ROSTER

Nebraska's full roster totals 166 players as of April 1, with 137 players participating in spring practice.

- The Husker roster features 123 returning players and 43 newcomers. Nebraska returns 11 starters on defense, eight on offense and its starting place-kicker and punter.
- Nebraska has added 43 players - 23 scholarship student-athletes and 20 walk-ons - to the roster since the end of last season.
- The Huskers' 20-player freshman scholarship class was ranked No. 18 nationally by Rivals marking the third straight year Nebraska signed a top-20 class.
- Nebraska also added three transfers who enrolled in January. Chris Kolarevic (Northern Iowa) and Samori Toure (Montana) were FCS transfers, while Markese Stepp is a transfer from USC who will need an NCAA waiver to be eligible this fall.

FROST SET FOR FOURTH SEASON

Scott Frost is set for his fourth season at Nebraska in 2021. The consensus 2017 national coach of the year, Frost boasts a 31-27 career record in five seasons as a collegiate head coach.

- Eleven of his 20 losses in three seasons at Nebraska have been by a touchdown or less, including eight by five or fewer points.
- Nebraska went 3-5 in the abbreviated 2020 season. Three of the Huskers' five losses were by a touchdown or less, including two one-possession losses to Northwestern and Iowa teams that finished the year ranked in the top 15.
- Frost has been a proven winner in his coaching career. In 14 seasons as a full-time assistant or head coach, Frost's teams have posted a 134-45 record, averaging nearly 10 wins per season. Frost has been a part of seven conference championship teams in his 14 seasons and has twice coached in the national championship game.
- Frost's teams have been ranked in the top 15 in 10 of his 14 seasons, including eight final top-10 rankings and six final top-five rankings.

HUSKER STAFF RETURNS INTACT

For the first time since the 2014 season, Nebraska returns its entire coaching staff from the previous season.

- Of Frost's 10 assistant coaches, eight have been with him in each of his six seasons as a collegiate head coach. Mike Dawson, who adds the title of special teams coordinator this season, has been on five of Frost's first six staffs.

SCHEDULE RANKED 12TH-TOUGHEST

Nebraska's 12-game schedule ranks as the toughest in the Big Ten and the 12th-toughest nationally based on opponents' 2020 winning percentage, as calculated by Phil Steele. In addition to its nine Big Ten games, NU's three non-conference games include 2020 Big 12 champion Oklahoma and 2020 MAC runner-up Buffalo.

THE RETURN OF FANS

The 2021 Spring Game presented by First National Bank marks the first ticketed "game" inside Memorial Stadium since Nov. 29, 2019, a span of 520 days.

- Due to the pandemic, capacity for the Spring Game was limited to approximately 42,500 (as of April 1). The previous two Spring Games (2018 and 2019) were both sellouts.
- Although it will not be the case this year, Nebraska has drawn at least 54,000 fans for the Spring Game each of the past 15 times it has been played. At least 60,000 fans have attended each of the last 11 Spring Games dating back to 2008.
- Overall, Nebraska has drawn 1,061,970 fans for its past 15 spring games at Memorial Stadium, an average of 70,798 fans per game. By comparison, only 17 schools nationally averaged at least 69,000 fans per game during the last full season (2019).
- NU has ranked first or second nationally in spring game attendance eight times in the past 12 years.
- Nebraska posted two of the 10 largest Spring Game crowds in NCAA history in 2018 (8th-largest) and 2019 (9th-largest).

MARTINEZ RETURNS FOR FOURTH SEASON

Quarterback Adrian Martinez has put up statistics through his first three seasons that have him ranked among the Nebraska all-time leaders in several categories. Martinez has thrown for 5,628 career yards, rushed for 1,776 yards and totaled 7,404 yards of offense.

Martinez owns four Nebraska career records, five season records and one game record - completion percentage - which he has set on two occasions. In 2019, Martinez was just the second Husker sophomore to be a team captain since 1930, and he again held that distinction again in 2020, becoming one of just 13 two-time captains in Nebraska history.

- Martinez is Nebraska's all-time leader in total offensive yards per game (264.4), 400-yard total offense games (5) and 300-yard total offense games (13). He has produced five of Nebraska's 17 individual 400-yard total offense performances, and Martinez's career average of 264.4 yards of total offense per game is more than 25 yards higher than any other Husker quarterback who played in at least 15 career games.
- Martinez averaged a school-record 295.1 yards of total offense per game as a true freshman in 2018. That average ranked 12th nationally, led all freshmen and was the ninth-highest average by a freshman in NCAA history, including the third-best mark by a true freshman.
- Martinez also set NU season records for 300-yard total offense games (7) and 400-yard total offense games (3) in 2018.
- Martinez has been one of the nation's top dual-threat quarterbacks. He is one of only four active FBS quarterbacks who enter the 2021 season with 5,000 career passing yards and 1,500 career rushing yards. Martinez is only the third Husker with 5,000 career passing yards and 1,500 career rushing yards.
- Martinez set an NU record with an 86.2 completion percentage against Minnesota in 2018, connecting on 25-of-29 passes for 276 yards and three touchdowns. He bettered that mark at Iowa last season, connecting on 18-of-20 passes for a school-record 90.0 percent completion rate.
- Martinez completed a school-record 71.5 percent of his passes in 2020. His completion percentage led the Big Ten and ranked fourth nationally. His 71.5 completion percentage also ranked fifth overall in Big Ten history and was the fourth-highest mark in a Big Ten Conference season.
- In his career, Martinez is completing 63.4 percent of his passes, good for second in school history.
- Martinez ranks fourth in school history with 5,628 passing yards, and his average of 201.0 passing yards per game also ranks fourth in Nebraska history.
- Martinez not only led Nebraska in passing in 2020, but he was the Huskers' leading rusher as well, becoming the third player in school history to lead the team in rushing and passing in the same season.
- In 2020, Martinez ranked second nationally in rushing yards per game among all FBS quarterbacks (74.4 yards per game). Martinez was the only Power Five quarterback to average 70 rushing yards per game in 2020.
- In his career, Martinez has rushed for 1,776 yards. That total ranks third among all active FBS quarterbacks entering the 2021 season.
- At Illinois in 2019, Martinez produced the second 300-yard passing and 100-yard rushing performance in Nebraska history (328 passing, 118 rushing). His career-high 446 yards of total offense was the third-highest total in program history.
- In 2018, Martinez became just the sixth freshman in NCAA history to average 200 passing yards and 50 rushing yards per game and just the second true freshman to hit those marks. Martinez was also one of only four FBS quarterbacks - regardless of class - who averaged 225 passing yards and 50 rushing yards per game in 2018.

VETERAN DEFENSE LOOKS TO LEAD NU

Nebraska returns 11 full- or part-time starters on a veteran defense that aims to be the strength of this year's team. The Huskers bring back eight players who started either all eight games or seven games a season ago.

- Nebraska allowed an average of 169.5 rushing yards per game and 386.5 yards of total offense per game in 2020. Those totals marked the fewest rushing and total yards allowed per game by a Husker defense since the 2016 season.
- According to ESPN, Nebraska boasts the most returning defensive production of any team in the Big Ten West. The ESPN formula takes into accounting a team's total number of returning tackles, tackles for loss, sacks and passes defended.
- A total of seven Husker defenders earned at least honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades last season. That was the highest number of all-conference defenders since Nebraska joined the Big Ten in 2011, and six of those seven All-Big Ten selections return this fall.
- Cornerback Cam Taylor-Britt was a 2020 second-team All-Big Ten honoree. Teams generally avoided throwing to Taylor-Britt's side of the field, but when they did he broke up four passes and had a pair of interceptions. Taylor-Britt has ranked in the top 70 nationally in interceptions each of the last two years, and he also ranked third nationally in forced fumbles in 2019.
- Safety Marquel Dismuke, outside linebacker JoJo Domann, inside linebacker Will Honas, defensive lineman Ben Stille and safety Deontai Williams all return as "super seniors" in 2021 in their sixth year playing college football. Each player was a senior last year but chose to take advantage of the free year of eligibility in 2020 and return for the 2021 season. Each of the five "super seniors" earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades last season.
- Dismuke has started 20 consecutive games at safety. He ranked fourth on the team with 47 tackles and set career highs with 4.0 TFLs and four pass breakups last season. Dismuke has totaled 158 tackles in his career.
- Domann led the Huskers with a career-high 58 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss, five pass breakups, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery in 2020. Domann enters the 2021 season ranked third among all active FBS players with seven career forced fumbles.
- Honas led NU with 6.5 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks in 2020 and was second in the team with 57 tackles. He has averaged nearly eight tackles per game over the past two seasons despite starting only seven games.
- Stille returns to anchor the defensive line. His 22 career starts are the most of any current Blackshirt. Stille is Nebraska's active career leader with 26.0 tackles for loss and 13.0 sacks.
- Williams set career highs with 51 tackles, 4.0 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack in eight games last year. He also broke up four passes and had a sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery for a touchdown on the same play, believed to be the first Husker ever to accomplish that feat.
- In addition to the six returning All-Big Ten players, NU returns five other starters. Garrett Nelson started all eight games at outside linebacker in 2020 and totaled 30 tackles, 4.0 TFLs and 1.5 sacks.
- Ty Robinson started seven games at defensive end as a redshirt freshman in 2020, totaling 17 tackles with a pair of tackles for loss.
- Luke Reimer made the most of his five starts at inside linebacker last season, recording 40 tackles and ranking second on the team with 2.0 sacks and third with 5.0 TFLs despite battling injuries.
- Caleb Tannor started five games at outside linebacker season. Despite the shortened season, he finished with a career-high 23 tackles.
- Damion Daniels started three games at nose guard in 2020 and set career highs in tackles (20) and tackles for loss (4.0).
- The Huskers also bring back safety Myles Farmer, linebacker Nick Henrich, cornerback Quinton Newsome and defensive end Casey Rogers, each of whom made their first career start last season.
- The defense also figures to receive a boost from transfer Chris Kolarevic, who totaled 144 tackles, 9.5 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks, two interceptions and five pass breakups as a starting linebacker at Northern Iowa in 2018 and 2019.

TIGHT ENDS LEAD RECEIVING CORPS

Nebraska returns four of its top six receivers from last season, led by a deep tight end unit and a pair of second-year wide receivers.

- Austin Allen started seven games at tight end and ranked second on the team with career highs of 18 catches and 236 receiving yards.
- Travis Vokolek made four starts at tight end and caught nine passes for 91 yards.
- New to the mix at tight end is freshman early enrollee Thomas Fidone II, who was the No. 1-ranked tight end in the 2021 recruiting class.
- At wideout, Levi Falck elected to return for another season after he made four starts and caught 13 passes for 122 yards as a graduate transfer from South Dakota last season.
- Zavier Betts caught 12 passes and was third on the team with 131 receiving yards in a promising true freshman season in 2020.
- Nebraska has also added Montana transfer Samori Toure, who was a 2019 first-team FCS All-American after catching 87 passes for a school-record 1,495 receiving yards, which ranked second nationally.

NU HAS YOUNG, TALENTED OFFENSIVE LINE

Nebraska returned every starting offensive lineman last season but a pair of freshmen still found their way into the starting rotation. This year, all 24 Husker offensive linemen are eligible to return for the 2022 season. The group may be young but has some experience and plenty of talent.

- Cam Jurgens has started 18 of Nebraska's 20 games at center the past two seasons. In 2019, Jurgens became the first Husker freshman to ever start a game at center.
- Bryce Benhart started all eight games at right tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2020. Benhart was a top 150 recruit out of high school.
- Ethan Piper started the final seven games at left guard last season in his redshirt freshman season. Piper was able to win the starting job over Boe Wilson, who had started 22 consecutive games at guard.
- Trent Hixson also boasts starting experience, as he started all 12 games at left guard as a sophomore in 2019.
- Noureddin Nouili also has starting experience on the offensive line. Nouili started seven games at offensive guard at Colorado State in 2019 before transferring to Nebraska. He was the first true freshman to start on the offensive line for the Rams since 1996.
- Other names expected to be in the mix for playing time and a potential starting spot on the offensive line are Matt Sichterman (24 career games played), Broc Bando (20 games played), Brant Banks (five games played), Alex Conn, Ezra Miller and Jimmy Fritzsche.

success as a head coach - Frost was the consensus national coach of the year in 2017 - Frost was successful at every stop along his journey to becoming a head coach. His teams posted a 103-18 record in his nine seasons as an assistant coach, with Frost coordinating both a top-10 defense and multiple top-10 offenses. Frost served as defensive coordinator for an FCS semifinalist, was Oregon's offensive coordinator in the inaugural College Football Playoff Championship Game and called the plays for Heisman Trophy winner Marcus Mariota.

The 46-year old Frost is a proven winner familiar with the Nebraska culture and tradition. He was a part of two national championship teams as a Husker player, coached in two national championship games as an assistant at Oregon and led UCF to a 13-0 record in 2017, when the Knights were the nation's only undefeated team.

Frost has been a winner throughout his coaching career, winning seven conference championships in his 14 seasons as a full-time coach. Frost's teams have won 134 games in that span, averaging nearly 10 wins per season. In addition to coaching in two national championship games, Frost has coached in five other New Year's Six bowl games in the last decade. His winning reputation dates back to his playing days, when he helped Nebraska to a 36-2 record in his three-year career, including a 24-2 record in two seasons as the Huskers' starting quarterback.

NEBRASKA (2018-20)

Frost has laid the foundation for rebuilding Nebraska's program in his first three seasons in Lincoln. Nebraska showed tremendous improvement throughout Frost's first season in Lincoln. Nebraska won four of its final six games and improved by nearly 28 points per game in the second half of the season compared to the first half. The Huskers finished with a 4-8 record, but Nebraska faced eight opponents who were ranked during the 2018 season. Five of Nebraska's losses were by five or fewer points, with the Huskers' final three losses coming in a three-point overtime loss at Northwestern, which finished with a No. 21 ranking, a five-point setback at No. 3 Ohio State and a three-point loss at No. 25 Iowa as time expired.

Frost also lived up to his reputation as one of the best offensive play-callers in the country in 2018. Frost inherited an offensive unit that ranked 87th nationally in total offense in 2017. Led by true freshman quarterback Adrian Martinez, Nebraska ranked 25th nationally in total offense, the program's first top-25 finish in the category since 2008.

In his second season in 2019, Nebraska improved its win total with one of the youngest teams in the country, as nearly 70 percent of the roster was underclassmen, and the Huskers had more freshmen on their roster than any team in the country. The Huskers went 5-7, with five of those losses coming to ranked teams, including four losses to teams that finished in the top 15 of the final Associated Press poll. Four of the Huskers' seven losses were by a combined 17 points, including two last-second losses.

Frost's leadership guided the Huskers through the COVID-19 pandemic and an abbreviated 2020 campaign. Nebraska posted a 3-5 record, with three losses to teams that finished ranked in the top 15 nationally.

Frost has made upgrading Nebraska's talent a priority, as each of his first four recruiting classes have ranked in the top 25 nationally.

UCF (2016-17)

Frost went 19-7 in two seasons at UCF, helping turn an 0-12 team into a 13-0 squad in just two years. In Frost's first season, he took the Knights to a bowl game and finished with a 6-7 record. The turnaround was historic, as Frost became the only first-year coach in FBS history to make a bowl game with a team that was winless the previous season.

UCF led the nation with a six-win improvement in 2016 and exceeded that mark in 2017 with a win over No. 7 Auburn in the Peach Bowl to complete a 13-0 season as the nation's only undefeated team. The Knights put together the first undefeated regular season in UCF and AAC history in 2017, posted the longest winning streak in school history (13 games), achieved the highest in-season ranking in program history (10th), highest final ranking (6th) and set an AAC record with 16 all-conference selections.

UCF was led by its high-powered offense and improved defense under Frost. The Knights led the nation in scoring at 48.2 points per game and were the only FBS team to score at least 30 points in every game. Defensively, UCF improved its scoring defense by 65 spots in Frost's two seasons.

In addition to being the unanimous choice as the 2017 AAC Coach of the Year, Frost was honored as the national coach of the year by the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, the Touchdown Club of Columbus, the Lombardi Award and FCA in addition to winning the Home Depot, Paul "Bear" Bryant and Eddie Robinson coach-of-the-year awards. He was also a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award in each of his two seasons at UCF, making Frost one of three coaches to be a semifinalist for the award in both 2016 and 2017.

ASSISTANT COACHING CAREER

OREGON: Frost took his first head coaching job at UCF after spending seven seasons as an offensive assistant at Oregon from 2009 to 2015, including serving as the Ducks' offensive coordinator in his final three seasons. Frost helped Oregon post a 79-14 record in his seven seasons, during which time the Ducks won four conference titles and twice played for the national championship.

Oregon never ranked lower than eighth nationally in scoring offense during Frost's seven seasons on staff, and the Ducks led the nation in scoring in 2010. Frost was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2013, and Oregon ranked in the top five nationally in both scoring and total offense each of his three seasons calling plays. The Ducks scored 681 points in 2014, the second-highest total in NCAA history. Oregon made it to the College Football Playoff Championship Game that year, when Frost was one of five finalists for the Broyles Award, presented annually to the nation's top assistant. Frost's quarterback, Marcus Mariota, won the Heisman Trophy and was the No. 2 overall pick in the 2015 NFL Draft.

NORTHERN IOWA: Frost's first full-time coaching job came in the FCS ranks at Northern Iowa, where he spent two seasons on the Panthers' defensive staff. He coached the Panther linebackers in 2007 and helped UNI to the No. 1 seed in the FCS playoffs and a quarterfinals appearance. Frost was promoted to co-defensive coordinator the next season, when UNI ranked ninth nationally in scoring defense and advanced to the FCS Semifinals. The Panthers finished with a 24-4 record in Frost's two seasons, winning two Missouri Valley Conference titles and earning a No. 4 final ranking both years.

KANSAS STATE: Frost began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at Kansas State in 2006, helping the Wildcats to a bowl game

NEBRASKA: Frost's first coaching experience came during a brief stint on Nebraska's staff as a defensive graduate assistant in 2002, coaching the Huskers in the Independence Bowl.

PLAYING CAREER (STANFORD, NEBRASKA & NFL)

Frost spent two seasons at Stanford - where he was a two-way starter at safety and quarterback - before returning home to Nebraska for the Huskers' 1995 national championship season. He took over as NU's starting quarterback the next season and was the 1996 Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year. In 1997, he was a Johnny Unitas Award finalist and an Academic All-American as Nebraska went 13-0 and captured the program's fifth national title. Frost was then selected in the third round of the 1998 NFL Draft and played six seasons as an NFL safety.

PERSONAL

Frost earned his degree in finance from Nebraska in 1997. Scott and his wife Ashley have one son, Ryan James (RJ) and one daughter, Alli.

HISTORIC TURNAROUND AT UCF

At UCF, Frost produced the greatest two-year turnaround in college football history, inheriting an 0-12 team and leading the Knights to a 13-0 record just two years later.

- In his first season in 2016, Frost made history as the only first-time head coach in FBS history to make a bowl game with a team that was winless the previous season.
- UCF tied for the national lead with a six-win improvement from the 2015 to 2016 season. The Knights then ranked third nationally after improving by seven wins from the 2016 to 2017 season.
- The Knights' seven-win improvement from 2016 to 2017 ranked 11th in NCAA history and marked just the second time ever a bowl team improved by more than six wins the next season.
- UCF was the American Athletic Conference and Peach Bowl champions and was the only FBS team to go undefeated in 2017.
- Frost called UCF's plays, orchestrating the greatest two-year offensive turnaround in NCAA history. The Knights went from last to fifth in total offense, improving their output by more than 260 yards per game. UCF also went from third-to-last to first in scoring offense, improving by nearly 35 points per game.

FROST LED UCF TO 13-0 SEASON

In his second year as a head coach, Scott Frost guided UCF to a 13-0 record in 2017, when the Knights were the nation's only undefeated team.

- Frost was the fourth coach in FBS history to post a 13-0 record or better in either his first or second season as a head coach. Among that quartet, Frost is the only coach who inherited a team that won fewer than five games, as UCF went 0-12 the year before Frost's arrival.
- Frost is one of only seven active FBS head coaches who has posted a 13-0 season or better, joining Jimbo Fisher, Gary Patterson, Ed Orgeron, Nick Saban, Dabo Swinney and Kyle Whittingham.
- Frost also led Nebraska to a 13-0 record and a national title as the Huskers' starting quarterback in 1997. Frost was the first person in NCAA history to be part of a 13-0 season as both a player and a head coach.

NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Frost was the consensus choice as the 2017 national coach of the year, earning the honor from at least eight different organizations.

- Frost won the 2017 Paul "Bear" Bryant Award as the national coach of the year. He joined Chris Petersen (2006 & 2009, Boise State) as the only coaches in the 32-year history of the award to win the honor while coaching a team outside of a Power Five Conference.
- Frost was also the AP Coach of the Year, becoming the sixth coach to win the award in his first or second season as a head coach.

FROST A TOP OFFENSIVE COACH

For each of the last 12 years, Scott Frost has either been an offensive assistant, offensive coordinator or head coach who calls the offensive plays. During that time, he has consistently proven to be one of the nation's finest offensive coaches.

- In 12 seasons coaching offense, Frost has worked with eight units that finished in the top 10 nationally in scoring, including seven that ranked in the top five.
- Frost has also been a part of seven teams that ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense the past 12 seasons.

FROST A PROVEN WINNER

Frost is a proven winner. In his 14-year full-time coaching career, Frost's teams have combined for a 134-45 record.

- Frost has averaged nearly 10 wins per year and has been a part of seven 12-win teams.
- He has won seven conference titles in 14 years.
- Frost has coached in two national title games and his teams have finished with a top-10 ranking eight times in the past 13 years.
- In two seasons as UCF's head coach, the Knights were the nation's most improved team in 2016 and were the only FBS team to go undefeated in 2017.
- As a Husker quarterback, Frost was a two-time national champion who helped Nebraska to a 36-2 record, including a 24-2 mark as a starter.
- Frost is one of four active head coaches who won a national title as a player and is the only coach who won multiple national titles.

Erik Chinander is in his fourth season as Nebraska's defensive coordinator and his 19th year of coaching. He is in his sixth season serving as Scott Frost's defensive coordinator. Chinander has coached with Frost at Nebraska, UCF, Oregon and Northern Iowa for a total of 12 years.

Recognized as one of the nation's top assistant coaches with a nomination for the Broyles Award in 2016, Chinander has been on the staff of one FCS (UNI) and two FBS (Oregon) teams that have played in the national championship game. He also coached in the NFL Playoffs. Chinander has played a key role in Nebraska's recruiting success, and was named one of Rivals' Top 25 Recruiters of the Year in 2021.

Chinander's units have ranked in the top 20 nationally in takeaways three times in the past seven seasons and in the top five twice. Individually, 18 Blackshirts have earned All-Big Ten accolades under Chinander. Before his arrival, only eight Blackshirts were All-Big Ten honorees in the previous three seasons.

Chinander has implemented an aggressive defense at Nebraska, one that has resulted in more sacks, takeaways and defensive touchdowns. In his first season, Chinander oversaw a Husker defense that showed significant improvement. Nebraska allowed two fewer touchdowns per game over the final six games of 2018 compared to the first six games. The Huskers held two of their final five opponents to single digits, including a 9-6 victory over Michigan State, where the defense led Nebraska to its first victory without scoring a touchdown since 1937. The 2018 season marked the first time in six years that the Huskers had held more than one opponent to fewer than 10 points.

The Blackshirts improved by 26 spots in the national scoring defense rankings from the unit Chinander inherited, and NU saw dramatic improvements in its pass defense, sack totals and takeaways. The Huskers improved their pass efficiency defense by 61 spots in 2018, ranking 34th nationally in the category. Nebraska broke up 58 passes, the ninth-highest total in program history and the most by a Husker squad in nearly a decade. The Blackshirts also totaled 25 sacks in 2018, 11 more than they had in 2017. Nebraska also forced 20 turnovers, the program's highest total in four seasons.

In 2019, six Huskers earned All-Big Ten accolades, Nebraska's highest total since 2011. The Huskers allowed nearly 50 fewer yards per game and more than three fewer points per game than they did in 2018, moving up 30 spots in the total defense rankings and 22 spots in scoring defense. Nebraska also improved by 52 spots in first down defense, ranking 32nd nationally in that category in 2019.

Chinander's aggressive approach also resulted in the Huskers forcing their most turnovers (21) in five seasons, ranking in the top 35 nationally in takeaways and in the top 15 with three defensive touchdowns. Nebraska was one of only 25 teams nationally with double-digit interceptions and fumble recoveries in 2019.

The defensive improvement continued in 2020. The Blackshirt defense limited its eight opponents to 4.2 yards per rush, better than a half-yard improvement over the 2019 season. The Huskers also moved up 14 spots nationally in total defense and ranked sixth in the Big Ten in that category. Seven of Chinander's defensive players earned All-Big Ten accolades.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

UCF: Chinander led a dramatic defensive turnaround in his two seasons at UCF. He inherited a Knight defense that had allowed 37.7 points per game in 2015 and two years later, UCF lowered that average to 25.3 points per game. Chinander also helped UCF improve its national ranking in scoring defense by 65 spots in his two seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Nominated as the nation's top assistant coach in 2016
- Coached in three national championship games (2 FBS, 1 FCS)
- Owns a 70-30 record in seven seasons as a Power Five assistant
- Top 20 nationally in takeaways twice in the last five years
- 18 defensive All-Big Ten picks in first two seasons at Nebraska
- Seven defensive All-Big Ten picks in 2020 were a school record
- UCF ranked 3rd nationally in takeaways in his two seasons
- UCF had multiple defenders drafted in 2018 for the first time ever
- Top-25 scoring defense at Oregon (2012)
- Helped the Philadelphia Eagles to the 2013 NFC East title

The Knights forced 58 turnovers in 26 games under Chinander, ranking second nationally in takeaways in 2017 and 18th in 2016. The 58 combined takeaways ranked third nationally. UCF was one of only six teams to force 25 turnovers in both 2017 and 2018 and one of just eight teams to rank in the top 20 nationally in takeaways in both seasons.

Chinander's defense played a major role in the first perfect season (13-0) in school and American Athletic Conference history in 2017. UCF led the AAC in defensive touchdowns and ranked third in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense.

Individually, six Knights earned all-conference accolades, including a league-high four first-team honorees. Linebacker Shaquem Griffin was the only player in the conference to be a unanimous All-AAC selection, and cornerback Mike Hughes earned second-team All-America honors. Hughes (first round), the highest defensive draft pick in UCF history, and Griffin (fifth round) were both selected in the 2018 NFL Draft.

In Chinander's first season in Orlando, the defense was the key to UCF leading the nation with a six-win improvement. The Knights ranked in the top 10 nationally in four defensive categories and in the top 25 in nine categories. UCF was second nationally in red zone defense, third in defensive touchdowns, sixth in third-down defense, ninth in tackles for loss, 12th in pass efficiency defense, 17th in sacks and 18th in takeaways. Griffin was the 2016 American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year after ranking ninth nationally in tackles for loss (20.0) and 11th in sacks (11.5). He was also a first-team all-conference selection as a total of four Knights earned All-American Athletic Conference accolades.

OREGON: Before becoming Frost's defensive coordinator, Chinander coached the outside linebackers at Oregon in 2014 and 2015, when Frost was the Ducks' offensive coordinator. Chinander's linebackers helped Oregon play in the inaugural College Football Playoff National Championship Game in 2014.

The Ducks ranked second in the Pac-12 and in the top 30 nationally in scoring defense in 2014 and were third nationally with 34 takeaways. In 2015, Oregon ranked ninth nationally in sacks and pass efficiency defense.

Chinander served as a defensive graduate assistant at Oregon in 2011 and 2012, when the Ducks ranked in the top 25 nationally in scoring defense. Chinander also spent the 2010 season in Eugene as an intern.

In Chinander's five total seasons on the Duck staff, Oregon posted a 58-10 record, won three conference titles and twice played for the national championship.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES: In between his two stints at Oregon, Chinander gained NFL experience by serving as the assistant defensive line coach with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2013. With the Eagles, Chinander assisted defensive line coach Jerry Azzinaro and helped with game and practice plans, coordinating the scout teams and evaluating current and future personnel. The Eagles won the NFC East that season with a 10-6 record.

NORTHERN IOWA: Chinander served as an offensive assistant at Northern Iowa, coaching the tight ends for six seasons from 2004 to 2009, including two seasons when Frost was on the Panther staff (2007 and 2008). Chinander also assisted with the defensive and specialist scout teams. He made a huge impact in the Panthers' recruiting, with his coaching and recruiting helping UNI win three conference titles and make three appearances in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs, including a runner-up finish in 2005 and a semifinal appearance in 2008.

ELLSWORTH CC: Chinander's first job was as the offensive and defensive line coach for Ellsworth Community College in Iowa Falls, Iowa, where he also coordinated the strength and conditioning programs for football and men's and women's basketball. The Panthers finished second in the region and three of his players garnered first-team all-region accolades.

PLAYING CAREER (IOWA)

Chinander was a walk-on offensive lineman at Iowa from 1998 to 2002. As a senior, Iowa shared the Big Ten title and played in the Orange Bowl. He received the Hawkeyes' Offensive Team Leader Award that season.

PERSONAL

Chinander earned bachelor's degrees from Iowa in history and health leisure and sports studies in 2003. He and his wife, Megan, have two daughters, Penelope and Sophia, and one son, Ripp.

Matt Lubick is in his second season as Nebraska's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. Lubick is familiar with Scott Frost, as the two previously coached together at Oregon from 2013 to 2015, with Lubick succeeding Frost as the Ducks' offensive coordinator in 2016.

A 26-year coaching veteran, Lubick has 17 years of Power Five Conference coaching experience, including stints in the ACC, Big Ten, Pac-12 and SEC. Lubick had previous offensive coordinator experience at Pac-12 powerhouses Oregon (2016) and Washington (2017-18), and he has coached the wide receiver position for a total of 18 years. In 2012, Lubick was named the nation's top receivers coach and was a finalist for national assistant coach of the year at Duke.

The son of longtime Colorado State head coach Sonny Lubick, Matt spent six successful seasons in the Pac-12 Conference before arriving in Lincoln. In those six seasons, Lubick was a part of two conference championship teams, five teams that finished the year ranked in the top 20 and four 10-win teams. In the three seasons Frost and Lubick were on the same Oregon staff from 2013 to 2015, the Ducks ranked in the top five nationally in both scoring and total offense each year and advanced to the 2014 College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

In Lubick's first season as offensive coordinator, he and Frost collaborated on play-calling duties. The Huskers featured a balanced offense, highlighted by ranking second in the Big Ten in rushing offense at better than 200 yards per game. Nebraska also finished fourth in the league in total offense.

The Nebraska offense just missed a school-record by completing 68.12 percent of its passes, a mark that ranked ninth nationally.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

WASHINGTON: Lubick, who spent the 2019 season working in private business, was Washington's co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach in 2017 and 2018. The Huskies won 10 games in each of Lubick's two seasons, with appearances in the Rose and Fiesta Bowls. Washington also won the Pac-12 Championship in 2018.

Washington ranked in the top 25 nationally in first downs, completion percentage and third down conversions in each of his two seasons as co-offensive coordinator. In 2017, the Huskies ranked second nationally in completion percentage and were 17th in the country in scoring. Wide receiver/punt returner Dante Pettis was a 2017 consensus first-team All-American, when he caught a career-high 63 passes. The next year, Aaron Fuller had a career-high 874 receiving yards. Both Pettis and Fuller rank in the top 10 on Washington's all-time receiving charts.

OREGON: Before joining the Washington staff, Lubick spent four years at Oregon, including three seasons when he was the Ducks' passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach when Scott Frost was offensive coordinator. Oregon finished in the top 20 in three of Lubick's four seasons on staff, including winning the 2014 Pac-12 title, when the Ducks advanced to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

In Lubick's lone season as offensive coordinator in 2016, Oregon set school records for passing yards (4,687), completions (326) and first downs passing (198). Oregon ranked 13th nationally in completion percentage and

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Served as offensive coordinator at Nebraska, Oregon & Washington
- Top-25 ranking in completion percent every year as a coordinator
- Teams have earned a top-25 ranking five times in his last seven seasons
- Worked with four top-25 scoring offenses in his past seven seasons
- Top-five total offense ranking each of his three years with Frost at Oregon
- Oregon ranked in top five in scoring offense every season with Frost
- Recognized as the nation's top wide receiver coach in 2012
- Coached two of the 10 all-time leading receivers at Washington
- Coached Conner Vernon, the all-time leading receiver in ACC history
- Recruited two of the six first-round draft picks in Oregon State history

15th in total offense despite having a true freshman starter at quarterback and four freshmen starters on the offensive line. The Ducks ranked in the top 25 nationally in passing twice in Lubick's four seasons on staff. From 2013 to 2015, Oregon ranked in the top five nationally in both scoring and total offense every year.

As a wide receivers coach, Lubick helped Bralon Addison rank 17th nationally in receiving touchdowns (10) in 2015. A year earlier, Byron Marshall had 1,004 receiving yards. The play of Lubick's wide receivers helped Oregon quarterbacks lead the nation in passing efficiency in both 2014 and 2015. In Lubick's first season in 2013, Josh Huff was 10th nationally with 12 touchdown receptions and 23rd in the country with 1,140 receiving yards. Huff set Oregon records that season in both categories. The Ducks improved from 73rd nationally in passing yards per game to 21st in Lubick's first year as passing game coordinator and went from 75th to seventh in passing plays over 20 yards. In 2014, Oregon led the nation in passing efficiency and ranked 10th nationally in passing yards per game.

DUKE: Lubick spent three seasons as the wide receivers coach at Duke from 2010 to 2012, helping the Blue Devils to a bowl game in 2012, a first for the program since 1994. In 2012, Football Scoop named Lubick as its national receivers coach of the year. He was also one of three finalists for the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) National Assistant Coach of the Year award. That season, Jamison Crowder and Conner Vernon combined for 161 receptions and 2,148 receiving yards, setting an ACC record for most combined receptions by two teammates in conference history and becoming just the second tandem in ACC history to each have 1,000 receiving yards in the same season. Vernon earned All-ACC accolades each of his three seasons under Lubick while ending his career as the ACC's all-time leader in receptions (283) and receiving yards (3,749).

Lubick also left his mark as a recruiter in Durham. Duke Head Coach David Cutcliffe called Lubick "simply the best recruiter I've ever worked with," and Lubick was one of only 10 assistant coaches nationally named to ESPN's recruiting "Dream Team."

ARIZONA STATE: Lubick also boasts experience as a defensive backs coach, coaching the safeties for three seasons at Arizona State from 2007 to 2009. The Sun Devils ranked in the top 35 nationally in pass efficiency defense in each of Lubick's three seasons, including 15th in 2007 and 20th in 2009. ASU also ranked in the top 30 nationally in passing defense both seasons. As recruiting coordinator, Lubick oversaw one top-20 recruiting class and two top-30 classes, while personally recruiting Vontaze Burfitt, the highest-rated recruit in program history. Rivals named Lubick a top-10 recruiter in the then-Pac-10 Conference in each of his three years at ASU and twice Lubick was named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters.

OLE MISS: Lubick's first time coaching wide receivers at a Power Five school came at Ole Miss in 2005 and 2006, where he was a member of Ed Orgeron's staff. Lubick coached future NFL Pro-Bowlers Dexter McCluster and Mike Wallace while at Ole Miss.

COLORADO STATE: Lubick spent four years on his father's Colorado State staff, coaching wide receivers from 2001 to 2004. He helped the Rams to the 2002 Mountain West title and three bowl games. Lubick coached David Anderson, who ended his career as the most prolific receiver in CSU history. In 2003, Anderson set the then-school record with 1,293 receiving yards, and he ranked 12th nationally in receiving yards per game (99.5).

Lubick also began his coaching career at CSU in 1995, when he was a student assistant and academic supervisor on his father's staff.

OREGON STATE: Lubick coached Oregon State's defensive backs for two seasons from 1999 to 2000. He was a member of Dennis Erickson's staff in Corvallis, and Lubick reunited with Erickson nearly a decade later at Arizona State. Lubick helped the Beavers to an 11-1 season in 2000, when OSU won the Pac-10 title and ended the year with a No. 4 ranking. As a recruiter, Lubick signed first-round NFL Draft picks Nick Barnett and Steven Jackson. Barnett was the first Beaver to be taken in the first round in 40 years, while Lubick is responsible for signing two of Oregon State's four first-round NFL Draft picks in the Super Bowl era.

SAN JOSE STATE, CAL STATE NORTHRIDGE: Lubick spent two seasons as the wide receivers coach at San Jose State in 1997 and 1998, following one year as the defensive backs coach at Cal State Northridge in 1996.

PLAYING CAREER (WESTERN MONTANA)

Lubick was a four-year starting defensive back at Western Montana, an NAIA school located in Dillon, Montana. As a senior in 1994, Lubick earned all-conference and All-America honors.

PERSONAL

Lubick earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from Colorado State in 1995.

Austin has experienced much success in his coaching career. At Nebraska, he has helped the Huskers average 200 rushing yards per game in each of his three seasons. Nebraska is one of only 10 schools, and the only Power Five program to average at least 200 rushing yards in each of the past three seasons.

In his eight seasons in the collegiate ranks, Austin has been a part of three conference championship teams and four squads that finished with a top-10 national ranking. Austin also boasts NFL experience, coaching the Philadelphia Eagles' offensive line for three seasons, helping the Eagles win the 2013 NFC East Division title. Austin is a proven developer of talent, as he has coached eight all-conference offensive linemen the past four seasons at Nebraska and UCF, and with the Eagles, his offensive linemen combined for six Pro Bowl appearances in three seasons.

The play of Austin's lines have led to tremendous offensive success at every stop. In eight seasons at the collegiate level, Austin's teams have finished in the top 25 nationally in total offense five times, and four times his teams have finished in the top 10 nationally in both scoring and total offense. Austin also helped the Eagles rank among the NFL's top five teams in total offense in two of his three seasons in Philadelphia.

Austin made great progress with the Husker offensive line in his first season in 2018. Nebraska ranked as the nation's fifth-most improved offense, including the No. 3 most improved rushing attack. The Huskers totaled 2,500 passing and 2,500 rushing yards in the same season for just the fourth time in school history, including having both a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver for the first time ever.

The offensive line was key to Nebraska setting a school record with a streak of seven consecutive games gaining at least 450 yards and setting Husker records for the most points (54) and total yards (659, broken in 2019) in a Big Ten Conference game. The line protected true freshman quarterback Adrian Martinez and helped him produce one of the top statistical seasons by a freshman quarterback in NCAA history, while also paving the way for four different Huskers to have a 100-yard rushing game, including Devine Ozigbo, who became Nebraska's first 1,000-yard rusher in four seasons.

In 2019, Austin helped develop an offensive line that featured no seniors in the playing rotation. The unit helped Nebraska average more than 200 yards passing and rushing per game, and for the second straight year the Huskers posted their most points (54) and yards (690) in a Big Ten Conference game. Against Illinois, Nebraska produced 300 yards rushing and 300 yards passing, just the second time in program history the Huskers had accomplished that feat. The line also helped NU set a school record with an 87 percent completion rate against Indiana.

The 2020 season was Austin's first adding the run game coordinator to his duties. The Husker run game finished second in the Big Ten, averaging better than 201 yards per game. The offensive line also protected Nebraska quarterbacks well, allowing the Huskers to complete 68.1 percent of their passes on the season. A pair of Husker offensive linemen surpassed 40 career starts as seniors Matt Farniok and Brenden Jaimes capped their outstanding Nebraska careers. Jaimes started a Nebraska offensive line record 40 games in his career and earned all-conference recognition for the third straight season in 2020, while Farniok was a two-year team captain and earned All-Big Ten honors as a senior.

A former Husker offensive lineman, Greg Austin is in his fourth season at his alma mater in 2021. In addition to coaching the offensive line, Austin was promoted to run game coordinator for the Husker offense prior to the 2020 season. Austin owns 12 seasons of experience coaching in the collegiate and NFL ranks. He has spent nine of those 12 seasons with fellow Husker alum Scott Frost, including serving as Frost's offensive line coach for the sixth straight season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Only Power Five team to average 200 yards rushing in 2018-19-20
- Won three conference titles in eight seasons as a collegiate assistant
- His teams have earned a final top-10 ranking four times in eight years
- Also won a division title in three seasons as an NFL assistant
- Worked with a top-25 offense at each of his three collegiate stops
- Coached four top-five scoring offenses in eight seasons
- Served on Oregon and UCF offenses that led the nation in scoring
- Helped UCF to the best offensive turnaround in NCAA history
- Coached six all-conference linemen in the past three seasons
- Linemen had six Pro Bowl appearances in his three seasons in NFL

BEFORE NEBRASKA

UCF: Austin's offensive line helped pave the way for the Knights' remarkable two-year offensive turnaround. UCF was the only FBS team to score 30 points in every game in 2017. UCF averaged a nation-leading 48.2 points per game in 2017, just two seasons after UCF scored the third-worst points in the country in 2015, averaging just 13.9 points per game.

UCF won the American Athletic Conference title in 2017, putting together the first perfect regular season in school and AAC history en route to a 13-0 record and No. 6 final ranking. The Knights not only led the country in scoring but ranked fifth in total offense, second in passing efficiency and 10th in passing. Austin's offensive line allowed only 13 sacks to rank fifth nationally, and his unit helped the Knights average 5.2 yards per carry and score 39 rushing touchdowns, which ranked ninth nationally. In a testament to his line's versatility, UCF ranked in the top 25 nationally in both yards per pass and yards per rush in 2017. Both offensive tackles and UCF's center were recognized as all-conference performers, while quarterback McKenzie Milton was the AAC Offensive Player of the Year.

Austin's first year at UCF in 2016 marked his first full-time coaching job at the collegiate level. He helped the Knights become the nation's most improved team in 2016, as UCF won six games following a winless season in 2015. Austin's line helped the offense make tremendous strides in his first season, as the Knights moved up 59 spots in the scoring offense national ranking.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES: Before earning his first full-time coaching role in the collegiate ranks, Austin spent three seasons as the assistant offensive line coach for the Philadelphia Eagles from 2013 to 2015. The Eagles ranked in the top five in the NFL in total offense in both 2013 and 2014. Philadelphia won the NFC East in 2013, when LeSean McCoy led the NFL in rushing. Offensive tackle Jason Peters earned a Pro Bowl selection in each of Austin's three seasons in Philadelphia, while guard Evan Mathis was a Pro Bowler in 2013 and 2014 and center Jason Kelce was a 2014 Pro Bowl selection.

OREGON: Austin began his coaching career at Oregon, where he coached with Frost for three seasons, serving as an intern in 2010 and as the Ducks' offensive graduate assistant in 2011 and 2012. Oregon posted a 36-4 record and finished in the top five in each of Austin's three seasons on staff, winning two conference titles and playing in the 2010 national championship game, when the Ducks led the country in scoring and total offense. Overall, Oregon ranked in the top 10 nationally in both scoring and total offense in each of Austin's three seasons in Eugene.

PLAYING CAREER (NEBRASKA)

As a player at Nebraska, Austin battled injuries throughout his career. He made 18 career starts at offensive guard and was an honorable-mention All-Big 12 pick as a senior in 2006, when the Huskers played in the Big 12 Championship Game and the Cotton Bowl. Austin was also a two-time academic All-Big 12 selection in the classroom.

PERSONAL

Austin boasts one bachelor's degree and two master's degrees. He earned his bachelor's degree in management from Nebraska in 2006 before picking up a master's degree from UCF in business management in 2008 and another master's degree in sports management from UCF in 2009. Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Austin spent time as an event manager at the ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort.

Greg and his wife, Kelley, have three daughters, Kilynn Elyse, Kenly Ellis and Kolbe Estel.

UCF history and the program's only two New Year's Six bowl wins. Beckton also played a large role in the only unbeaten season in UCF history in 2017, when the Knights went 13-0 to complete the greatest two-year turnaround in NCAA history. As a player, Beckton concluded his career as UCF's all-time leader in receptions and receiving yards, and he and a teammate were the first two football players inducted into the UCF Athletics Hall of Fame.

NEBRASKA (2018-20)

In 2018, Beckton inherited a tight end unit that featured only freshmen and sophomores. Nebraska's tight ends combined for 28 catches, 374 receiving yards and three touchdowns. Jack Stoll led the way with 21 catches for 245 yards and three touchdowns, setting career highs in all three categories, while redshirt freshman Austin Allen led Nebraska with an average of 27.0 yards per reception. In addition to contributing to a passing attack that averaged nearly 250 passing yards per game, the tight ends also added perimeter blocking for a Husker rushing attack that was the nation's third-most improved rushing unit.

In 2019, Beckton's tight ends contributed to a balanced offense that averaged more than 200 passing and rushing yards per game. Stoll set a career high with 25 receptions and led the Husker tight ends with 234 receiving yards. Allen also posted career highs in both receptions and receiving yards.

Beckton's veteran tight end unit was a key part of the Husker offense in 2020. Junior Austin Allen caught 18 passes for 236 yards, including five catches of at least 20 yards. Junior Travis Vokolek and senior Jack Stoll added nine and seven catches, respectively. The tight ends also provided blocking for the Big Ten's No. 2 rushing offense.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

UCF: Beckton spent a total of 19 seasons at his alma mater, where he was a member of the coaching staff for four of the Knights' first five conference titles in program history, including three American Athletic Conference championships his final five seasons. In his final season at UCF in 2017, Beckton helped the Knights post the first perfect season in program history and the first undefeated season in AAC history. UCF was the only FBS team to go undefeated in 2017, and the Knights finished with a No. 6 ranking after defeating No. 7 Auburn in the Peach Bowl.

Beckton contributed in a variety of ways to Frost's success in his two seasons at UCF. Beckton's tight ends helped UCF post the nation's most improved offense in 2017, when the Knights led the nation in scoring and ranked fifth nationally in total offense. As UCF's recruiting coordinator, he helped Frost land several of the Knights' standout players. Sophomore quarterback McKenzie Milton was the 2017 American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and each of the Knights' three leading rushers and four of the top six receivers were either freshmen or sophomores.

As the Knights' tight ends coach, Beckton's group recorded 87 catches for 1,345 yards and seven touchdowns his last two seasons at UCF. In 2017, Veteran coach Sean Beckton is in his fourth season as Nebraska's tight ends coach in 2021. He is in his 26th season overall, having spent the first 22 years of his career coaching in the high school, collegiate and professional ranks in Florida.

Beckton came to Lincoln after spending 19 seasons at UCF, his alma mater, including serving as the Knights' tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator under Scott Frost in 2016 and 2017. Beckton was one of the most important figures in the history of UCF football before deciding to follow Frost to Lincoln.

As a coach, Beckton helped the Knights win four of the six conference championships in

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has coached at the high school, collegiate & professional levels
- Has produced NFL Draft picks at both tight end & wide receiver
- Unit helped NU offense total 2,500 yards passing & rushing in 2018
- Helped UCF post the greatest two-year turnaround in NCAA history
- Helped UCF finish as the nation's only undefeated team in 2017
- UCF led the nation in scoring & was No. 5 in total offense in 2017
- Was on staff for four of the six conference titles in UCF history
- Coached tight end Jordan Akins, a 2018 third-round NFL Draft pick
- Coached Brandon Marshall, a six-time NFL Pro Bowl wide receiver
- Coached AJ Bouye, an NFL All-Pro cornerback

the unit totaled 49 receptions for 818 yards and caught five touchdown passes while averaging 16.7 yards per reception. In 2016, UCF's tight ends combined for 38 catches, 527 receiving yards and a pair of touchdown catches.

Individually, Jordan Akins posted his best two seasons under Beckton's coaching. Akins set career highs with 32 receptions for 515 yards and four touchdowns as a senior in 2017, when he was a first-team all-conference selection and was named to the John Mackey Award preseason watch list. In 2016, Akins caught 23 passes for 347 yards. Following his senior season, Akins was selected in the third round of the 2018 NFL Draft.

Before Frost's arrival, Beckton coached the UCF wide receivers from 2012 to 2015, his second stint in that role. Working with a young unit in 2015, Tre'Quan Smith finished with 52 catches for 724 yards, both of which set UCF freshman records. The 2015 American Athletic Conference Rookie of the Year, Smith went on to be a first-team All-AAC selection and Biletnikoff Award nominee in 2017. In 2014, four Knights totaled 500 receiving yards for the first time in program history, led by Breshad Perriman's 1,044 yards. Perriman went on to be a first-round pick in the 2015 NFL Draft. In 2013, three wideouts had at least 500 receiving yards to help UCF to a 12-1 record, an AAC title and a Fiesta Bowl win over Baylor. In Beckton's first year coaching the wide receivers in 2012, the Knights totaled more than 3,100 receiving yards and 28 receiving touchdowns.

Beckton coached the wide receivers after leading the UCF defensive backs from 2009 to 2011. The Knights ranked in the top 25 nationally in passing defense in 2011 when cornerback Josh Robinson was a first-team all-conference selection before being selected in the third round of the 2011 NFL Draft. In 2010, UCF won 11 games, a Conference USA title and produced the program's first bowl win and the school's first national ranking. Two of Beckton's defensive backs were first-team all-conference selections that season. In 2009, he guided Robinson to freshman All-America honors and helped converted quarterback Michael Greco earn an NFL free agent contract after just one year as a safety.

Beckton also coached the wide receivers at his alma mater for eight seasons from 1996 to 2003 in his first full-time collegiate coaching position. During that time he coached a slew of top wideouts, including three who went on to NFL careers. His most high-profile pupil was Brandon Marshall, who caught 74 passes for 1,195 yards in 2005 before being selected in the fourth round of the 2006 NFL Draft. Marshall played 13 seasons in the NFL and was a six-time Pro Bowler who amassed 970 catches and 12,351 receiving yards. Beckton also received his start in the coaching profession as an offensive graduate assistant at UCF in 1992 and 1993.

ORLANDO PREDATORS (AFL): In addition to his 19 total seasons at UCF, Beckton coached the wide receivers for the Orlando Predators of the American Football League in 2008, helping the team to a 9-7 record and a playoff berth.

MAINLAND (FLA.) HIGH SCHOOL: Beckton also boasts experience in the prep ranks, as he was an assistant coach for Mainland (Fla.) High School from 1993 to 1996, where he also taught history. He helped Mainland to a pair of state championships and also worked with the basketball team, where he coached future NBA star Vince Carter.

PLAYING CAREER (UCF)

Originally from Daytona Beach, Fla., Beckton was a star wide receiver at UCF from 1987 to 1990. He ended his career as the program's all-time leader with 196 receptions and 2,493 receiving yards and was one of the first two football players to be enshrined in the UCF Athletics Hall of Fame. Against Texas Southern as a senior, Beckton was responsible for a touchdown four different ways (passing, rushing, receiving and punt return).

PERSONAL

Beckton earned his degree from UCF in liberal studies in 1993. He and his wife, Zorana, have one son, Sean Jr., and one daughter, Zaria. Sean Beckton Jr. is a member of the Husker football performance staff.

and a Philadelphia Eagles team that ranked second in the NFL in sacks in 2014. Individually, Dawson has tutored three All-Big Ten performers in his two seasons at Nebraska, and has coached five different defenders to all-conference accolades in his last three collegiate seasons.

In Dawson's first year at Nebraska in 2018, his defensive line featured a pair of All-Big Ten performers and helped key a Blackshirts unit that moved up 27 spots in the national scoring defense rankings from the 2017 season. The line helped Nebraska total 25 sacks, 11 more than the Huskers recorded the previous season.

In addition to the pressure created by the defensive line, the unit also helped the Huskers post the ninth-most pass breakups in school history (58). Carlos Davis led the line with five breakups, the most by a Husker defensive lineman since Ndamukong Suh had nine in 2009. Carlos and his twin brother, Khalil, were both all-conference performers in 2018, as Khalil led the defensive line with 41 tackles, eight tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks.

In 2020, Dawson's outside linebackers played a key role for a Blackshirt unit that ranked sixth in the Big Ten in total defense, and lowered opponent rushing yards per attempt by more than a half-yard over 2019. Outside linebacker JoJo Domann led the team with 58 tackles and 6.5 tackles for loss en route to All-Big Ten honors.

NEW YORK GIANTS (2019)

Dawson spent the 2019 season coaching the outside linebackers for the New York Giants. Dawson helped Markus Golden have a career year in his fifth year in the league, as Golden totaled a career-high 68 tackles. Golden also had 10.0 sacks – the second-highest total of his career – and scored the first defensive touchdown of his career. Dawson also helped Oshane Ximines record 4.5 sacks in his rookie season.

Mike Dawson is in his second season as the Huskers' outside linebackers coach and his third season overall on Scott Frost's Nebraska coaching staff. This offseason Dawson also added the title of Special Teams Coordinator.

Dawson coached Nebraska's defensive line on Frost's first staff in 2018, before spending the 2019 season as the outside linebackers coach for the New York Giants. He returned to Lincoln in the winter of 2020.

A coaching veteran in his 23rd season, Dawson has coached at the FCS, FBS and professional levels. He has spent 18 seasons in the collegiate ranks, including 12 years at the FBS level and seven seasons at a Power Five school. Dawson also boasts four years of coaching experience in the National Football League. He has coached both defensive linemen and outside linebackers in college and the NFL. Dawson also has three previous years of experience as a special teams coordinator.

Dawson has helped build impressive defenses throughout his career, including working with a UCF squad that ranked second nationally in takeaways in 2017

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has coached outside linebackers at the Power Five & NFL levels
- Four years experience coaching in the National Football League
- Helped JoJo Dommann earn All-Big Ten honors in 2020
- Two of his 2018 defensive linemen were picked in the 2020 NFL Draft
- Two of his three defensive linemen earned All-Big Ten honors in 2018
- Two of his three linemen also earned All-AAC honors at UCF in 2017
- Helped UCF to the greatest two-year turnaround in NCAA history
- UCF ranked 3rd nationally in takeaways from 2016-17
- Helped UCF rank in the top 10 nationally in nine categories in 2016
- 2014 Philadelphia Eagles squad ranked 2nd in the NFL in sacks

BEFORE NEBRASKA

UCF: Dawson spent two seasons on Frost's staff at UCF in 2016 and 2017, helping defensive coordinator Erik Chinander turn around the Knights' defense. UCF improved by more than 12 points per game in scoring defense during Dawson's tenure, and the defense helped out the offense by forcing 58 turnovers and scoring nine defensive touchdowns in his two seasons. UCF ranked third nationally in turnovers forced in Dawson's two seasons at the school, and his defensive line played a key role in that area by helping the Knights recover 23 fumbles.

In 2017, Dawson's defensive line helped UCF post the first perfect season in program history and in the history of the American Athletic Conference when UCF finished 13-0 as the nation's only undefeated team. The Knights ranked third in the league in scoring defense and fourth in rushing defense. Two of his three starting defensive linemen earned all-conference accolades, including Jamiyus Pittman, a member of the Outland Trophy watch list who was an All-AAC performer for the second straight season.

In Dawson's first season at UCF in 2016, the Knights ranked in the top 10 nationally in four defensive categories and in the top 25 in nine categories. Dawson's defensive line played a major role in UCF ranking second nationally in red zone defense, sixth in third-down defense, ninth in tackles for loss, 17th in sacks, 18th in turnovers forced and 24th in fumbles recovered. The defense was the key to UCF leading the nation with a six-win improvement from the 2015 to 2016 season.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES: Dawson was hired by Frost at UCF after spending three seasons on Chip Kelly's Philadelphia Eagles staff. Dawson served as a defensive quality control coach in 2013, when the Eagles won the NFC East and ranked third in the NFL with 31 takeaways. He spent the next two seasons as an assistant defensive line coach. In 2014, Dawson helped Philadelphia rank second in the NFL in sacks (49) and fifth in opponent yards per carry (3.7).

BOSTON COLLEGE: Dawson was Boston College's special teams coach for three seasons from 2009 to 2011. In his first year, kicker Steve Aponavicius set school records for career points, extra points made and field-goal percentage. In his second season with the Eagles, kicker Nate Freese was 22-of-25 on field goals, and he went on to break Aponavicius' career scoring record. Dawson also coached punter Ryan Quigley, who went on to play six seasons in the NFL.

AKRON: In his first full-time job at the FBS level, Dawson coached the Akron linebackers for three seasons from 2006 to 2008. With the Zips he tutored all-conference linebacker Brion Stokes, who ended his career with 38.5 tackles for loss, the second-most in school history.

NEW HAMPSHIRE: Dawson came to Akron following a six-year stint at New Hampshire from 2000 to 2005. He held three different positions with the Wildcats, coaching the linebackers in 2000 and 2002-03, the offensive line in 2001 and serving as defensive coordinator in 2004 and 2005. In his two seasons leading the defense, New Hampshire posted a 21-5 record and reached the 2005 FCS quarterfinals, when the Wildcats led the country with 45 takeaways.

PITTSBURGH, MAINE AND UMass-LOWELL: Dawson's first coaching stint in the FBS ranks came as a graduate assistant at Pittsburgh in 1998. Dawson began his coaching career as the defensive line coach in the spring of 1998 for UMass-Lowell before he joined Maine as a defensive assistant for the 1998 season.

PLAYING CAREER (UMASS)

Dawson was a three-year starter at linebacker and defensive end from 1995 to 1997 at UMass-Amherst. He served as team captain as a senior in 1997.

PERSONAL

Dawson earned his degree in sports management from UMass-Amherst in 1997. He and his wife Jodi have one son, Frankie.

Travis Fisher is in his fourth season on the Husker sideline in 2021, where he coaches the defensive backs. Fisher entered the coaching ranks following a nine-year NFL career, and he is in the ninth season of his coaching career, the last seven of which have been as a member of Scott Frost's staff. Fisher has been able to transfer his success and experience as a player into coaching. Fisher's defensive backs have consistently held opposing passing attacks in check while showing a knack for interceptions. After inheriting a Husker secondary that allowed more than 275 passing yards per game in 2017, Fisher helped Nebraska hold five opponents to fewer than 200 passing yards in 2018. NU held six opponents to fewer than 165 passing yards in 2019, when the Huskers ranked No. 33 nationally in pass efficiency defense. On the strength of a veteran secondary, the 2020 Blackshirts continued to improve and finished sixth in the Big Ten in total defense. Fisher led UCF to a No. 12 ranking in pass efficiency defense in 2016, and the Knights ranked second nationally with 20 interceptions in 2017.

Fisher has excelled developing individual talent. Nine of Fisher's defensive backs have signed NFL contracts in the last four years alone. In just one year, Fisher turned junior college transfer Mike Hughes into an All-American and first-round NFL Draft pick. Hughes was selected with the 30th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft, surpassing Fisher as the highest-drafted defensive player in UCF history. Fisher was selected in the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft following three seasons as a Knight.

In addition to developing players, Fisher has impressed in his role of bringing talent to Lincoln as one of Nebraska's top recruiters.

Fisher made an instant impact on the Husker secondary in his first season in 2018, when Nebraska produced impressive results as a team and individually. NU ranked 34th nationally in pass efficiency defense in 2018, a 61-spot improvement from 2017. Dicaprio Bootle shined under Fisher's guidance in 2018, earning All-Big Ten accolades. Bootle set career highs in every category and led the Big Ten and ranked ninth nationally with 15 pass breakups, the second-highest total in school history. At the opposite corner spot, Lamar Jackson posted his best season as a Husker, intercepting the first two passes of his career, breaking up a career-high seven passes and recording the first tackle for loss and forced fumble of his career.

Each of Nebraska's four primary safeties had at least one interception and one fumble forced or recovered in 2018. All told, Fisher's secondary recorded eight interceptions, forced 10 fumbles and had four fumble recoveries, helping Nebraska post its highest turnover total in four seasons. The secondary also combined for 41 pass breakups, helping Nebraska rank ninth in school history with 58 total pass breakups.

In 2019, Nebraska held six of its 12 opponents to fewer than 165 yards passing, including four opponents under 100 yards. Nebraska again ranked in the top 35 nationally in pass efficiency defense, and the Huskers were 11th nationally with two interception returns for touchdowns. Individually, Lamar Jackson ranked in the top 15 nationally in pass breakups and passes defended, while Cam Taylor-Britt - in just his second season playing defense - ranked fifth in the country with four forced fumbles, the most by a Husker since 1999. Jackson and Taylor-Britt also tied for the team lead with three interceptions.

Under Fisher's guidance, three of Nebraska's four secondary starters were All-Big Ten selections. Bootle earned All-Big Ten accolades for the second straight season, with Jackson and Taylor-Britt earning all-conference recognition for the first time.

Fisher's veteran secondary again shined in 2020. Each of the four starters in the secondary earned all-conference recognition, including Bootle who completed his Husker career as a three-time All-Big Ten honoree. Bootle finished in ninth place in Nebraska history in career breakups. Junior Cam Taylor-Britt earned second-team all-conference honors and once again showed his play-making ability with two interceptions, four breakups and 28 tackles. The hard-hitting safety duo of Marquel Dismuke and Deontai Williams combined for 98 tackles, eight tackles for loss and eight pass breakups.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

UCF: At his alma mater, Fisher helped Frost and defensive coordinator Erik Chinander turn the UCF defense into one of the top units in the American Athletic Conference. Fisher's defensive backs were a big reason why the Knights were able to record 58 takeaways and score nine defensive touchdowns in 2016 and 2017. UCF ranked third nationally in takeaways over the 2016 and 2017 seasons combined, and the Knights ranked fifth with 35 interceptions, including 26 from Fisher's defensive backs. In 2017, UCF led the AAC and was second nationally in interceptions.

In 2017, Fisher's unit helped UCF go 13-0 as the nation's only undefeated team while posting the first perfect season in school and American Athletic Conference history. The Knights led the league in interceptions and defensive touchdowns and ranked third in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. UCF's 20 interceptions not only led the conference but ranked fifth nationally, with 15 of the interceptions by Fisher's defensive backs, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

One of those interceptions was a game-ending pick by Tre Neal - who followed Fisher to Nebraska as a graduate transfer in 2018 - in the second overtime of the American Athletic Conference Championship win over No. 16 Memphis. Another was an interception by Antwan Collier with 24 seconds remaining that sealed the Knights' Peach Bowl win over No. 7 Auburn. Cornerback Mike Hughes and safety Kyle Gibson were both first-team all-conference selections and both players ranked in the top 25 nationally in interceptions. Hughes, a first-year junior college transfer, went on to earn second-team All-America honors before being a first-round selection in the 2018 NFL Draft, eclipsing Fisher as the highest-drafted defensive back in UCF history.

The production of Fisher's defensive backs in 2017 came after five defensive backs from the 2016 roster signed NFL contracts following the season, including third-round draft pick Shaquill Griffin.

Led by Griffin, Fisher's defensive backs played a big role in UCF's 2016 season, when the Knights were the nation's most-improved team. UCF posted the top pass efficiency defense in the American Athletic Conference and the 12th-best mark nationally, while the defensive backs totaled 12 of the Knights' 15 interceptions - a total that ranked 22nd nationally. The group also returned four interceptions for touchdowns, helping UCF rank third nationally with five defensive touchdowns. Individually, Griffin led the AAC and was fifth nationally with 1.5 passes defended per game, and his 15 pass breakups in 2017 and 36 career breakups were both the second-most in UCF history. Drico Johnson also set a school record by becoming the first UCF player to score two defensive touchdowns in one game, accomplishing the feat against Tulane.

A former Knight cornerback, Fisher also spent the 2015 season at UCF, where he coached the cornerbacks in his first season as an FBS assistant. He began his coaching career as a defensive quality assistant with UCF in 2013, when the Knights went 12-1 and finished with a No. 10 ranking.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE: Fisher's first full-time coaching role came as the cornerbacks coach at Southeast Missouri State in 2014.

PLAYING CAREER (UCF & NFL)

As a player, Fisher totaled 130 tackles with the Knights from 1999 to 2001. He was selected in the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft with the 64th overall pick by the St. Louis Rams. Fisher had been the highest drafted defensive back in UCF history before his pupil Hughes was selected in the first round with the 30th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft. Fisher went on to spend nine seasons in the NFL and led the NFL with two interception returns for touchdowns and 205 interception return yards in 2003.

PERSONAL

Fisher graduated from UCF with a degree in criminal justice in 2001. He has two daughters, Taliyah and Aria, and one son, Travis Jr.

Held also began his coaching career at Nebraska as an undergraduate assistant coach in 1997. After being a part of two Husker national championship teams as a player, Held helped Nebraska to the 1997 national title with Scott Frost as the Huskers' starting quarterback.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

UCF: Held coached the running backs for a program that was the nation's most improved team in 2016 and posted the first perfect season in UCF and American Athletic Conference history in 2017. With help from Held's running backs, the Knights' offense showed dramatic improvement, increasing their scoring production by nearly 35 points per game from 2015 to 2017 and their total offense output by more than 260 yards per game.

Held's running backs helped UCF rush for more than 2,500 yards during its perfect season and run to the American Athletic Conference title in 2017. Adrian Killins Jr. averaged 6.5 yards per carry en route to earning all-conference accolades as a sophomore. Killins added 10 rushing touchdowns, including a 96-yard score in the regular-season matchup with Memphis, the longest rush and longest play from scrimmage in both UCF and AAC history. As a unit, Held's running backs combined for 24 rushing touchdowns in 2017 and turned the ball over only three times in 13 games. As a team, UCF ranked ninth nationally with 39 rushing touchdowns.

In Held's first season at UCF in 2016, the Knights rushed for nearly 2,000 yards, including more than 800 yards from freshmen. Killins averaged 6.5 yards per carry, while senior Dontravious Wilson scored eight rushing touchdowns after scoring only three times in his first three seasons combined.

AS A HEAD COACH: Before joining Frost at UCF, Held made his name in the coaching community as a junior college, Division II and NAIA head coach. He spent four seasons as a junior college head coach, including two years each at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M (2014-15) and Highland (Kan.) Community College (2012-13). Held coached 22 all-conference selections in his final season at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M and led Highland to the playoffs in 2013 for the first time in the modern era. In his four years as a junior college head coach, Held sent more than 50 players to Division I schools. Held's first stint in the junior college ranks was as the offensive coordinator for Butler (Kan.) Community College in 2011, when the Grizzlies went 11-1 and ranked second nationally in total offense.

Previously, Held spent seven seasons as a Division II head coach. He led the Southwestern Oklahoma State program for four seasons from 2005 to 2008, guiding the team to a conference title in 2007, one year after he was named the division coach of the year. Held coached Oklahoma Panhandle State from 2002 to 2004, and his first full-time coaching job was as head coach at Peru State in 2001, an NAIA school in Peru, Neb. Upon his hiring by Peru State, Held was the youngest head football coach in the country (age 26), and he led the Bobcats to a second-place league finish in his only season.

TENNESSEE: Held was a defensive graduate assistant at Tennessee in 1998 and 1999, helping the Volunteers win the 1998 national championship.

PLAYING CAREER (NEBRASKA)

Held was a two-time national champion himself as a Husker from 1993 to 1996. Nebraska posted a 47-3 record during Held's career with three conference titles. At Nebraska, Held was a teammate of Frost's during the 1995 and 1996 seasons. Following his playing career, Held was an undergraduate assistant coach for the Huskers in 1997 working with the running backs.

PERSONAL

Held earned a bachelor's degree in community health from Nebraska in 1998 and a master's degree in sport management from Tennessee in 2001. He and his wife, Katie, have two sons, Jacob Ryan and Greyson John. Held also has a daughter, Rhylan.

Ryan Held is in his fourth season at his alma mater in 2021, where he coaches the Husker running backs. Held also holds the title of recruiting coordinator on Scott Frost's Husker coaching staff. Held was teammates with Frost for two seasons at Nebraska, and Held is serving on Frost's staff for the sixth straight year.

A coaching veteran with 12 years of head coaching experience, Held has won four national championships in his career, including two as a player and two as a coach. In fact, Held has been a part of three national championship teams in the eight seasons he has spent playing and coaching at Nebraska. Held has also benefited from coaching under three national coaches of the year: Frost, Phillip Fulmer and Tom Osborne.

As a position coach, Held has developed an all-conference running back three of the past four seasons and twice in the last four years, his starting running back ranked in the top 15 nationally in rushing yards per carry.

In addition to his role as running backs coach, Held has been recognized as an outstanding recruiter, as he was named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com in both 2018 and 2019. In his first year as recruiting coordinator, Held played a key role in Nebraska signing another top 25 national class.

Held's running backs produced impressive results in his first season in 2018. The group helped Nebraska rush for more than 2,500 yards, as NU boasted the third-most improved rushing attack in the country, averaging 209.0 rushing yards per game.

Leading the way was All-Big Ten back Devine Ozigbo, who ran for 1,082 yards as a senior in 2018, becoming Nebraska's first 1,000-yard rusher since Ameer Abdullah in 2014. Ozigbo, who was one of three Husker running backs to have a 100-yard rushing performance in 2018, had never even rushed for 500 yards in a season before Held's arrival. Ozigbo ranked 11th nationally with an average of 7.0 yards per carry. Ozigbo also led Nebraska with 12 rushing touchdowns and 90.2 rushing yards per game.

In 2019, Held helped develop a young running back group, where three of NU's top five running backs were in their first year in the program. Junior college transfer Dedrick Mills led Nebraska with 745 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns. He improved throughout the season and averaged 115.7 rushing yards per game and 6.5 yards per carry over the final three games. Mills ran for a season-high 188 yards against a Wisconsin defense that finished sixth nationally in rush defense. Both Mills and freshman Wan'Dale Robinson, a part-time running back, earned All-Big Ten recognition in their first season as Huskers.

Nebraska battled the injury bug at running back in 2020, as Mills' senior campaign was limited. However, Mills finished his career on a high note by rushing for a career-high 191 yards at Rutgers and he totaled 418 yards and three touchdowns, despite only playing in six games. The Husker running game was again among the Big Ten's best, averaging 201.4 yards per contest to rank second in the league.

Barrett Ruud, Nebraska's all-time leading tackler, is in his fourth season as the Huskers' inside linebackers coach in 2021. Ruud entered the coaching ranks shortly after an eight-year NFL career, and he has been a member of Scott Frost's staff each of the last six years.

Ruud spent his first four years in the profession in an off-field coaching role, but he was elevated to inside linebackers coach in January of 2018.

Ruud made a big impact in his first season on the sideline, as his starting inside linebackers were Nebraska's top two tacklers, combining for 195 stops. Mohamed Barry had the top tackling season by a Husker linebacker in seven seasons, making 112 tackles to rank second in the Big Ten in tackles per game and earn all-conference accolades. Dedrick Young II also had a career high in tackles in his lone season with Ruud as his position coach.

In his second season, Nebraska's top three tacklers were inside linebackers. Barry led the Huskers in tackles for the second straight season with 89 stops, while Will Honas ranked second with 73 tackles in his first full season at the FBS level. Collin Miller was third on the team with 67 tackles.

It should come as no surprise that Ruud has produced prolific tacklers while coaching Nebraska's inside linebackers. As a Husker linebacker himself, he recorded 432 tackles, 90 more than any other player in program history. Ruud then went on to make more than 650 tackles during his eight-year NFL career.

In his first season as a full-time assistant coach in 2018, Ruud's inside linebackers helped Nebraska improve by 27 spots in the national scoring defense rankings from the 2017 season and by 61 spots in pass efficiency defense. Both of Ruud's starting inside linebackers put together impressive seasons in 2018, with Mohamed Barry leading the team with 112 tackles and Dedrick Young II ranking second with 83 stops.

Barry enjoyed a breakout season under Ruud's tutelage en route to All-Big Ten honors. Barry recorded 112 tackles in 2018 after totaling just 44 stops in his first two seasons combined. He ranked second in the Big Ten and 38th nationally with an average of 9.3 tackles per game. Barry's 112 tackles were the most by a Husker since All-American Lavonte David had 133 tackles in 2011. Barry had seven games with 10 or more tackles, becoming only the fifth Husker to have seven double-figure tackle efforts in one season and the first in eight years. Barry also set a career high with 11 tackles for loss and posted the first 2.0 sacks of his career.

Young was nearly as productive in his only year under Ruud, setting career highs in what was one of the most impressive statistical careers by a Husker defender. Young totaled a career-high 83 tackles in 2018 to end his career with 284 tackles, the fifth-highest total in Nebraska history. In addition to his career high in tackles, Young also broke up a career-high five passes and intercepted the first pass of his career.

In 2019, Ruud's inside linebackers ranked first, second and third on the team in tackles. Barry recorded 89 tackles to give him more than 200 tackles in two seasons under Ruud, and Barry earned All-Big Ten honors for the second straight season. Opposite Barry, Will Honas and Collin Miller combined for 140 tackles. Honas was second on the team with a career-high 73 tackles, while Miller was third with a career-high 67 stops. Miller recorded 67 tackles after entering the year with only 28 career tackles.

Ruud adeptly rotated inside linebackers in 2020 as the Huskers battled injuries. Honas led the group with 57 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss and three sacks on his way to all-conference honors. Miller made 27 tackles in four games before a neck injury ended his playing career. The development of a pair of underclassmen highlighted Ruud's coaching. Sophomore Luke Reimer made 40 tackles and five tackles for loss, while redshirt freshman Nick Henrich moved inside late in the season and finished the year with 27 tackles. The play of the linebackers helped Nebraska rank sixth in the Big Ten in total defense.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has six years of collegiate experience coaching linebackers
- Played the position for four years at NU and eight years in the NFL
- NU's inside linebackers have more than 550 tackles in three years
- Mohamed Barry was an All-Big Ten linebacker in both 2018 & 2019
- Barry had 201 tackles after totaling 44 tackles in his first two years
- Barry ranked second in the Big Ten in tackles per game in 2018 (9.3)
- Dedrick Young II had a career-high 83 tackles in 2018
- Ruud is the all-time leading tackler in Nebraska history (432)
- Played in the 2001 national championship game at Nebraska
- Had an eight-year NFL career, making more than 650 tackles

Ruud also served as a defensive intern at Nebraska in 2014. That marked his first venture into the coaching profession and came two years after his NFL playing career had ended.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

UCF: Following an eight-year career as an NFL linebacker, Ruud got his start in coaching on the Nebraska staff as a defensive intern in 2014. Ruud then served as a quality control administrator on Frost's staff at UCF in 2016 and 2017, helping the Knights to the greatest two-year turnaround in modern college football history, including a 13-0 record in 2017, when UCF was the nation's only unbeaten team and won the American Athletic Conference title and the Peach Bowl.

Ruud is in his fourth season overall working with defensive coordinator Erik Chinander. Ruud helped Chinander's UCF defense make dramatic improvements, especially in takeaways. The Knights were also among the top teams in the nation in takeaways, with their 58 takeaways in 2016 and 2017 ranking third among FBS schools in that time period.

PLAYING CAREER (NEBRASKA & NFL)

Ruud boasts extensive knowledge of the linebacker position from his playing days. He totaled a school-record 432 tackles in his Nebraska career, 90 more than any other Husker. He was a freshman All-American, a three-time All-Big 12 selection and a 2004 third-team All-American. Ruud played in the 2002 Rose Bowl, when Nebraska battled Miami for the national championship.

Following his NU career, Ruud was a second-round pick in the 2005 NFL Draft, when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected him with the 36th overall pick. Ruud spent eight seasons in the NFL, recording 658 tackles with six sacks, seven interceptions and six forced fumbles. He played six seasons in Tampa Bay and also played for Tennessee, New Orleans and Houston.

PERSONAL

Ruud graduated with a degree in business management from Nebraska in 2005. He and his wife, Jenna, have two sons, Brooks and Hudson, and a daughter, Jaimes.

Tony Tuioti is in his third season as Nebraska's defensive line coach in 2021. Tuioti boasts 19 years of experience at every level of football, as he is in his 10th season as a collegiate assistant, and he was an NFL defensive line coach for two years. Tuioti also spent three years coaching in the high school ranks, including two seasons as a head coach. In addition to his experience as an on-field coach, Tuioti has three years of experience in recruiting administration at the FBS level.

Tuioti has emerged as one of the nation's top young coaches, spending the past eight seasons coaching in either the NFL or a Power Five Conference, including stints at two of the seven winningest programs in college football history (Michigan and Nebraska). He helped orchestrate an impressive defensive turnaround at Cal in 2017 and 2018. The Bears ranked 15th nationally in total defense in 2018, with Tuioti's defensive line combining for more than 120 tackles, 19.5 tackles for loss and 8.0 sacks. Overall, Cal ranked in the top 10 nationally in four defensive categories in 2018.

In his first season at Nebraska in 2019, Tuioti saw two of his three starting defensive linemen earn All-Big Ten accolades, and each of his three starters were on active NFL rosters in 2020. Tuioti quickly re-tooled the defensive line in 2020, helping Nebraska make significant improvement in defending the run.

Tuioti is also well-recognized for his strength as a recruiter. His work in the past year allowed Nebraska to sign another top 25 class in 2021.

Nebraska boasted a strong defensive line in 2019, as the Huskers held three opponents to fewer than 90 rushing yards and three opponents to fewer than 100 passing yards. Individually, five of Nebraska's six primary defensive linemen set career highs in tackles, while three also established career bests in sacks and tackles for loss. The line combined for 32 TFLs and 16.5 sacks. Two of Nebraska's three starting defensive linemen - Khalil Davis and Darrion Daniels - earned All-Big Ten recognition.

Davis led the defensive line with career highs of 45 tackles, 8.0 sacks and 12 tackles for loss, leading the team in sacks and TFLs. His eight sacks were the most by a Husker since 2013, while his 12 TFLs were the most by a Husker since 2014. Khalil's twin brother Carlos registered 32 tackles, six TFLs and 4.0 sacks, setting career highs in both TFLs and sacks. The Daniels brothers were also productive under Tuioti. Darrion, a graduate transfer, set career highs with 34 tackles and 1.5 sacks, while Damion totaled a career-high 13 tackles. Ben Stille recorded a career-high 31 tackles while adding eight TFLs and 3.0 sacks. Deontre Thomas added a career-high 19 tackles, including the first two tackles for loss of his career.

In 2020, the Nebraska defense decreased its yard per rush allowed to 4.2 yards per attempt, an improvement of 0.6 yards per rush over 2019. Stille headlined the defensive front with 27 tackles, three tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks and earned all-conference accolades. Damion Daniels was a powerful run stopper and made 20 tackles and four tackles for loss. Defensive ends Casey Rogers (25 tackles, 3 TFL) and Ty Robinson (17 tackles, 2 TFL) both excelled in their first extensive action as Huskers.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

CAL: Tuioti came to Nebraska after spending two seasons at Cal. He coached the Bears' defensive line in 2018, after tutoring the outside linebackers in 2017. At Cal, Tuioti was part of a defensive staff that produced a dramatic turnaround with the Bear defense.

In 2018, Cal ranked in the top 10 nationally in passing defense, interceptions, takeaways and defensive touchdowns, while ranking in the top 20 in total defense, pass efficiency defense and first downs allowed. Tuioti's defensive line played a major role in those lofty rankings. Cal's three starting defensive linemen - which included converted offensive

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has worked for two of the seven winningest programs in NCAA history
- Has spent the last six seasons in the Big Ten & Pac-12 Conferences
- Has two seasons of experience as an NFL defensive line coach
- Two of three 2019 starting linemen were selected in the NFL Draft
- Cal ranked in the top 10 in four defensive categories in 2018
- Cal's defensive line combined for 123 tackles, 19.5 TFLs & 8.0 sacks
- Helped Michigan to a 10-3 record in 2016 in an administrative role
- Helped Cleveland lead the NFL in opponent passer rating in 2014
- Was a member of Hawaii's 2010 conference championship team
- His defensive line combined for 22.5 sacks for the WAC champions lineman Chris Palmer - set career highs in nearly every category under Tuioti's tutelage while combining for 123 tackles, 19.5 tackles for loss, 8.0 sacks and nine breakups.

Luc Bequette was an honorable-mention All-Pac 12 selection after tying for the team lead with 5.0 sacks, while Palmer was second on the team with six breakups and Tevin Paul totaled a team-high 11.0 TFLs.

In his first season at Cal in 2017, Tuioti's outside linebackers played a key role on a Bears' defense that improved by an average of 40 spots in the 15 primary team defensive statistical categories ranked by the NCAA. His group combined for 11.0 sacks and two of his four starters registered at least 4.5 sacks. Alex Funches also led the team with 10.5 tackles for loss.

MICHIGAN: Prior to Cal, Tuioti spent the 2016 season in the Big Ten Conference as Michigan's director of player personnel. The Wolverines posted a 10-3 record and earned a final No. 10 ranking in Tuioti's lone season at the school. Tuioti's efforts helped Michigan land the No. 3 recruiting class in the country, and he also played a critical role in developing the relationships for a satellite camp tour in the summer of 2016 that included American Samoa, Australia and Hawaii among nearly 40 locations.

CLEVELAND BROWNS: Before joining the Wolverines, Tuioti was an assistant with the Cleveland Browns in 2014 and 2015, serving as the Browns' assistant defensive line and quality control coach. In his first season, Cleveland led the NFL in opponent completion percentage, opposing quarterback passer rating and passes defended, while ranking second in interceptions. In his final year with the Browns, Tuioti helped rookie defensive tackle Danny Shelton finish with 36 tackles and four TFLs.

HAWAII: Tuioti's first experience as a full-time member of a collegiate staff came at his alma mater. He spent six seasons at Hawaii from 2008 to 2013, first serving as the Rainbow Warriors' director of player personnel for two seasons, before coaching the defensive line for the next two years and tutoring the linebackers in his final two seasons.

In his first season as the defensive line coach, Hawaii won a share of the 2010 Western Athletic Conference championship. Hawaii led the nation in takeaways that season, Tuioti's defensive line produced 22.5 of the team's 30 sacks. The pressure from the defensive line was a big reason why the Rainbow Warriors tied for 15th in sacks per game the next season. Tuioti worked with the linebackers the next season, when Hawaii ranked 11th nationally in pass defense. In his final season, Tuioti's linebackers led the squad in tackles, TFLs and sacks, and the Rainbow Warriors ranked third nationally in tackles for loss and eighth in fumble recoveries.

KALAHEO & SILVERADO HIGH SCHOOLS: Tuioti's first full-time coaching job came in the high school ranks. He served as the head coach of Kalaheo High School in Honolulu in 2003 and 2004. Tuioti inherited a winless Kalaheo team and led the Mustangs to the playoffs for the first time in his inaugural season as the youngest varsity head coach in the state.

After two years at Kalaheo, Tuioti moved to Las Vegas to pursue a second master's degree and in 2017, he returned to coaching as the defensive coordinator for a Silverado High School team that finished 10-1 and was undefeated in the regular season while winning a division title.

HAWAII: Tuioti got his start in the coaching profession at Hawaii as a defensive graduate assistant in 2000 and 2001. He transitioned to the sideline after a four-year career as a standout defensive lineman for the Rainbow Warriors from 1996 to 1999.

PLAYING CAREER (HAWAII)

Tuioti was an honorable-mention All-WAC defensive lineman as a junior and as a senior, Tuioti was a key leader for a team that tied for the largest one-year turnaround in NCAA history, going from 0-12 the previous season to a 9-4 mark that included a share of the 1999 WAC title. He was one of two Rainbow Warriors to win a WAC championship both as a player (1999) and coach (2010). Tuioti also played in the 2000 Hula Bowl following his senior season.

PERSONAL

Tuioti earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Hawaii in 2000 before adding a master's degree in education administration in 2002. Tuioti also completed work on a second master's degree in special education from UNLV in 2007. He and his wife, Keala, have three daughters, Teisa, Teiyana and Teinia and four sons, Teivis, Teilor, Teitum and Teimana. Teivis is a freshman defensive tackle at Nevada and Teilor is a member of the football team at the New Mexico Military Institute.

offensive yards per game (295.1), 400-yard total offense games (3) and 300-yard total offense games (7), in addition to setting a Husker game record with an 86.2 completion percentage against Minnesota. Martinez was just the third true freshman to ever start at quarterback for Nebraska.

Martinez ranked 12th nationally in total offense in 2018 and first among freshmen. His average of 295.1 yards per game was the ninth-highest mark by a freshman in NCAA history and the third-highest mark by a true freshman. Martinez became the first true freshman at a Power Five program to average 290 yards of total offense per game. Martinez also became just the sixth freshman in NCAA history to average 200 passing yards per game and 50 rushing yards per game, and he was just the second true freshman in NCAA history - and first at a Power Five school - to hit both marks.

Led by Martinez, a freshman All-American, Nebraska's quarterbacks completed 63.6 percent of their passes and threw for 2,966 yards in 2018.

Verduzco dealt with injuries to his quarterback room in 2019. Martinez missed two games but accounted for more than 2,500 yards of total offense, ranking third in the Big Ten with an average of 258.2 yards of total offense per game. Despite Martinez missing time, Verduzco's reserve quarterbacks completed better than 72 percent of their passes for 500 yards and rushed for better than 200 yards. Verduzco had a role in another record in 2019, as NU set a school record by completing 87 percent of its passes against Indiana (20-of-23).

The Nebraska passing game was efficient in 2020, completing 68.1 percent of its passes to rank ninth nationally. The completion percentage was just shy of a school record. Individually, Martinez completed 71.5 percent of his passes to shatter the single-season completion percentage mark. Martinez also led Nebraska with 521 rushing yards and seven touchdowns, while averaging 5.7 yards per carry. The junior ranked fifth in the Big Ten in total offense per game.

Mario Verduzco is the veteran of Nebraska's coaching staff. He is in his sixth season serving as Scott Frost's quarterbacks coach, and he has coached with Frost for a total of eight seasons.

Verduzco brings a wealth of knowledge to the staff. He has coached at the high school, junior college, FCS and FBS levels and boasts 16 years of experience as a collegiate offensive coordinator in addition to a career devoted to developing quarterbacks.

A Broyles Award nominee, Verduzco helped Nebraska true freshman Adrian Martinez rank 12th nationally in total offense in 2018, one season after UCF sophomore McKenzie Milton was fourth nationally in total offense. Martinez enters his senior season in 2021 on track to break numerous Nebraska school records.

Verduzco helped Adrian Martinez put together one of the top statistical seasons by a freshman quarterback in NCAA history in 2018, earning a nomination for the Broyles Award in the process.

Under Verduzco's tutelage, Martinez completed nearly 65 percent of his passes, throwing for 2,617 yards and 17 touchdowns, while rushing for 629 yards and eight scores. Martinez set Nebraska season records for total

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Was a 2018 nominee for national assistant coach of the year
- Coached in the 2005 FCS National Championship Game
- Has helped Adrian Martinez set six Nebraska season or career records
- Martinez was 12th nationally in total offense in 2018 (295.1 ypg)
- Martinez's 295.1 total yards per game was a Nebraska record
- Martinez's mark was second among all true freshmen in NCAA history
- Helped UCF post the greatest two-year turnaround in NCAA history
- Helped UCF post the best one-year offensive improvement ever
- McKenzie Milton ranked 4th nationally in total offense at UCF in 2017
- Milton was the 2017 AAC Offensive Player of the Year

BEFORE NEBRASKA

UCF: Verduzco helped Frost increase the Knights' win total by 13 games in only two seasons. UCF was the nation's most improved team in 2016, and the Knights won a conference title and put together the first perfect season in program history in 2017, which also marked the first perfect season in American Athletic Conference history. UCF improved from ranking 125th nationally in scoring offense and 127th in total offense in 2015 to first and fifth in those respective categories in 2017. The Knights' quarterback play was a big reason for the turnaround.

Under Verduzco's direction, McKenzie Milton developed into one of the nation's top quarterbacks. Milton completed better than 64 percent of his passes and threw for 6,020 yards and 47 touchdowns in his two seasons with Verduzco, while adding 771 rushing yards. In Verduzco's two seasons, the UCF quarterbacks posted a nearly 3-to-1 touchdown-to-interception ratio, throwing 52 touchdown passes against only 18 interceptions.

Milton made great strides under Verduzco in 2017, posting one of the nation's best individual seasons. Milton completed more than 67 percent of his passes and threw for 4,037 yards with a school-record 37 touchdowns. He also ran for 613 yards and averaged 5.8 yards per carry while scoring eight touchdowns. Milton ranked second nationally in passing efficiency (179.3), was fourth in completion percentage (67.1), total offense (357.7 yards per game) and passing touchdowns (37), fifth in yards per completion (15.2) and seventh in passing yards (4,037).

Milton was selected as the 2016 American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Manning Award, in addition to being a semifinalist for the Maxwell and Walter Camp national player-of-the-year awards and a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Quarterback Award. Milton's backup was Noah Vedral, who completed 22-of-29 passes for 276 yards and one touchdown as a true freshman in 2017 before transferring to Nebraska in January of 2018.

In 2016, Verduzco dealt with injuries to his quarterbacking corps but helped develop Milton into the starter as a true freshman. Milton set a UCF freshman record with 194 completions and threw for 1,983 yards while completing 57.7 percent of his passes.

MISSOURI STATE: Verduzco spent the 2015 season as Missouri State's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. His stint with the Bears came after he spent 14 seasons at Northern Iowa.

NORTHERN IOWA: Verduzco served as the Panthers' co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for nine seasons from 2006 to 2014 after coaching UNI's quarterbacks in his first five seasons on staff from 2001 to 2005. Northern Iowa won six Missouri Valley Conference titles and made eight trips to the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs in Verduzco's 14 seasons at the school, including playing for the 2005 FCS national championship. Seven Panther quarterbacks combined for 13 all-conference awards under Verduzco, led by Eric Sanders, the 2007 Missouri Valley Offensive Player of the Year who finished his career with the best completion percentage in FCS history, including an FCS-record 75.2 completion percentage in 2007.

RUTGERS: Before spending 15 seasons in the FCS ranks, Verduzco was an assistant at Rutgers for five seasons from 1996 to 2000, where he coached the Scarlet Knights quarterbacks and was the school's recruiting coordinator.

DE ANZA COLLEGE: Verduzco went to Rutgers after totaling 19 seasons coaching at various levels in California. He was at De Anza College in Cupertino, Calif., for five seasons from 1991 to 1995, including serving as the Don's head coach in 1994 and 1995.

SAN JOSE STATE: In his first FBS coaching role, Verduzco spent the 1990 and 1991 seasons as a graduate assistant at San Jose State. The Spartans won nine games in 1990 and were Big West champions in each of Verduzco's two seasons.

GAVILAN COLLEGE: Verduzco's first collegiate job came at Gavilan College in California, where he was the Rams' offensive coordinator for three seasons from 1987 to 1989.

HIGH SCHOOL: Before entering the collegiate ranks, Verduzco spent 10 seasons as an assistant at Soquel High School in California, including three seasons as the school's defensive coordinator.

PERSONAL

Verduzco graduated from San Jose State in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in human performance. He earned his master's degree in biomechanics and exercise physiology two years later. As part of his master's requirement, Verduzco authored a 268-page master's theses entitled "The biomechanics of the quarterback position: a kinematic analysis and integrative approach." Mario and his wife, Cate, have one son, Charles.

- » Sam Foltz 27 Hero Leadership Award (2020)
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2018, 2019, 2020)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2018, 2019, 2020)

2020 (JUNIOR)

Austin Allen played in all eight games with a career-high seven starts as a junior. He set career highs with 18 receptions and 236 receiving yards, eclipsing his career totals entering the year in both categories. Allen, who had at least one reception in every game, also caught the first touchdown pass of his career in 2020. Allen ranked second on the team in receptions and receiving yards, and his average of 13.1 yards per catch was the highest of any Husker with more than five receptions.

Allen had two catches for 30 yards in the opener at No. 5 Ohio State. He caught a 26-yard pass that was Nebraska's longest reception of the game and the third-longest catch of Allen's career. He started Nebraska's next game at Northwestern and caught two passes for 29 yards, including a 25-yard reception. Allen had a then-career high three receptions in the win over Penn State, totaling 39 yards. He caught a 25-yard pass against the Nittany Lions, giving him a catch of 25 yards or longer in each of the first three games. Allen had a career-high five receptions for a career-high 43 yards against Illinois. He had 28 receiving yards on two catches at Iowa and had a 37-yard catch at Purdue, the second-longest reception of his career.

After having at least 25 receiving yards in the first six games of the season - the longest streak by a Husker tight end in more than a decade - Allen caught an eight-yard touchdown pass against Minnesota, his first career touchdown and his only catch of the game. He helped Nebraska win at Rutgers in the final game by catching two passes for 22 yards.

2019 (SOPHOMORE)

Allen played in every game as a sophomore, including the first five starts of his career (Colorado, Illinois, Northwestern, Maryland, Iowa). He caught seven passes for 83 yards, five more receptions than he had as a redshirt freshman. Allen posted his first catch of the season with an eight-yard reception in the season opener against South Alabama, and he had a career-high two catches against No. 5 Ohio State. Allen hauled in a 24-yard reception against Northwestern. He added a nine-yard catch against Indiana and had a five-yard reception against No. 15 Wisconsin. Allen had his longest reception of the season with a 30-yard catch at Maryland.

Allen also made significant contributions in a win over Northern Illinois even though he did not have a catch. He recovered a fumble on special teams to set up a Husker touchdown and had a tackle to stuff a fake punt attempt short of the first-down line.

2018 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Allen played in all 12 games as a redshirt freshman. Along with adding perimeter blocking for a Husker run game that was the third-most improved attack in the country, Allen caught two passes for 54 yards. He hauled in a 13-yard reception vs. Bethune-Cookman for his first career catch before adding a career-long 41-yard reception the next week at No. 8 Ohio State. Allen's catch at Ohio State marked the longest reception by a Husker tight end in three seasons.

2017 (REDSHIRT)

Allen sat out as a redshirt in his first season in the program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (AURORA HS)

Allen was regarded as the consensus top prospect in the state of Nebraska in the 2017 recruiting class. A three-time first-team all-district selection, Allen had his senior season limited by injury. Before being injured, Allen showed his skills on both sides of the ball for Coach Kyle Peterson by catching five passes and making five tackles and two sacks.

In his junior season, Allen caught 41 passes for 507 yards and eight touchdowns, helping his team to a 12-1 record and a Class B runner-up finish. Allen also made 51 tackles, including five tackles for loss and had five interceptions from his linebacker position. Allen earned first-team Class B all-state honors as a linebacker from both the Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal Star. Allen also saw significant time as a sophomore, catching 14 passes and helping his team to a state playoff berth.

On the basketball court, Allen was a first-team Class B all-state pick as a junior, averaging better than 15 points per game. He was an honorable-mention all-state choice as a sophomore.

In addition to being the top ranked player in Nebraska, Allen was ranked among the nation's top 25 tight ends by both Scout and ESPN. He also had offers from Iowa, Iowa State, UCLA and UCF.

PERSONAL

Austin is the son of Andrew and Renae Allen, and he was born on Nov. 10, 1998. Austin's father was a walk-on for the football team in 1981, before transferring to Doane College. Allen is majoring in mechanized systems management. A three-time member of the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship teams, Allen has volunteered his time with local hospital and school outreach, the FCA, the Buffett Cancer Center, Husker Heroes and the Nebraska Football Road Race.

[HONORS & AWARDS]

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2020)
- » Three-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2020 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Bryce Benhart started every game at right tackle as a redshirt freshman. He was the only Husker offensive lineman to start every game at the same position in 2020. Benhart helped Nebraska's offense total 620 yards in a season-ending win at Rutgers, and the Huskers finished with the second-best rushing attack in the Big Ten.

2019 (REDSHIRT)

Benhart played in three games and traveled to every road game as a true freshman in 2019, preserving his redshirt season. Benhart made his career debut at right tackle against Northern Illinois, and he also played on special teams against No. 15 Wisconsin and saw extensive time on the line and on special teams at Maryland. As the first of three Husker true freshman offensive linemen to play in 2019, Benhart became only the 12th true freshman offensive lineman to play in a game in school history.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LAKEVILLE NORTH HS)

Benhart was regarded as one of the top offensive line recruits in the nation after completing his career at Minnesota prep powerhouse Lakeville North High School. As one of the nation's top recruits, Benhart was selected for the 2019 Army All-American Bowl.

Benhart helped Lakeville North High School and Coach Brian Vossen to a 13-0 record and a Class 6A state title in 2018. With Benhart providing a huge blocking presence, the Lakeville North offense scored at least 35 points seven times in its unbeaten season, capped by victories over Eden Prairie and Lakeville South in the state semifinals and finals. Benhart earned All-Minnesota honors from USA Today for his efforts as a senior. In 2017, Benhart helped Lakeville to a 7-4 record and a trip to the state playoffs. For his work on the line, Benhart was a second-team All-Minnesota selection by the Associated Press. Benhart was also a member of the varsity team in 2016, helping Lakeville North to a 9-2 record.

Benhart was also a standout on the wrestling mat. He finished fourth at the 2018 state wrestling championship and then went 34-0 as a senior en route to capturing the Minnesota 3A heavyweight title.

Benhart was ranked as the No. 2 player in Minnesota by both Rivals and 247Sports. He was ranked as the No. 13 offensive tackle in the nation and the No. 153 overall recruit by 247Sports and the No. 18 offensive tackle and No. 139 player overall by Rivals, while he was also a member of the ESPN 300. Benhart also visited Tennessee and Wisconsin and had numerous other offers, including Michigan, Minnesota, Northwestern, Notre Dame and Oklahoma.

PERSONAL

Bryce was born on July 14, 2000, and he is the son of Gene and Patti Benhart. He has not declared a major. He has volunteered his time with the Day of Service, Nebraska Football Road Race and local hospital visits.

He had an eight-yard catch in his Husker debut at Ohio State and caught a six-yard pass at Northwestern. Falck had his longest catch as a Husker with a 21-yard grab in the win against Penn State. Falck caught two passes for 11 yards against Illinois, including a four-yard touchdown grab. He added two catches for 22 yards at Iowa. Falck had his most productive day as a Husker in the win at Purdue, catching five passes for 39 yards. Falck also blocked a punt on Purdue's opening possession, setting Nebraska up at the Boilermaker 1-yard line. After being held without a catch against Minnesota, Falck made a 15-yard reception in Nebraska's season-ending win at Rutgers.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CENTENNIAL HS/SOUTH DAKOTA)

Falck joined Nebraska as a graduate transfer from South Dakota. He played in 24 games and made 14 starts with the Coyotes from 2016 to 2019, catching 70 passes for 774 yards and a pair of touchdowns. After redshirting in 2016, Falck caught 16 passes for 197 yards in seven games as a redshirt freshman in 2017. As a sophomore in 2018, he played in all 11 games and earned nine starts, ranking second on the team with 45 catches and third with 492 receiving yards and two touchdowns. He tied the South Dakota record with 11 catches against Kansas State and had a career-high 140 receiving yards against the Wildcats. Falck battled injuries as a junior in 2019, catching nine passes for 85 yards.

- » Four-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2019)

2020 (SOPHOMORE)

Cameron Jurgens started seven of eight games at center as a sophomore. He earned his 13th consecutive start at center in the Huskers' season opener at No. 5 Ohio State, before an injury kept him out of the Northwestern game. He returned to start the final six games, including the season finale at Rutgers, when Nebraska had 620 yards of total offense. Jurgens helped the Huskers rank second in the Big Ten in rushing.

2019 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Jurgens started every game at center in 2019. He made history in the season opener against South Alabama, becoming the first Husker freshman (true or redshirt) to start a game at center since the NCAA restored freshmen eligibility in 1972. Jurgens helped Nebraska rank third in the Big Ten in rushing offense and fifth in total offense.

Jurgens played a key role in Nebraska producing its most total yards in a Big Ten Conference game (690 yards at Illinois), while tying its most points in a Big Ten game (54 at Maryland). Against Illinois, the Huskers totaled 300 yards rushing and 300 yards passing for just the second time in school history en route to gaining the most yards in any conference game since 2007. Nebraska also set a school record for team completion percentage against Indiana (87.0 percent).

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BEATRICE HS)

Jurgens was a three-sport star at Beatrice High School. Jurgens battled injuries as a senior but still contributed offensively and defensively for the Orangemen. As a hybrid tight end, he rushed for 318 yards and eight touchdowns as a senior, while also catching 17 passes for 277 yards. Defensively, Jurgens recorded 57 tackles and had one interception from his linebacker spot before suffering a season-ending injury in the final game of the regular season. Jurgens was named to the Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska and Lincoln Journal Star Super-State first team in addition to being a first-team all-state selection by both papers.

Jurgens was also an All-Nebraska and Super-State selection at linebacker as a junior, when he led Beatrice with 98 tackles. He added 23 catches for 286 yards as a tight end. Jurgens also punted for the Orangemen, averaging 35.8 yards per punt. Jurgens was a second-team Super-State selection as a sophomore, when he was one of only two underclassmen to make either the Super-State first or second team.

Jurgens also excelled on the basketball court and in the discus and shot put, which helped him earn the honor as the 2017 Lincoln Journal Star Boys Athlete of the Year in the state of Nebraska. Jurgens averaged 12.5 points per game and 3.5 rebounds per game as a junior, when he was an honorable-mention Class B all-state selection. In track and field, Jurgens was a four-time Class B state champion in the discus and three-time champion in the shot put. He won the all-class gold medal in both the shot put and discus in each of his final three seasons. His two titles as a senior helped Beatrice to the Class B team title.

Jurgens was ranked among the nation's top 200 recruits in the 247Sports Composite rankings and was regarded as the fourth-best tight end recruit in the country by ESPN. Jurgens also visited LSU.

PERSONAL

Cameron is the son of Ted and Beth Jurgens, and he was born on Aug. 21, 1999. Jurgens is majoring in nutrition and health sciences. He has volunteered his time with a Day of Service, the Nebraska Football Road Race and local hospital visits.

[JUNIOR » WIDE RECEIVER]

6-1 | 200 | CORALVILLE, IOWA

After joining the Huskers as a transfer from Iowa, Oliver Martin received an immediate eligibility waiver from the NCAA in November. He went on to play in each of the season's final five games, starting the final four contests and finishing with five catches for 63 yards.

Martin made his Husker debut against Illinois, catching two passes for 30 yards and returning one punt for seven yards. Martin started at Iowa and had a seven-yard catch, and he earned another start at Purdue. He started for the third time against Minnesota and had a 22-yard catch. He ended his year with a four-yard reception in Nebraska's win at Rutgers.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (IOWA CITY WEST HS/MICHIGAN/IOWA)

Martin joined Nebraska as a transfer walk-on after previously playing for both Michigan and Iowa. He has played in 21 games in his collegiate career and caught 16 passes for 153 yards and two touchdowns. Martin redshirted in his first season at Michigan in 2017, then appeared in 13 games with one start as a redshirt freshman in 2018, catching 11 passes for 125 yards and one touchdown. Martin transferred to Iowa prior to the 2019 season and had five catches for 28 yards and one touchdown in five games for the Hawkeyes as a sophomore. In high school, Martin was a U.S. Army All-American, the Iowa Gatorade Player of the Year and a finalist for the 2017 Iowa High School Athlete of the Year. As a standout for Iowa City West High School, he set state records for career receptions (239), receiving yards (3,449) and touchdowns (33). Martin was also an eight-time state champion swimmer at Iowa City West.

One of 13 two-time captains in Nebraska history, Adrian Martinez played in seven games with six starts as a junior. He was 108-of-151 through the air for 1,055 yards and four touchdowns, completing 71.5 percent of his passes. His completion percentage was a Husker season record, led the Big Ten and ranked fourth nationally. His 71.5 percent ranked fifth in Big Ten history and was the fourth-best mark in a Big Ten Conference season.

In addition to leading Nebraska in passing, Martinez was also the Huskers' leading rusher, carrying the ball 91 times for 521 yards and seven touchdowns. Martinez became the third player in program history to lead Nebraska in both rushing and passing in the same season and was the fourth Husker quarterback to lead NU in rushing. In addition to ranking fourth nationally in completion percentage, Martinez was second nationally in rushing yards per game among all FBS quarterbacks (74.4) and was the only Power Five quarterback to average 70 rushing yards per game. He averaged 254.1 yards of total offense per game in his six starts.

Martinez accounted for 190 yards of total offense at No. 5 Ohio State. He completed 12-of-15 passes for 105 yards and carried the ball 13 times for 85 yards and one touchdown. At Northwestern, Martinez posted his fourth career 100-yard rushing game with 102 yards on 13 carries. Martinez came off the bench two weeks later to lead the Huskers on a seven-play, 54-yard touchdown drive late in the game against Illinois. He completed 3-of-4 passes for 43 yards on the drive, including a 4-yard touchdown pass that marked his 400th career completion. Martinez also rushed for eight yards on two carries against the Illini.

Martinez returned to the starting lineup at Iowa, accounting for 202 total yards. He completed 18-of-20 passes for 174 yards, breaking his own Nebraska record for highest completion percentage in a game (90.0). He accounted for 287 yards of total offense and three total touchdowns in the win at Purdue. Martinez completed 23-of-30 passes for 242 yards for one touchdown and carried the ball 13 times for 45 yards and two scores. He amassed 207 yards of offense and two touchdowns against Minnesota, including 96 rushing yards.

In the final game at Rutgers, Martinez posted his fifth career 400-yard total offense game, extending his Nebraska record in that category while also tying Tommy Armstrong Jr. with his school-record 13th career game with 300 yards of total offense. Martinez completed 24-of-28 passes for 255 yards and one touchdown, and he rushed a career-high 23 times for a career-high 157 yards and two scores. His 412 yards of total offense ranked 14th in Nebraska history.

Martinez, the second sophomore to serve as team captain in modern Nebraska football history, started 10 of 12 games in 2019, missing the Minnesota and Indiana games due to injury. He completed nearly 60 percent of his passes while throwing for 1,956 yards and 10 touchdowns. He also rushed for 626 yards and seven scores. Martinez averaged 258.2 yards of total offense per game to rank third in the Big Ten.

After being limited to 178 yards of total offense against South Alabama, Martinez totaled 356 yards at Colorado. He threw for 290 yards and two touchdowns against the Buffaloes while rushing for 66 yards and two scores, tying his career highs with two rushing touchdowns and four total touchdowns. Martinez had 301 yards of total offense against Northern Illinois, when he accounted for three total touchdowns. Martinez had his most prolific game of the season at Illinois, posting a career-high 446 yards of total offense, the third-highest total in school history. He completed 22-of-34 passes for 327 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 118 yards to post just the second 300-yard passing, 100-yard rushing game in the history of Nebraska football. The performance marked the fourth time Martinez produced a game with 400 yards of total offense, a Nebraska career record he achieved in only 15 starts.

Martinez totaled 128 yards of offense against No. 5 Ohio State. The next week, Martinez completed 13-of-20 passes for 145 yards against Northwestern before suffering an injury that kept him out of the fourth quarter. In his return to the field, Martinez totaled 305 yards of offense at Purdue, throwing for 247 yards and leading Nebraska with 58 rushing yards. He tied his career high with a pair of rushing touchdowns against the Boiler makers. Martinez accounted for 309 yards of offense against No. 15 Wisconsin, throwing for 220 yards and rushing for 89 more. He totaled 288 yards at Maryland, including 94 rushing yards on 10 carries.

2018 (FRESHMAN)

Martinez made 11 starts during a record-breaking freshman season. He made school history by starting the season opener against Colorado, becoming the first true freshman quarterback to start a season opener in Nebraska history and just the second freshman quarterback - true or redshirt - to start a season opener. Martinez was just the third true freshman in Husker history to start at quarterback, joining Tommie Frazier (7 starts in 1992) and Cody Green (2 starts in 2009).

Martinez was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week three times in 2018, the first quarterback to win the award three times since Ohio State's J.T. Barrett in 2014. Martinez was also recognized as an honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection and a freshman All-American.

Martinez rewrote Nebraska's freshman record book, and he also left his mark on the Huskers' overall season charts, including averaging a school-record 295.1 yards of total offense per game. Martinez ranked 12th nationally in total offense per game in 2018 and was first among freshmen. Martinez's average of 295.1 yards of total offense per game was the ninth-highest mark by a freshman in NCAA history and the third-best mark by a true freshman.

Martinez completed 64.6 percent of his passes while throwing for 2,617 yards, ranking third in school history in completion percentage, sixth in completions (224), eighth in passing yards and 10th in passing touchdowns (17). Martinez also rushed for 629 yards, the fourth-highest rushing total of any true freshman in school history. His dual-threat ability helped Martinez account for 3,246 yards of total offense, which was the fifth-highest total in Nebraska history. He had a school-record seven 300-yard total offense games, including three 400-yard total offense games, tying the Nebraska season and career records in that category.

Martinez set freshman records for completions, completion percentage, passing yards, passing touchdowns, total offense and total touchdowns (25), and he was fourth nationally among all freshmen in passing yards per game. Martinez averaged 237.9 passing yards per game and 57.2 rushing yards per game in 2018, becoming just the second true freshman in FBS history to average 200 passing yards and 50 rushing yards per game and the first to hit those averages at a Power Five program. Overall, Martinez was just the sixth freshman - true or redshirt - to average 200 passing yards and 50 rushing yards per game. He was also one of just four FBS quarterbacks - regardless of class - who averaged 225 passing yards and 50 rushing yards per game in 2018.

The Husker offense totaled more than 500 yards of offense in five of Martinez's 11 starts, including four games with more than 560 yards of offense. Martinez helped Nebraska gain at least 450 yards in seven consecutive games the longest such streak in school history.

Martinez dazzled in his career debut against Colorado before exiting the game in the fourth quarter with an injury. He set then-Nebraska true freshman records with 187 passing yards and 304 yards of total offense against the Buffs, while becoming the first true freshman quarterback in Husker history to rush for 100 yards. For his efforts, Martinez was named the national freshman of the week by Athlon Sports.

Martinez played the first full game of his career against Purdue and accumulated 323 passing yards and 414 yards of total offense, the 12th-highest individual total offense game in Nebraska history. The next week at No. 16 Wisconsin, Martinez was even better, throwing for a career-high 384 yards and amassing a career-high 441 yards of total offense, the fourth-highest total in school history.

Martinez topped 400 yards of total offense for the third time in four games while leading the Huskers to a win over Minnesota. He completed 25-of-29 passes for 276 yards, with his 86.2 percent completion rate setting a then-Nebraska record for a quarterback who attempted at least 20 passes in a game. Martinez also rushed for a career-high 125 yards against the Gophers. For his efforts against Minnesota, Martinez was named the Big Ten Co-Freshman of the Week.

At No. 8 Ohio State, Martinez accounted for 338 yards of total offense and three touchdowns en route to being named the Big Ten Co-Freshman of the Week. He was honored again the next week after leading Nebraska to more than 600 yards of offense and 54 points - the most points NU has ever scored in a Big Ten game - against Illinois. Martinez accounted for 345 yards of total offense against Illinois. He wrapped up his freshman season by helping Nebraska rally from a 15-point fourth-quarter deficit at Iowa, although the Huskers lost on a last-second field goal. Martinez completed a career-high 26 passes against the Hawkeyes. He finished with 336 yards of total offense at Iowa, becoming the first Husker to have seven games with 300 or more yards of total offense in a season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CLOVIS WEST HS)

Martinez displayed his ability as both a passer and running threat for Coach George Petrissans at Clovis West High School in Fresno, Calif. Martinez missed his senior season because of an injury but shined during his junior year, completing 220-of-366 passes for 2,562 yards and 25 touchdowns. Martinez also ran for 1,462 yards and 14 scores. Martinez also led the offense as a sophomore, throwing for better than 1,600 yards and 14 touchdowns, while also rushing for more than 900 yards.

Martinez was ranked as the No. 56 player in the ESPN300 and was the No. 4 pocket passer. Rivals and 247Sports both ranked him among the nation's top 10 dual-threat quarterbacks, with Rivals ranking Martinez as the nation's No. 98 overall prospect and 247Sports listing him as the No. 142 overall prospect. Martinez was also selected to participate in the 2018 Under Armour High School All-America Game. He had dozens of scholarship offers and chose Nebraska over Tennessee.

PERSONAL

Adrian is the son of Tony Martinez and Deanna Martinez and the stepson of Kristi Vincent. He is a business administration major. He has volunteered his time with the Nebraska Football Road Race, a Day of Service, Make-a-Wish, Husker Heroes and local hospital visits.

[R-FRESHMAN » OFFENSIVE LINE]

[HONORS & AWARDS]

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2020)
- » Three-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2020 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Ethan Piper played in all eight games as a redshirt freshman, starting the final seven games at right guard. Piper saw action on special teams and on the offensive line in the season opener at No. 5 Ohio State before making his first career start (left guard) at Northwestern. He helped Nebraska total 620 yards of offense at Rutgers and was a big reason why the Huskers ranked second in the Big Ten in rushing offense.

2019 (REDSHIRT)

Piper redshirted in his first season at Nebraska. He played in one game as a true freshman, playing on the offensive line in the Huskers' win at Maryland. As the second of three Husker true freshman offensive linemen to play in 2019, Piper became only the 13th true freshman offensive lineman to play in a game in school history.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORFOLK CATHOLIC HS)

Piper was one of the top prep players in the state of Nebraska after being a dominant presence for Norfolk Catholic and Coach Jeff Bellar. As a senior, Piper's blocking paved the way for a powerful Norfolk Catholic offense and record-setting rushing attack. Defensively, he recorded 120 tackles, including 14 sacks. His play helped the Knights to an 11-2 record and a runner-up finish in the Class C-2 playoffs. Piper earned All-Nebraska honors as a defensive lineman from the Omaha World-Herald and was a Lincoln Journal Star Super-State pick as an offensive lineman. He was also an honorary captain of the Class C-2 all-state team by both publications.

Piper's excellent play in 2017 helped Norfolk Catholic to a perfect 13-0 record and a Class C-1 state title. Piper was an All-Nebraska and Super-State selection as an offensive lineman during his junior season. As a sophomore, Piper helped the Knights to a state playoff appearance and earned first-team Class C-1 all-state honors as an offensive lineman from the Omaha World-Herald.

Piper also excelled on the hardwood and in track and field. He captured the Class C shot put title as a junior and was second in the discus before finishing as the runner-up in both events as a senior. He was a four-year member of the varsity basketball team and a three-time honorable-mention all-state choice. Piper averaged 13.5 points and 7.6 rebounds per game as a junior and 15.2 points and 8.0 rebounds per game as a senior.

Piper was a three-star prospect regarded among the top five players in Nebraska by both Rivals and 247Sports, which also ranked him among the top 90 defensive line prospects in the nation. Piper chose Nebraska over offers from Iowa and Ohio.

PERSONAL

Ethan is the son of Les and Leisa Piper, and he was born on March 11, 2001. Piper is majoring in science education. He has volunteered his time with a Day of Service, Husker Heroes, the Nebraska Football Road Race and local hospital visits.

2019 (SOPHOMORE)

Daniels played in every game as a sophomore, including making his first career start against Wisconsin. He posted three tackles against South Alabama, then matched his then-career high with four tackles against Northern Illinois. Daniels added one tackle the next week at Illinois, and he had three tackles against No. 5 Ohio State. After recording one tackle against Indiana, Daniels made one tackle in his start at nose guard against Wisconsin. He recorded his final tackle of the season at Maryland.

2018 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Daniels appeared in all 12 games as a redshirt freshman. He made his career debut in the opener against Colorado and had one tackle while helping the Huskers limit Colorado to 44 yards rushing. After making two tackles against Troy and one against Minnesota, Daniels recorded a career-high four tackles against Bethune-Cookman, including his first career tackle for loss. He added three tackles the next week at Ohio State. In a win over Michigan State, Daniels had one tackle and he recovered a fumble to set up Nebraska's game-tying, fourth-quarter field goal.

2017 (REDSHIRT)

Daniels was a preseason candidate to play as a true freshman and traveled with the Huskers to Oregon before sitting out as a redshirt.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BISHOP DUNNE HS)

Daniels was a standout defender for Bishop Dunne High School. As a senior, Daniels finished with 78 tackles, 26 tackles for loss and nine sacks. He also forced three fumbles and had a blocked punt. His play helped Bishop Dunne to an 8-6 record and a trip to the finals of the Division 1 Texas Private and Parochial School playoffs. A team captain, Daniels was the TAPPS Defensive MVP in 2016 and earned first-team all-state honors.

Daniels also earned first-team all-state honors as a junior, when Bishop Dunne went 12-1, won a district championship and was the state runner-up. As a sophomore, Bishop Dunne won the state title and was 12-1. In the spring, Daniels finished second in the district in the shot put in 2016.

Daniels was ranked among the top 25 defensive tackles in the nation by both Rivals and ESPN. He chose Nebraska over Colorado and Texas-San Antonio and had dozens of other offers.

PERSONAL

Damion was born on Aug. 31, 1999, and is the son of Tony and Rhonda Daniels. He earned his degree in communication studies in May of 2020. A three-time member of the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship teams, Daniels has volunteered his time with the Nebraska Football Road Race, Day of Service and local hospital and school outreach visits. He is also a member of the Nebraska Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Damion's older brother, Darrion, was a 2019 Nebraska team captain while also lining up at nose tackle.

In the opener at No. 5 Ohio State, Dismuke tied for the team lead with seven tackles. He added three tackles at Northwestern and broke up a Wildcat pass that led to a Husker interception. Dismuke had a career performance in Nebraska's win over Penn State. He totaled a career-high 15 tackles against the Nittany Lions, becoming the first Husker to have a 15-tackle game in three seasons. Dismuke also broke up a pass vs. Penn State and recorded one tackle for loss.

Dismuke posted four tackles against Illinois, and he made a career-high seven solo tackles and a career-high two tackles for loss against Iowa. In the win at Purdue, Dismuke had three solo tackles, including a two-yard tackle for loss. Dismuke made five tackles and broke up a pass against Minnesota, and he had three tackles in the Huskers' season-ending road win at Rutgers.

The play of Dismuke and the rest of the Husker secondary helped Nebraska limit four of eight opponents to fewer than 200 yards passing.

Dismuke started every game at safety in his junior season, totaling a career-high 67 tackles, the most of any member of the Husker secondary and tied for third on the team overall.

He made four tackles in the season opener against South Alabama, including his first career TFL. The next week at Colorado, Dismuke totaled six solo tackles. He had seven tackles at Illinois while recording the first three pass breakups of his career. With Nebraska leading by four, Dismuke broke up passes on third and fourth down on the Illini's final drive to preserve the win.

Dismuke made eight tackles against Ohio State and seven tackles against Northwestern before totaling a then-career-high 10 tackles at Minnesota. Dismuke tied for the team lead with six tackles against Indiana and added seven tackles at Purdue, giving him at least six tackles in each of the first six Big Ten games. Dismuke registered two tackles against Wisconsin and had one tackle, a fumble recovery and a breakup at Maryland. He tied for the team lead with six tackles against Iowa.

In addition to being a productive run-stopping safety, Dismuke helped the Huskers hold six opponents to fewer than 170 passing yards in 2019, including three under 100 yards. Dismuke's play helped Nebraska allow its fewest passing yards per game (200.8) since the 2012 season.

2018 (SOPHOMORE)

Dismuke appeared in seven games as a sophomore in 2018, seeing time on both defense and special teams. Dismuke totaled nine tackles, including four special teams tackles. Dismuke made his season debut against Troy and posted two tackles at No. 19 Michigan the next week. Dismuke added tackles on kickoff coverage against both Purdue and No. 16 Wisconsin. He totaled a season-high three tackles - all solo stops on defense - at Northwestern. He was a force on special teams in the Huskers' win over Illinois, making a pair of tackles on kickoff coverage and blocking a punt that resulted in a safety. Dismuke's block marked the first blocked punt by a Husker since 2015. Dismuke concluded his sophomore season with a tackle on kickoff coverage at Iowa.

2017 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Dismuke appeared in all 12 games and made one start as a contributor in the Husker secondary and on special teams. Dismuke did not record a tackle in the first five games, but he did recover a fumbled punt to set up Nebraska's first touchdown against Northern Illinois. Dismuke made his first career tackles against No. 9 Wisconsin, finishing with a career-high nine tackles against the Badgers. He added six tackles against No. 9 Ohio State the next week before totaling three stops at Purdue.

Dismuke tallied seven tackles in his first career start against Northwestern, then had six total tackles and a career-high five solo stops at Minnesota. Each of Dismuke's 34 tackles came over the final seven games of the season, including four games with six or more tackles. Thirty-one of his tackles came at safety, and he added three tackles on special teams.

Dismuke redshirted and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (CALABASAS HS)

Dismuke had a standout prep career at Calabasas High School in California. He had 66 tackles, including two tackles for loss and a sack as a senior. He also had four interceptions and added a team-high 11 pass breakups. Calabasas went 13-2 in Dismuke's senior season, won the Southern Section Canyon Division and was the CIF Southern Section West Division playoff winner. Dismuke starred for Compton Dominguez High School as a junior, helping the team to a 7-4 record and a trip to the CIF Southern Section playoffs.

Dismuke was ranked as the No. 4 safety in the country by ESPN, the 14th-best prospect in California and the No. 133 overall prospect. He was ranked among the top 20 safeties in the country by Rivals, Scout and 247Sports, which ranked him as the No. 247 overall prospect in the country, while Scout had him No. 254 overall.

Dismuke only visited Nebraska, but had numerous offers including Arizona State, California, LSU, Michigan State, Mississippi State and Utah.

PERSONAL

Marquel is the son of Nicole Samuel, and he was born on March 10, 1998. He earned his degree in criminology and criminal justice in August of 2020. Dismuke has volunteered his time with the Nebraska Football Road Race, Day of Service and local hospital visits.

Domann recorded six tackles and a fumble recovery in the season opener at No. 5 Ohio State. He added five tackles at Northwestern, including a tackle for loss. Domann had a career game in the win over Penn State, totaling a career-high 12 tackles while also tying his career high with two TFLs. He had an outstanding all-around game against Illinois, finishing with eight tackles, 2.0 TFLs, a forced fumble and a quarterback hurry. At Iowa, Domann tallied seven tackles and tied his career high with two pass breakups. Domann led Nebraska with 11 tackles at Purdue, his second career game with double-digit tackles. Domann made seven tackles against Minnesota, and he had two tackles, a TFL and a pass breakup in the Huskers' season-ending win at Rutgers.

Domann made the full-time switch to outside linebacker as a junior after playing primarily safety in his first three years on campus. Domann played extensively in every game as a junior, starting six games and recording a career-high 52 tackles. He ranked second on the team with 11 TFLs, six pass breakups and two forced fumbles and fourth with 2.5 sacks, all of which were career highs.

He had an impressive start to the year with four tackles, two tackles for loss and one breakup in the opener against South Alabama. He added two solo tackles the next week at Colorado before recording six tackles, a TFL and a pass breakup against Northern Illinois. Domann played a big role in Nebraska's win at Illinois in the Big Ten opener, totaling five tackles and tying his then-career high with two TFLs and 1.0 sack. In addition to a 10-yard sack, Domann also forced his first fumble of the season against the Illini and had the first quarterback hurry of his career.

Domann earned his first start of the season against No. 5 Ohio State and finished with four tackles, including a half-sack against the Buckeyes. He started again the next week against Northwestern and had a then-career-high seven tackles, while tying his career high with two TFLs and adding one pass breakup. After making one tackle at Minnesota, Domann tied for the team lead with six stops against Indiana, including one tackle for loss. The next week at Purdue, Domann had eight tackles, including one TFL. Against No. 15 Wisconsin, Domann recorded three tackles and forced a fumble that was recovered by the Huskers to set up a touchdown. At Maryland, Domann had a sack and a pass breakup in the Huskers' 54-7 win. Domann concluded his junior season with four tackles and a career-high two breakups against Iowa.

Domann saw action at both safety and outside linebacker, starting two games at outside linebacker in November. He finished with 19 tackles while recording his first career tackle for loss and first career sack. Domann also tied for the team lead with two forced fumbles, and he recovered one fumble and broke up a pair of passes.

Domann played in the season opener against Colorado and had a tackle on special teams but missed the next four games with an injury. He returned in a special teams role at Northwestern and saw action on special teams and defense in the win over Minnesota. Against Bethune-Cookman, Domann had one tackle, a forced fumble and the first pass breakup of his career. Domann then earned his first career start the next week at No. 8 Ohio State, recording seven tackles - including a seven-yard sack - while forcing a fumble and breaking up a pass for the second straight game. Domann started again the next week against Illinois, and he made five tackles and recovered a fumble. In a win over Michigan State, Domann had four stops, his third straight game with at least four tackles.

Domann sat out his sophomore season as a redshirt with an injury.

2016 (FRESHMAN)

Domann saw action in every game, primarily on special teams coverage units. He had eight tackles, all on special teams, with five solo stops. He also forced a fumble on kickoff coverage in the Music City Bowl against Tennessee. His eight special teams tackles ranked third among the Huskers. Domann also added depth at safety.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PINE CREEK HS)

One of the top prospects in Colorado, Domann helped Pine Creek to a 38-3 record in his final three seasons, including two Class 4A state titles.

Domann helped Pine Creek to a 12-1 record as a senior in 2015, when he was named the Prep Colorado Player of the Year and an All-Colorado pick. Domann rushed 37 times for 404 yards and 11 touchdowns and caught 33 passes for 674 yards and nine touchdowns. He also added 34 tackles, including 4.5 tackles for loss, and averaged 43 yards per punt, made three field goals and connected on 34-of-37 extra-point tries.

As a junior in 2014, Domann helped Pine Creek to a Class 4A state title and a 14-0 record. He had 49 receptions for 797 yards and 10 touchdowns, while also rushing for 205 yards and one touchdown. On defense, Domann recorded 61 tackles, while adding seven TFLs and seven interceptions. He made 59-of-60 PAT attempts and connected on 7-of-8 field goals and was an All-Colorado selection. As a sophomore, Domann had 44 tackles and earned first-team all-area honors.

Domann was ranked as the top player in Colorado and among the top 350 players nationally by 247Sports, while Rivals listed him as the No. 2 prospect in the state. Domann, who was selected to play in the Semper Fi all-star game, also visited Colorado and had numerous offers.

PERSONAL

The son of Craig and Teddi Domann, JoJo was born on July 28, 1997. He earned his degree in advertising and public relations. Domann has volunteered his time with Make-A-Wish, a Day of Service, the Nebraska Football Road Race and local hospital visits.

2019 (FRESHMAN)

Nelson played in 11 of 12 games as a true freshman, totaling 15 tackles. He made one tackle in the opener against South Alabama and had two tackles against Northern Illinois and Ohio State. Nelson also had two tackles at Minnesota, with both tackles behind the line of scrimmage for his first career TFLs. He had two more tackles against Indiana. Nelson totaled five tackles against No. 15 Wisconsin. An illness kept him out of the Huskers' win at Maryland but he returned to play in the season finale against Iowa.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SCOTTSBLUFF HS)

Nelson was one of five in-state scholarship signees in the Huskers' 2019 class. Nelson joined the program after being a dominant defensive force at Scottsbluff High School, where he was a semifinalist for the 2018 high school Butkus Award.

In three seasons for Scottsbluff, Nelson totaled 150 tackles, 26 tackles for loss and 18 sacks, while also playing offense for Coach Joe Benson's Bearcats. In 2018, Nelson led Scottsbluff to a 12-1 record and a runner-up finish in the Class B state playoffs. Nelson finished his senior year with 39 tackles, including seven tackles for loss and four sacks for 34 yards. Nelson was named an Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska selection and was a member of the Lincoln Journal Star Super-State team as a defensive lineman. He was also an honorary captain of the Lincoln Journal Star's Class B all-state team.

During his junior season, Nelson helped Scottsbluff to a 9-2 record. He recorded 44 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, nine sacks and recovered a fumble. He added 133 rushing yards and caught four passes. His play earned him All-Nebraska and Super-State honors from the World-Herald and Journal Star, respectively. Nelson made his first impact on the varsity squad as a sophomore, racking up 67 tackles, eight tackles for loss and five sacks to help his team to a 9-2 record.

Nelson was the first commitment to Nebraska's 2019 class, pledging to the Cornhuskers in the summer of 2017. He was ranked as the No. 2 player in Nebraska by Rivals and among the top 40 defensive ends in the country, while 247Sports also listed him among the nation's top 50 defensive ends.

PERSONAL

Garrett was born on March 1, 2000, and is the son of Chris and Holli Nelson. Chris Nelson was a two-time All-America wrestler at Nebraska who finished his career with a 101-37-3 record and holds the school record for dual victories in a season (21 in 1989-90). Nelson is a business administration major. Nelson has volunteered his time with a Day of Service, the Nebraska Football Road Race and local hospital visits.

2020 (SOPHOMORE)

Luke Reimer battled injuries to play in six games with five starts as a sophomore. He posted 40 tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks, ranking second on the team in sacks and third in TFLs.

Reimer missed the Ohio State game due to injury but returned to make his first career start at Northwestern.

Reimer led Nebraska with a then-career-high 10 tackles against the Wildcats, while also setting career highs with 1.5 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack. Reimer came off the bench to record four tackles in the win over Penn State, including a four-yard sack. He had seven tackles, including one for a two-yard loss, against Illinois.

Reimer led Nebraska with a career-high 12 tackles at Iowa, including 11 solo stops. His 11 solo tackles were the second-most by a Husker in a Big Ten Conference game, trailing only the 14 solo tackles Lavonte David made at Michigan in 2011. Reimer added five tackles, including a half tackle for loss, at Purdue. He made two early tackles against Minnesota before leaving the game in the first quarter with an injury. The injury also kept him out of the season finale at Rutgers.

2019 (FRESHMAN)

Reimer played in 10 games as a true freshman walk-on, totaling 11 tackles, including one tackle for loss. Reimer made his Husker debut on special teams against Colorado, and he recovered a fumble as a member of Nebraska's kickoff coverage unit. He also saw action on special teams at Illinois and made his debut on defense against No. 5 Ohio State, recording his first three career tackles from his linebacker spot. Reimer made his first career special teams tackle with a stop on kickoff coverage against Indiana. He added tackles on kickoff coverage in back-to-back games against Purdue and No. 15 Wisconsin. Reimer saw extensive action on both special teams and defense at Maryland, recording a career-high four tackles, including his first career TFL. Reimer made his final stop of the season with a tackle on kickoff coverage against Iowa.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LINCOLN NORTH STAR HS)

Reimer was a talented two-way performer at Lincoln North Star, starring for coaches Tony Kobza and Mark Waller. As a senior, Reimer earned Lincoln Journal Star Super-State honors as a linebacker, as he posted 74 tackles, 14 tackles for loss and a sack. The captain of the Journal Star’s all-city team, Reimer also added 328 rushing yards and nearly 500 all-purpose yards. Reimer earned honorable-mention all-state recognition for the Navigators as a junior, as he had 397 rushing yards and nine touchdowns, while posting 838 all-purpose yards. He added 40 tackles, six tackles for loss and an interception. Following his career, Reimer was selected to play in the 2019 Nebraska Shrine Bowl. Reimer had scholarship offers from Buffalo, South Dakota State, South Dakota, Northern Iowa and North Dakota.

Robinson started at defensive end at No.

5 Ohio State and totaled three tackles and 1.0 tackle for loss in his first career start. At Northwestern, Robinson made a career-high four tackles, including one tackle for loss. He matched that effort with four more tackles in the win over Penn State before recording two tackles vs. Illinois. Robinson had one tackle at Iowa, and he made three tackles against Minnesota.

2019 (REDSHIRT)

Robinson played in three games as a true freshman, appearing on the defensive line against No. 15 Wisconsin, Maryland and No. 19 Iowa. By playing in only three games, he redshirted and preserved a season of eligibility.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HIGLEY HS)

Robinson was one of the most coveted defensive linemen recruits in the country. He came to Lincoln after earning high school All-America honors at Higley High School in Arizona, where he was one of four finalists for the All-American Bowl National Defensive Player of the Year.

As a senior, Robinson slid inside to play defensive tackle for the first time in his career. He registered 74 tackles, including 34 tackles for loss and seven sacks in 2018 while helping Higley to a 9-4 record and an appearance in the Arizona 5A semifinals. Robinson spent his junior season at defensive end, where he totaled 56 tackles, 30 TFLs, 13 sacks, five forced fumbles and three quarterback hurries for an 11-2 Higley team that advanced to the 4A state semifinals. Robinson earned first-team All-Arizona accolades in the big schools classification as a junior. As a sophomore, Robinson had 16 tackles, five tackles for loss and three sacks for an 11-2 Higley squad that made the 4A state semifinals.

A consensus four-star recruit, Robinson was ranked as the No. 98 player in the country by Rivals and among the top 180 players nationally in the 247Sports Composite rankings. He had offers from many of the top programs and chose Nebraska after also visiting Alabama, Oregon and USC.

PERSONAL

Ty is the son of Tresha Robinson, and he was born on May 3, 2001. He is a pre-health major. Robinson has volunteered with a Day of Service, Husker Heroes, the Nebraska Football Road Race and local hospital visits.

2019 (JUNIOR)

Stille played in all 12 games as a junior with a pair of starts, totaling a career-high 31 tackles with eight TFLs and 3.0 sacks.

He tied his then-career high with four tackles in the season opener against South Alabama and had three more tackles - including two TFLs - the next week at Colorado. Stille made three tackles against No. 5 Ohio State before making his first start of the season against Northwestern and producing a career-high five tackles, including a half sack. He added two tackles the next week at Minnesota and had his first full sack of the season against Indiana.

At Purdue, Stille made four tackles, including one sack and a pair of TFLs. He earned the start against Wisconsin and finished with three tackles, a pass breakup and a hurry. The next week at Maryland, Stille had two tackles, including a half sack. Stille concluded his junior season with three tackles against Iowa, including a nine-yard tackle for loss.

Stille's combination of his work on the field, in the classroom and in the community earned him recognition as a junior. He was an academic all-district selection in addition to being nominated for the AFCA Good Works Team and appearing on the watch list for the Wuerffel Trophy, which is college football's premier award for community service.

Stille played in every game and started 11 contests at defensive end in 2018. He totaled 25 tackles with a career-high 5.0 sacks, leading all Nebraska defensive linemen in that category.

Stille earned his second career start in the season opener against Colorado and produced three tackles, including a nine-yard sack. Stille totaled one tackle over the next two games before recording a sack and making four tackles against Purdue. After recording a pair of tackles at No. 16 Wisconsin, Stille picked up his third sack of the season at Northwestern. He added another sack the next week against Minnesota. Stille had a nine-yard sack against Bethune-Cookman, giving him a sack in three consecutive games. He also had a career-high two pass breakups against BCU. Stille made one tackle at Ohio State and had two stops and a career-high three quarterback hurries against Illinois. He totaled three tackles in Nebraska's win over Michigan State and made two stops in the season finale at Iowa.

Stille appeared in nine games with a start against No. 9 Wisconsin during his redshirt freshman season, lining up at both defensive end and outside linebacker. He showed versatility to play both positions during the year. Stille emerged as one of the Blackshirts' top playmakers, leading Nebraska with 10 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks as part of his 24 total tackles. He became the first freshman to lead the Huskers in TFLs since the stats began being tracked (1968) and the first freshman to lead Nebraska in sacks since the stat became official (1981).

All 10 of Stille's tackles for loss came during the Big Ten season, as he led all conference freshmen in that category. Overall, he ranked eighth in the Big Ten in TFLs despite playing only nine games, and Stille had four more TFLs than any other Big Ten player who appeared in fewer than 10 games. He recorded at least one tackle for loss in seven of his nine appearances and had three games with four tackles. For his performance, Stille was named to the Big Ten Network All-Freshman team and took home one weekly honor as the Big Ten Freshman of the Week, joining David Santos (2012) as the only Husker defenders to be named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week.

Stille made his career debut against Rutgers, totaling three tackles including one for a two-yard loss. Stille exploded onto the scene the next week at Illinois, registering four tackles, including three TFLs and his first career sack, which resulted in a forced fumble. He was honored by the Big Ten as the conference freshman of the week following his performance against the Illini. Stille's performance earned him his first career start against No. 9 Wisconsin, and he made one tackle against the Badgers. He had two tackles and one sack against No. 9 Ohio State the next week and tallied three tackles, one TFL and a half-sack at Purdue. Stille tied his career high with four tackles against Northwestern and broke up the first pass of his career while adding another tackle for loss. He made it four consecutive games with a TFL with a 14-yard sack at Minnesota. Stille ended his debut season with four tackles and two TFLs against Iowa.

Stille sat out the season as a redshirt and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (ASHLAND-GREENWOOD HS)

Stille starred on both sides of the ball at Ashland-Greenwood High School. He caught 26 passes for 415 yards and five touchdowns as a tight end. As a defensive end, he recorded 79 tackles, including 46 solo stops, while adding 17 tackles for loss and nine sacks. Stille also handled kicking and punting chores, making 46-of-49 PATs and three field goals.

Stille was a first-team Super-State choice by the Lincoln Journal Star and a first-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald. He was also an honorary captain of the Class C-1 all-state teams by both newspapers. He was the USA Today Nebraska Defensive Player of the Year and made the publication's Nebraska all-state team.

In 2014, Stille caught 16 passes for 538 yards and had 63 tackles, including 19 TFLs and 10 sacks, while connecting on all four of his field goal attempts. His effort helped Ashland-Greenwood to a 12-1 record and a state runner-up finish. Stille earned first-team Class C-1 all-state honors as a tight end from the Omaha World-Herald and was an honorable-mention all-state choice by the Lincoln Journal Star.

Stille helped the Bluejays to an 11-2 record and a trip to the state championship game as a sophomore. He had 41 tackles and four interceptions, while adding 10 receptions for 199 yards and three touchdowns. He also made 7-of-12 field goals. Stille was also on the varsity as a freshman.

Stille was a two-time state champion in wrestling, posting a 44-0 record at 285 pounds as a senior and a 34-0 record at 220 pounds as a junior. He finished third at 182 pounds as a sophomore with a 35-5 record.

Stille was ranked among the top three players in Nebraska, and was listed as the No. 33 strongside defensive end in the country by 247Sports. Stille only visited Nebraska, but had offers from Army, Iowa, Iowa State, Ohio, Vanderbilt and Wyoming.

PERSONAL

Ben is the son of Kevin and Karen Stille, and he was born on Nov. 12, 1997. He earned his degree in nutrition and health sciences in December of 2019, graduating in less than four years. Stille is very active in the community and is a four-time member of the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship teams. He has volunteered his time with the FCA, a Day of Service, pediatric brain cancer patients, the Nebraska Football Road Race, Teammates, a Unified track meet and with numerous local hospital, school and youth camps. He was a member of the Nebraska Student-Athlete Advisory Committee in 2019.

- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2019)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2019)

2020 (JUNIOR)

A second-team All-Big Ten selection by the conference coaches, Cam Taylor-Britt played in every game with seven starts in 2020. He totaled 28 tackles with 3.0 tackles for loss, four pass breakups and two interceptions, leading the team with six passes defended and tying for the team lead in interceptions. Taylor-Britt was also Nebraska's leading punt returner, as he returned six punts for 79 yards, averaging more than 13 yards per return.

2020 GAME-BY-GAME

Taylor-Britt started at cornerback and made five tackles at No. 5 Ohio State before being disqualified in the second half due to a targeting penalty. After sitting out the first half at Northwestern, Taylor-Britt had two tackles and a TFL in the second half. He returned to the starting lineup against Penn State, when he made an impressive impact in the Huskers' win. Taylor-Britt totaled four tackles and a pass breakup. He intercepted a pass and had a 55-yard return to set up a field goal, and he also returned a punt for 25 yards to set up another field goal. Although it did not result in any points, Taylor-Britt also returned a missed field goal for 34 yards.

Against Illinois, Taylor-Britt recorded three tackles and returned two punts for 22 yards. He made two tackles at Iowa. In the win at Purdue, Taylor-Britt totaled six tackles, including 1.0 tackle for loss, while adding a pair of pass breakups. Against Minnesota, Taylor-Britt had four solo tackles in the first half before missing the second half following a targeting penalty. He returned to intercept a pass, break up another and finish with two tackles, including 1.0 TFL, in Nebraska's season-ending win at Rutgers.

The play of Taylor-Britt and the rest of the Husker secondary helped Nebraska limit four of its eight opponents to fewer than 200 yards passing.

Taylor-Britt was a versatile and productive member of the Husker secondary in 2019, earning honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition. He played in 11 of 12 games with 10 starts, missing the Purdue game due to illness. He started seven games at safety and three at cornerback, lining up at multiple positions to total 45 tackles, four TFLs, 1.5 sacks, three interceptions, two pass breakups and four forced fumbles. His four forced fumbles ranked third nationally and tied for the most by a Husker since 1999. Taylor-Britt led the team in forced fumbles and tied for the team lead in interceptions.

He began his sophomore campaign with a career game against South Alabama, totaling five tackles against the Jaguars, including the first two TFLs of his career and his first career sack. Taylor-Britt also forced a pair of turnovers, intercepting the first pass of his career - which he returned 48 yards - and forcing a fumble on his sack which was recovered by teammate Alex Davis in the end zone for a touchdown. Taylor-Britt earned his first career start the next week at Colorado and again had five tackles while forcing a career-high two fumbles, one of which was recovered by Nebraska. Taylor-Britt had one tackle and one pass breakup against Northern Illinois before leaving the game in the second quarter with an injury.

He returned from the injury to start the next week at Illinois, finishing with three tackles, one breakup and his second career interception. Taylor-Britt totaled a career-high seven tackles against No. 5 Ohio State, including one tackle for loss. He had five tackles in the win over Northwestern, recording one TFL and forcing one fumble, before making six stops against both Minnesota and Indiana. After missing the Purdue game, Taylor-Britt returned to start at corner against No. 15 Wisconsin and recorded five tackles. He also started at corner at Maryland and had two tackles. In the season finale at Iowa, Taylor-Britt registered four tackles and one pass breakup, but his biggest impact came when he intercepted a pass and returned it 38 yards for a touchdown.

Taylor-Britt played in 11 games as a true freshman. A converted high school quarterback, Taylor-Britt contributed on both defense and special teams, totaling 12 tackles, including eight on defense. Taylor-Britt had three pass breakups on the season, and he also recovered a fumble as a member of Nebraska's punt coverage team.

Taylor-Britt was the lone true freshman to see action on defense in the season opener against Colorado, recording his first career tackle. He then recovered a fumbled punt against Troy, setting up a Husker field goal. At No. 19 Michigan, Taylor-Britt recorded his second career tackle and first on special teams. After missing the Purdue game, Taylor-Britt returned with a two-tackle performance - the first multi-tackle game of his career - at No. 16 Wisconsin that also included the first pass breakup of his career. The next week at Northwestern, Taylor-Britt had another breakup and a solo tackle.

He saw significant action in the secondary against Minnesota and posted three tackles. He matched that effort with three tackles the next week against Bethune-Cookman. Taylor-Britt made an impact in Nebraska's win over Michigan State with a critical pass breakup on third down in the third quarter of the Huskers' come-from-behind victory. He added a tackle on kickoff coverage in the final game of the season at Iowa.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (PARK CROSSING HS)

Taylor-Britt is a member of the Husker secondary, but he was one of the most prolific quarterbacks in the state of Alabama in 2017. Taylor-Britt put up huge numbers for Park Crossing High School as a senior in 2017. He amassed 2,496 yards of total offense and accounted for 30 total touchdowns, throwing for 1,466 yards and 16 touchdowns and adding 1,030 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns on the ground. His play helped the Thunderbirds to a 10-2 record and the second round of the Class 6A state playoffs. Following the season, Taylor-Britt was named an athlete on the Alabama Sports Writers Association Class 6A All State First Team.

Taylor-Britt was listed among the nation's top 60 athletes in the 247Sports Composite rankings, while ESPN listed him among the nation's top 80 wide receiver prospects. Taylor-Britt also visited Auburn and held more than a dozen scholarship offers.

PERSONAL

Cam is the son of Courtney and Darrell Britt, and he was born on Oct. 15, 1999. He is majoring in criminology and criminal justice. Taylor-Britt has volunteered his time with a Day of Service, Husker Heroes, Nebraska Football Road Race and local hospital visits.

Williams earned the start in the season opener at No. 5 Ohio State after missing nearly all of the 2019 season due to injury. Williams made five tackles against the Buckeyes before being disqualified in the second half due to a targeting penalty. He had to sit out the first half of the Northwestern game but returned to finish with four tackles and his second career tackle for loss in the second half.

Williams made three tackles and broke up a pass against Penn State and arguably delivered the key play in the Huskers' win. Williams had a 13-yard strip sack, and he recovered the fumble and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown. Williams was the first Husker to have a sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery for a touchdown on the same play since at least 1962, when complete game statistics are available.

Against Illinois, Williams had a then-career-high six tackles. Williams topped that effort with a then-career-high seven tackles at Iowa, all of which were solo stops. Williams then set a career high in tackles for the third straight game in the win at Purdue, totaling 12 tackles, including 10 solo stops. He also broke up a pass and had 1.0 tackle for loss against the Boilermakers. Williams made it back-to-back games with double-digit tackles against Minnesota, totaling 10 tackles, 1.0 TFL and a career-high two pass breakups. He finished the season with four tackles at Rutgers.

The play of Williams and the rest of the Husker secondary helped Nebraska limit four of its eight opponents to fewer than 200 yards passing.

2019 (JUNIOR)

Williams earned the start and made two early tackles in the season opener with South Alabama before leaving the game in the first half with an injury. The injury proved to be season-ending, as Williams appeared in only one game as a junior.

2018 (SOPHOMORE)

Williams made an immediate impact in his first year, appearing in every game with a start against Purdue. He totaled 23 tackles and one TFL, and he had at least one tackle in 10 of Nebraska's 12 games. Williams had a nose for the ball, forcing two fumbles, recovering one fumble, intercepting two passes and breaking up two more passes. Williams tied for the team lead in interceptions, forced fumbles and fumble recoveries.

Williams recorded his first career pass breakup in the season opener with Colorado and then posted his first career tackle the next week vs. Troy. At No. 19 Michigan, Williams picked off the first pass of his career with a diving interception in the end zone. He started the first game of his career against Purdue and recorded three tackles. He then made five tackles the next week at No. 16 Wisconsin. Williams had one tackle each against Northwestern and Minnesota. He was a disruptive force against Bethune-Cookman, totaling two tackles while recovering a fumble, intercepting a pass and breaking up another. He forced the first fumble of his career and had four tackles at No. 8 Ohio State. Williams forced another fumble the next week against Illinois, when he had a pair of tackles. He ended his season with a two-tackle performance at Iowa that included his first career tackle for loss.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

(TRINITY CHRISTIAN ACADEMY/JONES COUNTY [MISS.] CC)

Williams totaled 26 tackles and recorded two interceptions and two forced fumbles for Jones County in 2017, helping the Bobcats to an 8-2 record and an appearance in the Mississippi Association of Community & Junior Colleges playoffs. In 2016, Williams played in the opener and totaled four tackles and one fumble recovery before an injury sidelined him for the rest of the year. He was granted a redshirt for the 2016 season.

A three-star recruit, Williams was ranked among the nation's top 30 junior college prospects by the 247Sports Composite rankings, which also tabbed Williams as the nation's No. 2 junior college safety. He chose Nebraska after also considering Florida, Ole Miss and Central Florida.

Originally from Jacksonville, Fla., Williams played his high school ball for Trinity Christian Academy in Jacksonville. Coming out of high school, Williams was ranked among the nation's top 250 players by ESPN, and he received scholarship offers from Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Notre Dame and UCLA, among others.

PERSONAL

Deontai was born on Oct. 4, 1996, and he is the son of Shantell Davis and Roosevelt Williams. Deontai earned his degree in child, youth and family studies in December of 2019. He has volunteered with a Day of Service, the Nebraska Football Road Race, and local hospital visits. Deontai's father, Roosevelt, was a third-round pick in the 2002 NFL Draft and played two seasons in the NFL, one each with the Bears (2002) and Browns (2003).

[HONORS & AWARDS]

- » Four-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2019, 2020)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2019, 2020)

2020 (JUNIOR)

Broc Bando played in all eight games as a junior. He saw action on special teams and on the offensive line in the season opener at No. 5 Ohio State. He also earned playing time on special teams against Northwestern, Penn State, Illinois, Iowa, Purdue, Minnesota and Rutgers.

2019 (SOPHOMORE)

Bando played in all 12 games as a sophomore. In addition to playing on special teams in every game, Bando saw his first career action on the offensive line by playing left tackle against Northern Illinois. He also saw significant playing time on the line against Minnesota, Indiana, Wisconsin and Maryland.

2018 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Bando added depth to the Husker offensive line as a redshirt freshman in 2018, but he did not appear in a game.

2017 (REDSHIRT)

Bando redshirted in his first season in the program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

(LINCOLN SOUTHEAST HS/IMG ACADEMY)

Bando was part of one of the nation's top prep teams at IMG Academy. Playing for Coach Kevin Wright, Bando was a standout at both offensive guard and tackle, helping the Ascenders to an 11-0 record in 2016. IMG Academy finished the year ranked No. 3 in the nation in the USA Today prep rankings. Behind a strong offensive line, IMG Academy averaged nearly 390 yards per game and scored better than 35 points per contest.

Bando was also part of a perfect season at IMG Academy in 2015, as the school posted a 9-0 record and was ranked among the nation's top 10 prep teams. Bando began his career at Lincoln Southeast in 2014, when he had 30 tackles and two sacks as a defensive lineman and earned honorable-mention All-City accolades from the Lincoln Journal Star. Bando also threw the shot put as a freshman and sophomore at Southeast.

Bando was ranked as one of the nation's top 50 offensive guards in the 247Sports composite rankings and among the top linemen in Florida. Bando had offers from numerous schools, including Louisville, Mississippi State, Georgia, Georgia Tech and Kansas State before selecting the Huskers.

PERSONAL

Broc was born on Oct. 2, 1998, and is the son of Shannon Hanke. He is a business administration major. Bando has volunteered his time with Husker Heroes, the Nebraska Football Road Race, and local hospital visits.

2020 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Brant Banks played in four games as a redshirt freshman. He played on special teams and on the offensive line at No. 5 Ohio State, and he also saw action on special teams against Northwestern, Penn State, Illinois and Iowa.

2019 (REDSHIRT)

Banks enrolled early and spent the spring on the defensive line before making the switch to the offensive line. He played in one game as a true freshman, appearing at left tackle at Maryland. As the third of three true freshman offensive linemen to play in 2019, Banks became only the 14th Nebraska true freshman offensive lineman to play in a game.

Following the season, Banks was added to the Nebraska men's basketball roster just prior to the Big Ten Tournament. He played three minutes in the Huskers' loss to Indiana in the tournament's first round.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WESTBURY CHRISTIAN HS)

Banks was a versatile player for Westbury Christian High School in Houston, playing on the offensive line, defensive line and tight end. He was an all-district performer as both an offensive and defensive lineman.

As a senior, Banks was a first-team all-district honoree at offensive tackle for Westbury Christian. Banks was a first-team all-district offensive lineman as a junior and a second-team pick as a defensive lineman, when he helped Westbury Christian to the state playoffs. He also earned second-team all-state honors from the Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools as a junior.

Banks was considered a three-star recruit, and Rivals ranked him among the top 50 offensive tackles in the country and the top 70 players in the state of Texas. He held more than a dozen scholarship offers and chose Nebraska after also visiting Baylor and Missouri.

PERSONAL

Brant was born on May 1, 2000, and is the son of Todd and Randa Banks. He is a management major and has volunteered his time with the Nebraska Football Road Race, Day of Service and local hospital visits. Brant's older brother, Brig, is also a member of the football program.

2020 (SOPHOMORE)

After an offseason switch from running back to wide receiver, Brody Belt played in every game as a sophomore. He saw action on both offense and special teams, returning one kickoff for 11 yards at Northwestern.

2019 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Belt earned playing time on both offense and special teams. He played on special teams in every game, recording tackles on kickoff coverage against South Alabama, Illinois and Indiana. He also served as one of Nebraska's kickoff returners in 2019, returning kickoffs for 19 yards at Purdue, 14 yards against Wisconsin and 16 yards at Maryland. Offensively, Belt had the first four carries of his career at Minnesota and gained 29 yards, including a 22-yard run that tied for the Huskers' longest rush of the game. He also had one carry for three yards at Maryland.

2018 (REDSHIRT)

Belt gained valuable experience while redshirting in his first season at Nebraska in 2018. Belt enrolled early and participated in spring practice and benefited from a full offseason of training.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MILLARD WEST HS)

Belt was named a Lincoln Journal Star second-team all-state running back as a senior in 2017 for state quarterfinalist Millard West. Belt rushed for 1,567 yards and added another 214 yards receiving, as he scored 26 total touchdowns. As a junior in 2016, Belt rushed for 208 yards on 20 carries with five touchdowns, and he was an Omaha World-Herald honorable-mention all-state selection as he helped the Wildcats to the state quarterfinals. Belt also participated in basketball and baseball at Millard West.

[FRESHMAN » WIDE RECEIVER]

6-2 | 200 | BELLEVUE, NEB.

Zavier Betts appeared in six games with one start as a true freshman. He caught 12 passes for 131 yards, ranking third on the team in receiving yards. Betts had at least one reception in each of the six games he played.

Betts was a member of Nebraska's travel roster for the Huskers' season-opening trip to No. 5 Ohio State, but he did not play in the game. He made his Husker debut at Northwestern and caught two passes for 17 yards. Betts caught two more passes and led Nebraska with 54 receiving yards in the win over Penn State. He scored his first career touchdown with a 45-yard catch against the Nittany Lions. Betts added a nine-yard catch against Illinois. He made his first career start at Iowa and had a 15-yard reception against the Hawkeyes. At Purdue, Betts caught a career-high five passes for 36 yards. He made one catch in his final appearance of the season against Minnesota.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BELLEVUE WEST HS)

Betts came to Lincoln as the highest rated recruit from the state of Nebraska in a dozen years after totaling more than 3,300 career receiving yards at Bellevue West High School, including a Class A state-record 46 touchdown receptions.

As a senior, Betts helped Bellevue West to a 13-0 season and the Class A state title by catching 64 passes for 1,185 yards and 17 touchdowns, averaging nearly 19 yards per reception. Following his senior season, Betts was named an honorary captain of the Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska team. It marked Betts' third straight year on the All-Nebraska team, as he became the fifth three-time All-Nebraska player in the 99-year history of the team. Betts was also tabbed as a three-time first-team Super-State selection by the Lincoln Journal Star.

In his junior season, Betts battled through an injury to total 48 receptions for 856 yards and 12 touchdowns while earning first-team All-Nebraska accolades. Betts was also a first-team All-Nebraska selection as a sophomore after catching 57 passes for 1,035 yards and 15 touchdowns. He was only the seventh sophomore ever to earn All-Nebraska honors.

Betts was widely regarded as one of the top recruits in the country, and he was selected to represent Team USA in the 2020 International Bowl. Rivals listed him as the No. 12 wide receiver and No. 59 overall player nationally. Betts was also listed as the No. 111 player in the 247Sports Composite national rankings. Betts chose Nebraska over offers from Iowa, Iowa State and Minnesota, among others.

5-11 | 190 | CHICAGO, ILL.

Alante Brown played in every game as a true freshman, contributing to the Husker offense while also serving as Nebraska's top kickoff returner. Brown caught three passes for 41 yards in eight games, had one carry for 18 yards and led the Huskers with 10 kickoff returns for 196 yards.

He made his Husker debut at No. 5 Ohio State, catching one pass for 16 yards. Brown earned the first start of his career in the Huskers' win over Penn State. He returned the first three kickoffs of his career against Illinois, gaining 63 yards while averaging 21.0 yards per return. At Iowa, Brown had an 18-yard carry and two kickoff returns for 38 yards. He had two more kickoff returns for 38 yards at Purdue. Brown also returned two kickoffs for 43 yards against Minnesota. In the season finale at Rutgers, Brown set career highs with two catches and 25 receiving yards, including a career-long 22-yard reception.

BEFORE NEBRASKA(SIMEON HS/ST. THOMAS MORE [CONN.] PREP)

Brown attended St. Thomas More Prep school in Connecticut for one year after starring for Simeon High School in Chicago. Brown helped St. Thomas More to an 8-1 record in 2019, which included the Chancellors snapping Choate Rosemary Hall's 48-game win streak in a game where Brown had a pair of touchdown catches. Brown originally signed with Texas Tech in 2019 before deciding to attend prep school.

In high school, Brown was a quarterback for Simeon High in Chicago. A three-year starter, he led the Wolverines to a city championship and the Class 7A state quarterfinals as a senior, when Simeon finished with an 11-1 record. Brown threw for 41 touchdowns and rushed for 12 more scores as a senior, earning all-state honors.

Brown was considered a four-star recruit by 247Sports, and the organization also listed him as a four-star recruit out of high school when it tabbed him as the No. 215 overall recruit in the 2019 class. The No. 1 prep school player in the 2020 class, Brown chose Nebraska after also taking official visits to Indiana, Maryland, Mississippi and Michigan State.

2020 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Chris Hickman played in six games as a redshirt freshman. He appeared on special teams at Ohio State and on offense against Northwestern, Penn State, Illinois, Purdue and Rutgers, making one catch against the Scarlet Knights.

2019 (REDSHIRT)

Hickman played in four games in his redshirt season. He made his debut on special teams against Northwestern, and lined up at tight end against Purdue and at receiver against Maryland and Iowa. Hickman played more than half of Nebraska's offensive snaps at Maryland, recording the first catch of his career.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (OMAHA BURKE HS)

Hickman was a two-way standout and state champion at Omaha Burke. He caught 19 passes for 421 yards and four touchdowns as a senior, averaging more than 22 yards per reception. Defensively, he had 39 tackles, 10.5 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks, two interceptions, four pass breakups and caused two fumbles. Hickman helped Burke to a perfect 13-0 record in 2018, when he earned Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska and Lincoln Journal Star Super-State honors as a defensive lineman.

Hickman also earned a spot on the All-Nebraska and Super-State defensive line as a junior. He had 46 tackles, 13 TFLs and six sacks with four interceptions, five pass breakups and four forced fumbles as a junior. Offensively, Hickman caught 24 passes for 575 yards and eight touchdowns. He caught 15 passes for 320 yards and seven touchdowns as a sophomore, when he was an honorable-mention all-state pick.

Hickman was regarded as one of the top three prospects in Nebraska by both Rivals and 247Sports, while 247Sports ranked him among the nation's top 20 tight ends. Hickman was also a member of the Bulldogs' varsity basketball team as a sophomore and junior. He chose Nebraska over numerous offers including Indiana, Iowa, Iowa State, Kansas State, LSU, Minnesota, Purdue and Wisconsin among others.

- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2018, 2019, 2020)

2020 (JUNIOR)

Trent Hixson played in three games as a junior, appearing on the offensive line against Ohio State, Minnesota and Rutgers. He played extensively in the Huskers' season-ending win at Rutgers, when Nebraska totaled 620 yards of offense.

2019 (SOPHOMORE)

Hixson started every game at left guard and was a key part of an offensive line that helped Nebraska rank third in the Big Ten in rushing offense and fifth in total offense.

Hixson played a major role in Nebraska producing its most total yards in a Big Ten Conference game (690 yards at Illinois), while tying its most points in a Big Ten game (54 at Maryland). Against Illinois, the Huskers totaled 300 yards rushing and 300 yards passing for just the second time in school history en route to gaining the most yards in any conference game since 2007. Nebraska also set a school record for team completion percentage against Indiana (87.0 percent).

2018 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Hixson played in four games as a redshirt freshman while continuing to develop into a future starter. He made his Husker debut with an appearance on the offensive line at No. 19 Michigan, helping the Huskers score on an 80-yard touchdown drive in the fourth quarter. Hixson also saw action on the line at No. 16 Wisconsin and in the Huskers' home wins over Bethune-Cookman and Illinois. Hixson was also a member of Nebraska's travel roster for each of the Huskers' five road games.

2017 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (OMAHA SKUTT CATHOLIC HS)

Hixson played in 13 games as a senior at Skutt Catholic, helping his team to a 10-3 record and a Class B state runner-up finish. He recorded 96 total tackles, including 10 for a loss, three sacks and a fumble recovery for Coach Matt Turman.

Hixson was named second-team Super State and first-team All-Class B by the Lincoln Journal Star in 2016. He was also an Omaha World-Herald first-team All-Class B performer as both a junior and senior. He was also a Lincoln Journal Star and Omaha World-Herald All-Class B defensive lineman as a junior in 2015.

Hixson racked up 67 tackles and four tackles for loss during his junior season and had 57 tackles and three TFLs on a state championship team as a sophomore in 2014. Hixson finished with 214 career tackles, the second-most in Skutt history. Hixson played in two games as a sophomore on the offensive line, and he also recorded four total tackles on defense. Hixson was also on the wrestling team in high school and finished fifth in Class B at 285 pounds in 2016.

PERSONAL

Trent is the son of Rick and Micki Hixson, and he was born on April 10, 1999. He is an accounting major. Johnson had a career-long 17-yard reception at Ohio State and also returned three kickoffs for 54 yards. He had a three-yard carry and an eight-yard reception against Illinois. At Iowa, Johnson had five carries for 23 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown run. He also had a five-yard reception. Johnson had a four-yard carry and a two-yard catch in the win at Purdue. He had one carry and a five-yard reception at Rutgers.

2019 (REDSHIRT)

Johnson played in four games as a true freshman in 2019. Johnson gained 64 yards on 21 carries with one touchdown, and he also had one catch for 12 yards. Johnson carried the ball three times for nine yards in his career debut against Northern Illinois. He also saw action in the backfield against Northwestern and Purdue, although he did not have a carry in either game. Johnson played a large role in Nebraska's 54-7 win at Maryland, gaining 55 yards on 18 carries, including a one-yard touchdown run. Johnson also had a 12-yard reception at Maryland for his first career catch.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BERGEN CATHOLIC HS)

Johnson rushed for more than 2,300 yards in his career as a state champion at Bergen Catholic High School in New Jersey, where he was one of the nation's top running back prospects.

Johnson led Bergen Catholic to a 10-2 record and state runner-up finish as a senior, when he was named a third-team all-state selection and a first-team pick among non-public schools. Johnson ran for 1,334 yards and scored 12 total touchdowns, becoming the first Crusader to rush for 1,000 yards in a season since 2009. Johnson had seven 100-yard rushing games as a senior and averaged 111.2 yards per game. He was the USA Today Super 25 national star of the week after rushing for 130 yards in the Crusaders' 34-22 win against No. 5 Grayson (Ga.) High School. That performance helped Johnson win the overall Super 25 Top Star award as the best performer among the 15 national weekly award winners.

He rushed for 555 yards and six touchdowns on 90 carries as a junior, when Bergen Catholic won the state title. Johnson also caught 11 passes for 97 yards and two touchdowns and had 23 kickoff returns for 428 yards. He rushed for 462 yards and three touchdowns as a sophomore.

Johnson was also a standout on the track, clocking career bests of 10.50 in the 100-meter dash and 21.46 in the 200-meter dash. One of the fastest runners in the state, Johnson won sectional titles in the 100-meter dash each of his last three seasons and was third at the 2018 NJSIAA Championships. He won a sectional title in the 200 meters in 2017, when he also finished fourth in the long jump. Indoors, Johnson finished second in the 200 meters at the 2018 NJSIAA Meet of Champions and second in the 55-meter dash at the 2017 NJSIAA Championships. Johnson also competed in sprints at the New Balance Indoor National meet as a freshman, sophomore and junior.

Johnson was rated as the No. 6 all-purpose back in the country by Rivals. He only visited NU but had offers from numerous Power Five schools, including Minnesota, North Carolina, Pitt and West Virginia.

2020 (FRESHMAN)

Marvin Scott III played in five games and earned one start as a true freshman. He rushed for 62 yards on four carries and caught two passes for 17 yards. Scott was a member of Nebraska's travel roster for the Ohio State game but did not play in the game. He made his Husker debut with three carries for 14 yards at Northwestern. Scott added five carries for 11 yards against Penn State, and he also had his first career reception, a 14-yard catch on a third-down play that kept alive a Husker scoring drive. Scott started against Illinois and had eight carries for 22 yards, both of which were career highs. Scott had seven carries for 13 yards at Iowa, and he had a two-yard carry against Minnesota.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SPRUCE CREEK HS)

Scott was one of the most prolific running backs in Florida prep history. Scott was a five-year varsity player, first making the varsity team as an eighth grader at Warner Christian Academy where he played three seasons. He made the jump to Florida's largest class for his final two seasons at Spruce Creek High School.

Scott ran for 7,482 yards and scored 80 total touchdowns in his high school career, with his rushing total unofficially ranking sixth in Florida high school history, according to records kept by floridapreprecords.com. In two years at Class 8A Spruce Creek – his junior and senior seasons – Scott rushed for more than 2,700 yards and scored 34 touchdowns. He led the area with 1,477 rushing yards as a senior, while scoring 18 touchdowns, averaging 7.7 yards per carry and catching nine passes for 110 yards. As a junior at Spruce Creek, Scott was a first-team all-area and third-team all-state selection after rushing for 1,226 yards and 16 touchdowns. Scott began his prep career by leading the area with 1,736 rushing yards as an eighth grader at Class 2A Warner Christian Academy, where he played on the varsity for three seasons and rushed for nearly 4,800 yards.

In addition to his success on the football field, Scott was also a state champion weightlifter. As a junior, Scott claimed the top spot in the 199-pound weightlifting division with a total of 700 pounds in the bench press (405) and clean/jerk (295). His 405-pound bench press was the best mark of anyone in his weight class or below and the eighth-best mark overall among the more than 300 competitors at the state championships. His individual efforts helped Spruce Creek claim the team title.

Scott was a consensus three-star recruit who had more than two dozen other scholarship offers, including Alabama, Florida State, Miami, Michigan, Tennessee and Utah.

Henrich made his first career start in Nebraska's season-ending win at Rutgers, leading the Huskers with a career-high 12 tackles.

2019 (REDSHIRT)

Henrich, who was limited by injuries in his first season, played in one game, making his debut on special teams against No. 15 Wisconsin.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (OMAHA BURKE HS)

Henrich was the 2018 Gatorade Nebraska Player of the Year and was a semifinalist for the high school Butkus Award. As a senior, Henrich helped Omaha Burke to a 13-0 record and Class A state title by posting 96 tackles, 19.5 tackles for loss and four sacks. He earned first-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and Super-State accolades from the Lincoln Journal Star for the second straight year, while being named the honorary defensive captain by both outlets.

Henrich led Burke to the state semifinals as a junior, when he had 119 tackles, 31.5 TFLs and 11 sacks. As a sophomore, Henrich earned honorable-mention all-state recognition after collecting 58 tackles, 16 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks while helping Burke to the state quarterfinals.

Henrich was the consensus choice as the top prospect in the state of Nebraska. Rivals ranked him as the No. 6 outside linebacker prospect in the nation and the No. 127 player overall, while 247Sports listed him as the nation's No. 88 overall player and its No. 6 inside linebacker. He was also a member of the ESPN 300. Henrich also visited Wisconsin and had dozens of offers including Notre Dame, Iowa and Oregon to name a few.

PERSONAL

Nick is the son of Mike and Andrea Henrich, and he was born on June 20, 2000. A psychology major, Henrich has volunteered his time at the Buffett Cancer Center, the Nebraska Football Road Race and a Day of Service.

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2018, 2019, 2020)
- » Six-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2020 (JUNIOR)

A former walk-on, Damian Jackson was placed on scholarship for the 2020 season. After making a position switch from the defensive line to outside linebacker, he was a contributor on defense and special teams, playing in each of the final six games. Jackson finished the year with five tackles, including a half tackle for loss.

He made his season debut in the win against Penn State, totaling one tackle on kickoff coverage and one stop on defense. He has also appeared on special teams against Illinois and Iowa and on defense at Purdue. He saw significant snaps on defense against Minnesota, finishing with a career-high-tying two tackles, including his first career tackle for loss. Jackson finished his season with a solo tackle on defense at Rutgers.

Jackson played in two games as a sophomore, appearing on kickoff coverage against both Purdue and Wisconsin. He made his season debut at Purdue, where he recorded the first two tackles of his career.

In October, Jackson was one of 33 individuals nominated for the 2019 Armed Forces Award. Among the 33 nominees, Jackson was one of 12 players from all divisions of college football, including one of only four players from the FBS level. In November, Jackson was named one of five finalists for the Armed Forces Award. He was the only FBS player among the five finalists.

2018 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Jackson played in one game as a redshirt freshman, making his career debut on the defensive line in the Huskers' win over Bethune-Cookman. Although he only saw action in one game, Jackson was also a member of Nebraska's travel roster for trips to Wisconsin, Ohio State and Iowa.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SHADOW RIDGE HS/U.S. NAVY)

Jackson served as a member of the Navy SEALs for four years after graduating from Shadow Ridge High School in Las Vegas, Nev., in 2010. He was not a member of the football team in high school, but did participate in baseball and soccer. He hit .316 as a senior on the baseball team at Shadow Ridge.

2020 (JUNIOR)

Lane McCallum added depth to a veteran Husker secondary in 2020. Although he did not play in a game, McCallum was on Nebraska's travel roster for the Ohio State, Northwestern and Rutgers games.

2019 (SOPHOMORE)

McCallum added depth at safety during his sophomore season, and he also saw the field as an emergency place-kicker early in the year. McCallum made his Nebraska debut against Northern Illinois, connecting on all three of his extra-point tries. He attempted the first field goal of his career at Illinois and made four of his five PAT attempts against the Illini. He made the first two field goals of his career in Nebraska's 13-10 win over Northwestern. McCallum made a 35-yarder in the first quarter then hit the game-winning 24-yarder as time expired for the third walk-off win in the 96-year history of Memorial Stadium. McCallum kicked in five games for the Huskers in 2019, including four games as Nebraska's starting place-kicker.

2018 (TRANSFER)

Per NCAA rules, McCallum sat out the 2018 season after transferring from Air Force. Despite being unable to play, McCallum gained valuable experience in the program while adding depth to the NU secondary.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (NORFOLK HS/AIR FORCE)

McCallum spent the 2017 season as a kicker at the Air Force Academy. He graduated from Norfolk High School in 2017. As a senior in 2016, McCallum was a Lincoln Journal Star Super-State selection after rushing for 1,149 yards and 13 touchdowns on offense, as he helped the Panthers to the Class A state playoffs. He also finished fourth on the team in tackles on the defensive side of the ball. An All-Nebraska kicker, McCallum holds Norfolk's school record for points scored in a career with 354, as he made 120 of 123 extra points and 20 of 31 field goals in his career. McCallum also participated in basketball and soccer at Norfolk.

Casey Rogers played in every game as a sophomore with one start. He finished with 24 tackles, 3.0 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack. Rogers saw extensive playing time in the season opener at No. 5 Ohio State, recording the first four tackles of his career. Rogers nearly had his first career sack against the Buckeyes, as he wrapped up Justin Fields in the backfield but the play was marked as no gain after Fields landed on a teammate and lunged forward to the original line of scrimmage.

Rogers made his first career start at Northwestern, finishing with one tackle. He made three tackles in the win over Penn State. Against Illinois, Rogers had a career-high five tackles, including a half tackle for loss for his first career TFL. Rogers then added his first career sack the next week at Iowa as part of a career-high-tying five-tackle performance. Rogers had a nine-yard tackle for loss that sealed Nebraska's win at Purdue. He made four tackles against Minnesota, including a half tackle for loss. Rogers totaled two tackles in Nebraska's season-ending win at Rutgers.

Rogers played in four games as a redshirt freshman, gaining valuable experience on a senior-laden defensive line. He made his Husker debut at defensive end against Northern Illinois, and he also saw action against Northwestern, No. 15 Wisconsin and Maryland.

2018 (REDSHIRT)

Rogers redshirted in his first season at Nebraska in 2018, as he missed most of the season with an injury.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

(WESTHILL HS/AVON OLD FARMS [CONN.]

A talented multi-sport athlete, Rogers spent the 2017 season at a prep school after initially planning to play college lacrosse.

Rogers was a standout lacrosse and football player at Westhill High School in Syracuse, N.Y. He committed to play lacrosse at Syracuse, where his father Lelan was an assistant coach. Rogers had a change of heart and decided instead to pursue football at the collegiate level. He turned down scholarship offers from Western Michigan and West Virginia and opted to spend one year at Old Farms prep school in Avon, Conn., to increase his football exposure.

The decision paid off, as Rogers helped Avon Old Farms to an 8-1 record in 2017 and a berth in the New England Class A state championship game. Following his season, Rogers received scholarship offers from numerous Power Five programs including Cal, Indiana, Ole Miss, Pittsburgh and Vanderbilt, among others. He visited Alabama and Ohio State in December before committing to Nebraska. Rogers was rated as a three-star recruit by Rivals, ESPN and 247Sports. ESPN listed him among the nation's top 90 defensive ends.

Rogers was a four-year member of the football team at Westhill High School in Syracuse before his one year at Old Farms. Rogers was also named a high school All-American in lacrosse after scoring 62 goals and compiling 79 points as a senior.

PERSONAL

Casey was born on Dec. 18, 1998, and is the son of Lelan and Terri Rogers. Lelan is an assistant men's lacrosse coach at Syracuse. Casey is a sports media and communication major. GARRETT SNODGRASS

#41

[R-FRESHMAN » INSIDE LINEBACKER]

6-3 | 225 | YORK, NEB.

[HONORS & AWARDS]

- » Nebraska Defensive Scout Team MVP (2019)
- » Academic All-Big Ten (2020)
- » Three-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2020)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2020)

2020 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Garrett Snodgrass played in every game as a redshirt freshman, contributing as a linebacker and on special teams while totaling five tackles. He made one tackle while playing special teams and inside linebacker at No. 5 Ohio State. Snodgrass saw the most extensive playing time of his career against Illinois, totaling a career-high four tackles in the fourth quarter, all from his linebacker spot.

2019 (REDSHIRT)

Snodgrass played in three games on special teams as a true freshman, utilizing his redshirt season. He made his Husker debut on special teams at Purdue in the final game of October, seeing action on Nebraska's kickoff coverage unit, and he was also a member of the kickoff coverage unit against No. 15 Wisconsin and Maryland. Snodgrass also impressed in his time on the scout team, earning Nebraska Defensive Scout Team MVP honors.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (YORK HS)

Snodgrass starred as a versatile performer at York High School, making the Dukes one of the state's top Class B programs during his career. Snodgrass played for his father, Glen, at York and lined up at as many as seven positions. His outstanding defensive play earned Snodgrass a selection as a semifinalist for the high school version of the Butkus Award in 2018.

As a senior, Snodgrass helped the Dukes to a 9-3 record and an appearance in the Class B state semifinals. On offense, Snodgrass completed 98-of-167 passes for 1,780 yards and 17 touchdowns, against just five interceptions, while rushing for 1,008 yards and 23 touchdowns. Defensively, he had 47 tackles, five tackles for loss and a sack. Snodgrass was a first-team All-Nebraska pick as a linebacker by the Omaha World-Herald and a member of the Lincoln Journal Star's Super-State team.

Snodgrass keyed York's run to the Class B state championship and a 12-1 record in 2017. On offense, Snodgrass rushed for 1,542 yards, threw for 692 yards and had 426 receiving yards. He paced the York defense with 86 tackles from his linebacker position. Snodgrass was the honorary captain of the World-Herald's Class B offensive all-state team and a member of the paper's All-Nebraska offense. The Lincoln Journal Star named him to its Super-State team as an all-purpose player. Snodgrass earned honorable-mention all-state recognition as a sophomore, while helping York to a 7-3 record and a state playoff appearance.

Following his career, Snodgrass played in the 2019 Nebraska Shrine Bowl, where he played on the South squad coached by his father.

A multi-sport talent, Snodgrass was a three-time honorable-mention all-state basketball player. He was a two-time state qualifier in the discus and finished fourth in the shot put as a senior.

Snodgrass committed to Nebraska in November of 2017, and only visited the Huskers, but did have offers from Iowa State and Kansas State. A three-star recruit, he was ranked among the top four players in the state by both Rivals and 247Sports and was listed among the top 55 athlete prospects in the nation by both outlets.

PERSONAL

Garrett is the son of Glen and Allison Snodgrass, and he was born on Oct. 11, 2000. Glen Snodgrass is the head football coach for York High School. Garrett is an agronomy major. Snodgrass has volunteered his time with a Day of Service, Husker Heroes, the Nebraska Football Road Race, Special Olympics and local hospital visits.

[HONORS & AWARDS]

» Two-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2020 (JUNIOR)

Deontre Thomas battled injuries as a junior, which limited him to two games played. Thomas saw action on the defensive line against No. 5 Ohio State and Penn State.

2019 (SOPHOMORE)

Thomas played in all 12 games as a sophomore, recording a career-high 19 tackles. He tied his then-career high with three tackles and one TFL in the season opener against South Alabama. Thomas posted a career-high five tackles in Nebraska's win over Northern Illinois, and he broke up the first pass of his career against the Huskies. He had one tackle against both Illinois and Ohio State before recording two tackles against Northwestern. Thomas also had one tackle against both Minnesota and Indiana. Against No. 15 Wisconsin, Thomas totaled four tackles - a career high for a Big Ten game - and registered Nebraska's only TFL in the game. He added one tackle at Maryland the next week.

2018 (REDSHIRT)

Thomas played in the first four games before an injury forced him to utilize his redshirt season. Thomas recorded a tackle in three of his four games, including the first tackle for loss of his career against Purdue.

2017 (FRESHMAN)

Thomas finished with 14 tackles as a true freshman, including five games with multiple tackles. He recorded three tackles in his career debut against Arkansas State and added three more tackles at Oregon the next week, including the first two solo stops of his career. Thomas tallied two tackles in his Big Ten debut against Rutgers and had two solo stops and three total tackles in the Husker win at Illinois. His final multi-tackle effort came against No. 9 Ohio State, as he had two tackles against the Buckeyes. Thomas' final tackle of the season came at Purdue in the final game of October.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (MUSTANG HS)

Thomas helped Mustang High School to an 8-4 record as a senior and a trip to the Class 6A state semifinals. He racked up 79 tackles and eight sacks for the Broncos en route to first-team all-state honors from the Daily Oklahoman and USA Today. Thomas also helped Mustang to the state playoffs as a junior and a trip to the state semifinals as a sophomore.

Thomas was ranked among the nation's top 200 players by 247Sports. The service also listed him as the nation's No. 11 defensive tackle and the No. 5 prospect in the state of Oklahoma. Thomas was ranked among the top 45 defensive tackles in the country by Rivals.com and ESPN.

Thomas had numerous offers including Arizona State, Arkansas, Kansas State, Michigan, Ole Miss, Texas A&M, TCU and Texas Tech.

PERSONAL

Deontre is the son of Cameal and Frank Thomas, and he was born on April 30, 1998. He is a criminology and criminal justice major. Thomas has volunteered his time with a Day of Service, the Nebraska Football Road Race, and local hospital visits.

[HONORS & AWARDS]

- » Baaken-Anderson Big Ten Kicker of the Year (2020)
- » First-Team All-Big Ten (2020)
- » Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2020)

2020 (SENIOR)

Connor Culp had an impressive debut season as Nebraska's starting place-kicker in 2020. The graduate transfer was named the Big Ten Kicker of the Year in addition to being a first-team all-conference selection. Culp was 13-of-15 on field goals and made all 20 of his extra-point attempts. Culp led Nebraska with 59 points and he also had 12 touchbacks on his 40 kickoffs. Culp ranked second in the Big Ten and 15th nationally in field goals per game (1.6) and second in the conference and 13th nationally in field goal percentage (86.7).

In the opener at No. 5 Ohio State, he connected on both of his extra-point tries and made a 22-yard field goal. He also kicked off four times with one touchback, and Ohio State managed only 14 yards on two kickoff returns. At Northwestern, Culp was 2-of-3 on field goals, including a season-long 38-yarder. He also had two touchbacks on four kickoffs.

Culp made all three of his field goals and both of his extra-point tries in the win over Penn State. He added two touchbacks on his six kickoffs, while the four Penn State returns averaged only 12.8 yards. Culp hit a 30-yard field goal against Illinois and had one touchback on four kickoffs. He made a pair of field goals at Iowa, including a season-long 39-yarder.

At Purdue, Culp was perfect on three field goal attempts, including a career-long 49-yarder that was the longest field goal by a Husker since 2016. Culp also had three touchbacks on eight kickoffs against the Boilermakers. Culp hit 1-of-2 field goals and had three touchbacks on four kickoffs against Minnesota. Culp tied his career high for the second time in three games with four extra points in Nebraska's season-ending win at Rutgers.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (DESERT VISTA HS/LSU)

Culp came to Nebraska as a graduate transfer after spending his first four seasons at LSU. Culp started 10 games as the Tigers' place-kicker as a redshirt freshman in 2017, and he was a member of LSU's 2019 national championship team. After redshirting in 2016, Culp started 10 games in 2017 and connected on 11-of-16 field goals, including eight consecutive makes at one point. He made four field goals against Ole Miss, tied for the second-most field goals in a game in LSU history. Culp also had three touchbacks in his 10 kickoffs as a redshirt freshman. Culp came to LSU as one of the top 10 kicker recruits in the country. A U.S. Army All-American, Culp made 12-of-15 field goals with a long of 51 yards and recorded 63 touchbacks on his 67 kickoffs as a senior.

[HONORS & AWARDS]

- » Academic All-Big Ten (2019, 2020)
- » Four-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll

2020 (SOPHOMORE)

Cade Mueller handled the long-snapping duties for the punt unit in every game for Nebraska in 2020. He worked with two different starting punters and was flawless in his snapping all season.

2019 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Mueller continued to develop as a long snapper in 2019. Although he did not play in a game, Mueller was a member of Nebraska's travel roster for the Maryland game.

2018 (REDSHIRT)

Mueller gained valuable experience behind a pair of veteran long snappers while utilizing his redshirt season in 2018.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (GRETNA HS)

Mueller joined the Nebraska football program as a walk-on out of Gretna High School. As a senior in 2017, Mueller was an honorable-mention all-state selection by the Omaha World-Herald, as he helped pave the way for a Gretna team that reached the Class B semifinals. On the defensive side of the ball, Mueller recorded 40 total tackles, including three sacks. He racked up 14 tackles as a junior in 2016.

SCHOLARSHIP BIOS

KOBY BRETZ

DEFENSIVE BACK | 6-2 | 195
OMAHA, NEB. | WESTSIDE HS

Koby Bretz is one of five Nebraska natives in the Huskers' signing class, including three from the Omaha area. Bretz helped Omaha Westside to a state runner-up finish as a junior and a state championship as a senior.

In his senior season, Bretz had 54 tackles, 1.0 tackle for loss, three interceptions, four passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery, according to MaxPreps. On offense, Bretz led Westside with 37 catches for 583 yards and eight touchdowns, and he added nearly 200 return yards. In Westside's state championship game win, Bretz made nine tackles, broke up three passes, had three catches for 78 yards and a touchdown and had 80 return yards. Bretz was named to the Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska and Lincoln Journal Star Super-State teams as a senior. As a junior, Bretz earned honorable-mention all-state honors from both the World-Herald and Journal Star. Bretz was also an accomplished diver for Westside. He took second place at the state meet as a sophomore and third place as a junior.

Bretz chose Nebraska over several other scholarship offers, including Buffalo, Kansas State and Wyoming. He was ranked among the top 50 safeties nationally by Rivals.

RU'QUAN BUCKLEY

WYOMING, MICH. | GODWIN HEIGHTS HS

Ru'Quan Buckley is only the fourth Michigan native to sign with Nebraska since 1974. He was a standout offensive and defensive lineman for Godwin Heights High School. Buckley enrolled at Nebraska in January, and he is the youngest member of the Huskers' recruiting class, as he won't turn 18 until October of 2021.

A 2020 Sports Illustrated All-America candidate, Buckley started all four seasons for Godwin Heights, including as a 13-year old freshman. The first player in school history to sign with a Big Ten school, Buckley made 74 tackles as a senior with 22 tackles for loss and 11 sacks in only seven games. On offense, Buckley was one of eight offensive linemen statewide named to the Michigan Coaches Association's 2020 Dream Team.

Buckley was ranked as the No. 16 high school senior in Michigan by the Detroit News. He was ranked among the nation's top 40 strongside defensive ends in the 247Sports Composite rankings. He had an impressive list of offers, choosing Nebraska over Cincinnati, Florida State, Michigan State and Minnesota.

MARQUES BUFORD JR.

DESOTO, TEXAS | TRINITY CHRISTIAN HS
ST. THOMAS MORE (CONN.) PREP

Marques Buford Jr. spent the fall semester at St. Thomas More Prep School in Connecticut, where he played a limited schedule of six games due to the pandemic. Buford is the nation's top-ranked prep school recruit, marking the second straight year the Huskers have signed the No. 1 prep school recruit from St. Thomas More Prep after Alante Brown inked with NU in December of 2019. Buford enrolled at Nebraska in January.

Buford spent the first two seasons of his high school career at Bolingbrook High School in Chicago and his final two seasons at Trinity Christian High School in Texas. Buford recorded more than 90 tackles with five interceptions in his two seasons at Trinity Christian, which both culminated with state championships. As a senior in 2019, Buford made 40 tackles and intercepted three passes, in addition to totaling 412 receiving yards and seven touchdowns, according to MaxPreps. He was an all-district and all-state performer in each of his two seasons at Trinity Christian. Buford started for Bolingbrook as a freshman wide receiver before becoming a two-way player as a sophomore.

The nation's top-rated prep school recruit, Buford chose Nebraska over Cal, Iowa, Ole Miss, Pittsburgh, Texas A&M and Washington State. Buford's coach at St. Thomas More Prep was Jason Manson, who was a college teammate of Nebraska defensive coordinator Erik Chinander at Iowa.

JAMES CARNIE

ROCA, NEB. | NORRIS HS

James Carnie is the first scholarship player to sign with Nebraska out of Norris High School in at least 40 years. One of five Nebraska natives in the Huskers' signing class, Carnie is one of three talented and athletic tight ends in the 2021 class. Carnie enrolled at Nebraska in January.

He averaged 6.0 tackles per game and also recorded 8.0 tackles for loss, all during his senior season. Closman also added nine career interceptions and four pass deflections. On offense, he had nine career receptions for 158 yards with two touchdowns. Closman helped the Mustangs to back-to-back Class A state tournament appearances in 2019 and 2020. Millard North lost in the first round in 2019 before advancing to the second round in 2020. Closman was recognized as a second-team Super-State pick by the Lincoln Journal Star as a senior.

AJ COLLINSDEFENSIVE BACK | 5-10 | 170
BENNINGTON, NEB. | CREIGHTON PREP HS

AJ Collins was a two-way player for the Junior Jays. As a senior, he made 47 tackles with two tackles for loss and three pass breakups on defense while catching nine passes for 62 yards on offense. His play helped Creighton Prep advance to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs. Collins chose to walk on at Nebraska over a Division II scholarship offer from Quincy University and offers from NAIA schools Mount Marty and Morningside.

SAM HOSKINSONOFFENSIVE LINE | 6-0 | 245
OMAHA, NEB. | ELKHORN SOUTH HS

Sam Hoskinson joins the Nebraska program after a standout career at Elkhorn South High School. Hoskinson played both ways for the Storm, working on the offensive line primarily at center. On defense, he was a linebacker for Elkhorn South and his play helped the Storm to a 10-2 record in 2020 and a Class A state runner-up finish. Hoskinson also helped Elkhorn South to a 7-4 record and a Class A playoff appearance in 2019. Hoskinson's blocking helped a powerful Storm rushing attack that averaged better than 275 yards per game. Hoskinson also excels in baseball for Elkhorn South. Sam is the son of Matt Hoskinson who was a three-year letterwinner on the offensive line (1995-96-97) and a member of three Nebraska national championship teams.

CHRISTIAN (C.J.) LILIENKAMPDEFENSIVE BACK | 6-0 | 170
BELLEVUE, NEB. | BELLEVUE WEST HS

Christian (C.J.) Lilienkamp joins Nebraska from Bellevue West High School, which was one of the state's top prep programs during his career. The Thunderbirds made the semifinals of the state playoffs in Lilienkamp's sophomore season, won the state title in his junior year and earned the No. 1 seed and advanced to the quarterfinals in his senior season. As a senior, Lilienkamp finished second on the team with 54 tackles from his safety spot. He also had four interceptions and added four pass breakups. For his efforts, Lilienkamp was selected as an honorable-mention all-state performer by both the Omaha World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal Star. He chose to walk on at Nebraska over scholarship offers from NAIA schools Morningside and Midland.

GRANT LOHRRB | 6-0 | 185
TULSA, OKLA. | JENKS HS

Grant Lohr is one of several second-generation Huskers in the 2021 walk-on class. The son of former NU defensive lineman Jason Lohr, Grant has been a standout at powerhouse Jenks High School in Tulsa the past two seasons. During his senior season, Lohr was a first-team all-state pick by the Tulsa World and the District 6A-1 co-offensive player of the year. Lohr rushed for 1,355 yards and 22 touchdowns, while adding 257 receiving yards and three touchdown catches. On defense, Lohr made 44 total tackles, had five sacks and added three interceptions, one of which he returned for a touchdown. Lohr helped Jenks to a 12-1 record and a Class 6A-1 state title. During his junior year, Lohr earned honorable-mention all-metro honors as a defensive back, helping Jenks to a trip to the state playoffs. Lohr's father, Jason, was a four-year letterman for Nebraska from 1998 to 2003. He played in 45 career games and made 92 career tackles.

JOEY MANCINOOFFENSIVE LINE | 6-3 | 300
HOLMDEL, N.J. | HOLMDEL HS

Lineman Joey Mancino joins the 2021 Nebraska walk-on class after an outstanding prep career at Holmdel High School in New Jersey. The 6-3, 300-pound Mancino played on both sides of the ball during his prep career for Coach Jeff Rainess. Holmdel posted a 7-1 record in 2020, with the team averaging better than 200 rushing yards per game behind Mancino's powerful work on the offensive line. Mancino earned first-team New Jersey All-Shore honors as a senior and was also an all-division selection. During Mancino's junior year, Holmdel posted a 6-4 record and advanced to the playoffs. Mancino had scholarship offers from FCS schools Wagner and Stetson, and opportunities to walk-on at Rutgers, Wake Forest, Florida Atlantic and Texas Tech among others.

KELEN MEYERPLACE-KICKER | 6-3 | 190
ORD, NEB. | ORD HS

Kelen Meyer was a standout kicker for Ord High School, helping the Chanticleers to the Nebraska Class C2 state title as a senior. According to MaxPreps, Meyer made 110 of his 116 career extra points (95 percent) and connected on 16-of-25 field goals. He showed off a strong leg with a 58-yard field goal as a senior that tied for the second-longest field goal in state history. Meyer also tied a Class C-2 record with three field goals against Central City. Meyer made 8-of-14 field goals as a senior and 7-of-10 attempts as a junior. Meyer also averaged more than 58 yards on 92 kickoffs as a senior. As a punter, Meyer averaged 39.4 yards per punt in his career, including 40.2 yards as a senior. In addition to handling Ord's kicking duties, Meyer also started at wide receiver and defensive back. Meyer was a consensus first-team all-state pick as a senior. He was also an Omaha World-Herald all-state selection as a sophomore and an honorable-mention pick as a junior. Meyer also wrestled for Ord. He was a four-time state qualifier and was the state runner-up at 182 pounds as a senior. As a junior Meyer finished fourth in the 170-pound weight class to help the Chanticleers to a runner-up team finish. Meyer is also a two-time state qualifier in golf. He chose to walk on at Nebraska over a scholarship offer from Doane.

EVAN MEYERSICKTIGHT END | 6-5 | 185
OMAHA, NEB. | MILLARD WEST HS

Evan Meyersick joins Nebraska as a tight end after playing wide receiver for Millard West High School. Meyersick did not play football until his junior season with the Wildcats. He had six catches for 124 yards during the regular season as a senior. Meyersick also played basketball for Millard West. As a senior, Meyersick averaged 13.3 points and approximately five rebounds per game in helping Millard West to the Class A semifinals. He averaged nearly 11 points and five rebounds per game as a junior, according to MaxPreps. Meyersick averaged 8.2 points and 2.9 rebounds per game as a sophomore and 3.5 points and 1.5 rebounds per game as a freshman. Meyersick chose to walk on at Nebraska over Division II scholarship offers from Wayne State and Augustana.

WESTON REIMANOFFENSIVE LINE | 6-2 | 290*WEEPING WATER, NEB. | WEEPING WATER HS

Weston Reiman played both offensive and defensive line for Weeping Water High School. He played in 15 games and racked up 39 total tackles with 24 solo tackles, according to MaxPreps. He also recorded 3.0 sacks, one interception and one touchdown. As a senior Reiman helped Weeping Water reach the quarterfinals of the state playoffs. Reiman was named a 2020 all-state selection by both the Lincoln Journal Star and the Grand Island Independent after being an honorable-mention all-state pick by the Journal Star as both a sophomore and junior. Reiman chose Nebraska over Division II offers from Chadron State and Culver-Stockton.

BEAU SCHALLEROFFENSIVE LINE | 6-2 | 265*WAUKEE, IOWA | WAUKEE HS

Offensive lineman Beau Schaller was a standout performer at Waukee High School in Iowa, just outside of Des Moines. Schaller's play as a senior helped Waukee to a 7-3 record and a trip to the third round of the Class 4A state playoffs. Schaller was the leader of the Warriors' offensive line that helped the offense rank fifth in the state in total yards per game. He also handled the snapping duties on the field goal team, which was one of the most efficient in school history. Schaller earned first-team Class 4A all-state honors from both the Des Moines Register and the Iowa Print Sports Writers Association. Schaller was also a starter for Waukee in 2019, when the Warriors posted a 7-5 record and reached the Class 4A state playoffs. Schaller is also a member of the Waukee wrestling team.

MATTHEW SCHUSTERRUNNING BACK | 5-9 | 170*COZAD, NEB.*COZAD HS | ASHLAND-GREENWOOD HS

Matthew Schuster played three varsity seasons for Cozad High School before playing his final season at Ashland-Greenwood. The running back played in 25 games and finished with 2,065 rushing yards, 430 carries and 11 rushing touchdowns at Cozad. He also recorded 12 receptions for 80 yards at Cozad. In his senior season at Ashland-Greenwood, Schuster helped the Bluejays to a perfect 9-0 regular-season record and a No. 1 seed in the Class C-1 state playoffs. He was named an all-state honoree for his efforts. As a junior for Cozad in 2019, Schuster had 139 carries for 837 yards and four touchdowns, according to MaxPreps. He helped the Haymakers earn a spot in the Class C-1 state playoffs and was recognized as an honorable-mention all-state performer. Schuster finished with 201 carries for 770 yards and four touchdowns as a sophomore. In his freshman season, Schuster had 90 carries for 458 yards and three touchdowns. Schuster chose Nebraska over walk-on offers from Northern Illinois, Wyoming and Ohio. He is the son of former Husker fullback, Brian Schuster, who was a two-time national champion at Nebraska in the mid-1990s.

JARRETT SYNEKQUARTERBACK | 6-0 | 190*HASTINGS, NEB. | HASTINGS HS

Jarrett Synek was a prolific passer for Hastings High School. He finished his career with 5,622 passing yards and threw 65 touchdowns, according to MaxPreps. He averaged 181.4 passing yards per game and went 339-for-598 through the air, completing nearly 57 percent of his passes. On the ground, Synek had 201 carries for 919 yards and three touchdowns. Synek finished with over 2,500 passing yards in each of his final two seasons. As a senior, Synek finished with 2,903 yards and 33 touchdowns en route to earning second-team All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald and second-team Super-State recognition from the Lincoln Journal Star. As a junior, Synek helped lead the Tigers to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs. That season, Synek threw for 2,524 yards and 29 touchdowns, and he earned all-state honors from the Journal Star. Synek also plays basketball.

TAVEON THOMPSONWIDE RECEIVER | 6-4 | 200*LINCOLN, NEB. | SOUTHEAST HS

Taveon Thompson joins Nebraska as a wide receiver after being a two-way player at Lincoln Southeast High School, where he helped the Knights to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs as a sophomore, junior and senior. As a senior, Thompson made 45 tackles with three interceptions in addition to catching 14 passes for 265 yards and two touchdowns while averaging 18.9 yards per reception. For his efforts, he was named an honorable-mention all-state selection by both the Lincoln Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald. Thompson was also a first-team all-city pick by the Journal Star. He chose to walk on at Nebraska over an FBS scholarship offer from Charlotte and Division II scholarship offers from Southwest Minnesota State and Minnesota State. Thompson also played basketball for Southeast, averaging 8.7 points and 5.0 rebounds per game as a junior, according to MaxPreps.

PAYTON WEEHLERDEFENSIVE BACK | 6-3 | 190*BLOCKTON, IOWA | MT. AYR HS

Payton Weehler was a versatile performer for Mt. Ayr High School, helping the Raiders reach the state playoffs in each of his final two seasons. Weehler played quarterback and linebacker, and his play helped Mt. Ayr to a 6-1 record in 2020 and a trip to the Class 1A playoffs. Weehler was a second-team Class 1A all-state selection as a linebacker. Weehler also helped Mt. Ayr post a 7-3 record and reach the state playoffs in 2019. Weehler also plays basketball.

AIDEN YOUNGRUNNING BACK | 5-9 | 175*OMAHA, NEB. | ELKHORN HS

Aiden Young joins Nebraska after helping Elkhorn High School to a Class B state championship as a senior. Young rushed for 110 yards, including a 46-yard touchdown run, and returned a kickoff for a 76-yard touchdown in the Antlers' state championship win over Aurora. Young finished his senior season with more than 1,500 rushing yards and 24 rushing touchdowns, according to the Omaha World-Herald. For his efforts, he was named a first-team Super-State selection by the Lincoln Journal Star as a senior. As a junior, Young was named an honorable-mention all-state selection by both the Journal Star and the Omaha World-Herald. Young chose to walk on at Nebraska after also receiving several Division II scholarship offers.

Columbus, Ohio (Oct. 24) - Adrian Martinez and Luke McCaffrey combined for 165 rushing yards, but Nebraska was unable to keep pace in a 52-17 loss to fifth-ranked Ohio State.

Nebraska generated 370 yards of total offense, including 210 rushing yards and 160 passing yards, as McCaffrey tallied 80 yards on nine carries, including a 47-burst on Nebraska's opening drive. His run set up a 10-yard touchdown trot for Martinez to cap a four-play, 75-yard drive to give NU an early lead. Martinez finished with a team-high 85 rushing yards on 13 carries for the Big Red. Martinez added an efficient passing day by completing 12-of-15 passes for 105 yards, while McCaffrey completed 4-of-5 passes for 55 yards.

While Nebraska's quarterbacks combined to complete 16-of-20 passes, Ohio State's Justin Fields was even more efficient, completing 20-of-21 passes for 276 yards and two TDs. Fields added 15 carries for 54 yards and another score as OSU amassed 498 total yards.

After Nebraska took a quick 7-0 lead, Fields pushed the Buckeyes down the field for an 11-play, 75-yard drive in 5:05 to tie the score. After the Buckeyes got a stop on Nebraska's next drive, Fields found Garrett Wilson for a 42-yard touchdown pass with 4:02 left in the opening quarter. NU tied the score at 14 midway through the second quarter on Dedrick Mills' three-yard touchdown run. Ohio State answered with an 11-play drive of its own that covered 71 yards, but Nebraska held and forced a 34-yard Blake Haubeil field goal with 3:12 left in the half. NU struggled on its next possession, and OSU took advantage, going 46 yards in just five plays capped by a Master Teague III six-yard run to put the Buckeyes ahead 24-14. OSU extended its lead on the opening series of the second half, as Fields' 17-yard run put the Buckeyes ahead 31-14.

The three consecutive scores by Ohio State in just 6:48 of game time put Nebraska in a must-score position on its opening drive of the second half, and the Huskers started marching. However, on the sixth play of Nebraska's drive, Martinez fumbled at the OSU 45, and Sevyn Banks scooped up the ball and raced 55 yards for a touchdown to give Ohio State a 38-14 lead. Nebraska ended Ohio State's surge with a 22-yard Connor Culp field goal with 3:56 left in the period to send the Huskers to the fourth trailing 38-17. OSU added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns to complete the scoring.

Evanston, Ill. (Nov. 7) - In another game between Nebraska and Northwestern that came down to the final play, Luke McCaffrey's pass to Wan'Dale Robinson fell incomplete as the Wildcats escaped with a 21-13 win.

Nebraska lost despite putting up 442 yards of total offense and 28 first downs against Northwestern, while holding the Wildcats to just 317 total yards.

The Huskers led 13-7 at the half, but Peyton Ramsey threw a pair of second-half touchdowns passes for Northwestern, including a 10-yard pass to Riley Lees with 9:53 left.

Nebraska had two opportunities to get the tying score in the fourth quarter, but could not crack the end zone. Luke McCaffrey drove the Huskers down the field, and Nebraska had the ball first-and-goal at the Northwestern 3-yard line and had another first and goal at the Wildcat 2, but Chris Bergin's interception snuffed out the drive.

After forcing a punt, the Huskers got the ball back at their 8-yard line with 2:14 remaining. NU eventually got the ball to the Wildcat 14, but his fourth-down incompletion on fourth-and-4 with five seconds left ended the Huskers' scoring threat. McCaffrey completed 12-of-16 passes for 93 yards in just over one quarter of action, while added 49 yards on eight carries. Adrian Martinez led the Nebraska ground game with 102 yards on 13 carries, while adding 125 yards by completing 12-of-27 passes.

Northwestern jumped out to a 7-0 lead on Drake Anderson's 41-yard run, capping a seven-play, 80-yard drive. The Huskers chipped away, getting two Connor Culp field goals to pull within 7-6 midway through the second quarter.

Late in the second quarter, Myles Farmer gave the Big Red their best opportunity of the day, intercepting a Peyton Ramsey pass and taking it down to the Northwestern 3. Dedrick Mills scored on the next play to give the Huskers a 13-7 lead with 1:25 left in the half.

Farmer, making his first career start, picked off two Ramsey passes for Nebraska, while Luke Reimers added a career-high 10 stops and a sack for the Big Red.

Northwestern went back in front with its opening drive of the second half. Ramsey found John Raine on a two-yard pass to cap a 10-play, 61-yard drive that used up 4:57 to put the Wildcats up 14-13 with 9:53 left in the third.

Ramsey, who went 16-of-27 for 169 yards and two scores, added his second scoring toss early in the third quarter to stake the Wildcats an eight-point cushion.

Lincoln (Nov. 14) - Nebraska's defense helped the Huskers build a 27-6 halftime lead and preserved it with a pair of fourth-quarter stands in a 30-23 victory over Penn State.

Nebraska held a 30-23 lead after Penn State's Devyn Ford scored on a five-yard touchdown with 9:30 left. The Husker defense made the margin stand by snuffing out a pair of Penn State drives inside the Husker red zone in the final five minutes.

The Nittany Lions got the ball at the NU 48 with 7:39 left after a Brandon Smith interception. PSU quarterback Will Levis led the Lions to the NU 11, but the Huskers forced four consecutive incompletions, culminating with a Marquel Dismuke breakup on fourth down.

After a Husker punt, PSU marched from its own 31 to the NU 9 on its final drive before the Blackshirts stiffened. After a pair of incompletions, Luke Reimer sacked Levis on third down before Ben Stille pressured Levis into an incompleting to seal NU's first win of 2020.

Dismuke recorded a career-high 15 tackles, including a tackle for loss to go along with his breakup, as four Huskers totaled double-figure tackles. The Blackshirts also forced two turnovers that led to 10 points, including a 26-yard scoop and score from Deontai Williams.

NU jumped out quickly, as Luke McCaffrey led NU on an 11-play, 75-yard drive to open the game. McCaffrey accounted for 69 yards on the drive, including a key 12-yard run to keep the chains moving. On Penn State's first possession, Cam Taylor-Britt intercepted a Sean Clifford pass and returned it 55 yards to the PSU 15 to set up a 22-yard field goal by Connor Culp, one of three for the Husker kicker on the day.

PSU was within 10-3 in the opening minute of the second quarter before the Huskers struck for 14 points in a 2:32 span. Freshman Zavier Betts got into the scoring column, taking a flip from McCaffrey and racing 45 yards for a TD, capping a 3-play, 65-yard drive. On the next drive, the Williams strip sack and score extended the margin to 21 with 11:29 left in the half.

McCaffrey picked up a victory in his first career start, completing 13-of-21 passes for 152 yards and a touchdown. He also rushed 13 times for 67 yards and another score. Wan'Dale Robinson added a season-high 16 carries for 60 yards while catching five passes. NU was out-gained 501-298, but the Blackshirts allowed just 16 points on Penn State's six red zone trips.

Lincoln (Nov. 21) - Nebraska committed five turnovers, and visiting Illinois converted the miscues into 17 points in a 41-23 victory over the Huskers.

Luke McCaffrey rushed for 122 yards and two touchdowns on 26 carries while adding 134 yards on 15-of-26 passing but threw three interceptions and fumbled on the game's first play from scrimmage. Three plays and 21 yards later, Chase Brown's three-yard scoring run put Illinois up 7-0 just 1:29 into the game.

Nebraska regrouped as McCaffrey engineered a 12-play, 71-yard march that culminated with his five-yard touchdown run to tie the game at seven.

Illinois regained the lead on its next drive, as Brown's second touchdown of the day made it 14-7. Nebraska was driving on its next possession, but McCaffrey's fourth-down pass was intercepted by Tarique Barnes at the Illinois 35. The Illini would take advantage, going 65 yards in seven plays, as Brandon Peters found Josh Imatorbhebe on a 28-yard touchdown pass to make it 21-7.

Nebraska pulled to within 21-10 after a Connor Culp field goal, but Illinois answered with a four-play, 89-yard drive, highlighted by a 58-yard run by Mike Epstein, who scored from one yard out two plays later.

The Fighting Illini finished with 490 total yards, including 285 on the ground and 205 yards passing. Brown finished the game with 110 yards and two touchdowns, while Epstein added 113 yards. Brandon Peters completed 18-of-25 passes for 205 yards while adding 36 rushing yards and a touchdown of his own on eight carries. Most importantly, Illinois did not turn the ball over.

Illinois started the second half with the ball and Nebraska's defense appeared to have the Illini stopped for a quick three-and-out, but punter Blake Hayes converted on 4th-and-8 from the Illinois 31 with a 14-yard run. Illinois eventually converted and pushed the lead to 31-10 after James McCourt's 24-yard field goal.

Nebraska cut into the Illinois lead with its first second-half touchdown of the season with a six-play, 75-yard drive capped by McCaffrey's one-yard touchdown. But Peters and the Illini answered with a one-yard touchdown run of their own on the ensuing drive to push the lead back to 21 points.

Will Honas led the Nebraska defense with 10 total tackles, including a sack, another half TFL and a hurry, while JoJo Domann added eight tackles including a pair of TFLs and breakup.

Iowa City, Iowa (Nov. 27) - Iowa scored the game's final 13 points to hand visiting Nebraska a 26-20 loss in the Heroes Game at Kinnick Stadium.

Nebraska rallied from a 10-0 first-half deficit to take a 20-13 lead following a touchdown on the opening drive of the second half. The Huskers took the lead on running back Rahmir Johnson's first career touchdown, a 12-yard burst that capped an eight-play, 70-yard march. But Iowa answered the Husker touchdown with seven points of its own on a Mekhi Sargent two-yard touchdown run to tie the score at 20 heading to the fourth quarter.

Iowa opened the fourth quarter with a 48-yard Keith Duncan field goal, before getting another Duncan field goal with 8:21 left. The Hawkeyes had a chance to seal the win, but Duncan missed a 51-yard attempt to give the Huskers a final chance. Adrian Martinez drove the Huskers into Iowa territory, as his 18-yard completion to Wan'Dale Robinson got the ball to the Iowa 39. On the next play, Martinez dropped back and was about to throw when he was hit by Chauncey Gholston. The ball popped into the air was caught before it hit the ground by Zach Van Valkenburg for a game-sealing fumble recovery.

Martinez finished the game 18-for-20 for 174 yards passing while adding 12 carries for 28 rushing yards. Overall, Nebraska produced 338 yards of total offense against a stout Iowa defense, while holding the Hawkeyes to 322 total yards. Spencer Petras led Iowa by completing 18-of-30 passes, while Tyler Goodson led the Hawkeyes on the ground with 111 rushing yards on 30 carries.

In an entertaining first half, Iowa jumped out to a 10-0 lead at the end of the first quarter before Nebraska rallied to tie the game at halftime.

Trailing 10-0, Luke McCaffrey entered the game at quarterback for the Huskers, and led the offense on an 11-play, 62-yard march that culminated with a 31-yard Connor Culp field goal to put the Big Red on the board with 12:35 left in the first half.

On Iowa's next possession, Dicaprio Bootle's interception gave the Husker offense a short field before Culp's second field goal, this one from 39 yards, pulled Nebraska within 10-6 with 9:42 left in the half. Iowa answered with a strong drive, moving 55 yards in 12 plays before settling for another Duncan field goal.

Trailing 13-6, Nebraska went 75 yards in 11 plays, as Martinez scored from one yard out. The junior signal caller went 3-for-4 for 73 yards on the drive, including a key 23-yard completion to Austin Allen.

West Lafayette, Ind. (Dec. 5) - Nebraska jumped out to a quick 17-0 lead and made enough plays down the stretch to earn a 37-27 win over Purdue.

On Purdue's first possession, Levi Falck blocked Brendan Cropsey's punt, which Simon Otte covered at the Purdue 1-yard-line. Dedrick Mills scored one play later to give NU a 7-0 lead.

After a 3-and-out, Cam Taylor-Britt's 27-yard return and a 15-yard Purdue penalty put the ball at Boilermaker 17-yard line. NU scored three plays later on a 13-yard run by Adrian Martinez. After another Purdue three-and-out, the Huskers went 37 yards in eight plays before Connor Culp's 25-yard field goal made it 17-0. Nebraska led 17-3 at the end of the quarter and maintained that two-score lead at 27-13 at halftime. The Husker second quarter included Martinez's 10-yard touchdown pass to Wyatt Liewer and Culp's career-long 49-yard field goal.

Nebraska stretched the lead to 34-13, taking the second half kickoff and going 75 yards in 11 plays before Martinez's 1-yard run gave the Huskers their biggest lead of the day. Purdue came storming back, as Jack Plummer connected with Payne Durham on a 20-yard touchdown pass to pull within 34-20 heading to the fourth quarter. Then Purdue capitalized quickly in the fourth when Plummer hit David Bell with an 89-yard touchdown pass to make it 34-27 with 12:16 left. Nebraska got some breathing room on Culp's third field goal of the game, this time from 32 yards out, to made it a 10-point lead.

Nebraska finished the game with 362 yards of total offense, including 242 yards and a touchdown on 23-of-30 passing by Martinez, who added 45 rushing yards and two scores on 13 carries. Wan'Dale Robinson hauled in nine passes for a season-best 114 receiving yards.

The Blackshirts held Purdue to 332 total yards, including minus-2 yards rushing. Plummer finished the day 33-of-47 through the air for 334 yards and three touchdowns but was sacked three times for 21 yards in losses. Deontai Williams led the Nebraska defense with 12 tackles, including 10 solos, while adding a pass breakup. Cam Taylor-Britt and Dicaprio Bootle each contributed a pair of breakups for the Husker secondary, while Ben Stille and Garrett Nelson combined for all three Husker sacks.

Lincoln (Dec. 12) - Nebraska had a pair of turnovers which led to 14 points as the Huskers suffered a 24-17 loss to Minnesota.

Minnesota forced the game's two turnovers, an interception of Luke McCaffrey by Tyler Nubin in the first quarter and a third-quarter fumble by Adrian Martinez which was recovered by Thomas Rush. Both gave Minnesota short fields, and the Gophers took advantage. Nubin's interception set up a four-play, 35-yard drive, as Mohamed Ibrahim scored on a 4th-and-1, going 26 yards to give the Golden Gophers an early 7-0 lead.

Minnesota extended its lead to 10-0 on an Anders Gelecinskyj field goal before Nebraska responded with a pair of touchdown drives in the second quarter to take a 14-10 lead. The first drive covered 75 yards in six plays, fueled by a 47-yard run by Wan'Dale Robinson. It culminated with an eight-yard touchdown pass from Martinez to tight end Austin Allen to cut Minnesota's lead to 10-7.

The Husker defense held Minnesota on the ensuing drive, before Martinez engineered a 13-play, 73-yard march that lasted five minutes and culminated with his seven-yard touchdown run to give NU a 14-10 lead with 2:57 left in the half.

Minnesota regained the lead shortly before halftime, as Cam Wiley's 61-yard run put Minnesota deep in Husker territory. The Huskers had seemingly stopped the Gophers, but a targeting call on Cam Taylor-Britt kept the drive alive. Two plays later Morgan hit Brevyn Spann-Ford on a four-yard touchdown pass to give the Golden Gophers a 17-14 lead with 1:23 left in the half.

The Huskers' second turnover proved costly, as Minnesota went 39 yards in nine plays, scoring on a one-yard plunge from Ibrahim to extend the lead to 24-14.

Nebraska had an opportunity to pull within three, but a Martinez TD run was nullified by a penalty, and the Huskers had to settle for a Connor Culp field goal to cut the deficit to seven with 4:42 left.

But the Huskers were unable to stop Minnesota on its final possession, as the Gophers went 70 yards in nine plays to run out the clock. Ibrahim led the Gophers on the ground with 20 carries for 108 yards, including 59 yards on the Gophers' final drive.

Nebraska managed 308 yards of total offense, including 197 yards on the ground and 111 through the air. Martinez led the Huskers with 15 carries for 96 and a touchdown, while going 16-for-27 passing with another score.

Deontai Williams led the Husker defense with 10 tackles including one for loss and a pair of breakups. Mariano Sori-Marin led the Minnesota defense with 18 tackles, while Nubin added seven tackles to his interception.

Piscataway, N.J. (Dec. 18) - Nebraska rolled up 620 yards of total offense and put together its strongest second half of the season to secure a 28-21 Big Ten Conference road win over Rutgers.

Adrian Martinez, Dedrick Mills and Wan'Dale Robinson all had big nights for the Big Red, as the Huskers notched their third victory of the season. Martinez racked up more than 400 yards of total offense by completing 24-of-28 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown. He added 23 carries for 157 yards and two rushing touchdowns, including the game-winner on a one-yard plunge with 9:55 left in the game.

Mills was even bigger on the ground for the Huskers, carrying 28 times for 191 yards, to help Nebraska amass 365 rushing yards. Mills added six receptions for 45 yards to total 236 all-purpose yards.

Robinson joined Martinez by scoring a pair of Husker touchdowns, including a tough 14-yard catch in traffic with 43 seconds left in the third quarter to tie the game at 21. Robinson, who scored Nebraska's first touchdown on a one-yard pitch to the outside in the second quarter, finished with six receptions for 79 yards while adding seven carries for 24 yards on the ground.

Nebraska's big totals on offense came despite turning the ball over four times, including a pair of fumbles and an interception by Martinez in the first half. Rutgers was able to turn the Husker turnovers into a 14-7 halftime lead, but the defense minimized the damage to keep Nebraska in the game.

The Blackshirts held Rutgers to just 252 yards of total offense, including 130 rushing and 122 passing, while limiting the Scarlet Knights to just 52 plays from scrimmage. Nebraska also won the time of possession battle, 39:31-20:29.

Linebacker Nick Henrich led the Huskers with 12 tackles, while Will Honas added eight stops. Garrett Nelson and Pheldarius Payne also pitched in five stops apiece, while Honas, Nelson and Payne all notched 1.5 tackles for loss. Cam Taylor-Britt also turned in Nebraska's biggest defensive play with his interception at the NU 9 with 7:35 left in the game. Martinez and the Husker offense ran out the clock by marching down the field before ending the contest in victory formation.

Dicaprio Bootle started every game at cornerback as a senior, stretching his streak to 32 consecutive starts. Bootle finished with 25 tackles, a half tackle for loss, five pass breakups and one interception as a senior. He was named an honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection by the media. Bootle totaled 26 pass breakups in his career, a total that ranked ninth in Nebraska history upon the completion of the 2020 season.

Bootle finished with five tackles at Ohio State and recorded Nebraska's only pass breakup of the game. At Northwestern, Bootle totaled five tackles. He added his second pass breakup of the season and a pair of tackles in the win over Penn State. Bootle made four tackles against Illinois, posting his 100th career tackle. At Iowa, Bootle intercepted the first pass of his career. He had two tackles and a pair of pass breakups in the win at Purdue. Bootle made three tackles against Minnesota. He finished his season with a three-tackle effort at Rutgers, which included a half tackle for loss and a pass breakup.

Bootle started every game as a junior, starting the first eight games at cornerback and the final four at safety. He finished the year with 31 tackles, six pass breakups and one forced fumble. Bootle was a key member of a secondary that held six opponents to fewer than 170 passing yards, including three under 100 yards. Overall, NU allowed its fewest passing yards per game (200.8) since 2012. Bootle garnered All-Big Ten recognition for the second straight season, as he was an honorable-mention pick.

Bootle made two tackles and broke up a pair of passes against South Alabama and had three tackles and one breakup at Colorado. He had a breakup against both Illinois and Northwestern before recording a season-high six tackles against Indiana, which he matched the next week at Purdue in a start at safety. Bootle had five tackles in another start at safety against Wisconsin. He created a turnover with a forced fumble at Maryland and added a pass breakup before totaling three tackles vs. Iowa.

Bootle started all 12 games at cornerback as a sophomore, posting a career-high 39 tackles. He was a disruptive force in the passing game, as he broke up 15 passes, the second-highest total in school history. Bootle's 15 breakups led the Big Ten and ranked ninth nationally, while his average of 1.3 passes defended per game ranked 16th nationally. For his efforts, Bootle was a third-team All-Big Ten selection, becoming the first Husker cornerback to be honored by the conference since 2015.

Bootle had three tackles and his first two career pass breakups against Colorado before helping the Huskers limit Troy to 110 passing yards. He had a career-high five pass breakups at No. 19 Michigan, the third-highest total in school history and third-most breakups by an FBS player in 2018. He then had three breakups the next week vs. Purdue while totaling a career-high seven tackles. Bootle made five tackles at No. 16 Wisconsin and tallied four tackles the next week at Northwestern.

Bootle broke up three passes in wins over Minnesota and Bethune-Cookman. At No. 8 Ohio State, Bootle made three tackles and broke up one pass. He had three tackles in Nebraska's win over Illinois and four tackles in the Huskers' victory over Michigan State when MSU completed only 15-of-41 passes. Bootle then helped the Huskers hold Iowa to 153 passing yards in the season finale.

2017 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Bootle appeared in all 12 games as a redshirt freshman, including his first career start against No. 9 Ohio State. He primarily lined up at cornerback, but earned the start at safety against the Buckeyes. Bootle totaled 15 tackles on the season with one tackle for loss.

In his career debut, Bootle recorded a pair of stops against Arkansas State in the season opener. He followed that performance with four tackles at Oregon. In his start against Ohio State, Bootle recorded his first career tackle for loss. He ended the year with a pair of tackles against Iowa.

2016 (REDSHIRT)

Bootle redshirted and worked on the scout team in his first season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (SOUTHRIDGE HS)

Bootle was a standout at Miami's Southridge High School as a senior, totaling 64 tackles and two interceptions with three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Bootle played at Killian High School as a junior, helping the team to a 14-1 record and a trip to the state semifinals.

Bootle also finished third in the 200 at the state track meet as a junior. He posted top times of 10.64 in the 100 meters and 21.36 in the 200.

Bootle was ranked among the nation's top 60 cornerbacks by ESPN and was listed as one of the top 200 prospects in Florida by 247Sports. Bootle had numerous offers, including Illinois, Temple and UCF.

PERSONAL

Dicaprio was born on Sept. 17, 1997, and is the son of Dwight and Caliope Bootle. He earned his degree in management in December of 2019, graduating in less than four years. Bootle volunteered his time with Day of Service, the Nebraska Football Road Race, School is Cool and local hospital visits.

[HONORS & AWARDS]

» Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2020)

2020 (SENIOR)

Jared Bubak contributed to a deep tight group as a graduate transfer in 2020. Although he did not appear in a game, Bubak was a member of Nebraska's travel roster for the Huskers' trip to Northwestern.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LINCOLN CHRISTIAN HS/ARIZONA STATE)

Bubak joined Nebraska as a graduate transfer after spending his first four seasons at Arizona State. Bubak, who redshirted in his first season at ASU in 2016, played in 17 games during his Sun Devil career, appearing in 10 games as a sophomore and seven contests as a senior. Before heading to Arizona State, Bubak was a high school All-American at Lincoln Christian High School. He earned second-team Super-State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star as a senior after garnering first-team honors as a junior. Bubak primarily played quarterback for the Crusaders, and he rushed for 970 yards and 18 touchdowns as a junior while passing for 683 yards and nine touchdowns. Ranked as the No. 10 tight end prospect in the country by ESPN, Bubak was a member of the West team at the Semper Fi All-American Bowl following his prep career.

2020 (SENIOR)

Ty Chaffin added depth and experience to a young Husker receiving group in 2020, although he did not play in a game.

2019 (JUNIOR)

Chaffin provided depth at wide receiver for Nebraska in 2019, but he did not appear in a game in his junior season.

2018 (SOPHOMORE)

Chaffin added valuable depth to the Husker wide receiving corps as a sophomore in 2018, although he did not appear in a game.

2017 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Chaffin added depth at wide receiver and made his career debut in the season finale against Iowa. Chaffin was also a member of the Huskers' travel roster at Penn State. He did not have a catch.

2016 (REDSHIRT)

Chaffin redshirted and worked on the scout team in his first season in the program.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BURWELL HS)

Chaffin played in 12 games as a senior at Burwell and caught 48 passes for 870 yards and 14 touchdowns. He also had five carries for 39 yards. Chaffin was named an all-state wide receiver. On defense, Chaffin recorded 49 tackles, 27 of which were solo stops.

As a junior in 2014, Chaffin had 34 receptions for 840 yards and 15 touchdowns in nine games. On defense, he tallied 12 unassisted tackles and 34 total tackles. As a sophomore in 2013, he caught 17 passes for 219 yards and one touchdown in seven games. On defense, he had 16 tackles.

Chaffin's play helped Burwell finish as the state runner-up in 2015, its best finish in school history. Burwell also advanced to the second round of the state playoffs in both 2013 and 2014. Chaffin was also a standout on the basketball court, earning honorable-mention all-state recognition each of his final two seasons. He averaged better than nine points per game in 2015-16.

PERSONAL

[OFFENSIVE LINE]

6-6 | 330 | SIOUX FALLS, S.D.

[HONORS & AWARDS]

- » Team Captain (2019, 2020)
- » Honorable-Mentional All-Big Ten (2020)
- » Nebraska Offensive Lineman of the Year (2019)
- » Academic All-Big Ten (2017, 2018, 2019, 2020)
- » Nine-Time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll
- » Brook Berringer Citizenship Team (2018, 2019, 2020)
- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2018, 2019, 2020)

2020 (SENIOR)

Matt Farniok, one of 13 two-time captains in Nebraska history, started every game on the offensive line as an honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection in 2020. Farniok started seven games at right guard and one contest at center. By starting every game, Farniok stretched his streak to 32 consecutive starts, becoming just the 12th Husker offensive lineman to start 30 consecutive games.

He made his first career start at right guard at No. 5 Ohio State and started at center for the first time in his career at Northwestern. He moved back to right guard for the final six games of the season. Farniok helped Nebraska total 620 yards of offense at Rutgers, and the Huskers ranked second in the Big Ten in rushing during the 2020 season.

Farniok started every game at right tackle as a junior. A team captain and Nebraska's Offensive Lineman of the Year, Farniok was a key part of an offensive line that helped NU rank third in the Big Ten in rushing offense and fifth in total offense.

Farniok was a major reason Nebraska produced its most yards ever in a Big Ten Conference game (690 yards at Illinois), while tying its most points in a Big Ten game (54 at Maryland). Against Illinois, the Huskers totaled 300 yards rushing and 300 yards passing for just the second time in school history en route to gaining the most yards in any conference game since 2007. Nebraska also set a school record for team completion percentage against Indiana (87.0 percent).

Farniok started all 12 games at right tackle as a sophomore in 2018. The Huskers averaged 456.2 yards of total offense per game in 2018 - the program's highest total in six years - while producing more than 560 yards of offense in four games.

Quarterback Adrian Martinez rewrote the Nebraska freshman record books while setting a school record with an average of 295.1 yards of total offense per game. NU also produced its first 1,000-yard receiver in school history in 2018 and had its first 1,000-yard rusher since 2014.

Farniok was a key reason the Huskers piled up 329 rushing yards and 565 total yards in the season opener with Colorado. Against Purdue, Farniok's blocking helped pave the way for a Husker offense that totaled 582 yards. The Huskers followed up that performance with 518 yards of total offense at Wisconsin. Farniok helped the Huskers total 659 yards against Minnesota, including three 100-yard rushers. Nebraska totaled 606 yards of offense in a win over Illinois, setting a school record by gaining at least 450 yards in seven consecutive games.

2017 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Farniok was a key contributor to the Husker offensive line in 2017, appearing in seven games and earning four starts. One of two Huskers to start at multiple positions on the offensive line in 2017, Farniok earned starts at right tackle against Oregon and Northern Illinois and started at right guard against Northwestern and Minnesota. Farniok and the line helped the Huskers rank second in the Big Ten in passing (277.5 yards per game) while throwing for 3,330 yards, the fifth-highest total in Husker history. Stanley Morgan Jr. also set the Nebraska season receiving yards record (986) while JD Spielman posted the first 200-yard receiving game in school history against No. 9 Ohio State.

2016 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (WASHINGTON HS)

Farniok was the South Dakota Gatorade and USA Today Player of the Year and was a first-team Parade All-American as a senior for Washington High School, which finished 11-1 and won the Class 11AAA state title. His blocking helped Chad Stadem's team total more than 4,500 yards of offense and average 230 rushing yards per game.

Farniok earned Class 11AAA all-state honors and Elite 45 selection as a junior despite Washington having a 3-6 record. He was also a key member of Washington's varsity squad as a sophomore in 2013.

Farniok played in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl in San Antonio following his senior season. The consensus top player in South Dakota, Farniok was ranked as the No. 129 overall prospect by 247Sports and checked in at No. 257 in the ESPN300.

Farniok visited Michigan State and Iowa and had numerous offers including Michigan, Oklahoma, Penn State, Stanford and Wisconsin. He was ranked as one of the top 25 tackles in the country. Farniok also played basketball for Washington and was on the honor roll all four years.

PERSONAL

Matt was born on Sept. 26, 1997, and is the son of Brad Farniok and Christine and Rich Jones. His father played collegiately at St. Cloud State, while he had older brothers who played at Iowa State and Oklahoma. His younger brother Will was also an offensive lineman at Nebraska from 2018 to 2020. Matt completed his undergraduate work in criminology and criminal justice in May of 2020 and was a three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection. He was a four-time member of the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship teams and volunteered his time with Make-a-Wish, the Nebraska Football Road Race, Day of Service, Husker Heroes and local hospital visits.

- » Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2016, 2018, 2019, 2020)

2020 (SENIOR)

After being granted a sixth season of eligibility, Christian Gaylord played in every game as a senior. He saw playing time on the offensive line at No. 5 Ohio State and on special teams against Northwestern, Penn State, Illinois, Iowa, Purdue, Minnesota and Rutgers.

2019 (MEDICAL HARDSHIP)

Gaylord suffered a season-ending injury prior to the start of the 2019 campaign. He received a medical hardship and a sixth year of eligibility.

2018 (JUNIOR)

Gaylord appeared in 10 games as a junior, earning playing time on the offensive line and on NU's field goal and extra-point units. On offense, Gaylord helped the Huskers rank 25th nationally in total offense in a year where Nebraska set a school record with seven consecutive games gaining at least 450 yards. On special teams, Gaylord helped Nebraska connect on 14-of-18 field goals and 40-of-41 PATs.

2017 (SOPHOMORE)

Gaylord played in 10 games as a sophomore, working his way into the offensive line rotation in addition to his work on the punt shield, field goal and PAT units. Offensively, Gaylord helped Nebraska rank second in the Big Ten in passing (277.5 yards per game) and throw for the fifth-most yards in school history (3,330). On special teams, Nebraska ranked sixth in the league in punting.

2016 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Gaylord played in all 13 games as a blocker on NU's place-kicking unit.

2015 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (BALDWIN CITY HS)

Gaylord was a two-way standout at Baldwin City High School, helping his team to a 6-4 record and a Class 4A state playoff appearance as a senior. Gaylord helped pave the way for Baldwin City to rush for nearly 2,900 yards. On defense, he made 47 tackles and had two sacks.

As a senior, Gaylord was a first-team Class 4A all-state pick, was named to the Lawrence Journal-World's All-Area team and was an All-Simone Team pick. He also earned All-Frontier League honors on both sides of the ball. Gaylord earned Class 4A all-state honors and was an All-Simone Team pick as an offensive lineman as a junior when Baldwin City had an 11-1 record and reached the state quarterfinals. Baldwin City also reached the state playoffs during Gaylord's sophomore season, when he earned all-conference honors. He started for the varsity as a freshman.

Gaylord was ranked as the top prospect in Kansas by 247Sports and the No. 2 player in the state by Rivals. Gaylord played in the Blue-Grey All-American Bowl at AT&T Stadium in Texas. Gaylord was also a basketball standout, averaging 19.0 points and 7.3 rebounds as a senior.

Gaylord only visited NU but had numerous offers including Kansas State, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio State, Oklahoma State and Texas.

PERSONAL

Christian was born on Dec. 19, 1996, and is the son of Holly and the late Scott Gaylord. He earned his undergraduate degree in May of 2019. Gaylord was a four-time member of the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship teams. He has volunteered his time with the Nebraska Football Road Race, Husker Heroes, a Day of Service, and local school and hospital outreach visits.

[NEBRASKA RECORDS]

- » Consecutive Starts by an Offensive Lineman (40)
- » Starts by a True Freshman Offensive Lineman (9 in 2017)

2020 (SENIOR)

Brenden Jaimes started Nebraska's first seven games at left tackle before opting out of the season's final game to prepare for the 2021 NFL Draft. Jaimes, who earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades for the third straight season as a senior, finished his career with a streak of 31 consecutive starts at left tackle and 40 consecutive starts overall.

Jaimes made his 39th consecutive start at Purdue, setting a Nebraska record for consecutive starts by an offensive lineman. Jaimes' 40 career starts rank second all-time among all offensive linemen in Nebraska history, one shy of the record of 41 by Jeremiah Sirles. His blocking helped Nebraska boast the Big Ten's second-best rushing attack in 2020.

Jaimes started all 12 games at left tackle as a junior. Nebraska's Offensive MVP, Jaimes helped the Huskers rank third in the Big Ten in rushing and fifth in total offense. For his efforts, Jaimes earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition for the second straight season.

Jaimes was a major reason Nebraska produced its most total yards in a Big Ten Conference game (690 yards at Illinois) and tied its highest point total in a Big Ten game (54 at Maryland). Against Illinois, the Huskers totaled 300 yards rushing and 300 yards passing for just the second time in school history en route to gaining the most yards in any conference game since 2007. Nebraska also set a school record for team completion percentage against Indiana (87.0 percent).

Nebraska's primary right tackle in 2017, Jaimes moved to left tackle in 2018 and started every game at the position, earning honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades. Nebraska averaged 456.2 yards of total offense per game in 2018 - ranking 25th nationally in that category - while producing more than 560 yards of offense in four games.

Jaimes specifically helped protect true freshman quarterback Adrian Martinez, who ranked 12th nationally in total offense per game and led all FBS freshmen in that category while setting three Husker season records. Nebraska also produced its first 1,000-yard receiver in school history in 2018 and had its first 1,000-yard rusher since 2014.

Jaimes and the offensive line helped Nebraska total 565 yards in the season opener against Colorado. After Nebraska posted back-to-back games with more than 500 yards of total offense against Purdue and No. 16 Wisconsin, Jaimes helped the Huskers total 606 yards of offense in a win against Illinois, when Nebraska set a school record with its seventh straight game producing at least 450 yards of total offense.

Jaimes was arguably the most productive true freshman offensive lineman in school history. After the coaching staff initially considered a redshirt season, Jaimes started the final nine games at right tackle. When he made his debut by starting the Rutgers game, Jaimes became just the fifth true freshman offensive lineman to start at Nebraska and only the 11th Husker offensive lineman to play as a true freshman. Jaimes' nine starts were not only a school record for a true freshman offensive lineman, but he nearly matched the combined total of the four previous Husker true freshman starters on the offensive line (11).

Jaimes was one of only three true freshmen offensive linemen in the Big Ten to start every conference game in 2017, and he was an honorable-mention All-Freshman team selection by the Big Ten Network.

Jaimes and the Husker offensive line helped Nebraska rank second in the Big Ten in passing (277.5 yards per game) in 2017. Nebraska totaled 3,330 passing yards, the fifth-highest passing total in school history. The line protected Tanner Lee as he threw for 3,143 yards in his only season as a Husker, while Stanley Morgan Jr. set a then-school record with 986 receiving yards and JD Spielman posted the first 200-yard receiving game in school history against No. 9 Ohio State.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LAKE TRAVIS HS)

Jaimes was a standout on the offensive line at Lake Travis High School in Austin. Jaimes paved the way for an offense that averaged nearly 500 yards per game in 2016, including better than 290 passing yards per game. Lake Travis posted a 15-1 record en route to a Class 6A Division 1 state title. Coach Hank Carter's team was also ranked among the nation's top prep teams in 2016.

Jaimes was named the District Offensive Lineman of the Year, was first-team All-Centex and was a Class 6A honorable-mention all-state choice as a senior. He was a second-team all-state honoree and all-district choice in 2015, when Lake Travis posted a 15-1 record and was the Class 6A state runner-up. Lake Travis was an area finalist in 2014 when Jaimes earned honorable-mention all-district accolades.

Jaimes was ranked among the top 300 overall prospects in the nation by Scout.com, which also listed him as one of the nation's top 30 offensive tackles and the third-best tackle prospect in Texas. He was also listed among the top 50 tackles in the nation by both ESPN and 247Sports.

Jaimes only visited Nebraska. He also had offers from Baylor, California, Colorado, Illinois, Iowa State, TCU, Texas and Texas Tech among others.

Jaimes participated in lacrosse as a freshman and was also a track standout. He was a regional finalist in the discus in 2016 and 2017.

PERSONAL

Brenden is the son of Mark and Erica Jaimes and he was born on May 28, 1999. He earned his degree in criminology and criminal justice in December of 2020. Jaimes volunteered his time with a Day of Service, the Nebraska Football Road Race and local hospital visits.

2020 (SENIOR)

Collin Miller started each of the first four games in 2020, stretching his streak to 16 consecutive starts, before suffering a career-ending injury against Illinois. He finished his shortened final season with 27 tackles and 2.0 tackles for loss.

Miller tied for the team lead with seven tackles at No. 5 Ohio State and also set a career high with 1.5 tackles for loss against the Buckeyes. At Northwestern, Miller totaled six tackles, including a half tackle for loss. Miller tied his career high with 10 tackles against Penn State. Miller made four tackles against Illinois before being carted off the field with an injury in the second half. Although the injury marked the end of Miller's football career, he was recognized as Nebraska's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award winner in 2020.

Miller started every game as a junior, the first 12 starts of his career. He tied for third on the team with a career-high 67 tackles, and Miller also totaled a career high seven tackles for loss, including his first career sack. He added four pass breakups, while recording the first forced fumble and fumble recovery of his career en route to being named Nebraska's Linebacker of the Year.

Miller made his first career start in the season opener against South Alabama and finished with four tackles, including his second career TFL. He had six tackles the next week at Colorado, including a tackle for loss. Miller added another TFL as part of a five-tackle effort against Northern Illinois. At Illinois, Miller made four stops, including another TFL. He recorded six tackles against No. 5 Ohio State before totaling a then-career-high eight tackles vs. Northwestern and forcing the first fumble of his career.

At Minnesota, Miller had a career-high 10 tackles, including one TFL. Miller added five tackles against both Indiana and Purdue, giving him at least five tackles in five consecutive games. Against No. 15 Wisconsin, Miller registered three tackles. He led Nebraska with six tackles at Maryland, which included the first sack of his career. Miller ended his junior campaign with five tackles against Iowa, and he also broke up a pass and forced a fumble against the Hawkeyes.

Miller was a contributor on both defense and special teams while playing in all 12 games. He finished with 17 tackles, including his first career TFL. Miller tied for the team lead with eight special teams tackles, four each on punt and kickoff coverage. Miller recorded a tackle on punt coverage against both Colorado and Troy. At No. 19 Michigan, Miller had two more tackles on punt coverage and made one stop on defense, totaling three tackles. He added a tackle on kickoff coverage against Purdue. At Northwestern, Miller had a seven-yard tackle for loss for his first career TFL. He then had a career-high five tackles in the Huskers' win over Minnesota, including four solo stops. Against Bethune-Cookman, Miller recorded three tackles from his linebacker spot. He then made his team-leading fourth tackle on kickoff coverage against Illinois. Miller's final tackle of the season came from his linebacker spot against Iowa.

2017 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Miller appeared in all 12 games and contributed at linebacker and as a valuable member of the Husker special teams coverage units. Miller totaled 11 tackles and had one fumble recovery. Eight of his tackles came from his linebacking spot, and he added three tackles on special teams.

After redshirting in 2016, Miller registered only one tackle over the first eight games, a solo stop on punt coverage against Northern Illinois. He recorded his second career tackle and first on defense against Northwestern and then combined for nine tackles over the final three games. Miller had two solo tackles on defense at Minnesota before registering three tackles at No. 13 Penn State. Two of Miller's three tackles against the Nittany Lions came on special teams, and he also recovered a fumbled punt that set up a Husker field goal in the first quarter. In the season finale against Iowa, Miller posted a career-high four tackles, all from his linebacking spot.

Miller redshirted and was the Scout Team Defensive MVP.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (HAMILTON SOUTHEASTERN HS)

Miller was a disruptive force at Hamilton Southeastern High School. In 2015, Miller helped Coach Scott May's team to an 8-2 record and a trip to the Class 6A state playoffs. Miller recorded 110 total tackles, including 68 unassisted stops. He had 25 tackles for loss, including 11 sacks for 62 yards in losses, while adding 23 quarterback hurries. Miller added four fumbles caused, two fumble recoveries and four breakups.

Miller was a first-team Associated Press Class 6A all-state selection and was named to the USA Today Indiana all-state team. He was also an all-conference pick.

Miller posted similar numbers as a junior, helping the Royals to the state playoffs. He totaled 66 tackles, including 10 tackles for loss and five sacks. He added 22 quarterback hurries, four breakups, caused three fumbles and blocked a punt. Miller first made an impact as a sophomore, contributing to a 7-3 season for Hamilton Southeastern. He had 59 tackles, including 12 tackles for loss, six sacks and a fumble caused.

Miller was ranked among the top 10 players in Indiana by Rivals, which also listed him as the nation's No. 34 outside linebacker. Miller also visited Purdue and Indiana and had numerous offers including Arizona State, Duke, Georgia Tech, North Carolina State, Pittsburgh, Syracuse, Illinois, Louisville and West Virginia. He also played baseball at Hamilton Southeastern.

PERSONAL

Collin is the son of Kim Miller, and he was born on July 1, 1997. He graduated with his degree in criminology and criminal justice in December of 2020. Miller volunteered his time with a Day of Service, Elliot School gift giving, the Nebraska Football Road Race and numerous school and hospital outreach visits.

2020 (SENIOR)

Dedrick Mills was limited by injuries during his senior season, but he finished the year strong. Mills played in six games with five starts. He ranked second on the team with 84 carries, 396 rushing yards and three touchdowns, averaging 66.0 rushing yards per game. Mills also caught 13 passes for 86 yards.

Mills started each of the first three games at running back before being limited by an injury. He gained 25 yards on nine carries with one touchdown in the season opener at No. 5 Ohio State. Mills carried the ball 19 times for 59 yards and one touchdown at Northwestern. Mills had three carries for 11 yards on Nebraska's opening drive against Penn State, before an injury sidelined him for the rest of the game. The injury also forced him to sit out the Illinois and Iowa games. He returned in the win at Purdue, leading the Huskers with 16 carries for 60 yards and scoring one touchdown. Mills had 12 carries for 50 yards and a six-yard reception against Minnesota.

As he continued to get healthier, Mills showed his ability in Nebraska's season-ending win at Rutgers. Mills set career highs of 191 rushing yards, 46 receiving yards and 237 scrimmage yards against the Knights. He averaged 7.6 yards on 25 carries, including a season-long 50-yard run.

Mills led Nebraska in rushing while earning honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition in his first season as a Husker. Mills rushed for 745 yards on 143 carries, averaging 5.2 yards per rush. He also led Nebraska with a pair of 100-yard rushing games and 10 rushing touchdowns, becoming just the second Husker in six seasons to find the end zone on 10 or more runs. Mills also set career highs with 15 catches for 123 yards.

Mills led Nebraska with 44 rushing yards against South Alabama, and he scored both of the Huskers' offensive touchdowns by running for a pair of scores. The next week at Colorado, Mills set then-career highs with two receptions for 24 yards, including a career-long 20-yard catch. He enjoyed his best performance of the non-conference season against Northern Illinois, rushing for 116 yards and one touchdown on only 11 carries, marking his third career 100-yard rushing game and first at Nebraska. Mills had a career-long 61-yard run against the Huskies.

At Illinois, Mills scored two rushing touchdowns and had 45 yards to reach 1,000 career rushing yards. Mills had 11 carries for 67 yards and one touchdown against Ohio State. Mills also scored NU's lone touchdown at Minnesota, and he had a six-yard touchdown run at Purdue.

Mills had a career game against No. 15 Wisconsin, which entered the game with a rushing defense ranked fifth nationally, allowing only 84.4 yards per game. Mills more than doubled that total himself, carrying the ball 17 times for a career-high 188 yards. He averaged more than 11 yards per carry and scored on a 12-yard touchdown run. He then battled an illness at Maryland, rushing for 65 yards on 12 carries in the first half before sitting out the second half. Against Iowa, Mills carried the ball a season-high 24 times and gained 94 yards against a Hawkeye defense that ranked 14th nationally in rushing defense in 2019. Mills also set career highs with four receptions and 34 receiving yards against the Hawkeyes.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

(WARE COUNTY HS/GEORGIA TECH/GARDEN CITY [KAN.] CC)

Mills had previous experience as a freshman at Georgia Tech and in the junior college ranks at Garden City Community College. In 2018 at Garden City, Mills rushed for 1,358 yards and 19 touchdowns in 10 games. He produced six 100-yard rushing efforts and had at least 240 rushing yards in three games, helping Garden City to a 10-1 record and a No. 2 national ranking. Mills ranked fourth in the National Junior College Athletic Association in rushing yards and rushing yards per game (135.8), and he led the NJCAA with his 19 rushing touchdowns. For his efforts, Mills was named an honorable-mention junior college All-American. Mills was limited by injuries in his first season at Garden City in 2017, carrying the ball just seven times for 59 yards.

Prior to Garden City, Mills spent his freshman season at Georgia Tech in 2016. Mills played in nine games with the Yellow Jackets and was the team's leading rusher with 771 yards and 85.7 yards per game. He scored 12 touchdowns and averaged 5.1 yards per carry.

Mills played his high school ball for Ware County High School in Georgia, where he started every game of his career. Mills rushed for 1,211 yards and 22 touchdowns as a senior, when he earned all-state recognition as a linebacker after totaling 96 tackles and 11 tackles for loss. Mills rushed for 584 yards en route to being a second-team all-region selection as a junior.

Mills was the No. 1 junior college running back in the 247Sports Composite rankings. He only visited Nebraska, but also had offers from Arkansas State and Memphis.

PERSONAL

Dedrick was born on Dec. 27, 1996, and he is the son of Sharon Mills. He is a child, youth and family studies major. Mills attended a Black Student-Athlete Summit in 2019-20, and he also volunteered his time with a Day of Service, the Nebraska Football Road Race and local hospital visits.

2020 (SENIOR)

Jack Stoll battled injuries to appear in seven games with one start in 2020. Stoll earned his 25th consecutive start at No. 5 Ohio State and caught two passes for 24 yards in the first half before leaving the game with an injury. The injury kept him out of the Northwestern game, but he returned to play in the final six games.

Stoll caught his first two passes since his injury against Minnesota, totaling 21 receiving yards on his two receptions. He then had three catches for 44 yards at Rutgers, including a season-long 23-yard reception. Stoll finished the year with seven catches for 89 yards.

Stoll started every game as a junior, extending his streak to 24 consecutive starts at the position. He led Nebraska's tight ends with a career-high 25 catches for 234 yards and one touchdown.

Stoll led Nebraska with a career-high 66 receiving yards in the opener against South Alabama, including a career-long 42-yard catch. He had two catches at Colorado and two more catches for 38 yards against Northern Illinois. At Illinois, Stoll caught three passes for 45 yards, including a six-yard touchdown reception. After catching one pass against Northwestern, Stoll tied his career high with four receptions at Minnesota. He then had three catches the next week against Indiana and had one catch at Purdue. Against No. 15 Wisconsin, Stoll hauled in two passes for 43 yards. He caught one pass for seven yards at Maryland and had three catches against Iowa.

2018 (SOPHOMORE)

Stoll started all 12 games at tight end for Nebraska in his sophomore season. He led the Husker tight ends with 21 receptions, 245 receiving yards and three touchdown catches, setting career highs in all three categories. Stoll also returned a pair of short kickoffs for 16 yards.

Stoll earned his second career start against Colorado and had one catch for four yards before adding a nine-yard reception against Troy. Against Purdue, he set career highs with four catches and 51 receiving yards, including a 33-yard catch that was the second-longest catch of his career. At No. 16 Wisconsin, Stoll caught a 12-yard touchdown pass for his first TD of the season and third of his career. The next week at Northwestern, Stoll caught three passes for 40 yards. Against Bethune-Cookman, Stoll hauled in a career-long 37-yard reception for his only catch of the game.

At No. 8 Ohio State, Stoll caught three passes - one shy of his career high - for 17 yards. He then caught a 12-yard touchdown pass against Illinois the next week. Stoll had two catches for 26 yards in the Huskers' win over Michigan State. He concluded his sophomore season with four catches for 37 yards at Iowa, tying his career high in receptions and catching a four-yard touchdown pass.

Stoll played in all 12 games as a redshirt freshman, earning a start at Minnesota. He caught eight passes for 89 yards and two touchdowns, and he also saw action on special teams.

Stoll played in each of the first six games but did not have a reception. His 12-yard catch against No. 9 Ohio State marked his first career reception. Against Northwestern, Stoll set season highs with three catches for 41 yards, including a 32-yard touchdown grab that tied the game at 14 in the second quarter. The 32-yard touchdown marked Stoll's first career score and was his longest reception of the year. He followed that performance with another multi-catch effort, hauling in two passes for 21 yards at Minnesota. Stoll caught a three-yard pass for his second career touchdown at Penn State and ended his season with a 12-yard reception against Iowa.

2016 (REDSHIRT)

BEFORE NEBRASKA (REGIS JESUIT HS)

Stoll excelled as a tight end during his prep career at Regis Jesuit High School. As a senior, Stoll was a second-team all-state selection after catching 32 passes for 434 yards and six touchdowns for Coach Danny Filleman's team. Stoll's play helped Regis Jesuit to a 9-3 record and a trip to the quarterfinals of the Colorado 5A state playoffs.

Stoll also helped Regis Jesuit to a state quarterfinal appearance and a 10-2 record during his junior season. From his tight end position, Stoll caught 19 passes for 176 yards and four touchdowns. Stoll was also a factor in the passing game as a sophomore, helping his team to a 9-2 record and a state playoff appearance en route to all-conference honors.

Stoll was named a Blue-Grey All-American. He was ranked as the No. 3 prospect in Colorado by both Rivals.com and ESPN, while 247Sports ranked him as the fourth-best prospect in the state. ESPN ranked Stoll as the nation's No. 9 tight end, while Rivals, Scout and 247Sports all listed him among the top 40 players at the position.

Stoll only visited Nebraska, but had numerous offers including Air Force, Colorado, Colorado State, New Mexico, Texas and Wyoming.

PERSONAL

Jack was born on Jan. 28, 1998, and is the son of Chris and Mary Grace Stoll. He earned his degree in marketing in May of 2020 and was a four-time Academic All-Big Ten selection. A four-time member of the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship teams, Stoll volunteered his time with a Day of Service, Husker Heroes, the Nebraska Football Road Race and local hospital and school outreach.

2020 (SENIOR)

Boe Wilson played in four games as a senior, including starting the first two games of the season. Wilson started at left guard for the first time in his career in the Huskers' opener at No. 5 Ohio State, and he started at right guard at Northwestern, which marked his 23rd consecutive start. He also saw playing time at right guard against Illinois and Iowa. His play helped Nebraska rank second in the Big Ten in rushing yards per game.

2019 (JUNIOR)

Wilson started every game at right guard in his junior season, stretching his streak to 21 consecutive starts at the position. Wilson was a key part of a Husker offensive line that helped Nebraska rank third in the Big Ten in rushing offense and fifth in total offense.

Wilson was a major reason Nebraska produced its most yards ever in a Big Ten Conference game (690 yards at Illinois), while tying its most points in a Big Ten game (54 at Maryland). Against Illinois, the Huskers totaled 300 yards rushing and 300 yards passing for just the second time in school history en route to gaining the most yards in any conference game since 2007. Nebraska also set a school record for team completion percentage against Indiana (87.0 percent).

Wilson played in all 12 games as a sophomore, starting the final nine contests at right guard while earning honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades. In his nine starts at right guard, Nebraska averaged 490.3 yards of total offense per game, helping the Huskers rank 25th nationally in total offense in 2018. Nebraska posted its most yards (659 against Minnesota) and highest point total (54 against Illinois) in a Big Ten Conference game since the Huskers joined the league in 2011. The line helped Stanley Morgan Jr. become the first 1,000-yard receiver in school history, while Adrian Martinez averaged a school-record 295.1 yards of total offense per game in 2018. Wilson's blocking also helped Devine Ozigbo rush for more than 1,000 yards.

Wilson earned the first start of his career against Purdue, when the Huskers totaled 582 yards of offense. The next week at No. 16 Wisconsin, NU again totaled more than 500 yards. Against Minnesota, Nebraska rolled up 659 yards, the Huskers' highest total since 2014. In the final game of a school-record streak of seven consecutive games gaining at least 450 yards, Wilson and the line helped Nebraska gain 606 yards in a win over Illinois.

2017 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Wilson appeared in all 12 games as a redshirt freshman, seeing action on the offensive line, on special teams and even as a goal-line fullback late in the season. He was most utilized as a shield protector on Nebraska's punt unit. Wilson also added depth to an offensive line that helped Nebraska rank second in the Big Ten in passing yards per game and throw for 3,330 yards, the fifth-highest total in school history. The line protected Tanner Lee as he threw for 3,143 yards in his only season as a Husker, while Stanley Morgan Jr. set a school record with 986 receiving yards and JD Spielman posted the first 200-yard receiving game in school history against No. 9 Ohio State.

2016 (REDSHIRT)

Wilson spent time with the top offensive unit in preseason practice before coaches elected to utilize his redshirt season.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (LEE'S SUMMIT WEST HS)

Wilson was a three-year standout for Lee's Summit West and Coach Royce Boehm. As a senior, Wilson's play helped Lee's Summit West to a trip to the second round of the Class 6 state playoffs. Wilson's blocking helped the offense top 30 points in six games during the 2015 season. Wilson was named to the USA Today Missouri all-state team.

Wilson also helped his school to a state playoff appearance in 2014, when Lee's Summit West posted a 6-4 mark. Lee's Summit had a powerful offense in 2014, averaging nearly 375 yards of total offense per game. His play as a junior earned Wilson first-team all-conference honors.

Wilson was a second-team all-state selection as a sophomore in 2013 when Lee's Summit West went 13-1 and captured the Class 5 state title.

Wilson participated in the Under Armour All-American game in January of 2016. He was ranked among the top 10 offensive guards in the country by both Scout.com and ESPN. He was also listed as a top 10 prospect in the state by both ESPN and 247Sports. Wilson also threw the shot put and discus. Wilson did not take any other visits, but had a strong group of offers including Indiana, Kansas, Louisville and Purdue.

PERSONAL

Boe is the son of Gina Vatz and Harry Wilson, and he was born on Aug. 23, 1997. He earned his degree in criminology and criminal justice in December of 2020. He volunteered with a Day of Service, the Nebraska Football Road Race and local hospital visits.

with Oklahoma winning, 31-24. That matchup was one of three postseason meetings, with Oklahoma knocking off Nebraska in a pair of Big 12 Championship Games (2006, 2010). The 2010 game was NU's last as a member of the Big 12. One of the two teams has been ranked No. 1 in 13 of the meetings, including eight times by NU, most recently in 2000. Since the AP poll began in 1936, the NU-OU matchup featured at least one ranked team in 60 of 70 games, with both teams ranked in 24 meetings. The series has featured at least one top-10 team in 48 games and two top-10 teams 18 times. The game featured at least one AP top-10 team in 22 straight games for 1970 to 1990, and 17 times since 1971 both teams have been ranked in the top 10. One of the two teams has been ranked entering the contest in all but three games since 1948. The winning team has had to come from behind in 27 of the last 40 games. Nebraska's biggest-ever upset win was a 25-21 victory in 1959, ending OU's 36-game win streak, and 74-game conference unbeaten streak. Tom Osborne posted his 250th win against OU in 1997, with a 69-7 victory, the largest by either team in the series. The 1923 game was the first game played in Memorial Stadium.

Nebraska is 3-2 at Ryan Field, including an overtime loss in 2018. Nebraska rallied from fourth-quarter deficits in both 2012 and 2013, including winning on a Hail Mary pass at Memorial Stadium in 2013, the first game-winning Hail Mary in Nebraska history. Nebraska won 29-28 at Evanston in 2012, rallying from a 12-point fourth-quarter deficit to the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history. The Huskers defeated Northwestern 66-17 in the 2000 Alamo Bowl. The game marked the highest point total by the Huskers in a bowl game and Dan Alexander rushed for a Nebraska bowl-game record 240 yards and two touchdowns. Nebraska has been ranked in the AP top 10 in three of the meetings. Nebraska won the first meeting in series history, 12-0, in Lincoln on Nov. 27, 1902—the only shutout in series history. Northwestern posted a 19-7 victory in the first meeting between the two schools in Evanston on Oct. 3, 1931.

Series Notes: The 2021 meeting will be the first between the schools in Lincoln since 2012, and just the second at Memorial Stadium since Nebraska joined the Big Ten. After meeting only four times in the Huskers' first 10 years in the conference, the schools are scheduled to meet each year from 2021 to 2025. The Huskers won back-to-back games in 2012 and 2013, giving NU the only winning streak in series history. Nebraska allowed just one Michigan touchdown in winning the 2012 and 2013 meetings. The 2012 game in Lincoln was Michigan's first trip to Lincoln in 101 years and the first-ever game between the schools at Memorial Stadium. Michigan's only other trip to Lincoln came on Nov. 25, 1911, when the teams battled to a 6-6 tie. First-year Nebraska head coach Bob Devaney led the Cornhuskers to a 25-13 victory over the Wolverines in Ann Arbor on Sept. 29, 1962. Between 1962 and 2011, the two traditional powerhouses split a pair of bowl matchups, with No. 5 Michigan defeating No. 7 Nebraska, 27-23, on Jan. 1, 1986, in the Fiesta Bowl following the 1985 regular season. NU knocked off No. 20 Michigan, 32-28, in the 2005 Alamo Bowl, posting the largest bowl comeback in school history.

was Nebraska's first-ever Big Ten home game on Oct. 8, 2011. That game featured the largest comeback victory in NU history, as the Huskers rallied from a 27-6 deficit for a 34-27 win. The 2016 contest was the first in the series between top-10 teams. Ohio State has been ranked in the top 10 in each of the last five games, including 2019 when ESPN College Gameday came to Lincoln for the first time since 2001. The 2020 game was just the eighth in college football history between two programs with 900 all-time wins. The 2020 contest (Oct. 24) marked Nebraska's latest season opener since also opening on Oct. 24 in 1892. The Buckeyes won the first two games in the series, a pair of meetings in the mid-1950s in Columbus, Ohio. In the first meeting, the No. 6 Buckeyes posted a 28-20 victory over a Bill Glassford-coached Cornhusker club. In the only other meeting, Michigan grad Pete Elliott led his only Nebraska team to Ohio State in a 34-7 loss to the No. 8 Buckeyes.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Wisconsin play for the Freedom Trophy each season, a trophy that debuted for the 2014 matchup, when the schools began meeting every year as members of the Big Ten West Division. Nebraska played its first-ever game as a member of the Big Ten Conference at Camp Randall Stadium against Wisconsin on Oct. 1, 2011. The teams met twice in 2012. In the regular-season meeting in Lincoln, Nebraska posted the second-largest comeback in school history, twice rallying from a 17-point deficit for a 30-27 victory. Wisconsin defeated Nebraska 70-31, in the Big Ten title game at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. The Badgers have won eight of nine games as Big Ten foes, including each of the past seven. Nebraska was ranked in the top 25 in eight straight meetings with the Badgers before entering the 2015 game unranked, while Wisconsin has been ranked in each of the past five matchups. The 2016 game featured a pair of ranked teams for the third time in 14 all-time matchups. The 2020 game scheduled for Lincoln was canceled due to COVID-19 protocols in the Badger program. NU was ranked in the top 10 five times entering the UW game from 1965 to 2011, and was No. 7 in 2016. Wisconsin won the first meeting between the two teams, 18-0, on Nov. 2, 1901. The Huskers reeled off three straight wins from 1965 to 1973 by a combined margin of 88-19. The first two meetings came under NU Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney, who led his 1965 Huskers to a 37-0 shutout of the Badgers. Nebraska completed a series sweep one year later with a 31-3 victory in Madison. Current Wisconsin A.D. Barry Alvarez was a linebacker on those two NU teams. The two teams met again in Lincoln in 1973, when No. 2 NU, under first-year head coach Tom Osborne, escaped with a 20-16 win.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Iowa began the Heroes Game tradition with the first meeting as Big Ten opponents in 2011. The road team has won six of the past nine games. Iowa extended its win streak in the series to six games with a 26-20 win in Iowa City in 2020, the third straight year the Hawkeyes won by six or fewer points, including last-second field goals in 2018 and 2019. The schools have met on Black Friday each of the Huskers' 10 seasons in the Big Ten and are scheduled to do so through at least 2025. Nebraska has played on the day after Thanksgiving each year since 1990, including matchups with Oklahoma (1990-95), Colorado (1996-2010) and Iowa (2011-present). Iowa's 56 points in 2017 were the the most points the Hawkeyes have scored in 51 meetings with the Huskers. Iowa was ranked No. 3 entering the 2015 game in Lincoln, the first time NU faced a ranked Hawkeye team (Iowa was also ranked in 2019). In 2014, Nebraska rallied from a 17-point second-half deficit, tying the largest road comeback in school history. The Huskers prevailed 37-34 in overtime. No. 1 Nebraska rolled to a 42-13 win at Memorial Stadium in 2000 in the final non-conference meeting, a year after the No. 5 Huskers cruised to a 42-7 victory in Iowa City in 1999. NU was ranked at game time in eight straight meetings from 1979-2012. The Huskers were 7-1 in those contests, suffering a 10-7 defeat to the Hawkeyes on Sept. 12, 1981. Nebraska held the Hawkeyes to 13 or fewer points in seven straight matchups from 1980 through 2012. NU is 15-6-1 all-time against Iowa in Lincoln, including 11-5 at Memorial Stadium. The first true home game in the series was played at Iowa City on Oct. 31, 1903, with Nebraska coming away with a 17-6 win. The previous 10 meetings had come on neutral fields in the Omaha/Council Bluffs area with the two teams battling to a 4-4-2 deadlock.

Series Notes: After making its first trip to Lincoln for a Big Ten Conference game in 2019, Indiana will not face Nebraska again until a 2022 matchup in Lincoln. The Hoosiers were the last Big Ten team to make the visit to Memorial Stadium in league play. Indiana and Nebraska met for the first time as Big Ten opponents in Bloomington in 2016 with 10th-ranked Nebraska winning 27-22. Prior to 2016, the four previous meetings came under Coach Tom Osborne, and the Huskers posted a combined margin of 190-43. Those victories snapped a 10-game NU winless streak in the series that dated back to a 13-7 win over Indiana at Memorial Stadium in 1940. Fifteen of the 21 games in the series have been played in Lincoln. IU has enjoyed success, posting an 8-5-2 record in its trips to Nebraska. In fact, from 1940 to 1959, Indiana went 7-0-1 at Memorial Stadium. Nebraska has been ranked in the top 12 of the AP poll in five of the last six meetings between the schools.

Series Notes: Nebraska and Penn State, which met as protected division cross-over foes from 2011 to 2013, met for just the second time in the past seven years in 2020. NU won the first three meetings as Big Ten foes, before No. 13 Penn State won in 2017. NU improved to 7-1 all-time in overtime games with its 2013 win in Happy Valley. Nebraska rallied from a two-touchdown halftime deficit for a 32-23 win in Lincoln in 2012. NU's 17-14 win at Penn State in 2011 came in the first game in 46 seasons without Joe Paterno as the Nittany Lions' head coach. Both teams were nationally ranked in five straight meetings between 1979 and 1983, with NU winning three of the five games. In 1982 in Happy Valley, No. 2 Nebraska dropped a 27-24 decision to a Nittany Lion team that went on to win the national title. In 1983, No. 1 NU opened the season with a 44-6 victory over No. 4 Penn State in the Kickoff Classic in East Rutherford, N.J. PSU won four of the first five meetings, including a pair of shutouts in State College in 1920 and 1952. NU claimed its first win with a 19-0 shutout at Memorial Stadium in 1950.

Current win streak (start): NU, five games (1920)

Series Notes: NU and Rutgers met in 2020 for the first time in three years, after the teams met in three of the Scarlet Knights' first four seasons in the Big Ten. The 2020 game was a part of Big Ten Champions week and the Dec. 18 game was Nebraska's latest regular season game since 1894. The Huskers have won each of the four matchups as Big Ten foes. Prior to the 2014 meeting in Lincoln, the schools had not met since a 28-0 NU win at the New York Polo Grounds in 1920.
