SATURDAY, AUG. 28 • 12:20 P.M. CT • CHAMPAIGN, ILL. • MEMORIAL STADIUM • FIELDTURF

Nebraska opens its 132nd season on Saturday when the Huskers travel to Illinois for the earliest conference game in Big Ten history. The Huskers and Fighting Illini are meeting in Week 0 because the game was originally set to be played in Ireland, but the COVID-19 pandemic forced the game to be moved to Illinois.

Head Coach Scott Frost begins his fourth season at his alma mater in 2021, while Saturday's season opener marks the Illinois head coaching debut for Bret Bielema. The Huskers saw their four-game win streak in the series snapped last season, as Illinois earned the victory in Lincoln.

Nebraska has won the past two meetings in Champaign, and the Huskers bring a two-game road winning streak into Saturday's game after the Huskers won at Purdue and Rutgers last December. Nebraska went 2-3 away from home last season with all three losses to teams that finished the year ranked in the top 20, including one-possession losses at No. 10 Northwestern and No. 16 Iowa.

The Huskers return a veteran defense that brings back 15 players who earned at least one start last season. Eight players who started at least seven of Nebraska's eight games last season return this fall, including Marquel Dismuke, JoJo Domann and Garrett Nelson, who each started every game in 2020.

Offensively, Adrian Martinez is back for his fourth year as Nebraska's starting quarterback. Martinez, who owns four Nebraska career records and five season marks, is one of only four active FBS players with 5,000 career passing yards and 1,500 career rushing yards. He was second among all FBS quarterbacks in rushing during the 2020 season (74.4 ypg), while ranking fourth in completion percentage (71.5).

THIS WEEK'S NUMBERS

1

Saturday's opener between Nebraska and Illinois will mark the earliest date of a Big Ten Conference game in history. The previous earliest date of a conference game in Big Ten history was Aug. 30, 2018, when Northwestern won at Purdue, 31-27.

3

Nebraska has averaged at least 200 rushing yards in each of Scott Frost's first three seasons. The Huskers are the only team from a Power Five Conference to average 200 rushing yards per game each of the last three seasons (2018, 2019, 2020).

14

Nebraska has played 14 games in August in program history, and the Huskers are 14-0 in those contests. Nebraska is 2-0 when facing a conference opponent in August, defeating Oklahoma State in 1995 (64-21) and 2003 (17-7).

A complete video and transcript will be made available to media in the afternoon.

TUESDAY

Selected assistant coaches and players will be available following practice on the North Stadium concourse (media should enter through Gate 14).

WEDNESDAY.

No media availability.

THURSDAY

Coach Frost will be available following practice on the North Stadium concourse (media should enter through Gate 14). A Husker assistant coach will appear on the Nebraska Football Radio Hour at 7 p.m.

FRIDAY

No media availability.

SATURDAY

Coach Frost and requested players will be available post-game in the weight room inside the Osborne Athletic Complex in North Stadium for home games and in a designated area for road games.

GENERAL MEDIA POLICIES

All player and coach interviews must be arranged at least one day in advance through the Nebraska Communications Office. To request an interview, contact Keith Mann, Shamus McKnight or Matt Smith. All post-practice interviews will be conducted on the North Stadium concourse. Interviews will not be conducted in the weight room, Student Life Complex, training room, hallways or the tunnel leading from the locker room to the field. The Nebraska locker room, training room and football office meeting rooms are OFF LIMITS to the media. When arriving for post-practice interviews, media should come to Gate 14 outside the Northeast corner of Memorial Stadium.

Student-athlete cell phone numbers will NOT be given to the media, and media should not contact or message student-athletes directly through social media platforms. PRACTICES ARE CLOSED to the media and to the general public during the season.

After all games, Nebraska's LOCKER ROOM IS CLOSED. Head Coach Scott Frost and requested players will be brought to the postgame interview room after a brief cooling off period. At home, the postgame interview room is located in the strength complex of the Osborne Athletic Complex. Media are asked to wait to set up equipment until the conclusion of halftime. On the road, Coach Frost and requested players will be brought to the designated interview area. NO INTERVIEWS will be conducted on the field as the players are returning to the locker room.

MEDIA MAY NOT PROVIDE LIVE COVERAGE OF ANY PRESS CONFERENCE ON ANY DIGITAL PLATFORM OR WEBSITE.

PHONE INTERVIEWS

Media wishing to try to arrange a phone interview with Coach Frost may contact Keith Mann for availability. Please contact the Communications Office as far in advance as possible. Out-of-town media requesting phone interviews with players should contact Keith Mann or Shamus McKnight with those requests, preferably on Sundays, but no later than 10 a.m. CT on Monday of game week. Other than rare exceptions, these interviews will take place only during the Monday press conference window or following Tuesday practice.

SERIES HISTORY: NEBRASKA VS. ILLINOIS

Nebraska leads the all-time series with Illinois, 13-4-1. The Huskers are 6-2 against the Illini since joining the Big Ten Conference in 2011.

- Nebraska had won the past four meetings with Illinois before the Illini won in Lincoln last season. The four-game win streak was the longest for Nebraska against any Big Ten opponent since joining the conference in 2011.
- Nebraska posted a 54-35 victory over Illinois in 2018. The 54 points tied for the most Nebraska scored in a conference game in its first 10 years in the Big Ten.
- Nebraska and Illinois are also scheduled to open the season against each other in Champaign in 2025.
- Before joining the Big Ten, Nebraska and Illinois last met in a home-and-home series in 1985 and 1986, with the Huskers winning both of those matchups.

HUSKER HISTORY IN SEASON OPENERS

Nebraska has an impressive history in season openers. The Huskers have won 98 of their 131 season openers, winning their first game more than 77 percent of the time while posting a 98-28-5 record.

- Nebraska is 32-3 in its first game of the season dating back to 1986.
- The Huskers are opening a season on road for the second straight year, the only two times this century that Nebraska has played its season opener on the road. N U is also scheduled to open away from home in 2022 and 2023. Against Illinois, the Huskers are looking to win their first season opener on the road since a 42-7 non-conference victory at Iowa to open the 1999 campaign.
- Nebraska is 11-2 when it opens the season against a conference opponent. The Huskers are facing a conference foe in the season opener for just the fourth time in the last 73 seasons. NU has opened each of the last two seasons with a conference road game and is scheduled to open against a Big Ten foe three of the next four seasons as well.

- SEASON OPENER RECORD: 98-28-5 (.767)
- ON THE ROAD: 9-14-2 (.400)
- BIGGEST WIN: 117-0 vs. Kearney St. (1911)

HUSKERS PERFECT ALL-TIME IN AUGUST

Saturday's game will mark the 15th August game in the history of Nebraska football. The Huskers have never lost in the month, bringing a 14-0 record into Saturday's season opener at Illinois, which will be only the second August road game in the history of Nebraska football.

- Nebraska is not only 14-0 all-time in the month of August, but the average score of those 14 games has been 41-14. The Huskers are 6-0 when facing a Power Five Conference opponent (at game time), with the average score of those six contests being 38-10.
- Saturday's game is believed to be the earliest date a Big Ten Conference football game has ever been played. The Huskers and Illini are playing only the fifth conference matchup in the month of August in Big Ten history.

BIG RED OFFENSE HAS PUT UP BIG NUMBERS VS. ILLINOIS

Nebraska and Illinois are meeting for the ninth consecutive season and for the ninth time as Big Ten opponents. During the first eight meetings, the Husker offense has found success against the Illini.

- In their first 10 seasons in the Big Ten, the Huskers have amassed 600 yards of offense five times, with three of those efforts coming against Illinois (2014, 2018 and 2019).
- In Scott Frost's first three seasons, Nebraska has averaged 557 yards and 40 points per game against Illinois. In 2019, the Huskers totaled 674 yards of offense, the program's highest offensive output ever in a Big Ten Conference game. NU threw for 328 yards and rushed for 346 in the 2019 meeting, which marked only the second time in program history - and the only time in a conference game - that Nebraska has totaled 300 yards passing and rushing in the same game.
- In 2018, Nebraska scored 54 points, to match the Huskers' highest point total in a Big Ten Conference game. Nebraska accumulated 606 yards of total offense in the 2018 meeting.
- In the eight meetings between the programs as Big Ten Conference foes, Nebraska has averaged 247 rushing yards per game. Nebraska has produced seven individual 100-yard rushing performances in the eight Big Ten games with Illinois, including a pair of 200-yard efforts in back-to-back seasons by Ameer Abdullah in 2013 and 2014.
- Adrian Martinez has put up gaudy statistics against Illinois. In three career games against the Illini, Martinez has completed 49-of-72 (.680) passes for 661 yards and seven touchdowns, while rushing 33 times for 181 yards and one score. He averages over 8.0 yards per play in his career against Illinois, totaling 842 yards on 105 total offense attempts with nine total touchdowns.
- In his two starts vs. Illinois, Martinez has accounted for 791 yards of total offense (395.5 ypg). He had a career-high 446 yards of total offense in 2019, the third-highest total in Husker history and the most total yards by a Husker in a Big Ten Conference game. Martinez completed 22-of-34 passes for 328 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 118 yards on 18 carries to post the second 300-yard passing and 100-yard rushing game in program history. In 2018, Martinez completed 23-of-34 passes for 290 yards and three touchdowns and rushed 13 times for 55 yards and one score.
- The offensive success against Illinois goes back even further, as Nebraska put up 111 points, 1,099 total yards and 926 rushing yards in the last two non-conference matchups between the two programs in 1985 and 1986. The Huskers had more than 450 yards rushing, 540 total yards and scored over 50 points in each of those two meetings.

MARTINEZ RANKS AMONG NATION'S TOP QUARTERBACKS

Quarterback Adrian Martinez has put up statistics through his first three seasons that have him ranked among the Nebraska all-time leaders in several categories. Martinez has thrown for 5,628 yards in his career, rushed for 1,776 yards and totaled 7,404 yards of offense. He owns four Nebraska career records, five season records and one game record.

- Martinez is Nebraska's all-time leader in total offensive yards per game (264.4), 400-yard total offense games (5) and 300-yard total offense games (13). He has produced five of Nebraska's 17 individual 400-yard total offense performances.
- Martinez averaged a school-record 295.1 yards of total offense per game as a true freshman in 2018. That average ranked 12th nationally, led all freshmen and was the ninth-highest average by a freshman in NCAA history, including the third-best mark ever by a true freshman.
- Martinez also set Nebraska season records for 300-yard total offense games (7) and 400-yard total offense games (3) in 2018.
- Martinez is one of only four active FBS quarterbacks who enter the 2021 season with 5,000 career passing yards and 1,500 career rushing yards.
- Martinez set a then-Nebraska record with an 86.2 completion percentage against Minnesota in 2018, connecting on 25-of-29 passes for 276 yards and three touchdowns. He bettered that mark at Iowa in 2020, connecting on 18-of-20 passes for a school-record 90.0 percent completion rate.
- Martinez completed a school-record 71.5 percent of his passes in 2020. His completion percentage led the Big Ten and ranked fourth nationally. His 71.5 completion percentage also ranked fifth overall in Big Ten history and was the fourth-highest mark in a Big Ten Conference season.
- Martinez not only led Nebraska in passing in 2020, but he was the Huskers' leading rusher as well, becoming the third player to lead Nebraska in rushing and passing in the same season.
- In 2020, Martinez ranked second nationally in rushing yards per game among quarterbacks (74.4 yards per game). He was the only Power Five quarterback to average 70 rushing yards per game.
- In his career, Martinez has rushed for 1,776 yards. That total ranks third among all active FBS quarterbacks entering the 2021 season.
- At Illinois in 2019, Martinez produced one of only two 300-yard passing and 100-yard rushing performances in Nebraska history (328 passing, 118 rushing).
- In 2018, Martinez became just the sixth freshman in NCAA history to average 200 passing yards and 50 rushing yards per game and just the second true freshman to hit those marks. Martinez was also one of only four FBS quarterbacks - regardless of class - who averaged 225 passing yards and 50 rushing yards per game in 2018.

HUSKERS ANNOUNCE 2021 TEAM CAPTAINS

Austin Allen, Damion Daniels, Adrian Martinez and Cam Taylor-Britt were announced as team captains for the 2021 Nebraska football season on Aug. 21. Martinez, who was also selected as a team captain in 2019 and 2020, is the first three-time captain in the history of Nebraska football.

- Allen has played in 32 games in his Husker career with 12 starts. He was named to the preseason watch list for the Mackey Award (nation's best tight end) and was also selected for the Senior Bowl watch list. He has caught 27 passes in his career for 373 yards.
- Daniels is the second member of his family to be selected as a Nebraska captain, as his older brother Darrion was a team captain for the 2019 season. Damion and Darrion are the ninth brothers to each serve as Husker captains, and the first since Ty Steinkuhler (2008) and Baker Steinkuhler (2012) were each captains as seniors. Damion has played in 32 career games and totaled a career-high 20 tackles as Nebraska's starting nose guard in 2020.
- The first three-time captain in program history, Martinez enters his fourth season as Nebraska's starting quarterback this fall. Martinez has started 27 games in his first three seasons, and he owns one Nebraska game record, five season marks and four career records. He has completed better than 64 percent of his passes in his career, throwing for 5,628 yards while adding 1,776 rushing yards and accounting for 53 total touchdowns. Martinez boasted the fourth-best completion percentage of any FBS quarterback last season, and he enters the 2021 season as one of only four players in the country with 5,000 career passing yards and 1,500 career rushing yards.
- Taylor-Britt was a second-team All-Big Ten selection last season. The cornerback led the Huskers with four pass breakups in 2020, and he tied for the team lead with a pair of interceptions. His coverage ability helped Nebraska limit four of its eight opponents to fewer than 200 yards passing during the 2020 season. Taylor-Britt, who has started 16 games in his career, was also Nebraska's top punt returner last season, averaging more than 13 yards per return.

FROST IN FOURTH SEASON LEADING HUSKERS

Scott Frost is set for his fourth season at Nebraska in 2021. The consensus 2017 national coach of the year, Frost boasts a 31-27 career record in five seasons as a collegiate head coach.

- Frost is 12-20 in his first three seasons at Nebraska with 11 losses by a touchdown or less, including eight by five or fewer points.
- Nebraska went 3-5 in the abbreviated 2020 season. Three of the Huskers' five losses were by a touchdown or less, including two one-possession losses to Northwestern and Iowa teams that finished the year ranked in the top 20.
- Frost has been a proven winner in his coaching career. In 14 seasons as a full-time assistant or head coach, Frost's teams have posted a 134-45 record, averaging nearly 10 wins per season. Frost has been a part of seven conference championship teams in his 14 seasons and has twice coached in the national championship game.
- At UCF, Frost became the first coach in FBS history to turn a winless team into an undefeated team in just two years.
- Frost's teams have been ranked in the top 15 in 10 of his 14 seasons, including eight final top-10 rankings and six final top-five rankings.

HUSKER COACHING STAFF RETURNS INTACT FROM 2020

All 10 Nebraska assistant coaches return for the 2021 campaign. This year marks the first time since the 2014 season that Nebraska returns its entire coaching staff from the previous season.

- Of Frost's 10 assistant coaches, seven have been with him in each of his six seasons as a collegiate head coach, while Mike Dawson has been on five of Frost's six staffs.
- In addition to Scott Frost being recognized as the 2017 national coach of the year while at UCF, the Husker staff features three Broyles Award nominees in defensive coordinator Erik Chinander (2016 at UCF), offensive coordinator Matt Lubick (2012 at Duke) and quarterbacks coach Mario Verduzco (2018 at Nebraska). The Broyles Award is presented annually to the nation's top assistant coach. Lubick was also named the national wide receivers coach of the year and an AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year finalist in 2012.

VETERAN DEFENSE LOOKS TO LEAD HUSKERS THIS SEASON

Nebraska returns 11 full- or part-time starters on a veteran defense that aims to be the strength of this year's team. The Huskers bring back eight players who started at least seven games in 2020.

- Nebraska allowed an average of 169.5 rushing yards per game and 386.5 yards of total offense per game in 2020. Those totals marked the fewest rushing and total yards allowed per game by a Husker defense since the 2016 season.
- According to ESPN, Nebraska enters the 2021 season with the most returning defensive production of any team in the Big Ten West. The ESPN formula takes into account a team's total number of returning tackles, tackles for loss, sacks and passes defended.
- A total of seven Husker defenders earned at least honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades last season. That was the highest number of all-conference defenders since Nebraska joined the Big Ten in 2011, and six of those seven All-Big Ten selections return this fall.

- Cornerback Cam Taylor-Britt was a 2020 second-team All-Big Ten honoree. Teams generally avoided throwing to Taylor-Britt's side of the field, but when they did he broke up four passes and had a pair of interceptions in eight games. Taylor-Britt has ranked in the top 70 nationally in interceptions each of the last two years, and he ranked third nationally in forced fumbles in 2019.
- Safety Marquel Dismuke, outside linebacker JoJo Domann, inside linebacker Will Honas, defensive lineman Ben Stille and safety Deontai Williams all return as "super seniors" in their sixth year playing college football, although Honas is out indefinitely with an injury. Each player was a senior last year but chose to take advantage of the free year of eligibility in 2020 and return for the 2021 season. Each of the five "super seniors" earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades last season.
- Dismuke has started 20 consecutive games at safety. He ranked fourth on the team with 47 tackles and set career highs with 4.0 TFLs and four pass breakups in last year's shortened season. Dismuke has totaled 158 tackles in his career.
- Domann led the Huskers with a career-high 58 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss, five pass breakups, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery in eight games last season. Domann enters the 2021 season ranked third among all active FBS players with seven career forced fumbles.
- Stille returns to anchor the defensive line. His 22 career starts are the most of any current Blackshirt. Stille is Nebraska's active career leader with 26.0 tackles for loss and 13.0 sacks.
- Williams set career highs with 51 tackles, 4.0 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack in eight games last year. He also broke up four passes and had a sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery for a touchdown on the same play against Penn State, believed to be the first Husker ever to accomplish that feat.
- In addition to the six returning All-Big Ten players, NU returns five other starters. Garrett Nelson started every game at outside linebacker in 2020 and totaled 30 tackles, 4.0 TFLs and 1.5 sacks.
- Ty Robinson started seven games at defensive end as a redshirt freshman in 2020, totaling 17 tackles with a pair of tackles for loss.
- Luke Reimer made the most of his five starts at inside linebacker last season, recording 40 tackles and ranking second on the team with 2.0 sacks and third with 5.0 TFLs despite battling injuries.
- Caleb Tannor started five games at outside linebacker last season. Despite the shortened season, he finished with a career-high 23 tackles.
- Damion Daniels started three games at nose guard in 2020 and set career highs in tackles (20) and tackles for loss (4.0).
- The Huskers also bring back safety Myles Farmer, inside linebacker Nick Henrich, cornerback Quinton Newsome and defensive end Casey Rogers, each of whom made their first career starts last season.
- The defense also figures to receive a boost from transfer Chris Kolarevic, who totaled 144 tackles, 9.5 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks, two interceptions and five pass breakups as a starting linebacker at Northern Iowa in 2018 and 2019.

NU FEATURES MIX OF RETURNERS, NEWCOMERS AT RECEIVER

Nebraska returns four of its top six receivers from last season, led by a tight end unit with two proven veterans. The Huskers also added Thomas Fidone II, the nation's No. 1 tight end recruit in the 2021 class, but Fidone is currently injured. At wideout, Nebraska returns four of its six leading wide receivers from last season and the group is bolstered by a productive graduate transfer.

- Austin Allen started seven games at tight end last season and ranked second on the team with career highs of 18 catches and 236 receiving yards, despite a shortened season. He is on the preseason watch list for the Mackey Award (nation's best tight end) and the Senior Bowl.
- Travis Vokolek made four starts and caught nine passes for 91 yards in the shortened 2020 season. He was fifth on the team in receiving yards, and Vokolek is on the preseason watch list for the Senior Bowl.
- At wideout, Levi Falck elected to return for another season after he made four starts and caught 13 passes for 122 yards as a graduate transfer from South Dakota last season. Falck was third on the team in receptions and fourth in receiving yards a year ago.
- Zavier Betts caught 12 passes and was third on the team with 131 receiving yards in a promising true freshman season in 2020.
- Nebraska also added Montana transfer Samori Toure, who was a 2019 first-team FCS All-American after catching 87 passes for a school-record 1,495 receiving yards, which ranked second nationally. Toure enters the 2021 season with career totals of 155 receptions, 2,488 yards and 20 touchdowns.
- Oliver Martin begins his second season at Nebraska in 2021 after an outstanding offseason where he posted impressive testing numbers. Martin made an immediate impact last season despite not gaining eligibility until November, starting four of the final five games and making five catches for 63 yards.
- Alante Brown (three catches for 41 yards) and Wyatt Liewer (three catches for 22 yards) also return after gaining valuable experience last season in the first playing time of their careers.
- Chris Hickman has the ability to play either tight end or wide receiver. He has played in 10 games over his first two seasons with a pair of receptions.

HUSKERS HAVE YOUNG, TALENTED OFFENSIVE LINE

Nebraska returned every starting offensive lineman from the 2019 to 2020 season but a pair of freshmen still found their way into the starting lineup last year. This year, all 23 offensive linemen are eligible to return for the 2022 season. The group has helped Nebraska become the only Power Five program to average 200 rushing yards each of the last three seasons (2018, 2019, 2020).

- Cam Jurgens has started 18 of Nebraska's 20 games at center the past two seasons. In 2019, Jurgens became the first Husker freshman to ever start a game at center.
- Bryce Benhart started all eight games at right tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2020. Benhart was a top-150 recruit out of high school.
- Ethan Piper started the final seven games at left guard last season in his redshirt freshman season. Piper was able to win the starting job over senior Boe Wilson, who had started 22 consecutive games at guard.
- As a true freshman, Turner Corcoran started the final game at left tackle last season, becoming the first true freshman to ever start at left tackle for Nebraska. Corcoran was a top-50 recruit out of high school.
- Trent Hixson also boasts starting experience, as he started all 12 games at left guard as a sophomore in 2019.
- Nouredin Nouili also has starting experience on the offensive line. Nouili started seven games at offensive guard at Colorado State in 2019 before transferring to Nebraska. He was the first true freshman to start on the offensive line for the Rams since 1996.
- Others expected to be in the mix for playing time and seeking their first collegiate start on the offensive line are Matt Sichterman (24 career games played), Broc Bando (20 games played) and Brant Banks (five games played).

HUSKERS BOAST 20 GRADUATES PLAYING THIS SEASON

A total of 20 Huskers are playing this season as college graduates. The group of graduates includes all eight seniors and 12 juniors. Fourteen players earned their degree from Nebraska, while the remaining six players were graduate transfers into the Husker program.

- Nebraska is one of only 14 FBS programs - including just two Big Ten teams (Illinois - 29) - with at least 20 college graduates on their 2021 roster.
- A pair of Blackshirts - outside linebacker Caleb Tannor and cornerback Cam Taylor-Britt - are on track to earn their degrees this December, prior to the start of bowl season.

HUSKER STREAKS CONTINUE INTO 2021 SEASON

A pair of impressive team streaks will carry over into this season, while a legendary streak looks to resume following a one-year hiatus in 2020.

- Nebraska has sold out 375 consecutive games at Memorial Stadium, dating from the next-to-last home game of the 1962 season through the 2019 season. The Huskers' legendary sellout streak - an NCAA record - was paused during the 2020 season. Nebraska will have its first chance to extend the streak with its home opener against Fordham on Sept. 4.
- The Huskers have scored in 315 consecutive games. The streak is the longest in school history, the seventh-longest in FBS history and the fifth-longest active streak. The last time Nebraska was shut out was a 19-0 loss at No. 17 Arizona State on Sept. 21, 1996.
- Nebraska has also scored in 344 consecutive home games, a school record. The last time the Huskers were shut out at home came on Nov. 9, 1968 against Kansas State (12-0 loss).
- Nebraska is 252-0 all-time when scoring 35 or more points at home. Scott Frost is also 22-0 in his head coaching career when his team scores at least 35 points.

NEBRASKA AMONG TOP ALL-TIME PROGRAMS

Nebraska is playing its 132nd season this fall, and the Huskers boast a 905-400-40 all-time record in 1,345 games (.688). Nebraska is one of eight programs with 900 wins.

- Nebraska became the fifth member of the 900-win club at Illinois on Sept. 21, 2019, joining Michigan, Ohio State, Texas and Alabama as 900-win programs at the time. Notre Dame, Oklahoma and Penn State have since joined the elite club.
- Since 1970, Nebraska owns a 471-160-5 record (.744) with five national championships. The Huskers rank second among all FBS programs in national titles and third in wins since 1970.
- Nebraska boasts 27 10-win seasons in school history, including 24 since 1970. The Huskers also have 12 seasons with 11 or more wins, seven seasons with 12 or more wins and three 13-win seasons.
- The Huskers own 50 nine-win seasons, one behind Alabama for the most in NCAA history. Forty-two of those nine-win seasons have come since 1970 and 48 since 1962, 12 more than any other school.
- Nebraska was the first team in NCAA history to win 100 games in consecutive decades, leading the nation with 103 wins in the 1980s and ranking second with 108 wins in the 1990s.

NEBRASKA ALSO EXCELS IN THE CLASSROOM

Nebraska's rich tradition is not limited to the field, as the Huskers have been outstanding in the classroom as well.

- Nebraska owns the NCAA Division I record with 347 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans across all sports.
- Husker football has produced 108 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, the most of any single sport in NCAA history.
- Nebraska owns the NCAA record with 18 NCAA Top 10 Award Winners, which is considered the "Heisman Trophy" of academics for NCAA student-athletes.
- Nebraska football has produced nine NCAA Top 10 Award winners, the most of any single team in NCAA history.
- Nebraska recorded an all-time high in the most recent NCAA Graduation Success Rate numbers released in November of 2020. Nebraska's all-sports GSR rate of 94 percent marked the eighth consecutive year the Huskers GSR rate had improved.
- The football team posted a program-record team grade-point average of 3.297 in the 2020 spring semester. Following the spring 2021 semester, the football team's cumulative GPA was 3.137.

HOME OF THE HUSKERS

Memorial Stadium's history dates nearly 100 years. In the fall of 1922, a drive for $430,000 in stadium construction funds was undertaken by faculty, students, alumni and friends of the University.

The stadium was named Memorial Stadium to honor all Nebraskans who served in the Civil and Spanish-American Wars; the 751 Nebraskans who died in World War I; the 3,839 in World War II; the 225 in Korea; the 422 in Vietnam; and those in Iraq.

Construction was completed in a few more than 90 working days and Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 20, 1923, at the Homecoming game in which Nebraska was held to a scoreless tie by Kansas.

The field at Memorial Stadium was named Tom Osborne Field - after the Huskers' legendary Hall-of-Fame coach - in 1998, one year after Osborne's retirement following 25 years and 255 victories as head coach.

- Nebraska and Oklahoma will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the "Game of the Century" when the teams meet in Norman on Sept. 18. On Nov. 25, 1971, No. 1 Nebraska defeated No. 2 Oklahoma, 35-31, in a battle of undefeated teams in Norman.

COACHING STAFF NOTES

- Scott Frost is in his sixth season as a head coach and fourth year at Nebraska. Frost is one of four former Husker players to return to the Nebraska sideline as head coach, and he is one of 18 FBS head coaches coaching at his alma mater in 2021.
- Nebraska's staff also includes former Huskers Greg Austin (2003-06), Ryan Held (1993-96) and Barrett Ruud (2001-04).
- Frost is one of only four FBS head coaches to win a national title as a player. Both Frost (1995 & 1997) and Ryan Held (1994 & 1995) were two-time national champions as Huskers.
- Frost and seven of his 10 assistant coaches are in their sixth consecutive season working together, including two seasons at UCF.
- Frost and all 10 full-time assistants from the 2020 season returned for this fall. This season marks the first time since 2014 that Nebraska returned its entire coaching staff intact.

- Frost was the 2017 national coach of the year, while offensive coordinator Matt Lubick was a finalist for AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year in 2012. Defensive coordinator Erik Chinander was a nominee for the 2016 Broyles Award and quarterbacks coach Mario Verduzco was a Broyles Award nominee in 2018.

- Frost's teams have been ranked in the top 15 in 10 of his first 14 seasons as a full-time coach. Of those 10 seasons, Frost's teams have posted eight top-10 rankings and six top-five rankings.

HUSKER CAPTAIN NOTES

- Austin Allen, Damion Daniels, Adrian Martinez and Cam Taylor-Britt will serve as team captains for the 2021 season.
- Martinez is a captain for the third straight year, the only three-time captain in program history.
- Damion Daniels joins his brother Darrion (2019) as a Husker team captain. The Daniels are the ninth pair of brothers to each be selected as Nebraska team captains.

ROSTER NOTES

- Nebraska's roster features 151 players. With the NCAA granting a free year of eligibility for the 2020 season, all returning Huskers are listed with the same class as last year, leading to more than 60 percent of the Husker roster is comprised of freshmen.

HUSKER ROSTER CLASS BREAKDOWN

Freshmen	71	47%
Redshirt Freshmen	25	17%
Total Freshmen	96	64%
Sophomores	24	16%
Juniors	23	15%
Seniors	8	5%

- The Husker roster features 104 returning players and 47 newcomers. Nebraska returns a total of 21 starters and 52 letterwinners.
- Nebraska added 47 players - 23 scholarship student-athletes and 24 walk-ons - since last season. That group includes 39 true freshmen and eight transfers. Among the transfers, three came from FBS schools, three from FCS programs, one from the junior college rank and one from the NAIA.
- Nebraska's roster features players from 26 states and three foreign countries (Australia, Canada and Germany).
- Nebraska has had a letterwinner from 47 of the 50 states in its history, missing only Idaho, New Hampshire and Rhode Island.
- States with multiple players on the Huskers' 2021 roster include: Nebraska (66), Iowa (11), Texas (10), Florida (9), Georgia (7), Arizona (6), Alabama (5), California (4), Colorado (4), Kansas (3), Michigan (3), New Jersey (3), Minnesota (2), Oklahoma (2) and South Dakota (2).
- Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, North Carolina, New York, Nevada, Ohio, Oregon, Tennessee and Virginia each have one player represented on the 2021 roster.

ACADEMIC NOTES

- A total of 20 Huskers are playing the 2021 season as graduates, including all eight seniors.

SCOUTING THE ILLINOIS FIGHTING ILLINI

Illinois will have a new look when it opens its 2021 season on Saturday, as Bret Bielema makes his Illini head coaching debut. The Fighting Illini went 2-6 in the abbreviated 2020 season under head coach Lovie Smith.

Illinois returns 81 percent of its total starts on offense from last season and 86 percent of its total starts on defense, and the Illini bring back their starting punter and place-kicker. Illinois returned more scholarship seniors (17) from last year's roster than any other Power Five team and the Illini boast 29 graduates. The roster features 11 players who have earned All-Big Ten recognition in their careers, including 2019 Big Ten Punter of the Year Blake Hayes.

The Illini ranked third in the Big Ten in rushing last season, averaging 196.1 yards per game. Illinois returns all but five carries and 25 rushing yards from last year, and the ground game is powered by a returning offensive line that has combined for 131 career starts, the sixth-highest total in the country. Defensively, Illinois returns eight of its top 10 tacklers from 2020, including linebacker Jake Hansen, who is the nation's active leader with 10 career forced fumbles.

HEAD COACH INFORMATION

HEAD COACH BRET BIELEMA

- 1st Season at Illinois (0-0 Record)
- 13th Career Season (97-58 Record)

Bret Bielema is making his Illinois head coaching debut on Saturday. Bielema was named the Illini's head coach last December. He is in his 13th overall season as a collegiate head coach, all of which have been spent leading a Power Five Conference program.

Bielema returns to a head coaching role after spending the past three seasons as an NFL assistant. He was a consultant to head coach Bill Belichick at New England in 2018 and was the Patriots' defensive line coach in 2019. Bielema spent last season coaching the New York Giants outside linebackers.

An Iowa graduate, Bielema began his head coaching career at Wisconsin, leading the Badgers to a 68-24 record in seven seasons from 2006 to 2012. Bielema went 2-1 against Nebraska at Wisconsin, and he led the Badgers to three consecutive Big Ten titles from 2010 to 2012. Bielema left Wisconsin for Arkansas after the 2012 season, and he guided the Razorbacks to a 29-34 record in five seasons from 2013 to 2017.

ILLINOIS INFORMATION

Illinois owns a winning all-time record and the Fighting Illini were one of the nation's top programs in the early 1900s. Illinois has won 15 Big Ten Conference titles and claims five national championships. Four of the Illini's five national championships came before the Great Depression (1914, 1919, 1923, 1927). The most recent title came in 1951 and is the only outright national title in program history.

The Fighting Illini have gone undefeated seven times and have won 10 games in a season three times (1902, 1983 and 2001). Illinois has not had a winning record since the 2011 season. The Illini have played in 19 bowl games in their history, including five Rose Bowls. In the last full season in 2019, Illinois made its first bowl game in five years and had its best Big Ten West finish (fourth) since the division was created in 2014.

HEAD COACH SCOTT FROST

HISTORIC TURNAROUND AT UCF

At UCF, Frost produced the greatest two-year turnaround in college football history, inheriting an 0-12 team and leading the Knights to a 13-0 record just two years later.

- In his first season in 2016, Frost made history as the only first-time head coach in FBS history to make a bowl game with a team that was winless the previous season.
- UCF tied for the national lead with a six-win improvement from the 2015 to 2016 season. The Knights then ranked third nationally after improving by seven wins from the 2016 to 2017 season.
- The Knights' seven-win improvement from 2016 to 2017 ranked 11th in NCAA history and marked just the second time ever a bowl team improved by more than six wins the next season.
- UCF was the American Athletic Conference and Peach Bowl champions and was the only FBS team to go undefeated in 2017.
- Frost called UCF's plays, orchestrating the greatest two-year offensive turnaround in NCAA history. The Knights went from last to fifth in total offense, improving their output by more than 260 yards per game. UCF also went from third-to-last to first in scoring offense, improving by nearly 35 points per game.

13-0 AS A PLAYER & COACH

In his second year as a head coach, Scott Frost guided UCF to a 13-0 record in 2017, when the Knights were the nation's only undefeated team.

- Frost was the fourth coach in FBS history to post a 13-0 record or better in either his first or second season as a head coach. Among that quartet, Frost is the only coach who inherited a team that won fewer than five games, as UCF went 0-12 the year before Frost's arrival.
- Frost is one of only seven active FBS head coaches who has posted a 13-0 season or better, joining Jimbo Fisher, Gary Patterson, Ed Orgeron, Nick Saban, Dabo Swinney and Kyle Whittingham.
- Frost also led Nebraska to a 13-0 record and a national title as the Huskers' starting quarterback in 1997. Frost was the first person in NCAA history to be part of a 13-0 season as both a player and a head coach.

NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Frost was the consensus choice as the 2017 national coach of the year, earning the honor from at least eight different organizations.

- Frost won the 2017 Paul "Bear" Bryant Award as the national coach of the year. He joined Chris Petersen (2006 & 2009, Boise State) as the only coaches in the 32-year history of the award to win the honor while coaching a team outside of a Power Five Conference.
- Frost was also the AP Coach of the Year, becoming the sixth coach to win the award in his first or second season as a head coach.

FROST A TOP OFFENSIVE COACH

For each of the last 12 years, Scott Frost has either been an offensive assistant, offensive coordinator or head coach who calls the offensive plays. During that time, he has consistently proven to be one of the nation's finest offensive coaches.

- In 12 seasons coaching offense, Frost has worked with eight units that finished in the top 10 nationally in scoring, including seven that ranked in the top five.
- Frost has also been a part of seven teams that ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense the past 12 seasons.

FROST A PROVEN WINNER

Frost is a proven winner. In his 14-year full-time coaching career, Frost's teams have combined for a 134-45 record.

- Frost teams have averaged nearly 10 wins per season, including seven 12-win campaigns.
- He has won seven conference titles in 14 years.
- Frost has coached in two national title games and his teams have finished with a top-10 ranking eight times in the past 14 years.
- In two seasons as UCF's head coach, the Knights were the nation's most improved team in 2016 and were the only FBS team to go undefeated in 2017.
- As a Husker quarterback, Frost was a two-time national champion who helped NU to a 36-2 record, including a 24-2 mark as a starter.
- Frost is one of four active head coaches who won a national title as a player and is the only coach who won multiple national titles as a player.

NEBRASKA ASSISTANT COACHES

MATT LUBICK
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
WIDE RECEIVERS

- 2nd Season at Nebraska
- 26th Career Season
- 5th Year as an Offensive Coord.

Lubick has coached in the ACC, Big Ten and Pac-12, serving as offensive coordinator at Oregon, Washington and Nebraska. In his last seven seasons, Lubick has worked with four top-25 scoring offenses. His offenses have ranked in the top 25 nationally in completion percentage each of his four years as a coordinator, including NU in 2020 (9th). The 2012 National Wide Receivers Coach of the Year, Lubick coached two of the 10 all-time leading receivers at Washington.

GREG AUSTIN
OFFENSIVE LINE
RUN GAME COORDINATOR

- 4th Season at Nebraska
- 12th Career Season
- 2 Years of NFL Experience

A former Husker All-Big 12 offensive lineman, Austin has coached the offensive line at the Power Five and NFL levels. His lines have paved the way for a top-25 offense at each of his three collegiate stops. Austin also serves as the Huskers' run game coordinator.

SEAN BECKTON
TIGHT ENDS

- 4th Season at Nebraska
- 26th Career Season
- 23 Years of Collegiate Experience

Beckton has developed NFL draft picks at three different positions: cornerback, wide receiver and tight end. Husker tight ends set career highs in every category in 2019 and helped Nebraska rank 9th nationally in completion percentage in 2020.

RYAN HELD
RUNNING BACKS
RECRUITING COORDINATOR

- 4th Season at Nebraska
- 22nd Career Season
- 13 Years as a Head Coach

Held won two national titles as a player at Nebraska, and he has won two national titles as a coach (Nebraska & Tennessee). He has coached a running back who has ranked in the top 15 nationally in yards per carry two of the last four seasons.

MARIO VERDUZCO
QUARTERBACKS

- 4th Season at Nebraska
- 45th Career Season
- 35 Years of Collegiate Experience

Verduzco was a nominee for assistant coach of the year in 2018 after Adrian Martinez was the second true freshman in NCAA history to average 200 yards passing and 50 yards rushing. In 2017, UCF's McKenzie Milton was second nationally in pass efficiency.

ERIK CHINANDER
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

- 4th Season at Nebraska
- 19th Career Season
- 6th Year as a Defensive Coord.

Chinander boasts NFL coaching experience and has coached in two FBS national title games and one FCS Championship Game. He earned a nomination for the Broyles Award at UCF in 2016. The defense then preserved UCF's perfect season in 2017 with a pair of game-clinching interceptions in the conference title game and the Peach Bowl. At Nebraska in 2020, the Huskers allowed their fewest yards per game (386.5) since the 2016 season.

MIKE DAWSON
OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS
SPECIAL TEAMS COORD.

- 2nd Season at NU (3rd Overall)
- 23rd Career Season
- 4 Years of NFL Experience

Dawson boasts four years of NFL coaching experience, and he has also been a collegiate defensive coordinator. He has experience coaching both defensive linemen and outside linebackers in college and the NFL. Dawson is also NU's special teams coordinator.

TRAVIS FISHER
DEFENSIVE BACKS

- 4th Season at Nebraska
- 9th Career Season

Fisher is a rising star following a nine-year NFL career. He has coached 12 all-conference defensive backs the past five years and all four Husker secondary starters were All-Big Ten in 2020. Fisher's units have ranked in the top 25 in interceptions twice in the last five years.

BARRETT RUUD
INSIDE LINEBACKERS

- 4th Season at Nebraska
- 7th Career Season

Mohamed Barry totaled more than 200 tackles in his two seasons under Ruud, earning All-Big Ten honors both years. Ruud is Nebraska's all-time leading tackler, and he posted four consecutive 100-tackle seasons for the Tampa Bay Bucs as part of his eight-year NFL career.

TONY TUIOTI
DEFENSIVE LINE

- 3rd Season at Nebraska
- 19th Career Season
- 2 Years of NFL Experience

Tuioti has NFL experience as a defensive line coach and has coached at two of the seven winningest programs in NCAA history. Two of his three starting defensive linemen in 2019 were selected in the NFL Draft, while the third signed a free agent contract.
