OFFENSE TAKES THE SPOTLIGHT

Defense, personified by the "Black Shirts," has been a Nebraska trademark in recent Big 8 football seasons, and there is no intention of relegating Bob Devaney-type defense to the scrap pile in 1970.

But the overwhelming feeling that grips the Big Red camp as 1970 approaches is that this will be the year the offense will shoulder the big load—at least early, until the rebuilt Black Shirt club gains combat time in the new AstroTurf Age.

Last fall, the Cornhuskers knew not what might befall them because the quarterback situation was clouded and Joe Orduna was felled by a knee injury. But they knew they had a defense, worthy of any team in the nation, and that defense carried the club until the offense jelled and came on strong to win the Big 8 co-championship and the Sun Bowl game with Georgia, 45-6.

This fall, however, only three members of that veteran defensive unit return—Tackle Dave Walline, Linebacker Jerry Murtaugh (an All America candidate of the highest order, by the way) and Cornerback Jim Anderson. Even more disturbing: few experienced players are on hand to move up.

Check the offensive platoon and you'll see a similar loss because graduation hit hard in the middle of the line. While this is still a major concern, there are more veteran squad men to move into top spots. The Cornhusker backfield situation appears bright, indeed, judging by the past performance chart.

This is not to infer that no problems beset the Nebraska offense. Rebuilding the interior line where four men graduated is a king-size chore and spring drills wound up without any declared leaders in the tight end and center races. These must be considered areas of concern, but some good athletes are in the chase so Devaney hasn't reached the hand-wringing stage yet.

Nebraska won't enter the 1970 campaign worrying about trying to find a quarterback, but which of two Big 8 stars to start. Van Brownson, who skippered the late season surge and has the edge on daring, quickness and option ability, returns for a junior season. Likewise, Jerry Tagge the big, strong, accurate passer who set passing and total offense records as a sophomore last year despite splitting time with Brownson. There isn't a finer 1-2 punch in the nation and the Cornhuskers are loaded at quarterback, make no mistake about that.

Ditto at the I-Back spot, where Jeff Kinney—Big 8 Sophomore of the Year—returns for junior duty as an established star. He led the Huskers in rushing, pass-catching and scoring with a brilliant soph debut in 1969. It could be a picture position if Joe Orduna can play. Orduna was forced to sit out 1969 with a knee operation after a fall-camp injury. He recovered fully, but hurt the other knee in spring drills and had to have it repaired. If he's healthy, the Huskers are richly stocked at this key position because Orduna—swift and strong—was the rushing and scoring leader prior to last fall. But Joe is still a big question.

Slot-back chores are likely to fall upon either letterman swiftly Jeff Hughes or sophomore Johnny Rodgers. Hughes has speed and experience, while Rodgers has a car-load of moves, sure-fire hands, quickness and dodge-em tactics that should have the fans chewing their bubble gum as if they were taking in a Sally Rand matinee. Rodgers has a chance to be one of the top sophs in the Big 8 this fall, either as a slot-back or as a kick returner, if he comes through as expected.

Fullback Dan Schneiss—No. 2 gainer splitting time with Mike Green in 1969—leads that spot and he's a tough, punishing runner who can also catch the ball and block. Depth could be a problem, with only sophomores behind him.

Tight end is a wide open affair, as mentioned. Chief contenders are all on the small side, but soph Jerry List and junior Phil Harvey have squad experience to rate a slight edge over strapping Frosh grad Bob Wolfe.

The incomparable Guy (The Fly) Ingles has a firm grip on the split end job and he's one of the best in the nation. While some may have a step more speed, no one can match his glue-fingers and circus-style snares. Two transfers with speed and hands, Dale Didur and Woody Cox, add depth.

All America candidate Bob Newton and veteran Wally Winter lead the tackles, while Donnie McGhee, Bob Grenfell—both lettermen with plenty of alternate time—and two squaddmen, Bruce Weber and Mike Beran, put a well-stocked label on the guards. Keith Wortman, JC transfer, has the ability to jump into the thick of the guard race.

Doug Jamall, a red-shirt sophomore, was the spring leader at center, but he'll get pressed by Bill Janssen, who lettered at guard, and Doug Dumler, another 1969 red-shirt. Janssen and Dumler have the size, Jamall the best savvy going into fall camp which should bring a stiff battle.

A similar run-down of the defense won't bring you to tears, because there are a lot of fine athletes on hand, but playing time is not a prevalent commodity.

Three of the four top end candidates have never played a minute—John Hyland, Johnny Pitts and Willie Harper—while John Adkins lettered as an alternate. It's still wide open and still a worry area for Devaney and his staff.

Star candidate Dave Walline, apparently fully recovered from knee surgery, returns with letterman Larry Jacobson, also a knee operation victim last spring, as the only experienced tackles. Rich Glover, Tom Robison and John Dutton were spring standouts among the Frosh and should help the depth a great deal.

Letterman Ed Periard has a tough time seeing over the opposing centers, but they have a tough time blocking him so he's the leader at middle guard. Sophs Bob Pabis and Joe Duffy are the chief contenders. Monte Johnson, another soph may get a shot and he's got size.

Mention of the linebackers brings a grin to Devaney's face. All America candidate Jerry Murtaugh—unanimous All Big 8 and Sun Bowl Outstanding Lineman in 1969—heads a sparkling crew that includes letterman Pat Morrell, transfer Bob Terrio and soph Bruce Hauge. This is a solid position from the standpoint of size, toughness and experience, but top-notch speed is lacking.

Jim Anderson is the lone backfield starter returning and he's a good one. Double letter-winners Dave Morock and John Decker are on hand with experience gained in reserve roles. Gary Hollstein came out of the spring as the top safety, but he'll get pressed by letterman Bill Kosch and Tom McClelland and soph John O'Connell.

Dave Mason, converted from split end where he lettered in 1969, is in the monster scrap with Morock, while soph Joe Blahak is pressing Decker. Paul Rogers is Anderson's main challenger.

COACH DEVANEY SAYS:

—On Nebraska's Past: "We've had success and a lot of fun because our players, coaches and fans believe in the University of Nebraska and we've all been willing to work hard to build a better scholastic program and a better University. We hope this same enthusiasm will always be a part of Cornhusker life. While we haven't always had the best athletes, we've always had the dedication to winning and succeeding that is so necessary in athletics and in life. That's what we're trying to teach through our athletic program and I always hope every incoming Freshman, athlete or not, gains familiarity with the Cornhusker spirit that has made Nebraska a great University.

—On Nebraska's 1970 Football Prospects: "A lot of people seem to be predicting great things for us this fall, and I hope they're right and not just trying to be nice because I'm getting a little older. We feel we may have an opportunity to have a good football team, but we have a great many problems to solve before we can sleep restfully on Friday nights. First, we won't have the same team that whipped Oklahoma, 44-14, and Georgia 45-6. Some 14 starters from that club graduated, so we've got a lot of holes to fill. We lack speed in our defensive secondary and our linebacking, we are small at middle guard and we have no experienced defensive ends. Offensively, we should have a fine backfield, but we lost four interior linemen and we must find an answer at center, both guards and tight end.

—On The Big 8 Conference in 1970: "Every year since 1962 the Big 8 has improved and it really looks like a great football league in 1970. Most, if not all, teams have a chance to win the title and every team definitely has the coaching and the personnel to have a bearing on the race. When I first came in the Big 8 you could figure to win several games on form alone and just worry about one or two big games. But that's not true any more. In 1970 there won't be one team anyone can figure as a cinch win—anyone of us can beat the other guy. Of course, that's good for competition and fan interest, but it's not designed for coaching tranquility."

BOB DEVANEY

"The Winningest Coach in the Nation"

BOB DEVANEY

Athletic Director and Head Football Coach

University of Nebraska

Bob Devaney is the winningest football coach in Nebraska's history and heads into the 1970 football season as the winningest football coach in the nation, an honor he's held for five years.

Devaney's teams win more often than any other in the nation, a fact supported by his lifetime record of 103 victories, 28 defeats and five ties. That's a winning percentage of .786.

Bob Devaney is also Nebraska's Athletic Director and in 1969-70 the Cornhuskers climbed from eighth to second in the Big 8 All Sports race, testifying to his spirited leadership in pursuit of overall excellence in the NU Intercollegiate program.

During his brilliant eight-years career at Nebraska, Devaney's teams have posted a tremendous record of 68-18-0. And during the same span, the Cornhuskers have won four Big 8 titles and tied for a fifth. Nebraska teams the past eight years under Devaney have averaged 8.5 wins per season.

Here's Nebraska's season marks under Devaney: 9-2, 10-1, 9-2, 10-1, 9-2, 6-4, 6-4, and 9-2. The only other Nebraska coach to ever log eight straight winning seasons was D. X. Bible from 1929 to 1936.

Devaney has also taken Nebraska to six bowl games in eight years and the Huskers have won three times, the last a resounding 45-6 victory over Georgia in the Sun Bowl.

Coach Devaney has won Big 8 Coach of the Year honors four times and he's been on a number of post-season coaching staffs such as the Senior Bowl, Coaches All America Bowl and the Hula Bowl. In 1968 he coached the West to victory in the Shrine East-West game in San Francisco.

Under Coach Devaney's guidance, eight Cornhuskers have gained All America honors and 45 players have earned All Big 8 recognition.

Devaney's impact on Nebraska football can also be shown by the fact that Memorial Stadium has been enlarged four times since his arrival and now is the largest with a capacity of over 67,000. The 1970 Huskers will play on a brand new AstroTurf field and the Nebraska press box, with its beautiful guest section, ranks as the finest in the nation.

Nebraska fans have swarmed to Memorial Stadium, supporting Devaney and his players with enthusiasm and acres of red clothing. In 1969 Nebraska ranked third in the nation in total attendance and fourth in average attendance among all colleges.

Prior to his arrival at Nebraska, Coach Devaney spent five years at Wyoming where his teams had a fine 35-10-5 mark. After a brilliant high school career at Alpena, Michigan where his teams won 52 and lost only 9, the Alma College graduate joined the Michigan State staff under both Biggie Munn and Duffy Daugherty.

Coach Devaney became athletic director at the University of Nebraska in 1967.

He's married to the former Phyllis Wiley and the Devaney's have two children, Mike and Patricia—both 1966 Nebraska graduates—and one granddaughter.

BOB DEVANEY MAINTAINS PACE AS WINNINGEST COACH IN NATION

Nebraska's Bob Devaney once again heads into the 1970 football season as the winningest football coach in the nation, a title he has held continuously since 1965.

Devaney's lifetime record is 103 victories, 28 defeats and five ties, good for a winning percentage of .786.

Johnny Vaught of Mississippi ranks second with .766, while Dan Devine of Missouri is third with .764. Rounding out the top five are Paul Bryant of Alabama with .763 and John McKay of Southern California with .760.

The top coaches in the nation, based on winning percentage:

CALL HIM BOB!

"Is it De-Vane-y or is it De-Van-y?"

That's the question most frequently asked by sportscasters and sportswriters when the subject of Nebraska football comes up.

The answer: De-VAN-y.

TWO CORNHUSKER PLAYERS TACKLED BY INNOCENTS

Senior defensive halfback John Decker and junior squadman Jimmie Smith were tackled for membership in the Innocents Society during Ivy Day festivities last spring.

Decker wound up spring drills as a No. 1 cornerback, while Smith—also defensive back—was hampered by injuries and is slated to miss fall camp.

The Innocents Society—NU Ticket Director Jim Pittenger is the group's faculty advisor, by the way—is the University of Nebraska's Senior Men's Honorary.

Nebraska assistant coach Bill (Thunder) Thornton was tackled for membership during his junior year (1962).

PHOTO DAY

Nebraska's fall Photo Day is scheduled for Sunday, August 23—the day after the Shrine All Star game debut on AstroTurf and the day before the Cornhuskers start the 1970 practice session.

Photo Day will commence at 1:30 p.m. (CDT), with the annual squad picture and following that the press, radio and TV reporters will take over for their needs.

All media representatives are invited. Any special requests or needs should be directed to the Sports Information Office, 109 Coliseum.

MEMORIAL STADIUM GETS 'NEW LOOK' WITH SYNTHETIC GRASS—AstroTurf

Already boasting the largest stadium in the Big 8 and one of the nation's most beautiful press facilities, the University of Nebraska this fall will cap the Bob Devaney-era improvement program by installing Astro Turf.

NU Regents gave the approval to the $250,000 project in May and the new synthetic turf is slated for completion in time for the Shrine High School All Star game, August 22.

AstroTurf, made by Monsanto, is a grass-like artificial layer which is glued to a cushion of foam-like plastic mounted on a six-inch bed of asphalt.

Nebraska will be one of four Big 8 schools installing synthetic turf this summer—joining Oklahoma (Tartan), Kansas (Tartan) and Kansas State (AstroTurf).

The 1970 project is the fifth major capital improvement for Memorial Stadium— all without use of tax funds—since Bob Devaney arrived in 1962 and launched the Cornhuskers into national prominence.

Here is the list:

1964—South end zone section installed, making the Stadium a horseshoe, raising capacity to the 48,000 mark.

1965—Center portion of north end-zone section added, raising capacity to more than 53,000.

1966—Both wings of the north end-zone added, raising capacity to more than 65,000 and making Memorial Stadium into a bowl.

1967—New press box, with guest section, added, providing a beautiful and practical working facility as well as raising capacity to more than 67,000.

1969—Installation of AstroTurf, making Nebraska's Memorial Stadium one of the largest, most attractive and functional intercollegiate plants in the nation.

VETERAN PRESS CREW CHARTS HUSKER GAMES

The Nebraska press corps which follows the Cornhuskers at home and away will have a veteran look in 1970.

Dean of the contingent is Wally Provost of the Omaha World Herald. Other "oldtimers" are Hal Brown of the Lincoln Star, Don Forsythe of the Lincoln Journal, and Conde Sargent and Tom Allan, both of the World Herald.

NEBRASKA'S MULTI-PURPOSE 'PRESS BOX' RANKS AMONG THE NATION'S FINEST

Sportswriters and broadcasters who work in Nebraska's spacious and functional new Information Center are unanimous in tabbing the Cornhusker press box one of the finest—if not the best in the nation.

Financed by the Athletic Department in cooperation with dedicated Cornhusker fans who helped secure a first-class press-radio-TV facility, the Nebraska Information Center cost more than $500,000. No tax money was involved in the construction or operation.

The first level is where the working press and radio people labor. On the front row, some 50 writers can be accommodated, while the second row is devoted to over-flow writers, scouts, statisticians and Western Union. There is a lounge area, with snack bar, where catered pre-game luncheons are available to the working newsmen.

Also located on the first level are nine radio booths, coaches booths, scoreboard and clock booth, statistics center, office, photo dark room, rest room, maintenance room and a communications room.

The second level of the heated and air-conditioned structure contains two movie and news photo wings, the public address booth and Section 300, which includes 316 theater seats for the Husker Achievement Award Contributors who helped make the press box a reality.

Husker Award members who agreed to contribute $1,000 per year for five years in addition to their regular $1,000 gift for scholarships, have the option to purchase four seats at a premium price in the area. The area also includes a snack bar (regular stadium fare at regular prices and no liquor), rest rooms and film change rooms.

Level No. 3 is restricted to television, movie and news photographers. It's an open-air deck atop the giant structure which stretches between the 25-yard lines.

Underneath the press box, in the area formerly covered by the old press box, Section 200. Husker fans who wanted to help construct the press box by contributing $500 per year for five years have the option on four seats at a premium price in this area.

The Nebraska Information Center is serviced by two high-speed (ground to top in 10 to 12 seconds) elevators.

As a special service to writers and broadcasters, coed members of the Air Force ROTC Auxiliary, Angel Flight, are on hand in the press box to help find seats, answer questions and serve coffee and soft drinks during the game.

PRESS BOX CREDENTIALS

As a general rule, working space in the Nebraska press box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for Sunday publication; (2) sports editors only of Nebraska daily newspapers; (3) radio personnel needed for those stations broadcasting live; (4) school publication (official daily papers) representatives; (5) approved special coverage: Weekly press representatives and non-broadcasting radio representatives cannot be accommodated. Visiting newsmen, may get tickets early by writing or at will call booth at south end of West Stadium. Special requests should be directed to Don Bryant, Sports Information Director, 109 Coliseum, Lincoln, Nebraska 68508.

CORNHUSKER LEGEND

Prior to 1900, Nebraska football teams were known by such names as the Old Gold Knights, Antelopes and the Bugeaters.

But in 1900, Lincoln sportswriter Charles S. (Cy) Sherman, who was to gain national renown as the sports editor of the Lincoln Star—he also helped originate the Associated Press ranking poll—tired of referring to the Nebraska teams in such an unglamorous term as Bugeaters.

Iowa had from time to time been called the Cornhuskers, and the name appealed to Cy. Iowa partisans seemed to prefer Hawkeyes, so Cy started referring to the Nebraska team as Cornhuskers and the 1900 team was first to bear that label.

Of course, the name caught on and became a Nebraska by-word.

There is no official symbol of a Cornhusker and various cartoonists have caricatured the mystical something that typifies Nebraska football. At the present time, the University of Nebraska Athletic Department uses as its symbol a caricature of the great Nebraska fan—the fellow attired from head to foot in red.

The drawing of Big Red—by artist Bill Goggins—first appeared in the Nebraska Farmer and that publication has given permission for the University of Nebraska Athletic Department to use Mr. Big Red.

ADMINISTRATION
BOARD OF REGENTS

NEBRASKA'S CHANCELLOR

D. B. VARNER

Durwood B. "Woody" Varner became chancellor of the University of Nebraska with University-wide responsibilities on February 1, 1970 after having served 10 years as chancellor of Oakland University in the Michigan State System at Rochester, Michigan.

He succeeded Dr. Merk Hobson who served as acting chancellor and later as chancellor after Dr. Clifford M. Hardin became U.S. Secretary of Agriculture on January 20, 1969.

Varner, 53, is the chief executive officer of the University of Nebraska which includes the University campuses in Lincoln and all outstate activities; the University of Nebraska at Omaha, and the University Medical Center at Omaha.

The Chancellor is a native of Texas and graduated from Texas A&M in 1940. He received a master's degree in political science and economics from the University of Chicago in 1949.

Varner began his career as assistant to the president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, Texas, in 1940. He served four years in the Armed Services during World War II and attained the rank of lieutenant colonel. Following military service, he served as assistant dean of students at Texas A&M.

From 1949 to 1959, he was a faculty member at Michigan State University at East Lansing. He first served as assistant professor of agriculture and was director of the Cooperative Extension Service from 1952-55. From 1955-59, he was vice president of Michigan State University in charge of off-campus education programs and director of continuing education.

In 1959, he was named Chancellor of Oakland University, a new institution and helped lay the plans for it. Under his leadership, the University advanced quickly in both size and academic distinction. From its beginning with 570 students in 1959, the enrollment at Oakland University has grown to more than 5,800 and is expected to reach 11,000 by 1975.

Varner and his wife, Paula are the parents of three children: Susan, a student at Lincoln Southeast High School; Judith, now Mrs. Arthur Seaman of Hartford, Conn., and Tom of St. Clair, Michigan.

DR. JOSEPH SOSHNIK

Nebraska's President Lincoln Campuses and Outstate Activities

Dr. Joseph Soshnik is President of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln Campuses and Outstate Activities. He assumed this post November 1, 1968.

A native of Omaha, Dr. Soshnik has been a member of the University staff for 13 years, and served as Corporation Secretary for 6½ years. He was one of the first vice chancellors of the University, appointed in 1962. Four years later his title was changed to Vice Chancellor for Administration. He also holds the rank of Professor of Business Administration.

Dr. Soshnik received his undergraduate degree from Creighton University with highest honors in 1941. He received a Masters degree from the University of Denver in 1943 and completed his Ph.D. at the University of Nebraska in 1952. During World War II he served with the U.S. Navy as an intelligence officer in the Southwest Pacific.

For several years he was associated with Creighton University, both as a member of the teaching faculty and an administrator.

Dr. Soshnik is active in a variety of endeavors in higher education. He serves with the higher education advisory committee for the Midwest Regional Conference of the Council of State Governments and with the American Council on Education's taxation committee. He is chairman of the Nebraska Commission for the Higher Education Facilities Act. He is a director of the Nebraska Council on Economic Education and of the Nebraska Educational Television Council for Higher Education.

Dr. Soshnik and his wife, Miriam, have two unmarried sons, Allan and Robert, and one married son, David, who also resides in Lincoln.

DEAN JOHN R. DAVIS

Big 8
Faculty Representative

Dr. John R. Davis joined the University of Nebraska faculty in 1964 as professor of agricultural engineering, and succeeded the late Lloyd W. Hurlbut as chairman of that department in January, 1965. He became dean of the College of Engineering and Architecture on September 1, 1965.

Prior to joining the Nebraska staff, Dr. Davis was in charge of contract research in water resources at the Stanford Research Institute. From 1947 to 1962, he served on the faculty of the Department of Irrigation, University of California, Davis, where he devoted most of his time to the graduate program.

A native of Minneapolis, Minnesota, he holds B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Minnesota, and a Ph.D from Michigan State University, where he served as an instructor from 1951 to 1955. He later joined Purdue University as assistant professor in charge of teaching and research programs in soil and water in agricultural engineering.

Dr. Davis is a member of a number of honorary and professional societies, including the National Society for Professional Engineers, American Society for Engineering Education, American Society of Agricultural Engineers, and American Society of Civil Engineers. He is currently a member of the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors of Engineers' Council for Professional Development. He is the author of over 70 technical bulletins and articles and is a registered professional engineer in Nebraska and California.

Dean Davis and his wife Lois, have a son Joel, now in the service, and three daughters, Jacque, Michele and Robin. (Office Phone: 472-3181 Home: 488-2414).

BOWL SCOUTS KEEP CLOSE TABS ON NEBRASKA EACH YEAR

Post-season team pickers have ranked the Nebraska Cornhuskers as a bowl contender eight straight years under Coach Bob Devaney, and six of those seasons the Cornhuskers have swung into colorful action after the regular season.

Nebraska continues to be a magic name with the bowl officials because Bob Devaney's teams play tough, exciting and colorful football, and Cornhusker fans follow their beloved Big Red anywhere, anytime.

Last year, for example, the Cornhuskers whacked Georgia, 45-6, in the Sun Bowl and the 7,000-plus Nebraskans who trekked to El Paso set a visiting team record.

Nebraska fans have established similar records at the Orange Bowl, Sugar and Cotton Bowls in years past. It's interesting to note that in 1964, the Huskers received some 17,000 Cotton Bowl orders for the allotted 12,000 seats—most of them post-marked on the day ticket orders were permitted to start.

Overall, Nebraska is 3-5-0 in post-season play, but Devaney-coached teams are 3-3-0.

Nebraska is the only Big 8 school ever to be invited to the Rose Bowl and the only Big 8 school to have the distinction of playing in all four of the major bowls—Rose, Orange, Cotton and Sugar.

The Huskers' first Bowl game was the 1941 Rose Bowl contest in which the Big 6 champions put up a heroic and colorful struggle before dropping a 21-13 decision to the great Stanford team, coached by Clark Shaughnessey and quarterbacked by Frankie Albert as the nation went T-crazy.

Duke socked the Huskers, 34-7, in the 1955 Orange Bowl game as Nebraska got a bid because Oklahoma was not permitted to make a second successive appearance in Miami due to Big 8 legislation.

Devaney made short work of changing Nebraska's bowl image. His 1962 team out-skated Miami U., and George Mira, 36-34, on the frozen turf of Yankee Stadium in the final Gotham Bowl game. In 1963 the Huskers took a great 13-7 victory over Auburn in the 1964 Orange Bowl game, pepped by a 68-yard TD run by Dennis Claridge and a pair of record field goals by Dave Theisen.

Arkansas won the Grantland Rice Trophy by nipping Nebraska, 10-7, in the final minutes of the 1965 Cotton Bowl game, and Alabama took home the national championship—at Nebraska's expense—the following year when the unbeaten and No. 3 ranked Huskers dropped a 39-28 decision in the 1966 Orange Bowl game despite a record-matching three TD passes by Bobby Churchich.

Alabama spoiled Nebraska's Sugar Bowl trip in 1967 by defeating the Huskers, 34-7, but Devaney's Big Red regained their bowl lustre last December against Georgia and head into 1970 with high hopes for another successful season.

DEACONS EYE IMPROVEMENT

1970 Prospects: Wake Forest, a late addition to Nebraska's schedule, has a long and colorful football history and this year the Demon Deacons will shoot for continued improvement under second-year coach Cal Stoll.

SERIES RECORD

This will be the first meeting between Nebraska and Wake Forest. One note of interest: Paul Amen, former Cornhusker multiple-sport star and now president at the National Bank of Commerce in Lincoln, formerly served as head coach of the Demon Deacons.

TROJANS SMELL ROSES AGAIN

1970 Prospects: USC will be well fortified for a run of a record five straight Rose Bowl appearances: Chief reason for optimism is summed up by Coach John McKay this way: "Our starting backfield returns intact." He's talking about QB Jimmy Jones (13 TD passes, MVP Award as a soph). Tailback Bob Chandler and Fullback Charlie Evans. Chief problems appear to be in rebuilding the offensive line.

SERIES RECORD

This will be the second meeting between the Cornhuskers and the Trojans. Last year in Lincoln the Huskers fought back from a 28-7 deficit to 21-21 before losing 28-21 in the 1969 opener.

Sports Information Director: Robert Kinney (Office: AC 914-938-3303; Home: 914-564-0696).

CADETS LOOK STRONGER

1970 Prospects: Army had its first losing season (4-5-1) under Tom Cahill after three great years, but the Cadets are set to battle back in 1970. They'll miss Halfback star Lynne Moore, but graduation losses aren't so great as a year ago. Look for the Cadets to be a solid Eastern contender.

SERIES RECORD

Nebraska will attempt to even the count at 2-2 in 1970. The Cadets won the first two meetings—13-3 in 1928 and 42-0 in 1957, with the Huskers winning the last time out, 14-9, in Lincoln.

AL LARSON VOTED TOM NOVAK TROPHY

Al Larson, outstanding monster defensive back, was voted the 1969 winner of the Tom Novak Trophy, presented annually by J. Gordon Roberts of Omaha.

The trophy, established by Mr. Roberts in 1950, is presented to the Husker senior who "best exemplifies courage and determination despite all odds in the manner of Nebraska All America center Tom Novak." Sportswriters and broadcasters who cover all Nebraska games vote on the award.

Winners of the Tom Novak Trophy:

1950—Charles Toogood (Tackle)	1960—Pat Fischer (Quarterback)
1951—Frank Simon (End)	1961—Don Purcell (End)
1952—Ed Husmann (Tackle)	1962—Dwain Carlson (Guard)
1953—Ted Connor (Tackle)	1963—Dennis Claridge (Quarterback)
1954—Bob Wagner (Guard)	1964—Lyle Sittler (Center)
1955—Rex Fischer (Halfback)	1965—Tony Jeter (End)
1956—LaVerne Torczon (Guard)	1966—Larry Wachholtz (Defensive Back)
1957—Jerry Brown (Fullback)	1967—Wayne Meylan (Middle Guard)
1958—Dick McCashland (Fullback)	1968—Ernie Sigler (Quarterback)
1959—Harry Tolly (Quarterback)	1969—Al Larson (Defensive Back)

STATISTICS CREW

Nebraska will again have a veteran crew of statisticians working in the new press box during the 1970 football games.

Joe Iverson of Omaha is the chief statistician and the other members of the crew are Jake Geier, Dale Wismer of Lincoln, Nay Deines of Grand Island, Tony Kuzelka of Lincoln, Byron Darrington of Lincoln, Glenn Sloan of Lincoln, and Dick Grell of Lincoln.

Ken Peitsch is the Huskers' chief play-by-play man.

CORNHUSKER MARCHING BAND

Sunshine Girl Dianne Tangeman

MARCHING BAND

Always one of the highlights of a Nebraska football game is the performance of the Cornhusker Marching Band, a 175-man aggregation of outstanding musicians selected via competitive auditions.

Miss Dianne Tangeman, Omaha Sophomore, is Nebraska's Sunshine Girl again this fall. She succeeded Miss Susie Kunc of Wilber who served for four years after Joyce Burns graduated. Jeff Klintberg of Laurel again is the head Drum Major.

The marching band is one of several outstanding musical groups at the university—the Symphonic Band, top performing organization, the Collegiate Band, the ROTC Band, the Brass Ensemble, the Woodwind Choir and the Brass Choir.

The Cornhusker Band provided a sparkling Sun Bowl half-time show, marking its seventh bowl appearance. It is the only Big 8 band to perform in the Rose, Orange, Cotton and Sugar Bowl circuit and now adds the Sun Bowl to its list of achievements.

DON LENTZ, JACK SNIDER—GREAT BATON TEAM

The University of Nebraska is fortunate to have two outstanding musical experts directing its fine band program—Donald A. Lentz, who is Director of Bands, and Jack R. Snider, Assistant Director of Bands and director of the Cornhusker Marching Band.

DON LENTZ

Mr. Lentz is nationally known as an outstanding flute player, composer and author. Heading the Nebraska band program since 1937—he is the father of Band Day, which has become a national by-word—he previously played under some of the world's great conductors in the New York Symphony, the Barrere Symphony, the Sousa Band, and in the theater, ballet and radio.

Prof. Lentz is an expert in the field of oriental scale systems, having studied the Hindu, Thai and Indonesian scale systems in the Orient in 1956-57 and 1962. He has recently authored a book, "Tones and Intervals of Hindu Classical Music." Among his band compositions are "Bakonian Legend," "Panomime," and "Samana."

Prof. Snider has worked closely with Mr. Lentz in the development of the Nebraska band program, and has been most active in directing the Marching Band. He also directs the Collegiate and ROTC bands, the Brass Ensemble and Brass Choir.

BLEND OF SUPER SOPHS, VETERAN LEADERSHIP, GREAT COACHING SPELLS NU TITLE

When historians refer to the 1969 Big 8 football season, they'll note that Missouri and Nebraska tied for the championship. They should dig a bit deeper and discover that the play of the Cornhuskers bordered on the phenomenal.

After all, Missouri was figured to win or at least leg-rattle Oklahoma for the crown. But Nebraska was written off as a fifth-place finisher at best.

Coach Bob Devaney—who was to celebrate his 100th coaching victory during 1969—and the Cornhuskers, however, flipped the brims of their hats at the experts and staged one of the truly fine gridiron dramas of 1969.

It was to be a building year, with no experienced quarterbacks and an offensive line that featured five strangers to their assigned positions. Then, Joe Orduna—who was the Huskers' leading gainer and scorer in 1968—was cut down by knee surgery in fall camp, and many figured Nebraska might be declared a disaster area.

Not so, however, as Devaney rallied his forces, played mighty Southern California to the wire, rapped Minnesota and Texas A&M during a re-grouping period and then headed into Big 8 play. Lost during this early going was Orduna's back-up man Frank Vactor and Devaney shifted sophomore Jeff Kinney into the vital I-Back spot.

That meant two rookies in the backfield, since the quarterbacking was assigned to either Van Brownson or Jerry Tagge. Nebraska was to take on a polished look as the season progressed and these three youngsters came on like gangbusters.

With QBs who could throw the ball and run when pressed, as well as a solid runner in Kinney and some great receivers in Kinney, Jim McFarland, Larry Frost and Guy Ingles—all fronted by an offensive line with pride and dedication—the Cornhuskers took on a new look.

And all the while the defense—which was supposed to be outstanding—lived up to its rave notices. Texas A&M was shut out for the first time in 26 games and Minnesota was clobbered. Backs like Dana Stephenson, Al Larson, Jim Anderson and Randy Reeves were intercepting passes, linebackers Jerry Murtaugh and Adrian Fiala were plugging what few holes opened in the front wall and the Fearsome Fivesome of Mike Wynn, Sherwin Jarmon, Dave Walline, Bob Liggett and Ken Geddes was making life miserable for opposing backs.

The Big 8 season opened on a sour note as Nebraska fumbled—and got the bomb treatment, too—away a 17-7 decision to the great Missouri Tigers. A week later things looked grim again, but Kansas rattled in the late stages while holding a 17-14 lead and the Cornhuskers roared back to win 21-17 and launch their brilliant drive.

No matter how dark things were to look from that point on, Nebraska was for real and nothing could stem their march toward the throne room. Defense sparkled as Oklahoma State fell, 13-3; Stephenson intercepted three passes to set up a 20-7 rout of Colorado; Iowa State was dumped 17-3 and all of a sudden Nebraska was in the championship picture.

All that was required were road victories over high-flying Kansas State and potent Oklahoma—something the experts said in both instances was impossible.

But down to Manhattan went the Huskers and the defensive Black Shirts even spotted the Wildcats a touchdown. Then the door slammed shut on Lynn Dickey and Co., as the Husker offense—pepped by fullback Dan Schnellss—roared home with a 10-7 victory and a Sun Bowl bid.

All the Husker marbles went on the line at Norman. Devaney teams hadn't been able to win there before and Steve Owens was putting the finishing touches on the Heisman Trophy acquisition—another overwhelming assignment.

And once again the Cornhuskers spotted Oklahoma a lead in the opening minutes. But pride and dedication again came to the fore. With the offensive line—Paul Topliff, Bob Newton, Carl Ashman, Gale Williams and Glenn Patterson—leading the way, NU marched 96-yards to tie it up.

After that the rout was on as the Huskers—pepped by Brownson's quarterbacking and Kinney's running—stormed to a 37-7 lead before turning the action over to the reserves. The Black Shirts even kept Owens from scoring or netting 100 yards—a brilliant show.

So Nebraska went to the Sun Bowl as the co-champions of the Big 8 Conference and boasting an 8-2 record, the eighth bowl game for the Huskers and sixth in eight years under Devaney. Not bad for a team picked fifth in September. Result: Nebraska 45, Georgia 6.

Credit? Everyone shares in a true team effort. But Coach Devaney rates a low bow for one of his finest jobs and ditto for his fine staff. And don't forget co-captains Mike Green and Stephenson, as well as all the other seniors, for a tremendous job of leadership.

All told, it was an inspiring Cornhusker season, and now Nebraska looks forward to 1970—with high hopes for some of the 1960's great success to carry over into the new decade.

CHAMPIONSHIP TRAIL REVISITED

HUSKER RALLY FALLS SHORT AS U.S.C. TROJANS WIN, 31-21

Lincoln, Nebraska—Sept. 20, 1969—Nebraska's Cornhuskers with a rebuilt squad and minus star Joe Orduna opened the Centennial Year against the mighty Southern California Trojans. Some 67,058 fans saw the Trojans strike for a 14-0 lead before the young Huskers regrouped and fought back to a 28-21 deficit before losing 31-21.

U.S.C. drove 80 yards to score, then hit a 45-yard TD pass to lead 14-0 in the second quarter. A 36-yard run by Larry Frost got Nebraska rolling and Soph QB Van Brownson tallied with 5:09 left in the half to get NU back in the game. However, a Husker fumble enabled the Trojans to lead 21-7 at halftime.

After U.S.C. opened the gap to 28-7 in the third quarter, Jerry Tagge came in to spark a fourth quarter rally that had the fans roaring. The big NU Soph skippered a 46-yard drive that ended with Jeff Kinney scoring with 6:31 left to play.

Nebraska recovered the onside kick and the Huskers again drove 47-yards to score, pulling up 28-21 with 3:40 left.

The Huskers got one more chance, but Tagge's pass was intercepted deep in NU territory and U.S.C. got an insurance field goal in the final seconds.

NEBRASKA SCORES EARLY, LETS DEFENSE THROTTLE AGGIES, 14-0

Lincoln, Nebraska—September 27, 1969—Defense was to become a Nebraska trademark and the Husker Black Shirts really got rolling against Texas A&M.

Nebraska scored twice in the first half for a 14-0 lead, then the Black Shirts took over to shut out the Aggies for the first time in 26 games. In one of their top efforts, the Black Shirts held the Aggies to only 35 yards rushing and 136 yards passing.

Van Brownson and Jerry Tagge each engineered TD drives for the Huskers. In the first quarter, Van drove the Big Red to the A&M 33 where a field goal failed. But on the next play Jimmy Anderson intercepted an Aggie pass and returned it to the 3.

Jeff Kinney tore up the middle for a TD with 6:56 left in the first quarter.

Brownson twisted his ankle and in the second quarter, Tagge moved the Huskers 93 yards to score the clincher. Tagge plunged the final one yard with 2:54 left in the half.

Nebraska tried two other unsuccessful field goals in the defensive struggle that remained.

TAGGE SETS RECORD AS HUSKERS ROMP OVER MINNESOTA, 42-14

Minneapolis, Minn.—October 4, 1969—Husker sophomore, Jerry Tagge set a total offense record as Nebraska routed the Minnesota Gophers, 42-14, before 52,136 fans.

Tagge hit 15 of 23 passes for 219 yards and ran for another 82 yards, giving him 301 yards total offense and snapping the old record of 264 set by John Bordogna against Iowa State in 1951 and tied by Frank Patrick against Oklahoma in 1967.

Minnesota twice led the Huskers in the first half, but the Huskers battled back for a 14-14 tie and then whacked the Gophers for 28 points in the final two quarters.

After the Gophers went in for 7-0, Nebraska tied it at 7-7 on a 12-yard halfback pass from Jeff Kinney to Guy Ingles. The Huskers almost got another in the second quarter, but Kinney's pass was picked off by a Gopher who ran 99 yards for a 14-7 lead. Tagge needed just four plays to even the count and he fired a 39-yard TD pass to Larry Frost for the half-time tie.

FLASHBACKS Continued

In the third period, Kinney capped a 17-yard drive with a one-yard TD plunge, and Frost took a 43-yard pass from Tagge for a 28-14 lead at the three quarter mark.

Nebraska wrapped it up with a 3-play, 53-yard drive and a 24-yard TD run by Jeff Hughes in the fourth quarter.

All told, Nebraska piled up 587 yards in total offense, second best mark in Husker history.

MISSOURI STRIKES EARLY
OUTLASTS CORNHUSKERS, 17-7

Columbia, Missouri—October 11, 1969—Missouri's Tigers tossed an early bomb at Nebraska and went on to register a 17-7 victory before 60,500 fans in the initial Big 8 game for each team.

The first time the Tigers got the ball Terry McMillan tossed a 69-yard TD pass to speedster Mel Gray for a 7-0 lead with only 2:11 played in the game.

Nebraska fought on even terms from that point until late in the second quarter when a Husker fumble gave Missouri the ball on the NU 16 with only :21 left in the half. McMillan hit Shyrook for another Tiger tally with :09 left.

The Cornhuskers got back in the game early in the third quarter when Jerry Tagge flipped a short pass to Jeff Kinney, who broke two tackles and sprinted 77 yards to score, cutting the gap to 14-7.

Jon Staggers returned the ensuing kickoff 41 yards and the Tigers drove to the Husker 31. On fourth down Brown kicked a 48-yard field goal to ice the Tiger victory and even the Huskers' record at 2-2.

PATENTED HUSKER COMEBACK SOCKS JAYHAWKS, 21-17

Lincoln, Nebraska—October 18, 1969—Nebraska combined Kansas misdeeds with its own patented, last-ditch comeback efforts to pull out a 21-17 victory over the Kansas Jayhawks before 66,667 fans.

Kansas took a 17-14 lead with 14:29 left in the game, but the Huskers fought back to achieve victory just as they had on 13 prior occasions under Coach Bob Devaney under similar conditions.

Stopping KU at the Husker 12 late in the fourth quarter, the Huskers moved 88 yards to score the winning TD with only 1:22 left in the game.

Jerry Tagge hit four passes and the Jayhawks chipped in with a pass interference and two personal foul penalties to aid the Husker cause. Jeff Kinney banged over from the three for the clincher.

Paul Rogers kicked two first quarter field goals—the first a Big 8 record 55-yarder—and Kinney made it 14-7 at the half. But KU came back to tie 14-14 in the third quarter.

John Mosier's 24-yard field goal gave the Jayhawks upset hopes, but the poised Cornhuskers couldn't be stopped as they picked up win No. 3 and evened their Big 8 mark at 1-1.

Nebraska out-downed KU 24-16 and out-yarded the Jayhawks 392-352 as Tagge hit 23 of 36 passes for 260 yards.

HUSKER BLACKSHIRTS THROTTLE OKLAHOMA STATE COWBOYS, 13-3

Lincoln, Nebraska—October 25, 1969—Defense was the name of the game as Nebraska won its fourth game of the season, 13-3, over the Oklahoma State Cowboys before 66,421 fans.

The Husker defensive platoon held the Cowboys to only 43 yards on the ground and 78 yards through the air for a measley 121 yard total.

Meanwhile, the Scarlet offense, while muffing a couple of scoring chances, piled up 397 yards for a good day.

Nebraska took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter and the Huskers were never headed. A 47-yard pass from Jerry Tagge to Guy Ingles, who made a sensational catch, ignited the Huskers. Six plays later the 80-yard drive ended with Tagge's two-yard smash for the TD with 1:29 left in the half.

Preuss kicked a 40-yard field goal to get the Cowboys on the board in the third quarter, but Van Brownson came in to skipper the Huskers 58 yards for the clinching touchdown.

Brownson tossed a 47-yard scoring bomb to Ingles with :14 left in the third quarter.

STEPHENSON INTERCEPTS 3 PASSES AS HUSKERS ROUT BUFFS, 20-7

Lincoln, Nebraska—November 1, 1969—Dana Stephenson swiped three Colorado passes, setting up two Nebraska scores, as the Cornhuskers whacked the Buffaloes, 20-7, before 67,084 happy fans.

Stephenson's three interceptions set a new Nebraska school record, in addition to setting up the Husker win.

Colorado jumped to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter, but the Huskers came back to march to the Buff 18. Paul Rogers kicked a 40-yard field goal to cut the gap to 7-3.

Late in the second quarter, Stephenson made his first theft and the Huskers drove 61 yards to go ahead, 10-7. Jeff Kinney tallied from the four with :35 left in the half.

FLASHBACKS Continued

Shortly after the third quarter started, Dana made his second interception at the CU 32. In three plays, Nebraska had a 17-7 lead as Van Brownson fired a 27-yard TD pass to Dan Schneiss.

A Buff fumble five plays later got Nebraska rolling again, with Rogers kicking a 32-yard field goal. It was Rogers' ninth career field goal, setting a new Husker record.

Nebraska's defense did a tremendous job of stopping Colorado star Bob Anderson for the third straight year. The Buff record-breaker was held to only 42 yards rushing.

HUSKERS KEEP ROLLING WITH 17-3 WIN OVER IOWA STATE

Lincoln, Nebraska—November 8, 1969—Nebraska wound up with a record-breaking home season with a convincing 17-3 victory over Iowa State.

A crowd of 67,107 pushed the Husker home attendance mark over the 400,000 mark.

The Cornhuskers unwound early in the second quarter. Van Brownson fired a 69-yard pass to Jim McFarland, who fought off a tackle and rambled to the Cyclone 11. Two plays later Brownson scored to put NU in front to stay, 7-0.

Iowa State registered a 30-yard field goal to set up the 7-3 halftime score.

Jerry Tagge relieved Brownson in the third quarter and marched the Huskers to a 10-3 lead, thanks to Paul Rogers' 25-yard field goal.

The next time Nebraska got the ball, Tagge skippered them 56 yards to score again. Tagge hit Mike Green for the TD with 4:54 left in the third quarter.

Nebraska's defense again was superb, constantly putting great pressure on Cyclone QB Obert Tisdale, who lost 86 yards, and holding Iowa State to only 27 yards rushing.

HUSKER DEFENSE SHACKLES K-STATE; SCHNEISS PEPS KEY 10-7 VICTORY

Manhattan, Kansas—November 15, 1969—Nebraska's defensive Black Shirts put the clamps on Lynn Dickey and the high-riding Kansas State Wildcats, and fullback Dan Schneiss sparked an offensive comeback that brought the Huskers a thrilling 10-7 win.

Some 40,000 fans jammed K-State's new stadium and the Wildcats struck early. Dickey engineered an 80-yard drive that was helped by a pass interference call at the NU 6. Mack Herron scored for a 7-0 lead with 2:49 left in the first quarter.

But Nebraska's Black Shirts slammed the door from that point on. In the third quarter Van Brownson came in to relieve Jerry Tagge and the Huskers marched into field goal territory. Paul Rogers hit his sixth field goal of the season, tying the NU record, and his 39-yarder cut the Wildcat lead to 7-3 with 6:32 left in the third quarter.

The second time the Huskers got the ball in the fourth quarter, Schneiss went to work. Helped by a Jim McFarland block, Dan tore 34 yards to the Wildcats 14 and on the next play he caught a 12-yard pass to set up the clincher. Brownson sneaked over for the winning TD with 12:08 left in the game.

Nebraska's defense took over and blunted the high-scoring Wildcats at every turn. K-State wound up on the NU six as time ran out, and the Huskers headed for Oklahoma with a chance to tie for the Big 8 title—a long, tough fight had been successful.

NEBRASKA CLINCHES TITLE TIE WITH 44-14 ROUT OF SOONERS

Norman, Oklahoma—November 22, 1969—Nebraska climaxed what most observers called Coach Bob Devaney's finest season by thrashing the Oklahoma Sooners, 44-14, and clinching a tie with Missouri for the Big 8 championship.

As in the past, the Huskers had to come from behind. The Sooners jumped to a 7-0 lead right off the bat, thanks to a wind-blown punt that wound up on the NU 18. But the Scarlets fought back to tie 7-7 on a 96-yard drive, then went up 14-7 at the quarter—with the help of a pass interception—and won going away for a sparkling 8-2 season.

It was a banner day as the Sun Bowl-bound Cornhuskers whacked the Sooners for the first time at Norman under Coach Devaney. Laurels were split between the offense and the defense. With Jeff Kinney scoring three TDs and passing for a fourth while running for 127 yards, the offense put the Sooners in shock.

And the defense stopped All America and Heisman Trophy winner Steve Owens with only 71 yards and no TDs—first time in 17 games—to chalk up another superb performance.

The Huskers led 17-7 at halftime, upped the count to 30-7, at the three-quarter mark and turned the game over to the reserves.

It was a high moment for the Huskers and Coach Devaney and his staff—a return to the Big 8 throne room after a two-year absence.

Mention of Rogers, of course, recalls his toe. He set season, career and Big 8 records with his field goals last fall and could be the nation's premier specialist in 1970. Georgia is still in shock from his four first-quarter boots that ranged from 32 to 50 yards and those kickoffs that left the stadium.

Checking crystal balls in July is always risky, but the Cornhusker future looks something like this:

—Bob Devaney and his proud Cornhuskers again could contend for Big 8 honors.

—Nebraska's offense can be either punishing or explosive, infantry or aerial, providing the interior line problems are solved.

—Nebraska may call upon Paul Rogers any time the Huskers can see the goal posts and have a fair chance to release some balloons.

—Nebraska's defense will be good, as usual, but won't open 1970 as totally devastating as it wound up in 1969.

In short, there is ample evidence to support the diagnosis that Nebraska players, coaches and fans currently are suffering a nervous malady called cautious optimism, tempered with careful concern.

Call it football fever, anticipation, excitement or whatever—it's an annual infection that strikes Nebraskaland.

Cornhusker football wouldn't be the same without it.

FUN IN THE SUN

Rogers Boots Bulldogs Into Sun Bowl Oblivion As Huskers Romp, 45-6

El Paso, Texas—Dec. 20, 1969—Staging one of the greatest kicking sprees of all-time, Nebraska's Paul Rogers literally kicked the Georgia Bulldogs out of the Sun Bowl as the Cornhuskers romped to a 45-6 victory before 31,728 sun-splashed fans.

Nebraska dominated the game from the time almost all the 7,000 Husker boosters swarmed onto the field to welcome the Big Red before the opening kickoff. But it was Rogers who put the Bulldogs to sleep in dramatic fashion and then let his mates gallop at will.

Rogers set a Nebraska and Big 8 record with four field goals in the first quarter, ranging from 50 down to 32 yards, a fete also good for a Big 8 and Nebraska game record and added to his season and career marks.

What a bomb-laden first quarter it was! Rogers got the Huskers rolling early when the first drive bogged down at the Georgia 33. His 50-yarder made it 3-0 and a Bulldog fumble enabled him to try again with 9:40 left, this time from the 32 for a 6-0 margin.

Van Brownson's 45-yard pass to Guy Ingles set up a Jeff Kinney TD plunge and a 15-0 lead with 7:21 left and Rogers added a 42-yarder with 4:54 left after Dana Stephenson picked off a Georgia pass.

Rogers wound up the wild first quarter with a 37-yard kick with :14 left after Jim Anderson had intercepted a pass.

With the Nebraska defense, led by All Big 8 and All America candidate Jerry Murtaugh who won Outstanding Lineman honors, completely shutting off the Georgia attack, Nebraska's offense rolled into high gear after the scoreless second quarter.

The Huskers capped a third-quarter drive of 42 yards after a fumble recovery with a TD pass from Van Brownson to Mike Green. That made it 25-0 with 11:30 left and seconds later Murtaugh intercepted a Georgia pass and sprinted to the Bulldog one. Brownson plunged and it was 32-0 with 10:30 left in the third.

Defense again dominated the rest of the quarter and Nebraska didn't score again until 13:06 remained in the game. Dan Schneiss got the TD on a two yard dive to make the score, 38-0.

Georgia countered with a drive against the Husker reserves, but Nebraska came right back after recovering the Bulldog on-sides kick try and drove 49 yards to make it 45-6 with 4:10 left in the game.

Rogers, of course, won Most Valuable Player honors on the strength of (1) four first quarter field goals; (2) a half-dozen kickoffs that zoomed out of the Bowl; 15 points on the strength of the four FGs and three of four PAT tries.

The sensational victory, which evened Bob Devaney's Nebraska bowl count to 3-3 and his lifetime mark to 4-3, capped a brilliant comeback 9-2 season which included the Big 8 co-championship and a colorful, exciting and victorious visit to hospitable El Paso and Juarez, Mexico.

ED WEIR NAMED TO ALL-TIME ALL AMERICA CENTENNIAL TEAM

Nebraska's two-time All America from the glory days of the 1920s, Ed Weir, in 1969 was named to the All-Time All America team, selected in conjunction with the College Football Centennial.

The modern era (1941 to the present) and the early-era (1906-1940) teams were selected by veteran sportswriters from across the nation.

Weir, a Hall of Fame member, was named to a tackle spot on the early-era team, along with such college greats as Don Hutson of Alabama, Bronko Nagurski of Minnesota, Benny Friedman of Michigan, Sammy Baugh of TCU, Red Grange of Illinois, Ernie Nevers of Stanford, Chris Cagle of Army and Tom Harmon of Michigan.

NOTE: Sam Francis (1934-36), Bernie Masterson (1932-33) and Clarence Swanson (1919-20-21) and Sylvester Shonka (1909-10-11), have been nominated, and Swanson is Nebraska's 1970 nominee.

Nebraska Regent Schwartzkopf Former Rose Bowl, All Big 6 Guard

University of Nebraska Regent Edward (Eddie) Schwartzkopf of Lincoln earned All Big 6 honors as a starting guard on the 1940 Rose Bowl team.

Schwartzkopf, who later coached at Lincoln High School, played against Stanford in the Rose Bowl, then reported for military service. Following World War II, he returned to NU and played his senior season for Bernie Masterson in 1946.

Another Regent, Richard Herman of Omaha, has a Husker football background, too. Dick served as a spotter for KFAB's Lyell Bremser for many years.

OLDTIMERS, DEVANEY ERA

HUSKERS DOMINATE FANS' TEAM

An All-Time University of Nebraska football team, selected by a vote of fans who attended 1969 football games at Memorial Stadium, features some old-timers and a number of Devaney-era players.

A 44-man squad was chosen via ballots in the 1969 football programs. There was no attempt to name an offensive or a defensive team. Players with the most votes at each of 11 positions made the squad, with all other vote-getters earning Honorable Mention.

Largest vote-getter was 1950 All American Halfback Bobby Reynolds, and he wins the honor of captaining the Husker All-Timers.

Quarterback honors went to Dennis Claridge from the early 1960s and Bernie Masterson from the early 1930s.

Halfbacks named by the fans were Bobby Reynolds from the 1950s, and Lloyd Cardwell from the 1930s and Kent McCloughan and Larry Wachholtz from the 1960s.

Fullback honors were swept by the 1930s—George Sauer and Sam Francis.

The ends feature Guy Chamberlin from the pre-1920s era, Clarence Swanson from the 20s and Freeman White and Tony Jeter from the 1960s.

Tackles named were Ed Weir from the '20s, Charley Toogood from the late 1940s and 1950 and Larry Kramer and Walter Barnes from the Devaney era.

Warren Alfson from the 1940 Rose Bowl squad was the only pre-1960 player named to the guard crew. Devaney-coached guards earning spots on the mythical team were Wayne Meylan, Bob Brown and LaVerne Allers.

Two of Nebraska's all-time greats walked away with the honors at center—Charley Brock from the late 1930s and Tom Novak from the late 1940s.

Leading vote-getters at each position were: Ends—Freeman White, Tackles—Ed Weir, Guards—Wayne Meylan and Bob Brown (tie), Centers—Tom Novak, Quarterback—Dennis Claridge, Halfback—Bobby Reynolds, Fullback—Sam Francis.

REDS WHIP WHITES, 23-3, IN ALL SPORTS DAY SCRAP

Lincoln, Neb.—(May 9, 1970)—Pepped by a 97-yard drive and two TDs in the final quarter, the Reds whipped the Whites, 23-3, in the All Sports Day spring football windup at Memorial Stadium. Ironically, it was the final game on the famed turf before AstroTurf went down—and it was a rain-drenched quagmire.

Sloppy footing made efficiency uncommon, but the Reds—who boasted the top performers of the spring—rammed to a 9-0 halftime lead and then broke the game open in the final quarter after the Whites had pulled up, 9-3, and drove to the three.

Taking over after a heavy rush spoiled a fourth down pass, the Jerry Tagge-skipped Reds rolled 97-yards to score, mixing some fine running by Jeff Kinney and a long pass from Tagge to Guy Ingles.

Dan Schneiss bowled the final yard to ice the game with 4:24 left, but the Reds weren't through yet.

Soph Chuck Osberg flipped a left-hand 40-yard strike to Frosh Frosty Anderson with 2:50 left in the game for the final TD of the muddy day.

An unofficial record crowd of 13,000 took in the proceedings.

EX-CORNHUSKER GRIDDER IS MAYOR OF LINCOLN

Lincoln Mayor Sam Schwartzkopf is a former University of Nebraska football player.

Sam, brother of Nebraska Regent Edward Schwartzkopf, played for the Huskers in 1937, 1938 and 1939. He was a starting tackle his senior year.

Mayor Schwartzkopf's administrative assistant is Leo Scherer, Jr., a member of the 1954 Orange Bowl team.

Nebraska Football Attendance Averages Over 65,000 Past Four Years

It's not surprising that some 7,000 Nebraska Cornhusker football fans invaded El Paso, Texas for the 1969 Sun Bowl Classic.

Coach Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers and their faithful fans go together like hot cakes and syrup.

Checking back over the past four years since Nebraska's Memorial Stadium was enlarged to its present capacity of 65,000 with permanent seats of 64,000 it's easy to see why the Beef State ranks as the Football Capital of the Midlands.

In 21 games since Memorial Stadium became a bowl, the Cornhuskers have packed in 1,375,578 fans for home contests. That's an average of 65,503 per game, a commendable mark that can be matched by few other schools.

Sellouts have been commonplace in Cornhuskerland, as the Nebraska team has drawn over 66,000 fans for 11 straight games. The Huskers have attracted over 64,000 fans for 17 of their last 18 games at home.

The only crowd in the last three years to dip below 64,000 was the 1967 game with Oklahoma which was televised nationally on ABC-TV as a Thanksgiving Day feature. Still, 59,792 of the Husker Red Coats chose their Cornhuskers over old Tom Turkey.

Nebraska fans are great road boosters, too, as anywhere from 6,000 to 15,000 Big Red migrate to out-of-town games for regular season games.

During the 1969 season Nebraska ranked No. 3 in the nation in total attendance, packing in a record 400,668 fans for Coach Devaney's eighth straight victorious season. The Big 8 co-champions averaged 66,778, the No. 4 average in the nation.

FOOTBALL IRONY

In 1928 Nebraska was slated for a Rose Bowl bid if the Huskers could beat Army, but Army, coached by Capt. Biff Jones, won 13-3 and cost Nebraska the bid.

Nebraska became the only Big 8 team to play in the Rose Bowl—and the 1941 Husker coach was Maj. Biff Jones.

PRESS TICKET WILL-CALL, ELEVATOR LOCATION

Press, radio and TV credentials may be obtained by mail or will be left at will-call.

Tickets for will-call will be left at the Coliseum Ticket Office Will Call until noon on game days. After that they will be in the West Stadium Ticket Booth, located at the south end of the West Stadium (outside by the fence) until game time. After that, if the Ticket Booth is closed, tickets will be held at the center door of the West Stadium.

Press Elevators

Memorial Stadium press box elevators are located just south of West Stadium middle or main entrance. You must show your press box credentials in order to board the elevators.

If there is a ticket problem, ask the elevator ticket guard to phone Don Bryant in the press box.

STEPHENSON WINS CHAMBERLIN TROPHY

Dana Stephenson, second team All American and All Big 8 defensive back, was the recipient of the third annual Guy Chamberlain Memorial Trophy.

The award, inaugurated in 1967 in memory of the former great Nebraska All America football player who went to both the college and pro Halls of Fame, is presented to the senior player who has shown by the play and contributions to the betterment of the University of Nebraska football squad that he has the qualities and dedication of Guy Chamberlin to the great Cornhusker tradition.

Marv Mueller of Columbus—three-year starter, Academic All America and senior co-captain—was the first recipient. Quarterback Ernie Sigler received the honor 1968. Lincoln Radio Station KFOR has donated the permanent trophy and each recipient will receive a replica through funds contributed by the Chamberlin family and the Champ's many friends following his death in 1967. The Chamberlin Memorial Fund is administered by the University of Nebraska Foundation.

Members of the board of electors are:

Press—Wally Provost, sports editor of the Omaha World Herald

Radio—Dick Perry, sports director of KFOR Radio in Lincoln

Television—Dave Blackwell, sports director of KMTV in Omaha

Alumni N Club President—Charles Wright

Athletic Department—Don Bryant, sports information director

The recipient of the 1970 Chamberlin Trophy will be announced at the annual Extra Point Club football banquet in December.

ELMER DOHRMANN
TOP NU LETTERMAN

Elmer Dohrmann, named to Sports Illustrated's 1962 Silver All America team, is Nebraska's all-time letter champion. Dohrmann won 11 letters during his NU career which spanned 1936-39. He won monograms in football, basketball, track and baseball in his sophomore and junior years and added football, baseball and basketball letters his senior year before passing up track.

ELMER DOHRMANN

Multiple letter leaders since Dohrmann:

- Paul Amen (1936-39)—8 letters
- Bob Cerv (1946-50)—8 letters
- Tom Novak (1946-50)—7 letters
- Mike DiBiase (1946-50)—7 letters

Those Cornhuskers who have gained 6 letters during their careers since Dohrmann set the pace include: Lloyd Cardwell, Bob Mills, Ray Prochaska, Vic Schleich, Ken Hollins, Herb Reese, Bob Reynolds, Charles Bryant, Bill Hawkins and Adrian Fiala.

Top letter-winner at Nebraska since WW II is Bob Cerv, who lettered four years in basketball and baseball. The last Husker to match Amen by lettering in three sports during a single year was Hollins. "Buzz" tripled in football, basketball and track during the 1943-44 and 1944-45 campaigns.
