WHAT'S AHEAD IN 1971?

CORNHUSKERS WILL DEFEND WITH VIGOR

By Don Bryant

Sports Information Director

It was nice while it lasted . . . Fame is fleeting . . . What have you done lately? . . . Don't look back . . . Yeah, you were No. 1 last year, but what about this year?

All of these old saws can and do apply to the 1971 University of Nebraska Cornhuskers.

They were the Big 8 and National Champions in 1970 following an undefeated 11-0-1 season. But that was last year and all the 1971 team can do is play in reflected glory—gain from the past, but plan for the future.

Last year won't count a lick in 1971 and Bob Devaney, his staff and players know it. Any honors that may come their way this fall will have to be produced on the field.

"It was a wonderful experience for all of us to win the national championship," Devaney smiles. "And it would be nice to repeat, but unfortunately none of last year's games can count in this year's standings. We'll have to win a lot of games against a lot of fine teams this year to retain our Big 8 title and gain a high ranking. It will be a tough chore, but a tremendous challenge and one we eagerly accept."

These indicators are present.

—Nebraska will have another fine football team, with 38 lettermen including seven offensive (counting both quarterbacks) and seven defensive starters returning from the 1970 national title team.

—Nebraska's defense will be awesome, generally improved and with the potential to be Devaney's finest.

—Nebraska's offense will be potent, colorful and well-balanced, as usual, but it may have a tough time approaching 1970's explosiveness because of the departure of running back Joe Orduna and split end Guy Ingles.

As yet, no running back the caliber of Orduna has turned up to team with All America candidate Jeff Kinney, and Ingles will be sorely missed even though the Huskers have a number of capable—but relatively inexperienced—receivers. Two-year letterman Jeff Hughes, a speedster and the 1970 punter, All Big 8 Johnny Rodgers and sophomore Glen Garson will bolster the slot-back spot.

Two problem areas of major concern face Coach Bob Devaney and his staff: finding adequate reserves for the offensive line and the defensive backfield in case injuries hit the front line troops.

"We feel we'll have some fine people starting for us on both platoons," Devaney said. "But we learned in the spring that we still need to develop some first-rate alternates. We were lucky injuries didn't hurt us more in 1970, and we can't gamble on an injury-free 1971."

Nebraska will be formidable, offensively, to be sure, because of the presence of two outstanding veteran quarterbacks—Jerry Tagge and Van Brownson—plus a sophomore who has flashed signs he may do some record rewriting of his own before he graduates. He is David Humm, a salty, lefthander out of Las Vegas, Nev., who skippered the 1970 Frosh to an unbeaten record and launched what could be a sensational career.

Tagge and Brownson have shared starting duties for the past two years and the Huskers are 20-2-1 over that span. As sophs they dazzled whenever called upon, with Brownson leading the stretch run and chalking up the key plays in the 45-6 Sun Bowl win over Georgia.

Last year, it was Tagge who got Nebraska rolling early, yielded to Brownson for a mid-season stretch, then expertly guided the Huskers to a strong finish, the Orange Bowl win over LSU and the national championship. Both can pass and both can run and both are record-breakers. Most experts will agree that few teams have a quarterback the equal of either, none have two such outstanding QBs. Toss In Humm and Nebraska's quarterback situation appears solid, indeed.

Adding the biggest punch to the Nebraska backfield will be versatile I-Back Jeff Kinney, one of the finest athletes in Nebraska history. As a soph he stepped into Joe Orduna's injury-vacated spot and led Nebraska's rushing and pass-receiving; as a junior he split starting time with Orduna as both gave Nebraska a brilliant running punch. He's all alone in 1971—there's concern about depth behind him—and rarin' to carry the load.

Fullback is still wide open with veterans Jim Carstens and Bill Olds battling Soph Maury Damkroger. All are capable, but the Huskers may miss Dan Schneiss in the early going until FB spot solidifies.

Up front, the Husker line will be led by three starters from the 1971 title club. Solid All America candidate Dick Rupert returns at left guard, where he sparkled as an outstanding pull-blocker and pass pro man last year. Standout center Doug Dumler, who can be the class of the Big 8 pivots, is back to anchor the middle and Jerry List, who many consider the top tight end in the Big 8, returns as a bonafide star after a great sophomore year. Lettermen Keith Wortman and Carl Johnson look like the best at right guard and right tackle, while soph Daryl White made rapid progress in the spring. It will be another good Nebraska line, but reserve development is a crucial need and All American tackle Bob Newton will be missed.

As always, a big, strong, tough and mobile defense will be a feature of Devaney's 1971 team. Led by All America candidate Larry Jacobson, the 6-6, 250-pound tackle who starred throughout 1970 and the Orange Bowl, Nebraska's defense will have seven returning starters, including Orange Bowl MVL Willie Harper and John Adkins at the ends, linebacker Bob Terrio, and backs Joe Blahak, Jim Anderson and All Big 8 Bill Kosch.

Newcomers all have either letter or JC experience. Rich Glover and Monte Johnson are in the middle guard battle to succeed Eddie Periard, while Bill Janssen, a 1969 letterman who sat out 1970 with an injury, is teaming at right tackle with big John Dutton, a 1970 squadman who did not see action. Transfer Bill Sloey and letterman Bruce Hauge are the top candidates for All America linebacker Jerry Murtaugh's spot and letterman Dave Mason, who also red-shirted in 1970, is the leader at the monster position vacated by Dave Morock.

Losing standouts like Murtaugh, Morock, All Big 8 tackle Dave Walline and All Big 8 middle guard Periard creates some king-sized holes, but the Huskers look like they'll have 'em plugged by fall. Line depth appears outstanding, but backfield depth looms thin and this will be a key area for improvement in fall camp.

Summing up: Nebraska will be a good football team, offensively and defensively, and may challenge for greatness. Just how good is nebulous at this point because of several unanswered questions.

But Bob Devaney puts it this way: "Winning the Big 8 is a tough, almost impossible chore, and counting on it is foolish. Planning on winning the national championship is also foolhardy—nobody has repeated on the AP trophy in the last five years, I notice—and the odds of repeating are like a shot in the dark. But we think we'll have another fine team, so we plan on shooting for both titles just like we do every fall. Who knows? Maybe we'll come along and get some luck—anyway, let's say, Nebraska isn't going to abdicate without a fight."

COACH DEVANEY SAYS:

—1971 Prospects: "We feel we have a good nucleus of returning veterans. However, we still have not found a replacement for Joe Orduna, another I-Back of his caliber to go with Jeff Kinney. We're also not sure of our offensive line depth and our passing in the spring game wasn't as good as we had hoped it would be. Defensively, we feel pretty good. Our line will be as good and our overall defense looks improved, so we plan on continuing to field a strong defensive team. All things considered, we feel we again will have a chance to develop into a fine football team. We certainly are going into 1971 with optimism and determination to defend our Big 8 title and national championship with everything we've got, even though all of us recognize the enormous size of such a task."

Oklahoma State are all guardedly optimistic.

—Biggest Problem: "Right now it looks like our biggest problems in 1971 will be developing depth in the offensive line and the defensive secondary. We've got some outstanding first-team people, but we need some improvement among our reserves."

—Big 8 Race: "It's the same old story. The Big 8 is the finest football conference in the country and it seems to get tougher every year. Oklahoma, with so many returning starters, looks like the team to beat, but teams like Kansas State, Colorado, Kansas and Oklahoma State are all guardedly optimistic. We certainly are planning on being a contender again and hope to successfully defend our title, but at this point it looks like the toughest challenge we've faced in the last 10 years."

BOB DEVANEY

"The Winningest Coach in the Nation"

BOB DEVANEY

Athletic Director and Head Football Coach University of Nebraska

It was a well-deserved and fitting testimonial to Coach Bob Devaney when the 1970 Nebraska Cornhuskers were proclaimed college football's national champions after the 17-12 win over LSU in the Orange Bowl.

Titled the "winningest coach in college football" for the past six years, Devaney has achieved a sensational record of football excellence and athletic department leadership, deserving of the recognition which accompanies the No. 1 status.

Devaney stands alone among coaches who have logged 10 or more years of major competition, with a record of 114 wins, 28 defeats and six ties for an .803 percentage, not counting ties (.791, counting ties).

In nine years at Nebraska, Devaney's teams have won 79, lost only 18 and tied one for a mark of .814. During that span, the Cornhuskers won five Big 8 titles outright and tied for a sixth. They won four straight from 1963 through 1966 and currently are enjoying a two-year championship reign.

No other Nebraska coach has ever logged nine consecutive winning seasons—D. X. Bible had eight—and his teams have been undefeated twice (1965 and 1970) during the regular season. Starting with 1962, here is Devaney's log: 9-2-0, 10-1-0, 9-2-0, 10-1-0, 9-2-0, 6-4-0, 6-4-0, 9-2-0 and 11-0-1. Devaney has led Nebraska teams to the Gotham Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Sun Bowl and Orange Bowl (three times) for seven post-season appearances in nine years and a 4-3-0 record.

Coach Devaney earned Big 8 Coach of the Year honors for the fifth time in 1970 and was also saluted as National Coach of the Year by Football News. He also has been cited five times as NCAA District 5 Coach of the Year.

Constantly in demand as a speaker, clinic lecturer and all-star game coach, Devaney is one of the most active men in intercollegiate athletics. He is also Nebraska's athletic director, a post he's held since 1967 when Tippy Dye moved to Northwestern.

Devaney has served as a coach at many all-star games, including the Coaches All America Game, All America Bowl, Blue-Gray, and the Shrine East-West. In June of 1971 he coached the West team to victory, 33-28, in the Coaches All America Game at Lubbock, Tex., and he directed his North team to victory in the Tampa All America Bowl in January, following NU's Orange Bowl win.

Under Devaney's leadership, 11 Cornhuskers have earned All America honors and 61 have been All Big 8 selections in nine years, while his players have made 79 all-star game appearances.

Prior to rejuvenating Nebraska's football program, Coach Devaney spent five years at Wyoming where his teams had a 35-10-5 record. Devaney started his career at Alpena, Mich., High School where he had a 52-9-0 record, then moved to Michigan State to assist both Biggie Munn and Duffy Daugherty.

Coach Devaney is married to his school days' sweetheart, the former Phyllis Wiley, and the Devaneys have two children, Mike and Patricia, both 1966 graduates of Nebraska. Son Mike presented Devaney with a grandson recruit in June to join a cheerleader granddaughter.

BOB DEVANEY'S CAPSULE BIOGRAPHY

Winningest Coach In Nation

DEVANEY CONTINUES TO RANK NO. 1

Nebraska's Coach Bob Devaney once again ranks No. 1 in the nation, based on winning percentage, among active coaches in the nation who have achieved 75 or more wins.

Devaney's rank is determined by the annual selections of Elmore (Scoop) Hudgins, Southeastern Conference Information Director and President of the College Sports Information Directors of America.

The top coaches in America, who have coached five or more years in major college competition with a minimum of 75 victories (Not Counting Ties in Percentage):

Nebraska First Big 8 Team To Whip Big 10

Nebraska, the only Big 8 team to hold the distinction of playing in all the major bowl games—Rose, Orange, Sugar and Cotton—also was the first team from the Missouri Valley area to defeat a Big 10 team.

The Cornhuskers pulled off the fete when they whipped Iowa, 20-18, in 1893.

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

One of the most explosive teams in the nation, Oregon returns all but two starters from 1970's great team that ranked second, nationally in passing. QB Dan Fouts broke all Oregon records as a soph and the Duck's backfield accounted for almost 5,000 yards last year. One of the toughest openers in Nebraska history.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska defeated Oregon, 28-13, in 1952, and the Ducks won; 20-12, in 1953.

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Murray Warmath, heading into his 18th year as head coach of the University of Minnesota football team, hopes the 1971 Gophers will improve on last fall's 3-6-1 record and 2-4-1 mark in the Big Ten. To accomplish this he must bolster the defense and fashion an offensive line which can clear the way for a potentially strong attack. On the plus side, 31 lettermen, 27 from last year and four from 1969. Although several of these players saw relatively limited action, there are some key men returning. The offensive backfield should be sound with quarterback Craig Curry, halfbacks John Marquesen and Dick Humleker, flanker George Honza and fullbacks Ernie Cook and Lou Clare all back. Curry was the Big Ten's leading passer and ground gainer last year and broke a flock of Gopher passing records.

SERIES RECORD

Nebraska won 35-10 at Minneapolis last year, and the Huskers have won six straight, but Minnesota leads the series, 29-12-2. Complete series results on page 77.

Starters Lost: Offense 1; Defense 1.

Sports Information Director: Spec Gammon (Office: 713-845-1241; Home: 713-822-3572).

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Aggies return 20 of 22 starters from the best 2-9-0 team in the nation last year, and should be a solid SWC entry in 1971. Much depends on QB Lex James' illness recovery, but Aggies will be a rugged opponent for every team they play.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska won 13-0 in 1930, lost 27-0 in 1955 and won, 14-0, at Lincoln in 1963 for a 2-1 lead in the series.

FOURTH GAME

UTAH STATE UNIVERSITY

October 2, 1971—at Memorial Stadium—Lincoln, Nebraska

Starters Lost: Offense 5; Defense 6.

Sports Information Director: Ken Mitchell (Office: 801/752-4100, Ex 7437; Home Phone 801/752-2466).

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Utah State made big waves in 1970 with decisive wins over Kentucky, Wyoming and Memphis State enroute to a 5-5-0 season. The 1971 outlook is for improvement as Coach Chuck Mills heads into his fifth season, but the Aggies again face a rugged schedule. Junior quarterback Tony Adams threw for 1,400 yards and 16 TDs in 1970 and he's got a great target in split end Bob Wicks, who also ranked No. 2 in the nation in punt returns. The Aggie attack is also pepped by all-purpose back John Strycula.

SERIES RECORD

Nebraska won the only encounter between the two schools in 1966, taking a 28-7 decision at Lincoln.

FIFTH GAME

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

October 9, 1971—at Memorial Stadium—Columbia, Missouri

AL ONOFRIO
Head Coach

Game Time: 1:30 p.m. CDT
Location: Columbia, Missouri

Starters Lost: Offense 8; Defense 5.

Sports Information Director: Bill Callahan (Office: AC 314 449-8005; Home: 442-5826).

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Mizzou's quarterback situation is muddled because of late-spring surgery to veteran holdovers Mike Farmer (knee) and Chuck Roper (shoulder) who shared playing time in '70 . . . Farmer expected to be ready but Roper may have to bypass 1971 competition . . . Soph QB Ed Johndrow, star of spring game, could help . . . Tigers need to beef up offensive unit—particularly in the area of running backs—but defensive team will have ten seniors, one sophomore, and should be rugged . . . Good spring progress under new coach Al Onofrio.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska won 21-7 at Lincoln in 1970 and leads the series, 33-28-3. Complete series history on Page 74.

KANSAS

1970 Record: Overall 5-6-0; Big Eight 2-5-0; Conference finish: 6th (Tie).

Sophs to Watch: David Jaynes, Carlos Matthews.

Departed Stars: John Riggins, Steve Lawson.

Returning Lettermen: Offense 20; Defense 16.

Lettermen Lost: Offense 6; Defense 9.

Starters Lost: Offense 4; Defense 3.

Sports Information Director: Jay Simon (Office: 913 UN 4-3417; Home: 913 VI 3-4000).

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

With new coach Don Fambrough at the helm, Kansas will return to its potent Wing-T attack of a few years back. Dan Heck returns at QB and the Jayhawks have 36 veterans with a great deal of potential. Defense should be improved. Look for rookie Fambrough to get the Jayhawks whipped into a stout Big 8 club.

SERIES HISTORY

Last year at Lawrence the two teams exchanged 10 point leads before Nebraska struck for a 41-20 win, and a 53-21-3 series lead. Complete series history on page 75.

Starters Lost: Offense 8; Defense 5.

Sports Information Director: Pat Quinn (Office Phone 405/372-6211; ext-7623; Home Phone 405/377-4654).

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Physically more impressive than in past two seasons. But, woefully short on experience. Cowboys have to rebuild entire offensive line and this means problems but OSU hopes to overcome some of this with enthusiasm and muscle. Defensively the Pokes had problems last year, one of them was the inability to control the ball offensively, but the framework is there for an improved version in 1971.

SERIES RECORD

Nebraska won 65-31 at Lincoln last year and leads the series, 9-2-0. Complete series results on page 76.

EIGHTH GAME

Nov. 20—Air Force (49-19)

1970 Record: Overall 6-5-0; Big Eight 3-4-0; Conference finish: 4th.

Sophs to Watch: QB Ken Johnson, LB Charles Battle, TB Charles Davis.

Returning Lettermen: Offense 11; Defense 16.

Lettermen Lost: Offense 15; Defense 9.

Returning Starters: Offense 5; Defense 5.

Starters Lost: Offense 6; Defense 6.

Sports Information Director: Mike Moran (Office: 303-443-2211; Home: 303-449-2872).

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Colorado again will be a Big 8 contender, thanks to backs like John Tarver and Jon Keyworth, flanker Clifford Branch and defensive end Herb Orvis. The Buffs will be big, strong and fast, but they'll have to rebuild in some areas because graduation took some 1970 stars.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska won, 29-13, at Boulder in 1970 and the Cornhuskers lead the series, 17-11-1. Complete series history on page 76.

NINTH GAME

Starters Lost: Offense 4; Defense 8.

Sports Information Director: Harry Burrell (Office: 515-294-3372. Home: 515-232-8755).

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Cyclones continue successful rebuilding program under Johnny Majors. Quarterbacking good, defensive line improved and linebacking very good with Keith Schroeder. Majors says Iowa State will be improved in 1971.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska won, 54-29, at Ames in 1970 and leads series, 53-11-1. Complete series history on page 75.

TENTH GAME

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

November 13, 1971—at K-State Stadium—Manhattan, Kansas

1970 Record: Overall 6-5-0; Big Eight 5-2-0; Conference finish: Tie—2nd.

Sophs to Watch: HB—Isaac Jackson; TE—Bill Brittain; LB—Kevin Jones.

Departed Stars: QB—Lynn Dickey; FB—Mike Montgomery; LB—Oscar Gibson; DB—Clarence Scott.

Returning Lettermen: Offense 9; Defense 11.

Lettermen Lost: Offense 14; Defense 13.

Returning Starters: Offense 5; Defense 3.

Starters Lost: Offense 6; Defense 8.

Sports Information Director: Dev Nelson (Office Phone 913/532-6574; Home Phone 913/539-6625).

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Kansas State has plenty of holes to fill—particularly in the defensive secondary where graduation wiped out all four starters. Upcoming freshmen and holdover redshirts will play a prominent role in rebuilding Wildcat defense. Defense is anchored by tackles Gary Glatz and Charles Clarington and linebackers Keith Best and Joe Colquitt.

Offensively, Kansas State has switched its emphasis from a pro-style passing offense to a more disciplined running attack. Backs Bill Butler, Tim McLane and several newcomers will lead the Wildcat ground game. Squadman Dennis Morrison is expected to step into Lynn Dickey's role at quarterback. There is depth at wide receiver but only center Steve Beyrle and guard Mo Latimore are returning starters in the offensive line. Here again, newcomers will help patch up the holes.

SERIES RECORD

Nebraska won 51-13 in Lincoln last year and leads the series, 43-10-2. Complete series results on page 74.

Nov. 13—Kansas (28-24)
Nov. 25—Nebraska (ABC TV) (21-28)
Dec. 4—at Oklahoma State (66-6)

1970 Record: Overall 7-4-0; Big Eight 5-2-0; Conference finish: Tie for 2nd.

Stars to Watch: HB Joe Wylie, LB Steve Aycock, QB Jack Mildrin.

Sophs to Watch: DB John Carroll.

Departed Stars: OG Vince LaRosa, ST John Watson, DT Kevin Grandy, DE Rick Mason, LB Steve Casteel, FS Monty Johnson.

Returning Lettermen: Offense 20; Defense 19.

Lettermen Lost: Offense 4; Defense 5.

Returning Starters: Offense 9; Defense 7.

Starters Lost: Offense 2; Defense 4.

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Oklahoma returns 16 starters and 39 lettermen from last year's squad and ranks as a Big 8 contender. Quarterback Jack Mildren is experienced and adept at running OU's Wishbone-T offense and linebacker Steve Aycock will hub te defense that might be the most questionable aspect of Oklahoma's play this fall. Halfbacks Greg Pruitt and Joe Wylie and fullback Leon Crosswhite are all back, giving the Sooners experience offensively. Could be a great team.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska won, 28-21, in Lincoln in 1970 to clinch an undefeated season, but the Sooners hold a 25-22-2 edge in the series. 1971 meeting will be 50th between Huskers and Sooners. Complete series history on page 76.

TWELFTH GAME

1970 Record: Overall 9-2-0

Stars to Watch: TB Larry Sherrer, TE Henry Sovio, LB Randy Ingraham.

Sophs to Watch: TB Albert Holmes, DB Bill Baker, DT Paul Lee.

Returning Lettermen: Offense 15; Defense 14.

Lettermen Lost: Offense 12; Defense 11.

Returning Starters: Offense 5; Defense 2.

Lettermen Lost: Offense 12; Defense 11.

Returning Starters: Offense 5; Defense 2.

Starters Lost: Offense 6; Defense 9.

CAPSULE OUTLOOK

Hawaii had a great 9-2-0 season in 1970, and the Rainbows will have another competitive club in 1971. But graduation hit hard. Coach Dave Holmes must replace nine defensive starters and six offensive starters.

SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska whipped Hawaii, 50-0, at Honolulu in 1954, and the Rainbows upset the Huskers, 6-0, in Lincoln in 1955, so the series stands, 1-1-0.

STATISTICS CREW

Nebraska will again have a veteran crew of statisticians working in the new press box during the 1970 football games.

Joe Iverson of Omaha is the chief statistician and the other members of the crew are Jake Geier, Dale Wismer of Lincoln, Nay Deines of Grand Island, Tony Kuzelka of Lincoln, Byron Darrington of Lincoln, Glenn Sloan of Lincoln, and Dick Grell of Lincoln.

Dedication

The 1971 Nebraska Football Press-Radio-TV Guide is dedicated to Dr. Joseph Sosbnik, who has resigned as the President of the University of Nebraska to enter private business. President Sosbnik once served as acting Athletic Director for the Cornhuskers and has long been a fan of Big Red Sports.

President Nixon: "Number One Team in the Nation!"

No. 1—Nebraska's Biggest TD

N

NEBRASKA'S NO. 1 . . . No team ever won the national championship under more dramatic conditions than did the Nebraska Cornhuskers in 1970. Both Texas and Ohio State—also unbeaten bowl teams—had to lose and Nebraska had to beat LSU in the Orange Bowl.

It all happened, but Nebraska had to come from behind in the last quarter to overcome a 12-10 LSU lead.

The fired-up Cornhuskers, knowing that No. 1 was theirs for the taking, marched 68 yards on a beautifully executed drive against the nation's best defense. Finally, the most dramatic moment of the year—and, perhaps, Nebraska football history—arrived.

Two punches at the Tiger middle had netted four yards and it was third down, and one—just one yard shy of victory and No. 1 with 6:10 gone in the fourth quarter.

Nebraska Quarterback Jerry Tagge, followed Center Doug Dumler, and plowed over the goal-line. And just to make sure, Tagge thrust his hands and the ball deeper into the end zone.

It is this historic moment (opposite page) that was captured in tremendous fashion by Sports Illustrated photographer Walter Ioos. SI, which used the picture in its post-bowls issue, authorized use of this picture in this publication, and the University of Nebraska is grateful.

Tagge's lunge and Nebraska's victory made it all come true—including a visit from President Richard M. Nixon (section cover picture), who came to Lincoln, addressed some 8,000 Cornhusker students and honored the 1970 Nebraska football squad by presenting a plaque to Coach Bob Devaney and co-captains Dan Schneiss and Jerry Murtaugh.

President Nixon's plaque read: "The University of Nebraska, 1970 Football Team . . . Champions of the Big 8 Conference . . . Victors in the 1971 Orange Bowl . . . The Associated Press . . . NUMBER ONE TEAM IN THE NATION . . ."

Thank you, Mr. President!

BOARD OF REGENTS

NEBRASKA'S CHANCELLOR

D. B. VARNER

Durwood B. "Woody" Varner became chancellor of the University of Nebraska with University-wide responsibilities on February 1, 1970 after having served 10 years as chancellor of Oakland University in the Michigan State System at Rochester, Michigan.

He succeeded Dr. Merk Hobson who served as acting chancellor and later as chancellor after Dr. Clifford M. Hardin became U.S. Secretary of Agriculture on January 20, 1969.

Varner, 53, is the chief executive officer of the University of Nebraska which includes the University campuses in Lincoln and all outstate activities; the University of Nebraska at Omaha, and the University Medical Center at Omaha.

The Chancellor is a native of Texas and graduated from Texas A&M in 1940. He received a master's degree in political science and economics from the University of Chicago in 1949.

Varner began his career as assistant to the president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, Texas, in 1940. He served four years in the Armed Services during World War II and attained the rank of lieutenant colonel. Following military service, he served as assistant dean of students at Texas A&M.

From 1949 to 1959, he was a faculty member at Michigan State University at East Lansing. He first served as assistant professor of agriculture and was director of the Cooperative Extension Service from 1952-55. From 1955-59, he was vice president of Michigan State University in charge of off-campus education programs and director of continuing education.

In 1959, he was named Chancellor of Oakland University, a new institution and helped lay the plans for it. Under his leadership, the University advanced quickly in both size and academic distinction. From its beginning with 570 students in 1959, the enrollment at Oakland University has grown to more than 5,800 and is expected to reach 11,000 by 1975.

Varner and his wife, Paula are the parents of three children: Susan, a student at Lincoln Southeast High School; Judith, now Mrs. Arthur Seaman of Hartford, Conn., and Tom of St. Clair, Michigan.

DR. JOSEPH SOSHNIK

Nebraska's President Lincoln Campuses and Outstate Activities

Dr. Joseph Soshnik is President of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln Campuses and Outstate Activities. He assumed this post November 1, 1968 and only recently announced his resignation to enter private business.

A native of Omaha, Dr. Soshnik has been a member of the University staff for 13 years, and served as Corporation Secretary for 6½ years. He was one of the first vice chancellors of the University, appointed in 1962. Four years later his title was changed to Vice Chancellor for Administration. He also holds the rank of Professor of Business Administration.

Dr. Soshnik received his undergraduate degree from Creighton University with highest honors in 1941. He received a Masters degree from the University of Denver in 1943 and completed his Ph.D. at the University of Nebraska in 1952. During World War II he served with the U.S. Navy as an intelligence officer in the Southwest Pacific.

For several years he was associated with Creighton University, both as a member of the teaching faculty and an administrator.

Dr. Soshnik is active in a variety of endeavors in higher education. He serves with the higher education advisory committee for the Midwest Regional Conference of the Council of State Governments and with the American Council on Education's taxation committee. He is chairman of the Nebraska Commission for the Higher Education Facilities Act. He is a director of the Nebraska Council on Economic Education and of the Nebraska Educational Television Council for Higher Education.

Dr. Soshnik and his wife, Miriam, have two unmarried sons, Allan and Robert, and one married son, David, who also resides in Lincoln.

Big 8 Faculty Representative

DR. KEITH L. BROMAN

Dr. Keith L. Broman is the new Big Eight Faculty Representative for the University of Nebraska, succeeding John R. Davis who resigned as Dean of the College of Engineering at Nebraska to accept a post as Director of Agricultural Engineering at Oregon State University in Corvallis.

DR. KEITH L. BROMAN

After graduating from South Bend, Indiana, Central in June of 1940, Dr. Broman attended Indiana University for three years, then transferred to Berea (Kentucky) College. After receiving his Bachelor's degree at Berea in 1944, he entered the Harvard Graduate School of Business while serving as Assistant Supply Officer, NAS Coco Solo, from 1944 to 1946.

He stayed on at Harvard following his tour of duty with the Navy during the war and received his MBA from Harvard in 1947. From 1947 to 1951, he was an instructor at Ohio University, then he came to Lincoln where he served on the Nebraska faculty until 1954. The next year was spent as an instructor at the University of Wisconsin.

He received his PhD from Nebraska in 1955 and returned to the NU faculty as an Associate Professor of Business Organization until he advanced to the status of full professor in 1963. In 1968, he was named Chairman of the Department of Finance at NU, the position he presently holds.

Dr. Broman is a member of the First Presbyterian Church which he serves as a member of the Foundation Board. In the past, he has been an Elder (Clerk of Session) and Deacon. Dr. Broman is also a member of the American Finance Association, American Accounting Association, Midwest Business Administration, Beta Gamma Sigma, Delta Sigma Pi, Hillcrest Country Club, and the Elks. He is presently Commander of the Supply Corps, US Naval Reserves, and serves as a consultant for Investment Education & Practice.

Dr. Broman and his wife, Ruth, formerly Ruth Jane DuBois, have been married since 1944. They have two daughters, Rebecca Ann Cross, Tucson, Arizona, and Lisa Marie who is in the eighth grade at Pound Junior High School.

National Champs, Big 8 Champs, Orange Bowl Champs, Coach of Year Honors

UNBEATEN HUSKERS WERE QUITE A TEAM

By DON BRYANT
Sports Information Director

National Champions . . . Orange Bowl Champions . . . Big 8 Champions . . . TD Champions . . . Cinderella, Santa Clause, Prince Charming and the whole bit.

What a year 1970 was!

Assigned a Top 10 spot in pre-season speculation, the Huskers still were picked for runner-up honors in the Big 8. But in typical Bob Devaney-era fashion, the Cornhuskers stormed past three non-conference foes and tied a fine Southern Cal team (season spoilers for Notre Dame, you know) before blitzing the Big 8.

It all added up to a 11-0-1 season, the second time a Devaney team has traversed a rugged schedule without absorbing a defeat. In 1965, the Huskers were 10-0-0 and met Alabama in the Orange Bowl, losing an action-packed decision, 39-28. No letdown this time. Nebraska rocked LSU, 17-12, in the Orange Bowl for an unbeaten season and the No. 1 spot in the nation and a visit from President Richard Nixon.

Nebraska could run—for 2,686 yards—and the Huskers could throw—for 2,241 yards—for a record offense total of 4,927 yards. And the Big Red could score, 426 points in 12 games for a 37.2 average, No. 2 in the nation.

While the Huskers can't boast of a harvest of statistical records, their great balanced attack and a defense that matured surprisingly well and refused to grant the big play made them potent winners.

Nebraska's total offense average of 410.6 ranked 12th in the nation and the Huskers led in touchdowns with 57. In scoring Nebraska ranked fourth.

Individually, Nebraska copped Big 8 scoring honors when Joe Orduna wound up with 92 points, 7th in the nation. Paul Rogers ranked ninth in kick scoring with 74 points and brilliant Johnny Rodgers ranked 10th nationally, in all-purpose running.

But statistics don't really tell the Nebraska story. The real story concerns a great coach, an outstanding staff and a group of young men who dedicated themselves to excellence and proceeded to live up to their own expectations in sensational style.

The Huskers knew they'd have a solid offensive punch—with proven stars like Joe Orduna, Jeff Kinney, Van Brownson, Jerry Tagge, Dan Schneiss in the backfield and a receiver like Guy Ingles and a tackle like Bob Newton. But they'd have to find help at center, guard and tight end.

Help they got in magnificent fashion—Soph Doug Dumler at center, Wally Winter at tackle, transfer Dick Rupert and vet Donnie McGhee at guard, and Soph Jerry List at tight end. But the brightest sparkler of all was Soph Johnny Rodgers, who earned All Big 8 honors at slot back as the loop's most dazzling newcomer since Gale Sayers.

It became the Big 8's most devastating offense, first in scoring and second in total offense. Newton won All American honors and joined McGhee, Rodgers, Orduna and Placekicker Paul Rogers on the All Big 8 unit.

Defensively, Nebraska was apprehensive because eight of 11 starters graduated from the great 1969 Black Shirt powerhouse. Newcomers would have to produce, and again Devaney came up with the answers, starting with All America linebacker Jerry Murtaugh.

Murtaugh—an All American and the Big 8 Player of the Year—rallied the rookie-studded Black Shirts into a stubborn unit that wound up leading the Big 8 in rushing defense and ranked second in total defense.

Brightest stars among the newcomers were End Willie Harper, the Big 8's Sophomore Lineman of the Year; middle guard Eddie Perlard, who earned All Big 8 honors despite being only 5-9 and 201; defensive backs Bill Kosch and Joe Blahak, who led the Big 8 in pass interceptions with seven and six thefts, respectively; Monster Dave Morock, who was superb as the replacement for the incomparable Al Larson; and linebacker Bob Terrio, a transfer who became a standout.

Old heads like All Big 8 tackle Dave Walline, End John Adkins, Tackle Larry Jacobson and cornerback Jim Anderson came through like the champions they were and Devaney's defensive worries faded.

Nebraska opened by blitzing Wake Forest, 36-12; then set the theme for the year by forcing USC to come from behind three times to tie at Los Angeles, 21-21. After that came wins over Army, 28-0; Minnesota 35-10; Missouri, 21-7; Kansas, 41-20; Oklahoma State, 65-31; Colorado, 29-13; Iowa State, 54-29; Kansas State, 51-13; and Oklahoma, 28-21.

In fairness to the NU defense, it should also be pointed out that the bulk of the scoring and passing statistics came against deep reserves after the Huskers had built whopping leads going into the fourth quarters.

It all added up to a bevy of honors for Devaney and the Huskers:

—Streak of 19 games without a defeat, third best in the nation.

—Sixth Big 8 title in the last eight years, and second-consecutive title.

—National, Big 8 and District 5 Coach of the Year honors for Devaney; Player of the Year honors for Jerry Murtaugh.

—Two All America honorees—Murtaugh and Newton; and nine All Big 8 first-teamers.

—Devaney's second Orange Bowl title.

—Nebraska's first national championship.

—A visit from President Richard Nixon to award a presidential plaque.

—Yes sir, it was quite a year!!

FLASHBACKS

HUSKERS OPEN 1970 WITH 36-12 VICTORY OVER WAKE FOREST

Lincoln, Nebraska—(September 12, 1970)—Stung by an early field goal, Nebraska's Cornhuskers stormed back to take a 14-3 first-quarter lead and coasted to a 36-12 victory in the 1970 opener.

Thanks to a Husker fumble, Wake Forest jumped in front, 3-0, before the 66,103 fans got settled in their seats. But Nebraska used a couple of long passes—Jerry Tagge to Guy Ingles for 45 yards and Tagge to Jeff Kinney for 21 yards—to set up a 14-3 lead at the quarter.

A blocked punt gave Wake Forest a safety in the second quarter before the Huskers drove 71 yards to make it 21-5 after Tagge's 13 yard TD run.

Nebraska made it a runaway just before the half when Tagge hit Soph Johnny Rodgers with a 61-yard touchdown pass.

Joe Orduna's 20-yard TD sprint made it 36-5 in the third quarter and Nebraska reserves took over the remainder of the game, finally yielding a Deacon touchdown in the final minute of play.

In a good tuneup for Southern California, Nebraska had opened 1970 in impressive fashion against the team that would win the Atlantic Coast title.

HUSKERS, USC STATE CLASSIC 21-21 DRAMA AT LA COLISEUM

Los Angeles, California—(September 19, 1970)—When football historians review the 1970s they'll probably list the Nebraska-Southern California 21-21 tie in 1970 as one of the great games of the decade.

It was that kind of game as Nebraska's two-TD underdogs three times led the highly regarded Trojans in a game that left 73,768 fans breathless on the last play—a 50-yard incomplete USC pass.

Nebraska got the jump on the Trojans in the second quarter—Husker Joe Orduna early had fumbled at the USC 5—when fullback Dan Schneiss threw a surprise 17-yard pass to Guy Ingles.

USC tied it on a 4-yard run by Jimmy Jones, but Nebraska roared back for a 14-7 halftime lead on Jerry Tagge's 15-yard pass to Johnny Rodgers.

Back stormed the Trojans in the third quarter to tie it at 14-14, but on the second play after the next kick-off Husker Orduna tore 67 yards on a great run to put Nebraska ahead again, 21-14.

Nebraska's chance for icing a victory misfired in the final quarter when a bad snap caused Paul Rogers to miss a 12-yard field goal that would have given NU a 24-14 lead.

USC then moved for the tying TD, with Clarence Davis going the last 10-yards with 8:16 left in the game.

Both teams had final chances in the wild finale, but a great college game ended 21-21.

HUSKERS START SLOW, BUT OUT-DISTANCE ARMY CADETS, 28-0

Lincoln, Nebraska—(September 26, 1970)—Nebraska took a while to get warmed up, but had little trouble defeating Army, 28-0, before 66,928 fans.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Huskers got on the board with a 43-yard Jerry Tagge to Johnny Rodgers TD pass, in the second quarter. Joe Orduna added a two-yard tally in the third quarter before Rodgers took a 26-yard scoring pass from Tagge in the third quarter.

The third TD pass of the day saw Woody Cox pull in a 31-yarder from Van Brownson making his first appearance of the season.

Nebraska's defense was superb, holding Army to 18 yards rushing and only 26 yards via the air.

NEBRASKA WINS SIXTH STRAIGHT OVER MINNESOTA GOPHERS, 35-10

Minneapolis, Minn.—(October 3, 1970)—Nebraska scored 21 points in the first quarter and coasted to a 35-10 win over Minnesota of the Big 10.

A crowd of 52,287 watched the powerful Cornhuskers score on seven long drives and pile up over 400 yards of offense.

Johnny Rodgers got the Huskers rolling with a six-yard run in the first quarter, but Ernie Cook's 45-yard run pulled Minnesota even, 7-7, with 7:51 left in the quarter.

Nebraska stormed back to march 80 yards in 11 plays, with Jeff Kinney going the last two yards, to re-take the lead and the Huskers made it 21-7 at the quarter when Guy Ingles took a 14-yard pass from Joe Orduna.

The Huskers drove 60 yards in 10 plays to score in the third quarter and marched 59 yards in 16 plays for a fourth quarter score.

It was Nebraska's sixth straight win over Minnesota and ran Bob Devaney's mastery over the Big 10 to 9-0.

NEBRASKA'S LATE EXPLOSION RIPS MISSOURI, 21-7; DEFENSE SHINES

Lincoln, Nebraska—(October 10, 1970)—Nebraska and Missouri staged their annual defensive battle for three quarters before the Huskers shook loose for a convincing 21-7 win.

With 67,538 fans on hand for the Big 8 opener, Van Brownson was called upon to quarterback the Huskers in the second half and he engineered a 91-yard TD drive to break a 7-7 tie in the final quarter. Key play in the drive was a 41-yard run by Orduna. Brownson plunged the final yard with 12:54 left in the game.

Johnny Rodgers put the ice bag on the Tigers with 4:01 left in the game when he returned a Missouri punt 48 yards to score.

Nebraska took a first-quarter lead by marching 80 yards on its first possession. Jeff Kinney took a 12-yard pass from Jerry Tagge for the TD.

Missouri quickly got back in the game when Lorenzo Brinkley intercepted Tagge's pass on the first play of the second quarter and returned it to the NU 1. Mike Farmer plunged for the score on the next play.

Nebraska's defense was great, holding Missouri to only 87 yards rushing.

KANSAS SCARES HUSKERS, BUT BIG RED ROMPS, 41-20

Lawrence, Kansas—(October 17, 1970)—Nebraska's Cornhuskers, stunned by a sudden Jayhawk surge, had to fight from behind to thrash Kansas, 41-20, before 50,000 noisy fans.

Husker Dave Morock intercepted a Jayhawk pass on the second play of the game and in four plays Nebraska led, 7-0. Late in the first quarter Paul Rogers kicked a 28-yard field goal and it looked like a cake-walk.

Then Kansas ran wild for 20 points in seven minutes and Nebraska was down 20-10. Vince O'Neill ignited the Hawks with a 96-yard kick-off return, while John Riggins and Dan Heck each scored to give KU upset hopes with 9:28 left in the half.

But Nebraska rose to the challenge and had the Jayhawks reeling by half-time—Van Brownson hit Guy Ingles with an 80-yard TD pass to get NU rolling and the Big Red added a 73-yard drive to take a 24-20 lead at halftime.

Nebraska added two TDs and another field goal in the second half to wrap up the Huskers' second Big 8 win and a 5-0-1 season mark.

CORNHUSKERS RUN WILD, SWAMP OKLAHOMA STATE COWBOYS, 65-31

Lincoln, Nebraska—(October 24, 1970)—Piling up the most points since 1922, Nebraska had a field day in swamping Oklahoma State, 65-31, before the second largest crowd in history—67,822 fans.

The Cornhuskers scored first, yielded briefly as Oklahoma State scored on a 98-yard kickoff return for a 7-6 lead, then ripped to a 41-7 half-time lead. After that it was a matter of the reserves logging time and the Cowboys trying to salvage some glory. NU's 27 point blast in the second quarter killed the Cowboys.

Nebraska used 50 players in the game that saw Joe Orduna score two TDs, Paul Rogers kick three field goals and six of seven PATS, and Johnny Rodgers return a punt 66 yards for a score.

The Huskers amassed 545 yards and only OSU's late passing surge against Husker reserves enabled the Cowboys to get 393 yards. The Black Shirts held the Pokes to only 64 yards on the ground.

Thus, the No. 4-ranked Cornhuskers headed for the key show-down at Colorado with a sparkling 6-0-1 record.

NEBRASKA STAVES OFF BUFF BID, STRIKES LATE FOR 29-13 VICTORY

Boulder, Colorado—(October 31, 1970)—Nebraska struck early, gallantly fought off a Colorado upset bid and socked home two late touchdowns to whip the Buffaloes, 29-13.

A record crowd of 50,881 and a near-nationwide ABC-TV audience saw the highly-ranked and favored Huskers pop the rugged Buffs.

Nebraska grabbed a 12-0 first quarter lead on two long Van Brownson-to-Guy Ingles TD passes but had to settle for a 12-7 halftime margin. Paul Rogers' 46 yard field goal made it 15-7 in the third quarter.

Then Colorado ripped back to pull up 15-13, but missed a two-pointer that would have tied the score with 11:22 left in the game.

Incensed, the Cornhuskers fired up and whipped across two touchdowns in less than four minutes to wrap up a convincing win, their seventh of the year.

HUSKERS SHATTER IOWA STATE CYCLONES, 54-29, FOR WIN No. 8

Ames, Iowa—(November 7, 1970)—Nebraska's Cornhuskers remained unbeaten by clobbering the Iowa State Cyclones, 54-29, before a record crowd of 36,000 fans.

The Huskers went after No. 8 with gusto, leading 12-0 at the quarter and 26-11 at halftime.

A 21-point third quarter insured the rout and gave the reserves ample playing time against the hustling Cyclones who struck for two late TDs.

Joe Orduna scored two first-quarter tallies and added a third in the second half. Jeff Kinney led all rushers with 116 yards, while Dan Schneiss netted 92 and two TDs.

Jerry Tagge hit 18 of 27 passes for 223 yards going the entire rout in relief of Van Brownson who was hurt at Colorado the week before and would not fully recover during the remainder of the regular season.

HUSKERS SHOCK DICKEY, K-STATE DEFENSE TO WIN SHOWDOWN, 51-13

Lincoln, Nebraska—(November 14, 1970)—It was the Big 8 showdown of the year: unbeaten defending champion Nebraska vs. throne pretender Kansas State and the Huskers were without starting quarterback Van Brownson for the second straight week.

Nebraska had the loop's top offense and K-State came to town with the best defense, but the Huskers quickly de-clawed the Wildcats and coasted to a 51-13 victory and a cinch Big 8 title tie.

The Huskers performance was awesome and the obliteration of star quarterback Lynn Dickey and the 'Cats was stunning. Nebraska drilled K-State for 361 yards, while holding the Wildcats to 70 yards on the ground. NU Quarterback Jerry Tagge hit 13 of 19 passes for 162 yards, including a 60-yarder to Johnny Rodgers.

Dickey hit 22 of 47 passes for 255 yards, but a sensational Nebraska secondary intercepted a record seven passes to completely derail the visitors.

Nebraska jumped to a 7-0 lead as Johnny Rodgers ran 30 yards for a TD on the first play after Jerry Murtaugh intercepted Dickey just after the game opened. It was 14-0 at the quarter and 21-7 at halftime. But the Huskers really exploded in the third quarter to open a 37-7 lead. During a 3:58 span Nebraska ran up 27 points to jump from 24-7 to 51-7. Joe Orduna scored 4 TDs for the Huskers who ran their season record to 9-0-1 and set the stage for the championship game with Oklahoma.

NEBRASKA WRAPS UP TITLE, UNBEATEN SEASON WITH 28-21 WIN OVER SOONERS

Lincoln, Nebraska—(November 21, 1970)—Coach Bob Devaney and his Nebraska Cornhuskers twice had to battle from behind, but poise and determination paid off for a 28-21 victory over Oklahoma before 67,392 fans.

In whipping the tough young Sooners for the second straight year, Nebraska achieved its first unbeaten season (10-0-1) since 1965 and the second of Devaney's tenure. The Huskers also earned a repeat Big 8 title, the sixth in the last eight years.

Oklahoma's Jack Mildren scored first, but a 53-yard Jerry Tagge-to-Johnny Rodgers TD pass play got the Huskers a 7-7 tie in the second quarter.

Joe Wylie ran 37-yards to put OU ahead 14-7, but again Nebraska drove for a tying tally with Joe Orduna scoring just before halftime.

Nebraska went in front on a 13-yard Tagge-to-Ingles fling for a 21-14 lead going into the final quarter. Again Oklahoma tied it up, before the Huskers marched 53-yards for the clinching touchdown.

Tagge punched in for the TD with 7:42 left.

NEW YEAR'S DAY -- THE LONG WAIT

By Don Bryant

Sports Information Director

College football players and coaches are familiar with "long days"—the endless waiting for the action to begin on game days.

But few have experienced such a nerve-wracking, nail-biting, tension-building and exhilarating day as the Nebraska Cornhuskers did on January 1, 1971. That New Year's Day was, indeed, the "longest-day" in Nebraska football history, but it was also the Huskers' most satisfying "long day."

Coach Bob Devaney and his Huskers had been in Miami, Florida since Christmas Day preparing for an Orange Bowl date with defensive titan Louisiana State and the theme was simple. Unbeaten, but once-tied Nebraska was ranked No. 3 in the nation behind Texas and Ohio State, both undefeated, and the odds of both the Longhorns and the Buckeyes losing on New Year's Day were prohibitive.

Yet Devaney and his staff—really at the behest of the players—encouraged optimism about a national championship. The Huskers knew they were the best team in the country and Devaney let them believe that miracles could happen. So it was that Nebraska prepared for LSU with enthusiasm and the keynote was plain and simple: "We may get the chance yet to prove we're No. 1, so let's be ready when the time comes."

Nebraska's "Day" actually started on New Year's Eve when the squad elected to by-pass the Orange Bowl Parade, stick around the Ivanhoe Hotel, watch a movie and try to get a good night's sleep—never easy under much less pressure.

New Year's morn arrived and the Huskers started the count-down with a late breakfast since the game would be played at night after all the other polling places were closed.

Next came the usual, but later, squad meetings, with the team breaking into position groups and checking last-minute changes and plans with assistant coaches as Coach Devaney prowled from group to group.

Time ticked off slowly and more than one player bit his lip and wiped a sweaty palm. Words of encouragement and nods of agreement passed back and forth between players and coaches, and then as if by electronic signal the inhabitants of the Ivanhoe sought television sets and clicked the dial to the Cotton Bowl game in Dallas where No. 1 ranked Texas would host Notre Dame, losers only to Southern California.

The Huskers, who earlier had banked on playing Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, now became solid Irish rooters—Texas had to lose in the Cotton Bowl and Stanford had to upset unbeaten Ohio State in the Rose Bowl if Nebraska was to have its shot at No. 1.

Unison cheers rang through the Ivanhoe halls as the Irish carried the battle to the Longhorns and took a 14-3 first quarter lead and achieved the victory margin of 24-11 by halftime. It was a long second half as Nebraskans fought every minute with the rock-ribbed Irish defense during the second half.

One down, and the first leg on the Miracle Finish. Now it was time to shift allegiance to the Stanford Indians, who 30 years earlier had stopped Nebraska 21-13 in the Rose Bowl. It was also time to start thinking about LSU.

Husker players began gathering in the taping room and the trainers went to work. Most of the Huskers sipped a can of nutriment between climbing on the taping table and quick glances at the television set.

Soon it was time to head for the Orange Bowl, sets clicked off and the Huskers boarded busses, fully aware as they talked in nervous, hushed tones that Ohio State had a slim lead over Stanford, but that there was always the chance they'd play for No. 1.

Tension continued to thicken and when the busses stopped enroute to the Orange Bowl and idled their engines for a 10-minute period that seemed like an hour, All Big 8 Middle Guard Eddie Periard bellowed: "Get this damn thing rolling—let's get there."

More confusion at the Bowl. The busses went in the wrong gate, then had to snake through thousands of fans while players and coaches fumed. Finally, the Huskers were dressed and ready for warmups, but the time schedule was confusing. Constant huddling with Orange Bowl and NBC officials. Player introductions may have to be eliminated if the Rose Bowl runs too long. Transistor radios brought in reports that Ohio State led, 17-13, going into the final quarter and the Big Red rolled out of its dressing quarters into the glaring lights of the Orange Bowl, now rapidly filling with fans. Some 15,000 Nebraska fans yelled "We're No. 1" and waved banners predicting the outcome of the day's activities.

Husker warmups progressed, aided by runners streaking from fans who had radios in the stands to coaches and players loosening up. Then the word was flashed that Stanford had just gone ahead, 20-17, and Periard leaped high and shot a fist skyward, just as he was to do early in the first quarter after Nebraska forced an LSU fumble. It really was coming true, the long-cherished dream—maybe Nebraska could win the National Championship with a miracle finish.

Linemen concluded their warmups and roared back into the locker room. More radio reports and the word spread like wildfire that Stanford now led, 27-17. Huge linemen started hugging each other, yelling and climbing on benches—it was a free-for-all of emotion as the specialists and backs joined the celebration. The Huskers chanted, "We're No. 1," waved fingers, slapped backs, shook hands.

Coach Bob Devaney fought his way into the melee, grinned and yelled, "We're not No. 1 yet, we've got to beat LSU."

But the players weren't buying that one, and they yelled back, "No sweat coach . . . We've got our chance and we're going to prove we're No. 1."

Word came from the OB and NBC sideliners that the Rose Bowl had, indeed, run over and there would be no player introductions. It was time to play the game. The long day was really just now beginning for the Cornhuskers, but the exhilaration of knowing they alone of the top three teams in the nation were undefeated and in a position to claim No. 1 erased all thoughts of fatigue.

The rest is history. Fired-up Nebraska struck early for a 10-0 lead, fell behind, 12-10, and then staged a magnificent drive to pull out a 17-12 victory over a fine LSU team and preserve the Huskers' unbeaten record.

As the final gun sounded, the Huskers stormed the field, hoisted Coach Devaney onto their shoulders and marched off knowing they were No. 1. Of course, there was a locker room celebration, showers for the coaches and the Chancellor, but the excitement had been almost as great just before the game when the Rose Bowl score arrived. Nebraska wanted a chance and got it—real cause for celebration.

An hour or so later, the tired, but proud and happy, Huskers boarded busses and returned to the Ivanhoe. Coaches enjoyed a 2 a.m. champagne toast with Coach Devaney and his wife—but a sense of relief, let-down and weariness began setting in and reminding everyone that it had been quite a long, difficult and tiring day and season. But tremendous ones, to be sure.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Kinney looked in on the coaches' gathering, but the Husker halfback declined a glass of champagne.

"Not tonight," Jeff smiled. "I'm going to bed—it's been kind of a long day."

It certainly had been that, but a day that Nebraska players, coaches and fans will never forget.

NO. 1 FINISH IN 1970 NEBRASKA'S TOP MARK

Nebraska's national championship in 1970 was the highest Cornhusker finish in history.

The Huskers were No. 1 in the AP poll and in most other ratings. They were No. 3 in the UPI. It was the fifth Top 10 finish for a Bob Devaney team. Previous high Husker finish was in 1965 when NU was No. 3 in the United Press International final poll of the coaches. The Huskers also ranked No. 3 in the Associated Press poll prior to the Orange Bowl, but dropped to No. 5 after the loss to Alabama.

PRESIDENT NIXON VISITS NEBRASKA—PRESENTS PLAQUE

Amidst the tightest security precautions probably ever set up in Nebraska for a visiting dignitary, President of the United States Richard M. Nixon came to Cornhuskerland on January 14, 1971.

Returning to Washington from his California White House, President Nixon stopped over in Lincoln for a "major speech directed at the future for young people," and announced new programs that Nebraska was to be a pilot school for at a later date.

Speak he did and some 8,000 Nebraska students, faculty and friends gave the President a warm Cornhusker welcome.

But the festival atmosphere was charged with football fever because the President also came to honor the Nebraska Cornhuskers for winning the national championship.

The Nebraska team, fresh from its 17-12 Orange Bowl win over LSU, sat next to the podium and prior to his speech, President Nixon called Coach Bob Devaney and co-captains Dan Schneiss and Jerry Murtaugh to the rostrum.

With cheers filling the Coliseum, the President presented an engraved plaque, bearing the White House seal and his signature, proclaiming the results of the Big 8 season, Orange Bowl victory and the final Associated Press poll:

"No. 1 College Football Team in the Nation."

It was a big, proud day for the Cornhusker team and all Nebraskans.

ED WEIR NAMED TO ALL-TIME ALL AMERICA CENTENNIAL TEAM

Nebraska's two-time All America from the glory days of the 1920s, Ed Weir, in 1969 was named to the All-Time All America team, selected in conjunction with the College Football Centennial.

The modern era (1941 to the present) and the early-era (1906-1940) teams were selected by veteran sportswriters from across the nation.

Weir, a Hall of Fame member, was named to a tackle spot on the early-era team, along with such college greats as Don Hutson of Alabama, Bronko Nagurski of Minnesota, Benny Friedman of Michigan, Sammy Baugh of TCU, Red Grange of Illinois, Ernie Nevers of Stanford, Chris Cagle of Army and Tom Harmon of Michigan.

NEBRASKA DEFEATS TOUGH LSU

17-12, In Orange Bowl, Sews Up No. 1

Miami, Fla. (Jan. 1, 1971)—Nebraska's unrelenting Cornhuskers marched 67 yards into immortality to climax a brilliant Orange Bowl victory, 17-12, over Louisiana State.

Trailing 12-10 as the fourth quarter opened—after leading early, 10-0—Coach Bob Devaney's Huskers passed and ran over and through the defensive titans of the nation for the winning touchdown.

It came with 6:10 gone in the final quarter when Jerry Tagge, the engineering genius of the night, clinched the Most Valuable Back Trophy by plunging over from the one and then extended his arms high over the pile—just to make sure.

With victory came the certainty that Nebraska would be voted No. 1 by the Associated Press, the Football Writers Grantland Rice Trophy and almost all of the other pollsters. No. 1 Texas and No. 2 Ohio State both lost, leaving the door open to Nebraska and the Huskers charged to glory with a great win over a very fine LSU football team.

Tagge hit 12 of 15 passes for 153 yards, ran tough, and directed the Huskers in expert fashion. Outstanding lineman honors went to Defensive End Willie Harper, the ferocious soph who gave LSU's attack fits all night. It was Willie's ball-theft—along with Bob Terrio's interception at the bell—that put the cap on the victory after Nebraska moved ahead, 17-12, in the last quarter.

Nebraska led the statistics as well as the score, netting 132 yards rushing (most against LSU in two years) to the Tigers' 51. NU had a 293-278 bulge, overall, in posting the Huskers' 19th straight game without a loss.

Devaney's Cornhuskers, fired-up by the news that Texas and Ohio State had lost, struck LSU quickly for a 10-0 first-quarter lead. Paul Rogers kicked a 26 yard field goal and Joe Orduna ripped off a three-yard TD blast after Willie Harper had recovered an LSU fumble at the 15.

But Coach Charlie McClendon's Tigers fought back for two field goals in the second and third quarter as Mark Lumpkin hit from 36 and 25 yards out. A 31-yard TD pass from Buddy Lee to Al Coffee on the last play of the third quarter put LSU on top, 12-10, and the monkey on Nebraska's back.

Like the national champions they were, the Cornhuskers met the challenge and pulled out the victory and the unbeaten season (11-0-1).

CORNHUSKER PLAYERS OF THE WEEK-1970

WAKE FOREST

BACK

Jerry Tagge: Hit 9 to 12 passes for 168 yards, one a 61-yarder for a TD. Scored on 13-yard run.

LINEMAN

Bob Newton: Great blocking helped NU run for 207 yards, pass for 168 and score 36 points.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Joe Orduna: Rushed for season high of 135 yards and a 7.5 average. His 67-yard TD run gave NU a 21-14 lead to insure tie. (Big 8 Choice).

Jerry Murtaugh: Sensational defensive job, with 14 unassisted tackles and 11 assisted tackles. Also deflected a pass. (Big 8 Choice).

ARMY

Johnny Rodgers: Caught 5 passes for 106 yards and 2 TDs. Rushed for 25 yards.

Ed Periard: Made six unassisted tackles and five assisted. Caught the Army quarterback four times for losses of 27 yards.

MINNESOTA

Jeff Kinney: Carried 21 times for 91 yards, one TD.

Bob Newton: Led Nebraska line which opened holes for NU backs to net 240 yards rushing and 406 yards of total offense. (Big 8 Choice).

MISSOURI

Joe Orduna & Jeff Kinney: Joint nomination, with Kinney netting 108 yards and one TD, Orduna 76 yards and a brilliant 41-yard run.

Ed Periard: Great job of defensive leadership. Total of 10 tackles, four unassisted.

KANSAS

Van Brownson: Hit 10 of 15 passes, for 183 yards in first 1970 start. Two TD passes, the first an 80-yarder to put NU back in game in second quarter. (Big 8 Choice).

Bob Newton: Third nomination, for another great blocking performance. Huskers ran through Newton-opened holes during first half comeback.

OKLAHOMA STATE

Paul Rogers: Kicked FGs of 42, 41 and 38 yards, and six of seven PATs for 15 points to lead NU scoring.

Bob Newton: Fourth nomination for Big 8 record. Outstanding job of blocking and pass protection.

COLORADO

Van Brownson: Hit 11 of 17 passes for 173 yards and two TDs. Also ran for 30 yards.

Guy Ingles: Caught five passes for 112 yards and two TDs (35 and 39) in first quarter to get Nebraska a lead that held up for victory.

IOWA STATE

Jerry Tagge: Hit 18 of 27 passes for 223 yards and two TDs. Also ran for 11 yards and one TD. (Big 8 Choice).

Doug Dumler: Brilliant job of pass protection, blocking helped NU throw for 223 yards. Also blocked well as rushing attack netted 342 yards.

KANSAS STATE

Joe Blahak: Intercepted three Lynn Dickey passes to tie the NU record and made six unassisted tackles. Return yardage of 116 yards included a 53-yard run. (Big 8 Choice).

Jerry Murtaugh: Supplied aggressive leadership for NU defense which clobbered league leading K-State's attack. Made nine tackles and intercepted a pass in the first quarter to set-up NU's first TD and launch the rout.

OKLAHOMA

Jim Anderson: Intercepted two passes and made four tackles. His second interception came in the end zone on the last play of the game to preserve a 28-21 victory and an undefeated season.

Ed Periard: Aggressive play was branded "outstanding" by Coach Bob Devaney. Made 8 tackles and kept pressure on Sooner QB throughout the game.

ALL SPORTS DAY —

REDS WALLOP WHITES, 64-21, IN RECORD-SMASHING DAY

Lincoln, Neb.—(May 8, 1971)—An all-time high crowd of more than 18,000 fans were on hand on a bright, sunshiny spring afternoon for the annual All Sports Day scrimmage. The fans in the stands and those listening to the play-by-play broadcast throughout the state were treated to the biggest offensive explosion in history.

In all, ten records were broken and two others tied as the Reds, boasting the number one units on offense and defense at the close of spring drills, romped past the Whites, 64-21. Powered by the running of Jeff Kinney and Gary Dixon and the pin-point passing of Jerry Tagge and Steve Runty, the Reds marched to a 44-0 half-time lead.

One of the high points of the day came with 53 seconds left in the half when Joe Blahak broke loose on a 91-yard punt return for a touchdown. That broke the old record by 40 yards.

Of the records broken, eight were team records. Only Blahak's punt return and Al Pieratt's five PAT kicks were new individual marks. With that kind of balance and over-all team strength, the 18,000 Big Red fans went home to mark each of the 127 days remaining until the 1971 season opener against Oregon, September 11.

CORNHUSKER MARCHING BAND

Sunshine Girl Dianne Tangeman

MARCHING BAND

Always one of the highlights of a Nebraska football game is the performance of the Cornhusker Marching Band, a 175-man aggregation of outstanding musicians selected via competitive auditions.

Miss Dianne Tangeman, Omaha junior, is Nebraska's Sunshine Girl again this fall. She succeeded Miss Susie Kunc of Wilber who served for four years after Joyce Burns graduated. Jeff Klintberg of Laurel again is the head Drum Major.

The marching band is one of several outstanding musical groups at the university—the Symphonic Band, top performing organization, the Collegiate Band, the ROTC Band, the Brass Ensemble, the Woodwind Choir and the Brass Choir.

The Cornhusker Band provided a sparkling Orange Bowl half-time show, marking its eighth bowl appearance. It is the only Big 8 band to perform in the Rose, Orange, Cotton and Sugar Bowl circuit and also includes the Sun Bowl on its list of achievements.

DON LENTZ, JACK SNIDER—GREAT BATON TEAM

The University of Nebraska is fortunate to have two outstanding musical experts directing its fine band program—Donald A. Lentz, who is Director of Bands, and Jack R. Snider, Assistant Director of Bands and director of the Cornhusker Marching Band.

DON LENTZ

Mr. Lentz is nationally known as an outstanding flute player, composer and author. Heading the Nebraska band program since 1937—he is the father of Band Day, which has become a national by-word—he previously played under some of the world's great conductors in the New York Symphony, the Barrere Symphony, the Sousa Band, and in the theater, ballet and radio.

Prof. Lentz is an expert in the field of oriental scale systems, having studied the Hindu, Thai and Indonesia scale systems in the Orient in 1956-57 and 1962. He has recently authored a book, "Tones and Intervals of Hindu Classical Music." Among his band compositions are "Bakonian Legend," "Panomime," and "Samana."

Prof. Snider has worked closely with Mr. Lentz in the development of the Nebraska band program, and has been most active in directing the Marching Band. He also directs the Collegiate and ROTC bands, the Brass Ensemble and Brass Choir.

A 1949 graduate of Nebraska, Prof. Snider taught in the Kearney schools before joining the NU faculty in 1951. He plays Principal French Horn with the Lincoln Symphony and also serves as assistant conductor. He is one of the founders and the first president of the Nebraska State Bandmasters Association.

SOUTHERN CAL TIE BREAKS STRING:

The 21-21 tie against Southern Cal last season broke a string of 95 consecutive games without a tie, dating from the 14-14 tie with Arizona in 1961. The record is 99, sandwiched between 7-7 and 20-20 ties with Indiana at the starts of the 1939 and 1950 seasons, respectively.

The tie was also the Huskers' first under coach Bob Devaney.

Nebraska Football Attendance Averages Over 65,000 Past Four Years

It's not surprising that some 15,000 Nebraska Cornhusker football fans invaded Miami for the 1971 Orange Bowl game.

Coach Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers and their faithful fans go together like hot cakes and syrup.

Checking back over the past five years since Nebraska's Memorial Stadium was enlarged to its present capacity of 65,000 with permanent seats of 64,000 it's easy to see why the Beef State ranks as the Football Capital of the Midlands.

In 21 games since Memorial Stadium became a bowl, the Cornhuskers have packed in 1,375,578 fans for home contests. That's an average of 65,503 per game, a commendable mark that can be matched by few other schools.

Sellouts have been commonplace in Cornhuskerland, as the Nebraska team has drawn over 66,000 fans for 17 straight games. The Huskers have attracted over 64,000 fans for 21 of their last 22 games at home.

The only crowd in the last four years to dip below 64,000 was the 1967 game with Oklahoma which was televised nationally on ABC-TV as a Thanksgiving Day feature. Still, 59,792 of the Husker Red Coats chose their Cornhuskers over old Tom Turkey.

Nebraska fans are great road boosters, too, as anywhere from 6,000 to 15,000 Big Red migrate to out-of-town games for regular season games.

During the 1970 season Nebraska again ranked high in the nation in total attendance, packing in a record 403,677 fans for Coach Devaney's ninth straight victorious season. The National Champions averaged 67,280.

NEBRASKA'S MULTI-PURPOSE 'PRESS BOX' RANKS AMONG THE NATION'S FINEST

Sportswriters and broadcasters who work in Nebraska's spacious and functional new Information Center are unanimous in tabbing the Cornhusker press box one of the finest—if not the best in the nation.

Financed by the Athletic Department in cooperation with dedicated Cornhusker fans who helped secure a first-class press-radio-TV facility, the Nebraska Information Center cost more than $500,000. No tax money was involved in the construction or operation.

The first level is where the working press and radio people labor. On the front row, some 50 writers can be accommodated, while the second row is devoted to over-flow writers, scouts, statisticians and Western Union. There is a lounge area, with snack bar, where catered pre-game luncheons are available to the working newsmen.

Also located on the first level are nine radio booths, coaches booths, scoreboard and clock booth, statistics center, office, photo dark room, rest room, maintenance room and a communications room.

The second level of the heated and air-conditioned structure contains two movie and news photo wings, the public address booth and Section 300, which includes 316 theater seats for the Husker Achievement Award Contributors who helped make the press box a reality.

Husker Award members who agreed to contribute $1,000 per year for five years in addition to their regular $1,000 gift for scholarships, have the option to purchase four seats at a premium price in the area. The area also includes a snack bar (regular stadium fare at regular prices and no liquor), rest rooms and film change rooms.

Level No. 3 is restricted to television, movie and news photographers. It's an open-air deck atop the giant structure which stretches between the 25-yard lines.

Underneath the press box, in the area formerly covered by the old press box, Section 200. Husker fans who wanted to help construct the press box by contributing $500 per year for five years have the option on four seats at a premium price in this area.

The Nebraska Information Center is serviced by two high-speed (ground to top in 10 to 12 seconds) elevators.

As a special service to writers and broadcasters, coed members of the Air Force ROTC Auxiliary, Angel Flight, are on hand in the press box to help find seats, answer questions and serve coffee and soft drinks during the game.

PRESS BOX CREDENTIALS

As a general rule, working space in the Nebraska press box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for Sunday publication; (2) sports editors only of Nebraska daily newspapers; (3) radio personnel needed for those stations broadcasting live; (4) school publication (official daily papers) representatives; (5) approved special coverage: Weekly press representatives and non-broadcasting radio representatives cannot be accommodated. Visiting newsmen, may get tickets early by writing or at will call booth at south end of West Stadium. Special requests should be directed to Don Bryant, Sports Information Director, 109 Coliseum, Lincoln, Nebraska 68508.

MEMORIAL STADIUM GETS 'NEW LOOK' WITH SYNTHETIC GRASS—AstroTurf

Already boasting the largest stadium in the Big 8 and one of the nation's most beautiful press facilities, the University of Nebraska in 1970 crowned the Bob Devaney-era improvement program by installing Astro Turf.

NU Regents gave the approval to the $250,000 project in May and the new synthetic turf was completed in time for the Shrine High School All Star game.

AstroTurf, made by Monsanto, is a grass-like artificial layer which is glued to a cushion of foam-like plastic mounted on a six-inch bed of asphalt.

Nebraska was one of four Big 8 schools installing synthetic turf in 1970—joining Oklahoma (Tartan), Kansas (Tartan) and Kansas State (AstroTurf). Nebraska's was completed first.

The 1970 project was the fifth major capital improvement for Memorial Stadium—all without use of tax funds—since Bob Devaney arrived in 1962 and launched the Cornhuskers into national prominence.

Here is the list:

1964—South end zone section installed, making the Stadium a horseshoe, raising capacity to the 48,000 mark.

1965—Center portion of north end-zone section added, raising capacity to more than 53,000.

1966—Both wings of the north end-zone added, raising capacity to more than 65,000 and making Memorial Stadium into a bowl.

1967—New press box, with guest section added, providing a beautiful and practical working facility as well as raising capacity to more than 67,000.

VETERAN PRESS CREW CHARTS HUSKER GAMES

The Nebraska press corps which follows the Cornhuskers at home and away has a veteran look for the 1971 season.

Dean of the contingent is Wally Provost of the Omaha World Herald. Other "oldtimers" are Hal Brown of the Lincoln Star, Don Forsythe of the Lincoln Journal, Virgil Parker of the Sunday Journal and Star, and Conde Sargent and Tom Allan, both of the World Herald.

Howard Brantz, new World Herald Sports Editor, covered the Huskers in 1970.

EX-CORNHUSKER GRIDDER IS MAYOR OF LINCOLN

Sam, brother of Nebraska Regent Edward Schwartzkopf, played for the Huskers in 1937, 1938 and 1939. He was a starting tackle his senior year.

Mayor Schwartzkopf's administrative assistant is Leo Scherer, Jr., a member of the 1954 Orange Bowl team.

CORNHUSKER LEGEND

Prior to 1900, Nebraska football teams were known by such names as the Old Gold Knights, Antelopes and the Bugeaters.

But in 1900, Lincoln sportswriter Charles S. (Cy) Sherman, who was to gain national renown as the sports editor of the Lincoln Star—he also helped originate the Associated Press ranking poll—tired of referring to the Nebraska teams in such an unglamorous term as Bugeaters.

Iowa had from time to time been called the Cornhuskers, and the name appealed to Cy. Iowa partisans seemed to prefer Hawkeyes, so Cy started referring to the Nebraska team as Cornhuskers and the 1900 team was first to bear that label.

Of course, the name caught on and became a Nebraska by-word.

There is no official symbol of a Cornhusker and various cartoonists have caricatured the mystical something that typifies Nebraska football. At the present time, the University of Nebraska Athletic Department uses as its symbol a caricature of the great Nebraska fan—the fellow attired from head to foot in red.

The drawing of Big Red—by artist Bill Goggins—first appeared in the Nebraska Farmer and that publication has given permission for the University of Nebraska Athletic Department to use Mr. Big Red.

THOUSANDS HEAR HUSKER GAMES VIA RADIO

Dean of Nebraska broadcasters is Lyell Bremser of KFAB, who teams with Jack Payne and Dave Blackwell. Other stations carrying play-by-play action are KFOR (and network) of Lincoln, with Dick Perry and Dick Colerick; KLIN (and network) of Lincoln, with Joe Patrick; and WOW of Omaha with Russ Baldwin and ex-Husker end Don Purcell.

NEBRASKA RADIO STATIONS

Note: Many of these stations carry Cornhusker football games on a network basis and would like to have information releases for use in locally-produced programs.

PRESS TICKET WILL-CALL, ELEVATOR LOCATION

Press, radio and TV credentials may be obtained by mail or will be left at will-call.

Tickets for will-call will be left at the Coliseum Ticket Office Will Call until noon on game days. After that they will be in the West Stadium Ticket Booth, located at the south end of the West Stadium (outside by the fence) until game time. After that, if the Ticket Booth is closed, tickets will be held at the center door of the West Stadium.

Press Elevators

Memorial Stadium press box elevators are located just south of West Stadium middle or main entrance. You must show your press box credentials in order to board the elevators.

If there is a ticket problem, ask the elevator ticket guard to phone Don Bryant in the press box.

GUY INGLES WINS CHAMBERLIN TROPHY

Guy Ingles, record-breaking split end, was the recipient of the fourth annual Guy Chamberlain Memorial trophy.

The award, inaugurated in 1967 in memory of the former great Nebraska All America football player who went to both the college and pro Halls of Fame, is presented to the senior player who has shown by the play and contributions to the betterment of the University of Nebraska football squad that he has the qualities and dedication of Guy Chamberlain to the great Cornhusker tradition.

Marv Mueller of Columbus—three-year starter, Academic All America and senior co-captain—was the first recipient. Quarterback Ernie Sigler received the honor in 1968 and Defensive Back Dana Stephenson was honored in 1969. Lincoln Radio Station KFOR has donated the permanent trophy and each recipient will receive a replica through funds contributed by the Chamberlain family and the Champ's many friends following his death in 1967. The Chamberlain Memorial Fund is administered by the University of Nebraska Foundation.

Members of the board of electors are:

Press—Wally Provost, sports columnist of the Omaha World Herald

Radio—Dick Perry, sports director of KFOR Radio in Lincoln

Television—Dave Blackwell, sports director of KMTV in Omaha

Alumni N Club President—Dick McCashland

Athletic Department—Don Bryant, sports information director

The recipient of the 1971 Chamberlin Trophy will be announced at the annual Extra Point Club football banquet in December.

BOWL SCOUTS KEEP CLOSE TABS ON NEBRASKA EACH YEAR

Post-season team pickers have ranked the Nebraska Cornhuskers as a bowl contender nine straight years under Coach Bob Devaney, and seven of those seasons the Cornhuskers have swung into colorful action after the regular season.

Nebraska continues to be a magic name with the bowl officials because Bob Devaney's teams play tough, exciting and colorful football, and Cornhusker fans follow their beloved Big Red anywhere, anytime.

In 1969, for example, the Cornhuskers whacked Georgia, 45-6, in the Sun Bowl and the 7,000-plus Nebraskans who trekked to El Paso set a visiting team record. Last December some 15,000 Husker fans trooped to Miami to watch NU whip LSU 17-12, and clinch the national title.

Nebraska fans have established similar records at the Sugar and Cotton Bowls in years past. It's interesting to note that in 1964, the Huskers received some 20,000 Cotton Bowl orders for the allotted 12,000 seats—most of them post-marked on the day ticket orders were permitted to start.

Overall, Nebraska is 4-5-0 in post-season play, but Devaney-coached teams are 4-3-0.

Nebraska is the only Big 8 school ever to be invited to the Rose Bowl and the only Big 8 school to have the distinction of playing in all four of the major bowls—Rose, Orange, Cotton and Sugar.

The Huskers' first Bowl game was the 1941 Rose Bowl contest in which the Big 6 champions put up a heroic and colorful struggle before dropping a 21-13 decision to the great Stanford team, coached by Clark Shaughnessey and quarterbacked by Frankie Albert as the nation went T-crazy.

Duke socked the Huskers, 34-7, in the 1955 Orange Bowl game as Nebraska got a bid because Oklahoma was not permitted to make a second successive appearance in Miami due to Big 8 legislation.

Devaney made short work of changing Nebraska's bowl image. His 1962 team out-skated Miami U., and George Mira, 36-34, on the frozen turf of Yankee Stadium in the final Gotham Bowl game. In 1963 the Huskers took a great 13-7 victory over Auburn in the 1964 Orange Bowl game, pepped by a 68-yard TD run by Dennis Claridge and a pair of record field goals by Dave Theisen.

Arkansas won the Grantland Rice Trophy by nipping Nebraska, 10-7, in the final minutes of the 1965 Cotton Bowl game, and Alabama took home the national championship—at Nebraska's expense—the following year when the unbeaten and No. 3 ranked Huskers dropped a 39-28 decision in the 1966 Orange Bowl game despite a record-matching three TD passes by Bobby Churchich.

Alabama spoiled Nebraska's Sugar Bowl trip in 1967 by defeating the Huskers, 34-7, but Devaney's Big Red regained their bowl lustre in 1969 at the Sun Bowl, wowed the nation last New Year's night in the Orange Bowl and head into 1971 with high hopes for another successful season.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME HONORS BOB DEVANEY

The newly-organized Nebraska Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame installed Coach Bob Devaney as the first active member of the new Nebraska Football Hall of Fame at the group's spring dinner in Lincoln.

All members of the National Hall of Fame automatically became members of the Nebraska Hall of Fame. Players are George Sauer, Ed Weir and Guy Chamberlin, and both Weir and Sauer—Chamberlin is deceased—were on hand for Devaney's installation.

Former coaches in the National Hall of Fame and now members of the Nebraska Hall of Fame are D. X. Bible, Lawrence McC. (Biff) Jones, E. N. Robinson and Fielding Yost.

Officers of the Nebraska Chapter of the NF-FHF are Hub Monsky, Omaha, president; Wally Provost, Omaha, vice president; Ed Lyman, Omaha, treasurer; and Don Bryant, Lincoln, secretary. HUSKERS SELECTED IN NFL DRAFT

Four seniors from Nebraska's National Champions were selected in the National Football League's annual college draft. The first to go was All Big Eight running back, Joe Orduna. Joe was taken in the second round by the San Francisco 49ers.

In the third round, the Chicago Bears selected All-America offensive tackle Bob Newton in a selection acquired from the Rams.

All Big Eight kicker Paul Rogers was snapped up by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the eighth round and fullback Dan Schneiss was drafted as a tight end by the New England Patriots in the eleventh round.

Two other Huskers, All-America linebacker Jerry Murtaugh and split end Guy Ingles later signed as free agents. Murtaugh with New England and Ingles with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Newton's fellow tackle, Wally Winter, signed with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League.

ELMER DOHRMANN TOP NU LETTERMAN

Elmer Dohrmann, named to Sports Illustrated's 1962 Silver All America team, is Nebraska's all-time letter champion. Dohrmann won 11 letters during his NU career which spanned 1936-39. He won monograms in football, basketball, track and baseball in his sophomore and junior years and added football, baseball and basketball letters his senior year before passing up track.

ELMER DOHRMANN

Multiple letter leaders since Dohrmann:

- Paul Amen (1936-39)—8 letters
- Bob Cerv (1946-50)—8 letters
- Tom Novak (1946-50)—7 letters
- Mike DiBiase (1946-50)—7 letters

Those Cornhuskers who have gained 6 letters during their careers since Dohrmann set the pace include: Lloyd Cardwell, Bob Mills, Ray Prochaska, Vic Schleich, Ken Hollins, Herb Reese, Bob Reynolds, Charles Bryant, Bill Hawkins and Adrian Fiala.

Top letter-winner at Nebraska since WW II is Bob Cerv, who lettered four years in basketball and baseball. The last Husker to match Amen by lettering in three sports during a single year was Hollins. "Buzz" tripled in football, basketball and track during the 1943-44 and 1944-45 campaigns.

FIVE GAMES PLUS HUSKER CLASSIC ON DECEMBER CAGE SCHEDULE

University of Nebraska basketball fans get an early treat this year. The Husker cagers have scheduled five home games for December in addition to the Second Annual Husker Classic.

Three of the home games will be in the first four days of the season. Wyoming is here December 1, followed by San Diego State on the 3rd and Wichita State on the 4th. SMU invades the Coliseum on December 11, the last game before the Classic, December 17-18.

This year's field is just as attractive as last year's, if not more so. Baylor from the Southwest, LaSalle from the East and Idaho from the Rocky Mountains will try to wrest the crown from the Huskers who downed Colorado State, 69-65, in 1970's title game.

The final home game before the Big Eight Tourney will be against a second California team, San Jose State, December 23.
