#--Big Eight Conference Game; HC--Homecoming; 200--Nebraska's 200th consecutive sellout

The Nebraska Cornhuskers are "Looking For More in 1994." With exciting players like Heisman Trophy candidate Tommie Frazier at quarterback, NU hopes to win its fourth consecutive Big Eight title and the school's third national championship. For more information on the Husker players, please see pages 82-130.

Head Coach Tom Osborne is the winningest coach in the nation. He has won nine-or-more games every year and reached the 200-win plateau in just 21 seasons--faster than any other coach. His athletes lead the nation in academic All-America awards; NCAA Top Six Awards and in postgraduate scholarships. For more information on Coach Osborne and the NU coaches and staff, please see pages 31-72.

Nebraska looks to continue several NCAA record streaks in 1994, including its 25 consecutive bowl bids and 32 straight winning seasons. In addition, in 1994, Nebraska's Memorial Stadium will celebrate its 200th consecutive sellout. For more information on Husker history and records, please see pages 195-290.

Nebraska has much to offer student-athletes including top-notch facilities, coaches, athletic and academic programs and a beautiful college campus and city. Last year, Nebraska was honored by the CFA with a Top 20 graduation rate. To learn more about the University of Nebraska athletic program, please see pages 15-30. Prospective Student-Athletes are invited to contact the Nebraska football office, at 1-800-624-4733 or (402) 472-3116.

Assistance was provided by associate athletic director Don Bryant, assistant SID George Mauzy and office manager Vicki Cartwright. The guide was produced entirely on Aldus PageMaker and printed at University of Nebraska Printing Services. The Sports Information Office would like to thank the following photographers for the use of their work in the guide: Richard Voges and Tom Slocum, UNL Publications & Photography Services; Joe Mixan, Lu Pavelka, Dennis Hubbard, free lance; Jeff Bundy, Rudy Smith, Jim Burnett, Omaha World-Herald; Ted Kirk, Harold Dreimanis and Gail Folda of the Lincoln Journal Star; Greg Phillips, Huskers Illustrated; Shaun Sartin, Daily Nebraskan; Tom Finn, Micki and Richard Lewis, Grieff Siegel and Haruo Gaman, Larry Placido, free lance. Thanks to Janet Denison of Pickering Boe for her artistic assistance on the covers. The 1993 Nebraska Football Media Guide was "Best in the Nation" as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

Husker Football Network Enters 12th Season

The Nebraska Football Network will be in its 12th year of operation in 1994 and is expected to feed 43 stations in 15 states, including 25 in Nebraska. The Network's flagship station, KFAB in Omaha, began broadcasting Cornhusker football in 1926 and has held the exclusive broadcast rights to University of Nebraska football and men's basketball games since 1983. KFAB was awarded a new three-year contract in the fall of 1992.

Kent Pavelka will be back for his 21st season as part of the football broadcasts, his 11th as the play-by-play "Voice of the Huskers." Pavelka, sports director and operations manager of KFAB, has also called Husker basketball for KFAB and the Nebraska Basketball Network for 17 seasons, and is a six-time Nebraska Sportscaster-of-the-Year.

Pavelka's color man will be Gary Sadlemyer of KFAB. KLIN's Jim Rose, hosts the network's call-in show, and KFAB's Terry Leahy, will provide sideline reports.

In addition to game coverage, KFAB will provide a daily live call-in show, Sports Day Mid-America, focusing on Cornhusker athletics, play-by-play coverage of selected women's basketball games, promotional announcements and other items.

MEDIA INFORMATION AND INTERVIEW POLICIES

Media Credentials: All requests for press, broadcast, photo and parking credentials should be directed to Chris Anderson, Sports Information Director (SID). Requests should be made in writing on appropriate letterhead at least one week prior to the game. Requests via fax are acceptable (see fax information below). As a general rule, working space in the Nebraska Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for Sunday publication; (2) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (3) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (4) official school student daily newspaper, one seat and/or sideline only; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers. Weekly press representatives and non-originating radio representatives cannot be accommodated in the Press Box because of space limitations. Visiting free-lance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials, except by approval of visiting SID.

Media Will Call: In most cases, credentials will be mailed. Credentials which are not mailed will be held in the NU Sports Information Office (Room 116 in the South Stadium Office Building) from 9-11:30 a.m. on game day (or four hours prior to kickoff), after which they will be held at the Press Will Call window located outside at the west end of the South Stadium Building. Credentials, including parking, may be picked up Friday, until 5 p.m., at the Sports Information Office from secretary Vicki Cartwright.

Media Access: Memorial Stadium access for the media is the Press Gate (Gate 8) on the west side of the stadium, directly under the Press Box and located a few feet north of the Press Box elevator. The working press area is at Level 1 in the Press Box. Photo and television decks can be reached via Level 2.

Media Parking: Parking at Memorial Stadium is always at a premium, with a limited number of spaces allocated to the media. Media parking is directly south of the stadium, in the lot to the east of the intersection of Memorial and T Streets. Early arrival is strongly suggested. No cars will be admitted to the media lot later than one hour and 15 minutes before kickoff. No cars will be admitted without a media parking pass.

Tuesday Media Luncheons: Each Tuesday during the football season (except weeks of open dates), Nebraska hosts a media luncheon in the N Club Lounge on the first floor of the South Stadium Office Building. A sandwich buffet lunch is served at 11:30 a.m., followed by Coach Tom Osborne's weekly news conference at noon. The news conference will end by 12:30 p.m., and requested Nebraska players will then be available, pending class and meeting schedules, until 1:15 p.m. Participating media requesting Nebraska players must do so on Monday.

Tom Osborne Teleconference: Out-of-town media wishing to participate in the weekly Tom Osborne news conference may do so via telephone by contacting the Nebraska Sports Information Office (402-472-2263) no later than Monday afternoon. A University operator will connect participants shortly before noon Central time. Lines are limited and in the event demand exceeds supply, priority will be given to those who have requested credentials to that week's game.

Media Hotels: The Nebraska Sports Information Office reserves a limited number of hotel rooms for out-of-state media for home football weekends. The rooms may be requested through Vicki Cartwright in the Sports Information Office (402) 472-2263, but requests must be made by noon on the Wednesday prior to the game. Credit card numbers will be requested to confirm late arrivals.

Stadium Directions: Memorial Stadium is located on the east side of Memorial Drive, between T Street on the south and Avery Avenue on the north. To reach it from Lincoln Municipal Airport, turn right on Northwest 12th Street as you drive out of the airport. Northwest 12th becomes Cornhusker Highway, which intersects with Interstate 180. Exit south (downtown) onto I-180, which turns into one-way, southbound, Ninth Street in downtown Lincoln. Drive two blocks and turn left at P Street (just past the Lincoln Journal-Star Building), go one block and turn left on 10th Street, then keep to the right for four blocks to Memorial Stadium (DO NOT enter I-180 north). From Omaha's Eppley Airfield, follow the signs to downtown Omaha and Interstate 480. Take I-480 west to Interstate 80, then take I-80 west approximately 60 miles to I-180. Exit south (downtown) on I-180, and follow the above directions.

Sports Information Office: The University of Nebraska Sports Information Office is in Room 116 of the South Stadium Office Building, which is located under the south stands of Memorial Stadium. Room 116 is to the left inside the building's main entrance, at the foot of the stairs.

Interview Policy: During the season, the only times Coach Tom Osborne will be available for media interviews during the week will be at the Tuesday news conferences and on the field after practice each day. Coach Osborne is also available each Monday (11:35 a.m.) on the Big Eight Briefing teleconference. Please contact the Big Eight office (816-471-5088) for details. Nebraska players are available for interviews in person or by telephone after practice until two days before a game during the season (i.e., through Wednesday for a Saturday game). Depending on class and meeting schedules, players are sometimes available before practice. All requests for player interviews must go through the Sports Information Office (402-472-2263). No player interviews will be granted on the two days prior to a game, or prior to the game on gameday. No interviews are to be conducted on the lower level of the South Stadium Office Building, including the hallway and the tunnel leading to the field, or in the weight room or Hewitt Center. Interviews with assistant coaches in their offices on the second floor of the South Stadium Building must be set up in advance either through the coach or Sports Information. Players who are redshirting their first year at Nebraska are not required to do interviews and players will not be allowed to be interviewed on live call-in radio shows. All requests must be made at least one day in advance.

Daily Practices: During the season, Nebraska practices are normally conducted in Memorial Stadium starting at approximately 3:15 p.m. All practices are closed to the public and the media after the first 15 minutes. Media wishing to interview Coach Tom Osborne or Nebraska players after practice should come to the Sports Information Office shortly before the end of practice and be escorted to the field. Practices usually last two hours, but the length sometimes varies, so media should check with Sports Information (402-472-2263) to verify practice times.

Postgame Interviews: Nebraska's locker room is closed after games, both home and away, but Coach Tom Osborne and requested players and assistant coaches will be available for interviews following a brief cooling-off period. For home games, only coaches, players and staff members will be admitted to the tunnel and locker room after the game, but Coach Osborne and requested personnel will be brought to the N Club Lounge in the South Stadium Office Building. Admittance to the interview area will be by media credential only. Media members may reach the N Club Lounge through the center door of the South Stadium Building. For away games, the best available interview area will be used. Requests for player and assistant coach interviews, home and away, will be taken by Chris Anderson and Nick Joos at the end of the third quarter. Non-requested players making significant plays in the fourth quarter will be added as a matter of course.

Pro Scouting Tickets: Per Big Eight Conference rules, the University of Nebraska does not provide Press Box access or media credentials for professional scouts. Scouts may arrange through the Sports Information Office (402-472-2263) to purchase high-row tickets for Nebraska home games. Tickets will be held in will call in the South Stadium Ticket Office unless other arrangements are made.

Satellite Feeds: Videotape highlights of Nebraska football games are available weekly during the football season via the Big Eight Conference satellite uplink. The half-hour feed runs each Tuesday, Sept. 6-Nov. 22 at 3 p.m., Central time. For satellite coordinates (unavailable at press time) please contact the Nebraska Sports Information Office (402-472-2263) or the Big Eight Office (816-471-5088). Following halftime of non-televised home games, first-half highlights of the game will be available via satellite. Please contact the Nebraska Sports Information Office for coordinates.

Telephones: Nebraska provides some 22 modular telephones for media use in the Memorial Stadium Press Box, 17 on the first row of the main press area, two more on the second row, and three on tables in the rear of the press area. All long-distance calls must be credit card, collect or billed to a third number. Any media sources wishing to install a private telephone in the Press Box should contact University of Nebraska Telecommunications (402-472-2000) at least two weeks prior to the game.

Press Box Services: The Nebraska Sports Information Office will provide game programs, pregame notes, flip cards and media guides prior to home games. Play-by-play accounts, quarter "flash" stats, final stats, player and coach postgame quotes from both locker rooms, postgame notes and complete sets of all of the above are distributed as soon as they are available. A verbal play-by-play account of down and distance is provided over the interior public address system. Injury information, record and stat updates and scores of other games are also provided, as available. Nebraska's postgame interviews can be heard in the press box for those who are unable to go down to the lounge. A complimentary meal is served, normally starting two hours before kickoff and ending one-half hour before kickoff. Soft drinks are available until the Press Box closes. A Sports Information Office representative will be in the Press Box until all visiting writers have finished.

Big Eight Sideline Policies: The Big Eight Conference maintains a strict sideline control policy in an effort to keep the playing area as clear of people as possible. All sideline photographers must have a sideline armband and a media pass, and both must be clearly visible. Armbands can be picked up in the Press Box prior to game time—providing photographers have made prior arrangements. The Big Eight sideline control policy: (1) Only those photographers on assignment from a newspaper, magazine, television station, or a participating institution, are given credentials. Each student publication shall be limited to one press and/or one sideline photo pass. (2) Only those newspapers with Sunday and/or daily editions are eligible for sideline passes. (Special requests shall be submitted to the Sports Information Director for review, but such requests, if honored, will be limited to one photo pass). (3) Cutline writers, equipment carriers, and/or other so-called "assistants" will not be allowed on the sideline. (4) Photographers must display their credentials (media pass and armband) at all times. Failure to do so will result in expulsion from the stadium. (5) University personnel are to be deployed on the sidelines to ensure that all credentials are properly displayed and to watch for any abuse of privileges by photographers. Those possessing bench passes must remain inside the team bench area (between the 25-yard lines). (6) Photographers may not enter the bench area at any time. (7) Photographers are not permitted to congregate in the writers' section of the Press Box during halftime or after the game.

FAX Access: The Nebraska Sports Information Office has an automatic fax machine which can transmit or receive documents. The telephone number for the fax is 402-472-2005. The machine is available, on request, in the Press Box after the game free of charge. Postgame stats will be available on fax-back immediately following the game. Nebraska, and all Big Eight Conference schools, are members of a conference-wide "fax-back" system, where interested media members may call directly and have releases, notes, stats, depth charts, etc., faxed to their machine. There will be no charge to the receiver, other than the normal cost of the long-distance call. Please contact Nebraska Sports Information (402-472-2263) or the Big Eight (816-471-5088) for more information.

HUSKERS "LOOKING FOR MORE IN 1994"

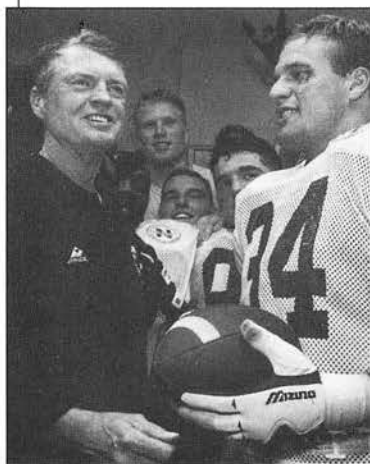

Huskers in Hunt for 1994 National Crown, Fourth Consecutive Big Eight Title

After a perfect 11-0 regular season in 1993 and an outstanding performance in the title game against Florida State in the Orange Bowl in which the Seminoles edged the Huskers 18-16, the "Refuse to Lose" Huskers are back and ready to begin their 105th season equipped with a two-year starter at quarterback, four returning offensive line starters, and excellent talent and speed on defense. Nebraska will be going for its fourth consecutive Big Eight Conference title, but will be "Looking for More in '94." Picked in the top five by most preseason publications, there's no reason why the Huskers won't make a run at the national championship again this season.

The Husker winning tradition began in 1962, when Bob Devaney arrived via train from Wyoming. Since then, NU has never had anything but winning seasons and thanks to Devaney's insight in naming Tom Osborne as his successor in 1973, the Husker winning tradition has continued. In 33 years under Devaney-Osborne, Husker teams have accounted for 307 of Nebraska's 673 all-time wins, 18 of its 39 conference titles and 30 of its 32 bowl appearances.

Nebraska, the eighth all-time winningest program in the nation with a 673-290-40 record (.691), will be looking to continue several NCAA record streaks including: 32 consecutive winning seasons (25 consecutive with nine or more wins); 25-consecutive bowl appearances (ties the all-time NCAA record for consecutive appearances); 195 consecutive sellouts (since 1962) in NU's Memorial Stadium; and a record 206 consecutive weeks being ranked in the AP poll.

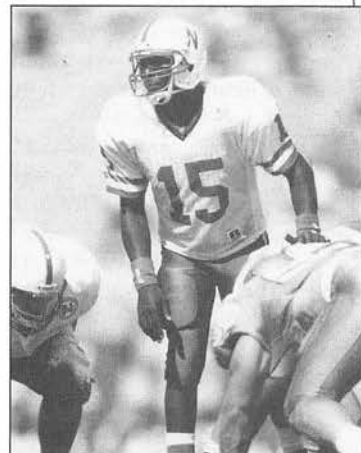

Winning nine or more games every year, Coach Osborne, the nation's winningest active coach, heads into 1994 with an .811 winning percentage. His 206 wins and 256 games coached are Big Eight records and last season he became just the 12th Division I football coach to win 200 games. He did so in just 21 seasons, the fastest among all coaches. His priorities are the student in student-athlete, however, as evidenced last year when the nation's best linebacker and defensive player-of-the-year Trev Alberts, was also chosen among all sports as one of the NCAA's elite Today's Top Six and earned GTE First-Team Academic All-America accolades playing with his degree in hand.

Osborne won game No. 200 in 1993.

Although the Huskers will feel the loss of Alberts, NU has plenty of returning talent. Headlining the returnees is quarterback Tommie Frazier, a two-year starter and Heisman candidate; three-year starting offensive tackle Zach Wiegert, an Outland and Lombardi candidate; All-America and Butkus candidate Ed Stewart at linebacker; as well as All-America contenders Barron Miles at cornerback; offensive tackle Brenden Stai; defensive tackle Terry Connealy; outside linebacker Dwayne Harris and Rhodes Scholar candidate Rob Zatechka.

After seeing the national title come down to a missed field goal on Jan. 1, the Huskers are anxious to get the '94 season underway. In fact, the team voted to take on West Virginia in the Kickoff Classic on Aug. 28. Nebraska's attempt at its 12th undefeated season won't be a cakewalk. And agreeing to play in the Kickoff Classic (for the third time in its 11-year history) should send notice that Osborne and his Huskers won't shy away from any challenge. The Mountaineers and the Huskers were two of three undefeated teams heading into the bowls last season and NU's 1994 opponents posted a 76-61-3 (.555) combined record in 1993. Including the preseason game with West Virginia, Nebraska will open the season on the road for the first time since a 23-14 win over Texas A&M in the 1988 Kickoff Classic, and will play its first two games on the road (first time since 1976), traveling to Lubbock, Texas, to meet John Hancock Bowl participant Texas Tech. It doesn't lighten up as UCLA opens the Huskers home schedule on Sept. 17. The Huskers' first three games will air on national television with five definite appearances and possibly more. Nebraska will take on seven teams which appeared in bowl games last season, including West Virginia, Texas Tech, UCLA, Wyoming, Kansas State, Colorado and Oklahoma. The respect Nebraska earned in the Orange Bowl as a 17 1/2-point underdog, isn't enough for this unified 1994 squad.

They're looking for more. Osborne said, "The players have confidence. The Orange Bowl loss has made them more determined. They want to get back to it."

The 1994 Nebraska Cornhuskers

13 Returning Starters Provide Nucleus

Nebraska said goodbye to 29 seniors at the Orange Bowl and also to star junior I-back Calvin Jones who elected to leave school a year early, declaring himself eligible for the NFL draft. Of the 32 lettermen lost, Nebraska loses five starters on offense, including split end Corey Dixon, left tackle Lance Lundberg, offensive guard Ken Mehlin, tight end Gerald Armstrong and I-back Calvin Jones, plus first-team tight end Trumane Bell who started five games. NU also lost six starters on defense, including outside linebacker Trev Alberts, defensive tackle Kevin Ramaekers, Sam linebacker Ernie Beler, Mike linebacker Mike Anderson, rover Toby Wright and free safety John Reece. The Huskers also lost place-kicker and punter Byron Bennett, who finished as the Huskers' all-time leading kick scorer.

Nebraska's cupboard certainly will not be bare in 1994, as NU returns 13 starters including seven on offense and six on defense. Four of the five starters on the offensive line return to give Nebraska one of its best front lines. The "Nebraska Pipeline" includes; Rob Zatechka, Brenden Stai, and Zach Wiegert plus center Aaron Graham who started the last five games when Stai was out with a broken leg and Mehlin moved to center. Nebraska Orange Bowl MVP Tommie Frazier returns as does fullback Cory Schlesinger and NU's leading receiver wingback Abdul Muhammad. Others with extensive playing time returning on offense include offensive guard Joel Wilks, split ends Reggie Baul and Brett Popplewell, wingback Clester Johnson, tight end Eric Alford and a talented corps of young I-backs in Lawrence Phillips, Damon Benning, Clinton Childs and fullback Jeff Makovicka.

On defense, standout linebacker Ed Stewart will contend for national honors this year and heads a list of six returning starters. He is joined by outside linebacker Donta Jones, All-Big Eight defensive tackle Terry Connealy and cornerbacks Barron Miles and Tyrone Williams. Other talented returnees include Dwayne Harris at outside linebacker, who had eight sacks last year as a reserve; defensive tackle Christian Peter; linebackers Troy Dumas, Doug Colman and Phil Ellis and defensive backs Kareem Moss, Eric Stokes, and Mike Minter.

Overall, 29 freshman and sophomore players were listed on the three-deep by the end of the 1993 season and have brought valuable playing experience to the table in 1994. More than half of Nebraska's starters return and 17 have starting experience including 11 players on the offensive side. In fact, offensive returnees have started 105 games in the last three years. Even though Nebraska will start an unredshirted junior at quarterback, a true sophomore at I-back, a sophomore at free safety and a junior at right corner, Osborne won't get much pity with the likes of Heisman candidate Tommie Frazier, freshman sensation Lawrence Phillips, Big Eight defensive newcomer-of-the-year Tyrone Williams and future Thorpe Award candidate Mike Minter filling those positions, respectively.

Position by Position

Receivers

Nebraska lost its top two tight ends and three-year letterman and return specialist Corey Dixon, but has a bevy of talent returning including starting wingback Abdul Muhammad who led the Husker receivers in 1993 with 25 receptions for 383 yards and three TDs. Muhammad caught at least one pass in every game last year, just the ninth player in Husker history to accomplish this feat. Eric Alford, a gifted athlete and backup wingback last year, moves to tight end joining Matt Shaw and Mark Gilman. Shaw, a strong blocker at 6-3, 235, started one game for NU in 1993. Riley Washington, an All-America sprinter, and Reggie Baul give Nebraska speedy receivers who will be a big factor this season. Baul started two games and had seven receptions for 116 yards last season, not including a 34-yard TD in the Orange Bowl vs. Florida State. Baul is joined by sophomore Brendan Holbein and a native Australian, Brett Popplewell, an excellent blocker, at split end while Clester Johnson (eight catches for 96 yards in 1993) joins Muhammad at wingback. Dixon left NU with 600 yards receiving and 726 yards in returns. Departed tight ends Trumane Bell and Gerald

Stai started first seven games at right guard, but broke his leg, Mehlin moved to guard and Graham started last five games at center.*

Armstrong combined for 23 catches for 332 yards and seven of the team's 16 TD receptions. "Tight end was somewhat critical going into spring drills as we lost our top two players, but Eric Alford made the move from wingback to tight end quite well. He has good speed and has made a lot of progress. We have a good group of receivers with Baul, Muhammad, Popplewell, Holbein, Washington and Johnson returning," said Osborne.

Offensive Line

The "Nebraska Pipeline" is missing two starters but won't skip a beat as four other starters, Rob Zatechka (6-5, 315), Aaron Graham (6-3, 280), Brenden Stai (6-4, 300) and Zach Wiegert (6-5, 300) return. Stai started the first seven games last year at right guard before breaking his fibula against Missouri. He returned to play in the Orange Bowl. Starting senior center Ken Mehlin moved to guard and Graham started the last five games. Graham figures to again be the starter at center, but missed most of the spring when he had arthroscopic surgery on both knees, while backup Bill Humphrey stepped in and was one of the most pleasant surprises of the spring. Senior Joel Wilks, who started one game in 1993, or junior Steve Ott, will take over for Zatechka at left guard, while the big 4.0 genius moves back to tackle to fill the void vacated by All-Big Eight tackle Lance Lundberg. The starting O-Line, with Wilks starting at left guard, averages in at 6-4, 295 pounds and sports good speed (1.74 electronic average in the 10-yard dash) and mobility. Although NU lost three-year starter Lance Lundberg and center/guard Mehlin, the 1994 top five have 48 starts among them with Wiegert starting for his third year. Nebraska led the nation in rushing in 1992, and last year ranked third averaging 287.9 yards per game. The Huskers were fifth in scoring at 38.3 points per game and 23rd in total offense at 425.0 ypg. Wiegert earned second- and third-team All-America honors last year (by UPI and AP, respectively) and already a two-time All-Big Eight pick, will be a top contender for national honors this fall. Zatechka meanwhile, is still a perfect 4.0 on the grade reports and looks to repeat as a GTE Academic All-American and become Nebraska's first Rhodes Scholar. Stai was having a stellar season last year before breaking his leg and with Wiegert, gives Nebraska an explosive right wall for the Husker running backs. Offensive line coach Milt Tenopir said that Wiegert and Stai are as good of a pair as he's ever seen on one side in his 20 years at Nebraska. Graham will continue to serve as the Huskers' deep snapper. Coach Osborne said, "We can put a quality group out there and have a chance to have one of our better lines if we stay healthy."

Running Backs

The Husker backfield loses just one starter, but the loss is a big one in Calvin Jones, who left Nebraska after his junior season for the Los Angeles Raiders, ranking as NU's second-leading all-time rusher with 3,153 yards and 40 touchdowns. Jones rushed for 900 yards as a freshman, 1,210 as a sophomore and 1,043 as a junior despite missing most of three games in early 1993 with a knee injury suffered in the first game. Jones' backups last year were three first-year players in redshirt freshman Damon Benning (55 carries, 323 yards, 4 TDs); true freshman Lawrence Phillips (92, 508, 5); and first-year sophomore Clinton Childs (18, 96, 1). Benning started two games in Jones' absence and had a season-high 127 yards against Texas Tech. Phillips rushed for 137 yards vs. UCLA and provided a dazzling 64 yards on 13 attempts in the Orange Bowl (all but one carry came in the fourth quarter). Sophomore Marvin Sims, who had reconstructive knee surgery a year ago, had a solid spring camp and will back up the young, but extremely talented I-back crew. At fullback, senior Cory Schlesinger returns to his starting position where he rushed 48 times for 193 yards and one TD in 1993. He will be backed by Jeff Makovicka, who saw time at both fullback and I-back in 1993 and carried the ball 22 times for 165 yards.

Quarterbacks

Talented Tommie Frazier gives the Huskers a third-year starter at quarterback for the first time since Steve Taylor returned for his senior year in 1988. Arguably the nation's best option quarterback for 1994, Frazier was second on the team in rushing last year with 704 yards on 126 carries (5.6 average per carry) with nine TDs. He completed 77 of 162 (.475) passes for 1,159 yards with just four interceptions and 12 touchdowns. Frazier led NU to its third straight Big Eight championship and an 11-0 regular season despite suffering a badly sprained ankle in the season opener and a right shoulder strain in the eighth game vs. Colorado. Frazier made the 1993 Davey O'Brien Quarterback Award semifinal list--the only sophomore to be named to the 10-man list. Frazier was the first player in NU history to earn the starting quarterback job as a freshman and entering his third year, has two Big Eight championships under his belt and a 16-3 record as a starter. He nearly led the Huskers to the national championship when against Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl, he literally matched Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward, yard-for-yard, as they both had 283 total offense yards. Frazier was the game's leading rusher with 14 carries for 77 yards and completed 13 of 24 passes for 206 yards and one TD. On Nebraska's final drive he completed a 29-yard pass to set up a 45-yard field goal attempt with :01 remaining. Frazier was Nebraska's MVP, earned the nation's respect and will be a contender for national honors in 1994, in just his junior season. Although Coach Osborne is pleased to welcome back Frazier, depth is lacking. Brook Berringer (222 yards passing in 1993) returns for his junior year to back up Frazier, but Ben Rutz transferred to Northeastern Oklahoma A&M and Tony Veland has moved to free safety after a season-ending torn petellar tendon in NU's second game last year. Walk-on Matt Turman will back up Berringer. Osborne said, "Quarterback is a strength with Tommie returning, although it is a very thin position. Frazier gets better all the time. He went from 45 percent passing a year ago to nearly 50 percent in 1993 and we hope he will improve five or six percent this year as well. As Frazier and Berringer have gotten more experience, it has given us leeway to do more things well. We have the full gamut--fullhouse

Husker Rushing Facts

- Nebraska is 131-5-0 (.963) when rushing for 300 or more yards in a game, since 1973 under Coach Osborne.
- The Huskers have won 53-straight games when rushing for 300-plus yards, since a loss to Michigan in the 1986 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl, when the team rushed for 304 yards.
- Nebraska is 67-0 in the Osborne-era when rushing for 400 or more yards.
- Nebraska has won eight NCAA rushing titles under Coach Osborne, the most recent in 1992.

backfield, power I, one-back, shotgun. There is hardly any style of offense we're not capable of running."

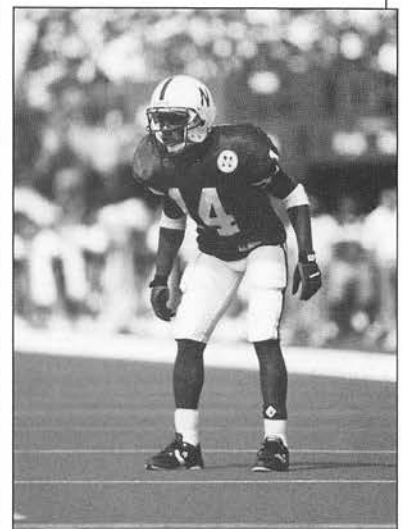

Kicking/Punting>Returns

The Huskers lost punter and place-kicker Byron Bennett and for the first time since 1983, do not have a starter returning at either kicking positions. Tom Sieler, who was NU's kickoff man last year and a three-year letterman, figures to be the favorite for place-kicking duties, while Darin Erstad, who transferred his baseball scholarship to football this season, looks to contend for the punting duties with redshirted freshman Jesse Kosch and back up Sieler at place-kicker. Sieler is inexperienced, however, as he has not yet attempted a field goal in a game, although he is 16-17 on PATs, making the last 16. Erstad, a preseason All-America outfielder in 1994, completed his sophomore year of baseball this spring hitting .317 and saw limited spring action with the football team. Sporting a strong leg (he made a school-record 50-yard field goal in high school and averaged 42 yards per punt as a senior), Erstad will have three years of football eligibility remaining. Erstad was invited to play with the USA Olympic developmental baseball team this summer, but declined. Osborne said the kicking game, normally a stronghold for the Huskers, is still unsettled. He said, "On special teams we lost four-year letterman Byron Bennett, who did both kicking and punting in 1993, so it is going to be an overhaul."

NU will miss three-year return specialist Corey Dixon who totaled 327 yards in kickoffs and 399 in punt returns in his career. Although Dixon never had a return for a TD in his three years at NU, he nearly put Nebraska up 6-0 in the first quarter of the 1994 Orange Bowl with his 71-yard punt return, but it was called back on a penalty. In his place, look for Damon Benning (NU's leader in 1993 with 9-192 yards) and Barron Miles (3-4) to fill the void on kickoff returns while Kareem Moss (11-122 yards), and Reggie Baul could get the nod on punts.

NU loses its holder, David Seizys, a position either Matt Turman, Tommie Frazier or Brett Popplewell will fill, but returns its top snapper in Aaron Graham. Graham has held that role for the past two years. Miles, who was listed as the No. 2 punter last year (although he had no punts), is also a kickoff returner (he had two kickoff returns in the 1993 Orange Bowl for 79 yards and three for 64 yards in 1993 season) and had three blocked kicks last season. One he fell on in the end zone for a smooth-motion TD against Oklahoma State, a feat which earned play-of-the-game and week honors. Said Miles, "Special teams keeps me motivated. If I have a good play on special teams, it gets me more pumped up to play my normal position." His "normal position" is in the secondary at left corner.

Defensive Line

Kevin Ramaekers started every game at defensive tackle last season and graduated after recording 48 tackles, including four tackles for loss. Ramaekers' backups, Billy Wade and David Noonan, also graduated after combining for 38 tackles in 1993. However, Terry

Terry Connealy was an All-Big Eight defensive tackle and a GTE Academic All-American in 1993.

Connealy, a GTE Academic All-American and All-Big Eight pick in 1993, returns to the nose/defensive tackle position after recording 45 tackles last year including 5.5 tackles for 29 yards lost, one breakup and 15 quarterback hurries. Junior Christian Peter and senior Jason Pesterfield are the only other lettered linemen returning. Larry Townsend, Scott Saltsman and Jeff Ogard each saw limited action, while freshman Jason Peter (younger brother of Christian) and junior college transfer Jason Jenkins redshirted. Connealy and Christian (seven tackles in 1993) are expected to be the starters. At the conclusion of spring drills, Defensive Coordinator Charlie McBride said, "Defensively, we can put one good team on the field. Now as coaches, we've got to work like mad to make our backup players better."

Outside Linebackers

All-Everything and NU's first Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts is gone, as is Bruce Moore, but four outside linebackers return with nine letters between them. Starting left outside linebacker Donta Jones returns and will switch to the right side, while Dwayne Harris will secure the left side. Harris and Jones are both talented 'backers and Harris, with incredible speed and strength, could follow in Alberts' footsteps as one in a long line of All-America OLBs at Nebraska, a list which includes Tampa Bay's Broderick Thomas and Denver's Mike Croel. Harris' numbers, in limited playing time, speak for themselves, as he had 22 tackles in 1993, including eight sacks (second on the team). Jones has three letters and 54 career tackles. Returning lettermen Luther Hardin and Jerad Higman are slated to back up the two seniors. Backing up Harris will be sophomores Jared Tomich, who had an impressive spring camp, Jeff Olsen and Ed Morrow.

Linebackers

Nebraska loses seven linebackers with a combined 22 years of experience including starters Ernie Beler (Sam linebacker) and three-year starting middle linebacker Mike Anderson. Returning, however, is premier weak-side linebacker Ed Stewart, who has started the past 24 games and has 161 career tackles. Last season, Stewart was tied for second on the team in tackles with 79 stops, including three sacks, four breakups and an interception. The Huskers' 4-3 defense, implemented last season, is perfect for Stewart, who at 6-1, 215, is one of the best athletes on the team and will contend for national honors in 1994. Troy Dumas, who started four games at free safety and one at Sam linebacker last year, will take over at Sam for Beler, while talented two-year letterman Doug Colman will replace Anderson. Four Huskers who earned playing time last year will serve as experienced backups in 1994, including Clint Brown at Sam, Phil Ellis at Mike and Ryan Terwilliger and Aaron Penland at Will. Senior walk-on Leonard Alexander is the No. 1 backup at Mike and could also back up Stewart after a strong spring camp.

Butkus Award candidate Ed Stewart.

Secondary

Nebraska lost two valuable starters from last year in rover Toby Wright and two-year starter John Reece, who were drafted in the second and fourth rounds by the Los Angeles Rams and the Arizona Cardinals, respectively. Wright tied for second on the team in tackles with 79 including six breakups and three interceptions, while Reece was fifth on the team with 58 tackles, including a team-leading nine breakups and one interception. All-Big Eight playmaker Barron Miles returns at left cornerback. Miles was sixth on the team with 50 tackles, had five breakups, one interception, and three blocked kicks, including the CNN/ESPN play-of-the-day against Oklahoma State when he blocked a punt and fell on the ball in one smooth-motion for a TD. Miles is also a member of all special teams, could serve as a punter, has returned kickoffs and this year may be the Huskers' holder. The Big Eight Co-Defensive Newcomer-of-the-Year as a sophomore, Tyrone Williams, had 29 tackles in 1993, three fumble recoveries, five breakups and an interception at right corner. Mike Minter, who saw the most playing time of any backup in the secondary last year alternating with Wright at rover, switched to free safety this spring when injuries depleted the position. He is expected to take over Reece's spot. Minter had 23 tackles in 1993, two fumbles caused and one recovered. Minter, Williams and Miles are three of the four fastest players on the 1994 squad with electronic 10-yard times of 1.50, 1.51 and 1.52, respectively. Minter and Williams posted the top two 40 times as well with a 4.41 and a 4.45. Kareem Moss, who played at left corner in 1993 behind Miles, will start at rover. Moss, an experienced senior, had seven tackles in 1993. Eric Stokes has experience at the corners but missed most of spring with injuries. Sedric Collins, a three-year letterman, figures to back up Minter at free safety. Converted quarterback Tony Veland is a talented athlete and although he tore his petellar tendon in the second game last year and missed all of spring, he is expected to see playing time at free safety. Two newcomers, Michael Booker and Jamel Williams, could see playing time in their first year. "Barron Miles and Tyrone Williams are probably as good of corners as we've ever had. But we need to find backups. Free safety was our biggest concern. Tony Veland and freshman Matt Aden missed the spring with injuries leaving senior Sedric Collins as the only veteran," said Osborne.

Following spring ball, Osborne said the 1994 team has a chance to be very good and a national contender. The 21-year mentor said much of the fall's success depends on how hard the team works in the summer and the prevalence of chemistry and leadership in the fall. Last year's team excelled in both categories. Osborne said you can never tell, "but I'd be surprised if they didn't want to be pretty good again. You can win or lose a couple of games a year depending on your work ethic in the summer. The players realize last year they came very close and have the confidence to know they played well. They have the incentive to get the whole thing done this year. I don't think confidence will be a problem."

It's a Fact

Since 1982 when Charlie McBride became Nebraska's defensive coordinator, Husker defensive units have ranked among the nation's top 15 in total defense, nine of the 12 years.

Returning Defensive Starters

- OLB--Donta Jones, Sr., (25 tackles, 1-12 yards lost)
- DT--Terry Connealy, Sr., (45 tackles, 5.5-29 yards lost)
- WLB--Ed Stewart, Sr., (64 tackles, 6.5-15 yards lost)
- SLB--Troy Dumas, Sr., (20 tackles, 4 PBU)
- LCB--Barron Miles, Sr., (50 tackles, 3 BK, 5 PBU, 1 int.)
- RCB--Tyrone Williams, Jr. (29 tackles, 3 FR, 3 PBU, 1 int.)

Husker Notes and Notables

Coach Osborne Joins 200 Club

Coach Tom Osborne, the winningest football coach in Division I-A today (.811 winning percentage), became just the 12th coach to win 200 games in his career. He did so in just the fifth game of his 21st season at the helm and became the first coach to reach 200 in that short of time period. Osborne begins his 22nd year as head coach of the Huskers and his 33rd overall at NU which includes an 11-year stint as an assistant under Bob Devaney. That's the longest tenure ever for a Nebraska coach, and ties the longest in Big Eight history, behind Bennie Owen, who coached 22 years at Oklahoma from 1905-26. Osborne (Hastings, 1959) owns a career and school mark of 206-47-3 for an .811 winning percentage. The dean of Big Eight football coaches, he holds league records for games coached (256) and won (206). Osborne's teams have won at least nine games every season and the Nebraska native ranks ninth on the all-time NCAA Division I win chart, third among active coaches. He is second among active coaches in bowl appearances, third all time, having taken the Huskers to a bowl game in each of his 21 years. Osborne's teams have played 82 games against ranked (AP) teams and have won 45. That's an average of four games vs. ranked teams each year. Osborne's teams meanwhile, have been ranked in the final AP poll every year and in 329 of the possible 332 polls. Last seasons' Big Eight championship was Osborne's 10th, third consecutive.

Over the Last 21 Years, Osborne's Huskers Have...

- ☐ Won 10 Big Eight Championships (leads the Big Eight).
- ☐ Won 206 games (9.8/year).
- ☐ Won nine or more games every year (a continuing NCAA record).
- ☐ Gone to 21 consecutive bowl games (13 consecutive on New Year's Day).
- ☐ Been ranked every single year by the Associated Press (AP record).
- ☐ Been ranked in 329 of the possible 332 weeks by AP.
- ☐ Won the national rushing title eight times (best in the nation).
- ☐ Won four Outlands, two Lombardis, one Heisman Trophy and the 1993 Butkus Award.
- ☐ Received 43 first-team All-America certificates (2.1/year).
- ☐ Earned 39 first-team GTE Academic All-America awards (1.9/year).
- ☐ Earned six NCAA Today's Top Six awards (leads the nation).
- ☐ Earned 23 NCAA postgraduate scholarships (1.1/year).
- ☐ Been selected in the first-round NFL draft 17 times (nearly one/year).
- ☐ Had the opportunity to play pro ball with 144 draft picks (6.9/year).
- ☐ Played on national television 97 times (4.6/year).
- ☐ Played against 82 ranked opponents (3.9/year).
- ☐ Lost only one game to a team which finished season sub-.500.

NU Continues Unprecedented Winning Tradition

Nebraska, the nation's eighth winningest program all time, boasts a 673-290-40 record in 1,003 games (.691). In terms of wins, the Huskers are sixth in NCAA Division I history with 673. In 1993, NU not only continued its NCAA records for consecutive winning seasons (32), consecutive nine-win seasons (25), and consecutive bowls (25), but also extended its NCAA record for consecutive home sellouts in NU's Memorial Stadium with its 195th against Oklahoma; and continued its AP poll record, as the final poll ranking (No. 3 on Jan. 2) was NU's 206th consecutive top 25 ranking in as many weeks. The sellout and the consecutive winning season streaks date to Bob Devaney's first year as coach in 1962, while the consecutive bowl and the nine-win streaks date back to 1969 (Nebraska will celebrate its 200th consecutive sellout in

Memorial Stadium against Colorado on Oct. 29). Devaney and Osborne were the third Division I coaching duo to post back-to-back 100-win careers at the same institution (following Penn State's Rip Engle and Joe Paterno and Georgia Tech's John Heisman, Bill Alexander and Bobby Dodd), but were the first pair to do so in an unbelievable 21 years. Since 1962, Devaney and Osborne have a combined 307-67-5 record for an incredible .817 winning percentage (32 years, 379 games). NU has won 10-or-more games 15 times in that span (11 of which have come under Osborne) and have gone undefeated through the regular season four times, have been in six national title games and have won the championship twice. Since the first NU season beginning in 1890, Husker teams have won 11 or more games six times (four under Osborne) including 1970 (11-0-1), 1971 (13-0-0), 1982 (12-1-0), 1983 (12-1-0), 1988 (11-2-0) and 1993 (11-1-0).

Huskers' 25 Consecutive Bowls Ties NCAA Record

The Huskers' invitation to appear in the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl extended their string of consecutive bowl trips to 25, the longest current streak in college football and equal to Alabama's NCAA record streak of 25 from 1959-83. It is the nation's longest current consecutive streak with Michigan next at 19. Nebraska's 32 bowl appearances overall is fifth best, trailing Alabama's 46, USC's 36, and Texas and Tennessee's 34. The 1994 Orange Bowl was also Nebraska's 13th straight "New Year's Day" bowl. NU's 13 consecutive Jan. 1 or Jan. 2 bowl invitations, is also an NCAA record. Miami is next in line to Nebraska with 11 "New Year's Day" appearances, while Michigan is third with nine. The last time the Huskers played in a bowl game other than Jan. 1 or 2 was the Dec. 27, 1980, Sun Bowl at El Paso, Texas, where they defeated Mississippi State, 31-17. Nebraska's 25-consecutive bowls streak began with a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl.

Huskers' AP Poll Record Streak Hits 206

Nebraska finished No. 3 in the last AP poll, after an 18-16 loss to No. 1 Florida State in the Orange Bowl. Nebraska's No. 2 ranking entering the bowl game was its highest since beginning the first three weeks of the 1988 season ranked No. 2. Nebraska's No. 3 final AP rank was its highest finish since placing second in 1983 and was the first time the Huskers finished in the top 10 since a sixth-place final mark in 1987. Prior to the 1994 preseason poll, Nebraska has been ranked a record 206 consecutive weeks in the Associated Press poll (every weekly AP poll since 1981). In fact, Nebraska has been in 380 of the last 383 AP polls since 1969 (329 of 332 under Tom Osborne since 1973), missing one week in 1977 and two in 1981. Nebraska ranks as the most successful school in the last 21 years (all during Osborne's tenure), based on AP polls. Using a point system of 20 for first, 19 for second, etc., Nebraska leads with 256 points, Michigan is second with 244 and Oklahoma third, 239. In all AP polls since 1936, NU ranks sixth with 408 points.

NU to Open with Two Road Games in 1994

The Nebraska team voted to accept an invitation to play in the 1994 Kickoff Classic in East Rutherford, N.J., against West Virginia and thus will open its season early. The game, which pits two of the three teams who escaped the regular season undefeated last year, will be held on Sunday, Aug. 28, with a 1 p.m. Central kickoff time. The game will be broadcast live nationally by ABC. West Virginia finished the season ranked No. 7 in the final AP poll. The Mountaineers captured the Big East championship and Coach Don Nehlen was the unanimous choice as Big East Coach-of-the-Year. West Virginia returns 12 starters including star tailback Robert Walker who set a school rushing record with 1,250 yards last season. This will mark the third time Nebraska has played in the Kickoff Classic as the Huskers defeated Penn State in the inaugural game, 44-6 (1983), and Texas A&M, 23-14, in 1988. Nebraska has not played on the northeast coast since the 1988 Classic. NU finished 12-1 and 11-2, respectively, in the years it has appeared in the preseason game and is the only school to play in three preseason classics. It is the first appearance in the Classic for West Virginia and the first meeting between the two schools. Nebraska and West Virginia were scheduled to meet in the 1918 season, however, the game was cancelled "due to wartime travel restrictions."

Husker 1994 Schedule Features Seven Bowl Teams

After playing against six bowl teams in 1993, the Huskers will face seven more in regular season play in 1994, including in each of the first three games. 1993-94 bowl participants who will face NU include: West Virginia (Sugar), Texas Tech (Hancock), UCLA (Rose), Wyoming (Copper), Kansas State (Copper), Colorado (Aloha) and Oklahoma (Hancock). The rest of Nebraska's schedule includes Pacific (added Sept. 30, 1993, as a replacement for Utah State), and conference opponents Oklahoma State, Missouri, Kansas and Iowa State.

Husker Notes

❑ NU Boasts Eighth-Best Program of All Time...Entering its 105th season of college football, NU boasts a 673-290-40 all-time record in 1,003 games to rank eighth in winning percentage at .691. Nebraska is sixth in the nation in all-time victories at 673. Since 1982, Nebraska is second only to Miami in both wins and winning percentage with Miami posting a 116-17 (.872) record and the Huskers coming in at 110-23-1 (.825) with 10 wins per season. The Huskers are 405-121-20 (.760, 546 games) in Lincoln, 280-98-13 (.733, 391 games) in Memorial Stadium (since 1923) and 120-16-0 at home under Coach Osborne (.882, 136 games).

❑ Happy at Home...NU has not lost more than one home game in a season under Osborne since a 5-2 home record in 1980. NU's 17-game home win streak is the third-longest under Coach Osborne, behind a 21-game streak which spanned the 1981 through 1984 seasons and a 19-game streak from 1988 through 1990, and the sixth longest in school history. In that 17-game stretch, Nebraska has defeated four ranked teams and has outscored its 17 opponents by a cumulative score of 794 (46.7 per game) to 244 (14.4). In the last six years, NU has a 38-2 record at Memorial Stadium, losing only to teams who went on to win a share of the national championship (Colorado, 1990 and Washington in 1991).

❑ Against the Best...Nebraska is 64-83-3 (.437) all-time vs. ranked opponents (45-36-1, .555, under Osborne) and will play five preseason top 25 teams in 1994 including West Virginia, UCLA, Kansas State, Colorado and Oklahoma. At home against ranked opponents under Osborne, NU is 21-12 (.636).

❑ Against No. 1...In the past four years, the Huskers have faced five teams who finished the season ranked No. 1 and shared a piece of the national title--Colorado and Georgia Tech (Citrus Bowl) in 1990-91; Washington and Miami (Orange Bowl) in 1991-92; and Florida State (Orange Bowl) in 1994. In addition, Nebraska's 1993 Federal Express Orange Bowl opponent, Florida State, missed winning the 1992 national title by a field goal and finished No. 2.

❑ It's a Rush...Nebraska is 131-5-0 (.963) under Coach Osborne when rushing for more than 300 yards per game (since 1973) and has won 53 straight when rushing for 300-plus yards since a loss to Michigan in the 1986 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl, when the team rushed for 304 yards. Nebraska is 67-0 in the Osborne-era when rushing for 400 or more yards.

❑ Adding up the Points...The Husker offense has averaged 30 or more points for 15 straight years. Nebraska has won 173 consecutive games when scoring 35 or more points. All time, NU is 238-1 when scoring 35 or more points, losing only to Oklahoma, 49-35, in 1950. Nebraska scored 45 or more points in six of its 11 games last season and finished fifth nationally in scoring at 38.3 ppg. The 76 points Nebraska scored against North Texas in the season opener, was the most points scored by a Division I team last season.

❑ Undefeated Seasons...When NU finished 1993 undefeated, the "Refuse to Lose" Huskers were one of three undefeated and untied teams. In 104 years of Husker football, NU has gone undefeated in the regular season 11 times, and undefeated and untied through the bowl game, once, when Nebraska won the National Championship in 1971 playing 13 games. The last time, prior to 1993, that the Huskers were undefeated and untied entering the bowl game, was also the last time NU had a shot at the national championship in 1983, when No. 5 Miami upset NU 31-30.

❑ No. 1 vs. No. 2...It has happened four times in Husker history, including the 1994 Orange Bowl. Except for the 1994 Orange Bowl, NU was the No. 1 team each time. Two of those games were against Oklahoma (in 1971, win, 35-31; and 1987, loss 17-7) the third was against Alabama in the 1972 Orange Bowl when Nebraska won its second national title defeating the Tide 38-6.

❑ Huskers vs. the Unranked...The Huskers' loss to Iowa State in 1992 marked just the 11th loss to an unranked opponent in 164 tries under Coach Tom Osborne. In fact, in the last 21 years, Osborne's teams have gone 161-11-2 against unranked opponents and suffered only one loss to a team which finished below .500 (Iowa State, 1992).

Team Records 1982-1993

1. Miami	116-17	.872
2. Nebraska	110-23-1	.825
3. Florida State	106-24-3	.808

❑ Pass it On...When Nebraska finished third in the NCAA in rushing last season averaging 287.9 yards per game, it was the first time in 16 years that the Husker offense had not averaged more than 300 yards on the ground. Meanwhile, the Husker passing numbers increased 27 yards per game, improving from 110 per game in 1992 to 137 per game last season. Percentage-wise in 1993, 68 percent of Nebraska's offense was gained via rushing compared to 75 percent the previous year.

❑ Passing to Perfection...Even though Nebraska's 137.1 yards per game passing in 1993 ranked sixth in the conference, NU led the Big Eight in touchdown passes with 16. Nebraska also led the conference in touchdowns per attempts (16 per 201) and touchdowns per completions (16 per 103). In fact, in 1993, Nebraska scored a touchdown once every 12.5 pass attempts and one of every 6.4 completions was for a score.

❑ Walk-ons Crucial to Husker Success...Looking at the depth chart included in this guide (on page 73), of the 80 players listed, 28 were walk-ons (35 percent) when they came to NU, including starters split end Reggie Baul, guard Joel Wilks, tight end Matt Shaw on offense and place-kicker Tom Sieler.

❑ It's Not Baby Fat...Although the starting offensive line averages 295 pounds, with three of the five 300 or more, their body fat, measured prior to spring ball in the off-season, averaged 15.6 percent, below the national average (18 percent). The biggest lineman of all, Rob Zatechka at 315 pounds, posted the lowest percentage at 14.

❑ The Speed Factor...The 1994 Nebraska team turned in its best electronic 10-yard dash time ever with a 1.71 average across the top three units. The '94 Huskers also turned in their best Team Performance Index at 1,956 and had the highest bodyweight at 222 pounds.

❑ Who's the Fastest?...In electronic timing, here's the best among the Huskers in the 10-yard dash (all under 1.60): Mike Minter 1.50; Abdul Muhammad 1.51; Tyrone Williams 1.51; Barron Miles 1.52; Lawrence Phillips 1.52; Tony Veland 1.52; Troy Dumas 1.54; Sedric Collins 1.55; Leslie Dennis 1.55; Brendan Holbein 1.56; Dave Alderman, 1.56; Brett Popplewell 1.56; Reggie Baul 1.57; Damon Benning 1.58; Clinton Childs 1.58; Ed Stewart 1.58; Clester Johnson 1.58; Jon Vedral 1.58; Matt Turman 1.58; Tommie Frazier 1.59; and don't forget 6-2, 225-pound outside linebacker Dwayne Harris 1.59. 40-yard dash (all under 4.50): Mike Minter 4.41; Tyrone Williams 4.45; Abdul Muhammad 4.46; Leslie Dennis 4.46; Reggie Baul 4.47; Riley Washington 4.47; Lawrence Phillips 4.48. On the track, however, no one can beat Washington, an All-America sprinter, who set a Husker school record and posted the nation's third-fastest collegiate time in 1993 with a 6.17 clocking in the 55-meter dash, earning All-America honors.

❑ Itty-Bitty Committee is Back for More...Despite the loss of one of its members to graduation, Corey Dixon, the Itty-Bitty Committee is thriving. Consisting of wide receivers under 5-9, 180, its members include split ends Reggie Baul, Brendan Holbein and Riley Washington, and wingback Abdul Muhammad. Led by Muhammad (25-383-3), the group caught 51 passes last year for 852 yards and six TDs, the returnees accounted for 34 of Nebraska's 103 receptions (33 percent).

❑ Signed, Sealed and Delivered...Nebraska was one of 19 schools to be awarded the 1993 CFA Honorable-Mention Citation for its 76 percent graduation rate (82 percent among those who completed their eligibility at NU). Last year 22 of its 29 seniors had their degree in hand at the conclusion of the 1994 spring semester, 13 had their sheepskin prior to the Orange Bowl. In 1994, four Huskers will compete with their degree in hand including: Ed Stewart (psychology); Rob Zatechka (biological sciences); Sedric Collins (speech communication) and Donta Jones (business administration). A total of 11 Huskers will have their degrees at semesters end.

❑ Making a Mark in the NFL...Nebraska led the Big Eight Conference and ranked among the nation's top 15 in active alumni listed on 1993 opening day rosters of the National Football League teams. The Cornhuskers accounted for 22 (26 percent) of the Big Eight's 86 representatives in 1993. This season, NU saw five Huskers get drafted including one in each of the first four rounds. Outside linebacker Trev Alberts became the Huskers' 26th first-round pick, the 17th under Osborne. He was followed by Toby Wright (2nd round, Rams); Calvin Jones (3rd round, Raiders); John Reece (4th round, Cardinals); and Lance Lundberg (7th round, Saints). Five others signed free agent contracts including Trumane Bell (Broncos); Corey Dixon (Falcons); Mike Anderson (Jets); Kevin Ramaekers (Chargers) and Lance Gray (Vikings).

Nebraska players active in the NFL in 1993 included: Nate Turner, Buffalo; John Parrella, Buffalo; Mike Croel, Denver; Jeff Mills, Denver; Tim Rother, Los Angeles Raiders; Bill Lewis, New England; Johnny Mitchell, New York Jets; Brian Washington, New York Jets; Roger Craig, Minnesota; Will Shields, Kansas City; Irving Fryar, Miami; Brian Davis, San Diego; Bruce Pickens, Atlanta/Kansas City;

Ken Clark, Los Angeles Rams; Derek Brown, New Orleans; Tyrone Hughes, New Orleans; Tyrone Legette, New Orleans; Jamie Williams, San Francisco; Tom Rathman, San Francisco; Broderick Thomas, Tampa Bay; David White, New England; and Lawrence Pete, Detroit. In addition, Travis Hill (injured on opening day) is at Cleveland.

Nebraska has averaged more than five draft picks per year since 1954 and almost seven annually under Tom Osborne. Prior to the 1994 draft, NU ranked 15th nationally with 25 players taken in the first five rounds since 1984, with more than one third going in the first round (not including Trev Alberts, the No. 5 pick overall by the Colts in 1994).

❑ Thanks for the Husker Support of Youth...Many of the Nebraska student-athletes participate in the Husker Team-mates program in which they serve as mentors for junior high and middle school students. The program was initiated and solely funded by the Osbornes. When Coach Osborne posted his 200th career win, prior to the ensuing banquet, the Celebration Committee asked that all proceeds and gifts be forwarded to the Tom Osborne Endowment for Youth. More than $250,000 was raised by the banquet, held on Feb. 3. The funds will be used in efforts to prevent junior high and middle school youngsters from dropping out of school and to encourage them to continue their education beyond high school.

A Recap of the Undefeated 1993 Season

Undefeated Huskers Play for National Title

After putting together a perfect 11-0 regular season in 1993, the Nebraska football team dazzled the nation, quieted naysayers and proved it was deserving of its No. 1 national ranking with a commanding performance at the Federal Express Orange Bowl. Although the Huskers lost a hotly contested game, 18-16, to Florida State, Nebraska was the team talked about on Jan. 2 and in the following weeks.

It was a total team effort in 1993. Nebraska's motto of "Refuse to Lose" came from the heart and carried the team through the season as NU won five come-from-behind games, and three games by less than a touchdown. The Huskers began the season with a 76-14 win over North Texas at home; defeated John Hancock Bowl participant Texas Tech 50-27 in Lincoln; defeated UCLA 14-13 in Pasadena without the aid of starters Calvin Jones and Donta Jones. UCLA, of course, went on to win the Pac-10 title and play Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl. Nebraska finished its non-conference season with a 48-13 win over Colorado State at home. Coach Tom Osborne's 200th win was a 27-13 victory at Stillwater against Oklahoma State. NU defeated Kansas State 45-28 in Lincoln at Homecoming, and Missouri 49-7 in Lincoln. The KSU Wildcats went on to blast Wyoming in the Copper Bowl and earn a final top 20 ranking. In a game crucial to the Big Eight title, the Huskers defeated Colorado, 21-17 in Boulder despite the fact that Nebraska played most of the second half without the aid of quarterback Tommie Frazier (injured shoulder) and I-back Calvin Jones (ill). ❑ Nebraska leads the nation in all sports and in football first-team GTE Academic All-Americans with 70 and 45, respectively (39 under Coach Tom Osborne).

❑ Across all teams and all sports, Nebraska leads the nation with 117 first-, second- and third-team GTE Academic All-Americans, 39 more than second-place teams Bucknell and Illinois Wesleyan which had 78 selections each.

❑ Nebraska has produced 45 first-team football GTE Academic All-Americans, 10 more than second-place Notre Dame. Only four schools have produced 20-or-more first-team football academic All-Americans.

❑ Six of Osborne's Cornhuskers, including Trev Alberts, have received the NCAA's highest honor for student-athletes--selection as one of Today's Top Six. That's the most for any individual sports program in the country and more than half of NU's nation-leading 10 total selections.

ished its season with a victory over Fresno State in the Aloha Bowl and a No. 16 national ranking. NU recorded a 21-20 win over Kansas in Lawrence, defeated Iowa State 49-17 in Lincoln, then concluded its undefeated season with a 21-7 victory over Oklahoma in Lincoln in subzero temperatures. Oklahoma earned a final No. 17 ranking by AP after defeating Texas Tech in the John Hancock Bowl. In all, the Huskers defeated five bowl-bound teams, en route to the national title game in the Orange Bowl.

Although the Huskers were undefeated, beating four teams, ranked at season's end, along the way, Nebraska was tagged as a 17 1/2-point underdog entering the Orange Bowl. Despite the odds, the Huskers outplayed the Seminoles, put themselves in a position to win and earned national respect and a No. 3 final ranking along the way. It was NU's highest AP finish since 1983.

Nebraska totaled 183 yards rushing to FSU's 47, outyarded the Seminoles, 389-333, and held the nation's No. 1 offense to just one conversion on 12 third down attempts and a season-low 18 points. Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward completed an Orange Bowl record 24 passes (of 43 attempts), but was sacked five times (after FSU quarterbacks had been sacked just 10 times all season) and was held to negative rushing yards. NU quarterback Tommie Frazier was the Husker MVP as he was the game's leading rusher (77 yards) and completed 13 of 24 passes for 206 yards. Nebraska's leading rusher, Calvin Jones, and leading receiver, Abdul Muhammad, left the game in the first half with injuries. In their place, I-Back Lawrence Phillips rushed for 64 yards and Trumane Bell caught four passes for 75 yards. Nebraska's Trev Alberts proved he truly was the nation's best linebacker if not the best defensive player overall, as he was responsible for three of Ward's sacks and did so basically without the use of his right arm which he dislocated in the Oklahoma game.

NU Wins Third Consecutive Big Eight Crown

With the 49-17 win over the Iowa State Cyclones on Nov. 13, Nebraska clinched its third consecutive Big Eight championship. It was Nebraska's 30th outright title and 39th all-time, both league-leading figures. It was the earliest the Huskers had clinched (and consequently the last time NU had clinched prior to the Oklahoma game) since 1981. Since Oklahoma State joined the conference in 1957, giving the league eight teams, Nebraska leads the league with 18 crowns (13 outright), and in the last 21 years under Osborne, the Huskers have won 10 titles (six outright). Four times (since 1958) NU has won or shared the Big Eight championship three consecutive years, including 1991-92-93.

Husker Individuals Reap Rewards in 1993

Although the success the Huskers enjoyed in 1993 was truly a team effort, Nebraska was honored with numerous individuals who received national and conference awards. A capsule of Nebraska's 1993 honor winners follows:

Nebraska's most decorated defensive player and perhaps one of the most honored defensive players to ever play the game is consensus All-American Trev Alberts. The outside linebacker from Cedar Falls, Iowa, was Nebraska's first Butkus winner, was named the Football News Defensive Player-of-the-Year; the Touchdown Club of Columbus College Linebacker-of-the-Year was the Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Year, and the conference male athlete-of-the-year. A complete player and a well-rounded individual, his academic achievements were not overshadowed by his athletic accolades. He was Nebraska's 10th student-athlete to earn the NCAA's highest honor—The Today's Top Six Award. Only six athletes across all men's and women's sports are so honored each year. In addition, Alberts was a first-team GTE Academic All-American; a CFA/Hitachi Scholar-Athlete; won an $18,000 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholarship; a $9,000 NACDA/Disney postgraduate scholarship; a $5,000 NCAA postgraduate scholarship; a $3,000 Big Eight Conference postgraduate scholarship; and a Honda Scholar Athlete Award (which allocates $3,000 to the UNL general scholarship fund). Alberts earned his speech communication degree prior to the start of the season, posting a 3.309 grade point average. He finished with 248 total tackles and set school records with 45 tackles for loss and 29.5 sacks in his career, not counting 25 bowl tackles and four bowl sacks. He was Nebraska's 26th first-round draft choice, the 17th under Osborne, when the Indianapolis Colts selected him as the fifth pick overall.

Calvin Jones passed the 3,000-yard mark rushing and finished his three-year career as Nebraska's second-leading rusher with 3,153 yards and 40 TDs. He was a Doak Walker Award Finalist; a third-team All-American and earned All-Big Eight honors for the second year.

Another Husker recognized nationally was junior offensive tackle Zach Wiegert. He was an All-Big Eight honoree for the second year, and was also named to the UPI All-America second team and to the AP All-America third team. He will contend for Lombardi and Outland honors this season.

Tommie Frazier was the only underclassman to be named to the Davey O'Brien Quarterback Award semifinalist list as the other nine honorees were juniors and seniors. His superb performance at the Orange Bowl did not go unnoticed as his 206 yards passing and 77 rushing yards gave him the same total offense output as Ward at 283. A second-team All-Big Eight pick, Frazier will be a contender for national honors in 1994.

Defensive tackles Terry Connealy and Kevin Ramaekers were both first-team All-Big Eight honorees, while Ken Mehlin and Lance Lundberg made the first-team as offensive linemen. Lundberg was also an honorable-mention All-American by UPI. Starting cornerback Barron Miles was a thrill to watch on special teams with three blocked kicks and gave NU a total of eight first-team all-conference honorees when combining the AP and Coaches teams.

Huskers Lead Nation in Academic All-Americans

Nebraska continues to lead the nation in GTE Academic All-Americans. In addition to Alberts, 4.0 biological sciences graduate Rob Zatechka earned first-team honors as did Terry Connealy (3.758, agribusiness). Both juniors in 1993, Zatechka and Connealy hope to be repeaters in 1994. Offensive lineman Ken Mehlin was named to the second team (3.582, agribusiness). No other school had three first-team honorees. In football alone, Nebraska has had 45 GTE first-team honor winners (49 overall counting four honorees as named by teams other than GTE prior to 1970). Only four other schools have had more than 20 GTE Academic All-Americans since its inception in 1952, with Notre Dame a distant second to the Huskers at 35. In fact, under Osborne alone, NU has had 39 first-team honorees, four more than Notre Dame's all-time total.

Zatechka also earned the CFA/Hitachi Scholar-Athlete Award, while linebacker Troy Branch was named to the Grades & Glory Academic All-America team and was named to the CFA/Hitachi Good Works team for the second consecutive year. Branch also earned his degree before the start of the season along with Ramaekers, Trumane Bell and Lance Gray. By the time the Huskers left for the bowl game, 13 Huskers had their degree in hand. Of the 29 seniors, 22 had their degree by the end of spring (76 percent).

Nebraska again led the conference with six Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight honorees including the above-mentioned five and also center Aaron Graham, who as a sophomore posted a 3.11 GPA in animal science. Nine others were named to the honor roll including Phil Ellis, Mike Heins, Jerad Higman, David Noonan, Steve Ott, Jason Pesterfield, David Seizys, Matt Shaw and Austin Wertz.

The Nebraska Cornhuskers take the field.

The Nebraska Yell Squad help lead Memorial Stadium's 76,000 faithful. On Husker game days, Memorial Stadium becomes a sea of red as loyal NU fans fill up the stadium week after week.

"There is no place like Nebraska, dear old Nebraska U..." This song is mystically carried by the wind throughout the state of Nebraska as the Cornhusker football team takes to the field. Memorial Stadium is the only place to be on these enchanted fall afternoons as the stadium is transformed into the state's third-largest "city," where the "Best Fans in College Football" come nationwide to be a part of the magic.

Nebraska's home sellout streak started on Nov. 3, 1962. Since that game, Husker fans from across the nation have poured into Memorial Stadium for an NCAA record 195-consecutive games. This year's Homecoming game with Colorado will mark the 200th-straight home contest in which the Husker zealots have "sold out" Memorial Stadium.

Red-and-white clad Husker enthusiasts will make the "pilgrimage" to Lincoln for six afternoon games this autumn, featuring three squads that played in bowl games a year ago.

Big Red "fever" not only affects the faithful who jam Memorial Stadium, but the "epidemic" spreads throughout the land as loyal legions of fans gather around radios and television sets to cheer on their beloved Huskers.

On game day, the pulse of the city quickens as chants of "Go Big Red" echo through the streets of Lincoln. Season after season, year after year, Memorial Stadium on the University of Nebraska campus is one of the truly special places to enjoy a college football game.

Nebraska Milestones...

Top 10 Reasons Nebraska Football is Magical

1. Nebraska Head Coach Tom Osborne, the winningest coach in college football, recorded his 200th victory in 1993.
2. Nebraska will host its 200th consecutive sellout on Oct. 29, when Colorado comes to Lincoln. Memorial Stadium's record string is a continuing NCAA record.
3. The Huskers' appearance in the 1994 Orange Bowl was their 25th-straight bowl contest and equals the all-time NCAA record.
4. Every NU player who has come to Lincoln since 1962 and has competed four years, has won at least one Big Eight Championship ring and has made four bowl trips.
5. In 1993, Nebraska extended its NCAA records to 32-consecutive winning and 25-straight nine-win seasons.
6. The Huskers have produced 26 first-round NFL draft picks.
7. Nebraska leads the nation in GTE Academic Football All-Americans with 45.
8. NU's current roster is comprised of players from 31 different states and two countries.
9. The Huskers will vie for their fourth-consecutive Big Eight title in 1994. If accomplished, it would mark the fourth time in the 34-year history of the Big Eight that NU has turned the trick.
10. Nebraska has appeared in every Associated Press Poll since 1981, giving the Huskers an AP Poll record of 206-straight weeks in the rankings.

The Pride of all Nebraska is echoed when the Cornhusker Marching Band entertains the crowd at halftime.

NATIONAL COVERAGE...NU IS CENTERSTAGE

Nebraska's national media coverage is among the best in the country, with five games, including the first three of the season, already scheduled to be nationally-televised in 1994. A top five pre-season ranking makes NU a viable candidate to have additional games covered by the major networks. The Huskers will grab the national spotlight when they face West Virginia in the Kickoff Classic, in college football's annual season opener. Following Nebraska's record third appearance in the Kickoff Classic, NU stays in the limelight when it faces Texas Tech on ESPN's Thursday Night Football. The Huskers will appear in a third-consecutive nationally-televised contest when ABC broadcasts NU's home opener against UCLA. The contest against Oklahoma, traditionally the day following Thanksgiving, will once again be featured on ABC. An annual event, the NU-OU contest has been nationally broadcast 21 of the last 23 years, beginning with the "Game of the Century" on Nov. 25, 1971. When Colorado invades Lincoln on Oct. 29, for Homecoming, it will mark NU's 200th-consecutive home sellout in a game that is expected to be televised by either ABC or ESPN.

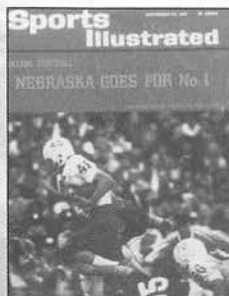

The Cornhuskers have averaged more than four television appearances per season since 1970, including a current nation-leading string of 25 consecutive bowl appearances. The media attention isn't limited to national television broadcasts as the Huskers are consistently covered by national print publications such as Football News, USA Today, Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News, as well as hundreds of regional media outlets. As a matter of fact, the Huskers have been ranked in the Associated Press poll every week since 1981, giving them an AP Poll record of 206 consecutive weeks in the ratings.

Husker football can be heard in 14 states on the Nebraska Football Radio Network's 41 affiliates. As a Nebraska football player or fan, the media attention is just one more way to access Nebraska football.

The Cornhuskers are also highly decorated when it comes time to present college football's top awards. Nebraska players have won more Outlands than any other school. With the combination of six Outlands, three Lombardis, two Heisman trophies and one Butkus Award (Trev Alberts in 1993), Nebraska's trophy cases are practically overflowing with prominent individual honors.

Nebraska football opens the 1994 season with three-consecutive national television appearances.

Nebraska's three-level press box sits atop the West Stadium and provides seating for 125 representatives of the media.

Did You Know That...

- ❑ Nebraska averages four television appearances per year, including a minimum of five games slated for national broadcast this season.
- ❑ The Cornhuskers have made a nation-leading 25-consecutive bowl appearances. Nebraska owns an NCAA record 32-consecutive winning seasons and has had 25-straight nine-win seasons. The next closest team has nine.
- ❑ Husker athletes are consistently covered by the nation's leading publications including Football News, The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated and USA Today.
- ❑ Nebraska has won more Outlands (six) than any other school in the nation. Will Shields was the last Husker to claim that award in 1992.
- ❑ The Huskers have played 82 ranked opponents during Osborne's 21 years as head coach.
- ❑ Nebraska has been ranked by the Associated Press every week since 1981, which gives the Huskers an AP poll record 206 consecutive weeks in the rankings.

Tom Osborne and the players meet with members of the media at weekly press conferences.

BOWL GAMES...A NEW YEAR'S DAY TRADITION

Nebraska has played in a bowl game every year since the 1969 season. When the 1994 campaign begins, the Huskers will vie for their 26th-consecutive bowl appearance. NU's streak is the nation's longest current string and equal to Alabama's NCAA record of 25 straight from 1959-83. The Huskers will not only be looking to set a new NCAA record for consecutive bowl appearances, but they will attempt to extend their NCAA record of New Year's Day bowl appearances to 14 consecutive.

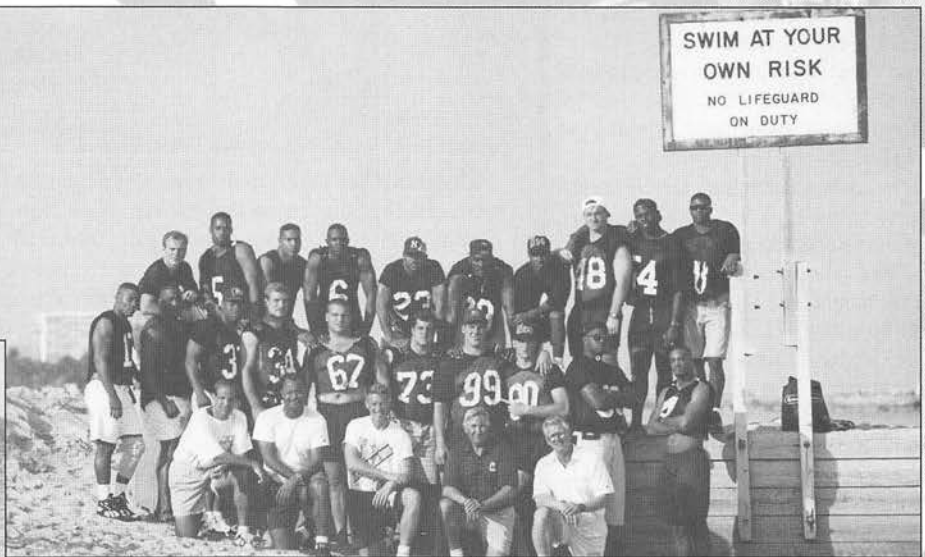

During the past 10 seasons, Nebraska has played in four Federal Express Orange Bowls, three Fiesta Bowls, two USF&G Sugar Bowls, and one Florida Citrus Bowl. Nebraska's annual bowl games have frequently featured opponents that have factored in the national championship equation. In fact, the winner of four of NU's last six bowl contests has captured at least a share of the national championship.

New Year's Day bowl games, with national title implications and nine-win seasons are the norm at Nebraska. NU has been ranked in every Associated Press poll since 1981, that's 206 consecutive and a continuing AP poll record. NU's high national profile and nationwide fan base make it a favorite among bowl selection committees.

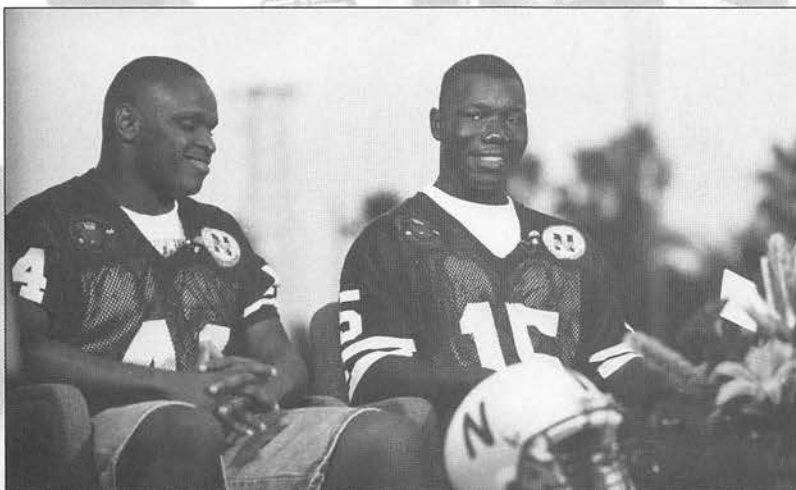

Nebraska football fans are some of the most loyal in the country. At the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl, more than 10,000 Husker fans made the trip to the Sunshine State for NU's national championship showdown with Florida State.

Did You Know That...

- ❑ Nebraska has appeared in 13 consecutive New Year's Day bowl games.
- ❑ Nebraska's NCAA record-tying 25-straight bowl appearances streak began in 1969, when the Huskers defeated Georgia, 45-6, in the Sun Bowl.
- ❑ The Huskers have played a higher-ranked opponent in their last nine bowl games, including four teams ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the nation.
- ❑ In the last 12 years, Nebraska was second only to Miami (Fla.) in both wins and winning percentage. Miami posted a 116-17 (.872) record, while the Huskers were 110-23-1 (.825).
- ❑ Nebraska is the only Big Eight team to have played in the Rose, Orange, Cotton and Sugar bowls.

HUSKERS IN THE PROS...PIPELINE TO THE NFL

Neil Smith (1984-87) was labeled as one of the nation's premier pass rushers at Nebraska. He carried that reputation into the NFL as a first-round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs, where he has been a three-time Pro Bowl performer.

Did You Know That...

- ❑ Nebraska has averaged more than five draft picks per year since 1954.
- ❑ Since Tom Osborne's reign as head coach, the number of NFL draft picks has increased to nearly seven annually, with 144 in 21 years.
- ❑ Nebraska ranks eighth on the NFL's all-time first-round draft list, including seven first-round selections in the last eight drafts.
- ❑ NU has produced a total of 26 first-round picks in the NFL draft, with a school high of three in 1972 and 1984 and two in 1991 (17 under Osborne).
- ❑ Trev Alberts, who was the fifth overall pick in this year's draft, became the third Husker in the last four drafts to be selected among the top five picks.
- ❑ Nebraska was one of only seven schools to have a first-round draft pick in both the 1994 NFL and NBA drafts.

Nebraska has consistently been a springboard for some of the top NFL draft picks. NU has produced four players in the last six drafts who were selected among the top six picks. The Cornhuskers have averaged more than five draft picks per year since 1954, with the number increasing to almost seven annually under Tom Osborne.

There have been 26 first-round picks from Nebraska with a school high of three in both 1972 and 1984 and two in 1991. In the 1994 draft, the Huskers produced five draftees with five additional players picked up as free agents.

Several Huskers who were chosen in the 1993 draft returned immediate dividends for their respective teams. A two-way standout for the Huskers at split end and defensive back, Tyrone Hughes made his mark as a kick returner for the New Orleans Saints. Hughes returned one kickoff and two punts for touchdowns on his way to being tabbed for the Pro Bowl. Nebraska's sixth Outland Trophy winner, Will Shields, quickly worked his way into the Kansas City Chiefs' starting lineup and was named his team's rookie-of-the-year. After two-consecutive seasons of rushing for more than 1,000 yards, Derek Brown took his wares to the NFL and finished 10th in the NFC in rushing, racking up 705 yards as a in 12 starts for the New Orleans Saints.

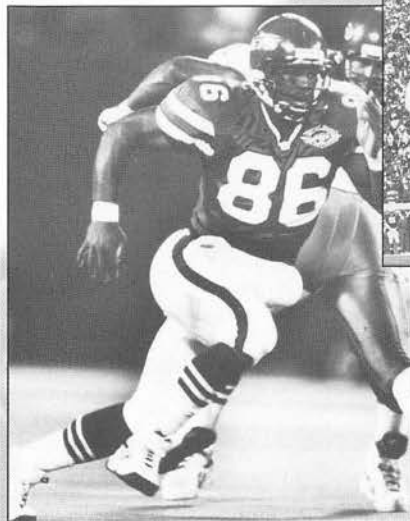

Mike Croel (1987-90) was noted for his speed both as a pass rusher and outside linebacker. Croel was the fourth overall pick of the 1991 NFL Draft and earned 1991 defensive rookie-of-the-year honors for the Denver Broncos.

Tom Rathman (1983-85) came to NU as a walk-on player and became a two-year starter. As a San Francisco 49er, he has been an integral part of two Super Bowl titles.

HUSKERS IN THE PROS...PIPELINE TO THE NFL

Johnny Mitchell (1990-91) became a first-round draft pick of the New York Jets in 1991. Known for his acrobatic receptions, Mitchell is fast becoming one of the NFL's most feared tight ends.

Broderick Thomas (1985-88) racked up 242 career tackles as a Husker on his way to becoming the sixth overall pick of the 1989 NFL Draft. Thomas posted 460 tackles in five seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Nebraska has consistently produced a steady flow of talent to the NFL, averaging nearly seven players selected per year during Tom Osborne's 21-year stint as the Huskers' mentor. The Huskers currently rank eighth on the NFL's all-time first-round draft choice list, including four round-one selections in the last four years.

With four NCAA rushing titles in the past six years, Nebraska has become known for placing running backs and offensive linemen in pro football. In addition to the numerous ball carriers and interior blockers NU has fed to the NFL, in the last seven years, the Huskers have had 15 receivers drafted or signed as free agents. Seven Husker defensive backs have been selected in the last four NFL drafts.

In addition, when NU's consensus All-American and Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts was tabbed as the fifth overall pick of the 1994 NFL Draft, he became the third Husker linebacker selected among the top six picks in the last six years. Alberts follows Mike Croel (Denver Broncos, fourth pick overall) in 1991 and Broderick Thomas (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, sixth pick overall) in 1989.

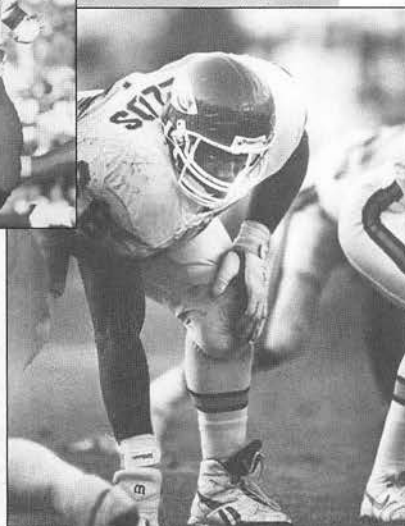

Ten Huskers from the 1993 squad were either drafted or signed free-agent contracts with NFL clubs. Nebraska had 22 active players in the NFL a year ago, the most of any Big Eight school.

Derek Brown (1990-92) was a fourth-round draft pick after two-consecutive 1,000-yard rushing campaigns at NU. Brown started 12 games for the New Orleans Saints and was the NFC's 10th leading rusher a year ago.

Irving Fryar (1980-83) was an integral part of the Huskers' "Scoring Explosion" that led the nation in scoring at 52 points per game. The No. 1 pick of the 1984 NFL Draft by New England, Fryar has 427 receptions 10 seasons with Miami and the Patriots.

Will Shields (1989-92) was a three-year starter for the Huskers and became the sixth Outland Trophy winner in NU history. In his rookie season, Shields worked his way into the starting lineup and was named the Chiefs' Rookie-of-the-Year.

Receivers coach Ron Brown discusses strategy at the 1994 Orange Bowl. Brown enters his eighth season at Nebraska, after declining a postseason offer to coach for Bobby Bowden at Florida State.

When Nebraska and Florida State butted heads for the national championship at the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl, it marked NU's 25th-consecutive appearance in a bowl game. One of the key reasons for Nebraska's unrivaled success on the field has been the stability and continuity of its coaching staff.

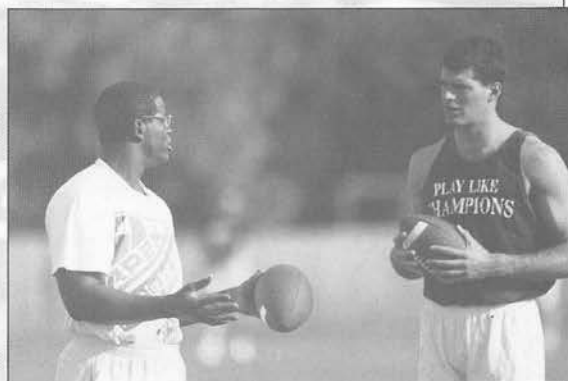

Head Coach Tom Osborne, who served under Bob Devaney as an NU assistant coach for 11 years, takes the reigns for his 22nd season as the Huskers' field general. Osborne and his nine assistant coaches average nearly 14 years of coaching experience at Nebraska. Three coaches on Osborne's staff played at Nebraska, while four assistants have coached under Osborne for at least 15 campaigns.

With a 10-man staff which boasts 138 years of coaching experience at Nebraska, NU coaches have a combined 136 bowl appearances. Add NCAA records of 32-straight winning and 25-consecutive nine-win seasons to NU's impressive bowl streak and it's easy to see that the staunch loyalty and dedication of Husker assistants have factored into Osborne's recipe for success.

At many schools across the country, head and assistant coaches come and go, but the Nebraska football tradition is thriving, due in part to the unwavering stability of its coaching staff. When student-athletes makes the decision to attend the University of Nebraska to play football, the position coach who recruited them will more than likely still be a member of NU's staff when they graduate.

Quarterbacks coach Turner Gill (left) instructs second-team QB Brook Berringer. Gill, the newest member of the NU staff, earned three All-Big Eight awards as the Huskers' signal caller from 1981-83. During his career, Nebraska compiled a 28-2 record in games that Gill started, including an undefeated regular season in 1983.

NEBRASKA FACILITIES...SECOND TO NONE

Memorial Stadium boasts an NCAA record 195-consecutive sellouts and has been home to Big Red football since 1923. Consecutive sellout No. 200 comes on Homecoming against Colorado.

Memorial Stadium established an NCAA record with 195 consecutive sellouts dating back to 1962, and with this year's six sold-out home games, the streak will extend to 201. The stadium became the home of the Big Red in 1923 and continues to draw more than five percent of the state's population every time the Cornhuskers take the field.

Cook Pavilion provides the Husker football team with an indoor practice area, featuring a full-length field with a roof high enough to allow Nebraska to practice all aspects of the kicking game. Cook is part of the new, $17 million, Lee and Helene Sapp Recreation Facility, funded in part by the athletic department, which includes modern offices, a training room and locker rooms in addition to the latest in recreational equipment for the use of the entire UNL student population. The Sapp Recreation Facility also includes the newly remodeled Coliseum, which provides Nebraska's nationally-ranked volleyball team with a 5,000-seat arena. Nebraska Athletics boasts the best facilities in the Big Eight and arguably in the nation, yet draws no state funding or student fees.

Cook Pavilion, which opened in 1987, provides a year-round indoor practice facility for the Husker football team.

Nebraska's Sapp Recreation Facility is arguably the best in the nation.

Did You Know That...

- ❑ Memorial Stadium becomes the third largest city in Nebraska every time the Huskers take the field.
- ❑ Memorial Stadium has an NCAA record string of 195 consecutive sellouts dating back to 1962.
- ❑ Cornhusker fans were voted as the "Best Fans in College Football" by Sports Illustrated in 1992.
- ❑ Nebraska home football games draw more than five percent of the state's population.
- ❑ Nebraska student tickets are only $73 ($12 per game) per season.
- ❑ The $4.5 million replay screens at Memorial Stadium make it one of only two college-only stadiums in the country to feature this service for the fans.

NEBRASKA FACILITIES...BEST IN THE NATION

The Husker Power program at Nebraska has been the pattern for many other collegiate strength programs nationwide. NU's 30,000 square foot complex is the largest on any college campus in the country.

The medical facilities at Nebraska are on par with the nation's top programs and are staffed with top-notch professionals.

Nebraska's weight training program is a pioneer in the development of strength and conditioning and is a key part of the athletic program. The strength complex at Nebraska was expanded to 30,000 square feet in 1989, making it the largest on any college campus in the nation.

Assistant Athletic Director of Athletic Performance Boyd Epley, heads a staff of five full-time strength coaches who utilize their knowledge along with a wide array of equipment and tests to provide one of the top strength training programs in the country. Evaluation, goal-oriented programs, supervision and state-of-the-art facilities help Nebraska athletes become bigger, faster, stronger and more flexible. In addition, a full-time performance nutritionist and performance psychologist are on staff to assist the strength and conditioning staff.

The medical facilities at Nebraska are a high-priority item. The locker room and training room facilities are located on the lower level of the South Stadium Building and rank among the best-equipped in the nation. NU's medical staff includes seven full-time trainers, three registered physical therapists, a physician's assistant and six doctors who are available to treat Cornhusker athletes and to prevent injuries.

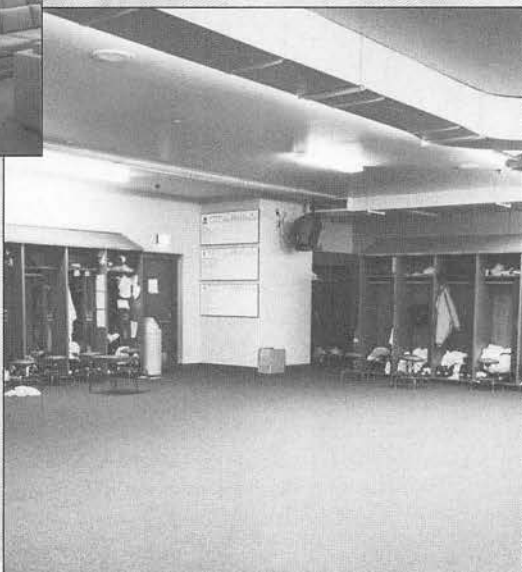

Memorial Stadium, home to the Big Red since 1923, underwent a bit of a facelift last summer as several renovation projects were completed. Giant replay screens were mounted on the northwest and southeast cornerstones of the stadium, in an effort to enhance the fans' enjoyment of the game. The $3.8 million undertaking will make Memorial Stadium one of two college-only stadiums in the country to offer this high-tech feature. In addition, an $800,000 sound system was installed.

The offices of the Husker football coaches and administrators, housed in South Stadium, underwent a complete renovation during the summer to modernize and update NU's administrative facilities.

The facilities at Nebraska have helped the Husker athletic teams dominate the Big Eight. Last season, Nebraska won nine league championships, more than twice the number by any other conference school. For 15-consecutive years, NU has earned the Big Eight Conference combined all-sports championship. The top finisher among league schools, NU was 18th in the 1994 Sears Directors Cup standings.

The South Stadium houses the football locker rooms, N Club lounge and the offices of coaches and administrators. The administrative offices underwent a complete refurbishing during the summer, while the locker rooms were remodeled a year ago.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS...AT THE HEAD OF THE CLASS

More than 82 percent of scholarship athletes who have exhausted their eligibility have graduated from Nebraska, which is well above the University and national averages.

Did You Know That...

- ❑ Nebraska has the highest number of first-, second- and third-team GTE Academic All-Americans in the nation with 117, 39 more than the closest competitor. The Husker football team has added a nation-leading 45 first-team student-athletes to this list.
- ❑ Husker student-athletes have earned 10 NCAA Top Six Awards, more than any other school. Under Coach Osborne, Nebraska has had six honorees, the most of any individual sport in the nation.
- ❑ Husker athletes consistently top the Academic All-Big Eight list. Last season Nebraska had six first-team football players on that list and an additional nine on the Honor Roll.
- ❑ Nebraska has had more first-team GTE Academic All-Americans (70) than any other school. Forty-five of those award winners have been football players, with 39 of them coming during Osborne's tenure.
- ❑ Four Huskers are scheduled to begin the 1994 season with undergraduate degrees in hand, while seven more are expected to graduate by December. An additional 12 Huskers are on schedule to earn diplomas by May 1995. A year ago, 22 of 27 seniors earned undergraduate degrees by May commencement exercises.
- ❑ National businesses have contributed a total of $46,356 to the General Scholarship Fund since 1988 in honor of Husker student-athletes.
- ❑ Nebraska has been tabbed one of 36 flagship universities and is considered one of the best value's among the nation's colleges and universities by the Center for Studies in College Enrollment.

Nebraska leads the nation in Academic All-America selections for football as well as all sports combined.

GTE Academic All-Americans, All Teams, All Sports

1. Nebraska	117
2. Illinois Wesleyan.....	78
Bucknell	78
4. Notre Dame	67
5. MIT	60

The success of Nebraska athletes is not limited to the athletic arena. More Cornhusker student-athletes have been selected to the GTE Academic All-America team than any other school in the country and more Huskers have earned academic All-Big Eight honors than any other conference school.

In addition, no school has had more athletes receive the NCAA's highest award, The Today's Top Six, than the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. In addition, Husker athletes have been awarded the third-highest number of NCAA postgraduate scholarships to help further their educations. The football team leads the conference and the nation in academic accolades.

Awards and Honors Received by The University of Nebraska-Lincoln

NCAA Today's Top Six Award

The most prestigious honor a student-athlete at an NCAA member institution can win is the Today's Top Six Award. The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is proud to claim it has had more student-athletes win this award than any other school. Last season, Trev Alberts was not only named as Nebraska's first-ever Butkus Award winner and 38th consensus All-American under Coach Osborne, but he became NU's 10th recipient of the prestigious Today's Top Six Award.

Beginning with football standout Randy Schleusener, 10 Husker student-athletes, eight men and two women, have been selected as Today's Top Six winners including: Schleusener, Football, 1980; Dave Rimington, Football, 1981; Mark Traynowicz, Football, 1985; Tom Schlesinger, Gymnastics, 1989; Virginia Stahr, Volleyball, 1990; Jake Young, Football, 1990; Patrick Kirksey, Gymnastics, 1991; Patrick Tyrance, Football, 1991; Janet Kruse, Volleyball, 1992; and Alberts, Football, 1994.

GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America Teams

Since 1952, sports information directors have selected Academic All-America teams from qualified student-athletes representing eight different sports.

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has had more male and female student-athletes selected as GTE Academic All-Americans than any other school in either the University or College Divisions.

As of June 1994, the University of Nebraska has seen a total of 117 student-athletes earn this distinction, 39 more than second-place Illinois Wesleyan and Bucknell (78). NU also leads the nation in first-team GTE Academic All-Americans with 70. The Husker football team leads the nation with 45 GTE Academic All-Americans, 39 of those have come under Tom Osborne.

Academic All-Big Eight Conference

Nebraska has established itself as the dominant school in the Big Eight for academic excellence, consistently placing more athletes than any other conference school on that list. A year ago, the football team contributed six first-team honorees and nine to the league's Honor Roll.

ACADEMICS...A TOP PRIORITY AT NU

The University of Nebraska has nine colleges, offering more than 100 degrees, from which students can earn their degrees.

The Academic Experience Three Steps to Success

With an enrollment of nearly 25,000 students, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln offers an environment rich in academic tradition. Faculty members at Nebraska have long been recognized for serving students with excellence, distinction, and a level of expertise matched by few.

There are nine academic colleges at the University of Nebraska, and each offers a variety of disciplines for students to select. The colleges are: Agriculture, Architecture, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Engineering and Technology, Human Resources and Family Science, Journalism and Mass Communications, Teachers College and Fine and Performing Arts.

From the day a student-athlete decides the University of Nebraska is the right place to be, the athletic academic counseling unit provides personal support, academic support and professional development to ensure that they will get the most out of their years as a Cornhusker.

Professional Development Counseling at Nebraska

1. Career Exploration--Knowing that less than one percent of all collegiate athletes advance to professional sports, Nebraska pioneered a comprehensive Career Counseling Program for student-athletes in 1988. This program has been modeled by many other NCAA institutions and is now a component of the NCAA Life Skills Program.

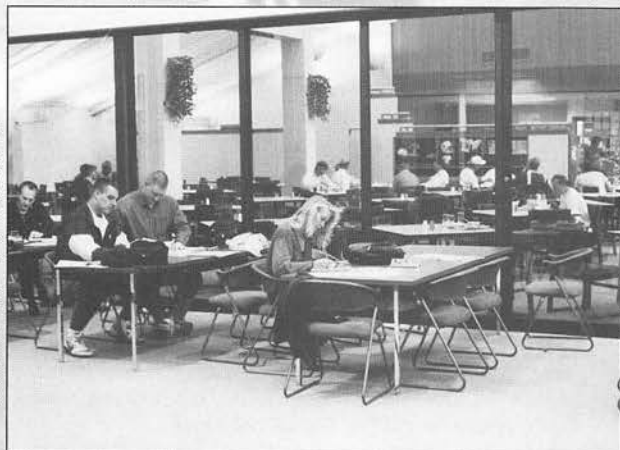

The exploration phase has programs designed to help with career selection and clarification. These programs include: interest inventories, DISCOVER (an interactive computerized career guidance program), monthly career nights, career fairs, shadowing experiences, internships and cooperative education.

2. Career Planning--An important aspect of preparing for a career is the teaching of job-development skills. At Nebraska, methods are taught to improve these skills, including resume development, cover-letter writing, job search strategies, interviewing skills, and graduate, law and medical school placement assistance. The "Play it Safe" computer career program also helps student-athletes explore majors and careers while learning the latest in job development skills.

3. Career Placement--Assistance is provided in securing full-time employment upon graduation. Both the University Career Services office and Alumni office play an instrumental role in the placement process.

4. Degree Audit Program--The Hewitt Center has a tracking system in place to ensure accurate course selection and provide monitoring of each student-athletes' progress toward a degree in his/her chosen field. Nebraska boasts an 82% graduation rate of those who complete their collegiate eligibility at Nebraska.

The academic counseling unit provides personal support, academic support and professional development for student-athletes.

NU'S SUPPORT SYSTEMS...ALWAYS AVAILABLE

Academic Support

1. Tutorial Support--One of Nebraska's largest and perhaps most beneficial support services for student-athletes is the Tutorial Program. Mentor tutors and subject tutors assist student-athletes in making a successful transition into college while experiencing academic success.

2. Supplemental Instruction--A sub-component of the tutorial program, this program is very effective in helping student-athletes get adjusted to college academics while enhancing academic self-esteem and study skills.

3. Academic Supervision--In order to monitor the academic and graduation progress of Husker student-athletes, the counselors dedicate extensive time toward academic supervision. Counselors receive periodic grade reports from faculty and various study hall and class attendance programs are in place, all for the benefit of the student-athletes.

4. Computer Resources--Recently renovated and expanded, the Hewit Center offers a state-of-the-art computer lab for student-athletes. Student-athletes can become more efficient and productive by accessing a variety of software programs in the 24 terminal computer lab. The lab features a combination of IBM and MacIntosh computers complete with laser-jet printers.

5. Educational Assessments--During new student-athlete orientation, the academic staff administers a variety of educational assessments to student-athletes to better determine academic strengths and areas for improvement. The results help counselors and athletes to develop a personalized academic support team.

Personal Support

1. Orientation--The Hewit Center coordinates an annual New Student-Athlete Orientation program aimed at helping student-athletes experience a smooth transition into college life.

2. Personal Counseling--Counseling staff members provide student-athletes with a supportive and caring environment. Areas addressed within personal counseling include: transitional issues, stress management, academic focus, and personal crisis intervention.

3. Multi-Cultural Support--This program is designed to enhance cultural awareness for all student-athletes to help build a supportive, caring environment while learning about different cultural backgrounds. Educational programs and sensitivity trainings are also offered to student-athletes, coaches, and administrators.

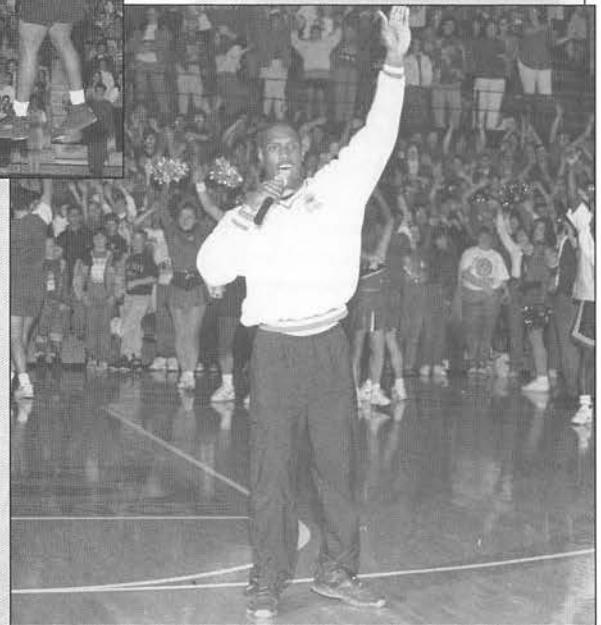

4. Husker Outreach Program--Involvement in the award-winning Husker Outreach Program enables Husker student-athletes the opportunity to make a positive impression on youth while further developing their own leadership and interpersonal skills. Through Ventures in Partnership activities, National American Education Week, and the annual "School is Cool" jam session, more than 50,000 youth statewide hear motivational and inspirational messages.

5. Student-Athlete Advisory Board--Student-athletes from every sport meet every other week with athletic department administrators in order to be included on all decisions impacting their personal, academic, and professional development. The Board also coordinates the annual Academic Awards Banquet and is active in various community and school outreach programs.

6. Preparation for Life After Sports--Seminars and counseling support aimed at helping student-athletes with the disengagement from athletics while discovering how to maximize transferable skills is available to every student-athlete.

Rob Zatechka is one of four Huskers who enter this season with their degrees in hand. Zatechka earned his undergraduate degree in biological sciences with a perfect 4.0 grade point average. He earned GTE Academic All-America status a year ago and is a Rhodes Scholar candidate.

Nebraska football players have been an integral part of the Husker Outreach Program, which reaches more than 50,000 area students each year. Junior wingback Jacques Allen entertains a group of students at the annual "School is Cool Jam." Senior Donta Jones shows the crowd that his athletic talents aren't limited to the football field.

HEWIT & BOEKEL CENTERS...LEARNING TO EXCEL

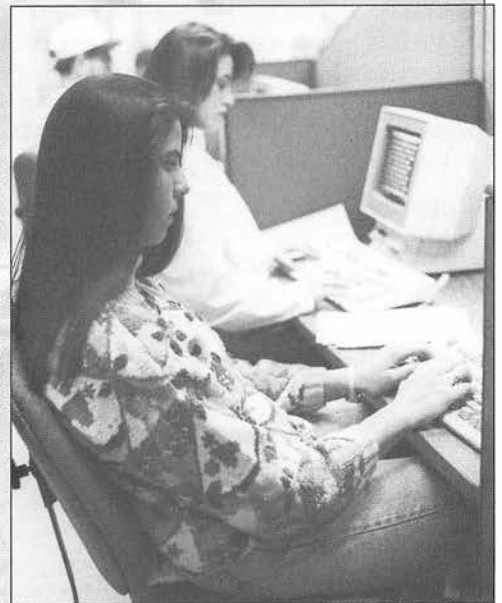

The Hewit Center houses Nebraska's year-round training table which provides lunch and dinner for NU athletes. The Hewit Center and Boekel Academic Center are adjacent to the South Stadium locker rooms.

Nebraska's academic facilities are among the nation's finest. In fact, College Athletic Management magazine and Walt Disney Corp., have honored the Huskers' support system as the most comprehensive and innovative in the country. Located in the west stadium, the Hewit Center and Boekel Academic Center allow Nebraska's student-athletes access to the latest academic support.

The $2.3 million academic complex originated in 1983 and was expanded in 1989 to nearly 30,000 square feet in size. Initial funding came from the Nebraska football teams' appearance in the inaugural Kickoff Classic in 1983. The money from that game, combined with generous donations from the Boekel and Hewit families, enable Nebraska student-athletes to enjoy and benefit from the best academic support center in the country. The Hewit Center and Boekel Academic Center provide student-athletes the opportunity for excellence.

Nebraska athletes have earned an NCAA-leading 117 GTE Academic All-America awards. The academic center allows student-athletes to enjoy the best academic support in the nation.

The Hewit and Boekel Academic Centers house Nebraska's academic advisors and computer labs. The NU academic program was voted as the best in the nation by College Athletic Management magazine in 1991.

Did You Know That...

- ❑ Nebraska was reclassified as a Research University I in 1994 by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, that distinction is the highest possible classification a university can earn.
- ❑ There are 1,294 academic faculty members at Nebraska, giving NU a faculty-student ratio of 1 to 16.
- ❑ The $30 million George W. Beadle Center for Genetics and Biomaterials Research, will provide a new focus for research and development in biotechnology, biochemistry, biological materials, and chemical engineering and related fields when it opens in 1995.
- ❑ There are 9,000 trees in 400 varieties on Nebraska's neatly-manicured 600-acre campus. The various research gardens and landscaped areas on the City and East campuses are part of the Nebraska Statewide Arboretum.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA... THE PLACE TO BE

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration.

The university's flagship campus, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, includes the agricultural components organized within the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources. UNL is Nebraska's only land-grant university and its major comprehensive institution of higher education. For its 24,000 students from all parts of the world, Nebraska offers a wide range of undergraduate, professional, and graduate programs including those leading to the doctorate.

As Nebraska carries out its three-part mission of teaching, research and service, the overall impact of its efforts in each area is greater than the sum of its separate parts, ensuring that the quality of all of its institutional programs is consistent with the expectations and needs of Nebraskans. Nebraska is continuously designing new academic frameworks to provide students with the mental skills and broad perspectives of educated citizens.

Quality instruction is emphasized in UNL's nine undergraduate colleges, the Graduate College and the College of Law. The Colleges of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources, Architecture, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Engineering and Technology, Human Resources and Family Sciences, Journalism and Mass Communication and Teachers College offer more than 100 degree programs leading to career opportunities in the arts, the sciences, the humanities and the professions.

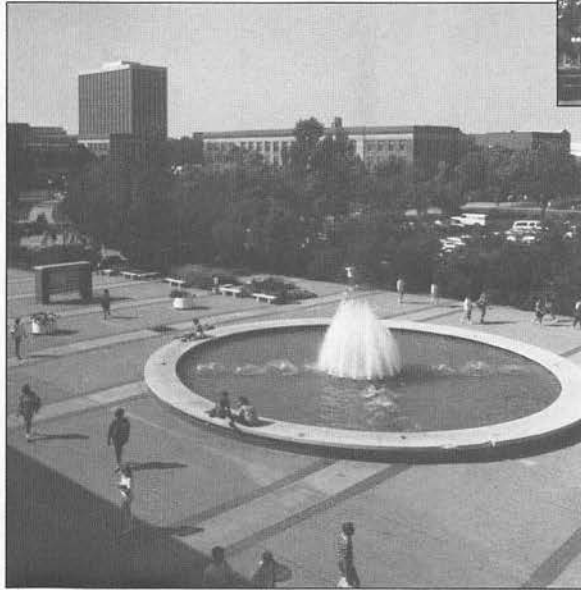

Over the years, alumni such as authors Willa Cather and Mari Sandoz, legal educator Roscoe Pound, anthropologist Loren Easley, Pulitzer Prize-winning journalists James Risser and Marjie Lundstrom, presidential advisers such as Ted Sorensen and Clayton Yeutter, Nobel-prize winning scientists such as George W. Beadle and Donald Crum, inventor Harold "Doc" Edgerton and computer pioneer Jay Forrester have enriched the university's tradition of leadership and scholarly excellence.

Nebraska receives more than $50 million annually in grants and contracts from outside sources for research, instruction, public service, administration and student aid. UNL receives special funds through an innovative program initiated by the state government for research in areas with potential impact on the state's economic development.

The campus is home to the nationally renowned Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery and Sculpture Garden, the Christlieb Collection of Western Art and the Lied Center for Performing Arts. The University of Nebraska State Museum boasts a world-class fossil collection and helped develop Ashfall Fossil Beds State Park, which opened in the summer of 1991.

Noted for its outstanding athletic programs, Nebraska is also noted for the quality of its academic programs for student-athletes. Its Hewitt Training Center for student-athletes provides computer labs, study areas, career counseling and other academic support services. UNL leads the nation in Academic All-Americans for all sports, including football.

In 1991, College Athletic Management magazine named Nebraska No. 1 in the country for its support program for student-athletes.

Broyhill Fountain, on the University of Nebraska city campus, is located in the center of campus, in front of the student union.

The University of Nebraska offers more than 100 degree programs leading to careers in the arts, the sciences, the humanities and the professions.

LINCOLN...AN ALL-AMERICA CITY

The Nebraska State Capitol building is a short walk from the Nebraska city campus.

Lincoln, the state capital, has a quality of life that is sure to satisfy a variety of lifestyles and interests. Lincoln was voted the 10th-most livable city in the United States by Money Magazine in 1991. Included in the evaluation were low crime rates, top-rate medical care and other environmental factors.

Lincoln is also the home to state, county and city government offices and is one of the nation's fastest growing non-Sun Belt cities. Nebraska's capital has more than 5,000 acres of parks, including 10 lakes, nine municipal swimming pools, more than 20 miles of paved bike paths and trails and six municipal golf courses. Opportunities are always available to enjoy the outdoors with 15,000 acres of surrounding recreational areas.

Nebraska is an integral part of the community as it is home to the Lied Center for Performing Arts, which offers dance, music and theatre performances; Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery; as well as the Bob Devaney Sports Center. The campus is located in the heart of the city with easy access to shopping, eating establishments, movie theatres and many of Lincoln's most popular night spots.

Lincoln's historic market district, known as the Haymarket, also includes specialty and antique shops, art galleries, restaurants, clubs and much more. The "Star City" offers a unique and diverse mix of activities and opportunities.

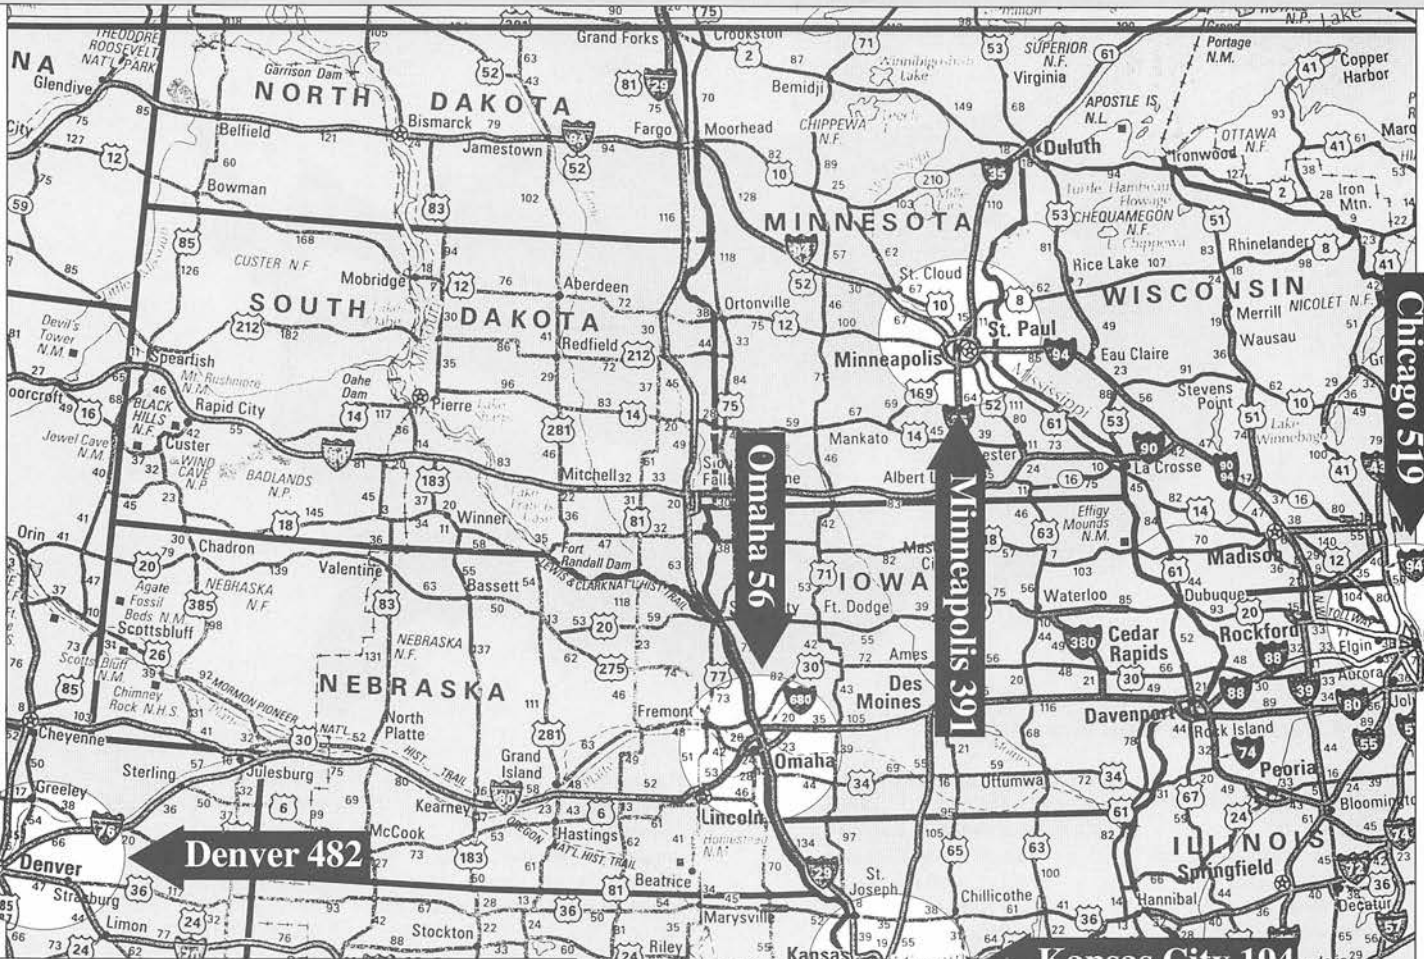

Did You Know That...

- ❑ The average movie ticket in Lincoln is $5 while a matinee is only $3.00. Most theaters offer a student discount and there are several $1.50 movie houses located within walking distance from campus.
- ❑ The average price of a Lincoln hotel room is $45 with an offering of 2,900 rooms at more than 35 hotels.
- ❑ Rent for a one-bedroom apartment in the capital city averages just $300 while a two-bedroom runs $366.
- ❑ The price for a round of golf at a public course is less than $12.

THE LINCOLN AREA...FULL OF OPPORTUNITIES

Lincoln is one of the nation's fastest growing non-Sun Belt cities and is located in close proximity to a number of metropolitan areas. Lincoln, home of Nebraska's state capital, is a progressive city which offers a wide variety of activities sure to please anyone.

Featuring all the advantages of an urban setting, the Star-City is only minutes away from the scenic beauty and wide open spaces of America's Heartland. Living in Lincoln enables one to enjoy the benefits of life in a city, while residing in a community that consistently lists one of the nation's lowest crime rates among cities its size.

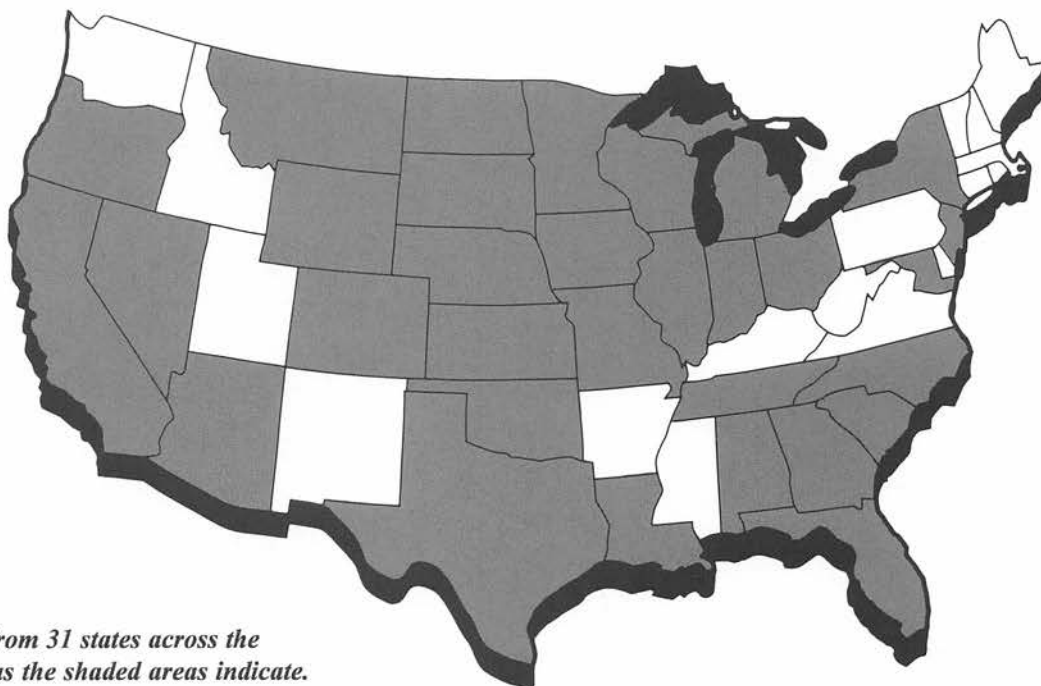

Lincoln also caters to the contemporary traveler, offering transportation services which include a modern airport, (with major airlines providing service to the nation's major metropolitan areas), Amtrak and major bus line services.

A diverse mixture of night spots, shopping centers, art galleries and restaurants, give Lincoln a distinct and unique flavor. Boasting the conveniences of a modern city and friendly "down-home" residents, Lincoln is one of America's most livable cities.

Did You Know That...

- ❑ Omaha (56 miles) is less than an hour's drive from Lincoln and has what is considered the best rain forest in the world, The Lied Jungle, located inside the Henry Doorly Zoo.
- ❑ Nebraska's largest city, Omaha, with a metropolitan population of 639,000, is home to the Kansas City Royals' Class AAA farm team, the CBA's Racers and the USHL's Lancers.
- ❑ Nebraska originated from the Otoe Indian word "Nebrathka" meaning flat water, which is what the Otoe's called the Platte River.
- ❑ Husker football players hail from 31 states and two countries.
- ❑ The average daily temperature in Lincoln is 65 degrees.
- ❑ Lincoln, Nebraska's capital city, has a population of 192,000, making it the largest city of any Big Eight school.

Tom Osborne, the winningest active coach in the nation, sports an .811 winning percentage in 21 years.

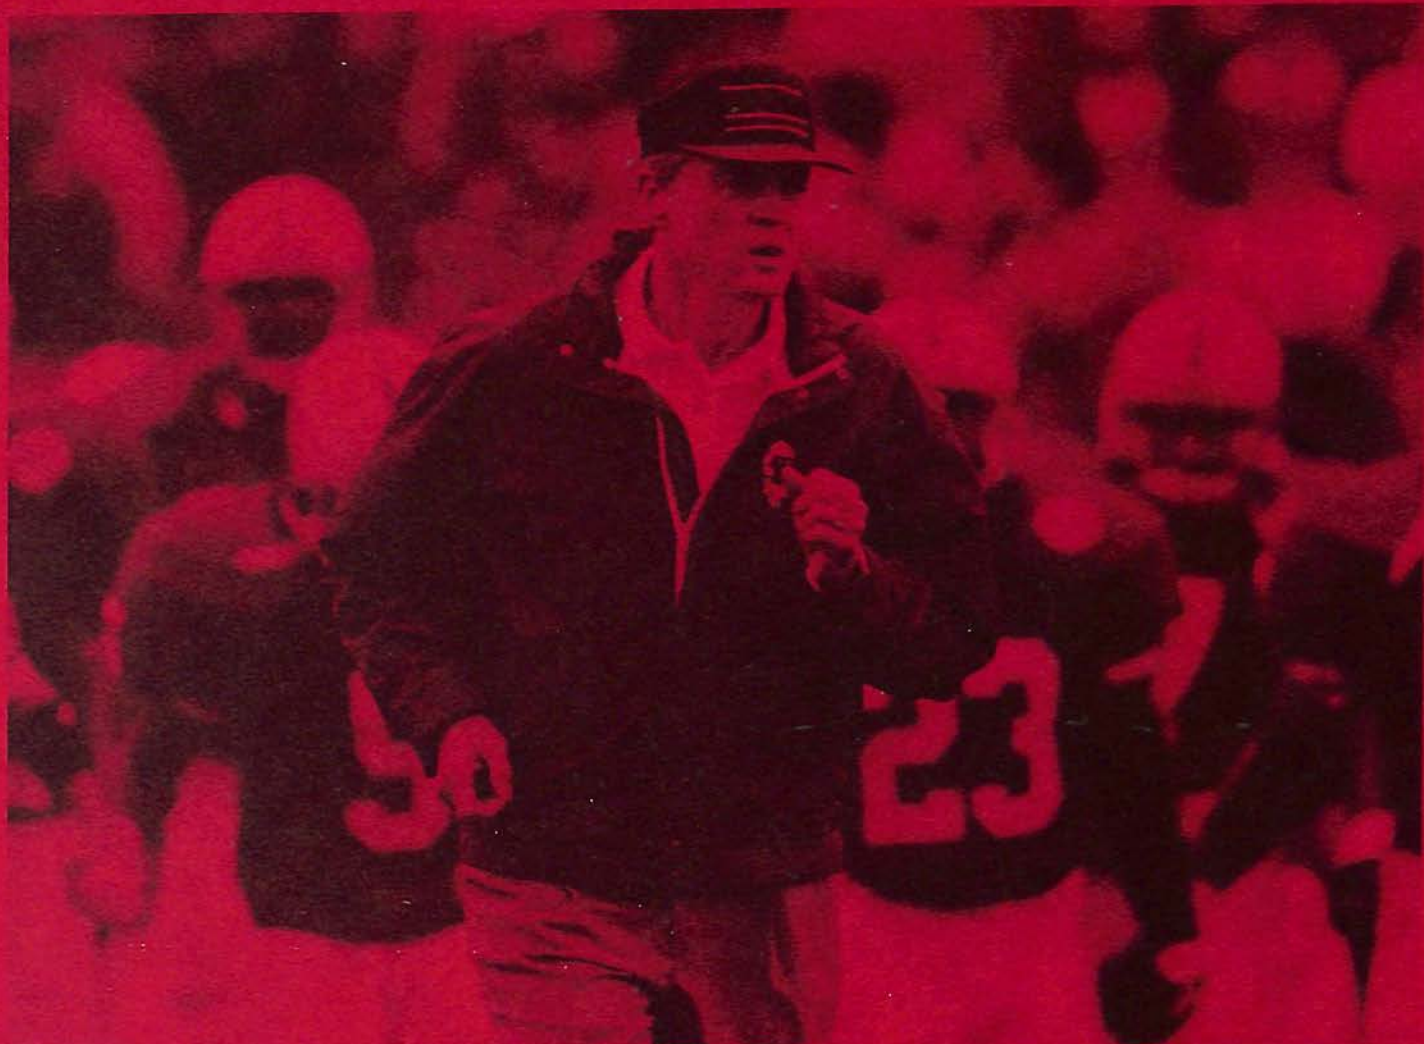

Did You Know...

In 33 years, Nebraska legendary coaches Bob Devaney (1962-72) and Tom Osborne (1973-present) have accounted for 307 of Nebraska's 673 all-time wins (46 percent), 18 of its 30 conference titles and 30 of its 32 bowl appearances.

COACHES / STAFF

OSBORNE WINS NO. 200 IN RECORD 21 YEARS

In 1993, Coach Tom Osborne became the 12th Division I college football coach to post 200 career victories. He did so in just 21 seasons, faster than any other coach in college football history.

Over the Last Two Decades, Osborne's Huskers Have...

- Won 10 Big Eight Championships (leads the Big Eight)
- Won 206 games (9.80/year)
- Won nine or more games every year (a continuing NCAA record)
- Gone to 21 consecutive bowl games (13 consecutive on New Year's Day)
- Been ranked every single year by the Associated Press
- Been ranked in 329 of the possible 332 weeks by AP
- Won the national rushing title eight times (best in the nation)
- Won four Outlands, two Lombardis, one Heisman Trophy and one Butkus
- Received 43 first-team All-America certificates (2.1/year)
- Earned 39 first-team GTE Academic All-America awards (1.9/year)
- Earned six NCAA "Today's Top Six" awards (leads the nation)
- Earned 23 NCAA post-graduate scholarships (more than one/year)
- Been selected in the first round of the NFL draft 17 times (nearly one per year)
- Had the opportunity to play pro ball with 144 draft picks (6.9/year)
- Played on national television 97 times (4.6/year)
- Played against 84 ranked opponents (4.0/year)

TOM OSBORNE

Head Football Coach Assistant Athletic Director

The phrase inscribed on Memorial Stadium's northwest corner reads, "Courage; Generosity; Fairness; Honor; In these are the true awards of manly sports." And, those words portray Husker Coach Tom Osborne, who in 21 years on the Nebraska sideline has built a total program based on more than just winning.

The veteran Husker mentor knows how to win, that's for sure, but it isn't his only source of motivation. The nation's winningest active coach sports a glossy 206-47-3 record, for an .811 winning percentage, a mark that ranks 10th all time. And yes, every Osborne-coached Husker squad has won at least nine games and gone bowling, two achievements which should ensure him a hall of fame ticket and a place among college football's legends.

But beyond the remarkable on the field success story his Husker teams have written in America's heartland, Osborne is committed to making a difference in the lives of his players, staff and the community in which he lives. In today's ever-changing and fast-paced intercollegiate athletic world, he is the pillar of stability and a visible role model for all.

Consider if you will, that 25 men have served as head football coaches at Big Eight institutions during his tenure and that only two of the nation's active Division I-A coaches have been on the job at the same institution longer than the down-to-earth Osborne. The dean of Big Eight football coaches, Osborne is entering his 22nd year as the Huskers' head man and his 33rd overall in Lincoln. That stability is a trademark of the Osborne-built Nebraska program.

A Hastings, Neb., native, Osborne may well be the state's best ambassador. He is an advocate of NCAA reform on behalf of all student-athletes; an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and supports numerous area youth education programs. Osborne leads by example and teaches that life is more than just a 60-minute football game on 12 autumn afternoons and evenings.

Some 82 percent of Osborne's players who have completed their eligibility at Nebraska have left with their degrees in hand. Not surprisingly, his program leads the nation in virtually every academic honor available to student-athletes. In short, he's built a complete program; one that combines academic excellence with outstanding play on the field.

In the community, Coach Osborne and his wife, Nancy, have developed a special program for area youths. The Husker Teammates program matches Nebraska football players with local junior high school students in a big-brother relationship.

Financing for the Husker Teammates program comes from The Osborne Endowment for Youth. That fund, underwritten by the Coach and his wife and established four years ago, helps prevent junior high and middle school youths from dropping out of school and encourages them to continue their education beyond high school. At a banquet last winter honoring Osborne for his 200th career victory, more than $250,000 was raised for the Endowment. This is a tribute not only to Osborne's on the field achievements, but his desire to make the community a better place to live and indicates the respect he enjoys from his peers.

And, he encourages his players to give back to the community, evidenced by the more than 50,000 students his players reach on an annual basis through community outreach activities.

For his efforts on behalf of student-athletes and his work in the community, Osborne was selected as one of eight 1994 Giant Steps Award winners from around the nation by the Northeastern University Center for the Study of Sport in Society. The awards are given annually on National Student-Athlete Day to individuals and/or organizations who exemplify the ideals and provide the support necessary for student-athletes to achieve academic and athletic excellence.

Osborne heads into his 22nd campaign on the Husker sideline owning league records for victories (206) and games coached (256). Osborne-led Husker squads have captured 10 Big Eight crowns and averaged 9.8 victories per year. Of NU's 10 league titles in Osborne's tenure as head coach, six have been outright, including 1993. The Huskers also captured league championships in 1975, 1978, 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1988, 1991 and 1992.

The 1993 season was a memorable one for Osborne, as he became the first coach to reach the 200-win plateau in just 21 seasons, when the Huskers defeated Oklahoma State, 27-13, in Stillwater, Okla., Oct. 7, 1993. Only the 12th coach in NCAA Division I-A history to reach the 200-win milestone and the first to do so exclusively at one school, his 206 victories rank ninth all-time, third among active Division I-A coaches. Osborne reached the 200-win plateau in just 249 games with a remarkable nine victories and a bowl appearance every season.

Bowling, though, is far from a new-wave experience for the Cornhuskers or Osborne, as all 21 of Dr. Tom's teams have made bowl treks and 30 of the 32 Husker teams he's been associated with have ended their season in a bowl game. Those 21 bowl appearances rank Osborne third all-time behind Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant (29) and Penn State's Joe Paterno (24), and the last 13 have come on New Year's Day, another NCAA record. All 21 of NU's bowl appearances under Osborne have been against ranked (AP) teams, and the last nine, including last year's national title matchup against No. 1 Florida State, have been against teams ranked in the top five, all of which ranked higher than Nebraska.

Not one to shy away from a challenge, Osborne's Huskers have accepted the maximum number of preseason invites allowed by NCAA rules, playing in the Kickoff Classic twice, and winning both times (44-6 over Penn State in the inaugural game in 1983 and 23-14 over Texas A&M in 1988). His 1994 team hopes to keep its Kickoff Classic record perfect when it tangles with West Virginia in this year's season opener at the Meadowlands.

Under Osborne's direction, Nebraska's NCAA-record string of consecutive winning seasons has grown to 32, including a record 25 consecutive seasons with at least nine wins. The Huskers made an NCAA-record-tying 25th-straight bowl appearance in 1993, a streak which ranks as the longest active string in college football and equal to Alabama's record run from 1959 through 1983.

In 1993, Osborne's Cornhuskers won their third-straight Big Eight title and finished regular-season play undefeated and untied for only the 11th time in their 104-year history and the first since 1983. Along the way, Nebraska went 2-0 vs. ranked teams in the regular season before losing a

"Tom Osborne is what college football is all about. Helping student-athletes develop into young men who will be successful on the field, in the classroom and in life. He stands for all the right things and helps players set their priorities, while at the same time runs a top-notch, national-caliber program. His leadership is the reason Nebraska has been successful for over three decades."

The Huskers also beat five teams that qualified for postseason play (Texas Tech, UCLA, Kansas State, Colorado and Oklahoma). NU clinched the Big Eight title with its win over Iowa State, Nov. 13, the earliest the Huskers had wrapped up the league trophy since 1981.

For his efforts, Osborne was selected as the 1993 Big Eight Conference Coach-of-the-Year by his peers, the second-straight season he had been so honored. A six-time Big Eight Coach-of-the-Year selection (1975, 1976, 1980, 1988, 1992 and 1993), Osborne was named the American Football Coaches Association District VI

Coach-of-the-Year six times--1978, 1979, 1980, 1983, 1987 and 1988. He was selected as the 1978 Bobby Dodd National Coach-of-the-Year by the Atlanta Quarterback Club and Delta Airlines for his effort toward the advancement of the higher and more notable aspects of college coaching. Osborne also earned National Coach-of-the-Year honors from the Football News in 1983.

While stability has played a key role in NU' grid fortunes over the past 21 seasons, there is an unmasked consistency about which Osborne and the Huskers go about their business. And, nowhere is that consistency more evident than the national polls, where Nebraska has been a fixture every season under Osborne. Nebraska has been ranked in every weekly AP poll since 1981, giving it a poll record 206 consecutive weeks in the rankings. Since Osborne took over in 1973, NU has been ranked in 329 of 332 AP polls, missing one week in 1977 and two in 1981. Since 1969, the Cornhuskers have appeared in 380 of a possible 382 polls. Husker squads have finished among the AP Top 20 in 20 of 21 seasons under Osborne.

In fact, a study of the final AP polls from 1973 through the 1993 season finds that Nebraska is the nation's most successful program based on rankings. Using a point system of 20 for first, 19 for second, etc., the Huskers scored 256 points to outdistance second-place Michigan's 244 points and third-place Oklahoma's 239 points.

The Huskers climbed as high as No. 2 last year in the AP poll for the first time since the 1988 season, and were ranked No. 1 in the CNN/USA Today coaches poll heading into the Florida State game. Despite its gut-wrenching Orange Bowl loss to the Seminoles, NU ended the year at No. 3 in the AP listing, its highest season-end ranking by the media since 1983.

Through 21 seasons, Osborne's Huskers have posted an impressive 45-36-1 (.555) record against ranked AP teams, easily the best record for a Nebraska mentor. In 1993, NU was 4-1 vs. teams ranked at the end of the season. Osborne is also the only Husker coach to ever beat a No. 1-ranked team--the 17-14 win over Oklahoma in 1978. His Hall of Fame predecessor, Bob Devaney, was 12-12-2 against ranked teams during his Nebraska career, while all previous NU coaches were a combined 7-35-0.

"I believe most of the players look at Coach Osborne as a type of father figure, and he fills that void for a lot of the players. He treats you like a son, and that means a lot."

—Calvin Jones
Two-time All-Big Eight I-Back

On and off the field, Osborne's players have consistently been highly honored. Six of his proteges have received the NCAA's highest honor for student-athletes—selection as one of Today's Top Six, including 1993 Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts. That's the most for any individual sports program in the country and accounts for more than half of NU's nation-leading 10 total selections. Husker gridders who received the honor include guard Randy Schleusener (1981), centers Dave Rimington (1983), Mark Traynowicz (1985) and Jake Young (1990), and linebackers Pat Tyrance (1991) and Alberts (1994).

In 1993, Alberts, Terry Connealy and Rob Zatechka earned first-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors to boost the Huskers' total to 32 student-athletes. That figure includes seven two-time picks for a total of 39 first-team academic All-America certificates under Osborne and a nation-leading 45 in school history.

Nebraska has also had 23 NCAA postgraduate scholarship winners and 14 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete recipients, including Alberts in 1993. In 1988, Mark Blazek was named the CBS/Toyota Leader-of-the-Year.

The honors, though, don't end in the classroom, as Husker players have been highly-decorated for their on-field performances, too. Last year, Alberts became the first player in Nebraska history to earn the Butkus Award, given annually to the nation's top collegiate linebacker.

A year earlier, Will Shields continued the streak of award-winning excellence under the direction of Coach Osborne by bringing home the fourth Outland Trophy in Tom's head coaching career and the sixth in school history. The Huskers made history under Osborne by producing three consecutive Outland Trophy winners (Rimington in 1981 and 1982 and Dean Steinkuhler in 1983) and two consecutive Lombardi Award winners (Rimington in 1982 and Steinkuhler in 1983), while also winning the 1983 Heisman Trophy (Mike Rozier).

During Osborne's career, 38 players have earned All-America honors, including five two-time All-Americans for a total of 43 selections. Alberts earned consensus first-team All-

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

America honors in 1993, the 39th time in school history a player has been a consensus pick.

Osborne was the first recipient of the Distinguished Nebraskalander Award from the Nebraskalander Foundation in 1982, and he was named the 1983 national coach-of-the-year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He's also an author, having published a book entitled "More Than Winning" in 1985.

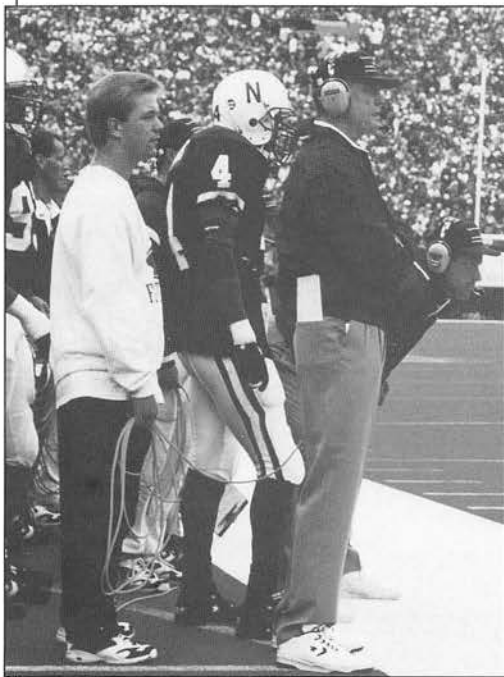

An outstanding high school athlete at Hastings High School in the mid-1950s, Osborne was named Nebraska Prep Athlete-of-the-Year, then passed up major-college scholarship offers to attend the school from which his father and grandfather graduated before him, hometown Hastings College. He became a star quarterback and basketball player for Coach Tom McLaughlin, and in 1959 was named State College Athlete-of-the-Year, becoming the first athlete in Nebraska history to win both the high school and college honors.

After receiving his bachelor's degree from Hastings College in 1959, Osborne played three seasons in the National Football League, two with the Washington Redskins and one with the San Francisco 49ers, where his roommate was Jack Kemp, the former Congressman, presidential candidate and Bush administration Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

In 1962, he contacted the newly-hired Devaney, and obtained a graduate assistant's position on the Husker staff. He continued in that capacity until he received his master's degree in 1963, then maintained a triple role of student, teacher and part-time coach at the University. He earned a doctorate in educational psychology in 1965, then elected to pursue coaching as a career in 1967, becoming the Huskers' full-time receivers coach--a decision NU fans have applauded since.

Over the next five years, Osborne was in charge of the Husker passing game, and in his last four seasons as an assistant coach, developed a wingback by the name of Johnny Rodgers, who would become Nebraska's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1972.

When Devaney announced after the 1972 Orange Bowl that he would retire from coaching at the end of the 1972 season, he elevated Osborne to assistant head coach and director of recruiting for his final campaign, and handpicked the then-34-year-old as his successor.

Osborne took over a program which regained national prominence under Devaney, built upon it and established his own winning tradition. Osborne and Devaney are one of just three coaching duos to post back-to-back 100-win seasons at the same institution (following Penn State's Rip Engle and Joe Paterno and Georgia Tech's John Heisman, Bill Alexander and Bobby Dodd), but the first pair to do it in an unbelievable 21 years. Since 1962, NU owns a 307-67-5 record for an incredible .817 winning percentage (32 years, 379 games).

Osborne, who was born Feb. 23, 1937, is married to the former Nancy Tederman. They are the parents of a son, Mike, and two daughters, Ann and Suzi. During the 1992 football campaign, son Mike and his wife Emily gave Osborne his first grandchild, William. Mike followed in his father's footsteps by playing quarterback at Hastings College, and graduated in May 1987.

Osborne Profile

Years at Nebraska: Starting 33rd season overall, 22nd as head coach, 16th as assistant athletic director. Nebraska's record with Osborne as head coach is 206-47-3 (.811), the Cornhuskers' record in his 32 years on the staff is 307-67-5 (.817). Osborne served on Coach Bob Devaney's staff from 1962 to 1963 as a graduate assistant, 1964 to 1966 as a part-time coach and teacher, then became full-time receivers coach in 1967 and was named assistant head coach in 1972 when Devaney selected him as his successor, and replaced Devaney in 1973.

Previous Coaching Experience: None, prior to joining Nebraska staff in 1962.

Playing Career: High school—three years at Hastings, Neb., High School, where he was an outstanding athlete in several sports and was named Nebraska High School Athlete-of-the-Year. College—four years as star quarterback for Hastings (Neb.) College; was twice named State College Athlete-of-the-Year, becoming first person to win both prep and college awards. Professional—three years in NFL, two with Washington Redskins, one with San Francisco 49ers as a flanker.

*Osborne passed Bob Devaney as the school's all-time winningest head coach. He and Devaney are the only coaches to win over 100 games at NU.

"Oz" Notes: Winningest active coach in NCAA Division I-A (.811); winningest coach in school and Big Eight Conference history (206); coached more games (256) than any coach in school and Big Eight history; Osborne's career, which spans more than 21 years, is the longest stint in Nebraska history and the second-longest in Big Eight Conference history; one of four active Division I-A coaches with 200 victories.

Notes: Nebraska led the Big Eight in both total offense and scoring 10 times during the 14-year period (1980-81-82-83-84-85-89-90-91-92) . . . NU also led the league in touchdown passes with 198 in that stretch. . . Over the last 14 years, Nebraska has averaged a touchdown every 15.1 plays, more often than any other conference school . . . NU leads the conference in rushing TDs per game (3.80) and joins Missouri as the only two conference schools to average at least one passing TD per game . . . NU has run at least 800 plays from scrimmage in 12 of the last 14 seasons, and has averaged 6.0 yards per play from scrimmage nine times in that period. . . in contrast, both Oklahoma and Colorado topped the 6-yard mark three times each over that stretch.

Notes: Nebraska led the Big Eight in total defense seven times (1980-81-84-88-89-90-93) . . . the Huskers led the league in scoring defense seven times and yards allowed per play six times . . . opponents' 47.3 percent completion rate against Nebraska's defense is the lowest among conference teams . . . NU's pass defense has allowed 103 passing TDs in 14 seasons, 28 fewer than the next closest conference team, and its 226 interceptions ranks second among league schools.

Prior to the 1980 season, the Huskers switched to the triple option as a basic offensive philosophy. Since then, the Huskers have won eight of a possible 14 Big Eight Championships. The numbers in the chart to the left illustrate NU's statistical dominance of the conference since 1980, especially on the offensive side of the ball, where NU has led the league in scoring and total offense in four of the last five seasons. Due in large part to this explosive offense, Nebraska is the only conference school to go to a bowl game in each of the last 14 years.

Notable: Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne is the only Husker mentor to beat a No. 1 ranked team, as his 1978 team beat top-ranked Oklahoma, 17-14, in Lincoln...under Osborne, NU has played an average of 3.9 games per season against a ranked opponent...every team Nebraska has faced in its last seven bowl appearances has finished either No. 1 or No. 2 in one of the two polls, and the Huskers have been the lower-rated team every time...in three of its last four bowl appearances, the team that beat Nebraska finished No. 1 in one or both of the wire service polls (Georgia Tech in 1990, Miami in 1991 and Florida State last year).

WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT COACH OSBORNE

Dave Rimington
Former Husker Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy winner, NFL center

"Coach Osborne was a great inspiration to me during my years at Nebraska. Not only is he the best coach in the country, but a great teacher as well. Playing for him has been a great experience."

Roger Craig
Former Husker and NFL All-Pro Running Back

"Not only is there a strong tradition of great football at the University of Nebraska, the educational opportunities are first rate. As head coach of the Huskers, Tom Osborne stresses the importance of working together and team unity. When I was a Husker, he showed us how to be professionals about our jobs, and always made sure we were doing well in school. His coaching prepared me for my career in professional football."

Chuck Neinas
Executive Director of the College Football Association

"Nebraska football may be the state's number one resource. Coach Osborne enjoys the respect of coaches and administrators throughout the country. He has been willing to step forward and address the concerns of major college football. The CFA is appreciative of the support and cooperation of the University of Nebraska, including the chancellor, faculty representative, athletic director and coaches."

Ron Franklin
ESPN Sportscaster

"When you speak of success in college football, the University of Nebraska will always come to mind. Decades of winning and one of the greatest followings by knowledgeable fans that now extends to record numbers, displays just how good the Huskers have been for a very long time. Tom Osborne has never gotten the total praise he deserves.

Consider one thing, he's one of the few coaches in America who followed a legend and never missed a beat. He won, and he won big. I will always think of him as one of the best in his profession and more importantly--a gentleman."

Mike Rozier
1983 Heisman Trophy Winner Former Husker and NFL runningback

"In addition to being a good coach, he is a good man. He has always treated me fairly and treated all of the players who want to work hard to play, the same way."

Neil Smith
Former Husker All-American and All-Pro defensive end for the Kansas City Chiefs

"When I went to Nebraska I was a lucky guy. (Former Husker assistant coach) Jack Pierce came down to Louisiana to recruit our quarterback. It was a lucky break when he saw me on film. That gave me an opportunity. It was a big break in life. I feel I'm a better person to have come out of there.

It would've been easy to go the opposite way."

Bob Devaney
Nebraska Athletic Director Emeritus

"He's the finest football coach in the country. Every season he's won nine games and it's hard to criticize that. If I were hiring a coach and I could get him, I'd take him. Since we're lucky enough to have him here, I wouldn't trade him for anybody."

Dal Shealy
Fellowship of Christian Athletes' President

"Nebraska is a clean program. Tom has had a very consistent career. He stands for character and integrity--the things that athletics should stand for in America. He's an example to all coaches. He has shown that with character, a christian commitment and a zeal for life you can stand a notch above the norm. He's got my highest respect and the respect of coaches all across the country."

Gene Huey
Indianapolis Colts' running backs coach

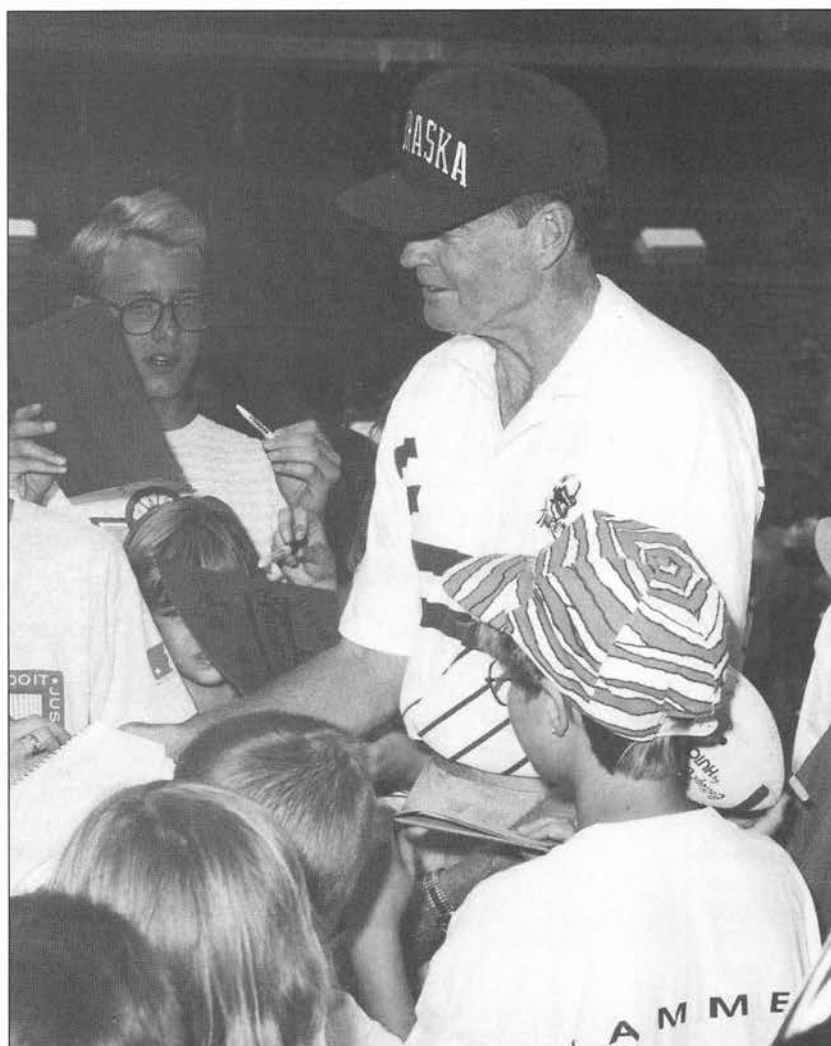

"Tom Osborne is the essence of stability at the University of Nebraska. He's an outstanding teacher, whose successes are measured most by his decades of consistent and unequalled stewardship."

Bobby Bowden
Florida State Head Coach

"No football program in the nation can surpass the University of Nebraska when it comes to quality. You take the three big aspects of physical, mental and spiritual, and Tom Osborne's guidelines cover it all. It's too late for my sons, but I hope one of my grandsons can attend the University of Nebraska. We are striving for the same success and image at Florida State."

TALKING WITH TOM OSBORNE

Over the last 21 years, Tom Osborne has been recognized as one of the nation's foremost leaders among coaches of collegiate athletics. A life-long Nebraskan, Osborne has consistently led his team to victories on the field, but more impressive is his record of producing academic All-Americans, NCAA Top Six Award winners and quality citizens off the field. In this conversation with the coach, Osborne talks of the athletes' role in his program, within the NCAA as a whole and how that role has changed over the years.

Why do you enjoy coaching football at Nebraska?

I enjoy coaching football here primarily because of the student-athletes. They tend to have a good work ethic and are basically good people. I am proud of their contributions to the University of Nebraska.

What is your coaching philosophy?

My basic philosophy is to work hard in a thorough, consistent manner; to operate with integrity, and to treat players and fellow coaches with dignity and respect; to promote pride and confidence in the football team. We want the team to represent the school well.

What are your offensive and defensive coaching beliefs?

We have been consistent in our approach to both sides of the ball and it has had paid off. Offensively, I believe that it's very important to use multiple sets, many different kinds of motion, have a sound running game that incorporates some option football and have a good play-action passing game. Defensively, I believe that speed is critical, since we will be primarily an attacking defense again this year. We like the defense to create opportunities through this aggressive style.

What do you expect from players in the program?

We expect that our players work very hard, have integrity, and do a good job academically. We want them to be good role models, and take advantage of the opportunity they have to receive an excellent education.

How do you handle Nebraska's tradition and the expectations it produces?

We have had consistent success at Nebraska with a strong football tradition. Therefore, expectations are high. All anyone can do is their best, and we hope that we are able to meet enough people's expectations to continue for some time in the future.

What does Nebraska's NCAA-record sellout string, which will hit the 200-mark this season, say about the program?

I believe it is quite a tribute to the faithfulness of our fans and also to the unified approach within the state. Most people in the state are Nebraska fans and it's nice to have that situation. We have had tremendous people who have stuck with our program and seem to believe in what we are doing. I congratulate the fans on the record-setting sellout string they have established.

What goals do you set for the program?

We want our players to play up to their full potential. This may translate into an undefeated season or a season in which we win only half of our games.

We also hope to graduate all of our players. We are getting closer to that goal all the time.

What do you expect from your coaching staff?

I expect that our coaching staff would be hardworking, thorough, and professional and would also serve as good role models to the players and others with whom they come in contact.

Do you believe in playing true freshmen?

We believe in playing the best player at any position. We find more and more that many freshman are ready to play. We prefer never to play a player who is not physically, mentally, or emotionally ready and some freshman are not.

What promises, if any, do you make to prospective student-athletes and their parents regarding the recruits' upcoming athletic/academic career?

We promise prospective student-athletes an opportunity to play, complete academic support, and fair treatment. Beyond this, we don't make promises that would be impossible to keep. We feel that honesty in dealing with our players creates a better feeling between players and coaches.

Why is Nebraska a unique place for a student-athlete to play football?

Nebraska is unique in the fact that there is intense interest in college football. There is only one school in the state that plays Division-I football, and there has been a long-standing tradition of football excellence. The record-setting string of bowl appearances and consecutive sellouts gives you an idea of the level of success we have enjoyed.

Why should a recruit pick the University of Nebraska?

I believe that many recruits pick Nebraska because of the tradition, the interest in football, the continuity of the coaching staff, the academic support system, and the excellent strength training program. We find students who want to be a part of a successful team and join a group of outstanding young men. Also, many enjoy the fact that Lincoln is a relatively quiet and safe community in which to play football and get an education.

What value do you place on the polls?

I don't place a whole lot of emphasis on the polls, but it's certainly nice to have been ranked for a record 206 consecutive weeks. I would guess that this does reflect a certain degree of consistency.

The most-recent NCAA graduation figures show that your student-athletes graduated at a higher rate than non-student-athletes. Why?

Our athletes have graduated at a higher rate than the general student body primarily because they receive excellent academic support and a great deal of supervision from the academic staff and the coaches. Also they are screened fairly carefully before they come to school.

Do you favor a stipend for student-athletes?

I'm in favor of student-athletes receiving all of the financial aid that they are entitled to. I doubt that we will see a stipend but appreciate the fact that the Pell Grant has been increased and that the NCAA has provided catastrophic insurance for all athletes. There is also an emergency needy-student fund that athletes can apply for to receive some financial relief.

What are your thoughts on the new Big 12 Conference?

I believe it is a good thing. If we had stayed at eight, obviously we wouldn't have enough television sets to warrant a sizable contract. We were always in jeopardy of losing one or two schools to other conferences and if that happened we'd have very little left. If you have 12 teams you have a big enough television market that you can have a major television contract and should be able to stay pretty much intact because there's no place to go that's more attractive financially than the expanded Big Eight.

What is your position on a season-ending playoff to determine the national champion?

I don't know so much if it's a matter of what I think or not, it's a matter of what's going to happen. It seems to me, rather unfortunately, every decision that's made any more is basically a financial decision. If people start rolling out figures of $100,000,000 or whatever, then it's just a matter of time before people find ways to justify doing what they want to do to get the money. I suspect that eventually we will have a playoff and I would like to see it. If they are going to do it, I'd rather see them have at least a minimum of eight teams and maybe as many as 16 teams because you're going to get back into the same old controversy if you just pick two or four teams. You will still almost end up with a ballot box or a committee decision that's going to be politicized. Whereas, if you go to 16 teams for instance, you probably are going to have somewhere in there the best team or the best two teams in the country. Eight might be debatable, you might still leave somebody out who's pretty good. The way the polls have gone and with all the talk shows hammering this stuff to death and almost promoting their own favorites, I guess maybe a playoff has more substance than it used to have just because the whole thing has become kind of a political football rather than a straight-out vote.

What should be the most important factor when considering a playoff?

I think the players really need to be considered in the equation because we've done some things for athletes but there have been a lot of things taken away over the years and the season was lengthened from nine to 10 to 11 games. You also have the Kickoff Classic and the Pigskin Classic and now we may add another three or four games to a season. The players see the revenues increasing and yet they still receive proportionally a smaller amount of the pie than they ever did. I think that the way things have gone, that some of the people who have the most at stake have had the least voice, players being primary and coaches secondary, and those are the people who are going to have to deliver.

What major changes have you seen in college football since you began your coaching career in the 1960s?

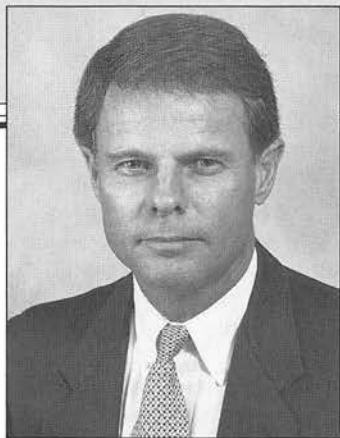

The number of scholarship athletes has been cut almost in half since the 1960s and the coaching staff size has been reduced by about one-third. Also, athletes currently receive a smaller percentage of the revenues that they produce, in that the monthly stipend that athletes once received has been eliminated, travel jackets have been eliminated, drug testing has been initiated and many higher academic requirements have been imposed. Many of these changes are for the better, however, the student-athlete at the present time is much more regulated and has a great deal more expected of him than was true in the 1960s.

What are some of the highlights of your coaching career?

Some of the many highlights from my coaching career would be the win over Alabama here in Lincoln in the late 1970s, when Bear Bryant was coaching; the Orange Bowl game of 1984, in which we made a great comeback but lost on a two-point conversion; and also the 7-3 win over Oklahoma in Barry Switzer's last game against us.

FRANK SOLICH

Assistant Head Coach, Running Backs Coach

A former standout fullback on Coach Bob Devaney's Nebraska

teams in the mid-1960s, Frank Solich is starting his 16th season on the Husker coaching staff, his 12th as Nebraska's running backs coach and his fourth as assistant head coach. A 1992 inductee into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame, Solich was tabbed Athlon Magazine's Assistant Coach-of-the-Year prior to the start of the 1993 season.

Solich, who recruited and coached Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier, has produced at least one All-Big Eight running back in 10 of the 11 seasons he has tutored that position. In 1993, he coached I-back Calvin Jones, who earned his second-straight first-team All-Big Eight certificate. In 1992, he coached the Husker "We-backs," Derek Brown and Jones, both of whom earned unanimous all-conference honors and were named the offensive player-of-the-year in the Big Eight by the Associated Press and conference coaches, respectively. Both Brown and Jones are with NFL teams now, with the New Orleans Saints and Los Angeles Raiders, respectively.

Since Solich began directing the Husker ground attack, NU has averaged 348.5 rushing yards per game en route to five NCAA rushing titles, the most-recent of which came in 1992.

Despite weighing less than 160 pounds, Solich was an All-Big Eight fullback and co-captain of the Cornhuskers' 1965 team. He held the NU single-game rushing record (204 yards against Air Force in 1965) for 10 years, and also lettered in baseball. He still holds the Orange Bowl record for return yards with 166 in 1966.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Solich prepped at Holy Name High School and received his bachelor's (1966) and master's (1972) degrees from Nebraska. He was the head coach at Holy Name High School in Omaha, Neb., from 1966-68, then moved to Lincoln Southeast from 1968 through 1979. After joining the NU staff, he served as the head freshman coach for four seasons, posting three undefeated seasons, before taking over as coach of the Husker running backs in 1983. Solich is married to the former Pamela Wieck, of Beatrice, Neb., and they have two children, Cindy and Jeff.

Solich's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"It's important to me as a coach to help players develop to the best of their abilities and to have them understand their responsibilities as a student-athlete. In doing so, you're helping them to grow and mature as a complete person and to prepare themselves for the future."

CHARLIE McBRIDE

Defensive Coordinator, Defensive Line Coach

Hailed by The Sporting News as the nation's best collegiate defensive line coach in its 1992 preseason annual, Charlie McBride is beginning his 18th season on Coach Tom Osborne's staff, and his 13th as the Huskers' defensive coordinator.

The 1993 Husker Blackshirts led the Big Eight in every defensive category and ranked 12th nationally in total defense at 307.6 ypg. NU was also first in the league and 12th nationally in pass efficiency defense (102.3 rating), and tied for first in the league and 13th nationally in scoring defense at 16.0 ppg. In the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl game against Florida State, the Huskers limited the high-powered Seminoles to 333 total-offense yards, some 215 below their season average, and held the nation's highest scoring team (43.2 ppg) to a season-low 18 points.

Since taking over as defensive coordinator in 1982, McBride has watched the Husker Blackshirts lead the Big Eight in total defense five times, including 1984, when NU topped the nation in both total defense and scoring defense. His defensive units have ranked among the nation's top 15 teams in total defense nine of his 12 years as defensive coordinator, including a nation-leading 203.3 yards per game in 1984, and have yielded an average of 283.51 yards and 14.2 points per game in his tenure.

He has served as the Huskers' defensive line coach since coming to Nebraska in 1977, and in that time, has produced such standouts as All-Americans Neil Smith, now of the Kansas City Chiefs, and seven-year NFL veteran Danny Noonan.

An All-Big Eight end and punter at Colorado, McBride received his bachelor's degree from CU in 1962 in physical education, then played one season for the AFL's Denver Broncos. Following his one-year stint with the Broncos, he became head coach at Chicago's Fenger High School, a position he held for the 1963-64 season. He returned to Colorado and served as a graduate assistant in 1965 and 1966. McBride was an assistant coach to Frank Kush at Arizona State for three seasons (1967-69), then went on to Wisconsin, where he served as offensive line coach on Coach John Jardine's staff for six seasons (1970-75) and defensive line coach and defensive coordinator for one season (1976).

A Chicago native, McBride was a four-sport standout (football, basketball, baseball and track) at Morgan Park High School where he earned prep All-America honors in football and baseball. He's married to the former Deborah Anne Denniston of Barrington, Ill., and they have three sons—Mike, Jeff and David, and two grandsons, Ryan and Keefe, and a granddaughter, Kelcy.

McBride's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"Each player is as different as their faces. They have different feelings and different goals. I believe it's important to recognize the feelings of every player I coach and work as hard as I can to see that he reaches his goals. I also believe that if you're going to chew a player out, you also better be willing to hug his neck."

RON BROWN

Receivers Coach

Ron Brown is entering his eighth season as the Huskers' receivers coach. Fifteen of his former pupils have gone on to professional careers, including tight end Johnny Mitchell, the New York Jets 1992 first-round draft pick, and 1994 NFL Pro Bowl selection Tyrone Hughes of the New Orleans Saints. In Brown's NU tenure, an average of 2.1 Husker receivers each season have been either drafted or signed free agent contracts. His receivers, noted as excellent perimeter blockers, have helped Nebraska to four NCAA rushing titles in the last seven seasons.

Brown joined Coach Osborne's staff after a four-year stint at Brown University. He spent one season as the Bears' head freshman coach (1983), then moved up to the varsity staff and tutored the defensive backs for three seasons. He also served as the Assistant to the Athletic Director in 1986. In 1985, the Bears' defense led the Ivy League and ranked among the top eight in the NCAA's Division I-AA in rushing, scoring and total defense.

A standout defensive back at Brown in the late 1970s and a member of the school's Sports Hall of Fame, Brown was credited with 115 tackles in his career and he picked off seven passes in his first two seasons. Brown received his bachelor's degree from Brown in 1979, then earned his master's degree in health administration from Columbia University in 1982. He began his coaching career as defensive coordinator for the semi-pro New Jersey Rams in 1982, before moving to his alma mater in 1983.

In 1993, author Arthur L. Lindsay wrote a biography about Coach Brown entitled "I Can." Brown has also written the chapter "Special Issue for the Black Athlete" in a book titled Black Students Guide to College Success, which is utilized by African-American high school students across the nation. The guide was edited in part by UNL faculty members Ruby Higgins and Dr. Keith Prichard.

Brown is a speaker and writer for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and serves as the FCA's national spokesman for race reconciliation. He is married to Molvina Carter of San Diego, Calif.

Brown's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"What's most important to me as a coach is to assist each athlete in maximizing every God-given talent that he has. Each person that I coach has at least some level of talent in character, academics, and athletics, with a very unique blend of the three that no one else can duplicate. The level of abilities will vary, but my desire is to help each young man understand that true success is based upon this principle of maximization of ability--and not on how he compares with everyone else."

GEORGE DARLINGTON

Defensive Backs Coach

George Darlington, the dean of Coach Tom Osborne's coaching staff, is the only remaining member of Osborne's original Husker staff. Darlington is in his 22nd season at Nebraska, and his ninth as the Huskers' secondary coach after tutoring the defensive ends for 13 seasons.

A former State of Nebraska FCA Coach-of-the-Year, Darlington helped develop four All-America defensive ends, George Andrews, Jimmy Williams, Derrie Nelson and Bob Martin, and he's had at least one first-team All-Big Eight defensive back for six straight seasons. Two of his defensive backfield standouts from last year's team, rover Toby Wright and free safety John Reece, were drafted in 1994.

Prior to joining Osborne's staff in 1973, Darlington spent four seasons as an assistant coach at San Jose State. He coached two years at Johnson Regional High School in Clark, N.J., then started his college coaching career at Lebanon Valley (Pa.) College before going on to San Jose State.

A 1961 graduate of Rutgers University with a bachelor's degree in history and physical education, Darlington earned his master's degree from Stanford in 1962. While at Rutgers, Darlington lettered in football in 1959 and 1960, and also lettered twice in lacrosse, earning third-team All-America honors in 1961. George and his wife, Susan, have three children, Lisa Valladao, David and Julia, and four grandchildren.

Darlington's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"To guide each defensive back to reach his potential as both a student and an athlete."

TURNER GILL

Quarterbacks Coach

Former standout Husker signal caller Turner Gill enters his third season as Nebraska's quarterback coach.

Gill returned to his alma mater in August of 1992 after spending the 1991 season as receivers coach at Southern Methodist. In his rookie season as a full-time member of the coaching staff, Gill watched as Tommie Frazier became the first player in Nebraska history to start at quarterback as a true freshman in 1992 and went on to earn Big Eight Newcomer-of-the-Year accolades and second-team All-Big Eight honors a year later.

As Nebraska's starting signal caller from 1981 through 1983, he led the Huskers to a 28-2 mark, including a 20-0 league record, and three conference titles. A three-time All-Big Eight pick and a second-team All-American as a senior, Gill was the key to the Huskers' high-octane offense in 1983, a season in which NU I-back Mike Rozier won the Heisman Trophy and Gill finished fourth in the voting for collegiate football's top award. The '83 team finished 12-1 and second in the final polls. In his four-year career (1980-83), Gill completed 231 of 428 passes for 3,317 yards, 34 touchdowns and a .540 completion percentage. He rushed for 1,317 yards and 18 TDs to finish fourth on NU's all-time total offense chart with 4,634 yards.

A talented all-around athlete, Gill spent two seasons with the Canadian Football League's Montreal Concordes (1984-85) and three years (1986-88) in the Cleveland and Detroit minor league baseball systems. He left baseball and returned to his native state to the University of North Texas in 1990, where he was a volunteer assistant football coach and earned a B.A. in behavior analysis.

Gill returned to Nebraska in 1990 and served as a graduate assistant on the Husker staff, then moved to SMU as a graduate assistant for the 1991 campaign. He took graduate courses at each school. Gill returned to Nebraska prior to the 1992 season after SMU had elevated him to a full-time coaching position. He is married to the former Gayle DeBrie, of Kearney, Neb., and they have a four-year-old daughter, Jordan.

Gill's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"It is my intention to teach my players how to utilize their football skills to the best of their ability. My underlying goal, however, is to teach the intangible qualities of leadership, poise, self-discipline and respect for others. These attributes will also help them achieve the most important goal, that being a college degree. I hope to emphasize that their degree will always be there for them, long after they are through with football."

TONY SAMUEL

Outside Linebackers Coach

A defensive end at Nebraska from 1975-77, Tony Samuel returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach in 1986 and is be-

He's tutored such Husker standouts as 1993 Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts, 1988 Butkus Award runner-up Broderick Thomas, Jeff Mills, Mike Croel and 1992 Butkus Award semifinalist Travis Hill.

Last year, Alberts brought home the Huskers' first-ever Butkus Award, was selected as the school's 10th NCAA Today's Top Six Award winner and earned Big Eight Conference Athlete-of-the-Year honors, before being a first-round selection by the Indianapolis Colts. Alberts was Samuel's third first-round draft pick in eight years at Nebraska, following in the footsteps of Thomas (Tampa Bay, 1989) and Croel (Denver, 1991)

Samuel has produced at least one all-conference defensive end seven of the last eight years, one All-American in each of the last three seasons, and currently has five active pro players, including Croel, the NFL's 1991 defensive Rookie-of-the-Year for Denver.

Prior to joining the Nebraska staff, Samuel served as the defensive line coach at both Stanford (1984-85) and Western Michigan (1982-83). During his two-year stint at WMU, the Broncos led the Mid-American Conference in defense.

A two-year starter for the Cornhuskers, Samuel earned honorable-mention All-Big Eight status and was named the 1977 Optimist Club Defensive Lineman-of-the-Year. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska in 1979, and began his coaching career as a part-time assistant for the Huskers from 1978 through 1981. Samuel is married to the former Diane Ausdemore of Crofton, Neb. They have three children, Travis, 11, Serena, 9, and Phillip, 6.

Samuel's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"To create an atmosphere of pride and willingness to learn the sport, as well as the game of life. To learn as much as possible about the game and pass that knowledge on to the players and help them develop personally, as well as athletically."

KEVIN STEELE

Linebackers Coach

Kevin Steele is beginning his sixth season as the Huskers' linebackers coach, and his 13th as a Division I assistant coach.

At Nebraska, his 'backers have been decorated on the field and in the classroom, with Pat Tyrance earning all-conference honors in 1989 and 1990, receiving academic All-America honors in 1990, and the NCAA's highest honor--The Today's Top Six Award in 1991.

Steele came to Nebraska after a two-year stint at Tennessee, where he coached the defensive backfield under Coach Johnny Majors. A 1981 graduate of Tennessee, and a linebacker for the Vols from 1976 through 1979, Steele, stayed on as a graduate assistant linebackers coach (1981), then became the full-time outside linebackers coach in 1982.

He left the Volunteer program following the 1982 season to become the recruiting coordinator and linebackers coach at New Mexico State for one season. From 1984 to 1986, Steele served under Coach Pat Jones at Oklahoma State, first as tight ends coach, then as inside linebackers coach. Steele returned to Majors' staff in 1987 as the defensive backs coach, and came to NU two years later.

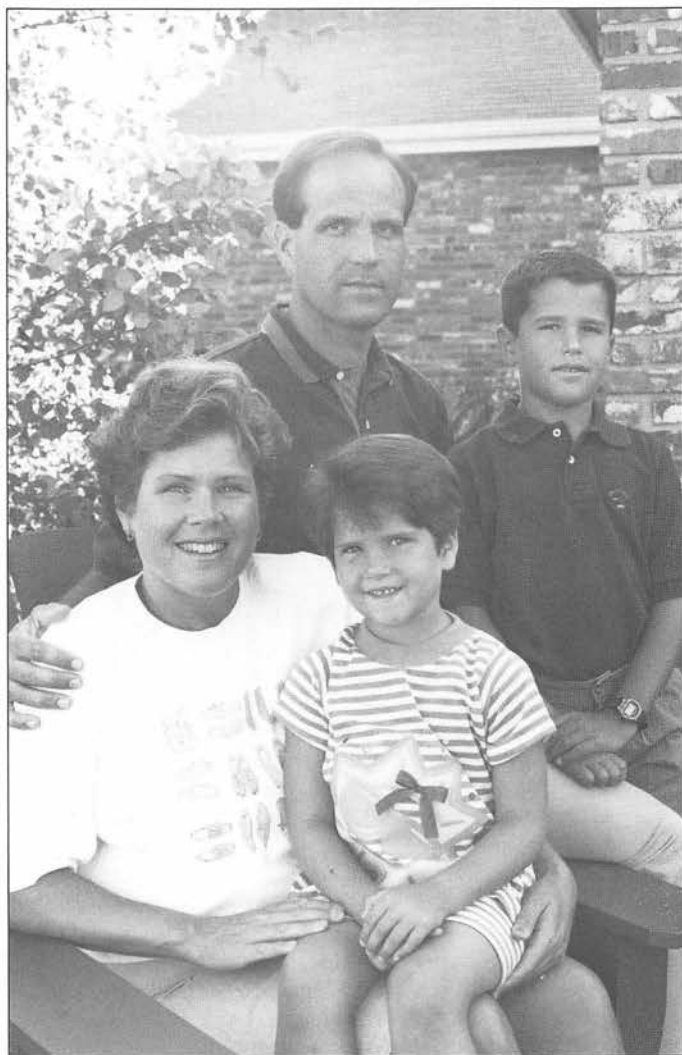

He is married to the former Linda Truax, and they have a son, Gordon, 7, and a daughter, Caroline, 5.

Steele's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"Teach each player the importance of attitude, confidence, character, knowledge, spiritual values and how these factors apply to football as well as life."

MILT TENOPIR

Offensive Line Coach

Milt Tenopir is entering his 21st season with the Husker offensive line, and no other college football team can boast the honors Nebraska's offensive linemen have piled up during Tenopir's tenure.

Under his guidance, Nebraska produced an unprecedented three-straight Outland Trophy winners in Dave Rimington (1981-82) and Dean Steinkuhler (1983). In 1992, Will Shields became NU's fifth Outland winner and brought home the school's sixth Outland Trophy as he earned consensus All-America and All-Big Eight honors. Tenopir has coached 14 All-Americans, plus a host of All-Big Eight selections. In 1993, Nebraska had three first-team All-Big Eight linemen.

Tenopir posted a 76-34-1 record as a high school coach in Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska before joining Coach Tom Osborne's staff in 1974.

A native of Harvard, Neb., and a graduate of Harvard High School, Tenopir received his bachelor's degree from Sterling (Kan.) College in 1961 and took graduate studies at Kansas State, Adams State and Western State. Milt is the father of three grown children, Kim, Todd and Pamela, and has four grandchildren. He is married to the former Terri Richardson, and is the stepfather to two children, Dana, 14 and Daniel, 11.

DAN YOUNG

Offensive Line, Kickers Coach

Dan Young is beginning his 12th season on the Nebraska coaching staff, his ninth as offensive line and kicking coach.

Young became an offensive line coach with Milt Tenopir when Cletus Fischer retired from coaching after the 1985 season, and he is also in charge of the Huskers' punters and place-kickers. Young had spent three years as head freshman/junior varsity coach, posting a 14-1-0 record, before joining the varsity staff.

He came to NU after six highly successful seasons as the head coach at Omaha's Westside High School, where his Warriors were 55-11-0 from 1977-82, reached the state championship game three times, and posted back-to-back 12-0-0 state championship seasons in 1981 and 1982. Young began his coaching career as head coach at Barnestone (Neb.) High School from 1962-64 (25-3-0), then, after a year as an assistant coach at St. Paul (Neb.) High School, he served as an assistant at Westside for 11 seasons.

A graduate of Primrose, Neb., High School, Young received his bachelor's degree from Kearney State in 1962. He has done graduate work at Nebraska, Nebraska-Omaha, Missouri, and Reed College, and earned his master's degree in liberal studies from Reed in 1972. He has a son, Jeff, a daughter, Kris, and two grandchildren.

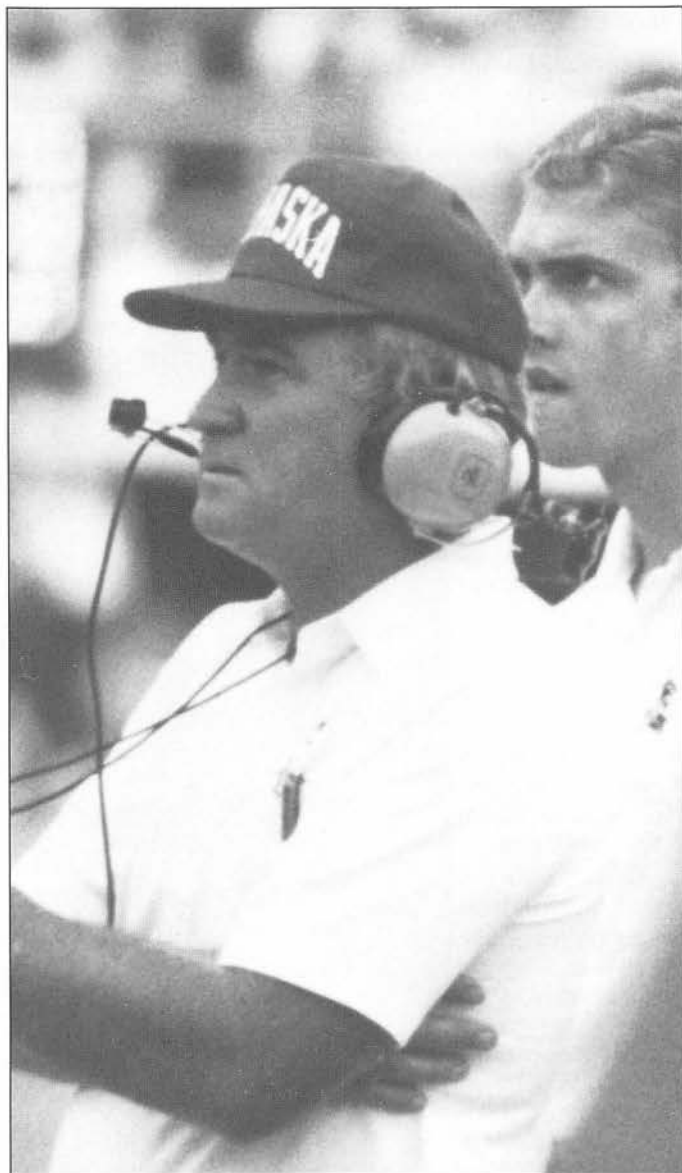

Young's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"I try to instill in each player the desire to develop to the best of his ability. I believe there is no substitute for hard work. I feel after the preparation, players reach a level that will give them the confidence they need to deal with any adversities. I hope these traits that we develop through athletics will carry over into each player's classroom performance, as well as life after football."

STEVE PEDERSON

Associate Athletic Director, Football Operations

After an eight-year absence, Steve Pederson returned to the University of Nebraska as the Huskers' Associate Athletic Director for Football Operations in April, 1994.

A native of North Platte, Neb., Pederson rejoined the Nebraska staff after spending three seasons at the University of Tennessee. He went to UT as recruiting coordinator in 1991, was promoted to assistant athletic director a year later and was tabbed as the Vols' Associate Athletic Director for Football Operations in the spring of 1993. In his three seasons at UT, the Volunteers' recruiting classes were regarded among the nation's top three nationally by several publications, including the 1994 class which was tabbed as the best in the country by several publications.

Before joining the Volunteer staff, Pederson served as Ohio State's recruiting coordinator from 1988 through 1991.

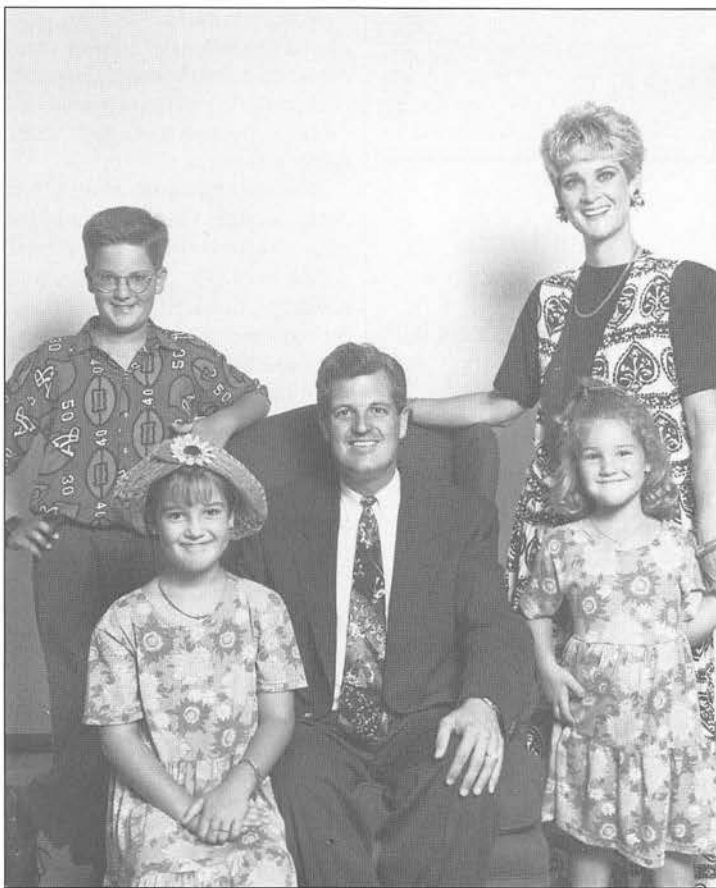

After graduating from Nebraska in 1980, he spent a year in the Husker Sports Information Office and a year as Aksarben's Public Relations Director. Pederson returned to Coach Osborne's staff as recruiting coordinator and administrative assistant in 1982. He left Nebraska in 1986 for private business, then returned to college football in 1988 at Ohio State.

As an undergraduate at Nebraska, Pederson worked as a student assistant in the Husker Sports Information Office, and received his business administration degree in 1980.

Pederson is married to the former Tami Osborne, of Omaha, Neb., and the couple has three children--Mark, 11; Kari, 9 and Kristin, 5. Tami is a professional violinist with the Knoxville (Tenn.) Symphony Orchestra, and has previously played with the Omaha and Lincoln orchestras.

CLAYTON CARLIN

Graduate Assistant Football Coach

Clayton Carlin is in his first season as a graduate assistant on the Husker football staff. The Philadelphia, Pa., native will work with the defensive backs, assisting Coach George Darlington.

Carlin came to Nebraska after serving two seasons as the secondary coach at Delaware Valley College in Doylestown, Pa. He spent five years at St. Joseph's High School in Philadelphia, the first year as secondary coach and the last four as head coach. A 1987 graduate of Juniata College, where he was a three-year starter, Carlin is married to the former Shelly Duncan of Altoona, Pa.

MIKE GRANT

Graduate Assistant Football Coach

A three-year letterman for the Huskers from 1989-92, Mike Grant is in his first year as a graduate assistant on the Nebraska staff. Grant will assist Coach Ron Brown with the NU receiving corps.

He played with the junior varsity team as a true freshman in 1988; shared the alternate quarterback job with Mickey Joseph behind Gerry Gdowski for six games in 1989 until a shoulder separation knocked him out of the last three games.

In 1990, Grant was NU's starting signal caller in the season opener, but was slowed for much of the season by a bruised knee, then after a redshirt year in 1991, started the first five games of the 1992 campaign before giving way to current Husker junior Tommie Frazier.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Grant graduated from Nebraska in December, 1992, with a degree in communication studies and worked as a recruiting office assistant for the Huskers last year. He is presently pursuing a master's degree in mass communications.

BOYD EPLEY

Assistant Athletic Director, Director of Athletic Performance, C.S.C.S

Boyd Epley is in his 25th year of service to the University of Nebraska, first as an athlete and now as a leader in the field of athletic strength and conditioning programs.

Epley, the first strength coach in the Big Eight Conference, was named NU's Assistant Athletic Director and Director of Athletic Performance, July 1, 1994. He is the founder and former president of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, and in 1993 earned the group's first-ever Lifetime Achievement Award. In 1980, he was voted national strength coach of the year. Today, 27 of Epley's former assistants are now head strength coaches at college and professional teams throughout the country.

Epley prepped at Alhambra High School in Phoenix, Ariz., where he played football and competed in track. At Phoenix Junior College, he captained the track team and starred as a pole vaulter. He then became the Nebraska pole vault record-holder as a junior, and was Nebraska's first 15-foot indoor vaulter, but a back injury forced him out of competition in his senior year.

He turned his interest to strength training and participated three years in AAU Olympic lifting, power lifting and physique competition. Epley received his associate's degree from Phoenix JC in 1968 and his bachelor's degree in 1970 from Nebraska, while he received his master's degree in education from UNL two years later. In 1991, Epley became a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and two years later he received the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame Lyell Bremser Award. He is married to the former Jane Lilyhorn of Holdrege, Neb., and they have a son, Jay Robert, 12, and a daughter, Jenna Shea, 9.

MIKE ARTHUR

Assistant Director of Athletic Performance, C.S.C.S.

The dean of Boyd Epley's staff, Mike Arthur is regarded as one of the nation's most knowledgeable strength coaches.

His 19 years of research at Nebraska have helped the Husker strength and conditioning program stay on the cutting edge. Arthur is from Lincoln and has a B.S. degree from UNL. He is married to the former Reena Fountain, and they have a daughter, Tara, 14, and son, John, 1.

BRYAN BAILEY

Coordinator of Reconditioning, C.S.C.S.

Bryan Bailey is entering his seventh year with the Nebraska strength and conditioning program. He works closely with the team physicians and trainers, modifying the strength and conditioning programs for injured athletes.

Originally from Arnold, Neb., Bailey holds a master's degree from the United States Sports Academy (1984) in exercise science and a B.S. degree from Nebraska (1981).

PAUL KOCH

Bob Devaney Sports Center Strength Coach, C.S.C.S.

Entering his fourth season as a full-time strength coach, Paul Koch earned a bachelor's degree in exercise physiology from UNL in 1991 after spending four seasons as a student assistant on Boyd Epley's staff.

A native of Petersburg, Neb., Koch plans and implements programs for the men's and women's basketball teams, as well as several of the Husker Olympic sport teams.

KEVIN COLEMAN

Graduate Assistant

Former University of Nebraska track and field standout Kevin Coleman is in his second year as a graduate assistant on Coach Boyd Epley's staff. Coleman, who holds the Husker indoor (65-9 3/4) and outdoor (65-10 1/2) records in the shot put, claimed back-to-back NCAA indoor shot put titles in 1992 and 1993.

A native of Elgin, Ill., Coleman won five Big Eight shot put crowns during his career and earned four All-America awards. He graduated from NU in 1993 with a degree in exercise science and is now working on a master's degree in the same field.

CURT THOMPSON

Coordinator of Performance Education Services, C.S.C.S

Curt Thompson is in his seventh year as a member of Boyd Epley's staff. A 1992 graduate of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln with a degree in exercise science, Thompson is completing work on a master's degree in athletic administration.

Thompson, a native of Blair, Neb., coordinates and manages the student supervisors as they monitor the various programs in the West Stadium strength complex.

RANDY GOBEL

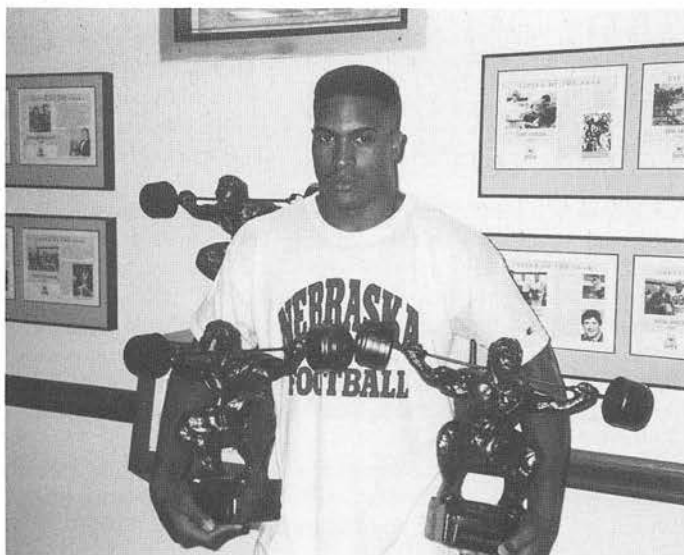

Coordinator of Strength and Conditioning, C.S.C.S.

Gobel has been with the Nebraska Athletic Department for 13 years. A native of Crofton, Neb., he graduated with honors from the University of Nebraska-Kearney.

Gobel serves as the coordinator of NU's strength and conditioning programs. He is married to the former Michelle Johnson of Stromsburg, Neb.

OLB Donta Jones was NU's Lifter-of-the-Year in 1993 and 1994.

GRAHAM SPANIER

Chancellor,
Nebraska-Lincoln

Graham Spanier became the 17th Chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln on November 1, 1991. He holds academic appointments as Professor of Human Development and the Family and Professor of Family Practice at the University of Nebraska Medical Center.

Visible at nearly all Husker home athletic events, Dr. Spanier was a key player in the recent expansion of the Big Eight Conference and it was his directive that led to Nebraska adding a 22nd intercollegiate sport for the 1994-95 academic year--women's soccer.

He came to this post after serving as Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at Oregon State University. His previous administrative posts included an appointment as Vice Provost for Undergraduate Studies at the State University of New York at Stony Brook and service in three administrative positions at The Pennsylvania State University.

He is a family sociologist, demographer and marriage and family therapist. He received his Ph.D. in sociology from Northwestern University (1973), where he was a Woodrow Wilson Fellow. He earned his bachelor's (1969) and master's (1971) degrees from Iowa State University, where he was named an outstanding alumnus.

The quality and stability of marriage has been the focus of his teaching, research and writing. He is an active writer and researcher with more than

JAMES O'HANLON

Institutional Representative

Dr. James O'Hanlon, Dean of Teachers College, became Nebraska's seventh institutional representative to the Big Eight Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association, Sept. 1, 1982. In January, 1994, O'Hanlon was elected to a four-year term on the NCAA Council. During the spring and summer of 1992, he served as chair of the search committee in charge of finding a replacement for retiring long-time athletic director Bob Devaney.

Dr. O'Hanlon has been a member of the University of Nebraska faculty since 1966 when he came to NU from Ohio University as an assistant professor in the Department of Secondary Education. He was elevated to associate professor in 1967 and to professor in 1970.

While at Nebraska, he has served as the director of the NUSTEP program for teacher education (1969-72), coordinator of freshman programming for the Office of Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs (1973-74), chaired the Governor's Committee on the use of Hiram Scott College (1973), chaired the Nebraska Coordinating Commission for Post-Secondary Education (1974-75) and served as president of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Faculty Senate in 1981. In 1972, he received the NU Foundation Distinguished Teaching Award.

From 1975 to 1977, he chaired the Department of Physical Education and Recreation, then became director of the new School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation (HPER). He served in that position until he was named acting Dean of Teachers College, July 1, 1982. He was named Dean of Teachers College, May 1, 1983.

In addition, he serves as chair of the Nebraska Education Consolidation and Improvement Act State Advisory Committee; is a member of the Board of Directors of the Midwest Holmes Group; has served on educational councils appointed by Governors Exon, Kerrey, and Orr, including being co-chair of the Governor's Task Force on Math and Science Education in 1990; and is a member of the UNL Business Services Advisory Committee.

A native of Blair, Neb., O'Hanlon attended Grinnell (Iowa) College and received a bachelor's degree in history from Nebraska in 1957. He earned his master's degree in secondary education from Ohio State University in 1958, then served as an infantry officer in the U.S. Army.

He taught in secondary schools in Parma, Ohio, and Fremont, Neb. before returning to the University of Nebraska for doctoral study. Following receipt of the Ph.D. in secondary education and educational psychology, he served as an assistant professor at Ohio University from 1964-66 where he was named to the Honor Roll of Faculty.

Personal interests include serving on the Board of Directors of the National Arbor Day Foundation, of which he is the immediate past-president, and the Lincoln Symphony Orchestra. He is a member of the Lincoln Community Concert Band and is an avid jogger and reader.

O'Hanlon and his wife, Gail, are the parents of three children, Greg of Portland, Ore., Susan of Omaha, Neb., and Tim of St. Paul, Minn.

BILL BYRNE

Athletics Director

A new chapter in the Huskers' rich athletic tradition began on June 26, 1992, when Nebraska Chancellor Dr. Graham Spanier introduced Bill Byrne to succeed long-time athletic director Bob Devaney. Byrne became the 10th athletics director in school history and the third since 1962.

An energetic 49-year-old, Byrne came to Nebraska following a highly-successful eight-year stint as athletic director at the University of Oregon. Recently named as secretary-treasurer of the College Football Association and a member of that organization's board of directors, Byrne heads into his second football season as NU athletic director.

He arrived in Lincoln as athletic director-designate on Nov. 1, 1992, took the reins of the athletic department on Jan. 4, 1993, and has been a tireless worker every step of the way. During his first year on the job, Byrne traveled with nearly every Husker team at least once and canvassed the state of Nebraska, visiting with boosters, while learning the needs and concerns of Husker fans everywhere and making more than 150 speeches in the process.

Under Byrne's leadership, the Husker athletic department has never missed a beat. In fact, during the 1993-94 academic year, Nebraska:

□ Won its 15th straight Big Eight Conference all-sports championship.

□ Won nine of 21 conference championships (football, men's and women's gymnastics, men's and women's swimming, women's indoor and outdoor track, women's cross country and men's indoor track), two more than the previous year. In addition, the Nebraska men's basketball team won its first-ever Phillips 66 Big Eight Tournament title and the Husker men's gymnastics team claimed the NCAA title.

□ Finished in the upper division of the conference standings in 17 of 21 sports, and was 18th overall in the National Director's Cup all-sports race.

□ Produced its nation-leading 10th NCAA Today's Top Six Award winner in Trev Alberts, who also claimed the school's first Butkus Award.

In addition to maintaining a high standard of excellence on the playing field, Byrne has successfully reorganized the department for the 21st century. Stressing a more efficient use of resources, Byrne is in the process of creating a one-stop shopping type of organization so that the needs of student-athletes, fans and contributors can be met as promptly as possible.

A former member of the NCAA committee for athletic certification, Byrne is recognized as a national leader in intercollegiate athletics and was recently appointed to the NCAA's special events committee. He is continuing to make an aggressive effort, along with other Big Eight athletic directors, to place Nebraska and other conference officials on key NCAA committees in an effort to better represent the views of Big Eight member institutions.

His plans for the future could lead to even more success for the Huskers. Memorial Stadium will have a new look this fall, as a state-of-the-art sound system and two big screen video replay boards will be installed by the Sept. 17 home opener against UCLA. In addition, section 14, which collapsed in the spring of 1993, was rebuilt to offer increased seating for disabled fans.

In addition, working in conjunction with Chancellor Spanier, women's soccer has been added as a varsity sport at Nebraska for the fall of 1994, giving the Huskers a Big Eight-leading 22-sport offering.

Future plans include the possibility of renovating Memorial Stadium with a new press box, skyboxes and more concession stands. Byrne enlisted the Kansas City, Mo., firm of HOK Sport to develop a master facilities plan for the Huskers' athletic program.

In conjunction with the rest of the UNL administration, Byrne has arranged to use the Husker football and basketball networks to promote causes and concerns which are important to the entire University community, including the institution's increased role in research.

The continued rise of the overall Husker program should come as no surprise considering Byrne's previous accomplishments. He went to Oregon in 1992 as associate athletic director and the top administrator for the Duck Athletic Fund. He immediately established fund-raising offices in Portland and southern Oregon and established a full-time marketing and promotions operation, which blossomed to encompass the Oregon Sports Network for statewide inhouse production of Ducks' athletic contests on radio and television.

He assumed the duties of director of athletics in May of 1984 as one of the youngest directors in Division I athletics. During his eight-year tenure as athletic director, Oregon qualified for postseason competition in football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball, wrestling, softball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's track and field and men's golf. The Ducks claimed three NCAA titles in Byrne's tenure, one each in men's and women's track and field and women's cross country. Meanwhile, Oregon's overall athletic budget soared to $12.5 million in 1992 from $5 million in 1984.

One of Byrne's most noted accomplishments at Oregon was the three-year construction project to build the $11 million Casanova Athletic Center, the home of the Ducks' football team and athletic department offices. The project, $19 million in all, also included a new press box, sky suites and a complete renovation of Autzen Stadium. The facility was financed through skybox and skysuite revenues, sale of sponsor seats and cash and gift-in-kind donations. It was completed in 1991 and two years later, the facility's Hall of Champions was dedicated in Byrne's honor.

Respected by his peers, Byrne served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) in 1991-92, and is in his fifth year on that organization's executive committee. He was also chairman of the Pac-10 Conference executive committee and was named national fund-raiser-of-the-year by the National Athletic Fundraisers.

Born in Boston, Byrne grew up in Idaho and attended Idaho State University, where he was student body president. He received bachelor's and master's degrees in business at the Pocatello, school in 1967 and 1971, respectively. Before going to Oregon in 1982, he was assistant athletic director at San Diego State (1980-82), executive director of the New Mexico Lobo Club (1976-79) and director of alumni relations at Idaho State (1971-76).

A professional educator, Byrne's wife Marilyn served as a middle school principal in Oregon. She is completing coursework for a PhD. and is teaching at UNL. The Byrnes have two sons, Bill, who is employed by Visa in Red Wood City, Calif., and Greg, a recent graduate of Arizona State.

BOB DEVANEY

Athletic Director Emeritus

When one talks about the success of University of Nebraska athletic teams, one name tops the list of persons responsible--Bob Devaney. On Jan. 4, 1993, Devaney stepped down as athletic director and turned the reins over to Bill Byrne. Now beginning his 33rd year with the athletic department, Devaney has focused his attention on fund-raising and continues to serve as Athletic Director Emeritus.

From the time he took over for Tippy Dye in 1967, to his final year as the Husker Athletic Director in 1992, his vigor, enthusiasm and administrative excellence earned him a reputation as one of the nation's outstanding athletic directors. Those same characteristics helped make him a football coaching legend. A 1981 inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, under Devaney's leadership Nebraska developed one of the nation's most successful all-around athletic programs.

Devaney arrived in 1962, charged with the mission of building a successful football program, and he succeeded far beyond anyone's expectations. During his 11-year stint as Husker football coach, Devaney's teams won 101 games, lost only 20 and tied two for a winning percentage of .829. His career mark of 136-30-7 (.806) ranked him as the nation's winningest active coach at the time of his retirement in 1973, and he ranks 11th on the all-time list today, just behind the man he tabbed as his replacement, Tom Osborne.

In all, his gridiron teams won eight Big Eight titles and two national championships while going to nine bowl games during the 1962-72 span. He wound up with three-straight Orange Bowl wins to go with his amazing record of nine bowl trips in 11 years, eight Big Eight titles, two national championships, two Outland Trophy winners, a Lombardi Award winner and a Heisman Trophy winner. Twice his teams won four consecutive Big Eight titles, 1963-66 and 1969-72.

The 1971 national title team, which posted a 13-0 record, twice defended its No. 1 ranking against the nation's second-ranked team (beating Oklahoma, 35-31, in the "Game of the Century," and Alabama, 38-6, in the Orange Bowl), and beat the eventual No. 3 team, Colorado, 31-7. That '71 team has been hailed as the best college team of all time.

He received many other honors during his coaching career. He was named coach-of-the-year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers of America, Football News and the Washington TD Club in 1971, and he coached in numerous all-star games such as the Hula Bowl, Coaches All-America, Blue-Gray and Shrine East-West. He was inducted into the Blue-Gray Hall-of-Fame in 1991.

Inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1976, Devaney led Nebraska to four wins in five Miami appearances. In 1992, he was named an honorary member of the Orange Bowl committee.

In 1994, the American Football Coaches Association presented Devaney with the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for contributions to college football. He also received the 1994 Duffy Daugherty Memorial Award.

As Athletic Director, he spearheaded drives to virtually rebuild and replace Nebraska's then-aging athletic facilities. Continuing a process begun during Dye's tenure, he oversaw the expansion of Memorial Stadium from its original 36,000 capacity to its present 72,700.

It was Devaney's leadership, working in conjunction with the Nebraska Legislature, that resulted in the passage of a special cigarette tax to provide funds for a new athletic complex, the beautiful, four-and-a-half-acre indoor sports building which opened on the Nebraska State Fair Grounds in 1976.

The building, which features a 14,302-seat main arena, plus separate swimming and diving pools, an indoor track and workout areas for wrestling and gymnastics, was renamed the Bob Devaney Sports Center in 1978.

Also in the mid-1970s, Devaney saw to the construction of Ed Weir Track and Field Stadium and a new, partially astro-turfed baseball facility, Buck Beltzer Field. More recently, he oversaw the expansion of the Huskers' academic counseling service and the concurrent establishment of the Hewitt Center in the West Stadium; the continued expansion of the strength and conditioning program and its outstanding facility in the West Stadium; the construction of the new NU Softball Complex; and the building of the Otto and Gladys Baumann Building at Beltzer Field.

Devaney's most recent accomplishment was to spearhead a fund-raising drive to provide Husker athletic teams with an indoor workout facility. The size of a full football field, Cook Pavilion was completed in 1989 and is available for the NU football and baseball team workouts. As part of the same project, an adjoining faculty-student recreation facility was finished in 1991, the Lee and Helene Sapp Recreation Center. He also supervised the complete renovation of the connecting Coliseum, which re-opened in 1992 and now houses the highly successful Husker women's volleyball program. Devaney played football as an end at Alma College in Michigan, graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1939. After starting his coaching career at Big Beaver, Mich., Devaney moved to Keego Harbor and Saginaw before spending seven years at Alpena High where his teams earned a 52-9-0 record. He then joined Biggie Munn, and later Duffy Daugherty, at Michigan State before becoming Wyoming's head coach in 1957.

Devaney is married to his college sweetheart, the former Phyllis Wiley. His son, Mike, and daughter Patricia, are both graduates of the University of Nebraska. He's a grandfather, too, with Mike's family including a daughter and a son.

CHRIS PETERSON

Associate Athletic Director, External Operations

Entering his third year with the Nebraska Athletic Department and his second as associate athletic director for external operations, is Chris Peterson.

Peterson joined the Nebraska staff in April of 1992, as director of athletic development, and has watched the school's fund-raising revenues double in his tenure. In addition to the increased revenues from fund-raising, he has developed a student-athlete ambassador program, established a marketing department, and developed a corporate sponsorship plan that will net the department some $500,000 in cash and trade-out services in fiscal year 1994-95.

He also has generated $500,000 in annual sponsorship fees for Memorial Stadium's instant replay boards and established marketing and development advisory boards comprised of business leaders throughout the state. In addition, a student intern program was created to promote the Huskers' 18 Olympic sports. Peterson was promoted to his new position in April of 1993, and oversees the development, marketing, sports information and ticket offices.

No stranger to the Big Eight, Peterson came to Nebraska after a four-year stint as associate athletic director for external affairs at Kansas State. There, he was in charge of marketing and sales and in four years his department generated $750,000 in new revenue. He has been a featured speaker at the NCAA Professional Marketing Seminar in Dallas, Texas, and hosted a local talk show in Manhattan.

Born in Omaha, Neb., Peterson grew up in Huron, S.D., where he was a high school All-American and was recruited by over 50 schools including Nebraska. He attended Kansas State, where he served as the Wildcats' backup quarterback behind Steve Grogan from 1970-73, then graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

Peterson signed as a free agent with the St. Louis Cardinals football team for two seasons, then took up a career in football coaching with notable stops at Huron College, U.S. International, Upper Iowa, Western Illinois and Eastern Illinois. Prior to joining the KSU Athletic Department, Peterson was assistant athletic director for marketing and promotions at the University of Pacific (1985-88) and athletic director and offensive coordinator at College of Eastern Utah (1983-84). Peterson is married to the former Tracy Stein and has two sons, Skye and Trent and a daughter, Blair.

At Nebraska, Varnell is responsible for coordinating the multicultural program for all staff and student-athletes. She also assists with the coordination of the new student-athlete orientation program and recruitment activities and serves as the academic counselor for Husker track, swimming, tennis and golf teams.

A former University of Mississippi track standout athlete and coach, Varnell received her bachelor's and master's degrees at Ole Miss in 1989 and 1991, respectively. She has a daughter, Sorinthia Sophia.

JERRY WEBER

Head Athletic Trainer, Physical Therapist, PT, ATC

As he begins his 18th year on the Nebraska Athletic Medicine staff, Jerry Weber assumes the duties of head athletic trainer and physical therapist. In this expanded capacity, Weber will oversee the operation of the South Stadium and Coliseum training rooms and supervise the Husker staff of athletic trainers, graduate assistants and student assistants.

Along with his duties with the Husker football team, Weber will continue to direct all orthopedic rehabilitation and coordinate the return to sport programs with the orthopedic specialists and the athletic training staff. During the winter months, he will also continue to work with the Nebraska gymnastics teams.

A Sidney, Neb., native, Weber earned a bachelor's degree in zoology from Nebraska in 1974. He earned his physical therapy degree from the UNL College of Medicine in 1976 and his master's from Western Illinois in 1977.

In 1991, Weber received the Sullivan Award from the Nebraska State Athletic Trainers' Association recognizing excellence in athletic training within the state. He has been active in the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) at the state, district, and national levels since 1978, having served on their board of directors and as a presidential candidate. Currently Weber serves as secretary on the Nebraska State Examining Board for Athletic Trainers.

SARA WEINBERG

Assistant Athletic Trainer, ATC

Beginning her first year with the department of athletic medicine is Sara Weinberg. A New Jersey native, Weinberg received her bachelor's degree from East Stoudsburg State in 1992 and her master's from James Madison in 1994.

Her primary responsibilities will be the Husker track and field teams, as well as providing support for the other Olympic sports.

Coach Osborne's Secretary

Mary Lyn Wininger is in her 12th year as secretary to Husker head coach Tom Osborne.

An alumnus of the University of Nebraska, with a bachelor's degree in education, Mary Lyn and her husband, Dwight, are the parents of a 6-year-old son, Thomas, and a 3-year-old daughter, Brooke.

KATHI WOODY

Recruiting Secretary

Kathi Woody is in her sixth season with the Husker football office. Woody earned her B.S. from UNL in 1982.

She and her husband Mike have two sons, Jason, 10, and Travis, 3.

HAROLD YOUNGREN

Computer Technician

Harold Youngren is in his second year as the athletic department's computer technician. He is responsible for the department's computer operations and installations, and serves as network administrator.

Youngren previously taught computer classes at area community colleges while serving as a business consultant in the computer field. He held numerous administrative posts in the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, and was a public information officer for the Nebraska Military Department.

KEITH ZIMMER

Assistant Director of Academic Programs and Student Services

Keith Zimmer joined the Academic Programs staff in 1988 and currently serves as the Assistant Director. In this capacity, he directs the career counseling program for student-athletes, serves as the outreach coordinator and is the facilitator of the NCAA Life Skills program. Zimmer is also in charge of academic awards for student-athletes and contributes to the development of academic-related videos, brochures and newsletters.

Additionally, Zimmer serves as the sport counselor for women's basketball, volleyball and soccer while assisting the Director with football. Zimmer earned his bachelor's degree at Wayne State College and his master's in education from Springfield (Mass.) College.

He is a board member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports and is a two-time recipient of the Award of Excellence for his leadership and commitment to the Lincoln Public Schools and Ventures in Partnership program. In 1994, Zimmer became the fourth honorary member of National Gold Key Honors Society, joining Coach Osborne, Chancellor Spanier and Governor Ben Nelson.

The Cornhusker Legend

Prior to 1900, Nebraska football teams were known by such names as the Old Gold Knights, Antelopes and the Bugeaters. But in 1900, Lincoln sportswriter Charles S. (Cy) Sherman, who was to gain national renown as the sports editor of the Lincoln Star and help originate the Associated Press poll, tired of referring to the Nebraska teams with such an unglamorous term as Bugeaters. Iowa had, from time to time, been called the Cornhuskers, and the name appealed to Sherman.

Iowa partisans seemed to prefer Hawkeyes, so Sherman started referring to the Nebraska team as Cornhuskers and the 1900 team was first to bear that label.

Of course, the name caught on and became a Nebraska byword, eventually becoming the official nickname for the state.

There is no official symbol of a Cornhusker and various cartoonists have caricatured the mystical something that typifies Nebraska football—some winning fan approval and others arousing fan ire.

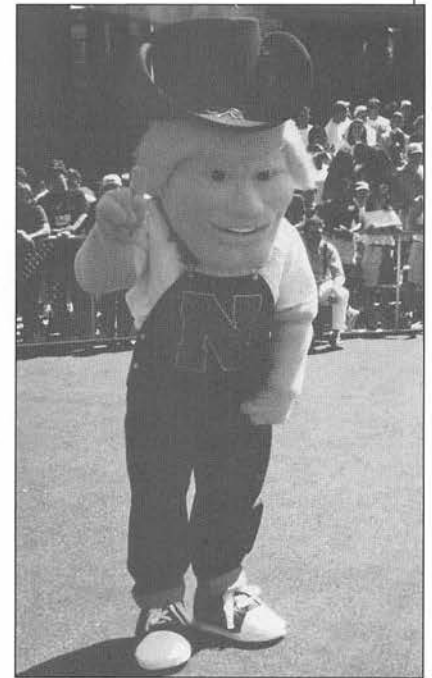

The cartoon character, "Herbie Husker" (upper right), evolved out of Nebraska's trip to the 1974 Cotton Bowl in Dallas. Artist Dirk West of Lubbock, Texas, designed a Cornhusker cartoon for the Cotton Bowl press headquarters that caught the eye of former Husker SID Don Bryant. Later, Bryant contacted West for permission to use the cartoon and West expressed a desire to refine his original cartoon and improve some of the character's features. As a result, West was commissioned to draw an original Cornhusker cartoon character who now serves as a mascot for all Husker athletic teams.

"Herbie" is the registered logo of the Cornhusker Athletic Department, which controls its use. Artist West's concept of Nebraska football is appropriate—a burly, rugged and confident fellow who is proud of both the athletic and the agricultural traditions of the University of Nebraska.

In recent years, the University has also used the Cornhuskers' football helmet superimposed on a script "Huskers" for a football logo (below left) and last fall unveiled a block N logo with a script "Huskers" (below). Both are registered trademarks of the Athletic Department.

University of Nebraska Licensing Program

In 1981, the University began a licensing program to protect the use of its name and symbols, and to ensure that the public properly identify and associate University logos on products bearing the institution's marks. The licensing program is further designed to establish a cooperative relationship with licensees to assist in the development of a market of "Officially Licensed Products of the University of Nebraska."

Since its inception, the program has been very successful, receiving cooperation from manufacturers, retailers, and consumers in setting and maintaining high standards. The University has joined a consortium of other universities throughout the country to bring about consistency in the marketplace for officially licensed collegiate products, protect the names and logos of the universities and to generate additional revenue support for the scholarship programs of those universities.

Look for the Label

How does one tell if merchandise seen in stores or on the street is authorized by the University? Just look for the "Officially Licensed Collegiate Products" label shown above. If the label is not there, the merchandise is not licensed. For further licensing information, please contact:

The Big Eight Conference, under the leadership of 14-year commissioner Carl James and institutional representatives of each school, is one of the nation's outstanding intercollegiate organizations. In February, 1994, the Big Eight expanded to the Big 12, as Texas, Texas A&M, Baylor and Texas Tech accepted invitations to join the conference fold beginning in the fall of 1996. Commissioner James, former Maryland athletic director, heads a staff of outstanding people who give leadership and direction to a full, well-rounded and respected intercollegiate program.

Dr. Prentice Gautt is in his 15th year with the conference, and has served as associate commissioner since 1983. A former standout running back at Oklahoma, Gautt is the secretary-treasurer of the NCAA and was promoted to the Big Eight's senior associate commissioner post last summer. He is assisted by Tracy Peck, the league's compliance and operations assistant. Assistant Commissioner John Erickson is entering his sixth year as the Big Eight's director of basketball operations.

Tim Allen, service bureau director from 1983-89, was named assistant commissioner in 1989. Twenty-two-year Big Eight referee John McClintock is in his fifth year as the league's supervisor of officials.

Former Kansas assistant SID Jeff Bollig starts his fourth year as service bureau director and is assisted by Chris Theisen and Michelle Strang. Pat McCartney is in his fourth year as ticket manager.

The Big Eight office staff includes Kelly Mason, director of marketing; Carrollyn Miller, administrative assistant, and Helen Atterbury, the conference business manager. The conference offices are located on the fourth floor of the Stilwell Building in Kansas City, Mo.

BIG EIGHT EXPANDS TO "BIG 12" IN 1996

On February 25, 1994, the Big Eight Conference solidified its national reputation as Baylor, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Texas accepted invitations from Conference CEOs to join the league, thus forming the Big 12.

The expansion increased the Conference membership to 12 as the four universities joined with the original Big Eight institutions—Iowa State, Kansas State, Oklahoma State, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma. The conference will retain the Big Eight name until athletic competition begins with the addition of Texas A&M softball in the fall of 1995 and the remainder of sponsored sports commencing in the fall of 1996.

"We believe the expansion is not only good for the Big Eight, but this is especially good for the University of Nebraska," NU Chancellor Graham Spanier said.

Until the expansion decision, the Big Eight had been the NCAA's only major conference that had not undergone a change in membership during the last 30 years. The Conference's last addition came on June 1, 1957, when Oklahoma State joined the league, which is beginning its 88th year this fall.

"We're going to have one of the premier conferences in the country," NU Athletics Director Bill Byrne said. "We'll have outstanding opportunities for our youngsters to compete at the very highest levels. For Nebraskans who have children coming to the university, their children will experience greater challenges.

Conference chief executive officers met in Ames, Iowa, June 3, 1994, to approve the split of two divisions for competition in football and men's and women's basketball. One division will feature Nebraska, Iowa State, Kansas State, Colorado, Kansas and Missouri. The other division includes Baylor, Oklahoma State, Texas A&M, Texas Tech, Oklahoma and Texas.

"I believe it is a good thing," NU Coach Tom Osborne said. "If you have 12 teams, you have a big enough television market that you have a major television contract and should be able to stay pretty much in tact because there is no place to go that's more attractive financially than the expanded Big Eight."

The Conference football schedule will feature contests versus all teams in a school's own division, plus an undetermined number of games versus teams in the other division. The contests in the other division would be rotated and played on a home and away basis.

In March of 1994, the Big Eight signed five-year contracts with ABC-TV and Liberty Sports for football television rights from 1996 through 2000. The two packages will replace the current Conference television package with the College Football Association on ABC and ESPN, which ends following the 1995 season.

Note: Colorado sponsors men's and women's skiing. Colorado, Kansas and Iowa State will add women's soccer in 1995, with KU also adding women's crew in 1995.

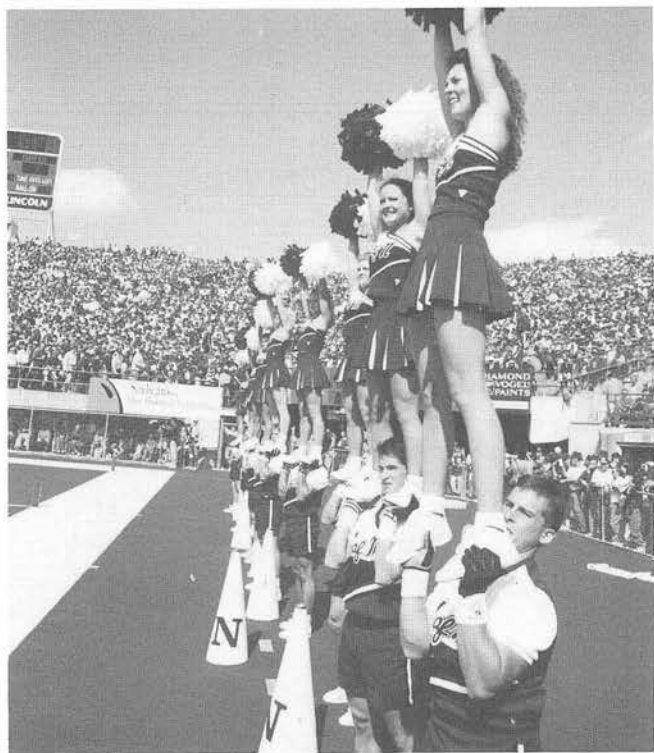

The agreements will bring the conference live national and regional over-the-air football television coverage on ABC. Liberty, and its family of regional cable entities under the Prime Network banner, will provide national cable exposure, as well as regional cable coverage and a syndicated football package. Prime Network produces more sports programming than any other entity in the world and is currently seen in 26 million homes nationally.

The combined packages include a maximum of 39 annual appearances, 18 of them on ABC, and more than $20 million annually in football television revenue. In addition, the agreement with Liberty will provide a home for the league's women's sports in the television marketplace.

The average annual payment to Big Eight schools under the league's current contract is a little less than $1 million a year. Under the new contracts, the 12 schools will receive an average of $1.65 million on an annual basis.

"It's the best," Byrne said of the league's new football television deal. "From everything we know, it's the best college football television agreement in the nation. It's a heck of a deal."

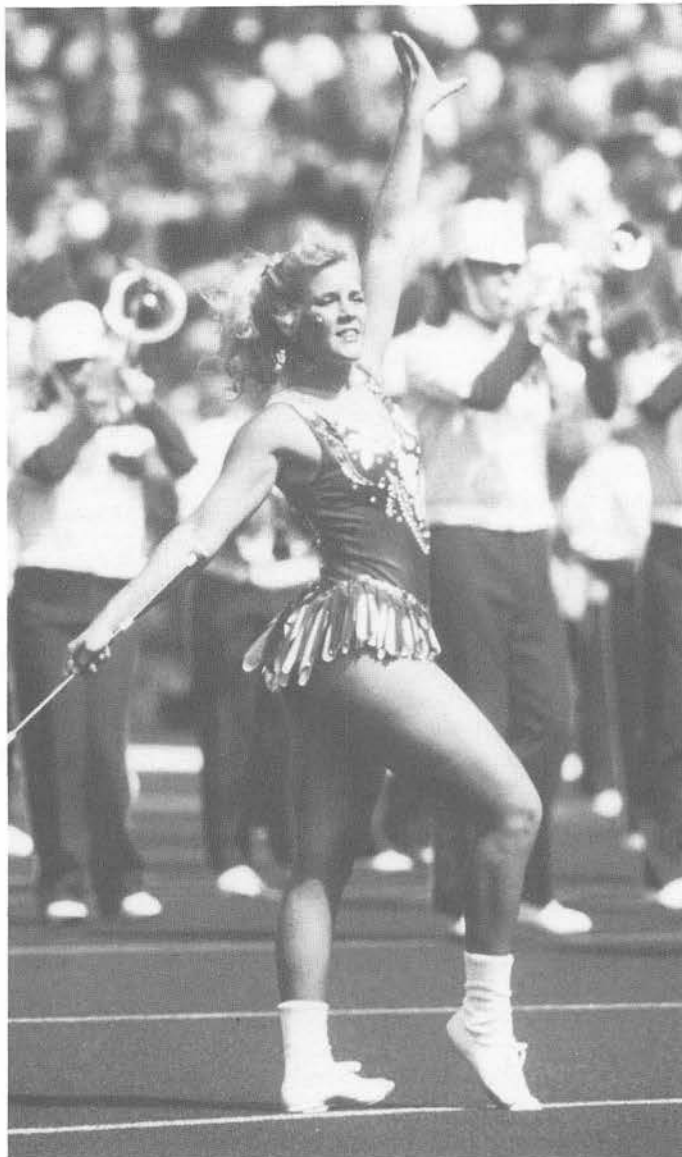

The Husker Yell & Dance Squads

The Nebraska Yell Squad's primary goal is to function as public relations personnel for the University along with promoting spirit and support for Husker athletic events. During an academic year, yell squad members make approximately 200 appearances at athletic, philanthropic, community and state events.

In the fall of 1993, Nebraska also unveiled the 15-member Scarlets Dance team. The Scarlets are on the sideline at home football games and perform at halftime of nearly every home men's basketball game.

As full-time students, members of both squads condition and practice 10-20 hours a week. They excel as leaders in campus and community organizations and activities while maintaining high scholastic standards.

The University of Nebraska Cornhusker Marching Band

Jay Kloecker

The University of Nebraska Cornhusker Marching Band is one of the nation's oldest marching bands. It was founded in 1879 as a R.O.T.C. unit and began playing at football games in 1890. The association with Nebraska football has brought the band much publicity and the program has grown accordingly. The 1994 marching band has 255 members from every region of the country and the band program also includes two fine concert ensembles, three athletic bands and two jazz bands.

The Cornhusker Band is directed by Professor Jay Kloecker. He holds degrees from the University of Kentucky and Florida State University and has directed nationally-recognized high school bands in Illinois and Kentucky. In addition to his duties with the marching band, Kloecker conducts the wind ensemble and the concert band and teaches courses in music education.

Bret Spainhour joined the School of Music staff in 1992 and serves as assistant band director for athletic bands. His duties include assisting with the marching band and directing all athletic bands. Spainhour is a graduate of Illinois State University and the University of Iowa. He has served as the assistant director of bands at the University of South Dakota and has taught in the Illinois public school systems.

Al Rometo, professor of percussion and vice-director of the UNL School of Music, serves as percussion instructor for the marching band.

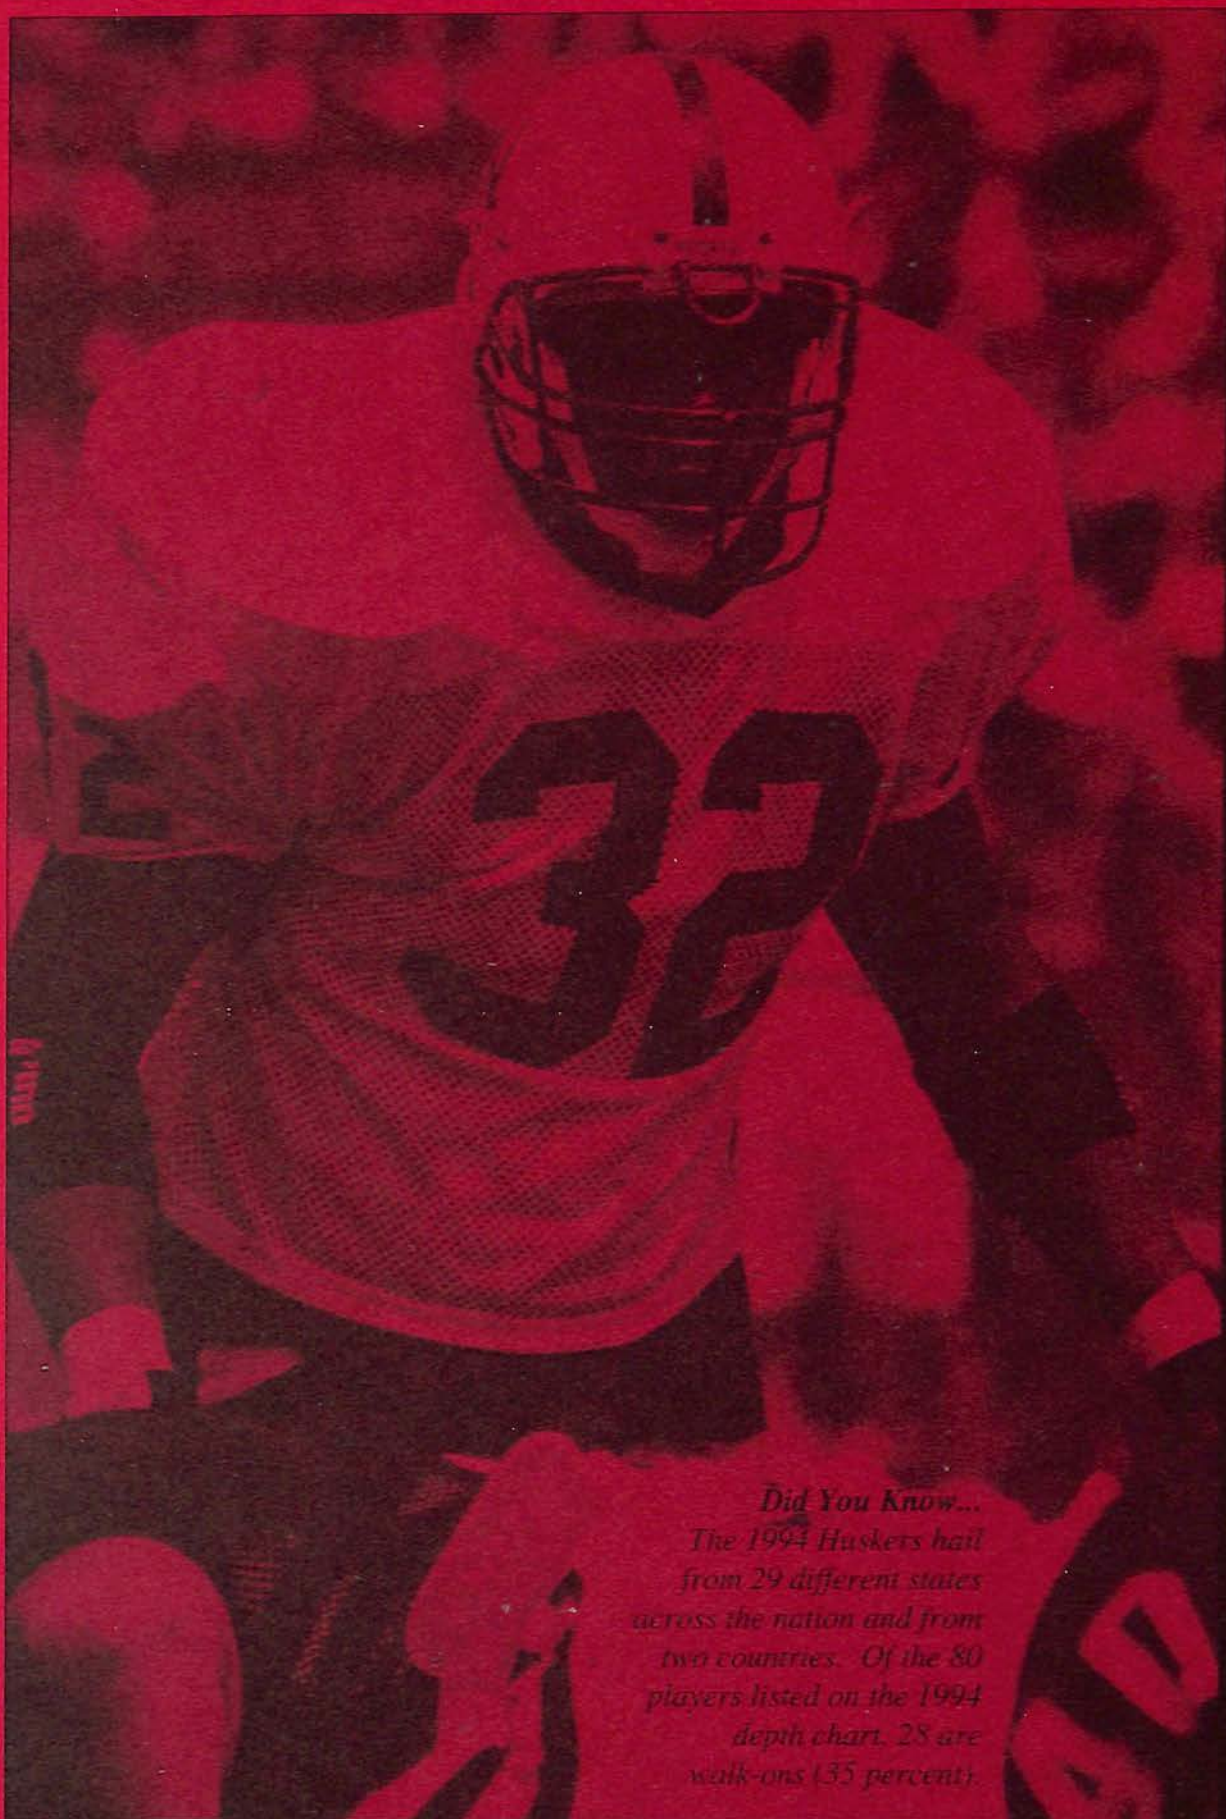

After receiving his bachelor's degree from Indiana University in Pennsylvania, he obtained a master's degree from Ohio University. Rometo is an active clinician, adjudicator and traditional and jazz idioms performer.

Other senior staff members are Rose Johnson, administrative assistant; John Gill, technical assistant; Katy Coleman, flag line instructor; John DeSteffano, drum line instructor, and Mike Veak, announcer. Drum majors for the 1994 season are Becky McGuire of New Braunfels, Texas, David Puckett of Papillion, Neb., and Christy Kucera of Omaha, Neb. Stephannie Wilson of Kennett, Mo., and Courtney Hill of San Antonio, Texas, are the twirlers.

The Cornhusker Band is the only collegiate ensemble that has performed in all of the major postseason bowls: Rose, Orange, Fiesta, Cotton and Sugar, as well as the Citrus, Sun, Astro-Bluebonnet and Liberty. The band also made a performance tour of Europe during the summer of 1974.

The marching band's season began on Aug. 11 with a 10-day camp that included over 30 rehearsals and a special exhibition performance in Memorial Stadium. Regular daily rehearsals from 7:30-9 a.m. begin on Aug. 22 and will continue throughout the fall to prepare for six different halftime shows for the home games plus several parades and special performances. The band will cap its season with an appearance in the popular Star City Parade through downtown Lincoln on Dec. 3, and a special concert at the Lied Center for Performing Arts at 3 p.m. on Nov. 13.

All-America and Butkus candidate Ed Stewart has started the last 24 games and has 161 career tackles.

Cornerback Barron Miles (top) was sixth on the team in tackles in 1993 and second among returnees with 50. He also had three blocked kicks, five breakups and one interception en route to first-team All-Big Eight honors. Wingback Abdul Muhammad (middle) led the team in receptions and reception yards last year with 25 for 383 including three touchdowns. Muhammad has lettered the past three years and has not redshirted. First-team All-Big Eight defensive tackle Terry Connealy (bottom) was a GTE Academic All-American last season and as the starting nose tackle had 45 tackles including 3.5 sacks for 24 yards lost, one breakup and 15 quarterback hurries.

Nebraska quarterback Tommie Frazier took over the Husker offense as a true freshman midway through the 1992 season and has since led the Huskers to a 16-1-0 regular-season record, two Big Eight championships and two Orange Bowl contests with Florida State. The latter of which, Frazier put NU within a field goal of the national championship when NU lost 18-16. Arguably the best option quarterback in the nation, Frazier is on everyone's preseason lists, including All-American, Heisman, and Davey O'Brien watches to name a few. He has now started 19 straight games since he took over the helm and just a junior, the extremely talented option quarterback is ready to take charge of this talented Husker edition. Frazier ranks ninth in NU career passing yards (1,886) and is sixth in passing TDs (22). He has run (16) or thrown for 38 TDs in his career. A leader on and off the field, Frazier is a member of the NCAA President's Commission Committee on Sportsmanship and Ethical Conduct in Intercollegiate Athletics. The committee had its first meeting in June. Tommie has also participated in the National Education Week Program; the School is Cool Jam for Youth; and is a volunteer for Ventures in Partnership and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

1993: Frazier quickly earned a reputation as one of the nation's best option quarterbacks as he led the Huskers to five come-from-behind victories, their third consecutive Big Eight championship and to the national title game in the Orange Bowl. Just a sophomore, Frazier was the only underclassmen named to the 10-man Davey O'Brien semifinal list for the nation's best quarterback and earned second-team All-Big Eight honors by both the AP and the coaches. Frazier finished as the team's second leading rusher with 704 yards, 5.6 per carry and 64.0 per game. He rushed for nine TDs and threw for 12 in 11 games to lead Nebraska to its first undefeated regular season (11-0) and its highest final ranking (No. 3) since 1983. Frazier completed 77-162 passes (.475) with four interceptions for 1,159 yards, 12 TDs and a 127.1 pass efficiency rating. He was the first Husker QB to pass for more than 1,000 yards since Keithen McCant in 1991 (1,454) and one of 17 overall. He led the team in total offense with 1,863 yards, the eighth best total by a Husker, averaging 169.4 yards per game and 6.5 per play, and his average ranked as the best for an NU player since 1989. He passed for more than 100 yards six times, including a career-best 206 vs. Texas Tech. He rushed for more than 100 yards twice, with 125 against Iowa State and a career-best 158 yards against Kansas State when he also had 312 yards of total offense, just seven yards off the NU record. His 1,863 yards of total offense was the eighth-best season total for an NU player. Frazier ranked seventh in the Big Eight in rushing (64.0 ypg), fourth in passing efficiency (127.1), fifth in total offense (169.4 ypg) and 12th in scoring (4.9 ppg).

1993 Game-by-Game: North Texas: Frazier suffered an ankle sprain on the first play from scrimmage and left the game on the next play. Texas Tech: After TTU had taken a 21-20 lead in the third, Frazier, still hobbling on his bum ankle, led the Huskers to TDs on four of their next five possessions. He finished with a career-high 206 yards passing. UCLA: Still slowed by the sore ankle, Frazier rushed for 33 yards and completed 13-19 passes (68 percent) for 145 yards and a TD to bring NU back from a 10-0 deficit to defeat UCLA 14-13. On the two scoring drives, Frazier was 6-6 for 86 yards passing. Colorado State: For the third consecutive week, Frazier was the Huskers' nominee for Big Eight Offensive Player-of-the-Week as he rushed 11 times for 75 yards and a TD and completed 7-13 passes for 79 yards and two TDs. Oklahoma State: Frazier was the first player in four games to score a rushing TD against the Cowboys, when he tied the score at 13-all midway through the third quarter and led NU to a 27-13 win on the road for Coach Osborne's 200th career victory. He completed 8-19 passes for 109 yards. Kansas State: He missed NU's single-game total offense record by just seven yards. Against the No. 24 (CNN/USA Today) Wildcats, Frazier had 35 total offense attempts for 312 yards, which ranks as the second-best single-game output in school history (Jerry Tagge had 319 vs. Missouri, Oct. 9, 1971). Frazier had 154 yards through the air (9-19) and a career-high 158 rushing yards on 16 carries with one score. He averaged 9.9 yards per rush and had a career-long and then-team season-long run of 58 yards. His 158 yards rushing was the first 100-yard rushing game for a Husker signal caller since Keithen McCant rushed for 124 vs. Missouri in 1991 and is the second-highest effort by an NU QB overall. Missouri: Frazier rushed for 81 yards on 11 carries, including a 37-yard TD in the third quarter and completed 8-13 passes for 143 yards and two TDs. Colorado: Frazier led the Huskers to a hard-fought 21-17 win in Boulder over the No. 20 Buffaloes even though he missed most of the second half with a shoulder AC strain. Frazier totaled 236 yards of total offense (his second-highest single-game output), was the Huskers' leading rusher with 69 yards, and completed 7-17 for 167 yards passing and one TD with one interception and was the ABC/Chevrolet Nebraska Player-of-the-Game for his gutsy effort. Kansas: Frazier led the Huskers to a 21-20 come-from-behind win over the Jayhawks, despite his injured shoulder which kept him out of play much of the second quarter and limited his throwing. He rushed for 35 yards, passed for 31 and threw for two TDs. Iowa State: Frazier rushed for more than 100 yards for the second time in his career with 125 yards and tied his career high with three touchdowns. He passed for 68 yards and another TD. Oklahoma: Frazier rushed for 37 yards on 15 attempts with one TD and completed 5-17 passes for 57 yards and a score in the 21-7 victory to give NU an unblemished 11-0 record. No. 1 Florida State (Orange Bowl): Frazier nearly led the Huskers to the national title when he literally matched Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward, yard-for-yard, as they both had 283 total offense yards. Frazier was sacked just once (to Ward's five), however, and was the game's leading rusher with 14 carries for 77 yards. He completed 13 of 24 passes for 206 yards and one TD. On NU's final drive he completed a 29-yard pass to Truman Bell to the FSU 28 to set up a 45-yard field goal attempt with 0:01 remaining.

In His Career: Frazier has 1,886 yards passing and 1,103 yards rushing for 2,989 total offense yards (6.3 per attempt, 149.5 per game). In regular-season games, he has thrown for 22 touchdowns compared to just five interceptions. After just two seasons, Frazier ranks ninth in NU career passing yards and is sixth in passing TDs. He is ninth in career total offense with 2,989 yards. Frazier has run (16) or thrown (22) for 38 TDs in his career and has accounted for at least one touchdown in every game he has played in (20) except the 1992 and 1993 season openers (Utah, three plays and North Texas, two plays, nine consecutive games in 1992, 11 in 1993, counting bowl games).

1992: Frazier came to Nebraska in August of 1992, and with just five short months of learning the system and gaining experience, he took over the starting duties and led the Nebraska Cornhuskers to their second consecutive Big Eight championship. Frazier was the first true freshman to play quarterback for the Husker varsity since Steve Taylor in 1985 and was the first quarterback ever to start for Nebraska as a true freshman. Frazier led the Huskers to a 5-2 record as a starter and on the season played in nine games, accumulated 727 yards passing, 399 rushing (then the third-best mark ever for a Husker freshman) and 1,126 yards in total offense with 17 touchdowns (seven rushing, 10 passing). He ran or threw for at least one touchdown in every game except the season opener. He did not play vs. Washington or Arizona State, saw more playing time in the Oklahoma State game after the Huskers had an open week in their schedule, then following a second open week for the Huskers, drew the starting nod at Missouri on Oct. 24. Missouri: Frazier led the Huskers to their first conference road win by inspiring a fourth-quarter surge to defeat the Tigers 34-24. Frazier rushed 14 times for 77 yards and three TDs and went 9-20 passing for 157 yards with no turnovers and accumulated a season-high 234 total offense yards. Colorado: In his first game vs. a ranked team he rushed for 86 yards and passed for 55 and two TDs. Kansas: He completed 6-11 passes for a season-high 161 yards and career-best three TDs vs. nationally-ranked KU. Iowa State: With a sprained ankle, Frazier scrambled then threw a 15-yard TD pass to Lance Lewis for the CNN Play-of-the-Day. He had a season-high 92 yards rushing and 54 passing. Oklahoma: On Nov. 27, he threw his first and only interception of the regular season (ending a streak of 80 attempts by Frazier without a pickoff), but not until Nebraska had set a school record with a streak of 24 quarters and five straight games without a turnover (dating back to the second half of the Arizona State game). Kansas State: Tied career high with three rushing TDs on 51 yards and 128 yards passing. On the season: Frazier was NU's fourth-leading rusher, averaging 44.3 yards per game (4.6 yards per carry) and was second in total offense at 125.1 ypg (6.1 per play). He ranked second in the Big Eight in pass efficiency rating at 136.1 and would have ranked 10th nationally if he had the required 15 attempts per game to qualify. He was fifth in the Big Eight in total offense per game (83rd nationally) and 11th in rushing. He set a school season record for lowest interception rate with one in 100 attempts (0.01). No. 3 Florida State (Orange Bowl): Frazier rushed seven times for 20 yards and completed 10-21 passes for 146 yards with TD passes to Corey Dixon (41 yards) and Gerald Armstrong. The poised Frazier was the unanimous Big Eight Offensive Newcomer/Freshman-of-the-Year by both the AP and coaches, earned second-team freshman All-America honors by Football News and was an honorable-mention AP All-Big Eight pick.

At Manatee HS: The USA Today All-America quarterback, Frazier threw for 2,600 yards and 30 TDs and ran for over 1,600 yards and 33 TDs as a two-year starter at Manatee in Bradenton, Fla.

As a senior, he completed 47.6 percent of his passes for 989 yards and 17 touchdowns. Frazier chose NU over Clemson and Notre Dame. He was a teammate of fellow Huskers Tyrone Williams and Justin Stephens.

Personal: The son of Tommie and Priscilla Frazier, Tommie was born July 16, 1974. He majors in business management and is an active volunteer in the Lincoln schools. In the summer of 1993, he and teammates Barron Miles and Tyrone Williams saved a neighbor's house from burning down.

Ed Stewart has started 24 consecutive games for the Huskers, counting the last two Orange Bowls, and is set to contend for national honors in 1994. A three-year letterman, Stewart has played in every game except two road games early in his initial season for 31 consecutive appearances. He had 18 tackles as a freshman, was fifth on the team in 1992 with 64 and last year tied for second with 79. He has 161 career tackles, and with an 80-tackle year would move into the top 10 on the Nebraska career tackle chart. His seven career pass breakups is six off the linebacker record while his three interceptions is four short of the school position record. A big-play athlete, Stewart's best games have been when Nebraska needed him the most. He earned second-team All-Big Eight honors in a conference laden with talented linebackers last year and honorable-mention honors as a sophomore. A preseason All-American by Football News, he is a leading contender for first-team league honors in 1994 and will vie for All-America and Butkus honors as well. Although small for a modern-day linebacker, Stewart makes up for his relative lack of size with quickness. In testing, he has run an electronic 1.58 for 10 yards and 4.73 for 40. He has a 34-inch vertical jump and improved his Performance Index this spring to 2,375. On a point system, he has the best Pro-Agility run and point total for any linebacker in Husker history with a 3.92 time in the 20-yard event and 763 points. His 3.92 time is the seventh best among all positions, all time. Combined with Troy Dumas at Sam linebacker and Doug Colman at Mike linebacker, the trio gives Nebraska one of the most talented linebacking corps of all time. Stewart will be one of four Huskers who will compete with degree in hand, as he graduated in August with a psychology degree.

1993: One of the best reasons for Nebraska to switch to the 4-3 defense last year was Ed Stewart. He was also one of the key reasons that the Husker linebacker corps was rated as the nation's third best in the preseason. Stewart injured his left knee during the second half of spring ball prior to the season, but had an excellent year following arthroscopic surgery. Stewart finished tied for second in tackles last year starting every game at weak-side linebacker. He had 79 stops (39 solo), including three sacks for 30-yards lost and another three tackles for 9-yards lost. He recovered a fumble (vs. Kansas State), had four pass breakups (three against Kansas State) and five quarterback hurries. His third career interception came against the Colorado Buffaloes when he picked off a Kordell Stewart pass at the CU 27 with 12:47 left in the game and NU ahead 21-10. He had three double-figure tackle games and led the team in stops three times with 12 vs. Oklahoma State, 11 vs. Kansas State and a career-high 14 vs. Iowa State. He was Nebraska's nominee for Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Week following the Kansas State and Iowa State contests. He also had nine tackles twice, vs. Colorado and Kansas. Had six tackles in the national championship game against Florida State in the Orange Bowl including one tackle for seven yards lost and two quarterback hurries. Stewart earned second-team All-Big Eight honors by the conference coaches and honorable-mention All-Big Eight honors by AP.

1992: One of the most pleasant surprises on defense in 1992 as a sophomore, Stewart started every game at weak-side linebacker for the Huskers and finished fifth on the team in tackles with 64 (26 solo). He

STEWART'S PERSONAL BESTS

Game:

- Tackles--14 vs. Iowa State, 1993.
- TFL--2, twice, 2-4 vs. Oklahoma (eight tackles), 1992; 2-15 vs. Kansas State (11 tackles), 1993.
- Sacks--1, five times, vs. Washington and Kansas, 1992; vs. North Texas, UCLA and Kansas State, 1993.
- Passes Broken Up--3 vs. Kansas State, 1993.
- Interceptions--1, three times, vs. Arizona State and Oklahoma, 1992; vs. Colorado, 1993.
- Long TD/Interception return--50 yards vs. Oklahoma (TD), 1992.

Season:

- Tackles--79, 1993.
- TFL--6.5 for 15 yards lost, 1992.
- Sacks--three for 30 yards lost, 1993.
- Passes Broken Up--4, 1993.
- Interceptions--2, 1992.

had 6.5 tackles for 15-yards lost including 2.5 sacks for 8-yards lost, he forced a fumble, broke up a pass and had two interceptions. His first career pickoff was in the Arizona State game while the second came against the Oklahoma Sooners in a crucial game for the Big Eight championship. Late in the first quarter, OU led 3-0 and Nebraska had just left the field three-and-out. The Sooners were driving and had reached midfield when Stewart picked off a Cale Gundy pass and ran it 50 yards into the end zone. It was one of three Husker interceptions which went for touchdowns in 1992, joining Bruce Moore's 54-yard return vs. Arizona State and Tyrone Byrd's 30-yard return against Kansas. In the Oklahoma game he led the team in tackles with eight (five solo), two tackles for 4-yards lost and two quarterback hurries. For his efforts he earned Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors. Stewart tied his career high of 11 tackles twice, vs. then-No. 2 Washington and against Arizona State. He finished the year as Nebraska's fourth-leading tackler and earned honorable-mention All-Big Eight honors by the conference coaches. Against the Florida State Seminoles in the 1993 Federal Express Orange Bowl, Stewart recorded three tackles (one solo).

1991: A redshirt freshman, Stewart played in nine regular-season games, including the last six, plus the Orange Bowl vs. Miami, as the alternate weak-side linebacker behind Mike Anderson. His top regular-season tackle game came in his second game as a Husker when he had five against Colorado State. The biggest play of his freshman year came in the final minute of the Oklahoma game when he deflected a Cale Gundy pass on the Sooners' last play, wrapping up a 19-14 win and an Orange Bowl bid. He finished the year with 18 tackles, two pass breakups and two quarterback hurries, then was NU's second-leading tackler in the Orange Bowl with 11 stops.

1990: A scholarship recruit, Stewart redshirted in his first year at Nebraska and switched from strong safety to linebacker.

At Mount Carmel HS: A three-year starter for Coach Frank Lenti, he helped lead the school to back-to-back state titles in Illinois' two largest classes (6A in 1988, 5A in 1989), and a 27-1 overall record. A captain as a senior, he rushed for 410 yards and seven touchdowns as a running back the first six games, then switched to defense when injuries depleted the secondary. In the last six games, he had 45 tackles. In Mount Carmel's 32-0 win over Niles Notre Dame in the state championship game, he had an interception, a blocked punt and two fumble recoveries. A two-time All-Catholic League selection and a 1989 all-area pick, he was voted team MVP.

Personal: The son of James and Gladys Stewart, he was born March 2, 1972, in Chicago and has one brother, Eric. Stewart graduated this summer with a degree in psychology and is a volunteer mentor for the Husker Teammates program.

Stewart, an All-America candidate and a two-year starter at linebacker, has 161 tackles and three interceptions in his career.

Zach Wiegert, (pronounced WEE-ger) is destined to be Nebraska's next All-America lineman and will contend for Lombardi and Outland Awards, following in the footsteps of 1992 Outland winner Will Shields (now with the Kansas City Chiefs). The two-time All-Big Eight tackle returns to start for the Huskers on the right side for the third consecutive year. Offensive line coach Milt Tenopir said that Wiegert, and right guard Brenden Stai, are as good of one-two combination Nebraska has ever had on one side of the line. Wiegert was a second-team All-American in 1993, a sophomore All-American in 1992, and enters the 1994 season as a preseason All-American by several publications. Wiegert first earned All-Big Eight honors as a sophomore, becoming just the third Husker offensive lineman since the advent of two-platoon football to do so, joining Dave Rimington (center 1980-81-82) and Will Shields (offensive guard, 1990-91-92). With another stellar season and conference honors, Wiegert would become the 18th Husker overall and just the fifth offensive lineman to earn three-time conference honors. Wiegert hopes to follow in Rimington's and Shields' footsteps, as each of the All-Americans also won the Outland Trophy (Rimington won the Outland twice and the Lombardi as well). Deceptively quick for his size (6-5, 300), he was timed electronically in the 10-yard dash at 1.77 and at 5.21 in the 40 with a 30-inch vertical jump. His score of 785 points in the 20-yard Pro-Agility run (to factor a 4.33 time for his height and weight) ranks among the top 10 all time by a Husker. This spring, Wiegert posted bests in the 40-yard dash (5.21), the 20-yard agility run (4.30) and in the squat (564 pounds) and bench (410) for a career-best 2,288 Performance Index.

1993: Wiegert, a two-time first-team All-Big Eight choice, earned second-team All-America honors by UPI and third-team All-America honors by AP in 1993. He totaled 73 "pancakes" (knock-down blocks) in 1993, averaged 6.6, with a high of 11 twice--against Kansas State and Oklahoma. Listed in the preseason by the 1993 NCAA Football Preview as one of the top 20 offensive tackles in the nation, and listed by Athlon as among the top nine, Wiegert lived up to his preseason billing. In 1993, Wiegert helped lead the Huskers to a No. 3 finish in rushing averaging 287.9 yards per game, a fifth-place ranking in scoring at 38.3 points per game and an average of 425.0 total offense yards per game.

1992: Wiegert started every game for the Huskers at right tackle as a sophomore and helped lead the Big Red offense to its third national rushing title in four years, the eighth under Osborne, averaging 328.2 yards per game. The Huskers also ranked second in scoring at 38.8 and 11th in total offense with 438.2 yards per game. Wiegert and company protected Husker quarterbacks well, as they were sacked just nine times (compared to the 35 sacks recorded by the Nebraska defense). Wiegert earned first-team All-Big Eight honors by the coaches, second-team All-Big Eight by AP, first-team sophomore All-America and Almost All-America honors by the Football News. He became the third Husker offensive lineman since two-platoon football was implemented and the fourth overall, to earn first-team All-Big Eight honors as a sophomore, joining 1990-1992 teammate Will Shields and Dave Rimington, center, 1980-81-82.

1991: Wiegert played in all but the Washington and Colorado games as the alternate right tackle behind All-Big Eight Brian Boerboom. A redshirt freshman, he helped Nebraska win the NCAA rushing title at 353.2 yards per game. It was the seventh national rushing crown in 12 years for the Huskers, who also averaged 153.3 yards per game in the air, their best passing mark since the Vince Ferragamo-quarterbacked 1976 team. Nebraska also led the Big Eight and ranked third nationally in both total offense (506.45 yards per game) and scoring offense (41.3 points per game) behind the blocking of Wiegert & Co.

1990: A scholarship recruit, Wiegert redshirted as a true freshman.

At Fremont Bergan HS: Wiegert earned all-class, all-state honors as a senior in 1989, despite missing the first six games of the season because of mononucleosis. In five games for Coach Joe Vojtech, he had 67 total tackles, including six for loss. He also earned all-conference honors in basketball and threw the shot put and discus in track.

Personal: The son of Hedy Wiegert, Zach was born Aug. 16, 1972, in Fremont, Neb. Zach's older brother, Erik, was an All-Big Eight offensive left guard, lettering for the Huskers in 1989-90-91. Wiegert is an economics major and is on schedule to graduate after the spring semester. He was a guest speaker at the Adopt-a-School Program in Fremont, Neb.

Preseason All-American Zach Wiegert will contend for Lombardi and Outland honors in 1994.

Huskers Lead Nation in Outland Trophy Winners

Nebraska players have won more Outlands (six) than those of any other school and the Huskers' three Lombardi Awards is tied for the national lead in the last two decades. In 1992, Will Shields was a consensus All-American and brought home the Huskers' sixth Outland Award. In 1994, Zach Wiegert will contend for both of the prestigious honors. Husker center Dave Rimington was a two-time Outland winner in 1981 and 1982, and also won the Lombardi in 1982, while Dean Steinkuhler won both awards in 1983, to give Nebraska the honor of being the first and only school to win three Outland Trophies in a row.

Zatechka (pronounced ZAD-ess-kuh) is Nebraska's "perfect" student. He earned his degree in biological sciences in May of 1994 and will take graduate classes this fall, including endocrinology, immunology and art history. Zatechka, who finished No. 1 in his high school class of 332, has never had anything less than an "A" in his scholastic career and was rewarded by being named to two academic All-America teams in 1993, the GTE Academic All-America squad and the Hitachi Scholar-Athlete Team. Zatechka, along with 12 other college football players across the nation, was asked to serve on the special NCAA committee to consider various options for a Division I-A football national championship playoff. They met in the spring of 1994. Subsequently, Zatechka and Derrick Brooks of Florida State were asked to join the NCAA subcommittee to continue to study the playoff proposals, with Rob and Derrick providing input on the student-athlete's welfare. That committee met twice, in the spring and summer of 1994. Zatechka (and defensive tackle Terry Connealy) also served as Husker Ambassadors this summer for the athletic department. They toured the state, meeting with businesses, donors and the people of Nebraska. The first player in Osborne's tenure to graduate with a perfect 4.0, he is a candidate for a Rhodes Fellowship this fall to study at Oxford University in England. He is looking to become the second player in Husker history, and just the third in the conference to earn academic All-Big Eight honors four times, joining Husker punter Mike Stigge who earned the award from 1989-1992 and Oklahoma lineman Anthony Phillips who was a four-time honoree from 1985-88. He would become the eighth player in the history of Husker football to be a two-time academic All-American if he is so-honored again by GTE in 1994. He is a preseason All-American earning the Anson Mount Scholar-Athlete award, is listed as a preseason All-Big Eight tackle by Athlon, made Lindy's Finest Offensive Guards list and as a two-year starter on the Husker offensive line, will contend for conference honors. Zatechka will earn his fourth letter this season and has played in every game but one (Washington, 1991) since redshirting his initial year at Nebraska in 1990. Zatechka will resume a starting role but will move back to left tackle after starting all but one game last season at left guard. Zatechka and Zach Wiegert are the Huskers' biggest linemen and boost the average height and weight of the projected starters on the Husker offensive frontline to 6-4, 295 pounds. Very athletic for his size, Zatechka has a top Performance Index of 2,625, has a position-best 612 points in the 40-yard dash (combination of speed vs. body weight) with a 5.06 clocking, ran the 10-yard dash in 1.72 this spring, can clean 385, squat 675 and bench 475 pounds. His 1.74 in the 10-yard dash in 1992 earned 867 points to rank him in a tie for the third-best score by any Husker in history and the best for his position. Rob's younger brother, Jon, is a redshirted freshman for the Huskers. An offensive guard, Jon checks in at 6-2, 280. Jon too, was first in his graduating high school class as was their older brother Steve. Rob and Jon's father, Doug, is the Assistant Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs/Director of Housing at UNL.

1993: Zatechka started the first nine games, sat out most of the Colorado game after he sprained an ankle in the first quarter, started and tried to play the Kansas game, but was ineffective due to the ankle sprain. After limited action in the Iowa State game, he returned to his starting role against Oklahoma and also started for the Huskers in the Orange Bowl. Zatechka helped lead the team to a No. 3 final ranking in rushing at 287.9 yards per game, a No. 5 ranking in scoring with 38.3 points per game and pushed the way to 425.0 yards in total offense to rank 23rd. A 4.0 student in biological sciences, in 1993, Zatechka earned his third consecutive Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight award, his second GTE Academic All-District VII certificate and his first GTE First-Team Academic All-America Award and first CFA/Hitachi Scholar-Athlete Award. With Trev Alberts and Terry Connealy, Nebraska placed three athletes on the GTE Football First-Team Academic All-America list in 1993 to increase its nation-leading total to 45 (49 all time), while fellow offensive guard Ken Mehlin was a second-teamer.

1992: A two-year letterman for the Huskers, Zatechka played both offensive tackle positions in 1992 backing up Zach Wiegert on the right side and Lance Lundberg on the left. In 1992, Zatechka helped lead a potent Husker offense to its third national rushing title in four years, the eighth overall under Osborne, with 328.2 yards per game. The Huskers also ranked second in scoring at 38.8 points per game and 11th in total offense with 438.2 yards per game. Zatechka played in all 11 games. A perfect 4.0, Zatechka earned second-team GTE Academic All-America honors, as well as District VII and All-Big Eight academic accolades.

1991: Zatechka played in all but the Washington game as a redshirt freshman and started at left tackle in the Huskers' 18-9 win at Arizona State, Sept. 28. Against Oklahoma, Nov. 29, he threw possibly the biggest block of Nebraska's season, clearing the way for another freshman, I-back Calvin Jones, to gain 4 yards on fourth-and-1 at the Oklahoma 19 in the closing minutes. On the next play, Jones scored the winning touchdown in Nebraska's 19-14 victory. One of the Huskers' top scholars, he earned Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight honors as a non-starter, thanks largely to his perfect 4.0 grade-point average in biological sciences. His ability on the field helped Nebraska win its seventh NCAA rushing title in 12 years at 353.2 yards per game, while also averaging 153.3 yards per game passing, the Huskers' best in 15 years since Vince Ferragamo was the quarterback. NU also led the Big Eight and ranked third nationally in both total offense (506.45 yards per game) and scoring offense (41.3 yards per game).

1990: A scholarship recruit, Zatechka took a redshirt in his first year.

At Lincoln East HS: A three-year starter at offensive tackle and a spot player on defense for Coach Lee Zentic, he was all-class, all-state as a senior and received the Touchdown Club of Atlanta's Nebraska lineman of the year award, as well as prep All-America honors from several recruiting services. He lettered three times in track. He was also an academic all-state pick, received straight-A's and ranked No. 1 in his graduating class of 332. He qualified for various academic scholarships, including a University of Nebraska-Lincoln David Award.

Personal: The son of Dr. Douglas and Jane Zatechka, Rob was born Dec. 1, 1971, in Lansing, Mich. He has two brothers, Steve and Jon, the latter of which is a redshirted freshman offensive guard at Nebraska. Steve also graduated from Nebraska where their father, Doug, is the Assistant Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs and Director of Housing. Rob posts a perfect 4.0 with a degree in biological sciences and was the UNL male student-leader-of-the-year in 1993, the first UNL athlete to earn the honor. Rob hopes to become a doctor in neurological science. He also participated in the Best of America, National Student Day, and National American Education programs and has logged over 100 speaking engagements to area youth since high school.

- 1992 Preseason Top 20 Nose Tackles (NCAA Preview)

An excellent pass rusher, Connealy (pronounced Con-NEAL-lee) started every game at nose tackle in 1993 after alternating with David Noonan in 1992. He is the only returning starter on the two-man defensive front and will play a vital role as just two other lettered linemen return for 1994. Connealy missed all of spring ball as he had reconstructive surgery on his left shoulder immediately following the bowl game. He earned first-team All-Big Eight honors by AP and second-team by the conference coaches and will contend for repeat honors in 1994. Also one of three Huskers to earn first-team GTE Academic All-America honors in 1993, Connealy looks to repeat this season. Connealy is slated to receive his degree in agribusiness after the fall semester. This summer, Connealy and Rob Zatechka toured the state as Husker Ambassadors for the athletic department.

1993: Connealy finished as NU's ninth-leading tackler in 1993 with 45 stops (19 solo), third best among returnees. He recorded 5.5 tackles for 29-yards lost, including 3.5 sacks for 24-yards lost. Connealy also had one pass breakup and was third on the team with 15 quarterback hurries. Just a junior, Connealy was second man in on another four sacks on the season but officially has eight for 53-yards lost in his career. He had a season-high eight tackles against Oklahoma State and had five or more stops in three other games. He had a career-high two sacks (for 15-yards lost) and three tackles (for 17-yards lost) against Texas Tech on three total tackles. Played much of the season slowed by strains in both shoulders. Started the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl and recorded six tackles (three solo). An excellent student, Connealy's 3.79 cumulative grade-point average in agribusiness earned him his second Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight award, his second GTE Academic All-District VII certificate and his first GTE First-Team Academic All-America plaque. Along with Connealy, Trev Alberts and Rob Zatechka also made the first-team list. Nebraska was the only school with three first-team academic All-Americans in 1993 increasing its nation-leading total to 49 (45 as named by GTE).

1992: Connealy alternated with starting nose tackle David Noonan after switching from defensive tackle at the beginning of the season. Finished as NU's ninth-leading tackler with 47 stops (20 solo). He recorded 4.5 tackles for 24-yards lost, including 3.5 sacks for 21-yards lost. His career-best of 15 tackles came against Iowa State. Recorded a sack against Middle Tennessee State, Washington, and Colorado and split credit for a sack against Oklahoma State. Started the 1993 Orange Bowl and recorded seven tackles (five solo). Earned Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight and GTE Academic All-District VII honors.

1991: Connealy lettered, playing in four regular-season games. He recorded two tackles, including an 8-yard sack against Missouri.

1990: A scholarship athlete, Connealy redshirted his first year at NU.

At Hyannis HS: Playing eight-man football, Connealy was an all-class, all-state selection for Coach Chris Kraus. As a tight end, line-backer and running back, he led the Sandhills school to a 7-2 record in 1989, averaged 20 points per game in basketball, and qualified for the state track meet as a shot putter. He was a straight-A student.

Personal: The son of Marty and Donnie Connealy, Terry was born June 10, 1972, in Alliance, Neb., and has four brothers and two sisters. His father, a rancher near Hyannis, played for the Huskers in the 1950s, as did Marty's brothers, Jerry and Jack, in the 1970s. He has a 3.79 cumulative GPA in agribusiness, was a guest speaker for National American Education Week and is a Ventures in Partnership volunteer.

Cheyenne, Wyo.
(East HS)

1992: The backup free safety behind Tyrone Byrd, Dumas played in every game and started two (Arizona State and Oklahoma State) when Byrd was sidelined with a pulled hamstring. Recorded a career-high 12 tackles vs. the ASU Sun Devils in his first career start, with five solo stops and one pass breakup. Finished the year as Nebraska's 13th-leading tackler with 31 (17 solo). In the Federal Express Orange Bowl against Florida State, Dumas played but did not have any tackles.

1991: A scholarship recruit, Dumas played in 10 of 11 regular-season games and finished the year with 11 tackles, five of them unassisted. In the Orange Bowl against Miami, he added two tackles, including one for a 4-yard loss. One of three new recruits who did not redshirt, along with wingback Abdul Muhammad and linebacker Doug Colman.

At East HS: A top all-around athlete, Dumas was a two-sport all-state performer and earned nine varsity letters. Rushed for 688 yards and was the state's fifth-leading rusher as a senior. He accumulated 1,057 total-offense yards and scored 74 points for Coach Dwayne Trembly in 1990. Led the state in punt returns with a 32.8-yard average, four touchdowns, on nine returns. Ranked 28th in the state in total defense with 36 unassisted tackles, 25 assists and one interception. Team MVP and second-team all-state as a senior. Won the state triple jump title as a junior and senior and holds the state record with a leap of 48-8. Was also a member of East's state champion 400-meter relay team.

Personal: The son of John and Eileen Dumas, Troy was born Sept. 30, 1972, at Riverside, Calif. He has two brothers, Travis and Eric. He majors in human development and the family and in just his fourth year of school, is set to graduate after the spring semester. Dumas was a keynote speaker for National American Education Week in 1993.

□ Holds the Nebraska linebacker position record for Performance Index (2,740)

Troy Dumas (pronounced DOO-mus) started five games last season, four at free safety and one at Sam linebacker. He moved from free safety at the end of the season last year and will start for the Huskers at Sam in 1994. At 6-4, 220, with excellent speed (1.54 in the electronic 10-yard dash), Dumas combines with Ed Stewart and Doug Colman, to give the Huskers one of the most athletically-talented linebacking corps NU has ever had. Dumas' 1.54 10-yard dash time ranks sixth among active Huskers while his 36.5-inch vertical jump ranks third. One of three true freshmen to play for Nebraska in 1991 (along with linebacker Doug Colman and wingback Abdul Muhammad), Dumas and Muhammad are the only two seniors on the squad who have yet to redshirt. Even though this is just his fourth year at Nebraska, Dumas is set to graduate after the spring semester with a degree in human development and the family.

1993: Prior to spring ball, Dumas had his left shoulder scoped, but was 100 percent by fall. He started the first three games at free safety and again at that position against Kansas State, then sprained an ankle and missed the Colorado and Kansas games. Dumas switched to Sam linebacker, when starter Ernie Beler hurt his knee, and started the Oklahoma game. In nine games played (five starts), Dumas recorded 20 tackles, one for a 1-yard loss (against Oklahoma) and had four pass breakups on the season. Had a season-high six tackles against two ranked opponents in UCLA and Oklahoma. Had a career-high two pass breakups against Kansas State. Recorded one tackle against Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl national championship game.

Letters: Two
Denton, Texas
(Denton HS)

- 1994 Preseason No. 8 Offensive Center (Lindy's)
- 1993 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight

Graham returns to retain his starting role at center. He started the last four regular-season games in 1993, after Brenden Stai (right guard) broke his leg and center Ken Mehlin moved to Stai's position. Graham, also the Huskers' two-year returnee at deep snapper, will contend for All-Big Eight honors at center and is listed among Lindy's "Finest Offensive Centers." Although he missed all of spring practice when he had both knees scoped following the Orange Bowl, he should be 100 percent by fall drills. With a 3.31 cumulative grade point average in animal science, Graham was an academic all-conference selection last year and looks to repeat on that list as well as contend for national academic honors his junior season. At 6-3, 280, Graham has good speed with a 1.77 10-yard electronic dash time.

1993: After earning a letter as a redshirt freshman in 1992, Graham was thrown into a starting role at center when Brenden Stai broke his leg and Ken Mehlin moved from center to right guard. Graham played in all 11 games in 1993, started the last four (plus the 1994 Orange Bowl vs. Florida State) and also served as NU's deep snapper. Graham helped the Huskers rank third nationally in rushing and fifth in scoring with 287.9 yards per game and 38.3 points per game. He had a team season-best 15 "pancakes" (knock-down blocks) in his first start of the year against nationally-ranked Colorado. He had 53 pancakes on the year (4.8 per game) including 40 in the last four regular-season games (10 vs. Oklahoma). With a then-3.24 cumulative grade point average in animal science, Graham was named to the 1993 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight team.

1992: Graham played in every game in 1992, including the Federal Express Orange Bowl against Florida State. He served as a backup center to Jim Scott and Terris Chorney but was NU's No. 1 deep snapper. Graham helped lead a potent Husker offense to its third national rushing title in the past four years, the eighth overall under Osborne, with 328.2 yards per game. The Huskers also ranked second in scoring at 38.8 and 11th in total offense with 438.2 yards per game.

1991: A scholarship athlete, Graham redshirted in his first year as a Husker.

At Denton HS: An all-district, all-area and honorable-mention all-state center for Coach Jim Bateman at Denton High School, Graham was an All-America selection by the Chicago Tribune. He also played tackle on Denton's goal-line defense. The three-time letterman earned second-team all-district honors as a junior in 1989 and was selected to play in the Texas Coaches All-Star Game which featured 68 of the top seniors in the Lone Star state. The captain of both the football and track teams, Graham competed in the shot put and discus and qualified for the regional meet as a junior and senior. He was an honor student with a 3.8 grade point average.

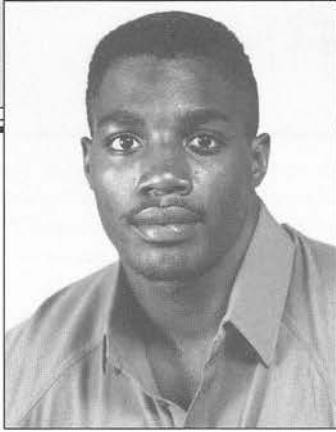

Personal: The son of David and Stephanie Graham, Aaron was born May 22, 1973, in Las Vegas, N.M. He has a sister Kim and majors in animal science with a 3.31 cumulative grade point average. In 1993, Graham was a spokesperson for the VIP Speakers Bureau.

Junior Aaron Graham, a Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight selection, returns to his starting position at center for the Huskers in 1994.

(Jess Lanier HS)

- 1994 All-America Candidate
- 1994 Preseason Best Linebackers List (Athlon)
- 1994 Preseason Hon.-Mention All-American (Street & Smith's)
- 1994 Preseason All-Big Eight (Lindy's, Street & Smith's)
- 1993 Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Week vs. Oklahoma
- 1993 ABC/Chevrolet Nebraska Player-of-the-Game vs. OU

Harris enters fall as the starting left outside linebacker, allowing senior Donta Jones to move to the right side to replace consensus All-American and 1993 Butkus winner Trev Alberts. An extremely talented athlete, Harris at 6-2, 225, has a 1.59 electronic 10-yard dash best, a 4.76 in the 40 and a 34-inch vertical jump. Next to 1987 All-America defensive tackle Neil Smith, who plays for the Kansas City Chiefs, Harris has the longest wing span of any Husker, at seven feet. Harris, who was the Husker MVP and the Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Week following the Oklahoma game, will contend for All-America honors this fall. Although it is hard to replace an athlete and an academian such as Alberts, with Harris on the left side and Jones on the right, NU could have the most athletically-gifted pair in the nation for 1994.

1993: Harris played in every game in 1993 and started one against Colorado State. He was listed as a first teamer along with Alberts, Jones and Bruce Moore. In the last game of the season against Oklahoma, Harris proved he will be more-than-able to handle a starting role full time this year. With an undefeated season on the line, Harris stepped in for All-American Trev Alberts, who after nine plays was forced out of the OU game with a dislocated elbow. Harris recorded a career-high seven tackles, including three sacks of All-Big Eight quarterback Cale Gundy. He also had four quarterback hurries and caused Gundy to throw an errant pass into the hands of NU defender Toby Wright for an interception to set up NU's first score which tied the game at 7-7. Harris earned ABC's vote as the Chevrolet Nebraska Player-of-the-Game and was named the Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Week by the Big Eight panel. For the season, Harris had 22 tackles (14 solo), was second only to Alberts with eight sacks for 41-yards lost and had one other tackle for a 4-yard loss. He had two pass breakups and 14 quarterback hurries. In the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl against Florida State, Harris had just one tackle, but it was a 7-yard sack of Heisman winner Charlie Ward. He also hurried Ward four times causing incomplete passes.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Harris played in eight games in 1992 as a reserve outside linebacker on the left side. He tallied four tackles (three solo), caused one fumble and broke up a pass.

1991: Sat out the 1991 season.

At Jess Lanier HS: A USA Today prep All-American, Harris had 91 total tackles and 12 quarterback sacks in 1990 to lead Coach Carrol Cox's team to the Alabama large-school state championship. He had 167 solo tackles and more than 20 sacks in his prep career in which he was a two-time all-state performer. Also caught 10 passes for 150 yards and a touchdown from the tight end position and had two carries for 56 yards as a fullback. Harris was named the most valuable player in the state championship game. He also lettered in basketball and was a state qualifier in track as a junior. Harris ran a 10.9-second 100 meters in track, but decided to concentrate solely on football as a senior.

Personal: The son of Walter Harris and Jessie Harris, Dwayne was born on Dec. 13, 1972. He has three brothers (Lee, Walter and Lemonte) and one sister, Beactrice. He majors in human development and has served as a volunteer mentor in the Teammates program and participated in the 1994 Best of America "School is Cool" Jam. Harris is scheduled to graduate in May of 1995, just four years after he started.

La Plata, Md.

(Pomfret/McDonough HS)

- 1994 Husker Lifter-of-the-Year
- 1993 Husker Co-Lifter-of-the-Year
- Holds the school position record for the Pro-Agility Run (3.95)
- Holds the school position record for Strength Index (1,297 points) with position records of 558 pounds in the squat and 384 pounds in the clean

An outstanding athlete with great speed and strength, Donta (pronounced DON-tay) Jones was named the Nebraska Co-Lifter-of-the-Year (with Cory Schlesinger) in 1993 and the lifter-of-the-year in 1994. He and Dwayne Harris give Nebraska perhaps the nation's most athletically-talented pair of outside linebackers. A speedster at 6-2, 220, Jones can run the 10-yard dash electronically in 1.58, has a 38-inch vertical jump (tied for best on the team) and can bench 343 pounds, squat 558 and clean 387. His 1994 20-yard Pro-Agility run time of 3.95 was a new position record. He owns the position record for Strength Index with 1,297 points and posted the highest Strength Index score among the 1994 squad (1,221). Jones also won the 1993 Strength Index competition. Jones is slated to be one of four Huskers who will compete with degree in hand, as he was on schedule to graduate in August with a degree in accounting and business administration. A three-year letterman, Jones has played in 27 games in his career, has 54 tackles (15 solo), four sacks, two fumbles caused and three recovered. Jones, who played both ends last year, switched from his starting position on the left side to the right to replace 1993 All-American and Butkus winner Trev Alberts.

1993: Jones started the season opener in 1993 against North Texas at left outside linebacker, but sprained his right ankle and missed nearly all of the next three games, playing in just three plays. He returned to action against Oklahoma State, resuming his starting role, and started seven of the last eight games, including the Iowa State game at Sam linebacker. He finished with 25 tackles in 10 games, including one sack for 12-yards lost (against nationally-ranked Colorado). He caused one fumble, recovered two, had one pass breakup and 10 quarterback hurries. One of his recovered fumbles was against Oklahoma, which he returned seven yards, the other was in the opener against North Texas. He had a season-high five tackles against the Sooners. In the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl against Florida State, Jones started and had one assisted tackle.

1992: A gifted athlete, Jones was a backup on both ends to outside linebackers Travis Hill on the left side and Trev Alberts and David White on the right. He played in every game and recorded 21 tackles (seven solo). He had four tackles for 37-yards lost, two sacks for 32-yards lost and six quarterback hurries. Against Oklahoma, he had three tackles, including a 25-yard sack when he caused and recovered a fumble on OU's last possession of the game. His other sack was for a 7-yard loss against Middle Tennessee State. Recorded five tackles vs. Florida State in the 1993 Federal Express Orange Bowl, two were solo stops and one was a 14-yard sack of Charlie Ward.

1991: A redshirt freshman, Jones saw action in six regular-season games, plus the Orange Bowl vs. Miami, while playing behind White and Alberts. He had eight tackles, including a 9-yard sack against Colorado State, during the regular season. In the Orange Bowl, he added two tackles, including a 1-yard sack of Gino Torretta.

1990: A scholarship recruit, he redshirted as a true freshman.

At Pomfret McDonough HS: An all-state and all-metro Washington pick, Jones was a two-way starter, catching seven passes as a tight end and recording 15 quarterback sacks and 172 tackles (107 first hits) from his outside linebacker spot. He was named to the "Big 33" team for the August 1990, Maryland-Pennsylvania All-Star Game. An excellent all-around athlete, he started at center for the McDonough basketball team, averaging 10 points per game, and had personal bests in track of 1:58 in the 800-meter run and 49 seconds in the 400-meter dash.

Personal: The son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, Donta was born Aug. 27, 1972. He plays the drums for his church and is slated to graduate in August, 1994 with a degree in accounting and business administration at the business college. He has been active in the Best of America School is Cool Jams and for National American Education Week.

An extremely-talented athlete, Husker coaches are happy to have Miles on the field whenever possible. He is NU's starting left cornerback, where he started all 11 games last year, was the backup punter at the beginning of the season (but never punted), served as a return man early in the year and was on punt and kickoff return defense. The former high school quarterback is again expected to start at left corner and is slated to be a kickoff return man along with Damon Benning. The 5-8 speedster posted a 1.52 in the electronic 10-yard dash (fourth best among 1994 Huskers), a 4.64 in the 40-yard dash and a 32.5-inch vertical jump. Miles will contend for All-America honors in 1994 as well as the Jim Thorpe Award.

1993: A versatile athlete, Miles earned first-team All-Big Eight honors by the conference coaches in 1993. He was sixth on the team in tackles (second among returnees) with 50 stops, one for a 1-yard loss (vs. North Texas), five breakups and picked off the second interception of his career against Colorado. Miles had seven tackles and two breakups against UCLA when he was assigned to All-American J.J.

Stokes. Miles, at 5-8, held the 6-4 1/2 Stokes to six catches for 65 yards and no TDs. Only one other team last year held Stokes scoreless. His best kickoff return was 26 yards against UCLA. He gets his kicks, however, as a member of punt return and field goal defense units. He blocked three kicks in 1993, including a field goal against North Texas; a punt in the end zone for a touchdown (all in one smooth motion) against Oklahoma State; and a partially-blocked punt against Iowa State. His block against the Cowboys was the CNN/ESPN Play-of-the-Week and with his career-high eight tackles and one breakup, Miles was honored as the Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Week, and the ESPN Player-of-the-Game. Against Florida State in the national championship game of the Orange Bowl, Miles had nine tackles (seven solo) and a 23-yard kickoff return.

1992: One of three first-year scholarship players in the Husker secondary (joining Kareem Moss and Toby Wright). He served as backup to senior starter Kenny Wilhite at left cornerback and played in all 11 games, recorded 11 tackles (eight solo) with one pass breakup vs. Arizona State and his first career interception and a 9-yard return vs. Middle Tennessee State. Part of the backup team to return veterans Tyrone Hughes and Corey Dixon, Miles had a 9-yard punt return vs. Middle Tennessee State. Against Florida State in the Orange Bowl, Miles had one pass breakup and returned two kickoffs for 79 yards with a career-best 48-yard return.

1991: Miles enrolled full time but sat out the 1991 season.

At Abraham Clark HS: Miles started as an option quarterback and safety for Abraham Clark. In the New Jersey all-star game after his senior year in 1991, Miles ran a kickoff back for a 102-yard touchdown.

Personal: Miles hopes to be playing on his birthday as he was born Jan. 1, 1972, the day Nebraska defeated Alabama at the Orange Bowl, 38-6, to post the school's second consecutive national championship. His mother is Maime Miles. Miles has been a volunteer with the 1994 Best of America "School is Cool" Jam when he impressed over 7,000 grade school students with his slam dunk abilities and is also a volunteer speaker for the Ventures in Partnership program. Quick off the field as well as on the turf, in the summer of 1993, Miles and teammates Tommie Frazier and Tyrone Williams were first on the scene to save a neighbor's house from burning down. A human development major, Miles is on track to graduate in the spring of 1995, taking just four years.

FREE SAFETY

5-10 □ 175 □ Soph.

Letters: One
Lawton, Okla.
(Lawton HS)

An extremely talented athlete, Minter backed up Toby Wright at rover last season, and alternately, played in nearly half of every game. Wright, a second-round NFL draft pick by the Los Angeles Rams, is gone, but so is four-year letterman John Reece at free safety (fourth round draft pick of the Arizona Cardinals). Minter could fill either role and enters 1994 slated as the starting free safety, while two-year letterman Kareem Moss is scheduled to start at rover. Combined with returning starters Barron Miles and Tyrone Williams, Minter and Moss have ample game experience and should more than adequately fill the void left by Wright and Reece. Minter, at 5-10, 175, has the best vertical jump on the team at 38 inches, and is the fastest player on the 1994 squad with a 1.50 electronic 10-yard time and a 4.41 in 40 yards. Also gifted in the classroom, Minter majors in mechanical engineering. Minter is destined to be a name you'll read in the Husker record books the next three years.

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Minter played in every game, backing up senior starter Toby Wright at rover. He had 23 tackles, one for 2-yards lost, two fumbles caused, one recovered and one quarterback hurry. In the fourth quarter against Oklahoma after NU's go-ahead touchdown, Minter caused a fumble on the ensuing kickoff, which NU's David Seizys recovered. One play later, Calvin Jones scored to give the Huskers a comfortable 21-7 lead. He had a career-high four tackles, three times in 1993, against North Texas, Colorado State and Oklahoma State. A native of Lawton, Oklahoma, Minter had three tackles and caused and recovered a fumble against his home-state Oklahoma Sooners. Against Florida State in the Orange Bowl, Minter had one tackle.

At Lawton HS: A two-way player for Coach Derald Ahlschlager at Lawton High School, Minter helped Lawton to a 7-5 record and the second round of the state playoffs. As an all-state running back, he led the state's largest class in rushing in 1991 with 1,589 yards and 21 touchdowns, while averaging 8.5 yards per carry, but Ahlschlager described him as one of the hardest hitters he's ever coached on defense. Minter, who averaged 21 points per game in basketball, was one of three Husker recruits out of the Sooner state in 1992—after NU had signed just two in its history, the late Victor Stachmus of McAlester in 1988 and Shields in 1989. A National Honor Society student, Minter chose Nebraska over Arkansas, Baylor, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Rice and Texas Christian.

Personal: The son of Florida Martin, Mike was born on Jan. 15, 1974, in Cleveland, Ohio. He has one sister, Roseland Beaty, and one brother, William Johnson, and is majoring in mechanical engineering. From Lawton, Okla., Minter attended Lawton High, the same school of 1992 Outland Trophy winner and former Husker Will Shields (offensive guard), who is now a starter for the Kansas City Chiefs. Despite the fact that Minter was in Miami to play in the national championship game, on Dec. 23, 1993, Minter and teammates Ed Morrow, Toby Wright, John Reece and Ernie Beler took time to speak to kids in the Dade County housing projects about staying in school and developing good role models.

In just his first year, Minter played in every game and had 23 tackles, two fumbles caused and one recovered.

Compton, Calif.
(Carson HS)

- 1993 Honorable-Mention All-Big Eight (Coaches)
- 1993 Big Eight Offensive Player-of-the-Week Nominee vs. OU

An experienced wingback, Abdul Muhammad (pronounced Ab-DUHL Moo-HAUM-med) enters his fourth season with the Huskers hoping to have an injury-free year. He led the Huskers in receptions and receiving yards last year with 25-383, despite playing with a shoulder strain, sore ankles and knee sprain. Then in the 1994 Orange Bowl against Florida State, Muhammad cracked ribs and lacerated his liver in the second quarter, which held him out for the remainder of the game and most of spring drills as well. Muhammad has started 15 games in his career (10 games last season, four in 1992 and one as a true freshman in 1991). He now has 38 catches in his three-year career to rank in a tie for 33rd on the NU all-time receivers' chart. His 578 career yards ranks 26th. A big-play athlete, Muhammad has caught five passes which have gone for 25 yards or more in his career. Yet to redshirt, Muhammad will again lead the wingbacks and with his exceptional speed, will contend for All-Big Eight honors this fall. Muhammad has sure hands and pure speed as his 1.51 electronic 10-yard dash time is just .01 behind Mike Minter's team best. His 40-yard electronic time was also just behind Minter's and Tyrone Williams' for third best among team members with a personal-best 4.46. Muhammad has a 32-inch vertical jump and has run the 20-yard agility run in 4.0. Despite his size (5-9, 160), he is an excellent blocker for the Husker running game and helped lead the Huskers to their second consecutive NCAA rushing title in 1992. Muhammad was one of three true freshmen to play for NU in 1991.

1993: The only Husker receiver who caught a pass in every game last year (one of nine all time at NU), Muhammad is one of Nebraska's "Itty Bitty Committee" of receivers who make up for their size with speed. Muhammad led the team in 1993 with 25 catches for 383 yards and three TDs from his wingback position where he started nine games plus the Orange Bowl. Muhammad averaged 15.3 yards per reception and 34.8 per game (12th in the Big Eight) and 2.3 catches per game (13th in the conference). His 25 receptions are the most for a Husker wingback since Irving Fryar caught 40 passes in 1983 and the most for an individual in a season since first-round NFL pick Johnny Mitchell caught 31 for 534 in 1991. A clutch receiver, 12 of Muhammad's receptions in 1993 came on third down. Of the 12, he converted 11 to first downs. He had a career-best day against Kansas State as he caught six for 91 yards. He scored touchdowns against North Texas (11 yards), Colorado State (career-long 41 yards), and the go-ahead TD in the season finale vs. Oklahoma (11 yards). In the Federal Express Orange Bowl championship game, Muhammad left early in the second quarter with cracked ribs and a severely lacerated liver, but prior to the injury caught one pass for 14 yards.

1992: Muhammad alternated with senior Vincent Hawkins at wingback in 1992, played in every game and started four (Arizona State, Missouri, Kansas and Iowa State). He caught seven passes for 111 yards and rushed twice for 27 yards, including a career-long run of 25 yards vs. Arizona State. Had a season-long 39-yard catch vs. then-No. 2 Washington, equaled his season best with two catches in a game three times (vs. Utah, Middle Tennessee State and Oklahoma State).

1991: A scholarship recruit, Muhammad quickly moved up to No. 2 on the depth chart behind senior wingback Nate Turner as a true freshman. One of three true freshmen to play for the Huskers in 1991 (along with Doug Colman and Troy Dumas), he played in all 11 games, and got his first career start at Colorado when Nebraska opened in a spread formation. Abdul was NU's sixth-leading receiver with six catches for 84 yards, including a season-long 31-yard TD catch at Oklahoma State.

At Carson HS: Nicknamed the "Little Rocket," Abdul-Rahim Muhammad was all-city in Los Angeles and was named to the Best in the West list by the Long Beach Press-Telegram. Averaged 15.5 yards and scored 18 touchdowns on 55 pass receptions for Coach Gene Vonogge's 12-1 team in 1990. Had three, three-touchdown games as a senior and scored 19 times that year. Broke former New York Jet Wesley Walker's school record with 143 punt-return yards in a single game. Rushed 30 times for 300-plus yards, returned kickoffs and punts, and had three pass interceptions as a cornerback in leading Carson High to the CIF 4A state title. Returned kickoffs 98 and 99 yards for touchdowns in his senior season. Chose Nebraska over Miami (Fla.), UCLA, Southern Cal, Oregon and Texas-El Paso.

Personal: The son of Henrietta Muhammad, Abdul was born March 2, 1973, in Lynwood, Calif. Although he hasn't redshirted, Muhammad is scheduled to graduate in August, 1995, with a degree in human development.

(Baldwin Park HS)

- 1994 Preseason Sleeper for Heisman (Football News)
- 1994 Preseason "The Rest" Running Backs List (Athlon)

Phillips set the tone for the future as a true freshman last year, and 81,536 fans at the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl in the national championship game witnessed his ability, as he came in for the injured Calvin Jones and rushed 13 times for 64 yards and a touchdown. All but one of his carries came in the fourth quarter of the 18-16 game. A gifted athlete, Phillips, in just three tests, has the fifth-best electronic 10-yard dash time on the team at 1.52, the seventh-best 40-yard time at 4.48 and a 35-inch vertical jump. This spring, Phillips established himself as Jones' replacement and heir apparent to his position on the Heisman watches. After the Huskers' annual spring game, in which Phillips rushed for 156 yards on 16 carries, primarily against the No. 1 defensive unit, Coach Tom Osborne said, "I didn't see many questions he couldn't answer today. Phillips has shown the potential to be as good as any I-back NU has had. It's too early to compare this guy to Rozier (Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier, 1981-83)...but he could be pretty good."

1993: A true freshman scholarship athlete, Phillips played in every game except the opener. He was the Huskers' third-leading rusher in 1993 with 508 yards on 92 carries and five touchdowns. He averaged 5.5 yards per carry and 50.8 per game. He ranked 10th in the Big Eight in rushing per game and had the third-best all-time rushing season for a Husker freshman. He also caught two passes for six yards. After not playing in the season opener, Phillips tallied 80 yards on 14 carries in game two against Texas Tech, including a 30-yard TD; he came off the bench at UCLA, in front of his homestate family and friends, and rushed for a career-high 137 yards on 28 carries with a 5-yard TD (his 137 yards marked the Big Eight's 11th-best single-game total last season); he added 79 yards on 14 carries and a 7-yard score against Colorado State; carried once for three yards vs. Oklahoma State; 5-73 vs. Kansas State including a season-best 46-yard TD; 2-27 vs. Missouri with a 25-yard score; 16-58 vs. Colorado; 5-16 vs. Kansas; and 7-35 vs. Iowa State. He had three carries of 25 yards or better on his initial season and one, 100-yard rushing day. In the Federal Express Orange Bowl, he came off the bench when Calvin Jones left the game in the second quarter with a shoulder injury, and dazzled the crowd with 13 carries for 64 yards and a touchdown. His first carry of the game was the second to last play of the third quarter, when he dashed up the right side for 16 yards. The first play of the fourth quarter, Phillips took it in untouched for a 12-yard touchdown run with 14:55 remaining, a score which brought the Huskers within two points at 15-13. On Nebraska's second to last drive, leading up to Byron Bennett's 27-yard field goal which put NU up 16-15 with 1:16 remaining in the title game, Phillips again got the call on the first play of the drive and went left for 17 yards. All but one of Phillips' 13 carries came in the fourth quarter.

At Baldwin Park HS: Phillips gained 1,752 yards rushing as a senior at Baldwin Park for Coach Tony Zane and was rated as the ninth-best high school player in the West in 1993 by national recruiting analyst Tom Lemming. He was one of three high school players unanimously named to the Best in the West list by the Long Beach Press-Telegram, as he had 250 yards receiving and scored a total of 25 touchdowns. In his two-year career, he rushed for nearly 3,000 yards, scored a total of 38 TDs, had 500 receiving yards and 140 tackles. Phillips was a two-time All-CIF first-team selection and earned All-San Gabriel Valley honors as a senior, as selected by the Los Angeles Times and was the San Gabriel Tribune Player-of-the-Year. Baldwin Park went 22-3-1 in Phillips' two years at the school, including a CIF Championship his junior year. Phillips also competed on the track team as a sprinter and long jumper.

Personal: The son of Lawrence and Juanita Phillips, he was born on May 12, 1975, in Little Rock, Ark. Last spring, Phillips was a volunteer speaker for the SPICE Program.

- Preseason No. 7 Fullback (Sporting News)
- 1994 Preseason No. 13 Fullback (Lindy's)
- 1993 Husker Co-Lifter-of-the-Year
- Holds the school record for Performance Index (2,844) among fullbacks
- Holds the school position record for Strength Index (1,156 points) with position records of 535 pounds in the squat and 374 pounds in the clean

Schlesinger returns to his starting fullback position where he was Nebraska's fifth-leading rusher last season and helped power the Huskers to a No. 3 final national ranking in rushing (287.9 ypg). Schlesinger has 64 career carries and has lost just one yard en route to 250 total rushing yards. An excellent athlete and blocker for the Husker offense, Schlesinger and outside linebacker Donta Jones were the 1993 Husker Co-Lifters-of-the-Year and while Jones won the honor in 1994, Schlesinger was one of five finalists. Schlesinger has scored an impressive 500 or more points on every strength and performance test and has run a 1.58 electronic 10-yard dash (this spring), a 4.70 40-yard dash (1993), has a 36-inch vertical jump and owns the position record for Performance Index at 2,844 points and the school position record for Strength Index at 1,156, the best mark on the team this spring.

1993: Cory Schlesinger took over fullback duties last year after backing up Lance Lewis in 1992. He finished as the fifth-leading rusher with 48 carries for 193 yards and one TD. He averaged 4.0 yards per carry and 17.6 per game. His career-long run was 16 yards vs. North Texas and his lone touchdown of the season was a 13-yard jaunt vs. Kansas State, when he rushed six times for 29 yards. His season high for both yards and carries was a 10 for 30-yard day against Colorado.

carried the ball at least once in every game, except for the Orange Bowl. Schlesinger also played a key role on special teams as he had five tackles. He played against Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl but didn't have any carries or tackles.

1992: After redshirting in 1991, Cory Schlesinger took his place as the alternate backup (along with Andre McDuffy) to senior starter Lance Lewis at fullback. In his first year playing for the varsity, Schlesinger carried the ball 16 times for 57 yards. He didn't lose any yards, averaged 3.6 yards per attempt, had a long run of nine yards vs. Utah and scored his only touchdown against Colorado on a 5-yard carry, his only rush on the day. He had a season-high four carries vs. Kansas (nine yards gained) and 14 yards vs. Utah (on two carries). A member of the Husker special teams, Schlesinger led all offensive players with nine tackles (four solo). Played in the 1993 Orange Bowl but didn't have any rushes.

1991: Schlesinger took a redshirt year in 1991.

1990: A scholarship recruit, Schlesinger started at fullback for the junior varsity and was that squad's second-leading rusher with 229 yards and two touchdowns in the five-game season. He also caught four passes for 42 yards.

At Columbus HS: A two-time all-state linebacker for Coach Dick Luebbe, Schlesinger also played fullback as a senior in 1989 and rushed for 1,514 yards and 23 touchdowns while topping the 100-yard mark in nine games. He led the Discoverers in tackles as a junior and senior, including 117 as a senior in 1989, when he was the state defensive player-of-the-year. Played with fellow teammate Joel Wilks (Hastings HS) and a group of Nebraska football all-stars in the Down Under Bowl in Sydney, Australia. He was a two-time state 189-pound wrestling champion and toured with an all-star wrestling team to Quebec, Canada.

Personal: The son of Gary and Joan Schlesinger, Cory was born June 23, 1972, in Columbus. He was a volunteer speaker at the 1993 Omaha Youth Rap Session. He has two brothers, Scott and Ross. He lists his hobby as driving in demolition derbies. Majoring in industrial technology, Schlesinger is slated to graduate this spring.

Yorba Linda, Calif.

(Anaheim Esperanza HS)

- 1994 All-America Candidate
- 1994 Preseason Hon.-Mention All-American (Street & Smith's)
- 1994 Preseason First-Team All-Big Eight (Lindy's)
- 1994 Preseason Most-Underappreciated List (Lindy's)
- Ranks No. 1 all-time at Nebraska in 20-yard Pro-Agility Point Total for offensive linemen (876 points, 4.18 time)

Brenden Stai (pronounced STY) was having an All-America season last year at right guard, a position vacated by All-American and Outland Trophy winner Will Shields, before he broke his leg in the Huskers' seventh game. He returned to action in time to play in the Orange Bowl and will be full speed and able to resume his starting role at right guard in 1994. Stai was a finalist for the 1994 Husker Lifter-of-the-Year award. He is the fastest of the starting offensive linemen with a 1.68 electronic 10-yard dash time and has a 5.05 40 time. Strong, he can bench 525 pounds, clean 385 and squat 654. Among offensive guards, Stai turned in the best performance index at the end of spring, scoring 2,287 and the best strength index at 1,418. Stai will contend for Big Eight and All-America honors in his own right and teamed with 1993 second-team All-American right tackle, Zach Wiegert, gives Nebraska an explosive right wall for the Husker running backs. Offensive line coach Milt Tenopir said that Wiegert and Stai are as good of one-two combination on one side he's seen in his 20 years at Nebraska.

1993: Stai began the year on a tear and was leading the team in "pancakes" (knock-down blocks) averaging 9.1 per game, through the first seven contests. The Huskers averaged 302.85 yards per game through seven games with Stai at right guard, but after he went out with a broken right fibula, the NU average dropped 41 yards per game.

Unfortunately for the offensive line, Stai and reserve center and No. 2 snapper Jon Pedersen both broke fibulas in the Missouri game (Oct. 23). Stai had his cast removed on Nov. 15, was on crutches another week, then in a walking boot until Dec. 6 when X-rays determined he could begin rehabilitation. He came back in time to play (but not start) against Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl. Stai helped the offense finish with a 287.9 rushing average, 38.3 points per game and 425.0 total offense yards, finishing third, fifth and 23rd, respectively, in the nation.

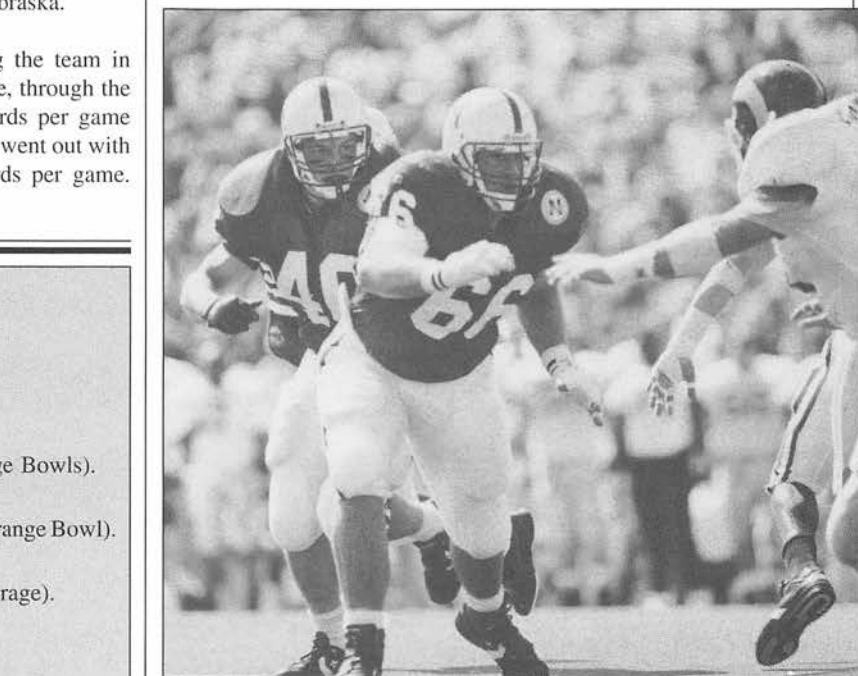

1992: An alternate with T.J. Slansky, Stai backed up Outland winner Will Shields at right guard. Stai played in seven games plus the Federal Express Orange Bowl vs. Florida State and helped the Nebraska ground assault rack up 328.2 yards rushing to finish the season with its third NCAA rushing title in four years, its eighth under Coach Tom Osborne.

1991: A reserve guard, Stai lettered after playing in four regular-season games on a line that helped Nebraska win its seventh NCAA rushing title in 12 years at 353.2 yards per game.

1990: A scholarship athlete, Stai redshirted in his first season at Nebraska.

At Esperanza HS: An All-Southern CIF offensive tackle selection for Coach Gary Meek, Stai also played defensive tackle and was voted his team's most valuable player. Selected to play in the California Shrine Bowl, he was also named the Empire League Lineman-of-the-Year. Also lettered in track and wrestling.

Personal: The son of Sharon Kelly and Chris Stai, Brenden was born March 30, 1972, in Phoenix, Ariz. He has one brother, Heath Stai. A criminal justice major, Stai will graduate this semester. This past year, Stai was a volunteer intern at the state probation office, and has been a volunteer speaker for the Ventures in Partnership Program, at Omaha Youth Rap Sessions and for the Friendship Home Footfest.

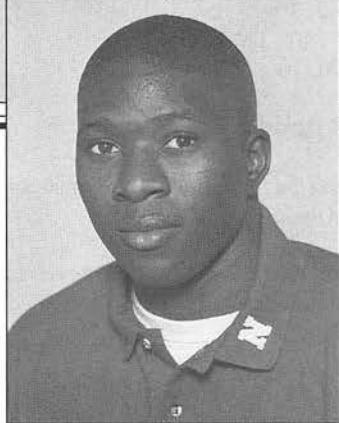

Senior Brenden Stai is an explosive offensive guard for the Huskers who will contend for national honors in 1994.

CORNERBACK

- 1994 Preseason No. 13 Cornerback (Lindy's)
- 1994 Fourth-Best Cornerback Dynamic Duo (Lindy's)
- 1993 Big Eight Co-Defensive Newcomer-of-the-Year
- Holds the Position Performance Index Record for Defensive Backs with 2,474 Points

After earning co-defensive newcomer-of-the-year honors from the Big Eight coaches last season, right cornerback Tyrone Williams (along with left cornerback Barron Miles) is one of two returning starters in the Husker secondary. A talented athlete, Williams is tied for second on the team with Abdul Muhammad in the 10-yard dash with an electronic 1.51. That's just .01 behind free safety Mike Minter and just .01 ahead of fellow cornerback Barron Miles. Williams is also second to Minter in the 40-yard dash with a 4.45 clocking, giving the Huskers one of their fastest secondaries in history. Williams, at 6-0, 185, has a 35-inch vertical jump and set a new Performance Index position record in 1994 winter conditioning with 2,474 points.

1993: As a first-year sophomore, Tyrone Williams quickly made a name for himself in the Husker secondary. When Nebraska returned just one starting defensive back from the 1992 team, Coach Osborne said that was an area of concern. But the newcomer from Palmetto, Fla., stepped in as a starter in just the fourth game of the season at right corner, and started seven of the last eight games at that position, thereby allowing John Reece to move to free safety. Williams was the Big Eight Co-Defensive Newcomer-of-the-Year as chosen by the coaches. He finished with the 10th-best tackle total on the team with 29 (14 solo), had two tackles for 4-yards lost, one forced fumble, three recoveries, three breakups and one interception for a 15-yard return (against Kansas State). His three fumble recoveries tied for the Big Eight lead.

Against Iowa State, Williams had four tackles and two fumble recoveries, which helped the Huskers to two quick scores and a 14-0 lead. On the opening kickoff, ISU fumbled and Williams recovered. On the Cyclones first play from scrimmage, Williams again recovered a loose ball. Nebraska converted both to scores with less than a minute and a half off the clock. Williams' best tackle day was seven against Kansas State and he also had six stops against two nationally-ranked teams in Colorado and Oklahoma. His lone interception came against Kansas State, when he picked off a Chad May pass at the NU 4 which led to a Byron Bennett field goal at the end of the first half. Williams had two tackles for loss against the Sooners and a fumble caused. In the 1994 Orange Bowl national championship game against Florida State, Williams had nine tackles (eight solo) and three pass breakups.

1992: Williams sat out the 1992 season.

At Manatee High School: Williams earned three letters in football, four in basketball and two in track at Manatee. He played I-back and defensive back for Coach Joe Kinnan at Class 5A (largest) Manatee High School. In 1991, Williams aided Manatee to a 12-1 record with fellow Husker Tommie Frazier leading the offense at QB. Williams also played with fellow Husker redshirt freshmen linebacker Justin Stephens and against cornerback Leslie Dennis (Dennis attended Southeast High in Bradenton).

Personal: The son of Louise Williams, Tyrone was born May 31, 1973, in Bradenton, Fla. He is majoring in human development and the family along with teammates Frazier and Barron Miles, in the summer of 1993, Williams helped save a neighbor's house from burning down.

11 MATT ADEN

ROVER

6-2 □ 200 □ Fr.
Omaha, Neb.
(Northwest HS)

Matt Aden has yet to play at Nebraska but has had more than his share of hard luck. He injured his right knee in the 1993 Shrine game and had to have arthroscopic surgery in August, 1993. Then on the first day of practice this spring, he suffered a lacerated liver, much like Abdul Muhammad's Orange Bowl injury, and missed all of spring drills. Even though he couldn't practice in the fall or spring, Aden is a talented athlete who is slated to back up Kareem Moss at rover.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Aden redshirted his first season due to a knee injury.

At Northwest HS: One of seven Nebraska natives in the 1993 recruiting class, Aden played free safety and wide receiver for Omaha Northwest and Coach Frank Hanel. Aden caught 24 passes for 693 yards and nine touchdowns in his first year playing football. He also rushed for two TDs (on nine carries) and had one 98-yard kickoff return for a score. On defense he recorded 78 tackles (44 solo) with five interceptions, five breakups and two fumbles caused. He set school records in season reception yards (693), longest kickoff return (98) and reception yards in a game (154). Aden earned first-team All-Nebraska by Omaha World-Herald (OWH) and first-team Super-State by the Lincoln Journal-Star (LJS) at defensive back. He was also named to the OWH all-metro team as a wide receiver. An honor roll student every semester in high school, Aden was named to the LJS Academic All-State team and was a senior class officer. Also a three-year starter for the Huskies' basketball team and four-year letterman in baseball.

Personal: The son of Harlan and Diane Aden, Matt was born Nov. 23, 1974. Aden is a general studies major.

1993: Alexander played in four games at Mike linebacker and had one tackle in the season opener vs. North Texas.

1992: Alexander saw limited action, but had no tackles.

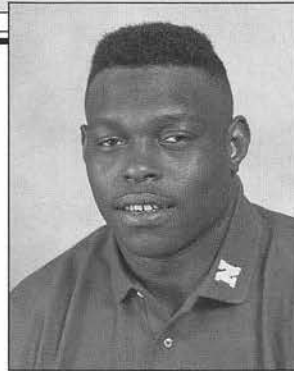

1991: A walk-on athlete, Alexander redshirted his second year.

1990: Alexander played linebacker for the JV football squad and recorded nine tackles (six solo) for the 4-1 team.

At Lutheran East HS: Alexander played fullback and linebacker for Lutheran East High School. He lettered three times in football and track.

Personal: The son of Wilma Harrison and Lee Alexander, Leonard was born in Detroit on July 1, 1971. A history major, Alexander is on schedule to graduate after the spring semester. His cousin Ken Alexander (Austin, Texas) was a senior for Florida State last year.

88 ERIC ALFORD

(Central HS)

A talented and strong athlete (6-2, 225), Eric Alford was one of two junior college signees in the 1993 recruiting class (along with Jason Jenkins). Alford chose not to redshirt and played in every game except Colorado last season at wingback. He made the switch to tight end in the spring to help fill the void left by seniors Gerald Armstrong and Trumane Bell. Osborne said Alford made a smooth adjustment and enters fall as a first-team tight end along with Matt Shaw. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Eric has great physical skills; speed, power, explosion and could have a great senior year."

1993: Alford finished the season with three receptions for 27 yards and no TDs. He had 2-17 in the season opener vs. North Texas, including his season-long catch of 14 yards, and 1-10 vs. Colorado State. Also had one punt return (against North Texas) for 13 yards. Played in the 1994 Orange Bowl vs. Florida State but did not have any receptions.

At Garden City (Kan.) Community College: Alford was an honorable-mention All-American by the Junior College Gridwire and was named to the SuperPrep Juco 100 list at Garden City (Kan.) Community College, the same school of Husker senior cornerback Kareem Moss. He was a split end, tight end, running back, defensive back and return specialist. In 1992, Alford caught 27 passes for 476 yards and seven touchdowns, carried the ball 46 times for 329 yards and four touchdowns, averaged 12 yards per punt return and 27 yards per kickoff return. In addition, he was a starter in the secondary as he helped lead Garden City and Coach Jeff Leiker to a 9-3 record, a conference championship and a ninth-place NJCAA final ranking and was the team's MVP in 1992. Alford was a 51-foot triple jumper and went 25-5 3/4 in the long jump at Garden City and averaged 12 points per game in basketball as a starter in 1992-93.

At Central HS: Helped lead High Point Central High School to a second-place finish in the conference as he averaged 205 yards per game as a halfback. Also played free safety and earned All-America and all-state honors. Lettered four times in football, basketball (averaged 30 points and 10 rebounds) and track.

Personal: A native of High Point, N.C., Eric is the son of Mary Alford and Curtis Johnson and was born Aug. 12, 1972. In 1993 he was a volunteer mentor at the Independence Center for Youth. Majoring in family science, Alford is on track to graduate after the spring semester. Alford likes to bowl and plays the violin. He has a daughter, Tasha.

70 ERIC ANDERSON

OFFENSIVE TACKLE

6-4 □ 295 □ Fr.
Lincoln, Neb.
(Southeast HS)

A redshirt freshman, Anderson missed most of spring with a stress fracture in his ankle and had a screw placed in the ankle to speed up the healing. He enters the fall as a backup to Zach Wiegert and Brady Caskey at right tackle.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Anderson redshirted his first year at Nebraska.

At Lincoln Southeast: Anderson played offensive and defensive tackle for 1992 state champion Lincoln Southeast and Coach Chuck Mizerski. A USA Today first-team Blue Chip and SuperPrep All-American, Anderson was a two-year all-state pick and was Super-State and All-Nebraska in 1992 by the Lincoln Journal-Star and the Omaha World-Herald as a defensive lineman. He was also the LJS All-Class Defensive Player-of-the-Year and the OWH honorary defensive captain. Anderson was a three-year starter while Southeast posted a 25-8 record in his final three years and won two-consecutive state championships. He led the team in tackles with 115 in 1992. Also a shot putter, Anderson placed in the top six at state in 1992. An "A" student, he was an honor roll member. At Southeast, Anderson was a teammate of fellow Husker Jon Hesse.

Personal: The son of Ivan and Sandra Anderson, Eric was born July 16, 1975. Anderson is majoring in construction management.

Nebraska's first scholarship recruit out of the state of Ohio in 15 years, an excellent athlete, Arnold redshirted in 1993 and enters the fall as a reserve right outside linebacker behind senior Donta Jones.

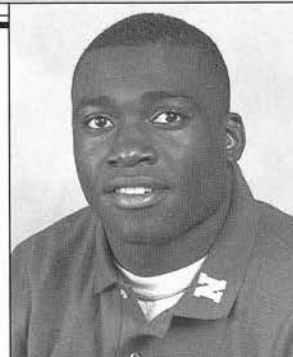

1993: A scholarship athlete, Arnold redshirted in 1993.

1992: Arnold sat out the 1992 season.

At Copley HS: Arnold was a two-way standout for Coach Don Borman at Copley High School. An All-Suburban (Cleveland) League linebacker, he also had 20 pass receptions and two touchdowns as a receiver. A standout sprinter on the Copley track team, he ran an 11-second 100 meters and a 23.3 in the 200, and threw the discus 152 feet. He was also a member of Copley's state-qualifying 200 freestyle relay swim team. Arnold chose Nebraska over Louisville, Michigan, Ohio State and Pittsburgh. Nebraska's last Ohio recruit was tailback Greg Whetsel of Ridgeway Ridgemont in 1977.

Personal: The son of Dwight and Sheila Roach, Arnold was born March 27, 1974 and is majoring in human development.

7 REGGIE BAUL

SPLIT END

5-8 □ 170 □ Jr.

Bellevue, Neb.
(Papillion-LaVista HS)

Reggie Baul (pronounced BALL) gives the Huskers incredible speed at receiver. He takes over the starting split end duties and will also be a member of Nebraska's punt return team in the absence of departed senior Corey Dixon. Baul has a 1.57 best outing in the 10-yard dash and has the fifth-best mark in the 40 with a 4.47. A member of the Huskers' "Itty Bitty Committee" of 5-9 and under receivers, Baul, Riley Washington, Brendan Holbein and Abdul Muhammad average 1.56 in the 10-yard dash, 4.53 in the 40 and a 33-inch vertical jump. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Reggie has excellent speed and possesses the quickest, surest feet that we've had at the wide receiver position. He has big play ability."

1993: Baul played in all 11 games in 1993 and started against UCLA when the Huskers opened in a spread formation. He had seven receptions on the season for 116 yards (16.6 yards/reception, 10.6 yards/game) and no scores. He had a season-best three catches (for 20 yards) against UCLA, 1-42 yards (season long) against Kansas State, 1-37 vs. North Texas, 1-11 vs. Texas Tech and 1-6 vs. Oklahoma State. After catching at least one pass in five of the first six games, he had none in the last five. Baul also had four kickoff returns for 110 yards (21.3 average), including a 40-yard return against Colorado State. He started the 1994 Orange Bowl and caught a tipped (by Clester Johnson) 34-yard touchdown pass with 5:59 remaining in the second quarter to give the Huskers a 7-3 lead over No. 1 Florida State. Originally a walk-on, Baul earned a scholarship in 1993.

1991: Baul sat out the 1991 season.

At Papillion-LaVista HS: Baul helped lead Papillion-LaVista to the 1990 Class A Championship title. Earned All-Nebraska honors by the Omaha World-Herald and Super-State by the Lincoln Journal-Star as a split end with 36 receptions for 812 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Personal: The son of James and Toni Baul, Reggie was born on April 19, 1973. He majors in human development and the family.

Benning and Clinton Childs are slated to back up sophomore Lawrence Phillips, but both Benning and Childs are proven backs who will see quality playing time. A talented athlete, Benning posts a 1.58 10-yard dash time and has a 35-inch vertical jump.

1993: One of three first-year players at I-back, Benning started the Texas Tech and UCLA games when Calvin Jones was out with a knee injury. He finished the season as the Huskers' fourth-leading rusher with 55 carries for 323 yards (sixth-highest NU total for a freshman) and four TDs. His 5.9 average per carry led the top rushers. Playing in 10 games, he averaged 32.3 yards per game with a long of 51 yards against North Texas and also had a 45-yard TD run against Texas Tech. Against North Texas, he carried eight times for 82 yards and a score, then rushed for a career-high 127 yards in his first start against Texas Tech (in place of injured starter Calvin Jones) on 19 carries with two touchdowns. His fourth TD was against Iowa State when he had 40 yards on seven carries, his third-highest total. He caught four passes for 27 yards and as a member of the top return team, ran back nine kickoffs, for 192 yards, including longs of 57 yards against Colorado State and 40 yards vs. Missouri. Also had one solo tackle. Sprained an ankle in early preparations for the 1994 Orange Bowl, but was able to play at game time. He came off the bench for the injured Calvin Jones in the second quarter and rushed five times for five yards. He returned two kickoffs for 39 yards, including a 37-yard return in the second quarter.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Benning redshirted in 1992.

At Omaha Northwest HS: A quarterback as a junior, Benning switched to I-back in 1991 and was the leading rusher in Nebraska with 1,596 yards and 21 touchdowns for Coach Frank Hanel at Omaha Northwest High School. An all-class, all-state selection, he was an honorable-mention All-American and was named captain of the all-metro team after leading Northwest to five wins, following a winless 1990 season. Included in his 1,548 rushing yards and 21 touchdowns his senior year (on 208 attempts) were 358 against Ralston (five TDs) and 272 against state runner-up Omaha Creighton Prep, in a season in which he tied a state record with nine-straight 100-yard games. Benning also averaged 24.1 yards on 14 kickoff returns, including 65- and 80-yard touchdowns, and averaged 15.1 yards on 10 punt returns, including a state-record 98-yard TD. He also lettered three times in baseball and once in basketball and earned all-state baseball honors. An honor student, Benning was his senior class president, a member of the National Honor Society and graduated in the top 10 percent of his class. Benning chose Nebraska over Iowa and Wyoming.

Personal: He's the son of Dr. Don, assistant superintendent of the Omaha Public Schools, and Dee Benning. Born on March 2, 1974, in Omaha, Benning has three sisters (Vicki, Tracy and Kym) and one brother (Don, Jr.). His sister, Vicki, is a reporter for the Boston Globe. His major is elementary education and he is a volunteer speaker at Omaha Youth Rap Sessions.

18 BROOK BERRINGER

QUARTERBACK

6-4 □ 210 □ Jr.

Letters: Two
Goodland, Kan.
(Goodland Prep HS)

Brook Berringer (pronounced BEAR-ring-er), returns for his junior season and will back up starting quarterback Tommie Frazier. Berringer lettered the last two years as a reserve even though he has fought a nagging elbow injury much of last season and last spring. At 6-4, 210, Berringer is the tallest of the Husker QBs, but is very mobile with a 1.58 10-yard dash and a 4.65 clocking in the 40.

1993: As a sophomore, Berringer passed for 222 yards as Frazier's backup. When Frazier suffered an ankle sprain on the first play of the season opener and left the game the next play, Berringer came in and performed like a seasoned veteran, leading the Huskers to a 76-14 win against North Texas. He connected on seven of seven attempts for 124 yards passing and a touchdown and rushed for two TDs on three carries. With the loss of fellow backup Tony Veland to a season-ending knee injury in game two, Berringer filled a crucial role. He played in 10 games (all except Oklahoma) and finished the year 17-27 passing (.630) for 222 yards, two TDs and one interception. He rushed 10 times for 15 yards and two scores with a long of 12 yards against Missouri.

1992: Berringer played in five games (Utah, Middle Tennessee State, Oklahoma State, Colorado and Kansas). He rushed three times for minus three yards and was 0-2 on pass attempts.

1991: A scholarship athlete, Berringer redshirted in 1991.

At Goodland HS: An all-state quarterback in Kansas' third-largest class (3A), Berringer completed 47 of 98 passes for 979 yards and 13 touchdowns in his last season. He was an all-conference selection in football and basketball. Goodland Coach Mike Johnson traditionally ran the wishbone set, but switched to a multiple offense to suit Berringer's talents. He was also named as an all-state defensive back Junior quarterback Brook Berringer will again back up Tommie Frazier in 1994. Last season, Berringer had 222 yards passing with two TDs.

LINEBACKER

6-1 □ 215 □ Sr.

Letters: One
Arlington, Neb.
(Arlington HS)

Clint Brown had a solid spring and enters the fall as Troy Dumas' backup at Sam linebacker.

1993: In his junior season, Brown played in three games and made one unassisted tackle against North Texas.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

1992: Brown played in one game and made one assisted tackle against Oklahoma State.

1991: A walk-on, Brown redshirted his sophomore season.

1990: Brown played with the Nebraska junior varsity team and in five games made eight tackles (one solo) including one for an 11-yard loss. Helped lead the team to a 4-1 record.

At Arlington HS: Brown played running back, linebacker, wingback, free safety and served as the punter for Coach Brian Moeller at Arlington. He helped lead his team to the state playoffs his senior year as he rushed for 888 yards and recorded 121 tackles. He earned all-state Class C-1 honors in football, and was honorable-mention all-state in basketball. He also lettered four times in track and placed third at state in the 400 meters, fourth in the 100 and fifth in the 200 as a senior. For his efforts, he was named the Arlington Athlete-of-the-Year.

Personal: The son of Michelle Brown and Tom Brown, Clint is majoring in secondary education/biology. He was born on July 25, 1971.

61 BRADY CASKEY

OFFENSIVE TACKLE

6-4 □ 290 □ Sr.

Letters: Two
Stanton, Neb.
(Stanton HS)

Brady Caskey enters the fall listed No. 2 at right tackle behind two-year starter Zach Wiegert, but could play either side.

1993: A backup at left tackle to All-Big Eight pick Lance Lundberg, Caskey played in nine games in 1993, missing the UCLA and Oklahoma State contests. He helped the Huskers lead the Big Eight and rank No. 3 in rushing at 287.9 yards per game while averaging 38.3 points and 425.0 yards in total offense per game. Suited up for the 1994 Orange Bowl, but did not play against Florida State.

1992: Caskey played in four games as a reserve right tackle with Joel Gesky, behind starter Zach Wiegert. Caskey aided the Huskers to their second consecutive rushing title, their 10th overall. He saw action in the Middle Tennessee State, Oklahoma State, Colorado and Kansas State games. Traveled with the team to the Federal Express Orange Bowl, but did not play.

At Stanton HS: A three-sport athlete, Caskey was a Class C-1 all-state offensive lineman for Coach Tom Kerkman, and won the C-1 state shot put championship. He lettered four times each in football and track, and three times in basketball.

Personal: A business administration major, he carries a 3.31 cumulative grade point average and is on track to graduate after the regular season in December, 1994. The son of Charles and Rae Caskey, he was born March 7, 1972, in Lincoln, Neb. He has two brothers (Chris and Drew) and two sisters (Dana and Blair).

Junior I-back Clinton Childs rushed for 96 yards last year, including one 12-yard touchdown run vs. Iowa State.

26 CLINTON CHILDS

I-BACK

6-0 □ 215 □ Jr.

Letters: One
Omaha, Neb.
(North HS)

Clinton Childs was one of three talented first-year players at I-back behind two-time All-Big Eight selection Calvin Jones last season. Childs and sophomore Damon Benning are outstanding I-backs who will be counted on to back up sophomore Lawrence Phillips in 1994. Childs boasts a 1.58 electronic time in the 10-yard dash, a 4.59 in the 40 and a 36-inch vertical jump.

1993: A first-year player for the Huskers, Childs, along with redshirt freshman Damon Benning, true freshman Lawrence Phillips and sophomore Jeff Makovicka, served as backups to junior Calvin Jones. Playing in five games, Childs carried 18 times for 96 yards with no yardage lost. He averaged 5.3 yards per carry and 19.2 yards per game with his only touchdown coming against Iowa State. He missed the Oklahoma State and Kansas State games with a sprained left ankle, re-sprained that ankle during Orange Bowl practices in Miami and did not play against Florida State. Had a season-best seven carries for 35 yards in the season opener vs. North Texas; 2-15 yards vs. Texas Tech; 3-15 yards vs. Colorado State; 4-29 yards vs. Missouri; and 2-1 yard against Iowa State. Also caught one pass for a five-yard TD against CSU.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Childs sat out the 1992 season.

At Omaha North HS: The leading rusher in Nebraska as a junior in 1990 with 1,428 yards, Childs ran for 1,495 yards as a senior for Coach Herman Colvin at Omaha North High School to finish behind fellow Husker I-back Damon Benning's 1,548. But Childs still laid claim to at least part of the rushing title as his 186.9-yard average in eight games topped Benning's 176.0 in nine games. Childs began his senior year with a Metro Conference-record 370 yards against Council Bluffs Abraham Lincoln, topping the old record of 367 by former Husker Calvin Jones of Omaha Central. He was a Blue Chip All-American and earned first-team all-state honors. Childs ran for 3,947 yards in four years, just off Jones' state Class A record of 3,965 in three years. Childs did not make recruiting visits other than to Nebraska. Childs was the state wrestling runner-up as a junior at 171 pounds and the gold medal 189-pound winner as a senior.

Personal: The son of Linda Childs, Clinton was born on May 27, 1974 and is majoring in human development.

17 SEDRIC COLLINS

FREE SAFETY

6-0 □ 190 □ Sr.

Letters: Three

Slidell, La.

(Slidell HS)

Collins enters fall camp as the backup free safety to Mike Minter. After having reconstructive knee surgery in 1992, Collins has proved he is back to full speed, recording his fastest time ever in winter conditioning with a 1.55 electronic 10-yard dash time, eighth best among the 1994 Husker team. Collins is the Huskers' second recruit out of Slidell, La., in recent years, following in the footsteps of his cousin, two-time All-Big Eight strong safety Reggie Cooper (1987-90). He wears Cooper's old No. 17 jersey. Collins is scheduled to be one of four Huskers who will compete with degree in hand.

1993: Collins lettered playing in five games as a backup to John Reece at free safety and recorded three tackles (one solo).

1992: Collins switched from cornerback to free safety in the spring and lettered as a backup to four-year starter Tyrone Byrd and Troy Dumas.

Playing in the first five games, he recovered a fumble and snatched his first career interception against Oklahoma State. Unfortunately, on that fourth-quarter pickoff, he injured his knee and was out for the season. He had reconstructive surgery on Oct. 27.

1991: Collins lettered as a reserve left cornerback, playing in four regular-season games and recording two assisted tackles.

1990: A scholarship recruit, Collins redshirted in his first year at NU.

At Slidell HS: A four-year starter in the defensive backfield for Coach Wayne Grubb, Collins started as a freshman alongside Cooper in 1986. Collins, who also played wingback, split end and tight end, recorded 53 total tackles as a senior in 1989, including 38 unassisted stops, had three pass interceptions (to give him 21 in his career) two fumble recoveries, returned a punt 83 yards for a touchdown and averaged 38 yards on kickoff returns. Helped Slidell to a 9-3 record and to the second round of the playoffs in 1989 in Class 4A, Louisiana's second-largest class. He was a two-time all-district performer and earned all-state honors as a senior. He also won the Class 4A 110-meter high-hurdle title in 14.41 seconds as a senior in 1990 after a runner-up finish as a junior with a time of 14.04.

Personal: A speech communication major, Collins is one of four Huskers who will have graduated prior to the season, earning his degree at the end of summer session. The son of Welbert and Sandra Collins, Sedic was born Oct. 15, 1971, in Bogalusa, La. He has a sister, Philicia. Plays the drums in his spare time and backed up Corey Dixon as they performed for grade school children during the 1992 Best of America Education week. He was a volunteer in the School is Cool Jam the last two years.

46 DOUG COLMAN

LINEBACKER

6-3 □ 240 □ Jr.
 Letters: Two
 Ventnor, N.J.
 (Ocean City HS)

Doug Colman enters the fall as the starting Mike linebacker, after playing behind Mike Anderson and Daren Williams (both graduated) last season. At 6-3, 240, Colman has good speed with an electronic 1.61 timing in the 10-yard dash.

1993: A backup to Mike Anderson and Daren Williams at middle linebacker, Colman played in every game in 1993 and recorded 11 tackles, including one tackle for a 1-yard loss against Colorado State. He set a season and career high with five tackles against Missouri. Colman played in the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl but did not have any tackles.

1992: After playing as a true freshman in 1992, Colman redshirted.

1991: One of three true freshmen (with safety Troy Dumas and wingback Abdul Muhammad) to letter for Nebraska in 1991, Colman was a reserve weak-side linebacker behind Mike Anderson, Ed Stewart and Paul Wightman. He was also a member of NU's special teams. Colman played in five games and recorded six total tackles, including three unassisted stops. Four of his tackles came against Colorado State.

At Ocean City HS: An all-state and All-South Jersey linebacker, Colman was named the South Jersey defensive player-of-the-year by the Philadelphia Inquirer and the Atlantic City Press, and a high school All-American by SuperPrep Magazine. He started at both linebacker and fullback, and was honored as the all-county offensive and defensive player-of-the-year while playing for a team coached by his father, Wayne, a former NFL player for Philadelphia and New Orleans. Averaged 15 tackles a game (135 total) and intercepted two passes as a senior in 1990. He ran for 1,100 yards and scored 11 touchdowns to lead his conference in rushing, caught 12 passes for 185 yards and returned nine kickoffs for 280 yards to account for nearly 1,500 yards in offense. He also ran a 51.4-second 400 meters in track.

Personal: The son of Wayne and Tonagee Colman, he has a brother, Wayne, Jr., and a sister, Tiffany. He was born June 4, 1973, at Somers Point, N.J. Majoring in pre-education, Colman enjoys surfing and is a lifeguard in the summer.

17 SCOTT DAVENPORT

I-BACK

5-6 □ 190 □ Sr.
 Rye Brook, New York
 (Port Chester HS)

Scott Davenport, a senior in 1994, has seen limited action the past three years and played on the Husker JV team in 1993, scoring on a 5-yard run against the Air Force JV. He totaled 12 carries for 71 yards against the Falcons. A walk-on, his best electronic 10-yard dash time is a 1.51, set in 1992. In 1993, Davenport played in three games and carried the ball four times for eight yards and no touchdowns. As a sophomore, Davenport played in four games and had one rush for three yards (against OSU) in 1992.

At Port Chester HS: Davenport was a running back and outside linebacker at Port Chester High playing for Coach Richard Albanizio. He totaled 2,500 yards in four years and earned all-county, all-league and all-section honors.

Personal: Scott and his wife Adrienne have two children, Maggie and John Scott II. A human development major, Davenport is on track to graduate in May, 1995. He was born on Feb. 9, 1972.

2 LESLIE DENNIS

CORNERBACK

5-8 □ 165 □ Fr.
 Bradenton, Fla.
 (Southeast HS)

Dennis, a redshirt freshman, enters the fall season listed as the No. 2 left corner behind returning starter Barron Miles. From Bradenton, Fla., Dennis is from the same hometown as NU junior quarterback Tommie Frazier, but attended Southeast High. At Southeast, Dennis played against Manatee, coming up against Frazier, junior Tyrone Williams and sophomore Justin Stephens. Dennis has excellent speed with a 1.55 electronic 10-yard dash and a 4.46 in the 40 (tied for third best on team). Although he's one of the smallest players on the team at 5-8, 165, he has a 31-inch vertical jump, can bench press 275 pounds and is a hard hitter.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Dennis redshirted his first year at Nebraska.

At Manatee HS: Dennis was named to the Premier List by Prep Sports Recruiting magazine. A first-team All-Florida defensive back in 1992 for Southeast Coach Paul Maechtle, Dennis was a two-time all-area pick. A two-year starter at cornerback, Dennis had 38 tackles, two interceptions, five breakups and one fumble recovery in 1992, and the last six games filled in for an injured tailback and rushed for 454 yards and five touchdowns. The Seminoles ranked fourth in the state at the end of the season, and in the Class 4A playoffs (second-largest class), were beaten in the opening round by eventual champion Ft. Myers, which was ranked fourth nationally at the time by USA Today. Southeast defeated defending 5A state champion Manatee High School, 14-9, in the last game of the regular season. A true speedster, Dennis was seeded second in the state 100-meter dash, had defeated former Florida State speedster Tamarick Vanover in the prelims with a 10.4 clocking, but false-started in the finals. He also defeated Vanover in the 200-meter dash as he finished third at the 1992 state meet. A solid student, Dennis posted over a 3.0 GPA (on a 4.0 scale) in high school.

Personal: The son of Eugene and Rosa Dennis, Leslie was born March 21, 1975 and is majoring in general studies.

75 CHRIS DISHMAN

OFFENSIVE TACKLE

6-3 □ 305 □ Soph.
Letters: One
Cozad, Neb.
(Cozad HS)

Chris Dishman enters the fall season as Rob Zatechka's backup at left tackle. He has fully recovered from arthroscopic shoulder surgery from an injury suffered in the second half of spring ball.

1993: A backup to Lance Lundberg at left tackle, Chris Dishman played in eight games last season and helped the Huskers rank third nationally in rushing at 287.9 yards per game, fifth in scoring at 38.3 yards per game and 23rd in total offense at 425.0 yards per contest. Dishman suited up but did not play in the 1994 Orange Bowl.

1992: Dishman was one of two in-state scholarship offensive linemen, along with Jeff Ogard, in 1992, both of whom redshirted.

At Cozad High School: A two-way standout and an all-class, all-state performer for Coach Gene Hunting at Cozad High School, Dishman powered the Haymakers to a 12-1 record and the state Class B title in 1991. At Cozad, he was a teammate of fellow Huskers Brendan Holbein, Matt Hunting and Casey Macken. Dishman was also a standout wrestler, having posted a 33-4 mark as a junior, and in track, where he threw the shot put 55-6 1/2 and the discus 159 feet. As a senior wrestler, he reached the state Class B finals, where he lost to fellow Husker Jeff Ogard of St. Paul. Dishman chose Nebraska over Colorado State, Iowa State and Kansas State.

Personal: The son of Grant and Irma Dishman, Chris was born Feb. 27, 1974. He is majoring in general studies. He is a volunteer mentor in the Teammates program.

41 PHIL ELLIS

LINEBACKER

6-2 □ 225 □ Jr.

Letters: Two
Grand Island, Neb.
(Grand Island HS)

All-Big Eight Honor Roll

After sitting out a redshirt season in his first year on campus, Ellis lettered as the backup weak-side linebacker behind Ed Stewart and Troy Branch in 1992 and 1993. After missing all of spring drills with a navicular fracture in his left wrist which required surgery, Ellis will back up Doug Colman and Leonard Alexander at Mike linebacker this season. A 3.0 student of biological sciences, Ellis was named to the Phillips 66 All-Big Eight Honor Roll in 1993.

1993: A reserve weak-side linebacker, Ellis played in all 11 games in 1993. He had 13 stops (six solo) and one pass breakup (against Colorado State). He had a season- and career-high three tackles against Texas Tech in Nebraska's second game of the season. A biological sciences major, Ellis was named to the 1993 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll.

1992: Ellis played in every regular-season game except Oklahoma, backing up Ed Stewart and Troy Branch at weak-side linebacker. He recorded seven tackles (one solo).

1991: A scholarship recruit, Ellis redshirted his first year at NU.

At Grand Island HS: Ellis was an Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal-Star all-class, all-state selection, and was the state defensive player-of-the-year. Ellis totaled 105 unassisted and 108 assisted tackles in his final two prep seasons, with 18 sacks and 10 fumble recoveries. He also intercepted four passes for 129 yards and a touchdown, and started at offensive guard for the state's second-ranked team. He also lettered in track. At Grand Island, Ellis played for former Husker player and coach Ken Fischer, who lettered at Nebraska in 1948 and 1949.

Personal: The son of Marge Davis, he was born Jan. 26, 1973, in Onawa, Iowa, and has one brother, Scott. Ellis majors in biological sciences, was a speaker at the 1992 National American Education Week and a volunteer speaker in 1993 for the VIP Speakers Bureau.

Jason Fisher is a senior transfer from Western Kentucky and in his final year will serve as a backup to Troy Dumas at Sam linebacker. After redshirting in 1992, Fisher switched from I-back to linebacker and played in three games in 1993, recording two assisted tackles. He did not play at Western Kentucky.

At Overton HS: Fisher played strong safety and running back for Coach Doug Mulligan at Overton High School in Antioch, Tenn. He rushed for 1,064 yards on 87 carries and earned second-team all-state honors as a senior.

Personal: The son of Dorothy Fisher and Robert Fisher, Jason was born Dec. 15, 1971. Majoring in sociology, Fisher is on track to graduate after the spring semester.

87 MARK GILMAN

TIGHT END
 6-3 □ 240 □ Jr.
Letters: Two
Kalispell, Mont.
(Flathead HS)

Gilman will help fill the void left by departed seniors Gerald Armstrong and Trumane Bell. A two-year letterman, Gilman enters fall camp as a second-team backup to Matt Shaw and Eric Alford. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Mark had a very good spring practice and has really improved his blocking. He's big and strong and has excellent catching ability."

1993: Gilman played in five regular-season games plus the 1994 Orange Bowl. He caught his first career reception in 1993, a 10-yard catch against Missouri.

1992: Gilman played in six games in 1992 at tight end, but did not have any receptions. Although he traveled to the Orange Bowl with the team, he did not play against Florida State. He competed for the track team in the spring of 1993 and placed ninth in the shot put at the Big Eight Indoor Championships with a 50-1 1/4 mark. His personal best in the shot was 51-10 at the Nebraska Open, good for fourth place. He did not compete during the outdoor season.

1991: A scholarship athlete, Gilman redshirted his first year as a Husker.

At Flathead HS: An all-state quarterback for Coach Bob Raeth as a senior, Gilman was recruited as a tight end by Nebraska. Gilman set a Flathead High single-season passing record with 1,596 yards and was also a receiver and the team's punter for three years. For his efforts, he was a two-time second-team all-state selection. A fine all-around athlete earning a school-record 11 varsity letters as a prep, he was also a three-time all-state performer in basketball, averaging better than 20 points per game his last two seasons and was named the large class state tournament MVP as a senior as his team placed second. In track, Gilman threw the shot put 60-5 1/2 and the discus 186-2 feet and finished second in both events at the 1991 state meet. One of only five Montana preps in history to better 60 feet in the shot put.

Personal: The son of Thomas and Beverly Gilman, Mark majors in pre-education and posts a 3.06 cumulative grade point average. He has been a Friendship Home Footsteps volunteer and a volunteer speaker at the 1993 Omaha Youth Rap Session. He was born on July 5, 1972.

O'Fallon, Ill.
(Althoff Catholic HS)

In 1994 Hardin will see playing time as Donta Jones' backup at right outside linebacker.

1993: Hardin lettered as he played in four games as a backup outside linebacker. He had three assisted tackles, two were against North Texas including one for a 1-yard loss. He suited up for the Orange Bowl but did not play. Hardin received a UNL student-athlete recognition award and was named to the Honorable-Mention Grades & Glory Academic team.

1992: As a redshirted freshman, Hardin played in two games and recorded three tackles, two were solos, one was for a 3-yard loss, and one caused a fumble. All were against Middle Tennessee State.

1991: A scholarship athlete, Hardin redshirted his first year.

At Althoff Catholic HS: Hardin was a two-way starter as an offensive and defensive tackle for Coach Glenn Schott at Althoff High School in suburban St. Louis. He led the team to the state championships in 1990 and 1991 and finished his senior year with 105 tackles including 60 solo stops, five fumble recoveries and 15 quarterback sacks. He earned all-state honors. He lettered four times in football, once in basketball, twice in track and once in wrestling.

Personal: The son of Delores Hardin, Luther was born on Nov. 16, 1973. He is majoring in business administration.

Higman enters fall camp as a backup outside linebacker to Donta Jones on the right side. An excellent student, Higman was named to the 1993 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll and will graduate after the spring semester with a degree in mechanical engineering.

1993: A backup at right outside linebacker to All-American Trev Alberts, Higman played in nine games and finished with four tackles, including one 13-yard sack against Texas Tech. He was named to the Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll with a 3.68 grade point average in mechanical engineering.

1992: Higman played in five games and had one unassisted tackle to earn his first letter.

1991: A walk-on, Higman redshirted his second year at Nebraska.

1990: Higman played outside linebacker on the last Husker jayvee team which went 4-1-0 in 1990. He had 12 tackles (two solo) and two sacks for 13-yards lost.

At Akron-Westfield HS: A linebacker and offensive guard for Coach Craig Parkinson, Higman helped lead Akron-Westfield to the state quarterfinals his junior year, for the first time in school history. He aided his school to a 16-2 two-year record with nine shutouts, as he tallied a school-record 130 tackles as a junior and added 94 as a senior. Higman earned first-team all-state honors and was also the class valedictorian.

Personal: The son of Harold and Sue Higman, Jerad was born Oct. 1, 1971, in Akron, Iowa and has two brothers, Joel and Justin. A mechanical engineering major, Higman posts a cumulative 3.68 grade point average. □ Ranks No. 1 all-time at Nebraska in 20-yard Pro-Agility Run (3.90) and first among tight ends for Pro Agility Point Total (888 points)

Erich Hohl (pronounced HOLE) enters the 1994 season as a backup tight end, along with Mark Gilman, to co-starters Matt Shaw and Eric Alford. He tore a posterior cruciate ligament in his right knee the second day of spring drills, then went through non-operative rehabilitation before pulling a hamstring and missed the rest of spring practice. An excellent athlete, Hohl set a new tight end record for his time (3.90) and points (888) in the agility run during winter conditioning. His time was an all-time best for all Huskers since testing began. Hohl saw action in all the home games the past two years, but did not catch a pass. In 1991, Hohl redshirted. As a freshman walk-on, Hohl played in all five Husker JV games and caught one pass for 20 yards. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Erich missed most of the spring drills due to injury, but has good quickness, strength and explosion. His hard work ethic has improved his pass catching ability."

At Gering HS: Playing outside linebacker and tight end, Hohl earned all-region honors on defense and all-conference on offense, leading Gering to the Class A football finals his senior year.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

Personal: The son of Michael and Cynthia Hohl, Erich was born Jan. 2, 1972, in Del Rio, Texas. A mechanical engineering major, Hohl posts a 3.6 GPA and will graduate in May of 1995. He is a member of Tau Beta Pi and Pi Tau Sigma engineering honor societies. Hohl has enlisted in the Navy, has an E3 status and will report to Officer Candidate School in June then report to Orlando, Fla., to work full time and be a part of the Navy Nuclear Engineering Program.

Letters: One
Cozad, Neb.
(Cozad HS)

Brendan Holbein (pronounced HOLE-bine) is a talented split end who will be counted on this fall. Holbein and junior Brett Popplewell will back up starter Reggie Baul, but will see ample playing time. He boasts excellent speed with a 1.56 electronic time in the 10-yard dash, to go along with his 33.5-inch vertical jump. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Brendan has great strength and tenacity for a receiver. He can play both split end and wingback. He has become a very valuable perimeter blocker, has good speed and is sure-handed. Brendan could see considerable playing time this fall."

1993: Holbein played in four regular-season games last season and caught one pass for 18 yards against Missouri. He also played against North Texas, Colorado State and Iowa State.

1992: A walk-on, Holbein redshirted his first year at NU.

At Cozad HS: At Cozad, Holbein was a teammate of fellow Huskers Chris Dishman, Matt Hunting and Casey Macken. There he played running back and cornerback for Coach Gene Hunting and helped lead the Haymakers to the Class B state title in 1991. As a junior, Holbein rushed for 1,648 yards and 22 touchdowns. He bettered that in 1991 with 2,740 rushing and 38 TDs, averaging 10.6 yards per carry. His senior rushing total was the best for all classes in a single season. He was awarded the Bobby Dodd Award from the Touchdown Club of Atlanta for being selected the top running back in Nebraska. A two-time all-state athlete, he was also named the honorary captain on The Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska team and was that paper's offensive player-of-the-year. He also intercepted four passes and recovered three fumbles as a senior. Holbein earned 12 letters, four each in football, basketball and track. He turned down a scholarship at Iowa State in order to walk on at Nebraska.

Personal: The son of Dr. Oliver Holbein and DeAnn Holbein, Brendan was born on Nov. 28, 1973. He is a criminal justice major who helps his father at the veterinary clinic in Cozad in the summers.

51 BILL HUMPHREY

Letters: Two
Libertyville, Ill.
(Liberty HS)

Bill Humphrey had one of the best spring camps of any Husker and with the absence of Aaron Graham, the Huskers' returning starting center (who missed spring ball due to injury), Humphrey pushed his way to a first-team ranking with Graham entering the fall. Majoring in criminal justice, Humphrey is one of 11 Husker student-athletes who will have their degree in hand by the end of the season.

1993: Humphrey switched to offense during spring camp and played in five regular-season games, including North Texas, Texas Tech, Colorado State, Missouri and Iowa State and helped lead the Huskers to a No. 3 national rank in rushing with 287.9 yards per game and a No. 5 rank in scoring with a 38.3 average.

1992: Humphrey saw action in four games as a backup nose tackle to David Noonan. He had six tackles (two solo), including 2-15 yards lost, one 9-yard sack, one fumble caused and two quarterback hurries.

1991: Humphrey redshirted in 1991.

1990: A scholarship recruit, Humphrey was the starting nose guard on the Nebraska junior varsity team and was the squad's fourth-leading tackler with 21 total stops--the most for a defensive lineman. He was also second on the team in tackles for loss (five for 11 yards) and in sacks with two, and had one fumble caused, a fumble recovery and a pass breakup.

At Libertyville HS: A two-way performer, Humphrey earned all-area and All-North Suburban (Chicago) Conference honors in leading Coach Dale Christensen's team to the second round of the Illinois state playoffs. As a defensive tackle, he had 54 unassisted tackles, including 13 for loss and four sacks. Humphrey earned four letters in football and played five different positions. He also lettered in baseball.

Personal: The son of Bill and Rose Humphrey, he was born March 17, 1972, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He has a brother, Steve, and a sister, Anne.

Hammonton, N.J.
(Dodge City, Kan. CC)
(Oakcrest HS)

Jason Jenkins enters fall camp as a backup defensive tackle behind returning starter Terry Connealy.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Jenkins redshirted his first season at NU.

At Dodge City (Kan.) Community College: One of two junior college recruits to commit to the Huskers in 1993 (along with tight end Eric Alford of Garden City CC), Jenkins graduated with an associate of arts degree in three semesters with nearly a 3.0 GPA (on a 4.0 scale). He was able to enroll at Nebraska in January, 1993 and got an extra spring camp in with the Huskers. Jenkins was Dodge City (Kan.) Community College's starting defensive tackle in 1991 and 1992, playing for Coach Steve Simpson. His second year, he led the team with 58 tackles (21 solo), three quarterback sacks, eight tackles for loss and caused two fumbles. He was a two-time selection to the first-team All-Jayhawk Conference team. Listed among the Top 100 juco recruits in the country, Jenkins helped lead the Conquistadors (the same college of 1992 Husker senior cornerback Kenny Wilhite) to a 6-5-1 record and a berth in the RC Cola Bowl.

At Oakcrest HS: Jenkins lettered in wrestling, football and baseball at Oakcrest High School in Mays Landing, N.J. Playing for Coach Dennis DiDonato, he earned all-conference honors as a nose tackle and second-team honors as a fullback. He played against fellow Husker junior Doug Colman, who attended Ocean City in Ventnor, N.J. He was a district champion in wrestling and placed second at state, losing only in the championship round and set a school record with 24 pins en route to a 32-1 record.

Personal: Jason is the son of Paul and Sandra Jenkins and was born July 26, 1973. He has eight brothers and three sisters. Majoring in physical education and human development, he likes to play the drums.

33 CLESTER JOHNSON

WINGBACK

5-11 □ 210 □ Jr.
Letters: One
Bellevue, Neb.
(West HS)

- Holds school position records in the squat (489 pounds) and in the clean (307 pounds).

Johnson enters fall camp as Abdul Muhammad's backup at wingback, but will see plenty of playing time. A former quarterback, Johnson has great field sense and outstanding size (5-11, 210), speed (electronic 1.59 10-yard dash) and a 33-inch vertical jump. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Clester had an excellent sophomore season. He was probably our most-improved receiver and has developed into a great leader with his work ethic. He has great strength, which manifests into explosive blocking ability. Clester has become a clutch-hands receiver."

1993: Johnson made the traveling squad and with his size, speed, blocking prowess and improved hands, worked his way up the depth chart. He played in all 11 games as Muhammad's backup and caught eight passes (fifth on the team) for 96 yards and one TD. He averaged 12.0 yards per reception and 8.7 per game and had one carry for a 2-yard gain. He caught two passes in the opener vs. North Texas for 28 yards; one against Texas Tech for an 18-yard gain; had 2-12 vs. Colorado State; 2-24 vs. Missouri with a 7-yard touchdown; and 1-14 vs. Kansas. Also had one rush for a 2-yard gain against Oklahoma State. Prior to the bowl trip, he sprained his ankle in a pickup basketball game the first week of December, but was able to return to action in time for the Federal Express Orange Bowl against Florida State. Johnson caught three passes for 30 yards from Tommie Frazier in the championship game and tipped a 34-yard pass into the hands of teammate Reggie Baul who scored to give NU a 7-3 lead in the second quarter.

1992: As a redshirted freshman, Johnson played in four regular-season games as a reserve wingback. Although he did not have any receptions, Johnson had one solo tackle as a member of the special teams.

1991: A scholarship recruit, Johnson redshirted his first year at NU.

At Bellevue West HS: An all-state quarterback for Coach John Faiman at Bellevue West, Johnson threw for 3,757 yards in three years while rushing for 712 yards and scoring 36 touchdowns. He was the Lincoln Journal-Star and Omaha World-Herald Prep Athlete-of-the-Year, a two-time all-stater and the Gatorade Nebraska Player-of-the-Year as a senior and earned SuperPrep Magazine All-America honors. Also played linebacker in high school and was a teammate of NU basketball standout Erick Strickland. Lettered eight times total in football, wrestling and track. He won the Gold Medal at the state track meet in the 300-meter hurdles and finished second in the 110-meter high hurdles as a junior, then reversed those results as a senior by winning the all-class Gold in the 110 hurdles with a time of 14.41 and finishing second in the 300 hurdles in 38.23 which ranked as the seventh-fastest time in Nebraska prep history. In wrestling, Johnson was the 1991 Class A 189-pound runner-up as a senior.

Personal: On Feb. 18, 1973, Johnson was born in Memphis, Tenn. His guardians are Ontee and Ellen Biggs. He has two brothers, Sylvio Johnson and Daryl Morris. A sociology major, Clester is an active volunteer with the Omaha Youth Rap Sessions and the Teammates programs.

 Letters: Two
 Brainard, Neb.
 (East Butler HS)

Makovicka (pronounced MACK-oh-vick-uh) heads into his junior season as the Huskers' backup fullback behind Cory Schlesinger. A versatile athlete, Makovicka played both I-back and fullback the past two years, but will concentrate solely at fullback in 1994. Strong at 5-10, 210, Makovicka posts an electronic 1.58 10-yard dash, a 33-inch vertical jump and can bench press more than 300 pounds. He is one of two Huskers on the three-deep who played eight-man football in high school along with starter Terry Connealy.

1993: Makovicka played in all 11 games last season and had 22 carries for 165 yards and three TDs for a 7.5 average per carry and 15 yards per game. He also caught one pass for four yards and had two tackles as a member of Husker special teams. He rushed five times for 35 yards vs. North Texas; 2-38 and a career-long 30-yard TD vs. Texas Tech; a career-high 7-62 vs. Colorado State with a 22-yard TD; 1-2 vs. Oklahoma State; 6-25 vs. Missouri with a 1-yard score; and 1-3 vs. Iowa State. He also caught one pass for a 4-yard gain against Oklahoma and had two solo tackles on special teams including one for a 5-yard loss. In the 1994 Orange Bowl against Florida State, Makovicka carried twice for seven yards.

1992: A reserve I-back, Makovicka played in seven games as a redshirt freshman and traveled to the Federal Express Orange Bowl but did not play against Florida State. He carried the ball 11 times for 45 net yards, losing just one yard for a 4.1 average per play.

1991: A walk-on, Makovicka redshirted his first year as a Husker.

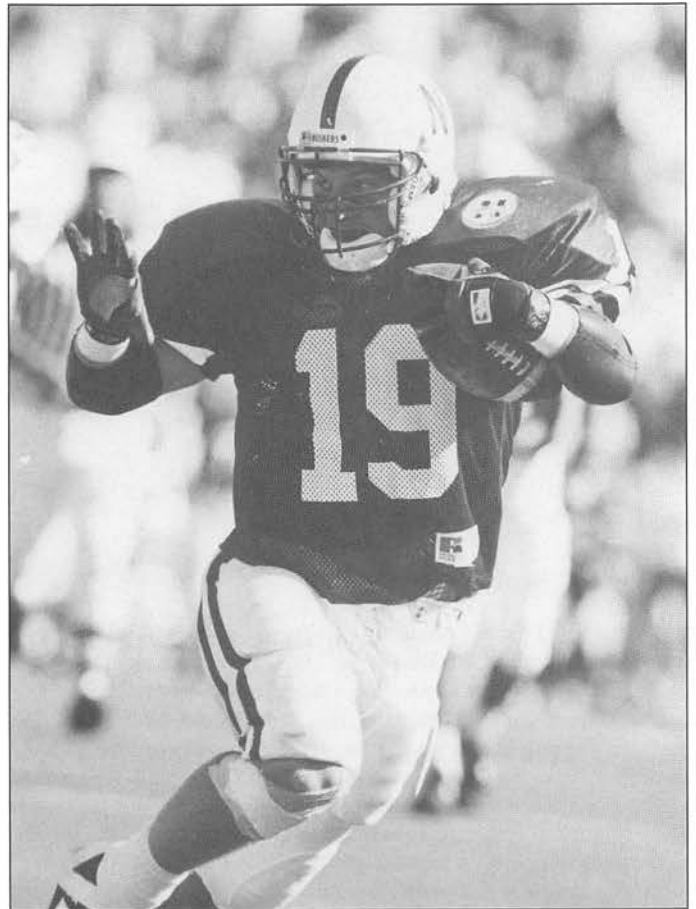

At East Butler HS: Playing for Coach Dave Struebing, Makovicka was an I-back and linebacker for the 1989 and 1990 D-1 state championship teams. He rushed for 1,850 yards in 1989 and amassed 4,000 yards in his four-year career. He was a two-year all-state player, set three state playoff records, broke two Eight-Man All-Star Game records and rushed for 1,000-plus yards in two different seasons.

Personal: Born in Rochester, Minn., on Sept. 24, 1972, Jeff is the son of John and Connie Makovicka and has three brothers (Joel, Justin and Jordan) and one sister, Jenny. Joel will be a walk-on freshman for the Huskers this fall. Jeff majors in biological sciences and was a volunteer speaker for the National American Education Week and the Omaha Youth Rap Session in 1993 and 1994.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER
 6-2 □ 245 □ Sr.
 Wahoo, Neb.
 (Neumann HS)

A fifth-year senior, Martin will serve as one of Dwayne Harris' backups at left outside linebacker. He played with the Husker junior varsity in 1990 and recorded seven tackles (four solo). After redshirting in 1991, Martin has served a backup role at outside linebacker in 1992 and 1993. Last season, Martin played in four games, but did not have any tackles.

At Neumann HS: Playing for Coach Tim Turman (Husker quarterback Matt Turman's father), at Neumann, Martin earned all-state honors his junior and senior year. He was first or second on the team in tackles his last two years, and finished first in career stops and 10th in career rushing yards. He also lettered once in basketball and four times in track.

Personal: The son of Patrick and Beverly Martin, John was born Feb. 24, 1972. Majoring in history, Martin is expected to graduate in August, 1995.

42 ED MORROW

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER

6-4 □ 230 □ Soph.

Ferguson, Mo.
(St. Louis McCluer HS)

Ed Morrow enters his sophomore season as a backup left outside linebacker.

1993: Morrow served as a backup outside linebacker and played in three regular-season games against North Texas, Colorado State and Iowa State. He recorded three tackles (two solo) including one 17-yard sack. Both his solos and the sack were against the CSU Rams.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Morrow redshirted his first year at NU.

At McCluer HS: A prep Parade All-American for veteran Coach Mike Mueller at McCluer High School, Morrow had six interceptions and 155 tackles (115 solo) as a junior, then had four interceptions and 140 tackles (90 solo) as a senior linebacker, despite missing two games at mid-season after undergoing arthroscopic knee surgery. In one playoff game, he intercepted three passes, blocked a punt, recovered a fumble and had 14 tackles. A two-time, big-school all-state performer in football, he was also a standout center for McCluer's No. 1-ranked basketball team and was a member of the academic honor roll in 1992. Picked Nebraska over Arkansas, Colorado, Missouri, Oklahoma, Southern Cal and Tennessee.

Personal: Born on Jan. 28, 1974, Ed is the son of Blondell and Willie Morrow. He has two brothers and nine sisters. His high school teammate, Rod Marshall, is a sprinter on the Nebraska track team. Morrow majors in sociology and is a gifted speaker to youth. On Dec. 23, 1993, Morrow and teammates Mike Minter, Toby Wright, John Reece and Ernie Beler took time out of their practice schedule for the Orange Bowl to speak to kids in the Dade County projects about staying in school and developing good role models.

29 KAREEM MOSS

ROVER

5-10 □ 190 □ Sr.

Letters: Two
Spartanburg, S.C.
(Garden City, Kan. CC)
(Spartanburg HS)

After backing up Barron Miles at left corner last season, Kareem Moss will be the Huskers' starting rover in 1994. Last year, that position was covered by second-round draft pick Toby Wright, who was backed by Mike Minter. However, Minter moves to free safety this spring, a position also vacant after the departure of John Reece, a fourth-round pick in the NFL draft. Extremely talented athletes, both Moss and Minter are capable of playing virtually any position in the secondary. After returning punts with senior Corey Dixon last season, Moss is the No. 1 punt returner for 1994.

1993: After gaining experience his first year at Nebraska in 1992, Moss served as a backup to Barron Miles at left corner in 1993. He played in all 11 games and was a member of NU special teams. He had seven tackles on the season (five solo), one pass breakup and a team season-long 42-yard interception return, both against Colorado State. He had a season-high two tackles, twice (vs. Kansas State and Missouri). Listed with Corey Dixon on the No. 1 punt return team, Moss had 11 returns in 1993 for 122 yards with a 52-yard career- and team season-long against North Texas. Moss played in the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl against Florida State and had one solo tackle.

1992: One of three first-year players in the Husker secondary (joining Barron Miles and Toby Wright), Moss was the backup at right corner to junior starter John Reece. He played in all 11 games and tallied 13 tackles, 10 of them solo. He played against Florida State in the Federal Express Orange Bowl, but did not have any tackles.

At Garden City (Kan.) CC: Moss saved a year of eligibility for Nebraska as he redshirted as a freshman at Garden City in 1990, the same school as fellow Husker tight end Eric Alford (1991, 1992). Playing for Coach Brian McNeely in 1991, Moss was leading the Jayhawk Conference in punt and kickoff returns when he broke his leg at mid-season. He was considered one of the top defensive backs in the league. After rehabilitating his broken leg, Moss ran for the Garden City track team and posted a 10.5 best in the 100 meters and a 21.6 in the 200. He chose Nebraska over Arkansas, Georgia and Kansas State.

At Spartanburg HS: Moss was an all-state defensive back at Spartanburg (S.C.) High School. His senior season, he caught six interceptions and scored four touchdowns, one on a 70-yard fumble return, one on an interception and two on long kickoff returns. On the year, he returned 14 kicks for 540 yards. He aided his team to a sixth-place finish in the state, then turned his attention to track where he was second in the 1990 state high school track meet in the 200-meter dash, fifth in the 100 meters, and aided his 4 x 100-meter relay team to a gold medal and the 4 x 400 to a fifth-place finish. His best times included a 10.48 mark in the 100 meters, a 21.4 in the 200 and he helped his team to a 41.4 time in the 4 x 100-meter relay.

Personal: A speech communication major, Moss is on track to graduate at the end of the spring semester. An active volunteer, Moss led elementary children in the Best of America School is Cool Jam this spring and was a spokesperson for the VIP Speakers Bureau. The son of Karen Moss Watson, Kareem has a daughter Kareena Tinise, two brothers and a sister. He was born July 16, 1972.

 San Antonio, Texas
 (John Marshall HS)

Noster (sounds like Foster) is expected to push for playing time at Sam linebacker behind senior starter Troy

Dumas and senior backup Clint Brown. At 6-3, 215, he sports excellent speed with an electronic 1.56 10-yard dash time and a 4.64 in the 40.

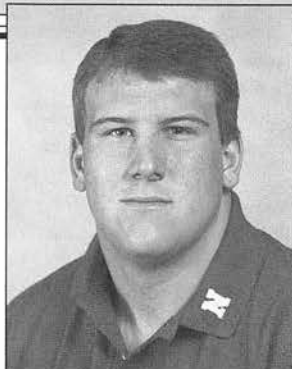

1993: A scholarship athlete, Noster redshirted his first year.

At John Marshall HS: Noster made the Texas Top 100 recruit list, was a two-time all-district pick and earned honorable-mention all-state honors as a senior. In 1992, Noster had 93 tackles (56 solo) in eight games for Coach David Visentine at John Marshall. He intercepted two passes, had four breakups and forced two fumbles. Also the team punter, Noster had a 40.2 average. A three-year letterman, Noster started the last two years at OLB, and helped lead the Rams to the Class 5A (largest class) state championship game his junior year and a 20-6 two-year record. His last two years, he totaled 241 tackles, four interceptions and 10 quarterback sacks. He also lettered two years in track as a sprinter and was a regional qualifier in the 200, 400 and as a member of the sprint-relay team. An excellent student, Noster posted a 3.31 GPA (on a 4.0 scale) while taking advanced chemistry, physics and calculus. Noster had originally committed to Baylor.

Personal: Born on Dec. 31, 1974, Sean's parents are Trina Noster and Wayne Noster. He is an undeclared major.

97 JEFF OGARD

DEFENSIVE TACKLE
 6-6 □ 290 □ Soph.
 St. Paul, Neb.
 (St. Paul HS)

Ogard (pronounced OH-guard) enters the fall as a backup defensive tackle to Christian Peter and Scott

Saltsman but will contend for playing time after a solid spring. At 6-6, 290, he is the Huskers' biggest tackle.

1993: Ogard played in four regular-season games against Colorado State, Missouri, Iowa State and Oklahoma, but did not have any tackles.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Ogard redshirted his first year in Lincoln.

At St. Paul HS: A two-way all-state lineman for Coach Russ Baker at St. Paul High School, Ogard was an all-class selection at offensive tackle and a Class B pick at defensive tackle, where he recorded 79 tackles for a 6-3 team in 1991. A three-sport standout for the Wildcats, Ogard was a two-time Class B state champion both as a heavyweight wrestler and as a 57-4 shot-putter. Chose Nebraska over Kansas State and Oklahoma.

Personal: The son of Roger and Annette Ogard, Jeff was born on Sept. 1, 1973. He is undecided on a major.

98 JEFF OLSEN

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER
 6-2 □ 210 □ Soph.
 Letters: One
 Grant, Neb.
 (Grant HS)

Following an excellent spring, Jeff Olsen, along with Jared Tomich, will back up Dwayne Harris at left outside linebacker. At 6-2, 210, Olsen has good speed. He had four sacks in four scrimmages this spring.

1993: Olsen sprained an ankle three games into the season but was able to play in four games including North Texas, Kansas State, Missouri and Iowa State. He totaled two tackles and one quarterback hurry.

1992: A walk-on athlete, Olsen redshirted his first year.

At Grant HS: Played defensive tackle and tight end for Coach Marlin Terwilliger at Grant High School. Along with fellow Husker Ryan Terwilliger, Olsen helped lead his team to state championships in 1988, 1989 and 1990. He earned all-state honors in 1989 and 1990.

Personal: The son of Keith and Doris Olsen, Jeff was born on Nov. 25, 1973. An accounting major, he boasts a 3.40 cumulative GPA.

52 AARON PENLAND

LINEBACKER
6-1 □ 215 □ Jr.
Letters: Two
Jacksonville, Fla.
(University Christian HS)

A Jacksonville, Fla., native, Aaron Penland will serve as a reserve at Will linebacker, backing up senior All-America candidate Ed Stewart and Ryan Terwilliger.

1993: Penland served as a backup at weak-side linebacker and played in seven games. He had four tackles on the season (one solo), one each against North Texas, Colorado State, Iowa State and Oklahoma. Penland played in the 1994 Orange Bowl but did not have any tackles.

1992: Penland played in eight games in 1992 and made five tackles.

1991: A walk-on, Penland redshirted in 1991.

At University Christian HS: Playing linebacker and center for Coach Robbie Pruitt at University Christian, Penland was a first team all-state center as a junior and a first-team all-state linebacker as a senior. He helped lead his team to championship titles in 1987 and 1989, to a regional championship in 1988 and to a state runner-up finish in 1990. He recorded 130 tackles as a junior and 168 as a senior.

Personal: The son of Dave and Cynthia Penland, Aaron was born on May 22, 1973. A business administration major, Penland posts a 3.07 cumulative GPA. His brother Matt is a student assistant coach with the Husker squad. Aaron and Matt also have two older brothers, David and Thad.

69 STEVE OTT

OFFENSIVE GUARD
6-4 □ 275 □ Jr.
Letters: Two
Henderson, Neb.
(Henderson HS)

□ 1993 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll

Steve Ott teams with Joel Wilks as the No. 1 left guard for the Huskers this fall. The only open position on the line the Huskers will have one of their better lines and certainly one of their most experienced.

1993: Ott lettered as a sophomore, playing in six regular-season games (North Texas, Texas Tech, Colorado State, Oklahoma State, Missouri and Iowa State). He did not play in the Federal Express Orange Bowl. He helped lead the Huskers to a No. 3 final ranking in rushing with 287.9 yards per game.

1992: Ott played in four regular-season games on the Husker offensive line and helped NU lead the nation in rushing at 328.2 yards per game. He earned his first varsity letter.

1991: A scholarship athlete, Ott opted for a redshirt season.

At Henderson HS: Ott was a two-time all-state selection and earned Lincoln Journal-Star Super-State honors as an offensive tackle for Coach Galen Kronhofman at Henderson High, the school of former Husker scholarship punter John Kroeker (1986-87-88). A three-time all-conference pick, Ott also played nose guard and inside linebacker. He earned 10 prep letters while competing in football, basketball and track. He qualified for the Nebraska state high school track meet in both the shot put and discus and finished third in the Class C shot with a throw of 52-9 1/2 as a senior.

Personal: The son of Walt and Marlene Ott, Steve was born on Aug. 6, 1972 and has four brothers. He majors in pre-medicine and posts a cumulative 3.47 grade point average. He is a volunteer mentor for the Husker Teammates program, a speaker for the SCIP Drug Free Program and a volunteer at Husker Career Night.

57 JASON PESTERFIELD

DEFENSIVE TACKLE

6-3 □ 260 □ Sr.

Letters: Two
Pauls Valley, Okla.
(Pauls Valley HS)

- 1993 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll

Pesterfield, a former walk-on, enters the fall season even with Larry Townsend, as the No. 2 defensive tackle behind senior starter Terry Connealy. With a 3.12 cumulative GPA in marketing, Pesterfield will be one of 11 Husker seniors who will have their degree by the conclusion of the fall semester.

1993: Played in five games as the backup to Kevin Ramaekers and David Noonan, but did not have any tackles.

1992: Pesterfield earned a scholarship prior to the season. He played in four games and lettered as a backup at right tackle to Bruce Moore and Kevin Ramaekers and recorded three tackles (one solo).

1991: After playing with the jayvee squad in 1990, Pesterfield redshirted.

1990: A walk-on, Pesterfield played defensive tackle for the Husker jayvee squad and was eighth on the team in tackles with 18 stops (five solo), with two tackles for 5-yards lost, one sack for 3-yards lost, one fumble recovery and one pass broken up.

At Pauls Valley HS: Pesterfield was an all-district athlete for Coach Tim Reynolds. He played defensive end and offensive guard and had 70 solo tackles his senior year including 16 sacks. He was a two-year member of his school's honor roll and in 1990 was the FCA Student-Athlete-of-the-Year. Played in the 1990 Oklahoma All-Star Game. Pesterfield earned three letters each in football, basketball and track as he placed second in the state shot put and was an all-district basketball player in 1989 and 1990.

Personal: The son of W.C. and Linda Pesterfield, Jason will celebrate his 23rd birthday the day Nebraska opens the season against West Virginia in the Kickoff Classic (Aug. 28). He has a brother, Walt and a sister, Ginger. Majoring in marketing, Pesterfield posts a 3.12 cumulative grade point average.

55 CHRISTIAN PETER

DEFENSIVE TACKLE

6-2 □ 285 □ Jr.

Letters: One
Locust, N.J.
(Middletown South HS)

Christian Peter came on strong at the end of the 1993 season and enters the 1994 campaign as the No. 1 defensive tackle replacing graduated senior Kevin Ramaekers. At 6-2, 285, Peter is 25 pounds lighter than he was at this time two years ago. He has good speed, and incredible strength as evidenced by his 460-pound bench press and a 550-pound mark in the squat. Christian's brother Jason (6-4, 275), who redshirted last season, will serve as his older brother's backup in 1994.

1993: In 1993, Peter served as Terry Connealy's backup at nose tackle after David Noonan moved from nose to defensive tackle to back up Kevin Ramaekers when Billy Wade injured his knee following the regular season. Peter played in all 11 games and recorded seven tackles (three solo). He came on strong at the end of the season after redshirting in 1992 and sitting out in 1991. He was called upon in the Oklahoma game as Connealy and Noonan both left the game with injuries. He responded with a career-high four tackles (three solo), including one for a 4-yard loss. Peter played in the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl against Florida State and had two tackles (one solo).

1991: Enrolled full time, but sat out the 1991 season.

At Middletown South HS: Peter was an all-state tackle as a junior member of Coach Bob Generelli's 9-0 team in 1989, his only year of organized football. Due to transferring schools as an underclassman, Peter was ineligible his senior year. Christian's brother Jason, attended and played at Middletown South, then attended the Milford Academy his final year.

Personal: Brother Jason is a redshirt freshman tackle who will serve as a backup at Christian's position. Their youngest brother, Damian, will be a freshman at Notre Dame in 1994. The son of Mary and Hubert Peter, Christian and Jason also have a sister, Ashley, six. Majoring in human development, Christian was born Oct. 5, 1972. He has served as a volunteer speaker for the SPICE Program.

95 JASON PETER

DEFENSIVE TACKLE

6-4 □ 275 □ Fr.

Locust, N.J.
(Milford Academy)

Jason Peter joins his brother Christian on the Husker defensive line this season after redshirting in 1993. Jason, at 6-4, 275, will serve as backup to his brother Christian (6-2, 285) who will assume a starting role this season in place of 1993 graduate Kevin Ramaekers at defensive tackle.

1993: Peter, a scholarship athlete, redshirted in 1993.

At Milford Academy: Jason Peter attended Middletown South his first three years, then went to Milford Academy in Milford, Conn., a prep school made up of students 18, 19, and 20 years old. He played defensive and offensive tackle for Milford Academy, and was one of the most sought-after linemen in 1993. He was a SuperPrep Magazine All-American and considered the top recruit in the Northeast by the same publication (he visited Washington, Syracuse, Georgia Tech and Miami). In 1992 for Milford, he recorded 116 tackles (29 solo), had nine sacks and returned a blocked punt for a TD. He was team captain, earned All-America honors and was rated as the nation's 10th-best lineman. Milford, coached by Jeff Bevino, won a school-record nine games in 1992, even while playing Division I college junior-varsity squads such as Army and Navy, and saw 23 of its players sign letters-of-intent in 1993. As a junior, Peter was an all-state defensive tackle for Coach Bob Generelli at Middletown South, the school he attended in 1989-91 and had 110 tackles (30 solo), eight sacks and five breakups, leading his team to the state title in 1990.

Personal: The son of Hubert and Mary Peter, his older brother Christian is the Huskers' starting defensive tackle. His younger brother Damian will be a freshman at Notre Dame in 1994. He has a six-year-old sister Ashley. Born on Sept. 13, 1974, he majors in business.

SPLIT END

6-0 □ 205 □ Jr.

Letters: Two
Melbourne, Australia
(Carey Grammar HS)

Popplewell enters the fall season as the No. 2 split end, along with Brendan Holbein, behind junior Reggie Baul. All three will see increased playing time with the graduation of Corey Dixon. Popplewell could also see time at wingback, where he began the season last year. Popplewell has traveled the greatest distance to come to school in Lincoln as he hails from Melbourne, Australia. Popplewell served as a backup return man to Dixon in 1993, he could see time on the punt return team again and is penciled in as the Huskers' holder for 1994, replacing David Seizys. A strong perimeter blocker, he is the biggest of the top four split ends (6-0, 205) and has excellent speed with an electronic 1.56 in the 10-yard dash. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Brett has great hands and has dramatically improved his knowledge of American football. One of the most unselfish players on the team, Brett is very versatile and could play both split end and wingback."

1993: Popplewell played in nine games in 1993 at split end, rotating with Corey Dixon and Reggie Baul. He caught one pass for 14 yards against North Texas in the season opener. He did not play against Oklahoma State and sat out the Iowa State game with a knee injury. As a return man, Popplewell was third on the team in punt returns with three for 18 yards, including a long of 10 vs. Colorado State when he had two returns for 16 yards. He also had one kickoff return against Texas Tech.

1992: Popplewell lettered after playing in seven games for the Huskers as a reserve wingback.

1991: A walk-on, Popplewell redshirted in his first year as a Husker.

At Carey Grammar Prep School: Popplewell earned two letters in football, three in track, four in tennis and four as a member of his school's Australian Rules football team. In his career as a wide receiver, he caught 101 passes for 2,602 yards and 38 touchdowns, leading his team to the state title in 1990 and 1991. He earned All-Victorian and All-Australian honors and was the Victoria Player-of-the-Year in 1990. Following his final year at Carey Grammar Prep School, Popplewell attended and played for Lincoln Pius X for one year.

Personal: The son of Gary and Pam Popplewell, Brett was born in Melbourne, Australia, on May 12, 1972. His younger brother Craig plays Australian Rules Football. Brett majors in accounting.

65 BRYAN PRUITT

OFFENSIVE GUARD

6-1 □ 255 □ Jr.

Letters: One
Midlothian, Ill.
(St. Laurence HS)

□ Ranks No. 1 all time at Nebraska in the 10-yard Dash for offensive linemen (1.66)

Pruitt enters the fall listed as the No. 2 right guard behind senior starter Brenden Stai. He has the best electronic 10-yard dash time ever put up by an offensive lineman at 1.66.

1993: Pruitt served as a backup at right guard to Brenden Stai and Ken Mehlin in 1993. He played in seven regular-season games and aided the Huskers to a No. 3 national ranking in rushing with a 287.9 average. NU also averaged 38.3 points per game and 425.0 total offense yards to rank in the top 25. He did not play in the Orange Bowl.

1992: Pruitt played in two games in 1992 (Oklahoma State and Kansas) as a reserve offensive guard. He traveled to the Orange Bowl but did not play.

1991: A walk-on athlete, Pruitt redshirted his first year at NU.

At St. Laurence HS: A defensive tackle for Bob Padjen, Pruitt lettered two years and was the St. Laurence MVP his senior year. He also won the Chicago Catholic League shot and discus events his senior year and earned three letters in track.

Personal: The son of Roy and Geri Pruitt, Bryan has a sister Jamie and a brother Roy. He majors in criminal justice. Pruitt was born Dec. 7, 1971, in Omaha, Neb.

74 SCOTT SALTSMAN

DEFENSIVE TACKLE
6-2 □ 255 □ Soph.
Wichita Falls, Texas
(Rider HS)

Saltsman enters the fall season listed as the backup defensive tackle to Christian Peter. Saltsman had his left knee scoped after spring ball in 1993, then reinjured the knee on Oct. 20, during practice. He did, however, play in two games after the injury. He posted his fastest times ever in winter conditioning, but when the knee problem re-occured this spring, he had his lateral meniscus repaired, but there was no ligament damage. He should be completely healthy for the 1994 season.

1993: Saltsman played in five games in 1993, including North Texas, Colorado State, Oklahoma State, Missouri and Iowa State. He had one assisted tackle on the season. Saltsman did not play in the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Saltsman redshirted in 1992.

At Rider HS: Named to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's Texas Top 100 List, Saltsman had 89 tackles and 10 quarterback sacks for Coach Wayne LeBleu and Wichita Falls Rider High School in 1991, despite sitting out two mid-season games (both losses) because of a knee sprain. Saltsman, who had 27 career sacks, helped lead Rider to a 9-2 record and to the Class 5A playoffs for the first time in nine years. At Rider, he was a teammate of NU redshirt freshman offensive guard Aaron Taylor. He also played first base and pitched for the school's baseball team, earning four letters. Selected Nebraska over Arizona State, Miami (Fla.), Oklahoma and Pittsburgh.

Personal: The son of Jim and Nola Saltsman, Scott was born on Oct. 22, 1973, in Flint, Mich. He has two younger brothers, Steven and Michael. Majoring in marketing, Saltsman posts a 3.08 cumulative grade point average.

37 DARREN SCHMADEKE

CORNERBACK
5-8 □ 180 □ Jr.
Letters: One
Albion, Neb.
(Albion HS)

Darren Schmadeke (pronounced Sha-MED-eh-key) enters fall camp as the backup right cornerback to returning starter Tyrone Williams and Eric Stokes.

1993: Schmadeke played in three games at left corner, after switching from wingback in the spring, behind Barron Miles and had one unassisted tackle against North Texas.

1992: Played in two games as a wingback, but did not have any receptions.

1991: A walk-on athlete, Schmadeke redshirted his first year.

At Albion HS: Schmadeke lettered 11 times at Albion, four in football and track, two in wrestling and once in basketball. Played running back, free safety, linebacker and punted for Coach Arnold Johnson. He rushed for 1,900 career yards and recorded 61 tackles (49 solo). He was injured as a senior and missed four games but earned all-conference and all-state honors as a running back in 1989. Set the school record in the 100-meter dash at 10.44 and won state in the C-1 100 and 200 meters and was a member of the school's championship 4 x 100-meter relay. Schmadeke was a National Honor Society member, the president of his junior class and earned honorable-mention all-state honors in wrestling.

Personal: The son of Ralph and Debbie Schmadeke, Darren and his twin brother Damon (walk-on squad member in 1993) were born in Ventura, Calif., on Feb. 5, 1973. A veterinary science major with a 3.05 cumulative grade point average, Darren worked in a veterinary clinic last summer. The Schmadeke's great grandfather, Adam D. Kohl, was a member of NU's 1921-22 football team and a great uncle, Lloyd Schmadeke, was a pitcher for the baseball team lettering in 1937-38-39.

28 BRIAN SCHUSTER

FULLBACK
5-11 □ 210 □ Soph.
Fullerton, Neb.
(Fullerton HS)

Schuster had a solid spring camp and emerged as the No. 3 fullback. He will back up starter Cory Schlesinger and Jeff Makovicka this fall.

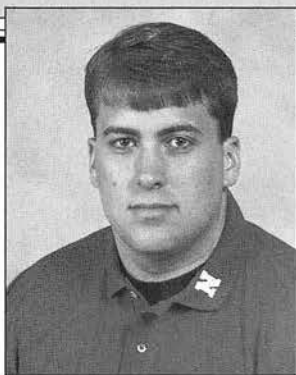

1993: Schuster played in one game and recorded his lone carry, a 7-yard gain against North Texas.

1992: A walk-on athlete, Schuster redshirted his first year.

At Fullerton HS: Schuster played running back and linebacker for Coach Pat Larsen at Fullerton and helped lead his team to the Class C-2 state semifinals in 1990. He rushed for over 3,600 yards in his career, including 1,831 as a junior and 1,520 as a senior. He also earned three letters in basketball and four in track while making the honor roll every quarter with a 3.7 cumulative grade point average.

Personal: The son of Nancy Folden and Mike Schuster, Brian was born on Sept. 19, 1973. He is majoring in physical education. He is the cousin of former Husker quarterback Gerry Gdowski (1987-89).

85 MATT SHAW

TIGHT END
6-3 □ 235 □ Sr.
Letters: Two
Lincoln, Neb.
(Northeast HS)

All-Big Eight Honor Roll

Shaw enters the fall season as one of the Huskers' first-team tight ends along with Eric Alford. Shaw will be one of 11 Husker seniors who will have their degree by the conclusion of the fall semester. He was a finalist for the 1994 Husker Lifter-of-the-Year award as he improved his 10-yard time from 1.71 to 1.61, his 40 from 5.04 to 4.90, his 20-yard Pro-Agilty run from 4.32 to 4.01 and his vertical jump from 24 to 32.5 inches. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Matt is quiet, soft-spoken, yet tenacious and determined. He has a fantastic work ethic and leadership qualities and has developed his skills. Matt was a valuable run-blocking ace as a junior, particularly in goal-line and short-yardage situations."

1993: Shaw served as a second-team tight end behind Gerald Armstrong and Trumane Bell in 1993. He played in every game including the 1994 Orange Bowl and started one, against Kansas State, when Armstrong was out with a hamstring injury and NU opened in a double tight end set. With a 3.75 GPA in biological science, Shaw was named to the 1993 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll.

1992: Shaw served as a backup tight end in 1992 and although he did not catch any passes, he played in eight games and had one solo tackle on special teams and earned his first letter.

1991: A walk-on, Shaw redshirted in 1991.

1990: As a tight end for the Husker jayvee team, Shaw caught three passes for 76 yards and two touchdowns.

At Northeast HS: Shaw was a teammate of 1993 Husker defensive tackle David Noonan at Northeast while playing for Coach Bruce Reed. Shaw earned two letters in football playing safety, wide receiver and tight end. He also earned two letters in basketball and one in baseball.

He played for the Rockets state runner-up basketball team in 1990 and made a three-quarter court shot in the state title game which put him in the spotlight, including national television networks.

Personal: Shaw is the son of David and JoAnne Shaw. He has two older brothers, Rick and Steve. Born on Sept. 14, 1971, in Lincoln, Shaw majors in biological sciences and posts a 3.75 cumulative grade point average. He is a two-year volunteer mentor for the Husker Teammates program.

12 TOM SIELER

PLACE-KICKER
6-5 □ 205 □ Sr.
Letters: Three
Las Vegas, Nev.
(Chaparral HS)

Sieler (pronounced SEE-ler) handled the Huskers' kickoff duties last season and served as the backup place-kicker to senior Byron Bennett. He is the heir apparent for place-kicking duties this season even though the senior from Nevada has yet to attempt a field goal. Sieler is 16-17 in career PATs, missing only his first collegiate attempt in 1991.

1993: Kicked off for the Huskers last season and served as the backup to Byron Bennett for place-kicking duties. He was 2-2 on PATs (one against North Texas, one against Iowa State) and had no field goal attempts. He had one tackle on special teams during the season and one assisted tackle in the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl, where he handled kickoff duties for the Huskers, all except the final kick of the game.

1992: The backup place-kicker to two-year starter Byron Bennett, Sieler kicked in seven games. He did not have any field goal attempts but hit on six-of-six PATs in 1992 to continue a streak of eight PATs made 1991.

1991: Sieler was eight of nine on PATs, missing only his first attempt. He did not have any field goal attempts.

1990: A walk-on athlete, Sieler redshirted in 1990.

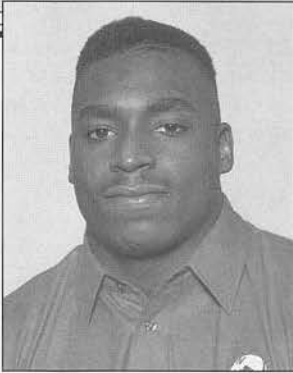

At Chaparral HS: Sieler lettered four times for Coach Bobby Johnson at Chaparral High School as a kicker. He made 34 of 35 PATs and 13 of 16 field goals with a long of 51 yards. He earned all-state honors as a senior.

Personal: The son of Cliff and Anne Sieler, Tom was born Feb. 11, 1972. He majors in economics and is on track to graduate in August, 1995. He is active in community activities, including the Friendship Home Footfest, the Omaha Youth Rap Sessions and as a mentor for the Husker Teammates program.

Tom Sieler is expected to take over the Husker place-kicking duties this fall.

47 MARVIN SIMS

I-BACK
 5-8 □ 185 □ Soph.
 Apple Valley, Minn.
 (Apple Valley HS)

After redshirting his first season, and missing most of his second with a knee injury, I-back Marvin Sims had a solid spring and appears to be back to full speed. He enters the fall behind fellow sophomores Lawrence Phillips and Damon Benning and junior Clinton Childs, but will push for playing time. Although just 5-8, Sims has the best vertical jump of anyone on offense (fifth best on team) with a best of 36.5 inches.

1993: Sims was unable to compete after he suffered a left knee injury in the spring which required major reconstructive surgery. He returned to practice in mid-October without contact and played in two of the last five regular-season games, including Missouri and Iowa State but did not have any carries. He did have one solo tackle on special teams.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Sims redshirted.

At Apple Valley HS: A Parade All-American and a two-time all-state running back for Coach Paul Miller, Sims ran for 1,500 yards as a junior in 1990 and 1,100 as a senior at Apple Valley High School, leading the suburban Twin Cities school to a combined 20-3 record the last two years in Minnesota's largest class. A standout sprinter, he was second in the state as a senior in the 100-meter dash. He earned three football letters and four in track. Sims turned down visits to Iowa, Michigan State, Wisconsin and several other schools.

Personal: The son of Linda and Adolph Hill, Marvin was born on July 29, 1974, in Minneapolis. He is majoring in human development and family.

graft surgery on his pelvic bone. He enters the fall healthy and ready to see playing time as the No. 2 left cornerback behind returning starter Tyrone Williams. Stokes, at 5-11, 175, has good speed and a 35.5-inch vertical jump.

1993: A redshirt freshman, Stokes played in every game except the Colorado State contest when he was sidelined with a knee injury. He completed his first season with nine tackles (six solo). He didn't waste any time putting his name in the NCAA statistics as he picked off a Mitch Maher pass in Nebraska's season opener against North Texas and returned it 34 yards to the Nebraska 49-yard line in the fourth quarter. Nebraska converted the turnover into a score. He had a season-high two tackles three times in 1993, against North Texas, Kansas State and Missouri. His lone breakup of the season was against Texas Tech. He was injured and did not play in the Orange Bowl.

1992: A scholarship recruit, he sat out the year as a redshirt.

At Lincoln East HS: A two-time all-state team captain for Coach Lee Zentic at Lincoln East High School, Stokes was an all-state player in the secondary for two years and earned Lincoln Journal-Star Super-State honors as a senior in 1991. Also a standout running back for the Spartans, he holds school rushing records for a single season (1,203) and a career (2,309). A preseason SuperPrep All-American, Stokes showed versatility as he played I-back, wingback, free safety, corner and strong safety. He was one of two hometown recruits in the 1992 Husker recruiting class, along with linebacker Jon Hesse of Lincoln Southeast. Also played with Husker sophomore Jon Zatechka and senior Rob Zatechka. Stokes earned a total of seven letters at East, including three in football and two each in basketball and track.

Personal: The son of Leroy and Ann Stokes, Eric was born Dec. 18, 1973, in Hebron, Neb. He has one sister, Kim. An English major, Stokes is a volunteer speaker for the VIP Outreach Program.

Stokes was a SuperPrep All-American as a defensive back at Lincoln East High School where he set several of the school's rushing records. He has been hampered, in his brief career as a Husker, by numerous injuries. In 1993, he missed most of spring drills with a hamstring pull, in the fall he missed one game with a knee strain, had sore ribs following the Missouri game, then began having trouble with his hip. He missed the entire spring camp again this year, but had successful

67 AARON TAYLOR

OFFENSIVE GUARD
 6-1 □ 290 □ Fr.
 Wichita Falls, Texas
 (Rider HS)

Taylor emerged from spring ball as a second-team left guard behind Joel Wilks and Steve Ott. Although just a redshirted freshman, he enters fall as one of Nebraska's top five guards.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Taylor redshirted his first year at NU.

At Rider HS: A three-year starter at Rider High in Wichita Falls, Texas for Coach Wayne LeBleu, Taylor was first-team all-state as an offensive lineman and second-team all-district as a punter and also played fullback and nose guard. He averaged 40.7 yards per punt in 1992 and rushed for two touchdowns and one two-point conversion in short-yardage, goal-line situations. The Raiders went 5-5 in 1992 and made the Class 5A (largest) playoffs the last two years. At Rider, Taylor was a teammate of fellow Husker defensive tackle Scott Saltsman, who is a redshirted sophomore this season. He is also a friend of Aaron Graham, the Husker starting center from Denton, Texas. Taylor grew up in Germany and did not play football until his freshman year, but became a starter as a sophomore. He also qualified for regionals his senior year in the shot put with a best throw of 56-10.

Personal: The son of Wayne and Deanna Taylor, Aaron was born on Jan. 21, 1975. He majors in agribusiness.

91 RYAN TERWILLIGER

LINEBACKER

6-5 □ 220 □ Soph.

Letters: One
Grant, Neb.
(Grant HS)

Ryan Terwilliger enters his sophomore season as the No. 2 Will linebacker behind senior All-America candidate Ed Stewart. With excellent speed for his size (6-5, 220), Terwilliger has a 1.63 electronic 10-yard dash time and the fourth-best vertical jump on the team at 37 inches.

1993: Terwilliger played in six games as a reserve weak-side linebacker behind Ed Stewart and Troy Branch. He made two tackles, both in the season opener against North Texas.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Terwilliger redshirted his first year at Nebraska.

At Grant HS: Playing for Grant High School (formerly called Perkins County) in Class C-1 (Nebraska's third-largest class), Terwilliger earned all-class, all-state honors in 1991 as a defensive end/outside linebacker, and was named the C-1 defensive player-of-the-year in 1991. As a junior in 1990, he was C-1 all-state and second-team all-class all-state as a tight end. On offense, Terwilliger split time between tight end and running back, and in his last two years, rushed for 1,794 yards, caught 27 passes for 682 yards, and scored 40 touchdowns. On defense, he had 133 tackles as a junior and senior, despite an injury-plagued senior year. He played his high school football for his father, Coach Marlin Terwilliger, and was also a standout on Grant's basketball team. Was a teammate of fellow Husker Jeff Olsen and was a member of the National Honor Society.

Personal: The son of Marlin and Barbara Terwilliger, Ryan was born on May 31, 1973. He is a pre-education major and posts a 3.36 cumulative grade point average.

93 JARED TOMICH

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER

□ Position Performance Index
Record with 2,663 points

Tomich (pronounced TOM-ich) is a redshirted sophomore entering the 1994 season, originally a walk-on, he earned a scholarship prior to the season. Tomich was impressive this spring with four sacks in one early scrimmage and three more in the spring game and is listed as Dwayne Harris' backup at left outside linebacker, but could also switch to the right side. At 6-2, 250, Tomich is an excellent athlete with a 1.60 electronic 10-yard dash time, a 4.66 in the 40, a 34-inch vertical jump, can bench press 360, squat 540 and clean 340 pounds. He set a new Performance Index record for outside linebackers this spring with a 2,663 point total.

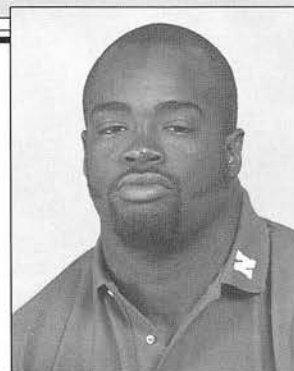

1993: Redshirted.

1992: Sat out the 1992 season.

At Lake Central HS: Tomich played defensive end for Coach Elmer Britton at Lake Central and earned all-state honors his senior year.

Personal: The son of James and Cheryl Tomich, Jared was born April 24, 1974. Tomich is majoring in communication studies.

94 LARRY TOWNSEND

DEFENSIVE TACKLE

6-4 □ 285 □ Soph.

San Jose, Calif.

Larry Townsend enters the 1994 season as Terry Connealy's backup at defensive tackle. Big and strong at 6-4, 285, Townsend can bench press 395 pounds, squat 450 and clean 345.

1993: Townsend played in two games in 1993 (against North Texas and Colorado State) and recorded two tackles (one solo) including an 8-yard sack against Colorado State. He also had one quarterback hurry against the CSU Rams. He played in the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl but did not have any tackles.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Townsend redshirted in 1992.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

At Yerba Buena HS: After starting on both the offensive and defensive lines for Coach Brook Vasconcellos at San Jose Yerba Buena High School, Townsend was an all-county pick as a senior. He had 165 tackles and 18 sacks the last two seasons, including 85 stops and 10 sacks in 1991. SuperPrep Magazine named him the defensive player-of-the-year on the West Coast, while the Long Beach Press-Telegram listed him as one of the Best in the West and noted he was one of only three players to get votes from all 10 college recruiters on the selection panel. Chose Nebraska over Colorado and Washington.

Personal: The son of Larry and Alice Townsend, Larry was born on Sept. 16, 1974. He is majoring in speech communications

Wahoo, Neb.
(Neumann HS)

□ Holds the school position record for Strength Index (1,003 points) with a position record of 279 pounds in the clean

Matt Turman (No. 3) and Brook Berringer (No. 2) will again serve as the backup quarterbacks to Tommie Frazier in 1994. With just three quarterbacks on the field this spring, everyone held their breath when Turman went down with a knee strain in the Huskers' second scrimmage, but it was minor and he was able to return to drills in five days.

1993: Turman played in four games in 1993, against North Texas, Texas Tech, Colorado State and Missouri. He was 1-1 passing with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Riley Washington against North Texas in the season opener. He was just as successful running the ball as his one rushing attempt was a 1-yard TD, also against North Texas.

1992: A walk-on, Turman redshirted his first year at Nebraska.

At Neumann HS: Playing for his father Tim (along with fellow Husker senior outside linebacker John Martin), Matt was a quarterback and safety and led his team to the state semifinals his senior year with an 11-1 record. Turman threw for 1,040 yards, rushed for 768 and finished as the all-time Neumann leader in passing and tackles and was sixth in rushing. He earned all-state honors from both the Omaha World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal-Star. A versatile athlete, Turman lettered four times in football, three in basketball and four times in track. Academically, he was a member of the National Honor Society, was his class salutatorian and posted a 4.0 grade point average throughout high school.

Personal: The son of Tim and Dianne Turman, Matt was born on Dec. 13, 1973. He has one brother and four sisters. A pre-education major, Turman boasts a 3.71 cumulative GPA.

25 JON VEDRAL

WINGBACK

Gregory, S.D.
(Gregory HS)

Jon Vedral (pronounced VED-rull) enters the fall season as the No. 3 wingback behind Abdul Muhammad and Clester Johnson. Receivers coach

Ron Brown said, "Jon is a fearless, competitive wingback who can run, catch, block and should be a great special teams player in the mold of David Seizys."

1993: Vedral played in three games in 1993 as a reserve wingback, but did not catch any passes.

1992: As a freshman walk-on, Vedral redshirted his first year.

At Gregory HS: Vedral was a running back and linebacker for Gregory High School and Coach Mike Dary. He rushed for 1,240 yards in 1990 and caught 15 passes for 300 yards and 27 TDs. As a senior in 1991, he rushed for 1,258 yards and scored 21 TDs on 200 attempts (6.29 yards per carry). He helped lead his team to the state semifinals in 1990 with a 10-1 record and to the quarterfinals in 1991 with a 7-3 mark. He was a two-time all-state running back and also lettered four times in track and four times in wrestling, placing second at the Class B state championships at 171 pounds as a senior. Academically, he was a National Honor Society member.

Personal: The son of Dennis and Dianne Vedral, Jon has two brothers and two sisters. His brother Mike was a tight end for the Huskers in 1990-91-92. Majoring in history, Jon was born on April 9, 1974.

#9 TONY VELAND

Omaha, Neb.
(Benson HS)

□ Holds the school QB record for Performance Index (2,507)

□ Posted the best 20-yard Pro-Agility run for any Husker quarterback (3.39) and best point total (722 points)

□ Ranks No. 1 all time at Nebraska in 10-yard Dash point total (734 points, 1.52 time) for quarterbacks

Tony Veland, (pronounced VEE-land) enters fall camp as the No. 3 free safety behind projected starter Mike Minter, even though he missed spring drills rehabilitating his knee. Fall camp will be Veland's first chance to learn the position as he was Tommie Frazier's backup at quarterback last season. He has had one misfortune after another as he broke his collarbone 10 days prior to the start of the 1992 season in fall camp after emerging from spring ball as the No. 1 QB over Mike Grant. Veland then had an ankle sprain during 1993 spring ball in the heat of competition with Tommie Frazier, then tore his patellar tendon in his right knee in the second game of the 1993 season. An incredible athlete, Veland had a 1.52 electronic 10-yard dash time in 1993 winter conditioning, a 4.52 in the 40 and has a 33.5-inch vertical jump. He did not test last winter. He also has good size at 6-2, 200 and will push for playing time in this, his first year in the Husker secondary.

1993: One game after starting quarterback Tommie Frazier went down with an ankle injury in the season opener, Tony Veland, who was sharing the No. 2 quarterback spot at the time with Brook Berringer, ruptured his right patellar tendon in the Texas Tech game and was lost for the season. In the first two games of the year, Veland rushed eight times for 14 yards and was 6-9 passing for 76 yards with one interception and one TD. He had 15 yards rushing on six carries and a TD and all of his passing stats (6-9-76-1-1) in game No. 1 against North Texas.

1992: Veland became the No. 1 quarterback during spring drills when senior Mike Grant suffered a broken collarbone with about two weeks of practice remaining. However, Veland suffered the same fate when he broke his collarbone before the season in a controlled scrimmage on Aug. 25. He missed the first five games, traveled with the team to Missouri on Oct. 24, but did not play. He saw action in four games backing up Frazier and Grant. He played against Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma and Kansas State. He did not have any pass attempts, and rushed four times for one yard, with a long of 14 yards vs. Kansas State. He traveled, but did not play vs. Florida State in the Federal Express Orange Bowl.

1991: A scholarship recruit, he took a redshirt year.

At Benson HS: A second-team all-state quarterback, Veland was a two-way starter for three years for Coach Lonnie Tapp at Omaha Benson. He averaged 12 passes per game, completed 54.2 percent for 78.7 yards per game and threw just two interceptions all season. Veland ran for 700 yards and passed for 700 as a senior. He also averaged 39 yards per kick as the team's punter. Started on the Bunnies' basketball team which was ranked No. 1 in the state through the regular season. Veland earned nine varsity letters in all as a prepster and was an academic all-state selection in football and basketball. Placed fifth in the Class A 100 meters (11.03) and third in the discus (162-2) at the 1991 state track meet.

Personal: The son of Eva Veland, Tony was born March 11, 1973, in Omaha. He has one brother, Tory, and one sister, Tiana. Majoring in engineering, Veland is also active in community events as he was a keynote speaker for the 1992 National Education Week and a volunteer guest speaker at Culler Junior High.

CENTER

6-1 □ 290 □ Soph.
Grand Island, Neb.
(Grand Island HS)

Matt Vrzal (pronounced VER-zull) had a solid spring and enters fall as the No. 3 center behind Aaron Graham and Bill Humphrey.

1993: Vrzal played in three games in 1993 as a backup center.

1992: A walk-on athlete, Vrzal opted to redshirt in 1992.

At Grand Island HS: Vrzal was a Lincoln Journal-Star Super-State offensive guard as a senior at Grand Island High. He played for former Husker Ken Fischer and was a teammate of fellow Huskers Phil Ellis and Jeremy Jensen. He also played defensive tackle for a team which finished second in Class A in 1990. An excellent student, Vrzal was also academic all-state and graduated in the top 10 percent of his class.

Personal: The son of Terry and Nancy Vrzal, Matt was born on July 12, 1974 and majors in accounting.

3 RILEY WASHINGTON

SPLIT END

5-9 □ 170 □ Soph.
Letters: One
Chula Vista, Calif.
(San Diego Southwest HS)

- Nebraska indoor track record holder, 55-meter dash, 6.17
- Nebraska outdoor track record holder, 100-meter dash, 10.25
- 1993 outdoor track All-American, 100-meter dash

Riley Washington is not only an All-America sprinter, but has improved his catching skills. He led all receivers in the spring game (4-90-2) and is prepared to be a key contributor to the 1994 squad. With a 1.60 electronic 10-yard dash and a 4.47 in the 40, Washington has the speed to make big plays happen. On the track in the winter of 1993, Washington posted the third-fastest collegiate 55-meter dash time in the nation with a school-record 6.17. In 1994, he and Brett Popplewell will back up Reggie Baul and Brendan Holbein and combined, the quartet gives Nebraska an excellent set of speedsters at split end. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Riley's speed is much publicized, but he is developing the other important areas a receiver needs: hands, poise, precision and knowledge. He could be a huge difference-maker if the rest of his game rounds out."

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

1993: Washington played in four games (vs. North Texas, Colorado State, Missouri and Iowa State) and caught just one pass for 15 yards against North Texas, but that completion from Matt Turman went for a touchdown and was part of the Huskers' highest scoring output last season in the 76-14 win. Washington did not participate in indoor track in 1993 until winter conditioning was completed. He ran at the conference meet and won the 55-meter dash. During the outdoor season he finished fourth at the Big Eight meet (10.28) and 10th at nationals with a school-record 10.25 clocking in the 100 meters. He was also a member of the school-record 4 x 100-meter relay team (39.45).

1992: A scholarship athlete, Washington redshirted in football, but competed in indoor and outdoor track for the Huskers. He immediately put his name in the record books with a 6.17 in the 55-meter dash at the Husker Invite. It was the third-fastest time in the nation turned in among collegians in 1993. He placed second in the 55 (6.25) at the Big Eight indoor and sixth in the 200-meter dash (21.68). He went with the team to indoor nationals, but did not qualify for the finals, then turned his attention to spring football drills before rejoining the track team for the outdoor season. He placed second in the 100 meters at the conference outdoor meet (10.38), was sixth in the 200 (21.65) and was a member of the Huskers' second-place 4 x 100-meter relay team which finished with a school-record 39.64 clocking. He broke the school record in the 100 at the NU Last Chance Meet with a 10.34 mark. At outdoor nationals in the 100 meters, he advanced to the semifinals and was seventh in his heat. Although he did not qualify for finals, he earned All-America status as the eighth-fastest American finisher.

At Southwest HS: A two-way player for Coach Carl Patrick at San Diego Southwest High School, Washington rushed for some 1,200 yards as a senior running back in 1991, following a 1,100-yard year in 1990. He also played defensive back for Patrick and had the fastest 100-meter time prep time in the country as a senior at 10.34 seconds. He was the fastest returning sprinter in the state for 1992. Washington chose Nebraska over Colorado, UCLA, Fresno State, Oregon and Oregon State.

Personal: The son of Anthony and Glenda Washington, Riley was born on July 31, 1973, and majors in speech communications.

OFFENSIVE GUARD

6-3 □ 280 □ Sr.

Letters: Two
Hastings, Neb.
(Hastings HS)

□ 1994 Preseason Second-Team All-Big Eight (Sporting News)

A former walk-on, Wilks enters fall camp listed even with junior Steve Ott at left guard. It's the only vacated offensive line position the Huskers had to fill in 1994, as the Nebraska Pipeline should be one of the nation's best this season. Wilks is slated to graduate at the end of the fall semester with a degree in business administration. He will be one of 11 Huskers to receive his degree prior to the bowl game.

1993: Joel Wilks missed the first five games in 1993 with a severe ankle sprain, but returned to play in the last six and started against Iowa State when left guard Rob Zatechka was limited with an ankle sprain. Saw extensive action in the Colorado, Kansas and Iowa State games. Wilks also played in the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl against Florida State. The former walk-on from Hastings, Neb., helped the Huskers rank third in NCAA rushing with 287.9 yards per game, fifth in scoring at 38.3 and 23rd in total offense at 425.0 yards per game.

1992: Wilks earned a scholarship prior to the 1992 season. He played in five games at left guard, backing up Ken Mehlin and Chris Zyzda. He traveled to the Orange Bowl, but did not play.

1990: After walking on, Wilks became a part-time starter at offensive tackle for the 4-1 junior varsity team.

At Hastings HS: Wilks was an all-state, all-conference and academic all-state defensive tackle and offensive guard for Coach Walt Olsen, and played in the 1990 Nebraska Shrine Bowl as well as a Nebraska all-star team which played in Australia in the summer of 1990 along with fellow Husker teammates Cory Schlesinger and Jon Pedersen. He also lettered in basketball and track for the Tigers. He earned academic all-state honors and was a member of the National Honor Society.

Personal: The son of Jerry and Georgia Wilks, Joel was born Oct. 10, 1971, in Omaha, Neb. He has a younger sister, Jessica. Majoring in business administration, he is an active volunteer in the community served as a guest speaker at the Guide Rock Community Celebration and at National American Education Week.

Valdosta, Ga.
(Valdosta HS)

T trampis Wrice (pronounced RICE), in his first year of action for the Huskers, will back up Barron Miles and Leslie Dennis at left cornerback.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Wrice redshirted his second year at Nebraska.

1992: Wrice sat out the 1992 season.

At Valdosta HS: An all-state defensive back for Valdosta High, Wrice aided the team to two state championships and three top 15 national finishes as Valdosta was 10th in 1988, seventh in 1989 (state champs), and 11th in 1990 and a repeater of the state crown. Wrice had 11 interceptions at Valdosta, the same school as former Husker wingback Dana Brinson (1985-88). Wrice earned four letters in football, three in basketball and two in track.

Personal: The son of Jackie Brinkley, Wrice was born Jan. 1, 1973, and plans to major in nursing.

mention All-America honors by USA Today and second-team honors by Blue-Chip Illustrated. He was the Class A heavyweight wrestling champion in 1993 and 1994, posting a 26-0 record as a senior (110-19 in his career). He was the team's leading tackler in 1993 and had 208 career tackles and 12 sacks as a three-year starter. A teammate at Southeast of fellow Huskers Jon Hesse and Eric Anderson, Butler was an honor roll member. He was also a two-time all-city pick in baseball. The son of Mike and Karen Butler, his father is an assistant coach at Southeast. Butler chose NU over Iowa, Iowa State and Wyoming and was born July 29, 1975.

KENNY CHEATHAM

Fr....Rec...6-4...195...Phoenix, Ariz. (South Mountain HS) Cheatham committed to Nebraska in July after the signing period was over. Before deciding on Nebraska's football scholarship offer, he contemplated football scholarships from Arizona State and UCLA. His decision was difficult in that he also had track scholarship offers from several schools including UCLA, Auburn, LSU, Tennessee, Miami and Florida State and had been contacted about playing basketball for Kansas, Ohio State, Georgetown, Arizona State, Arizona, UCLA and Oregon State. Playing for Coach Cleveland Dansby at South Mountain, Cheatham made 31 catches for 929 yards and 12 touchdowns in his senior season. His 29 yards per catch ranked fourth-best in Arizona prep history. South Mountain captured back-to-back state titles in 1991 and 1992. An Arizona Republic Super-State selection, he was listed on recruiting analyst Tom Lemming's All-West team. Cheatham was the Arizona state champion in the 200 meters as a senior (21.40) and was second in the 100 (10.91), with a 10.57 all-time best. He averaged 21 points per game for South Mountain as the team reached the state quarterfinals in 5A (largest class). Born on Aug. 11, 1976, his parents are Chester and Marilyn Cheatham.

TRAY CRAYTON

Fr....DB...6-2...195...Oceanside, Calif. (El Camino HS) A SuperPrep and Blue Chip All-American, Crayton was a teammate of Michael Booker for Coach Herb Meyer at El Camino High. Crayton intercepted seven passes and made more than 100 tackles as a senior and received the "Hit-of-the-Year" award from the San Diego Union newspaper. He also threw for 751 yards passing and 12 touchdowns and scored 14 TDs with 898 yards rushing as El Camino's starting quarterback. Crayton rushed for 893 yards and 12 touchdowns. Crayton is expected to play safety for the Huskers. He chose Nebraska over Texas A&M, Oregon and Washington State. The son of Clarence and Josephine Crayton, Tray was born March 24, 1976. His older brother Chris (5-11, 190) will be a walk-on junior on the Husker basketball team this winter.

few of his accomplishments as a senior included: a 42-yard punting average; a school-record 50-yard field goal (7-10 on the season); a .495 batting average with 86 RBI and a 10-2 record on the mound; 36 goals and 24 assists in 26 hockey games; state track champion in both hurdle events. He came to Nebraska on a baseball scholarship and started every game for the Huskers in the outfield as a freshman in 1993, hitting .339 with 10 homers, 16 doubles and 52 RBI and earned honorable-mention All-Big Eight honors. A pre-season All-American in 1994, he earned first-team All-Big Eight honors as he led the team in runs (52) and homers (12) and was second in average (.317), hits (77), RBI (52) and stolen bases (17). Erstad has two years of baseball eligibility remaining and three years to play three seasons of football. He was invited to play for the 1996 USA Olympic Development Team this summer, but declined. The son of Chuck and Dorothy Erstad, Darin was born June 6, 1974.

He earned eight first-team all-state honors in his prep career. His senior year, Erstad aided his football team to second place in the state, while his hockey team won state and his baseball team was second. A

BRIAN KNUCKLES

Jr....RB...5-11...195...Charlotte, N.C. (Charlotte West HS/Coffeyville, Kan. CC)

The only junior college transfer to sign with the Huskers in 1994, Knuckles played for Coach Skip Foster at Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College. At Coffeyville, he rushed for 3,087 yards in two seasons (505 attempts, 6.11 average per carry), with 37 touchdowns, averaging 140.3 yards per game. He was listed by SuperPrep as the No. 1 junior college player to come out in 1994. Knuckles was a first-team junior college All-American as a freshman and a second-team pick as a sophomore when he ran for 1,544 yards and 14 TDs. He is the all-time leading rusher at Coffeyville, breaking former Husker Mike Rozier's record. (Rozier played at Coffeyville one year, then went on to win Heisman honors at Nebraska in 1983.) Knuckles was named the 1993 most valuable player in the Kansas Jayhawk Junior College League and is the first Coffeyville player to sign with the Huskers since cornerback Bruce Pickens in 1988. As a prepster, Knuckles played for Coach Tom Knotts at West Charlotte where he was a tailback. The son of James and Mary Knuckles, Brian was born Nov. 12, 1972.

JOHN LIVINGSTON

Jr....Rec....6-0...175...San Marcos, Calif. (Hemet HS/Palomar (Calif.) CC/Arizona State)

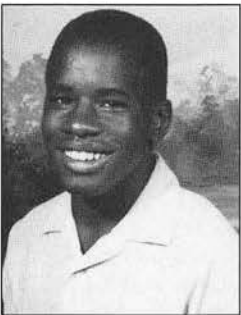

A transfer from Arizona State, Livingston enrolled second semester, 1994 and participated in spring ball at NU. At ASU, he played in two games catching one pass (28 yards), before an injury cut short his 1993 season. Prior to his one year at ASU, he attended Palomar Community College in his hometown. There, he caught 55 passes for nearly 1,000 yards and 11 TDs as a sophomore and also had three punt return TDs. Livingston helped lead Palomar to its fifth-straight league title and the national championship in 1991. At Hemet, he earned all-league and all-CIF honors. Born Aug. 2, 1973, John's parents are Fredrick and Samieh Labib-Wood.

OCTAVIOUS MCFARLIN

Fr....DB...6-0...180...Bastrop, Texas (Bastrop HS)

McFarlin, a 6-0, 180-pound free safety, punter and punt returner was a three-year starter for Coach Les Johnson at Bastrop. He was named to the Fabulous 55 squad which represents the top players in the state and made the All-Central Texas team as he led the state with 166 tackles (72 solo) as a senior. He also had five sacks, three fumble recoveries, one interception and posted a 39.1 punting average. McFarlin earned all-district two years and honorable-mention All-Centex three years. A 6-10 high jumper, McFarlin was the district champ in both the high and long jumps (23-8) and has also gone 48-10 in the triple jump. He was an all-district guard in basketball as well. The son of Janie McFarlin, Octavious was born on Aug. 10, 1975.

ERIK NELSON

Fr....DL/OL...6-4...250...Iowa City, Iowa (Iowa City) A transfer as a sophomore from San Diego, Calif., Nelson played football at Iowa City for just three years, but earned a spot on the first unit of the Des Moines Register's Elite Team as a lineman his senior year. He earned first-team all-state honors (OG) in the coaches poll and was the runner-up for player-of-the-year. Nelson helped lead his team to a Big School title and a No. 21 final ranking by USA Today as Iowa City went 13-0 in 1993 and 23-1 over his last two years. With good speed, he is expected to be utilized on the Husker defensive line. Also a 48-foot shot putter on the track team, Nelson chose Nebraska over Oregon State, Kansas State, Wisconsin and Iowa State. His dad, Jerry Nelson, was a standout middle guard at the University of Iowa. Erik was a member of the honor roll his senior year and hopes to major in elementary education. The son of Jerry Nelson, Erik was born on Sept. 29, 1976.

DAVID REDDICK

Fr....Rec....5-10...175...Camden, N.J. (Woodrow Wilson HS) As a receiver for Coach Darrell Wilson at Woodrow Wilson High, Reddick caught 15 passes for 196 yards last season. He also rushed 61 times for 606 yards and 15 TDs. Reddick earned Philadelphia Inquirer Second-Team All-South Jersey honors. Reddick's high school, Wilson, is the prep school of Nebraska's Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier (1983). Reddick chose Nebraska over Temple, Minnesota and Tennessee. The son of Charles and Margaret Reddick, David was born on Sept. 21, 1976.

DORRICK ROY

Fr....Rec...6-4...220...Inglewood, Calif. (Montclair Prep HS)

A standout tight end, Roy was a first-team SuperPrep All-American as he caught 27 passes for 509 yards and three touchdowns for Montclair Prep in Van Nuys. As a linebacker, Roy had 113 tackles and 12 sacks his senior year, playing for Coach John Hazelton. He was named to the Long Beach Press-Telegram's Best in the West list and earned All-CIF, All-San Fernando Valley, All-Alpha League and Blue Chip all-regional honors. He picked Nebraska over Michigan, Texas, Colorado and Miami, to name a few. Art Monk, the NFL's all-time reception leader (Washington Redskins) and ex-Phoenix Cardinal receiver Roy Green are second cousins to Roy, while his brother Donovan just completed his sophomore season as an offensive lineman at the University of New Mexico. The son of Donald and Lennie Roy, Dorrick was born on April 2, 1975.

MIKE RUCKER

Fr....LB...6-6...225...St. Joseph, Mo. (Benton HS)

A tight end and inside/outside linebacker and kicker for Coach Don Tabor at Benton High School, Rucker was a Blue Chip Illustrated All-America linebacker and earned all-state honors as a tight end as he caught 15 passes for 300 yards as a senior. He was also the team's leading tackler with 168 stops, 58 solo. He led his team to a 28-8 three-year record. Rucker also placed fourth in the state in the shot put as a junior and was the state champ in 1994 with a 54-2 throw after he went undefeated in 10 meets in the shot. Rucker lettered 10 times, three each in football and basketball and four in track. He was second-team all-city and All-MEC in basketball in 1994 and was the Benton High School Outstanding Male Athlete. An excellent student, Rucker was a member of the honor roll and participated in the Open Door Food Kitchen program. The son of Martin and LaVell Rucker, Mike was born Feb. 28, 1975.

TRAVIS TOLINE

Fr...LB...6-4...220...Wahoo, Neb. (Wahoo)

At 6-4, 220 pounds, Toline had 78 tackles (50 solo) in eight games as a senior, including six sacks, seven tackles for losses, two fumbles recovered, one safety and an interception for a touchdown. Also the Warriors' short and long snapper, Toline earned all-class, all-state honors by both major Nebraska publications in football and honorable-mention all-state in basketball last year as a three-year starter for the two-time Class B state champion Warriors. Toline is expected to play outside linebacker for NU. Also a 6-4 high jumper, Toline earned 11 letters in high school, four each in football and track and three in basketball. A 4.0 student, Toline is a member of the National Honor Society, president of the student council, an officer of the Wahoo Lettermen's Club, scored a 29 on the ACT, was an academic all-stater and finished No. 1 in his class. He is the first scholarship football player from Wahoo since Steve Carmer signed in 1988 and went on to be a two-year starter at strong safety. Toline's older brother, Trent, is a redshirt freshman outside linebacker at Iowa State. The son of George and Mary Toline, Travis was born on Nov. 12, 1975.

BRANDT WADE

Fr...OL...6-3...275...Springfield, Neb. (Platteview)

Wade was an all-class all-state lineman (Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal-Star) and a USA Today honorable-mention pick for Platteview and Coach Dennis Mahaney. He had 74 total tackles as a senior, including seven sacks, four fumble recoveries and three fumbles caused. The first-ever Platteview grad to earn a football scholarship from Nebraska, he is the second Division I scholarship player in his school's history. Wade was the Class B state heavyweight champion in 1994 as he posted a 34-0 record. He finished second at the state championships in 1993. Wade earned a school-record 12 letters (four each in football, golf and wrestling) and was a three-time state qualifier in golf. A 4.0 student, Brandt is a National Honor Society member, a Boys State representative and a Boys National alternate as he finished third in his class. The son of Larry and Christine Wade, Brandt was born on Sept. 30, 1975.

JAMEL WILLIAMS

Soph....DB...6-2...195...Merrillville, Ind. (Merrillville HS)

A blue-chip athlete in 1992 as named by Parade, USA Today and Schutt-Scholastic Coach, Jamel (pronounced Ja-MELL) Williams sat out in 1993 and will be a sophomore in 1994. An AP all-state, Coaches Board Top 50 and Bloomington Herald Top 33 athlete, Williams was also The Post Tribune and The Times Defensive Player-of-the-Year, a finalist for Indiana Mr. Football, the Duneland Conference MVP and the Merrillville High School Co-MVP. Williams and Jared Tomich are believed to be the first Husker recruits to come out of the state of Indiana. Williams tore his ACL in his left knee in the 1993 all-star game. This followed two torn ligaments in his right knee when he was tackled on an interception return in late September of his junior season. Prior to the injury, he had gained 399 yards as a running back in the first four games (nine touchdowns, one interception) of the season after rushing for 913 (eight TDs, six interceptions) as a sophomore and 448 as a freshman (three TDs, one interception). He returned to star for his basketball team three months after his first injury and qualified for the state track meet in the spring of 1992 in the 100- and 200-meter dashes and as a member of the 400-meter relay team, placing sixth in the 100 (10.94). In his final three years, Williams helped lead the Merrillville Pirates to a 27-5 record and a Class 5A regional title as he scored 45 touchdowns and rushed for 3,238 yards (5.7 per carry). Playing as a freshman, he earned four letters in football. In basketball, his teams were 54-17 and won the East Chicago Regional. Williams should be nearly full speed by fall. The cousin of 1993 senior linebacker Daren Williams, Williams' parents are Monroe Willams and Chris Edwards. He was born on Dec. 22, 1973.

JASON WILTZ

Fr...DL...6-4...280...New Orleans, La. (St. Augustine HS)

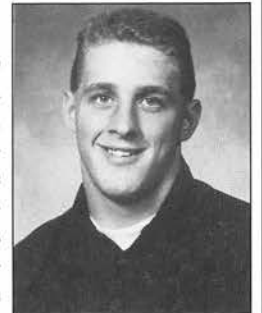

A SuperPrep All-America defensive tackle for Coach Tony Biagas at St. Augustine, Wiltz was also named the most valuable player in his district and earned all-state and honorable-mention All-America honors by USA Today. As a senior, Wiltz was credited with 76 tackles, including 12 sacks and 11 others for losses. He also had four fumble recoveries for the state-qualifying St. Augustine High School. SuperPrep rated Wiltz as the nation's fourth-best defensive lineman in 1994, while Blue Chip named him to their all-region team. Wiltz comes from the same high school which produced ex-Husker linebacker David White (1989-92) and receivers Tyrone Hughes (1989-92) and Vincent Hawkins (1990-92). Also a standout first baseman and pitcher on his high school baseball team, Wiltz chose Nebraska over Texas A&M, Colorado, Texas, LSU and North Carolina. The son of Stanley and Brenda Wiltz, Jason was born on Nov. 23, 1976.

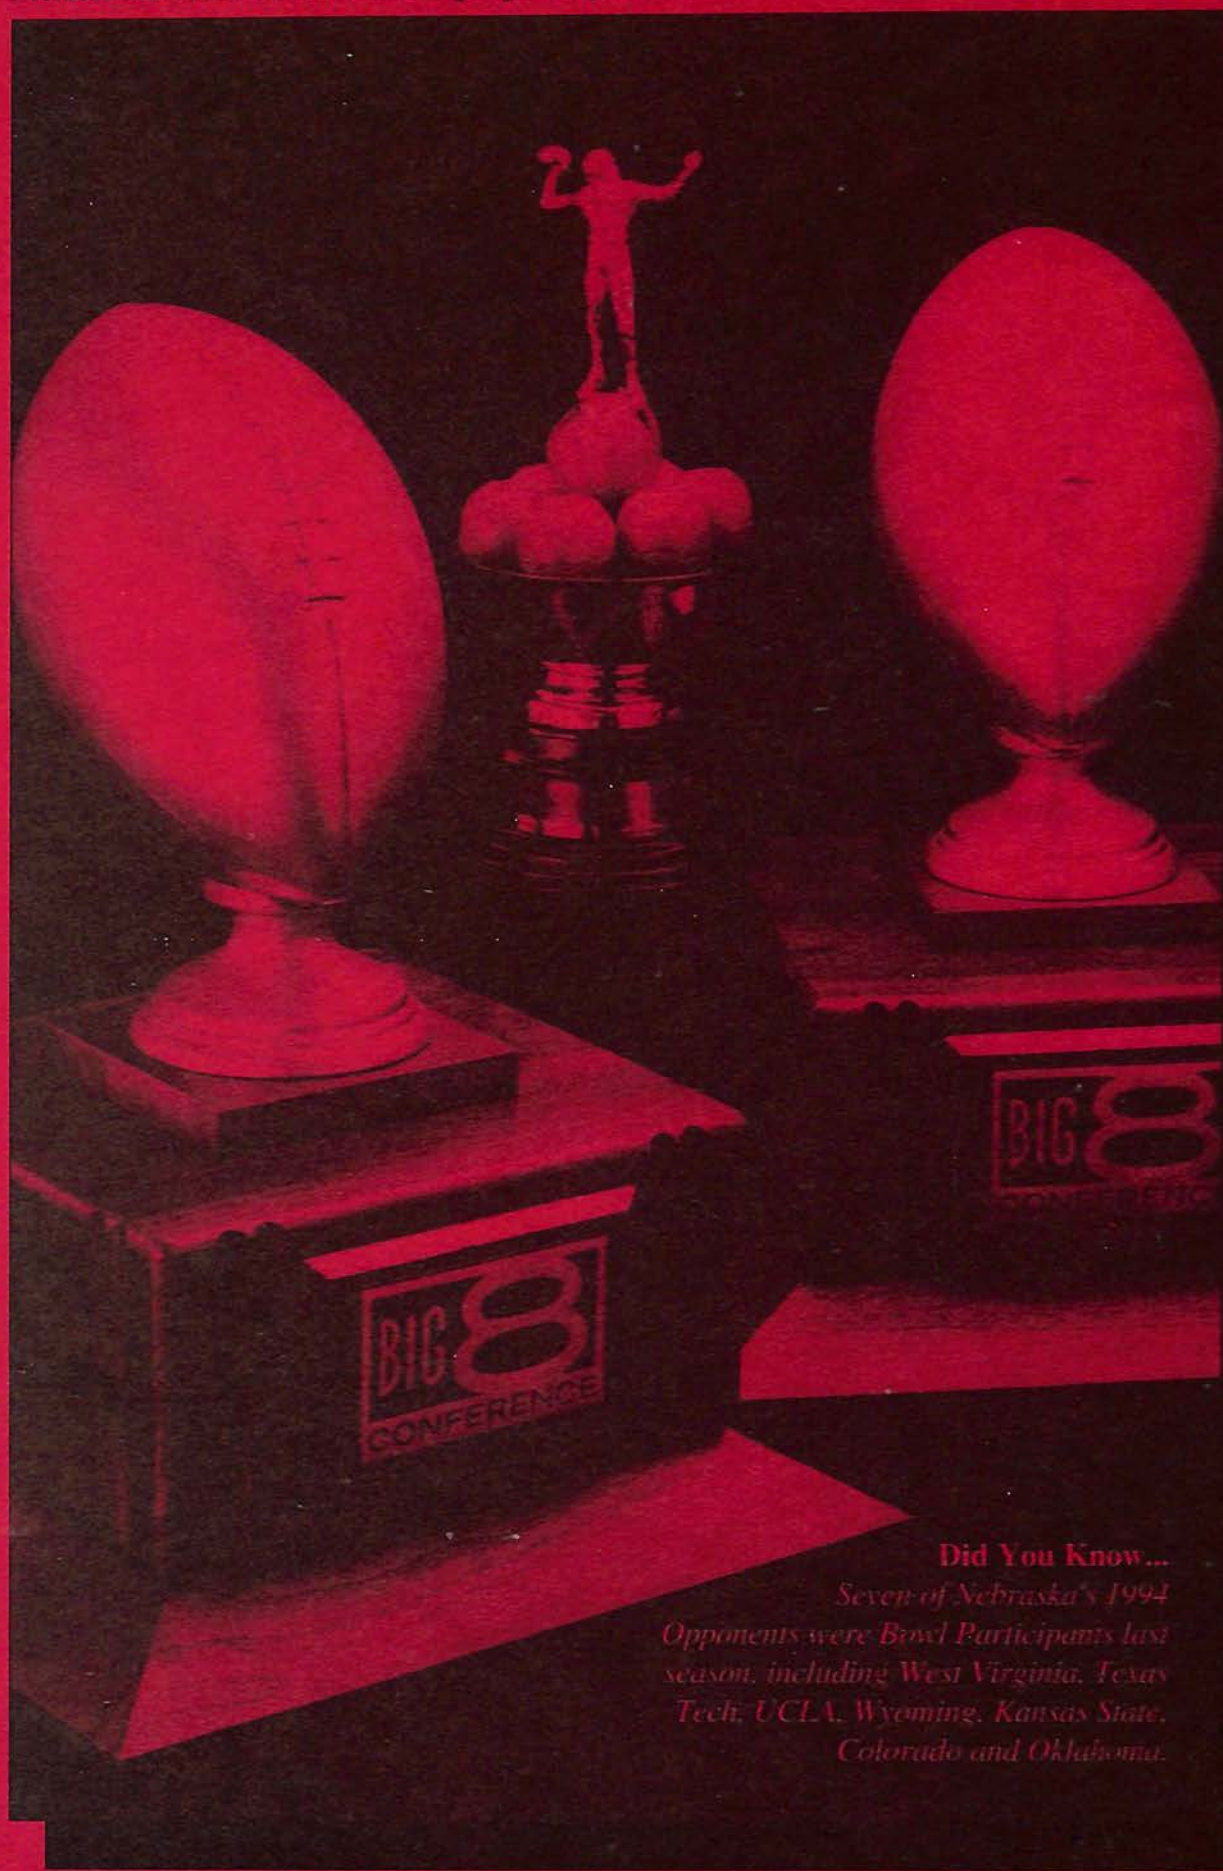

GRANT WISTROM

Fr...LB...6-5...230...Webb City, Mo. (Webb City HS)

A USA Today, Blue Chip and SuperPrep All-American, Wistrom at 6-5, 230 pounds is expected to play outside linebacker at Nebraska. He was named to the Schutt Top 100 high school football All-America Team by Scholastic Coach and was considered the top prep recruit out of Missouri last year as he made 122 tackles with eight sacks, caused nine fumbles, made six recoveries and blocked one punt as a senior. As a tight end, he caught 30 passes for 527 yards and five touchdowns and ran the ball 11 times for 115 yards and three TDs in 1993. SuperPrep rated Wistrom as the 12th-best defensive lineman available in 1994 and as the defensive player-of-the-year in the Midlands region. Wistrom helped lead Webb City to two state championships his junior and senior seasons in the state's second-largest Class (4A) playing for Coach Kurt Thompson. An excellent student, Wistrom carried a 3.95 GPA, scored a 28 on the ACT, was president of the National Honor Society, a member of the High Step program, earned academic all-state, was co-president of the FCA, was an ESPN Scholar-Athlete and an honors graduate. He also ran track and played center for his basketball team. Wistrom chose Nebraska over Michigan, Stanford, Miami and Oklahoma. The son of Ron and Kathy Wistrom, Grant was born on July 3, 1976.

Nebraska has won three consecutive Big Eight Conference titles.

West Virginia Series

First Game

Series Notes: This is the first meeting between Nebraska and West Virginia and marks Nebraska's third appearance in the Kickoff Classic...Huskers are 2-0 in the Kickoff Classic with a 44-6 win over Penn State in 1983 and a 23-14 victory against Texas A&M in 1988...both Nebraska and West Virginia finished the 1993 regular season with perfect 11-0 records...Nebraska has met current Big East teams in past years, however, this is the first time the Huskers have faced an opponent from that league since it was created in 1992.

Texas Tech Series

Series Scoring	Total	Average
Nebraska	240	26.7
UCLA	178	19.8

Series Notes: The Nebraska-UCLA series is marked by milestone victories...UCLA's 1946 win capped the Bruins' first unbeaten, untied (10-0-0) regular season...UCLA's 1972 win (on Efran Herrera's 30-yard field goal with 22 seconds left) ended Nebraska's 23-game win and 32-game unbeaten streaks...After UCLA won the first three meetings Nebraska posted four consecutive wins, outscoring the Bruins, 166-59...Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne (4-1 vs. UCLA) marked his head coaching debut with a win in the 1973 game, posted his 100th win in the 1983 game, but was denied his 150th career victory when UCLA defeated the Huskers 41-28 in 1988...In that same game, UCLA head man Terry Donahue (1-3 vs. Nebraska) posted his 100th career victory...In the 1983 game, UCLA jumped in front of Nebraska 10-0, the first time that season the Huskers had trailed, only to see the Huskers score 42 unanswered points to finish the game...Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier rushed for 159 yards and two touchdowns against the Bruins in 1983, the third in a NU record streak of 11 games in which he passed the century mark in rushing...In six of the past seven meetings between the two teams, Nebraska has been ranked in the top four, including No. 1 three times and No. 2 twice...In that same stretch, UCLA has been ranked in the top 10 four times...The 1987 game featured No. 2 (Nebraska) and No. 3 (UCLA) ranked teams in wire-service polls...Steve Taylor's five touchdown passes in the 1987 game is a Nebraska single-game record...In the 1988 game, (UCLA 41-28) Taylor outyarded Bruin quarterback and 1993 Super Bowl MVP Troy Aikman, 220-196, in total offense...Last season, Nebraska rallied from a 10-0 second-quarter deficit for a 14-13 victory over the Bruins, who went on to represent the Pacific-10 in the Rose Bowl...True freshman Lawrence Phillips led the Husker attack with 137 rushing yards and a touchdown...Last season's game marked Donahue's 200th game on the Bruin sideline...With the 1994 game set for ABC, this year will mark the seventh consecutive Husker-Bruin game that has been shown on national television...Nebraska is 24-16-3 all-time vs. Pacific-10 teams.

NCAA RULES AND REGULATIONS

Your support of Nebraska athletics is very much appreciated. However, there are restrictions regarding your involvement with student-athletes. Help Nebraska assure compliance with NCAA rules and regulations by taking a few moments to read this information. The eligibility of Nebraska student-athletes and reputation of the department and university depend greatly upon your cooperation.

Winning Tradition

Supporters of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln are proud of Nebraska's rich tradition in both academic accomplishments and athletic achievements. Student-athletes, coaches, and other administrators have worked extremely hard to place Nebraska at the head of the class academically and among the most prestigious athletic programs in the country. Nebraska's tradition is rich in Academic All-Americans, NCAA Today's Top Six Award Winners, Big-Eight Conference titles and national championships.

Most importantly, Nebraska athletics has built and maintained tradition and excellence based on integrity. Winning is important at Nebraska, but winning the RIGHT way by following the NCAA rules that govern the recruitment and treatment of student-athletes is a must!

The goal of this pamphlet is to educate you regarding NCAA rules that apply to you when interacting with student-athletes.

Key Point

You are considered a representative of Nebraska just by being an alumnus, friend, or fan.

Key Rule—NCAA Bylaw 13.01.5.1

In Division I, representatives of an institution's athletics interests are prohibited from making in-person, on-or-off-campus recruiting contacts, or written or telephonic communications with a prospect or the prospect's relatives or legal guardians.

Interpretations

1. A representative of a Division I institution is prohibited from making in-person recruiting contact with a prospect and his or her parents/guardians—on or off campus.

Limited Exception: A representative may have contact with a prospect regarding permissible pre-enrollment activities such as summer employment, provided the prospect has already signed a National Letter-of-Intent and the institution is aware that you are making these contacts in regard to the employment.

2. A Division I representative is prohibited from writing or telephoning a prospect and his or her parents or legal guardians.

Limited Exception: A representative may have a phone conversation with a prospect only if the prospect initiates the call. Such a call may not be prearranged by an institutional staff member and the representative is not permitted to have a recruiting conversation, but may exhibit normal civility. The representative must refer any questions about the University's athletic program to the athletic department.

3. A representative is prohibited from contacting a prospect's coach, principal, or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect.

Limited Exception: NCAA rules do not preclude a representative from viewing a prospect's contest on the representative's own initiative, but the representative may not contact the prospect.

The most common NCAA rules infraction relates to the extra benefits rule. An extra benefit would include provision of any transportation, meals, clothes, entertainment, preferential loan terms or other benefit offered to a student-athlete unavailable to the general student population.

A representative may not provide any such extra benefit to an enrolled student-athlete or their family. Simply put, you may not treat a student-athlete any differently than a student who does not participate in athletics.

Key Contact

Questions regarding NCAA rules, especially those relating to contact between alumni and recruits or enrolled student-athletes can be directed to Nebraska's Senior Associate Athletic Director in charge of Compliance.

Nebraska's Commitment to Academic Excellence

- ❑ The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has more GTE Academic All-Americans than any other school both in football and in all sports combined.
- ❑ Since 1990, Nebraska has had six consecutive NCAA Today's Top Six Award Winners. This is the most prestigious honor presented to any college student-athlete. Overall, Nebraska has had a nation-leading 10 Top Six Award Winners.
- ❑ Since 1964, 37 Nebraska student-athletes have claimed NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships.
- ❑ Nebraska football players are tied for first in the country with 14 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Postgraduate Scholarship Winners.
- ❑ Since 1990, eight Nebraska student-athletes have been awarded the $5,000 NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award.
- ❑ Nebraska leads the Big Eight Conference in both post-graduate scholarship recipients and Academic All Big-Eight selections for all sports.
- ❑ Since the inception of the College Football Association Scholar-Athlete Team, Nebraska has had two football players each year recognized for their commitment to academics and community service.
- ❑ In 1991, the Nebraska Athletic/Academic Support Unit was recognized by the College Athletic Management Association as the top support unit in the country.
- ❑ More than 82 percent of scholarship athletes who have exhausted their eligibility have graduated from the University.

Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts sacked FSU's Charlie Ward three times in the national championship game.

Did You Know...

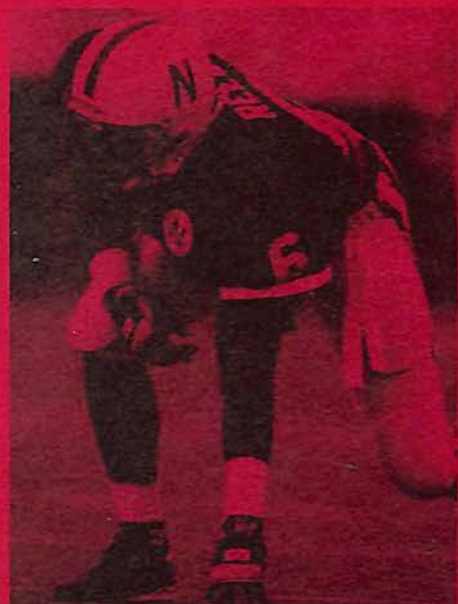

Nebraska ranks first in the nation in first-team GTE Football Academic All-Americans (45) and first in Top Six Award winners with six. NU not only averages two academic All-Americans each year under Osborne (39 total), but also averages two All-America honor winners each year. In 1993, Trev Alberts brought home the Butkus, was a consensus All-American, an NCAA Today's Top Six Award winner, won four postgraduate scholarships and was an Academic All-American before being chosen in the first round by the Colts.

'93 IN REVIEW

11-0 HUSKERS PLAY FOR NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

En route to an 11-0 season and the national championship game, the 1993 Husker offensive line dished 525 "pancakes" (knock-down blocks) in 1993 as they led the Huskers to a No. 3 final ranking in rushing (287.9 ypg) and a No. 23 ranking in total offense (425.0 ypg).

Lincoln, Neb....Sept. 4, 1993

The No. 9 Nebraska Cornhuskers opened their 104th season with a 76-14 victory over North Texas. Nebraska jumped out to a 28-0 first quarter lead and took a 42-7 advantage into the locker room at halftime. In all, nine different Huskers scored, including rover Toby Wright on a 33-yard interception return. Unfortunately, the Huskers lost three starters to injuries, including quarterback Tommie Frazier on the first play of the game. Heisman Trophy candidate Calvin Jones strained his knee and would miss the next two games after leading all rushers with 16 carries for 124 yards and two scores and OLB Donta Jones left the game with a sprained ankle. In Frazier's place, sophomore Brook Berringer was perfect (7-7) passing for 124 yards, including a 33-yard TD strike to Corey Dixon to open the scoring. Berringer also rushed for two touchdowns. The Huskers totaled 575 yards to North Texas' 294 and outstrued the Eagles, 360-39. Berringer, Tony Veland and Matt Turman combined to pass for 215 yards, the first Husker 200-yard passing game since 1991. Defensively, 40 Huskers were credited with at least one tackle, led by Ernie Beler and Daren Williams with five each. The 76 points scored by NU was a season high and the most since the 1983 team defeated Minnesota, 84-13, in Minneapolis.

GAME # 2 NEBRASKA 50 TEXAS TECH 27

Lincoln, Neb...Sept. 11, 1993

For the second straight week, NU passed for over 200 yards en route to a 50-27 victory over the unranked, but eventual bowl-bound Texas Tech Red Raiders. Nebraska jumped out to a 10-0 lead, but the pesky Red Raiders put a test to the Huskers' new 4-3 defense, as they crept back to a 20-14 halftime deficit, then took the lead on their second drive of the third quarter when they recovered a fumble on NU's own 26-yard line and scored from there. But NU scored on its next three possessions and two sacks by Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts and a fumble recovered by Tyrone Williams on a kick-off, squelched the Red Raider upset plan. On the day, quarterback Tommie Frazier completed 12-28 passes for a career-high 206 yards with a TD strike to tight end Gerald Armstrong and also rushed for a score. Corey Dixon was Frazier's favorite target, as the 5-8 split end caught a career-high three field goals, two of which were over 40 yards, and was successful on five PATs, but had one blocked, ending a streak of 43-consecutive kicks. Redshirt freshman I-back Damon Benning earned his first start for the injured Calvin Jones and responded with a game-high 127 yards on 19 carries and scored two touchdowns. Alberts earned Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors as he led all tacklers with 11 stops and single-handedly sacked TTU four times for 21 yards in losses. The Huskers totaled 534 yards, including 317 on the ground, to TTU's total 323. Backup quarterback Tony Veland went down with a torn petellar tendon and would be lost for the rest of the season.

GAME # 3 NEBRASKA 14 UCLA 13

Pasadena, Calif.... Sept. 18, 1993

Nebraska faced tough competition in its first road game of the year against the UCLA Bruins. Approximately 12,000 Husker fans cheered Nebraska to a 14-13 victory in the Rose Bowl, as NU posted its second come-from-behind win in as many weeks. UCLA scored first on a 39-yard field goal followed by a 6-yard rushing TD by freshman Skip Hicks, but then No. 8/6 (AP/coaches) Nebraska came back. True freshman Lawrence Phillips came off the bench for starter Damon Benning and rushed for a 5-yard score with less than three minutes remaining in the second quarter and NU went into the locker room down 10-7. The Husker Blackshirts forced UCLA to punt four times in the second half and held the Bruins to a 27-yard field goal in the fourth quarter, while the NU offense overcame four turnovers on the day (three in UCLA territory) and put together an 80-yard drive capped by an 11-yard TD strike from Tommie Frazier to tight end Gerald Armstrong to go up 14-10 with 6:56 remaining in the third. Phillips, a West Covina, Calif., native, became the third Husker I-back in as many games to rush for over 100 yards as he tallied 137 yards on 28 carries. Frazier, despite being hobbled by the sprained ankle, rushed for 33 yards and completed a career-best 13-19 passes for 145 yards. The Huskers' "Itty-Bitty Committee" of 5-9 and under receivers, combined for eight receptions for 65 yards including 3-38 by California native Abdul Muhammad and a career-high 3-20 by Reggie Baul. NU totaled 208 yards on the ground and 145 in the air for 353 total, while UCLA matched that with 192 on the ground and 134 in the air for 326 total yards. Defensively, rover Toby Wright had a team-high 13 tackles while Alberts was named the ABC Chevrolet Nebraska Player-of-the-Game as well as the Sports Illustrated Defensive Player-of-the-Week for his performance. He had 12 tackles, two sacks, one forced fumble, a pass breakup and two QB hurries. Led by Alberts, the Husker

NU freshman Lawrence Phillips, a Southern California native, returned home and filled in for an injured Calvin Jones. He rushed for 137 yards on 28 carries. He also scored a touchdown in the Huskers' 14-13 victory.

Blackshirts wreaked havoc in the Bruin backfield and sacked QB Wayne Cook six times. Although NU was minus four on turnovers, the Husker defense did not allow the Bruins to convert any to points on the board. UCLA dropped to 0-2, but went on to win eight of its last nine games and move up to a top 20 (AP/coaches) national ranking, finished the year 8-3 and headed to the Rose Bowl for the first time in eight years. Nebraska was one of two teams on the year to hold All-America receiver J.J. Stokes scoreless as he caught six passes for 65 yards, but did not score.

GAME # 4 NEBRASKA 48 COLORADO STATE 13

Lincoln, Neb.... Sept. 25, 1993

Nebraska turned on the offensive faucet and scored over 45 points for the third time in four games defeating Colorado State, 48-13, in Lincoln. It was the Husker defense which put the first six points on the board, as rover Toby Wright intercepted an Anthony Hill pass on CSU's second play from scrimmage and ran it in for a 34-yard TD. It was Wright's second touchdown interception of the season. The Rams kicked a field goal on their second drive, but Nebraska answered with an 11-play, 78-yard drive, on which Lawrence Phillips accounted for 57 yards on seven carries including a 7-yard run to put the Huskers up 14-3. NU took a 28-6 lead into intermission, as QB Tommie Frazier scored on a 16-yard run and completed a 1-yard TD strike to tight end Gerald Armstrong. Frazier finished the day with 79 yards passing as he completed 7-13 including a 41-yard TD to Abdul Muhammad in the third quarter. Husker reserve I-backs Clinton Childs and Jeff Makovicka each scored rushing TDs in the fourth quarter for the 48-13 final. Nebraska rushed for 254 yards with 10 different ball carriers and saw eight receivers haul in passes. All-America candidate I-back Calvin Jones started the game but did not carry the ball in his one official play and watched the victory from the sidelines for the third consecutive game. Nebraska had 360 total yards to Colorado State's 268 while OLB Trev Alberts led the Husker defensive unit with 10 tackles, including one sack and three other tackles for losses. Alberts had five of NU's season-high 24 quarterback hurries while Hill was sacked six times for 44 yards in losses. The Huskers did not turn the ball over for the first time all season, while CSU gave up two interceptions. With the 48-13 victory, the Huskers finished the non-conference portion of their season undefeated for the first time since 1990.

GAME # 5

NEBRASKA 27

OKLAHOMA STATE 13

Stillwater, Okla....Oct. 7, 1993

Husker mentor Tom Osborne earned his 200th career win as Nebraska pushed its way to a 27-13 victory at Oklahoma State to open Big Eight action. Osborne became just the third active coach to reach the 200 plateau, the 11th overall and the fastest ever, doing so in an unprecedented 21 years (249 games). A Nebraska fumble on its own 24-yard line and two field goals gave Oklahoma State a 6-0 lead at the end of the first period. The Huskers answered with a 28-yard field goal by Byron Bennett early in the second, but the Cowboys added an 80-yard TD drive to lead 13-3. Bennett kicked a 26-yard field goal as time ran out in the first half to cut OSU's lead to 13-6. But the Husker Blackshirts answered the wake-up call and held Oklahoma State on each of its last nine possessions forcing eight punts and a failed field punt. In fact, in the second half, the Cowboys were held to three first downs, 51 net yards, never got past the Husker 42 and on five consecutive possessions were forced to three-and-out punts. Meanwhile, QB Tommie Frazier led a seven-play 56-yard drive and scored on a 4-yard run with 5:24 remaining in the third quarter to tie the game 13-all. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Butkus finalist Trev Alberts sacked Tone Jones for a 9-yard loss back to the OSU 2 on third down. Then cornerback Barron Miles blocked a Scott Tyner punt and smothered it in one smooth motion for the Huskers' go-ahead touchdown. Miles' blocked punt for the score was CNN's play-of-the-week and combined with his eight tackles and one pass breakup, earned him Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors. Calvin Jones added the final blow with a 44-yard TD run with 3:38 remaining. He rushed for a game-high 136 yards, while Frazier added 68 on the ground and 109 in the air completing 8-19 passes. Oklahoma State had led the conference in rushing defense going into the game, in fact, NU's two rushing TDs were the first two the Cowboys had allowed on the ground in 1993. But the Huskers out-rushed OSU 203-21 and out-yarded the Cowboys 241-51 in the second half. Nebraska tallied 250 rushing yards and 359 total to OSU's 107 and 222, respectively. All-American Trev Alberts again had an outstanding game, his 11 tackles were second only to Ed Stewart's 12, but Alberts added one sack and a career-high nine quarterback hurries.

GAME # 6

NEBRASKA 45

KANSAS STATE 28

Lincoln, Neb....Oct. 16, 1993

It was a wild game from start to finish as NU's 192nd-consecutive sellout crowd saw over 1,000 yards of total offense. Nebraska was out-yarded, 565 to 545, and gave up a Big Eight record 489 yards passing to KSU quarterback Chad May, but picked off two passes and recovered one fumble and converted all three KSU turnovers (to NU's none) to scores. K-State tied the score twice in the first half, answering NU's two touchdowns with two of its own, but Nebraska scored two more and Byron Bennett added a career-long 48-yard field goal to give the Huskers a 31-14 halftime lead. The Wildcats were the only team to score in the third quarter and added another with 7:44 remaining in the fourth to close the gap to three points at 31-28, but Nebraska scored twice more in the last six minutes for the 45-28 final. I-back Calvin Jones posted his second consecutive 100-yard rushing day with 138 on 29 carries and two scores, while quarterback Tommie Frazier rushed for a career- and game-high 158 yards, scoring once on the ground and completed 9-19 passes for 154 yards and a TD to Trumane Bell. Frazier finished with a career-high 312 total offense yards, just seven yards shy of the school record. Wingback Abdul Muhammad was Frazier's favorite target as he caught a career-high six passes for 91 yards. Outside linebacker Trev Alberts continued his streak of sacks in every game and broke the career record for sacks with one for a 10-yard loss which gave him 24.5 in his four-year career. Ed Stewart tallied 11 tackles including a 13-yard sack, while John Reece and Ernie Beler each had 10. Beler and Tyrone Williams each picked off a pass. The victory extended the Huskers' NCAA record for consecutive winning seasons to an unprecedented 32. Kansas State finished 8-2-1, ranked in the top 20 and went on to win its second bowl game in school history.

GAME # 7
NEBRASKA 49
MISSOURI 7

Lincoln, Neb....Oct. 23, 1993

Nebraska put together its most complete game of the season to date and improved its record to 7-0 as the Huskers defeated the Missouri Tigers, 49-7, in Lincoln. After a scoreless first quarter, Nebraska put 21 points on the board including two TDs by I-back Calvin Jones on a 4-yard run and a career-long 55-yard reception from Tommie Frazier. The stat sheet credited Nebraska with its fourth 500-plus day as the Huskers tallied 539 yards, including 340 rushing to Missouri's 172 total, including 68 on the ground. Nebraska committed two turnovers, of which Missouri converted one to a score, while the Tigers did not turn the ball over. Jones recorded his third consecutive 100-yard rushing day on the season with 129 yards and two scores, while Frazier added 81 on the ground and completed 8-13 passes for 143 yards and two TDs. He threw his second interception of the year, the first in four games and first in 61 attempts, but for the second-straight week accounted for over 200 yards of total offense with 224 yards. Nine different Huskers carried the ball and NU utilized three QBs and eight receivers. Trev Alberts again led the team with 10 tackles, his fifth double-figure day, and added two sacks to his career-record total. Nebraska got a much-needed total performance going into the matchup with nationally-ranked Colorado, but could certainly have done without the two major injuries to offensive linemen Brenden Stai (starting right guard) and Jon Pedersen (backup center/snapper). Both linemen broke fibulas and were lost for the remainder of the regular season.

NEBRASKA 21
COLORADO 17

Boulder, Colo....Oct. 30, 1993

The No. 6/4 (AP/coaches) Huskers jumped out to a 21-3 lead, then turned the game over to the Husker Blackshirts who provided a gutsy defensive stand to guide Nebraska to a 21-17 win over the No. 18/20 Colorado Buffaloes in Boulder, Colo. It was Nebraska's second win on the road over a ranked team on the season. Calvin Jones scored the Huskers' first two TDs with runs of four and 10 yards but suffered from the flu and leg cramps and missed most of the last three quarters as he was held to under 100 yards (31) for the first time this year (in games in which he had carries). Quarterback Tommie Frazier led the Huskers, completing 6-13 passes for 133 yards and rushed eight times for 56 yards before he injured his right shoulder on a 26-yard gain on the second play of the third quarter. He was taken to the Husker locker room twice to be checked by doctors, but returned to the game two more times as the offense was stalled on its last eight possessions with an interception on the Colorado 9-yard line and two missed field goals. Frazier accounted for 236 total-offense yards, his third-straight game with over 200 and was named Nebraska's ABC/Chevrolet Player-of-the-Game. The Husker Blackshirts came up with three crucial turnovers of their own in the second half, including pickoffs by Barron Miles, Ed Stewart and John Reece. Reece's interception ended Colorado's hopes on its last possession at the Nebraska 40. The numbers were fairly equal on the cold day in Boulder, as Nebraska tallied 357 total yards to CU's 304. Nebraska had 190 on the ground, including a team-high 69 by Frazier and 167 in the air as Frazier completed 7-17 on the day. Toby Wright led the team in tackles with 13; but outside linebacker Trev Alberts earned Sporting News Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors as he totaled 10, including two sacks and six quarterback hurries. Alberts was part of a swarming defense which forced CU quarterback Kordell Stewart to miss on 22 of 28 passing attempts for 115 yards and three pickoffs and to suffer through four sacks and 13 QB hurries. Rashaan Salaam led the Buffs with 165 of CU's 189 yards rushing and scored both of the Buffs TDs.

GAME #9 NEBRASKA 21 KANSAS 20

Lawrence, Kan....Nov. 6, 1993

Nebraska's 1,000th game and 100th against Kansas went down to the wire in Lawrence, as the Huskers successfully defended a 2-point attempt with :52 remaining to preserve a 21-20 win over the unranked Jayhawks. Nebraska missed early opportunities to put the Jayhawks away but recorded its fourth come-from-behind victory on the season. KU scored first, but NU answered with a 4-yard rushing TD by Calvin Jones and an 8-yard pass from Tommie Frazier to Gerald Armstrong. NU was moving the ball decisively and looked to go into halftime with a comfortable 21-7 lead as QB Brook Berringer took the reins of the Husker attack while Tommie Frazier rested a sore shoulder. But after marching 77 yards to the KU 6-yard line, Berringer threw an interception in the end zone. Kansas played Nebraska's game of ball control and used up 10:08 in the third quarter and scored with 1:10 remaining to tie the game at 14-14. After an exchange of possessions, the Huskers marched the ball down the field and Calvin Jones broke loose for a 51-yard run to set up the play-of-the-day for NU—a 10-yard TD strike from Frazier under pressure, to tight end Trumane Bell who pushed his way into the end zone in double coverage. But KU answered with a 17-play, 80-yard drive, only to miss under pressure on a 2-point conversion pass which preserved the Huskers' ninth-straight victory and second-straight road win. Jones tallied 195 yards, including 96 in the fourth quarter, despite fighting a virus all week. He proved to be the difference in the game as NU totaled 368 total yards, 297 rushing, to Kansas' 297, 179 on the ground. Linebacker Mike Anderson led the Husker Blackshirts with 12 tackles, while Alberts had 11. Alberts' streak of 10 games with at least one sack came to an end, but he did have a tackle for a loss and three NU's Trumane Bell caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Tommie Frazier in heavy traffic, then maneuvered his way into the end zone for the game-winning touchdown against Kansas.

GAME #10 NEBRASKA 49 IOWA STATE 17

Lincoln, Neb....Nov. 13, 1993

Nebraska clinched its third-consecutive Big Eight Conference crown and a third-consecutive Orange Bowl berth with a 49-17 win over Iowa State in Lincoln. The Huskers gained ground in terms of national respect as they moved up to No. 2 in the coaches poll and to No. 3 in the AP and Bowl Coalition polls. Nebraska's Tyrone Williams recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff and again on Iowa State's first play from scrimmage which the Huskers converted into quick scores to rush out to a 14-0 lead with 12 minutes remaining in the first quarter. Calvin Jones and Tommie Frazier combined for over 400 yards of total offense as both rushed for over 100 yards, the Huskers' second double-100 day of the season. Frazier recorded his second 100-plus day with 125 on the ground and tied his career high with three rushing TDs. He also completed 4-10 passes for 68 yards and another score, a 10-yard pass to Gerald Armstrong, to put the Huskers up 21-0 with 8:23 remaining in the first quarter. Jones moved up to No. 2 on the Husker career rushing list and became just the third Husker and the 15th player in the Big Eight to compile over 3,000 rushing yards. He averaged eight yards per rush en route to 208 yards on the ground with a TD in the first quarter. His 208 yards was the second 200-plus outing of his career and the 16th over 100 and second only to his 294 against Kansas as a freshman. As a team, Nebraska rushed for over 400 yards for the first time in 1993 and took over as the nation's No. 1 rushing team. Butkus finalist Trev Alberts tied the school record for sacks in a season and broke the school career record for tackles for loss as he had 10 tackles, one sack and three for losses. Ed Stewart was Nebraska's nominee for Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Week as he totaled 14 stops, 10 solo. Nebraska tallied 506 yards with 438 rushing, while the Cyclones were held to 319 total, including 261 on the ground.

GAME # 11
NEBRASKA 21,
OKLAHOMA 7

Lincoln, Neb....Nov. 26, 1993

In a classic Big Eight shootout between Nebraska and Oklahoma, the Huskers, No. 1 in the coaches and bowl polls and No. 2 by AP, hosted the No. 15/16 Sooners in a post-Thanksgiving Day matchup. The wind chill was below zero and the wind inhibited both teams to under 100 yards passing, but the Huskers came through with the big plays and took advantage of four OU turnovers en route to a 21-7 victory. With the field clear of the light Thanksgiving day snowfall, Oklahoma scored first, driving 74 yards on its first possession. The drive cost the Huskers more than seven points as NU's Butkus winner, All-American and team captain Trev Alberts dislocated his right elbow on the ninth play of the game. Nebraska was forced to punt on its first three possessions, then gave up an interception on its fourth drive, before quarterback Tommie Frazier scored on a 2-yard run to tie the score 7-7. The 15-yard drive was set up by Toby Wright's 25-yard interception return, his third pickoff of the season. The score remained deadlocked until the fourth quarter when the Huskers' nine-play drive culminated with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Frazier to Abdul Muhammad with 13:20 remaining. On the ensuing kickoff, native Oklahoman Mike Minter caused a fumble which David Seizys recovered to give the Huskers the ball on the OU 20. Just 13 seconds later, I-back Calvin Jones scored on the first play from scrimmage to put NU up 21-7. Jones would finish as the game's leading rusher with 82 yards. It was the Husker defense which not only caused four turnovers, but put the stop on the Sooners' offense in the second half. After Oklahoma missed on a 44-yard field goal on its first drive of the third quarter, the Sooners gained only seven total yards on their next four possessions, while the Husker offense scored twice. The 179 yards total-offense for Nebraska was the lowest output in a win during the Osborne era while the never-say-die Huskers put together its fifth come-from-behind victory. The win secured the Husker hunt for a national championship game and gave NU its first perfect regular season since 1983.

Larry Placido

Big Eight Defensive Co-Newcomer-of-the-Year Tyrone Williams (8) celebrates with Christian Peter (55) after stopping an Oklahoma drive in the fourth quarter of the Huskers' 21-7 victory over the Sooners, preserving a perfect 11-0 regular season.

Shaun Sartin, Daily Nebraskan

Nebraska had just taken a 14-7 lead over OU on an 11-yard pass from Tommie Frazier to Abdul Muhammad, when on the ensuing kickoff Mike Minter, caused a fumble which David Seizys (22) recovered. On the next play, NU's Calvin Jones rumbled 20 yards for the Huskers' second TD in 13 seconds giving NU a 21-7 lead.

Second-Team All-America Offensive Tackle Zach Wiegert.

One of the most decorated defensive players ever to play at Nebraska, Butkus Award winner, consensus All-American and NCAA Top Six Award honoree Trev Alberts finished his brilliant career with 45 tackles for loss, including 29.5 sacks for 196 yards lost. His 248 tackles rank as the seventh-best all time at Nebraska. Alberts not only had an outstanding career, but his 1993 senior season at outside linebacker was unmatched by any in the nation. Degree in hand, Alberts concentrated on football and tied the school record for sacks in a season with 15-88 yards lost. He had 96 tackles (47 solo), 21 tackles for 99 yards lost, three fumbles caused, one pass breakup and 38 quarterback hurries, all of which led the team. He was named the Football News Defensive Player-of-the-Year, the Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Year and the conference male athlete-of-the-year and was the first Husker player to win the Butkus Award, going to the nation's best linebacker. A team captain, Alberts led the No. 1/2 Huskers to a perfect regular-season 11-0 record and was named to every first-team All-America squad. He had double-figure tackles in eight games and at least one sack in all but two games in 1993. In the final game of the year, a 21-7 win over No. 16 Oklahoma, Alberts had two tackles, but dislocated his elbow on the ninth play of the game. He came back to play in the national championship Orange Bowl game against Florida State and had six tackles including three sacks for 29-yards lost and three quarterback hurries. In His Career: Alberts set school records for tackles for loss with 45 (for 242 yards lost) and sacks with 29.5 (for 196 yards lost), he ranks seventh all-time in tackles at Nebraska with 248 and has five fumbles caused, five recovered, six pass breakups and 69 quarterback hurries. Off the field, Alberts earned to the NCAA's highest honor, The Today's Top Six Award, was awarded postgraduate scholarships by The National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame; NACDA Disney; from the NCAA; and the Big Eight. He was named to the Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight team for the third time, was a first-team GTE Academic All-America and a CFA/Hitachi Scholar-Athlete Team. Alberts was the fifth pick in the NFL draft, chosen by the Indianapolis Colts.

- Third-Round Draft Pick by the Los Angeles Raiders

Preseason Heisman Trophy candidate and All-America I-back Calvin Jones had a rough start in 1993, injuring his knee in the first game and missing the next two contests. He went on to record his second consecutive 1,000-yard season and moved into second all-time at Nebraska and 12th in the Big Eight with 3,153 career rushing yards and 40 touchdowns, despite starting just 12 games in his stellar three-year career. He averaged 105.1 yards per game in his career with 16, 100-yard rushing days and was a consensus All-Big Eight back and a third-team All-American for the second consecutive year. In 1993: Jones finished with 1,043 yards on 185 carries with 12 TDs rushing in nine games on the season, his second-consecutive 1,000-yard season, becoming just the third Husker to do so in both his sophomore and junior seasons. Jones rushed for more than 100 yards in six of eight games last year when he carried the ball. He added seven catches for 117 yards and another TD to average 134.2 all-purpose yards. He led the Big Eight in rushing averaging 105.1 ypg, and ranked No. 9 nationally. He also led the Big Eight in scoring, for the third consecutive year, with 8.67 points per game, a figure which ranked ninth nationally. In His Career: Jones is second on the NU all-time rushing chart with 3,153 yards on 461 attempts (6.84 ypc) in 30 games (105.1 ypg). He ranks 12th on the Big Eight career rushing chart. Jones set a freshman Big Eight rushing record with 900 yards in 1991, and added 1,210 in 1992 (the fourth-best sophomore season at NU), while sharing time with fellow "We-back" Derek Brown. Jones' totals include 3,153 yards rushing (second all time), 40 TDs rushing (second all time), 42 total TDs (third all time), a 6.8 career average on the ground and a 105.1 career rushing average per game. Jones was the first Husker to reach 2,000 yards in his sophomore year and just the second in the Big Eight. He reached that plateau in a school-record 262 attempts. Jones posted 16 career 100-yard rushing games. His career best was a school-record 294 against Kansas with six touchdowns on 27 carries (10.8 ypc) as a freshman. Jones, who elected to leave Nebraska after his junior year, was a third-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Raiders.

32 Bowls (25 Consecutive)

Overall Bowl Record: 14-18-0

Record Under Coach Osborne: 8-13-0

NU Bowl Notes: In the last four bowls, NU has played a team ranked No. 1-3... the last time NU was the higher ranked team was in 1985... in the last nine years (including 1994), NU has played a team which was ranked no lower than fifth.

25-Year Consecutive Bowl String is Nation's Longest

When Alabama didn't receive a bowl bid at the end of the 1984 season, Nebraska took over the lead for the longest current string of consecutive bowl appearances from the Crimson Tide. Alabama had appeared in an NCAA record 25 straight bowl games dating back to the inaugural Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia in 1959. The Huskers, first under Bob Devaney, then Tom Osborne, have appeared in a bowl game in 25 consecutive seasons, starting with a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl. With a bowl bid in 1994, NU will surpass the record.

NEBRASKA'S 32 BOWL GAMES

Rose Bowl
Stanford 21,
Nebraska 13

Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 1, 1941—Nebraska was only the third Big Six team to play in a post-season bowl game, but the Cornhuskers made their first bowl trip a memorable one with an invitation to the granddaddy of them all—The Rose Bowl.

Under the warm California sun in Pasadena, Coach Biff Jones' Cornhuskers led Clark Shaughnessy's Stanford Indians twice in the first half, but fell victim to the innovative T-formation 21-13. The Huskers took a 7-0 lead just six plays after the kickoff when fullback Vike Francis plunged over from the two. Stanford tied the count four plays later when Hugh Gallarneau bolted over from nine yards out.

In the second quarter, the Huskers took the lead again on a 33-yard Herm Rohrig to-Alen Zikmund pass, but the Indians came back on Frankie Albert's 41-yard TD pass to Gallarneau for a 14-13 halftime lead. A 39-yard TD punt return by Pete Kmetovic iced the game for the Indians in the third quarter. The 92,000 fans on hand still represent the largest crowd ever to see Nebraska play.

Orange Bowl
Duke 34,
Nebraska 7

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1955--If Nebraska's first bowl bid was a memorable one, it's second was one to forget. The 1954 Cornhuskers finished second behind Oklahoma in the Big Seven race and went to Miami under the no-repeat rule.

Making their first bowl appearance in 14 years, Bill Glassford's Cornhuskers trailed Duke's Blue Devils at the half, 14-0, but pulled within 14-7 early in the third quarter after a minus 2-yard Duke punt. Halfback Don Comstock scored from the three to cap a 35-yard drive. After that, it was all Duke, Coach Bill Murray's Blue Devils rolled 65 yards to score on their next possession and added two more tallies in the fourth quarter to ice the game, 34-7.

Gotham Bowl
Nebraska 36,
Miami, Fla. 34

New York, Dec. 15, 1962--Playing under Coach Bob Devaney, Nebraska won its first bowl game in three tries, upsetting Miami and George Mira, 36-34, in the second and last of New York's now-defunct Gotham Bowl. Playing in Yankee Stadium before only 6,166 fans in sub-freezing weather, the Huskers and Hurricanes put on one of the greatest bowl shows ever, trading scores in every quarter.

Willie Ross' 1-yard plunge and Bill "Thunder" Thornton's subsequent two-point run gave the Huskers' the lead for good, 36-27, with 12:10 left. Mira, who passed for 321 yards, led a valiant comeback attempt, but was thwarted by a last-minute interception by Husker guard Bob Brown.

Orange Bowl
Nebraska 13,
Auburn 7

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1964--Nebraska made its second Orange Bowl trip a happier one than the first with a 13-7 win over Auburn in the 1964 Miami Classic. The Huskers evened their bowl record with the win and handed Bob Devaney his second bowl win in as many tries.

Husker quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the game open before most of the 72,647 fans had settled in their seats. On the Huskers' second play from scrimmage, Claridge bolted 68 yards down the sideline to put NU ahead 7-0. At the time, it was the longest TD run in OB history. Moments later Dave Theisen broke another OB record with a 31-yard field goal. The record lasted until the second quarter when Theisen booted a 36-yarder to give NU a 13-0 halftime lead.

Auburn quarterback Jimmy Sidle almost brought the Tigers back, but Husker linebacker John Kirby batted a fourth-and-four pass away at the goal line with less than three minutes to go to preserve the win for Nebraska.

Cotton Bowl
Arkansas 10,

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1965--Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas Razorbacks mounted an 80-yard fourth quarter drive against a previously impregnable Nebraska defense to down the Huskers, 10-7, in NU's first Dallas appearance. The Huskers had led most of the way in one of the greatest defensive battles in bowl history.

Arkansas scored first on a 31-yard Tom McKnelly field goal in the first quarter. But sophomore Harry Wilson capped a 69-yard Husker march in the second quarter on a 1-yard plunge to give Nebraska a 7-3 halftime lead. The Huskers held that lead until Bobby Burnett finished the Arkansas drive with a three-yard TD run with 4:50 left in the game. In the fierce defensive struggle, first downs were even at 11, and the Razorbacks held a slim, 176-168 total offense edge.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1966--With the national championship riding on the outcome, Coach Bob Devaney's Huskers took on Alabama's Crimson Tide for the first time. Nebraska went into the game 10-0 and ranked third, Alabama was 8-1-1 and fourth. But earlier in the day, top-ranked Michigan State lost to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and LSU knocked off No. 2 Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl to set up a national-title game in the Orange Bowl.

Playing in the first night bowl game ever, 'Bama won the title 39-28. The Tide led 24-7 at the half and the game was never in serious doubt, but led by the passing of Bob Churchich, the Huskers came back to make a solid fight and make the final score respectable.

Sugar Bowl
Alabama 34,

New Orleans, La., Jan. 2, 1967--Never ones to duck a challenge, Coach Bob Devaney and his Cornhuskers accepted a bid for a rematch with Alabama and Bear Bryant in the Sugar Bowl. It turned out to be a little too much of a challenge as No. 3 'Bama handed the No. 7 Huskers a 34-7 thumping.

The Tide rolled up a 17-0 first-quarter advantage and led at halftime, 24-0, behind the passing of Kenny Stabler. Sophomore fullback Dick Davis prevented a complete whitewashing with a 15-yard TD catch of a Bob Churchich pass on the first play of the fourth quarter. Husker QB Churchich sparked again against the Tide, completing 21 of 34 passes for 201 yards. With the loss, the Huskers joined Alabama in holding the dubious distinction of being the only teams to lose in all four major bowls.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 20, 1969--Golden-toed Paul Rodgers booted a Sun Bowl-record four field goals--all in the first quarter-- and Coach Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers romped to a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 35th edition of El Paso's Sun Bowl.

Rogers booted FG's of 50, 32, 42 and 37 yards and sophomore I-back Jeff Kinney added a TD run of 11 yards to give Nebraska an 18-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and the Huskers were never threatened. For his record-setting effort, Rogers was named the game's outstanding offensive player. The Big Eight co-champion Cornhuskers rolled up a 355-185 total offense advantage over the outmanned Bulldogs. Dan Schneiss led Husker rushers with 63 yards and Van Brownson completed 11 of 18 passes for 109 yards.

After two years away from the bowl scene, the Sun Bowl started a run of 25-straight bowl appearances for the Huskers.

Louisiana State 12

Miami Fla., Jan. 1, 1971--Playing under the lights in Miami's Orange Bowl for the first time in five years, Coach Bob Devaney's Nebraska Cornhuskers won the first of two straight national titles by virtue of a 17-12 win over LSU and some fortunate circumstances.

Earlier in the day, top-ranked Texas was upset by Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl, and No. 2 Ohio State was shocked by Stanford, 27-17, in the Rose Bowl. That left the door to the title wide open for No. 3 Nebraska. The Huskers responded by building a 10-0 first-quarter lead on a 25-yard field goal by Paul Rogers and a 3-yard TD run by Joe Orduna. But a pair of Mark Lumpkin FG's and a 31-yard Buddy Lee to Al Coffee TD pass on the last play of the third quarter gave the aroused Tigers a 12-10 lead.

Nebraska showed its grit by driving 67 yards, and after quarterback Jerry Tagge stretched the ball over from the 1-yard line with 8:50 left, the Huskers clinched their first national title.

Orange Bowl
Nebraska 38,

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1972--It was supposed to be another "Game of the Century," rivaling Nebraska's 35-31 win over Oklahoma a few weeks earlier. The 12-0 Huskers were No. 1, the 11-0 Alabama Crimson Tide was No. 2 but the OB had a dream game for a little less than a quarter.

The Huskers struck early on a two-yard TD run by Jeff Kinney before Johnny Rodgers broke the Tide's back with a 77-yard run TD punt return on the last play of the first quarter. The Huskers added two more scores in the second stanza and by halftime there was no doubt about who was No. 1, as Nebraska led, 28-0. The Huskers continued to dominate and rolled to a 38-6 win, giving Nebraska a second-straight national title and Coach Bob Devaney a satisfying first win in three tries over 'Bama Coach Bear Bryant.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1973--Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers went wild, scoring four touchdowns and passing for another, as the Cornhuskers became the first team to ever win three straight Orange Bowls, romping over Notre Dame, 40-6. In his last game as a Cornhusker, Rodgers was moved to I-back from his usual wingback position, and on the game's first play he took a pitchout for a 13-yard gain. It was a sign of things to come.

"Johnny R" capped his career by scoring on runs of eight, four and five yards, caught the Irish defense by surprise with a 52-yard TD pass to Frosty Anderson in the second quarter, and scored the last of his 50 career TD's (including bowls) by taking a sideline pass from Dave Humm in the third quarter and scampering 50 yards to pay dirt.

Nebraska 19,

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1974--Tom Osborne's Nebraska Cornhuskers broke open a tight contest in the third quarter with a pair of gamebreaking plays to chalk up a 19-3 win over the mighty Texas Longhorns in the 1974 Cotton Bowl game. The chilled New Year's Day crowd of 67,500 saw the Big Eight's runner-up and the Southwest Conference champions battle to a 3-3 tie at halftime, thanks to a brilliant Longhorn 1-yard-line stand just before the gun.

But the Huskers weren't to be denied and midway through the third quarter, safety Bob Thornton returned a Texas field goal try 41 yards to set up the clinching touchdowns. Ritch Bahe got the final 12 yards on a reverse and Rich Sanger kicked the point to make it 10-3. Four plays later, John Bell recovered a Texas fumble at the Longhorn 19 and three plays after that Tony Davis ripped in from the three to make it 16-3. Sanger kicked a 43-yard field goal with 8:09 left to complete the scoring.

Texas had scored first on a 22-yard field goal by Bill Schott in the wake of a Husker fumble, but early in the second quarter defensive end Steve Manstedt picked up a Roosevelt Leaks' fumble in mid-air and raced 65 yards to the eight. But a stiff Longhorn defense forced a 24-yard field goal by Sanger.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 31, 1974--Rallying from a 10-0 deficit, Nebraska scored three times in the fourth quarter to defeat the tough Florida Gators 13-10. It was the Cornhuskers' sixth straight bowl victory.

From the very start, it was an uphill climb for the Huskers. Florida scored once in the first quarter and kicked a field goal in the second, while holding Nebraska's usually strong offense to 138 total yards.

But in the second half, fullback Tony Davis, quarterback Terry Luck, kicker Mike Coyle and the Blackshirt defense took over for the Huskers and led Nebraska to victory. Although it wasn't until the fourth quarter when the Huskers really got rolling.

Freshman sensation, I-back Monte Anthony, scored the Huskers' first touchdown, with 13:24 left in the game, when he ran straight up the middle for two yards and a score. Coyle's kick was good, and the Huskers trailed 10-7.

Davis set up Coyle's two deciding field goals with inspired running as he picked up 126 yards on 17 carries, including the longest run of the game for 40 yards. For his performance, Davis was named the game's most valuable player, an award which he had also received in the Cotton Bowl the previous year. Coyle tied the score on a 37-yard boot with 7:13 left in the game and with only 1:46 remaining, his 39-yard kick gave the Huskers their sixth-consecutive post-season win.

Tempe, Ariz., Dec. 26, 1975--Nebraska's record-tying six-game bowl win streak was snapped by Arizona State in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl, when the Sun Devils edged the Huskers 17-14, before 51,396 partisan fans on ASU's home field.

The final blow came with 4:50 remaining in the game, when ASU kicker Dan Kush successfully booted a 29-yard field goal, breaking a 14-14 tie and capping a rally from a 14-6 deficit after three quarters.

Fighting till the very end, Nebraska then took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona State 31-yard line with less than two minutes to play. The Huskers next two plays were incomplete passes, but on third down, quarterback Terry Luck hit fullback Tony Davis with a pass at the ASU 21-yard line. However, Davis was hit hard by two Arizona State players and fumbled the ball. The Sun Devils recovered and went on to kill the clock and claim their 17-14 win.

Nebraska ended the 1975 season at 10-2 and ranked No. 9 in the country. The Huskers lost their last two games of the year to No. 1-ranked Oklahoma 35-10 and to the No. 2-ranked Sun Devils.

Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl
Nebraska 27,
Texas Tech 24

Houston, Texas, Dec. 31, 1976--In the most exciting bowl game of the year, the Nebraska Cornhuskers edged a determined Texas Tech team, 27-24, in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Twice Nebraska rallied to overcome 10-point deficits. With Texas Tech ahead 17-7 and time running out in the second quarter, quarterback Vince Ferragamo moved the Cornhuskers 80 yards in less than two minutes to score on a 22-yard touchdown pass to Mark Dufresne. But Texas Tech running back Billy Taylor countered early in the third quarter with an eight-yard TD run to put Nebraska down 24-14.

Once again, the Cornhuskers started to work on the Texas Tech lead. I-back Rick Berns broke around the right end and dashed untouched 18 yards into the end zone to put Nebraska within three. The Huskers then took the lead when Ferragamo connected with split end Chuck Malito, who gained 107 yards in three catches to earn most-valuable-lineman honors in the game, for a 23-yard touchdown pass. That score, which would prove to be the winning touchdown, was set up by a partially blocked punt by defensive backs Ted Harvey and Kent Smith.

The final score was in doubt until defensive end Reg Gast recovered a Red Raider fumble with 1:34 left in the game, killing a Tech threat and allowing Nebraska to run out the clock.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 19, 1977--Quarterback Randy Garcia came off the bench in the fourth quarter to throw two touchdown passes to rally Nebraska from a 17-7 fourth-quarter deficit to a 21-17 win over North Carolina in the 19th annual Liberty Bowl.

Garcia, who replaced starter Tom Sorley, first hit wingback Curtis Craig with a 10-yard touchdown pass (a sensational diving catch) with 10:51 left to cut the Husker deficit to 17-14, then threw a 34-yard scoring pass to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game to cap a rally that frustrated UNC's upset hopes.

The Tar Heels drew first blood early in the second quarter on a 12-yard scoring pass from Matt Kupec to tight end Brooks Williams. Then, after the Huskers had tied the game at 7-7 on a 15-yard touchdown run by fullback Dodie Donnell, Kupec threw a 10-yard scoring pass to fullback Bob Loomis late in the half, giving North Carolina a 14-7 halftime lead.

Carolina upped its lead to 17-7 late in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal by Tom Biddle and the Tar Heels appeared to have the game well in control until Garcia's heroics brought NU back.

Orange Bowl
Oklahoma 31,
Nebraska 24

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1979--In the first-ever matchup of Big Eight teams in a bowl game, Nebraska just missed duplicating its 17-14 win over Oklahoma several weeks earlier in losing to the Sooners 31-24, in the 45th annual Orange Bowl.

Nebraska got off to a fast start in trying for an unprecedented double over OU, driving 80 yards in 15 plays after the opening kickoff to take a 7-0 lead on Tom Sorley's 21-yard touchdown pass to Tim Smith. But the Huskers then watched the revenge-minded Sooners score 24 unanswered points.

Nebraska's rally started with 9:12 left in the game when I-back Rick Berns capped a 78-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run that reduced the deficit to 31-17. A little over a minute later, defensive tackle David Clark recovered quarterback Thomas Lott's fumble at the OU 42 and the Huskers were definitely back in the game. Oklahoma's defense yielded 35 yards to the seven, but rose up to a stop I-back Craig Johnson on the fourth-and-one with 4:24 to go--virtually sealing the win, although the Huskers marched 58 yards in 10 plays to score on a 2-yard pass from Sorley to Junior Miller on the final play of the game.

Cotton Bowl
Houston 17,
Nebraska 14

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1980--Reserve quarterback Terry Elston threw a 6-yard fourth-down touchdown pass to Eric Herring with just 12 seconds left in the game as Houston handed Nebraska a heart-breaking 17-14 loss in the 44th Cotton Bowl game--another in a six-year string of incredible finishes in the Husker bowl games.

Before a CBS-TV national audience and 72,032 on hand in Dallas' famous oval, the Huskers and Cougars battled tooth-and-nail for a full 60 minutes, and the goal-line situation at the end was a fitting finale.

Nebraska struck first as I-back Jarvis Redwine scored on a 9-yard run late in the first period, but Houston came back to tie, 7-7, at halftime on an 8-yard Elston run early in the second period.

After a scoreless third period, Southwest Conference champion Houston took its first lead of the game, 10-7, on a 41-yard field goal by Ken Hatfield with 8:25 left in the game. The Huskers made little headway against the Cougar defense in the second half, but took advantage of a Houston fumble to drive 31 yards in six plays to a take a 14-10 lead on Jeff Quinn's 6-yard touchdown pass with 3:56 left.

The next 3:44 were all Terry Elston, though, as the junior accounted for all but 11 yards in the Cougars' winning 66-yard drive himself, completing 5-of-7 passes for 45 yards (three for crucial first downs) and rushing three times for 10 yards.

Mississippi State 17

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 27, 1980--A great passing performance by senior Jeff Quinn and a stout defensive effort enabled Nebraska to enjoy a successful return to the Sun Bowl by downing Mississippi State 31-17.

The Huskers drew first blood just 2:30 into the game when--on the first play after MSU's Mardye McDole fumbled a Nebraska punt--split end Todd Brown scored on a 23-yard end-around. NU added 10 points in the second quarter--on a 22-yard Kevin Seibel field goal and an 8-yard Quinn to Jeff Finn pass--to take a 17-0 lead into the dressing room at halftime.

MSU finally scored in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal and appeared to be gaining momentum when Husker defensive end Jimmy Williams recovered a fumble at the Bulldog 25 to set up a 2-yard TD run by Andra Franklin. The Huskers iced the game with a 52-yard Quinn to Tim McCrady pass late in the game. For their efforts, Williams and Quinn were named the outstanding players of the 1980 Sun Bowl.

Orange Bowl
Clemson 22,
Nebraska 15

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1982--Coach Tom Osborne's Cornhuskers went into their 13th consecutive bowl game hoping New Year's magic would work the same wonders for them as it had for their Big Red counterparts 11 years earlier--and for a while, it looked like it would. First, Texas toppled No. 3 Alabama, 14-12, in the Cotton Bowl, and while fourth-ranked Nebraska battled top-ranked Clemson, Pitt was knocking off No. 2 Georgia in the Sugar Bowl, leaving it up to the Huskers and Tigers to settle the national title.

The dream of a third national championship in 12 years was not to be for the Huskers, though, as their own errors, plus standout performances by Clemson quarterback Homer Jordan and the Tiger defense gave the South Carolina school its first national title and a 12-0 season with a 22-15 victory.

The Tigers scored first on a 41-yard Donald Igwebuike field goal to take a 3-0 lead, but Nebraska came back with a bit of razzle-dazzle and took a 7-3 lead midway in the first quarter on a 25-yard TD pass from I-back Mike Rozier to wingback Anthony Steels.

For the next two-and-a-half quarters, it was almost all Clemson as the opportunistic Tigers took advantage of Husker errors to score 19 unanswered points to take a 22-7 lead after three periods. Early in the fourth quarter, the Huskers came back on a 26-yard TD run and a two point conversion by Roger Craig, cutting the margin to 22-15, but an eighth untimely penalty stopped another promising drive moments later and the elusive Jordan ate up all but six seconds of the last 5:24.

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla., 31,
Nebraska 30

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1983--The 1983 Orange Bowl game between Nebraska and Louisiana State started out like the one-sided contest the oddsmakers had predicted. The Husker defense held the Tigers to three yards on three plays after the opening kickoff, forcing a punt, then the NU offense drove 51 yards in six plays to take a 7-0 lead on Mark Schellen's 2-yard run with 4:03 left in the game.

At that point, however, Murphy's Law went into effect. On the first play after Toby Williams intercepted an LSU pass at the Husker 7, Nebraska fumbled the ball away to set up a tying Tiger TD. The Huskers then fumbled the ball away at the LSU 15, forced a punt, and fumbled it at their own 45 to set up another punt. Then the Huskers threw an interception, and were thankful to be down only 14-7 at halftime.

The second half didn't start out any better as NU missed a field goal, then fumbled again to set up a field goal that gave LSU a 17-7 lead. But once down 10 points, the Husker offense came alive, driving 80 yards in 12 plays to score on an 11-yard pass from Turner Gill to Mike Rozier, and going 47 yards in seven plays to finally regain the lead, 21-17, early in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard run by Gill.

A dropped pass on a faked field goal prevented another score, and another interception set up an LSU field goal that cut the margin to 21-20, but the Husker offense sealed the win eating up the final 5:05.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 2, 1984--In one of the most exciting bowl games ever played, fourth-ranked Miami overcame Nebraska rallies from 17- and 14-point deficits and took the national championship away from the Huskers when strong safety Ken Calhoun knocked Turner Gill's two-point PAT pass out of Jeff Smith's hands with 48 seconds left in the game, preserving a 31-30 home-field win in the 50th Orange Bowl turf.

Behind rifle-armed freshman quarterback Bernie Kosar, the 'Canes jumped to an easy 17-0 first-quarter lead and never trailed. The Huskers rallied to score two second-quarter touchdowns, then tied the game early in the second half on a Scott Livingston field goal, but Miami scored twice in a five-minute span later in the third period to put the visitors in a 31-17 hole.

Things looked blackest for Nebraska four plays after Miami's last score when Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier left the game for good with a badly bruised ankle, but junior I-back Jeff Smith came in to rush for 99 yards and two touchdowns, the second a 24-yarder on fourth-and-eight, to get the Huskers within 31-30. Coach Tom Osborne then eschewed the PAT kick (and a tie that would have assured Nebraska the national title) and decided to go for it all but, thanks to Calhoun, Gill and Smith came up just short.

Sugar Bowl
Nebraska 28,

New Orleans, La., Jan. 1, 1985--Senior quarterback Craig Sundberg closed out his career in grand style as he led the Huskers back from a 10-0 first-half deficit to a 28-10 win over Louisiana State in the 51st annual Sugar Bowl.

Fired-up LSU scored on two of its first three possessions to grab the early lead, but after a rocky start, the Sundberg-led Nebraska offense roared to life to put 28 unanswered points on the board. Two of the Huskers' four touchdowns were set up by a defense that forced six Tiger turnovers, five of them interceptions, including four off LSU starting quarterback Jeff Wickersham.

Sophomore I-back Doug DuBose helped spark Nebraska with a 102-yard rushing effort but it was Sundberg who provided most of the punch and was named the game's most valuable player. Starting for the first time since arm trouble knocked him out of the starting lineup at midseason, Sundberg completed 10 of 15 passes for 143 yards, threw for three touchdowns and ran for the go-ahead score himself on a 9-yard sprint 6:46 into the second half. Sundberg's three TD passes tied a Nebraska bowl record. Two of those scoring tosses went to tight end Todd Frain, tying another NU bowl mark.

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1986--After building a 14-3 halftime lead, Nebraska self-destructed in the third quarter and was never able to recover completely in dropping a 27-23 decision to Michigan in the SunKist Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskers used a pair of second-quarter touchdowns by I-back Doug DuBose to take the lead, but a fumble on the third play of the second half set up a 21-yard Wolverine touchdown drive that cut the NU margin to 14-10. Nebraska fumbled it away again on the second play after the ensuing kickoff, setting up a 38-yard touchdown drive that put Michigan up for good, 17-14.

Nebraska's next drive stalled after one first down, and the Wolverines blocked Dan Wingard's punt, recovering it at the NU 6-yard line. The Nebraska defense held, and a 19-yard Pat Moons field goal made it 20-14, Michigan, after 8:18 of the second half. Later in the period, the Maize and Blue took advantage of two pass interference penalties to score another touchdown to build what proved to be an insurmountable 27-14 lead.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 1, 1987--Louisiana State had a 66-yard touchdown drive in the first three minutes of the contest and another 66-yard touchdown drive in the last three minutes of the game. But in between, Nebraska completely dominated the Tigers, running off 30 unanswered points and posted a 30-15 win in the USF&G Sugar Bowl, the Huskers' 25th bowl appearance.

Between those two Tiger drives, Nebraska out-yarded LSU, 352-62, and had a first-down advantage of 22-3 as the Huskers made a remarkable recovery from a disheartening loss to Oklahoma at the end of the regular season. It was Nebraska's fourth bowl win over LSU in as many tries and the third in five years.

Steve Taylor became the second Nebraska quarterback in three years to win the Miller-Digby Trophy as the Sugar Bowl MVP. He completed 11 of 19 passes for 110 yards and one touchdown, and rushed 20 times for 63 yards and another score. Of Taylor's 173 total offensive yards, 90 came in two drives in which the Huskers went from a 7-3 deficit to a 17-7 lead.

Sunkist Fiesta Bowl

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1988--Florida State quarterback Danny McManus hit flanker Ronald Lewis with a 15-yard, fourth-down touchdown pass with 3:07 left in the game to give Florida State a 31-28 win over Nebraska in the 17th Fiesta Bowl. McManus' third touchdown pass of the afternoon capped a 97-yard touchdown drive by the Seminoles, who had taken over at their 3 with 6:58 to go when a fumble kept the Huskers from putting the game away.

It was a frustrating day for Nebraska, which jumped to a 14-0 first-quarter lead on a short drive set up by a Richard Bell punt return, and a 52-yard punt return touchdown by Dana Brinson. The Husker defense held FSU to just 82 yards on the ground, 28 by standout tailback Sammie Smith, but McManus threw for 375 yards, his career high by an even 100 yards. He was named offensive player-of-the-game, while Husker tackle Neil Smith was named the top defensive player.

Even after Florida State took the late lead, the Huskers almost rallied, but Steve Taylor's 58-yard pass to Morgan Gregory, which carried to the Seminole 2, was called back because of a penalty.

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla. 23,

Miami, Fla., Jan. 2, 1989--Second-ranked Miami's quickness, particularly on defense, proved to be too much for sixth-ranked Nebraska as the Hurricanes dominated the Huskers, 23-3, in the 55th Orange Bowl Classic. Despite the win and a final 11-1-0 record, the Hurricanes were unable to lay claim to a second-straight national title due to undefeated Notre Dame's 34-21 Fiesta Bowl win over West Virginia earlier in the day.

Although the Nebraska defense held the Miami offense to 354 total-offense yards, nearly 100 under its season average, the Huskers never could get untracked against the Hurricanes' second-ranked defense. After leading the nation in rushing at 382.3 yards per game during the regular season, NU managed only 80 yards rushing against Miami, and finished with 10 first downs. Nebraska needed a career-long 50-yard field goal by Gregg Barrios to capitalize on its only serious scoring threat. Early in the third quarter, Tahaun Lewis picked off a Steve Walsh pass and returned it 31 yards to the Miami 37. But after Ken Clark gained 16 yards to the 21, Steve Taylor was sacked for a 13-yard loss, and the Huskers had to settle for Barrios' field goal, which prevented Nebraska's first shutout since the 1973 season.

Sunkist Fiesta Bowl
Florida State 41,
Nebraska 17

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1990--Fifth-ranked Florida State rode the arm of quarterback Peter Tom Willis and the talents of a bevy of quick, talented receivers to a 41-17 win over a sixth-ranked NU in the 19th Sunkist Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskers had the lead twice in the first half, 7-0 after driving 69 yards for a touchdown on their first possession (helped by a 41-yard Mike Stiggett-to-Mark Dowse pass on a fake punt), and 10-7 on a Chris Drennan field goal early in the second period.

From then on, it was all FSU. The Seminoles scored touchdowns on five of their next seven possessions to build a commanding 41-10 lead at the end of three quarters. In the process, Willis had the best passing day ever against Nebraska, complete 25 of 40 for 422 yards and five touchdowns. The yardage topped the previous high vs. the Huskers of 375 by the Seminoles' Danny McManus in the 1988 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl, and the five TD passes were also the most-ever against NU.

For the second-straight year, the Huskers faced a bowl opponent which was probably the best team in the nation, but which had virtually no hope of winning the national title due to untimely defeats early in the season. FSU lost its first two games in 1989 to Southern Mississippi and Clemson, then roared back to win its last 10, including 24-10 over eventual No. 1 Miami, Fla.

Florida Citrus Bowl
Georgia Tech 45,
Nebraska 21

Orlando, Fla., Jan. 1, 1991--Despite a second-quarter rally, Nebraska was unable to overcome a 21-0 deficit as the Huskers fell to undefeated Georgia Tech, 45-21, in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The Yellow Jackets finished 11-0-1 with the victory and edged Colorado for the UPI national title, while the Buffaloes, who had beaten NU, 27-12, in November, claimed the AP crown.

Two freshmen gave Husker fans a ray of hope after Tech took its three-TD lead. All-Big Eight tight end Johnny Mitchell hauled in a 30-yard TD pass from Tom Haase, then I-back Derek Brown sprinted 50 yards to cut the margin to 21-14 with 5:07 left in the half. But that was as close as Nebraska would get, and running back William Bell's two fourth-quarter TDs sealed the Huskers' fate.

Mitchell finished the game with five receptions for an NU-bowl-record 138 yards, while Brown rushed for 99 yards, and Haase came off the bench to complete 14 of 21 passes for 209 yards and two TDs.

Federal Express
Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla. 22,

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1992--No. 1-ranked Miami, playing on its home field for at least a share of its fourth national title in nine years, used overwhelming team speed and a smothering defense to blank Nebraska, 22-0. It was the Cornhuskers' first shutout defeat in 221 games since the 1973 season.

The win left the Hurricanes 12-0 on the season and (as it turned out) with a split national title with a 12-0 Washington team that had beaten Nebraska, 36-21, at Lincoln in September. The Hurricanes were No. 1 in the writers poll (Associated Press), while the Huskies claimed the top spot in the coaches poll (USA Today/CNN). It was the second-straight year for a split title, and, for the second straight year, Nebraska, 9-2-1, lost to both teams involved, having been defeated by Colorado and Georgia Tech the season before.

Miami held Nebraska to 82 rushing yards after the Huskers had won the NCAA rushing title in the regular season at 353.2 yards per game.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1993--The Seminoles struck first in the opening quarter and scored 20 unanswered points before split end Corey Dixon caught a 41-yard bomb from Nebraska quarterback Tommie Frazier with 1:31 remaining in the first half to end the Seminole run. Nebraska had missed on two field goal opportunities, while Florida State was good on two attempts. After Nebraska stalled on its first possession of the second half, the Seminoles put together an 85-yard drive to go up 27-7. That would prove to be FSU's last score, however, as the Husker defense forced the Seminoles to punt on all of its five remaining possessions and limited the potent offense to 102 total yards from that point on. Frazier connected with tight end Gerald Armstrong on a 1-yard pass in the fourth with 10 minutes remaining to pull within 13, but threw two interceptions as No. 3 FSU held on for a 27-14 victory. The No. 11 Huskers were slowed by five fumbles, and turned the ball over three times after leading the nation in turnover margin during the regular season. Dixon had a career-best day, with 123 of Nebraska's 146 receiving yards, and ran a 35-yard reverse en route to being named the Nebraska MVP. Calvin Jones led the Huskers in rushing with 76 yards on 19 carries on a wet field. Barron Miles returned two kickoffs for 79 yards. Trev Alberts was the Huskers' leading tackler with a career-high 14 (eight solo), sacked QB Charlie Ward once and had three tackles for loss. FSU was led by Ward who passed for 182 yards (15-30, one interception and two touchdowns), and running back Sean Jackson who rushed for 101 yards. The Huskers were limited to 144 yards rushing--after leading the nation in rushing in the regular season. Frazier completed 10-21 passes for 146 yards and two TDs. NU dropped to 9-3 on the season and finished 14th in the final polls, its 24th consecutive year finishing in the AP top 25. FSU upped its record to 11-1 and finished second to Alabama in the polls.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1994--Nebraska entered its record-tying 25th consecutive bowl undefeated and ranked No. 2 by AP, but No. 1 in the CNN/USA Today Coaches poll and in the combined Bowl Coalition poll. The Florida State Seminoles held the AP No. 1 rank and were second by the coaches and Coalition. It was the 10th time that the AP's No.1 and No. 2 team met in a bowl game for the national title.

Although the Huskers were undefeated, beating four ranked teams along the way, Nebraska was tagged as a 17 1/2 point underdog. Despite the odds, the Huskers outplayed the Seminoles, before a record crowd (81,536) and a nationally televised NBC audience, and put themselves in a position to win their first national title since 1971. But Byron Bennett's 45-yard field goal attempt with one second left on the clock, sailed wide left and Florida State won the thriller, 18-16, and the school's first national championship. Nebraska earned the nation's respect and finished No. 3 in both polls, its highest final ranking since 1983.

The Huskers appeared to get on the board first when Corey Dixon took a Florida State punt at the NU 29, broke four tackles and burst into the end zone, however, the touchdown was called back for an illegal block. After a scoreless first quarter, FSU freshman Scott Bentley hit on a 34-yard field goal, then Nebraska took the lead when a tipped pass from quarterback Tommie Frazier found sophomore Reggie Baul, for a 34-yard score. Bentley followed with a 25-yard field goal and the Huskers went in at intermission with a 7-6 lead. Nebraska's leading receiver on the season, Abdul Muhammad, and leading rusher Calvin Jones, both left the game with injuries and missed the second half. In the third period, Florida State scored on a 1-yard William Floyd run and followed with a 39-yard field goal by Bentley to take a 15-7 lead. True freshman Lawrence Phillips came in for the injured Jones and on the first play of the fourth quarter scored on a 12-yard run. Nebraska, now within two points, continued to give the ball to Phillips, and the sellout crowd watched as he totaled 64 yards on 13 attempts, with all but one carry coming in the fourth quarter.

Set up by Phillips 17-yard scamper, and Frazier's 32-yard sprint to the 4-yard line, Bennett appeared to have kicked the game-winning 27-yard field goal with 1:16 remaining. But with Nebraska up 16-15, Florida State began its game-winning drive at its own 35. FSU quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward hit Warrick Dunn on passes of 21 yards and 9 yards, and Nebraska was called for personal foul and pass interference penalties that moved the ball to the NU 3. Toby Wright then tackled Sean Jackson for a 2-yard loss, and on second down from the 5, FSU's Scott Bentley kicked his fourth field goal of the game with 21 seconds left (22 yards) to give FSU an 18-16 lead, it was the fifth lead change of the game. Nebraska's final drive started at its 43-yard line with approximately 15 seconds on the clock after Barron Miles returned the Seminole kickoff 23 yards. Frazier missed tight end Trumane Bell at the sidelines, but hit Bell on the second try over midfield for a 29 gain to the Seminole 28. NU immediately called time out as one second remained. Bennett waited to set up for his second field goal of the game, as officials cleared the field of those who thought the game was over, but his kick was wide left.

Nebraska totaled 183 yards rushing to FSU's 47, outyarded the Seminoles, 389-333, and held the nation's No. 1 offense to just one conversion on 12 third down attempts. Ward completed an Orange Bowl record 24 passes (of 43 attempts) for 286 yards, but was sacked five times (after FSU quarterbacks had been sacked just 10 times all season) and was held to negative rushing yards. Nebraska's Trev Alberts proved he truly was the nation's best linebacker, if not the best defensive player overall, as he was responsible for three of Ward's sacks and did so basically without the use of his right arm which he dislocated in the Oklahoma game. Alberts had six tackles, while Miles and Tyrone Williams had nine and Wright totaled eight. Frazier was Nebraska's MVP as he matched Ward, yard for yard, with 283 total-offense yards, leading all rushers with 77 yards and passing for 206. Bell was Nebraska's leading receiver with four catches for 75 yards.

Husker's 25-Year Bowl String is Nation's Longest

When Alabama did not receive a bowl bid at the end of the 1984 season, Nebraska took over the record for the longest current string of consecutive bowl appearances from the Crimson Tide. Alabama had appeared in 25-straight bowl games dating back to the inaugural Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia in 1959, but the Tide slipped in 1984 and did not receive a bowl bid. The Cornhuskers, first under Bob Devaney, then Tom Osborne, have appeared in a bowl game in 25 consecutive seasons, starting with a 45-6 win over Georgia in 1969 Sun Bowl. The 25 consecutive bowls is an NCAA record.

Tommie Frazier became the first true freshman to start at quarterback for Nebraska in 1992.

Did You Know...

Nebraska holds the NCAA record for most points scored in a brief amount of time with 41 points in 2:55 vs. Colorado, Oct. 15, 1983. The 1983 team, known as "The Scoring Explosion" scored an NCAA record 624 points in 12 games (52 per game average), both figures would best the NFL record (541 points, 33.8 average by Washington in 1983).

Nebraska's Memorial Stadium, one of the largest collegiate stadiums in the nation, will celebrate its 200th consecutive sellout in 1994, when the Huskers host Colorado on Oct. 29. The sellout streak, which is the nation's longest, dates back to 1962 when Bob Devaney took the helm.

HUSKER FOOTBALL HISTORY

Over a Century of Winning Tradition

By Mike Babcock, Lincoln Journal-Star Columnist

Fans celebrated by waving banners of old gold. "The score stood 10 to nothing in the state university's favor and great and loud were the yells that filled the atmosphere," a newspaper account said.

The date was Nov. 27, 1890. The state university was Nebraska, which had just defeated a team representing the Omaha YMCA. The game, composed of a 35-minute first half and a 43-minute second half, was played in Omaha. So began Nebraska's rich football tradition.

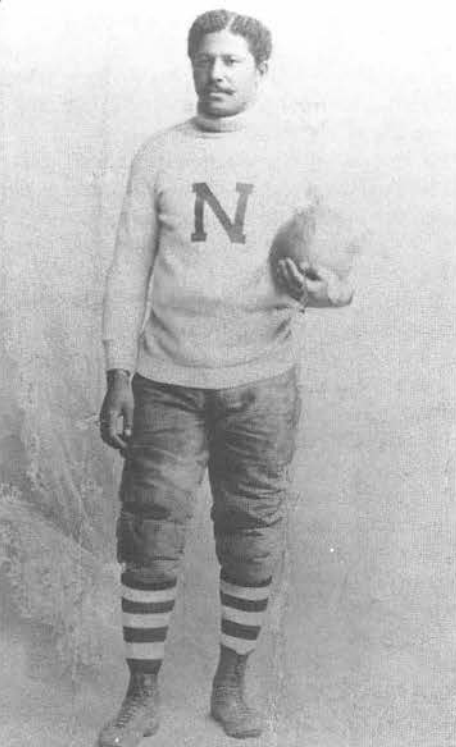

It was an abbreviated opening "season." Nebraska's first football team played only one other game, and it was in February of 1891, an 18-0 victory against Doane College in Crete. Whether or not Dr. Langdon Frothingham, the team's acknowledged "coach," was still at Nebraska when the team traveled to Crete is unclear. Frothingham, a new faculty member from Harvard, was made the coach primarily because he had brought a football with him. He returned to Boston in 1891, perhaps before that second game.

Nebraska didn't actually have a football coach until 1893, when Frank Crawford was hired for an amount reported to have been between $300 and $500. His salary might have been in part, or all, in the form of room and board.

Nebraska's first game against an opponent from outside the state was in 1891, when Iowa won 22-0 in Omaha. The first victory against an out of state opponent came in 1892, when George Flippin led Nebraska to a 6-0 victory against Illinois in Lincoln.

Flippin was the first black athlete at Nebraska and only the fifth black athlete at a white university in the nation. Because of his presence on the roster, Missouri refused to play a scheduled game with Nebraska in Omaha in 1892. The result was a 1-0 forfeit.

In the early years, Nebraska's football team had several nicknames, including Black Knights (probably the most common), Rattlesnake Boys, Antelopes, Old Gold and Bugeaters. The team was first called Cornhuskers in 1900. Cy Sherman, a sportswriter for the Lincoln Daily Star newspaper, assigned the nickname.

Nebraska was an independent power in the Midwest by then, under the direction of Coach W.C. "Bummy" Booth. "Nebraska occupies a unique position in western football," a newspaper account in 1903 said. "Too strong to find fearful competitors, the Cornhuskers can almost weep with Alexander the Great because they have no more teams to conquer."

Booth coached Nebraska from 1900 to 1905, with his teams compiling a 46-8-1 record. In 1902, a team featuring Johnny Bender and Charles Borg went undefeated, untied and unscored upon. Booth's teams produced a 24-game winning streak—27 counting exhibition victories against Lincoln High School.

Booth's coaching success was soon overshadowed, however, when Edwald O. "Jumbo" Stiehm was hired as coach in 1911. Stiehm's teams, referred to as the "Stiehm Rollers," were a combined 35-2-3. He remains the winningest football coach in school history by percentage (.913).

The "Stiehm Rollers" won four Missouri Valley Conference championships and had a school-record 34-game unbeaten streak. In 1914, they were 7-0-1 and argued they were deserving of a mythical national title. In 1915, they were even better, going 8-0 and again claiming the right to be called national champions. The Cornhuskers were considered to play in the Rose Bowl game after the 1915 season, but the university's athletic board voted to turn down any such invitation.

During Stiehm's tenure as coach, Nebraska produced its first official All-America players—Vic Halligan and Guy Chamberlin.

Stiehm left Nebraska after the 1915 season because the university turned down his demand that he be paid an annual salary of $4,250 to serve as football coach and athletic director. The Cornhuskers quickly overcame his departure and continued to enjoy national respect.

After Coach Fred Dawson's first team defeated Pittsburgh (coached by Pop Warner) 10-0, an Eastern newspaper called the Cornhuskers "Mankilling Mastodons."

Like everything else in this country, Cornhusker football felt the profound effects of World War I. But the end of the war ushered in the Roaring 20s, a time not only of prohibition, flappers and Model T Fords but one in which Nebraska and Notre Dame regularly played football against each other. An 11-game series involving the schools began with a 20-19 Cornhusker victory in Lincoln in 1915 and ended with Nebraska's 17-0 victory in 1925 at Memorial Stadium.

The Cornhuskers' only loss in 1921 was against the Fighting Irish, 7-0 at Lincoln. Nebraska handed Notre Dame its only defeat in 1922, winning in South Bend, 14-6, and setting the stage for what has become the greatest drama of Cornhusker football during the Roaring 20s. On Nov. 10, 1923, before what one newspaper called "the greatest crowd ever assembled in the Missouri Valley to witness a football game" at Memorial Stadium, Nebraska defeated Knute Rockne's "wonder team." The score was 14-7, and the Cornhusker star was Ed Weir, a sophomore who would earn All-America recognition in 1924 and 1925. Weir led the way to a similarly impressive, 14-0 victory against Illinois and Red Grange in the 1925 season opener at Champaign, Ill.

On Oct. 13, 1923, Nebraska played its first game in Memorial Stadium, which replaced a field that ran east and west just to the south of what is now the South Stadium offices. The Nebraska Athletic Field could accommodate approximately 10,000 fans.

The Cornhuskers, who wore blue for the only time in school history that day in 1923, defeated Oklahoma 24-0. It would have been an appropriate way to dedicate the stadium. The problem was, the Cornhuskers' new home wasn't officially dedicated until a week later, a scoreless tie against Kansas. A newspaper account attributed the tie to a "stadium dedication jinx." A year earlier, Nebraska had spoiled the dedication of a new stadium at Kansas by defeating the Jayhawks 28-0.

Dawson, whose teams won three Missouri Valley Conference titles, was succeeded as coach by E.E. Bearg in 1925. Four years later, D.X. Bible arrived.

Bible, who came from Texas A&M, wasn't Nebraska's first choice to replace Bearg. Nebraska tried to lure Rockne from Notre Dame. He declined, however, and suggested the Cornhuskers approach Bible, who had turned A&M into a Southwest Conference powerhouse.

Bible coached the Cornhuskers from 1929 to 1936. His teams won six Big Six titles and featured a number of All-Americans, among them Ray Richards, Hugh Rhea, Lawrence Ely, George Sauer and Sam Francis.

Bible's best team probably was the one in 1933, the year Sauer earned All-America recognition. It finished 8-1, the only loss coming at Pittsburgh. After the 1936 season, in which Nebraska ranked No. 9 in the first Associated Press poll, Bible left in the same direction from which he had come, accepting a job at Texas.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

Cornhusker football was important to the state in the late 1930s. With the Depression coming to an end, it gave Nebraskans something to take pride in.

Bowl games are taken for granted by Nebraska fans now. The Cornhuskers have made 25 consecutive bowl trips and 30 in the last 32 seasons. But Nebraska had never been to a postseason bowl when Lawrence McCeney "Biff" Jones' fourth team accepted an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl, Jan. 1, 1941. Jones was Bible's successor.

The celebration that followed the acceptance of the school's first bowl bid lasted 24 hours in Lincoln, according to newspaper reports. University classes were cancelled, and students stormed the capitol, demanding that the governor lead the singing of the school song, "There is no place like Nebraska."

The team featured All-Americans Warren Alfson and Forrest Behm. Though it lost, 21-13, to a Stanford team which featured Frankie Albert and the innovative T-formation, it retains a special place in Cornhusker history.

Bob Devaney, Nebraska's Hall of Fame football coach and current athletics director emeritus, used to joke that he'd been in the state several years before he found out the Cornhuskers lost the 1941 Rose Bowl game.

Jones left after a 4-5 season in 1941, the first in a string of losing seasons which didn't end until 1950. After Jones' departure, Nebraska had six head coaches in the next eight years. One of the few bright spots, during an otherwise glum period, was Tom Novak, who earned All-America recognition as a senior on a 4-5 team in 1949. Novak's jersey number (60) was the first (of nine) to be retired by Nebraska.

The 1949 team was the first to be coached by Bill Glassford, who produced three winning seasons in his seven years. Glassford's best team was the one in 1950, which featured Bobby Reynolds, a sophomore who rushed for 1,342 yards and scored 157 points. The 1950 Cornhuskers were 6-2-1 and finished second in the Big Seven.

Glassford's 1954 team also finished second in the conference and earned a trip to the Orange Bowl because Big Seven champion Oklahoma wasn't allowed to make a return trip to the bowl under a "no-repeat" rule. Nebraska, which had lost to the Sooners 55-7, didn't fare much better in Miami, losing to Duke 34-7.

Glassford resigned, after considerable controversy and a player revolt, following the 1955 season. Six losing seasons, the last five under Coach Bill Jennings, followed. Jennings' teams had a knack for dramatic upsets, however, the most notable being a 25-21 Homecoming victory against Oklahoma in 1959. The victory ended the Sooners' record of 74 consecutive conference games without defeat.

Jennings' Cornhuskers opened the 1960 season by defeating fourth-ranked Texas in Austin, 14-13. But such upsets couldn't salvage his job, and he resigned after a 3-6-1 record in 1961.

Devaney was hired by Athletic Director William H. "Tippy" Dye after a search based on Dye's stated goals of Nebraska's being No. 1 in the nation in football and getting the best football coach in the country, regardless of who he was or where he was. Both goals were achieved.

Jennings was an excellent recruiter and Devaney inherited talented players when he arrived from Wyoming in 1962. That was apparent from the beginning as Devaney turned the program around immediately.

Despite a 47-8-0 record and five bowl appearances in his first five seasons at Nebraska, however, Devaney had detractors following 6-4 records in 1967 and 1968. The Cornhuskers' recruiting efforts fell off, and some boosters wanted Devaney and his staff fired.

In 1969, the offense was redesigned. The Cornhuskers went to an I-formation with an unbalanced line, at the suggestion of then-assistant coach Tom Osborne, and recruiting picked up because of his change in philosophy. Nebraska began an NCAA-record string of nine-win seasons in 1969 (which now stands at 25) and set the stage for back-to-back national championships in 1970 and 1971.

The Cornhuskers won their final seven games in 1969, including a victory against Georgia in the Sun Bowl, to initiate a 32-game unbeaten string that didn't end until the first game of the 1972 season, Devaney's last as head coach. He had planned to retire as coach after the 1971 season but was convinced to stay one more year to try to win a third consecutive national title.

The first championship season, in 1970, came on the heels of a 17-12 victory against Louisiana State in the Orange Bowl game. Nebraska went into the game ranked No. 5 in the Associated Press poll. The teams ahead of the Cornhuskers, including third-ranked LSU, all lost that day. There was no such suspense in 1971. Nebraska began the season ranked No. 2 by the Associated Press and moved up to No. 1 after a 34-7 victory in its opener against Oregon. The Cornhuskers remained atop the AP poll all season, as they defeated second-ranked Oklahoma in what was, and still is, called the "Game of the Century" on Thanksgiving Day in Norman, Okla., and wrapped up the title by defeating second-ranked Alabama 38-6 in the Orange Bowl game on New Year's night.

Big Eight Conference teams finished an unprecedented first (Nebraska), second (Oklahoma) and third (Colorado) in the final AP poll for the 1971 season. The Cornhuskers' Larry Jacobson was voted the Outland Trophy winner. The 1971 Nebraska team is widely regarded as the best in college football history.

Cornhusker All-Americans became commonplace during Devaney's tenure as coach.

Among the 18 who received such recognition were Johnny Rodgers, who won the Heisman Trophy in 1972, and Rich Glover, who won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award that same season.

Devaney, who succeeded Dye as athletic director, picked his own successor as coach—Osborne. And the success continued, uninterrupted. Since Osborne became head coach in 1973, the Cornhuskers have won or shared 10 Big Eight championships and have made several serious runs at the mythical national championship.

The closest an Osborne team has come was in 1983, when the Cornhuskers began the season in the first Kickoff Classic ranked No. 1 after 12 consecutive victories. A missed two-point conversion at the end of the Orange Bowl game against Miami cost Nebraska the national title, 31-30. But Osborne's decision to go for two, instead of settling for a tie, earned him national respect. The 1983 team, nicknamed "The Scoring Explosion," featured a backfield which included Turner Gill, Mike Rozier and Irving Fryar. Rozier set the school record for rushing yards in a season, gaining 2,148 to lead the nation, and was awarded the second Heisman Trophy in Cornhusker history. Offensive guard Dean Steinkuhler became Nebraska's third winner of both the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award in 1983. Dave Rimington won both awards (the Outland was his second) in 1982, playing for a team that probably was more balanced, overall, than the 1983 team.

The 1982 Cornhuskers also finished with a 12-1 record, but their loss came early, by 27-24, to Penn State in the third game of the season at University Park, Pa. That Nebraska team ranked No. 3 in the final national polls of both major wire services.

Nebraska won three consecutive Big Eight championships from 1981 to 1983, shared the title with Oklahoma in 1984 and will go for a fourth consecutive title in 1994, after just missing on a national title in 1993. The Huskers went unscathed through the regular season, but lost a heartbreaker, 18-16, to top-ranked Florida State. Nebraska finished No. 3 in the both of the final major polls.

Osborne has been Nebraska's head coach for 21 years, the longest tenure in school history. He's the Cornhuskers' 25th coach, not counting Frothingham, who was probably the "coach" of the 1890 team in name only. In this, Osborne's 22nd year on the job, NU carries with it several reminders of its longstanding success--NCAA-record strings of 195 consecutive home sellouts, 25 consecutive nine-win seasons, and 32 consecutive winning seasons; and a string of 25 straight bowl appearances (one shy of the NCAA-record 25 currently held by Alabama).

Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney.

RETIRED JERSEYS - MAJOR AWARD WINNERS

Nine Husker Jerseys Retired

Tom Novak

Following the 1949 season, the N Club voted to retire jersey No. 60 in honor of Tom "Train Wreck" Novak's stellar career with the Cornhuskers. Novak, the first Nebraska player to earn this honor, had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice and a 1949 All-American.

At the 1994 Red-White Spring Game three jerseys were added to the six previous retired numbers, however the jersey numbers of newly retired Husker honor winners will be available for future Huskers. Defensive tackle Larry Jacobson, the 1971 Outland Trophy winner, and 1992 Outland Trophy-winning offensive guard Will Shields both wore No. 75 during their outstanding Husker careers. The other jersey retired this spring was that of 1993 Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts, who wore No. 34.

The Nebraska trophy case has thus added Nos. 34 and 75 to the No. 60 worn by Tom Novak, the No. 20 worn by Johnny Rodgers, the No. 79 worn by Rich Glover, the No. 50 worn by Dave Rimington, the No. 30 worn by Mike Rozier and the No. 71 worn by Dean Steinkuhler.

Rodgers' and Glovers' jerseys were retired following the 1972 season after Rodgers had won the Heisman and Glover had become the first of three Huskers to win both the Outland and Lombardi. Rimington's jersey was retired after the All-America center had won two Outland Trophies and the Lombardi Award, while Rozier's number was retired following his 1983 Heisman Trophy season, the same year Steinkuhler collected the Outland and Lombardi Trophies.

Alberts Sacks NU's First Butkus

In 1993, Nebraska outside linebacker Trev Alberts became the first Husker to be awarded the Butkus Award, given annually to the nation's top linebacker.

Alberts (100 points) outdistanced finalists Derrick Brooks of Florida State (72) and Jamir Miller (44) of UCLA in a poll of a nationwide panel of sportswriters and sportscasters.

Alberts was a one-man wrecking crew in his senior season, collecting an NU season-record 15 quarterback sacks, along with 21 tackles for loss and a team-leading 96 overall stops. Alberts, who also holds the NU career sack record with 29.5, capped his career with an outstanding Orange Bowl performance, as he sacked Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward three times.

Heisman Trophy

Rodgers, Rozier NU Heisman Winners

Johnny Rodgers

Nebraska two-time All-America running back Mike Rozier outdistanced BYU quarterback Steve Young in the 1983 Heisman Trophy race, becoming the second Cornhusker to win the award.

All-America wingback Johnny Rodgers won the 38th annual Heisman award in 1972, defeating Oklahoma's Greg Pruitt and Husker teammate Rich Glover.

The Heisman Trophy has been presented by the New York Downtown Athletic Club each year since 1935 when Jay Berwanger of the University of Chicago won the inaugural award given to the outstanding college football player in the United States as selected by over 1,000 sportswriters and sportscasters across the nation.

With Rozier winning the Heisman and Dean Steinkuhler sweeping the Lombardi and Outland lineman awards in 1983, Nebraska is the only school to ever sweep all three major honors, and the Cornhuskers have done it twice—1972 with Rodgers and Rich Glover and in 1983 with Rozier and Steinkuhler. Quarterback Turner Gill finished fourth in the Heisman balloting in 1983, while Glover finished third in 1972.

The 1-3 finish of Rodgers and Glover in the 1972 Heisman voting was the best teammate finish since Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard of Army went 2-3 in 1944, then 1-2 in 1945 and 1-4 in 1946.

Larry Jacobson

Outland Trophy, Lombardi Award NU Among Leaders

In Both Awards

Nebraska has won more Outlands (six) than any other school and is second in the nation in Lombardi's (three). The Huskers' closest competition comes from Oklahoma, with four Outland and two Lombardi winners; Notre Dame has four Lombardi winners; and Ohio State and Texas, have two Lombardi winners each.

In 1992, consensus All-America right guard Will Shields helped lead the way as Nebraska won its 10th NCAA rushing title. He became the fifth Husker to win the Outland Trophy, presented annually by the Football Writers Association of America, giving NU its sixth Outland overall.

When he won the Outland in 1983, Dean Steinkuhler brought Nebraska the distinction of being the only school ever to win the prestigious award in three consecutive years. And in winning the Lombardi he assured Nebraska the honor of being the first school ever to win back-to-back Lombardi Awards, presented annually by the Rotary Club of Houston.

Larry Jacobson was Nebraska's first Outland winner, gaining the honor with the 1971 national championship team. Rich Glover won it in 1972, and also won the Lombardi that year, giving Nebraska the first back-to-back Outland sweep, a feat that would be accomplished again a decade later by Rimington, then Rimington and Steinkuhler.

Two-time All-American Dave Rimington won the Outland in 1981 and 1982 and the Lombardi in 1982. Steinkuhler, an All-America offensive guard, was the second consecutive Husker to sweep national honors, winning both the Outland and Lombardi in 1983.

Since 1970, the Outland and Lombardi have been swept eight times, three by the Huskers. No other team can claim that honor or the consecutive sweep of 1982-83.

The highest honor the National Collegiate Athletic Association can bestow on a student-athlete is to honor the student-athlete as one of "Today's Top Six." The award is based not only on outstanding athletic accomplishments, but on excellent academic records and leadership ability in community and campus activities.

In 1993, for the fifth-straight year, the University of Nebraska had one of its student-athletes named one of Today's Top Six, as Trev Alberts was honored at the NCAA honors dinner.

Alberts' selection gave the Huskers seven Top Six honorees in the last six years, as two Cornhusker student-athletes received the award in both 1990 and 1991. Nebraska is the only school to twice have two selections in a single year.

Alberts was Nebraska's 10th selection overall, giving NU three more than any other school (Southern California had its seventh Top Six winner in 1992). Six of Nebraska's Top Six picks were football players, making the Husker grid program the most honored in the country.

Alberts was Nebraska's first Butkus award winner, however, his athletic achievements were matched by his outstanding academic record. In addition to becoming the 10th NU athlete to win the Top Six Award, Trev was a first-team GTE Academic All-American, a CFA/Hitachi Scholar-Athlete, won an $18,000 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholarship, a $5,000 NACDA/Disney postgraduate scholarship, a $5,000 NCAA postgraduate scholarship and a Honda Scholar-Athlete Award. Alberts earned his speech communications degree prior to the 1993 season, posting a 3.309 grade point average.

Trev Alberts became one of the most decorated players in collegiate history as he earned the Butkus Award, was one of six recipients of the NCAA Today's Top Six Award and earned several postgraduate scholarships.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL SPECIAL AWARDS

Nebraska Lifter-of-the-Year

Donta Jones
1993-94 Winner

Senior Donta Jones was awarded Nebraska's "Lifter-of-the-Year" award given annually to the player who has shown the greatest dedication and improvement in the Cornhuskers' strength and conditioning program.

Jones is a 6-2, 220-pound senior outside linebacker from La Plata, Md. Jones shared the award in 1993 with fullback Cory Schlesinger and became just the second Husker to win two "Lifter-of-the-Year" awards joining center Rik Bonness who was honored in 1974 and 1975. Jones posted the highest strength index on the 1994 squad and holds the strength index record for outside linebackers at 1,293 points.

Novak Trophy

John Reece
1993 Winner

Free safety John Reece was voted the 1993 winner of the Tom Novak Trophy.

The trophy, established by J. Gordon Roberts in 1950, is presented to the Husker senior who "best exemplifies courage and determination despite all odds in the manner of Nebraska All-America center Tom Novak." Sportswriters and broadcasters who cover all Nebraska games vote on the award.

Chamberlin Trophy

Trev Alberts
1993 Winner

Outside linebacker Trev Alberts was the recipient of the 25th annual Guy Chamberlin Trophy, at the annual spring game. The award, inaugurated in 1967 in memory of the former great Nebraska All-America football player who went to both the college and pro halls of fame, is presented to the senior player who has shown by the play and contributions to the betterment of the University of Nebraska football squad that he has the qualities and dedication of Guy Chamberlin to the great Cornhusker tradition.

Lincoln radio station KFOR donated the permanent trophy and each recipient receives a replica through funds contributed by the Chamberlin family and the Champ's many friends following his death in 1967. The Chamberlin Memorial Fund is administered by the University of Nebraska Foundation.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Eleven New Members to be Enshrined

Five All-Americans, a Butkus Award winner and a member of Nebraska's 1971 national championship team are among the 11 people who have been elected to the Nebraska Hall of Fame.

The class will be inducted into the Nebraska Hall on Friday, Sept. 23, at a special ceremony sponsored by the Nebraska Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. The new inductees will be introduced during pre-game ceremonies prior to the Pacific game on Sept. 24. In addition to the inductees, the hall will honor Martin Massengale with the Clarence E. Swanson Memorial Award and John Melton will be given the Lyell Bremser Merit Award.

The 1994 Inductees are

--Lee Penney, a three-year letterman and two-time all-conference selection as an end for Nebraska from 1931-33.

--E.E. Mockett, a two-year letterman for the Huskers in 1890-91, Mockett was Nebraska's first-ever team captain in the 1890 season.

--Charles Duda, an All-Big Six guard for Nebraska in 1942. He was a two-year letterman for the Huskers in 1941-42.

--Joe Armstrong, an All-American and All-Big Eight offensive guard for Nebraska in 1968.

--Daryl White, an All-American offensive tackle for Nebraska in 1973. Also earned All-Big Eight honors for the Huskers in 1972-73. Went on to play one season in the NFL and two in the CFL.

--Frosty Anderson, an All-Big Eight split end for Nebraska in 1973. Also a member of Nebraska's 1971 national championship team.

--Neil Smith, an All-America and All-Big Eight defensive tackle for Nebraska in 1987. Was the second player chosen in the 1988 NFL Draft and a three-time all-pro for the Kansas City Chiefs.

--Broderick Thomas, a two-time All-American outside linebacker for Nebraska in 1987-88 and three-time all-conference selection. He was a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for five seasons.

--Trev Alberts, the 1993 Butkus Award winner, consensus All-American, GTE Academic All-American and two-time all-conference selection. He was a first-round draft pick of the Indianapolis Colts.

--Marion Hudson, a three-time all-conference halfback for Dana College from 1952-55, Hudson gained 2,383 yards in his career.

--Paul Peterson, longtime member of Dana College staff, including nine years as football coach between 1942-61, Peterson served at Dana in various roles, including athletic director, for 41 years.

NEBRASKA IN THE 1994 NFL DRAFT

1994 NFL Draft

Five Huskers Chosen; Alberts Fifth Overall Pick

Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts was the fifth overall selection in the 1994 NFL Draft, chosen by the Indianapolis Colts. Alberts was the third defensive player chosen in the draft.

The second Husker selected was rover Toby Wright. Wright was a second-round selection of the Los Angeles Rams and was the 49th overall selection.

Running back Calvin Jones, second on Nebraska's all-time rushing list, was a third-round pick of the Los Angeles Raiders. Jones was the 80th pick in the draft.

Free safety John Reece went to the Arizona Cardinals with the 113th overall pick in the fourth round. Nebraska's final selection was offensive tackle Lance Lundberg who was selected by the New Orleans Saints in the seventh round with the 213th selection.

In addition, five Huskers signed free agent contracts following the draft, including: Mike Anderson (Jets), Trumane Bell (Broncos), Corey Dixon (Falcons), Lance Gray (Vikings) and Kevin Ramaekers (Chargers).

I-back Calvin Jones (#44) and offensive tackle Lance Lundberg (#77) were two of Nebraska's five selections in the 1994 NFL draft. Jones was a third-round pick of the Los Angeles Raiders, while Lundberg was taken by New Orleans in the seventh round.

NEBRASKA LETTERMAN LIST

1892-1993

NOTE: The following list is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Corrections and additions will be made if documentation is provided. In each entry, the year is listed for each letter won. For example in the listing for Willard Burnham, the years are 1924-26, meaning Burnham lettered in 1924 and 1926 but not in 1925. Lettermen lists are not available for the 1890, 1891 and 1895 seasons.

Elmer Dohrmann Top NU Letterman

Elmer Dohrmann, named to Sports Illustrated's 1962 Silver All-America team, is Nebraska's all-time letter champion. Dohrmann won 11 letters from 1936 to 1939. He won monograms in football, basketball, track, and baseball in his sophomore and junior years and added football, baseball, and basketball letters his senior year before passing up track.

Multiple letter leaders

Elmer Dohrmann	(1936-39) 11 letters
Bob Russell	(1919-23) 9 letters
John Rhodes	(1923-25) 9 letters
Steve Hokuf	(1929-33) 9 letters
Paul Amen	(1935-38) 9 letters
Willard Witte	(1927-30) 8 letters
Bob Cerv	(1946-50) 8 letters
Tom Novak	(1946-50) 7 letters
Mike DiBiase	(1946-50) 7 letters
Chuck Malito	(1972-76) 7 letters
Lee Kunz	(1975-80) 7 letters
Steve Elliott	(1978-82) 7 letters

Huskers who have won six letters during their careers since Dohrmann include: Lloyd Cardwell, Bob Mills, Ray Prochaska, Vic Schleich, Ken Hollins, Herb Reese, Bob Reynolds, Charles Bryant, Bill Hawkins, and Adrian Fiala.

The top letterwinner at Nebraska since WWII is Cerv, who lettered four years in basketball and baseball. The last Husker to match Amen by lettering in three sports during a single year was Hollins. "Buzz" tripled in football, basketball, and track during the 1943-44 and 1944-45 campaigns. The latest addition is Steve Elliott, who lettered four times in gymnastics and three times in diving.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

Nebraska's NCAA Sellout Record To Reach 200 Consecutive Games

Nebraska's continuing NCAA record of consecutive home sellouts hit the 195 mark with the Huskers' seven soldout home games in 1993. On Homecoming, Oct. 29, 1994, against the University of Colorado, Nebraska expects to honor its fans with the 200th consecutive sellout celebration. In 1988, Nebraska set a single-season home attendance record by averaging 76,342 fans for six home games, breaking the old record average of 76,341 set in 1974.

The string of consecutive sellouts started on Nov. 3, 1962, when 36,501 showed up for the Homecoming contest vs. Missouri. The last non-sellout in Memorial Stadium was Oct. 20, 1962, when the Huskers and Kansas State drew 30,701.

The Cornhuskers' Memorial Stadium has a seating capacity of 72,700 and attendance has averaged over 75,000 for the past 20 years. Nebraska has ranked in the top six nationally in attendance for many years.

In the fall of 1922, a drive for $430,000 in stadium construction funds was undertaken by faculty, students, alumni and friends of the University of Nebraska. The quota was over subscribed. The Stadium was named Memorial Stadium to honor all Nebraskans who served in the Civil and Spanish-American Wars, the 751 Nebraskans who died in World War I; the 3,839 in World War II; the 225 in Korea; and the 422 in Vietnam. Construction was completed in a few more than 90 working days and Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 20, 1923, at the homecoming game in which Nebraska was held to a scoreless tie by Kansas. Inscribed on the four corners of Memorial Stadium is the following:

Southeast: "In Commendation of the men of Nebraska who served and fell in the Nations Wars."

Southwest: "Not the victory but the action; Not the goal but the game; In the deed the glory."

Northwest: "Courage; Generosity; Fairness; Honor; In these are the true awards of manly sport."

Northeast: "Their Lives they held their countrys trust; They kept its faith; They died its heroes."

As part of the continuing improvement of athletic facilities at the University of Nebraska, two major projects were completed in 1984 and 1985. A new artificial turf was installed in 1984 and the new million-dollar Hewit Center training table/study hall area was opened in March of 1985, underneath the West Stadium adjacent to the massive new strength complex. The weight room and the Hewit Center were expanded and remodeled in 1989. The artificial turf was replaced in 1984 and again in 1992.

Here is the chronological order of Memorial Stadium expansion and improvement from the original 31,000-seat structure built in 1923:

1946--Completion of Schulte Field House at north end of stadium (construction began in 1941, but was interrupted by World War II).

1964--South end zone section installed, making the stadium a horseshoe, raising capacity to the 48,000 mark.

1965--Center portion of north end zone section added, raising capacity to more than 53,000.

1966--Both wings of the north end zone added, raising capacity to more than 65,000 and making Memorial Stadium into a bowl.

1967--New press box, with guest section added, providing a beautiful and practical press facility.

1970--Installation of AstroTurf.

1972--South end zone extended, 9,400 seats added, raising capacity to 73,650.

1973--Athletic office building completed, housing, dressing and training facilities for varsity football.

1977--Installation of new AstroTurf replacing the 1970 turf, and a new scoreboard over the north stadium.

1981--New west stadium weight room and new visitor's locker room in Schulte Field House.

1982--Expansion of Schulte Field House indoor practice area.

1984--New artificial All-Pro Turf playing surface installed.

1985--Completion of Hewit Center (dining area/study hall) in West Stadium.

1989--Expansion of strength complex and Hewit Center.

1992--New AstroTurf-8 artificial turf installed.

1994--Installation of Mitsubishi Instant Replay boards and remodeling of Section 14 to accomodate disabled, reduced seating to 72,700.

Huskers Boast Impressive Record In 71 Years at Memorial Stadium

Nebraska football teams for the past 71 years have been glad to call Memorial Stadium home. Evidence for this is a 280-98-13 (.733) record posted by the Huskers in their home since it was opened in 1923.

Under the Lights

Nebraska's first night football game was Nov. 30, 1951, at Miami's Orange Bowl when the Huskers lost to the Miami Hurricanes, 19-7. Ironically, Nebraska's first night football game at home was the 1986 opener against another team from the "Sunshine State," Florida State. Nebraska is 25-11-3 all time under the lights, including 5-1-0 at home.

This season Nebraska will post its 200th consecutive sellout in Memorial Stadium on Oct. 29, when the Huskers host the Colorado Buffaloes. The sellout streak dates back 32 years to 1962, the same season Bob Devaney became the Husker head coach.

❑ The Huskers are currently riding a 17-game home winning streak, since a 36-21 loss to Washington in 1991. In that stretch, Nebraska has defeated four ranked teams and has outscored its 17 opponents by a cumulative score of 794 (46.7 per game) to 244 (14.4). Nebraska has scored 38 points or more in 15 of the 17 games in the current winning streak.

❑ Nebraska has a 38-2 record at Memorial Stadium in the past six years and has a 25-2 mark in the 1990's. Nebraska's only losses in Lincoln since 1988 are a 27-12 loss to Colorado in 1990 and a 36-21 loss to Washington in 1991. Both of those teams went on to win a share of the national championship. In each of those two games Nebraska held a 12-point third-quarter lead, (12-0, CU) and (21-9, Washington)

❑ Since 1980, Nebraska has posted an 82-9 record at Memorial Stadium. Included in that stretch are three of the six longest home winning streaks in school history including the current 17-game streak, a 19-game streak from 1988 to 1990, and 21 straight from 1981 to 1984.

❑ Nebraska has posted 33 unbeaten and untied home seasons, including 1992 and 1993, six since 1980 and nine under Coach Tom Osborne. Nebraska is 120-16 at Memorial Stadium under Osborne and has not dropped more than two home games in one season in his tenure.

❑ Of Nebraska's nine home losses since 1980, eight have come against teams that finished the season ranked in the top six in the Associated Press Poll.

❑ Following is a list of Nebraska's home losses since 1980, with the opponent's ranking (Associated Press) at the time of the contest and at the end of the season indicated.

FINAL 1993 NATIONAL RANKINGS

In 1993, Nebraska faced five teams that finished the season ranked in the Top 25 nationally. Included in that list are conference opponents Colorado (16th), Oklahoma (17th) and Kansas State (20th) and non-conference foes UCLA (18th) and Florida State (1st) in the Orange Bowl. Last year also marked the 25th consecutive season in which Nebraska or one of its opponents finished the season ranked in the Top Five.

Notes on the Associated Press Poll: The rankings indicated in all instances above are those at the time of the game, with Nebraska's to the left of the slash and the opponent's to the right. If there is a slash alone, neither team was ranked at the time of the game. Early-season games from 1936-49 have no slash because the first polls in those seasons were not taken until after the season began. From 1936-60 and 1968-88, AP ranked the top 20 teams, from 1961-67 the top 10, and since 1989, the top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, is Football Rankings, College teams in the Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, compiled by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C.; McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

NU Fans to Celebrate 200th Consecutive Sellout

Thanks to its loyal fans, the Nebraska football program will celebrate its NCAA-record 200th consecutive sellout on Oct. 29, 1994, against the University of Colorado. The first was Nov. 3, 1962, against the University of Missouri in Bob Devaney's first year as head coach. The Nebraska football program sincerely thanks its fans for making this possible. In their honor, the attendance figures, dating back to 1946, have been retrieved from the archives. Since the start of NU's NCAA-record streak in 1962, 13,913,524 fans have entered Memorial Stadium Gates on gameday.

NEBRASKA PIPELINE

Nebraska's rich tradition of stellar offensive linemen continues in 1994, as four of the Huskers' five starting linemen return, including 1993 second-team All-American and Outland/Lombardi candidate Zach Wiegert, All-America candidate Brenden Stai, 4.0 graduate, academic All-American and Rhodes Scholar candidate Rob Zatechka and returning center Aaron Graham.

Nebraska has brought home six Outland Trophies, more than any other school and has won three Lombardis. Behind the Husker line, Nebraska has won eight rushing titles under Coach Tom Osborne, 10 overall. The Pipeline extends nationwide as the seven first-teamers pictured hail from Texas, Illinois and California in addition to four home-grown Nebraskans.
