RIGHT (top to bottom)

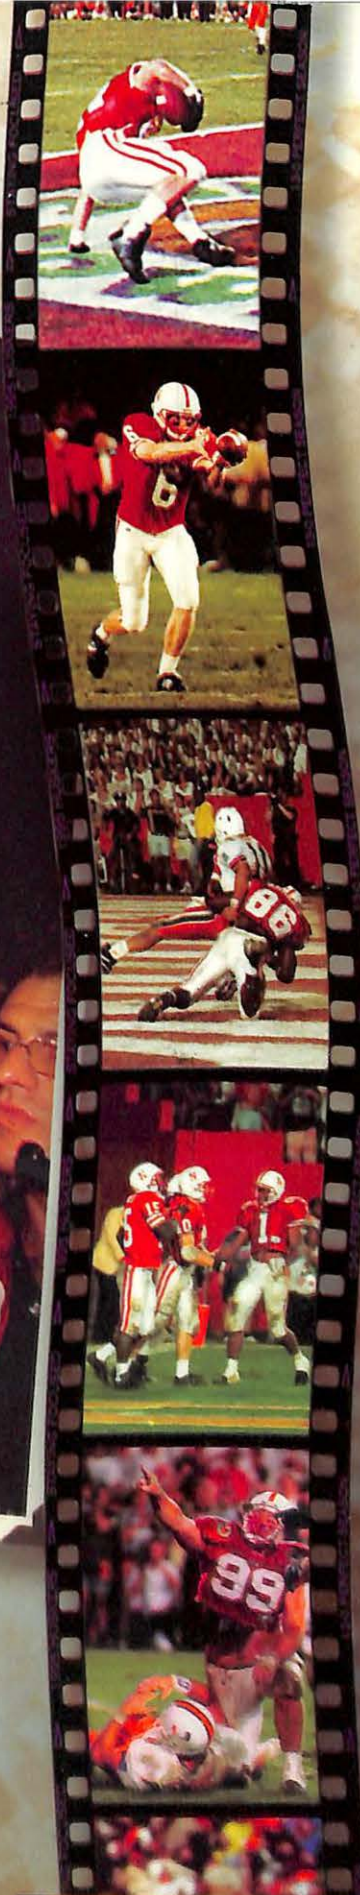

After Miami jumped out to a 10-0 lead, Nebraska got on the board with this 19-yard TD reception by Mark Gilman from Brook Berringer in the second quarter.

The first pick of the 1995 baseball draft, Darin Erstad, punted seven times for a 41.1 average and pinned Miami inside its own 20 yard line six times.

Outside linebacker Dwayne Harris sacks Frank Costa for a safety in the third quarter to cut the lead to 17-9.

Orange Bowl MVP Tommie Frazier (#15) orchestrated two fourth-quarter touchdown drives, capped by 15- and 14-yard Cory Schlesinger (#40) TD runs. I-Back Lawrence Phillips (#1) was the game's leading rusher with 96 yards on 19 carries.

On Miami's final drive, Nebraska sacked Costa twice including this eight-yard stop by defensive tackle Terry Connealy.

#--Big Eight Conference Game; HC--Homecoming.

The Nebraska Huskers are "Staying Focused" in 1995 and look to earn their fifth consecutive Big Eight Conference title and defend their national title. To aid the Huskers in their quest, Nebraska has exciting skill players on offense returning, including Heisman candidates Tommie Frazier (left) at quarterback and Lawrence Phillips at I-back, and six defensive starters returning. For more information on the Husker players, please see pages 90-151.

Head Coach Tom Osborne is the winningest coach in the nation among those with 10 years experience and in 1994 was the AFCA Coach-of-the-Year. He has won nine-or-more games every year and posts a 219-47-3 career record (.820). His athletes lead the nation in academic All-America awards; NCAA Top Six Awards and in postgraduate scholarships. For more information on Coach Osborne and the NU coaches and staff, please see pages 35-59.

Nebraska looks to continue several NCAA record streaks in 1994, including its 26 consecutive bowl bids, 33 straight winning seasons and 223 consecutive weeks ranked in the AP poll. In addition, in 1995, Nebraska's Memorial Stadium will celebrate its 208th consecutive sellout. For more information on Husker history and records, please see pages 215-320.

Nebraska is committed to providing a total package for its student-athletes with strong support for academics as well as athletics. For the past two years, Nebraska has been among the top 20 schools in graduation rates. To learn more about Nebraska, please see pages 15-34 and contact the Husker football office, at 1-800-624-4733 or (402) 472-3116. The University of Nebraska Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, as an integral part of the University's educational mission, is committed to a comprehensive athletics program. Dedicated to Excellence.

Husker Football Network Enters 13th Season

The Nebraska Football Network will be in its 13th year of operation in 1995 and is expected to feed a record 50 stations in 17 states, including 28 in Nebraska. The Network's flagship station, KFAB in Omaha, began broadcasting Husker football in 1926 and has held the exclusive broadcast rights to University of Nebraska football and men's basketball games since 1983. KFAB was awarded a new three-year contract in the fall of 1992.

Kent Pavelka will be back for his 22nd season as part of the football broadcasts, his 12th as the play-by-play "Voice of the Huskers." Pavelka, sports director and operations manager of KFAB, has also called Husker basketball for KFAB and the Nebraska Basketball Network for 18 seasons, and is a six-time Nebraska Sportscaster-of-the-Year.

Pavelka's color man will be Gary Sadlemyer of KFAB. KLIN's Jim Rose hosts the network's call-in show, and KFAB's Terry Leahy will provide sideline reports.

In addition to game coverage, KFAB will provide a daily live call-in show, Sports Day Mid-America, focusing on Husker athletics, play-by-play coverage of selected women's basketball games, promotional announcements and other items.

Media Information and Interview Policies

◆ Media Credentials...All requests for press, broadcast, photo and parking credentials should be directed to Chris Anderson, Sports Information Director (SID). Requests should be made in writing on appropriate letterhead at least one week prior to the game. Requests via fax are acceptable (see fax information below). As a general rule, working space in the Nebraska Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for Sunday publication; (2) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (3) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (4) official school student daily newspaper, one seat and/or sideline only; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers. Generally, weekly press representatives and non-originating radio representatives cannot be accommodated in the Press Box because of space limitations. Visiting free-lance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials, except by approval of SID.

◆ Media Will Call...In most cases, credentials will be mailed. Credentials which are not mailed will be held in the NU Sports Information Office (Room 116 in the South Stadium Office Building) from 9-11:30 a.m. on game day (or four hours prior to kickoff), after which they will be held at the outside Press Will Call window located outside at the west end of the South Stadium Building. Credentials, including parking, may be picked up Friday, until 5 p.m., at the Sports Information Office from secretary Vicki Cartwright.

◆ Media Access...Memorial Stadium access for the media is the Press Gate (Gate 8) on the west side of the stadium, directly under the Press Box and located a few feet north of the Press Box elevator. The working press area is at Level 1 in the Press Box. Photo and television decks can be reached via Level 2.

◆ Media Parking...Parking at Memorial Stadium is always at a premium, with a limited number of spaces allocated to the media. Media parking is directly south of the stadium, in the lot to the east of the intersection of Memorial and "T" Streets. Early arrival is strongly suggested. No cars will be admitted to the media lot later than one hour and 15 minutes before kickoff. No cars will be admitted without a media parking pass.

◆ Tuesday Media Luncheons...Each Tuesday during the football season (except weeks of open dates), Nebraska hosts a media luncheon in the N Club Lounge on the first floor of the South Stadium Office Building. A sandwich buffet lunch is served at 11:30 a.m., followed by Coach Tom Osborne's weekly news conference at noon. The news conference will end by 12:30 p.m., and requested Nebraska players will then be available, pending class and meeting schedules, until 1:15 p.m. Participating media requesting Nebraska players must do so on Monday. Excerpts from Coach Osborne and Husker players will be uplinked on Tuesday afternoon, following the Big Eight satellite feed.

◆ Tom Osborne Teleconference...Out-of-town media wishing to participate in the weekly Tom Osborne news conference may do so via telephone by contacting the Nebraska Sports Information Office (402-472-2263) no later than Tuesday morning. A University operator will connect participants shortly before noon Central time. Lines are limited and in the event demand exceeds supply, priority will be given to those who have requested credentials to that week's game.

◆ Media Hotels...The Nebraska Sports Information Office reserves a limited number of hotel rooms for out-of-state media for home football weekends. The rooms may be requested through Vicki Cartwright in the Sports Information Office (402) 472-2263, but requests must be made by noon on the Wednesday prior to the game. Credit card numbers will be requested.

◆ Stadium Directions...Memorial Stadium is located on the east side of Memorial Drive, between T Street on the south and Avery Avenue on the north. To reach it from Lincoln Municipal Airport, turn right on Northwest 12th Street as you drive out of the airport. Northwest 12th becomes Cornhusker Highway, which intersects with Interstate 180. Exit south (downtown) onto I-180, which turns into one-way, southbound, Ninth Street in downtown Lincoln. Drive two blocks and turn left at P Street (just past the Lincoln Journal-Star Building), go one block and turn left on 10th Street, then keep to the right for four blocks to Memorial Stadium (DO NOT enter I-180 north). From Omaha's Eppley Airfield, follow the signs to downtown Omaha and Interstate 480. Take I-480 west to Interstate 80, then take I-80 west approximately 60 miles to I-180. Exit south (downtown) on I-180, and follow the above directions.

◆ Sports Information Office...The University of Nebraska Sports Information Office is in Room 116 of the South Stadium Office Building, which is located under the south stands of Memorial Stadium. Room 116 is to the left inside the building's main entrance.

◆ Interview Policy...During the season, the only times Coach Tom Osborne will be available for media interviews during the week will be at the Tuesday news conferences and on the field after practice each day. Coach Osborne is also available each Monday (11:35 a.m.) on the Big Eight Briefing teleconference. Please contact the Big Eight office (816-471-5088) for details. Nebraska players are available for interviews in person or by telephone after practice until two days before a game during the season (i.e., through Wednesday for a Saturday game). Depending on class and meeting schedules, players are sometimes available before practice. All requests for player interviews must go through the Sports Information Office (402-472-2263). No player interviews will be granted on the two days prior to a game, or prior to the game on gameday. No interviews are to be conducted on the lower level of the South Stadium Office Building, including the hallway and the tunnel leading to the field, or in the weight room or Hewitt Center. Interviews with assistant coaches in their offices on the second floor of the South Stadium Building must be set up in advance either through the coach or Sports Information. Players who are redshirting their first year at Nebraska are not required to do interviews and players will not be allowed to be interviewed on live call-in radio shows. All requests must be made at least one day in advance.

NOTE: During the season, the team generally practices from approximately 3:15-5:15 p.m. on weekdays, holds scrimmages on Saturdays, when not playing a game, and takes Sunday off. For updated information, contact NU Sports Information.

◆ Daily Practices...During the season, Nebraska practices are normally conducted in Memorial Stadium starting at approximately 3:15 p.m. All practices are closed to the public and the media after the first 15 minutes (or at the conclusion of warmups). Media wishing to interview Coach Tom Osborne or Nebraska players after practice should come to the Sports Information Office shortly before the end of practice and be escorted to the field. Practices usually last two hours, but the length sometimes varies, so media should check with Sports Information (402-472-2263) to verify practice times.

◆ Postgame Interviews...Nebraska's locker room is closed after games, both home and away, but Coach Tom Osborne and requested players and assistant coaches will be available for interviews following a brief cooling-off period. For home games, only coaches, players and staff members will be admitted to the tunnel and locker room after the game, but Coach Osborne and requested personnel will be brought to the N Club Lounge in the South Stadium Office Building. Admittance to the interview area will be by media credential only. Media members may reach the N Club Lounge through the center door of the South Stadium Building. For away games, the best available interview area will be used. Requests for player and assistant coach interviews, home and away, will be taken by Chris Anderson and Nick Joos at the end of the third quarter. Non-requested players making significant plays in the fourth quarter will be added as a matter of course.

◆ Pro Scouting Tickets...Per Big Eight Conference rules, the University of Nebraska does not provide Press Box access or media credentials for professional scouts. Scouts may arrange through the Sports Information Office (402-472-2263) to purchase high-row tickets for Nebraska home games. Tickets will be held in Press Will Call in the South Stadium Ticket Office unless other arrangements are made.

◆ Satellite Feeds...Videotape highlights of Nebraska football games are available weekly during the football season via the Big Eight Conference satellite uplink. The half-hour feed runs each Tuesday, Sept. 5-Nov. 21 at 3 p.m., Central time. For satellite coordinates (unavailable at press time) please contact the Nebraska Sports Information Office (402-472-2263) or the Big Eight Office (816-471-5088). Following halftime of non-televised home games, first-half highlights of the game will be available via satellite. Please contact the Nebraska Sports Information Office for coordinates.

◆ Telephones...Nebraska provides some 22 modular telephones for media use in the Memorial Stadium Press Box, 17 on the first row of the main press area, two more on the second row, and three on tables in the rear of the press area. All long-distance calls must be credit card, collect or billed to a third number. Any media sources wishing to install a private telephone in the Press Box should contact University of Nebraska Telecommunications (402-472-2000) at least two weeks prior to the game.

◆ Press Box Services...The Nebraska Sports Information Office will provide game programs, pregame notes, flip cards and media guides prior to home games. Play-by-play accounts, quarter "flash" stats, final stats, player and coach postgame quotes from both locker rooms, postgame notes and complete sets of all of the above are distributed as soon as they are available. A verbal play-by-play account of down and distance is provided over the interior public address system. Injury information, record and stat updates and scores of other games are also provided, as available. Nebraska's postgame interviews can be heard in the press box for those who are unable to go down to the lounge. A complimentary meal is served, normally starting two hours before kickoff and ending one-half hour before kickoff. Soft drinks are available until the Press Box closes. An SID representative will be in the Press Box until all visiting writers have finished.

◆ Big Eight Sideline Policies...The Big Eight Conference maintains a strict sideline control policy in an effort to keep the playing area as clear of people as possible. All sideline photographers must have a sideline armband and a media pass, and both must be clearly visible. Armbands can be picked up in the Press Box prior to game time—providing photographers have made prior arrangements. The Big Eight sideline control policy: (1) Only those photographers on assignment from a newspaper, magazine, television station, or a participating institution, are given credentials. Each student publication shall be limited to one press and/or one sideline photo pass. (2) Only those newspapers with Sunday and/or daily editions are eligible for sideline passes. (Special requests shall be submitted to the Sports Information Director for review, but such requests, if honored, will be limited to one photo pass). (3) Cutline writers, equipment carriers, and/or other so-called "assistants" will not be allowed on the sideline. (4) Photographers must display their credentials (media pass and armband) at all times. Failure to do so will result in expulsion from the stadium. (5) University personnel are to be deployed on the sidelines to ensure that all credentials are properly displayed and to watch for any abuse of privileges by photographers. Those possessing bench passes must remain inside the team bench area (between the 25-yard lines). (6) Photographers may not enter the bench area at any time. (7) Photographers are not permitted to congregate in the writers' section of the Press Box during halftime or after the game.

◆ FAX Access...The Nebraska Sports Information Office has an automatic fax machine which can transmit or receive documents. The telephone number for the fax is 402-472-2005. The machine is available, on request, in the Press Box after the game free of charge. Postgame stats will be available on fax-back immediately following the game. Nebraska, and all Big Eight Conference schools, are members of a conference-wide "fax-back" system, where interested media members may call directly and have releases, notes, stats, depth charts, etc., faxed to their machine. There will be no charge to the receiver, other than the normal cost of the long-distance call. Please contact Nebraska Sports Information (402-472-2263) or the Big Eight (816-471-5088) for more information.

Huskers To Defend National Title

Huskers Staying Focused on New Season, Look to Repeat as National Champions

Huskers Lose Seven Starters on Both Sides of the Ball but are Loaded with Talent and Speed

After posting a 24-1 record, playing for the national title each year in the Orange Bowl the past two seasons and winning the school's third national championship in 1994 with a perfect 13-0 season, the Huskers are staying focused in 1995 and concentrating at the task at hand—repeating as national champions. As Coach Tom Osborne said, "We have a lot of pride and tradition here. That can work for you or against you, but we have a lot of drive this year and playing for anything other than the whole ball of wax would be anticlimatic. I think this team will work hard to get there again."

Nebraska's winning tradition includes numerous NCAA record streaks including: 33 consecutive winning seasons (26 consecutive with nine or more wins); 26-consecutive bowl appearances; 201 consecutive sellouts (since 1962) in NU's Memorial Stadium; and a record 223 consecutive weeks being ranked in the AP poll.

To uphold the long-standing tradition and achieve its goal of repeating as national champions, Nebraska will face the task of replacing seven starters on offense including four of the five starting linemen. Perhaps the best offensive line ever in the history of Nebraska football, which sports a tradition of excellent lines, the Huskers had two first-team All-Americans last year in right tackle Zach Wiegert, who won the Outland Trophy, and right guard Brenden Stai. Both are graduated as is two-time academic All-American and the student-athlete-of-the-year Rob Zatechka at left tackle and left guard Joel Wilks. Center and snapper Aaron Graham is the lone returnee, but the All-Big Eight two-year starter is an excellent centerpiece to build around. The NU "Pipeline" helped the Huskers win their third national rushing title in the last four years. Also gone are two tight ends and four-year letterman Abdul Muhammad at wingback, but Nebraska's cupboard certainly isn't bare. What more could you ask for than two legitimate Heisman Trophy candidates? The Huskers return junior I-back Lawrence Phillips, who was third nationally in rushing last year and three-year starting quarterback Tommie Frazier, a leading contender for national honors last season before blood clots sidelined him four games into the season. Another potent offensive asset is senior quarterback Brook Berringer, who took over for the injured Frazier and led NU to a 7-0 record and allowed the team to attain its dream of a national title. Frazier and Berringer will begin fall drills listed even on the depth chart. Return specialist and split end speedster Reggie Baul is Nebraska's fourth returning starter but Muhammad, who led the team in receptions last year, has graduated. The 1995 team is without graduated fullback Cory Schlesinger, who scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns in the Orange Bowl, but returns everybody else in the backfield including its top three I-backs, the No. 2 and No. 3 fullbacks and the top three quarterbacks. Osborne said, "I can hardly ever remember a year when we've had that many people return in the backfield. Offensively, it's good to have experience at the positions where you are handling the ball, so I think we may be pretty decent on offense if we can get the offensive line squared away."

Nebraska lost seven defensive starters, all of which will get a shot at the NFL as three were drafted and four more signed free agent contracts. Included in the loss are four of NU's 1994 starting linebackers, one being All-American and Butkus finalist Ed Stewart. In the secondary, however, two of the four starters return, including All-America candidates Tyrone Williams at right corner and free safety Tony Veland. Although he isn't counted as a returning starter, the Husker coaches are glad to have Mike Minter back at rover. He was the starter in 1994 before a knee injury ended what was sure to be a stellar sophomore season. Although the secondary will miss two-time All-Big Eight pick Barron Miles, it is loaded with several of the best and fastest athletes on the team. Nebraska will also have to replace three other linebackers, Troy Dumas, and outside linebackers Dwayne Harris and Donta Jones, who will try their hand among the NFL ranks this season. Both Grant Wistrom and Jared Tomich have extensive experience at the rush end positions however, and are ready to move into starting positions. The defensive front loses Terry Connealy but returns the Peter brothers. Christian Peter is a returning starter and one of the nation's premier linemen to watch in 1995 after leading the Huskers in sacks and tackles for loss last year. Jason Peter, the youngest of the two, will take over for Connealy playing alongside his brother. Linebacker Phil Ellis will contend for honors this season. He returns for his senior year at the Mike position where he started the last five games. His alternate, Doug Colman, who started the first eight games in 1994 at Mike, also returns.

Nebraska will have to replace both kickers after Darin Erstad was the No. 1 pick in the June baseball draft (California Angels) and Tom Sieler graduated, but three of the four return specialists are back including Damon Benning, Clinton Childs and Reggie Baul as well as three-year snapper Aaron Graham and holder Jon Vedral. Overall, the Huskers have abundant speed returning and ample talent waiting in the wings and appear to have what it takes to defend their national title.

Osborne said, "We'll have to see if we can become a good football team up front. We lost some very good players, more than normal, seven on offense and seven on defense, but on the other hand we had some very good players see a lot of playing time. I think our secondary will be pretty good, as will the defensive front. We're probably bringing in a little more talent at linebacker than I can ever remember in terms of the kids we recruited, so if we get a couple of linebackers squared away, we'll be pretty decent."

Lost: 28 (13 offense, 13 defense, 2 kickers)

The 1995 Huskers By Position

Offensive Line

The most depleted position due to graduation is the offensive line as NU loses four of five starters, including two All-Americans in Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert and Brenden Stai. Also graduated are academic All-American Rob Zatechka and Joel Wilks. Wiegert, Stai and Zatechka were all drafted by the fourth round with Wiegert a second-round pick, Stai a third and Zatechka a fourth-round pick. Returning is center and snapper Aaron Graham. With the loss of Wiegert, a three-year starter, and Zatechka and Stai, two-year starters, NU also lacks depth. In fact, just 11 lettermen return, and only four with more than one year of experience. Those four, including two-year starter Graham, are expected to fill starting roles. Steve Ott, who was alternating with Wilks before breaking his leg against Kansas State, at right guard; Chris Dishman at left tackle; and Eric Anderson at right tackle. Sophomore Aaron Taylor is projected to be the fifth starter at left guard, and returning letterman Jon Zatechka, who had a solid spring, will contend for time with Ott. The line, which powered Nebraska to its third national rushing title (340.0 ypg) in four years, will also miss graduated starting tight ends Matt Shaw and Eric Alford.

Receivers

Although the Huskers lost two of their top three tight ends in Shaw and Alford, nearly every wideout returns with the exception of four-year letterman and NU's leading receiver Abdul Muhammad (23 for 360 yards). Reggie Baul and Brendan Holbein will secure split end, while Clester Johnson and Jon Vedral return at wingback to fill the void left by Muhammad. I-back Lawrence Phillips was second on the team with 22 catches for 172 yards, but Baul was third with 17 for 300, Holbein caught nine for 88 and Johnson four for 93. Talented newcomers Kenny Cheatham and Sheldon Jackson could make an immediate impact at split end and tight end, respectively. Mark Gilman, who caught 17 passes for 196 yards and one TD, will man one tight end position but the Huskers will be looking for others to add depth including talented sophomores Tim Carpenter and converted fullback Vershan Jackson. Ron Brown's receivers are known nation wide for their blocking skills, and not afraid to hit or get hit, the Huskers' perimeter blocking aided NU to its third rushing title in four years last season.

The Backfield, Running Backs and Quarterbacks

Simply loaded...True the Huskers lost fullback Cory Schlessinger, a two-year starter who was NU's second-leading rusher with 456 yards on 63 carries (7.2 ypc) and four TDs last year. He was the hero of the Orange Bowl scoring both fourth-quarter touchdowns. However, everyone else, who combined for 3,561 of the team's 4,080 rushing yards (87 percent), returns at all three positions. Included in "the rest" are two legitimate Heisman candidates in quarterback Tommie Frazier and I-back Lawrence Phillips. Frazier was a leading candidate for the Heisman last year and led NU to its first four wins before blood clots kept him out for the rest of the season. He was the MVP of the Orange Bowl for the second consecutive year, as he started, then led NU to a come-from-behind victory in the fourth quarter. Frazier has rushed for 1,351 yards, passed for 2,159 and accounted for 48 TDs in his three-year career and is the first true freshman to have started at QB for a Tom Osborne team. Phillips earned All-Big Lawrence Phillips ranked third in rushing last season averaging 143.5 yards per game and earned second-team All-America honors.

Husker Rushing Facts

- ◆ Nebraska is 139-5-0 (.965) when rushing for 300 or more yards in a game, since 1973 under Coach Osborne.
- ◆ The Huskers have won 61-straight games when rushing for 300-plus yards, since a loss to Michigan in the 1986 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl, when the team rushed for 304 yards.
- ◆ Nebraska is 70-0 in the Osborne-era when rushing for 400 or more yards.
- ◆ Nebraska has won 11 NCAA Rushing titles, nine under Coach Osborne, and three of the last four.

positions last spring. Untried talent also abounds in the backfield as 1995 signee Ahman Green, one of the top two prep running backs last year, is also available at I-back. Frazier will start the fall even with Brook Berringer, who came in for the injured Frazier last year and kept the perfect season intact. Also a junior in 1994, Berringer passed for 1,295 yards (94-151) with 10 TDs and five interceptions. His .623 completion percentage and 149.5 passing efficiency rating led the Big Eight. Berringer also contributed in the Orange Bowl win over Miami, playing the second and third quarters and leading NU to its first TD in the first half and pulling the Huskers within 10-7. Junior walk-on Matt Turman started one game at QB when Berringer was out with a partially collapsed lung and was a key contributor to the perfect season. QB is still thin as Stanford transfer and Nebraska native Scott Frost must sit out a year, and sophomore Monte Christo missed spring drills after having back surgery. NU signed two signal callers in the 1995 class including Frankie London and Jeff Perino.

SE--Reggie Baul, Sr.(17-300 receiving, 3 TDs)

Defensive Line

The Huskers lose just two lettermen and have six experienced players returning, including senior starter Christian Peter, to fill the two defensive tackle positions. Gone is two-year starter Terry Connealy, as is his backup Jason Pesterfield. Sophomore Jason Peter is expected to step in and should have no trouble working alongside his brother, Christian. The elder Peter led the team in sacks (7-31) and tackles for loss (14-45) and was largely responsible for the Husker Blackshirts ranking among the nation's top 10 in every defensive category. The All-America candidate also had two pass breakups and 20 quarterback hurries.

Outside Linebackers/Rush Ends

Nebraska loses two outstanding outside linebackers in Dwayne Harris and Donta Jones, but two others who alternated at the position last year return and are ready to step in. They are junior Jared Tomich and sophomore Grant Wistrom at the left and right side, respectively. Jones and Harris will certainly be missed as last year the NFL-bound duo combined for 95 tackles, 10 sacks, 20 tackles for loss, six breakups and 41 quarterback hurries. But Tomich and Wistrom were two of the most talented first-year players ever to play for the Husker Blackshirts. As sophomore, Tomich had 23 tackles, four tackles for loss and 12 QB hurries while true freshman Wistrom had 36 tackles, 4.5 sacks, 6.5 tackles for loss and 11 QB hurries. Position coach Tony Samuel will be looking for depth and hopes to count on three-year letterman Luther Hardin, junior Jon Hesse and redshirt freshman Mike Rucker, all of whom had solid spring camps.

Inside Linebackers

The Sam linebacker position (strong), also coached by Tony Samuel, has one returning letterman to replace starter Troy Dumas and backup Clint Brown in junior Larry Arnold, but redshirt freshman Jay Foreman looks like the favorite for the starting position after an excellent spring campaign. Dumas, a four-year letterman, was a talented athlete who was third on the team in tackles with 69. The inside linebackers have several new faces as well, including the newest member of the NU coaching staff in Craig Bohl. He replaces Kevin Steele as inside linebackers coach after Steele joined the Carolina Panthers. A big hole Bohl will be looking to fill is weakside (Will) linebacker for All-American Ed Stewart. The Butkus finalist was NU's leading tackler with 96 tackles, including 5.5 tackles for loss and 18 QB hurries. Junior Ryan Terwilliger saw action in all 12 games and recorded 19 tackles and is prepared to step in the starting role at Will. Three-year letterman Aaron Penland, sophomore Matt Aden and junior Jamel Williams are also available. Williams missed all of spring drills after having shoulder surgery following the bowl game. At the Mike position in the middle, Phil Ellis and Doug Colman split time with Colman starting the first eight games and Ellis the last five. Ellis was NU's fifth-leading tackler with 58 stops while Colman was seventh with 51. Several newcomers could see time immediately as the 1995 recruiting class is loaded with talented linebackers including Tony Ortiz, T.J. DeBates, Kareem Sears, Julius Jackson, Chad Kelsay and Terrell Farley.

Secondary

Gone from the secondary is third-team All-American and two-time All-Big Eight left cornerback Barron Miles (40 tackles, 13 breakups, five interceptions) and rover Kareem Moss (66 tackles, four breakups, two interceptions). However, Nebraska has two returning starters plus Mike Minter, who was the quarterback of the secondary last season before a knee injury in the second game ended his season prematurely. Leslie Dennis, who backed up All-Big Eight Tyrone Williams on the right side last year, will move to the left to back up projected starter Eric Stokes. Stokes was originally a corner, but moved to free safety last season to fill in the void for Minter. Junior Michael Booker is a talented athlete who gained valuable experience last year and will back up Stokes and Dennis, as will senior Darren Schmadeke. Backing up Williams, a two-year starter at right corner, is Chad Blahak and possibly a newcomer. Williams had 38 tackles, five breakups and three interceptions a year ago while Dennis had 16 stops, three breakups and one pickoff. As a freshman alternate at rover, Minter had 23 tackles in 1993, and last year moved to free safety and started the first two games before he tore the ACL in his left knee. He had successful reconstructive surgery and this spring tested out at 4.55 in the 40-yard dash. He moved back to rover as converted quarterback Tony Veland proved last year that he is a talented replacement at free safety who will contend for honors in 1995. Veland started the last 11 games and had 26 tackles and three interceptions even though he wasn't full speed after tearing his patellar tendon in the fall of 1993. Stokes played in every game as Veland's alternate and had 36 tackles and two breakups. One of two true freshmen to play for the Blackshirts last year (along with Wistrom) was Octavious McFarlin, who in the last eight games had 15 tackles and one breakup gaining valuable experience at rover. Eric Warfield, who will be eligible in the fall, could contribute immediately at free safety. Redshirt freshman Tray Crayton had a solid spring and is expected to back up Veland.

It's a Fact

◆ Since 1982 when Charlie McBride became Nebraska's defensive coordinator, Husker defensive units have ranked among the nation's top 15 in total defense, 10 of the 13 years.

Directing the secondary in 1995 are four speedsters including free safety Tony Veland, All-Big Eight right cornerback Tyrone Williams, rover Mike Minter and left cornerback Eric Stokes.

Special Teams

Kickers

After leading the Huskers to a No. 2 ranking in net punting (41.2 ypp) last season, everyone wanted to see Darin Erstad return for his second year with the football team. But that became an impossible dream for the Huskers when Erstad's wish came to fruition as he was the first player chosen in the June baseball draft by the California Angels. Erstad, also NU's kickoff man and long field goal kicker, was a junior outfielder for the Husker baseball team in 1995, hitting .410 with 76 RBIs, a school-record 103 hits, 20 doubles, seven triples, 19 home runs and 11 stolen bases. NU's PAT and short field goal kicker Tom Sieler graduated and Coach Osborne will have to rely solely on newcomers to solidify the kicking game. Redshirt freshman Ted Retzlaff (who missed all spring with a torn left ACL) and sophomore Jesse Kosch could move into vital roles this season. But kicking Coach Dan Young will also take a good look at two incoming scholarship freshmen in punter Andy Bilanzich and place-kicker Kris Brown.

Split end Reggie Baul is a speedster who also returns punts for the Huskers.

Return Specialists

Nearly all the specialists return with the exception of No. 1 punt returner Kareem Moss. Moss returned 31 punts for 234 yards last year (7.6 ypp). He was backed by Reggie Baul (11-119) and Tyrone Williams (4-42), who both return. Kick-off returns are secure in the hands of Damon Benning (12-308) and Clinton Childs (9-190). Three-year snapper Aaron Graham is back and according to Coach Young, may be the quickest and most accurate snapper NU has ever had.

Husker Notes and Notables

Coach Tom Osborne
1994 AFCA National Coach-of-the-Year

In 1993 Coach Tom Osborne, the winningest football coach in Division I-A today among coaches with 10 years in the ranks (.820 winning percentage), became the first coach to reach the 200-win plateau in just 21 seasons. Last year he led NU to its first national title under his tutelage and was named the national coach-of-the-year by the AFCA. Osborne begins his 23rd year as head coach of the Huskers and his 34th overall at NU which includes an 11-year stint as an assistant under Bob Devaney. That's the longest tenure ever for a Nebraska coach, and now the longest in Big Eight history, as he passed Bennie Owen, who coached 22 years at Oklahoma from 1905-26. Osborne (Hastings, 1959) owns a career and school mark of 219-47-3 for an .820 winning percentage. The dean of Big Eight football coaches, he holds league records for games coached (269) and won (219). Osborne's teams have won at least nine games every season, average 10 wins per year, and the Nebraska native ranks eighth on the all-time NCAA Division I win chart, third among active coaches. He is second among active coaches in bowl appearances, third all time, having taken the Huskers to a bowl game in each of his 22 years. Osborne's teams have played 87 games against ranked (AP) teams and have won 50. That's an average of four games vs. ranked teams each year. Osborne's teams meanwhile, have been ranked in the final AP poll every year and in 346 of the possible 349 polls. Last season's Big Eight championship was Coach Osborne's 11th, fourth consecutive.

Over the Last 22 Years, Osborne's Huskers Have...

NU Continues Unprecedented Winning Tradition

Nebraska, the nation's eighth winningest program all time, boasts a 686-290-40 record in 1,016 games (.695). In terms of wins, the Huskers are tied for fifth with Penn State in NCAA Division I history with 686 victories. Since 1982, Nebraska's .840 winning percentage (123-23-1) is second only to Miami's .869 winning percentage (126-19). Nebraska is the only school to have posted 250 wins in the last 25 years. Averaging over 10 wins per year, NU is 252-49-5 for an .832 winning percentage since 1970. In 1994, NU not only continued its NCAA records for consecutive winning seasons (33), consecutive nine-win seasons (26), and consecutive bowls (26), but also extended its NCAA record for consecutive home sellouts in NU's Memorial Stadium with its 201st; and continued its AP poll record, as the final poll ranking (No. 1 on Jan. 3) was NU's 223rd consecutive top 25 ranking in as many weeks. The sellout streak and the consecutive winning season streak date to Bob Devaney's first year as coach in 1962, while the consecutive bowl and the nine-win streaks date back to 1969. Devaney and Osborne were the third Division I coaching duo to post back-to-back 100-win careers at the same institution (following Penn State's Rip Engle and Joe Paterno and Georgia Tech's John Heisman, Bill Alexander and Bobby Dodd), but were the first pair to do so in an unbelievable 21 years. Since 1962, Devaney and Osborne have a combined 320-67-5 record for an incredible .823 winning percentage (33 years, 392 games). NU has won 10-or-more games 16 times in that span (12 of which have come under Osborne). Since their beginning in 1890, Husker teams have won 11 or more games seven times, five under Osborne including 1982 (12-1-0), 1983 (12-1-0), 1988 (11-2-0), 1993 (11-1-0) and 1994 (13-0). The 1994 national championship was Osborne's first and the school's third, having won two under Devaney in 1970 and 1971. NU has a 25-game regular-season winning streak to lead the nation and a streak of 16-straight Big Eight Conference wins.

NU Wins Fourth Consecutive Big Eight Title

Nebraska will be going for its fifth consecutive Big Eight Championship in 1995. If accomplished, NU would become only the second school in the 35-year history of the Big Eight conference to do so. It was Nebraska's 31st outright title and 40th all time, both figures lead the conference. Since Oklahoma State joined the conference in 1957, giving the league eight teams, Nebraska leads the league with 19 crowns (14 outright), and in the last 22 years under Osborne, the Huskers have won 11 titles (seven outright). Nebraska won the league's first title in 1907 and the Huskers hope to win their fifth consecutive Big Eight title and the last "Big Eight" crown as the conference officially becomes the Big 12 in 1996. Four former Southwest Conference teams (Texas, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Baylor) will join the eight Big Eight schools to form a new league. The Big Eight welcomes four new coaches this year including Oklahoma's Howard Schnellenberger, Iowa State's Dan McCarney, Oklahoma State's Bob Simmons and Colorado's Rick Neuheisel. (For more information on the new Big 12 Conference, please see page 79.)

Huskers' 26th Consecutive Bowl in 1995 Betters the NCAA Record

The Huskers' invitation to appear in the 1995 Federal Express Orange Bowl extended their string of consecutive bowl trips to 26, bettering Alabama's NCAA record streak of 25 from 1959-83. It is the nation's longest current consecutive streak, with Michigan next at 20. Nebraska's 33 bowl appearances overall is fifth best, trailing Alabama's 47, USC's 37, and Texas and Tennessee's 35. The 1995 Orange Bowl was also Nebraska's 14th straight "New Year's Day" bowl. NU's 14 consecutive Jan. 1 or Jan. 2 bowl invitations, is also an NCAA record, both overall and current. Miami is next in line to Nebraska with 12 overall "New Year's Day" appearances, while Michigan is third with nine. The last time the Huskers played in a bowl game other than Jan. 1 or 2 was the Dec. 27, 1980, Sun Bowl at El Paso, Texas, where they defeated Mississippi State, 31-17. Nebraska's 26 consecutive bowls string began with a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl.

AP Poll Record Streak Hits 223

Nebraska finished No. 1 in the last AP poll (also No. 1 in CNN/USA Today/Coaches) after a 24-17 win over Miami on the Hurricane's home field in the 1995 Orange Bowl. Nebraska has now been ranked a record 223 consecutive weeks in the Associated Press Poll (every weekly AP Poll since 1981). In fact, Nebraska has been in 397 of the last 400 AP Polls since 1969 (346 of 349 under Tom Osborne since 1973), missing one week in 1977 and two in 1981.

1995 Schedule Opens With Two Road Games

Huskers begin the season with a Big Eight Conference game against Oklahoma State on Thursday, Aug. 31 in a night game that will be telecast on ESPN. The last time the Huskers opened the season with a conference opponent was on Sept. 25, 1948, in Lincoln in a 19-15 victory over Iowa State. This marks the second consecutive year NU has opened away from home and just the second time since 1981. The early game marks the fourth time NU has opened in August, with all three others taking place at the Kickoff Classic in East Rutherford, N.J. (NU won all three Classics, most recently a 31-0 victory over West Virginia last season.) The Huskers then travel to Michigan State for an ABC regional contest before returning home for three games vs. Arizona State, Pacific and Washington State. NU then plays the remainder of its last Big Eight Conference season (prior to playing a Big 12 league schedule in 1996) as it hosts Missouri and Kansas State, travels to Colorado, hosts Iowa State, plays at Kansas, then concludes the season with the traditional post-Thanksgiving matchup against Oklahoma the day after Thanksgiving on ABC. Nebraska's 1995 schedule features three teams which finished in the 1994 final top 25 in Colorado (No. 3 AP, No. 3 CNN), Kansas State (No. 19/16) and Washington State (No. 21/19). Four of its 1995 opponents played in bowl games following the 1994 season, including Colorado (Fiesta), K-State (Aloha), Oklahoma (Copper) and Washington State (Alamo).

NU Continues to Lead Nation in Academic All-Americans

Eight Huskers competed in the 1995 Orange Bowl with degree in hand, and while NU compiled numerous athletic awards, starting offensive tackle Rob Zatechka earned every academic award available to student-athletes, becoming NU's most decorated academician. He was an NCAA Today's Top Eight Award winner, the GTE Academic Football All-American-of-the-Year and Zatechka was joined by seniors Terry Connealy and Matt Shaw as first-team Academic All-Americans, giving Nebraska 48 first-team football honorees. NU leads the nation in this category with 13 more than second-place Notre Dame. Under Osborne, Nebraska has had 42 first-team honorees. The football team posts an 85 percent graduation rate among athletes who complete their eligibility at Nebraska and the Huskers also lead the Big Eight in academic all-conference honors with 155 under Coach Osborne since 1973. The Nebraska athletic program overall, counting all men's and women's sports, also leads the nation with 126 first-, second- and third-team academic All-Americans and is first with 75 first-team honorees.

1994 Recap...Huskers 13-0, Win National Title

Eager to get the 1994 season underway, the Huskers began the quest early taking on West Virginia in the Kickoff Classic on August 28. The Huskers were anxious to get started on "Unfinished Business" after losing an 18-16 heartbreaker to Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl for the national championship. Nebraska cruised through its first four games, defeating West Virginia, 31-0, Texas Tech, 42-16, UCLA, 49-21 and Pacific, 70-21. Nebraska suffered two major blows however, losing free safety Mike Minter, the quarterback of the secondary, in game two to a torn ACL. After the Pacific game, doctors discovered Heisman candidate and third-year starting quarterback Tommie Frazier had blood clots in his knee. He would miss the rest of the regular season. Brook Berringer, a junior backup, took the helm, led NU to a 42-32 win over Wyoming, but suffered a partially collapsed lung in the game. He was only able to play the first half of the conference opener vs. Oklahoma State and turned the starting QB reins over to sophomore walk-on Matt Turman for the Kansas State game. Turman finished the OSU game, leading the Huskers to a 32-3 win, and gave Berringer a 7-6 lead at halftime against the KSU Wildcats en route to a 17-6 victory. During this transition period, the offensive line blew open holes for I-back Lawrence Phillips and fullback Cory Schlesinger, while Berringer passed for 1,295 yards and 10 TDs. Phillips rushed for 100 yards or more in every game except the season finale en route to 1,722 yards, 143.5 per game to rank third nationally. But the real difference was the Husker defense, which allowed just 23 points in the first four conference games. Berringer led NU to a 42-7 win over Missouri, played like a true veteran in the 24-7 win over No. 2 Colorado, kept the Huskers undefeated with a 45-17 win over Kansas at home, then posted two road wins over Iowa State, 28-12 and Oklahoma, 13-3, to close out the perfect 12-0 regular season. Frazier was cleared to play against Oklahoma in an emergency, but remained on the sidelines. After six weeks of non-contact practices, however, he won the starting job back after a full-scale scrimmage in Miami, prior to the Orange Bowl. Both QBs played, and each had led NU to a score, but Frazier earned the MVP award for the second consecutive year as he led Nebraska to two come-from-behind fourth-quarter scores for the 24-17 win over the Hurricanes on their home field and for Nebraska's first national championship since 1971. Nebraska, 13-0, was named the No. 1 team by the Associated Press and also in the CNN/USA Today Coaches Poll (and all major publications) by a wide margin over Penn State, even though the Nittany Lions also finished the season undefeated at 12-0. Nebraska defeated five ranked teams, (including No. 2 Colorado and No. 3 Miami), six bowl-bound teams and won its fourth consecutive Big Eight Championship. Husker fans also celebrated their nation-leading 200th consecutive sellout in Memorial Stadium against the Colorado Buffaloes on Oct. 29.

Huskers Monopolize Individual Honors in 1994

With the offensive line leading Nebraska to its third rushing title in the last four years at a 340.0 yards per game clip, Nebraska had two first-team All-Americans on its offensive line in right tackle Zach Wiegert and right guard Brenden Stai. It marked just the fourth time since 1950 that two offensive linemen from the same school were so honored. Wiegert finished second in the Lombardi Award race and brought home Nebraska's seventh Outland Trophy and was also the UPI Offensive Lineman-of-the-Year and the Touchdown Club of Columbus Line-man-of-the-Year. Linebacker Ed Stewart, along with Wiegert, was also a consensus All-American and was a finalist for both the Butkus Award and for defensive player-of-the-year by the Football Writers. The Huskers had two individuals finish in the top 10 of the Heisman race as I-back Lawrence Phillips was eighth and Wiegert tied for ninth. NU again led the Big Eight in first-team All-Big Eight honorees with nine including Wiegert, Stai, Stewart, second-team All-America and Football News Offensive Player-of-the-Year Finalist Phillips, the New Jersey Sportswriters Association Defensive Back-of-the-Year and third-team All-America cornerback Barron Miles, honorable-mention All-America outside linebacker Donta Jones, linebacker Troy Dumas, center Aaron Graham, and cornerback Tyrone Williams. In addition, defensive tackle Terry Connealy earned second-team All-America honors. Meanwhile, Coach Tom Osborne earned Big Eight Coach-of-the-Year honors and national coach-of-the-year honors by his peers (American Football Coaches Association), the Alonzo Stagg Coach-of-the-Year Award (and also by several other publications) and earned the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Distinguished American Award, the Giant Steps Award and the Father Flanagan Award for Service to Youth.

Husker Notes

◆ Happy at Home...NU has not lost more than one home game in a season under Coach Osborne since a 5-2 home record in 1980. The Huskers are 411-121-20 (.763, 552 games) in Lincoln, 286-98-13 (.737, 397 games) in Memorial Stadium (since 1923) and 126-16-0 at home under Coach Osborne (.887, 142 games). NU is 44-2 at home in the last seven years. NU's 23-game home win streak is the nation's second longest (behind Texas A&M's 26). NU's 23-game home win streak is the longest under Coach Osborne, and equals the second longest in school history. In that 23-game stretch, Nebraska has defeated six ranked teams and has outscored its 23 opponents by a cumulative score of 1,062 (46.2 per game) to 345 (15.0) and has scored 38 or more points 19 times. In the last seven years, NU has lost only to teams who went on to win a share of the national championship (Colorado, 1990 and Washington in 1991). Since 1986, the Huskers are 55-4 in Lincoln, with losses only to Colorado, Washington and Oklahoma (twice). Those four teams which won in Lincoln, posted a combined mark of 45-

3-1 on their respective seasons. Nebraska has not been shut out at home since a 12-0 loss to Kansas State in 1968.

◆ In the Consecutive Sellout Streak...Nebraska's Memorial Stadium boasts an NCAA record 201 consecutive sellouts, dating back to Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney's first year as coach in 1962 (vs. Missouri on Nov. 3). NU is 176-25 (.876, 201 games) during the 201 Consecutive Sellout Streak (50-9 under Devaney and 126-16 under Osborne). The mark includes a 28-18 record against ranked teams. Nebraska is 4-0 in the four milestone sellouts during that period (50th, 100th, 150th and 200th sellouts) including a 24-7 win over No. 2 Colorado on Oct. 29, 1994, for the 200th sellout.

◆ Against AP Ranked Teams...Nebraska is 69-83-3 (.455, 155 games) all time vs. ranked opponents (50-36-1, .581, under Osborne) and last year defeated No. 24 (AP) West Virginia in the season opener (31-0), No. 13 UCLA at home, 49-21, No. 16 Kansas State in Manhattan, 17-6, No. 2 Colorado at home, 24-7 and No. 3 Miami 24-17 in the Orange Bowl. At home against ranked opponents under Osborne, NU is 23-12 (.657). The Kickoff Classic season opener marked the seventh time an Osborne team opened the season against a ranked opponent. The Huskers are 5-2 in those games.

◆ Against No. 1...In the past five years, the Huskers have faced five teams who finished the season ranked No. 1 and shared a piece of the national title--Colorado and Georgia Tech (Citrus Bowl) in 1990-91; Washington and Miami (Orange Bowl) in 1991-92; and Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl. In addition, Nebraska's 1993 Federal Express Orange Bowl opponent, Florida State, missed winning the 1992 national title by a field goal and finished No. 2.

◆ Huskers vs. the Unranked...The Huskers' loss to Iowa State in 1992 marked just the 11th loss to an unranked opponent in 182 tries under Coach Tom Osborne.

Did You Know...

- ◆ Nebraska leads the nation in all sports and in football first-team GTE Academic All-Americans with 75 and 48, respectively (42 under Coach Tom Osborne).
- ◆ Across all teams and all sports, Nebraska leads the nation with 126 first-, second- and third-team GTE Academic All-Americans, 44 more than second-place Bucknell which had 82 selections.
- ◆ Nebraska has produced 48 first-team football GTE Academic All-Americans, 13 more than second-place Notre Dame. Only five schools have produced 20-or-more first-team football academic All-Americans.
- ◆ Seven of Osborne's Huskers, including 1994 winner Rob Zatechka, have received the NCAA's highest honor for student-athletes--selection as one of Today's Top Eight. That's the most for any individual sports program in the country and more than half of NU's nation-leading 11 selections.

yards. NU rushed for 300 or more yards in eight of 13 games last season. NU's 524 rushing yards vs. Texas Tech were the most since a 529 outing vs. Colorado State in 1991 and in games No. 2-4, Nebraska had three consecutive games of 400 yards or more rushing, for the first time since 1990 (with 524 vs. Texas Tech; 484 vs. UCLA; and 510 vs. Pacific). Nebraska had 25 runs of 25 yards or more in the 1994 regular season, with Lawrence Phillips (eight) and Cory Schlesinger (five) accounting for 13 of them, Tommie Frazier had four, Clinton Childs, Jeff Makovicka and Brook Berringer had two. Of NU's 44 rushing TDs last year, 10 came on runs of 25 yards or more. Nebraska won its 11th rushing title last season averaging 340.0 yards per game (ninth under Osborne, third in last four years).

◆ In the Red Zone...In 51 tries in the Red Zone last season, NU scored 41 times (36 TDs and five field goals) for an .804 success rate. Husker opponents were 15-18 in the Red Zone (.833, 13 TDs, two field goals, one missed field goal, two turnovers) in 12 games. While QB Tommie Frazier was 10-11 in the red zone (.909) when at the helm of the Huskers, Brook Berringer was 26-32 (.813) and Turman was 5-8 (.718).

◆ Adding up the Points...The Husker offense has averaged 30 or more points for 17 straight years and in 1994 ranked sixth nationally averaging 36.3 ppg. Nebraska has won 179 consecutive games when scoring 35 or more points. All time, NU is 244-1 when scoring 35 or more points, losing only to Oklahoma, 49-35, in 1950. Nebraska scored 40 or more points six times in 13 tries last year (under 20 points just twice). The Huskers have scored in 178 straight home games since a 12-0 loss to Kansas State in 1968.

◆ Undefeated Seasons...Nebraska was one of two undefeated and untied teams in the AP top 25 last season. In 105 years of Husker football, NU has gone undefeated in the regular season 12 times (including 1993 and 1994), and undefeated and untied through the bowl game twice, when Nebraska won the National Championship in 1971 and when the Huskers were crowned national champs in 1994, both times playing 13 games. Teams have posted back-to-back undefeated regular seasons 35 times, only seven since 1964. Nebraska's 11-0 regular-season record in 1993 and 12-0 record in 1994 marked the second time the Huskers have posted back-to-back undefeated regular seasons, with the first in 1902-03. The last team prior to Nebraska to have posted back-to-back perfect regular seasons was Miami in 1986-87 (11-0 each year). The record for consecutive undefeated regular seasons is held by Washington, which posted five from 1909-1913. The last team to have three straight was Oklahoma in 1954-56. Four teams have posted 12-0 regular seasons a total of six times in NCAA history with Nebraska claiming three of those marks (1971, 1983, 1994). Nebraska's 1994 team was the first since Alabama in 1992 to have posted a perfect season and to have won the national title. Both teams went undefeated through 13 games. The perfect 13-0 1994 season was Nebraska's 12th undefeated regular season and seventh perfect season.

Aaron Graham will contend for first-team honors after being named to the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America Second Team in 1994.

In fact, in the last 22 years, Osborne's teams have gone 169-11-2 (.934) against unranked opponents and suffered only one loss to a team which finished below .500 (Iowa State, 1992).

◆ It's a Rush...NU is 139-5-0 (.965) under Coach Osborne when rushing for more than 300 yards in a game (since 1973) and has won 61 straight when rushing for 300-plus yards since a loss to Michigan in the 1986 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl, when the team rushed for 304 yards. Nebraska is 70-0 in the Osborne-era when rushing for 400 or more

- 1970 (11-0-1) Undefeated, but tied USC in second game, National Champions;
- 1971 (13-0-0) National Champions, defeated Hawaii in Honolulu, 45-4, in 12th game;
- 1983 (12-1-0) Defeated Penn State in Kickoff Classic, 44-6, lost to Miami in the Orange Bowl, 31-30, on failed 2-point conversion, UM National Champions;
- 1993 (11-1-0) Lost to Florida State, 18-16, in Orange Bowl, FSU National Champions;
- 1994 (13-0-0) Defeated West Virginia in Kickoff Classic, 31-0, defeated Miami 24-17 in Orange Bowl for national title.

◆ National Championships...Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney won the national title two consecutive years, in 1970 and 1971. Coach Osborne's first of four shots at the national championship was in 1981 when No. 4 Nebraska, lost to No. 1 Clemson 22-15 in the Orange Bowl. In 1983, No. 5 Miami upset No. 1 NU, 31-30, in the Orange Bowl. His 1993 team, ranked No. 2, lost to No. 1 Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl, 18-16, and his 1994 team, ranked No. 1, defeated No. 3 Miami 24-17 for Osborne's first and the school's third national championship.

◆ Walk-ons Crucial to Husker Success...Looking at the most-recent depth chart, of the 81 players listed, 32 were walk-ons (40 percent) when they came to NU, including three starters, split end Reggie Baul, fullback Jeff Makovicka (who played eight-man football in high school) and outside linebacker Jared Tomich.

◆ Passing to Perfection...Even though Nebraska's 137.8 yards per game passing in 1994 ranked sixth in the conference, NU was second in the Big Eight in touchdown passes with 15 (to Kansas State's 18). Nebraska led the conference in touchdowns per attempts (15 per 210) and touchdowns per completions (15 per 120). In fact, in 1994, Nebraska scored a touchdown once every 14 pass attempts and one of every eight completions was for a score.

◆ Stopping the Rush...Since 1946, the Nebraska defense has allowed 100 or fewer rushing yards per game over the course of the season eight times, most recently in 1994, when the Blackshirts allowed just 79.3 yards per game rushing. That figure ranks as the third lowest per-game opponent average ever behind the record mark of 67.5 ypg in 1967 and 78.8 in 1984.

Nebraska's Top Defensive Stands Against the Rush:

Year:	Rushing YPG:
1994	79.3
1971	85.9
1979	93.1
1963	99.9

◆ The Speed Factor...The 1995 Nebraska team tied its best electronic 10-yard dash time ever with a 1.71 average across the top three units. The '95 Huskers also turned in their best Team Performance Index at 2,124.

◆ Who's the Fastest?...In electronic timing, here's the best among the Huskers in the 10-yard dash (all under 1.55): James Sims 1.46; Mike Minter 1.50; Tyrone Williams 1.51; Damon Benning 1.51; Lawrence Phillips 1.52; Tony Veland 1.52; Brendan Holbein 1.52; Jeff Makovicka 1.52; Jon Vedral 1.52; Michael Booker 1.54 and Lance Brown 1.54. 40-yard dash (all under 4.50): Mike Minter 4.41; James Sims 4.41; Leslie Dennis 4.43; Tyrone Williams 4.45; Reggie Baul 4.47; Riley Washington 4.47; Michael Booker 4.47; and Lawrence Phillips 4.48. On the track, however, no one can beat Washington, a two-time All-America sprinter, who set a Husker school record and posted the nation's third-fastest collegiate time in 1993 with a 6.17

clocking in the 55-meter dash, earning All-America honors.

◆ Signed, Sealed and Delivered...Nebraska earned the CFA Honorable-Mention Citation the past two years for its graduation rate (82 percent among those who completed their eligibility at NU in 1993, 83 percent in 1994). The Huskers improved that average to 85 percent in 1995. In 1995, defensive tackle Jason Jenkins will compete with his degree in hand.

◆ Making a Mark in the NFL...On official 1994 opening-day rosters, Nebraska was second in the Big Eight and tied for 18th nationally with 17 Huskers on the NFL list. Nebraska's active NFL players in 1994 included: Trev Alberts--Indianapolis; Derek Brown--New Orleans; Mike Croel--Denver; Brian Davis--Minnesota; Irving Fryar--Miami; Travis Hill--Cleveland; Tyrone Hughes--New Orleans; Calvin Jones--Los Angeles Raiders; Tyrone Legette--New Orleans; Jeff Mills--New York Giants; Johnny Mitchell--New York Jets; John Parella--San Diego; Tom Rathman--Los Angeles Raiders; Joe Sims--Green Bay; Broderick Thomas--Detroit; Will Shields--Kansas City; Neil Smith--Kansas City; Nate Turner--Buffalo; Brian Washington--New York Jets; Jamie Williams--Los Angeles Raiders; Toby Wright--Los Angeles Rams.

In addition, NU has eight players in the Canadian Football League, including Tahaun Lewis, Toronto; Tim Jackson and Kenny Walker, Hamilton; Keithen McCant, Winnipeg; Steve Taylor, Calgary; Terris Chorney, Edmonton; Kenny Wilhite, Sacramento; and Richard Bell, Las Vegas.

(Gerald Armstrong, Hamilton, signed after season).

Nebraska has averaged more than five draft picks per year since 1954 and almost seven annually under Tom Osborne. NU ranks eighth on the NFL's all-time first-round draft choice list, including four round one selections in the last five years. When NU linebacker Trev Alberts became the No. 5 pick overall by the Colts in 1994, he became the third Husker linebacker selected among the top six picks in the last seven years. Seven Huskers from the 1994 team were drafted and six more signed free agent contracts with NFL clubs. Five were picked in the first four rounds including three linemen. Nebraska's 1995 draft list: Zach Wiegert, second--St. Louis; Brenden Stai, third--Pittsburgh; Troy Dumas, third--Kansas City; Donta Jones, fourth--Pittsburgh; Rob Zatechka, fourth--New York Giants; Cory Schlesinger, sixth--Detroit; Barron Miles, sixth--Pittsburgh. Free agents: Eric Alford--New England Patriots; Terry Connealy--New York Jets; Tom Sieler--San Francisco 49ers; Ed Stewart--Carolina Panthers; Dwayne Harris--Tampa Bay; and Kareem Moss--Kansas City.

Husker Draft Notes

- ◆ Nebraska has averaged more than five draft picks per year since 1954.
- ◆ Since Tom Osborne's reign as head coach, the number of NFL draft picks has increased to nearly seven annually with 151 in 22 years.
- ◆ Nebraska ranks eighth on the NFL's all-time first-round draft list, including seven first-round selections in the last nine drafts.
- ◆ Nebraska has produced a total of 26 first-round picks in the NFL draft.

Nebraska Football Notables

- ◆ Nebraska leads the nation in consecutive winning seasons with 33, a continuing NCAA record.
- ◆ The Huskers lead the nation in consecutive nine-win seasons with an NCAA-record 26, the next closest team has 10.
- ◆ Nebraska has the longest current bowl participation streak with an NCAA-record 26 consecutive berths.
- ◆ The Huskers have not only gone to 26 bowls in a row, but have gone to a record 14 consecutive New Year's Day bowls, including the national championship matchup in the 1995 Orange Bowl.
- ◆ In rankings, Nebraska is tops in the nation as the Huskers have been ranked by the Associated Press every week since 1981, giving the Huskers an AP Poll record of 223 consecutive weeks in the ratings. In fact, Nebraska has been in 397 of the last 400 AP Polls since 1969--26 consecutive years, 346 of 349 under Coach Tom Osborne.
- ◆ Nebraska posts an NCAA record with 201 consecutive home sellouts in Memorial Stadium dating back to 1962, when Coach Bob Devaney took the helm as head coach.
- ◆ Among coaches with 10 years experience, Tom Osborne is the winningest coach in the nation with an .820 winning percentage.
- ◆ Osborne holds Big Eight Conference records for games coached (269) and won (219). His 219 wins rank third in the nation among active coaches. With his win over Oklahoma State on October 7, 1993, he joined 12 other coaches all time, and five active as a member of the elusive 200-win club. Osborne was the only coach in the history of Division I-A football to reach the 200-win plateau in just 21 seasons.
- ◆ Nebraska leads the nation in nearly every academic honor available to student-athletes, including the number of first-team Academic All-Americans for football (48 total, 42 under Osborne, an average of nearly two per year).
- ◆ Nebraska leads the nation in NCAA Today's Top Eight Award winners with 11 including Rob Zatechka in 1994. This is the highest academic honor the NCAA awards to student-athletes. In football, Nebraska has had seven honorees, more than any other individual sports program in the country.
- ◆ In 1994, Nebraska led the nation in rushing at 340.0 yards per game. Nebraska has won 11 NCAA rushing titles, including nine in the last 15 seasons and five in the last seven years. NU is 139-5-0 under Osborne when rushing for 300 yards or more per game.
- ◆ Nebraska has won more conference football championships than any other Big Eight school. Including last season, the Huskers have won 31 titles outright, and shared another nine. Under Osborne, Nebraska has won or shared the Big Eight crown 11 times, including the last four.
- ◆ Nebraska has had six athletes win seven Outland Trophies (more than any other school) including offensive tackle Zach Wiegert in 1994.
- ◆ In addition to NU's Outland winners, two Huskers have won the Heisman and three brought home Lombardis. Both figures tie for the nation's lead in the last 20 years. In 1993, Trev Alberts became the first Husker to win the Butkus Award.
- ◆ Under Osborne, 41 Huskers have earned first-team All-America honors including five two-time winners for a total of 46...that's an average of two per year. In 1994, offensive tackle Zach Wiegert, offensive guard Brenden Stai and linebacker Ed Stewart earned All-America honors.
- ◆ Nebraska has had 26 first-round NFL draft picks, including 17 under Coach Osborne. In the 1972 and 1984 drafts, NU had three players selected in the first round. Under Osborne, NU has had 151 players drafted, including seven this year, an average of 6.9 per year.
- ◆ On 1994 opening day rosters, Nebraska ranked 18th in the nation with 17 players in the NFL.
- ◆ Nebraska has been on national television 131 times in the last 41 years, including 104 appearances under Coach Osborne. In the last 22 years, the Huskers have averaged 4.7 national TV broadcasts per season. In addition, there are several local and regional games shown on cable each year.
- ◆ Nebraska's radio network covers 17 states and 50 stations.
- ◆ Under Osborne in the last 22 years, Nebraska has played 89 games against ranked teams, that's over four per year, 47 have been against top 10 teams.
- ◆ Husker players on the 1995 roster hail from 26 states.
- ◆ Nebraska is only the third Division I-A school to have two football coaches post 100 victories, back-to-back. With Bob Devaney's 101 wins, and Osborne's 219, NU has posted a 320-67-5 record in the past 33 years for an .823 winning percentage.

Last year's Homecoming game with Colorado marked NU's 200th consecutive home sellout. Fans in the East Stadium spelled out "200" with placard cards in recognition of the undying support NU receives from its fans and to commemorate the card sections of the 1960s when the sellout streak began.

"Every time I ran out onto the field at Memorial Stadium, it was like I was walking on air. It's the most incredible feeling."

Trev Alberts,
1993 Butkus Award Winner

"There is no place like Nebraska, dear old Nebraska U..." This song is mystically carried by the wind throughout the state of Nebraska as the Husker football team takes to the field. Memorial Stadium is the only place to be on these enchanted fall afternoons as the stadium is transformed into the state's third-largest "city," where the "Best Fans in College Football" come nationwide to be a part of the magic.

Nebraska's home sellout streak started on Nov. 3, 1962. Since that game, Husker fans from across the nation have poured into Memorial Stadium for an NCAA record 201-consecutive "sold out" games. Last year's Homecoming game with Colorado marked the 200th-straight home contest in which the Husker zealots have packed the venerable Memorial Stadium. Red-and-white clad Husker enthusiasts will make the "pilgrimage" to Lincoln for seven afternoon games this autumn, featuring three squads that played in bowl games a year ago.

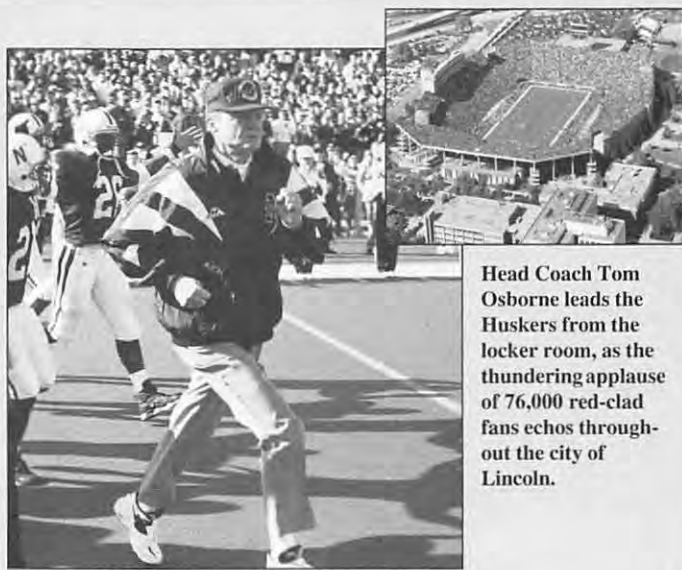

Big Red "fever" not only affects the faithful who jam Memorial Stadium, but the "epidemic" spreads throughout the land as loyal legions of fans gather around radios and television sets to cheer on their beloved Huskers.

On game day, the pulse of the city quickens as chants of "Go Big Red" echo through the streets of Lincoln. Season after season, year after year, Memorial Stadium on the University of Nebraska campus is one of the truly special places to enjoy a college football game.

A year ago, a new tradition started at Husker games. With the addition of the HuskerVision replay boards and NU's new state-of-the-art sound system, Husker fans can now watch NU players make their way from the "tunnel walk," down Husker Boulevard and onto the field, as Allan Parson Project's "Sirius" brings the frenzied, sellout crowd to a feverish pitch.

Top 10 Reasons Nebraska Football is Magical

1. Nebraska Head Coach Tom Osborne, the winningest coach in college football, led NU to its third national title in 1994.
2. Nebraska hosted its 200th-consecutive sellout on Oct. 29, 1994, when NU blasted Colorado 24-7. Memorial Stadium's 201-straight sellouts is a continuing NCAA record.
3. The Huskers' appearance in the 1995 Orange Bowl was their 26th straight bowl contest and set a new NCAA record.
4. Every NU player who has come to Lincoln since 1969 and has competed four years, has won at least one Big Eight Championship ring and has made four bowl trips.
5. In 1994, Nebraska extended its NCAA records to 33 consecutive winning and 26 straight nine-win seasons.
6. The Huskers have produced 26 first-round NFL draft picks.
7. Nebraska leads the nation in first-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic Football All-Americans with 48.
8. NU welcomes players from across the country with its current roster comprised of players from 26 different states.
9. The Huskers will vie for their fifth-consecutive Big Eight title in 1995. If accomplished, it would mark only the second time in the 35-year history of the Big Eight Conference a school has turned the trick and it would also be the last Big Eight Conference crown as the league becomes the Big 12 in 1996.
10. Nebraska has appeared in every Associated Press Poll since 1981, giving the Huskers an AP Poll record of 223-straight weeks in the rankings.

Head Coach Tom Osborne leads the Huskers from the locker room, as the thundering applause of 76,000 red-clad fans echos throughout the city of Lincoln.

Huskers Record Perfect 13-0 Season...

After a heartbreaking loss to Florida State for a national championship in the 1994 Orange Bowl, the Huskers entered the 1994 season with "Unfinished Business." At various points of the season, the Huskers lost the services of their top two quarterbacks and defensive secondary quarterback Mike Minter, but adversity seemed to fuel NU to its goal of claiming a national championship. Despite a grueling 12-game regular-season schedule, which featured seven bowl teams from 1993, the Huskers' grit and determination allowed them to advance to the Orange Bowl with an unblemished record for the second-straight season. NU's only roadblock to claiming its third national title in school history was to top the hometown Miami Hurricanes.

Miami's quick-strike offense lived up to its billing, as the Hurricanes led 17-7 early in the third quarter, but the mighty Husker machine stood poised for a fourth-quarter rally. Superior conditioning and preparation proved to be vital, as Nebraska's offense started to click against the vaunted 'Cane defense. The Huskers posted 15 unanswered fourth-quarter points and the Blackshirt defense stymied Miami to -35 total yards in the fourth quarter and paved the way to a 24-17 victory and their third national championship.

Playing in the Orange Bowl, known as one of the most hostile environments in college football for opposing teams, the dedication and perseverance of Nebraska Football enabled NU to reach the pinnacle of the college football world and claim a national title.

A perfect 13-0 season and a national championship earned the Huskers a trip to the White House to meet President Clinton. The captains presented Clinton with a jersey and autographed football.

Business was finally finished, the rewards of a long and arduous season, Nebraska celebrates in the locker room. NU limited Miami to 79 yards of total offense in the second half.

When Dwayne Harris (86) sacked Miami's Frank Costa in the end zone for a third-quarter safety, momentum began to swing the way of the Huskers. Miami recorded no first downs in the fourth quarter against the stingy Blackshirt defense.

"The people in Nebraska are just the best fans you could ever possibly have...You couldn't possibly send a young person to a better place than Nebraska for football or school. The people treat you well. They are so wonderful."

Bob Brown,
Former Husker All-American,
National Football Foundation inductee

Thousands of well-wishers greeted Tom Osborne and the Huskers when they returned to Lincoln following their stunning victory in the Orange Bowl.

Claim Third National Championship

Each player received a national championship ring at the national championship celebration on April 21.

Tom Osborne's victory ride was featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated.

The day after its monumental win over Miami, NU's charter plane touched down in Lincoln to the applause of nearly 5,000 Husker fans who braved the freezing temperatures at the airport. Additional supporters lined the snow-packed streets of Lincoln to salute the caravan of buses carrying the Husker entourage to the Bob Devaney Sports Center for an impromptu victory celebration. More than 14,000 devout Husker fans filled the Devaney Center to capacity, while an estimated 5,000 more were turned away.

In the end, the countless hours of practice and preparation paid off for the Huskers. Upon their return, NU received a well-deserved heroes welcome, as coaches, staff, players and fans savored the thrill of winning the national title.

As a tribute and as a way of saying thank you to its ardent fans, Nebraska held a National Championship Celebration at Memorial Stadium the night before the annual Red-White spring game. Some 40,000 fervent Husker fans showed up to watch a laser light show, the fourth quarter Orange Bowl replay, highlight videos and to see Head Coach Tom Osborne present his players and staff with their national championship rings.

The following day, 40,000 fans turned out for the Red-White spring game. After narrow misses for the school's long-awaited third national championship, the greatest college football fans in the nation can relish in the championship season of 1994.

When Nebraska returned from Miami, thousands of Husker fans lined the streets from the airport to the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

Media Coverage... NU is In the Spotlight

Nebraska's national media coverage is among the best in the country, with three games, including the season opener, already scheduled to be nationally-televised in 1995. A top five preseason ranking and the 1994 national title makes NU a viable candidate to have additional games scheduled for broadcast.

A year ago, ESPN's Lee Corso, Craig James and Chris Fowler hosted their nationally televised "Game Day" show from Lincoln prior to the UCLA and Colorado games, thrusting the Huskers and the city of Lincoln into the national spotlight once again. All told, the Huskers appeared in seven televised contests a year ago, including their 24-17 Orange Bowl victory over the Miami Hurricanes to secure NU's third national title.

NU, which opened its 1994 slate before a national audience by trouncing West Virginia (31-0) in the Kickoff Classic, will again open its season in the national limelight when it faces Big Eight Conference foe Oklahoma State on ESPN's Thursday Night College Football opener, Aug. 31, in Stillwater. The Huskers will also face Big Ten power Michigan State on ABC, Sept. 9, in East Lansing. The contest against Oklahoma, traditionally the day following Thanksgiving, will once again be featured on ABC. An annual event, the NU-OU contest has been nationally broadcast 22 of the last 24 years, beginning with the Game of the Century on Nov. 25, 1971. In addition, the last six meetings between NU and Colorado have been televised and the Oct. 28, contest is expected to be covered by ABC or ESPN.

The Huskers have averaged more than five television appearances per season since 1980, including a current nation-leading string of 26 consecutive bowl appearances. The media attention isn't limited to national television broadcasts as the Huskers are consistently covered by national print publications such as Football News, USA Today, Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News, as well as hundreds of regional media outlets. As a matter of fact, the Huskers have been ranked in the Associated Press poll every week since 1981, giving them an AP Poll record of 223 consecutive weeks in the ratings. Husker football can be heard in 17 states on the Nebraska Football Radio Network's 50 affiliates. As a Nebraska football player or fan, the attention of the media is just one more way to access Nebraska football.

The Huskers are also highly decorated when it comes time to present college football's top awards. Nebraska players have won seven Outlands, more than any other school, and combined with three Lombardis, two Heisman trophies and one Butkus Award, Nebraska's trophy cases are overflowing with prominent individual honors.

ABC sideline reporter Lynn Swann frequently makes trips to Lincoln for key Husker matchups. Nebraska's three-level press box provides seating for 125 representatives of the media and has accommodated more than 500 media representatives for nationally-ranked opponents.

ESPN's Chris Fowler, Lee Corso and Craig James came to Lincoln for the UCLA and Colorado games to host their College Football "Game Day" show in the shadow of Memorial Stadium. Nebraska athletes are consistently in the limelight. In 1994, Rob Zatechka (from left) was the Academician-of-the-Year, Ed Stewart was a Butkus finalist and Zach Wiegert won the Outland and was a Lombardi finalist.

Did You Know That...

- ◆ Nebraska, which appeared on national television seven times in 1994 and has averaged more than five television appearances per year since 1980, has at least three games slated for broadcast in 1995.
- ◆ The Huskers have made a nation-leading 26-consecutive bowl appearances. Nebraska owns an NCAA record 33-consecutive winning seasons and has had 26-straight years of nine-win seasons. The next closest team has 10.
- ◆ Nebraska has been ranked by the Associated Press every week since 1981, which gives the Huskers an AP poll record 223 consecutive weeks in the rankings.

Bowl Games...a New Year's Day Tradition

Nebraska has played in a bowl game every year since the 1969 season. When the 1995 campaign begins, the Huskers will vie for their second-straight national championship and 27th-consecutive bowl appearance. NU's streak of 26-straight bowl appearances is the longest current string in the nation and is an NCAA record. Nebraska surpassed Alabama's previous NCAA record of 25 (1959-1983) last year. In addition, NU has played in an NCAA record 14-straight New Year's Day bowls.

During the past 14 seasons, Nebraska has played in eight Orange Bowls, three Fiesta Bowls, two Sugar Bowls, and one Florida Citrus Bowl. Nebraska's annual bowl games have frequently featured teams that have factored in the national championship equation. In fact, the winner of five of NU's last seven bowl contests has captured at least a share of the national championship.

New Year's Day bowl games with national title implications and nine-win seasons are the norm at Nebraska. NU's high national profile and nationwide fan base make it a favorite among bowl selection committees.

Nebraska football fans are the most loyal in the country. At the 1995 Federal Express Orange Bowl, more than 20,000 Husker fans made the trip to the Sunshine State to watch NU down the Hurricanes and earn its third national championship. The boisterous Husker crowd aided NU in the 24-17 win over Miami.

Brook Berringer and Tommie Frazier talk to the media prior to the Orange Bowl. Husker players relax and enjoy their free time prior to the national championship showdown with Miami.

Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert jokes with ESPN's Craig James and Lee Corso at the Orange Bowl media day.

Did You Know That...

- ◆ Nebraska has appeared in an NCAA-record 14 consecutive New Year's Day bowl games.
- ◆ The Huskers have played a higher-ranked opponent in nine of their last 11 bowl games, including four teams ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the nation.
- ◆ Nebraska's NCAA record 26-straight bowl appearances began in 1969 when the Huskers defeated Georgia 45-6 in the Sun Bowl.

"Nebraska fans are indeed the best football fans in the world and we love to come see you in Lincoln."

Huskers in the Pros... Pipeline to the NFL

Neil Smith (1984-87) was labeled as one of the nation's premier pass rushers at Nebraska. He carried that reputation into the NFL as a first-round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs, where he has been a three-time Pro Bowl performer.

Nebraska has consistently been a springboard for some of the top NFL draft picks. NU has produced four first-round players in the last seven drafts. The Huskers have averaged more than five draft picks per year since 1954, with the number increasing to almost seven annually under Tom Osborne.

There have been 26 first-round picks from Nebraska with a school high of three in both 1972 and 1984 and two in 1991. At this year's draft, the Huskers produced seven draftees with six additional players signing as free-agent contracts.

"The University of Nebraska staff encouraged my development as an athlete and as a person. They helped me to be creative, manage my time and build my character, poise and beliefs. The assistance and training I received at Nebraska enabled me to be ready to assume a starting role for the Kansas City Chiefs as a rookie."

Will Shields,
1992 Outland Trophy Winner

In two seasons with the New Orleans Saints, Tyrone Hughes (1989-92) has earned two straight trips to the Pro Bowl and in 1994 set an NFL record with 304 kickoff return yards in a single game.

"Coach Tom Osborne is without a doubt one of the top coaches in the country. His program shows you the success and commitment to winning. I have great respect for Coach Osborne and the University of Nebraska football program."

Tom Rathman, Former Husker Fullback
Two-Time Super Bowl Champion

A consensus All-American and GTE Academic All-American at Nebraska, Trev Alberts (1990-93) was the fifth overall pick of the 1994 NFL draft by the Indianapolis Colts. Alberts was the 1993 Butkus Award winner.

Training Ground for the Next Level

Johnny Mitchell (1990-91) was a first-round draft pick of the New York Jets in 1991. Known for his acrobatic receptions and the ability to run with the ball after a catch, Mitchell is fast becoming one of the most feared tight ends in the NFL.

Tom Rathman (1983-85) came to NU as a walk-on player and ended up as a two-year starter. A nine-year veteran of the NFL, Rathman was an integral part of two 49er Super Bowl titles.

Nebraska has consistently produced a steady flow of talent to the NFL, averaging nearly seven players selected per year during Tom Osborne's 22-year stint as the Huskers' mentor. The Huskers currently rank 10th on the NFL's all-time first-round draft choice list, including four round-one selections in the last five years.

With five NCAA rushing titles in the past seven years, Nebraska has become known for placing running backs and offensive lineman in pro football. In addition to the numerous ball carriers and interior blockers NU has fed to the NFL, in the last eight years, the Huskers have had 15 receivers drafted or signed as free agents and eight Husker defensive backs have been selected in the last five NFL drafts.

In addition, when NU's consensus All-American and Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts was tabbed as the fifth overall pick of the 1994 NFL Draft, he became the third Husker linebacker selected among the top six picks in the last seven years. Alberts followed Mike Croel (Denver Broncos, fourth pick overall) in 1991 and Broderick Thomas (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, sixth pick overall) in 1989.

Thirteen Huskers from the 1994 squad were either drafted or signed free-agent contracts with NFL clubs. Nebraska had 20 active players in the NFL a year ago, second-most among Big Eight schools.

Did You Know That...

- ◆ Nebraska has averaged more than five draft picks per year since 1954.
- ◆ Since Tom Osborne's reign as head coach, the number of NFL draft picks has increased to nearly seven annually, with 151 in 22 years.
- ◆ Nebraska ranks 10th on the NFL's all-time first-round draft list, including seven first-round selections in the last nine drafts.
- ◆ Thirteen Huskers from the 1994 national championship team were either drafted or signed free-agent contracts with NFL teams.

Irving Fryar (1980-83) was an integral part of the Huskers' "Scoring Explosion" which led the nation in scoring at 52 points per game in '83. The No. 1 pick of the 1984 NFL Draft by New England, Fryar has 500 receptions and 49 touchdowns in 11 seasons with Miami and the Patriots.

Will Shields (1989-92), a three-year starter for the Huskers and the sixth Outland Trophy winner in NU's history, was named the Chiefs' Rookie-of-the-Year in 1993.

Husker Coaches...History of Success...

Bob Devaney, who led Nebraska to national titles in 1970 and 1971, had a 101-20-2 record during his coaching career at NU. Devaney is credited with turning the Huskers around and establishing Nebraska as one of the elite college football programs in the nation.

After 11 seasons as an assistant coach at NU, Tom Osborne replaced the legendary Devaney in 1973. Under Osborne's leadership, Nebraska has posted 22-straight nine-win seasons, appeared in 22-consecutive bowls, won 11 conference crowns and a national championship.

"One of the keys to Nebraska's success, is not only the longevity, but the stability of the coaching staff... Couple that with Tom Osborne's leadership and it makes for one of the great coaching staffs in college football history."

Bill Byrne,
Nebraska Athletic Director

Assistant Head Coach/Running Backs Coach Frank Solich, who was a standout fullback for the Huskers in the mid-1960s and played for Coach Devaney, enters his 17th season on Osborne's staff.

Charlie McBride enters his 19th season with the Huskers and 14th as defensive coordinator. Ten times under McBride, NU has ranked among the top 15 in total defense.

Linebackers Coach Craig Bohl returns to NU after playing for Osborne and serving as a Husker graduate assistant coach.

Boasting Continuity and Tradition

Secondary Coach George Darlington's 22 years as an Osborne assistant are tops on the staff. In the last five NFL drafts, eight of Darlington's players have been selected.

Quarterbacks Coach Turner Gill is a product of the Osborne system. Gill enters his fourth season as a coach at NU. He compiled a 28-2 record as the Huskers' signal caller.

Despite having the reputation as being a run-dominated team, 15 of Coach Ron Brown's receivers have been drafted or signed NFL free-agent contracts in his eight seasons at Nebraska.

A two-year starter at defensive tackle for the Huskers, Coach Tony Samuel has seen nine of his athletes depart NU for the NFL, including 1993 Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts.

When Nebraska knocked off Miami 24-17 in the 1995 Orange Bowl to earn a national championship, it was testament to the devotion and dedication of the Nebraska coaching staff. No program in the nation can match the success and stability of NU's staff and that translates into unparalleled achievement on the field. NCAA records for consecutive winning seasons (33), bowl games (26) and nine-win seasons (26) are a direct result of the consistency and continuity of the Husker staff.

Head Coach Tom Osborne, who served under Bob Devaney as an NU assistant coach for 11 years, takes the reins for his 23rd season as the Huskers' field general. Osborne and his nine assistant coaches average nearly 15 years of coaching experience at Nebraska. Four coaches on Osborne's staff played at Nebraska, and four assistants have coached under Osborne for at least 16 campaigns.

With a 10-man staff that boasts 147 years of coaching experience at Nebraska, NU coaches have a combined 145 bowl appearances and it's easy to see that the staunch loyalty and dedication of NU's assistants have factored into Osborne's recipe for success.

At many schools across the country, head and assistant coaches come and go, but the Nebraska football tradition is thriving. This is reflective of the unwavering stability of its coaching staff.

Nebraska won a national title in 1994 due in large part to the success of the Husker kicking game. In 1994, Dan Young, Offensive Line and Kickers coach, saw his special-teams crew rank second nationally in net punting.

In 21 seasons at NU, Offensive Line Coach Milt Tenopir's troops continue to sparkle. Tenopir's players have won five Outland Trophies, while NU has led the nation in rushing five of the past seven years.

Nebraska Facilities...Second to None

Memorial Stadium has an NCAA record 201-consecutive sellouts. Nebraska has a 176-25 record during its home sellout streak. In 1994, two HuskerVision replay boards and a state-of-the-art sound system were added to Memorial Stadium. The $4.6 million undertaking makes NU the sole college-only stadium in the nation to offer its fans instant replay video boards.

Cook Pavilion, which opened in 1987, provides a year-round indoor practice facility for the Husker football team.

Memorial Stadium established an NCAA record with 201 consecutive sellouts dating back to 1962, and with this year's seven sold out home games the streak will extend to 208. The stadium became the home of the Big Red in 1923 and continues to draw more than five percent of the state's population every time the Huskers take the field.

Cook Pavilion provides the Husker football team with an indoor practice area, featuring a full-length field with a roof high enough to allow Nebraska to practice all aspects of the kicking game. Cook is part of the new, $17 million, Lee and Helene Sapp Recreation Facility, funded in part by the athletic department, which includes modern offices, a training room and locker rooms in addition to the latest in recreational equipment for the use of the entire UNL student population.

The Sapp Recreation Facility also includes the newly remodeled Coliseum, which provides Nebraska's nationally-ranked volleyball team with a 5,000-seat arena. Nebraska Athletics boasts the best facilities in the Big Eight and arguably in the nation, yet draws no state funding or student fees.

Did You Know That...

- ◆ Memorial Stadium becomes the third largest city in Nebraska every time the Huskers take the field.
- ◆ Memorial Stadium has an NCAA-record string of 201 consecutive sellouts dating back to 1962.
- ◆ Husker fans were voted as the "Best Fans in College Football" by Sports Illustrated in 1992.
- ◆ Nebraska home football games draw more than five percent of the state's population.

Nebraska Facilities... Best in the Nation

The Husker Power program at Nebraska has been the pattern for many other collegiate strength programs nationwide. NU's 30,000 square foot complex is the largest on any college campus in the country.

The newly-remodeled medical facilities at Nebraska are on par with the nation's top programs.

The South Stadium houses the football locker rooms, N Club lounge and the offices of coaches and administrators. Construction for a new football player lounge and interview area will begin in the fall.

Nebraska's weight training program is a pioneer in the development of strength and conditioning and is a key part of the athletic program. The strength complex at Nebraska was expanded to 30,000 square feet in 1989, making it the largest on any college campus in the nation.

Assistant Athletic Director of Athletic Performance Boyd Epley heads a staff of seven full-time strength coaches who utilize their knowledge along with a wide array of equipment and tests to provide one of the top strength training programs in the country. Evaluation, goal-oriented programs, supervision and state-of-the-art facilities help Nebraska athletes become bigger, faster, stronger and more flexible. In addition, a full-time performance nutritionist and performance psychologist are on staff to assist the strength and conditioning staff.

The medical facilities at Nebraska are a high-priority item. The locker room and training room facilities are located on the lower level of the South Stadium Building and rank among the best-equipped in the nation. NU's training room was expanded and completely refurbished last spring and the locker rooms were remodeled in 1993. Head Athletic Trainer Jerry Weber and Head Football Trainer Jack Nickolite direct a team of five full-time trainers, including three registered physical therapists and a physician's assistant. Six doctors are also available to treat Husker athletes and to prevent injuries.

Memorial Stadium, home to the Big Red since 1923, underwent a facelift in 1994 as several renovation projects were completed. A portion of the West Stadium stands was waterproofed and disability seating was added to the south end zone last summer.

The offices of the Husker football coaches and administrators, housed in South Stadium, underwent a complete renovation during the summer of 1994 to modernize and update NU's administrative facilities.

Expansion of the South Stadium Building was started last spring and is expected to be completed during the 1995 campaign. The centerpiece of the $1.5 million project will be a lounge/meeting area for the players and will also expand the stadium's rest room and concession facilities.

Academic Success...at the Head of the Class

Did You Know That...

- ◆ Nebraska has the highest number of first-, second- and third-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in the nation with 126, 44 more than the closest competitor. Nebraska has seen 75 of those earn first-team honors, including 42 football players under Osborne.
- ◆ Husker student-athletes have earned 11 NCAA Today's Top Eight Awards, more than any other school. Under Coach Osborne, Nebraska has had seven honorees, the most of any individual sport in the nation.
- ◆ Husker athletes consistently top the Academic All-Big Eight list. Last season Nebraska had six first-team football players on that list and an additional 12 on the Honor Roll.
- ◆ One Husker will compete in the 1995 season with his undergraduate degree in hand, while eight more are expected to graduate in December. An additional eight Huskers are on schedule to earn diplomas by May 1996.
- ◆ In June 1995, Nebraska was awarded the CFA Academic Achievement Honorable-Mention Award. Nebraska's 85 percent graduation rate is sixth among member institutions.
- ◆ Nebraska has been tabbed one of 36 flagship universities and is considered one of the best value's among the nation's colleges and universities by the Center for Studies in College Enrollment.

More than 85 percent of scholarship athletes who have exhausted their eligibility at Nebraska, have graduated, which is well above the University and national averages.

Nebraska leads the nation in GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America selections for football as well as all sports combined.

GTE/CoSIDA First-Team Academic All-Americans, Division I, Football

1. Nebraska	126
2. Bucknell	82
3. Illinois Wesleyan	77
4. Notre Dame	73
5. Massachusetts Institute of Technology	68

The success of Nebraska athletes is not limited to only the athletic arena. More Husker student-athletes have been selected to the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America team than any other school in the country and more Huskers have earned academic All-Big Eight honors than any other conference school.

In addition, no school has had more athletes receive the NCAA's highest award, The Today's Top Eight, than the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. Plus, Husker athletes have been awarded the third-highest number of NCAA postgraduate scholarships to help further their educations. The football team leads the conference and the nation in academic accolades.

Awards and Honors Received by The University of Nebraska-Lincoln

NCAA Today's Top Eight Award

The most prestigious honor a student-athlete at an NCAA member institution can win is the Today's Top Eight Award. The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is proud to claim it has had more student-athletes win this award than any other school. Last season, Rob Zatechka became the seventh Husker football player and NU's 11th recipient of the prestigious Today's Top Eight Award.

GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America Teams

Since 1952, sports information directors have selected Academic All-America teams from qualified student-athletes representing eight different sports.

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has had more male and female student-athletes selected as Academic All-Americans than any other school in either the University or College Divisions.

As of June 1995, the University of Nebraska has seen a total of 126 student-athletes earn this distinction, 44 more than second-place Bucknell (82). NU also leads the nation in first-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans with 75. The Husker football team leads the nation with 48 first-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, 42 of those have come under Tom Osborne.

Academic All-Big Eight Conference

Nebraska has established itself as the dominant school in the Big Eight for academic excellence, consistently placing more athletes than other conference schools on that list. A year ago, the football team contributed six first-team honorees and 12 to the Honor Roll.

Academics...a Top Priority at NU

"To offer an academic support program integrated with the campus that will assist all student-athletes with the transition into college and continued support in all phases of academic and professional development culminating with graduation, job placement or graduate school."

Statement of Philosophy, University of Nebraska Academic Programs and Student Services

The University of Nebraska has nine colleges, offering more than 100 programs from which student-athletes can earn their degrees.

Nebraska Athletic Director Bill Byrne accepts a 1995 CFA Special Recognition plaque. Nebraska's 85 percent CFA graduation rate tied for the sixth-highest among member institutions.

The Academic Experience: Three Steps to Success

With an enrollment of nearly 25,000 students, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln offers an environment rich in academic tradition. Faculty members at Nebraska have long been recognized for serving students with excellence, distinction, and a level of expertise matched by few.

There are nine academic colleges at the University of Nebraska, and each offers a variety of disciplines for students to select. The colleges are: Agriculture, Architecture, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Engineering and Technology, Human Resources and Family Science, Journalism and Mass Communications, Teachers College and Fine and Performing Arts.

From the day a student-athlete decides the University of Nebraska is the right place to be, the athletic academic counseling unit provides personal support, academic support and professional development to ensure that they will get the most out of their years as a Husker.

Professional Development Counseling at Nebraska

1. Career Exploration--Knowing that less than one percent of all collegiate athletes advance to professional sports, Nebraska pioneered a comprehensive Career Counseling Program for student-athletes in 1988. This program has been modeled by many other NCAA institutions and is now a component of the NCAA Life Skills Program.

The exploration phase has programs designed to help with career selection and clarification. These programs include: interest inventories, DISCOVER (an interactive computerized career guidance program), monthly career nights, career fairs, shadowing experiences, internships and cooperative education.

2. Career Planning--An important aspect of preparing for a career is the teaching of job-development skills. At Nebraska, methods are taught to improve these skills, including resume development, cover-letter writing, job search strategies, interviewing skills, and graduate, law and medical school placement assistance. The "Play it Safe" computer career disc also helps student-athletes explore majors and careers while learning the latest in job development skills.

3. Career Placement--Assistance is provided in securing full-time employment upon graduation. Both the University Career Services office and Alumni office play an instrumental role in the placement process.

4. Degree Audit Program--The Hewitt Center has a tracking system in place to ensure accurate course selection and provide monitoring of each student-athletes' progress toward a degree in his/her chosen field. Nebraska boasts an 85% graduation rate of those who complete their collegiate eligibility at Nebraska.

NU's Support Systems... Always Available

Academic Support

- 1. Tutorial Support--One of Nebraska's largest and perhaps most beneficial support services for student-athletes is the Tutorial Program. Mentor tutors and subject tutors assist student-athletes in making a successful transition into college while experiencing academic success.
- 2. Supplemental Instruction--A sub-component of the tutorial program, this program is effective in helping student-athletes get adjusted to college academics while enhancing academic self-esteem and study skills.
- 3. Academic Supervision--In order to monitor the academic and graduation progress of Husker student-athletes, the counselors dedicate extensive time toward academic supervision. Counselors receive periodic grade reports from faculty and various study hall and class attendance programs are in place, all for the benefit of the student-athletes.
- 4. Computer Resources--Recently renovated and expanded, the Hewit Center offers a state-of-the-art computer lab for student-athletes. Student-athletes can become more efficient and productive by accessing a variety of software programs in the 24 terminal computer lab. The lab features a combination of IBM and Macintosh computers complete with laser-jet printers.
- 5. Educational Assessments--During new student-athlete orientation, the academic staff administers a variety of educational assessments to student-athletes to better determine academic strengths and areas for improvement. The results help counselors and athletes to develop a personalized academic support team.

Personal Support

- 1. Orientation--The Hewit Center coordinates an annual New Student-Athlete Orientation program aimed at helping student-athletes experience a smooth transition into college life.
- 2. Personal Counseling--Counseling staff members provide student-athletes with a supportive and caring environment. Areas addressed within personal counseling include: transitional issues, stress management, academic focus, and personal crisis intervention.
- 3. Multi-Cultural Support--This program is designed to enhance cultural awareness for all student-athletes to help build a supportive, caring environment while learning about different cultural backgrounds. Educational programs and sensitivity trainings are also offered to student-athletes, coaches and administrators.
- 4. Husker Outreach Program--Involvement in the award-winning Husker Outreach program enables Husker student-athletes the opportunity to make a positive impression on youth while further developing their own leadership and interpersonal skills. Through Ventures in Partnership activities, National American Education Week, and the annual "School is Cool Jam" session, more than 50,000 youth statewide hear motivational and inspirational messages.
- 5. Student-Athlete Advisory Board--Student-athletes from every sport meet regularly with athletic department administrators in order to be included on all decisions impacting their personal, academic and professional development. In 1995, The Board was recognized by College Athletic Management magazine as the top student organization in the nation.
- 6. Preparation for Life After Sports--Seminars and counseling support aimed at helping student-athletes with the disengagement from athletics while discovering how to maximize transferable skills.
- 7. NCAA Life Skills Program--Student-athletes receive expert education and intervention regarding personal and social issues. Campus administrators, national experts and former student-athletes share information and insights to assist student-athletes in making responsible decisions. Husker quarterback Tommie Frazier is once again volunteering as a member of the Life Skills Advisory Council.

Senior Jason Jenkins, a junior college transfer who earned his undergraduate degree at Nebraska in just two years, received special recognition at NU's annual academic awards banquet.

During the Orange Bowl trip, 12 Husker players took time out of their hectic schedules to speak to underprivileged youth at the Scott Carver Housing Project in Miami.

Nebraska football players have been an integral part of the Husker Outreach Program, which assists more than 50,000 area students each year. Senior Tommie Frazier won the slam dunk contest at the "School is Cool Jam."

Hewit & Boekel Centers... Learning to Excel

Nebraska's academic facilities are among the finest in the nation. In fact, College Athletic Management magazine and Walt Disney Corp. have honored the Huskers' support system as the most comprehensive and innovative in the country. Located in the West Stadium, the Hewit Center and Boekel Academic Center allow Nebraska's student-athletes access to the latest academic support.

The $2.3 million academic complex originated in 1983 and was expanded in 1989 to nearly 30,000 square feet in size. Initial funding came from the Nebraska football teams' appearance in the inaugural Kickoff Classic in 1983. The money from that game, combined with generous donations from the Boekel and Hewit families, enable Nebraska student-athletes to enjoy and benefit from the best academic support center in the country. The Hewit Center and Boekel Academic Center, provide student-athletes the opportunity for excellence.

The Hewit Center houses Nebraska's training table which provides breakfast, lunch and dinner for NU athletes. The Hewit Center and Boekel Academic Center are adjacent to the South Stadium locker rooms.

Nebraska athletes have earned an NCAA leading 126 GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America awards. The academic center allows student-athletes to enjoy the best academic support in the nation.

The Hewit and Boekel Academic Centers house Nebraska's academic counselors and computer labs. The NU academic program was voted as the best in the nation by College Athletic Management magazine in 1991.

Did You Know That...

- ◆ Nebraska was reclassified as a Research University I in 1994 by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, that distinction is the highest possible classification a university can earn.
- ◆ There are 1,294 academic faculty members at Nebraska, giving NU a faculty-student ratio of 1 to 16.
- ◆ The $30 million George W. Beadle Center for Genetics and Biomaterials Research, which opened in 1995, provides a new focus for research and development in biotechnology, biochemistry, biological materials, and chemical engineering and related fields.

"One of the most impressive characteristics of Nebraska's academic support system, is that the counselors are not only there to support you, but they will go the extra mile to make sure that every student-athlete excels and becomes the best they can possibly be."

The University of Nebraska... The Place to Be

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration.

The university's flagship campus, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, includes the agricultural components organized within the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources. UNL is Nebraska's only land-grant university and its major comprehensive institution of higher education. For its 24,000 students from all parts of the world, Nebraska offers a wide range of undergraduate, professional, and graduate programs including those leading to the doctorate.

As UNL carries out its three-part mission of teaching, research and service, the overall impact of its efforts in each area is greater than the sum of its separate parts, ensuring that the quality of all of its institutional programs is consistent with the expectations and needs of Nebraskans. Nebraska is continuously designing new academic frameworks to provide students with the mental skills and broad perspectives of educated citizens.

Quality instruction is emphasized in UNL's nine undergraduate colleges, the Graduate College and the College of Law. The Colleges of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources, Architecture, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Engineering and Technology, Human Resources and Family Sciences, Journalism and Mass Communication and Teachers College offer more than 100 degree programs leading to career opportunities in the arts, the sciences, the humanities and the professions.

Over the years, alumni such as authors Willa Cather and Mari Sandoz, legal educator Roscoe Pound, anthropologist Loren Eiseley, Pulitzer Prize-winning journalists James Risser and Marjie Lundstrom, presidential advisers such as Ted Sorensen and Clayton Yeutter, Nobel-prize winning scientists such as George W. Beadle and Donald Crum, inventor Harold "Doc" Edgerton and computer pioneer Jay Forrester have enriched the university's tradition of leadership and scholarly excellence.

Nebraska receives more than $50 million annually in grants and contracts from outside sources for research, instruction, public service, administration and student aid. UNL receives special funds through an innovative program initiated by the state government for research in areas with potential impact on the state's economic development.

The campus is home to the nationally renowned Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery and Sculpture Garden, the Christlieb Collection of Western Art and the Lied Center for Performing Arts. The University of Nebraska State Museum boasts a world-class fossil collection and helped develop Ashfall Fossil Beds State Park, which opened in the summer of 1991.

Noted for its outstanding athletic programs, Nebraska is also noted for the quality of its academic programs for student-athletes. Its Hewitt Training Center for student-athletes provides computer labs, study areas, career counseling and other academic support services. Nebraska leads the nation in Academic All-Americans for all sports, including football.

In 1991, College Athletic Management magazine named Nebraska No. 1 in the country for its support program for student-athletes.

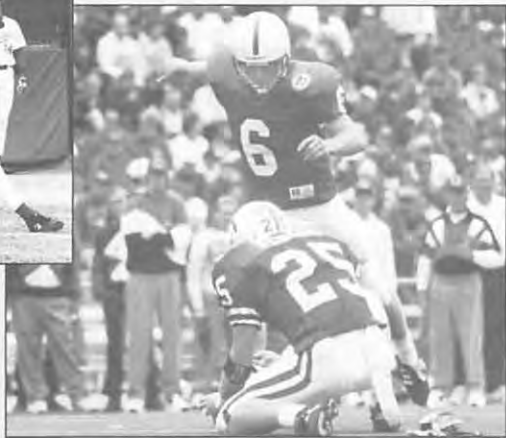

Broyhill Fountain, on the University of Nebraska city campus, is located in the center of campus, in front of the student union. A newly-added greenspace north of the student union adds to the campus' beauty.

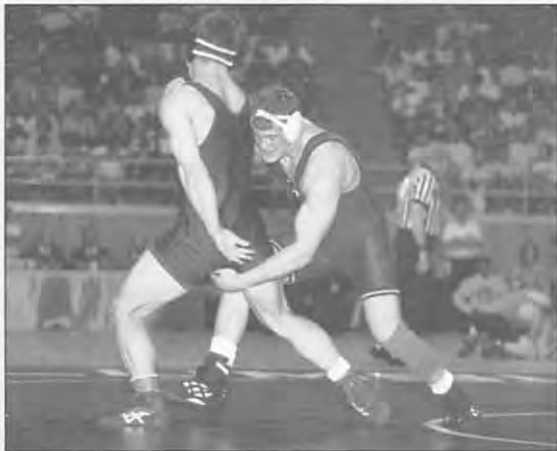

The University of Nebraska offers more than 100 degree programs leading to careers in the arts, the sciences, the humanities and the professions.

Husker Athletics... Nationally Prominent

Darin Erstad, an All-America outfielder was the punter and long field goal kicker for the 1994 national championship football team. Erstad was the No. 1 pick of the 1995 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft.

Nebraska heavyweight Tolly Thompson earned a national title in 1995 and helped NU win the Big Eight Conference title and finish sixth at the NCAA Championships.

1994-95 Sears Directors' Cup Final Standings

Institution	Points
1. Stanford	971.5
2. North Carolina	789.5
3. UCLA	736.5
4. Arizona	716.5
5. Florida	691.0
6. Southern California	668.0
7. Michigan	657.5
8. Penn State	644.5
9. Nebraska	637.0
10. Texas	636.0

The success of Nebraska athletics is not limited to the football field. Nebraska fields 22 varsity sports, the most of any league school, and the Husker athletic teams perennially dominate the Big Eight.

Last season, Nebraska won nine conference championships, more than twice the number by any other league school and claimed the Big Eight Conference all-sports championship for the 16th-consecutive year.

Eight of NU's athletic teams earned Top 10 national finishes as Nebraska claimed ninth place in the second-annual Sears Directors' Cup Standings. The Sears Directors' Cup weighs each school's finish in 10 men's and women's core sports and two at-large sports to determine the standings. Nebraska's Top 10 national finishers included: football (1st), men's gymnastics (2nd), wrestling (6th), men's indoor track and field (10th); women's outdoor track and field (6th), women's indoor track and field (8th), women's swimming and diving (9th) and women's volleyball (regional finalist).

Although the Nebraska athletic department receives no state aid or student fees, NU's $21 million budget is the highest in the conference and shows evidence of the Huskers' dedication to excellence.

Husker Richard Grace won the 1995 NCAA Gymnastics Championships all-around and parallel bars national titles, helping NU to a runner-up finish.

NU's Nicola Martial won her second-consecutive NCAA outdoor triple jump title in 1995 and helped the Husker women to their 32nd-straight Big Eight Conference track and field title.

Husker Allison Weston earned first-team AVCA All-America and Academic All-America honors in 1994. NU finished the regular season ranked No. 1 and advanced to the Midwest Region finals.

Lincoln...An All-America City

The Nebraska State Capitol building is a short walk from the Nebraska city campus.

Lincoln, the state capital, has a quality of life that is sure to satisfy a variety of lifestyles and interests. Lincoln was voted the 10th-most livable city in the United States by Money Magazine in 1992. Included in the evaluation were low crime rates, top-rate medical care and other environmental factors.

Lincoln is also the home to state, county and city government offices and is one of the nation's fastest growing non-Sun Belt cities. Nebraska's capital area has more than 6,000 acres of parks, including 10 lakes, nine municipal swimming pools, more than 20 miles of paved bike paths and trails and 10 public golf courses. Opportunities are always available to enjoy the outdoors with 15,000 acres of surrounding recreational areas.

Nebraska is an integral part of the community as it is home to the Lied Center for Performing Arts, which offers dance, music and theatre performances; Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery; as well as the Bob Devaney Sports Center. The campus is located in the heart of the city with easy access to shopping, eating establishments, movie theatres and many of Lincoln's most popular night spots.

Lincoln's historic market district, known as the Haymarket, also includes specialty and antique shops, art galleries, restaurants, clubs and much more. The "Star City" offers a unique and diverse mix of activities and opportunities.

Did You Know That...

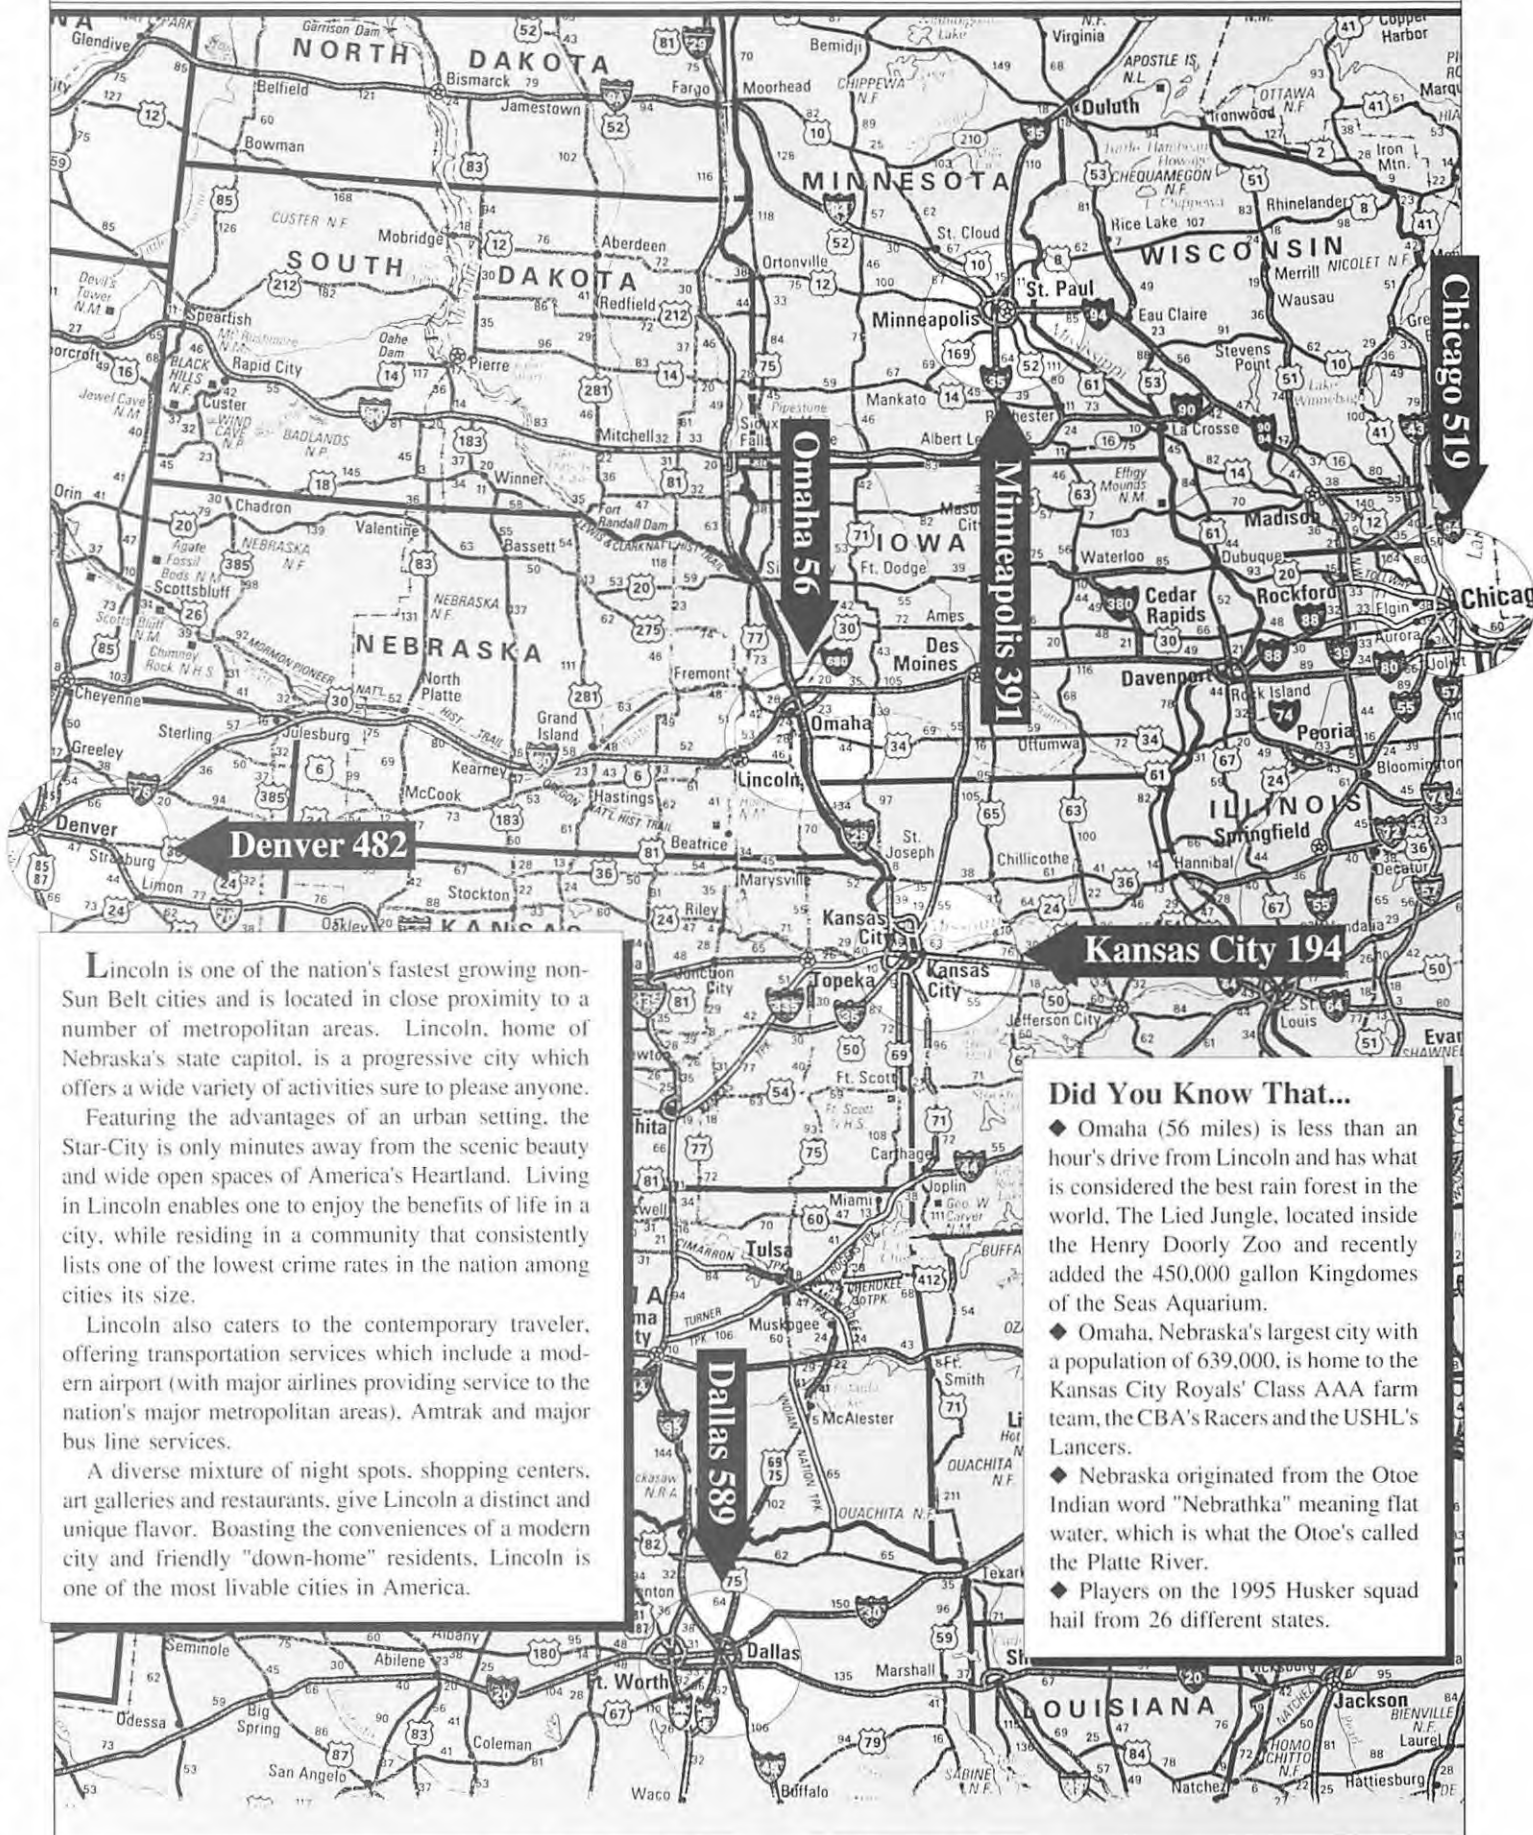

- ◆ A 1995 study by Zero Population Growth named Lincoln the fifth-best city in the U.S. to raise children.
- ◆ The average movie ticket in Lincoln is $5.50 while a matinee is only $3.00. Most theatres offer a student discount and there are numerous $1.50 movie houses located within walking distance from campus.
- ◆ The average price of a hotel room in Lincoln is $45 with an offering of 3,000 rooms at more than 35 hotels.
- ◆ Rent for a one-bedroom apartment in the capital city averages just $325 while a two-bedroom runs $375.
- ◆ The price for a round of golf at a public course is less than $12.
- ◆ The average unemployment rate in Lincoln was less than three percent for the last decade.
- ◆ Lincoln's population of 200,000, makes it the largest city of any school in the Big Eight Conference.
- ◆ The average daily temperature in Lincoln is 65 degrees.

Nebraska... The Good Life

Lincoln is one of the nation's fastest growing non-Sun Belt cities and is located in close proximity to a number of metropolitan areas. Lincoln, home of Nebraska's state capitol, is a progressive city which offers a wide variety of activities sure to please anyone.

Featuring the advantages of an urban setting, the Star-City is only minutes away from the scenic beauty and wide open spaces of America's Heartland. Living in Lincoln enables one to enjoy the benefits of life in a city, while residing in a community that consistently lists one of the lowest crime rates in the nation among cities its size.

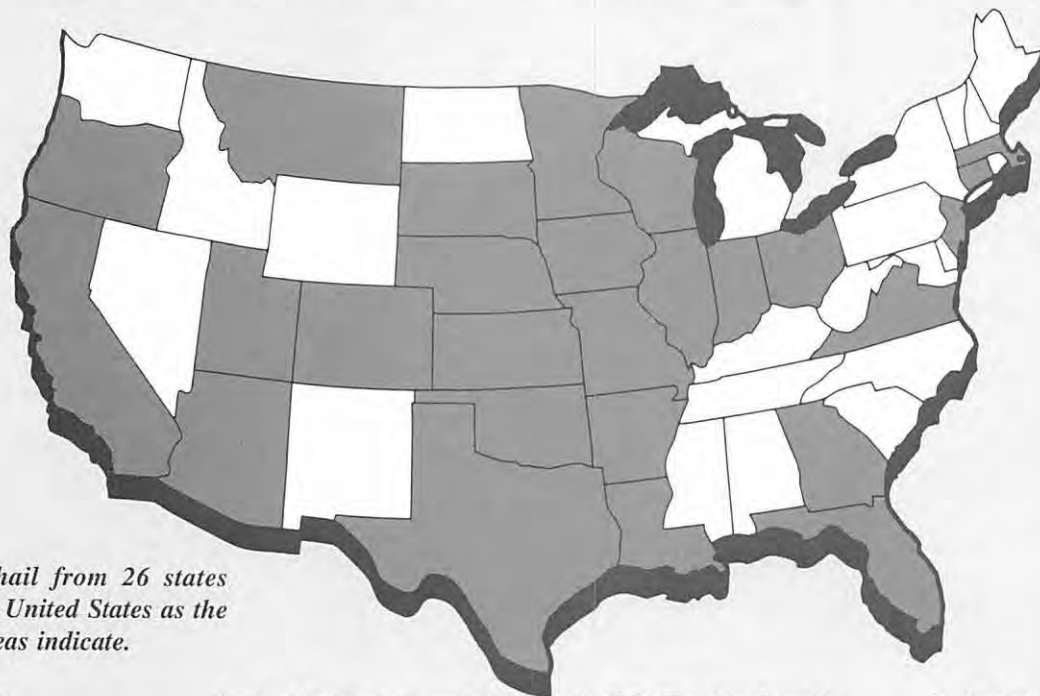

Lincoln also caters to the contemporary traveler, offering transportation services which include a modern airport (with major airlines providing service to the nation's major metropolitan areas), Amtrak and major bus line services.

A diverse mixture of night spots, shopping centers, art galleries and restaurants, give Lincoln a distinct and unique flavor. Boasting the conveniences of a modern city and friendly "down-home" residents, Lincoln is one of the most livable cities in America.

Did You Know That...

- ◆ Omaha (56 miles) is less than an hour's drive from Lincoln and has what is considered the best rain forest in the world. The Lied Jungle, located inside the Henry Doorly Zoo and recently added the 450,000 gallon Kingdoms of the Seas Aquarium.
- ◆ Omaha, Nebraska's largest city with a population of 639,000, is home to the Kansas City Royals' Class AAA farm team, the CBA's Racers and the USHL's Lancers.
- ◆ Nebraska originated from the Otoe Indian word "Nebrathka" meaning flat water, which is what the Otoe's called the Platte River.
- ◆ Players on the 1995 Husker squad hail from 26 different states.

Huskers Win Miami Thriller

AT LAST!

Honor goes to Osborne

Osborne's Big One Doesn't Get Away

■ He is named Big Eight Coach of Year; three Huskers make All-America team.

From The Associated Press
Nebraska's Tom Osborne was named Associated Press Big Eight football coach of the year Thursday, the same day three of his players received berths on the Football Writers Association of America All-American team.

Osborne Stai
Osborne in Line For National Honor

Miami... been... the fo... symb... his co... On... to th... fami... Bowl... Hurri... longev... of his... A n... It w...

Nebraska defeated Miami 24-17 on Monday night, all but guaranteeing Osborne his first national championship in years as Nebraska head coach. The Husks will come out Tuesday, but when I beat Miami in Miami, and you've been so many years pulling up an empty sack, you can be assured that the sentiment will come to me at this time for Osborne.

at No. 1. His consolation: He got to Oklahoma again in his fifth Big Bowl. Ugh.

There was a catch... for not being able to win the Big Eight well, he could handle that. It's those Midwesterners in the shirts and cornbreads he's worried about.

The Cornhuskers on the writer's 51st annual team are offensive linemen Zach Wiegert and Brenden St. and linebacker Ed Stewart.

Osborne, who has led the top ranked Cornhuskers to an 11-0 record going into Friday's game at Oklahoma, received 13 votes from a panel of 16 sportswriters and sportscasters: Bill Snyder, the 1993 honoree, received the three other votes after leading Kansas State to its second straight bowl-qualifying season.

It's the fourth time the AP award has gone to Osborne, who became Nebraska's head coach in 1973 and has compiled a 217-47-3 record. He also was named the league's top coach in 1978, 1980 and 1988.

"I am very honored to be named the AP Big Eight Coach of the Year," Osborne said. "Until now, there has been a week of coaches pleased with the AP Big Eight Coach of the Year award."

Osborne, who has led the top ranked Cornhuskers to an 11-0 record going into Friday's game at Oklahoma, received 13 votes from a panel of 16 sportswriters and sportscasters: Bill Snyder, the 1993 honoree, received the three other votes after leading Kansas State to its second straight bowl-qualifying season.

The losses of Tommie Frazier and free safety finished shopping for groceries, and not like someone who had just received a congratulatory phone call from President Clinton. There was no sign of elation on his face, nothing in his speech to indicate that finally winning a national championship had lifted some incredible burden from his humble shoulders. It was at that point you had to realize it was all three years Osborne said he made about the title.

Lincoln — Nebraska's Tom Osborne is one of six finalists for the Football Writers Association of America national college coach-of-the-year award. The others are Joe Paterno of Penn State, Terry Bowden of Auburn, Rich Brooks of Oregon, Fred Goldsmith of Duke and Sonny Lubick of Colorado State.

The award, named after the Alabama Coach of the Year award, is given to the coach of the year in each of the seven divisions of the Football Writers Association of America.

COMMENTARY
By Tom Weir

Osborne takes success in stride, too

But Tom, the media pleaded, you've been a bowl-game doormat, losing seven of the danged things in a row. Miami had been your nemesis, ending your season with a loss three times in this game. And no stadium had been more unkind to you than the Orange Bowl, where the Cornhuskers had been losers in their last five trips. How could Osborne not appear to be in total control, it looked as if Osborne was destined for one of his darker days. Once again, the public would be reminded that while Osborne was a combined 65-0-1 lifetime against Kansas, Kansas State and Oklahoma State, another loss was about to be added to his 8-13 record in bowls. The decision to ignore Tommie Frazier's lengthy layoff because of injury and start him at quarterback had not looked wise. A forced pass resulted in an interception Miami converted into a touchdown.

for not being able to win the Big Eight well, he could handle that. It's those Midwesterners in the shirts and cornbreads he's worried about.

"Where I felt the pressure many people were going to feel if we didn't win it," said Osborne of the Big Red contingent that has so many new years with points.

After a short speech, Osborne said he was glad to be named the AP Big Eight Coach of the Year.

Tom Osborne

Assistant Athletic Director*

The words were inscribed on Memorial Stadium's northwest corner some 14 years before he was born; "Courage; Generosity; Fairness; Honor; In these are the true awards of manly sports." How prophetic that phrase would come to be several years later in describing Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne, who in 22 seasons on the Husker sideline has built a total program based on more than just winning.

The veteran Husker mentor knows how to win, that's for sure, however, it is far from his only source of motivation. The nation's winningest active coach by percentage with at least 10 years in the ranks, Osborne sports a glossy 219-47-3 record, for an .820 winning percentage, a mark which ranks ninth all time among Division I coaches. In 1994, he cemented his place alongside the game's legends by guiding the Huskers to a 13-0 record and adding a national championship to his unmatched coaching resume. Osborne-coached Nebraska teams have captured 11 Big Eight crowns, won at least nine games (12 have won 10-or-more games) and gone bowling every season, three more achievements which should ensure him a future hall of fame ticket.

But beyond the remarkable on the field success story his Husker teams have written in America's heartland, Osborne is committed to making a difference in the lives of his players, staff and the community in which he lives. In today's ever-changing and fast-paced world of intercollegiate athletics, Osborne is a pillar of stability and a visible role model for all.

Consider if you will, that 29 men have served as head football coaches at Big Eight Conference institutions during his tenure and that only two of the nation's active Division I-A coaches have been on the job at the same institution longer than the down-to-earth Osborne. Fresh off Nebraska's first national championship since 1971, Osborne is entering his 23rd season as the Huskers' head man and his 34th overall in Lincoln. The dean of Big Eight football coaches, Osborne's head coaching tenure at Nebraska is two years longer than the combined years of service in the Big Eight among the league's other seven active coaches. That stability is a trademark of the Osborne-built Nebraska program.

A Hastings, Neb., native, Osborne may well be the state's best ambassador. He is an advocate of NCAA reform on behalf of all student-athletes, an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and supports numerous area youth education programs. He leads by example and teaches that life is more than just a 60-minute football game on 11 autumn afternoons.

No less than 84 percent of Osborne's players who have completed their eligibility at Nebraska have left with their degrees in hand. Not surprisingly, his program leads the nation in virtually every academic honor available to student-athletes.

In short, he's built a model Division I-A program; one that combines academic excellence with outstanding play on the field.

In the community, Coach Osborne and his wife, Nancy, have developed a special program for area youths. The Husker Teammates program matches Nebraska football players with local junior high school students in a big-brother relationship.

Financing for the Husker Teammates program comes from The Osborne Endowment for Youth. That fund, underwritten by the Coach and his wife, and established five years ago, helps prevent junior high and middle school youths from dropping out of school and encourages them to continue their education beyond high school. At a 1994 banquet honoring Coach Osborne for his 200th career victory, more than $250,000 was raised for the Endowment. This is a tribute not only to Osborne's on the field achievements, but his desire to make the community a better place to live and indicates the respect he enjoys from his peers.

And, he encourages his players to give back to the community, evidenced by the more than 50,000 students his players reach on an annual basis through community outreach activities.

For his efforts, on behalf of student-athletes, and his work in the community, Osborne was selected as one of eight 1994 Giant Steps Award winners from around the nation by the Northeastern University Center for the Study of Sport in Society. The awards are given annually on National Student-Athlete Day to individuals and/or organizations who exemplify the ideals and provide the support necessary for student-athletes to achieve academic and athletic excellence. Osborne also received the 1995 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Distinguished American Award.

In addition to those honors, Coach Osborne and his wife, Nancy, received the 1995 Father Flanagan Award for Service to Youth. The Father Flanagan Award is given in memory of the Boys Town founder and recognizes those whose service to youth is exemplary.

"Although national championships are wonderful, Tom and Nancy were chosen back in November for this award because they have consistently displayed integrity, courage, compassion and moral leadership in their public and private lives," said Father Val J. Peter, Boys Town executive director. "They have been outstanding role models to athletes, families and youth alike," he added.

Osborne heads into his 23rd campaign on the Husker sideline owning league records for victories (219), games (269) and seasons coached (22). Osborne-led Husker squads have captured 11 Big Eight crowns (only Oklahoma legends Bud Wilkinson, 14, and Barry Switzer, 12, have won more Big Eight titles than Osborne) and averaged nearly 10 victories per season. Of NU's 11 league titles in Osborne's tenure as head coach, seven have been outright, including the last three in 1992, 1993 and 1994. The Huskers also captured league championships in 1975, 1978, 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1988 and 1991. As either a head coach or assistant, Osborne has been involved in 19 of the Nebraska's league-leading 40 Big Eight titles, all three of its national championships and 31 of its 33 bowl appearances.

Bowling, though, is far from a new-wave experience for the Huskers or Osborne, as all 22 of Dr. Tom's teams have made bowl treks and 31 of the 33 Husker teams he's been associated with have ended their season in a bowl game. Those 22 bowl appearances rank Osborne third all-time behind Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant (29) and Penn State's Joe Paterno (25), while each of the last 14 have come on New Year's Day, another NCAA record. All 22 of NU's bowl appearances under Osborne have been against ranked (AP) teams, and the last 10, including last year's national title matchup against No. 3 Miami, Fla., have been against teams ranked in the top five, with nine of the 10 ranked higher than NU. Osborne is 9-13 in bowl games.

However, perhaps most impressive among the many accomplishments Osborne's teams have achieved in the past two decades was the 1994

"Tom Osborne is what college football is all about. Helping student-athletes develop into young men who will be successful on the field, in the classroom and in life. He stands for all the right things and helps players set their priorities, while at the same time runs a top-notch, national-caliber program. His leadership is the reason Nebraska has been successful for over three decades."

championship season. Fueled by a heartbreaking, 18-16, loss to Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl Classic, Osborne's 1994 squad would not be denied in reaching the promise land for the third time in school history. The Huskers won their fourth-straight Big Eight Conference title, and finished with the school's first undefeated and untied record (13-0) since 1971, only the seventh unblemished final record in NU's 105-year history. Along the way, the Huskers went 5-0 against ranked (AP) opponents, including a dramatic come-from-behind 24-17 victory over third-ranked Miami in the famed Orange Bowl to secure the national title.

Despite well-documented injuries at quarterback, Osborne and his coaching staff kept the 1994 Big Red Machine rolling. Nebraska led the nation in rushing for the ninth time since 1980 and ranked among the nation's leaders in total and scoring offense en route to the conference and national crowns.

On the other side of the ball, a fleet, hard-hitting Husker Blackshirt defense stymied opponents and allowed Nebraska to overcome its quarterback coach in NCAA Division I-A history to reach the 200-win milestone and the first to do so exclusively at one school, his 219 victories rank eighth all time, third among active Division I-A coaches. Osborne reached the 200-win plateau in just 249 games with a remarkable nine victories and a bowl appearance every season.

Not one to shy away from a challenge, Osborne's Huskers have accepted the maximum number of preseason invites allowed by NCAA rules, playing in the Kickoff Classic three times, and winning all three games (44-6 over Penn State in the inaugural game in 1983; 23-14 over Texas A&M in 1988 and 31-0 over West Virginia in 1994).

Under Osborne's direction, Nebraska's NCAA-record string of consecutive winning seasons has grown to 33, including a record 26 consecutive seasons with at least nine wins. The Huskers' made an NCAA-record 26th-straight bowl appearance in 1994, a streak which ranks as the longest active string in college football and is one more than Alabama's record run from 1959 to 1983.

A seven-time Big Eight Coach-of-the-Year selection (1975, 1976, 1980, 1988, 1992, 1993 and 1994), Osborne was named the American Football Coaches Association District VI Coach-of-the-Year seven times--1978, 1979, 1980, 1983, 1987, 1988 and 1994. He received the 1978 Bobby Dodd National Coach-of-the-Year by the Atlanta Quarterback Club and Delta Airlines for his effort toward the advancement of the higher and more notable aspects of college coaching. Osborne also earned National Coach-of-the-Year honors from the Football News in 1983.

While stability has played a key role in NU's grid fortunes over the past 22 seasons, there is an unmasked consistency about which Osborne and the Huskers go about their business. And, nowhere is that consistency more evident than the national polls, where Nebraska has been a fixture every season under Osborne. Nebraska has been ranked in every weekly AP poll since 1981, giving it a poll record 223 consecutive weeks in the rankings. Since Osborne took over in 1973, NU has been ranked in 346 of 349 AP polls, missing one week in 1977 and two in 1981.

shuffle. The Blackshirts finished the season ranked among the nation's top 10 in all four major defensive statistical categories for only the third time since 1946, and the second time in Osborne's 22-year head coaching career.

Osborne's role in NU's national title run did not go unnoticed, as he received numerous coach-of-the-year honors, including recognition by his peers of the American Football Coaches Association as its Division I-A Coach-of-the-Year. He was also selected as the 1994 Big Eight Conference Coach-of-the-Year, the third-straight season he has been so honored. Osborne also earned 1994 national coach-of-the-year honors from the Touchdown Club of Columbus, the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for coaching excellence and was selected as the American Football Coaches Association District Coach-of-the-Year.

The 1993 season was a memorable one for Osborne, too, as he became the first coach to reach the 200-win plateau in just 21 seasons, when the Huskers defeated Oklahoma State, 27-13, in Stillwater, Okla., Oct. 7, 1993. Only the 12th

Since 1969, the Huskers have appeared in 397 of a possible 400 polls. Husker squads have finished among the AP Top 25 every year under Osborne, including 15 Top 10 finishes and 21 Top 20 showings.

A fixture in the polls every season, the Huskers were ranked No. 1 for eight weeks in last season's Associated Press poll, their first No. 1 ranking by the AP since November of 1987; were No. 1 in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll for 10 weeks and of course, finished the season first in both polls.

In fact, a study of the final AP polls from 1973 through the 1994 season finds that Nebraska is the nation's most successful program based on rankings. Using a point system of 20 for first, 19 for second, etc., the Huskers scored 276 points to outdistance second-place Michigan's 253 points and third-place Alabama's 249 points.

Through 22 seasons, Osborne's Huskers have posted an impressive 50-36-1 (.585) record against ranked AP teams, easily the best record for a Nebraska mentor. Over the last two seasons, the Huskers have gone 9-1 against ranked foes, losing only to No. 1-ranked Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl. Osborne is also the only Husker coach to ever beat a No. 1-ranked team--the 17-14 win over Oklahoma in 1978. His Hall of Fame predecessor, Bob Devaney, was 12-12-2 against ranked teams during his Husker career, while all previous NU coaches were a combined 7-35-0.

On and off the field, Osborne's players have consistently been highly honored. Seven of his proteges have received the NCAA's highest honor for student-athletes--selection as one of Today's Top Eight, including 1994 recipient Rob Zatechka. That's the most for any individual sports program in the country and accounts for more than half of NU's nation-leading 11 total selections. Husker gridders who received the honor include guard Randy Schleusener (1981), centers Dave Rimington (1983), Mark Traynowicz (1985) and Jake Young (1990), and linebackers Pat Tyrance (1991) and Trev Alberts (1993).

In 1994, Terry Connealy, Matt Shaw and Rob Zatechka earned first-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors to boost the Huskers' total to 33 student-athletes. That figure includes nine two-time picks for a total of 42 first-team academic All-America certificates under Osborne and a nation-leading 48 in school history. In fact, Osborne's 42 first-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans is seven more than second-place Notre Dame's 43-year total of 35 (since CoSIDA began honoring athletes in 1952). In addition to his first-team selection, Zatechka, who was Osborne's first student-athlete to graduate with a cumulative 4.0 grade point average, was honored as the GTE/CoSIDA Football Academic All-American-of-the-Year and earned the National Football Foundation's Draddy Award, as the nation's top football scholar-athlete, the Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award and the NCAA's Walter Byers Award.

Nebraska has also had 24 NCAA postgraduate scholarship winners and 15 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete recipients, including Zatechka in 1994. In 1988, Mark Blazek was named the CBS/Toyota Leader-of-the-Year, while in 1994, Zatechka was named the Honda Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

The honors, though, don't end in the classroom, as Husker players have also been highly-decorated for their on-field performances. Last year, Zach Wiegert brought home the fifth Outland Trophy in Tom's head coaching career and the seventh in school history. Wiegert was also a finalist for the 1994 Lombardi Award and teammate Ed Stewart was a Butkus Award finalist. In 1993, Alberts became the first player in Nebraska history to earn the Butkus Award, given annually to the nation's top collegiate linebacker.

Two years earlier, Will Shields continued the streak of award-winning excellence under the direction of Coach Osborne by winning the Outland Trophy. The Huskers made history under Osborne by producing three consecutive Outland Trophy winners (Rimington in 1981 and 1982 and Dean Steinkuhler in 1983) and two consecutive Lombardi Award winners (Rimington in 1982 and Steinkuhler in 1983), while also winning the 1983 Heisman Trophy (Mike Rozier).

During Osborne's career, 41 players have earned All-America honors, including five two-time All-Americans for a total of 46 selections. Wiegert and linebacker Stewart earned consensus first-team All-America honors in 1994, the 40th and 41st times in school history a player has been a consensus pick. In addition, offensive guard Brenden Stai earned All-America honors in 1994 by four publications, allowing Nebraska to become only the fourth school since 1950 to produce a pair of All-Americans on the offensive line in the same season.

Osborne was the first recipient of the Distinguished Nebraskalander Award from the Nebraskaland Foundation in 1982, and he was named the 1983 national coach-of-the-year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He's also an author, having published a book in 1985 entitled "More Than Winning."

An outstanding high school athlete at Hastings High School in the mid-1950s, Osborne was named Nebraska Prep Athlete-of-the-Year, then passed up major-college scholarship offers to attend the school from which his father and grandfather graduated before him, hometown Hastings College. He became a star quarterback and basketball player for Coach Tom McLaughlin, and in 1959 was named State College Athlete-of-the-Year, becoming the first athlete in Nebraska history to win both the high school and college honors.

After receiving his bachelor's degree from Hastings College in 1959, Osborne played three seasons in the National Football League, two with the Washington Redskins and one with the San Francisco 49ers, where his roommate was Jack Kemp, the former Congressman, presidential candidate and Bush administration Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

In 1962, he contacted the newly-hired Devaney, and obtained a graduate assistant's position on the Husker staff. He continued in that capacity until "He's the finest football coach in the country. Every season he's won nine games and it's hard to criticize that. If I were hiring a coach and I could get him, I'd take him. Since we're lucky enough to have him here, I wouldn't trade him for anybody."

Bob Devaney,
NU Athletic Director Emeritus,
Head Football Coach, 1962-72

"No football program in the nation can surpass the University of Nebraska when it comes to quality. You take the three big aspects of physical, mental and spiritual, and Tom Osborne's guidelines cover it all. It's too late for my sons, but I hope one of my grandsons can attend Nebraska. We are striving for the same success and image at Florida State."

Bobby Bowden,
Florida State Head Coach

he received his master's degree in 1963, then maintained a triple role of student, teacher and part-time coach at the University. He earned a doctorate in educational psychology in 1965, then elected to pursue coaching as a career in 1967, becoming the Huskers' full-time receivers coach--a decision NU fans have applauded since.

Over the next five years, Osborne was in charge of the Husker passing game, and in his last four seasons as an assistant coach, developed a wingback by the name of Johnny Rodgers, who would become Nebraska's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1972.

When Devaney announced after the 1972 Orange Bowl that he would retire from coaching at the end of the 1972 season, he elevated Osborne to assistant head coach and director of recruiting for his final campaign, and handpicked the then-34-year-old as his successor.

Osborne took over a program which regained national prominence under Devaney, built upon it and established his own winning tradition. Osborne and Devaney are one of just three coaching duos to post back-to-back 100-win seasons at the same institution (following Penn State's Rip Engle and Joe Paterno and Georgia Tech's John Heisman, Bill Alexander and Bobby Dodd), but the first pair to do it in an unbelievable 22 years. Since 1962, NU owns a 320-67-5 record for an incredible .823 winning percentage (33 years, 392 games).

Osborne, who was born Feb. 23, 1937, is married to the former Nancy Tederman. They are the parents of a son, Mike, and two daughters, Ann and Suzi. Son Mike and his wife Emily have two children, William, and Catherine. Mike followed in his father's footsteps by playing quarterback at Hastings College, and graduated in May, 1987.

Osborne Profile

Years at Nebraska: Starting 34th season overall, 23rd as head coach, 17th as assistant athletic director. Nebraska's record with Osborne as head coach is 219-47-3 (.820), the Cornhuskers' record in his 33 years on the staff is 320-67-5 (.823). Osborne served on Coach Bob Devaney's staff from 1962 to 1963 as a graduate assistant, 1964 to 1966 as a part-time coach and teacher, then became full-time receivers coach in 1967 and was named assistant head coach in 1972 when Devaney selected him as his successor, and replaced Devaney in 1973.

Notes: Nebraska led the Big Eight in both total offense and scoring 10 times during the 15-year period (1980-81-82-83-84-85-89-90-91-92)...NU also led the league in touchdown passes with 213 in that stretch...Over the last 15 years, Nebraska has averaged a touchdown every 15.1 plays, more often than any other conference school...NU leads the conference in rushing TDs per game (3.59) and joins Missouri as the only conference schools to average at least one passing TD per game...NU has run at least 800 plays from scrimmage in 13 of the last 15 seasons, and has averaged 6.0 yards per play from scrimmage 10 times in that period...in contrast, both Oklahoma and Colorado topped the six-yard mark just three and four times, respectively, over that stretch.

Notes: Nebraska led the Big Eight in total defense eight times (1980-81-84-88-89-90-93-94)...the Huskers led the league in scoring defense eight times and yards allowed per play seven times...opponents' 47.3 percent completion rate against Nebraska's defense is the lowest among league teams...NU's pass defense has allowed 113 passing TDs in 15 seasons, 29 fewer than the next closest conference team, and its 243 interceptions ranks second among league schools.

Prior to the 1980 season, the Huskers switched to the triple option as a basic offensive philosophy. Since then, the Huskers have won nine of a possible 15 Big Eight Championships and one national title. The numbers in the chart to the left illustrate NU's statistical dominance of the conference since 1980, especially on the offensive side of the ball, where NU has led the league in scoring and total offense in four of the last six seasons. Due in large part to this explosive offense, Nebraska is the only conference school to go to a bowl game in each of the last 15 years.

Notable: Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne is the only Husker mentor to beat a No. 1-ranked team, as his 1978 team beat top-ranked Oklahoma, 17-14, in Lincoln...under Osborne, NU has played an average of 4.0 games per season against a ranked opponent.

What Others Say About Coach Osborne

Dave Rimington
Former Husker Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy Winner, NFL Center

"Coach Osborne was a great inspiration to me during my years at Nebraska. Not only is he the best coach in the country, but a great teacher as well. Playing for him was a great experience."

Chuck Neinas
 Football Association*

"Nebraska football may be the state's number one resource. Coach Osborne enjoys the respect of coaches and administrators throughout the country. He has been willing to step forward and address the concerns of major college football. The CFA is appreciative of the support and cooperation of the University of Nebraska, including the chancellor, faculty representative, athletic director and coaches."

Ron Franklin
ESPN Sportscaster

"When you speak of success in college football, the University of Nebraska will always come to mind. Decades of winning and one of the greatest followings by knowledgeable fans that now extends to record numbers, displays just how good the Huskers have been for a very long time. Tom Osborne has never gotten the total praise he deserves.

Consider one thing, he's one of the few coaches in America who followed a legend and never missed a beat. He won, and he won big. I will always think of him as one of the best in his profession and more importantly--a gentleman."

Mike Rozier
*1983 Heisman Trophy Winner
 Former Husker and NFL Running Back*

"In addition to being a good coach, he is a good man. He has always treated me fairly and treated all of the players who want to work hard to play, the same way."

Gene Huey
Indianapolis Colts' running backs coach

"Tom Osborne is the essence of stability at the University of Nebraska. He's an outstanding teacher, whose successes are measured most by his decades of consistent and unequalled stewardship."

Neil Smith
*Former Husker All-American and All-Pro
 Defensive End for the Kansas City Chiefs*

"When I went to Nebraska I was a lucky guy. (Former Husker assistant coach) Jack Pierce came down to Louisiana to recruit our quarterback. It was a lucky break when he saw me on film. That gave me an opportunity. It was a big break in life. I feel I'm a better person to have come out of there.

It would've been easy to go the opposite way."

Fellowship of Christian Athletes' President

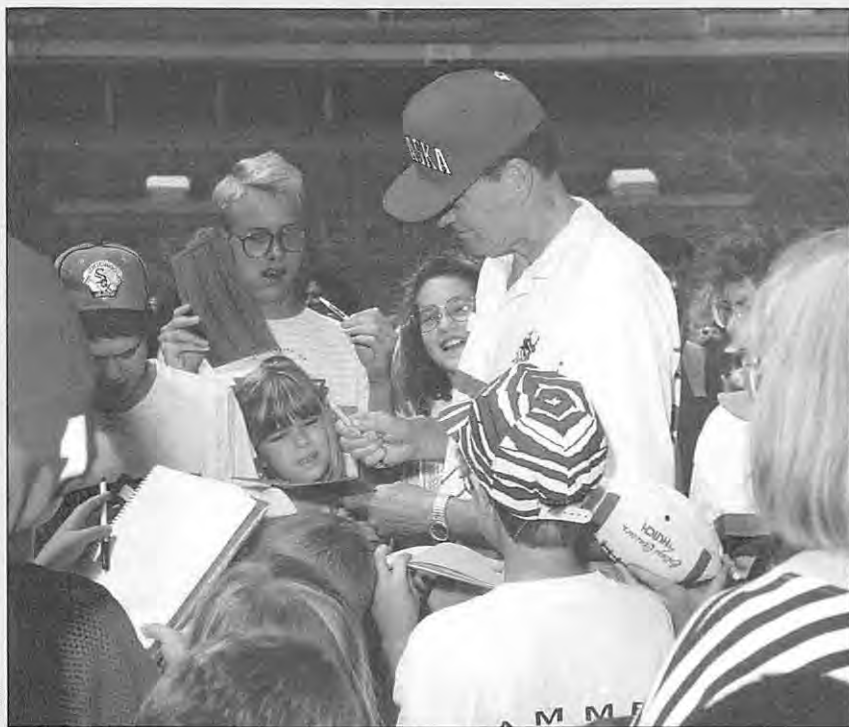

"Nebraska is a clean program. Tom has had a very consistent career. He stands for character and integrity--the things that athletics should stand for in America. He's an example to all coaches. He has shown that with character, a Christian commitment and a zeal for life you can stand a notch above the norm. He's got my highest respect and the respect of coaches all across the country."

Under the direction of Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne, the Huskers have posted a 320-67-5 record over the last 33 seasons, for an incredible .823 winning percentage.

Talking With Tom Osborne

Over the last 22 years, Tom Osborne has been recognized as one of the nation's foremost leaders among coaches of collegiate athletics. A life-long Nebraskan, Osborne has consistently led his team to victories on the field, but more impressive is his record of producing academic All-Americans, NCAA Top Eight Award winners and quality citizens off the field. In this conversation with the coach, Osborne talks of the athletes' role in his program, within the NCAA as a whole and how that role has changed over the years.

Will you approach 1995 any differently than past years?

We really haven't done anything different this year than we've done in other years. We always try to be the best we can be and I guess in a sense, you are always competing against yourself. We have good internal competition on our football team and everybody wants to play and they've been working hard.

I haven't polled them (our players) or we haven't sat down and talked in depth about it (repeating as national champions). I think everyone wants to play at the top level. They've been in the national championship game two years in a row and certainly would like to play at that level again.

Does winning the last Big Eight title have any special importance?

It might have a little special significance. I don't know if anybody's thought about it much and I really hadn't until the question was asked. It would be great to end the Big Eight as the champion and we'll certainly try to do that.

What did the National Championship mean to you personally?

I don't feel much different than I did last year (after losing a heartbreaking 18-16 decision to Florida State). I felt we played well enough to win it then. I really do take more satisfaction in how we play than in the final result.

The trophies are frosting on the cake. But that's not why I'm in coaching. Winning the national championship is gratifying. I don't want to downplay it or minimize it.

Why do you enjoy coaching football at Nebraska?

I enjoy coaching football here primarily because of the student-athletes. They tend to have a good work ethic and are basically good people. I am proud of their contributions to the University of Nebraska.

What is your coaching philosophy?

My basic philosophy is to work hard in a thorough, consistent manner; to operate with integrity, and to treat players and fellow coaches with dignity and respect; to promote pride and confidence in the football team. We want the team to represent the school well.

How do you view yourself as a Coach?

I don't see myself necessarily as a fire-and-brimstone coach. I do see myself as very competitive. I don't think ranting and raving on the sideline means you're competitive. Being competitive means putting in the hours to be ready, by disciplining, by preparing. I'd rather have emotion focused on what you have to do on the field, not in making displays.

What are your offensive and defensive coaching beliefs?

We have been consistent in our approach to both sides of the ball and it has paid off. Offensively, I believe that it's very important to use multiple sets, many different kinds of motion, have a sound running game that incorporates some option football and have a good play-action passing game. Defensively, I believe that speed is critical, since we will be primarily an attacking defense again this year. We like the defense to create opportunities through this aggressive style.

What do you expect from players in the program?

We expect that our players work very hard, have integrity, and do a good job academically. We want them to be good role models, and take advantage of the opportunity they have to receive an excellent education.

How do you handle Nebraska's tradition and the expectations it produces?

We have had consistent success at Nebraska with a strong football tradition. Therefore, expectations are high. All anyone can do is their best, and we hope that we are able to meet enough people's expectations to continue for some time in the future.

What does Nebraska's NCAA-record sellout string, which will hit the 208-mark this season, say about the program?

I believe it is quite a tribute to the faithfulness of our fans and also to the unified approach within the state. We have had tremendous people who have stuck with our program and believe in what we are doing. I congratulate the fans on the record-setting sellout string they've established.

What goals do you set for the program?

We want our players to play up to their full potential. This may translate into an undefeated season or a season in which we win only half of our games. All we can ask is that our players and our coaches prepare as well as they can and that our players perform up to their abilities and give us a great effort. We also hope to graduate all of our players. We are getting closer to that goal all the time.

What do you expect from your coaching staff?

I expect that our coaching staff would be hardworking, thorough, and professional and would also serve as good role models to the players and others with whom they come in contact.

Do you believe in playing true freshmen?

We believe in playing the best player at any position. We find more and more that many freshman are ready to play. We prefer never to play a player who is not physically, mentally, or emotionally ready and some freshman are not.

What promises, if any, do you make to prospective student-athletes and their parents regarding the recruits' upcoming athletic/academic career?

We promise prospective student-athletes an opportunity to play, complete academic support, and fair treatment. Beyond this, we don't make promises that would be impossible to keep. We feel that honesty in dealing with our players creates a better feeling between players and coaches.

Why is Nebraska a unique setting to play football?

Nebraska is unique in the fact that there is intense interest in college football. There is only one school in the state that plays Division-I football, and there has been a long-standing tradition of football excellence. The record-setting string of bowl appearances and consecutive sellouts gives you an idea of the level of success we have enjoyed.

Why should a recruit pick the University of Nebraska?

I believe that many recruits pick Nebraska because of the tradition, the interest in football, the continuity of the coaching staff, the academic support system, and the excellent strength training program. We find students who want to be a part of a successful team and join a group of outstanding young men. Also, many enjoy the fact that Lincoln is a relatively quiet and safe community in which to play football and get an education.

What value do you place on the polls?

I don't place a whole lot of emphasis on the polls, but it's certainly nice to have been ranked for a record 223 consecutive weeks. I would guess that this does reflect a certain degree of consistency.

The most-recent NCAA graduation figures show that your student-athletes graduated at a higher rate than non-student-athletes. Why?

Our athletes have graduated at a higher rate than the general student body primarily because they receive excellent academic support and a great deal of supervision from the academic staff and the coaches. Also they are screened fairly carefully before they come to school.

Do you favor a stipend for student-athletes?

I'm in favor of student-athletes receiving all of the financial aid that they are entitled to. I doubt that we will see a stipend but appreciate the fact that the Pell Grant has been increased and that the NCAA has provided catastrophic insurance for all athletes. There is also an emergency needy-student fund that athletes can apply for to receive some financial relief.

What are your thoughts on the new Big 12 Conference?

I believe it is a good thing. If we had stayed at eight, obviously we wouldn't have enough television sets to warrant a sizable contract. We were always in jeopardy of losing one or two schools to other conferences and if that happened we'd have very little left. If you have 12 teams you have a big enough television market that you can have a major television contract and should be able to stay pretty much intact because there's no place to go that's more attractive financially than the Big 12.

What is your position on a season-ending playoff to determine the national champion?

I don't know so much if it's a matter of what I think or not, it's a matter of what's going to happen. It seems to me, rather unfortunately, every decision that's made any more is basically a financial decision. If people start rolling out figures of 100 million dollars or whatever, then it's just a matter of time before people find ways to justify doing what they want to do to get the money. I suspect that eventually we will have a playoff and I would like to see it. If they are going to do it, I'd rather see them have at least a minimum of eight teams and maybe as many as 16 teams because you're going to get back into the same old controversy if you just pick two or four teams. You will still almost end up with a ballot box or a committee decision that's going to be politicized. Whereas, if you go to 16 teams for instance, you probably are going to have somewhere in there the best team or the best two teams in the country. Eight might be debatable, you might still leave somebody out who's pretty good. The way the polls have gone and with all the talk shows hammering this stuff to death, I guess maybe a playoff has more substance than it used to have just because the whole thing has become kind of a political football rather than a straight-out vote.

What should be the most important factor when considering a playoff?

I think the players really need to be considered in the equation because we've done some things for athletes but there have been a lot of things taken away over the years and the season was lengthened from nine to 10 to 11 games. You also have the Kickoff Classic and the Pigskin Classic and now we may add another three or four games to a season. The players see the revenues increasing and yet they still receive proportionally a smaller amount of the pie than they ever did. I think that the way things have gone, that some of the people who have the most at stake have had the least voice, players being primary and coaches secondary.

What major changes have you seen in college football since you began your coaching career in the 1960s?

The number of scholarship athletes has been cut almost in half since the 1960s and the coaching staff size has been reduced by about one-third. Also, athletes currently receive a smaller percentage of the revenues that they produce, in that the monthly stipend that athletes once received has been eliminated, travel jackets have been eliminated, drug testing has been initiated and many higher academic requirements have been imposed. Many of these changes are for the better, however, the student-athlete at the present time is much more regulated and has a great deal more expected of him than was true in the 1960s.

What are some of the highlights of your coaching career?

Some of the many highlights from my coaching career would be the win over Alabama here in Lincoln in the late 1970s, when Bear Bryant was coaching; the Orange Bowl game of 1984, in which we made a great comeback but lost on a two-point conversion; the 7-3 win over Oklahoma in Barry Switzer's last game against us; and winning the national title last year.

Frank Solich

*Assistant Head Coach, Running Backs
Coach*

A standout fullback on Coach Bob Devaney's Nebraska teams in the mid-1960s, Frank Solich is starting his 17th season on the Husker coaching staff; his 13th as running backs coach and his fifth as assistant head coach. A 1992 inductee into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame, Solich was tabbed Athlon Magazine's Assistant Coach-of-the-Year prior to the start of the 1993 season.

Solich, who recruited and coached Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier, has produced at least one All-Big Eight running back in 11 of the 12 seasons he has tutored that position. His star pupil in 1994 was I-back Lawrence Phillips, who rushed for 1,722 yards, the second-highest single-season total in school history, en route to second-team All-America honors and first-team All-Big Eight recognition. Solich-coached running backs own 15 of NU's top 25 single-game rushing performances and seven of the school's top 10 season rushing efforts.

Since Solich began directing the Husker ground attack, Nebraska has captured seven NCAA rushing titles, including 1994's nation-leading 340.0 yard per-game average. Nebraska, which has captured five of the last seven NCAA rushing crowns, has never finished lower than third in the NCAA rushing statistics in Solich's tenure, while churning out 347.7 yards per game. In addition, the Huskers have won eight-straight Big Eight rushing titles and have never finished lower than second in the league rushing race under Solich.

Despite weighing less than 160 pounds, Solich was an All-Big Eight fullback and co-captain of the Huskers' 1965 team. He held the NU single-game rushing record (204 yards against Air Force in 1965) for 10 years, and also lettered in baseball. Solich still holds the Orange Bowl record for return yards with 166 in 1966.

A native of Cleveland, Solich prepped at Holy Name High School and received his bachelor's (1966) and master's (1972) degrees from Nebraska. He was the head coach at Holy Name High School in Omaha, Neb., from 1966-68, then moved to Lincoln Southeast from 1968 through 1979.

After joining the NU staff, Solich served as the Huskers' head freshman coach for four seasons, posting three undefeated seasons, before taking over as coach of the running backs in 1983. Solich is married to the former Pamela Wieck, of Beatrice, Neb., and they have two children, Cindy and Jeff, and an infant granddaughter, Catherine.

Solich's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"It's important to me as a coach to help players develop to the best of their abilities and to have them understand their responsibilities as a student-athlete. In doing so, you're helping them to grow and mature as a complete person and to prepare themselves for the future."

Charlie McBride

*Defensive Coordinator,
Defensive Line
Coach*

Hailed by The Sporting News as the nation's best collegiate defensive line coach in its 1992 preseason annual, Charlie McBride is beginning his 19th season on Coach Tom Osborne's staff, and his 14th as the Huskers' defensive coordinator.

While 13 may be an unlucky number to some, McBride's 13th Blackshirt unit ranked as one of Nebraska's best ever and was a key element in the Huskers' national championship run. In 1994, the Blackshirts ranked among the nation's top 10 in rushing defense (79.3 ypg, fourth), scoring defense (12.1 ppg, second), total defense (258.8 ypg, fourth) and pass efficiency defense (96.7 rating, 10th). The Huskers' 1994 defensive performance marked only the third time since 1946 that NU ranked among the nation's top 10 in each of four major defensive statistical categories, and in two of those three campaigns, McBride directed the attack.

Since taking over as defensive coordinator in 1982, McBride has watched the Husker Blackshirts rank among the nation's top 15 in both total defense and scoring defense 10 times, including 1984's nation-leading per-game averages of 203.3 yards and 9.5 points. The Blackshirts, who have allowed an average of 281.6 yards and 14.0 points in McBride's tenure, have also led the Big Eight in total defense six times.

He has served as the Huskers' defensive line coach since coming to Nebraska in 1977, and in that time, has produced such standouts as All-Americans Neil Smith, now of the Kansas City Chiefs, and seven-year NFL veteran Danny Noonan.

An All-Big Eight end and punter at Colorado, McBride received his bachelor's degree from CU in 1962 in physical education, then played one season for the AFL's Denver Broncos. Following his one-year stint with the Broncos, he became head coach at Chicago's Fenger High School, a position he held for the 1963-64 season. He returned to Colorado and served as a graduate assistant in 1965 and 1966. McBride was an assistant coach to Frank Kush at Arizona State for three seasons (1967-69), then went on to Wisconsin, where he served as offensive line coach on Coach John Jardine's staff for six seasons (1970-75) and defensive line coach and defensive coordinator for one season (1976).

A Chicago native, McBride was a four-sport standout (football, basketball, baseball and track) at Morgan Park High School where he earned prep All-America honors in football and baseball. He's married to the former Deborah Anne Denniston of Barrington, Ill., and they have three sons—Mike, Jeff and David, and two grandsons, Ryan and Keefe, and a granddaughter, Kelcy.

Charlie and Deborah McBride.

McBride's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"Each player is as different as their faces. They have different feelings and different goals. I believe it's important to recognize the feelings of every player I coach and work as hard as I can to see that he reaches his goals. I also believe that if you're going to chew a player out, you also better be willing to hug his neck."

Craig Bohl

Linebackers Coach

The newest member of Coach Tom Osborne's staff is no stranger to the Lincoln community or the Nebraska football program. Former Husker defensive back, Craig Bohl, joined the Nebraska staff in the spring of 1995 as inside linebackers coach.

A native of Lincoln, Neb., and a 1981 Nebraska graduate, Bohl is one of four former Husker players on Coach Osborne's staff, joining Turner Gill, Tony Samuel and Frank Solich. A 10-year collegiate coaching veteran, Bohl spent the 1994 campaign as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at Duke, and was instrumental in one of college football's biggest turn-arounds. In 1994, his first season at the Durham, N.C., school, Bohl helped the Blue Devils to an 8-4 record (a five-game improvement from Duke's 3-8 mark in 1993) and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl, the school's first postseason appearance since 1989.

Before moving to Duke with Coach Fred Goldsmith, Bohl spent five seasons as Goldsmith's defensive coordinator at Rice. During his tenure on the Owls' sideline, three of his linebackers earned All-Southwest Conference honors.

Prior to his stint at Rice, Bohl spent two seasons (1987-88) at Wisconsin as linebackers coach, a pair of campaigns (1985-86) as the linebackers' mentor at Tulsa and a season (1984) as the secondary coach at North Dakota State. He began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Nebraska from 1981 through 1983. In his first coaching stint with the Big Red, Bohl worked with the defensive backs and linebackers.

Bohl was a reserve in the Husker secondary from 1977 through 1979. As a defensive back, he played on NU's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl squads. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1981.

Bohl is married to the former Deanna Hauptman of Nebraska City, and they have four-year-old twin daughters, Mallory and Morgan, and a one-year-old son Aaron. Deanna graduated from Nebraska in 1983 with a marketing degree.

Bohl's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"Each day I want to create a positive environment for personal growth. It is important to me that our players enjoy and grow as people, in the classroom, socially and on the field."

Ron Brown

Receivers Coach

Ron Brown is entering his ninth season as the Huskers' receivers coach. His receivers, noted as excellent perimeter blockers, have helped Nebraska to five NCAA rushing titles in the last eight seasons. In addition, the Husker receiving corps has led the Big Eight in touchdown receptions three times in his tenure, and has never been ranked lower than third.

Seventeen of his former pupils have gone on to professional careers, including tight end Johnny Mitchell, the New York Jets' 1992 first-round draft pick, and two-time NFL Pro Bowl selection Tyrone Hughes of the New Orleans Saints.

In Brown's NU tenure, an average of 2.1 Husker receivers each season have been either drafted or signed free agent contracts.

Brown joined Coach Osborne's staff after a four-year stint at Brown University in Providence, R.I. He spent one season as the Bears' head freshman coach (1983), then moved up to the varsity staff and tutored the defensive backs for three seasons. He also served as the Assistant to the Athletic Director in 1986. In 1985, the Bears' defense led the Ivy League and ranked among the top eight in the NCAA's Division I-AA in rushing, scoring and total defense.

A standout defensive back at Brown in the late 1970s, he is a member of the school's Sports Hall of Fame. Brown received his bachelor's degree from Brown in 1979, then earned his master's degree in health administration from Columbia University in 1982. He began his coaching career as defensive coordinator for the semi-pro New Jersey Rams in 1982, before moving to his alma mater in 1983.

In 1993, author Arthur L. Lindsay wrote a biography about Coach Brown entitled "I Can." Brown has also written the chapter "Special Issues for the Black Athlete" in a book titled Black Students Guide to College Success, which is utilized by African-American high school students across the nation. He also recently completed a book on Nebraska's 1994 National Championship season entitled Unfinished Business.

Brown is a speaker and writer for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and serves as the FCA's national spokesman for race reconciliation and writes a monthly column in FCA's national magazine, Sharing the Victory. An active member of the Lincoln community, Brown runs four statewide Christian camps for disadvantaged children each summer. He is married to Molvina Carter of San Diego, Calif., and they have an infant daughter, Sojourner Brown.

Brown's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"What's most important to me as a coach is to assist each athlete in maximizing every God-given talent that he has. Each person that I coach has at least some level of talent in character, academics, and athletics, with a very unique blend of the three that no one else can duplicate. The level of abilities will vary, but my desire is to help each young man understand that true success is based upon this principle of maximization of ability--and not on how he compares with everyone else."

George Darlington

Defensive Backs Coach

George Darlington, the dean of Coach Tom Osborne's coaching staff, is the only remaining member of Osborne's original Husker staff. Darlington is in his 23rd season at Nebraska, and his 10th as the Huskers' defensive ends for 13 seasons.

A former State of Nebraska FCA Coach-of-the-Year, Darlington helped develop four All-America defensive ends--George Andrews, Jimmy Williams, Derrie Nelson and Bob Martin, and he's had at least one first-team All-Big Eight defensive back for seven straight seasons.

In 1994, cornerback Barron Miles earned his second first-team all-conference certificate, while his counterpart at cornerback, Tyrone Williams, also earned first-team All-Big Eight honors. The Huskers, who have led the Big Eight in pass defense three times in the last seven seasons, ranked 10th nationally in 1994 and second in the Big Eight in pass efficiency defense with a 96.7 rating.

Prior to joining Osborne's staff in 1973, Darlington spent four seasons as an assistant coach at San Jose State. He coached two years at Johnson Regional High School in Clark, N.J., then started his collegiate coaching career at Lebanon Valley (Pa.) College before going on to San Jose State.

A 1961 graduate of Rutgers University with a bachelor's degree in history and physical education, Darlington earned his master's degree from Stanford in 1962. While at Rutgers, Darlington lettered in football in 1959 and 1960, and also lettered twice in lacrosse, earning third-team All-America honors in 1961. George and his wife, Susan, have three children, Lisa Valladao, David and Julia, and four grandchildren.

Darlington's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"To guide each defensive back to reach his potential as both a student and an athlete."

Turner Gill

Quarterbacks Coach

Former standout Husker signal caller Turner Gill enters his fourth season as Nebraska's quarterback coach.

Gill returned to his alma mater in August of 1992 after spending the 1991 season as receivers coach at Southern Methodist. In his rookie season as a full-time member of the coaching staff, Gill watched as Tommie Frazier become the first player in Nebraska history to start at quarterback as a true freshman in 1992 and went on to earn Big Eight Newcomer-of-the-Year accolades and a year later earned second-team All-Big Eight honors in 1993.

During Nebraska's 1994 national championship run, injuries forced Gill to develop three different starting signal callers. However, the NU offense never missed a beat, as the Huskers led the nation in rushing offense (340.0 ypg), ranked fifth in total offense (477.8 ypg) and sixth in scoring offense (36.3 ppg). Nebraska's Brook Berringer, who filled in for Tommie Frazier when Frazier was sidelined with blood clots, led the Huskers to a 7-0 record and earned second-team all-conference honors.

As Nebraska's starting signal caller from 1981 through 1983, Gill led the Huskers to a 28-2 mark, including a 20-0 league record, and three conference titles. A three-time All-Big Eight pick and a second-team All-American as a senior, Gill was the key to the Huskers' high-octane offense in 1983, a season in which NU I-back Mike Rozier won the Heisman Trophy and Gill finished fourth in the voting for collegiate football's top award. The '83 team finished 12-1 and second in the final polls. In his four-year career (1980-83), Gill completed 231 of 428 passes for 3,317 yards, 34 touchdowns and a .540 completion percentage. He rushed for 1,317 yards and 18 TDs to finish fourth on NU's all-time total offense chart with 4,634 yards.

A talented all-around athlete, Gill spent two seasons with the Canadian Football League's Montreal Concordes (1984-85) and three years (1986-88) in the Cleveland and Detroit minor league baseball systems. He left baseball and returned to his native state to the University of North Texas in 1990, where he was a volunteer assistant football coach and earned a B.A. in behavior analysis.

Gill returned to Nebraska in 1990 and served as a graduate assistant on the Husker staff, then moved to SMU as a graduate assistant for the 1991 campaign. He took graduate courses at each school. SMU had elevated Gill to a full-time coaching position, but he returned to Nebraska prior to the 1992 season. He is married to the former Gayle DeBrie, of Kearney, Neb., and they have two daughters, Jordan (five), and Margaux (one).

Gill's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"It is my intention to teach my players how to utilize their football skills to the best of their ability. My underlying goal, however, is to teach the intangible qualities of leadership, poise, self-discipline and respect for others. These attributes will also help them achieve the most important goal, that being a college degree. I hope to emphasize that their degree will always be there for them, long after they are through with football."

Tony Samuel

Outside Linebackers Coach

A standout defensive end on Coach Tom Osborne's Husker teams from 1975 through 1977, Tony Samuel returned to Nebraska as an assistant coach in 1986 and is beginning his 10th season on the Husker sideline.

He's tutored such Husker standouts as 1993 Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts, 1988 Butkus Award runner-up Broderick Thomas, 1992 Butkus Award semifinalist Travis Hill and NFL players Jeff Mills and Mike Croel.

In 1994, Samuel coached a pair of All-Big Eight linebackers in OLB Donta Jones and SLB Troy Dumas. A year earlier, Alberts brought home the Huskers' first-ever Butkus Award, was selected as the school's 10th NCAA Today's Top Eight Award winner and earned Big Eight Conference Athlete-of-the-Year honors, before being a first-round selection by the Indianapolis Colts. Alberts was Samuel's third, first-round draft pick in nine years at Nebraska, following in the footsteps of Thomas (Tampa Bay, 1989) and Croel (Denver, 1991).

Since Samuel joined the Nebraska staff, he's helped the Blackshirts rank among the nation's top 15 in both total and scoring defense seven times, including rankings of fourth and second, respectively, in 1994. He has produced at least one all-conference defensive end eight of the last nine years, All-Americans in two of the last three seasons, and currently has seven active pro players, including Croel, the NFL's 1991 Defensive Rookie-of-the-Year for Denver.

Prior to joining the Nebraska staff, Samuel served as the defensive line coach at both Stanford (1984-85) and Western Michigan (1982-83). During his two-year stint at WMU, the Broncos led the Mid-American Conference in defense.

A two-year starter for the Huskers, Samuel earned honorable-mention All-Big Eight status and was named the 1977 Optimist Club Defensive Lineman-of-the-Year. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska in 1979, and began his coaching career as a part-time assistant for the Huskers from 1978 through 1981. Samuel is married to the former Diane Ausdemore of Crofton, Neb. They have three children, Travis, 12, Serena, 10, and Phillip, 7.

Samuel's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"To create an atmosphere of pride and willingness to learn the sport, as well as the game of life. To learn as much as possible about the game and pass that knowledge on to the players and help them develop personally, as well as athletically."

Milt Tenopir

Offensive Line Coach

The second-longest tenured assistant coach on Tom Osborne's staff is Milt Tenopir, who in 1995 heads into his 22nd campaign as the Huskers' offensive line coach.

No college football program can boast the honors which Nebraska's offensive linemen have piled up during Tenopir's tenure.

Under Tenopir's guidance, Nebraska has produced five Outland Trophy winners, including offensive tackle Zach Wiegert in 1994 and guard Will Shields in 1992, and a pair of Lombardi Award honorees. Wiegert, who in 1994 teamed with All-America guard Brenden Stai to give NU one of its best right sides ever, earned consensus first-team All-America honors.

In all, Tenopir has coached 16 All-Americans, 10 Academic All-Americans, five NCAA Today's Top Eight Award winners and a host of All-Big Eight selections. The Huskers have had at least one first-team All-Big Eight lineman in each of Tenopir's 21 seasons on the sideline, while his O-line has had at least one Academic All-Big Eight selection for 18-straight years. From 1981-83, the Huskers produced an unprecedented three-straight Outland Trophy winners in Dave Rimington (1981-82) and Dean Steinkuhler (1983). Rimington also claimed the 1982 Lombardi Award, while Steinkuhler followed a year later to allow NU to become the only school to win back-to-back Lombardi Awards.

Before joining the NU staff in 1974, Tenopir posted a 76-34-1 record as a high school coach in Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska.

A native of Harvard, Neb., Tenopir received his bachelor's degree from Sterling (Kan.) College in 1961 and took graduate studies at Kansas State, Adams State and Western State. Milt is the father of three grown children, Kim, Todd and Pamela, and has four grandchildren. He is married to the former Terri Richardson, and is the stepfather to Dana, 15 and Daniel, 12.

Dan Young

Offensive Line, Kickers Coach

Dan Young is beginning his 13th season on the Nebraska coaching staff, and his 10th as the Huskers' offensive line and kicking coach.

Young became an offensive line coach with Milt Tenopir when Cletus Fischer retired from coaching after the 1985 season, and he is also in charge of the Huskers' punters and place-kickers. Young had spent three years as head freshman/junior varsity coach, posting a 14-1-0 record, before joining the varsity staff.

Outstanding special teams play is a Nebraska trademark, and in 1994, it played a vital role in its national championship run, as the Huskers ranked second nationally in net punting with a 41.2 average. It marked the third-straight season Young's punt team has ranked among the nation's top six in net punting.

Young came to NU after six highly successful seasons as the head coach at Omaha's Westside High School, where his Warriors were 55-11-0 from 1977-82, reached the state championship game three times, and posted back-to-back 12-0-0 state championship seasons in 1981 and 1982. He began his coaching career as head coach at Barneston (Neb.) High School from 1962-64 (25-3-0), then, after a year as an assistant coach at St. Paul (Neb.) High School, he served as an assistant at Westside for 11 seasons.

A graduate of Primrose, Neb., High School, Young received his bachelor's degree from Kearney State in 1962. He has done graduate work at Nebraska, Nebraska-Omaha, Missouri, and Reed College, and earned his master's degree in liberal studies from Reed in 1972. He has a son, Jeff, a daughter, Kris, and two grandchildren.

Young's Basic Coaching Philosophy

"I try to instill in each player the desire to develop to the best of his ability. I believe there is no substitute for hard work. I feel after the preparation, players reach a level that will give them the confidence they need to deal with any adversities. I hope these traits that we develop through athletics will carry over into each player's classroom performance, as well as life after football."

Steve Pederson

Associate Athletic Director, Football Operations

After an eight-year absence, Steve Pederson returned to the University of Nebraska as the Huskers' Associate Athletic Director for Football Operations in April, 1994.

A native of North Platte, Neb., Pederson rejoined Coach Osborne's staff after spending three seasons at the University of Tennessee. In Pederson's first year at NU, he oversaw the refurbishment of the football administrative offices, construction of a new halftime meeting room, players lounge and coaches locker room, and reorganized the program's administrative wing.

Pederson went to UT as Coach Johnny Majors' recruiting coordinator in 1991, was promoted to assistant athletic director a year later and was tabbed as the Vols' Associate Athletic Director for Football Operations in the spring of 1993. In his three seasons at UT, the Volunteers' recruiting classes were regarded among the nation's top three nationally by several publications, including the 1994 class which was tabbed as the best in the country by several publications.

Before joining the Volunteer staff, Pederson served as Coach John Cooper's recruiting coordinator at Ohio State from 1988 through 1991.

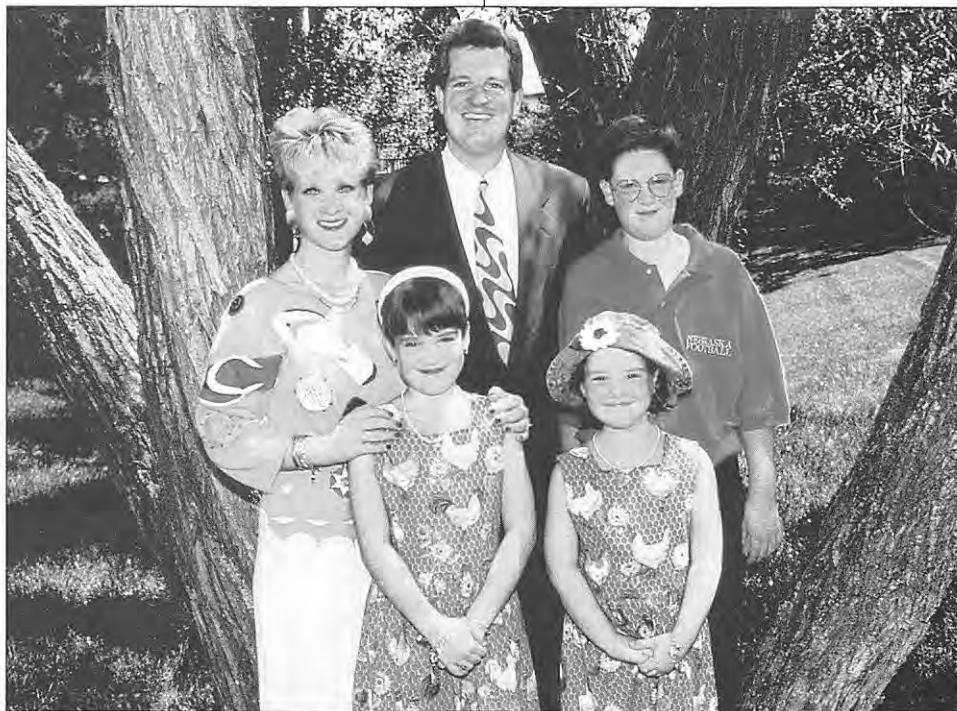

After graduating from Nebraska in 1980, he spent a year in the Husker Sports Information Office as an assistant SID and a year as Ak-sar-ben's Public Relations Director. Pederson returned to Coach Osborne's staff as recruiting coordinator and administrative assistant in 1982. He left Nebraska in 1986 for private business, then returned to college football in 1988 at Ohio State.

As an undergraduate at Nebraska, Pederson worked as a student assistant in the Husker Sports Information Office, and received his business administration degree in 1980.

Pederson is married to the former Tami Osborne, of Omaha, Neb., and the couple has three children--Mark, 12; Kari, 10 and Kristin, 6. Tami, a professional violinist, plays with the Lincoln Symphony Chamber Orchestra and SUMMIT and teaches violin to area youths.

Clayton Carlin

Graduate Assistant Football Coach

Clayton Carlin is in his second season as a graduate assistant on the Husker football staff. The Philadelphia, Pa., native will again work with the defensive backs, assisting Coach George Darlington. Last year, NU finished 10th nationally in pass efficiency defense with a 96.7 rating.

Carlin came to Nebraska after serving two seasons as the secondary coach at Delaware Valley College in Doylestown, Pa. He spent five years at St. Joseph's High School in Philadelphia, the first year as secondary coach and the last four as head coach. A 1987 graduate of Juniata College, where he was a three-year starter, Carlin is pursuing a master's degree in educational administration.

Mike Grant

Graduate Assistant Football Coach

A three-year letterman for the Huskers from 1989-92, Mike Grant is in his second year as a graduate assistant on the Nebraska staff. Grant will again assist Coach Ron Brown with the NU receiving corps. In 1994, NU ranked second in the Big Eight in touchdown receptions with 15.

He played with the junior varsity team as a true freshman in 1988; shared the alternate quarterback job with Mickey Joseph behind Gerry Gdowski for six games in 1989 until a shoulder separation knocked him out of the last three games.

In 1990, Grant was NU's starting signal caller in the season opener, but was slowed for much of the season by a bruised knee, then after a redshirt year in 1991, started the first five games of the 1992 campaign.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Grant graduated from Nebraska in December, 1992, with a degree in communication studies and worked as a recruiting office assistant for the Huskers two years ago. He is presently pursuing a master's degree in mass communications.

Boyd Epley

Assistant Athletic Director, Director of Athletic Performance, C.S.C.S

Boyd Epley is in his 26th year of service to the University of Nebraska, first as an athlete and now as a leader in the field of athletic strength and conditioning programs.

Epley, the first strength coach in the Big Eight Conference, was named NU's Assistant Athletic Director and Director of Athletic Performance, July 1, 1994. He is the founder and former president of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, and in 1993 earned the group's first-ever Lifetime Achievement Award. In 1980, he was voted national strength coach of the year. Today, 23 of Epley's former assistants are now head strength coaches at college and professional teams throughout the country.

Epley prepped at Alhambra High School in Phoenix, Ariz., where he played football and competed in track. At Phoenix Junior College, he captained the track team and starred as a pole vaulter. He then became the Nebraska pole vault record-holder as a junior, and was Nebraska's first 15-foot indoor vaulter, but a back injury forced him out of competition in his senior year.

He turned his interest to strength training and participated three years in AAU Olympic lifting, power lifting and physique competition. Epley received his associate's degree from Phoenix JC in 1968 and his bachelor's degree in 1970 from Nebraska, while he received his master's degree in education from UNL two years later. In 1991, Epley became a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and two years later he received the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame Lyell Bremser Award. He is married to the former Jane Lilyhorn of Holdrege, Neb., and they have a son, Jay Robert, 13, and a daughter, Jenna Shea, 10.

Mike Arthur

Assistant Director of Athletic Performance, C.S.C.S.

The dean of Boyd Epley's staff, Mike Arthur is regarded as one of the nation's most knowledgeable strength coaches.

Arthur is the Huskers' Assistant Director of Athletic Performance and coordinates the workout programs for student-athletes in all 22 NU sports. His 20 years of research at Nebraska has helped the Husker strength and conditioning program stay on the cutting edge.

Arthur is from Lincoln and has a B.S. degree from UNL. He is married to the former Reena Fountain, and they have two daughters, Tara, 15, and Rachel, 1, and a son, John, 2.

Bryan Bailey

Coordinator of Reconditioning, C.S.C.S.

Bryan Bailey is entering his eighth year with the Nebraska strength and conditioning program. He works closely with the team physicians and trainers, modifying the strength and conditioning programs for injured athletes.

Originally from Arnold, Neb., Bailey holds a master's degree from the United States Sports Academy (1984) in exercise science and a B.S. degree from Nebraska (1981).

Paul Koch

Bob Devaney Sports Center Strength Coach, C.S.C.S.

Entering his fifth season as a full-time strength coach, Paul Koch earned a bachelor's degree in exercise physiology from UNL in 1991 after spending four seasons as a student assistant on Boyd Epley's staff.

A native of Petersburg, Neb., Koch plans and implements programs for the men's and women's basketball teams, as well as several of the Husker Olympic sport teams.

Kevin Coleman

West Stadium Strength Coach

Former University of Nebraska track and field standout Kevin Coleman replaced Jon Jost as the West Stadium strength coach in August, 1994, after spending a year as a graduate assistant on Coach Boyd Epley's staff. Coleman, who holds the Husker indoor (65-9 3/4) and outdoor (65-10 1/2) records in the shot put, claimed back-to-back NCAA indoor shot put titles in 1992 and 1993.

A native of Elgin, Ill., Coleman won five Big Eight shot put crowns during his career and earned four All-America awards. He graduated from NU in 1993 with a degree in exercise science and is now working on a master's degree in the same field.

Curt Thompson

Coordinator of Performance Education Services, C.S.C.S.

Curt Thompson is in his eighth year as a member of Boyd Epley's staff. A 1992 graduate of the University of Nebraska-

Lincoln with a degree in exercise science, Thompson is completing work on a master's degree in athletic administration.

Thompson, a native of Blair, Neb., coordinates and manages the student supervisors as they monitor the various programs in the West Stadium strength complex.

Randy Gobel

Assistant Director of Athletic Performance, C.S.C.S.

Randy Gobel has been with the Nebraska Athletic Department for 14 years. A native of Crofton, Neb., he graduated with honors from the University of Nebraska-Kearney in 1981.

Gobel was promoted to Assistant Director of Athletic performance last summer, and directs the program's facilities and events. He is married to the former Michelle Johnson of Stromsburg, Neb.

Senior Mark Gilman receives the 1995 Lifter-of-the-Year Award from Coach Osborne. Gilman became just the second TE to win the honor.

Joan R. Leitzel

Interim Chancellor, University of Nebraska-Lincoln

Joan R. Leitzel became interim chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Aug. 15, replacing former Chancellor Graham B. Spanier, who had resigned to become president of Pennsylvania State University. Leitzel was appointed interim chancellor by University of Nebraska President L. Dennis Smith, and will serve in that capacity until a new chancellor is named.

Leitzel had served as UNL's senior vice chancellor for academic affairs since Aug. 1, 1992. She was second to Spanier in the university's administrative organization and served as acting chancellor in his absence. As the university's top academic officer, she led the adoption by all undergraduate colleges of a new general education curriculum that is being implemented this fall. Her duties included oversight of the Graduate College and the International Affairs office, and she had responsibility for all academic programs on campus except those in the Institute for Agriculture and Natural Resources.

Leitzel came to Nebraska from the National Science Foundation, where she was division director of materials development, research and informal science education. She was a faculty member and administrator at Ohio State University for 25 years.

Leitzel earned her bachelor's degree from Hanover (Ind.) College in 1958, a master's degree from Brown University in 1961 and her doctorate from Indiana University in 1965, all in mathematics. She was a faculty member

She is married to James R.C. Leitzel, a professor of mathematics and statistics at UNL. The couple has two grown sons and a daughter-in-law.

James O'Hanlon

Institutional Representative

Dr. James O'Hanlon, Dean of Teachers College, became Nebraska's seventh institutional representative to the Big Eight Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association, Sept. 1, 1982. In January, 1994, O'Hanlon was elected to a four-year term on the NCAA Council and is currently a member of the NCAA Special Committee on Contest Exemptions. An NCAA Certification Examiner, he has also been a member of the Faculty Representatives Board of the College Football Association.

During the spring and summer of 1992, he served as chair of the search committee in charge of finding a replacement for retiring long-time athletic director Bob Devaney. He has also chaired search committees for the deans of journalism and engineering.

Dr. O'Hanlon has been a member of the Nebraska faculty since 1966 when he came to NU from Ohio University as an assistant professor in the Department of Secondary Education. He was promoted to associate professor in 1967 and to professor in 1970.

At Nebraska, he chaired the Nebraska Coordinating Commission for Post-Secondary Education (1974-75) and served as president of the UNL Faculty Senate in 1981. In 1972, he received the NU Foundation Distinguished Teaching Award. In 1991, he was a visiting scholar to East China Normal University in Shanghai.

From 1975 to 1977, he chaired the Department of Physical Education and Recreation, then became director of the new School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation (HPER). He remained in that position until he was selected acting Dean of Teachers College, July 1, 1982. He was named Dean of Teachers College, May 1, 1983.

Dean O'Hanlon is a member of the National Executive Committees of Renaissance Group and the Association of Colleges and Schools of Education in State Universities and Land Grant Colleges and Affiliated Private Universities. He has also served as a member of the Steering Committee of the Midwest Holmes Group, and is on the board of the Nebraska Center for Excellence in Education and the ACSESULGC-APU Task Forces on Cultural Diversity and Professional Development Schools. In addition, he has chaired various University committees.

A native of Blair, Neb., O'Hanlon attended Grinnell (Iowa) College and received a bachelor's degree in history from Nebraska in 1957. He earned his master's in secondary education from Ohio State in 1958, then served as an infantry officer in the U.S. Army.

He taught secondary schools in Parma, Ohio and Fremont, Neb., before returning to UNL for doctoral study. Following receipt of the Ed.D in secondary education and educational psychology, he was an assistant professor at Ohio from 1964-66 where he was named to the Honor Roll of Faculty.

Personal interests include serving on the Boards of Directors of the National Arbor Day Foundation, of which he is a past-president, and of the Lincoln Orchestra Association. He is a member of the Lincoln Community Concert Band and is an avid jogger and reader.

O'Hanlon and his wife, Gail, are the parents of three children. Greg of Denver, Colo., Susan of Omaha, Neb., and Tim of Minneapolis, Minn.

Athletic Director

A new chapter in the Huskers' rich athletic tradition began on June 26, 1992, when former Nebraska Chancellor Dr. Graham Spanier introduced Bill Byrne to succeed longtime athletic director Bob Devaney. Byrne became the 10th athletic director in school history and the third since 1962.

An energetic 50-year-old, Byrne came to Nebraska following a highly-successful eight-year stint as athletic director at the University of Oregon. Recently re-elected as secretary-treasurer of the College Football Association and a member of that organization's board of directors, Byrne heads into his third football season as NU athletic director.

A tireless worker ever since he arrived in Lincoln as athletic director-designate on Nov. 1, 1992, Byrne officially took the reins of the athletic department on Jan. 4, 1993. During his first year on the job, Byrne traveled with nearly every Husker team at least once and canvassed the state of Nebraska, visiting with boosters, while learning the needs and concerns of Husker fans everywhere and making more than 150 speeches in the process.

Among his many accomplishments at Nebraska, Byrne has been instrumental in upgrading Husker facilities, including the addition of two HuskerVision replay boards at Memorial Stadium last season. Besides becoming the first collegiate-owned venue to feature replay boards for its fans, Memorial Stadium was recently renovated to include a state-of-the-art training room, expanded coaches and players locker rooms, a new public address system, expanded restrooms and concession stands. In addition, section 14, which collapsed in the spring of 1993, was rebuilt to offer increased seating for disabled fans.

Other recent additions include a production studio in West Stadium and new scoreboards at the NU Softball Complex, Buck Beltzer Stadium and the Devaney Center indoor track.

Byrne's plans for the future could lead to even more success for the Huskers. Future Memorial Stadium renovations include a new press box, skyboxes and more concession stands. The Bob Devaney Sports Center, which houses nine of Nebraska's athletic teams, has plans for a new sound system and weight room. Byrne enlisted the Kansas City, Mo., firm of HOK Sport to develop a master facilities plan for the Huskers' athletic program.

Under Byrne's leadership, the Husker athletic department has never missed a beat. In fact, during the 1994-95 academic year, Nebraska:

- ◆ Won its 16th straight Big Eight Conference all-sports championship.
- ◆ Won nine of 20 conference championships (football, women's gymnastics, women's swimming, women's indoor and outdoor track, men's indoor and outdoor track, volleyball and wrestling), equalling 1994's total. In addition, the Nebraska football team won its third national title and first since 1971.
- ◆ Finished in the upper division of the conference standings in 13 of 20 sports, and was ninth overall in the Sears National Director's Cup all-sports race.
- ◆ Produced its nation-leading 11th NCAA Today's Top Eight Award winner in Rob Zatechka.
- ◆ Memorial Stadium added a state-of-the-art sound system and two HuskerVision video replay boards, the first of its kind at a collegiate venue.
- ◆ Working in conjunction with Chancellor Spanier, women's soccer was added as a varsity sport at Nebraska in the fall of 1994, giving the Huskers a Big Eight-leading 22-sport offering.
- ◆ In 1994, Byrne led the first Nebraska team fund-raising campaign, which increased giving by over a half a million dollars.

In addition to maintaining a high standard of excellence on the playing field, Byrne has successfully reorganized the department for the 21st century. Stressing a more efficient use of resources, Byrne is in the process of creating a one-stop shopping type of organization so that the needs of student-athletes, fans and contributors can be met as promptly as possible.

A member of the NCAA special events committee, Byrne is recognized as a national leader in intercollegiate athletics. He is continuing to make an aggressive effort, along with other Big Eight athletic directors, to place Nebraska and other conference officials on key NCAA committees in an effort to better represent the views of Big Eight member institutions. He was also instrumental in the development of the Big 12 Conference.

In conjunction with the rest of the UNL administration, Byrne has arranged to use the Husker football and basketball networks to promote causes and concerns which are important to the entire University community, including the institution's increased role in research.

The continued rise of the overall Husker program should come as no surprise considering Byrne's previous accomplishments at Oregon. He assumed the duties of Oregon director of athletics in May of 1984, as one of the youngest directors in Division I athletics. Byrne established fund-raising offices in Portland and southern Oregon and established a full-time marketing and promotions operation, which blossomed to encompass the Oregon Sports Network for statewide inhouse production of Ducks' athletic contests on radio and television.

One of Byrne's most noted accomplishments at Oregon was the three-year construction project to build the $11 million Casanova Athletic Center, the home of the Ducks' football team and athletic department offices. The project, $19 million in all, also included a new press box, sky suites and a complete renovation of Autzen Stadium. It was completed in 1991 and two years later, the facility's Hall of Champions was dedicated in Byrne's honor.

Respected by his peers, Byrne served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) in 1991-92, and is in his fifth year on that organization's executive committee. He was also chairman of the Pac-10 Conference executive committee and was named national fund-raiser-of-the-year by the National Athletic Fundraisers.

Born in Boston, Byrne grew up in Idaho and attended Idaho State University, where he was student body president. He received bachelor's and master's degrees in business at the Pocatello school in 1967 and 1971, respectively. Before going to Oregon in 1982, he was assistant athletic director at San Diego State (1980-82), executive director of the New Mexico Lobo Club (1976-79) and director of alumni relations at Idaho State (1971-76).

An educator by profession, Byrne's wife, Marilyn, is the Master of Education Dean for Doane College. The Byrnes have two sons and a new grandchild, Nicholas. Nicholas' parents, Greg and Regina, live in Medford, Ore. where Greg is an athletic fund raiser for the University of Oregon. Their other son, Bill, works as a service manager for Visa in San Mateo, Calif.

Bob Devaney

Athletic Director Emeritus

When one talks about the success of University of Nebraska athletic teams, one name tops the list of persons responsible--Bob Devaney. On Jan. 4, 1993, Devaney stepped down as athletic director and turned the reins over to Bill Byrne. Now beginning his 34th year with the athletic department, Devaney has focused his attention on fundraising and continues to serve as Athletic Director Emeritus. He was recently inducted in the NACDA Hall of Fame for his numerous contributions as athletic director.

From the time he took over for Tippy Dye in 1967, to his final year as the Husker Athletic Director in 1992, his vigor, enthusiasm and administrative excellence earned him a reputation as one of the nation's outstanding athletic directors. Those same characteristics helped make him a football coaching legend. A 1981 inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, under Devaney's leadership Nebraska developed one of the nation's most successful all-around athletic programs.

Devaney arrived in 1962, charged with the mission of building a successful football program, and he succeeded far beyond anyone's expectations. During his 11-year stint as Husker football coach, Devaney's teams won 101 games, lost only 20 and tied two for a winning percentage of .829. His career mark of 136-30-7 (.806) ranked him as the nation's winningest active coach at the time of his retirement in 1973, and he ranks 11th on the all-time list today, just behind the man he tabbed as his replacement, Tom Osborne.

In all, his gridiron teams won eight Big Eight titles and two national championships while going to nine bowl games during the 1962-72 span. He wound up with three-straight Orange Bowl wins to go with his amazing record of nine bowl trips in 11 years, eight Big Eight titles, two national championships, two Outland Trophy winners, a Lombardi Award winner and a Heisman Trophy winner. Twice his teams won four consecutive Big Eight titles, 1963-66 and 1969-72.

The 1971 national title team, which posted a 13-0 record, twice defended its No. 1 ranking against the nation's second-ranked team (beating Oklahoma, 35-31, in the "Game of the Century," and Alabama, 38-6, in the Orange Bowl), and beat the eventual No. 3 team Colorado, 31-7. That '71 team has been hailed as the best college team of all time.

He received many other honors during his coaching career. He was named coach-of-the-year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers of America, Football News and the Washington TD Club in 1971, and he coached in numerous all-star games such as the Hula Bowl, Coaches All-America, Blue-Gray and Shrine East-West. He was inducted into the Blue-Gray Hall-of-Fame in 1991.

Inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1976, Devaney led Nebraska to four wins in five Miami appearances. In 1992, he was named an honorary member of the Orange Bowl committee.

In 1994, the American Football Coaches Association presented Devaney with the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for contributions to college football. He also received the 1994 Duffy Daugherty Memorial Award.

As Athletic Director, he spearheaded drives to virtually rebuild and replace Nebraska's then-aging athletic facilities. Continuing a process begun during Dye's tenure, he oversaw the expansion of Memorial Stadium from its original 36,000 capacity to its present 72,700.

It was Devaney's leadership, working in conjunction with the Nebraska Legislature, that resulted in the passage of a special cigarette tax to provide funds for a new athletic complex, the beautiful, four-and-a-half-acre indoor sports building which opened on the Nebraska State Fair Grounds in 1976. The building, which features a 14,302-seat main arena, plus separate swimming and diving pools, an indoor track and workout areas for wrestling and gymnastics, was renamed the Bob Devaney Sports Center in 1978.

Also in the mid-1970s, Devaney saw to the construction of Ed Weir Track and Field Stadium and a new, partially astro-turfed baseball facility, Buck Beltzer Field. More recently, he oversaw the expansion of the Huskers' academic counseling service and the concurrent establishment of the Hewitt Center in the West Stadium; the continued expansion of the strength and conditioning program and its outstanding facility in the West Stadium; the construction of the new NU Softball Complex; and the building of the Otto and Gladys Baumann Building at Beltzer Field.

Devaney's most recent accomplishment was to spearhead a fund-raising drive to provide Husker athletic teams with an indoor workout facility. The size of a full football field, Cook Pavilion was completed in 1989 and is available for the NU football and baseball team workouts. As part of the same project, an adjoining faculty-student recreation facility was finished in 1991, the Lee and Helene Sapp Recreation Center. He also supervised the complete renovation of the connecting Coliseum, which re-opened in 1992 and now houses the highly successful Husker women's volleyball program.

Devaney played football as an end at Alma College in Michigan, graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1939. After starting his coaching career at Big Beaver, Mich., Devaney moved to Keego Harbor and Saginaw before spending seven years at Alpena High where his teams earned a 52-9-0 record. He then joined Biggie Munn, and later Duffy Daugherty, at Michigan State before becoming Wyoming's head coach in 1957.

Devaney is married to his college sweetheart, the former Phyllis Wiley. His son, Mike, and daughter Patricia, are both graduates of the University of Nebraska. He's a grandfather, too, with Mike's family including a daughter and a son.

Also, Zimmer directs the career counseling program for student-athletes and community outreach coordinator. Zimmer is also in charge of academic awards for student-athletes and contributes to the development of academic-related videos, brochures and newsletters.

Additionally, Zimmer serves as the sport counselor for women's basketball, volleyball and soccer while assisting the director with football. Zimmer earned his bachelor's degree at Wayne State College and his master's in education from Springfield (Mass.) College.

He is a board member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports and is a two-time recipient of the Award of Excellence for his leadership and commitment to the Lincoln Public Schools and Ventures in Partnership program. With assistance from the Lincoln Public Schools Special Education Department and Golden Key National Honor Society, Zimmer directs the "School is Cool" Jam which was attended by over 10,000 elementary students in 1995. Zimmer is an honorary member of National Golden Key Honors Society.

The Cornhusker Legend

Prior to 1900, Nebraska football teams were known by such names as the Old Gold Knights, Antelopes and the Bugeaters. But in 1900, Lincoln sportswriter Charles S. (Cy) Sherman, who was to gain national renown as the sports editor of the Lincoln Star and help originate the Associated Press poll, tired of referring to the Nebraska teams with such an unglamorous term as Bugeaters. Iowa had, from time to time, been called the Cornhuskers, and the name appealed to Sherman.

Iowa partisans seemed to prefer Hawkeyes, so Sherman started referring to the Nebraska team as Cornhuskers and the 1900 team was first to bear that label.

Of course, the name caught on and became a Nebraska byword, eventually becoming the official nickname for the state.

There is no official symbol of a Cornhusker and various cartoonists have caricatured the mystical something that typifies Nebraska football—some winning fan approval and others arousing fan ire.

The cartoon character, "Herbie Husker" (upper right), evolved out of Nebraska's trip to the 1974 Cotton Bowl in Dallas. Artist Dirk West of Lubbock, Texas, designed a Cornhusker cartoon for the Cotton Bowl press headquarters that caught the eye of former Husker SID Don Bryant. Later, Bryant contacted West for permission to use the cartoon and West expressed a desire to refine his original cartoon and improve some of the character's features. As a result, West was commissioned to draw an original Cornhusker cartoon character who now serves as a mascot for all Husker athletic teams.

"Herbie" is the registered logo of the Cornhusker Athletic Department, which controls its use. Artist West's concept of Nebraska football is appropriate—a burly, rugged and confident fellow who is proud of both the athletic and the agricultural traditions of the University of Nebraska.

In recent years, the University has also used the Cornhuskers' football helmet superimposed on a script "Huskers" for a football logo and last fall unveiled a block N logo with a script "Huskers." Both are registered trademarks of the Athletic Department.

University of Nebraska Licensing Program

In 1981, the University began a licensing program to protect the use of its name and symbols, and to ensure that the public properly identify and associate University logos on products bearing the institution's marks. The licensing program is further designed to establish a cooperative relationship with licensees to assist in the development of a market of "Officially Licensed Products of the University of Nebraska."

Since its inception, the program has been very successful, receiving cooperation from manufacturers, retailers, and consumers in setting and maintaining high standards. The University has joined a consortium of other universities throughout the country to bring about consistency in the marketplace for officially licensed collegiate products, protect the names and logos of the universities and to generate additional revenue support for the scholarship programs of those universities.

Look for the Label

How does one tell if merchandise seen in stores or on the street is authorized by the University? Just look for the "Officially Licensed Collegiate Products" label shown above. If the label is not there, the merchandise is not licensed. For further licensing information, please contact:

The Husker Yell & Dance Squads

The Nebraska Yell Squad's primary goal is to function as public relations personnel for the University along with promoting spirit and support for Husker athletic events. During an academic year, yell squad members make approximately 200 appearances at athletic, philanthropic, community and state events.

In the fall of 1993, Nebraska also unveiled the 15-member Scarlets Dance team. The Scarlets are on the sideline at home football games and perform at halftime of nearly every home men's basketball game.

As full-time students, members of both squads condition and practice 10-20 hours a week. They excel as leaders in campus and community organizations and activities while maintaining high scholastic standards.

The University of Nebraska Cornhusker Marching Band

The University of Nebraska Cornhusker Marching Band is one of the nation's oldest marching bands. It was founded in 1879 as a R.O.T.C. unit and began playing at football games in 1890. The association with Nebraska football has brought the band much publicity and the program has grown accordingly. Included in the band program are two fine concert ensembles, three athletic bands and two jazz bands. The 1995 marching band has 265 members from every region of the country.

The Cornhusker Band is directed by Dr. Rod Chesnutt. Prior to joining the UNL School of Music faculty, Dr. Chesnutt taught in the public schools in Arkansas and was a graduate assistant with the Marching Chiefs at Florida State University. Dr. Chesnutt holds degrees from Tennessee Technological University, Arkansas State University and Florida State University. Besides directing and arranging music for the Cornhusker Marching Band, Dr. Chesnutt will conduct the Concert Band and teach courses in music education.

Professor Jay Kloecker is the Director of Bands overseeing all operations of the UNL Band Program. He holds degrees from the University of Kentucky and Florida State University. Professor Kloecker has directed nationally recognized high school bands in Illinois and Kentucky. Mr. Kloecker's duties with the band program also include conducting the Wind Ensemble and teaching courses in music education.

Al Rometo, professor of percussion and vice-director of the UNL School of Music, serves as percussion instructor for the marching band.

After receiving his bachelor's degree from Indiana University in Pennsylvania, he obtained a master's degree from Ohio University. Rometo is an active clinician, adjudicator and traditional and jazz performer.

Other senior staff members are Rose Johnson, administrative assistant; Katy Coleman, flag line instructor; John DeSteffano, drum line instructor, and Mike Veak, announcer. Drum majors for the 1995 season are David Puckett of Papillion, Neb., Christy Kucera of Lincoln, Neb. and Lanette Lopez-Ramirez of Omaha, Neb. Courtney Hill of San Antonio, Texas and AnneMarie Smith of House Springs, Mo., are the twirlers.

The Cornhusker Band is the only collegiate ensemble that has performed in all of the major postseason bowls: Rose, Orange, Fiesta, Cotton and Sugar, as well as the Citrus, Sun, Astro-Bluebonnet and Liberty. The band also made a performance tour of Europe during the summer of 1974. The marching band and the wind ensemble plan to make a similar tour of Ireland in March of 1996.

The marching band's season began on Aug. 10 with a 10-day camp that included over 30 rehearsals and a special exhibition performance in Memorial Stadium. Regular daily rehearsals from 7:30-9:30 a.m. begin on Aug. 21 and will continue throughout the fall to prepare for seven different halftime shows for the home games plus several parades and special performances. The band will cap its season with an appearance in the popular Star City Parade through downtown Lincoln on Dec. 2, followed by a special concert at the Lied Center for Performing Arts.

The Big Eight Conference, under the leadership of 15-year commissioner Carl James and institutional representatives of each school, is one of the nation's outstanding intercollegiate organizations. In February, 1994, the Big Eight expanded to the Big 12, as Texas, Texas A&M, Baylor and Texas Tech accepted invitations to join the conference fold beginning in the fall of 1996. Commissioner James, former Maryland athletic director, heads a staff of outstanding people who give leadership and direction to a full, well-rounded and respected intercollegiate program.

Dr. Prentice Gautt is in his 16th year with the conference and has served as associate commissioner since 1983. A former standout running back at Oklahoma, Gautt is the secretary-treasurer of the NCAA and was promoted to the Big Eight's senior associate commissioner post in 1994. He is assisted by Tracy Peck, the league's compliance and operations assistant. Assistant Commissioner, John Erickson is entering his seventh year as the Big Eight's director of basketball operations.

Tim Allen, service bureau director from 1983-89, was named assistant commissioner in 1989 and was promoted to associate commissioner in 1995. Twenty-three-year Big Eight referee, John McClintock is in his fifth year as the league's supervisor of officials.

In her second year as an assistant commissioner, Dru Hancock also serves as the senior women's administrator.

Former Kansas assistant SID Jeff Bollig starts his fifth year as service bureau director and is assisted by Chris Theisen and Michelle Strang-Moore. Pat McCartney is in his fifth year as ticket manager.

The Big Eight office staff includes Kelly Mason, director of marketing; Carrollyn Miller, administrative assistant, and Helen Atterbury, the conference business manager. The conference offices are located on the fourth floor of the Stilwell Building in Kansas City, Mo.

Big Eight Expands to Big 12 in 1996

The Big 12 Conference became a reality, February 25, 1994, when Baylor, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Texas joined the Big Eight Conference institutions Iowa State, Kansas State, Oklahoma State, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and

Steve Hatchell

Oklahoma to pursue common athletic endeavors.

Individually, member schools have long been respected for successes both in the classroom and on the field of competition. In total, league institutions have received numerous accolades for the quality of academic resources, programs and services offered to students. Athletically, the Big 12 Conference has accounted for more than 130 NCAA team championships and 14 wire service football titles, while its student-athletes have claimed more than 750 NCAA crowns entering the 1995-96 academic year. The formation of the new Conference represents an undertaking by school chief executive officers to combine resources to achieve even higher levels of performance.

Institution chancellors and presidents will serve as the chief policy-makers of the Conference, operating as the Council of Chief Executive Officers. Administration of the league will occur through the Faculty Athletics Representatives, Athletics Directors and Senior Women's Administrators.

Steve Hatchell was appointed the league's commissioner March 26, 1995, and assumed duties July 1, 1995. Although administrative meetings have been conducted since the Conference was announced, formal operations actually begin July 1, 1996. Hatchell has extensive ties to the league as he has served the past two years as commissioner of the Southwest Conference. His association with the current membership of the Big Eight began in the early 1970s as he worked in the athletic department at Colorado, his alma mater. He later went on to serve as Service Bureau Director/Associate/Interim Commissioner of the Big Eight from 1977 to 1983, working under Commissioners Chuck Neinas and Carl James. His tenure at the Southwest Conference was preceded by a stint as Metro Conference commissioner (1983-87) and Executive Director of the Orange Bowl.

"The future will provide for some exciting and rewarding experiences for the Conference," Hatchell said. "The Big 12 has an opportunity to be the preeminent Conference. With the added power that the Big Eight will have with the four schools coming in, it will allow them to provide the leadership for the NCAA."

Certainly few leagues will be able to parallel the quality of Big 12 football when competition begins in the fall of 1996. Recent history reveals a staggering level of success, both on a team and individual basis:

◆ In last season's final Associated Press poll, five teams were rated including national champion Nebraska, Colorado No. 3, Texas A&M No. 8, Kansas State No. 19 and Texas No. 25. Only the Southeastern Conference had as many teams listed.

◆ The 1994 campaign saw seven teams earn bowl bids including Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas State, Texas, Baylor, Texas Tech and Oklahoma. No other conference secured as many bowl bids.

◆ Nebraska's 1994 national championship gave Big 12 institutions 14 final poll No. 1 rankings in either the media or coaches voting.

◆ The 1994 Heisman Trophy award to Colorado running back Rashaan Salaam affords the Big 12 nine such honorees, while Nebraska offensive tackle Zach Wiegert's selection as the Outland Trophy winner gives the Conference 14 student-athletes recognized. Colorado defensive back Chris Hudson added to the 1994 hardware haul as his pick as the Thorpe Award designee raises the Big 12 total to four.

NCAA Rules and Regulations

Your support of Nebraska athletics is very much appreciated. However, there are restrictions regarding your involvement with student-athletes. Help Nebraska assure compliance with NCAA rules and regulations by taking a few moments to read this information. The eligibility of Nebraska student-athletes and reputation of the department and university depend greatly upon your cooperation.

Winning Tradition

Supporters of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln are proud of Nebraska's rich tradition in both academic accomplishments and athletic achievements. Student-athletes, coaches, and other administrators have worked extremely hard to place Nebraska at the head of the class academically and among the most prestigious athletic programs in the country. Nebraska's tradition is rich in Academic All-Americans, NCAA Top Eight Award Winners, Big-Eight Conference titles and national championships.

Most importantly, Nebraska athletics has built and maintained tradition and excellence based on integrity. Winning is important at Nebraska, but winning the RIGHT way by following the NCAA rules that govern the recruitment and treatment of student-athletes is a must!

The goal of this pamphlet is to educate you regarding NCAA rules that apply to you when interacting with student-athletes.

Key Point

You are considered a representative of Nebraska just by being an alumnus, friend, or fan.

Key Rule—NCAA Bylaw 13.01.5.1

In Division I, representatives of an institution's athletics interests are prohibited from making in-person, on-or-off-campus recruiting contacts, or written or telephonic communications with a prospect or the prospect's relatives or legal guardians.

Interpretations

1. A representative of a Division I institution is prohibited from making in-person recruiting contact with a prospect and his or her parents/guardians—on or off campus.

Limited Exception: A representative may have contact with a prospect regarding permissible pre-enrollment activities such as summer employment, provided the prospect has already signed a National Letter-of-Intent and the institution is aware that you are making these contacts in regard to the employment.

2. A Division I representative is prohibited from writing or telephoning a prospect and his or her parents or legal guardians.

Limited Exception: A representative may have a phone conversation with a prospect only if the prospect initiates the call. Such a call may not be prearranged by an institutional staff member and the representative is not permitted to have a recruiting conversation, but may exhibit normal civility. The representative must refer any questions about the University's athletic program to the athletic department.

3. A representative is prohibited from contacting a prospect's coach, principal, or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect.

Limited Exception: NCAA rules do not preclude a representative from viewing a prospect's contest on the representative's own initiative, but the representative may not contact the prospect.

The most common NCAA rules infraction relates to the extra benefits rule. An extra benefit would include provision of any transportation, meals, clothes, entertainment, preferential loan terms or other benefit offered to a student-athlete unavailable to the general student population.

A representative may not provide any such extra benefit to an enrolled student-athlete or their family. Simply put, you may not treat a student-athlete any differently than a student who does not participate in athletics.

Key Contact

Questions regarding NCAA rules, especially those relating to contact between alumni and recruits or enrolled student-athletes can be directed to Nebraska's Senior Associate Athletic Director in charge of Compliance.

Thank you for your support of Nebraska athletics. Your full cooperation in keeping Nebraska's commitment to excellence and athletic integrity intact is very much appreciated. Your compliance and cooperation will help ensure the eligibility of both high school prospects and enrolled student-athletes.

Two Final Reminders

1. Please contact the athletic department for NCAA rules interpretations.
2. Remember that in most cases: CONTACT IS PROHIBITED.

Thank you for your cooperation.

'Add Phillips to Heisman Race'

Every decade or so, the Heisman Trophy vote takes a subtle shift. College football's most prestigious award almost always reflects the game's offensive trend, and 1994 is shaping up as another transitional year.

In the post-World War II era, beginning with Army's awesome duo of Doc Blanchard (1945) and Glenn Davis (1946), running backs had won 14 of 17 Heismans.

Quarterbacks took over as the game opened up in the 1960s, with Oregon State's Terry Baker (1962), Navy's Roger Staubach (1963) and Notre Dame's John Huarte (1964) sparking a trend of Heisman-winning quarterbacks.

Rodgers of Nebraska won. And then the Heisman swung back to the running backs, who swept the award from 1973 to 1983.

When the college game began to go airborne again in the mid-1980s, the Heisman reflected the change. Since 1984, the award has gone to a quarterback or receiver eight of 10 years. The last running back to win was Oklahoma State's Barry Sanders in 1988.

This year, the award is very much up for grabs, and a handful of rushers are making strong cases.

Washington's Narvin had three

"I want to be the greatest running back ever," Kaufman said.

Hot on his heels is Rashaan Salaam of Colorado, who has 893 rushing yards and an average of 179 per game. Salaam will benefit if the Buffaloes can keep their dream season going.

And Nebraska's Lawrence Phillips has drawn increased attention as the Cornhuskers lose quarterback after quarterback. He's the first back in the nation to rush for 1,000 yards (he has 1,006) and has an astonishing 7.7-yards-per-play average.

Lurking on the fringes are Penn State's Jana Carter (601 yards, 120 per game), Wisconsin's Brent Moss (671 yards, 135 per game) and preseason favorite Tyrone Wheatley of Michigan (547 yards, 128 per game).

ES. Iowa — If Lawrence Phillips named the Big Eight Conference Offensive Player of the Week, he is considering sharing the honor with senior offensive guard Bryan didn't play a lick Saturday in his 28-12 victory against Iowa in crunch time, his shoes are for Nebraska's I-back.

Berringer: 'Whatever it takes'

BY KEN HABLETON
Lincoln Journal Star

As the whirlwind of hot air blows about him, Brook Berringer stands firm as the quarterback of the No. 1-ranked and 12-0 Nebraska football team.

"Whatever it takes to win the Orange Bowl and the national title is what it takes to make me happy," Berringer said. "And all the talk about me, Tommie Frazier, the team and everything else doesn't matter. Just the source of most of that kind of talk."

Berringer said he's ready to start for Nebraska against Miami on Good Friday night. The junior from Goodland, Kan., has started seven of Nebraska's last eight games and finished the season as the Big Eight rushing efficiency and run-downs thrown.

Except some time on the field he hasn't had because he collapsed twice in the last couple of times Frazier was Sooner's quarterback.

Nebraska quarterback Frazier said he's ready to start for Nebraska against Miami on Good Friday night. The junior from Goodland, Kan., has started seven of Nebraska's last eight games and finished the season as the Big Eight rushing efficiency and run-downs thrown.

His pass to tight end Eric Alford on the two-point attempt was good, and Frazier saw the Hurricanes begin to wilt. He had never felt better.

"I felt fresh because I wasn't out playing the whole game," Frazier could really tell the difference when he went back out there.

A 1994 first-team All-Big Eight performer, Tyrone Williams (top) started and played in every game except West Virginia and finished as the teams' 11th leading tackler with 38 stops (31 solo). He was second on the team with five pass breakups and had three interceptions. As a true freshman last season, Grant Wistrom (middle) garnered Big Eight Defensive Newcomer-of-the-Year honors with 36 tackles and 4.5 sacks. Mike Minter (bottom), the quarterback of the secondary, played in just two games before tearing his ACL. His return to form will bolster what many already consider the league's best defensive secondary.

A Second-Team All-American, Football News Offensive Player-of-the-Year Finalist, First-Team All-Big Eight and the No. 8 finisher in the 1994 Heisman race--true sophomore I-back Lawrence Phillips finished second in the Big Eight and third nationally in rushing with 143.5 ypg. He recorded a school-record 11-straight 100-yard rushing games to open the season, broke the sophomore rushing record both at NU and in the conference and finished with Nebraska's second-highest one-season rushing total behind 1983 Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier. A preseason All-American and top contender for the Heisman, Phillips is the only returnee among last year's top 10 finishers. Although Phillips missed most of spring drills with a hamstring pull, he is ready to make a run at national honors and to add another 1,000 yards to his 2,230, two-year total. A thousand yards this season would jump him from 10th to second on the NU all-time rushing list and just a junior, he sits 923 yards behind No. 2 Calvin Jones' 3,153 and 2,550 behind career-leader Rozier (4,780). At a career average of 5.9 per carry, it shouldn't take him long to catch Jones. His running style, with incredible lateral movement, has been compared to former NU I-back Doug Dubose. A gifted athlete, Phillips has been timed in the electronic 10-yard dash at 1.52, 4.48 in the 40 and has a 36-inch vertical jump.

In his Career: In 22 games, Phillips has 2,230 rushing yards and 21 TDs on 378 carries for a 5.9 per attempt average and 101.4 per game. On his first carry against Iowa State in game No. 11 last season, an 8-yard gain, he became the 16th Husker in history to rush for 2,000 yards in his career. His 2,230 yards rank 10th all time, while his 21 TDs rank in a tie for 12th. Phillips needs 924 yards to pass Calvin Jones' 3,153 (1991-93) to move into second place all time. Phillips reached the 2,000 mark in 21 games, tying 1992 and 1993 All-Big Eight I-back Jones' 21-game streak to 2,000 yards, a tie for sixth best among Huskers. In terms of carries, Phillips reached 2,005 in 322 attempts, tying I.M. Hipp as the seventh fastest Husker to achieve the mark. Overall, Phillips' 12, 100-plus outings rank in a tie for fifth among Huskers. In the Big Eight Conference, Phillips' 2,230 yards rank 50th.

1994: Phillips became just the seventh sophomore to rush for 1,000 yards in a season and set the record for rushing yards by a Husker sophomore with 1,722 yards on 286 carries and 16 TDs, passing Bobby Reynolds' 1,342 in 1950. He averaged 6.0 yards per carry and 143.5 yards per game to rank second in the Big Eight behind Heisman Trophy winner Rashaan Salaam and third in the nation behind Salaam and Bryan Pruitt of Central Michigan. He bettered Thurman Thomas' Big Eight sophomore rushing record (1,553 yards in 1985) and finished second on the NU season rushing chart, ahead of Rozier's 1,689 in 1982, but 426 yards short of Rozier's school-record 2,148 in 1983. He also finished second in receptions, one behind Abdul Muhammad with 22 catches for 172 yards (7.8 per reception). Phillips' 22 receptions were team All-Big Eight, a second-team All-American, was a finalist for the Football News Offensive Player-of-the-Year Award and finished eighth in the Heisman race.

Game-by-Game in 1994: Phillips began the season with 126 yards vs. No. 24 West Virginia in the Kickoff Classic. He had a then-career-high 175 yards and two TDs vs. Texas Tech, 178 vs. No. 13 UCLA and 138 vs. Pacific on just nine carries, including a career-long 74-yard TD run. He recorded his fifth-straight 100-yard rushing day with 168 vs. Wyoming and three TDs. He again scored three times against Oklahoma State and his career-high 221 yards against the Cowboys was the 12th-best rushing day by a Husker. In that game, Phillips became the 19th Husker to run for over 1,000 yards in a season, and only the second NU back to rush for over 1,000 yards in the first six games of a season, as his 1,006 yards (in six games) trailed only Reynolds' 1950 six-game mark of 1,010. Both Reynolds and Phillips did so as sophomores. Phillips earned more than an "A" for effort in a hard-fought 117 yards vs. No. 16 Kansas State. The "one-armed man," as Osborne called him, when he was nursing a severely sprained thumb, was hardly used as a decoy against KSU as the Huskers were down to their third quarterback against the Wildcats and 40 of NU's 61 plays went between the tackles. Phillips carried the ball 31 times against K-State (including every play on NU's first TD series) and 22 vs. Missouri for 110 yards in two quarters of play, while Osborne could count on one hand the number of options he called. As a result, Phillips average per carry dropped a yard in those two games, but the important issue was team victory. Against No. 2 Colorado, a team which ranked No. 12 nationally in rushing defense (allowing just 99 yards per game), Phillips is a leading contender for the Heisman after finishing eighth in 1994.

Phillips led the Huskers to a 17-0 first-half lead while rushing 14 times for 67 yards, nearly double that of his Heisman counterpart Rashaan Salaam. Phillips finished with 103 on 24 carries. Despite a groin pull, Phillips bettered the school record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games to open a season (Reynolds had eight to open 1950 sophomore season) with his ninth against Kansas with 153 yards on 21 carries. Against Iowa State, he carried the ball a career-high (and school-record tying) 36 times for 183 yards (5.1 per carry) and two TDs. He also caught a career-best four passes for 40 yards. In the fourth quarter alone, Phillips changed his shoes and totaled 120 yards on just nine carries (13.3 ypc) and a TD. In the regular-season finale against Oklahoma, Phillips' record 100-yard game streak was broken as he was held to 50 yards on 21 carries but also caught three passes for 24 yards.

1995 Orange Bowl vs. Miami: Phillips rushed 19 times for 96 yards and caught four passes for 13 yards. On Nebraska's last two scoring drives in the fourth quarter, Phillips rushed four times for 31 yards, including a 25-yard gain on first and 10, one play prior to Cory Schlesinger's 15-yard TD to pull NU within 17-15.

1993: A true freshman scholarship athlete, Phillips played in every game except the opener. He was the Huskers' third-leading rusher with 508 yards on 92 carries and five touchdowns. He averaged 5.5 yards per carry and 50.8 per game. He ranked 10th in the Big Eight in rushing per game and had the third-best all-time rushing season for a Husker freshman. He also caught two passes for six yards. After not playing in the season opener, Phillips tallied 80 yards on 14 carries in game two against Texas Tech, including a 30-yard TD; he came off the bench at UCLA, in front of his homestate family and friends, and rushed for a then-career-high 137 yards on 28 carries with a five-yard TD (his 137 yards marked the Big Eight's 11th-best single-game total); he added 79 yards on 14 carries and a seven-yard score against Colorado State; carried once for three yards vs. Oklahoma State; 5-73 vs. Kansas State including a season-best 46-yard TD; 2-27 vs. Missouri with a 25-yard score; 16-58 vs. Colorado; 5-16 vs. Kansas; and 7-35 vs. Iowa State. He had three carries of 25 yards or better in his initial season and one, 100-yard rushing day.

1994 Orange Bowl vs. Florida State: Phillips came off the bench when Calvin Jones left the game with a shoulder injury, and dazzled the crowd with 13 carries for 64 yards and a touchdown. His first carry of the game was the second to last play of the third quarter, when he dashed up the right side for 16 yards. The first play of the fourth quarter, Phillips took it in untouched for a 12-yard touchdown run with 14:55 remaining, a score which brought the Huskers within two points at 15-13. On Nebraska's second to last drive, leading up to Byron Bennett's 27-yard field goal which put NU up 16-15 with 1:16 remaining in the title game. Phillips again got the call on the first play of the drive and went left for 17 yards. All but one of Phillips' 13 carries came in the fourth quarter.

At Baldwin Park HS: Phillips gained 1,752 yards rushing as a senior at Baldwin Park for Coach Tony Zane and was rated as the ninth-best high school player in the West in 1993 by national recruiting analyst Tom Lemming. He was one of three high school players unanimously named to the Best in the West list by the Long Beach Press-Telegram, as he also had 250 yards receiving and scored a total of 25 touchdowns. In his two-year career, he rushed for nearly 3,000 yards, scored a total of 38 TDs, had 500 receiving yards and 140 tackles. Phillips was a two-time All-CIF first-team selection and earned All-San Gabriel Valley honors as a senior, as selected by the Los Angeles Times and was the San Gabriel Tribune Player-of-the-Year. Baldwin Park went 22-3-1 in Phillips' two years at the school, including a CIF Championship his junior year. Phillips also competed on the track team as a sprinter and long jumper.

Personal: The son of Lawrence Phillips and Juanita Phillips, he was born on May 12, 1975, in Little Rock, Ark. Phillips is a volunteer speaker for the SPICE Program. He majors in sociology.

Nebraska quarterback Tommie Frazier took over the Husker offense as a true freshman midway through the 1992 season and led the Huskers to a 9-3-0 record, a Big Eight Conference championship and a matchup in the Orange Bowl with Florida State. In 1993, Frazier earned a second conference ring and led Nebraska to its first perfect regular-season finish since 1983 and to the national title game against Florida State. After a missed 45-yard field goal and an 18-16 loss to FSU, Frazier returned in 1994, armed with an explosive offense and two years of starting experience, ready to take the Huskers where they had not gone since 1971--the land of the national championship. He led NU to a 4-0 record with two wins over ranked teams, before a blood clot behind his right knee took him out of action. But Frazier returned in time to start the FedEx Orange Bowl vs. Miami, leading the Huskers to the national championship over Miami (24-17) with two scoring drives in the fourth quarter. It was Frazier's first start since the Pacific game on Sept. 24. Frazier went off the anti-coagulant drugs prior to spring ball and is not expected to need to continue medication. He enters fall camp listed even with Brook Berringer, who posted a 7-0 record in Frazier's absence. Arguably the best option quarterback in the nation, Frazier is on everyone's preseason lists, including All-America, Heisman, and Davey O'Brien watches to name a few. Frazier is making his mark on the NU career charts as he ranks eighth in NU career passing yards (2,159) and sixth in passing TDs (26). He has run (22) or thrown (26) for 48 TDs in his career and ranks 17th in scoring with 152 points in 24 games (6.3 per game). He is Nebraska's second all-time rushing quarterback with 1,351 career rushing yards and 22 TDs, behind his position coach, Turner Gill's 2,560 yards and 32 scores. A leader on and off the field, Frazier is a two-year member of the NCAA President's Commission Committee on Sportsmanship and Ethical Conduct in Intercollegiate Athletics. Tommie has also participated in the National Education Week Program; the School is Cool Jam; Ventures in Partnership; and the Make-A-Wish Foundation. He is a committee member of the UNL Life Skills Program and wrote an editorial on sportsmanship for the NCAA News.

In His Career: Frazier ranks 26th on the NU career rushing chart with 1,351 yards and 22 TDs and is second among NU quarterbacks. Frazier has 2,159 career passing yards and 26 TDs to rank eighth in yards and sixth in scores via passing. His 3,510 career total-offense yards rank sixth all time at Nebraska. Frazier has accounted for 48 TDs in his career (22 rushing, 26 passing). In Big Eight annuals, Frazier ranks 10th on the league's quarterback career rushing chart and 50th on the total offense list. Frazier is 12th at NU in rushing TDs, sixth in passing TDs and 17th among Husker scorers with 152 points (6.3 per game). Frazier's individual game bests are 158 rushing vs. Kansas State in 1993; 206 passing vs. Texas Tech in 1993 and against FSU in the 1994 Orange Bowl; three TDs rushing four times; three TDs passing vs. Kansas in 1992; 312 total-offense yards vs. Kansas State in 1993; four total-offense TDs vs. Iowa State in 1993 and vs. West Virginia in 1994. Three times Frazier has rushed for over 100 yards in a game; twice he has passed for over 200 yards in a contest. He is on track to become the second Big Eight player to rush for 2,000 and pass for 3,000 yards in a career, needing 649 and 841 yards, respectively. Both are figures he reached as a sophomore in 1993. Continued...

Nebraska Football

1994: A preseason Davey O'Brien and Heisman favorite, Frazier had started 23 consecutive games and posted a 20-3 record (counting two Orange Bowls against Florida State) prior to his injury. In 1994, he led NU to a 4-0 record before being sidelined prior to the Wyoming game (fifth of season) with blood clots. In just four games, Frazier was the team's seventh-leading rusher, averaging 7.5 yards per carry and 62.0 a game. He had 33 carries for 248 yards and six scores and completed 19-44 passes (.432) for 273 yards and four TDs.

1994 Game-by-Game: Frazier was the MVP as he started the season with a bang rushing for 130 yards and three TDs in the Kickoff Classic vs. West Virginia and completing 8-16 passes for another 100 yards with one TD to jump into Heisman contention. He rushed for 84 yards and two TDs vs. Texas Tech., passed for another, then led NU to its second win over a ranked team with 29 yards rushing and 59 passing with three TDs vs. UCLA. He played just nine plays of the first two series against Pacific (31 total yards, but led NU to two quick scores) then complained of a sore leg. A blood clot was discovered on Sept. 25. He returned to drills while taking anti-coagulant drugs, but when hoping to be cleared for the Oklahoma State game, doctors found the blood clot had reformed. He was readmitted to the hospital on Oct. 4, and subsequently had surgery (Oct. 6) to tie off a small, superficial vein in his lower calf, which contained a small clot that may have contributed to the larger blood clots. He took two different blood-thinning drugs Coumadin (oral) and Heparin (shots) and returned to non-contact practice on Nov. 14. He was cleared, but did not play vs. Oklahoma on Nov. 25, two months after the original clot was found. Following the OU game, Frazier went back on his anti-coagulant drugs and did not have contact until the Huskers' last scrimmage in Miami on Dec. 24, when he won back the starting job from Brook Berringer. Frazier, who has not redshirted, was denied a medical hardship appeal by the NCAA Administrative Review Panel, prior to the OU game.

1995 Orange Bowl vs Miami: Frazier was the NBC/Orange Bowl MVP for the second consecutive year as he led Nebraska to two come-from-behind scores in the fourth quarter for a 24-17 win over Miami on its home field. The win gave Nebraska its first national championship since 1971. Frazier was 3-5 passing for 25 yards and one interception (first quarter) in his first start since the Pacific game on Sept. 24. He rushed seven times for 31 yards, including a long run of 25 yards on third and four at the UM 48 which led to Cory Schlesinger's winning touchdown. When Schlesinger scored the game-tying touchdown with 9:52 remaining, Frazier hit Eric Alford with a bullet two-point conversion pass to tie the game at 17-all. He was 2-2 passing in the fourth for 19 yards.

1993: Frazier quickly earned a reputation as one of the nation's best option quarterbacks as he led the Huskers to five come-from-behind victories, their third consecutive Big Eight championship and to the national title game in the Orange Bowl. Just a sophomore, Frazier was the only underclassman named to the 10-man Davey O'Brien semifinal list for the nation's best quarterback and earned second-team All-Big Eight honors by both the AP and the coaches. Frazier finished as the team's second-leading rusher with 704 yards, 5.6 per carry and 64.0 per game. He rushed for nine TDs and threw for 12 in 11 games to lead Nebraska to its first undefeated regular season (11-0) and its highest final ranking (No. 3) since 1983. Frazier completed 77-162 passes (.475) with four interceptions for 1,159 yards, 12 TDs and a 127.1 pass efficiency rating. He was the first Husker QB to pass for more than 1,000 yards since Keithen McCant in 1991 (1,454) and one of 17 overall. He led the team in total offense with 1,863 yards, the eighth best total by a Husker, averaging 169.4 yards per game and 6.5 per play, and his average ranked as the best for an NU player since 1989. He passed for more than 100 yards six times, including a career-best 206 vs. Texas Tech. He rushed for more than 100 yards twice, with 125 against Iowa State and a then-career-best 158 yards against Kansas State when he also had a personal-best 312 yards of total offense, just seven yards off the NU record. Frazier ranked seventh in the Big Eight in rushing (64.0 ypg), fourth in passing efficiency (127.1), fifth in total offense (169.4 ypg) and 12th in scoring (4.9 ppg).

1993 Game-by-Game: North Texas: Frazier suffered an ankle sprain on the first play from scrimmage and left the game on the next play. Texas Tech: After TTU had taken a 21-20 lead in the third, Frazier, still hobbling on his bum ankle, led the Huskers to TDs on four of their next five possessions. He finished with a career-high 206 yards passing. UCLA: Still slowed by the sore ankle, Frazier rushed for 33 yards and completed

13-19 passes (68 percent) for 145 yards and a TD to bring NU back from a 10-0 deficit to defeat UCLA 14-13. On the two scoring drives, Frazier was 6-6 for 86 yards passing. Colorado State: Frazier rushed 11 times for 75 yards and a TD and completed 7-13 passes for 79 yards and two TDs. Oklahoma State: Frazier was the first player in four games to score a rushing TD against the Cowboys, when he tied the score at 13-all midway through the third quarter and led NU to a 27-13 win on the road for Coach Osborne's 200th career victory. He completed 8-19 passes for 109 yards. Kansas State: He missed NU's single-game total offense record by just seven yards. Against the No. 24 (CNN/USA Today) Wildcats, Frazier had 35 total offense attempts for 312 yards, which ranks as the second-best single-game output in school history (Jerry Tagge had 319 vs. Missouri, Oct. 9, 1971). Frazier had 154 yards through the air (9-19) and a career-high 158 rushing yards on 16 carries with one score. He averaged 9.9 yards per rush and had a career-long run of 58 yards. His 158 yards rushing was the first 100-yard rushing game for a Husker signal caller since Keithen McCant rushed for 124 vs. Missouri in 1991 and is the second-highest effort by an NU QB overall. Missouri: Frazier rushed for 81 yards on 11 carries, including a 37-yard TD in the third quarter and completed 8-13 passes for 143 yards and two TDs. Colorado: Frazier led the Huskers to a hard-fought 21-17 win in Boulder over the No. 20 Buffaloes even though he missed most of the second half with a shoulder AC strain. Frazier totaled 236 yards of total offense (his second-highest single-game output), was the Huskers' leading rusher with 69 yards, and completed 7-17 for 167 yards passing and one TD with one interception. Kansas: Frazier led the Huskers to a 21-20 come-from-behind win over the Jayhawks, despite his injured shoulder which kept him out of play much of the second quarter and limited his throwing. He rushed for 35 yards, passed for 31 and threw for two TDs. Iowa State: Frazier rushed for more than 100 yards for the second time in his career with 125 yards and tied his career high with three touchdowns. He passed for 68 yards and another TD. Oklahoma: Frazier rushed for 37 yards on 15 attempts with one TD and completed 5-17 passes for 57 yards and a score in the 21-7 victory to give NU a perfect 11-0 record.

1994 Orange Bowl vs. Florida State: Frazier matched Heisman winner Charlie Ward yard-for-yard as they both totaled 283 total-offense yards. Frazier was sacked just once (to Ward's five) and was the game's leading rusher and the Nebraska MVP with 14 carries for 77 yards. He completed 13 of 24 passes for a career-high tying 206 yards and one TD. On NU's final drive, he completed a 29-yard pass to Trumane Bell to the FSU 28 to set up a 45-yard field goal attempt with 0:01 remaining.

1992: Frazier came to Nebraska in August of 1992, and with just five short months of learning the system and gaining experience, he took over the starting duties and led Nebraska to its second consecutive Big Eight championship. Frazier was the first true freshman to play quarterback for the Husker varsity since Steve Taylor in 1985 and was the first quarterback ever to start for Nebraska as a true freshman. Frazier led the Huskers to a 5-2 record as a starter and on the season played in nine games, accumulated 727 yards passing, 399 rushing (then the third-best mark ever for a Husker freshman) and 1,126 yards in total offense with 17 touchdowns (seven rushing, 10 passing). He ran or threw for at least one touchdown in every game except the season opener. Frazier was NU's fourth-leading rusher, averaging 44.3 yards per game (4.6 yards per carry) and was second in total offense at 125.1 ypg (6.1 per play). He ranked second in the Big Eight in pass efficiency rating at 136.1 and would have ranked 10th nationally if he had the required 15 attempts per game to qualify. He was fifth in the Big Eight in total offense per game (83rd nationally) and 11th in rushing. He set a school season record for lowest interception rate with one in 100 attempts (0.01). The poised Frazier was the unanimous Big Eight Offensive Newcomer/Freshman-of-the-Year by both the AP and coaches, earned second-team freshman All-America honors by Football News and was an honorable-mention AP All-Big Eight pick.

1992 Game-by-Game: He did not play vs. Washington or Arizona State, saw more playing time in the Oklahoma State game after the Huskers had an open week in their schedule, then following a second open week for the Huskers, drew the starting nod at Missouri on Oct. 24. Missouri: Frazier led the Huskers to their first conference road win by inspiring a fourth-quarter surge to defeat the Tigers 34-24. Frazier rushed 14 times for 77 yards and three TDs and went 9-20 passing for 157 yards with no turnovers and accumulated a season-high 234 total offense yards. Colorado: In his first game vs. a ranked team he rushed for 86 yards and passed for 55 and two TDs. Kansas: He completed 6-11 passes for a season-high 161 yards and career-best three TDs vs. nationally-ranked KU. Iowa State: With a sprained ankle, Frazier scrambled then threw a 15-yard TD pass to Lance Lewis for the CNN Play-of-the-Day. He had a season-high 92 yards rushing and 54 passing in Frazier's only regular-season loss as a starter. Oklahoma: On Nov. 27, he threw his first and only interception of the regular season (ending a streak of 80 attempts by Frazier without a pickoff), but not until Nebraska had set a school record with a streak of 24 quarters and five straight games without a turnover (dating back to the second half of the Arizona State game). Kansas State: Tied career high with three rushing TDs on 51 yards and 128 yards passing.

1993 Orange Bowl vs. Florida State: Frazier rushed seven times for 20 yards and completed 10-21 passes for 146 yards and two TDs (to Corey Dixon, 41 yards, and to Gerald Armstrong) in the 27-14 loss to FSU.

At Manatee HS: The USA Today All-America quarterback, Frazier threw for 2,600 yards and 30 TDs and ran for over 1,600 yards and 33 TDs as a two-year starter at Manatee in Bradenton, Fla. As a senior, he completed 47.6 percent of his passes for 989 yards and 17 touchdowns. Frazier chose NU over Clemson and Notre Dame. He was a teammate of fellow Husker Tyrone Williams.

Personal: The son of Tommie and Priscilla Frazier, Tommie was born July 16, 1974. He majors in communication studies and is expected to graduate in May, 1996, despite not redshirting.

Brook Berringer (pronounced BEAR-ing-er) entered the 1994 season as Tommie Frazier's backup with limited experience, but when the pre-season Heisman candidate was forced to the sideline with a blood clot in his leg, Berringer quieted the critics as he led the Huskers steady to their goal—a Big Eight championship, their second consecutive undefeated season and a national championship in the Orange Bowl. He posted a 7-0 record as the Husker starter and in basically eight games last season totaled 1,295 yards passing (14th best by a Husker), 279 yards rushing and accounted for 16 touchdowns, despite the fact that he played in four games with extremely limited mobility due to a collapsed lung. He kept Nebraska in the top six nationally in rushing (first, 340.0 ypg), scoring (sixth, 36.3 ppg) and total offense (fifth, 477.8 ypg) and most importantly, brought the Huskers to the Orange Bowl undefeated earning second-team All-Big Eight honors. Berringer enters fall camp listed even with Frazier and the starter is not expected to be named until just prior to the first game. At 6-4, 220, Berringer is the tallest of the Husker QBs and is very mobile with a 1.58 10-yard dash, a 4.63 clocking in the 40 and a 34.5-inch vertical jump.

In his Career: Berringer has accounted for 1,808 total-offense yards and 20 TDs in 27 games (seven starts). He ranks 15th on the NU career passing charts with 1,517 yards (111-180, six interceptions, .617) and 12 TDs. Rushing, Brook has 84 attempts for 291 yards (3.5 per carry, 10.7 per game) with eight TDs. Berringer's career bests are 13-18-267 yards passing vs. Kansas in 1994, three passing TDs against Pacific and Missouri last season; and a rushing best of 74 yards on 12 carries with three TDs vs. Wyoming in 1994, despite playing with a partially collapsed lung.

1994: Berringer was 94-151 passing in 1994 for 1,295 yards, he had a .623 completion percentage with 10 TDs and five interceptions. With his 1,000 passing yards, Berringer joined 18 other Huskers who have accomplished that feat before him (since 1946). His pass efficiency rating stood at 149.5 which led the Big Eight and would have ranked seventh nationally (but Brook did not qualify for NCAA rankings without 15 attempts per game). Although he started just seven games, he was second in the Big Eight to KSU's Chad May in TD passes on the season with 10. His .623 completion percentage (.630 in 1993) is the best for a Husker starter on a season since Craig Sundberg completed 53-84 in 1984 (.631). He passed for over 100 yards in seven games, including the last five. Berringer rushed 71 times for 279 yards and six TDs (3.9 per carry, 23.3 yards per game) and was sacked just five times. Berringer started 99 drives and led NU to a score on 40 of them (35 TDs) for a 41.4 efficiency rating. He was 26-32 (.813) on drives in the red zone. He earned second-team All-Big Eight honors by the AP and honorable-mention by the coaches.

1994 Game-by-Game: Berringer was backup to Frazier in the first three games, and had seven yards of total offense vs. West Virginia; 15 vs. Texas Tech; 27 vs. UCLA; then played extensively vs. Pacific in the fourth game (8-15, 120 yards passing and three TDs, 6-32 rushing with one score). He got his first career start against Wyoming when Frazier went out with a blood clot. Brook unknowingly played the second half of the game with a partially-collapsed left lung (30-40 percent), suffered on NU's last scoring drive of the first half on a hit which cracked a rib as well. Nebraska was down 21-7 with 2:12 left before halftime when Berringer orchestrated a beautiful 2-minute drill beginning at the NU 36-yard line, completing seven straight passes for 59 yards and scoring on a 5-yard jaunt. Despite the injury, he still led NU back from a 21-14 halftime deficit and rushed for 74 yards and three TDs and went 15-22 passing for 131 yards. He started the next week vs. Oklahoma State, (10-15-75 passing, 2 for -5 rushing) but did not play the second half as pre-ordered X-rays at intermission showed the lung was again deflating (20 percent). Berringer did not start against Kansas State due to sore ribs and his lung, but came in with a 7-6 NU lead, which walk-on quarterback Matt Turman had already established. He played the last series of the first half and the entire second half and led NU to another TD and field goal for the 17-6 win in Manhattan against the undefeated and nationally ranked Wildcats, but was extremely limited in his mobility (2-7-37 passing, 2-5 rushing). Against Missouri, Berringer's game was again limited, but he still had a then-career-best 152 yards passing with three TDs (9-13, no interceptions) and rushed five times for 23 yards. And in the biggest game of his short career, the junior from Goodland, Kan., went against one of the nation's toughest defenses and pegged No. 2 Colorado for 142 yards passing and two rushing. He completed 12-17 passes, including a 30-yard strike to Eric Alford for a TD to put NU up 24-0, but gave up one interception. Berringer improved even more the next week with a 267-yard passing performance (13-18, no interceptions, two TDs) vs. Kansas, tying the seventh-best passing mark by a Husker, the best since Dave Humm's 292 vs. Missouri, Oct. 13, 1973. He had a career-long 64-yard TD pass to Clester Johnson, a 51-yard TD to Reggie Baul, and three other non-scoring passes over 25 yards (49 to Baul, 37 to Benning, 28 to Alford). Berringer had 193 passing yards (11-18) and 61 rushing vs. Iowa State, then 166 passing (13-23) and 48 rushing vs. Oklahoma. His 460 passing yards vs. Kansas and Iowa State, was the best back-to-back passing games for a Nebraska QB since Vince Ferragamo threw for 218 yards against Texas Christian and 264 the following week vs. Miami during the 1976 season. Over the last five regular-season games, Berringer passed for over 100 yards each time and completed 65.2 percent of his passes (58-89) for 920 yards (184 per game) and seven TDs.

1995 Orange Bowl vs. Miami: Although Frazier won back the starting job in the Huskers' last scrimmage in Miami on Dec. 24, Berringer was a key contributor in the 24-17 win which gave Nebraska its third national championship. Berringer started the second quarter after NU's two first-quarter drives stalled and Miami jumped to a 10-0 lead. Berringer's first drive wasn't productive, but on the second, he led NU to its first score on a five-play, 40-yard drive in 2:20 as he hit tight end Mark Gilman for a 19-yard strike. Berringer played all of the third quarter, but gave way to Frazier and fresh legs in the fourth. In the game, Berringer rushed seven times for 16 yards but was sacked twice resulting in minus four net yards. He completed 8-15 passes with one interception for 81 yards, including the 19-yard TD.

1993: As a sophomore, Berringer passed for 222 yards as Frazier's backup. When Frazier suffered an ankle sprain on the first play of the season opener and left the game the next play, Berringer came in and performed like a seasoned veteran, leading the Huskers to a 76-14 win against North Texas. He connected on seven of seven attempts for 124 yards passing and a touchdown and rushed for two TDs on three carries. With the loss of fellow backup Tony Veland (now NU's starting free safety) to a season-ending knee injury in game two, Berringer filled a crucial role. He played in 10 games (all except Oklahoma) and finished the year 17-27 passing (.630) for 222 yards, two TDs and one interception. He rushed 10 times for 15 yards and two scores.

1991: A scholarship athlete, Berringer redshirted in 1991.

At Goodland HS: An all-state quarterback in Kansas' third-largest class (3A), Berringer completed 47 of 98 passes for 979 yards and 13 touchdowns in his last season. He was an all-conference selection in football and basketball. He was also named an all-state defensive back by the Kansas City Star. He led his school to the state basketball tournament his senior year averaging nearly 20 ppg.

Personal: The son of Jan and the late Warren Berringer, Brook was born on July 9, 1973, in Scottsbluff, Neb. He majors in business administration and is expected to graduate in December. One of the Huskers' most active community leaders, he has been a volunteer speaker at several area hospitals, participated in the School is Cool Jam, Ventures in Partnership, the SCIP Drug Prevention Program and National Education Week, to name a few. Berringer was also an ambassador for the Husker athletic department last summer.

41 Phil Ellis

Mike Linebacker
 6-2 ♦ 225 ♦ Sr.
 Letters: Three
 Grand Island, Neb.
 (Grand Island HS)

◆ 1993 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll

After sitting out a redshirt season in his first year on campus, Ellis lettered as the backup weak-side linebacker behind Ed Stewart and Troy Branch in 1992 and 1993, then became the Husker starter at Mike linebacker for the last five games of the 1994 season. He will resume that role again in 1995 and is a contender for conference and national honors. Ellis, at 6-2, 225, is a hard hitter with excellent speed (1.64 in the 10-yard dash) and good mobility (34.5-inch vertical jump). He has fully recovered from a wrist injury which required surgery in the spring of 1993. A 3.0 student of biological sciences, Ellis was named to the Phillips 66 All-Big Eight Honor Roll in 1993.

1994: Ellis alternated playing time with Doug Colman at Mike linebacker, then earned the starting nod for the Colorado game and the last four games of the season. Ellis finished the year as Nebraska's fifth-leading tackler with 58 stops (24 solo). He was second on the team in tackles for loss with 7.5 for 21-yards lost and had half a sack for two-yards lost against Missouri. He had 32 of his tackles in the last five games including a career-high eight vs. Oklahoma (seven vs. Iowa State, six each against Missouri and Kansas and five vs. Colorado). He also started the Orange Bowl national championship game against Miami and was the Huskers' second-leading tackler with seven stops (three solo), including one pass breakup and one quarterback hurry.

1993: A reserve weak-side linebacker, Ellis played in all 11 games in 1993. He had 13 stops (six solo) and one pass breakup (against Colorado State). He had a season- and career-high three tackles against Texas Tech in Nebraska's second game of the season. He had one assisted tackle against Florida State in the Orange Bowl. A biological sciences major, Ellis was named to the 1993 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll.

1992: Ellis played in every regular-season game except Oklahoma, backing up Ed Stewart and Troy Branch at weak-side linebacker. He recorded seven tackles (one solo).

1991: A scholarship recruit, Ellis redshirted his first year at NU.

At Grand Island HS: Ellis was an Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal-Star all-class, all-state selection, and was the state defensive player-of-the-year. Ellis totaled 105 unassisted and 108 assisted tackles in his final two prep seasons, with 18 sacks and 10 fumble recoveries. He also intercepted four passes for 129 yards and a touchdown, and started at offensive guard for the state's second-ranked team. He played in the 1991 Nebraska Shrine Game. He also lettered in track. At Grand Island, Ellis played for former Husker player and volunteer coach Ken Fischer, who lettered at Nebraska in 1948 and 1949.

Personal: The son of Marge Davis, he was born Jan. 26, 1973, in Onawa, Iowa, and has one brother, Scott. Ellis majors in biological sciences and is expected to graduate in December. He was a volunteer speaker in 1993 for the VIP Speakers Bureau and a volunteer speaker in 1992-93-94 for National American Education Week.

Graham, at center, is the only returning starter on the Husker O-Line this season but offensive line coach Milt Tenopir has high praise for the Texas native, citing his excellent pass-pro skills, quick feet and explosive speed (1.75 10-yard dash). In fact, at 6-4, 285, Graham may be the best center NU has ever had and that is comparing him to the likes of two-time Outland and Lombardi winner Dave Rimington (1981-82). Graham started the last four regular-season games in 1993 and every game in 1994 as the Huskers won their third rushing title in the last four years. Graham, an All-Big Eight performer, is also the Huskers' three-year returnee at deep snapper. This season, he will contend for All-America honors and is listed among the top 10 linemen in the nation by The Sporting News. With a 3.328 cumulative grade point average in animal science, Graham is a two-time academic all-conference selection and was a second-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-American last year as well as a district honoree. He looks to earn first-team honors this season, keeping alive Nebraska's nine-year streak of at least one first-team academic All-American. Graham is 100 percent after having his right shoulder scoped after spring ball.

1994: Graham worked with three different quarterbacks last year, but only had one bad exchange and for his efforts earned first-team All-Big Eight honors from the league coaches and honorable-mention All-Big Eight from AP. According to kicking coach Dan Young, he may be the best snapper the Huskers have had. While the average snapper gets the ball to the holder in the .72 second range on punts, Graham consistently times between .6 and .7 and between .4 and .5 on PATs. Graham had 79 "pancakes" (knock-down blocks) last year, an average of 6.6 per game. Graham and company led Nebraska to its 11th NCAA rushing title last year, averaging 340.0 yards rushing per game, 36 yards better than second place Air Force. The Huskers, behind a 6-4 1/2 and 295-pound line (on the average), with four returning senior starters, rushed for over 300 yards in eight of 13 games last season and ranked sixth in points scored (36.3), and fifth in total offense (477.8). Meanwhile, the O-line allowed just six sacks (five by the first string) and was called for holding only four times. Graham started at center in the 1995 Orange Bowl as NU defeated Miami 24-17 for the national title. An excellent student with a 3.328 grade point average, Graham earned second-team GTE/CoSIDA All-America honors and his second Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight award.

1993: After earning a letter as a redshirt freshman in 1992, Graham was thrown into a starting role at center when Brenden Stai broke his leg and Ken Mehlin moved from center to right guard. Graham played in all 11 games in 1993, started the last four (plus the 1994 Orange Bowl vs. Florida State) and also served as NU's deep snapper. Graham helped the Huskers rank third nationally in rushing and fifth in scoring with 287.9 yards per game and 38.3 points per game. He had a team season-best 15 "pancakes" (knock-down blocks) in his first start of the year against nationally-ranked Colorado. He had 53 pancakes on the year (4.8 per game) including 40 in the last four regular-season games (10 vs. Oklahoma). Graham earned his first Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight award. Graham was the starting center in the 1994 Orange Bowl against Florida State as Nebraska fell 18-16 to the Seminoles, a game which determined the national champion.

1992: Graham played in every game in 1992, including the Federal Express Orange Bowl against Florida State. He served as a backup center to Jim Scott and Terris Chorney but was NU's No. 1 deep snapper. Graham helped lead a potent Husker offense to its third national rushing title in the past four years, the eighth overall under Osborne, with 328.2 yards per game. The Huskers also ranked second in scoring at 38.8 and 11th in total offense with 438.2 yards per game.

1991: A scholarship athlete, Graham redshirted in his first year.

At Denton HS: An all-district, all-area and honorable-mention all-state center for Coach Jim Bateman at Denton High School, Graham was an All-America selection by the Chicago Tribune. He also played tackle on Denton's goal-line defense. The three-time letterman earned second-team all-district honors as a junior in 1989 and was selected to play in the Texas Coaches All-Star Game which featured 68 of the top seniors in the Lone Star state. The captain of both the football and track teams, Graham competed in the shot put and discus and qualified for the regional meet as a junior and senior. He was an honor student with a 3.8 grade point average.

Personal: The son of David and Stephanie Graham, Aaron was born May 22, 1973, in Las Vegas, N.M. He has a sister Kim and majors in animal sciences with a 3.328 cumulative grade point average. He expects to graduate in May, 1996. In 1993, Graham was a spokesperson for the VIP Speakers Bureau. He participates in the Ventures for Partnership Program, is a DARE volunteer and a 4-H Youth Leadership speaker. He served as an ambassador for the athletic department.

Christian Peter is the lone returning starter on the defensive line as Nebraska lost to graduation defensive tackle Terry Connealy and outside linebackers Dwayne Harris and Donta Jones. However, slip in Christian's brother Jason Peter (6-4, 275) at the other tackle spot, and Jared Tomich and Grant Wistrom at the outside linebacker positions, and you not only have talent, but players with game experience as well. Peter led the team in sacks (7-31) and tackles for loss last season (14-45) and is expected to not only contend for conference honors, but for national and All-America honors as well. He is listed among the top 10 defensive linemen in the nation by Lindy's. He has good speed, and incredible strength as evidenced by his 373 clean, 599 squat and 450-pound bench press. He boasts a 1.72 electronic 10-yard dash time, a 4.17 20-yard pro-agility run and a 36.5-inch vertical jump. His vertical jump is tied for sixth-best on the team and is the best by any Husker defensive lineman all time. A gifted athlete, this year Peter's name was added to the prestigious honors platform as he scored 500 points or better on all six tests. He was also one of five finalists for the 1995 Husker Lifter-of-the-Year Award.

1994: First-year starter Christian Peter quietly made a huge impact for the Huskers in 1994. Although ignored for All-Big Eight first-team honors by the league coaches and the AP, Peter started every game and was second on the team in tackles with 71 (32 solo) from his defensive tackle position. He and Terry Connealy manned the defensive line which helped the Blackshirts rank in the top 10 in all defensive categories, including rush defense (fourth, 79.3 ypg), scoring (second, 12.1 ppg), pass efficiency defense (10th, 96.71 points), and total defense (fourth, 258.8 ypg). Peter led the team in tackles for loss with 14 for 45 yards and also led the team in sacks with seven for 31 yards lost. He is the first defensive tackle to lead the team in those categories since Kenny Walker had 21 tackles for loss and 11 sacks in 1990. He earned second-team All-Big Eight honors by the coaches and honorable-mention All-Big Eight honors from the Associated Press. Peter had 20 tackles in the last two games, two sacks and four tackles for loss with a career-best 11 total tackles vs. Iowa State. In the last seven games of the season, Peter had 53 stops (7.6 per game). He had a career-best five solos (eight total) against No. 16 Kansas State and recorded nine tackles against Oklahoma State and Oklahoma. In the Kickoff Classic playing in front of his hometown friends and family, Peter had seven tackles with 2.5 sacks. In the 1995 Orange Bowl against Miami, Peter recorded two assisted tackles and had one quarterback hurry.

1993: In 1993, Peter served as Terry Connealy's backup at nose tackle after David Noonan moved from nose to defensive tackle to back up Kevin Ramaekers when Billy Wade injured his knee following the regular season. Peter played in all 11 games and recorded seven tackles (three solo). He came on strong at the end of the season after redshirting in 1992 and sitting out in 1991. He was called upon in the Oklahoma game as Connealy and Noonan both left the game with injuries. He responded with a then-career-high four tackles (three solo), including one for a four-yard loss. Peter played in the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl against Florida State and had two tackles (one solo).

1991: Enrolled full time, but sat out the 1991 season.

At Middletown South HS: Peter was an all-state tackle as a junior member of Coach Bob Generelli's 9-0 team in 1989, his only year of organized football. Due to transferring schools as an underclassman, Peter was ineligible his senior year. Christian's brother Jason, attended and played at Middletown South, then attended the Milford Academy his final year.

Personal: Brother Jason is a junior defensive tackle who is expected to start alongside Christian in the place of graduated senior Terry Connealy. Christian and Jason have a younger brother, Damian, who is a sophomore at Notre Dame. The son of Mary and Hubert Peter, Christian and Jason also have a sister, Ashley, seven. Majoring in human development, Christian was born Oct. 5, 1972. He is on schedule to graduate in May, 1996. He has been a volunteer speaker for the SPICE Program in 1994 and at the Lincoln Veteran's Hospital and to Lincoln Youth Church Groups in 1995. Despite the fact that Peter was in Miami to play in the national championship game, he took time off after practice to speak to kids in the Dade County housing projects about staying in school and developing good role models.

9 Tony Veland

Free Safety

Tony Veland, (pronounced VEE-land) will resume his starting position in the secondary at free safety and will contend for conference and All-America honors in 1995. He should be 100 percent this fall giving Nebraska an extremely athletic and experienced secondary. Mike Minter, who Veland replaced last fall, suffered a torn ACL in the second game of the season, but has recovered and will move back to rover, while Eric Stokes, who shared time with Veland at free safety last year, is expected to be the Huskers' starting left cornerback. All-Big Eight corner Tyrone Williams returns to right corner. Veland has had one misfortune after another as he broke his collarbone 10 days prior to the start of the 1992 season in fall camp after emerging from spring ball as the No. 1 QB over Mike Grant. Veland then had an ankle sprain during 1993 spring ball in the heat of competition with Tommie Frazier, then tore the patellar tendon in his right knee in the second game of the 1993 season and missed all of 1994 spring camp. He stayed injury free last year as he started the last 10 games, but was never 100 percent. An incredible athlete, Veland has bests of a 1.52 electronic 10-yard dash time, a 4.52 in the 40 and a 33.5-inch vertical jump. His 10-yard time is tied for fifth best on the team while his 40 is tied for ninth best. His best pro-agility run for 20-yards (3.93) is fourth best on the squad. He also has good size at 6-2, 205. He appears to be fully recovered from his knee injury and to have gained back most his speed as he posted a 1.56 in the 10, a 4.60 in the 40 and a 32-inch vertical jump in testing a year ago.

1994: Converted quarterback Tony Veland saw his first action in the Husker secondary and continued to improve his game both physically and mentally as the season progressed. He missed all of spring drills rehabilitating a knee after tearing his right patellar tendon in the second game of the 1993 season, but studied with the secondary to make the move from quarterback. Unfortunately, the same fate fell on starting free safety Mike Minter last season, when he went down in the second game with a torn ACL in his knee and missed the remainder of the season. Veland took over for Minter, started the last 10 games and recorded 26 tackles (13 solo) with one breakup and three interceptions. The junior from Omaha alternated playing time with sophomore Eric Stokes, who has also battled several injuries in his career. Veland picked off his first interception of his career and had a then team season-long return of 35-yards as he replaced the injured Minter in the Texas Tech game. Veland's second interception of the year came against UCLA in his first career start. He also had three tackles and a breakup in the regionally televised game against No. 13 UCLA. His career high in tackles was four against No. 2 Colorado in Lincoln. Veland's third interception of the season came against Kansas in Lincoln on KU's first offensive play of the game. In the 1995 Orange Bowl against Miami, Veland was third on the team with six tackles, including one for a four-yard loss. Although coaches considered moving Veland back to quarterback during the Huskers' QB injury-laden weeks at midseason, Veland's knee was still not 100 percent. In addition, he was just learning the defensive system and was desperately needed in the secondary to replace Minter.

1993: One game after starting quarterback Tommie Frazier went down with an ankle injury in the season opener, Tony Veland, who was sharing the No. 2 quarterback spot at the time with Brook Berringer, ruptured his right patellar tendon in the Texas Tech game and was lost for the season. In the first two games of the year, Veland rushed eight times for 14 yards and was 6-9 passing for 76 yards with one interception and one TD. He had 15 yards rushing on six carries and a TD and all of his passing stats (6-9-76-1-1) in game No. 1 against North Texas.

1992: Veland became the No. 1 quarterback during spring drills when senior Mike Grant suffered a broken collarbone with about two weeks of practice remaining. However, Veland suffered the same fate when he broke his collarbone prior to the season in a controlled scrimmage on Aug. 25. He missed the first five games, traveled with the team to Missouri on Oct. 24, but did not play. He saw action in four games backing up Frazier and Grant. He played against Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma and Kansas State. He did not have any pass attempts, and rushed four times for one yard, with a long of 14 yards vs. Kansas State. He traveled, but did not play vs. Florida State in the Federal Express Orange Bowl.

1991: A scholarship recruit, he took a redshirt year.

At Benson HS: A second-team all-state quarterback, Veland was a two-way starter for three years for Coach Lonnie Tapp at Omaha Benson. He averaged 12 passes per game, completed 54.2 percent for 78.7 yards per game and threw just two interceptions all season. Veland ran for 700 yards and passed for 700 as a senior. He was the offensive MVP of the 1991 Nebraska Shrine Bowl Game. He also averaged 39 yards per kick as the team's punter. He started on the Bunnies' basketball team which was ranked No. 1 in the state through the regular season. Veland earned nine varsity letters in all as a prepster and was an academic all-state selection in football and basketball. Placed fifth in the Class A 100 meters (11.03) and third in the discus (162-2) at the 1991 state track meet.

Personal: The son of Eva Veland, Tony was born March 11, 1973, in Omaha. He has one brother, Tory, a frosh football player at Missouri Western and one sister, Tiana. Majoring in engineering, Veland is on schedule to graduate in May, 1996. Veland is also active in community events as he was a keynote speaker for the 1992 National Education Week and a volunteer guest speaker at Culler Junior High in 1993. This season he is a volunteer mentor in the VIP Shadowing Program.

Free Safety Tony Veland is one of two returning starters in the Husker secondary and will contend for All-America honors in 1995.

- ♦ 1993 Big Eight Co-Defensive Newcomer-of-the-Year
- ♦ Second-Best Current Husker Position (DB) Mark for Performance Index, 2,541 Points

After earning co-defensive newcomer-of-the-year honors from the Big Eight coaches as a sophomore in 1993, right cornerback Tyrone Williams was a first-team All-Big Eight pick by the league coaches in 1994. Along with free safety Tony Veland, Williams is one of two returning starters in the Husker secondary and will contend for national honors in 1995, including the Jim Thorpe Award. He is listed in preseason annuals as one of the top defensive backs in the nation. Williams was also one of three punt returners for the Huskers last year along with Reggie Baul and Kareem Moss and this season he and Baul will handle the duty. A talented athlete at 6-0, Williams is tied for third on the team in the 10-yard dash with an electronic 1.51. That's just .01 behind rover Mike Minter and just .01 ahead of free safety Tony Veland. Williams is also fourth behind Minter, I-back James Sims and cornerback Leslie Dennis in the 40-yard dash with a 4.45 clocking, giving the Huskers one of their fastest secondaries in history.

Williams, at 6-0, 185, has a 35-inch vertical jump and has the second-best Performance Index for his position with 2,541 points. Williams was one of five finalists for the 1995 Husker Lifter-of-the-Year Award.

1994: Starting right cornerback Tyrone Williams combined with left corner Barron Miles to give the Huskers one of the best, and possibly most underrated, secondary combinations in the nation. Both Miles and Williams were named to the league coaches All-Big Eight first team, while Williams also earned honorable-mention honors from the AP. After earning Big Eight Co-Defensive Newcomer-of-the-Year honors in 1993, Williams started and played in every game except West Virginia and finished as the teams' 11th-leading tackler with 38 stops (31 solo). He was second on the team to Miles with five breakups and second to Miles in interceptions with three. Combined, the two corners broke up 18 passes and picked off eight. Williams' first interception of the season and second of his career came against Pacific (six-yard return). His second pick was against Wyoming on the Cowboys' first drive of the second half, which he returned for a career-best 28 yards. NU converted Williams' pick into a TD to tie the score at 21-all. Williams had four tackles and one breakup to go with his interception against Wyoming. Williams third interception of the season and fourth of his career came on the second play of Kansas' second series (no return), after free safety Tony Veland had picked off one from KU on its first series. Williams tied his career high with six tackles against Colorado (five solo) with one breakup. He also had one breakup against No. 13 UCLA, and a career-best two vs. the No. 16 Kansas State Wildcats, to go with his five tackles. Also a punt returner, Williams had four returns for 42 yards (10.5 per return) with a long of 18 yards vs. Oklahoma State. In the 1995 Orange Bowl vs. Miami, Williams had four tackles, including three solo stops.

1993: As a first-year sophomore, Tyrone Williams quickly made a name for himself in the Husker secondary. When Nebraska returned just one starting defensive back from the 1992 team, Coach Osborne said that was an area of concern. But the newcomer from Palmetto, Fla., stepped in as a starter in just the fourth game of the season at right corner, and started seven of the last eight games at that position, thereby allowing John Reece to move to free safety. Williams was the Big Eight Co-Defensive Newcomer-of-the-Year as chosen by the coaches. He finished with the 10th-best tackle total on the team with 29 (14 solo), had two tackles for four-yards lost, one forced fumble, three recoveries, three breakups and one interception for a 15-yard return (against Kansas State). His three fumble recoveries tied for the Big Eight lead. Against Iowa State, Williams had four tackles and two fumble recoveries, which helped the Huskers to two quick scores and a 14-0 lead. On the opening kickoff, ISU fumbled and Williams recovered. On the Cyclones first play from scrimmage, Williams again recovered a loose ball. Nebraska converted both to scores with less than a minute and a half off the clock. Williams' best tackle days were six against Kansas State and six against two nationally-ranked teams in Colorado and Oklahoma. His lone interception came against Kansas State, when he picked off a Chad May pass at the NU 4 which led to a Byron Bennett field goal at the end of the first half. Williams had two tackles for loss against the Sooners and a fumble caused. In the 1994 Orange Bowl national championship game against Florida State, Williams had career highs with nine tackles (eight solo) and three pass breakups.

1992: Williams sat out the 1992 season.

At Manatee High School: Williams earned three letters in football, four in basketball and two in track at Manatee. He played I-back and defensive back for Coach Joe Kinnan at Class 5A (largest) Manatee High School. In 1991, Williams aided Manatee to a 12-1 record with fellow Husker Tommie Frazier leading the offense at QB. Williams also played against fellow Husker cornerback Leslie Dennis (Dennis attended Southeast High in Bradenton).

Personal: The son of Louise Williams, Tyrone was born May 31, 1973, in Bradenton, Fla. He is majoring in human development and the family. Along with teammate Tommie Frazier in the summer of 1993, Williams helped save a neighbor's house from burning down. Despite the fact that Williams was in Miami to play in the national championship game, he took time off after practice to speak to kids in the Dade County housing projects about staying in school and developing good role models.

Two-year starter Tyrone Williams was a first-team All-Big Eight honoree in 1994 and will contend for national honors in 1995.

7 Reggie Baul

Split End

5-8 ♦ 170 ♦ Sr.
 Letters: Two Bellevue, Neb.
 (Papillion-LaVista HS)

- ♦ 1994 Honorable-Mention All-Big Eight (Coaches)
- ♦ 1994 Big Eight Offensive Player-of-the-Week Nominee (vs. West Virginia)

Reggie Baul (pronounced BALL) gives the Huskers incredible speed at receiver. He returns to split end after starting two games in 1993 and eight last season. He also gives the Huskers returning experience as a punt returner, a position secured by himself, Kareem Moss and Tyrone Williams last season. Baul figures to be a member of the No. 1 return team again this fall. A big-play receiver, Baul will contend for conference honors this year after earning honorable-mention accolades last season. Baul has a 1.57 best outing in the 10-yard dash, has the fifth-best mark in the 40 with a 4.47, the fourth-best mark in the pro-agility run at 3.92 and a 32.5-inch vertical jump. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Reggie has excellent speed and possesses the quickest, surest feet that we've had at the wide receiver position. He has big-play ability." Baul set a spring-game record as the leading receiver, catching four passes for 184 yards, including a spring-game record 80-yard TD from Tommie Frazier.

1994: Baul took over the split end duties in 1994 for graduated senior Corey Dixon and also filled the role of punt return man along with Tyrone Williams and Kareem Moss. Baul played in every game in 1994 and started eight. He was Nebraska's second-leading receiver in terms of yards with 300 on 17 catches, while his reception total tied for third. He averaged 17.7 yards per reception, 25 per game and had three TDs on the year. Three times in 1994, Baul tied his career best with three catches as he had 3-46 in the Kickoff Classic against West Virginia, 3-106 vs. Kansas and 3-49 vs. Iowa State. His 106 yards against Kansas was a career high and a team high for the season, and included a career-long 51-yard TD and a 49-yard reception. The 106 yards were the most for a Nebraska player in one game since Corey Dixon's 6-116 vs. Texas Tech in 1993. His other two TDs included a 12-yard reception in the Kickoff Classic against West Virginia and a 43-yard snag against Missouri. Baul also returned 11 punts for 119 yards with a long of 22 vs. West Virginia in the season opener. Against West Virginia, he returned three punts for 56 yards, including another 20-yarder. For his efforts, Baul earned honorable-mention All-Big Eight honors from the league coaches. In the 1995 Orange Bowl against Miami, Baul started and caught one 7-yard pass--on the second play of Nebraska's seven-play game-winning fourth-quarter drive.

1993: Baul played in all 11 games in 1993 and started against UCLA when the Huskers opened in a spread formation. He had seven receptions on the season for 116 yards (16.6 yards/reception, 10.6 yards/game) and no scores. He had a season-best three catches (for 20 yards) against UCLA, 1-42 yards (season long) against Kansas State, 1-37 vs. North Texas, 1-11 vs. Texas Tech and 1-6 vs. Oklahoma State. After catching at least one pass in five of the first six games, he had none in the last five. Baul also had four kickoff returns for 110 yards (21.3 average), including a 40-yard return against Colorado State. He started the 1994 Orange Bowl and caught a tipped (by Clester Johnson) 34-yard touchdown pass with 5:59 remaining in the second quarter to give the Huskers a 7-3 lead over No. 1 Florida State. Originally a walk-on, Baul earned a scholarship prior to the season in 1993.

1991: Baul sat out the 1991 season.

At Papillion-LaVista HS: Baul helped Papillion-LaVista win the 1990 Class A Championship. Earned All-Nebraska honors by the Omaha World-Herald and Super-State by the Lincoln Journal-Star as a split end with 36 receptions for 812 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Personal: The son of James and Toni Baul, Reggie was born on April 19, 1973. He majors in human development and the family and is expected to graduate in December.

Jr.
Letters: Two
Omaha, Neb.
(Northwest HS)

Benning enters the fall season as Lawrence Phillips' backup at I-back, but with the Huskers' platoon system, will see ample playing time. He will also retain his role as a member of Nebraska's No. 1 kickoff return team, along with Clinton Childs. Benning hopes for a healthy junior season. He missed much of early spring drills in 1994 with a bruised sesmoid bone in his right foot, then had a pulled hamstring during winter conditioning, and sprained an ankle last spring, but enters the fall healthy. A proven talent, Benning has rushed for 690 yards and nine TDs in two years. He averages 5.7 per carry and 31.4 yards per game. He also has 500 yards in kickoff returns and 95 receiving for 1,285 all-purpose yards in 22 games, 58.4 per game. A key special teams member, Benning has five tackles on his resume as well. A talented athlete, Benning has the third-fastest 10-yard dash time on the team (1.51), has run the 40 in 4.63, posts a 34.5-inch vertical jump and a 3.96 in the 20-yard pro-agility run.

1994: Damon Benning served as Phillips' backup at I-back, along with junior Clinton Childs. Benning and Childs alternated by game to determine who was the first in to relieve All-Big Eight selection Phillips in the second and fourth quarters. Benning finished as the team's fourth-leading rusher, playing in all 12 games. He rushed 67 times for 367 yards, lost only nine, and scored five TDs. He averaged 5.5 per carry and 30.6 per game. His best outing was 10 carries for 87 yards against Pacific with a TD. He had two touchdowns against Missouri, one vs. UCLA and one vs. Kansas. His season-long rush was a 23-yard scamper vs. Pacific, while his career best is a 51-yard gain vs. North Texas in 1993. Also Nebraska's kickoff returner with Childs, Benning led the Huskers with 12 returns for 308 yards, including a career-best 58-yarder against Texas Tech when he had three for 90 yards total. Always a big-play threat, Benning also had two kickoff returns for 61 yards vs. UCLA including a long of 37; a 32-yard return vs. Wyoming; two for 51 vs. Iowa State including a 26-yard return; and one for 25 yards vs. Oklahoma to give him five returns of 25 yards or more on the year, eight in his career. Benning also caught five passes for 68 yards in 1994, including a career-best 37-yard gain vs. Kansas and two for 20 yards vs. Missouri. A key special teams player on the punting team, Benning is one of the quickest coverage men downfield. He recorded four tackles on the season and recovered a fourth-quarter fumble against Wyoming which set up the game-clinching TD. He helped NU rank No. 2 in net punting, allowing opponents just 2.9 yards per return, the second lowest in school history. In the 1995 Orange Bowl against Miami, Benning had three carries for 18 yards and returned five kickoffs for 88 yards including a long of 29.

1993: One of three first-year players at I-back, Benning started the Texas Tech and UCLA games when Calvin Jones was out with a knee injury. He finished the season as the Huskers' fourth-leading rusher with 55 carries for 323 yards (sixth-highest NU total for a freshman) and four TDs. His 5.9 average per carry led the top rushers. Playing in 10 games, he averaged 32.3 yards per game with a career-long of 51 yards against North Texas and also had a 45-yard TD run against Texas Tech. Against North Texas, he carried eight times for 82 yards and a score, then rushed for a career-high 127 yards in his first start against Texas Tech (in place of injured starter Calvin Jones) on 19 carries with two touchdowns. His fourth TD was against Iowa State when he had 40 yards on seven carries, his third-highest total. He caught four passes for 27 yards and as a member of the top return team, ran back nine kickoffs for 192 yards, including longs of 57 yards against Colorado State and 40 yards vs. Missouri. Also had one solo tackle. Sprained an ankle in early preparations for the 1994 Orange Bowl, but was able to play at game time. He came off the bench for the injured Calvin Jones in the second quarter and rushed five times for five yards. He returned two kickoffs for 39 yards, including a long of 37 yards.

Nebraska Football

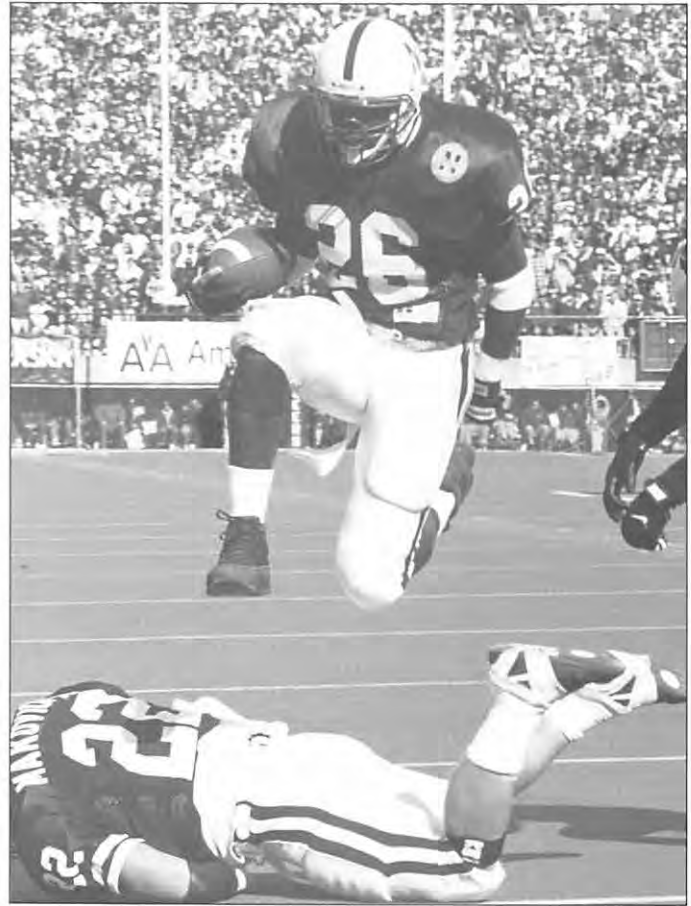

1992: A scholarship athlete, Benning redshirted in 1992.

At Omaha Northwest HS: A quarterback as a junior, Benning switched to I-back in 1991 and was the leading rusher in Nebraska with for Coach Frank Hanel at Omaha Northwest High School. An all-class, all-state selection, he was an honorable-mention All-American and was named captain of the all-metro team after leading Northwest to five wins, following a winless 1990 season. Included in his 1,548 rushing yards and 21 touchdowns his senior year (on 208 attempts) were 358 against Ralston (five TDs) and 272 against state runner-up Omaha Creighton Prep, in a season in which he tied a state record with nine-straight 100-yard games. Benning also averaged 24.1 yards on 14 kickoff returns, including 65- and 80-yard touchdowns, and averaged 15.1 yards on 10 punt returns, including a state-record 98-yard TD. He played in the 1992 Nebraska Shrine Game. He also lettered three times in baseball and once in basketball and earned all-state baseball honors. An honor student, Benning was his senior class president, a member of the National Honor Society and graduated in the top 10 percent of his class. Benning chose Nebraska over Iowa and Wyoming.

Personal: He's the son of Dee and Dr. Don Benning, assistant superintendent of the Omaha Public Schools. Born on March 2, 1974, in Omaha, Benning has three sisters (Vicki, Tracy and Kym) and one brother (Don, Jr.). His sister, Vicki, is a reporter for the Boston Globe. His major is elementary education and he is an active volunteer in the community, serving as a guest speaker in 1993 at Omaha Youth Rap Sessions and at Teachers College Career Night and during National American Education Week in 1994.

Junior Damon Benning has totaled 1,285 all-purpose yards in two years including 690 rushing. He averages 58.4 all-purpose yards per game for NU.

Senior I-back Clinton Childs has rushed for 491 yards in two seasons for the Huskers and in 1995 could be utilized at fullback as well.

Big Eight Rushing by Team in 1994 Compared to Nebraska I-Backs

Clinton Childs is a talented running back who could not only be utilized at I-back this year, but also at fullback. Although Childs had his right knee scoped in February, he was able to participate in spring drills and utilized that time to learn the fullback position. With the departure of Cory Schlesinger, Childs, at 6-0, 215, could help secure fullback, along with senior Jeff Makovicka. He also practiced at I-back last spring as Lawrence Phillips and Damon Benning both missed most of spring camp with injuries. He will again be a member of Nebraska's No. 1 kickoff return team along with Benning. In his two-year career, Childs has been responsible for 743 all-purpose yards. An excellent athlete, Childs bettered nearly all of his test scores within the last year and boasts a 1.56 electronic time in the 10-yard dash, a 4.59 in the 40 and a 36.5-inch vertical jump (sixth best on the team).

1994: Along with Benning, Childs served as a backup I-back in 1994. Childs took turns alternating with Benning by game to determine who would be the first in to sub for sophomore All-Big Eight back Phillips. Childs finished the season as the Huskers' third-leading rusher with 62 carries for 395 yards and five touchdowns. He lost just four yards on the season and averaged 6.4 yards per carry and 32.9 per game. He rushed for over 50 yards in four games: 59 vs. Texas Tech (one 30-yard TD); a career-best 78 vs. UCLA (one eight-yard TD); 64 vs. Pacific (one one-yard TD); and 65 vs. Missouri. His other TDs on the season were against Oklahoma State when he rushed six times for 45 yards and a seven-yard TD and vs. Colorado when his two-yard run gave the Huskers a 17-0 lead just before halftime. He caught five passes for 58 yards, including a career-best 26-yard haul vs. Pacific and had two catches for 22 yards vs. Oklahoma State. He was also NU's second-leading kickoff returner, behind Benning, with nine returns for 190 yards, including a 34-yard return vs. Colorado. His best return day was three for 77 yards vs. Wyoming, when he had returns of 27, 29 and 21 yards, giving him three for more than 25 yards. As a special teams member, Childs also had three tackles. In the 1995 Orange Bowl vs. Miami, Childs carried three times for one net yard, a first down on Nebraska's first scoring drive in the second quarter.

1993: A first-year player for the Huskers, Childs, along with redshirt freshman Benning, true freshman Phillips and sophomore Jeff Makovicka, served as backups to junior Calvin Jones. Playing in five games, Childs carried 18 times for 96 yards with no yardage lost. He averaged 5.3 yards per carry and 19.2 yards per game, with his only touchdown coming against Iowa State. He missed the Oklahoma State and Kansas State games with a sprained left ankle, re-sprained that ankle during Orange Bowl practices in Miami and did not play against Florida State. Had a season-best seven carries for 35 yards in the season opener vs. North Texas; 2-15 yards vs. Texas Tech; 3-15 yards vs. Colorado State; 4-29 yards vs. Missouri; and 2-1 yard against Iowa State. Also caught one pass for a five-yard TD against Colorado State.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Childs sat out the 1992 season.

At Omaha North HS: The leading rusher in Nebraska as a junior in 1990 with 1,428 yards, Childs ran for 1,495 yards as a senior for Coach Herman Colvin at Omaha North High School to finish second behind fellow Husker I-back Damon Benning's 1,548. But Childs still laid claim to at least part of the rushing title as his 186.9-yard average in eight games topped Benning's 176.0 in nine games. Childs began his senior year with a Metro Conference-record 370 yards against Council Bluffs Abraham Lincoln, topping the old record of 367 by former Husker Calvin Jones of Omaha Central. He was a Blue Chip All-American and earned first-team all-state honors. Childs ran for 3,947 yards in four years, just off Jones' state Class A record of 3,965 in three years. Childs did not make recruiting visits other than to Nebraska. Childs was the state wrestling runner-up as a junior at 171 pounds and the gold medal 189-pound winner as a senior.

Personal: The son of Linda Childs, Clinton was born on May 27, 1974. He is majoring in human development and is on track to graduate next summer.

- ♦ 1995 Sporting News Preseason First-Team All-Big Eight
- ♦ 1994 Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Week Nominee vs. West Virginia

Doug Colman enters the fall as Phil Ellis' alternate at Mike linebacker after sharing time at that position with Ellis last season. At 6-3, 240, Colman has good speed with an electronic 1.61 timing in the 10-yard dash and 4.73 in the 40. A strong athlete as well, Colman can clean 290, squat 514 and bench 350.

1994: Colman started the first eight games at Mike linebacker, then gave way to Phil Ellis, with whom he shared time at the position all season. Colman finished as the team's seventh-leading tackler with 51 stops (17 solo), including three for 16-yards lost (two sacks), one fumble caused, one fumble recovered, one pass breakup and four quarterback hurries. In the Kickoff Classic against No. 24 West Virginia, playing in front of family and friends, Colman led the team with a career-high eight tackles (four solo), including one 10-yard sack and one other tackle for loss. He also caused and recovered a fumble and was Nebraska's nominee for Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Week. Colman tied his career high with eight tackles against Wyoming (three solo) and had seven against both Missouri and Colorado. His other sack came against the Kansas Jayhawks. He sprained his left ankle in the Iowa State game and saw limited action in the season finale at Oklahoma, but was able to play in the 1995 Orange Bowl against Miami. In that game, Colman was tied for fourth on the team with five tackles including four solo stops and one tackle for a two-yard loss. His tackle for loss was on fullback James Stewart in the fourth quarter on the first play of its third drive pushing Miami back to its own 2-yard line. The Huskers stopped Miami three and out with Colman responsible for the tackle on second down as well. Nebraska scored two plays later to tie the game.

1993: A backup to Mike Anderson and Daren Williams at middle linebacker, Colman played in every game in 1993 and recorded 11 tackles, including one tackle for a 1-yard loss against Colorado State. He set a season high with five tackles against Missouri. Colman played in the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl but did not have any tackles.

1992: After playing as a true freshman in 1992, Colman redshirted.

1991: One of three true freshmen (with safety Troy Dumas and wingback Abdul Muhammad) to letter for Nebraska in 1991, Colman was a reserve weak-side linebacker behind Mike Anderson, Ed Stewart and Paul Wightman. He was also a member of NU's special teams. Colman played in five games and recorded six total tackles, including three unassisted stops. Four of his tackles came against Colorado State.

At Ocean City HS: An all-state and All-South Jersey linebacker, Colman was named the South Jersey defensive player-of-the-year by the Philadelphia Inquirer and the Atlantic City Press, and a high school All-American by SuperPrep Magazine. He started at both linebacker and fullback, and was honored as the all-county offensive and defensive player-of-the-year while playing for a team coached by his father, Wayne, a former NFL player for Philadelphia and New Orleans. Doug averaged 15 tackles a game (135 total) and intercepted two passes as a senior in 1990. He ran for 1,100 yards and scored 11 touchdowns to lead his conference in rushing, caught 12 passes for 185 yards and returned nine kickoffs for 280 yards to account for nearly 1,500 yards in offense. He also ran a 51.4-second 400 meters in track.

Personal: The son of Wayne and Tonagee Colman, Doug was born June 4, 1973, at Somers Point, N.J. Majoring in secondary education, Colman is on schedule to graduate this spring. He has served as a volunteer speaker for the Ventures in Partnership Program.

◆ 10th-Best All-Time Husker 40-Yard Dash Time, 4.43

Dennis, a redshirt sophomore, enters the fall season listed as the No. 2 left corner behind Eric Stokes. From Bradenton, Fla., Dennis is from the same hometown as NU senior quarterback Tommie Frazier, but attended Southeast High. At Southeast, Dennis played against Manatee, coming up against Frazier, and senior cornerback Tyrone Williams. Dennis has excellent speed with a 1.55 electronic 10-yard dash and a 4.43 in the 40 (third best on team). Although he's one of the smallest players on the team at 5-8, 165, he has a 31.5-inch vertical jump, can squat 410, clean 230 and bench press 275 pounds.

1994: After redshirting in 1993, Dennis played in every game and started the season opener against West Virginia in the Kickoff Classic in place of Tyrone Williams. Williams resumed his starting role for the remainder of the season, but Dennis continued to see extensive playing time. In 12 games, Dennis recorded 16 tackles (nine solo) with three pass breakups and one interception. In his only start, Dennis had two solo tackles and a pass breakup to help the Huskers to their first of 12 wins. He also had two tackles and a breakup against the UCLA Bruins, while his sole interception, which he returned 48 yards, came against the Pacific Tigers. He had a career-high three tackles against Texas Tech and Missouri. In the 1995 Orange Bowl vs. Miami, Dennis played but did not have any tackles.

At Southeast HS: Dennis was named to the Premier List by Prep

Sports Recruiting magazine. A first-team All-Florida defensive back in 1992 for Southeast Coach Paul Maechtle, Dennis was a two-time all-area pick. A two-year starter at cornerback, Dennis had 38 tackles, two interceptions, five breakups and one fumble recovery in 1992, and the last six games filled in for an injured tailback and rushed for 454 yards and five touchdowns. The Seminoles ranked fourth in the state at the end of the season, and in the Class 4A playoffs (second-largest class), were beaten in the opening round by eventual champion Ft. Myers, which was ranked fourth nationally at the time by USA Today. Southeast defeated defending 5A state champion Manatee High School (Frazier's and Williams' high school), 14-9, in the last game of the regular season. A true speedster, Dennis was seeded second in the state 100-meter dash, having defeated former Florida State speedster Tamarick Vanover in the prelims with a 10.4 clocking, but false-started in the finals. He also defeated Vanover in the 200-meter dash as he finished third at the 1992 state meet. A solid student, Dennis posted over a 3.0 GPA (on a 4.0 scale) in high school.

Personal: The son of Eugene and Rosa Dennis, Leslie was born March 21, 1975. He is majoring in industrial engineering.

- ◆ 1995 Football News Preseason First-Team All-Big Eight
- ◆ 1994 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll

Gilman will help fill the void left by departed senior starters Matt Shaw and Eric Alford at tight end. An experienced three-year letterman, Gilman enters fall camp as the No. 1 tight end and the only returnee at that position with experience. A solid blocker and excellent receiver, Gilman helped the Huskers earn their third rushing title in the past four years and caught 17 passes for 196 yards in Nebraska's 1994 championship season. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Mark has really improved his blocking. He's big and strong and has excellent catching ability." Gilman's strength and hard-working attitude was evident last spring as he won the 1995 Husker Lifter-of-the-Year Award. Gilman improved all of his test scores since last fall in both winter and spring tests. His bests include a 1.64 electronic 10-yard dash, a 4.82 40-yard dash, a 4.06 in the 20-yard pro-agility run, and a 32.5-inch vertical jump. In the weight room, Gilman can clean 360, squat 515 and bench press 330 pounds. An outstanding student, Gilman posts a cumulative 3.166 GPA in education.

1994: In just his junior season, Mark Gilman was a valuable factor in the Huskers' undefeated season. A first-team tight end, Gilman alternated with starter Matt Shaw and Eric Alford and started three games (against West Virginia, Oklahoma State, Oklahoma) when NU opened in a two-tight end set. Gilman finished tied for third with Reggie Baul in receptions with 17 for 196 yards and caught one TD (a one-yard score against Missouri). He had a career-high four receptions for 48 yards against Wyoming, a mark which tied for the team lead with Abdul Muhammad, then caught four passes for 46 yards against Colorado, including a nine-yard grab on NU's first TD drive and had 16- and 15-yard catches during the Huskers' 73-yard TD drive which gave Nebraska a 17-0 lead at halftime. Gilman and Alford combined for 31 receptions for 467 yards and five TDs in 1994. Against Colorado, Gilman and Alford caught nine of the 12 passes for 124 of the team's 142 passing yards. Against Iowa State, Gilman caught a career-best 48-yard pass. In the 1995 Orange Bowl vs. Miami, Gilman caught one pass, a 19-yard TD from Brook Berringer to put the Huskers on the board with 7:54 remaining in the second quarter. The score brought the Huskers within a 10-7 deficit against the Hurricanes. Gilman was named to the Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll.

1993: Gilman played in five regular-season games plus the 1994 Orange Bowl. His first career reception and lone catch on the year was a 10-yard snag against Missouri.

1992: Gilman played in six games in 1992 at tight end, but did not have any receptions. Although he traveled to the Orange Bowl with the team, he did not play against Florida State. He competed for the track team in the spring of 1993 and placed ninth in the shot put at the Big Eight Indoor Championships with a 50-1 1/4 mark. His personal best in the shot was 51-10 at the Nebraska Open, good for fourth place. He did not compete during the outdoor season.

1991: A scholarship athlete, Gilman redshirted his first year.

At Flathead HS: An all-state quarterback for Coach Bob Raeth as a senior, Gilman was recruited as a tight end by Nebraska. Gilman set a Flathead High single-season passing record with 1,596 yards and was also a receiver and the team's punter for three years. For his efforts, he was a two-time second-team all-state selection. A fine all-around athlete earning a school-record 11 varsity letters as a prep, he was also a three-time all-state performer in basketball, averaging better than 20 points per game his last two seasons and was named the large class state tournament MVP as a senior as his team placed second. In track, Gilman threw the shot put 60-5 1/2 and the discus 186-2 feet and finished second in both events at the 1991 state meet. One of only five Montana preps in history to better 60 feet in the shot put.

Personal: The son of Thomas and Beverly Gilman, Mark majors in education, posts a 3.166 cumulative grade point average and is on track to graduate after the spring semester. He has been a Friendship Home Footsteps volunteer and a volunteer speaker at the 1993 Omaha Youth Rap Session. He was born on July 5, 1972.

Split end Brendan Holbein (pronounced HOLE-bine) is one of the toughest perimeter blockers in the Husker receiving corps and has excellent hands as well. Holbein will back up starter Reggie Baul at split end and will see ample playing time. He boasts excellent speed with the fifth-fastest 10-yard dash time on the team (1.52 electronic). He has run the 40-yard dash in 4.70 and has a 33.5-inch vertical jump. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Brendan has great strength and tenacity for a receiver. He can play both split end and wingback. He has become a very valuable perimeter blocker, has good speed and is sure-handed."

1994: Holbein played in all 12 games last season and started five (vs. UCLA, Pacific, Oklahoma State, Kansas and Iowa State). Holbein caught nine passes for 88 yards in 1994, including two for touchdowns. His first career score came in the fourth quarter of the UCLA game (his first career start) when he scored on a nine-yard catch from Tommie Frazier. In the game against the No. 13 Bruins, Holbein also threw several key blocks including one which allowed wingback Abdul Muhammad to gain 30 yards on a reverse. Holbein caught two passes for 14 yards in the game. His second TD was a 30-yard score vs. Missouri. He also had two catches (for 12 yards) vs. Kansas. In the 1995 national championship game against Miami in the Orange Bowl, Holbein caught a seven-yard pass in the third quarter from Brook Berringer.

1993: Holbein played in four regular-season games and caught one pass for 18 yards against Missouri. He also played against North Texas, Colorado State and Iowa State.

At Cozad HS: At Cozad, Holbein was a teammate of fellow Huskers Chris Dishman, Matt Hunting and Casey Macken. There he played running back and cornerback for Coach Gene Hunting and helped lead the Haymakers to the Class B state title in 1991. As a junior, Holbein rushed for 1,648 yards and 22 touchdowns. He bettered that in 1991 with 2,740 rushing and 38 TDs, averaging 10.6 yards per carry. His senior rushing total was the best for all classes in a single season. He was awarded the Bobby Dodd Award from the Touchdown Club of Atlanta for being selected the top running back in Nebraska. A two-time all-state athlete, he was also named the honorary captain on The Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska team and was that paper's offensive player-of-the-year. He also intercepted four passes and recovered three fumbles as a senior. He played in the 1992 Nebraska Shrine Game. Holbein earned 12 letters, four each in football, basketball and track. He turned down a scholarship at Iowa State in order to walk on at Nebraska.

Personal: The son of Dr. Oliver Holbein and DeAnn Holbein, Brendan was born on Nov. 28, 1973. He is a human development major who helps his father at the veterinary clinic in Cozad in the summers. He has served as a volunteer speaker for the Ventures in Partnership program and was a panelist for Catholic Social Services.

Junior Brendan Holbein will see valuable playing time at split end in 1995.

- ◆ Holds School Position Records in the Squat (489 pounds) and in the Clean (307 pounds)

Johnson enters fall camp as the Huskers' No. 1 wingback, moving up one notch on the depth chart with the departure of 1994 Husker senior Abdul Muhammad. A former quarterback, Johnson has great field sense and good size (5-11, 210), speed (1.58 10-yard dash, 4.62 in the 40) and a 33.5-inch vertical jump.

1994: Johnson served as the Huskers' alternate at wingback with starter Abdul Muhammad. He played in every game and started two (West Virginia and UCLA). He caught four passes for 93 yards, two of which went for TDs. His first reception and TD of the year was a 15-yard snag against Pacific. He followed that with a 2-14 day against Wyoming, then caught a career-long 64-yard TD against Kansas which gave the Huskers a 38-10 lead just before halftime. When he first came to Nebraska, he practiced as a quarterback in the fall of 1991 during his redshirt year, switched in the spring of 1992 to cornerback, then switched to his current position (wingback) in the fall of 1992. Although he never played a down at Nebraska as QB, when Tommie Frazier went out with a blood clot, and Brook Berringer's situation was questionable, Johnson practiced approximately 10-15 snaps at quarterback. He attended QB meetings as well as those for the receivers for approximately two weeks (prior to Kansas State and Missouri games) until Berringer's situation improved. In the 1995 Federal Express Orange Bowl against No. 3 Miami, Johnson played but did not record any receptions.

1993: Johnson made the traveling squad and with his size, speed, blocking prowess and improved hands, worked his way up the depth chart. He played in all 11 games as Muhammad's backup and caught eight passes (fifth on the team) for 96 yards and one TD. He averaged 12.0 yards per reception and 8.7 per game and had one carry for a two-yard gain. He caught two passes in the opener vs. North Texas for 28 yards; one against Texas Tech for an 18-yard gain; had 2-12 vs. Colorado State; 2-24 vs. Missouri with a seven-yard touchdown; and one-14 vs. Kansas. He also had one rush for a two-yard gain against Oklahoma State. Prior to the bowl trip, he sprained his ankle in a pickup basketball game the first week of December, but was able to return to action in time for the Federal Express Orange Bowl against Florida State. Johnson caught three passes for 30 yards from Tommie Frazier in the championship game and tipped a 34-yard pass into the hands of teammate Reggie Baul who scored to give NU a 7-3 lead in the second quarter.

1992: As a redshirted freshman, Johnson played in four regular-season games as a reserve wingback. Although he did not have any receptions, Johnson had one solo tackle.

1991: A scholarship recruit, Johnson redshirted his first year at NU.

At Bellevue West HS: An all-state quarterback, Johnson threw for 3,757 yards in three years while rushing for 712 yards and scoring 36 TDs. He was the Lincoln Journal-Star and Omaha World-Herald Prep Athlete-of-the-Year, a two-time all-stater and the Gatorade Nebraska Player-of-the-Year as a senior and earned SuperPrep Magazine All-America honors. He also played linebacker in high school and was a teammate of NU basketball standout Erick Strickland. Lettered eight times total in football, wrestling and track. He won the Gold Medal at the state track meet in the 300-meter hurdles and finished second in the 110-meter high hurdles as a junior, then reversed those results as a senior by winning the all-class gold in the 110 hurdles with a time of 14.41 and finishing second in the 300 hurdles in 38.23 which ranked as the seventh-fastest time in Nebraska prep history. In wrestling, Johnson was the 1991 Class A 189-pound runner-up as a senior.

Personal: On Feb. 18, 1973, Johnson was born in Memphis, Tenn. His guardians are Ontee and Ellen Biggs. He has two brothers, Sylvio Johnson and Daryl Morris. A sociology major, Clester is slated to graduate in December. He is an active volunteer with the Omaha Youth Rap Sessions and the Teammates programs.

- ◆ Eighth-Best All-Time Husker Pro-Agility Run, 3.90 Seconds
- ◆ Holds All-Time Husker Position Record for 10-Yard Dash Points, 754 Points, and Pro-Agility run, 3.90 Seconds

Makovicka (pronounced MACK-oh-vick-uh) heads into his final year as the heir apparent to graduated senior Cory Schlesinger at fullback. A versatile athlete, Makovicka played both I-back and fullback in 1992 and 1993, but concentrated solely at fullback in 1994. Strong at 5-10, 215, Makovicka posted an electronic 1.52 in the 10-yard dash in March, .06 better than his previous best and the fifth-best mark on the squad. He also improved his vertical jump to 34.5 and cut his 40-yard dash time to 4.6. His 3.90 in the 20-yard pro-agility run is the all-time best for a fullback and ranks as the eighth best all time for a Husker. His 2,914 Performance Index is a NU record for a fullback and the fourth best all time. He has 531 career rushing yards with just one yard lost and a 6.6 average per carry. He and his brother Joel, a redshirt freshman fullback on the team, played eight-man football in high school at East Butler.

1994: After splitting time between I-back and fullback in 1993, Makovicka concentrated on fullback in 1994 and although he served as Cory Schlesinger's backup, he was a valuable factor in Nebraska's success. The junior walk-on played in every game and rushed 47 times for 321 yards. He averaged 6.8 yards per carry and 26.8 per game, scored two touchdowns and was never tagged for a loss. He also caught one pass (vs. Oklahoma State) for a five-yard gain. Makovicka carried three times for a season-high 59 yards vs. Pacific, including a career-long 50-yard run. He rushed for over 50 yards two other times on the season, 7-50 vs. UCLA and 7-56 and a TD vs. Kansas State. Against the No. 16 KSU Wildcats, all of Makovicka's 56 yards came in the fourth quarter. His 15-yard TD gave Nebraska a 14-6 lead in the 17-6 victory which saw walk-on Matt Turman start at quarterback. On the season, he and his counterpart, Schlesinger, combined to rush for 777 yards on 110 carries, an average of 7.1 yards per carry with six touchdowns and just three yards lost. Their combined total was just 104 yards short of Tom Rathman's fullback record of 881 yards in 1985. A special teams member, Makovicka had three tackles. He also had one kickoff return against Missouri for 10 yards. In the 1995 Orange Bowl against Miami, Makovicka played but did not have any carries.

1993: Makovicka played in all 11 games and had 22 carries for 165 yards and three TDs for a 7.5 average per carry and 15 yards per game. He also caught one pass for four yards and had two tackles as a member of Husker special teams. He had a career-long 30-yard TD vs. Texas Tech; and a career-high 7-62 vs. Colorado State with a 22-yard TD. He also scored a TD vs. Missouri. He caught one pass for a four-yard gain against Oklahoma and had two solo tackles on special teams including one for a 5-yard loss. In the 1994 Orange Bowl against Florida State, Makovicka carried twice for seven yards.

1992: A reserve I-back, Makovicka played in seven games as a redshirt freshman and traveled to the Federal Express Orange Bowl but did not play against Florida State. On the season, he carried the ball 11 times for 45 net yards, losing just one yard for a 4.1 average per play.

1991: A walk-on, Makovicka redshirted his first year as a Husker.

At East Butler HS: An I-back and linebacker for the 1989 and 1990 D-1 state championship teams, Makovicka rushed for 1,850 yards in 1989 and amassed 4,000 yards in his four-year career. He was a two-year all-state player, set three state playoff records, broke two Eight-Man All-Star Game records and rushed for 1,000-plus yards in two different seasons.

Personal: Born in Rochester, Minn., on Sept. 24, 1972, Jeff is the son of John and Connie Makovicka. Brother Joel is a redshirt freshman for the Huskers this fall. Jeff majors in health, physical education and recreation and is expected to graduate in December, 1996. He was a volunteer speaker for the National American Education Week and the Omaha Youth Rap Session in 1993 and 1994 and with the Golden Key Best of America program in 1993.

- ♦ 1995 Street & Smith's Preseason Honorable-Mention All-American
- ♦ Tied for Fifth-Best All-Time Husker 40-Yard Dash Time, 4.41

While much ado was made over the quarterback situation at Nebraska and the loss of starting signal caller Tommie Frazier last season, Husker coaches lamented the loss of the secondary "quarterback," free safety Mike Minter. After starting the first two games at free safety in 1994, Minter tore his left ACL in the Texas Tech game and missed the last 10 of the season after having reconstructive surgery. He remained very much a part of the Huskers' success as he took it upon himself to be a "coach" of the newcomers forced into his role in the secondary, and in general, assisted the entire defensive units from the sidelines, both during practice and games. He had a diagnostic scope after spring ball in April, but the arthroscopic surgery showed no new problems. Minter is one of the fastest players on the team with a 1.50 best in the 10-yard dash (second on the team to James Sims' 1.46) and a team-best 4.41 in the 40 (fifth best all time). He already has his times back down to 1.60 and 4.55, respectively, when tested in March and was a finalist for the Husker Lifter-of-the-Year Award. Minter was able to practice last spring, moving back to rover, where he played behind Toby Wright in 1993. Combined with returning starters Tony Veland at free safety (1.52) Tyrone Williams at cornerback (1.51) and projected starting left corner Eric Stokes (1.56), the Huskers boast one of the fastest secondaries in NU history and in the country. Minter, at 5-10, 175, has the third-best vertical jump on the team at 38 inches. Minter is sure to contend for conference honors and his name will be brought up among the nation's best defensive backs in the next two years. Also gifted in the classroom, Minter majors in mechanical engineering.

1994: After moving to free safety prior to the 1994 season, Minter started the first two games and had two tackles and a breakup against West Virginia, then a career-high five tackles and a tackle for loss against Texas Tech, before he tore the ACL in his left knee in the third quarter, and was lost for the remainder of the season. He had reconstructive surgery on Sept. 23 and did not play in the Orange Bowl.

1993: As a redshirt freshman, Minter played in every game, backing up senior starter Toby Wright at rover. He had 23 tackles, one for two-yards lost, two fumbles caused, one recovered and one quarterback hurry. In the fourth quarter against Oklahoma after NU's go-ahead touchdown, Minter caused a fumble on the ensuing kickoff, which NU's David Seizys recovered. One play later, Calvin Jones scored to give the Huskers a comfortable 21-7 lead. He also recovered a fumble against his home-state Sooners and had three tackles. He had a then-career-high four tackles, three times in 1993, against North Texas, Colorado State and Oklahoma State. Against Florida State in the Orange Bowl, Minter had one tackle.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Minter redshirted in 1992.

At Lawton HS: A two-way player for Coach Derald Ahlschlager, Minter led Lawton to a 7-5 record and the second round of the state playoffs. As an all-state running back, he led the state's largest class in rushing in 1991 with 1,589 yards and 21 touchdowns, while averaging 8.5 yards per carry, but Ahlschlager described him as one of the hardest hitters he's ever coached on defense. Minter, who averaged 21 points per game in basketball, was one of three Husker recruits out of the Sooner state in 1992—after NU had signed just two in its history, the late Victor Stachmus of McAlester in 1988 and 1992 Outland Trophy winner Will Shields in 1989 (Lawton HS), who is now a starter for Kansas City. A National Honor Society student, Minter chose NU over Arkansas, Baylor, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and TCU.

Personal: The son of Florida Martin, Mike was born on Jan. 15, 1974, in Cleveland, Ohio. He is majoring in mechanical engineering. Despite the fact that Minter was in Miami to play in the national championship game, the last two years, Minter and teammates took time to speak to kids in the Dade County housing projects about staying in school and developing good role models.

◆ Holds Third-Best Current Position Mark (DB) in Performance Index, 2,498 points

Stokes has been hampered in his brief career as a Husker by numerous injuries, but enters the fall campaign healthy and ready to take over the starting left cornerback duties for departed graduate Barron Miles after playing every game at free safety in 1994. In 1993, he missed most of spring drills with a hamstring pull. In the fall he missed one game with a knee strain, had sore ribs following the Missouri game, then began having trouble with his hip. He missed the entire spring camp again in 1994, but had successful graft surgery on his pelvic bone, which slowed his fall progress somewhat, but he practiced relatively injury free last spring. Stokes, at 5-11, 180, has excellent speed (1.56 electronic 10-yard dash) and posted the ninth-best 40-yard dash mark last spring at 4.52. He also has a 37.5-inch vertical jump, fourth best on the team. He holds the third-best current position mark for defensive backs in the Performance Index with 2,498 points.

1994: After being plagued by injuries the past two years, Stokes had a relatively injury-free season in 1994. After free safety Mike Minter was lost for the season in game two with a knee injury, Stokes' playing time increased as he moved from corner and he and junior Tony Veland filled the gap at free safety. Stokes finished as the team's 12th-leading tackler with 36 tackles (12 solo). He also had two pass breakups, one vs. UCLA and one vs. Pacific. His career-best day was a five-tackle outing against UCLA, while four times he recorded four tackles. In the 1995 Federal Express Orange Bowl, Stokes split time with Veland at free safety and had one unassisted tackle in the 24-17 win over Miami.

1993: A redshirt freshman, Stokes played in every game except the Colorado State contest when he was sidelined with a knee injury. He completed his first season with nine tackles (six solo). He didn't waste any time putting his name in the NCAA statistics as he picked off a Mitch Maher pass in Nebraska's season opener against North Texas and returned it 34 yards to the Nebraska 49-yard line in the fourth quarter. Nebraska converted the turnover into a score. He had a season-high two tackles three times in 1993, against North Texas, Kansas State and Missouri. His lone breakup of the season was against Texas Tech. He was injured and did not play in the Orange Bowl.

1992: A scholarship recruit, he sat out the year as a redshirt.

At Lincoln East HS: A two-time all-state team captain for Coach Lee Zentic at Lincoln East High School, Stokes was an all-state player in the secondary for two years and earned Lincoln Journal-Star Super-State honors as a senior in 1991. Also a standout running back for the Spartans, he holds school rushing records for a single season (1,203) and a career (2,309). A preseason SuperPrep All-American, Stokes showed versatility as he played I-back, wingback, free safety, corner and strong safety. He played in the 1992 Nebraska Shrine Game. He was one of two hometown recruits in the 1992 Husker recruiting class, along with linebacker Jon Hesse of Lincoln Southeast. Also played with Husker sophomore Jon Zatechka and former standout Rob Zatechka. Stokes earned a total of seven letters at East, including three in football and two each in basketball and track.

Personal: The son of Leroy and Ann Stokes, Eric was born Dec. 18, 1973, in Hebron, Neb. He has one sister, Kim. A sociology major, Stokes is a volunteer speaker for the VIP Outreach Program, for the Ventures in Partnership Program and is a mentor for the VIP Shadowing Program. This summer, Stokes, Brook Berringer and Aaron Graham served as Husker Ambassadors for the athletic department.

- ♦ 1994 GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-District VII
- ♦ 1994 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll
- ♦ Holds All-Time Husker Position (LB) Record for Vertical Jump, 37.5 Inches

Ryan Terwilliger is the leading candidate for the starting Will linebacker position after All-American and Butkus finalist Ed Stewart graduated. With excellent speed for his size (6-5, 220), Terwilliger has a 1.60 electronic 10-yard dash time and a 4.71 in the 40. Terwilliger is tied for the fourth-best vertical jump on the team at 37.5 inches, an all-time position record for linebackers at Nebraska. An excellent student, Terwilliger posts a cumulative 3.184 grade point average in secondary education and will contend for academic All-America honors in 1995.

1994: A member of the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-District VII team, Terwilliger was an important contributor to the 1994 team on the field as well. He served as the backup to Butkus finalist and consensus All-American Ed Stewart at Will linebacker. Playing in every game, Terwilliger recorded 19 tackles, had three tackles for 14-yards lost, including two sacks for eight-yards lost and two quarterback hurries. He had a career-high seven tackles against Kansas (second best on the team) and five times had two tackles in a game. His sacks came in the first two contests of the season, a two-yard stop against West Virginia and a six-yard sack against Texas Tech. His only tackle in the Kansas State game was a big one as he pegged J.J. Smith for a six-yard loss on a short pass in the third quarter. K-State subsequently punted. In the 1995 Orange Bowl vs. Miami, Terwilliger saw extensive playing time and recorded one assisted tackle. Terwilliger was named to the 1994 Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll.

1993: Terwilliger played in six games as a reserve weak-side linebacker behind Ed Stewart and Troy Branch. He made two tackles, both in the season opener against North Texas.

At Grant HS: Playing for Grant High School (formerly called Perkins County) in Class C-1 (Nebraska's third-largest class), Terwilliger earned all-class, all-state honors in 1991 as a defensive end/outside linebacker, and was named the C-1 defensive player-of-the-year in 1991. As a junior in 1990, he was C-1 all-state and second-team all-class all-state as a tight end. On offense, Terwilliger split time between tight end and running back, and in his last two years, rushed for 1,794 yards, caught 27 passes for 682 yards and scored 40 touchdowns. On defense, he had 133 tackles as a junior and senior, despite an injury-plagued senior year. He played in the 1992 Nebraska Shrine Game. He played his high school football for his father, Coach Marlin Terwilliger, and was also a standout on Grant's basketball team. He was a member of the National Honor Society.

Personal: The son of Marlin and Barbara Terwilliger, Ryan was born on May 31, 1973. He is a secondary education major and posts a 3.184 cumulative grade point average. Terwilliger was a keynote speaker at the Grant National Championship Celebration last winter.

◆ Holds Husker Position (OLB) Record for Pro-Agility Run, 4.01 Seconds and for Performance Index, 2,666 Points

Tomich (pronounced TOM-ich) will take over at left outside linebacker for graduated senior Dwayne Harris. He saw extensive playing time at that position last year and as one of the top four outside linebackers, earned his first letter and a Blackshirt. At 6-2, 250, Tomich is an excellent athlete with a 1.62 electronic 10-yard dash time, a 4.83 in the 40 and a 34-inch vertical jump. He can bench press 400, squat 580 and clean 385 pounds. He set a new Performance Index record for outside linebackers last spring with a 2,663 point total and was a finalist for the Husker Lifter-of-the-Year Award. In fact, this year Tomich's name was added to the prestigious honors platform as he scored 500 points or better on all six tests. Tomich had his right knee scoped in June, but should be 100 percent by fall. He is one of three former walk-on players slated to be starters for the Huskers this fall along with Jeff Makovicka at fullback and Reggie Baul and split end.

1994: In his first year playing for Nebraska, Tomich made his presence known. He played in every game and was considered a first-team outside linebacker as he alternated playing time with Harris on the left side. The explosive 6-2, 250-pound sophomore finished with 23 tackles on the season (12 solo), had four tackles for 15-yards lost, including one seven-yard sack in the season opener vs. West Virginia. He also had 12 quarterback hurries and caused one interception against Oklahoma State. His best outing was a five-tackle day in the Kickoff Classic (three solo). Tomich had a tackle for loss in each of the first three games and two (for five-yards lost) against No. 13 UCLA. Originally a walk-on, Tomich earned a scholarship prior to the 1994 season. In the 1995 Orange Bowl vs. Miami, Tomich saw extensive playing time at outside linebacker and recorded one assisted tackle.

1993: Redshirted.

1992: Sat out the 1992 season.

At Lake Central HS: Tomich played defensive end for Coach Elmer Britton at Lake Central and earned all-state honors his senior year.

Personal: The son of James and Cheryl Tomich, Jared was born April 24, 1974. Tomich is majoring in communication studies.

Tomich is a hard hitter who will start at left outside linebacker for NU in '95.

- ◆ 1995 Lindy's Preseason First-Team All-Big Eight
- ◆ 1995 Lindy's Preseason No. 12 Outside Linebacker in the Nation
- ◆ 1995 Sporting News Preseason Second-Team All-Big Eight
- ◆ 1994 Big Eight Defensive Newcomer-of-the-Year (Coaches)

After playing a vital role as a true freshman in 1994 for the national championship Huskers, Wistrom is ready to take over for graduated senior Donta Jones at right outside linebacker. Outside linebacker Coach Tony Samuel said that Wistrom is an intelligent player who has a great feel for the game. That coupled with his athletic talent not only enabled him to be a key contributor last year, but also to earn Big Eight Defensive Newcomer-of-the-Year honors from the league coaches. An excellent student, Wistrom posts a cumulative 3.607 GPA in pre-pharmacy in his first two semesters of college.

1994: A true freshman, Grant Wistrom had an outstanding year for Nebraska and was an impact player for the Husker Blackshirts which ranked in the top 10 nationally in every defensive category. At 6-5, 230, Wistrom played in every game and finished 13th on the team in tackles with 36 stops (14 solo) and had 6.5 tackles for 55-yards lost, including 4.5 sacks for 49-yards lost. He also had 11 quarterback hurries alternating with starter Donta Jones at the right outside linebacker position. On Wistrom's ability to be a major contributor as a true freshman, Coach Osborne said Wistrom played like a senior even in his first year and for his efforts, was named the Big Eight Defensive Newcomer-of-the-Year by the league coaches. Wistrom had a season-best six tackles against Kansas with an eight-yard sack and twice had five tackles in a game, vs. Pacific and Missouri. He had two tackles for 24-yards lost vs. No. 16 Kansas State and one and a half sacks for 17-yards lost in the season opener vs. West Virginia plus another tackle for loss against the Mountaineers with two quarterback hurries. Wistrom and rover Octavious McFarlin were the only true scholarship freshmen playing for Nebraska last season. In the 1995 Orange Bowl against Miami, Wistrom saw extensive playing time at right outside linebacker and recorded three tackles (two solo), including an incredible hit on Jammi German which stopped a swing pass for just a two-yard gain.

At Webb City HS: A USA Today, Blue Chip and SuperPrep All-American, Wistrom was named to the Schutt Top 100 high school football All-America Team by Scholastic Coach and was considered the top prep recruit out of Missouri in 1994 as he made 122 tackles with eight sacks, caused nine fumbles, made six recoveries and blocked one punt as a senior. As a tight end, he caught 30 passes for 527 yards and five touchdowns and ran the ball 11 times for 115 yards and three TDs in 1993. SuperPrep rated Wistrom as the 12th-best defensive lineman available in 1994 and as the defensive player-of-the-year in the Midlands region. Wistrom helped lead Webb City to two state championships his junior and senior seasons in the state's second-largest Class (4A) playing for Coach Kurt Thompson. An excellent student, Wistrom carried a 3.95 GPA, scored a 28 on the ACT, was president of the National Honor Society, a member of the High Step program, earned academic all-state, was co-president of the FCA, was an ESPN Scholar-Athlete and an honors graduate. He also ran track and played center for his basketball team. Wistrom chose Nebraska over Michigan, Stanford, Miami and Oklahoma.

Personal: The son of Ron and Kathy Wistrom, Grant was born on July 3, 1976. He majors in pre-pharmacy and posts a 3.607 cumulative grade point average. He is an active volunteer speaker and last spring spoke at various local church groups, at the Lincoln Veteran's Hospital, at Lincoln General Hospital and served as a Kids Club Volunteer. He also had an internship at St. Elizabeth's Hospital Pharmacy Department.

47 Matt Aden

Will Linebacker
6-2 ♦ 215 ♦ Soph.
Omaha, Neb.
(Northwest HS)

- ◆ Holds Husker Position (LB) Record for 40-Yard Dash, 4.62 Seconds, Pro-Agility Run, 3.98 Seconds and Performance Index with 2,512 points

Matt Aden moved from Sam linebacker to linebacker last spring and enters the fall as a backup to Ryan Terwilliger at the Will position. Hoping for an injury-free season in 1995, Aden injured his right knee in the 1993 Nebraska Shrine Bowl game and had to have arthroscopic surgery in August, 1993. Then on the first day of practice in the spring of 1994, he suffered a lacerated liver and missed all of spring drills. A talented athlete, Aden had a solid spring camp and holds the Husker linebacker position records for the 40-yard dash, 4.62 seconds, pro-agility run, 3.98 seconds and the Performance Index with 2,512 points.

1994: Aden played in four games as a rover before moving to Sam linebacker and recorded four tackles, including one solo stop.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Aden redshirted his first season due to a knee injury.

At Omaha Northwest HS: Aden only played one year of high school football but earned All-America honorable-mention honors as a defensive back. He played free safety and wide receiver for Omaha Northwest and Coach Frank Hanel. Aden caught 24 passes for 693 yards and nine touchdowns in his first year playing football. He also rushed for two TDs (on nine carries) and had one 98-yard kickoff return for a score. On defense he recorded 78 tackles (44 solo) with five interceptions, five breakups and two fumbles caused. He set school records in season reception yards (693), longest kickoff return (98) and reception yards in a game (154). Aden earned first-team All-Nebraska honors by the Omaha World-Herald (OWH) and first-team Super-State by the Lincoln Journal-Star (LJS) at defensive back. He was also named to the OWH all-metro team as a wide receiver. Played for the North in the Nebraska Shrine Game. An honor roll student every semester in high school, Aden was named to the LJS Academic All-State team and was a senior class officer. Also a three-year starter for the Huskies' basketball team and four-year letterman in baseball.

Personal: The son of Harlan and Diane Aden, Matt was born Nov. 23, 1974. Aden is a communications studies major. He has been a volunteer at the Omaha Youth Rap Sessions.

48 Dave Alderman

Free Safety
5-10 ♦ 180 ♦ Jr.
Omaha, Neb.
(North HS)

Entering his junior season, Alderman moved from rover to free safety and is expected to backup Tony Veland, Tray Crayton and Dennis Bailey after missing all of spring drills with a pulled quadricep. A good athlete, Alderman posts the team's sixth-best pro-agility run with an electronic 3.94 in 20 yards and has a 1.56 10-yard dash and a 4.64 40.

1994: Alderman played in three games at rover but had no tackles.

1993: Played in four games but had no tackles.

1992: Redshirted in his first year at Nebraska and made the Dean's List in the college of engineering and technology. Switched from receiver to defensive back in the spring.

At Omaha North HS: Was a wide receiver and played outside linebacker for Coach Herman Colvin at Omaha North where he was a teammate of Clinton Childs, a junior running back for the Huskers. Had five receptions for 129 yards and two touchdowns in his career, caught four passes for 121 yards and two touchdowns in his first and only game of his senior season before it was cut short by an injury. Earned three all-class gold medals in track events. He earned academic all-state honors in 1990 and 1991 and was among the top 10 students in his class and a National Honor Society member.

Personal: Born Sept. 10, 1974, Dave is the son of Gordon and Mary Alderman and has two sisters, Laura and Tracy. He majors in electrical engineering and posts a 3.335 grade point average.

27 Jacques Allen

Wingback
6-2 ♦ 200 ♦ Sr.
Kansas City, Mo.
(Raytown HS)

Allen is a reserve wingback for the Huskers. He majors in human development and is on schedule to graduate in May, 1996. Allen has been a volunteer with the Omaha Youth Rap Sessions and participated in the 1993 and 1994 "School is Cool" Jam.

Nebraska Football

1994: Allen played in four games at wingback but did not have any receptions.

1993: Allen played in one game in his sophomore season, but did not have any catches.

1991: Allen redshirted in his first year at Nebraska.

At Raytown HS: Allen graduated from Raytown High School in Kansas City, Mo., where he played wide receiver and free safety. He hauled in 73 passes for 1,350 yards and a school-record 27 TDs. He earned second-team all-state honors as a senior. Also lettered twice in basketball and baseball.

Personal: The son of Gerry and Gloria Allen, Jacques was born on Nov. 29, 1973. He majors in human development.

70 Eric Anderson

Offensive Tackle
6-4 ♦ 290 ♦ Soph.
Letters: One
Lincoln, Neb.
(Southeast HS)

Anderson is expected to take over for 1994 Outland Trophy winner and consensus All-American Zach Wiegert at right tackle. He is one of four new starters on the Nebraska line, but gained valuable experience in 1994, playing in every game.

1994: Anderson missed most of spring camp with a stress fracture in his ankle and had a screw placed in the ankle to speed up the healing. He played in every game including the 1995 FedEx Orange Bowl as a backup to Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert and Brady Caskey at right tackle and helped lead the Huskers to their 11th NCAA rushing title, averaging 340.0 yards per game. Anderson was also a member of the PAT and field goal teams.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Anderson redshirted his first year at Nebraska.

At Lincoln Southeast HS: Anderson played offensive and defensive tackle for 1992 state champion Lincoln Southeast and Coach Chuck Mizerski. A USA Today first-team Blue Chip and SuperPrep All-American, Anderson was a two-year all-state pick and was Super-State and All-Nebraska in 1992 by the Lincoln Journal-Star and the Omaha World-Herald as a defensive lineman. He was also the LJS All-Class Defensive Player-of-the-Year and the OWH honorary defensive captain. Anderson was a three-year starter while Southeast posted a 25-8 record in his final three years and won two-consecutive state championships. He led the team in tackles with 115 in 1992. Also a shot putter, Anderson placed in the top six at state in 1992. An "A" student, he was an honor roll member. At Southeast, Anderson was a teammate of fellow Husker Jon Hesse. Played for the South in the 1993 Nebraska Shrine Bowl.

Personal: The son of Ivan and Sandra Anderson, Eric was born July 16, 1975. Anderson is majoring in construction management.

23 Larry Arnold

Sam Linebacker
6-4 ♦ 225 ♦ Jr.
Letters: One
Copley, Ohio
(Copley HS)

Nebraska's first scholarship recruit out of the state of Ohio in 15 years, Larry Arnold is expected to battle redshirt freshman Jay Foreman for the starting spot at Sam Linebacker.

1994: After redshirting in 1993, Larry Arnold saw his playing time increase as the season progressed in his first year as a Husker. Arnold was the backup Sam Linebacker to Troy Dumas and Clint Brown. Playing in 10 games, Arnold recorded four tackles. In the 1995 Orange Bowl, Arnold played but did not record any tackles.

1992: Arnold sat out the 1992 season.

At Copley HS: Arnold was a two-way standout for Coach Don Borman at Copley High School. An All-Suburban (Cleveland) League Linebacker, he also had 20 pass receptions and two touchdowns as a receiver. A standout sprinter on the Copley track team, he ran an 11-second 100 meters and a 23.3 in the 200, and threw the discus 152 feet. He was also a member of Copley's state-qualifying 200 freestyle relay swim team. Arnold chose Nebraska over Louisville, Michigan, Ohio State and Pittsburgh. Nebraska's last Ohio recruit was tailback Greg Whetsel of Ridgeway Ridgemont in 1977.

Personal: The son of Dwight and Sheila Roach, Arnold was born March 27, 1974, and is majoring in human development.

14 Dennis Bailey

Free Safety
6-2 ♦ 195 ♦ Soph.
St. Louis, Mo.
(Beaumont HS)

After redshirting in 1994, Bailey enters fall camp as the No. 3 free safety behind returning starter Tony Veland and redshirt freshman Tray Crayton.

1994: Bailey did not see action in 1994.

1993: Bailey redshirted his first year at Nebraska.

At Beaumont HS: Bailey graduated from Beaumont High where he played linebacker, tight end, fullback and defensive back as a prepster. He earned five letters in high school, two in football, two in basketball and one in wrestling.

Personal: The son of Gerald Bailey, Sr., and Sandra Reed, Dennis was born on Nov. 12, 1972. He is majoring in secondary education.

17 Chad Blahak

Cornerback
5-9 ♦ 180 ♦ Jr.
Lincoln, Neb.
(Lincoln High HS)

Chad Blahak (pronounced BLAH-ha) enters his junior season as a reserve corner behind returning starter Tyrone Williams and redshirt freshman Eric Walther on the right side.

1994: Blahak played in two games (UCLA and Pacific) and recorded one solo tackle and one pass breakup.

1993: Played in two games but did not have any tackles.

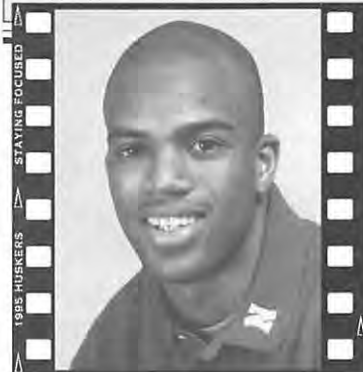

1992: A walk-on, Blahak redshirted his first year.

At Lincoln High HS: Blahak earned all-state honors playing cornerback, wide receiver and serving as Coach Harald Simpson's kicker. He had 17 interceptions in his career.

Personal: The son of Joe and Diane Blahak, Chad was born in Columbus, Neb., on Aug. 20, 1973. His father was a Nebraska letterman in 1970-71-72, winning national championship rings in 1970 and 1971. Joe and Chad are one of two father-son combinations to have earned national championship rings at Nebraska (also Bill and Jesse Kosch). Chad majors in civil engineering.

20 Michael Booker

Cornerback
6-2 ♦ 190 ♦ Jr.
Letters: One
Oceanside, Calif.
(El Camino HS)

♦ Seventh-Best All-Time and Husker Position (DB) Record for Vertical Jump, 39.5 inches

Michael Booker earned a letter as a first-year sophomore last season. He enters fall camp as a backup to Eric Stokes and Leslie Dennis at left cornerback. An excellent athlete, Booker has the 10th-best electronic 10-yard time (1.54), the fifth-best 40 time (4.47) on the team and boasts a 39.5-inch vertical jump--second best on the team. His vertical jump is a defensive back record and the seventh best all time at Nebraska. Booker missed much of spring ball with a sprained right foot.

1994: First-year sophomore Michael Booker was slated to redshirt and did not see action in the first five games, but was called to action when injuries, including the loss of starting free safety Mike Minter, depleted the secondary. Booker played in the last seven games, as backup at right corner to Tyrone Williams and Leslie Dennis, and finished the season with four tackles, two solo. In the 1995 FedEx Orange Bowl vs. Miami, Booker played but did not have any tackles.

1993: Booker was enrolled but sat out the 1993 season.

At El Camino HS: Prior to coming to Nebraska, Booker was a two-year standout in the secondary at El Camino High School and also played for the basketball team, which was ranked No. 1 in the nation much of the 1992 season. A cornerback, Booker was a two-year starter and letterman for Head Coach Herb Meyer. Booker recorded 77 tackles in 1992 (21 solo), five tackles for loss, three interceptions, two forced fumbles and blocked one punt. He was second on the team in defensive points and in limited time as a tailback, Booker rushed 19 times for 113 yards, two TDs and caught one pass for a 12-yard touchdown. Twice he earned all-league honors, was second-team all-city as a junior and first-team all-city as a senior. Booker earned second-team All-CIF (California Interscholastic Federation) and second-team All-California honors in 1992. He was named to the Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West list and was co-defensive player-of-the-year in the Southern California area. El Camino finished 12-2 in 1992 and ranked seventh in the state. In Booker's final three years, El Camino played in the sectional finals each year and was No. 1 in the state in 1991. Also a three-year basketball letterman, Booker was a starting forward for El Camino which was No. 1 in the county most of the year. He was a prep teammate of Tray Crayton, a redshirt freshman free safety for the Huskers, at El Camino HS.

Nebraska Football

Personal: He is the son of Michael and Fostoria Booker and was born April 27, 1975. He is majoring in secondary education.

90 Tim Carpenter

Tight End
6-2 ♦ 230 ♦ Soph.
Letters: One
Columbus, Neb.
(Columbus HS)

With the graduation of Husker starting tight ends Eric Alford and Matt Shaw, Tim Carpenter could play a vital role for Nebraska this fall. He is listed No. 2 at the position entering fall camp, behind senior three-year letterman Mark Gilman.

1994: Carpenter played in eight games in 1994, caught one 12-yard pass against Pacific and earned his first Husker letter.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Carpenter redshirted his first year.

At Columbus HS: A first-team Super-State and All-Nebraska running back (Lincoln Journal-Star and Omaha World-Herald), Carpenter was a three-year letterman for Columbus High, home of former Husker fullback Cory Schlesinger, and was named the 1992 Lincoln Journal-Star Class A offensive player-of-the-year as he rushed for 1,224 yards and 12 TDs in 11 games. His best outing was 220 yards against North Platte as a senior and he led the Discoverers in tackles as an outside linebacker. Carpenter helped lead his team and Coach Dick Luebbe to the Class A (largest) semifinals and a 9-2 record his last year. He rushed for 140 yards and had 12 tackles vs. Papillion-LaVista in the playoffs. Played for the North in the 1993 Nebraska Shrine game. Also a basketball and soccer letterman in 1992.

Personal: The son of Ted and Lanell Carpenter, Tim was born on Nov. 27, 1974. He is majoring in elementary education.

6 Kenny Cheatham

Split End
6-3 ♦ 200 ♦ Fr.
Phoenix, Ariz.
(South Mountain HS)

Kenny Cheatham is a gifted athlete who could be a major contributor for the Huskers this fall. He is the No. 3 split end entering fall camp behind experienced veterans Reggie Baul and Brendan Holbein. He may also be utilized as a punt returner. At 6-3, 200, Cheatham is one of the Huskers' tallest wideouts, next to Jeff Lake, and boasts excellent speed with a 1.61 10-yard dash and a 4.59 in the 40.

1994: A scholarship athlete, Cheatham redshirted his first year at Nebraska.

At South Mountain HS: Cheatham committed to Nebraska in July after the signing period was over. Before deciding on Nebraska's football scholarship offer, he contemplated football scholarships from Arizona State and UCLA. His decision was difficult in that he also had track scholarship offers from several schools including UCLA, Auburn, LSU, Tennessee, Miami and Florida State and had been contacted about playing basketball for Kansas, Ohio State, Georgetown, Arizona State, Arizona, UCLA and Oregon State. Playing for Coach Cleveland Dansby at South Mountain, Cheatham made 31 catches for 929 yards and 18 touchdowns in his senior season to earn all-state honors. His 29 yards per catch ranked fourth best in Arizona prep history. South Mountain captured back-to-back state titles in 1991 and 1992. An Arizona Republic Super-State selection, he was listed on recruiting analyst Tom Lemming's All-West team. Cheatham was the Arizona state champion in the 200 meters in 1993 and 1994 (21.40 best) and was second in the 100 (10.91), with a 10.57 all-time best. He was a two-time all-state basketball player as he averaged 21 points per game for South Mountain and led the team to the state quarterfinals in 5A (largest class). He is a high school friend of former Husker and St. Louis Rams safety Toby Wright.

Personal: Born on Aug. 11, 1976, his parents are Chester and Marilyn Cheatham. He is undecided on his major.

9 Monte Christo

Quarterback
6-0 ♦ 190 ♦ Soph.
Kearney, Neb.
(Kearney HS)

Monte Christo was expected to sit out 1994 as a redshirt, but after Tommie Frazier went out with blood clots, and Brook Berringer was trying to heal cracked ribs and a deflated lung, the third string quarterback, Matt Turman, went out of the Missouri road game with what appeared to be a separated shoulder. At that point, Christo, the only quarterback on the 60-man travel roster left on the sidelines, was forced to finish the last two minutes of the game. He did not have an opportunity to play in the next four games against Colorado, Kansas, Iowa State or Oklahoma. Christo had returned to practice just prior to his unexpected debut at Missouri, after tearing a ligament in his hand in an August practice. He missed all of 1995 spring ball after having lower back disc surgery. He enters the fall as the No. 4 quarterback, and should be ready for action.

1994: After an excellent performance in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl game and due to a need for QBs, Christo was the only freshman walk-on invited to report early with the varsity prior to the start of school in the fall of 1994. After an impressive fall camp, he made the 80-man travel roster to the Kickoff Classic as the No. 4 quarterback, but then tore a ligament in his thumb (throwing hand) on Aug. 31 during practice, which team doctors surgically repaired. He had just returned to practice on Monday, Oct. 17, prior to his debut at Missouri which ended his planned redshirt season. He played in just the last two minutes (six plays) of the Missouri game, did not throw any passes or rush the ball, then did not play in the last four games as Berringer and Turman returned. Christo earned a scholarship for the spring 1995 semester.

At Kearney HS: Christo was a first-team Super-State and All-Nebraska defensive back at Kearney High School and was also the starting quarterback his junior and senior year, running the option game. In the 1995 Nebraska Shrine Game, Christo was the MVP for the South team as he ran for 76 yards and passed for 71 in the South's 19-0 victory. He also lettered three times in basketball, track and played baseball in the summer for the Legion team and was named to the all-star team of the Cornhusker League. He was a 4.0 honor roll student for four years and Homecoming King.

Personal: The son of Hilary and Tim Christo, Monte was born July 10, 1976. He majors in pre-medicine and posts a 3.038 cumulative grade point average in his first two semesters at NU.

75 Chris Dishman

Offensive Tackle

Letters: Two
Cozad, Neb.
(Cozad HS)

- ♦ 1995 Street & Smith's Preseason Second-Team All-American
- ♦ 1995 Sporting News Preseason Second-Team All-Big Eight

Chris Dishman enters the fall season as the projected starter at left tackle, taking over for the 1994 academician of the year--Rob Zatechka. He has fully recovered from arthroscopic surgery on his left knee, performed after the completion of spring ball. He is one of four newcomers to the Husker O-line, as center Aaron Graham is the only returning starter.

1994: Dishman saw considerable playing time in 1994 as a reserve left tackle behind two-year starter Zatechka and senior Brady Caskey. He played in every game, including the 1995 FedEx Orange Bowl. He was a member of the Husker PAT and field goal teams and aided the Huskers to their ninth NCAA rushing title under Head Coach Tom Osborne. NU bettered the rest of the nation by more than 35 yards per game, averaging 340.0 yards rushing each outing.

1993: A backup to Lance Lundberg at left tackle, Dishman played in eight games and helped the Huskers rank third nationally in rushing at 287.9 yards per game, fifth in scoring at 38.3 points per game and 23rd in total offense at 425.0 yards per contest. Dishman suited up but did not play in the 1994 Orange Bowl.

1992: Dishman was one of two 1992 in-state scholarship offensive linemen, along with Jeff Ogard, both of whom redshirted.

At Cozad High School: A two-way standout and an all-class, all-state performer for Coach Gene Hunting at Cozad High School. Dishman powered the Haymakers to a 12-1 record and the state Class B title in 1991. At Cozad, he was a teammate of fellow Huskers Brendan Holbein, Matt Hunting and Casey Macken. He played in the 1992 Nebraska Shrine Game. Dishman was also a standout wrestler, having posted a 33-4 mark as a junior, and in track, where he threw the shot put 55-6 1/2 and the discus 159 feet. As a senior wrestler, he reached the state Class B finals at heavyweight, losing to fellow Husker Jeff Ogard of St. Paul. Dishman chose Nebraska over Colorado State, Iowa State and Kansas State.

Personal: The son of Grant and Irma Dishman, Chris was born Feb. 27, 1974. He is majoring in sociology and is a volunteer mentor in the Teammates program.

12 Tray Crayton

Free Safety
6-1 ♦ 175 ♦ Fr.
Oceanside, Calif.
(El Camino HS)

Tray Crayton had a solid spring and enters fall camp as the backup to free safety Tony Veland. He has good speed (1.58 in the 10 and 4.68 in the 40-yard dash) and a 34-inch vertical jump. He missed the last two weeks of spring and the spring game when he had to have surgery to repair a torn tendon on his left hand.

1994: A scholarship athlete, Crayton redshirted his first year.

At El Camino HS: A SuperPrep and Blue Chip All-American, Crayton was a teammate of fellow Husker corner Michael Booker for Coach Herb Meyer at El Camino High. Crayton intercepted seven passes and made more than 100 tackles as a senior and received the "Hit-of-the-Year" award from the San Diego Union newspaper. He also threw for 751 yards and 12 touchdowns and scored 14 TDs with 898 yards rushing as El Camino's starting quarterback. Crayton helped El Camino to three CIF championships and the state title his senior year. He chose Nebraska over Texas A&M, Oregon and Washington State.

Personal: The son of Clarence and Josephine Crayton, Tray was born March 24, 1976. His older brother Chris (5-11, 190) was a walk-on junior on the Husker basketball team last winter. Tray is undecided on a major.

56 Jay Foreman

Sam Linebacker
 6-1 ♦ 200 ♦ Fr.
 Eden Prairie, Minn.
 (Eden Prairie HS)

After redshirting in 1994 and an outstanding spring, Jay Foreman is slated to take over the Sam linebacker duties for departed senior Troy Dumas, who is now a member of the Kansas City Chiefs organization. The son of former Minnesota Vikings great Chuck Foreman, Jay is a 6-1, 200-pound linebacker. Despite being hampered with a left shoulder sprain, Foreman was impressive in the 1995 spring game, with 10 tackles (six solo) including two for 12-yards lost and two breakups.

1994: A scholarship athlete, Foreman redshirted his first year.

At Eden Prairie HS: In 1993, he rushed for 950 yards and 14 touchdowns, had 421 yards in receptions and 200 in kickoff returns for Eden Prairie High School playing for Coach Mike Grant and set a school single-season record with 17 TDs. He also completed 3-4 passes for 182 yards and three TDs. As a defensive back, he had 43 tackles, two interceptions and caused two fumbles his senior season. A SuperPrep and Blue Chip All-American, Foreman was rated as SuperPrep's 13th-best prep athlete in the country in 1994. He earned all-state honors as a senior, was all-conference two years and all-metro the last three. Foreman played in the All-America Bowl on June 25, 1994, in Allentown, Pa., a game which features the nation's top 66 high school players. Although his father played for Miami, Fla., Jay picked Nebraska over Wisconsin, Iowa, Michigan and Wyoming. As a basketball player, he led the conference in scoring and earned all-conference honors two years. He also earned all-state honors in track as a jumper. He earned eight varsity letters (three football and basketball, two track) and was a member of the "B" Honor Roll.

Personal: The son of Chuck Foreman, Jamal (Jay) was born Feb. 18, 1976. Jay is undecided on a major.

Hardin enters his senior season as one of the top four outside linebackers. He will see playing time as Jared Tomich's backup at left outside linebacker after an outstanding spring camp.

1994: Junior outside linebacker Luther Hardin played in six games in 1994 as a backup to senior Dwayne Harris and sophomore Jared Tomich on the left side. Hardin recorded nine tackles (four solo) and had two quarterback hurries. He recorded a career-best four tackles (three solo) against Texas Tech.

1993: Hardin lettered as he played in four games as a backup outside linebacker. He had three assisted tackles, two were against North Texas including one for a one-yard loss. He suited up for the Orange Bowl but did not play. Hardin received a UNL student-athlete recognition award and was named to the Honorable-Mention Grades & Glory Academic team.

1992: As a redshirted freshman, Hardin played in two games and recorded three tackles, two were solos, one was for a three-yard loss, and one caused a fumble. All were against Middle Tennessee State.

1991: A scholarship athlete, Hardin redshirted his first year.

At Althoff Catholic HS: Hardin was a two-way starter as an offensive and defensive tackle for Coach Glenn Schott at Althoff High School in suburban St. Louis. He led the team to the state championships in 1990 and 1991 and finished his senior year with 105 tackles including 60 solo stops, five fumble recoveries and 15 quarterback sacks. He earned all-state honors. He lettered four times in football, once in basketball, twice in track and once in wrestling.

Personal: The son of Delores Hardin, Luther was born on Nov. 16, 1973. He is majoring in business administration and will graduate after the fall semester. Despite the fact that Hardin was in Miami to play in the national championship game, he took time off after practice to speak to kids in the Dade County housing projects about staying in school and developing good role models.

Heskew had a solid spring camp and enters fall as the Huskers third center behind returning starter Aaron Graham and junior Matt Vrzal.

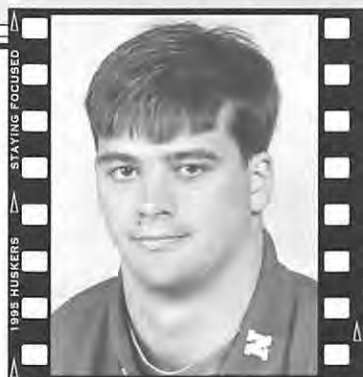

1994: Heskew, recovering from knee injury, did not see action in 1994.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Heskew redshirted after he tore his ACL in his knee in the Oklahoma Shrine Game and had reconstructive surgery.

At Mustang HS: Heskew became the sixth Oklahoman to accept a Husker scholarship (fourth in two years). A tight end and nose guard for the Mustangs and Coach Charles Carpenter, in 1992 Heskew caught 19 passes for two TDs, but got the most attention on defense where he averaged two quarterback sacks per game and had as many as five in one contest. He tallied 158 tackles (58 solo) at nose guard and became the only player in Mustang history to be selected to all three all-state teams, as named by the Tulsa Tribune, the Daily Oklahoman and the coaches' poll. Not even Dennis Byrd, the New York Jets defensive tackle who played for the Mustangs, can claim that honor. Heskew was on the Daily Oklahoman's Blue Chip List and was all-city as both a nose guard and tight end. Played in the Oklahoma-Texas Oil Bowl game in June and also the Oklahoma All-Star game in July. The Mustangs went 2-8 in Class 6A (largest), but Lawton Eisenhower Coach Chris Stiles and Norman Coach Cotton Wade, the state championship coaches, both said Heskew was the most dominant defensive player they faced all year. He also lettered in track.

Personal: The son of Mark and Vickie Heskew, Josh was born on Sept. 2, 1975. He majors in secondary education.

44 Jon Hesse

Letters: One
Lincoln, Neb.
(Southeast HS)

◆ Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll

Hesse (pronounced HESS) switched from Mike linebacker to outside linebacker last spring and will serve as a backup to Jared Tomich and Luther Hardin on the left side. Hesse sports a 35-inch vertical jump.

1994: Jon Hesse served as a backup Mike linebacker to Phil Ellis and Doug Colman in 1994. Playing in all 12 games, Hesse made the traveling squad, was a special teams member and had 11 tackles on the season, including five solo stops and one quarterback hurry. He had two tackles for two-yards lost. He had a career-high three tackles vs. West Virginia in the Kickoff Classic, one tackle for one-yard lost vs. Texas Tech and one for one-yard lost vs. Pacific. Hesse earned a spot on the Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll with a 3.50 GPA for the year in psychology. In the 1995 Orange Bowl, Hesse had one solo tackle.

1993: Playing a backup role to Mike Anderson, Hesse played in four games and had one assisted tackle.

At Lincoln Southeast HS: Regarded by some as the top prospect in Nebraska in 1991, Hesse played five positions for Lincoln Southeast High School in 1991 and helped Coach Chuck Mizerski's team rebound from a 0-2 start to win the state Class A (largest) title. A two-time all-state selection on defense, as a defensive back in 1990 and as a linebacker in 1991, Hesse also played both running back positions, wide receiver and wingback as a senior, while returning punts and handling place-kicking and punting duties. He played in the 1992 Nebraska Shrine Game. He was named the state's top defensive player by the Lincoln Journal-Star, and was an academic all-state pick with a 3.978 (of 4.0) grade-point average, in addition to being a standout on Southeast's basketball team. Chose Nebraska over Washington.

Personal: The son of Kay Hesse, Jon was born on June 6, 1973. He is majoring in psychology and boasts a 3.472 GPA. Hesse was a keynote speaker at Irving Middle School in 1994.

85 Joe Horst

Tight End
6-1 ♦ 255 ♦ Soph.
Wood River, Neb.
(Wood River HS)

Joe Horst enters his sophomore year as a reserve tight end. He should be back to full speed after fracturing his left fibula on Oct. 4, 1994, in practice.

1994: Horst played in two games at tight end, but did not have any receptions.

1993: A walk-on athlete, Horst redshirted his first year at Nebraska.

At Wood River HS: Horst was a teammate of sophomore quarterback Scott Frost at Wood River where he earned all-conference honors three times as a running back. He was an honorable-mention all-state pick as a senior playing running back and nose guard. He had a 99-yard touchdown as a junior. He earned a total of 11 letters including four in football, four in track and three in basketball.

Personal: The son of Russ and Blanch Horst, Joe was born on March 18, 1974. He majors in history and likes to collect baseball cards.

62 Matt Hoskinson

Offensive Guard
6-1 ♦ 290 ♦ Soph.
Battle Creek, Neb.
(Battle Creek HS)

Sophomore Matt Hoskinson is slated to back up Aaron Taylor at left guard in 1995. Hoskinson has good speed and strength and posted his best marks in spring testing with a 1.944 Performance Index.

1994: Hoskinson played in one game in 1994 as a reserve offensive guard.

1993: A walk-on athlete, Hoskinson redshirted his first year.

At Battle Creek HS: A four-year all-stater and all-state honorable-mention basketball player, Hoskinson also was a standout in wrestling, winning the Class C state title. He helped lead Battle Creek to the state football title. He played both sides of the ball and played for the North in the 1993 Nebraska Shrine Game. As a fullback, he rushed for 670 yards, an average of 8.0 per carry. He earned Class C all-state as a linebacker his freshman, sophomore and junior seasons. He was named academic all-state in football and wrestling.

Personal: The son of Pete and Kathy Hoskinson, Matt was born on Jan. 22, 1975. He is majoring in business administration. In his spare time, Matt likes to play the drums.

88 Sheldon Jackson

Tight End
6-4 ♦ 220 ♦ Fr.
Diamond Bar, Calif.
(Damien HS)

Sheldon Jackson is a talented athlete who could see valuable playing time at tight end in just his second year at Nebraska. He has good size (6-4, 220) and speed with a 1.68 electronic 10-yard dash time and a 4.83 in the 40.

1994: A scholarship athlete, Jackson redshirted in 1994.

At Damien HS: A tight end for Coach Dick Larson, Sheldon played in just seven games in his senior season due to a knee strain, but still caught 18 passes for 238 yards and four TDs. He was named to the Best in the West List by the Long Beach Press-Telegram. Jackson also played basketball, averaging 10 points and 10 rebounds per game as a starter. He took official visits to Oklahoma, UCLA and Arizona before choosing NU. Jackson was also the MVP of his swimming team in 1991 and the MVP of his basketball team in 1991-92.

Personal: The son of Frances Easton, Sheldon was born July 24, 1976. He is undecided on his major.

34 Vershan Jackson

Tight End
6-0 ♦ 230 ♦ Soph.
Omaha, Neb.
(South HS)

Vershan (pronounced Ver-SHAWN) Jackson moved from fullback to tight end prior to spring ball in 1995 and is expected to contribute immediately at a position that was depleted with the graduation of seniors Matt Shaw and Eric Alford. Jackson enters the fall listed as the No. 3 tight end behind Mark Gilman and Tim Carpenter. A good athlete, Jackson has a 1.63 10-yard dash time and a 34.5-inch vertical jump.

1994: Jackson played in three games as a reserve fullback and rushed three times for 12 yards with a long of eight vs. Pacific. In that game he carried twice for 10 yards, both career bests at NU.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Jackson redshirted his first year.

At Omaha South HS: One of seven Nebraska natives to sign with Nebraska in 1993, Jackson was one of four out of the Omaha metro area. A running back/outside linebacker for South High School and Coach Jack Oholendt in 1992, Jackson was named to the Lincoln Journal-Star Class A first-team, to the Omaha World-Herald Class A first-team and earned second-team OWH All-Nebraska and LJS Super-State honors as a running back. He rushed for over 100 yards in every game including 295 against Council Bluffs Thomas Jefferson in 1992. He tallied 1,278 yards in eight games as a senior I-back and had Class A's second-best average at 159.8 yards per game. With an electronic 4.67 40-yard dash time, he averaged 7.5 yards per carry and scored 14 touchdowns in the 5-4 Packers' I-formation. Midway through the 1992 season, he also began playing outside linebacker. He recorded 22 tackles and returned one interception 16 yards for a touchdown. A three-year starter on defense, playing inside linebacker his first two years and outside linebacker as a senior, he played fullback in 1991. He played in the 1993 Nebraska Shrine Game. Jackson also lettered three years in track, and two years in basketball.

Personal: The son of Jacquelyn Jackson, Sheldon was born on Feb. 27, 1975 and is majoring in communication studies. Jackson served as a volunteer with the DARE Program and was a guest speaker at Springfield Platteview School.

96 Jason Jenkins

Defensive Tackle
6-5 ♦ 280 ♦ Sr.
Letters: One
Hammonton, N.J.
(Dodge City, Kan. CC)
(Oakcrest HS)

Jason Jenkins enters fall camp as a backup defensive tackle behind Jason Peter and Scott Saltsman. He should be 100 percent after having his right elbow scoped to remove bone chips after spring drills. A gifted athlete, this year Jenkins' name was added to the prestigious honors platform in the NU strength complex as he scored 500 points or better on all six tests. Although a junior college transfer, Jenkins will play the 1995 season with degree in hand as he graduated last summer with a degree in human development.

1994: Jenkins played in three games in 1994 as a backup to Terry Connealy at defensive tackle. He totaled two assisted tackles, one against West Virginia and one against Pacific.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Jenkins redshirted his first season.

At Dodge City (Kan.) Community College: One of two junior college recruits to commit to the Huskers in 1993 (along with tight end Eric Alford of Garden City CC), Jenkins graduated with an associate of arts degree in three semesters with nearly a 3.0 GPA (on a 4.0 scale). He was able to enroll at Nebraska in January, 1993 and got an extra spring camp in with the Huskers. Jenkins was Dodge City (Kan.) Community College's starting defensive tackle in 1991 and 1992, playing for Coach Steve Simpson. His second year, he led the team with 58 tackles (21 solo), three quarterback sacks, eight tackles for loss and caused two fumbles. He was a two-time selection to the first-team All-Jayhawk Conference team. Listed among the Top 100 juco recruits in the country, Jenkins helped lead the Conquistadors (the same college of 1992 Husker senior cornerback Kenny Wilhite) to a 6-5-1 record and a berth in the RC Cola Bowl.

At Oakcrest HS: Jenkins lettered in wrestling, football and baseball at Oakcrest High School in Mays Landing, N.J. Playing for Coach Dennis DiDonato, he earned all-conference honors as a nose tackle and second-team honors as a fullback. He played against fellow Husker Doug Colman, who attended Ocean City in Ventnor, N.J. He was a district champion in wrestling and placed second at state, losing only in the championship round and set a school record with 24 pins en route to a 32-1 record.

Personal: Jason is the son of Paul and Sandra Jenkins and was born July 26, 1973. He has eight brothers and three sisters. Majoring in human development, he is the only Husker who will be playing this fall with his degree in hand as he graduated in August, 1995. Jenkins likes to play the drums.

19 Jesse Kosch

Punter
6-0 ♦ 180 ♦ Soph.
Columbus, Neb.
(Scotus HS)

Jesse Kosch (pronounced Cush) could play a key role for the Huskers this season with the graduation of place-kicker Tom Sieler and the loss of punter Darin Erstad after being picked first in the 1995 baseball draft. Coach Tom Osborne is looking for kickers. Kosch enters as NU's No. 1 punter but could be challenged for the position by incoming scholarship freshman punter Andy Bilanzich. In the 1995 annual Red-White Spring Game, Kosch punted three times for 133 yards, a 44.3 average.

1994: Kosch played in one game, but did not have any statistics.

1993: A walk-on, Kosch redshirted his first year at NU.

At Columbus Scotus HS: Kosch played for coach Jim Puetz earning second-team all-state honors as a punter. He also played defensive back and rushed for 1,682 yards his senior season as an I-back and 3,454 in his career with a personal best of 376 on 35 carries vs. North Platte as a junior. He scored 243 points in his career. Also earned second-team all-state honors in soccer and was the MVP of the senior All-Star Classic. He was the only player on the team from a non-metro school.

Personal: The son of Bill and Linda Kosch, Bill was a defensive back on the Nebraska national championship 1970 and 1971 teams, making Bill and son Jesse the second pair of Nebraska father-son combinations to earn championship rings with the Huskers (also Joe and Chad Blahak). A meteorology major, Kosch's hobby is chasing severe storms. He was born on Sept. 20, 1974.

89 Jeff Lake

Split End
6-4 ♦ 205 ♦ Soph.
Columbus, Neb.
(Lakeview HS)

Jeff Lake enters fall camp as a reserve split end along with Kenny Cheatham, behind returnees Reggie Baul and Brendan Holbein. With excellent speed for his size (6-4, 205), Lake has a 1.60 in the 10-yard dash. He should be ready for fall ball after missing all of spring drills with a hamstring pull.

Nebraska Football

1994: Lake played in five games and caught one pass, a 24-yard TD vs. Pacific.

1993: Lake redshirted his first year at Nebraska.

At Lakeview HS: Lake earned all-conference honors in both football and basketball. He was the Lakeview Athlete-of-the-Year, graduated fourth in his class and was on the honor roll every semester. Lake earned three letters in football, two in basketball and four in track.

Personal: The son of Bob and Ellen Lake, Robert Jeff was born on Sept. 6, 1974. He posts a 3.682 grade point average in mechanical engineering and made the Dean's List.

32 Joel Makovicka

Fullback
5-11 ♦ 220 ♦ Fr.
Bralnard, Neb.
(East Butler HS)

It may be difficult to tell two of Nebraska's fullbacks apart this season. Senior Jeff Makovicka (#22), at 5-10, 215 is projected to be the starter, while redshirt freshman Joel Makovicka (#32) at 5-11, 220 had an impressive spring camp and enters the depth chart as a reserve. Joel is Jeff's younger brother and although an inch taller, looks very similar when busting through the line. He too is a strong blocker as he can clean 335, squat 525 and bench press 360 pounds. A gifted athlete, this year the younger Makovicka's name was added to the prestigious honors platform as he scored 500 points or better on all six tests.

1994: A walk-on athlete, Makovicka (pronounced MACK-oh-vick-uh) redshirted his first year on campus.

At East Butler HS: Joel was a two-way player for Coach Dave Struebing's eight-man football team at East Butler. He rushed for over 3,500 yards in his career and set season and career tackle records as a linebacker. He earned all-area and all-state honors and was the school's player-of-the-year his junior and senior years. Makovicka played in the 1994 Nebraska Shrine Game. He also lettered four times in basketball and twice in track.

Personal: The son of John and Connie Makovicka, Joel is undecided on a major, but leaning toward pre-med with a 3.875 cumulative GPA in his first two semesters. His brother Jeff is the Huskers' starting fullback. He was born on Oct. 6, 1975. Jeff and Joel are one of two pairs of brothers playing for the Huskers this season, joining Jason and Christian Peter.

4 Octavious McFarlin

Rover
5-11 ♦ 180 ♦ Soph.
Letters: One
Bastrop, Texas
(Bastrop HS)

Octavious McFarlin and Grant Wistrom were the only two Huskers to play as true freshmen in 1994. McFarlin is expected to see ample playing time in 1995 as Mike Minter's backup at rover.

1994: A true freshman, McFarlin didn't play in the first two games, but after free safety Mike Minter went out with a season-ending knee injury in game two, McFarlin became a valuable contributor. He played in eight subsequent games as Kareem Moss' backup at rover (all but Wyoming and Colorado) and recorded 15 stops including six solo tackles and one pass breakup. He had a career-high seven tackles (second on the team) with four solos and a breakup against Pacific. He also had four tackles against Kansas and three against UCLA. McFarlin and Grant Wistrom were the only two true freshmen to play in 1994, but Jamel Williams and Michael Booker were also first-year players for the defense which ranked in the top 10 in all four categories. McFarlin played in the 1995 Orange Bowl against Miami, but did not have any tackles.

At Bastrop HS: McFarlin, a safety, punter and punt returner was a three-year starter for Coach Les Johnson at Bastrop. He was named to the Fabulous 55 squad which represents the top players in the state and made the All-Central Texas team as he led the state with 166 tackles (72 solo) as a senior. He also had five sacks, three fumble recoveries, one interception and posted a 39.1 punting average. McFarlin earned all-district two years and honorable-mention All-Centex three years. A 6-10 high jumper, McFarlin was the district champ in both the high and long jumps (23-8) and has also gone 48-10 in the triple jump. He was an all-district guard in basketball as well.

Personal: The son of Janie McFarlin, Octavious was born on Aug. 10, 1975. McFarlin has not decided on a major.

78 Kory Mikos

Offensive Tackle
6-5 ♦ 285 ♦ Jr.
Letters: One
Seward, Neb.
(Seward HS)

Mikos (pronounced MIKE-ohs) will back up Eric Anderson at right tackle in 1995 and should see ample playing time on a line which lost four of its five starters from a year ago.

1994: Mikos earned his first letter playing in five games at left tackle behind Rob Zatechka and Chris Dishman. He aided the team to its 11th NCAA rushing title.

1993: Mikos played in two games at offensive tackle but did not letter.

1992: A walk-on athlete, Mikos redshirted his first year.

At Seward HS: Mikos played offensive and defensive tackle for Coach Bob Starr at Seward. He helped lead his team to the 1991 conference championship and state playoffs and earned all-state honors in 1991 as a defensive tackle. He played in the 1992 Nebraska Shrine Game. He also lettered three times each in basketball and track.

Personal: Majoring in industrial technology, Mikos is the son of Frank and Dee Mikos. He was born in Kansas City on Oct. 15, 1973.

76 Erik Nelson

Defensive Tackle
6-3 ♦ 275 ♦ Fr.
Iowa City, Iowa (City High HS)

Nelson is a redshirted freshman who is expected to back up Christian Peter, Jeff Ogard and Larry Townsend at defensive tackle in 1995.

1994: A scholarship athlete, Nelson redshirted his first season.

At City High HS: A transfer as a sophomore from San Diego, Calif., Nelson played football at Iowa City for just three years, but earned a spot on the first unit of the Des Moines Register's Elite Team as a lineman his senior year. He earned first-team all-state honors (OG) in the coaches poll and was the runner-up for player-of-the-year. Nelson helped lead his team to a Class 4A (big school) title and a No. 21 final ranking by USA Today as Iowa City went 13-0 in 1993 and 23-1 over his last two years. Also a 48-foot shot putter on the track team, Nelson chose Nebraska over Oregon State, Kansas State, Wisconsin and Iowa State. His dad, Jerry Nelson, was a standout middle guard at the University of Iowa. Erik was a member of the honor roll his senior year.

Personal: Nelson has not declared a major. The son of Jerry Nelson, Erik was born on Sept. 29, 1976.

38 Chris Norris

Fullback
5-10 ♦ 220 ♦ Sr.
Papillion, Neb.
(Papillion-LaVista HS)

Senior Chris Norris enters the 1995 season as a reserve fullback. Norris has seen limited action the past three years, playing in 10 games and rushing the ball five times for 22 yards.

1994: Norris played in three games at fullback and rushed twice for seven yards including a five-yard gain against West Virginia in the Kickoff Classic. He also played against Pacific (one two-yard gain) and UCLA.

1993: Norris rushed the ball two times for 12 yards playing in four games. He had a long run of seven yards vs. North Texas.

1992: Playing in three games, Norris rushed once for three yards against Oklahoma State.

1991: A walk-on, Norris redshirted his first year at Nebraska.

At Papillion-LaVista HS: Norris played fullback and defensive tackle. In his three-year career, he rushed for 2,600 yards. He earned three letters in football and one in track.

Personal: The son of Marguerite Norris, Chris was born on Jan. 3, 1972 and is majoring in social sciences.

63 Brian Nunns

Offensive Tackle
6-2 ♦ 280 ♦ Sr.
Letters: One
Lincoln, Neb.
(Lincoln High HS)

Brian Nunns is slated to back up Eric Anderson and Kory Mikos at right tackle in 1995. Nunns missed most of spring ball with an ACL knee injury but it did not require surgery.

1994: Nunns played in three games and earned his first letter as the 1994 Huskers earned their third rushing title in four years.

Nebraska Football

1993: Nunns played in one game but did not letter.

1992: Nunns did not see varsity action.

1991: A walk-on, Nunns redshirted in 1991.

At Lincoln High HS: An all-city offensive tackle at Lincoln High, Nunns lettered twice in football, three times in baseball and once in wrestling. He also played defensive tackle and had 45 stops as a senior.

Personal: The son of Tom and Linda Nunns, Brian was born on April 13, 1973. He is majoring in secondary education.

97 Jeff Ogard

Defensive Tackle
6-6 ♦ 295 ♦ Jr.
Letters: One
St. Paul, Neb.
(St. Paul HS)

Ogard (pronounced OH-guard) enters the fall as a backup defensive tackle to Christian Peter and Scott Saltsman. At 6-6, 295, he is the Huskers' biggest tackle.

1994: Playing in three games as a reserve tackle, Ogard had three tackles (one solo), including one tackle for a one-yard loss vs. UCLA and earned his first varsity letter.

1993: Ogard played in four regular-season games against Colorado State, Missouri, Iowa State and Oklahoma, but did not have any tackles.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Ogard redshirted his first year in Lincoln.

At St. Paul HS: A two-way all-state lineman for Coach Russ Baker at St. Paul High School, Ogard was the defensive captain of the Lincoln Journal-Star Super-State team and member of the Omaha World Herald all-state team for two years at defensive tackle, where he recorded 79 tackles for a 6-3 team in 1991. He played in the 1992 Nebraska Shrine Game. A three-sport standout for the Wildcats, Ogard was a two-time Class B state champion both as a heavyweight wrestler and as a 57-4 shot-putter. Chose Nebraska over Kansas State and Oklahoma.

Personal: The son of Roger and Annette Ogard, Jeff was born on Sept. 1, 1973. He is majoring in human development.

69 Steve Ott

Offensive Guard

Letters: Three
Henderson, Neb.
(Henderson HS)

- ♦ 1994 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll
- ♦ 1993 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll

Steve Ott suffered a broken ankle midway through the 1994 season but was able to participate in spring drills and is expected to contend with sophomore Jon Zatechka for the starting duties at right guard after backing up Joel Wilks at left guard last year. The Husker O-line lost four of its five starters from its 1994 national championship team. Ott and returning center Aaron Graham are the only seniors and only three-year lettermen on the line. Ott is a two-time Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll student with a 3.504 GPA in biological sciences.

1993: Ott lettered as a sophomore, playing in six regular-season games (North Texas, Texas Tech, Colorado State, Oklahoma State, Missouri and Iowa State). He did not play in the Federal Express Orange Bowl. He helped lead the Huskers to a No. 3 final ranking in rushing with 287.9 yards per game and was named to the Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll.

1991: A scholarship athlete, Ott opted for a redshirt season.

At Henderson HS: Ott was a two-time all-state selection and Super-State honoree as an offensive tackle for Coach Galen Kronhofman at Henderson High, the school of former Husker scholarship punter John Kroeker (1986-87-88). A three-time all-conference pick, Ott also played nose guard and inside linebacker. He played in the 1991 Nebraska Shrine Game. He earned 10 prep letters while competing in football, basketball and track. He qualified for the Nebraska state high school track meet in both the shot put and discus and finished third in the Class C shot with a throw of 52-9 1/2 as a senior.

Personal: The son of Walt and Marlene Ott, Steve was born on Aug. 6, 1972 and has a wife Michele. He majors in biological sciences, posts a cumulative 3.504 GPA and will graduate in May, 1996. He is a volunteer for the Husker Teammates program, the SCIP Drug Free Program, UNL Career Night and is a member of the Mortar Board.

 (Milford Academy)

The younger brother of Christian Peter (6-2, 290), Jason Peter (6-4, 275) is expected to take over the defensive tackle position vacated by 1994 senior Terry Connealy and start alongside his brother. Big and strong, Peter runs the 10-yard dash in 1.72 and cleans 373, squats 476 and bench presses 450 pounds.

1994: Playing in seven games, Jason recorded eight tackles (two solo) and had one tackle for three-yards lost in the season opener vs. West Virginia. He broke up a pass and had a career-high three tackles against Pacific, also broke up a pass against Kansas and also had two quarterback hurries on the season. Peter played in the 1995 FedEx Orange Bowl vs. Miami but did not have any tackles.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Peter redshirted in 1993.

At Milford Academy: Peter attended Middletown South his first three years, then went to Milford Academy in Milford, Conn., a prep school made up of students 18, 19 and 20 years old. He played defensive and offensive tackle for Milford Academy and was one of the most sought-after linemen in 1993. He was a SuperPrep Magazine All-American and considered the top recruit in the Northeast by the same publication (he visited Washington, Syracuse, Georgia Tech and Miami). In 1992 for Milford, he recorded 116 tackles (29 solo), had nine sacks and returned a blocked punt for a TD. He was team captain, earned All-America honors and was rated as the nation's 10th-best lineman as Milford won a school-record nine games in 1992 even while playing Division I college junior-varsity squads such as Army and Navy and saw 23 of its players sign letters of intent in 1993. As a junior, Peter was an all-state defensive tackle for Coach Bob Generelli at Middletown South, the school he attended in 1989-91 and had 110 tackles (30 solo), eight sacks and five breakups, leading his team to the state title in 1990.

Personal: The son of Hubert and Mary Peter, his older brother Christian is the Huskers' starting defensive tackle. His younger brother Damian is a sophomore at Notre Dame. He has a seven-year-old sister Ashley. Born on Sept. 13, 1974, he majors in communication studies. He has served as a volunteer speaker for the SPICE Program in 1994 and at the Lincoln Veteran's Hospital and to Lincoln Youth Church Groups in 1995.

73 Fred Pollack

*Offensive Tackle

Letters: One
Omaha, Neb.
(Creighton Prep HS)*

Fred Pollack (pronounced PAUL-luck) had his right knee and right shoulder scoped after the 1995 bowl game, but was able to participate in spring drills. He enters fall camp as a backup to Chris Dishman and Adam Treu at left tackle, but could be a contender for more playing time.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Pollack redshirted his first year.

At Creighton Prep: One of four 1993 recruits from the Omaha metropolitan area (seven from Nebraska), Pollack played both offensive guard and defensive tackle for Coach Tom Jaworski at Creighton Prep. Pollack was a three-year starter on offense and was named the Metro Conference Offensive Lineman-of-the-Year by the coaches. Although he started just one year at defensive tackle, he earned first-team All-Nebraska and Super-State honors by the Omaha World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal-Star as a defensive lineman in 1992 and all-division and all-metro honors as an offensive lineman. He played for the North team in the 1993 Nebraska Shrine Game. He was an undefeated heavyweight wrestler as a senior and the metro champion and threw the shot put and discus and won the metro discus gold medal as a junior.

Personal: The son of Larry and Diana Pollack, Fred was born Dec. 27, 1974. Former Husker offensive tackle Bob Sledge (1986-87-88) is his uncle. He is majoring in finance.

13 Ted Retzlaff

*Place-Kicker
6-0 ♦ 175 ♦ Fr.
Waverly, Neb.
(Waverly HS)*

Retzlaff missed all of spring drills when he tore the ACL in his left knee (kicking leg) and had reconstructive surgery on April 18. The coaches had hoped to get a good look at Retzlaff's kicking skills in spring camp, as both Husker kickers of 1994 are gone. Tom Sieler to graduation and Darin Erstad to pro baseball. It will be a tight time table for him to be ready to kick when the season starts on Aug. 31, but not impossible. Upon his return, he will contend for place-kicking duties with newcomer Kris Brown.

1994: Retzlaff played in the Pacific game and kicked two extra points (on two attempts) and had two solo tackles.

1993: In his first year at Nebraska, Retzlaff, a walk-on, redshirted.

At Waverly HS: A three-year letterman, Retzlaff served as his team's quarterback, free safety and kicker and earned super-state second-team honors as a kicker. He made 12 of 16 field goals with a long of 49 yards. Played for the South team in the 1993 Nebraska Shrine Game. He was also a member of the Class B All-State team as well as academic all-state by the Lincoln Journal-Star. He was a member of FCA and student council, marching band, jazz band and the student Newspaper. He also lettered three years in basketball and four in track.

Personal: The son of Alan and Shirley Retzlaff, Ted was born on April 15, 1975. Retzlaff served as a volunteer speaker in 1994 at Waverly Elementary School. He posts a 3.422 cumulative grade point average in agribusiness.

39 Mike Roberts

*Rover
6-1 ♦ 175 ♦ Jr.
Omaha, Neb.
(Central HS)*

Mike Roberts enters fall camp as the No. 3 rover behind Mike Minter and Octavious McFarlin.

1994: Roberts played in one game last year as a reserve rover but did not have any tackles.

1993: Played in three games but did not have any tackles.

1992: A walk-on athlete, Roberts redshirted his first year at NU.

At Central HS: Roberts played wide receiver and free safety at Omaha Central. He totaled five interceptions and 135 yards receiving in his three-year career. He also earned two letters in track and one in baseball.

Personal: The son of Ralph and Diane Roberts, Mike was born on Aug. 19, 1973 and is majoring in criminal justice.

84 Mike Rucker

Outside Linebacker
6-5 ♦ 225 ♦ Fr.
St. Joseph, Mo.
(Benton HS)

Mike Rucker had an excellent spring after having his left shoulder scoped immediately following the bowl game and is ready to have an outstanding freshman season backing up Grant Wistrom at right outside linebacker.

1994: A scholarship athlete, Rucker redshirted his first year.

At Benton HS: A tight end and inside/outside linebacker and kicker for Coach Don Tabor at Benton High School, Rucker was a Blue Chip Illustrated All-America linebacker and earned all-state honors as a tight end as he caught 15 passes for 300 yards as a senior. He was also the team's leading tackler with 168 stops, 58 solo. He led his team to a 28-8 three-year record. Rucker also placed fourth in the state in the shot put as a junior and was the state champ in 1994 with a 54-2 throw after he went undefeated in 10 meets in the shot. Rucker lettered 10 times, three each in football and basketball and four in track. He was second-team all-city and All-MEC in basketball in 1994 and was the Benton High School Outstanding Male Athlete. An excellent student, Rucker was a member of the honor roll and participated in the Open Door Food Kitchen program.

Personal: The son of Martin and LaVell Rucker, Mike was born Feb. 28, 1975. He is majoring in management.

74 Scott Saltsman

♦ 1994 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll

Scott Saltsman is expected to serve as the backup defensive tackle to Jason Peter, but if healthy, could contend for more playing time. Saltsman had both his left knee and right shoulder scoped shortly after the 1995 Orange Bowl, but appears to be healthy for the 1995 season.

1994: A sophomore scholarship athlete, Saltsman played in eight games in 1994, serving as backup to junior starter Christian Peter at defensive tackle. Saltsman tallied eight tackles (two solo), including one for a one-yard loss vs. Oklahoma State and three quarterback hurries. His career best was two tackles against both Oklahoma State and Missouri and two hurries against Pacific. Saltsman was named to the Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll.

1993: Saltsman played in five games in 1993, including North Texas, Colorado State, Oklahoma State, Missouri and Iowa State. He had one assisted tackle on the season.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Saltsman redshirted in 1992.

At Rider HS: Named to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's Texas Top 100 List, Saltsman had 89 tackles and 10 quarterback sacks for Coach Wayne LeBleu and Wichita Falls Rider High School in 1991, despite sitting out two mid-season games (both losses) because of a knee sprain. Saltsman, who had 27 career sacks, helped lead Rider to a 9-2 record and to the Class 5A playoffs for the first time in nine years. At Rider, he was a teammate of NU redshirt sophomore offensive guard Aaron Taylor. He also played first base and pitched for the school's baseball team, earning four letters. Selected Nebraska over Arizona State, Miami (Fla.), Oklahoma and Pittsburgh.

Personal: The son of Jim and Nola Saltsman, Scott was born on Oct. 22, 1973, in Flint, Mich. He has two younger brothers, Steven and Michael. Majoring in marketing, Saltsman posts a 3.160 cumulative grade point average. He served as a volunteer speaker at the 1995 Tekamah Herman Big Red Festival.

♦ 1994 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll

Darren Schmadeke (pronounced Sha-MED-eh-key) enters fall camp as a reserve left cornerback after playing the right side in 1994.

1994: Darren Schmadeke served as the backup left cornerback to honorable-mention All-American Barron Miles. Playing in seven games, Schmadeke had nine tackles, eight of them solo, and one pass breakup. The junior was the team's leading tackler in extensive playing time against Pacific. In that game, he posted a career-best eight tackles (seven solo). His breakup came against Texas Tech. A veterinary science major, Schmadeke posts a 3.0 cumulative GPA and was named to the Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll in 1994.

Nebraska Football

1992: Played in two games as a wingback, but did not have any receptions.

1991: A walk-on athlete, Schmadeke redshirted his first year.

At Albion HS: Schmadeke lettered 11 times at Albion, four in football and track, two in wrestling and once in basketball. Played running back, free safety, linebacker and punted for Coach Arnold Johnson. He rushed for 1,900 career yards and recorded 61 tackles (49 solo). He was injured as a senior and missed four games but earned all-conference and all-state honors as a running back in 1989. Set the school record in the 100-meter dash at 10.44 and won state in the C-1 100 and 200 meters and was a member of the school's championship 4 x 100-meter relay. Schmadeke was a National Honor Society member, the president of his junior class and earned honorable-mention all-state honors in wrestling.

Personal: The son of Ralph and Debbie Schmadeke, Darren and his twin brother Damon (walk-on squad member in 1993) were born in Ventura, Calif., on Feb. 5, 1973. A veterinary sciences major, Darren is on track to graduate this semester. He worked in a veterinary clinic last summer. The Schmadeke's great grandfather, Adam D. Kohl, was a member of NU's 1921-22 football team and a great uncle, Lloyd Schmadeke, was a pitcher for the baseball team, lettering in 1937-39.

Letters: One
Fullerton, Neb.
(Fullerton HS)

♦ 1994 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll

Schuster enters fall camp as the backup fullback to projected starter Jeff Makovicka. An excellent student, Schuster has a 3.294 cumulative GPA in secondary education.

1994: Brian Schuster was the backup fullback behind senior Cory Schlesinger and junior Jeff Makovicka in 1994. Despite being a backup, his 7.5 yards per carry, along with Tommie Frazier's 7.5 ypc, was the best on the team for those with at least 10 carries. On 13 attempts, he gained 98 yards with a long run of 33 vs. Texas Tech. His season and career best was a 37-yard day against the Red Raiders. He also had two carries for 19 yards vs. UCLA; three for 14 vs. Missouri and three for 25 vs. Kansas. Schuster is still looking for his first career touchdown. Also a member of special teams, Schuster had one assisted tackle, playing in all 12 games. Schuster was named to the Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll. He played in the 1995 FedEx Orange Bowl vs. Miami as a special teams member.

1993: Schuster played in one game and recorded his one carry, a seven-yard gain, against North Texas.

At Fullerton HS: Schuster played running back and linebacker for Coach Pat Larsen at Fullerton and helped lead his team to the Class C-2 state semifinals in 1990. He rushed for over 3,600 yards in his career, including 1,831 as a junior and 1,520 as a senior. He also earned three letters in basketball and four in track while making the honor roll every quarter with a 3.7 cumulative grade point average.

Personal: The son of Nancy Folden and Mike Schuster, Brian was born on Sept. 19, 1973. He is majoring in secondary education and boasts a 3.294 cumulative grade point average. He is the cousin of former Husker quarterback Gerry Gdowski (1987-89).

- ♦ Second-Best All-Time Husker 10-Yard Dash Time, 1.46
- ♦ Tied for Fifth-Best All-Time Husker 40-Yard Dash Time, 4.41

The fastest athlete on the team, James Sims has a 1.46 electronic time in the 10-yard dash and a 4.41 in the 40. His 40-inch vertical jump is the third best ever posted at Nebraska and all combined. Sims posted the second-best all-time Performance Index with 2,914 points last spring. He will be competing for Nebraska for the first time and enters fall camp as a reserve I-back behind Lawrence Phillips, Damon Benning, Clinton Childs and Todd Uhrir.

1993: Sims sat out the 1993 season.

At West Memphis HS: A 1989 graduate, Sims only attended West Memphis one year but rushed for 870 yards as a senior. Sims then worked a few years before enrolling at Nebraska.

Personal: The son of James and Ruby Sims, James, Jr. (Jay) is majoring in sociology and was born on Nov. 3, 1971, in Lepanto, Ark.

35 Adam Skoda

*Mike Linebacker
6-1 ♦ 215 ♦ Fr.
Lincoln, Neb.
(High HS)*

Adam Skoda (pronounced SKOE-duh) will serve as a reserve Mike linebacker in 1995 behind returning vets Phil Ellis and Doug Colman.

1994: A walk-on athlete, Adam redshirted in 1994.

At Lincoln High HS: A top linebacker who was named all-city two years and Lincoln Journal-Star Super-State and All-State as a senior, Skoda played for the North in the 1993 Nebraska Shrine game. He was a key to Lincoln High's reaching the 1992 Class A finals in football. Also a track and basketball standout, Skoda was a member of the National Honor Society.

Personal: The son of Steve and Sharon Skoda, Adam was born on Nov. 24, 1974 and will celebrate his 21st birthday on the day Nebraska hosts Oklahoma. He majors in pre-medicine and posts a 3.423 cumulative grade point average.

35 Mike Smith

*Fullback
6-2 ♦ 230 ♦ Soph.
Dunning, Neb.
(Sandhills HS)*

Mike Smith will be a sophomore for the Huskers this fall. He will serve as a backup fullback.

1994: Smith had a chronic shoulder injury which was surgically repaired in the off-season, but he did not see action in 1994.

1993: A walk-on athlete, Smith redshirted his first year at NU.

At Sandhills HS: Playing fullback and linebacker for his father, Mike totaled 315 career tackles and 1,600 yards rushing as he earned all-state honors as a linebacker his junior and senior years. Also lettered four times in basketball and track.

Personal: The son of Reggie and Linoa Smith, Mike was born on June 20, 1974. He majors in sociology.

67 Aaron Taylor

*Offensive Guard

- ♦ 1995 Sporting News Preseason Second-Team All-Big Eight
- ♦ Holds All-Time Husker Position (OL) Record for Performance Index, 2,624 Points and 10-Yard Dash Points, 754, and Pro-Agility Run, 4.23 Seconds

Taylor is an exceptional athlete who is slated to take over the starting left guard duties on the offensive line for graduated 1994 senior Joel Wilks. Taylor will be one of four new starters on the O-line this season. At 6-1, 295, Taylor has run the 10-yard dash in 1.70, has a 30-inch vertical jump, can clean 385, squat 575 and bench press 400 pounds. He holds offensive line records at NU for Performance Index, 10-yard dash points, which takes into account his weight, and the pro-agility run, which Taylor completed in 4.23 seconds. In 1995, Taylor's name was added to the prestigious honors platform as he scored 500 points or better on all six tests.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Taylor redshirted his first year at NU.

At Rider HS: A three-year starter at Rider High in Wichita Falls, Texas for Coach Wayne LeBleu, Taylor was first-team all-state pick as an offensive lineman and second-team all-district as a punter and also played fullback and nose guard. He averaged 40.7 yards per punt in 1992 and rushed for two touchdowns and one two-point conversion in short-yardage, goal-line situations. The Raiders went 5-5 in 1992 and made the Class 5A (largest) playoffs the last two years. At Rider, Taylor was a teammate of fellow Husker defensive tackle Scott Saltzman, who is a redshirted junior this season. He is also a friend of Aaron Graham, the Huskers' starting center from Denton, Texas. Taylor grew up in Germany and did not play football until his freshman year, but became a starter as a sophomore. He also qualified for regionals his senior year in the shot put with a best throw of 56-10.

Personal: The son of Wayne and Deanna Taylor, Aaron was born on Jan. 21, 1975. He majors in animal sciences, likes to compete in team roping and has a wife, Brandi.

94 Larry Townsend

Defensive Tackle
 6-4 ♦ 280 ♦ Jr.
 Letters: One
 San Jose, Calif.
 (Yerba Buena HS)

Larry Townsend enters the 1995 season as a backup defensive tackle to Christian Peter and Jeff Ogard. He nursed a left knee sprain during much of spring drills. Big and strong at 6-4, 280, Townsend can bench press 420 pounds, squat 524 and clean 345. He has trimmed off 20 pounds since the fall of 1993.

1994: Playing in 10 games, Townsend recorded six tackles while serving as backup at defensive tackle to Christian Peter and Scott Saltsman. He recorded a career-high three stops, all assisted, against Pacific and had his lone tackle for loss, three yards, in the season opener vs. West Virginia. Townsend also had two quarterback hurries on the year. In the 1995 Orange Bowl vs. Miami, Townsend had one assisted tackle.

1993: Townsend played in two games in 1993 (against North Texas and Colorado State) and recorded two tackles (one solo) including an eight-yard sack against Colorado State. He also had one quarterback hurry against the CSU Rams. He played in the 1994 Federal Express Orange Bowl but did not have any tackles.

1992: A scholarship athlete, Townsend redshirted in 1992.

At Yerba Buena HS: After starting on both the offensive and defensive lines for Coach Brook Vasconcellos at San Jose Yerba Buena High School, Townsend was an all-county pick as a senior. He had 165 tackles and 18 sacks the last two seasons, including 85 stops and 10 sacks in 1991. SuperPrep Magazine named him the defensive player-of-the-year on the West Coast, while the Long Beach Press-Telegram listed him as one of the Best in the West and noted he was one of only three players to get votes from all 10 college recruiters on the selection panel. Chose Nebraska over Colorado and Washington.

Personal: The son of Larry and Alice Townsend, Larry was born on Sept. 16, 1974. He will celebrate his 21st birthday on the day NU hosts Arizona State. He is majoring in speech communications.

77 Adam Treu

Offensive Tackle
 6-6 ♦ 295 ♦ Jr.
 Lincoln, Neb.
 (Pius X HS)

Treu (pronounced TRUE) enters fall camp as the No. 2 left offensive tackle to Chris Dishman, but after a solid spring, he will contend for more playing time. A former walk-on, True earned a scholarship prior to the 1994 season. True is also the No. 2 deep snapper behind Aaron Graham.

1994: Treu played in five games as a reserve right tackle and helped the Huskers earn their 11th NCAA rushing title.

1993: Treu played in two games as a redshirt freshman.

1992: A walk-on, Treu redshirted his first season at Nebraska.

At Pius X HS: Treu played offensive and defensive tackle for Coach Tim Alyward at Lincoln Pius X. He led his football team to the state playoffs three years and his basketball team to the state title in 1992 as he averaged 19 points and 14 rebounds. He played in the 1992 Nebraska Shrine Game. He was an all-state football honoree, Super-State in basketball and an all-state pitcher.

Personal: The son of Betty and Dale Treu, Adam was born on June 24, 1974. He is majoring in secondary education.

As a sophomore walk-on, Matt Turman was 1-0 as NU's starting quarterback and was a major contributor to the Huskers' 1994 national championship.

(Neumann HS)

- ◆ Holds the School Position (QB) Record for Strength Index (1,003 points) with a Position Record of 279 Pounds in the Clean
- ◆ 1994 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll

Matt Turman will serve as a backup quarterback to Brook Berringer and Tommie Frazier. He played a key role in Nebraska's championship season last year and started against No. 16 Kansas State when both Brook and Tommie were out with injuries. With just three QBs on the depth chart last season, everyone held their breath when Turman went down in the Missouri game, fearing it was a separated shoulder, but it was just a strain and he was back at practice within a few days. Turman practiced all spring, but had a diagnostic scope in the off-season on his right knee and should be healthy for the 1995 season.

1994: Walk-on Matt Turman was the Huskers' third quarterback, behind scholarship signal callers Brook Berringer and Tommie Frazier, but for two halves of two conference games, Turman was the man in charge. When Brook Berringer suffered a partially-collapsed lung for the second time and was not allowed to return for the second half against Oklahoma State on Oct. 8, Turman entered the game (with a 9-3 lead) and led the Huskers to two quick TDs in the third quarter and another in the fourth, while the defense clamped down for a 32-3 win. With Berringer still questionable up to Thursday prior to the Kansas State game, Turman became the first walk-on player to start at quarterback for the Huskers since Travis Turner (Scottsbluff, Neb.) started the first and eighth game as a senior in the 1985 season. With Frazier starting the first four games and Berringer the fifth and sixth, Turman became the third starter for the undefeated Huskers when he started game seven. It marked the first time since 1981 that NU has used three different starting signal callers in one season. Turman led NU to a 7-6 first-half lead against the No. 16 Wildcats, before Berringer took over the last series before intermission. Turman carried the ball four times for 10 yards, completed 2-4 passes for 15 yards, did not throw an interception, was not sacked and led the Huskers to a TD on their second possession, enough for a 7-6 halftime lead and an eventual 17-6 win. Turman gave the Huskers a huge scare the subsequent week when at Columbia, he suffered a bruised shoulder with 2:34 remaining in the game, while Berringer was resting on the sideline with a 35-7 lead. His injury, which appeared to be a shoulder separation at the time, forced true freshman walk-on Monte Christo to forego his redshirt season. In 11 games (playing all but Iowa State), Turman finished the year with 19 carries for 80 yards rushing with a career-best four carries for 37 yards against Pacific. Turman completed 6-12 passes (.500) for 81 yards with no interceptions, one TD (a 24-yard career-long strike to Jeff Lake vs. Pacific) and was never sacked for a 134.2 pass efficiency rating. He was named to the Phillips 66 Academic Honor Roll.

1993: Turman played in four games in 1993, against North Texas, Texas Tech, Colorado State and Missouri. He was 1-1 passing with a 15-yard touchdown pass against North Texas in the season opener, while his one rushing attempt was a one-yard TD, also against UNT.

At Neumann HS: Playing for his father Tim, Matt was a quarterback and safety and led his team to the state semifinals his senior year with an 11-1 record. Turman threw for 1,040 yards, rushed for 768 and finished as the all-time Neumann leader in passing and tackles and was sixth in rushing. He earned all-state honors from both the Omaha World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal-Star and played in the 1992 Nebraska Shrine Game. A versatile athlete, Turman lettered four times in football, three in basketball and four times in track. Academically, he was a member of the National Honor Society, was his class salutatorian and posted a 4.0 grade point average.

Personal: The son of Tim and Dianne Turman, Matt was born on Dec. 13, 1973. He has one brother and four sisters. A secondary education major, Turman boasts a 3.702 cumulative GPA.

Uhlir (pronounced YOU-ler) has a host of talent ahead of him at I-back, including veterans Lawrence Phillips, Damon Benning and Clinton Childs, but the walk-on sophomore held his own last spring. He practiced at both I-back and fullback and was the leading rusher for the White team in the 1995 annual Red-White Spring Game with nine carries for 114 yards, including an 89-yard TD--a spring game record. He could be utilized at either I-back or fullback this fall.

1994: Uhlir played in five games and rushed the ball six times for 27 yards (4.5 apc) including a career-long carry of 10 yards vs. Pacific. He had one carry for five yards vs. West Virginia, 2-9 vs. UCLA and 3-13 vs. Pacific. He did not play in the Huskers' last seven games.

1993: A walk-on, Uhlir redshirted his first year at NU.

At Battle Creek HS: The state's leading rusher was named to the Journal-Star Super-State and Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska teams. He set seven playoff records, five of them all-class. Also a state track qualifier three years, all-conference in wrestling two years and a member of the Class C midget Legion state championship team.

Jon Vedral (pronounced VED-rull) enters the fall season as Clester Johnson's backup at wingback. He returns as Nebraska's No. 1 holder. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Jon is a fearless, competitive wingback who can run, catch, block and is a great special teams player." An excellent athlete, Vedral is tied for fifth on the team in the 10-yard dash with a 1.52 electronic clocking. He has the all-time best Husker pro-agility run with a 3.79 in 20 yards and holds several other position records.

1994: Vedral served as a backup wingback for the Huskers and was Nebraska's holder on PATs and field goals. Vedral caught just one pass for a seven-yard gain against Pacific, but was perfect passing. Against Oklahoma State, on a bad snap, he scrambled around, then completed a difficult pass to place-kicker Darin Erstad in the third quarter. The play was one of NuSkin's top plays-of-the-year. He also completed a five-yard pass against the Cowboys to Jeff Makovicka on a fake field goal attempt in the fourth quarter. The five-yard gain was short of the first down however. A valuable member of the Husker punt and kickoff return teams, Vedral led the team with 11 special teams tackles. Vedral played in the 1995 FedEx Orange Bowl but did not have any receptions. He held for place-kicker Tom Sieler on PATs.

1993: Vedral played in three games in 1993 as a reserve wingback, but did not catch any passes.

1992: As a freshman walk-on, Vedral redshirted his first year.

At Gregory HS: Vedral was a running back and linebacker for Gregory High School and Coach Mike Dary. He rushed for 1,240 yards in 1990 and caught 15 passes for 300 yards and 27 TDs. As a senior in 1991, he rushed for 1,258 yards and scored 21 TDs on 200 attempts. He helped lead his team to the state semifinals in 1990 with a 10-1 record and to the quarterfinals in 1991 with a 7-3 mark. He was a two-time all-state running back and also lettered four times in track and four times in wrestling, placing second at the Class B state championships at 171 pounds as a senior. He was a National Honor Society member.

Personal: The son of Dennis and Dianne Vedral, Jon has two brothers and two sisters. His brother Mike was a tight end for the Huskers in 1990-91-92. Majoring in secondary education, Jon was born on April 9, 1974.

68 Steve Volin

Offensive Guard
6-2 ♦ 280 ♦ Sr.
Letters: One
Wahoo, Neb.
(Wahoo HS)

Steve Volin (pronounced VOE-lin) heads into his final year as the No. 3 right guard backing up Steve Ott and Jon Zatechka. Volin earned his first letter last season. An excellent student, Volin posts a 3.860 cumulative grade point average in biological sciences.

1994: Volin played in four games in 1994 as Joel Wilks' backup at left guard.

1993: Volin played in four games as a reserve guard.

1991: A walk-on, Volin redshirted his first season.

At Wahoo HS: Playing for Coach Dick Tingelhoff, Volin was an all-state offensive lineman as named by the Lincoln Journal-Star and also played nose guard for Wahoo. He played in the 1991 Nebraska Shrine Game. An academic all-state student-athlete, Volin graduated at the top of his class of 50. He was also a starter for Wahoo's record-breaking basketball squad. The Warriors won four consecutive Class B state titles and won a state-record 90 straight games during his career.

Personal: A biological sciences major, Volin posts one of the highest GPAs on the team with a cumulative 3.860 and is on schedule to receive his degree in biological sciences after the fall semester. The son of Jerald and Marilyn Volin, Steve was born on Jan. 13, 1973. Volin serves as a volunteer with the Coach Osborne Teammates Program and is a Mortar Board member. He enjoys flying radio control airplanes.

Jon Vedral is a reserve wingback and Nebraska's holder.

53 Matt Vrzal

Center
6-1 ♦ 290 ♦ Jr.
Letters: One
Grand Island, Neb.
(Grand Island HS)

Matt Vrzal (pronounced VER-zull) had a solid spring and will back up Aaron Graham at center. An excellent student, Vrzal posts a 3.018 in accounting.

1994: Vrzal played in five games in 1994 as the No. 3 center behind Graham and Bill Humphrey, but did not see action in the 1995 FedEx Orange Bowl vs. Miami.

1993: Vrzal played in three games in 1993 as a backup center.

1992: A walk-on athlete, Vrzal opted to redshirt in 1992.

At Grand Island HS: Vrzal was a Lincoln Journal-Star Super-State and Omaha World-Herald all-state offensive guard as a senior at Grand Island High. He also earned USA Today honorable-mention All-America honors. He played for former Husker Ken Fischer and was a teammate of fellow Husker Phil Ellis. He also played defensive tackle for a team which finished second in Class A in 1990. He played in the 1992 Nebraska Shrine Game. An excellent student, Vrzal was also academic all-state and graduated in the top 10 percent of his class.

Personal: The son of Terry and Nancy Vrzal, Matt was born on July 12, 1974, and majors in accounting, posting a 3.018 GPA.

61 Brandt Wade

6-2 ♦ 280 ♦ Fr.
Springfield, Neb.
(Platteview HS)

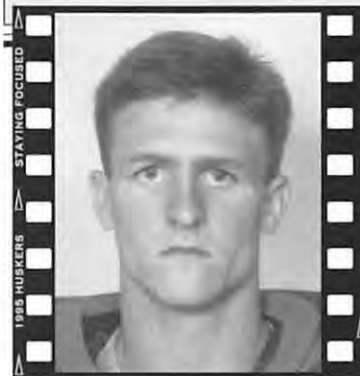

Brandt Wade has struggled with minor injuries in his first year, including a left shoulder strain last spring, but he was able to complete spring drills and enters fall camp as Nebraska's No. 3 left guard behind Aaron Taylor and Matt Hoskinson. He could play either side for NU. An excellent student, Wade has a 3.70 GPA in biological sciences.

1994: A scholarship athlete, Wade redshirted his first year.

At Platteview HS: Wade was an all-class, all-state lineman (Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal-Star) and a USA Today honorable-mention pick for Platteview and Coach Dennis Mahaney. He had 74 total tackles as a senior, including seven sacks, four fumble recoveries and three fumbles caused. The first-ever Platteview grad to earn a football scholarship from Nebraska, he is the second Division I scholarship player in his school's history. He played in the 1994 Nebraska Shrine Game. Wade was also the Class B state heavyweight champion in 1994 as he posted a 34-0 record. He finished second at the state championships in 1993. Wade earned a school-record 12 letters (four each in football, golf and wrestling) and was a three-time state qualifier in golf. A 4.0 student, Brandt was a National Honor Society member, a Boys State representative and a Boys National alternate as he finished third in his class.

Personal: The son of Larry and Christine Wade, Brandt was born on Sept. 30, 1975. He will celebrate his 20th birthday when NU takes on Washington State this year. Wade has served as a volunteer speaker at Springfield Platteview Schools and as a host for the Springfield Platteview Incentive Program. He majors in biological sciences.

6 Eric Walther

Cornerback
6-0 ♦ 170 ♦ Fr.
Juniata, Neb.
(Hastings Adams
Central HS)

Eric Walther (pronounced WALL-ther) is a redshirt freshman walk-on, who had a solid spring and will enter fall camp as Tyrone Williams' backup at right corner.

1994: A walk-on athlete, Walther redshirted his first year.

At Hastings Adams Central HS: Walther was first-team Super-State and All-Nebraska on offense and was named the Class B defensive player-of-the-year by the Lincoln Journal-Star. He was the Omaha World-Herald Honorary Captain of the offense rushing for 1,812 yards as a senior. Helped lead Hastings Adams Central to the state semifinals. He was all-conference four years and played on Nebraska's Down Under Bowl team in Sydney, Australia. A National Honor Society member, he was on the A honor roll for three years.

Personal: The son of Gary and Stephanie Walther, Eric was born on Nov. 6, 1975. He is majoring in business administration.

3 Riley Washington

Wingback
 5-9 ♦ 165 ♦ Jr.
 Letters: Two
 Chula Vista, Calif.
 (San Diego Southwest HS)

- ◆ Nebraska Indoor Track Record Holder, 55-Meter Dash, 6.17
- ◆ Nebraska Outdoor Track Record Holder, 100-Meter Dash, 10.25
- ◆ 1995, 1993, Big Eight Indoor Big Eight 55-Meter Dash Champion
- ◆ 1994 Indoor Track All-American, 55-Meter Dash
- ◆ 1993 Outdoor Track All-American, 100-Meter Dash

Riley Washington continues to improve his reception skills and certainly has the speed to be a major contributor this season. He made a move from split end to wingback last spring and although he was nursing a sore shoulder, which he had scoped after spring ball, he again had an excellent spring game. Washington caught four passes for 103 yards and three TDs including a 52-yard score from Scott Frost. His three receptions were a spring game record while his 18 points scored tied the record. A two-time All-America track sprinter and two-time conference champion in the 55-meter dash, Washington has a 1.60 electronic 10-yard dash and a 4.47 in the 40 (tied for fifth best on the team). Washington has the speed to make big plays happen. On the track in the winter of 1993, Washington posted the third-fastest collegiate 55-meter dash time in the nation with a school-record 6.17 and has a best of 10.25 in the 100 meters. Receivers coach Ron Brown said, "Riley's speed is much publicized, but he is developing the other important areas a receiver needs: hands, poise, precision and knowledge. He could be a huge difference-maker."

1994: As a reserve split end, Washington played in every game in 1994. Although he had no pass receptions, he did have one carry for a five-yard gain against Wyoming. In the 1995 Orange Bowl vs. Miami, Washington had a nine-yard rush on a reverse in the second quarter on first down. On the next play, Clinton Childs went up the middle for a one-yard gain and a first down. Then two plays later, Brook Berringer connected with Mark Gilman for a 19-yard TD to put the Huskers on the board. On the track, Washington won the Big Eight indoor 55-meters and qualified for nationals with a 6.22 mark as NU edged Iowa State for the team title. At the NCAA Indoor championships, Washington earned his second All-America award with a fourth-place finish in the 55-meter dash (6.25 seconds).

1993: Washington played in four games (vs. North Texas, Colorado State, Missouri and Iowa State) and caught just one pass for 15 yards against North Texas, but that completion from Matt Turman went for a touchdown and was part of the Huskers' highest 1993 scoring output in the 76-14 win. Washington did not participate in indoor track in 1993 until winter conditioning was completed. He ran at the conference meet and won the 55-meter dash. During the outdoor season he finished fourth at the Big Eight meet (10.28) and 10th at nationals with a school-record 10.25 clocking in the 100 meters. He was also a member of the school-record 4 x 100-meter relay team (39.45).

competed in indoor and outdoor track for the Huskers. He immediately put his name in the record books with a 6.17 in the 55-meter dash at the Husker Invite. It was the third-fastest time in the nation turned in among collegians in 1993. He placed second in the 55 (6.25) at the Big Eight indoor and sixth in the 200-meter dash (21.68). He went with the team to indoor nationals, but did not qualify for the finals, then turned his attention to spring football drills before rejoining the track team for the outdoor season. He placed second in the 100 meters at the conference outdoor meet (10.38) and was sixth in the 200 (21.65). He broke the school record in the 100 at the NU Last Chance Meet with a 10.34 mark. At outdoor nationals in the 100 meters, he advanced to the semifinals and was seventh in his heat. Although he did not qualify for the finals, he earned All-America status as the eighth-fastest American finisher.

At Southwest HS: A two-way player for Coach Carl Patrick at San Diego Southwest High School, Washington rushed for some 1,200 yards as a senior running back in 1991, following a 1,100-yard year in 1990. He also played defensive back for Patrick and had the fastest 100-meter prep time in the country as a senior at 10.34 seconds. He was the fastest returning sprinter in the state for 1992. Washington chose Nebraska over Colorado, UCLA, Fresno State, Oregon and Oregon State.

Personal: The son of Anthony and Glenda Washington, Riley was born on July 31, 1973, in Hale Center, Texas, and majors in communication studies.

28 Jamel Williams

Will Linebacker
 6-0 ♦ 195 ♦ Jr.
 Merrillville, Ind.
 (Merrillville HS)

Jamel (pronounced Ja-MELL) moved from the secondary to weak-side linebacker in midseason last year and in 1995 will back up Ryan Terwilliger and company at that position. After having both knees reconstructed, Williams had to have his right shoulder repaired after the Orange Bowl last winter. He missed all of spring drills, but should be healthy for the fall season. Still an excellent athlete, Williams posted a 1.59 electronic 10-yard dash prior to last season, a 4.61 in the 40 and is tied for sixth best on the team with a 36.5-inch vertical jump.

1994: Williams played in 10 games in 1994 and recorded six tackles. He began the season as a rover, but moved to Will linebacker midway, where he served as a backup to Ed Stewart and Ryan Terwilliger. He had a career-best three tackles against Pacific. Williams and fellow newcomer Michael Booker were both first-year sophomores in the NU secondary. In the 1995 Orange Bowl vs. Miami, Williams had one assisted tackle.

1993: Williams sat out the season.

At Merrillville HS: A blue-chip athlete in 1992 as named by Parade, USA Today and Schutt-Scholastic Coach, Williams was an AP all-state, Coaches Board Top 50 and Bloomington Herald Top 33 athlete. He was also The Post Tribune and The Times Defensive Player-of-the-Year, a finalist for Indiana Mr. Football, the Duneland Conference MVP and the Merrillville High School Co-MVP. Williams and Jared Tomich are believed to be the first Husker recruits to come out of the state of Indiana. Williams tore his ACL in his left knee in the 1993 all-star game. This followed two torn ligaments in his right knee when he was tackled on an interception return in late September of his junior season. Prior to the injury, he had gained 399 yards as a running back in the first four games (nine touchdowns, one interception) of the season after rushing for 913 (eight TDs, six interceptions) as a sophomore and 448 as a freshman (three TDs, one interception). He returned to star for his basketball team three months after his first injury and qualified for the state track meet in the spring of 1992 in the 100- and 200-meter dashes and as a member of the 400-meter relay team, placing sixth in the 100 (10.94). In his final three years, Williams helped lead the Merrillville Pirates to a 27-5 record and a Class 5A regional title as he scored 45 touchdowns and rushed for 3,238 yards (5.7 per carry). Playing as a freshman, he earned four letters in football. In basketball, his teams were 54-17 and won the East Chicago Regional.

Personal: The son of Monroe Williams and Chris Edwards, Jamel is the cousin of former Husker linebacker Daren Williams (1991-93). He was born on Dec. 22, 1973 and is majoring in communication studies. He has worked at youth basketball and football camps and speaks at elementary schools in his home state.

99 Jason Wiltz

Defensive Tackle
 6-3 ♦ 280 ♦ Fr.
 New Orleans, La.
 (St. Augustine HS)

Jason Wiltz redshirted last season and in his first year for the Huskers will serve as a backup defensive tackle behind Jason Peter, Scott Saltsman and Jason Jenkins.

1994: A scholarship athlete, Wiltz redshirted in 1994.

At St. Augustine HS: A SuperPrep All-America defensive tackle for Coach Tony Biagas at St. Augustine, Wiltz was also named the most valuable player in his district and earned all-state and honorable-mention All-America honors by USA Today. As a senior, Wiltz was credited with 76 tackles, including 12 sacks and 11 others for losses. He also had four fumble recoveries for state-qualifying St. Augustine High School. SuperPrep rated Wiltz as the nation's fourth-best defensive lineman in 1994, while Blue Chip named him to its all-region team. Wiltz comes from the same high school which produced ex-Husker linebacker David White (1989-92) and receivers Tyrone Hughes (1989-92) and Vincent Hawkins (1990-92). Also a standout first baseman and pitcher on his high school baseball team, Wiltz chose Nebraska over Texas A&M, Colorado, Texas, LSU and North Carolina.

Personal: The son of Stanley and Brenda Wiltz, Jason was born on Nov. 23, 1976, and is undecided on a major.

Jamel Williams saw valuable playing time as a first-year sophomore last year after moving to weak-side linebacker for the Huskers.

34 Ramone Worthy

Sam Linebacker
6-0 ♦ 210 ♦ Soph.
Camden, N.J.
(Woodrow Wilson HS)

A distant cousin of former Nebraska Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier, Ramone Worthy returned in the spring of 1995, after taking last fall off from football. Worthy will be a redshirted sophomore in 1995 and is slated to back up Jay Foreman and Larry Arnold at Sam linebacker.

1994: Did not participate in football, but remained enrolled.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Worthy redshirted his first year.

At Woodrow Wilson HS: Worthy was a second-team all-state running back at Woodrow Wilson High in Camden for Coach Darrell Wilson. He gained 1,554 yards in nine games (177.0 ypg, 8.0 ypa) and scored 20 touchdowns in 1992 as the lone back for the 8-1 conference champion Tigers. It was the first year he played for Woodrow Wilson as he transferred from Manchester High after his junior year. As a running back, he earned first team all-conference, all-region, All-South Jersey, All-Delaware (which includes Southern New Jersey, Delaware and portions of Pennsylvania). He also played linebacker and tallied 90 tackles (50 solo), six quarterback sacks, two interceptions, three caused fumbles and one recovery. Also a sprinter for the track team, Worthy has run a 6.52 electronic 55 meters, a 10.7 100 meters, 22.6 split in the 4 x 200-meter relay and threw 52-0 in the shot put as a junior.

Personal: The son of Richard and Vera Worthy, Ramone was born on Nov. 10, 1973 and is a criminal justice major.

64 Jon Zatechka

Right Guard
6-2 ♦ 280 ♦ Soph.
Lincoln, Neb.
(East HS)

Jon Zatechka (pronounced ZAD-ess-kuh) had an impressive spring and will contend for starting honors with senior Steve Ott at right guard.

1994: Zatechka played in four games, but did not see action in the 1995 FedEx Orange Bowl vs. Miami.

1993: A scholarship athlete, Zatechka redshirted his first year.

At East HS: Zatechka started on the offensive line for East High the last two years and part of his sophomore year. Playing for Coach Lee Zentic, Jon also started at left defensive tackle in 1992 where he recorded 68 tackles (31 solo). Zatechka was named first-team All-Nebraska by the Omaha World-Herald and Super-State by the Lincoln Journal-Star in 1992. He earned all-city honors as a junior and played in the 1993 Nebraska Shrine Game. He also threw the shot put at the state meet and earned three track and field letters. Like his two older brothers, Steve and Rob, Jon was No. 1 in his class with a perfect 4.0.

Personal: The "little" brother of 1994 Husker senior offensive tackle Rob Zatechka (6-5, 300), Jon (6-2, 280) hopes to follow in his brother's footsteps as Rob earned every academic award and scholarship available to student-athletes last year. Jon is also an excellent student and boasts a 3.854 cumulative grade point average in fisheries and wildlife. He has served as a volunteer speaker at Brownell Elementary and for the SCIP and DARE alcohol and drug prevention programs. The son of Doug and Jane Zatechka, Jon was born on June 10, 1975.

Derek Allen

Fr., 6-6, 275, DL, Russellville, Ark.--

One of the premier defensive linemen in the nation, Allen was named to The Arkansas Democrat's all-state defensive team after posting a monster senior season.

Allen was selected as a SuperPrep and Blue Chip Illustrated All-American as a defensive lineman. Earned two-time all-state honors and was the 1994 Arkansas Defensive Player-of-the-Year. Was the top sophomore and top junior in the state and following his senior year, was named the fourth-best defensive lineman in the nation by The Sporting News. For the season, Allen had 76 tackles (47 unassisted), eight sacks, 25 QB hurries, four forced fumbles, three PBUs and five tackles for losses playing for Coach Phil Collins. Helped lead Russellville to the second round of the state playoffs, with a 9-3 record--the most wins ever in a season for the school. Also competes in track and threw the shot 50 feet as a junior. Took visits to Nebraska, Iowa, Boston College and Virginia. Also recruited by Louisville, Arkansas, Texas and Oklahoma State. Born on April 25, 1977, he is the son of Carrie and Bill Allen.

Matt Baldwin

Fr., 6-3, 265, OL, Arvada, Colo. (Bear Creek)--Baldwin played center, the spot he's projected to play for the Huskers, for three years before moving to left guard his senior season. He also played defensive line, where he earned all-state honors by The Denver Post. Baldwin also earned all-state accolades as an offensive lineman by The Rocky Mountain News. Baldwin was tabbed as an All-American by Blue Chip Illustrated, was an

All-Midlands region selection by SuperPrep and was on the Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100 list. Extremely strong with a 400-pound bench press, Baldwin recorded 91 stops last season and has a career total of 28 tackles for loss. He played his first three years of prep ball at Mullen High School for Pete LeVine, then transferred prior to the spring semester after his junior season to Bear Creek High School in Lakewood, Colo., and helped lead Tom Thennell's team to its first league championship in the 71-year history of the school (9-4 record). Also throws the shot and discus and is listed among the Who's Who of American students. Baldwin picked NU over Southern Cal, Minnesota, Hawaii and Colorado State. The son of Stan and Leah Baldwin, Matt was born on Nov. 27, 1976.

Andy Bilanzich

Fr., 6-3, 215, P, Park City, Utah (Judge Memorial Catholic)--Bilanzich was recruited as a punter but was also a place-kicker, tight end and nose guard for Judge Memorial Catholic High School in Salt Lake City. He was named to Blue Chip Illustrated's All-America team as a kicker after he averaged 48.5 yards per punt as a senior and led the state with a 43.0 net punting average. Also a pitcher and a regional shot put champion (over 52 feet in 1994), Bilanzich was a member of the undefeated Highland rugby team which won the national championship in Seattle last year. He played for Coach John Colosimo where he set a state record for five punts in one game with a 56-yard average. He had a career-best 68-yard punt in 1994 and kicked seven field goals of 45 yards or more in 1994, including a career-long 54 yarder vs. West High School (five were 47 yards or more). Of his punts, 65 percent were downed inside the 20-yard line last year. He was the MVP two years at the Mark Adams Kicking Camp and of the Ray Parrella Kicking Camp in 1994. He was an all-state kicker and defensive lineman as a senior and all-state kicker as a junior and also was a starter on offense at tight end. He served 45 hours per semester teaching autistic children, participated in Science School twice and had two short stories and four poems published over the last three years. Andy committed to Nebraska early and although recruited by Utah, Colorado and BYU, he took no other visits. He is the nephew of former NU tight end Steve Davies who played for the Huskers in 1978-80. An avid Husker fan, Andy said he is having a special false eye made with an "N" on it. He lost his left eye in a childhood accident. He said, "Ever since I was a kid in diapers, I've been a Husker fan. When I finally got the opportunity to play for Nebraska, I couldn't pass it up." The son of Jerry and Susan Bilanzich, Andy was born on Oct. 2, 1976.

Kris Brown

Fr., 6-0, 190, K, Southlake, Texas (Carroll)--Recruited as a kicker, Brown also played quarterback his junior and senior years. Helped lead Carroll High School to the 3-A state title in 1992 and 1993. Brown connected on 16 of 18 field goal attempts in 1994. He earned first-team all-district, all Northeast Tarrant County honors and all-area honors by the Dallas Morning News and the Fort Worth Star-Telegram as a kicker his senior year playing for Coach Bob Ledbetter. He also earned honorable-mention all-state honors by both AP and the Texas Sportswriters Association. Brown was named an All-America kicker by Blue Chip Illustrated and an All-Midlands region choice by SuperPrep in 1994. He kicked four field goals, including a long of 50 yards, in the first 4A playoff game in 1994 as Carroll defeated No. 2 Waxahachie, 23-20. Carroll High School went 32-0 in his sophomore and junior years and 6-5 his senior year as the team moved up to 4A. Brown became the second Husker to give an oral commitment as he committed in early September. Brown spurned offers from Oklahoma, Texas and Texas Tech but only visited NU. Brown also played basketball and baseball, earning first-team all-district honors as a sophomore and junior outfielder for Carroll. He was an all-academic all-district honoree his last two years. Brown said, "I feel very fortunate to be able to come to a program such as Nebraska. My goals are to get up there, play well and get my degree. I absolutely love the place." The son of Hobert Brown and Shari Chaney, Kris' stepmother, Terri, hails from Kimball, Neb. He was born on Dec. 23, 1976.

Jeff Clausen

Fr., 6-8, 275, OL, Dixon, Ill. (Dixon)--A versatile performer, Clausen played both ways on the prep scene. He was picked as an All-America offensive lineman by Blue Chip Illustrated and earned honorable-mention Illinois Player-of-the-Year and All-America honors by USA Today. Clausen also earned all-state honors by the Champaign Gazette and was named all-region by the Dixon Telegraph. Clausen's high school coach, Greg Sprenger, was a former coach at Beatrice (Neb.) High School. A top track athlete as well, Clausen finished sixth at the 1994 state meet with a 157-10 discus toss and has posted a 53-3 mark in the shot put. He's also a two-year basketball letterman. Clausen visited Iowa and was also recruited by Illinois, Iowa State and Northwestern. Clausen said, "I felt comfortable there. Nebraska has great academics, a great coaching staff and a great football team. I fell in love with the place when I visited." The son of Merlin and Colleen Clausen, Jeff was born on Jan. 9, 1977.

T.J. DeBates

Fr., 6-4, 240, LB, Stewartville, Minn. (Stewartville)--DeBates returns to Nebraska after having lived in O'Neill until 1979, where his father, Earl DeBates, was the head football coach at O'Neill High School. DeBates played running back, fullback, inside and outside linebacker and tight end for his father at Stewartville High School. DeBates rushed for 714 yards last season and totaled 2,716 yards and 44 touchdowns in his career. In addition, DeBates caught 10 passes for 114 yards and two TDs as a senior tight end. The four-year letterwinner earned all-state honors by the AP and by the Minneapolis Tribune and St. Paul Pioneer Press as a linebacker as he recorded 119 tackles in 1994 and 224 in his career. He also had two fumbles caused, one recovered, four breakups and one interception as senior. He set school records for TDs in a season (18) and career (40) and for points scored in a season (124) and career (282). SuperPrep magazine listed DeBates as an All-American in its athlete section, while Blue Chip Illustrated named him an All-America linebacker. A multi-sport standout on the prep level, DeBates won the state shot put title in 1994 with a 56-10 toss. He also averaged 13.5 points and 11 rebounds for his basketball team and was a four-year letterman. A standout in the classroom as well, DeBates boasts a 3.85 GPA, scored a 23 on the ACT test and is a National Honor Society member. He visited Minnesota and Iowa and canceled Northwestern before he committed on his visit to Nebraska. T.J. said, "When Coach Osborne came up a week before my visit and offered a scholarship, I knew right away. Nothing matches Nebraska. It speaks for itself." The son of Earl and Marvis DeBates, T.J. was born in O'Neill, Neb., on May 3, 1977.

Brandon Drum

Fr., 6-5, 250, DL, Columbus, Neb. (Scotus)--A talented two-way performer, Drum was named an All-Nebraska offensive lineman the past two seasons and was a Lincoln Journal-Star Super-State offensive lineman in 1994. As a defensive tackle for Coach Jim Puetz, Drum had 28 solo stops and 33 assists as a senior with four sacks. Offensively, he broke the school career record grading out to a 1.84 in 400 minutes played (on a 3.0 scale) his last two years. Also a top student, Drum scored a 26 on the ACT test. He earned Blue Chip Illustrated All-America and SuperPrep All-Midlands region honors as an offensive lineman. Drum earned all-state honors defensively as a junior and led his team to an 8-4 record in 1994 and to a perfect 13-0 record and a state championship his junior year. Brandon said, "The biggest factor in my decision was the coaching staff. Nebraska could have been 0-13 and it wouldn't have mattered to me. With the Nebraska tradition and coaches and being from Nebraska, coming here seemed like the only thing to do." Drum also throws the shot and discus with a best throw of 51-10 in the shot at the state track meet last year. The son of Greg and Denette Drum, Brandon was born on Sept. 18, 1976.

Terrell Farley

Jr., 6-1, 205, LB, Columbus, Ga. (Independence (Kan.) CC, Kendrick HS)--A junior college All-America outside linebacker, Farley is the 30th-best junior college prospect according to SuperPrep. Originally from Columbus, Ga., Farley was recruited by Alabama, Florida and Kentucky while starring at the prep level. He is Nebraska's only junior college transfer this season, playing the last two years for Coach Bob O'Mera at Independence College where he was the Jayhawk League Linebacker-of-the-Year. This past season, Farley registered 116 tackles, 12 sacks and an amazing 15 blocked kicks (nine punts, six field goals). He scored two TDs on fumble returns in a playoff game vs. Coffeyville which Independence won 34-20. His freshman year, he earned second-team all-conference honors with 95 tackles and seven blocked kicks. He led Kendrick High School, coached by Howard Busby, to the state title as a junior and in two years at Kendrick, blocked over 20 kicks. Also a track competitor as a prepster, he was on the state championship 4 x 100-meter relay teams his junior and senior years and the gold-medal 4 x 400 relay as a junior. Planning to major in criminal justice, Farley said, "I chose Nebraska partly because they graduated several linebackers this season and also because academically, it was a good program." The son of Willie Farley and Lenore Farley, Terrell was born on Aug. 16, 1975.

Lonnie Fulton

Fr., 6-5, 250, OL, Grand Island, Neb.--Fulton comes to NU from Grand Island, a long-time feeder school for the Huskers. He will report to the Huskers in January, 1996, for the spring semester and receive a scholarship at that time after having left shoulder surgery in June for a chronic high school injury. Fulton started on both offense and defense for Coach John Farrand and the Islanders and will most likely play on the offensive line at NU. Fulton was selected as an All-American by Blue Chip Illustrated and as an All-Midlands region offensive lineman by SuperPrep. He earned first-team all-class honors by the Omaha World-Herald and Super-State honors by the Lincoln Journal-Star as an offensive tackle. A two-year starter on both sides of the ball, Fulton co-captained his team last season. An avid weightlifter, Fulton can bench 315, squat 400, hang clean 340 and push-jerk 310 pounds. His best game was against Hastings last year when he had over 10 "pancakes" and 13 tackles including two for losses. He enjoys hunting and fishing and said he picked Nebraska because, "of the tradition and because they have the best coaches and facilities in the nation." His brother, Brian, graduated with a mechanical engineering degree from Nebraska, and Lonnie hopes to pursue the same degree. He only visited Nebraska and was NU's third commitment turning down offers from Iowa State, Wyoming and Colorado State. The son of Lloyd and Lavonne Fulton, Lonnie was born on Jan. 11, 1977.

Ahman Green

Fr., 6-1, 210, RB, Omaha, Neb. (Central)

◆ 1995 Bob Griese's Preseason Big Eight

Newcomer-of-the-Year--Green comes to NU as one of the most honored running backs in Nebraska prep history. Green was tabbed by USA Today as a first-team All-America running back and was picked as one of eight finalists for Gatorade's National Player-of-the-Year Award. Green earned Gatorade Circle of Champions Nebraska Player-of-the-Year honors, was a Parade All-American, was tabbed to Blue Chip Illustrated's Dream Team, to the Reebok and SuperPrep All-America teams and to the Schutt High School All-America team. He was listed as Blue Chip's top running back prospect. SuperPrep ranked Green as the No. 8 running back in the nation after he rushed for 1,591 yards and 14 touchdowns on 164 carries as a senior. Almost gaining a first down every time he touched the football, Green averaged 9.7 yards per carry and 176.8 yards a game for the Eagles and Coach Joe McMenamin. He also caught four passes for 40 yards in 1994. Green rushed for more than 1,000 yards as a junior and senior at Omaha Central and as a sophomore at Omaha North. He also played linebacker and punted for Central. Green hails from the same high school that has produced running back greats Gayle Sayers, Keith Jones, Leodis Flowers and Calvin Jones. Green was a two-time first-team All-Nebraska pick by the Omaha World-Herald, a two-time first-team Super-State selection by the Lincoln Journal-Star and was the LJS Offensive Player-of-the-Year in 1994. Green has been clocked in 10.5 (100 meters) and 22.0 (200 meters) on the track. In the spring of 1995 he won the state Class A 100-meter dash in 10.61, the 200 in 21.91 and was the anchor of Central's 400 relay which won in 42.98. He was subsequently named the Omaha World-Herald's Nebraska High School Male Athlete-of-the-Year. Ahman said, "I'm really excited about my decision and I'm glad my family and friends will be able to watch me play the next four years." Green selected Nebraska after visits to Notre Dame, Arizona, Michigan and Penn State. He also plays baseball, hitting .400 and playing center field and can squat 505 pounds, bench 285 and dead lift 490. He was named to the honor roll as a junior and senior and earned academic all-state honors as a junior. He is friends of Clinton Childs and Damon Benning, while his cousin, Steve Gordon, is a former triple jumper for the Huskers. The son of Glenda and Edward Scott, Ahman was born on Feb. 16, 1977.

Julius Jackson

Fr., 6-2, 206, LB, Gainesville, Texas--Jackson put up impressive numbers during his senior season at Gainesville High School. Playing for Coach Mike Russell, Jackson totaled 94 tackles, 12 tackles for losses, four sacks and six fumble recoveries on his way to being named an All-America linebacker by SuperPrep and Blue Chip Illustrated. Also earned all-district, all-area and honorable-mention all-state honors. Jackson also played fullback and helped lead his team to the Class 3-A state playoffs as he rushed for 600 yards in 1994 including nine touchdowns. He helped lead his team to the regional finals and an 11-2 record. Jackson picked NU over Texas Tech, Texas A&M and Baylor. Julius said, "I picked Nebraska because of its winning tradition and because the academic and strength programs are second to none." Jackson also competed in track as he placed fifth in the 300 hurdles at state and also participated in the long jump, mile relay and shot put. The son of Margaret Jackson and Tim Whitstone, Julius was born on Nov. 7, 1976.

Marcus Johnson

Fr., 6-5, 265, OL, Oceanside, Calif. (Vista)-- Although he played at Vista High School in metropolitan San Diego, Johnson lives in neighboring Oceanside, Calif., which sent Oceanside High School products Michael Booker (reserve cornerback) and Tray Crayton (reserve safety) to Nebraska the last two years. Playing for Coach Dick Haines at Vista, Johnson played both sides of the line, but is projected to play with the Husker offense. He earned second-team All-North County, All-Palomar League honors and was a scholar-athlete as a senior with a 3.5 GPA. Johnson comes to NU after turning down scholarship offers from UCLA, Colorado, Arizona State and Oregon. He said, "I chose Nebraska because it's a running team and I like to run block. We run some of the same plays as Nebraska does and it was a good fit for me." The son of Calvin and Rosie Johnson, Marcus was born on Jan. 13, 1977.

Adam Julch

Fr., 6-6, 300, OL, Omaha, Neb. (Burke)-- Julch was the first player to orally commit to Nebraska, when he gave Husker coaches his pledge the first week of September. As an offensive tackle, Julch went on to earn Blue Chip Illustrated All-America and SuperPrep All-Midlands region honors. During his senior season, Julch was a two-way starter on the offensive and defensive lines for the Bulldogs. Julch earned first-team All-Nebraska offensive line honors from the Omaha World-Herald and was picked for the Lincoln Journal-Star's Super-State team as an offensive lineman. Julch recorded 77 tackles in 10 games in 1994, including 40 solo stops. He and teammate Aaron Wills tied for the "best hit" award in 1994. Playing for Coach Larry Jacobsen, Julch hails from the same high school that sent former Husker stars Barney Cotton (OG), Mike Keeler (DT) and Andy Keeler (LG) to NU, as well as 1995 recruit Aaron Wills. A big, strong, raw-boned athlete, Julch lists a 380-pound bench press and started for the Burke basketball team at center averaging eight points and 11 rebounds per game. He was a state participant in track and has thrown the shot 55-7 and the discus 145 feet. Julch selected NU over Colorado, Iowa and Kansas State. Julch is a standout in the classroom as well, as he sports a 3.9 GPA and scored a 25 on the ACT test. He earned all-metro academic honors this year, has been named to the honor roll every semester and is a member of the National Honor Society. The son of Dennis and Gloria Julch, Adam was born on Jan. 31, 1977.

Chad Kelsay

Fr., 6-4, 220, LB, Auburn, Neb.-- Another two-way prep standout, Kelsay will most likely wind up as an outside linebacker at NU. Kelsay was a standout tailback and outside linebacker for Coach Dick Strittmatter at Auburn High School. Blue Chip Illustrated tabbed Kelsay as an All-America linebacker, while SuperPrep named him an All-Midlands region linebacker. Kelsay was named a first-team All-Nebraska linebacker by the Omaha World-Herald and a first-team Super-State linebacker by the Lincoln Journal-Star after making 100 tackles (46 solo) as a senior. Kelsay made 15 stops behind the line of scrimmage and had one fumble recovery, four fumbles caused, one blocked punt and three interceptions. He also rushed for 931 yards and 13 TDs on 161 carries and caught 14 passes for 235 yards and four TDs as a senior from the tailback spot. His best game was 230 yards rushing vs. Plattsmouth. Kelsay also handled PATs and kicked two 43-yard field goals in 1994. Kelsay lists a 290-pound bench press and he finished fifth in the Class C triple jump a year ago. He played forward for his basketball team and averaged 23 points and 10 rebounds per game, and earned second-team all-state honors in 1994. Also a success story in the classroom, Kelsay has a perfect 4.0 GPA and scored a 29 on the ACT test. He is a member of the National Honor Society and the Math and Science Club. Kelsay chose Nebraska after visits to Kansas and Kansas State. He said, "I'm really looking forward to playing at Nebraska. It's a great opportunity that I hope to make the most out of." Coach Strittmatter said, "Chad is definitely one of the best student-athletes I've coached in 22 years. He has good physical size, is very coachable and works extremely hard." Kelsay is the second Division I player to come out of Auburn, following All-Big Six fullback Dick Hutton (1946-48). The son of Steve and Jackie Kelsay, Chad was born April 9, 1977, in Auburn, Neb.

Frankie London

Fr., 6-1, 175, QB, Lake Charles, La. (LaGrange)-- One of the top run-pass quarterbacks in the nation, London completed 85 of 169 passes for 1,888 yards and 18 touchdowns and ran for 800 yards and nine TD's in 1994. London led his team to the Class 5-A (largest) state semifinal playoff game where he passed for 236 yards, despite a sprained ankle. Coached by Mike Johns at LaGrange High School, London earned all-district honors two years and led his team to an 11-3 record and the state semifinals in 1994. In a regional playoff game vs. Neville High, London passed for 220 yards and two TDs and rushed for 170 yards and two scores. As a junior, London rushed for 920 yards and 11 TDs and threw for 836 and five scores. SuperPrep listed London as an All-American and the No. 5 quarterback prospect in the country. London was also picked as an All-American by Blue Chip Illustrated. London spurned offers from Notre Dame, Texas A&M, Louisiana State, Baylor and UCLA to name a few, but only officially visited Nebraska. He said, "I chose Nebraska because I was looking for a chance to play quarterback. Nebraska was very up front with me about that and recruited me as a QB. I have trust in the staff and in what they said." A sprinter, London was a member of all three short relay teams and posted a best of 10.6 in the 100 meters. The son of Frank London and Rosanna London, Frankie was born on Nov. 24, 1976.

Karnell Matthews

Fr., 5-11, 185, DB, St. Peters, Mo. (Francis Howell North)-- A high school running back and tailback, Matthews is expected to play in Nebraska's secondary, but is a talented speedster who could play many positions, including wingback. Matthews is one of the fastest prepsters in the St. Louis area. Playing for Francis Howell North High School in St. Charles, Mo., for Coach Tom Cella, Matthews was a Blue Chip Illustrated All-America running back his junior and senior years. Matthews carried for 1,700 yards and had 300 receiving yards on his way to 24 touchdowns as a senior. He rushed for a career-high 348 yards vs. Wentzville and averaged nearly 200 yards per game while leading his team to a 9-2 finish in 1994. Francis Howell lost in the state finals (5A) to Jeff City but won the conference and district championships in both 1993 and 1994. His brother, Kendall, is a running back at Purdue. Matthews picked Nebraska over Kansas State, Hawaii, Missouri, Wisconsin, Texas Christian and Oklahoma, but only visited Nebraska. Karnell said, "Nebraska is the best all-around academic and athletic program anywhere. I really liked everything about Nebraska." A former soccer player, Matthews lists a 10.4 100 meters and a 4.4 40-yard dash. The son of Kenneth and Anita Matthews, Karnell was born on Aug. 19, 1977.

Tony Ortiz

Fr., 6-2, 215, LB, Waterbury, Conn.

(Crosby)--Ortiz comes to Nebraska after a well-chronicled prep career at Crosby High School, playing for Coach Joe Begnal. Ortiz was a terror on both sides of the ball in his two seasons of high school football and led the team to a 9-1 record and the city championship. Ortiz was a second-team All-America linebacker selection by USA Today and is listed as the No. 1 linebacker prospect in the nation by SuperPrep. SuperPrep also named Ortiz its Northeastern Defensive Player-of-the-Year. Ortiz is also a Parade, Schutt, and Blue Chip Illustrated All-America linebacker. Schutt called Ortiz "one of the fiercest hitters in the land...and one of the fastest." As a linebacker this past season, Ortiz was credited with 104 tackles, eight sacks, three fumble recoveries (one for a touchdown), four fumbles caused and one interception return for a touchdown. As a tailback, Ortiz recorded 30 touchdowns and 1,638 yards rushing for a 9.2 yards per carry average. Ortiz had eight touchdown runs of 20 yards or more. In his two-year career, Ortiz tallied 3,005 rushing yards, 52 touchdowns, 216 tackles, four interceptions, six fumble recoveries, 20 sacks and six PBU's. The New Haven (Conn.) Register tabbed Ortiz as its player-of-the-year, while the Hartford Courant picked him as a first-team all-state running back. Ortiz's athletic talents aren't limited to the gridiron, as he set Connecticut state records in winning the 100 meters (10.53) and 110-meter hurdles (14.24) at the 1994 state track meet. He also won the six-state regional New England gold medal in the 100 meters and 110-meter hurdles. Ortiz was wooed by schools across the nation, but picked the Huskers after visiting Penn State and Clemson. He also considered North Carolina State and Michigan. Tony said, "I liked the competition level and tradition at Nebraska, the incoming recruiting class and definitely the coaching staff." The son of Efrain and Petra Ortiz, Tony was born on July 3, 1977, in South Bronx, N.Y. In the summer, Ortiz helps out with the Special Olympics and is a second honors student.

Jeff Perino

Fr., 6-2, 200, QB, Durango, Colo.

--After earning second-team Class 4-A (second-largest class) all-state quarterback honors as a junior, Perino played in only four games as a senior, after dislocating a kneecap. Playing for Coach Brian Hester at Durango, in four games, Perino passed for 890 yards (66-110) and seven TDs and ran for 340 yards and seven TDs. As a junior, he passed for 1,800 yards and rushed for 463. Although he missed the majority of his senior campaign, Perino was tabbed as an All-America quarterback by SuperPrep and Blue Chip Illustrated. He earned first-team all-state honors as a punter (39.6 yards per punt) as a junior and repeated as a senior with a 47.2 average. Also played outside linebacker as a sophomore. He did not play quarterback until his junior year. His best game was his last game before he was injured, the fourth game of his senior season, when he passed for 351 yards against Curtland, N.M. Perino picked NU after visiting the Arizona State Sun Devils and was also recruited by Stanford and Washington. Recruited by numerous Ivy League schools, Perino owns a 3.948 GPA and scored a 26 on the ACT test and is a member of the National Honor Society and was an honor roll student every semester. Jeff said, "My academic impression of Nebraska was equally as high as my athletic impression of the school. I liked the whole package." Perino also pitched and played third base for the Durango baseball team, earning three letters and all-state honors as a pitcher last season. The son of Jim and Judy Perino, Jeff was born Dec. 18, 1976, in Durango.

Jerome Peterson

Fr., 5-9, 180, DB, Port Allen, La.

--Another two-way performer who could play a number of different positions for the Huskers, Peterson will probably find a home in the Husker secondary. Originally from Oakland, Calif., Peterson has only played two seasons of high school football for Port Allen, a 3A High School in Port Allen, La., near Baton Rouge. Playing for Coach Gary Adkins, he recorded impressive numbers during those two years. As a senior I-back, Peterson amassed 2,200 yards rushing and 29 touchdowns. He rushed for more than 200 yards in six of his team's 11 games, including a season-high 304 yards vs. Donaldsonville. As a junior, Peterson tallied 1,600 yards on the ground. In one game, he ran for 410 yards and eight touchdowns on 17 carries (vs. East Iberville). He doubled up as a free safety and corner back this past season and was named to Blue Chip Illustrated's All-America team as a running back. He earned first-team all-state honors by the Louisiana Sportswriters Association as a senior running back, after earning second-team honors as a junior. Equally dangerous as a return man, most teams tried to kick away from Peterson last season. Although he only returned four kicks all year, Peterson brought three of those back for touchdowns. As a junior, Peterson returned five kicks for touchdowns. Blessed with amazing speed, Peterson has run a 4.41 electronic 40-yard dash. He finished as the state runner-up in the 100 meters last spring with a 10.56 mark. He was a member of the state championship 4 x 100 and 4 x 200 meter relays as the team's anchor. A top-notch powerlifter as well, Peterson won the Class 3-A state championship for his weight division in 1993 and 1994. He owns maximum lifts of 460 pounds in the squat, 260 in the bench and 495 in the dead lift. Peterson choose NU over Tennessee, Louisiana State, Texas A&M and Mississippi, but only visited Nebraska. Jerome said, "I felt real comfortable with Coach Turner Gill and when I visited Nebraska, everyone treated me like I was already a part of the team. I enjoyed meeting the rest of the recruits who were also visiting that day and welcome the opportunity to play for Nebraska." His coach, Gary Adkins, said, "We were 2-8 in 1990 and 1991 and when Jerome and others came on the scene, we made the playoffs the last three years. Jerome was a big part of that turnaround. I think he will be playing for the best head football coach at all levels in America. Jerome was sold on the whole package." The son of Winnifred Jackson, Jerome was born on April 28, 1976, in Oakland, Calif.

Chris Rainey

Fr., 6-0, 185, DB, Minneapolis, Minn.

(North)--An all-state performer on both sides of the ball, Rainey will probably focus on defense in college. Played defensive back and running back for Coach Mike Favor at North High School. A SuperPrep, Schutt and Blue Chip Illustrated All-American defensive back, Rainey was also named to the Scholastic Prep Gatorade Circle of Champions Top 100 list. He had an impressive senior campaign. As a defensive back, Rainey made 72 tackles and picked off nine passes, four of which he returned for scores. He also averaged

Nebraska Football

23 yards a catch as a wideout. During his junior season, Rainey intercepted eight balls and returned three for touchdowns. Rainey earned all-state honors in football each of the last two years and was a USA Today honorable-mention All-American in 1994. Also a member of North's special teams. He selected NU over Notre Dame, Iowa, Michigan State and Wisconsin. As an all-state basketball player, several schools, including Syracuse, recruited Rainey to the hardwood. He averaged 25 points per game as North was ranked No. 1 in the state. Rainey was born on March 26, 1978.

Kareem Sears

Fr., 6-3, 230, LB, Enid, Okla.--Slated to play outside linebacker for the Huskers, Sears is yet another high school All-American headed to Lincoln. Tabbed by SuperPrep and Blue Chip Illustrated as a linebacker All-American, Sears turned in a sterling senior season playing for Coach Craig Simmons at Enid High School. Following the season, Sears was picked by Blue Chip Illustrated and SuperPrep as an All-American linebacker. Blue Chip listed Sears as the No. 1 linebacker in the Big Eight region. Sears totaled 97 tackles, 2.5 sacks, 15 tackles for losses and one fumble recovery. A big linebacker, Sears has been timed in 10.6, in the 100 meters. In addition, Sears lists a 310-pound bench press and 500-pound squat. Sears leaves the Sooner State after spurning offers from Oklahoma, Texas, Baylor and Missouri, but only visited Nebraska. The son of Terry and Tandra Sears, Kareem was born on Dec. 17, 1976.

James Sherman

Fr., 6-4, 290, OL-DL, LaVerne, Calif.--A top offensive and defensive lineman in high school, Sherman could go either way for the Huskers. If he plays on offense, Sherman will use his incredible strength (430-pound bench press, 650-pound squat) to help clear the way for NU ballcarriers. As a defensive tackle, Sherman recorded 20 sacks in just 12 games during his senior season. Sherman was picked as the lineman-of-the-year by the Los Angeles Times for its Southeast Section, which includes all the large schools in Los Angeles County. An offensive lineman All-America choice by Blue Chip Illustrated, he was also a SuperPrep All-American, and was named to the Tacoma News-Tribune Western 100 list and to the Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West list. He was rated as the seventh-best offensive line prospect in the nation by SuperPrep. A two-year starter on both sides of the ball, he was all-state last season, voted All-CIF in Division VIII, made first-team All-Del Rio and was voted the league's most outstanding offensive lineman. Sherman leaves the Golden State for NU after receiving offers from Southern Cal, UCLA, Washington and Colorado, but he only officially visited Nebraska. The son of Tom and Patti Sherman, James was born on Oct. 23, 1977. He enjoys weightlifting, fishing and camping. James said he chose Nebraska because, "The facilities and people are the greatest I've ever met. But the stability of the coaches was a vital factor for me."

Eric Warfield

Soph., 6-1, 175, DB, Texarkana, Ark. (Arkansas HS)--A 6-1, 175-pound defensive back, Warfield played for Coach Johnny Toombs at Arkansas High School, graduating in 1994. As a senior in 1993, Warfield had seven interceptions, 47 tackles, one blocked punt and three fumbles caused. As a receiver, he had 12 receptions for 312 yards and eight touchdowns. He also had one kickoff return for a touchdown and 11 total TDs. In a two-week span in 1993, Warfield touched the ball eight times and scored seven TDs. He helped lead Arkansas High School to a 10-2 record and the second round of the state playoffs, while earning all-conference honors as a junior and senior and all-state in 1993. An outstanding all-around athlete, he was the Arkansas-Democrat Gazette High School Athlete-of-the-Year in 1993, as he was a 6-8 high jumper winning the state title in 1993 and a Blue Chip all-region honoree as a defensive back.

He was also one of the top hurdlers in the state and led his basketball team in rebounding and scoring. Warfield picked Nebraska over a number of schools including Arkansas and is believed to be the Huskers' first scholarship football player from Arkansas (dating back to 1971 when records were kept). The son of Rose Warfield, Eric was born March 3, 1976.

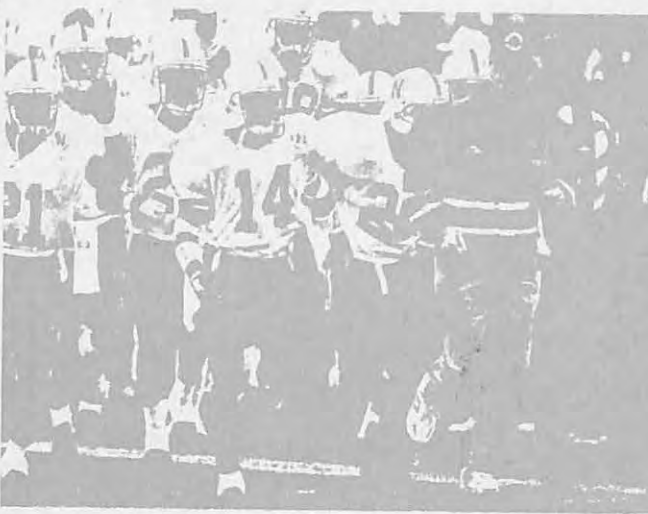

Shevin Wiggins

Soph., 5-11, 170, Rec., Palmetto, Fla. (Manatee HS)--A 2,000-yard rusher at Manatee High School for Coach Joe Kinnan, Wiggins will likely switch to wingback at Nebraska. He played running back, wide receiver and returned kickoffs. He is the fourth athlete out of Manatee High School to sign with NU following current Husker teammates Tommie Frazier and Tyrone Williams. The Florida offensive player-of-the-year in 1993, "Mr. Florida" ran for 2,267 yards and 32 touchdowns as a senior (in 1993) and 1,600 as a junior. Wiggins set single season and career rushing records and averaged 150 yards in five play-off games as Manatee advanced to the championship game in Florida's largest class. The son of Ronnie and Thomasena Johnson, Shevin was born Sept. 27, 1974. He tore an ACL in his knee running track in spring of 1994.

Aaron Wills

Fr., 6-2, 230, TE-DE, Omaha, Neb. (Burke)--Named as a first-team defensive lineman to the Omaha World-Herald All-Nebraska and Lincoln Journal-Star Super-State teams, Wills is one of two Burke Bulldogs to commit to NU this year, along with Adam Julch. Wills and Julch tied for the Burke High School "best hit" award in 1994. SuperPrep named Wills to its All-Midlands region team as a defensive end. He was also the Nebraska Coaches Association Linebacker-of-the-Year. On defense, Wills collected 50 solo and 42 assisted tackles and eight tackles for negative yardage. He had 20 tackles (15 solo) in the first round of the playoffs. Also a tight end, Wills caught eight passes for 115 yards. Known for his tenacity on the field, Wills is also a three-time All-American swimmer (in the 200 IM, 100 free and 200 free). He won the 200-meter freestyle state championship last winter (1:41.13) and placed third at state for the past three years in the 100 butterfly. Also an academic standout, Wills earned all-academic metro honors in 1994 and has posted a 4.0 in the last three and one half years. Recruited by Arizona, UCLA and Washington, Wills chose the Huskers after only visiting Lincoln. He said, "I came to Nebraska and met Coach Brown and really liked him a lot. I thought if they offered me a full ride, I would take it over any other great school. Nebraska has a great athletic program and a great academic program as well." The son of Cornelius and Linda Wills, Aaron was born on Oct. 24, 1976, in Des Moines, Iowa. Of Polynesian Hawaiian descent, Aaron's middle name is Kahaulioliukuupuwai, meaning "Joy of my Heart."

When Nebraska captured the national championship, it established the Cornhuskers as one of the best in the country but it crowned the Big Eight.

COVER STORY

In the past 10 seasons, Nebraska won the national championship and Oklahoma in 1985. No other conference has the title courtesy of Florida State (Georgia Tech). Certainly that says something and with Kansas State winning, it's clear that the league is at its apex. So when Nebraska coach Tom Osborne's emotional letdown could lead to disappointment, he might not be exaggerating too much.

Nebraska looks to have title formula

"Last year's team was hungry," he says in the spring. "I don't know if the hunger is there. You can spend so much time celebrating that you forget to come out and play the next year. That's always a danger." And so there is. But if there are any traditions and rhythms remaining in college football, these are them:

- Nebraska will win at least nine games, as it has in each of Osborne's truly dumbfounding 22 seasons.
- Nebraska will compete for, if not seize, the Big Eight Conference championship, as it has the last four years and 11 times under Osborne.

Lincoln — For several days before the Nebraska-Colorado showdown, Husker Coach Tom Osborne had publicly pleaded with Husker fans to be loud but polite. Osborne got his wish Saturday. From start to finish of Nebraska's 24-7 win over the Buffaloes, Memorial Stadium was The House That Roared. Perhaps more important, fans of both teams said everybody seemed to behave themselves.

Nebraska fans sprinted or strolled onto the field as the strains of "Celebration" reverberated from the stadium's new loudspeakers. And Nebraska fans in the northwest corner gave their usual standing ovation to the visiting team as the Buffaloes tried to get the game back on track. But the war of words and the shouting were few reports of fans becoming involved in pushing matches. "I heard lots of horror stories about

Weissmann and his friend, Danielle Radovich of Littleton, sat with other Buff boosters in the southwest corner of the stadium. After the game, they stood on their own seats and cheered as the Huskers celebrated on the field. "It was a great experience," Weissmann said. Iowa State	834	9.4

Series Notes: Outcome of 1907 game is disputed; Iowa State claims 13-10 win, NU annuals claim a 10-9 victory... 1914 game was NU's 200th all-time... ISU handed Nebraska its only loss in 1897 (5-1-0)... Huskers gave Cyclones their only loss in 1907 (7-1-0)... NU has had win strings in series of 15, 14, 11, 11 games; unbeaten strings of 15, 8 games... 1983 game was, at the time, highest-scoring game at NU's Memorial Stadium... 1974 game was last game ever played at Iowa State's old Clyde Williams Field... 1969 game was last game on grass at NU's Memorial Stadium... Cyclones won the first game played at the new Cyclone Stadium (37-28 in 1976), before NU won the next seven in Ames, prior to 1992's stunning 19-10 loss... That loss was the first and only time a Tom Osborne-coached NU team has lost a game to a team that finished the season below .500... Osborne is 19-3 vs. ISU.

Highest NU score: 72 in 1983 (72-29).

A BIG RED WHUPPIN'

Nebraska bruises Buffaloes

By Tim Mimick
Gazette Telegraph

LINCOLN, Neb. — It was a large crash. A Cornhusker-sized crash.

This Colorado Buffaloes' football season, which had soared after a miraculous Hail Mary and climbed to within winking distance of a No. 1 ranking, plummeted into the Memorial Stadium turf here Saturday afternoon.

Second-ranked CU, its potent offense restrained to one touchdown, couldn't halt the ground machine that drives the third-ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers.

Before its 200th consecutive sellout crowd — 76,131 red-clad, roaring fans — Nebraska dominated the first half with its offensive line and speedy defense and rolled to a 24-7 victory over CU.

"Same old (bleep)," said CU defensive tackle Darius Holland.

Nebraska (9-0) took over the Big Eight Conference leadership with a 4-0 mark. The league winner goes to the Orange Bowl. Colorado (7-1, 3-1) is being courted by the Fiesta Bowl.

"This was no humiliation," said Fiesta executive director John ... "I'm not allowed to say that an invitation) now, when it's over, but ..."

CU had hoped to depart Miami as No. 1. Instead, the Buffaloes field devoid of any realistic title dreams. And that was la to a first half in which the Cornhuskers Norman, Okla. — After sweating out a 13-3 victory Friday over Oklahoma, players from top-ranked Nebraska played it cool.

No whooping over winning the Big Eight title outright with a 7-0 record. No hollering over earning the league's automatic bid to the Orange Bowl.

No celebrating a second straight undefeated regular season and just the fourth 12-win season in school history.

"It's not time to cut loose yet," strong-side linebacker Troy Dumas said. "All the work we've been doing has been toward one goal — the national championship.

"We aren't there yet. But if we win that, you'll see the real excitement come Exactly 30 minutes earlier, top-ranked Nebraska reached that light at the end of the tunnel it had been following for 23 years.

It was 11:02 p.m. at home when full-back Cory Schlesinger's 14-yard touchdown run gave the Cornhuskers their first and only lead of the night. Here's how the rest of evening went:

• 7:21 p.m. — Nebraska's and Miami's captains meet at midfield for the pregame coin toss. The Hurricanes win and defer their choice to the second half.

• 7:28 p.m. — NU's Tommie Frazier, playing the first time since the fourth game of the season, calls timeout on the after running one play. The Cornhuskers went three

13-0 Huskers Win National Championship

Considered by many the best Nebraska defensive team ever, the 1994 Husker Blackshirts held 12 of their 13 opponents to less than 150 yards rushing, eight to less than 84 and seven to less than 50 yards. Nebraska allowed an average of just 79.3 yards rushing per game, the nation's fourth-best mark and ranked in the top 10 in four defensive categories, including scoring defense (12.1, second), total defense (258.8, fourth) and pass efficiency defense (96.7, 10th). The 1995 Blackshirts (right) feature six players with starting experience. From right to left: (top row) Christian Peter, Jason Peter, Jared Tomich; (middle row) Ryan Terwilliger, Grant Wistrom, Doug Colman, Tony Veland, Eric Stokes; (bottom row) Tyrone Williams, Mike Minter, Phil Ellis.

For the eighth consecutive season, Nebraska had at least five NFL draft picks as seven Huskers were selected in 1995, including Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert, OT (left), who was a second-round pick of the St. Louis Rams. Brenden Stai, OG (middle) and Barron Miles, CB (right) were selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third and sixth rounds, respectively. Other Huskers selected were: Troy Dumas, LB (third round, Kansas City Chiefs), Donta Jones, LB (fourth round, Pittsburgh Steelers), Rob Zatechka, OT (fourth round, New York Giants) and Cory Schlesinger, FB (sixth round, Detroit Lions). Six others signed free-agent contracts, including: Ed Stewart, LB (Carolina Panthers), Eric Alford, TE (New England Patriots), Terry Connealy, DT (New York Jets), Dwayne Harris, LB (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), Kareem Moss, Rover (Kansas City Chiefs) and Tom Sieler, PK (San Francisco 49ers).

Second-team All-America I-back Lawrence Phillips finished eighth in the 1994 Heisman Trophy balloting.

Game # 1

Nebraska 31
West Virginia 0

Kickoff Classic,
East Rutherford, N.J.
Aug. 28, 1994

Nebraska, rated No. 3 by the Coaches and No. 4 in the AP Poll, won its third Kickoff Classic with a 31-0 shutout over No. 23/24 West Virginia. The Huskers scored just three points in the first quarter on senior Tom Sieler's 32-yard field goal, the first of his career. Nebraska erupted for 21 second-quarter points to take a 24-0 halftime lead. The Nebraska scoring included three runs of 25 yards or more by QB Tommie Frazier (25 yards, 27 and 42) and a 12-yard pass from Frazier to split end Reggie Baul who led the team and bettered his career high with 46 yards on three catches. The defense, which allowed just 89 total yards and nine first downs and forced a Kickoff Classic high nine punts, was led by the New Jersey contingent of first-year starting linebacker Doug Colman (Ventnor, N.J., eight tackles, 2-11 yards lost, one fumble caused and recovered); first-year starting defensive tackle Christian Peter (Locust, N.J., seven tackles, 2.5 sacks) and returning starting cornerback Barron Miles (Roselle, N.J.), who snagged his third career interception and also had a breakup. Butkus candidate Ed Stewart of Chicago, Ill., had seven tackles. At the end of the third quarter, West Virginia had just 22 yards passing, was 0-9 on third-down conversions and had minus 12 rushing yards. In addition to holding West Virginia to 1.6 yards per play, the Blackshirts had eight sacks, allowed only six pass completions, forced three turnovers and held the Mountaineers to less than four plays on 11 of 14 drives. None of WVU's drives in the first half were over four plays and only the last two (of seven and 14 plays) were longer than five snaps. Frazier catapulted himself into the Heisman race as he was named the ABC Chevrolet MVP and the William J. Flynn MVP after he accounted for 230 total offense yards (fourth best in career), including 130 rushing (on 12 carries with three TDs, second best career total) and an even 100 passing (8-16). In his first career start, Nebraska sophomore I-back Lawrence Phillips rushed for 126 yards on 24 carries. Rover Kareem Moss set a Kickoff Classic record for punt return yards with 81 on four returns. NU totaled 100 yards passing, 368 rushing for 468 total, to West Virginia's 81 passing, 8 rushing and 89 total. NU improved to 3-0 in the Classic, winning three games by a combined score of 98-20.

Game # 2

Nebraska 42
Texas Tech 16

Lubbock, Texas
Sept. 8, 1994

The Huskers were No. 1 in both polls after their 31-0 shutout of West Virginia, but dropped to No. 2 in the AP Poll after a week off. Nebraska took on unranked Texas Tech in Lubbock, before a nationally-televised Thursday night ESPN audience and totaled 612 yards in total offense, including a season-high 524 yards rushing en route to a 42-16 victory. Nebraska outgained Texas Tech, 242 yards to 87 in the first half alone and held a 14-3 lead at halftime. The Husker offense worked on all cylinders in the second half, scoring 14 points in each of the last two quarters and cutting its turnovers from five vs. West Virginia to one vs. the Red Raiders. Lawrence Phillips, the ESPN Player-of-the-Game and Big Eight Offensive Player-of-the-Week, led all rushers with 175 yards, while quarterback Tommie Frazier and fullback Cory Schlesinger contributed 84 each. Reserve I-backs Clinton Childs and Damon Benning added 59 and 45 yards, respectively. Texas Tech rushed for 147 yards on 42 carries and passed for 150. Frazier completed 5-15 passes for 88 yards, finding Phillips three times for 39 yards and connecting with TE Eric Alford on a 35-yard TD. Benning also totaled 90 yards on three kickoffs including a career-long and team season-best 58 yard return. Texas Tech utilized three quarterbacks, completing 11-19 passes but was intercepted once by Tony Veland. Rover Kareem Moss led NU with seven tackles including one for a loss and one pass breakup. Punter Darin Erstad recorded a career-best 62-yard punt and averaged 47 yards on three punts. Unfortunately starting free safety Mike Minter tore his left ACL, had surgery on Sept. 23, and missed the remainder of the season.

Game # 3

UCLA 21

Lincoln, Neb.
Sept. 17, 1994

The No. 1/2 (Coaches/AP) Nebraska Cornhuskers improved their record to 3-0 on the season with a 49-21 win over No. 12/13 UCLA in Lincoln. It was the Huskers' second win of the season over a top 25 team, the third on national TV, and marked NU's home opener and the unveiling of the HuskerVision Instant Replay boards. Nebraska racked up 484 yards rushing and 555 overall in a strong offensive output. UCLA totaled 129 yards rushing and 414 overall as quarterback Wayne Cook passed for 217 yards, but was sacked twice and intercepted twice, once by linebacker Clint Brown and once by free safety Tony Veland, making his first career start. Seven different Huskers scored, including five with rushing TDs. The scoring onslaught began with a 23-yard pass from Tommie Frazier to Eric Alford and was followed by a Lawrence Phillips 1-yard run to put the Huskers up 12-0. UCLA scored to begin the second quarter and came within five at 12-7, but NU scored consecutive touchdowns on a 12-yard run by Frazier and a 2-yard run by Damon Benning to take a 28-7 lead and was never threatened again. Nebraska had one fumble lost, but no interceptions as NU completed 6-12 passes for 71 yards and two scores. Frazier rushed for 29 yards with one TD and completed 5-11 passes for 59 yards and two more TDs. Phillips was the game's leading rusher with a then-career-high 178 yards on 19 carries (9.4 yards per attempt) and one TD. The Husker offensive line again dominated, led by Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert, who was named the Nebraska ABC Chevrolet Player-of-the-Game. Butkus Award Finalist Ed Stewart shared the team lead in tackles with Troy Dumas and Kareem Moss as they each totaled 10, while cornerback Barron Miles partially blocked UCLA's first punt of the game. The 49 points are the most Nebraska has scored in 10 games against Troy Dumas keyed the Husker Blackshirt effort with a co-team high 10 tackles, including five unassisted.

Nebraska 70
Pacific 21

Lincoln, Neb.
Sept. 24, 1994

Nebraska, which remained No. 1/2 (Coaches/AP) in the polls after the UCLA victory, defeated an unranked Pacific team in Lincoln 70-21. The Huskers scored on their first seven possessions and on 10 of their first 11. The 70 points scored by Nebraska included 28 in the first quarter and 49 in the first half (49-0), a mark which tied the NU record set twice previously. The 70 points were the most since NU posted 76 vs. North Texas in the 1993 season opener. The Husker offense racked up 510 rushing yards, the third consecutive week NU had totaled over 400 yards rushing. The ground assault was led by Lawrence Phillips, who rushed for 138 yards on just nine carries (15.3 yards per carry) for his fourth-straight 100-yard rushing day. Tommie Frazier played just nine plays, rushing once for five yards and completing 1-2 passes for 26 yards. His replacement, Brook Berringer, completed 8-15 passes for 120 yards and three TDs and rushed for another 32 yards. Fullback Cory Schlesinger had 51 yards and two TDs, while the backup 1-backs, Damon Benning and Clinton Childs, rushed for 87 and 64 yards respectively, with one TD each. OFNU's 12 completed passes, 11 went to different receivers while four scored TDs as Nebraska posted the seventh-highest offensive yardage total in school history with 699 yards. The defense, meanwhile, held Pacific scoreless until midway through the third after NU had built a 56-0 lead. At the end of the first quarter, NU held a 262-31 total offense edge and freely substituted, playing over 100 players. Cornerback Barron Miles blocked two more punts to give him three on the season, while Trampis Wrice blocked a third. Frazier complained of a calf bruise, and on the following Sunday, was admitted to the hospital with a blood clot behind his right knee. He remained in the hospital until Wednesday afternoon as doctors dissolved the blood clots.

Game # 5

Nebraska 42
Wyoming 32

Lincoln, Neb.
Oct. 1, 1994

The No. 1/2 (Coaches/AP) Huskers played without the aid of Heisman Trophy candidate Tommie Frazier for the first time as he was held out of contact while on anti-coagulant drugs. In his place, Brook Berringer earned his first career start and showed poise as he led the Huskers to their first come-from-behind victory of the season, a 42-32 win over the Wyoming Cowboys. NU was held scoreless in the first quarter and was down 21-7 with 2:12 left in the first half. Two first-half Husker turnovers led to two Wyoming scores, but Berringer orchestrated a beautiful 2-minute drill beginning at the NU 36-yard line, completing seven straight passes for 59 yards and scored on a 5-yard jaunt to cut the lead to 21-14 at half. Berringer directed four-straight scoring drives during a seven-minute span of the second and third quarters, unknowingly playing with a partially collapsed lung, which occurred during his TD run to end the first half. Berringer brought the Huskers from a 21-7 deficit to a 35-21 lead with 8:11 remaining in the third quarter. The Cowboys passed for a season-high 344 yards to NU's 131. However, the Cowboys were held to 36 rushing yards, compared to NU's 322 and Cowboy All-America candidate Ryan Christopherson, who entered the game averaging 152 yards per game, carried 12 times for zero yards. Berringer completed 15-22 passes for 131 yards with one interception and no TDs. He also rushed 12 times for 74 yards and three TDs, all career highs. Lawrence Phillips rushed for 168 yards and three TDs. Tight end Mark Gilman and wingback Abdul Muhammad were Berringer's favorite targets catching four passes each. Ed Stewart led the NU with 12 tackles while Barron Miles picked off two passes and Tyrone Williams one. For the second consecutive week, a Husker QB spent a night in the hospital. Berringer was released on Sunday after his lung was reinflated, but Frazier, who had hoped to return to contact soon, was readmitted to Bryan Hospital on Oct. 4 when the blood

Game # 6

Nebraska 32
Oklahoma State 3

Lincoln, Neb.
Oct. 8, 1994

The Huskers stayed No. 2 in the AP, but dropped from No. 1 to No. 2 in the Coaches' poll, despite their 42-32 win over Wyoming. NU opened its Big Eight season in Lincoln with two goals in mind, winning the game against Oklahoma State and protecting its quarterback Brook Berringer. Tommie Frazier was still laid up in the hospital at game time and apparently out for the season with blood clots in his right leg, and Berringer suffered from the partially collapsed lung he received against Wyoming. For the second consecutive week, the Huskers didn't score in the first quarter and saw OSU jump out to a 3-0 lead on a 27-yard field goal on its first drive after a Nebraska turnover. Nebraska went up 6-3 on Lawrence Phillips' 2-yard run to begin the second quarter, then Darin Erstad hit a career-long 48-yard field goal to give Nebraska a 9-3 lead at intermission. Nebraska medical personnel had pre-scheduled halftime X-rays to check Berringer's condition and unfortunately the X-rays showed the lung was again leaking and Berringer was not allowed to return. Enter sophomore walk-on Matt Turman, who was able to successfully lead the Huskers to three more scoring drives and a 32-3 lead as the Husker Blackshirts took control of the game and shut down the Cowboys. While Lawrence Phillips rushed for a career-high 221 yards on 33 carries and scored three times, the Blackshirts allowed just 136 total yards, including a mere 24 in the second half. Phillips' yards gave him 1,006 on the season as he became the 13th Husker to record the 19th 1,000-yard rushing season at Nebraska. In the second half, OSU crossed midfield just once and had just two first downs, one each quarter. The Husker defense came up with two turnovers itself, of which the offense converted one to a TD. While the defense held strong, NU scored twice in the third quarter on two Phillips runs and again early in the fourth on Clinton Childs seven-yard run. Turman played the entire second half, completed 1-4 passes for 23 yards, rushed six times for six yards and completed a two-point conversion pass to Eric Alford. Nebraska was successful on two-point conversions twice in the game, the second after Nebraska's third TD when on a bad snap, holder Jon Vedral picked up the ball, scrambled around, then while in the grasp of a defender, threw to place-kicker Darin Erstad in the end zone. Nebraska rushed for 372 yards, its sixth straight game with more than 300 and passed for 103 (12-20) for 475 total yards while OSU passed for 96 (6-20), rushed for 40 to finish with 136 total yards.

Game # 7

Nebraska 17
Kansas State 6

Manhattan, Kan.
Oct. 15, 1994

No. 2/3 (Coaches/AP) Nebraska entered the contest at No. 11/16 (AP) Kansas State, its third ranked opponent of the season, unsure until Thursday who would start at quarterback. Sophomore walk-on Matt Turman got his first career start as Brook Berringer was still nursing his partially collapsed lung. Turman successfully orchestrated the Huskers to a 7-6 halftime lead as he rushed four times for 10 yards and completed 2-4 passes for 15 yards. NU scored on its second drive of the game as Lawrence Phillips had six straight carries for the entire 28 yards of the drive. KSU answered the Huskers score in the second quarter with a 29-yard pass from Chad May to Mitch Running, but Martin Gramatica's extra-point kick was blocked by NU linebacker Troy Dumas to preserve a 7-6 Husker lead. Berringer came in for the Huskers' last drive of the first half and played the second half, but was limited to drop back passes, no audibles or options and handing off to Phillips. Berringer, wearing a specially made flak jacket, completed 2-7 passes for 37 yards and rushed just two times for five yards. Neither team scored in the third period, but NU answered with an 11-play scoring drive in the fourth culminated by a Jeff Makovicka 15-yard run. Nebraska then had a 12-play drive which ended with a 24-yard field goal by Darin Erstad for the final 17-6 margin. Despite a badly sprained thumb, Phillips was the game's leading rusher with 117 yards on 31 carries, recording his seventh straight 100-yard rushing day. He also caught two passes for 15 yards. There were no surprises against the Wildcats, as 40 of the 61 offensive plays went between the tackles. As a team, NU threw just 11 times, completing four for 52 yards. The Huskers rushed for a then-season-low 210 yards, but the Blackshirts held the Wildcats to a season-low minus seven yards rushing. May completed less than 50 percent of his passes (22-48) for 249 yards and was intercepted once by Dumas, who returned it a season-long 54 yards.

Barron Miles set a NU school record for pass breakups with six against Kansas State.

May was sacked just seven times in four games prior to the Nebraska game, but the Husker defense corralled him six times. Ed Stewart had one of the sacks and led the team with nine tackles, while cornerback Barron Miles broke up a school-record six passes, while covering All-America candidate Kevin Lockett. The six breakups gave him nine on the season also tying the school record. True freshman outside linebacker Grant Wistrom sacked May twice for 24 yards lost. The win improved the Huskers to 7-0 and ensured them of their 33rd consecutive winning season, a continuing NCAA record. K-State went on to finish the regular season 9-2, good for a top eight ranking and a second-straight bowl bid.

Game # 8

Nebraska 42
Missouri 7

Columbia, Mo.
Oct. 22, 1994

It was the fourth consecutive week without Tommie Frazier as the No. 2/3 (Coaches/AP) Huskers won their third conference game and improved to 8-0 with a 42-7 win over Missouri in Columbia. The Huskers were held scoreless in the first quarter for the third time this season, but quickly rectified the matter scoring 14 points in each of the last three periods. Missouri did not score until 7:36 remained in the fourth quarter, against Husker reserves. The NU offense totaled 482 yards to Missouri's 198 and outrushed the Tigers 330 to 48. Lawrence Phillips led all rushers with 110 yards and tied Bobby Reynolds' school record of eight-straight 100-yard rushing days to open a season. Meanwhile, Brook Berringer completed 9-13 passes for 152 yards and three TDs, outdueling MU's Jeff Handy who threw for 150 yards. The offense was still limited as NU coaches successfully protected Berringer from unnecessary hits. The defense once again made up for the offense's limitations as it held Missouri's offense to less than 50 yards rushing, the fourth-straight game the Blackshirts had done so. Ed Stewart had eight tackles, four quarterback hurries, a sack, a pass breakup and a fumble recovery. Cornerback Barron Miles picked off his fourth interception, returning it 27 yards and also had five tackles and caused a fumble in the end zone. It was the fifth time this season the Huskers scored 42 or more points and the seventh time the offense rushed for more than 300 yards.

Nebraska 24
Colorado 7

Lincoln, Neb.
Oct. 29, 1994

Nebraska entered the Big Eight showdown undefeated and ranked No. 2/3 (Coaches/AP) while Colorado was also undefeated and held the reverse rankings, No. 2 by AP and No. 3 by the Coaches. Nebraska took control of the Big Eight Conference race and took a major step toward a run at the national title with a resounding 24-7 win over Colorado in Memorial Stadium's 200th Consecutive Sellout (dating back to 1962). Although most critics didn't give the Huskers much of a chance against the potent Buffaloes without Tommie Frazier, Brook Berringer showed the Huskers and Tom Osborne sport more than a running, one-dimensional offense, while the Husker Blackshirts again completely dominated the game. Nebraska scored on its first possession on a 14-yard run by fullback Cory Schlesinger with 5:24 left in the first. NU added a 24-yard field goal by Tom Sieler at 9:01 in the second, then took a 17-0 lead before intermission on a 2-yard run by Clinton Childs with :36 seconds remaining in the half. At that point, NU had 234 yards to CU's 89. Berringer had completed 9-12 passes for 100 yards while CU's Kordell Stewart had completed 2-6 passes for 7 yards. In the second half, Nebraska scored on a 30-yard pass from Berringer to tight end Eric Alford to go up 24-0 before the Buffs scored with 1:06 remaining in the third. Colorado's lone touchdown marked the lowest scoring total for the Buffaloes since a 52-7 loss to the Huskers two years earlier in Lincoln. In the end, the Husker Blackshirts held CU to 314 total yards, 155 rushing and 159 passing, and did not allow them to convert a third or fourth down (0-15, 0-11 on third and 0-4 on fourth) all game. Entering the contest, Colorado ranked No. 2, No. 4 and No. 4 nationally in rushing, total and scoring offense, respectively. Nebraska meanwhile, totaled 345 total yards, 142 passing and 203 rushing led by Phillips' 103 (ninth-straight 100-yard rushing day). Berringer completed 12-17 passes for 142 yards with one TD, with tight end Eric Alford grabbing a career-best five catches for 78 yards and NU's third tight end Mark Gilman catching four passes for 46 yards. Nebraska controlled the clock with a season-high 38:24 minutes of possession time (21:27 in the first half) to CU's 21:35. The win extended Nebraska's streak of nine-win seasons to 26, and was the Huskers' fourth win of the season over a ranked opponent.

I-back Clinton Childs scored on a two-yard touchdown run late in the second quarter to give NU a 17-0 halftime lead against Colorado.

Game # 10

Nebraska 45
Kansas 17

Lincoln, Neb.
Nov. 5, 1994

The Huskers moved up to No. 1 in the AP Poll after the sound defeat of the No. 2 Buffaloes. In its last home game of the season, NU defeated unranked Kansas 45-17, scoring 31 points in the first 19 minutes. Nebraska intercepted KU's Asheiki Preston twice in the Jayhawks first three plays from scrimmage and converted the first to a 35-yard field goal by Tom Sieler and the second to a 51-yard TD pass from Brook Berringer to Reggie Baul. After a three-and-out punt on its first possession, Nebraska scored on its next six possessions, including five touchdowns in a row to take a 38-10 halftime lead. The Husker offense had 10 plays which gained at least 15 yards, including Baul's TD reception, Cory Schlesinger's 40-yard TD run, Lawrence Phillips' 22-yard TD run and Berringer's 64-yard TD strike to Clester Johnson. Nebraska had a season-high 267 yards via passing, the most by a Husker team since 283 vs. Kansas in 1978, 16 years earlier. In addition, NU rushed for over 300 yards (336) for the eighth time this year, for 603 total-offense yards. It was the fourth time this season that the NU offense totaled over 500 yards. Berringer completed 13-18 passes for a .722 completion percentage for 267 yards with no interceptions and two TDs. The mark was the seventh-best in Husker history and 30 yards behind Dave Humm's school-record 297. Phillips rushed for more than 100 yards for the 10th straight game, as he carried 21 times for 153 yards and two TDs. In the third quarter alone, Phillips rushed 10 times for 118 yards and broke Bobby Reynolds' sophomore school rushing record of 1,342. Kansas totaled 270 yards including 141 rushing and 129 passing, but KU quarterbacks completed just 8-23 passes. Preston was intercepted twice, once by Tyrone Williams and once by Tony Veland. Baul caught three passes for a career-high 106 yards while Phillips added four receptions for 11 yards. Darin Erstad averaged 49 yards per punt including a career-long 68 yarder.

Game # 11

Nebraska 28
Iowa State 12

Ames, Iowa
Nov. 12, 1994

No. 1 (AP/Coaches) Nebraska used up the first 7:26 minutes of the game to drive 80 yards and go up 7-0 on a 1-yard run by Lawrence Phillips. The pesky Cyclones, with 18 players on their roster from the state of Nebraska, took advantage of three Husker turnovers to make the game closer on the scoreboard than it was on the stat sheet. Back-to-back field goals by ISU kicker Ty Stewart, one set up by an NU fumble on its own 18, put the score at 7-6. A 38-yard TD strike from Brook Berringer to Abdul Muhammad with just :57 remaining in the first half gave the Huskers a more comfortable 14-6 intermission lead and a 202-55 total offensive output advantage. A long pass play of 58 yards from Todd Doxzon to Calvin Branch brought the Cyclones to within two at 14-12, but NU was the only team to score in the fourth as Damon Benning scored on a 6-yard run at 12:09 and Phillips on a 21-yard run with 1:25 remaining. Iowa State missed an opportunity to close the gap as it had a TD in the fourth quarter called back. Nebraska, however, missed an opportunity as well, as it gave the ball to ISU after Phillips ran 61 yards to the ISU 6, but fumbled into the end zone. The Husker Blackshirts were again dominant, with six sacks on the day, 11 tackles for loss and held the Cyclones to just 62 yards rushing. Berringer had a great day passing, despite one interception, as he completed 11-18 for 193 yards and also rushed for 61. Berringer became the 19th Husker to pass for over 1,000 yards in a season with his fourth-straight game of 100 yards or more via the air. Heisman candidate Phillips rushed for more than 100 yards for the 11th-straight time as he led all rushers with 183 yards and two TDs and was Nebraska's leading receiver with four catches for 40 yards. With his first carry, true sophomore Phillips joined 15 other Huskers who have rushed for 2,000 yards or more in their career. Overall, Nebraska tallied 285 yards rushing, 193 passing for 478 total to ISU's 62 rushing, 151 passing and 213 total. Butkus finalist Ed Stewart and Terry Connealy led the Huskers with 13 tackles. Stewart also had three tackles for losses, including two of Nebraska's six sacks. The win assured the Huskers of at least a share of the Big Eight title.

Nebraska 13
Oklahoma 3

Norman, Okla.
Nov. 25, 1994

No. 1 Nebraska remained undefeated, clinched the Big Eight title outright, and earned a berth into the FedEx Orange Bowl to play for a national championship against Miami with a 13-3 victory over the unranked Sooners. The defense left no doubt as to which team was No. 1 as Nebraska held Oklahoma to 179 total yards, 47 in the second half and minus five yards in the fourth quarter. The Huskers struggled to get their offense moving in the first half, but took the early lead 3-0, when Darin Erstad hit a 46-yard field goal with 14:11 remaining in the second quarter. Oklahoma tied the score with 2:19 remaining in the half when Scott Blanton hit on a 25-yard field goal. Blanton's first field goal attempt on OU's first drive of the second quarter, and longest drive of the game, was blocked by Barron Miles, who extended his school season record for blocked kicks to four. The second half was all Nebraska. The offense scored on its first drive, an 11-play, 76-yard drive which ended with a 26-yard field goal by Tom Sieler. On OU's second drive of the third quarter, the Sooners gained a total of 14 yards, and just before they were forced to punt, gained just three yards on a third and 22 situation. That proved to be OU's last play with positive yardage as the Sooners punted three times, threw six incomplete passes, were sacked once and intercepted once by Miles on OU's last drive of the game. Miles also had three pass breakups to extend his school season record to 13 and tie the career record at 19 breakups. Nebraska, meanwhile, totaled 239 of its 302 total yards in the second half and while Brook Berringer was 4-11 passing in the first half with two yards rushing, in the second, he completed 9-12 passes for 143 yards and rushed nine times for 46 yards, including a 1-yard TD run in the fourth. Senior wingback Abdul Muhammad was Berringer's favorite target as he caught five passes for 98 yards, three went for first downs. His 44-yard catch to begin the fourth quarter on third and 10 was a career long reception which brought the Huskers to the OU 13-yard line. Berringer scored three plays later. Lawrence Phillips was held to under 100 yards rushing for the first time in 12 games as he carried 21 times for 50 yards. For the first time since the 1994 Orange Bowl, NU had more yards passing than rushing (166 to 136). The win gave the Huskers their fourth 12-win season in school history, and their fifth undefeated regular season. For the first time since Sept. 24, quarterback Tommie Frazier was suited up, but did not play.

Scoring Summary

Abdul Muhammad keyed the Husker offensive attack with five catches for 98 yards and a key 44-yard catch to set up Nebraska's only touchdown.

Consensus All-American, Outland Trophy winner and Lombardi Award finalist Zach Wiegert, and company led Nebraska to its 11th NCAA rushing title, averaging 340.0 yards rushing per game, 36 yards better than second place Air Force. The Huskers, behind a 6-4 1/2 and 295-pound line (on the average), rushed for over 300 yards in eight of 13 games last season. Meanwhile, the O-line allowed just six sacks (five by the first string) and was called for holding only four times. None of the sacks or holding calls were attributed to Wiegert. In fact, in his 46-game career, Wiegert gave up just one sack. A three-year starter at right tackle, Wiegert culminated his career with a stellar performance which saw him become a three-time All-Big Eight selection, starting 36 consecutive games. He took home Nebraska's seventh Outland Trophy, was a finalist for the Lombardi, a consensus All-American, the UPI Lineman-of-the-Year and the Touchdown Club of Columbus Offensive Lineman-of-the-Year. Wiegert even earned one first-place vote for the Heisman and finished in a tie for ninth with Washington running back Napoleon Kaufman with 27 points. With a perfect 2.0 grade, Wiegert was Nebraska's nominee for Big Eight Offensive Player-of-the-Week vs. Kansas (first time an offensive lineman was nominated by NU since 1987) and was the ABC Chevrolet Player-of-the-Game vs. UCLA. Wiegert and Stai became the fourth pair of offensive linemen from the same school to earn first-team All-America honors since 1982 (USC). Wiegert became just the fourth Husker offensive lineman to win three all-conference honors, the 17th overall. Zach was a second-round draft pick by the St. Louis Rams (38th pick overall).

Butkus Finalist, Football Writers Defensive Player-of-the-Year Finalist, Football News Defensive Player-of-the-Year Semifinalist.

Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Year and Consensus All-American Ed Stewart led the Husker Blackshirts in 1994 to top 10 rankings in all four defensive categories. Stewart, a three-year starter at Will linebacker, led the team in 1994 with 96 tackles, including 41 solos and 18 quarterback hurries. He also had 3.5 sacks for 18-yards lost and 5.5 tackles for 23-yards lost, one fumble caused and one pass broken up. Stewart was Nebraska's second consecutive Butkus Finalist and second consecutive Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Year following in the footsteps of 1993 Butkus winner Trev Alberts. In his career, Stewart played in 46 games counting the 1992, 1993 and 1994 Orange Bowls and started 36 consecutive dating back to the first game in 1992. He ranks fifth all time at NU with 257 career tackles passing NU's 1993 Butkus winner Trev Alberts' 254 career tackles. Stewart signed a free-agent contract with the Carolina Panthers.

#66 Brenden Stai

Offensive Guard...6-5...300...Letters: Four Yorba Linda, Calif. (Anaheim Esperanza HS)

- ◆ 1994 First-Team All-American (Walter Camp, Football Writers, UPI)
- ◆ 1994 Second-Team All-American (AP)
- ◆ 1994 First-Team All-Big Eight (AP, Coaches)

Brenden Stai combined with Wiegert to give the Huskers one of their best right sides ever. Stai was named first-team All-American by the Football Writers, Walter Camp and UPI, giving Nebraska the fourth pair of offensive linemen from the same school to earn first-team All-America honors (since 1950), and the first since USC's Don Mosebar and Bruce Mathews did it in 1982. One of the strongest athletes on the team, Stai was a starter in 1993, but broke his right fibula seven games into the season. NU's rushing average in the last four contests dropped 41 yards per game as a result. He came back in time to play in the 1994 Orange Bowl and started every game last season at right guard to earn first-team All-Big Eight honors by both the coaches and AP. Stai was a third-round draft pick by Pittsburgh (91st overall).

A two-year starter, Rob Zatechka is the first player under Head Coach Tom Osborne to graduate with a 4.0 (May, 1994, Biological Sciences). Nebraska's most decorated academician, Zatechka earned every award available in 1994 and $50,000 in postgraduate scholarship money to enable him to go to medical school. His many honors include: the Vincent DePaul Draddy Scholarship ($25,000), the Walter Byers NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship ($20,000), the Woody Hayes and Honda Scholar-Athlete of the Year Awards, a NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award ($5,000), NCAA Today's Top Eight, and Big Eight Male Co-Athlete-of-the-Year. He was one of two student-athletes assigned to the NCAA subcommittee to study a Division I-A football championship. Rob helped the Nebraska Huskers to a perfect 13-0 record in 1994 and to the school's 11th rushing title. An Anson Mount Scholar-Athlete prior to the season, Rob is just the third player in Big Eight Conference history to earn four first-team Academic All-Big Eight Honors. He was a fourth-round draft pick by the New York Giants.

Hastings, Neb. (Hastings HS)

A three-year letterman, Wilks was the starting left guard in 1994 and led the team with 142 "pancakes" (knock-down blocks), an average of 11.8 per game. Wilks missed the first five games in 1993 with a severe ankle sprain, but returned to play in the last six, starting one. In 1992, Wilks played in five games as a backup left guard. He redshirted in 1991 and played for the jayvee in 1990.

Been There, Done That ... And They Want To Again

Nebraska coach Tom Osborne isn't one to oversell his football team.

In the weeks leading up to last season's national championship, he never talked about the destination. Instead he talked about the journey. He cared about the business, but he wouldn't have a chance.

So it may come as a surprise that this year he isn't talking about the team. He's talking about the season. He's talking about the things that happened once in a while. He's talking about the coach, the subject of a former taboo.

"Playing for anything is like a ball of wax might melt," Osborne said. "I don't want fans to think I'm promoting a lot of areas that our guys will work hard on."

Nebraska, which has won or shared straight Big Eight titles, will be trying to become the first team since Alabama in 1958 and '79 to repeat as national champion. Of course, Osborne is well aware of the consequences of a loss.

"I got lucky on the option play," Connealy said. "They ran it away from me and nobody cut me off. When Kordell cut back, he ran right. After Berringer's three plays."

As Frazier Goes, So Will the Huskers

BY ERIC OLSON
WORLD HERALD BUREAU
Lincoln — Tommie Frazier easily could feel as if he were bearing the weight of, if not the world, then the state of Nebraska on his shoulders this football season.

He refuses to, though. Going into his junior year, the laid-back 20-year-old quarterback from Florida is cool, calm and collected even though, right or wrong, Nebraska's hopes of a national championship have been pinned on it's nothing he hasn't West Virginia. Frazier has started 19 straight games, including two Orange Bowls against Florida State.

"Hopefully, you've got a good enough team that you don't rely on one player," NU Coach Tom Osborne said. "Certainly an experienced quarterback is important. In 1982 or '83, if we had lost Steve Taylor, that would have hurt our team."

"But if you have a good enough football team, you can lose one player to the occasion and people don't score. There are a lot of ways to win."

For the Huskers, the best way is with Frazier calling the signals. Frazier enters the season being touted as the nation's No. 1 all-purpose quarterback, according to The Sports Illustrated's Heisman Trophy award, and as a Heisman Trophy national's top QB, including 17 awards

ATTENTION: Tommie Frazier always draws the best Nebraska ever. But the statistics don't tell the whole story. Frazier offers this testimony: "I've been the best Nebraska ever to have." Frazier has carried 15 times for 333 yards and two touchdowns in his career. He has also won two national championships. Jim Walden, Nebraska's first Heisman Trophy winner, was named the best player in the country in 1956. Frazier is the only player to have won the Heisman Trophy three times.

Bowl Facts

33 Bowls (26 Consecutive)

Overall Bowl Record: 15-18-0

Record Under Coach Osborne: 9-13-0

NU Bowl Notes: Last season, Nebraska defeated Miami, 24-17, for the national championship... In the last five bowls, NU has played a team ranked No. 1-3... In the last 10 years (including 1995), NU has played a team which was ranked no lower than fifth.

26-Year Consecutive Bowl String is Nation's Longest

When Alabama didn't receive a bowl bid at the end of the 1984 season, Nebraska took over the lead for the longest current string of consecutive bowl appearances from the Crimson Tide. Alabama had appeared in 25 straight bowl games dating back to the inaugural Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia in 1959. The Huskers, first under Bob Devaney, then Tom Osborne, have appeared in a bowl game in an NCAA-record 26 consecutive seasons, starting with a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl.

Note: Alliance qualifiers include champions of Big Eight, Southwest, Atlantic Coast, Southeastern and Big East conferences, plus one at-large team (Notre Dame is automatic at-large entrant if ranked in the top 10 in either USA Today/CNN or Associated Press polls). In 1996, Big 12 champ will replace Big Eight and SWC, with two at-large bids remaining available.

Nebraska's 33 Bowl Games

1941 Rose Bowl Stanford 21, Nebraska 13

Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 1, 1941-Nebraska was only the third Big Six team to play in a postseason bowl game, but the Cornhuskers made their first bowl trip a memorable one with an invitation to the granddaddy of them all-The Rose Bowl.

Under the warm California sun in Pasadena, Coach Biff Jones' Cornhuskers led Clark Shaughnessy's Stanford Indians twice in the first half, but fell victim to the innovative T-formation 21-13. The Huskers took a 7-0 lead just six plays after the kickoff when fullback Vike Francis plunged over from the two. Stanford tied the count four plays later when Hugh Gallarneau bolted over from nine yards out.

In the second quarter, the Huskers took the lead again on a 33-yard Herm Rohrig to Allen Zikmund pass, but the Indians came back on Frankie Albert's 41-yard TD pass to Gallarneau for a 14-13 halftime lead. A 39-yard TD punt return by Pete Kmetovic iced the game for the Indians in the third quarter. The 92,000 fans on hand still represent the largest crowd ever to see Nebraska play.

1955 Orange Bowl Duke 34, Nebraska 7

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1955--If Nebraska's first bowl bid was a memorable one, it's second was one to forget. The 1954 Cornhuskers finished second behind Oklahoma in the Big Seven race and went to Miami under the no-repeat rule.

Making their first bowl appearance in 14 years, Bill Glassford's Cornhuskers trailed Duke's Blue Devils at the half, 14-0, but pulled within 14-7 early in the third quarter after a minus 2-yard Duke punt. Halfback Don Comstock scored from the three to cap a 35-yard drive. After that, it was all Duke, Coach Bill Murray's Blue Devils rolled 65 yards to score on their next possession and added two more tallies in the fourth quarter to ice the game, 34-7.

New York, Dec. 15, 1962--Playing under Coach Bob Devaney, Nebraska won its first bowl game in three tries, upsetting Miami and George Mira, 36-34, in the second and last of New York's now-defunct Gotham Bowl. Playing in Yankee Stadium before only 6,166 fans in sub-freezing weather, the Huskers and Hurricanes put on one of the greatest bowl shows ever, trading scores in every quarter.

Willie Ross' 1-yard plunge and Bill "Thunder" Thornton's subsequent two-point run gave the Huskers' the lead for good, 36-27, with 12:10 left. Mira, who passed for 321 yards, led a valiant comeback attempt, but was thwarted by a last-minute interception by Husker guard Bob Brown.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1964--Nebraska made its second Orange Bowl trip a happier one than the first with a 13-7 win over Auburn in the 1964 Miami Classic. The Huskers evened their bowl record with the win and handed Bob Devaney his second bowl win in as many tries.

Husker quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the game open before most of the 72,647 fans had settled in their seats. On the Huskers' second play from scrimmage, Claridge bolted 68 yards down the sideline to put NU ahead 7-0. At the time, it was the longest TD run in OB history. Moments later Dave Theisen broke another OB record with a 31-yard field goal. The record lasted until the second quarter when Theisen booted a 36-yarder to give NU a 13-0 halftime lead.

Auburn quarterback Jimmy Sidle almost brought the Tigers back, but Husker linebacker John Kirby batted a fourth-and-four pass away at the goal line with less than three minutes to go to preserve the win for Nebraska.

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1965--Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas Razorbacks mounted an 80-yard fourth quarter drive against a previously impregnable Nebraska defense to down the Huskers, 10-7, in NU's first Dallas appearance. The Huskers had led most of the way in one of the greatest defensive battles in bowl history.

Arkansas scored first on a 31-yard Tom McKnelly field goal in the first quarter. But sophomore Harry Wilson capped a 69-yard Husker march in the second quarter on a 1-yard plunge to give Nebraska a 7-3 halftime lead. The Huskers held that lead until Bobby Burnett finished the Arkansas drive with a three-yard TD run with 4:50 left in the game. In the fierce defensive struggle, first downs were even at 11, and the Razorbacks held a slim, 176-168 total offense edge.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1966--With the national championship riding on the outcome, Coach Bob Devaney's Huskers took on Alabama's Crimson Tide for the first time. Nebraska went into the game 10-0 and ranked third, Alabama was 8-1-1 and fourth. But earlier in the day, top-ranked Michigan State lost to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and LSU knocked off No. 2 Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl to set up a national-title game in the Orange Bowl.

Playing in Nebraska's first night bowl game, 'Bama won the title 39-28. The Tide led 24-7 at the half and the game was never in serious doubt, but led by the passing of Bob Churchich, the Huskers came back to make a solid fight and make the final score respectable.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 2, 1967--Never one to duck a challenge, Coach Bob Devaney and his Huskers accepted a bid for a rematch with Alabama and Bear Bryant in the Sugar Bowl. It turned out to be a little too much of a challenge as No. 3 'Bama handed the No. 7 Huskers a 34-7 thumping.

The Tide rolled up a 17-0 first-quarter advantage and led at halftime, 24-0, behind the passing of Kenny Stabler. Sophomore fullback Dick Davis prevented a complete whitewashing with a 15-yard TD catch of a Bob Churchich pass on the first play of the fourth quarter. Husker QB Churchich sparked again against the Tide, completing 21 of 34 passes for 201 yards. With the loss, the Huskers joined Alabama in holding the dubious distinction of being the only teams to lose in all four major bowls.

Rogers booted FG's of 50, 32, 42 and 37 yards and sophomore I-back Jeff Kinney added a TD run of 11 yards to give Nebraska an 18-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and the Huskers were never threatened. For his record-setting effort, Rogers was named the game's outstanding offensive player. The Big Eight co-champion Cornhuskers rolled up a 355-185 total offense advantage over the outmanned Bulldogs. Dan Schneiss led Husker rushers with 63 yards and Van Brownson completed 11 of 18 passes for 109 yards.

After two years away from the bowl scene, the Sun Bowl started an NCAA record run of 26-straight bowl appearances for the Huskers.

Louisiana State 12

Miami Fla., Jan. 1, 1971--Playing under the lights in Miami's Orange Bowl for the first time in five years, Coach Bob Devaney's Nebraska Cornhuskers won the first of two straight national titles by virtue of a 17-12 win over LSU and some fortunate circumstances.

Earlier in the day, top-ranked Texas was upset by Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl, and No. 2 Ohio State was shocked by Stanford, 27-17, in the Rose Bowl. That left the door to the title wide open for No. 3 Nebraska. The Huskers responded by building a 10-0 first-quarter lead on a 25-yard field goal by Paul Rogers and a 3-yard TD run by Joe Orduna. But a pair of Mark Lumpkin FG's and a 31-yard Buddy Lee to Al Coffee TD pass on the last play of the third quarter gave the aroused Tigers a 12-10 lead.

Nebraska showed its grit by driving 67 yards, and after quarterback Jerry Tagge stretched the ball over from the 1-yard line with 8:50 left, the Huskers clinched their first national title.

Orange Bowl
Nebraska 38,
Alabama 6

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1972--It was supposed to be another "Game of the Century," rivaling Nebraska's 35-31 win over Oklahoma a few weeks earlier. The 12-0 Huskers were No. 1, the 11-0 Alabama Crimson Tide was No. 2 but the OB had a dream game for a little less than a quarter.

The Huskers struck early on a two-yard TD run by Jeff Kinney before Johnny Rodgers broke the Tide's back with a 77-yard run TD punt return on the last play of the first quarter. The Huskers added two more scores in the second stanza and by halftime there was no doubt about who was No. 1, as Nebraska led, 28-0. The Huskers continued to dominate and rolled to a 38-6 win, giving Nebraska a second-straight national title and Coach Bob Devaney a satisfying first win in three tries over 'Bama Coach Bear Bryant.

Orange Bowl

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1973--Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers went wild, scoring four touchdowns and passing for another, as the Cornhuskers became the first team to ever win three straight Orange Bowls, romping over Notre Dame, 40-6. In his last game as a Cornhusker, Rodgers was moved to I-back from his usual wingback position, and on the game's first play he took a pitchout for a 13-yard gain. It was a sign of things to come.

"Johnny R" capped his career by scoring on runs of eight, four and five yards, caught the Irish defense by surprise with a 52-yard TD pass to Frosty Anderson in the second quarter, and scored the last of his 50 career TD's (including bowls) by taking a sideline pass from Dave Humm in the third quarter and scampering 50 yards to payday.

Cotton Bowl
Nebraska 19,

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1974--Tom Osborne's Nebraska Cornhuskers broke open a tight contest in the third quarter with a pair of gamebreaking plays to chalk up a 19-3 win over the mighty Texas Longhorns in the 1974 Cotton Bowl game. The chilled New Year's Day crowd of 67,500 saw the Big Eight's runner-up and the Southwest Conference champions battle to a 3-3 tie at halftime, thanks to a brilliant Longhorn 1-yard-line stand just before the gun.

But the Huskers weren't to be denied and midway through the third quarter, safety Bob Thornton returned a Texas field goal try 41 yards to set up the clinching touchdowns. Ritch Bahe got the final 12 yards on a reverse and Rich Sanger kicked the point to make it 10-3. Four plays later, John Bell recovered a Texas fumble at the Longhorn 19 and three plays after that Tony Davis ripped in from the three to make it 16-3. Sanger kicked a 43-yard field goal with 8:09 left to complete the scoring.

Texas had scored first on a 22-yard field goal by Bill Schott in the wake of a Husker fumble, but early in the second quarter defensive end Steve Manstedt picked up a Roosevelt Leaks' fumble in mid-air and raced 65 yards to the eight. But a stiff Longhorn defense forced a 24-yard field goal by Sanger.

Sugar Bowl
Nebraska 13,

New Orleans, La., Dec. 31, 1974--Rallying from a 10-0 deficit, Nebraska scored three times in the fourth quarter to defeat the tough Florida Gators 13-10. It was the Cornhuskers' sixth straight bowl victory.

From the very start, it was an uphill climb for the Huskers. Florida scored once in the first quarter and kicked a field goal in the second, while holding Nebraska's usually strong offense to 138 total yards.

But in the second half, fullback Tony Davis, quarterback Terry Luck, kicker Mike Coyle and the Blackshirt defense took over for the Huskers and led Nebraska to victory. Although it wasn't until the fourth quarter when the Huskers really got rolling.

Freshman sensation, I-back Monte Anthony, scored the Huskers' first touchdown, with 13:24 left in the game, when he ran straight up the middle for two yards and a score. Coyle's kick was good, and the Huskers trailed 10-7.

Davis set up Coyle's two deciding field goals with inspired running as he picked up 126 yards on 17 carries, including the longest run of the game for 40 yards. For his performance, Davis was named the game's most valuable player, an award which he had also received in the Cotton Bowl the previous year. Coyle tied the score on a 37-yard boot with 7:13 left in the game and with only 1:46 remaining, his 39-yard kick gave the Huskers their sixth-consecutive postseason win.

Fiesta Bowl

Tempe, Ariz., Dec. 26, 1975--Nebraska's record-tying six-game bowl win streak was snapped by Arizona State in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl, when the Sun Devils edged the Huskers 17-14, before 51,396 partisan fans on ASU's home field.

The final blow came with 4:50 remaining in the game, when ASU kicker Dan Kush successfully booted a 29-yard field goal, breaking a 14-14 tie and capping a rally from a 14-6 deficit after three quarters.

Fighting till the very end, Nebraska then took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona State 31-yard line with less than two minutes to play. The Huskers next two plays were incomplete passes, but on third down, quarterback Terry Luck hit fullback Tony Davis with a pass at the ASU 21-yard line. However, Davis was hit hard by two Arizona State players and fumbled the ball. The Sun Devils recovered and went on to kill the clock and claim their 17-14 win.

Nebraska ended the 1975 season at 10-2 and ranked No. 9 in the country. The Huskers lost their last two games of the year to No. 1-ranked Oklahoma 35-10 and to the No. 2-ranked Sun Devils.

Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl
Nebraska 27,
Texas Tech 24

Houston, Texas, Dec. 31, 1976--In the most exciting bowl game of the year, the Nebraska Cornhuskers edged a determined Texas Tech team, 27-24, in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Twice Nebraska rallied to overcome 10-point deficits. With Texas Tech ahead 17-7 and time running out in the second quarter, quarterback Vince Ferragamo moved the Cornhuskers 80 yards in less than two minutes to score on a 22-yard touchdown pass to Mark Dufresne. But Texas Tech running back Billy Taylor countered early in the third quarter with an eight-yard TD run to put Nebraska down 24-14.

Once again, the Cornhuskers started to work on the Texas Tech lead. I-back Rick Berns broke around the right end and dashed untouched 18 yards into the end zone to put Nebraska within three. The Huskers then took the lead when Ferragamo connected with split end Chuck Malito, who gained 107 yards in three catches to earn most-valuable-lineman honors in the game, for a 23-yard touchdown pass. That score, which would prove to be the winning touchdown, was set up by a partially blocked punt by defensive backs Ted Harvey and Kent Smith.

The final score was in doubt until defensive end Reg Gast recovered a Red Raider fumble with 1:34 left in the game, killing a Tech threat and allowing Nebraska to run out the clock.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 19, 1977--Quarterback Randy Garcia came off the bench in the fourth quarter to throw two touchdown passes to rally Nebraska from a 17-7 fourth-quarter deficit to a 21-17 win over North Carolina in the 19th annual Liberty Bowl.

Garcia, who replaced starter Tom Sorley, first hit wingback Curtis Craig with a 10-yard touchdown pass (a sensational diving catch) with 10:51 left to cut the Husker deficit to 17-14, then threw a 34-yard scoring pass to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game to cap a rally that frustrated UNC's upset hopes.

The Tar Heels drew first blood early in the second quarter on a 12-yard scoring pass from Matt Kupec to tight end Brooks Williams. Then, after the Huskers had tied the game at 7-7 on a 15-yard touchdown run by fullback Dodie Donnell, Kupec threw a 10-yard scoring pass to fullback Bob Loomis late in the half, giving North Carolina a 14-7 halftime lead.

Carolina upped its lead to 17-7 late in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal by Tom Biddle and the Tar Heels appeared to have the game well in control until Garcia's heroics brought NU back.

Orange Bowl
Oklahoma 31,

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1979--In the first-ever matchup of Big Eight teams in a bowl game, Nebraska just missed duplicating its 17-14 win over Oklahoma several weeks earlier in losing to the Sooners 31-24, in the 45th annual Orange Bowl.

Nebraska got off to a fast start in trying for an unprecedented double over OU, driving 80 yards in 15 plays after the opening kickoff to take a 7-0 lead on Tom Sorley's 21-yard touchdown pass to Tim Smith. But the Huskers then watched the revenge-minded Sooners score 24 unanswered points.

Nebraska's rally started with 9:12 left in the game when I-back Rick Berns capped a 78-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run that reduced the deficit to 31-17. A little over a minute later, defensive tackle David Clark recovered quarterback Thomas Lott's fumble at the OU 42 and the Huskers were definitely back in the game. Oklahoma's defense yielded 35 yards to the seven, but rose up to stop I-back Craig Johnson on the fourth-and-one with 4:24 to go--virtually sealing the win, although the Huskers marched 58 yards in 10 plays to score on a 2-yard pass from Sorley to Junior Miller on the final play of the game.

Cotton Bowl
Houston 17,
Nebraska 14

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1980--Reserve quarterback Terry Elston threw a 6-yard fourth-down touchdown pass to Eric Herring with just 12 seconds left in the game as Houston handed Nebraska a heart-breaking 17-14 loss in the 44th Cotton Bowl game--another in a six-year string of incredible finishes in the Husker bowl games.

Before a CBS-TV national audience and 72,032 on hand in Dallas' famous oval, the Huskers and Cougars battled tooth-and-nail for a full 60 minutes, and the goal-line situation at the end was a fitting finale.

Nebraska struck first as I-back Jarvis Redwine scored on a 9-yard run late in the first period, but Houston came back to tie, 7-7, at halftime on an 8-yard Elston run early in the second period.

After a scoreless third period, Southwest Conference champion Houston took its first lead of the game, 10-7, on a 41-yard field goal by Ken Hatfield with 8:25 left in the game. The Huskers made little headway against the Cougar defense in the second half, but took advantage of a Houston fumble to drive 31 yards in six plays to take a 14-10 lead on Jeff Quinn's 6-yard touchdown pass with 3:56 left.

The next 3:44 were all Terry Elston, though, as the junior accounted for all but 11 yards in the Cougars' winning 66-yard drive himself, completing 5-of-7 passes for 45 yards (three for crucial first downs) and rushing three times for 10 yards.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 27, 1980--A great passing performance by senior Jeff Quinn and a stout defensive effort enabled Nebraska to enjoy a successful return to the Sun Bowl by downing Mississippi State 31-17.

The Huskers drew first blood just 2:30 into the game when, on the first play after MSU's Mardye McDole fumbled a Nebraska punt, split end Todd Brown scored on a 23-yard end-around. NU added 10 points in the second quarter on a 22-yard Kevin Seibel field goal and an 8-yard Quinn to Jeff Finn pass to take a 17-0 lead into the dressing room at halftime.

MSU finally scored in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal and appeared to be gaining momentum when Husker defensive end Jimmy Williams recovered a fumble at the Bulldog 25 to set up a 2-yard TD run by Andra Franklin. The Huskers iced the game with a 52-yard Quinn to Tim McCrady pass late in the game. For their efforts, Williams and Quinn were named the outstanding players of the 1980 Sun Bowl.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1982--Coach Tom Osborne's Cornhuskers went into their 13th consecutive bowl game hoping New Year's magic would work the same wonders for them as it had for their Big Red counterparts 11 years earlier, and for a while, it looked like it would. First, Texas toppled No. 3 Alabama, 14-12, in the Cotton Bowl, and while fourth-ranked Nebraska battled top-ranked Clemson, Pitt was knocking off No. 2 Georgia in the Sugar Bowl, leaving it up to the Huskers and Tigers to settle the national title.

The dream of a third national championship in 12 years was not to be for the Huskers, though, as their own errors, plus standout performances by Clemson quarterback Homer Jordan and the Tiger defense gave the South Carolina school its first national title and a 12-0 season with a 22-15 victory.

The Tigers scored first on a 41-yard Donald Igwebuike field goal to take a 3-0 lead, but Nebraska came back with a bit of razzle-dazzle and took a 7-3 lead midway in the first quarter on a 25-yard TD pass from I-back Mike Rozier to wingback Anthony Steels.

For the next two-and-a-half quarters, it was almost all Clemson as the opportunistic Tigers took advantage of Husker errors to score 19 unanswered points to take a 22-7 lead after three periods. Early in the fourth quarter, the Huskers came back on a 26-yard TD run and a two point conversion by Roger Craig, cutting the margin to 22-15, but an eighth untimely penalty stopped another promising drive moments later and the elusive Jordan ate up all but six seconds of the last 5:24.

Orange Bowl
Nebraska 21,
Louisiana State 20

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1983--The 1983 Orange Bowl game between Nebraska and Louisiana State started out like the one-sided contest the oddsmakers had predicted. The Husker defense held the Tigers to three yards on three plays after the opening kickoff, forcing a punt, then the NU offense drove 51 yards in six plays to take a 7-0 lead on Mark Schellen's 2-yard run with 4:03 gone in the game.

At that point, however, Murphy's Law went into effect. On the first play after Toby Williams intercepted an LSU pass at the Husker 7, Nebraska fumbled the ball away to set up a tying Tiger TD. The Huskers then fumbled the ball away at the LSU 15, forced a punt, and fumbled it at their own 45 to set up another punt. Then the Huskers threw an interception, and were thankful to be down only 14-7 at halftime.

The second half didn't start out any better as NU missed a field goal, then fumbled again to set up a field goal that gave LSU a 17-7 lead. But once down 10 points, the Husker offense came alive, driving 80 yards in 12 plays to score on an 11-yard pass from Turner Gill to Mike Rozier, and going 47 yards in seven plays to finally regain the lead, 21-17, early in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard run by Gill.

A dropped pass on a faked field goal prevented another score, and another interception set up an LSU field goal that cut the margin to 21-20, but the Husker offense sealed the win eating up the final 5:05.

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla., 31,
Nebraska 30

Miami, Fla., Jan. 2, 1984--In one of the most exciting bowl games ever played, fourth-ranked Miami overcame Nebraska rallies from 17- and 14-point deficits and took the national championship away from the Huskers. The game was decided when strong safety Ken Calhoun knocked Turner Gill's two-point PAT pass out of Jeff Smith's hands with 48 seconds left in the game, preserving a 31-30 home-field win in the 50th Orange Bowl.

Behind rifle-armed freshman quarterback Bernie Kosar, the 'Canes jumped to an easy 17-0 first-quarter lead and never trailed. The Huskers rallied to score two second-quarter touchdowns, then tied the game early in the second half on a Scott Livingston field goal, but Miami scored twice in a five-minute span later in the third period to put the visitors in a 31-17 hole.

Things looked blackest for Nebraska four plays after Miami's last score when Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier left the game for good with a badly bruised ankle, but junior I-back Jeff Smith came in to rush for 99 yards and two touchdowns, the second a 24-yarder on fourth-and-eight, to get the Huskers within 31-30. Coach Tom Osborne then eschewed the PAT kick (and a tie that would have assured Nebraska the national title) and decided to go for it all but, thanks to Calhoun, Gill and Smith came up just short.

Sugar Bowl
Nebraska 28,
Louisiana State 10

New Orleans, La., Jan. 1, 1985--Senior quarterback Craig Sundberg closed out his career in grand style as he led the Huskers back from a 10-0 first-half deficit to a 28-10 win over Louisiana State in the 51st annual Sugar Bowl.

Fired-up LSU scored on two of its first three possessions to grab the early lead, but after a rocky start, the Sundberg-led Nebraska offense roared to life to put 28 unanswered points on the board. Two of the Huskers' four touchdowns were set up by a defense that forced six Tiger turnovers, five of them interceptions, including four off LSU starting quarterback Jeff Wickersham.

Sophomore I-back Doug DuBose helped spark Nebraska with a 102-yard rushing effort but it was Sundberg who provided most of the punch and was named the game's most valuable player. Starting for the first time since arm trouble knocked him out of the starting lineup at midseason, Sundberg competed 10 of 15 passes for 143 yards, threw for three touchdowns and ran for the go-ahead score himself on a 9-yard sprint 6:46 into the second half. Sundberg's three TD passes tied a Nebraska bowl record. Two of those scoring tosses went to tight end Todd Frain, tying another NU bowl mark.

Sunkist Fiesta Bowl
Michigan 27,

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1986--After building a 14-3 halftime lead, Nebraska self-destructed in the third quarter and was never able to recover completely in dropping a 27-23 decision to Michigan in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskers used a pair of second-quarter touchdowns by I-back Doug DuBose to take the lead, but a fumble on the third play of the second half set up a 21-yard Wolverine touchdown drive that cut the NU margin to 14-10. Nebraska fumbled it away again on the second play after the ensuing kickoff, setting up a 38-yard touchdown drive that put Michigan up for good, 17-14.

Nebraska's next drive stalled after one first down, and the Wolverines blocked Dan Wingard's punt, recovering it at the NU 6-yard line. The Nebraska defense held, and a 19-yard Pat Moons field goal made it 20-14, Michigan, after 8:18 of the second half. Later in the period, the Maize and Blue took advantage of two pass interference penalties to score another touchdown to build what proved to be an insurmountable 27-14 lead.

USF&G Sugar Bowl
Nebraska 30,
Louisiana State 15

New Orleans, La., Jan. 1, 1987--Louisiana State had a 66-yard touchdown drive in the first three minutes of the contest and another 66-yard touchdown drive in the last three minutes of the game. But in between, Nebraska completely dominated the Tigers, running off 30 unanswered points and posted a 30-15 win in the USF&G Sugar Bowl, the Huskers' 25th bowl appearance.

Between those two Tiger drives, Nebraska outyarded LSU, 352-62, and had a first-down advantage of 22-3 as the Huskers made a remarkable recovery from a disheartening loss to Oklahoma at the end of the regular season. It was Nebraska's fourth bowl win over LSU in as many tries and the third in five years.

Steve Taylor became the second Nebraska quarterback in three years to win the Miller-Digby Trophy as the Sugar Bowl MVP. He completed 11 of 19 passes for 110 yards and one touchdown, and rushed 20 times for 63 yards and another score. Of Taylor's 173 total offensive yards, 90 came in two drives in which the Huskers went from a 7-3 deficit to a 17-7 lead.

Sunkist Fiesta Bowl
Florida State 31,
Nebraska 28

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1988--Florida State quarterback Danny McManus hit flanker Ronald Lewis with a 15-yard, fourth-down touchdown pass with 3:07 left in the game to give Florida State a 31-28 win over Nebraska in the 17th Fiesta Bowl. McManus' third touchdown pass of the afternoon capped a 97-yard touchdown drive by the Seminoles, who had taken over at their 3 with 6:58 to go when a fumble kept the Huskers from putting the game away.

It was a frustrating day for Nebraska, which jumped to a 14-0 first-quarter lead on a short drive set up by a Richard Bell punt return, and a 52-yard punt return touchdown by Dana Brinson. The Husker defense held FSU to just 82 yards on the ground, 28 by standout tailback Sammie Smith, but McManus threw for 375 yards, his career high by an even 100 yards. He was named offensive player-of-the-game, while Husker tackle Neil Smith was named the top defensive player.

Even after Florida State took the late lead, the Huskers almost rallied, but Steve Taylor's 58-yard pass to Morgan Gregory, which carried to the Seminole 2, was called back because of a penalty.

Orange Bowl
Miami, Fla. 23,

Miami, Fla., Jan. 2, 1989--Second-ranked Miami's quickness, particularly on defense, proved to be too much for sixth-ranked Nebraska as the Hurricanes dominated the Huskers, 23-3, in the 55th Orange Bowl Classic. Despite the win and a final 11-1-0 record, the Hurricanes were unable to lay claim to a second-straight national title due to undefeated Notre Dame's 34-21 Fiesta Bowl win over West Virginia earlier in the day.

Although the Nebraska defense held the Miami offense to 354 total-offense yards, nearly 100 under its season average, the Huskers never could get untracked against the Hurricanes' second-ranked defense. After leading the nation in rushing at 382.3 yards per game during the regular season, NU managed only 80 yards rushing against Miami, and finished with 10 first downs. Nebraska needed a career-long 50-yard field goal by Gregg Barrios to capitalize on its only serious scoring threat. Early in the third quarter, Tahaun Lewis picked off a Steve Walsh pass and returned it 31 yards to the Miami 37. But after Ken Clark gained 16 yards to the 21, Steve Taylor was sacked for a 13-yard loss, and the Huskers had to settle for Barrios' field goal, which prevented Nebraska's first shutout since the 1973 season.

Sunkist Fiesta Bowl
Florida State 41,
Nebraska 17

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1990--Fifth-ranked Florida State rode the arm of quarterback Peter Tom Willis and the talents of a bevy of quick, talented receivers to a 41-17 win over a sixth-ranked NU in the 19th Sunkist Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskers had the lead twice in the first half, 7-0 after driving 69 yards for a touchdown on their first possession (helped by a 41-yard Mike Stiggett-to-Mark Dowse pass on a fake punt), and 10-7 on a Chris Drennan field goal early in the second period.

From then on, it was all FSU. The Seminoles scored touchdowns on five of their next seven possessions to build a commanding 41-10 lead at the end of three quarters. In the process, Willis had the best passing day ever against Nebraska, completing 25 of 40 for 422 yards and five touchdowns. The yardage topped the previous high vs. the Huskers of 375 by the Seminoles' Danny McManus in the 1988 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl, and the five TD passes were also the most-ever against NU.

For the second-straight year, the Huskers faced a bowl opponent which was probably the best team in the nation, but which had virtually no hope of winning the national title due to untimely defeats early in the season. FSU lost its first two games in 1989 to Southern Mississippi and Clemson, then roared back to win its last 10, including 24-10 over eventual No. 1 Miami, Fla.

Florida Citrus Bowl
Georgia Tech 45,
Nebraska 21

Orlando, Fla., Jan. 1, 1991--Despite a second-quarter rally, Nebraska was unable to overcome a 21-0 deficit as the Huskers fell to undefeated Georgia Tech, 45-21, in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The Yellow Jackets finished 11-0-1 with the victory and edged Colorado for the UPI national title, while the Buffaloes, who had beaten NU, 27-12, in November, claimed the AP crown.

Two freshmen gave Husker fans a ray of hope after Tech took its three-TD lead. All-Big Eight tight end Johnny Mitchell hauled in a 30-yard TD pass from Tom Haase, then I-back Derek Brown sprinted 50 yards to cut the margin to 21-14 with 5:07 left in the half. But that was as close as Nebraska would get, and running back William Bell's two fourth-quarter TDs sealed the Huskers' fate.

Mitchell finished the game with five receptions for an NU-bowl-record 138 yards, while Brown rushed for 99 yards, and Haase came off the bench to complete 14 of 21 passes for 209 yards and two TDs.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1992--No. 1-ranked Miami, playing on its home field for at least a share of its fourth national title in nine years, used overwhelming team speed and a smothering defense to blank Nebraska, 22-0. It was the Cornhuskers' first shutout defeat in 221 games since the 1973 season.

The win left the Hurricanes 12-0 on the season and (as it turned out) with a split national title with a 12-0 Washington team that had beaten Nebraska, 36-21, at Lincoln in September. The Hurricanes were No. 1 in the writers poll (Associated Press), while the Huskies claimed the top spot in the coaches poll (USA Today/CNN). It was the second-straight year for a split title, and, for the second straight year, Nebraska, 9-2-1, lost to both teams involved, having been defeated by Colorado and Georgia Tech the season before.

Miami held Nebraska to 82 rushing yards after the Huskers had won the NCAA rushing title in the regular season at 353.2 yards per game.

Federal Express
Orange Bowl
Florida State 27,
Nebraska 14

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1993--The Seminoles struck first in the opening quarter and scored 20 unanswered points before split end Corey Dixon caught a 41-yard bomb from Nebraska quarterback Tommie Frazier with 1:31 remaining in the first half to end the Seminole run. Nebraska had missed on two field goal opportunities, while Florida State was good on two attempts. After Nebraska stalled on its first possession of the second half, the Seminoles put together an 85-yard drive to go up 27-7. That would prove to be FSU's last score, however, as the Husker defense forced the Seminoles to punt on all of its five remaining possessions and limited the potent offense to 102 total yards from that point on. Frazier connected with tight end Gerald Armstrong on a 1-yard pass in the fourth with 10 minutes remaining to pull within 13, but threw two interceptions as No. 3 FSU held on for a 27-14 victory. The No. 11 Huskers were slowed by five fumbles, and turned the ball over three times after leading the nation in turnover margin during the regular season. Dixon had a career-best day, with 123 of Nebraska's 146 receiving yards, and ran a 35-yard reverse en route to being named the Nebraska MVP. Calvin Jones led the Huskers in rushing with 76 yards on 19 carries on a wet field. Barron Miles returned two kickoffs for 79 yards. Trev Alberts was the Huskers' leading tackler with a career-high 14 (eight solo), sacked QB Charlie Ward once and had three tackles for loss. FSU was led by Ward who passed for 182 yards (15-30, one interception and two touchdowns), and running back Sean Jackson who rushed for 101 yards. The Huskers were limited to 144 yards rushing--after leading the nation in rushing in the regular season. Frazier completed 10-21 passes for 146 yards and two TDs. NU dropped to 9-3 on the season and finished 14th in the final polls, its 24th consecutive year finishing in the AP top 25. FSU upped its record to 11-1 and finished second to Alabama in the polls.

1994

Federal Express
Orange Bowl
Florida State 18,
Nebraska 16

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1994--Nebraska entered its record-tying 25th consecutive bowl undefeated and ranked No. 2 by AP, but No.

1 in the CNN/USA Today Coaches poll and in the combined Bowl Coalition poll. The Florida State Seminoles held the AP No. 1 rank and were second by the coaches and Coalition. Although the Huskers were undefeated, they were tagged as a 17 1/2 point underdog. Despite the odds, the Huskers outplayed the Seminoles, and put themselves in a position to win their first national title since 1971. But Byron Bennett's 45-yard field goal attempt with one second left on the clock, sailed wide left and Florida State won the thriller, 18-16. NU earned the nation's respect and finished No. 3 in both polls.

After a punt return touchdown by Nebraska's Corey Dixon was called back for an illegal block, FSU scored first when freshman Scott Bentley hit on a 34-yard field goal. Nebraska took the lead when a tipped pass from quarterback Tommie Frazier found sophomore Reggie Baul, for a 34-yard score. Bentley followed with a 25-yard field goal and the Huskers went in at intermission with a 7-6 lead. Nebraska's leading receiver on the season, Abdul Muhammad, and leading rusher Calvin Jones, both left the game with injuries and missed the second half. In the third period, Florida State scored on a 1-yard William Floyd run and followed with a 39-yard field goal by Bentley to take a 15-7 lead. True freshman Lawrence Phillips came in for the injured Jones and on the first play of the fourth quarter scored on a 12-yard run. Phillips would tally 64 yards on 13 attempts, with all but one carry coming in the fourth quarter.

Set up by Phillips 17-yard scamper, and Frazier's 32-yard sprint to the 4-yard line, Bennett appeared to have kicked the game-winning 27-yard field goal with 1:16 remaining. But with Nebraska up 16-15, FSU Heisman QB Charlie Ward orchestrated a successful drive from the FSU 35. On second down from the 5, Bentley kicked a 22-yard field goal with 21 seconds left to give FSU an 18-16 lead. With 15 seconds from the NU 43, Frazier hit TE Trumane Bell on the second try for a 29 gain and called time out as one second remained. Bennett set up for a 45-yarder as officials cleared the field of those who thought the game was over, but his kick was wide left. Nebraska totaled 183 yards rushing to FSU's 47, outyarded the Seminoles, 389-333, and held the nation's No. 1 offense to just one conversion on 12 third down attempts. Frazier was Nebraska's MVP as he matched Ward, yard for yard, with 283 total-offense yards.

Federal Express
Orange Bowl
Nebraska 24
Miami 17

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1995--It was a night when Nebraska just wouldn't give up. Even in Miami's back yard, where the Hurricanes had won 62 of their last 63 games and had not lost there at night since 1985, The 12-0 Huskers, ranked No. 1 by both polls, defeated the 10-1 Miami Hurricanes, ranked third in both polls, in the FedEx Orange Bowl in Miami, 24-17, in a spectacular come-from-behind victory. It was the second year that NU would have a shot at the national championship in the Orange Bowl, missing out in the 1994 Bowl to Florida State, 18-16, on a last-second missed field goal. This season, Nebraska boasted the No. 1 rushing offense in the nation, but faced a Warren Sapp-led Miami defense which ranked first in pass efficiency defense (81.3), total defense (220.9 ypg) and scoring defense (10.8 ppg) and seventh in rushing defense (96.8 ypg). Nebraska's defense was its best on paper since 1984, ranking in the top 10 in every defensive category, including second in scoring defense at 12.1 ppg.

Tommie Frazier, who had not played for the Huskers since the Sept. 24 Pacific game, got the starting nod from Coach Osborne, after grading better in Nebraska's full scrimmage in Miami on Dec. 24. But Osborne promised that Brook Berringer, who led Nebraska to a perfect 12-0 season, by starting seven of the last eight games, would also play.

Nebraska stalled on its first drive, while Miami moved the ball 31 yards, close enough for a Dane Prewitt 44-yard field goal. Frazier moved the Huskers to the Miami 41 on the second drive, but throwing under pressure, was intercepted by Carlos Jones at the 3-yard line. With three long passing plays by Miami QB Frank Costa, 17 to Jammi German, 43 to A.C. Tellison and a 35-yard scoring bomb to Trent Jones, Miami was on the board again. In just five plays and a PAT, Miami was up 10-0 with :04 remaining in the first quarter. Berringer's first drive to start the second quarter also stalled, but punter Darin Erstad put the Hurricanes back to their own 10-yard line with a 54-yard punt. Two penalties stalled Miami, then with 7:54 remaining in the first half, Berringer put Nebraska on the board with a five-play, 40-yard drive culminating with a 19-yard TD strike to Mark Gilman. Neither team was able to score again on two possessions each and Miami went in the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Coach Osborne told his troops at halftime that if they kept their cool, they would wear down Miami and get it done in the fourth quarter. He also said they may have to weather some big plays by Miami and that needless penalties could decide the game, and that's exactly what happened. Just 1:41 and five plays after intermission, Costa completed a 44-yard pass to Jonathan Harris, who wound his way through the Husker secondary to the end zone. Prewitt's PAT gave Miami its second 10-point lead and momentum. NU's first drive, under Berringer's hand, was three and out, but much as they had all season, the Husker defense took it upon themselves to change the tide. After Costa threw an incomplete pass, Miami was tagged for an illegal block and a personal foul which set the Hurricanes back to their own 4-yard line. As Costa dropped back on second and 10 from the 4-yard line, he was thrown for a safety by Husker senior outside linebacker Dwayne Harris. Although Berringer's next drive from the NU 25 stalled, Erstad again pinned Miami inside its own 10-yard line with a 46-yard punt. Costa was able to bring the Hurricanes up to the Nebraska 46-yard line, but that was to be the last time they crossed midfield. In Miami's first drive of the fourth quarter, Prewitt was about to punt from the UM 43, but the ball was snapped over his head and after an illegal kick, Nebraska took over first and goal at the 4-yard line. Nebraska attempted to score quickly, but with no one open in the end zone, Berringer tried to throw the ball away, but it was intercepted by Earl Little. It was a big break for Miami, but the Husker defense would not let the momentum change. In fact, Miami went three and out on its last four drives and had just four positive yardage plays. Costa and company had minus 43 yards rushing and minus 35 yards overall in the final period as Harris had two sacks and Terry Connealy one. Meanwhile, Nebraska's infamous offensive line lived up to its billing and documented the fact that they were the stronger line in the fourth quarter.

Nebraska took the ball with 12:07 remaining in the game and Coach Osborne sent Frazier, who had not taken a snap since the first quarter, back into the game equipped with fresh legs. Although NU went three and out, Erstad pinned Miami on its own 4-yard line, and NU got the ball back with 8:11 remaining at the Miami 40. Lawrence Phillips busted through for 25 yards, the longest rush against Miami's defense all season. On the next play, fullback Cory Schlesinger busted up the right side on a trap play for a 15-yard score. Frazier then connected a bullet pass to tight end Eric Alford for the two-point conversion and to tie the score at 17-all. The successful two-point play took place in the same end zone at the Orange Bowl and nearly the same spot on the field as the failed two-point conversion of 1984, which allowed Miami a 31-30 win and the national championship. Miami's next drive saw fullback James Stewart go to the left for one yard, NU cornerback Barron Miles broke up a pass, then Costa overthrew Taj Johnson on a long bomb before Prewitt's punt was downed on Nebraska's own 42-yard line. The clock read 6:28 as Frazier orchestrated Nebraska's second score in the fourth. Phillips lost one yard on the first play, then Frazier completed a 7-yard pass to split end Reggie Baul. On third and four at the NU 48, Frazier showed why he's tabbed as one of the best option quarterbacks in the nation and his scramble for 25 yards to the Miami 27 for a first down may have been the deciding factor in earning his second MVP award. Phillips gained seven, and Frazier six more as the Nebraska rushing game pounded out 13 more of its 83 fourth-quarter rushing yards. Then on first and 10 at the 14, Frazier again handed it to Schlesinger who burst through the Miami defenders on another trap play for the game-winning 14-yard TD. Senior place-kicker Tom Sieler added the extra point for the 24-17 margin. Miami had one last chance at its own 18 with 2:46 remaining, but after a 5-yard pass to Marcus Wimberley, Costa was sacked twice, by Connealy and Harris, then intercepted on fourth down by senior rover Kareem Moss. Frazier kneeled out the remaining minute and the Huskers earned their first national championship under Tom Osborne and the school's third overall. Telling numbers in the game included 11 penalties for 92 yards lost by Miami, compared to Nebraska's 3-20. Nebraska outrushed Miami 199-29 and outyarded UM 305-277. Phillips' 96 yards, to lead all rushers, was the third-best total against Miami on the season, while NU's 199 as a team was second only to Arizona State's 208. Meanwhile, Miami became the 11th victim in the 1994 season to fail to score against the Huskers in the fourth quarter. Although Penn State would also remain undefeated (12-0), beating Oregon 38-20 in the Rose Bowl the next day, Nebraska was the No. 1 team in both polls by a wide margin (51.5-10.5 first-place votes in AP, 54-8 in CNN/USA Today/Coaches Poll). NU's team motto for the 1994 season could now be put to bed, "Unfinished Business," was Finished.

Defensive Tackle Terry Connealy sacked Miami's Frank Costa to put an end to Hurricane hopes of a comeback on their last drive.

Husker's 26-Year Bowl String is Nation's Longest

When Alabama did not receive a bowl bid at the end of the 1984 season, Nebraska took over the record for the longest current string of consecutive bowl appearances from the Crimson Tide. Alabama had appeared in 25-straight bowl games dating back to the inaugural Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia in 1959, but the Tide slipped in 1984 and did not receive a bowl bid. The Huskers, first under Bob Devaney, then Tom Osborne, have appeared in a bowl game in 26 consecutive seasons, starting with a 45-6 win over Georgia in 1969 Sun Bowl. The 26 consecutive bowls is an NCAA record.

Wiegert Captures Outland Trophy

NEW YORK (AP) — Nebraska senior offensive tackle Zach Wiegert and defensive end Ed Stewart were chosen to the first team of The Associated Press All-America college football list, which was announced Wednesday.

Other Husker players named to the first team were Phillips and Brenden Stai — were named to the second team, and Miles was a third-teamer.

Wiegert and Stewart joined the first team on the first team of the Colorado running back, who led the nation with 1,065 yards and 9 touchdowns; Penn State's Collins, who led the nation in passing efficiency (177.7) and history.

Cornhusker tackle earns Draddy Award as nation's top football scholar-athlete.

From Star staff and wire reports
NEW YORK — Nebraska offensive tackle Rob Zatechka got more than he bargained for Tuesday night at the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame banquet.

The graduate student from Lincoln, who is in his final year of football eligibility, was in New York to be honored by the Foundation along with 14 other scholar-athletes as recipients of $18,000 postgraduate scholarships.

But to Zatechka's surprise, he also was named winner of the Vincent DePaul Draddy Award as this year's top football scholar-athlete. The award, named for the late board chairman of the National Football Foundation, includes a $25,000 postgraduate scholarship.
Zatechka is the first Cornhusker player to win the Draddy Award. The 6-foot-5, 310-pound graduate student and co-captain for the top-ranked Cornhuskers compiled a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in biological sciences as an undergraduate.
Husker players have been named Foundation Draddy Award winners including Trev Alberts last year. Nebraska has won the award for the last seven years.

Seven Huskers named first-team All-Big Eight

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Nebraska, which will take its No. 1 ranking and undefeated record to Norman, Okla., Friday to face the Oklahoma Sooners, placed seven players — three on offense and four on defense — on the first team of the 1994 Associated Press All-Big Eight team.

Sixth-ranked Colorado, which beat every team on its schedule except Nebraska, had six offensive and three defensive first-teamers.

Kordell Stewart of Colorado and Chad May of Kansas State shared first-team quarterback honors. It is the first deadlock on any position since the 16-member panel of sports writers and broadcasters covering Big Eight football began voting first and second teams in 1977.

Nebraska quarterback Brook Berringer, who stepped in for the injured Tommie Frazier, named to the second team.

Stewart, the first man in Big Eight history with 1,000 career yards passing and 1,000 rushing yards, was the central figure in Kansas State's nation in total defense, passing defense and scoring defense.

Colorado safety Chris Hudson joins Richardson, Florida State's Clifton Abraham and Auburn's Brian Robinson in the secondary.

Nebraska's Phillips, a 6-0, 200-pound defensive back from West Covina, Calif., was the nation's third-leading rusher this season (1,720) and the only sophomore named to the second-team offense.

Stai, a 6-5, 300-pound guard from Santa Linda, Calif., played next to Phillips on the offensive line. The 6-5, 300-pound guard from Roseville, N.J., led the nation with four interceptions. The All-America team will be featured in the 1994 Football Yearbook.

Husker Football History

Over a Century of Winning Tradition

By Mike Babcock, Lincoln Journal-Star Columnist

Fans celebrated by waving banners of old gold. "The score stood 10 to nothing in the state university's favor and great and loud were the yells that filled the atmosphere," a newspaper account said.

The date was Nov. 27, 1890. The state university was Nebraska, which had just defeated a team representing the Omaha YMCA. The game, composed of a 35-minute first half and a 43-minute second half, was played in Omaha. So began Nebraska's rich football tradition.

It was an abbreviated opening "season." Nebraska's first football team played only one other game, and it was in February of 1891, an 18-0 victory against Doane College in Crete. Whether or not Dr. Langdon Frothingham, the team's acknowledged "coach," was still at Nebraska when the team traveled to Crete is unclear. Frothingham, a new faculty member from Harvard, was made the coach primarily because he had brought a football with him. He returned to Boston in 1891, perhaps before that second game.

Nebraska didn't actually have a football coach until 1893, when Frank Crawford was hired for an amount reported to have been between $300 and $500. His salary might have been in part, or all, in the form of room and board.

Nebraska's first game against an opponent from outside the state was in 1891, when Iowa won 22-0 in Omaha. The first victory against an out-of-state opponent came in 1892, when George Flippin led Nebraska to a 6-0 victory against Illinois in Lincoln.

Flippin was the first black athlete at Nebraska and only the fifth black athlete at a white university in the nation. Because of his presence on the roster, Missouri refused to play a scheduled game with Nebraska in Omaha in 1892. The result was a 1-0 forfeit.

In the early years, Nebraska's football team had several nicknames, including Black Knights (probably the most common), Rattlesnake Boys, Antelopes, Old Gold and Bugeaters. The team was first called Cornhuskers in 1900. Cy Sherman, a sportswriter for the Lincoln Daily Star newspaper, assigned the nickname.

Nebraska was an independent power in the Midwest by then, under the direction of Coach W.C. "Bummy" Booth. "Nebraska occupies a unique position in western football," a newspaper account in 1903 said. "Too strong to find fearful competitors, the Cornhuskers can almost weep with Alexander the Great because they have no more teams to conquer."

Booth coached Nebraska from 1900 to 1905, with his teams compiling a 46-8-1 record. In 1902, a team featuring Johnny Bender and Charles Borg went undefeated, untied and unscored upon. Booth's teams produced a 24-game winning streak—27 counting exhibition victories against Lincoln High School.

Booth's coaching success was soon overshadowed, however, when Edwald O. "Jumbo" Stiehm was hired as coach in 1911. Stiehm's teams, referred to as the "Stiehm Rollers," were a combined 35-2-3. He remains the winningest football coach in school history by percentage (.913).

The "Stiehm Rollers" won five Missouri Valley Conference championships and had a school-record 34-game unbeaten streak. In 1914, they were 7-0-1 and argued they were deserving of a mythical national title. In 1915, they were even better, going 8-0 and again claiming the right to be called national champions. The Cornhuskers were considered to play in the Rose Bowl game after the 1915 season, but the university's athletic board voted to turn down any such invitation.

During Stiehm's tenure as coach, Nebraska produced its first official All-America players—Vic Halligan and Guy Chamberlin.

Stiehm left Nebraska after the 1915 season because the university turned down his demand that he be paid an annual salary of $4,250 to serve as football coach and athletic director. The Cornhuskers quickly overcame his departure and continued to enjoy national respect.

After Coach Fred Dawson's first team defeated Pittsburgh (coached by Pop Warner) 10-0, an Eastern newspaper called the Cornhuskers "Mankilling Mastodons."

Like everything else in this country, Cornhusker football felt the profound effects of World War I. But the end of the war ushered in the Roaring 20s, a time not only of prohibition, flappers and Model T Fords but one in which Nebraska and Notre Dame regularly played football against each other. An 11-game series involving the schools began with a 20-19 Cornhusker victory in Lincoln in 1915 and ended with Nebraska's 17-0 victory in 1925 at Memorial Stadium.

The Cornhuskers' only loss in 1921 was against the Fighting Irish, 7-0 at Lincoln. Nebraska handed Notre Dame its only defeat in 1922, winning in South Bend, 14-6, and setting the stage for what has become the greatest drama of Cornhusker football during the Roaring 20s. On Nov. 10, 1923, before what one newspaper called "the greatest crowd ever assembled in the Missouri Valley to witness a football game" at Memorial Stadium, Nebraska defeated Knute Rockne's "wonder team." The score was 14-7, and the Cornhusker star was Ed Weir, a sophomore who would earn All-America recognition in 1924 and 1925. Weir led the way to a similarly impressive, 14-0 victory against Illinois and Red Grange in the 1925 season opener at Champaign, Ill.

On Oct. 13, 1923, Nebraska played its first game in Memorial Stadium, which replaced a field that ran east and west just to the south of what is now the South Stadium offices. The Nebraska Athletic Field could accommodate approximately 10,000 fans.

The Cornhuskers, who wore blue for the only time in school history that day in 1923, defeated Oklahoma 24-0. It would have been an appropriate way to dedicate the stadium. The problem was, the Cornhuskers' new home wasn't officially dedicated until a week later, a scoreless tie against Kansas. A newspaper account attributed the tie to a "stadium dedication jinx." A year earlier, Nebraska had spoiled the dedication of a new stadium at Kansas by defeating the Jayhawks 28-0.

Dawson, whose teams won three Missouri Valley Conference titles, was succeeded as coach by E.E. Bearg in 1925. Four years later, D.X. Bible arrived.

Bible, who came from Texas A&M, wasn't Nebraska's first choice to replace Bearg. Nebraska tried to lure Rockne from Notre Dame. He declined, however, and suggested the Cornhuskers approach Bible, who had turned A&M into a Southwest Conference powerhouse.

Bible coached the Cornhuskers from 1929 to 1936. His teams won six Big Six titles and featured a number of All-Americans, among them Ray Richards, Hugh Rhea, Lawrence Ely, George Sauer and Sam Francis.

Bible's best team probably was the one in 1933, the year Sauer earned All-America recognition. It finished 8-1, the only loss coming at Pittsburgh. After the 1936 season, in which Nebraska ranked No. 9 in the first Associated Press poll, Bible left in the same direction from which he had come, accepting a job at Texas.

Cornhusker football was important to the state in the late 1930s. With the Depression coming to an end, it gave Nebraskans something to take pride in.

Bowl games are taken for granted by Nebraska fans now. The Cornhuskers have made an NCAA-record 26 consecutive bowl trips and 31 in the last 33 seasons. But Nebraska had never been to a postseason bowl when Lawrence McCeney "Biff" Jones' fourth team accepted an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl, Jan. 1, 1941. Jones was Bible's successor.

George Flippin, 1891-94.

The celebration that followed the acceptance of the school's first bowl bid lasted 24 hours in Lincoln, according to newspaper reports. University classes were cancelled, and students stormed the capitol, demanding that the governor lead the singing of the school song, "There is no place like Nebraska."

The team featured All-Americans Warren Alford and Forrest Behm. Though it lost, 21-13, to a Stanford team which featured Frankie Albert and the innovative T-formation, it retains a special place in Cornhusker history.

Bob Devaney, Nebraska's Hall of Fame football coach and current athletics director emeritus, used to joke that he'd been in the state several years before he found out the Cornhuskers lost the 1941 Rose Bowl game.

Jones left after a 4-5 season in 1941, the first in a string of losing seasons which didn't end until 1950. After Jones' departure, Nebraska had six head coaches in the next eight years. One of the few bright spots, during an otherwise glum period, was Tom Novak, who earned All-America recognition as a senior on a 4-5 team in 1949. Novak's jersey number (60) was the first (of 10) to be retired by Nebraska.

The 1949 team was the first to be coached by Bill Glassford, who produced three winning seasons in his seven years. Glassford's best team was the one in 1950, which featured Bobby Reynolds, a sophomore who rushed for 1,342 yards and scored 157 points. The 1950 Cornhuskers were 6-2-1 and finished second in the Big Seven.

Glassford's 1954 team also finished second in the conference and earned a trip to the Orange Bowl because Big Seven champion Oklahoma wasn't allowed to make a return trip to the bowl under a "no-repeat" rule. Nebraska, which had lost to the Sooners 55-7, didn't fare much better in Miami, losing to Duke 34-7.

Glassford resigned, after considerable controversy and a player revolt, following the 1955 season. Six losing seasons, the last five under Coach Bill Jennings, followed. Jennings' teams had a knack for dramatic upsets, however, the most notable being a 25-21 Homecoming victory against Oklahoma in 1959. The victory ended the Sooners' record of 74 consecutive conference games without defeat.

Jennings' Cornhuskers opened the 1960 season by defeating fourth-ranked Texas in Austin, 14-13. But such upsets couldn't salvage his job, and he resigned after a 3-6-1 record in 1961.

Devaney was hired by Athletic Director William H. "Tippy" Dye after a search based on Dye's stated goals of Nebraska's being No. 1 in the nation in football and getting the best football coach in the country, regardless of who he was or where he was. Both goals were achieved.

Jennings was an excellent recruiter and Devaney inherited talented players when he arrived from Wyoming in 1962. That was apparent from the beginning as Devaney turned the program around immediately.

Despite a 47-8-0 record and five bowl appearances in his first five seasons at Nebraska, however, Devaney had detractors following 6-4 records in 1967 and 1968. The Cornhuskers' recruiting efforts fell off, and some boosters wanted Devaney and his staff fired.

In 1969, the offense was redesigned. The Cornhuskers went to an I-formation with an unbalanced line, at the suggestion of then-assistant coach Tom Osborne, and recruiting picked up because of his change in philosophy. Nebraska began an NCAA-record string of nine-win seasons in 1969 (which now stands at 26) and set the stage for back-to-back national championships in 1970 and 1971.

The Cornhuskers won their final seven games in 1969, including a victory against Georgia in the Sun Bowl, to initiate a 32-game unbeaten string that didn't end until the first game of the 1972 season. Devaney's last as head coach. He had planned to retire as coach after the 1971 season but was convinced to stay one more year to try to win a third consecutive national title.

The first championship season, in 1970, came on the heels of a 17-12 victory against Louisiana State in the Orange Bowl game. Nebraska went into the game ranked No. 5 in the Associated Press poll. The teams ahead of the Cornhuskers, including third-ranked LSU, all lost that day. There was no such suspense in 1971. Nebraska began the season ranked No. 2 by the Associated Press and moved up to No. 1 after a 34-7 victory in its opener against Oregon. The Cornhuskers remained atop the AP poll all season, as they defeated second-ranked Oklahoma in what was, and still is, called the "Game of the Century" on Thanksgiving Day in Norman, Okla., and wrapped up the title by defeating second-ranked Alabama 38-6 in the Orange Bowl game on New Year's night.

Big Eight Conference teams finished an unprecedented first (Nebraska), second (Oklahoma) and third (Colorado) in the final AP poll for the 1971 season. The Cornhuskers' Larry Jacobson was voted the Outland Trophy winner. The 1971 Nebraska team is widely regarded as the best in college football history.

Cornhusker All-Americans became commonplace during Devaney's tenure as coach. Among the 18 who received such recognition were Johnny Rodgers, who won the Heisman Trophy in 1972, and Rich Glover, who won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award that same season.

Devaney, who succeeded Dye as athletic director, picked his own successor as coach—Osborne. And the success continued, uninterrupted. Since Osborne became head coach in 1973, the Cornhuskers have won or shared 11 Big Eight championships and in 1994 won the school's third national championship.

The 1994 season began in late August at the Kickoff Classic and concluded with a heart-stopping, 24-17 victory over Miami in the Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney.

Orange Bowl to clinch the national championship. The season was full of memorable moments, including a much-publicized quarterback situation, with three different quarterbacks starting games during the season. At the start of the year, Tommie Frazier led the Huskers, but was sidelined in mid-season with blood clots in his leg, which pushed Brook Berringer into the starting role. Berringer had injury problems of his own, suffering a collapsed lung, leading to walk-on Matt Turman taking his turn at the reins of the Husker machine. Through it all a dominating offensive line, led by Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert, and a punishing defense carried the Huskers and allowed them to claim the school's first national crown in 23 seasons.

Previously, the closest an Osborne team had come was in 1983, when the Cornhuskers began the season in the first Kickoff Classic ranked No. 1. After 12 consecutive victories, a missed two-point conversion at the end of the Orange Bowl game against Miami cost Nebraska the national title, 31-30. But Osborne's decision to go for two, instead of settling for a tie, earned him national respect. The 1983 team, nicknamed "The Scoring Explosion," featured a backfield which included Turner Gill, Mike Rozier and Irving Fryar. Rozier set the school record for rushing yards in a season, gaining 2,148 to lead the nation, and was awarded the second Heisman Trophy in Cornhusker history. Offensive guard Dean Steinkuhler became Nebraska's third winner of both the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award in 1983. Dave Rimington won both awards (the Outland was his second) in 1982, playing for a team that probably was more balanced, overall, than the 1983 team.

The 1982 Cornhuskers also finished with a 12-1 record, but their loss came early, by 27-24, to Penn State in the third game of the season at University Park, Pa. That Nebraska team ranked No. 3 in the final national polls of both major wire services.

Nebraska won three consecutive Big Eight championships from 1981 to 1983, shared the title with Oklahoma in 1984 and will go for a fifth consecutive title in 1995, after just missing on a national title in 1993. The Huskers went unscathed through the regular season, but lost a heartbreaker, 18-16, to top-ranked Florida State in the Orange Bowl. Nebraska finished No. 3 in both of the final major polls.

Osborne has been Nebraska's head coach for 22 years, the longest tenure in school history. He's the Cornhuskers' 25th coach, not counting Frothingham, who was probably the "coach" of the 1890 team in name only. In this, Osborne's 23rd year on the job, NU carries with it several reminders of its longstanding success—NCAA-record strings of 201 consecutive home sellouts, 26 consecutive nine-win seasons, 33 consecutive winning seasons and 26 straight bowl appearances.

Husker Heisman Winners

Heisman Trophy

Rodgers, Rozier NU Heisman Winners

Nebraska two-time All-America running back Mike Rozier outdistanced BYU quarterback Steve Young in the 1983 Heisman Trophy race, becoming the second Cornhusker to win the award.

All-America wingback Johnny Rodgers won the 38th annual Heisman award in 1972, defeating Oklahoma's Greg Pruitt and teammate Rich Glover.

The Heisman Trophy has been presented by the New York Downtown Athletic Club each year since 1935 when Jay Berwanger of the University of Chicago won the inaugural award given to the outstanding college football player in the United States as selected by over 1,000 sportswriters and sportscasters across the nation.

With Rozier winning the Heisman and Dean Steinkuhler sweeping the Lombardi and Outland lineman awards in 1983, Nebraska is the only school to ever sweep all three major honors, and the Cornhuskers have done it twice—1972 with Rodgers and Rich Glover and in 1983 with Rozier and Steinkuhler. Quarterback Turner Gill finished fourth in the Heisman balloting in 1983, while Glover finished third in 1972.

The 1-3 finish of Rodgers and Glover in the 1972 Heisman voting was the best teammate finish since Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard of Army went 2-3 in 1944, then 1-2 in 1945 and 1-4 in 1946.

Johnny Rodgers

Best known for his electrifying punt returns, Johnny Rodgers captured the Heisman Trophy in 1972. Rodgers is Nebraska's all-time leading pass receiver with 143 catches for 2,479 yards in his career. Rodgers is also Nebraska's second-leading career scorer with 270 points on 45 touchdowns. Rodgers capped his senior season with an unbelievable Orange Bowl performance against Notre Dame. In the 40-6 NU victory, Rodgers scored four touchdowns and passed for a fifth.

Mike Rozier

Mike Rozier became Nebraska's second Heisman winner in 1983, when he rushed for a school-record 2,148 yards and 29 touchdowns. Rozier's 4,780 rushing yards are tops on Nebraska and Big Eight Conference career charts and his 312 points and 51 touchdowns are NU records. Rozier still holds 28 individual game, season and career records for the Huskers and posted seven 200-plus rushing games in his career and 26 games topping the century mark.

Did You Know?

Twelve Heisman Trophy winners have played in Memorial Stadium during their collegiate careers, including seven in the year in which they won the trophy. Included in the list is Nebraska's two Heisman Trophy winners--Johnny Rodgers (1972) and Mike Rozier (1983)--and the first Heisman winner, Chicago's Jay Berwanger in 1935. Other Heisman winners to play in Memorial Stadium include: Nile Kinnick, Iowa (1939); Bruce Smith, Minnesota (1941); Leon Hart, Notre Dame (1948); Billy Vessels, Oklahoma (1952); John David Crow, Texas A&M (1957); Ernie Davis, Syracuse (1961); Steve Owens, Oklahoma (1969); Billy Sims, Oklahoma (1978); Barry Sanders, Oklahoma State (1988) and Rashaan Salaam, Colorado (1994).

Husker Outland, Lombardi Winners

Outland Trophy, Lombardi Award

NU Among Leaders In Both Awards

Nebraska has won more Outlands (seven) than any other school and is tied for second in the nation in Lombardi's (three). The Huskers' closest competition comes from Oklahoma, with four Outland and two Lombardi winners; Notre Dame has four Lombardi winners; Ohio State three and Texas two.

In 1994, consensus All-America right tackle Zach Wiegert helped lead the way as Nebraska won its 11th NCAA rushing title. He became the sixth Husker to win the Outland Trophy, presented annually by the Football Writers Association of America, giving NU its seventh Outland overall.

Zach Wiegert

When he won the Outland in 1983, Dean Steinkuhler brought Nebraska the distinction of being the only school ever to win the prestigious award in three consecutive years. And in winning the Lombardi he assured Nebraska the honor of being the first school ever to win back-to-back Lombardi Awards, presented annually by the Rotary Club of Houston.

Larry Jacobson was Nebraska's first Outland winner, gaining the honor with the 1971 national championship team. Rich Glover won it in 1972, and also won the Lombardi that year, giving Nebraska the first back-to-back Outland sweep, a feat that would be accomplished again a decade later by Rimington, then Rimington and Steinkuhler.

Two-time All-American Dave Rimington won the Outland in 1981 and 1982 and the Lombardi in 1982. Steinkuhler, an All-America offensive guard, was the second consecutive Husker to sweep national honors, winning both the Outland and Lombardi in 1983. Consensus All-America guard Will Shields was the fifth Husker to win the Outland as he was honored in 1992.

Since 1970, the Outland and Lombardi have been swept eight times, three by the Huskers. No other team can claim that honor or the consecutive sweep of 1982-83.

Husker Butkus Winner, Retired Jerseys

Alberts Sacks NU's First Butkus

In 1993, Nebraska outside linebacker Trev Alberts became the first Husker to be awarded the Butkus Award, given annually to the nation's top linebacker.

Alberts (100 points) outdistanced finalists Derrick Brooks of Florida State (72) and UCLA's Jamir Miller (44) in a poll of a nationwide panel of sportswriters and sportscasters.

Alberts was a one-man wrecking crew in his senior season, collecting an NU season-record 15 quarterback sacks, along with 21 tackles for loss and a team-leading 96 over-all stops. Alberts, who also holds the NU career sack record with 29.5, capped his career with an outstanding Orange Bowl performance, as he sacked Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward three times.

Two other Huskers have been finalists for the Butkus Award. In 1988, outside linebacker Broderick Thomas finished second in the voting, just behind Alabama's Derrick Thomas. Last season, Will linebacker Ed Stewart finished third in the voting behind Butkus winner Dana Howard of Illinois and Colorado's Ted Johnson.

Ten Husker Jerseys Retired

Following the 1949 season, the N Club voted to retire jersey No. 60 in honor of Tom "Train Wreck" Novak's stellar career with the Cornhuskers. Novak, the first Nebraska player to earn this honor, had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice and a 1949 All-American.

At the 1995 Red-White Spring Game, Outland winner Zach Wiegert's No. 72 jersey was added to the nine previous retired jerseys.

The Nebraska trophy case has thus added No. 72 to the No. 60 worn by Novak, the No. 20 worn by Johnny Rodgers, the No. 79 worn by Rich Glover, the No. 50 worn by Dave Rimington, the No. 30 worn by Mike Rozier, the No. 71 worn by Dean Steinkuhler, the No. 75 worn by Larry Jacobson and Will Shields and the No. 34 worn by Trev Alberts.

Rodgers' and Glover's jerseys were retired following the 1972 season after Rodgers had won the Heisman and Glover had become the first of three Huskers to win both the Outland and Lombardi. Rimington's jersey was retired after the All-America center had won two Outland Trophies and the Lombardi Award, while Rozier's number was retired following his 1983 Heisman Trophy season, the same year Steinkuhler collected the Outland and Lombardi Trophies. Three Huskers--1971 Outland winner Jacobson, 1992 Outland winner Shields and 1993 Butkus winner Alberts--had their respective jerseys retired at the 1994 spring game.

All major national award winners will have their jerseys retired, however, the number will still be available to active Huskers. Novak's No. 60, however, will remain retired as voted by the N Club.

Top Eight Award - Postgraduate Scholars

Nebraska Leads the Nation With 11 Honorees

The highest honor the National Collegiate Athletic Association can bestow on a student-athlete is to honor the student-athlete with The Top Eight Award. The award is based not only on outstanding athletic accomplishments, but on excellent academic records and leadership ability in community and campus activities.

In 1994, for the sixth-straight year, the University of Nebraska had one of its student-athletes earn the Top Six/Eight Award, as Rob Zatechka was honored at the NCAA honors dinner.

Zatechka's selection gave the Huskers eight Top Eight honorees in the last seven years, as two Cornhusker student-athletes received the award in both 1990 and 1991. Nebraska is the only school to twice have two selections in a single year.

Zatechka was Nebraska's 11th selection overall, giving NU four more than any other school (Southern California had its seventh Top Six winner in 1992). Seven of Nebraska's Top Eight picks were football players, making the Husker grid program the most honored in the country.

One of the most decorated scholar-athletes in NCAA history, Zatechka finished his undergraduate studies with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in biological sciences, was a two-time GTE Academic All-American, the 1994 GTE Academic All-American-of-the-Year for football and Nebraska's second four-time Academic All-Big Eight selection. In addition to the Top Eight Award, Zatechka earned the Walter Byers NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, the Vincent DePaul Draddy Award by the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame and was one of 10 NACDA/Disney Scholar Athletes. In all, Zatechka earned $50,000 in postgraduate scholarships.

Nebraska Lifter-of-the-Year

Mark Gilman
1995 Winner

Senior Mark Gilman was honored with Nebraska's Lifter-of-the-Year award given annually to the player who has shown the greatest dedication and improvement in the Huskers' strength and conditioning program.

Gilman is a 6-3, 240-pound senior tight end from Kalispell, Mont. Gilman is the second tight end to win the Lifter-of-the-Year Award, joining Mitch Krenk in 1982.

Gilman's time in the 10-yard dash improved from 1.74 to 1.70, his 40 time from 4.95 to 4.82, his agility run time from 4.32 to 4.06, while his vertical leap increased an inch to 32.5 inches. Gilman scored a total of 2,310 points in the performance index and 983 in the strength index, giving him a combined index total of 3,293.

Chamberlin Trophy

Terry Connealy
1994 Winner

Defensive tackle Terry Connealy was the recipient of the 28th annual Guy Chamberlin Trophy, at the annual spring game. The award, inaugurated in 1967 in memory of the former great Nebraska All-America football player who went to both the college and pro halls of fame, is presented to the senior player who has shown by the play and contributions to the betterment of the University of Nebraska football squad that he has the qualities and dedication of Guy Chamberlin to the great Cornhusker tradition.

Lincoln radio station KFOR donated the permanent trophy and each recipient receives a replica through funds contributed by the Chamberlin family and the Champ's many friends following his death in 1967. The Chamberlin Memorial Fund is administered by the University of Nebraska Foundation. Sportswriters and broadcasters who cover all Nebraska games vote on the award.

Nebraska Football Hall of Fame

Twelve New Members to be Enshrined

Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert and eight former Nebraska stars, plus three Nebraska State College greats, will be enshrined in the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame this fall.

The Nebraska Football Hall of Fame is sponsored by the Nebraska Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. (The new College Football Hall of Fame opens in South Bend, Ind. on August 25.)

New Nebraska Hall of Famers will be enshrined at a special reception on September 29 and will be introduced at the Washington State football game the next day. In addition to honoring former players, the Nebraska Chapter will present its Clarence Swanson Memorial Award to Milton Ebers of Fremont and its Lyell Bremser Special Merit Award to Al Papik. Ebers is a founder and longtime Board Member of the Touchdown Club of Nebraska, while Papik is the Husker athletic department's senior associate athletic director and longtime NCAA compliance coordinator.

Former Hastings College Coach Thurlo McCrady also will be inducted into the coaching section of the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame.

The 1995 Inductees

◆ Zach Wiegert--Earned All-Big Eight and All-America honors as an offensive tackle on the 1994 national championship team. Touted as one of the strongest and quickest linemen in the nation, Zach received the 1994 Outland Trophy, presented annually by the Football Writers of America to the top lineman in the country. Zach was a four-year letterman and was a 1994 co-captain.

◆ Ron Douglas--All-Big Six halfback on D.X. Bible's 1936 conference championship team which featured Nebraska Hall of Famers Charles Brock, Les McDonald, Fred Shirey, Lloyd Cardwell and Sam Francis.

◆ Richard (Dick) Hutton--A star halfback for Bernie Masterson in 1946 and 1947 and George (Potsy) Clark in 1948 before being cut down by cancer. Dick earned All-Big Six honors in 1946 and was also a conference sprint champion in track. He also holds two Husker records for pass receptions by a running back.

◆ Robert (Moon) Mullen--A four-year letterman (1948-51), "Moon" played both center and linebacker for the Huskers under "Potsy" Clark and Bill Glassford. He was co-captain for the 1950 and 1951 Husker squads. "Moon" is currently president of the Alumni "N" Club.

◆ Guy Ingles--Standout split end and punt returner for the Huskers in 1968-69-70. Guy "The Fly" was a key receiver on the 1970 national championship team and ranks No. 3 on the all-time chart with 74 catches for 1,157 yards, a 15.6 average and 11 TD's.

◆ Dick Davis--Lettered three years at fullback for Bob Devaney (1966-68) and earned All-Big Eight honors in 1967. He rushed for 1,477 yards and a 4.23 average during his career before becoming a community leader, educational leader and business executive in Omaha.

◆ LaVerne Allers--All-American and All-Big Eight offensive guard on Bob Devaney's 1966 league championship team. LaVerne lettered on three conference title teams (1964-66). During his career on the Husker line, Nebraska posted a 28-5 record and appeared in the Cotton, Orange and Sugar Bowls.

◆ Steve Damkroger--An All-Big Eight linebacker in 1982, Steve lettered four years (1979-82) for Tom Osborne's Huskers. He was a co-captain in 1982 with All-America center and Hall of Famer Dave Rimington. Steve is No. 4 on the Husker career tackle chart.

◆ I.M. Hipp--Great sophomore season brought All-Big Eight honors in 1977. He ranks No. 4 on the career rushing chart with 2,814 yards, a 5.68 average and 21 touchdowns. He rushed for 100-plus yards in 10 games and gained 254 yards on 28 attempts against Indiana in 1977.

New Hall of Famers from the State College ranks include:

◆ Robert Hauver, Kearney State College--A four-year letterman, Bob earned All-Nebraska College conference honors in his junior and senior years. The standout running back captained the 1948 Antelope team. He also starred in basketball and track before launching a 40-year coaching career, including four years at Midland before a 30-year career at his alma mater, now the University of Nebraska at Kearney.

◆ ReVoe Hill, Midland Lutheran College--An All-American in 1941, ReVoe was all-conference in 1938, 1940, 1941 and 1946. A great running back, he captained the 1941 "Little Giants" team that went 9-0. He also captained the 1946 team. He was also an outstanding punter and a standout defensive player.

◆ Erick von Fange, Concordia College--A pre-World War II star for the Bulldogs, Erick was known as the hardest hitting fullback and linebacker in the conference. He was a 200-pounder with blazing speed which enabled him to become a great open field runner. Concordia Coach Dr. Herb Meyer once recalled that in Erick's last year "an opponent tried to tackle him in the open field when Erick was at top speed. We thought for a while the tackler had been killed. He was revived, but the game was called off at that point."

Nebraska In The 1995 NFL Draft

1995 NFL Draft

Seven Huskers Chosen in '95 Draft

Seven members of the 1994 National Champion Nebraska football team were selected in the seven-round 1995 NFL Draft, led by Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert.

Wiegert, the first Husker chosen, was selected in the second round by the St. Louis Rams and was the 38th overall pick in the draft. Another member of Nebraska's dominating offensive line was the next Husker chosen as the Pittsburgh Steelers tabbed offensive guard Brenden Stai in the third round with the 91st pick. Six picks later in the third round, the Kansas City Chiefs chose Husker linebacker Troy Dumas.

Four Huskers were selected on the second day of the draft. Outside linebacker Donta Jones was a fourth-round pick (125) of the Pittsburgh Steelers and was followed three picks later by offensive tackle Rob Zatechka (128) who was selected by the New York Giants. Two Huskers were chosen in the sixth round as fullback Cory Schlesinger was selected by the Detroit Lions with the 192nd pick and cornerback Barron Miles was the 199th pick of the draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The Steelers selection of three Huskers was the first time one team has selected three Nebraska players since the Redskins in 1975.

In addition, six Huskers signed free agent contracts including Ed Stewart (Panthers), Terry Connealy (Jets), Eric Alford (Patriots), Kareem Moss (Chiefs), Dwayne Harris (Bucaneers), Tom Sieler (49ers).

Cory Schlesinger, who scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns in the Orange Bowl, was one of seven Huskers selected in the 1995 NFL draft. Schlesinger was a sixth-round selection of the Detroit Lions.

Nebraska Letterman List

1892-1994

NOTE: The following list is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Corrections and additions will be made if documentation is provided. In each entry, the year is listed for each letter won. For example in the listing for Willard Burnham, the years are 1924-26, meaning Burnham lettered in 1924 and 1926 but not in 1925. Lettermen lists are not available for the 1890, 1891 and 1895 seasons.

Elmer Dohrmann Top NU Letterman

Elmer Dohrmann, named to Sports Illustrated's 1962 Silver All-America team, is Nebraska's all-time letter champion. Dohrmann won 11 letters from 1936 to 1939. He won monograms in football, basketball, track, and baseball in his sophomore and junior years and added football, baseball, and basketball letters his senior year before passing up track.

Multiple letter leaders

Elmer Dohrmann (1936-39) 11 letters
 Bob Russell (1919-23) 9 letters
 John Rhodes (1923-25) 9 letters
 Steve Hokuif (1929-33) 9 letters
 Paul Amen (1935-38) 9 letters
 Willard Witte (1927-30) 8 letters
 Bob Cerv (1946-50) 8 letters
 Tom Novak (1946-50) 7 letters
 Mike DiBiase (1946-50) 7 letters
 Chuck Malito (1972-76) 7 letters
 Lee Kunz (1975-80) 7 letters
 Steve Elliott (1978-82) 7 letters

Huskers who have won six letters during their careers since Dohrmann include: Lloyd Cardwell, Bob Mills, Ray Prochaska, Vic Schleich, Ken Hollins, Herb Reese, Bob Reynolds, Charles Bryant, Bill Hawkins and Adrian Fiala.

The top letterwinner at Nebraska since WWII is Cerv, who lettered four years in basketball and baseball. The last Husker to match Amen by lettering in three sports during a single year was Hollins. "Buzz" tripled in football, basketball, and track during the 1943-44 and 1944-45 campaigns. The latest addition is Steve Elliott, who earned four letters in gymnastics and three in diving.

Memorial Stadium

Nebraska's NCAA Sellout Record Continues to Grow

Nebraska's continuing NCAA record of consecutive home sellouts passed the 200-mark last season with six home sellouts. On Homecoming, Oct. 29, 1994, against the University of Colorado, Nebraska celebrated its 200th consecutive sellout. In 1988, Nebraska set a single-season home attendance record by averaging 76,342 fans for six home games, breaking the old record average of 76,341 set in 1974.

The string of consecutive sellouts started on Nov. 3, 1962, when 36,501 showed up for the Homecoming contest vs. Missouri. The last non-sellout in Memorial Stadium was Oct. 20, 1962, when the Huskers and Kansas State drew 30,701.

The Cornhuskers' Memorial Stadium has a seating capacity of 72,700 and attendance has averaged over 75,000 for the past 23 years. Nebraska has ranked in the top six nationally in attendance for many years.

In the fall of 1922, a drive for $430,000 in stadium construction funds was undertaken by faculty, students, alumni and friends of the University of Nebraska. The quota was over subscribed. The Stadium was named Memorial Stadium to honor all Nebraskans who served in the Civil and Spanish-American Wars, the 751 Nebraskans who died in World War I; the 3,839 in World War II; the 225 in Korea; and the 422 in Vietnam. Construction was completed in a few more than 90 working days and Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 20, 1923, at the Homecoming game in which Nebraska was held to a scoreless tie by Kansas. Inscribed on the four corners of Memorial Stadium is the following:

Southeast: "In Commendation of the men of Nebraska who served and fell in the Nations Wars."

Southwest: "Not the victory but the action; Not the goal but the game; In the deed the glory."

Northwest: "Courage; Generosity; Fairness; Honor; In these are the true awards of manly sport."

Northeast: "Their Lives they held their countrys trust; They kept its faith; They died its heroes."

As part of the continuing improvement of athletic facilities at the University of Nebraska, two major projects were completed in 1984 and 1985. A new artificial turf was installed in 1984 and the new million-dollar Hewit Center training table/study hall area was opened in March of 1985, underneath the West Stadium adjacent to the massive new strength complex. The weight room and the Hewit Center were expanded and remodeled in 1989. The artificial turf was replaced in 1984 and again in 1992.

Here is the chronological order of Memorial Stadium expansion and improvement from the original 31,000-seat structure built in 1923:

- 1946--Completion of Schulte Field House at north end of stadium (construction began in 1941, but was interrupted by World War II).
- 1964--South end zone section installed, making the stadium a horseshoe, raising capacity to the 48,000 mark.
- 1965--Center portion of north end zone section added, raising capacity to more than 53,000.
- 1966--Both wings of the north end zone added, raising capacity to more than 65,000 and making Memorial Stadium into a bowl.
- 1967--New press box, with guest section added, providing a beautiful and practical press facility.
- 1970--Installation of AstroTurf.
- 1972--South end zone extended, 9,400 seats added, raising capacity to 73,650.
- 1973--Athletic office building completed, housing, dressing and training facilities for varsity football.

1981--New west stadium weight room and new visitor's locker room in Schulte Field House.

1982--Expansion of Schulte Field House indoor practice area.

1984--New artificial All-Pro Turf playing surface installed.

1985--Completion of Hewit Center (dining area/study hall) in West Stadium.

1989--Expansion of strength complex and Hewit Center.

1992--New AstroTurf-8 artificial turf installed.

1994--Installation of Mitsubishi Instant Replay boards and remodeling of Section 14 to accomodate disabled, reduced seating to 72,700.

Huskers Boast Impressive Record In 72 Years at Memorial Stadium

Nebraska football teams for the past 72 years have been glad to call Memorial Stadium home. Evidence for this is a 286-98-13 (.737) record posted by the Huskers in their home since it was opened in 1923.

Under the Lights

Nebraska's first night football game was Nov. 30, 1951, at Miami's Orange Bowl when the Huskers lost to the Miami Hurricanes, 19-7. Ironically, Nebraska's first night football game at home was the 1986 opener against another team from the "Sunshine State," Florida State. Nebraska is 27-11-3 all time under the lights, including 5-1-0 at home.

Nebraska celebrated its 200th consecutive sellout in Memorial Stadium on Oct. 29, 1994, when the Huskers defeated the Colorado Buffaloes, 24-7. The sellout streak dates back 33 years to 1962, the same season Bob Devaney became the Husker head coach.

◆ The Huskers are currently riding a 23-game home winning streak, since a 36-21 loss to Washington in 1991. In that stretch, Nebraska has defeated six ranked teams and has outscored its 17 opponents by a cumulative score of 1,056 (45.9 per game) to 345 (15.0). Nebraska has scored 38 points or more in 19 of the 23 games in the current winning streak.

◆ Nebraska has a 44-2 record at Memorial Stadium in the past seven years and has a 31-2 mark in the 1990's. Nebraska's only losses in Lincoln since 1988 are a 27-12 loss to Colorado in 1990 and a 36-21 loss to Washington in 1991. Both of those teams went on to win a share of the national championship. In each of those two games Nebraska held a 12-point third-quarter lead, (12-0, CU) and (21-9, Washington).

◆ Since 1980, Nebraska has posted an 88-9 record at Memorial Stadium. Included in that stretch are three of the six longest home winning streaks in school history including the current 23-game streak, a 19-game streak from 1988 to 1990, and 21 straight from 1981 to 1984.

◆ Nebraska has posted 34 unbeaten and untied home seasons, including 1992, 1993 and 1994, seven since 1980 and 10 under Coach Tom Osborne. Nebraska is 126-16 at Memorial Stadium under Osborne and has not dropped more than two home games in one season during his tenure.

◆ Of Nebraska's nine home losses since 1980, eight have come against teams that finished the season ranked in the top six in the Associated Press Poll.

◆ Following is a list of Nebraska's home losses since 1980, with the opponent's ranking (Associated Press) at the time of the contest and at the end of the season indicated.

105 Years of Husker Football

Notes: On the Associated Press Poll: The rankings indicated in all instances below are those at the time of the game, with Nebraska's to the left of the slash and the opponent's to the right. If there is a slash alone, neither team was ranked at the time of the game. Early-season games from 1936-49 have no slash because the first polls in those seasons were not taken until after the season began. From 1936-60 and 1968-88, AP ranked the top 20 teams, from 1961-67 the top 10, and since 1989, the top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, is Football Rankings, College teams in the Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, compiled by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C.; McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

Coach Dr. Langdon Frothingham (Harvard)

Record: 2-0-0 (1.000), 1890

A faculty member, he helped the first squad become one of only two in the history of NU football to not allow a point to the opposing team, outscoring opponents, 28-0, in two games. Broke his leg while scrimmaging with the team in preparation for the Doane game and coached on the sideline with crutches.

Coach Fielding H. Yost (Lafayette '97)

Led the Huskers to an impressive 11-10 road victory over the Denver Athletic Club, a team described as "a gang of pros." He left NU to become head coach at Kansas the following season and later won a national championship as head football coach in 1901 at Michigan. He later became Michigan's athletic director in 1921 and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

Took over the reins after playing football under Yost at Michigan. Coached NU to an 85-0 win over Doane in the last game on the old field which preceded the Nebraska Athletic Field. His final season as coach marked NU's first unshared Missouri Valley Conference title. His last game as coach was a 119-0 win over Haskell, which still ranks as the most points a Cornhusker team has ever scored.

Coach Ewald O. "Jumbo" Stiehm (Wisconsin '09)

35-2-3 (.913), 1911-15

Under his direction, NU won or tied for the Missouri Valley Conference championship every season. His winning percentage of .913 ranks as the highest in school history. His teams recorded a 34-game unbeaten streak, the longest in school history. Also NU's basketball coach, he is the only coach in Big Eight history to win conference football and basketball titles in the same academic year. Was the first year-round coach in school history, but went to Indiana University after NU refused to increase his salary to $4,250.

Coach Bob Devaney (Alma '39)

Won back-to-back national titles in 1970 and 1971 and eight Big Eight crowns. He retired in 1973 with a career record of 136-30-7 (.806), which left him as the winningest active coach in the nation. In 1971, he was named coach-of-the-year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers of America, Football News and the Washington TD

Club. Was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1981 and into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1976. His 11-year stint as head football coach is the second longest in school history behind only Osborne. He was Nebraska's athletic director from 1967-92 and now serves as Athletic Director Emeritus.

Coach Tom Osborne (Hastings '59)

219-47-3 (.820), 1973-Present

Tom Osborne was hand-picked by Bob Devaney as his successor and served as Assistant Head Coach in 1972. He is credited as the offensive genius behind Devaney's national championship teams and served as a full-time assistant from 1967-72. He has won 11 Big Eight Championships and gone to 22 consecutive bowl games, including 14 consecutive on New Year's Day. His teams have won nine or more games every year and nine national rushing titles. His athletes have won five Outlands, two Lombardis, one Heisman and a Bukus Trophy. Was the fastest coach in college football history to win 200 games, doing it in only 21 seasons. He guided the Huskers to a 13-0 record and the school's third national championship in football during the 1994 season.

Final Rankings: 1st AP, 1st CNN/USA Today Coaches (post-bowl)

Husker Football From A to Z

A--Academics--Nebraska leads the nation in GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans with 48 first-team football honorees, 42 of those have come during Tom Osborne's 22 years as head coach. Last season, offensive tackle Rob Zatechka, tight end Matt Shaw and defensive tackle Terry Connealy were first-team selections.

B--Bugeaters--One of the nicknames for Nebraska's football team, prior to changing to Cornhuskers in 1900.

C--Conference titles--Nebraska has won or shared 40 conference titles, including 12 in the Missouri Valley, nine in the Big Six and 19 in the Big Eight. Nebraska has won four consecutive Big Eight titles, including the last three outright. The Huskers won the first Missouri Valley title in 1907, and look to close out the Big Eight in similar fashion in 1995.

D--Devaney, Bob--Nebraska's Hall-of-Fame Coach, who guided Nebraska to a 101-20-2 record and two national titles in 11 years as head coach (1962-72). Also served as Nebraska's athletic director for 26 years, before retiring in January of 1993.

E--Ebenezer and Elmer--Ebenezer E. Mockett was selected as the team captain for Nebraska's first football team in 1890. Elmer Dohrmann is the all-time leading letterwinner at Nebraska, earning 11 letters, including three each in football, basketball and baseball and two in track.

F--Frothingham, Dr. Langdon--First Nebraska coach, although unofficial, hired primarily because he had brought a football with him from Boston in 1890.

G--Gotham Bowl--The site of Nebraska's first-ever postseason bowl victory. The Huskers defeated Miami, Fla., 36-34, in the Dec. 15, 1962, game played at Yankee Stadium in New York City. Nebraska has appeared in bowl games in 31 of 33 seasons, including the Gotham Bowl appearance.

H--Heat--Over the years, Nebraska has played in a number of hot-weather games, but probably none hotter than the 1985 season opener against Florida State. While the official high temperature in Lincoln on Sept. 7 was 93 degrees, a thermometer on the Memorial Stadium turf read 133 degrees at game time.

I--Indoor practice facility--The Cook Pavilion was built in 1987, and allows Nebraska a full-size indoor practice field when the weather conditions do not allow the Huskers to practice outdoors.

J--January 1--Nebraska has played in New Year's Day or January 2 bowl games for the past 14 consecutive seasons, an NCAA record. Overall, Nebraska has played in 26 bowl games on January 1 or 2.

K--Kansas--Nebraska's oldest rival. The two teams have met 101 times, marking the third-longest series in the country. The series is continuous since 1906 (89 seasons) making it the second-longest continuous series in Division I-A. Nebraska holds a 76-21-3 record in the series and has won 26 straight games against Kansas.

L--Lombardi Award--Nebraska is tied for third in the nation with three Lombardi Award winners. Middle guard Rich Glover won the award in 1971, and center Dave Rimington and offensive guard Dean Steinkuhler won the trophy in back-to-back seasons in 1982 and 1983, respectively.

M--Memorial Stadium--Nebraska's home since its construction in 1923. The Huskers own an all-time record of 286-98-13 (.737) in Memorial Stadium and have won 23 straight home games, dating back to the 1991 season.

N--NFL--Nebraska had 17 players on NFL rosters during the 1994 season. The Huskers have had 26 players selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, including outside linebacker Trev Alberts, the fifth pick in the 1994 draft.

O--Orange Bowl--Nebraska has played in 15 Orange Bowls, including appearances in each of the last four seasons. The Huskers have claimed each of their three national championships by winning Orange Bowl games in Miami.

P--Polls--Nebraska has been ranked in 223 consecutive Associated Press polls, dating back to the 1981 season. Since 1969, the Huskers have been ranked in 397 of a possible 400 polls, missing one week in 1977 and two in 1981.

Q--Quarterbacks--Nebraska has had eight first-team All-Big Eight quarterbacks during Tom Osborne's 22 years as head coach. This year Nebraska returns two quarterbacks who have earned second-team All-Big Eight honors.

R--Rodgers and Rozier--Johnny Rodgers and Mike Rozier, Nebraska's two Heisman Trophy winners. Rodgers, a wingback, won the award in 1972, while Rozier, an All-America I-back, won the trophy in 1983.

S--Sellouts--Memorial Stadium has been sold out for 201 consecutive games, dating back to the Nov. 3, 1962, contest against Missouri.

T--Television appearances--Nebraska has averaged more than four television appearances per season since 1970, including seven in 1994. Since its first televised contest on Sept. 19, 1953, Nebraska has played 131 games on television.

U--Undefeated--Nebraska has posted nine undefeated seasons in school history and seven perfect unbeaten and untied seasons.

V--Victories--Nebraska has recorded 686 victories in 105 seasons of intercollegiate football. The Huskers rank fifth in Division I in victories.

W--Walk-ons--A vital part of Nebraska's football success has been the walk-on program. Several walk-ons have gone on to earn conference and national honors and three of Nebraska's projected starters this season came to NU as walk-ons.

X--Xenophon--The middle name of Dana X. Bible, Nebraska's head coach from 1929-36. Bible posted a 50-15-7 record and guided Nebraska to six conference championships.

Y--YMCA (Omaha)--Nebraska's first opponent. The Huskers defeated the Omaha YMCA, 10-0, on Nov. 27, 1890, in Omaha.

Z--Zero--The number of losing seasons Nebraska has had during the Devaney-Osborne coaching era. Nebraska is 320-67-5 in that stretch for an incredible .823 winning percentage with three national titles and 19 Big Eight crowns.

1994 A Season to Celebrate

The 1994 National Championship Huskers are honored by President Bill Clinton at a White House ceremony in March.

Nebraska's storybook season began with a pep rally attended by 35,000 fans the night before a 49-21 victory over UCLA in the Huskers' home opener.

Nebraska took a major step toward the national title with a dominating 24-7 win over national and Big Eight power Colorado in Memorial Stadium's 200th consecutive sellout.

After Nebraska's 24-17 win over Miami in the Orange Bowl, the Huskers were greeted by thousands of fans along Cornhusker Highway.

The Devaney Center arena was packed with 14,000 fans who waited for hours for the Huskers to return home from Miami.
