NEBRASKA 1966 FOOTBALL SEASON NETS 4th STRAIGHT BIG 8 TITLE

Nebraska's Cornhuskers—denied a second straight undefeated season by Oklahoma, 10-9, in the final game of the 1966 season—nevertheless sacked up their fourth straight Big 8 title and wound up another spectacular 9-1 season.

As a topper, the Huskers won a bid to the Sugar Bowl and will get another crack at the Alabama Crimson Tide.

Alabama, undefeated with a 10-0 record, smashed the Cornhuskers 39-28 in the most recent Orange Bowl game, a slam-bang affair that featured more fireworks than an Elks Club 4th of July picnic.

Nebraska will go against the Tide in the Sugar Bowl with a team that has not flashed as impressive offensive credentials as a year ago. But the Husker defense was much more stringent in 1966, allowing only 99.6 yards per game on the ground.

On the other hand, opponents passed for 1,284 yards and six TDs—and Alabama is a renowned aerial power, with Quarterback Kenny Stabler pin-pointing shots to the Husker Orange Bowl bugaboos Ray Perkins and Dennis Homan with regularity.

While Nebraska's offensive output wasn't as productive as 1965, the Scarlets still moved the ball with authority, both on the ground and via the air.

With Bob Churchich breaking all Husker passing records in 1966, Nebraska averaged 318.8 per game total offense, with about 200 yards per game coming on the ground.

Lighthorse Harry Wilson, Ben Gregory and Pete Tatman give the Huskers three powerful runners to balance Churchich's fine throwing to capable receivers like Dennis Morrison, Tom Penney, Dennis Richnafsky and Wilson.

Three Cornhuskers—middle guard Wayne Meylan, safety Larry Wachholtz and offensive guard LaVerne Allers—earned All America honors, and seven others were named to All Big 8 teams as the Scarlets dominated the league for the fourth straight year, record-wise and statistically.

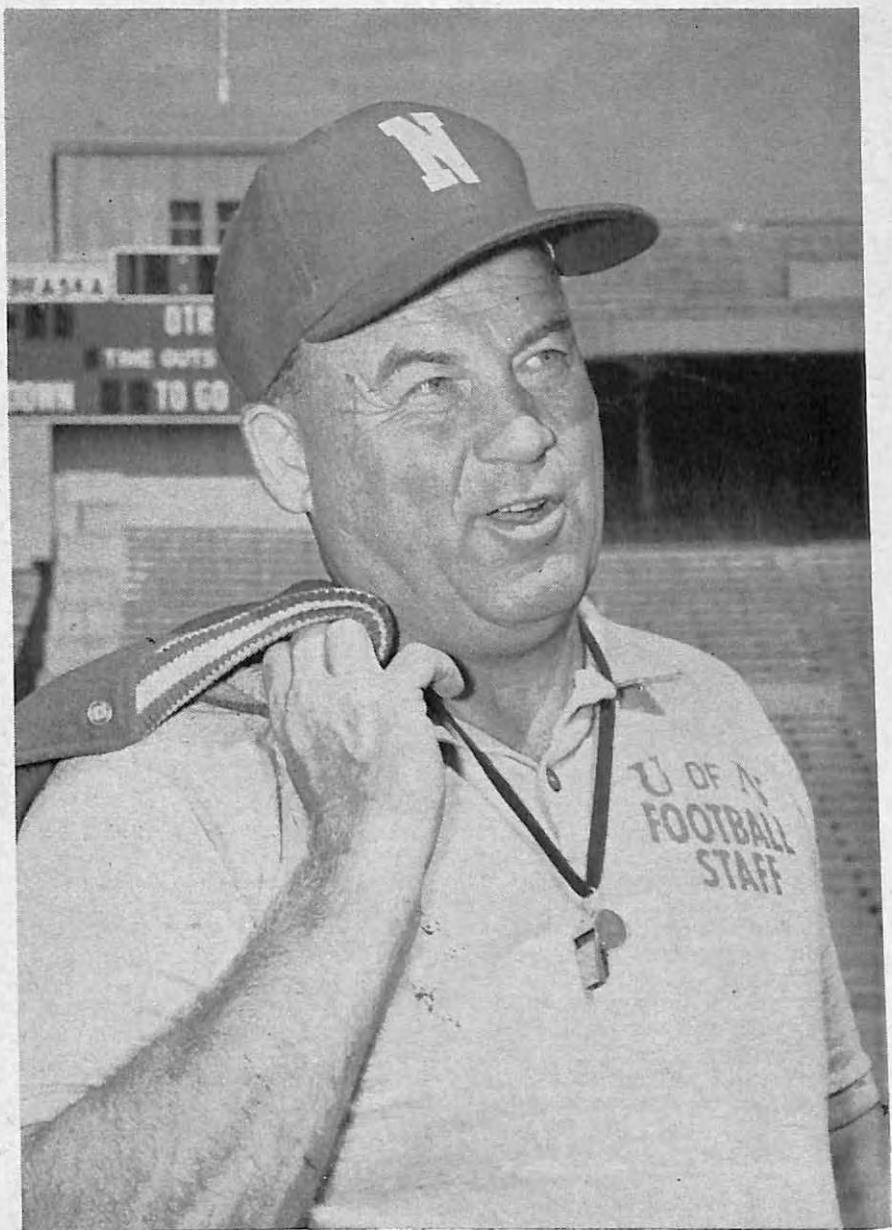

In non-conference action, Nebraska defeated Texas Christian, 14-10 in the opener, then dropped Utah State, 28-7, and thumped Wisconsin 31-3 at Madison.

The Cornhuskers had tougher sledding in the Big 8 than in past years, but still went into the Oklahoma finale, 6-0, before a field goal with :48 left in the game killed chances for a second clean sweep.

Nebraska stopped Iowa State, 12-6, on a 36-yard run by Harry Wilson late in the game to launch the title run. Kansas State went down, 21-10, before Colorado scared the daylights out of the Huskers with a 19-7 lead going into the final quarter. But Bob Churchich passed NU to a great 21-19 comeback win.

Next up was Missouri, and the Huskers blasted the Tigers, 35-0, and followed with a 24-13 win over Kansas and a 21-6 win over Oklahoma State, wrapping up the championship and the Sugar Bowl bid.

BOB DEVANEY

"Winningest Coach in the Nation"

ROBERT S. DEVANEY

Head Football Coach

Two of America's finest football coaches will meet for the second time in as many years when Nebraska and Alabama tangle in the 1967 Sugar Bowl classic.

Bob Devaney of Nebraska is the nation's winningest (percentage) coach, while Paul (Bear) Bryant has few peers in the art of preparing college football players for the big tests and winning seasons.

During Devaney's 10-year career, his teams have won 82, lost 17 and tied five for a percentage of .828, not counting ties, or .812, counting ties. Coach Bryant's record for 22 years is 170-51-14 for .769 or .753, depending on the ties. His Tide teams won the National title in 1964 and 1965.

Coach Devaney's record at Nebraska—like Bryant's at Alabama—has been phenomenal.

In five seasons, Devaney's teams have won 45, lost five and tied none during regular season play (.900), with a 2-2 bowl record for an overall Nebraska mark of 47-7-0 (.870).

Devaney's teams at Nebraska have posted consecutive records of 9-2, 10-1, 9-2, 10-1 and 9-1 heading into the Sugar Bowl clash with Alabama.

Coach Devaney took the favored Huskers to nine straight wins before Oklahoma upset Nebraska, 10-9, in the final game. And the Sugar Bowl will mark Nebraska's fifth straight bowl appearance since Devaney's arrival in Lincoln.

Devaney came to Nebraska as a successor to Bill Jennings early in 1962 and promptly proceeded to set a football-wacky state even during the lean years on its ear. The enthusiasm created by Devaney football has mushroomed throughout Nebraska—the fans wear red, follow the Huskers on the road in droves and clamor so loudly for tickets that Memorial Stadium was expanded for the third time in 1966 to boost Nebraska's seating capacity to more than 63,000, tops in the Big 8.

Here's the way the Bob Devaney legend burst on the Cornhusker scene:

1962—Devaney took a 3-6-1 club from 1961 and turned it into the surprise of the Big 8. The Huskers won six straight, wound up 8-2, accepted a bid to the Gotham Bowl and shocked Miami, 36-34, on the frozen turf of Yankee Stadium. Devaney was named Big 8 Coach of the Year.

1963—On rolled the Huskers, posting a 9-1 record, landing an Orange Bowl berth and socking Auburn, 13-7. Devaney repeated as Coach of the Year.

1964—With 11 of 13 seniors from 1963 moving on to pro ball, the Huskers were supposed to sink. Instead, they won nine straight games before losing their final game to Oklahoma—all accomplished despite the loss of their No. 1 quarterback, Fred Duda—and earned a Cotton Bowl berth. Devaney again was named Big 8 Coach of the Year. The Huskers led Arkansas until the final minutes before losing, 10-7, in the Cotton Bowl, and the Razorbacks vaulted to the national title on the strength of the win over NU.

1965—Picked by all the experts to rank high nationally and repeat as Big 8 champs, Devaney and Co., came through like Gangbusters.

Nebraska won 10 straight and another Orange Bowl bid, in addition to a third straight title and third straight Top 10 finish. The Huskers dropped a 39-28 decision to Alabama in the Orange Bowl, but provided a spectacular offensive show even in defeat—and Alabama was awarded the national title on the strength of defeating Nebraska.

Under Devaney's guidance, the Cornhuskers have produced eight All America players—Bob Brown in 1963, Larry Kramer in 1964, Walt Barnes, Tony Jeter and Freeman White in 1965 and Wayne Meylan, Larry Wachholtz and LaVerne Allers in 1966—as well as 33 All Big 8 performers in the past five seasons.

In addition to his coaching genius—and Devaney is quick to award sincere credit to his veteran staff of assistants—the Nebraska coach is a highly-sought after dinner speaker, clinic lecturer and off-the-cuff humorist.

Prior to becoming head coach at Wyoming, Devaney was an assistant to Biggie Munn and Duffy Daugherty at Michigan State, following a great career as a Michigan prep coach.

Bob and his wife, Phyllis, have two children—Mike and Patricia—both 1966 graduates of the University of Nebraska.

BOB DEVANEY'S CAPSULE BIOGRAPHY

COACH BRYANT, ALABAMA FORM GREAT GRIDIRON TEAM

When Nebraska's Cornhuskers go against Alabama in the 1967 Sugar Bowl game, they'll be facing the only major unbeaten college football team in the nation.

The No. 3 ranked Crimson Tide, following two years as the national champions, made a valiant run at a third straight title by winning all 10 games by convincing margins.

Defensively, Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant's Tide shut out six of the 10 opponents (3.7 average per game) while running up 267 points (26.7).

Leading offensive player for the Tide was fabulous quarterback Kenny Stabler, who took rushing honors with 397 yards and also hit 74 of 114 passes for 956 yards and nine TDs. That's a total offense mark of 1,353 yards.

Top receiver, also a star of the 1966 Orange Bowl game against Nebraska, was Ray Perkins, who caught 33 passes for 490 yards and seven TDs.

Winning is no stranger to Coach Bryant or the Tide since his arrival in 1958.

Bryant's teams at Alabama have posted a mark of 79 wins, 12 losses and six ties. During his 21-year coaching career, Bear's teams at Maryland, Kentucky, Texas A&M and Alabama have recorded a 170-51-14 mark.

NEBRASKA'S CHANCELLOR

Dr. Clifford M. Hardin, the University's twelfth Chancellor, came to Nebraska in 1954 from Michigan State University where he was Director of the Experiment Station and Dean of the College of Agriculture.

CLIFFORD M. HARDIN
Chancellor

A native of Indiana, he is a staunch advocate of broad educational opportunity and believes there is a definite relationship between national strength and educational attainment.

Well known in higher education, Dr. Hardin is a former president and executive director of the American Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges.

He is a member and trustee of the Rockefeller Foundation, an executive member of the Council on Higher Education for the American Republics, and Chairman of the Board of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, Omaha Branch.

Chancellor Hardin has served with a number of international committees on higher education and in 1963 was a member of the President's Committee to Strengthen the Security of the Free World.

He received his undergraduate and advanced degrees from Purdue in the field of agricultural economics and in 1941 joined the faculty of the University of Wisconsin, moving from there to Michigan State in 1944.

Dr. and Mrs. Hardin, the former Martha Wood of West Lafayette, Ind., met as students at Purdue. They are the parents of three daughters and two sons.

1966 YELL SQUAD

Gary Ailes, Larry Foster and Don Pfeifer are the male members of the 1966 Nebraska Yell Squad.

The precision performers—the Husker pom-pom octet—on the Yell Squad are coeds Sally Cockle, Barbara Doan, Margaret Evanson, Kathy Henderson, Mimi Hester, Jeannie Howard, Kitty McManus and Judi Switzer.

K. Kellogg Foundation and the remainder through voluntary contributions from citizens of Nebraska.

Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery—Houses one of the largest collegiate art collections and was financed by a $3 million bequest from the late A. B. Sheldon of Lexington and his sister, Frances, of Lincoln.

Abel Hall, Cather and Pound Halls—Residence halls housing 3,000 students.

Nelle Cochrane Woods Building—Housing offices of Department of Art, and classrooms for all-university use, with part of the cost provided by a Lincoln family.

Behlen Physics Research Laboratory—Provides space for physics research, with part of the cost provided by the Behlen family of Columbus.

C. Y. Thompson Library—Located on East Campus.

Marie Sandoz Hall—Women's residence hall for about 450 students.

Music Building—New facility to house Department of Music.

Dental College Building—Located on East Campus, completion in 1967.

Athletic Department Facilities

Memorial Stadium—Capacity 62,644, for football and outdoor track; indoor track under East Stadium.

Memorial Coliseum—Capacity 8,500, for basketball, swimming, wrestling, physical education, offices and large University functions.

Henry F. Schulte Field House—Locker-rooms, medical and training facilities, indoor workout space for baseball and football.

1966 CORNHUSKERS ARE FAMILY MEN

There are 14 married players on the University of Nebraska Sugar Bowl roster.

Two are fathers—Offensive Tackle Gary Brichacek and Linebacker Lynn Senkbeil.

The married Cornhuskers are LaVerne Allers, Gary, Brichacek, Bob Churchich, Larry Hansen, Len Janik, Roger Kudrna, Al Kuehl, Kelly Petersen, Ron Poggemeyer, Lynn Senkbeil, Carel Stith, Larry Wachholtz, Wayne Weber and Charlie Winters.

CORNHUSKER MARCHING BAND

Always one of the highlights of a Nebraska football game is the performance of the Cornhusker Marching Band, a 175-man aggregation of outstanding musicians selected via competitive auditions.

Miss Susie Kunc, Wilber sophomore, again will star as Nebraska's famed "Sunshine Girl." Drum majors are Jim Wickless and Lynn Moller.

The marching band is one of several outstanding musical groups at the university—the Symphonic Band, top performing organization, the Collegiate Band, the ROTC Band, the Brass Ensemble, the Woodwind Choir and the Brass Choir.

Membership in the NU marching band is recognized as firm evidence of talent and good musicianship, and the experience of having been a Cornhusker bandsman is one the members remember with pride throughout their lifetimes.

And football fans annually are thrilled by the Husker marchers, who have staged outstanding halftime shows at the Rose Bowl (1941), the Orange Bowl (1955, 1964 and 1966) and the Cotton Bowl (1965).

DON LENTZ, JACK SNIDER—GREAT BATON TEAM

The University of Nebraska is fortunate to have two outstanding musical experts directing its fine band program—Donald A. Lentz, who is Director of Bands, and Jack R. Snider, Assistant Director of Bands and director of the Cornhusker Marching Band.

DON LENTZ

Mr. Lentz is nationally known as an outstanding flute player, composer and author. Heading the Nebraska band program since 1937—he is the father of Band Day, which has become a national by-word—he previously played under some of the world's great conductors in the New York Symphony, the Barrere Symphony, the Sousa Band, and in the theater, ballet and radio.

Prof. Lentz is an expert in the field of oriental scale systems, having studied the Hindu, Thai and Indonesia scale systems in the Orient in 1956-57 and 1962. He has recently authored a book, "Tones and Intervals of Hindu Classical Music." Among his band compositions are "Bakonian Legend," "Panomime," and "Samana."

Prof. Snider has worked closely with Mr. Lentz in the development of the Nebraska band program, and has been most active in directing the Marching Band. He also directs the Collegiate and ROTC bands, the Brass Ensemble and Brass Choir.

A 1949 graduate of Nebraska, Prof. Snider taught in the Kearney schools before joining the NU faculty in 1951. He plays Principal French Horn with the Lincoln Symphony and also serves as assistant conductor. He is one of the founders and the first president of the Nebraska State Bandmasters Association.

NEBRASKA ATTENDANCE RECORDS TUMBLE

Nebraska's Cornhuskers again played before a record number of fans in 1966 with Memorial Stadium expanded to a bowl with reserved capacity of 62,644 plus bleachers—largest in the Big 8.

In five 1966 home games, they drew 318,822 fans to shatter the old five-game mark of 230,446 set in 1964.

Top single crowd, a record, was 65,102 with Oklahoma State. The Huskers averaged 63,764 at home.

Total attendance for 10 games was 531,905, also a record (old mark: 446,501 in 1965), and the Sugar Bowl crowd is a cinch to enable the Huskers to crack the 11-game mark—540,715.

EX-HUSKER FOOTBALL STAR HEADS BOARD OF REGENTS

Clarence Swanson, former Nebraska football star and pass-catching record holder, is the current president of the University of Nebraska Board of Regents.

Swanson in 1921 caught nine touchdown passes, and he caught a total of 17 TD tosses during his career—both NU records which still stand today.

Regent Swanson's outstanding play brought him All Missouri Valley honors, as well as second-team All America honors from Walter Camp and Collier's and first-team All America laurels from prominent pickers of that era like Walter Eckersoll, the Kansas City Star, Pittsburgh Dispatch, Outing Magazine and the Boston American.

Other members of the Board of Regents, governing body of the University of Nebraska, are Dr. B. N. Greenberg, M.D., of York, Richard E. Adkins of Osmond, J. G. Elliott of Scottsbluff, J. Leroy Welsh of Omaha and Robert Raun of Norman.

New members of the Board taking office in January are Edward Schwartzkopf of Lincoln, All Big 6 guard on the 1940 Rose Bowl team, and Richard Herman of Omaha.

1966 TITLE TRAIL

TCU PROVES TOUGH OPENER BUT HUSKERS WIN, 14-10

Lincoln, Neb.—(Sept. 17)—Nebraska's Cornhuskers opened the 1966 season ranked No. 5 in the nation, and received a strong challenge from Texas Christian before pulling out a 14-10 decision.

With a record crowd of 60,974 fans in the newly-bowled Memorial Stadium, the Huskers moved 63 yards to score the second time they got the ball—runs of 11 yards by Ron Kirkland and 17 yards by Harry Wilson, and a 13-yard Bob Churchich-to-Wilson pass paved the way for Charlie Winter's 6-yard smash to put the Scarlets ahead, 7-0, with 4:53 gone in the first quarter.*

But TCU struck back quickly after a Husker fumble at the NU 49, hitting two long passes (one on an interference call) to set up a two-yard TD toss and even the count at 7-7 midway in the second quarter.

Nebraska countered by following up the TCU tally with a 78-yard march, with the TD coming on a 10-yard Churchich-to-Dennis Morrison pass. NU's 14-7 halftime lead was slashed to 14-10 early in the third period when Bruce Alford kicked a 16-yard field goal.

After that the Huskers waged a gallant defensive battle to preserve the win.

BLOCKED PUNT, WACHHOLTZ RETURN BREAK OPEN UTAH STATE BATTLE

Lincoln, Neb.—(Sept. 24)—All America Safety Larry Wachholtz and All America Middle Guard Wayne Meylan teamed to snap Utah State's spine as the Cornhuskers took a 28-7 win before a record Band Day crowd of 63,543.

It was a 7-7 cliff-hanger until Wachholtz kicked a 44-yard field goal with 46 seconds left in the third quarter. Then things happened fast.

Meylan blocked an Aggie punt to give the Huskers the ball at the US 8. Three plays later Ron Kirkland scored to make it 16-7.

Wachholtz supplied the clincher the next time the Aggie punted. He reeled off a 72-yard TD return, his career first, to dash Utah State upset hopes.

Paul Critchlow went six yards for the final NU tally as the reserves supplied the coup d' grace.

Nebraska got an early TD when Charlie Winters scored from the 2 after a 31-yard drive which started following a 36-yard Wachholtz punt return. The 7-0 lead held up until a Husker punt accidentally touched Ben Gregory and Utah State recovered at the NU 38.

A 32-yard pass set up the USU tally with 12:44 left in the third. Then the Huskers exploded.

HARRY WILSON'S RUN SAVES 'TIED' HUSKERS AGAINST CYCLONES

Ames, Iowa—(Oct. 1)—Harry Wilson's tremendous 36-yard burst through the Iowa State Cyclones saved Nebraska from an onrushing tie—just 3:45 before the final gun—and gave the Huskers a 12-6 win for No. 3 before a record crowd of 28,000.

Penalties, three lost fumbles and the aggressive Cyclones had blunted all Husker scoring thrusts after Larry Wachholtz kicked two first-quarter field goals.

Iowa State tied it in the second quarter when Don Graves picked off a Bob Churchich pass and raced 16 yards to score.

Carel Stith's fumble recovery at the ISU 46 late in the fourth quarter gave Nebraska a chance for victory. A 10-yard Churchich-to-Dennis Richnafsky pass and a key fourth down plunge by Paul Critchlow gave the Huskers a first down at the 36.

Wilson then shot through left tackle, got hit three times—he shook off two and broke the third tackle—before ripping into the clear for the winning TD.

While the score was close, Nebraska out-rushed ISU by 229-77 and had a total offense bulge of 432-191.

NEBRASKA RAMPAGES, 31-3, OVER STUBBORN WISCONSIN

Madison, Wis.—(Oct. 8)—Coach Bob Devaney maintained his record of never losing to a Big 10 team intact as the Nebraska Cornhuskers took a 31-3 decision before 52,428.

The Huskers lead early, 3-0, on Larry Wachholtz's 27-yard field goal, then shared a 3-3 tie late in the first quarter on a 33-yard boot by Tom Schinke.

Nebraska went ahead to stay, 10-3, late in the second quarter after a Badger fumble. They stomped 64 yards in only seven plays, with Ben Gregory going the last nine.

All America Wayne Meylan applied the cruncher early in the third quarter as he blocked a Badger punt and fell on it in the end zone for a TD and a 17-7 lead. The next time NU got the ball, the Huskers went 59 yards in eight plays; Harry Wilson scoring from the 11.

Husker reserves then took over and followed a pass theft with a 37-yard drive, Paul Critchlow getting the final TD on a short plunge.

Bob Churchich hit 10 of 13 for 117 yards via the air, while Wilson ran for 86.

FIRED-UP WILDCATS KEEP HUSKERS STEWING ALL DAY

Lincoln, Neb.—(Oct. 15)—Nebraska Homecoming fans—a record, 64,108—saw the Cornhuskers jump out to a 14-0 lead, then fight off the determined Kansas State Wildcats through the last half before posting a 21-10 win.

Win No. 5 didn't come easily as Doug Weaver's Wilcats pulled up 14-10 with 9:31 left.

But after that score the Scarlets pounded out a 68-yard drive in only nine plays to erase any KSU upset hopes.

Nebraska drove 80 yards—Pete Tatman got the last four—for a TD with 3:55 left in the first quarter, then called on Wayne Meylan for a cushion. Late in the second period, the All America Middle Guard rushed through to block a Wildcat punt. He chased down the ball and recovered it in the end zone for his second TD.

K-State kicked a field goal early in the third quarter and went on a passing spree—a 47-yarder from Bill Nossek to Dave Jones was the big play—to pull up 14-10.

GREAT HUSKER COMEBACK BRINGS LAST-MINUTE, 21-19, WIN AT COLORADO

Boulder, Colo.—(Oct. 22)—Nebraska spotted Colorado a 19-7 lead, then tore back in the final minutes to pull out a 21-19 victory and remain undefeated.

It was one of the great Cornhusker Comebacks. Bob Churchich went on a pitching spree and fired the Huskers on drives of 63 yards and 65 yards in the final 13 minutes as a crowd of 46,112 (including more than 15,000 Nebraska fans) went wild.

Denied a TD at the end of the third period when the officials ruled Churchich failed to get in the end zone after a 72-yard drive, Churchich roared back.

He hit three passes, then a TD strike to end Dennis Morrison with 10:42 left, making it 19-14. The Huskers couldn't move the next time, but three times the NU defense forced Buff punts.

With 2:32 left, NU got the ball again and Churchich hollered "Charge!" He hit passes of 8, 6, 12, 5 and a 16-yarder to Tom Penney at the CU 9 to set the stage. Three plunges sent Pete Tatman in for the game-winning TD with 53 seconds left.

Churchich set Nebraska records with 20 of 34 passes for 236 yards.

Nebraska scored first on an 8-yard pass to Ben Gregory, but the Buffs roared back late in the first quarter. Although the Buffs missed the PAT kick, they took the lead 13-7 in the second period as little QB Dan Kelly gave the Scarlets fits. Kelly hit a 29-yard pass to Larry Plantz for another TD with 3:39 left in the half.

It looked like a kayo for the Huskers, but they regrouped and came through like the champions they were in a magnificent final effort.

HUSKERS EXPLODE FOR 35-0 PULVERIZING OF MISSOURI TIGERS

Lincoln, Neb.—(Oct. 16)—Perhaps stung by the suggestion that they hadn't been playing up to full potential, the Nebraska Cornhuskers unleashed a devastating attack against the Missouri Tigers and galloped to a 35-0 victory before 65,095 fans and a regional TV audience.

It was the Husker's finest all-around performance of the season as they took command early and never let the Tigers gain a shot at contention.

The second time Nebraska got the ball, the Huskers drove for a touchdown, and the next time they gained possession they repeated—via a 16-yard run by Ben Gregory.

Following a 14-0 halftime lead, the Huskers blew the Tigers apart in the third quarter. It took just 13 plays on the ground for the Scarlets to take a 21-0 lead. Then Kaye Carstens intercepted a Tiger pass and returned the ball to the MU 8 to set up a 28-0 lead two plays later.

Nebraska reserves launched a 52-yard drive late in the third period and capped it with a Wayne Weber-to-Tom Smith TD pass with 11:34 left in the game.

The Huskers piled up a 336-107 offensive bulge on the Tigers, who gained only 59 yards on the ground and 48 via the air.

CORNHUSKERS STOMP KANSAS EARLY, WIN NO. 8 BY 24-13

Lawrence, Kan.—(Nov. 5)—Nebraska bombed Kansas early, then settled back for a 24-13 win that was more decisive than the score.

With 45,500 fans on hand, the Huskers started moving late in the first quarter and wound up with three second quarter touchdowns and an 18-0 halftime lead.

Kansas got a third quarter TD after a NU fumble gave the Jayhawks a break at the Husker 36. Then Nebraska opened the gap to 24-7 before KU sent Husker subs reeling with a last second tally off a full-scale aerial attack.

Nebraska capped a 69-yard drive with Ben Gregory scoring from the three with 13:55 left in the first half.

With 4:51 left, Bob Churchich ran 27 yards for a second Husker TD, and on the play following the subsequent kickoff Dennis Thorell intercepted a KU pass and tore back to the 24. Six plays later Harry Wilson scored for an 18-0 lead with 2:28 left in the half.

FLASHBACKS Continued

KU's Bill Fenton tossed a 25-yard TD pass to Junior Riggins to get the Jayhawks on the board in the third quarter.

The Scarlets retaliated in the final quarter with a fine drive, scoring on a Churchich-to-Wilson nine yard pass.

Fenton passed the Jayhawks 65 yards in four plays, the TD pass coming after time had run out, against NU reserves.

NEBRASKA GETS NO. 9 WITH 21-6 VICTORY OVER OSU COWBOYS

Lincoln, Neb.—(Nov. 12)—Nebraska's Cornhuskers clinched their fourth straight Big 8 title with a 21-6 win over stubborn Oklahoma State.

Another record crowd of 65,102 saw the Huskers launch a drive in the first quarter and tally on the first play of the second—a bruising 10-yard blast by Ben Gregory.

However, hopes of a rout were dashed when the Cowboys recovered a Husker fumble at the NU 29 early in the second period. OSU had to plunge three times from the two-yard line before scoring, then missed the kick that would have tied it 7-7.

Nebraska recovered a Cowboy fumble early in the third quarter and went 22 yards in seven plays for a 14-6 lead. Bob Churchich went the final four.

Early in the fourth quarter, NU moved to a clinching TD, with Harry Wilson getting a 19-yard run and Churchich plunging for the score.

Wilson was the leading rusher with 104 yards, four more than OSU's Jack Reynolds who gave the Huskers fits.

The victory, coupled with Missouri's 10-7 win over Oklahoma gave the Huskers their fourth straight Big 8 title and set the stage for their second straight undefeated season.

SOONERS ONCE AGAIN SPOIL HUSKER PERFECT SEASON HOPES, 10-9

Norman, Okla.—(Nov. 24)—Oklahoma's Sooners and Owen Field once again proved a Cornhusker jinx as Nebraska lost its bid for a second straight perfect season, 10-9.

A national TV crowd, plus 41,000 Thanksgiving Day Turkey deserters, saw Mike Vachon kick a 14-yard field goal with 48 seconds left to upset the No. 4 ranked Cornhuskers. It was Oklahoma that issued the only other regular season loss in the past three years—a 17-7 affair in the last game of 1965.

Nebraska, while moving the ball well on the ground, couldn't quite get a TD in the first half. Larry Wachholtz put the Huskers ahead, 3-0, with the 8th field goal of his career (Nebraska record) in the second quarter, but the Sooners took a 7-3 halftime lead on a 48-yard pass from Bob Warmack to Eddie Hinton.

Nebraska took a 9-7 lead in the third quarter, driving 80 yards in 12 plays, with Dick Davis scoring. Wachholtz's punt try was blocked after a bad pass was fumbled and what was a would-be tying point went by the boards.

Nebraska outrushed the Sooners, 278-194, but the Sooners hit four of four passes for 104 yards, while the Huskers' Bobby Churchich hit 7 of 15 for 76.

Oklahoma kept the Husker attack off balance with three interceptions, the first killing an early NU drive at the OU 13.

Husker Ben Gregory, in a great performance of power running, piled up 109 on the ground.

Both teams had scoring chances killed by fine defense; both teams turned in some outstanding offensive plays.

But the Sooners battled through for a well-earned upset on Vachon's toe to send Nebraska against Alabama in the Sugar Bowl with a 9-1 record.

NEBRASKA HAS EXCITING, ACTION-PACKED BOWL HISTORY

Nebraska's Cornhuskers have played in only six post-season football games, but they have logged four consecutive appearances—a mark which stands as a Big 8 record—and they will achieve the honor of playing in the four major bowls (Rose, Orange, Cotton and Sugar) with the Sugar Bowl game against Alabama.

While the Huskers can boast only a 2-4 mark in bowl play—they're 2-2 under Coach Bob Devaney—they have supplied some sensational action for the fans.

Nebraska's first bowl appearance came in the 1941 Rose Bowl—the Cornhuskers are the only Big 8 team to ever play in the grandpappy of them all—against the great Stanford team which created the T-formation craze. Nebraska twice led the Indians before losing a thriller, 21-13—via Pete Kmetovic's punt return—after the Huskers had held Stanford four downs within the one-yard line, one of college football's great goal-line stands.

Duke clobbered the Huskers, 34-7, in the 1955 Orange Bowl game, as Nebraska got the bowl bid by finishing second to Oklahoma during the era when the same Big 8 team could not go to Miami twice in succession.

Then came the Bob Devaney era and two successive bowl wins—a 36-34 spine-tingler over George Mira-generated Miami on the frozen turf of Yankee Stadium in 1962; and a rousing 13-7 win over Auburn in the 1964 Orange Bowl, pepped by the 68-yard scoring jaunt of Quarterback Dennis Claridge and a pair of record field goals by Dave Theisen.

After a repeat 9-1 in 1964, the Huskers played in the 1965 Cotton Bowl game against unbeaten Arkansas and led the favored Razorbacks, 7-3, most of the way before bowing, 10-7, in the final minutes. The win over Nebraska gave Arkansas the Grantland Rice Trophy.

Last year the Huskers capped a perfect season by meeting explosive Alabama in the 1966 Orange Bowl game, and dropped a 39-28 decision. But Nebraska turned in some brilliant offensive fireworks as Bob Churchich fired a record-matching total of three TD passes.

GREGG McBRIDE RETIRING AFTER 1966 GRID SEASON

The dean of the University of Nebraska football press corps is retiring after more than 50 years of covering the Cornhuskers.

Gregg McBride of the Omaha World Herald—headquarters at the Herald's Lincoln Bureau—will head for the shade following the Sugar Bowl game.

The colorful Scotsman, who worked as a reporter for Cy Sherman of the Lincoln Star—the man who nicknamed the Cornhuskers—and served the Lincoln Journal prior to joining the World Herald, will continue to write a column in retirement.

McBride's colorful career is marked with notable achievements, but probably his most impressive contribution through the years was the launching and expanding of thorough high school athletic reporting, and the pioneering of the Prep Ratings which are so popular today.

Gregg has covered the Huskers at home and away for many years, and he served as the NU sports publicity director during the D. X. Bible and Biff Jones eras. In addition to his scribe duties, McBride also coached tennis at Nebraska during the 1930s.

Conde Sargent of the World Herald staff—a former Lincoln Journal scribe, too—will take over Gregg's prep and Lincoln Bureau sports beat.

Other veteran members of the Cornhusker press box crew who will cover the Sugar Bowl are Hal Brown, sports editor of the Lincoln Star; Curt Mosher, sports editor of the Lincoln Journal; Wally Provost, sports editor of the Omaha World Herald and Tom Allan, Omaha World Herald feature writer.

NEBRASKA'S MEMORIAL STADIUM NOW LARGEST IN THE BIG 8

The University of Nebraska's Memorial Stadium was enlarged for the third time in three years during the summer of 1966.

Memorial Stadium's new capacity—which is the largest in the Big 8 Conference and one of the largest in the Midlands—is now 62,644 permanent seats. In addition, bleachers may be added in the corners to raise total capacity. Record crowd is 65,102.

First addition to Memorial Stadium, built in 1923, was made in 1964 with the enclosure of the south end. In 1965 the center section was added to the north end, bringing capacity to 52,450.

With the completion of the two corner sections for 1966, Memorial Stadium has become a complete bowl.

ALABAMA STUNS CORNHUSKERS, 39-28, TO WIN ORANGE BOWL—AND NATIONAL TITLE

Miami, Fla.—(Jan. 1, 1966)—If anyone would have suggested Nebraska would score 28 points on Alabama in the 1966 Orange Bowl game and LOSE, chances are the ding-dong wagon would have been summoned pronto.

But that's exactly what happened as the Crimson Tide exploded dramatically in the second quarter to open a 24-7 halftime lead and then rolled for a shocking 39-28 decision.

With 74,214 fans—including some 13,000 Nebraskans—on hand for the colorful night contest, the stage was set for all the national marbles. No. 1 Michigan State had been upset by UCLA and No. 2 Arkansas had been upset by LSU, leaving No. 3 Nebraska as the only unbeaten power.

When the firing stopped—and it was a game of unbelievable offensive excitement—the Cornhuskers had become the third unbeaten team of the day to fall, and Alabama was able to jump from its pre-game No. 4 ranking to a second straight national title by virtue of its win over Nebraska.

Alabama led 7-0 midway through the first quarter as Quarterback Steve Sloan warmed up for a brilliant aerial performance with a 21-yard TD pitch to Ray Perkins. Nebraska countered early in the second quarter as Bobby Churchich came off the bench to launch a brilliant aerial show of his own. Churchich tossed a 33-yard TD strike to All America end Tony Jeter to even the count at 7-7.

Nebraska's defense forced Alabama to punt from its own 10, but a roughing the kicker penalty gave the Tide a new lease and Alabama used the break to good advantage—Sloan passing the Tide the length of the field for the go-ahead TD.

It was the same story the next time the Tide got the ball, a 93-yard aerial drive that gave Alabama a 21-7 lead with 1:42 left in the half. This set the stage for two straight successful Alabama on-side kicks, the first setting up an 18-yard field goal to give the Tide a 24-7 halftime bulge that the Cornhuskers simply couldn't overcome.

Despite the demoralizing first half, Churchich fired the Huskers to repeated offensive excellence during the second half. His 49-yard pitch to Ben Gregory early in the third quarter pulled NU up 24-13, but Alabama countered with a 69-yard infantry drive to make it 32-13.

Back tore the Huskers, with Churchich hitting passes of 20 and 16 yards before plunging for a personal TD, making it 32-20 early in the final quarter.

But once again, Sloan and the Tide riddled the Husker defense and marched 55 yards to score and take a 39-20 lead.

Churchich countered with a 52-yard aerial drive that wound up with a 14-yard TD pass to Jeter. It was Bobby's third TD pass of the game, tying the Orange Bowl record. All told, Churchich turned in a tremendous relief performance—12 of 17 passes for 232 yards and three touchdowns. Jeter equalled the bowl mark with two TD catches.

But Alabama's Sloan was also magnificent—hitting 20 of 28 passes for a record-breaking 296 yards and two TDs. Perkins also matched Jeter's TD reception output, and snared nine tosses for 159 yards for another record.

It was an offensive show of the first order, with Alabama getting the best of the Huskers in all departments enroute to the Tide's well-deserved win. Coach Bear Bryant's Tide out-downed NU, 29 (Orange Bowl record) to 17, out-rushed the Huskers, 222-145, out-passed the Huskers 296-232, and out-totaled the Scarlets, 518-377.
