THE MATCHUP

Nebraska returns to Memorial Stadium on Saturday evening to take on Kansas in the final installment of the nation's longest continuous series. The teams have met every season since 1906, a streak of 105 consecutive years. Game time is set for 6 p.m. at Memorial Stadium. The game will be televised on a pay-per-view basis by FSN.

Nebraska will head into the contest with an 8-1 overall record after surviving a 31-30 overtime scare at Iowa State last Saturday. The Huskers stopped an Iowa State fake extra point attempt in overtime to improve to 6-1 all-time in overtime contests. The victory put Nebraska in command of the Big 12 North Division with a 4-1 conference record. The Huskers need to win two of their final three contests to secure their second consecutive trip to the Big 12 Championship Game. The win at Iowa State helped Nebraska move to No. 8 in the coaches poll, remain ninth in the AP poll and check in at eighth in the BCS standings.

Kansas will come to Lincoln with momentum after a scintillating 52-45 win over Colorado in Lawrence. The Jayhawks scored 35 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to overcome a 28-point deficit and post the largest comeback victory in school history. The win was KU's first in five conference games and the Jayhawks improved to 3-6 overall.

THE SERIES

Nebraska holds a dominant 90-23-3 edge in the all-time series between the two schools, including a 43-15-2 advantage in Lincoln. Nebraska has won each of the past 20 meetings at Memorial Stadium since a 23-13 loss in 1968.

THE COACHES

Nebraska: Bo Pelini (Ohio State, '90) owns a 28-9 record in his third season. Pelini has guided NU to nine or more wins in each of his first two seasons as head coach, joining Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne and Frank Solich in accomplishing that feat. Pelini is the first coach in Big 12 history to guide his team to at least a share of division titles in each of his first two seasons.

Kansas: Turner Gill (North Texas, '90) is in his first season as the Jayhawks' head coach and his fifth season overall as a collegiate head coach. Gill is 3-6 with Kansas and 23-36 overall as a head coach. Gill was one of the top quarterbacks in Nebraska history from 1980 to 1983, and was a Husker assistant coach from 1992 to 2004.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

Nebraska is 835-342-40 all-time, one of just eight schools with 800 all-time victories ♦ Nebraska has won five national championships (1970, 1971, 1994, 1995, 1997). ♦ The Cornhuskers have won 43 conference championships. ♦ Nebraska's 46 all-time bowl appearances rank fifth nationally. ♦ Since 1970, Nebraska has 401 wins, 26 more than any other school. ♦ Nebraska's 98 football Academic All-Americans lead the nation. ♦ The Huskers have had 107 All-Americans in school history.

NOTING GAME 9...NEBRASKA 31, IOWA STATE 30 (OT)

► Nebraska improved to 8-1 for the first time since 2001, when NU opened with an 11-0 record.

► The win was NU's eighth straight win in the month of November, dating back to a Nov. 1, 2008 loss at Oklahoma.

► Nebraska extended its road winning streak to eight games, its longest since winning 10 straight road games from 1996 to 1998. The win was NU's eighth straight Big 12 road victory, its longest streak since 1996 and 1997. Nebraska is 9-2 on the road in Big 12 play under Head Coach Bo Pelini.

► Nebraska owns a 6-1 all-time record in overtime. The Huskers won their first five overtime games - including a 27-20 double-overtime victory over No. 23 Iowa State in Lincoln in 2005 - but lost its only previous overtime game under Bo Pelini, 37-31 at No. 7 Texas Tech in 2008.

► The win was NU's first one-point victory since a 41-40 win over Ball State in 2007, and was Nebraska's first win under Pelini in games decided by three or fewer points.

► Nebraska trailed 10-7 at halftime, but rallied for a 31-30 overtime victory. The win improved the Huskers to 4-8 under Pelini when trailing at halftime. Nebraska last overcame a halftime deficit for a win at Missouri last season (NU trailed 9-0 at half in a 27-12 victory).

► Sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead had a career-high 20 carries for career-best 129 yards and two touchdowns, including a 19-yard TD run in overtime. His 129 yards bettered his career high of 104 yards at Washington earlier this season, and marked Burkhead's third career 100-yard game. Burkhead had a season-long 29-yard run in the first quarter on a direct snap from center.

► Nebraska senior I-back Roy Helu Jr. rushed 22 times for 99 yards and a six-yard first-quarter touchdown. Helu became the sixth player in Nebraska history to surpass 3,000 career rushing yards. Helu now has 3,065 yards, good for fifth on the Nebraska career rushing list.

► Junior safety Austin Cassidy had a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown in the third quarter to give Nebraska a 17-10 lead. The pick was the first of Cassidy's career. It was Nebraska's fourth interception return for a TD this season, one off the school record. Nebraska had two INT returns for scores against Idaho (Gomes, Thenarse) and one at Washington (Dennard).

► Cassidy had a career-high 12 tackles, including eight before halftime. His previous career high was six tackles a week earlier against Missouri in his first career start.

► Senior safety Eric Hagg intercepted an ISU pass in the third quarter for his team-leading fourth interception of the 2010 season. Hagg also picked off a pass in overtime on a fake extra-point attempt (not an official interception).

► Nebraska converted three Iowa State turnovers into 21 points. Before the game, Nebraska had not converted an opponent turnover into points since the Washington game. Nebraska increased its interception total to 15, and has had at least one interception in eight of nine games.

► Senior cornerback Prince Amukamara finished with seven tackles to tie his season high. He had a nine-yard sack, his first of the season and fourth of his career.

► Freshman cornerback Ciante Evans made his first career start in place of the injured Alfonzo Dennard.

► The game marked just the third time in nine games Nebraska did not score on its opening possession (South Dakota State, Texas). It was also the third time Nebraska has not scored in the opening quarter.

► Senior Alex Henery boomed a season-long 69-yard punt in the first quarter.

► Sophomore tight end Kyler Reed caught a career-high three passes for 52 yards. Reed has had multiple catches in each of the past three games.

► Sophomore defensive end Cameron Meredith set a career high with 10 tackles, and tied his career best with two tackles for loss.

► Junior linebacker Lavonte David recorded 10 tackles for his fifth double-figure tackle game of the 2010 season.

NEBRASKA HEAD COACH BO PELINI

Bo Pelini is in his third season as Nebraska's head coach and owns a 28-9 record with the Huskers. Pelini helped Nebraska to at least a share of the Big 12 North title in each of his first two seasons, becoming the first coach in the history of the Big 12 to win at least a share of a division title in each of his first two seasons.

Pelini took charge of the Huskers after a highly successful five-year run as a collegiate defensive coordinator, including orchestrating NU's defensive efforts in 2003. Pelini picked up his first college head coaching victory as NU's interim coach in the 2003 Alamo Bowl against Michigan State.

Following his one season at Nebraska, Pelini served as the co-defensive coordinator at Oklahoma in 2004, helping the Sooners to the Big 12 title and BCS title game. He then followed with three seasons as the defensive coordinator at LSU. With the Tigers, Pelini led three consecutive defenses to No. 3 national rankings in total defense. He culminated his time in Baton Rouge by helping the Tigers to the 2007 national championship.

In addition to his five seasons at the collegiate level, Pelini coached in the NFL for nine seasons, serving three years each with the San Francisco 49ers, New England Patriots and Green Bay Packers. Pelini was a team captain and four-year letterman as a safety at Ohio State from 1987 to 1990.

PELINI STACKS UP WELL WITH PEERS

In guiding Nebraska to a 28-9 record in his first three seasons, Pelini put himself in some impressive company.

► Pelini is the fourth Nebraska head coach to win nine games in each of his first two seasons with the Cornhuskers. The others to reach that win plateau were Bob Devaney, Tom Osborne and Frank Solich. Pelini can reach nine wins in his first three years with a win over Kansas on Saturday.

► Pelini's nine victories in 2008 tied for the most among 18 coaches in their first season at their respective school. Among first-time head coaches, Pelini's victory total was the best in the nation. Pelini's 19 victories in his first two seasons are second among the hiring class of 2008.

► Pelini was just the eighth BCS Conference (since 1998) first-time head coach to post nine or more victories in his first season. He was just the second first-year head coach in that span to win nine games after inheriting a team with a losing record the previous year.

PELINI CONTINUES DEFENSIVE ACCOMPLISHMENTS AT NEBRASKA

Pelini has led an amazing defensive turnaround at Nebraska. The 2008 Nebraska defense was one of the nation's most improved units. In his first season, Pelini helped Nebraska finish second in the Big 12 in total defense, a year after the Huskers were 100th or worse in nearly every defensive category. Last fall, Nebraska was dominant on defense and its improvement was just as impressive. The Huskers led the nation in total defense and had the nation's best scoring defensive improvement (18.1 ppg).

With Pelini's previous track record, the success of his Nebraska defenses is no surprise.

► Pelini led the 2003 Blackshirts to impressive numbers. NU had a school-record 47 takeaways, including a Big 12-record 32 interceptions, and finished second nationally in scoring defense, first in pass efficiency defense and 11th in total defense.

► Pelini guided LSU defenses to No. 3 national finishes in total defense each of his three seasons in Baton Rouge.

► In 103 games as a collegiate coach, Pelini's defenses have posted 10 shutouts, held the opposition to seven points or less 34 times and to 20 points or less 67 times.

► Pelini-led defenses have 210 total takeaways, including two top-three national rankings.

STAFF INTACT FOR THIRD STRAIGHT SEASON

Nebraska was long known for coaching staff continuity under Hall of Fame Coaches Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne. Third-year Head Coach Bo Pelini appears to embrace that same philosophy. NU is in its third straight season with its staff intact in 2010, as all nine full-time assistants enter at least their third season on the Husker sideline.

Nebraska is one of only nine schools nationally to have the same full-time coaching staff for at least the past three years, including only Baylor and Texas in the Big 12. Prior to last season, Nebraska had not had its full coaching staff remain the same from one season to the next since 2001 to 2002 when Frank Solich's staff was unchanged.

Pelini's staff had extensive ties to Nebraska and the Big 12 prior to the 2008 season. Every member of the Husker coaching staff had prior experience in the Big 12 before joining forces for the Huskers.

SCOUTING KANSAS

Despite a 3-6 overall record and a 1-4 mark in league play, the Kansas Jayhawks bring some momentum to Nebraska. KU snapped a four-game losing streak and picked up its first Big 12 victory by scoring 35 unanswered points in the final 14:52 of a 52-45 win over Colorado last Saturday.

Before outscoring the Buffaloes 35-7 in the fourth quarter, Kansas had been outscored 224-50 over its first four conference games combined with the first three quarters against Colorado. Overall, Kansas lost each of its first three Big 12 games by at least 35 points, but the Jayhawks have been better the past two weeks. KU led Iowa State at halftime on the road two weeks ago before falling 28-16.

Statistically, Kansas ranks 102nd in scoring offense and 107th in scoring defense.

the all-time series, 90-23-3, including unbeaten streaks of 36 and 27 consecutive games. The Huskers' 90 wins in the series mark the most wins by any school against one opponent in NCAA history. Nebraska is 43-15-2 against the Jayhawks in Lincoln, as the Jayhawks have not won at Memorial Stadium since 1968.

KANSAS HEAD COACH TURNER GILL

First-year Kansas Head Coach Turner Gill returns to Lincoln to coach against his alma mater for the first time. Gill, who was Nebraska's starting quarterback from 1981 to 1983, spent the 1990 season as a graduate assistant and was a full-time Husker assistant coach from 1992 to 2004.

Counting his days as both a Nebraska player and coach, Gill has been a part of 118 games at Memorial Stadium, posting a 109-9 record in the stadium, including an 86-7 mark as a coach. Gill has also been on the winning side of every Nebraska-Kansas meeting during his career. Gill was 3-0 against the Jayhawks as Nebraska's starting quarterback and 14-0 against KU as a Husker assistant coach.

Gill led Nebraska to three undefeated Big Eight seasons and a 28-2 record as the Huskers' starting quarterback. He was a three-time All-Big Eight pick and a second-team All-American as a senior, while also finishing fourth in the 1983 Heisman Trophy voting.

Gill volunteered at North Texas in 1989 and was a graduate assistant at Nebraska in 1990 and SMU in 1991. He was named a full-time Husker assistant in 1992 and remained at Nebraska through the 2004 season, including serving on the same staff as Bo Pelini in 2003. Gill spent the 2005 season with the Green Bay Packers, before accepting his first head-coaching position at Buffalo.

Taking over one of the country's worst programs, Gill guided the Bulls to a 20-30 record in his four seasons, highlighted by a 2008 season that saw Buffalo finish 8-6 and win the school's first-ever MAC title and advance to a bowl game for the first time in program history. He is 3-6 in his first season at Kansas. His staff has a Nebraska flare, featuring former Husker assistant Buddy Wyatt, former graduate assistant Aaron Stamm and former quarterback Joe Dailey.

800-WIN CLUB

Nebraska is one of eight programs with 800 all-time victories, joining Michigan, Notre Dame, Texas, Ohio State, Penn State, Alabama and Oklahoma. Nebraska's 835 all-time victories is fourth nationally.

1. Michigan	883
2. Texas	849
3. Notre Dame	841
4. Nebraska	835
5. Ohio State	827
6. Alabama	820
7. Penn State	817
8. Oklahoma	806

Nebraska is in its 121st season of college football, and owns an 835-342-40 all-time record in 1,217 games (.703).

► Since the first season of Nebraska football in 1890, Husker teams have won 11 or more games 12 times, including seven times since 1993.

► Nebraska has won 12 or more games seven times, including three seasons with 13 wins (1971, 1994, 1997).

► NU (702), Michigan (705), Alabama (728) and Notre Dame (736) were the only programs to win 700 games in the 1900s.

NATION'S BEST SINCE '70

Nebraska easily ranks as the nation's winningest program since the start of the 1970s, when Bob Devaney guided NU to back-to-back national titles in 1970 and 1971. During the past four decades, the Huskers have compiled a 401-101-5 record, for a .796 winning percentage in 507 games. NU's 401 wins in that time period are 26 more than any other school since 1970.

1. Nebraska	401
2. Ohio State	375
3. Oklahoma	371
4. Michigan	365
5. Penn State	363

► Nebraska has 37 nine-win seasons and 22 10-win seasons since 1970. Nebraska posted its first 10-win season since 2003 last fall, and has posted back-to-back nine-win seasons for the first time since 2000-2001.

► Nebraska was the first team in college football history to win 100 or more games in consecutive decades, ranking first in the 1980s (103-20) and second in the 1990s (108-16-1). NU narrowly missed 100 wins in the 1970s (98). Nebraska posted 84 wins in the recently completed decade.

NEBRASKA AND KANSAS MEET FOR FINAL TIME AS CONFERENCE RIVALS

Kansas' trip to Memorial Stadium on Saturday will mark the 105th consecutive season the Huskers and Jayhawks have met in football, and the 117th overall meeting.

► The 117 meetings between the two schools makes NU-Kansas the third-longest series in Division I-A, trailing only Minnesota-Wisconsin (119) and KU-Missouri (118).

► Saturday's game marks the 105th straight year the two schools have met, making the NU-KU series the longest continuous series in the country. The schools have met every season since 1906.

With Nebraska's move to the Big Ten in 2011, the continuous series is set to come to an end.

HUSKERS LOOK FOR NINTH WIN FOR THIRD STRAIGHT SEASON

Nebraska comes into Saturday's matchup with Kansas at 8-1 overall and 4-1 in Big 12 Conference play. The Huskers are off to their best start since opening the 2001 season with an 11-0 record. A victory on Saturday over the Jayhawks would give Nebraska nine wins for the third consecutive season under third-year head coach Bo Pelini.

► Nebraska is attempting to win nine games in three straight seasons for the first time since its NCAA record streak of 33 straight nine-win seasons from 1969 to 2001.

► Nebraska was one of only 22 schools to win nine games in both 2008 and 2009. Among those, two have already reached nine wins this season and another five, including NU, have an opportunity to reach nine victories this weekend.

A win on Saturday would give Nebraska its 38th nine-win season in school history.

NEBRASKA PUTTING TOGETHER ANOTHER STRONG SECOND-HALF RUN

A trademark of Bo Pelini's first two Nebraska teams has been steady improvement throughout the season. The 2010 Huskers appear to be continuing that trend with a 3-0 record in the second-half of the regular season and a November victory at Iowa State.

► Nebraska has won six of its final seven games in both 2008 and 2009. The 6-1 second-half records the past two seasons are the school's best seven-game finishes since 1999. Nebraska was one of only 12 teams in the FBS to win at least six of its final seven games last season.

► The Huskers went 5-1 in the first half of the regular season, and 3-0 since the midway point, defeating ranked foes Oklahoma State and Missouri prior to their 31-30 win at Iowa State.

► Nebraska's 3-1 record in October marked the first time since 2003 that NU had just one loss in October.

► Nebraska has won eight straight games in November, since a loss at Oklahoma on Nov. 1, 2008.

Pelini-coached Nebraska teams are 17-7 in games played before Halloween, including 7-5 in October, and 11-2 in games on or after Nov. 1, with the only losses against teams ranked in the top four nationally.

FAST STARTS A KEY FOR HUSKERS

Led by its quick-strike offense, Nebraska has been accustomed to fast starts this season, scoring less than nine minutes into the game in six of nine contests. In its only loss to Texas, NU got off to a slow start with a 10-0 deficit less than seven minutes into the game and the Huskers could not recover.

► The Huskers have scored on their opening possession in eight of their last 11 games, dating back to last season. During the streak, the Huskers have scored six touchdowns (Arizona in 2009 and WKU, UW, KSU, OSU and MU in 2010) and two field goals (Texas in 2009 and Idaho in 2010). On opening possessions this season, NU has scored 38 points, while the opposition has scored just three points on its opening possession.

► The Huskers have been especially fast starters on the road, scoring in the first four minutes of the game six times in the past nine games away from Lincoln. Nebraska also scored less than nine minutes into the game at Kansas State on its first possession.

► Nebraska's 10-0 deficit after the first quarter against Texas ended a streak of 13 straight games in which NU had led or been tied after the first quarter. Nebraska has outscored the opposition 76-30 in the first quarter in 2010. Nebraska opened a 24-0 first-quarter lead against Missouri, including a touchdown on its first offensive play. The Huskers' 24 first-quarter points were their most in the opening quarter since scoring 38 against Baylor in 2000.

► The quick scores have afforded Nebraska the luxury of playing with a lead. In its first five games and the Missouri contest, NU did not trail and was tied at 0-0 for a total of only 38:29. Nebraska trailed for the final 55 minutes against Texas, trailed for just 5:04 at Oklahoma State and trailed for 6:30 at Iowa State.

► Forcing turnovers has also been a key part of the quick starts. In 12 of the past 16 games, NU has forced a first-half turnover. These turnovers have resulted in eight touchdowns and two field goals.

NEBRASKA CHURNING OUT IMPRESSIVE RUSHING NUMBERS

Nebraska finds itself back among the Big 12 and national leaders in rushing offense. Nebraska is averaging 288.1 rushing yards per game to rank first in the Big 12 and sixth nationally in rushing. Nebraska finished seventh in the nation in rushing in 2003, but has not finished higher than 23rd in that category since.

The Huskers opened the season with 289 rushing yards against Western Kentucky and has since topped that total four times. NU picked up 360 rushing yards against Idaho, and 383 yards at Washington. NU saved its most powerful running attack for Big 12 play, racking up 451 rushing yards at Kansas State—its most rushing yards in 109 games. The Huskers churned out 328 rushing yards against Missouri in Lincoln.

► Before its back-to-back 300-yard rushing games in games 2 and 3, NU had not topped 300 rushing yards in consecutive games since late in the 2002 season. NU had five straight 200-yard rushing games to start the season and six overall including the Holiday Bowl, marking the longest streak for the Huskers since also posting six straight 200-yard rushing games during the 2002 season. NU has topped 200 rushing yards in eight of nine games this season.

► Nebraska's 451 rushing yards at Kansas State were its most since posting 641 rushing yards at Baylor in 2001. It also marked just the Huskers' second 400-yard rushing game in the past seven seasons (413 vs. Nevada, 2007).

HUSKERS HAVE RECORD OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION AT KANSAS STATE

Nebraska averaged 11.3 yards per play against Kansas State—a new school record. The Huskers totaled 587 yards on just 52 snaps, an average of 11.288 yards per play, breaking the previous record of 11.286 yards per play at Minnesota in 1983 (790 yards on 70 snaps). Nebraska also nearly broke the single-game yards per rush average at Kansas State. NU averaged 10.74 yards on 42 rushes, just shy of the 10.82 yards per rush at Minnesota in 1983.

ONE-PLAY WONDERS

Nebraska has scored a touchdown on a single play 11 times in 2010. Nebraska has five one-play scoring drives, including four touchdown runs of 58 yards or longer by senior I-back Roy Helu Jr. The Huskers also have six returns for scores, most recently a 29-yard INT return for a touchdown at Iowa State by Austin Cassidy. NU has four interception returns for touchdowns, a kickoff return TD and a punt return. The average length of those 11 plays is 62.5 yards.

► In thrashing Washington and Kansas State away from Lincoln, Nebraska rushed for more than 300 yards in back-to-back road games for the first time since 2001 when NU topped 300 rushing yards in back-to-back games at Missouri and Baylor. NU also topped 200 rushing yards in road wins at Oklahoma State (217) and Iowa State (235).

► Nebraska has produced five of the top 10 team rushing efforts since 2004 in the season's first nine games, including the first, third and fifth-best rushing efforts in that stretch.

► Nebraska had three players crack the century mark in rushing yards at Washington, as Taylor Martinez, Roy Helu Jr. and Rex Burkhead all surpassed 100 yards. The game marked the fifth time in school history Nebraska has had three players reach 100 rushing yards in the same game, and the first time it has happened since four Husker runners topped 100 yards at Baylor in 2001.

► Martinez and Helu Jr. also teamed up to produce double 100-yard rushing games against Idaho and Kansas State. The Idaho game marked the first time since 2006 (Iowa State) NU had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game. Nebraska has now had two players rush for 100 yards in the same game 68 times in school history.

► NU narrowly missed another double 100-yard effort with Burkhead rushing for 129 yards at Iowa State, and Helu Jr. totaling 99 yards.

► Nebraska has 11 100-yard rushing games in 2010 after having just five each of the past two years and six in 2007. The 11 100-yard games are the highest by a Husker squad since the 2001 team posted 16 100-yard rushing outings in 13 games.

► Helu Jr. set a Nebraska school-record with 307 rushing yards in Nebraska's win over Missouri. His rushing yardage topped the previous NCAA single-game high for 2010 by 30 yards.

► Nebraska is averaging a 6.40 yards-per-carry, the third-best average in the country.

► Nebraska has rushed for 2,593 yards in nine games. In 14 games in 2009, NU rushed for 2,059 yards.

HUSKERS SHOWING EXPLOSIVE ABILITY IN ALL PHASES

Nebraska has shown the ability to light up the scoreboard from anywhere on the field in 2010.

Quarterback Taylor Martinez has been the headliner in an offense that has flashed tremendous big-play ability and finds itself averaging 7.05 yards per play, the ninth-best total in the nation. That is just one of several impressive numbers posted by Nebraska in 2010.

► Nebraska has reached the end zone 43 times in nine games. The average length of those 43 touchdown plays has been 35.9 yards, with 23 of those plays covering at least 31 yards.

► Through nine games, Nebraska has 51 offensive plays from scrimmage of at least 20 yards (28 rush, 23 pass). Last season, Nebraska posted 53 scrimmage plays of 20 yards or more in 14 games.

► The Husker offense has found the end zone in five-or-fewer plays on 19 of 36 touchdown drives, including five one-play scoring drives, four two-play scoring drives and four three-play touchdown drives. Sixteen of the 36 drives have taken less than 2:00, including 11 touchdown drives using 1:00 or less, most recently three against Missouri.

► Nebraska has six return TDs this season, including four INT returns, a kickoff return and a punt return. On its five one-play scoring drives and its six return touchdowns, the average length of NU's scores is 62.5 yards.

► Nebraska has 27 TD runs that total 887 yards (32.9 yds per TD), 10 TD passes that total 313 yds (31.3 yds per TD) and 37 TDs from scrimmage for a total of 1,200 yds (32.4 per TD).

► NU's total of 887 yards on 24 TD runs is more yards than 11 FBS teams have in total rushing yards in 2010.

► Nebraska had four scoring plays of 40 yards or more against Idaho, with each of those long scores coming in the second quarter. The four 40+-yard scores marked the first time Nebraska had four touchdowns of at least 40 yards since Nov. 2, 1996 at Oklahoma when NU also had four. Nebraska accomplished the feat for a second time vs. Mizzou, including three runs of at least 53 yards by Roy Helu Jr.

► Nebraska showed its lightning-quick scoring ability in a similar way at Washington. The Huskers opened the game with a two-play scoring drive, then scored three times in a span of less than seven minutes to open the second half, with each of those third-quarter scores covering at least 31 yards.

► Nebraska's offensive display at Kansas State was also remarkable. The Huskers had five touchdowns cover at least 35 yards, including scores of 80, 79 and 68 yards. The 79-yard pass play from Taylor Martinez to Tyler Reed was NU's longest pass play in eight seasons. NU set a school record at KSU by averaging 11.3 yards per play.

► Against Oklahoma State, Nebraska had scoring passes of 45 and 41 yards, and a 100-yard kickoff return.

► Nebraska's average touchdown drive this season lasts 5.4 plays and covers 67.8 yards in 2:12.

► Thirty-one of the 36 TD drives have consumed less than four minutes. The Huskers' longest touchdown drive of the season came on their final scoring drive at Oklahoma State, when they took 6:23 and 12 plays to cover 81 yards. That drive iced the OSU game, and against Missouri, NU killed the final 8:40 on the clock on a non-scoring drive. NU's two regulation TD drives at Iowa State took 12 and 11 plays, respectively.

MARTINEZ MAKING NAME FOR HIMSELF ON NATIONAL LEVEL

Nebraska redshirt freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez is a leading candidate for National Freshman of the Year, and all-conference accolades. Just nine games into his career, Martinez has already made a prominent mark in the NU record book and shown the game-breaking ability that made him the choice in a tight three-quarterback battle for the starting job.

Martinez has accounted for the top five rushing games in school history by a freshman quarterback and four of the top 12 rushing efforts by any NU frosh. He has also accounted for at least 215 yards of total offense six times, while completing 72-of-120 passes and throwing for nine touchdowns.

Martinez's signature performances in the first half of the season came at Kansas State and at Oklahoma State. Martinez set an NU quarterback record with 241 rushing yards and four touchdowns on just 15 carries against the Wildcats. He also set a then-Husker freshman total offense record with 369 yards.

That record lasted less than three weeks, as Martinez accumulated 435 yards of total offense at No. 17 Oklahoma State, including an NU freshman record 323 passing yards, and another 112 rushing yards. In the 51-41 win, he also threw for a freshman-record five touchdowns, the second-most ever by a Nebraska quarterback.

Those explosive efforts are the biggest highlights of Martinez's highlight-filled 2010 campaign:

► Martinez has rushed for 886 yards on 112 carries, an average of 7.9 yards per carry. Martinez has 14 rushes of at least 20 yards, including touchdown runs of 67, 46, 43, 20, 80, 35, 80 and 41 yards. The 80-yard touchdown runs against Washington and Kansas State are the longest ever by a Nebraska freshman and the second-longest in school history by a Husker quarterback, trailing only Eric Crouch's school-record 95-yard TD run at Missouri in 2001. Martinez owns the three longest runs by an NU quarterback in the past nine seasons.

► Martinez averages 98.4 rushing yards per game to rank 22nd in the nation and fifth in the Big 12. He is third among quarterbacks, trailing only Michigan's Denard Robinson and Auburn's Cam Newton. Martinez is second among freshmen nationally in rushing, trailing only San Diego State running back Ronnie Hillman (116.0 ypg). Martinez's game average took a significant hit at ISU when he played in an emergency role and did not have a carry.

► Martinez's 7.91 yards per rush is second among players in the top 100 nationally in rushing.

► Martinez had 127 rushing yards in the opener, the most ever by a Nebraska freshman quarterback, but he has topped that three times since. He had 157 yards on 14 carries against Idaho, 137 yards at Washington, and an NU quarterback record 241 yards at Kansas State. The 241 rushing yards were the second-most ever by an NU freshman, while his 157 yards vs. Idaho were the sixth-most ever for a Husker frosh. The five 100+ outings this season are the top five rushing totals by an NU quarterback in the past eight seasons. His five 100-yard rushing games ties Ahman Green for the Nebraska freshman record, and marks the most for a quarterback since Eric Crouch in 2001.

► In three road games when he has played at quarterback, Martinez has rushed 53 times for 490 yards and seven touchdowns. He averages 9.2 yards per rush away from home and has scored seven touchdowns in 53 carries—one TD every 7.6 carries.

► Martinez's 127 rushing yards against Western Kentucky were the most by an NU quarterback in an opener since Tommie Frazier's 130-yard effort against West Virginia in 1994.

► The three straight 100-yard rushing games to open the year marked the first time a Nebraska quarterback topped the century mark in three straight games since Eric Crouch in 2001. Prior to this season, no NU quarterback had topped the century mark on the ground since Jammal Lord in 2003.

► Martinez has 12 rushing touchdowns, tied for sixth-most in the country. He had three each against Western Kentucky and Washington, and four against Kansas State. Martinez is tied for 41st nationally in scoring, averaging 8.0 points per game. His 12 rushing TDs are the fourth-most ever by a Nebraska freshman, just two shy of the record.

► Martinez's three rushing TDs vs. WKU were the most ever by an NU freshman in a season opener. It marked the second straight season an NU player has rushed for three touchdowns in the season opener.

► Martinez is the first player to have three games with three or more rushing touchdowns in a season since Eric Crouch had four games with at least three touchdowns in 2000. Martinez's effort at KSU also marked the most rushing TDs by a Husker since true freshman I-back David Horne had four rushing touchdowns at Texas A&M in 2002.

► Martinez's two 80-yard rushes are the longest by any Nebraska player since Cory Ross had an 86-yard touchdown run against Missouri in 2004.

► Martinez's 886 rushing yards rank third on the Nebraska freshman season rushing chart, and tops among quarterbacks. Eric Crouch held the previous NU freshman QB record with 459 yards in 1998. Martinez is 114 yards from the second 1,000-yard rushing season by a Nebraska freshman and the fourth 1,000-yard season by a NU quarterback. It would also mark only the third 1,000-yard rushing season in NCAA history by a freshman quarterback. He is 208 yards from the NCAA record for rushing yards by a freshman quarterback (1,093, Brad Smith, Missouri, 2002).

MARTINEZ SHOWS ABILITY TO BEAT YOU WITH HIS ARM

Most of the attention Martinez received through the first six games this season centered on his running ability. That changed at Oklahoma State, when the freshman had easily his most prolific passing day.

In a road victory over the No. 17 Cowboys, Martinez completed 23-of-35 passes for 323 yards and five touchdowns. Coupled with his 112 rushing yards, Martinez had one of the most dynamic games in school history for a quarterback.

► The 435 yards of total offense were an NU freshman record and the third-highest single-game total offense outing in school history.

► His 323 passing yards shattered the previous freshman passing record of 193 yards by Eric Crouch in the 1998 Holiday Bowl. The five touchdowns also broke the frosh TD pass record of three shared by Crouch and Tommie Frazier. The five touchdowns tied for the second-most in school history by any player.

► With 323 passing yards and 112 rushing yards, Martinez became the first Nebraska player to pass for 300 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game. Martinez was also the first to pass for 200 and rush for 100 yards in a game.

His performance at Oklahoma State earned Martinez the Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week and the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week awards.

BACKS MAKING MOST OF TOUCHES

Nebraska quarterbacks and I-backs made the most of their offensive touches this season. The explosive NU offense has averaged just 62.8 plays per game, but plenty of players have taken advantage of their opportunities to post impressive numbers.

Nebraska averaged 8.8 yards per tote in the opener against Western Kentucky, its best since the 2004 opener against Western Illinois when NU averaged 9.3 yards per rush. Nebraska didn't miss a beat against Idaho, again averaging 8.8 yards per attempt with 360 yards on 41 rushing attempts. At Washington, Nebraska totaled 383 yards on 54 carries, an average of 7.1 yards per carry. Those impressive totals were nothing compared to NU's 10.74 yards per rush against Kansas State, just shy of the school record of 10.82 yards per carry set in 1983.

► Martinez has averaged more than 10 yards per rush three times, including 18.1 yards on seven rushes vs. WKU, 11.2 yards per attempt on 14 carries against Idaho, and 16.1 yards on 15 carries at Kansas State. He ranks second in the nation at 7.9 yards per carry.

► Sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead has 102 touches this season, and has accumulated 679 yards, an average of 6.7 yards per touch. He is averaging 6.1 yards on his 93 rushing attempts and 12.1 yards on nine pass receptions. Eight of his touches have covered at least 20 yards.

► Senior I-back Roy Helu Jr. has also made the most of 124 rushing attempts, rolling up 906 yards. Helu Jr. is averaging 7.31 yards per carry to rank fourth nationally. Helu has six touchdown runs of at least 53 yards this season and has 10 rushes of 50 yards or more in his career. His 73-yard touchdown run against Missouri was a career long, bettering his 68-yarder at Kansas State earlier in October.

HELU JR. HAS RECORD-SETTING DAY TO CONTINUE CLIMB UP NU RUSHING CHART

Nebraska I-back Roy Helu Jr. emerged as one of the Big 12's top backs in 2008, and battled through injuries to surpass 1,000 rushing yards last year as a junior. Helu's effort in 2009 earned him second-team All-Big 12 honors and the 6-0, 220-pounder is again producing impressive results in 2010.

Helu Jr. had a record-setting effort in Nebraska's 31-17 victory over Missouri in Lincoln. Helu took the Huskers' first snap from scrimmage and raced 66 yards for a touchdown. That long score was a sign of things to come, as Helu added a career-long 73-yard TD run later in the first quarter and a 53-yarder in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter, he showed the ability to be a workhorse and helped NU run the final 8:40 off the clock. In doing so, Helu Jr. set a Nebraska single-game record with 307 rushing yards on 28 carries. The mark topped the previous Nebraska school-record of 294 rushing yards by Calvin Jones in 1991. Helu Jr.'s rushing total is 21 yards more than any other player in the FBS ranks this season.

Helu Jr.'s effort marked just the third time in the past five seasons a player in the Football Bowl Subdivision has had three touchdown runs of at least 50 yards in a game. Helu also set a Nebraska record for single-game all-purpose yards with 321 against the Tigers.

Helu has posted four 100-yard rushing games in 2010. In addition to his record effort against Mizzou, he has topped the century mark against Idaho, Washington and Kansas State, giving him 11 career 100-yard games. He is just the 15th player in NU history with at least 10 100-yard rushing games. He narrowly missed his fifth 100-yard game of the year with 99 rushing yards at Iowa State. Helu has nine rushing touchdowns this season, including a career-high tying three against Missouri. His 26 career rushing touchdowns make him one of 17 Nebraska players with at least 25 career rushing touchdowns.

The Missouri game was the biggest piece of evidence that Helu's best games seem to come against top competition. He surpassed the century mark against both Virginia Tech and Oklahoma in 2009, including a then-career-high 169 yards against the Hokies. Helu's 81.9 yards per game in 2009 ranked fourth in the Big 12, and his 1,147 rushing yards were the 16th-most in NU history. In 2010, he is averaging 100.7 yards per game to rank fourth in the Big 12 and 17th nationally.

► Helu has 3,065 career rushing yards, and has moved up from 11th to fifth on the NU career rushing effort over the past two weeks. In the Missouri game alone, Helu passed Derek Brown, Cory Ross, Dahrran Diedrick, Lawrence Phillips and I.M. Hipp on the career chart. At Iowa State, he moved in front of Ken Clark and is now just 88 yards from Calvin Jones who sits in fourth place.

► Helu has 906 rushing yards this season, and is bidding to be the first Husker to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons since Calvin Jones in 1992 and 1993.

► Helu has shined against top competition and in road environments. Helu has four 100-yard rushing games in NU's last nine contests against ranked opponents. In 12 road games since the beginning of the 2008 campaign, Helu has rushed for 1,172 yards on 185 carries, 6.3 yards per tote.

► Helu had a Big 12-best 12 runs of 20+ yards in 2009, and 26 rushes of at least 20 yards over his past 25 games.

► Helu had three of the nine 150-yard rushing games by Big 12 players in 2009, and four of the top 13 rushing efforts in the league last season.

BLACKSHIRTS TOUGH AT HOME

Although Nebraska saw its nation-leading streak of 14 consecutive games holding the opponent to 21-or-fewer points snapped on Oct. 23 in Stillwater, the Husker defense has been especially stout at home. Since the start of the 2009 season, Nebraska has allowed only 125 points in 12 home games, an average of only 10.4 points per game.

In their last 12 home games, the Huskers have allowed only 12 touchdowns. The Blackshirts have held eight opponents to 10 points or less during that stretch, including five to a field goal or fewer. Only two teams have scored more than 17 points at Memorial Stadium the past two seasons, and Nebraska lost both of those contests. Texas Tech posted a 31-10 win in Lincoln last season, while Texas handed Nebraska its only loss of 2010, 20-13, two weeks ago.

The Blackshirts have allowed 300 total yards only three times in 12 home games the past two seasons, giving up an average of only 283.8 yards per game. The defense has also forced 25 turnovers in its last 12 games at home.

POINTS DON'T COME EASY

Oklahoma State was the first Nebraska opponent to top 21 points in 15 games, and Nebraska has been remarkably stingy on the scoreboard the past two seasons. The 2009 NU defense led the nation in scoring defense at 10.4 points per game, and held seven foes to single digits and eight teams to 10 or fewer points. Both of those totals led the nation. Nebraska posted two shutouts for the first time since 2003. This season, Nebraska ranks 21st in scoring defense at 19.1 points per game.

► Nebraska's 10.4 points per game allowed last season were the fewest since the 1984 Nebraska defense also led the nation by allowing just 9.5 points per game. NU had not allowed fewer than 15 points per game since 2003.

► NU allowed just 25 trips into the red zone by its opponents, the second-fewest red-zone chances in the nation. Only 11 of those drives ended in touchdowns, and Nebraska's 64 percent rank in red zone defense was the nation's best. Nebraska has allowed 26 red-zone drives in 2010, with 23 resulting in scores (15 TD, 8 FG).

► The Huskers allowed only 10 offensive touchdowns in eight Big 12 games in 2009.

► Nebraska held 13 of 14 opponents to 20 or fewer points last season. To put that accomplishment in perspective, NU held just six opponents to less than 20 points in 2007 and 2008 combined. This season six of nine teams have scored 20 or fewer points.

► Only nine Nebraska opponents have scored as many as 17 points since the start of the 2009 season (23 games). In the past two seasons, Nebraska has allowed 10 or fewer points in 10 games.

BLACKSHIRTS IN THE BACKFIELD

Nebraska's defense has spent a good share of time in the opposing backfield the past two games. The Huskers have set a season high in tackles-for-loss in each of the last two games, totaling nine TFLs against Missouri and at Iowa State.

► The 18 tackles-for-loss over the past two games is a major improvement for a Blackshirt unit that had totaled 22 TFLs through the first seven games and only 12 in the five games leading up to the Missouri contest.

► NU also recorded 8.0 sacks the past two weeks after totaling only 4.0 sacks in its previous five games combined.

NO FREE PASSES

"This is the best pass defense in America."

—Washington Head Coach Steve Sarkisian after Nebraska held the Huskies to just four completions and 71 passing yards

Nebraska led the nation in pass efficiency defense in 2009 and returned eight defensive backs with starting experience this fall, making the Husker secondary one of the most highly regarded in the nation. Through nine games, NU is fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense (95.19 rating) and sixth in passing yards allowed per game (154.1 ypg). The Huskers have caused major problems for opposing passers, including highly rated prospects Nathan Enderle of Idaho, Jake Locker of Washington and Blaine Gabbert of Missouri.

► Nebraska opponents are completing 49.43 percent of their pass attempts, the third-best in the nation. That includes a 4-of-20 effort by Washington's Jake Locker, and a 4-of-16 showing by Texas' Garrett Gilbert. Opponents have thrown for 10 touchdown passes. Last season, NU opponents completed 47.8 percent of their passes (No. 4 in nation), and NU allowed just seven passing TDs (second-fewest nationally).

BLACKSHIRTS KEEPING OPPOSING QUARTERBACKS IN CHECK

Nebraska has yet to allow an opposing player 300 yards of total offense in nine games this season. NU also did not allow a 300-yard total offensive game in 14 games in 2009 and in the final three games of 2008, good for a streak of 26 straight games without allowing an individual 300 yards of total offense. OSU's Brandon Weeden accounted for 273 yards of total offense, but entered the game averaging better than 315 yards per game. Missouri's Blaine Gabbert matched Weeden's total of 273 yards of total offense.

The last opponent individual to gain 300 yards of total offense against Nebraska was Todd Reesing, QB, Kansas, Nov. 8, 2008 (304 passing, 35 rushing – 339 total).

► 2009 marked the first season since 1995, that NU did not allow at least one opposing individual to amass 300 total offense yards in one game during the season.

► The 26-game streak without a 300-yard total offensive effort is the longest stretch without an opposing individual producing a 300-yard total offense game since NU had a 42-game streak – Chad May, K-State, 1993 to James Brown, Texas, Big 12 Championship Game, 1996

TOTAL DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE

Nebraska ranked seventh nationally in total defense at 272.0 yards per game in 2009, its best defensive average since allowing 252.3 yards per game in 1999. This fall, Nebraska is allowing 315.8 yards to rank 23rd in the nation.

► NU held seven straight foes to fewer than 280 total yards in 2009, the longest sub-300-yard streak for an NU defense since 1996. Four of those games were against Big 12 foes, the longest streak by the Blackshirts in league play since 1996.

► NU held 13 of 14 opponents to fewer total offensive yards than their season average in 2009.

► Nebraska has held six of its nine opponents this season to 315 or fewer yards.

THREE TRUE FROSH SEEING ACTION

While redshirt freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez stole the majority of the headlines in the season opener and throughout the season, several other young players have made an impact.

Three true freshmen made their debuts in the opener, including offensive guard Andrew Rodriguez, wide receiver Quincy Enunwa and cornerback Ciante Evans. Rodriguez has played a reserve role throughout the season. Enunwa has one catch for 10 yards and Evans has eight tackles. Evans played a key role against Missouri after Alfonzo Dennard went to the sideline with an injury, and the freshman responded with four tackles and two breakups. He earned his first career start at Iowa State.

Rodriguez is just the eighth true freshman offensive lineman to play at Nebraska and the first since 2006. Rodriguez is the first true freshman offensive lineman to play in a season opener since Tionu Fonoti and John Garrison each appeared in the 1999 season opener against Iowa.

FIRST-TIME STARTERS

Seven NU players made their first career starts against Western Kentucky, most notably redshirt freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez, the first redshirt or true freshman QB ever to start a season opener for Nebraska.

Joining Martinez on offense in making their first starts were center Mike Caputo and left tackle Jeremiah Sirls. Defensively, Nebraska's first-time starters included defensive tackle Baker Steinkuhler, defensive end Cameron Meredith and linebackers Alonzo Whaley and Lavonte David.

David led the defense with 13 total tackles, while Steinkuhler registered an eight-yard sack. Overall, 16 players made their NU debuts in the opener, including starters Martinez, Sirls, Whaley and David. Safety P.J. Smith made his first career start against Idaho and I-back Rex Burkhead and linebacker Eric Martin were in the starting lineup for the first time at Washington. Safeties Austin Cassidy and Courtney Osborne earned their first starts against Missouri, and Ciante Evans started at ISU.

► Nebraska has 15 interceptions this season to tie for sixth in the country. NU had a streak of nine straight games with at least one pick end against Texas. Nebraska has intercepted 5.75 percent of opposing passes, fourth in the nation. Last season, Nebraska tied for seventh in the nation with 20 interceptions.

► Ten of NU's 14 opponents in 2009 completed 50 percent or less of their pass attempts, and five opponents had less than 150 yards passing. NU's 2010 opponents are averaging 154.1 passing yards per game, including five with 135 yards or less. Washington threw for just 71 yards, South Dakota State had 95 yards and Texas threw for only 62 yards. Oklahoma State threw for a season-high 283 yards, but that total was 78 yards fewer than the Cowboys' season average heading into the game.

► Nebraska allowed an average of 178.9 yards per game through the air in 2009, NU's best pass defense since allowing 177.8 yards per game in 2003. If NU were to maintain its 154.1 yard per game pass defense average it would rank as the Huskers' best since allowing 131.0 yards per game in 1990.

► The Huskers' five-interception effort against Idaho was the second time in the past two seasons NU has picked off five passes (also Oklahoma, 2009). Nebraska has intercepted at least two passes in eight of its past 15 games.

► Nebraska returned two interceptions for touchdowns against Idaho, tying a school record that had been accomplished five other times. Both of the pick-six scores came in the second quarter marking the first time NU has ever returned two interceptions for touchdowns in the same quarter.

► Nebraska has added interception returns for touchdowns at Washington and at Iowa State. This season is the first time Nebraska has had four INT returns for a touchdown in a season since 1996, and the four picks for touchdowns matches the combined total of 2008 and 2009. The school record for interceptions for touchdowns is five set in both 1971 and 1995.

PRINCE LEADS A ROYAL NEBRASKA SECONDARY

In 2010 it has been hard to single out one player as the standout in the Nebraska secondary. Every player who has seen extensive action has produced big plays and played key roles in the shutdown ability of the Cornhusker secondary.

Senior cornerback Prince Amukamara was the most recognizable name coming into the season after earning his share of honors last fall and putting his name on many preseason All-America teams. A first-team All-Big 12 pick in 2009, Amukamara is regarded as the cornerstone of a deep and veteran Nebraska secondary.

Amukamara has shown why he earned the preseason hype, but ironically he is the only player among NU's top eight defensive backs who has not picked off a pass in 2010. Despite not picking off a pass, his lockdown ability has been a key part of Nebraska defenders recording 15 picks, including four for scores. His play has helped Amukamara be named one of 10 semifinalists for the Jim Thorpe Award.

Amukamara has made 36 tackles, including a season-high seven at Iowa State. Prince has also posted a team-high 10 pass breakups, including a career-high tying three PBU against Missouri. He had two breakups each against Idaho and Kansas State, and has seven games the past two seasons with multiple pass breakups. His first PBU against the Vandals deflected into the air and was intercepted by P.J. Smith—the first of five NU picks in the game. The 6-1, 205-pounder has 24 career pass breakups, which places him seventh on the Husker career list.

► Amukamara's impact can not be measured only by interceptions, tackles and PBU. Through nine games opponents have targeted Amukamara just 37 times, and completed only 11 passes against the lock-down corner.

► His 10 pass breakups are tied for third in the nation.

BAND OF BLACKSHIRT THIEVES

Amukamara is the highest profile member of the Nebraska secondary, but opposing quarterbacks have found that the football is never safe with the Huskers' ball-hawking secondary crew.

► Fellow cornerback Alfonzo Dennard gives Nebraska two of the nation's top cover corners. Dennard has three interceptions this season, including a 31-yard touchdown return for a score against Washington. He is tied for 30th nationally in interceptions, and also has 16 tackles and six pass breakups. He is tied for 21st nationally in passes defended at 1.13 per game. He missed most of the Missouri game and all of the Iowa State game with an injury.

► Senior safety DeJon Gomes has been a turnover machine during his Nebraska career. Gomes has intercepted six passes in 19 career games, and has also caused five fumbles. Gomes has caused fumbles against Western Kentucky and Kansas State. He also picked off an Idaho pass and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown and added his second pick against Missouri. Gomes ranks second on the team with 73 tackles, including a career-high 12 stops at Kansas State and double-figure tackle totals against Texas and Oklahoma State.

► Senior Eric Hagg is Nebraska's nickel back and has been arguably Nebraska's biggest play-maker on defense in recent weeks. Hagg has a team-leading four interceptions this season, to rank second in the Big 12 and tied for 16th nationally in interceptions. Hagg picked off Washington's first pass attempt of the game, that set up the Huskers' opening score. He also had two breakups against the Huskies and earned Big 12 Co-Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors for his effort at Washington.

NU STREAKS...THE HUSKERS HAVE...

- ▶ won 98 straight when rushing for 400 yards
- ▶ scored in 187 consecutive games
- ▶ scored in 275 straight home games
- ▶ shut out opponents 105 times

Hagg showed his play-making ability against Texas with a 95-yard punt return for a touchdown, the longest punt return in school history on his first career return. Hagg had a season-high eight tackles and an interception at Oklahoma State and seven solo stops and two TFL vs. Missouri. Against Iowa State, Hagg had his fourth pick of the season, and ironically he does not officially receive credit for his most important interception of the year. In overtime, ISU scored to cut NU's lead to 31-30, then faked its PAT attempt, which Hagg alertly intercepted to secure a win. Hagg was chosen as a second-team mid-season All-American by SI.com.

▶ Sophomore safety P.J. Smith has three interceptions to tie for 39th nationally. He also has 37 tackles to rank sixth on the team, including a career-high 11 stops against Texas.

▶ Three new faces excelled in the NU secondary against Missouri. Junior Austin Cassidy and sophomore Courtney Osborne were Nebraska's starting safeties, and performed well with six tackles each. True freshman corner Ciente Evans was called upon when Dennard went out with an injury, and responded with four tackles and two breakups. Cassidy was even better against Iowa State, with a career-high 12 tackles and a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown. He also caused a fumble.

BLACKSHIRTS BOAST AMAZING IMPROVEMENTS OVER PAST TWO SEASONS

Nebraska Head Coach Bo Pelini, defensive coordinator Carl Pelini and a strong defensive staff have led one of the most remarkable turnarounds in college football in recent years. Nebraska was one of the nation's most improved defenses in 2008, finishing second in the Big 12 in total defense just one season after ranking last in the Big 12 and 112th nationally in total defense. As impressive as the progress was in 2008, the Blackshirts made even larger strides as a unit in 2009 and are continuing to be among the nation's best in 2010.

▶ Two seasons after ranking 116th nationally in scoring defense (37.9 ppg), NU led the nation in that category at 10.4 points per game. NU allowed 28.5 points per game in 2008 and its 18.1 ppg improvement last fall easily led the nation. Nebraska's 79-spot move from 80th nationally in total defense in 2008 to first in 2009 was also the nation's best. This season Nebraska is allowing 19.1 ppg.

▶ In two seasons, Nebraska's sack total has increased from 13 to 35 to 44 in 2009. Through nine games this season, NU has 20 sacks, including a seven-sack effort against Idaho and six against Missouri.

▶ Against the run, NU cut its per-game average nearly in half in 2008, then shaved another 23 yards per game off its average allowed in 2009.

▶ Nebraska improved 48 places (55th to 7th) in total defense in 2009, improving from 349.9 yards per game to 272.0 yards per game and the 77.9-yard improvement was the sixth-best in the nation. The Huskers are allowing 315.8 yards per game this season and have held five foes to less than 300 yards.

▶ Nebraska led the nation in pass efficiency defense and finished 18th in passing yards allowed per game, an improvement of 71 places--the fourth-best in the nation. This season, Nebraska is fourth in pass efficiency defense and sixth in passing yards allowed at just 154.1 yards per game.

CRICK LOOKING FOR ANOTHER AWARD-WINNING SEASON

Junior defensive tackle Jared Crick emerged as a standout performer last fall and is the anchor of Nebraska's defensive line in 2010. The 6-6, 285-pound Crick was named the preseason Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and was a first-team preseason All-America choice by numerous outlets. He recently received first-team mid-season All-America honors from Rivals.com, and second-team All-America honors from two other outlets. In late October, Crick was named one of 12 semifinalists for the Rotary Lombardi Award.

Crick has helped set the tone for the 2010 Blackshirts. Crick has 43 tackles, good for fourth on the team and second among linemen, just behind sophomore defensive end Cameron Meredith's 44 tackles. Crick tops the Big 12 in tackles among interior defensive linemen at 4.8 per game.

Crick also leads the Blackshirts with 4.5 sacks, including one each against Oklahoma State and Missouri. His nine tackles for loss lead the team and his eight quarterback hurries rank second.

Crick has pushed his career sack total to 14, just two shy of the Nebraska career top 10. His top game of the 2010 season came against Idaho, when Crick had 2.5 sacks for 30 yards and four tackles for losses, totaling 32 yards, and he had a season-high eight tackles and two TFL in the win over Missouri.

In 2009, Crick pushed Ndamukong Suh for team statistical leads in tackles, sacks and tackles for loss all season. Crick finished with 73 tackles, 15 tackles for loss, 9.5 sacks, 16 quarterback hurries and two fumble recoveries. Crick had one of the most prolific defensive days in school history with a record-setting performance at Baylor.

▶ Crick had a school-record five sacks for 24 yards in the game. His five sacks were the most in a single game by any player in the nation in 2009, just ahead of Suh's 4.5 sacks against Texas.

▶ Crick had seven tackles for loss, tying the NU school record also held by Jim Skow (1985 vs. Missouri) and Suh (2009 vs. Texas). The seven TFLs by Crick and Suh were three more than any other Big 12 player in 2009.

▶ Crick earned Big 12 and national defensive player-of-the-week honors for his performance, before going on to first-team All-Big 12 honors. His 5.2 tackles per game ranked second only to Suh among Big 12 defensive linemen.

NU ADDS TO SEASON-OPENING STREAK

Nebraska extended its season-opening win streak to 25 straight with its 49-10 win over Western Kentucky. The Huskers' streak leads the nation, bettering Florida's 21 straight wins. NU's last loss in a season opener was a 17-13 setback against Florida State at Memorial Stadium in 1985.

► Nebraska has won each of the 25 games by at least 10 points, and has scored at least 40 points in 18 of the 25 games, including each of the last five seasons.

► The Cornhuskers have limited the opponent to 14 points or less 17 times in the winning streak.

► NU has won its three openers under Pelini by at least 23 points, with an average margin of victory of 36.0 points.

NU POSTS WIN NO. 500 IN LINCOLN

Nebraska posted its 500th all-time victory in Lincoln with its 38-17 victory over Idaho in Lincoln on Sept. 11. The Huskers own a 500-137-20 record all-time home record, with 375 of those victories coming at Memorial Stadium.

The 500th home victory put Nebraska in elite company, as only three other schools have recorded 500 home victories in college football history. The Huskers joined Michigan, Ohio State and Tennessee in the club.

NEBRASKA COMPLETES 2010

NON-CONFERENCE PERFECTION

Nebraska' 17-3 win over South Dakota State allowed the Huskers to finish non-league play with a perfect 4-0 mark. It marked just the third perfect non-conference slate for Nebraska since 2002, and the first since 2005.

► With a 4-0 record, Nebraska posted its 29th straight winning non-conference season. That streak dates back to a 2-2 non-league record in 1981. Since 1981, the Huskers have lost either one (12 times) or zero (17 times) non-conference games.

DAVID POSTING IMPRESSIVE TACKLE TOTALS

Nebraska junior linebacker Lavonte David arrived on the Nebraska campus just a few short months ago. But he has proven to be a quick learner and has moved into a leading role on the Nebraska defense. David has a team-high 96 tackles, and his 10.7 tackles per game leads the Big 12 and ranks 11th nationally. He is within 23 tackles of the Nebraska single-season top 10 in tackles. David is also second on the team with seven pass breakups and his eight tackles for loss are second on the team.

The play of the 6-1, 210-pound David has drawn national attention. He was named a first-team midseason All-American by Rivals.com and SI.com, and he is the leading contender for Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year.

► David had a team season-high 19 tackles in the Huskers' victory over South Dakota State. David's tackle total ties for the most in the Big 12 this season, and is the highest for a Nebraska player since Barrett Ruud totaled 19 tackles at Kansas State in 2004. Ruud, a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, is Nebraska's all-time leading tackler.

► The 19 tackles vs. SDSU were not only the best by a Husker in six seasons, but the total also ranked in a tie for the seventh-most tackles in school history.

► David backed that up with 16 tackles at Kansas State, giving him the top two single-game tackle totals for the Huskers in the past six seasons. His effort at Kansas State also earned David Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors. His 35 tackles in back-to-back games are the best for a Husker since Ruud had 36 tackles in back-to-back games against Kansas State and Missouri in 2004.

► David has five games with double-figure tackle totals this season, most recently 10 at Iowa State.

HENERY MAKING A RUN AT NCAA RECORDS

Nebraska place-kicker Alex Henery has been one of the nation's best place-kickers for the past four seasons. However, a closer examination of Henery's amazing kicking numbers reveals that he is one of the best place-kickers in NCAA history.

► Henery has made 88.4 percent of his career field goal attempts (61-of-69). The NCAA record is 87.8 percent by Florida's Bobby Raymond. (min. 45 attempts)

► Henery has made 75.0 percent of his career field goals from 40 yards or longer (21-of-28). The NCAA career record is 72.1 percent by Georgia's Billy Bennet.

► Henery has made 97.6 percent of his career field goals from inside 40 yards (40-of-41). The NCAA career record is 97.0 percent by Florida's Bobby Ramond.

► Henery is tied for the NCAA record with six career games with at least four field goals.

► Henery has combined to make 243 of his 252 career kicks (PATs and field goals), a 96.4 percent accuracy rate. The NCAA FBS career record is 94.9 percent set by Missouri's Jeff Wolfert.

NEBRASKA RECORDS FALLING BY THE WAYSIDE

While Henery has begun to make a push on a few NCAA records, he has already made a significant mark in the Husker record book and figures to make his name even more prominent in the stretch run of his career. In addition to his place-kicking prowess, the senior from Omaha has also emerged as one of the nation's top punters the past two seasons.

Henery was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award in late October, marking his second straight year as a semifinalist. He was also named to the Ray Guy Award Watch List, making Henery the only player in the nation who is both a semifinalist for the Groza Award, and a candidate for the Ray Guy Award.

Henery connected on his only field goal attempt at Iowa State and is now 11-of-12 on the season. Henery connected on his first 10 attempts of the 2010 season, giving him a school-record 18 straight made field goals before he had a 51-yarder blocked against Missouri. The 18 straight field goals made broke Kris Brown's school record of 17 straight. Henery has also increased his career field goal total to 61, four better than Brown's previous school record of 57.

Henery connected on a school-record 24-of-28 field goals in 2009, including three games with at least four field goals. He hit 5-of-5 field goals at Virginia Tech, the second-highest field goal total in school history, trailing only Dale Klein's school-record seven field goals in 1985. He also supplied all the scoring by hitting 4-of-4 field goals in a 13-12 loss to Texas in the Big 12 title game, and finished the year with a perfect 4-of-4 effort against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl.

► Henery has six career games with four or more field goals, an accomplishment that has already tied an NCAA record. He has 14 multiple-FG games in his career, including three in Big 12 Conference play in 2010.

► Henery's 24 field goals in 2009 shattered the school record, and his 61 career made field goals have come on 69 attempts, making him the most accurate kicker in school history.

► Among kickers with at least 50 career attempts, Henery is the most accurate active field goal kicker in the nation. He is also the most accurate kicker in NU history on extra points, hitting 182-of-183 in his career, a 99.5 percent accuracy rate. He has made 105 straight PATs, including perfect PAT seasons as a freshman and junior. He is 43-of-43 in 2010.

► Among Henery's eight career missed field goals, just two have come from inside 50 yards. In fact, Henery had a streak of 25 straight made field goals from inside 50 yards. Henery has also made 16 career field goals from 44 yards or longer. His 52-yard field goal at Oklahoma State tied for the longest ever by a Nebraska player in a road game.

CASSIDY PLACED ON SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraska junior safety Austin Cassidy is the latest Husker to go from walk-on to scholarship player. Cassidy was awarded a scholarship by Head Coach Bo Pelini before the 2010 season. A graduate of Lincoln Southwest High School, Cassidy has been a key performer on NU's special teams in 2008 and 2009. In addition to continuing in that role this fall, the 6-1, 210-pound Cassidy sees action in the secondary, and earned his first career start against Missouri.

Pelini has made the walk-on program a huge priority since taking over the Nebraska program. In his first three recruiting classes, Nebraska has welcomed nearly 70 walk-on players into the Nebraska program.

► Henery became the fifth Nebraska player with at least 300 career points against Idaho. He currently has 365 points to rank third in school history. Henery needs 24 points to set a new career scoring record. Henery is third nationally in scoring among active players.

► Henery scored 110 points in both 2008 and 2009, eighth on the single-season scoring list. His two 110-point seasons trail only Kris Brown (116 in 1997) for season scoring by a kicker. He has 76 points in nine games in 2010.

► Henery averaged 41.4 yards in his first season as Nebraska's starting punter in 2009, making him one of only three players nationally to rank in the top 50 in both field goals and punting average. Henery led the Big 12 with 30 punts downed inside the 20, including an impressive eight inside the three-yard line.

► This season, Henery's punting has been strong and consistent. He is averaging 44.6 yards per punt to rank fourth in the Big 12 and 23rd nationally. He has had 13 kicks downed inside the 20 and 13 punts travel at least 50 yards, including a season-long 69-yarder at Iowa State. Henery has averaged at least 47.0 yards per punt five times in nine games.

PAUL AGAIN SETTING THE TONE FOR RECEIVERS AND RETURN GAME

Wide receiver Niles Paul has been a key figure in Nebraska's receiving corps and return game for each of the past three seasons. A year ago, Paul caught 40 passes for 796 yards and four touchdowns. Paul's receiving yardage total was the fifth-best total in school history and his 19.9 yards per catch led the Big 12 Conference. His per-catch average also ranked third in school history among players with at least 20 receptions and tops among players with 40 catches in a season.

This season, Paul has shown similar all-around skills and leads Nebraska with 28 catches for 384 yards. Paul had the most complete game of his career in Nebraska's 51-41 victory at Oklahoma State. Paul accounted for a career-high 274 all-purpose yards in the game, the sixth-best all-purpose game in school history.

Included in his effort at Oklahoma State was a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, marking the longest for Nebraska in 61 years and tying the second-longest in NU history. Paul also caught a career-high nine passes, tying for the eighth-most catches for a Husker player. His 131 receiving yards marked the fifth 100-yard receiving game of his career and his first in 2010.

► Paul opened the year with 158 all-purpose yards against Western Kentucky, including five receptions for 92 yards and a 33-yard TD grab. He had two catches of at least 20 yards against the Hilltoppers, then led NU with four catches against Idaho. He tied his previous career high with six catches against Texas, and has had at least four catches in seven of 14 games dating back to last season.

► Paul has moved into the top 10 on the Nebraska career receptions chart, and at 92 career catches, he is poised to become just the sixth player in school history with 100 career catches. Paul's 1,400 career receiving yards are seventh in NU history.

In 2009, Paul had an impressive list of accomplishments.

► Paul tied the NU school record in 2009 with four 100-yard receiving games, including three in Big 12 play and against Arizona in the Holiday Bowl. His 154 yards on four catches at Kansas represented the sixth-best receiving day in NU history, while his 143 yards vs. Iowa State ranked ninth.

► Paul earned Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP honors by accounting for 237 all-purpose yards, including 123 receiving yards. He had a career-long 74-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter to cap the scoring in a 33-0 rout.

► Paul had 11 catches of at least 20 yards, with nine of those covering 35 yards or more. His 38.5 yards per catch at Kansas was the second-best single-game effort in the Big 12 in 2009.

► Paul ranked second in the Big 12 in both kickoff return and punt return average in 2009, and his 121.2 all-purpose yards per game ranked ninth in the Big 12.

► Paul became the first Husker since Dana Brinson (1986) to lead Nebraska in receiving, kickoff return yards, punt return yards and all-purpose yards. The only other Huskers in history to lead the Huskers in all four categories in the same season are: Johnny Rodgers (1970, 1971, 1972), Pat Fischer (1958) and Dick Hutton (1946). The only other Husker in history to lead NU in four offense/special teams yardage categories in the same season was Frank Solich (1964 – all-purpose, KOR, PR, rushing).

MCNEILL AND KINNIE ALSO PROVIDE DANGEROUS RECEIVING TARGETS

Senior Mike McNeill has been a fixture in the Nebraska passing game for the past three seasons. He was a prolific pass catching tight end, before the 6-4, 235-pound McNeill moved to wide receiver last spring. He teams with Paul and junior Brandon Kinnie to give Nebraska one of the biggest and most physical receiving corps in the Big 12.

McNeill set a tight end record with 32 catches as a sophomore in 2008, and was second on the team with 28 catches for 259 yards last season. He also tied with Paul for the team lead with four touchdown catches. McNeill averages 17.4 yards per catch on his 11 receptions this season.

► In addition to a tight end position record 32 catches in 2008, McNeill's six touchdown receptions were just one shy of the position record.

► McNeill has 72 career catches to rank in a tie for 11th on the Nebraska career list. McNeill's receptions total represents a Nebraska career tight ends reception record, bettering the 65 by Matt Herian from 2002 to 2006. McNeill is 83 yards from becoming the 19th Husker and fourth NU tight end to reach 1,000 career receiving yards. He snared his 11th career touchdown with a 24-yard grab at Washington, then had a career-long 64-yard reception against South Dakota State.

► McNeill had his best game of 2010 at Oklahoma State, posting a career-high five catches for 61 yards.

Kinnie also made huge strides in the offseason, and that has carried into outstanding play in 2010. Kinnie ranks second on the team with 25 catches for 316 yards and three touchdowns.

HUSKERS PROMINENT ON NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE ROSTERS

Nebraska has a long-standing tradition of placing large numbers of players in the NFL. Nebraska had 26 players on 2010 NFL opening-day rosters and three other players on practice squads. The Huskers are represented on the rosters of 19 NFL teams. Nearly 40 former Huskers were in NFL training camps.

Nebraska owns one of the most impressive histories of any school in producing NFL-caliber players. Since the start of Big 12 play in 1996, Nebraska has led all Big 12 schools with 65 players selected in the NFL Draft. No other conference school has had more than 57 players chosen in that period. The Huskers have been especially impressive on defense, with 43 players chosen since 1997. No other Big 12 school has had more than 30.

Three Huskers were selected in the 2010 NFL Draft, marking the 41st consecutive season at least three Nebraska players were taken in the draft.

► Kinnie posted his first three career touchdown receptions at Oklahoma State, including a 45-yard catch and run to open the scoring in the first quarter. Kinnie's three TD catches tied a school record, accomplished nine previous times in NU history.

The Oklahoma State game was not the only 2010 highlight for Kinnie. He opened the year with a career-high six receptions and 59 yards against Western Kentucky. He excelled against Washington with five receptions for a career-high 105 yards. He totaled 180 all-purpose yards, adding 75 yards on kickoff returns.

Sophomore tight end Kyler Reed has supplied a big-play threat in recent weeks. Reed has 10 catches for 277 yards this season, an impressive 27.7-yard per catch average. Reed has four touchdown receptions, with each of those covering at least 33 yards.

Behind its big-play receiving corps, Nebraska is averaging 14.8 yards per completion this season, a mark that ranks eighth in the country.

ROAD WARRIORS

Nebraska has found its four trips away from Lincoln in 2010 to its liking. Nebraska's 31-30 overtime thriller at Iowa State marked the Huskers' eighth straight road victory. Each of the first seven wins in Nebraska's current road win streak were by at least eight points. The winning streak is Nebraska's longest on the road since winning 10 straight road games from 1996 to 1998. The Huskers' last road loss was a 16-15 setback at Virginia Tech last season.

Nebraska has also won its last eight Big 12 road games, NU's longest streak since winning its first eight league road games when the Big 12 was formed in 1996 and 1997. Nebraska won 19 straight league road games from 1992 to 1997 (Big Eight and Big 12). The 4-0 record in Big 12 road games in 2009 was the first for Nebraska since 1997.

► Nebraska was one of just 13 teams nationally to own a perfect conference road record in 2009.

► Nebraska is 9-2 on the road in Big 12 play under Bo Pelini, with both losses against top-10 teams.

NU KEEPING THE OPPOSING SCOREBOARD OPERATOR BUSY

Nebraska scored at least 48 points in each of its first three road games this season, before scoring 31 in an overtime victory at Iowa State. Nebraska's road scoring effort is among the best in school history and has left the Huskers with a perfect 4-0 mark away from Lincoln.

► Nebraska has scored 186 points in its four road games this season, after scoring 121 points in five road games a year ago. The 186 points fell just shy of the most points NU has ever scored in four consecutive road games (199 in 1995).

► The Huskers are averaging 46.5 points per game on the road. The school record is 49.8 points per game in 1995.

► Nebraska has scored 40 points on the road three times in 2010. In the eight previous years, the Huskers scored 40 points in only two road games.

► The Huskers scored 45 points in three consecutive road games for the first time in school history.

NU KNOCKS OFF BACK-TO-BACK RANKED UNBEATENS

Nebraska defeated seventh-ranked Missouri, 31-17, on Oct. 30 in Lincoln, a week after it went on the road and defeated an unbeaten and 17th-ranked Oklahoma State team, 51-41.

► The wins over Oklahoma State and Missouri marked the first time Nebraska has defeated ranked opponents in consecutive games since defeating No. 25 Missouri (34-20) and No. 24 Texas A&M (28-27) in 2006. Prior to this season, the last time Nebraska defeated a pair of teams ranked 20th or higher in consecutive games at the end of the 1999 season when NU knocked off No. 12 Texas in the Big 12 title game and sixth-ranked Tennessee in the Fiesta Bowl.

► The win over No. 7 Missouri was the highest ranked team NU had defeated since a win over No. 2 Oklahoma in 2001 in Lincoln. It also marked the first time NU had defeated a top-10 team since that 2001 game against OU, ending a streak of 12 straight losses against top-10 teams.

► The win at 17th-ranked Oklahoma State represented the highest ranked team NU had defeated on the road since a 27-14 win at No. 2 Washington in September of 1997.

► Nebraska is 5-2 against ranked teams since the start of the 2009 season. The Huskers were 3-2 against ranked teams in 2009, and are 2-0 this season. The Huskers' three wins against ranked teams last year marked its most wins over ranked teams since four wins over ranked foes during a 12-1 campaign in 1999.

► Nebraska's win at Oklahoma State was its third win over a ranked team away from home in the past two seasons, including the win at Missouri last year and a victory over No. 22 Arizona in the Holiday Bowl.

► Before the 2009 and 2010 seasons, NU last posted multiple wins over ranked teams in back-to-back seasons in 2000 and 2001. Nebraska won at least two games against ranked teams in 11 straight seasons from 1991 to 2001.

► In five Big 12 games, NU has defeated three teams that entered the contest unbeaten (KSU, OSU, MU). Before its wins over Oklahoma State and Missouri, NU last defeated a pair of unbeaten teams that late in the season in 1995 when NU knocked off 6-0 Kansas State on Oct. 21 and 12-0 Florida in the Fiesta Bowl to close the year.

1970 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM REUNITED

More than 50 members of the first Nebraska national championship team were together again in Lincoln on Oct. 15-16 for the 40th anniversary of the championship. The group had a private dinner on Friday evening and were honored on the field at halftime of the Nebraska-Texas game.

The 1970 team won the first of Nebraska's five national championships. Led by Coach Bob Devaney, the Huskers finished 11-0-1, and captured the Associated Press title.

Despite an undefeated record, Nebraska needed to win its bowl game and have both Texas and Ohio State lose to jump from third to first in the Associated Press poll. The Huskers took care of business with a 17-12 win over LSU in the Orange Bowl and both the Longhorns and Buckeyes lost their bowl games, allowing Nebraska to move to the No. 1 spot and claim its first-ever national title.

The Huskers shared the crown that season with Texas, who was the No. 1 team in the United Press International (UPI) poll. That final poll was voted on before the bowl season, when the undefeated Longhorns fell to No. 6 Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl.

NEBRASKA CRACKS TOP 10 IN AVERAGE HOME ATTENDANCE

Nebraska ranked 10th nationally and second among Big 12 schools in average attendance in 2009. Nebraska averaged a school-record 85,888 fans for seven home games, including a school-record 86,304 fans against Louisiana-Lafayette. Five Big 12 teams ranked in the top 30 nationally in attendance, led by fourth-ranked Texas (101,175 fans per game).

This season Nebraska is averaging 85,683 fans for its first five home games.

LOFTY RANKINGS

Nebraska finished the 2009 season with its highest post-season ranking (No. 14 in both polls) since the 2001 season. The Huskers also started the 2010 season in its best poll position in several seasons.

► The Huskers were No. 8 in the preseason Associated Press Poll and were ranked ninth in the first USA Today Coaches Poll. The rankings represent NU's highest starting position since opening at No. 4 in the AP poll in 2001.

► Nebraska's No. 8 preseason ranking was the first time in the top 10 at any point since being ranked 10th by the AP in October of 2003 following a 5-0 start to the season.

► NU was ranked fifth in the Oct. 10 AP poll and fourth in the coaches poll, Nebraska's highest rankings since entering the 2002 Rose Bowl against Miami ranked fourth in the nation. The Huskers moved back into the top 10 in both polls following the win over Missouri on Oct. 30. The Huskers are eighth (coaches) and ninth (AP) in this week's polls.

► Nebraska has received first-place votes in the coaches poll two separate weeks this season, the first time since 2001 that NU has received a first-place vote in either poll.

NEBRASKA HOPING TO CONTINUE FOURTH-QUARTER EXCELLENCE

Nebraska has been among the nation's best fourth-quarter teams each of the past two seasons. In 2008, NU ranked second nationally in fourth-quarter points scored (155) and fourth-quarter point differential (+103).

The 2009 season was no different as NU outscored the opposition 96-32, with the 32 points allowed tying Alabama for the lowest in the nation. The 64-point differential in the fourth quarter was the fourth-best nationally.

► The fourth-quarter highlight in 2009 was at No. 24 Missouri. NU trailed 12-0 entering the fourth quarter, before scoring 27 unanswered points. The rally from a 12-point fourth-quarter deficit tied a school record, and the 27 points were the most by NU in any quarter since the 2004 season opener, and the most in the fourth quarter since 2001.

► NU allowed nine Big 12 opponents just 23 fourth-quarter points and held eight foes without a fourth-quarter point.

► Nebraska outscored its opponents 154-55 in the second half in 2009. The 55 second-half points were the fewest allowed by any team in the nation.

► Under Bo Pelini, Nebraska is 27-2 when leading at any point in the fourth quarter. The lone losses were one-point setbacks against Virginia Tech and Texas in 2009.

This season, Nebraska has allowed 42 fourth-quarter points, while scoring 51 of its own.

INJURY BUG HITS HUSKERS DURING FALL CAMP

Nebraska endured more than its share of injuries during fall camp, with two returning starters sidelined for the entire season and two others lost for a significant amount of time.

► Senior offensive lineman Mike Smith suffered a leg injury during the first week of fall camp that will sideline the Las Vegas native for the season. Smith was Nebraska's starting left tackle each of the past two seasons, collecting 26 career starts. Smith was set to play a key role on the line this fall, with the ability to possibly serve as a key backup at tackle, guard or even center.

► Sophomore linebacker Sean Fisher also suffered a season-ending leg injury during fall camp. Fisher started six games as a redshirt freshman last fall, and was expected to be among the Huskers' top linebackers in 2010.

► Sophomore linebacker Will Compton joined Fisher on the sidelines when he suffered a foot injury in practice on Sept. 2, just two days before the opener. Compton has since returned, seeing action in the past four games.

► Senior tight end Dreu Young underwent back surgery in late August and has not returned to the practice field. Young also battled back issues during his junior campaign.

► Junior reserve cornerback Anthony Blue suffered his second knee injury in the past 2 1/2 years during fall camp and will be sidelined for the year. Blue was expected to be among Nebraska's top reserves at corner, and was also one of the Huskers' top special teams performers last season.

Aside from those injuries, Nebraska made it through the first half of its schedule relatively healthy, but that has changed in recent weeks. Against Missouri, quarterback Taylor Martinez injured an ankle and missed the second half of that contest and the Iowa State game. Adding to Nebraska's quarterback issue is the sore hand of backup quarterback Zac Lee. Alfonzo Dennard, one of the nation's top cornerbacks, suffered a concussion against Missouri in the first quarter and has been out of action since.

NCAA RECORD SELLOUT STREAK

One of the most remarkable streaks in collegiate sports reached another milestone on Sept. 26, 2009, against Louisiana-Lafayette when Nebraska celebrated the 300th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium. A stadium record crowd of 86,304 fans were on hand for the historic event, and the streak is at 310 games (including Kansas) and is expected to reach 311 by season's end. The sellout streak dates back to Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney's first year in 1962 (vs. Missouri on Nov. 3). Notre Dame is second in all-time consecutive sellouts with 220, 90 fewer than Nebraska.

NU OWNS DOMINANT ADVANTAGE AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

Nebraska has rewarded the loyalty of its fans with incredible success at Memorial Stadium through the years.

► Nebraska has won at least six home games in 19 of the past 23 seasons. Nebraska is 133-19 at home in the last 22 seasons (since 1989). Wins its final two home games would give Nebraska 6-1 home mark in 2010.

► During Nebraska's run of success at home in the past 25 years, NU has had three home winning streaks of 20 or more games, and overall has posted 40 unbeaten and untied home seasons.

► The Huskers are 502-138-20 (.775, 660 games, 121 years) in Lincoln, and 377-115-13 (.759, 505 games, 88 years) in Memorial Stadium (since 1923). Nebraska has had 42 straight winning home seasons, including 2010.

NEBRASKA AMONG LEADERS IN ASSOCIATED PRESS NATIONAL TITLES

Notre Dame leads the nation by winning eight Associated Press national titles since 1936, with Oklahoma (7), Alabama (6), Miami (5), USC (5), Nebraska (4) and Minnesota (4) next in line. While the Huskers were awarded the national title by the coaches in 1997, NU finished second to Michigan in the AP poll.

In 1970, Nebraska was awarded the AP national title, but not the coaches (Texas was first, Ohio State second and NU third) as the final poll was released before the bowl games were played. In the coaches poll (since 1950), Nebraska is tied for fourth with Miami and Texas with four titles, behind Alabama and Oklahoma with six apiece, and USC with five.

CONFERENCE CROWNS

Nebraska returned to the Big 12 Championship Game in 2009, making its fifth appearance in the contest.

The Huskers played in three of the first four Big 12 title games. Nebraska is one of three teams to capture two or more Big 12 titles, joining Oklahoma with six and Texas with three. Kansas State, Texas A&M and Colorado each captured one Big 12 crown. Oklahoma leads the way with seven Big 12 title game appearances, followed by Nebraska and Texas with five each. Nebraska and Texas' meeting in the title game was the third meeting between the two schools in the game, the most played matchup in Big 12 Championship history.

The Huskers have won 43 football conference championships overall, including eight under Coach Bob Devaney and 13 under Coach Tom Osborne. Oklahoma has won 37 conference championships to rank second behind NU among league schools.

MEMORIAL STADIUM EXPANSION FOR 2013 APPROVED

The Nebraska Board of Regents approved an expansion plan for the east side of Memorial Stadium, which will increase Memorial Stadium's attendance to more than 90,000. NU plans to expand Memorial Stadium by adding approximately 5,000 new seats, which will include between 2,000 and 2,250 new club seats, approximately 400 to 500 seats within approximately 30 new indoor/outdoor suites, and approximately 2,500 to 2,800 new general seats, including additional seating for disabled patrons. Each new seating area would include dedicated restrooms and concessions areas. A new grand lobby, expanded concourse, and additional first-aid areas would also be added. No current East Stadium seats will be removed and no season ticket holders will be required to relocate their seats as part of this project.

The proposed height of the new addition to be constructed above and around the current east balcony will be similar to the West Stadium, completed in 1999. Within the six proposed levels of the new East Stadium building, approximately 40,000 square feet of interior shell space will also be created. Athletics will retain approximately 20,000 of the undeveloped space for future growth, and as part of a unique partnership between athletics and UNL Research, will allocate approximately 20,000 square feet for future office and laboratory space for research at UNL.

The total projected cost of the project is $55.5 million. The proposal calls for $40.5 million to come from private donations and the remaining $15 million from bond revenues. Approximately $7 million in new revenue is expected to be generated annually from the new seating. These additional revenues will be used to pay off the bonds.

Construction could begin in November of 2011 and be complete by the fall of 2013.

NEBRASKA SET FOR MOVE TO BIG TEN IN 2011

June 11, 2010 was a historic day for the University of Nebraska, as NU was admitted to the Big Ten Conference as the 12th member of the nation's oldest conference. The Cornhuskers will begin play in the Big Ten in 2011-12.

The Huskers have a long history of meeting Big Ten opponents on the gridiron, compiling an 81-68-10 all-time record against the league's other 11 members. Nebraska most recently met a Big Ten opponent in a 32-28 victory over Michigan in the 2005 Alamo Bowl. NU's last regular-season matchup with a Big Ten opponent was a home-and-home series in 2002 and 2003 with Penn State. The schools split the two games, each winning at home.

The Big Ten Conference announced its divisional alignment on Sept. 1. The Huskers will compete in a football division with Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota and Northwestern. The other division is comprised of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio State, Penn State, Purdue and Wisconsin. Nebraska's first Big Ten game will be at Wisconsin on Oct. 1, 2011, with its first Big Ten home game against Ohio State on Oct. 8, 2011.

HUSKERS COMPETE IN FINAL SEASON IN BIG 12 CONFERENCE

With Nebraska's move to the Big Ten on the horizon, 2010 marks Nebraska's final season of action in the Big 12. The conference has been NU's home since 1996 and the Huskers have had their share of football success in the league. Nebraska has played in the Big 12 Championship Game five times, including the 2009 title game at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. Nebraska has captured Big 12 titles in 1997 and 1999. The Huskers must win two of their final three games to clinch a sixth appearance in the conference championship game.

► Nebraska's five Big 12 Championship Game appearances are tied for second among all Big 12 schools along with Texas, trailing only Oklahoma's seven Big 12 Championship Game appearances.

► Nebraska has squared off against three conference foes more than 100 times, including 116 meetings with Kansas, 105 with Iowa State and 104 with Missouri.

► Nebraska and Kansas will meet for the 105th consecutive season in 2010, which is currently the nation's longest uninterrupted streak. Overall, the 116 meetings are the third most of any series in the country.

► Nebraska will play its final Big 12 Conference game against Colorado on Friday, Nov. 26. The 2010 season will mark the 15th straight year the Big 12 North schools have met on the day after Thanksgiving and the 21st straight year Nebraska has played on that date, meeting Oklahoma six consecutive years from 1990 to 1995.

SEEING DOUBLE

The 2010 Nebraska roster includes three sets of twins and five total sets of brothers. Courtney and Steven Osborne of Garland, Texas, signed with the Huskers in 2008 and enter their third season in the program—Courtney as a safety and Steven at wide receiver. Colin and Conor McDermott walked on to Nebraska from Omaha Creighton Prep high school and will both be sophomore defensive ends this fall. Jake and Spencer Long also hail from Omaha (Elkhorn High School) and are in their second season in the program. Jake lines up at tight end, while Spencer is an offensive lineman.

In addition to the three sets of twins, Nebraska also has another set of brothers on the roster—Ben and Jake Cotton. The Cottons are the sons of Nebraska associate head coach Barney Cotton, and senior defensive back Adam Watson is the son of offensive coordinator Shawn Watson. In addition, walk-on freshman offensive lineman Mark Pelini is the nephew of Bo and Carl Pelini.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL—A FAMILY AFFAIR

The Cotton family is one of just several father-son combinations who have played for Nebraska represented on the 2010 Cornhusker roster. Barney lettered at Nebraska in 1976-78, while Ben is a sophomore tight end and Jake is a freshman defensive lineman.

Other current Nebraska players whose fathers also played at NU include DB Joey Felici (Tony, 1980-82), LB Sean Fisher (Todd, 1983), DE Andy Gdowski (Tom, 1980-82), WR KC Hyland (John, 1970-72), DB Brent Moravec (Mark, 1980-82), DE Jay Martin (Bob, 1973-75), C Cole Pensick (Dan, 1977-79), LB Colby Starkebaum (John, 1972-74) and DT Baker Steinkuhler (Dean, 1981-83).

CAPUTO PRESENTED WITH JAKE YOUNG MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraska junior center Mike Caputo was presented with the Jake Young Memorial Endowed Scholarship before the Idaho game. The scholarship is awarded to a varsity football student-athlete who demonstrates a high level of athletic and academic achievement and effective leadership skills. The scholarship honors the former Nebraska All-America and Academic All-America center who was killed in a terrorist attack in Bali in October of 2002.

Caputo, a graduate of Millard North High School, has moved into the role of starting center this fall. He was Nebraska's No. 2 center each of the past two seasons. Originally a walk-on Caputo was presented a scholarship before the start of the 2009 season.

CRICK EARNS BERRINGER SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraska junior defensive tackle Jared Crick was presented with the Brook Berringer Memorial Endowed Scholarship before the Western Kentucky game. The scholarship was endowed in the memory of former NU quarterback Brook Berringer who died in a plane crash on April 18, 1996. Criteria for the scholarship includes the following: football student-athlete; involved in community service with high ideals, excellent character and integrity.

A native of Cozad, Neb., Crick has excelled on and off the field during his time with the Cornhuskers. Crick was a first-team all-conference selection last season during a breakout sophomore season. Off the field, Crick was named to the 2010 Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his work in the community. Crick has volunteered on team hospital visits, as a speaker at elementary schools and during a World War II veterans visit.

FISHER PRESENTED SULLIVAN SCHOLARSHIP

Nebraska sophomore linebacker Sean Fisher was presented the George Finley Sullivan Endowed Scholarship before the start of the South Dakota State game. "Sully" as many call him is admired by hundreds of former Husker student-athletes and taped thousands of ankles while serving as Nebraska's head trainer from 1977 to 1995, and as an Assistant Athletic Trainer and Head Physical Therapist from 1953 to 1977.

The scholarship was fully endowed in Sullivan's honor in 2008 by the Touchdown Club of Nebraska, Inc., and many former Husker student-athletes graciously contributed to the fund. The scholarship will be presented annually to a "Nebraska varsity football student-athlete who has demonstrated a high level of athletic and academic achievement, with a strong commitment to community, effective leadership skills, a high degree of integrity, and commitment to excellence in all endeavors." Preference is given to student-athletes who intend to pursue a career in a health-related field.

Fisher suffered an injury during the fall camp and is out for the season, but was a key member of NU's defense in 2009. Fisher carries a 4.0 cumulative grade-point average in business administration.

NFL HAS LARGE INFLUENCE ON NEBRASKA ROSTER

Several players also have family connections with the National Football League. Barney Cotton logged four seasons in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals and St. Louis Cardinals from 1979 to 1982. Other players whose fathers played in the NFL include Anthony Blue (Anthony, Sr., Seattle, 1987), Zac Lee (Bob, Minnesota, Atlanta, L.A. Rams, 1969-80), Jay Martin (Bob, N.Y. Jets, San Francisco, 1976-79), Baker Steinkuhler (Dean, Houston, 1984-91), Anthony West (Robert, Kansas City, San Francisco, 1972-74) and Lester Ward (Lester, Sr., Dallas).

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL CONTINUES TO WIN IN THE CLASSROOM

Nebraska football has long been one of the nation's most successful programs on the field. Success in the classroom is also a cornerstone of the Nebraska football program.

CASSIDY NAMED TO ESPN ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT 7 TEAM

Nebraska junior safety Austin Cassidy was named to the ESPN Academic All-District 7 team last week. Cassidy carries a 3.88 cumulative grade-point average in psychology, and was named to the all-district team for the second straight year. Cassidy's selection to the academic all-district team places him on the ESPN Academic All-America ballot. The academic All-America team will be announced on Tuesday, Nov. 23.

NATION-LEADING TOTAL OF COSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

Seniors Todd Peterson and Tyler Wortman were selected as second-team ESPN the Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in 2008. The selection of Peterson and Wortman gave NU a nation-leading total of 98 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in football. Nebraska also leads the nation in academic All-Americans with 277 academic All-Americans across all teams and all sports entering the 2010-11 academic year.

NU AMONG LEADERS IN ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 SELECTIONS

Nebraska had 22 players named to the 2009 academic All-Big 12 team, including 15 first-team selections, and seven second-team honorees. Nebraska's 22 honorees were the second-highest total in the Big 12 Conference.

The group was highlighted by defensive back Austin Cassidy and linebacker Sean Fisher, who were each nominated with a 4.0 grade-point average. Fisher has a perfect cumulative grade-point average, while Cassidy earned a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in the two previous semesters. Fisher and Cassidy were two of just three student-athletes in the Big 12 Conference nominated with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average.

SENIOR CLASS IN STRONG ACADEMIC STANDING

Nebraska's 23-player senior class includes six players playing the 2010 season as graduate students. Among those, defensive end Tyrone Fahie graduated in December of 2009 in just 3 ½ years, while offensive lineman D.J. Jones, quarterback Zac Lee and defensive back Anthony West picked up their degrees in May. Tight end Mike McNeill and offensive lineman Mike Smith joined the group in summer commencement exercises.

► Another nine seniors are expected to complete their degree work in the fall, giving the Huskers 15 graduates in time for the bowl game. All but one member of the senior class are expected to complete their degrees by the end of the 2011 spring semester.

► Among Bo Pelini's first three senior classes, 52 of 57 players are on track to earn their degree by next August.

NEBRASKA POSTS IMPRESSIVE EXHAUSTED ELIGIBILITY GRADUATION RATES

Nebraska athletic teams continue to graduate student-athletes at an impressive rate. Nebraska led the Big 12 in exhausted eligibility graduation rates for seven straight years before the NCAA chose not to calculate the rate in 2010. Nebraska however has increased its exhausted eligibility grad rate to an impressive 95 percent.

The exhausted eligibility rate surveys the graduation rate of scholarship student-athletes in 10 incoming freshman classes who complete their eligibility at the university. Nebraska's exhausted eligibility rate has improved 23 percentage points since the inception of the rate in 1991-92.

Game 1 | Nebraska 49, Western Kentucky 10

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
Western Kentucky	0	0	3	7	10
No. 8 Nebraska	14	7	14	14	49

Lincoln (Sept. 4) --- Redshirt freshman quarterback Taylor Martinez made an impressive college debut, rushing for 127 yards and three touchdowns to help No. 8 Nebraska to a 49-10 victory over Western Kentucky.

Martinez, who became the first Husker freshman quarterback to ever start a season opener, made his presence known quickly, racing 46 yards on his first career carry to give NU a 7-0 lead just 3:37 into the game. Martinez also completed all four of his first-quarter pass attempts for 59 yards to help NU to a quick 14-0 lead. After Cody Green led the Huskers on a successful second-quarter scoring drive to put Nebraska up 21-0 at the half, Martinez found the end zone again on the first drive of the second half, scampering the final 19 yards on a four-play, 68-yard drive to extend NU's lead to 28-0. Martinez, who averaged better than 18 yards per carry, produced the most rushing yards by an NU quarterback in a season opener since Tommie Frazier rushed for 130 yards against West Virginia in 1994, and became the first Husker quarterback to rush for over 100 yards since 2003. In addition to his impressive rushing numbers, Martinez completed 9-of-15 passes for 136 yards and did not commit a turnover. While Martinez took center stage as the starter, Green was also impressive, completing 5-of-6 passes for 66 yards while leading the Huskers on a pair of scoring drives, including a 33-yard touchdown strike to Niles Paul.

Paul finished with five catches for 92 yards and a score, while adding one carry for eight yards. He also returned three punts for 58 yards to close the night with 158 all-purpose yards. Brandon Kinnie also enjoyed a big night for NU, hauling in a career-high six catches for 59 yards, while sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead added a pair of catches for 47 yards while rushing five times for 57 yards.

Nebraska's big-play offense amassed 536 total yards on just 58 plays, an average of 9.2 yards per play. The Huskers rolled for 289 rushing yards and six touchdowns, while 11 different Huskers had at least one tote on the night. In addition to the three rushing touchdowns from Martinez and one each from Helu and Burkhead, Austin Jones closed the scoring with his first career touchdown on a five-yard burst in the fourth quarter.

Western Kentucky managed 299 total yards on 62 plays against the Blackshirt defense.

Game 2 | Nebraska 38, Idaho 17

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
Idaho	0	3	7	7	17
No. 6 Nebraska	3	28	7	0	38

Lincoln (Sept. 11) --- No. 6 Nebraska showed its explosiveness on both sides of the ball, scoring 28 unanswered points in a span of 8:15 midway through the second quarter to help bolt to a 31-0 lead and cruise to a 38-17 victory over Idaho.

Quarterback Taylor Martinez (67) and I-back Roy Helu Jr. (58) scored on back-to-back runs of more than 55 yards to give NU a 14-0 lead. The Blackshirt defensive backs then got into the action with back-to-back interception returns for scores from both DeJon Gomes (40) and Rickey Thenarse (47). Nebraska's four consecutive scoring plays of 40 or more yards marked the first time since 1996 that the Big Red scored on four plays of 40 or more yards in the same game.

The 31-point cushion was more than enough for a Blackshirt defense that intercepted five passes, recorded seven sacks and recovered a fumble on the afternoon. The Blackshirts held a high-powered Idaho offense to just 279 total yards, while the NU offense rolled up 471 total yards, including 360 rushing yards on 41 carries. It was NU's highest rushing total since a season-opening win over Nevada in 2007.

Martinez led the punishing Husker ground game with 157 yards and two touchdowns on just 14 carries. It was the second straight 100-yard rushing effort by the redshirt freshman quarterback. His second quarter 67-yard touchdown run was the longest run ever by a Husker freshman quarterback, surpassing a 59-yard run by former NU Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch against UAB in 1998.

Martinez was joined across the century mark by Helu, who rushed for 107 yards on just nine carries, including his 58-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead nearly gave the Huskers a third back in the 100-yard club, rushing for 77 yards on just nine carries.

Defensively, Gomes led the Huskers with a career-best 10 tackles and a pass breakup along with his interception return for a score, while Jared Crick had 2.5 sacks for 30 yards as part of a four tackles-for-loss afternoon. Fellow defensive tackle Baker Steinkuhler added 1.5 sacks for 14 yards lost, while Terrence Moore, Lavonte David and Pierre Allen each recorded sacks for the Huskers.

Game 3 | Nebraska 56, Washington 21

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
No. 8 Nebraska	14	14	21	7	56
Washington	7	7	7	0	21

Seattle, Wash. (Sept. 18)---No. 8 Nebraska jumped to a 14-0 lead after just five offensive plays, then scored two more touchdowns on the Huskers' first five offensive plays of the second half on the way to a 56-21 victory.

Nebraska, which improved to 3-0 for the second time in three seasons under Bo Pelini, rolled up 533 yards of total offense, including 383 on the ground. The Husker trio of Taylor Martinez (137 yards, 3 TD, 19 carries), Roy Helu Jr. (110 yards, 2 TD, 10 carries) and Rex Burkhead (104 yards, TD, 13 carries) combined for Nebraska's fifth triple-100-yard game in school history and first since 2001.

The 56 points scored by Nebraska equaled the most points scored by a Washington opponent in Seattle.

Martinez became just the second quarterback in NU history to record three straight 100-yard rushing performances, joining Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch. Martinez's eight rushing touchdowns already rank fourth all-time among all Husker freshmen.

The Huskers needed just two offensive plays to get on the scoreboard after Eric Hagg's interception, as Martinez found Mike McNeill for a 24-yard touchdown. Martinez completed 7-of-11 passes for 150 yards and a score. On NU's second drive, it took the Huskers just three plays to cover 73 yards, after a 55-yard pass play from Martinez to Brandon Kinnie put NU at the 1-yard line before Martinez scored on the next play. It was the first of five receptions for 105 yards on the day for Kinnie, who registered the first 100-yard receiving day of his career.

After Washington closed to within 21-14, Kinnie set up NU's next scoring drive with a return to the UW 48-yard line, setting up a short field for Helu, who went the last eight yards to put Nebraska up 28-14. Kinnie finished with 180 all-purpose yards.

Nebraska used a pair of big plays to break open the game, as Martinez raced 80 yards for a touchdown on NU's first offensive play of the second half before Helu went a career-long 65 yards for a score on NU's fifth play of the second half to give the Huskers a commanding 21-point lead.

Alfonzo Dennard got the Blackshirts on the board midway through the third quarter, intercepting a Jake Locker pass and racing 31 yards to make it 49-21. The interception capped a strong defensive performance by the Blackshirts, who surrendered just 246 total yards to the Huskies, including just 71 passing and 175 on the ground. The Huskers held Locker to just 4-of-20 passing on the afternoon, the worst performance of his career.

Lincoln, Neb. (Sept. 25)--- In a game dominated by the defenses, No. 6 Nebraska survived a spirited effort by visiting South Dakota State for a 17-3 homecoming night victory.

Just days after Blackshirts were handed out to Nebraska's top-unit defenders, Lavonte David notched one of the best tackle efforts in school history. The 6-1, 210-pound junior linebacker from Miami, Fla., registered 19 tackles to tie for seventh on NU's all-time list, while adding a pair of pass breakups.

In addition to David's career tackle performance, Alfonzo Dennard and P.J. Smith both notched their third interceptions of the season to help hold the Jackrabbits to just 236 yards of total offense. Rickey Thenarse pitched in 10 tackles for NU, while DeJon Gomes added nine stops, as Nebraska has limited all four foes to under 300 yards of total offense.

The Huskers (4-0) would get all the offense they needed in a two-series stretch in the second quarter, scoring 14 points in a span of 4:15 to take control of the contest. After a scoreless first quarter, Nebraska went 96 yards on six plays to get on the scoreboard, as Taylor Martinez found Mike McNeill for a career-long 64-yard reception down to the SDSU 3. Rex Burkhead put the Huskers on the board with a three-yard run on the next play to give NU a 7-0 lead with 14:31 left in the half. The Blackshirts forced a three-and-out on SDSU's ensuing drive, and Martinez and the Husker offense went to work again. This time, Martinez hit Tyler Reed for a career-long 33-yard reception for Reed's first career touchdown.

Martinez led NU with 75 rushing yards on 13 carries, while completing 6-of-14 passes for 140 yards and one touchdown. Sophomore I-back Rex Burkhead added 14 carries for 66 yards and NU's first touchdown, while Roy Helu Jr. contributed 59 yards on 19 carries. Brandon Kinnie led the NU receivers with three catches for 34 yards, while Mike McNeill added a career-long 64-yard reception to set up Burkhead's touchdown.

SDSU quarterback Thomas O'Brien completed just 12-of-28 passes for 95 yards while throwing a pair of fourth-quarter interceptions, as the Blackshirts preserved the victory by forcing a pair of turnovers and stopping the Jackrabbits on downs at the NU 37.

Game 5 | Nebraska 48, Kansas State 13

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL
No. 7 Nebraska	7	10	21	10	48
Kansas State	0	3	3	7	13

Manhattan, Kan. (Oct. 7) -- Taylor Martinez produced the best rushing performance by a quarterback in Nebraska football history as the No. 7 Cornhuskers sprinted past previously unbeaten Kansas State, 48-13.

Playing in front of 51,015 fans and an ESPN primetime national audience, Martinez became just the second Big Red signal-caller to rush for more than 200 yards in a game, joining Jammal Lord who accomplished the feat twice in 2002. Martinez passed the 200-yard mark on NU's opening drive of the second half with an 80-yard touchdown run, staking the Huskers to a 24-3 lead.

Martinez finished the night with the eighth-best rushing total in school history, racking up 241 yards on just 15 carries, surpassing Lord's quarterback rushing mark of 234 yards against Texas in 2002. Martinez had touchdown runs of 13, 35, 80 and 41 yards, while also completing 5-of-7 passes for 128 yards and a score.

Martinez set up his fellow Huskers for big plays as the game progressed. On NU's next play from scrimmage after Martinez's 80-yard burst, he handed off to Roy Helu Jr. and the senior I-back exploded for a career-long 68-yard touchdown run. Helu notched his 10th career 100-yard effort, finishing with 110 yards on just eight carries. After KSU cut the lead to 31-6 with a 48-yard field goal, Martinez then froze the Wildcat secondary on a play-action fake and connected with Tyler Reed on a career-long 79-yard touchdown strike before scoring on a 41-yard run with 12:21 remaining to make it 45-6.

While the Huskers' explosive offense left the purple pride black and blue, Nebraska's Blackshirts continued to deliver solid defensive football for four quarters. NU stretched its streak to eight straight quarters without allowing a touchdown before KSU got a fourth-quarter score to break the streak. Junior linebacker Lavonte David led the Blackshirts with 16 tackles, including 10 solos and two tackles for loss with one seven-yard sack. David helped keep KSU star running back Daniel Thomas in check. Thomas notched 63 yards on 22 carries, while adding 36 receiving yards on eight catches. Overall, he totaled 99 yards on 30 touches. DeJon Gomes added 12 tackles, including a TFL and a forced fumble, while Eric Hagg contributed an interception for the Blackshirts to produce the game's lone turnover. The Huskers finished with six tackles for loss and two sacks.

Lincoln, Neb. (Oct. 16) -- No. 5 Nebraska's high-powered offense was unable to get rolling, as Texas knocked off the Huskers, 20-13 at Memorial Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Playing in front of an NCAA-record 308th consecutive sellout at Memorial Stadium and an ABC television audience, Nebraska (5-1, 1-1 Big 12) was held to just 202 yards of offense, less than half of the Huskers' season average of 494.4 yards per game that NU had averaged in its first five contests. Texas (4-2, 2-1) held NU to 125 yards on the ground, limiting Taylor Martinez to just 21 rushing yards on 13 carries. Martinez also completed just 4-of-12 passes for 63 yards.

The Longhorns had some help from the Huskers in containment. Nebraska receivers and backs dropped numerous passes on the day, including multiple passes that appeared to be headed for touchdowns. The Huskers also fumbled five times, although NU lost just one fumble, it was a costly one by Roy Helu Jr. that led to a Texas touchdown. The miscue spotted Texas a 10-0 lead after Garrett Gilbert's three-yard run with 8:06 left in the first quarter.

Nebraska responded with a 12-play, 54-yard drive that resulted in a 45-yard field goal by Alex Henery with 14:09 left in the first half, to cut UT's edge to 10-3, but the Longhorns went 78 yards on seven plays for their best drive of the day. Gilbert's second touchdown, a 1-yard run with 8:44 left in the half, made it 17-3.

After Texas extended its lead to 20-3, Zac Lee came off the bench to drive the Huskers 83 yards before Henery's second field goal, this one from 28 yards, made it 20-6. NU had a chance to pull closer in the fourth quarter, but a dropped pass prevented a potential Husker touchdown. The Husker special teams brought the crowd to life, as senior Eric Hagg fielded a pooch punt and weaved 95 yards to paydirt for the longest punt return in Husker history. That pulled Nebraska within 20-13 with 3:02 left, but the Huskers would not get closer, as Texas recovered an on-side kick and ran out the clock.

Nebraska's defense kept the Huskers within striking distance despite facing a short field for Texas on many occasions throughout the day. DeJon Gomes and P.J. Smith each notched 11 tackles, while Lavonte David added 10 stops, as NU held Texas to just 271 total yards. Gilbert and the Longhorns were held to only 62 yards passing, the lowest total by Texas team since 1983.

Stillwater, Okla. (Oct. 23) -- Nebraska used the arm and legs of Taylor Martinez and big special teams plays from Alex Henery and Niles Paul to down previously unbeaten No. 17 Oklahoma State, 51-41.

Nebraska amassed 542 total yards, including a career-high and NU freshman record 435 total offense yards from Martinez that included 323 passing yards and five passing touchdowns. He completed 23-of-35 passes, including three scoring tosses to Brandon Kinzie. Martinez's day also included 112 yards on 19 carries, becoming the first Husker in history to pass for 300 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game.

Paul was Martinez's favorite target, as the senior hauled in a career-high nine receptions for 131 yards. Paul also returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter, his third return for a score in his career and the longest Husker kickoff return since 1949.

Henery connected on all three of his field goal attempts, including a 52-yarder, averaged 50.3 yards on three punts and came up with an early spark for NU, racing 27 yards on a fake punt for a first down on the Huskers' first drive of the day. The run set up Martinez's 45-yard touchdown pass to Kinzie to give NU an early lead, as Kinzie finished the day with three receptions -- all for scores -- for 62 yards.

The high-powered Cowboy offense cut NU's edge to 7-6 with 6:40 left in the opening quarter, but Paul raced the length of field on the ensuing kickoff to give NU a 14-6 lead at the end of the first quarter. OSU eventually took a 27-24 lead, but Martinez led NU on a scoring drive in the final minutes of the half, finding Kinzie for the second time to give the Huskers a 31-27 halftime lead. Henery capped NU's 10-play opening drive of the second half with a 32-yard field goal to move the Nebraska margin to 34-27 and give him a school-record 58th career field goal. The Blackshirts held on their first defensive possession of the second half, and Martinez capitalized by connecting with Tyler Reed on a 41-yard touchdown pass with 6:35 left in the third quarter to make it 41-27.

OSU pulled to within 44-34, but NU put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter, going 81 yards in 12 plays, capped by Kinzie's third TD of the day, an 8-yard pass from Martinez with 6:23 remaining.

No. 14 Nebraska	24	0	7	0	31

Lincoln, Neb. (Oct. 30) -- Behind a school-record performance by I-back Roy Helu Jr., No. 14 Nebraska took control of the Big 12 North Division with a 31-17 win over No. 7 Missouri at Memorial Stadium.

Helu paced the Big Red attack, rushing for a school record 307 yards and three touchdowns on a career-high matching 28 carries, scoring on touchdown runs of 66, 73 and 53 yards. His huge day eclipsed the previous Nebraska rushing mark set by Calvin Jones with 294 yards against Kansas on Nov. 9, 1991. It was Helu's 11th career 100-yard effort, and first 200-yard game of his career. His previous career high came with 169 yards on 28 carries against Virginia Tech in 2009. It also marked the first 300-yard rushing game in the FBS in 2010.

Helu and the Huskers wasted little time making a statement against the previously unbeaten Tigers. After the Blackshirts forced a three-and-out on Mizzou's opening series, Helu got an explosive block from tight end Ben Cotton and sprinted 66 yards untouched into the end zone to give the Huskers a 7-0 lead just over one minute into the game. The Blackshirts shut down the Tiger offense again on the second drive, Taylor Martinez moved the Huskers 41 yards on seven plays before Alex Henery booted his school-record 18th consecutive field from 42 yards out to give NU a 10-0 lead. On NU's next possession, Martinez capped the Huskers' third scoring drive with a 40-yard touchdown pass to tight end Tyler Reed to give NU a 17-0 lead before Helu capped NU's first-quarter eruption with a career-long 73 yard touchdown gallop to spot the hosts a 24-0 lead just 13 minutes into the game.

Helu's opening statement helped the Huskers put up 24 points in the first quarter against the previously unbeaten Tigers, as the Huskers improved to 7-1 on the season and 3-1 in the Big 12. It was NU's most first-quarter points since 2001, while giving the Huskers their first win over a top-10 team since 2001. Martinez completed 6-of-9 passes for 115 yards and a score while playing just the first half, as NU put up 454 yards on the day.

Missouri, which trailed 24-7 at the half, eventually pulled to within 24-14 in the third quarter after a Blaine Gabbert touchdown pass to T.J. Moe, but Helu gave NU all the breathing room they needed, going 53 yards for his third score of the day on NU's second offensive play on the next series to make it 31-14.

The Blackshirts held a high-powered Missouri offense to just 341 total yards, including limiting Gabbert to a season-low 199 yards on 18-of-42 passing with one touchdown and one interception. The Huskers sacked Gabbert a season-high six times and hurried him seven more, while also notching six breakups. Entering the game, the Tigers were averaging 424.9 total yards per game, including 286.4 passing yards. MU was also averaging 34.7 points per contest.

Ames, Iowa (Nov. 6)— Rex Burkhead rushed for a career-high 129 yards and two scores, while Eric Hagg's interception of Iowa State's two-point conversion attempt in overtime preserved No. 9 Nebraska's 31-30 victory over Iowa State.

Burkhead gave the Huskers a 31-24 lead, scoring from 19 yards out on Nebraska's second play in overtime, capping an afternoon where he rushed 20 times for 129 yards and two touchdowns.

Iowa State (5-5, 3-3 Big 12) came back on its first overtime possession, scoring on Jake Williams' nine-yard pass from Austen Arnaud to pull the Cyclones within 31-30. ISU lined up for the extra point, but holder Daniel Kuehl took the snap and lofted the fake into the end zone to Collin Franklin, but Hagg, who set up an earlier touchdown with a third-quarter interception, snuffed out the play and preserved the win for Nebraska (8-1, 4-1 Big 12), which took control of the Big 12 North with its win.

The overtime heroics capped a gutsy effort by the Huskers, who were without their two most experienced quarterbacks in a hostile road environment. Cody Green turned in a solid effort in his first start of the season, completing 7-of-12 passes for 79 yards, while helping Nebraska churn out 235 rushing yards against ISU.

Burkhead did a majority of the damage, as he handled duties in the Huskers' wildcat offense, as his season-long 29-yard run set up Nebraska's first score, a six-yard run Roy Helu Jr. Iowa State would come back with 10 unanswered points, getting a TD pass from Arnaud to Jake Williams to tie the score before a Husker fumble by Helu led to a 57-yard field goal by Grant Mahoney, putting ISU ahead 10-7 at halftime.

The Huskers seemingly took control of the game in the third quarter, scoring 17 points to take a 24-10 lead. Green engineered a 12-play, 55-yard drive that culminated with Alex Henery's 25-yard field goal to tie the game with 9:25 left in the third quarter.

Less than a minute later, the Blackshirts got on the board. Safety Austin Cassidy picked off an Arnaud pass and returned it 29 yards for a touchdown to give Nebraska a 17-10 lead with 8:42 left in the quarter. Cassidy had a career high 12 tackles, including seven solos and forced a fumble. The Blackshirts forced another turnover on ISU's next possession, as Hagg made a leaping interception of an Arnaud pass at the NU 44. The Huskers capitalized on an 11-play, 56-yard drive culminating on Burkhead's first touchdown of the day, a two-yard run to give NU a 14-point lead.

The scrappy Cyclones fought back, as Arnaud led ISU on a 13-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to trim NU's lead to 24-17 with 11:29 left. After a fumble by Niles Paul on the ensuing kickoff, the Cyclones capitalized, as Arnaud threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Alexander Robinson to tie the game.

In addition to Cassidy's big day on defense for the Big Red, Cameron Meredith notched a career-high 10 tackles including two tackles for loss and a sack while Lavonte David added another double-figure tackle effort with 10 of his own, including a TFL.
