Sept. 5 | 12 p.m. ET | Memorial Stadium | Lincoln, NE. | FS1

THE OPENING KICK

The Ohio football program is set to open the 2026 season in Lincoln, Nebraska, taking on the Nebraska Cornhuskers on Saturday, Sept. 5. Kickoff is set for 11 a.m. ET at Memorial Stadium, with the game airing on FS1.

The Bobcats' matchup can also be heard on the Ohio Sports Network from Learfield, presented by Holzer Health System. Veteran Ohio radio personality Marty Bannister is reprising his role as Ohio's play-by-play broadcaster. Bannister will be joined by color analyst Rob Cornelius, who has been a part of the broadcasts for more than two decades.

Bowl Season radio will be on site as well. Brian Estridge, Elvis Gallegos and Chris Mycoskie are set to cover the 2025 Frisco Bowl and can be heard on Sirius XM and the Varsity Network.

SERIES HISTORY VS. NEBRASKA

This matchup marks the Bobcats and the Cornhuskers' first time meeting.

SCOUTING NEBRASKA

The Cornhuskers finished the 2025 season with a 7-6 overall record, including a 3-6 mark in Big Ten play.

Nebraska averaged 23.5 points per game last season, with 154.5 rushing yards and 218.8 passing yards per game. The Cornhuskers closed the 2025 season with a 24-20 loss to Northwestern in the GameAbove Sports Bowl.

The Cornhuskers will be led by junior quarterback Anthony Colandrea, who was recently named Nebraska's starting quarterback for the 2026 season. Colandrea transferred to Nebraska after spending the 2025 season at UNLV, where he was named Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year and earned First Team All-Mountain West honors. In 2025, Colandrea threw for 3,459 yards and 23 touchdowns.

The Bobcats are familiar with Nebraska quarterback Anthony Colandrea, who faced Ohio last season as the starting quarterback for UNLV in the Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl. Ohio held Colandrea to 19-of-30 passing for 184 yards and one interception, while limiting the Rebels to just 10 points in a 17-10 Bobcat victory. Colandrea did add a two-yard rushing touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Protecting junior quarterback Anthony Colandrea will be senior center Justin Evans, who leads an experienced Nebraska offensive line with 31 career starts and 38 appearances as a Husker. Evans started all 13 games at center in 2025, helping pave the way for Emmett Johnson to earn first-team All-America honors and Big Ten Running Back of the Year. He also helped Nebraska produce 728 total yards against Akron, the eighth-highest single-game total in program history.

Junior wide receiver Jacory Barney Jr. returns as one of Nebraska's top offensive weapons after a standout 2025 season. Barney hauled in 45 passes for 484 yards and five touchdowns while also ranking 13th nationally in punt return average (12.2 yards per return) and 15th in combined kick return yards (545). A third-team All-Big Ten selection as a returner, Barney enters his junior season with 100 career receptions after tying Nebraska's freshman record with 55 catches in 2024.

On the defensive side of the ball, transfer junior linebacker Owen Chambliss leads the way with 110 tackles, including 9.5 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks, after a standout 2025 season at San Diego State. Chambliss was also named First Team All-Mountain West and helped anchor an Aztec defense that ranked 12th nationally in total defense and seventh in scoring defense.

After a breakout season in 2025, Rex Guthrie will be a key piece of the Nebraska defense in 2026. Guthrie played in all 13 games with eight starts, recording 63 tackles, 2.0 tackles for loss and a pass breakup. His 63 tackles were the second-most by a Husker freshman since 1972, as he helped anchor a Nebraska secondary that ranked third nationally in pass defense.

Junior defensive back Donovan Jones will be a key piece of Nebraska's secondary after a strong 2025 season. Jones recorded 59 tackles and tied for the team lead with five pass breakups, including two in a game against USC, while helping the Huskers rank third nationally in pass defense.

Senior place-kicker Kyle Cunanan returns as a reliable weapon for the Nebraska special teams unit after a strong 2025 season. Cunanan connected on 16-of-19 field-goal attempts and was perfect on all 45 extra-point attempts, leading the Huskers with 93 points. He also hit a career-long 52-yard field goal in the season opener against Cincinnati and converted three field goals against Iowa.

with a 9-4 overall record and a 6-2 mark in Mid-American Conference play, closing the year with wins over Buffalo and UNLV. Ohio averaged 27.8 points and 411.5 yards of total offense per game, including 227.4 rushing yards per game, while the defense held opponents to 21.9 points and 352.1 yards per game. Parker Navarro led the offense with 2,375 passing yards and 14 touchdowns, while Ohio's rushing attack totaled 2,956 yards and 32 touchdowns on the season.

Heading into 2026, the Bobcats will look to replace several key contributors from last season, including Navarro and other senior leaders from both sides of the ball. Despite the departures, Ohio returns a strong core and will look to build on a 2025 campaign that ended with a three-game winning streak and a 17-10 victory over UNLV in the Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl.

SCOUTING OHIO

After losing wide receiver Chase Hendricks, the Bobcats will be looking for returners such as Dom Dorwart and Eian Pugh to lead the offense. Dorwart appeared in all 13 games with seven starts, catching 11 passes for 119 yards, while Pugh made one start in five appearances with 75 receiving yards.

Leading the Bobcats on defense will be redshirt junior DJ Walker, who started all 13 games and captained the 2025 squad. Walker recorded 61 tackles, including 37 solo stops and six tackles for loss, two interceptions and one pass breakup last season. His first interception came in a win against Bowling Green (Sept. 27) before adding another in the Scooters Coffee Frisco Bowl against UNLV on Dec. 23. Walker enters 2026 following a standout junior campaign that earned him Preseason First Team All-MAC recognition, as well as spots on the 2026 Paycom Jim Thorpe Award and Chuck Bednarik Award Preseason Watch Lists. He was the lone Mid-American Conference representative on both watch lists.

The Ohio linebacker room is returning Michael Molnar, Charlie Christopher and Jack Fries. The three standouts made a combined 21 starts last season at the heart of the Bobcats' defense. Molnar started eight games and finished with 73 tackles, including 25 solo stops, 5.5 for a loss and 1.5 sacks. He recorded his first sack against West Virginia in the home opener (Sept. 6) and earned MAC Defensive Player of the Week honors following the win.

Christopher appeared in all 13 games as a true freshman, totaling 63 tackles, 3.5 tackles for a loss and 1.5 sacks. Additionally, Christopher broke up two passes with one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

Fries returns for his fifth season with the Bobcats after a strong 2025 campaign. Fries appeared in eight games last season and record 54 total tackles, including three tackles for loss and 25 solo stops. Fries first career interception came against UMass and posted a career-high 11 tackles against Western Michigan. Fries will serve as a captain for Hauser's first season at the helm.

On the defensive line, Ohio returns senior Nehemiah Dukes, who started all 13 games during his first season with the Bobcats in 2025. Dukes registered 30 tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack, recording his first sack as a Bobcat in the home opener against West Virginia (Sept. 6).

NOTABLE NEWCOMERS

To bolster an offense that returns several key contributors, Ohio welcomes a talented group of newcomers led by quarterbacks Matt Vezza and Levi Davis, along with running back Victor Rosa and offensive lineman CJ Dawson.

Vezza arrives in Athens after a standout 2025 season at New Hampshire, where he earned All-CAA Third Team honors. The dual-threat quarterback completed 226 passes for 2,673 yards and 19 touchdowns while adding 601 rushing yards and eight scores on the ground. He accounted for 27 total touchdowns and recorded five passing touchdowns in a victory over Bryant.

Davis joins the Bobcats following a decorated high school career at Olentangy Orange. A Mr. Ohio Football finalist, Davis was named both the OHSAA Central District and Ohio Capital Conference Player of the Year in 2025. Entering his final high school game, he amassed 7,292 passing yards, 3,108 rushing yards and 94 total touchdowns while helping lead Olentangy Orange to multiple OCC Central League championships.

Ohio also added experience to its running back room with the addition of Rosa from UConn. Rosa led the Huskies in rushing as a true freshman in 2022, totaling 636 yards and 11 touchdowns, before posting another productive campaign in 2023 with 550 rushing yards and three scores. Over four seasons with the Huskies, Rosa accumulated 1,413 rushing yards, 17 total touchdowns and nearly 2,000 all-purpose yards. He was also recognized as the 2021 Connecticut Gatorade Player of the Year coming out of Bristol Central High School.

On the offensive line, Dawson is expected to add valuable experience after spending the last two seasons at Gardner-Webb. Dawson appeared in 24 games over the past two years and earned All-Big South Honorable Mention recognition in 2025. He helped anchor an offense that averaged 417.8 total yards and 179 rushing yards per game last season, providing Ohio with another proven veteran presence in the trenches.

Ohio's defense has been one of the top units in the Mid-American Conference over the last three seasons and will look to continue that success under head coach John Hauser. To help strengthen an already talented defense, the Bobcats added several experienced transfers led by Holy Cross defensive back Eli Thompson, Chattanooga defensive back KJ Sejour and Michigan State transfer Tyler Gillison.

Thompson arrives in Athens after earning All-Patriot League Second Team honors in 2025. The defensive back recorded 85 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss, four interceptions and a forced fumble last season. Thompson also proved to be a playmaker with the ball in his hands, returning two interceptions for 98 yards against Georgetown and adding a 27-yard interception return touchdown against New Hampshire. Over three seasons at Holy Cross, he tallied seven career interceptions.

Joining Thompson in the secondary is Sejour, who appeared in 12 games for Chattanooga in 2025. Sejour recorded 41 tackles, 11 pass breakups and an interception while helping bolster the Mocs' defensive backfield. A former three-star recruit, Sejour helped lead Chaminade-Madonna College Preparatory to four state championships during his high school career.

The Bobcats also added experience to the front seven with the addition of Gillison. After spending time at Cincinnati and Michigan State, Gillison brings Power Four and Big 12 experience to Ohio's defense. During the 2023 season at Cincinnati, he appeared in 10 games and recorded 15 tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss. Coming out of Pickerington Central, Gillison was one of Ohio's top recruits and earned Division I All-Ohio First Team honors after recording 66 tackles, six sacks and two interceptions as a senior.

second-longest active bowl win streak. They trail Minnesota, who've won nine consecutive bowl games.

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

The Bobcats have gone 40-14 in the past four seasons. The 40-win stretch is the most successful four-year run in program history, surpassing the previous standard of 38 victories set from 2009-12 under head coach Frank Solich. During the current run, Ohio captured the 2024 Mid-American Conference Championship and extended its bowl winning streak to seven consecutive games.

Ohio's success over the last four seasons has established one of the most consistent periods in program history, highlighted by three double-digit win campaigns, a conference championship and the second-longest active bowl winning streak.

HAUSER NAMED HEAD COACH

John Hauser enters his first full season as Ohio's head coach after being named the program's 31st head coach on Dec. 26, 2025. Hauser joined Ohio in 2022 after serving as the co-defensive coordinator at Miami (Ohio) for eight seasons. He was promoted to defensive passing game coordinator in 2023, defensive coordinator prior to the 2024 season and associate head coach before the 2024 StaffDNA Cure Bowl.

In his first game at the helm, Hauser guided the Bobcats to a 17-10 victory over UNLV in the 2025 Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl, extending Ohio's bowl winning streak to seven games. The victory also secured the program's 40th win over the previous four seasons, marking the most successful four-year stretch in school history.

Under Hauser's leadership, Ohio's defense has developed into one of the premier units in the Mid-American Conference. During the 2024 regular season, the Bobcats led the MAC and ranked fifth nationally in rushing defense, allowing just 94.3 yards per game. Ohio also led the conference and ranked 11th nationally in scoring defense, surrendering only 17.46 points per contest, while finishing eighth in the nation in total defense at 295.2 yards allowed per game.

The 2024 campaign was highlighted by Ohio's MAC Championship run, culminating in a 38-3 victory over Miami (Ohio). The Bobcats held the RedHawks without a touchdown, marking the first time a team failed to score a touchdown in a MAC Championship Game while helping Ohio secure its first conference title since 1968.

In 2023, Hauser's defense finished fourth nationally in total defense and played a major role in Ohio's 10-win season. The Bobcats held Iowa State to seven points, limited Western Michigan to its lowest rushing output of the season and forced a program bowl-record five turnovers in a 41-21 victory over Georgia Southern in the Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Prior to Ohio, Hauser spent eight seasons at Miami (Ohio), where he helped develop MAC Defensive Player of the Year Quinten Rollins, a second-round NFL Draft selection by the Green Bay Packers. He also spent time at The Citadel, Wayne State and Northern Illinois, where he coached under MAC Hall of Fame coach Joe Novak.

DEFEND THE FRANK

Since the Ohio football program dedicated its home field to former head coach Frank Solich (Aug. 18, 2022), the Bobcats have been almost unbeatable at home.

Boasting a 23-1 record, the only opponent to leave Athens victorious is rival Miami (Ohio) in 2023. The RedHawks weren't able to extend their regular season winning-streak against Ohio, falling 24-20 during the pair's 2025 midweek matchup (Nov. 4).

Notably, Ohio defeated two Power 4 opponents in that time. The Bobcats defeated Iowa State, 10-7, in 2023 and took down West Virginia, 17-10, in front of a record crowd during the 2025 home opener (Sept. 6).

Ohio currently claims the second-longest active home winning streak in Division I FBS football (13 games), second only to Indiana (15 games).

PACKED PEDEN

Ohio's Sept. 6 victory over WVU was historic in more ways than one. Not only did the victory mark the second Power 4 team the Bobcats have defeated in Athens in the past three years, but it also marked a new attendance record. The game's 26,740 fans marked the highest attendance in Peden's history, surging past the previous top two attendance numbers from 2012 (25,893 fans; Sept. 8, 2012, and 25,542 fans; Oct. 13, 2012). The last time an attendance number made it into the top 20 was the 2022 Homecoming game (Oct. 8) against Akron (23,108 fans).

WALKER EARNS PRESEASON RECOGNITION

Safety DJ Walker was featured on multiple preseason watch lists, earning recognition on the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award Preseason Watch List, the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team Nominee List and the Chuck Bednarik Award Preseason Watch List.

Walker captained the 2025 squad, starting all 13 games for the Bobcats. He tallied 61 tackles, including 37 solo stops and six tackles for loss. On the season, Walker recorded two interceptions and one pass breakup. His first interception came against Bowling Green (Sept. 27), while his second came against UNLV in Ohio's Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl victory (Dec. 23).

Walker was the lone Mid-American Conference representative on both the Jim Thorpe Award and Chuck Bednarik Award preseason watch lists.

ATHLON SPORTS PRESEASON ALL-MAC TEAM

The Ohio football program landed eight student-athletes on the 2026 Athlon Sports Preseason All-MAC Team.

Redshirt junior safety DJ Walker earned First Team honors, while redshirt senior linebacker Michael Molnar was named to the Second Team. Molnar started eight games in 2025 and recorded 73 tackles, including 5.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks.

Ohio placed four student-athletes on the Third Team. Junior running back Duncan Brune and senior offensive lineman CJ Dawson II represented the offense, while senior defensive lineman Nehemiah Dukes and sophomore linebacker Charlie Christopher represented the defense. Brune rushed for 585 yards and eight touchdowns in 2025, while Christopher recorded 63 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks as a true freshman. Dukes started all 13 games and posted 30 tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack. Dawson II joined the Bobcats after appearing in 24 games at Gardner-Webb and earning All-Big South Honorable Mention recognition.

Redshirt senior linebacker Jack Fries and junior defensive back Eli Thompson rounded out Ohio's selections with Fourth Team honors. Fries recorded 54 tackles and an interception in 2025, while Thompson arrives in Athens after totaling 85 tackles and four interceptions at Holy Cross last season.

PHIL STEELE'S PRESEASON ALL-MAC TEAM

The Ohio football program landed eight student-athletes on Phil Steele's 2026 Preseason All-MAC Team.

Redshirt junior safety DJ Walker earned Preseason First Team honors. Walker captained the 2025 squad, starting all 13 games while recording 61 tackles, including 37 solo stops and six tackles for loss. He also registered two interceptions and one pass breakup during the season.

Ohio placed four student-athletes on the Preseason Second Team. Junior running back Duncan Brune, senior defensive lineman Nehemiah Dukes and redshirt senior linebacker Michael Molnar were recognized on defense, while Brune represented the offense. Brune rushed for 585 yards and eight touchdowns in 2025, Dukes started all 13 games and recorded 30 tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack, while Molnar totaled 73 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks.

2026 TEAM CAPTAINS
TEAM CAPTAINS
Head coach John Hauser announced graduate student quarterback Nick Poulos, redshirt junior safety DJ Walker, redshirt senior linebacker Jack Fries and junior running back Duncan Brune as captains for the 2026 season.

The quartet combines for 44 games started and more than 2,400 career snaps in an Ohio uniform. Walker returns as a captain for the second consecutive season after serving in the role during Ohio's 2025 campaign, while Poulos, Fries and Brune will serve as captains for the first time in their careers.

Poulos enters his third season with the Bobcats after appearing in 12 games over the last two years. The graduate student quarterback made his first career start against Kentucky in 2024, completing eight passes for 110 yards while adding 25 rushing yards. During the 2025 season, Poulos appeared in four games, completing four passes for 19 yards and rushing for 34 yards.

Walker returns after a standout 2025 season in which he started all 13 games and served as a team captain. The Aliquippa, Pa., native recorded 61 tackles, including 37 solo stops and six tackles for loss, while adding two interceptions and one pass breakup. Entering 2026, Walker has earned recognition on the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award and Chuck Bednarik Award preseason watch lists and was also named a nominee for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

Fries returns for his fifth season in Athens after appearing in eight games and making seven starts in 2025. He totaled 54 tackles, including three tackles for loss and 25 solo stops, while recording the first interception of his career against UMass. Fries also earned his second consecutive Academic All-MAC honor following the season and was named to the 2026 Athlon Sports Preseason All-MAC Fourth Team.

Brune enters the 2026 campaign following a breakout sophomore season. The Cologne, Germany, native appeared in all 13 games and rushed for 585 yards and eight touchdowns while recording his first career 100-yard rushing game against Northern Illinois. Brune earned Academic All-MAC honors following the season and was named to the 2026 Athlon Sports Preseason All-MAC Third Team.

Together, the four captains will lead a Bobcat team looking to build on the program's recent success, which includes 40 victories over the previous four seasons, a MAC Championship and a seven-game bowl winning streak.

BOBCATS IN THE NFL
Former Bobcats continue to make their mark at the professional level, with Ohio represented across NFL rosters, rookie minicamps and training camps entering the 2026 season.

Kurtis Rourke was a recent NFL Draft selection when the San Francisco 49ers selected the quarterback in the seventh round of the 2025 NFL Draft. Rourke finished his Ohio career as one of the most accomplished signal callers in program history, leading the Bobcats to back-to-back 10-win seasons in 2022 and 2023 while earning MAC Offensive Player of the Year honors and multiple All-MAC selections. Following his Ohio career, Rourke transferred to Indiana for the 2024 season before beginning his professional career with the 49ers.

Will Kacmarek became the latest Bobcat selected in the NFL Draft when the Miami Dolphins chose the tight end in the third round with the 87th overall pick of the 2026 NFL Draft. Kacmarek appeared in 29 games for Ohio from 2021-23, recording 42 receptions and two touchdowns before transferring to Ohio State. Following the 2025 season, he earned Honorable Mention All-Big Ten recognition with the Buckeyes.

Sieh Bangura earned an invitation to the Tennessee Titans rookie minicamp following a standout 2025 season. Bangura led the Mid-American Conference in rushing yards (1,392), rushing touchdowns (15) and rushing yards per game (107.1). He became the fifth Bobcat to surpass 3,000 career rushing yards and the fifth player in program history to record multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Bangura closed his Ohio career as the 2025 Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl Offensive MVP and an All-MAC First Team selection.

Coleman Owen signed with the Indianapolis Colts as an undrafted free agent following the 2025 NFL Draft and later earned a reserve/future contract with the organization. During his lone season at Ohio in 2024, Owen started all 14 games and set the school record for single-season receiving yards with 1,245. He became just the third Bobcat in program history to surpass 1,000 receiving yards in a season, finishing with 78 receptions and eight receiving touchdowns while earning First Team All-MAC honors.

Adonis Williams Jr. concluded one of the most accomplished careers in recent program history. A two-time team captain, Williams appeared in 46 games and made 32 starts during his Ohio career. He finished with 183 tackles, including 122 solo stops, 12.5 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks. Williams capped off his career by earning Defensive MVP honors at the 2025 Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl and was a three-time Academic All-MAC honoree.

Ohio's NFL presence extended beyond draft picks and rookie minicamps as several former Bobcats competed for opportunities across the league during the 2026 preseason, including Jacoby Jones (Washington Commanders), Roman Parodie (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), Anthony Tyus III (Carolina Panthers), Coleman Owen (Indianapolis Colts) and Will Kacmarek (Miami Dolphins). Parodie recorded an interception during preseason action, while Tyus continued his pursuit of a roster spot after becoming one of Ohio's 1,000-yard rushers and a Second Team All-MAC selection during his lone season in Athens.

BOBCATS IN THE CFL

Quarterback Nathan Rourke returned to the BC Lions for the 2024 season after spending 2023 in the NFL. In his first stint with the CFL (2021-22), Rourke was named Most Outstanding Canadian (Nov. 17, 2022). He is the first BC Lions' quarterback and the third quarterback in CFL history to earn the honor. Upon his return, Rourke became the highest-paid CFL athlete, signing a lucrative contract that includes $200,000 of marketing money, which does not count toward the CFL's salary cap. With 5,290 passing yards on the season, Rourke owns the CFL's single-season record for most passing yards by a Canadian player. His 31 touchdown passes marked the second-most in a single season by a Canadian, trailing only Russ Jackson's 33 set in 1969.

Following the 2025 campaign, Rourke earned Most Outstanding Canadian accolades for the second time, marking his second time capturing the honor. Additionally, Rourke was also named the George Reed Most Outstanding Player. It is the second consecutive season that a Canadian has won the game's most prestigious award. He is the first Canadian quarterback to win both awards since Jackson (1969), joining joins Brady Oliveira, Jon Cornish, Jackson and Tony Gabriel as the only players to capture both honours in the same year.

Running back AJ Ouellette, who quickly became a CFL household name, is currently playing for the Saskatchewan Roughriders. He finished the 2025 season as a two-time Grey Cup champion, helping the Roughriders defeat the Montreal Alouettes, 25-17 (Nov, 16), and was second in the CFL in rushing yards (1,222). Previously, Ouellette played for the Toronto Argonauts, who are the 109th Grey Cup Champions. Defensive tackle Casey Sayles, who was a member of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers at the time, competed in the same Grey Cup. Both Sayles and Ouellette were named 2023 CFL Division All-Stars. Currently, Sayles is on the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

Ohio football alumnus Chip Cox is a part of the 2022 CFL Hall of Fame class, earning the honor in his first year of eligibility. Cox played 13 seasons for the Montreal Alouettes, wrapping up his career with the fourth-highest total defensive tackles in CFL history (979).

Although currently active in the NFL, quarterback Kurtis Rourke was the Saskatchewan Roughriders' third-round pick in the 2025 CFL Draft. Rourke was selected 25th overall.

JOHN HAUSER

Head Coach
5th season at Ohio
Alma Mater: Wittenberg, 2002
Northern Illinois, 2007
Record at Ohio: 40-14

John Hauser was named Ohio football's 31st head coach on Dec. 26, 2025, after serving as the team's interim head coach for the 2025 Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl. He was promoted to associate head coach before the 2024 StaffDNA Cure Bowl. Hauser joined the Bobcats prior to 2022 spring camp as the safeties coach. He was promoted to defensive passing game coordinator in spring 2023 and defensive coordinator in spring 2024.

Under Hauser, the Bobcats closed out the 2025 season with a 17-10 victory over the UNLV Rebels at the Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl. Notably, this win marked Ohio's 40th win in four seasons (2022-25) and extended its bowl game winning streak to seven games. Currently, Ohio owns the second-longest active bowl game winning streak.

As a whole, Ohio's defense is on a three-year run of dominance that Hauser and his returning staff will look to continue. The Bobcats have ranked among the top five defenses in the MAC in terms of points allowed per game each of the last three seasons. In 2023 and 2024, Ohio had the best defense in the conference in terms of scoring, with the 2023 team leading the conference in yardage allowed.

In 2025, the Ohio defense tallied 22 sacks, 12 interceptions, and six forced fumbles. Both Tank Pearson and Jay Crable were recognized at the end of the season with All-MAC honors due to their contributions to the impressive defense.

The 2024 season capped off another historic season for the Bobcats, marking the program's first 11-win season, sixth consecutive bowl victory and their first Mid-American Conference Championship win since 1968. In the MAC Championship against Miami (Ohio), Hauser's defense held the RedHawks to just three points, marking the first time a team hasn't scored a touchdown in the MAC Championship as well as the largest margin of victory (38-3).

The 2023 defense played a crucial role in the team's 10-win season, finishing the season No. 1 in the Mid-American Conference and No. 4 in FBS football. Notably, the defense held Power 5 opponent to only seven points (Sept. 16), Western Michigan (Oct. 21) to their lowest number of rushing yards in the season (79) and set the program record for the most turnovers forced in a bowl game (5) at the 2023 Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Ohio's 2022 defense finished second in the MAC in points allowed per game (21.1), less than a quarter of a point behind the leader. After their seven-game winning streak against MAC opponents, safety Tariq Drake was one of three Bobcats to earn All-MAC Third Team honors.

Previously, he was Miami's cornerbacks coach for eight years and co-defensive coordinator for six years. His first year with Miami was a memorable one, as he helped coach Quinten Rollins, who was a four-year letter-winner on the Miami Basketball team and joined the football team in April for Spring practices. Eight months later, Rollins finished the year with seven interceptions and a MAC Defensive Player of the Year Award. He would later go on to be drafted in the second round of the NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers.

Since then Hauser has continued to produce All-MAC talent. Heath Harding was a two-time All-MAC honoree, capturing first team All-MAC honors in 2017. Harding signed a free agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons. In 2019 Emmanuel Rugama was named third team All-MAC and the MAC Championship Defensive Player of the Game. Rugamba also earned All-MAC in 2019 and 2020. Rugamba signed a free agent contract with the Cleveland Browns. He also coached MAC Defensive Player of the Year and future Green Bay Packer Quinten Rollins.

Prior to Miami, Hauser spent two seasons at The Citadel as the safeties coach after briefly leaving coaching to be the director of player personnel at the University of Illinois for two months. While at The Citadel, Hauser was responsible for the development of Nick Willis, who as a true freshman, earned a spot of the Southern Conference All-Freshman Team.

From 2009-12, he was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Wayne State University, where he also worked with special teams and coordinated recruiting efforts in Michigan and parts of Ohio. While at Wayne State, Hauser oversaw a unit that finished in the top-10 nationally in Division II in scoring defense finished #1 nationally in Sacks (48) , #5 in interceptions (23) , #8 in takeaways (36) and produced four all-conference defensive backs and a pair of All-Americans and 11 First team all-conference defensive players. With Hauser playing an integral role, the Warriors turned the corner from being a program with no prior history of success into one which twice set school records for most wins in a season and advanced to the NCAA Division II title game in 2011. 3 Defensive players Jeremy Jones, Daunte Akra and Raleigh Ross were all free agent acquisitions in the NFL.

Hauser spent 2003-08 with Northern Illinois, starting off as a graduate assistant before becoming their defensive backs coach in 2006. While at Northern Illinois, he helped lead the jjjteam to three straight Mid-American Conference Western Division championships and three bowl appearances and coached All-MAC safety Dustin Utschig.

Hauser started his career in 2002 at his alma mater, Wittenberg University, where he was an assistant coach. While he was a student-athlete at Wittenberg, Hauser was named all-conference three times and earned a spot on the Division III All-American team in 2002. In his four years at Wittenberg, the team combined to finish 40-6 overall.

He and his wife, Seanna, have a daughter, McKenna, a son, John Jr. ("JJ") and twins, Jackson and Maria. at his alma mater, Wittenberg University, where he was an assistant coach. While he was a student-athlete at Wittenberg, Hauser was named all-conference three times and earned a spot on the Division III All-American team in 2002.
